

Pampered 301

Chapter 301 Samuel, however, ignored the groveling Tina.

Instead, he threw the papers he was holding and told his assistants, "Go get that man and the child she gave birth to."

"Understood." Terrified, Tina begged, "Please! You can't!" She had been hiding the entire time. She couldn't drag Frederick and Kara into this mess! Never did she think that her worst nightmare would come true! The door was closed and locked from the outside, leaving Tina sinking in helplessness. She turned around and looked at the man standing in front of her. "Mr. Langford, please! I'm the one you want! Don't drag them into this! Please!" Samuel chuckled and repeated icily, "You're the one I want?" Samuel's response lit up hope within Tina. "Yes! You can do whatever you want with me! Even if it means killing me, I'll gladly accept it. But Kara is innocent, and she's only a child..."

Samuel's tone was full of sarcasm as he cut Tina off. "Really? Why should I care?" Tina felt her blood turn cold. "Did you really think you're that special? I'll make sure to torture anyone who angered me!" "You've been having fun with Frederick for so many years. You even have a child with him! How naive of you to think I would just let you off the hook."

TU

"No, Kara is your child, she..."

Samuel's smile became even more twisted, "My child, but with the blood with Frederick's?"

Kara had the same blood type as Tina, which was the rh negative blood type.

Coincidentally, Frederick had the same blood type. Tina hurriedly explained, "That's just a coincidence. He has the same blood type as me! You can check..." "Even if you're right, so what?" Samuel said, "A sl*t like you with my child? You don't deserve it!"

Every word was akin to a knife stabbing through Tina's heart.

Samuel finished his sentence and walked towards the door.

While staring at the edge of the table, Tina suddenly had the desire to die

But Samuel, who had not left the room, looked at her coldly, "Don't you dare, Tina." With that threat, he left the room.

Tina collapsed onto the floor, all hopes lost.

She couldn't die.

It was evident Samuel wanted nothing more than to torment Tina until she succumbed to death. Even worse, he was using Frederick and Kara as leverage...

If she died, Samuel would definitely direct his wrath to them.

No... She couldn't die.

The medical team soon appeared and looked at Tina, who was lying on the ground. "Ms. Lynd, your condition is unstable. Please follow us..." "Okay, I will." Tina nodded her head without hesitation. "I won't die."

la

She must survive. In order to find hope, she mustn't die

Chapter 302 Tina almost drowned and received a terrible shock, so she had a high fever right after Samuel left.

The fever had left her feeling groggy.

Yet, what worried her most was Frederick and Kara. She must alert them before Samuel could find them! Just as the medical officers were about to leave, she held desperately onto their sleeves. "Can I borrow your phone for just a while?" All her belongings were dropped into the lake, and the same happened to her phone. Currently, Tina was fraught with panic. She knew how cruel Samuel could be. After all, he had no qualms about throwing both her and her newborn in the ocean five years ago.

Now that Samuel had sent people to get them, who knew what he would do to them!

The medical officers hesitated, just as Tina had expected. "Uh... Mr. Langford said that without his permission, you cannot contact anyone..."

"Please!" Tina shouted desperately, begging repeatedly. "I just wish to know how my child is doing. Just one phone call, please? I just want her to be safe! She's only five... Please!" Tina's pale face brought pity among the medical officers. When she brought up her five-year-old child, they were shaken.

They knew Samuel was a deeply cruel and callous man, bordering on inhuman. He wouldn't hesitate to torment the child.

This woman in front of them had offended Samuel, so her death was a matter of course. But was it right to involve an innocent child?!

After a few moments, the medical officer looked at the door.

There were bodyguards outside the door guarding the room 24/7. "The bodyguards are changing shifts. Do it now!" "Okay! Thank you so much!" Tina pressed the keypads with trembling fingers. As Kara's phone was programmed to not accept strangers' numbers, Tina had no choice but to call Frederick

However, Frederick did not pick up.

Her anxiety intensified ever more. Frightened, she continued calling him again and again. When she saw that the bodyguards were almost done changing shifts, she could practically hear her own heart pounding against her chest.

