Do not talk nonsense!"

Alice reached out her finger and tapped Ceres's forehead. "I am not. It's just that you do not know he has a crush on you!"

Ceres's heart was instantly in turmoil, "But... but..."

"But you guys have grown up together since you were a kid. You always think of him as your Johny?"

"Yes!"

Ceres replied immediately.

Alice rolled her eyes, "That's just your opinion. He does not see it that way. If you do not feel that way about him, you should find an opportunity to make that clear to him. Stop him."

Ceres was still a little surprised and always felt that Alice was maybe a little over the top.

She and Kirs had grown up together. Back then, she and her father still lived in a village down in the mountains. Kirs was also a child of that village. They often played together, and the relationship between the two families was also good. It was only when Ceres was taken to live with the Morrises at the age of twelve that contact between them broke off.

They eventually wrote each other a letter, went to the same university, and met again.

To Ceres, Kirs was still the older Johny who climbed trees, picked fruit, and caught rabbits with her as a child. She had never thought of him that way.

Then they changed the subject and talked about everything going on at school, Alice's current situation.

What Ceres had not counted on was that she had insomnia the first night of school!

She tossed and turned, unable to fall asleep, occasionally glancing at her phone, not knowing what she was waiting for, and unconsciously tapping on the contact information for Johny.

Ceres tossed and turned on the bed for an hour and finally could not help but climb down from the top bunk and lay on Alice on the bed.

Alice, who was already asleep, was stunned.

Alice was an art student. Since there were too many art students in the enrollment year, many people were assigned.

It happened that Ceres residents did not like the erythema on Ceres and said they got nightmares when they saw her at night, so they did not want to live with Ceres.

So just when the dorm of Ceres was empty, Alice moved in, and then another girl came in who was not very talkative, and they did not have much to talk about.

"What are you doing, Ceres?"

"I am waking up. I cannot sleep." Ceres hugged Alice. "I have insomnia."

"You have insomnia?" Alice rubbed her eyes and finally woke up.

"Yes, I have insomnia." Ceres found it unbelievable too. When she was still working at the Morrises, she had to get up early every day to work, and she had to finish work at night to sleep. She always felt she was not sleeping enough. When studying at university, she could fall asleep easily, and a thunderclap could not even wake her up.

But she had insomnia.

"You said I was really in love with Johnny?" asked Ceres timidly.

Alice was not surprised at all. Was not it normal for Ceres to fall in love with Johnny? Ceres always led an unhappy life, no one treated her well, so naturally, she fell in love with a man who considered her the apple of her eye.

"Is it bad to fall in love with Johnny?"

Ceres snorted in agony, "But it's impossible for us. Who is he? Although he cannot stand up now and is in a wheelchair, I do not know how many girls want him. He's the future heir to the Winsors. He's so handsome. I do not deserve him."

Ceres was still very clear about the status quo, which is the reason for her pain.

"Ceres, how can you say something like that? You are so far off from him in terms of status, but the others aspects are not bad. And your professors say you are a genius girl, the likes of which have not been seen in a century. Also, you are generous, optimistic, positive, strong, righteous, and sincere..."

Alice said many merits in one breath, and Ceres rolled her eyes.

"Am I that good?"

Alice pursed her lips and smiled, "My Ceres is a thousand times better than what I said! Okay, do not think about it. You cannot force feelings, but you cannot hide either. If you cannot hide, just let it be."

"Yeah, yeah, just let it be."

Ceres was finally relieved as Alice comforted her, "Even if Johnny leaves me one day, we will have a good ending. After all, I did not lose in the relationship, did I?"

"You are right about that. Go back to bed. We have to go to class tomorrow."

"I do not want to. I want to sleep with you. That's what I always think of when I sleep alone!"

"Hey Ceres, you guys are sharing a bed. Are you in a relationship?" asked Alice gossiping.

"No. Do not be silly!"

"No, I do not think so! He's thirty years old, at the age of passion, I don't believe at all he didn't touch you? Either he's a real man who can take it for your sake, or there's a problem with that."

