

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 501

I'm Afraid She Will Be

Jealous

Within a few days, the news that Davies family became the largest partner of the old town reconstruction plan spread throughout B City. Everyone knew what the old town reconstruction plan meant and what kind of existence Davies family would become with this opportunity.

The rumor that Davies family was about to close down in B City almost disappeared overnight. Instead, everyone said that Davies family would take this opportunity to rise again.

At that time, even N Group would not have any strength to compete with Davies family.

Everyone marveled at Davies family's revival. What Casey did spread throughout B City. Many people said that Casey was the new hope of Davies family, and he would lead Davies family to new glory!

Because Davies family was down and out some time ago, the Davies House became deserted like never before.

Those who wanted to flatter Davies family in the past all disappeared.

But now, because Davies family became the biggest partner of the old town reconstruction plan this time, the front door of the Davies House had become more lively than before. The people who came to give gifts were more than that of in the past. What Jordan needed to do every day was sitting in the guest room, waiting to receive those visitors from those fairly capable families or companies.

For some relatively small families or companies, they would be invited out after giving gifts. There was no chance for them to see Jordan, let alone Casey. Even so, the people who gave gifts were still in an endless stream. Because everyone knew that with this opportunity to renovate the old town, Davies family would once again become the most powerful family in B City. At that time, whether it was N Group or Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, they would no longer be a match of Davies family. In B City, no one could compete with Davies family at that time.

In the past few days, Maddox had gathered three partners several times to discuss the specific matters of the reconstruction plan. Basically, after Maddox proposed a plan, he would hand it over to Casey to make a decision.

Finn was quite unsatisfied with every decision made by Casey, but he did not have the power to refute. Every time, Casey would choose a decision that was unfavorable to N Group and openly provoke Finn.

Finn was angry and protested. Then, three partners were required to vote. Natan would vote for Casey every time. Finn who had only one vote was like a vase. No matter what he said, no one listened to him.

Although Finn was angry, he had no ways. He knew that the 20 billion he invested in the project had become the funds to pave the way for Casey.

Gradually, he also noticed Maddox's attitude towards Casey. No matter what Casey proposed for this reconstruction plan, Maddox would unconditionally agree.

This caused Finn to feel like being freezing out. Even if he was slow to react, he noticed something wrong. He realized that he might have been tricked by Casey. Whether it was Maddox or Natan, they should have been bribed by Casey.

After having this guess, Finn just gave up participating in the discussion of the old town reconstruction plan and gave all the decision-making power to Casey. He was full of anger, thinking about other ways to deal with Casey.

His mission to come to B City this time was to eradicate Davies family. For the Turner family, Davies family was nothing but it was made by a loser who betrayed the Turner family. In the eyes of the Turner family, Davies family was nothing.

If Finn couldn't finish the task, the resources allocated to him in the family would probably become less in the future.

But now Davies family was completely supported by Casey alone. As long as he could kill Casey, Davies family would be dead. So Finn had already thought of a way to deal with Casey.

When Finn was planning how to kill Casey, Casey wouldn't have no plans. Now, the money in Finn's hands had been tricked over by him. Killing Finn just needed a right time and a good opportunity.

At Tianyuan Tower, in Lily's ward.

Casey was sitting in front of Lily's hospital bed, staring at the pale face of the girl who was lying on the bed. He was lost in thought.

At this time, the door of the ward was opened. Owen walked in from outside. Seeing the expression on Casey's face, he smiled.

"Didn't you say that you only love your wife? Why are you starting at the other girl for such a long time? You are not afraid that your wife will be jealous when she knows it?" Owen said jokingly.

Casey came back to his senses, rolled his eyes at Owen, and said, "I have regarded Lily as my own younger sister. She is in a coma, so naturally I am anxious. It's because of me that she got hurt. I should care about her."

"Fortunately, I didn't bring Luna here this time, otherwise she will be jealous again if she sees you like this." Owen said.

Casey was confused, and asked, "Luna will be jealous? Why?"

Owen shook his head helplessly, thinking that what Luna said was right. Casey was really stupid in such things. It was impossible for Casey to find Luna's feeling for him. According to what Lunn said, Casey was really a fool in these things.

"It's nothing. Your sister's situation has stabilized. As long as she takes the medicine I have given her according to the time, she should be able to wake up in less than a week." Owen changed the topic.

Casey breathed a sigh of relief when he heard Owen's words. Since Owen said so, Lily should really be fine.

After staying with Lily for a while, Casey walked out of Tianyuan Building. These days, he had been thinking about making trouble for N Group. Now, Casey's thoughts were also a little confused.

After coming out Tianyuan Building, he didn't go back to the Davies House directly, but walked forward along the road, intending to relax his mind.

After learning that Edith's disappearance had nothing to do with Margaret, Casey's nerves were tense every day. Having no information was often the most tormenting.

If Edith was really abducted by Margaret, he wouldn't be so worried. Unfortunately, after meeting Margaret that day, Casey mobilized Guanling's intelligence network and checked all Margaret's activities after she arrived in B City. Then he confirmed that there was nothing suspicious about Margaret.

If Edith was really abducted by Margaret, it would be impossible that Casey couldn't get any clues.

When passing an alley, he heard the screams coming from inside. Then he turned his head and glanced inside.

A group of people who looked like gangsters were surrounding a middle-aged man into a corner, punching and kicking him.

Casey's gaze fell on the middle-aged man, then he was taken aback. The man who was being beaten turned out to be Casey's father-in-law, Nicolas!

Chapter 502 You Don't Know Who I Am?

"Fuck, teach this idiot a severe lesson. He dares to pretend to be Casey's father-in-law. How dare he! Casey is the head of Davies family. His father-in-law is at least a big shot. How could it be a stinky beggar like you!"

The leading gangster kicked Nicolas and cursed in a low voice.

"I... I'm really Casey's father-in-law. Let me go, otherwise Casey will definitely not let you guys go if he knows it. He will punch you guys to death!" Nicolas stretched out his hand to protect his face, shouting at those bullies.

The leading gangster sneered, and said, "Stop fucking pretending. Tell you, our Crossing GroupFamily belongs to Casey. He is our boss. If you really are Casey's father-in-law, why won't we know?"

"You take me to see Casey. As long as I can see him, I can explain clearly."

Nicolas said quickly.

The leading gangster slapped Nicolas again, and curse, "Don't fucking think that I don't know what you want to do. Do you think that everyone can meet Casey? Don't want to get something with Casey. I don't buy it. If you can't give us 20,000 dollars today, don't even want to get out of this alley!"

"Boss, does this man ran out of a psychiatric hospital? He is dressed in tatters but he still dares to pretend to be Casey's father-in-law. Can he have 20,000 dollars?" A gangster turned his head and asked.

The lead immediately glared at him, and said, "No matter how much he can take out, we accept it all. Anyway, we have to see the money today. If he really doesn't have money, we can break his legs!"

Nicolas looked desperate. He really didn't have any money right now. After being driven out of the house by Amara, Nicolas never went back, relying on the money left with him to live for a few days in J City.

Originally, he planned to go home, but when he thought of Amara's anger face, he was frightened. He was now openly turning against Amara. If he went back at this time, Amara would definitely teach him a lesson more vigorously.

So he planned to go to Casey. No matter what, he was still Casey's father-in-law. Casey would definitely not watch him starving. But when he went to ask Casey's whereabouts, he found that Casey had left J City.

After thinking about it, Nicolas finally decided to come to B City to find Casey. Even if he had to leave his hometown where he had lived for so many years, he was unwilling to face Amara.

So he used his last money to buy a train ticket to B City, and went to this strange city alone.

He sold his mobile phone when he couldn't make living, so there was no way to contact Casey. At this time, Davies family became the biggest partner of the old town reconstruction plan. Davies family's limelight was in full swing. After Nicolas heard that, he saw the hope immediately.

However, he still didn't know how to find Casey. He went to the Davies House several times, but there was a constant stream of gift-giving people over there every day. The servants at the door didn't have time to pay attention to him. Seeing that he was wearing poor clothes, it was his luck that those staffs didn't chase him off directly.

It was at this time that Nicolas heard of Crossing GroupFamily. It was said that Crossing GroupFamily was a gang under Casey's name. Nicolas thought that as long as he found someone from Crossing GroupFamily, he should be able to find Casey.

So he found these little gangsters, told them that he was Casey's father-in-law, and asked them to take himself to see Casey.

However, what he didn't expect was that after hearing him say that he was Casey's father-in-law, these people took him to the alley and beat him up directly. No matter what he explained, these people didn't believe it at all.

"Please let me go. Please take me to see Casey. As long as I can see him, he will definitely give you guys money." Nicolas was almost crying when he was beaten up.

"Fuck off, Casey doesn't have time to see such a fool like you. You should think about what valuable things you have. Hand it over to save your life!"

The lead yelled at Nicolas. He thought, 'If I can really see Casey, will I need to ask your money here?' The so-called Crossing GroupFamily was just a mess organization, relying on Casey's name. Recently, Casey's name had been spreading throughout B City. Many people had come out to brag in the name of Casey.

When the lead raised his hand again and was about to slap Nicolas, he felt someone pat his shoulder, so he turned his head.

What caught his eye was an unfamiliar face. The person looked plain and wore very commonly. He didn't know where the person came from.

"Who the hell are you?" The lead yelled at Casey.

Those gangsters who were punching and kicking Nicolas also stopped and turned to look towards Casey.

"Aren't you Casey's organization?"

Casey stared at them and asked.

"Yes, our Crossing GroupFamily is the largest organization under Casey's name. I am the best assistant of Casey.

What do you do? Why did you ask me this?" The leading gangster immediately said arrogantly.

"Oh? Then you don't know who I am?"

Casey laughed.

At this time, Nicolas also looked towards Casey. After seeing Casey, an expression of excitement appeared on his face for an instant, and then he shouted, "Casey, please help me. They want to break my legs. I came here to find you. I didn't want my legs broken."

Casey glanced at Nicolas, nodded to him and motioned him to relax.

When the group of gangsters heard Nicolas' words, their eyes widened in an instant. They looked towards Casey in disbelief.

The leading gangster was also surprised. He quickly asked, "What did you call him just now?"

"Casey. He is Casey. Aren't you Casey's men? How do you even not know who he is?" Nicolas immediately became confident when he saw Casey coming.

"Fuck off!" The leading gangster immediately cursed, "Casey is the God, with three heads and six arms. Ordinary people can't look directly at him. You actually said that this guy who looks like a dick is Casey. Are you fooling around us?"

Casey and Nicolas were a little speechless all of a sudden. They didn't expect that these people would exaggerate Casey to such a point.

"I'm Casey. He is my father-in-law. You guys are bluffing and bullying others outside in my name. Do you know what will happen after I know it?" Casey said coldly.

The leading gangster looked at Casey and sneered, "Stop bragging. Guys, this person said he is Casey. Do you guys believe it or not?"

"Boss, don't make fun of us. Casey is a legendary. He is just like the God. How could he be this dick?"

"Hahaha, so funny. Even a dick dares to pretend to be Casey. These years, bragging is so common?"

"In my opinion, we can teach this idiot a lesson together. Maybe we can still take some money from him. Don't listen to his bullshits."

The leading gangster also narrowed his eyes. He was staring at Casey coldly, "Brat, you have seen the fate of this old guy. If you know the consequence, you should give me all the money you have. Otherwise, you will end up worse than him!"

Then he clenched his fists, as if showing his power to Casey.

Casey shook his head helplessly, then stretched out a hand to the front and said with a smile, "Hold it up."

After speaking, his hand had grabbed the arm of the leading gangster, and then pulled hard. The leading gangster's whole body slammed towards the ground directly.

Other gangsters standing behind him were all shocked when they saw it. They were about to attack Casey immediately.

How their speed could be comparable to that of Casey? Soon, those gangsters had fallen to the ground.

Nicolas stood up from the ground, gloating at the gangsters who fell on the ground, and said, "Aren't you guys so aggressive? Why are you guys knocked down by Casey alone? Get up!"

The gangsters all fell to the ground with their faces full of pain. They looked at Casey with fear.

The leading gangster sat up on the ground and gritted his teeth. He yelled at Casey viciously, "It's not over, even if you knocked us down. There are a lot of people in Crossing GroupFamily. When they come here, you'll regret what you did just now!"

Casey curled his lips when he heard this. Then he took out his mobile phone and made a call.

In less than five minutes, seven or eight black cars stopped on the edge of this alley. A large group of men in black suits and sunglasses, who looked domineering, got off the cars.

The leading gangster was bragging to Casey about the power of Crossing GroupFamily, and asked Casey to apologize to him quickly.

After seeing those people in suits coming over, he was dumbfounded.

Those men in suits stopped in the middle of the alley, lined up neatly in two rows, bowed respectfully to Casey, and said in unison, "Mr. Casey!"

Casey nodded to them, and then looked at the gangsters behind him jokingly.

The leading gangster started to tremble. He raised his hand, pointed at those people, and said tremblingly, "Are... are you really Casey?"

"What do you think?" Casey asked rhetorically.

Only then did the gangsters know who they had provoked. They were so scared that they immediately began to beg Casey for mercy.

The leading gangster even knelt directly in front of Casey and kowtowed.

Casey ignored their reactions. He turned to the staffs of Davies family and said, "These people are bluffing and bullying others outside in my name. Teach them a lesson. There should be a lot of people who do such things like them outside. I'll give you guys three days. I don't want there will be such a situation in B City again in the future."

"Yes!" a group of people shouted in unison, which frightened those gangsters to death.

Chapter 503 Edith's Real Parents

In a fine dining restaurant.

Casey and Nicolas sat opposite each other. There were more than a dozen plates on the table. Nicolas was wolfing down the food. He didn't even use the chopsticks.

Casey looked at Nicolas who was eating so rude, feeling a little helpless. Nicolas was indeed a little awkward. As a man, Nicolas was really miserable. Casey really didn't know what to say.

Just now, Nicolas had told Casey about him leaving J City to find Casey in B City. He also begged Casey to take him in. He didn't want to go back to face Amara.

No matter what, Nicolas was Casey's father-in-law. No matter how bad Nicolas was, it was impossible for Casey to let Nicolas stay on the streets. Casey had notified Davies family to arrange a place for Nicolas. After the meal, Nicolas could live there.

After eating everything on the plate, Nicolas wiped his mouth with tissue and hiccupped. He said to Casey with a smile, "Casey, you're a good boy. I haven't eaten a good meal for so many days. Today's meal is the most satisfying meal I have ever eaten in my life."

Casey smiled and nodded, "It's good as long as you are full."

Nicolas stared at Casey. Then his expression suddenly became serious. He asked, "Is there still no whereabouts of Edith?"

Casey's face became cold. He nodded to Nicolas, and said, "I have searched the entire Jiangbei. There is no place where I can get Edith's whereabouts. You think about it carefully. During my absence, did Amara or Edith provoke anyone else?"

Nicolas shook his head and said, "You have already known what I know. Amara is a crazy woman. She has caused enough troubles, so there is no other trouble."

Casey sighed helplessly. This kind of clueless thing was often the most tormenting.

A hesitation flashed in Nicolas' eyes, as if he was thinking about something.

After a while, he sighed and asked, "Casey, do you regard me as your father-in-law?"

"You are Edith's father. So you're naturally my father-in-law. Why do you suddenly ask this?" Casey said with a smile.

Nicolas looked very serious, and then said, "If, I mean, if I am not Edith's biological father, would you still treat me as your father-in-law?"

Casey was taken aback, and then asked, "Even if you are not Edith's biological father, she was raised by you. This favor can't be ignored. It's enough for me to respect you."

"What about Amara? If she wasn't Edith's biological mother, how would you treat her?" Nicolas asked.

Casey was silent. Amara could be said to be a secret pusher on Edith's accident this time. Without the things Amara did, maybe Edith would not disappear. In addition to the things Amara did to Edith before, if it wasn't because she was Edith's mother, Casey would have already broken her into pieces.

Now Nicolas suddenly said that Amara might not be Edith's biological mother. Casey really didn't know how to treat Amara.

Seeing Casey's silence, Nicolas shook his head. Although he knew that if he told Casey some secrets hidden in his mind, Amara would in a very dangerous situation, there were some things that he had to say.

He took out a wallet from his clothes and opened it, revealing the yellowed photo inside.

In the photo was a baby wrapped in a swaddle, and next to the baby was a trash can.

Nicolas passed the photo to Casey, and then said lightly, "Edith is indeed not our biological daughter."

Casey looked down at the photo. After hearing Nicolas' words, his eyes widened immediately, his face full of shock.

"This picture was taken when I picked Edith back. At that time, Amara and I had just had a child. Unfortunately, that child was born sick and died within two days."

"That day was when our child passed away. I felt very sad. So I wandered on the street alone. I came to an alley with no people. Then I heard crying not far away. I thought it was because I was so sad that I had hallucinations, so I followed that voice and looked for it."

"Then I saw this little guy right next to the trash can. At that time, I really thought I was dreaming, so I slapped myself twice. Later I determined that the little guy really existed."

"Although I lost my child, I love children. But when I saw the child next to the trash can, my first reaction was to check her surroundings, but unfortunately, I didn't find any effective clues. She was like being left there. She was pitiful and helpless."

"I thought about calling the police, but I really liked the little guy. I lost my child and suddenly I met such a little guy who was left at the trash can. How could I have the heart to let others send her to the orphanage?"

"I feel that she was like the angel in my life. That was the opportunity God gave me, so I became selfish and took the little guy back home and treated her as my own child."

"At that time, when I opened the baby's swaddle and found that there was a piece of paper inside. The paper should have an address written on it, but it was wetted by the urine. The words on it had become blurred. I can only distinguish the first two words. If it was not wrong, it should be H City."

"Just these two words, I couldn't tell where this little guy was from. H City is so far away from J City. So I had no plans to send her back."

Hearing this, Casey's eyes suddenly brightened. A guess suddenly appeared in his mind, but he did not rush to interrupt Nicolas. He continued to listen to Nicolas.

"At that time, it was only me and Amara who knew our child had died at that time. My father paid great attention to the offspring. My child came late, and my status in the family was not high. If my father knew that my child was gone, I and Amara would have already been driven out of Patel family."

"So we concealed this incident and treated the little guy as our own biological child. We never mentioned the death of our child to others."

"Amara also liked this child very much. She was also very upset about our child's death. During that time, she was a little abnormal. The arrival of this child greatly eased her situation. It was precisely because of this that Amara has become so dependent on Edith. She regards Edith as her everything, and wants to control Edith forever."

"Now that Edith is missing, I have been kicked out of the house. I think I should let you know these things. After all, you are the closest person to Edith now. Only you can protect her."

"Amara is crazy. She has never considered Edith. She regards Edith as a stepping stone to her stable and happy life in this world. If Edith continues to be controlled by her, Edith will be ruined."

"Although Edith is currently missing, I hope you can become her strongest backer after you find her. If possible, you can help her find her original family. By the way, do you think about maybe it is that Edith's original family found her, but it happened that something happened to Edith that day, so they took Edith away without notifying anyone?" After Casey listened to Nicolas' narration, he felt a sigh of emotion. He didn't expect Edith to have such an experience. Only now did he understand why Amara always controlled Edith. Hearing Nicolas' guess, Casey also nodded and said, "When you said just now, I had already thought of this possibility. No matter whether there will be Edith's clues in H City, I will go there to find."

"You have to rely on yourself about finding Edith. You also know my situation. I have been useless for a lifetime, and I haven't had any achievements. Now I don't even dare to return home. My hands are tied."

Nicolas said.

Casey said with a smile, "Bring Edith back from the trash can was the most correct thing you did in your life. If you didn't bring her back, how could I have chance to meet her?"

"I'll handle it. Don't worry."

Nicolas nodded, got up from the table, and said, "I haven't slept well for several days. Now I just want to take a good rest. Didn't you arrange a place for me? Can I go there now?"

"Of course you can. I'll let someone come over to pick you up." Casey said, took out his mobile phone, and made a call.

After sending Nicolas away, Casey quickly returned to the Davies House. Considering that Edith's disappearance might be related to her biological parents, he must arrange for someone to go to H City to find Edith's whereabouts.

This might be the last clue about Edith, so he couldn't let go of it. Even if he had to spend all he had, he must find Edith. Taking out his cell phone, Casey dialed the special number which was used to contact Guanling personnel.

"Mobilize all resources. Go to H City to investigate the whereabouts of my wife. Report to me as soon as you have news!"

Chapter 504 Mistakes Her for Edith
At N Group.

Finn was sitting in the office, staring at the documents Margaret took to him. He frowned.

Now, Margaret had almost recovered from the injury on her face. However, her arm was still bandaged and was supported by a piece of cloth hanging from around her neck. It would still take a long time to recover.

"Nearly half of the money we invest in the project of rebuilding the old town has already run out. As far as I know, although the Davies family and Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce have invested many money in this project, from the beginning, their money has never been used. I'm afraid that we're fooled." Margaret said.

After hearing this, Finn directly stood up, picking up the documents on the table and tearing them up!

"How on earth did this damn guy make Maddox help him? The Davies family will soon be ruined. Why would Maddox help Casey? He should help Casey set a trap for me!" Finn shouted hysterically. It seemed that Margaret was also somewhat annoyed. However, all she had was from Finn. If Finn couldn't deal with Casey, it was impossible that she could.

"After being expelled from the Davies family by my sister and me, Casey changes a little bit. No one knows how crafty he is. Maybe we've underestimated him." Margaret said.

There was immediately a murderous look in Finn's eyes. He gritted his teeth and said, "However crafty he is, he is but a son of a traitor of the family. However crafty he is, it's impossible that he could deal with the Turner family!"

"Humph, since I can't make the Davies family a spent force with commercial means, I'll use another method. Now, the Davies family depends totally on Casey. If Casey is killed, the Davies family, after losing its head, won't be able to become powerful."

Seeing his murderous look, Margaret was a little shocked and finally realized the difference between Finn and the young masters of the families in the B City.

In her opinion, Casey was really no match for Finn.

"You mentioned an expert in fighting from Guanling last time. Is that people really that good at fighting? What is Guanling? Why have I never heard of it?" Margaret asked while staring at Finn.

"Only people really of the upper class can get to know Guanling. It's impossible for people like you to get to know it." Finn's lips twitched, "People on List of the Ares are top experts in fighting of Guanling. The people I employ ranks first on List of the Ares. In Guanling, he is called Human King. The men here are not good at fighting. He alone can defeat hundreds of them. If he were born in ancient times, he would be as powerful as an army."

Hearing it, Margaret was shocked. She had never expected that there would be someone who could defeat an army alone in the world. If that were the case, however good at fighting Casey was, he certainly wouldn't be able to defeat the Human King Finn mentioned.

"Then when can this expert in fighting come here?" Margaret asked.

"Guanling is quite far away from the B City. And it's not easy to get someone out of Guanling. However, I guess that he will soon arrive at the B City."

"I've already figured out a way to deal with Casey. I'm just waiting for Human King. When he arrives in the B City, I'll begin to implement my plan."

"This time, I'll make Casey die in a painful death!"

Finn slowly smiled. There was also an expectant expression and smile in his eyes.

At the Davies House.

Now, Casey was sitting in the living room and drinking tea with a man in a blue suit and with gold-rimmed spectacles.

This man was named Wilfred Elliott. He was the boss of the B City Wanlong Real Estate, which was rather well-known in the B City. At its peak, it was only a little less powerful than the Davies family.

Now, people all knew how powerful the Davies family would be in the B City.

Naturally, Wanlong Real Estate would try to build a good relationship with the Davies family.

The boss of Wanlong Real Estate was among the few people who were eligible to sit down and chat with Casey.

"You're indeed a rarely seen genius.

You're so young. However, under your leadership, the Davies family becomes so powerful. We old men are ashamed."

"You're flattering me." Casey politely replied.

"Now, we takes a fancy to a piece of land that is not far away from the old town. Now there is still a welfare house on it. I've purchased that piece of land. I'm going to demolish that welfare house in the not long future. When the new buildings are under construction, we might need your help. I hope you'll help us." Wilfred went on speaking.

At this moment, Casey was thinking about the origin of Edith. Therefore, he didn't pay much attention to what Wilfred said. When Wilfred finished speaking, Casey just casually nodded his head.

"This packet of tea is hand-made.

Besides, the tea leaves are carefully selected. I've specially sent someone to Yunnan to get it. It's not expensive. I hope that you don't mind. Please accept it."

Wilfred handed a packet of tea to Casey. There was a paper on it. It was a list of a large number of gifts. The gifts together would be worth at least one million dollars. Wilfred didn't really want to send Casey a packet of tea. As a matter of fact, Wilfred was going to send the gifts listed on that piece of paper. After lowering his head and giving a glance to the packet of tea, Casey pushed that piece of paper back to Wilfred and picked up only the packet of tea.

"I'll take this packet of tea. Later, I'm going to send it to my wife's father. I'm not going to take the gifts listed on that paper. It's getting late and I'm going to visit my wife's father. Jordan, take good care of Mr. Elliott for me."

As Casey said, he stood up and walked out.

Jordan had been sitting near them. Now, Jordan looked at Wilfred with a smile and said, "Casey always doesn't want others to send him expensive gifts. I'm afraid that we can't accept it."

Wilfred was a little embarrassed, but he dared not say anything about it.

Moreover, Casey had at least accepted that packet of tea. Someone had specially come to send gifts to Casey before. However, he heard that Casey hadn't accepted any gift from them. Compared with other people, he had been very lucky.

After leaving the Davies House, Casey went to visit Nicolas. He gave that packet of tea to him and asked him if he was comfortable here.

Not being tied by Amara anymore, Nicolas lived an unprecedented comfortable life here. Moreover, Casey paid all his expenses here. How was it possible that he was not comfortable here?

After Casey just arrived at the house Nicolas lived in, Nicolas began to express his gratitude to Casey. Besides, he also sincerely apologized to Casey for treating him badly in the past and for the wrong things he had done.

Casey couldn't stand Nicolas's keeping nagging. Therefore, before long, he claimed that he had something to do and left the community.

At the gate of the community, Casey decided to go to Tianyuan Tower by taxi to visit Lily. When he walked to the road side and reached out his hand to stop a taxi, someone ran in a hurry in front of him and directly ran into his arm.

It was a small girl with a stack of documents in her arms. After running into Casey's arm, she lost her balance and fell to the ground.

She hurriedly got up and put away the documents scattering on the ground. It seemed that she was anxious. Feeling a little embarrassed, Casey immediately crouched down and put away the documents for her.

"I'm really sorry. Just now, I didn't see you, so I accidentally blocked your way. Are you hurt?" Casey asked with concern.

That girl raised her head, smiled at Casey and said, "I'm fine. I can put away these documents myself."

Right at this moment, Casey was totally stunned. This girl looked really too much similar to Edith. When she smiled, Casey thought that Edith had been back.

"Edith...Edith, is it you?"

That girl was immediately stunned, asking, "Edith? Who is she?"

It was only then that Casey gathered his wits. He looked at this girl again, finding that this girl just looked somewhat similar to Edith. She was actually very different from Edith. Missing Edith too much, just now, Casey had an illusion at the moment he saw this girl.

"I...I'm sorry. I mistook you for someone else." Casey explained with some embarrassment.

That girl didn't say anything more. After putting away the documents, she continued to run.

Standing still, Casey was stunned for quite a while. Seeing that girl, he recalled some memories of Edith.

Thinking that Edith was missing now, he was sad.

"That girl seems to be very anxious. It seems that she was in great trouble. Looking so similar to Edith, she should be a kind-hearted person. Why not follow her and see what has happened to her? Maybe I can feel more at ease after her."

Casey said to himself. Then, he followed that girl and began to run.

That girl was so anxious that she, a small girl, ran so fast. It seemed that she was really in a hurry.

Casey had been following her. He was thinking: if she is in trouble, he could help her to deal with it; if she is not in trouble or is in a trouble he couldn't interfere with, he would have to give up. Before long, that girl made a turn, went into an alley and came close to a door.

After coming close to the door, Casey found that there were a few words written on the door: welfare house. However, the door, where the words were written on, had been rusty. It seemed that these words were written on the door for a long time.

At this moment, there were two excavators parked in front of the door of the welfare house. Beside the two excavators, there were many young people with sticks in their hands. It seemed that they were going to do something bad.

At the door of the welfare house, several adults with a group of children faced the two excavators with angry expression. Seeing this, Casey had guessed what was going on.

It was a forced demolition. Now, land was very precious. Forced demolition was nothing new at all.

Chapter 505 Beat Them up

"Go away, otherwise you might be hurt by the excavators behind me and the sticks held by my men. If you block the way with these children here and are injured, we won't be responsible for it!"

In front of the young men with sticks was a middle-aged man in a vest. He had a bald head, on which there was a conspicuous scar.

With a cigarette in his hand, he shouted at the teachers and children opposite him with a malicious expression.

Among those female teachers, there was a middle-aged woman who was in her 40s or 50s. Some of her hair had turned white. She was holding two children in her arms. After hearing what the bald middle-aged man said, she made the two children stand behind her with an angry expression and shouted to the bald man with no fear, "Before, this piece of land was especially given to us build a welfare house here. You get this piece of land with dishonest means and didn't care about these kids at all. Do you still have any conscience?"

"I won't allow you to demolish this welfare house, unless I'm crushed to death. I don't believe that you dare to break the law!"

After hearing it, there was a malicious look in the bald man's eyes. Then he waved to the drivers of the two excavators behind him. The two excavators immediately started up. It seemed that they would really crush the middle-aged female teacher.

"You asked us to crush you. Everyone has heard it. Then I'll take some action!" Seeing that the bald man really wanted crush them with the excavators, other teachers and the children were immediately in a panic. Several teachers hurriedly tried to persuade the middle-aged female teacher.

However, the middle-aged female teacher faced it calmly and unflinchingly. She stood still, staring at the bald man as if she were going to see him through. At this moment, many people had gathered around to watch it. Seeing that the bald man really asked the driver to start the excavators, they were all worried about the middle-aged female teacher.

However, none of them spoke for the teachers and children. After all, they didn't want to get themselves into trouble. They just loved to be lookers?on. Under the bald man's command, the drivers drove the excavators forward. Soon, the excavators would knock the middle-aged teacher.

Right at this moment, that girl came to the door of the welfare house. Casey arrived here after that girl. Seeing that the two excavators were very close to the middle-aged female teacher, that girl hurriedly rushed over with the documents in her hands. Then she spread her arms and separated the middle-aged female teacher from the two excavators.

"I have the copy of your contract for the purchase and sale of this piece of land. It's prescribed clearly in the contract that you have the obligation to find a place for the children in the welfare house before demolishing the welfare house."

"Now, you don't care about these children at all. You're breaching the contract! Could it be that you're not going to take care of these children?"

That girl passionately shouted to the people standing opposite her.

Seeing the documents that girl brought, the bald man frowned. There was indeed such a term in the contract they signed. However, they didn't take this term seriously. They weren't really going to take care of the people in the welfare house after they got the land.

They also knew one thing: after selling this piece of land, no one would interfere with this matter. They wouldn't tell others that they were not going to take care of the people in welfare house.

They would just delay doing what they should, waiting for them to run out of patience and give up.

They usually dealt with such matters in this way.

"We didn't say that we're not going to take care of people in welfare house. However, to build a new welfare house for you, we need money. If we don't demolish this welfare house and begin to build new buildings, how can we get the money? Now, you're making things difficult for us by stopping us from demolishing the welfare house." The bald man said with a sneer.

"You're distorting the right and talking speciously. Before you find a new place for these children, we won't allow you to demolish the welfare house, unless...unless you crush me!" That girl wore an anxious expression. How was it possible that she could cope with an unreasonable person like this bald man? The bald man smiled at that girl and said, "Girl, it seems that you're only in your early twenties, right? You're quite pretty and are at your best age. Why must you interfere with this matter? If you insist on interfering with this matter, we have many ways to deal with you. At that time, it will not be excavators that press on you."

After he finished speaking, the young people behind him all obscenely laughed.

That girl felt sick. She didn't expect that these people would be so bad that they threatened her in this way.

"Well, we have no time to spend with you. If you're smart, leave here with these children now. This is the task given to us. We are just do what we're told to do. If you continue to stop us, I'll really take some action!" The bald man added.

That girl still stood there. She was not going to give up.

Seeing this, the bald man snorted and winked at the men behind him.

The people with sticks immediately stepped forward threateningly. It seemed that they were going to harm that girl and those teachers.

The lookers-on all shook their heads helplessly. They couldn't afford to offend the bald man and his men at all, so they could only feel sorry for that girl.

Just when those young people were about to get close to that girl, someone went out of the crowd and separated that girl from those young people.

"Are you employed by Wanlong Real Estate?"

Casey asked coldly while looking at the people standing opposite him.

Today, in the Davies House, the boss of Wanlong Real Estate, Wilfred, mentioned a piece of land. According to Wilfred, there was a welfare house on that piece of land. This was the welfare house nearest to the old town. If he was not wrong, this was the welfare house Wilfred mentioned.

Seeing Casey, those young people all stopped and looked at him up and down.

The bald man didn't that someone would still try to help the people of welfare house. After cursing in his heart, he stepped forward and spoke, "Since you know that we're employees of Wanlong Real Estate, don't interfere with this matter. Go away. Don't waste our time!"

"Ask the boss of Wanlong Real Estate to come here. I want to ask him if this is the way he does his business." Casey said while staring at the bald man.

The bald man immediately sneered, saying, "Who the fuck do you think you are? You want to see our boss. How dare you? Now, go away. Otherwise, my men will be rude to you!"

Those young people also sneered at Casey. It was obvious that they all considered Casey to be a joke.

Casey shook his head, saying, "If that is the case, I can only beat you up first."

"Fuck, he dares to be pretentious. Fella, teach him a lesson. I'll see if he still dares to interfere with this matter!" The bald man immediately shouted.

Seeing the men who had accidentally run into her came to help them, that girl was a little shocked.

However, seeing Casey was going to fight with the bald man and his men after having a word with the bald man, she was anxious.

"Well, leave here now. We can deal with this matter on our own. These are unreasonable people. They will really hit you." That girl talked to Casey.

Casey turned his head, smiled at that girl and said, "Don't worry. These weak guys can't harm me. Before, I ran into you. Now I'll deal with them for you. It's a compensation."

The lookers-on around didn't expect that someone would help the people of the welfare house. Besides, that person was not afraid of the bald man and his men at all. He was even going to fight with the bald man and his men after having a few with the bald man. The lookers-on were a little shocked.

However, in their opinion, it was impossible for Casey alone to defeat the bald man's men. In their view, Casey just decided to help in the heat of the moment.

"This young man is so impulsive that he's going to fight with so many people. If they really fight with each other, this young man will be killed. Those people are unreasonable."

"He's really silly. These people are employed by Wanlong Real Estate. How will such a large enterprise attach importance to these common people? Sometimes, when such a thing happens to us, we can only endure it."

"Tut-tut, now, if one person can't distinguish doing boldly what is righteous from acting on impulse, he or she would suffer a great loss."

Seeing that Casey was not going to flinch at all, the young men with sticks all put on malicious expression. They loved to teach these pretentious people a lesson most. It was their greatest fun to beat this kind of people up and to make them kneel down before them to beg for mercy.

"Guy, you're good at pretending. How long can you pretend? Don't beg for mercy after being beaten with a stick once. That'll be too boring!"

The lead young man directly raised his stick and tried to hit Casey with it without hesitation.

Seeing this, that girl was so scared that she immediately closed her eyes. Soon after that, she heard a scream. Her heart trembled because of it.

Then, she wanted to know if Casey was fine, so she opened her eyes. However, Casey didn't fall to the ground. Instead, she saw that the young man trying to hit Casey was wailing on the ground.

Casey had already taken his stick and was standing there as if nothing had happened.

Now, the lookers-on around were so shocked that their eyes were wide open. It seemed as if they had seen something incredible.

It never occurred to the bald man that Casey could defeat one of his men so easily. He was a little shocked. Then he shouted to his men, "Why the fuck are you standing there? Start a fight together. I don't believe that this guy could defeat you all!"

Casey moved the stick in his hand once and put on a playful smile.

Then he moved. Soon after that, before the gate of the welfare house, there was one scream after another. It went on for quite a while.

Chapter 506 There Should Be Someone Taking Care of It

Casey knocked all the bald man's men down. The bald man stared at Casey in horror. He couldn't help taking two steps back.

