501 Chapter 504: Grandpa Fu Running Away From Home (16)

Fu Hengyi lifted his son and took him to change clothes. An An waved his hand, "I want my mother to change."

An An wanted his mother to change clothes, but he couldn't match Dad's strength and was slipped back to the room by Fu Hengyi. In the room, An An was sitting on the bed, holding her chest in her small hands, glaring at Fu Hengyi, "Dad, you robbed my mother with me again."

Fu Hengyi was sitting on the floor, and his eyes were just right with his son. "That's my wife. Of course I have to sleep with me."

"But she is also my mother, why can't my mother sleep with me?"

"Have you seen your uncle sleeping with his mother?" Fu Hengyi asked lightly.

An An frowned, but some reactions did not come. Fu Hengyi continued to say, "You can sleep with your wife in the future."

"Then when can I have a wife?"

"When you grow up and I'm so big."

"When I grew up, did you call your mother wife when you were so old?"

Fu Hengyi's face was slightly black: "...called mother."

An An frowned, "Isn't it your wife, you call it that way."

Fu Hengyi continued to black face, "No, that is my wife, you can only call mother, not wife."

Seeing An'an, he continued to ask, Fu Hengyi stood up, "OK, change your clothes quickly."

He threw the clothes on the bed and let An An wear it himself. An An sat there immobile.

"If you don't wear clothes anymore, you will be scolded by the teacher when you are late for school, and your mother and I will leave you alone."

At the beginning of September, An'an has started to go to kindergarten.

An An didn't want to change clothes, but when he thought of going to school, he still got up unwillingly and got dressed.

When she went downstairs, Shen Qinglan had already put breakfast on the dining table, of course, she did not do it, "An An, come and eat, wait for your mother to send you to kindergarten."

An An ran across with a smile, "Mom, you haven't said good morning to me today."

Shen Qinglan was funny, leaned over and kissed him on his small face, "Good morning, baby."

An An put her foot on Shen Qinglan's face and gave a kiss, turned back to Fu Hengyi's smug smile, Fu Hengyi black face, this stink boy.

He walked to Shen Qinglan's side and looked down at Shen Qinglan, "My wife, I have to kiss good morning too."

Shen Qinglan gave him a white glance. The childish man pushed him away and walked straight into the kitchen. There was no milk. Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan's back quietly, her eyes dark.

An An clutched her small mouth and smiled, was glared by Fu Hengyi.

While eating, An An glanced at his father one after another. Fu Hengyi sat upright and took a leisurely posture. He noticed his son's gaze and spoke lightly, "Don't concentrate on eating."

An An said a word and took a spoon to eat.

Shen Qinglan glanced at Fu Hengyi and withdrew his eyes. Fu Hengyi looked at her, "How?"

Shen Qinglan shook her head. She couldn't always say that she thought Fu Hengyi was very strange. She was eating An'an vinegar just now, but it turned normal in the blink of an eye, but it was too normal but it seemed abnormal.

"Mom, I'm done." An An put down the spoon and said to Shen Qinglan that his bowl was clean and it was indeed finished.

"Do you still eat?" Shen Qinglan asked.

"I am full."

"Since you're full, take the school bag down and your mother will send you to kindergarten."

"No, I want my father to send it." An An said groundlessly, looking at Fu Hengyi, "Dad, can you send me to school?"

"OK." Fu Hengyi spit out a word.

An An slid down the chair by himself and ran upstairs to get his small schoolbag. Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi unexpectedly, and Fu Hengyi looked back at her, "What's wrong?"

"What's wrong with you?" Shen Qinglan asked back.

"What can I do." Fu Hengyi said lightly. Shen Qinglan didn't believe he was okay, this man's mood was obviously abnormal.

An An came down from the upstairs, carrying a small school bag in his hand, "Can Dad go?"

Fu Hengyi drank milk in two or three and stood up. "Go."

An An was studying in a kindergarten attached to the compound of the Military Region. It was very close to here, and it took him only twenty minutes to walk slowly.

Time was too late. Fu Hengyi didn't drive. He took An An's hand and walked slowly. An An walked and jumped. Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, "walk well."

An An screamed, looked up at his father, "Daddy, can you take it away?"

"Did the girl's father hug it?" An An asked.

Fu Hengyi nodded sternly, "If you are a girl, I will hug you." If An An is a girl, let alone hug, it will be carried on his back. He thought secretly in his heart that his daughter was for petting, and the boy could not pet him.

It turned out that Dad liked girls, An An concluded, "That Dad, I'm a boy, don't you like me?"

"Like, you were born by your mother." Fu Hengyi looked at his son with a serious eyebrow.

An An didn't notice the deep meaning in his father's words, but he was happy when he heard his father say he liked himself.

He looked at his father, his eyes full of curiosity, "Dad, are you angry today?"

Fu Hengyi glanced down at him, not knowing where he came from so many problems, but there was no impatience on his face, "No."

"Why don't you not talk to your mother if you're not angry?" In the past, when Fu Hengyi peeled eggs for Shen Qinglan and poured milk for her, she didn't make these today, which is too abnormal.

Although An An is small, these are all seen in the eyes.

Fu Hengyi was stunned. Was he so obvious?

"Adults, children don't care." Fu Hengyi said,

An An pouted and muttered, "All of you like to say such things."

Fu Hengyi glanced at the man's son, and said nothing.

He sent his son to kindergarten and confirmed that the child had gone to the classroom with the teacher before returning. When she returned, Shen Qinglan went to the studio to paint.

Fu Hengyi didn't go to her, but greeted Grandpa Fu and took the car key to go out, "Grandpa, I have something to go out and will not come back at noon."

Master Fu waved his hand, not caring.

When eating lunch, Shen Qinglan did not see Fu Hengyi and asked, "Aunt Zhao, what about Fu Hengyi?"

Aunt Zhao said, "Send An'an back in the morning and go out immediately. He said something was wrong, and he wouldn't come back to eat at noon, telling us not to wait for him."

Shen Qinglan thought that Fu Hengyi probably went to meet friends, and didn't care. After eating, she got into the studio. She was painting a large painting recently. Everyone in the family knew it, but what was the specific content, but who Don't know, Shen Qinglan wouldn't let it look.

Office of the President of the Han Group.

Han Yi looked at Fu Hengyi sitting on the sofa and raised his eyebrows, "I said, brother, you have been sitting here for a long time, even without saying a word, what's wrong?"

Fu Hengyi glanced at him lightly and continued to look down at the book in his hand.

"You read this book for an hour and it's still on this page. Isn't the content on this page particularly beautiful and worthy of your repeated taste?" Han Yi teases Fu Hengyi, but he is not taken care of by him.

Han Yi's peach blossom flashed a bit of interest, and walked over, "I said, wouldn't you have quarreled with your sister-in-law?"

Fu Hengyi glanced at him again, his eyes slightly cold, and Han Yi sat down beside him, the smile on his face grew thicker, "Yo, I really guessed it? Rare, you would quarrel with your sister-in-law. What are you arguing for?" Han Yi's heart of gossip lit up instantly.

"You are a big president, there is a pile of documents on the table, you don't have to deal with it?" Fu Hengyi finally opened his mouth.

Han Yi stretched out. "I have been working for a long time. Let me take a break. I am a human and not a machine. You tell me, are you arguing with your sister-in-law?" Han Yi is only right now. Interested in this.

Fu Hengyi looked at him coldly. After watching it for a while, Han Yi defeated and touched his nose. "Well, I won't ask." It was really difficult to pry out a little information from Fu Hengyi's mouth.

"Drink? I recently got a good bottle of wine." Han Yi changed the subject.

"Have a drink."

Han Yi got up, walked to the desk, opened the bottom cabinet of the desk, reached for it for half a day, then took out the bottle of wine, and took out two glasses from the wine cabinet, "I tell you, This bottle of wine cost me a lot of effort to buy it. The top wine is first-class and has a first-class taste. I guarantee you haven't tasted it before."

Fu Hengyi raised her eyebrows, "What's so good about hiding a bottle of wine?"

"This bottle of wine can't be found by Xiao Xuan." Han Yi lowered his voice and glanced at the door, afraid that Yu Xiaoxuan would suddenly pop out.

Han Yi used to like to collect good wines, and also opened a huge wine cellar to keep these famous wines. On weekdays, the baby is very reluctant to take it out to drink. But since being with Yu Xiaoxuan, the wine cellar of Han Yi's house has gradually become empty.

Yu Xiaoxuan is a little drunkard. He likes to drink all kinds of good wine, but he is not good at drinking. He is drunk and likes to sing. He can not sleep late at night. Several times, in order to prevent her from drinking secretly, he gave away the wine in the wine cellar to give away to others, and he did not dare to hide good wine at home after drinking. His hobby of collecting famous wine is for Yu Xiao. Xuan changed it abruptly.

The biggest beneficiary of Han Yi's empty cellar is Jiang Chenxi. Many of Han Yi's famous wines in the past were in Jiang Chenxi's hands.

However, although Yu Xiaoxuan loves to drink, he never drinks outside. Generally, he drinks with Shen Qinglan or at home, so Han Yi is at ease.

Han Yi handed Fu Hengyi a glass of wine, Fu Hengyi took a sip, Han Yi narrowed his eyes, "How about, didn't lie to you."

Fu Hengyi nodded, "Not bad."

Han Yizheng was waiting for his wine, and the result was two words, "No?"

"Otherwise?" Fu Hengyi frowned slightly.

"Cut, wasting my good wine."

Fu Hengyi took another sip of wine, "Calling Chenxi and Gu Kai tonight, let's go to the charm."

Han Yi looked at him in surprise, "It's okay not to go back?"

"Qinglan will not be so stingy." Fu Hengyi said, her mind is now on her son, how can he have time to control him.

If Shen Qinglan knew Fu Hengyi's thoughts at the moment, he must have known that this man was still angry about the morning thing.

Fu Hengyi will never admit that he was left behind by his wife at a critical moment.

Han Yi doesn't matter. Anyway, Yu Xiaoxuan was at home recently. The child was brought with him, so it's okay to go back later.

Called Jiang Chenxi and Gu Kai and made an appointment.

Jiang Chenxi and Pei Yining's marriage date has been set, at the end of October, so he has been busy getting married recently.

According to the meaning of Pei Yining, Jiang Chenxi's current marriage room would be just as good as the current one, but Jiang Chenxi insisted on buying a new one. It was also at this time that Pei Yining knew that Jiang Chenxi had money. .

The card used by Jiang Chenxi to Pei Yining was used to buy the house. When Pei Yining saw the deposit in Jiang Chenxi, he almost stunned his chin. It was at that time that Pei Yining only knew that Jiang Chenxi was actually a mysterious trader. Over 100 million.

Their wedding period was set in June, with a full four months of preparation time, but there are too many things to prepare, buying a house, decoration, wedding preparation, wedding dress, dress customization, wedding venue, etc., etc. , And these Jiang Chenxi have personally seen. So recently Jiang Chenxi was very busy, but when he heard that it was Fu Hengyi's team, he still had time to come.

At night, the charm, their exclusive box.

Fu Hengyi was sitting on the sofa, holding a glass of wine in his hand, and occasionally took a sip, his mobile phone was placed at his hand. He would take a look from time to time, but every time he looked at the phone, he was very disgusted.

All day long, his mobile phone has been quiet and quiet. He didn't go home one day. Shen Qinglan didn't even give him a call or a text message. Not asking where he went or what he did, as if he had forgotten him.

In fact, Shen Qinglan didn't forget, but knew from Yu Xiaoxuan that they had a bureau in the evening, so they didn't call Fu Hengyi. Where did she know that Fu Hengyi had been waiting for her to find him all day long.

Jiang Chenxi was the last one to arrive. When he walked into the box, he realized that Shen Junyu was there, and the four of them had already started playing mahjong.

"Chenxi, you are the bridegroom right away, how come you look so bad?" Han Yi asked Jiang Chenxi to walk in and asked.

Jiang Chenxi was directly paralyzed on the sofa. His recent busy weddings and even his sleeping time have been reduced sharply. Can he not be tired? Although it is said that Pei Yining's parents and his parents are also busy with the marriage, but this is after all the wedding between him and Pei Yining, so he still hopes that some things can be done by himself to ensure the wedding is completed.

This is not only his first wedding with Pei Yining, but also the only one in his life. Naturally, he wants to be perfect.

Seeing Jiang Chenxi coming in, Fu Hengyi stood up from the table, "Chenxi you come."

Jiang Chenxi sat in Fu Hengyi's position. Fu Hengyi sat in the corner and took out his mobile phone and glanced at it again. No missed calls, no messages, nothing, Fu Hengyi put the phone back expressionlessly.

Woman, I really don't know how to cherish it when I get it.

Seeing this, Gu Kai whispered to Han Yi, "What's wrong with Brother Fu today? I've seen the phone a dozen times."

They stayed in the box for less than two hours. Fu Hengyi took out his mobile phone and watched it more than ten times.

Han Yi heard the words and smiled without words.

He is now sure that Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi are definitely in a contradiction. Just looking at the current situation, it is mostly someone who is angry. Have to say the truth about Han Yi.

Fu Hengyi asked the waiter to bring in a few bottles of wine and drink it silently, but the more he drank, the more gloomy his face was.

Shen Junyu felt uneasy and came over and took the cup in his hand. "What is this for?"

"drink."

Shen Junyu: ...I am not blind, of course I know you are drinking.

"Contradicted with Lan Lan?" The only person who can make Fu Hengyi drink wine is his baby sister.

Fu Hengyi glanced at him, "I can't just because I just want to drink?"

Shen Junyu believes that he has a ghost. He grew up together, can he not see the change in Fu Hengyi's mood?

"What's the matter with Lan Lan?"

"It's okay." Fu Hengyi didn't want to say.

At nine o'clock in the evening, Jiang Chenxi was about to pull it off. He will get up early tomorrow to go to the furniture market. All the people except Gu Kai who are present are married, so naturally they have to go home early, but now this point...

"Chenxi, you're leaving now, a little early?" Han Yi said.

"There is still something tomorrow." Jiang Chenxi said in a warm voice, and Fu Hengyi stood up. "Chenxi, let's go together."

"Heng Yi, your team's game, you ran first, is this inappropriate?" Han Yi raised an eyebrow.

"I'm going home with Chen Xi. Do you want to be together?"

As soon as the words came out, the people in the box looked at him instantly, including Jiang Chenxi.

"Heng Yi, what are you doing with Chen Xi? You are not going back to your home?" Han Yi asked.

"I have something to tell Chen Xi." Fu Hengyi looked indifferent.

Tonight Fu Hengyi was originally strange, but now he is planning to stay home at night. This is not strange but terrifying.

Everyone looked at Shen Junyu, what's going on?

Shen Junyu looked back calmly, how do I know that I am also confused like you?

Everyone was puzzled.

"Heng Yi, wouldn't you want to run away from home?" Han Yiyu said surprisingly but broke the truth.

Fu Hengyi sat there tonight and drank a lot of wine. At this time, his face was pale, and the steps under his feet were fairly stable. Hearing Han Yi's words, he looked at him coldly, and Han Yi touched his nose.

Fu Hengyi turned around and took the lead outside the box. Jiang Chenxi glanced at the people in the box and gave them a reassuring look and followed him out.

"Jun Yu, do you want to call your sister-in-law?" Han Yi asked Shen Junyu.

"No, I have called Lan Lan as well."

Jiang Chenxi and Fu Hengyi walked to the charm door, and they saw the cold woman standing at the door. Jiang Chenxi smiled instantly, "Little sister-in-law."

Shen Qinglan first glanced at Fu Hengyi, then nodded and smiled at Jiang Chenxi.

"That Hengyi was drunk tonight." Jiang Chenxi explained. Fu Hengyi glanced at Shen Qinglan without a word.

Shen Qinglan waved his hand, "It's okay, I'll take him home now."

"That little sister-in-law, Heng Yi will leave it to you, and I will go first." Jiang Chenxi said with a wink.

"Okay, be careful on the road." Shen Qinglan watched Jiang Chenxi leave, then withdrew his eyes and looked at Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan who appeared in front of her, raised her eyebrows, "Why are you here?"

Shen Qinglan's expression was faint, "If I don't come, where are you going to live tonight?" Fu Hengyi pursed her lips.

Shen Qinglan opened the door and looked at Fu Hengyi who was standing still. "Don't get in the car yet?" Fu Hengyi walked slowly over and got into the co-pilot.

Shen Qinglan sent a message to Shen Junyu-[I will take him home first]

[Well, drive carefully on the road, call me when I get home.

Shen Qinglan returned an OK gesture and was about to drive, only to find that Fu Hengyi's seat belt was not fastened, and leaned over to help him fasten his seat belt.

Fu Hengyi closed her eyes, didn't know whether she was asleep or closed her eyes, she realized Shen Qinglan's approach, suddenly hugged her, buried her head in her hair, "Qinglan, why are you coming to me now?" He waited for her for a day, but she didn't even send him a message.

With a faint smell of wine on his body, it was not unpleasant, and with the tone of his grievance now, Shen Qinglan's heart softened instantly.

"I'm waiting for you outside." She actually came after receiving the message sent to her by Shen Junyu, just waiting outside for Fu Hengyi to come out.

"Why don't you go in and find me?" Probably drunk, Fu Hengyi's tone was soft, listening to the sound of An'an when she was coquettish, and Shen Qinglan's heart was very soft.

"You want me to see me the first time you come out," she said softly.

"You fooled me again, and you ignored me in the morning. You big foolish." Fu Hengyi, whose brain is dominated by alcohol, faded his cold coat and became a little naive, but abnormally soft.

"Still angry about this morning?" Shen Qinglan asked softly.

"Not angry." Fu Hengyi didn't admit that he was angry because he was left behind by his wife.

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan laughed, "Fu Hengyi, do you think I love An'an more than you, so I'm jealous?"

Hearing this, Fu Hengyi's eyes instantly became murky, and Shen Qinglan knew that he must be right.

"I think that since the stupid kid was born, my status has plummeted and you are no longer in your eyes." Fu Hengyi whispered, he couldn't remember how many times it happened like this morning. Every time An An wants to cry, Shen Qinglan will leave him to comfort his son.

Shen Qinglan's eyes were even deeper, patting Fu Hengyi's face, "Fool, you will always be the first in my heart." If it was not her and Fu Hengyi's children, she thought she couldn't love An'an like that. Although it is natural for a mother to love her child, but because it is a child of herself and the man he loves the most, Shen Qinglan's love for An'an has a little more love for the house and the Ukraine.

Fu Hengyi did not believe, "You have said this many times." The result was to leave him for An An.

Hearing the grudges in his words, Shen Qinglan didn't know what to say, this childish man. Put Fu Hengyi's hand on his chest, "Fu Hengyi, can you hear my heartbeat?"

Of course, Fu Hengyi could feel the heart beating under the palm. He only heard Shen Qinglan say, "Fu Hengyi, you are the most important position in my heart. Every time my heart beats is because of you."

