Chapter 221 Five seconds of invincibility

After the wind and cloud Guild had set up the defense at the entrance of the passage, unparalleled gentleman finally led his large Army and arrived at the beast King Valley in a grandiose manner.

More than two hundred thousand people were in a mess outside the beast King Valley. There was no order at all.

Among these people, other than the members of the peerless Guild and the West Mountain Guild, the others were all players from Qi country who had responded to the call of the peerless gentleman.

Some of them might have just come to join in the fun and didn't really want to risk their lives for the unparalleled gentleman.

Unparalleled gentleman did not have any restrictions on these people. He could only try his best to arrange for them to follow behind the Guild members.

When fighting a battle with the wind blowing in their favor, they could expand their advantage.

Before the fight started, he wanted to build up his momentum, that was all.

In reality, unparalleled gentleman had never expected to rely on these people to win against the wind and cloud Guild.

When he arrived at the beast King Valley, he saw that there were no people from the wind cloud Guild guarding the outside.

The unparalleled gentleman followed the path and walked forward. When he came to a place where he could see the wind cloud Guild, he stopped.

He shouted at Feng Yun realm.

brother world, I wonder if you can give me some face and return this grinding spot to the West Mountain Guild? ”

The unparalleled gentleman spoke without any meaning. Of course, what he meant was that he did not expect Feng Yun realm to agree.

If Feng Yun realm really agreed, why would he even bother?

The unparalleled gentleman had only said this to bargain.

that's impossible. The resources in the game belong to whoever snatches them. There's no such thing as 'return'.

Feng Yun realm's reply was firm and there was no room for discussion.

I don't think that's a good idea. After all, this place is a Dragon of the West Mountain. They found it first.

“There’s nothing bad about it. If you’re afraid of being robbed, just delete your account and stop playing.”

feng yun realm directly retorted unparalleled gentleman, without any intention of discussing with him.

After all, there was no reason to spit out the meat that was already in one’s mouth.

Not to mention that this was just a game, it was probably the same in reality.

uh, how about this, you guys can claim this place as your own, but it was the West Mountain Guild that discovered it first. How about we split it in half? it’s so big anyway, it’s not a problem for millions of people to farm here.

“No,”

Feng Yun realm refused to budge. What a joke, half each? two guilds from different factions grinding in the same place?

Wouldn’t that be a mess?

Of course, Feng Yun realm also knew that unparalleled gentleman was not trying to reason with him.

The unparalleled gentleman wasn’t a fool. If he could get this place back by talking.

That would be unreasonable.

The unparalleled gentleman had always been a Blabbermouth. It was just that his personality was like this, and he always liked to talk nonsense before the start of a fight.

The two sides did not have a common stand, so it was only a matter of time before they started fighting. Both sides were well aware of this.

Hence, Feng Yun realm did not want to waste his breath on him.

“Alright, since brother under the heavens is so determined, then we can only use our strength to speak.”

After saying that, the unparalleled gentleman slowly retreated.

Of course, he wouldn’t be the one leading the charge, and he was a Spellblade.

It was not suitable for charging.

Peerless gentleman retreated, and the other peerless Guild players entered the passageway in an orderly manner, ready to start their assault.

The wind and cloud Guild had long since made their preparations.

There were thousands of guild members surrounding the entrance of the passage, and the one at the front was a Hunter with the Eagle Eye skill.

the hunter class had a long range to begin with, and after the eagle eye skill, its range was even greater, completely crushing all other classes.

Hundreds of hunters formed an arc and pointed their guns at the entrance of the tunnel.

Anyone who rushed out would be turned into dregs in seconds.

Zhang Shan was also standing at the very front. However, he did not stand in front of them. Instead, he stood to the side.

In this case, if peerless relied on some trump card to rush out ...

They wouldn't pay attention to him at the first moment, and they wouldn't throw ultimate skills or powerful scrolls in his direction.

Behind the hunters were all Guardian Warriors. If the peerless Guild really rushed out, they would be killed.

they would have to go all out and limit the peerless guild's players near the entrance.

they couldn't be allowed to expand. behind the guardian were the mages and support classes.

The main task of a support was to heal their own people and resurrect those who fell to the ground.

Meanwhile, the mages acted as the back-up attackers, killing the peerless guild members that rushed out and forcing them back into the tunnel.

Although the mages were standing at the back, they had the most number of people.

In terms of instantaneous burst damage, no class could compare to mages.

once peerless's members entered the tunnel, they began to charge forward.

As the passageway was very narrow, only a few people could rush out at a time. Zhang Shan did not even need to do anything.

There were hundreds of hunters in front of them, and they easily defeated all the people who rushed out.

It was simply too simple to deal with one person and two pairs.

what's going on? are they just giving away their lives? "

"Who knows what kind of tricks the unparalleled gentleman is playing? Don't worry about them, we'll get into formation and take down whoever comes out."

"Don't be careless. Pay attention to their movements."

The unparalleled gentleman kept sending people to their deaths, which made people feel very strange.

he would not expect to take back beast king valley with such a method.

"Perhaps the unparalleled gentleman is just trying to numb us. Be careful."

sigh, it's a pity that I don't get experience from killing people. Otherwise, I could kill until tomorrow, hehe.

...

“I’m afraid you’ll be too tired of chopping them.”

how can that be? my name is Dongfang kangren King. I’ve never been soft-hearted.

The unparalleled gentleman’s methods were very confusing. The wind and cloud Guild could only respond to the changes by staying the same.

There was no other way to deal with it. Since the other party was willing to give up his head, he would just take it.

The opposite side continued to rush out and then fell to the ground one by one, which lasted for quite a while.

The hunters at the front were still fine. They had to lock on and attack the people who rushed out.

As for The Guardian Warriors and mages who were standing at the back, they were a little numb.

There was nothing to do at all. It felt like there was no need for so many people to defend. Just one or two hundred hunters would be enough to defend the place.

Of course, this was only in the case that no other accidents happened.

Suddenly, a few of the peerless Guild’s members who had rushed out had a strange ring of light around them.

Zhang Shan and the rest of the hunters, when they shot, it was all ‘miss’. They could not deal any damage at all.

f * ck, what’s going on? I can’t move at all.

pay attention, everyone. They all have an invincibility effect that lasts for five seconds. It might be the effect of a scroll.

“F * ck, there’s still an invincible scroll? That’s bullshit.”

” don’t panic. the invincibility effect only lasts for five seconds. in such a short time, they won’t be able to make it out of the encirclement. ”

Chapter 222 The Thunder scroll

It was unknown where peerless Guild had gotten their hands on an invincibility scroll, but everyone who charged out had an invincibility effect on their heads.

“Hurry, Guardian Warriors, go forward and restrain these people who are rushing out.”

everyone else, don’t move. Even if you can’t move, maintain your attacks. After five seconds, quickly clear these people out.

Even though he was caught off guard, Feng Yun realm still arranged it calmly.

if unparalleled gentleman only had this one invincible move, then there was indeed no need to panic.

It only lasted for five seconds. How many of them could rush out in five seconds?

at most, there would only be a few hundred people. it was not a problem at all.

However, very quickly, Feng Yun realm realized that he had been too careless.

One of the players with an invincibility status above his head took out another scroll and slowly disappeared.

Endless Thunderbolts enveloped the wind and cloud Guild, and almost all the wind and cloud guild members who were guarding the entrance of the passage were cleared out in an instant.

only the people standing on both sides of the passage were not affected.

Everyone else, be it Feng Yun realm from the mage team or secretary Feng Yun from the Guardian team, were all killed instantly.

The Thunder scroll that peerless had brought out this time was far more powerful than expected.

It was much stronger than the ultimate skill of a player, and not only was the damage ridiculously high, but it was also much stronger.

They would die if they touched it, and the area of effect was also very large. Zhang Shan and the rest could not see the damage range described in the scroll.

However, just by looking at the actual results, one could roughly estimate their defensive lineup of a few thousand people.