Casey threw the stick to the ground, turned his head and looked at the bald man.

After swallowing his saliva, the bald man quickly turned around, rushed towards the excavators and shouted, "Drive the excavators towards that guy and crush him to death!"

Casey rushed forward quickly, directly jumping on one of the excavators. He grabbed the driver and then threw him to the ground.

Then he did the same thing, throwing the driver of another excavator to the ground. After that, he gave the bald man a kick, making him fall on his face.

Seeing Casey did all these moves quickly, people around were shocked a lot.

"It...It's so amazing! Has he ever been a soldier of special troops? He defeats so many people on his own!"

"The soldiers of special troops are not as good at fighting as he is. No wonder he dares to interfere with this matter. He is so good at fighting."

"He's indeed good at fighting. However, those people are employed by Wanlong Real Estate. He can't deal with this matter by purely fighting. Now, he knocks down so many people. It means that it has become a serious matter. If people of Wanlong Real Estate is going to do something about it, I'm afraid that this young man will suffer."

The bald man got up, looked at Casey with some fear and spoke with a somewhat trembling voice, "You...You're good at fighting, but it's not over. We're working for Wanlong Real Estate. You stop us from doing our job. Do you think that the people of Wanlong Real Estate will let you get away with it? I'm going to make a phone call to the boss of Wanlong Real Estate. He will definitely have a way to deal with you. You're done!"

After saying that, the bald man took out his mobile phone and made a phone call.

"Hi, Mr. Elliott. We're now in trouble. An unknown guy beats all of us and stops us from demolishing the welfare house. I really can't deal with it, so I call you."

The bald man acted as if he was aggrieved.

Just after he finished speaking, Casey took his mobile phone.

"What are you doing? Give my cell phone back to me! I'm talking to the boss of Wanlong Real Estate on the phone. Are you out of your mind?" The bald man shouted.

After Casey glared at him, he was so frightened that he immediately shut up.

Casey put the mobile phone near his, asking, "Are you Wilfred?"

"Who is that?" Wilfred asked in a puzzled voice.

"Casey."

Casey heard the sound obviously made in a panic. Then Wilfred spoke in a trembling voice, "Lord Davies...Lord Davies, why is that you? What on earth happened?"

"Come here, and you'll know then. I'm at the door of the welfare house. If you want to deal with it, come here now.

Otherwise, I'll lower the boom."

"Yes, yes, yes. Lord Davies, wait a moment, please. I'll be right there soon."

Wilfred hurriedly answered.

After hanging up the phone, Casey threw it to the bald man. Then, he turned around and walked towards that girl.

After taking his mobile phone and finding that Casey had hung up the phone, the bald man immediately shouted to Casey, "What did you say to Mr. Elliott? Have you said something you shouldn't say? Are you fucking out of your mind?"

Casey ignored him. After coming close to that girl, he spoke, "I've basically solved the problem. After the boss of Wanlong Real Estate comes here, I'll talk to him about the welfare house. Before he finds a new place for you, the welfare house will definitely not be demolished. Ask the teachers to take the children back now. They shouldn't be involved in this matter."

After hearing what Casey said, that girl immediately widened her eyes and asked, "Will...Will the boss of Wanlong Real Estate come here? Will...Will it be more difficult to deal with this matter?" Casey smiled and said, "No. The reason why I ask him to come here is that I want to deal with this matter. In my presence, their boss dares not to make trouble for you."

Casey spoke evenly, but that girl was greatly shocked. Casey said that the boss of Wanlong Real Estate dared not make trouble for them in his presence. It meant that the boss of Wanlong Real Estate dared not to act unscrupulously in the presence of Casey.

Wanlong Real Estate had been a very large enterprise in the B City. Even its boss dared not to make trouble for them in the presence of Casey. Then who on earth was Casey?

In an instant, that girl thought of a possibility. She remembered the Davies family and its current head--Casey. Both the Davies family and Casey were often discussed in the B City recently.

"Believe me." Casey smiled at that girl again. Then he went to talk to those teachers, asking them to take the children of the welfare house back first. Those teachers clearly knew one thing: under such circumstance, they could no longer influence this event. These children were innocent and they were forced to stop the bald man and his men with these children.

Then, under the command of Casey and that girl, they sent the children back to the welfare house. Only those teachers and that girl still stayed at the door of the welfare house.

"Fella, after you help us in this way, the people of Wanlong Real Estate will definitely not let you get away with it. If they really make trouble for you, tell them that it's all our fault. Anyway, under such circumstances, I'm not afraid of nothing." The middle-aged female teacher spoke to Casey.

Casey smiled and said, "Don't worry. It'll be fine. I'll handle this matter for you."

At this moment, the bald man had recovered. In his opinion, Casey must have said something that angered Wilfred, so Wilfred would come here in person to teach Casey a lesson.

And Casey must be pretending to be calm now.

After hearing what Casey said, he immediately sneered, "Guy, be realistic. When Mr. Elliott really comes here, you'll be done. None of you can get away with it!"

That girl had guessed who Casey was, but she was not sure. Therefore, she came close to Casey and asked, "Well, could you tell me your name?"

"Casey Davies." Casey replied with a smile.

That girl was immediately shocked. As far as she knew, the name of the current head of the Davies family was Casey Davies. And it seemed that the man before her was not joking with her.

"My...My name Anastasia Willis. Thank you very much." After trying hard to calm herself down, that girl said.

"They try to unreasonably demolish the welfare house by force. There should be someone taking care of it." Casey said with a smile.

Before long, a black Mercedes-Benz drove to the door of the welfare house. Seeing that, the bald man hurriedly came close to the door, bent down, opened the door and said with a smile, "Mr. Elliott, you're finally here. That guy is very arrogant. Only you can teach him a lesson."

Seeing the boss of Wanlong Real Estate really came here, people looked at Casey with sympathy.

Wilfred got off the car. Now, his face was drenched with sweat. That was because he was scared on the way to come here.

After getting off the car, he saw the bald man. The bald man was lowering his head and bending over. Without saying a word, Wilfred directly gave him a kick and scolded him, "What trouble did you get me in? You should offend that person. If anything goes wrong, I won't let you off!"

Chapter 507 You'd Better Donate It

Wilfred kicked the bald man as soon as he got off the car, making everyone dumbfounded. They didn't know what the chairman of Wanlong Real Estate meant.

The bald man was even more muddled. He got a kick for no reason, which made him confused.

Wilfred didn't have time to explain to the bald man. After kicking the bald man away, he immediately glanced around.

After seeing Casey, he hurried over.

He stretched out his hand to wipe the sweat from his forehead. When he reached Casey, he bent down and said apologetically to Casey, "Lord Davies, I'm really sorry, are my subordinates causing you trouble? If they are, I will definitely give them a hard lesson!"

Casey took a cold look at Wilfred and asked, "When you bought the land of the welfare home, did you make it clear in the contract that you would get the children who used to live in the welfare home settled?"

Wilfred's heart did a complete somersault when he heard Casey's words, and he also knew why Casey had come to him. The bald man came to demolish the welfare home with his permission. As for the people in the welfare home, he planned to demolish them first. After all, time waited for no one. If he didn't demolish the welfare home until the people inside were settled, he would definitely lose a lot of money.

"Lord.... Lord Davies, it is because I'm a little tight on cash lately. The welfare home is the most profitable project. I still have a lot of loans to repay, so I was in a hurry and wanted to work on the project..." Wilfred explained.

Casey snorted and said, "What I asked you was whether it was clearly stated in the contract that all the people in the orphanage needed to be settled. I didn't let you complain to me."

Wilfred shivered, and then quickly said, "It... was clearly stated."

"Now the children in the orphanage can only stay here, but your men have come here for forcible demolition. Did you fulfill the contract? Is it the way how Wanlong Real Estate do business?"

Casey questioned.

The sweat on Wilfred's forehead came out again, and he didn't know how to explain it for a while. He only knew that if Casey blacklisted Wanlong Real Estate because of this incident, then Wanlong Real Estate would have a difficult time in B City.

Anastasia watched Casey and Wilfred talk. After seeing the chairman of Wanlong Real Estate really bowed in front of Casey, she was sure in her heart that Casey was the head of the Davies family.

How Wilfred addressed Casey also made Anastasia confirm her conjecture. She didn't expect that the person she ran into at that time was an influential man in B City, and the man even came to help her solve the trouble because he hit her, which made her feel like she was dreaming.

At this time, the bald man also walked over here. He was also puzzled when he saw Wilfred being so respectful to Casey. After walking to Wilfred's side, he said cautiously, "Mr. Elliott, this man prevented us from demolishing the welfare home and beat us. Why are you so polite to him?"

Wilfred didn't know how to resolve the embarrassment in front of Casey. The bald man walked over and said such a sentence. He directly raised his hand and slapped the bald man's face without saying a word.

"Do you know who this is? This is the head of the Davies family. It is an honor for you to be hit by him. You fucking want me to be rude to him? How dare you!" Wilfred roared.

The bald man was dumbfounded when he heard Wilfred's words. He looked at Casey with an incredible look, recalling the recent rumors about the Davies Family and Casey in his mind, and a deep horror arose in his heart.

The Davies family would be the absolute monarch in B City again, and would be even more powerful than before. The head of the Davies family could do anything without scruple in B City. And the person he provoked just now was a man of supreme status in B City! The two legs of the bald man trembled immediately, and he regretted why he didn't ask clearly what the identity of the person was in the first place. If he knew that he was the head of the Davies family from the beginning, he would definitely not let his subordinates fight against him.

Not necessarily. If Casey said he was the head of the Davies family at that time, he would definitely not believe Casey, and the final result would definitely be the same. It was Wilfred who personally told him Casey's identity, so he didn't have any doubts.

After Wilfred slapped the bald man, he turned to look at Casey, and said, " Lord Davies, when I told them to come over, I told them that they had to settle the people in the welfare home first before starting to demolish it. Those fools ignored me, and such a situation happened. I must deal with this matter properly. I will find a suitable place for these children in the shortest possible time, and then start work. This will never happen again."

"Mr. Elliott, I..." The bald man wanted to justify himself. After all, Wilfred had never told him to settle the people in the orphanage.

Wilfred immediately turned his head and glared at him, motioning him not to speak. The bald man was aggrieved, but he didn't dare to violate Wilfred's order, so he shut his mouth up.

Casey noticed their expression. After listening to Wilfred's words, he was not in a hurry to answer Wilfred, but turned to look at Anastasia.

"Do you want to change to a new environment, or do you want to stay here?" Casey asked.

Wilfred was still in shock. Hearing Casey's question, she immediately came back into her mind, and said quickly, "If...if possible, of course I want to stay here all the time. The welfare home has existed here for so many years. If we go elsewhere, it will not only be troublesome, but we will also need time to adapt."

Casey nodded, then looked at Wilfred, and then showed a joking smile, and asked, "Mr. Elliott, if I guessed correctly, Wanlong Real Estate has done this kind of forced demolition many times, right?" Wilfred's look darkened, but he still defended, "Lord Davies, you are kidding. This is really the first time such a thing has happened. I believe this is the first and last time."

Casey curled his lips. From expression on Wilfred's face, it was easy to know that he definitely did such a thing than once.

"You don't have to make a promise to me. I can find out how many such things Wanlong Real Estate has done easily," Casey said.

Wilfred suddenly stiffened.

"This kind of thing will bring retribution. Now it is an opportunity for redemption. Sometimes, if you do something good, you will be blessed."

"Why don't you donate this land to continue to run welfare home here and help trim it up by the way?"

Chapter 508 I Won't Go to Hotel With You

After hearing Casey's words, Wilfred felt a pain in his heart. Although Casey seemed to be asking for his opinion, he didn't dare to refusal at all.

The land of the welfare home was bought by him with considerable energy and financial resources. If he bought the land in order to continue to run the welfare home here, then he might as well invest that money somewhere else. But now that Casey had said so, even if he was reluctant, he had to agree to it. After all, to promise Casey was only to lose a piece of land. To offend Casey, he would lose everything of Wanlong Real Estate.

Even a fool knew what it would be like to fight against the Davies family, who was now very influential in B City.

"You... you are right, Lord Davies. I actually wanted to do some good deeds a long time ago to help some friends who are in difficulty. Since you mentioned it today, I would naturally follow your advice," Wilfred said, gritting his teeth.

Hearing Wilfred's promise, Casey also smiled and said, "Don't worry, you will be rewarded if you help others and do good deeds. I will not let your money be invested in vain. If the affairs of the welfare home are handled, there will naturally be good projects for Wanlong Real Estate."

Hearing this, Wilfred's eyes brightened up. It was obvious that the head of the Davies family's promise was more valuable than the money he invested.

"Thank you, Lord Davies. I will definitely handle the affairs of the welfare home. I will send someone here to renovate and replace all the contents with new ones, providing the children in the welfare home a good environment to grow up,"

Wilfred agreed quickly.

After that, he turned to face everyone and shouted, "Everyone, I was blinded by money, and I was only thinking about benefits. It almost led to a disaster and welfare home was almost demolished. But fortunately, Lord Davies enlightened me in time and made me understand what I should do, so I decided to invest in the renovation of the welfare home so that the children here can live a better life!"

When everyone around heard Wilfred's words, they all exclaimed, especially Anastasia and the teachers in the welfare home. They never dreamed that Wanlong Real Estate, who plan to demolish the welfare home, would renovate the welfare home for them. And everyone knew that Wilfred had such a change because of Casey.

"Oh my god, this young man turned out to be the head of the Davies family. They old saying— never judge people by their appearance—is right. No wonder he dared to compete with so many people on his own. If I were him, I would not be afraid of these people in Wanlong Real Estate, either."

"This old saying is not suitable. He looks like he has clearly experienced a lot. It's because of being in a high position that he can keep so calm. In fact, from the very beginning, I realize he is not a simple guy."

"It is really lucky. Wanlong Real Estate promised to renovate the welfare home. The head of the Davies family is so kind. I don't know why he helped the people in the welfare home."

"Isn't it easy to guess? Haven't you seen that young girl, who looks so beautiful. The reason why the head of the Davies helped was her. Beautiful girls are always lucky."

After Anastasia heard Wilfred's words, she was in a daze. At that time, she thought Casey was asking her that question, just wanting to understand their current situation. She didn't expect Casey to let Wanlong Real Estate changed its investment plan just because of her words.

It actually made her feel a little flustered, because she didn't feel that she should be treated like this by the head of the Davies family.

And those female teachers were full of joy. They all knew that the reason why Casey was willing to help the welfare home was only because of Anastasia. Although they didn't know why Casey helped Anastasia, they had made up the reason by imagination.

The female teachers all walked towards Anastasia and Casey. They surrounded Anastasia, thanked Casey, and praised Anastasia.

"Mr. Davies, thank you very much. Otherwise, we really don't know how to maintain the welfare home. Anastasia is indeed a nice girl. She is a beautiful girl with a kind heart. It is because she has always been ready to do a turn for others, she can get you interested in her," the middle-aged female teacher said with a smile.

The remaining teachers all echoed and praised Anastasia.

Anastasia flushed in their compliments, lowered her head shyly, and said in a low voice, "Don't be kidding. How could Mr. Davies be interested in me?"

Casey was also a little embarrassed. One of the reasons why he helped the welfare home was because he felt that Anastasia and Edith looked a bit like each other. The other reason was that this was something he could do. If he didn't run into it, he might not care about it, but since he ran into it, he wouldn't stand by.

Wilfred on the side kept all the words of the female teachers in mind, and then took a close look at Anastasia. He thought Casey came here because of this girl. Therefore, he must remember the girl's appearance and never provoke her in the future.

To ease the embarrassment, Casey turned his head to look at Wilfred, and said, "That's all for today's affairs. Take your people away, and remember what you promised."

Wilfred nodded immediately and said, "Yes, Mr. Davies."

After speaking, he turned around and left here with the bald man and his subordinates. After walking not far, Wilfred kicked the bald man a few times. Although he knew that this incident was caused by the forced demolition, Wilfred felt upset, so he could only vent his anger on the bald man.

After Wilfred took the people and left, everyone around slowly dispersed. After a while, only Casey and Anastasia and the female teachers were left at the entrance of the welfare home.

The female teachers all glanced at Casey and Anastasia with a smile, and then left here wittily.

Seeing Casey and herself left at the door, Anastasia became even more shy. She was still a senior now. She came to the welfare home just to do volunteer work. Long ago, Anastasia imagined what kind of boy she would meet in the university. Unfortunately, she was a senior now, but she didn't meet a suitable one.

Because she was eager for love, but couldn't meet the right person, Anastasia liked reading novels, especially the type of domineering president. She felt that with her own personality, it was perfect to meet a domineering president.

And just today, she met Casey, the head of the Davies family. And even domineering president in the novels didn't seem as powerful as he was. And what happened today was similar to the plot in the novel. Casey just hit her and helped the welfare home solve such a problem.

It made Anastasia tie Casey and the male god that she had fantasized for a long time in her heart.

And according to the plot in the novel, the domineering president often helped Cinderella, and then Cinderella would fall in love with the president.

'No, I should be more reserved. The heroines in the novel refused at first, and then were forcibly taken away by the domineering president, so that the domineering president can show his dominance.' Anastasia thought.

Anastasia looked at Casey nervously and a little expectantly, and said, "Mr...Mr. Davies, I am very grateful for everything you did for us today, but I won't go to the hotel with you."

What?

Chapter 509 Kacper Arrived Here

Casey was confused when listening to Anastasia's words.

"What, go to... the hotel?" Casey asked.

Anastasia suddenly became embarrassed, and suddenly realized that she had just brought herself into the plot of novel about the overbearing president. Although Casey did have a relationship with the domineering president, he was still very easy-going. Furthermore, how could the plot of the novel appear in life

She just felt embarrassed. She was a little restless standing up for a while, and she didn't know how to explain to Casey.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I have read too many novels, and I accidentally brought myself into the plot just now, don't pay attention to me. I have been insane," Anastasia said in a panic.

Casey smiled at Anastasia, and suddenly remembered Lily, who had watched too many TV shows. It might be because of Lily, Casey had a better impression of Anastasia.

"I have a younger sister. She likes watching TV series very much. She always imagines that the real world is the same as TV series. Therefore, a lot of ridiculous things have happened. You looked a bit like her just now," Casey said.

Anastasia did not expect that Casey didn't think she was going crazy just now. He even mentioned her sister. She was also a little surprised and said, "Then your sister should be very cute." "Yeah, but she is still lying on the hospital bed now." Casey sighed helplessly.

"Sorry, I didn't intend to mention this matter," Anastasia apologized quickly. Casey shook his head and signaled that it was all right, and then said, "Do you have time now, please walk with me in the welfare home."

Anastasia nodded, thinking that the plot of the novel would not happen in life. She followed Casey into the Anastasia, feeling a little nervous. Walking with the head of the Davies family made her very stressed.

Casey had recently become a little anxious about Edith's affairs. He also wanted to find someone to talk about his worries, so he took this opportunity to tell Anastasia about Edith and Lily. After learning that she looked a little like Edith, Anastasia understood why Casey would help her.

She listened to Casey telling the story of Edith as well as his sister, Lily, with deep envy in her heart.

She originally thought that a big wig like the head of the Davies family should be the kind of person who would sleep with different girls every night, but she didn't expect Casey to be so dedicated, and she naturally envied Edith.

Every girl longed for such a person who loved herself exclusively, especially she who liked to read novels about the love of domineering presidents.

Anastasia frowned when she heard Edith's disappearance and Lily was in a coma. She didn't expect them to encounter such a thing.

Casey only said that they had a car accident, and did not mention that Margaret's tricks were behind this. It was better not to talk to Anastasia about these grievances.

"Didn't you say that, there is a genius doctor who helped your sister treat the illness, saying that she will wake up soon, and there are also clues about your wife. Cheer up, everything will be fine," Anastasia comforted Casey.

Casey turned his head and smiled at her, and said, "I hope everything will be fine."

Anastasia nodded solemnly, and they continued to walk in the welfare home. At this time, Anastasia suddenly realized that even the head of the Davies family was just a person with passions and desires. Casey's feelings for Edith made Anastasia feel that he was more real. After pouring out, Casey also felt a lot easier, and he also had hope in his heart to find Edith.

After walking around in the welfare home, Casey decided to set up a special fund for the welfare home to help the children live better.

When Anastasia heard Casey talk about it, she was moved, saying that she would definitely let the children in the welfare home know how kind Casey was.

After he was relieved, Casey didn't keep staying in the welfare home. After calling Jordan and asked him to arrange the follow-up of the fund for the welfare home, Casey took a taxi and left here.

N Group.

In the office, Finn and Margaret were sitting together chatting. The topic was nothing more than what Maddox had done with their money, but the benefits fell to the Davies family and Tianyuan chamber of Commerce.

Finn had been in a bad mood these days. Almost every day he looked gloomy. Five or six sets of tea sets in the office had been damaged by him.

"Let this damned guy be arrogant for another two days. I will see if he can still jump in front of me when he is killed!" Finn threw out the papers and said with his mouth curled.

"When will the master you invited arrive? I just want Casey to die in a hurry. If he doesn't die for a day, I won't be at peace." Margaret said, still bandaged in her hand.

"I can't control the whereabouts of that kind of master. You're worried, I'm also worried. Wait patiently. Guanling still has a good reputation. Since I spent money, they will send that man to me," Finn said impatiently.

Just at this time, the door of the office was pushed open, and the secretary with black glasses came in, his face full of panic.

Finn saw the expression on his secretary's face and became nervous. There were not many things that could make him flustered.

He stood up and asked, "What's the matter? Why are you so flustered?"

"There was a man downstairs who wanted to see you. He didn't tell his identity or his purpose, so the security guard stopped him. As a result, the man beat them directly and knocked all the security guards into a coma," the secretary explained.

Finn was stunned first, then became happy. He turned to look at Margaret, saying, "The one we wait for is here, follow me down."

With that, they all rushed out of the office and headed downstairs.

In the hall of Ningyun Building, dozens of security guards fell on the ground and did not move. A man in a strong black suit stood in the middle of the hall. His momentum was like a sharp sword, which was aggressiveness.

Kacper, who was ranked first on the List of Ares, was called Human King in Guanling.

The staff in the hall were shivering and hiding in the corner. They had all seen the person making a move just now. He was so crazy and strong, so no one dared to go up and provoke him.

At this time, Finn and Margaret walked out of the elevator. When seeing the dozens of security guards who fell on the ground, he smiled instead of getting angry.

Only when Kacper was strong enough could he have a chance to kill Casey.

The moment Margaret saw Kacper, she was also surprised by the aura he showed. She had seen many masters in her life, but Kacper was the first one that could make people want to surrender at a glance.

A joking smile appeared on her face, and she murmured, "Casey, with such a master, even if you have every means, you still can't escape. Your death date is coming soon!"

Chapter 510 I Promise You All

Finn walked in front of Kacper, with a welcome smile on his face, and reached out to pat Kacper on the shoulder.

"If I guessed correctly, you should be Kacper... Oh, my hand hurts. Let go."

Kacper squeezed Finn's wrist directly, making him scream before he could finish speaking.

Kacper stared at Finn and asked, "Who are you?"

"I, I'm Finn, your employer, let me go."

Finn shouted with a pained expression on his face.

Kacper heard Finn report his name, and then let go of the hand that was holding his wrist.

Finn quickly rubbed his wrist, he almost cried when Kacper pinched it just now.

Finn originally wanted to say hello to Kacper enthusiastically, but he didn't expect that the other party would have acted on him without hesitation.

After calming down, Finn glanced awkwardly at Margaret next to him, then looked at Kacper again, and said, "It was a small misunderstanding just now. I am very happy that you can come to us."

This level of master was not someone Finn could control, so he could only be as generous as possible in front of Kacper.

"Who do you want me to kill?" Kacper asked straightforwardly without a word of nonsense.

Finn laughed, and said, "Killing a son of a traitor. With your strength, it is just a piece of cake, so we are not in a hurry. Someone will arrange a place for you to have a good time here. When everything is ready, you should be ready to kill him."

"No, if I don't have to do it now, then you can contact me when you need me. This is my phone number." Kacper threw a note to Finn directly, then turned around and left without any hesitation.

Finn looked at Kacper's maverick look, his face was full of astonishment. He didn't expect that this guy would really be so rude to him, and left so directly, which really made him a little annoyed. But he still needed to rely on Kacper to kill Casey, so he didn't dare to say anything, and shouted at Kacper's back, "Then see you next time, I will notify you in advance when I act."

Seeing Kacper leave here, Finn's look also darkened, turned to look at Margaret, and said, "The man has arrived. Next, we should implement our plan. Find someone to arrange a hotel for the Davies family and Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. Send them invitation letter, saying that I want to apologize to Casey. This time, I will make him kneel and beg me for mercy!" Margaret nodded immediately, with a look of expectation on his face.

The Davies House, in the study. Casey was reading a book on the table when the phone rang. He picked it up and took a look. Later, there was a trace of shock on his face.

"Kacper comes to B City?"

Staring at the phone for a while, Casey got up and left the study.

It wasn't until the afternoon that Casey returned to the Davies House again.

He exercised in the yard. At this time, Jordan walked over, reached out and handed Casey an invitation letter, and said, "The N Group sent an invitation letter specifically, saying that he wanted to make amends. It is said that the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce has also been invited."

Casey accepted the invitation letter and said with a smile to Jordan, "Go and reply to them, saying that I will go there, and let them prepare wine and food for me."

In the evening, Tianyuan Tower.

In Lilt's ward, Casey and Natan stood on the edge of Lily's bed, looking at Lily, whose eyes were still closed.

After Owen helped Lily cure her illness, he listed all the medicinal materials needed, and also wrote down the matters needing attention in boiling the medicine. After instructing Natan to feed the medicine on time every day, he left B City.

"Finn invited us and said that he wanted to make an apology to you, but I don't think it's so simple. He must have set a trap. In my opinion, it is better not to keep the appointment," Natan said. Casey smiled and said, "Don't think about the matter so seriously. In case he really wants to apologize to me. We can go to the appointment on time. He can't make any trouble. You can rest assured."

Natan frowned, obviously still a little worried.

"It should be the seventh day Lily took the medicine Owen gave, right?" Casey changed the subject and asked.

Natan nodded and sighed, "Doctor Owen's medical skills are indeed amazing, but Lily's condition is too serious. Maybe even Doctor Owen has judged something wrong, so until now, Lily has not woken up."

Casey stared at Lily with both eyes, and said, "Owen won't say anything unsure. Today is the real full week. Wait a minute, maybe Lily will wake up in a while."

Natan nodded, and now he can only comfort himself in this way.

After that, the two people stayed by Lily's bed, waiting for Lily to wake up. Until twelve o'clock in the evening, Lily showed no sign of waking up. Even Casey doubted that Owen's judgment might have gone wrong.

Natan dealt with the company's affairs during the day, and stayed up so late at night, and he looked exhausted, so Casey let him go to rest.

After Natan left, Casey sat alone by Lily's bed, with only a small night light turned on. The faint light shone on Lily's face, reflecting her haggardness at this time.

The prolonged coma made Lily unable to eat. She could only rely on the delivery of nutrient solution to maintain her body's instincts. As a result, she was much thinner than before, and looked a little skinny.

"Lily, I know you are joking with me, right? In fact, you have woken up, but because you are angry with me, you don't say it on purpose, do you?" Casey saw that Lily still had no response, and he was anxious

"If you are really mad at me, then speak out. I promise to listen to you. You can hit me and scold me, I won't have any complaints. No matter what you ask me, I will agree, as long as you wake up, okay?"

After he finished speaking, for a long time, Lily on the hospital bed did not respond.

Casey lowered his head in frustration, remorse and self-blame emotions rose in his heart, but he knew that even if he regretted it now, it would be useless.

"Really...really? Will you promise me anything?"

Just when Casey was desperate, a faint voice suddenly rang in his ears. He suddenly raised his head and looked at Lily and found that the girl had opened her eyes and was staring at him with tears.

Casey was fully relieved, and he showed a serious smile to Lily, and said with pity,

"Really."

Chapter 511 Lily's Request

There were several doctors gathered around Lily's bed to examine her physical condition with various instruments in the ward.

Natan stood next to Casey and cried with joy. It was obvious that Lily's wake?up made him very excited.

"Doctor Austin is an excellent doctor. He said my daughter would wake up within a week. Lily did wake up in a week. Although it was a few hours late, it doesn't matter. I will buy a present for Doctor Austin to thank him for saving my daughter." Natan stared at Casey and said.

Natan's forehead knotted in a frown at this time. He was staring at Lily who was being examined in the bed. There were mixed feelings in his heart.

At that time, Lily suddenly woke up, which made him extremely excited, so he promised that he would agree with any request of Lily.

Given Lily's condition, he didn't think too much. But then he realized it and he suddenly felt regretted, because Lily probably asked him to be with her.

He was a little uneasy. He was afraid that Lily would request him to be with her, and he could not refuse because he had promised that he would accept her any request. If he refused her, it might affect her condition. By that time, it would be too late for him to regret it.

Fortunately, after Lily remained in a stable condition, she didn't make those requests that Casey thought before, which made Casey feel relieved.

But now the request put forward by Lily still made Casey embarrassed. And the request was only a little better than those requests that Casey thought of.

After a while, the doctors finished examining Lily, and one of them came up and smiled and said to Natan, "Mr. Lowe, your daughter is in a stable condition now, but she is a little malnourished. She needs a nutrition supplement. Then she will be fine. It is a miracle that your daughter could wake up."

Natan nodded to the doctor and he said, "Thanks to Doctor Austin. Well, since my daughter is in stable condition now, you could go back to take a good rest first. If there is any problem, I will call you again. You have looked after my daughter for so long. I will offer you a generous reward as compensation in a few days and send you to travel for some time.”

These doctors lit up with pleasure immediately when they heard what Natan said. After expressing their gratitude to Natan, they left the ward. Casey and Natan walked to the bed and stared at Lily lying on it. Natan was happy and he said, “Lily, what do you want to eat? Dad will buy it for you. No matter what you want to eat, I can buy it for you.”

“I want to eat the dragon meat, you go to buy it,” Lily said.

Natan smiled awkwardly and said, “Lily, don’t be joking. I am serious. You just woke up and have to eat something to recover your health.”

“As you like, I want to be alone with Casey. You go to buy something now and you’d better come back tomorrow morning,” Lily said.

Natan turned to look at Casey then nodded thoughtfully and said with a smile, “OK, you can talk first, and I’ll find someone to cook something for you.” Then he turned to leave the ward to get some delicious food for Lily.

Although it had already passed two o’clock in the morning, it was still easy for Natan to find a chef to cook something for Lily.

After Natan left, Lily looked at Casey and said, “Bring me a mirror.”

“Why do you want the mirror?” Casey asked.

Lily said, “I want to see what I look like now.”

“You are as beautiful as you used to be. When you get recovered, you can get out of bed to look in the mirror,” Casey said.

“No, I want to see it now. If you don’t bring me a mirror, I will slip into a coma again.” Even if Lily was ill, she was still willful.

Casey felt helpless because there was not any mirror. He took out his mobile phone, opened the camera and handed it to Lily.

Lily stared at herself in his mobile phone and cried, which startled Casey.

“What’s wrong with you?” Casey asked her with concern.

Lily cried and said to him, “I am so ugly now. You now certainly like me less. You go out now. I don’t want you to see me being so ugly.”

Casey was dumbfounding and looked at Lily. He took his mobile phone out of her hand and said, “You just look a little slovenly because you haven’t washed up. When you recover and get dressed up, you will be beautiful as before.”

“You said I looked slovenly. All men are bastards!” Lily cried harder.

Casey felt helpless. The girl’s mind was indeed unpredictable. He would never know what a girl was concerned about. After a long time, Lily stopped crying and looked at Casey aggrievedly and asked, “Now you see my ugliest appearance, will you mind it?”

“No,” Casey replied.

“Tell me whether you agree to my request,” Lily said.

Casey sighed helplessly and asked, “Are you joking?”

“I am serious. Anyway, I know I can’t marry you, so I can only marry your son,” Lily said formally.

The request that Lily made was that after Casey's son had grown up, if she wanted to chase him, Casey couldn't stop her. If she succeeded in chasing his son, Casey couldn't interfere with them.

When Casey thought that Lily could get his son, he felt worried.

"Can you make another request? When my son grows up, you could be more than 30 years old. Will you wait for my son to grow up?" Casey said.

"Okay. You can promise to marry me now. I even don't mind being your concubine. If you promised me, I would forget the former request. And I can also give you a son." Lily immediately stared at him and said.

Casey finally made up his mind and said, "Then I'd better agree to the former request."

Anyway, he didn't have a son now. If he had a daughter several years later, he wouldn't need to fulfill his promise.

And even if he had a son, there would be so many years until his son had grown up. In such a long time, Lily would change her mind.

At this time, Casey could only console himself in this way.

Chapter 512 Kneel Down and Kowtow to Me

"Are you saying that Sister Flora disappeared after the car accident on that day?"

After confirming the request with Casey, Lily asked about what happened after the accident.

Casey told Lily what happened next, and he felt depressed. Just now he was carefully avoiding Lily coveting his son, but now he remembered that his wife was still missing. Even if he wanted to have a son, he had to find Edith first.

"At present, I have been trying my best to look for her, and I have found some possible clues. Don't worry. I will definitely get her back." Casey said.

Lily nodded. Although she wanted Casey very much, she was essentially a nice girl. She didn't want to take advantage of the present situation. Instead, she became worried about Edith, just like Casey.

"Have you caught the prime mover? How could she be so abominable that she used such a method to deal with you?" Lily asked again.

Casey squinted his eyes and said, "She won't be able to have a good time for long. I will attend a dinner party in two days. At that time, I will not let go of anyone involved in this accident!"

It wasn't long before Natan returned to the ward with steaming food. Casey helped feed Lily and stayed here with Lily until four o'clock in the morning that he went back to the Davies House.

Two days later, in Jinlin Restaurant of B City.

Casey and Natan arrived at the door of the hotel almost at the same time. When Natan saw Casey, he ran toward him immediately.

With a trace of worry on his face, he came with four powerful bodyguards behind him, obviously very careful and serious about Finn's dinner.

"Casey, didn't you bring a few more people?"

Those from N Group may have already set up a trap for us in the hotel. "

Natan said to him.

Casey smiled at him and said, "I can handle them by myself."

Natan frowned. He knew that Casey was powerful, but Finn must know his strength. If he really wanted to set them up, how could Finn not be prepared with a method to deal with Casey?

However, looking at the relaxed look on Casey's face, Natan could say nothing.

Now that he had come, he had no choice but to go inside.

When they two entered Jinlin Restaurant together, it was empty. They could only see two waiters waiting at the top of the stairs. When one of the waiters saw they coming in, he immediately came over and said, "The hotel has been booked for the whole day. May I ask your name?"

"Casey."

Casey replied with no expressions on face.

When the waiter heard his name, he showed a gesture of invitation to Casey and said, "The guest who booked the hotel is waiting upstairs. Please follow me."

They went upstairs together to the door of a rather luxurious private room, where the waiter told Casey and Natan that the guest who booked the hotel was waiting in for them, and then the waiter left.

Casey went to the door and pushed the door open, and found that the room was quite large, and the decoration was resplendent, and a huge chandelier seemed quite dazzling.

The table in the middle of the private room was neither too big nor too small, so that they didn't need to talk over the table. However, there were only two people sitting in front of the table, Finn and Margaret.

After seeing Casey and Natan coming in, Finn stood up from his seat and greeted them with a smile on his face immediately.

"It's my bad not to pick you up downstairs. Come and have a seat. I've prepared the first-class maotai alcohol. I'm sure I'll be able to entertain both of you today."

Finn didn't show any dislike for Casey, as if he was really going to apologize to Casey sincerely.

Casey and Natan sat down at the table, and Natan's four bodyguards stood by him, ready to deal with any emergency. Casey sat down and glanced at Margaret. Margaret's eyes met with Casey's, but Margaret moved her eyes immediately, obviously feeling guilty.

"Why, since you say you want to apologize to me, why don't you even dare to look me in the eye?"

Is it possible that you have other purposes today? And you feel guilty? " Casey asked.

Margaret snorted and said, "Don't be too proud of yourself, Casey. Today, it is Mr. Turner that is going to apologize to you, not me. The feud between you and me cannot be solved with an apology!"

Casey curled his lips and said, "Then why are you sitting here today?"

