Chapter 479 – Dong Xuebing’s Kick!

Outside of the construction site.

This is the first investment site, and everyone alighted from the buses and cars.

Dong Xuebing quickly said to Xie Huilan. “Let me handle this.”

Xie Huilan nodded and walked towards the investors, Zhao Xinglong, and other Investment Promotion Agency’s staff, with Hu Silian. They are about to start introducing this investment, and the staff is not affected by that Corolla. This investment is important to the Agency, and the staff must not let the investors lose confidence in them.

“Chief!”

“What is that Corolla doing? The investors are shaken!”

“That car had purposely cut into our lanes. What is he trying to do?”

Guo Panwei, Luo Haiting, and the rest walk over angrily. Jiang Hailiang had fallen and scraped his arm in the bus earlier.

Dong Xuebing coldly replied. “That car belongs to Xiang Renjie’s friend.”

“Secretary Xiang’s son?”

“He is... trying to disrupt the investment fair?”

Everyone is speechless. How can Secretary Xiang stoop so low? After getting defeated by Mayor Xie and Dong Xuebing, he sent his son to cause troubles with the investment fair?! Does he no longer care about the bigger picture for the County? He is the County’s Party Committee Secretary and not a hooligan. But this might also be Xiang Renjie’s decision as everyone knows him with no regard for the law.

“Chief, what are we going to do now?”

“I had called the Traffic police. Go and accompany the investors. That is more important.”

The two students in the Corolla saw the group of investors is not affected, and they stopped their car to call Xiang Renjie.

“Renjie, we cut into their lane again, but they don’t have any reactions.”

“Haha... then do it one last time. After that, drive straight to Beijing. I will return to Beijing this afternoon.” Xiang Renjie knows the consequences for this action will be severe and does not want to meet them in Yan Tai County. He wants to avoid being seen associated with that Corolla. His friends had come to Yan Tai County for the first time, and no one knows them. If they are not caught red-handed, no one can do anything to them.

Xiang Renjie’s classmates got excited. With the County’s Party Secretary backing them, they don’t need to worry about anything. They can continue to scare the Mayor and that group of government officials and boast to others in the future.

“Alright. Renjie, we know what to do.”

“Ok. I will let you two handle this.”

The students discussed among themselves and turn around. They know the traffic police will be here, and even with Secretary Xiang’s backing, they will still be delayed. They might as well try to finish this task now and return to Beijing.

Dong Xuebing and the others noticed the Corolla had returned when they are inspecting the site!

The Corolla is speeding towards them. This place is a construction site, and the roads are not completed yet. The dust is flying because of the speeding car, and if they pass the investors and government leaders, they will be covered in dust!

The Investment Promotion Agency staff are furious!

They are too arrogant! They had cut into their lanes twice and are trying to cover them in dust now?!

Mayor Xie, Deputy Mayor Zhao, and the investors are here. If this incident affected the investors’ mood, how are they going to get them to invest? Someone had instigated that Corolla to cause trouble for the Investment Promotion Agency, disgrace Mayor Xie and Mayor Zhao, and leave a bad impression for those investors.

This is too evil. How can they use these hooligans' tactics?!

Twenty meters!

Fifteen meters!

The car is getting closer!

Xie Huilan and Zhao Xinglong were standing at the front, and Zhao Xinglong's face changed when he saw that car. But he continued to stand there with Mayor Xie. They have time to run aside, but that will look bad on them and the County Government.

Hu Silian shouted. "Stop!"

"What are you doing?!" Sun Shuli stared and shouted at the Corolla.

But the two students ignored. They laughed to themselves. We are just driving along the road and did not crash into you all. This is not against the law, and Xiang Renjie had promised to protect them if anything happens.

Ten meters!

Five meters!

If the Corolla continues forward, Mayor Xie and the investors will be covered in dust!

At the final minute, Dong Xuebing rushes out. He can no longer hold back.

Everyone knows Chief Dong has a foul temper and rash. But what can he do by rushing towards a speeding car? What Dong Xuebing did next shocked everyone. He ran a few steps forward, raised his leg, and kicked against that Corolla!

