Chapter 21 You Should Be Cuckolded

The masked man snorted. "You just said you were not curious."

"I lied! Let me take a look, just one!"

Looking at Ceres's appearance, the masked man chuckled. "You are very honest, but it is too late."

Ceres suddenly shook off the masked man's arm. "Not funny. You teased me."

Looking at Ceres's appearance, the masked man smiled faintly. And he found that she was still very cute when she was angry. After that, they were busy with their own things, and no one paid attention to the other.

What Ceres did not expect was that being in the hospital was more boring than being in Evian Town. She could not even get out of the room for the whole day. Although it was a VIP ward with all the facilities and computer TV, she did not know what she would do.

So, she lay prone on the balcony in a daze.

The masked man had been using his mobile phone to deal with some problems. He looked up at Ceres on the balcony and took a coat and put it on Ceres.

"You've got a cold." His tone was full of scolding her.

Ceres glanced at him and did not bother to argue with him.

When the masked man found that Ceres seemed to have something on her mind, he asked, "What are you thinking of?"

"I miss my father. Look how beautiful the starry sky is today. In the past, my father and I used to lie on the grass to count the stars and catch fireflies. In this season, there are many mosquitoes at night. When I go home, my father will patiently and carefully give me medicine."

Ceres smiled bitterly.

"You can go home."

Ceres's smile on her face became more and more bitter. Where would she go home? She did not have a home. At the age of twelve, when her father went to prison, she's got no more home.

"Near here is the eye of the Imperial City."

Ceres suddenly turned to look at the masked man. "Is that so?"

The Eye of the Imperial City referred to the largest Ferris wheel in the Imperial City. This was the largest Ferris wheel in Asia. It spanned the Milky River, the mother river of the Imperial City. It was called the Eye of the Imperial City by people in the city.

The masked man nodded.

"Then let's go and try, I have not tried it yet!"

The masked man came to the eye of Imperial City with Ceres. At night, the eye of Imperial City kept changing colors, overriding the Milky River, which was beautiful.

Ceres kept taking pictures with her mobile phone. She never came out to see the eye of Imperial City, not to mention in the middle of the night. It was not the peak tourist season, so there were just a few people who came to ride the Ferris wheel, and they soon bought tickets.

"How long does this turn one circle?" Ceres asked.

"It will take more than half an hour." The masked man replied.

"Then I have to go to the toilet first!" Ceres threw the tickets to the masked man and immediately ran towards the bathroom.

As soon as the masked man turned around, someone patted him on the shoulder.

"I caught you again!"

It was Bill again.

The masked man snorted coldly. "How can I see you everywhere?"

"How romantic it is to have sex here." Bill squeezed his eyes towards the masked man.

"Oh, I cannot believe you are so fast."

Bill suddenly choked. "Johny, well, haven't we discussed this yet. I haven't seen you for a long time. Did you come here to play with that ugly monster again? Johny, your taste is too bad, right? I understand that you have been single for 29 years and have never touched a woman. Do you want to find a good woman? Come look for me. Whatever kind of woman you want, I can offer you?"

"Fuck off!" The masked man looked disgusted.

Bill patted the masked man's chest. "Johnny, fortunately, you don't have your bodyguard with you otherwise you should wear a cuckold!"

Chapter 22 Ferris Wheel Incident

Bill roared off. After a while, he knew it was time for Johnny to be angry so he left. But his words awakened the dreamer. The masked man suddenly felt Bill's words were reasonable, and it seemed that Ceres was too close to him as a bodyguard.

Bill just left, Ceres came back with two cups of milk tea, and one cup was handed to the masked man. "I went to a toilet and found that the tea shop over there was open, so I bought two cups of milk tea."

The masked man threw the milk tea into the trash can. "I do not drink this kind of thing."

"Hey, you have gone too far! If you will not drink it, do not throw it away! What a waste!"

Ceres looked at the lost milk tea and felt distressed. It was bought with money. With her own money, and it was not easy for her to make money! But then it had been thrown away, and there was no way to bring it back. So, she just had to complain and sit on the Ferris wheel.

The scenery of the Ferris wheel suddenly made Ceres forget that episode. With the rotation of the Ferris wheel rising, the whole city was getting farther and farther away. Overlooking the whole Imperial City, and the stars kept shining. The gorgeous scenery made Ceres stand up.

"It's so beautiful!"

Ceres could not help screaming.

The masked men felt nothing. They often fly before, and he had seen such sceneries.

“Come and see it quickly.” Ceres forced the masked man and pulled him up, and the masked man had to stand with her and look at the scenery outside the window.

Suddenly, the Ferris wheel shook, and two people who were standing suddenly shook. Ceres let out a cry and directly hit the masked man. The masked man subconsciously hugged Ceres’s waist, and they fell on their seats without warning.

Different from the last fall, that time Ceres was below. The Ferris wheel suddenly stopped. Ceres waited for a moment while looking at the masked man. His sunglasses fell in panic. Although they could not see each other clearly, they still stared at each other’s eyes and waited for a while. They were face to face.