Are you here to see Mr. Turner's joke? " Margaret's face was frozen, and for a moment she could not find a word to refute Casey.

Finn saw that when Casey came, the atmosphere became so embarrassed and stiff, so he frowned. But soon he smiled and said, " Lord Davies, please don't be angry. Margaret is a grumpy woman. In fact, I brought her here today also to apologize to you, but she's a little embarrassed to say that."

"I know that Lord Davies has some prejudices against our N Group, and we have had some unpleasant misunderstandings before, but there are no eternal enemies in the world, and now our three families are on the same boat, so why don't we drink a glass of wine to put an end to the past and work together in the future to make profits together?"

While saying so, Finn picked up his glass and made a toast to Casey. Natan turned around to look at Casey. He was only here to keep Casey accompany today, so all he had to do was to listen to Casey.

Casey hummed coldly, and looked down at the glass on the table and said, "Who knows if you have poisoned the glass? Why don't you drink the glass in front of me and I'll let go of what happened in the past?"

Finn showed an expression of embarrassment suddenly, then he put down his glass and said, "Now that Lord Davies doesn't believe me, it seems that drinking can't solve the problem."

Natan saw the change in the expression of Finn and speculated that there was something wrong with the wine.

"Since I'm here to apologize to Lord Davies today, I might as well listen to Lord Davies. What do you want me to do to end our previous feud and work together in the future?"

Finn asked again.

Casey smiled and said, "If I tell you, would you really do it?"

"Of course, and since I want to apologize, I promise to be sincere."

Finn answered.

"Well, how about you and Margaret, kneel down in front of me right now and kowtow to me for ten times, and then you ask Margaret to drink the glass of wine in front of me, and I'll let go of my feud with you?"

Chapter 513 Do You Think It Can Kill Them

The private room was quiet for a few seconds. The faces of Finn and Margaret sank suddenly.

Although Natan knew that today's dinner was just a trap, he still felt it inappropriate with Casey's tough attitude. However, he was Casey's man, so he couldn't say anything.

"Casey, what do you mean? I sincerely apologize to you, but you gave me that attitude? Do you really think I can't do anything with your bullying?" Finn shouted at Casey.

Casey said with a smile, "I just made such a small request, but you get so furious? If it weren't for you, how could my wife disappear, and how could my sister be in a coma for so long. She didn't wake up until two days ago. Do you really think that these grudges can be resolved with a single apology?"

Finn said with a smile, "It turns out that it's because of these things. Haha, calm down first. I have a piece of good news to tell you. I have already found out your wife's whereabouts. I have already taken her here, just to apologize to you."

Casey was shocked when he heard Finn's words. He turned his head to glance at Margaret. At that time, he specifically confirmed that Edith's disappearance had nothing to do with Margaret.

Now Finn said such words, which made him suspect that Edith had indeed fallen into the hands of Finn and Margaret before.

Casey clenched his fists suddenly. If this were the case, Casey could almost imagine what kind of torture Edith would suffer.

What only made Casey a little strange was that after Finn said that, Margaret was also puzzled, as if she didn't know that Finn had found Casey's wife.

"Where is she? Let her go! If she gets any hurt, I will definitely kill you and cut you into pieces!" Casey gritted his teeth and said these words. His murderous intent swept the entire room.

"Take it easy! I will invite her out now." Finn showed a sinister smile on his face, then clapped his hands.

Behind the screen of the private room, two people immediately walked out, carrying a girl who was tied up. At the same time, a dozen people who looked furious rushed out from inside, surrounding Casey and Natan.

Casey looked at the girl, feeling a little nervous. But after seeing the girl's appearance, the expression on his face instantly changed to shock.

The girl who was tied up turned out to be Anastasia from the orphanage.

Anastasia panicked and looked at the people around her in fear. Her mouth was blocked by a piece of cloth, so she couldn't make a sound.

Seeing Casey, she struggled immediately, seeming to want to remind Casey that there was danger here.

The expression on Finn's face had turned into a sneer. He wanted to see if he could trick Casey into drinking that glass of wine. But he didn't expect that Casey knew that he didn't really intend to apologize from the beginning.

So Finn didn't plan to continue acting with Casey. Since today's goal was to kill Casey and there was a master like Kacper as the backer, Finn didn't have to worry about anything anymore. Killing Casey was the easiest and effective way.

"Casey, how about it? I brought your wife to you. Can you accept my apology? Hahahaha." Finn laughed.

Casey snorted coldly and said, "She is not my wife. What are you doing to catch an innocent person?"

Finn stared at Anastasia and said, "Why isn't she your wife? Look at her, she is similar to your wife. She is younger than your wife. For us, women are just for fun. Why do you still have to find the original one?"

"Let her go, otherwise you will regret it. I will let you taste the most painful taste in this world." Casey said coldly.

Finn looked at Casey without fear, and said, "Look around you carefully. Is it possible that you still don't understand the current situation? You should already know that I invited you here today just to kill you. It's really not easy to deceive you to come here, but I didn't expect you actually dared to come here alone. At least, Natan brought four bodyguards with him. Are you so confident in your own strength?"

"You can try it." Casey said.

"Do you think I'm stupid? I know you can fight. That's why I arrested this girl. For her, you saved a welfare institution. If I guessed correctly, you should be a kind person, right?"

"Casey, you should know if you are not cruel, you can't survive in this society at all. But you have such a weakness. I arrested her just to want to know how kind you can be."

"As long as you dare to hit me today, my people will break her neck immediately. Her death will be your responsibility. I don't know if you can continue keep your goodness!"

After Finn finished speaking, he sat leisurely on the chair, and took a bite of the vegetables.

"I only give you three minutes to think about it. If you don't want her to die, drink the glass of wine on the table now. Otherwise, three minutes later, even if you drink it, my people will kill her." Finn added another sentence.

Casey squinted at Finn. Today, he did not expect that Anastasia was arrested. Standing next to Casey, Natan looked anxiously at the situation around him. Each of Finn's subordinates was stronger than the four bodyguards he brought. If they really had to fight, there would be no chance of winning.

He reached Casey's ear and whispered, "Casey, don't hesitate. I will let my bodyguard stop them first. We have to escape. As long as we can escape, we will have a chance to take revenge. As for the girl, you can only give her up now."

Casey smiled at him, picked up the two chopsticks on the table, and asked, "Do you think these chopsticks can kill them?"

Natan looked suspicious, wondering why Casey would suddenly ask such a question.

Finn laughed loudly, and mocked, "Casey, are you really stupid? Do you want to take these two chopsticks and fight with my men? So ridiculous!"

As soon as Finn stopped laughing, Casey turned his head to look at him, then waved his hand which was holding the chopsticks. The sound of breaking wind sounded. Immediately after that, the two chopsticks went stuck in between the eyebrows of two people who caught Anastasia.

Casey quickly rushed towards Anastasia, held Anastasia directly, and returned to his previous position.

All of this only happened so quickly.

Finn and his men did not have the time to react at all.

The two men fell to the ground, making both Finn and Margaret tremble.

Chapter 514 It's Nothing to Fear

After rescuing Anastasia, Casey got off the rope on her body and the piece of cloth stuck in her mouth. Anastasia looked at Casey in a panic and said, "Casey, leave here quickly. They are going to plot against you. We will quickly call the police and arrest them!"

Casey smiled at Anastasia and said, "Don't worry. These are some grievances between me and them. If you call the police, they won't get the punishment they deserve. You are standing next me and watching it. They can't hurt me."

When Anastasia heard Casey say this, she nodded. In her eyes, Casey was the head of Davies family. This kind of person who was in a high position must have a certain sense of truth in the decisions he made. In the current situation, she only needed to follow Casey's arrangements.

Casey turned his head again to look at Finn and Margaret, and said coldly, "I took the move. What can you do with me?"

Staring at the two who had fallen on the ground, Finn swallowed. He was shocked by the strength that Casey showed. He didn't expect Casey to be so strong. Casey actually killed his men so easily and saved Anastasia by the way.

Margaret didn't expect Casey to be so terrifying, either. There was an uncontrollable fear rising from the bottom of her heart. If the chopsticks in Casey's hand were pointed at her just now, she might have become a cold corpse again.

It was just that the two of them didn't know it was already Casey's limit just now. The blood was surging in Casey's body. If he didn't work hard to suppress it, he wouldn't be able to stand firmly.

Anastasia's arrest had already exceeded Casey's expectation. He didn't want this girl to get any hurt because of him. So he had to rescue Anastasia no matter what.

Finn took a deep breath. Although Casey's strength was too scary, fortunately, he invited a super master this time. Compared with that super master, Casey must be much worse than him.

Thinking about it this way, Finn relaxed a little. Glaring at Casey, he said coldly, "Don't bluff here. Do you think I will be afraid of you? These thugs might not be your matches. But it doesn't mean that no one can't defeat you. This time, in order to kill you, I specially spent a lot of money inviting a super master to come over. You are not worth mentioning in front of him. Whether you save that woman or not, the result will be the same."

After speaking, Finn clapped his hand again and said loudly, "Come out, next, this is your stage!"

As soon as Finn finished speaking, Kacper walked out of the screen and looked at everyone present with a cold face. The temperature in the entire private room seemed to have dropped a bit because of his presence.

After Natan and Anastasia saw Kacper, they both wanted to surrender. They both felt the fierce aura of Kacper. Even if they just glanced at him, they determined the person in front of them could kill them with just one finger. Seeing Kacper appearing, Finn and Margaret all showed a sneer. Their eyes were full of expectation. Because of this master, they didn't worry that Casey could escape today.

Casey didn't have the slightest surprise on his face after seeing Kacper. When Kacper came out and saw Casey, his eyes were also quite calm.

It was as if they had never known each other. Neither of them said a word.

As early as two days ago, Casey had already met Kacper in secret. Kacper also learned from Casey that the person who Finn invited him to kill was Casey. As a staff in Guanling, Kacper couldn't attack Casey even if he was paid more money, so Finn had no idea that the super master he had invited was actually Casey's men.

"It's terrible. It's terrible. This person just standing here makes me feel powerless. Even there were be one hundred of me, I still won't have any power to fight back. Casey, just find a way to leave here. I know you are great, but it is not a wise move to fight against this kind of person. Besides, there are many Finn's thugs here." Natan immediately began to persuade Casey after seeing Kacper. Anastasia on the side also nodded quickly, and said, "Casey, this man is really terrible. His eyes make me unable to move. I think we should try to escape."

Casey turned his head and glanced at both of them, then he said lightly, "It's nothing to fear."

Both Natan and Anastasia felt that

Casey was a bit bragging. Although Casey's saving of people just now shocked them, the aura of Casey was not as scary as Kacper. So they just subconsciously thought that Casey's strength was actually inferior to Kacper. But they didn't know that Kacper was defeated by Casey before. Besides, it happened after Casey defeated nine strong player in one day. Hearing what Casey said, Finn laughed immediately and said, "Even if you have some strength, you should be able to feel the gap between yourself and him. This is the master I invited from Guanling. He is the top one on List of the Ares in Guanling and is called Human King. In front of him, you're just nothing!"

"Really?" Casey glanced at Kacper, with a playful smile on his face.

Neither Natan nor Anastasia had heard of where Guanling was, but they all knew that this was definitely not a simple place. Since Finn valued the person from Guanling so much, how could Guanling be an ordinary place? The most important thing was that Kacper's aura was really scary. Even if Finn didn't introduce Kacper, they knew that they couldn't offend this person.

"Casey, if you kneel down to beg me for mercy now, maybe I am in a good mood and then let you die easily. Otherwise, you can only wait to be tortured to die!"

Finn shouted at Casey.

"Mr. Kacper, please make this guy die more painfully. I hate him guts. If you let him die easily, it will be too cheap for him." Margaret said.

Casey stared at them, then said, "Bring it on."

Finn sneered and said, "I didn't expect you were impatient. You can't wait to die? If so, I can fulfill you, Mr. Kacper, your goal is him. After killing him today, your mission is completed!"

Kacper turned his head and glanced at Finn, then he moved.

Both Finn and Margaret looked forward to it. Both of them felt that Casey couldn't hold on too long in front of Kacper.

However, in the next second, the two of them opened their mouths in astonishment. The master who Finn spent a lot of money in inviting over did not hit Casey, but instead hit one of Finn's men with a punch.

Within a few minutes, everyone that Finn had brought fell to the ground, leaving only Finn and Margaret standing in place.

Chapter 515 Young Master

"How... how could this be? Mr. Kacper, why did you do this to my men? I paid you money to let you kill Casey. The people in Guanling can kill the employer casually?" Finn looked at Kacper with a puzzled face.

Kacper did not answer his words, but walked in front of Finn and Margaret. Then he raised one of his feet, and directly kicked them to kneel on the ground.

"What are you doing! Are you crazy? You even kick me!" Finn shouted directly at Kacper.

Margaret also bit her lip and looked at Kacper with a look of puzzlement. She originally thought that Kacper would kill Casey soon, but she didn't expect this man actually took action against them. Both Natan and Anastasia were very nervous at first, and they were already ready to run away. But after seeing this scene, they were both stunned.

What happened? They were all confused. The master Finn spent a lot of money inviting over had actually fight against Finn, which was really beyond their expectation.

Both of them turned their heads and glanced at Casey, thinking that this matter must have something to do with Casey.

Natan's four bodyguards also breathed a long sigh of relief. As martial artists, they could naturally judge the strength of Kacper. If they really had to fight against Kacper, they wouldn't be definitely Kacper's matches. They could imagine how they would end up at that time.

Kacper still didn't talk to Finn, but turned and walked towards Casey. After reaching Casey, he bowed to Casey and said, "Young Master, the trouble has been resolved."

Young Master!

Everyone was shocked by Kacper's words. All of them turned to look at Casey.

Casey nodded to Kacper and said, "Bother you."

Finn looked at Casey with an incredible face, and then asked Kacper, "What do you mean? Why do you call him Young Master? When did he become your Young Master? Are you not a staff from Guanling? ?"

Margaret also looked at Casey and Kacper suspiciously. She couldn't figure out what was going on, either.

Casey smiled and walked towards Finn and Margaret. He said, "He is indeed from Guanling. This does not conflict with him calling me Young Master."

"It's impossible! How terrifying the top one on List of the Ares is. How could you be qualified to let him call your Young Master? Unless..." When Finn spoke of here, his eyes suddenly widened. He was in shock.

"Yes. Kacper will call me Young Master because I'm Young Master in Guanling."

Casey replied lightly.

Natan and Anastasia were all confused. They didn't know what kind of place Guanling was, so they were very vague about the identity of the young master of Guanling, but they all knew the person who looked terrible was actually their side. Today, they would be safe.

"It's impossible! You are just a bastard from Davies family. Davies family still defected from our Turner family. How could you be Young Master of Guanling?"

Finn's breathing was a little hurried. He wanted to stand up from the ground, but what Kacper kicked him just now made him unable to move at all. So he could only kneel on the ground.

Casey directly raised his hand, slapped Finn, and said coldly, "What is your Turner family? My father became the boss of Guanling by himself. Your Turner family, such a big family, has not had any slightest progress for so many years! Do you really think that I want your Turner family's reputation?" Finn captured very important information from Casey's words, and then his eyes widened. He muttered, "Your father, is the boss of Guanling? How could this be? Shouldn't Guanling's boss be Percy?"

"My father has used Percy as his name for many years. The reason why he has never been exposed is to deal with your Turner family. My grandfather died tragically in your family's hands. My grandma was also depressed to death because of this incident. Do you really think that we would forget these hatreds so easily?" Casey said coldly.

Finn immediately panicked. He turned his head to look at Margaret beside him, and asked, "Where is Casey's father? If his father is not dead, why will he become the head of Davies family?"

Margaret said, "No one knows whether his father died or not. Casey's father suddenly disappeared more than ten years ago, and just left a letter to Casey. That letter did not have any useful information."

"More than ten years ago?" Finn frowned immediately, "The exact time?" "Fourteen years ago." Margaret thought for a while and said.

Finn frozen, muttering, "Fourteen years ago... Fourteen years ago, it was the year when Percy succeeded in climbing high ladder and became the boss of Guanling!"

He immediately understood something. His face was so pale. His gaze toward Casey was full of fear.

Seeing Finn's reaction, Margaret panicked. She grabbed Finn's arm, and asked, "Is what he said true? He is really Young Master of the place named Guanling you mentioned? Terence is the boss of Guanling now?"

Finn's face was deathly pale. He said, "The top one on List of the Ares has never been respectful to anyone. He calls Casey Young Master. In addition to the identity, there is another necessary condition, that is, Casey has the strength to defeat him, otherwise he would not be willing to call Casey Young Master."

"Kacper is real. So what Casey said should be true. His strength is even stronger than Kacper. Today, it's impossible that we can run away."

When Margaret heard Finn's words, she was almost collapse. She shouted at Finn, "Didn't you say that Casey is just an ant in front of you? Why are we now being led by his nose? Isn't your Turner family the world-class family? Why can't you even defeat Casey?"

When Finn heard Margaret's words, he slapped her and cursed, "How the hell did I know that his father is the boss of Guanling? Now Guanling is super strong. Even the Turner family doesn't dare to provoke it easily. You blame me? Who the hell shall I blame?"

Watching the two people quarrel, Casey said with a smile, "You can save a little bit of energy. After you two go to the hell, you can quarrel there."

Chapter 516 You Deserve It

When Finn and Margaret heard Casey's words, their bodies were all stiff. They had a bad feeling.

"Casey, please let me go. I promise that I will never make trouble for you again. After I return to the Turner family, I will definitely intercede with the Turner family for you and let them give up making trouble for you. With the strength of Guanling, our family will definitely be willing to re-accept your family." Finn said anxiously.

Just now, Finn was still aggressive. But within five minutes, he completely changed his attitude. At this time, Finn was already a little desperate.

When Casey heard what Finn said, he immediately curled his lips and said, "You are also worthy of saying that you're willing to re-accept us? Do you really think I still take your Turner family seriously?"

"When your family drove out my grandfather and planned to kill him, why didn't you think that there would be such a day? Now you know that my father is the boss of Guanling, so you want to reconcile with us? You wish!"

"You can't get out of this hotel today. The things about Guanling are my biggest secret. Since I let you know, I won't let you go back alive. I want to give the Turner family a big surprise. Let them understand that all the crimes they committed will be judged by me. I will not let go of the Turner family!"

Listening to Casey's words, Finn couldn't help trembling. He knew that the things that the Turner family had done had planted a seed for the entire family, and now this seed had grown to a towering tree.

It was a pity that this towering tree was not to shelter the Turner family from wind and rain. It would smash against everyone in the Turner family. It was foreseeable that as long as Guanling took action against the Turner family, the Turner family couldn't survive.

Finn looked at Casey tremblingly. His lips were pale. He wanted to beg Casey for mercy again, but there was a feeling of powerlessness. He couldn't say a word.

"Are there any last words to tell others? When I go to take revenge on the Turner family, I can tell them." Casey said again.

Finn's face suddenly became distorted. He shouted at Casey, "Even if you are Young Master of Guanling, so what? My Turner family is still not afraid. You and your father will not end well!"

The survival instinct made Finn take out his mobile phone from his clothes. He wanted to send an urgent message back to the Turner family to let them know Casey's identity and his plot against the Turner family.

Anyway, it was impossible for him to survive today. So what he could only do was to make the Turner family suffer as little as possible.

But as soon as Finn took out the phone, Casey kicked him. The hand he was holding the phone made a click sound, and the phone also flew out.

At this time, Casey grabbed Finn's neck and lifted him from the ground. Finn's face instantly flushed red. His eyes kept protruding outward, and he struggled. Looking at this scene, Margaret was so scared. But her legs were dead. She couldn't run at all.

Both Natan and Anastasia looked at Casey a little dignifiedly. They were a little breathless because of the momentum that Casey showed.

Before, they thought that Casey was not Kacper's match because of Kacper's sharp aura, but when they felt Casey's horror, they knew that this kind of hidden aura was even more terrifying.

Only when a person went through the stage where he revealed his sharp aura could he hide his aura. It was not that Casey's aura was worse than Kacper, but it was that he had already surpassed Kacper. Casey could converge his aura. From this level, Kacper was a little worse than Casey.

Natan narrowed his eyes when he looked at Casey. He felt that Casey had become a little bit more unpredictable.

At the beginning, Casey was just a young man in his eyes. Later, the young man took control over Davies family.

Then Natan believed that Casey had the qualifications to be on an equal footing with him.

But now that Casey showed the power that Natan was beyond reach. Casey could easily kill a member of the world-class family without any worries. This was something that Natan could not do.

After a while, Finn, whose neck was grabbed by Casey, stopped struggling. He died.

Casey threw Finn to the ground, which made Margaret tremble with fright.

Casey turned his head to look at Margaret, walked in front of her, and said coldly, "It's your turn."

Margaret cried directly, and quickly kowtowed to Casey. She said, "Casey, I know I was wrong. I shouldn't have driven you out of Davies family back then. I shouldn't have done those things to target to you. I shouldn't do those things to hurt your wife. Please give me a chance to reform and rehabilitate myself. I am willing to do anything for you, as long as you spare me. I don't want to die, please!"

Casey laughed, "What I want you to do is to go to the hell. My wife is still missing. My sister only woke up a few days ago. You think I can forgive you just because you kowtowed to me?"

"Casey, I was so stupid before. I'm a fool. As long as you don't kill me, I can do anything for you. If you think kowtowing several times is not enough, I can keep kowtowing until you are satisfied." Margaret said regretfully.

"Sorry! I just want you to die." Casey said. Then he grabbed Margaret's neck. Margaret began to cough violently. She watched Casey lift herself little by little, but she could do nothing.

She knew she was really going to die this time. She had done so many things and planned for so long, but in the end, it was nothing.

The memories of her past appeared in front of her eyes. Thinking of the things she had done before, she felt a little ridiculous. The last thing she should not do in her life was to kick Casey out of Davies family. It was a pity that it was too late for regretting.

When Margaret's body became cold, Casey threw her to the ground. This time, he would not let Margaret have any chance to come back to life again. In this world, there would never be Margaret again.

After dealing with Finn and Margaret, Casey also breathed a long sigh of relief, feeling that the trouble which had been lingering in his mind finally disappeared. He suddenly felt relieved.

He turned to look at Natan and Anastasia. The usual smile appeared on his face again, and his aura receded.

"We can go now. Don't talk to others about the things here today. The Turner family will definitely not give up.

Whoever in the Turner family comes will be killed by me. The time when they react is the time when the Turner family disappears from this world."

Chapter 517 Short-sighted

At N Group.

In Antonio's office, Antonio and Priya were sitting together. It could be seen that there was a glimmer of expectation on their faces.

Priya played with her hair, and said to Antonio with smile, "If I follow Mr. Turner back to the Turner family in the future, what kind of status will I have in his family?"

Antonio laughed, "I advise you not to have too high expectations. There is no shortage of women around for a young master like him. Even if he does take you back to the Turner family, you will be definitely one of his many women. The struggle among their super-family is not as simple as you think."

Priya didn't care at all. She snorted to Finn, and said, "So what? At least I will be one among the real upper class. If it weren't for Mr. Turner, I thought Davies family would already be considered an upper class. He let me realize that there are still better people than us in the world."

Antonio smiled at Priya, then stretched a hand towards Priya and said, "Anyway, your first time has already been given to him, so why don't you let me feel refreshed? I have coveted you for a long time. He will definitely not know it."

Actually, Priya wasn't a member of Davies family. At first, she was thinking about being with Casey. Antonio was also itchy for Priya because of her good-looking face. Priya slapped Antonio's hand away directly, with a trace of disgust on her face, and said, "If I tell Mr. Turner what you think, do you think he will let you go?"

Antonio smiled and then said, "We are in the same boat now. If you don't make me feel better, I won't make you feel better. Are you sure you will tell Finn what I have said?"

Priya gave Antonio a grimace, and then stopped talking.

Antonio didn't talk about that topic again. He said, "Today, Mr. Turner set a trap for Casey personally. I heard that Mr. Turner invited a master. Maybe Casey is dead now."

Priya nodded, "How can Casey resist Mr. Turner's attack? Casey is really stupid. He dares to go against Mr. Turner. Even if he succeeds in avoiding Mr. Turner's attack in business. It is impossible for him to escape this time."

"Didn't you still want to be with Casey before? Why are you saying like this now?" Antonio said with a smile.

"Crap, I just know what is good for me. He is just a fool. He wants to fight against Mr. Turner. Of course I won't have any feelings for him. Moreover, compared with Mr. Turner, he is nothing. I'm not stupid. Why do I still choose him?" Priya suddenly said with contempt.

As soon as she finished speaking, she heard a sound of footsteps from outside, which sounded very anxious.

Both of them were a little weird. They stood up and walked outside.

As soon as they opened the door of the office, they saw a group of people outside carrying things and running towards the outside. Behind them, there was a group of people wearing uniforms driving them away.

Antonio had a bad feeling. He hurried out, stopped a man who was running in a hurry, and asked, "What is going on? Why are you running?"

"N Group is screwed up. They have come to close the company. Do we have to wait to be caught?" The man shouted at Antonio, then pushed Antonio away and continued to run away.

Antonio frowned immediately, wondering why N Group which was already fine suddenly came to this point.

Priya also walked out of the office.

Seeing the chaotic scene outside, she was shocked. Then she asked anxiously, "What's the matter? With Mr. Turner's strong background, no one dares to come here to close the company."

The security personnel over there had already walked towards them. Antonio groaned for a moment, and then walked up to them.

"Who asked you to come here? This is N Group. Without permission, it is illegal for you guys to come in and make trouble like this!" Antonio shouted at the group of people.

Hearing Antonio's words, the security captain stopped, and said, "N Group is suspected of fraud, making illegal profits, and instigating people to commit criminal activities. We received an order to close the place. Who said we were here to make trouble? "

"Holly shit!" Antonio shouted directly. How could he believe that N Group would be charged with such crimes, "Show me your certificates!"

The security captain directly took out his own certificates and the documents, as well as the documents signed by Finn and his handprint, and let Antonio read them.

Antonio took a look and found that these documents were indeed genuine, and that they also had Finn's autograph and handprint, which made him dumbfounded.

He turned his head and glanced at Priya who was on the side, a trace of panic appeared in his eyes. He murmured, "How...how could this happen? Isn't he still dealing with Casey today? How come N Group is screwed up in a blink of an eye? "

Priya also took a look at the documents with anxious face, then froze in place. She suddenly thought of something, then she said, "Is it possible that Mr. Turner failed this time?"

"Why? How did Casey do it? He is not qualified to fight Mr. Turner at all, but why is it such a result?"

The security captain stared at Antonio and Priya, and then took out two photos. After comparing them, he immediately ordered the people around him, "Quickly arrest them both. They are two chief figures in the fraud gang of N Group. I did not expect that the two of them would have taken the initiative to come to us. We can't let them run away!"

When the people wearing security suits heard this, they rushed towards Antonio and Priya, and subdued both of them on the ground.

Both Antonio and Priya were stunned. They had been arrested before they could figure out.

"You fucking let me go! We didn't do anything. Why are you arresting us?" Antonio shouted.

"Whether you guys did it or not, we'll know when we take you back." The security captain said.

Then a group of people escorted two people out to the outside.

As they walked, the security captain also said to Antonio and Priya, "By the way, Mr. Casey, who assisted in exposing your N Group's crimes this time, asked me to tell you guys a sentence. Short-sightedness will only send yourselves into the abyss. "

Hearing the security captain's words, both Antonio and Priya frozen. Their bodies went cold in an instant.

Chapter 518 The Clues about Edith At Tianyuan Tower.

In front of Lily's bed, Casey was sitting by the bed, peeling an apple for Lily. Lily stared at Casey. The lights in her beautiful eyes flickered. She was almost stunned by Casey.

After peeling the apple, Casey handed it to Lily and said with a smile, "Here you are."

Lily swallowed. She didn't know whether the apple was more attractive or Casey was more attractive.

After a period of recovery, Lily's condition had improved a lot. Her thin face had recovered a bit of rosy. She had become full of energy. According to what doctor said, she would be able to get out of bed before long.

"I want to eat you." Lily licked her lips without hesitation, showing a look of desire for Casey.

Casey looked at Lily calmly and directly put the apple into her mouth, and said, "It's illegal to eat human flesh."

"Who wants to eat your flesh? You know what I'm talking about." Lily winked at Casey.

Casey glanced at Lily and said, "You should rest now. I have to leave."

Lily immediately acted like a spoiled child, "Okay, okay. I won't say that again. Sit down. If you leave, my recovery speed will become extremely slow. Don't you want me to get better soon?"

Casey looked at Lily helplessly. Thinking of this girl was sick, he sat back again. During this time, B City was not peaceful. Casey solved Finn and Margaret. N Group was closed. The old town reconstruction plan removed N Group. Davies family controlled the original industries of N Group. A series of things were fermenting in people's discussions.

Almost no one could have thought that N Group, which was still promising the day before, already closed down in an instant. But everyone could guess that it was Davies family that made N Group have such a turning point.

This also made everyone appreciate the strength of Davies family again. N Group, such a powerful group, could be closed down in such a short period of time, which was enough to prove the horror of Davies family.

All the forces in B City were aware of the gap between them and N Group. Since N Group was not Davies family's match, naturally, they were less likely to play against Davies family. Therefore, the reputation of Davies family in B City was a bit higher than before. Davies family had faint tendency to dominate B City.

Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce had also risen because of its relationship with Davies family, and the cooperation in old town reconstruction plan had also made Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce much stronger than that of in the past.

As the person who caused these things, Casey was also famous in B City. The past rumors and slanders about Casey were all wiped out. Now everyone knew that Casey was unpredictable. They couldn't imagine how powerful Casey was

"Casey, what are you thinking about?" Lily blinked her big eyes. Seeing Casey, who was sitting on the edge of the bed, lost in thoughts, she asked.

Casey smiled at Lily and said, "It's nothing. Just a daze."

When Casey said this, Lily had already thought of what Casey was thinking. Apart from that person, who else would make Casey show such a face?

Although she was disappointed, she didn't say anything. After all, she had promised Casey that she would no longer have such an idea for Casey. She also said jokingly that she might be interested in Casey's son.

Thinking about her own request, she felt she was really stupid. Now no one knew where Edith was, and no one knew when Casey's son could be born. The most important thing was that if Casey would have a daughter, her request was basically the equivalent of nothing.

"Huh, I'm really so stupid. I really look like a fool in that state." Lily shouted for no reason.

Casey felt strange, wondering what happened to Lily. Then he asked, "What's wrong? Why are you like a fool?"

Lily felt that Casey was laughing at her, so she became even angrier.

"It's all because of you that I have become a fool." Lily said angrily.

Casey could be sure that the side face in the photo was definitely Edith's! Below the photo, there was a sentence, Fudan University in H City.

Casey carefully stared at the background of the photo and found that it was indeed a landmark building of Fudan University.

Unexpectedly, Edith went to H City and also appeared in Fudan University! Suddenly, Casey saw the hope. After searching for so long, he finally had Edith's whereabouts. Seeing Edith's look, she didn't seem to have been hurt in any way. Instead, she looked very happy.

After the excitement, Casey had some doubts. He didn't understand why Edith remained unscathed after she disappeared so long, and she looked so happy.

Shouldn't Edith rush back to find him if she didn't get any hurt? Even if she didn't come back, she would contact him at least. She must also know that he was worried about her. With Casey's understanding of Edith, if such a thing happened, she couldn't be in such a good mood to hang out in the university. Something that Casey didn't know must have happened during this, or the person in the photo just looked the same as Edith, but she was not actually Edith.

doubt, and then from doubt to firm, Lily felt a little strange, so she asked, "What's wrong with you?"

Casey smiled and looked at Lily, and said, "I found your sister-in-law's whereabouts, but I'm not sure if it is her. I don't think it's going to be wrong, so I will book a ticket and rush over to confirm it. You quickly get better and wait for me to come back. I'll bring you a gift."

Looking at Casey's back, Lily showed a sense of loss on her face. She didn't know why, the words "sister-in-law" made her feel upset.

After leaving Tianyuan Tower, Casey drove towards the Davies House by car. He took out his cell phone and planned to call Jordan. At this moment, his cell phone rang. It was Brodie's call.

Casey answered it. The voice of Brodie sounded on the phone, "Mr. Casey, I don't know how you are thinking. During the recent period, our college needs a professor who understands historical relics. I think you are the most suitable candidate. There are really not many opportunities like this. If you can, I still hope you can come to our school and be a guest professor."

Casey smiled, thinking of the place where Edith appeared. Then he said to the phone, "Okay, I will rush to H City as soon as possible."

Chapter 520 Nadia

Casey walked up to Nadia and greeted her, "Hello, I have to bother you this time."

Nadia showed a charming smile to Casey and said, "It is naturally my honor to be able to serve Young Master. But I did not expect Young Master to be so approachable. I thought that Young Master would be fierce."

Then, Nadia reached out and grabbed Casey's hand, stroked it lightly, and said, "I'll take Young Master into the car."

Casey broke free of Nadia's hand at once. He said with a frown, "Okay, just get in the car. Don't do these things." When Nadia saw Casey free himself from her hand, the smile on her face became even greater. She pressed her body directly to Casey's body, saying, "It is my first time to see Young Master. I am a little excited. As long as Young Master needs me, I'm willing to obey all the orders. Being close to Young Master is what I should do."

Casey sniffed the faint scent of Nadia's body, and felt a fascinating smell. He knew immediately that this was a dangerous woman. A man with insufficient concentration could only be led by the woman.

Casey didn't speak any more, but directly opened the door of the car and sat in the back seat, making Nadia unable to continue to get close to him. Seeing Casey get in the car, Nadia didn't feel embarrassed at all. Instead, she licked her lips and said to herself, "I didn't expect that Young Master had no interest in me at all. This really makes me sad. But you're Young Master. You're really different from those stinky men. I like challenges."

After speaking, she went to the driving seat and sat on it.

Everyone around looked at this scene, full of envy for Casey. They all imagined that they could be treated like this.

"Shit, that buddy is too awesome. Such a beautiful woman takes the initiative to pounce herself to him. His identity is definitely not ordinary."

"Damn it, I really envy. I'm willing to lick the feet of this kind of rich girls."

"Perhaps that guy is just a toy boy? Shit, when can I have such good luck? I will never lose to anyone in that aspect."

...

Elodie and Nova in the distance could not hear what Casey and Nadia were saying, and even they couldn't see Casey's looks clearly.

In their eyes, Casey had just flirted with that girl just now, as if they couldn't wait to do something anymore. He hurriedly got in the car, as if to go back to do something.

Elodie looked at the car in the distance with a disgusting face, and said, "Nova, see! I'm right. That guy is really a toy boy. Look at the actions of the two of them just now, it's really disgusting. This kind of person dared to brag that he is the professors in our school. This is really discrediting our school."

Nova also frowned slightly. Thinking of the scene she saw just now, she felt a little surprised. Then she turned her head and said, "Okay, don't look at it. Let's go back to school quickly, otherwise we will be scolded by Kaitlyn."

Elodie nodded. Then, the two girls left the airport holding hands.

...

At Lan Couch Building.

In Nadia's office.

Casey sat on the sofa. Nadia tied her loose hair, revealing her beautiful neck and collarbone, and then she unbuttoned the top two buttons of her clothes.

She went to the drinking fountain to pick up a glass of water, walked sexy steps to Casey, bends down to hand Casey water, so that her sexy could reveal through the clothes.

Casey was a little helpless. He couldn't understand why the person arranged by Guanling in H City would be such an enchanting woman. If it weren't for asking about Edith's situation, Casey would have already left.

"Young Master, drink water. If Young Master feels it troublesome, you can let me feed you. I can taste the temperature for Young Master first, and then feed it to Young Master." Nadia said to Casey with a smile.

Casey frowned and said, "No need." Then he reached for the glass of water. Nadia seemed to feel it not enough. She smirked. When Casey went to take the glass, she pretended that she didn't hold the glass firmly. She wanted to pour the water on Casey's body, so that she would have the opportunity to let Casey take off his clothes in the office.

It was a pity that she didn't know what kind of person Casey was. The moment when Nadia's hand was shaking, Casey noticed it and then quickly took over the glass in her hand.

Nadia didn't realize what was going on. Then she found that the glass in her hand was gone.

She looked down and found that Casey took a sip of water while holding the glass. There was a hint of fear in her heart.

Her instinct told her that the person in front of her was very dangerous.