The Thunder scroll had wiped out almost all of them, and the damage range should be at least 100 yards.

It was a terrifying scroll.

Feng Yun realm and the rest were on the ground. Now, only Zhang Shan and a few dozen people were left guarding the entrance.

On the other hand, peerless Guild's players were still rushing out. The situation was extremely urgent. He had been too careless.

everyone, stop farming monsters. Quickly move closer to the passage and clear out the Qi players who are rushing in.

feng yun realm anxiously shouted in the guild channel. initially, he thought that he had overestimated peerless by increasing the number of players defending.

Who knew that the unparalleled gentleman had such a powerful trump card in his hands.

An invincibility scroll and a super-powerful AoE damage scroll directly wiped out almost all of the wind and cloud Guild's defense members.

Fortunately, the other guild members were only farming monsters near the passage.

they still had a chance of suppressing peerless.

Zhang Shan and the others, who were still present, faced the hundreds of peerless guild members who had already rushed out.

Moreover, there were still people in the passageway, and they were continuously rushing out. It was almost impossible to hold them back.

Zhang Shan did not care too much. He went all out and activated his fanatic skill.

The bullets flew out at high speed, knocking down the peerless guild members one by one. However, he was not enough to do it alone.

If he didn't suppress the entrance of the passage, the number of people he knocked down wouldn't be as many as the number of people who rushed out.

The others did the same. They launched their intense firepower at peerless, but they were still unable to suppress the momentum of the enemy's charge.

Moreover, the other party would not just take a beating without fighting back. There were originally dozens of people left in the wind and cloud Guild.

Under the attack of the peerless Guild, the number of players kept decreasing. Zhang Shan also endured the endless pressure and fought to defeat more members of the peerless Guild.

He couldn't let them occupy the entrance of the passage. Otherwise, more than 200000 Qi Kingdom's players would rush in.

Then, their wind and cloud Guild would definitely not be able to hold on.

Zhang Shan's fierce firepower had knocked down countless peerless Guild players. Of course, he had also attracted a lot of firepower.

f * ck, quick, let's focus our fire on six-barreled Bodhisattva first. We can't let him beat our people one by one like he's hunting rabbits.

"Do you know how to talk? you're the rabbit."

what are you talking about? let's attack together and take down six-barreled Bodhisattva first.

Peerless Guild had already sent out a few hundred players, and this was under Zhang Shan's fierce firepower.

Otherwise, the number of peerless guild members who had entered the beast King Valley map would have probably reached a thousand.

feng yun realm and the rest were still lying on the ground. those who were originally farming monsters in beast king valley would take some time to rush over.

Most of the people who had survived like Zhang Shan had already been knocked down.

The remaining dozen or so people probably wouldn't be able to hold on for long.

Not to mention them, Zhang Shan felt that he might not be able to hold on until the arrival of the reinforcement.

This time, he was afraid that he would fall to the ground. However, falling to the ground was not scary, as long as the others won, it would be the same.

At that time, there would naturally be a support to pull him up.

Zhang Shan only needed to take down as many members of the peerless Guild as possible. The more people he took down, the more he would have to.

The pressure on the other members of wind and cloud Guild would be reduced.

Hundreds of peerless guild members surrounded Zhang Shan.

Before these people could even get close to him, a large number of them had already fallen.

...

However, there were too many people rushing over, and Zhang Shan could not run away now.

If he ran away, he would be following peerless's wishes.

Their main purpose of besieging Zhang Shan was not to defeat him, but to drive him away.

As long as Zhang Shan ran away, the number of people from the peerless Guild would increase, and they would rush out faster.

Thus, Zhang Shan would rather fall to the ground than take a step back. Anyway, there were still a lot of people from the wind and cloud Guild rushing over.

As the number of people surrounding Zhang Shan increased, he could no longer suppress these people.

All sorts of damage kept falling on Zhang Shan's head. At the start, he could still rely on the lifesteal effect to hold on.

However, as he took more and more damage, the lifesteal effect was slowly running out.

Dozens of Warriors, after getting close to Zhang Shan, quickly used their charge skill, surrounding him and slashing at him.

zhang shan controlled the panda baby and used his combo skill to kill one of them. however, there were too many of them.

He could not hold on any longer. As for the other survivors, they had all fallen to the ground.

...

Near the entrance of the tunnel, only Zhang Shan from the wind and cloud Guild was still holding on.

At this moment, a group of players from the wind and cloud Guild who were originally farming monsters finally rushed over.

holy sh * t! Brother divine weapon is still alive! Let's go and help him!

"Let's go together and force the peerless Guild back."

At this point, the number of peerless guild members that had entered beast King Valley's map amounted to one to two thousand.

However, the first wave of wind and cloud guild members who came to support them numbered in the thousands.

There were still other people coming from behind. On the surface, they still had the advantage.

The group of people instantly started fighting.

Zhang Shan was still alive when the reinforcements arrived, but he did not last long.

Surrounded by dozens of kitchen knives, coupled with all kinds of long-range damage on the periphery, he quickly fell to the ground, his first life lost just like that.

Chapter 223 the unparalleled gentleman falls to the ground

Under the various attacks, Zhang Shan fell to the ground.

However, he still had the passive [rebirth] which could be triggered, and he could revive after ten seconds.

Moreover, the first batch of reinforcements from the wind and cloud Guild had arrived, and the situation had turned for the better.

While Zhang Shan was lying on the ground, waiting to be resurrected, the wind and cloud Guild's support rushed over.

He pulled up a portion of the players who had fallen to the ground. There were too many players who had been knocked down by the Thunder scroll.

There weren't enough supports who rushed over to help, so they could only pull up a portion of the fallen players.

Feng Yun realm was the first to be revived.

This guy was also furious. As the Guild leader, he had been killed in an instant.

The key point was that the entire team had almost collapsed. Fortunately, the other players who were farming monsters were not far away, and their reinforcements had come quickly enough.

Otherwise, they might not be able to defend beast King Valley, this farming point.

Feng Yun realm stood up again and used his ultimate on peerless's guild members.

A rain of fire fell from the sky, directly clearing out more than half of them.

The remaining members of the peerless Guild were still struggling, while the Qi Kingdom's players outside the beast King Valley were still struggling.

They did not give up and continued to enter the beast King Valley through the small path.

“Quickly clear out their people and take control of the entrance again.”

As the number of peerless guild members on the battlefield decreased, the players from wind cloud Guild continued to rush over.

Feng Yun realm felt that this should be settled. He just needed to quickly clear out these peerless guild members who had already rushed in.

At this moment, unparalleled gentleman, who had been waiting outside the beast King Valley, could no longer sit still.

In order to take back the beast King Valley’s grinding spot from the wind cloud Guild, he had put in a lot of effort.

those two scrolls were his most prized possessions. if he still couldn’t defeat the wind cloud guild and take back the monster farming spot in beast king valley, he would suffer a huge loss.

“all of you, follow me,”

Peerless gentleman shouted as he led his Guild’s elites into the tunnel.

He was going to take action personally. He still had a trump card, so he had to give it a try.

Although the situation was getting worse for peerless Guild, peerless gentleman was like a gambler.

Since he had already put in some of his chips, there was no reason to give up halfway. He could only increase his chips layer by layer until he lost all his chips.

Currently, the entrance to the passage was still in the hands of peerless Guild, even though more than half of their people who had entered the beast King Valley had already been killed.

However, the remaining people were still holding on. Feng Yun realm led his men and pressed forward.

They didn’t manage to clear everyone out.

Peerless gentleman led his Guild’s elite members into beast King Valley. As soon as he entered, he brandished his two swords, and a large number of sword lights fell on the members of wind and cloud Guild.

f * ck! Unparalleled gentleman also has the invincible slash skill? ”

“Don’t panic. We still have a lot of people. His ultimate skill can’t kill that many of us.”

