

Chapter 415: Honeymoon first (1)

At noon, Mo Shenbai and Xu Youyou had lunch at the Xu family's house. After lunch, they went back to the Canvas Lunar restaurant to pack their things and prepare to go to the countryside for their honeymoon.

Xu Youyou was afraid that there would be too many mosquitoes in the countryside, so she had asked the Butler to bring more mosquito-repelling potions.

Mo Shenbai suddenly received a call from Lu Heyun and went to the study to deal with some company matters.

Xu Youyou took the initiative to help him pack his clothes and things. She pulled open the drawer of his bedside table and saw a bottle. She took it out to take a look out of curiosity.

Her long, curled eyelashes suddenly trembled as she muttered, "Stabilizing pills ..."

She was very familiar with this kind of medicine. She used to take it often, but she had never taken it again after she recovered. Naturally, this was not her own medicine, but Yingying's.

His fingers were empty, and the medicine had been taken away.

Xu Youyou looked up and saw Mo Shenbai's serious expression. She pursed her dry lips. Great White ...

Mo Shenbai narrowed his eyes and put the bottle of medicine behind him. His voice was calm. I just have occasional insomnia. Doctor Shen prescribed me some medicine.

Xu Youyou squatted on the ground and looked up at him. She remained in this position for a long time.

Mo Shenbai saw that she did not believe him. If you don't believe me," he said, "I can call doctor Shen. You can ask her yourself.

Xu Youyou lowered her eyes, her long eyelashes leaving a faint blue shadow under the corner of her eyes. Her sadness was beyond words.

I still have a secret that you don't know. If I really want to know something, there's a 50% chance that I can see it in my dreams.

Mo Shenbai sighed helplessly. He squatted down beside her and pinched her soft face with his big palm. How is this God's favor? You're simply cheating. I really can't hide anything from you in the future.

Xu Youyou raised her eyes and asked in a low voice, "Is it because I went to Paris?" he asked.

Mo Shenbai sat down beside her and said lightly, "Not exactly. I couldn't sleep well in the past, and I've been sleeping less in the past two years. But with the medicine prescribed by doctor Shen, it's still okay.

Xu Youyou held his arm and leaned her head on his shoulder. Great White, I'll be with you. You'll get better.

Mo Shenbai patted her little head. mm, are you done packing?"

They had just finished their wedding and didn't want to talk about these unhappy things.

Xu Youyou nodded. I've already cleaned it up. You can check it.

Mo shenbai pulled her up and checked the items in the box: clothes, toothbrush, toothpaste, razor, and even his undergarments.

"You've forgotten something very important."

"What?"

Mo shenbai opened the second drawer, which was full of baby burp condoms of all brands and smells ...

Xu Youyou was speechless.

Xu Youyou's hometown was not far from Mo City. It only took an hour's drive to get there.

On the second day of their wedding, Xu Youyou wore a red dress and tied her hair in a simple ponytail. She had put on sunscreen before getting out of the car to avoid getting sunburnt.

However, when they got out of the car, they were still stunned, not by the sun, but by the small bungalow in front of them.

"Is this ... Really my home?" Xu Youyou pointed at the small bungalow in front of her in disbelief.

In the past, there were no buildings in the village. Grandma's house was the only two-story building. Now, the village had been replaced with buildings. The original two-story building had become a Western-style house with a yard and lawn in the front ...

If she hadn't seen the familiar signs along the way, she would have suspected that this was a resort!

Mo shenbai asked Cangming to move the luggage in and held an umbrella to her side to shield her from the sun. I accompanied my parents back to pay respects to our ancestors during the Qingming Festival. I saw that the building was a little old, so I asked someone to renovate it.

"You're rebuilding it, right?" Xu Youyou was still in shock.

Mo shenbai smiled and didn't explain. Instead, he changed the topic. "do you want to take a walk around first?"

Cangming and the others had to carry five or six suitcases, so they would be in the way if they went in now.

