Chapter 141 West Mountain Guild

after another two to three minutes, zhang shan realized that the qi player still had no intention of leaving.

He had been standing in the distance and staring at them.

he's most likely a spy. I'll go over and kill him first. I'll be prepared later. I guess the troublemakers are coming.

After Zhang Shan finished speaking, he summoned the red Hare and rode it. Then, he rushed towards the Qi player.

Seeing that Zhang Shan was chasing after him, the Qi player ran away. However, how could his two short legs outrun the four legs of the red Hare?

Not long after, Zhang Shan caught up to him. After getting off the horse, he shot him down with two shots.

"Six-barreled Bodhisattva, don't be too arrogant. You've killed so many of our Qi country's players. Do you think you'll be fine just by hiding here and farming monsters? just you wait, if you have the guts, don't run."

"Sure, I'll wait here."

after zhang shan finished speaking, he mounted his horse and left, returning to continue farming monsters.

A small character who could only be a background character was not worthy of his attention. He didn't even remember the name of the character.

"Who is that person? You didn't cut the wrong person, did you?"

Wind and cloud blade asked Zhang Shan with a smile.

that's right. They're here to cause trouble. Their main force should be here soon. That person is still lying on the ground. Someone should be here to save him.

"Then what should we do? Should we directly channel back to Heaven's Gate or prepare to fight them?"

why should we go back? if we have to retreat from any Tom, Dick, or Harry, how are we going to survive in the Heaven's Gate map in the future? "

" brother six steward, you're so domineering. however, we still have to be prepared. if hundreds or thousands of people come down, we'll be in trouble. if we die, we'll lose a level. i don't know if we can wait until someone comes to save us. "

"It's fine. The terrain here is very good. As long as we block the entrance, they won't be able to rush in too many people at once."

well, let's pay attention to the situation outside. Once we find a lot of Qi players coming over, we'll immediately stop and not kill monsters.

&Nbsp; mm.

"By the way, the person you just killed, did he have a Guild title? If they're from the big guilds, we'll have to be careful. There will definitely be a lot of people."

"Wait, let me see."

Zhang Shan really did not pay attention to this matter. Half a month after the wind cloud Guild was established, other guilds were gradually established as well.

Currently, there were at least 30 to 40 guilds in the game, and each city had one or two guilds.

Even in Danyang city, a player had established another Guild. However, it was only a small guild and had not had any conflicts with them.

They were all just playing games, and there would usually be no conflicts without any reason.

Zhang Shan checked the battle records and saw the identity of the Qi player that he had just cut down.

It was drifting snow from the West Mountain Guild of the Qi nation.

that person has a Guild. It's the West Mountain Guild of Qi state. I've never heard of it. I don't think it's that strong.

zhang shan did not know much about this. other than the top ten guilds in the game, he had not deliberately inquired about the other guilds.

it's alright. West Mountain Guild is considered a veteran Guild, but their development in the New World is relatively slow. The Guild has just been established not long ago, so it should still be a level 1 Guild, not too strong.

there's nothing to worry about if it's a level 1 Guild. They'll have at most a thousand players. They can't possibly all come to Heaven's Gate, right? at most, they'll have a few hundred players.

Their wind and cloud Guild was already a level 2 Guild, and they had enough contribution points to become a level 3 Guild.

The only thing that was missing was the construction of the Guild building. It was estimated that in a few days, they would have enough contribution points for the construction of the Guild building and officially upgrade to Level 3.

Aside from them, there were about a dozen other guilds that had also reached Level 2. As for the guilds that had been established later on, they were still a little short of reaching Level 2.

Not long after, Zhang Shan realized that there were many people slowly coming in from the outside. They were all players from Qi country, but they had not rushed over yet.

Drifting snow, who was lying on the ground, had also been pulled up.

"Let's not farm monsters for now. We'll talk after we're done with them."

Windcloud blade stopped farming and said to Zhang Shan.

“let’s go. we’ll block the entrance and see if they dare to rush in.”

The three of them stopped farming monsters and arrived at the narrow entrance.

“oh, a dragon from the west mountain. why? do you want to fight?”

windcloud blade said to the leader of the opposing team, west mountain guild’s guild master.

“Windcloud blade, in the game, since you’re in different camps, it’s inevitable for you to fight. However, are you that confident? There are only three of you, and you still dare to wait here?”

“It’s alright. You don’t have that many people, only two to three hundred people. Don’t you know that my brother just killed three to five hundred people at the city gate?”

“Hmph, do you think we’re a motley crew?”

“In my opinion, it’s almost the same.”

wind and cloud blade did not give him any face as he ridiculed.

After being teased by wind cloud blade, West Mountain Dragon did not seem to be angry. He only waited for everyone to arrive and began to arrange for them to slowly approach Zhang Shan.

Now, everyone knew that Zhang Shan’s attack power was terrifyingly high. If they wanted to cut down Zhang Shan, they had to get close to him in order to have a chance.

A dozen or so Guardian Warriors of the West Mountain Guild stood in the front row, followed by a Berserker class with the charge skill.

Instead, there were 30 to 40 archers, and behind them were a large group of other classes.

“Watch out for their archers to fire meteor arrows.”

Wind cloud blade warned Zhang Shan and boss Wu as he saw the other side slowly approaching.

“You guys stand behind the Panda baby. The meteor arrow can’t pierce through people or monsters. It can only hit the target at the front.”

It was enough to rely on Zhang Shan to kill people. As for wind and cloud blade and boss Wu, they just had to ensure that they did not fall, especially boss Wu.

He would still have to rely on him to heal in the fight later. If wind and cloud blade died, he would have to rely on boss Wu to revive him.

When the West Mountain Guild’s people entered Zhang Shan’s shooting range, the flintlock in his hands instantly opened fire, and the bullets were continuously fired.

Although The Guardian Warriors of West Mountain Guild had a lot of HP, they could only withstand three or four shots from him at most.

At the same time as Zhang Shan opened fire, the other side accelerated and rushed forward to block Zhang Shan's bullets. The archers behind took turns to release meteor arrows.

The first wave of more than ten meteor arrows were shot at them side by side, with no possibility of dodging at all.

Wind and cloud blade and boss Wu hid behind the Panda baby and shot a few meteor arrows at it.

Zhang Shan did not Dodge. He immediately activated his berserk and fanatic skills, and his attack power and attack speed were greatly increased.

Berserk skills were immune to crowd control skills, so when the meteor arrows hit him, they all missed. They couldn't stun him at all.

First, he had to clear the front row of guardians from the West Mountain Guild. Without the front row of guardians, none of the other people on the opposite side could take two shots from him.

Chapter 142 one man guarding the pass

Facing the enemy's Meteor arrows, Zhang Shan was fine, but the Panda baby was unconscious and could not move.

But it didn't matter. When fighting, Zhang Shan rarely relied on the Panda baby to deal damage. Its attack speed was too slow.

it was just right to be a meat shield to eat skills.

After activating the berserk and fanatic skills, Zhang Shan quickly defeated the front row of Guardian Warriors of the West Mountain Guild.

however, as the duration of these two skills ended, another dozen or so meteor arrows were fired from the opposite side.

There were at least 30 to 40 archers from the West Mountain Guild, so they should be able to shoot three rounds of meteor arrows. This time, they didn't have the immunity control from the berserk skill.

zhang shan did not dare to take on the meteor arrow's attack anymore. being hit by an arrow and stunned for five seconds was no joke.

Five seconds was more than enough for the opponent to cut him into pieces.

Zhang Shan was also prepared to hide behind the Panda baby. The three of them stood in a row and endured the meteor arrows from the opposite side.

At this moment, Windcloud blade stepped forward.

brother Liu Guan, you continue to hold them off. I'll carry the arrows. Anyway, big brother carrying a saber is here. If you die, you can be quickly revived.

Wind and cloud blade quickly rushed in front of Zhang Shan, but was directly hit by two meteor arrows, stunned for five seconds.

Other than hiding behind wind and cloud blade the moment the meteor arrow was shot, Zhang Shan had not stopped firing his musket.

he kept shooting. as long as it was within his shooting range, no matter what class it was, he would sweep it away.

Seeing that two consecutive rounds of meteor arrows had not been able to control Zhang Shan, the Dragon from the Western mountain was a little anxious.