His hand was still around her waist, and they were close to each other. In the dark, the woman’s heartbeat seemed to hit his heart. The masked man suddenly lowered his head slowly, and Ceres remained motionless. Ceres could certainly feel the change of the man!

In the dark, they could both seem to hear each other’s heartbeats, one strong and the other clashing like a fawn. Their shortness of breath was intertwined. The masked man slowly took off his mask, and his lips moved down slowly. Although Ceres had no experience in kissing, wasn’t this the plot in TV dramas and movies? Of course, she could guess what he wanted.

But at that moment, Ceres could not move and seemed to be looking forward to something. Just as his lips were about to touch hers, the Ferris wheel moved again. Suddenly shaking, his head suddenly hit the door panel. Due to the shaking, Ceres’s milk tea poured out, flowing all over her. She got up at once and quickly shook her clothes.

When she looked at the masked man again, he had already put on his sunglasses and mask. Two people sat down as if nothing had happened at that time.

The Ferris wheel soon arrived, and when it went down, the staff kept apologizing, saying that there was a little accident and sent some small gifts to make compensations. On the way back, neither of them said a word.

Ceres was transfused for two days and was going to be discharged from the hospital. Her fever subsided, so there was no need to stay in the hospital. Moreover, since the Ferris wheel incident, there was always a little embarrassment between her and the masked man.

Back in Evian Town, Ceres made a gift she was going to give the masked man. She kept typing the code on the computer. The Ferris wheel incident also gave Ceres a wake-up call. She and the masked man could not go too close. After all, she was the wife of Johny in the name. If something happened to her and the masked man, what is the difference between her and those servants who abuse and bully Johny?

After writing it, she clicked Save and Upload. After waiting for three nights in a row, the masked man finally came.

Chapter 23 Smart Egg

"Are you waiting for me?"

Ceres quickly shook her head hard. "No, I'm not."

He knew she was lying.

He did show up because he just did not let her see him. He knew that she came to the balcony at the same time every day as if she's waiting for him. He did not want to show up, but he could not bear to keep her waiting, so he came to her anyway.

"Hey, guess. If you guess it right, I will give you the gift I owed you the last time. If you guess wrong, there will be no gift!"

Ceres tried to break the embarrassment between them.

The masked man just looked at her quietly.

"Who has longer eyelashes, Johnny or I?"

"You." The masked man blurted out.

Ceres felt quite boring. "You guessed it right at once. Okay then, I'll give you a unique gift in the world."

Ceres took out an egg-like thing from her pocket and handed it to the masked man.

The masked man looked at the egg in his hand and was puzzled. "Egg!"

"That's not an ordinary egg. It is a smart egg. Because of limited conditions and limited time, and it can only be made into such a simple appearance. You should hold it gently."

The masked man gently shook the smart egg according to Ceres's instructions. "So, what happens now?"

When the voice just fell, the smart egg emitted a faint light. "Automatic recognition is successful, master. I have remembered your voice, body temperature, fingerprints, and the micro-current in your palm. From now on, you will be my master."

The masked man looked at Ceres.

Ceres seemed to be proud. "Because of the limited time, I can only set a few functions, but I will not introduce it to you. Just ask it yourself. I'll go back to sleep now. Good night!"

Ceres went back to the room.

The masked man returned to the room with the smart egg, and he wanted to see what functions the smart egg had. Before he started, the smart egg started the program automatically.

"Mr. Johnny, my creator has given me some words to convey to you."

This is Ceres's particular programming. The masked man quietly looked at the glowing smart egg.

"Go ahead."

"The truth is, I truly like you, but I have married Johnny. Although he is in a vegetative state, I cannot do anything to wrong him, so let us get along like ordinary friends."

The masked man smiled. It turned out that Ceres still knew what to do and what not to do...

When the alarm clock rang in the morning, Ceres reached out to turn it off and opened her eyes to see the date displayed on the mobile phone.

Time passed quickly.

Today was a special day for her.

It was her birthday.

It seemed that after her father went to prison, she came to the Morris's house. Since then, she had never had a birthday again.

On the Facebook of her mobile phone, she saw the message sent by Alice and Kirs at midnight.

"Happy birthday, Ceres! Although I do not know what happened to you, I am always waiting for you to come back. You will positively come back, right?" It was from Alice.

"Happy birthday, Ceres! I miss you very much!" Kirs greeted her with these words.

Seeing their messages, Ceres could not help but cry, and some people truly remembered her birthday.

She suddenly got up and thought to herself. "Why don't I give myself a birthday celebration today?"

As usual, she tidied up Johny properly and then began to make birthday cakes for herself when she was fine in the afternoon. At dinner, she made herself longevity noodles, and she especially left a bowl and put it in an insulated box for the bodyguard to have supper.

Since she gave the smart egg to the bodyguard, her mind returned to the past. They often chatted on the balcony or something, as if nothing happened on the Ferris wheel.

