His heart trembled slightly, and his heart ached.

“Alright, it’s all over. Don’t hide anything from me in the future.” Johny said in a gentle tone.

His affection also showed in his gentleness.

“They all said that I took advantage of you to save my father,” Ceres said as she raised her tearful eyes.

“I only believe you,” Johny said expressionlessly.

Ceres looked at Johny’s sincere gaze and smiled. This man had said that he believed in her, even if the entire world did not do so.

Ceres suddenly thought of herself. Even if the whole world said that her father was a murderer, she still believed in her father. Now this kind of trust was given to her by this man who she had only known for a few months.

“They also said...” Ceres’s eyelids lowered.

Johny put a finger on Ceres’s lips. “Don’t worry about anything. I will handle it.”

Ceres looked at Johny and felt inexplicably at ease. Even if she didn’t say anything, he knew everything.

“I’ve already gotten the household register. We will apply for a marriage certificate tomorrow.” Johny said, stroking Ceres’s hair.

Johny felt a little guilty about this. After all, he had promised Ceres that he would not sleep with her until they got married, but he had broken his promise.

Cere and lay in Johny’s arms, surprised sweet.

“You said that you would not have sex with me before the marriage registration. You broke your promise.”

Johny was speechless for a moment. He thought that Ceres would not mention this.

“Alright, I owe you.”

“How will you make up for it?”

"With the rest of my life," Johnny whispered to Ceres.

Ceres only felt her ears heat up. Before she could answer, Johnny kissed her forehead. Then it went along her forehead to the bridge of her nose, and then to the tip of her nose. Finally, he kissed her lips.

Johnny suddenly felt Ceres's body tremble, and he Visit to read the newest content, everyone! "Can we not make love today?"

Johnny knew that he had scared her. Her mother died when she was a child. So Visit to read the newest content, everyone! was so rude that day and scared her quite badly.

"Sure, go to sleep. Good night." Johnny gently kissed Ceres on the lips.

Ceres smiled at Johnny. "Goodnight."

This night, Ceres slept soundly in Johnny's embrace. This was probably the most peaceful night she had.

The next morning, Johnny brought Ceres to the Civil Affairs Bureau. Originally, the Civil Affairs Bureau was not open on Saturday, but Johnny called in advance so someone came over.

When she signed the form, Ceres still Visit to read the newest content, everyone! held the marriage certificate did she realize that everything was true.

She had married Johnny.

Sitting in the car, she held the certificate and looked back and forth. There were few words on it and could be finished in two minutes. However, she had been staring at it for half an hour and smiled.

"Johnny, with this, will you give me half of your property when we divorce in the future?"

The driver and bodyguard sitting in the front row held back Visit to read the newest content, everyone! and knocked it on Ceres's head. "In principle, When I divorce, I should do so."

Ceres immediately covered her mouth and snickered, "Doesn't that mean I will be rich."

"But I can also divorce you without any loss."

Ceres's smile froze on her face, and she pursed her lips.

Johnny touched Ceres's head and laughed. Then, he snatched the marriage certificate from Ceres's hands. "Give it to me."

"I haven't finished reading it yet! Besides, it's mine!" Ceres said and tried to take it back.

"I'll keep it for you so you won't think nonsense."

"What nonsense do I think?"

"So why do you think about the division of property on the first day we getting married?"

"Just kidding." Ceres looked at Johnny with a flattering expression.

"If you dare to talk nonsense again, I will teach you a lesson!"

Johnny lowered his head to look at the marriage certificates. This was only the first step. Next, he wanted the Winsors to accept Ceres and let her become the hostess.

No one dared to look down on her, and no one dared to bully her!

Because they get up early today, so Ceres went back to sleep once she got home.

Bob and Bill came over. They had a Wechat group. Johnny posted his marriage certificate with Ceres in the group today. Bob and Bill were dumbfounded and immediately rushed over.

