

Chapter 285

Smelling the scent, Suzi, who was already hungry, really aroused his appetite. As soon as she came down, Arron also sat opposite her.

Suzi: "..."

Eat with him?

She dare not.

Very cramped.

"Why are you sitting, serve me some food!" the man said blankly.

"Oh..." Suzi answered obediently.

Pick up the rice spoon and serve him rice.

He kept looking at her expressionlessly, her heart was nervous, her hands trembling involuntarily when the rice was served, a spoonful of rice poured more than half of the rice bowl, and the other half fell on the dinner table.

The man reached out and grabbed her rice spoon: "You can't do something as simple as serving rice. You still want to go outside with a man all day long!"

Suzi: "..."

A wave of grievances came to my heart.

Isn't it what he said, let her pay 10 million in debt! Let her pay it back by herself!

Blame her now?

Tears pattered down.

Suzi didn't want Arron to see her tears.

In front of him, what is so hypocritical!

She lowered her head desperately, and swallowed her tears hard. But saw a bowl of rice pushed in front of her.

"Is it enough?" the man asked in a deep voice.

Suzi didn't hear it, she thought the man asked her why she bowed her head. Thinking that the man saw her disappointing tears, she shook her head in a panic. By the way, tears flew away.

The man withdrew his job back in an instant. When it was pushed to Suzi again, the rice bowl became a small mountain bag.

Suzi stared at the dinner blankly.

Is he feeding the pigs?

She has never eaten so much before!

"I... why did you serve me so much rice?" She couldn't even eat half of it, okay.

Arron's tone was extremely calm: "Didn't you want it?! If you want it, you have to finish it!"

Suzi: "..."

Is this another punishment for her?

"I can't eat it." Suzi whispered.

"If you can't eat it, you have to eat it! The skinny skinny, pinched up and down all over the body, there is no meat, and I still want to accompany a man all the time!" The man yelled angrily.

Suzi: "..."

After a long while, she obediently lowered her head and worked hard to pick up that dinner.

Finally, a small mountain was wiped out by her and turned into a flat ground, and a rib with bone and meat was placed in her bowl.

Suzi: "I... I can't finish eating."

"If you only eat rice and no vegetables, I..." The man was about to say, he would deliver ribs to her bowl one by one.

Until she finished eating all the ribs in this big bowl.

But she heard Suzi nodding repeatedly: "I eat, I eat, I eat by myself."

He served her meals and served her dishes, she was not only flattered, she was terrified, OK?

"Yes." After he finished speaking, the man ate and ate the vegetables by himself.

To be honest, the ribs stewed were really delicious. After finishing one of them, Suzi couldn't help but stretch out his chopsticks to grab the second one.

As a result, it was caught on Arron's chopsticks.

Chapter 286

Suzi suddenly wanted to take his chopsticks back in shock.

I had a meal with a live Hades who had just drunk a popular movie star just an hour ago, and he blasted people out without any mercy. At the same time, he fancied the same ribs and clamped his chopsticks.

Is there anything more nervous and embarrassing than this?

The more nervous she became, the more Suzi had nowhere to put his chopsticks. She wanted to loosen it. He also did the same action. As a result, the two pairs of chopsticks fought in the ribs bowl.

Suzi quickly withdrew it back.

Arron also drew out.

Seeing him looking at himself with a cold face, Suzi knew that if she didn't just eat the rice tonight, he would not let her go. Thinking of this, Suzi would once again. Remove the ribs.

As a result, he collided with him again this time.

He caught her chopsticks.

Why do two people look at the same ribs so often?

Suzi didn't dare to move.

The man loosened the chopsticks, and Suzi took the chopsticks back, and he was bored, eating only rice instead of ribs.

Don't pick her dishes anymore.

This time, the man stopped forcing her.

But watching her eat a few mouthfuls of rice, he put a rib in her bowl, she just finished eating the ribs and chopped a few mouthfuls of rice, he put another slice of spiced beef in her bowl.

Just like that, she never looked up.

He has been adding food to her.

Until Suzi worked hard and resisted the possibility of death to eat the rice that night. Looking up again, he found that the rice bowl in front of the man had also been eaten.

Moreover, there is a pile of big broken bones in front of him.

This shows that he hasn't been picking food for her all the time, he has been eating it himself.

Suzi couldn't help but sigh. After all, she is a man, and her mouth is much bigger than her.

She couldn't help but remember that last night, he wrapped her lips in one mouthful, and he was able to wrap her all inside her lips.

Thinking of this, she blushed suddenly.

"What's wrong with you?" the man asked.

"I...thank you, I found a kindergarten for the only one, and made such a good toy room for her." Suzi said the truth.

"From the accounts you owe me!" the man said coldly.

Thank him!

Does his own daughter need her to thank you!

"Um..." Her heart felt warm.

"That..." She wanted to hiccup: "For a while..."

"I will coax the only one to sleep for a while." Arron said coldly.

Suzi: "..."

Seeing the man's cold look, Suzi didn't dare to ask why.

The man got up and went to the toy room. Suzi watched the man close the door of the toy room.

She immediately got up and followed, looking in through the glass window.

The man is building a building block house for Shen only in a decent way. Lilly was lying next to the man, watching him very well and happily.

As an adult after all, the house he built is structurally much stronger and more beautiful than the one built by Shen.

A building block house evokes a lot of knowledge and hobbies about architecture by Suzi.

She likes architectural design.

Not only is she missing Shanna, she also loves the industry very much.

Looking in from the window, Suzi wanted to rush in several times and wanted to tell Arron how to build that building block house to be stronger, more perfect, and more beautiful.
