

The Peremptory Casey Davies by Ash Ellis

Chapter 351

Lily's Idea

After finishing eating, they walked out together.

Wyatt was standing at the door at this time, talking to the two waiters. After seeing them coming out, he walked up with a smile.

"Mr. Natan, did you finish eating so soon? Do you need me to ask the chef to prepare something for you?" Wyatt asked.

"No need. Today's meal money will be credited to my account. We're leaving now." Natan said.

"It's just a meal. My treat." Wyatt said with a smile.

Natan didn't say anything more. He really didn't care about the cost of a meal.

Wyatt walked out with them together. He glanced at Casey, with disdain in his eyes.

After they went out, Wyatt said to Natan and Lily, "Mr. Natan, Lily, see you next time."

He thought that if Casey didn't leave with Natan and Lily together, he would follow up and ask Casey who the hell he was. Casey actually dared to covet the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce.

But what Wyatt didn't expect was that Casey was getting on the extended Hummer with Natan.

This made Wyatt clenched his fists, his eyes full of jealousy.

Was this guy going home with them? How could Casey be so valued so highly by the chairman of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce? What did Lily see in Casey? He was just a poor. Why did Lily fancy about him?

After watching the Hummer leave, Wyatt returned to the door and walked in front of the two waiters.

The two waiters were slapped by Wyatt a few times. Now they were so scared that they didn't dare to pant loudly.

"You two are sure that the guy came on a shared bicycle?" Wyatt stared at the two people and asked.

Both waiters nodded quickly, without daring to hesitate at all.

"Yes. He still wanted to park the shared bicycle at the entrance of our hotel. We let him go elsewhere. He didn't refuse. Otherwise, how could we dare to treat him with that kind of attitude?" One of the waiters spoke.

Wyatt nodded thoughtfully. He narrowed his eyes and sneered.

"It seems that he is just a poor. I don't know how he knew Natan. He definitely doesn't want Natan and Lily to know that he can't even afford a car and even have no money to take a taxi. So he came here early on a shared bicycle and waited here."

"Huh, if that's the case, there are so many ways to deal with this brat. It seems that I have to tell those top rich playboys who are interested in Lily to teach this brat a lesson. If I can't get Lily, I absolutely can't let such a poor get her."

After muttering a few words to himself, Wyatt took out his mobile phone and went into the hotel to call those rich playboys he knew.

In the villa of Lowe family.

As the chairman of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, Natan was rich. The place where he lived was naturally not a luxury mansion that ordinary people could afford.

His villa was built on a piece of land alone. On this piece of land there was only a mansion, along with a few houses for servants. The rest of the land was built up some recreational facilities for Lily to have fun.

This mansion even had its own golf course. The money spent on maintaining the lawn every year was enough for ordinary people to buy a few houses in B City.

There were all kinds of entertainment facilities around the mansion. Lily grew up in this environment. This was her castle. She had only lived in this castle since she was a child. So she knew very little about the outside world. This was also the main reason why Lily had such a character.

When she brought Casey to her castle, she looked quite excited. She couldn't wait to take Casey to visit the entire castle.

Besides, Lily directly told these servants that Casey was her Mr. Right, and Casey would be the male host here in the future.

The TV series that Lily usually watched were basically recommended by these servants. Most of them preferred romantic dramas. When Lily saw they liked to watch it, she would watch it with them together. So she thought as long as she slept with a boy in the same bed, she had to marry him and she would have children.

Seeing those servants looked embarrassed, Casey whispered to Lily that if she said that again, he would go out to sleep tonight. Then Lily shut up immediately, but she still held Casey's arm and showed him around the castle. After finishing visiting, Lily let Casey go. Natan arranged a room for Casey in the villa. After Casey briefly took a shower, he went back to the room to think about the things about going to Davies family tomorrow.

At about eleven o'clock in the evening, Lily who wore organza came to the door of Casey's room, with makeup on her face. She looked a little sexy. She was only nineteen years old. But under the cover of makeup, she was charming like a mature woman right now.

The light organza on her body made her graceful figure look so well. Her bra and underwear were looming, giving people a hazy and sexy feeling.

An innocent and lively little girl suddenly turned into a sexy woman, which could attract the eyes of countless men.

It took a lot of effort for Lily to dress up. Casey always treated her as a child, so she wanted to ask Casey to come to her home so that she would have a chance to show her sexy side to Casey.

She also wanted to sleep in the same bed with Casey for another night. This time she learned enough knowledge.

She knew lying in the same bed wouldn't have children. For this reason, she also watched some porn films.

When she watched those films, she was so shy and blushed.

She prepared all this to be able to let Casey accept her. She didn't want Casey to treat herself as a younger sister. Her feelings for Casey were true, not because she watched too many TV series. She wanted to fight for her own happiness.

When it was nine o'clock at night, Lily had already told the servants in the villa, saying that Casey had important things tomorrow so that none of them would bother them. Then they wouldn't be able to get close to this room.

So no one would come to Casey's room at this time.

Lily took a deep breath, then took out her mobile phone and checked her makeup. After making sure that there was nothing wrong, she walked to the door of Casey's room and gently opened the door.

At this time, Casey had fallen asleep. Because tomorrow's affairs were very important to Casey, he must ensure that he would have enough energy to deal with Davies family's affairs tomorrow.

Lily saw that Casey was already asleep. She showed an excited smile. Then, she cautiously walked to Casey's bed and lay next to Casey.

Lily was a little nervous. But before coming, she reviewed the content of those porn films, so she still remembered the specific steps.

However, she soon discovered the problem she was facing. The people in the film were all unclothed, but Casey slept in clothes. Lily didn't know what to do.

Help him take off his clothes first? But Casey was so heavy, how could she lift Casey up and then undress him?

They couldn't do that stuff while wearing clothes?

Oops, Lily didn't know that aspect at all. She regretted that she had not fully understood that aspect. How did she know that she couldn't do that stuff while wearing clothes?

She stared at Casey's lips. Her heartbeat speeded up immediately. No matter whether she should take off his clothes or not, kissing him was okay. Since childhood, Lily had only seen people kissing on TV. She wanted to try it very early, but she never met a suitable person. This time she must not let Casey go.

Thinking like this, Lily leaned toward Casey's lips directly.

At this moment, Casey in his sleep suddenly felt that there was a person in his bed. He opened his eyes. Then he saw that Lily was about to kiss him. He immediately pushed Lily away, jumped up from the bed, walked over and turned on the light.

"What are you doing? Don't you need to sleep? Why did you run to my bed in the middle of night? You almost scared me to death just now." Casey looked at Lily on the bed with helplessness on his face.

Lily didn't expect Casey to wake up at this time. Her feelings disappeared immediately. She looked at Casey with resentment on her face and said, "You are such a bumner. I want to kiss you. I have wanted to experience this feeling for a long time, but you ruined it."

Casey looked at Lily speechlessly. Only then did he find that Lily had makeup on her face and was wearing such sexy clothes. He immediately understood what Lily wanted to do.

"Lily, I still have very important things to do tomorrow. Can you stop doing this kind of thing at this time? Why are you wearing this kind of clothes? It's not suit for you. Go back to your room and change it." Casey said.

Lily pursed her lips, snorted, and said, "Don't you men like this? I'm dressed like this. You are still not satisfied. What do you want me to do? Do I have to come over naked? "

"I didn't mean that..." Casey said.

"Hmph, I don't care what you mean. You have ruined my plans. You must make up for me. Sleep with me tonight. Otherwise, I will tell my father that you want to rape me." Lily looked straightforward and confident.

"Well, I have to find your father now. Otherwise, I really can't explain it clearly to your father." Casey said.

Lily suddenly became a little frustrated. She wanted to smash the bed under her to vent out her anger.

"Casey, why are you so annoying? I like you. Why are you doing this to me?"

Tears welled up in her eyes, as if she would cry out at any time.

Seeing Lily looked so grievance, Casey was a little overwhelmed. He had never wanted to hurt Lily. But he didn't do anything wrong.

"Lily, I always treat you as my sister. If someone dares to bully you, I will stand in front of you and protect you, but there is only one woman I love in this life. She's my wife. I won't love others anymore, so..."

Lily got off the bed, lowered her head, and walked out without saying a word.

Tears fell drop by drop.

Casey called her again, but this time she didn't respond to Casey.

Casey's words made Lily realize that what she needed to do now was not to let Casey accept her. If she wanted to get Casey, the first thing she had to do seemed like to deal with Casey's wife...

Chapter 352 | Object

After Lily left, Casey sat by the bed for a long time. He couldn't figure out when he became so attractive. Scarlett liked to go to his room at night when he was in QY City. This time, Lily also did such a thing.

When Lily went out, she looked so sad.

Casey knew that he rejected her directly, which made her feel sad, but he couldn't deceive Lily on matters like feelings. Only when he made things clear earlier could he avoid even greater misunderstandings.

Maybe Lily would only be sad for a while. After some time, she would no longer be interested in him. As the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, there were so many excellent people around her. So Casey felt that someone would soon take his place.

Besides, Casey really didn't have the mood to think about this kind of thing now. He would return to Davies family tomorrow and take back everything that belonged to him. Nothing was important than this matter.

No longer thinking about Lily, Casey lay on the bed again. After a while, he fell asleep again.

He didn't know that Lily didn't sleep that night. All she was thinking about was how to snatch Casey from Edith.

The next day, in the Davies House.

In the main courtyard, there were many members in Davies family already standing here.

Priya, Antonio and others were already here. Not long ago, Margaret notified everyone to come to the main courtyard to gather, saying that she had an urgent matter to announce and it was related to the survival of Davies family.

When everyone received this news, they were full of surprise. No one dared to refuse, so they rushed to the main courtyard immediately.

"Have you heard that this time it seems to have something to do with Casey." A person whispered.

"What? Didn't Margaret say that this matter is related to the survival of Davies family? How could it have something to do with Casey?"

"Yes, didn't it say that Casey is dead some time ago? Why is the matter now related to Casey again? Couldn't it be a mistake?"

"I don't know. I also heard from others, but I can be sure that Casey is not dead. Someone took a photo of Casey in Eglor County not long ago. I heard that he still had a relationship with the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce."

"Holy crap. This guy's luck is too good. Didn't it say that he killed the lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce so he was killed by the chairman of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce? Are all of these news fake?"

A group of people discussed a lot, and made a lot of guesses about this matter. Priya couldn't help frowning when she listened to these people's discussions. What happened after Casey came back last time had changed Priya's attitude towards Casey. She had always thought that Casey was a wimp, so she was very contemptuous of Casey.

But after seeing the chess game, even Mr. Williams couldn't defeat Casey. So her view of Casey completely changed. She seemed to have recovered the kind of worship she had for Casey. After that day, she wanted to go to Casey to apologize.

But after that night, she never saw Casey again. It didn't take long time that some people said he killed the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce and he had been caught by the people of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce.

It was just that these were rumors. Sasha had also controlled this matter very well. She just let everyone know that there was such a rumor, but no one knew whether this matter was true or false.

Regardless of whether the rumors were true or false, after that day, Priya had never seen Casey again, which made her feel a little disappointed.

Now she heard someone say that Davies family's survival was related to Casey, which made her feel a little absurd.

"Casey is just good at fighting. He is only the abandoned son of Davies family after all. How could it be that he is related to the life and death of Davies family? It's ridiculous." Standing next to Priya, Antonio said with disdain.

Since the last time he failed against Casey, Antonio had always had a grudge. Even if he lost to Casey, he was still unconvinced. So he kept reminding himself the fact that Casey was the abandoned son of Davies family to make himself feel better.

When everyone was talking about it, Margaret led a lot of executives in Davies family to walk towards the main courtyard. They looked a little gloomy. They walked together, giving people a feeling that something big happened. Both Filip and Jordan were among them. Jordan looked a little sad, while Filip looked a little angry.

Margaret and others walked in front of everyone. The entire courtyard fell silent in an instant. No one dared to talk aloud. They could tell from the faces of the executives that the incident was definitely not trivial this time.

Margaret glanced at the people in the yard. There were hundreds of members in the entire yard. These people were the elites of Davies family in all walks of life. After Margaret knew that Casey might come back to snatch Davies family, she realized that she had to fool these elites first.

She took a step forward, cleared her throat, and said loudly, "I believe many of you already know why I called you all over. What I want to announce today is related to the life and death of Davies family, so I assemble you guys here."

"As of today, my sister, the head of Davies family, Sasha, has been missing for ten days in J City. I have sent countless people to J City to investigate this matter. However, no one of them come back."

"You should all know that the abandoned son of Davies family, Casey, is in J City. Some time ago, there were rumors that Casey was dead. Later I sent someone to verify it. Casey was not dead at all, and he is now in J City."

"Many of you should all know Casey came back last time. He showed great talent and strength. He proved to all of us that he is not a wimp. However, he came back just to demonstrate with us. That's it."

"After realizing Casey's potential, my sister wanted to make peace with him. But Casey didn't appreciate it. After the demonstration, he left here. Before leaving, he said that he would let us regret kicking him out of Davies family that year."

"You all know that Casey was expelled from Davies family back then because he wanted to kill his mother and seize control of Davies family. My sister has forgiven Casey over the past few years. Davies family needs an heir. So after thinking about it, my sister went to J City alone, wanting to make peace with him." "However, there was no news from her after she left. The people I sent over also lost contact. Until yesterday, one of my subordinates risked his lives to send back news that my sister had fallen into Casey's hands. Maybe she was died..." Speaking of this, Margaret stopped. Her voice became trembling.

Many of her words were made up. There were some things she couldn't let them know, so she made up some words based on the most beneficial aspects to her, and made everyone think that Casey killed Sasha. He was the sinner of Davies family.

After listening to Margaret's words, everyone was shocked. They were all indignant.

"I didn't expect Casey to be so cruel. He even killed his mother..."

"It's really hateful. How can there be a demon like him in this world!"

"We can't let him go. No matter how powerful he is, he can only hide himself in that small place. With the strength of Davies family, it is not difficult to kill him. We should send someone to kill him now. "

After seeing everyone's reaction, Margaret sneered. Then she said with a pained expression, "Casey is indeed cruel, but my purpose for calling all of you here today is not to kill Casey. When my sister went to J City, she was surrounded by top masters from Davies family. Even they couldn't kill Casey. Even if we planned carefully, I'm afraid it would be difficult to kill him."

"I asked you guys to come here to remind you one thing. My sister has Family Token with her. If she is killed by Casey, Family Token will definitely fall into Casey's hands. According to the rules of Davies family, Casey is my sister's son. Besides, he has Family Token. So he is qualified to be in charge of Davies Family. If he returns with Family Token to inherit Davies Family, it will be a disaster for us."

Everyone began to think about the seriousness of this matter. They all felt that Margaret's words made sense.

"So I have a proposal. Before confirming whether my sister is died or not, I can be temporarily the head of the Davies family and abolish the rule about Family Token, so that even if Casey comes back, we only need to unite. As long as we don't not hand over Davies family, he had no ways."

This was Margaret's main purpose. She had to control Davies family, so that even if Casey returned, he had no way to snatch Davies family back. After all, everyone present here was the foundation of Davies family. As long as they didn't accept Casey, he would not have any chance. By then Margaret would be able to control the whole Davies family.

"This matter is also the result of discussions among our senior leaders.

Margaret has experience in managing Davies family. It is reasonable to let her take the position of the head of Davies family temporarily. After killing Casey, we can decide who can be the head of Davies family." Filip echoed.

Half of Davies family's senior leaders were the confidants of Sasha and Margaret. Otherwise, Sasha and Margaret would not have been able to control Davies family for so many years. Filip was naturally one of them.

"Now everyone can express your views. If there is a better way than this plan, you can put it forward. If no one opposes it, Margaret will be the head of Davies family." Filip continued.

No one objected to them. In the past few years, Sasha and Margaret had cleaned up those who opposed them in Davies family in order to keep Davies family in their hands. Even if the rest of them don't know Sasha and Margaret were vicious, they had no opinions at all.

"Is there no objection? If not, I will be the head of Davies family temporarily. The first thing I will do after taking the position is to kill Casey!" Margaret said loudly.

She had determined that no one would stand up to be against her.

"I object!"

At this moment, a voice sounded. Then everyone saw that a thin but imposing figure walked into the main courtyard.

Chapter 353 Do His Justice

"It's Casey! He actually came back!"

"This bastard! He even dared to come back! What right does he have to oppose?"

"Catch him. He actually killed his own mother. He deserved to die!"

...

After seeing Casey, everyone in Davies family was full of anger. They had believed Margaret's words and felt that Sasha had been killed by Casey.

Margaret didn't expect Casey to return to B City so soon. It was obvious that he came here to make trouble.

She rolled her eyes and hurriedly shouted at Casey in an angry voice, "Casey, you devil! My sister wanted to make peace with you, but I didn't expect you to be so cruel and kill her. In order to get Davies family, you are so vicious. Do you think that you can get Davies family in this way? You wish. No one in Davies family will accept you!"

"You have to pay the due price for killing my sister. Since you dared to come back, don't want to walk out of here alive!"

Everyone in Davies family was angered by Margaret's words. Now Casey was their enemy. They must let Casey pay the price for Sasha's death.

Everyone stared at Casey, as if they might pounce on Casey at any time. Casey glanced at them, he looked calm. He just walked toward the front, as if he hadn't taken these people seriously at all.

They didn't know why they felt a little breathless pressure on Casey. Every time Casey took a step forward, the pressure on them increased.

Because of this pressure, none of the more present dared to speak casually.

"Margaret, your acting skills are really good. Even I almost believe in you. Are you trying to avenge Sasha, or do you want to kill me through the anger of those people in Davies family so that you can control the whole family?"

Casey's voice was calm, but with strong penetrating power. It echoed in everyone's ears in the courtyard.

A trace of resentment appeared between Margaret's face. She said coldly, "Don't quibble here. Where is my sister?"

"She is indeed dead." Casey said.

Everyone was in an uproar. Although they were all shocked when they heard Margaret said that, it was a different kind of shock when they heard Casey say it personally.

Sasha was really dead!

"But it was not me who killed her."

Casey added.

"Do you think we are idiots? My sister went to J City to find you. But for so many days, no news came back. None of the people I sent to investigate came back. Now you are here and confirmed that my sister is already dead. If it wasn't you, who else would do it?"

Margaret shouted bitterly. Since she had to act, she naturally had to continue.

Margaret and Sasha were sisters.

Margaret did have some feelings for her sister. Sasha was dead. Naturally, Margaret hated Casey.

But Margaret was the real cruel person. This kind of person always put interests first. Sasha's death would make her sad for a while at most. What she cared about more was that who could get Davies family after Sasha's death.

Everyone in Davies family naturally didn't believe Casey. If it was not Casey who killed Sasha, then why would he appear here now?

"Bastard! There is such a bastard in Davies family! Today, I will teach you a lesson for Davies family. You killed your mother. You deserved to die a hundred times!"

Standing behind Sasha, Filip could no longer bear it. He already wanted to teach Casey a lesson the last time. So this time, he would not let Casey go. He rushed towards Casey in a quick step, with a vicious look in his eyes and a strong murderous aura.

"Filip can definitely capture this bastard. He dares to come back alone. It's really stupid." Seeing Filip's move, Antonio showed a sneer on his face.

Many people in Davies family thought that Filip would definitely be able to subdue Casey. Although they didn't know why none of the top masters who protected Sasha came back and they didn't know what method Casey used to deal with those masters, Casey couldn't be stronger than Filip who was the strongest in Davies family.

"Brat, go to the hell!"

Filip hit Casey in the chest.

Casey narrowed his eyes, then moved quickly. He was so easily evading Filip's move.

"How much benefit did Margaret give you that you can't wait to attack me? Are you sure what she said is right?"

"Hmph, the fact is here. Whether she is right or not, you deserve to die!"

Filip rushed towards Casey again with vicious tricks. It seemed that he desperately wanted to kill Casey. At this time, Casey had determined that Filip must have been bribed by Margaret.

Since Filip wanted to kill him so much, there was no need for him to show mercy to Filip.

After resisting Filip's punch, Casey kicked directly towards Filip. Then Filip quickly retreated towards the back. At this time, Casey kicked again. Filip didn't have the opportunity to hide. There was a hint of horror on his face. Obviously, he didn't expect Casey to be so fast.

"How is this possible! Why is he so fast?"

When Filip was thinking, Casey's feet had already kicked Filip's body. Filip flew out and fell heavily to the ground, spitting out blood. His face turned pale in an instant.

Just now, Casey's one move had hurt Filip's internal organs, causing him to completely lose energy.

Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect that Casey directly defeated Filip. No wonder Casey dared to appear here alone.

"Everyone, take actions together.

Although he is strong, if you guys take actions together, he can't cope with it. Only by working together can you subdue him!" Filip shouted anxiously, and then he vomited blood again.

"Mr. Filip is right. Let's go together. He is alone and he certainly can't resist us! The top priority is to subdue him first, otherwise he will definitely cause a huge disaster to Davies family!" Antonio shouted.

Everyone intended to rush towards Casey to subdue him together.

At this moment, a group of people in black uniforms suddenly rushed into the yard, standing in front of Casey, and then there was a laughter coming from.

"I didn't expect that Davies family has so many idiots. You guys just take a move without getting things clear. It's no wonder that Davies family's development has been so slow in the past few years. It seems it's because of you idiots.

Natan walked into the courtyard and stood beside Casey.

Seeing Natan, Margaret frowned. It was obvious that Natan came here to help Casey. No wonder that Casey dared to come here alone. It turned out that he was backed by Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce.

"Natan, this is Davies family's affair.

Anyway, it is not your turn to intervene. I advise you'd better not be nosy. We are not afraid of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce!" Margaret shouted.

Natan snorted coldly, and said, "Nosy? When you and Sasha planned to harm my daughter, why didn't you think of I would come to nosy? After all, Casey saved my daughter. I'm here to do his justice. Is there anything wrong with it?"

Natan's words made everyone in Davies family look surprised. They didn't expect that the chairman of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce would say that Sasha and Margaret planned to murder his daughter. They had never heard of such a thing.

Margaret's face looked terrible. She was a little worried. Natan came here. If he told others the matter about Lily, everyone would know Tyler's existence, which was not good for her.

"Don't listen to him being alarmist here. My sister and I have never murdered his daughter. He came to help Casey today. He definitely wanted to take this opportunity to deal with Davies family. Maybe my sister was killed by Casey and him. What he said was just to make up a reason for himself!"

"There are not many people from Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. We have many people and many masters. We still have the hope of killing Casey. This is our family's business. If we are stopped by the people from Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, others will laugh at us!"

Margaret shouted. She was now anxious to kill Casey. As long as she could kill Casey, even if she was an enemy of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, she was not afraid.

"Your sophistry skills are really so perfect. It's no wonder that Davies family can be controlled by you and your sisters." Natan snorted coldly.

"Let go to kill Casey together. Even people from Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce are not qualified to stop us!"

Antonio shouted, and then took the lead and rushed towards Casey, looking high-spirited.

Casey and Natan didn't move. They just quietly watched Antonio rushing over. At this moment, a figure fell from the sky and landed directly in front of Antonio, then kicked Antonio out.

Those who followed Antonio had originally planned to take a move, but this person who appeared suddenly made them dumfounded. After seeing Antonio's tragic situation, no one dared to continue.

"It seems that I am not late. With so many people here, Yunxi Martial Club can join the fun."

After Logan glanced at the people in the yard with a smile, he also walked to Casey's side.

When Margaret and others saw that the person was Logan, they were so chocked. Just now, they were surprised that Casey could let Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce help him. Now, they were frightened when they knew that Casey found Yunxi Martial Club to help him. After all, the horrors of Yunxi Martial Club were known to all the people in B City. Yunxi Martial Club had not participated in power struggles for many years. But Casey could invite them over. Even if only Logan came here alone, those people in Davies family were all aware of the seriousness of the matter. At least Logan was here. Everyone knew that it was impossible to kill Casey by force.

"Logan, isn't your Yunxi Martial Club always not participating in power struggles? What do you mean by coming here? Is it because you think Davies family is a pushover?" Margaret questioned Logan.

Logan smiled and said, "I really don't like to participate in power struggles, but there are always times when I can't stand it. You reverse the right and wrong. You are sinister and vicious. What you did is so mean. I really can't stand it. So I want to do his justice. Do I have to get your opinions?"

Chapter 354 Someone Is Not Convinced!

Margaret was embarrassed by Logan's words. Others might think that Logan was slandering Margaret, but Margaret knew that these words were indeed the most appropriate words to describe her. She started to feel anxious. Today, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce and Yunxi Martial Club all came forward to help Casey. It was almost impossible for her to incite Davies family to kill Casey. Everyone was talking about it. They all knew how powerful Yunxi Martial Club was. Compared to what Logan said, they paid more attention to why Yunxi Martial Club was willing to help Casey, such an abandoned son by Davies family.

Seeing that Logan had arrived, Casey took a step forward again, glanced at everyone in Davies family, and said loudly, "Since everyone is here now, I will state my purpose today. I am here today to take back Davies family!"

"Why did I call them over? I want you guys to listen to me calmly, instead of fighting without knowing the truth."

After hearing Casey's words, everyone in Davies family showed disdain.

"You're not qualified to take back Davies family. You are just an abandoned son of Davies family! Don't dream here!"

Antonio shouted, touching his chest.

"Oh? I am not qualified? So is this woman qualified?" Casey pointed at Margaret, "Excuse me, are you surnamed Davies or Jenkins?" Casey's question directly made everyone silent. In the past few years, it was Sasha and Margaret who controlled Davies family. Because Sasha was Terence's wife. After Casey was kicked out of Davies family, it was normal that Sasha took over Davies family. But they all overlooked one point. Davies family didn't belong to Jenkins family. Even if Sasha was in power, Davies family still belonged to Davies family. Until now Casey put it forward, these people realized it. Hearing Casey's words, Margaret quickly retorted, "Even if your surname is Davies, can you kill your mother to seize power? I am only the head of the family temporarily. When we kill you, naturally we will discuss the candidate for Davies family's head in a fair way." "I have already said that Sasha was not killed by me." Casey said. "Don't quibble here. Who killed her if you didn't kill her?" Margaret stared at Casey. She was sure that Sasha could only be killed by Casey, otherwise Casey wouldn't stand here. "Tyler." Casey said lightly. "Impossible! You are lying!" Margaret refuted Casey without even thinking about it. She felt that Casey was kidding her. Everyone in Davies family was wondering who Tyler was. Casey did not argue with her, but turned to look at Natan. Natan nodded, then clapped his hands. A group of people came over with things like projectors and screens outside the door.

