Caroline's POV:

I had spent a lot of time with Anthony the past few days.

This was perhaps the longest time I had ever spent with him.

Back when I was still studying abroad, I could only reach him via phone.

I knew Anthony rarely responded to others, but he would occasionally reply to my messages, which made my heart flutter.

This meant I was important to him.

I had always thought that one day I would become Anthony's bride.

He never showed any interest in looking for his mate, so I had always assumed that we would end up together and that I was the only apple of his eye.

But one day, everything changed.

Ever since Jennifer showed up, Anthony only had eyes for her.

I used to think he would fall in love with me, but he didn't.

He fell in love with someone else.

I couldn't help but feel incredibly annoyed.

Just then, my phone started to ring.

It was a call from Dylan.

"Hello, Dylan."

I pressed the phone against my ear as I walked out of the ward.

"Mr. Jones, Jennifer got into a car accident on the way to visit you,"

Dylan said breathlessly, his voice trembling.

"She is seriously injured and unconscious right now. I don't know if she'll be able to come through the operation. Will you please come and meet her?"

I felt my world shatter when I heard Jennifer got into a car accident.

I could feel all the color drain from my face.

I couldn't believe my ears.

She was in grave danger before I was able to regain my memories.

A wave of shock and worry swept over me.

I didn't even take the time to think.

After asking where Jennifer was, I rushed towards the operating room as fast as I could.

Caroline tried to run after me and shouted, "Anthony, don't leave me alone! Where are you going?"

I made sure to stress the word "baby" in front of Jennifer.

As I expected, Jennifer's eyes went wide with shock.

"Baby? What baby? What do you mean?"

She gazed at Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! my belly is Anthony's,"

I said with flourish, clutching my stomach dramatically.

I even managed to squeeze out a few tears.

"Is she telling the Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! memories. I honestly don't know who the father of the baby is. But I've always seen Caroline as my sister. I don't think I'd ever have a child with her,"

Anthony said sincerely.

I couldn't help but start screaming hysterically when I heard that.

"Jennifer, this is all your fault! You took my beloved Anthony away from me! He should be mine!"

I stepped forward to rip Jennifer apart.

I wanted Anthony to see her true colors.

Blinded with rage, I raised my arm to scratch her viciously.

But Anthony blocked my Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! it! Jennifer just got into a car accident and needs to recover. Leave us. We'll talk later."

But when would I ever have the chance to talk to him? He was too preoccupied with that bitch! Seeing how Anthony protected Jennifer with his own body, I was so jealous that I almost went crazy on the spot.

Somehow, I miraculously kept myself together and held back my anger.

"Jennifer, I will not let this slide,"

I finally said through gritted teeth.

'One day, I will destroy all of them.' Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! Dylan to take me back to my ward.

Then, I heard him order his attendants to keep an eye on me.

When I was back in my ward, I couldn't help but feel like I was being watched by Anthony's men.

There was nothing I could do but take out my phone and send Austin a message in secret.

"Why the fuck is that bitch still alive?"

Seconds later, I received a reply.

"I've already sent my men to take action. Jennifer should be dead by now."

"Jennifer is not dead at all. She is just seriously injured!"

"What? Are you sure?"

Austin was surprised.

It seemed he had no idea that Jennifer was still alive.

I was so angry.

That bastard could do nothing right! I sent another message to him.

"Just get the job done, and don't leave room for any mistakes. That bitch is driving me crazy."

"Jennifer is just lucky. I can't believe she survived the car accident. Which hospital is she in?"

"The hospital of the Rainbow Pack."

"Oh, easy. Now that she's weakened by her injuries, I'll ask Arthur to send someone to kill her there. She can't escape this time."

"All right. I will trust you for the last time."

I put down my phone and took a deep breath.

I might just go insane if Austin didn't succeed this time.

Skylar's POV:

The car accident was serious.

Fortunately, we all survived, but it was a close call.

I really thought that I was going to lose Jennifer.

I was just glad she was rescued in time.

Plus, seeing her get along well with Anthony made me feel even more relieved.

Dylan and I tried not to disturb them.

I sat in the corridor of the hospital, waiting for Dylan to come back from escorting Caroline to her ward.

I followed him into the room and listened to his report to Anthony.

"Mr. Jones, I've sent Miss Wilson back to her ward. Several attendants are keeping watch."

"Okay, keep an eye on her."

"I will, Mr. Jones."

With that, we excused ourselves and left the two lovebirds alone.

I sat on a bench, exhausted.

Dylan sat next to me, and we mulled over what had happened in silence.

"Dylan, we should thank God for keeping us alive."

"Yes. I honestly thought we were going to die when the truck hit us. We were so lucky."

Dylan slipped his hand into mine and I leaned against his chest.

Listening to his steady heartbeat, I felt a sense of security.

“I love you so much, Dylan.”

And I wanted him to know this.

Only then did I feel that I was truly alive.

I needed to say it now that I could.

What if I didn't get the chance to say it later? I hoped that Dylan would know for the rest of eternity that I loved him.

“Skylar, I love you too.”

Dylan cupped my chin and made me look up at him.

Then, he leaned in and kissed me.

He kissed me slowly at first.

The kiss, however, grew more and more passionate.

I reciprocated and kissed him just as passionately, if not more.

In his arms, I felt the joy of recovering something I had lost, as well as the touching sweetness I could barely describe.

Jennifer's POV:

“Do you need to get that bandaged?”

Seeing the scratch on Anthony's arm made me feel bad.

I couldn't believe Caroline went crazy in front of him just now.

Yet, at the same time, I was happy that Anthony defended me in front of her.

“I'm fine,”

Anthony answered, carefully observing my reaction.

"It's nothing. I'm sure it'll heal soon."

I knew why he was acting so cautious.

I sank back into bed, depressed at the thought of Caroline's baby being Anthony's.

= While I didn't believe for a second that Anthony would have slept with her, the mere thought of them having a child made me feel so gloomy.

"Jennifer, I might've forgotten the past, but I have a gut feeling that I've always treated Caroline like a sister,"

"You're the only girl who I view as a mate. I know you're sad, but please trust me. I'll find a way to regain my memories. Then I will know the truth."

"But how? How did you lose your memories in the first place?"

This question had been plaguing me.

How could Anthony lose his memories out of the blue? Someone must be behind this.

Anthony fell quiet, thinking about it carefully.

"I don't know either. I think it must have happened in my sleep. I've heard that a wizard's black magic can alter one's memories. Maybe I can ask a wizard to help me. But they have a reputation for being mysterious and hard to find. Anyway, don't worry. I'll look into it."

"What are you going to do about Caroline's baby?"

"I really don't believe that the child is mine. But I can't confront Caroline right now. Otherwise, she may do something terrible. Don't worry. I've sent someone to investigate her. I want to see who she's close contact with. I will inform you as soon as I get any news."

"Okay. I trust you. Even though you've lost your memories, I know you're not a playboy. There's no way Caroline's baby is yours! By the way, what makes you think that I'm your mate? Aren't you worried that I'm lying?"

Anthony reached out and held my hand.

"Jennifer, you make me feel something else. It's exactly this indescribable feeling that makes me believe that you're the one for me. Whenever I see you, I can't help but want to get close to you. The second I heard that you got into an accident, I was scared to death. I realize now that you're too important to me. I don't know what to do with you by my side."

Tears welled up in my eyes and I threw my arms around him.

He had finally spoken out his true feelings.

"You know what? The reason why you feel this way is because I'm your mate and we're connected telepathically. Just like this. Do you feel it? We are mates."