Sure enough, how could Young Master of Guanling look so ordinary? The abilities of such a person were simply beyond her imagination.

"Enough. Just tell me the clues you found here. I am not here to play with you." Casey said lightly.

Nadia immediately became serious. She stood still and said, "The clues that our people have found are only that photo. After finding this photo, I sent someone to Fudan University to search again, but no trace was found. There should be someone who is very good at anti-tracking around the girl, so that we only have this clue now."

"In H City, there are not a few people who can have this kind of talent. H City is different from B City. This is the economic center. There are a lot of super families lurking here. So just looking at this photo, it is difficult to spot the girl's specific whereabouts."

"But don't worry. Since she has appeared in Fudan University, she will definitely leave clues. According to my people, they have seen her again. She went to Fudan University not only just go to play. If you are patient, maybe you can wait until she appears in Fudan University again."

Casey frowned suddenly. He thought that after he got here, it would not take long to find Edith. Now it seemed that things were more troublesome than he thought.

This was not because of Nadia's poor ability, but now it was not clear what kind of situation Edith was in and who was around her, so the investigation was more difficult.

"In this case, you must do your best to search for clues. No matter what clues you get, notify me as soon as possible."

Casey said, standing up from the sofa. Nadia nodded and said, "Yes, Young Master."

"I'm going to Fudan University now. If something happens, I will notify you." Casey said.

Nadia hurriedly said, "Young Master, you just got off the plane. Why don't you go to the arranged hotel with me first to take a rest? Let me help you relax. It will not still be late for you to go to Fudan University tomorrow." "

"No, don't worry about me. Someone from Fudan University will arrange the hotel for me." Then Casey walked out of the office.

It was not that he didn't want to stay in the hotel that Nadia arranged for him. At first, he wanted to go to the place that Nadia arranged for him. But after he came, he saw that Nadia was too "enthusiasm" for him. He didn't dare to continue to stay with this woman.

Who knew if he went to the hotel with her, would she block him in the room and force him to do things that he shouldn't do?

To be safe, he decided to let Brodie arrange a place for himself. Even if the conditions were not as good as the place where was arranged by Nadia, it would be safer than staying with such a dangerous woman.

In this world, the women who took initiative were the most dangerous, especially stunners like Nadia.

Casey couldn't guarantee that he could hold back under Nadia's heavy offensive.

Seeing that Casey was about to leave, Nadia was a little anxious, and said, "Young Master, you have only come here in less than ten minutes and you have to leave. I didn't do well, did I?"

"If Young Master is dissatisfied, I can give myself to you. I promise I will meet all the requirements of Young Master."

Hearing Nadia's words, Casey walked even faster.

Chapter 521 Visiting Professor Fudan University.

In the office of the School of History.

A group of teachers were sitting together and chatting. After class, the teacher was no different from other normal people. They liked to sit together and gossip.

"Have you heard that there is going to be a visiting professor in our school. It is said that his background is not simple. Our school is going to open an open course for this professor, which is said to focus on the knowledge related to historical relics," a female teacher said.

"Really. Hasn't our school hired a visiting professor for a long time?"

Doesn't Dean Brodie look down on the so-called historians from the outside world at all. The person who can make Dean Brodie make an exception and invite him to be a professor must be very powerful!!"

"That's for sure. I just don't know what kind of person he is. However, those who have studied historical relics must be old men in the seventies and eighties."

"No, no, I heard that he is a very young guy. It is said that he is only in his twenties and he is not much different from the students in our school," a female teacher said at this time.

"You are joking. People who have some research on historical relics and can be invited by Dean Brodie to be guest professors will certainly have very high qualifications. The qualifications are all built on time. How could this visiting professor be in his twenties?" The speaker was a young and handsome male teacher named Andrews, one of the most talented male teachers in the School of History of Fudan University. Andrews was now 29 years old and had become the best lecturer in the School of History. He had published more than a dozen articles in journals with international influence and had been rated as an outstanding teacher of Fudan University many times. He was one of the most promising candidates to become an associate professor. He performed very well in the school, so he was very proud. He felt that at the age of 29, he already had the hope of becoming an associate professor, which was very great. How could there be a talent in his twenties who would be favored by Dean Brodie and invited to the school as a visiting professor.

Everyone felt that what Andrews said was reasonable, and then nodded.

At this time the door of the office was opened, Annie walked in from outside, smiled and greeted the teachers, "Hello, teachers."

She came to the office to help Brodie get the documents, and then went to the gate of the university to pick Casey up.

Thinking that Casey had promised to come to their school as a visiting professor, and that he would be here today, Annie was full of expectation.

All the teachers knew that Annie was Brodie's most proud student. Generally, Brodie would tell her a lot of things. So, after seeing Annie coming in, a teacher asked immediately, "Annie, do you know who the visiting professor our school wants to invite? How old is he?"

"Mr. Davies is from B City. He should be in his twenties this year, only a little older than me." Annie replied, and there was a trace of worship in her eyes.

After hearing Annie's words, all the teachers were all surprised. They didn't expect that the visiting professor was really only in his twenties.

"Annie, are you kidding us? How can anyone in their twenties be invited to be a visiting professor?"

"No, Mr. Casey is indeed very young, but his knowledge of antiques is no less than that of the experienced senior academician. Even Felix Brown, the best appraiser in B City, is respectful to Mr. Davies," Annie said yearningly.

Everyone could see Annie's favor with Mr. Davies.

Andrews saw Annie's expression, and he immediately showed a trace of dissatisfaction. As the best male teacher in the School of History, Andrews had relatively high requirements for a spouse. Annie, the most outstanding student in the School of History, who was knowledgeable and beautiful, naturally became one of his ideal types. Although he did not clearly express his thoughts to Annie, he also invited Annie to dinner a few times and showed his feelings for her. He wanted to wait for Annie to graduate, and then proactively confessed, so that there would be no gossip in the school

And he always believed that Annie could see his excellence and would not reject him.

But now Andrews felt a sense of crisis. From Annie's look, he could see that Annie had a good feeling for the visiting professor, which Annie had never shown to him.

"Even if the visiting professor is really only in his twenties, he is supposed to be a visiting professor in our school by improper means. Now this kind of thing is not uncommon. That person should be rich in his family. Anyway, I don't believe that he can be a visiting professor in his twenties." Andrews expressed his attitude.

Annie immediately retorted, "No, Mr. Davies is really knowledgeable. Even Dean Brodie admired his understanding of curios and antiques. How could he be the visiting professor by money. At first, Dean Brodie wanted to invite Mr. Davies, but Mr. Davies didn't agree." Hearing Annie's words, Andrews became more angry. He didn't expect Annie to maintain that so-called guest professor in this way.

"Annie, you are still young, and you must have been fooled by that person. That kind of person has a glib tongue, and he can't show any real talents. If you are so fanatical about that person, you will be in trouble," Andrews said. Annie still wanted to refute. At this moment, a person appeared at the door of the office and walked in towards the office.

Andrews turned his head and glanced at the man, and said, "Hey, this is the teacher's office. You must knock before you come in."

"Sorry, I'm not a student here, I'm here to find someone." Casey smiled at Andrews, then turned to look at Annie. Annie was shocked when she saw that it was Casey who walked in. She became nervous, worried that Casey would be upset if he heard their discussion at that moment.

"Mr....Mr. Davies, why did you arrive so early? I planned to pick you up at the gate," Annie said.

"My business was over soon, and I came ahead of time," Casey said. Annie nodded, turned to look at the teachers in the office, and said, "This is Casey Davies, the visiting professor invited by Dean Brodie."

The teachers were all surprised. They didn't expect Casey to be so young. Just now Andrews had mistaken him for a student.

"Mr. Davies, I will take you to see Dean Brodie." Annie gave Casey a please gesture.

Casey nodded, turned and walked out of the office. Although he heard some of the discussions just now, he didn't take it to heart. He came here because he happened to see Annie inside, then he walked in.

After Annie left with Casey, Andrews showed an unhappy expression on his face, clenched his fist, and smashed it on the table.

"Damn visiting professor, it's just an undeserved reputation he paid for. I didn't expect Annie to be so respectful to him. It's really stupid."

Chapter 522 Flat Share

The dean's office.

Brodie was sitting at the desk. At this time, the office door was opened. Annie walked in with Casey. After seeing them, Brodie quickly put down what was on hand and stood up with a smile on his face.

"Mr. Casey, it's a great honor for you to be a visiting professor in our School. Do you have time this afternoon? I plan to hold a meeting in the school to introduce you," Brodie said, looking at Casey.

Casey smiled at Brodie and said, "I don't like crowded occasions. You don't have to introduce me to them. They will know who I am when the time comes."

Hearing Casey saying this, Brodie didn't persuade him again. Then he glanced at Annie on the side and said, "Annie, show Mr. Davies around his office first, and arrange an abode for him by the way."

Annie nodded immediately.

Brodie looked at Casey again and said, "Mr. Davies, I still have some work and can't go away, so for the time being, I can only let Annie accompany you to you to get familiar with the situation of the school. We can't compete with the rich. Please forgive me if there's anything wrong with hospitality."

"You are too polite. I'm not a troublesome person. Please take your time, I will let Annie lead me to get familiar, you don't need to worry about the rest," Casey said.

"Mr. Davies, you are really a gentleman." Brodie looked at Casey with admiration.

Then Annie took Casey and left the dean's office. They went to the office Brodie arranged for Casey.

The area of this office was very large, almost catching up with the dean's office. This was an office specially prepared by the School of History for full-time professors at Fudan University. Brodie assigned this office to Casey, which showed that he had attached great importance to Casey.

"Mr. Davies, if you are not satisfied with the layout here, just tell me, I will help you decorate it the way you want."

Annie was still a bit shy while staying in the office with Casey alone.

"No, that's fine. I won't spend too much time in the office," Casey said.

Annie was stunned for a moment. She was thinking that Casey would stay in the office when he was free as a visiting professor, so that she could come in contact with Casey more in the name of consulting Casey.

Now that Casey said that he would not stay in the office often, Annie couldn't help but feel a little lost.

'However, it is normal. It is good enough that Mr. Davies come to a public class when he has time. How could he stay in the office forever?' Annie thought.

"Mr. Davies, your first public class is scheduled for next Monday. I will inform you in advance. If you need to prepare something, please tell me and I will prepare it for you," Annie continued speaking.

Casey nodded.

Both of them were silent for a few seconds, and Annie suddenly felt a little embarrassed and didn't know what to say to Casey for a while.

"Then... Then let me take you to your residence. I asked a classmate to help you find a house to live," after a while, Annie said.

Casey nodded and followed Annie out of the office. As soon as they arrived in the corridor outside, they ran into Andrews who came out to get water. Seeing Casey and Annie coming out of the professor's office, Andrews was stunned for a moment. Then when he saw Annie's face flushed, a trace of jealousy arose in his heart again.

"Annie, what are you going to do in the professor's office? I don't remember which professor is assigned to here yet?" Andrews asked.

His dream was to become a professor in the school of history. He always thought that the Dean left the vacant office for him.

He feels that he was very likely to become an associate professor when he was thirty years old, and then this office would become his.

"Dean Brodie has assigned the office to Mr. Davies. I take Mr. Davies here to take a look first," Annie said.

When Andrews heard it, his look suddenly darkened, as if his own things had been robbed by others, he was naturally quite angry.

"Annie, you may be mistaken. This office is specially prepared for full-time professors in our school. Visiting professors' offices are usually downstairs. I think you should take Mr. Davies to take a look downstairs," Andrews said.

"Mr. Andrews, this is Dean Brodie's arrangement." Annie frowned and said to Andrews.

"Huh, the current society is really impetuous. Some people even go to buy a title he doesn't deserve in order to put on an act. If it goes on like this, there will be a few people who care about real academic research," Andrews expressed his dissatisfaction directly. Hearing Andrews's words, Casey looked at him with a smile, and asked, "Are you suspecting that I don't have enough level to sit in this office?"

"It's not a suspicion, it's that you are at the same age as a student. To make you a professor is to treat us as fools," Andrews said in a peremptory tone.

"Well, in that case, I have a class on Monday. You can come and listen, then you will know if I am qualified to sit in this office," Casey replied.

"You don't need to say, I will go there. I'm afraid that what I'll see at that time is just a joke," Andrews said with disdain. Casey ignored Andrews and walked over to the stairs. Annie hurriedly followed. She looked a little worried. Andrews snorted while looking at the backs of the two people, and walked towards the toilet angrily.

"Mr. Davies, Mr. Andrews may be a bit straight. Don't care about it," Annie said to Casey nervously.

Casey smiled and said, "I have suffered so much taunt and ridicules over the years. If I really care about it, I'm afraid I would have been depressed. I will use my real talents and knowledge to convince these people."

When Annie heard Casey's words, she suddenly felt the meaning of Casey's indifferent tone, which made her feel the charm of Casey more clearly.

That feeling made Annie's heartbeat speed up a bit.

Half an hour later, they came to a community not far from Fudan University, where Annie asked her classmates to help find the residence. Annie glanced at her watch anxiously, and then said apologetically to Casey, "Mr. Davies, I'm really sorry. I don't know much about renting a house, so I can only ask my classmates to help me. I don't know what kind of house he's renting."

"It's okay, as long as I can live in it," Casey said.

Seeing that her classmate hadn't come over yet, Annie called him.

After a while, a boy ran in front of them, handed a key to Annie, and said the house number by the way.

"Annie, the house I found for you is a duplex apartment with two floors. The two rooms on the bottom are rented by two girls from our school. The rooms on the top are still vacant. I will rent both of them," The boy said with a smile.

Annie frowned immediately and said, "Are you renting a shared house?"

"Yes, people in our university all like to live in this kind of house, which is cheap and affordable. That apartment is the best I know. It is very suitable for you to live in with your boyfriend," the boy said, glancing at Casey with a smile.

Annie suddenly flushed and stared at the boy, wishing to eat him, "Don't talk nonsense..."

"Well, I won't bother you two anymore. I still have a game that I haven't finished playing, and I should be reported later." The boy didn't wait for Annie to explain, and then turned and ran away.

Annie stomped her feet angrily, then glanced at Casey secretly, feeling guilty.

Chapter 523 In Case You're Seen

"Mr. Davies, I'm really sorry. I didn't expect him to rent a shared house. That person is too unreliable and talks nonsense. I have nothing but admiration for you. Please don't get me wrong."

Casey didn't think much about it originally. Hearing what Annie said, he felt it seemed to be a very poor lie which revealed the truth.

"I'll go find a house for you again. This time I'm looking for it myself, and such a situation will definitely not happen again." Seeing Casey's silence, she was anxious and quickly diverted her attention.

"No, since it's already rented, you don't have to find another one. I don't have much requirements for a place to live," Casey said.

Annie bit her lip, feeling a little guilty. Since Casey was so generous, she'd better agree him. The most important thing was that she had no experience in renting a house, and the another one may not be better than this one.

Seeing her guilty look, Casey felt that Annie took him too seriously, which made him a little uncomfortable. He thought for a while and said to Annie, "Give me the key. I'll go over and see it for myself. There should be something in your school. You go back first."

"No, I'll accompany you to take a look, otherwise Dean Brodie will blame me," Annie said quickly.

"The boy also said that there are people from your school on the house. You should be a celebrity in the school. If they see you renting a house with me, they may have some bad associations. In order to avoid some unnecessary troubles, let me go by myself." Casey made another excuse.

He didn't know when he became so popular among women. When he first arrived in H City, two girls were so enthusiastic about him. It made him a little uncomfortable, so he had to avoid Annie as soon as possible.

When Annie heard Casey's words, she felt a little lost. In fact, she didn't care what others said. If someone misunderstood the relationship between her and Casey, she would still be a little bit happy.

It was a pity that now that Casey had mentioned it, she had no reason to refuse.

"Then... well, if you have any questions, you must call me, I will come over as soon as possible," Annie said.

Casey nodded. After receiving the key, he turned and walked towards the community.

Seeing Casey walked in, Annie sighed, thinking that she would be happy if she could have an affair with Casey. After all, many people's romantic relationships began with affair.

In a duplex apartment.

Elodie and Nova came back from the airport and went to the house they rented first, planning to take a shower and change clothes before going to school.

Both of them were a bit uncomfortable living in a dormitory, and their family were pretty good, so they rented a house together.

At this moment, Elodie had just come out of the bathroom, with wet hair, only a bath towel wrapped around her body, and her rugged figure revealed vividly.

"Nova, did the landlord say that rooms upstairs have been rented out? When will the tenant move in?" Elodie said while wiping her hair.

Nova shook her head and said, "It is said that it will come today, but I don't know the exact time."

"I heard that the tenant seems to be a man. I don't know if he's reliable. I hope he is not a lecher. Otherwise, we will definitely suffer," Elodie said.

Nova nodded and said, "If he is the same as the newly moved people downstairs, we should move out as soon as possible."

Elodie agreed, then tore off the towel from her body, picked up the clothes on the sofa, and planned to get dressed.

When Nova saw that Elodie change clothes in front of her, she blushed and didn't dare to look directly at Elodie's body.

"Elodie, you just change your clothes here? What if you were seen?" Nova said.

"What are you afraid of? Anyway, there is only you here. Is it possible that I'm afraid to be seen by you, a girl?" Elodie said indifferently.

As soon as she finished speaking, the door was opened. Casey walked in from the outside, and the first scene greeted her was Elodie, who was about to change clothes.

Elodie turned to look at Casey, then looked down at her body, and then, a scream echoed throughout the apartment.

With embarrassment on his face, Casey turned quickly, not daring to look behind again.

Elodie quickly picked up the clothes on the sofa, covered her private parts, and then rushed into her room.

"Sorry, I didn't mean it. I didn't know someone was changing clothes inside," Casey said with some shame.

Nova stared at Casey, feeling a little strange, not knowing why Casey came here.

"She has entered the room. You can turn around now," Nova said.

Casey turned around and looked at Nova.

He was also didn't expect that he would see Nova and Elodie in the rented house.

"Casey, why are you here? Are you coming with us?" Nova looked at Casey with some caution.

Although Nova had a good impression of Casey on the plane, Nova was still very puzzled why Casey suddenly appeared where they lived.

"This is the room my friend rented for me, and I didn't expect you to be here," Casey said, shaking the key in his hand to Nova.

Nova suddenly realized that it was Casey who rented the room upstairs.

Before, Nova was worried about whether the man who rented with them would be the kind of unreliable person. Now that she knew it was Casey, she was also relieved.

At the very least, Casey seemed to be a sound person, more reliable than the men who had moved downstairs recently.

Two days ago, a few men who looked like gangsters came downstairs. When she and Elodie went downstairs, they saw those men drinking with their doors open. Those men whistled when they saw them.

At this time Elodie was dressed and walked out of the room. She glared at Casey angrily and shouted, "You are a pervert! Dare you stay here and not leave. Do you really think we will be afraid you! Get out quickly, or I will call the police now!"

Seeing Elodie's face full of anger, Nova explained quickly, "Elodie, Casey is the person who rented the room upstairs. It was a misunderstanding just now."

"What! You said that the one who rented the room upstairs was this pervert, a gigolo?" Elodie immediately widened his eyes.

When Casey heard Elodie's address to him, he frowned, looked at her and said, "I didn't mean to see you just now. I can apologize to you, but is it too rude for you to call me like this?"

Chapter 524 Who Is That Rich Beauty
Elodie curled her lips at Casey and said, "What's wrong with me calling you that way? Isn't it right? You are a gigolo who was raised by a woman, and you behaved so blatantly at the airport. Now you don't admit it. Shame on you."

Casey looked at Elodie with a cold look and said, "Who told you that I was raised by a woman? Slandering others without any excuse. Is it what your teacher taught you?"

"Then what does the beauty do? Don't tell me that she is your friend. Such wealthy person like her don't even bother to be friends with someone like you," Elodie said aggressively.

"She is only responsible for picking me up and reporting to me. You think too much," Casey said.

"Tut-tut, how shameless you are. She drove a luxury car to pick you up. Obviously, she is very rich. You actually said that she was only responsible for picking you up and making report. Are you her leader?" Elodie retorted immediately.

"Almost," Casey replied. As the young master of Guanling, Casey could indeed be Nadia's leader.

"Nova, look at him, he is really shameless. He even admitted that he is the leader of the rich beauty. If so, how could he still rent a house with us? I think he is a prurient boaster. Let's get rid of him as soon as possible. It's really bad to live with this kind of person."

Elodie said angrily.

Seeing that the two people were about to quarrel, Nova quickly walked to the middle of the two, and persuaded, "Elodie, Casey is a good man. He may have too much dignity, so he doesn't want to be belittled by you. What you said is indeed too much. You two meet each other halfway. If Casey is driven away, the next person who rents the house will become unknown. At least Casey's moral quality is not bad."

Elodie still stared at Casey fiercely, and said, "His moral quality is not bad? He peeped at me when I was changing clothes. He is a lecher!"

Casey didn't intend to continue arguing with her, and walked directly upstairs, ignoring Elodie's yelling.

Nova walked up to Elodie, dragged her to sit on the sofa, and said, "Well, Elodie, no matter what, Casey is also renting a house from the landlord. We cannot drive him away. Don't be angry because of such a misunderstanding."

"I just hate people like him. He is so shameless and refuses to admit the clear truth. Didn't he still say that he is a visiting professor invited by our school? I heard that there is only a visiting professor invited by School of History recently. He will have his class next Monday. We will have a look at that time, record a video, and bring it back to question this shameless person, and then see how he can defend it!" Elodie said in disgust.

Nova looked at Elodie helplessly.

Seeing Elodie didn't yell at her to drive Casey out, she didn't say anything.

Casey took a brief look at his room and found that although the layout here was a bit simple, but all the necessary items were available. It was still comfortable. There was a toilet upstairs, so he did not need to share toilet with the two girls, which could also avoid some embarrassment.

After confirming that there was nothing wrong with the room, Casey lay down directly on the bed.

His main task in H City was to find Edith. Although there were clues now, it was still not sure where Edith was. Nadia had sent someone to do these things. His ability was limited. At this time, he could only rely on Guanling's intelligence network.

Although he promised Brodie to be a visiting professor at Fudan University, he, the so-called professor, only had an open class every week, and the content of the course was up to him. The school would not arrange anything for him during other time.

So now he had nothing to do, all he had to do was wait for Nadia to send him news.

After lying on the bed for a while, Casey fell asleep in a daze. He dreamed of Edith and woke up just as he was about to grab Edith's hand.

He took out his phone and checked the time, and found that it was only half an hour later. Casey shook his head to make himself sober, got up and went downstairs, and found that Elodie and Nova had already left, so he left the room for Fudan University.

Since Edith had appeared at Fudan University, it was very likely that she would come again. Casey was going to Fudan University. If he was lucky enough to meet Edith directly, he didn't have to wait aimlessly.

In the evening, Nadia called Casey and wanted to have dinner with him. Casey directly refused. Nadia asked Casey where he lived and wanted to come and take a look in case Casey didn't live well.

Casey was troubled in an instant. Elodie had misunderstood the relationship between him and Nadia. If Nadia came here, it would be even more troublesome.

So, he told Nadia not to bother him if it had nothing to do with Edith. Then he hung up after speaking.

For the next two days, Casey spent most of his time in Fudan University. He was in a daze at the place where Edith appeared, and the rest of his time was resting in the rented house.

Although Elodie was very upset with Casey, she didn't try to drive Casey out.

At most, she mocked Casey when she saw Casey. Casey didn't care about her and didn't pay any attention to her. In contrast, Nova's attitude towards Casey was better. Before, there were only two girls, Nova and Elodie, who could not do things like changing light bulbs and hanging curtains. Now that Casey was here, Nova could ask Casey for help.

Casey never refused her. It made Nova think Casey was a pretty good person, while Elodie felt that Casey was pretending and must think that Nova was naïve. She believed Casey had conspiracy against them.

That afternoon, Casey went back to his residence to pick up things. As soon as he arrived at the door of his house, he heard a loud noise coming from downstairs. The laughter of several men was mixed with swear words, echoing in the corridor.

Casey frowned and realized that the door was not closed downstairs, but he didn't intend to tell them. He walked the door and planned to walk in.

At this moment, he heard the voice of a girl.

"Let me go!"

The voice was somewhat familiar, Casey thought about it for a moment, and immediately confirmed that it should be Nova's voice.

He immediately walked downstairs, and saw that the door of a house was open, and the inside was full of smoke.

Several men were shirtless, holding Nova's arm with a smirk. They looked like they wanted to molest her.

Nova was panicked, but in front of these men, there was no way to break free.

"Little girl, since you're here, come and play with us. You think we are noisy now. When you scream later, but you won't think so."

Chapter 525 Using Connections

"Let me go! You gangsters, if you dare to do anything to me, you will go to jail!"

Nova shouted hoarsely.

"Hey, you don't need to worry about this matter. This matter can be solved with money. Little girl, don't be naive," a man with a big belly said.

Several men reached out their hands and touched Nova's body, without any intention of being gentle.

"Let go of her." At this moment, a low and majestic voice rang, and Casey had walked into the house, staring at the men coldly.

When the men heard this voice, they all stopped, turned their heads and looked at the door. When they found that an ordinary young man came in, the fat man with buzz cut suddenly cursed, "Who the hell are you? Get out of here! Get off my back!"

Nova saw Casey walk in, and there was a glimmer of hope in her eyes. However, she soon realized that the men in the house were bitchy, and only Casey would not be able to cope with them, so she hurriedly shouted, "Casey, go to the police and let the police arrest them. You can't handle so many of them alone. Get out of here!"

Hearing Nova's words, the man with buzz cut rolled his eyes, and then gave the person next to him a look. That person immediately got up, rushed to the door, and locked the door.

Although they were not afraid of troubles, if Casey really reported to the police, things would become a little troublesome, and most importantly, their entertainment would be ruined.

Now that they were drunk, the desires in their minds had been infinitely amplified, except for what they wanted to do, they would not pay attention to other things at all.

"As you are here, then don't go. After we enjoy ourselves, we will teach you carefully. Then you will understand what will happen if you are nosy." The man with buzz cut snorted coldly, "Tying him up and throwing him aside first. Our entertainment can't be delayed."

The few men behind the man with buzz cut immediately stood up and walked towards Casey with a sneer.

When Nova saw this scene, she became more anxious. She felt that after seeing the situation here, Casey should rush out and call the police. After all, it was the safest way.

But just now Casey watched the man go to lock the door, without moving. He looked still calm, which made Nova too anxious to speak.

Now that they locked the door and planned to attack Casey. Nova felt like she lost the bait along with the fish

"Casey, don't clash with them. You came here because of me. I don't want you to be injured because of me. If there is really no way to escape today, you should listen to them honestly, so that our loss can be minimized." Nova said, staring stared at Casey.

The man with buzz cut immediately sneered and said, "I didn't expect you to think about others. It seems that you are planning to listen to us?"

Nova gritted her teeth and looked at that man with disgust in her eyes.

Casey smiled at Nova and said, "Don't worry, you will be fine today. They're just some scums. They cannot cause any trouble to me."

Just now Nova's words made Casey realize that she was really kind. Now that this was the case, she was still thinking about Casey. If it were changed to Elodie, she would have already started to scold Casey for being stupid. Of course, if Elodie was molested by these people today, Casey might not help her.

For the girl who said that he was a gigolo, Casey didn't have a lot of good feelings. It would be too unprincipled for him to rush to help a girl who insulted him.

"Hey, he's a good boaster. We have beaten up a lot of people like you, and all of those people knelt on the ground and begged us for mercy. Do you think you can be an exception?" the man with buzz cut said and sneered.

Nova also didn't believe Casey a little bit. It was not that she looked down on Casey. It was because Casey was not like the kind of person who was good at fighting. There were so many people on the side of the man with buzz cut. She just wanted to minimize the loss now, but Casey was asking for trouble.

"Fuck, young people nowadays have nothing to do except bragging. It's time for me to teach you how to behave!" A man yelled at Casey, then punched Casey in the face.

Nova quickly closed her eyes when she saw this scene. Now all what she could do was pray for Casey in her heart.

Casey didn't even look at the man, just raised his hand and easily blocked his fist, then kicked, and the man flew upside down.

A scream rang out, and the man with buzz cut and the remaining men were shocked.

Nova looked strange. She opened her eyes when she heard that scream just now did not sound like Casey's. After the scene in front of her came into view, she was completely stunned.

She saw Casey's figure swiftly, moving neatly, not sloppily.

Most importantly, the movements of those men seemed to have been slowed down. They were like snails in front of Casey, and they had been knocked down by Casey before they could react. These men, who looked very fierce and sturdy, were like cotton candy in front of Casey, and fell to the ground after a little touch.

It made Nova feel like she was watching a movie, and Casey's smooth movements were only seen in martial arts movies.

The man with buzz cut also watched this scene dumbfounded. He didn't expect that Casey, who looked ordinary, would be so strong. He was so scared that he stood up quickly and staggered back towards the back.

After Casey settled the few people, he walked towards the man with buzz cut. Nova quickly got up from the ground and hid behind Casey.

Looking at Casey's back, Nova suddenly felt that Casey's image in her mind had become taller. It turned out that Casey was not as unreliable as she imagined. He was actually able to beat up these rascals.

"You... don't come over, I'll tell you, I have some connections. As long as I call, more than one hundred people will come and kill you right away. If you are sensible, get out of here quickly and I will not blame you for what happened before. Otherwise, you will get into trouble!" the man with buzz cut said tremblingly.

"Your network is really amazing. In this case, in order to completely get rid of you, I also decided to use my connections," Casey said with a smile.

Chapter 526 They're Downstairs

Hearing Casey's words, the man with buzz cut suddenly felt suspicious. He just said that he had some connections, and he could call more than one hundred people in one call, just to frighten Casey.

He may not be able to call so many people. After all, his so-called contacts were actually the subordinates of the boss of the underground world in H City. These people may help the man with buzz cut to solve ordinary troubles. However, it was really impossible for him to find more than a hundred men. Now Casey listened to his words, and even had to use his own contacts, which made the man with buzz cut a little bit wondering how to deal with it.

But soon he was relieved. Although he couldn't call over a hundred brothers with one phone call, he still had some connections. Basically, among some forces in H City, there were people he knew. Otherwise, He didn't dare to do such a thing after drinking.

Casey sounded like an outlander from his accent and he was young, no matter how good he was, he probably wouldn't have very good connection in H City. Maybe the one Casey called over later happened to know him, and that would be fine.

Nova on the side showed a hint of curiosity when she heard Casey say that he would use his connections. She didn't expect Casey to have connections in B City.

She remembered that Casey told her that this was the first time he came to B City. It stood to reason that Casey would not have too many connections here. Even if there was, it was probably the rich beauty who came to the airport to pick him up.

Thinking about it this way, Nova became worried again. After all. Casey was a stranger here. They didn't know the background of the man with buzz cut. It's too risky for Casey to compete with the man in this way.

So, Nova reminded Casey, "Why don't we go. Anyway, they have already been taught by you. These people dare to do this kind of thing brazenly. Maybe they really have some support. You have been in H City for the first time. Your connections in B City are definitely not as good as the natives. If this goes on, we have to take a big risk, or let's forget it."

When the man with buzz cut heard Nova say that Casey was coming to the H City for the first time, his eyes suddenly brightened. If this was the case, he would be more confident. It was a joke that an outlander wanted to beat him in connections in B City. Casey glanced at Nova and said, "If this kind of scum is not solved at once, there will be a lot of follow-up troubles in the future. They just live downstairs and can revenge easily. You don't have to worry. Although it's my first time to come to B City, but I still have some connections here."

The man with buzz cut sneered suddenly and said, "If you have the ability, you can call them. I want to see who you can ask for help. If it happens to be some of my old friends, then I do not have to make a call."

Casey didn't pay attention to the words of the man with buzz cut, but took out his phone and called Nadia.

"Mr. Davies, I have finally received your call. Do you need me? Tell me where you are, and I will rush over." As soon as the call was connected, Nadia's coquettish voice sounded.

Casey was helpless and then he coughed slightly, and said, "Is there anyone from underground world on your side? I meet a small trouble here and I need to solve it."

When Nadia heard Casey's words, she immediately became serious and said,

"Yes, where are you? I will send someone over."

Casey didn't hesitate, and directly stated his position, and emphasized it later. He also stressed that Nadia only needed to send people here and she did have to come.

Naturally, Nadia was full of resentment, but she didn't dare to violate Casey's order and hurried to arrange someone after she hung up the phone.

Nadia was leader of Guanling in H City. Of course, she was capable. Although Nadia was not the most powerful businessman in H City, with the principle of low profile, Guanling would definitely help Nadia with the resources that only the top families had.

So, Casey didn't worry that the people Nadia sent could not solve the current troubles. If she couldn't solve even these few hooligans, there would be no need for Nadia to continue to be the leader of Guanling in H City.

After the call, Casey turned his head to look at Nova, and said, "Go upstairs first. Just leave it to me."

Nova looked at Casey worriedly and said, "This matter has something to do with me. How can I leave you here alone?"

Casey smiled and said, "You go upstairs first, and if I can't solve them later, you can call the police for me, which is also a backstop."

He knew that if he didn't say that, Nova would definitely not agree to go upstairs first.

Nova felt that Casey was right, so she nodded to Casey and said, "Then I will go upstairs first. If something happens later, you must call for help, and I will call the police as soon as possible."

Casey nodded and said, "This shouldn't happen. Just go upstairs and wait for me."

Nova didn't say anything. After staring at the man with buzz cut, she walked out of the house.

After Nova left, the man with buzz cut gave Casey a sneer and said, "It seems that you don't have much confidence in your connections. Dare you, a newcomer, talk about connections in front of me. Kneel down in front of me and kowtow a few times, begging me to forgive you, then this matter will not be so troublesome."

Casey turned his head and glanced at the man with buzz cut, and said, "I was to coax her upstairs, can't you hear it? You might end up badly later. She is a little girl, it's not good for her to see this."

"Stop bluffing here. I know people among the major forces in B City. No matter who you call over, they will show me respect. The one who will end up miserably will be yourself," the man with buzz cut said confidently.

Casey ignored him, but took a stool and sat down.

Not long after, Casey's phone rang. It was an unfamiliar number. Casey answered, and a respectful voice came from there, "Mr. Davies, I have taken someone to the place you said. But we have a lot of people, so we can't go up. Just wait a moment, I'll ask some men to help you deal with the trouble."

"No, I'll go down," Casey replied.

Then Casey grabbed the man's collar and dragged him towards the outside. The man with buzz cut suddenly scolded and said, "What the hell are you doing, let go of me. Aren't you looking for someone to come!"

"They're already downstairs," Casey said.

"Couldn't you call a few bastards over. They even don't dare to go upstairs. I just pissed myself with laughter." The man with buzz cut laughed.

Casey ignored him and dragged him downstairs. When they walked out of the building, the man with buzz cut still wanted to see what kind of people Casey had called here.

But when he looked outside, he suddenly froze.

At this time, downstairs, a large number of men in black suits and sunglasses had gathered together. There were hundreds of people standing together. They looked overwhelming, no one dared to approach here for half a step.

Chapter 527 Relatively "Safe"

"Are... these the people you called?"

The man with buzz cut stared at Casey with an incredible look. His legs were soft, and he was shivering.

He originally thought that Casey had just called a few gangsters here. After all, how could a newcomer know someone powerful in H City.

But now there were more than a hundred people gathered downstairs.

Casey gathered so many men here with one call, and they all seemed to be well-trained senior thugs and are completely different from those gangsters. A sense of fear rose in the man with buzz cut.

Casey nodded to the man with buzz cut and said, "It should be them."

The man with buzz cut swallowed. What did he mean? Did Casey have too many connections in H City that he even didn't know who he called?

At this time, two men in suits came out, one was a middle-aged man in his forties who looked calm and decisive, and the other was a young man in sportswear.

The man with buzz cut was shocked when he saw these two men, and almost jumped directly from the ground.

He knew these two people. The middle-aged man was now the leader of the Underground World in H City, named Walker. Among the current underground forces in H City, Walker was in the foremost rank, and few could be compared with him. No matter who you messed with, you should never mess with Walker.

And the young man who followed Walker was Walker's capable subordinate, named Henry. The man with buzz cut was lucky enough to have dinner with Henry.

Walker actually brought someone here himself!

No more than five people could enjoy such treatment in H City.

The man with buzz cut only felt frightened. If Walker and these people were really called by Casey, then he would really be in trouble today.