As the sword light fell, a large number of wind and cloud guild members fell to the ground. Fortunately, more and more people arrived.

although unparalleled gentleman had knocked out nearly 2000 players with one ultimate skill, the wind and cloud guild still had the upper hand on the battlefield.

at this time, zhang shan’s passive rebirth was finally triggered. he stood up again, full of health.

Having been knocked down once, although he had two lives, Zhang Shan was still a little unhappy.

If the reinforcements had not come quickly enough, his two lives would not have been enough.

Zhang Shan stood up again, and the bullets of revenge were quickly fired from the hand cannon.

Peerless gentleman's invincible slash skill's duration ended, and when he had cast the skill, his invisible body had also returned to a state where he could attack.

"Quick, let's kill unparalleled gentleman first, in case he has any other tricks up his sleeve," that's right. Let's charge together and kill the unparalleled gentleman first. This guy has so many tricks up his sleeve.

zhang shan also wanted to take down the peerless guild first. a snake without a head couldn't do. he only needed to take down the leader of the other party.

then the rest of the things should be much smoother.

Looking at the distance between him and unparalleled gentleman, he could not reach him for the time being.

Zhang Shan could not attack unparalleled gentleman now, and the other people from wind and cloud Guild could not reach him either.

After casting the invincible slash, unparalleled gentleman took out another scroll and used it.

"F * ck, again."

The members of wind and cloud were scared out of their wits. How could peerless have so many scrolls?

He had already used two of them, and now there was another one. Where did this unparalleled gentleman get so many scrolls?

"Damn it, I should have put my life on the line just now to cut down the unparalleled gentleman."

As the scroll in the unparalleled gentleman's hand slowly disappeared, Zhang Shan leaped and quickly closed the distance between him and unparalleled gentleman.

Ba ba ba shot three times in a row, knocking the unparalleled gentleman to the ground.

However, the scroll had already taken effect, and a large amount of lightning fell again. However, the power of the lightning scroll this time seemed to be slightly weaker than before.

The area of effect was not as wide as the previous one, but it still took down two to three thousand players from wind and cloud.

This time, Zhang Shan was not as lucky as before. He was also within the range of the scroll's damage.

As the lightning struck, he fell to the ground. The second time he fell, his passive rebirth would only reset after 24 hours.

In other words, he was really dead this time and could only be resurrected by the support.

Feng Yun realm was not spared as well and he was knocked down a second time.

The support's resurrection skills were not enough. The players who had fallen could only wait for a new support to arrive or for the other support's resurrection skills to cool down before they could be revived.

"Hurry up and press on, don't let them resurrect the unparalleled gentleman. I don't know if that guy has any more scrolls."

Feng Yun realm, who was lying on the ground, was also a little scared. He never thought that the unparalleled gentleman would be able to get so many scrolls.

Previously, he had considered the possibility that peerless might have an ultimate skill or one or two scrolls.

He didn't expect them to have all of them, and the power of the scrolls was so great. He almost screwed up.

Although the wind and cloud Guild had been hit by powerful scrolls or big moves a few times, they still had a lot of people.

After a few rounds, their numbers were still several times that of peerless.

They originally had more than 40000 people, and they were farming monsters in beast King Valley.

Even though the unparalleled gentleman had brought more people with him, they had to pass through the narrow entrance.

Time was not on their side as they gradually entered the beast King Valley map. The wind and cloud Guild did not give the other party any more chances.

Zhang Shan was pulled up by the newly arrived support and re-entered the battle. The other members of the wind cloud Guild also attacked bravely.

All kinds of damage were being dealt to the entrance of the tunnel, gradually pushing them back.

At this moment, the unparalleled gentleman was still lying on the ground. After he had been knocked down by Zhang Shan, there was no support to pull him up.

The reason was simple. The moment unparalleled gentleman fell to the ground, the wind and cloud Guild quickly pressed forward.

If he didn't provide any support to the other party, the opportunity to resurrect the unparalleled gentleman would be equivalent to being spawn camped.

Chapter 224 The end of the war

As unparalleled gentleman was defeated, the wind and cloud Guild regained control of the tunnel entrance.

the qi kingdom players outside the beast king valley had given up after trying a few more times to no avail.

“The wind and cloud Guild is indeed strong. I admit defeat this time.”

Peerless gentleman, who was lying on the ground, turned into a ray of white light and left after saying those words. The other peerless guild members who had fallen on the ground also chose to return to the city to revive.

After the chaotic battle, more players from wind and cloud had fallen. Peerless had two scrolls and an invincible slash.

At least tens of thousands of them had been defeated, but fortunately, they had won. Those who had fallen could slowly revive with the help of the other side.

On the other hand, although peerless had fewer players on the ground, the entrance to the passage was once again under the control of wind and cloud.

It was impossible for their support to enter the beast King Valley to resurrect their people, so they could only choose to resurrect in the city.

After fending off the enemy, the wind and cloud Guild did not go back to farm monsters. Instead, they continued to defend the passage.

The support players revived the fallen players in an orderly manner.

As there were too many people on the ground, there weren't enough supports. Fortunately, most of the current supports had learned resurrection skills.

If it was still like before, where resurrection skills were scarce, the people who fell here would be killed.

Most probably, a large portion of them would not be able to wait until they were revived and could only choose to return to the city to revive.

It was still fine for now. As long as they slowly waited for the support's cooldown to end, the Guild members who were lying on the ground could basically be revived.

” asiba, it was really dangerous just now. we almost lost the defense. ” that's right. Peerless sure has a lot of tricks up their sleeves. Those two Thunder scrolls are truly terrifying, especially the one they used for the first time. Its damage range is really huge.

I wonder where they got these scrolls from. Why can't we get these scrolls? ”

“who knows? i've never seen a scroll before.”

“Also, how could the unparalleled gentleman have an ultimate skill? I've never heard of it before.”

there are so many things you haven't heard of. There's an equipment ranking list for equipment, but there's no skill ranking list. If he doesn't say it out loud, no one will know about it.

that guy is so cunning. He almost screwed us over.

” hehe, he's still lacking some skill. if the unparalleled gentleman had used one or two more scrolls or ultimate skills, we might really have been screwed. ”

“it’s a good thing that divine weapon bro defeated unparalleled gentleman first. otherwise, that guy might have taken out another scroll or something.”

you’re thinking too much. Where is he going to get so many scrolls and ultimate skills? we only have three ultimate skills. We don’t even have a single scroll.

even so, you still can’t underestimate others. If the peerless Guild already has so many trump cards, I’m sure the other top guilds have the same number of trump cards.

yes, we still have to work hard. We have to kill more bosses and get more skill books and equipment.

“I also want to fight the boss, but I can’t find it.”

“I’ll look for more in the future. I’m sure I’ll find a few.”

The members of the wind cloud Guild were guarding the entrance to the beast King Valley, not daring to relax at all.

Although the unparalleled gentleman had returned to the beast King Valley to be resurrected, there were still more than 200 wanqi Kingdom players who had not left.

Without waiting for them to leave, the wind and cloud Guild would not dare to let their guard down. Who knew if the unparalleled gentleman would come back?

At this moment, the unparalleled gentleman, who had been resurrected at heaven’s gate, was talking to the Dragon of the West Mountain.

come back, everyone. If we can’t defeat the wind and cloud Guild, we won’t be able to get back the monster-farming spot in beast King Valley.

Unparalleled gentleman said unwillingly. This time, it was different from the last time. Last time, he did not want to go all out against the wind and cloud Guild.

That was why he gave up on the free-for-all battle and chose to issue a guild challenge. However, his luck was very bad.

In the challenge mode, they were randomly assigned to a five-person Arena mode and were swept by Zhang Shan’s group of five.

But this time, it was different. This time, he had used up all his cards, but he still couldn’t defeat the wind and cloud Guild.

Although the wind and cloud Guild had the terrain advantage, the possibility of success was not high.

however, unparalleled gentleman was still not satisfied. it was not just because he had not managed to get the beast king valley, which was such a good place to farm monsters.