Zhang Shan, who was not being controlled, had terrifying damage output. In this narrow space, they had no way to rush to Zhang Shan's side.

prepare for the third round of meteor arrows. Everyone, charge forward together. Warriors, use charge when you're within range. Charge forward and kill six-barreled Bodhisattva directly. Ignore the other two.

West Mountain's Dragon had put all its eggs in one basket. It was a gamble of numbers. Although the terrain was limited, it was not easy for them to display their advantage in numbers.

However, as a warrior, under the cover of others, there was still a chance to close the distance and cast charge.

Seeing that the other side still had no intention of giving up and was charging forward like a swarm of bees, Zhang Shan did not hold back and just kept firing.

He just had to pay attention to the meteor arrow on the other side. The other classes' stun skills could only be released when they were close to him.

Zhang Shan would not give them the chance.

Only the meteor arrow posed the greatest threat to him. If he dodged the meteor arrow, no matter how many people there were on the other side, they would be nothing more than food in such a terrain.

The third round of meteor arrows was fired, and Zhang Shan continued to hide behind wind cloud blade.

Previously, although wind and cloud blade had been hit by two meteor arrows, he had not died, even though meteor arrows also had a damage effect.

However, with only two meteor arrows, it was impossible to directly kill a warrior. There had to be follow-up damage.

The West Mountain Guild's players did not have the chance to rush up and deal any damage, so Windcloud blade was naturally still standing there.

Taking advantage of the moment when Zhang Shan dodged the meteor arrow, the Berserker class of the West Mountain Guild quickly rushed to the distance where they could cast the forward charge skill.

A few Berserkers in the front row used their charge skill on Zhang Shan, and damage appeared on Zhang Shan's body.

Zhang Shan did not care about these few people. He had to knock down the people behind him. These few Berserkers would not be able to kill him if they rushed up.

However, if the Berserkers behind him all rushed over, he wouldn't be able to hold on. There were at least forty to fifty Berserkers from West Mountain Guild present.

He would not be able to withstand the chopping of the vegetable knife no matter what.

Ignoring the enemies around him, Zhang Shan continued to fire at the people behind him.

The Berserkers of the West Mountain Guild at the back were knocked down by Zhang Shan row by row before they could rush to a sufficient distance to charge.

No one could take a step forward.

As for the few people who had already rushed over, they were madly slashing at Zhang Shan, completely ignoring wind and cloud blade and boss Wu.

Just because they did not care about Windcloud blade did not mean that Windcloud blade would not attack them.

Boss Wu kept on healing Zhang Shan, while wind and cloud blade was madly slashing at those few people. He even used the group attack skill sweep.

A group of people surrounded Zhang Shan and slashed randomly, but Zhang Shan only attacked the enemies in the distance. As for the few people beside him, he left them to wind and cloud blade to deal with.

Boss Wu was healing him anyway, so these people couldn't kill him.

however, wind and cloud slash could not kill anyone in a short time. as berserkers, their equipment was not bad, and each of them had around 20000 hp.

Wind and cloud blade's normal attack only dealt a little more than 2000 damage.

However, all skills had a certain cooldown time, and the opponent could still drink a red potion to recover some HP.

wind and cloud blade could not cut down a single person.

"Kill that Taoist priest first. We can't let him continue to heal."

The Dragon of the West Mountain had only just realized that he had been targeting Zhang Shan.

That was because Zhang Shan's damage output was too terrifying.

Now that he realized that with the support healing him, Zhang Shan did not seem to die so easily, so he settled for the second best option, to cut down boss Wu first.

However, it was clear that the Dragon of the West Mountain was a little late. Under the frenzied attack of wind and cloud blade, he had already cut down two of them.

Just as the remaining three players were about to turn around and attack boss Wu, Windcloud blade used charge and left one player alive.

Then, only two people were left to kill boss Wu.

Zhang Shan did not even look at boss Wu. It was impossible for these two to take down boss Wu in a short time.

...

Although boss Wu's equipment was a little lacking, he could still heal himself. Furthermore, Zhang Shan's Panda baby was still with boss Wu.

He dared to rush over and cut down boss Wu?

When the two of them rushed to boss Wu's side, Zhang Shan controlled the Panda baby and used a combo skill, directly killing one of them.

The last man was dumbfounded. He had no choice but to attack boss Wu.

Zhang Shan let the Panda baby Guard boss Wu's side, chasing the last Berserker and slowly attacking.

While he was controlling the Panda baby, the fire gun in Zhang Shan's hand never stopped firing. He had been suppressing the momentum of the other side's charge.

Although there were people falling under Zhang Shan's spear at every moment, the entire Xi Mountain team did not intend to give up.

their west mountain guild was an established guild after all. even if it was a powerful boss with two to three hundred people, they would be able to take it down.

it didn't make sense that they couldn't win against zhang shan and the other two.

"continue charging. i don't believe that they'll be able to hold on forever. there'll be times when they'll make a mistake. archers, retreat and wait for meteor arrow's cooldown."

The Archer's Meteor arrow skill had a cooldown of five minutes, the same as Zhang Shan's berserk skill.

...

When their skills were off cooldown, Zhang Shan's berserk skill could be used again.

Zhang Shan did not give chase. He just blocked the entrance. In this narrow and long entrance, he would knock down one person when they rushed over.

Chapter 143-shaking people

Although Zhang Shan had already defeated 50 to 60 people, the Dragon from Xishan did not have any intention of giving up.

He still commanded the rest of the people to continue charging. There were still about 200 people left in the West Mountain Guild.

The entrance of this passage could only allow five people to pass side by side at a time.

They charged forward in two rows, with a few thieves in the middle, hoping that the thieves would have the chance to sneak up and stun Zhang Shan.

As long as they could stun Zhang Shan, even if it was only for two to three seconds, it would be enough for them to rush over.

At this time, wind and cloud blade had finally finished off the two remaining Berserkers and returned to Zhang Shan's side.

They saw that the West Mountain Guild's people were still charging towards them despite Zhang Shanyu's rain of bullets.

windcloud blade could not help but ridicule, ”

“Are you done? we don't have any deep grudges.”

As for West Mountain Guild, they were at loggerheads with them. Hence, blade of wind and cloud was very puzzled.

there was no great enmity or conflict of interest, so was there a need to be like this? So many of them had already been defeated, and they still wanted to charge?

“there's no enmity between us, but as we're from different camps in the game, we'll face each other sooner or later. today, i'm going to see what the top ten guilds are like.”

The Dragon of Xishan was like a game maniac. For his own game Camp, he did not hesitate to fight with Zhang Shan and the others. Even if so many people died, he did not care at all.

Although Zhang Shan was at the city gate and there were no West Mountain guild members among the hundred or so people that he had defeated, the Dragon of West Mountain had still brought people over.

it was a little hard to understand. he was really a f * cking ruthless character. was there a need to?

“If you want to try out our Guild, you can go to our boss. The three of us are just here for fun.”

“Who asked you to be so arrogant and cut down so many of our Qi players?”

who's arrogant? it's your Qi players who won't let us go over. Do you think we, the People of the Wind and cloud Guild, can only take the beating and not fight back? ” your Guild of wind and cloud is only so powerful because of the godly weapon in six-pipe Bodhisattva's hands. If not, you wouldn't be that great. Since I've managed to stop you today, I won't let go of this opportunity. You're all going to die today.

Hearing the Dragon of the West Mountain say this, Zhang Shan was a little speechless.

Truly, a tall tree attracts the wind. Just because he had a divine weapon, all these people wanted to cut him down? This reason was too much.

then there's nothing else to say. Let's see how many of you we can kill.

The West Mountain Guild's people kept on rushing towards Zhang Shan's side, knocking down a row and then another row came.

Sigh, Zhang Shan did not know what to say about this way of queuing up to get shot. Could he say that it felt good?

He didn't seem to feel anything. He was numb.

He really didn't know what the Dragon of the West Mountain was thinking. Just these two to three hundred people were almost all killed by him. Why did he have to do this?

at this time, zhang shan suddenly realized that there were many qi players in the distance, approaching the dragon in the west mountain.

"f * ck, you're shaking people when you can't beat them?"

This was a little difficult to deal with. Although the terrain here was good, he couldn't possibly be stuck here forever.

If he was not careful and got hit by a meteor arrow or was stunned by other skills, he would definitely fall.

