Chapter 36: First Floor of the Demon Suppression Platform

After selecting the difficulty level at the Military Affairs Officer's place, Storm of the World took the lead to enter the dungeon first. The others also took their turns to enter.

Standing at the entrance of the dungeon, they saw a dense mass of small monsters in front of them. They were all demon militia.

"They are like the small monsters in Bowang Wasteland. They are all demon militia."

"Looks like the guarding boss is a demon priest."

"How can we clear so many small monsters? I'm afraid we won't have the chance to see the boss, will we?"

"We can clear them all. For dungeon monsters, as long as we kill them, they won't respawn again. It looks like there are a lot of them, but if we kill one, the number will reduce by one. It's not difficult to clear the small monsters, it's just that it will take more time."

"That's good. I thought it would be like on a wild map, where the monsters would respawn endlessly."

"Since they're all small monsters of Bowang Wasteland, do you think the captain of the sentinels will be here too? That's an orange boss, one that's easy to fight. It's like a give-away."

"I don't know, I hope so."

"Let's go, let's do it."

"Wait, I have a question to ask first?" Zhang Shan thought of a question and stopped the others.

"What question can it be? We just need to clear the monsters first."

"I didn't look at the dungeon rules carefully just now. I wonder if there is a limit to the number of times we can enter the dungeon?"

"Yes, it's once a week. The number is updated every Wednesday."

"Is that so? Doesn't that mean that if we don't clear the dungeon this time, we can only enter the dungeon next Saturday?"

"Yes, we can only clear the dungeon once a week."

"Then what should we do? Today is Saturday. There are still a few more days before next Saturday. By then, the people from other guilds may have already obtained the Order of Heroes as well. Doesn't it mean that they may have established a guild before us?"

"There's nothing we can do about it. We can't just not fight, right?"

"It all depends on the strength of the dungeon boss. If even the normal mode is the same as the one you just defeated, then we won't be able to defeat it even if we level up."

"I suddenly hope that the boss isn't a red monster."

“Yeah, the red boss is too crazy.”

Zhang Shan looked at his level. He was currently at level 18, only a few tens of thousands of EXP away from level 19. If he could reach level 20, he would have a great chance of defeating the boss with the purple Priest Cape.

However, he did not know how much experience was required to level up from level 19 to level 20. Leveling up to level 19 would require 400,000 EXP. If leveling up to level 20 would require 500,000 EXP, then it would be very maneuverable.

There were so many small monsters in the dungeon, and there should be some small bosses. He could definitely level up to level 20.

If that was the case, after changing into the purple cape, his HP would be 16,000, and his divine artifact could also be unsealed to level 20. In addition to the support and healing in the guild, he had a very high chance of defeating the guarding boss.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan said to Storm of the World.

“Boss World, I’m about to reach level 19. If I can reach level 20 in the dungeon, I can also upgrade the level 20 purple cape. I should be able to withstand the boss’s attacks.”

“What? You have a purple cape? You’re a demon beast. Poor me, I’m still using a white cape.”

“Yes, a purple Priest Cape. It increases 16,000 HP. With support, it won’t be difficult to hold the boss for a while.”

“That’s insane. It’s the child of the New World.”

“How much more to reach level 19?” Storm of the World ds asked.

“60,000 or so EXP, at most half an hour.”

“Alright. Everyone stop fighting small monsters. Let Six Guan farm alone. Let’s level up to level 19 first and see how long it takes to level up to level 20.”

“What about us? What do we do?”

“Nothing. Just rest at the entrance. Don’t split Six Guan’s experience. Dungeon experience is limited. Let him farm alone first.”

“One person farming monsters while more than 40 people are watching. This scene is spectacular.”

Hehe.

“Then I’ll go and level up to 19 first.”

“You be careful. Don’t let a sentry captain rush out and kill you.”

“What is he afraid of? We have two Resurrections. If he dies, he will be a hero again.”

Zhang Shan walked out of the entrance and ran towards the small monsters.

His attack power was close to 1,700 now. With his title and the special effect of suppression, two hits to a monster would still cause some damage to overflow.

He was not afraid of being surrounded by small monsters at all. His speed of farming monsters was very fast. He slowly cleared the small monsters from the entrance into the dungeon.

“F*ck, the divine artifact is awesome. When I fight a demon militia, it needs 20 to 30 hits. Six Guan only needs two hits.”

“Yeah, it’s too unfair. I’m jealous.”

“I’m jealous, too. But don’t talk about fairness. If you have the ability, you can sweep all the good stuff in the auction house. I’m afraid it’s even stronger than Six Guan.”

“Impossible. The attack power can increase, but the attack speed can’t be as fast as Six Guan.”

“That’s right. How did his attack speed increase? It’s because he’s been single for many years that he can be so fast.”

“Bullsh*t, it’s either equipment or skills.”

“Brother Six Guan, why is your attack speed so fast? The divine artifact only increases it by 10%. The effect shouldn’t be so obvious, right?”

Other than the weapon that increased his attack speed by 10%, Zhang Shan also had a special item, the Hand of Midas, which increased his attack speed by 50%.

Special items were not considered equipment. They were not on the equipment list, so no one else knew about it.

Zhang Shan then displayed the Hand of Midas.

...

“F*ck, a spirit grade special item. Is there such a bug-like thing?”

“I didn’t know that special items had such strong effects.”

“Strong my ass. I heard that someone dropped a special item yesterday. It’s an Archer’s quiver that increases the damage of the arrow by 3%.”

“Someone really dropped a special item. Other than the quiver, did any other special items appear?”

“I don’t know. I’ve only heard of this for the time being. The people from Zhao country dropped a white quiver.”

“A white one would be good too. It would at least increase your attack power by 3%. It’s more practical.”

“Brother Six Guan, where did you drop the spirit artifact?”

“It wasn’t dropped from killing monsters. It was given to me by Master Lu when I was repairing the divine artifact.”

“F*ck, buy one free one? Is there such a generous NPC? Give me a dozen of them.”

“I want to collect quest items, the kind that is specifically triggered by Master Lu.”

“You’re thinking too much. Other than the job certificate, I haven’t seen any other quest items.”

...

“Why are all the good things not mine? I’m so sad.”

“Don’t be sad. Just pretend you don’t know. Hehe.”

Scram.

A group of people was chatting while Zhang Shan was fighting to level up.

In less than half an hour, he reached level 19.

He quickly checked how much EXP he needed to level up to 20.

Fortunately, leveling up to level 20 at level 19 only required 500,000 EXP. It should not be a problem. Even if there were no other small bosses, just the four sacrificial guards were enough for him to level up to 20.

“I’ve reached level 19. Leveling up to level 20 requires 500,000 EXP. There’s no problem now. I’ll be able to reach level 20 by killing the four sacrificial guards alone.”

“That’s good. Let’s go. Let’s quickly kill all the monsters together.”