Finally... The line went through, and Tina blurted in a high-pitched tone, "Frederick! It's me, Tina! Samuel's on his way to get you and Kara! You have to leave now...!" Tina quickly said all that she could and finished her sentence hurriedly, but there was no response from the other side.

Confused, Tina double checked the phone number. It was the correct one. "Frederick? Are you there? Please, talk to me..." Strangely enough, the sound of a man's breathing could be heard from the other end of the phone.

That man let out a cruel chuckle.

"Frederick? Seems like you still wish to keep in contact with him."

Tina stood up immediately. All the blood rushed to her in an instant. "S-Samuel..? How... Why are you...?" Why was Samuel using Frederick's phone?

Chapter 303 "Why?" Samuel found her question to be the joke of the century. His tone grew sinister as he went on, "I told you that I'll torture you. Have you forgotten that already?" "Tina! You need to run! You have to escape...!"

Frederick's voice could be heard from the phone. But before Tina could say anything, the call died there and then.

No matter how many times Tina tried to redial, it was to no avail. Her number was blocked. Tina felt her entire body trembling. 'Samuel picked up the phone. He's already got to Frederick!'

That means...?

Kara!'

"They're in trouble!

She rushed out of the room, "I want to see Mr. Langford! Bring me to him!"

But the bodyguards were twice her size and pinned her down almost immediately. "Let me go!"

"Mr. Langford had orders to keep you in the room."

Now that she knew both Frederick and Kara were in trouble, how could Tina sit still?

She gritted her teeth and screamed fiercely, "If you insist, then I'll kill myself in front of you right now! He definitely told you that I can't die, am I right? If anything happened to me, what do you think will happen to you guys?" Right then, Tina grabbed a sharp tool and pointed it at her neck. If anything happened to Kara, then there was no reason left for her to live!

Her actions scared the bodyguards. This woman might look physically weak, but who knew she would be this determined to go against Mr. Langford!

"You..."

Tina took a deep breath and cut herself even deeper.

The medical officers were already panicking.

"No! If she cuts any deeper, then she'll be in trouble..."

Finally, the bodyguards gave in.

If anything did happen to her, they would be damned!

“We’ll call Mr. Langford now!”

“Put that down! We can talk this out.” Tina knew they were just trying to drag the time. Incensed, she continued furiously, “I don’t have the time to chit chat with you! I need to see him now! I won’t let anything happen to my family!”

The bodyguards can feel sweat drenching their entire body.

They had never seen such a troublesome woman, yet Mr. Langford gave his orders to keep her alive!

without further delay, one of them contacted Mr. Langford. “Tina Lynd! You dare threaten me?!” From the other side of the phone came Samuel’s cold voice. Tina held back her tears and laughed weakly as she went, “I’ll be dead anyway, so why not? Just come at me and leave them alone, Samuel!” Samuel only sneered. Tina took another deep breath, “If I die this easily, you won’t be satisfied either. Just let me meet them, please... You can do whatever you want with me...” But the only response she got was the sound of the phone hanging up.

e

Tina was in complete despair at this point. The bodyguard approached her and said, “There’s a dinner tonight. If you can satisfy Mr. Langford, Miss Lynd, you might get your chance.”

Chapter 304

That stunned Tina.

“Dinner? What dinner?” But the bodyguard ignored her question and replied curtly, “You’ll know.” However, that served to make Tina all the more anxious, Will Samuel really let her meet them if she behaved well?

But Samuel hated her so much, so it definitely wouldn’t be easy...

Tina had no choice but to attend the dinner.

She clenched her fists in determination, knowing this was probably her only remaining ray of hope. If this was how Samuel wanted to torture her, then she would have to follow.

“Mr. Langford will pick you up at night.”

Tina was still feeling sick, especially after the events that had transpired that day. Yet, she dared not fall asleep and sat awake on bed, waiting anxiously for Samuel’s inevitable return.

Finally...

