

Passive Skills 301

Chapter 301 the rabbit runs fast

Hearing this, Subjugator was a little disappointed.

The wind cloud Guild had only sent out 500 people, and they were led by Zhang Shan.

Then, needless to say, only a group of experts had come.

A few hundred people came and went like the wind, he couldn't catch them even if he wanted to.

It seemed like he had to think of a way to defeat Feng Yun realm and the other three first.

Otherwise, if they were to join up with Zhang Shan's 500 men, his efforts would have been in vain.

"If you see six tube Bodhisattva, try to hold them back. The rest of you, try to hold Feng Yun realm back."

Subjugator decided on a strategy. This time, he had to leave something behind for wind and cloud Guild.

Otherwise, she would be sorry for his swollen face.

The players from the state of Qin tried to block them off, but Subjugator himself led a group of elites and rushed to the front.

Keep an eye on where Feng Yun realm and the others are going and be ready to intercept them at any time.

When Zhang Shan had just left the beast King Valley, it had been rather smooth.

Although they could occasionally see some Qin players, they knew their own limits.

They didn't dare to come up and court death.

However, for some unknown reason, the players from the state of Qin seemed to have gone crazy.

They dared to charge at Zhang Shan's team of more than 500 people. They were simply courting death.

Although these people's actions would not cause any losses to Zhang Shan and the rest, they would delay his escape speed.

he still had to save people. if he kept getting off the horse and shooting, wouldn't that be a waste of time?

This couldn't do. He had to change his thinking.

"if you see anyone trying to stop you, charge straight ahead. i'll be in charge of clearing them out."

Zhang Shan was furious. So what if there were more people? if you're not afraid of death, then come.

The interception of a few people or dozens of people did not need anyone else's help at all. Zhang Shan alone could handle it.

Every time he was done, Zhang Shan would speed up his horse to catch up with the team.

Slowly, they were getting closer and closer to Feng Yun realm's side and soon, the two sides would be able to meet.

as long as they gathered, the rescue mission could be declared over. everyone could just run directly to beast king valley.

If the domineering King was willing to stay outside and not farm monsters, then he would be considered ruthless.

At that moment, wind and cloud blade suddenly said.

it seems like we can't escape this time. Subjugator has brought thousands of people with him and blocked the way. There are also people on both sides. There's no way to go around.

"Don't worry about it, you guys just charge in. Don't you and Feng Yun realm have a big move? There's no need to stay, use your big move and charge, I'll be there immediately."

Zhang Shan brought 500 men and broke through all the obstacles along the way. From afar, he saw the domineering King blocking the way with his men.

Meanwhile, Feng Yun realm and the other three were at the other end of the road.

when we get closer, we'll rush over directly and rescue the bosses. Let's use our big move and beat the domineering King one more time.

Domineering King looked at Feng Yun realm in front of him and then at Zhang Shan behind him.

He was a little uncertain. He knew how many ultimate skills the wind and cloud Guild had.

there were only a thousand people around him, and he was afraid that they wouldn't be able to hold on.

However, it was obviously impossible for him to escape, so he could only brace himself and continue fighting.

"Don't worry about the others, let's settle Feng Yun realm first."

With that, he led his men and charged towards Feng Yun realm.

f * ck, you're looking for death. So what if you have more people? "

Windcloud blade was enraged. He dismounted and charged into the crowd of players from domineering aura. At the same time, he activated his Berserker's Fury skill, increasing his damage by 100%.

As he charged into the crowd, he quickly activated his destructive skill, and violent fluctuations spread out in all directions.

With Windcloud blade as the center, everything within a 50-yard radius was cleared.

However, regarding the wind cloud Guild's big move ...

the tyrant king was prepared.

As a result, they didn't get too close to each other. The effect of wind and cloud blade's ultimate skill wasn't very good.

At most, he had only knocked down two to three hundred people.

Buy some time.

After Windcloud blade had used his ultimate, he was like a tiger without teeth.

a large number of qin players surrounded him.

At this point, Feng Yun realm could not wait any longer as he unleashed a rain of fire.

It swept away all the enemies around wind and cloud blade.

The two of them had used up all their ultimate skills, but there were still five to six hundred Qin players around Subjugator.

If Zhang Shan was not supporting them from behind, Feng Yun realm and the other three might not even be able to last for five seconds.

However, Zhang Shan had already arrived.

Following heart used the invincible slash skill and cleared another area.

There were less than 300 Qin players left.

"Let's exterminate these people."

Even though there were still large numbers of Qin players rushing over.

However, Zhang Shan did not care about it at all. By the time the players from the Qin country ran over, they would at most be able to collect the corpses of Subjugator and the others and revive them.

Zhang Shan charged straight at the domineering King. This guy had become extremely wretched.

The three big moves just now didn't reach him, so he was lucky enough to survive.

The other members of the wind and cloud Guild also rushed toward the players from the state of Qin.

Zhang Shan had brought more than five hundred people with him. Among these people, more than fifty of them were the big bosses who had been hanging out with Feng Yun realm.

These people had good equipment and skills.

There were only about three hundred people left on Subjugator's side.

it wouldn't take much time for the wind and cloud guild to annihilate them.

With Zhang Shan around, he had swept through everything in his path. He would kill anyone who stood in his way.

“Why don’t we run first and meet up with the other brothers?”

when they saw Zhang Shan and the others from the Wind and Cloud Guild, they rushed over aggressively.

A member of the domineering Aura Guild suggested.

There was still a large number of Qin players behind them, and they would be able to gather in less than a minute.

There was no need for that now. They were going all out against the Wind and Cloud Guild.

However, the Conqueror King was unwilling to give up. Yesterday, it was in Cloud Dream City. Today, it was the Guild challenge.

They had been beaten like dogs by the Wind and Cloud Guild, and now they were running away.

It was really unbearable.

But what could he do? The situation was stronger than the person, so he had to run.

Everyone was riding on their horses, and of course, Subjugator was also riding on his Hero Mount.

His speed was not any slower than Zhang Shan’s.

At that moment, Zhang Shan really could not catch up to him.

Damn it, he was like a Mad Dog when he was arrogant, but like a rabbit when he ran away. It was really hard on him.

Zhang Shan shouted as he gave chase.

Don’t run, domineering King! Let’s fight one-on-one if you have the guts! Don’t run like a rabbit! Those who don’t know might think that you’re the rabbit’s husband!

The Subjugator, who was running away in front, was so angry that he almost vomited blood after hearing Zhang Shan’s words.

Who the hell was the rabbit?

Who wants to fight you one-on-one? You’re shameless.

You have two divine artifacts on you, while the others don’t have a single one, and you still have the face to ask for a one-on-one fight?

Although the domineering King really wanted to turn back and fight with Zhang Shan.

However, his rationality told him that he should run if he could. Wasn’t it better to be alive?

He did not reply to Zhang Shan.

Because the domineering King felt that no matter how much he said, it would only be a humiliation.

Chapter 302 Equipment drops after killing

Although the domineering King had been angered to the point of spitting blood, he did not have the courage to turn around and face Zhang Shan head on.

He didn't want to reply. If he did, he knew what Zhang Shan would say in anger.

It was better to run quickly, as long as they met up with the Qin players.

the people that zhang shan had brought over were only five hundred people, after all. they did not dare to give chase.

When they saw the domineering King and the other players from the state of Qin, they ran for their lives.

Looking at the situation, Zhang Shan thought that he would not be able to catch up.

In fact, even if he caught up with them and defeated them, it would be meaningless.

It was impossible for him to guard the corpse, and sooner or later, he would be resurrected by the other Qin players. A large number of Qin players were rushing over.

The people from the wind and cloud Guild would probably not be able to stay here for more than a minute before they had to run back to the beast King Valley to farm monsters.

Zhang Shan was just about to turn back and stop chasing.

He suddenly realized that the road in front of him was a big Bend.

If he wanted to run fast, he could only run on the main road. He couldn't run through the forest.

it was because passing through the forest would affect the speed of the horse.

however, zhang shan could enter the forest. he did not have to run to the other side of the curve.

As long as he stood in the middle of the forest, his shooting range could seal off the main road.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan rushed straight into the forest.