Xu Youyou nodded.

Mo shenbai took her hand and walked around the house. In addition to the front yard, there was also the backyard. Even the small vegetable garden that old lady Xu had planted in the past had been repaired. A well had been specially built and connected to a water pipe, so it was more convenient to water.

There were also sycamore trees and begonia flowers planted around. At this moment, the begonia flowers were in full bloom, and the air was filled with a faint fragrance.

“I’m done for. I don’t think I’ll ever want to go back even if I stay here.”

Compared to the hustle and bustle of the city, Xu Youyou preferred the quiet village, where she worked at sunrise and rested at sunset.

“Then I won’t go back.” “If you like it here, I’ll stay here with you for the rest of your life,” mo shenbai said without hesitation.

“What about the company?”

your brother and Lu Heyun are in the company. I’ll go back for a meeting once a month, and I’ll be back on the same day!

He hadn’t been sleeping well for the past two years, but he hadn’t wasted that much time. Now that the company was developing steadily, the wealth he had accumulated was more than what the two of them could spend in ten lifetimes.

Xu Youyou thought that it was a good idea. let’s go on a honeymoon first. I might get tired of staying for a few days and want to go back to the city.

Mo shenbai nodded in agreement.

It didn’t matter where she wanted to go or live. He would let her go to the ends of the earth, heaven, and earth.

On the first night of their stay, Xu Youyou personally cooked a good meal with the food she had brought back.

Not only mo shenbai, but even PEI Chuan and cangming, who were traveling with him, felt a little reluctant to leave after having their fill.

Once he left, he wouldn’t be able to eat the food that Madam personally cooked.

Mo shenbai was very heartless. After cangming and PEI Chuan finished washing the dishes and mopping the floor, he asked them to leave.

PEI Chuan still had work to do, so he had to go back even if he did not want to.

“President mo, should I stay?” Cang Ming asked hesitantly.

If he stayed, he could eat Madam’s cooking every day and get his salary. It was two birds with one stone.

As for washing the dishes and mopping the floor, that was nothing.

PEI Chuan glared at him out of jealousy, his eyes full of disdain. How could a man bend over for a bite of food?

Cangming was unmoved, “what else do people live for other than food?”

Mo shenbai sneered and rewarded him with one word: Get lost.

Cang Ming's face was calm, but he was greatly disappointed.

At night, the two of them had sex in the room where Xu Youyou had lived when she was young.

The previous small single bed had been replaced by a large 1.8-meter bed, and a pink gauze curtain hung on the top to prevent mosquitoes from flying out.

Xu Youyou was pressed against the back of the bed by his waist. Her voice was as soft as a cat's meow, and it scratched mo shenbai's heart.

Outside the window, the sky was full of stars, and countless insects chirping.

"The triplets, the triplets ..."

Two thin lips whispered into her ears, half real and half fake, like a dream.

There were too many mosquitoes in the countryside. Even the curtains could not stop the mosquitoes from coming in and making intimate contact with Xu Youyou's fair skin.

Mo shenbai didn't sleep all night. He sat by the bed and fanned her gently with a feather fan to drive away the mosquitoes.

After living in the countryside for a few days, Xu Youyou did not feel uncomfortable. Instead, she became more and more accustomed to the environment.

Every morning, she would get up and go for a walk in the fields with mo shenbai. When she came back, she would make breakfast. After eating, she would set up a drawing board by the window in the living room and draw. At this time, mo shenbai would sit on the sofa and read.

After lunch, the two of them would either take a nap or have fun together.

In the afternoon, Xu Youyou would go to the nearby Orchard with the children in the village to pick fruits to eat, or take out her own painting paper and paint to give to the children and teach them how to draw.

One afternoon, Xu Youyou came back with black hands and her clean clothes were full of stains. Even mo shenbai, who was not a clean freak, could not help but feel the veins on his forehead throb.