Those people quickly set up a venue where everyone could watch the projection outdoors, and then, under Casey's instructions, they played a video.

"Bluffing." Margaret also stared at the projection suspiciously, not knowing what Casey wanted to do.

"The next thing I want to show you is a video. I believe you will know who killed Sasha after watching this video." Casey finished speaking and turned to a person next to the projector. The person nodded and immediately started playing the video.

This video was the scene of Tyler strangling Sasha to death in the villa of Hazelfield Estate.

At that time, Casey had anticipated that he needed to explain Sasha's death clearly, so he asked Conor to arrange for someone to record the event at that time.

After Margaret saw the footage in the video, she was shivering. Although Tyler in the video was thin and sloppy, she still recognized the person was Tyler. Sasha felt creepy when she saw Tyler strangle Sasha to death. She didn't expect that Tyler killed Sasha even if Sasha was so good to Tyler. When Tyler was strangling Sasha, he was cursing Sasha.

In this scene, even a cold-blooded person like Margaret couldn't help taking a breath.

"Although the person in the video is a lot thinner and sloppy, we can tell that that person is you. Casey, do you think we can't see it?" Antonio said.

Casey smiled and said, "That person just looks like me. Because he and I are both Sasha's sons, but that's all."

After speaking, Casey asked the people next to the projector to show some photos of Tyler, which he asked Natan to help find out. In addition to Tyler, there were many bodyguards from Davies family in the photos.

"You all know that I am the abandoned son of Davies family, so naturally I will not have any intersection with Davies family. There are many bodyguards from Davies family in these photos. I believe that many of you here know them. You think these people will treat me so respectfully?" Casey asked.

Everyone was silent again. Tyler and Casey did look alike, but there was still a big difference in temperament. These photos clearly showed the temperament of Tyler. He and Casey were basically two types.

"This person is Tyler. As for why he is in the world, you can ask Margaret. Of course, in order to save herself in front of you guys, she will say that it's made up by me. But don't worry. I have prepared something else. After you listen to it, you will know whether what I said is true or false."

Later, Casey asked the people next to the projector to play an audio. This audio was recorded by Casey when he returned to B City. At that time, he was drugged by Sasha, then Sasha told her own story in her room.

Even though Casey was drugged at that time, in order to preserve evidence, he took a recorder and recorded Sasha's words.

When Margaret heard this recording, she really couldn't stand it. Because she knew that when everyone knew the truth, she would be screwed up.

"Casey, don't use these fabricated things to fool people. Don't believe in him. Kill him quickly. He is a devil. He killed his mother!"

Margaret ran towards the projector, trying to throw the projector down. But she was stopped by Jordan before she ran a few steps out.

"Let's listen to it first. During the years when you and your sisters have controlled Davies family, there are indeed too many things hidden from us."

Jordan said coldly. Obviously, he had realized what was going on.

Margaret was anxious and didn't know what to do. Now that there were so many people in the yard, she couldn't even run away.

She glanced at Casey resentfully. She couldn't wait to kill Casey. She did not expect that the prestige she and Sasha had been operating for so many years would be defeated by Casey so easily. Soon after the audio was played, everyone in the entire yard fell silent. They turned to look at Margaret and showed disgust and hatred towards her. In the recording, Sasha told Casey why she and Margaret drove him out of Davies family. Now everyone knew that Casey was wronged. The real culprit was Sasha and Margaret.

"Margaret, I didn't expect you and your sisters to be so cruel. It turns out that you two planned all the things back then. Casey is just a victim!"

"I didn't expect that Sasha would already have a child before she married into Davies family. If we knew this a long time ago, we would never agree to her to marry into Davies family back then!"

"You and your sister have controlled Davies family for so many years. If it wasn't that Casey told us today, we will still work for you. You are really damned!"

...

Everyone began to denounce Margaret. The situation in the yard suddenly changed.

Margaret stepped back. The expression on her face became extremely dim. Her eyes were full of resentment.

She looked at Casey and said hysterically, "Casey, my sister and I worked so hard to have such achievements now, but it was ruined by you. You must die miserably!"

Casey glared at her and said coldly, "You are the one who will die miserably! Now everyone knows the truth of the matter. Today, I will let you pay the price!"

Then Casey walked towards Margaret, with an unparalleled aura.

No one from Davies family stopped Casey. They were so angry now, thinking that Margaret deserved to die. Margaret watched Casey walk towards her. But she did not panic at all. Instead, she showed a sullen smile. She already knew that she would not be able to leave today. There were people from Yunxi Martial Club and Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. She couldn't escape.

"Casey, I really didn't expect that you could make comeback successfully. It seems that I really underestimated you."

Margaret said unwillingly.

"The only thing I regret now is that I didn't kill you directly. Otherwise, how could such a thing happen now? It seems that I'm still too kind to you."

Casey snorted coldly and said, "Kind?"

The expression on Margaret's face suddenly changed. Her eyes showed the disdain looks.

"You must hate me so much. Over the years, many people who got close to you died in my hands. You are responsible for their deaths! I know you want to kill me, but unfortunately I won't give you this opportunity. Even if I fail, I will definitely not die in such a wimp's hands!"

"Even if you succeed, you will always be just a wimp in the eyes of my sister and me!"

After speaking, Margaret laughed loudly. Then, she took out a small medicine bottle and swallowed the stuff in one mouthful.

When Casey saw this, he had a bad feeling. He rushed towards Margaret, but Margaret had already died.

It seemed that what she ate should be poison that could kill people immediately.

Casey carefully observed Margaret's body, and then stood up after confirming that she was dead.

Even Casey himself did not expect that Margaret would choose such a way to die in the end.

But he didn't entangle it. As long as Margaret died, his hatred could calm down.

When everyone saw Margaret taking the poison, they were filled with emotion.

The expressions on the faces of those who despised Casey before, and even wanted to kill Casey at this time were all complicated.

Then Casey turned around and looked at everyone behind him. He took out Family Token from his clothes, raised his hand, and shouted.

"Margaret is dead. Today, I, Casey, took over the position of the head of Davies family. Is there anyone who have objections?"

Chapter 355 The Position of Master of the Davies Family

"Does anyone disagree?" This sentence echoed in everyone's ears. Everyone looked at Casey. Some of them had complicated feelings, some were resistant, some felt it was hard to accept, and some saw hope in Casey. Although over the past few years, their impression of Casey has been on top of his being a waste, abandoning his son, and believes that Casey is not qualified to inherit the forest family industry at all. Although in the past few years, their impressions of Casey only remained that he was a wimp and was abandoned son, thinking that Casey was not qualified to inherit the Davies family's industry.

Today, they all understood that the image that Casey was a wimp was created by Margaret and Sasha. Casey had never done anything wrong to the Davies family, and the strength shown by Casey proved that he was not a wimp.

Casey was Terence's only son. Without Sasha's obstruction, after Terence left, it would be Casey who inherited the Davies family.

It was just that Casey's image in everyone's mind changed too quickly, making them a little uncomfortable.

Priya stared at Casey obsessively with both eyes. At this moment, she no longer had the prejudice against Casey, and she even regretted it. So not long after hearing Casey's words, Priya stood up.

"I would like to recognize Casey as the new master of the Davies family!"

Not long after Priya came out, Jordan also stood up and said loudly, "Casey deserves to be the master of the Davies family. I am willing to serve Casey all my life!"

After Jordan and Priya stood up, a lot of people from the Davies family members immediately followed to express their attitude.

Casey came back today with the people from the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce and Yunxi Martial Club.

These two forces were the strongest in B City. The ability of Casey to have a good relationship with them already showed Casey's strength.

And if Casey became the master of the Davies family, coupled with the cooperation of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce and Yunxi Martial Club, the Davies family would definitely develop better than it was now.

After weighing this point clearly, most people naturally knew how to choose at this time.

However, there were still many people who were skeptical about Casey. They still couldn't get rid of the cognition that Casey was a wimp. They felt that if the Davies family was taken over by Casey, the Davies family would decline.

Antonio was one of the people who most disapproved of Casey becoming the master of the Davies family. He was kicked by Logan at that time, and he had not been relieved until now.

Seeing everyone agreeing that Casey was the master of the Davies family, Antonio snorted and stood up and said, "I don't agree to let him be the master of the Davies family. Even if he is good at fight, he is still just a wimp. How can we let a wimp take of the Davies family? He will ruin the Davies family!"

Everyone turned their heads to look at Antonio, and shook their heads a little helplessly. They felt that when Antonio came out to say such things at this time, he was simply making himself in trouble.

Casey glanced at Antonio and said, "Those who are dissatisfied can leave the Davies family now. With the Family Token, I am the master of the Davies Family. This is the rule set by my father. Anyone who disagrees can leave."

Antonio was full of anger. He shook his arm and said, "Go. I don't care the Davies family with you as its master.

Anyone who wants to leave the Davies family with me? With our so many years of accumulation, I don't believe that I can't make any achievement without Casey!", "Who doesn't want to be under Casey, the wimp, just go with me. I promise to be able to have a much better development than Casey!"

Immediately, many people came to Antonio's side. These people felt that the Davies family had no hope in the charge of Casey, and they were not loyal to the Davies family. They had been encroaching on the Davies family over the years, and they had accumulated enough capital for a long time. Even if they left the Davies family, they could have a good life as a duck takes to the water.

When Antonio saw so many people supporting him, a triumphant smile appeared on his face. He felt that with his ingenuity, and the resources in these people's hands, it would not be difficult to create another Davies family.

Casey stared at these people and said, "Is there anyone else who wants to join them?"

A few minutes later, a few people who had been vacillating also walked out and stood on Antonio's side.

Antonio sneered at Casey and said, "Casey, although we are only a small part of the Davies family, with the resources in our hands, it is easy to surpass the Davies family you lead. And you, who choose to support Casey, wait to regret it in the future!"

Casey did not pay attention to Antonio, but glanced at everyone, and said, "Today they announced that they are leaving the Davies family. You are all witnesses. Since they are no longer members of the Davies family, they are not eligible to use any resources related to the Davies family. I will freeze all their assets under the name of the Davies family, and announce their departure from the Davies family to the outside." After speaking, he turned his head to look at Antonio, and said with a smile, "I hope you can build a force that surpasses the Davies family without relying on the resources of the Davies family. Good luck to you."

Antonio snorted and said, "The resources we have accumulated before are all our own. What qualifications do you have to prevent us from using them? Casey, I am afraid you are not so capable of freezing all of our accounts." Casey took out his phone directly, logged in to the Davies family's general account, and froze the accounts of all these people who had left the Davies family, including Antonio.

Only the senior management of the Davies family knew about the general account, so this time none of the senior management of the Davies family was divorced from the Davies family except Filip.

Antonio and others didn't even know that the master of the Davies family could operate all the property belonging to the Davies family through general account. They thought naively that they could be able to take away all the money and resources they got from the Davies Family after leaving.

After less than five minutes, Antonio and others all received a text message. After seeing the content on the text message, expression on everyone's face changed instantly.

"Why was my account frozen?"

"What's going on? Why are all the shops under my name transferred to the Davies family?"

"Why have all my stocks become the public property of the Davies family?"

Everyone was shocked. No one thought that Casey's words just now were not joking.

Antonio also stared at his phone with a gloomy look, and it took him a while to react.

Then he looked at Casey, with a hint of anger on his face, and said, "Casey, what have you done to our property! Return our property!"

Casey stared at him contemptuously, and said, "You know whether the property belongs to the Davies family or you. Since you have left the Davies family, you can't even think about taking a penny from the Davies family."

"What qualifications do you have to move our property? We have to apply for court arbitration!" Antonio became anxious.

"I am the master of the Davies family. Do you think I have this qualification?"

Casey looked at Antonio coldly.

Some senior officials of the Davies family were originally skeptical about whether Casey had the password for the general account, but now that they all knew that Casey had the password for the general account. In this case, the entire Davies family's economic lifeline was in his control. No matter who left the Davies family, it was impossible to take away a single cent.

Many people were beginning to rejoice that they didn't follow Antonio to leave the Davies family on impulse. Those who didn't know what was going on were also scared.

"Since you have left the Davies family, don't continue to waste time here. The master has the right to take back any property belonging to the Davies family. All your frozen and recovered property belongs to the Davies family. There can't be any mistake in this matter. Now that you have made a choice, you must be responsible for your choice," Jordan said and stared at Antonio and the others.

Antonio's group was dumbfounded right away, they knew that the master of the Davies family had this right.

"Antonio, you bastard, we are now penniless because of you, I will kill you!" Those people immediately surrounded Antonio, venting their anger on him.

"Kick them out, here is the Davies family's site, let them go outside," Jordan ordered several men from the Davies family.

The few people immediately drove out Antonio and others, and the people who stayed were grateful.

After that, Casey asked someone to dispose of Margaret's body. After almost everything was settled down, he thanked Logan and Natan, and then let them go back first.

After Logan and Natan left, Casey called a group of senior officials of the Davies family into the Davies family's meeting room. Now that Casey had become the new master of the Davies family, he naturally had to do some handover work with them.

The follow-up was probably enough for Casey to be busy for several days.

Priya's attitude towards Casey had changed considerably after Casey became the master of the Davies family. On the way to the meeting room, Priya leaned towards Casey a little shyly.

"Casey, congratulations on becoming the master of the Davies family, and I believe that the Davies family will surely become brilliant under your leadership," Priya said.

Casey just nodded at her politely.

Priya was full of disappointment.

Afterwards, she put her arm around Casey's arm and said, "I admired you very much when I was a child. At that time, I thought that when I grew up, I must marry you. I'm sure you won't dislike me."

Casey frowned and threw Priya's hand away, and said coldly, "I'm married. Please watch how you conduct yourself."

Priya was stunned after hearing Casey's words, not because Casey said that he was married, but because Casey treated her like a stranger.

It seemed that what was missed back then was irreparable after all.

City.

A person was putting a corpse into the morgue refrigerator.

This corpse was the corpse of Margaret that was transported from the Davies family.

For those entities that died abnormally, each force had its own solution. The Davies family's property included many hospitals. So, when the Davies family killed people, the most convenient way to deal with the body was to put the body into the hospital mortuary.

In this way, not only would these corpses not be found, but they could be cremated cremate these corpses without being aware.

The person in charge of putting the corpse just opened the bag containing the corpse, and suddenly felt that there seemed to be some body temperature on the corpse in his hand.

A person walked to Margaret's body. If Casey was here, he would find that this person was Margaret's bodyguard, Eric. Eric stared at Margaret's body, then took out a small bottle, opened Margaret's mouth, and fed her the medicine in the bottle.

"The poison she took will reduce her breathing and heartbeat to an imperceptible level. If she takes the antidote within three hours, she will still have a chance to wake up, otherwise she will really lose her life. I hope it's not too late."

Eric stared at Margaret's face with a trace of distress.

Chapter 357 The Cooler

"Who told you that I was in love?" Lily stared at Archer, with a hint of coldness in her eyes.

Archer didn't expect that Lily would suddenly become like this. He was also taken aback for a while, turned his head to look at Wyatt at random, and said, "Wyatt told me."

Lily looked at Wyatt and said coldly, "If you dare to talk nonsense again, I will have your mouth sew on."

Wyatt shuddered, wondering why Lily suddenly became so angry, and explained quickly, "Lily, didn't you come to my restaurant for dinner with a man last time? You still said he was your man, so I thought..."

"He's not my man, he's a bastard, bastard, heart-breaker!" When it came to Casey, anger arose in Lily, and all the words she learned from TV dramas came out.

When others heard Lily, they exchanged glances, and Archer asked, "Lily, were you deceived by that person?"

"You were deceived! I am so smart, how could I be deceived? It is obviously that he is blind and can't see my advantages. It really irritates me," Lily said angrily.

They thought that Lily was deceived by Casey. After all, only those who were deceived would say such things. They didn't know that Lily scolded Casey just to vent her unhappiness.

"Lily, in fact, we asked you to call that kid over to see how he is. Since this guy dared to lie to you, then we can't let him go. Why don't you call him over now? You just ask him to have dinner, and we will beat him up for you, okay?" Archer said at this opportunity.

Lily originally wanted to reject Archer. After all, they didn't know what she was angry at, but she thought of that Casey refused her when she came to his bed. When she thought of this, she was angry. She felt that if Archer and others were able to teach Casey a hard lesson, she would be able to vent her anger. So she asked Archer, "Are you sure you can beat that guy up?"

"Of course, I have already figured out a way. It will definitely make him suffer. You only need to call him over," Archer said confidently.

Lily nodded, took out her phone, dialed Casey's number, thinking that if Casey didn't answer her call, she would rush to the Davies house to get even with Casey.

Fortunately, after two rings, it was connected over there.

"Come to me right now. If you can't get there within half an hour, I'll...I'll..." Lily thought for a long time and didn't figure out what to say to threaten Casey, "You have to come anyway!"

After speaking, she hung up the phone. But after a few seconds, she realized that she seemed to have forgotten something.

Wyatt stared at Lily and asked carefully, "Does he know where we are?"

Lily was immediately embarrassed, and then she remembered that she hadn't told Casey where she was at all.

"Do you think I'm stupid? I just don't want to talk to him too much, I will tell him where we are by text message," Lily said angrily.

Wyatt nodded quickly, not daring to say anything.

The Davies House.

Casey was sitting in a living room.

Opposite him sat Jordan and a respectful man. This man was about fifty years old and his hair was a little gray.

This person was the chairman of Baiyun Real Estate, Leighton Robinson, who came here today to discuss cooperation with the Davies family. He happened to learn about the transfer of the master of the Davies family, so he wanted to get to know Casey.

Casey was holding his phone at this time with a dazed expression. Lily called him just now and yelled to ask him to come to her, but she didn't say where she was.

Fortunately, within a few minutes, Lily sent him a message. There was an address with an angry expression behind it.

Casey looked at the expression, thought Lily was a little cute.

He thought of that he had just dealt with the Davies family's affairs in the past two days, leaving Lily's affairs completely forgotten. However, Lily left his room in tears that night.

It just so happened that the Davies family's affairs were almost handled, and Casey also needed to relax and appease Lily by the way, so he said to Jordan and Leighton, "I have something to do, so let's talk another day."

Leighton didn't dare to have any objections, and said quickly, "I am really sorry to disturb you, Mr. Casey. I was lucky today and learned that you took office. My son is about your age. If there is an opportunity, I will introduce him to you. Even if you ask him to be your fellow, it is an honor for Baiyun Real Estate."

Casey nodded to him and said, "If you have anything to do in the future, you just need to explain to Jordan. As for my appointment as the master of the Davies family, don't tell others."

Leighton nodded quickly, not daring to neglect.

Then Casey asked Jordan to arrange a car for him and went out

It didn't take long for Casey to get out of the car when he arrived at the restaurant Lily said. He asked the driver to drive the car back.

He walked into the restaurant and found the private room where Lily was located. After pushing the door to enter, he immediately felt the atmosphere in the private room was a little weird.

Apart from Lily in the private room, there was also Wyatt who he met at Triumph Hotel that day. As for the rest, Casey didn't know them.

At this time, including Lily, everyone was staring at Casey with a hostile look, which made Casey very strange.

But he didn't care, he walked directly towards Lily and said, "Lily, I'm really sorry. I've been busy with family affairs for the past two days. So I haven't had time to find you. Are you mad at me?"

Lily curled her lips and said, "Who is angry with you, don't take yourself too importantly, I don't care you."

Casey smiled and didn't say anything. Obviously, Lily was talking in anger.

"Lily, didn't I tell you that I prepared exciting activities for you tonight? Since you are full, let's go now." Wyatt smiled and said to Lily.

"Okay." Lily nodded immediately, and then stood up directly from the chair. She turned to look at Casey and said, "I asked you to come here to let you know that I have many pursuers. The people here are not worse than you. If you follow us today, you will know that they are much more interesting than you."

"That's great. I hope there will be one of them you like." Casey said with a smile. He said this from the bottom of his heart. No one hoped that Lily could find someone she liked more than him. Hearing what Casey said, Lily clenched her fists immediately, and her tears almost came out again, but she held back.

Did Casey feel nothing about her? Couldn't he see that she was deliberate? It was so sad to hear his words.

Archer and Wyatt all looked at each other with a sneer in their eyes. Soon they would let Casey know what it would be like to make Lily angry.

A group of people left the restaurant and walked towards a nearby bar.

On the way, Casey followed Lily and apologized to Lily for what happened that night, but Lily didn't want to pay attention to him at all, so she kept her head down and said nothing.

Looking at Lily's expression, Archer hated Casey even more. This guy dared to make Lily suffer such a grievance. It was unforgivable. He would make Casey feel regret later.

At the entrance of the bar, Archer did not lead everyone into the bar. Instead, he entered a small door next to the bar. The door led to the underground. A muscular man with tattoos guarded the door. Archer gave that man some money, the man immediately let them in with a smile.

When they came to the underground, they soon heard cheers and shouts not far away. Archer led the people towards the inside. Soon, they saw a ring not far away. All around the ring were full of people, all cheering for the players on the ring.

Lily's eyes brightened up when she saw the ring. She was still very interested in this kind of thrilling confrontational competition.

"This is an underground boxing arena invested by my family. In the past few days, we have found several powerful fighters. Today they happen to have a match. I think you will definitely like it, Lily," Archer said with a smile.

Lily walked quickly towards the ring. She was depressed now and needed to vent on this occasion. Therefore, she soon cheered along with the people around the ring.

Casey also stared at the two fighters on the ring, and found that the fighters in the Underground World of B City were much better than those in J City, and the strength of the two fighters on the stage was about to catch up with Morgan.

Soon after a game ended, Lily's mood improved a lot.

At this time, Archer and Wyatt looked at each other, and then they said something in Lily's ear. Lily turned to look at Casey, and then followed them to the depths of the underground boxing ring.

When Casey saw this, he followed.

When they walked to a place where no one was there, Lily asked Casey to wait here for a while, and she wanted to discuss something with Archer and others.

Casey didn't think much, just stood there and waited.

Not long after that, the boxer who had won on the ring before brought a group of people to Casey. These people were the top boxers found by Archer's family. They came and cleaned Casey on Archer's order.

At this time, Archer and a group of people were standing not far away and looking towards here, with smirking smiles on their faces.

Lily looked at the situation there with some worry. Although she wanted to teach Casey to vent her anger, in the final analysis she still felt distressed for Casey.

"Is it wrong to let so many people beat him? What if something goes wrong?" Lily said.

"Lily, didn't this guy lie to you? Why do you still care about him. And I also told them, and asked them teach this guy a lesson. Nothing terrible will happen," Archer said with a smile.

"Yeah, Lily, don't think about this kind of person at this time. Since he lied to you, he should be punished." Wyatt also agreed.

Lily thought they were right. Did she call Casey here just to make him suffer so that she could vent her anger? She shouldn't have any pity for this bastard. At this time, a man ran up to Archer and said, "Master, the chairman is here and he said he wants to see you, and he has important things to tell you."

After speaking, the man stretched his finger and pointed not far away, and Leighton was walking towards this side with a smile.

Leighton came to Archer, naturally, to tell Archer something about the new master of the Davies family. If Archer could become friends with the new master of the Davies family, it would definitely be a great thing for the Robinson family.

"I knew you are here." Leighton said with a smile, and after seeing Lily, he politely greeted her.

Archer also smiled and said, "Dad, it's really time for you to come. Come here. I'm asking the boxers to beat up a hapless guy. Let's have a talk after that kid is beaten up."

Chapter 358 She Really Fell in Love with Him

Hearing what Archer said, Leighton felt a little puzzled and asked, "Who is the guy that you should ask the boxers of boxing ring to hit?"

"Come and have a look, and you'll know. That guy is but a loser. He has designs on Lily and cheats her. I'm going to teach him a lesson for Lily."

Archer said, after which he looked at Casey.

Seeing that, Leighton also cast his eyes at Casey. The moment he saw Casey, he froze.

Wasn't he the new head of the Davies family?

At this moment, the boxers, who surrounded Casey, had rushed towards Casey. Casey planned to beat them up. Just now, he asked these people why they wanted to hit him, but they weren't going to explain it to Casey.

In this case, Casey could only defeat all of them first, after which he could ask them to give him a clear explanation. Watching those boxers rushing towards Casey, Leighton was almost scared to death.

Archer smiled at Leighton and said, "Dad, I really can't understand him daring to cheat Lily. Today, after being hit by boxers of our family, he should know the consequence of annoying Lily."

It took Leighton quite a while to realize what had happened. After hearing what Archer said, he immediately became extremely angry. In his opinion, it was the people of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce that should deal with the issues involving Lily. Besides, Archer was inviting trouble for the Robinson family by taking the initiative to do it! He was the new head of the Davies family! Archer was not powerful enough to punish him no matter what Casey wanted to do.

Before, Leighton wanted to introduce Archer to Casey and let them be friends. Now, Archer asked the boxers of the Robinson family to beat Casey. If Casey was really badly injured, it was highly possible that the Robinson family would be destroyed.

"You stupid guy! Why are you so meddling? Do you know who he is? How dare you ask boxers to hit him? Don't you want to live?"

Leighton directly kicked Archer on his body with no mercy.

After that, Leighton fell to the ground. He looked at Leighton with a puzzled expression, not knowing why he suddenly became so angry.

"Dad, he is but a loser. Why did you hit me?" Archer asked.

"In my opinion, you are a fucking loser! Now, ask those boxers to stop! If he is injured, I'll break your legs!" Leighton said angrily.

Unfortunately, it was too late. Those boxers had already begun to fight with Casey.

Casey moved quickly and fought with them with great skills. Not as good at fighting as Casey, those boxers were knocked down by Casey in a short time. Seeing that Casey was so good at fighting, Wyatt and his companions' expression changed greatly. It was impossible for Casey to be so good at fighting if he was really just a loser. After taking Leighton's reaction into consideration, they immediately realized that Casey was definitely not an ordinary person.

"Well, I suddenly remember that I've got something to do. I'm leaving now." Wyatt ran out quickly after saying these words. After figuring out the situation, the rest of them also said that they had got something to do and left in a hurry.

Archer was astonished. He had never expected such a consequence.

Leighton had no time to have a few more words with Archer. He ran towards Casey in a hurry.

When Casey was about to ask those boxers who sent them to hit him, Leighton came close to him and said apologetically, "Lord Davies, I'm sorry for what happened just now. It's all my fault. I failed to discipline my son well. He was so impetuous that he asked these boxers to fight with you."

"Your son?" Casey was surprised when he saw Leighton. Now, he noticed Archer and Lily who were far away from him. After a little thought, he realized what had happened.

He walked towards Archer and asked in a cold voice, "Did you ask these person to fight with me?"