" f * ck, you're a dragon from the west mountain. you're so shameless. you can't beat him, so you're shaking him off? "

"What's so strange about that? you can also call for help."

fine, you win. Just you wait. You want to compete with us in numbers? don't even think about getting back up today. Hmph, I'll guard your corpses until your level drops.

Windcloud blade was furious. After saying that, he immediately called out to Windcloud realm in the Guild channel, boss, quickly bring some people over to help. We've been blocked by the West Mountain Guild of the Qi state.

"Brother Yidao, what's going on? aren't you with the divine artifact boss? Who can stop you guys? weren't you guys at heaven's gate just now, killing everyone?"

the f * cking West Mountain Guild keeps on shaking people. They cut down one batch and another batch comes. There's no end to it. There are already more than 200 people on the ground who have been knocked down by brother six steward, but they're still charging.

"F * ck, so ruthless? How did you offend the entire West Mountain?"

offend my A * s, he's just a lunatic. Quickly send reinforcements, or else we'll really fall if we make a mistake.

send me the coordinates. All guilds that are online, gather at the teleportation Hall. We'll leave for Heaven's Gate in one minute.

Feng Yun realm did not say much. He immediately called for everyone in the Guild channel to head to Heaven's Gate together.

In terms of numbers, the wind and cloud Guild wasn't afraid of anyone. Their Guild had 10000 players and there were at least 7000 to 8000 players online.

"Got it. I'll head back to the city now."

"Channeling."

one blade, hang in there. Wait for your big brother to save your dog life. Haha.

"Hurry up and get over here. What's the use of relying on a noob like you?"

On the other side, Feng Yun realm was gathering a large force. On Zhang Shan's side, West Mountain Guild already had a large number of support personnel in place.

Relying on their numbers, Xishan was a Dragon. They did not care about how many people were knocked down by Zhang Shan. They just arranged people and charged continuously.

Moreover, there were quite a few archers among the newcomers, although not everyone had the meteor arrow skill.

However, it wouldn't be a problem to gather a few dozen people with meteor arrow.

Looking at the row of meteor arrows that flew over from time to time, Zhang Shan had a headache. This skill was really not easy to Dodge.

One or two meteor arrows at a time was easy to deal with, but the key was that the West Mountain Guild had placed a row of them at a time, not giving him any space to Dodge at all.

He could only rely on wind and cloud blade to block the arrows for him.

"f * ck, isn't west mountain guild a level 1 guild? Why are there so many people? how many have we defeated already?"

Zhang Shan was a little speechless. How many had he defeated? It was the same as killing monsters. If he stood there and fired, he would be able to take down at least 500 to 600 people.

Why didn't the West Mountain Guild's people decrease? there were still people coming over.

I took a closer look just now. These are not people from the West Mountain Guild. They might be other players called over by the Dragon of West Mountain from Qi state.

Boss Wu said as he stood behind the Panda baby and healed wind cloud blade.

"what? Other than the West Mountain Guild, there were other players from Qi state? Is he asking all the players in the country to mess with the three of us? that's too much."

brother Liu Guan, don't panic. The boss and the others will be here soon. It's useless no matter how many people you call.

“Alright,” he said.

Zhang Shan looked at the cooldown time of the berserk skill. It was about to be over. Without the berserk skill, he felt insecure.

As long as he had berserk’s immunity to crowd control, he would not have to worry about any accidents.

Even if there was a stun skill and he couldn’t avoid it, he could only activate berserk to dispel the control state.

The Dragon of West Mountain on the opposite side could not do anything to him.

However, he still had to be careful and avoid using berserk skills as much as possible. He would save them for critical moments to save his life.

Chapter 144 ten thousand men against one another

The number of Qi players was increasing, although the number of players that Zhang Shan had defeated might be as many as seven or eight hundred.

However, there were even more new players of Qi state. There were at least thousands of them outside the passage. Under the command of the Dragon of the West Mountain, they were rushing toward them.

He couldn’t continue like this. Sooner or later, there would be problems.

It would not be like before, when he was not stuck for a moment, a few Berserkers rushed over and he would be in a mess again.

Next time, the Dragon of West Mountain would definitely learn its lesson. If there was another chance, it would definitely kill boss Wu first.

Although Mr. Wu could heal himself, his maximum health was too low, less than 10000.

If he was surrounded by five or six Berserkers, he wouldn’t be able to last long. Zhang Shan could not spare too much time to clean up the enemies around him.

Otherwise, they wouldn’t be able to block the entrance and the Qi Kingdom’s players.

“You should step back a little. Just be within the distance to heal us.”

Zhang Shan said to boss Wu.

He had to retreat a little. This way, if someone were to rush over, he could still slow down.

Moreover, Windcloud blade was not to be trifled with. West Mountain Guild could only send five people at most in one wave.

Windcloud blade only needed to think of a way to hold two people back. The remaining panda baby could take care of one.

In the end, only two people could hit boss Wu, so he should be able to hold on.

Asking boss Wu to step back and extend the possible attack range of the enemy was equivalent to giving them more time to deal with the situation.

zhang shan stared at the qi kingdom's players who were charging forward. his bullets were fired non-stop.

he quickly activated fanaticism, increasing his attack speed by 100%. he was a real man for six seconds, and soon, he stopped their momentum.

At this moment, Feng Yun realm shouted in the Guild channel, we've already been teleported to Heaven's Gate. We'll be there in three minutes.

hurry up! The Qi players are getting crazier and crazier!

windcloud blade was no longer as calm as he had been at the start. the qi players were simply too crazy.

No matter how many people Zhang Shan had beaten down, they were all charging forward with no regard for their lives.

fortunately, they had chosen to farm monsters here in the beginning. there was a long and narrow passage that could block the other party.

Otherwise, they would have long been chopped into pieces.

Even if Zhang Shan had two lives, it would still not be enough for the other party to kill him. The other party had too many people.

He was going to kill the old master with his random punches.

Feng Yun realm led his entire Guild of seven to eight thousand players and caused a commotion the moment they reached Heaven's Gate.

Although Heaven's Gate was a public map and many players from various countries had already come, the situation was still the same for the wind cloud Guild.

It was the first time that he had pulled the entire Guild over, and it immediately attracted the attention of all the players in Heaven's Gate.

"F * ck, is something big going to happen? Why did the wind and cloud Guild suddenly send so many people?"

"I don't know, maybe they found the big boss? Their entire Guild is here to fight the boss?"

what kind of joke is this? why would we need seven to eight thousand players to fight a boss? it's not like we're fighting a Demon God.

that's hard to say. The boss at heaven's gate isn't that easy to beat. Even an orange boss is tough, let alone a red one. How can we not have a lot of people? "

"even so, there's no need for so many people. that's too exaggerated."

when fighting a boss, someone needs to protect them. Otherwise, how can the players from other countries let them fight the boss in peace? ”

“f * ck, are we really going to fight the big boss? I’ll go and take a look too, maybe I can pick up some scraps, hehe.”

“Don’t f * cking talk nonsense, what boss are we fighting? a bunch of Qi players are surrounding six-pipe Bodhisattva and Feng Yun realm is probably here to help.”

f * ck, which Big Shot of Qi is so upright that he dares to provoke the Big Shot of divine artifacts? he doesn’t know how to spell the word ‘death’, does he? ”

no matter how powerful the six-barreled Bodhisattva is, it’s useless. The West Mountain of the Qi state is a Dragon. It has called for thousands of people and I heard that they are besieging it. The six-barreled Bodhisattva is still fighting with the terrain. I wonder if he’s dead now.

are you kidding me? a few thousand people? ” that’s right. The Dragon in the West Mountain has always been there. The National channel of Qi state has been calling for it. A large number of Qi state players have rushed over. There are still people on the way, and there is an endless stream.

“F * ck, is this a large-scale melee? Don’t let your hatred points reach the point of starting a World War.”

“It shouldn’t be that easy to start a country war. The announcement didn’t specify how much hatred the two countries have to start a country war. It’s just that in order to reach a certain amount of hatred points, I guess the system has the final say.”

no, I have to go and take a look. This is the first time a new world has happened. Such a large-scale player Battle Royale has happened.

“Are there any Zhao players who want to go and watch the battle?”

spectating my A * s, be careful not to get killed by random blades. Heaven’s Gate is too dangerous, I’d better go back and farm monsters.

the news of feng yun realm’s reinforcement was already known to the dragon of the west mountain.