"Qinglan, you are also the most important to me, more important than An'an." Fu Hengyi said softly, his expression serious.

Shen Qinglan felt a little sour in his heart and hugged him tightly. "Well, I know." She never knew that this man loved her and regarded her as more important than his own life.

"Let me go, I will take you home now." Shen Qinglan said softly.

Fu Hengyi shook his head, he did not want to go back now.

Shen Qinglan let Fu Hengyi hold her, the two sat in the car, and no one spoke. It took a long time for Fu Hengyi to let go of her, leaned on the back of the chair, and stretched her hand to rub her forehead. She drank a little too much at night and began to have a headache.

Slender and slender hands landed on his temples and pressed gently. The cool fingertips seemed to be magical, gradually smoothing his headache. Fu Hengyi's frowned brows spread out. After a while, Fu Hengyi pressed Hold her hand, "Qinglan, that's fine."

"Press it for a while." Shen Qinglan didn't stop, but pressed for a while, and then let go, helping Fu Hengyi to fasten the seat belt.

Fu Hengyi's wine is very good, and he just leans there quietly when he is drunk.

Shen Qinglan parked the car, turned around and saw Fu Hengyi closed her eyes and was asleep. She quietly looked at Fu Hengyi's profile, her eyes suddenly flicked, and looked at Fu Hengyi's ear, where a white hair appeared. Looking closely at Fu Hengyi's corner of the eye, there was already a trace of fine lines, no It's not obvious to look seriously.

Shen Qinglan's eyes became complicated. She and Fu Hengyi have been together for five years. For five years, for many people, it may not be very long, especially in a marriage relationship. Five years is even very long. Short, but in these short five years, she and this man have experienced many people will not experience in a lifetime.

They have lived and died together, shared troubles, and cuddled sweetly, embracing each other with affection. They are the most intimate people in the world and the most important people in their hearts. Shen Qinglan once thought that the rest of his life is very long, they can have a lot of time to slow down. Slowly accompanies old age, and the child grows up in a blink of an eye, the fledglings leave home, and soar freely, so she wants to accompany her son to grow first, and then Fu Fuyi grows old, but forgets that Fu Anyi grew up while An An grew up. aged.

Time is fair to everyone, no less than one minute, and no more than one second.

At this moment, Shen Qinglan also reflected in his heart, whether he really put too much energy on An An in the past and ignored Fu Hengyi.

She raised her hand and gently pinched Fu Hengyi's white hair. His hair was short and not easy to pull out. Shen Qinglan just wanted to find a pair of scissors to cut the white hair. She remembered that there were scissors in the car. But was held.

It turned out that Fu Hengyi woke up, and after sleeping for a while on the way back, Fu Hengyi woke up a lot.

"There is a white hair in your ear, I will cut it for you." Shen Qinglan said warmly.

Fu Hengyi took her hand and shook it gently, "No need to cut, I have more than one on my head, there will be more and more in the future, you can't finish cutting." He is thirty-six years old and is close to After half of life.

"Qinglan, I am old." Fu Hengyi's voice was very soft, but it hit the heart of Shen Qinglan hard.

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Who says you are old, a man in his thirties is the age of a man with a flower."

Fu Hengyi heard the words and turned to look at her, "You are a flower."

"I am a flower among women, and you are a flower among men, so both of us are of average age, perfect match."

Fu Hengyi smirked, his smile reverberating in his chest. He reached out and squeezed Shen Qinglan's face. "When did the skin become so thick?"

Shen Qinglan let him squeeze, his eyes full of smiles. She said nothing about Fu Hengyi's running away from home today, as if tonight he just went out with friends and had a few drinks.

That night, Shen Qinglan still took a pair of scissors to cut the white hair on Fu Hengyi's head, a total of five. While Fu Hengyi was not paying attention, she wrapped the five white hairs and carefully clamped it on the last page of the album.

Early the next morning, when Fu Hengyi opened his eyes, Shen Qinglan was nestled in his arms, "Husband, early." She offered Fu Hengyi a good morning kiss.

Fu Hengyi raised her eyebrows slightly, "Early, wife."

This morning, Fu Hengyi discovered that Shen Qinglan seldom ignored An An. For example, An An wanted to eat eggs and wanted Shen Qinglan to peel it.

Shen Qinglan just said, "An An, you have grown up and you have to learn to peel the eggs yourself."

An An wanted Shen Qinglan to send him to kindergarten, and Shen Qinglan just pushed it to Fu Hengyi, "Let my dad send it in the past few days."

After Fu Hengyi sent An'an back, Shen Qinglan was waiting for Fu Hengyi in the living room. "Fu Hengyi, let's go out for a date."

She had light makeup on her face and changed her clothes.

Fu Hengyi looked at her unexpectedly, "Now?"

"Yes, now."

"Don't you promise An'an to learn to make cake for him today?" This was Shen Qinglan's promise to An'an when he had breakfast yesterday morning.

"I have already told Aunt Liu, she will help me make it well, you know my cooking is not good, and making cakes is a waste of ingredients, even." Aunt Liu's cakes are more delicious than Aunt Zhao, An An I have always liked it.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi, "Fu Hengyi, I want to invite you to dinner and a movie today, would you like it?"

Of course Fu Hengyi was willing, with a slight smile, "My honor."

Fu Hengyi went up and changed his clothes and went out with Shen Qinglan. They did not drive. They walked on the street and saw a restaurant that looked good. They walked in, ate a morning and afternoon tea, and then went to watch A movie.

"Fu Hengyi, let's borrow a bicycle and ride to the beach." After coming out of the cinema, Shen Qinglan suggested.

Fu Hengyi responded well.

In the past two years, Jingcheng has launched a shared bicycle, which can be borrowed with a mobile phone. The two ride a bicycle and ride in the direction of the suburbs. Their speed is not fast.

Passing through a higher education park along the way, there are many universities, and there are couples riding bicycles along the road, but they are all dressed up as students. People like Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi are really unique.

Some people looked at them curiously, and others cast envious glances at them.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi ignored these eyes and talked and laughed along the way.

In the evening, the couple went to pick An'an together. This is the first time Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan have picked him up at the same time.

When An An walked out of the school gate, he saw his parents standing outside the school gate. His eyes lit up, and he ran towards Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi. Fu Hengyi hugged his son and put him on his shoulders, "Go, go home Myself."

An An was sitting on Dad's shoulder, and he could hear his laughter across the distance.

The next day was Saturday, An An did not have to go to school, Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan decided to take An An to the amusement park. An An was very happy. Very excited along the way.

"Dad, I want to play the roller coaster. Last time my brother said that the roller coaster was fun. I also want to play the pirate ship. And..." An An counted down the amusement park projects that Hao Hao once told him.

"Dad, is this all right?"

"Some can, some of you are too young to play now. Wait until you grow up and grow up to be older than brother. I'll show you again."

An An was a little disappointed, but this little disappointment was instantly forgotten when he saw the wide variety of rides in the amusement park.

Fu Hengyi is responsible for taking An'an to play, while Shen Qinglan is responsible for taking pictures of his father and his son.

It was still too early to leave the amusement park. The family of three went to eat again. Originally in the afternoon, Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi planned to take An'an to the Children's Palace to choose an interest class. As a result, Shen Qinglan received a call from Xu Xiangqian on the way. Guests want to see her.

"You go first, I'll just take An'an." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan thought about it, just chose a course, it was not troublesome, so he nodded, got off and hit a car.

Fu Hengyi took his son to the Children's Palace, this was the first time An An came, he looked at everything curiously, "Dad, can I play with these things?" He pointed to the building blocks, Fu Hengyi nodded, "Go, but don't go far ."

An An said it.

Fu Hengyi is learning about the various training courses in the children's palace, while An An is playing with other children in the playground of the children's palace.

Fu Hengyi selected several suitable for An'an age, and then handed over to An An to choose. Finally, I chose painting and handwork. Fu Hengyi went to determine the class time and paid the fee by the way.

"Daddy's photos are beautiful." An An suddenly pointed to a publicity photo outside the studio when he passed a photo studio. This is a children's photo studio, and the photo stickers of the children are posted outside the photo studio.

Fu Hengyi looked at his son, "Want to shoot?" An An nodded hard. In fact, Shen Qinglan takes An An to take a set of pictures every year. In addition, Shen Qinglan took pictures of himself on weekdays, and there are many pictures of An An at home. But since he wanted to shoot, and Fu Hengyi happened to have this time, he was satisfied.

Fu Hengyi found a place to park and walked in with An An. An An finished a small suit. The studio staff was about to take An An to change clothes. Fu Hengyi's sight fell on a pink princess dress on the hanger .

His eyes turned around his son, not knowing what he thought of, pointing at the skirt and saying, "Try this for him."

The studio staff looked at Fu Hengyi in surprise, "This pink one?"

Fu Hengyi's expression remained unchanged, "This is the set." He stepped forward and took the pink princess dress in his hand, and An An looked at the clothes in his father's hands curiously.

When the father and son came out of the studio, Fu Hengyi had an additional USB flash drive in his hand, which contained an electronic version of the photo shoot taken this time.

In the evening when Shen Qinglan came home, An An could not wait to tell Shen Qinglan that he and his father were going to take pictures today.

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows. "Photo?" An An nodded. "But it's pretty. It's with my father."

Shen Qinglan was very interested in the beautiful photos in An'an's mouth and went upstairs to find Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi was looking at the photos on the computer in the study, saw her coming in, and beckoned to let her pass.

When he saw the photos on the screen clearly, Shen Qinglan's eyes widened in surprise.

An An in the photo is wearing a pink princess dress, wearing a shawl wig on her head, and a beautiful pink lace hat, with a blush on her face and a flower on her forehead

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows and looked at Fu Hengyi, "How do you dress him in girls' clothes?"

Fu Hengyi's eyes were full of smiles, "Don't you think An An in a skirt is very beautiful and cute?" If he ignores his gender, this is the cute daughter he has been expecting.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi silently. Now An An's concept of men and women is still vague. When he sees these photos when he grows up, it is estimated that he will hate him.

But speaking of it, An An is really a pretty little girl in her dress. If this is carried out, others will definitely not think that An An is a boy.

"Fu Hengyi, An An is a boy. You can't wear a women's dress, it will confuse his concept of men and women." Shen Qinglan said seriously.

Fu Hengyi disagreed, "I used to pass through."

Shen Qinglan suddenly laughed out loud, but she forgot this stubble. Wasn't Fu Hengyi walking through the women's clothing for the task? It was Shen Qinglan who personally applied his makeup.

Not to mention, Fu Hengyi and An An in women's clothing are very beautiful, this person is good to dominate.

The photo was taken, and Shen Qinglan also sat down with Fu Hengyi to appreciate the beauty of his son's prosperity.

However, Shen Qinglan seriously doubted that Fu Hengyi wore women's clothing for An An because he had also worn women's clothing and wanted to find a balance from An An.

Shen Qinglan looked at the pictures above one by one, "Fu Hengyi, you are not afraid that An An will grow up blaming you when he grows up."

"Then wait until he grows up." Now who made him young.

Fu Hengyi also showed the photos to the two old men. The two old men looked at each other and smiled, "Oh, An An looks like a female doll like this." Old Man Fu touched his beard and said with a smile, full of love.

Chu Yunrong looked at the photo of his grandson and said, "It would be nice if An An had a younger sister." The sentence resonated with everyone, and the two old men looked at Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan hopefully.

Grandpa Fu said first, "Qinglan, have you considered when to give birth to a second child?" After that, afraid that Shen Qinglan might misunderstand, she explained, "Grandpa didn't want you to give birth to a second child, just ask Do you have this plan?"

Fu Hengyi had a headache when he heard the topic of the second child and was about to speak, but Shen Qinglan took the first step. "Me and Fu Hengyi are planning to regenerate one. Now."

Father Fu nodded in agreement, "Yes, right, this kind of thing still depends on fate, no rush, no rush." The old man only needs to know that they have this plan.

Fu Hengyi's face was light, he just wanted to say that he didn't want a second child, but Shen Qinglan took the lead.

"It would be perfect if I had another daughter." Mr. Shen said with a smile, obviously also looking forward to the second child, their family is not without conditions, only An An is a little lonely.

"I think so too." Shen Qinglan echoed with a warm voice.

"Actually, one child is enough." Fu Hengyi said quietly, but he just ignored it. Everyone was discussing An'an women's photos.

In the afternoon, Yu Xiaoxuan brought Guoguo to play at home. Guoguo is two years old this year. His temperament is very similar to his mother. He is very lively, but he looks like his father. His good genes.

"Brother An'an." Guo Guo saw An'an and went up as a hug. Since she was a child, she played with An'an and the two were very close.

An An also likes Guoguo, holding her hand and taking her to see her new toy.

Han Yi sat on the sofa and looked at Fu Hengyi from time to time. Fu Hengyi finally lifted his eyes from the book and gave him a glance like a gift. "Speak straight if you have anything."

Han Yi lowered his voice, "Are you all right?"

"I have a bad time?" Fu Hengyi asked lightly.

She didn't know who it was. Two days ago, she was pulling a few of them to "borrow wine to sorrow," and this one who had run away from home also had to be picked up by Shen Qinglan.

But Shen Qinglan didn't know what he said to Fu Hengyi, how quickly he coaxed people.

Han Yi's heart of gossip rekindled again, and he moved closer, "You tell me, you were out of control the other day? What happened to you, sister-in-law, let you run away from home?"

"Run away from home?" Fu Hengyi chewed these four words, watching Han Yi's eyes slightly cold, who said he was running away from home.

"It's not that the Li family is running away. Is it true that you really missed us a few?" Said it was Juju, and the person was staring at the phone all the way.

Fu Hengyi would not admit that he wanted them, and running away from home was even more impossible to talk about. In his opinion, it was the love between him and Shen Qinglan.

As long as it was Fu Hengyi who didn't want to say, no one could know anything from his mouth, so Han Yi knocked on the side and didn't know what the reason for Fu Hengyi's trouble was, curiosity was not satisfied, Han Yi was interested Leaning on the sofa.

After dinner, Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan wanted to take Guoguo home, and Guoguo was reluctant to go back. He cried and said, "Don't go home, I want Brother Ann."

"Good boy, we'll come to see An An brother tomorrow, now I'll go home with my dad first?" Han Yi coaxed his daughter.

Guoguo shook his head desperately, holding Fu Hengyi's legs and refused to let go, "I want Brother Ann."

Fu Hengyi looked at the villain holding his leg, his eyes softened, and looked at Han Yi, "Let Guoguo stay here today."

Yu Xiaoxuan didn't care, looking at her daughter, "Are you sleeping with Brother Ann today?"

Guoguo nodded, "Okay."

"No."

"No." Three voices sounded at the same time, the first one was fruitful, the next two were An'an, and the other one was naturally Han Yi.

When Guo Guo heard An An's words, tears accumulated in his big eyes and looked at An An in disappointment, "Brother An An."

"An An, why don't you want to sleep with your sister?" Yu Xiaoxuan asked curiously. An An likes Guo Guo very much and is very good with Guo Guo. Every time Guo Guo comes, she will share her toys and snacks with her. Now that he is unwilling to sleep with Guoguo, how can this not be a curiosity for Yu Xiaoxuan?

"Dad said I was going to sleep with my wife." An An said rightfully, "Guoguo is my sister."

As soon as this remark came out, everyone looked at Fu Hengyi, and Fu Hengyi looked calm, as if the person who said that was not him. Shen Qinglan instantly guessed Fu Hengyi's intention to say this, but Zuo Anan slept alone.

"If Guoguo grows up, it's your wife." Yu Xiaoxuan laughed at this and teased An An.

"Guoguo is my sister." An An insisted that his mother told him that Guoguo was his sister, and he wanted to love her.

"An An, Guoguo is now a sister, but when she grows up, she is your wife, so you can sleep with Guoguo now." Yu Xiaoxuan has always been keen on getting married.

Han Yi has a black face, but Guo Guo is his daughter, he hasn't agreed yet.

An An looked at her mother, "Mom, can Guo Guo sleep with me?"

Shen Qinglan nodded with a smile, "even my sister can sleep with her brother."

An An smiled instantly, holding Guoguo's hand in the past, "Guoguo, let's sleep together today."

Guoguo's tears hung in the corners of his eyes, and they couldn't be dropped. His face was aggrieved. When he heard An'an, he instantly smiled, "Okay, An'an, let's sleep together."

"Qinglan, that Guoguo will be handed over to you, and I will come over to pick her up tomorrow." Yu Xiaoxuan was not worried about leaving Guoguo alone, but Han Yi looked at her daughter and tried to lure Coax her home, "Guoguo, if you sleep here today, you won't see Mom and Dad, and no dad will tell you a story before going to bed at night."

Guoguo waved his small hand, "Daddy goodbye."

Han Yi: ...Isn't it saying that my daughter is a little lover of my father's previous life?Is it a sweet little jacket?What about his family?Han Yi felt that he had suffered 10,000 crit damage.

Guoguo didn't know that his father's old heart was hurt by his own words, and took An'an's hand. That was a joy, "Brother An'an, let's go."

The two little guys held hands upstairs and didn't even give her eyes to her old father. Han Yi watched as her daughter ran away with a stinky boy, and ran tears in the cold wind.

"Let's go, what's so good, Guoguo has gone up." Yu Xiaoxuan dragged Han Yi and left without hesitation.

"The sister-in-law, Guoguo likes to drink half a glass of milk before going to bed at night, likes to listen to bedside stories, likes..." Han Yiyi reluctantly.

"All right, Qinglan will take care of Guoguo." Yu Xiaoxuan was impatient.

Shen Qinglan was so funny that he went upstairs to bathe the two little guys. When he came out, he saw Fu Hengyi sitting beside An'an's bed, holding a hair dryer in his hand, blowing hair to Guoguo, and moved gently.

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows, but he hadn't seen him blow hair to An An before. And tonight, Fu Hengyi offered to tell a story to two little guys.

Shen Qinglan is quiet, this man with a guilty conscience, also said that he does not want to have a second child, and clearly likes his daughter so much.

Country Y, Eden's private estate.

"Sisley is much better today. You should be able to wake up soon." Eden said to Andrea after checking Sisley. Andrea looked at Eden incredulously, "You Is it true?"

Eden laughed, "When did I deceive you?" Three days ago, Sisley's vital signs suddenly changed for three years, seeming to show signs of regaining consciousness, and these days, her condition It is indeed getting better every day.

"Within a month, she can definitely wake up." Eden said affirmatively.

Andrea looked at Sisley calmly, his hand on his side trembling gently, a month seemed to be very long for others, but for Andrea who had been waiting for nearly a month Like a miracle.

"Very good, great." Andrea was speechless. He did the best to prepare Sisley for such a drowsy life, but now Eden told him that in a little while, he was lying in bed. People will wake up, talk to him, smile at him like he used to, and no one can understand his excitement at the moment.

Eden patted him on the shoulder. "Yes, God bless you. You can take her out for the sun these days."

Andrea nodded wildly, and Eden knew he would definitely need time to calm down, so he left the room and left the space to the two.