Bill looked at Johnny's marriage certificate carefully. "Holy sh*t! You are yoked in marriage now!"

"It is not the yoke of matrimony but the cage of life." Bob elbowed Bill,

And chuckled.

Johnny was very unhappy with their words. He directly snatched the certificate from Bill's hands.

"What do you know?"

"Brother, I admire you. You actually got married. Anyway, I don't want to get married for the rest of my life. It's painful. It was reported that seventy percent of the people who got married regretted."

"Isn't there still thirty percent left?" Bob smiled.

"The remaining thirty percent is divorced." Bill patted Johnny on the shoulder. "Brother, I'll mourn for you for three minutes. Tonight, can you ask Ceres to make something delicious in memory of your freedom."

Johnny glared at Bill fiercely.

It was only then that Bill realized that he had not seen Ceres. "Hey, where's Ceres?"

"Sleep upstairs. Don't disturb her."

At this time, Ceres had already gotten up. Hearing their voices, she prepared to go back room and change her clothes.

"Oh..." Bill gave a meaningful sigh, "Sleep more during the day and you can have a good night together! Hahaha..."

Hearing Bill's words, Ceres's face immediately flushed.

"Brother, do you want me to teach you some tips? These are my many years of experience!"

"Shut up!" Johnny glanced at Bill.

When Bob saw Ceres, he immediately coughed. Ceres hurriedly ran to the kitchen, "I'll go cook a few dishes!"

"Ceres, don't worry, my brother won't be as rude as the last time!"

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 102

Ceres was even more ashamed.

Johnny slapped Bill on the back of his head.

"I only said it for you. You should thank me!" Bill laughed.

In the evening, the few ate a meal together and drank wine. During the meal, Ceres found out that Bob and Bill both lived in this community. It was no wonder that they could almost come whenever they were called.

Bob and Bill also knew how to behave in a delicate situation. They left early.

Only Johnny and Ceres were left. Ceres could not resist Bill's urge to drink and drank a few more cups, but she was not drunk yet.

"I was too embarrassed to eat when they were here just now." Ceres quickly picked up a piece of meat and put it into her mouth.

"Ceres, give me your hand." Johnny looked at her with a dazed expression.

"What are you doing?" Ceres reached out her left hand to Johnny while eating.

Johnny took out a ring box from his pocket and put the ring on Ceres's third finger.

Ceres looked at her left hand. The diamond ring was extremely eye-catching under the light of the crystal lamp. She looked at Johnny in astonishment and then looked back at her ring.

"For ... me?"

"Yes."

Johnny only replied with a "Yes," and then there was nothing.

Ceres looked at the ring. She felt sweet.

In the evening, Johnny went to take a shower. Ceres lay on the bed and stretched out her hand to look at her ring. She looked at the ring left and right, unwilling to part with it.

She had never thought that she would be able to wear a wedding ring in her life and even register her marriage. Moreover, her man was such a mighty man, so outstanding!

When Johnny came out of the bathroom, he saw a smirk on Ceres's lips as she looked at the diamond ring in her hand.

"Are you that happy?"

Johnny still felt a little sorry because he didn't have enough time. He had a good diamond stone, but it was a pity that it would take a long time to read the newest content, everyone! he went to the jewelry store to buy one.

Although it was expensive, he felt that such a diamond ring was not Visit to read the newest content, everyone! give her another ring when they got married.

"Of course I'm happy. I've never seen such a big diamond ring! Johnny, what kind of luck do you think I have to marry you? I can't believe I can get married and have such a big diamond ring!" Ceres turned her gaze to Johnny.

Ceres let out a long breath, "I probably saved the world in my past life. Only then did I have such good luck."

Johnny looked at Ceres. She only Visit to read the newest content, everyone! back luck in the first half of her life?

There were so many people in the world, but only she had never seen her mother since she was born. It was not easy for her to live with her father until she was twelve. But her father was imprisoned again, and she could only live with her mother and stepfather. She was bullied and had to cover up her beauty to survive.