Leighton followed him and said angrily, "Tell him the truth. He is the new head of the Davies family. I'm in a hurry to please him while you should make trouble for him. You're trying to destroy the Robinson family!"

When Archer heard that Casey was the new head of the Davies family, he was thunderstruck and felt as if there was a ringing in his ears.

"Dad...Dad, could it be that you're mistaken? How...How could he be the new head of the Davies family?"

Leighton gave him a kick and said, "I have just seen him the Davies House today. Do you think it possible that I'm mistaken?"

After Archer swallowed his saliva and cast his eyes at Casey, he instantly realized the seriousness of what had just happened. Then, he crawled towards Casey and knelt down before him.

"I'm too ignorant to recognize you. It's my fault. Please forgive me once. I won't do it in the future again." As Archer said, he slapped himself in the face several times. Inwardly, he blamed himself for being so stupid and believing that Casey was a loser after hearing what Wyatt said.

If Casey was really a loser, how was it possible for him to have contact with someone like Lily?

Leighton also explained, "Lord Davies, Archer really didn't know who you are. He is so meddlesome and stupid that he interferes with you the issue involving only you and Miss Lowe. Later, I'll definitely teach him a lesson. In the past years, we always obey the orders from the Davies family. For this, please forgive Archer."

Before Casey spoke, Lily sighed, stepped forward and said, "It was I who asked him to ask someone to beat you. It has nothing to do with them. It's just that I am bitter and want to find a way to vent. Spare them."

In fact, Casey had figured out that it had something to do with Lily. After all, it was Lily that asked him to come here. It was impossible that Archer and other people would plan to deal with him without the permission of Lily.

He also sighed helplessly. He could tell that there was a hint of embarrassment in Lily's eyes. Perhaps even Lily didn't know what she was doing now and that she just wanted to vent all her emotions.

"Leave here with your son. Don't make such a mistake anymore." Casey said.

Casey turned around and looked at Lily.

Feeling somewhat sad, Lily lowered her head and thought about something.

"If you think that I did something wrong tonight, beat me. Anyway, I'm not as good at fighting as you." Lily said.

Casey smiled and said, "How dare I beat you? If I do so, your dad would try his best to fight with me."

Lily sighed and said, "The reason why you don't hit me is that you're afraid that my dad will try his best to fight with me, not you love me. Casey, I hate you."

The smile on Casey's face suddenly disappeared. Looking at Lily, Casey had various feelings. He seemed to feel that Lily was becoming less and less pure and lively quickly. It seemed that she became unhappy.

It was good for a person to remain pure. However, the price of it was that the influence of certain harm on her would be many times greater than that on the average person.

Casey didn't mean to hurt Lily, but he clearly knew that he had to shoulder some responsibility for the change of Lily.

"I'll send you back." After hesitating for a long time, not knowing how to comfort Lily, Casey could only say these words.

Lily didn't refuse. Instead, she directly turned around and went out.

On the way, Casey walked behind Lily. Both of them walked quietly without speaking.

After a long time, Lily finally spoke, "Casey, do you know that I was happiest in my life when I was in Eglor County?"

"It was the first time for me to share a bed with someone else; it was the first time for me to go shopping with someone else; it was the first time for me to sit in other people's racing car; it was the first time for me to have the idea of spending my whole life with a man; it was the first time..."

Lily expressed her feelings for Casey somewhat excitedly.

Casey listened silently and thought about Lily's feelings for him. Until then, Casey finally understood one thing: both Lily's watching too much many TV dramas and her being too young and too naive weren't the reason why Lily always wanted to stay with him.

The true reason was that she really fell in love with him.

Casey couldn't find out others' feelings for him as quickly as others. It was already a miracle that he could understand Lily's feelings for him now.

"However, this man doesn't want to marry me. He already has a wife.

Therefore, in his opinion, I'm being unreasonable and thoughtless when I did all those things." Lily went on.

"Sometimes I blame myself for not meeting you earlier. In that case, I might be able to marry you, so that I won't be troubled by all these. However, I know that it's but my wishful thinking."

"Although I'm only nineteen years old, I'm as mature as you are. I know that you can't love me. You only love Edith."

As she spoke, she began to cry. Casey didn't know what to do. He really didn't know how to deal with such a situation.

"Lily, I'm sorry." Casey said.

Hearing what he said, Lily turned around and punched Casey, saying, "I don't want you to say sorry to me. Don't say sorry to me."

Casey didn't stop her. He just let Lily punch him in the chest in hopes that she would feel better.

After quite a while, Lily lost her strength and then embraced Casey.

Casey's heart did a flip. He instinctively wanted to get rid of her. However, finding that Lily was holding him tightly and knowing that he would harm Lily if he got rid of her now, Casey didn't do anything.

"Casey, can you give me a hug? I know that you won't marry me, but I want you to hug me once. Can you give me a hug? As long as you do it, I won't badger you anymore." Lily spoke.

Casey took a deep breath and held Lily into his arms without saying anything. Lily rest her head on Casey's shoulder with a satisfied expression on her face. After a long time, Lily left Casey's arms and went on to walk without saying a word.

Before long, they arrived at the Lowe Villa. Casey stopped and said, "Lily, I'll always treat you as my closest younger sister. Whatever danger you're in, I'll help you. I will protect you from being harmed in the future."

After standing for quite a while, Lily turned her head, made faces and said,

"Humph, no one dares to harm me. It's meaningless for you to say so. As for your treating me as your younger sister, I'll consider it. If you don't treat me well, I'll still badger you."

After saying that, Lily ran towards the villa.

Casey didn't know the reason, but he was relieved after hearing her say so. He shrugged, turned around and walked towards the Davies House.

Dealing with issues about feelings was really much more difficult than fighting!
Chapter 359 The Exorcist Help Amara Get Rid of the Evil

"JZ, Miss Priya cooks some soup for you. It's the third time that Miss Priya cooks in person. Are you not going to have some?" Jordan stood in front of Casey's desk.

Casey shook his head and said, "Tell her not to cook for me anymore. She doesn't know my taste. Ask someone to bring the soup back to her."

"As a matter of fact, Miss Priya..." Jordan still wanted to say something.

Casey looked up at him and put a finger in front of his lips, suggesting Jordan not to mention it anymore.

After dealing with Lily and Scarlett, Casey realized that being loved by someone was very troublesome. Casey didn't want Priya to fall in love with him. If that happened, he would be in more trouble. Therefore, he directly tried to prevent something like that from happening.

"I'm going to go back to J City tomorrow. Book me a flight. I'm going back after getting everything done." Casey went on.

"You're leaving so soon?" Jordan was somewhat surprised.

"I have something more important to do. Besides, I have promised to hold a terrific wedding for Edith. It's time for me to go back and prepare for it." Casey said with a smile.

"Shall the people of the Davies family do something about it? You can take her here and hold a wedding here. By the way, you can announce your being the new head of the Davies family. Then, it can certainly cause quite a sensation." Jordan said.

"There is no need to do so. These years, I have been used to living in J City and people there are more human. I'll inform you if I have any need at that time." Casey said.

Hearing him say so, Jordan didn't say anything more, turned around and went to book Casey a flight.

"For so many years, people in J City all regard me as a loser. Edith suffers too many grievances because of me. Compared with holding this wedding ceremony for Edith, the more important point is to show something to all the people in J City."

"This time, I would let them know that Edith doesn't become a joke by marrying me. All people in J City will definitely be envious of this wedding!"

In CZ Community, J City.

On a path leading to a high-rise residential area, Amara was walking carefully with her head down.

Right at this moment, a middle-aged woman who was about the same age as Amara suddenly appeared in front of Amara, looked at Amara with a horrible smile, and said in a mocking voice, "Oh, is that Amara? Why do you take a path where few people take instead of a broad road? Could it be that you're afraid to meet me?"

Amara stared at that middle-aged woman with extremely angry eyes, but she wore a stiff face.

"Leia, is there anything wrong with your mind? Does which way I take have anything to do with you? Are you so idle every day that you come to meet me every time I go out and come back?"

Amara scolded her in an impolite way. Leia was the mother of Albie and the wife of Alan. Since they knew that Amara's family had moved to CZ Community, Leia would search for Amara and Nicolas in the community every day. As long as she found them, she would show her contempt for them.

Although Amara's house was much bigger than hers, Leia didn't care.

Amara's family's moving from the central villa in Hazelfield Estate to CZ Community meant that Amara's family had become poor.

When they lived in the same community, it meant that they were in the same class now, even though Amara's house was bigger than hers.

Now, Leia's family could be said to be extremely poor. The only fun of her family was to tease Amara's family, as if they could get endless fun by making them realize that they were in the same class again.

"What are you talking about? Why did you say that I come to meet you? I also live in this community. Could it be that you can tell me where I should go? Don't think that you still live in Hazelfield Estate. In CZ Community, I can go wherever I want. No one can stop me."

Leia said brazenly.

Knowing that it was meaningless to argue with such a person, Amara continued to walk with her face darkened, ignoring Leia.

"Oh, why are you leaving? Could it be that I've touched your sore spot? The reason why you move here must be that you've become poor, right? Let me tell you something. Every dog has its day. Do you think that your family will always be rich? Impossible. As long as your family become poor, you will never be able to become rich again." Leia spoke while following Amara.

In so many years, it was the first time for Amara to lose a quarrel. Before, she had explained to Leia several times that the reason why her family moved was that they wanted to live in a different place instead of being broke.

However, Leia didn't believe her. In her opinion, no one would move from a villa to an apartment in a high-rise building when had money. She thought that Amara was just trying to fool her.

Amara couldn't tell Leia the real reason why they moved out of the villa. She also couldn't tell Leia that they just lived in CZ Community temporarily. Although Amara was vain, she still preferred safety to her face.

Failing to explain to Leia, Amara didn't want to talk to her. Therefore, she would keep away from Leia every time she came out.

Seeing that Amara tried to keep away from her, Leia was more sure that Amara lied to her. Besides, she was idle every day. Therefore, she always wandered around in the community, looking for any chance to tease Amara.

"Every dog has its day. However, your family didn't become rich. In my opinion, it's your family that can't become rich anymore." Amara murmured.

Leia's face was suddenly dark. She said coldly, "Don't curse us. We're going to make a fortune soon. JH had recently made a big deal. Soon, we'll be able to move into the villa where you used to live. I'll see what you can say about it at that time."

Amara twitched her lips and murmured in her heart, "Just move in. You'll be scared to death by ghosts at night!"

When Amara was home, she finally got rid of Leia and was much relieved.

"Damn it. Casey was so stupid that he bought an apartment in the community in which Leia's family live in. Now, being badgered by Leia, I'm always angry."

Amara murmured.

Edith had got off work. Now, she was sitting on the sofa watching TV. Hearing Amara's words, she turned her head and asked, "Mom, what's wrong with you again? Why do you look so angry after you just come back home?"

Amara walked towards Edith and sat down beside her, saying, "It's the idiot Leia that annoys me. These days, she would come to tease me every time I go out and talk as if we're in great trouble." "Don't care about the words from people like her. We should focus on our own lives. There is no need to pay attention to them. Besides, don't tell anyone what happened in the villa, otherwise we'll be really in great trouble." Edith said.

"Ok, I'm not stupid. I know what I can say and what I can't say." Amara spoke. At this moment, she put what she had brought back on the table.

Edith found that it was a stack of yellow paper and a bundle of incense after a glance.

"Mom, why did you buy these things?" Edith stared at Amara with a puzzled expression.

"It's naturally of great use. You'll know later." Amara said mysteriously.

Feeling that there was something wrong with what she said, Edith gave her several suspicious glances. Generally speaking, Amara would make trouble for her again when she said that something was of great use.

More than ten minutes later, there was a knock on the door. Amara immediately stood up and went to open the door.

Not knowing who would come to her house at this time, Edith felt puzzled. Jennifer had just gone out to buy food, so it was impossible for her to come back so soon.

After Amara opened the door, Edith looked outside the door and found that it was a middle-aged man in his 40s that stood outside the door. He wore a coat with a worn-out box in his hand, looking raunchy.

"Master, you're finally here. Come in please." Amara talked to him in a respectful way.

With a hint of pride on his face, that man directly went into the apartment.

When he saw Edith, he was attracted by her beauty and was somewhat stunned. However, he soon looked away quietly, pretending that he ignored Edith.

Edith noticed his change and found that he was pretending at a glance. She wondered who Amara had invited to their home.

"Mom, who is he? Don't let strangers come into our home in the future. There are many bad guy in the world now." Edith said.

Amara's expression changed. She hurriedly said, "Edith, don't talk nonsense. I invite him, the exorcist, to help us get rid of the evil. Don't annoy him."

After hearing what Edith said, that so-called exorcist sneered and said, "What do you mean? You treat me like this when you want me to help you get rid of the evil? Do you really think that I usually help others?"

"Master, don't be angry. My daughter isn't sensible and speak before thinking. Don't blame her." Amara hurriedly apologized.

"Well, considering that she has some gift, I'll forgive her this time. But if she dares to be impolite to me again, I'm afraid that I won't be able to help you get rid of the evil. Besides, I'm afraid that there will be another disaster." The exorcist said in a deep voice.

"Yes, of course. You're the bigger person, so you'll definitely forgive my ignorant daughter." Amara said gratefully.

Hearing their conversation, Edith frowned, but she couldn't do anything with Amara.

"Have you bought what I asked you to buy?" The exorcist asked while staring at Amara.

Amara nodded in haste and said, "Yes, here it is."

As she spoke, she handed the yellow paper and incense to him.

After taking them, the exorcist put down his box. After he opened it, it could be seen that there was something like a censer, a sword made of peach wood and a sword made of copper coins.

After lighting the incense, he inserted the incense into the censer and made a few gestures in the room. After thinking for a while, he put the censer in the direction of where Edith stayed and stared at Edith for a while.

After that, he took off his coat and turned it inside out, after which it became a rope. He put it on again. Seeing this, Edith was speechless. In her opinion, she felt it strange that Amara should believe such an obvious liar.

Amara thought that he was powerful after seeing what had happened just now. In her opinion, he was able to successfully help her get rid of the evil even if his clothes were shabby.

The exorcist made a small altar with his belongings in his box. Then, he wrote many strange symbols on the yellow paper Amara bought with something that looked like red ink.

Amara thought that it was mysterious while Edith found many holes. In Edith's opinion, there was no regulation in what the so-called exorcist wrote and that what he wrote was just like what wrote by a child casually.

After doing all these, he picked up the sword made of peach wood and began to make some movements. It seemed that he had learned all these moves from the movie The Exorcist. Besides, he didn't learn it well.

The exorcist spoke an exorcism spell and then shouted.

After shouting, he stopped his moves and stood there for five minutes, after which he breathed out slowly and became relaxed.

Afraid that she would disturb him, Amara dared not make any sound while watching him carefully.

"Ok, I've help you get rid of the evil in your home. You won't be in any trouble in the future." He said.

Amara looked gratefully at him and said, "Thank you very much. Recently, we have been in constant trouble. With your help, I can feel more relieved."

"It took me a lot of energy to help you get rid of the evil. I hope you didn't forget the reward we agreed upon before." The exorcist said.

"Yes, of course. I'll give it to you soon."

After saying that, Amara hurriedly went into her bedroom, got 20000 dollars and handed it to the exorcist.

After taking the money, there was a satisfied expression on his face.

After putting the money into his pockets, he stared at Amara for a while and said in a low voice, "Although I've helped you get rid of the evil, the problem isn't permanently solved. After careful observation of your home, I found something unusual. Besides, I figured out the reason why your family is in trouble."

Hearing it, Amara's expression changed. She asked hurriedly, "Master, what is that? Please tell me!"

He seemed to be hesitating, but he still asked, "Is there someone whose family name is Davies in your family?"

Chapter 360 Drive Him away from Your Family Forever

After hearing what the exorcist said, Amara looked at him in shock with her eyes wide open and murmured, "Ma...Master, how do you know that?"

At this moment, Amara was completely shocked by him. She had never talked to him about the family members in her family. How did he know that there was a person whose family name was Davies in her own family?

"I have your fortune told." He said.

"Then, master, do you mean that it's the person whose family name is Davies that incurs the misfortune?" Amara had already guessed something. It was in accord with what she previously thought.

"Yes. That person incurs the misfortune to your family. If I'm not mistaken, he's not at home now. The reason why I succeed in helping you get rid of the evil is that he is not here. Your family will be safe when he is not back. However, after he comes back, your family will always in trouble, just like before." The exorcist said as if it were true.

Previously, Amara had always believed that it was Casey that cause them to be in so much trouble. After hearing what the exorcist said, she was more convinced of it.

"Master, please help us. Before, I always thought that it was Casey that incurred many disasters. Please find a way to deal with it for us!" Amara pleaded.

Edith, who sat not far away from them, had thought that the so-called exorcist went too far when Amara gave him the money. Now, hearing him say so, she couldn't help speaking.

"Mom, he is but a liar. Could he help us get rid of the evil by making several random gestures in our home? Just now, you shouldn't have given him 20000 dollars. However, to set your mind at ease, I didn't say anything about it. Now, I really can't accept him saying such words. He is lying to you." Edith came close to Amara.

Amara turned her head, glared at her and said, "If he is lying to me, how is it possible that he knows that there is a person whose family name is Davies in our family? Casey isn't at home now. However, he knew his family name. Couldn't it prove something?"

"In J City, a great amount of people know that Casey is a member of our family. How do you know that he knows it by telling fortune? What if he has already known who we are?" Edith retorted.

"You're talking nonsense! He never cares about what is going on in the world. How could he know who we are? Don't be so stubborn. Are you going to continue to defend Casey after master has told us that Casey is the person that incurs disaster? Last time, I had my fortune told online and I was told that Casey would incur disasters. Now, it appears that it's right." Amara became anxious and shouted at Edith.

The exorcist also looked at Edith with his face darkened and said, "I kindly reminded you, but you should say that I'm a liar. It seemed that I shouldn't have helped you to get rid of the devil. Forget it. When you're in any trouble and all regret in the future, don't turn to me for help."

After saying that, he began to put away his belongs and then left angrily.

Seeing that, Amara hurriedly followed him while shouting, "Master, don't be angry. We didn't say that you were a liar. My daughter was blinded by Casey who incurred disasters. Please show mercy and save my daughter, master!"

Seeing that, Edith couldn't help biting her lower lip. There were tears in her eyes. It never occurred to her that Amara would be prejudiced against Casey even now.

She couldn't imagine what their life would be like after Albie and Nyla had done all that if it wasn't for Casey.

Maybe she had lost her job a long time ago. How was it possible that they could live in this house and that she could be the Chairman?

Amara always complained about Casey, but she could never know what Casey had done for their family. It was really too unfair to Casey.

In the corridor, Amara caught up with the exorcist, grabbed his arm with both hands and pleaded, "Don't be angry, master. My daughter is too ignorant. I really believe what you said. Please find a solution for me, otherwise we'll still be in trouble because of Casey."

The exorcist said with a cold expression, "I just kindly remind you. There is no reason for me to help you. What's more, after your daughter said something like that, why should I help you?"

Amara's eyes rolled. Then, she hurriedly took out a stack of money from her pocket and put it into his hand.

"Master, I apologize to you on behalf of my daughter. Please don't mind what happened just now. These money is the compensation I give you. I'm so sincere, please give me a solution." Amara said with a flattering smile.

Seeing the money, the exorcist adopted a milder attitude. After putting the money away, he spoke to Amara, "It's not necessary for me to help you.

However, you're sincere. So I'll give you a solution. It's the person whose family name is Davies that incurs the disasters. If you don't want to be in trouble, you had better drive him away from your family forever. Except it, there is no other way to permanently solve the problem."

After saying that, the exorcist pressed the button of the lift and entered the lift. Amara stood there, murmuring, "Drive him away from my home. Drive him away from my home. I should have done it earlier. But Edith stopped me."

"Now, with the instruction of master, I must drive Casey out of my home. I can't let him stay in my home anymore. Of course, it will be best if he won't come back from B City all his life."

Being determined to do that, Amara turned around and went home. In her plan, however hard Edith tried to defend Casey this time, she would drive Casey away from her home.

Before, Jennifer came back. Find that there was something wrong with the atmosphere at home and that there was a smell of the burning of incense in the house, she felt puzzled.

However, she didn't ask about it. She had her own worries. When she was on her way back, her daughter made a phone call to her, complaining to her about what had happened to her recently at school. Then, she began to worry about her daughter.

Although her daughter said that she was fine, Jennifer knew that her daughter would not call her and complain to her if she was really fine.

Her daughter was all her hope. If anything happened to her daughter, it would definitely be a great blow to Jennifer. Therefore, she was not in the mood to ask what had happened.

That night, Casey told Edith that he was coming back to J City tomorrow.

Knowing that Casey had got everything done in B City, Edith was very happy.

However, she still felt bad when she thought of the attitude of Amara.

When they were having a meal, Amara clearly told Edith that Casey was not allowed to enter their apartment, no matter what happened in B City.

This time, Amara was very determined and didn't allow Edith to negotiate with her. They almost quarreled with each other. They didn't calm down until Jennifer and Nicolas tried hard to persuade them.

Now, TC International Hotel was owned by Amara, so she had confidence. No matter Casey lived with her or not, she would live a wealthy life.

In her opinion, even if Casey successfully solved the problem of the Davies family and even took over the Davies family, he was still the person who would incur disasters.

Therefore, she had to keep away from Casey. Only in this way could she live a good life. Otherwise, she would still be afraid every day. Besides, her hotel might go bankrupt one day because of Casey.

Shortsighted as her, she always focused on whether she could gain benefits. Therefore, whoever came to talk to her, she wouldn't change her mind.

She was born to be mean. Once she had a stereotype about someone, she would believe that that guy might go bankrupt at any time even if that guy had become the richest person in the world.

Casey could improve her living conditions, but he could never change her being self-righteous. After all, she had been self-righteous in the past decades.

Edith was completely disappointed at Amara. In her plan, if Amara really refused Casey to enter their home, she would move out with Casey.

Now, the company had a great development prospect and Edith earned a very high salary. It was quite easy for her to move out.

Of course, she knew that Casey would get everything prepared if they were really going to move out. However high her salary was, Casey earned a lot much than she did.

The next day, after leaving J City airport, Casey was not in a hurry to go home. He saw that a Rolls-Royce Phantom parked on roadside that was not far away from him. Many people were curiously looking at the car with envy in their eyes.

Casey walked towards that car with a smile. After the window of the car was rolled down, Casey saw Charles sitting inside with sunglasses and smiling at him.

"Excuse me, make way for me. I need to go there." There were too many people gathering around the car, so Casey had to find a way to come close to the car.

"Bro, stop. However close you get to the car, you can't sit in this kind of luxury car. Just take a look at it from a distance. You'll feel bad if you find that you can't afford such a good car." A man said with a smile.

"The person in the car is waiting for me. How can I get on the car if I don't go there?" Casey answered with a smile. That man immediately looked at Casey in shock with his eyes wide open and said, "You must be kidding me. How is it possible that the people in the car is waiting for you? You don't look like a boss of a company. Are you kidding us?"

People around all looked suspiciously at Casey and thought that Casey was bragging.

It took Casey great effort to come close to the car. After the door of the car was opened, Casey directly got on the car. Seeing this, people around were so surprised that they were open-mouthed. "Oh my God, he should really got on the car!" Many people exclaimed.

After sitting in the car, Casey turned his head, looked at Charles and said, "Can you drive a low-key car the next time you come out? It took me a long time and a lot of effort to get on the car." Charles looked at Casey with embarrassment and said, "Cough. Cough. It's already my most low-key car. Others are sports cars, looking even cooler."

Casey rolled his eyes at him and said, "Start the car now. Let me see if you've finished the task I gave you."

Then, that Rolls-Royce Phantom was driven out of the airport when people looked at it with envy in their eyes. Before long, the car stopped at the center of J City where a project was under construction.

Casey and Charles got off the car and walked towards the construction site together.

Because it was still under construction, the construction site was surrounded by iron sheets. No one knew what it was inside.

"According to your requirement, we have built the only crystal castle in the world. I believe that it will definitely be the most romantic place to hold a wedding in the world." Charles said with a smile.

Casey nodded and entered the construction site. When he saw the crystal castle, he was stunned.

Although it was he who asked Charles to build a crystal castle, he was shocked a lot after seeing it.

It was indeed the most romantic place he had ever seen.

Looking at the bright and luxurious crystal castle, Casey couldn't help smiling.

He had asked Charles to build a crystal castle after he had an idea of holding a terrific wedding for Edith.

Since he had intended to hold a terrific wedding for Edith, then he should prepare a wedding venue that was different from others.

In Casey's opinion, Edith was a princess. Therefore, the best place to hold a wedding for her was of course the crystal castle.

Casey only told Charles his plan.

Moreover, it was constructed secretly.

To prevent others from knowing what was being built here, Charles specially asked someone to surround the whole construction site with iron sheets.

Fortunately, the crystal castle was not high. After it was surrounded, no one could see it from the outside.

Casey went into the hall of the crystal castle. When he saw the magnificent and glittering decoration, he began to imagine what the wedding ceremony would be like.

He couldn't wait for this now.

Now, the crystal castle had been completed. It was time for him to show it to the people of J City.

Casey turned his head, looked at Charles and said, "Remove the iron sheets around it in three days. I want everyone to see the crystal castle. The wedding of me and Edith will draw worldwide attention!"

Chapter 361 You Such A Wuss

At CZ Community.

Casey walked into the community. He couldn't restrain his excitement when he thought of the upcoming wedding with Edith.

Considering that Edith still had to go to work today, Casey did not tell Edith that he had arrived in J City. He arrived at the community alone and wanted to take the whole family out for a good meal tonight.

Not long after he walked into the community, Leia caught up with him. She stared at him with disdain, "Isn't this Casey? I haven't seen you for so many days. I thought you have already gone away. Because Edith can't support you." Casey frowned when he saw Leia. After hearing what she said, he asked, "What do you mean?"

"Don't you know what I mean? Edith's family is poor now. You, such a wimp, can continue to stay at her home?" Leia said with disdain.

Hearing Leia's words, Casey guessed what she was thinking. When Alan saw they moved here last time, he definitely thought that the company of the Patel family would close down.

Casey didn't want to argue with such a person. He just walked straight to the front.

Seeing Casey did not refute, Leia felt that she must be right, so she wanted to go one step too far. She continued, "So am I right? What a pity Edith is! You don't even want her. So funny!"

Casey ignored Leia's words at all, as if he hadn't heard it. Arguing with this kind of people was a waste of time. Whether Edith was pitiful or not. Everyone would know it when their wedding was held.