When he reached the middle of the forest, he saw that the rest of the Qin players had just turned the corner and were running towards him.

Zhang Shan looked at the distance. He should be able to reach it.

He quickly got off his horse, locked onto Subjugator, and fired.

" thud, thud, thud. " three shots in a row knocked the tyrant king to the ground.

Moreover, after Subjugator fell to the ground, he dropped a piece of red equipment. What an unlucky bastard.

The other Qin players who were running away were stunned.

Damn it, the boss was already on the ground, so how could he still run?

boss has fallen to the ground. Support, quickly pull boss up.

boss dropped his equipment. Help him pick it up.

A few of the support players quickly got down from their horses and prepared to revive Subjugator.

However, under Zhang Shan's fire blockade, how could these people have the chance to revive the domineering King?

Zhang Shan's hand cannon continued to fire bullets, knocking down a few of the support players.

f * ck, that dog, six-barreled Bodhisattva. We'll fight him to the death!

The remaining players from the state of Qin also stopped running. What was the point of running? at most, they would just die Here.

Anyway, even if they fell to the ground, there would be players from the state of Qin coming over to revive them.

In their eyes, Zhang Shan's actions were a serious provocation.

How could he look down on them? after all, domineering aura was the second-ranked Guild.

They were all elite players from domineering aura.

Zhang Shan had defeated their boss in front of them. Could they still tolerate this?

The remaining 300 or so Qin players originally wanted to run back and meet up with the main force.

this time, no matter what was said, they could no longer tolerate it. they all dismounted and rushed towards the small forest where zhang shan was.

"let's attack together and cut down six-barreled bodhisattva."

even if we all fall here today, we'll still kill six-barreled Bodhisattva.

"F * ck him, let him be arrogant."

"So what if he has a divine weapon? cut him down."

Seeing the three hundred people charging towards him, Zhang Shan did not retreat.

Instead, they continued to move forward, locking down the area around where Subjugator had fallen.

Don't think that I'll be afraid of you just because you have three hundred people.

I still have over five hundred brothers behind me.

Zhang Shan did not have to worry at all. The members of the wind and cloud Guild behind him were galloping on their horses and joining the battle very quickly.

At this moment, Windcloud blade had also caught up. He dismounted from his horse and used charge, taking down a player from the state of Qin with two swings of his axe.

haha, kill them quickly. Let's try to kill all of them before the other Qin players arrive.

Wind and cloud blade called out happily.

Damn it, after coming out of Heaven's Gate today, he had been chased by this group of people for 800 streets.

if he didn't take this opportunity to kill them all, he would be letting down his mighty divine weapon battleaxe.

Zhang Shan wielded his musket and advanced forward.

As long as a player from the state of Qin appeared within his shooting range, he would be able to take them down with three shots at most. For those who were more fragile, they might fall to the ground with one shot.

wind and cloud blade wielded the divine weapon battleaxe and was extremely ferocious.

However, after using charge, it would be difficult to catch up with a second target.

however, he wasn't the only one present.

Weren't there other wind and cloud guild members? they could use a stun or speed reduction skill to stop the players from the state of Qin.

windcloud blade immediately rushed up and chopped down with his axe. he was so happy that he flew up.

With Zhang Shan and wind and cloud blade, the two powerful damage dealers with divine weapons in their hands.

These 300 Qin players quickly broke down.

They could not even get close to Zhang Shan, let alone cut him down.

Even if they charged forward with all their might, they still couldn't change the result.

That would only make them die faster, saving the wind and cloud Guild some time to kill people.

In just a short while, the 300-odd members of the domineering aura Guild were all beaten to the ground.

These people were really tough. From the beginning to the end, no one ran away. They all rushed towards Zhang Shan.

In the end, they all fell while charging.

Other than the red equipment that had been dropped by Subjugator, the rest of the items were trash.

however, trash still had to be picked up. even a mosquito's leg was meat, and it couldn't be wasted.

Zhang Shan picked up the red equipment dropped by Subjugator. It was a level 30 strength-type necklace.

They were worth tens of thousands of gold coins.

After the others quickly cleaned up the battlefield, they turned around and ran away under Feng Yun realm's lead.

He couldn't stay in this place for long. Who knew when the other Qin players would arrive?

In order to encircle Feng Yun realm and the other three, domineering King had sent out quite a number of people.

however, these people did not gather together. instead, they spread out and surrounded the area.

Now that even the domineering King had been knocked to the ground, there was no point in them surrounding him.

They were probably all on their way here.

"haha, i just chopped down another dozen. this axe is really useful."

Windcloud blade called out smugly as he rode away.

"What are you calling, you only know how to snatch people's heads."

that's right. I finally managed to slow you down with charge, but you took my head with two axes.

that's right. Brother Yidao is so shameless. He also snatched the one that I fainted.

windcloud blade's words drew the ire of the crowd.

The battle just now did not even last a minute.

speed reduction and stun skills were skills that everyone had only used once.

The battle was over before the second cooldown was over.

it wasn't easy for them to encounter a favorable situation, and everyone was prepared to harvest a head after they fainted.

In the end, wind and cloud blade snatched them all away.

This guy only had one charge skill, and after using it, he would become a high-level infantryman.

If there weren't other people's speed reduction or stun skills, he might not even be able to kill someone.

"I'm just trying to end the battle as soon as possible, hehe."

Wind cloud blade explained helplessly.

Chapter 303 a million soldiers

After Zhang Shan and the others had defeated the members of the domineering aura Guild, they turned around and rode away.

They had no intention of camping the corpses. Who knew how many Qin players were still running over here? they only had around 500 people.

if he didn't run now, he might not even have the chance to run if he waited any longer.

It would be great to run after the fight. Furthermore, Zhang Shan had dropped a red necklace after defeating the domineering King. It could be considered a small gain.

Not long after Zhang Shan and the rest ran away, a large number of Qin players rushed over. They went up to help revive the players from the domineering aura.

after being pulled up, the domineering king was furious.

ever since he had clashed with the wind and cloud guild, he had felt that everything had gone wrong.

How many times had he fallen to the ground in the past two days?

Including the times he had been knocked out in the Guild challenge, he had been knocked out five or six times in the past two days.

He was the leader of the second largest Guild in the game. From the start of the game until now, he had never fallen to the ground before.

why did he fall to the ground one after another when he encountered the wind and cloud guild?

This damn Feng Yun realm, this damn six-barreled Bodhisattva.

Subjugator couldn't take it anymore. If they didn't kill their way back, they would lose face as the second largest Guild in the game.

No, he had to continue chasing. Even if the people of wind and cloud Guild were hiding in beast King Valley to farm monsters, he didn't want to give up.

He had to kill them a few times to vent the hatred in his heart.

When he saw the players from the state of Qin, he waved his hand.

let's go. Today, we're going to take over the wind and cloud Guild's farming spot. We'll cut them all down and camp their corpses.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. No matter how difficult it was, he was going to give it a try.

that's right. We must kill everyone in the wind and cloud Guild and let them be arrogant.

"damn it, didn't they just get lucky and get a few divine weapons and ultimate skills? in terms of strength, they're still far from us, yet they're so arrogant. this is too much. cut them down."

"The farming point of the wind and cloud Guild is not easy to deal with. The second time, the unparalleled gentleman tried it once, but he didn't manage to get in."

A rational member of Subjugator reminded.

"What are you afraid of? Can peerless Guild compete with us?"

that's right. We have a million soldiers and we'll crush them all the way. With the few people from the wind and cloud Guild, we can completely crush them into pieces.

"What's there to be afraid of? we'll just push it over and it'll be over."

"It just so happens that wind and cloud Guild has used three big moves just now. They only have one big move left. if we charge with all our might, we'll definitely be able to break into beast king valley."

as long as we enter beast King Valley, the tens of thousands of players from wind cloud Guild will be nothing but a bunch of small fries.

let's find out who still has scrolls. We'll buy them at a high price and buy a few powerful scrolls. We'll just throw them down and the wind and cloud Guild won't be able to defend against them.

"let's go to the beast king valley first and block them inside, then we'll take our time to deal with them."