The main point was that they had once again failed at the hands of the wind and cloud Guild. They made it seem as if their Guild, peerless, was weak.

however, if he couldn’t win, he couldn’t win. no matter how unwilling he was, he had no choice.

he had no intention of going again. he had used up all his trump cards, and now he had almost used up all his scrolls.

His big move was still on cooldown, and the wind and cloud Guild's defense was definitely more targeted.

he would never give them another chance, so unparalleled gentleman could only choose to give up. he would wait for the next opportunity to seek revenge on the wind and cloud guild.

hearing that the unparalleled gentleman was going to give up, the dragon of the west mountain was also very helpless.

Just now, the West Mountain Guild had also participated in the attack on the passageway, but not many people had gone over.

Peerless's members were the main force.

The Dragon of the Western Hills knew that the unparalleled gentleman had tried his best, but he still had not taken back the monster farming spot in the beast King Valley.

In comparison, West Mountain Dragon was only a little unhappy, but he was not really unwilling to accept it.

After this chaotic battle, the Dragon of West Mountain saw the gap between their West Mountain Guild and the other top guilds.

Even the wind and cloud Guild, which was ranked at the bottom of the top ten guilds, was so powerful.

What else could he do? the only thing he could do was to improve his Guild's strength.

alright, I'll have the others retreat. We'll take revenge on the wind and cloud Guild in the future.

the unparalleled gentleman decided to give up. he was still a dragon in the west mountain outside the beast king valley. he led the remaining qi kingdom players and left.

since he didn't plan on fighting anymore, then what was the point of staying here? time was precious, so he might as well go farm monsters and level up.

More than 200000 people had scattered without doing anything.

the unparalleled gentleman had brought his men and charged over in a grandiose manner, but in the end, he had really entered the arena.

They were the main force members of their Guild and some other elite players of the Qi state.

As for the others, they were just here to be bystanders.

seeing the qi players leaving one after another, the wind cloud guild could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

Although they had claimed that they had won the battle, it had still been very dangerous. Moreover, not many of peerless's members had died.

They were really afraid that the unparalleled gentleman would come again.

Now that the people outside had left, the unparalleled gentleman must have really given up.

"What do we do now? the qi players have all left, so how should we arrange the defense?"

Although the players of Qi state had left, the defense still had to be arranged. As for how many people to be arranged, it had to be considered.

"Arrange 100 people to defend. In addition, make sure that the people farming nearby can come over at any time. Also, place two bandits outside the beast King Valley as sentries."

Feng Yun realm ordered.

It was better to play it safe. Who knew if there were other people besides the peerless Guild who were also planning to attack beast King Valley?

Chapter 225 A new way to play the monster siege after feng yun realm arranged the defense, the rest of them continued to farm monsters in beast king valley.

A few days had passed, and Zhang Shan had reached level 32. The others, including boss Wu, had also reached level 30.

The number of players with mounts in the game gradually increased.

Even though a good Mount was expensive, players who had reached level 30 did not choose to buy the date red Horse.

a date red horse that cost 100 gold coins was too much.

Even Mr. Wu had to buy a White Horse at the very least. He had gritted his teeth and spent 500000 gold coins to buy a Dawan horse.

The speed of his Mount could not be too slow. Otherwise, if the difference in speed was too great, he would not be able to keep up with Zhang Shan.

Now that there were more people riding horses, it was also a form of suppression on Zhang Shan's combat power.

In the past, when he didn't have to face many players, he could just stand still and do nothing.

Without tens or hundreds of enemies, it would be impossible to rush to his side and suppress him with proper firepower.

however, it was impossible now. if everyone was on their horses, they would be able to rush in front of him in an instant and then dismount to attack.

If he wanted to be like before, standing still and getting an A-level attack, Zhang Shan still had to think of ways to strengthen himself and his strength in all aspects.

These few days, beast King Valley had been very peaceful, even though there would be players from other countries passing by beast King Valley from time to time.

However, there did not seem to be any forces that had the intention to farm monsters in beast King Valley.

The wind and cloud Guild's strength was there for all to see, and most people wouldn't come looking for trouble.

As for the top guilds, none of them came to cause trouble for them.

Although the monster farming spot in beast King Valley was excellent and gave the same amount of experience as the monsters at heaven's gate, it did not have the Holy demon's protection.

It could be said to be a grinding spot that players dreamed of.

However, such a grinding spot wasn't the only one. After knowing that wind and cloud Guild had occupied one of these grinding spots, he felt a little disappointed.

The other guilds had also sent out a large number of people to search Heaven's Gate.

they did find a few similar places.

in heaven's gate, as long as it was a beast-shaped monster, it would be like this. there was no need for them to come and fight for the monster-farming spot in beast king valley.

After the situation had stabilized.

The big bosses of wind cloud Guild no longer had the mood to stay in beast King Valley and farm monsters after they got on their horses.

They formed their own teams and fought bosses everywhere, not just in Heaven's Gate.

They had searched all the maps in Dangyang city, but they still couldn't find many bosses.

Of course, they were only ordinary mini-bosses. They had never encountered a real-name BOSS like chakra.

Those small bosses, even if they were just normal red bosses, did not require Zhang Shan to step in.

The big bosses in the Guild could be settled by themselves. Zhang Shan did not join in the fun.

Right now, he just wanted to quietly farm monsters and strive to reach level 40 as soon as possible. Zhang Shan felt that right now, he only had damage output, and his survival ability was not strong.

Even though he had the passive [rebirth] and a movement skill like [leap], he was still surrounded by many players.

this was still not enough to save his life. he still had to strengthen it, especially find a way to increase his hp.

With his current level, there was no way he could buy a level 30 purple cape.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan did not want to buy it. He still had a level 40 purple cape in his storage.

as long as he quickly reached level 40, he would be able to wear it.

Leveling up was very difficult for everyone, but now there was a monster-farming spot in beast King Valley.

With Zhang Shan's farming speed, it was not slow. At least, it was much faster than when he had reached level 30.

Taking advantage of the time now, while others were still trying to experience the novelty of buying a Mount, Zhang Shan took the opportunity to farm monsters and level up.

On average, he would level up once every four to five days, so it would only take him a little more than a month to reach level 40.

By the time the other players had recovered, Zhang Shan might have already left them far behind in terms of level. Hehe.

At this moment, Zhang Shan was leading boss Wu, wind and cloud blade, and heart moves with me. The four of them formed a team to farm monsters in beast King Valley.

For their Guild's skill assistance, a four-person team was the best solution, which could increase an additional 20% experience.

Other than Zhang Shan, the other three's leveling speed was also very fast. The four of them were almost at the top of the level rankings.

Windcloud blade, a Big Shot who liked to cause trouble, had not followed the others to find bosses these past few days.

Honestly, he followed Zhang Shan to farm monsters and level up. Following Zhang Shan to level up was really fast.

otherwise, how could he live such a comfortable life, almost reaching rank 31.

While the four of them were killing monsters, boss Wu suddenly said.

"hey, there's an announcement. go to the official website and take a look. the new rules for the monster attack have been released."

"ASIBA, is it true? The monster siege event has finally been updated. I feel like it's been a long time since we last had this event."

yeah, in the beginning, there was only a monster attack once a week. After six bosses rose to level 30, there was no more monster attack.

I'm going to take a look at the monster siege event and see what it's like. Now that the players' strength has increased a lot, could it be that the event has been made more difficult? " it's normal to increase the difficulty, as long as it's possible.

As Zhang Shan was farming monsters, he opened the official website to check the event Update announcement.

After taking a closer look, the monster siege event had indeed changed a lot.

First of all, the frequency of the event had decreased. Previously, it was once a week. Now, it had changed to a monthly monster attack.

The event was scheduled for 8:00 p.m. On the 6th of every month, which was tomorrow.

another major change was that in the future, monster attacks would no longer be carried out in the city.

The monsters would only appear outside the city and would not be able to enter the city. There would be an NPC Army guarding the city gates and city walls.

The players could only leave the city to intercept the monsters that were attacking the city.