Seeing that Casey ignored her, Leia was angry. She ran in front of Casey and stopped him, asking, "Are you deaf? Didn't you hear me? Her family is miserable now, right? Are you going to divorce Edith? Tell me and let me be happy."

"Get out of my face!"

Seeing Leia stand in front of him, Casey yelled unceremoniously. If Edith had not been expelled from Patel family before, Casey might treat Leia more politely because she was an elder, but it was completely unnecessary now.

"What did you say? How dare you yell at me? Who do you think you are? Let me tell you, without Edith, you are not nothing, not to mention that Edith even can't support herself. Her company will be closed down. You dare yell at me?"

Leia was rendered furious immediately.

Casey directly pushed her away and continued to walk towards the front. If Leia continued to do some stupid things, he wouldn't mind teaching her a lesson.

"You even dared to push me. Asshole, apologize to me!" Leia didn't want to let Casey go.

Casey completely ignored Leia. No matter how she was angry, Casey just ignored her.

Leia was pissed off by Casey. What she hated most was that others completely ignored her. Casey knew this, so he just ignored her.

At this time, Amara came out of the building and walked towards Casey. Seeing it was Amara, Casey speeded up his pace immediately and wanted to go over to say hello to Amara.

Amara was still avoiding Leia. But now she saw Casey walking towards her.

Leia was still behind him. Then Amara's face instantly became terrible.

Casey actually could come back from B City safely. It was true that good men had short lives but evil ones lived long. Even the Davies family in B City couldn't kill this guy. No wonder the exorcist that Casey brought disaster to her family. Moreover, Casey caused her trouble just as soon as he came back. She had thought she could avoid Leia today, but she didn't expect that Casey brought Leia here directly.

"Mom, are you going out?" Casey asked with a smile.

"Don't call me Mom. I want to live a few more years. Maybe if you call me Mom a few more times, I will lose a few years of life." Amara said with a dark face.

Casey was taken aback, not knowing what was wrong with Amara. He asked, "Did you have some trouble? You seem to be a little unhappy."

"Hmph, my biggest trouble is you. How can I be happy when I see you?" Amara said, "Since I ran into you here, I don't bother to wait for you to come home and tell you again. From now on, you can't go to my home, so as not to bring any harm to my family. You can leave here now. Don't go to my home anymore. I'll tell Jennifer to pack up your stuff and give it to you. You just move out of here."

Hearing Amara's words, Casey was confused. He didn't know why Amara was like this.

"Mom, what's the matter with you? Why did you suddenly prevent me from going home? Could it be that something happened?" Casey asked.

"There is no reason. I just don't want you to enter my house. You are the source of disaster. Entering my house will definitely bring disaster to my house." Amara said impatiently.

After that, she walked towards the front and added, "I have changed the lock on the door of my house. You can't enter. I advise you not to even enter this community, otherwise whoever runs into you is unlucky."

Leia on the side saw this scene and immediately burst into laughter, "Casey, weren't you so arrogant just now? See! She didn't let you go home. So funny."

Casey frowned and glanced at Leia.

Instead of refuting her, he took out his mobile phone to call Edith, told Edith what happened just now, and asked her what was going on.

Edith told Casey that she couldn't make it clear on the phone, asking him to go to the company to wait for herself, and then would tell him what happened when she got off work.

Casey hung up the phone. He walked out of the community. He thought that his return this time would be a good start. Davies family's affairs were resolved. He would give Edith another wedding. All that was left was to find his father.

But he didn't expect that Amara would make him another trouble just after he came back, which made him a little confused.

"Casey, I thought you wanted to abandon Edith because her company would almost close down. But I didn't expect that it was Edith's family didn't want you. Well, well. It seems that they think you're a wuss and can't stand you. They don't want a burden." Leia said triumphantly.

Casey walked quickly out of the gate of the community and took a taxi directly to the company of Patel family, without saying a word to Leia from beginning to end.

Seeing Casey taking a taxi, Leia snorted, with a sneer on her face. She muttered, "The worse the situation in your family, the happier I will be. Sooner or later, our family will trample your family under our feet, just like before!"

Chapter 362 Crystal Castle

In a coffee shop near the company of the Patel family.

Casey and Edith were sitting opposite each other. Edith told Casey about yesterday that Amara asked the exorcist to come to their house for driving the ghost out. When Edith was speaking, her face was full of helplessness.

"That's how things are. You also know how rigid my mother is. She now believes that you will bring us disaster, so she doesn't want you to come back anyway. I quarreled with her, but she didn't believe. I am afraid that she will never live in the same house with you again." Edith sighed.

Casey also showed a helpless smile. When he learned that Amara found the exorcist to come to the house, he was a little speechless. But he knew that the reason why Amara really didn't want to live with him. Sasha's matters had a great impact on Amara. What the exorcist said was just an excuse.

"What do you think about this?" Casey asked.

"I have already figured it out clearly. If my mother insists on not living with you, I will move out. We can find a place for the two of us to live." Edith said.

Hearing Edith's words, Casey felt grateful and said, "I will try my best to prove myself to her. I believe she will accept me one day."

Edith nodded. She had enough confidence in Casey. She felt that Casey had done better than most people, but Amara had a lot of prejudice to Casey, which couldn't be controlled by anyone. So there were so many troubles.

"Well, don't talk about my mother. It's upset. How about you? Was everything going well in B City?" Edith asked.

"It has been completely resolved. There is no need to worry about troubles in B City in the future. We can prepare for our wedding." Casey said with a smile. Edith showed a look of expectation on her face, and a sweet smile appeared on her face.

In the evening, Casey took Edith to a hotel. Amara didn't allow Casey to go home. They could only stay in the hotel until they found a suitable place to stay. In fact, if Casey wanted to, he could also ask Charles to arrange a place for him immediately. It didn't have to take much effort. But Casey wanted to experience the pleasure of staying in a hotel with Edith.

In the past, when he and Edith stayed in a hotel, he couldn't do anything. He felt he himself sucked.

Casey had never experienced the fun of having sex in a hotel. Now it was different. He and Edith had already made love. So if they stayed in a hotel, Casey could do what he wanted to do.

At ten o'clock in the evening, Amara called Edith.

"Edith! Why don't you go home yet? Are you with that wimp? I tell you, if you continue to be with him, you will not end well. Come back in half an hour.

Otherwise, you will not be allowed to coming back!" Amara shouted hysterically.

"Mom, Casey is my husband. He will accompany me forever. But you can't. If you don't let him go home, I won't go home. Let's calm down during this time. I don't want to fight with you every day at home."

After speaking, Edith hung up the phone. Amara was so furious.

Two days later, the iron walls around the crystal castle were removed. The magnificent crystal castle inside and the decorative buildings around the castle were displayed in front of the people of J City.

On the first day the castle came out, it attracted countless people to watch. In just one day, the matter spread throughout J City. Even the local newspaper reported the matter. Everyone began to talk about the castle. Because crystal castle was too romantic, countless young men and women had come to visit. In just a few days, it had become a popular place for Internet celebrities to selfie in J City. However, because the crystal castle was not open to the outside world, these people could only watch outside the castle. Just because there was no way to enter, everyone had a greater interest in what the crystal castle looked inside. At first, everyone thought that crystal castle was a new tourist attraction in J City. After keeping others suspending, it would let people go in to visit by buying tickets. Many people said that even if the tickets here were more expensive, they would have to go in and see what it looked like inside. But later people realized that this crystal castle was not a public venue, but private belongings. It wouldn't open to the outside world. Then people began to guess who the owner of the crystal castle was, and what was the purpose of building such a magnificent castle. Those young girls used their imaginations to fabricate more than a dozen different versions of stories for this crystal castle, all of which were about love. Some people even wrote these stories into novels and published them on the Internet, which got a lot of favor from a large number of netizens. Crystal castle was also very famous because of it. After some people outside of J City had heard of this place, they would come to J City to see the crystal castle. Crystal castle had become a hot spot in the entire J City.

Edith naturally heard about the existence of the crystal castle. After returning to the hotel in the evening, she told Casey about it. She said the crystal castle was very romantic and wanted to go there with Casey to take photos. Casey smiled and agreed to Edith. Then he followed her to the crystal castle. Edith's eyes lit up when she saw the crystal castle which was quite different from the surrounding buildings.

"Wow, it's really beautiful. I always thought that this kind of place only exists in fairy tales. I didn't expect someone to build it. The owner of this crystal castle must be a very romantic person." Edith murmured.

"It's not necessarily. Maybe he doesn't know girls' thoughts." Casey smiled. Edith turned her head and glanced at Casey. She said, "How is it possible? He can live in this kind of place, which shows he is very romantic. How can he not know girls' thoughts? Casey, I think you are jealous."

Casey immediately glanced at Edith, then grabbed Edith's hand, dragged her to walk towards the crystal castle.

Edith didn't know what Casey wanted to do. She asked, "Casey, what are you going to do?"

Casey said, "I'll prove it to you whether I'm jealous."

Because there was a large group of people in front of the crystal castle, Casey took Edith directly to the back of the castle. There was a small gate with few people around here.

When Edith saw Casey bring herself to the side of this small door, she was surprised with her eyes wide open, saying, "Casey, why did you bring me here for? Are you trying to pry the door and take me in? Don't do this. If we get caught by the owner, we will be dead meat."

Casey smiled and took out a key from his pocket, and said, "I have the key. Why should I pry the door? If I enter my own place, will someone come to catch me?"

Chapter 363 You Have No Right to Intervene

When Edith saw the key in Casey's hand, she was really shocked.

"Casey, are you kidding me? This crystal castle is yours?"

Casey didn't explain to Edith. He directly used the key to open the small door in front of him, and then made a welcome gesture to Edith, and said seriously, "Welcome my princess to visit the castle."

Looking at the opened door, Edith was so shocked. She didn't know what to say.

"I'm not dreaming, right?" Edith asked.

"Can I pinch you?" Casey said with a smile.

Edith immediately rolled her eyes at Casey, and then walked into the castle with excitement.

Casey took Edith to the castle hall, where the sparkle embellished by crystals was brilliant. The various decorations all set off the beauty of the castle. In the castle, she felt like she was dreaming.

Looking at the surrounding scenes, Edith seemed to be taken into the fairy tale world by the golden castle.

Seeing Edith dumbfounded, Casey asked with a smile, "Do you like it?" "Is this for me?" Edith still looked at Casey in disbelief.

Casey nodded and said, "Our wedding will be held here, and then we will become the focus in J City. You will become the happiest bride in the world."

Hearing what Casey said, Edith felt like she was dreaming. She had fantasized about where her wedding would be held countless times, but she didn't expect that Casey would have built a castle specifically for her, which could only exist in the fairy tale world.

It could be said that there were not many who could enjoy this kind of treatment in this world.

Right now, she felt she was the happiest woman. The bliss Casey had brought to her could no longer be described in words.

She stared at Casey excitedly, then swept Casey up, and whispered in Casey's ear, "Thank you. You are the most romantic person I have ever met."

A satisfied smile appeared on Casey's face. Edith said he was romantic. For Casey, it was definitely something to be happy about.

He looked down at Edith, and then slowly leaned in and kissed Edith's lips. The two kissed for a long time before Casey reluctantly separated from Edith. Edith flushed, like a shy girl.

"Come with me upstairs and have a look. There are many rooms specially prepared for you."

Casey said to Edith, then took her hand and walked towards the second floor of the castle.

Because the entire castle was crystal-like, almost in a semi-transparent state.

People outside the castle could vaguely see some scenes inside the castle.

Casey walked towards the second floor with Edith. The figures of the two people could be seen by the people outside the castle, but those people couldn't see exactly who they were.

"See, there are people in the castle!" A man pointed in the direction of the second floor of the castle and shouted. Everyone looked in the direction the person pointed. After seeing the people inside, there was also a touch of surprise on their faces.

Both Casey and Edith had very good figures. In this situation, others could only see the figures, as if they were like the prince and princess living in the castle, which made others fascinated.

"Wow, is there a prince and a princess in the castle?"

"Oh my god, it's so enviable. I want to go inside this castle too."

"They are so matched. I really want to go in and see who they are."

After that day, the matter about prince and princess living in the crystal castle spread throughout J City. Everyone said that the prince and princess lived in the crystal castle. Many people even said that they had seen the prince and princess with their own eyes and even had dinner with them in the castle. All sorts of weird guesses about the castle were spread one by one. Some people even said that the reason why others were not allowed to enter the castle was because the prince inside was actually an evil dragon. Only by staying with the princess could the prince remain human shape. Once seen by others, the prince would turn into an evil dragon and burn the entire castle with flames.

Of course, those who believed in these legends were only ignorant children. Adults all knew that it was fictitious. As for who this crystal castle belonged to, it would have to wait until the owner of the castle personally came to announce. When everyone was thinking about the crystal castle, the owner of the castle played a game of evil dragon with the princess...

That evening, in a restaurant in J City, Casey and Edith were sitting aside, across from them were Amara who looked gloomy, and Nicolas who was silent.

Because Casey and Edith had decided to hold another wedding, they felt that this matter should be discussed with Amara and Nicolas.

Edith felt that after so many days, Amara should have calmed down. After all, they were still family. It was not good that the two of them always lived outside.

"Mom, so many days have passed, are you still angry? You can't stop Casey from coming back just by someone's words. Please don't get angry." Edith said sincerely.

"The 'someone' you mentioned is a master. He predicted that Casey is the source of disaster. I'm not angry. But it is true. We can't change it. Don't persuade me. I won't let Casey enter the house." Amara said firmly.

Edith sighed. She had thought that Amara would change her mind after a few days, but now it seemed that she herself was still a bit naive.

"You really shouldn't be doing this to Casey. That we can live like this now is because of Casey. But now you don't let him come back. It really goes a little too far." Nicolas spoke up for Casey, which was rarely seen.

Amara immediately turned to glare at him, and said, "What kind of life do we have? Did you know that Leia would block me downstairs every day? I get upset every day. This is caused by Casey, isn't it?"

"Why don't you go back to the old house before? There will definitely not be anyone blocking you downstairs."

Nicolas muttered softly.

Amara directly stretched out her hand to pinch his arm. She yelled, "What did you say? You want to be driven out, right?"

You actually speak for Casey now? Did he give you any benefits?"

Nicolas was immediately scared. He was sitting in the corner with his head down, not daring to say a word.

After scolding Nicolas, Amara glanced at Casey again, and said to Edith, "Daughter, actually, you think about it, there is nothing good about Casey. If you are with him, you will not be happy at all."

"Do you know the crystal castle that everyone is discussing recently? I specifically asked someone to investigate. In fact, there are no people living in it, and there is no so-called princess. The crystal castle was built by a very wealthy businessman. Maybe he built this castle for the purpose of marrying a girl in the future."

"I have a friend who said that he can find the owner of this crystal castle. You're so beautiful. Few girls in the whole J City are more beautiful than you. I will take you to see the owner of this crystal castle. Perhaps he will fall in love with you. Marrying the owner of this crystal castle is ten thousand times better than staying with Casey."

Hearing Amara's words, Casey and Edith looked at each other. Both of them showed a strange look on their faces.

"Mom, actually... I am the owner of crystal castle." Casey said.

Amara snorted at Casey. She felt Casey was like a fool, and then she said, "Do you think I'm stupid? You still want to use this method to trick me? No way! I have already met the owner of the crystal castle. Although I have not spoken to him, he was more temperamental than you. You want to pretend to be the owner of the crystal castle? Are you insane?"

Casey immediately guessed that the person Amara talked about should be Charles. After all, all things about the crystal castle were done by Charles. Casey was a little surprised that Amara knew that the crystal castle was related to Charles. However, thinking that Amara had TC International Hotel now, she could be regarded as a member of the upper class, so it was normal that she could get some news. But Amara's news was not correct. It was her own wild guesses.

"Mom, Casey didn't lie to you. He..."

Edith also explained for Casey.

"Okay, don't fool me. Even if he is really the owner of crystal castle, I won't let him enter my house. It doesn't matter whether he has money or not. He will bring us bad luck. No matter how rich he is, if he walks into my house, it won't be good for us." Amara resolutely said.

Casey sighed when he saw Amara's attitude so tough. But no matter what Amara's attitude was, he would have this wedding with Edith.

"Mom, let's not talk about the fact whether you let me in. We are here to inform you and Dad that Edith and I are planning to have another wedding. The venue will be in crystal castle. I hope you two can join our wedding. Please tell Jennifer by the way. Let her come over." Casey said.

Amara patted the table directly, stood up, and shouted, "What are you talking about? How dare you hold the wedding again? Is that wedding not enough embarrassing? You really get on my nerves!"

Casey glanced at Amara calmly, and said, "This wedding, I will let everyone change their minds."

"No, I don't agree. Edith is my daughter. If you want to have a wedding with her, you have to get my opinions. If I don't agree, you can't hold this wedding!"

Amara screamed.

At this time, Edith also stood up and said with firm eyes, "Mom, we are just here to inform you. Whether you agree or not, this wedding will be held. This is a matter between Casey and I. You have no right to intervene!"

Chapter 364 Banquet Invitation

After Amara heard the words "You have no right to intervene", she immediately widened her eyes and looked at her daughter. She raised Edith up so hard. But now, her daughter actually said this to her now.

"Edith, I am your mother! Why can't I take care of your business? I don't agree with you to have another wedding with Casey. If you dare to held this wedding with him, you will not be my daughter!" Amara shouted at Edith angrily.

"I'm already in my twenties. I don't even have the right to make my own decisions? No matter what you say this time, I won't listen to you. I'll have the wedding. Even if you don't come, I will also hold it!"

Edith did not back down. After shouting to Amara, she grabbed Casey and led him out of the restaurant.

Watching Edith and Casey leave, Amara picked up the cup on the table angrily, and was about to throw it out immediately.

"It's not our cup. You will compensate it if you break it." Nicolas hurriedly reminded her.

When Amara heard Nicolas' words, she immediately stopped.

After hesitating for a while, she put the cup back on the table. Although she was now the owner of TC International Hotel, she was still stingy.

"This is your good daughter. Now she doesn't even listen to what I said. She has been completely brainwashed by Casey. Look at her attitude towards me now, it's so annoying!" Amara had no place to vent her anger, so she could only shout at Nicolas.

"If she doesn't listen to you, you will say that she has been brainwashed. You just want to completely control your daughter. She is an adult now. It's time for you to change your attitude. Children have their own lives. She doesn't have to listen to you." Nicolas whispered.

Amara's eyes opened wider. She didn't expect that not only Edith would fight her, but now even Nicolas started to talk back to her frequently.

She felt that her status was seriously threatened. The reason was Casey.

"Nicolas! What did you say? Do you want to be kicked out by me? You dare to talk back. Don't you know who is the head of our family? Huh?"

When Nicolas was scolded by Amara, he didn't dare to speak again. But he was still unconvinced. He thought that he had been so useless for so many years, but now he even couldn't speak for his daughter. It was really shameful for him to have lived like this.

After sighing helplessly, Nicolas stood up and said, "Let's go back too. It's useless for you to be angry here."

Amara snorted coldly and murmured, "Hmph, I won't let you successfully hold this wedding. No matter what, I am the owner of TC International Hotel. Others will respect me. Did you guys want to hold the wedding in that crystal castle? It must be Casey who rent it. I will go back to send someone to call the staff from crystal castle and ask them not to provide you with a venue. Let's wait and see!"

After speaking, Amara got up and left the restaurant with Nicolas.

The next day, there was news that, ten days later, a grand banquet would be held in the crystal castle. Some people would be invited to the banquet. Those who were not invited would have chances to go in to watch this banquet according to the real situation.

Because Casey wanted to surprise everyone, he didn't directly say that the upcoming wedding of crystal castle was his and Edith's.

At first, everyone thought this was just a rumor. It was just others gossipy. But after a while, a passageway was set up at the main entrance of the crystal castle, which seemed to be used for ticket checking.

Moreover, there was an extra small house at the entrance of the castle, which was specially used by the party responsible for this banquet to settle matters related to the banquet.

Someone went to the small house to ask and then confirmed that the banquet was true. The news undoubtedly made the whole J City uproar.

Everyone went to the little house and asked how to get the invitation letter for the banquet. The person in charge explained to them that, except for some people who were determined to be invited, the remaining places would be randomly selected on the day. If you were lucky enough, you could enter the castle to participate in the banquet.

Those who had seen the crystal castle were very eager to enter the castle. This news undoubtedly excited them.

Some people even went to the crystal castle every day to ask when they could get the invitation letter. The small house in front of the crystal castle could be said to be blocked by a lot of people every day. The person in charge inside felt annoyed by these people.

Two days later, the person in charge of the banquet sent out the first batch of invitations. In this batch of invitations, it was written to invite them to attend the wedding of Casey and Edith.

Those who could receive these invitations were all friends who had a good relationship with Casey and Edith, including families and powers that had had some intersection with Casey.

Two days later, the second batch of invitations were sent out. This time, the invitation just read inviting them to attend the banquet. No other redundant information was written. The ones who received these invitations were relatives from the Patel family, classmates and colleagues who had had grudges with Edith, and relatives from Amara's family who had big prejudices about Casey and Edith.

The reason for inviting these people was to let them see that Edith marrying Casey was a very happy thing, not was like what they thought at all. This wedding would definitely change their mind.

In a company in J City, Leyla opened a courier that she had just received. After taking it out and seeing the invitation letter inside, she was taken aback for a moment. Then she opened it quickly and looked at the content inside. Then she jumped up excitedly.

"I have received the invitation letter of the banquet from the crystal castle!" Leyla shouted.

When others who were busy with their things in the company heard Leyla's shout, they immediately turned their heads and looked at her. Many girls hurriedly came over, staring at the invitation letter in Leyla's hand. They all showed a look of envy.

"Is this really an invitation letter from the crystal castle? Why are you invited?" At this time, someone asked.

"That must be because I'm beautiful. Maybe the owner of crystal castle has taken a fancy to me." Leyla immediately said with a narcissistic expression on her face.

The people around all looked at Leyla contemptuously. Obviously, they didn't believe her.

But Leyla did receive the invitation letter, which made them all envious.

Leyla stared at the invitation letter in her hand with a smug face, then narrowed her eyes, and said to herself, "Edith, Casey, you guys must have never expected that I would receive the invitation letter for the crystal castle, right? I think you are definitely not eligible to receive such a high-level invitation letter. No matter why the owner of this crystal castle sends me an invitation letter, this is an opportunity for me. Maybe I can meet a rich and handsome guy at the banquet. At that time, you will definitely be trampled under my feet!"

"Wait for me, especially Casey. Sooner or later, I will let you know what the ending is after provoking me!"

At Nyla's home.

Nyla's father Jakub and her mother Sally sat on the sofa, staring at the invitation letter on the table with emotion.

They hadn't heard from Nyla for a long time. Not long after Nyla went to Eglor County, her phone couldn't get through. The two of them went to Eglor County to look for Nyla, but in the end, they didn't have any clues. Finally, they had to give up.

When Nyla finally contacted them, she said that she had found a rich boyfriend, and then they couldn't hear from her news at all. Jakub once thought that Nyla didn't want them after she found a rich boyfriend. After all, Nyla caused the family went bankrupt. Now, since she was rich, it was not impossible for her to abandon these two burdens.

But they didn't know that Nyla was begging in a corner of Eglor County.

"I didn't expect that we could also receive the invitation letter from this crystal castle. Could it be that our family become lucky?" Jakub said with both hands trembling.

"Yes. We were kicked out of the Patel family, bankrupted, and our daughter ran away with the rich. No one in the world could be more pitiful than us. It must be God who can't stand it anymore, so he gives us an opportunity to stand up." Sally said confidently.

Jakub took a deep breath, narrowed his eyes, and said excitedly, "This banquet is an opportunity for us. When we make a comeback, we must let Casey pay the price. It's him who caused us like this!"

"Yes, we have to kill him! And Edith, her family is so bad. We have to let them regret what they had done!" Sally echoed.

In ZC Community, at Albie's Home.

At this time, Albie's family were all sitting around the table, staring at the invitation letter on the table. The name of their family was written on the invitation letter.

This invitation letter was for their family!

"Albie, I didn't expect that this crystal castle banquet would invite our family over. I also went to see the crystal castle. It is indeed a very luxurious place. Its owner is definitely not an ordinary person. He actually can invite us." Alan said excitedly.

"Of course, our son is so excellent. It must be that Albie's business is getting better and better recently. The owner of the crystal castle thinks that Albie has a bright future, so he sent us this invitation letter. Yes, I believe that after attending this banquet this time, Albie will have more opportunities, and then our family will be able to rise to the top." Leia looked at Albie with a smug face. She was quite satisfied with her son.

Albie also smiled, obviously not expecting that he would receive an invitation to the crystal castle banquet.

"Perhaps this is really an opportunity for our family. If I can get the appreciation of the owner of the crystal castle this time, then I will surely be able to get a lot of achievements in the future. At that time, Edith and Casey will be worthless in my eyes!" Albie said with pride.

Leia also said, "Now they have been trampled under our feet. I saw that Amara had refused to let Casey come back. It must be that their family can't afford to support Casey anymore.

Maybe, it will not be long before they even have to sell the house here."

When Albie heard Leia's words, he immediately laughed and said, "I didn't expect that this is the case in their family now. It's God's retribution for them."

"Did their family also receive this invitation letter?" Alan suddenly asked.

"Absolutely impossible!" Albie and Leia said immediately in unison.

"You haven't seen Amara's face these past few days. She always pulls a long face. How could she receive such a high-level invitation? Now their family is worried about their livelihood. How could they be invited by the crystal castle?"

Chapter 365 I Think He's Right

At Amara's home.

Amara sat on the sofa, holding the wedding invitation letter sent by Casey.

Her face darkened.

After a while, she threw the invitation letter on the table and shouted, "Casey really pissed me off. He actually wants to have a wedding with Edith in the crystal castle. Edith must be deceived by Casey's sweet words. Didn't Casey know that this castle is now the focus of the whole city? He held the wedding there to embarrass our family!"

Jennifer, who was cleaning, and Nicolas, who was playing with birds on the balcony, were shocked when they heard Amara's words. They hurried towards them.

"The banquet in the crystal castle that has been reported recently is the wedding of Edith and Casey? Casey is so cool. He must have spent a lot of thought to be able to hold a wedding in that place." Nicolas said. He was happy for Casey and Edith.

Jennifer picked up the invitation letter on the table and glanced at it. A happy smile appeared on her face. She said, "It is a good thing that Casey and Edith hold the wedding, but why did they not come back?"

Jennifer still didn't know about what happened between Edith and Amara. When Amara heard Jennifer's words, she immediately glared at Jennifer, and said, "Bullshit good thing. Casey wants to make our family ashamed again. Jennifer, you can still stay in my house now. It's purely because of my kindness. Casey is no longer a member of our family. If you dare to speak for him in the future, I'll drive you out."

