Chapter 82 pursuit

The Dragon King of the East Sea called all the people outside the wild wolf slope in.

In the beginning, Zhang Shan was still unaware. Wind and cloud blade shouted, ”

Brother Liu Guan, all of traversing Four Seas ‘men have entered. How’s the situation on your end? do you want our men to follow in?

“There’s no need for that for now. I’m taking them for a stroll. How’s the dungeon going?”

I’m fighting a boss. The hard mode boss is too overpowered. It has 10000000 HP, which is 10 times that of the normal mode. Its attack power has also increased a little.

“That’s not easy to fight. With so much health, won’t it take a long time to fight? The boss might use its big move several times.”

yeah, they’ve already used their big move once. More than 20 of them have fallen, and half of them are still fighting.

“Wouldn’t that be even slower?”

there’s no other way. As long as the tank and support are here, we can slowly grind it out.

“then you guys take your time. i’ll wait for my skills to cool down before i take on the traversing four seas again.”

“You really fought with them once?”

No. In the beginning, they sent their heads to me to make me red. I killed more than 30 of them. Later, I killed the Dragon King of the East Sea. I didn’t have a chance to kill anyone else.

f * ck! You killed the Dragon King of the East Sea? ” yeah, who asked him to run the fastest and be out of touch with the others? if we don’t teach him a lesson, he’ll think he’s invincible.

f * ck, save this luck for me. I’ll buy it at market price.

you’d better go to the auction house to buy something else. I’m going to make something of this axe to deepen the memory of the Dragon King of the East Sea.

“What do you plan to do?”

“I’ll post it on the world Channel later so that everyone can admire boss Dragon’s style, hehe.”

“How shameless, but I like it, haha.”

let's stop with the nonsense. You guys should focus on the boss. Tell the others to enter the wild wolf Hill later. It'd be bad if they don't get killed by traversing Four Seas 'players at the entrance.

"alright, i understand."

After ending the call, Zhang Shan used the map to observe the pursuers behind him. They were really persistent.

There were still hundreds of people chasing after him. As for the others, he didn't know if they were blocked by the wild wolves or were preparing to split up and intercept him.

Anyway, he didn't see it.

Now that the people outside had come in, five to six hundred people could form a very wide blockade.

He couldn't continue to be passive, or else he might really be screwed.

" six-barreled bodhisattva, don't run if you have the guts. let's fight one-on-one. "

Only a fool would not run. One-on-one? who would believe you? you can't be planning to fight me alone, right?

Zhang Shan could not be bothered with them. He would run first and wait for his berserk skill to cool down. Then, he would teach them a lesson.

However, he couldn't let them relax during this period of time. He had to stimulate them and raise the atmosphere.

He did as he thought.

Zhang Shan showed the axe dropped by the Dragon King of the East Sea to the world Channel and said, "

"this is a fresh red axe. the dragon king's products must be of high quality. if you're interested, prepare your money. once your red name is gone, you can go back to the city and put it up for auction."

When the Dragon King of the East Sea saw Zhang Shan post his weapon on the world Channel, he was so angry that he was about to explode. This was such a painful slap in the face.

right now, he could not wait to chop zhang shan into mincemeat. however, there was nothing he could do for the time being. he could only call for the others and speed up the chase, not giving zhang shan any chance to catch his breath.

In contrast to traversing Four Seas 'raging fury, the spectators in the world Channel were all over the moon.

People were always like this, happy to see others in trouble. Not to mention that the Dragon King of the East Sea and the others would harm the interests of many people if they attacked.

Everyone could not wait for them to be unlucky.

this axe Cape is awesome! Which Dragon King dropped it? traversing Four Seas has four great dragon Kings!

" is there a need to ask? only the dragon king of the east sea is a berserker. it must have been dropped by him. it's a divine equipment boss cape. " how impressive. Taking the head of a general in the midst of an Army of ten thousand? "

"Is six-barreled Bodhisattva bluffing? did the Dragon King really drop it? There were hundreds of them, how could they have killed boss?"

it's very easy to determine whether it's real or fake. Men from traversing Four Seas, come out and take a few steps. Is your boss dead? "

" don't ask. if you ask, it means that the boss is really dead. otherwise, he would have come out to scold us. "

that's right. Maybe the Dragon King of the East Sea was a little too arrogant and wanted to fight the divine weapon boss one-on-one. After being taught a lesson, he threw his weapon away and surrendered, hehe.

f * ck, that's a powerful explanation. It's okay to throw out your weapon and surrender, haha.

this won't do. I have to go and prepare some money to bid for the axe. I can't let go of such a good axe. Not to mention, it has extremely high collectible value.

"Don't fight over it, I want this axe."

"Why should I give it to you? let's see what we can do."

"why are you guys in such a hurry? the axe hasn't been auctioned yet. maybe six-barreled bodhisattva will drop it again."

"that's right, how's the battle situation now?"

"Where's the live broadcast of Dangyang city?"

this is Dangyang city, so we can't watch the battle. Both sides have already reached the depths of the wild wolf Hill, and the map is filled with wild wolves. The livestream can't keep up.

trash, what's there to be afraid of a small wild wolf? one slash, one kill. Keep up with the speed and broadcast the battle situation at any time.

there are too many wild wolves. I don't dare to follow them. It's depressing.

freedom King, you piece of trash. Can't you even defeat the small monsters now? "

"Easy for you to say. You do it."

sigh, without a live broadcast, I can't even eat melon.

this is Dangyang city. Wind and cloud Guild's main force has entered wild wolf slope. It seems like they are ready to support the divine weapon boss at any time. Next, take over.

"What's the situation? you can't beat the divine artifact boss?"

” it’s normal that he can’t win. how can one person win against hundreds of people? do you think he’s aotian? ”

Zhang Shan already knew that the people from the wind and cloud Guild had entered the wild wolf slope. However, he did not let them continue to venture deeper. They just had to guard the entrance.

There were simply too many wolves on the map, and players with inferior equipment would easily die. It was likely that quite a number of traversing Four Seas ‘players had also been killed by the wolves.

it was impossible for them to maintain their full strength while they were chasing him in different directions. It was normal for some of them to die after being attacked by a pack of wolves.

Zhang Shan looked at the cooldown time of his berserk skill. There were still tens of seconds left. It was time to find a chance to do something big.

He looked at the pursuers behind him. The line was very long. The closest ones were less than ten meters away from him, and the ones further away could not be seen by Zhang Shan. He could only see green dots on the map.

There were more and more wild wolves on the map. Zhang Shan could barely run. He had to clear a few of them from time to time.

It was the same for the Dragon King of the East Sea and the others behind him. They had more people, so they attracted more wild wolves. They had to keep killing monsters before they could continue to chase.

The Dragon King of the East Sea also knew that they had no chance, unless Zhang Shan had an iron head and turned back to fight them.

Otherwise, it would be impossible to chase after them. The wild wolves were too densely packed.