After waiting for quite some time, she heard the sound of cars.

Cars were entering outside. Tina subconsciously stood up.

Just as she predicted, the bodyguards soon opened the door. “Mr. Langford is here. You may go now.”

Tina stared dumbly at her current attire. How was she to go to a formal dinner with the way she was dressed?

Perhaps this was Samuel's way of humiliating her?

Tina bunched up the corners of her clothes with her sweaty palms as she tottered down the stairs.

The bodyguards were following closely behind her, fearing that she would flee at any second. But as Tina knew that Frederick and Kara were still in Samuel's hands, she wouldn't dare to run away recklessly. Like it or not, she had to obey Samuel's every whim.

Meanwhile, Samuel was sitting casually in the backseat of the car.

Tina's breathing stopped the moment she spotted Samuel.

He was glaring at her.

The woman in front of him was wearing a patient's uniform, too weak to even stand up straight. In spite of her woeful state, she deserved none of his pity or sympathy.

She had manipulated him again and again, and he had enough of her schemes. His stare was full of disgust as he commanded, "Get in now."

Without hesitation, Tina jumped into the car.

She distanced herself from Samuel, opting to sit close to the car door.

Now that they were in the same car, Tina could smell the alcohol reeking out of Samuel. She wondered, 'Did he drink??'

Tina recalled that Samuel had come straight from a business meeting. Thus, it was only natural for him to drink...

The only thing Tina should worry about right now was herself. Due to her anxiousness, she had been avoiding him since the start. However, Tina's vision went black as Samuel flung a dress on her. "Put this on." Confused, Tina looked at the dress. Upon seeing it, her face turned white immediately. "This is..."

To say the dress was sexy and revealing would be a complete understatement. It was scanty attire a prostitute would wear.

Chapter 305 Still puzzled, Tina asked, "Where are we going?"

But Samuel wasn't planning to answer.

"If you want to see them, then get dressed now."

Tina's already pale face went paler as she clutched the horrible dress. "H-Here?" "Where else?" Samuel glanced at her with an insulting sneer. "Why are you acting like a prude all of a sudden?"

She had done everything with Frederick, to the point she had a daughter with him.

How dare she act all coy and innocent now! "I..." Tina bit her lower lip in reluctance. Alas, she knew there was no hope in fighting back. Her face still ashen, she agreed weakly. "Okay, I will." 'So this is how he is going to torture me.' Knowing well that Frederick and Kara's fates depend on Samuel, Tina had no choice but to obey Samuel's cruel whims.

Tina unbuttoned her clothes with her trembling hands, trying hard to ignore the driver. As for Samuel, his face became more and more gloomy when he saw her doing so. He pressed a button, and the baffle rose. "You're really good at seducing men, aren't you? To think you're willing to strip in front of anyone." Tina couldn't respond as she was still trembling in fear.

'Isn't this what he wanted?' She had no choice but to continue changing.

Not long after, the car stopped. Samuel walked straight out of the car without bothering to wait for Tina. Tina too didn't hesitate to follow Samuel. She soon realized that they were at a high-class restaurant, and that everyone around them was dressed formally. This inadvertently put Tina in the center of attention... She didn't need to guess to know that everyone was looking at her as though she was a clown.

Tina clenched her fists until her nails dug deep in her palms. She controlled her urge to escape and followed Samuel meekly. She had her head down the entire time. When she reached the entrance, she was suddenly blocked from advancing.

"You can't go in there!"

Tina lifted her head up, only to see that Samuel was already walking in front of her. He had almost disappeared in the hallway. Afraid that she would anger Samuel, Tina said anxiously, "I'm here with him..." The bodyguard turned around to look, and it was Mr. Langford. Everyone knew who Samuel was. There was no way this woman came with him. "That's impossible! Go look in the mirror, you ugly woman! Stop having unrealistic dreams!" the bodyguard glared at her sarcastically.

Everyone around Tina started laughing mockingly at her. The bodyguards approached her to throw her out.