As I spoke, I moved my hand from his chest to his Adam's apple.

"Anthony, Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! stunned when he heard this.

Then, he grabbed the back of my head and kissed me.

"Mm..."

I hadn't kissed Anthony in what seemed like Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! pleasure.

Anthony seemed to be stimulated by this.

He bit my lower lip and looked at me affectionately.

His eyes were blazing with desire and his hands roamed all over my body restlessly.

The kiss I wanted for so long was so intoxicating, I felt like I was drowning.

Anthony's POV:

I was holding Jennifer in my arms.

We kissed passionately, as though I could never get enough of her.

I found myself obsessed with the way she tasted.

Jennifer seemed to have cast a spell on me.

I felt like I Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! never felt this way before.

She was right.

This was how a couple felt towards each other.

This was the feeling of loving someone.

I could feel that my love for Jennifer must be really deep.

As we kissed passionately, my wolf Zane started shouting at me in my mind.

"Anthony, pin Jennifer down now and sleep with her!"

"Zane, have some respect for Jennifer. I love her, but I've lost my memories. If I have sex with her in this condition, what does that make me?" I scolded him.

"Well, regain your memories faster! Jennifer's so beautiful, I can't believe you won't pin her down,"

Zane said helplessly.

The truth was, I agreed with Zane.

I wanted Jennifer more than anything in the world, and my cock felt the same way. It throbbed painfully in my pants.

"Anthony, you asshole!"

Zane teased me.

I felt embarrassed and wanted to hide my hard cock.

"This is Jennifer's fault! She's so beautiful that whenever I get close, I can't help but feel aroused."

I felt embarrassed.

I wanted to retreat and put some distance between me and Jennifer before she found out.

As though Jennifer could read my mind, her gaze suddenly landed on my crotch and smiled slyly.

"Honey, do you want to get closer to me?"

"Well, maybe someday. But I'll restrain my desire for you while I still haven't regained my memories."

I tried to look calm, but I couldn't help turn red with embarrassment.

"You have a responsibility towards me now that you've kissed me,"

Jennifer said coyly.

"Babe, even though I don't remember what we've been through, I can't help but feel drawn towards you. We will be together eventually and I will forever be responsible for you,"

I replied to Jennifer.

It sounded like my words moved her because, in the next second, Jennifer wrapped her arms around my neck and she was kissing my Adam's apple.

Slowly, her lips moved from my Adam's apple to my chest.

She began to lick my nipple playfully, but she didn't stay there for long.

After a while, her lips were hovering above my belt, but she paused abruptly in her tracks.

What a tease! Oh, my God! I really couldn't stand it.

"Jennifer, stop teasing me. I'm going crazy over here!"

I gasped breathlessly and softly pushed Jennifer away.

My big cock was already secreting liquid, eager to come out.

No way! Things couldn't go on like this.

"Anthony, relax and have sex with me. I miss the feeling of your big cock in my pussy. I want you inside me."

"Jennifer, I can't do that."

Although my cock was already extremely hard, I had to stand my ground.

"Your wounds haven't healed yet."

"Fine. Then put it inside my mouth."

Without waiting for a response, Jennifer started to unbuckle my belt.

Before I could react, I felt her soft tongue pressing against the tip of my cock.

Then, all at once, she took all of me inside her mouth.

I couldn't stop myself anymore at that point.

I moved to the Jennifer's rhythm and thrust into her mouth as deep as I could.

Daniel's POV:

I saw Helen's sexy figure in the lingerie store today.

She was so beautiful.

It was my first time to see her dressed like that.

Since then, I couldn't get the image of her sexy body out of my mind.

I was burning with desire, but I kept pushing it away.

Our relationship was still young.

I didn't want things to move too fast because I didn't want to scare Helen away.

When we visited Jennifer at the hospital, Helen kept on talking about her admiration for Anthony and I couldn't help but feel bad.

Did she really admire Anthony so much? She said that being with him was every girl's dream.

Naturally, I was unhappy to hear that.

I admitted that I was jealous.

And it was because of this jealousy that I took Helen to a hotel room.

Only when we checked in did I realize what I had done.

"Helen, we don't have to"

But before I could complete that sentence, Helen covered my mouth with her finger.

"Are you planning to punish me? I can feel your jealousy from a mile away. If this is the case, then I accept your punishment."

Her straightforwardness made me blush, but I leaned in for a kiss anyway.

"Helen, tell me. Who do you admire more me or Mr. Jones?"

I asked her, breathless from the kiss, rubbing my nose against hers.

“Mr.Jones, of course.”

Helen smiled at me playfully.

I was not satisfied with her answer at all.

“Is that so? Well then, let me give you a reason to change your answer.”

As soon as I finished my words, I began to passionately kiss Helen’s lips.

She tried to take a step back, but I held her firmly by the waist to keep her in place.

I kissed, bit, and nibbled on her lips until they were plump and red.

Helen couldn’t stand it anymore.

She looked up at me hungrily and smiled.

“I might adore Mr.Jones, but I love you.”

Of course, I already knew this, but at the mention of Anthony again, my sense of possessiveness suddenly rose and I couldn’t hold myself back any longer.

I lowered my head and continued kissing her passionately on the lips.

Then, my lips trailed down to her neck, and she couldn’t help but moan.

My body was burning with desire, too.

My hands moved from Helen’s waist to her breasts and I could feel her nipples hardening from my touch.

Her breasts were plump and beautiful.

Every time I looked at them, I would go crazy.

My desire for Helen kept mounting until her hand found its way to my crotch.

“Since we’re already in a hotel room, why don’t we just do it Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! started to stroke my hardened cock, her eyes filled with lust.

She started to draw circles on my cock with her finger.

But I Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! want to cherish you and I don't want to rush you. I won't make love to you so soon into this relationship. I took you here just because I was jealous. I wanted to scare you, not to have sex with you. Let's go."

I was planning to leave the hotel, but to my surprise, Helen didn't budge.

Instead, she walked over to the coffee table and took out the lingerie she had bought from the store.

She held it up and looked at me with a smile.

"We've already Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! this lingerie. I don't want these to go to waste, so you should at least get to see me in this." I gulped.

What a temptress!

Helen's POV:

The truth was, I was just teasing Daniel.

But I never thought that he'd overreact.

He was so cute when he was jealous.

Due to his jealousy, he had actually taken me to a hotel.

This was exactly what I wanted.

I already regarded Daniel as my mate the man I was going to spend the rest of my life with.

As a result, Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! with him, I went to the bathroom and changed into my newly-bought lingerie.

I twirled in front of the mirror and smiled.

I was going to seduce Daniel.

When I came out of the bathroom, I found him sitting on the sofa.

He was facing the opposite way, so he didn't see me come out.

I strode over to the sofa and sat on his lap.

I could feel his cock stiffen from underneath me.

It was against my butt.

I slowly moved down so to align it with my Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! bear.

“Helen, you are playing with fire,”

he said in a hoarse voice.

Then, he grabbed my waist and carried me off his lap, only to get on top of me.

“Babe, I’ve already told you not to play with fire. You deserve what’s coming,”

Daniel whispered in my ear as his hand made its way towards my pussy.

The panties I was wearing were nothing but a thin line of fabric that formed a belt around my waist and another thin line of fabric running down from my belly to my pussy.

Daniel moved the thin strap to the side with ease and inserted his finger into my sopping wet pussy.

“Honey, you’re so fucking wet.”

I didn’t know if Daniel was praising me or not, but I couldn’t help but blush when he said that.

I looked up at him shyly and he leaned in to kiss me again while pumping his fingers in and out of me.

