

Chapter 423: The daughter wants to eat _1

Xu Youyou shook her head repeatedly. She did not want to abandon her children. She had to keep both of them.

Mo shenbai knew that although she looked obedient and cute, she was stubborn in her bones. Once she had decided on something, she would not change her mind.

It was like this when she went to France, and now she was pregnant.

He could only ask the doctor to think of another way.

The doctor suggested that they wait for the expected date of delivery and perform a C-section in advance to avoid putting the pregnant woman's life in danger. However, an early C-section was not a good thing for the baby. After all, it was not yet at full term.

Xu Youyou still wanted to refuse, but mo shenbai spoke first. do you want to do a cesarean section in advance or get rid of one now? ”

His tone was firm and unquestionable.

In the end, Xu Youyou compromised and chose to perform a cesarean section in advance. This way, at least two babies could be saved, but they would have to suffer.

Mo shenbai also informed Xu jiushu and Cheng Ying of this decision. They respected the young man's decision and knew that this was the best result.

Because she was pregnant with twins, Xu Youyou's stomach was growing very quickly. By the time she was three months pregnant, she couldn't even wear her old clothes.

Mo shenbai had bought her maternity clothes.

Xu Youyou looked at her full stomach every day and was worried.

Da Bai, my stomach is already so big at three months. Do you think it'll explode in two months? ”

Mo shenbai was weeding the vegetables in the garden and said without looking up, ” “No, don't let your thoughts run wild.”

Xu Youyou pursed her lips. but my stomach is so big. Will I have lots of stretch spots after giving birth? will I look ugly? will you dislike me then? ”

Mo shenbai put down the hoe, walked over, squatted down in front of her, and kissed her bulging stomach through her clothes.

no matter if you're fat or thin, have stretch marks or whatever, I'll still love you.

His dark eyes were full of gentleness and love when he looked at her. It was the love that came from the depths of his soul.

Xu Youyou had been a little worried and uneasy at first, but her mood immediately improved after hearing his words. da Bai ...

“What?”

She smiled coyly. I’m hungry. I want to eat snacks.

Mo shenbai was silent. didn’t you just finish the biscuits? ”

Xu Youyou pointed at her stomach. I’m not the one who wants to eat. It’s your daughters who want to eat.

Mo shenbai glanced at her and went to wash his hands. how do you know it’s a daughter? maybe a son? ”

The dream flashed in Xu Youyou’s mind and the smile on her face grew. I think it’s a daughter. A woman’s sixth sense is very accurate.

Mo shenbai did not argue with her and went into the house to get her some snacks.

Xu Youyou couldn’t stand hunger, so he had specially asked someone to make a lot of snacks by hand. They were all imported raw materials and the sugar content was controlled, so it was fine even if she ate more.

.....

By the time Xu Youyou was five months pregnant, the vegetable garden had already fully grown. She almost didn’t need to go out to buy vegetables and could eat the fresh fruits and vegetables she had grown herself every day.

Fu jianchen said he couldn’t come, but he still couldn’t help but bring a lot of nutritional supplements to see her.

Xu Youyou’s stomach was big, and she had some pregnancy reactions recently. She wanted to vomit when she smelled oil and smoke. She couldn’t even see meat dishes on the dining table, let alone cook.

Fu jianchen could only eat the vegetables. Before he left, he went to uncle Xu’s to buy a few fresh fish.

Xu Youyou might not be able to do it, but Mrs. Xu could!

After Fu jianchen left, Xu Youyou stared at mo shenbai with a profound look in her eyes.

Mo shenbai coughed lightly, touched the tip of his nose, and said, ” you can’t be tired now that you’re pregnant. We’ll talk about it after you give birth.

“Painting isn’t tiring.” Xu Youyou’s crisp voice rang out, ’da Bai, you must keep your word! You’re going to be a father soon, so you should be a role model for the baby!”

Mo shenbai was silent for a long time. He scratched his eyebrows and silently compromised.

The afternoon sun was blocked by the curtains, and only an orange floor lamp was turned on in the room. The light was soft and ambiguous.

Mo shenbai took off all his clothes, leaving only the last piece of clothing covering his body. He sat on the sofa uncomfortably, and even his expression was very stiff.

Xu Youyou was talking to him as she drew the lines. "Da Bai, are you nervous?"

Mo shenbai raised his eyes and glanced at her. He clenched his teeth so hard that they were about to break, but he did not say anything.

"You can just find a comfortable position to lie down or sleep." Xu Youyou spoke to him because she didn't want him to feel uncomfortable.

Mo shenbai lay sideways on the sofa, staring at her with his dark eyes full of burning desire.

He had always held absolute power in bed, but he never thought that one day he would become a fish on the anvil, so powerless.

Xu Youyou chatted with him while drawing to divert his attention.

"Have you thought of the baby's name?"

"No, I didn't," He replied nonchalantly.

"Then you'd better hurry up and think about it, or else I'll really have to ask them to be easy to get along with."

Moshen's fair lips curled up slightly. if you're not afraid of your parents pulling your ears, then scream.

Xu Youyou snorted. mom and dad can't bear to pull my ears. I'll tell them that you named it and let them pull your ears.

Perhaps Xu Youyou's conversation had worked, mo shenbai gradually relaxed and lay down on the sofa naturally, even showing off his muscles.

Xu Youyou drew very seriously and did not say anything else.

Time passed by little by little, and the two of them enjoyed the peace and warmth of this moment.

Suddenly, Xu Youyou's brush stopped and she frowned.

Mo shenbai quickly got up, grabbed the bathrobe beside him, and draped it over his body as he walked towards her.

"What's wrong? Are you uncomfortable sitting there for too long?"

He squatted down and looked into her eyes, his expression nervous and uneasy.

Xu Youyou shook her head. When she turned to look at him, her eyes were full of joy.

"I just felt them moving."

"Fetal movement?"

Xu Youyou nodded and placed his hand on her stomach. they're moving again.

Mo shenbai's warm palm gently caressed her belly. Even through her clothes, she could clearly feel the force hitting her palm.

It was like ... A high-five!

It was a wonderful feeling. Mo shenbai's face was full of surprise. they're really moving.

Generally, babies would have fetal movement when they were four months old, but the two little guys in her stomach seemed to be very lazy and were always unwilling to move.

If the doctor had not said that the baby was very healthy, they would have been worried about the baby.

It was also Xu Youyou's first time feeling the fetal movement. Her eyes could not help but become wet and hot.

"Da Bai, our daughter is greeting us."

"Yes." Mo shenbai nodded and gently stroked her stomach with his palm. His deep and cold voice unconsciously softened.

"Be good, don't be so naughty. It's too hard on mommy."

The more he realized the value of a new life, the more he would cherish Xu Youyou.

The two little guys probably heard mo shenbai's words, and they symbolically moved a few times before they stopped moving.

Mo shenbai's gaze also shifted from Xu Youyou to the drawing board ...