Just then, they heard a voice interrupting them. "Wait, I know this lady. She's my partner for dinner."

Chapter 307 Tina, however, fled as quickly as she could. The waiters around her began to gossip and pointed fingers at her. "How did such a person get into here? This is a high-class restaurant!"

"It seems she followed Mr. Langford. Mr. Cohen saved her..."

"Ew! Is she seducing two men at a time?" "That's so disgusting! What if she has some STDs? It might affect our business if other clients see her!"

1

Tina managed to hide in the washroom as everyone continued to gossip about her.

Not long later, heavy footsteps came from outside. Suddenly, a huge obese figure entered the washroom and blocked the entrance with his portly belly.

It was the same lecherous man back in the private room.

Tina was shocked and went on the defensive almost immediately. "Why are you here?"

The man rubbed his palms together as he leered at Tina. "Why can't I be here? I've noticed you back there! You're the one who offended Mr. Langford, aren't you? It seems you're having a pathetic life with him. Why not come to me? I'll make you one of my secretaries. What do you think?"

Tina gritted her teeth and rejected him without hesitation.

"No thanks!"

"No? Stop pretending to be a prude!" Her words angered the man. "Judging from your dress, isn't it obvious that Mr. Langford is planning to sell you away?"

Tina's face turned pale instantly. She finally understood why Samuel brought her here. It wasn't just to torture and humiliate her.

He was planning to sell her away to others, just like what this man did to his two secretaries!

Why else would he bring her here and force her in such a revealing outfit?! "No, that's not possible!" Despite her terror, Tina still fought back with trembling lips.

"How's that impossible? Just follow me!"

The man strode towards Tina and grabbed her by the arm.

"If you can satisfy me, then I might request you from Mr. Langford. If not, be prepared to serve more men!"

Not too long ago, she was resting in the hospital and recovering from her illness after an episode of almost drowning.

At this point, Tina was too weak to fight back. She had no more strength in her.

"Let go of me... Someone, please help me!" "Help you? Who would want to help a woman like you?"

A wicked smile could be seen on the man's wrinkly face.

"Nobody will care about you, not even Mr. Langford! He might as well just sell you to me!" Filled with desperation and hopelessness, Tina continued to struggle.

Just then, the man let out a terrible scream.

"Ahhhh!" He stumbled to the side as a kick assaulted him.

Chapter 308 The kick came from none other than Samuel Langford.

Specifically, Samuel's kick was aimed directly at the man's lower part.

Soon the man lay crumpled on the floor, unconscious.

Samuel glared at Tina. When he spoke, his tone was full of insulting sarcasm.

"Tina! I told you to leave the private room, not to seduce men! Are you really this desperate?!" Tina was too weak to say anything. The only thing she could do was tremble in fear. Samuel looked at her, repulsion and hate evident in his dagger-like gaze. As he turned around, Tina threw her body to him and hugged his leg tightly. "Don't leave..."

Samuel yelled harshly, "Let go!" "No!"

Tina was terrified, especially when she knew what would happen to her if Samuel decided to sell her. She would be damned! By then, nobody would be able to help her! "Samuel..... I want to go... Please let me go...!" Tina begged in a shaky voice. "Go?"

Samuel stared coldly at Tina and chuckled. "Isn't this what you wanted? Don't you want to see Frederick and your child? Are you giving up already?" Hearing Samuel mention the two, Tina trembled even more. "I..."

"Aren't you going to let go of me?" Tina gritted her teeth as sadness filled her body. She had nothing to use to retaliate against Samuel. If she wanted to, she could just kill herself and die

But what about her family? What about Kara?! Standing before her was a demon who wouldn't hesitate to direct his wrath anger to Kara and her family, and torture them in her stead!

Tina slowly let go of her hands.

Samuel was incredibly annoyed. This woman had fooled him with her tricks again and again.

He flung Tina's hands away without a single ounce of pity.

"Get back to the car!"

Samuel turned around without looking back.