However, compared to the wind and cloud Guild, most of the players from the Qi Kingdom were a motley crew.

They definitely couldn’t stop the seven or eight thousand players from the wind and cloud Guild. They had to get the real big shots of the Qi Kingdom to do it.

Their West Mountain Guild’s reputation was still a little lacking, and they couldn’t call more people.

Among the top ten guilds, the peerless Guild had settled in the Qi state’s Lanling city, although it was not in the same city as the Xishan Guild.

However, they had dealt with each other before. As a player of the Qi Kingdom, the Dragon of the West Mountain could only call for help from the peerless Guild.

While the Dragon of the West Mountain was organizing the Qi players to continue the attack, he called for the Guild Master of the peerless Guild, the peerless gentleman.

Junzi, our Qi players are fighting with the Chu country's wind and cloud Guild at heaven's gate. Can you arrange for someone to come over and help? "

"What's the situation? How did you guys get into a fight with Feng Yun realm and the others? how many people did they send over?"

As Feng Yun realm had just arrived at heaven's gate, it caused a commotion in the regional channel of Heaven's Gate. However, no one had discussed this matter in the world Channel.

that was why the unparalleled gentleman did not know about this. they had not come to heaven's gate pass yet, and were currently farming monsters outside of lanling city.

"I don't know how many people from the wind and cloud Guild are here, but I heard that there are thousands of them."

"what the f * ck, what's going on? By the way, you were calling for people to kill people at heaven's gate in the National channel just now. You're not fighting with the people from wind and cloud Guild, are you?"

yes. Didn't six-barreled Bodhisattva kill more than a hundred of our Qi Kingdom's people at heaven's gate? just now, someone from our Guild found them farming monsters there, so I organized a group of people to come and deal with them.

why didn't you leave after you finished? why are you still following Duke of wind and cloud's people? "

This was a little awkward. The problem was that he had not cut down Zhang Shan. Otherwise, he would have retreated a long time ago.

Why would he still be here, waiting for the wind and cloud Guild's main force to come and take revenge?

Chapter 145 Unparalleled gentleman

The unparalleled gentleman's question made the Dragon of the West Mountain feel embarrassed.

It wasn't that he didn't want to retreat. It was just that he had never been able to cut down Zhang Shan before. Their West Mountain Guild had come to cut down people with such a huge momentum.

In the end, there were only three people on the other side. They did not manage to cut down the other party, but were instead beaten down by Zhang Shan, who had nearly a thousand people.

How could he keep his face?

They were in a dilemma. Although they could also retreat directly, The Map of Heaven's Gate was so big.

It was impossible for the wind and cloud Guild to look for them all over the map. This was unrealistic, and there was no way to find them.

however, if they were to withdraw just like that, the west mountain guild would lose a lot of face. even the players of the qi state would lose face as well.

“We haven’t killed six-barreled Bodhisattva yet. That guy is blocking a narrow path, so we can only charge a few people at a time.”

West Mountain’s one dragon could only tell peerless gentleman the truth. He was still counting on peerless Guild to come and support them.

“How many people are there with six-pipe Bodhisattva and the others?”

“three people,”

The Dragon of the West Mountain felt more and more embarrassed as he spoke.

The unparalleled gentleman was speechless for a long time. What the hell was going on? after all this trouble, a Dragon from the West Mountain led the Qi Kingdom and so many players, yet they couldn’t even kill three people?

That was too f * cking nonsense.

“Is the divine weapon of the six-barreled Bodhisattva really that invincible? You’ve called so many people over, but you couldn’t even cut down three people?”

“It’s very strong. The Guardian warrior was also killed in three shots, and the damage output of six-barreled Bodhisattva is ridiculously high. But most importantly, he’s controlling the terrain. We can’t rush over, and there’s no place to take a detour. We can only charge head-on.”

“Alright, got it. I’ll pull some people over immediately. You guys try to avoid Feng Yun realm as much as possible. His thousands of people are not easy to deal with.”

The Dragon of the West Mountain heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that the unparalleled gentleman had agreed to come to help.

Peerless Guild was a veteran large guild. It had been one of the top ten guilds in the game for a long time. It was much stronger than a rising star like wind and cloud Guild.

If not for Zhang Shan, the wind and cloud Guild would only be slightly stronger than normal guilds in the New World.

Now, it was only because of Zhang Shan’s participation that they were able to take the lead in establishing a guild in the game, gradually leading the others in all aspects.

Even though the unparalleled gentleman had promised to come over to help, it was obvious that Feng Yun realm would be here even faster.

It would take some time for the unparalleled gentleman to gather his men and teleport to Heaven’s Gate.

the problem was, what were they going to do now? It was obviously impossible to continue charging at the passageway that Zhang Shan was defending.

Feng Yun realm's horse would arrive soon. Don't let them ambush you from the back and get wiped out.

However, how could they avoid the main force of the wind and cloud Guild? they couldn't just split up and escape.

After a short hesitation, the Dragon of the West Mountain said to the Qi Kingdom's players, " the main force of the wind cloud Guild will be here to support six-pipe Bodhisattva soon. But don't worry, our Qi Kingdom's peerless Guild will be here soon. We'll defend first and wait for the peerless gentleman to come before we fight them.

"Alright, I'll have a good fight with dog Chu."

The Dragon of the West Mountain looked at the players of Qi state who were present. There were still many people because there were more people coming.

Therefore, even though Zhang Shan had beaten thousands of people, there were still more than 2000 people on the field.

West Mountain's Dragon thought that if he organized a defense, he should be able to defend until peerless Guild sent reinforcements.

The Qi players did not continue to attack Zhang Shan. Instead, they slowly retreated out of the passage and formed a huge defensive formation not far away.

More than 2000 people formed a large circular defensive formation. The Warriors guarded the periphery, while the long-range professions were protected within the circle.

"What's the situation? Boss and the others are about to arrive, why are the West Mountain Guild still not planning to leave? do they want to fight with us, the wind and cloud Guild, with just two thousand people?"

I don't know. Maybe they have other reinforcements.

"Even if they have reinforcements, they have to wait. With so few people, once our Guild's main force arrives, they will be crushed in one wave."

"Who cares, let's wait for the boss and the others to come."

Zhang Shan and the other two walked out of the passageway. They could only quietly watch the Qi players slowly gather into formation.

They didn't dare to go up and cause trouble. What a joke, there were more than two thousand people here.

If the three of them dared to act rashly in front of more than 2000 people, they would be chopped into pieces.

It was better to wait for Feng Yun realm and the others to come over. The entire Guild had seven to eight thousand people. They only needed one wave to defeat this group of Qi players.

When the main forces of the wind and cloud Guild were about to arrive, the Qi country's unparalleled gentleman had also teleported to Heaven's Gate with his men.

they had more people than the wind and cloud guild. in addition to the peerless guild, there were also some other qi kingdom players who had teleported over.

Under the unparalleled gentleman's lead, more than ten thousand people rushed out of Heaven's Gate in a mighty manner.

Naturally, peerless 'large-scale teleportation to Heaven's Gate attracted everyone's attention.

f * ck, even peerless Guild is here. Is there going to be a war between Qi Chu? " the wind and cloud Guild is at a disadvantage. I don't see many other Chu players. There shouldn't be a large force coming to support them, right? "

I didn't see anything. Other than the wind cloud Guild, only traversing Four Seas has some strength in Chu. The other small guilds are not strong enough, so it's useless even if they come.

"By the way, wasn't chu's heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber at the Heaven's Gate just now?"

what's the point of them being here? they have a deep grudge against the wind and cloud Guild. It's already good enough that they don't stab us in the back. Do you think they'll support the wind and cloud Guild? "

"Who cares, just enjoy the show."

"No, I have to go and take a look. It's a rare opportunity."

"it's a big chaotic battle with so many people, yet you're still going over to watch the battle? be careful not to be cut into pieces by random blades."

"What's there to be afraid of? I'll just hide further away," zhang shan and the rest knew about guild peerless's arrival. feng yun realm was discussing with them on what to do.

"What should we do? The Qi state has sent over 10000 people, can we handle them?"

let's not care about the people at the back. Let's kill the two thousand people in front first. The people at the back will arrive two to three minutes later than us.

alright, let's just fight this one round. Don't be afraid of being knocked down. If you fall, get the support back up immediately. We have more people than we do. Let's quickly take care of the 2000 people in front of us first.