Jennifer didn't dare to say anything else. She didn't expect that Amara would have said that Casey was no longer her family. Jennifer didn't know the reason, so she didn't dare to say anything.

Most importantly, her daughter encountered a lot of trouble at the university. She needed money now, so she couldn't lose this job. No matter what Amara treated her, as long as Amara didn't drive her away, she could endure it.

Amara was accustomed to Jennifer doing housework. Besides, she felt that she was the owner of TC International Hotel now. So it was okay that she could hire a nanny. That was why she didn't drive Jennifer away after Casey left.

Nicolas said, "No matter what, Edith is your daughter. It's her wedding. Even if you have any comments on Casey, this invitation letter has been sent out. It can't change. Since Casey can hold wedding in the crystal castle, which shows Casey is not bad. Besides, he returned from B City safely. Do you know if he got something from B City? What if he becomes the heir of the Davies family? Take it easy."

Amara snorted coldly, and said, "No matter how powerful he is, he is also the source of disaster. I'm rich now. I don't want that stuff he can bring to me. Even if he can hold a wedding in the crystal castle, so what? He wants to hold the wedding there, right? but I'll ruin it!" Nicolas sighed helplessly. For his wife, he had no choice but to pray silently that Casey's wedding should not be disturbed by Amara.

When Amara was thinking about how to ruin Casey's wedding, Casey had already started helping Edith to choose the wedding dress.

He took Edith to visit all the bridal shops in J City, but Edith didn't buy. Seeing that the wedding day was approaching and Edith hadn't decided wedding dress, Casey was still a little worried.

Fortunately, Charles knew several top domestic wedding dress designers. These people had their own design team. Once the design plan was decided, the wedding dress could be made within two days.

So before the wedding, Edith could definitely put on the most beautiful wedding dress.

That morning, Casey did not let Edith go to work, but took her to J City Branch of TY Group.

"Casey, why did you bring me here? I have an important meeting today." Edith muttered.

"There are still five days that it's our wedding. You don't have a suitable wedding dress. Why are you so in no hurry?" Casey laughed.

"We have several alternatives before. I think those are quite good. But I really can't decide which one is better. We can choose one from those alternatives." Edith said.

"No. For this wedding, I must make it perfect. So your wedding dress must be perfect too. If you can't pick the right one, I will find someone to customize it for you. It must be the most suitable."

Casey spoke seriously.

A sweet smile appeared on Edith's face. Seeing that Casey cared more about the wedding dress than she did, she felt a sense of happiness.

"Then you brought me here today to look for someone to help me design a wedding dress?" Edith asked.

Casey nodded and said, "I asked Charles to find two top wedding dress designers in H Country. When we meet them, each of them will give a set of plans. You can have a look and see which one you like. After deciding, they will start making it immediately. Then you can put on the most beautiful wedding dress on the wedding day.

Edith nodded. She had never had any opinion on Casey's arrangements.

The two drove into the underground garage of the building. After stopping the car, they were about to find an elevator to go up.

Suddenly there was a sound of footsteps behind them, followed by the voice of a person shouting, "You guys, go away quickly. Don't block us. Our boss' time is very precious. You can't afford to delay her time."

Casey turned and looked over. Then he saw that five people were walking to him. The one walking in the middle was a woman, dressed quite differently, like the kind of weird artist on TV.

She was surrounded by four men.

Those four men were carrying a lot of bags. They seemed to be the woman's assistants.

The road in the parking lot was originally not very spacious. These people directly occupied the entire road. When they walked to Casey and Edith, two assistants gave them a glance, as if they felt Edith and Casey were stupid. When an assistant was passing by Edith, he deliberately ran into Edith. If it wasn't for Casey's quick reaction to hold Edith, Edith would fall to the ground. Casey frowned and glanced at the assistant, and said coldly, "You bumped into her. Didn't you know?"

The assistant turned his head and glanced at Casey, curled his lips, and said, "So what? Isn't she all right? Don't delay our boss' time. You can't afford it." The woman also glanced at Casey and Edith. After seeing what they were wearing, she immediately believed that these people were poor, with a trace of disdain in her eyes.

Casey stared at the woman and asked, "Your assistant bumped into someone. You don't need to explain it? At the very least, he has to apologize, right?"

The woman chuckled and said, "Poor people like you deserve an apology of my assistant? Stop it. Do you know how much loss it is for me if you delay me for a few minutes? I'm going to talk about a big deal. Shut up your mouth. Stop making trouble here."

After speaking, the woman didn't care about Casey's reaction. She continued to walk towards the front.

The assistant was more arrogant. Casey and Edith were completely ignored.

Casey was a little annoyed and wanted to go up to argue with them, but Edith grabbed him at this time and said, "Forget it. These people look noble and elegant, but they are so narrow-minded. Even if they have money, they will suffer a loss sooner or later. So we don't need to waste our energy to teach them." After hearing Edith's words, Casey laughed, "I didn't expect you to be so virtuous."

"Of course." Edith smiled. She didn't want Casey to waste time on such meaningless things.

Casey felt that what Edith said was reasonable, so he didn't continue to catch up with them to argue with them. Instead, he lightly touched Edith's nose, and then took her to the elevator.

The two went to Charles's office first. Charles had been waiting for Casey in the office for a long time. Seeing them arrived, he hurried over to greet them enthusiastically.

"The two designers are the top domestic designers. They have won many international awards. One of them is named Fidelia Poole. She has her own style. I like her style. The other one is Howard Mason. Although he is also an excellent designer, he is not as eye-catching as Fidelia. I will take you over to meet them. Edith can choose which one you like." Charles said with a smile. Casey nodded, and followed Charles to the VIP lounge with Edith.

The VIP lounge was transparent, surrounded by glass. Casey saw the people in the VIP lounge at a glance. Casey saw the woman and her assistants who he met in the parking lot. "The woman who wears avant-garde clothes is Fidelia. Her design concept is more outstanding. So the price is higher. Sitting on the other side is Howard. His design concept is also very good, but he is not as famous as Fidelia. Howard has only been famous for two years. Fidelia is already a big shot in the design circle." Charles introduced.

Casey nodded, but did not rush in. He walked to the front of the two large potted plants at the door, so that the people inside could not see him. He wanted to hear what they were saying inside.

"Howard, this time it's a friend of the boss of TY Group who invited us. You only brought an assistant here. It sucks." Fidelia stared at Howard and said with some disdain.

They had known each other before. Fidelia could be regarded as Howard's seniors. But in this room, the two of them were in a competitive relationship, so Fidelia's attitude towards Howard was not very good.

"I just need to bring my best design plan. No matter how many assistants I bring, I can't produce good works. It's just a bunch of people who do idle things." Howard talked back.

Fidelia's four assistants immediately looked at Howard angrily. Obviously Howard's words pissed them off.

"Howard, what do you mean by this? You mean I can't produce a work better than yours? How many years you become a designer? I'm already considered a senior in the circle. You are just a rookie. Actually, I think you shouldn't have come over. No matter what, the boss will choose a designer with outstanding qualifications instead of you who is just whimsical." Fidelia yelled.

"Design needs to be unconstrained and vigorous style. You have been in the design circle for so many years. You should be very clear about this. This time I want to let my strength prove myself. No matter what you say, it's useless." Howard calmly said.

"Huh, what a talker. Let's wait and see. If the boss doesn't choose your plan, how embarrassed you will be!" Fidelia muttered.

At this time, Casey walked in, smiled at Fidelia and Howard, and said, "I think he is quite right. Strength has nothing to do with qualifications. Your qualifications just make you defiant. It's useless for design."

Chapter 366 My Offer Is Ten Million

What Casey said had drawn the attention of all people in the lounge. A contemptuous expression soon emerged on Fidelia's face as she recognized that it was the man from the parking lot they had an argument with.

"Who are you? How dare you speak to me like that?! Security! Call the security! Get the tramp out of my sight before it messes up my thinking." Fidelia said.

By this time Edith and Charles appeared and the latter went blue in the face at Fidelia's words.

Fidelia immediately shifted her tone at the sight of Charles and said, "Mr. Charles, for God's sake, please get security to throw them out. Their existence here is disgusting."

Charles threw out a grim look at Fidelia before speaking, "Sorry to let you down. But the two are our guests of wedding photograph, whom I have no right to throw out. I just recommended you to Mr. Davies for I thought you were a renowned and outstanding designer in the design scene. I've never expect you acting like that! What a mistake to let you be here!"

With another shift expression on her face, Fidelia looked Casey and Edith up and down, again, but still had no clue how these people got to be her clients. Normally, her design requests were from the top wealthy class with luxurious appearance, people like Charles, whose clothing had the price of a decent and successful person.

There was absolute no sign showing that Casey and Edith as one of the top class and Fidelia even doubted whether they could afford her design.

"Mr. Charles, you gotta be kidding me, right? My clients this time are these... these people?" Fidelia looked towards Charles for answer.

Charles's voice grew stern, "Yes. This is Mr. Davies and this is his wife. They want a design for wedding dress. The original plan was to let you two show your own draft and they chose one as the final design."

Soon a feeling of insecurity caught up with Fidelia--- if it was true that Casey and Edith were the clients, what had happened in the garage might lead Casey to the decision on which designer to choose.

Just as expected, Casey gave a glance to both Fidelia and Howard, said, "I think there is no need of two drafts. The personality of a designer tells loads of the designer---a designer with mediocre personality makes no outstanding design."

Upon hearing that, Fidelia had her displeasure all over the face for those words meant she had gone all the way here for nothing.

However, a question soon popped out in her mind: "those two are nothing like the rich, even they had picked me as their designer, are they able to afford my design?"

As a top designer across the country, Fidelia's charge started with million, a price way beyond the ordinary. At the thought of that, Fidelia not only got some comfort but also showed a trace of pomposity to Casey.

"That's funny. I really had no plan for designing things for people like you. Besides, I wouldn't have even been here if it wasn't for the sake of Mr. Charles. And according to agreed conditions, you have to pay me 200,000 in compensation even if your choice isn't me. How about that, huh?" Fidelia answered back to Casey with no politeness.

Charles just tried to speak for Casey but was interrupted by the latter.

Receiving no instant reply from Casey, Fidelia turned back towards to Howard and sneered, "See? Only 200,000 is out of his league because he is a penniless vagrant. You want to be the designer of the wedding dress? I'm afraid he doesn't have the money to pay you in the end.

Free advice: don't waste your time."

Casey looked towards Howard for his answer: "If he still wants the job, money won't be the problem."

Howard took a look at Casey and said, "Money was never my first consideration of my design for it can be disturbing. Since you are the person introduced by Mr. Charles, I believe there would be some guarantee in the remuneration. Also, your wife is very pretty. Designing a wedding dress, if I may, for her will bring me much more than money. So I'm willing to be the designer even for free."

"Such a hypocrite! You really could do it for free?!" Fidelia doubted with curled lips.

At this time, Casey turned to Charles and made an eye contact with him.

Knowing the attitude of Casey, Charles went straight to Fidelia and said, " You can go now. As for the 200,000, I'll have you paid as soon as possible. Seriously though, you, a top designer, speaking like that was really a disappointment."

Fidelia's face again showed no clue of pleasantness. But thinking about the 200,000 she had just got by only being here for a moment, which was indeed a good deal, Fidelia kept her mouth shut. By the moment Fidelia prepared to leave with her assistant, Casey walked up to Howard, said in smile, "I really appreciated what you've said. There will be a place for you in the industry. I can see that. I'd like to offer ten million for the design of my wife's wedding dress.

Of course, the precondition is you're gonna make the perfect one for her. I want her to be the most shining bride of the world on our wedding day."

Suddenly, Howard became speechless after hearing those words, for he was ready to accept the low price. But after what Casey had said, he thought he must have misheard."

Howard was not the only person standing in shock. Those word also went into the ear of Fidelia, who was on her way out, stopped by those words and turned to Casey. "What a bragger! A hobo could afford ten million on the dress? Do you believe it?!" Fidelia sneered.

Charles gave out a cold hum and talked back to her, "Just go. You have no business here."

Fidelia herself had no intention to stay and went right towards to the door.

By the time they arrived at the power tower, Fidelia stared at Charles and asked, "Mr. Charles, why you recommended me to those poor people? Is it because that man's wife is a beauty? He even had the nerve to offer ten million for the design of the wedding dress. That was really killing me."

Charles looked at Fidelia as if he were looking at a moron, and replied, "One more word like that, I'll call the security to send you out. He wasn't joking. Ten million for him is just pocket money."

The next second Fidelia goggled at him in bewilderment, "How come?!"

"It is true." Charles answered in disdain, "He is my boss. Do you think ten million will be a problem for him?"

Chapter 367 You Are a Boss?

In the VIP lounge.

Being still shocked by what Casey said just now, Howard still stared at Casey with a look of shock.

"Sit down first. Let's talk about specifics." Casey motioned for Howard to sit down, and then sat down on the sofa with Edith.

Howard sat opposite Casey and Edith. Seeing that Casey felt at home and acted as if he were in his own company, Howard couldn't help wondering who was the boss of this company. Was the boss Charles or Casey?

"You...You're willing to pay me 10 million if I design a wedding dress for you? Are you joking?" After Howard took a deep breath, he asked carefully.

"I'm serious. Why do you think that I'm joking?" Casey said with a smile, "If you don't believe what I said, I'm willing to pay you 5 million now. And I'll give you the rest 5 million after the wedding dress is ready."

Howard swallowed hard. Although he was not as experienced as Fidelia, he had already been a famous designer throughout the nation. However, he had never heard that someone would pay 10 million to a fashion designer for designing a dress. Generally, even a world-famous fashion designer wouldn't be paid so much.

"I believe your words. Besides, Mr. Charles won't lie to me. We can talk about rewards later. I'll give you a specific design scheme first and you can design if you will use that. It will be better if we talk about rewards after that." Howard became serious.

Casey gave Howard a glance with some appreciation, nodded, and then discussed the specific design scheme with him.

Taking into account Edith's figure, temperament and appearance etc., Howard put forward two preliminary design schemes after careful consideration.

After that, he observed Casey carefully, after which he preliminarily put forward an appropriate design scheme for him.

Previously, in Casey's opinion, he just needed to wear any of his suits and Howard should focus on designing a wedding dress for Edith. However, Howard didn't agree with him. In Howard's opinion, both the bride and the bridegroom were important in a wedding. Both of them should look gorgeous, otherwise people would focus only on the bride.

Edith agreed with him. Even though Casey didn't want Howard to specially design a suit for him, Edith forced him to cooperate with Howard in making a design scheme for a suit.

After they agreed to the design scheme, Howard began to design and make the wedding dress and suit. Then, Casey and Edith began to do something else.

In the afternoon, Amara got dressed up in her home. After she changed into her most expensive clothes and made sure that she looked very rich, she came out of her home and headed to the gate of the community.

Before Amara reached the gate, Leia came close to her again. Seeing that Amara got dressed up, Leia put on a contemptuous look on her face and said, "Oh, you're dressed up. What are you going to do?"

Amara knew that she couldn't get rid of Leia, so she wasn't very surprised when she saw her.

"Does it has anything to do with you? You're like a ghost, wandering around all day in the community and doing nothing but scaring people. I'm different from you." Amara went on walking without stopping.

Leia immediately became unhappy and asked, "Watch your language! You talk as if you have something important to do. However, you're no better than me. Stop talking like that."

Amara's lips twitched. She said, "Now, I'm a boss of a company, totally different from idle people like you. Don't waste my time. I have something important to deal with. You can't afford to delay me."

"Oh, you really act as if you were a boss. You're a boss? How dare you brag like that?" It was obvious that Leia didn't believe what Amara said.

Amara didn't want to talk to Leia. In her opinion, explaining to someone like Leia would degrade her.

"Have you heard of the banquet that would be held in the crystal castle? Let me tell you something. All members of my family are being invited. That owner of that crystal castle is a big shot. Only celebrities will be invited to the banquet held in that crystal castle. The reason why we're invited is that Albie is doing great in business. You didn't receive the invitation to that banquet, right? Don't envy us. It's meaningless for you to be envious..." Leia kept talking.

After hearing what Leia said, Amara was angry. It never occurred to her that Casey would invite Albie and his family to the wedding. It seemed that he had made up his mind to hold the wedding. Moreover, judging from the way Leia talked about it, Leia didn't know that they were going to attend the wedding of Casey and Edith. What on earth did Casey want to do? Did he really want her family to lose face again like they did a few years ago? Instead of continuing to listen to what Leia said, Amara quickened her pace and went outside.

She got dressed up to talk to the people in charge of the crystal castle about the wedding of Casey.

In her opinion, as the boss of TC International Hotel, she could be said to be a celebrity and she should be quite influential. Besides, in her memory, before, the money of Casey was from TC International Hotel. Now, not being able to get any money from this hotel, Casey was nothing.

The people of crystal castle would certainly not offend her, the boss of TC International Hotel, for Casey.

"Humph, I'll see if you can hold the wedding without wedding venue."

Amara thought.

Seeing that Amara's face became dark after hearing what said, Leia was sure that Amara envied her and her family for having received the invitation.

The reason why Amara was so jealous must be that she and her family didn't receive the invitation to the banquet. The host of the banquet really attached more importance to Albie.

Thinking of this, Leia became more proud. Therefore, she no longer cared about whether Amara responded to her or not. In her view, the reason why Amara not responded to her was that she was jealous.

"My son will definitely be able to get to know a lot of important people at this banquet. When my son becomes successful, we won't attach any importance to your family!"

.....

Before the gate of the small house outside the crystal castle.

Many people gathered here, asking how they could attend the banquet held in the crystal castle.

Being troubled a lot by these people, the people in charge of the crystal castle closed the door and refused to receive anyone who didn't come to talk about something important.

Amara arrived here. Seeing that so many people gathered around the door, she frowned and tried hard to find a way to get close to the door.

"Make way for me. I have something important to talk to the people inside.

Make way for me!" Amara shouted.

"Everyone comes here to talk to the people inside about something important. If you want to come over, join the queue." A lot of people looked at Amara unhappily.

Amara didn't care about that. She pushed others hard and succeeded in arriving at the door of the small house.

"You're such a shameless person! How can you jump the queue? We all line up here." Many people blamed Amara.

However, Amara didn't care about it.

Instead, she said arrogantly, "You line up here for nothing while I come to find the people in charge of the crystal castle for something important. I'm different from you."

After saying that, she knocked on the window of that small house. Then, the people inside opened the window a little and said coldly, "If you want to attend the banquet, wait outside the castle on the day when the banquet is held. If you're lucky enough, you will be able to go in. If you don't come to us for something important, leave now. We have no time to repeat this answer for a thousand times."

"I don't come to ask this question. I am the boss of TC International Hotel and I want to talk to the person in charge of the crystal castle." Amara directly told them who she was.

People inside immediately became serious, opened the window and looked at Amara carefully. Amara didn't look like a boss. Considering that she might say so because she really had something important to talk to them, people inside opened the door.

Amara turned her head, looked proudly at the people outside, and then entered the small house.

Chapter 368 Throw Her out of Here

"Are you really the boss of TC International Hotel?" The two staff members in the small house all looked at Amara with some suspicion.

Amara held her head high and said proudly, "Of course. If you don't believe what I said, you can search the internet to see if I'm the boss of TC International Hotel."

As she said so, she put her ID card on the table.

After giving each other a glance, one of them immediately searched the internet. After finding that Amara was indeed the current chairman of TC International Hotel, they immediately treated Amara with more respect.

"You're really the boss of TC International Hotel. I'm sorry for being rude to you just now. What can I do for you? You're an important person. In theory, we should have sent you an invitation. If we didn't, we can send you one now." One of them said with a smile.

It was the first time for Amara to be treated with such respect. She immediately put on airs. She sat upright as if many people were watching her.

"I certainly have received the invitation. I'm the boss of TC International Hotel." Amara said proudly.

In the opinion of the two staff, Amara was somewhat strange. She looked like a person who suddenly became rich instead of an upper-class person. However, considering that she was really the boss of TC International Hotel, they dared not say anything.

"Then what can we do for you?" One of the staff members asked.

"Ask the person in charge the crystal castle to come here. I want to talk to him. It's useless to talk to you." Amara said.

The two staff members looked at each. They didn't know Amara's purpose of coming here. However, considering her status, they should indeed ask the person in charge of crystal castle to come here.

"Wait here for a while, please. I'll make a phone call to the person in charge and ask him to come here." One of the staff members said, after which he went to make a phone call.

Amara sat on the sofa and thought triumphantly about the respect they showed to her. Looking at the people who were ignored through the window, she thought that it felt really good to become an upper-class person.

At the same time, she thought that it was wise of her to ask Casey to transfer the TC International Hotel to her instead of Edith.

Knowing how good it was to be an upper-class person, Amara was more determined that she couldn't let Casey stay in her home. Otherwise, if Casey incurred great troubles to her, she would lose everything she had now.

Before long, a man in a suit entered the small house.

"There are so many people outside. Why don't you ask them to go away?" That man asked.

"We had told them to go away, but no one listened. Therefore..." Both staff members were somewhat helpless. That man didn't continue to scold them. He looked at Amara and then said with a smile, "You're Ms. Amara, right? I have lived in TC International Hotel several times. The environment of the hotel is great. It could be said to be one of the best hotels in J City."

He was Coleman Booth, the person in charge of the preparations for the wedding of Casey and Edith. He was responsible for preparing everything used in the wedding and all the procedures of the wedding.

He worked for Charles and was very capable. Besides, he ranked relatively high in TY Group.

Compared with TY Group, TC International Hotel was but a small company. There was a wide gap between these two companies.

Considering Coleman's position in TY Group, he enjoyed a much higher social status than that of the boss of TC International Hotel.

However, Coleman didn't like to put on airs. When the boss of TC International Hotel came to find him for something important, he would naturally be polite. That was the reason why he came to meet Amara.

Seeing that he was so polite to her, Amara thought that she had a much higher status than him, so she still sat on the sofa with a proud face and said arrogantly, "My hotel is of course one of the best hotels in J City. I don't need you to tell me this."

Hearing this, Coleman immediately frowned. He didn't expect that Amara would treat him in such an arrogant way when he was so polite to her.

However, he said nothing about it, but came close to Amara and asked, "What can I do for you?"

Amara gave him a glance and asked, "You're preparing for Casey and Edith's wedding in crystal castle, right?"

Coleman was stunned for a while and then asked, "Yes. Why did you ask this?"

He didn't know that Amara was Edith's mother, so he was somewhat surprised when Amara mentioned that they were actually preparing for a wedding.

Thinking that Amara had got tips, he didn't deny it.

"You should know that I am the boss of TC International Hotel. You should attach some importance to my opinion. I come to you to ask you not to rent the crystal castle to Casey. They can't hold their wedding here. I'll double the money Casey paid to rent the crystal castle. I can afford it."

Amara spoke like the ladies on TV. She didn't know how much Casey paid to "rent" the crystal castle. However, considering that Casey would rent it for only one day, she believed that it wouldn't cost too much money.

Therefore, she offered to double the money.

Hearing this, Coleman was stunned.

Then, he gave Amara a suspicious glance and asked, "Are you sure that you're not kidding me?"

"I'm in no mood to joke with you. After all, I'm a boss of a hotel. Hurriedly give me an answer. As long as Casey isn't able to hold his wedding here, I'll definitely double the money he paid you." Amara said.

Coleman suddenly sneered and said, "Oh? Then give me the money now. Since you double the money, then you should give us 500 million. I'm afraid that it's enough to acquire several hotels that are like TC International Hotel. Can you afford it?"

Amara immediately stared at him and said, "You're fooling me. Casey just rent the crystal castle for one day. How is it possible that it cost him so much money? Don't go too far. 500 million? Why don't you rob the bank?"

Coleman sneered and said, "Who told you that Casey rented the crystal castle? Casey invested 250 million in constructing the crystal castle. You offered to double the money he paid. Then, shouldn't you give us 500 million?"

Amara was immediately thunderstruck. She froze.

"What...What are you talking about? Casey invested 250 million dollars in the construction of the crystal castle? How is it possible that he has so much money?"

Now, Coleman was sure that Amara was coming to make trouble. As a member of TY Group, there was no need for him to be afraid of a boss of a hotel.

He turned his head, looked at the two staff members and said, "She comes here to make trouble. Throw her out of here now. If she comes again in the future, don't treat her as a guest!"

Chapter 369 The Banquet Is Coming Outside the small house, a group of people were still discussing Amara who had just got in.

"Who is that woman? She must be very great as she can enter here, right?"

"Well, that person is so hateful. You didn't see her proud look when she just went in. It's really irritating."

"Then, what can you do? There must be a reason why she can go in. She is qualified to be proud."

"Well, who knows what she's doing there? Maybe she'll be driven out soon," someone said jealously.

As soon as the man spoke, the door of the small house opened, and then Amara was pushed out by the two staff. Amara almost lost her footing and fell to the ground.

"Dare you drive me out! I'm the boss of TC International Hotel. If you don't follow me, I'll buy your crystal castle later. Let's wait and see whether you dare to be arrogant at that time."

Up to this time, Amara did not believe that the crystal castle was built at a cost of 250 million.

When people around saw that Amara was driven out, they were all surprised. At that time, people who were very angry because of Amara saw that she was driven out, they immediately laughed and felt relieved.

"What I said just now, I said that she would be expelled. Now, isn't she really expelled?" a man said.

Amara turned and looked at the people who were gloating at her. She was angry and yelled, "What are you laughing at? I tell you, I'm very rich and have my own business. Don't you want to go into the crystal castle? If you dare to laugh at me again, I'll buy the crystal castle and I won't let any one of you go in. Let's see if you can still feel happy at that time."

"Do you know the cost of this crystal castle? Dare you say you will buy it. How ridiculous you are! The cost of the crystal castle is 250 million. Can you afford it?" One man immediately sneered.

"Don't fool me. How could it take 250 million to build such a poor place? Who are you fooling?" Amara's look was full of disbelief.

"The cost of the crystal castle is publicized on the Internet. If you don't believe it, you can check it by yourself. Who cheated you? How dare you say that you have a big business? You even don't have 200 million. Stop pretending to be rich," the man continued to speak. Hearing this, Amara vaguely guessed that the crystal castle might be as expensive as he said. Hate to Casey welled up inside her as she knew it. This guy had already given her TC International Hotel. How did he get so much money to build such an expensive castle?

However, no matter how rich Casey was, Amara also believed that Casey was a jinx, which was a fact that could not be changed by money. Moreover, under this premise, the richer Casey was, the more Amara hated him. She knew clearly that it was impossible to prevent Casey from holding wedding in this way. Everyone around was laughing at her, she had no choice but to try to push her way through the crowd.

