Chapter 59 My heart moves with me

They were developing very quickly, but the others were not slow either.

I can't be too complacent. I'll keep working hard. I'll take a look at the level leaderboard and continue farming monsters.

Yi, what happened? the person ranked second on the list, heart moves with me, actually dropped a level, and is now only level 20.

He was about to lose his second place on the level leaderboard. He was too careless. How did he die just once?

zhang shan felt a little pity for him.

It was extremely difficult to level up after level 20, but the death penalty was still the same. Each death would cost him one level of experience.

Zhang Shan had the rebirth skill. He had two lives, and he had to be careful. He did not dare to be too arrogant when he was killing monsters, afraid that a red BOSS would suddenly appear beside him.

They wouldn't be able to run away.

He would usually clear a wave of monsters, observe for a while, and then kill the next wave.

This heart with me was probably too careless and didn't pay too much attention. It respawned all the way to the boss's side and directly collided with it, not having the chance to escape.

It was a pity that Zhang Shan had guessed wrong this time. The truth quickly slapped him in the face.

World Channel

Heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber: "my heart moves. You idiot. Come at us again if you have the guts. Who asked you to be so arrogant? so what if you're second on the level ranking? we'll still Cut You Down.

if they dared to provoke the heaven and earth guild, even if they were the number one on the level ranking list, they would still be killed by us.

f * ck, was zhang shan unjustly implicated?

This trash that he had killed in one shot actually dared to brag so much in the world Channel. He couldn't take it.

Six-barrelled Bodhisattva: "oh my, dragon slaying saber, you've become more capable. You were able to knock me down with a single spear back then, and now you dare to brag like this? come and cut me if you have the guts.

Freedom King, divine weapon boss, what happened? You knocked out a Dragon Saber with one shot? Was it that fierce? Or was the Dragon slaying saber too weak?

God of War Li Jing: " what's so strange about it? you'll know how terrifying a divine weapon is after you look at its attributes carefully. Once the effect of Holy Strike was triggered, no one could block it. Even the tankiest Guardian warrior would die, not to mention an ordinary Berserker like dragon slaying saber.

Moving heart: [heaven and earth Guild members, just you wait. If I don't kill you until you don't dare to leave the city, I'll delete my account and stop playing.]

Heaven and earth Heavenly Sword: " you're really arrogant. We're farming monsters right now. Come on.

[heart moves with me: bounty. Kill a heaven and earth Guild core member once. 10000 gold coins. I'll open a bounty post on the forum and upload a video of the kill to private chat with me to collect the money.]

What a shocking big melon. Zhang Shan was completely stunned by this move.

It had been a week since the opening of the New World, and this was the first time someone had dared to flood the world Channel like this.

Heart follows me spammed the world Channel Seven times. The first time was one gold coin, the second time was ten gold coins, the third time was one hundred gold coins, and the seventh time was one million gold coins.

He didn't treat money as money, what a rich man.

In fact, if he wanted to put up a bounty, he didn't need to check the world Channel at all, because it was impossible for people from other countries to come to Chu country for a bounty.

Although you could teleport to different countries, once you were teleported to another country, your character name would turn purple.

Everyone in the country could attack, and there was no crime value, even in the city. The key was that people could teleport in their own country's city.

When foreigners were teleported over, they were not allowed to use teleportation. With such a ridiculous setting, why would anyone risk their lives to come to Chu country for the sake of a reward?

Moving heart's motive for spamming the world Channel was obvious-he wanted to write a few words on his face: "I have money.

i have a lot of money. as long as you can kill the people of the heaven and earth guild, don't worry that i can't afford it.

I'm even spamming the world Channel with 1000000, so how could I not be able to afford the bounty?

The moment the bounty for "as you move my heart" was announced, the entire new world instantly exploded.

It was common to see rich people in games, but it was rare to see someone as rich as him. He was really generous.

It wasn't convenient for people from other countries to come over and accept the bounty, but it was convenient for players from Chu.

Needless to say, the players of Yingtian city would get 10000 gold coins for every heaven and earth Guild member they killed.

For Zhang Shan and the others from Dangyang city and Yunmeng city, they only needed to spend 10 gold coins to teleport over.

It was very convenient.

this made zhang shan a little eager to try.

Last time, when wind and cloud blade led the team and beat the heaven and earth Guild out of Dangyang city, Zhang Shan did not participate. This time, it was an opportunity.

Most importantly, not only could he vent his anger this time, but he could also earn money. Why not?

"Boss, I want to go to Yingtian city to accept the bounty. It won't affect our Guild, right?"

zhang shan was afraid that others would say that the wind and cloud guild was bullying others, so he wanted to ask his boss's opinion.

if you want to go, go. It's the same for the others in the Guild. Anyway, it's impossible for the people from the heaven and earth Guild to reconcile with us. We'll meet again sooner or later.

haha, then I'm going too. Brother divine weapon, take me with you.

alright, those who want to go, sign up. We'll start a party, but we need those with strong survival skills. We're going to kill people, not give away our heads.

team up with me. I'm a thief. If I don't show myself, who can find me? "

"Party me, I'm fully equipped at level 20."

Zhang Shan was going to register for each group. There were not many people, a total of twelve people.

The big bosses in the Guild were not short of money. They just wanted to have fun, unlike Zhang Shan, who had the idea of making some extra money.

the others who didn't plan on going didn't want to join in the fun, and they were afraid of accidentally dying. it wouldn't be worth it to lose a level.

After all, they were going to other people's territory. Who knew how many people they would have to face?

The little Secretary became very arrogant after equipping the red Shield, so she also signed up to form a party, along with windchime and Windcloud blade, the Berserker who loved PK.

other than that, there were the windcloud cannon, windcloud killer, and a few other guild bosses that zhang shan was not very familiar with.

"Let's go. We'll cast a spell to return to the city. Let's go to Yingtian city to pick up the money."

Zhang Shan felt that this was like picking up money. As long as he found the people of the heaven and earth Guild, he would be able to get shiny gold coins.

As for whether he could beat him or kill him, these problems were not within Zhang Shan's consideration. Now, only meat shields like the little Secretary could be considered.

As for the others, who could block his spear? as for killing him, it was even more impossible. He had gained two lives and was able to break free from his control with violence.

It's true. An invincible Fort, and it was the kind of big Fort that could run very fast. It was so strong that it made people despair.

To Zhang Shan, killing people was easier than killing monsters. He just needed to find the people from the heaven and earth Guild.

"Let's go. Let's go pick up the money with the divine weapon boss."

gather at the teleportation Hall. I'll contact heart follows me first and see if he has any information on the location of the heaven and earth Guild.

He couldn't just run for nothing. He had to know where his target was first. That way, after he was teleported to Yingtian city, he could directly teleport to the city gate and go straight to his target.

The plan was perfect.