Not long after, under Feng Yun realm's lead, thousands of players from the entire Feng Yun Guild arrived.

Zhang Shan and the other two did not join them. Zhang Shan felt that it was better for them to guard this entrance first.

Otherwise, if the Qi players were to rush into the place where Zhang Shan and the others were farming monsters and then block the passage, wouldn't the situation be reversed?

If they blocked them outside and the Qi players hid inside, it would be a little ridiculous.

By the time peerless Guild's players arrived, their wind cloud Guild would be attacked from both sides.

zhang shan and the other two continued to guard the entrance of the passage. they did not intend to meet up with the other players from the wind cloud guild.

on the other side, after feng yun realm's men had arrived, he did not make any arrangements and directly crushed them with his seven to eight thousand men.

Thousands of Warriors led the charge, while the archers behind shot countless meteor arrows at the same time.

After stunning all the Qi players in the front row on one side, the Warriors quickly rushed into the formation of the Qi players while withstanding the enemy's firepower.

All sorts of skills flew out, and the mages with AoE skills even cast AoE attacks from a distance.

some of the berserkers also used all sorts of combos after charging into the formation of the qi players.

Soon, the Qi players were cut down one by one.

8,000 players against 2000 players. Moreover, 8000 of them were Guild elites against 2000 mobsters.

It was a complete suppression. The West Mountain was a Dragon. He thought that everyone was like Zhang Shan and wanted to defend first.

He was really thinking too much.

How was that possible? in less than half a minute, the formation that was still rather neat at the beginning was quickly shattered.

The Qi players no longer listened to the Dragon of West Mountain's command. They scattered and fled. After all, most of these people were not members of West Mountain Guild.

In fact, most of the members of the West Mountain Guild had already fallen when they were charging at the passageway that Zhang Shan was defending.

they were still lying on the ground, waiting for the support's resurrection skill to cool down and revive them.

These 2,000 people were a Dragon from Xishan. They were a Motley crowd that had been called over on the National channel of Qi state.

It was okay to fight a smooth-sailing battle, but once the situation was not right, it would immediately collapse.

Faced with the attack of more than 8000 players from the wind and cloud Guild, the West Mountain Dragon's initial thoughts of defending for a while were quickly extinguished.

he couldn't win at all.

In less than half a minute, everyone had left. It was like they were herding sheep.

the wind and cloud guild also began to split up and chase after them. since they had already started fighting, they naturally had to fight harder.

those that could be cut down must not be let off.

The rest of the Qi players were being chased around, and some were even running towards Zhang Shan.

However, when they were about to get close, they suddenly saw Zhang Shan guarding the entrance of the passage. They immediately turned around and ran back.

They would rather face the entire wind and cloud Guild than charge towards Zhang Shan's side.

This was not a joke. Just now, they had a large number of people, and their formation was neat and orderly.

After a long time, they still could not break through the blockade of Zhang Shan's flintlock.

Not to mention now, even if they had the guts, they would not dare to rush towards Zhang Shan's side.

if they rushed to zhang shan's side, it would be a suicide mission. if they turned back, there was still a possibility of them killing their way out through the gaps in the wind and cloud guild.

Zhang Shan saw that the Qi players were already in chaos. There was no order anymore. Even the Dragon of the West Mountain could only bring about ten people and run around.

It seemed that he didn't need to guard here anymore. He could just get a few people to guard the passage.

he had to go out and kill people. he was a professional at chasing and killing people.

brother Yidao, call a few people. You guys continue to guard this passage. I'll go out and cut down a wave.

"f * ck, how can this be? get a few more people to guard over here. i have to rush over and have some fun too. just now, i was only taking arrows and didn't even kill many people. you've already killed thousands of people. do you still want to go and kill more?"

"Do as you please. I'll go to the West Mountain and kill a dragon first. He'll be a b * stard. I'll wait until he drops a level."

Zhang Shan did not waste any more words with wind and cloud blade. He summoned the red Hare and rode it. He aimed in the direction of the escape in the West Mountain and chased after it.

As for Mr. Wu, he could just stay there. He was a Taoist priest and had not learned any attack skills yet.

In a fight, he could only use his magic sword to cut. The players were not wild monsters, so how could he let him cut them?

They could only add buffs to their opponents and recover their health. They could even revive someone who had fallen to the ground.

As for other things, he could not do them for the time being.

zhang shan, who was riding on the red hare, ran very quickly. he quickly caught up with the dragon in the west mountain. there were more than ten of them, and they were in a chaotic battle with a few players from the wind and cloud guild.

Seeing Zhang Shan riding his horse over, the Dragon of the West Mountain was in despair. He was dead for sure this time.

When he was close enough to attack, Zhang Shan quickly dismounted. The gun in his hand quickly fired at the Dragon in the West Mountain.

The boss of West Mountain Guild fell to the ground before he could even struggle.

After defeating the remaining ten or so people, Zhang Shan quickly mounted his horse and chased after the other Qi players.

After he caught up with the person, he would get off his horse to attack. After that, he would get back on his horse and continue to chase the others. His efficiency in killing people was excellent.

under the siege of the wind and cloud guild, most of the 2000 or so qi players were quickly defeated.

Only a small number of people took advantage of the chaos to escape.

At this moment, Feng Yun realm shouted in the Guild channel, ”

After Zhang Shan saw that there were no more Qi players in his field of vision, he quickly ran towards Feng Yun realm.

“boss, what should we do from now on? the unparalleled gentleman has brought over ten thousand men with him.”

When the scale of the chaotic battle reached ten thousand people, one or two powerful players would not be of much use.

Only those who could use Ultimate skills could change the outcome of the battle with one or two people.

However, it was obviously not possible now. Although their wind and cloud Guild had an Archer who had learned the wrath of the stars skill, it was still too early to think about it.

However, he couldn't use it now. He still had a long way to go before he could get a special item that could increase his maximum mana.

To cast an ultimate skill, even an intelligence-type class would need to be at least level 50 or 60.

As for the other classes, they might need to be level 80 or 90, with a maximum mana of 20000, without the bonus of intelligence.

It was completely unimaginable. One must know that Zhang Shan's current maximum mana was less than 2000.

The other non-intelligence classes were probably similar to him. If they wanted to cast the ultimate skill in advance, they had to get special items that increased the maximum mana.

In a situation where no one had an ultimate skill, the side with more people naturally had a greater advantage. The Qi Kingdom's peerless Guild had brought tens of thousands of people.

They had more than 2000 people than them, and if they didn't make proper arrangements, they might really not be able to win.

Peerless Guild was not a pushover.

It was one of the top ten guilds in the game. It was stronger than the wind and cloud Guild and had more influence than them.

...

Otherwise, they wouldn't have called so many Qi players who weren't from their Guild over.

the wind and cloud guild was not very good at this, so they could only call out to their own guild members.

They could not order the other Chu country players around. Of course, Feng Yun realm did not have such thoughts.

there were fewer people and more people, so he had to think carefully about how to deal with it.

Chapter 147 acting alone

No one dared to underestimate peerless, who was about to arrive. Peerless had an advantage in numbers, and they had more than 2000 players.

Even the most brainless person would know that this battle would not be easy to fight.

"Why don't we play dirty first?"

Windcloud blade said. Although he was a PvP fanatic, it did not mean that he was brainless. In such a hard battle with a low chance of winning, it was best to avoid it if possible.

“how perverted?”

just like before, retreat to the passage and arrange some people to guard the entrance. The others can still farm monsters inside.

that’s not good. This is the first time our wind and cloud Guild has encountered such a tough battle. If he’s so sneaky, how will others look at our Guild? ”

“It doesn’t matter what others think. It’s fine as long as you have fun.”

at least it’s better than dying and losing a level, right? let’s not even talk about whether we can defeat them. Even if we defeat peerless in the end, there shouldn’t be many of our 8000-plus players left.

that’s true. If they all fall, the support can’t save them. Most of them won’t be able to hold on. The support’s resurrection skill has a cooldown.

“What’s the situation with the monsters inside? Is it enough for so many of us to farm?”

Feng Yun realm asked. He did not want to go head to head with peerless as it would not benefit anyone.