The two laughed.

Ceres was not the only one who had insomnia that night.

Johnny was lying alone on the big bed and could not sleep. He had not counted on the fact that he'd only been sleeping with this little woman for a few days. He would be so uncomfortable in her absence.

The bed next to him was empty, and Johnny looked at his phone from time to time.

"No conscience! You did not even send a message!"

Johnny tossed the phone aside but could not help but pick it up again after a while, and eventually, he could not get back to sleep, so he just got up to read.

Ceres wanted to find Kirs the next day, but when he inquired, he knew that Kirs followed his professor to do R&D, and he was not in Imperial City.

The second night at school, Ceres still could not fall asleep. Finally, she pulled out her cell phone and sent a message to Johnny.

"Are you back?"

Johny saw the message on his phone screen as soon as he got out of the shower. He was as happy as a child. He wanted to reply to the message but thought it would look like he was waiting for her message if he replied right away. So, he purposely waited ten minutes before replying.

"I am back."

After receiving the reply from Johny, Ceres laughed in bed, "What did you eat during the night?"

"Rice."

Ceres saw this answer. She curled her lips. Is he so averse to talking to himself? That's too shallow.

"Then I'll go to bed and you'll go to bed early."

Johny thought for a while and immediately replied, "I have to go to your school tomorrow to discuss something, and it happens to be in the afternoon. If I have time, I will visit you at school and have dinner on the side."

"Okay, okay!" Ceres was immediately enthusiastic.

Ceres couldn't hide a smile after she turned off her phone.

Then the mobile phone rang, and Ceres thought it was a message from Johny. When she opened it, it was Alice!

"The sour smell of love!"

Ceres grimaced Ceres by the bedside and fell asleep in bed.

The next day was Wednesday, and there was only one class in the afternoon, so Ceres studied in the library with Alice. Because she had missed half a semester's course, Ceres had to make up the previous course.

Ceres looked at her mobile phone from time to time and didn't want to study. Alice knocked on her desk.

"Hey, you have missed half a semester's class, so you can't read well. Be careful not to fail at the end of the term." Alice reminded.

Ceres stuck out her tongue. "I know, by the way, Alice, I may have an appointment in the evening, so I should not have dinner with you."

"What is possible? Yes is yes, no is no."

"It is he who came to the school to talk about business today. If he finished his business earlier, he would pick me up. There is no news until now."

Ceres thought for a moment and felt it necessary to remind him that he was so busy, so don't forget her.

"If you come to school today, don't bring people. It's too eye-catching and not suitable for school."

When Ceres thought of this reason to send him a message, she was still laughing. She was too witty!

Alice looked at the time. "That's just right. I have an audition today, so I'll leave first." Alice put away her books.

"Auditions? Really? What crew?"

Ceres suddenly got excited.

Alice didn't want to say it. After all, she doesn't know if she can succeed. "I don't know. I just have a try. I went with several school sisters and said it was a costume drama. If I have any messages, I will tell you."

"May you success!"

They squeezed their eyes and understood each other tacitly.

Alice immediately went back to the dormitory, changed a beautiful dress, put on delicate makeup, and followed several senior sisters to get on the bus.

In the car, she can feel her heart beating very fast. This was her first audition.

Her major is not acting, and she was often brushed down in the first round. There were too many students studying acting these days.

She studied dance from her grandmother and her mother, all of whom studied dance. When her grandmother was young, she was in the art troupe, and her mother was admitted to the art troupe. As a result, she had to change jobs because of her leg injury.

Dancing was her mother's dream. Her mother always wanted to train her to be a dancer. She was sent to study dancing since she was very young.

Her family was an ordinary working class, and the conditions were very common. It costs a lot of money to learn the art. All the money in the family was spent on her training, but Alice didn't like dancing. She liked performing.

Her mother paid for so many years, and she didn't dare to tell the truth until she went to college and came to the Imperial City. She thought that as long as she made some achievements in the performance industry, her mother would accept her dream.

