

Passive Skills 291

Chapter 291 I'm afraid you are targeting me

Zhang Shan was in the opposite jungle. After searching for a while, he still could not find the other party's tyrannical Imperial.

In the crystal Guard mode map, the wild area of both sides was not small. There were several monster farming points. It would probably take one or two minutes to find all of them.

Just as Zhang Shan was hesitating whether he should continue searching, he saw that the domineering King had run off to the top lane again. If he did not mess with him again, wouldn't that be a waste of gold?

Zhang Shan called out to Feng Yun Qing Qing, asking her not to suppress the domineering King too much. He wanted her to give him some confidence and let him be more unrestrained.

He could not wait for Zhang Shan to run over and that guy would shrink under the defense tower. Wouldn't that be a waste of time?

When Zhang Shan was running madly and was about to return to the top lane, the domineering King was fighting against Feng Yun Qing Qing's poison technique, doing his best to finish off the boss.

This guy was having a good time farming. Without Zhang Shan's suppression, he dared to tank Feng Yun Qing Qing's damage and farm steadily.

As a matter of fact, not long after he returned to the top lane, he had already recruited three more soldiers and received 150 gold coins. He was very happy.

However, the domineering King soon realized that he had gotten happy a little too early.

Because he suddenly realized that for some reason, Zhang Shan had appeared behind him.

before subjugator could even understand what was going on, he had been shot to the ground by zhang shan. he had returned to the crystal pagoda to wait for his resurrection.

Since it was his second time falling to the ground, he had to wait two minutes to resurrect.

the subjugator, who was waiting to be resurrected, shut himself down. he could not understand why zhang shan would appear behind him.

At this time, shouldn't Zhang Shan have gone to the middle or bottom lane to cause trouble?

At this moment, The Little Prince from the middle lane of the domineering aura Guild, as well as the wind god and rain god from the bottom lane, were all hiding under the turret.

Calculating the time, Zhang Shan was about to get to his position.

Who would have thought that Zhang Shan would turn around and return to the top lane, killing off the tyrant king?

is this six-pipe bodhisattva targeting me? Tyrant king guessed gloomily.

As soon as the domineering King fell to the ground for the second time, his live stream instantly exploded.

I thought he was a King, but he's only a bronze. It's only been three minutes, and he's already been knocked out twice.

"He didn't say that he was King tier. It's just that his name is King tier, hehe."

don't f * cking insult bronze. Even bronze is not so weak. He's dead.

"Calm down, I've only died twice,"

"That's right, if I don't die eight to ten times, I won't be worthy of the name eight times man."

"Eight or ten times? That's too much, we don't even have enough time."

"according to scientific research, the competition time is one hour. the fifth resurrection time is 16 minutes, and the sixth is 32 minutes. in other words, players can only be killed six times, but resurrected five times. the time for the sixth resurrection is not enough."

"f * ck, a research file has been released."

hey, you guys didn't get the point. The point is, can domineering aura still win this Guild War? " what's the point of winning? the game has just started and boss has already killed two people. The six-barreled Bodhisattva is as fat as a dog.

it's going to be difficult. The domineering aura Guild is so poor right now. Only two of them have unlocked red equipment, and the other three are still wearing beginner equipment. Six-barreled Bodhisattva alone has three red equipment, and he still has savings.

don't be too pessimistic. Guild wind cloud is poor too. Other than six-barreled Bodhisattva, the others are no better than Guild Subjugator.

"It'll be hard to deal with the fat one on the other side."

it's all Subjugator's fault for giving away two kills for nothing. Otherwise, it would have been much easier to fight.

"Haha, that's a good summary."

Subjugator, who was waiting to be resurrected at the crystal Pagoda, was about to explode in anger when he saw the ridicule in the live stream.

However, he couldn't just turn off the live broadcast.

He recalled the bragging he had made when he had started the livestream before the match.

The Overlord felt his face hurt.

This damned six-barreled Bodhisattva, don't let me find a chance.

'tyrant king thought viciously.

In contrast to the tyrannical King's depression, depression, and other feelings ...

At this moment, Zhang Shan was also not very happy.

What the hell, wasn't it 1000 gold coins for each kill? why was it only 500 gold coins this time? that was already a 50% discount.

Just now, when he killed Subjugator, he only received an additional 500 gold coins. This profit was a little disappointing.

No one had ever played the crystal Guardian mode before, so they did not know how the kill rewards were calculated.

perhaps it was because it was the first time he had killed the tyrant king, and he had gotten the first drop of hp.

Hence, the gold coin reward was doubled. The 500 gold coin reward for the second kill was the normal kill reward.

However, although the gold coins had been reduced by half, the experience gained from killing was still considered normal. Zhang Shan had now risen to Level 5.

The three pieces of red equipment on him were automatically upgraded to Level 5.

His attributes had been greatly improved again. Now, his attack power was almost 150.

However, his HP was still pitifully low. It was almost the same as his attack power, only 150 hp.

If they were not careful and were caught by the other party, they would be easily cut down.

Zhang Shan looked at the equipment at the crystal Pagoda.

They sold capes there, and they weren't expensive.

The red cape was the same as other red equipment, and only cost 1000 gold coins.

However, the attributes of the cloak were greatly reduced in crystal mode.

A level 5 red cloak could only add 500 hp, which was far worse than the purple cloak in the game.

It's no different from a normal green cloak. It's simply trash.

However, no matter how trashy it was, it had to be a whole Cape. Without a Cape, it was too fragile, and there was no sense of security at all.

Zhang Shan had thought it through. The next piece of equipment would be a cloak.

However, he did not have enough gold coins.

at the moment, he only had 500 gold coins. a red cloak would cost 1000 gold coins.

He didn't have a red cloak, so he could unlock it.

...

In the game, he had always been wearing a level 20 purple cape.

However, there was no purple equipment in the crystal Guard mode.

In other words, everyone's capes had to be bought and couldn't be unlocked.

He was still short of 500 gold coins. What should he do?

Of course, he was going to kill someone. Although he was only getting 500 gold coins for each kill, he was still going to kill someone.

However, it was no slower than farming meches.

The key was that with Zhang Shan's current attack power, the respawn speed of the meches was too slow.

It took half a minute for one wave to appear, which was not enough for him to fight at all.

He might as well go to the opposite jungle to kill some monsters and see if he could get a kill.

He would just let Feng Yunqing have some online resources. Although she was only a support, a support also needed equipment and level.

After killing the domineering King, Zhang Shan said to Feng Yun Qingqing without any hesitation.

you continue to mix around. I'll go around.

After he finished speaking, he disappeared from the top lane and ran towards the opposite jungle.

Chapter 292 killing and stealing

After Zhang Shan killed Subjugator, he disappeared from the top lane.

The remaining four players from the domineering aura Guild had not yet recovered from the dejection of Subjugator's second fall.

He couldn't help but feel nervous.

what the f * ck, this six-barreled Bodhisattva is playing snake skin. Why does he always use the disappearing tactic? ” don't worry about him. We just need to pay more attention to ourselves. There's no need to pay attention to him.

not bad. Work hard to land the last hit. Let's unlock the red equipment a few times first.

that's right. When we unlock three red-colored equipment, we'll all be back at the same starting point. It's not that easy to unlock the divine weapon of six-barreled Bodhisattva.

“He still wants to unlock the divine artifact? I’m afraid you’re thinking too much. Even if you farm until the end of the competition, you might not be able to get the gold coins to unlock the divine artifact, right?”

“speaking of which, i also want to get a divine weapon to play with. i can’t get it in the game, but i can buy it in the crystal guardian mode for only 25000 gold coins.”

come on. I only get 50 gold coins for a mech. How long will it take to farm 25000 gold coins? ” two waves of minions per minute. If I can farm all of them, I’ll have 500 gold coins. In 50 minutes, I’ll have enough money to buy a divine weapon.

“Don’t get ahead of yourself. Don’t you want to unlock other equipment? Besides, how can we replenish all the soldiers?”

the cucumbers will be cold in 50 minutes. What kind of game is there to play? ”

“Don’t go too far, pay attention to the game.”

Even though Subjugator had died twice, the other four members of their Guild were not discouraged.

Dying twice wasn’t a big problem. He had to earn more money as soon as possible.

As long as Zhang Shan had not unlocked the divine weapon, they would have a chance to fight back.

Besides, they were only domineering Kings, so they were a little weak.

