Chapter 56 A small wild wolf

“Do you know which city they went to? Zhang Shan asked in the Guild channel.

“I don’t know now, but we don’t need to ask about this. We’ll find out soon enough. They’re all trash who like to cause trouble.”

“That’s right, you’ll hear them stirring up trouble in a few days.”

“Why is the boss of the divine artifact asking about where they are going? Do you want to chase after them? Wasn’t that too ruthless? Hehe.”

Had his little thoughts been guessed by others? he must have said it casually, but he couldn’t admit it.

How could one admit to what was on one’s mind? it didn’t count if one didn’t take action.

“I didn’t. it wasn’t me. don’t talk nonsense.” He denied it three times.

“Haha, big brother, you’re so funny.”

Sigh, he had only played for a few days, but he was already being called a boss by everyone. If others knew that he was just a salted fish living in a rental apartment, they would probably have their glasses shattered.

Well, he had to consider moving to a better place to live. No matter what, he was now a small capital with tens of millions.

Renting a single apartment to live in would be a bit against himself.

After a period of time, when he had stabilized in the game, he would start making arrangements.

“Since the heaven and earth Guild’s members have withdrawn from Dangyang city, let’s ignore them for now. Go and level up. One blade, count the people we killed just now. Pay 1000 gold coins for each death. We’ll also pay for the Guild’s funds. We’ll make arrangements to inject funds into the Guild’s funds.”

feng yun realm’s actions were extraordinary, he was really a big shot.

“Thank you, boss.”

haha, I was a little sad when I lost a level, but now I feel better. I didn’t rush up to take two skills in vain.

“Hehe, boss is generous.”

One had to admit that Feng Yun realm knew how to conduct himself. He did not look at the contribution points but only the number of deaths on his side.

This method was very friendly.

This was because those who killed more people didn’t necessarily contribute much. Instead, those who died more often either took the damage or were weak.

these people needed more encouragement and support.

The truly powerful ones, like wind and cloud blade, would definitely kill many people, but they would not die easily.

However, he didn't need that little bit of gold coins. He was a big Shot himself, so he didn't care about this little bit of money.

Feng Yun realm's actions had won over the hearts of the people. No wonder everyone said that his reputation was quite good. He knew how to conduct himself.

The matter with the heaven and earth Guild had come to an end, and Zhang Shan had not even had the chance to make a move.

It was better to be at ease and be a brush.

Before 12 o'clock, Zhang Shan had finally reached level 21. It was slower than he had expected.

He had overestimated his ability, but it didn't matter.

He looked at his experience bar. Leveling up to level 22 required 1.5 million experience, and the experience requirement had increased by 50%.

It was still alright. As expected, it would only get more difficult to level up later on. For now, he could still maintain leveling up twice a day.

I'll probably have to work hard for a while before I can level up two levels.

Forget it, let's not think about these annoying things. I'll go offline and sleep.

Zhang Shan said in the Guild channel, "I'm going offline to sleep. Big bosses, hundred hundred. After saying that, he went offline.

this isn't the style of the divine artifact boss. Aren't you going to work hard today?"

what's there to say? brother divine weapon has already played.

sigh, if I was as lucky as brother divine weapon, I would have gone to bed early.

that's right. With the divine weapon in hand, there's no need to work hard at all. Even if you lie flat, no one can catch up.

don't disturb me. I want to quietly be a handsome man who kills monsters.

"Idiot."

The chaos in the game had nothing to do with Zhang Shan. Not long after he went offline, he entered Dreamland.

The next morning at 7 am, he got up early, went downstairs for breakfast, and continued his brush career.

Last night, he did not go back to the city to log off. Instead, he found a safe place and logged off.

If they were to return to the city, it would take another half an hour to run over, which was a waste of time.

As soon as he went online, Zhang Shan immediately summoned his panda baby. He was afraid that he would be surrounded by too many wild wolves, so he had to use his panda baby to block them first.

Eh? It seemed like he was overthinking things. Only a few wild wolves had noticed Zhang Shan and were charging towards him. He had been too nervous.

After clearing out the wild wolves nearby, Zhang Shan suddenly realized that there was a small wild wolf not far away.

That's strange. What kind of species is this little wild wolf? if it's a BOSS, it should be bigger.

Such a small one, it shouldn't be a BOSS, right?

however, it was better to be careful. he slowly approached and observed from a distance.

[little wild wolf: Level 1]

Level 1?

That's right, this was a level 1 monster. It wasn't demonized and could be tamed by hunters.

...

He already had a Panda pet and could not tame a second one unless he gave up on it.

This was obviously impossible. Not to mention his pet's high attack and defense, the 10 points of luck and combo skills were simply a perfect match.

He didn't even want to trade for a divine beast.

However, even if he didn't want it, others would fight for it. In the game, there were very few hunters who had a practical pet.

Their Guild didn't have the wind Cloud Cannon.

It was too difficult to find monsters that had not been demonized. The ones that were occasionally found were trash pets that were useless to players.

the wind and cloud cannon had once offered a reward in dangyang city. if he found any undeveloped monsters, he would be notified and 10000 gold coins would be given as long as he tamed them successfully.

However, the result was that he had yet to find a pet.

Not only were there very few monsters that had yet to be infernalized, but there was also another important reason.

It might have just been refreshed and killed by someone with a cheap hand.

this was the mentality of many people. if they couldn't use it, and they had no friends who could use it, why would they keep it for the new year if they didn't kill it?

He wanted to see if the wind Cloud Cannon was online.

if it was really there, then he was lucky.

Summoning wind Cloud Cannon.

“Brother cannon, what are you doing?”

I’m leveling up. What else can I do? I’m not even level 17 yet. I’m not like you. You’re already level 21.

It was sour.

“Have you learned The Taming skill yet?”

no, there’s no monster for me to tame. I won’t learn it first, it’s a waste of skill points.

I found a small wild wolf here. It’s level 1 and can be tamed. Don’t tell me you didn’t save any skill points? ”

Zhang Shan shared his view with him.

” f * ck, where is it? i’m going back to the city to buy a skill book. help me look after that little wild wolf, don’t let others kill it. ”

“I know. Why didn’t you prepare a skill book?”

“Why do I need a taming skill book? no one wants it, and it can be bought at the auction house at any time. Right now, the cheapest skill book in the entire game is taming. It doesn’t even cost 1000 gold coins.”

what’s going on? is The Taming skill that unpopular? ” of course, not only does it take up skill points, but I can’t find monster taming. Even if I learn it, it’s just for show.

alright, hurry up and come over. Oh right, you need to find someone to help you. Otherwise, you might not be able to reach me. There are a lot of monsters on the road, so don’t die on the road.

“Stir-fry? is it that exaggerated? I got it, I’ll ask the boss to bring me there. He’s well equipped, so there shouldn’t be a problem.”

“Then you guys better hurry up.”

” yes, i’ve already gotten the skill book. let’s go now. ”
