

Passive Skills 80

Chapter 80 the calabash brothers

After Zhang Shan entered the wild wolf slope, he first cleared the wild wolves near the entrance.

Then, he carefully planned his escape route.

It was impossible for him to block the entrance completely by himself. There were five to six hundred people there. Even the big BOSS, the wolf King, could not do it.

He only needed to attack at the entrance to intimidate the Dragon King of the East Sea, and then he would run into the pack of wild wolves.

He was wearing red boots and could run very fast. It was impossible for the wild wolves to catch up to him, and it was basically impossible for the men from traversing Four Seas to catch up to him.

Of course, since the Dragon King of the East Sea dared to invade the city, he must have some skills. There should be many high-end players in his team.

Not to mention red boots, it was possible that everyone had a full set of red equipment.

But no matter what, there would not be too many of such people. Zhang Shan only had to pull them along and run a distance.

Naturally, he would be able to split them up. As long as there were not dozens of them gathered together, Zhang Shan could easily defeat them one by one.

Once berserk and fanaticism skills were activated, his attack speed was at least twice that of other hunters, and much faster than other classes.

With his 3800 attack power, various critical hits, and passive effects, it would only take two to three seconds to kill one.

So what if they had more people? they could take them all down in minutes.

While Zhang Shan was planning countermeasures, the Dragon King of the East Sea was also discussing what to do.

It wasn't that they had so many people and were worried that they couldn't beat Zhang Shan.

The Dragon King of the East Sea only wanted to plan for the most favorable outcome for them.

"dragon slaying saber, you've fought six tube bodhisattva before. what do you think is the best way to deal with him?"

it's best if a group of people swarmed him. Six-barreled Bodhisattva's attack power is very high, and his attack speed is particularly fast. If there are too few people, we won't be able to get close to him.

"Oh, is he really that powerful?"

it's not that six-pipe Bodhisattva is powerful. It's just that the divine weapon is too powerful. We need more people to attack together.

we'll be having a Guild War with the wind cloud Guild tomorrow night. Do you guys think we can let six-barreled Bodhisattva return to the city with a red name and be locked up until the Guild War tomorrow?

This was the true purpose of the eastern sea Dragon King, although he was confident in winning the Guild War against the wind and cloud Guild.

But if he could get rid of Zhang Shan in advance, that would be even better.

“We can do it, but we'll have to sacrifice a lot of people.”

that's right, boss. It's only ten o'clock now. There's still more than thirty hours to eight o'clock tomorrow night. Are we really going to let six-pipe Bodhisattva kill more than thirty of my men? ”

“It doesn't matter if he kills our people. Our six supports have resurrection skills. We can resurrect those who die and won't lose experience.”

alright, let's do it this way. We'll let six-barreled Bodhisattva have a good time killing first. When he's locked up in the little dark room for dozens of hours, he won't even have a place to cry to, hehe.

boss, the wind and cloud Guild's main force is following behind us. What should we do? ”

“Don't worry about them. Feng Yun realm and the others are still in the dungeon. The rest are just a motley crew, not worth mentioning.”

we still have to be on guard. After all, there are a few hundred people.

alright then. We'll split a group of people to watch them while the rest go in and kill six-barreled Bodhisattva.

“That's right, what's there to be afraid of? this time, we have more than six hundred people. If it's just to deal with six-barreled Bodhisattva, a few dozen people would be enough. So many of them are only here to deal with the rest of the people from the wind cloud Guild.”

The Dragon King of the East Sea led the large group and gradually approached the wild wolf slope. Zhang Shan waited quietly at the entrance of the map.

this is Danyang city. The battle is about to begin. The Dragon King of the East Sea is approaching the wild wolf slope with his team. The next person will take over.

“World livestream, this is Danyang city. The wind and cloud Guild has formed a large force and is ready to receive them. However, I don't see Feng Yun realm and the other core members. They should be clearing the dungeon. Next.”

“Haha, it's a good thing that I chose Chu country and can come to Danyang city to watch the battle.”

“xiaoyao king, what are you laughing at? be careful that the dragon king of the east sea will kill you too.”

“do you think i'm afraid of him?”

“Whoever's afraid knows.”

The Dragon King of the eastern sea led the team to the outside of wild wolf slope, while Zhang Shan waited at the entrance of wild wolf slope.

actually, zhang shan was fully aware of the progress of traversing four seas 'operation. not to mention the guild's thieves, they would always report to him.

Even those who were livestreaming on the world Channel could provide Zhang Shan with information about the Dragon King of the East Sea and the others.

let's go in first and have thirty-five players with weak defense killed by six-barreled Bodhisattva. Let's go in one by one and don't scare him away.

"hehe, once he kills happy, we'll enter together and kill him in an instant."

Zhang Shan waited quietly at the entrance. Suddenly, an Archer appeared in front of him. He did not have time to think and shot him down.

Eh? How could it be the weak-skinned jobs that came in first?

There was no time for Zhang Shan to consider. Another Ice Wizard entered the wild wolf slope and was shot down.

As the fragile professions fell under Zhang Shan's spear one by one, he gradually understood the evil intentions of the Dragon King of the East Sea.

She just wanted him to be red-named.

What's so great about red names? he had killed more than a hundred of the heaven and earth Guild's players yesterday.

Wasn't he the same? he only spent half a day to remove his red name.

As for the Dragon King of the East Sea wanting him to return to the city as a red name, Zhang Shan had not expected that.

Of course, even if he knew, he would only say that he was childish. Would Zhang Shan give them a chance?

He was really thinking too much.

The men from traversing Four Seas were like the calabash Brothers as they were sent one by one to Zhang Shan's gun.

Zhang Shan didn't care what their goal was. He would just knock them down first. As for whether or not they would be pulled up by their support.

There was no need to worry about this problem. When Zhang Shan had knocked down enough people, they would not be able to save all of them even if they wanted to.

alright, now that six-barreled Bodhisattva's crime value is high enough, hang him back to the city and let him stay in The Black Room until tomorrow night."

the Dragon King of the North Sea will be the first to enter. You have more than 40000 HP. Even if you stand there and let him hit you, it will take a long time. The others will follow and enter together.”

The Dragon King of the North Sea was a Guardian. Like the Secretary, he had luxurious equipment and more than 40000 HP.

Even if he just stood there and let the average player attack him, it might take a minute or two.

Zhang Shan stood guard at the entrance and saw a Guardian holding a shield as he entered the wild wolf slope.

was it for real?

Zhang Shan quickly fired at the Dragon King of the northern Sea. At the same time, he was prepared to run away. The Guardian Warriors rushed in front.

...

The main force would probably be right behind him, and he didn't really intend to take on a few hundred people at once.

The two shots were fired. The second shot triggered the Holy attack, and the northern Sea Dragon King, who had more than 40000 HP, fell to the ground.

“Fire it.”

Immediately after, two to three hundred players appeared at the entrance. Zhang Shan did not hesitate and turned to run.

What a joke, they really swarmed up. He thought that these big shots wanted to save face and would come to play a one-on-one with him.

how ungentlemanly, running first as a sign of respect, if you have the ability then come and chase.