The others were developing well, even better than the remaining four players of wind and cloud Guild.

For example, Windcloud blade and windchime at the bottom lane.

it was already difficult for these two to farm minions, and now that the tyrannical wind god had unlocked its red weapon.

Windcloud blade didn’t dare to attack anymore. He could only follow behind the mech and gain some experience.

“Why don’t I go and kill some monsters? I can’t survive in this line.”

Windcloud blade said gloomily in the party channel.

“Can you defeat the monsters?”

Zhang Shan expressed his doubts. Even Imperial had been killed by a monster once, so why would one blade of wind and cloud go and farm monsters?

Domineering sky was a Hunter after all, but he couldn’t even defeat a wild monster with a pet.

Wind and cloud blade was even less capable.

Even though he was now at level four, his attributes were slightly better than when he had just started.

However, that was all he could do. He had not unlocked a single piece of equipment, and his combat power was frighteningly weak.

but if we don't farm in the jungle, Windling and I will be at the bottom lane. There's no point in that. We won't be able to farm a single minion, and the experience will have to be shared between us.

"Why don't you come to the middle lane and take a walk?"

Feng Yun realm suggested to him.

He thought of wind and cloud blade and wind chimes. There was indeed no point for the two of them to stay at the bottom lane.

It was better to wander around and see if he could find an opportunity to kill a wave of mid-Lane players.

Windcloud blade was a Berserker, even though none of his equipment had been unlocked.

however, the damage of charge and a set of skills was still quite considerable. most importantly, charge had a speed reduction effect.

With Feng Yun realm's help, the two of them had the chance to kill off the opponent's domineering Prince.

"Okay, I'm coming."

Windcloud blade happily left the bottom lane and began to run toward the middle lane.

However, he didn't even have boots, so it would take a lot of time to get to the middle.

After Windcloud blade disappeared from the bottom lane ... tyrannical wind god warned in the party channel.

"Windcloud blade is no longer at the bottom lane. Little Prince, be careful."

what's there to pay attention to? he's just a useless fool without any equipment. Do you think I'm afraid of him? "

After Zhang Shan entered the opposite jungle, he summoned the Panda bear.

He had not summoned his pet before because the pets were only Level 1 at the start of the competition.

It was useless. If he did, he would still have to share the experience.

However, now that he had reached Level 5, it was time for him to level up the Panda bear.

the panda fighter was still very useful. he had a terrifyingly high hp and an unbreakable combo skill.

It would definitely be useful in the future, but he had to increase its level first.

not long after, zhang shan arrived at a wild monster spot.

There were three Wolf monsters here, but they didn't look very powerful.

...

Let's give it a try.

Controlling the Panda bear to move forward, Zhang Shan then opened fire,

At the same time, he checked the wolf monster's attributes.

[ violent wild wolf: attack 300, health points 3000, skill: critical aura ]

Damn, are all monsters this strong?

As soon as the Panda dumpling ran up, he was instantly killed by the three wild wolves.

Zhang Shan quickly ran back. How could he beat this?

It was no wonder that domineering sky had died once at the beginning.

they still wanted to farm such strong monsters? Wouldn't that be courting death?

after zhang shan ran a few steps, he realized that the three wolves had only chased him for a short distance before returning to their original spot.

Eh? It seemed to be able to kite.

...

These wolves wouldn't be too far away from the farming point, so it was worth it.

Zhang Shan summoned the Panda ball. In the crystal Guard mode, the Hunter's pets did not seem to need to be fed.

After dying, he could directly summon it and use it.

This was good too. Otherwise, he didn't know where to get pet food.

This time, Zhang Shan did not let the Panda bear go forward. Instead, he fired at the violent wild wolves from afar.

he would then run a few steps, and when the wild wolf retreated, he would catch up and attack it.

After a few rounds of kiting, he finally killed a wild wolf.

He gave her a hundred gold coins.

It's alright. Although it's a little slow, I'll wait until the Panda dumpling's level is a little higher.

That way, they wouldn't need to kite, and they would be able to fly very quickly.

Zhang Shan struggled for more than half a minute and finally defeated all three wild wolves.

He had earned another 300 gold coins, but his level had not increased. He was still Level 5.

On the other hand, the Panda ball had risen to Level 3 and had more than 600 hp. after leveling up a few more times, the panda dumpling would come in handy.

After finishing this wave, they went to the next farming spot.

Kill all the monsters on the other side so that they don't have any to farm, hehe.

Zhang Shan continued his search in the opposite jungle.

Suddenly, she saw a figure in front of her.

Haha, don't tell me it's the tyrannical Imperial that's farming here? I've finally caught him.

After discovering traces of domineering sky, Zhang Shan could not help but feel happy.

In his eyes, this man was a gold coin.

Zhang Shan quietly hid in the forest and observed.

He saw Imperial sky kiting a large rock monster. He had no idea how long he had been kiting it.

The big rock monster was almost out of health.

Hehe, isn't this killing and stealing monsters? It was perfect.

Chapter 293 The six-barreled Bodhisattva must die

Domineering sky had not noticed Zhang Shan's arrival at all.

When Zhang Shan had just disappeared from the top lane, he had been nervous for a while. However, after being careful for a long time, he had not noticed anything wrong.

He didn't pay any more attention to it. After all, he had to concentrate to kite the monsters.

Since Imperial sky had yet to unlock his boots, he was not much faster than the monsters.

if he wasn't paying attention and was attacked by a wild monster, he would die again. wouldn't that be a huge loss?

this was especially true for this large rock monster, who was extremely ferocious.

Not only did it have a lot of HP, but its attack power was also terrifyingly high for the current tyrannical sky.

If he was touched, he would definitely fall to the ground.

After hundreds of kiting back and forth, the rock monster was finally about to die.

At this moment, Imperial domineering had placed all his attention on the rock monster.

He did not realize that Zhang Shan had already sneaked up behind him.

Zhang Shan approached quietly. When he was within shooting range, even Imperial sky did not notice him.

This guy was still focused on kiting the rock monster.

Zhang Shan rushed forward and knocked down domineering sky with two shots.

[ system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has successfully killed domineering sky. Six-barreled Bodhisattva is currently on a killing spree. ]

Haha, another 500 gold coins, I have money for the Cape now.

zhang shan immediately bought a red cloak from the crystal tower, which increased his health points by 500.

After putting on the red cloak, Zhang Shan's HP had reached 650. He finally felt a little safe.

A job without a Cape was as fragile as paper.

When everyone was at a disadvantage, whoever made the first move would win.

Even if it was Zhang Shan who did not have a cloak, if he was ambushed by the other side, he would most likely be defeated.

After all, he only had 150 hp before.

He wouldn't be able to take two or three hits.

But now, he didn't have to worry. With 650 hp, even if he ran into two or three people at the same time, he would still be able to kill them.

Zhang Shan was not afraid, as long as he was not ambushed.

at this moment, the overlord was still waiting to be resurrected.

the two minutes of waiting was torture for him.

However, something that made him even more depressed happened.

In their team, domineering sky, who was farming monsters in the jungle, had been caught by Zhang Shan.

Two shots down, not giving him a chance at all.

The overbearing King's mental state was on the verge of collapse.

He didn't even dare to look at the bullet comments in the live broadcast room. He was afraid that he was being flamed like a dog.

The match started with a score of one to three.

zhang shan was receiving the fruits of his victory after taking down domineering sky with a single shot.

There was still a big rock monster that had not been killed.

after kiting for half a day, tyrannical imperial had already lost a lot of health.

Zhang Shan happily took it and continued to kite. At the same time, he checked his attributes.

This rock monster was indeed very strong.

[stone golem: attack 500, health points 10000, skill: crush] an attack power of 500 was a little strong.

After Zhang Shan put on the red cloak, he only had 650 hp. He could not take it at all.

It was better to kite honestly, since he didn't have much health left.

At most, he would be killed after two or three more kiting.

"brother six steward, don't kill them too quickly. if you kill them a few more times, i'm afraid they won't be able to compete anymore. they'll all be waiting to be resurrected. what's the point of competing? hehe."

Wind and cloud blade, who was running towards the middle lane, teased in the team channel after seeing Zhang Shan kill another player.

haha, isn't it good to kill them all back to the Crystal Tower? we can push the tower steadily.

I can't kill anyone. It's so depressing. I can only play with the last hit.

feng yun qing qing was alone on the top lane, no one was harassing her, she was steadily killing, and did not forget to play a round of versailles.

