

Pampered 381

Chapter 381

John's mother was shoving an outfit over, and Tina couldn't refuse her kind offer.

"But there's no place I can change." "We're both women. Why don't you just turn around?" John's mother demanded, "I will not look at you. Don't worry!"

What John's mother said was true. And Tina already had a daughter. She was not a young girl.

She shouldn't have been so nervous about it.

Tina turned around and took off her clothes.

John's mother fastened her eyes on Tina and saw a scar on Tina's waist...

'It was her!

"Tina was the little girl from back then!"

U

At the same time, John's mother had a sharp intake of breath, with an obvious murderous look in her eyes! Tina heard the sharp breath behind her. She got a little embarrassed.

She almost forgot that there was a scar on her waist, so obvious that John's mother must have been shocked.

"Sorry, I forgot I had a scar on my body..."

"Oh, it's okay!" John's mother said.

Tina changed into the clean outfit and packed up her wet dress. Then she left the room.

At the moment when the hotel room door closed, John's mother's face immediately darkened, and her eyes welled up with deadly malice.

Just then, her phone rang.

"Mrs. Carter, that woman has left the hotel. Should we follow her?"

"NO!" John's mother instructed, "She is still with Samuel. If you follow her too often, they will find out. You must be very careful!"

"Yes, Madam!" The man on the other end of the line answered respectfully, "So, do we continue with the previous plan?"

"Yes!" John's mother said viciously, "Don't let me wait all the time! Take action soon!"

"Yes, Madam."

Aster hanging up the phone, John's mother clutched the phone fiercely. As she had expected, Tina was the same little girl back then.

'She must die! Just like she was supposed to be!'

She must die quietly, without drawing too much attention! John's mother was determined to have Tina murdered, so Tina could never threaten her position!

Tina went back to the villa.

Her mood was so low that she really had no appetite for the chef's cooking, so she planned to cook something for herself. Just as Tina was busy in the kitchen. A maid's voice rang out in the corridor. "Mr. Langford, you're back." Tina was about to carry the soup out, when she saw Samuel appear outside the kitchen door. She was startled and almost spilled the soup in her hand.

"Mr. Langford, what are you doing here?"

Samuel looked at her and asked coldly, "I shouldn't have come back?"

"I didn't mean that..." Tina lowered her head, not daring to look at Samuel. She asked again, "Mrs. Langford and your son probably will not be happy about it."

Cindy made a scene today in the hospital, so Tina thought Samuel probably would not come back to the villa today.

Samuel was so annoyed that he wanted to pinch Tina's face to make her see the truth.

He and Cindy, all along, had been a couple in name.

Even if Keith was his own son, Keith had an aloof personality, and the boy turned out to be a genius. And his IQ was much higher than most people. He was not close with his father.

Samuel did not bother to say so much. He just rebuked, "Tina, it's none of your business!"

"I'm sorry." Tina's heart thumped.

Samuel was bored of Tina's being timid all the time. He turned his back on her and demanded, "Come out with me!"

Tina was stunned. 'What is going on?'

Chapter 382

Tina gritted her teeth and followed Samuel out. She was so nervous that she couldn't help but think about it. 'Does Mr. Langford want to punish me because of Cindy? Or did I piss him off at work today?' Samuel was walking ahead. Seeing that Tina was slow as a snail, he couldn't help but reach out and grab her wrist. Tina was startled and tried to break free, "Mr. Langford, what are you doing? Where exactly are you taking me?" Seeing Tina so anxious, Samuel's face immediately darkened. "I'm not going to eat you!" He then carried Tina up in his arms, lest he really changed his mind and ate her alive if she kept walking so slow. "Let go of me!" Tina struggled, but suddenly, she heard a childish voice. "Mommy!" Her body froze, and she thought she was mishearing. Tina then turned her head, and she saw a little girl in the yard!

Samuel put Tina down, and she was dumbfounded.

“Mommy’s back!” Like a swallow returning to the nest, Kara couldn’t wait to throw herself into Tina’s arms and hug her tightly without a second’s relaxation. Tina thought she was dreaming. “How come you’re here?” “Mr. Meanie told me to come!”

The little girl whispered into Tina’s ears. She was so excited.

“And Mr Meanje also bought me a lot of candy, but I did not eat it. I have saved it all for you! actually secretly took a bite. It was very sweet. Mommy, let me feed you!”

Then Kara took a candy out of her pocket. It was the most expensive chocolate in the world.

Kara hurriedly tried to peel off the wrapping paper of the chocolate and wanted to share it with Tina

However, as the chocolate was very expensive, the packaging was also very delicate. It was difficult for the little girl to peel the wrapping paper off. Tina couldn’t watch Kara trying so hard on the chocolate, but she knew that Kara wanted to do it by herself. So Tina asked tentatively, “May I help...”