The masked man came to the balcony as usual.

"Today is my birthday, and I don't have any friends here. Will you accompany me on my birthday?" Ceres knew that the masked man would not refuse her.

Ceres faced a difficult problem, namely where to celebrate her birthday?

"It is not appropriate to go to my room, and Johny's room is even more inappropriate. It always feels awkward to go to the living room. Where can we go?"

"I know a place. Come with me." The masked man said.

What Ceres didn't expect was that the masked man took her to the roof!

It was night, the stars were all over the night sky, and the cool breeze was blowing gently, which was very pleasant.

Ceres arranged things carefully, she made cake and inserted the candles. After searching for a long time, she only found such a candle and lit it. She touched the arm of the masked man. "You should sing me a birthday song."

The masked man said coldly, "I can't sing."

"Cut it out, who can't sing a birthday song? Or don't you want to sing? If you don't want to sing, then I'll sing by myself. You should wish me a happy birthday!"

The candle flickered, which shone on Ceres's beautiful face. The masked man looked at her quietly, and the smile on her face was not contaminated with half the filth of the world. She's so innocent, so clean, and so beautiful. That was probably the cleanest and most innocent smile he had ever seen!

"I want to make a wish!" Ceres pressed his hands to hers, closing her eyes.

She made a wish silently in her heart.

The masked man just looked at her quietly. She was different from all the girls he had met.

Ceres made a good wish and blew out the candle in one breath. Then she took out the prepared tableware and cut a cake for the masked man. "Here you go, the cake I made is delicious."

They sat side by side on the roof, quietly eating cake under the stars.

Suddenly Ceres stopped eating. "I haven't had a birthday party like this for over eight years. My father used to make birthday cakes for me on my birthday, but the birthday cakes he made were not delicious at all."

Ceres bowed her head and smiled with bitterness in her smile.

She seemed to be talking to herself, "Do you know that? If I hadn't married Johny, today will be the first time in my life to fly to Britain on the other side of the ocean, learn from Professor Steve, and learn the most advanced artificial intelligence technology in the world."

She took a long breath and said, "Unfortunately, there is no if."

Chapter 24 It Bullies Me

The masked man also felt sad when he listened to her words. It seemed that being a bride changed her life path.

"Do you regret it?"

Ceres dropped her head and never answered.

She also asked herself the same question countless times, and she did not regret it. After all, one side was her dream and future, and the other was her father.

She comforted herself occasionally. When her father came out, she could still go abroad. It was the same.

"Now that it has come to this, then so be it!" Ceres's face was full of smiles again.

She had always been strong and tough, and she would accept whatever fate would offer her. She picked up the cake and went on eating.

After eating the cake, Ceres began to glow again. "Well, it's getting late, and tomorrow is another day. Thank you for accompanying me on my birthday!"

Ceres patted the masked man on his shoulder. "Remember to eat up my longevity noodles so you will live a long life. I'll go back now, good night!"

After that, Ceres carefully went down from the roof, and the cake was not finished. She divided a small piece and put it into the rooster's rice basin. "Honey, it's my birthday today, and this cake is for you."

The rooster was already asleep. But it suddenly raised its eyelids when it heard her voice.

"You are wishing me a happy birthday, aren't you? Okay, thanks, my dear husband! Good night!"

Ceres touched the rooster's head and went to the bathroom.

During that time, her relationship with the bodyguard was getting better, and her relationship with the rooster was getting better as well.

Jazz bar.

Johny, Bob, and Bill discussed some recent plans and then sat alone playing with the smart eggs in his hands. Bill was still singing, while Bob was working with a computer.

Those days, he found that this smart egg had many functions. It could sense his mood when it changed through the micro-current in his palm and had prepared countless sweet words. Those words boasted him every day.

Ceres was indeed a very talented girl.

Suddenly, the smart egg was taken away from his hand. Bill looked at the smart egg. "I'm so sorry, Johny, what is this? Your taste is a bit heavy, but it is really in line with the ugly one. It is the most suitable for you."

Bill hurriedly raised his head when hearing Bob's words.

"Give it back!" Johny's face instantly became gloomy.

"Johny, don't be angry, I'm just kidding."

“Who are you? You have annoyed my master, and now you should apologize to him immediately!”

The smart egg in Bob’s hand suddenly lit up and spoke, which startled Bill. “What is this?”

“Your complicated facial features cannot hide your low IQ. You don’t even know me. I am extremely clever and unparalleled in the world. Do you need me to charge some fees for your IQ? Immediately apologize to my handsome and charming master!”

The smart egg spoke again.

Bob laughed.

“Hey! You little thing! How dare you scold me?”

“You are a thing, your whole family is a thing, oh wrong, you are a pig, a pig’s head, a pig’s brain, a pig’s body, and a pig’s tail!” The smart egg said and even sang.

Bill angrily wanted to throw the smart egg to the ground, but Johny took it back.

“Johny, it bullied me! Did you just watch me be bullied?”