"When we hold the wedding, I will give you another Visit to read the newest content, everyone! Will we still hold a wedding?"

Johny rolled his eyes at Ceres, "Of course."

Ceres smiled, "But I feel that this ring is already very good. Although I know that you are very rich, it's still better to save a little."

Johny sat by the bed, and Ceres immediately sat up straight, "I have something to tell you."

"Speak."

"I'm still in school now, so I don't want others to know about our marriage. Why don't we hide our marriage?" Ceres asked tentatively.

"What? Do you think it's embarrassing to marry a man ten years older than you?" Johny was displeased.

"No, no, no, that's not what I meant. I just think that there will be a lot of unnecessary trouble. After all, you are the president of the Winsor Group. Everyone may seek convenience from me and even curry favor with me. I don't want that. I want to rely on myself."

Of course, Johny understood what Ceres meant. She had her thoughts. He should not restrain her. She should have a wider sky.

He also had plans to hide his marriage. After all, Ceres was now not qualified to be the head wife of the Winsor family. He did not intend to let Jack know about his marriage yet.

"Alright."

Ceres hugged Johny's neck and kissed him on the face, "I knew you would agree!"

Johny looked at Ceres's delicate little face and couldn't help but move closer. They kissed wantonly, and the temperature in the room began to slowly rise.

"Ceres, I want you," Johny said as he pressed Ceres down.

Ceres was still somewhat resistant to this kind of thing. After all, the experience from last time was indeed too bad. She was still a little afraid.

"I ... I'm scared."

"I will be gentle, okay? Trust me." Johnny's hot breath blew into Ceres's ear, making her feel hot. She hid in his arms and nodded shyly.

This night was a long one.

When she woke up the next day, Ceres felt sore all over her body, as if her entire body was going to fall apart.

Thinking of last night, she could not help but blush again, all the way to her ears.

It really was an exciting experience.

Johnny was indeed very gentle. He erased her bad memories of this kind of thing, but wasn't he ... oversexed?

"Why is your face so red in the morning? Are you trying to recall something?"

Hearing Johnny's voice, Ceres immediately pulled up the quilt to cover her face. She thought Johnny had already gotten up! Every time she got up, the bedside was empty. She did not expect him to be here today!

Johnny looked at the little girl and couldn't help but laugh, "Were you satisfied last night, my little wife?"

"Stop talking!"

"Alright, then I'll say you are very satisfied. Get up!" Johnny got up from the bed and stretched. He was in a good mood.

Ceres slowly poked her head out and lowered her head with a smile on her face.

Mike was discharged in a few days. He couldn't find his broken finger, so he could just let it be. He sat on the sofa, looked up at the ceiling, and recalled the past.

Sally poured him a cup of tea and tried not to look at Mike's finger, "Mike, I just made you tea. Try it."

"Where is Mary?"

Mike sat up straight and was about to pick up the teacup. But he forgot that his pinky was gone and was not used to it for a while. The teacup fell to the ground directly.

"It's fine. It didn't scald you, did it?" Sally hurriedly ordered the servants to clean up.

At this moment, Mary came downstairs.

"Dad..."

"Come here, I have something to tell you." Mike looked at Mary.

Mary walked timidly to Mike.

She had always felt guilty towards Mike, who had cherished her since she was young. She was also a little scared after being slapped.

"Dad, what's up?"

"What are you and Henry going to do?" Mike went straight to the point. He could not wait to take revenge.

"I ... I don't know either." Mary lowered her head. Johny must have registered for marriage with Ceres. Moreover, judging from Johny's attitude, he probably profoundly hated Mary. As a result, Mary could rely on nobody but Henry, but Henry had not contacted her recently.

"I know you are ambitious. You want to marry Johny because he is the president of the Winsor Group. You are very outstanding, so you should marry someone more excellent."