“Hmm...”

I just kept getting wetter.

Because I was wearing practically nothing down there, I could feel the fluid stream down my thighs and onto the sofa.

Daniel stopped what he was doing and looked at me.

I blushed again.

“Honey, can’t you wait any longer?”

“No, not really. Daniel, I want your cock inside me already.”

Daniel scooped me up and brought me over to the bed.

However, before he joined me, he turned on all the lights in the room.

My body was exposed under the lights.

Daniel's eyes were glued to my cleavage.

His Adam's apple bobbed and he gulped in anticipation, as though he couldn't control himself.

"Daniel, what are you afraid of?"

I teased. I said that to provoke him.

But I didn't expect him to overreact again.

Daniel grabbed both my wrists and pinned them above my head, imprisoning me beneath him.

Before I could react, he slid his cock I straight into my pussy.

"Ah!"

I screamed in pain.

"I know I should be gentle with you, but you sounded like you couldn't wait any longer. Let me show you just how much I love you."

And with that, Daniel spanked me.

He kept thrusting his cock inside me, his pace sometimes fast, sometimes slow.

It was the first time that my pussy was stimulated like this.

It was as if it had been pushed to the maximum and was never going to recover.

I felt as though I was being ripped apart from the inside and a tear fell from my eye.

Daniel leaned over to lick the tear off my cheek, but his tongue didn't linger there.

He moved down until his tongue was drawing circles across my breasts.

"Daniel..."

I had never had such an exciting experience.

It felt like I was drowning helplessly, yet I couldn't help but feel excited and hungry for more.

Gradually, the pain faded away and I felt nothing but a strong desire for the man in front of me.

“Daniel, thrust harder.”

I begged him.

With a big smile, Daniel quickly thrust in and out of my pussy like a pile driver, making obscene sounds.

“Helen, after tonight, you will be my mate. I’m so happy to have found a mate,”

Daniel said.

I craned my neck to get close to his chest.

Only then did I see that I had accidentally scratched him in the heat of the moment.

I touched it gently.

“I’m sorry, Daniel. Does it hurt?”

“Yes, it hurts. I guess you need to make it up to me.”

Daniel covered my mouth and kept thrusting into my pussy.

I was so wet that I stained the bed sheet.

Daniel tore my underwear into shreds and threw it aside.

I lay naked before him.

Daniel bit my neck and marked me.

“This mark is my signature. It will never be erased.”

“You’re just a jealous werewolf.”

I laughed at him and bit his neck in return.

Daniel chuckled.

He wasn’t done punishing me.

Suddenly, his pace sped up to an unprecedented speed.

A white light flashed in front of my eyes and I climaxed again.

But this was only Daniel's first climax.

It seemed that I had underestimated him.

"No, Daniel..."

I touched his soft penis and begged for mercy, but even as I spoke, I felt his penis grow hard again.

Daniel continued to torture me until my vision went blurry.

Jennifer's POV:

My injury seemed to be a blessing in disguise because Anthony was taking care of me in the ward all the time these days.

The car accident turned out to be a happy accident for me, for it made Anthony figure out his true feelings for me.

"What's that in your hand?"

Anthony asked the nurse.

"It's just medicine," the nurse replied.

Anthony enquired her about my physical condition while carefully checking the medicine she gave me.

I felt safe and moved.

Anthony even checked the medicine given to me.

It seemed that he still really cared about me.

I was moved by his concern for my well-being.

"Anthony, I feel much better after staying in the hospital for a few days. I want to go back home to rest, okay?"

I waited for Anthony's opinion.

"Let's hear what the doctor has to say about your condition. If he says you can leave the hospital, we will go through with the discharge formalities."

Some time passed before my attending doctor came in.

Looking over his glasses, he examined me carefully and said that I had almost recovered, but that I still needed time to heal completely.

Now that Anthony got the doctor's confirmation that my condition was stable, he finally agreed to my request to leave the hospital.

"Then let me drive you home myself."

"Okay."

There was no way I would refuse.

Even if Anthony said he was moving in with me and would stay with me every day, I would happily agree.

After I got discharged from the hospital, Anthony drove me, Dylan, and Skylar back to Simon's villa.

When we arrived there, we found that Daniel and Helen had already made dinner.

The group of us had dinner together to celebrate my discharge from the hospital.

Since I was still a little weak and lightheaded, Anthony was sitting next to me and taking care of me like a doting boyfriend.

The atmosphere at the table was lively.

"Thank you for taking care of me all these days, everyone. I'd like to propose a toast to Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! glass.

Anthony stood up along with me and clinked his glass against mine.

But to my surprise, before I could even take a sip, Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! completely.

Since I hadn't recovered yet, he didn't allow me to drink.

"By the way, this is Jeff, a friend of Dylan's. He's a doctor."

I introduced our new friend, Jeff, to Anthony.

"It's an honor to meet you, Jeff,"

Anthony held out his hand.

"The honor is all mine, Mr. Jones."

Jeff shook hands with Anthony, with a flattered look.

As everyone else at the table drank, they began to loosen up.

Skylar was cracking jokes.

"Jennifer, when are you and Anthony going to get married and have children? Dylan and I can't Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! is Dylan concerned about Jennifer's marriage?"

Anthony looked confused.

"Anthony, I forgot to tell you. Dylan is my brother. We were reunited not long ago. I guess you don't remember it because you lost your memories."

"You're right, Jennifer. I'm sorry, I don't remember it."

A look of surprise crossed Anthony's face.

"Mr. Jones, even though you have lost your memories, you can't deny your relationship with Jennifer. You should marry her as soon as possible," Skylar teased.

I saw the tips of Anthony's ears turn red, and it was clear that he was at a loss what to say.

"Skylar, my brother is older than me. I can't get married until he gets married first," I replied playfully.

Knowing that I was helping him out, Anthony held my hand under the table and whispered, "Thank you for your understanding."

"Anthony, I don't want to rush you into anything. I'll wait for you to regain your memories. There's no hurry for us to get married."

I gave Anthony a comforting look.

I didn't want him to worry about it.

Jeff suddenly asked, "Mr. Jones, how did you lose your memories?"

"I don't know either. I had a long sleep, and after I woke up, I forgot many things. The last thing I remember was that I went to the packs to select trainees."

Jeff frowned as he listened to this.

“Mr. Jones, it doesn’t sound like you lost your memories by accident, but more like someone sabotaged your memories on purpose. I think it might be caused by some black magic of a wizard. I’ve been a student of the medical sciences over the years, and I’ve met several patients who were enchanted with some black magic. Their symptoms looked very much like your own.”

When I heard this, I felt a glimmer of hope bloom in my heart.

If the reason for Anthony losing his memories was man-made, then he might be able to regain his memories.

“Do you know any wizards? Can you help Anthony regain his memories?” I asked Jeff eagerly.

“I have a friend who’s acquainted with a wizard. I can ask him to invite that wizard to check if Mr. Jones’ loss of memories was indeed caused by some black magic.”

“Jeff, thank you very much. That would be a great help to us.”

We sincerely thanked Jeff.

Anthony’s POV:

After dinner, I stayed with Jennifer.

I finally had the chance to explain how I really felt to her.

“Jennifer, it’s not that I don’t want to marry you. It’s just that I’ve lost my memories and a lot of things in my head are mixed up right now.”

I didn’t want Jennifer to worry too much, or even to misunderstand that I was postponing the marriage because I didn’t want to marry her.

“I know. I’m just grateful that we are still together. Now that you have lost your memories, I am not in a hurry to get married. As long as you are with me, I will be very happy,”

Jennifer said as she held my hand.

