

Chapter 416: Setting an example with one's body (1)

Xu Youyou did not seem to notice the blue veins on the man's forehead. She smiled and presented the mulberries in her skirt to him like a treasure.

big white, big white, look, I've picked so many mulberries. They're sweet and sour, and they're delicious.

She was wearing a long dress that reached her ankles today. She lifted the hem of the dress to carry fruits, revealing a pair of slender and straight legs. Her snow-white skin was also dotted with spots. In addition to being stained with the juice of the Mulberry, there were also some red and swollen bumps.

Mo shenbai raised his hand and rubbed the space between his eyebrows. He couldn't be bothered to be angry. He first put the mulberries on a plate and then pulled her into the bathroom.

He turned on the shower and directly poured it on her.

Xu Youyou finally reacted and asked, "Da Bai, are you angry?"

Mo shenbai took a deep breath and said in a restrained tone, "Look at what you've done!"

Xu Youyou lowered her head to take a look. It did look quite dirty. but I think you've never eaten the Mulberry fruit I gave you before, have you?"

Mo shenbai looked into her clear and sincere eyes, and his heart softened. His anger disappeared in an instant, and he wiped the dust on her face with his fingertips.

"Even so, you can't turn yourself into a dirty little cat. Look at your hands ..."

Xu Youyou's hand was picked up by him. Her fingers were black, even under her fingernails. She couldn't wash them off even after washing them with warm water several times.

Xu Youyou smiled coquettishly. it'll be gone in a few days. I used to paint and get it all over my body.

Mo shenbai glanced at her helplessly, took off her dirty dress, and threw it away. He first washed the little dirty cat.

Xu Youyou was a little embarrassed and kept pressing her head against the water. The water was so hot that she felt dizzy.

When Mo Shen's white lips touched her snow-white shoulders, she could not help but stop breathing.

Great White ... she meowed like a kitten.

"What?" Mo shenbai put the shower back and let the hot water wet his clothes. He wrapped his long arms around her shoulders and trapped her in his arms, not allowing her to escape.

The warm water droplets fell like a heavy rain, hitting his skin like fire, burning his skin.

"Let's hurry up and take a bath. You haven't eaten the mulberries yet."

"There's no hurry." In the steamy bathroom, his voice became muffled, but his movements were clear.

The bath lasted for almost two hours. In the end, Xu Youyou's fair skin was red and the corners of her eyes were red. She complained to him in a hoarse voice.

I was kind enough to pick mulberries for you, but you're not grateful. Instead, you bully me.

Mo shenbai took a pearl-white spaghetti-strap dress and put it on her. He couldn't help but kiss her shoulder. I'm just expressing my gratitude. Didn't you receive it just now? Do you want me to express it again?"

"I don't want to." Xu Youyou refused without thinking.

That wasn't thanking him, it was taking his life!

Mo shenbai took the ointment and applied it on the places on her body that had been bitten by mosquitoes. Then, he carried her downstairs, took a pair of slippers from the shoe cabinet for her to change into, and then went to wash the mulberries.

Xu Youyou walked to his side with weak legs and said expectantly, "Quickly try one and see if it's delicious."

Mo shenbai glanced at the black mulberries that looked like fat caterpillars. He couldn't bear to reject her and tasted one.

At first, it was a little sour, but then a little sweetness spread between his lips and teeth.

"Is it good?"

Mo shenbai nodded. not bad.

"Then you should eat more." Xu Youyou gave him an entire plate of mulberries and said that she had eaten a lot outside.

Mo shenbai was afraid that the little girl would be unhappy if he didn't finish it. He felt that his thoughts had been let down, so he ate a lot even if he didn't like it very much.

In the end, when it was time for dinner, she only felt her teeth ache.

Xu Youyou couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Mo shenbai raised his head and looked at her. on purpose? "

She knew that eating too many mulberries would make his teeth sour, but she didn't tell him.

Xu Youyou pouted her pink lips. who told you to bully me? "

Mo shenbai reached out and pinched her face. you're the one who said that you still wanted her, and now you're the one who's bullying her. It's not good for you to lift your skirt and not recognize me.

Xu Youyou glared at him shyly. if you keep talking nonsense, I'll pick mulberries for you tomorrow.

Mo shenbai stopped teasing her. He could not eat anything, so he let her eat more.

He didn't want to complain that he was hungry and weak at night.

Xu Youyou didn't get tired of living here with mo shenbai. Instead, she felt like a fish in water.

He would find new flowers every day. Today, he would pick mulberries, tomorrow, he would pick flowers and fruits, and the day after, he would go to the river to catch fish with the children.

She did not catch many fish, but she came back with her wet skirt and mud-covered shoes.

Mo shenbai was so angry that he wanted to press her on his knees and spank her butt.

Xu Youyou knew that she had made him angry. At night, she obediently buried herself in his arms and took the initiative to find his lips, moving down inch by inch.

He promised again and again that he would not catch fish or play in the water.

How could mo shenbai refuse her initiative? his anger turned into a bath of fire and he vented it on her again and again.

Of course, Xu Youyou did not play in the water the next day. After all, she could not even get out of bed.

After being well-behaved at home for two days, Xu Youyou couldn't stand it anymore and ran out to play.

This time, they didn't cause any trouble, but a few bags of vegetable seeds appeared out of nowhere and she said excitedly to moshen Bai, " big Bai, let's plant vegetables!

Mo shenbai looked at the seed and sighed helplessly. I don't know how to.

He didn't even know what kind of seed it was, so how could he plant it?

"Oh." Xu Youyou looked a little disappointed. She mumbled, " I thought you knew everything.

Mo shenbai couldn't stand being looked down upon by the little girl he loved, and he added, " but I can learn.

Xu Youyou's eyes lit up and she immediately put the seed in his hand. then I'll hand the seed baby to you! I'll go cook for you!"

Usually, mo shenbai did all the housework, but most of the three meals a day were prepared by Xu Youyou. Firstly, her cooking was delicious. Secondly, mo shenbai only knew a few simple dishes and his cooking skills were still improving.

Mo shenbai looked at her happy back and disappeared at the kitchen door. His eyes were filled with a doting smile, and he looked back at the seed in his palm. He couldn't help but feel helpless.

How could she come up with new tricks every day!

Helpless as he was, he still went out to find the villagers and asked what kind of seed it was and how to plant it.

The wife he married would be pampered for a lifetime even if she knelt down, not to mention that it was just growing vegetables. This was definitely not a problem for him!

Xu Youyou and Mo shenbai had been here for a month and were so happy that they didn't want to go back.

Mo shenbai liked it when it was just the two of them here every day, and every part of the house was their playground.

Xu Youyou, on the other hand, felt that mo shenbai was a lot more relaxed here. He ate a lot less Valium and laughed more often.

The person she liked was not the head of the mo family, nor was it the chairman mo who was feared by everyone in the business world. It was only the man called mo shenbai in front of her!

The two of them were reluctant to leave. After some discussion, they decided to stay here. The Xu family's parents did not say anything, but someone could not hold it in and took the initiative to find them.