"Qingqing, that's enough. Aren't you happy to be able to land the killing blow? look at our bottom lane. Look at what kind of life we're living."

Windling, who was also a support class player, said unhappily.

the bottom lane is really not a place for people to stay. Why don't brother Liu Guan come over to help?"

forget it, the bottom lane is too far away. It'll take half a day. I won't go first. I'll go to their jungle to kill some monsters first.

...

After two rounds of kiting, Zhang Shan finally killed the rock monster.

after obtaining 400 gold coins, he had also risen to level 6.

The Panda bear had also risen to Level 5, with a little more than 1000 hp.

he should be able to tank the weaker wild monsters.

With the gold coins in hand, Zhang Shan chose to unlock another red ring.

Now, his attack power had already exceeded two hundred.

If that domineering King dared to appear in front of him again, he would be able to knock him down with one shot.

Even if he was a strength-type profession, his HP was naturally higher than other professions.

However, as a man who had fallen twice at the start of the game, he had to wait three minutes for his resurrection at the Crystal Tower.

Whether it was in terms of level or equipment, it was terrifyingly weak compared to the others.

While Zhang Shan was happily farming monsters in the opposite jungle, the waiting time for the tyrannical King's resurrection finally arrived.

six-barreled Bodhisattva is still in our jungle. Let's organize a group to catch him. We can't let him develop steadily. Otherwise, we won't be able to play later.

"Are we all going? There's no need, right? It's such a waste of time. It'll take us about two minutes to run over from the bottom lane."

there's no need for all of you to come. Just send wind god over. With the mid Lane's little Prince and Royal who's going to resurrect later, I don't believe that the four of us can't take him down.

alright, we have to catch a group of six-barreled Bodhisattva. Otherwise, if he really unleashes the divine weapon, what's the point of beating him? "

"Six-barreled Bodhisattva must die."

At this moment, Zhang Shan still did not know that the other side already had the intention to kill.

The four of them were ready to gang up on him.

He was currently in the opposite jungle, happily farming.

Two minutes later, he had earned more than a thousand gold coins.

he and the panda dumpling had both risen to level seven.

However, he did not update his equipment.

Zhang Shan felt that the hunter's armor did not seem to be very useful in the crystal Guard mode.

I won't unlock it for now. I'll save money.

first, he saved 12500 gold coins and unlocked the god-tier hand cannon.

He directly locked in the victory.

Windcloud blade ran from the bottom lane to the middle lane, ready to play with domineering Prince.

However, before he could get into position, Feng Yun realm said in the party channel.

the domineering Little Prince in the middle lane has disappeared. You guys be careful.

"I haven't seen the bottom Lane's tyrannical wind god in a while."

Feng Ling reminded at the same time.

"F * ck, then doesn't that mean that they only have the tyrannical rain god left in their Lane? Where are the others?"

I don't know. All of you, move closer to the defense tower. Don't let the other party catch you.

“Then what about me?”

zhang shan was dumbfounded. there were no defensive towers nearby for him to hide.

he was currently in the opposite jungle.

two players had disappeared from the enemy’s line of sight, including subjugator and imperial who had disappeared after their resurrection.

Are you here to catch me?

Zhang Shan could feel the murderous intent.

F * ck, hurry up and run. At the same time, call for Feng Yun Qing Qing to come over and help him.

Although his equipment and level were far ahead of the others, he definitely wouldn’t be able to win against four of them.

Chapter 294 abnormal slaughter zhang shan could not help but shiver at the thought of being ganged up on by four people.

Scary, run.

This was a competition map. Normally, he wouldn’t be afraid as long as there weren’t 400 players surrounding him, let alone four.

however, he could not do it now. he had to use the crystal guard mode.

Everyone had a similar starting point. Even if Zhang Shan unlocked two more red equipment than the others, it would not be of much use.

As long as the four of them rushed up and each of them hit him twice, he would fall to the ground.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan even gave up on the monsters that he had killed halfway. He directly brought the Panda bear and prepared to run.

Just as he turned around and was about to run to the top lane, a meteor arrow was shot from afar. It hit him directly and stunned him for five seconds.

Damn, I just turned my head and didn’t pay attention to the back.

With the other three, domineering King rushed out of the forest with a murderous look.

Zhang Shan quickly activated his berserk skill and released the crowd control. At the same time, he used his jump skill to put as much distance as possible between him and the other party.

Don’t get slowed down by Subjugator’s charge.

After Zhang Shan had jumped to open up some distance, he ran forward, towards the top lane.

at the same time, he kept calling out in the party channel.

Qingqing, come and save me! The domineering King is chasing me with three people!

after zhang shan was hit by the meteor arrow, he was still able to resolve the stun.

The domineering King was extremely displeased. He brought three people with him and chased after Zhang Shan.

Although Zhang Shan had unlocked his red shoes, he ran much faster than those without shoes.

However, the tyrannical wind god had also unlocked his shoes. He followed closely behind Zhang Shan.

even though subjugator and the other two did not have shoes, they were still hot on his heels.

It was as if he would not give up until he chased Zhang Shan to death.

As Zhang Shan ran, he observed the situation.

The only person who could save him now was Feng Yun Qing. As long as he could meet up with Feng Yun Qing, he would no longer have to fear the four of them.

In fact, even if no one supported him, he could still run.

The four players from Guild domination might not be able to catch up to him.

However, it wasn't a good thing to be chased like a dog.

He had to find a way to counterattack.

The other three were even further away from him.

Zhang Shan wanted to take advantage of the fact that the other party was chasing him and was being pulled apart due to the speed factor to get rid of the tyrannical wind god first.

The remaining three who ran slower were easy to deal with.

However, after running for a while, Zhang Shan realized something.

The tyrannical wind god chicken was extremely cowardly. Even though it was chasing closely behind him, it was still out of his shooting range.

Even if Zhang Shan wanted to turn around and deal with him, he did not have the chance.

Forget it, let's wait for Feng Yun Qing Qing to come over first.

Not long after, Feng Yunqing gradually approached.

Zhang Shan said to her in the team channel.

"Don't show your face yet. When I start fighting them, you can come and help me heal."

If the other party saw Feng Yun Qing Qing, they might not dare to chase after her.

This would not do. Zhang Shan still wanted to fight back.

After being chased for so long, it would be a huge loss if he didn't get a few heads.

Zhang Shan, who was running forward, suddenly turned back.

The domineering wind god, who was following behind, was stunned. It quickly turned around and ran.

he did not dare to fight Zhang Shan alone. His three teammates had not caught up. He could not win by himself.

The situation had suddenly changed dramatically. Originally, it was the tyrannical wind god chasing Zhang Shan. Now, it was Zhang Shan chasing the tyrannical wind god.

However, the chase did not last long.

Very quickly, tyrannical wind god regrouped with the other three.

Subjugator charged out from the side of the forest. He charged towards Zhang Shan and shouted loudly.

” let’s go together. I’ll use charge to slow down six-barreled Bodhisattva first. ”

The jump skill had not cooled down yet, so the charge skill could not be dispelled.

The domineering King rushed in front of Zhang Shan, but just as he swung his axe, he was knocked to the ground by Zhang Shan.

[system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed domineering King. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has dominated the match.]

This was the third time that this guy had fallen to the ground. The time he had to wait to be resurrected would probably be longer than the time he had spent playing the game.

However, the tyrant King’s sacrifice had an effect.

While Zhang Shan’s speed was still reduced, the remaining three members of the domineering aura took the opportunity to use all sorts of skills on him.

Damage continuously landed on Zhang Shan, -150 -102 – 90.

After one round of attacks, Zhang Shan had lost half of his health. If another round of attacks were to come ...

He might not be able to hold on any longer.

However, Zhang Shan did not retreat. With Feng Yun Qing Qing as his backing, he was not afraid of losing to the remaining three people on the other side.

Two shots from the hand cannon knocked out the red-gobbed tyrannical wind god.

This guy ran fast, so he had to take him down first, in case he couldn’t catch up later.

&Lt; system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed the tyrannical wind god. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed countless people. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has completed a double kill. &Gt;

The remaining two from the opposing team, domineering Imperial and domineering Little Prince, were still determined to fight back even after two of their teammates had fallen.

Another two lines of damage landed on Zhang Shan, almost emptying his health bar.