I was moved.

At this time, I saw a drawing in her room.

After taking a closer look, I found that it was a drawing of me. I was pleasantly surprised.

“I drew it when I missed you,”

Jennifer explaining with a smile when she saw my gaze on the painting.

"I'm sorry that I made you suffer. I'll always be with you. By the way, what are you doing here in the Rainbow Pack? Is there anything I can do to help you?"

I hated the fact that I didn't have any memories of the past.

Otherwise, I could have helped Jennifer a long time ago.

"Anthony, in fact, we would have gotten engaged a long time ago, but I was falsely accused of being a jinx at the royal banquet. Austin and the elders supporting him took that as an excuse to separate us, and to make things difficult for you and your mother. I came to the Rainbow Pack to find out the truth about my past from Elder Tony, so that I can prove that I am not a jinx. Only in this way can I go back and marry you."

It turned out that we were in such a predicament.

"By the way, how is your mother? Is she fine?" Jennifer asked me.

"She fell into a coma before I woke up."

"How could that be? She was fine when I came here."

Jennifer's eyes widened in shock.

I wondered about the real reason why my mother was in a coma.

Someone had even attempted to drug her last time.

Who was behind all this? Jennifer seemed to be feeling bad after hearing that my mother was in a coma, so I coaxed her, letting her lean against my shoulder.

Then, Jennifer took me to see Tony.

In Tony's room, we found Jeff taking care of Tony.

When Tony saw Jennifer, he suddenly stood up and knelt down in front of her, crying bitterly.

"I'm sorry. Please forgive me!"

Jennifer's POV:

I didn't expect this.

Tony was kneeling on the floor, begging me for mercy.

He burst into tears and his nose kept running as he shouted hysterically.

"I didn't mean to call you a jinx. Please have mercy on me! Let me go! This was all Arthur's idea. He's the one you should be after!"

Tony cried like a madman.

I was initially shocked with his violent reaction, but at the mention of Arthur's name, my expression hardened.

It was just as I had suspected—Arthur was behind all of this.

He was the one who slandered my name, calling me a jinx.

"Tony's condition has improved a lot, but when he saw Jennifer just now, he must've remembered something. That's probably why he couldn't control his emotions all of a sudden,"

Jeff explained to us.

Arthur killed my father and stole his position as Alpha of the Rainbow Pack.

As if this wasn't enough, he painted me as a bad luck charm.

He needed to pay for all of his crimes.

I clenched my hands tightly.

It turned out that Tony had worked with Arthur to make all of these bad things happen.

"Just because Arthur told you to, you slandered me as a jinx?"

I grabbed Tony by the collar angrily.

All of a sudden, Tony's expression changed.

He stopped crying and shook off my grip.

When he retrieved his antique, he started giggling and tinkering with it.

I watched him helplessly.

I doubted I could get any more useful information out of Tony.

He returned to his usual state of madness, muttering to himself incoherently.

"Don't worry. Tony will recover soon. Then you will find out everything you want to know,"

Jeff said, trying to comfort me.

"I'm sure that I'm not Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! but a rumor that Arthur spread. While Tony was the one who made up the false prophecy, he's not in his right mind Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! against Arthur."

"The truth will come to light soon enough."

Anthony squeezed my hand reassuringly.

Then, he said to Jeff, "Please do your best to treat Tony. We really appreciate your help."

Jeff nodded solemnly, promising he would stop at nothing to heal the lost Tony.

Anthony's POV:

After meeting Tony, Jennifer and I went back to her room.

She looked as though her mind was elsewhere.

It seemed that what Tony had said came as a big blow to her.

I pulled Jennifer close and let her lean on my chest.

I Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! don't worry.

When Tony recovers, the truth will come to light and justice will finally be served."

"I know."

Jennifer sat up and planted a kiss on my lips.

"I'm so glad you're here with me." I smiled.

Jennifer was an amazing woman, and I couldn't forgive myself for forgetting her.

I took out the ring box and put the diamond ring on Jennifer's finger.

"I know you've been waiting for me to put this ring on your finger again, so here it is.No matter what happens, we'll never be apart."

Tears welled up in Jennifer's eyes.She exchanged rings with me.

"I've been looking forward to our wedding," she said softly, eyeing the shining ring on her finger.

"Anthony, when I learned that you lost your memories, I thought that day would never come.I'm so glad we're together again.I don't know what I would've done otherwise."

"Jennifer, I love you.We're proof that Moon Goddess's arrangement is perfect.I will marry only you.Even if I lose my memories again, I just know I'll fall for you all over again."

"I feel the same way, Anthony.I love you with all my heart."

Jennifer snuggled up to me contentedly.Just then, we heard a knock on the door.I got up and opened the door.

Dylan was waiting on the other side.

"Come in,"

I told him.

He stepped inside and cleared his throat.

"Mr.Jones, it's about Caroline.I don't know who helped her, but she managed to escape from the hospital and is now missing.I've sent my men to search for her."

"What? Caroline is missing?" I was shocked.

Why would she run away?

"She might have found out that we were monitoring her.She's probably guilty of something and was worried she would be found out, so she ran away," Dylan surmised.

What he said made sense to me.

Caroline was a completely different person from what I remembered.

Maybe she had changed before I lost my memories.

But I had no idea what she was hiding from me.

Who was the father of her baby? Why did she lie to me and say that she was my mate?

“Since she has escaped, there is no need to look for her. She must have returned to the royal palace of Osman Kingdom. I doubt she’s in danger. Right now, our top priority is to prove Jennifer’s innocence and to find a way for me to regain my memories.”

“All right, Mr. Jones. I’ll have my men withdraw from the search.”

“Okay.”

After Dylan left, Jennifer and I settled into each other’s arms again.

I casually played with her hair, but then she sighed heavily.

“What’s wrong? Did I hit a wound?”

I was about to check on her injuries, but she shook her head and held my hands.

“Anthony, I can’t help but feel sad about what happened to your mother. She treated me so well. She even saw me off when I left for the Rainbow Pack. I was gone for just a few days when she got into a coma. I think it’s odd.”

“I think there’s more to it, too. When she was still in the hospital, someone attempted to have her murdered. I’m just glad I was able to stop them in time.”

Truth be told, I had been suspicious for days.

“Don’t worry. I will look into it thoroughly. When we return to the royal palace, we will visit her together. As long as we take good care of her, I believe that she will wake up one day.”

With Jennifer in my arms, I felt that everything was going to be okay.

Caroline’s POV:

I had spent days alone in the ward and had grown absolutely bored.

I tried to leave the ward on more than one occasion, but I was stopped by Anthony’s men each time.

I knew that Anthony was keeping an eye on me and that he no longer trusted me.

I also knew that he had been accompanying Jennifer in the intensive care unit while I was rotting in my ward.

I sadly realized that no matter what I did, I couldn't win his love.

When I knew the guards weren't listening, I secretly called Austin and asked him if he had finally killed that bitch, Jennifer.

However, to my great disappointment, Austin told me that his men couldn't even get close to her since Anthony was by her side all the time.

Anthony even checked every single medicine that was meant for Jennifer.

Austin's men couldn't find any opportunity to strike.

I almost threw a fit when I heard this.

Anthony loved Jennifer so much.

I knew I couldn't compete with her, especially what with my current situation. I thought it over and decided I had nowhere to go but the royal palace of Osman Kingdom.

There, I could regroup and plot against Jennifer properly.

But I couldn't do this alone, not with Anthony's men keeping watch. I had to ask Austin for help to escape.