"Let's go."

the domineering king waved his hand, and a large number of qin players galloped towards beast king valley.

At the same time, Subjugator was still busy recruiting soldiers in the country of Qin's national channel.

In addition, he also arranged for people to trade with players or guilds who had scrolls.

Tyrant king also knew that without a few scrolls, he would not be able to enter beast King Valley so easily.

Zhang Shan and the rest were on their way to beast King Valley. They had to go back and farm monsters.

How could he PK every day? how could he level if he didn't kill monsters? Without levels, everything was just floating clouds.

Feng Yun realm said in the Guild channel before they reached beast King Valley.

" the tyrant king is gathering his men. he wants to attack beast king valley. "

Feng Yun realm had placed a few spies in the country of Qin and Subjugator was recruiting people on the country channel.

He found out very quickly.

Of course, with such a big operation by Subjugator, even if there were no spies, it would be impossible to hide it. The wind and cloud Guild would find out sooner or later.

"Is he really going to do it?"

how can he break into beast King Valley's terrain? "

" it seems like subjugator didn't learn his lesson from peerless 'defeat. "

"It's not strange for that arrogant guy to do anything."

don't worry about him. Let's go back and kill some monsters. Just arrange the defense.

” we still have to be careful. since the domineering king dares to come, he must have some hidden cards up his sleeve. ”

” it’s a pity that we only have one big move left. otherwise, a few big moves would be enough to make him despair. ”

it’s fine. We’re getting stronger and stronger. There’s no problem with our defense.

As soon as they returned to the beast King Valley, Feng Yun realm immediately adjusted his defense.

Three batches of long-range soldiers were arranged at the entrance of the passage, and they blocked the entrance with long-range firepower.

In order to prevent them from being wiped out by Guild domination’s scrolls or ultimate skills, they had to kill them all in one wave.

Feng Yun realm had specially arranged for three groups of people to defend.

If the first wave of people fell, the people behind could quickly fill in the gaps.

Every wave was separated by 50 to 100 yards, preventing them from being wiped out by powerful skills or scrolls.

The other members of the Guild also quickly gathered at the entrance.

If they farmed monsters nearby, they could defend the entrance of the passage within half a minute and provide support.

zhang shan was not assigned to defend, but to farm nearby.

Looking at the domineering King’s stance this time, he was probably serious.

He estimated that he would not be able to solve it in a short time. He could not possibly keep guarding the entrance of the passage.

Even if he wasn’t there, the others could still defend it.

Besides, he and the other big bosses of wind and cloud Guild were not far from the entrance of the passage.

They could see the situation on the other side of the tunnel by farming monsters here.

...

As long as the situation wasn’t right, they could immediately rush over on their horses. In less than half a minute, they could provide support.

“that was close, i almost didn’t make it in.”

Feng Yun’s little Secretary said in the Guild channel.

After he had settled the relic Shield, he had run to the beast King Valley alone.

The Qin players 'interception target had been locked on Feng Yun realm and the other three.

No one noticed him and he managed to escape back to the beast King Valley.

f * ck, you're so lucky. There are players from the state of Qin outside, but they didn't block you? " no, I've been riding my horse all the way, but not many people hit me. It was only outside the beast King Valley just now that some Qin players wanted to kill me like mad Dogs.

"Then how did you get in?"

"How else can we charge? Just charge straight ahead and tank the damage. Anyway, the horse runs fast, so just tank a wave of damage and it'll be fine."

you're awesome! Is this the power of a divine artifact shield? "

"Hehe, it's a piece of cake."

"If you continue to be smug, I'll let you go to the passageway to defend."

"Don't, I'm just a meat shield. I can't play much of a role in defense."

Just as the wind cloud Guild was arranging their defense, Subjugator led the Qin players towards beast King Valley.

Along the way, more and more players from the state of Qin joined the group. Gradually, they gathered millions of soldiers and pressed towards beast King Valley.

Chapter 304 Fatigue tactic the large scale movement of the qin players quickly attracted the attention of other players.

After all, the various large guilds had to keep an eye on an Army of a million players rampaging through Heaven's Gate.

Who knew who they were going to fight?

If the domineering King went crazy, it was possible that he would just randomly pick a small force and cause a ruckus.

Everyone was paying attention to the Guild's movements and at the same time, trying to find out what had happened.

the world channel:

Subjugator is really a dog-skin plaster. He won't let go of the wind cloud Guild.

"Are they going to attack the wind and cloud Guild?"

it should be. Recently, only the three major guilds of Chu have had conflicts with the domineering aura Guild. No one else has provoked them.

that's hard to say. The domineering King doesn't look at the reason for beating people up. It's not like I've never seen people get beaten up without provoking him.

didn't they just finish the Guild War with the wind and cloud Guild? it's time to settle their grudges.

"it's all because of the guild war just now. the wind and cloud guild has beaten subjugator too badly. with subjugator's personality, will he be able to take this lying down?"

that's right. The domineering King is that kind of person. After suffering such a big loss, it would be strange if he didn't take revenge.

"By the way, did the domineering King suffer a loss? He just lost a guild challenge. Moreover, he initiated the Guild challenge himself. Is he that bad at losing?"

that depends on who he loses to. If he loses to the war god Guild, Subjugator will definitely farm monsters and develop himself. He will not be satisfied if he loses to the wind and cloud Guild.

that's not the point. The point is that domineering King was defeated by six-pipe Bodhisattva three times during the match. He was waiting to be resurrected throughout the match and had no gaming experience at all, hehe.

"haha, that's right. six-barreled bodhisattva is too ruthless. he kept targeting the domineering king and angered this big shot."

"latest news, just now, the domineering king wanted to take advantage of feng yun realm's battle to stop him on his way to heaven's gate to kill monsters. not only did he not succeed, he was also defeated by six-pipe bodhisattva."

ASIBA, the six-barreled Bodhisattva is too much. He keeps targeting the Guild leader. Doesn't the domineering King Care about his reputation?"

haha! No wonder the domineering King is so angry! This is going to be a good show!

we're not in the city this time. Wind and cloud doesn't have the home ground advantage. They probably can't beat Subjugator.

"How can they not have the home-court advantage? don't you know the farming point that the wind and cloud Guild has? It's easy to defend and hard to attack."

I know, it's a map of beast King Valley. I heard that it's a very good place to farm monsters. It was snatched by the wind and cloud Guild from the hands of the Qi Kingdom players.

"That's right. In the future, peerless Guild tried to snatch it, but they couldn't defeat wind and cloud."

I wonder if domineering aura will be able to defeat wind and cloud this time?"

"What's the point of fighting? the wind and cloud Guild definitely won't fight with them. It's not easy to break into that kind of terrain."

that's right. There are many similar maps, but I've never seen anyone enter it.

but it's different for domineering aura. The strength of the perpetual second place is no joke.

let's wait and see. I don't think domineering aura will make it either. They won't be able to get in either. haha, you can't do it either. Well said. Domineering aura was already in a bad state. They were continuously slapped in the face by wind and cloud. How could they still have the demeanor of number two?"

Under the lead of the domineering King, the Qin players gradually arrived outside of beast King Valley. Millions of soldiers covered the sky and the earth, with no end in sight.

However, there were only a few entrances to the tunnel. No matter how many people they had, only three to five people could enter at a time.

If they didn't have any tricks up their sleeves, they would only be shot to death when they entered.

"boss, what should we do?"

The Little Prince of Subjugator asked Subjugator.

"Let's give it a try first. Arrange for someone to charge in directly."

Even though Subjugator had just found someone and bought three scrolls at a high price.

However, these scrolls had to be used at the most crucial moment, and it was still early.

The overbearing King was indeed arrogant, but he did not think that they would be able to charge into beast King Valley so easily.

The wind and cloud Guild must have already made preparations and would not let him succeed so easily.

Under the arrangement of the domineering King, groups of Qin players rushed towards the entrance of the tunnel.

However, Subjugator was overthinking things. The Guild of wind and cloud did not take him seriously at all.

The wind cloud Cupid was assigned to command the defense at the entrance of the passage.

The other main force members continued to farm monsters as usual, so no one was worried about Subjugator's invasion.