In recent years, Eden's energy has been on Sisley and Jin Enxi. Jin Enxi's face has recovered, and Sisley is about to wake up. His task is about to be completed soon, and he can breathe a sigh of relief.

Thinking about it, Eden took the car key and went out, maybe he could celebrate.

Eden went to the bar, and the things that had been on his mind were resolved. He was in a good mood. He ordered a glass of wine, sat down on the bar and tasted it slowly, and occasionally glanced at the men and women in the bar, who came here.

"Hey, handsome, are you alone? Would you mind having a drink together." A blond beauty walked to Eden's side with a glass of wine in his hand. Eden raised the bar and he was in a good mood today And don't mind drinking a glass of wine with a stranger.

"The handsome guy came here to hunt for beauty?" The blond beauty asked with a smile when she saw Eden's eyes on the men and women in the bar. She actually came to hunt for beauty.

Eden just smiled and didn't say yes or no. The blonde beauty directly assumed that he was here to hunt for beauty, and his eyes were shiny.

Her hand rested on Eden's shoulder, close to Eden's ear, and the voice was ambiguous, "So what do you think of me?" Eden looks good. She minds further development with the man in front of her.

Eden glanced at the hand on his shoulder and spoke softly, "Sorry, I like men."

The blond beauty heard the words and shrugged regretfully. "Well, then I wish you a happy hunting." He said, holding a wine glass and twisting his waist away, and even a good-looking man was not interested in women.

"I haven't seen you for two years. When did you like men?" A familiar female voice rang beside Eden. When Eden turned back, he saw Su Qing.

Eden raised his eyebrows slightly and didn't expect to meet Su Qing here. Su Qing sat down beside him and took a drink in front of him.

"When did you come?" Eden asked, as if he hadn't seen his glass taken away.

Su Qing drank the wine in the glass at once, and then motioned the bartender to give him a drink before saying, "I just arrived today."

"What are you doing here this time?"

"you guess."

The conversation between the two is more like a chat between friends who haven't seen each other for a long time, but in fact the two are not familiar, Su Qing is a mysterious existence in the eyes of several of them, I don't know where she came from, she What did they do, but they helped them twice.

Su Qing turned out that the bartender had handed over the wine, just about to drink it, but Eden suddenly held her hand. Su Qing raised her eyebrows, "How?"

"Don't drink if you are injured?" Eden said.

"Who said I was injured?"

Eden approached Su Qing a little and whispered, "You have blood on your body." He just smelled it.

Su Qing was surprised, not expecting Eden's nose to be so smart, "Are you a dog?" Su Qing made a joke.

Suddenly two more people came in at the door of the bar. When they came in, they looked around. It seemed that they were looking for someone. Su Qing's eyes flickered, leaning directly on Eden's arms, holding Eden's neck, "Don't move."

Eden was suddenly hugged by Su Qing, just wanted to push her away, she heard her words, and then saw two men with abnormal behavior, want to push her hand away, suddenly changed to hug her waist, head slightly lowered, at a glance, the two were more like lovers. Although this kind of behavior is a bit bold in a large public, but here is a bar, it is normal.

The two men's eyes swept past the two of them and walked towards the back door of the bar. When passing by them, Eden noticed that their waists were bulging, obviously with weapons.

When the two were gone, Su Qing sat up from Eden's arms and said, "Thanks." She did not deny that the two were just looking for her.

"Who are those two?"

"FBI." Su Qing said casually.

"How did you get them?" Eden frowned and was stared at by the FBI, making it difficult to get out.

Su Qing shrugged, "Guess."

Seeing her reluctance to speak, Eden stopped asking and stood up, "Go."

Su Qing didn't ask Eden where he was going to take himself, and followed, and less than three minutes after they left, the two who had gone back to the bar, but the person they were looking for had already gone, and naturally they found nothing. .

Eden went home with Su Qing directly, took out the medicine cabinet, "Take off your clothes."

Su Qing chuckled, "I haven't seen you in the past two years, don't you just have to meet as soon as you meet?" Although she said so on the mouth, she reached out and undressed. There was a wound on her back, covered with gauze, but the gauze was already It was completely dyed red. If she hadn't been wearing a black skirt today, I'm afraid she could be seen in the bar.

Eden untied the gauze, only to find that there was still a bullet in the wound, "Don't dare to run to the bar after such an injury, you have a lot of courage." Even so, you can still meet him in the bar Not to change color to chat and drink, this endurance is beyond ordinary people.

Su Qing smiled, "My courage is always great."

Medical alcohol touched the wound and caused a tingling sensation. Su Qing snorted softly. "I will give you anesthesia now and help you take out the bullet."

"No, just take it." Su Qing refused to inject anesthesia. Now, she needs to stay awake at all times. The anesthetic will slow down her brain.

"Are you sure?" Eden asked back.

Su Qing nodded, "Come on." He picked up the clothes he just took off and stuffed it into his mouth.

When Eden saw it, he took the scalpel and tweezers to sterilize it.

The scalpel cut the wound, Eden used tweezers to separate the flesh outside, looking for the bullet embedded in it, Su Qing groaned painfully, and the blood on his face disappeared instantly.

"Is it okay?" Eden asked.

Su Qing nodded and signaled Eden to continue.

Soon, a bullet was taken out by Eden, disinfected, bandaged, and the action was neat. Then he draped his shirt on Su Qing's body, which was taken by him when he went to get the medicine box just now.

Su Qing puts on the shirt without hesitation. Eden is one head taller than Su Qing. The shirt is worn on her body to cover her thighs, revealing two long and fair legs.

Su Qing didn't have any other wounds on her body. She leaned on the sofa and rested with her eyes closed. Her eyes were black and dark. She hadn't rested well for days.

"I'll clean up a room for you, you go to rest first." Eden said.

Su Qing opened her eyes. "This time I owe you a favor, but please come to me if you have any problems in the future." She is a person who must be rewarded. Eden helps her, and she remembers it.

"No, since you are Ann's friend, you always have to help when you meet him." Eden said lightly.

Mentioning Shen Qinglan, Su Qing's eyes flickered, "Is she alright?"

"Have you never seen her?" Eden asked back.

Su Qing shook her head. In her identity, she still has a lot of troubles. Being close to Shen Qinglan will only bring her troubles.

"She is fine and happy in life."

Su Qing heard that a gentle flash in her eyes, that's fine.

Eden didn't ask Su Qing why he was stared at by the FBI and how he was injured. He helped Su Qing clean up the room and went back to bed.

The next day, when Eden woke up, Su Qing was no longer there. There was a piece of paper on the table with a series of numbers on it, which should be Su Qing's contact information.

He glanced at the numbers on the paper, then torn the paper to pieces and threw it into the toilet. He did not tell Shen Qinglan about meeting Su Qing. Presumably this is also what Su Qing meant.

After Su Qing left Eden's house, she dialed out a series of numbers, and soon a man appeared in front of her, "Have you got something?"

Su Qing nodded and handed a USB flash drive to the man, "everything you want is in it."

The man did not take the USB flash drive, but looked at Su Qing, "Are you injured?"

Su Qing slightly stunned, and then nodded, "I'm fine, thank you for your concern, Bruce."

Bruce reached out and wanted to get the USB stick, Su Qing closed it, "Bruce. Go back and tell him, this is the last time. If there is another time, then it is when we all die."

Bruce stunned, "Okay, I'll bring it to him intact."

Su Qing threw the USB flash drive to him, Bruce took it, Su Qing turned to go, and Bruce called her, "Su Qing."

Su Qing's footsteps, "Su Qing, he will not let you go easily."

Su Qing heard the words, and his eyes were dark, "I know." The man saved her hard, and trained her to be the best agent. How could she let her go because of the agreement, just look at these two years understood.

Su Qing once had an agreement with the man to do things for him for fifteen years, and then he freed her, fifteen years, arrived two years ago, but the man repented and did not want to let people go. Su Qing betrayed the organization but was chased and killed by a man. If it wasn't for her life, she would never know how many times she died.

A month ago, the man proposed the condition that if Su Qing could help him get the information he needed this time, then let her be free later. Su Qing knew that this might be an empty check, but still agreed to the man. It took her a whole month to get the information, but it was discovered at the last minute. Although the information was available, it also caught the FBI. All the way from country M was pursued to country Y.

"Su Qing, you still come back, as long as you are willing to come back, he will definitely not do anything to you." Bruce shouted at Su Qing's back, he and Su Qing have been partners for many years, really do not want to watch Su Qing die.

Su Qing waved her hand, "Go back and tell him that I will not go back unless I die."

Bruce heard the words and persuaded, "Su Qing, if you don't go back, you will really die."

There was never a defector in that organization. Su Qing was the first one. It was not that no one wanted to escape. It was impossible to escape at all. Once there was any act of wanting to leave the organization, that person would be immediately treated in the most cruel and painful way. Execution, and Su Qing can live until now, already the man's mercy.

"Bruce, I won't go back."

Bruce wondered, "Su Qing, why are you so stubborn, you have nothing to worry about and nowhere to go in this world, and at least we are still in the organization." Why would you rather die than leave the organization?

Su Qing looked down at the land under her feet, "Bruce, I don't want to live on the tip of my knife all my life, and I don't want to live with a mask in my life. Freedom is something she longed for since childhood, but she never got it. free.

Bruce can understand Su Qing's feelings, but compared with life, is freedom really so important? Although none of them are afraid of death, they are also ready to die at any time, but because they often pass by with death, they cherish life more than anyone else.

There was a mistake in the previous one. Let me correct it. The wedding of Pei Yining and Jiang Chenxi was set at the end of December, not the end of October. I made a mistake. The text has been changed, and I will explain it outside the question today.

"Su Qing, you... you are careful yourself," Bruce said, and he would turn around and leave when he was finished, but Su Qing stopped him. "Bruce, are you leaving like this, are you afraid of being punished when you go back?"

Bruce's footsteps turned and looked at her, Su Qing smiled, "He didn't let you kill me?"

Bruce's pupil shrank and only Su Qing continued, "Want to know how I knew? Bruce, I know him." She even knew that the man didn't really want to kill her, but wanted her to do it every day. Living in the chase, one day she will feel tired and unable to bear such torture, so she willingly returns to his side, letting him be at his mercy and being an obedient puppet.

"Bruce, let's go, otherwise you won't be able to explain." Su Qing said lightly. Although she looked still casual, she was already guarded. From the moment she saw Bruce, she had been waiting for Bruce to do it. In the end, this fool really planned to leave without doing anything.

Bruce clenched his fists and lowered his head. "Su Qing, I won't do it with you." After he finished, he turned and left.

Su Qing looked at his back in silence, and it took a long time before she left.

After Bruce returned to the base, he gave the USB flash drive to the man. A cold smile appeared on the corner of the man's mouth. "It turned out to be the best person I cultivated by myself. I only got the information in a month." You see His Su Qing is so excellent, how can he be willing to let go of such Su Qing.

"Have you done what you did?" The man looked at Bruce.

Bruce bowed his head, "I'm not her opponent and failed."

Bang, the man kicked on Bruce's chest. "Useless stuff."

Bruce grunted, covering his chest, and immediately blood came out of the kicked place, and the man's eyes narrowed, "Injured?"

"Yes, I haven't fought, please ask the master to punish."

"It is indeed punishable, not even a woman can beat." The man sneered, "Go down and receive the punishment yourself."

"Yes." Bruce stood up and walked out of the room slowly. At his feet, there were bloodstains extending all the way.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi unexpectedly, "You mean let me go together?"

Fu Hengyi nodded, "The news I received is this, saying that the other party's queen likes your paintings all the time. She always wanted to meet you, but she didn't have a chance. This time the first lady visited country G, and the other party's queen asked to see you. Your side, so the first lady wants to invite you to walk with her."

Shen Qinglan frowned, "I'm just an ordinary painter, why would the queen of Country G want to see me?" She couldn't figure it out, and more importantly, how could the leadership above agree to such a request, knowing that the First Lady visited G this time China is a foreign affairs, and she should not be allowed to go with her in accordance with the truth.

"This time my aunt will go together." Fu Jingting was originally a diplomat of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Although he retired at home in the past two years, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs will occasionally hire her to participate in some activities, and she spent a few years in country G. Yes The culture there is very familiar, and this time it was also specially invited.

"Then should I go this time?" Shen Qinglan asked her husband.

"You can go, you can refuse if you really don't want to go." Although the rejection will make the first lady feel that Shen Qinglan will not give face, but it is not impossible.

"Let's go." Shen Qinglan also thought of this question, "How long do I need to stay there?"

"Up to ten days."

"OK, I am ready."

This first lady's visit to country G is a very important thing for country Z, and this time the security lineup is naturally the highest level.

Even Shen Qinglan's bodyguards were sent by her side. She was a beautiful woman. She looked about the same age as Shen Qinglan.

"Mrs. Fu, my name is Ye Qing, and I will be responsible for your safety during this time." Ye Qing's short, straight hair, wearing a straight suit, Shen Qinglan shook hands gently with her, noticing her hand With a thin cocoon, this is a pair of grabbed hands all year round.

"This time trouble you." Shen Qinglan smiled lightly.

"This is my duty." Ye Qing said.

Shen Qinglan knew that the queen of country G liked her paintings, and this time she was going to visit country G, so she specially prepared a painting for the queen, which was regarded as a gift for the queen.

Ye Qing came today, in addition to reporting to Shen Qinglan, he also came to get the painting. After leaving, Ye Qing would protect Shen Qinglan personally for 24 hours.

In the evening, Shen Qinglan was sorting luggage, and Fu Hengyi was on the side to help. This time the security was not the responsibility of Fu Hengyi. Therefore, Fu Hengyi would not travel together. He sorted out halfway. Shen Qinglan asked Fu Hengyi and asked, "You said I told Ye Hengyi Young people start, how likely is it to win?"

Fu Hengyi folded the clothes piece by piece, "You are big."

"You are so confident? People come out of the special forces." And those who can be responsible for this level of security are all the soldiers among the soldiers. According to Shen Qinglan's prediction, Ye Qing is the kind who has really seen blood.

Fu Hengyi personally tried to compare with Shen Qinglan, and saw her serious look first-hand. She knows her skills well. Although Ye Qing is good enough, Shen Qinglan is slightly better.

"Don't forget to call me after going out, pay attention to safety." Fu Hengyi told her.

"Fu Hengyi, I will only accompany the visit this time, and nothing will happen." Whether it is the Z country or the G country, such a major diplomatic activity will certainly take appropriate security measures, and naturally there will be no surprises.

Fu Hengyi also knew that his worries were unnecessary, so he said casually.

"However, this experience is quite novel. I have never been protected like this before." Twenty-four hours of personal protection, it is necessary to follow even when going to the toilet, not just to talk about it.

Fu Hengyi just smiled and quickly helped Shen Qinglan organize the suitcase. Her luggage was not much, just a few sets of clothes.

Early the next morning, Fu Hengyi personally sent Shen Qinglan to the airport. This time there was a special plane. When they arrived, Fu Jingting had just arrived.

"Aunt, Qinglan will hand it to you this time." Fu Hengyi said warmly.

Wen Yan, Shen Qinglan glanced at Fu Hengyi lightly, he really regarded her as a child? Parental care is also required.

Fu Jingting just smiled, "Got it, aunt must take care of your baby daughter-in-law."

Fu Hengyi did not go back until the plane took off. After he went back, he also packed up and returned to the military area. Originally, he should have gone back yesterday, but because Shen Qinglan had to leave for a few days, he deliberately stayed for a day.

President's Office of Lu Real Estate.

Lu Jincal looked at the business manager in front of him with a sullen face, "was it robbed again?"

The manager of the business department was sweating in his forehead, "Mr. Lu, we have done our best."

Lu Jin only sneered. "You tried your best to get this result. If you don't try your best, would you have to drink the northwest wind?"

He said that the documents in his hands had hit the feet of the business department manager fiercely. "A bunch of waste, with such a high salary, but even a hairy boy can't fight, I want you to use it."

"Mr. Lu, although the other party is a hairy kid, but someone behind him is pointing." The business department manager is also wronged. Even if he is able to endure, can he compare with Shen Junyu?

But having said that, no one expected that such a small company could develop to that scale in just a few months, and robbed them of a lot of business, just this month, they robbed They have gone through several big deals.

Lu Jin only looked at him coldly, "The other party is just a small company with less than 300 people. We are a large company with thousands of people. Even if there are people behind you, you don't have any way to use them. Isn't this incompetence?"

The manager of the business department only felt wronged. The company was small, but there was a behemoth standing behind them.

"Mr. Lu, behind Bokai, there is Junlan Group. We don't dare to fight dead hands, and it is not good for us to continue fighting like this. It is better to shake hands with them and make peace. Isn't Shen Junze your nephew? "

Lu Jincal watched his eyes colder, "What I asked you to do was to fight against Bokai, so that they could not continue to grow and develop, instead of talking to me about shaking hands and peace."

Between him and Shen Junzejun, his face was already torn apart, and there is no possibility of shaking hands.

"Next month, if the results you handed in are still the same, then you will leave me." Lu Jincal said coldly.

The manager of the business department can only nod and agree to retreat. Just after walking out of the office, his face sank completely, glancing bitterly at the door of the president's office behind him. This Lu Jin had no ability of his own, and even put the blame on them.

Lu Jincai sat alone in the office thinking about countermeasures. A few months ago, Shen Junze resigned from Junlan Group and officially entered a company called Bokai Real Estate.

Bokai Real Estate is a small company that existed two years ago. It has been silent. No one has taken it seriously. It is naturally impossible for Lu Jincai to pay attention to a small company of dozens of people.

Even if Shen Junze stayed at Bokai Real Estate, he did not take him seriously. But who would have thought that after Shen Junze settled in Bokai Real Estate, this small and insignificant company has grown and developed at a rocket-like speed. In just one month, it has expanded from the original small scale of only 20 people to one. One hundred people, then expanded to 200 people, 300 people.

Not only that, it was also at the land auction, which repeatedly won the land they wanted at a price higher than that of Lushi Real Estate.

Lu Jin did not believe that a newly-started small company could have such great financial resources. Shen Junyu was still supporting Shen Junze behind the scenes.

Lu Jincai was right, and Shen Junyu did give financial support. Although he said that he would no longer control Shen Junyu, he provided him with a lot of financial support in private. It is just that this fund is not in the name of Junlan Group, but in his own name, which is also regarded as the money he lent to Shen Junze.

At the same time, Shen Junyu also gave him a lot of constructive opinions on the company's development, and introduced him to several big businessmen. It is for this reason that Shen Junze can develop the company in a short period of time.

In fact, Lu Yaqin told Lu Jincai about Shen Junze's own company, but he didn't take it seriously, or even sneered. In his view, Shen Junze couldn't grow no matter how much he grew up. Immediately grown to such a height, he was not afraid of threats, and Bokai Real Estate was a small company that could not be smaller in his eyes. , That is not enough to see in front of him. He can use a little means to make him declare bankruptcy.

