

Chapter 386: Toying with feelings (1)

Mo shenbai restrained the emotions in his eyes and turned back expressionlessly. what's the matter? "

Xu Jialu lowered his head. Bo Qi has finished his game and Xie tingxi is already there. Let's go for a drink.

"I'm not interested," She rejected him very decisively.

Xu Jialu rolled his eyes and strode over. He leaned against the glass and complained to him.

"I say, why do you lock yourself in the company all day? Do you know that the whole company is complaining now? everyone is asking me if you're divorced? Not only do you torture yourself every day, but you also torture the entire company to work overtime with you."

Mo shenbai did not look at him and said simply, " the company will pay them overtime if they work overtime, or they can submit their resignation.

Xu Jialu choked and raised his hands in surrender. fine, I can't outtalk you. But er ha has spoken tonight. If you don't go tonight, he won't let me enter LAN Huo's house anymore.

"That's even better. You can focus on working for the company in the future."

"F * ck, f * ck, f * ck!" Xu Jialu couldn't hold back his bad temper anymore. old dog mo, do you think you're still human? You evil capitalist, you cut leeks all day long and squeeze us, the group of working class, dry. Now you even squeeze us dry after work. Even Zhou is not as black-hearted as you!"

Mo shenbai let him scold him and did not respond at all.

Xu Jialu's phone rang. It was Xie tingxi.

"I can't convince him. If you want to say something, you can say it yourself." Xu Jialu picked up the phone and threw a sentence before he put it on speaker and handed it to mo shenbai.

Mo shenbai didn't take it. His eyes fell on the phone.

"Shenbai, it's rare that Xie tingxi isn't at home tonight. Come and let's have a drink." Bo Qi's voice came from the phone.

"I'm not going," moshen Bai said.

you promised Fu Dongsheng that you wouldn't touch the ansheng group if he got a divorce. This time, it was Xie tingxi who spoke. His tone was calm and unhurried as he said, " this time, I helped you deal with the ansheng group, and Fu Dongsheng and Fu Anbang are like stray dogs that will never be able to make a comeback. Aren't you going to thank me? "

Mo shenbai's expression was calm, and he said in a mechanical tone, " "Thank you," he said.

Xie tingxi was speechless.

In the end, it was Xu Jialu who brought out his trump card and threatened him, " old dog mo, you'll be living in the company for the next three months. Youyou still doesn't know, right? "

Mo shenbai reached out and hung up the call. His thin lips opened slightly. "I'll only be here for an hour."

"Deal," he said.

Xu Jialu urged him to leave quickly, but he couldn't help but ask, "I say, you've been urging the investment department's proposal every day for the past few months. What are you trying to do?"

Mo shenbai's long, slender legs strode towards the elevator, and he miserably squeezed out two words. "Earn money!"

Xu Jialu followed him into the elevator and said, "You're already so rich, you won't die if you earn less! Can't you leave him a way out?"

"No,"

Without waiting for Xu Jialu to scold him, he said, "I want to help the triplets collect their dowry!"

"What?" Xu Jialu looked at him as if he was looking at an idiot. are you okay? eat more Amaranthine plums!

"What does saving for the dowry have to do with you? It's my parents who have to prepare her dowry. If not, there's still me. Do you think it's your turn?"

Mo shenbai turned to look at him and asked calmly, "Your assets are over ten million?"

Xu Jialu was speechless.

F * ck!

The damage wasn't great, but it was extremely insulting!

...

LAN Huo, private room.

Bo Qi asked the manager to open the wine he had just bought and personally poured mo shenbai some wine.

you're finally willing to show your face. Otherwise, I would have thought that you'd gone abroad with the little loli!

Mo shenbai glanced at the glass in front of him and asked the manager to bring him a glass of juice.

The three of them looked at each other.

"What do you mean?"

Mo shenbai leaned back, unbuttoned his sleeves to reveal his beautiful wrists, and said lightly, "Youyou's not here. I don't drink."

"....."

Mo shenbai was drinking the fruit juice that Xu Youyou often drank. He would never drink it in the past because it was too sweet.

But now, he felt that it was not bad. Not only did he drink Xu Youyou's juice, but he also ate her favorite food, bought her favorite perfume, and even played her favorite escape room alone.

Xu Youyou was not in Mo City, but there were traces of her everywhere in the city. Mo shenbai seemed to be following her footsteps and surviving day after day.

Three months for others was three centuries for him, or even longer.

Bo Qi asked Xu Jialu in a low voice, " what kind of Gu did your sister put on Shen Bai? "

A good domineering CEO was about to become a wife-gazing rock.

No, he was already a wife-gazing stone.

Xu Jialu thought for a moment and answered seriously, " maybe she took after me. This damn charming beauty makes people unable to control themselves ...

f * ck ... Bo Qi almost vomited in disgust. To prevent him from continuing his narcissism, he quickly changed the topic. tingxi, why are you free today? " Where's that little devil of yours?"

Now, everyone in Mo City knew that Xie tingxi's son was a little devil. He was extremely unruly and lawless, but because of his father, no one dared to say a word about him.

Xie tingxi pushed up his glasses and said in a light tone,"I hired a new nurse to look after him."

Bo Qi and Xu Jialu's eyes were filled with surprise. the nurse can keep an eye on him? Don't joke with me!"

Xie tingxi saw that they didn't believe him, so he shrugged innocently and didn't explain.

Bo Qi changed the topic again. Mo shenbai remained silent the entire time. Other than drinking his juice, he did not do anything else.

Xie tingxi glanced at him. I heard that Fu jianchen also went to Paris? "

Mo Shen's long white eyelashes fluttered, and he remained silent.

Xu Youyou had told Fu jianchen that he was going to Paris when he got off the plane.

He wished he could fly to Paris and give Fu jianchen a good beating, but he had promised Youyou that he would not look for her ...

He also warned himself in his heart over and over again to believe that she had tattooed her name on her finger. It was equivalent to announcing her love for him to the world.

"Are you sure you can leave the two of them in Paris?" Xie tingxi asked again, a faint smile on his lips.

Obviously, he would not be able to do it.

Mo shenbai's expression was as usual, and his answer was simple and powerful. Youyou doesn't like him.

Xie tingxi sneered. if you like this kind of illusory thing, you can't see it and can't grasp it. There's no guarantee.

Perhaps it was because of his gentleness, consideration, and affection for Yun Youwei that he knew that "like" was not worth mentioning.

Mo shenbai turned the cup in his hand and glanced at him indifferently and sympathetically.

Xie tingxi stopped smiling. why are you looking at me like that?"

Mo shenbai finished the rest of the juice and put down the glass. He picked up his coat and put it on his arm. He looked down at him and gave him a reminder as a friend.

people who don't believe in love won't be favored by love. Those who play with feelings will eventually be played by feelings.