Just then, Feng Yun Qing Qing rushed over from behind. With a rejuvenation technique, she pulled Zhang Shan back from the edge of death.

Seeing Feng Yun Qing Qing's appearance, both Imperial sky and Little Prince were in despair.

how the f * ck could they fight like this? they had thought that sacrificing two people would be enough to defeat zhang shan. two for one was still acceptable.

At least, it suppressed his development.

however, now that feng yun qing qing had appeared, zhang shan's health had been brought back.

What's the point of fighting?

"Split up and run."

After saying that, the domineering Little Prince ran away.

While Imperial sky was still in a daze, Zhang Shan had already knocked him to the ground.

&Lt; system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed domineering sky. No one can block six-barreled Bodhisattva anymore. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has completed three kills in one go. &Gt;

In the beginning, this guy had fallen once in the jungling, and then was caught by Zhang Shan again.

This was the third time he fell to the ground, just like the domineering King.

After defeating three opponents in a row, the system's notifications kept ringing, and gold coins were added to his account.

However, Zhang Shan did not stop there. A domineering Little Prince had slipped away.

He had to hurry up and catch up. He should be able to catch up and kill another one.

Zhang Shan had boots, but the domineering Little Prince did not.

He chose to unlock weapons and buy a cloak, but not boots.

Zhang Shan gave chase in the direction of the domineering Little Prince.

After a while, he saw the other party's figure.

Without boots, he ran very slowly. After Zhang Shan caught up, he fired two consecutive shots, but did not knock him down.

Although this guy didn't have boots, he had a Cape and had a lot of HP.

Just like Zhang Shan, he had more than 600 hp. Zhang Shan's two shots did not kill him.

he continued to chase.

Two more shots were fired, and the domineering Little Prince fell to the ground unwillingly.

&Lt; system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed domineering Prince. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has achieved a massacre. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed four people in one go. &Gt;

Chapter 295 Demonic Slaughter

Zhang Shan had four consecutive kills, killing all four members of the domineering aura Guild who had come to surround him.

At this moment, the chat room of the domineering King was flooded with all kinds of insults and insults.

“I’ve never seen such a noob player. He hasn’t even fought a 4v1 before. I can’t bear to look at him.”

four against one is too much. If it wasn’t for the support who healed him in time, he definitely wouldn’t have been able to win.

that’s still four against one. That beautiful support from wind and cloud Guild didn’t even deal any damage, not even an assist.

“Yes, it’s a forced four-on-one, hehe.”

don’t worry about this. Guild domineering aura is already gone. What’s the point of still standing there? why don’t we just vote for it?”

“It’s shameful to surrender. We won’t retreat until the tower falls.”

“Is there a surrender mechanism in the crystal Guard mode? i don’t think so?”

“I don’t know. I don’t think so.”

ASIBA, Wang zheju is so pitiful. He’s already been tortured to this state, but he still won’t let anyone surrender. He’ll have to endure a long time of torture. Hehe.

“What’s the rush? maybe we can turn the tables.”

“Are you kidding me? if I can turn the tables, I’ll eat the helmet.”

bro, you’re so cruel. You can still eat the helmet. Speaking of which, gaming helmets are very expensive. It costs 10000 blue dollars.

“Use your head? In this situation, two of them resurrected in four minutes, and the other two have to wait a minute. By the time they resurrect, I’m afraid the wind and cloud Guild will have more equipment.”

“Why not? Guild tyrannical ambition can stall for time. They can stall for an hour until the end of the match and end it in a draw.”

a draw is still a loss. Domineering aura is the Challenger, so a draw means that the challenge has failed.

“That’s better than losing directly.”

how good-looking can it be? is it Ah Q’s spirit? ”

” don’t even think about it. a draw is impossible. six-pipe bodhisattva is already as fat as a dog. once he unleashes the divine weapon, he can just mindlessly push it away. what can guild subjugator do to stop him? ”

that’s true. Six-barreled Bodhisattva killed four people in one go, and that’s another 2000 gold coins. He’s one step closer to becoming a divine weapon.

” that’s fine. it’s still too early to get the legendary weapon. as long as subjugator can hold their ground at the back and get everyone equipped with red equipment before six-barreled bodhisattva gets the legendary weapon, they’ll still have a chance to turn the tables. ”

“In their dreams. Will the wind and cloud Guild give them this chance? I’m afraid they won’t even give us any space to spend money, right?”

that’s right, the disadvantage is too great. Even if you want to farm money, there’s no place to go. The wilderness is occupied by six-pipe Bodhisattva, so you’ll be suppressed when you go online.

“What’s there to talk about? let’s wait for GG.”

In contrast to Subjugator’s straightforward and heated discussion, the party channel of Guild Subjugator was dead.

No one said anything. They didn’t know what to say.

There was no hope, so there was nothing else to say.

They only hoped that the game would end soon so that they would not have to suffer again.

The four of them were waiting to resurrect. The only survivor, the domineering rain god, was planting seeds to finish off Windling, who was in the lane.

After Zhang Shan had killed four people, he continued to farm in the opposite jungle.

With four kills in one wave, he had earned 2000 gold coins, and now he had nearly 4000 gold coins.

He had unlocked almost one-third of the divine artifact. He should be able to use the divine artifact in about ten minutes.

After killing them, other than the gold coins, Zhang Shan and the Panda bear had both risen to level 9.

Now, there was no pressure in killing wild monsters at all, and the Panda bear could hold on the entire time.

It refreshed very quickly.

“Brother Liu Guan, you’re too much. Is it easy for me to come to the middle road? I wanted to kill a wave of domineering Little Prince, but he ran to your place to get killed. I made a wasted trip.”

Windcloud blade chuckled in the party channel.

It didn't matter if he didn't kill anyone, as long as he killed the person opposite him, it didn't matter who did it.

Moreover, Zhang Shan had killed four people in one go. This time, the Guild challenge could be said to be in the bag.

Domineering aura was basically unable to turn the tables, so they could only wait for wind cloud to destroy their Crystal Towers.

"Haha, it's a good thing Qingqing arrived in time. Otherwise, I really wouldn't be able to deal with them."

"hehe, even though i didn't manage to get an assist, i did get some experience. i'm already level 8."

Feng Yunqing said happily.

"ASIBA, is there such a big difference? I'm only at the fifth rank."

Windcloud blade was depressed. He did not level up as fast as the support.

"Don't worry, we'll get the equipment and level. Later, you'll come with us to push the towers at the top lane. We'll take down their top lane Towers first."

Zhang Shan comforted him.

Indeed, it was time to push the turret. The monsters on the opposite side weren't enough for him to kill.

Zhang Shan planned to clear all the monster points and then go to the top lane to push the turret. He would first take down the first turret at the top lane.

pushing the turret should also give gold and experience.

haha, I like pushing towers. Wait for me, I'm running to the top lane.

...

Not long after, the domineering Little Prince and the domineering wind god were resurrected.

One of them continued to mingle in the middle lane, while the other ran to the top lane.

Even though there was no hope of victory, he still had to struggle.

At most, he would just be a little perverted.

After Zhang Shan had cleared the monsters, he ran to the top lane. At this time, wind and cloud blade also ran over.

On the other side, the tyrannical wind god was basically hiding under the turret, not daring to come out.

Zhang Shan's figure was nowhere to be seen online. Who knew where he would come from?

Therefore, in order to play it safe, tyrannical wind god did not leave the turret at all. It hid under the turret to gain some experience. If it was lucky, it could even kill two minions.

However, subjugated wind god soon realized that it was no longer possible for him to just stay under the tower and earn experience points.

Because Zhang Shan was on his way again.

The three players from wind cloud Guild followed the five fully-recovered meches and pushed all the way to the defensive tower.

...

When they arrived near the defense tower, Zhang Shan controlled the Panda bear to walk in front.

He took the damage from the tower.

The Panda ball now had more than 2000 HP. The turret's 500 attack power was not much of a threat to it.

With Feng Yun Qing Qing's support, the Panda team could hold on for a long time.

When the tyrannical wind god saw Zhang Shan appear, it was ready to run.

He didn't want to stay under the tower any longer.

The defense tower could no longer give him a sense of security. He felt that Zhang Shan might use the defense tower to kill him.

Tyrannical wind god was right, but he had run too late.

after the panda bear had taken the damage from the turret, windcloud blade charged at the tyrannical wind god.