"No. How can this kid be able to call Walker over and Walker also brings such a large group of people. It must be just a coincidence. Walker and others may come here for something else. How could we be worthy of Walker bringing so many people over to deal with us."

"Yes, it must be a coincidence. Perhaps the person this kid called was scared away by Walker's people, so he took me down. He wanted to use Walker's people to scare me."

"Hey, it's a pity that he doesn't know that I know the little men around Walker. Maybe I can still use them to beat this guy up."

A few thoughts flashed in the mind of the man with buzz cut. Then, he waved his hand to Henry, who was next to Walker, and shouted, "Henry, it's me, Bowen, we have had dinner together. The guy who is catching me is troubling me. Can you help me beat him up by the way!"

Henry turned his head and glanced at the man with buzz cut, and found that he did know that person, but the person holding him at this time was the one they were going to help this time.

When they came, Walker said that the person they were going to help this time was very important, and there should be no mistakes. The identity of this person had reached the point where they couldn't imagine.

That's why they came here directly with more than one hundred people.

Now the man with buzz cut asked him to beat up this important person, Henry trembled in fright.

Walker turned his head and glanced at Henry, then asked, "Do you know this person?"

Henry shook his head quickly and said, "Boss, I don't know him at all. I do not know how he knows my name."

Walker nodded and said, "That's good."

The man with buzz cut was dumbfounded at once. He didn't expect Henry to say that he didn't know him, as if he was trying to separate himself from him.

At this time, Walker walked up to Casey, bowed respectfully to Casey, and said, "Mr. Davies, after we received the notice, we rushed over as soon as possible. I hope we are not late. What's your problem, Mr. Davies? If the people I brought are not enough, I will call some more."

Casey waved his hand and said, "No, it's just a little trouble. People you brought are enough."

He didn't expect that Nadia would arrange so many people over at once, which was indeed exaggerated. But since they were all here, Casey didn't say anything. It would also scare the man with buzz cut. After today, he would never dare to trouble Nova anymore.

"Mr. Davies, May I know about the specific trouble you encountered? Then I can let someone help you beat up those disgusting people," Walker asked. Casey immediately briefly talked about what happened before, and said that it was just a small trouble, and it was enough to let these people taste a lesson.

The man with buzz cut stared at the scene in front of him blankly. He did not expect that Walker brought so many people over to help Casey, and Walker's attitude towards Casey was so respectful, as if Casey was his boss. He had never heard of anyone who could be so prestigious in front of Walker. Realizing the seriousness of the matter, the man with buzz cut turned his head and glanced at Casey. Then he knelt down in front of Casey without hesitation, crying and said, "Sir, I knew it was wrong. I didn't expect you to be so powerful. Please, please spare me, I won't dare to do so anymore."

Casey glanced at him indifferently, and did not speak. He knew that Walker would take care of the next thing for him.

Henry rolled his eyes when he saw the man with buzz cut kneeling in front of Casey begging for mercy. He now had to clarify his relationship with the man with buzz cut. If Casey minded, he would be in trouble too.

So, he walked directly to the side of the man with buzz cut, grabbed his collar, and dragged him towards the one hundred people.

"Why didn't you think that there would be this moment when you provoke Mr. Davies? Now it is too late for you to beg for mercy! Guys, this stupid dare to make trouble for Mr. Davies. Now let him know how powerful we are!"

Henry directly dragged the man with buzz cut into the crowd.

Before the call for help from the man with buzz cut, his entire face was already covered by overwhelming fists. A scream came out from the crowd, but there was no one who sympathized with the man with buzz cut. They all wanted to give him a few punches.

Walker smiled and walked in front of Casey and reached out and handed him a business card. The business card was made quite exquisite, with gold borders, and there was only a phone number on it. It was obvious that he would give others this kind of business card casually.

"Mr. Davies, Chairman Nadia ordered that your business will be our business in the future. This is my business card. You can call me no matter what trouble you encounter in H City in the future." Casey did not refuse, took the business card, and nodded to Walker.

Chapter 528 I Won't Go

In the apartment.

Nova was pacing back and forth anxiously. From time to time, she would put her ear to the door, wanting to hear the movement downstairs.

But after she went upstairs, there was no sound from downstairs, which made her worry about what happened to Casey.

At that time, she agreed with Casey that if something wrong happened, Casey would call for help, and she would call the police immediately. However, there was no movement at all, and she didn't know what to do.

"Could it be that the person Casey found happened to know the gangsters, and then they took Casey away directly?"

Nova muttered, with a trace of fear in his heart.

"No, if this is the case, then Casey must be in great danger. I have to confirm the situation. If something happened, I should call the police immediately."

Making a decision in her heart, Nova walked directly to the door, opened the door anxiously, and wanted to rush out. At this moment, she felt dark in front of her, and then she slammed into a solid chest and was bounced back.

She stood still on the spot, looked towards the door and found that it was Casey who had bounced herself back, her eyes widened.

"Casey, you... why are you back? Those people let you go?"

Casey smiled at Nova and said, "The trouble has been solved, and there will be no more noise downstairs in the future."

Nova looked incredible, and asked, "You mean, those people moved away?"

"Well, it's almost the same." Casey replied. In essence, there was not much difference between being taken away by Walker's people and moving away.

"Didn't those people say that they have a lot of connections? How did you let them move away? Didn't they cause you trouble?" Nova still couldn't figure out how Casey did it.

"Didn't I say that I have some connections here too? The person called came here and helped settle this matter," Casey explained.

Nova nodded suddenly. She didn't expect Casey to be so powerful that he could find someone to settle this matter. It seemed that although this guy was from another city, he still had power. If she went downstairs to have a look now, she might be able to see the scene that the men molested her were taken away by hundreds of people in a suit. At that time, she would probably not think Casey just had some power.

"Casey, thank...thank you." After coming back to her mind, Nova glanced at Casey with some gratitude, showing a hint of affection for Casey on her pretty face.

Casey smiled at Nova and said, "My pleasure."

Then he went back to the room to take things, and left the apartment again.

Although Casey didn't take this matter to heart, for Nova, this incident was equivalent to escaping a disaster. After all, without Casey, she would most likely be raped by those gangsters this time. It was enough to change Nova's life, so it was not an exaggeration to say that Casey was Nova's savior.

Nova originally thought about how she should repay Casey. In that case, Nova felt that she could agree to whatever Casey asked, but Casey completely regarded it as a trivial matter, and left with his things.

It made Nova feel the charm of Casey, and her affection for Casey rose sharply.

She stayed alone in the apartment for a long time, thinking a lot in her mind, and from time to time she showed an idiotic smile on her face.

"Although Casey isn't as handsome as those male celebrities, but he was so handsome when he saved me. And his chest is so mighty. He doesn't have eight pack abs, does he? I really want to touch it. ..."

Until the evening, Nova didn't hear any noise from downstairs again. She went to the estate management company to confirm it. The estate management company told her that the people downstairs had moved away, so she was completely relieved. At the same time, she praised Casey for being reliable.

In the evening, when Elodie came back, Nova eagerly told Nova what happened in the afternoon, and there was no lack of appreciation for Casey.

After listening to Nova's words, Elodie stared and stretched out her hand to touch Nova's forehead, and said, "Nova, are you crazy. Do you think that gigolo is handsome? Oh my god? He used tricks and bewitched you, right?"

When Nova heard Elodie say this, she immediately took her hand away and said, "Elodie, can you not say Casey this way? He really saved me this afternoon. If you don't believe me, go and take a look downstairs. Those hooligans have moved away."

"Nova, you are too naive. Did you see Casey beat those hooligans away?"

Elodie looked like her with disappointment.

When Nova heard what Elodie said, she was taken aback, then shook her head and said, "I didn't see it. He asked me to come upstairs first, just in case."

"So, you didn't even see how this matter was solved, and you were blindly grateful to that guy. Maybe another neighbor called the police to resolve this matter, while this guy insisted that he solved it by himself. Maybe he was to win your favor, coaxing an innocent girl like you." Elodie said.

Nova felt that there were many mistakes Elodie's words, but she couldn't find any words to refute her.

"I'm telling you. I've seen a lot of people like him. Do you remember my ex-boyfriend? Isn't he just a guy who likes to brag? You can't believe what this kind of person says." Elodie continued to say earnestly.

"Elodie, I still feel that you have a strong bias against Casey. This matter is not as complicated as you think. Casey really helped to solve it, and he didn't ask me to do anything." Nova continued to defend Casey.

"Stupid girl, it's his trick. He was deliberate. This kind of man is the most terrifying, and he specifically finds you, innocent girl. And I suspect that those people downstairs were specially recruited by him, in order to trick you. Otherwise, how could he be able to beat several men by himself? This is all a conspiracy. No, we can't let this guy continue to live with us, or we will be trapped by him sooner or later," Elodie said, her eyes narrowed, as if she had seen through some shocking secret. Nova was a little speechless at once, thinking that her girlfriend really thought a little too much.

"Elodie, I feel that you are scared by your ex-boyfriends, so you think every man is the same as them. I can clearly feel that Casey is not such a person," Nova said seriously.

Elodie rolled her eyes at Nova and said, "Forget it, when you lose, you will know if I am right. Let's not talk about that man. Dyer invites us to a bar tomorrow. I heard that the bar is Dream Paradise, which is very famous in H City, and the cost is very high. It is said that it is still the site of Walker, a bigwig in H City. Dyer deserves to be from a rich family. He is able to treat us in such a place. Tomorrow I have to dress up and go to Dream Paradise for fun."

When Nova heard Elodie's words, she immediately frowned and said, "Go to the bar to play? I heard that such a place is messy, or we won't go."

"Oh, what are you afraid of? Dyer and the others are there. This time, Dyer is calling the two of us to go. If we don't go, we will make him angry. You also know the background of Dyer's family. Offending him is not good. Anyway, it's just for fun, isn't it normal for young people to go to bars," Elodie persuaded. Nova still frowned. The reason why she didn't want to go was not because of the mess in the bar, but because Dyer was interested in her and had expressed his thoughts several times. However, Nova didn't like Dyer, and even hated him a little

But what Elodie said was right. Dyer's family had a big business in H City. He was indeed from a wealthy family. His family had a great connection, and she didn't want to get into trouble with Dyer. "That... well, but can we take Casey with us?" Nova asked.

Elodie immediately stared, and said, "What do you do with that guy?" Nova thought for a while, and said, "Casey is also our roommate. Anyway, we go out to play, it shouldn't matter if we bring him."

In fact, she wanted to bring Casey because Casey gave her a sense of security. What happened today made Nova have this feeling, so she subconsciously wanted to go with Casey.

Elodie originally wanted to reject Nova directly. After all, taking Casey would only embarrass her. In case Dyer knew that Casey was a gigolo, everyone would laugh at them.

But after thinking about it, Casey intended to trick Nova. She could take this opportunity to let Dyer beat up Casey. She knew Dyer liked Nova. If Dyer knew that Casey gained Nova's favor, he would definitely not let Casey go easily.

Maybe he could still use Dyer to drive Casey out of their apartment.

Thinking of this, Elodie showed a smirk on her face, thinking that she was so smart that she could come up with such a good idea.

"Then listen to you. It's okay to bring him. Dyer will definitely not mind. I will tell him when he comes back later," Elodie said.

Hearing Elodie's consent, Nova immediately nodded happily.

After a short while, Casey came back from the outside, opened the door of the apartment, and went straight upstairs.

Elodie quickly stood up and walked in front of Casey. She thought Casey would definitely not miss the chance to go out with Nova as he wanted to trick her, so she said in a commanding tone, "Tomorrow, Nova and I will go to the bar for fan. As you are our roommate, we allow you to follow up. Remember to dress well and don't embarrass us."

Casey glanced at her and replied blankly,

"I won't go."

Chapter 529 You Will Be Beaten up
Previously, Elodie had been treating Casey arrogantly. After hearing what Casey said, she was immediately stunned. In her opinion, no matter what, Casey wouldn't give up such a good opportunity. However, now, Casey refused her without even thinking about it. She was embarrassed.

"What...What are you talking about? Repeat it to me!" Elodie was angry, her chest rising and falling.

Considering her to be unreasonable, Casey didn't answer. He got around her and was going to go upstairs.

Elodie approached Casey and stood in front of him again, saying angrily, "I kindly invited you, but you dare to refuse. Who do you think you are? Don't think highly of yourself. You're but a toy boy kept by someone!"

Casey immediately narrowed his eyes, staring at Elodie and showing a strong air of forcefulness. Elodie was so frightened that she was immediately not angry anymore.

Seeing that they were at daggers drawn, Nova was somewhat anxious. She hurriedly came close to them, grabbed Elodie by her arm and said apologetically, "Casey, I'm really sorry. It's I that want to invite you to hang out with us. Elodie was out of line, offending you. I apologize to you for her. I'm sorry."

Forgive her, please."

Hearing it, Casey was no longer angry and spoke to Nova in a calm tone, "I have an appointment with someone else tomorrow, so I can't hang out with you. I'm sorry."

Nova nodded. She felt a sense of loss. However, seeing that Casey was still nice to her, she was relieved.

After saying that, Casey didn't waste time on them, but went upstairs. Clearly finding that Casey treated her differently from Nova, Elodie was even more annoyed.

When talking to her, Casey was obviously impatient; however, when talking to Nova, Casey was very polite. Therefore, she felt that Casey deliberately found fault with her. Besides, because of it, she was more convinced that Casey had an advance to Nova.

The reason why Casey was not nice to her was that she was not nice to Casey. However, she had never realized that. "I'm so angry! This self-righteous guy really thinks highly of himself. Who really wants him to go with us? He is being ungrateful! Nova, see? This guy has an advance to you. Just now, if it were you that asked him to go with us, he would possibly have agreed!" Elodie said angrily.

Nova gave Elodie a glance with a frown and said, "Well, Elodie, when you talked to him just now, you were being offensive. It's normal for Casey to refuse. Moreover, he has told us that he has an appointment tomorrow and is not free."

"Why can't I be offensive to him? He's but a toy boy. He should be grateful for my being willing to talk to him. It's impossible that he could treat me in that way without paying a price. Tomorrow, I'll ask Dyer to teach this reckless guy a lesson!" Elodie shouted while staring at the stairs.

Nova was helpless. Finally, she sighed, turned around and went back to her room.

In the next evening, after coming out of Fudan University, Casey hurried to Dream Paradise by taxi.

Yesterday, after helping Casey get rid of those thugs, Walker enthusiastically invited Casey to his bar, saying that he, as a local, should entertain Casey.

Originally, Casey didn't want to agree.

However, Walker was too enthusiastic.

Moreover, Walker had helped him.

Therefore, it was appropriate for him to firmly refuse. Therefore, he agreed to come to Dream Paradise tonight.

He happened to be tense after looking for Edith for days. He could relax a bit by going to the bar and drinking with Walker.

When Casey was on his way to Dream Paradise, a group of young people had gathered at the door of Dream Paradise.

These people were led by a strong young man who was 1.9 meters tall. He was exactly Dyer, Elodie's classmate, the rich second generation. Besides, in their class, he was influential. It was said that he had dated more than a dozen girls since he was in College. He was really a playboy.

At this moment, Elodie and Nova arrived at the door of Dream Paradise. Both of them were wearing make-up and were dressed up, attracting the attention of many people.

Seeing them, Dyer put on a smile and came to greet them. After greeting Elodie, he stared at Nova and said, "You're so beautiful."

Nova politely smiled at Dyer. She didn't want to be too enthusiastic about him. "Wait here for a while. Someone hasn't arrived yet. We'll enter the bar after everyone is here." Dyer turned around and told his classmates.

At this moment, Elodie approached Dyer and asked, "Dyer, I have a piece of important news. Do you want to hear it?" Dyer stared at Elodie, smiled and asked, "What's that?"

Nova was not far away from Elodie and was chatting with other girls. After turning her head and giving Nova a glance, Elodie said, "Someone has an advance to Nova."

Dyer's face was immediately dark. He was determined to have Nova as his girlfriend. Moreover, in his opinion, when he was going after Nova, no one was eligible to go after Nova. Therefore, hearing what Elodie said, he was naturally unhappy.

When a man had an advance to Nova, he offended Dyer. The man having an advance to Nova was provoking him.

"Who? Is that guy our classmate?" Dyer asked while staring at Elodie.

"No. Don't be anxious. That guy is a toy boy kept by a woman. For you, he's but a beggar. And it's easy for you to teach him a lesson. I'm just reminding you."

Elodie said.

"A toy boy kept by a woman? Such a person is going after the woman I'm going after?" Dyer said with disdain. Seeing his reaction, Elodie immediately sneered in her heart and thought that Casey would soon suffer.

Then she told Dyer that Casey made Nova have a crush on him with some tricks. She even added details, describing Casey to be a toy boy who was scheming and who would bully the weak and would be afraid of the powerful.

After hearing that, Dyer immediately sneered, saying, "Such a lowly man should dare to have an advance to Nova. Don't worry. Later, I'll find a way to teach this guy a lesson."

Elodie was a happy. In her opinion, with Dyer's help, Casey would surely be taught a lesson.

When they were waiting for other classmates, a taxi stopped at the door of the bar. Casey got off the tax, walking towards the bar.

Elodie immediately saw Casey. She was surprised. Then she murmured to herself, "He's shameless. He said that he couldn't come here with us, but he secretly follows us to here. But it's a good thing. I'll ask Dyer to teach you a lesson now. After that, I'll see if you dare to treat me arrogantly in the future."

She hurriedly approached Dyer, pointed to Casey and said, "That's the toy boy I just mentioned. Unexpectedly, he also comes here. I'm sure that he comes here to make trouble for us. Dyer, you mustn't be humiliated by such a toy boy."

Dyer looked at the people Elodie was pointing at and narrowed his eyes immediately. Then he spoke to several boys and walked towards Casey with them.

They stopped Casey in an aggressive manner. They behaved as if they were going to fight with Casey.

Looking at these young people and gloating Elodie, Casey was a little surprised. He didn't expect that Elodie and her classmates would come to Dream Paradise.

"Casey, didn't you say that you weren't coming? Why do you follow us to here? I find that you're really low. When I invited you to come here with us, you refused. However, you secretly follow us to here. Could it be that toy boys all act in an unnatural way?" Elodie directly laughed at Casey.

Casey gave her a glance and said, "I come here to meet my friend. Does it has anything to do with you?"

"Humph. Stop quibbling. Obviously, you're following us secretly. Why do you meet your friend at this time, instead of at other times? Who would believe you?" Elodie said with disdain.

Dyer took a step forward. He was higher than Casey. Then he gave Casey a contemptuous glance and said, "I heard that you're kept by a woman? I know what people like you are thinking about. You just want to sit around doing nothing. Your being kept by a woman is none of my business. However, you have an advance to Nova. So I have to talk to you about it."

Casey helplessly gave these people a glance. He clearly knew that the reason why these people came to him was that Elodie said something to them.

"I don't know what you're talking about. I don't have any advance to anyone. If you're not going to talk to me about other matters, get out of my way. My friend is still waiting for me in the bar." Casey said tonelessly.

"Humph, you dare to act like that. Why? To make you understand what I say, I must teach you a lesson first, right?" Dyer waved his fist to Casey.

The people standing behind Dyer were also looking at Casey with disdain. When Elodie talked about Casey, they all heard what she said.

At this moment, Nova noticed what was going on here. Seeing that Casey was surrounded by Dyer and Dyer' classmates, she hurriedly approached them.

"Dyer, what are you doing?" Nova anxiously shouted at Dyer.

"Nova, this guy has an advance to you. Elodie has told me that he is a crafty toy boy. If it goes on, you'll definitely be fooled by him. Therefore, I'm going to teach him a lesson for you." Dyer spoke to Nova.

Nova frowned and said, "What nonsense are you talking about? Now, let Casey go. You're not eligible to teach him a lesson without any reason."

Seeing that Nova was so protective of Casey, Dyer was immediately angry. He turned his head, looked at Casey and said while gritting his teeth,

"Unexpectedly, you're so good at fooling others that Nova is fooled by you.

Today, I must teach you a lesson!"

After saying that, Dyer was going to start a fight with Casey with a group of male classmates.

"Wait!" Nova shouted loudly.

"Nova, could it be that you're still going to speak for this toy boy?" Dyer turned his head and looked at Nova.

"No, I advise you not to fight with Casey. Otherwise, you'll be beaten up by him."

Nova "kindly" reminded him.

Chapter 530 Have Some Self-knowledge

After hearing that, Dyer was a little surprised. To his surprise, in Nova's opinion, they, so many young and strong men, would be beaten up by Casey, a person kept by a woman.

He was being humiliated!

After all, he was 1.9 meters tall.

Besides, he worked out every day. It was impossible that he couldn't even beat a toy boy up.

Could it be that Nova was totally blinded by this guy? She should believe that this guy alone could knock down so many of them!

The boys behind Dyer were also unconvinced. It was obvious that they didn't believe what Nova said. They were just courageous, so it was absolutely impossible for them to believe that they, so many people, couldn't beat a toy boy up.

"Nova, are you kidding us? A person like him wants to beat us up? Isn't it a joke?"

Dyer said, trying to stop himself from venting his anger.

"I'm not kidding. Casey is very good at fighting. You guys really can't defeat him." Nova said seriously. She didn't intend to joke at all. After having seen Casey fight with others, she knew clearly how good at fighting Casey was. Hearing that, Dyer was even angrier. In his opinion, if he didn't teach Casey a lesson in the presence of all the people now, he would be not as good as this toy boy.

"How good at fighting can this weak?kneed person be? In my opinion, I can knock him down by myself."

"You're right. This guy seems to be ordinary. How is it possible that he could knock all of us down by himself? Nova, you must have been fooled by him."

"Directly start a fight with him. You can prove it with a fight. Just knock him down."

.....

Wanting to prove that Nova was wrong, the young people behind Dyer were itching to fight with Casey.

Without hesitation, Dyer directly gave Casey a punch.

Casey raised his hand and took hold of Dyer's wrist, stopping him from making any movement with his fist.

Dyer wanted to get rid of him. To his surprise, however hard he tried, he couldn't get rid of Casey.

He was a fitness fanatic and had strong muscles. Before, no one could stop him from withdrawing his hand by taking hold of his arm without any movement.

"You fucking let go of me!" Being unable to withdraw his hand, Dyer shouted at Casey.

Casey threw Dyer's arm away, making him take a few steps backward.

"You're still students, so I don't want to fight with you. My friend is still waiting for me, so I'm going to pass over the words you just said. I hope you had better have some self-knowledge." After saying that, Casey walked towards the bar.

Because of what had just happened, Dyer was a little afraid. Therefore, now, he dared not to chase Casey and start a fight against him. He just watched Casey enter the bar.

After Casey disappeared from his sight, Dyer finally gathered his wits. However, at this moment, he dared not to chase Casey. Dream Paradise was owned by Walker, and he dared not to make trouble here for no reason.

Elodie had been watching. Seeing that Casey went in the bar easily, she immediately became anxious and spoke to Dyer, "You let him go in so easily? Just now, that guy was so arrogant. Dyer, shouldn't you have beaten him up?"

After giving Elodie a glance, Dyer sneered, "This bar is owned by Walker. If we make trouble for no reason, we'll get ourselves into trouble. However, he dares to be so arrogant to me, so I won't let him off. We come here to have fun. So enter the bar first. Don't become unhappy because of a toy boy."

They all nodded. Believing that Dyer was right, they all said that they weren't going to be serious with a man kept by a woman.

Seeing that they didn't fight, Nova was relieved. If they really started a fight just now, Dyer and his classmates would definitely be beaten up.

Dyer turned his head and gave Nova a possessive glance. The reason why he treated them tonight was that he wanted to ask Nova to be his girlfriend tonight. Therefore, he decided that he should make Nova become his girlfriend first. After that, he would teach Casey a lesson.

They entered the Dream Paradise and soon forgot what had just happened. Dream Paradise was owned by the head of the dark force of H City. It could be said to be one of the most expensive places in H City. It was very popular. Its consumers were all handsome men and beautiful women. There were a lot of activities in the bar, attracting all kinds of young men and women.

It was dark. Colorful lights kept washing over people. People were stimulated by the deafening music.

Immediately after going in, Dyer took out a card and handed it to the waiter, asking him to serve them wine. Others were envious when they saw Dyer being so generous.

When looking around in the bar, Elodie thought: if that woman didn't give Casey money, he could definitely not afford to have fun in such a place. She believed that Casey must have sneaked into the toilet and waited there.

"Humph, it's useless for you to follow is to here. Could it be that you can spend money like Dyer does? No matter what, you can only watch us from somewhere far away. A toy boy should dare to have an advance to other girls. If I knew who you were kept by, I'll definitely tell that person about it, making it impossible for you to be kept by that person." Elodie murmured.

At this moment, in the most luxurious private box of Dream Paradise, many beautiful women were standing in a row at the door. There were various expensive wines and special snacks on the table.

Generally speaking, only the most distinguished guests would be treated in this way.

Soon, the door of this private box was pushed open. Then, Casey came in.

The women standing at the door immediately bowed to Casey, shouting to Casey with a very gentle voice, "Welcome you to come here, Mr. Davies."

Hearing it, Casey was gooseflesh all over.

Walker stood up from the sofa, approached Casey with a smile and said, "Mr. Davies, it's a great honor for me to have you here. These women are carefully selected by me, and you can ask any of them to drink with you."

Casey was somewhat speechless. He gave Walker a glance and said, "I don't need them to drink with me. Ask them to go out."

Walker rolled his eyes. Then he hurriedly spoke to those women, "Didn't you hear what Mr. Davies said? You're common women, and Mr. Davies doesn't like you. Hurriedly go out!"

Those women immediately went out of the private box.

Casey approached the sofa and sat down. Walker sat beside him and said with a smile, "You're so noble. It's indeed inconsiderate for me to ask these common women to drink with you. You're so noble, I'm afraid that only the young lady of the Sue family, who becomes very famous recently, is eligible to drink with you."

Chapter 531 The Plan

At the cassette area, in the hall of the bar.

Dyer and his classmates were sitting here. There was a lot of bottles of wine on the table. Around them, scantily dressed girls were dancing to the music. Dyer picked up his glass and drank a glass of wine with classmates. After looking around, he said with a smile, "Where is the guy named Casey? Could it be that he's hiding in the corner and secretly staring at us?"

"Isn't that guy kept by a woman? Maybe he manages to pick up a 60-year-old rich woman after coming here." A boy sitting next to Dyer said with a smile. Hearing it, they all immediately laughed. They directly laughed at Casey.

Among them, only Nova frowned. In her opinion, it was too bad for these people to taunt Casey like that. However, she couldn't speak for Casey. She just hoped that she could leave here as soon as possible.

After giving Nova a glance, Dyer noticed her expression. Previously, Dyer thought that Nova would get to know what sort of person Casey was and thus began to consider Casey to be a toy boy like everyone else did after they laughed at Casey.

However, judging from Nova's expression, it was obvious that she thought it inappropriate for them to laugh at Casey and that she wanted to speak for Casey.

Previously, he was smiling. After seeing that, his face was immediately dark. Soon after that, he turned his head, looked at the boy beside him and said a few words in a low voice.

That boy put on a knowing smile. Then, he stood up and left the cassette.

Before long, that boy came back with a few middle-aged men. Those middle-aged men stood beside their cassette as if nothing had happened, turned around and watched the women who were performing on the dancing floor. That boy sat down at the cassette again.

Seeing that, Dyer put on a playful smile. Then he picked up his glass, looked at Nova and stood up.

"Nova, it seems that you are a little unhappy. Is there anything wrong with my hospitality? I'm going to make an apology to you by drinking with you. How about that?" Dyer said.

Nova hurriedly waved her hand and said, "I don't drink. I'm fine. You don't have to worry about me. Just have fun."

"Nova, you shouldn't say that. Today, it's Dyer that treats us. The wines on our table are extremely expensive. At ordinary times, even if we want to drink these wines, we have not chance to do so. Now, Dyer wants to have a drink with you. Why not drink with him?" The boy sitting beside Dyer said.

After that, the rest of them immediately began to try to persuade Nova to have a drink with Dyer.

"Nova, have a drink with Dyer. Anyway, you won't get drunk after drinking a glass of wine. We come here to have fun, and you should show some respect to Dyer." Seeing that others were trying to persuade Nova, Elodie also spoke. Hearing all that, Nova was a little embarrassed. She didn't understand why they considered her not drinking wine to be a disrespect to Dyer.

Considering that she wouldn't get drunk after drinking a glass of wine, Nova nodded at Dyer and said, "Well, I'll have a drink with you."

Then she picked up the glass in front of her. The boy sitting beside her immediately poured a full glass of wine for her.

"Nova, stand up and drink with Dyer. You can show your respect to him in this way." That boy stood up with a smile. Nova had no idea about it. Therefore, after hearing him say so, she stood up and proposed a toast to Dyer like the actors and actresses did on TV.

Dyer smiled at Nova. Then he drank off the wine.

Nova put the glass close to her mouth and was going to drink the glass of wine in one gulp.

Right at this moment, the boy who stood up after her pretended to feel dizzy and hit Nova's arm. The wine spilled out of Nova's glass onto the clothes of a middle-aged man standing beside the cassette.

"Oh, oh, oh. I'm drunk. You guys go on drinking, but I can't drink anymore." That boy directly sat down, as if he completely didn't know what he had done.

After giving the empty glass a glance, Nova turned her head and looked at that middle-aged man, finding that his clothes was wet by the wine.

The middle-aged man turned his head and looked at Nova. He reached out his hand, touched his clothes, gave the empty glass Nova was holding a glance and then immediately cursed, "Fuck, I spent more than 100000 dollars on buying this piece of clothes, but you spilled wine onto it. What do you want to do?"

Nova immediately apologized to that middle-aged man, "I'm sorry. I didn't mean to. Just now, someone hit me, so I accidentally spilled the wine. Take off your clothes, and I'll wash it up for you."

After saying that, she turned her head and looked at the boy who hit her, finding that that boy had been asleep. "Wash it up? Are you fucking kidding me? I spent more than 100000 dollars on buying this piece of clothes. It can't be washed. Now, you wet it. You can either buy me a new one or compensate me for it. Otherwise, I, Fulton, will be rude to you." The middle-aged man said.

"What? He's Fulton! He's a capable man working for Walker. We're done. Offending Fulton, we'll all be done!" A boy shouted with a frightened expression.

After hearing that, they all gasped. They didn't expect this middle-aged man to be someone working for Walker.

"I...I really didn't mean to. Someone really hit me..." Nova stared at Fulton in a panic. She was extremely scared. She was a student. How was it possible that she could pay Fulton more than 100000 dollars? However, Fulton worked for Walker and she couldn't afford to offend him. If Fulton really made trouble for her because of this, she would really be done.

"Fuck, I don't care whether you did it intentionally or not. Give me the money now. Otherwise...Ho, ho. You won't want that to happen."

At this moment, Dyer stood up, greeted Fulton and said, "Uncle Fulton, it's you. I'm Dyer. She's my classmate. What about letting her off?"

Fulton turned his head, looked at Casey and said, "It's you. I'm willing to do you this favor, but I'm unwilling to suffer losses because of a stranger. If she is just your classmate, she must compensate me for it!"

After hearing that, Dyer pretended to think for a while and then said, "Uncle Fulton, you've got me wrong. She's my classmate, but she's also my girlfriend. For my sake, let her off."

Nova's eyes were immediately wide open. She didn't expect that Dyer would say such words.

Seeing that, people around immediately began to say that Nova was Dyer's girlfriend and asked Fulton to let her off. Dyer was smiling. As a matter of fact, what had just happened was planned by him.

He could indeed be said to be Fulton's nephew. However, he had deliberately asked Fulton to come here. He had also asked that boy to deliberately hit Nova so that Nova would spill the wine onto the clothes of Fulton.

He did all these to force Nova to become his girlfriend. As long as Nova admitted that she was his girlfriend, it would be easier for him to become Nova's boyfriend.

After staring at Dyer for a while, Fulton turned his head, looked at Nova and said, "Who knows if you're trying to fool me? Tell me yourself if you're Dyer's girlfriend. If you're, I can let you off. If you're not, you must compensate me for it."

Chapter 532 I Am Not Interested in Her

Hearing Fulton question her, Nova was in a panic. She didn't like Dyer. She even hated something he had done. It was very difficult for her to admit that she was Dyer's girlfriend.

Dyer looked at Nova with expectation. In his view, it was impossible that Nova could give Fulton more than 100000 dollars. Under such a circumstance, Nova had no choice but to admit that she was his girlfriend.

Besides, he had asked Fulton to do another thing: once Nova admitted that she was his girlfriend, Fulton would take the opportunity to drink with Nova and made her get drunk. After that, Fulton would take Nova and him to one room. In this way, Dyer would have an opportunity to sleep with Nova.

Dyer was not afraid that Nova would resent him for it. After all, he was "forced" to do so by Fulton. Nova should thank him for that and had no reason to blame him.

"Nova, why don't you speak? Tell Uncle Fulton that you're my girlfriend now. You just need to say a few words. If you admit it, Uncle Fulton will let you off."

Dyer said.

Nova bit her lower lip. She just noticed that there was a hint of playful expression on Dyer's face. Moreover, Fulton came here with the boy who went out before. In addition, it was obvious that that boy hit her intentionally.

Considering all that, she couldn't help becoming a little suspicious.

People around all urged her to admit that she was Dyer's girlfriend, which made her wonder if they were trying to fool her together.

Nova always stuck to her own principles. Sometimes, she wouldn't be willing to do something she hated, even if at the expense of suffering very serious consequences.

What's more, she now doubted that it was a trap deliberately set for her by Dyer.

After hesitating for a long time, Nova looked at Fulton and said, "I'm not his girlfriend, uncle. Although this piece of clothes is expensive, there are some ways to clean it. I'll take it to the laundry to clean it. If it's torn, I'll compensate you for it according to the cost."

Hearing that, people all became silent.

Dyer's face also became cold. He didn't expect that Nova would refuse to admit that she was his girlfriend under such a circumstance.

Could it be that Nova would be unwilling to pretend to be his girlfriend even if when she was in such a difficult position?

Did she really hate him so much?

Dyer remembered how Nova treated the guy kept by a woman and thus became even angrier. He couldn't help clenching his hands.

In Nova's opinion, he was not as good as a toy boy. He couldn't bear it at all. Fulton also didn't expect Nova to be so stubborn. Being threatened like that by him, she still refused to admit that she was Dyer's girlfriend. It was different from what he and Dyer had anticipated.

"Fuck, it seems that you have no idea who I am. Since you're not Dyer's girlfriend, I'm not going to show you any mercy. I never show mercy to strangers. If you're just Dyer's classmate, I won't listen to him and let you off. This piece of clothes is worth 188000 dollars. You can either give me money or come with me and sleep with me and my friends. Choose one." Fulton said.

"Uncle, your clothes can be cleaned. Didn't you ask for too much money..." Nova said with unease.

Fulton sneered and said, "I tell you that it can't be cleaned, so it can't be cleaned. Girl, aren't you too naive? Do you really believe that everyone will seriously reason with you?"

Hearing that, Nova didn't know what to say. She was really too naive, otherwise she wouldn't think that Fulton would reason with her.

"Nova, don't be stubborn. Admit that you are Dyer's girlfriend, and it will be over."

Elodie anxiously looked at Nova.

Nova compressed her lips and remained silent.

Dyer took a deep breath. He now finally realized one thing: no matter what tricks he used, he wouldn't be able to become Nova's boyfriend. In this case, there was no need for him to speak for Nova.

"Nova, it's the choice you made. My uncle is not tenderhearted. Don't regret it later."

Dyer spoke to Nova. Then he got up and left the cassette.

Seeing that, the rest of his classmates also stood up and left.

Finally, only Nova and Elodie were still at the cassette.

"Elodie, you're really too silly. Why are you unwilling to admit that you're Dyer's girlfriend? How can we afford to pay him 188000 dollars? Fulton works for Walker, and we can't afford to offend him." Elodie said. She was scared and believed that Nova shouldn't be so stubborn under such a circumstance, but she really took Nova as her best friend. Therefore, when other people left here after Dyer, she stayed here with Nova.

Nova sighed helplessly and thought of many things. But she didn't know how to explain it to Elodie.

"I'll give half an hour to you. If you can't pay 188000 to me in half an hour, you'll have to sleep with my friends!" Fulton shouted to them. Then he went drink.