Austin agreed without hesitation and sent someone over to cover for me.

Fortunately, the escape went smoothly and I made it back to the royal palace in one piece.

Austin was there to personally receive me.

He had even prepared a banquet for me.

Together, we went to his residence and sat down for dinner.

But I didn't have an appetite.

Thinking about what Anthony had done, I didn't want to do anything but flip the table in front of me.

"Anthony is so heartless,"

I said bitterly, sipping at my wine half-heartedly.

"No matter what I do, I can't get him to love me back. His eyes are on Jennifer and only her. I had his memories erased, yet he still chose that bitch. What's so good about her anyway? Why is Anthony so obsessed with her? They really piss me off. I hate him so much. He's so cruel to me! Not only does he distrust me, he even sent his men to keep an eye on me. If you didn't help me, I'd still be rotting in that hospital."

"Caroline, welcome back,"

Austin said with a chuckle, pinching my chin.

"Don't be sad. I'm here for you. If you hate those two so much, I'll make sure they suffer endlessly. Of course, if you agree, I can also let them die a horrible death."

"I appreciate the sentiment, but I'd have to think about that. While I do want Jennifer dead, I'm not sure I have the heart to hurt Anthony. After all, I've loved him for so long." I smiled bitterly.

"It doesn't matter. I respect your choice. Let's talk about it once you've made up your mind."

Austin rested one hand on my waist, while the other Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! a little perturbed.

Austin was usually vicious and cruel, never gentle and tender.

What was going on with him today? Had he changed?

"Austin, why Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! at Austin's handsome face questioningly.

"Babe, don't you know? It's because I like your body."

Austin smiled like a demon from hell.

"It's been a while since I last saw you. My cock misses your pussy."

As he spoke, he rubbed his hard cock against my buttocks.

I moaned and I couldn't help but soften at his touch.

I could feel his big, hard cock from underneath his clothes.

I couldn't help but think about the naughty stuff we did in the past and was filled with an insatiable desire Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! a slut.

I loved Anthony, but I couldn't resist Austin's dick.

But now that I was angry at Anthony, I didn't feel the need to stay loyal to him.

Thinking of Anthony's cruel attitude towards me, I put down my glass and spread my legs before Austin.

"Caroline, you slut."

Austin shoved his hand under my skirt and tore off my underwear in one swift movement.

Then, he reached up and stroked my wet, swollen clit.

"Fuck me, Austin."

I reached for him and held his big, thick cock in Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! right now."

"Fuck, Caroline. You're so wet. Do you want me to fuck you hard?"

Austin pressed the tip of his cock against the opening of my pussy.

I moaned at his touch and was consumed with desire for him.

Just as he was about to thrust his cock inside me, a thought suddenly occurred to me and I shoved him off me.

Austin's POV:

Caroline was finally back and I had plans to fuck her tonight.

However, just as my plan was about to reach fruition, she suddenly pushed me away.

What a slut! Why was she still refusing me when her pussy was so wet? Was she just playing hard-to-get?

"Bitch, what the hell? Didn't you want to be fucked?"

I asked coldly, pinching Caroline's nipple harshly.

"I'm sorry, Austin," she said, wincing at my touch.

"I'm not feeling well today. I don't want to... Let's talk about it next time, okay?"

She averted her gaze.

"What? Your pussy is wet as fuck. What do you mean you don't want to?"

As I spoke, I cupped and squeezed her soft breasts.

Then, I leaned over to kiss her neck.

“What the hell is going on? If you don’t tell me, I’ll fuck you like there’s no tomorrow.”

“Austin, I’m pregnant with your child. We can’t have sex now.”

Caroline finally blurted out the truth.

Shocked, I stopped abruptly.

Ever since we started having sex, I had been obsessed with Caroline’s body.

However, marrying her and having a family with her never crossed my mind.

And yet now, she was pregnant with my child.

I almost slapped myself to recover from my initial shock.

I never had a child before.

But now that she was pregnant, maybe I could let her have the baby.

Maybe this child would help solidify my position of power.

“Caroline, what are you planning to do with the child?”

I asked softly, caressing her fair and tender breasts.

“I don’t know. I wanted to make Anthony responsible, but that didn’t work. Even though he had lost his memories, he refused to believe that the child was his.”

Caroline sighed.

“Austin, what if I just have an abortion? Anyway, since Anthony won’t accept the child, and since you won’t marry me either, the existence of the child is meaningless.”

“How dare you even think about aborting my child?” I raised her chin.

“I want you to keep the baby.”

“What good will come of that?”

I frowned slightly. I didn’t expect Caroline to want to bargain with me.

"After you give birth to the baby, I will consider making you my queen."

I kissed her soft lips.

"Caroline, stop dreaming of being with Anthony. He'll never love you. Being my queen is better than chasing after unrealistic fantasies."

Caroline hesitated for a while, but then she finally conceded.

"Okay. I'll keep the baby."

"My cock is still hard, slut."

I forced her to kneel in front of me and parted her lips with my fingers.

"Suck on it and let me cum in your mouth," I ordered her.

"Austin, you are so naughty..."

Caroline stuck out her tongue and licked my fingers.

Then she lowered her head and sucked on my swollen cock.

She swayed her butt in the air as she sucked on me.

Her big breasts also swayed.

"Bitch, I'm going to fuck you hard!"

I rampaged in her mouth, making her roll her eyes to the back of her head.

I pulled her butt cheeks apart, revealing her star-shaped anus.

With a devilish smile, I inserted my finger into the hole.

"Ah, Austin..."

Caroline screamed and convulsed as I pushed my finger in deeper.

She was a slut. She was still so lewd even though she was pregnant.

This time, I went easy on her. Next time, though, I planned to fuck her hard.

Anthony's POV:

I hadn't returned to my hotel in a while now. I spent my days in the villa with Jennifer, watching over her recovery.

Ever since the car accident, I never wanted to leave her side.

I was glad to see that Jennifer was recovering at a good pace.

Every day, her condition grew better and better.

Our life had been very peaceful until this morning, when I suddenly received a message from my attendant.

"Mr. Jones, we have found something useful about the car accident you asked me to investigate. The hit-and-run driver works for Alpha Arthur. Please tell me what you want to do next."

"What evidence have you found against Arthur and the truck driver?"

My heart was beating hard against my chest as I typed.

"We have gotten a hold of a video of the accident, as well as some photos of Arthur and the truck driver negotiating in secret. These pieces of evidence should be enough to convict Arthur of the crime," the attendant replied.

"Send me the photos and the video. I'll handle the rest."

"Yes, Mr. Jones."

After a while, my phone pinged.

My attendant had sent the video and photos.

The video was taken by a dash cam of another car that was in the area.

It showed the truck driver intentionally ramming into the taxi that Jennifer was in.

The taxi driver swerved the steering wheel to avoid the imminent collision, but the truck driver chased after it closely.

After he successfully crashed into the taxi, the truck sped off to flee the scene of the crime.

As I watched the video, I clenched my fists angrily.

It turned out that Jennifer's car accident was no accident at all.

Next, I clicked on the photos my attendant sent.

One photo showed Arthur and the truck driver talking in a private room.

They were probably discussing how to kill Jennifer.

I took the video and photos to Jennifer and let her see the evidence.

"Jennifer, this is what my investigation has turned up. According to my attendant, this is enough to convict Arthur. And don't worry; I will deal with the truck driver. As for Arthur, what do you want to do with him? Are you going to confront him with these?"

"No rush. Hold onto these first. When Elder Tony wakes up, I'll settle accounts with Arthur once you visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! That Arthur wants to kill me, I won't let him live in peace."

