Chapter 55 Heaven and earth Guild leaves Dangyang city

In the huge wild wolf Hill map, only Zhang Shan was quietly farming monsters.

A level 30 monster map was no laughing matter. No one would come here to farm for nothing.

In the beginning, he was still very careful, afraid that he would accidentally attract too many wild wolves.

Although there were many monsters in the wild wolf map, if he didn't deliberately attract them, he would be able to kill them all.

at most, a few wolves would rush over and attack him at the same time. it was not a problem for him. before the wolves could reach him, he would take down one or two.

The Panda baby would be able to quickly clear them all and get the next batch. The process couldn't be any easier.

Zhang Shan could not believe it. It seemed that the game's setting still gave people a way out.

When he first entered the wild wolf slope and saw the wild wolves all over the mountain, he was a little afraid that he wouldn't be able to do anything.

It seemed that he had thought too much about it. Perhaps killing monsters was that simple, hehe.

The happy time of killing monsters had returned. Zhang Shan estimated his current level-up speed.

The wild wolves gave a lot of exp. After all, they were level 30 monsters, which was a lot higher than the level 10 monsters from before.

a wild wolf gave around 200 to 60 experience points, so he could kill about 15 wolves in a minute.

He could earn more than 200000 exp in an hour, so he still needed more than 500000 exp to reach level 21.

At first, he thought that he would have to grind until very late to sleep. It seemed that he could level up a little earlier. It was now 9:30, so he should be able to level up before 12.

Checking the level leaderboard, the second place was still that lone wolf player called moving heart.

According to some people on the forum, this "follow your heart" had also chosen Chu country, but it was not in Dangyang city.

Someone had seen this person in Yingtian city of Chu State.

after all, the second place on the level rankings was also very popular, so it was quickly dug out.

Yingtian city was located in the East of Chu State. It was the name of the region in the ancient times of the Alliance. In the present, it was probably the Wuyue region.

There were many local tycoons, and there were many Big Boss players in the game, but they usually didn't form gangs.

As a result, none of the top ten guilds had been established by players from that side.

Most of the local players were either alone or in small groups, having fun in the game.

The power of money in the game was infinite. Although they didn't have a strong guild organization, they had a lot of money.

No one dared to underestimate him.

this move with the heart was probably someone from the wuyue region. he had always been ranked second on the level leaderboard and was now level 18. he should be able to reach level 20 by tomorrow.

He pulled ahead of the players behind him by a large margin. He might be a ruthless person.

zhang shan felt that he had to work even harder. otherwise, if someone caught up to him when he wasn't paying attention, he would be a little unhappy.

As a slacker, and a slacker with a divine weapon at that, it was simply intolerable to be surpassed by someone else.

All the best.

With pressure comes motivation. After looking at the level leaderboard, Zhang Shan felt that he had become more motivated, and his farming speed had increased.

Of course, this was an illusion, hehe.

While he was working hard on killing monsters to level up, Zhang Shan had been paying attention to the battle situation between blade of wind and cloud and the world Guild.

Windcloud blade, this flashy guy, had been broadcasting the results of the battle in the Guild channel.

The heaven and earth Guild wasn't a pushover, and they were all idiots. Naturally, they weren't willing to be trapped in the city.

In more than half an hour, there had already been two major battles, with both sides suffering losses.

Zhang Shan was a little worried that wind and cloud blade and the others would not be able to handle it, so he had been paying attention to the battle situation.

Depending on the situation, they would have to go back and provide support.

To be honest, he also hated the people from the heaven and earth Guild.

He had only wanted to quietly farm monsters, but he had actually been tricked twice, even though he had gotten the better end of it.

However, anyone would be unhappy if they were messed with. Moreover, his strength had soared, and his hands were a little itchy.

If he had the chance, he wanted to take revenge too. A real man wouldn't take a beating without retaliating.

Even though he was getting older, he was still hot-blooded.

It would depend on the situation. Boss would arrange for blade of wind and cloud to lead the team and clear the heaven and earth Guild out of Dangyang city.

If the battle situation did not go well, he would cast a teleport spell and kill a wave of them until they were in despair. Then, they would naturally retreat.

Guild channel

[wind and cloud blade: battle report. I've taken down the heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber.]

[the battle report says that the heaven-earth Heavenly Sword has been cut down by our side.]

Eh? Was this Windcloud blade just bragging? The other party's two leaders had been cut down?

It seemed like the heaven and earth Guild wouldn't be staying in Dangyang city for long.

they had arrogantly come to dangyang city, ready to challenge the wind and cloud guild, but the wind and cloud guild had not even used much strength.

They just sent two hundred people and beat them up.

Although Zhang Shan did not participate in the battle, he still felt a little refreshed for some reason.

brother Yidao, you're amazing. You managed to cut them off just like that?" Zhang Shan asked in the Guild channel.

haha, it's a piece of cake. It's just a few little chicks. I can take them all down with one hand.

a certain someone's bragging was a little too exaggerated.

brother one blade, the people from the heaven and earth Guild seem to have run away. Someone saw them all teleport out of Dangyang city after they were resurrected.

"What? He's leaving? That's impossible, my impression of them is that they're all stupid, they wouldn't give up so quickly, right?"

"It's true. So many of them were teleported away, how could they be wrong?"

World Channel

[heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber: wind and cloud saber. Don't be too pleased with yourself. Just you wait. I'll come back for you.]

King Xiaoyao laughed,"haha, this is a Big Bad Wolf. I still came back."

God of War Li Jing: "why do you have to gather all of them into one city? there are a total of 21 cities. Isn't that enough for you?" This time, he ran away with his tail between his legs. How embarrassing.

"Haha, I'll be back."

"I'll be back,+1."

“I’ll be back,+2.”

“I’ll be back,+3.”

I’ll be back again +10081.

Heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber’s mention of the world Channel had attracted a group of ridicule. It seemed that they were not well-liked by others.

however, looking at the way they played, they were indeed a little stupid. they messed with others for no reason, but when they messed with someone they couldn’t afford to offend.

Otherwise, Feng Yun realm would not have pulled them down from the top ten guilds.

Just like that little rabbit in heaven and earth, Zhang Shan was clearly channeling a return to the city, but that b * tch came up to cut him.

They were simply shameless. Zhang Shan had never provoked them.

They were just a bunch of people who liked to cause trouble.

Since they had already escaped, he would let them go this time. Next time, he would deal with them again.

although zhang shan was also considered a big-hearted person.

Even a big belly depended on the person, didn’t it? When it came to dealing with the B * stards from the heaven and earth Guild, if he couldn’t handle them, he would stay away from them.

When he could, he would hack them until they couldn’t take care of themselves, which could also be considered as purifying the game environment.

well, he had to ask the people from the heaven and earth guild which city they had gone to. they couldn’t go to the cities of other countries, and there was no such thing as a betrayal system.

However, there were still two other sub-cities in Chu State-Yingtian city and Yunmeng city. He had to find out which city they had gone to.

In the future, if he had time, he would find trouble with them.