She learned acting classes at school since freshman year, but she has never played a role.

When she arrived at the place, Alice found that it turned out to be a royal hotel. She looked at several senior sisters in consternation. "Girls, why are we in the hotel?"

Other girls looked careless. "Where do you think it should be?"

Alice doesn't know either. After all, it is her first audition.

"Don't worry, it will be fine. Auditions are usually in hotels. Don't be afraid. Since we are here already. What are you afraid of?"

The leader is a senior sister named Lucy, who found several people today. When she heard Lucy say this, Alice's heart slowly relaxed.

Anyway, there were several of them, and she was not the only one.

So, she got up the courage and went into the hotel with everyone.

Alice thought that she had started auditioning when she entered the hotel, but she didn't expect them to come to the restaurant's private room. Several men sat at the massive table in the private room and looked at them one by one.

Lucy- a senior sister who called everyone to sit down first, have dinner together, and then begin the audition.

Everyone else sat down very readily. Alice saw that everyone else had sat down, and she couldn't leave now, so she sat down next to a senior sister.

Several men on the dining table looked at them with evil eyes, staring at them like goods, and Alice could only keep her head down.

"Come, let's drink one first." One of the men raised his glass.

Everyone raised their glasses together, but Alice didn't move. She smiled awkwardly. "Sorry, I can't drink."

Lucy's face suddenly collapsed. "Alice, why are you so ignorant? If you don't drink it, you have to pretend to drink. Sorry, my school sister has just arrived and doesn't understand the rules. Please don't mind. I will punish myself first!" Lucy said.

Lucy drank up a glass of wine.

Alice looked apologetic, and she didn't want to bring trouble to Lucy, so she also raised her glass.

But when this glass of wine went down, she began to feel groggy. She had drunk wine when she had drunk some at the party in class so that she wouldn't get drunk with one glass of wine!

What's going on here?

Alice supported herself and stood up. "I'll go to the bathroom."

Just as she had just walked out, a man followed her and came over. Alice just wanted to wash her face and wake up. The man hugged her at once, and Alice screamed with fear.

"What are you doing?!" Alice struggled desperately and slapped the man in the face.

Just at this time, Lucy also came to the bathroom, and Alice immediately ran after Lucy. "Lucy, this..."

"Don't be angry, Mr. Brown. Let me talk to her." Lucy pulled Alice aside. "Alice, Listen. Do you know how competitive the entertainment industry is now? As far as you are concerned, even your major is not right, and you still want to enter this circle?"

"I know that my major is not right, but I used to be a guest student in these years, and I think..."

"Do you think this is useful? If you want to do this job, you should know that the most important is your face! If you don't have this beautiful face, I won't bring you at all today. I tell you if you make Mr. Brown happy today, and I promise you will also get a role. This kind of opportunity is not for everyone!"

Alice realized that this was a hidden rule!

Lucy brought other beautiful girls to satisfy these men. As long as they accompany these men, they can get the role.

When Mr. Daniel saw Lucy leave, he held Alice directly in his arms. "Come on, little beauty!"

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 78

Alice struggled desperately, of course, but somehow, she lacked strength, and things before her slowly began to blur.

The man who called himself Daniel must have sensed that the drug had taken effect, and he struck out directly at Alice, holding her up.

Alice only felt that her body was light, and she was still kicking, but her strength was so weak that it was like a tickle, and Daniel did not care at all.

Bill came out of the elevator and saw a man holding a woman walking towards the room. The woman just looked at him, and her mouth seemed to say, "Save me."

At first, he did not take it seriously, but the more he thought about it, the more he sensed something was wrong, so he turned and walked towards the room, leaving the door open.

Alice almost pleaded, "Please, please, do not touch me."

"Little beauty, do not be afraid. I'll be very gentle."

Daniel set about untying his clothes from Alice. As he untied his clothes in the middle, he suddenly felt someone tap him on the shoulder behind his back, and he turned his head to see Bill.