Zhang Shan immediately followed up with damage, and with one shot, he knocked down the tyrannical wind god.

without the fragile skin of a cloak, it was really fragile.

The tyrannical wind god might not even have 200 hp, and with Zhang Shan's attack power that was close to 300.

he had shot him down with one shot, and the damage was a little over.

[ system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva killed domineering wind god. Assist: ] With a blade of wind and cloud, six-barreled Bodhisattva was already on a killing spree.

Chapter 296 The crystal Pagoda

Another one had been killed, and now even staying under the tower to get some experience was a luxury?

Subjugator, who was waiting to be resurrected, glanced at the various taunting comments on the live broadcast screen.

He really couldn't take it anymore and turned off the live broadcast.

Although this would cause him to lose a lot of fans, he had had enough.

The domineering King no longer had any hope of winning the competition. He only hoped to find an opportunity to fight a battle of dignity.

then, he would wait for the crystal tower on his side to be destroyed by the wind and cloud guild and end this torture as soon as possible.

Subjugator regretted issuing the Guild challenge. This was too much of a scam.

Once he lost the upper hand, he could no longer play.

After Zhang Shan and the other two killed the tyrannical wind god, they began to attack the first turret on the opposite side.

Compared to the beginning, the tower's attack power of 500 was very terrifying.

But now, Zhang Shan's equipment and level had both improved.

In particular, the Panda ball's level had also risen.

The attack power of the defense tower was no longer a threat, at least to Zhang Shan.

Compared to the attack power of the defensive towers, the HP of the defensive towers was a bit of a headache.

500,000 HP, it was so hard to fight.

Right now, among the three of them, Zhang Shan's attack power was the highest, but it was not even 300.

As for wind and cloud blade, he had only unlocked one accessory, and his attack power was not even 100.

if he didn't have skills that he could use, his tower-pushing ability might not even be as good as a mech.

the three of them and the five meches kept pushing the tower.

When a new mech from both sides came, Zhang Shan quickly killed the five meches on the other side.

A mech with 1000 hp was just a piece of cake for Zhang Shan. He could kill it with a few shots. It was too easy.

He had five more meches and the speed of pushing the tower was faster.

Two minutes later, when the number of meches on the wind and cloud Guild's side had reached 30, they finally took down the first defensive tower.

&Lt; system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has destroyed a defense. Everyone in wind and cloud Guild has received 1000 gold coins. &Gt;

Other than the gold coins, the three of them had each gained a level. Zhang Shan had finally reached level 10, and his equipment level had also increased to level 10.

His current attack power was already more than 400.

This attack power might not be much if it was used to push a turret, but it was used to hit people.

As long as the other side dared to come up, he would kill them with one shot.

Furthermore, he had been paid 1000 gold coins for taking down a defensive tower.

Now that he had 5000 gold coins, he was not far from unlocking the divine artifact.

Looking at the thirty meches beside him, Windcloud blade said with confidence.

haha, keep pushing. I didn't expect the meches to be so strong. It's very impressive.

that's right. Our equipment and level aren't good enough yet. It's hard to push the tower by ourselves. We have to rely on the meches.

" let's all go to the top lane and push the towers together. after we've pushed down all three of the towers in the top lane, we'll go straight for the crystal tower. " windcloud blade suggested in the party channel.

"sure, we'll go over now."

Feng Yun realm agreed.

This was a good idea. They would directly push to the Crystal Tower on the other side and not give domineering aura any chance at all.

Not long after, the five members of wind and cloud gathered together with a large group of meches. They were pushing the second tower on the opposite side.

At this moment, both Subjugator and Imperial had finally resurrected.

with the addition of the previously resurrected tyrannical wind god, the three of them formed a team.

they didn't need to care about wind and cloud's tower-pushing operation because they couldn't do anything even if they wanted to.

if they really went up, they would only be sending themselves to their deaths.

He might as well farm some money and level up to buy a cloak.

Now, they had realized that without the cloak, they had no chance of survival.

100 to 200 hp was extremely low.

Zhang Shan only needed one shot to knock them down. There was no need for them to go up.

He had to find a way to get a cloak. Otherwise, he might not even be able to fight a battle of dignity.

But where could he go to get money? This was a problem.

They each had one player occupying the bottom and middle lanes, so there was no need for them to go over.

On the other hand, the top lane was occupied by the five players of the wind and cloud Guild, so it was even more impossible for them to go.

Needless to say, the three of them ran to the jungle together and formed a group to jungle.

Fortunately, other than Subjugator, both Subjugator and Subjugator had unlocked their red-colored weapons.

They still had some attack power, and if they jungled together, their efficiency wouldn't be too bad.

"eh, subjugator and the others should have resurrected by now. why don't i see them online? Are they jungling? should we go and find them?"

Windcloud blade said to the others as he attacked the towers.

"Forget it, we'll just push the tower. Don't worry about them, it's a waste of time."

Zhang Shan did not want to waste any more time. He wanted to destroy all the towers on the top lane as soon as possible.

Then, wouldn't it be better to just destroy the crystal Pagoda? Why did he have to waste his energy to find her?

Wouldn't it be a waste of time if they missed?

"once we're done with this tower, we'll have all our basic equipment. we don't have to worry about the other side at all, and they can go ahead and farm."

Each person would receive 1000 gold coins for one defense tower, and two defense towers would allow them to unlock their weapons and accessories.

In addition, they had also farmed one to two thousand gold coins before.

If they could get a pair of shoes and a Cape, they would basically have all the equipment they needed.

No matter how much domineering Aura's players farmed, there was no way they could beat them.

Let's see if the domineering air Guild will return when we reach the Crystal Tower.

If he didn't come back, he would just blow up the crystal Pagoda.

If they returned, they would be crushed immediately.

Anyway, he would win no matter what, so he didn't have to waste time finding people to kill.

In less than five minutes, he had pushed through the two remaining defenses on the top lane. Zhang Shan had already saved up close to 9000 gold coins.

It was only one step away from becoming a divine weapon.

let's do it. Destroy the crystal Pagoda.

compared to the defensive tower, which still had an attack power of 500, the crystal tower was completely a wooden stake.

They wouldn't attack, they just had to keep attacking.

However, after checking its attributes, Zhang Shan could no longer remain calm.

[ crystal pagoda: 1000000 hp ]

It was just a single attribute of health points, but it was as high as 10 million.

How was he supposed to fight this? Zhang Shan was only level 12, and his attack power was less than 600.

Although there were almost a hundred meches around them, they had to deal ten million damage.

He didn't know how long this would take.

this was too difficult. he had to unlock a divine artifact first.

Luckily, the Crystal Tower was still making meches, and the meches of the three groups all came out from there.

This meant that they could attack the Crystal Tower and kill 15 meches every half a minute.

One minute was 750 gold coins. Zhang Shan only needed to wait for another four minutes and he would be able to unlock the God tier hand cannon.

Chapter 297 killing a super god

When Zhang Shan and the others began to attack the Crystal Tower, the tyrant king could no longer sit still.

although he didn't expect to win the game now.

However, they didn't manage to counterattack even once and were only passively being attacked.

If they didn't retaliate, their Crystal Tower would be destroyed by the wind and cloud Guild.

He was thoroughly disgraced.

That wouldn't do. He had to risk it and fight a battle of dignity. Even if he couldn't win, it didn't matter.

They had lost anyway, but at least they had tried.

it was better than doing nothing and losing inexplicably.

you all have your cloaks, right? let's go back and fight with the wind and cloud Guild.

Subjugator said in the party channel.

"But we can't beat them at all."

we have to fight even if we can't win. If we drag this on for a few more minutes, six-pipe Bodhisattva will unlock his divine weapon. By then, we won't stand a chance.

we don't have to fight them head-on. We just have to harass them from the side so that they can't push the crystal Pagoda in peace.

that's right. Also, they have so many meches. We have to find a way to clear some of them.

it's decided then. Our main goal is to clear out the troops, then harass them. We will never fight the wind and cloud Guild head-on.

let's go back together. We'll meet up under the third turret in the middle lane.

While the members of the domineering aura Guild were making their way back, Zhang Shan and the other five were having a hard time attacking the Crystal Tower.

It was a little hard to break through. With their attack power of a few hundred each, they were going to destroy the Crystal Tower that had 10000000 HP.

It was really tiring.

And this was with hundreds of meches attacking together. If it was just the five of them.

Zhang Shan had already turned around and went back to kill in the wilderness.