Mike had also thought that it would be great if Mary got married to Johny. After all, Johny had woken up and stood up.

However, no one could turn the clock back. One wrong step always ruined the whole thing. Thus, he had to embark on a new course.

"But..." Mike raised his left hand. His broken finger was very eye-catching because it looked shocking and horrible. "You came back from the dead, Mary. It's time for you to grow up."

"Dad, I will. I will avenge you." Mary solemnly nodded.

"If you want revenge, there is only one way. Marry Henry right now and get pregnant. Your child will be Jack's first grandson!"

His words gave Sally and Mary a fright.

Not to mention getting pregnant, Mary did not even think about marrying Henry.

She was just twenty years old. She was still a student and was in her prime, so she didn't want to get married.

"Without the marriage as a guarantee, Henry will not believe us. Of course, on the other hand, I will not trust him. Only with the chain of marriage can we tie each other and fight together against others!"

Mike naturally did not want his beloved daughter to get married so early. She was the apple of his eye and he cherished her so much that he nearly protected her from anything harmful. He was almost bummed out at the thought that she would leave home after getting married.

But there were no alternatives.

"Johny is busy Visit to read the newest content, everyone! placed many confidants in the Winsor Group in the three years when Johny was in a vegetative state. Therefore, it is not Visit to read the newest content, everyone! He can't expose his weakness. However, he shows so much love to Ceres, so Ceres is his weakness."

"He is smart and he won't want a child now, so you should be pregnant earlier than Ceres. That will make a huge difference!"

Mary was unwilling, so she pouted and said, "But Dad, I'm just twenty years old. I have to study at school. I also want to study abroad!"

"It doesn't matter if you go to school or study abroad. You can Visit to read the newest content, everyone! "Yes. For a family like us, it is right to have a child early. You needn't take care of your child. You can do whatever you want, not to mention going to school or studying abroad. You are young and fit, so you can recover quickly after the child is born."

"Well, if you insist. Once Ceres gets pregnant, she will enjoy a higher status in the Winsor family!" Mike lectured.

"No, I don't want it! I don't want that ugly woman Visit to read the newest content, everyone! made up her mind.

She would never keep her head down before Ceres. Instead, she will defeat Ceres!

On Monday, Ceres came to school listlessly. She was almost asleep during the first lesson. At noon, when going to the canteen with Alice, she kept yawning.

When they sat face to face and had lunch, Ceres could hardly keep her eyes open.

Seeing the hickey on Ceres's neck, Alice laughed. Hearing this, Ceres raised her eyelids. "What are you laughing at?"

"You need to be careful." Alice pointed at her neck. "I know you love each other very much."

Ceres immediately looked down and saw the hickey on her neck!

She lifted her collar to cover it at once!

How embarrassing!

Alice covered her mouth and snickered, saying in a low voice, "You must have hot sex these days, right?"

Ceres wished the floor would open up and swallow her. They were relatively free last weekend, and they had just got married, so Johny was a little crazy about sex.

Thinking of what had happened, she flushed right away!

"Can we drop this?"

Alice looked at Ceres's embarrassed face and hurriedly leaned closer. "Then have you taken any measures?"

"Take measures? What measures?"

Alice shrugged and replied, "Contraceptive measures. It sounds you didn't. Then you must be careful not to get pregnant. You're a student. If you get pregnant, do you want this child or not?"

Ceres had not considered this. She did not want to have a child now because she had many things to do.

"I should discuss this with him."

"It's best to communicate in advance so that you won't quarrel. If you don't want a child, you should take contraceptive precautions. Otherwise, you would suffer. As a woman, you should cherish your body."

Every time they talked about this topic, Ceres felt sad. Her mother had been absent since she was young. When she came to her mother, her mother did nothing. Thus, no one had taught Ceres these things.

After they finished eating, they walked towards the place where the plates were kept, only to bump into Mary.