"Now, we can only turn to our friends for help. Dyer shouldn't be like that. He directly washed his hands of the matter. It seems he's not a good person." Elodie angrily took out her cell phone and began make phone calls to her friends one by one.

Elodie known many so-called capable person. However, after she told them that it had something to do with Fulton, those people hung up the phone without hesitation.

"Damn it. They're all just fair-weather friends. When I asked them to come out to eat, they immediately agreed. Now, when I'm in trouble, they all hang up quickly!"

Nova had been trying to figure out a way to deal with this matter, too. Seeing that Elodie couldn't deal with it, she said, "What about making a phone call to Casey? Maybe he can help us."

Elodie immediately said with her eyes wide open, "Nova, we're in a critical condition. You want to ask that toy boy to help us! If he comes here, he'll only make things worse. Compared with asking him to help us, it will be better for us to ask our parents to give us the money."

"Elodie, you consider Casey to be a poor person, but he's not. He's really very powerful. He can even deal with the thugs around our home. Maybe he can deal with it for us. He happens to be here, right?" Nova said.

Elodie was speechless and said, "Nova, you're really fooled by that guy. He might have left a long time ago after he saw what was going on here. In my opinion, you had better not waste your time on it."

"Casey won't do that. If he knew that we were in trouble, he would definitely come to help us."

Nova stopped arguing with Elodie, directly took out her cell phone and made a phone call to Casey.

In the private box.

Casey was chatting with Walker.

"Mr. Davies, are you really not interested in the young lady of the Sue family? She is among the three most beautiful women in H City. Moreover, she is the young lady of the Sue family. I happen to have one photo of her. If you want to have a look at it, I'll show it to you now. I'm not able to ask her to come here, but I can introduce her to you."

Walker said with a smile.

Casey frowned and said, "I'm not interested in her. Don't mention something like that again in the future."

Now, he just wanted to find Edith. How was it possible that he would become interested in the young lady of the Sue family? However beautiful she was, it had nothing to do with him.

Seeing that Casey was going to lose his temper, Walker was so frightened that he hurriedly said, "Yes, yes, Mr. Davies. I shouldn't have mention it. In the future, I won't say anything I shouldn't say."

At this moment, Casey's mobile phone rang. He took it out and found that it was Nova that was making a phone call to him.

After Casey answered the phone, Nova told the whole story to Casey. Casey just made a few sounds. He asked Nova not to be tense and told her that he would handle it.

After hanging up the phone, Casey turned his head, looked at Walker and asked, "Is there a man named Fulton working for you?"

Walker was stunned. Then he nodded and spoke, "Yes, Mr. Davies. Why do you suddenly mention him?"

"He's making trouble for one of my friends. To put it simply, my friend spilled wine onto his clothes, and he asked my friend to give him 188000 dollars. Does he always wear clothes that are so expensive?" Casey said.

Walker immediately widened his eyes and said, "He was talking nonsense! The clothes that guy wears at ordinary times are worth less than 200 dollars. How dares he say that that piece of clothes is worth 188000 dollars?"

"If that's the case, please go there and handle this matter with me. They're in your bar. My friend is just a college student, and she shouldn't be bullied like that." Casey said tonelessly.

"Yes, yes, Mr. Davies, I'll go there with you now. Fulton, the son of a bitch, is becoming bolder and bolder. I'll teach him a lesson." Walker said angrily.

In the cassette, after hanging up the phone, Nova turned her head and spoke to Elodie, "Casey said that he would handle this matter for us and that we didn't need to worry about it."

Elodie immediately sneered and said, "In my opinion, he's just bragging. How can he deal with it for us? Fulton works for Walker. Could it be that he could ask Walker to come here?"

Right at this moment, Fulton came to them. He looked at them with a sneer and said, "What's your answer?"

Nova gave Fulton a glance and said, "My friend is coming. He'll handle it for me."

Hearing that, Elodie was immediately embarrassed and wanted to apologize to Fulton. After all, in her opinion, it was impossible that Casey could handle this matter. She thought that Casey could only make it worse.

However, before she spoke, she heard someone not far away shout angrily, "Fulton, you fucking come here! I don't pay you to blackmail Mr. Davies's friend!"

Chapter 533 It Has Nothing To Do With You

Fulton, who was staring at Nova coldly, heard the voice behind him. He was confused before he looked back. Then his eyes were wide open when he saw a man.

"Boss, why are you here?"

Walker looked very angry. Fulton felt worried when he saw his expression. He didn't expect Walker to appear at this time. It seemed that he came here for these two girls judging from his words. Fulton knew Walker very well. No one dared to provoke him in the whole H City.

Now, Walker was furious.

Thinking that Nova said that she had found a friend to solve this matter, Fulton felt nervous. The friend Nova said seemed to be his boss.

Walker walked to Fulton. He slapped him directly and scolded him, "Are you crazy? Why did you embarrass them?" Fulton covered his face with his hands. He was very obedient in front of Walker and he did not dare to retort.

"Boss, I..."

"Don't call me like that. You dared to provoke Mr. Davis' friends, I can't bear the responsibility of being your boss. From now on, I hope you know what you get yourself into!" Walker said and slapped him again.

Although Fulton didn't know who Mr. Davis, seeing Walker's expression, he knew that Mr. Davis was definitely a big shot, otherwise, Walker wouldn't be so angry.

At that time, he didn't know how to deal with Walker's anger. Then he knelt to Walker.

Nova and Elodie were both shocked when they saw this scene. They didn't expect that Fulton to be so obedient to the man who just appeared.

People around also noticed the situation here, stopped what they were doing, and looked over here.

The music and lights in the bar were turned off under the command of Walker's subordinates. At that time, Fulton became the "star" of the whole bar.

"What! Is it Fulton? Why did he kneel?"

"The man stands before him was one of the leaders of the underworld, Walker. Walker was his boss. It was not normal that he knelt to him."

"Oh my goodness, Walker comes here. What happened? It must be a big deal that he come here in person. Fulton is in big trouble now."

"It seems that it is because of the two girls sitting in the booth. Walker paid much attention to them. Their backgrounds must be complex."

...

Hearing what people around them said,

Nova and Elodie now knew the identity of the man who slapped Fulton. They felt very surprised.

“He came here in person. Nova, why did he suddenly come to help us?”

Nova was also confused. She only told Casey her own affairs, and he promised to help her. She thought that it was because of Casey that Walker came here.

“It could be Casey. He said he would help us.” Nova said.

“How is it possible? Walker is the leader of the underworld in H City. How could Casey ask him to come here?” Elodie denied.

However, as soon as she finished her words, Casey walked to Walker. He instantly turned around and bent over to apologize to Casey, “Mr. Davis, I’m sorry. I didn’t expect such a thing to happen in my domain. I will punish Fulton and make compensation for your friends.”

Casey nodded to him. Then he looked at Nova, smiled at her and motioned her not to worry.

Nova and Elodie were in a shock. The leader of the underworld in H City now fawned upon Casey. He was very obedient in front of him.

“It is Casey? Is it real?” Elodie couldn’t believe what she saw. She felt that the world was in a mess.

In her eyes, Casey was just a toy boy, who lived on women. She always despised this kind of person like him. Besides, because of the conflicts between Casey and her, she had always looked down upon him. But now

Walker was so respectful to him, which was beyond her imagination.

Was he not the kind of person that she thought before?

Nova was excited. She knew Casey was powerful since he promised to help her, he would make it.

But she didn't expect that Casey was so powerful that even the leader of the underworld in H City was obedient in front of him. She couldn't think of Casey's identity.

Perhaps the pretty lady, who went to the airport to pick Casey that day, was to report her jobs to him. Anyway, Nova would not believe that Casey was just a toy boy.

After apologizing to Casey, Walker grabbed one of Fulton's ears and dragged him to kneel in front of Nova, and said, "Be honest! Just tell me how much your clothes cost, whether it needed to be paid, and how to compensate for the spiritual damage that you caused to them!"

Fulton knew that Walker had given him a chance. If he apologized and compensate the two girls now, he would be saved.

He glanced at Nova guiltily and said, "My clothes were very cheap. It just cost about 30 dollars. It was Dyer who colluded with me to force you to admit that you are his girlfriend. And he let me get you drunk, so he could sleep with you. It was all arranged by Dyer. I was wicked for a while, so I promised to help him."

At this time, he didn't dare to hide anything. Even if Dyer was his nephew, he wouldn't risk his life to hide it for him, so he could only confess it.

Hearing what he said, Nova and Elodie were surprised. It was arranged by Dyer. At first, Nova just suspected him, but now Fulton told her the truth.

Elodie was angry. She had thought Dyer protected Nova. However, he was the man behind the conspiracy. Although Elodie was sometimes unreasonable, she still had humanity. She felt disgusted at Dyer.

"I didn't expect that Dyer would do this. I was wrong. He is really disgusting," Elodie muttered.

"I have realized my mistake now. I apologize to you. I hope you could forgive me. I will give you 30,000 dollars to compensate for your spiritual damage. Please accept the money. I will never make such a mistake," Fulton said.

After Nova heard Fulton's words, she said, "No, it's good that you have realized your mistake. But we don't want the money."

"Miss, please accept it. Otherwise, I will be tormented with remorse. If you don't accept the money, it means you won't forgive me. My boss won't let me off. Please, I beg you. I'll get the money later." Fulton almost cried.

Nova hesitated and looked at Casey when she heard his words.

Casey nodded to her and motioned her to accept it.

Then Nova said to Fulton, "Well... I'll accept it."

Nova agreed to accept the money and Fulton felt relieved. He turned to look at Walker.

Walker sneered, then looked at Casey, and said respectfully, "Mr. Davis, are you satisfied with his apology? If not, I will fix him."

"Well, it's enough. He has realized his mistake," Casey said.

Walker nodded, kicked Fulton, and scolded, "Say thank you to Mr. Davis for his generosity."

Fulton immediately knelt to Casey. He said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Davis. You are so generous. I will never make such a mistake."

Casey nodded. Then Walker asked Fulton to fetch the money.

Fulton put the cash of 30,000 dollars into a bag and handed it to Nova.

Seeing the matter was settled, Walker asked him to leave.

Nova held the bag and looked at Casey uneasily. She said, "Casey, the money..."

Just take it. It's the compensation for you," Casey said.

Feeling excited, Elodie looked at Casey and said, "I didn't expect you to know Walker. He was a big shot. I had looked down upon you."

"Nova, now we have the money. With the money, we can go to buy many beautiful clothes." She turned to Nova and said happily.

Casey glanced at her and said, "The money is the compensation for Nova, and it has nothing to do with you. "

Elodie froze and felt upset and embarrassed.

She turned to look at Casey, who was always against her.

“Well, I didn’t say I wanted to use the money. Don’t look at me like this. You just settled a little trouble. What was the big deal?” Elodie said unhappily.

Nova pulled Elodie’s clothes and then thanked Casey.

Casey told Nova to go back home early. It was not safe for girls to stay in the bar. Then he went back to the private room with Walker.

After he left, Elodie shouted angrily, “Damn it! Nova, he must have ulterior motives to you. Otherwise, why did he only treat you kindly? He is fake!”

Nova looked at Elodie and said sincerely, “Elodie, I think you should control your temper. It’s probably because you treat him badly that he doesn’t show a good attitude towards you.”

Chapter 534 Please Bring Some People To Help Me

In the alley outside the bar, Dyer was waiting here with his male classmates. From their point of view, the situation at the entrance of the bar could be seen clearly.

“Dyer, is that toy boy still in the bar? We have waited here for so long. But he hasn’t come out. I’m afraid that he has left from the back door,” a boy said.

Dyer sneered and said, “He was just an ordinary person. He couldn’t walk through the back door of Dream Paradise. If he wants to come out, he will only walk through the main door. Just wait. As long as he comes out, we will catch him. I must teach him a lesson.”

“Dyer, look, Nova and Elodie just came out,” another boy shouted.

All of them turned to look at the entrance of the bar and found that Nova and Elodie did come out.

Elodie looked angry, while Nova was holding a black bag in her hand and was consoling her.

Although they thought that Elodie should be consoling Nova, it seemed that the two of them were unhappy. They thought that the two girls must have been embarrassed by Fulton.

A boy asked, “They looked not bad. Dyer, did your uncle let them go directly?”

Dyer sneer and said, “My uncle is Walker’s subordinate. You should know what he will do. Nova didn’t want to be my girlfriend, my uncle wouldn’t let her go. They must have promised him something, so they can leave. Don’t you see that Nova is holding a black bag? The thing inside the bag may be the punishment.”

People around heard what Dyer said then nodded in agreement. In their eyes, Nova and Elodie had no choice but obey Fulton’s order.

“Forget it. I must see the toy boy. If I don’t beat him, I won’t be in a good mood. I will beat him up.” Dyer’s eyes were fierce.

In the private room of the bar, Walker apologized to Casey for Fulton. To show his apology, he drank three glasses of wine and begged Casey to forgive him. Casey said that he didn’t mind it and let Walker not take it too much.

Walker got drunk soon because of the three glasses of wine and fell asleep on the sofa.

Seeing Walker had fallen asleep, Casey got up and started to leave here. When he went out, Walker said dazedly, "The young lady named Sylvie Sue in the Sue family is perfect for you. I have her photo on my phone. Mr. Davis, you can take a look."

He took out his phone and began to look through photos.

Casey shook his head helplessly, told the waiter to take care of Walker then left here.

Walker found out the photo of Sylvie and shook the photo. Then his phone fell to the ground.

In the photo, Sylvie was attending the dinner. She looked graceful and gentle. But Casey had left, otherwise, he could see the face of Sylvie.

Outside the bar, Dyer was still staring at the entrance of the bar. He was a little impatient after he had waited for Casey for such a long time.

He scolded Casey in his heart. He thought that Casey might know that he would not let him off, so he intended to stay in the bar for one night.

At this time, Casey came out of the bar, and Dyer's eyes lit up. Then he said to the boys around him, "He came out. You guys stop him and take him to the alley. It's time for us to beat him." They were excited and followed Dyer to walk to Casey.

Casey was intended to take a taxi to go back. At that time, Dyer and his classmates surrounded him maliciously. "I didn't expect you to stay in the bar for so long. It's that you know I am waiting for you here, so you hide in it?" Dyer sneered at Casey and said.

"What do you want to do?" Casey asked calmly.

"I want to teach you a lesson. Do you think I am a coward? I tell you, if I don't beat you up today, I won't be a man!"

Dyer said maliciously.

Casey curled his lips and looked at these so-called "college students" in front of him. He didn't want to beat them. After all, they were still students. It was natural for them to be impulsive. However, Dyer was making trouble for him. The words he just said should not be uttered by a student. Casey felt a little impatient.

"Do you need to be hit in the street or in the valley?" Dyer stared at Casey and asked.

Casey turned to look at the alley next to him. He silently walked into the alley. Since the school couldn't teach these students to behave well, he would teach them something that they didn't learn in school.

Dyer and other boys saw Casey obediently walked into the alley. They immediately burst into laughter. They thought that Casey feared them.

"Coward! You chose to walk into the alley. It seems that you are afraid of losing face. You know that being hit by us in the street will be embarrassing. Haha, why don't you feel ashamed to be a toy boy?" Dyer jibed.

After that, they followed Casey into the alley. They were eager to beat Casey. Casey stopped when he arrived in the middle of the alley. Dyer and his classmates surrounded him and stared at him ruthlessly.

“If you kowtow to us, beg and please us, maybe I will let you go. I will give you a chance. How is it? Do you want to kneel now?” Dyer snorted and said.

“Just come. I don’t have much time.”

Casey said tonelessly.

Dyer’s eyes changed and scolded, “You asked for it, don’t blame us. Guys, it’s the time!”

Then Dyer first rushed towards Casey.

Although he felt his strength before, he didn’t think Casey could defeat so many people.

His classmates were all excited and felt that they must win by sheer weight of numbers.

However, the world was full of wonders.

Five minutes later.

They cried in the alley.

Casey tidied up his clothes and looked down at Dyer, who fell in front of him and was badly battered around the face, and asked, “Do you still want to fight?”

Dyer looked at Casey in terror, as if he were looking at a devil coming out of hell. He had unbelievable fighting skills.

Dyer went to the gym every day but had never seen such a formidable person.

It was no wonder Nova said that they couldn’t defeat Casey. She was serious.

“You... You don’t be smug. Do you dare to let me call my uncle here? You just defeated some students. If you can defeat my uncle, I will never trouble you.” Dyer screwed up his courage to speak.

“I’m afraid that your uncle dares not come here,” Casey said.

“Don’t talk nonsense. My uncle is Walker’s man. Do you know Walker? He is the leader underworld in H City. No one dares to provoke him. My uncle is in the bar. If you have the guts, let me call him.” Dyer felt confident when he talked about his uncle.

Casey shook his head helplessly. He thought that since he refused to come to his senses, it was better to let him call Fulton to solve this problem completely. “Go ahead,” Casey said.

Dyer was surprised then sneered. He thought Casey was such a fool to let him call his uncle., It seemed that he didn’t know his uncle.”

Without hesitation, he took out his phone and dialed Fulton’s number.

“Uncle, I am in the alley opposite the bar. Please come. I was beaten up by a man. Before you come, please bring some people to help me, He is good at fighting,” Dyer said.

There was silence for a few seconds.

Fulton suppressed his anger and said, “OK, just wait, I will come with several people.”

Fulton was thinking of going to teach Dyer. He promised to come to the valley, not to help Dyer, but to beat him harder.

Chapter 535 Don’t Be Overconfident

Dyer hung up the phone and sneered at Casey. Because of Fulton, he didn’t fear Casey so much. As long as Fulton come here with people, they must defeat him.

“My uncle will come with people soon. If you have the guts, stay here. When my uncle comes, he will teach you a lesson for me,” Dyer said.

Casey smiled and said, "Don't be overconfident. Perhaps your uncle will come and beat you."

"You're daydreaming. How could my uncle beat me? I am his nephew, He couldn't help you!" Dyer said in disdain.

Casey didn't mind his words. When people faced a man who had absolute predominance in power, their so-called kinship would be vulnerable. Besides, Dyer was just the nephew of Fulton. Because the alley was close to Dream Paradise, Fulton came to the alley with some people in five minutes after receiving a phone call from Dyer.

He looked angry. When thinking that he had lost 3,0000 dollars because of Dyer, he got more furious. He couldn't figure out the reason why Dyer was so idle that he provoked Casey.

After all, Dyer was his nephew. Even if he wanted to teach Dyer a lesson, he had to help Dyer solve the problem first. When it was solved, he would teach him.

He walked into the alley with several people and saw only one person standing with his back to him. Dyer and his classmates all lied on the ground. He felt surprised.

When Dyer saw Fulton, he became excited. He instantly waved to Fulton and shouted, "Uncle, help. It was him who hit me. Beat him please!"

Fulton snorted and walked behind Casey. He stared at Dyer. He was intended to let Casey apologize to Dyer, and then get out of here. Then he would teach Dyer a lesson.

"You..."

When he began to speak, Casey turned around and looked at Fulton.

As soon as he saw Casey's face, he felt scared. What a coincidence! It was Mr. Davis who just hit Dyer.

His instinct made him change his attitude. Then he said, "Little bastard, how could you make trouble for Mr. Davis after irritating Mr. Davis' friends? Don't call me Uncle. I have nothing to do with you!"

Then Fulton hurriedly bypassed Casey and directly kicked in Dyer's face.

The two front teeth in Dyer's mouth were kicked off by him. He didn't expect that Fulton would kick him. He thought Fulton would beat Casey.

"What are you doing? Just come and beat him!" Fulton shouted at his men. His men all felt strange but followed the order of their boss. They began to beat up Dyer.

Dyer was aggrieved. He didn't know why his uncle suddenly beat him with his men. He wanted to ask, but Fulton didn't give him any chance. He got severely beaten up before he could say anything.

He had been hit for ten minutes. The Fulton stopped his men. After that, he walked to Casey guiltily, bowed to him, and apologized, "Mr. Davis, I didn't expect this bastard would make trouble for you. Are you fine now? If he hurts you, I won't let him off."

Casey shook his head and said, "Since you have taught him, I won't do anything. Just tell him to behave himself in the future."

Hearing what Casey said, Fulton breathed a sigh of relief and nodded and said, "Yes. I will educate him. I won't allow him to do so in the future."

At that time, Dyer, who was beaten to death, raised his head. He was already covered with blood and could not see the original appearance.

"Uncle, why did you hit me? Shouldn't you help me beat him?" Dyer asked weakly.

Fulton kicked Dyer again and scolded, "Do you know who he is? Mr. Davis is respected by my boss. How dare you ask me to beat him? Do you think I am as foolish as you?"

When Dyer heard Fulton's words, he was startled. He was respected by his uncle's boss.

He knew what his uncle meant.

Fulton's boss was Walker, and Casey was respected by Walker. It was no wonder that Fulton was so scared when he saw Casey.

It seemed that he had provoked a big shot this time. However, it was useless to regret it. He had been beaten up by Fulton.

The reason why Casey waited for Fulton to come here was to let Fulton help him warn Dyer to stop making troubles for him in the future. Now his goal had been achieved, it was no need to stay here. He went out of the alley directly without telling Fulton.

When Casey walked out of the alley, Fulton breathed a sigh of relief. Then he looked at Dyer on the ground and said, "Go back and tell your father that I won't keep in contact with your family in the future. Don't come to find me for anything."

...

In the apartment, Nova was sitting on the sofa. When she thought of Casey who helped them today, she couldn't help but smiled. Elodie sat unhappily beside Nova and frowned. She was still upset because of Casey's attitude towards her.

For ages, Elodie's eyes lit up. She stood up and said, "I got it!"

Nova turned to look at Elodie. She felt a little puzzled.

"Casey could know Walker. It was certainly because of the lady who kept him. It wasn't expected that the lady to be so powerful. Even Walker had to respect Casey. How could he know that lady?" Elodie said.

Nova was speechless. Elodie had come up with various reasons to prove that Casey was not so powerful.

Elodie sat back into the seat and said, "Nova, don't think that I said so because I dislike him. Didn't he say he was a visiting professor in our university? I have been observing him for several days. There isn't any book about history in his room. Besides, when he is in school, he will sit near the square every time. If he is really a visiting professor, how can he be so idle?"

"It's very simple to prove whether he is lying. Let's attend the open class next Monday."

"Hum, I will record the class of the professor's lecture. Then I will question this liar face to face!"

Chapter 537 Anything Wrong for Me to Give a Lecture?

"Casey! What are you doing? Come down here. The professor will be here in a minute. Don't come here and cause trouble just because you are angry for the moment?"

Elodie looked at the Casey standing on the platform and her first reaction was that this guy was coming to make trouble.

Everyone in the classroom paid their attention to Casey because of Elodie's shout. They were all staring at him curiously, not knowing what was going on.

"Girl, I 'm the teacher today, anything wrong with it?" Casey glanced at Elodie and said.

His words caused uproar in the classroom and the students all looked at Casey disbelievingly. Casey was only several years older than them, and how could the school invite such a young man to be the visiting professor.

However, Andrews and several other teachers were quite calm. They all met Casey in advance and knew that this young man was really the visiting professor invited by the dean.

"Oh, my God, is this the visiting professor invited by the dean? He is too young. Are you sure he's not joking on the platform on purpose?"

"Is it true that he spent money to gild himself? But isn't this professor invited by the dean in person? Hasn't our dean always looked down on such kind of thing?"

"Damn, it is estimated that this man has only graduated for a few years. Judging from his age, I deem that he is younger than Mr. Andrews. Mr. Andrews has been promoted at an amazing speed, and he has not been able to reach the level of professor. This is ridiculous."

.....

"Casey, would you please have some sense of shame? You think all of us here are fools or something? How old are you? How could you be a visiting professor in our school?" Elodie looked worried and felt that the joke of Casey had gone too far.

"Girl, please sit down now. Class is going to begin. Don't disturb the class order." Casey said to Elodie again.

Elodie got angry and thought that Casey was addicted to playing and she planned to tell the true face of Casey directly so that he would be embarrassed in front of all.

Just then, Annie walked into the classroom, and she frowned at Elodie and said, "What are you waiting for? Professor Davies asked you to sit down. Do you still want to make trouble?"

When Elodie saw Annie coming in, she opened her eyes wide immediately and murmured, "Annie, he ..."

"Stop talking and sit down quickly. Don't interfere with Professor Davies's class."

Annie said to Elodie.

Elodie only felt as if there was a crash of thunder coming to her ear, and she became frozen immediately. She sat down in her seat subconsciously, staring blankly at Casey on the platform and thinking about the word "Professor Davies" that Annie had said.

Seeing that there were still many people in the classroom doubting the identity of Casey, Annie cleared her throat and said, "Dear teachers and students, this is Mr. Davies, it is our great honor to have him here as the visiting professor of our school. Mr. Davies will give you a lecture today. I hope everyone can listen to Mr. Davies 's lecture with great enthusiasm and earnest attitudes."

After that, Annie sat down in a vacant seat in the first row hurriedly.

"He...it turns out that he is really a visiting professor invited by the school. How is it possible that he is only in his twenties and ...is it possible that I really misunderstood him? "

Elodie felt as if she had done something wrong, and her preconceived ideas made her have too many misunderstandings of Casey.

After confirming that Casey was the visiting professor invited by the dean, the students were even more surprised. They did not expect that this man, who seemed to be only a few years older than them, was really a visiting professor invited by the school.

When Andrews saw the reaction of the students, the sneer on his face was even more evident. It seemed that everyone's cognition was the same.

Man, of this age, was not qualified to be a visiting professor.

If there was no actual content in Casey's lecture, he would certainly complain to the dean and ask the dean to remove the title of Casey as a visiting professor. Soon, the class bell rang and everyone was quiet, waiting for Casey to start the lecture.

Casey paused, and then looked up, smiling at everyone, and said, "Hello, everyone. My name is Casey, I'm honored to have the opportunity to give a lecture to you."

He made a simple self-introduction first, and then began to teach the content of this class in a funny and humorous way as he prepared in mind.

In Casey's view, no matter it was a lecture or a speech, the main purpose was to make the listeners listen, so there were a lot of skills. As long as you mastered these skills, you could easily make the listeners pay attention to what you were saying.

There were not students who could not be taught well, but only teachers who couldn't teach well.

As the master of the Davies family, Casey had long been familiar with these skills. If it had not been for the ability to make people listen to him, the master of the Davies family would have been replaced.

In his first class, he mainly talked about the overview of historical relics.

According to the time-line, he roughly talked about the main role of historical relics in the long river of history. With a sense of humor, he made everyone sitting in the classroom laugh from time to time.

He perfectly combined his understanding of cultural relics and antiques with the content of his lecture, in which he also introduced many interesting cultural relics that were not mentioned in textbooks, as well as the stories behind those cultural relics.

Not only the students were attracted by what Casey said, but also several teachers present stared at Casey intently, and did not want to miss a word Casey said.

Although the teachers sitting here were all from the School of History, they all thought that they had a deep understanding of history, and they came here to see Casey's jokes, but now after listening to Casey's lecture, they suddenly realized that their understanding of history and cultural relics was staying on the surface, and that they had never heard about the cultural relics and stories told by Casey. Everyone was shocked by what Casey said.

Andrews looked blankly at Casey teaching naturally and chicly on the platform, and he felt the same as the other teachers. He had never heard such a vivid lecture on history. In his opinion, even if the dean came to teach, he could not teach as perfectly as Casey.

He had prepared several tricky questions and planned to ask Casey to embarrass him. In his opinion, these questions were of high levels. If Casey, as a visiting professor, was not competent, then he would definitely not be able to answer them.

However, after listening to Casey's lecture, he looked back on the questions he had prepared, they were just like the questions of primary school students. This feeling made Andrews a little ashamed. He thought it was ridiculous for Casey, a young man in his twenties to be a visiting professor, and mocked Casey for many times.

Now it seems that he himself was the most ridiculous one.

Chapter 538 Figure

A lesson in university normally lasted for nearly two hours, with a ten-minute break in between.

Casey was here for the first time, and he forgot to have a rest in the middle, so he didn't stop talking until the bell rang.

And none of the listeners interrupted Casey's lecture because they wanted to go to the bathroom. They all listened so attentively that they completely forgot the time. Those who wanted to go to the bathroom also took the initiative to hold back. Just like watching a wonderful movie, they had to watch it even if they wanted to pee.

Casey's speech was so interesting that everyone was so immersed in the atmosphere of his lecture that they didn't feel it at all. It had been nearly two hours before they knew it.

When the bell rang, everyone was yearning for more, and many people wanted Casey to give another lecture. A situation like this, in which students did not want the teacher to stop at the end of class was quite rare in university.

At this time, Elodie and Nova were both staring at Casey. Although they were both impressed by Casey's lecture, they were in a very different state of mind at this time.

At this time, Nova's worship toward Casey was inexpressible. She did not expect that Casey was not only powerful and well-connected, but also could teach so charmingly. Just from the content of the first lecture given by him, she could see that the knowledge stored in Casey's mind had reached an astonishing amount.

Such a gentleman with strength, knowledge, kindness and personality was simply the perfect choice for boyfriend in the eyes of Nova, a girl in adolescence.

On the base of the fact that Casey was now sharing a rent with them, she even began to imagine some of the plots that often appeared in TV dramas.

Here was another one who was just like her, Annie, and Annie's fantasy about Casey was even more serious. A thrilling teacher-student love relationship had formed in her mind, and she even had the impulse to pick up a pen and write a novel.

Elodie was filled with regret at this time. She knew that she had really misunderstood Casey. Casey had proved to her with real knowledge that he was really qualified to be a visiting professor. If he could not be a visiting professor, no one else would be qualified.

And Casey had so much talent, how could he be a sugar baby? If he wrote down something that he knew, it would become a bestseller very soon.

Now Elodie was even a little suspicious that the beauty came to pursue him on that day because she was attracted by his talent and charm.

She now regretted that she had made such a big mistake, and now she did not know what to do if she wanted to get Casey's forgiveness.

The teachers sitting in the classroom who were also able to teach all stared at Casey with admiration. They all thought that they could not achieve the level of Casey. The temperament of Casey standing on the platform was as if he was born to be a professor. No matter what he said, it gave people the feeling that it was easy and interesting to listen to.

No wonder the dean made an exception to invite a visiting professor to the school. Casey was really qualified for the invitation. If they were the dean, they would certainly not let go of such a talent.

One of the teachers stared at Casey for a long time, then raised his hand and applauded Casey.

When the people around him saw this, they immediately began to applaud together, and for a moment the whole classroom was filled with applause.

Andrews sat in his seat with his face turning grey. At this moment, he understood why Annie was so close to the visiting professor. It turned out that he was really attractive and charming. And he knew that if he wanted to reach the level of Casey, it would not be enough to give him 20 years more, and Casey was only in his twenties. No girl did not like a man like this.

He felt a deep sense of frustration. Just listening to Casey's lecture, he understood the gap between himself and Casey. His feeling was despair that could not arouse his fighting spirit.

When Andrews was in a trance, Casey's voice sounded in his ear: "Mr. Andrews, I heard that you had a big disagreement with me before. I wonder if you still bear the same opinion on me after listening to my lecture."

Everyone looked at Andrews, and many of them knew that Andrews was not optimistic about Casey and said a lot of bad things about him. Now they all had a lot of disdain for Andrews because of Casey's lecture.

Andrews only felt that his body trembled for a moment, then he raised his head to look at Casey, and stood up from his seat with a pale face.

"Professor Davies, I was narrow-minded and self-righteous before. I said a lot of things that tarnished your reputation. This was all because my level was too low and my vision was too short. Now I apologize to you in front of everyone. I hope you can forgive me for my mistakes before. I will never make such a mistake again." Andrews apologized sincerely.

When he saw Andrews apologizing, Casey didn't plan to argue with him anymore. After all, he was also a teacher in the school. If he was humiliated in front of so many students, it would be difficult for him to stay in the school in the future.

"That's all right, Mr. Andrews. Don't judge people by their appearance in the future." Casey said.

Andrews nodded his head and said, "I've learnt the lesson."

The students praised Casey's bearing, and many girls even showed amorous eyes, full of admiration for the visiting professor, who was only in his twenties. "That's all for today's lesson. Thank you for coming to my class. See you next week."

Casey said a few words, and then he was about to step down from the platform.

A group of students surrounded Casey immediately, looking excitedly at Casey, asking Casey for WeChat number, for an autograph, and even asking Casey where he lived.

Casey looked at the "enthusiastic" students, and felt a bit confused, he had never had the experience of dealing with students.

Fortunately, Annie came to his rescue in time, so he was not directly submerged by these enthusiastic students.

As he walked out of the classroom, Elodie walked up to Casey with a look of shame on her face. She looked at Casey a bit awkwardly and said, "Casey, I... I misjudged you before. I don't know if you could forgive me. " As Elodie apologized to Casey, Casey caught a glimpse of a passing figure in the hallway outside.

Without saying a word, he pushed Elodie away and rushed out quickly. The figure that just walked past the door of the classroom was Edith that Casey had thought about day and night for countless times!

Casey could be sure that he was not dizzy, and that person was really Edith, so he did not hesitate to push Elodie away and rushed out.

After looking for her for so long, could he finally find her?

Chapter 539 Finally Found You
Being pushed by Casey, Elodie was staggering, and almost fell to the ground.

She looked at Casey quickly running out with an embarrassed face. Suddenly, she had endless grievances.

Even if he didn't want to forgive her, he didn't have to push her away, right?

Besides, Casey was even running so fast. Did he hate her so much?

'Hmph, even though he is good at teaching, so what? He is just so stingy.

He is actually so narrow-minded. I originally wanted to apologize to him sincerely. Now it seems that I'm so stupid.'

Elodie was aggrieved. But then she was very angry and felt so upset.

...

In the corridor, after Casey rushed out, he quickly looked in the direction Edith had just walked past. The familiar figure made him tremble slightly.

It turned out that Edith was really here, and she was fine. Casey's nerves that had been strained for so long were finally relaxed.

He paused on the spot for several seconds, then took a deep breath and shouted at the figure in front, "Edith!" His face was full of expectation. He was waiting for Edith to stop and turn around to look at him. He believed that the moment Edith turned, he would rush to her and hugged her into arms. He had been thinking about her days and nights.

However, the scene he was expecting did not appear. The figure walking in front only paused for a while, and then continued to walk towards the front. Casey's original excitement suddenly cooled down. He did not expect that after Edith heard his shouts, she only paused for a while, and then kept walking as if nothing happened. He and Edith had been together for such a long time. They had already understood everything about each other quite thoroughly. Casey could conclude that that woman was Edith based on only her back. Edith could definitely know the person who was calling her just now.

Every detail of the figure walking in front proved to Casey that it was his wife who he had been missing for a long time, and it was absolutely impossible to make a mistake. Casey did not believe that the person in front just looked like Edith. Two people might be similar in appearance, or even exactly the same, but the temperament and habits that had been cultivated over time could never be exactly the same.

However, it was the person who was identified by Casey as Edith had no response at all after she heard Casey's shouts, as if she felt that it was not calling her.

How was this going?

Casey suddenly had a lot of doubts. He didn't understand what went wrong. Logically, Edith would definitely rush to him as soon as she met him. What made him most puzzled was that Edith was safe and sound in H City, but she had not contacted him.

Casey knew that Edith could not have disappeared for no reason, and that during the period of her disappearance, something must have happened, so that Edith never contacted him actively. As for what happened, he was afraid that it was only Edith who could explain it.

Many possibilities popped into Casey's mind. But no matter what the reason was, Edith completely ignored him, which made Casey feel a little lost. Casey didn't hesitate anymore. He hurried to catch up with Edith and stopped in front of her.

"Edith, why are you ignoring me? I have been looking for you for a long time. I thought that something happened to you. It's okay as long as you are fine, but I don't know what you have encountered. Can you tell me about your experience during this time?"

Casey said in a panic.

At this time, a girl who was walking with Edith stood in front of Edith, staring at Casey with a vigilant face, and said coldly, "Who are you? What do you want to do? Get out of our way. Don't harass our lady!"

It was also at this time that Casey noticed that there was a girl next to Edith. When Casey heard this girl's words, he couldn't help but frowned, "Your lady? She is my wife. How come she is your lady?"

When the girl heard Casey's words, a trace of disgust appeared on her face. She stretched out her hand and pushed Casey away, shouting, "How can you be so shameless? You dare to be so disrespectful to our lady? You said our lady is your wife? How dare you!"