Before Tina finished her sentence, Samuel came over,

Instead of taking the chocolate away and unwrapping it for the little girl, he held Kara’s hand and gently pulled it. The chocolate wrapping paper was peeled off easily. “It’s done.” Samuel said lightly. Samuel didn’t realize that because of the presence of Tina and her daughter, his cold temperament softened. The bodyguards and maids around were all stunned. They exchanged glances with each other and had the same thought in their hearts. Comparing with Samuel’s state of being together with Keith and Cindy, people who didn’t know the family would think these three were a family. Kara said, “Thank you, Mr. Meanie!” Hearing Kara’s words, Tina was frightened. She lowered her voice and said to Kara, “Sweetie, it’s impolite to call Mr. Meanie...” “Oh, thank you, Uncle!” Kara said again. She handed the chocolate to Tina, “Mommy, take it!” Tina didn’t dare to look up to see Samuel’s expression. She kept her head hung down and gently took a bite. The chocolate had been in Kara’s pocket for a long time, and it had melted a bit. The texture was sticky, but Tina was so happy. “Is it good?” Kara asked. “Mmm, it’s delicious!” Tina looked into the little girl’s big eyes and handed out the rest of the chocolate, “You can take the rest...”

Before Tina finished her sentence, Samuel’s big palm reached over, held Tina’s wrist, turned the chocolate around, and sent it into his own mouth! Kara had been expecting it!

Chapter 383 Tina was completely stunned.

She didn’t make a reaction until she watched Samuel eating up the chocolate in her hand little by little.

“That’s... That’s for Kara!”

“I know,” Samuel said in a casual tone. And he even frowned, as he despised the chocolate. “The chocolate is ordinary. I really don’t know why you consider it delicious.” Tina looked at Samuel and then looked at Kara, who was upset but didn’t dare to utter a word. Then she flew into a rage suddenly and couldn’t help scolding, “Samuel, what have you done? How can you rob Kara of her chocolate?” The distinguished president of the Langford Group grabbed a child’s chocolate shamelessly. If the news spread, he would definitely become a laughing stock.

Looking at furious Tina, Samuel didn’t get angry and explained, “I’ve asked someone to buy her a lot of chocolates. Why can’t I eat one?”

“That’s different! If you want to eat, you can take another one. But why did you grab Kara’s chocolate?”

“How can he grab Kara’s chocolate?’ ‘I took a bite of the chocolate, and there was even a tooth mark on it.’ ‘Isn’t Samuel a neat freak?’

Tina was stamping her foot in anger while Kara was comforting her. “Mummy, it doesn’t matter. I still have a lot of candies!”

When Tina saw meek Kara, Tina couldn’t help recalling the scene she secretly saw outside the kindergarten.

Kara was sitting there alone, looking pitiful and helpless.

However, in the video call with her, Kara looked so happy.

Kara was so considerate at such a young age that Tina felt heartbroken.

Tina exploded with her suppressed and accumulated anger again.

“Samuel, you’re such a bastard!” She clenched her fist and wanted to hit Samuel. But her fist was held by Samuel

Samuel was much stronger than her, so he could subdue her easily. Tina didn’t give up. Instead, she bit him on his arm violently.

“Ouch...”

Not only did Samuel give a gasp in pain, but his subordinates were stunned.

They didn’t know whether to stop Tina or not. Then Samuel carried Tina in his arms and took her upstairs regardless of her struggle. Looking at it, his subordinates shrugged helplessly. ‘What’s going on? Does a piece of chocolate make Mr. Langford flirt with Miss Lynd?’ Samuel’s subordinates thought. ‘Miss Lynd really occupies an important position in Mr. Langford’s heart.’ Tina struggled violently. “Let me go. Kara is still downstairs...” “I’ve said that if you behave well, I’ll let you meet Kara.” Samuel added in an overbearing tone, “You behave well these days. Don’t you want to see her in the next few days?”

As soon as he said these words, Tina didn’t dare to struggle.

She was very eager to see Kara. When she thought that she was going to lose her sweetie, she couldn’t even breathe.

Seeing Tina lie obediently in his arms, Samuel felt satisfied.

“Don’t worry,” Samuel said in a low voice. “As long as you accompany me obediently, I’ll give you anything you want.” These intoxicating love words did not warm Tina. On the contrary, she felt colder and colder.

If she wanted to be free, could Samuel let her go?

Impossible!

So, all he said was empty talk.. She would never believe his empty talk!