To be honest, it was a waste of time for the domineering King to attack beast King Valley.

This was simply impossible.

The overall strength of the wind cloud Guild had greatly improved, but they were only blocking the entrance of the passage.

It couldn't be any easier.

Groups of Qin players rushed out of the passage and were shot one by one.

It didn't cause any waves at all.

Tyrant king looked on from afar. He also felt that things were a little tricky.

the wind and cloud guild had arranged for hundreds of ranged players to block the passage.

Only five players from the state of Qin could charge out at once.

It was not enough to fight the other party at all.

How should he charge? No wonder unparalleled gentleman couldn't get in.

This was way too difficult.

even though he still had three scrolls in his hands.

However, scrolls weren't omnipotent, even though they were powerful.

Some of them were much more powerful than the ultimate moves.

However, there was a limited number of them, and one used meant one less.

What if they still couldn't make it in after using up all the scrolls?

Subjugator was in a dilemma. He did not want to use the scroll right from the start.

Because if he used it from the start, he would have no more trump cards in his hands.

if they couldn't charge in, then wouldn't they have to return home?

Subjugator did not want to waste his time again. No matter what, he had to destroy the wind cloud Guild.

"Boss, what should we do? we can't even charge in!"

The domineering Little Prince said to him.

keep charging, keep charging. After charging for an hour, the wind and cloud Guild's defense will eventually become numb.

The tyrant king thought to himself, " since there's no hole in your defense, I'll take it.

Then I'll just keep charging. You guys who are on the defense can't possibly be on high alert all the time and defend to the death, right? There would always be a time when he would relax.

It had to be said that the thoughts of the domineering King were quite right.

Feng Yun realm arranged for three groups of people to defend and each group had a few hundred long-ranged jobs.

however, these people who were on the defense kept their eyes on the entrance of the passage, and they would occasionally make mistakes.

There were a few times when the Qin players managed to rush out of the tunnel and enter the beast King Valley.

However, these Qin players were quickly defeated again.

After all, there were not many people who rushed in. The three waves of defense from the wind and cloud Guild still had more than 1000 people.

It was easy to deal with a small number of Qin players.

Chapter 305 The domineering King leads the charge

The Qin players 'action of charging through the passage lasted for a full hour.

they didn't do anything special, just lined up and rushed forward.

Near the entrance of the entire passage, corpses were strewn all over the ground, and people were lying on the ground.

the first players who fell to the ground could no longer wait for the support to resurrect them. they were directly resurrected back in the city and lost another level.

For the players from the state of Qin, following the domineering King in this wave of attacks was a huge loss.

The Overlord was simply using them as cannon fodder.

fortunately, the domineering king did not make them lose their levels for nothing. every qin player fell to the ground.

He had given gold coins to make up for it, which was a little comfort.

The players from the state of Qin continued to attack and Feng Yun realm never thought of adjusting his defense.

It was still Fengyun qiute who led the original group of people to guard the entrance of the tunnel.

The remaining guild members continued to farm monsters as usual.

should we make some preparations? I feel that there's something strange about the tyrant king's actions. Who would always send people to their deaths like this? "

that's right. He must have another trump card in his hand. He just hasn't used it yet.

there's no hurry. Let's move closer to the entrance of the passage. If the situation doesn't look good, we'll rush over immediately.

Feng Yun realm was not worried at all. He was very confident in the strength of his guild members.

Everyone's equipment and skills weren't bad, so why would they be afraid of not being able to defend the terrain?

Since Feng Yun realm said so, the others did not say anything else.

moreover, there was no need to worry too much. with the current strength of the wind cloud guild, even if subjugator and his men were to rush in, they would not be able to do so.

They were also confident that they would be able to send the domineering King flying.

After all, the passage was so narrow that even if Subjugator was given two to three minutes, not many people would be able to get in.

If he opened the passage for them to enter, he estimated that less than ten to twenty thousand people would enter in two to three minutes.

with so few players, the wind and cloud guild had the ability to kick them out.

After an hour of impact, the players from the state of Qin had lost thousands of players.

Although these people were cannon fodder hired by the domineering King, they still had to be paid.

They had gathered over a million people, but they could not just stay outside the beast King Valley with nothing to do, right?

It was definitely not good to just wait like this. If they waited for too long, the hearts of the people would scatter.

“Why don’t we bring our own people and charge in?”

The domineering Little Prince suggested.

they couldn’t just let the cannon fodder attack all the time. those people were too weak and couldn’t put pressure on the wind cloud guild’s defense at all. they would just be sending themselves to their deaths.

“Alright, we’ll send our own guild members up. Find some Guardian Warriors with good equipment and skills. The tanky ones should push forward directly. I don’t believe that Guardian Warriors can be defeated so easily.”

Soon, Subjugator adjusted his formation. He no longer sent cannon fodder to attack the passage. Instead, he used the elite members of his Guild.

the pressure on the wind cloud guild’s defense suddenly increased.

It wasn’t that the domineering Guild had really rushed in.

However, most of the Qin players who had rushed out of the tunnel were defeated the moment they left.

Now that they had been replaced by the members of domineering aura, The Guardian Warriors were especially tanky.

some of them were able to hold on for a second or two after charging into the beast king valley. if they were not stuck for a moment, dozens of people would be able to rush in.

Although these people were quickly defeated, they still gave the defending guild members quite a bit of pressure.

boss, things don't look good. It seems like the domineering King is serious. They're sending out their own Guild's elite members. They won't be easy to deal with.

Fengyun Cupid was a little worried about an accident and informed Feng Yun realm in advance.

"don't worry, just defend like normal. even if the domineering king comes in, it won't matter."

feng yun realm wasn't worried at all. it was no joke, their guild had tens of thousands of players.

They were all farming monsters not far from the passage, so they could quickly rush over to help within a minute or two.

While Feng Yun realm was still unconcerned, the domineering King was already preparing for a big move.

in the next wave, I'll lead my men and charge. Everyone, follow up and break the defense of the wind and cloud Guild in one wave.

The tyrant king said to the people around him.

He didn't say it in the Guild channel, nor did he say it in the National channel.

He was afraid that the wind and cloud Guild would find out, so he had to make preparations in advance.

"boss, you don't have to go, i'll lead the charge."

that's right. We can just go. How can we let boss personally charge? "

The people around the tyrant king tried to persuade him.

They were worried that the domineering King would fall to the ground again.

There was a possibility that they wouldn't be able to save him. Once the wind and cloud Guild blocked the entrance of the passage, they would probably guard the corpse for an hour.

Moreover, yesterday in DreamCloud city, Subjugator had died once and lost a level.

He was only level 30 now. If he dropped another level, he wouldn't even be level 30 anymore.

That would be awkward.

I'll lead the team. I'll use a scroll to clear out the wind and cloud Guild's guards near the entrance. Then, we'll rush in together.

" pay attention. you must be fast. try to get as many people in as possible in the shortest time. "

"As long as we have enough people rushing in, the wind and cloud Guild will be finished."

Subjugator did not listen to his advice. He observed for a long time and felt that the defense of wind cloud Guild was not very tight.

he only needed one scroll to destroy the defense of the wind and cloud guild.

The only thing left was to expand the territory as much as possible and let more Qin players charge in.

Perhaps the other members of the wind and cloud Guild would quickly rush over to help.

However, he still had two scrolls in his hands. If he used the remaining two scrolls to destroy the support of wind and cloud Guild, he would be in trouble.

This time, they were basically in the bag.

Subjugator felt that he only needed to buy three minutes for the Qin players to rush in.

then, the wind cloud guild could forget about guarding beast king valley.

This farming spot would definitely change owners, even though the domineering aura Guild had its own farming spot.

However, the other players from the state of Qin did not do so. They snatched the farming spot of the wind and cloud Guild.

if he distributed it to the other qin players, wouldn't that increase his position in the hearts of the qin players?

The most important thing was that he wanted to vent his anger.

before the tyrant king was about to lead his team into beast king valley, he first arranged for a quick and violent charge.

They attracted the attention of the wind cloud Guild's defensive forces.

Then, the domineering King personally led his men and followed closely into the beast King Valley.