"I'm sorry!" Ceres apologized before she could look up at Mary.

"Apology doesn't get you off," Mary said with an arrogant look.

Ceres snorted. "Then what do you want to do?"

Unexpectedly, Mary grinned and said, "I'm always generous, so I never bear grudges!"

Ceres and Alice looked at each other in dismay. In normal times, Mary would cause a scene and spare no one. Nonetheless, she did not pursue the matter this time.

After being taught a lesson, she did not dare to be so unreasonable as before.

"By the way, Ceres, what's wrong with your face?" Mary stared at the red spots on Ceres's face.

That day in the bar, Ceres had no red spots, but now Mary saw them again, so Mary couldn't figure out what happened.

"My face? I used a super good ointment! Do you want to know something about it?" Ceres said and left with Alice.

Mary suddenly stomped her foot with anger.

She was irritated at the hickey on Ceres's neck!

Mary realized she must think of a way!

'What if Ceres gets pregnant earlier than me?'

'My child must be Jack's first grandson!'

In the blink of an eye, after finishing the school exams, Ceres started her winter vacation. Nevertheless, the end of the year was John's busiest time.

Every branch company would carry out the end-of-year inventories and make preliminary plans for the coming year. In addition, there was also the commendation of the employees and the annual meetings. Thus, Johny was very busy.

On this day, Johny didn't return home until ten o'clock because of the meeting. Recently, he had been busy with meetings. Hardly had he started to have sex with Ceres when he had no time.

It had been a few days since the winter vacation began. However, Alice didn't return home until today, so Ceres had been staying at school with Alice these days. Finally, she saw Alice off at the station.

When Johny returned home and saw that Ceres was looking at her phone on the bed, he smiled at once. "Why are you still up?"

Ceres sat up. "I'm waiting for you."

"Very well," Johny said softly before walking to the bed. "By the way, I've arranged for someone to handle your father's case. I hope that you can get mentally prepared."

Hearing this, Ceres immediately became nervous.

"The evidence against him is strong, so he will be sentenced soon. It is very difficult to reopen the case unless we find some new evidence or there is something secondary. If not, the retrial won't be approved."

The smile on Ceres's face vanished. She knew that it was difficult, but it was much harder than she thought.

"I also hope you can understand that, if he is not sentenced, the case can be subject to manipulation. However, once the process is over and he is sentenced, we can do nothing but follow the law."

Ceres nodded. "I see."

"So don't worry. I will ask someone to keep an eye on this, but the investigation always takes a long time."

Ceres nodded vigorously, "Okay. I believe you!"

Anyhow, there was hope. Although it was a little slower, she believed that it would end well.

Johny gently rubbed Ceres's head. "I'm going to take a shower! Wait for me!"

His words aroused many thoughts in Ceres's mind.

In case she would fall asleep, Johny finished the shower in five minutes to read the newest content, everyone! as he could, but Ceres snuggled against his chest.

"What's up?"

"I think there is something we need to discuss."

"What is it? I want to read the newest content, everyone! hard to speak. She was just twenty-one years old, but she was already married, so she wanted to discuss it with him. "I'm afraid I will get pregnant if we keep doing so. Should we take any contraceptive precautions?"

Johny was stunned. He had considered this, but he did not expect Ceres to bring it up.

"What do you think?"

"Of course, I can't have a baby now. I still have to go to school. If I hadn't married you, I would visit to read the newest content, everyone! I will do an internship in the Eagle Group. I have a lot of things to do, so I don't want a child so early, and neither am I ready to be a mother."

Ceres said what she was thinking.

Johny knew her well. "Ceres, I have to tell you. I'm already thirty years old."

He was thirty years old. Many men at this age usually had a child who could go to school.

Thus, Johny was also very conflicted about this. On one hand, his current goal was to be in charge of the Winsor Group. He could not expose his weakness to Henry or other forces. Ceres was currently his weakness. If he had a child, he could spare no time to protect the child.