Casey suddenly became a little anxious. He didn't understand what was going on. He glanced at Edith behind the girl and found that Edith was looking at him blankly at this time. She was frowning, as if trying to think something.

Moreover, what made Casey a little uncomfortable was that there was strangeness in Edith's eyes when Edith looked at him. Although Casey was sure that the woman in front of him was his wife, there seemed to be some changes that Casey hadn't expected.

"Edith, what's wrong with you? Why are you looking at me with such eyes? I am Casey. Don't you know me?" Casey stared at Edith and asked.

"Why are you so shameless? Don't call our lady with such a disgusting name. Our lady doesn't know you! Get out of here quickly, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude." The girl who stood in front of Edith shouted at Casey again. Edith didn't come back to her senses until this time. She stretched out her hand and tugged at the girl's clothes, and said softly, "Emma, don't say that! He might be mistaking me for someone else."

The moment Edith saw Casey just now, there was a tingling in her mind. She felt it seemed that some memories deep in her mind were about to break free because of the man who appeared in front of her suddenly.

But she stood there and tried to think for a long time. No memories appeared in her mind. She just had some familiar feelings for the man in front of her, and the rest was blank.

Since she woke up, there had been such situations many times. After seeing something, her brain would have such a reaction. This time, the reaction was the strongest.

Because of past experience, Edith thought that the man in front of her might just resemble someone she knew in the past, so such a situation happened again. She really couldn't remember who this man was. After she woke up, many people in the Sue family instilled a lot of "memory of her past" into her. In her cognition, she had never married someone before, so she thought that Casey had also mistaken her for someone else.

Hearing Edith's words, Emma immediately retorted, "Miss, you are too gentle. We have met so many people like him. Mistaken? He clearly wants to take advantage of you."

Emma was Edith's maid. Although Edith was the young lady in the Sue family, in many cases, this maid behaved much tougher than Edith. Emma would make her own decisions regardless of Edith's opinions.

"Edith, you...you really don't know me?" Casey looked at Edith who looked like that she didn't know him. Casey's voice trembled a little.

"What kind of shit Edith! This is the young lady in the Sue family, Sylvie. Don't play dumb with me. Get out of our way, or I'll call the bodyguards in the Sue family over now. Then you will know what will happen next!" Emma yelled at Casey again viciously.

Hearing Emma's words, Casey's body suddenly stiffened. Looking at Edith incredulously, Casey was so shocked. The young lady in the Sue family, Sylvie!

How can that be! Why did Edith become the young lady in the Sue family? Thinking of that Walker wanted to introduce Miss Sue to him that day, Casey felt ridiculous.

How did his wife become the young lady in the Sue family? She was the president in the company of Patel family.

"There must be some misunderstanding. She is my wife, Edith. I have been looking for her for a long time. I'm not wrong. Edith, you come back with me. I want to know what happened to you during this time." Casey looked at Edith anxiously, and directly stretched out his hand to grab Edith.

Upon seeing this, Emma hurriedly took Edith back a few steps and shouted to the people around her, "Help, this shameless bastard is spreading rumors here, saying that our young lady is his wife! How ridiculous! Look at yourself, what right do you have to say such words? I heard that many traffickers will use this trick before abducting people. Maybe this guy is a trafficker! Come on and get this guy!"

Emma shouted. The people around her immediately gathered around here. Everyone was staring at Casey with contempt and talking.

"Isn't that the young lady in the Sue family? Someone dares to say that the young lady in the Sue family is his wife?"

So funny!"

"Holly shit! How dare he! He dares to use this trick to take advantage of the Sue family. He doesn't know what kind of position the Sue family is in H City? Those who dared to do those things will probably die miserably in the end."

"Damn it. It's really shameless. He dares to say that. If Miss Sue really got married, it would definitely be big news. How it possible that she married such an ordinary person?"

At this time, the people who had just been attending the class also came out. When they heard the people around them say what happened here, their eyes widened.

They didn't expect that this good guest professor would say that Miss Sue was his wife in the public, which was quite inconsistent with the temperament that Casey was teaching in class just now. Those who didn't know Casey's identity purely thought that he was a lunatic. Nova also looked at Casey with a puzzled face. She couldn't figure out why Casey did such a thing to ruin his own reputation.

Elodie looked at Casey with contemptuous. She had no guilt right now.

"Miss, let's go. This guy is simply unreasonable. I will tell Mr. Sue about it and let Mr. Sue teach him a lesson."

Emma turned her head and said to Edith, then dragged Edith to the other side.

"But..." Edith instinctively gave birth to a trace of resistance. She felt that this person might be the key to her retrieving her own memory.

"Miss, let's go quickly." Emma didn't give Edith a chance.

Casey wanted to rush to keep Edith. At this time, the people around immediately surrounded Casey and stopped Casey.

"You think you can do anything you want at will in our school?" Many boys were filled with indignation.

Casey stopped. His eyes met Edith's, who turned to look over here. He could only see the strangeness and helplessness in Edith's eyes.

Chapter 540 Just Give Orders to Me
In the apartment.

Casey sat on the side of the bed and maintained this position for an afternoon.

In his mind, he kept thinking about all the things he met Edith at Fudan University today, as well as the strange looks in Edith's eyes.

Emma took Edith away at the time.

Casey did not continue to catch up. He had already judged from the look in Edith's eyes that she did not know him now.

He also learned from that Edith had a new identity and a new name. She was Sylvie, the young lady in the Sue family. For various reasons, Casey had not taken Edith away by force. After all, he had already had Edith's whereabouts. It was not difficult to find her again. The most urgent task was to find out what Edith had gone through.

One thing that could be guessed was that Edith might have amnesia after the car accident, which caused that she forgot him.

Furthermore, Casey guessed that the Sue family was probably the real belonging of Edith. The clues Nicolas gave Casey was H City. After Casey came here, he really met Edith. But Edith became the young lady in the Sue family. So Casey got such a conclusion. Casey didn't care about Edith's identity. Whether she belonged to Patel family or the Sue family, for Casey, as long as Edith was still in love with him, everything didn't matter.

Casey already had this idea when he knew that Edith was not the biological daughter of Nicolas and Amara.

However, what made Casey at a loss now was that Edith was likely amnesia. He did not know how much memory Edith lost. If it was a short-term amnesia, Casey could accept it. If it was permanent, there was no difference between this and death.

Casey felt that he might not be able to accept this result, so he had been sitting by the bed for so long.

His phone buzzed, pulling Casey's thoughts back.

He picked up the phone and saw it was Nadia's call.

"Young Master, we have found the whereabouts of the person you are looking for, because we haven't thought about it before, which led us to overlook some possibilities. Today, when I was comparing the photos, I found that the person you were looking for is very consistent with the young lady in the Sue family, Sylvie. Young Master, do you want to come to my company so that I can tell you something about the young lady in the Sue family." Nadia's voice became sweet.

"Got it." Casey simply replied, and then hung up the phone.

He took a deep breath. His purpose in coming to H City was to find Edith. Now that he found Edith, but he was not happy at all.

After thinking about it for a long time, Casey got up and planned to see Nadia. Although he already knew that Miss Sue was Edith, he didn't know much about the Sue family. He had to learn it from Nadia.

He went downstairs and found that Nova and Elodie were both sitting in the living room. Seeing that Casey came out, Nova immediately stood up and asked Casey with concern, "Casey, are you okay? Today at school..."

"I'm fine." Casey replied, and then walked towards the door.

Nova wanted to ask Casey what he was going to do, but thinking about what happened at school today, she didn't say anything again.

After Casey left, Elodie said with a disdainful face, "Nova, don't have any thoughts about this kind of people. He is the guest professor. He thinks himself high and lofty. His goal is Miss Sue. You didn't see the way he looked at Miss Sue at school today?"

Nova sighed. She naturally saw the scene after class today. Even she did not expect that Casey would be so rude in front of so many people.

"I really didn't expect him, a dignified guest professor, would use that kind of mean ways. He dares to say that Miss Sue is his wife, which is really shameless." Elodie judged Casey. Although in class today, Casey proved that he was not a toy boy with his strength, which made Elodie feel that she had misunderstood Casey, and felt a little guilty.

But when she was going to apologize, Casey actually pushed her away. She was very unhappy.

In addition, seeing Emma accuse Casey of shamelessly saying that Miss Sue was his wife, it made Elodie a little bit contemptuous towards Casey.

Even if Casey had real talents, he did such a shameful thing. Elodie still looked down on him.

"There may be some misunderstanding." Nova said frustratingly.

"Misunderstanding? Don't be funny. Haven't you seen what happened today? The young lady in the Sue family doesn't even know him. The girl directly said he was shameless. He clearly wanted to use this despicable means to approach Miss Sue."

"I thought he was an educated person when he was giving a lecture today. Now it seems that he is vulgar. Even if he is a guest professor at our school, so what? He is still not worthy of Miss Sue." Elodie got more indignant as she spoke, as if she knew Casey secrets and was about to taunt Casey severely.

Nova couldn't figure out why Casey did this. After sighing, she turned back to the room.

"Huh, how noble Miss Sue is! You are just a guest professor. What rights do you have to match her? You wish!" Elodie muttered, and then went back to the room.

At Lan Couch Building.

In Nadia's office.

After Casey opened the door and walked in, Nadia greeted him with enthusiasm.

She wore a purple cheongsam today, setting off her exquisite figure. Her seductive makeup also made her look so charming. The word 'stunner' was specially prepared for her. It described her incisively and vividly.

"Young Master, you are finally willing to come to see me. I miss you so much."

Nadia directly stretched out her hand and hugged Casey.

Upon seeing this, Casey put an arm directly around her waist. For a moment, Nadia thought that her dress had successfully attracted Casey, so Casey planned to do something to her.

But before Nadia had time to be happy, she felt that her body was out of balance and her head turned around, and a scream was echoed in the office.

Casey directly turned Nadia up to down a few times in the air. Then he put her on the ground.

Nadia only felt the world spin for a while.

After being put down by Casey, she couldn't stand firmly. She took a few steps to stabilize her figure.

After that, she showed a face of grievance. Looking at Casey with her mouth pursed, she almost cried out.

She didn't expect that Casey would treat her, such a gentle and delicate woman, like this! Her Young Master really didn't know how to treat women.

Until now, Nadia had learned that Casey really didn't know anything in this aspect. Even as a famous socialite in H City, she didn't know what to do.

Casey walked directly to Nadia's table and sat down on the chair.

Although Nadia was wronged, she also saw that Casey didn't seem very happy. After a simple adjustment, she quickly walked to Casey's side.

Since she could become the person in charge of Guanling in H City, naturally, she knew when to make jokes and when not to make jokes. Casey obviously had something on his mind. If she continued to make jokes without wit, her endings would be terrible.

"Tell me about all the information you know about the young lady in the Sue family." Casey went directly to the subject.

Nadia didn't hesitate. She said, "This young lady in the Sue family has only appeared in the sight of everyone in this period of time. Before, no one knew that there was such a lady in the Sue family. She appeared suddenly. But there was no one to doubt about the identity of this lady."

"After knowing that Miss Sue matches the person you are looking for, I sent someone to check it out and found that this Miss Sue seemed to have had an accident, which caused a memory problem. The Sue family used to hire the best doctor in H City to cure her."

Hearing this, Casey was stunned. It was because of Edith's memory loss that she was so strange to him.

"Darius, the head of the Sue family, is very fond of the daughter. He has taken great care of her. It may be to make this lady better adapt to the environment in the Sue family. Darius enrolled her in many courses. She goes to Fudan University to study business administration."

"At present, we only have this information for this Miss Sue. As for where she came from, we haven't found out yet."

After listening to Nadia's words, Casey nodded. He had already guessed what happened. After having a car accident, Edith came to H City by accident.

"What kind of strength does the Sue family have in H City?" Casey asked. Regardless of Edith's amnesia or not, Casey would take her away in the end. If the Sue family didn't make things difficult to him, it would be okay. If the Sue family insisted on keeping Edith to stay, Casey wouldn't definitely let this happen. So it was necessary for him to understand the situation of the Sue family to make a rough judgment on what needed to be done later.

"The Sue family is the top family in H City. H City is different from B City. Here is the economic center. The business is developed. Although the Sue family is just a big family in H City, they actually have a world-class family background. The strength what the Sue family showed to us in H City is only one-tenth."

"The Sue family is still a somewhat powerful family, roughly equivalent to the Cunningham family that the boss destroyed some time ago."

Casey nodded. He didn't expect this Sue family to have such a background. If Casey only had Davies family as his backer, it would be really not a simple thing to steal Edith from the Sue family. Of course, he not only had Davies family. His father destroyed the Cunningham family without worries. As the young master of Guanling, Casey naturally did not take the Sue family seriously.

"In H City, the Sue family is not the strongest. The strongest family should be the Nelson family. the Nelson family has become one of the top families in the world. But they didn't show their strength in H City. Besides, they have rarely been involved in the commercial struggles. Only some families which have a certain position in H City can know the existence of the Nelson family."

"It's worth mentioning that the Nelson family is a family friend with the Turner family. The two families have a very good relationship. When your grandpa was kicked out of the Turner family, the Nelson family also made a lot of trouble for your grandpa."

As the person in charge of H City, Nadia was already regarded as a senior official in Guanling. She had long heard of Terence's things. After all, she knew who she had to deal with only if she got to know these things.

Casey suddenly narrowed his eyes when he heard Nadia's words. He didn't expect that there was such a family in H City. So, his father should have a lot of grudges with the Nelson family.

"Lan Couch is just the largest cosmetics company in H City. Although you are a socialite and have a wide network of contacts, if I want to deal with the Nelson family, can you help me destroy them?" Casey considered what might happen in the future, and then he asked Nadia.

Nadia smiled, and then said in a rather casual voice, "Lan Couch is just a disguise. It is also a kind of trump card that prevents others from knowing our own strength. Boss let me be in charge of H City, so how can I only have a small cosmetics company?"

"If Young Master wants to destroy the Nelson family, just give orders to me."

Chapter 541 Cheat

In the villa of the Sue family.

After coming back, Edith had been thinking about the guy she saw in the school. That face seemed to have been engraved in her mind for a long time. Just a glance, she couldn't forget him. She recalled the way the guy called her. No matter how she thought about it, that guy didn't seem to be acting. She could clearly feel the emotion in that man's eyes.

If that man really wanted to take advantage of her, his acting skills would be too superb.

The thing that made her most puzzled was that when she saw that man, why did she have a familiar feeling?

At that time, she even had the urge to rush over to hug the man.

Even if the man was acting, her feelings would definitely not be fake.

It was just that Emma accused the man aggressively at the time, and then dragged her away from Fudan University, making her unable to find the man to confirm her feelings.

It wasn't until after returning, after carefully reviewing the previous events, that Edith was a little convinced that before she lost her memory, she was likely to have a very deep relationship with that man. Otherwise, she would not have such a feeling.

The doctor told her that more exposure to things she was familiar with before would help her recover her memory.

When she saw the man, she obviously felt that the part of her lost memory was shaking.

If she had more contact with that man, she might find her memories soon.

Although Darius was very good to her, she always felt that there was a little strangeness between her father and herself. She was also very strange to the whole Sue family, so she really wanted to get her memories back.

When Edith was in a trance, Emma walked in with a bowl of boiled soup and placed it on the table in front of Edith.

"Miss, the freshly cooked ginseng soup. Drink it while it is hot." Emma said.

Edith stared at Emma and said, "Emma, I still feel that the person I met at school is a bit weird. How about you invite him over? I want to ask him why he called me like that. "

Hearing Edith's words, Emma said directly without even thinking about it, "Miss, haven't I told you that person is crazy? He wanted to take advantage of you. It's his luck that I did not ask others to arrest him directly. Miss, don't think about it. It's all that man's lies."

"But..." Edith wanted to refute.

"Miss, have some soup. No but! Mr. Sue will be here soon. He has already known what happened today. He will enlighten you." Emma's tone was a bit tough.

Edith was speechless by Emma's words. Although Emma was her maid, she often felt that she could not make her own decision. Emma often made decisions for her.

After finishing talking with Edith, Emma turned around and left the room, without giving Edith any chance to speak.

Edith was a little angry. She felt that she was just like a pet that was taken care of in the Sue family, without any freedom. Everything was arranged for her by others. Now she even had no right to see a man. Was she really the young lady in this family?

Not long after Emma left, the door of the room was opened again. Darius walked in from outside.

He glanced at his daughter with full of love on his face. Then he said with a smile, "Why don't you drink the soup?"

Edith stared at Darius and asked, "Father, what have I experienced in the past? Why would anyone come to me and say that I am his wife?"

Darius walked to Edith, reached out to touch her head, and said, "My silly daughter, although our Sue family is not the best in H City, most of people are still envy us. In this world, there are many people who want to get something for nothing. So they will try all kinds of ways to get the benefits."

"You are my daughter, the young lady of the Sue family. Everyone knows that as long as he has some relationship with you, he can get endless benefits. So it is not uncommon for someone to try to get close to you in this way. Some time ago, there was a woman I didn't know who brought a child and insisted that it was my child. You can just regard this kind of thing as a joke."

Hearing Darius' words, Edith frowned immediately and said, "But, I feel that person is very familiar..."

Hearing Edith's words, a vicious light flashed in Darius' eyes. Then he said with a smile, "This is where those liars are clever. If he can't make you feel like this, how dare he take a risk to do this kind of thing?"

After speaking, Darius took out his phone, found a photo, gave Edith a glance, and said: "This person in the photo is your best playmate when you were a kid. He used to come to our house to play, but later because of his parents' work, their family left H City. At that time, you cried for a long time because of it."

"My men found the person who appeared in your school suddenly used to have deep contact with your playmate. Now it seems that he disguised so well. He should have gone to find someone you know. After understanding them well, he shaped himself into them to make you have a familiar feeling."

"The reason you think that person is familiar is because he made his appearance look like your playmate, and imitated some of his temperament. Sylvie, you have to know that those vicious people will use every possible means to get the property of the Sue family."

Darius said earnestly.

Edith stared at the photo and found that the person in the photo was indeed somewhat similar to the man in the school, but if she took a closer look, she would notice a big difference.

This photo also made her feel very familiar.

"Father, is this true?" Edith glanced at Darius with some confusion. She had already a little confused as to which feeling was right.

Darius smiled and said, "Of course. You are my daughter. I won't lie to you."

Of course, this photo was not true. It was just that Darius specially found someone make the photo a slight change based on Casey's appearance. In order to prevent Edith from having any doubts, he could only use this method.

From the moment Edith opened her eyes, the first person she saw was Darius. Now, she was sure that Darius was her father. So she had no doubt about it. Generally, she would choose to believe what Darius said.

"I know you still have some confusion. The doctor said this is a sequelae of your amnesia. It will be fine after a while. What you have experienced in the past, I have already told you. Maybe because your brain is still recovering, so you can't remember it." Darius continued.

In order to let Edith completely accept Sylvie's identity, Darius made up a whole set of life experience for her.

"Don't think about it anymore. You do have a marriage contract. The young master of the Nelson family will get married with you. With your status, how could you be the wife of an ordinary person? As long as you think about it a little bit, you can find the logical errors."

"Mr. Nelson will be back soon. You should think about how to entertain him during this period. After he returns, your marriage will be on the agenda."

The reason why Darius made up a whole set of life experience for Edith to deceive Edith was because of this marriage. the Nelson family was the real hegemon in H City. Others didn't know it, but Darius could not have known. If Edith married the young master of the Nelson family, the Sue family would have endless benefits.

It was impossible for Darius to let anyone destroy this marriage.

Moreover, Edith was pregnant now. He must let Edith get married as soon as possible to hide this matter. Otherwise, when Edith's belly got big, the Nelson family would definitely not agree to this marriage.

Edith stared at Darius and asked, "Do I really have the marriage contract with the young master of the Nelson family since I was young? But I can't think of anything about him. I also feel very strange about what you said."

Darius said with a smile, "Haven't I told you? This is the symptom that your brain has not recovered. It is not important whether you are familiar or not. I can assure you. So you don't have to worry about it."

"Get a good rest. Marrying the young master of the Nelson family will be the luckiest thing in your life."

Edith still wanted to say something. But she didn't know what to say, so she nodded to Darius.

Her thoughts were confused now. The instinct of her body prevented her from thinking about it.

Since her father said it was like that, so be it. Anyway, her memory was gone. It was better to follow her father's arrangement.

Seeing that Edith didn't think about those things, Darius also secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Then he walked out of the room after briefly comforting Edith.

Emma had been waiting outside the room. Seeing Darius coming out, she quickly bowed respectfully.

Darius turned his head and glanced at Emma, then asked, "Has the identity of that person been verified?"

Emma replied, "It's just a guest professor at Fudan University. I heard that he is from B City. He has no background. I heard some students in the school say that he is still a toy boy. I guess he wants to make money, so he got close to our lady."

Darius nodded, and didn't take Casey to heart. Such a small person was not worth of him worrying about.

"In this case, you go to Fudan University. We have a scholarship fund at Fudan University. Those people in the school dare not disrespect my Sue family. You ask them to find an excuse to expel this so-called guest professor."

Darius said.

Emma's eyes lit up suddenly. Then she said, "Yes."

"Also, during this period of time, watch the young lady. No one is allowed to contact her until the young master of the Nelson family comes back." After thinking about it, Darius added.

Chapter 542 Expel Me Together

At Fudan University, in front of the teaching building of School of History.

A group of people were surrounding the door of the teaching building, bustling and talking.

Emma stood on the high steps at the entrance of the teaching building. She was staring at the group of so-called talents below, with a trace of disdain in her eyes.

Although she was just a maid of the Sue family, in her opinion, even if she was a maid for a lifetime, she was better than the college students present. Most of them would never earn what she could earn in the Sue family.

In the Sue family, even a maid had the capital to look down upon the students of this prestigious school.

At this time, behind Emma stood a few thugs in black suits from the Sue family. It was precisely because of these few thugs that Emma dared to be unscrupulous in school.

"Let that lunatic who scared my lady that day come over. I am here today to punish him on behalf of the Sue family. Since he has made such a mistake, he has to accept the consequence!" Emma shouted loudly.

At this time, a girl stepped forward. She frowned and looked at Emma, saying, "Mr. Davies was indeed a little impolite that day, but you don't have to go too far because of this."

Emma turned her head and glanced at the girl who was talking. She sneered, "Impolite? That lunatic humiliated my lady's reputation in front of so many people. It was his luck that I didn't let someone beat him to death. Since he dared to provoke the young lady of our Sue family, you still want to use the word 'impolite' to muddle it through?"

The girl who talked to Emma was Annie. She did not expect Casey to say such words to Miss Sue that day, but she admired Casey very much. Even if Casey made some mistakes, it would be okay.

Now the Sue family was making a scene in public, which naturally made her feel angry.

However, this matter was indeed Casey's fault. Annie didn't know how to refute Emma. The most important thing was that the Sue family was strong. She was just a student. She had no capital to compete with the Sue family.

Seeing Annie no longer speak, Emma immediately showed a trace of pride. She liked the feeling of being above others very much.

In the Sue family, she was just a little maid who could be called upon by others. She was used to seeing those big shots give orders. She also had a yearning for this kind of superiority. So when the head of the Sue family or other people arranged for her to go outside to do things, she would always adopt this arrogant attitude, thinking that she was much more superior than the ordinary people outside and these people had to listen to what she said. At this time, Elodie and Nova were also standing in the crowd. After Elodie heard Emma's words, she sneered. Then she said to Nova nearby, "He deserves it. That self-righteous guy will finally get retribution. Although he is the guest professor invited by the school, so what? Compared with the Sue family, he is nothing more than an ant. I want to see how he solve it."

Nova sighed helplessly. Because Elodie kept talking ill of Casey in her ears, which made her almost dislike Casey now.

Soon, there was a commotion among the crowd. The people gave a way to them. A group of leaders of Fudan University came here. Of course, Brodie, the dean of School of History, was among them.

Facing the people of the Sue family, even the leaders of Fudan University did not dare to neglect the slightest.

The headmaster of Fudan University, Jonathan Lee walked towards Emma a little anxiously, and said in a polite tone, "This lady, I don't know what happened. If our school makes a mistake, I will definitely help you to solve it."

Emma glanced at Jonathan, told him about Casey's affairs in a disdainful tone, and then questioned Jonathan, "That guy in your school was actually talking nonsense in front of my lady. You must give me an explanation today, otherwise the student scholarship fund set up by the Sue family in your school will be cancelled."

Jonathan was stunned when he heard Emma's words. The Sue family's scholarship fund set up at Fudan University could be said to be the largest among the many funds. In Fudan University, almost one-third of students were funded by this fund every year.

This fund was a motivation for the school to encourage students to study hard. If the Sue family really withdrew this fund, it would have a very big impact on Fudan University.

The students around also started talking about it. The scholarships set up by the Sue family could be said to be the easiest to get at Fudan University. As long as they studied hard, they would be able to get the scholarship. Many people wanted to take this scholarship to travel. If it was cancelled, they would certainly have a lot of opinions.

"Lady, this matter may indeed be his faults. I don't know what kind of explanation you want. You can tell me first. I will definitely meet your requirements." Jonathan asked.

Emma said, "Call the lunatic over. Ask him to apologize to our lady in front of everyone in your school. Ask him to admit that he is a lunatic, and then slap himself a few times. You cancel his so-called professor status and drive him out of the school. After that, our Sue family will not pursue this matter."

Hearing Emma's words, Jonathan's face suddenly showed a hint of embarrassment. If she only asked Casey to apologize or asked him to cancel Casey's professorship, he could do it. But it was a little too far to let Casey admit that he was lunatic in front of everyone and slapped himself. Seeing Jonathan hesitating, Emma immediately curled her lips and said, "You don't agree? Then my Sue family scholarship can also be cancelled. Your school will be blacklisted by our Sue family. You'd better think about it clearly."

When Jonathan heard this, he immediately became anxious. Although the scholarship was important, it was not necessary. However, it would be a very serious matter if the school be on the blacklist of the Sue family. He had not been able to bear the consequences.

So after a few seconds of hesitation, Jonathan gritted his teeth and said, "Okay, I promise you. I will follow what you said as soon as possible and let him apologize."

Hearing Jonathan's promise, Emma's smug smile became even brighter. This feeling of making others embarrassed casually made her very enjoyable. Just when Emma achieved her goal and planned to leave, Brodie, who was standing by, stood out with a cold face, and said, "I don't agree with this punishment."

Everyone immediately turned their heads and looked at Brodie.

Emma looked at Brodie up and down, and asked in a cold voice, "Who are you? Your headmaster has agreed. Why do you disagree?"

"I am the dean of School of History. Professor Davies was invited by me. He may indeed offend your young lady, but Professor Davies is also a person with status. Your request just now is no different from humiliating him. How could I agree to such a punishment?" Brodie said sternly.

Seeing Brodie stand up to oppose Emma, Jonathan's face was full of anxiety. He hurriedly said, "Dean Brodie, it has come to this point. Don't defend that person. Didn't you hear what she just said? If you speak for that person, you will be opposing the Sue family." The students around were also surprised. They didn't expect that Brodie would still stand up and speak for Casey. Most of them had never attended Casey's class, so they didn't know who Casey was. They all believed what Emma had just said, and felt that Casey deserved to be punished in this way.

Now hearing Brodie speaking for Casey, they were naturally puzzled.

"Professor Davies did those stupid things. Why should we bear this kind of responsibility for him? We should let him apologize in public according to what that lady said."

"It's so irritating. Why did the dean of School of History speak for such a pervert and offend the Sue family? It's so stupid."

"Tsk-tusk-tusk, Professor Davies is so lucky. There is still someone else who speaks for him. If the Sue family really cancels the scholarship this time, I'm afraid someone of our students will go to his home to punch him."

...

Most of these people complained it because of the scholarships.

Brodie snorted and said, "So what? So the Sue family can humiliate others for no reason? I will not agree to your request today. If the headmaster insists on listening to her, just expel me together!"

Chapter 544 A Super Nice Guy-Casey

After hearing the female teacher's words, Jonathan, who was frowning, got up directly from the chair, stared at her and asked, "What are you talking about? Someone transferred one billion to the school account?"

The female teacher looked a little nervous. Seeing the headmaster's reaction, she felt even guilty, "Yes...that's it. The one billion dollars appeared on the school's account, which is for the public to donate. I checked with the bank. The staff in the bank said there was no abnormality with the account. This billion is true. I suspect that this is a large-scale fraud against our school. First, they gave us a billion, and then...then..."

Speaking of here, this female teacher couldn't figure out who would give the other party one billion dollars to defraud. So she was so confused.

Casey was directly amused by the words of the female teacher. If there were one billion, who would go to defraud. He had never heard of anyone who defraud the other party before giving one billion out first.

Jonathan reacted. He looked at Casey in shock. His breathing also became a little quick.

He thought that Casey was just joking, but he didn't expect that in just a few minutes, a billion would have been transferred to the school account.

The rest of the leaders in the conference room also understood what was going on. Their gazes at Casey immediately became much more polite.

They argued with Brodie about how to make up the money after the Sue family canceled the scholarship. As for offending the Sue family, it was entirely Casey's personal affair. The Sue family was just using the school to suppress Casey. No matter what, the Sue family would not deliberately embarrass Fudan University. After all, this was an act of discrediting the family.

Now Casey had directly given the school one billion, which was about three times more than the three hundred million given by the Sue family. The pressure on these leaders suddenly disappeared. They were even a little excited.

It was the first time that they saw someone donated one billion to the school so casually.

After a long time, Brodie stood up with a smile on his face. He knew that Casey never made jokes with others. Now the female teacher of Finance Department had come to prove this, which showed that Casey really gave the school one billion.

Although Brodie was also shocked by Casey's generosity, he was more of the appreciation and admiration for Casey. With Casey's one billion donations, Jonathan and the others had no need to embarrass Casey, which also made Brodie quietly relieved.

Brodie stood up, glanced at Casey with a smile, and said, "Mr. Davies is indeed a good person. With this donation from you, I believe our school will cultivate more talents to contribute themselves to the society."

When Jonathan and the others heard Brodie's words, they all gave Casey a grateful smile.

"I didn't expect Professor Davies to be such a generous person. We misunderstood you before. I hope you can forgive us for our previous offenses. Now I propose to give Professor Davies an official professor in order to express our gratitude to Professor Davies. What do you guys think of?" Jonathan said with a smile.

"I think it is feasible. Professor Davies has made such a great contribution to our school, of course, he must be given the title of official professor."

"Yes, Professor Davies can still do some of the things that guest professors do. Even if you don't want to go to class, there is no problem."

Everyone echoed. A peaceful scene immediately appeared in the conference room.

The female teacher in Finance Department watched this scene dumbfoundedly, and then she carefully asked, "Is... isn't this a fraud?" Jonathan smiled and looked at the female teacher, then he said, "This is a gift from Professor Davies to our school. How could it be a fraud?"

The female teacher looked at Casey with a shocked expression on her face. She couldn't imagine that the person who donated one billion to the school was this young man who looked less than 30 years old.

After that, under the leadership of Brodie and Jonathan, the other leaders kept expressing gratitude to Casey, as if their verbal attacks on Casey had never happened before.

Later, according to Casey's request, Jonathan formally set a teaching fund with the one billion dollars given by Casey. All procedures were basically in accordance with the previous Sue family's scholarship procedures, but the number of scholarships was tripled than the scholarship of the Sue family.

After all this was done, Jonathan asked the teachers in the school to notify the students of the incident. By the way, he also held a special meeting for the student union to promote the incident, including praising for Casey.

Those who originally resented Casey because of the cancellation of the scholarship immediately became elated after learning that their scholarship would not only be gone but would also be doubled. They all forgot how they blamed Casey at that time. In turn, they began to praise Professor Davies.

Elodie had been in a good mood for the past two days. Although she experienced the embarrassment of being pushed away by Casey, Casey's attitude towards her made her feel less guilty about Casey. She was even a little gloating because of the matter of Miss Sue.

When she walked out of the teaching building and walked to the school bulletin board, she found a group of people around here, all talking with a smile on their faces. She was a little curious, and then walked over there.

"Professor Davies is so great. I am grateful to him from the bottom of my heart. It is him who relieved my financial pressure."

"That's right. Professor Davies is a super nice guy. Now, I don't have to worry about to pay my loans."

"I thought that this scholarship would be gone. I didn't expect Professor Davies to give us such a big surprise. I was really touched."

...

Listening to the people's words, Elodie was confused. Then she asked, "The Professor Davies you are talking about is Casey?"

Several people nodded.

Elodie was puzzled and said, "Didn't Casey cause our school to lose the scholarship supported by the Sue family? Shouldn't you condemn him? Why do you praise him instead?"

"Girl, don't you know that Professor Davies personally donated one billion to our school? Those who could get the scholarship of the Sue family will get the scholarship from Professor Davies, and the amount will double. Professor Davies is so good. Why should we condemn him?" A student immediately explained to Elodie.

Elodie immediately widened her eyes and exclaimed, "It is impossible! You are being fooled! How could that guy donate so much money to the school?"

"Girl, you are a little disrespectful to Professor Davies by saying that. The school posted an announcement on this matter. How could it be that we were fooled?" The student immediately retorted.

Elodie hurriedly squeezed to the front of the bulletin board and glanced at the above announcement. She found that there was indeed an announcement, which was written that Casey's donation of scholarships to the school and the scholarship would be doubled. She was dumbfounded all of a sudden. She didn't expect that Casey actually solved the problem of the Sue family's cancelling scholarship at Fudan University through this method.

She originally thought that Casey would be expelled from Fudan University directly because of this incident. Even if he wasn't expelled, basically no students would go to his class. However, the fact now was that everyone was grateful to Casey. No one cared about the matter of the Sue family before. Now, everyone could only see Casey's goodness now.

What made Elodie unacceptable the most was that Casey donated a billion dollars to the school so easily. How rich he was!

Since he was so rich, why would he live with them in a shared apartment?

An inexplicable emotion appeared in Elodie's heart, making her a little speechless for a while.

In the shared apartment.

Elodie opened the door in despair, still thinking about Casey's donation of one billion to the school.

As soon as she entered, she saw Casey walking downstairs.

Casey just glanced at her, then looked away, as if he was just looking at a stranger who had never met.

Elodie was unwilling to give up, especially after knowing that Casey might be a rich man. There was a sense of loss in her heart that she had missed something.

She took a deep breath, walked to Casey, squeezed a smile, and asked, "Casey, I heard that you donated one billion to the school? Really? Where did you get so much money? Did they make a mistake? Or, the money is for the person who supports you..."

Casey didn't want to talk to Elodie. The questions she asked were a bit speechless, so he bypassed Elodie and walked towards the door.

The smile that Elodie squeezed out instantly disappeared, and turned into a gloomy look. This guy was so disgusting! He completely ignored her! 'Even if you're rich, you don't have to be so defiant!'

The anger made Elodie dislike Casey again.

She didn't even consider whether her problem was a bit impolite.

"Damn it! Even if you are rich, so what?"

No matter how rich you are, it is impossible for me to accept you at all!"

Elodie turned around and shouted directly at Casey.

Casey walked to the door, as if he hadn't heard Elodie's words, and just opened the door.

However, he did not go out, but stopped in place. Because at this time, there were a few uninvited guests standing outside the door, who seemed to be fierce.

Several men in black suits blocked the door of the apartment directly. It was the maid, Emma, who served Edith, stood in front of these men.

Emma stared at Casey, with a contemptuous look on her face, and said, "I didn't expect you to live in such a place where only beggars will live. It really made us look for it for a while.

You should also know who I am. Today, I came to you to get even with you. You offended my lady, but you didn't apologize. Let's talk about it. How do you want to solve this matter?"

Chapter 545 I'll Teach You how to Talk

Casey asked while staring at Emma coldly, "Is it your young lady that ask you to come to me?"

Emma was a little afraid at once. The reason why she came to Casey with these men today was simply that she was angry. Moreover, it was rare that she had an opportunity to bully others as she liked, so she certainly wanted to take this opportunity.

After knowing that Casey just lived in a shared apartment, she looked down upon Casey even more and wanted to take advantage of the Sue family's men to teach Casey a lesson.

She didn't know that Casey had donated a billion dollars to Fudan University.

"It's none of your business. Mr. Sue has asked me to deal with this matter. Do you think that you can get away with it easily after offending our young lady?"

Emma said threateningly.