In the beginning, none of the wind and cloud guild members who were on the defensive realized that it was Subjugator who had rushed in.

They thought that he was just an ordinary member of domineering aura and did not give him any special treatment.

However, he suddenly realized that there was a member of the domineering aura Guild who was very special.

He was very tanky. They had a round of concentrated fire, but he actually didn't die.

Only then did he realize that something was wrong.

Chapter 306 opening a path with a scroll

The moment Subjugator charged into beast King Valley, the players on the defensive side of wind cloud Guild did not notice him at first.

However, someone quickly noticed something strange and started shouting.

” hurry up and focus fire over there! the domineering king is coming! ”

“f * ck, this can’t be, the tyrant king is coming to his death? Is there such a thing?”

don’t f * cking talk nonsense. If he dares to rush in, he must have a trump card. Let’s beat him first.

However, it was too late.

The moment he entered beast King Valley, he did not use the scroll immediately.

instead, he first observed the defensive formation of the wind and cloud guild. he had to choose the best location.

He wanted to use the scroll where the wind and cloud Guild’s members were the most concentrated. That way, he could take down more people.

That way, the Qin players who would enter the beast King Valley after them would have less pressure.

After all, there was a limited number of scrolls, and every single one of them was extremely valuable.

Every card had to be used to the maximum effect.

after observing for less than a second, subjugator took out a scroll and used it.

A rain of fire poured down from the sky, instantly covering the first wave of defense of wind and cloud Guild.

The second wave of defenders, Hua gangfen, who was still 50 yards away, was also covered by the scroll’s damage.

The wind cloud Cupid was shocked when he saw the scroll.

The domineering King actually knew how to use underhanded tactics. At the start, he had sent a bunch of cannon fodder.

he was caught off guard by this sudden move.

Fortunately, the current situation was not too bad.

However, there were still two more groups of defenders behind them, and they should be able to block the Qin players ‘charge.

“Don’t panic. Those behind, step forward and push back the Qin players who are rushing in.”

The wind cloud Cupid told everyone not to panic, but he deliberately kept a distance from the other defenders.

He knew Feng Yun realm’s intention when he arranged for him to command the defense.

because he still had a big move that he could use.

Therefore, he could not die in one wave.

He had to try his best to live to the end.

Although there seemed to be no problem at the moment, who knew if Subjugator had a second scroll?

If it was the domineering King, there was still a second scroll.

At this time, he followed the other guild members and rushed up to defend.

Didn't he just follow them and get wiped out?

Then what was the point of Feng Yun realm arranging for him to lead the defense?

Wind cloud Cupid commanded the other defenders to block the gap while calling out in the Guild channel.

we need reinforcements at the entrance of the passage. The tyrant king has rushed in. He used a scroll to defeat our first wave of defenders.

"Holy F * ck, did the tyrant king come in person? When did he become so tough?"

yes, the tyrant king has entered the beast King Valley. Our people can't be wrong.

you guys just have to hold him off. Since the Subjugator dared to come in, he must have more than one scroll. Be careful of his backup plan. We'll be there soon.

Feng Yun realm said to the rest after he finished.

"Everyone, hurry to the entrance of the passage to provide support."

Zhang Shan and the rest immediately stopped farming monsters, and quickly mounted their horses and ran towards the entrance of the tunnel.

At that moment, a scroll from the Subjugator knocked out the first wave of defenders from the wind and cloud Guild.

They took advantage of the gap when the second wave of defenders was not in place.

Two to three hundred Qin players charged into beast King Valley.

At this moment, the second and third wave of defenders under the command of wind cloud Cupid quickly filled up the empty spots.

the hundreds of players went all out, dealing all kinds of damage to the qin players who entered the beast king valley.

Subjugator clutched the second scroll in his hand. He was at a loss as to whether he should use it now.

From his point of view, even if they did not use the scroll, they would still be able to become beast Kings.

It was also possible to break through the defense of the wind and cloud Guild.

However, that would waste time. If the time dragged on, the other reinforcements from the wind and cloud Guild might arrive soon.

Thinking of this, he decided not to save any more.

After using the second scroll, a powerful tornado appeared in the sky.

the wind blew and all the defenders of wind and cloud were knocked down.

Only the wind cloud Cupid was lucky enough to avoid the damage from the scrolls because he did not stay with them on purpose.

However, the others had all fallen. It was obviously impossible for him to guard the passage alone.

Not to mention, there were already a large number of Qin players who had entered the beast King Valley.

support us quickly! The domineering King used the second scroll, and all of us are dead!

Holy F * ck! The domineering King is looking for death! Don't panic! Let them in! We'll close the door and beat them up later!

Even though they said so, everyone still galloped away.

He could not afford to lose Jingzhou and the Beast King's Valley, this farming spot. That would be a joke.

The wind cloud Cupid asked in the Guild channel as he looked at the players from the state of Qin who were rushing out.

"Should I use that ultimate move?"

Right now, in the entire wind and cloud Guild, he was the only one left with this ultimate skill. He did not dare to use it casually. He had to ask first.

"There's no rush. We'll talk when we get there."

Feng Yun realm replied as he ran.

...

In less than half a minute, Zhang Shan and the rest were the first batch of reinforcements. They had already arrived near the entrance of the passageway.

As far as the eye could see, countless Qin players were running out of the tunnel.

In less than half a minute, close to 10000 players from the state of Qin ran out.

It quickly spread out, and the area it occupied became larger and larger.

This time, he had to take it seriously.

zhang shan did not dare to be careless.

A team of tens of thousands of people was not easy to deal with.

Feng Yun realm said to him after the wind cloud Cupid met up with the reinforcement troops.

we'll go first. You can use your big move according to the situation and cover as many people as possible.

Feng Yun realm then led everyone forward.

Zhang Shan also quickly got off his horse, and very quickly, he was close enough to attack.

the hand cannon began to fire bullets, sweeping across the qin players.

The two sides soon collided, and countless people fell to the ground in an instant.

the qin players were still entering the beast king valley from the other side of the passageway.

however, they were not as fast as the reinforcements from the wind and cloud guild.

the people from the wind cloud guild only needed to ride their horses through the beast king valley and they would be there soon.

As for the players from the state of Qin, they could only slowly make their way over through the passageway.

Only five people could pass through the passage at a time. No matter how fast they could pass through, it was impossible for their million-strong Army to enter all at once.

On the other hand, the wind and cloud Guild quickly gathered around 20000 to 30000 players, and their numbers quickly surpassed the players from the state of Qin.

They had more people than the number of people they could fight, instantly pushing the players from the state of Qin to retreat.

The Qin players that were originally spreading out were forced to retreat to the nearby area.

However, there was only so much space near the tunnel, and more and more Qin players were squeezed together.

He couldn't use it at all.

Chapter 307 chaotic battle

He saw the players from the state of Qin who had rushed into beast King Valley being forced back by the wind cloud Guild.

The territory they occupied was getting smaller and smaller, and everyone was squeezed together, completely unable to use their skills.

Not only that, they were so crowded near the passage that it seriously affected the speed of the people outside entering the beast King Valley.

Subjugator held the last scroll in his hand, feeling very conflicted.

He really wanted to use the scroll at this time. That way, he could defeat a large number of wind and cloud guild members.

Expand the activity space of the Qin players.

However, he only had one scroll left.

If he used this scroll, he would have no more cards in his hands.

however, if he did not use it, he would have to face more and more wind and cloud guild members.

The Qin players who had already entered beast King Valley might not be able to hold on.

Just as the domineering King was still hesitating ...

the wind cloud cupid shot an arrow into the sky.

In an instant, the sky flickered, and a large number of meteors fell, smashing toward the Qin players near the tunnel.

[wrath of the stars] -10x damage, 50-yard range, lasts for five seconds.

In an instant, a large number of Qin players fell to the ground. Almost half of the Qin players who had entered the beast King Valley had been defeated by the wrath of the stars.

Subjugator was stunned and immediately prepared to use the scroll in his hand.

It would be too late if he didn't use it now.

Originally, the number of people who had entered beast King Valley was much fewer than the number of people sent over by the wind cloud Guild.