If he lost one level of experience now, it would take a week to recover it. The loss was too great. Moreover, if he were to go all out, it would not be a problem of just a few people dying.

Once the chaotic battle began, at least a few thousand people would fall regardless of the outcome.

there are a lot of monsters here. Even if it’s not enough for all of us to farm, it’s not too far off.

alright then. Let’s retreat for a while. We’ll kill some monsters while facing the Qi country’s peerless Guild. We’ll see how they deal with this.

let’s go and farm some monsters. Let’s leave the unparalleled gentleman to stare at us hehe.

Under the lead of wind and cloud blade, all members of wind and cloud Guild entered the place where Zhang Shan had previously farmed.

he had to admit that this monster area was not bad. it was big enough and there were enough monsters.

It could accommodate a lot of people and they could farm monsters together. The key was that it was good for defense, which was very important in Heaven’s Gate.

As a public map, a group of players from other countries would rush in at any time.

If they were to farm monsters in an open space where there was no defense, it would be no different from seeking death. They would be ambushed from time to time.

They couldn’t farm monsters in peace, even though they had the advantage in numbers and ordinary players wouldn’t be able to ambush them.

However, having more people was also a big target, and the players from other countries were not to be trifled with.

Not to mention, they still had to face the pressure from peerless.

Just as everyone was retreating into the monster-farming map.

At this moment, Zhang Shan said to Feng Yun realm, ”

“How about I harass them outside alone? I have a horse and can run fast. They can’t catch up, but I can harass them.”

Zhang Shan felt that it was completely unnecessary for him to follow them inside to defend. The entrance was so narrow.

Without him, the wind and cloud Guild would still be able to hold on, and they wouldn’t have to send too many people.

With a few hundred people, they could completely block the entrance. The Qi country’s peerless Guild would not be able to break in through this narrow entrance.

On the other hand, if he were to stay outside alone, he would be able to harass peerless continuously, preventing them from focusing on attacking wind and cloud.

there’s no need for that, brother Liu Guan. Although you can run fast on a horse, it’s too dangerous. If you’re surrounded by people, you’ll be easily cut to death.

“It’s okay, I’ll be careful. As long as I keep a safe distance, it’ll be fine. I won’t give them a chance.”

Zhang Shan would only stay outside and harass them. He would not mindlessly attack peerless. When he had the chance, he would secretly cut down a few.

If he didn’t have the chance, he would ride his horse around the area.

Big Boss six-barreled, do you still need any accessories? I really want to follow you out and kill people. It’s so embarrassing to hide inside and farm monsters.

you guys run too slowly. If you stay outside, you’ll be courting death. The unparalleled gentleman will definitely have people chase you to death.

sigh, I’m so pissed that I don’t have a Mount. We really can’t have too many deaths this time. Otherwise, it’ll take us a long time to get to level 30 and buy a Mount.

“That’s right, let’s listen to boss and play dirty first.”

then be careful and try not to take any risks. If you really die, we won’t be able to save you.

Feng Yun realm agreed to Zhang Shan’s decision to act alone. It would be good to leave someone outside.

As long as they paid attention, there was basically no danger, because currently only Zhang Shan had a Mount.

The others could only rely on their short legs to run.

As long as Zhang Shan wanted to run, no one would be able to catch up to him. He was the only one outside who was harassing the peerless Guild.

It would definitely give them a headache.

“Then it’s settled. I’ll take my leave first. You guys pay attention too. Don’t be careless. If you don’t guard the entrance, it’ll be a joke.”

don’t worry, we’ll just put a few hundred people here to block the way. I believe that the unparalleled gentleman won’t be as brainless as the Dragon in the West Mountain. He won’t dare to rush in.

This was also true. Previously, Zhang Shan and the others only had three people. The Dragon of the West Mountain could still think about it by luck and possibly rush over.

However, if Feng Yun were to place a few hundred people to defend, as long as it was someone with a normal brain, they would not have the thought of charging.

Zhang Shan rode his horse and left the main forces of the wind and cloud Guild. He ran far away alone, trying his best not to let the Qi players find out that he was still outside alone.

Zhang Shan rode his horse and galloped around the Heaven’s Gate map, avoiding the Qi players’ routes and not letting anyone discover his tracks.

At this time, the unparalleled gentleman had brought tens of thousands of players from the Qi Kingdom and arrived at their destination.

The ground was littered with the corpses of the Qi Kingdom’s players. A Dragon from the West Mountain was also lying on the ground.

Because of the arrival of Guild peerless, Zhang Shan and the others chose to play dirty first. Naturally, they could not guard the corpses.

” let’s revive the dead first. we’re all from the same faction, so we should save as many as we can. ”

Unparalleled gentleman said to his Guild’s support.

It had to be said that he was quite a good person. However, there were close to 2000 people lying on the ground. Including the people at the passageway, there were still more than 1000 people who had been knocked down by Zhang Shan.

With just peerless’ support, it was impossible to save everyone. The resurrection skill had a five-minute cooldown.

Among the support players that peerless had brought, no more than 100 of them had resurrection skills. They wanted to revive all 3000 players.

How long would that take?

It was impossible. The unparalleled gentleman was just showing his attitude. He was serious about saving people.

...

However, if the help of the resurrection skill was not enough, then he had no other choice. He had already tried his best.

Chapter 148 hunting

When peerless Guild arrived, they did not attack wind and cloud Guild directly. Instead, they first revived the Qi players who had fallen to the ground.

Although it was impossible to pull up all the people on the ground, they were at least saving people.

The unparalleled gentleman's actions won a big wave of flattery from the Qi players.

After a Dragon from the West Mountain was rescued, he ran to the unparalleled gentleman dejectedly and said to him, "

"Thank you, brother Jun Zi. Otherwise, I would have lost a level."

you're welcome. We're all players from the same faction. If I can save them, I'll naturally save them.

"but there are still so many brothers on the ground. we don't have enough support. even if we wait here for the cooldown of the resurrection skill, we can't save everyone."

After a player was defeated, they could only lie on the ground for an hour. Within an hour, if there was no support to resurrect them, they would be killed.

They would have to resurrect in the city, which would cost them one level of experience.

Unparalleled gentleman didn't bring enough support with him. No matter how hard he tried to save them, he wouldn't be able to revive everyone.

"We can't let our brothers lose their levels. I called these people here. If they all lose a level, it would be a huge loss."

Looking at the Qi players lying on the ground, the Dragon of the West Mountain felt very apologetic. Not to mention his own Guild, there were many people who were not from the West Mountain Guild.

If they all lost a level, then these people would hate him to death in the future. He had to find a way to save them.

"Then what do you suggest we do?"

The unparalleled gentleman just wanted to be a good person and save people along the way, but he couldn't pay more.

"I'll go to the National channel and put up a bounty. As long as someone is resurrected, I'll give them 2000 gold coins. I believe that those who have resurrection skills will be willing to make a trip."

that would cost millions of gold coins. There are many people who fell to the ground.

"It doesn't matter. Isn't it just six or seven million gold coins? I'm out."

As a veteran guild leader, the West Mountain Dragon naturally had some capital. A few million gold coins was indeed something he could afford.

However, no one's money fell from the sky. He still felt a little heartache for paying this money, but he had no choice.

The players on the ground had to be saved. Otherwise, who would listen to his orders in the future?

After the dragon of the West Mountain had arranged the reward for the rescue, he continued to say to the unparalleled gentleman, " brother Jun Zi, what's going on now? even the Wind and Cloud Guild has become a coward.

The unparalleled gentleman also had a slight headache. Previously, he had only heard about it from a dragon in the West Mountain and did not have a direct idea of it.

Now that he had seen the terrain of the passage with his own eyes, he had to admit that the defeat of the Dragon of the West Mountain was not unjust.

It was such a small passage, how could they possibly rush through it?

"Is there really no place nearby that we can go around?"

No, I've already sent people to look for it. After entering this passage, there is a sealed map. It is blocked by the mountain, and there is no way around it.

That's going to be difficult. The Wind and Cloud Guild has placed a few hundred people there to defend. No matter how many people we have, we can't get through.

"Then what should we do? are we just going to let it go?"

The unparalleled gentleman was speechless. What else could he do? he couldn't just let the tens of thousands of people he had brought die here.

Moreover, even if they all died here, it was impossible for them to charge through. He was completely out of tricks.