And when Bokai started to develop rapidly, Lu Jincai did indeed have such thoughts. He not only moved, but also put into action, but was secretly blocked by Shen Junyu, and thus offended a builder and lost one. Lu Jin learned that this was Shen Junyu's warning to him. Naturally, it was impossible to stop the development of Bokai Real Estate, so as not to really anger the Junlan Group and provoke the upper body.

It was his laissez-faire attitude that made Bokai Real Estate unimpeded. Until now, Lu Jin only regretted his initial hesitation. He knew that he should take the risk of offending Shen Junyu and buy Bokai first.

Lu Jincai's assistant, his wife Zhang Wenli, saw the manager of the business department left, walked in with a cup of coffee, put the coffee in front of Lu Jincai, and comforted him softly, "What are you angry about again?"

Lu Jincan can't be angry. In the past few months, their profits have dropped by 5 percentage points. 5 percentage points, it seems not much, but it is quite amazing in terms of calculation.

"Who can think of Shen Junze as a kid who can have today." Lu Jincan said with hate. At the beginning, Shen Junze was a pile of mud that couldn't help the wall. If not, he wouldn't dare to treat him so much.

Zhang Wenli didn't take it seriously, "I blame you on this matter. You said why did you do things so badly at first, did you not know his relationship with the Shen family? Isn't it good to maintain peace with him? You are now if you do things absolutely, it's strange that people don't hate you."

Lu Jincan said, black face, "You are my wife, who do you help?" If he knew that Shen Junze would repair the relationship with the Shen family, he would not be so stupid as to fall down with Shen Junze.

Zhang Wenli helped him rub his forehead, "Naturally it is for you, but now there is Junlan Group's support behind Shen Junze, you will certainly not be able to fight him, it is better to shake hands and make peace."

"Shaking hands with peace? I've made trouble with him to such an extent that he hates me. Can he shake hands with me?" Lu Jin could not believe it.

Shen Junze had grown up since he was a child. What kind of temperament is this kid? He knows clearly.

"You can't, but your sister can."

Speaking of Lu Yaqin, Lu Jincan's liver that had just calmed down again came up. "It's okay if you don't mention her. I'm angry when I mention her."

"What are you angry about?" Zhang Wenli was puzzled. Lu Yaqin has always been with them. Isn't that good?

"What's the use of her? You can't even control your own son." Lu Yaqin couldn't let Shen Junze obediently obey, this is what made him the most angry.

"No matter how she can't control Junze, Junze is still her son. Junze can't care about the fucking life or death, I have already inquired. Junze said that it doesn't matter to his mother, but he goes to his mother's account every month. There is a lot of money to play, which shows that he still cares about fucking in his heart. You let Yaqin talk to Jun Ze well, saying that you know that it was wrong, and you want to shake hands with him. As the saying goes, father and son soldiers, Although you and Junze are not fathers and sons, they are better than fathers and sons. Two people are fighting inside. The cheaper ones are outsiders. It is better to join forces so that both parties can benefit."

Lu Jin calmed down and thought about his wife's words, "But that kid hates me so much, can he agree?"

"He hates you, but don't forget, he is now a businessman, a businessman is profitable, what is the past grudge in the face of interests? And he minds that you took the company away from him, but he He also holds shares in Lushi Real Estate. The depreciation of Lushi Real Estate's shares does not benefit him at all."

Zhang Wenli did not say that Lu Jincai had forgotten that part of the shares of the Shen Group was under the name of Shen Junze, which has not been recovered so far.

"You go to Yaqin tonight, talk to her, and let Yaqin persuade Junze."

Lu Jin felt that his wife was very reasonable. Before going to get off work, he went to the mall to buy some gifts and drove to where Lu Yaqin lived.

Fan Yanghong opened the door. Since Shen Junze knew the relationship between Fan Yanghong and Lu Yaqin, Fan Yanghong did not cover up and moved directly to Lu Yaqin.

At first, Lu Yaqin disagreed, afraid that Shen Junze would see Fan Yanghong when he came home, but Shen Junze didn't say to go home in the past few months, he didn't even call her. Except for the monthly living expenses that hit her account on time, she and Shen Junze were like strangers.

Plus Fan Yanghong kept mentioning this to her. Lu Yaqin agreed half-push.

"Brother, you are here, come in quickly." Fan Yanghong said with a smile.

Lu Jincai entered the door, but did not see Lu Yaqin, "What about Yaqin?"

"She went out to buy food. She should be back soon. Brother, sit down first."

Uncle Lu Jincai sat down on the sofa like that, um, "These things were bought for Yaqin, and the bag was for you."

Fan Yanghong rubbed his hands, "Brother, you will be here when you come, what else do you bring."

"It's just a little thing, what's the family polite?"

Fan Yanghong should continue to be.

Lu Yaqin came back from shopping and saw that Lu Jin had some surprises. But her elder brother didn't come to see her.

"Brother, why are you here?" Lu Yaqin asked.

Lu Jin only saw Lu Yaqin and said with a smile, "I have always wanted to come over to see you, but there are so many things in the company that I can't pull away. Today is free, so come and see you. How are you doing?"

"Just like that, good or bad." Lu Yaqin put the dishes on the table, "Yang Hong, you take the dishes in first."

Fan Yanghong knew that their brother and sister had something to say, without saying anything, they walked into the kitchen with their vegetables.

"Brother, what are you doing coming to me today?" Lu Yaqin knows Lu Jincai's character very well. This person is always in the Three Treasures Hall.

"Brother can't come to see you." Lu Jincai said pretendingly.

Lu Yaqin couldn't answer this with a smile.

Lu Jin only saw that she did not accept the move, so she said directly, "Have Jun Ze been back in the past few months?"

Mentioning Shen Junze, the smile on Lu Yaqin's face faded, and he shook his head, "No, he is busy with his company's affairs."

Lu Jincai sighed, "Yaqin is not me saying you, Jun Ze is so busy, why don't you visit him?"

"Junze, he doesn't want to see me."

"Because of Yang Hong's affairs?"

Lu Yaqin nodded, "Not all."

"I know, this child Junze still remembers and hates me. But Yaqin, Junzeji hates me is the same thing, but you and he are mother and child, how can there be an overnight feud between mother and child? Since he doesn't go home, then you should visit him and care about him. He is a face-loving person, and he may not be able to hold this face. Then, if you take the initiative, can't the mother and the child reconcile?" Lu Jincai persuaded seriously.

But Lu Yaqin knew that the biggest problem between her and Shen Junze was not this. Unless she was willing to sever ties with Lu Jincai and Fan Yanghong, Shen Junze could not forgive her in this life.

"Brother, I will talk about Junze's things later. Since you came here today, I will eat at home. I happened to buy more food today." Lu Yaqin didn't want to talk about Shen Junze's things anymore. This son broke her heart. .

Lu Jincai did not refuse, Lu Jin did not leave after dinner, but took Lu Yaqin to sit down again, "Yaqin, let me tell you something."

"Brother, you say."

"That's the case, because Junze was young and ignorant, and I didn't want to watch my brother-in-law's industry just go into vain. This took over the company, but Junze's child didn't understand it, and thought I robbed his dad. The company has always hated me. Now that he founded the company himself, it has developed very well in the past few months, and I am very pleased to see it. But after all, it is a small company. It must encounter some problems in development. It's a lot easier for someone to help this way. I thought about it. The things between the two of us have also passed for so many years. Should we find an opportunity to reconcile and reconcile."

This made Lu Yaqin somewhat surprised and looked up at him, "Brother, you said you want to reconcile with Junze?"

"Jun Ze is my nephew after all. I can't be careful with my nephew as my uncle. Besides, father and son soldiers, you said that the brother-in-law is no longer there. Then his child is my child. The company has developed in recent years. It's good too. If I reconcile with Junze, I can help him in the mall, right?"

Seeing that Lu Yaqin didn't say anything, Lu Jin knew she was moving, and continued, "It's not that I don't want to help him, but that he still remembers and hates me, and doesn't let me help. I am weak."

"But this matter, Junze, he may not be willing." Lu Yaqin knew Shen Junze's hatred for Lu Jincai, this is not something that can be resolved overnight.

"How do you know if he doesn't want to try it? In this way, you have Junze out and let our uncle and the two have a good talk. Some things will be just fine."

Lu Yaqin was shaken only by Lu Jin. If Shen Junze and Lu Jin could really reconcile, then she would not have to be embarrassed.

"But I'm not sure if Junze is willing to come out." Lu Yaqin hesitated. Shen Junze is now even reluctant to see her mother.

"You can call him now, and if he is willing to answer your call, he will definitely see you." Lu Jin gave her an idea.

Lu Yaqin thought that Lu Jin was very reasonable. He took out his mobile phone and called Shen Junze. Shen Junze hung up directly.

Lu Yaqin looked at the hung up cell phone and sighed deeply, "Brother, forget what you said." Shen Junze is now reluctant to ignore her.

Lu Jin did not expect that Shen Junze was doing such a job right now, not even answering his mother's phone. But still a little unwilling, "You call him another one."

Lu Yaqin played three or four more times, and they were all hung up by Shen Junze. If they hit it again, they would shut down. "Brother, I'm afraid I can't help you with that matter." She smiled bitterly.

"In this way, you go to his company tomorrow to find him, stew some soup and bring it over, and say that he was given the soup." Lu Jin was only thinking, Lu Yaqin hesitated.

"Yaqin, you can't stay with Junze all your life, he is your only son after all."

"But..." Lu Yaqin hesitated. If she went to the company and was driven out by Shen Junze, she would be embarrassed.

Lu Jincui knew at a glance what she was thinking and persuaded, "Is face important, or son important? What you are important now is to restore Junze's heart. Think about it, why did Junze live with you to this point? "

"It is estimated that the Shen family told him?" Lu Yaqin said. Her son used to listen to her the most, and now it is the Shen family who provoked it.

"If this is the case, then you have to repair the relationship with Junze even more. Now Junze is close to the Shen family. If the Shen family said something to you in front of him, he will definitely remember it, alienating you, you. Now hesitant, not close to him, how to restore this relationship?"

Of course, Lu Yaqin knew this, but she was afraid of the opposite. "Brother, let me think about it again."

Lu Jin sullen his face, "I'm just persuading you for your sake. If you weren't my sister, what would you do with Junze? Will I control you? Anyway, you should consider this matter yourself. I don't care. , Junze hated me and hated me. After all, I also have a son. Someone gave me a pension, but you are different,

Yaqin."

Lu Yaqin blanked his face, staring at Lu Jincai stunned.

Lu Jin realized that he had said something seriously, sighed, and eased his tone, saying, "Yaqin, you are my only sister. The two of us are the closest loved ones in the world. Can you say that I can hurt you? I watched your relationship with Junze go further and further. After all, you are a mother and son, and you are not an enemy with deep hatred."

Lu Yaqin was moved by Lu Jin, "Well, then I will go to Junze Company to find him tomorrow."

"That's right." Lu Jin was satisfied. "Remember to bring him some chicken soup tomorrow. Young people can't work hard enough to work."

Lu Yaqin nodded, thinking about how to tell Shen Junze tomorrow.

In the evening, Fan Yanghong also persuaded Lu Yaqin to have a meaning with Lu Jin, "Yaqin, I don't have children, we are together, and Junze will be my child in the future. When we get old, someone will have to give up the pension. Even if it's not for this, the two of us are at home on weekdays. It's strange to be deserted. You relax with Jun Ze. He often comes back to see us. This home is like a complete home."

"I also know that Jun Ze really cares about me being with you and thinks that I am Lu Jincai's person, but I will not say anything to Lu Jincai. After all, Lu Jin is my boss and Junze is my loved one. You can rest assured. If Jun Ze comes to the house, I will talk to him and let him accept me."

In this way, Lu Yaqin is even more worried.

Bokai Real Estate.

"Mr. Shen, there is a lady outside who claims to be your mother who wants to see you." The secretary walked into Shen Junze's office and said.

Shen Junze looked up from the file and frowned, "My mother?"

The secretary nodded. "She said she was Lu Yaqin."

Shen Junze's eyes looked unpredictable, and he remembered the few calls Lu Yaqin made last night.

"You let her in." Shen Junze said lightly.

When Lu Yaqin came in, she saw that Shen Junze was burying her head in the document. She pursed her lips and spoke softly, "Junze."

Shen Junze raised his head from the document, "Mom, sit down."

Lu Yaqin did not sit, but walked over and placed the heat preservation box in his hand on the table, "Junze, this is the chicken soup that Mom got up to stew for you early this morning. You try it."

"Leave it first, I will drink when I have time."

"Hey, good." Lu Yaqin responded, seeing Shen Junze willing to drink, a smile appeared on his face, "Junze, have you been busy working for these months?"

"Just talk if you have something."

"Mom is okay, just worried that you are too busy to work and take care of your body, so come and see you."

"Mom, if it's okay, you can go home first. I'm quite busy today." Shen Junze said lightly.

Lu Yaqin's face, which had just smiled for a moment, stiffened, and said with some helplessness, "Junze, Mom... No... I have no other things for you..." She was incoherent and did not know what she wanted to say.

"Mom, I'll have another meeting later."

"Jun Ze, do you hate mother so much?" Lu Yaqin blanked.

"I don't hate you, I really have something to do." He had nothing but peace with his mother.

"Junze, you haven't been back to see your mother for months. Can you accompany your mother for a meal today?"

Shen Junze put down his pen, "Isn't Lu Jin going to find you." According to Lu Yaqin's temperament, he used to say that she would definitely go back, but today she is not willing to leave, which is a bit strange.

Lu Yaqin's eyes flashed, "No, no. I haven't seen him for months."

Shen Junze was naturally unbelievable, "Mom, if you want to be a lobbyist today, then you don't have to say anything next. There is no possibility of relaxation between me and Lu Jincai. Also, my time is really too late. Well, if you want to stay here, you can sit here, I will go first." Shen Junze stood up and wanted to leave the office.

Lu Yaqin held him, "Jun Ze, can't you really forgive your mother?"

Shen Junze looked at her with deep eyes, "I never hated you and talked about forgiveness." They just talked differently.

"But you have refused to go home, aren't you blaming me?"

"I thought I had made it clear to you last time. I will call you on time for the cost of living. If you don't need it, you don't have to say it." Shen Junze flicked Lu Yaqin's hand and walked out.

Lu Yaqin stood at the same place with a sad face. It took a long time before he left in a trance.

"Is my mother gone?" Shen Junze sat in the conference room with his head down, his eyes very dark.

The secretary nodded. "It's gone. I watched her get back in the taxi."

"OK, you go to work."

"Okay, President Shen."

Shen Junze's mood is a little irritable. He actually didn't want to be so unsympathetic to Lu Yaqin, but his mother's temper was too easy to be controlled by others, especially if Lu Jincai was simply a sacred word for his mother. Once his relationship with his mother eased, his mother would definitely speak for Lu Jin again, and by then the relationship between their mother and child would only get worse, it would be better to put an end to this possibility from the beginning. It is better to keep a certain distance like now.

Shen Junze was very sure that Lu Jin had definitely visited his mother, otherwise Lu Yaqin would not come to him today.

In recent months, with the help of Shen Junyu, he has expanded the scale of Bokai Real Estate and robbed Lu Jincai of many businesses. Lu Jincai must be in a hurry, so he will find his mother.

Thinking of this, Shen Junze's lips evoked a cold arc, Lu Jincai, this is just the beginning, you must hold on, otherwise I can't sing the good drama I prepared for you.

"Help me to make a phone call with Mr. Wang of Lu's Real Estate and say that I want to invite him to dinner." Shen Junze said to the secretary before leaving the company.

"When is Mr. Shen about?"

"The sooner the better, make an appointment to call me."

"Ok."

The secretary's work efficiency is very high. Soon after, she called Shen Junze and said that she had an appointment with the other party at seven in the evening.

"Is the box booked?"

"Already booked, President Shen."

"Okay. Help me prepare two more bottles of fine wine. The packaging is more delicate and I put it on my car."

"Okay, President Shen."

At seven o'clock in the evening, the restaurant box.

After Shen Junze arrived in the box, there was no one in it. The other party had not arrived yet. He was not in a hurry, sitting there waiting, without any impatience. After half an hour, Wang Fu was late.

"Uncle Wang, you can be regarded as coming." Shen Junze saw the people coming in with a smile.

Wang Fu shook his stomach and smiled, "The traffic jam on the road is late. Wait a long time."

"Soon, the traffic in Beijing has always been bad, and the traffic jams are normal. Besides, I am a junior. Wait a little longer. If you should, you should sit down quickly."

Shen Junze's attitude is very humble, which makes Wang Fu very useful, and the smile on his face is sincere.

"Uncle Wang, haven't we seen you for a while?" Shen Junze poured wine for Wang Fu. "This is specially prepared for you. I know you are good."

"Yeah, we haven't seen myself in two years." Wang Fu took a sip from his glass and narrowed his eyes. "Good wine."

"Uncle Wang, you just like it. I still have two bottles on my side. I'll bring it back when you go back. It's okay to take a sip."

"Haha, then Uncle Wang is welcome."

"You're welcome with me, but you grew up watching me." Shen Junze said with a smile, "I still remember to go to the company with my dad when he was a kid, he didn't have time to accompany me, you brought me, give me Buy toys, buy food."

Some words instantly pulled into the distance between each other, Wang Fu laughed, "Your boy was naughty. Now you are really grown up, although I have not seen you in the past two years, but about you News, Uncle Wang can hear a lot. Are you doing well now? I heard that you have started a company yourself recently?"

Shen Junze smiled slightly, "That's all a little bit of trouble, it's nothing like Uncle Wang. When Uncle Wang founded the company with my dad, it was the mainstay of the company. I always listen to my dad mentioning you, saying that if there is no you Yeah, the company didn't grow that fast."

Speaking of Shen Rang, Wang Fu's eyes flashed nostalgia, "Yeah, those days were also my happiest days. Although we had a lot of hardship, we all felt very happy, especially watching the company grow slowly Don't be too happy to grow up. When I started a business with your dad, I was about the same age as you, and thirty years later, I am old too. And your dad has gone for so many years. The company ...What is right."

Wang Fu's tone was a bit sad, and Shen Junze added another glass of wine to Wang Fu, "Uncle Wang, the past things have passed, and people should look forward when they are alive."

"It's still your kid's thoughts, just forget it, not to mention, how do you think of inviting my uncle to dinner today?"

"Look at Uncle Wang, you are my elder. I shouldn't ask you to have a meal. Should I have something to invite you to dinner?"

"Haha, yeah, let's eat first. Some things will be said after we finish eating."

The two chatted while eating.

"Your kid hasn't seen you in a few years, and you should be impressed. Especially in your company, the momentum has been fierce recently. It's not bad. It's like your father's style. The father has no dogs and hasn't lost your father's face." Three glasses of wine Belly, Wang Fu's words increased.

"Uncle Wang, I can't compare with my dad. Compared with my dad's achievements now, that's far inferior." Shen Junze gave Wang Fu his own dishes.