"Aren't you going to buy the crystal castle? Why are you leaving," the man who spoke just now said again.

Amara kept her head down. With a gloomy look, she ran away in embarrassment.

After getting back, Amara called Casey and scolded him on the phone, asking him to give up the idea of holding the wedding.

Casey hung up directly when he heard Amara's words, completely ignoring her attitude.

Amara was extremely angry. Only at this time did she realize that she had no ability to stop Casey's decision.

Four days later.

The day that people all over J City were looking forward to was finally coming. During the day, the front of the crystal castle was packed solid. Coleman had to find twice as many security personnel to get the visitors to both sides of the gate of the castle, so as to ensure that the road at the gate was unobstructed, which could facilitate the ticket checking before the wedding in the evening.

The night came quickly, and the entire crystal castle became dazzling with the lights. From the outside, it was already the most beautiful scenery in J City at night.

At seven o'clock in the evening, someone successively walked into the crystal castle with invitations, and those who were stopped on both sides looked at the people who entered the crystal castle with envy.

"Albie, look, there are so many people around here. Look at their envious eyes. I have never been in the public gaze in this life. It makes me feel good." Leia and her family walked towards the entrance of the crystal castle. They showed a proud expression on their faces when looking at the people around who wanted to go in but couldn't.

"It seems that this banquet is really not something that everyone can attend casually. It must be someone with status and influence. Albie, after you go in later, you must seize the opportunity to make a definite effort to mix with them," Alan also said excitedly.

"Okay, I know Dad. How don't I understand this?" Albie looked around with a smile, as if he was walking on the Avenue of Stars.

After the Albie family entered, Leyla also walked in with the invitation letter. After seeing the crowd watching the crowd around her, she also looked agitated. She muttered, "Edith might just be able to watch in the crowd. Now, she is definitely not qualified to participate in this kind of banquet, and I finally feel proud and elated."

Not long after Leyla entered, Jakub and Sally arrived here. Their reactions were similar to those who got before them. They were all excited, and they were very proud of the envy of the people around them.

Later, some relatives of the Patel family who received the invitation letter and those classmates of Edith also went to the crystal castle one after another. They all thought they were particularly favored by the castle owner, so they were invited to attend this banquet. But after they entered the castle, they realized that this matter didn't seem to be what they thought.

There were several areas in the entire castle. Those who once had conflicts with Edith and Casey were all grouped together. At this time, they were the only ones in the entire castle.

Albie looked around with a puzzled look and found that most of the Patel family had been invited. He thought that his business had improved and was valued by the castle owner, so his family was invited. But now after seeing these people from the Patel family, he immediately realized that this was not what he thought.

Albie walked over and greeted those people from the Patel family. These people had the same idea as Albie. They were still a little embarrassed to see so many relatives of the Patel family coming.

Those classmates of Edith also felt little strange. Looking at the many invited people around them, they suddenly felt that there was nothing special about them.

Just when everyone was full of doubts, a figure appeared in the middle of the castle hall, slowly walking towards them. "Casey! How could it be you! Why did you show up here? Who let you in? Get out quickly, or I will call security!" Albie burst into anger when he saw Casey and shouted at him directly.

What qualifications did a wimp have to attend such a high-level banquet?

Casey smiled at the crowd and said, "Today is my wedding with Edith. Of course I have to be here."

Chapter 370 Today Is My Wedding with Edith

"Nonsense! Today is a banquet held by the owner of this crystal castle, how could it be your wedding? Casey, are you insane? Dare you make trouble here! Aren't afraid to anger the owner of the crystal castle?" Leia stared at Casey contemptuously, obviously not believing Casey's words.

"How dare you, a wimp, come here. You sneaked in, didn't you? I'll go to the security guards of crystal castle and let them arrest you!" Flora also looked at Casey angrily. Obviously, she didn't think Casey had the same qualifications as her to appear in such a magnificent place.

The relatives of the Patel family, and those of Edith's classmates, all began to mock Casey frantically, wishing to drown him with their words.

Casey had expected them to be like this a long time ago, which was why he let them in first.

"Everyone, believe it or not, today is indeed my wedding with Edith. Our wedding a few years ago was not satisfactory. This wedding is my compensation for Edith. I want you to see that it is a happy thing for Edith to marry me."

Casey clapped his hands and spoke in a clear voice.

Afterwards, on the crystal wall in the center of the crystal castle, a curtain fell and two crystal statues were exposed. It was Casey and Edith in formal suits and wedding dresses.

Everyone present was shocked by the two statues. They had never seen such a lifelike statue. No matter how bad their visions were, they could still tell that the two statues were just like Casey and Edith.

No matter how bored the owner of the crystal castle was, he would not put two statues of insignificant people here. That could only show that Casey was not lying. Today, perhaps it was really his wedding with Edith.

After knowing the truth of this banquet, the expressions of Albie and all the people suddenly became very gloomy. They thought that today's banquet was a springboard for them to move towards the upper class. They had never imagined that this was actually Casey and Edith's wedding.

The sense of psychological gap in their hearts made them impossible to be happy no matter what.

"Casey, don't you think the wedding back then was shameful? Go and see how many people are around now. Once they know that your wedding is held here, you will once again become the biggest joke in J City!"

At this moment, Amara and Nicholas walked in. Jennifer followed them, looking helpless. She wanted to bless Casey, but she could only follow them silently under Amara's authority.

Everyone turned their heads and looked towards Amara. After hearing what Amara said, they all laughed, thinking that Amara was right. Once people outside knew that it was Casey's wedding here, he would be laughed at by the whole J City.

Thinking about it this way, the emotions of the people who were still a little lost all eased a lot.

"Casey, I didn't expect you still have the courage to have another wedding. Is it possible that ignominy you suffered a few years ago is not enough for you?"

Albie looked at Casey with a sneer.

"What a foolish guy! I think he was born to be laughed at. He even said that it was a banquet at the crystal castle. I didn't expect it to be his wedding, which was really disappointing." Leyla also echoed in a mocking tone.

Casey looked at the crowd with contempt, laughed, and asked, "Is it a shame to have a wedding in crystal castle? Is it not because they want to get in that there are so many people outside? Who can hold a wedding here? What's the basis for me to be laughed at?"

Casey's words were like punch after punch, hammering hard at Albie's and others' self-righteousness and self-deception in their hearts, making them realize how ridiculous their thoughts were.

When they received the invitation letter, all of them were excited and felt that they must be lucky enough to be invited to the crystal castle banquet. However, after knowing that it was Casey's wedding here, they said that Casey would be humiliated again.

It was contradictory. A person who could hold a wedding in such a crystal castle would only be envied by others.

They would say such words, but it was only because of their stereotypes of Casey, but Casey's words made them sober. Now Casey was no longer the wimp in their eyes.

They were elated because they were invited, and Casey was the one who invited them. Among the people present, if it weren't for being invited by Casey, none of them could enter the crystal castle with their own ability.

After realizing it, their looks all turned to be gloomy. Once the person pretending to be asleep was awakened, he would face endless embarrassment.

"Don't be complacent. Aren't you just renting someone's venue? You can rent it, and so can we. You are so arrogant, like this crystal castle belongs to you," Leyla muttered.

Others had the same idea as Leyla.

After being embarrassed, they quickly found a way to demean Casey.

"Casey, I don't care how you got the money to build this crystal castle worth more than 200 million. Even if you spend one billion to make something, I won't let you enter my family again! Even today's wedding is not a joke, you don't want to get my approval again!" Amara shouted at this moment.

Albie, who originally wanted to say it was not amazing that Casey could rent a crystal castle for a wedding, was choked all of a sudden when heard what Amara said.

He looked at Amara in disbelief. She actually said that this crystal castle was built by Casey at a cost of more than 200 million, which made him feel a little unbelievable.

The people around Albie had the same reaction as him, and they were all shocked by the amount of money Amara said.

"I don't need your approval, I only need Edith's approval," Casey said lightly, "I hope you will have a good time at this wedding."

After speaking, Casey turned and went inside to prepare for the ceremony later. Seeing Casey leaving, everyone in the Patel family surrounded Amara and Nicholas quickly.

"You said that this crystal castle was built by Casey at a cost of more than 200 million? Isn't he renting it?" Sally asked.

"Yeah, are you cooperating with Casey to lie to us? How could Casey have more than 200 million. How shameless you are!" Leia said and curled her lips.

"This is definitely not built by Casey. It is absolutely impossible. Do you think that more than two 200 million is a joke? If he is so rich, would he move to live in our community?" Alan also questioned. Amara glanced at everyone disdainfully, and said, "If it is rented by him, go and see whether you can rent it. Can't rich men live in your community? The rich still wear cheap clothes. As for the goods... Do you stipulate that the rich must wear expensive clothes? This is the typical thinking of the poor. Don't stand with me, you make me embarrassed."

Everyone was flushed by Amara's words, and there was no chance to refute it. They never expected Amara to be so right and confident, which was not like her before.

Although she was very opposed to Casey's holding this wedding, Amara knew that she had no chance to stop Casey. And Casey spent more than 200 million to build this crystal castle, so the person invited to the wedding today would definitely be influential. In order to open her eyes, she would also watch the wedding here today.

"Well, don't believe her. She acted with Casey here. How could Casey have more than 200 million? You see, there are not many people who came to this wedding today, only we are here. If Casey is so capable, he must invite some great people with status and reputation, but you see, there is no one here, so they must be lying," Leia said as if she looked through the truth.

At this moment, a band walked into the hall of the castle. The leader stopped, and then shouted in a very high voice, "It's time for the wedding to begin. Let's welcome the special guests of this wedding!"

Chapter 371 No One Gave Casey Gifts

The cheerful music rang, and then, people from the gate of the castle walked in one after another.

Everyone from the Patel family and Edith's classmates looked at the door with confusion. Leia was a little embarrassed. It turned out that Casey actually invited others, but they came in too early.

At this time, the people who walked into the crystal castle were all well-dressed, with aloof temperament, and it was easy to know that they were influential men. After those people entered the crystal castle, they all made admiring sounds when they saw the magnificent hall. These people were all respectable men in J City, and had made great achievements in all walks of life. A large part of them were executives of various companies under the name of TY Group.

They knew that it was the wedding of Casey and Edith that was held here tonight, so after seeing the statue on the center wall of the crystal castle, they were not surprised, but amazed.

Obviously, the splendor of the crystal castle and the splendor of the statue had completely impressed them.

Everyone from the Patel family and Edith's classmates looked at each of these people who came in more glorious than them, and they couldn't help showing an expression full of jealousy.

"Tut-tut, these people look decent, but I have never heard of any of them. It can only show that these people are not very powerful people. It's not a big deal for Casey to invite such a group of people," Leyla tried her best to make herself balance.

"That's right, none of them look familiar. If Casey really has 200 million dollars, how can he only know such a group of people that none of them are famous? I think there must be something tricky. Anyway, I don't believe the crystal castle was built by Casey," Leia echoed. The rest of the people were also unwilling to believe that Casey had so much money. They felt it was unreasonable that the wimp who they had always looked down upon could have so much money.

After hearing what they said, Amara showed a trace of contempt on her face. After so many things, Amara was willing to believe that Casey had so much money, not to mention that Casey was from the Davies family. He could come back safely this time, which showed that he probably got a lot of benefits from the Davies family.

But she was very upset with Casey now, so she didn't want to explain for Casey. Since taking over the TC International Hotel, her vision had been improved a bit. At least many times, she didn't bother to argue with these relatives of the Patel family.

"Look at those people who came to Casey's wedding, none of them brought gifts. Maybe these people were here to see this crystal castle. They didn't come to attend the wedding specifically at all," Sally said.

"What's so good about Casey's wedding? I really don't know what Casey is thinking about. The wedding a few years ago was embarrassing enough. If it gets messed up this time, he won't be able to live in J City in the future," Leia said.

At this time, Albie looked a little gloomy, because among the people who just came in, he saw the manager he wanted to talk about business with this time, and he also greet that person, but that guy didn't pay attention to him. The people who were coming in now may not be known to the elders like Alan, but Albie knew some of them. At any rate, he had been the chairman of the board for a period of time before, and he still knew some of the elites in J City.

Many of these people who came in were bigwigs in the specific industry. In J City, Albie had never heard of anyone who could invite so many elites to its wedding.

After the invited people came in, they were arranged to the designated area. The entire castle hall was also bustling with the arrival of these people. The relatives of the Patel family and Edith's classmates seemed a little unremarkable.

After a while, another group of people came in outside the castle. These people were lucky to be selected by Coleman. The reason Casey allowed these people to come in was naturally that he wanted someone to tell everyone in J City about the wedding. These people who went out of their way to enter the castle were naturally the best means of publicity. They would surely spread the incident throughout the city after watching the wedding of Casey and Edith today.

However, when these people came in and discovered that Casey and Edith's wedding were taking place here, they were all surprised.

"Isn't Casey the famous wimp in J City? Why is his wedding held here?"

"My God, Casey can hold a wedding in such a place. How romantic!"

"Hasn't Casey been married before? Why is he holding wedding again? Is he second married?"

"What second marriage? Didn't you see the statue above? The bride is obviously Edith. It is estimated that the wedding was not well done that year, so he holds a wedding again."

...

At this time, the entire castle was already crowded with people, but the front area was still empty, and no one knew what that area was for.

Leia saw the group of people who had attended the wedding later. After hearing their discussion, as if she had found the organization, Leia immediately leaned towards those people over there.

"You don't know that this is Casey's wedding, right? Do you know why he didn't tell you before you came in? That's because he was afraid that if he told you in advance, no one would attend his wedding," Leia said solemnly.

Those people were a little surprised listening to Leia's words, but they felt that if Casey announced in advance that this was his wedding, there would only be more people coming. After all, everyone wanted to see what the wedding held by the wimp was like.

When Sally saw Leia go to talk to those people, she immediately joined her and said, "Moreover, none of the people who came to this wedding today gave him gifts. Those people came in to watch the show, and none of them really came for Casey's wedding."

"Yes, you are right. There are no powerful men among the people present. It's ridiculous that Casey can't even invite a big person in such a high-level place," Leia continued.

Those who didn't know the truth suddenly had a trace of contempt for Casey when they heard the words of the two people.

Seeing everyone starting to belittle Casey, both Leia and Sally showed complacency.

At this moment, the band standing at the door suddenly played a loud sound of music.

Immediately afterwards, a loud voice echoed in the castle hall.

"Welcome Doctor Owen, the gifts he brought were two millennium ginseng, a top-quality Ganoderma lucidum, and a Saussure involucrate. Wish the couple a happy marriage and healthy babies early!"

Leia and Sally just said that no one gave Casey a gift, and then someone gave him such valuable and marketable Panax ginseng and Ganoderma lucidum, which was undoubtedly the best refutation to their words.

Owen and Luna walked towards the front area of the hall, and Luna was a little sad.

"Well, it's just a doctor, it's not difficult to know such a person," Sally muttered.

As soon as her voice fell, the penetrating voice of the man standing at the door sounded again.

"Welcome Hugo Gary, the master of the Gary family, the gifts he brought were five pieces of court porcelain in Tang Dynasty, three masterpieces in Song Dynasty, and 880,000 dollars!"

Chapter 372 Congratulations from All Kinds of People

Hugo took his family and walked in from the gate of the castle. He held his head high and looked very arrogant, as if attending Casey's wedding was something to be proud of.

"It turned out to be the heat of the Gary family. Casey was able to invite the head of the Gary family to his wedding, which is amazing!"

"My God, the head of the Gary family even came to Casey's wedding and gave him such an expensive gift. I'm afraid there are not many people who can get this kind of treatment in J City."

"He is also very powerful that he is able to invite Doctor Owen. His medical skill is rare in the world. Being able to be friends with a doctor like Owen is also a very amazing."

...

Both Leia and Sally looked at the Gary family walking towards the front area with frustration. They really couldn't figure out how Casey could invite such a powerful man here.

Albie stared at Owen and the Gary family and said to himself, "If I remember correctly, Casey has become the friends of the head of the Gary family and Owen by accidents. It's no surprise that Casey can ask them over."

After Hugo walked to the front and saw Owen, he quickly greeted him with enthusiasm.

For Hugo, it was a great honor to attend Casey's wedding, and Casey's wedding was definitely a very high-quality social occasion. With Casey's status, all the people invited were definitely people with influence and prestige. He also happened to be able to take this opportunity to expand his contacts. If Albie knew that Hugo came here with the same idea as him, he would definitely be shocked. And Albie's idea could not be realized, while Hugo could really make many friends at Casey's wedding.

"Well, only Owen and the head of the Gary family. Casey may only can invite them in J City. These two have had intersections with him before. It couldn't show anything, although Owen and Hugo were here. Only by inviting other powerful people here, can it show he is powerful," Alan said in an exaggerated tone to cover up his jealousy.

"Welcome Conor, his gift is a bar transfer contract with one million in cash as the gift!"

"Welcome Charles, the chairman of TY Group, his gift is ten sets of real estate with one million dollars!"

At this time, the voice of the person at the door rang again, causing an uproar in the people again.

"It turned out to be Conor! He's the emperor of the Underground World in J City!"

"My God, the chairman of the TY Group is here. How capable is Casey? Even people of this level are at his wedding!"

The relatives of the Patel family suddenly were extremely shocked.

Didn't it mean that only Owen and Hugo would be Casey's wedding?

Why were the emperor of the Underground World and the chairman of TY Group here now?

They were not the people that ordinary people could get to know.

Albie stared blankly at Conor and Charles, who were walking towards the front. He clenched his both fists immediately. Some time ago, when he tried to find a way out, he wanted to go to Conor. During this period of time, he also went to asked Charles for help. However, the end result was that he would never see these two bigwigs. He also knew that it was normal for them not to meet him.

But now both of them came to Casey's wedding, which made a bit of envy arose in Albie.

How could Casey get the two big guys to attend the wedding and send him such valuable gifts? It was hard for him to see them.

He was unconvinced, but he was helpless. A sense of frustration rose from the bottom of his heart, making his eyes dim.

But it was not the end, and it was too early for Albie to be frustrated now.

"Welcome Leonardo who is from Yutian County. His gifts are ten pairs of jade bracelets, ten pieces of excellent jade, one carved jade, and 8.8 million dollars!" People in J City were not familiar with Leonardo's name, but it was easy to know that he was a successful man from his gifts.

All the relatives of Patel family knew that Amara was from Yutian County, so they had heard about Leonardo. They didn't expect that the bigwig in Yutian County would attend Casey's wedding. How great Casey was that Leonardo took him so seriously?

At this time, the relatives of the Patel family were already quiet, and they began to realize that Casey was not as simple as they thought.

"Welcome Stone Eden from Eglor County. His gifts are a limited edition racing car and a million dollars!"

It was another name that people present hadn't heard of. But it must be a powerful guy as he could give Casey such a gift.

When Jakub and Sally heard the name, they were all stiff, because where Nyla went to was Eglor County. They still heard about Stone, the emperor of the Underground World in Eglor County. They were a little stunned, why could Casey even invite the emperor of the Underground World in Eglor County here?

How many good friends did this guy have?

Stone walked toward the front with excitement. After seeing Conor and others who were already waiting there, he immediately greeted them.

"Welcome Dexter Green from QY City. His gift was 100,000 dollars!"

After Stone entered, Dexter took Scarlett to the gate of the castle. Scarlett walked toward the front with an unhappy look. Attending Casey's wedding naturally made her quite unhappy.

After everyone heard the gift from Dexter, they immediately began to wonder if Dexter was not a powerful man, so he only gave Casey 100,000 dollars as a gift. After all, compared with the previous ones, 100,000 dollars was indeed a little too cheap.

They didn't know that the reason why Dexter only gave 100,000 dollars was Scarlett's request. In Scarlett's view, coming to Casey's wedding was to see her rival snatch Casey. Sending 100,000 was her bottom line.

When they came, Scarlett also asked Dexter to write "Send his daughter to Casey" on the gift list. Dexter disagreed. He still remembered what Casey said to him when he left last time. If he really wrote such a sentence, Casey wouldn't give them a chance to return to QY City. "Finally, there's a man with no background. It seems that not all of Casey's acquaintances are bigwigs," Leia could only comfort herself in this way.

"That's the head of the Green family in QY City. He is no worse than the previous ones. There must be a reason why he only sent 100,000 dollars. Didn't you see the girl next to him with such a gloomy look? She is his daughter. In my opinion, it was his daughter who fell in love with Casey. But Casey held the wedding with someone else, so she was jealous and gave Casey so little money," a person who knew Dexter said.

Leia was dumbfounded immediately, she didn't expect Dexter to be a powerful person she would never have been able to reach.

"Welcome Natan, the chairman of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce from B City. His gift is 50 million dollars!"

"Welcome Logan, the owner of Yunxi Martial Club from B City. His gift is a pair of antithetical couplet!"

Natan and Logan walked into the castle together, with smiles on their faces.

The most indispensable thing Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce lacked was money, so he usually gave others money as gift. And Natan was too lazy to pick gifts, so he directly prepared 50 million dollars to give Casey as a gift.

Although Logan was not short of money, he was a very stingy person, and his relationship with Casey was extraordinary, so when he came, he wrote a set of antithetical couplet and took it as a gift.

He didn't feel ashamed. After all, people who practiced martial arts didn't pay much attention to others' view.

Both of them came from B City, but the gifts they gave were very different, and they immediately attracted everyone's attention.

However, most of them were still scared by the 50 million dollars from the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. This was the first time they had seen someone take so much money as a gift.

Charles and the others, who were already waiting in front, all rushed to greet Natan and Logan when seeing them. For them, these two were also bigwigs. It was a good thing that they could make friends with Natan and Logan at this time.

The relatives of the Patel family looked at Natan who walked in with shock. The voice just lingered in their minds.

"Five...50 million dollars? Is it true or false, how could someone give 50 million as a gift?" Sally couldn't believe it.

At this time, everyone in the Patel family and Edith's classmates had already understood that they were nothing compared to Casey. They were not even qualified to shine shoes for the people Casey knew. How dare they say that Casey was a wimp.

"Also... will anyone else come? These two should be the last. Even if there is someone else, its gift shouldn't be more than fifty million, right?" Leia muttered, with both eyes windened.

At this time, a group of people walked in from the gate of the castle. These people were so powerful that it was easy to know they were not ordinary people. Many of them looked more powerful than those who just entered.

"Welcome the Davies family from B City. The gift is 100 million dollars!"

Chapter 373 I'm Willing to Turn the World Over for You

The Davies family!

100 million dollars!

These two phrases echoed in everyone's ears, and everyone in the castle was silent.

Jordan led members of the Davies family to walk inside, because the person at the door shouted something so shocking that everyone didn't dare to breathe too loudly.

Only the footsteps of the Davies family remained in the entire castle.

Priya walked behind Jordan, and after seeing the sculptures of Casey and Edith right in front of her, she felt a trace of helplessness, regret, and jealousy in her heart.

When everyone in the Davies family walked to the forefront area, everyone present seemed relieved, and they all breathed a long sigh of relief. The oppression the Davies family gave them just now was too strong, which was the momentum of real leaders. In the eyes of these people, they were nothing but ants.

"The Davies family in B City is here. I must be dreaming today. This is really shocking!"

"My god, 100 million dollars. I am afraid that only a family like the Davies family can take so much money as a gift."

"The Davies family! The Davies family! Casey is also surnamed Davies, is it possible..."

There was an expression of horror on everyone's faces, and they had vaguely guessed something in their hearts. Everyone in the Patel family looked forward with blank looks. There was an indescribable complex emotion in their hearts.

Whether it was Albie or Leyla or the Patel family, they had been deeply shocked by the people invited by Casey at this time.

In the front most area, everyone there was beyond their reach. These people were at a level that they couldn't touch. Casey had such a strong network, even the Davies family gave him 100 million as a gift on the day of his wedding, but they called Casey wimp for so many years.

They even could not get to know one of the people that Casey had invited. If Casey was really wimp, then they should not live in the world.

"Is there really no comparability between me and Casey? The Davies family in B City, Casey. No wonder he and I have been fighting for so long, but I was the one who suffered in the end. It turns out that he never regarded me as an opponent. "A strong sense of frustration developed in Albie's heart. Only at this time did he fully realize how stupid he was before.

Leyla also stared at the people in front of her in a daze, repeating the words "Casey, the Davies family" in her mouth, and she realized something in her mind.

"He, he is from the Davies family. No wonder Jay was so afraid of him when he was in QY City. No wonder Y Real Estate provoke him and went bankrupt within two days. Casey is from the Davies family! How stupid I was before. I even provoked him several times, even if he kills me, I'm afraid no one will know about it, right?"

Thinking of this, Leyla shuddered, and fear arose in her heart.

Alan, Jakob, Leia and Sally also realized at this time that Casey must have a close relationship with the Davies family, otherwise the Davies family would not give him such a precious gift.

And Casey was also surnamed Davies, and there was only one relationship between Casey and the Davies family they could think of.

"How terrible! Casey turned out to be from the Davies family. We treated him in a very rude way before. Will he kill us all in a rage?" Leia panicked.

Albie gave a wry smile and said, "What's sadder than it is that he has always regarded us as ants. I'm afraid he doesn't bother to care about us at all."

When the people around heard Albie's words, they all sighed. It turned out that they didn't even have the qualifications to let Casey pay attention. With this thinking, what they did before was probably a joke in Casey's eyes.

Amara also looked at the people in the Davies family with a little surprise, and took a deep breath. She was still a little shocked.

The moment when the Davies family appeared, it kind of shaken Amara's thoughts.

"No, even if he becomes the real heir of the Davies family now, he is still a jinx. No matter how powerful he is, it will not do any good to our family. On the contrary, he will only bring endless disasters to our family. I can't be deceived by his temporary success, otherwise my family will suffer a lot when he gets in trouble."

Amara tried her best to comfort herself, but the shock in her heart couldn't be suppressed.

After the Davies family arrived, the gate of the castle was closed, which also meant that today's last guests had arrived, and it was time for bridegroom and the bride to appear.

As the music changed, everyone's attention fell on the crystal platform in front of them, and Casey took Edith's hand and slowly walked out of it.

Edith wore an amazing wedding dress with a smile on her face, like a princess walking out of a fairy tale world, gentle and dazzling.

Casey was also in a formal suit. After his hair had been taken care of, he became radiant, and he wasn't worse than the prince in the fairy tale world. The two did make a beautiful couple and they walked in front of everyone.

Everyone was shocked by the light they carried at the moment. Many people took out their phones to record this sacred and beautiful moment.

At this time, Howard, who was standing in the forefront area, was amazed at Edith's beauty.