Now, half of them had been instantly killed by a big move.

If they didn't use the scroll, they wouldn't be able to hold on.

At this moment, Zhang Shan was holding his hand cannon, and the bullets were continuously fired. There were Qin players who were constantly knocked to the ground by him.

Subjugator took the scroll and looked at Zhang Shan.

Suddenly, new grudges and old grudges welled up in his heart.

What the hell, six-barreled Bodhisattva, you're holding two divine artifacts, aren't you awesome?

I'll show you the power of the scroll.

Subjugator looked at Zhang Shan's position and immediately used the scroll.

countless bolts of lightning struck down. with zhang shan as the center, a large number of wind and cloud guild members fell to the ground.

As for Zhang Shan, the moment the domineering King used the scroll, he was immediately killed.

He was so f * cking ruthless. Did they have such a huge grudge?

Such a powerful scroll, and you're aiming at me?

zhang shan was a little speechless.

f * ck! The tyrant king still has a third scroll!

“What the f * ck, how do we fight this?”

“Don’t panic. Those who are still alive, press forward. Don’t give them a chance.”

I’m just afraid that Subjugator still has a fourth scroll.

don’t think about that. Even if he has the eighth scroll, we still have to go all out. Otherwise, when more Qin players rush out of the tunnel, it will really be over.

the third scroll was the most powerful one.

In just a short while, they had defeated over ten thousand players from wind and cloud Guild.

If not for the fact that the other members of wind and cloud Guild had already rushed over.

He might not be able to suppress the Qin players near the tunnel.

however, if it was only the domineering king, and there was really a fourth scroll ...

The outcome would be hard to say.

however, no matter what, it was right to suppress them first.

Even if the domineering King had other scrolls with him.

He had to use it.

Zhang Shan was already on the ground, waiting for his passive rebirth to take effect.

In another ten seconds, he would be able to stand up with full health.

The remaining 30000 or so members of wind and cloud were facing off against Subjugator. They might be under the pressure of the fourth scroll.

It continued to press forward.

They were determined not to let the Qin players who had rushed into beast King Valley spread out.

As long as these people were restricted, they could quickly clear them out with their advantage in numbers.

After the last scroll was used, the tyrant king had no more cards in his hand.

whether or not they could succeed would depend on this wave.

don’t gather here. Charge out. It doesn’t matter even if we fall to the ground. We still have many brothers outside. We can rush in soon. The wind and cloud Guild can’t stop us.

after saying this, tyrant king led his men out of the room.

They couldn't just gather around the passage. They had to open the space outside.

Otherwise, how could the people outside enter? where would they stand after entering? There was no space.

Under the lead of the domineering King, the players from the state of Qin launched a small wave of counterattacks.

"F * ck, these people are quite fierce."

"It's child's play, don't worry, as long as he doesn't use the scroll again, it'll be fine."

you're worrying for nothing. If the tyrant king still had more scrolls, he would've used them long ago. Why would he need to risk his life like this? "

"Haha, he doesn't have any scrolls? Then he's done for. Think of a way to keep the domineering King here and make him lose another level."

" don't worry. we'll kill all the qin players who enter the beast king valley. none of them can escape. "

seeing how subjugator was fighting back with all his might, the people from wind and cloud guild were not worried anymore.

Without the scroll, what was the point of doing this?

The wind and cloud Guild still had more than 30000 players, but the players from the state of Qin who had rushed in had only been around 10000.

Although the Qin players outside were continuously rushing in, they were still unable to stop.

However, there were even more Qin players who were defeated.

As such, the number of Qin players did not increase much.

as for the players from wind and cloud guild, although they were also constantly falling, there were still over 30000 of them.

Chasing these Qin players out of the beast King Valley was a piece of cake.

Ten seconds later, Zhang Shan's rebirth was activated.

Zhang Shan, who had stood up again, quickly followed the team and pressed towards the Qin players.

he was specifically looking for the location of the domineering king.

That guy actually used a scroll on him. That was too much. He had to think of a way to beat him again.

The tyrant king waved his battle axe and led the charge.

His entire person was very eye-catching.

Zhang Shan quickly noticed him and quickly moved over.

In fact, Subjugator had always been the target of the members of wind and cloud Guild.

However, he was well protected by the other Qin players.

There were a lot of people around him who helped him block damage, and a large number of support players followed behind to heal him.

This allowed the domineering King to remain in a healthy state.

The people from the wind and cloud Guild couldn't take him down even after a few rounds of concentrated fire.

There were even many Warriors from wind and cloud who charged at the domineering King while taking damage.

He still did not succeed.

All around Subjugator were elite players.

Furthermore, his original equipment and skills were also very impressive.

Ordinary wind and cloud guild members could do nothing to him.

when zhang shan ran over, he happened to see secretary feng yun organizing the personnel.

He was ready to rush up and cut down the tyrant king.

"You guys stay with me, I'll take the damage. Support, pay attention to my blood."

Secretary Feng Yun had just gotten a God-tier shield today. It was very tanky, and the key was its high dodge rate and immunity to control.

If there were two support players behind him, even if dozens of players attacked him together, they wouldn't be able to kill him.

The power of a divine weapon was just that impressive.

Chapter 308-failed again

The people from wind and cloud Guild saw that domineering King was leading the charge. they had organized several waves of beheading operations.

He wanted to cut down the tyrant king first.

but none of them succeeded.

When Zhang Shan was rushing over, Secretary Feng Yun was organizing a new wave of decapitation strikes.

as long as they could knock down the domineering king, it would definitely have a huge impact on the players from the state of qin.

Seeing Zhang Shan running over, Secretary Feng Yun shouted.

six-barreled boss, let's kill domineering King together.

"Alright, let's charge together."

with someone cooperating, Zhang Shan was naturally happy.

In fact, even if no one cooperated, Zhang Shan would want to secretly create a wave of domineering Kings by himself.

Now that he had Secretary Feng Yun and a group of people, Zhang Shan was even more confident.

"Let's go, follow me,"

Secretary Feng Yun held a sword in his right hand and a shield in his left as he charged towards Subjugator.

Zhang Shan and the others followed behind.

At this moment, the domineering King was still leading a portion of the Qin players to charge out.

They wanted to expand their activity space in the beast King Valley.

A group of wind and cloud guild members blocked their way.

However, the members that tyrant king had led were all elites, and their combat strength was extremely high.

The ordinary members of wind and cloud Guild could not withstand their assault at all. They were forced to retreat.

At this moment, Secretary Feng Yun arrived and used her charge skill on Subjugator.

The Qin players around the domineering King saw the little Secretary charging towards them.

He quickly stepped forward and cut off the little Secretary's path.

At the same time, all sorts of damage and skills were thrown at Secretary Feng Yun.

The damage and MISS numbers kept appearing above Secretary Feng Yun's head.

After equipping the divine Shield, the little Secretary was really strong.

Even after taking a lot of damage, he did not lose half of his HP.

The wind and cloud Guild's support behind him quickly followed and helped him heal.

Zhang Shan and the others quickly followed.

All sorts of damage were dealt to the players from Qin and Subjugator.

Zhang Shan's hand cannon also started to fire bullets.

With two shots, he killed one player from the kingdom of Qin who was in front of the domineering King.

everyone, be careful. Six-barreled Bodhisattva is here as well. Protect boss.

These Qin players were all scared out of their wits by Zhang Shan.

Even the domineering King had been defeated by Zhang Shan many times.

if they were to be beaten to the ground by zhang shan again, then the reputation of the long-standing second place of the domineering aura guild would be completely lost.

The Guild's boss was beaten up every day, where was his face?

"Why don't we retreat and change direction to avoid six-barreled Bodhisattva?"

One of the Qin players suggested to Subjugator.

Hearing this, the domineering King was enraged.

Damn it, why should I avoid Zhang Shan? if I run when I see Zhang Shan, where would my face be?

Besides, was this the time to escape?

At the moment, their territory in beast King Valley was getting smaller and smaller. If they did not fight their way out, they might be destroyed by the wind cloud Guild here.