"Oh? Then, what do you want me to do?" Casey asked.

After hearing it, Emma had some ideas.

She said arrogantly, "Mr. Sue doesn't want you to be in H City anymore.

Before, you offended my young lady, and you deserved to die because of it.

Now, I'm being magnanimous and thus not going to kill you. But you must kowtow to me ten times and say thank you to me ten times. Then, get out of H City. In this way, I'll spare you."

Hearing it, Casey's lip twitched. He didn't expect the maidservant of Edith to be so vicious. Moreover, he could tell Emma said these words purely out of her own desire to bully others.

When Elodie saw what was going on at the door in the apartment, she put on a gloating expression. Now, she was angry, so she naturally wanted to see Casey suffer.

Most importantly, it was the people of the Sue family that came to make trouble for Casey. In Elodie's opinion, Casey could definitely not deal with the Sue family, even though he could donate one billion dollars. Therefore, she believed that the people of the Sue family would definitely teach him a good lesson.

She sat directly on the sofa, as if she were watching something very fun. She was waiting for Casey to kneel down before these people and to beg for mercy. Hoping to record Casey's kneeling down before these people, she even took out her mobile phone and started to video. In her opinion, in this way, she might be able to take advantage of the video to do something harmful to Casey in the future.

"Quick! I have no time to spend with you. If you can't kneel down on your own, the people behind me can help you." Seeing that Casey didn't move, Emma said impatiently.

"You may ask them to have a try."

Casey said.

Emma didn't expect that Casey would be so bold that he didn't take what she said seriously. So she became even angrier.

She gritted her teeth, looked at Casey and said, "You asked for it. Don't regret it!"

After saying that, Emma took two steps back and shouted at those men, "Beat him up and then make him kowtow to me!"

After receiving this order, without hesitation, those men all took a step forward at once and was about to attack Casey.

Seeing that, Elodie hurriedly shouted to Casey, "Casey, under such a circumstance, you're still so reckless! Do you think you can afford to offend people of the Sue family? In my opinion, you had better listen to her. Otherwise, you'll suffer a lot."

Certainly, Casey wouldn't take Elodie's words seriously. He gave those men a glance. Seeing one of them had already tried to give him a punch, he immediately gave that people a kick. This people was trained by the Sue family. However, compared with Casey, he was too weak. It was easy for Casey to knock him down.

Seeing that Casey really dared to fight with these men, Emma sneered. In her opinion, Casey would soon be beaten up by these men.

However, in the next moment, Casey gave one of these men a kick, making that man crash into the wall. Seeing that, Emma was immediately dumbfounded.

Casey's movements were smooth. He fought in a quick, powerful and clever way with a set of martial moves. When he stopped, these men had all fell to the ground.

Elodie stared at Casey dumbfounded. She knew how good at fighting Casey was, but she didn't expect that Casey dared even to beat the people of the Sue family. This time, Casey was really at enmity with the Sue family.

"You...You dare to beat them. Don't you want to live? Quick, kneel down before me and apologize to me. Otherwise, people of the Sue family will definitely not let you off!" Emma stared at Casey with a nervous expression.

"Why, in your opinion, people of the Sue family can beat me while I can't beat people of the Sue family, right? You're too unreasonable!" Casey said coldly.

"The Sue family is a powerful family in H City, so people of the Sue family can of course beat you. In my opinion, you're but a beggar. You're not eligible to fight back!" Emma shouted at Casey.

Hearing it, Casey narrowed his eyes, took a step forward and slapped Emma in the face.

"You're just a maidservant of the Sue family. What right have you to say these words to me?"

Previously, considering that she was the maidservant of Edith, Casey was going to let her off after teaching her a lesson. However, Casey hated her personality. In his opinion, such a person might get Edith into trouble. So he decided to teach her a good lesson so that she would realize her faults.

Emma covered her face with her hand. Casey didn't use too much strength, but her face had swelled up.

"You...You dare to hit me! Damn it. Who are you? How dare you beat me? I won't let you off!" Emma reached out her hand to try to slap Casey in the face.

Casey grabbed her wrist and slapped her in the face with the other hand.

Emma somewhat freaked out. Although she was only a maidservant of the Sue family, apart from those who were in charge of the Sue family, no one had ever beaten or scolded her since she was a child.

Now, Casey slapped her in the face twice. It was unacceptable for her.

"You're done! I'll take a terrible revenge on you! You son of a bitch!"

Casey slapped Emma in the face again, showing no mercy at all.

"Now, I'll teach you how to talk for your young lady. If you're still so rude to me, I'll keep beating you." Casey said coldly. After that, every time Emma cursed Casey, Casey would slap her in the face. He did it more than a dozen times. Finally, Emma had somewhat lost sensation in her face. It was only then did she realize that Casey really didn't care about which family she was from. If Casey went on beating her, she might be killed.

Finally, Emma couldn't hold on. When Casey was about to slap her in the face again, she managed to say, "I...I was wrong."

Casey had raised his hand. Hearing it, he stopped.

He let go of Emma's wrist and said, "You had better talk in a polite way in the future, otherwise you'll still be beaten."

After giving Casey a glance with an aggrieved expression, Emma hurriedly turned around and ran quickly towards the lift.

"You just wait and see. I'm going to go back and tell Mr. Sue about it. I won't let you get away with it!"

Casey shook his head helplessly, knowing that he was being a bit naive when he tried to make such a person reform by slapping her in the face a few times.

Those men were still lying on the ground. Casey gave them a glance. He didn't do anything to them, but walked towards the lift. Elodie watched him with amazement.

Seeing that Casey was approaching her and that the lift was still going up, Emma was very anxious. Finally, she gave up taking the lift decisively, running away by taking the stairs.

It must be noticed that the apartment Casey lived in was on the 23rd floor.

Wouldn't Emma be worried that she would be very tired after leaving this building by taking the stairs?

However, Casey didn't care about neither what Emma was thinking nor how she left this building.

He was going to go to Lan Couch Group to discuss how to take Edith away from the Sue family with Nadia.

At the Sue Villa.

Emma was back. Her face was red and swollen. After coming back, she immediately went to the study of Darius.

At this moment, Darius was handling documents in the study. Seeing Emma rush in hurriedly, he couldn't help frowning.

However, after he saw what Emma's face was like, he was puzzled, asking, "Emma, what's the matter with your face?"

After coming close to Darius, Emma immediately sat down on the ground, beginning to cry sadly.

"Mr. Sue, help me, please. Just now, according to your order, I went to deal with the mad man who had offended the young lady. I had intended to talk to him about it in a friendly way, so that he could realize his fault. However, that guy insisted that the young lady was his wife. He even made some remarks that insulted the young lady. Finally, he even said something insulting you. I was so angry, so I shouted at him."

"Unexpectedly, that guy directly beat me. As a result, my face is injured. That guy was very good at fighting, so the men coming there with me were also injured. Even now, they can't come back. Mr. Sue, take revenge for me, please. It doesn't matter that I'm injured. However, the Sue family loses face."

After hearing this pitiful narration and considering that Emma's face was really injured, Darius was so angry that he immediately stood up, saying angrily, "There should be such an arrogant person in H City. He dares not to take the Sue family seriously! You don't need to interfere with this matter anymore. Go to see the doctor and ask the housekeeper to give you two months' salary. Then have a rest to recover from the injury."

"I'll deal with the guy who offended the young lady."

Hearing it, Emma sneered silently at once. She thought: now, the head of the Sue family is going to deal with that guy himself. However powerful Casey is, it's impossible for Casey to escape his doom.

However, she still pretended to be sad. After responding to Darius, she got up from the ground and left the study.

Previously, she was going to ask the housekeeper to give her money.

However, at this moment, she saw Edith's bedroom. She rolled her eyes.

Then, she had an idea: she should go to complain to the young lady with her injured face. In this way, she might be able to get some more benefits.

With this intention, she walked towards the bedroom of Edith.

Chapter 546 This Young Man Is Not an Ordinary People

"Miss Edith, the guy who offended you at school that day is so evil! I'm so poor!"

The moment Emma entered Edith's bedroom, she began to cry. However, her aggrieved expression was not visible because her face had swelled up. Edith was previously lost in thought. She had been thinking about the person she met at school that day. Although Darius had already convinced her that that person was just a fraud, she still couldn't help thinking that that person wasn't just a fraud.

After hearing what Emma said, Edith was immediately back to reality. After she turned her head and saw the injury on Emma's face, her expression immediately changed.

"Emma, what happened? Who harmed you?"

Emma came close to Edith and said with an aggrieved expression, "It's the guy who tried to fool you at school that day."

Edith immediately frowned and asked, "What on earth happened?"

Emma immediately changed her mood and said between sobs, "That day, that guy approached you and said those strange words. After that, Mr. Sue asked someone to carry out an investigation, finding that that guy was a fraud.

However, I thought that he might have some difficulties, so I wanted to ask him why he claimed you to be his wife."

"Today, I came to him. According to my plan, if he said those words to you only after he was driven to despair, I would give him some money from my own pocket, so that he could at least afford to buy something to eat. Then, he could go to find a job. In this way, he would no longer cheat others and therefore wouldn't cause any trouble to others."

"However, this evil guy claimed that I looked down upon him and immediately beat me, seemingly because I showed up his fraud. I couldn't resist at all. He slapped me in the face without any mercy dozens of times. Finally, he even forced me to admit that you were his wife. If I didn't do as he asked, he wouldn't let me off."

"Miss Edith, he is the most terrible devil I've ever seen. He's so evil, giving me no chance to talk and just beating me hard."

"I had intended to help him out of kindness, but I ended up being injured. I'm so poor!"

After saying that, Emma, who had superb acting skills, cried again.

What she said just now was of course made up. She could only make Edith pity her by saying so.

She was not afraid that Edith would get to know the truth later. In her opinion, since Darius would deal with Casey in person, Edith would never get to know the truth.

After hearing what Emma said, Edith put on a somewhat angry expression. She didn't expect that the person she met at school that day would be so evil that he injured Emma badly.

It seemed that that person was really a fraud. The thoughts she had should be wrong.

She stood up and took Emma by her arm. Then, she sat down on the bed with Emma. She took a close look at Emma's face, finding that it was indeed caused by hard slaps. Seeing that, she really believed what Emma had said and put on a look of sympathy on her face.

"Emma, I'm so sorry. That person is so vicious that he beat you, a girl, so hard. I have thought that he had come to me because he really knew me. Now, it seems that he really want to cheat me." Edith said.

"Miss Edith, it doesn't matter that I'm hit by him. I'm just very happy that you haven't been harmed by the guy with ill intentions." Emma said in a seemingly impassioned way.

"No, it matters. I'm somewhat responsible for your being injured like this. Later, I'll ask my father to compensate you for it. You really suffered a lot." Edith said.

Emma pretended to care only about Edith, but she was secretly happy. She thought: this time, Miss Edith would definitely detest that damned guy; and even if he really came here to look for Miss Edith, Miss Edith wouldn't see him anymore.

Edith didn't know the truth. Since she was here, she had been under the protection of the Sue family. How was it possible that she could know that Emma was so vicious?

In the afternoon.

In Darius's study.

A person was standing in front of Darius with a stack of documents. There were a few words on the cover: The Investigation Report of Casey Davies.

That person directly put the report on Darius's desk and said, "Mr. Sue, I've completed the investigation of the man named Casey Davies. He used to be Miss Edith's husband. When Miss Edith lived in J City, she married him."

After hearing that, Darius immediately frowned. Before, he sent someone to investigate Casey because he wanted to know who Casey was after Emma was beaten by Casey.

Unexpectedly, when his daughter didn't lose her memory, Casey was really her husband. After knowing it, Darius couldn't help being lost in thought.

J City was a small place. In his opinion, it was impossible for people of J City to find out that Edith was now in H City after he took Edith from J City to H City. It was beyond Darius's expectation that people from J City found where Edith was after such a short time.

He had got a new identity for Edith. Now, she was his daughter, Sylvie. And others should believe that Edith was dead. No one would know that they were the same person.

Even people of the Nelson family didn't know that Edith had married someone in the past. Darius had concealed it very well from others.

However, now, Casey found Edith. He had to reconsider how to deal with it. It mustn't be known by others that Sylvie and Edith were the same person. It had something to do with if he could build a good relationship with the Nelson family and whether the Sue family and the Nelson family could build connections with each other through marriage. Therefore, he had to get rid of Casey. Darius picked up the report and read it carefully. Seeing that Casey was a well-known loser in J City, he immediately put on an unhappy expression.

"My daughter married to such a loser! She really suffered a lot in the past few years."

Hearing it, the person standing in front of Darius immediately said, "As a matter of fact, Casey just pretended to be a loser. In fact, he was the young master of the Davies family in B City. Now, Casey has become the head of the Davies family, otherwise he wouldn't have been able to find Miss Edith so soon."

Darius raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that. He immediately leafed through the report, finding that Casey was indeed the head of the Davies family.

"Casey did undergo a lot of hardships. He had been expelled from the Davies family by his mother! After that, he became the head of the Davies family with his own efforts. He is indeed excellent. However, the Davies family is too far from as powerful as the Nelson family. I still have to get rid of him. Otherwise, if people of the Davies family get to know the fact, we'll be in trouble." Darius said.

With the power of the Sue family, it had been very amazing that they could find out most experience of Casey.

However, no matter how powerful the Sue family was, it was impossible for people of the Sue family to find out that Casey was also the young master of Guanling.

"Mr. Sue, Casey does have some contact with Nadia, the chairman of Lan Couch Group, after he came to H City. He had also had some contact with Walker. If we want to, we can kill this guy. But someone would definitely know it. Therefore, if you really want to kill him, you have to do it in a careful way." The person standing in front of Darius reminded.

Darius nodded, saying, "I want to get rid of him, but I'm not going to kill him."
"It should be easy to think of a way to deal with Casey after we know who he really is. If we directly kill him, someone in H City will look into it. Besides, people of the Davies family will definitely make a thorough investigation into it. It'll become a serious matter. And it'll be difficult for us to handle it."

"However, no matter what, the Davies family is but a family as powerful as we seemingly are. I believe that, if we offer to give the Davies family enough benefits, Casey will agree with our request."

After hearing that, that person also nodded, saying, "You're right. The Davies family might be powerful in B City. However, it's far from as powerful as we really are. As long as you give Casey some benefits, he'll know what he should do."

Darius nodded with a hint of pride on his face. Obviously, he was quite confident in the power of the Sue family.

"Then, make an arrangement for me. I want to meet Casey. At that time, I'll talk to him about it. If he is not smart, I'll let him know how powerful the Sue family is. If he still refuse to agree with our request after that, I'll take some action against the Davies family." Darius said. That people immediately nodded. Then, he turned around, left the study and went to arrange a meeting between Casey and Darius.

After giving the report a glance, Darius sneered and murmured, "How is it possible that I'll let my daughter marry someone who has been known as a loser? I hope that he is smart. I'm not going to make him pay a price for what had happened to Edith, but I won't let him interfere with the future affairs of Edith. Otherwise, I'll take some action."

Sitting on the back seat of the taxi, Casey was looking out of the window while thinking about the phone call he had received before.

The head of the Sue family wanted to meet him.

Hearing it, he was a little surprised. After all, in his view, the head of the Sue family would not reason with him in person purely because he beat a maidservant up.

So Casey soon thought of a possibility: the head of the Sue family carried out an investigation into him because of what had happened to Emma and therefore guessed his purpose of coming to H City.

The head of the Sue family was going to talk about Edith with him in this meeting. Casey was willing to meet this person who might be Edith's biological father. He was a little curious about the origin of Edith and would like to take this opportunity to ask why Edith was abandoned in the past.

The driver gave Casey a glance in the rear-view, mirror asking, "Fella, are you really going to the Waldorf Astoria Hotel? I hear that it's a luxury five-star hotel. People who have dinner there all have hundreds of millions of dollars."

"Yes, someone invites me to a meal at that hotel and I have to go." Casey replied with a smile.

"Oh, look, you begin to brag. When you got on the car, I took a look at you. You're in plain clothes, and therefore you don't look like a rich man. Fella, listen, you young people tends to throw money to keep up with the Joneses. In fact, you don't have to. The food in greasy spoon in the alley is cheap and delicious. Why do you go to Waldorf Astoria Hotel, instead of greasy spoon? If you have no money to pay, you'll be forced to wash the dishes there. At that time, you'll know that you're wrong." The driver began to lecture Casey possibly because he hadn't chatted with others for a long time.

Casey was somewhat embarrassed, but he didn't mind. He joked, "To be honest, I can afford to buy the Waldorf Astoria Hotel."

The driver immediately widened his eyes and said, "You young people are better at bragging than I do. If you can really afford to buy that hotel, why would you go there by taxi? How dare you boast like that?"

Casey smiled and didn't say anything more. He didn't brag. The reason why he chose to take a taxi was that he liked to do so.

Before long, the taxi stopped at the door of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. After Casey got off the taxi, two attendants immediately approached him and asked, "Excuse me, are you Mr. Davies?"

Casey nodded.

"Please come with us. Mr. Sue is waiting for you in the hotel."

Then Casey entered the hotel with them.

Seeing this, the driver immediately widened his eyes and murmured, "My god, there is really someone inviting him to a meal at this hotel. This young man is not an ordinary people."

Chapter 547 There Is a Hundred billion Dollars in This Card

On the third floor of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

Darius was sitting at a table near the floor-to-ceiling window and was looking out of the window.

He had rented the entire floor, so he was not afraid that anyone would interrupt the meeting between him and Casey.

At this moment, there was a confidentiality agreement and a bank card on the table in front of Darius. He was very confident that he could persuade Casey.

Hustling and bustling, all for benefits. He didn't believe that Casey would be an exception. As long as he offered to give enough benefits to Casey, Casey would definitely give up taking Edith back home. If Casey insisted on that, it just meant that the benefits he had offered to give was not enough.

He was well prepared, so he was very confident in one thing: as long as he offered to give this bank card to Casey, Casey would definitely change his mind. Darius clearly knew how powerful the Davies family was. With the money in this bank card, Casey would be able to make the Davies family two times as powerful as it used to be. If Casey was not a fool, he wouldn't refuse.

Before long, Casey followed the two attendants to the third floor and came close to Darius.

After that, the two attendants were about to leave. Darius took out two piles of money and handed them to them. Both attendants were grateful. After taking the money, they left here quickly. Casey gave Darius a glance, finding that this middle-aged man was stable and generous, just like what the head of the Sue family should be like. Most importantly, Darius's appearance was somewhat similar to that of Edith. Seeing that, Casey was even sure that Darius was highly possibly the biological father of Edith.

Darius also looked at Casey up and down. Looking at the common young man who had no distinguishing features, Darius couldn't help despising him and hardened his resolve to keep Casey away from Edith.

"Sit down." Darius spoke to Casey. Without making the ritual noises, Casey sat opposite Darius.

"If you're smart, you should know why I ask you to come here. So I'm not going to talk in a roundabout way. Edith's my daughter, and I don't want any people and anything that used to be related to her to bother her again. If you come to H City to find her, I advise you to give up as soon as possible. Now, she's the young lady of the Sue family. I can support her for a better life. I hope that you'll never bother her again." Darius came straight to the point.

Casey smiled, saying, "She's my wife." Darius frowned and said, "I don't care about what the relationship between you and her was in the past. Now, she has a new identity. Past things have already had nothing to do with her. If you want her to live a good life, you shouldn't come to find her."

"Oh? I have a question. Why are you eligible to say those words to me?" Casey behaved in a playful way. Since Darius was not going to talk it over, Casey was not going to be polite to him. Darius immediately sneered and said, "I'm her father. I'm naturally eligible to say those words to you."

"Ho, ho. In the past more than twenty years, Edith has been living in J City and I've married her for several years. I've never heard that you're her father. If you're really her father, in the past more than twenty years, where have you been? Now, you want to take her away from me by just claiming yourself to be her father. It's too unreasonable for you to do so."

Darius was obviously a little unconfident, but he soon returned to a normal state, saying, "In that year, I was forced to abandon Edith. She could be said to be my illegitimate daughter. At that time, my wife was still alive. If she lived in my home, she would definitely suffer. So I had to send her mother and her to the north. I did it for her own good. Moreover, I'm her biological father, and we have blood relation. Considering only this, I'm eligible to make a decision for her."

Casey didn't expect Edith to have such experience in the past. She should be the illegitimate daughter of Darius! However, after hearing what Darius said, Casey was more convinced that he couldn't let Edith stay in the Sue family. Edith was sent to the north simply because she was his illegitimate daughter. And Darius even claimed that he did it for Edith's good.

It should be noticed that Nicolas found Edith near a trash bin. He didn't know why Edith's mother ruthlessly abandoned her, but there was just a few possibilities.

If Edith, who was still a baby at that time, was not found by Nicolas, she might have died at that time. And Darius should be chiefly responsible for it. According to Darius, the reason why he took Edith home was that his wife had passed away. Anyone would feel angry after hearing such an absurd reason. But Darius was very confident that he was right when he said these words. Casey couldn't understand Darius's thoughts.

"In the past so many years, you have nothing to do with her life. In the final analysis, you're but her biological father. Besides, Edith's foster parents had found her near a garbage can. If she was not lucky enough, she might have died. Now, how dare you say those words? Aren't you ashamed?" Casey scolded Darius.

After Darius heard it, his heart did a flip. He didn't expect that Edith would be left around a garbage can. He had never thought of it. In that year, he concentrated on concealing the fact that he had an illegitimate daughter from his wife. How was it possible that he would be concerned about Edith?

However, as the head of the Sue family, he would definitely still not be swayed by what Casey said. Now, he was at the critical point of building a good relationship with the Nelson family through Edith's marriage. It was absolutely impossible for him allow Edith to leave here with Casey.

"Enough! I don't ask you to come here to condemn me. It's an indisputable fact that Edith is my daughter. I know that you're the head of the Davies family. You may believe that you're somewhat powerful, and therefore want to take Edith away from me. However, I can specifically tell you that the Sue family is far more powerful than it seems to be. Being willing to talk to you here, I've showed you enough respect." Darius said with a cold expression.

Casey sneered. He knew that the Sue family was more powerful than it seemed to be. Moreover, he had already had a thorough understanding of the Sue family. But he was still not afraid of the Sue family.

"I know it's impossible for me to let you give up getting Edith back with a few words. We had talked it over. And I'm not going to play hardball with you. As long as you promise to leave Edith and sign this confidentiality agreement, I'll give you the benefit that is beyond your imagination." Darius said.

"The benefit that is beyond my imagination? I'm afraid that you've overestimated your family." Casey said.

Darius twitched his lips and said, "I haven't told you what the benefit is yet. How do you know that you didn't underestimate the Sue family?"

As he spoke, he pushed the bank card towards Casey, saying, "The Davies family is the most powerful family in B City. It could be said to be powerful. However, it's far from as powerful as the top families in the world."

"To be honest with you, the Sue family is as powerful as the top families in the world. As a matter of fact, it's ten times as powerful as it seems to be. As long as you promise to leave Edith, I'll help you in building the Davies family into an even powerful family."

"There are 30 billion dollars in this bank card. With these money, the Davies family could develop into a more powerful family. I'm sure that you know what these money means."

After saying that, Darius waited for Casey to put on a shocked expression with a confident smile.

In his opinion, 30 billion dollars was a large sum of money for the Davies family. Casey was a young man. Even if he was the head of the Davies family now, he would definitely be shocked after hearing it.

However, there was not any surprise on Casey's face. He just gave that bank card a glance. Then, he pushed it back. Darius was somewhat surprised, saying, "30 billion dollars is not a small sum of money. I'm afraid that there isn't so much cash in the Davies family. You can build the Davies family into a more powerful family with these money. Are you sure that you don't want it?"

Casey smiled and said, "The development of the Davies family is none of your business. I just want to get Edith back. Don't try to change my mind with some tricks."

"You want to handle this matter with money, so I'll follow your example."

As Casey spoke, he took out a bank card from his pocket and put it on the table and in front of Darius.

Darius gave Casey a glance with a suspicious expression and said, "Don't you think it ridiculous for you to do so in my presence?"

"Why would it be ridiculous? You want to settle this matter with money. I also want to get Edith back by giving you money. Is there anything wrong with that?" Casey said with a smile.

Darius sneered and said, "There is 30 billion dollars in my bank card. Do you think it possible that you can change my mind with a little money?"

"There is a hundred billion dollars in my bank card." Casey said tonelessly. Darius was froze for a moment. He was shocked after hearing the number. Even he, the head of the Sue family, would attach some importance to a hundred billion dollars.

"How about that? These money should be enough to sway you. Give Edith back to me, and I'll forgive your past misdeeds. I'll leave here with Edith and try to help her revive her memory. In the future, she will definitely have nothing to do with the Sue family." Casey said.

Darius took a deep breath. He found that he couldn't immediately refuse. It meant that he indeed wanted to take the a hundred billion dollars.

The reason why Darius tried every means to flatter the Nelson family was that he wanted to develop the Sue family. However, even if Edith was married to someone of the Nelson family, the Nelson family would definitely not give the Sue family a hundred billion dollars.

A hundred billion dollars was no match for the benefits he could get from the Nelson family. However, with these money, Darius could implement many of his ideas. Most importantly, in this way, he didn't have to grovel to people of the Nelson family.

After thinking for a moment, Darius sneered and said, "Do you really consider me to be silly? To get a hundred billion dollars, I'm afraid that you have to sell most property of the Davies family. Do you think that I'll believe that there is a hundred billion dollars in that bank card after you said it casually?"

Casey smiled and said calmly, "You can ask someone to come here to audit the accounts. If there isn't, I'll immediately leave H City and I'll never come to find Edith again."

#Chapter 549 Make the Sue Family Disappear from the World

"Why...Why are you here? This is the Sue Villa. Who permits you to come in?"

Emma said with a trembling voice.

She had thought that Casey wouldn't be able to escape punishment because Darius would deal with him in person. Unexpectedly, this guy came into the Sue Villa. He was so bold!

"Where is your young lady?" Casey asked.

Emma took two steps back. She deeply feared Casey who would slapped her in the face without any hesitation.

"Emma, what's going on?" Edith asked softly in her room. She heard it when Emma dropped the bowl, so she came out to have a look.

Emma immediately turned around, looked at Edith and said while crying, "Miss Edith, the guy who beat me up should break into our house! It's really terrible! Quick, come into your room! Don't be hurt by this guy."

Edith immediately frowned and cast a glance at Casey.

Seeing Edith, Casey no longer showed any air of forcefulness. Besides, his eyes became tender.

"Edith, how are you doing here? Did they treat you badly?" Feeling a little nervous, Casey asked.

Edith had believed what Emma said, considering Casey to be an evil person who would beat others for no reason. She was really angry that Casey had beaten Emma up when Emma kindly tried to help him.

Before, Darius had told her that Casey was a fraud. Therefore, she now fully believed that Casey came to her with ill intentions.

To protect Emma, Edith stretched out her hand and stood between Emma and Casey. Then, she stared angrily at Casey and said, "Why do you do this? I'm not your enemy. Why must you come to make trouble for us? You have injured Emma badly before. Now, you break into my house. Could it be that you want to hurt someone in my house?"

Hearing it, Casey was immediately stunned. He explained, "I don't come here to make trouble for you. Edith, I'm Casey. You're my wife. I come here to take you back to our home."

Edith clenched her fists slightly, snorted and said, "You can't fool me. I already know that you're a fraud. I'm Sylvie, not the Edith you mentioned. It's wrong for you to beat Emma. Now, you're wrong again when you break into my house. I'll call the police now and you'll be arrested!"

"Edith, the reason why I beat her up is that she made offensive remarks to me and made trouble for me with other people. You know me best. If this maidservant hadn't gone too far, I wouldn't beat her up." Casey explained. "You're lying! I kindly went to help you. However, you were so vicious that you beat me and even made a lot of offensive remarks to our young lady. Now, you come here to lie to our young lady. Do you really believe that you can easily fool our young lady?" Emma said with indignation while staring at Casey. Edith took hold of her arm and comforted her, "Emma, I know that you've suffered grievance. Don't worry. I won't believe this fraud."

After saying that, she looked at Casey, questioning, "Aren't you going to leave here before I call the police?"

Seeing Edith say that seriously, Casey didn't know what to say.

He guessed that the maidservant named Emma had lied to Edith before and that Edith had believed what Emma said because she had heard it before.

No matter what he said now, Edith would believe that he was lying.

Now, Edith lost her memory and didn't know their story at all. She believed that she was the young lady of the Sue family. Because of it, Casey was at a disadvantage.

At this moment, Darius also came here. After he arrived here, he immediately said, "Edith, don't believe anything this guy said. He knocked down bodyguards and wanted to do something harmful to you. He had made up everything to fool you!"

Seeing that Darius was anxious, Edith nodded seriously at him and said, "Dad, don't worry. I've already known what sort of person he is and I won't believe what he says."

Darius was a little surprised, but he felt relieved after hearing Edith say so.

Seeing Edith say so with a seriously expression, Casey was anxious to let her know that she had been blinded by these people. However, he also knew that it was rather difficult for Edith, who had lost her memory, to know that. He had a sense of helplessness. He even wanted to take Edith away and then to come back to J City with her. At that time, he would ask Owen to help revive her memory.

However, he knew that it would only make Edith dislike him more. If there was a problem with reviving Edith's memory because of it, it'll be too bad. "Hey, you're good at fighting, but we don't fear you. If you're really going to do something else, you'll only have a worse consequence than you have anticipated." Darius stared at Casey alertly.

Today, the experts in fighting of the Sue family were not here. It never occurred to him that Casey would directly break into his house. If any of his bodyguards had come here with him, he would not be so nervous now.

"Dad, let's call the police, so that this evil person will be arrested." Edith said seriously.

Darius smiled helplessly. Judging from the fact that Casey could easily raise a hundred billion dollars, to deal with Casey, it was useless to call the police. Out of Darius's expectation, Casey spoke after hearing what Edith said, "You don't have to. I'm leaving now." After saying that, Casey gave Edith a glance with mixed feelings. Then, he turned around and went downstairs.

Darius was somewhat surprised, but he was still alert. After asking Edith and Emma to stay upstairs, he followed Casey to the first floor.

Casey directly left the villa while thinking about how to help Edith revive her memory. After Edith revived her memory, she wouldn't be blinded by people of the Sue family.

Darius followed Casey to the outside of the villa and found that Casey was really leaving. He knew that Casey was a little helpless because of Edith's attitude towards him.

He sneered and spoke to Casey, "Guy, give it up. Edith has forgot you for a long time. You had better not bother her now."

Casey stopped. After turning his head and giving Darius a glance, he said coldly, "For the time being, Edith lives here. If you dare to treat her badly, I'll not let you get away with it."

"Sooner or later, I'll take Edith away. If you stop me, I'll make the Sue family disappear from the world."

Chapter 550 Being Misunderstood
At the shared apartment.

After coming close to the door, Casey took out the key, opened the door and entered the apartment.

Today, he was somewhat sad because Edith treated him in that way. His wife, who had an intimate relationship with him, suddenly considered him to be a stranger. She even thought that he was a fraud and wanted to call the police so that he would be arrested. Anyone thought of that would find it a little hard to accept.

Under such a circumstance, it was impossible for Casey to directly take Edith away. At least, he had to deal with the Sue family first. Only in this way could he have more chances to meet Edith. Besides, after successfully dealing with the Sue family, he could ask Darius to tell Edith what he had concealed from her.

He had to be patient. H City was not within the sphere of the influence of Casey, so he needed Nadia's help in dealing with the Sue family. He had to talk with Nadia over this matter.

Therefore, Casey decided to move out of the shared apartment and live in Nadia's company. In this way, he could have better communication with Nadia. It seemed that Nadia had an advance to him, the young master of Guanling. Besides, when she tried to seduce someone, most of the men couldn't resist her. However, in current situation, Casey had no other way.

He came to Fudan University to look for Edith. After knowing for sure that Edith was in the Sue Villa, he was not going to waste time in Fudan University anymore.

The public lecture he should give was not important. If he had time, he might come to give the lecture. If he had no time, he would not come.

His top priority now was to figure out a way to deal with the Sue family, made Darius tell Edith the truth and then helped Edith revive her memory.

When he entered the apartment, he saw that Elodie was speaking to Nova. The moment the door was opened, they immediately talking and looked at the door.

After Casey went in, Elodie hurriedly stood up. At the same time, she pulled Nova so that Nova also stood up. They stared at Casey warily while he came to stand behind the sofa, trying to stay as far away from Casey as possible.

Seeing their reaction, Casey didn't say anything. He just went upstairs to pack up his belongings.

After that, Elodie was relieved and then spoke to Nova in a low voice, "Nova, what I just told you is true. This guy has beaten the people of the Sue family. I saw it with my own eyes. Do you think it possible that people of the Sue family would let him get away with it?"

Nova stared at Elodie with a frown and asked, "But I just heard at school that Casey had donated a billion dollars to our school. How is it possible for a person like him to beat people up for no reason?"

"It's true that that guy has donated a billion dollars to our school. However, this is exactly the reason why he dares to hit the people of the Sue family. He believes that he's rich, so he looks down upon the people of the Sue family.

Today, people of the Sue family came to reason with him. But he slapped that person in the face for no reason. That person was badly injured. By the way, at that time, I took a photo."

As Elodie spoke, she took out her mobile phone and showed Nova a picture. It was indeed a picture of Casey's slapping Emma in the face. In fact, Elodie had even secretly videotaped the event. However, the conversation between Casey and Emma was also recorded. If others heard the conversation, others would know that Casey didn't beat Emma up for no reason. Therefore, Elodie was not going to show the video to others.

Seeing that picture, Nova was shocked. She didn't expect that Casey would really beat other people up.

"It never occurs to me that Casey is such a person." Nova murmured.

"So we can't let him live here anymore. Now he has offended the Sue family. Even if he's so rich that he could donate a billion dollars, he couldn't deal with the Sue family. The people of the Sue family won't easily let him get away with it. Since we live in the same apartment with him, we might be affected."

"This guy is a two-faced person. Didn't you find that he treats you totally differently from me? It means that he has an advance to you. He also tends to beat people up. It's a great risk to continue to live with him."

Hearing that, Nova was swayed. Now, she also thought that it was dangerous to live with someone like Casey, so she nodded.

After all, she knew how good at fighting Casey was. If Casey really wanted to harm them, they wouldn't be able to protect themselves at all.

Seeing that Nova had changed her mind, Elodie secretly laughed and went on speaking, "Since you agree, let's make it clear to him and ask him to move out later."

Before, Casey finished his packing and went downstairs.

There weren't many items he needed to take with him. After putting some useful items into his backpack, Casey went downstairs with the backpack.

Seeing Casey coming down, Elodie took a deep breath and then approached Casey.

"Casey, I've discussed it with Nova. You beat the people of the Sue family, so the people of the Sue family won't let you off. If you continue to live here, we'll definitely be affected. So we've decided that you should move out. We're girls. If you're a man of conscience, move out."

Elodie said.

Casey had intended to tell them that he was going to move out. Unexpectedly, Elodie was so anxious that she came to ask him to move out before he told them the news.

He turned his head and gave Nova a glance, finding that she looked at him with the eyes different from that of before. Her eyes had been clear. Now, there was a little fear in her eyes.

Besides, there was also some disgust or dislike in her eyes.

Casey could guess that Elodie had said something to her without thinking about it.

Casey remembered that he was questioned by Edith today. Now, Nova also changed her opinion of him. Being misunderstood, Casey felt bad.

But he would leave here right now, so he was not going to explain.

He gave Elodie a glance and said, "I'm going to tell you that I'll move out now. Annie has rented the room in this apartment for me. Please tell her that I've moved out for me."

Hearing this, both Elodie and Nova were stunned. They didn't expect that Casey would take the initiative to move out.

"Humph, I'm glad that you have some self-knowledge. I'll tell Annie that. Leave here right away and never come back again." After realizing what Casey had said, Elodie was very happy.

Casey came out of the apartment with his backpack without any hesitation.

Elodie hurriedly went to close the door.

After that, she smiled at Nova in a relaxed way and said, "We finally get rid of this terrible man."

She went to the sofa, sitting down and said earnestly, "That guy must have realized he's in great trouble, so he wants to run away. When he beat others up, he forgot who he was. After that, it's useless to regret it."

Nova sighed helplessly and no longer thought about Casey. She would just regard having been out of her mind as the reason for having had some fancy about Casey.