The wedding dress he designed fitted perfectly with the crystal castle. After tonight, Edith's beauty would attract the world's attention, and as the designer of Edith's wedding dress, he would become famous all over the world. .

It was conceivable how many top rich people would come to him to design clothes in the future, and his fate would also change because of the wedding of Casey and Edith.

Edith looked at the envious eyes of everyone in the audience, and she was also excited.

Casey once said that he would make changes for her. Now he had done it. She believed that no one would mock her because of Casey's reputation after today. Everyone would only envy her. "Thank you for attending to my wedding today. In the past few years, my wife has been under a lot of pressure and grievances because of me. I promised her that I will change everything for her.

Today's wedding is my proof to everyone. I want everyone to know that I, Casey, can give Edith a lifetime of happiness!" Casey also exclaimed excitedly.

After hearing Casey's words, everyone immediately began to applaud.

At this moment, Edith was indeed the happiest person in the world.

Casey turned around, looked at Edith, with a sincere and expressive look, and asked, "Would you like to live with me for better for worse til death do us part" "I do!" Edith yelled without hesitation.

A contented smile appeared on Casey's face, and then he hugged Edith, leaned in her ear, and whispered, "For you, I am willing to overthrow the whole world."

Deep kiss.

The whole assembly clapped and cheered!

Chapter 374 Innocent Girl

Outside the crystal castle.

Although the castle gate had been closed, the people surrounding the castle still hadn't dispersed.

Everyone was still looking forward to seeing the scene inside the castle.

And even if they didn't go in, the outside of the crystal castle tonight was also dazzling with lights. Just from the outside, it was still the most beautiful night scene of J City.

"I really want to go in and take a look. Have you seen it just now? It seems that the head of the Gary family has entered."

"It's not only the head of the Gary family. Conor, who is famous in J City also appeared. The one who walked in with him was a very temperamental middle-aged man. I just remembered that that person looks very similar to the chairman of the TY Group, and then I checked it and found out that it really is him."

"My God, are the guests for the banquet tonight so powerful?"

"Have any of you noticed the people who went in last? I haven't heard of those people in J City, but they give me the feeling that they are much better than Conor and the head of the Gary family. Those people must be bigwigs from somewhere."

"Who is the owner of this crystal castle? I really want to go in and take a look. Why would I not have such good luck? I'm so angry."

"The owner of this crystal castle is absolutely extraordinary. As he can invite so many bigwigs, it has already explained his identity. These bigwigs will definitely not come to the banquet of an mediocre person."

...

While everyone was talking about it, a projection suddenly appeared on the crystal wall of the crystal castle. On the projection, it was the scene where Casey and Edith were kissing each other.

"Look, there are pictures on the crystal wall!" One person exclaimed, and everyone looked at the crystal wall.

"My God, are these two people holding a wedding? I thought it was a banquet inside!"

"That bride is too beautiful, she is like a princess in a fairy tale!"

Everyone's first reaction after seeing the screen was to admire Edith's beauty.

But soon, a careful person discovered that the two people in the picture were familiar.

"Isn't that man Casey! That bride is Edith!" a person exclaimed.

"It turned out to be that the wedding of Casey and Edith is going on in this crystal castle? Isn't this too shocking?"

"Didn't Casey and Edith have their wedding before? And this is the crystal castle. How could they hold a wedding in this place? Isn't it fake?"

"It's not fake. This is indeed a live projection. Look at the display above. Oh my God, it is the wedding of Casey and Edith inside the crystal castle. It's too extravagant!"

"Damn, didn't you say Casey is a wimp? How could he afford a wedding in a place like this?"

"Not only does he hold a wedding here, but the people who attend his wedding are all bigwigs. How could this kind of people be a wimp? It seems that we misunderstood him before. To be honest, I'm jealous of him."

"Damn, I should have made friends with Casey back then, maybe I can still get a spot in it to watch the wedding process. I deeply regret."

"Look at the people who come to their wedding. How can you be friends with them, they may not care about you."

...

The projection on the crystal wall drew an overwhelming discussion among those outside. No one had expected that what happened here was Casey's wedding.

The guy who had always been treated as a wimp by them, at this time invited so many powerful and decent people to come to his wedding in the crystal castle, which was far beyond the ability of ordinary people.

It was conceivable that after tonight, no one would call Casey by the name of wimp. When people mentioned Casey in the future, they would think of this dreamlike wedding tonight and the top-notch people who came to the wedding.

On the screen of the crystal wall, after Casey and Edith kissed, they turned to look at everyone, both of them were filled with happy smiles. At this moment, they two were the happiest people in the world.

"I really envy them, they are simply the prince and the princess."

"If I can hold a wedding like this, it doesn't matter even if it consumes ten years of my life."

"You liars, didn't you say that Casey is an out-and-out wimp? He is so handsome, and he can hold such a dream wedding for his wife, I feel that he is the best man in the world!"

...

Countless fireworks lifted into the sky, rendering the entire sky colorful and dazzling.

Everyone was immersed in this feast, and everyone stared enviously at the beautiful couple on the crystal wall, and there was a burst of warmth in their eyes.

Some were happy and some were sad.

At this time, in a cafe opposite the crystal castle, on the third floor, by the window.

Lily sat by the window, staring at the two people on the opposite crystal wall and the dazzling fireworks in the sky, tears streaming out uncontrollably.

"Casey, bastard, bastard, bitch, how can you just leave me and marry another woman? I love you so much, am I just ignored by you?"

Lily was crying and muttering to herself, the look of sorrow was very distressing. Although she followed Natan to J City, in the end she failed to summon the courage to enter the castle and watch Casey and Edith's wedding in person. Although she had said that she would consider treating Casey as her brother last time, she only found out after returning that it was not easy to give up her feelings for Casey. It was not as simple as being a sister.

Perhaps Lily had been innocent since she was a child, but once such a girl had fallen in love with someone, she may love this man for a lifetime. It is very difficult for her to change her feeling.

After so many days of thinking, Lily felt that she still couldn't just give up Casey. She felt that she would have some relationship with Casey in her life. But Casey's wedding with Edith now was enough to show Casey's love for Edith. She took the initiative to tempt Casey as before, but Casey still hadn't changed the slightest because of himself.

She already knew that it was impossible for Casey to change his mind. She knew very well that if she really went to Casey's wedding, she would definitely not help crying, then she would be laughed at by others. She didn't want others to see her crying, so she didn't enter the castle with Natan. The waiter saw that Lily was crying so sadly, so he came over to comfort her, "Miss, may I ask what difficulties you have encountered? In fact, there are no hardships in life. Lighten up, it doesn't matter. "

Lily heard the waiter's words, and immediately glared at him and cursed, "Get out!"

The waiter was so scared that he quickly left from Lily's side, with a speechless expression on his face, thinking, 'I comforted you, but you even let me go. You deserves your sadness.' Lily felt that others did not feel the pain in her heart, so they were not qualified to let her be positive.

After a while, Lily stopped crying, and her temperament changed a bit. She glanced at the crystal wall outside the window again, her eyes were also narrowed, and there was a hint of depth in her eyes that did not belong to her. "Why should I miss him like this? Even if he is married, he can still get a divorce. My task now is not to let Casey fall in love with me, but to deal with the woman who married Casey."

"Since I've all been in J City, I will live in this place for a while and see what the place where my lover lives is."

"By the way, try to know more about Casey's wife, see why she is worthy of having Casey. I can also have Casey!"

After speaking to herself, Lily had a sordid smile on her face.

That innocent girl at the time had become a thing of the past...

Chapter 375 A Sensation in The City

The second floor of crystal castle.

Casey grabbed Edith with a blushing face and walked up.

After the deep kiss just now, Casey followed the process of the ceremony, under everyone's attention, once again carried out those parts of a normal wedding.

Then there was a toast. Casey and Edith both drank a lot, and by the end of the wedding, they were already a little drunk.

Edith was not good at drinking, but because she was too excited today, she had never been drunk.

Casey, who was drunk, naturally didn't care about where the guests went after the wedding. After talking to Coleman, he dragged Edith up to the second floor to the room Casey had carefully prepared for Edith.

He had more important things to do.

Without the noise in their ears, both of them felt a burst of heat radiating from their bodies, and they began to feel dizzy.

Edith looked at Casey with a blushing face, her lips were beautiful, and she sat on the side of the bed cutely.

Casey took off his coat, looked down at Edith who was sitting next to the bed, and joked, "My wife, what are you doing here, why don't you lie down and sleep?"

Edith was stunned for a moment. A trace of sullen appeared on her face, and she said, "Just sleep like this, did you forget something?"

"Forgot what? The wedding is over, shouldn't we sleep?" Casey pretended not to understand.

Edith stood up immediately, stared at Casey, put her arms around his waist, and said, "Well, you haven't finished your assignment today. You must do your assignment before you can sleep, otherwise you can never sleep."

"Assignment? What assignment?"

Edith gave a smirk and said, "An assignment that needs my help."

After that, she turned around and pushed Casey down on the bed, with a delectable expression and an enchanting posture.

"Tonight, you have to cooperate with me. I will definitely let you finish your assignment."

After speaking, Edith rushed towards Casey.

The next day.

The wedding of Casey and Edith in the crystal castle spread among people at a flying speed. In just one day, almost all the people in J City knew what happened in the crystal castle last night. The people who entered the castle that day took a lot of videos. These videos were posted on a certain app, and they quickly became popular in J City.

For a while, everyone started talking about Casey and Edith again, just like they did in the past.

It was just that this time Casey was no longer a wimp, and Edith was no longer the poor woman who married a wretched man.

They became a couple that everyone in J City admired. Those who wrote novels on the theme of crystal castle even directly began to use their names as the protagonists, telling the beautiful love story about crystal castle in their minds. The gifts and money given by those who came to the wedding undoubtedly became the hottest topic among the hot topics.

Taking 100 million dollars as a gift had refreshed everyone's understanding of cash gift. This was the first time they had heard of someone giving 100 million dollars as a gift.

But when they knew that the 100 million was given by the Davies family in B City, they were a little relieved. With the capital of the Davies family, they could indeed afford so much money.

Subsequently, the gift of the Davies family in B City became a very hot topic. There were various speculations about the relationship between Casey and the Davies family in B City, but because people were so in awe of the Davies family, no one dared to guess that Casey was the head of the Davies family.

This wedding also allowed everyone to see Casey's contacts. Those awe-inspiring names one after another belonged to the people that they usually couldn't touch at all, but many of those people attended Casey's wedding, which was enough to show how great Casey was.

This incident had had a profound impact on the relatives of the Patel family. After knowing that Casey was so powerful, everyone in the Patel family was full of regrets. At that time, there were still many people who wanted to apologize to Casey. Unfortunately, they even couldn't see Casey.

Albie felt completely frustrated, and since the wedding, he had been in a slump again. The business that had been negotiated before had turned horrible. With the shock to him by the wedding, it was impossible for his family to get development.

While everyone was talking about the wedding in crystal castle, Casey and Edith, who were the parties, spent a few days relaxing in the castle.

They didn't care about the discussions of those outsiders at all. At this time, they just wanted to stay in their own world and enjoy the sweetness that belonged to them.

Edith was very clingy to Casey in the past few days, because she knew that after the wedding, Casey had more important things to do, and he would leave. Since Casey was still in J City, she had to enjoy the time when she had full possession of Casey.

Casey also very wittily rejected those people who wanted to find him after the wedding, and seriously accompanied Edith.

But the happy time was always short. A few days passed quickly. Casey had his own things to do and Edith's company also needs to manage. So after a few days in the crystal castle, they moved out of the castle..

"When I finish this work, I will definitely give you a satisfactory honeymoon trip." Casey made a serious promise to Edith. Although this wedding made the whole J City a sensation, Amara still did not change her mind. She still shut Casey out, but after seeing the Davies family at the wedding, her attitude became obviously softer.

Casey had already planned to go to S City to find the person Logan mentioned, and asked him about Guanling. Therefore, he asked Edith to stay home during his absence, so that she could find a chance to persuade Amara.

After everyone's views on Casey had changed, there was still some hope to change Amara's attitude towards Casey. Starry Night Club.

Casey and Logan were sitting in front of the bar, with wine in front of both of them. At this time, the club hadn't opened yet, and there were only two of them in the entire hall.

"Are you sure you want to find that person? Guanling is not as simple as you think. Anyone who gets involved in Guanling will not end well in the end. Are you sure you want to go?" Logan persuaded Casey again.

Casey smiled and drank a glass of wine, and said, "You know me. I will never change what I have decided."

Logan shook his head helplessly, and said, "Well, I know that I can't persuade you, I won't waste energy talking about this to you."

"Tell me why you let me stay in J City for a few days. You are going to S City to find the person I told you about. Do you want me to stay to protect your wife?" "If you can, naturally it is better. But the most important reason why I want you to stay is to play your role as the master of the Yunxi Martial Club," Casey said. "Oh? What role can I play?" Logan asked suspiciously. "Help Conor and others improve their strength." Casey smiled faintly.

Chapter 376 Training Program

"It turns out I was kept stay for the trifles. So silly that I was hoping for a good treat from you." Logan rolled his eyes at Casey as a feedback of such arrangement.

Casey smiled and said, "Conor indeed is somebody here across J City. Trust me, he won't take your help for nothing." The reason he brought up the matter was the strength of Conor was relatively weak for the time being compared to that of B City.

J City was the place where Edith lived and it was natural that Casey wanted it to be safe. He had meant to strengthen Conor's power since that issue with Tyler and was just waiting for the right moment.

This time, Logan's coming for the wedding was a great opportunity to pop the request. With experienced background, all Logan had to do was pointing out the right way for them--- working out the most suitable improvement plan. Casey knew that it wouldn't take long for the musclemen of Conor to match the ability of Davies family's in B City.

Before long, Casey gathered Conor and Morgan together to talk about his plan. "Casey, please try to have some faith in us, OK? Though we are not that powerful as you, we still have our name over the community. For what I see, that was totally unnecessary. And whether the 'coach' could get the better of me is an open question."

After a glance at the man standing beside Casey, Morgan was so sure of himself that he did not show any respect to Logan.

Well, the name of Yunxi Martial Club from B City was not unfamiliar with Conor. And the introduction of the man on the wedding day was Logan, so it was highly possible the man was the owner of Yunxi Martial Club.

Morgan's reckless behavior just made himself an idiot in the mind of Conor. Trying to warm Morgan to watch his tongue, Conor gave him a little yank in secret.

Reluctantly, stupid as a man could be, Morgan got no clue but turned around to Conor in confuse, "What?"

Conor gave up the idea to warm the fellow and said, "Nothing, just an accident."

Casey shot a snapping glance at Morgan, grumbling to himself, "All the time he along with Conor in J City really taught him a lot, huh? The guy is seriously going to walk on air if there is nobody to give him a lesson."

"Well, you think the man didn't have what it takes to be your coach?" Casey talked towards Morgan in sulk.

Morgan smiled at Casey and said,

“That’s not my saying. After all he is your friend and a friend deserves some nice words.”

What?! Casey snapped at those words and bang on the table---he himself turned out to be the one being disrespectful?!

“A funny young man,” Logan thought when he took a look at Morgan, “For so many years, countless people in B City from the notable and famous family are trying the best to get their offspring into Yunxi Martial Club for wushu practice and will go to great lengths to get just one place being my disciple. This guy treating me so lightly does not the right courtesy to the boss of Yunxi Martial Club .”

He stood right up and walked up to Morgan, “You think I’m no better than you?”

Morgan showed off his muscle and answered proudly, “Words say that you’re a kongfu teacher. No offense but being honest, the teacher isn’t always the tough one.”

Reluctantly shaking his head, Conor said to himself in the meantime, “That’s not going to end well with this stupid guy.”

“Now, you try to attack me at your full strength. Let’s see how tough you are.” Logan smiled.

“Don’t be silly. I might punch you right into the hospital without holding my strength back on that size of body.”

Morgan replied after a pause.

That was exact the reason why Morgan did treat Logan seriously---his body size wasn’t look like a strong one.

Still, there was an exception: Casey, not a sturdy one looking from the outside but with unbelievable strength inside. And to Morgan, that was it, the only exception across the whole world and there was no way gonna be a second one like that.

Logan replied coolly, "Even lost the nerve to take it a shot? A loser. How am I suppose to be a teacher of that."

Poked by such reply, Morgan made his move in a cold hum directly towards Logan.

"This is what you're asking for..."

Before Morgan could finished his words, Logan responded, sprinting towards Morgan and forcing him meters away long before the young fists could reach him.

On the other side, Conor stood in shock with his mouth wide open after Logan's response as if he had seen a monster. Conor had realized that his own team in comprehensive still had a long way to go to catch up with B City's team since what happened with Tyler.

And he had done some training with his men in according and for that, the improvement of his men during this time was evident.

Besides, Morgan was right in his best shape at his age and his strength at least doubled as the rapidest improved one. Even compared to the henchmen from Davies family brought by Tyler, Morgan was not the weak one.

But even with those elements Morgan failed to take one move from Logan. Sure enough, that was what called the boss of Yunxi Martial Club and was not allowed to be underestimated.

Casey didn't feel sorry for Morgan at all.
A young guy with such temper at such insolent age did need someone to teach him a lesson.

Morgan, lying on the ground in astonishment, could tell that Logan had hold down his strength. Otherwise he wouldn't be lying on the ground but in the hospital for that one move.

"Who the hell is this man?"

Logan stared at Morgan in the distance and simply said, "Being underestimated here? I really didn't see that coming. So, it's time to mean business."

Then he turned to Casey, "Well, that kid was not bad. He could be somebody in the future with the help of some tips. I'm in. One piece of paper please? I'm writing down the training program."

Casey went to bring some paper and pen in content smile. After a while, Logan finished and passed the paper to Conor, "From now on, all of your men stick to this plan. For that kid, double it." Conor read the plan quickly, eyes opening wide, and then gave a sympathy look at Morgan.

Morgan got off the ground and walked up to Conor, said with his hand rubbing his chest, "Hum, double? Who cares? Why you look me in that way? am I looking that bad?"

Conor handed the plan to Morgan and gave a pat on his shoulder, said, "Take care!"

After a brief look at that paper in so many doubts, Morgan soon lost his airs and was that close for kneeling down before Logan.

“Boss! You are my boss from now on!
Please, please, just let me do the training as others, don’t double it, OK?”

.....

Casey felt such a relief when leaving ---
With Logan as the coach of those men, it wouldn’t be long before they caught up with the member in B City.

Now, the wedding coming to an end was another thing to take off Casey’s mind and future days in J City wouldn’t be much of trouble for Casey. Well, except Amara, who still held against him.

On the other hand, he doubted who ever had the ball to come at Edith giving enough thought of all the guests at the wedding.

Back to hotel, Casey started packing with Edith for soon he would leave for S City. Logan had reminded him that the man who had the information about Guanling was a cranky one and it was not going to be easy to get such information out of him, so Casey wasn’t sure how long it would take for the trip.
While Casey was not around, Edith would surly go home and try to figure out some way to talk with Amara during the same time.

All things packed done, the couple set off for CZ Community.

By now, the Albie’s family had seen the wide gap between them and the family of Amara, who living at CZ Community was not because of frustration but to lay low.

Seeing all the wedding guests that day,
Leia were no longer dare to make troubles for the Amara family. Instead,
She herself knew to keep the distance at the sight of Amara.

When reached home, Edith used her key to open the door in direct. But Amara dragged Edith inside quickly when she saw the couple together and kept Casey out of the door.

“Edith is welcomed to come home but you’re not. Don’t imagine your wedding ceremony would get your way into this home. Stop dreaming!” Amara shouted.

“Mom, Casey was here helping the luggage and will be leaving soon. Why are you so mean, blocking him outside the door?!” Edith responded.

“Leaving? To where?” Amara asked.

“His own business. Just let him in, or you take the luggage for me.” Edith replied.

And by that Amara let Casey in, mumbled while gave way to him, “Hum, Just to bring disaster to another people. Such a jinx! Taking bad luck to everywhere he go.”

Hearing those words, Casey grinned unintentionally. Um, in some way that was not all wrong about those words. People who messed up with him did not end well in fact.

Casey had another talk with Edith after putting luggage in place and then turned away and left the place.

Jennifer watched Casey’s leaving with a lot on mind. After a deep breath and taking coat with her, Jennifer told Edith and Amara she was going out for some groceries and hurried out.

Downstairs, Jennifer caught up with Casey in great anxious.

“What happened, Jennifer? Why in such a hurry?” Casey wondered why she chased up like that.

Embarrassment as it could be, Jennifer said in helpless tone, "Casey, I'm really don't know what else I can do. My daughter is in serious trouble and I need 300,000 yuan for that. Could you help me with the money, please? If you could do that, just say the word, I'll do anything for you with my life and all my heart, anything!"

Chapter 377

Leaving for S City

Casey frowned at those words and said, "Jennifer, calm down. Just tell me what trouble your daughter have been involved in, OK?"

300,000 yuan was not a small number for Jennifer, let alone her daughter who was still a student.

First thing coming to his mind when he heard the news was that her daughter might be trapped in usury issue.

Recently, there were many reports on college students jumping off the building for that kind of issue.

But for what Casey could recalled, Jennifer usually talked a lot of good stuff about her daughter, such as working hard, excellent academic performance and most of scholarship went to her daughter every year. In the common sense, her daughter didn't sound like the one that would be drawn into usury. Now Jennifer said her daughter needed 300,000 yuan. Things wouldn't be that simple.

Jennifer took a long breath before explanation, "Georgia phoned me yesterday and told me she was deceived by a classmate, a male of the child of the school leader. It seems Georgia had refused that kid's condition and now she is threatened by him----he will had Georgia dismissed from school via his connection if she didn't give him the money."

"Casey, it was not easy for Georgia to make it to university. Being dispelled as a junior at this point means she'll never have the chance to change her fate. So, could you help me, please?"

By saying that, Jennifer got emotional with tears in her eyes. It could tell that she attached great importance on her daughter's education. Casey had met with her relatives and agreed that her daughter's education was the only way to get them out of that mess.

Once her daughter got dismissed, all the efforts they had made were all going to the drain and no chance to fight the fate at all. That was why Jennifer acting like that.

"Jennifer, don't freak out. There might be more to your daughter's matter. She is a smart girl and won't give out that amount of money just because of some verbal threats. Something may be hiding from you." Casey said.

On second thought with Casey's analysis, Jennifer thought it did make sense. Just her daughter's tone over the phone was really on edge, and she knew her daughter too well---she wouldn't come to her if it wasn't for emergency.

The kid even learnt a way to get by when her living expense was running out. She must have come to a dead end before asking for that number of money. That also meant no matter what kind of trouble her daughter had run into must be a very tricky one.

“Casey, I understand that you have some concerns about Georgia’s need for such kind of money but I could guarantee that she is not a bad girl and she won’t do anything that against the law. The kid must have been in serious issues. I don’t know who else I could ask for help...”

By saying that, Jennifer almost broke out crying.

Seeing Jennifer got that emotional, Casey hastened to comfort her, “Jennifer, you’re a member of the family and your daughter is also my little sister. I won’t stand by if she got into any trouble.”

“If I was not wrong, your daughter is in a university in S City, right?”

Jennifer nodded and replied quickly, “SC University, that is the school. She gets scholarship in school every year. Such girl wouldn’t do any bad thing.”

“I just on my way to S City for some errands. The original plan was to leave tomorrow but I’ll go today since you brought up your daughter’s matter and checking on her first. When it really comes to the problem about money, don’t worry, I take care of that and surely won’t have her dismissed.” Casey promised.

As Jennifer’s daughter was in SC University, it would be better for Casey to go there himself and to see what happened.

“Thank you, Casey. You are our savior. As long as my daughter could get out the trouble, even let me be your family housekeeper for free my whole life, I won’t have any second thought.”

Jennifer looked at Casey in great gratitude.

Casey said in smile, “Jennifer, don’t worry. It my duty to do that. Now, go home. When I get S City and the situation, I’ll take care of your daughter’s problem. Just wait for my message at home.”

Jennifer nodded her head quickly and had the feeling that the greatest thing ever happened to her was Casey.

Otherwise, she really didn’t know what to do in such situation.

While Jennifer got home, Casey straightly walked out the place and left for Starry Night Club by taxi.

J City was not very far from S City, just two hour’s of driving. So Casey planned to go there by driving.

Edith’s car was not available because of her commuting, so he had turned to Conor for one car.

In the parking lot of Starry Night Club, before a old Santana stood Casey and Conor. The latter was a little embarrassment and awkwardly explained, “Em, this is the only one available on hands. By the training program made by Mr. Logan, some practice projects are on the mountain in countryside and we need to drive to there. So, this is the only one left. Though seemed a little squeaky, it works good on the road.”

Casey smiled and didn't say anything about that. Car, was just a means of transport. As long as it worked good on the road, it was fine by him.

Before started off in that Santana, he gave Edith a call, telling her he was on his way. Then, Casey driving all the way to S City.

S City was a tourism city with a name of Heaven on Earth. Even by the urban area you could tell how much the people cherish the environment, and by the countryside covered many National 5A Scenery Sites. Tourism was what behind the booming economic development of S City.

On his way to S City, Casey gave Jordana call.

"Please take a look at the person in charge of all the business of Davies family in the S City area. I'm on my way to there and it may comes in handy."

Casey said.

"During the earlier years, we had invest in two mountains for developing of scenic spot. Now that two mountains has become 5A Scenery Sites. That's how we started our business there. Today, half of the economical vein of S City is under the control of Davies family. The general manager there is Jeremiah. Later I'll inform him for your reception." Jordan said.

Casey was a little surprised at the conversation---he didn't have the idea that Davies family was in charge of half the economic of S City, which meant Davies family had huge influence over this place.

Jordan continued, "Jeremiah runs twelve companies in all size in S City. There are two established clans in S City---the Rees family and the Murray family. Since the Rees family had chose to obey us Davies family and not counting the Murray family, there won't be any problem to settle things down in S City."

Casey thanked Jordan. A grasp of some basic information helped to get prepared for things. Though normally Casey could take care of problem on his own, a little help wouldn't hurt.

In girl's dormitory of SC University.

Georgiawalked into her dormitory in low spirits and down head.

But the spiritless mood could not hide her beauty.

Recent days had been the worst time for her. With those disturbing stuff on mind, she couldn't focus on the study, letting time pass by in nothing.

Her dormitory was a four-room and as walked in, three of the roommates were sitting there and gossiping. But all of them suddenly stopped talking at the sight of Georgia and just staring at her like she was an alien.

Georgia knew they were talking about her stuff. During these days, rumors said that she was a hooker off campus and even said she took all kinds of men at the cost of 500 yuan.