"Let's not retreat. We'll continue to charge forward. If we can hit six-barreled Bodhisattva, we'll prioritize him. Let's rush out together. Support, pay attention to pull up the fallen players."

subjugator didn't want to retreat. as long as they took a step back, wind and cloud guild would take a step forward.

The space they occupied was already very small.

There was really no place left.

tens of thousands of them were squeezed in such a small space, and there were still qin players outside the passage who were entering the beast king valley.

If they were all squeezed together, a single AoE skill from the wind and cloud Guild would be able to wipe out a large number of them.

The domineering King continued to lead the charge, and Zhang Shan fired at him continuously.

However, the health of Subjugator King was quite a lot.

There was also a large group of support behind him, constantly healing him.

Zhang Shan had fired more than ten shots in a row, but he had not managed to knock down the tyrant king.

...

Damn it, even a Berserker was this tanky?

At this moment, Secretary Feng Yun was stuck among the players from the state of Qin. A large amount of damage was dealt to him.

However, the support of the wind and cloud Guild was not weak either.

He kept healing the little Secretary, and he actually didn't fall to the ground.

Seeing that the tyrant king seemed to be hard to defeat, Zhang Shan was considering whether he should first clear out the other Qin players and then deal with the tyrant king.

Just as he was thinking about it, the special effect of Holy Strike was activated. It dealt 10 times the damage and instantly killed Subjugator.

haha, the domineering King has fallen. Everyone, let's go and guard his corpse.

The domineering King was knocked down by Zhang Shan's spear.

The people from wind and cloud Guild pounced on the other side like they were on drugs.

It was a pity that the Qin players were closer to the domineering King.

boss is on the ground. Quick, support, come forward and revive boss. We'll cover him.

...

A group of Guardian Warriors braved Zhang Shan's intense fire and protected a few support players as they advanced, allowing them to resurrect Subjugator.

"f * ck, we did this for nothing."

"haha, it's fine. it's good to knock him down once."

" yes, six-barreled boss is awesome. "

the domineering king was defeated by zhang shan, although he was quickly revived by the qin players.

However, the people from wind and cloud Guild were even more motivated.

If he could defeat it once, would the second time be far away?

" continue! defeat the domineering king! "

"Haha, let's go!"

after being resurrected, subjugator no longer held the front line.

Although his equipment and skills were good, as a Berserker, his HP was almost the same as the top Guardian.

That was really awesome.

However, no matter how strong he was, in front of Zhang Shan, it was not enough.

Even if he had a large group of support behind him, he still could not block Zhang Shan's bullets.

"Boss, what do we do now?"

the players from the state of qin no longer had the confidence to win against the wind cloud guild in the beast king valley.

It was simply too difficult. Even though they had used three scrolls, they were still at a disadvantage.

Tyrant king was also in despair. What could he do?

Since they had already entered, they would die if they did not fight. Most of them had no chance of leaving beast King Valley through the passage.

The passageway was so narrow. If all of them were to retreat, how long would it take? The wind and cloud Guild would not give them that time.

“We can only fight to the death now. We can’t retreat. Let’s continue.”

The tyrant king said through gritted teeth.

boss, why don’t you leave beast King Valley First? we’ll hold off the wind cloud Guild’s attack.

” no, i can’t retreat. if i retreat, it’ll all be chaotic. ”

The Overlord refused to run away.

It was still possible to evacuate a portion of the personnel.

After all, there were close to 10000 players from the state of Qin who had charged into the beast King Valley.

It was impossible for the wind and cloud Guild to annihilate so many people in one go.

If the domineering King wanted to leave, he could.

But he couldn’t leave.

If he were to leave, wouldn’t he become the king of running away, abandoning his brothers?

Chapter 309 boss, quickly retreat!

the domineering king had once again been defeated by zhang shan.

However, he still persisted and did not retreat. He had thought it through and could only fight now.

Even if they all died here, they could only risk their lives.

Because only by risking his life could he survive.

Moreover, they had a million-strong Army outside the beast King Valley.

Although it was impossible for these people to enter for a while.

However, as long as the Qin players who had entered beast King Valley continued to fight against wind and cloud Guild, one for one, even if it was two for one.

In that case, there would be fewer and fewer people from the wind and cloud Guild. After all, the wind and cloud Guild had no backup. All the members of the wind and cloud Guild were basically here.

Perhaps with the help of the Qin players, they might have a chance of winning this battle.

Of course, that was just a thought. If he wanted to achieve this goal, he would have to get more Qin players to enter beast King Valley.

continue to charge forward. Don't be afraid of falling. We have more people anyway. One down is one down.

Subjugator went all out and continued to lead the players from the state of Qin towards the wind cloud Guild.

Facing the charge of a domineering King, Zhang Shan was very happy to see it.

This was the best. He just had to stand still and keep shooting. He didn't even have to move.

The bullets kept shooting out.

this time, zhang shan did not attack the subjugator first. that guy was a player from the qin country, and he was a target to be protected.

Zhang Shan might not be able to defeat him in a short time. Even if he was defeated, he would be quickly resurrected.

He might as well deal with the other Qin players first.

The other Qin players were not as tanky as the domineering King, nor were they heavily protected like him.

One down meant one less.

The other members of wind and cloud Guild had similar thoughts as Zhang Shan.

If he wanted to solve this problem as soon as possible, he had to deal with the Qin players who had already entered the beast King Valley.

They had to use the fastest speed to defeat more people.

As for those difficult guys, he would put them aside for the time being.

Secretary Feng Yun led a group of people and continued to fight with domineering King.

Zhang Shan's gun was aimed at the other Qin players.

Not every player from the state of Qin was as strong as the people around Subjugator.

most of the qin players were still very weak, at least to zhang shan.

Even for a powerful Guild like the wind and cloud Guild, it was easy to guess.

There were still many members in the Guild who could not even get a full set of orange equipment.

They were definitely not the ordinary Qin players.

even among the guild members of domineering aura, only a portion of them were elite members.

most of them were similar to the ordinary members of wind and cloud guild, who relied on a few pieces of orange equipment to keep up appearances.

For such a target, Zhang Shan could basically take them down with one shot.

Zhang Shan and the others changed their target.

The Qin players who entered the beast King Valley fell to the ground faster and faster.

Even though Subjugator tried his best to charge forward, he was still being pushed back by Guild wind and cloud.

The Qin players outside the valley were still entering the beast King Valley.

However, the number of new players that had entered the Guild was not even as many as the players that the wind and cloud Guild had defeated.

The number of Qin players gradually decreased.

“Boss, let’s retreat. We can’t fight anymore.”

Seeing that the overbearing King was still trying to charge forward, the people around him began to persuade him.

At this point, what was there to do?

now, they should think of a way to escape. it was the right choice to escape as soon as possible.

“if you want to go, you can go, i won’t. If I can’t defeat them today, I’ll die Here.”

the tyrant king was not willing to admit defeat.

He felt that his luck was really bad. If only he had another scroll.

with one more scroll, they would definitely be able to defeat the wind and cloud guild today.

Unfortunately, even though he had sent people to collect them, he only managed to obtain three scrolls.

He could not find any more scrolls.

After all, the number of scrolls dropped was too low.

The various large guilds would usually pay attention to collecting a few scrolls. Every scroll could be used as a trump card.

even if the others had scrolls, they might not sell them to him.

He had bought these three scrolls at a high price from a casual player.

“If you don’t leave now, then you’ll never leave again.”

the qin players at the side continued to persuade.

The other Qin players tried to persuade him.

Subjugator hesitated again, even though he felt like he had lost to the wind cloud Guild yet again.

It was too embarrassing.

He felt that even if he were to be hung here, it would be nothing.

It was more comfortable to die than to be beaten up and run away like a dog.

However, even if he wanted to die, he could not drag others down with him.

The other Qin players had a strong desire to live.

After all, if they died in beast King Valley, they would definitely lose a level, and no one would come to save them.

“Inform the people outside not to come in. You guys retreat in groups. I’ll be the last.”

After thinking for a long time, tyrant king finally made up his mind.

“Boss, you go first. If you don’t go, how can we go?”

then let the others go first. We from the domineering aura Guild will stay behind.