Tina tried keeping up to his pace as she knew if she couldn't; Samuel might just leave her here. Unfortunately, she was too weak to walk properly. Soon, she fell to the ground again. Just then, a figure appeared before her. "Let me help you." Tina lifted her head and saw Raymond Cohen. Having gone through the lecherous old man prior, Tina could only stare defensively at him. Raymond couldn't bother to explain himself, either. "If you don't walk faster, he'll just drive away. How would you leave?"

Without hesitation, Tina grabbed Raymond's hand and got back up. When she finally got out of the restaurant, Samuel's car was already leaving without her.

Chapter 309

Tina threw herself at the car without hesitation.

That gave the driver a shock, and he immediately stepped on the brakes. "What were you thinking?!" "Open the door... Let me in..." Tina begged with all of her remaining strength. The driver turned back to look anxiously at Samuel. "Mr. Langford, I..."

Samuel remained silent.

The driver took that as a yes.

The door was opened, and Tina climbed into the car.

But Samuel did not spare her a look and ignored her completely, as if she was air.

Tina, on the other hand, was trembling. She looked as if she was going to faint at any second.

Unfortunately, she couldn't faint.

Tina pleaded, "Mr. Langford... I did everything you asked for. I should be able to see my family now, right?"

"Family?" Samuel sneered. "Are they family?" Tina didn't bother to explain herself anymore at this point.

"Can I see them? Mr. Langford, you promised. Are you going against your word?" Tina continued to beg, her voice lowered to a small whisper.

"I said you had to satisfy me," Samuel answered.

Tina felt someone clenching hard at her heart, and she began to gasp for air.

She clenched her fist and let out a weak smile. "The only reason you're letting me live is to torture me, isn't it? You've achieved that today by humiliating me completely. Isn't that enough to satisfy you?"

Samuel looked at Tina before giving her a sarcastic chuckle. "Have you completely given up on your acting? So, you're not even trying to fool me anymore?"

Tina's expression was calm. "Isn't this what you wanted?"

Seeing how she had lost hope, Samuel felt anger rising in him. The car soon stopped outside the mansion. Samuel left while saying, "What's the rush? The night is still long, and since you still have the energy to talk, I'll need to torture you more." He dragged Tina by the hand and walked into the mansion. Previously, Tina was brought here after Samuel first found out that she was still alive.

"Get back to the car!"

Samuel turned around without looking back.

Tina tried keeping up to his pace as she knew if she couldn't, Samuel might just leave her here.

Unfortunately, she was too weak to walk properly. Soon, she fell to the ground again. Just then, a figure appeared before her. "Let me help you." Tina lifted her head and saw Raymond Cohen. Having gone through the lecherous old man prior, Tina could only stare defensively at him. Raymond couldn't bother to explain himself, either. "If you don't walk faster, he'll just drive away. How would you leave?"

Without hesitation, Tina grabbed Raymond's hand and got back up. When she finally got out of the restaurant, Samuel's car was already leaving without her.

Chapter 309 Tina threw herself at the car without hesitation.

That gave the driver a shock, and he immediately stepped on the brakes.

"What were you thinking?!" "Open the door... Let me in..." Tina begged with all of her remaining strength. The driver turned back to look anxiously at Samuel. "Mr. Langford, I..."

Samuel remained silent.

The driver took that as a yes.

The door was opened, and Tina climbed into the car.

But Samuel did not spare her a look and ignored her completely, as if she was air.

Tina, on the other hand, was trembling. She looked as if she was going to faint at any second.

Unfortunately, she couldn't faint.

Tina pleaded, "Mr. Langford... I did everything you asked for. I should be able to see my family now, right?" "Family?" Samuel sneered. "Are they family?"

Tina didn't bother to explain herself anymore at this point. "Can I see them? Mr. Langford, you promised. Are you going against your word?" Tina continued to beg, her voice lowered to a small whisper. "I said you had to satisfy me," Samuel answered.

Tina felt someone clenching hard at her heart, and she began to gasp for air.

