Chapter 96 Wen battle

He saw that Zhang Shan had already been taken over by the People of the Wind and cloud Guild to provide support and cover. Furthermore, he had defeated more than ten of his people.

The Dragon King of the East Sea was completely enraged. He called for the rest of the people to attack, planning to overwhelm Zhang Shan with numbers.

“F * ck, so many of traversing Four Seas ‘players are rushing up at the same time. What do we do? brother divine weapon.”

There were only about 30 players from the wind and cloud Guild present. They were a little flustered when they faced the enemy’s numerical advantage.

“don’t panic. warriors, stay in the front row. you guys just need to block their melee attacks. leave all the ranged attacks to me. they won’t be able to rush up.”

Faced with the eastern sea Dragon King’s human wave tactics, Zhang Shan was not flustered at all. With his Eagle Eye and his range advantage, as well as his explosive damage output, their brittleskins could not even dream of charging up.

as for the warriors of traversing four seas, it would be useless even if they rushed up. zhang shan’s 30 or so teammates would be able to hold them off.

moreover, not all warrior classes could charge up to the front.

They were natural meat shields. With the current damage output of players, they were very difficult to take down. However, the Berserkers and spellblades were not so tanky.

If they were of the same level and equipment, they would have less than double the HP of a weakling.

Zhang Shan did not even need a few shots to be defeated.

The others quickly took their positions. Zhang Shan turned into a cannon and knocked down the incoming brittleskin from vertical and horizontal one by one.

Usually, two shots would be enough to kill one, and if a critical hit was triggered, it would only take one shot.

Although the Dragon King of the East Sea had the advantage of numbers, he soon realized that it was useless to have more people.

With Zhang Shan around, their fragile jobs could not even charge forward. On the other hand, there were dozens of Warriors who charged forward.

However, the wind and cloud Guild also had a support, who kept healing the players who were cut.

As for their side, Zhang Shan had already knocked down twenty to thirty people, while Zhang Shan’s side had only chopped down three to four people.

at this rate, if they wanted to cut down Zhang Shan, then wouldn't most of the remaining hundred or so people be dead?

Furthermore, Feng Yun's realm and the others would be able to come over to help soon. By then, it would be uncertain if they could take down Zhang Shan.

"Boss, why don't we use the other scroll as well?"

"I don't think it's worth it to use two scrolls in a row just to cut down six-tube Bodhisattva once? Most importantly, he won't suffer any losses even if we cut him down."

Yeah, scrolls are too expensive. It's not easy to get them.

"Who cares, no matter how expensive it is, it's just money. I'll just buy more in the future, but I'll definitely cut down the six-barreled Bodhisattva."

The people of Zongheng had a lot of resentment towards Zhang Shan, and they wanted to use money to crush him.

"Alright, we'll charge forward after I use the scroll. This scroll is much weaker than the previous one. It only increases defense, and it doesn't last long. Everyone, try to buy time and take down six-barreled Bodhisattva as soon as possible. Then, we'll return to our battle flag and defend until the challenge is over."

Since he could not win the challenge, and there was no surrender mechanism, the Dragon King of the East Sea planned to cut down Zhang Shan and stay under his flag.

It was fine to muddle around until the time was up. Other than wanting to cut down Zhang Shan, he did not want to work hard for anything else.

After fending off a wave of attacks, Zhang Shan realized that the traversing Four Seas' men did not charge forward again. Instead, they were all moving closer to the Dragon King of the Eastern Sea.

The Dragon King of the East Sea took out a scroll.

F*ck, again.

"Brothers, run!"

Zhang Shan did not care what type of scroll the Dragon King of the East Sea had. He ran away first. The other members of the Wind Cloud Guild also scattered and fled.

The Dragon King of the East Sea gritted his teeth and used the scroll.

As the scroll dissipated, the members of the traversing Four Seas were all covered in a flowing light barrier as they madly chased after Zhang Shan.

As for the other members of the Wind and Cloud Guild, as long as they were not unlucky enough to block their way, they were all fine. The Dragon King of the East Sea and the others could not be bothered with them.

let's fire him. This six-barreled Bodhisattva is too sneaky. Boss just took out the scroll and he ran away. What a b * stard.

" how f * cking wretched. if i had a divine weapon in my hands, why would i run? "

"Hurry up and chase him. We must kill him today."

Zhang Shan ran madly.

eh? did the dragon king of the east sea use the scroll or not? why didn't i hear anything?

He couldn't help but turn around to take a look.

What the f * ck, is this a defensive scroll?

he thought that it would be another powerful group instant kill scroll, but then he saw the flowing light barrier on top of the members of vertical and horizontal.

Zhang Shan did not have any thoughts of turning back and fighting again.

Now that their allies were scattered, it was difficult to gather them again. Moreover, looking at the flowing light of the barrier, it was impossible for them to gather.

If they didn't add insane defense, then they added invincibility. Only a fool would fight them.

He would drag it out until traversing Four Seas 'scroll disappeared and they met up with Feng Yun realm and the others.

As Zhang Shan ran, he shouted, "

"come and save me! the dragon king of the east sea chased me for several streets with more than a hundred people."

"Brother divine weapon, hang in there. We'll be there soon."

the divine weapon boss is too aggro-attracting. Why is he always being chased and attacked? " being chased by people every day is also a kind of card. It's better than people like us who have no sense of existence. We're just passers-by.

"I really want to be chased by a group of people."

"Do you really need a group of people? Two or three people can knock you down in minutes."

isn't it easy to be killed? if you teleport to a foreign country, you'll immediately be surrounded by a group of people.

this is too much. This is a matter of life and death, and you're still chit-chatting? can you run faster? "

Zhang Shan kept on calling out.

In fact, he was just screaming, and the situation was not very critical.

He was the first to run, and his movement speed was already very fast. If it wasn't for the occasional meteor arrow or two that interfered with his escape route, he would have been able to escape.

Even if he ran until dawn, the Dragon King of the East Sea would not be able to catch up with him.

"We're already trying our best to run. Look at my legs, they're moving so fast, like a small motor."

What the f * ck, he still had the mood to joke around. He really did not care about Zhang Shan's safety at all.

Zhang Shan was running happily in front, while the Dragon King of the East Sea was chasing him anxiously. The defensive status added by the scroll was slowly dissipating.

six-barreled Bodhisattva, stop and fight me if you have the guts. Do you only know how to run?"

Holy sh * t, could this be the legendary word battle? She couldn't catch up, so she wanted to use her mouth to tell him to stop.

That was too childish. Zhang Shan was not an idiot. He would not fall for this.

"If you guys have the guts, then continue chasing. Let's compete. No skills are allowed. Let's see how fast we can run."

It's a battle of words, it's as if he doesn't know how to play.

"B * tch, I'm going to chop you to death today."

I'm so scared. Look at me, I'm even trembling a little from running.

They had been together for nine years, yet he still wanted to compete with him.

Zhang Shan kept on teasing him. The Dragon King of the East Sea was so angry that he was shaking. He did not say anything more and continued to chase.

He realized that he was not Zhang Shan's match even if he talked. It was better to just fight and not talk.

However, the Dragon King of the East Sea soon fell into despair. Feng Yun realm and the others appeared in the distance.

A team of 50 people was quickly moving towards Zhang Shan's side.