If they fought monsters outside the city, they would lose experience points when they died, just like usual.

There was no limit to the number of times a player could die. As long as they were not afraid of losing levels and experience, they could continue to die.

In addition, because the battle was carried out outside the city, players could also attack each other.

If he encountered a troublemaker, he could just cut them down.

At the same time, teleportation was allowed in the city again. The city gate was open as usual, and the teleportation array was also open as usual.

In other words, when the monsters attacked the city, the players could only defend and fight in their own city.

They could also go to other cities to help defend, and if they were not afraid of death, they could even go to other countries to defend.

All in all, the new way of playing the event gave the players more freedom and was no longer as limited as the previous one.

As for the event rewards, it was still the same as before. They would be ranked according to their contribution to the city defense, and they would be rewarded with treasure chests and merit points.

There were no additional rewards.

How should he put it? for most players, the rewards from the monster siege event were just fun.

If you were lucky, you would get good items.

However, most of them would not be able to get any items. They would basically be given trash materials.

Everyone's main purpose in participating in the monster siege was to fight the BOSS.

As long as they could kill a few bosses in the event, it would be better than any reward.

Chapter 226 The son of the beast God, nakaris

After reading the update announcement for the monster attack, Zhang Shan closed the official website.

This event was a major update, and the safety of battles outside the city was much lower.

They would lose experience points after death, and this setting would put a lot of pressure on the players.

It wouldn't be as easy as before, where players had to face bosses that they couldn't defeat in the city.

He could charge at any time since he wouldn't lose experience if he died. At most, he could revive and come back.

However, it was different now. Most of the players would probably become more sleazy during the event.

Although they could wait for a support to resurrect them, not all players could get help from a support.

There were still many lone wolves in the game who didn't really interact with other players.

if he were to die, he might have to resurrect in the city.

Another point was that when monsters attacked the city, players could attack each other.

There were pros and cons to this setting. The good thing was that if he encountered a troublemaker, he could just directly cut them down.

There was no need to mention the disadvantages. They had to be careful when fighting the BOSS in case someone with bad hands came.

if he were to land two hits on the tank who was carrying the BOSS, he would be in tears.

However, in general, this Event Update was also updated in line with the growth of the players 'strength.

There were already many players who had reached level 30 in terms of damage, defense, and HP.

if they continued to defend the city and fight the bosses, there might really be a situation where there weren't enough bosses to fight.

After the update, there would not be this problem. After attacking one's own city, one could still attack other cities.

Besides, the city would not be closed during the event. If they really killed all the monsters attacking the city ...

They could also go and farm monsters. In any case, the city gates and teleportation circles were open, so it would not affect the players' movements.

do you guys think that there will be more powerful bosses after this update? for example, a demon general or something? ”

Windcloud blade asked after reading the event Update announcement.

Many days had passed, but he still had no clue about the mission to challenge the demon general.

The key was that they could not find the demon general. Without a mission target, what were they going to do?

“That’s hard to say, maybe there really will be.”

brother, you must be possessed. You think about fighting the demon general every day. If a demon general really appears and completely overpowers us, that would be tragic.

“What a Dragon, Lord ye, hehe.”

“i’d rather be crushed by the demon general than be like this, completely unable to find my target.”

that’s true. We’re not afraid of the boss being difficult to defeat, but we’re afraid of not being able to find it. As long as we find it, we’ll be able to defeat it one day.

don’t worry. Maybe when the monsters attack the city tomorrow, a demon general will really appear.

” it’s possible. right general locke should have a few sesame generals under his command. ”

“Yes, you should be prepared, hehe.”

As soon as the monster siege was announced, the whole game was in an uproar, especially those players who had not reached level 30 yet.

They were also making the best use of their time to kill monsters and level up. If they were fighting outside the city, they would have to run very slowly without horses.

Moreover, after level 30, they could upgrade their equipment, which would greatly increase their combat power.

Zhang Shan took a look at his character’s attributes. He did not seem to have anything to increase.

However, he could upgrade his engineering level, as long as he reached the engineer level.

He could start making the basic burning bullets, which had attributes and burning effects.

at the same time, he could also increase his combat strength.

however, there was no need to rush now. in any case, he had already collected a lot of materials.

Hence, he decided to try and level up his engineering.

have you found the BOSS in beast King Valley? ”

Zhang Shan asked wind cloud blade.

He was also curious. Beast King Valley was such a big map, there should be a BOSS.

At the very least, there had to be a beast King or something of the sort. Otherwise, how could it be called beast King Valley?

however, the wind and cloud guild had occupied this place and had been killing monsters for several days.

No one had seen a BOSS before, so it was really strange.

we didn't find it. Boss even asked someone to scan the entire map, but we still didn't see it. It's really strange.

could it be that the BOSS here has some kind of trigger condition before it will appear? ”

“I don't know. I don't think so. What are the conditions to trigger this? It can't be the same as a dungeon where all the monsters have to be cleared before the BOSS comes out, right?”

I don't think so. It's almost impossible. There are so many wild monsters here, and their respawn speed is so fast. How can they be done? ”

“I don't know. Just wait. We'll know when the BOSS respawns. There's no one else here, so we don't have to worry about it being stolen.”

“You're right.”

Zhang Shan also wanted to fight the BOSS, but he did not want to run around.

What a waste of time. He still wanted to level up as soon as possible. He wanted to kill both monsters and bosses.

It was a contradiction. If there was a BOSS in a map where monsters spawned, it would not be perfect.

Just as Zhang Shan was fantasizing, a call came from the Guild channel.

come quickly. A super big tiger has appeared here.

What? Zhang Shan could not believe it. Just now, he was thinking how great it would be if there were bosses to fight in the beast King Valley.

A BOSS had really appeared? He couldn't be that godly.

“Where is it? is it the BOSS?”

Windcloud blade also asked excitedly. The other big shots had been looking for bosses everywhere for the past few days.

In order to get more experience from Zhang Shan, he did not go with him.

they didn't expect there to be a BOSS in beast king valley. they were just talking about it.

it's definitely a BOSS. It's a very big tiger, tall and powerful. Its name is also amazing. It's called the son of the beast God, nakaris.

"Holy shit, son of the beast deity? Wouldn't that be too strong? can we beat him?"

"I don't know. I've never tried it."

" what's there to be afraid of? who knows what the beast god is and what he's like. maybe he has thousands of sons, and this tiger is the weakest one. hehe. "

"Alright, this reason is very strong. I believe it."

"F * ck, did a BOSS appear in beast King Valley? Don't fight yet, wait for us."

Those big shots who were looking for bosses outside were rushing over when they heard that a BOSS had appeared in beast King Valley.

why would we wait for you guys? we have tens of thousands of people here. Do you think we can't defeat a small BOSS? "

Wind cloud blade teased.

"Even if you don't plan to wait for me, you should at least wait for boss. Boss is with us. Do you plan to let boss go over to see the Tiger's corpse?"

alright, on feng yun realm's account, she would wait for them.

Zhang Shan and the other three stopped farming and went to see the big tiger first. They could stop fighting for now.

But at least he could see what the BOSS looked like. He was the son of the beast God. It sounded very awesome.

Chapter 227 The tiger's roar in the forest zhang shan and the other three rode their horses to the guild channel and ran to the nakaris coordinates provided.

Now that they had horses, they could run much faster. If they had to rely on their legs to run, even if it was only in the beast King Valley map, they would still be able to escape.

Among the four of them, only boss Wu's Dawan horse was a little slower.

Both wind and cloud blade and heart moves were hero mounts that he had bought. Wind and cloud blade's Mount was a Dragon elephant, while heart moves was a hero Mount that he had bought, Luma.

It didn't take long for the four of them to see the son of the beast God, nakaris. His huge figure could be clearly seen from a distance.

Nakaris was like a mountain, swaying back and forth in the distance. His huge body was shocking.

Zhang Shan looked at the Panda bear beside him and then compared it to nakaris in the distance.