"Bill..."

Bill growled coldly, "The girl is not happy. Why do you insist? Are you a man? Do not make such a mess!"

Daniel suddenly stood up. "It's not what you think."

Alice looked at the man in front of her. Under her frantic blinking, she finally saw the man.

Daniel knew that Bill was also a lusty risk-taker. He was the heir to the Shiry Entertainment Group if he could endear himself to him...

"Bill, this girl is a student, still a virgin, I will give her to you!" Daniel immediately put on his trousers and ran out. As he ran to the door, he did not forget to smile, "You are starting to enjoy it."

Bill looked at his dog-like appearance and then looked at the girl in the bed.

She was a little beauty. "Hey, hey!"

Alice rolled her eyelids. She wanted to say "thank you," but everything went black when she closed her eyes again.

Imperial University

The Rolls-Royce stopped in front of the school gate, and Johny got out of the car. He thought about what Ceres had told him and did not let the bodyguard follow behind him. He entered the school in a wheelchair.

Ceres waited until she saw Johny and trotted all the way. "There you are!"

I have not seen you in three days, and she did not know she could miss him so much!

"Hmm." Johny's expression was calm and cold.

"Have you eaten?"

"No."

"Let us go eat? There's a Korean restaurant near our school. Their bibimbap is especially delicious and cheap."

"Good."

So, Ceres pushed Johny to a Korean restaurant near the school. This Korean restaurant was open, especially for students. Most of the diners there were students. Because of its good taste and cheap prices, it was also popular among students. But this time, the meal time was over and there were not many people in the restaurant.

Ceres pushed Johnny to a corner seat and sat down. The boss took the menu. Ceres ordered two bibimbap and some side dishes.

At that moment, Ceres saw the dark circles in Johnny's eyes. "See how your dark circles are so strong. Are you very busy lately? Do you still stay up late?"

Johnny did not want to admit that he was not home these days and suffered from insomnia at night.

"Hmm."

"Are you too tired? Your legs have not recovered yet. You cannot roll around like that!"

"It does not matter."

Ceres quirked her mouth, Johnny handled such a big group, and he must be burdened.

At the next table sat a couple who should also be students of the school. They looked here from time to time, and their eyes were very unfriendly.

The man smiled exaggeratedly. "An ugly man and a lame man, they go together perfectly."

Since they were standing very close to them, the boy's voice was also very loud, so Ceres and Johnny could hear it clearly.

Ceres was tired of listening to other people's comments and found that it did not matter, so she thought of finding a topic and chatting with Johnny, but she did not expect the boy to go far.

"Look at the man who is well dressed and whose legs are disabled, and he comes out to make a fool of himself. If I were in his place, I would hide at home in case I might scare others."

The girl covered her mouth and smiled. "That's true, but I am curious as to how he made love?"

"The disability of both legs does not affect the cock. Maybe the woman was more energetic!"

Hearing that, Ceres shook her fist and suddenly stood up.

Just as the two men were talking, a foot suddenly landed on their table, and the two men looked up at Ceres together.

"Is that enough?"

The boy flashed a hippie smile and did not look Ceres in the eye at all. "What's the matter, sister? You did not come to answer your Johnny's question, did you? Then tell me how you two got there? Is he up there, or are you up there?"

"Fuck you!" Said Ceres, taking the rice on the table directly and strapping it to the boy's head.

The sparse rice dripped down from the boy's head. "Fuck! You-"

"What's wrong with me? Does it matter to you who's up there? My husband is indeed disabled in both legs, but that's only temporary, unlike you who's brain-dead and disabled for life! And you..."

Ceres turned her head and pointed at the girl. "And you are so shameless as to dress so thickly. You are not afraid to fall headlong to your death. Can you behave well in public?"

"Who are you talking about?" The girl stood up.

"Say, who knows!" Ceres said and turned.

The boy lunged straight at Ceres, Ceres flinched and fell to the ground!

