

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 551

He Is My Friend

Lan Couch Group.

Now it was getting dark. The street was noisy and full of traffic. There were few lights in the whole building of Lan Couch Group. Most staff had already gone home, leaving only some who were on duty.

Casey stood outside the gate of Lan Couch Group, looking at the locked gate and thinking for an instant.

He had planned not to tell Nadia, but to come directly to her company and find a place to rest. It would save him the trouble.

But now Casey realized that he did not have the key to Nadia's company.

When Casey asked Nadia for the key several days ago, Nadia said that she would give him a key, but she hadn't given it to him. Now it seemed that Nadia meant to do so.

Casey sighed helplessly then he took out his phone and called her.

"I'm at the gate of your company now. I don't have the key. Please let someone send it to me," Casey said.

He heard the noisy music and people chatting loudly on the phone. Nadia said in her sweet voice, "I am busy in social engagement. You can come here to find me. The address is the Emperor KTV. I'm in the VIP room."

Then she hung up the phone instantly.

Casey sighed again.

"I always sigh like an old man these days,” he mocked himself. Then he walked to the side of the road and took a taxi to the Emperor KTV.

It didn't take long before he arrived at the gate of the Emperor KTV. He got out of the car and entered the place. He asked the waiter where the VIP room was and walked to it.

He intended to take the key from Nadia and then go back to Lan Couch Group, so he called Nadia to let her step out of the room.

Nadia told him that she got drunk, and the people who were drinking with her were all middle-aged men. She was afraid that she would be assaulted by them later. She asked Casey to enter the VIP room, otherwise, she would not give him the key.

Casey had no choice but to push the door open and get in.

There were dazzling lights shining and the music playing loudly in the room. He saw these so-called successful people sat the sofa, female and male. Sitting inside are some successful people in the traditional sense, both men and women.

Nadia stood out among them. Casey saw her sitting in the middle of the sofa, with several middle-aged men staring at her lustfully.

When he appeared in the room, these people immediately turned to look at him. They looked puzzled because they didn't know him.

Nadia stood up from the sofa. She walked to Casey and said with a smile, “Let me introduce him to you, this is my boy...”

Nadia intended to say that Casey was her boyfriend. But he glared at her before she said it. Nadia obediently changed her words.

“He is my best friend.”

At first, these middle-aged men looked bad when they heard Nadia said the first sentence. However, when Nadia finished her words, they looked better.

Casey looked at Nadia helplessly. He didn't expect to be her best friend.

Nadia grabbed his arm and dragged him to sit on the sofa. Casey politely greeted the people around him. Now he had been here. He couldn't leave. He could only wait for her and then leave here with her later.

He had just been understood and felt depressed. He decided to drink some wine to relieve his mood here.

“He is shy and says little. I hope you will excuse him. He came here to pick me up in case I get drunk tonight. I'll drink the glass of wine as an apology. Have a good time.”

Then Nadia picked up the glass in front of her and gulped it down.

What she did impress Casey deeply. He admired her sociability in his heart. It was sensible for Terence to appoint her to be in charge of the company in H City.

Casey sat beside Nadia and watching her entertaining those people. Casey got to know that these people were the clients of Lan Couch. Today they had signed a business contract, so they held a party to celebrate it.

The middle-aged men kept toasting. She drank all the wine that they proposed. She still looked clear after having drunk so much wine. She did have a good drinking capacity.

A bald middle-aged man felt unhappy when he saw Nadia treated Casey closely. He proposed a toast to Casey. "Bro, don't just sit there. Now that you are Nadia's best friend, so you must also be a successful person. I am the boss of Fragrant Beauty Cosmetic Company. Nice to meet you."

Casey greeted him, picked up a glass of wine, then drank it.

Barnaby Cox also drank the wine without hesitation. Then he asked him tentatively, "Bro, what's your job?"

"Well, I'm jobless," Casey said.

When Barnaby heard Casey said that he was jobless, he glanced at him in disdain. Because he saw that Casey was dressed in plain clothes, he didn't suspect his words.

"Haha, bro, you must be kidding. If you are jobless, how can you become Nadia's best friend?" Barnaby said with a smile. He felt that although Casey was Nadia's best friend, he was an ordinary person and wouldn't threaten him. He just ignored him.

Casey smiled without saying anything. They continued to chat. After a while, they began to talk about the beautiful women in H City.

Nadia, as the famous socialite in H City, came out top.

As they talked, Barnaby smirked and said, "Nadia is beautiful. But I have found a pure and gentle beauty recently. She is the eldest daughter of the Sue family. She is very attractive."