But he was very eager for a child. After all, he was thirty years old. He was born when Jack was thirty years old, so Jack always regretted getting married late and having a baby late. Otherwise, many things would have been under Jack's control.

Ceres got dismayed at once.

For the first time, she realized the trouble caused by the age gap.

Her life had just started while he needed a stable life.

"Let nature take its course. There is only a 20% chance of getting pregnant every month. Only 10% of the couples will get married in one to two months. 50% will get pregnant within six months. 20% will get pregnant within a year, and 10% will get pregnant within two years."

Ceres looked at Johny in confusion. "What about the other 10%?"

"They suffer from infertility."

Seeing that Ceres was still a little worried, Johny continued, "Don't worry. Even if you are pregnant, we can ask the servant to look after our child. You don't need to worry about that. Instead, you can do anything you want to do."

However, Ceres shook her head. "No, I must take care of my child myself. I don't want him to feel like he has no mother."

Johny was touched.

He saw so many similarities between his childhood and hers. When he was a child, he often felt that he was an orphan. He seldom saw his father or mother but the servants at home.

"Alright."

"Just let it run its course." Ceres accepted Johny's suggestion in peace.

Anyway, it had been just two months since they began to sleep together, so she thought she couldn't get pregnant so early.

"Are you done? I'm going to start." Johny said as he kissed Ceres's ear. He found that Ceres's ears were very sensitive.

"Turn off the lights!" Ceres cried out and hid into the quilt.

The next day, Johny was still in high spirits when he got up, but Ceres could hardly open her eyes.

She was in a daze as she snuggled in the quilt. She was almost worn out. If she hadn't asked him to stop, Johny would have had sex with her for the whole night.

Johny leaned close to her ear and said, "I'm going to work."

"Okay."

"When I'm on vacation, you should exercise with me. You need to increase your strength."

"No!" Ceres shrank into the quilt in pain.

Seeing that she was bashful, Johny left in satisfaction.

When Bob arrived at the building of the Winsor Group early in the morning, he found Johny was in a good mood.

"It seems you get along well with Ceres."

Johny pursed his lips with a smile and changed the subject. "What brings you to see me?"

"I've found some clues about the assassination last time. The killer comes from an organization with a code name 9. It is a very powerful international assassination organization. It has excellent weapons and charges very much. Its killers never do business with strangers.

Johny narrowed his eyes. "Do you mean it's Henry?"

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 105

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

"He is not that powerful." Johny said, then sneered, "It seems that there are quite a few people who want to kill me."

"But if it wasn't Henry, who else could it be? If the man is an enemy of the entire Winsor family, then he should assassinate Henry. Although you are in this position, but..."

The general belief was that the Winsor family would not be handed to a cripple, and it was only a matter of time before Henry replaces Johny. Therefore, Henry is a more important target.

But Johny was confident, "Let's put it off. Bob, thank you. The new year is coming. Take a rest and enjoy your holiday."

His confidence soothed Bob, who asked, "You seem to know who it is?"

"I don't know. I am just guessing."

"Well, since you got a plan, I can rest assured now. But..." Bob smiled at Johny and said, "There will be good news from Ceres soon, right?"

Johny picked up the book on the table and threw it at Bob.

Bob left with a smile.

However, Johny was indeed planning to speed up the progress for Ceres. After all, time and tide wait for no one.

A few days later, Johny's holiday also began. However, it was already the day before New Year's Eve. Ceres proposed to go back to Evian Town for the New Year. The quaint town had a better festive atmosphere than the city. Johny had no objections.

On New Year's Eve, Johny had to be with the Winsor family. But Evian Town was far away from it. So, he was ready to leave after lunch.

Ceres took a nap in Johny's arms. Johny looked at the time. It would take four hours to get to the Winsor family's old mansion from here. He was afraid that when he got home, it would be too late and might arouse suspicion.