"You are humble. I have been paying attention to your company for a long time. That momentum is much stronger than we were. Your dad is not as good as you at your age. You are better than blue, your father If you are still there, you must be proud of seeing you like this."

"Uncle Wang, did you come here to praise me today?" Shen Junze laughed, and the two of them pushed the cups and changed the cups, it was a joy for the guests and the guests.

"I also drank the wine and ate the meal, let's say, what's the matter looking for Uncle Wang today?" Wang Fu asked with a smile, his voice mild, just like chatting with his juniors.

"Uncle Wang, I am really simple today..."

Wang Fu waved his hand and interrupted him. "Don't talk about polite words, just talk about things. Uncle Wang knows that you must have something for me today."

"I still can't hide Uncle Wang, since Uncle Wang has said so, then I will just say it. Uncle Wang, have you been comfortable with Lu Jinc'ai's men in the past two years?"

Wang Fu heard Shen Junze's words without any surprise. Obviously, he had expected that he would tell him about Lu Jinc'ai, and he smiled, "If there is anything uncomfortable, just do it like that, work. I am also old I will retire after a few more years."

"Uncle Wang, that's not the case. No matter what work you do, if you can do it for a long time, people can live a little easier."

Wang Fu sighed and did not speak, but the expression on his face betrayed his inner true thoughts. His life was indeed uncomfortable. Lu Jin was an overbearing man with suspicion. They are always skeptical of the old shareholders of these companies.

In order to gain the support of the company's shareholders, Lu Jin made many conditions for these old shareholders, but when he was really in position, none of these conditions were fulfilled.

Take him as an example. Lu Jin only promised him that he would give him the position of the company's most important financial controller. After he took office, he did indeed take up the position of chief financial officer, but it didn't take long for Lu Jin to promote a so-called deputy chief financial officer, saying that it was to assist him in his work. In fact, he was not afraid of embezzling the company's finances. To monitor him, these two years have even directly emptied his power. Wang Fu sees nothing but says nothing.

Another example. The shareholders who were neutral and did not support Lu Jinc'ai's position at the time were neutral. During these two years, he used various means to recover the company's shares and kicked out of the company.

Such events are numerous. The shareholders in the company actually have a lot of opinions about Lu Jin.

Especially in recent months, Shen Junze's company has developed too fast and robbed many of Lu's business. The director of the business department was scolded by Lu Jinc'ai in public, and the managers under the business department were not spared. Bonus, salary deduction. The last time he had dinner with the director of the business department, the director of the business department was very dissatisfied with Lu Jin in his speech, and had already started thinking about changing jobs.

Shen Junze came here tonight. Naturally, he would not know nothing about Lu's situation. He said slowly, "Uncle Wang, was also the first batch of entrepreneurs to start a business with my dad. It is the veteran of the company. Your ability It's obvious to everyone. But in the past few years, I heard that the finance department of your Lushi Real Estate, it is you who seemingly dominates. In fact, the deputy director is in control of everything. Is this true?" Shen Junze tentatively asked.

Wang Fu smiled, without any slight anger, "Your kid knows clearly."

"Uncle Wang, since you are willing to come out to see me today, it means that you are also clear about my purpose. Then I will just say that the predecessor of Lu's Real Estate was Shen's Real Estate. It was a company founded by my father. The only industry he left to me was Lu Jin's use of mean means to defraud the company from my hands. The company is aware of this matter, and you must know it in your heart."

"Of course, what I mean by saying this is not to blame you for not helping me at the beginning. I knew what kind of virtue I had at the time, and I knew that even if the company was handed over to me, it would end up being annexed, so Except for Lu Jincan, I understood the practices of other uncles and uncles. After all, I couldn't help myself to the wall. You are all veterans of the company. My achievements have been ruined by my second ancestor." He said very politely.

Wang Fu heard this, and there was something wrong in her heart. Speaking of Shen Junze, they grew up watching them. Shen Ran is good to the veterans of these companies. It is reasonable to say that Shen Ran's death, the company should naturally be handed over to Shen Junze. These veterans should also help Shen Junze to stabilize the country, but they are not only Instead, he helped Lu Jin to drive him out of the company. This matter was carefully calculated, and they were justified.

Wang Fu sighed a little in his heart, "Jun Ze, it wasn't that Uncle didn't want to help you, it was... Alas, forget it, let's not say anything about that year, you say, this time you want Uncle to help you, as long as Uncle can do it. Uncle will definitely help you." It's a bit of compensation for Shen Junze. Today, Shen Junze mentions Shen Rang, but it reminds Wang Fu of a lot of the past. Watching Shen Junze's mind is more complicated.

"Uncle Wang is really a happy person. I want to get my dad's company back, and I need your help." Shen Junze directly stated the purpose of tonight.

"What can I do? Now I'm a named director in the company, and I don't have real power. I just have a good name in the company."

"Uncle Wang, I know you are a capable person. You just don't want to conflict with Lu Jin now, otherwise where can your company's deputy finance director be your opponent?"

"Haha, okay, okay, don't wear a high hat for me, I can't know how many pounds I am." Wang Fu said modestly, but his face was full of smiles, and no one didn't like to listen. Nice words.

"But Junze, it's not your uncle who underestimates you. Although your company's development momentum is very strong now, it may be a little difficult to develop to the height of Lu's in a short time. Even if you have the Junlan Group behind you, But as long as the Junlan Group does not take a positive shot, you can't swallow Lu Shi by your small company."

Hearing the words, Shen Junze flashed a glare in his eyes and spoke softly, "Normal means are naturally not acceptable, but what if Lu's encountered a major economic crisis?"

As soon as this statement came out, Wang Fu's face changed, and Shen Junze's eyes were full of shock. "You..."

Shen Junze smiled slightly, "Uncle Wang, don't be so surprised, I am not on a whim for this matter, but for a long time."

He didn't want to wait for Bokai to grow and expand before annexing Lu's, which took too long and he couldn't wait.

"When I was rushed out of the company by Lu Jin, how did you hear about my uncle?"

Wang Fu nodded, Lu Jincan did too hard to do anything else, Shen Junze was Lu Jincan's pro-nephew, if there was no Shen Rang, where could Lu Jincan be today, but when Shen Rang died, Lu Jincan directly attacked Shen Junze, These shareholders are all chilling. So when Lu Jin treated them so much, they didn't have a slight accident in their hearts. If you can even start with your nephew, can you expect him to have any kindness?

"Uncle Wang, you have been in the company for many years. I believe that you must know the company better than me. If you want to do something about the company's accounts, shouldn't it be difficult?"

Wang squinted his eyes, his hands clasped against the back of the chair, his face contemplative.

506 Chapter 509: Xi Yao is Happy (4 more)

Shen Junze continued, "Uncle Wang, if I got the company, I would only drive Lu Jincan and his people out of the company. You uncles and uncles who watched me grow up, I must be respectful. How was my dad once? What will I do to you in the future? Or do you not believe that I have this ability?"

Wang Fu didn't think about it for a long time and made a decision soon, "Junze, your uncle has seen it. Uncle believes that if you take the company back, you can manage the company well. I can help you with this matter. But it will take a while."

"how long will it takes?"

"One month." In the past few years, Lu Jincan has arranged himself in the heart of the company's important departments. His power has been overridden. Even if he wants to do anything, it will take a little time to prepare.

"Okay." Shen Junze promised, he waited for more than two years, and didn't care about waiting for another month.

Shen Junze has long wanted to understand that even if Bokai Real Estate develops fast, it will not be possible to surpass Lu Shi Real Estate in the next three years. If you want to take back the company in a short time, you must start from within Lu Shi Real Estate. Problems within the company are the fastest method. And these need the help of people inside the company. Those old shareholders are the best candidates. Speaking of which, he should also thank Lu Jincai.

If Lu Jincai did not cross the river to dismantle the bridge, these old shareholders would not be chilled by him, and he was not so easy to pry.

Persuading Wang Fu is the first and easiest step, because Wang Fu had the deepest feelings with his father Shen Rang, and Wang Fu was the most emotionally important person compared to other shareholders.

Shen Junze remembers that when he first joined the Shen family, Wang Fu was actually the first person to help him, but he was... Only to disappoint Wang Fu.

"Junze, if you really intend to take back the company and treat our old shareholders kindly, that uncle is definitely going to help you. In this matter, the uncle will go back and plan well. When the uncle thinks about how to operate, the uncle turns back. Contact you again."

"Thank you Uncle Wang. With your help, I believe I can get my dad's company back soon."

"Don't thank me, this is what I owe to you. If I help you again, you won't be punished... forget it, don't say anything about the past."

"Uncle Wang, don't be guilty. The past is also my own disappointment. Since it is the past, it is no longer important, it is the most important." Shen Junze said in a warm voice.

"You are more and more like your father. He is also a very open-minded person, and I really miss the days when I started a business with your father." Wang Fu said with emotion, he was really blessed to Shen Rang, The man had ambitions and ambitions, but he was honest and kind, but he helped a white-eyed wolf.

And after Wang Fu returned to China with Shen Rang, he realized that Shen Rang turned out to be Shen's child.

"Uncle Wang, you will miss the days of working with me even more in the future." Shen Junze said with a smile.

The two laughed at each other and reached a consensus on certain matters.

Since he decided to help Shen Junze, Wang Fu also gave a few genuine suggestions, "Junze, if you really want to take back the company, it is not enough to convince me alone, you also have to maintain good relations with the shareholders of the company."

Shen Junze originally had this plan. Now when Wang Fu proposed it, he said, "Uncle Wang, I haven't contacted those uncles and uncles for a long time. When will you form a bureau and let's have a meal together?"

"It's no problem. I will ask some of these old guys to come out and have a meal when the next day. Except for the ones who don't want to come back in the United States, and the ones who stay in the company, I'm quite familiar with them. They will definitely sell them. My face, but how to convince them when they come? It depends on your own skills."

"This is of course. Uncle Wang has already set up a ladder for me. If I can't climb up there, it would be incompetent, and I also failed Uncle Wang's trust in me."

"It's easy to say, it's not too early today, I will go back first."

"Uncle Wang, I'll take you out."

"No, I'm going by yourself, you are going out later."

Shen Junze immediately understood the meaning of Wang Fu's words. Now that the plan has not been initiated, they should indeed avoid suspicion. Only Lu Jin can be prepared, and then things will be tricky.

"Okay, then I won't send Uncle Wang anymore. Be careful on your way."

Wang Fu waved his hand and walked out of the box slowly, still holding two bottles of wine by Shen Junze.

The reason why Wang Fu agreed to Shen Junze so quickly, in fact, has his own considerations. In the past two years, his power in the company was eroded by Lu Jin. He is equivalent to a named director. There is no power at all, and it is more vulgar, which means that it does not shit.

He knew that Lu Jincai did this to force him to resign from the company, so that Lu Jin would not bear the infamy of crossing the river and demolishing the bridge. Those in the company, Lu Jincai, intentionally or unintentionally said his gossip in front of him or behind his back, it just means that he did not know the current affairs and the like.

Wang Fu had a very hard time in these days, and recently Lu Jin had already meant to take back the shares in the hands of a few of their old guys. If they didn't move, they might only end up with one who was driven out of the company by Lu Jin. Wang Fu did not want to see such a situation.

Moreover, Shen Junze's development in the past two years, he sees in his eyes, his ability is beyond doubt. Even if Shen Junze finally chose to cross the river and demolish the bridge like Lu Jincai, then they can negotiate the conditions in advance and directly sell the company's shares to Shen Junze at the market price. This is also a good choice.

However, Wang Fu still wanted to gamble. He is accurate in seeing people, but there are eight points. The character of the god Shen Junze cannot be seen in the past. Today, when he came into contact, he found that it was somewhat similar to Shen Rang.

Another thing is that Wang Fu felt really guilty about Shen Rang. At that time, he did not stand on Shen Junze's side, and let Lu Jin drive him out of the company, but he was sorry for Shen Ran. After all, Shen Ran had told several of their shareholders before they died, hoping that they could help Jun Ze stand firm.

After sending away Wang Fu, Shen Junze also breathed a sigh of relief, at least the first step of the plan went very smoothly. This shows that his consideration of choosing Wang Fu as the first target is correct, and Wang Fu did not surprise him and promised to help him. In this way, his plan will be much smoother.

When things finally progressed, Shen Junze was in a good mood. He wanted to call Shen Qinglan, and when he picked up his phone, he remembered that Shen Qinglan was abroad during this time.

In the past few years in Beijing, he had no friends at all, and he could not even find a person to drink. Thinking of this, Shen Junze was suddenly a little depressed, but he was actually quite a failure.

No one can share joy in Shen Junze, and he has no other place to go. After thinking about it, he simply went to the Shen family to visit Mr. Shen.

"Junze, why did you come here today suddenly?" Chu Yunrong asked Shen Junze with a smile.

"I haven't seen Grandpa for some time. Come and see Grandpa today. Is Grandpa at home?"

"Your grandfather is here, upstairs in the study, go find him yourself."

Shen Junze nodded and went upstairs to find Mr. Shen. Mr. Shen was practicing brush writing.

"Grandpa, I came to see you today. How are you doing recently?"

"I am in good health. I heard from your brother that you have been busy with the new company recently. How is everything going?" Shen Junze, who went out of the office by himself, reported to him.

"It went smoothly. Brother helped me a lot. I will ask Brother if I don't understand."

"That's fine. Since you have a new goal, work hard and don't be fooled as before." Master Shen said with a serious heart, this grandson's character is a bit extreme, although he has improved a lot in the past two years, but he does not tell me At one point, the old man was afraid that he would go the wrong way.

"Grandpa, I used to let you down." Shen Junze felt guilty. He didn't know how he was so fooled at that time, and everyone was conspiratorial.

"Don't mention the previous things again, and you will do well in the future, and I will promise you that your father will take care of you one or two."

"Grandpa, I understand that I will work hard and will not disappoint you, nor will I lose the face of the Shen family. Grandpa, thank you for your tolerance."

"You don't have to thank me, I tolerate you because you are my grandson, and the real ones who should be grateful are Lan Lan and Jun Yu."

"I always remember their help to me, and without them, I'm afraid I'm going to blame." Shen Junze said.

When eating at night, Chu Yunrong suddenly asked Shen Junze's personal question, "Junze, do you have a girlfriend now?"

Shen Junze was drinking soup, and after listening to Chu Yunrong's words, he almost squirted out, but although he didn't, he was choked.

"Cough cough cough cough cough cough."

Upon seeing this, Chu Yunrong quickly reached out to help him pat the back. "It's just asking if you have a girlfriend. What are you so excited about?"

Shen Junze finally got relieved, "Auntie, I'm still young, don't worry."

"What is young, you are two or three years younger than Qinglan. An An can now make soy sauce. You should also find a girlfriend."

Shen Junze blushed, "Auntie, my current focus is on my career."

"Career and love are both correct. It's no embarrassment for boys to be married and girls to be married."

Chu Yunrong has been relatively busy recently. An An went to school during the day and she had nothing to do. Several of the family's children except Shen Junze had already become a family, and she didn't need to worry about it. Today, she saw Shen Junze as a matchmaker. Thoughts.

She also mentioned this to Grandpa Shen some time ago. At that time, she just said something casually. Grandpa Shen meant to let her look at him for him.

Mr. Shen's thoughts, Chu Yunrong actually understood that he was just worried that Shen Junze would find a wife who was not in the right household like Shen Rang.

"Jun Ze, auntie knows a lot of good girls. If you want to find a girlfriend, the auntie can introduce you. Tell your auntie, what do you like? Is it gentle, lively, or cute, Or a virtuous person, as long as you say it, the aunt promises to help you find it."

The blush on Shen Junze's face did not fade away, "Auntie, I am really not in a hurry now."

Chu Yunrong thought he was embarrassed, "What's so embarrassing, please tell the first aunt first, the first aunt will pay attention to you first, and later you want to talk, the first aunt also knows which way to go Find it."

Grandpa Shen is also helping to say, "Your first aunt is right, this man is old, it is normal to talk about marriage and marriage, don't be embarrassed. Your sister Qinglan and Junyu are already married, You are the only one left in the Shen family. You should also hurry up. You are busy working on weekdays. You certainly don't have time to meet the girl. Just because your aunt knows so many people, let her introduce you to you. , If it doesn't feel right, let's look at each other again."

Shen Junze squeaked, but said a few spouse selection criteria.Chu Yunrong remembered this matter in his heart, "Success, auntie remembered, and I will introduce you to someone who suits you."

Shen Junze ridiculed that he hadn't considered his lifelong events before. In recent years, his mind has been regaining his father's company. Even now, his mind is still on this. There is no love for men and women. Too much interest.It's just that since Chu Yunrong has already proposed it tonight, then he can't refute Chu Yunrong's face. The only thing left is to invite other girls to have a meal, and he still has the money to eat.

After finishing dinner with Shen Junze, Shen Junze was planning to go back and met Shen Junyu and Wen Xiyao.

Today, Shen Junyu is very happy, and his face is filled with a thick smile when he enters the door. Although he usually smiles on his face, it is different from today.Today's laugh came from the heart, and Wen Xiyao followed him, slightly squinting, with a hint of shyness on his face.

"Brother, sister-in-law, you are back." Shen Junze said hello.

"Junze is also here today, that's just right, I want to announce a good news." Shen Junyu said with a smile, everyone looked at him one after another.

"What good news?" Chu Yunrong asked with a smile.

Shen Junyu raised Wen Xiyao's shoulder, "The good news is that Xi Yao is pregnant."

As soon as the words fell, Chu Yunrong immediately greeted him with a surprise on his face, "Really? You really have Xiyao?"

Wen Xiyao nodded with a smile.

"A few months? Did you go to the hospital for examination?"

Wen Xiyao bowed his head embarrassedly, "It's only six weeks, it's still early. Jun Yu and I just returned from the hospital."

Wen Xiyao also found herself pregnant today. Her official holiday is always inaccurate, so when the official holiday is delayed, Wen Xiyao does not associate with pregnancy.

When eating at noon. Shen Junyu caught a piece of fish meat for her, and when she put it in her mouth, she felt a strong sense of nausea. Shen Junyu was not at ease and took her to the gastroenterology department of the hospital for examination, but the doctor suggested that they go to the obstetrics and gynecology department. Upon examination, she was really pregnant.

Wen Xiyao is pregnant, which is definitely a big deal at the Shen family. This is the first great-grandson of the Shen family.

Shen Qinglan received this news even when he was abroad, "Sister-in-law, congratulations."

Wen Xiyao smiled and looked soft, "Thank you. Is everything going well when you are abroad?"

Shen Qinglan nodded with a smile, "It went well, and we will go back in four days. I will go to the mall the day after tomorrow to bring a meeting gift to my little nephew."

"How do you know you must be a little nephew? What if you are a niece?"

"It's better to be a niece. It looks like your daughter will hold my brother in his palm." Just like the one in her family, she dare to guarantee that if she had a daughter, Fu Hengyi would definitely be a proper daughter slave.