"Okay, I respect your decision." I nodded in agreement.

"Anthony, I visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! so much."

Jennifer looked up at me gratefully.

Then, her eyes narrowed.

"By the way, do you still remember the assassination at the celebration ceremony? Did you find out anything about those magicians?"

I shook my head with a sigh.

"I'm sorry. Those magicians were all rogues. Whoever attempted to assassinate us were careful. I haven't found any clues."

"It's okay,"

Jennifer patted me on the shoulder comfortingly.

"I know you did your best. The truth is, I've been mulling over it in my mind, wondering if Arthur is behind it, too. We know he visited <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! is why he dared to attack you. I remember clearly that those magicians not only targeted me, but also you."

"I have an idea. Maybe the assassins at the celebration ceremony work for Austin. After all, he's always been out to get me."

"If that's the case, then I suspect that Austin has allied himself with Arthur. Before I came to Rainbow Pack, you and I helped the other werewolves fight back the vampires. Austin held a celebration banquet for us when we came back. But Austin invited Arthur to Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! that I was a jinx at the banquet, our engagement was postponed. Since then, I have suspected that there was something going on between Arthur and Austin."

Speaking of the past, Jennifer lowered her head sadly.

"We have to be careful from now on. If they're really working together to kill us, then we're not safe here at the Rainbow Pack." I took Jennifer's hand and tried to comfort her.

"But don't worry, Jennifer. I will protect you. No matter what happens, I'll be by your side."

Jennifer's POV:

With Anthony, I Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! the world.

Despite losing his memories, he was still so considerate of me.

He kept reassuring me that no matter what happened, he would choose me. I was so moved by his words.

"Thank you for taking care of me."

I tiptoed and threw my arms around his neck to peck him on the lips.

"I love you, Anthony."

"I love you, Jennifer."

Anthony wrapped his arms around my waist and kissed me back.

I felt my heart beat faster and stuck out my tongue to dance with his.

We kissed passionately yet gently at the same time.

"Your lips are sweet," he whispered, biting my lower lip gently.

I moaned softly.

My hand found its way to his chest, where I drew circles to tease him.

"I like kissing you."

I smiled, placing my hand on his throbbing cock. I could feel him hardening underneath my touch.

Every time I held his cock, I would marvel at its size.

I hadn't had sex with Anthony in a long time. I knew my pussy craved for his cock.

But because he hadn't regained his memories yet, I didn't want to push him too hard.

I decided to let nature take its course.

We kissed and caressed each other for a while.

Although we didn't have sex, I was still very satisfied.

In the afternoon, Jeff showed up to deliver some good news.

"Jennifer, Tony is finally sober!"

Jeff announced happily.

"Really? That's great!"

I was so excited that I pulled Anthony out of the room.

"We'll go see him right now. Thank you, Jeff."

I shared the good news with Simon and Helen.

Together, we all rushed to Tony's room excitedly.

There, we found Tony lying quietly in bed, but there was no mistaking the clarity in his eyes.

When he saw Simon come in, tears welled up in his eyes.

Jeff hurried forward to calm him down.

After all, Simon was Tony's friend.

He cautiously approached the bedside to talk to Tony.

"How have you been, Tony? I heard that Jeff cured you. Is that true?"

"It's true, Simon, my old friend."

The present Tony looked completely sane and normal, a far cry from the madman we had first met.

"I'm sober now. Jeff has already filled me in on the situation. I know what happened. Simon, thank you for saving me and giving me a chance to see the world again."

"Of course, Tony. What're friends for?"

Simon wiped a tear from the corner of his eye.

The two old friends who had not seen each other in ages threw their arms around each other, tears coursing down their cheeks.

When they finally pulled away, Simon gestured for me to come over.

"Tony, do you remember her?" Simon asked gently.

"This is Jennifer, Lewis' daughter."

"Of course I know her."

Tony raised his head and looked at me with a conflicted expression.

"Jennifer, I'm sorry. This is all my fault. I hurt you and your father. I didn't expect you to survive. Thank God."

"Elder Tony, I know you're the one who predicted that I would be a jinx. I also heard that you were hunted down by Arthur. Can you tell me why you would say such a thing about me? And why did Arthur hunt you down?"

I looked at his tearful face, waiting for his reply.

Tony's POV:

I couldn't believe it. My friend, Simon, was sitting next to me.

Ever since Arthur became the Alpha, I had been living as a fugitive.

I had to flee, and as such, I didn't get many chances to see Simon.

Now that we had been reunited, I couldn't help but sigh wistfully.

I couldn't believe I was lucky enough to be alive and see my good old friend.

But even more pressing was Jennifer, who was asking me for the truth about the past.

I hesitated for a while, lost in my memories.

Scenes of the past flashed in my mind.

Over ten years ago, before Arthur ascended to the position of Alpha, he was the Beta.

Despite this, he still held a high position in the pack as the second hand of Alpha Lewis.

Arthur approached me out of the blue and asked me to do him a huge favor.

Arthur asked me to make up that prophecy about Jennifer being a jinx and that everyone around her were doomed to die.

I didn't know him that well, so I didn't expect him to ask something so ridiculous of me.

Naturally, I didn't want to accept Arthur's request, but then he kidnapped my family and threatened to torture them.

When he saw that I was still hesitant, he started to bribe me.

I had the hobby of collecting antiques back then, so Arthur offered me the antique that Lewis had given him as a reward for helping him.

Despite my initial hesitation, I ended up agreeing to cooperate with Arthur.

I foretold in public that Jennifer was a jinx, which turned the elders of the pack against her.

Later, Jennifer's mother, Doris, died suddenly.

Everyone said that Jennifer was the cause of Doris' death.

They demanded Lewis to eliminate the jinx, but of course, Lewis didn't agree.

He would rather die than turn on his daughter.

Then, Arthur formed a coup, overturned Lewis' rule, and killed him.

As if that wasn't enough, Jennifer and her brother, Jerome, went missing.

Later, Arthur ascended the position of Alpha.

This series of unfortunate events was only just the beginning of my nightmare.

Arthur's rule was very cruel.

He hunted me and my family down, probably Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! secret.

Although I had promised to Arthur time and time again that I would never tell anyone the truth about what happened, he Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! of my family.

Now, I had no family left, and this was all thanks to Arthur.

Despite my hatred towards him, I ran away.

I even fled to a barren mountain and lived under a different identity.

Only in this way could I evade his capture.

Over the years, I gradually grew insane.

Today was the first time in ages that I came to my senses.

Simply put, Arthur was evil.

He needed to be punished.

"Tony, Jennifer needs your help,"

Simon said gently, looking at me hopefully.

"You will tell her the Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! I got out of bed to walk up to Jennifer.

"Jennifer, I'm not going to lie. I feel terribly ashamed just to face you. It was because of my false prophecy that you have suffered all these years. I am a sinner!"

I knelt on the floor, my heart full of regret, and apologized to her.

"I'm sorry. I have no right to ask for your forgiveness. I can only do my best to make up for you.

Back then, Arthur asked me to cooperate with him. He asked me to prophesy that you were a jinx, despite this being untrue. I never expected that he would kill your father under the guise of eliminating the so-called jinx. Arthur was so vicious, but

I admit that I was his accomplice. I deserve to die. Jennifer, please give me a chance to redeem myself!"

The more I spoke, the sadder I became.

I lowered my head with guilt.

I felt nothing but shame in front of Jennifer.

Jennifer's POV:

Tony had finally sobered up.