If they were to rely on themselves, they might not be able to destroy the crystal Pagoda even at the end of the game if they did not unlock the divine weapon.

the players from the domineering aura Guild have all disappeared. They should be coming back to fight us, right? "

Windcloud blade suddenly warned in the party channel.

it's even better if they dare to come and fight me. I'm just short of gold coins to unlock the divine weapon. I just need to kill a few people and I'll have enough gold coins.

Zhang Shan said without a care. If the domineering King was willing to come and give his head away, wouldn't that be great?

He was just about to spend some money to unlock the godly equipment.

I'm just afraid that when they come back, they won't fight us head-on, but will keep harassing us, so that we can't push the crystal Pagoda in peace. That will be a little annoying.

it's fine. Later on, you guys stand inside. I'll stand guard outside. Let's see if the domineering air Guild dares to come over and harass us.

Zhang Shan was not worried about the possible harassment from the domineering air Guild.

although the other party had also unlocked two or three pieces of red equipment.

In terms of equipment, the difference between them and the wind and cloud Guild did not seem to be too great.

However, the players from Guild domineering aura were of low levels.

The members of the wind and cloud Guild were all level 10 and above, so their equipment was also level 10 red equipment.

In the domineering aura Guild, only rain god, who was farming at the bottom lane, was level 11.

The remaining four were all below level 10.

How could their Level 5 red equipment be the same as the level 10 red equipment that Zhang shanbian had?

The equipment was five levels apart, so the difference in attributes was quite big.

As long as Zhang Shan stood on the periphery, he would be able to protect the four people on his side within his shooting range.

Even if the players from Guild domination wanted to harass him, they could only do so.

He couldn't harass anyone else.

However, if they wanted to harass Zhang Shan, they had to be prepared to fall to the ground.

Don't think that just by buying a red cloak, you can block Zhang Shan's attack.

A level 5 red cloak only added 500 hp.

In addition to their own health, without a critical hit, Zhang Shan would not be able to kill them with one shot.

however, two shots were definitely enough.

Moreover, as long as he could drag this out for a while longer, he would be able to unlock the God-tier hand cannon.

By then, Zhang Shan's attack power should be more than 2000. He could shoot anyone with one shot.

It didn't take long for the domineering King and his men to gather under the defense tower.

"Go, we can't let the other side attack the Crystal Tower so comfortably."

the players from subjugator arrived near their crystal tower.

It was their own Crystal Tower, but the players from domineering aura did not dare to get close to it. They felt very pitiful.

...

"The six-barreled Bodhisattva is standing at the outermost area. as long as we get close, we'll have to face his attack directly."

don't be afraid. Let's clear some meches first.

" i don't think it's meaningful to clear out the meches now. let's focus on six-pipe bodhisattva first. who knows how many gold coins he'll need to unlock the divine weapon? "

alright, then we'll play six-pipe Bodhisattva. The four of you will take turns.

Tyrant king thought for a moment, and then decided.

However, he couldn't go up there himself. He was a melee class, and his equipment and level were the worst.

Going up would just be giving his head away.

He would let his four teammates take turns to harass Zhang Shan, and then look for other opportunities.

Very quickly, the four members of the domineering aura Guild moved closer to Zhang Shan.

One of them was domineering sky. While Zhang Shan was attacking the crystal Pagoda, he suddenly sneaked up and shot a shot before running away.

Zhang Shan had wanted to turn around and give him two more shots, but who knew that he would run away so quickly.

Forget it, I'll ignore him and continue to attack the crystal Pagoda. I'll show them what I'm made of after I unlock the divine weapon.

Just like that, the players from the domineering aura Guild continued to harass them, and they became more and more daring.

In the beginning, they would only fight once before running back.

Later on, when they realized that Zhang Shan did not counterattack, they would sometimes attack him a little more.

this caused windling and feng yun qing qing to have to continuously heal zhang shan. otherwise, they would not have been able to hold on.

Damn it, he was pushing it.

Zhang Shan decided that he had to teach them a lesson even without waiting for the divine weapon.

When the domineering Little Prince once again came up to attack Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan suddenly turned back and used his jumping skill to close the distance between him and the other party.

He activated his berserk and fanatic skills and instantly knocked out domineering Prince with two shots.

Before anyone could react, Zhang Shan had already turned his gun around and aimed at domineering sky. Another two shots were fired.

The remaining three players from Subjugator immediately scattered like birds and beasts, running away like rabbits.

[system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed domineering Prince. Six-barreled Bodhisattva is now massacring like a god.]

&Lt; system notification: six-barreled Bodhisattva has killed domineering sky. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has surpassed godlike killing. Six-barreled Bodhisattva has completed a double kill. &Gt;

He killed two more enemies and earned 1000 gold coins, which was just enough to unlock the God-tier hand cannon.

Zhang Shan immediately unlocked his hand cannon and looked at his attack power. It had reached more than 2400.

He looked at the three remaining members of domineering aura and continued to push the Crystal Tower.

Let's see if they still dare to come up.

At this time, Subjugator had also checked the battle record and found that Zhang Shan had unlocked the God equipment.

the six-barreled Bodhisattva has already unlocked the divine weapon. Let's give up and wait for the competition to end.

He was calm now. There was no need to struggle anymore. He could just sit and wait for the competition to end. Against Zhang Shan, who had a divine weapon, what was there to fight?

Chapter 298 splitting the pot

After Zhang Shan had unlocked the God-tier hand cannon, the members of the domineering aura Guild had never appeared in his field of vision.

No one knew where he was hiding, waiting for the match to end.

Zhang Shan's group of five did not care about this. The most important thing was to quickly destroy the crystal on the other side.

After unlocking the God equipment, Zhang Shan's attack was several times stronger than before. They were accumulating more and more meches on the road.

Therefore, they fought faster and faster. It seemed that a turret with 10 million HP was not that difficult to deal with.

During this period, the domineering Little Prince even resurrected from the Crystal Tower.

However, against all sorts of damage, he did not even last half a second before he was hacked to death by Feng Yun's blade and axe.

This made Windcloud blade very proud. He was considered the second player in the entire competition to have a kill count.

After continuously attacking the Crystal Tower for less than five minutes, Zhang Shan fired a shot and destroyed the Crystal Tower of the domineering aura Guild.

the match ended.

&Lt; system announcement: < has failed the challenge. Wind and cloud Guild has won the challenge.
&Gt;

All the participants came out of the competition map and returned to the Guild residence.

“ASIBA, I thought that this Guild War would be very difficult. I didn’t expect it to be this simple.”

“simple? If it wasn’t for the six-barreled boss who opened up the situation from the start, we would still have had a chance.”

that’s right. The opening advantage of this Crystal Guardian is too important.

“Speaking of which, we still chose the wrong lineup. Actually, domineering Aura’s lineup is pretty good. At least at the start of the game, they had a clear advantage in the lane.”

“Yes, if we encounter this mode again in the future, at most we will bring a support. The key is to suppress the laning.”

“As long as you kill the other side once or twice in the lane, you’ll basically be able to lock in the victory.”

“Hehe, there won’t be a next time. Who would dare to fight a Guild War with us now?”

haha, even if they don’t attack us, we can still challenge them and attack them.

“Then forget it.”

“With an additional 10% of Guild contribution points from domineering aura, our Guild is about to reach Level 4.”

“Yes, I should be able to do it tomorrow.”

“a level 4 guild can learn another guild skill. think of a way to get a guild skill book.”

it’s easy to say. Where can we get this? it’s too rare.

“I won’t say anymore, let’s go and farm monsters.”

“Let’s go and farm some monsters.”

After the Guild challenge was completed, other than gaining a lot of Guild contribution points, Zhang Shan also received a few hundred thousand gold.

although he was now a rich man with a net worth of 200 million, 100000 gold coins was not a small harvest.

Teleport to the beast King Valley through the positioning ball and find boss Wu and heart follows me, who were farming monsters.

He continued to farm monsters.

As for Feng Yun realm and the other three, they had to run over from Heaven's Gate.

The positioning bead was really useful.

Zhang Shan felt more and more that this thing was really practical to use.

It was much more effective than a divine weapon.

the wind and cloud guild won another guild challenge, and it was the second-ranked guild, domineering aura.

the guild challenge this time was completely different from the other guild challenges.

In the past, outsiders didn't know the process of the battle.

This time, it was different. Before the start of the match, the domineering King had already started a live broadcast of the match.