"Do you feel uncomfortable, sister-in-law? For example, vomiting or something?" Her reaction to morning sickness made her suffer a lot.

"No, probably the month is still shallow, and I don't feel anything for the time being."

"That's good, if there is any discomfort, you must tell my mother, don't endure it yourself."

"In your eyes, I am such an aggrieved character." Wen Xiyao laughed. If she was really uncomfortable, she would definitely not endure it.

"Right, what about my brother?" Shen Qinglan was talking with Wen Xiyao, but it was strange to not see his brother.

"Your brother..." Wen Xiyao paused, his face full of smiles, "Your brother is still in excitement, he hasn't relieved himself." From the hospital, Shen Junyu has been in excitement, just it's like playing chicken blood, but now I'm running in the gym.

"My brother is a dad for the first time, so it's hard to be excited."

Shen Junyu has come out of the gym, and is currently checking the precautions of pregnant women online. He holds a book in his hand and writes down if he sees something useful. He plans to ask the doctor tomorrow.

Digression

That's all for today. I've been able to sleep for three hours every night for six consecutive days. In these days, I'm very tired of catching up with the manuscripts. I still have to go to work during the day. I can't write anymore. Updated normally.

508 511 Su Qing's condition (2 more)

"Sue, you are looking for me." Derek called.

Su Qing turned to look at him, "Derrick, I'm here to be a man." Su Qing directly stated her purpose.

Coincidentally, Su Qing recently hid to Derek, who had had several connections, in order to avoid the organization's pursuit. In the afternoon he brought back two people, one of whom turned out to be Shen Qinglan.

Su Qing did not know why Shen Qinglan fell into Derek's hands. According to Shen Qinglan's skill, this is absolutely impossible.

"Sue, you just sent someone to say, that Shen Qinglan is your friend, is it really true?" Derek asked.

Su Qing nodded, "Yes, she is my very important friend, Derek, you can't hurt her."

Derek shrugged, "I didn't even plan to catch her, but she took the initiative to stand up, but you can rest assured that my purpose is to save my father not to hurt people, he is a country Z, I will not easily Touch her."

In fact, his initial goal was Queen Adele, but when he saw Qiao Jingyu, he thought about adding a little chips. As a result, Shen Qinglan took the initiative to stand up in order to protect Qiao Jingyu. Derek

After listening to the incident, Su Qing thought for a moment and said softly, "Derrick, do you remember our agreement?"

Derek = Of course remember, "You helped me twice, I promised to do two things for you, do you think of it now?"

Su Qing nodded, "Yes, the first thing is to release Shen Qinglan, I don't care about Queen Adele, but you must let Shen Qinglan go."

Derek was not unwilling to agree to this condition. If Su Qing just said that she wanted two people, then Derek would not even agree to break the contract, but if it was only Shen Qinglan, it wouldn't matter, but Adele and the queen had already With negotiated capital.

"Okay, I can let her go. What about another thing." Derek didn't like to owe human favors, but if he could, he wanted to return both of them at once.

Su Qing may not be so easy to be fooled. "I haven't thought about another thing yet. I will tell you when I think about it. So now, can you let him go?"

"Of course, you can take her now."

"I can't tell her that I am here, nor let her know that I let you let her go." Su Qing said, "As for the reason you don't need to know, you just let her go now."

"Well, I will let her go now." Derek said.

Shen Qinglan once again saw Derek, and when he heard what he said, he raised his eyebrows unexpectedly, "Let me go? Why?" Just now this person wanted to use her as a condition for negotiating with the royal family of G. It is so easy now. Let her go, this is unreasonable.

"I have changed my mind now. I don't want to be an enemy of this country, so let you go. As for Queen Adele, then you will be wronged. My father is still in the hands of your royal family. I need to exchange it with you. , So you can't go yet."

Shen Qinglan looked at Queen Adele and found her face pale.

Shen Qinglan thought about it and shook his head, "I will not go unless you let us both go together."

Derek looked at Shen Qinglan, "Miss Shen, she and I won't let it go. If you want to go, you can only go by yourself. There is only one chance. If you don't go now, you won't be able to wait."

Queen Adele said to Shen Qinglan, "Miss Shen, please go."

Shen Qinglan gave her a soothing look, let her not worry. She looked at Derek, "Someone asked you to let me go, who is it?"

After hearing this, Derek was a little surprised in his heart, but there was no emotion on his face. "No one asked me to let you go, but I figured it out myself. The price in exchange for you is too great. Go now. , I'm not embarrassing you."

The more he was like this, saying that the more Shen Qinglan felt there was a problem, there must be something that she didn't know happened, she sat down and didn't look at him

Derek waited for a while and saw that she was really reluctant to leave, and turned to go out without a word.

Su Qing was waiting outside the door. When he saw him coming out alone, he frowned, "Where is she?"

"Sue, it's not that I didn't want to let her go, it was she who didn't want to go, this thing can't blame me." Derek Shen Qinglan said the same thing again.

As long as Su Qing thought about it for a moment, she sighed. Shen Qinglan was still soft-hearted. Forget it, Derek won't hurt her for now, so let's do it first, "Since she doesn't want to go, then I hope you can keep her safe and can't hurt him."

"Su, you can rest assured. Although I am not a good person, but I promised to do it absolutely, if I said not to hurt her, I would not hurt her, but only if my father wanted to be well."

Derek and his father Joseph are activists against the government of Country G. Many terrorist activities in Country G were planned by them. According to Derek's dissatisfaction with the royal family of G, it is possible that he even killed Queen Adele. Shen Qinglan is actually not safe here, but now Shen Qinglan is reluctant to leave for Queen Adele, and Su Qing can't think of a better way. She can't rush in and take Shen Qinglan directly. In this way, her relationship with Derek It cannot be explained.

In the room, Queen Adele looked at Shen Qinglan, "Why didn't you just leave?" Just now Shen Qinglan was able to leave but chose to stay to surprise Queen Adele.

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, "We are here together, naturally we have to go together." She naturally has her own considerations in doing so.

Queen Adele is a wise man, knowing the purpose of Shen Qinglan's doing this carefully, she said movedly, "Miss Shen, you don't have to do this for me."

Shen Qinglan just smiled slightly.

Derek has already made contact with the royal family of Country G, and has arranged a negotiation time. Just tomorrow morning, his condition is very simple, and his father Joseph is released. And the royal family of country G has agreed, and will take the hostages to the past, and the two sides will exchange. In other words, Fu Hengyi left them only one night.

"Major Fu, what should I do now?" Charles asked with a sullen face.

"Has the other party's location been found?" Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, his expression indifferent.

Charles shook his head, "I'm not sure, our people have found signs of their activities in good results, but they are still not sure which one."

"Give me the location." Fu Hengyi took out a map.

"Here, here, and here, all three are possible, or they may all be smoke bombs." The range above is too wide. If you say that one place will take a lot of time.

Fu Hengyi's eyes were deep, and he looked at the area divided by Charles. This area is indeed very wide, and there are civilian residential buildings over there. It was not easy to find Shen Qinglan where they were held.

"Major Major Fu, Derek has put forward new conditions to video with Joseph."

Fu Hengyi frowned, "Have you agreed?"

Charles shook his head. Joseph was dead. Where did they dare to agree to such a condition? Didn't they just agree to tell Derek that his father was dead? Let him tear the ticket. The royal family in Country G was not so stupid.

"Our people have blocked it with his reason, but it won't be hidden for a long time, so we still need to find a way as soon as possible to get the queen and your wife out." Tomorrow, but to take Joseph to negotiate, they have no one in their hands. Do you want to take Joseph's ashes to negotiate?

"Tonight we will visit these three places, you need to prepare weapons for us." Fu Hengyi said.

Night is the best time for action. Now when they go out, their goal is too obvious. Only at night he can take the people of the Sabre Army to find Shen Qinglan in those areas. Although it may take some time, one night is enough. As long as the location is found, it is easier to rescue Shen Qinglan. After all, Shen Qinglan is not a woman without hands, and he has a great grasp of success under the cooperation of inside and outside, which is why Fu Hengyi dare to decide to act quickly.

"Captain, are we going to divide the soldiers into three?" Mu Liancheng looked at the three places circled with a red pen. They were not very far apart, but they were not close to each other.

Fu Hengyi nodded, "Want not to act rashly when you find it, connect with each other, and when you are together, act together and make a quick decision."

Fu Hengyi they are not allowed to carry weapons into the territory of country G this time. All weapons are provided by the royal family of country G.

Charles had already brought the weapon, and Fu Hengyi took the weapon and got into the night.

The people of Derek were handed over to the royal family of Country G.

As night fell, Shen Qinglan and Queen Adele ate in the room. No matter what kind of environment, Shen Qinglan will not abuse his stomach.

Queen Adele had no appetite, and Shen Qinglan spoke lightly, "Queen, your body will not be able to stand without enough food, what should you do if something happens?"

Upon hearing this, Queen Adele felt very reasonable and forced herself to eat a slice of bread and a glass of milk. Shen Qinglan had a good appetite and ate a lot. After they had eaten it, someone came in and took it away. Taking advantage of the vacancy that came in, Shen Qinglan quickly looked outside and found that the surrounding defense forces were not there. With a slight decrease, her eyes were heavy.

*****

"Sue, are you going to leave?" Derek asked, Su Qing carrying a small bag on his body, nodding casually, "Yes, I'm leaving, don't forget what you promised me."

"I thought you would wait until I let her go."

"Derrick, I believe you can do it. If you can't do it, I will naturally find a way to save you, your base has a group of dragons without a head, and your hegemony will certainly not be realized." Su Qing said that the base has always been fighting Aim to the royal family of country G.

Derek's expression changed, "Sue, you threatened me."

"It's not a threat, but it's telling you that I'm the one who did what I said."

"Su, I said, I can not hurt her, but the premise of all is that my father is well. If there is something wrong with my father, then neither of them will let me go."

Su Qing's heart sank. Looking at Derek, "What do you mean?"

"Su, I treat you as a friend, so I tell you the truth, I have a very bad hunch in my heart, and I worry that my father has an accident. Of course, I also hope that my hunch is inaccurate."

But people like them who lick blood. Intuition is always accurate. In the afternoon he proposed to the royal family of Country G to video with his father, confirming that his father was in good condition, and the royal family of Country G refused without hesitation, when Derek felt something was wrong.

Seeing Derek's erratic speech, Su Qing still felt a little uneasy in her heart, and planned to wait for Derek to let Shen Qinglan go before leaving. At this time, her cell phone rang, it was a text message, and when she saw the content above, his His eyes changed and his eyes were somber.

"Derrick, I really want to go. I hope you can do what you promised me." After that, Su Qing left the base without hesitation, glanced around, and drilled into an alley. The message was sent by Bruce just now, reminding her that the man already knew that she was hiding here in Derek, and the person who hunted her arrived soon and asked her to leave immediately.

At two o'clock in the morning, Wan Lai was silent.

Shen Qinglan sat quietly from the bed. He glanced at the queen who had fallen asleep, and walked lightly to the door. She did not open the door, but looked out through the gap in the door. There were two rows of outposts in front of the door. There were fifteen or six visual observations. It was unlikely to be resolved in a short time. She went to the window again. Seeing the situation behind, the back door also had two rows of sentry posts, loaded with live ammunition, and protected the room. Shen Qinglan's face was very heavy, and the guards here had become more solemn. In the afternoon, she looked out the window through the window, and there were only two guards, but now there are no fewer than ten.

Shen Qinglan had no choice but to walk back to the bed, waded up again, closed his eyes and pretended to sleep, but his nerves were tight all the time. There was an iron nail hidden in her sleeve, which she stole in the afternoon while others were not paying attention. Although it is not as good as a dagger, it is also a sharp object after all, and it can still be self-defense at a critical moment.

Fu Hengyi's men with a sharp knife rushed to the three places delineated on the map, but they did not find Shen Qinglan's traces in these three places, that is to say, they were not in these places at all.

"Captain, this is very weird." Mulian Cheng said.

People from Country G told them that there had been traces of Derek's human activity in all three places. As a result, they did not find any signs of activity after they came, which only shows that they were deceived, or that there was a spy inside the Emperor G Kingdom, and they were deceived by a fake news together.

Fu Hengyi also thought of this possibility. It's just that this speculation is terrible, if there is really a spy in the G Kingdom House. Then Derek probably already knew that the moonlight was dead, so Shen Qinglan would be in danger.

Fu Hengyi's hands tightened, "Go back first."

Charles heard Fu Hengyi's words, and his face changed. "It's impossible. Many people knew about Joseph's arrest, but no more than ten people knew he was shot."

At the beginning they had to prevent the wind from leaking. This incident was carried out without the knowledge of others. Except for the few people present at that time, the others did not even know.

"We have been to those three places, and no one has found Derek." Fu Hengyi said coldly.

Missing the best rescue time, Fu Hengyi's mood at the moment, annoyed to kill.

Charles was also in a heavy mood. If the hostages cannot be rescued tonight, then they will have to wait until they exchange hostages with each other tomorrow. However, there is no longer a candidate to exchange in their hands. Once you meet, the action is immediately exposed. Derek will also know that his father is dead, and what they will do at that time is unpredictable.

"Find someone with similar body shape and appearance as a substitute." Fu Hengyi said.

"Major Fu, it's wrong. People with similar shapes are easy to find, but where to look in a while after a similar appearance? Can't Derek even know his father?"

Make some changes to his face, as long as 70% are similar." Fu Hengyi also knows that this method can only delay for a while, but time is money, and they can delay one minute for their hope of rescuing the hostages. As long as their appearance is three points similar, then under modern cosmetic surgery comparable to plastic surgery Scored seven points.

Charles also had no other better way, he could only agree with Fu Hengyi's suggestion. However, they were lucky, and they really found a person with four points of similarity.

*****

Early the next morning, there was a movement in the yard. Hearing the approaching footsteps, Shen Qinglan jumped from the bed and called Queen Adele. Queen Adele did all night. Nightmare, the expression is very tired.

The door was pushed open, and the person who came in was still Derek, "Miss Shen, Queen, we should start."

"Where to go?" Shen Qinglan spoke lightly, his eyes cold.

"Naturally it's taking you home." Derek said with a smile.

Shen Qinglan knew what he said, and it was time for negotiations.

The negotiation agreed on a waste factory in the suburbs. This place was originally a chemical plant, but the chemical plant was shut down due to environmental improvement, and it became desolate. Surrounded by buildings left by the chemical plant at that time, there are also some abandoned chemical raw materials, and the geographical environment is very complex.

According to the truth, such an environment is actually not suitable as a negotiation place, because there are too many places to set up sniper points, but it is precisely because of the complex geographical environment, but it is easy to escape, and will not be dumplings.

Shen Qinglan and Queen Adele were blindfolded and could not see the scene in front of them. They could only pass the bumps of the car and knew that the road they were going to was not easy to go.

It took almost an hour for them to reach their destination. The first time after the blindfold was removed, Shen Qinglan first glanced at the surroundings. This was her habit.

After seeing the environment clearly, Shen Qinglan's eyes intentionally or unintentionally swept to a few places that were more suitable for manufacturing commanding heights. Sure enough, snipers were found at some of the commanding heights. The people of the royal family of Country G have not yet arrived. These snipers should be Derek's.

Shen Qinglan noticed that red dots flashed on her and Queen Adele's chest from time to time, and the sniper aimed at the two of them at the moment.

Shen Qinglan was okay, but Queen Adele's palms were sweating and his face was pale.

Shen Qinglan was shocked when he saw Fu Hengyi appearing, but did not expect Fu Hengyi to come.

Fu Hengyi glanced at Shen Qinglan first, and saw that she was not hurt in the slightest. She lifted her heart a little, looked at Shen Qinglan, gave Shen Qinglan a relieved look, and Shen Qinglan was calm in her heart.

The other members of the Sabre Force had already found a place to hide when they arrived at this abandoned factory, and only Fu Hengyi was left in the clear.

"I have brought the Derek, and let Miss Shen and the Queen." Charles shouted to Derek.

"Let me see my father first." Derek shouted loudly. The distance between them was so great that even when they talked, they had to use shouts to hear.

Charles pushed a man in front of him. The man's face was covered with a hood and he couldn't see his face clearly. "Your father is here, I have brought you, and now you have put our queen."

"You took off his hood, I want to confirm his identity." Derek saw the man covered with a hood, and the uneasiness in his heart was two points stronger.

It is said that Charles's face stiffened, but at this time, Derek's eyes were focused on the man, and he did not notice the change in Charles's look, but Shen Qinglan looked at it clearly and looked at Fu Hengyi again. I immediately understood in my heart that the person who came was not Joseph at all.

Both she and the queen are in Derek's hands. It is impossible for the royal family of State G to let both of them have an accident. They will agree to Derek's request and exchange them with Joseph. Now they bring a man who is not Joseph. Then, there is only one possibility for this to happen, that is, the real Joseph is dead.

Although it was only speculation, Shen Qinglan had 80% certainty that this speculation was true.

Thinking of this, Shen Qinglan's heart sank. This matter is obviously not going to be concealed. It won't take long for Derek to find out that he was deceived, and then when... she quietly stepped forward, blocking Queen Adele behind her.

"Let me see my father." Derek shouted again.

"Major Fu, what should I do now?" Charles' voice was already somewhat worried.

Fu Hengyi said in a deep voice, "Remove the hood."

Charles heard that he took the hood off the man's head and exposed the face of the old man under the mask. At first glance, he was 70% similar to Joseph. As long as you don't look close, you won't find it.

Charles pushed the man a step forward, "Look clearly, this is your father Joseph. Now can you let Miss Shen and the queen go?"

Derek is Joseph's youngest and most beloved son. He planned to hand over the base to Derek, so Derek was sent out by his father at an early age to experience it. Derek has not seen him in recent years His father, so at such a distance he did not see that this man was not Joseph.

509 Chapter 512: Fu Hengyi, shoot it (3 more)

Derek had a small telescope in his hand, and wanted to see more about the man on the opposite side, but Charles had blocked the man behind him.

"Derrick, you are watching now, and it is your turn to let people go."

"Okay, let me put one first. Then you put my father, and when we leave here safely, I put another one."

"No, let's put it together," Charles said angrily.

"Either change according to what I said, or I will take these two people back and we will discuss again." Derek said strongly.

"Promise him." Fu Hengyi said coldly.

"Okay, I agree." Charles yelled. He pushed a man posing as Joseph. The man came slowly to Derek. Derek pushed Shen Qinglan. "You go."

Shen Qinglan did not move, but looked at Queen Adele, "Let the queen go first."

Queen Adele heard the words and looked at Shen Qinglan's eyes with tears moving. She never thought that Shen Qinglan would help her again and again, even giving her the chance to give birth to her, who Everyone knows that the hostage left in Derek's hands is the most dangerous.

Letting the queen go first is not Shen Qinglan's righteousness, not afraid of life and death, but because she knows that she is more likely to escape in the hands of Derek than the latter. And if she didn't guess wrong, there must be someone in the Sabre unit secretly. The understanding between her and Fu Hengyi is far beyond ordinary people. With her cooperation, they may be able to win Derek today.