In a clear state of mind, he confessed and told me the truth about the past with tears streaming down his cheeks.

Now that I found the truth, I felt terrible.

It turned out that Arthur's plot against me and my father ran deeper than I had thought.

He had fabricated a lie about me in order to kill my father.

If it weren't for the false prophecy about me, would my father have died? "Elder Tony, why?"

I choked, tears welling up in my eyes.

"Why did you do as Arthur asked?"

"I'm sorry, Jennifer. I had no choice. Arthur captured my family. He threatened to harm them if I didn't cooperate with him. He also bribed me with an antique. I was so obsessed with it and eventually agreed to his request. But now that I'm sober, I realize how big of a mistake that was. Arthur is downright evil, and I must bring him to justice!" Then, he buried his face in his hands and cried bitterly.

"You know what? After Arthur became Alpha, he betrayed me and had all of my family killed."

Seeing him like this made me think twice about how I felt towards him.

There was no doubt that Tony had helped Arthur get what he wanted.

I should hate him, but from the looks of things, this poor old werewolf had been pushed into a desperate situation, and he had lost his family as a result.

In fact, we were all victims, and Arthur was our common enemy.

"Elder Tony, I can't forgive you for my father's death, but even I admit you're one of the victims here. The one we should target is Arthur."

I helped him to his feet.

"You don't have to kneel down and apologize to me. I believe that you truly regret the past. Since God guided me to find you, it means that he has given you a chance to redeem yourself."

"Jennifer, you are so kind. God bless you."

Tony wiped the tears from his eyes and bowed gratefully.

"I will do my best to make amends. Let me testify against Arthur for you. I have evidence against him. He gave me an antique that belonged to your father, and everyone in the Rainbow Pack know that Alpha Lewis had given that very antique to Arthur."

"Do you mean this?"

I found the antique that Tony loved so much and handed it to him.

"I saw this in your home when we first found you. I remembered it had belonged to my father, so I brought it back. At the time, you were still hysteric, but you held it close and tinkered with it every day."

"Yes, this is the one."

Tony took the antique from me and traced its outline with his finger sentimentally.

"Back then, Arthur bribed me with this and forced me to tell a false prophecy. Now, I will try my best to prove your innocence, Jennifer. By the way, I have some friends on that mountain. They saved my life once. After I help you deal with Arthur, I want to go back to see them. Simon, did you come across anyone else when you found me on the mountain?"

"We only saw a child. We didn't see anyone else,"

Simon replied with a slight frown.

"Tony, what's going on?"

"A few years ago, Arthur's men were chasing after me when two young werewolves saved me. I lived in seclusion with them on that mountain, and they treated my injuries. But I can't remember what happened after. Maybe it's because I went insane." Tony sighed.

“Never mind. The top priority is to bring Arthur to justice. After that, I’ll take time to go back to the mountain.”

Then, we started to discuss how to overthrow Arthur’s rule.

Looking around the room at all the focused faces, I felt that it wouldn’t be long before Arthur got what was coming to him.

Finally, my father would be able to rest in peace.

Dylan’s POV:

Today, I went to see Tony.

Fortunately, he seemed to be getting better.

He was no longer as deranged as he was a few days ago.

His mental health had almost recovered, and he could speak clearly and coherently.

He admitted that he was the one who had falsely accused Jennifer of being a jinx because he was bribed and threatened by Arthur.

After that, he tried his best to apologize to her.

Tony even said that in order to atone for his sin, he would do whatever we asked him to do with the hope that we could find it in our hearts to forgive him.

Hearing that my sister would be able to prove her innocence soon was good news.

But for some reason, when I heard Tony talking about the past, my head began to hurt again.

“Back then, Arthur killed Lewis in the name of eliminating the jinx. Since I was the only person who knew about his evil plan, he was anxious to kill me as well. He was afraid that I would reveal these secrets...”

Tony’s words seemed to be stimulating the part of my brain where my memories were suppressed.

More and more scenes of my father flashed through my mind.

Those past memories flooded into my mind like a dam had broken open, rapidly flashing through my mind like a movie on fast-forward.

Back then, my father had been framed by Arthur.

He knew that he couldn't escape the disaster, so he told me to run away with my sister.

Holding my sister's hand, I ran into the forest.

While fleeing, the two of us fell down several times and scrambled back up to our feet again.

The happy memories of our family living in harmony also came back to me.

From the moment she was born, Jennifer was treated like a princess by me and my parents.

Unfortunately, our good days were numbered.

When she was still a little girl, she was accused of being a jinx.

After that, our whole family were under distress.

My father was exhausted trying to protect my sister, while my mother left us forever.

Our family went from a happy one to a miserable one, all because of that damn Arthur.

My heart hurt at the thought of this.

I raised my hands up to cover my head, which felt like it was about Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! at Tony and Simon.

All the lost memories emerged to the surface of my mind in an instant.

As the memories settled, there was Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! with—resentment.

I clenched my fists.

It was all because of Arthur.

He had destroyed my happy family and ruined all our lives.

But if I had suffered so much, how much must Jennifer, who never lost her memories, have gone through? Thinking of that, I hugged her tightly.

I hadn't fulfilled my responsibility as a brother for so many years.

"Jennifer, I'm sorry for making you suffer alone. I remember everything now. I'm your brother, Jerome."

Jennifer gasped in surprise.

She was so overjoyed that tears welled up in her eyes, and Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! You finally remember everything. That's great!"

"From now on, I'm no longer Dylan. I'm Jerome Smith,"

I said word by word.

Everyone nodded with a wide smile, glad that I had gotten my memories back.

After that, Simon introduced me to Tony.

"Tony, this is Jerome, Lewis' son. We are trying to overturn Arthur's rule and return the pack to Jerome," Simon explained.

At this time, Tony took out the antique that Arthur had given him in front of me.

"I can testify against Arthur right now. This antique is the evidence that he bought me off. Whatever you need me for, I will try my best to make it up to you," he said earnestly.

Anthony also came up and patted me on the shoulder.

"Jerome, congratulations on your recovery. I've also collected some evidence that can prove that Arthur attempted to murder Jennifer. But all this is not enough. We have to gather the support of some other elders of the Rainbow Pack. Only when we work together can we have the chance to overturn Arthur's rule."

What Anthony said made sense.

Just the few of us wouldn't be enough to make a dent.

We needed to seek the support of the other elders of the pack.

Simon and Tony stepped forward and volunteered.

"We'll take care of convincing the other elders. Arthur has aroused public indignation. All the werewolves in the Rainbow Pack hate him. It won't be hard to get the elders on our side."

"It's settled then. Thank you, you two," I told them sincerely.

Anthony's POV:

Jerome had finally regained his memories.

I was really happy for Jennifer.

No matter what, I had to do my best to help Jennifer overturn Arthur's rule.

This time, I wouldn't let her face so many difficulties alone.

While we was discussing about the plan to take Arthur down, I received a message from the devil himself.

"Arthur has invited me to attend a banquet to apologize to me for the assassination attempt at the celebration ceremony. The banquet will be held the day after tomorrow,"

I told everyone, looking up from my phone.

"How about we all attend the banquet and take this opportunity to defeat him once and for all?"

"I think it's a great plan, Mr. Jones."

"Good. As long as we're well-prepared, we will definitely achieve our goal."

"Then let's start getting ready right now. Let's not reveal Elder Tony to our enemies yet. It is better for him to stay here and rest up. In the meantime, Helen and I will contact the other elders," Simon suggested.

"Okay," Jerome agreed.

"Then we are leaving now. We'll inform you if there is good news."