Early the next morning, Tina finally had the opportunity to take Kara to school. She kissed Kara goodbye reluctantly outside the kindergarten.

“Mummy, are you leaving again?” Kara asked cautiously. Tina answered affirmatively, “Don’t worry. I’ll definitely come to take you home today!” “Okay. I’ll definitely wait for you to pick me up.” Kara nodded obediently.

Then Tina returned to the car and went to the company with Samuel.

However, the moment they entered the door of the company, Samuel’s subordinate walked towards him in a hurry. “Mr. Langford, please wait. Something bad has happened!”

Chapter 384

The assistant looked a little alarmed. Apparently, something really bad had happened. “What is it?” Samuel’s brow furrowed, and his face was gloomy. The assistant walked forward and whispered something to Samuel. Instantly, Samuel exuded an icy aura. His eyes showed an appalling look. “Inform everyone to have a meeting right now.” “I got it!” The assistant wiped the cold sweat from his forehead.

Tina was taken aback by this scene.

Although she didn’t know how the business world worked, she had heard of Samuel’s reputation. He had always made quick decisions in everything he did.

Tina wondered how serious the matter was that it could make him look gloomy.

Tina only dared to wonder, and she knew she shouldn’t know too much.

She rode the elevator alone and made her way to the CEO’s office.

Tina had just put her handbag down when she heard a crisp voice from behind her. “Hello, are you Miss Lynd?”

Tina was startled and turned around. She had thought that the CEO’s office was empty after the assistant left with Samuel.

She realized that there was a woman in the office, not far behind her.

Tina asked with some confusion, “Who are you?”

“I’m the new secretary! My name is Lynne, and nice to meet you!”

Lynne was dressed in work clothes and looked fit. She was dressed in a very innocent way, the type that made countless men swoon. She smiled sweetly at Tina and extended her hand. Tina froze for a moment and took her hand in hers. She asked, “Are you a secretary too?” “Yes! I am the CEO’s secretary just like you. From now on, we will work together for Mr. Langford!”

Lynne said in a casual tone. “Miss Lynd, Mr. Langford didn’t want a secretary at all before. I heard that you are the first secretary that Mr. Langford has personally chosen to bring to the company. I’m so jealous of you!”

“If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t be so lucky. I was called over by Mrs. Langford to be your assistant.”

“You must be very capable, right? Where did you graduate from? You must have graduated from a world-renowned university, right?” “Or is it that you have a lot of work experience? Can you share it with me?” Lynne asked with a smile.

Tina just felt uncomfortable. She didn’t even graduate from college, because she was forced to drop out after being set up by Pearl and Desmond. And she couldn’t even get a normal job.

She started as an apprentice in Paris. She was lucky enough to become a designer because she worked hard night and day. However, her experience was not worth mentioning in Samuel’s company. It seemed that Tina was hesitant. Then Lynne immediately said, “I’m sorry, Miss Lynd. Are you uneasy about talking about it? Then I’ll shut up!” “That’s okay. I don’t blame you,” said Tina.

The smile on Lynne’s face froze. At that moment, the elevator doors opened. Someone came in and hurriedly shouted, “Miss Lynd! Help!” “What is it?” The man had a flattering smile on his face. “Well, Mr. Langford is busy with a meeting right now, so we need someone to go in and several bottles of water, so…” Tina figured it out.

Because what happened this morning made Samuel upset, these people were afraid of being implicated by Samuel’s anger. On normal days, Tina wouldn’t want to get herself into trouble, but she didn’t know why she didn’t want to be in the same room with Lynne. Tina replied, “Okay. Leave it to me.”

Chapter 385

The employee then grinned. “Thank you so much! I’ll treat you another day!”

“It’s okay.” Tina waved her hand and then headed for the elevator. However, at the moment the elevator door closed, the employee exchanged a glance with Lynne.

“She is definitely finished this time. Do you believe me?” Lynne asked with a smug on her face.

The employee answered contemptuously, “She thinks she’s Mr. Langford’s wife? She is just a mistress. After such an incident, she is definitely screwed!”

Ding! The door of the elevator opened. Tina was carrying several bottles of water in her arms. Looking at the closed conference room door, she couldn’t help but take a deep breath. She suddenly regretted it. ‘Why did I agree to do it?’ However, she had come here. She was going to do the task anyway. Samuel couldn’t kick her in front of so many people. Tina pushed open the door. At a glance, she saw Samuel sitting on the head of the conference table and a bunch of employees with their heads bowed. Samuel had a stern look and a domineering air about him. His voice resounded clearly in the conference room. “I’ll give you guys one hour to find out what has gone wrong!” Right after that, he threw the pile of documents on the table, stood up, and walked towards the door.