"I am telling you, do not talk bad about my husband. The outcome is serious."

The boy fell heavily, and the girl saw that this person was not easy to be messed with, and she was also risk-averse, so she quickly helped her friend up.

"OK, bitch, you wait for me!"

They helped each other and left the hotel.

"Well played, Ceres, these two students come here every day to eat, and they give less money in every possible way. I have long seen that they are not good people!" The restaurant's boss immediately cleared the table and then looked at Johnny.

"I am hungry."

"I am coming!"

Ceres sat back down in his original seat. "This place is finally quiet."

When she came back to her senses, she saw that Johnny's face was pale. Oh, she was in trouble.

This man does not even say dirty words. And she's fighting!

"Hey, hey!" Ceres immediately smiled sweetly.

"Did you used to fight with others?"

Johny showed a straight face that made Ceres afraid to expect it.

"No, I rarely pick a fight. I will fight unless I really cannot stand it. They called you names. I cannot stand it when someone bullies my husband!"

"What are you talking about?"

"Tell me..." Ceres immediately lowered her head. How could she so shamelessly call Johny her husband?

Just now, she had said the girl was shameless, and she had gone further.

Johny was pleased in his heart. He had been born with a golden spoon, and he had not provoked it, much less bullied it. But this was the first time a girl had entertained him in this way, and he thought it felt good.

"I do not want this to happen again!"

"Obey your master's decree!" Ceres immediately nodded her head.

They finished their meal together and left the restaurant, as Ceres had worked in this restaurant before and had a good relationship with the boss. The boss gave her an extra share so Ceres could eat well.

When she came out, she burped eagerly. "I am so full. Shall we go outside to eat?"

"Fine." Johny could not refuse. Anyway, he visited her today.

When they were walking on the street, Ceres suddenly discovered that the music fountain started to bubble. "Music fountain, this fountain has not been opened for a long time. Even the fountain did you a favor. Let us go and take a look!"

"Fine."

Ceres pushed Johny towards the fountain next to the school. This fountain is located in a small park next to the school. The park was abandoned for a long time, but the music fountain was still intact and sprayed in the summer.

There were not many people there when they passed by. After all, it was cold now, and people did not feel like walking outside.

"I used to set up booths here in the summer, selling shiny jewelry and such. When people came out in the summer to enjoy the coolness, business was excellent. When there was a concert in the gym over there, business was super-hot!"

Ceres recounted cheerfully.

Johny reached out and grabbed Ceres' hand.

Although he did not ask just then, you can see that the owner's attitude towards Ceres was not towards customers who come to eat often. It must be that Ceres used to work there, and now she heard Ceres say that she used to set up stalls here.

He was full of grief, and this strong girl did not know how many hardships she had been through.

Not now, for she had him in her life.

"But there are too many mosquitoes that have been biting me for a while!" Ceres still felt an endless aftertaste when she spoke of it and did not feel bitter or tired.

At that moment, a man in black approached her. It was a stout man, wearing a hat and walking very fast.

Johny felt terrible. "Let us go!"

"Huh?" Ceres still felt strange. In the night, this man was still wearing a big hat and was tightly wrapped.

The man seemed to feel exposed and rushed over with a knife in his hand glowing in cold light!

Johny had a glance and flickered directly, and the man threw himself into the air.

"Go!"

Ceres knew that Johny's wheelchair was intelligent and went very fast, so she immediately jumped onto Johny's leg. Johny started the wheelchair, and the wheelchair went fast.

But several people poured in from all directions and surrounded her!

Everyone has a knife in their hand, so it's impossible to run fast. The wheelchair tripped over something, and then Johny pushed behind his back. "Go, do not worry about me!"

Ceres felt that a great force directly threw her out, and she suddenly fell to the ground.

The target of these people is Johnny, and they didn't care about Ceres at all and surrounded Johnny directly one by one.

Johnny was still sitting calmly in his wheelchair, only to see that he could still fight with these people in his wheelchair. He had excellent skills and could even use the power of the wheelchair to fight back.