Back then, on the way to dormitory some guys were asking whether she would take them but she fled in fear seeing obscenities in their eyes.

She ignored roommates' strange look and all she wanted at the moment was lying on her own bed and took a good rest.

When she approached to her bed, just before lying down she found the sheet damp. At first she thought it would be some accident with water here, but soon she discovered that the whole sheet was all wet.

Feeling the wet sheet which could get out some water with a simple twist, she felt so wronged.

She sat up and looked straightly toward one of the roommates with anger. Even with her best temper, Georgia couldn't stand up with it this time.

"Nancy, did you do this?!"

The girl called Nancy Murray turned and darted a look at Georgia, scorned,

"What did I do?! Watch your tongue!"

"In this room, who else would do that except you! The water problem during my shower yesterday was you and my lost textbooks from my desk were found in your draw. What on earth have I done that makes you treating me like this!"

Georgia became a little hysterical for she couldn't take it anymore and she directly shouted at Nancy.

Nancy, too, stood right up with two eyes glared at Georgia and said in disdain,

"Mind your tone, you bitch from a bar!

How dare you to talk to me like that?

Wet sheet is wet sheet. Why bother?

Men would take you to their bed at night anyway.

"Bullshit, all bullshit! None of that was true!" Georgia yelled with her fists clenched.

"Bullshit? It is what it is. People had caught you getting a room with another man and Rufus proved that you tried to hit on him the other day. You say none of those was true? Just tell yourself. A prostitute is what you are. Putting on an act for what?" Nancy said without mercy.

Ever since she got into this school, Nancy, such a proud girl, found herself was no match for Georgia from the same dormitory no matter in study or appearance, great jealousy rising inside her.

Especially compared to countless admirers for Georgia, she only had some boring or ugly looking guys around and no guys even took a look at her.

For above, Nancy disliked Georgia for a long time and always picked on her once she had the chance. This time, with rumors spreading she was a dirty whore, she sure would ran for such perfect chance to destroy this imagined enemy for good.

Georgia was almost ready to pounce on Nancy. Even with her best control she couldn't take those insults for nothing. Just at that point, Georgia's phone rang. She took out the phone and answered. It was Rufus.

"Georgia, how is the money thing going? You better come to the front of the teaching building to me. I've got some good stuff here. 300,000 yuan probably wouldn't be enough now."

Georgia expression changed in a sudden, but the man hung up before she could get the meaning of that. Nancy saw the face of Georgia and mocked, "That was Rufus, right? Go, run to your man! He really got some spicy stuff about you. And don't be late, or the whole school would know."

Clenching her teeth, Georgia glared at Nancy but didn't talk back, just hurried outside the dormitory.

Chapter 378

You? Ask for Justice?

In front of the teaching building.

A boy who wore brand clothes and had Afro-hair was standing here, staring at the two photos on his phone with a wry look.

Those two photos were of a girl taking a shower. If others looked carefully, they could find that the girl in the photos was Georgia.

At this time, Georgia ran to the teaching building with anxious expression on her face. After seeing Rufus, she hurried over.

"Rufus, what do you mean? What do you want from me?" Georgia panted and asked.

Rufus smirked. He showed the photos to Georgia.

Seeing the photos on Rufus's phone, Georgia immediately wanted to grab his phone.

Rufus hurriedly put away his mobile phone. He said with a smile, "What? Grab my mobile phone? You wish."

"Why do you have pictures of me taking a shower? Rufus, you bastard. Did you peek at me taking a shower?" Georgia said nervously.

"Don't be stupid! You take a shower in your dormitory. How did I take a peek? As for how I get the photos, it's none of your business. You just need to know that now I have photos in my hands.

Now 300,000 dollars is not enough."

Rufus said sinisterly.

Georgia couldn't help but stepped back two steps. She was shocked. Rufus couldn't enter the girls' dormitory. The only person who could take photos was... Nancy!

She thought of the sudden stop of the water when she was taking a shower yesterday, and Nancy's laughter. These photos could only be taken by Nancy.

"Did Nancy take these photos? Delete them. You are invading my privacy!"

Georgia almost collapsed. Now there were all kinds of negative rumors about her in school. If Rufus spread photos, she might really not be able to stay in school anymore.

Rufus sneered and said, "I can delete the photos. Except 300,000 dollars, you have to sleep with my uncle and me for one night. Otherwise, even if you give me 300,000 dollars, I will still spread the photos."

Georgia had become very sensitive to these things in the past few days. What a diligent girl she was originally! She had been very hardworking because she knew her family was poor.

She had always been an excellent student in school. Many people had treated her as an example. However, now she had encountered such a thing.

Everyone said that she was a bitch, which had dealt a great blow to her.

Originally, 300,000 dollars had already made her a little breathless, but now Rufus threatened her with those photos again, and even asked her to sleep with him. Rufus's words became the last straw that crushed Georgia.

She glared at Rufus, then rushed over, reaching out to grab the phone in Rufus's hand.

Rufus didn't expect that Georgia, who was quiet, would take the initiative to snatch the phone. So he was shocked. But he was a boy after all. After reacting, he hurriedly put his mobile phone into his pocket, grabbed Georgia's arm with one hand, and shouted, "Are you fucking crazy?" "Delete the photos!" Georgia shouted hysterically.

"Damn it. I won't delete them. You dare to snatch my mobile phone. How dare you!" Rufus shouted at Georgia.

Georgia couldn't control the anger at this time. She still stretched out towards Rufus's trouser pocket, trying to snatch Rufus's mobile phone.

Seeing Georgia still not stopping, Rufus was also a little angry. He slapped Georgia directly.

Georgia almost couldn't stand firmly. She was staggering, and then stepped back.

"Bitch. Enough! Do you really think I dare not hit you?" Rufus said viciously.

Georgia felt so wronged. She didn't expect that Rufus would hit her. She stood still with her face covered, and stared at Rufus blankly.

Because the quarrel just now was a bit loud, it attracted some passing students. A large circle of people soon surrounded the teaching building.

Seeing he was being watched by so many people, Rufus showed a vicious look. Then he shouted at the people around him, "Everyone, see, this bitch, Georgia, in order to ask me for money, she wants to seduce me. I didn't agree, so she took advantage of me. Such a slut! If she still stays in our school, it will really be a shame on our school!"

After everyone heard Rufus's words, they immediately began to point to Georgia. The look in their eyes was full of disdain.

"Isn't it said that Georgia is an excellent student in our school? How could she do such a thing? Seduce others in public? Is she too cheap?"

"You don't know the recent rumors. They all say that Georgia is actually a whore. She sells herself with the clear price in order to make money. She has been pestering Rufus before. I didn't expect that she was so shameless and starts to openly seduce Rufus in public."

"Tsk-tsk, no matter how excellent she is, what's the use? She still did such things. If she is short of money, she can find a sugar daddy so that she doesn't have to do such things."

"Who knows! I heard that Georgia's family is very poor. Her mother has always been working to support her to go to school. She has done this kind of thing now. If her mother knows about this, her mother will be pissed off."

...

Georgia couldn't help shaking her head as she listened to the comments of the people around her. Tears could not help but come down.

"It's not like this. It's not like what you think. I was set up. I've never done those things."

She whispered. But at this time no one would be willing to listen to what she said. Everyone would be happy to see the news that a good student turned to be a whore. Even if Georgia explained it, no one would believe it.

"Look, everyone, this bitch is still crying. I don't feel wronged yet. But she pretended to be pitiful. Don't believe her. She is good at acting!" Rufus immediately shouted again when he saw Georgia crying.

At this moment, Rufus turned his head and looked at Georgia, with a sneer on his face. He said in a low voice, "Bitch, this is the consequence that you didn't listen to me. That's not over. I will give you a day to think about it. If you disagree with my request then, I will still spread your photos."

After speaking, Rufus wanted to turn around to leave.

The moment he turned around, he suddenly felt someone standing before him. So he ran into a person.

He had to step back a few steps towards the back. Then he cursed, "Damn it. Who are you? You dare to block my way. Get out of my way."

After Rufus stood firmly, he took a closer look and found that the man who was blocking his way was an ordinary looking man, but looked a lot older than him.

Seeing that the man was too common, Rufus cursed, "Are you insane? Get out of my way!"

"You slander a girl casually, but you're still so arrogant. You are really ashamed."

It was Casey who was speaking. After arriving at SC University at that time, he originally planned to call Georgia. But when he saw a group of people around here, he took a look.

He had seen a photo of Georgia and Jennifer, so he knew what Georgia looked like. He quickly confirmed that the girl who had almost collapsed was Georgia.

"Who the hell are you? You dare to talk to me like that? Who slanders her? She is just a bitch. Do I have to slander her?"

Rufus shouted unceremoniously.

Casey stepped forward and directly slapped Rufus.

Rufus fell to the ground in an instant, then his face quickly swelled up.

When everyone around saw Casey's sudden move, they were all surprised.

Then they couldn't help being farther away from Casey.

"Who the hell are you? Why did you hit me? Are you Georgia's boyfriend?"

Rufus stared at Casey. If he didn't feel the power of Casey's slap, he would have rushed to fight with Casey.

"Should this person be Georgia's sugar daddy? He is so fierce."

"He doesn't look like a rich man. How could it be that he is Georgia's sugar daddy? I think he is just a man who likes Georgia."

"Georgia is such a slut. Why does anyone like her? I think he's Georgia's boyfriend. Otherwise, how could he come forward for her?"

...

Georgia did not expect that someone would suddenly come forward for her and beat Rufus.

She thought about it, but she found that she didn't know this person.

Soon, she remembered that at that time her mother called her and said that someone would come to help her.

The person who came was the one who hired Jennifer as a nanny. Jennifer often talked about Casey when she called Georgia, so Georgia also knew Casey's name.

"Is he Casey?" Georgia muttered.

Casey walked towards Rufus, looked down at him, and said coldly, "Take your phone out."

Rufus stared at Casey and shouted, "You have no right to let me take out the phone. Tell you, my uncle is Dean of Student Affairs of SC University. If I tell my uncle, you'll be kicked out of the school!"

He thought that Casey was also a student in this school.

"You don't give your phone to me, do you?" Casey raised his foot, as if he would kick Rufus at any time.

Looking at Casey's feet, Rufus swallowed. Casey's one slap could knock him down. If Casey kicked him, he might be screwed up.

After hesitating for a while, Rufus couldn't resist the pressure. He took the phone out of his pocket.

Casey took the phone. Rufus immediately yelled, "You guys! Call the police. This person openly robbed my phone. Is there any justice?"

Casey turned on the phone and took a look. Then he found that it turned out to be some photos of Georgia taking a shower. He was so mad.

He stared at Rufus and said coldly, "You are also qualified to talk about justice? It's ridiculous."

After speaking, he threw Rufus's mobile phone on the ground and stepped on it. The mobile phone immediately broke.

Chapter 379 Georgia

Rufus looked at the broken phone, he was stunned. He just bought the phone a week ago, but it was trampled into pieces by this guy.

"Fuck! It's my new mobile phone. Why are you smashing my mobile phone? It's not over. I will never let you go!" Rufus screamed at Casey angrily. It seemed that he wanted to go up to beat Casey, but he didn't dare to rush up.

"I can compensate you for the phone, but can you compensate for the mental damage caused to her?" Casey looked at Rufus coldly.

Rufus suddenly felt a little guilty. But he still stared at Casey with gritted teeth and said, "Dare you tell me your name? At SC University, no one dares to provoke me!"

"I won't leave until this matter is completely figured out. You'd better think about whether you're wrong or not, otherwise no one can save you at that time." Casey said coldly.

Rufus snorted, then stood up from the ground and said viciously to Casey, "Let's wait and see. I will let you both die miserably! Tell you, if Georgia is expelled out of the school, it will be your responsibility. No one can help her!" After speaking, Rufus rushed out of the crowd and ran away into the distance. Seeing Rufus's departure, Casey turned and walked to Georgia. He had to know what was going on before he could find a way to help Georgia.

If he didn't figure out anything and he just beat Rufus like this, it seemed that he would be too unreasonable.

Georgia stared at Casey blankly. She did not react for a long time. She had always been alone in school. No one helped her.

This was the first time she had experienced the feeling of someone supporting herself.

"Are you okay?" Casey asked.

When Georgia heard Casey's voice, she recovered from thoughts. Then she quickly nodded at Casey and said, "I... I'm fine."

"I am..." Casey intended to introduce himself first.

"Are you Casey?" Georgia said, her eyes full of gratitude.

Casey laughed and asked, "You know me?"

"My mother often talks about you to me. She told me that you are her benefactor and that you treat her very well."

Georgia explained, "But, why are you here?"

"I came to S City to deal with some things. I just heard your mother say that you are in trouble, so I come here to have a look. Let's go find a place to sit for a while. You tell me the details, then I can know if I can help you solve the trouble." Casey said.

Georgia was so grateful that Casey came forward to help her at that time. When Casey said that, she originally wanted to refuse, but she was so desperate now, so she nodded. The two walked out of the crowd together. The onlookers all stared at Georgia and Casey with the strange look in their eyes, and whispered. Georgia looked at the eyes of the people around her and sighed helplessly, knowing that this incident could no longer be contained. If Casey couldn't help her, she would really have to drop out of school.

The two came to a bench by the lake in the school. After sitting down, Casey asked Georgia to tell him what happened.

"I'm too stupid. If I didn't believe in the bastard, Rufus, there would be no such thing later." Georgia lowered her head, looking haggard.

Georgia had always lived peacefully in school before. At most, Nancy would make some trouble for Georgia.

Because Nancy didn't like Georgia. In order to successfully complete her studies, Georgia felt that she could bear it.

Some time ago, Georgia finished all her courses and then had a lot of free time. She thought about finding a part-time job to make some money, so as to relieve Jennifer's pressure.

At this time, Rufus approached Georgia and said that he could introduce her a job.

Georgia had focused on studying since she was a child. She had very little contact with boys. Rufus said that he would introduce Georgia a job, but in fact he wanted to pursue her.

Georgia had no experience in this aspect at all, so she was fascinated by Rufus's few sweet words. Georgia, who was in her youth, was already eager for love. If a boy took the initiative to pursue her, how could she resist these temptations?

So before long, Georgia agreed to be Rufus's girlfriend.

At the beginning, Georgia felt that the relationship between herself and Rufus was still normal. They would go out to have a meal, would watch a movie, and held hands at most.

However, a few days later, Rufus began to take advantage of Georgia, and also asked Georgia to have sex with him. Georgia felt it was too soon to do such stuff. She was frightened, so she refused Rufus.

After being rejected, Rufus didn't say anything. He apologized to Georgia, saying that he was impulsive and asked Georgia to forgive him.

Seeing Rufus's attitude of admitting his mistake was so sincere, Georgia forgave him and continued to maintain the relationship with Rufus, but since then Georgia had become more cautious.

That day Rufus approached Georgia and told her that he had helped her find a particularly suitable part-time job as a tutor, and the salary was not low. Then he came up with an agreement and asked Georgia to sign it.

After checking the agreement and feeling that there was no problem, Georgia wrote her name on it. But when Rufus took Georgia to work the next day, Georgia realized something was wrong. Rufus actually took Georgia to the bar, and asked her to put on short shorts, a small vest. He even asked her to dress sexier. When Georgia realized that something was wrong, she ran out of the bar immediately. But Rufus caught up with her, saying that she had signed the contract and had to work in the bar. Georgia said to Rufus that the contract she signed was to be a tutor. Rufus smirked at this time. He took out a contract and gave Georgia a glance. Georgia looked at the content of the contract and found that the contract said that she had sold herself! The last page of this contract was exactly the same as Georgia's signature. There were some insignificant notes written on it. Now this contract and the page signed by Georgia were placed together, and there was no wrong at all. Only then did Georgia realize that she had been deceived by Rufus. The reason why Rufus wanted to date with Georgia was because Georgia was pretty. Besides, Rufus wanted to trick her into having sex. After being rejected by Georgia, Rufus thought of such a way. Georgia had signed the contract. She must come to the bar to work. Her main job was to accompany the guests to drink. Georgia also knew that there must be other things besides drinking. Of course she didn't agree.

But if she didn't come to work, she must pay Rufus 300,000 dollars. Otherwise, Rufus would sue Georgia. From the contract, it was not any problems that Rufus asked Georgia to do the job. At that time, when they signed the contract, there were only them two. So, if Georgia explained, Rufus could say that Georgia was arguing. The probability of Georgia winning was very low. Besides, Georgia had no money to hire a lawyer at all.

Rufus's uncle was Dean of Student Affairs. After that day, Rufus took Georgia to see his uncle. They two threatened Georgia together, asking Georgia to either compensate money or sleep with them. Otherwise, Georgia would not only be accused, but she would still be expelled from school. Then, she couldn't go to school.

Rufus and his uncle gave Georgia a week to consider it. If Georgia did not make a decision a week later, they would expel her and sue her.

After listening to Georgia's words, Casey also frowned. He didn't expect that Rufus would be so insidious. Rufus was only a student, but he could think of such a mean method.

"I'm really desperate, so I asked for money from my mother. But even if I promised to have sex with them, they would definitely not let me go. If that were the case, my life would be ruined."

Georgia said desperately.

Casey nodded to Georgia and comforted, "You don't have to worry. Since I already know the incident, I won't let them succeed. You are Jennifer's daughter. I treat you as my younger sister. I will support you."

Georgia wanted to cry. She expressed her gratitude to Casey.

"Let's go. Take me to your principal's office. This matter has already caused too much influence on your reputation. Only the principal can clarify for you."

Casey said.

Georgia was taken aback. She didn't expect Casey would go to find the principle. SC University was a first-class university in H Country. The principal was not simple. Without certain strength, the principal wouldn't agree to see anyone casually.

Moreover, Rufus's uncle was Dean of Student Affairs, almost equivalent to be the principal's side. If anything happened, the principal would definitely help Rufus's uncle.

But now the only person she could rely on was Casey. Since Casey said so, there should be a way, so she led Casey towards the principal's office.

...

On the road in front of the school administration building.

Rufus and his uncle, Joey, were walking quickly towards the administration building.

"Unexpectedly, someone would dare to help Georgia. He really doesn't take me seriously." Joey said with a cold face.

"Uncle, that guy doesn't seem to be a student from this school, but no matter who he is, Georgia is the student here. We just need to make Georgia suffer. It's all because of this bitch, the phone I just bought broke. You must teach her a lesson!" Rufus said fiercely.

"Don't worry. The relationship between me and the principal is good. The principal will listen to me. Expelling a student is so easy, let alone that she does such things. The principal will definitely not let this kind of person stay in school." Joey said.

Rufus nodded and sneered. He had to let Georgia suffer first. As for that guy who slapped him, he would never let that guy go.

The two walked into the administration building together.

Chapter 380 You Have to Decide Now

In the principal's office.

The principal sat on the chair, holding the phone in his hand, with a flattering smile on his face, listening carefully to the voice on the phone.

"Okay, Mr. Jeremiah, I will definitely implement it in the school according to what you said. Thank you for donating 200 million dollars to our school so that we have enough funds to develop the education cause. I don't know if you agree that I give you the position of an honorary professor of our school?" The principal's voice was very respectful, as if he was talking to some big leader.

"Okay, if there is nothing else, I'm going to hang up first. I won't bother you. If you're available, you can come to our school to have a look."

After speaking the last sentence, the principal put down the phone and let out a long sigh of relief.

Sure enough, there was still a lot of pressure to talk to these big bosses.

Not long after he put down the phone, someone was knocking on the office door.

"Come in." The principal immediately restored the majesty that a principal should have. The flattering smile just now disappeared without a trace.

The office door was pushed open. Joey and Rufus walked in together.

The principal stared at the two of them, then asked, "What's the matter? Why are you so panicked?"

Joey and Rufus both stared at the principal, then Rufus said, "Mr. Principal, some students in our school must be expelled, otherwise the reputation of our school will be ruined."

When the principal heard Joey's words, he frowned and asked, "What student?"

Joey immediately slandered Georgia, saying that she asked other students to sleep with her and paid her money, saying that she even secretly ran to the boys' dormitory. These things had spread in the school.

Now even many people outside the school had heard of this incident, which had had a very serious impact on the school's reputation.

"If I remember correctly, isn't Georgia a good student? How could she be like what you said?" the principal frowned and asked.

"Mr. Principal, it was not her true face. Just today, one of her guests came into the school to help her beat me. Look at my face, it's still swollen. Just because I told the truth, I was beaten up like this. My phone was broken by that person. He insisted that there were indecent photos of them on my phone. But I just found those photos on the Internet. They denied it. So shameless." Rufus also slander Georgia.

After hearing Rufus's words, the principal slammed the table and yelled, "It's ridiculous! There are such students in my school. It's really a shame to our school. I must not let this kind of people stay in our school. Joey, you go to announce the expulsion of this student now, and then call her to my office. I want to see how shameless she is!"

As soon as the principal finished speaking, the office door was kicked open.

The three people inside were taken aback, and then they all hurriedly looked towards the door.

Casey walked in with Georgia from the outside, with a gloomy face, and said, "I am here today. Who dares to expel her!" Joey and Rufus were taken aback when they saw that Casey brought Georgia to the principal's office, but then they both sneered. Since Georgia came over, Joey didn't bother to find Georgia.

"You two still dare come to the principal's office!" Rufus yelled at Casey and Georgia, then turned to look at the principal and said, "Mr. Principal, this man is Georgia's John. Not only did he hit me, he also smashed my mobile phone. Now he's still coming to you to make trouble. It's so arrogant!"

Hearing what Rufus said, Joey knew the man who this suddenly broke in was. He hurriedly shouted, "Mr. Principal, see, Georgia is so bold that she even brought her John to the school to make trouble. What kind of place does she treat the school as? This kind of students must not stay in the school!" After the principle heard what Rufus and Joey said, he pulled a long face. He stared at Casey, and then his gaze fell on Georgia behind. He said angrily, "Georgia, I always thought that you were a good student and an example for other students. I didn't expect you to do this kind of thing. No matter how good your academic performance is, you still can't have achievements if you don't know what should to do and what shouldn't to do. I don't allow students like you to appear in our school!" "You are expelled!"

When Georgia heard the principal's words, she hurried forward and explained, "Mr. Principal, it's not like what you think. I was slandered. I have never done anything like that. It was Rufus and Joey who framed me." "Huh, do you still want to quibble? How could Dean of Student Affairs frame students? I have heard about you too. This matter will not come from groundless sources. Your quibble is useless." The principal said.

Seeing that the principal did not believe Georgia's words at all, Joey and Rufus sneered, gloating at the desperate Georgia. "As a principle, just based on their unilateral rhetoric, you wanted to expel a student indiscriminately. What qualifications do you have to continue to be principal?" Casey stared at the principal and said coldly. When the principal heard Casey's words, he glared at Casey and shouted, "How am I indiscriminate? This is the result of the investigation by Dean of Student Affairs. Is it possible that there are false? What qualifications do you have to accuse me here?"

"The results of the investigation by Dean of Student Affairs? You really don't have to do anything. What he said is what he said. If it's him who slandered Georgia, what should you do? As a principal, don't you even have to investigate it in person?" Casey questioned.

Hearing Casey saying this, Joey quickly retorted, "The principal is busy. He has no time to take care of such trivial matters. Don't slander me. It's her who did such things. It's none of my business. I thought you just came to school to make trouble."

"Haha, aren't you guys the ones who lied to Georgia to sign the contract? I don't know whether you bring that contract with you." Casey sneered.

Hearing what Casey said, Rufus immediately subconsciously touched the back of his clothes. Casey noticed Rufus's movement. Then Casey's eyes suddenly narrowed.

"What contract? What are you talking nonsense here? Get out quickly. This is the principal's office. You can't go in casually!" Joey shouted loudly.

The principal also felt a little angry because that Casey just brought others in and questioned him. Casey also said that he was not qualified to be the principal here. The principal was pissed off and didn't intend to give Georgia a chance to explain.

"You two get out of here. This is the case. Our school can't tolerate this kind of student who discredited the school. Today, she will be expelled. No matter who comes, it's useless. Get out of here quickly. Otherwise, I will call the security guard over!" The principal stared at Casey angrily.

Seeing the principal's attitude so determined, Georgia suddenly felt desperate, knowing that there was no way to recover the incident.

She stretched out her hand to yank Casey's arm, and said, "Casey, we can't defeat them. Forget it, this time I can only accept my fate."

"It's just three bastards. I don't think they are strong. I must let them give you an innocence. Even he is the principal, if he is unreasonable, I will let him understand the cost of negligence of duty!" Casey said that so firmly.

Then Casey turned around and dashed towards Rufus, grabbed Rufus's arm, turned his body over and lifted up his clothes. Seeing the contract tucked in Rufus's trouser, Casey took it out directly.

Seeing that the contract had been taken out, Rufus exclaimed, "Damn it. You snatched my stuff. Mr. Principal, you should call the security guard over and let the security arrest him!"

Seeing that Casey dared to openly grab stuff here, the principal immediately walked to the table, picked up the phone and was about to call the security guard. Casey directly threw the contract on the table, and said coldly, "You should take a look at the contract first, and then decide whether to call the security guard."

Seeing the contract on the table, the principal stopped and then picked up the contract.

"Mr. Principal, it's my personal belongings. It's not a contract at all. Don't listen to him talking nonsense here."

Rufus was about to rush to grab the contract on the table. Casey kicked Rufus directly and then Rufus stepped back.

The principal took a look at the contract. Then his eyes widened after seeing what was written on it.

"Georgia, you would actually sign a contract to go to a bar to do this kind of work. You still want to argue for yourself. Don't you know what kind of women would go to bar to work?" The principal shouted at Georgia.

Joey and Rufus originally thought that the principal would change his attitude after seeing the contract. They didn't expect that the contract would make the principal even more convinced that Georgia was a bad student.

Casey also glanced at the principal. He was a little speechless, wondering how this person became a principal.

"Look at the names signed on the contract. It was signed by Rufus and Georgia. What does this mean? Don't you know?" Casey said.

The principal then noticed that Rufus's name was still on the contract, and suddenly realized his negligence.

But even if Georgia's affairs were really related to Rufus, it would not be Casey's turn to take care of it. The principal felt that Casey made himself very embarrassed by saying that, so he still didn't want to talk about it now.

"No matter whose names are on this contract, it is our school's affair. It is not your turn to take care of. I will check this matter later. You get out now. As for whether expelling Georgia, it can be postponed for two days to announce."

The principal said coldly.

Seeing that the principal was obviously partial to Joey, Casey exploded in anger. He walked directly over, and closed the office door.

"There must be a decision about this matter today. Otherwise, none of you three can get out of this office!"