Several men echoed. They said that they had met that lady before and she was very pretty.

Because of the influence of alcohol, Barnaby said without scruple, "I have slept with many women. but I never meet a woman like Miss Sue. I have long wanted to have sex with her."

When he finished his words, the men in the room burst into laughter, while the women also smiled. They were adults and had drunk a lot of wine. It was normal to talk about this kind of topic. However, they didn't notice Casey's cold and grim expression. He wanted to kill these men in mind.

Nadia knew that Miss Sue was the person that Casey was looking for. She also knew her status in Casey's heart. So she stopped Barnaby and said, "Mr. Cox ladies are present. Please don't say such a thing."

Barnaby laughed and said, "So what? They are all adults and know what I mean. To be honest, Miss Sue is ..."
Suddenly, someone slapped his face and interrupted him.

Chapter 552 She Had A Bad Temper
Barnaby was hit on the body of another man who was sitting on another side of the sofa. He was dizzy and confused. Everyone was shocked by this scene. Then they turned to look at Casey. At this time, Casey looked cold and gloomy. He stood beside Nadia and stared at Barnaby fiercely.

Someone went to turn off the lights and music in the room. Now it was deadly quiet here. The atmosphere was very sutling.

Nadia frowned and sighed helplessly. She thought that Barnaby just asked for it. She had stopped him but he didn't listen to her. Now Casey was furious. Barnaby was in big trouble.

When Barnaby came to his senses, he immediately stared at Casey angrily. He shouted, "Are you crazy? How dare you hit me? Are you looking for trouble?"

Casey stared at Barnaby coldly and said, "Apologize to Miss Sue, NOW."

Barnaby got furious. He despised Casey since he told him that he was jobless. He treated him kindly just because of Nadia.

He had just contracted with Nadia today. He was the biggest client of Lan Couch Group among the people in this room. He should be the most respected person today.

Now Nadia's so-called best friend slapped him and asked him to apologize to Miss Sue. How dare he!

"How dare you to command me? I just made jokes. Do you let me apologize? It's you who should apologize to me!"

Barnaby shouted at Casey.

Nadia said to Barnaby, "Mr. Cox, you did something wrong. You should make an apology. You'd better apologize first, otherwise, it will be worse."

When Barnaby heard her words, he thought that Nadia wouldn't dare to irritate him because he was the client of Lan Couch Group. He said, "Apologize? No way! He is just a hobo. Look at the clothes he wears. Only beggars will wear such rags. I'm so polite that I could stand sitting with him. But he dared to hit me. He doesn't know who he is."

"Nadia, you called him here. Let him apologize to me, otherwise our contract will be invalid."

Others thought that Casey should apologize to Barnaby. Barnaby was an important figure. Casey shouldn't hit him.

"Chairman Nadia, you'd better let your friend apologize to Mr. Cox. It will do harm to your company if you offended Mr. Cox."

"Yes, Mr. Cox just made jokes. It had nothing with him. Does your friend love Miss Sue? Is it the reason why he hit Mr. Cox?"

"Man, apologize to Mr. Cox. Miss Sue doesn't know you. Even if you like her, be aware of your identity."

...

They began to speak for Barnaby. After all, he was an important figure who couldn't be offended easily.

"Enough!" Nadia shouted.

Everyone thought Nadia was going to scold Casey for Barnaby. And they looked at him with gloating eyes.

However, Nadia glared at all the people present and shouted, "How dare you scold my boss?"

They looked at Nadia in disbelief.

Nadia turned to look at Barnaby, stretched out her hand to point at him, and scolded, "You bastard. How dare you to think Miss Sue like that? My boss just slapped you and let you apologize to her. He is very polite. Don't push your luck. Do you think you can threaten me?"

Barnaby was stunned. Although he didn't know why Nadia suddenly scolded all of them, he knew that Nadia was going to help Casey.

"Nadia, why did you talk to me in this way?" Barnaby asked irritably.

"That's the way I talk! So what? You bastard!" Nadia said angrily.

She had drunk a lot of wine and lost her temper now. She wanted to solve the problem for Casey.

Casey also didn't expect Nadia to help him so much, and his heart was also a little surprised. However, considering that Nadia, the Blue Kou Group, was just a layer of disguise, her status as a socialite forced her to deal with these people.

She was arranged by Guanling to be in charge of the company in H City. She had a bad temper. At ordinary times, she would press her temper down. But now Casey was here, she didn't care about others' threatening at all.

"Well, you asked for it. The cooperation between my company and yours is terminated. There is no possibility of discussing it again. Don't regret it!"