She clenched her fist and let out a weak smile. "The only reason you're letting me live is to torture me, isn't it? You've achieved that today by humiliating me completely. Isn't that enough to satisfy you?" Samuel looked at Tina before giving her a sarcastic chuckle. "Have you completely given up on your acting? So, you're not even trying to fool me anymore?"

Tina's expression was calm. "Isn't this what you wanted?"

Seeing how she had lost hope, Samuel felt anger rising in him.

The car soon stopped outside the mansion. Samuel left while saying, "What's the rush? The night is still long, and since you still have the energy to talk, I'll need to torture you more."

He dragged Tina by the hand and walked into the mansion.

Previously, Tina was brought here after Samuel first found out that she was still alive.

At that time, she was desperate to escape. Now, she couldn't. The next day.

The man was nowhere to be found in the room, and there were torn clothes scattered all over the floor.

Even the servants who came in and saw the mess couldn't help but blush.

They couldn't even look Tina in the eyes. "Mr. Langford told you to go down right now!" Tina replied in a rather calm voice, "Okay, but what about my clothes?" The servants were stunned. They went silent as they thought about it before replying, "Mr. Langford didn't prepare any." "So I'm supposed to go down like this?" Tina asked. Tina exchanged glances with the servants. Her body was a mess, and it was impossible for her to walk out in this state. "Wait a second, you!" The servants left the room and came back not long after with wrinkly clothes.

Tina walked down with difficulty. Samuel was sitting on the sofa. Upon seeing Tina, he threw a phone at her.

Chapter 310

Samuel threw the phone at Tina's direction the moment she reached downstairs.

Tina looked at him, confused.

“What’s the meaning of this?”

Samuel spat back icily, “Didn’t you want to meet your family? Do it with this phone!”

Tina found herself shouting. “But yesterday, we agreed that...!”

She wanted to meet them in person and made sure that they were safe, not through a screen!

Even so, Samuel simply threw her a sarcastic look. Tina then recalled what Samuel said previously.

He never mentioned that she could meet them in person.

Tina clenched her fists. She felt a rush of humiliation surging in her, to the extent that she wanted to stand up and slap him right that instant. Still, she knew she couldn’t do that. Tina kept quiet, though her face grew redder and redder. “So, you’re not planning to see them?” Samuel glanced at Tina before shifting his gaze on the phone on the floor.

“I can’t pick it up!” Tina shouted angrily.

Samuel chuckled malevolently, his tone filled with mockery. “Your hands are fine.”

Thanks to Samuel, Tina felt sore all over her body.

She had used up most of her energy walking down the stairs, and had no energy left to pick up the phone.

She knew Samuel was treating her like a fool. Still, she remained determined and bit her lip as she bent down to pick up the phone on the floor.

Tina only had thin clothing on her, and the neckline was exposed as she bent down. If she bent down even further, more things would be revealed...

Samuel’s face darkened instantly. Without warning, he kicked the phone away.

“Tina, you’re such a sl*t!”

He stormed out of the place, as if he couldn’t stand being in the same room with her anymore. Tears rolled down Tina’s eyes as she saw the phone being kicked away. Samuel was a dangerously moody person, and his mood swings were frighteningly unbearable. His explosive temper seemed to have worsened over the years. The servants were terrified and immediately retreated to their initial position. Tina held back the pain as she picked the phone up and returned to her room. There was only one contact number, which Tina dialed without hesitation.

The phone was picked up immediately. “Frederick, is that you?” Tina asked, trying very hard not to sound nervous.

“...It’s me!” What responded to her was a terribly hoarse voice.

Tina almost broke out in tears when she heard his voice, but she managed to reel in her emotions and stay calm.

Tina continued, "Frederick, are you in Samuel's hands now? What did he do to you?! What about Kara? Is she with you?"

Frederick's voice was rather stiff and full of guilt. "Don't worry, I'm fine. But as for Kara, I don't know where she is now!" "Were you two separated?" Fear and panic spread within Tina. "Yes. I was alerted, but I couldn't escape in time. I was locked up. They took Kara away, but I'm not sure where..."