

Chapter 426: Human youngling _1

Xu Youyou shared a moment of affection with him and asked softly, "Where's the baby? How are the two babies?"

Mo shenbai was at a loss for words and did not know how to answer.

As he had been waiting at the door of the ICU ward, when the nurse came to tell him about the baby, his mind was filled with Xu Youyou and he didn't hear what the nurse said.

the child was born prematurely and his body is a little weak. He has been recuperating in the thermal box. Your parents are looking after him. don't worry," Fu jianchen replied.

"Oh," Xu Youyou replied, then asked, "It's two girls, right?"

Mo shenbai's brows furrowed slightly, and he turned his head to look at Fu jianchen for help.

Fu jianchen gritted his teeth. a man and a woman. The man is the older brother and the woman is the younger sister. he said. You don't even f * cking know what you gave birth to?"

He couldn't help but complain. How could he be a father?

Xu Youyou was surprised. a boy and a girl. I didn't expect them to be twins. I'm so powerful.

"Hehe." Fu jianchen's lips twitched and he sneered. Wasn't she looking at the man's genes? What did it have to do with her?

Ignorant!

Xu Youyou ignored him and looked up at mo shenbai."You said that you'll tell me what you've named the baby when I come out."

"Mo Jiayue." Mo shenbai replied.

"Mo. Jia. Yue?" Xu Youyou read it word by word. why are you called Jiayue? "

Fu jianchen also looked over curiously.

our fate started in the Sangharama hotel. Although they had met a long time ago, their fate had really started when they met at the qielan hotel ...

"What about Yue?" Was it because of ... Qianyue?

Mo shenbai swept away the hair beside her face and said gently, "You are my little sun, so she can only be my moon."

The corners of Xu Youyou's lips lifted. I like this name.

Mo shenbai's eyes were gentle and full of affection. as long As You Like It.

"What's the other one?"

Mo shenbai was stunned. She had been talking about giving birth to a daughter, so when she came up with names, she wanted to name two girls.

Who would've thought that they were actually twins? how could he have known what the boy's name was?

If not for Xu Youyou's weak body, he would have blurted out " whatever.

Xu Youyou looked aggrieved. didn't you give the baby a name? "

"He's a boy, so I can't use the name I gave him before. Let me think about it." Mo shenbai touched her cheek, not wanting her to be sad.

"Don't think about it, just call him mo Chi."

Xu Youyou was stunned for a moment and looked at the man by the bed.

Mo shenbai immediately understood his selfish reasons for giving this name, but he did not refuse.

"Xu Chi,"

Fu jianchen felt that he had met Xu Youyou too late and hoped that it would not be too late to meet her in his next life.

However, he was different. No matter if it was in this life or the next life, he would allow Xu Youyou to be late. As long as she was willing to come, he would wait no matter how late she was.

Xu Youyou was stunned. Xu Chi? you have my surname? "

Mo shenbai nodded. you gave birth to him. Of course, he has to take your surname.

"But Yingluo"

She hesitated and was about to say something but was interrupted by him. what you need most now is to rest. Don't think about anything else.

Xu Youyou could only swallow her words.

Mo shenbai turned his head and glanced at Fu jianchen.

He didn't say anything more about the name 'Xu Chi'.

Although Xu Youyou was young, she had given birth to two children and had experienced a lot of bleeding. Her vitality had been exhausted, and after a week of rest, her face had regained some color.

This week, Xu Youyou had been begging mo shenbai to take her to see the baby, but she had been rejected.

It was only when Xu Youyou was about to cry that mo shenbai asked the nurse to bring the two little guys over.

Although the two little fellows were premature babies, they had obviously gained some weight after a week of careful care.

Her skin was as white as snow, her big, watery eyes, and her eyelashes were as thick as a fan. Xu Youyou's heart almost melted when she saw them. She felt that all the suffering she had gone through was worth it.

Human Cubs were really cute.

Xu Youyou sat on the bed, wanting to hold the baby.

Mo shenbai carefully carried Xu Chi to her. Xu Chi didn't eat much, not as much as mo Jiayue, so it wasn't hard to carry him.

Xu Youyou teased Xu Chi, " baby, I'm your mother ...

Xu Chi blinked his big, watery eyes and looked at her with a little curiosity.

Xu Youyou touched his face with the pad of her finger. Xu Chi. Isn't it strange to be called Chi Chi? "

"It's better than calling it poop."

At the mention of this interesting nickname, Xu Youyou glanced at him.

"It's all because you didn't want to give them names. I just said it casually."

Mo shenbai was silent for a moment, and then said in a low voice, " "My nickname is sui sui."

Xu Youyou asked, 'da Bai, are you kidding me? Or do you want him to grow up and blame me?'

Mo shenbai's thin lips parted slightly. I'm not just casually. I'm going to the ends of the earth, whether it's hell or heaven, I'll let you go.

It was to follow.

Xu Youyou's heart trembled, and her eyes curved into crescents. I'll follow you, I'll follow you ...

Xu Chi seemed to understand her. He turned his head and opened his mouth, looking for something in front of her.

Xu Youyou didn't react for a moment. da Bai, what are you thinking about? "

In addition to taking care of Xu Youyou, mo shenbai had also taken care of the two children occasionally this week. He knew that they were hungry.

"They're hungry. I'll get the nurse to feed them."

Xu Youyou let out an " Oh " and watched the nurse carry mo Jiayue and Xu Chi away reluctantly.

He lowered his head and looked in front of him. "Why don't I have any milk?"

"The doctor said that you're pregnant with twins and your body is too weak. You can't breastfeed yourself."

Xu Youyou thought for a while. why don't I get my mother to find a way to rush him? "

“No need,” Mo shenbai refused without thinking. It’s very painful to stimulate milk, and it will be very painful when fed, and it might even rupture and become inflamed.

Xu Youyou imagined the scene and felt pain. She shook her head repeatedly. Then, I’ll still use milk powder.

In order to give birth to these two children, she had already suffered a lot. Mo shenbai did not want her to suffer any more, so even if she could be breastfed, he did not intend to let her.

His mother-in-law said that breastfeeding was the best for the child as it was nutritious and healthy. However, Xu Youyou’s health was more important to him!

Xu Youyou stayed in the hospital for an extra week. The two children had also gone through several rounds of examinations. After confirming that there were no problems, Mo shenbai then handled the discharge procedures for them.

Usually, Cheng Ying and the two maternity matrons took care of the two children, while Mo shenbai focused on taking care of Xu Youyou alone.

Fu Jianchen would come here occasionally. Before he came, he had specially bought fresh fish from Uncle Xu and asked Mo shenbai to cook different kinds of fish for her.

In the blink of an eye, the two little fellows were one month old.

Mo Qinghuan had wanted to organize a Grand Full-moon banquet for the two little fellows, but Mo shenbai had rejected her.

There was no public announcement, nor did they inform their friends and relatives. They just held a simple full moon banquet at the Moon House and invited the close relatives and friends of the two families to attend.

Even the elders of the Mo family would find it difficult to meet him.

Xu Jiushan was the happiest about Mo shenbai’s decision to let his attendant take the surname Xu, and he drank one full moon wine after another.

Xu Youyou’s body had almost recovered. She sat at the table and ate, glancing at the sleeping little guy from time to time.

“Sir, Madam, there’s someone outside who wants to see you,” the Butler suddenly said.