It was like the difference between an ant and an elephant. The son of the beast deity was indeed very boastful. It was just that he didn't know how strong he was.

No one went up to test out nakaris 'attributes and skills.

before zhang shan and the others arrived, there were already many members of the wind and cloud guild who had rushed over. however, everyone stayed far away to watch the BOSS.

No one stepped forward. There was no need to look at the attributes. Just by looking at the head, one could tell that nakaris was indeed the son of the beast.

it was definitely not to be trifled with, and no one would be able to withstand a single blow from it.

this is so weird. How did we not notice such a Big Boss before? how did you guys find it? " wind and cloud blade asked the guild member who had discovered nakaris.

there wasn't one before. When we were farming monsters nearby, we suddenly saw a huge shadow. After taking a closer look, we saw the BOSS in the distance.

"F * ck, did it just spawn?"

I don't know. I think so. Otherwise, he must have run here from somewhere else.

it can't be from another place. Our people are killing monsters everywhere in the entire beast King Valley. If the BOSS had appeared before, it would have been discovered long ago.

"That's right, it should have just been refreshed."

what should we do? we're not even as big as the boss's head and foot. It's not going to be easy.

what's there to be afraid of? size is not a problem. Chakra is so small, but he's still very strong. This nakaris looks so tall and strong. It's hard to say if he's a fake.

"Oh, really? why don't you go and try?"

"There's no rush. Let's wait for the boss and the others to arrive first."

Wind and cloud blade said.

This nakaris was definitely very fierce. As for how fierce he was, it was hard to say.

however, beast king valley was a level 50 monster map. logically speaking, the bosses that appeared here were generally level 50, and the most were not above level 60.

Under normal circumstances, of course, they wouldn't be able to beat him, but they had a lot of people.

In the beast King Valley, their wind and cloud Guild had more than 40000 players, farming monsters here.

With so many people attacking him at once, no matter how strong nakaris was, it would be useless. They could pile on him to death.

“Should we test out the BOSS” attributes and skills first? It’ll take a while for boss and the others to get here.”

A newbie from the Guild asked.

” that’s fine. someone go and try. everyone else, back off. don’t get caught up in it. nakaris’s aggro range will probably be huge. ”

All the Guild members who were watching the scene retreated to the distance, even though they were standing quite far away.

however, to be on the safe side, everyone moved back a little. otherwise, if they accidentally attracted the BOSS ‘aggro, they would be done for.

an archer from the guild stepped forward and shot a meteor arrow at nakaris from afar.

When it came to testing the BOSS’s attributes, archers were still the best. Meteor Arrow’s range was extremely long.

It allowed players to attack the BOSS from far away and check its attributes.

Especially for a target as big as nakaris, he didn’t have to worry about missing.

The whole thing was like a mountain. As long as the direction was right, there was no need to worry about missing.

After the meteor arrow hit the boss, nakaris broke free from the skill that could stun the boss for five seconds in less than half a second.

the archer tried to struggle after shooting the meteor arrow, but before he could run two steps ...

A huge claw came down and smacked him to death.

however, even though he had died, nakaris’s attributes and skills were still displayed on the guild channel.

Son of the beast deity, nakaris (red): Level 50, attack 40000, HP 25000000.

Skill 1, slam, skill 2, divine power (passive), skill 3, beast God’s will, skill 4, tiger’s roar in the forest.

[slam: deals twice the damage when this skill is used.]

[divine power (passive): a power bestowed to nakaris by the orc God. All attributes are increased.]

[beast God’s will: when in danger, nakaris will summon the beast God’s shadow to assist in battle.]

[tiger’s roar in the forest: with a furious roar, nakaris deals 5x damage to surrounding enemies within a 100-yard radius.]

holy sh * t, this son of the beast deity is a little strong. It’s not easy to deal with him.

he's not just a little strong. He's practically exploding, isn't he? "

"that's right. they're both level 50 real name bosses, but gitanas only has 20000 attack and 120 million hp. this nakaris is twice as strong as gitanas."

...

"It's because of that divine power skill, right? is the power bestowed by the beast God so awesome? All of my attributes have more than doubled."

"I really want this skill. Why can't I get such a good skill?"

"Because you don't have a beast God Father, hehe."

"go to hell."

Zhang Shan looked at the attributes and skills of the son of the beast deity and felt his head throb. He did not notice that nakaris' attack and HP were high.

To be honest, although nakaris's attack power was ridiculously high, reaching a crazy number of 40000, nakaris's attack power was still too weak.

However, Zhang Shan felt that this was not a big deal. At least the Panda dumpling should be able to hold on for a while.

Now, the Panda bear had also followed Zhang Shan to level 32. His HP had increased to more than 140000.

Nakaris' 40000 attack, plus the double damage from the slam skill, was 80000 damage.

This amount of damage wasn't a big problem for the Panda ball. Even if nakaris dealt a critical hit, it would only deal 160000 damage in theory.

With the Panda ball's defense and passive damage reduction skills, it was impossible for him to be killed in one hit.

...

As long as the support added blood in time, it wasn't that easy for the Panda team to die.

the key was nakaris' ultimate skill, which dealt five times the damage and had an effective range of 100 yards.

It was simply unreasonably strong. Who could withstand it? As long as he used a big move, wouldn't they all fall?

Whether it was a tank or a damage dealer, no one could withstand such damage.

Nakaris had 40000 attack power, so the 5x damage was 200000 damage in theory.

Not to mention the players, even the Panda bear ball might not be able to withstand such damage.

Chapter 228 Double curse

Nakaris 'attributes and skills were all extremely powerful. He also had a lot of HP, which was as high as 250 million.

It seemed like it would take some effort to blow it up.

This time, relying on the Panda bear group might not be enough, unless they could interrupt the BOSS 'casting time for his ultimate skill.

If not, nakaris would have only needed to use one ultimate skill to kill all of them who had participated in the BOSS fight.

all of them would fall to the ground, and no one would be able to escape.

However, it was not easy to interrupt the BOSS's ultimate skill.

Last time, in the entire game, all the top guilds had gathered together, but they couldn't completely interrupt Gitanas 'channeling.

It still managed to unleash a big move.

Relatively speaking, this son of the beast God was much more difficult to deal with as the BOSS had more HP.

As a result, the duration of the skill needed to be interrupted would be much longer.

The problem was that as time went on, the chances of accidents would increase. It would be very difficult to defeat the BOSS smoothly.

It was better to wait for Feng Yun realm and the others to come first. Zhang Shan was just a hired thug and he did not need to worry about other things.

The BOSS's attributes had already been tested but Feng Yun realm and the rest had not arrived yet.

Although they were all riding horses, they were too far away and it would take some time for them to run over.

Zhang Shan and the rest were farming monsters nearby, while carefully watching nakaris.

He was afraid that this big guy would suddenly move.

With such a big head, he could probably run a long distance with just two steps.

"You guys run faster. Otherwise, we'll kill the boss first."

while windcloud blade was grinding, he did not forget to urge his guild to hurry up.

"look at you. if you're so capable, then go and fight it. i don't believe that you can kill such a fierce boss so quickly."

Alright, the boss's attributes and skills were sent to the Guild channel.

All the Guild members saw it, including the big bosses of the guilds who were with Feng Yun realm.

With such a powerful boss and a lot of HP, they did not have to worry at all. They would be killed by Windcloud blade first.

“Wait a little longer, we’ll be there soon.

Feng Yun realm said.

Not long after, the other guilds ‘bosses, under the leadership of Feng Yun realm, arrived at beast King Valley one after another.

“what the f * ck? how can there be such a huge tiger? this is too exaggerated.”

“Yeah, this boss is really exaggerated.”

Everyone would be shocked when they first saw nakaris.

This son of the beast deity was indeed too big. If not for the fact that he had the shape of a Tiger and could move a little, he would have died.