This was the tacit agreement reached between Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi just now, so when Shen Qinglan proposed to let the queen go first, Fu Hengyi's face was still calm.

The queen walked forward slowly, and the man opposite walked slowly, when the two walked to the middle. Derek's face changed instantly. "He's not my father."

Saying that he raised his hand to the queen's leg and fired a shot, Shen Qinglan saw it and raised a kick on Derek's wrist. The gun fell to the ground instantly. Aside.

The man who pretended to be Joseph hugged the queen, and rolled on the ground, lying on the ground, avoiding the guns fired by others. He was selected from the Royal Guards of the Royal Family of G, and his task was naturally to protect the queen's safety.

Hearing the gunshots, the members of the Sabre unit hidden in the dark immediately rushed towards the several snipers on Derek's side. Only after they were resolved first, the remaining talents could fight with confidence. Fu Hengyi was very relieved of his former comrades.

Shen Qinglan grabbed the opponent's gun and lifted her hand to solve the few people closest to her. She wanted to solve Derek, but Derek's skill was so flexible that she couldn't take it for a while.

Fu Hengyi quickly ran in the direction of Shen Qinglai, he wanted to come over to help.

"Give me your hand." Derek shouted loudly, and a pistol reached Shen Qinglan's head. "Miss Shen, put down the gun in your hand."

Shen Qinglan's movements, he threw the gun on the ground, the movements were neat, without any hesitation.

Derek sneered. "I really underestimated Miss Shen. I didn't expect Miss Shen to be a sharpshooter in addition to being a painter." In just ten seconds or so, he killed several of his people, and the gun was hit. This skill is not too much to say that the sharpshooter.

By now, Derek naturally knew that he had been deceived, and by this time the queen had been guarded by Charles's person, leaving only Shen Qinglan as his hostage.

Hearing Derek's words, Shen Qinglan's expression was faint, and her face was so cold that she didn't even realize that her life was now in the hands of others. As long as Derek pulled the trigger, she would die of Huang Quan.

"Miss Shen, I once promised someone not to hurt your life, but that prerequisite is that my father is well. Now it seems that my father is already dead, and the queen is also released by you. What do you say I should do to you?" Derek's voice was soft, even gentle, but anyone could feel the coldness in his words.

"Who is that person?" Shen Qinglan asked lightly.

"Derrick chuckled, " Miss Shen, shouldn't you care about your own life now? You still have time to care who that person is? Are you afraid of death?"

"Everyone is afraid of death, but I'm sure you won't kill me now." She said yes.

"Oh? Why do you think so? The royal family of country G killed my father. You are a guest invited by the royal family of country G. If you die, they will face a lot of troubles in country Z. I am also regarded as my father. Revenge." Derek ignored the G-country army that surrounded them. These people suddenly appeared after the first gunshot. From this point, the royal family of Country G was also prepared this time.

"Because you want to use me to escape, if I die, you must be buried for me today."

"Miss Shen, you are indeed a smart man." Derek's hand holding the gun was not loose, and the muzzle was firmly pressed against the back of Shen Qinglan's head. As long as he moved slightly, he would pull the trigger.

Fu Heng glared at Derek, daring not to act lightly.

"That man, has a close relationship with you? Has been watching you from just now." Derek nodded.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi glanced at each other, beckoning that he was fine, "Derrick, you can't escape today." Shen Qinglan glanced at the G-country army that surrounded them.

"It doesn't matter, with you in their hands, they will let me go." Derek said affirmatively.

Shen Qinglan's reputation in Country Z is not small, and the Royal Family of Country G cannot ignore her. Even for Shen Qinglan's safety, they will let him go today.

"Derrick, let Miss Shen go," Charles shouted to Derek after arranging the queen.

Derek ignored him. He looked up and saw that his sniper didn't realize it. He must have been killed by the other party. They underestimated them.

Derek stood behind Shen Qinglan, opposite them was the army of country G. If the army fired, then Shen Qinglan would become Derek's shield, blocking all the bullets for him. So at this moment, they dare not act rashly.

"Derrick let him go, I let you go." Fu Hengyi said in a deep voice.

"Who are you? Why should I believe you?" Derek hadn't seen Fu Hengyi and naturally didn't know Fu Hengyi's identity.

"You don't need to know who I am, you just need to know that I can call the shots." Derek looked at Charles, and Charles nodded. "You let Miss Shen, we let you go."

Although they didn't want to let Derek go, Shen Qinglan was more important. Shen Qinglan is this visit

Guests of country G. If something happens on the boundary of country G, it will affect the diplomatic relations that the two countries have finally established

"Okay, I'm safe, I let her go." Derek thought of Su Qing, he promised Su Qing not to hurt, Shen Qinglan's life, but now he needs to use Shen Qinglan to protect himself, "Miss Shen, wrong you Come with me."

Shen Qinglan followed Derek toward their car in coordination. Just a few steps away, I don't know who fired a shot in Derek's direction, Derek's body flashed, the bullet didn't hit him, but it shot at the person behind him, who suddenly fell to the ground.

It happened so suddenly that no one knew who fired the gun. Everyone looked at it and saw that the man posing as Joseph was holding the gun in his hand, and there was still white smoke in the muzzle. He fired the gun.

"Parker, what are you doing?" Charles said angrily.

"You can't let him go." Parker said. If we can't leave Derek today, and wait for him to leave, we will be greeted with vengeance and more people will die. Derek's bloody cruelty was that they had been experienced. After all, this man was pulled into the blacklist of the world terrorist organization at the age of ten.

"But Miss Shen is in his hands. She is a distinguished guest of our country and must guarantee his safety." Charles growled. Ensuring Shen Qinglan's safety is the number one priority. As for Derek, there are opportunities to bring him to justice.

Parker doesn't think so. If the opportunity after this is lost, the price will be greater if he wants to solve Derek in the future.

"Miss Shen, it seems that someone doesn't care about your life." Derek chuckled, looking at Parker's eyes with anger and coldness.

Shen Qinglan's expression was faint, and even after hearing this, she did not respond particularly.

A touch of coldness flashed in Fu Hengyi's eyes. He raised his hand and snatched the gun in Parker's hand. "You can go and let my wife go."

Derek raised his eyebrows and looked around Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi. "Miss Shen, the man is your husband."

Shen Qinglan said nothing. Derek's look at Fu Hengyi was unclear.

"They can't go," Parker said, but he got a cold look like Fu Hengyi's snow on the iceberg.

For Fu Hengyi, nothing is more important than Shen Qinglan's safety, if Parker continues to stop. Maybe the gun in his hand would be aimed at Parker's head.

Parker was slightly stiffened by Fu Hengyi's cold eyes, and his eyes flashed involuntarily.

"Let them go," Charles said.

"No." Parker roared, with a touch of rejection and cruelty in his eyes.

Shen Qinglan was looking at Fu Hengyi, and Fu Hengyi was looking at her, too.

Fu Hengyi: Believe me?

Shen Qinglan: Believe.

"Fu Hengyi, shoot." Shen Qinglan spoke lightly. She stood in front of Derek, almost a Derek human shield, Derek clasped Shen Qinglan's neck tightly with the other hand.

Fu Hengyi looked indifferent and could not see the slightest emotion, but the hand holding the gun was tight. His muzzle was aimed at Derek's head. If the shot is fired, this shot is likely to hit Shen Qinglan's head.

"Shen Qinglan, are you crazy?" Derek growled, even letting his husband shoot himself.

Shen Qinglan didn't even plan to let Derek leave here alive today. He just pretended to cooperate, and just wanted to find an opportunity to win him. After all, the thief was the first to capture the king, but he didn't expect Parker to be so eager and disrupted her. plan.

"Fu Hengyi, shoot." Shen Qinglan spoke again, his eyes firm.

Derek's eyes were fierce, and the gun was hit hard on Shen Qinglan's head. "If you talk nonsense again, I will treat you rudely."

Seeing this, Fu Hengyi looked cold.

Bang, the bullet penetrated the air and flew straight towards Shen Qinglan, pointing straight away.

When it was too late, then quickly, Shen Qinglan suddenly had an iron nail in his palm, and slammed his hand against Derek's neck. The nail penetrated the flesh, and Derek unconsciously let go of his hand.

Shen Qinglan was short. The bullet passed over Shen Qinglan's head and penetrated Derek's chest and neck. Leave a black hole in the neck. The blood spewed out instantly, splashing on Shen Qinglan's body.

Derek never thought that Fu Hengyi would really dare to shoot, and Shen Qinglan's reaction would be so rapid. His eyes were wide open in disbelief, and the palm pierced by iron nails covered the wound on his neck, and he fell slowly to the ground until his death. His eyes did not close.

Seeing Derek in the end, Shen Qinglan overwhelmed the gun in Derek's hand with a sudden thunder, and several consecutive shots, Derek's men suddenly fell down several people, Fu Hengyi responded extremely quickly, cooperated with Shen Qinglan Action.

Upon seeing this, Charles immediately ordered other people to join the battle. Derek died, and the fighting spirit of the other party was halved. In addition, there were many people on the royal side of the G country, and this group of people was quickly wiped out. There is no one to live. Parker looked at Derek's body, a flash of relief flashed in his eyes.

"Miss Shen, are you okay?" Queen Adele greeted and shook Shen Qinglan's hand. Her face was worried. It was just too thrilling. Her heart that looked at her back jumped into her throat.

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, "I'm fine." She didn't even get hurt, and the blood on her body was all from others. Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan calmly, and the latter looked back at him. The two smiled at each other, and their eyes belonged only to each other.

After such a big accident during this visit, the itinerary naturally cannot be continued. After Shen Qinglan escaped from danger, everyone planned to return to China. Country G has expressed its apologies to Country Z, but these things do not require Shen Qinglan to worry about, and naturally someone will respond.

At the airport, Queen Adele held Shen Qinglan's hand, reluctantly, "Miss Shen, don't you really plan to stay a few days longer to let me do my best as a landlord?"

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, "Queen, this time I will go back first, my son is still waiting for me at home. I will definitely come if there is a chance in the future."

"Then we will say yes. If we have the opportunity next time, we must come again. I will entertain you well."

"it is good."

Before leaving, Fu Hengyi said to Charles, "After all speculation has been ruled out, the answer to the impossible crime is the final answer." He said something meaningful. Charles heard it and thought about it.

Fu Hengyi didn't say anything else, he could only remind so much, and the rest would not matter to him.

This time it can be said that it was Queen Adele who was rescued by Shen Qinglan. Queen Adele was very grateful to Shen Qinglan. Because of Shen Qinglan's existence, the diplomatic relations between the two countries have not been affected, but have become closer. And Shen Qinglan took the hostage for the first lady. The first lady was also grateful to Shen Qinglan and was very close to Shen Qinglan. In this way, Shen Qinglan became the biggest winner of this trip to the country G.

Shen Qinglan returned without incident, and Fu Hengyi was naturally relieved.

On the way back, the monkey ran to Fu Hengyi and asked curiously, "Captain, how dare you shoot at the sister-in-law at that time? You are not afraid that the sister-in-law can't react too much, the bullet really hit the sister-in-law?" Monkey When I saw this scene in the dark, I was so scared that my hands were shaking. Even when I think about it now, I am afraid for a while.

Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan, and Shen Qinglan smiled slightly and said, "I believe in him, and he also believes in me." Because they trusted each other in the shot, they succeeded.

After returning to Beijing, Shen Qinglan's life returned to calm again. But everyone still noticed a difference in this calm, that is, the first lady was very close to Shen Qinglan, often invited Shen Qinglan to be a guest at home, Shen Qinglan occasionally took An'an together.

This seems to be nothing in the eyes of some people, but it falls in the eyes of some people, which means that the meaning has changed and the status of the original Fu family is firmly established. Now that Shen Qinglan has a very good personal relationship with the First Lady, the status of the Fu family will become even more unshakable in the future.

Many outsiders guessed that Shen Qinglan didn't know, and didn't want to know that after returning from Country G, apart from picking up and going to An'an every day, Shen Qinglan almost never went out, either in the studio to paint, or to accompany the two old men. Playing chess and drinking tea, life is leisurely and calm.

510 Chapter 513 Transfer of Shares, Planning Begins

Wang Fu contacted Shen Junze again three days later, when Shen Junze was talking about his plans with Shen Qing and Shen Qinglan, "Sister, Wang Fu contacted me." Shen Junze said.

"Listen to what he said first."

Shen Junze answered the phone. Wang Fu at the end of the phone had dinner with Shen Junze and said there were several other shareholders. Shen Junze said gratefully, "Uncle Wang, thank you for all the hard work for me. I don't know what to do about this How can I thank you."

Wang Fu smiled and said, "It's too early to say that. We will talk after we have finished eating with these shareholders. I have also thought about what you said to me last time. When will you be free? At that time, the two of us met and talked separately. "If there is a loophole in the finance of Lushi Real Estate, this matter must be considered long. He naturally has to discuss it with Shen Junze.

"This time to see Uncle Wang, I am free at any time here." Shen Junze said humbly.

"Well, wait for me to arrange it here, I will call you." Wang Fu said.

Shen Junze hung up the phone, looked at Shen Qinglan, and told Shen Qinglan all that Wang Fu told him on the phone.

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan raised an eyebrow. "It seems that Wang Fu's dissatisfaction with Lu Jincui is not one point, and since those people have agreed to come, then it shows how much they know Wang Fu's purpose, and he should also be willing to help you, You have to seize this opportunity and strive to take them down in one fell swoop. With their support, you will be more confident in taking back the company."

The stocks held by these shareholders add up, and what Shen Junze holds is enough to drive Wu Jin out of the company. But the premise is that these shareholders are willing to support Shen Junze.

"Sister, I was worried that they would open their lions." Shen Junze said worriedly.

There is no need to worry about Wang Fu, but other shareholders are not easy to say. Shen Junze doesn't have so much capital to fight Lu Jin now, and he can't afford more terms to talk to these greedy shareholders. If they put forward excessive conditions, He really has no way.

Shen Qinglan's expression was faint, and his face was determined, "They don't know how to speak with a lion." At least not now. This group of people was willing to come out to eat at this time, it must be dissatisfied with Lu Jincai, and wanted to know what conditions Shen Junze can offer them, whether it is worth them to pull Lu Jincai together.

It is said that merchants are ruthless, this is not necessarily accurate, but it is the most true portrayal of the few heads of the Lu real estate. As long as Shen Junze treats them better than Lu Jin, this group of people will immediately go to bed.

Shen Junze said in her heart, "Sister, you can rest assured if you say that. What else should I pay attention to when I go?"

"Appropriate conditions can be promised, but some attitudes should be adhered to, the bottom line of the guard should be kept, and those who should not retire should never retreat. If it is possible, it is best to buy the shares in their hands and hold them in their hands. Is the most secure."

Shen Junze heard the words and thought about it silently for a while, then understood, and nodded, "Sister, I know." In fact, as long as these shares are in his hands, then I am not afraid of these people coming out.

Wang Fu's appointment is for dinner tomorrow night, so the next day, Shen Junze left the company early. The agreed restaurant is still the same as the last one, even the box is the same.

The first to arrive was Wang Fu.

"Uncle Wang." Shen Junze greeted him.

"Jun Ze, let you wait for a long time."

"Uncle Wang, I arrived early today." Shen Junze smiled slightly.

"The thing you said last time has been considered clearly. Uncle Wang should have told you earlier, but Uncle Wang is old, and he looks forward to doing things. Don't you think that Uncle Wang is not willing to help you."

"Uncle Wang, what are you talking about. This thing was originally for you to help me, you should think about it, and I believe Uncle Wang will make the most correct choice."

"Haha, you guys will talk." Wang Fu said with a smile. He glanced in the direction of the door and lowered his voice. "I have already hinted to several other shareholders that they all wanted Lalu to enter before dismounting. I am very interested in your plan, so today you can persuade them to have a great grasp, but the premise is that your conditions should satisfy them. How to grasp the middle degree depends on your own. Although Uncle Wang can Help you, but don't take it too far."

Shen Junze nodded clearly, as Shen Qinglan said to him, "Uncle Wang, I know, but there is Uncle Wang on my side, I believe they will sell your face."

Wang Fu smiled, but his eyes hesitated, "Jun Ze, if you can today, you better buy the shares in their hands and increase your own chips."

Shen Junze was a little surprised, but he didn't expect Wang Fu to say such things. It seems that Wang Fu really wanted to help him. Thinking of this, Shen Junze's attitude towards Wang Fu was a little more sincere. People really helped him and he will remember This kindness.

Soon after, the shareholders came one after another. A total of five shareholders came this time, including Wang Fu.

There are more than 20 shareholders in the company, but there are only ten fingers in the company with relatively large shares. In addition to Lu Jincai's holding 35% of the company's shares, 25% is in Shen Junze's hands, and the remaining 45%, only these hands hold 25%.

"Hello uncles and uncles, how are you." Shen Junze said hello.

When I saw Shen Junze here, several other people were not surprised. After all, what is the purpose of this dinner today? Everyone knows it well, but it's just a secret.

A tall, middle-aged man spoke first and his face was serious, "Jun Ze, I am straight-headed, and the ugly words are first mentioned. Today, we only came to see Wang Dong's face, but the next thing we did if you want to talk about the matter, if there is something wrong, then don't let the uncles not give you a face."

After listening to this, Shen Junze was not angry at all, but nodded with a smile, "This is natural, let's discuss things, uncles and uncles, please sit down."

The director who spoke just now is Liang Tian, and he is the one with the most shares among all shareholders.

Seeing that Shen Junze had a good attitude and satisfaction, Liang Tian sat down in position, and the other directors saw it and took their seats.

Shen Junze stood up, holding a glass of wine in his hand, and said with a smile, "Uncles and uncles, I'm here to honor you with a glass of wine. Thank you for coming here to eat this meal with me. I'll pay respect first."

Everyone came to discuss things today, not to pick things up. Naturally, they wouldn't put on a shelf. They picked up wine glasses one after another and drank this first glass of wine.

The beginning was good, and Shen Junze was so determined that he glanced at Wang Fu. The latter said voluntarily, "Every brother, the purpose of our coming here today, I won't say much, let's go to the topic."

"Hey Pharaoh, what's the hurry, since we are here today to eat, are we going to eat the meal first?" The man speaking was a man with a Mediterranean on his head. This man is another major shareholder after Liang Tian, Named Zhou Jianye.

As soon as this remark came out, two or three other shareholders echoed, "Yeah, since we are here to eat, then let's eat well and not talk about business." Liang Tian frowned, his expression seemed unpleasant.

Shen Junze noticed this tiny detail, and his heart suddenly became clear.

Before the arrival of these shareholders, Wang Fu had told him that Lu Jincai's most disobedient person is Liang Tian. After all, Liang Tian holds 15% of the shares, which is the highest of all shareholders. Lu Jin had always wanted the shares in his hand, but Liang Tian refused to sell them.