Ceres found a stick on the ground and rushed over. She would never leave Johnny alone!

She took a stick and randomly hit people's heads. She beat them in the head, and they fainted.

Since Johnny, his car, and the bodyguards were nearby, they rushed over as soon as he heard something, and the men immediately ran away after dropping their knives.

"Are you alright?" Ceres threw herself right in front of Johnny.

"Do not move. Get out of the way!"

In a flash, Johnny saw a red dot flying towards Ceres. He realized that it was a laser that could be used to shoot with high precision!

Ceres had no time to react, only to see Johnny Ceres embrace it all at once and turn around conveniently!

At that critical moment, a bullet entered Johnny's body.

That's a pistol with a silencer, just a faint sound!

But Ceres still vaguely heard it. When she looked up, she saw Johnny with her face contorted in pain. "Johnny!"

"There are snipers here. Crouch on the ground and stay away from me!" Johnny squeezed Ceres tightly.

Their target is him. It's impossible to shoot at Ceres. Right now, Ceres suddenly appeared in front of him, leading to the shot from just now.

Ceres sat down on the ground, only to find that she would have been shot if Johnny had not fought her off in time!

The bodyguards immediately rushed over and got Johnny into the van right away.

Ceres also got into the bus and found that he had been shot in the back and blood was constantly flowing from the loophole.

Ben Nevis got into the passenger seat and notified the hospital. Then he turned around, "Mr. Johnny, you can retake it. The hospital has already arranged it. We will arrive soon!"

Ceres clasped Johnny's hand tightly. She does not know if it was because of the heavy bleeding. Johnny's face slowly started to turn white.

"Johnny, Johnny!"

Johnny slowly opened his eyes and saw that Ceres' face was full of tears. He reached out and wiped the tears from Ceres' face. "Why are you crying? I am not dead."

"Do not get discouraged!" Ceres immediately wiped the tears from his face. "It will arrive soon. Hang on!"

The car arrived at the hospital, and the doctor sent Johnny to the emergency room.

Ceres stood outside the door for a while, waiting.

Johnny was blocking a shot for her. If it were not for him, she'd be in there in the emergency room right now.

Why would he be so nice to her?

Royal Hotel

Bill was still near the girl who was drugged. He did not know what to do. The girl fainted after the effects of the drug.

This girl was quite beautiful.

She mightn't be the type to make people swoon at first sight, but her eyebrows and eyes were innocent.

Bill had read countless people. At first glance, he knew that this girl was new here and probably coming to this hotel for the first time to do something like this.

Suddenly, Bill's cell phone rang, and he immediately answered the phone. "What did you say? Johnny's been shot! Okay, okay, I'll be right there!"

He hung up the phone and looked at the little beauty in bed. Bill immediately turned and left.

Bob was already there when he got to the hospital, and Ceres was standing at the door like a fool.

"Is Johnny alright?"

Bob rose from the bench. "He's still being rescued. The exact situation is still unknown. Johnny is undergoing surgery inside right now."

"Oh, that's too daring? How dare someone use a gun in the city?" Bill slapped his palm.

None of them would have thought Henry had that much courage!

Ceres still just stood there. In her heart, she continued to pray for Johnny and hoped he'd be okay.

Bill and Bob looked at each other. "Little sister-in-law, why don't you sit down and wait? Johnny is a lucky guy. Do you think he can wake up as a vegetable?"

Bob immediately bumped his elbow against Bill's chest.

Ceres' face became more dignified. He'd woken up as a vegetable for less than a month, and then he has reshot. Ceres felt more guilty. She really shouldn't take him to the music fountain today!

Isn't it good to go for a walk at school, to be honest!

Bob spoke up. "Ceres, it's my Johnny who operates inside. He's an expert in this field. You can count on him to fix the situation."

"Yes, yes, he's an expert. This hospital belongs to his family. Little sister-in-law, don't worry about it."

Ceres didn't seem to have heard that.