Damn!

"Chief Dong!"

"Xiao Dong!"

Everyone thought Dong Xuebing had got mad. They know Chief Dong is good at combat, but this is a speeding car! How can you try to kick it? Do you want to die? Everyone is shocked. This Chief Dong is too reckless!

The two students in the car were also shocked. They did not expect anyone to rush out and kick their car!

Dong Xuebing is not stupid. He knows he will be knockdown even if his leg is made of iron. There is no way he can stop that car with his kick. That's why when his right foot is about to touch the car's bonnet, he mumbled under his breath. STOP!

.....

Time stopped!

Dong Xuebing looked at the Corolla and reached into it through the window. He pulled the handbrakes and turned the steering wheel twice. After that, he returned to his previous spot and straightened his back..... STOP!

.....

Time resumed!

Screech!!! The Corolla's rear tires are locked!

At the same time, the car skidded to one side with its tires locked! The car lost traction and started spinning!

180 degrees!

360 degrees!

The tires made long skid marks on the dirt road and spun out of control!

Bam! The car crashed into the outside walls of the construction site at high speed!

The bonnet is crashed! The windscreen shattered, and the airbags are deployed! The Corolla is destroyed!

Everyone felt a chill!

Dong Xuebing covered his nose and mouth with his sleeves to block the dust and slowly walk over to the Corolla. The two students are looking at the wreckage in a daze. Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes. "How can you drive like this?! Ah?! You all still dare to try handbrake turn?! You are daring! Didn't your driving instructor at the driving school tells you that it is dangerous?!"

The two students are still in a daze. They did not pull their handbrakes!

The people nearby heard what Dong Xuebing said. Didn't that car crash because of your kick?!

Everyone saw Dong Xuebing kicked that Corolla and the car spun out of control towards the wall. No one saw the driver turning his steering wheel. But after some thought, they felt that no matter how strong Chief Dong is, there's no way he can kick a speeding car away!

What is going on?!

Did they meet a ghost?!

Many people look at Dong Xuebing's legs curiously.

Dong Xuebing will not admit he was the one who kicked the car away, and he blamed it all on the driver. It's all the driver's fault, and he has nothing to do with it.

Xie Huilan looks at Dong Xuebing. "Are you hurt?"

"No." Dong Xuebing moved his leg, showing that he is unharmed.

Xie Huilan's eyes are warning him not to cause any more troubles.

Zhao Xinglong also felt Xiao Dong is a troublemaker. His actions had scared everyone.

After a while, Xie Huilan and Zhao Xinglong continued to inspect the construction site with the investors. But before she left, she gave Dong Xuebing a look, and he got the meaning. He nodded, indicating he will handle this.

"My car!"

The two students got over their shock and shouted!

After Xie Huilan and the investors left, Dong Xuebing turned to the driver. "Your car?! Worry about yourselves first! Tell me, who sent you all?! What is your purpose in blocking our cars?! Are you all tailing us? Are you plotting to crash into us, or are you all trying to disrupt our investment fair?! Is this planned by you all or Xiang Renjie?! Do you know that your actions are enough to be sentenced to jail?!"

"Sentenced us?!" One of the students opened his eyes wide.

"Who are you trying to scare?!" The other student shouted. "Compensate us for our car!"

Dong Xuebing laughed. “You all had crashed into the wall yourselves. Who can you blame? I wonder who gave you all the guts to go against our County?”

The traffic police arrived at this time!

“Chief Dong.”

Dong Xuebing points to the student. “Bring them back and hand them over to the Public Security Section. They are trying to disturb social stability and disrupt the economic order. Make sure to question them thoroughly!”

After that, Dong Xuebing called the Secretary of the Political and Legal Committee, Huang Li, to inform him of what happened. Even if this incident cannot affect Xiang Daofa’s position, it is enough to gross him. His son had tried to disrupt the County’s investment fair, which is enough to tarnish his reputation!