Simon said goodbye to everyone and left with Helen.

Jerome stepped forward and bowed to me.

"Mr. Jones, please take good care of Jennifer. I remember that my father's biggest wish was to see his daughter happy. I hope that you can fulfil that wish in the future."

“Even if you didn’t say it, I would still do it. Although I haven’t regained my memories like you, Jennifer is the only girl in my heart. I’ll be with her forever.”

“Thank you, Mr. Jones. Jennifer and I are so lucky to have you in our lives. I really appreciate your kindness towards me, as well as the love you have for my sister.”

Tears welled up in Jerome’s eyes.

It was the first time that I had seen him talk in such an emotional way.

I held his hand and helped him stand straight.

Sometimes, fate could be really tortuous and bizarre.

One day, I had no idea that these two siblings existed, and the next, one of them became my most trusted man, and the other became my beloved.

“After we get rid of Arthur, I’ll take you back to the Osman Kingdom and make a public announcement that we’re getting married,” I told Jennifer.

Jennifer smiled with tears shimmering in her eyes, and gave me a kiss.

“There’s no hurry. I’m willing to wait for you to regain your memories. We’ll have plenty of time in the future.”

I hugged her tightly and rubbed her head.

“Jennifer, if there is one thing that I am sure of with every fiber of my being, it is that you are my destiny. Whether I remember the past or not, you’re the only woman for me. That will never change.”

“You’re also the only man for me. Anthony, I’m so happy right now that I can barely contain it.”

Tears streamed down Jennifer’s cheeks as she spoke.

I gently kissed her tears, and then kissed her on the lips. As Jennifer responded to my kiss, a loud cheer went around the room.

I had completely forgotten that we were still surrounded by people. Jennifer shyly lowered her head and buried it in my arms.

Jennifer’s POV:

Today was a special day, because my brother finally regained his memories.

I was so happy that even in the evening, when I was lying in my bed all alone, I still felt like what had happened today was a dream that I would wake up from any moment.

My wounds had almost healed.

We were on the brink of achieving what we had come back to the Rainbow Pack for to overturn Arthur's rule and help my brother get back the position of Alpha.

Then, I could go back to the Osman Kingdom and prove my innocence, which would allow me to finally get married to Anthony.

Not only had my brother regained his memories, but Anthony had also promised to be with me forever.

I was so excited that I couldn't fall asleep at all.

Suddenly, I heard a knock on the door.

Dressed in my pajamas, I opened the door and saw Anthony standing outside.

My heart raced at the sight of him.

"Here you are."

Anthony magically took out of a bunch of roses from behind him.

Gasping in pleasant surprise, I took the flowers from him.

"What are you doing here at this time of the night?"

Anthony smiled at me and walked inside.

"I figured that you wouldn't be able to fall asleep tonight, so I came here to give you company."

I leaned down and inhaled the intoxicating scent of the roses. Then, I closed the bedroom door and took Anthony's hand.

"The bouquet smells so good. You know my taste so well."

"I'm glad you like it. Do you want to go out and look at the stars for a while?"

Although his suggestion sounded dreamy, I slumped onto the bed like a deflated ball, with my head down.

"The truth is, I'm really nervous. I'm scared that we won't be able to defeat Arthur,"

I told him, biting my lower lip.

Anthony hooked his finger under my chin and tilted it up, making me look into his eyes.

"Don't worry. We will all be with you. We will succeed for sure."

"Well, can you stay here with me tonight?" I asked softly.

Ever since he lost his memories, this was the first time that I was acting like a spoiled child in front of him.

Chuckling at my eager gaze, he nodded.

"Jennifer, I will try my best to help you. No matter what happens, I will be with you,"

Anthony said firmly, hugging me.

He was like the sun, brightening up my dull life.

I really loved him very much.

After hearing his earnest promise, I buried myself deeper in his arms and looked up at him.

"Anthony, meeting you is the best thing that happened to me. Even after losing your memories, you're still with me. I must be the happiest girl in the world."

With an uncontrollable smile, I leaned in and kissed Anthony.

For a moment, he seemed to be taken aback, but then he kissed me back with unprecedented eagerness.

His hands moved from my waist to Visit <https://novelebook.com> to read the newest content, everyone! hardening from his touch.

I trembled under his electrifying touch, and my heart beat so fast that I felt like it would give out.

“Mm...”

Somehow, in the middle of our passionate kiss, a moan escaped my lips.

As soon as the sound rang out in the night air, I felt something stiff poking my butt.

I subconsciously shifted on his lap, and his cock further swelled up under me.

“Anthony, do you want to make love to me? It’s been such a long time since we did it,”

I whispered, leaning in close. With every word I spoke, my breath tickled his skin. I let my tongue dart out and lick his ear.

“Honey, do you want to?” Anthony asked me.

His question made me lower my head shyly.

“Ah!” I squealed.

All of a sudden, I was lifted up into the air.

In one swift movement, Anthony rose to his feet and carried me to the bed. “Apparently, you want to make love to me too. Let’s do it.”

Anthony’s voice was low and hoarse.

He pressed me down onto the bed and straddled my waist.

“That’s all I want to hear.”

I raised my upper body, wrapped my arms around Anthony’s neck, and dragged him down on top of me.

He was pressed against me.

The only thing separating us was a thin layer of clothes.

Anthony guided my hand down to unzip his pants.

When I touched his bare cock, it jumped in my hand.

I felt my vision go out of focus.

I froze and looked at him with blurred eyes, as if I was drunk.

A little bit of fluid oozed out from the tip of his cock, dripping onto my hand.

That moist feeling was enough to make all my sanity collapse without a trace.

I tightened my grip around Anthony's cock and pumped it up and down until I heard a groan of pleasure from him.

"Honey, help me take off my clothes,"

Anthony whispered in my ear.

With that magnetic voice of his, he could charm me into doing anything.

"Okay."

Panting, I reached out and quickly unbuttoned his shirt, and then slid off his pants and his underwear.

Everything seemed to pass in a blur until my lips touched Anthony's neck, like a ship that had anchored itself. My lips traced his skin from his Adam's apple all the way down to his abdomen, and then even lower, until he grabbed me and pulled me up.

"Honey, tonight, let me serve you," he said enticingly.

At this moment, Anthony was completely naked.

Looking at him and listening to his words made me lose my mind.

He turned me over and slid my clothes off with his mouth.

After unhooking my bra, he bent down and sucked my nipples.

"I'm coming in."

Straddling my waist with his legs, "Anthony, you are mine. No one can take you away from me."

Gripped by passion, I bit Anthony's neck and marked him again.

Unexpectedly, he looked at my neck at this moment and smiled.

"Honey, I can see my mark on your neck now. That's the proof of my love for you."

He was so happy that his eyes glimmered with tears, and he leaned in and kissed the spot on my neck where the mark was.

“Sure enough, you are my mate. My intuition was right,” he said happily.

“I guess the reason you couldn’t see the mark before was because of the black magic,” I said.

“Now I know without a shred of doubt that Caroline lied to me. I won’t spare her after I go back,” Anthony promised.

At this moment, I didn’t care about her at all.

I was just ecstatic to hear that Anthony could finally see the mark on my neck again.

I wrapped my arms around his neck and batted my eyelashes, seducing him.

“Anthony, I miss your cock so much. I can never get tired of it.”

“Really? Then, how about we stay up all night?”

The beast inside Anthony seemed to have waited for my words for a long time.

He didn’t seem to be tired in the slightest, and made love to me all night, bringing me to my climax over and over again until I felt like my bones would fall apart.
