Chapter 60 Killing the little rabbit again

he opened the private chat channel and added heart with me.

Usually, Zhang Shan's private chat channel was closed. Only those who had added him as a friend could send him a private message.

He was a famous person in the New World. If he didn't turn it off, countless people would add him in private chat, which was very annoying.

Since moving heart had opened a bounty, his private chat channel should be open. Otherwise, how would others find him to claim the bounty?

"divine artifact boss, what's the matter? Are you here to take the bounty?"

Seeing that Zhang Shan had sent a message to him, 'follow my heart' seemed to be a little happy. With the big boss divine weapon taking action, the effect of his reward was remarkable.

The game had only been open for less than a week, but Zhang Shan had already become a big celebrity in the New World. Not to mention him, from time to time, he would get first kills for bosses, and he would be first in the contribution list for city defense activities.

Just the divine weapon in his hand was enough to make countless people cast sidelong glances at him.

that's right. I've been wanting to deal with those idiots from the heaven and earth Guild for a long time, but I couldn't find the time. This time, I just happened to see your bounty and wanted to come over to deal with them.

"Hehe, I didn't expect you to come. If that's the case, don't even think about having peace with the heaven and earth Guild."

"I'm not the only one going. I'm also bringing a dozen people from the wind and cloud Guild with me."

"You're welcome. It's even better if you all come. We'll kill until they don't dare to leave the city."

"Can you find a way to provide them with real-time location information? If they run around, it won't be easy for us to find them."

"don't worry, i'll take care of this. i've already sent people to keep an eye on them."

"sure, are you coming with us?"

"Of course I'll go with you guys. There's hope for me to personally take revenge. That heaven and earth cigarette, leave it for me, I'll definitely kill him."

alright, you tell us the gathering point. Try not to let anyone see us and launch a surprise attack.

gather at the West Gate. I'll be waiting for you at the gate. There's no need to keep it a secret, and it can't be kept a secret. They've arranged for people to guard all four gates in order to protect me.

"Oh, then there's no other way. I hope they don't run away."

“Don’t worry, that group of self-righteous idiots won’t run.”

It would be good if he didn’t run away. Zhang Shan loved it when people fought with him. Who would he be afraid of if they were to face each other head-on?

he ended the call with heart moves.

In the teleportation Hall of Dangyang city, everyone else had already arrived.

“Brother divine weapon, what do you mean by” heart moves with me “?”

he’s already arranged for people to keep an eye on the heaven and earth Guild’s people. However, we won’t be able to keep it a secret if we go there. They’ll know once we arrive at Yingtian city.

just confirm the location. Don’t worry, there’s no need to keep it a secret. I know that group of idiots. They won’t run away until they give up.

“We’ll set off once you’re ready. When we arrive at Yingtian city, we’ll teleport to the West Gate. Follow my heart and wait for us there.”

he started walking.

After teleporting to Yingtian city and exiting the teleportation Hall, the group of people directly teleported to the West Gate.

The heart follows my heart was already waiting there.

This was the first time Zhang Shan had seen heart moves, a Spellblade. It was a class that had terrible early PK abilities.

In the early stages of the game, spellblades dealt decent damage, but they didn’t have berserk skills, crowd control skills, or movement speed reduction skills.

Unless he bullied the weak, he would not be able to pk and would not have the chance to kill anyone.

you guys, follow me. They’re still farming monsters in the 10000-man pit. They’re so arrogant. They don’t have any intention of leaving.

that’s good. Let’s run over quickly. If we encounter anyone blocking our way, we’ll kill them. We’ll kill anyone who stands in our way.

haha, brother divine weapon is so domineering. I didn’t kill enough last time. This time, I’m going to kill to my heart’s content. Wind cloud blade said excitedly.

Zhang Shan and the rest had just arrived at Yingtian city and were quickly discovered by other players.

Although there were only a dozen of them, they were too big of a target to become famous. The Yingtian city’s regional channel immediately became lively.

a divine weapon Big Shot has appeared in Yingtian city. Are you here to accept the reward? ”

“Isn’t that obvious? It can’t be that he’s here for a vacation in our Yingtian city, right?”

I saw it too. It's not just the big boss of the divine weapon. There are also many people from the wind and cloud Guild. Follow me, heaven and earth Guild is going to be in trouble.

it's good that they're unlucky. Let them be arrogant and get beaten up like dogs. They fled to our Yingtian city and even cleared the area to farm monsters.

"sigh, it's a pity that there aren't many people from the wind and cloud guild. i'm afraid that i can't handle it, so i can only harass them."

"Harassment is fine too. Why don't we go too? if someone takes the lead, we'll beat the dog when it's down."

"that's right. i want to go and take a look too. damn it, i was killed by the heaven and earth guild's people yesterday. it would be unforgivable if i don't take such a good opportunity to take revenge."

we have to go together. We'll take revenge for those who hate us.

Casually glancing at the regional channel, Zhang Shan was a little shocked. Were the people from the heaven and earth Guild always so arrogant?

He had only been in Yingtian city for a few days, and he had already offended so many people.

Seeing Zhang Shan's slightly surprised expression, wind and cloud blade asked curiously, "Divine artifact boss, what's the matter?"

look at the regional channel. Many people are denouncing the heaven and earth Guild. Is their reputation that bad? " only now do you know? they used to have the worst reputation among the top ten guilds. If they didn't have the advantage in numbers and strength, they would've long since been annihilated.

I don't know what they're thinking. How can they survive in the game if they do this? "

Zhang Shan was a little puzzled. It was not strange for such a person to exist in the game. But if a group of people were like this, then it was incomprehensible.

"They aren't stupid. They won't offend just anyone. If they encounter someone they can't afford to offend, they'll still act like cowards. Do you think they'll dare to provoke the war god Guild?"

"oh, so you're just bullying the weak and fearing the strong."

be careful. We're about to reach the ten thousand people pit. I think they already know you're coming and will block the map entrance.

"there's no need to be afraid of being blocked. the little secretary will go in first, i'll be second, and you guys will follow behind me."

Blocking the entrance to the map was a common move. It might be effective against the average player, but against the few of them, it would be a bit difficult.

With the little Secretary's HP and defense, she could stand still for one or two seconds against Xiang Yi's group's attacks.

as for him, he was even less afraid. with two lives and his teammates behind him, there were only about 200 people from the heaven and earth guild. if he didn't kill them in the first round of attacks, he wouldn't have another chance.

Just as they were about to reach the map's entrance, Zhang Shan suddenly noticed a shadow flash past his left.

Eh? A thief was watching them.

The Eagle Eye skill increased his perception by 20%. This thief probably did not expect that he would be discovered by Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan discreetly left the team and moved to the left. As expected, he found a thief squatting in the grass and observing their movements.

Hehe, it was the heaven and earth bunny again. Zhang Shan did not stand on ceremony with him. When he saw him, he immediately opened fire and shot the heaven and earth bunny.

heaven and earth bunny was actually a red name, and it dropped two pieces of equipment after falling to the ground. how generous.

f * ck you, six-barreled Bodhisattva. How dare you come to Yingtian city to seek death? don't even think about going back now that you've come.

"Idiot."

the others finally reacted.

"Damn, isn't this a little rabbit? Brothers, come and watch, hehe."

Heaven and earth bunny, who was lying on the ground, was not willing to be humiliated. He turned into a white light and returned to the city to resurrect. He was still in a red name state, so he could only be locked up in a small black room when he returned to the city. He could only blame his bad luck.