The unparalleled gentleman thought for a while before saying, "I'll go and have a chat with Feng Yun realm."

When they arrived at a place not far from the passageway, the unparalleled gentleman shouted, "Brother world, are you there? come out and have a chat."

Feng Yun realm did not do so. Instead, he followed the others to farm monsters. Instead, he stood guard near the passageway. In order to defend against such a terrain, a long-ranged class with high burst damage was very important.

Feng Yun realm was a fire mage with high damage output. He was a little worried so he followed them and guarded the passageway for a while.

Let's see how it goes.

Since the unparalleled gentleman wanted to have a chat, he would not mind. After all, there was nothing to do here.

“I wonder what brother Jun Zi would like to say?”

“Look at me, I’ve come here in such a grand manner. You can’t let me do nothing outside, right? Why don’t our two guilds fight each other head-on? I’ll offer 10 million gold coins as a reward.”

“Do I look like an idiot to you? If you want to fight, then come in. If you don’t want to fight, then we’ll talk next time.”

Feng Yun realm said disdainfully. What kind of player is this? Is 10 million gold a lot? How could it be more important than everyone’s level?

He wasn’t someone who lacked money. The key was that they clearly had a huge advantage, so why did they have to go out and fight peerless?

Even a fool would not do that.

“Then there’s no other way. Since brother Tian Xia has made up his mind to be a coward, then I can only accompany you. We’ll just stand guard outside. If we can’t go in, then you can’t come out either.”

Unparalleled gentleman’s words were a little silly. Who would want to go out? Wouldn’t it be better to farm monsters inside?

If they really wanted to leave, they could just cast a Return Channel. Who would rush out of the tunnel?

“If you want to defend, then go ahead. I have a few hundred people to play with you guys for a while.”

Facing Feng Yun realm, unparalleled gentleman was at his wit’s end.

He ran back to the other members of the peerless Guild and said, “ leave 2000 people to block this passage and not let the people from the wind and cloud Guild come out. The rest of you can find a place nearby to farm monsters. I don’t believe that the wind and cloud Guild can stay in there forever.

The blockage was mutual. It could be blocked from the inside and not allow people from the outside to enter. Similarly, it could be blocked from the outside.

They wouldn’t let the wind and cloud Guild players out unless they cast a recall bar.

The unparalleled gentleman just wanted to fight for his pride. He couldn’t just do nothing.

Seeing that they could not do anything to the wind cloud Guild, unparalleled gentleman had no choice but to lead his men away, leaving 2000 men to guard the passage.

Zhang Shan had been staying at a place far away from here. He had not seen the situation here.

However, although he could not see, wind and cloud blade would report the situation to him at any time.

brother Liu Guan, the peerless Guild has dispersed, leaving only two thousand people to guard the passage. You can do whatever you want.

“Okay, I got it. I’ll go and see where they’re going to farm monsters and give them a good beating.”

“Sigh, you can go ahead and feel good. I can only bitterly guard here.”

&Nbsp; hehe.

Zhang Shan rode his horse quickly through the sky Gate map, looking for the players of the peerless Guild who were farming monsters.

As for the 2000 people guarding outside the passage, Zhang Shan had no thoughts about them for the time being.

These 2,000 people were on guard, so it wasn’t easy to deal with them. It was easy to ambush the people who were farming.

It did not take long for him to find the monsters. As long as there were monsters nearby, there would definitely be players from the peerless Guild farming monsters.

They had just separated, so they should be farming nearby for the time being. They wouldn’t have gone too far.

Not long after, Zhang Shan found a group of Qi players. There were more than a thousand of them farming monsters.

Zhang Shan got off his horse and ran over slowly.

Thousands of players weren’t scary. They couldn’t stay together when farming monsters, so there would be some distance between them.

It was just enough for him to break through them one by one.

Zhang Shan was like an experienced Hunter. After staring at a group of prey, he slowly approached.

Chapter 149 A wave of sneak attacks

Zhang Shan slowly got close to the firing range. The gun in his hand quickly fired, before the peerless guild members could react.

he had already knocked down more than ten people.

After quickly taking down a group, Zhang Shan did not retreat immediately. There was no need to do so at the moment.

Peerless Guild’s members were scattered all over the place.

Killing these people was no different from killing rabbits. One or two shots were all it took to knock one down. It was very simple.

Zhang Shan carried his musket and swept through the crowd. Large groups of Qi players were defeated by him.

what the f * ck? why is six-barreled Bodhisattva here? aren't the people from wind and cloud Guild trapped inside?"

"god knows what's going on. everyone, gather together. don't fight him when there's only a few of you. six-barreled bodhisattva's attack power is too terrifying."

when the archers see six-barreled Bodhisattva, they'll immediately shoot meteor arrows to interfere with his movements. We can't let him fight so comfortably.

As Zhang Shan ran quickly, he fired his gun. As long as someone entered his shooting range, he would fire his bullets quickly.

The Qi players that Zhang Shan had caught up with basically had no way out, whether it was a tank or a fragile job.

To Zhang Shan, there was no difference. It was just a matter of two or three shots.

he was the first to reach level 30. the divine equipment was unsealed, and a full set of level 30 red equipment was updated.

Zhang Shan's equipment was way ahead of the current players.

It was an ultimate BOSS, and anyone who encountered it would die.

After Zhang Shan had defeated over a hundred people, the other Qi players quickly gathered together and rushed towards him in a formation.

Forget it, I'll leave first after this wave.

Since the players from Qi had already gathered together, Zhang Shan did not have much of a chance.

He would run away first and find the others. There were many Qi players nearby anyway.

They couldn't possibly stick together and wait for Zhang Shan.

if that was the case, were they still going to farm monsters? they couldn't farm monsters, and they couldn't take the initiative to attack wind and cloud. they couldn't just stand there and do nothing.

Zhang Shan quickly ran for a distance, then summoned the red Hare and galloped away.

The Qi players present could only watch helplessly. Even when Zhang Shan was not riding a horse, they would still be able to catch up to him.

After they got on the horse, they could only watch him run.

"Fired? what the f * ck is this?"

that's right. What should we do now? we can't always gather a few hundred people and fight a few monsters at the same time.

what else can we do? as long as we separate, that b * tch, six-barreled Bodhisattva, will definitely come back.

“F * ck, is there no one who can stop him?”

who can stop him? his attack is so high. If we don't surround him with more people, we can't get close to him at all.

let's talk to Junzi first. If it really doesn't work out, we'll go back to Qi country to farm monsters. What's the point of doing this? ”

After Zhang Shan left, the group of Qi players contacted unparalleled gentleman one after another.

“What did you just say? Six-barreled Bodhisattva ambushed you and knocked down more than a hundred of you?”

that's right. The six-barreled Bodhisattva's attack power is so high, and his attack speed is also ridiculously fast. He took down hundreds of us with just one sneak attack.

“Where is he now? Didn't you guys go after him?”

“How? Six-barreled Bodhisattva rode on a horse and ran very fast, disappearing without a trace in an instant.”

The unparalleled gentleman was completely speechless. What could he do? he couldn't just go back like this, right?

He was also a person who wanted face. If he went back like this, where would he put his face?

However, if they did not return, Zhang Shan's sneak attacks would be endless and impossible to guard against.

After thinking for a while, the unparalleled gentleman said, ” people who are farming monsters everywhere, don't farm all of them. Arrange a group of people to guard the side while the others farm monsters.

“Alright, let's give it a try. If it still doesn't work, we'd better go back. There's no need to be angry here. It's not worth it.”

alright, remember to arrange for people to take turns to defend. I don't believe that six-barreled Bodhisattva would be so bold as to launch a sneak attack when there are people on guard.

Needless to say, the unparalleled gentleman's idea was not bad. Zhang Shan went to a few more places and saw that every group of Qi country players was killing monsters, and there was a group of people guarding at the side.

They didn't do anything, nor did they farm monsters. They just stood guard nearby.

This was not easy to deal with. Even if he bypassed the defensive personnel, he would not be able to kill many people if he rushed over.

On the contrary, he would be in some danger. The defensive personnel were always together.

As long as he dared to show his face, these people would quickly rush towards him together.

They might be able to surround him, and it would be embarrassing if they were to flip.

zhang shan was still a little indignant. they had only fought one wave and there was no chance? He didn't believe it.

