Wenqiao was very anxious. It took more than half an hour from Li's office building to the playground. There was a traffic jam. It was said that any big man had to pass by, and all the cars on the side of the road had to give way.

If you know that this big man is Li Fengbei, Wenqiao will be even more crazy.

She was about to go crazy. She finally got to the destination, handed the money to the driver and pushed the door open.

Looking up at the past, the giant Ferris wheel appeared in front of us.

Morning! Mom's here! Don't be afraid!

Barefoot, regardless of the pain in her ankle, she ran into the playground.

Eager eyes everywhere looking for Su yue'e, but a group of people in the playground, the door was blocked.

She opened the lock and tried to rush in, but she was caught by the collar. "Miss, it's blocked here. You can't go in!"

The bodyguard had a serious face and looked up and down at winjo.

The woman in front of her was dressed disorderly and barefoot. She looked very embarrassed.

Suspicious, they couldn't let her in.

Wenqiao thought that the bodyguard was a staff member of the playground. He suddenly tensed his face and said angrily, "you let me in. My child is gone with you!"

The bodyguard was stunned by the roar.

Her anxious expression didn't look like a fake.

The bodyguard's head is spinning, her child is gone, and so is the president's child Is this embarrassed woman the little lady's mother?

The bodyguard felt that he had got the truth and hesitated. Would you like to call beitezhu to report it?

In this gap, the flexible and small body of Wenqiao bent down and went directly under the blockade belt.

The bodyguard looked back and yelled, "stop! Don't run

Hearing the sound of the bodyguard chasing her, Wenqiao ran faster, and the pain in her ankle was clearer. The pain made her tears come out, but she had no time to take care of it.

Chenchen is her life. If anything happens to him, she doesn't want to live.

At this time, Su Yue'e's phone calls again. Wen Qiao just grabs her mobile phone to get through, but before she can speak, her collar is held again.

The bodyguard said viciously, "it's fast! Run again! Are you a woman with the kidnappers?"

Winjo rolled his eyes angrily. Are they blind?

She ignored the bodyguard, directly to the phone, a series of questions: "Mom! How about Chenchen? Did you find it? Where are you?"

On the other end of the phone, Su Yuee lowered her voice, worried, and seemed to stop saying, "Qiao Qiao Chenchen found it, but..."

"Found it! Great Wen Qiao raised the heart finally fell to the ground, did not find Su Yue'e tone is not normal.

As soon as I turned my head, I was surprised to find Su Yuee standing not far away, and Chenchen standing beside her, and Su Yuee seemed to be talking about something.

"Talk! What on earth do you do? Why are you running in here?" The bodyguard was still holding her collar and talking.

Winjo really wants to curse. Can you stop staring at her?

"Let go of me!" Wenqiao was angry. He tried his best to shake his arm. Finally, he broke away from the guard's grip and ran towards Chenchen.

"Morning! Chen Chen, are you ok?" She hugged Wen Qichen's little body and looked up and down for a while. Seeing that Chen Chen was really OK, she was greatly relieved. She could not help kissing him on his white face.

"Mommy! I'm wrong Chen Chen holds her hand and lowers her head in shame. She looks like she has done something wrong.

After the ecstasy, winjo calmed down.

Think of the collapse just now, really want to seize his ass is a fight, so that he has a long memory, but in the end still reluctant.

Just a face, rebuked: "you talk about it, why do you want to run? Didn't Mommy teach you not to run around alone?"

However, before she finished, she was interrupted by Su Yue'e, "Qiao Qiao, don't blame the child first..."