Tina was so scared that she took several steps back and involuntarily tried to avoid him, but Samuel stopped her. “What are you doing here?” Samuel frowned. Tina got nervous immediately. She held the bottles in her arms tighter and replied, “I came here to deliver the water.”

Samuel took a deep breath, which helped him to suppress his temper.

“No need for that. Put it down here. They should be left alone to think about matters inside!” His tone was so cold and stern that Tina didn’t dare to retort.

“Oh, okay.”

She left the water at the door and followed Samuel behind.

“What are you doing following me?” Samuel asked impatiently. Tina was startled. “I’m your secretary. It’s my job to follow you around and do as you order, right?”

“Stay away from me! Don’t annoy me!” Samuel didn’t want Tina following him around and disturbing his thoughts. His tone was impatient, and then he lit a cigarette. The smoke rose and blocked the two. When Tina was about to turn around and walk away, she suddenly saw Samuel’s assistant coming out of the conference room.

She stepped aside and gave way, but to her surprise, the assistant gave her a deep glance before sweeping past her. “Mr. Langford, I know what’s wrong!” “What?” Samuel spat.

“Mr. Langford, we would never have the guts to leak the documents. How could we be so stupid? We are all terrified after hearing the documents leaked. But...”

“But what?”

The assistant’s voice suddenly rose. He stretched out his arm and pointed towards Tina. “But, I remembered, that day when I delivered the document to you for your signature, you happened to be in a meeting in the conference room, and I handed the document to Tina!”

“Tina was the only one who had access to those documents during that half-hour! Yesterday, we investigated thoroughly all night, but we forgot that we should have suspected Tina!”

Chapter 386

Hearing his words, Tina was instantly dumbfounded in place.

“What do you mean?” “Since all of us signed confidentiality agreements, it is impossible for us to expose it. But she didn’t do that. She wants to deal with all of us!” Samuel’s eyes suddenly became appalling. He said, “Tina.” Looking at his suspicious eyes, Tina trembled and said, “No! How could I possibly do such a thing?” “Bang!” Suddenly, the door beside her was opened. : Cindy suddenly appeared. She pointed at Tina and said, “Samuel, I’m sure Tina did it! Not only did she lie to you, but she tried to make the Langford Group go bankrupt!” Saying that, Cindy suddenly threw many photos on the table. “Look at these photos. How can you explain them?”

Seeing those photos, Tina felt that the blood in her body seemed to freeze and her head was buzzing. Those photos were taken when she and Desmond were together! Some of them were taken at school five years ago! It seemed that Tina and Desmond had connections a long time ago. After that, she betrayed Samuel and exposed the documents of the Langford Group for a check for five million dollars! Tina suddenly raised her head. Seeing Cindy’s smug and malicious eyes, she suddenly understood what

“No! That’s not the truth. You want to set me up!” Cindy had set her up many times five years ago, and now she was trying to destroy Tina. Tina held back her tears as she pounced on Cindy. She would not let go of Cindy! “Tina, you bitch, what do you want to do?”

Cindy had been smug. However, when she saw Tina pouncing on her, she was terrified, so she exclaimed, "Help."

Tina raised her arm and wanted to slap Cindy. However, Samuel came back to his senses quickly and held her arm tightly. "Tina, how dare you slap her?" Samuel said in a dangerous and gloomy voice.

After saying that, he flung Tina away without mercy.

Tina fell to the ground in a mess.

However, Cindy took the opportunity to jump into Samuel's arms and said, "Samuel, I'm so terrified just now! I've known that Tina was vicious for a long time. If she stays with you obediently, I won't bother with her. However, I was worried that she would cheat on you, so I secretly hired a detective to follow her. As a result, I found out that she had an affair with Desmond! They were a couple five years ago. Since Desmond was fired by Mr. Beckett, he holds a grudge against him. Tina felt that you got in the way of her and Mr. Jackson. So they conspired to deal with you! Samuel, don't let her go. This is too terrible!" Samuel looked at Tina with arrogant eyes and said, "Since the evidence is here, do you have anything else to say?"

Tina glanced at Samuel and Cindy, who was holding his waist, with pale and powerless eyes.

She suddenly remembered the sweet words that Samuel had said to her last night. At this time, seeing him protect Cindy, she doubted herself and felt extremely heartbroken. She didn't say anything now. Nor did she do it five years ago. She thought that Samuel only loved Cindy. "Tina!" Samuel said in a cold voice. Cindy felt very happy in Samuel's arms.

Samuel finally saw the real about this bitch and no longer rejected me.' "Samuel, she's acquiesced!"

Then she added, "Send this vicious woman to the police station quickly to prevent her from harming others!"