These Qi Kingdom players had arranged their defense so well, so there would always be some people who would overlook it.

In that case, his chance would come.

Zhang Shan rode on the red hares and went to all the nearby monster-farming maps. However, he had underestimated the Qi players 'desire to survive.

There would be a group of players of a similar number guarding the side of each monster-killing team.

They would rather farm less monsters than give Zhang Shan the chance to launch a sneak attack.

There was no other way.

Fine, you guys are ruthless. I'll leave, alright?

zhang shan had completely given up on the idea of continuing his sneak attack. he did not give him a chance at all, if he had to go head on.

It was not worth it.

It was better to go to the passage and see the situation. Otherwise, they could join forces with the members of wind and cloud who were killing monsters inside. They would kill the 2000 players first.

As Zhang Shan ran, he contacted wind cloud blade.

"How's the situation on your side?"

"It's still the same. There are 2000 players outside. We can't get out, but they can't get in either. By the way, didn't you go to harass peerless to farm monsters? why are you asking about us?"

don't even mention it. Peerless Guild has gathered their players. Half of them are farming monsters while the other half is defending. They're not giving us any chances.

...

"Damn, so ruthless? Leave half of them to defend? Aren't they being too careful?"

who knows what they're thinking? anyway, they just did it once and then there's no more chance. I've searched everywhere, and it's all the same.

"he's scared of you, hehe."

is there any chance on your side? I'll harass them outside while you guys find an opportunity to rush out and kill those 2000 people.

Zhang Shan said to wind and cloud blade. Since peerless's respawning team was not easy to ambush, then they had to try to see if they could deal with the two thousand people guarding the passage.

" it's even more difficult on our side. we can't get out at all unless the qi kingdom gives up blocking the exit. otherwise, as long as there are dozens of people blocking the exit, we won't be able to get out. "

It was difficult. He couldn't just let it go like this.

Chapter 150 A batch of people quietly returned to the city the players from peerless guild were all hiding in a corner, half of them defending while the other half was farming.

They did not give Zhang Shan any chance to launch a sneak attack. They blocked the two thousand people from the wind and cloud Guild, and Zhang Shan could not do anything to them.

If the wind and cloud Guild's members were unable to rush out and cooperate with him, he alone would not be able to deal with so many people.

At most, he could only harass them when the berserk skill was on cooldown. Once the berserk skill's duration ran out, he would have to run.

Otherwise, he would have been stunned to death by the crowd control skills.

He had to think of a way. If only he had a few more people to cooperate with him. He didn't need too many, just a few hundred people.

Zhang Shan could try to mess up the 2000 Qi players. That way, the members of the wind and cloud Guild would be able to take the opportunity to rush out.

Eh? why don't we let the wind and cloud guild members inside secretly return to the city and then come back?

As long as there weren't too many people, they shouldn't be discovered. Get a few hundred people to meet up with Zhang Shan.

He had the confidence to charge through.

As soon as he thought of it, he immediately contacted wind and cloud blade and asked him to make the arrangements.

It wasn't a good idea to let peerless block their way all the time, even though they wouldn't suffer any losses.

But it wouldn't look good on his face, would it?

After all, the wind and cloud Guild was one of the top ten guilds in the game. It was also the first player's Guild to be established in the New World.

It didn't look good to be blocked by people.

brother Yidao, can you split a few hundred people and quietly cast a teleport spell to return to the city? then, split them up and run over. I'll lead them in a wave and break up these two thousand people. Then, the people inside will be able to rush out.

"If we cast a recall bar, will we be discovered by peerless? they'll definitely keep an eye on us, right?"

don't bring too many people, just a few hundred will do. There are so many players in the Heaven's Gate map, how can they keep an eye on all of them?"

"alright, i'll discuss with the boss. i'll bring 500 warriors back to the city and charge."

Oh my God, all warrior classes?"

"Yes, the warrior class is still the best. It can quickly close the distance, and it has more health, so it's less likely to die. Besides, aren't you the one dealing damage? we'll mess up the other party's formation, and you can quickly take down a group so that the people inside can take the opportunity to rush out."

alright, then. Be careful, but don't run over together. If you run in groups of ten or so, even if peerless's people discover you, they won't be too concerned.

I know. Mark the location. We'll gather there later.

Zhang Shan looked at the 2000 Qi players who were blocking the entrance. Just wait for me. I'll take care of you immediately.

He couldn't deal with so many people by himself, so he decided to run away first and wait for the people that Windcloud blade had brought to meet up with him.

In fact, these peerless Guild players didn't want to block the way here. They couldn't fight.

They were outside, and there were no monsters to farm. They could only stand outside, which was quite boring.

However, they had no other choice.

They had no choice but to block the way here. Firstly, it was to fight for their pride.

In the future, if word got out, although they didn't defeat the wind and cloud Guild, they would still be able to block the wind and cloud Guild's members.

How awesome would that sound?

Another point was that if they didn't block the wind and cloud Guild from the inside, they might rush out from time to time.

In that case, peerless Guild could forget about farming monsters in the Heaven's Gate map. It would be better for them to return to their own country's map.

Once the people from the wind and cloud Guild rushed out, it would not be like Zhang Shan's harassment.

Instead, they would be able to annihilate every wave that they caught. Who could stand this?

Therefore, they had to block the way here until this matter was over, or the two sides reached an agreement to stop.

A truce was definitely the final choice. After all, everyone had to kill monsters and level up. They couldn't just keep fighting.

However, the way they would call a truce would depend on the situation of both sides.

To peerless, although they couldn't kill any of wind and cloud's members, the results were still pretty good.

At least, the Qi camp's face was saved because the wind and cloud Guild couldn't kill their people.

Other than Zhang Shan, who was still loitering outside, the rest were stuck inside.

after a long time, the wind and cloud guild would return to the city, or both sides would negotiate a truce, and this matter would be considered over.

it would be a different case if there was another conflict in the future.

Zhang Shan found a place far away from the Qi players and quietly waited for the arrival of wind and cloud blade.

Not long after, wind and cloud blade brought 500 Warriors to meet up with him.

Since they had come here in batches, they had not been discovered by the Qi Kingdom's players. Or, even if they had been discovered, they had not paid much attention to them.

There were many people coming and going on the Heaven's Gate pass map, so it was not strange for some Chu players to come.

Peerless didn't make any adjustments to their formation. The others were still farming monsters and didn't send any reinforcements to the group of people blocking the entrance.

"Brother Liu Guan, what should we do?"

I'll charge in first. I'll use berserk to attract them. For the first wave of crowd control skills, after I charge in for five to six seconds, all of you charge in and mess up the other side.

Zhang Shan said to wind cloud blade.

He had the berserk skill, which made him immune to crowd control for ten seconds. No one else had this skill.

Although berserk skills were common skills, they were rarely dropped. His skill book was obtained from a 5-star Treasure chest.

Currently, Zhang Shan had not heard of anyone who had this skill.

This was a very rare and powerful skill, and it was very useful. No matter who it was, immunity to control was very important.

This was especially true for classes with high damage output. If they weren't controlled, they could continue to deal damage.

During the duration of the skill, it was almost like a cannon, an invincible existence.

"Alright, you go first, we'll charge behind you."

Wind and cloud blade agreed with Zhang Shan's suggestion. With Zhang Shan absorbing a wave of skills in front of them ...

When they charged, they would have fewer casualties.

After a simple discussion on the strategy, Zhang Shan led wind cloud blade and the others and quickly ran towards the Qi players.

As he had to take care of the speed of the others, Zhang Shan did not ride a horse. He could only run like the others.

Not long after, Zhang Shan and the rest came before the Qi players.

f * ck, this six-barreled Bodhisattva is here again. He's not done yet.

no, look, there's a few hundred people behind six-barreled Bodhisattva. The wind and cloud Guild is definitely going to make a move. Call for gentleman to come over and help.

Zhang Shan didn't care what the Qi players were thinking. He had to hurry up and disperse these two thousand people.

Otherwise, the unparalleled gentleman would have brought a large group of people over to support them.

They had to defeat these people before peerless gentleman's reinforcements arrived and free the players from wind and cloud inside.

In that case, they could repeat their previous strategy, annihilate the other side, and the wind and cloud Guild's people would retreat.

I just don't want to fight head-on with the unparalleled gentleman and anger him to death, hehe.