"Ceres, Ceres." Johnny pinched Ceres's face.

"What's wrong?" Ceres opened her eyes in a daze.

"I have to return to the old house." Johnny was very reluctant to tell this fact to Ceres. He knew that Ceres would be very sad.

Ceres was stunned for a moment. She had forgotten that Johnny was not like her, who had no family. He was going home to celebrate the New Year.

"Okay."

Ceres's understanding and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! her. He could feel how happy Ceres had been during the past few days. She had not properly celebrated a new year Visit to read the newest content, everyone! back early tomorrow."

"Don't worry, I haven't slept in for a long time. I will get up late tomorrow."

"Then I'm going."

After sending off Johnny reluctantly, the smile on Ceres's face disappeared.

She thought that she won't be alone during this Spring Festival. Every Spring Festival in the Morrise family, she was extremely busy because many servants would go home. And she stayed there and took up most of the work.

She longed for the happiness of the Morrise family. She Visit to read the newest content, everyone! year, but now...

However, she didn't blame Johnny. She knew that Johnny had his difficulties.

Some servants in this villa had also come home. It was much quieter than usual. The new servant Cindy and Ceres were about the same age. She ran up and shouted happily, "Mrs. Winsor, I heard that the town is beautiful. Let's go and see!"

Ceres had no other thing to do and so she went to the town with Cindy.

The whole town was in a Visit to read the newest content, everyone! there, and every household was festooned with lights and couplets.

Ceres suddenly remembered when her father was still with her, every new year in their village was as clamorous as here and now.

"Mrs. Winsor, this is all prepared by Mr. Winsor. He was afraid that you would be lonely, so he decorated this place beautifully!"

Ceres laughed. It turned out that he had done so much for her.

The two of them bought candied haws in the market and walked around while eating. They also bought a lot of toys before returning home.

After returning, Ceres gathered all the servants in the house to make the dinner, especially the dumplings. The villa became lively.

Mia timidly stood at the door. When she saw Ceres, she was still a little blushful. She was darker and thinner now. Outdoor labor was heavy and toilsome.

"I'm really sorry about what happened before," she whispered.

Ceres felt sympathetic for her. After all, this was New Year's Eve. She said, "It's fine. The past is past. Join us!"

Mia joined the others.

Ceres brought these servants with her for a sumptuous dinner. After eating, she allowed everyone to watch the gala show in the living room.

The room was bustling with noise and excitement.

In the Winsor family.

The crystal chandelier illuminated the entire restaurant as if it was daytime, and the tableware reflected silver light.

The dishes on the table were also very sumptuous. Although there were only four people, the dishes covered the whole table.

Jack was usually taciturn. Johnny was indifferent. Zara and Henry were therefore reserved. There was almost no sound on the table.

"Dad, let me give you a toast. I wish you good health in the new year." Henry raised his glass.

Jack smiled. Although he was disappointed that Henry had not inherited his intelligence, it was precisely Henry who made him feel the warmth between a father and son.

"Thank you." Jack drank a glass of wine.

Zara hastily added, "I also wish Jack healthy and sage in the new year. Celia is far away in France. She asked me to toast you on her behalf."

Jack and Zara had a toast.

Johnny was unmoved. He had never liked this kind of interaction. This year, his heart was not in it because he was concerned about Ceres.

After the toast, everyone ate happily.

Zara and Henry exchanged a meaningful look. Then, Henry said, "Dad, today is a good day. I have good news to tell you."

"What good news? Tell me." Maybe it was because of the Spring Festival, Jack was less serious than before and seemed to be in a good mood.

"I want to get married."

"Oh?"

"Henry still regrets the last time he made you angry. He wants to redeem. A marriage could help him constrain himself." Zara hurriedly chimed in.

"May I know which family she is from?"

Henry looked at Johnny meaningfully. "She is..."