Barnaby said in arrogance.

Nadia sneered and said, "I don't care. Tonight, anyone who has spoken for Barnaby will be put on our blacklist later. We won't cooperate with you in the future anymore."

Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect that Nadia to do so. They are big and important clients of Lan Couch Group. What she did would destroy Lan Couch Group.

"Chairman Nadia, are you serious? It will cost great losses to your company.

Do you really want to do so just for this man?" A man asked.

Nadia laughed and said, "Don't be ridiculous. All of you are just small businesses. I came here just for fun. Do you think that we will care about you?"

The man felt embarrassed. He snorted and stopped persuading her. Since she chose to do so, he wouldn't stop her.

Barnaby also looked at Nadia angrily and said, "There is no need to talk about it. Our company will terminate the cooperation with you tomorrow. Nadia, I know you are still young and naïve. You will regret what you did tonight in the future."

Then he stood up from the sofa, stared at Casey, then he started to leave the room.

At this time, Casey blocked his way and said to him, "You haven't apologized to Miss Sue. I won't let you go."

Chapter 553 Drunken Nadia

Barnaby stared at Casey. He had passed over his slap. However, he blocked his way and forced him to make an apology. It was unbearable for him.

"What are you talking about? I have already passed over your slap. Don't push your luck. Now I have terminated my cooperation with Lan Couch Group, so I won't care about Nadia's feelings. You are just her friend. I won't let you off." Barnaby shouted at Casey.

"I have just given you the chance to apologize. But you didn't cherish it. You ask for it," Casey said tonelessly.

"So what? I want to sleep with Miss Sue. What could you do to me? Don't be ridiculous. You are just a hobo," Barnaby scolded.

Casey didn't say anything. He just kicked Barnaby in the belly. His body was hit against the table instantly.

Everyone was startled by this scene.

They ran to hide in the corner. Some people looked at Casey in terror. They didn't expect that he was so powerful.

Barnaby fell on the table and moaned for a while. Then he gritted his teeth against the pain and sat up from the table.

He looked at Casey with resentment and shouted, "You are looking for trouble now! Believe it or not, I'll send someone to kill you!"

Casey twitched his mouth, walked towards Barnaby, and said, "It's a waste of time for you to call somebody to come here. I'll teach you a lesson."

Then Casey grabbed Barnaby by the collar, pulled him down from the table, and began to beat him up.

Barnaby had no strength to fight back.

He could only wait for Casey's fist like a hammer to hit him violently.

All the people were scared when they saw this scene. Some people gasped and felt that it was too cruel.

For a long time, Barnaby finally couldn't bear it. He waved his hand to Casey and said in a weak voice, "I... I'm wrong.

Please, I beg you. Please stop.

Otherwise, I'll die."

Then Casey stopped and said to Barnaby, "Make an apology."

Barnaby suffered the pain and apologized with a bitter look, "I shouldn't talk Miss Sue in that way. I am a bastard. I promise I will never say such things again. Please forgive me."

Then Casey let Barnaby go, turned to look at Nadia, and said, "Let's go."

Nadia nodded and followed Casey out of the room.

At the door of the KTV, Casey turned to look at her and said, "Thank you."

Nadia smiled and said, "Boss, it's my duty. I couldn't help those foolish guys. But if you really want to appreciate it, you can date me."

Casey felt helpless and said, "Give me the key. I'll go to the company. Just go home."

Nadia turned to be weak and pressed her body against him.

"Boss, Nadia drank so much wine. I felt dizzy now. Can you bear to let me go home alone? If I meet what gangsters on the way, it will be very dangerous."

Casey looked at Nadia who was leaning against his arms. She seemed not afraid of falling on the ground if he dodged her. He sighed helplessly and supported her with his hands.

"Aren't you afraid that I'm also a gangster?" Casey asked.

Nadia giggled and said in a sweet and happy voice, "It is my dream to be with you. Boss, you can treat me like this. I like it."

Casey just wanted to push Nadia away and turn to leave here.

"Come on, stop saying these things.

Give me the key. I know your driver must be around here," Casey said.

Nadia looked depressed. She looked at him pettishly and said, "Since you are going to the company, I will go with you. Anyway, I want to follow you. The company is big, and I must ensure your safety.”

Then Nadia made a phone call to her driver.

They got in the car. Nadia asked the driver to take them directly to Lan Couch Group.

Casey was a little helpless. He didn't know how to deal with her.

On the way, because she had drunk too much wine, Nadia felt dizzy and couldn't help but fall down to the side.