It might really make people think that it was a mountain. It was ridiculous.

everyone knows the boss’s attributes and skills. What should we do? ”

Feng Yun realm asked.

what else can we do? let brother divine weapon’s Panda ball go. If it can’t take it, we’ll use others to push it.

that’s right, we’ll be done once we attack. Also, prepare some stun skills. When we’re halfway through the battle, let’s see if we can interrupt the boss’s ultimate skill.

it’s a good idea. Although it might not be realized, we still have to fight for it.

Since everyone was here, there was nothing special to be arranged. Zhang Shan controlled the Panda ball to move forward.

They were ready to fight the boss.

Nakaris’s 40000 attack, plus the damage from his 1 skill, could reach 80000 damage.

However, the Panda ball was very tanky. It could still withstand 80000 damage.

As long as the support healed in time and the boss didn’t crit too often, the boss would be able to heal.

The Panda team should be able to hold on until nakaris released his big move.

“Are there any more questions? if there are no questions, I’ll let the Panda dumpling go up.”

brother artifact, let’s go. The BOSS has 250 million HP. It’ll take a long time. If you have any questions, we’ll talk while we fight.

zhang shan didn’t waste any words. he controlled the panda ball to run in front of nakaris. compared to the BOSS’s huge size and the panda ball’s small size, nakaris’s body was much smaller.

It was simply unbearable to look at. Zhang Shan even doubted if nakaris could hit the Panda dumpling. Such a small target.

However, Zhang Shan's suspicions were quickly dispelled. He saw the Panda dumpling coming up.

Nakaris slapped the Panda ball, damage -61389.

not bad. if it wasn't a critical hit, the 60000 damage would only be around 120000 if it was a critical hit.

The Panda dumpling was still able to take it.

As nakaris attacked the Panda Group, a large number of supports followed behind.

He raised the Panda ball's health in time.

"Support, don't stop adding blood. You don't have to do anything. Just continue to heal the Panda team."

Feng Yun realm said as he attacked nakaris.

The first half of the BOSS's health was easy to deal with, as long as he wasn't too unlucky.

The Panda team had no problem tanking nakaris, and the others just needed to stand still and deal damage.

Of course, the BOSS also had a beast God's will skill, which needed to be taken seriously.

This was especially so for the others. If they were not careful, they might be wiped out by this skill.

After the Panda bear had stabilized the boss, the others also joined in the attack.

Due to the limited space, there were less than 1000 people who could really participate in the attack.

The rest of the Guild members formed their teams and waited nearby.

In order to defeat the son of the beast God, nakaris, the wind and cloud Guild had also put in a lot of effort.

Everyone in the Guild who was farming monsters in beast King Valley, except for a few people who stayed behind to guard the entrance of the passage, was left with no other choice.

Everyone else was on standby near the boss, ready to provide support at any time.

The players with the stun skill had been arranged in groups long ago.

When the boss was down to half HP, they would have to rely on their stun skills to interrupt nakaris 'ultimate.

Even if he couldn't interrupt all of them, he had to interrupt as many as possible.

Everyone who could attack the BOSS took a good position and attacked nakaris with all kinds of fierce attacks.

However, the son of the beast God, nakaris, was too big.

zhang shan and the rest were like a group of ants attacking an elephant.

If it wasn't for nakaris 'health bar slowly decreasing, they wouldn't have believed that they could take on such a ridiculous BOSS.

Feng Yun Qing Qing aimed at nakaris and cast her curse skill. Zhang Shan followed up with his berserk and fanatic skills.

Nakaris would not be destroyed so easily anyway. These two explosive skills might be able to be used again.

After Feng Yun Qing Qing's curse skill's duration ended, another support boss in the Guild also followed up with a curse skill on nakaris.

This was the second curse skill book they had obtained after fighting bosses non-stop for the past few days.

this skill was very useful, especially against powerful bosses.

With an additional curse skill, they would be able to fight much faster.

Chapter 229 The beast God projection

Under everyone's attacks, the son of the beast God, nakaris 'HP was slowly decreasing.

Not long after, the boss's HP had dropped by 10%.

haha, that won't do either. This son of the beast deity can't be a fake, right? "

"Don't be smug, hurry up and fight."

what's the rush? the boss has 250 million HP. We won't be able to finish it off in a short time. Let's take it slow.

"250 million HP isn't that much, right? with so many of us here, it shouldn't be a problem to deal 10 million HP in a minute. I think we can blow it up in half an hour."

in your dreams. Nakaris won't let us have such a smooth battle.

what's there to be afraid of? as long as the Panda ball can hold on, nakaris is just a wooden stake.

I'm just afraid he can't hold on. Look at the Panda's health, it's fluctuating. It looks unstable.

"Don't panic. If the Panda baby falls, there's still the little Secretary."

Feng Yun's little Secretary was a little speechless. After he reached level 30, he had updated his Cape and other equipment.

His HP and defense had both greatly improved. Now, his HP was more than 70000.

But if he were to tank nakaris, that would be making things difficult for him. Nakaris's attack was so terrifying.

He wouldn't be able to take it for even a moment. Unless he was lucky enough to activate a blocking skill, he might be able to block two more.

otherwise, little secretary feng yun would be just like the other fragile professions, also an instakill.

As the group of people were bragging, nakaris dealt two critical hits in a row, and the Panda team fell directly.

A group of supports stood at the back and kept adding blood, but they didn't have time to add.

"F * ck, it hasn't even started for long and the tower has already fallen."

the Warriors in front, hurry up and stop nakaris. Don't let him run around.

what are you afraid of? I don't believe that we can't take down a BOSS with so many people here.

one by one. We'll just have to wait for brother divine weapon to summon the Panda bear again.

"i'll do it."

Wind cloud blade used charge and pulled nakaris back, but he did not last more than a second.

The BOSS casually slapped down, and wind and cloud blade was immediately sent flying. The other Warriors quickly followed up.

Wave after wave, they restrained nakaris, not allowing him to attack anyone else.

Zhang Shan quickly summoned the Panda dumpling again and quickly fed it. The few supports filled up the Panda dumpling's blood volume.

after a short while, the panda dumpling's happiness returned to a healthy state. zhang shan controlled it to move forward and pull nakaris back.

"brother artifact, how much blood does your panda dumpling have now?"

"143000."

f * ck, 143000 HP is not enough. How are we going to fight the next boss? " that's right. Godly equipment bro's pet is already a very powerful bug. If it can't handle such a boss, what are we going to do in the future? "

there's nothing we can do about it. We're fighting a boss that's so many levels higher than us. Nakaris is 20 levels higher than us.

sigh, that's true, but even if our levels increase, I still feel like we can't hold on.

that's right. He's the son of the beast God, he should have some skills. If he's easily taken down, boss, don't you want your face? " alright, it's a powerful real name boss after all. It's understandable that it's a little stronger.

Everyone fought for a while more, and nakaris' health was almost reduced by 20%.

Nakaris should be able to summon the beast God Phantom soon.

why do I suddenly feel a little nervous? is the will of the beast God summoned by the child of the beast God even stronger than what we have seen before? "

"f * ck, that's very likely. support, remember to add blood to us."

" the last time chakra summoned the will of the demon god, it dealt damage across the entire map. this nakaris should be the same. "

of course. The brothers outside should also pay attention and move closer to the support. Don't die for no reason.

Very quickly, nakaris' HP dropped to 20%, and a shadow larger than him appeared behind the BOSS.

When the shadow appeared, all the members of the wind and cloud Guild in the beast King Valley lost HP rapidly.

"ASIBA, hurry up and heal me. Did I lose 3000 or 5000 HP in a second? That's too abnormal."

Feng Yun Qing Qing placed the totem pole in the middle of the group, slightly slowing down the rate of their HP loss.

However, their HP was still dropping. As for the others who couldn't enjoy the HP recovery effect of the totem, they were all injured.

Their health dropped rapidly, and some unlucky players who didn't have a support by their side fell to the ground in a few seconds.

"hurry up and heal, can't you see that i only have 1 hp left?"

after the beast god's phantom appeared, the guild channel was in chaos.