However, he couldn't stand the criticism and turned off the live broadcast.

But even so, it was still enough to satisfy the eyes of many onlookers.

The world Channel:

I just want to ask, does the face of the domineering King hurt? hehe.

haha, this is a fair competition. Everything is decided by strength. Some guys who rely on luck are about to show their true colors. When I think of the domineering King's opening speech, I can't help but laugh.

he's not wrong. It's true that strength speaks the loudest. However, it was the wind cloud Guild that defeated the domineering aura Guild.

the luck of the domineering King is really bad. Why did he encounter six-barreled Bodhisattva at the beginning of the line up? otherwise, he wouldn't have collapsed so easily.

that's because he's stupid. If he met six-barreled Bodhisattva, he could've gone somewhere else. If he couldn't beat him, why did he have to fight on the top lane? " that's right. He could have killed monsters together with domineering sky. It's better than giving away his kills online. He's given six-barreled Bodhisattva so much money.

domineering King is going to take the blame for this. He can't get rid of it even if he wants to. The other four players from his Guild are doing pretty well.

he lost the match all by himself. The domineering King is a talent.

"The best sixth person, hehe."

Zhang Shan did not care how the domineering air Guild split the blame. To him, it was fine as long as they won the competition.

...

However, that Secretary Feng Yun had been running the divine weapon missions for more than a day.

why wasn't there any movement? could he have been stuck on some mission?

He wanted to ask him since he had nothing to do while farming monsters anyway.

Calling for Secretary Feng Yun.

"You still haven't gotten your divine artifact?"

"Haha, we'll be there soon."

"F * ck, you've been running for more than a day, and you call this fast?"

"It's fine as long as you can handle it, what's a day of running? I didn't sleep last night. I was doing missions."

"ASIBA, are you saying that you've been running for more than 30 hours?"

Zhang Shan found it a little hard to understand. Wasn't it just buying materials? Why did he have to run for so long?

moreover, secretary feng yun had a horse to ride. even if he were to make a few rounds around the east capital, it would not take so long. it was a little too much.

"yeah, you don't know how abnormal ou zi is. he buys all kinds of materials and even buys food for him. he doesn't look like a divine craftsman at all."

"Isn't this taking too much time? What kind of materials would take such a long time to buy?"

I don't remember that. Anyway, I'll buy whatever ou Zi asks me to buy.

Well, it seemed that little Secretary Feng Yun was also numb to running. He was right.

If one spent more than 30 hours buying things non-stop, they would probably not remember what they had bought.

"Are you done running now?"

"It should be done. Little ou is helping me repair the divine artifact. I don't know if it can be repaired in one go. or do you want to do other quests?"

little secretary feng yun wasn't very sure.

it's starting to be repaired. It should be in the final stage. Previously, the NPCs would give me the divine equipment directly after repairing it. At most, they would just say a few words and no longer need to do any missions.

“that’s good. i’m scared of lil ‘ou. i ran around the east capital for more than 30 hours and didn’t dare to go offline. i was afraid that lil’ ou would die again after i went offline.”

how many gold coins did you spend to buy the materials? “he asked.

it’s alright. After teleporting to the eastern capital, the total cost was about 50 to 60 million gold coins.

“That’s alright, isn’t it a scam?”

it doesn’t matter. As long as I can fix the artifact, it’ll be fine. If I can get the artifact shield, I won’t be any worse than the Panda dumpling.

alright, little secretary feng yun was still fussing over this matter.

As an Ace Tank, his ability to tank was not as good as Zhang Shan’s pet. He should be very unhappy.

Chapter 299 divine weapon, wall of wind

Little Secretary Feng Yun was about to complete his divine weapon mission. The fourth divine weapon in the game was about to be born.

after equipping the god equipment shield, the little secretary could be considered a powerful guardian.

Although he didn’t know what kind of attributes and special effects his godly shield would have in the end, as long as it was a godly item, it wouldn’t be bad and would be very powerful.

Now that there were more and more divine artifacts, it seemed that the secret of the wind cloud Guild’s divine artifacts could not be kept for long.

Even if big mouth didn’t say anything, the other players would definitely try their best to find out or explore on their own.

It was also a matter of time before they discovered the secret of the divine artifact.

Not long after, Secretary Feng Yun displayed a shield on the Guild channel and said, ”

“Haha, I’m also someone with a divine artifact.”

“holy shit, a divine artifact shield? It’s really awesome.”

ASIBA, the little Secretary is about to rise. Who can kill such a strong shield? ”

“Is the spring of The Guardian Warriors coming? The God equipment shield is actually so powerful, and only Guardian Warriors can equip it. It’s so unfair to have one more piece of equipment than other classes.”

it’s just like that. It’s just a character that’s getting beaten up. If you can’t increase your damage skills and attack power, you can only take a beating no matter how tanky you are.

f * ck, taking a beating is also a kind of ability. How many hits can you take? I’m afraid you’ll be cut down to the ground by two blades if you’re not careful.

a shield that adds 30000 health points. Isn't this little Secretary even meatier than the six-barreled boss 'Panda dumpling? "

I guess so. If the little Secretary gets a purple cloak, she may surpass the Panda bear.

the purple cape is a little hard to get. We've fought so many bosses, but only Big Boss six-barreled managed to get two.

I can still get cloaks. There are more and more purple cloaks in the game now. A conservative estimate is that there are at least ten or twenty of them.

"Those belong to other people, wuwuwu."

"Farm more monsters and kill more bosses, you'll get it sooner or later."

Secretary Feng Yun's godly weapon had appeared, greatly increasing the Guild's ability to fight bosses. In the past, only Zhang Shan's Panda team could tank the BOSS. The others, including The Guardian Warriors, could not.

at most, they could only tank a slightly weaker red BOSS.

However, the Panda bear was not as useful as a true Guardian when it came to fighting a BOSS.

besides, having a strong tank would make things a lot more stable when fighting the BOSS.

Looking at the attributes of the divine Shield, Zhang Shan was drooling. It was a pity that he could not equip a shield.

[wind wall (divine artifact)](physical defense: 5000. Magic Defense: 5000. Health points: 30000, strength: 400.

Equipment level (sealed): currently level 30. The artifact will be unsealed as the player's level increases. It will be unsealed once every ten levels.

Durability, never worn out, bound to player little Secretary Feng Yun.

[special effect 1, protection: increases all defense by 10%.]

[special effect 2, wind wall: when attacked, there is a chance to trigger the wind wall special effect.] wall of wind will protect the user and disperse attacks. 20% chance of triggering.

[special effect 3: Vajra's invincibility: immune to all stunning, repelling, and other control effects.]

[special effect 4: Holy Strike: when attacking, there is a chance to trigger the special effect of Holy Strike. It ignores the target's defense and deals 10x the damage. The chance of triggering is 1%.]

this wall of wind was really strong. not only did it increase his defense and health points by so much, but it was also a god-tier equipment, so its attributes were naturally not too bad.

The main thing was that the special effects were too awesome.

Why did Zhang Shan feel that the special effects of other people's godly equipment were better than his?

Just like wind and cloud blade's sky splitting battle axe, that splash effect was truly the essence of the skill. It was extremely practical.

It was the same with the little Secretary's wall of wind.

Needless to say, the Holy Strike was a special effect shared by all divine weapons.

The first special effect, protection, wasn't much to say. It increased defense by 10%, which was normal.

However, the other two special effects were very impressive.

The wind wall special effect might be the life-bound special effect of this artifact shield. It was so powerful that it had a 20% miss effect.

No matter how he tried, he would be missed once every five hits.

If they were lucky, they might miss riddo.

If someone else kept triggering 'miss' while attacking the little Secretary, they would probably be so angry that their nose would be crooked.

the most important thing was that the wind wall's special effect missed all damage. not only could it avoid normal attacks, but it could also miss skill damage.

This was very powerful.

Just imagine, if someone else had reserved a skill and was ready to harvest a wave, but the skill was missed, what kind of experience would that be?

In addition to the wall of wind special effect, the king Kong motionless special effect was also amazing.

In other words, as long as he equipped this godly weapon, little Secretary Feng Yun would no longer have to be afraid of other people's crowd control skills.

This was because motionless Vajra was immune to all single control effects, which was simply terrifying.

The berserk skill was one of Zhang Shan's life-saving trump cards. After activating it, it only gave him immunity to crowd control for ten seconds.