Among the players from the state of Qin who rushed out of the beast King Valley, there were many other players who were not from guilds other than those from the domineering aura.

those people were only following domineering king’s call to attack the wind and cloud guild.

the tyrant king felt that they should be arranged to retreat first.

He would just let the members of domineering aura stay behind to bring up the rear.

Just as the tyrannical King made his arrangements ...

The people from wind and cloud Guild immediately felt the pressure on them ease up.

There were no new players from the state of Qin joining the beast King Valley.

the remaining qin players would not be able to hold on for long.

“quickly destroy these, they want to run.”

f * ck, isn’t it too late to think of running away now? ”

“Don’t care about him, just do your best and it’ll be over.”

Zhang Shan had also noticed the change in the situation.

Not only were there no new players from the state of Qin joining, but the players from the state of Qin who had already entered the beast King Valley still wanted to go back through the passage.

That won’t do. You’re already here, and you still want to run?

This was especially so for the domineering King. He couldn't let him escape this time.

When they were outside helping Feng Yun realm, he had defeated domineering King once.

But that was outside, and they couldn't guard the corpse. The opponent's support had revived Subjugator.

Later, in the beast King Valley, Zhang Shan had defeated domineering King once again, but he had been revived by the support.

I don't believe that I will beat you again and see you Qin country's support.

could he still revive the domineering king?

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan quickly turned his gun and rushed in the direction of the domineering King.

When he was within shooting range, he would activate the berserk and fanatic skills.

A barrage of bullets flew towards the tyrant king.

f * ck, six-pipe Bodhisattva is here again. Protect boss.

boss, let's retreat! We'll block six-barreled Bodhisattva!

Chapter 310

He saw Zhang Shan running over and starting to attack the domineering King.

The Qin players who were following behind the domineering King quickly rushed to the front.

blocking a bullet for the domineering king.

But at this time, Zhang Shan was going all out.

Their damage output was so high that they quickly knocked down a large number of Qin players.

The surrounding wind cloud guild members were greatly encouraged as they rushed in the direction of Subjugator.

" quick, let's charge at subjugator together. let's kill him! "

"Beat this Mad Dog to death, and beat the corpse guard."

"Don't even think about running away this time, he's dead."

"Isn't that nonsense? a target targeted by the six-barreled boss can't possibly run away, hehe."

"That's right, who can escape from a six-barreled Big Shot's gun? He's dead for sure."

"we'll help hold the others back and let the six-barreled boss finish off subjugator."

"f * ck, it's a dead ball."

what's there to be afraid of? we're going to win anyway. We'll just have the support revive us later.

A large number of wind and cloud guild members swarmed forward.

It quickly engulfed the domineering king and the people around him.

Even though the people around Subjugator were all elite players.

However, it couldn't stop the wind and cloud Guild from having more people.

Under Zhang Shan's intense firepower and the other members of wind and cloud Guild's fierce attacks.

The Qin players were no longer able to protect the domineering King, and soon, a gap was created.

Zhang Shan saw the opportunity. the bullets were fired continuously.

Before the other Qin players could even react, he had already knocked the domineering King to the ground.

hurry up and guard the corpse of Subjugator. We can't let them revive again.

Countless members of wind and cloud Guild swarmed forward.

They firmly guarded the place where the domineering King had fallen.

After defeating Subjugator, Zhang Shan quickly shifted his focus.

He turned his gun to the other Qin players, and the bullets swept across, cooperating with the other guild members.

he knocked down a large number of qin players.

Most of these players from the state of Qin were the elite members of the domineering aura Guild.

They had always been by Subjugator's side, and were the main force of the Guild.

Now that their King was on the ground, not only were they unable to save him, but they were also unable to protect themselves.

Soon, he was drowned in the crowd of the wind and cloud Guild.

Without the support of the domineering King, the remaining players from the state of Qin were like a plate of loose sand.

They couldn't get any new support, so they were quickly wiped out by the wind and cloud Guild.

only a small number of people left the beast king valley through the passage.

at this time, the qin players who were outside the beast king valley knew the exact situation inside.

They had just received a notice from the domineering King, telling the people outside not to go in again.

Then, he saw a player from the state of Qin running out of the beast King.

Everyone had an ominous feeling.

They couldn't help but ask the people who came out.

“What’s going on inside? did we win?”

“Where’s boss? why don’t I see anyone else?”

Faced with everyone’s questions, the players from the state of Qin who were lucky enough to escape could only say this in a depressed manner.

we lost. There are too many people in the wind and cloud Guild. They’re suppressing us near the passage and we can’t get out at all.

” then why did you guys come back? where are the others? where’s the domineering king? ”

He heard these people say that they had lost again.

The Qin players present were very disappointed.

they really wanted to crush the wind and cloud guild to the ground.

If not, there would not be millions of Qin players following the domineering King here.

Yesterday, not only did the wind cloud Guild kick Subjugator out of DreamCloud city.

The key was that they had even massacred the LAN Tian city of the state of Qin.

To the players of the state of Qin, this was a humiliation.

...

Everyone wanted to take revenge.

However, under the lead of the domineering King, they failed to win this time. This was too disappointing.

by the way, why are you all the only ones here? where are the others? ”

“I don’t know. When we came out, we couldn’t hold on much longer.”

f * ck, then why did you guys run away? didn’t you wait for the domineering King to come out? ”

“The boss told us to go first and they’ll bring up the rear.”

it’s over. The tyrant king can’t come out.

“Let’s go, we’ll continue to rush in and rescue boss.”

don’t be naive. We can’t even get in now.

“then what should we do? just let boss hang inside.”

A group of Qin players started quarreling outside beast King Valley.

...

Some people wanted to rush in to save him, but most of the Qin players didn’t have such thoughts.

Who would still go if they were obviously going to die?

previously, even when subjugator led the main force of the guild, they could not defeat the wind and cloud guild.

If they went in now, wouldn't that be suicide?

Just as they were arguing endlessly, news came from the domineering King.

"We've already returned to LAN Tian to resurrect. Everyone, go back and farm monsters. It's my fault this time. I was too impulsive and wasn't prepared."

"Then we're just going to let the wind and cloud Guild off? you're just going to let this matter go?"

Some of the Qin players were unconvinced and asked.

let's just leave it at that for now. In the future, when we're in the Heaven's Gate map, we'll kill any Chu players we see. However, we don't have to look for them on purpose. We'll just focus on killing monsters and leveling up.

Of course, the Overlord wasn't willing to give up, but he knew that.

For the time being, they couldn't do anything to the wind and cloud Guild, so they could only develop well.

Kill more monsters and level up.

After two days of fighting, many of them had lost two levels.

a large number of qin players had fallen below level 30.

if they didn't level up quickly, the strength of the qin players would be greatly reduced.

They would soon fall behind the other countries.

Since Subjugator had said so, the other players from the state of Qin could only leave in disappointment.

Without domineering aura leading the way, it was impossible for them to do anything to wind and cloud Guild.

In contrast to the disappointment and unwillingness of the Qin players ...

Meanwhile, the members of the wind cloud Guild in the beast King Valley were all over the place.

Fighting was fun, and winning was even more fun.

Although the fight just now had delayed them a lot of time to kill monsters, it was still too late.

However, after killing so many state of Qin players, they would more or less drop some items.

Even though the items that the Qin players dropped were basically trash.

However, even trash items could be sold for gold coins.

moreover, they had won against the domineering aura guild once again.

This was the second-ranked Guild in the entire gaming world.

how could he not be happy?

What did this mean? This meant that the wind and cloud Guild was very powerful.

As a member of such a powerful Guild ...

of course, everyone was very happy.

haha, I'm afraid that Subjugator is so angry that he's going to vomit blood. He died again, and he's only level 29 now.

Wind cloud blade said happily.

Today, he had killed to his heart's content. To wind and cloud blade, this kind of chaotic battle was exactly what he liked.

He held a divine weapon axe in his hand and had his brothers assisting him by the side.

He only cared about rushing up to cut people.

Even if he didn't have a high-level skill and only used a normal AoE skill, and the splash effect of the divine axe, he would still be able to use it.

When he rushed into the crowd, he also slashed a large area, feeling so good that he flew up.