There were still close to 40000 guild members in the outer ring, and they had not even fought the BOSS.

However, their HP was still dropping. Before long, thousands of people had fallen. They had truly been shot.

The beast God apparition that nakaris had summoned was several times stronger than the ones they had encountered before.

Even though many of them had upgraded their equipment to level 30, not many of them could withstand the attacks.

He was completely relying on the support beside him to keep himself from falling to the ground.

However, Zhang Shan did not mind. The beast God projection was indeed powerful, but it did not affect him much.

Losing 3,000 to 5000 HP in a second was not even as fast as his lifesteal, so the HP lost was quickly recovered by him.

zhang shan did not even need the support to heal.

From the beginning to the end, he was still at full health.

15 seconds later, the beast God's projection disappeared. Everyone heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, not many of them had died. At least none of them had died fighting the BOSS.

"f * ck, that's f * cking abnormal."

"Damn it, if there was no support to heal me, I wouldn't even last five seconds."

this isn't a beast God Phantom. This is a f * cking real beast God. Otherwise, how could it be so abnormal? " we've never seen a beast God before. Who knows what a real beast God can do? "

...

"Aren't there demonic gods outside the capital? Beast gods should be similar to demon gods. Has anyone ever tried the full map damage of the demon God, how much is it in one second?"

I've never heard of it before. They all die in one second anyway, so their DPS should be at least 10000 to 20000.

that's f * cking ridiculous. Doesn't that mean that if we don't have a Cape with a million HP, we might not even be able to see the demon God before we fall to the ground? " what's so strange about that? we're only level 30. The devil should be a Max-level BOSS, so it's normal for him to crush us.

sigh, my level is rising too slowly. I wonder when I can go play with the demon God? "

"You can do it now. Get a level 30 purple cape and you should be able to last two more seconds, hehe."

"Get lost."

Chapter 230-stunned passive

Nakaris 'will of the beast God had made everyone feel what a real top boss was like.

Although the son of the beast, nakaris, had strong attributes and skills, he was still a physical dummy monster.

In the beginning, everyone did not pay much attention to it. They felt that they just had to pay attention to the boss's ultimate skill.

The others should be easy to deal with, not to mention the Panda bear ball.

Even if there were no tanks, they could pile it up and kill it.

However, after nakaris summoned the beast God Phantom, the terrifying full-map damage was still too much.

It made everyone realize that nakaris was not easy to fight. The title son of the beast deity was not for nothing.

They had only hit 20% of their health, and thousands of people had fallen.

And this was on their side. There were many supports to begin with, and most people relied on the support's healing to survive.

Otherwise, even more people would have fallen to the ground.

If nakaris were to do that a few more times, tens of thousands of people would have fallen.

It wasn't time yet. The BOSS was going to use his ultimate skill. Nakaris' ultimate skill was extremely powerful.

Although no one had seen it before, they could imagine it just by looking at the skill's description.

Five times the damage, with an effective range of 100 yards. It was simply ridiculous.

No one could block it. One must know that nakaris's attack power was 40000.

With the divine power skill, it would deal 80000 damage. If the ultimate skill dealt five times the damage, wouldn't that be 400000 damage?

It was not like they would die if they touched it, but the damage range was so large.

A 100-yard damage range was simply not giving anyone a chance to survive, as long as they were fighting the boss.

They were all within the range of nakaris's damage, even for Zhang Shan's Hunter profession, which had a super long range.

It was impossible to attack from a hundred yards away.

Facing such a boss, if they didn't do it well, they might not be able to kill it with numbers.

As long as nakaris used a few ultimate skills, the 40000 of them would probably all be wiped out.

With a 100-yard damage range, wouldn't thousands of players die in an instant if they stood close to each other?

"I don't think it's going to be easy to fight."

what can we do? even if it's not easy, we'll still have to continue.

"don't worry, we'll definitely be able to win. we just need to find a way to interrupt the BOSS's ultimate."

I'm just afraid that we can't defeat it. Half of its 250 million HP is still more than 100 million. How long will it take to interrupt it until we defeat the BOSS? it's almost impossible.

“Who cares, just fight and it’ll be over.”

Zhang Shan also felt that it would be very difficult. They were both level 50 real name bosses. He felt that nakaris was much stronger than jitanas, whom they had fought before.

Although Gitanas was a magic monster, it should be harder to deal with than a physical monster.

However, it seemed that these dummy monsters were not weak, especially when there was no tank to hold them back.

As for the boss’s ultimate skill, he could only rely on the stun skill to interrupt it.

Otherwise, they would have to fall to the ground and let the support pull them up before continuing.

Although the son of the beast deity, nakaris, was extremely powerful, no one had any thoughts of giving up.

what a joke, it was not easy to find a boss, not to mention in this sealed beast king valley map.

they had the geographical advantage and the people. even if they couldn’t win, they had to bite the bullet and continue fighting.

Besides, even if he failed this time, he could always try again next time.

outsiders couldn’t enter this place anyway.

Under everyone’s efforts, nakaris ‘HP slowly dropped to almost half.

During this time, the Panda gang fell twice again, but it didn’t affect them much, and some Warriors were sacrificed.

They could still stabilize the situation.

Nakaris had also summoned the will of the beast God three times, but it did not affect their formation against the boss. Not a single one of them had fallen.

As for The Other Wind and cloud guild members in the outer perimeter, not as many of them had fallen.

After all, those who could survive the first beast God projection would be able to survive the second one, not to mention the thousands that had fallen.

the pressure on the support to heal was also reduced. they had fewer targets to heal.

After the first half of the BOSS fight, the real test was about to begin.

The remaining half of his HP would be a test of the Guild members ‘cooperation.

To be more precise, it was a test of the classes with stun skills. They had to cooperate well.

Otherwise, if he did not catch a skill properly, nakaris would have to use a big move.

Zhang Shan and the others, who were standing there and attacking the BOSS, were not spared.

” pay attention. interrupt the team according to your formation. attack team by team. make sure to catch your skills well.”

feng yun realm reminded once again as they were about to enter the crucial moment.

...

When nakaris 'HP dropped to 50%, it started to channel.

Two meteor arrows were shot out one after another, interrupting nakaris 'channeling.

Zhang Shan and the rest stepped up their attacks. Now was not the time when they had just started, and it was good to deal more damage.

Although nakaris 'HP was as high as 250 million, they had more people.

If each of them dealt more damage, it would still be over a million damage.

that's it. Aim for the skill. As long as we can interrupt the boss's big move, we'll be sure to win.

After each interruption, Feng Yun realm would continue to encourage everyone and the tense process lasted for seven to eight minutes.

Nakaris 'HP had also dropped to more than 20%. If they could hold on for a few more minutes, they would be able to kill it.

All of a sudden, the two archers 'meteor arrows all missed. The last thief to recover his stun went up and used gouge, but it was still a miss.

The people who had recovered from the stun could not wait any longer. They watched as nakaris was about to release a big move.

At this moment, Zhang Shan fired a shot and knocked him out.

...

It directly interrupted nakaris 'almost completed channeling.

ASIBA, the passive skill is still the best. This shot had come at the right time.

Otherwise, they would have all fallen.

The others were all dumbfounded. They had not understood what was going on. They all thought that they would be GG for the time being.

However, nakaris 'channeling bar was interrupted again.

what happened just now? I didn't see anyone use any skills. Why did the boss get stunned for a moment?"

Zhang Shan's stun was a passive effect caused by normal attacks. Under normal circumstances, one would not be able to tell.

However, while others might not know, wind and cloud blade could still guess. he was with zhang shan.

He had been farming stunned monsters there for a few days. Only when Zhang Shan had stunned the passive did he change locations.

“Just now, it was the six-barreled stun passive, right?”

Wind cloud blade said uncertainly. He had not seen it clearly just now.

However, no one had used any skills just now. Only Zhang Shan’s stun had been activated.

it was enough to interrupt the BOSS’s skill.