Compared to the special effect of the little Secretary's godly shield, it was simply trash.

Even so, the berserk skill was currently the only skill in the game. Other than Zhang Shan, no one had ever heard of anyone else obtaining this skill book.

...

Zhang Shan had always felt that the berserk skill was very useful. Every time he was surrounded by a group of people, Zhang Shan would rely on the berserk skill to withstand the damage of others and attack crazily.

Others couldn't do anything to him, so a cannon that couldn't be stunned was terrifying.

However, he was afraid of comparing it. Compared to the king Kong's motionless special effect, the berserk skill was trash.

“little secretary, how much blood do you have now?”

Zhang Shan asked in the Guild channel. Before the godly shield was gone, the Secretary’s HP was already more than 60000. Now, the shield had added 30000 HP and 400 strength.

In addition, heart of protection doubled his HP.

Didn’t that mean that he had healed more than 60000 HP?

of course, this was after deducting the amount of health that the secretary’s red shield had added.

After all, the red Shield wasn’t trash. A level 30 Red Shield also added more than 10000 HP.

I almost lost 100000 HP. After I put on the divine Shield, my HP increased by 30000.

“it’s possible. with such a powerful shield, aren’t we going to fight a wave of bosses?”

“Where is the boss?”

“why don’t we go to the third floor of the demon-subduing stand? After we reached level 30, we haven’t been there yet. We’ve been busy making trouble these past few days.”

what the hell, we’re running towards beast King Valley, are we going to go back halfway? ”

Windcloud blade said unhappily.

“I’ll go and clear the dungeon in two days. There are still two or three days before the dungeon refresh.”

Feng Yun realm was currently on his way to farm monsters and did not want to return halfway. It would be a waste of time and it would be the same to go back to the dungeon in two days.

Chapter 300 not finished yet

After Feng Yun’s little Secretary created the God-tier shield, the Guild channel became very lively. Everyone was bragging about it.

Suddenly, Windcloud blade shouted in the Guild channel.

hurry up and send reinforcements. The domineering King can’t afford to lose. He’s leading a lot of Qin players to chase us.

“What’s going on? aren’t you all riding horses? Furthermore, all four of you have hero mounts. The players from the Qin country shouldn’t be able to catch up to you, right?”

“there are people everywhere, hurry up and send reinforcements.”

Even Feng Yun realm, who had always been cold and aloof, was no longer calm. He also called for help in the Guild channel.

After the Guild challenge had ended, Zhang Shan had directly teleported to beast King Valley to farm monsters.

However, the other four Guild challengers, including Windcloud blade and the others, could only run over from Heaven's Gate.

They were not like Zhang Shan, who had a positioning Pearl that made it convenient for him to come and go.

damn it, this shameless and domineering King dared to kill our boss. Let's go and help him.

In an instant, the entire wind and cloud Guild was in a rage.

The main thing was that the domineering King was simply too much of a jerk. He was simply like a Mad Dog, biting anyone he saw, and not letting go after biting.

Originally, it was just the domineering aura Guild that came to Chu country to massacre the city and become a local guild of Chu country.

If the wind cloud Guild helped cloud dream city and beat the domineering aura Guild, the matter would be more or less over.

Who knew that Subjugator would be so angry that he would issue a guild challenge?

However, the wind and cloud Guild had once again slapped him in the face.

Even at this point, Subjugator still did not give up. He wanted to take advantage of the wind cloud Guild's members who were participating in the Guild challenge to kill them.

He was simply unyielding, like a Mad Dog.

Zhang Shan was also a little annoyed by this person. He just couldn't afford to lose and wanted to cause trouble.

At most, they would just fight another wave.

Your domineering air Guild is awesome. Your players from the country of Qin are United and have a lot of people.

So what? my horse runs fast, and I can drag you to death with guerilla tactics. Who's afraid of who?

"Let's go. We'll annihilate the domineering aura Guild and pick up the boss."

we don't need too many people. Just a few hundred people will be enough. The main thing is that they need to run fast.

feng yun realm said in the guild channel.

There was no point in sending too many people, and it would delay everyone's time to farm monsters.

In terms of numbers, they were no match for the domineering King. That fellow could summon millions of people with just a single call.

the wind and cloud guild only had 50000 players in total. no matter how many players went, they would still be sending themselves to their deaths.

It would be better to just send a few hundred people to pick up Feng Yun realm and the other three.

Since they were still on their horses, it would be impossible for domineering aura to catch them.

After all, the four big shots 'mounts were all hero mounts, and the 10000000 gold coins were not wasted.

He ran so fast that not many people in Subjugator could catch up to him.

they could only rely on their advantage in numbers to surround him.

All Zhang Shan and the rest needed to do was to create an opening in the encirclement of the domineering King.

By the time Feng Yun realm and the other three broke out of the encirclement, even the domineering King would not be able to catch up.

At that time, everyone from wind cloud Guild would be farming monsters in beast King Valley. It was impossible for Subjugator to attack beast King Valley.

If he was really that stubborn, the wind and cloud Guild probably wouldn't mind reaping a bunch of lives.

After all, the beast King Valley was a very good defensive map.

The peerless Guild of the former Qi state, with more than 200000 players and many trump cards, had failed to break in in.

Domineering aura might be a lot stronger than peerless.

However, it was impossible for them to invade beast King Valley.

those with hero mounts and Dawan horses, follow me. The rest of you, continue to farm monsters. Also, strengthen the defense at the entrance of the passage.

The main leaders of the Guild, Feng Yun realm and Feng Yun one blade, were being hunted down.

The remaining Guild bosses were usually the same as Zhang Shan. They didn't really care about the matters.

This time, they needed to organize a response, but there was no one to take the lead, so it was a mess.

Zhang Shan shouted in the Guild channel, gathering the fast horses to go to the rescue.

They didn't want to face off against Guild Subjugator directly. They didn't need too many players, nor did they need to be particularly strong.

As long as they ran fast, it would be fine. Zhang Shan and the other Guild bosses would be enough to hack open a gap.

The rest of them just needed to cover them.

He had to admit that the mounts in the game were indeed a little expensive.

Even for a big Guild like wind cloud Guild, the players who had hero mounts were only the big bosses who had been hanging out with wind cloud realm in the beginning.

As for those who had Dawan horses, there were not many of them. In total, there were less than 500 of them.

...

A good Mount was simply too expensive.

A hero's Mount would cost 10 million gold coins, and even a Dawan horse would cost 500 thousand gold coins.

The average player couldn't afford to play this.

Zhang Shan led five hundred men out of beast King Valley and ran towards Feng Yun realm.

During this period, Zhang Shan had also pulled the four of them into the team so that he could check their location through the team information.

That way, it would be easier to rescue.

how's the situation on your side? just how many people did Subjugator bring to surround you guys? " zhang shan asked in the team channel.

at the beginning, there weren't many people, but now there are more and more players in the state of Qin. We've taken a few detours, and there are people blocking us every time.

windcloud blade replied dejectedly.

run to me. If you see anyone trying to stop you, I'll be responsible for crushing them.

...

Zhang Shan was not worried about the Qin players. No matter how many people there were, it would be useless if they were scattered.

I'll only bring 500 people. In a small area, there might be more people than the Qin players.

After Zhang Shan and the rest rushed out of the beast King Valley, not long after, they saw Qin players loitering nearby.

it seemed like domineering king was determined to keep feng yun realm and the other three.

the interception team had been deployed to the edge of beast king valley.

However, Zhang Shan did not care about them and continued to rush forward.

Many of these Qin players were only here to play a supporting role.

He saw Zhang Shan and his group of over five hundred people, whistling past.

They didn't dare to stop him and made way for him, calling out in the country of Qin's national channel.

"Someone from the wind and cloud Guild has come out to support us."

how many people are there? did the entire Guild come out?"

Subjugator asked. He was not afraid of the Windcloud Guild's rescue.

In fact, he was hoping that more wind and clouds would come.

it was not easy to go back when there were too many people, and it was not easy to go back.

That way, he could have a head-on fight with the wind and cloud Guild.

When it came to numbers, who had he, the domineering King, ever been afraid of?

He had always had many brothers. Even if he turned off his livestream today and lost a lot of fans, it still didn't affect his position in the hearts of the players in the state of Qin.

"Uh, no. The wind cloud Guild only sent out a few hundred people. I saw that six-barreled Bodhisattva was leading the team."