After quite a while, the lights finally went out, and everyone was nervous!

What was the result?

The doctor came from inside. He was sweating profusely, and his gown was utterly soaked. He took off his mask and sighed, "It's all right."

Ruby Lim was so tired that he didn't even have the strength to say anything. Bob patted Ruby on the shoulder. "Hard work."

"Nothing, my duty." Said Ruby and left the room.

Ceres heard what the doctor said, and his tensed nerve had finally relaxed!

Suddenly she slid to the floor. Bill rushed to her aid, only to see Ceres laugh and start crying with a smile.

"Little sister-in-law, are you crying or laughing?"

Johny woke up the following day. Ceres stayed by his bedside the whole time. When she saw him open his eyes, he suddenly smiled.

"Are you awake?"

Bill immediately said, "I'll go! Johny, you finally woke up. My little sister-in-law was crying and laughing last night. I thought she was crazy!"

At this time, Ruby came to make a handover with the doctor, explained the situation of Johny, and stayed in the ward.

"Last night was really dangerous. The bullet was just a little bit away from the heart," Ruby said. "If the bullet hit the heart, you die. If there's even a small mistake in this surgery, he will lose his life!"

"So, you're bragging about your skill?" joked Bob.

Ruby scratched her head. "Sort of."

After listening to Ruby's words, Ceres didn't know where she got the courage and suddenly kissed Johny on the mouth!

At that moment, all the people in the room looked like they'd seen aliens!

"Oh, I didn't sleep all night and didn't eat in the morning. This is PDA!" Bill clutched his chest, "My little heart!"

"Shame on you!" giggled Ruby.

"Don't you want to be a third wheel around here?"

Bob hastily persuaded the other two to go together.

Johny was also startled by Ceres' sudden kiss. Just when Ceres thought it was inappropriate, Johny suddenly held the back of her head and prolonged and deepened the kiss.

He narrowly escaped death. When he woke up, he was kissed by a small woman, which didn't seem so bad to him.

Ceres didn't resist but slowly cooperated with Johny. After some previous experiences, she seemed to understand how to kiss slowly and no longer looked like a robot.

And Ceres' cooperation led to Johny not being able to stop.

Outside the door.

Bill yawned. "I can't take it anymore. I've to go back to sleep."

Ruby was working the night shift and had surgery. Right now, he was too tired. "Bro, I'm off work and need to get back."

Bob looked at him. He went back. Johny had Ceres so he probably didn't need anyone else either.

After they kissed, they fell silent, and the atmosphere was suddenly awkward.

Ceres's face was like two flaming clouds flying through the air, and she regretted that she shouldn't be so impulsive. It's too shy to kiss Johny in front of so many people.

"What's the matter? Your face is so red?" Johny suppressed a smile and asked knowingly.

"Did I embarrass you? Just now, when they were all here, I... Oh, I don't know what happened, how could I ..."

"No, you make me proud."

"Make you proud?"

She didn't embarrass him, but make him proud?

"You envy her."

Ceres chuckled and smiled. "Is there something wrong with you?"

"Yes."

Ceres immediately became nervous. "I'm going to call a doctor!"

As she was about to stand up, Johny took her hand and leaned back. "Aren't you going to ask me what's wrong?"

"What's wrong?"

"There."

“Where’s it?” Ceres showed a doubtful expression.

Johny took Ceres’ hand and slowly slid it over his chest, and then.

Ceres seemed to be branded and “washed” his hand back. “You...”

She broke off, embarrassed.

Johny lowered his head and smiled. This little woman was fascinating.

It seems like their relationship has taken a step closer.

Alice woke up from her sleep to find herself asleep in the hotel’s large bed. She immediately got up and looked down at her clothes which were well dressed, and she was relieved.

When she got out of the hotel, she immediately went back to the school and called Ceres. She hadn’t expected this last night Johny was shot. Ceres took care of Johny in the hospital.

Alice told him to sit on the bed in the dormitory. The man who saved her was so handsome.