Wang Fu also received news recently that Liang Tian had a baby son. Recently, he went to City A to gamble and owed a debt. Liang Tian used all the funds in his hands, but he still did not block the hole. Zheng Tiantian was chased by the usury to collect debts.

If this news is true, then Liang Tian is the most anxious of all to use money. Wang Fu guessed that if Shen Junze didn't come to the door this time, I'm afraid that Liang Tian wouldn't be able to support it for long, so he would sell his shares to Lu Jincai.

This time, it was also because Liang Tian's attitude was very positive. The other directors should have agreed after reading his attitude. Now that at the dinner table, a group of people don't talk about business but eat, it's no wonder they will be unhappy. .

However, Liang Tian is also a person who has experienced strong winds and waves after all.

Pushing the glass on the wine table to change the cup, during the meal, Shen Junze really did not mention anything about the Lushi real estate.

Instead, Wang Fu said a lot of things about starting a business together with Shen Rang, and all the shareholders who spoke said the expression of nostalgia.

"Mr. Shen died early, and if he is still here, our company will definitely be able to take it to a higher level." Zhou Jianye said with emotion, he really admired Shen Rang.

This statement was endorsed by several other shareholders, "Yes, President Shen... It's a pity."

Mentioning his father, Shen Junze's eyes also flashed a bit of sorrow. If he was a director at the beginning, could his father feel more at ease?

"My uncles and uncles are the elders who founded the company with my dad. I didn't listen to my dad about your deeds. The one thing my dad loved to say the most was that he luckily met you in his life. Brothers who have been through the ups and downs." Shen Junze said with emotion, but the words were half-truths, and he wrote the second half of the sentence.

"Your dad is a good kind," Zhou Jianye said, "If it were not him, there is no our present. It was also lucky for us to meet your dad."

Most of these people came in when the company was first established. They looked at Shen Rang from scratch, and they were not dissatisfied with Shen Rang's ability. When Shen Rang was in, it was also when the company's development was most stable. , The people are united, working in one direction, the company is bound to flourish.

Speaking of Shen Rang, Zhou Jianye's eyes were very complicated when he looked at Shen Junze. "When your dad died, we didn't want to help you, just..." Speaking of this, he paused and waved his hand. "Fuck, the past Not to mention it."

Shen Junze knew what he wanted to say, but he did not shy away at all, and he was ashamed, "I was unable to support the wall by myself, no wonder uncles and uncles, today you can come here, it is already the biggest affirmation of me. "

Zhou Jianye heard the words and couldn't help but sigh, "Jun Ze, since you talked about this, your uncle said something to you today. You really don't blame the uncles and uncles for that matter. This company is us. Beat it down little by little with your dad, he is just like our child. We naturally hope to put it in the hands of a reliable person and carry it forward, but how could we feel at ease when you were like that? The company gave it to you? So don't forget to hate us for this matter."

"Uncle Zhou, where are you talking about? If I hate you, I won't invite you to come here today." Shen Junze's face always had a humble smile, and they repeatedly mentioned what he looked like Things don't mind at all.

"Lao Zhou, you said you are okay to talk about these things? Jun Ze was ignorant, but now Jun Ze's ability is obvious to all of us. Real young talents. You said that when we were as big as him, we could Has his current achievements like this? Bokai Real Estate is a dark horse in Beijing's real estate industry." Wang Fu didn't want everyone to keep mentioning Shen Junze's past and changed the subject.

"Haha, that's right, we are ashamed of Junze's achievements now." Zhou Jianye is a wise man. He understood Wang Fu's meaning at once and changed the topic.

"Uncles and uncles, please don't praise me, I'm much worse than you. Bokai Real Estate is not a company I founded by myself, but was founded by my cousin Shen Junyu, and later handed to me, Bokai. My cousin is behind my help to get to today. Where can I rely on myself to have such a great ability."

Shen Junze did not feel that it was a shame to admit that he was relying on Shen Junyu. He wanted to make these shareholders understand that he was supported by Junlan Group behind him, and he was not alone.

Those who can sit here are smart people, and naturally understand the meaning of Shen Junze's words. Junlan Group is in Beijing, but it is a leading company, and its position cannot be shaken. If behind the Bokai Real Estate is Junlan Group's support, Bokai's future may be much better than they originally expected. And they have to re-evaluate Shen Junze this person.

Wang Fu is a very fine person. Seeing the thoughtfulness of all shareholders, she looks at Shen Junze with appreciation. She is a smart person who knows how to use her own advantages.

Several shareholders have long known that Shen Junze is a member of the Shen family, but at the beginning, Shen Junze's relationship with the Shen family was stiff. Although later Shen Junze was driven out of the company and went to work in the Junlan Group, they did not take it seriously. After all, Shen Junze's They know their abilities. They just thought that he was going to the Junlan Group to spend time together. They wanted to have enough food and clothing. Who would have thought that he now has the ability to start his own company.

Although Shen Junze himself said that Shen Junyu was supporting him behind his back, who did not know that Shen Junyu was an old fox, and the person he fancy must have two brushes, thinking of this, every shareholder also had to admit that he himself It is indeed a glance.

"Since everything has been said here, then I will say it straight. Uncles and uncles, I invite you to come today. In fact, it is one thing. I want to ask you to help me get my dad's company back."

Everyone already understood Shen Junze's purpose, so it was no surprise to hear this.

Liang Tian took the lead in saying, "We can understand your mood, and Lao Wang also told us. According to the relationship between us and your dad, it should be helpful to you, but you also know that we are all old and small People, have their own family to take care of, can't help you without scruples..."

Shen Junze heard the sound of the string and knew the elegance, "Please rest assured, uncles and uncles, you help me, I will naturally not treat you badly. Although Lu Jincan is my uncle, but Shen Rang is my father. If you help me, then you were in me What kind of treatment is there in Dad, what kind of treatment is the same when you come to me."

Wang Fu laughed, patted Shen Junze and his shoulders, and said happily, "It is Shen Yang's son, who is courageous, guys, not me. I help Junze, and now we know the situation of these people in the company."

The outsiders looked at us with boundless scenery, but is this really the case? What kind of person is Lu Jincan? We used to be blind and did not see clearly. This time we can always be clear. Instead of sitting still, it is better to take the initiative."

When everyone thought about it, Zhou Jianye's eyes turned around the shareholders and spoke slowly, "Jun Ze, you have talked about this, then your uncle also said a few words to you, When Lu Jin came to see us, he also said a lot of beautiful words, but in the end, you also saw how he did it. You want us to help you, but you can't just talk about it."

The other three shareholders nodded one after another, and Shen Junze had already expected such a result, "Then I don't know what to do to get some uncles and uncles to promise to help me?"

There was a faint smile on his face, gentle words, and an open-minded look.

The conditions are open with them, but this degree is difficult to grasp. To what extent can it be done without damaging his own interests, and makes Shen Junze feel that they really want to help him, not a lion.

As a result, it is embarrassing to shareholders.

Seeing that all shareholders have remained silent, Shen Junze continued to say, "Uncles and uncles, despite the conditions, I will seriously consider as long as it is not too excessive."

It was still Zhou Jianye who said, "Jun Ze. What you said is embarrassing to the old guys."

"Uncles and uncles, don't feel embarrassed, we are talking about business."

"Since you have said so, then I will say it directly. When Lu Jin first came to us, Xu gave us an important position in the company, but as a result, you can see that even if we sit in that position, the power is still It's overhead, but it's just nameless, plus we're older and we don't have the energy when we were young, so we don't ask you for the company's position, we want your shares in the Bokai Group.

In Zhou Jianye's view, Bokai Real Estate is a company with great development prospects. With Junlan Group's support behind it, then the development of Bokai Real Estate must surpass Lu Shi Real Estate in the future. If so, why didn't you get the shares of Bokai Real Estate early? In this way, even if Shen Junze and Lu Jin later cross the river to dismantle the bridge, at least they still have shares as protection.

Shen Junze didn't expect them to have the idea of Bokai Real Estate, but this condition was not unacceptable. After a moment of contemplation, Shen Junze said slowly, "Uncles and uncles, Bokai Real Estate is now just a small company under development. It's my honor to be honored by your uncles and uncles. But if I took back the Lu real estate, then Bokai and Lu must be merged. Bokai is a small company, so it will eventually be merged into Lu's name. Next, then I will promise that the uncle Uncle Bokai's equity will be meaningless. It's not as good as that. The shares of the company in your hands are still held. I can promise you unless you are willing to sell it to me, otherwise I will never Take back, and I will build on the original. Add one percentage point of shares to you, what do you think?"

One percentage point of stock may not seem like much, but Lu Shi Real Estate is also a listed company. For 1% of the shares, there is a lot of dividends in one year. Moreover, if the merger of Lu Real Estate and Bokai Real Estate, the future Lu Real Estate will also receive the support of Junlan Group, and the development prospects are unlimited. This 1% share is much more valuable than it is now. I think the shareholders here are starting to shake. However, this condition made them very emotional.

Seeing this, Wang Fu said, "What are you guys still hesitating about? Jun Ze's conditions are already very kind, but I think it is feasible. Just like Brother Zhou just said, we are all old and in the company. Occupying a position is nothing more than annoying, it is better to give the position to those young people, let them work hard, and make the company develop prosperously. Several of our old guys have worked hard for most of their lives and have not taken a good rest. Taking this opportunity to nurture the days at home, if they encounter any problems and do not know what to do, then we will give them pointers, which is also worthy of Shen Ran's previous request."

Liang Tian didn't speak much from beginning to end. Now he listened to Wang Fu's words and said slowly, "I agree with Pharaoh's words. I agreed to this condition. Next month is the shareholders' meeting on the 15th. I will support you at the meeting."

Shen Junze originally held shares in Lu Shi Real Estate, and he was also eligible to participate in the shareholders' meeting. With the support of several old guys at the shareholders' meeting, it is very likely that Shen Junze will be in the top position, but now the largest The problem is that Shen Junze does not have enough shares to compete with Lu Jin.

"But there is still a problem here. You have insufficient shares in Junze. Lu Jincan holds 35% of the company's shares and is the company's largest shareholder. As the chairman of the company, of course, if you want to get all the shareholders Support, then you have to hold more shares than him. In order to express our sincerity in cooperation, I can first transfer 5% of the shares in my company to you, but only after you are in position, the shares of this company ..."

"Uncle Liang, please be assured that I have borrowed these shares. If I get the company back, I will return these shares to you intact, including the promise of 1% of you."

"With your words, then I can rest assured." Liang Tian said with satisfaction. Wang Fu naturally supported Shen Junze, so without saying anything, I also agreed to the two-day proposal, "Since Brother Liang has expressed his position, then I will also express my position, I can give 7% of the shares in my hand first Junze."

With these 10% shares, Shen Junze's share of shares became 32%, and the other three shareholders looked at each other.

Since Lao Wang and Lao Liang have said so, then we can't just watch them, they both go out 1%, I go out 2%, when the shareholders meeting, we will unanimously support your superior. Zhou Jianye said first that the other two shareholders nodded one after another.

As a result, Shen Junze's shares reached 36%, just a little more than Lu Jin.

Shen Junze heard the words and said eloquently, "Uncles and uncles, thank you for your support. I will not say anything if I am grateful. It would be better to do more than I said. You will see my actions in the future."

Everyone ate their meals and talked about things. Naturally, they would not stay here more, so one by one said goodbye. Wang Fu and Shen Junze did not leave. They were waiting for someone, and after a short time, Liang Tian folded back.

"Brother Liang, thank you just now." Wang Fu said with a fist clenched.

Liang Tian waved his hand, "I also have my own purpose, not just for you."

The play was planned by Wang Fu and Liang Tian together.

Liang Tian had an in-depth discussion with Shen Junze half an hour before the start of the dinner. The conditions negotiated with Shen Junze would sell his shares to Shen Junze at a price higher than 10% of the market, and would cooperate with Shen Junze to persuade several other shareholders. And his condition is that he now sells the company's shares to Shen Junze, and after Shen Junze takes power, he will distribute 3% of his company's shares.

Although this condition is more demanding, Shen Junze still agreed. After all, Liang Tian holds a considerable number of shares. If he has the shares in his hand, then the shares he holds are the same as those of Lu Jincan, plus other shareholders. Those borrowed are enough to defeat Lu Jincan.

"Uncle Liang, I didn't bring the share transfer agreement today. I will go to your house tomorrow to find you. Let's sign the contract. What do you think?"

Liang Tian nodded, "Just do it, but this money..."

"You can rest assured that once the contract is signed, the money will be in place immediately."

After hearing this, Liang Tian was very satisfied.

15% of the shares are bought at a price higher than the market price. This is not a small amount. Shen Junze naturally cannot afford so much money, but before that, he has already talked to Shen Junyu, Shen Junyu is willing to put the money first Lend him. This is one of the reasons why Shen Junze dare to agree.

The matter had been settled, Liang Tian didn't stay much, and soon left here. After he left, Wang Fu and Shen Junze looked at each other. Shen Junze said with a smile, "Uncle Wang, thanks to you this time."

Wang Fu waved his hand, "You are also smart yourself."

Today Shen Junze took Shen Rang and Junlan Group to talk about things, and put their gratitude and interests in front of shareholders so that they could see clearly the value of Shen Junze as a person. This is where he is the most intelligent.

If you only talk about grace, I am afraid that these people will not easily agree. After all, grace is worth a few dollars, Shen Rang is dead, no matter how big the grace is, it is not comparable to its own interests, otherwise they will not all agree to help Lu Jincai. The company has been robbed; if it is just talking about the interests, then these people must have a lion's mouth, and almost all of them want to talk about collapse.

So Shen Junze's approach today is extremely clever.

"Or Uncle Wang's advice is good, if there is no guidance from you, where can I think of such a good idea?" Shen Junze said humbly.

Everyone loves to listen to flattery words. After listening to this, Wang Fu really smiled and waved his hand, "Well done, don't bring me a high hat, I know a few pounds myself, since the matter is resolved Now, let's talk about another thing."

Shen Junze's expression was serious, which was the focus of his meeting with Wang Fu today.

If you want to dismiss Lalujin, the stock is not enough, there must be other things to push, and the best thing is that the company's interests are damaged.

"In the past few days, I have looked for opportunities to look at the company's accounts. In the past few months, the company's profits have been declining, and shareholders have been a little dissatisfied with Lu Jin. This is also your best opportunity. The next time, I Will do some work on the company's accounts. Make the account losses more serious."

"Then how do I cooperate with Uncle Wang?"

"Continue to grab business with Lu Shi Real Estate, making its profits decline again, only then, in the next general meeting of shareholders, you can get absolute support."

Although Shen Junze's shares are sufficient, not only the shares are necessary but also the ability to obtain the approval of everyone. If Shen Junze can defeat Lu Shi Real Estate, it means that his ability is stronger than Lu Jin and more suitable. When the company's leader, those shareholders with the highest interests will naturally support Shen Junze.

"I understand, I will leave this matter to me, but you need to worry about Uncle Wang for other things."

"These are not problems." Wang Fu said with a smile. "But Liang Tian is very profitable. This time he promised him that he promised to help you because something went wrong in his family and he had to use money to force him. If you take power later, Well, be prepared for him."

And Liang Tian will agree to help Shen Junze for another reason, that is, the reason why Liang Tian's son would lose so much money was designed by Lu Jin, the purpose is naturally for the shares of Lu Shi in Liang Tian, Liang Tian knows the truth It's strange to be able to spare Lu Jin.

When Shen Junze proposed from Liang Tian to buy the shares in his hand at a price higher than 10% of the market, he already knew what kind of person he was, and naturally he would not trust him wholeheartedly, but Wang Fu could remind him of this. It shows that Wang Fu really wants to help him now.

"Thank you Uncle Wang for reminding me, I will pay attention to this matter. But anyway, he can stand up to help me at this time, it is already a rare thing, I will still remember the feelings of the memory, even if it is not a heavy responsibility. , But I will give him all the decent things I deserve."

It is said that Wang Fu nodded in satisfaction, just a reminder of Shen Junze and a test for him. If Shen Junze said that he would drive Liang Tian out of the company, then he would be disappointed in his heart. Performance, this makes Wang Fu more assured of future cooperation.

Farewell to Wang Fu, Shen Junze went to Shen Qinglan again, and told her about what happened today, including all shareholders and their own responses.

Shen Qinglan nodded affirmatively, "You are doing very well today, and you will do it in this way in the future. If you don't understand anything, you will discuss it directly with my brother. As for the original share agency agreement, I I have made an appointment with Lawyer Xiao, and he will come over in the near future. I will transfer all the shares to your name. Including the 5% in my hand."

At the time, Shen Rang gave Shen Qinglan 5% of the shares in Shen Qinglan's company to help Shen Qinglan. As a wedding gift for Shen Qinglan, Shen Qinglan never accepted it.

Shen Junze looked, "Sister, my dad gave you this stock."

"The shares you got now are lent to you by those shareholders, and you still have to pay them back afterwards, and it is useless to hold these shares in my hands. Since it was left to me by my uncle, what should I do, uncle? Certainly there will be no opinions, just do what I said." She has shares in several companies in her hand, and there is no shortage of that.

Lawyer Xiao moved quickly and arrived in the capital the next day. This time, not only did Shen Qinglan's 5% of his shares be given to Shen Junze, but also Shen Junyu's hand.

"Sister, brother, thank you." Shen Junze said excitedly. These shares Shen Qinglan and Shen Junyu did not ask him a penny. Although the two of them are not worse than their own money, but the meaning is different.

"These things originally belonged to you, but now they are nothing but the original owners. I can help you here, and the rest is up to you." Shen Qinglan said lightly, for giving value Tens of millions of shares is not at all reluctant. It was originally something Shen Shen forced to give her.

"Sister, brother, I won't let you down."

Shen Junyu and Shen Qinglan have helped him a lot. If he still can't get his father's company back in this way, then he can also confess his death.

Shen Junyu's expression was faint. "It is also time to test the results. What I have learned in Junlan in the past few years, I will show it now."

Shen Junze focused on his head.

Pei Yining and Jiang Chenxi's marriage is approaching, but there are still many things to be prepared. On this day, Pei Yining and Jiang Chenxi went to the furniture market to buy furniture, but they did not expect to encounter Chen Wanjiao here. She is with a man, looking at the two, they should be boyfriends.

Chen Wanjiao did not expect to meet Jiang Chenxi under such circumstances. The hand that was placed in the boyfriend's arm was drawn out subconsciously. Jiang Chenxi's eyes were uncomfortable.

Instead, Jiang Chenxi saw Chen Wanjiao smiling warmly, "Wan Jiao, what a coincidence. Is this your boyfriend?"

Chen Wanjiao smiled uncomfortably, "This is my fiance Zhong Lei."

Jiang Chenxi smiled kindly at Zhong Lei, "Has the marriage date been fixed?"

Chen Wanjiao nodded, "March next year."

Jiang Chenxi did not expect to be so fast, but it was a good thing.