She didn't pretend it this time. She was really dizzy because of the wine.

She leaned towards Casey's shoulder, and he immediately held her head and said, “Keep straight.”

“Boss, I... I got drunk. How can you treat me so cruelly?” Nadia said weakly.

Casey frowned and found that Nadia was not pretending.

“You lean against the window,” Casey replied.

“You are cruel,” Nadia said and then pressed herself against the other side of the window.

When they arrived at Lan Couch Group, Casey got off the car. He saw Nadia lying in the back seat. He sighed helplessly. Then he went over and helped Nadia get off the car and said, “Give me the key. I need to open the door.”

Nadia pointed to her chest and motioned that the key was there.

Casey glanced at her chest and found a necklace hanging around her neck. If he guessed correctly, the key should be tied to the necklace.

He looked down at her breast and couldn't help swallowing his saliva. He thought that she must put the key there intentionally.

He caught the necklace around her neck, pulled the key out of her breast, and then went to open the door.

However, if he released her, she would fall to the ground. He had to hold her and walked to the door, opened the door with the key, and took her in.

When they walked into the building, Nadia suddenly stopped and said to Casey, "I can't walk, boss. I want you to carry me to walk."

Casey stared at her and found that she was really drunk, so he had to lift her up and take her into the room.

Nadia smiled with satisfaction. She stretched out her hands and put her arms around his neck.

There were some special rooms for employees to rest in Lan Couch Group. Casey took Nadia to one of those rooms, pushed the door open, and put her on the bed.

Now there were only the two of them in this building, Casey and Nadia. She was a very attractive woman. When he took the key just now, Casey felt that he got erectile.

Therefore, Casey wanted to leave this room quickly and find another room to rest.

However, Nadia seemed to know that he was going to leave. She held Casey's neck tightly and didn't let him go.

They had stayed close to each other for a few minutes. Casey felt the faint fragrance of her body and the smell of alcohol, and his heart beat faster.

“Let go of me, or I will do it myself,”

Casey said.

With her eyes closed, Nadia laughed and said, “You’ll do it? Great. Come on.”

Casey was speechless. Then he grabbed her wrist and got her hands loosened.

When Casey started to walk, Nadia suddenly said, “Boss, don’t go.”

“Just sleep,” Casey said.

“I can’t move and I am weak now. What can I do?”

“It’s good. It saves my trouble,” Casey replied.

Chapter 554 Forgive me, Lord

The next morning.

When Nadia woke up, the first thing she did was to lift the quilt and check her own body.

When she saw that all her clothes were still on, she felt disappointed.

"Is there anything wrong with Lord? He didn't do anything to me at such a good chance last night? " Nadia muttered.

She got off the bed, turned around her neck that was a bit stiff, and then went out of the room.

Just then, she remembered something suddenly, and her face was flushed. "If there is nothing wrong with my memory, I remembered that I wanted to go to the toilet last night, but I didn't have much strength. I asked Lord to help me..."

With this in mind, Nadia looked down at her pants immediately to make sure that she neither wet herself nor dried her pant after leaking in it. After looking at her pants, she was relieved.

Since she didn't leak in her pants, and she was too drunk to go to the toilet last night by herself, it must be Casey that had helped her.

Thinking of this, Nadia blushed. Even she had been a socialite, she was a little shy at this time.

After a long time, Nadia recovered and she went out.

As soon as she went out, she saw Casey, who also came out of the room just then. A bad smile appeared on his face suddenly. She came to Casey and asked, "Lord, did you do anything to me last night?"

Casey rolled his eyes at Nadia and said, "No."

"Oh, don't lie to me. I remembered that I wanted to go to the toilet last night. At that time, if without your help, I couldn't be able to go to the toilet myself.

Maybe I couldn't even take off my pants. You dare say that you didn't do anything to me. Lord, you are so naughty." Nadia said so on purpose.

Casey showed a trace of embarrassment, and he coughed gently, and said, "Don't talk nonsense. It had nothing to do with me if you had gone to the toilet."

Nadia went up to Casey, reached out her hands and grabbed Casey's collar and said with a smile, "Lord, I see. Since you don't want to talk about it, I will stop here. This is a little secret between us..."

As soon as she finished, a woman came out from the room on the other side. Seeing Casey and Nadia "flirting with each other" seemingly, she turned around to return her room quickly.

When Casey saw her, he said immediately, "Come here."

The woman had no choice but to walk towards them.

Nadia looked at the woman puzzlingly. She was the human resource manager of her company. Nadia didn't know why she was here.

"Explain to her what happened last night." Casey said.

The woman coughed for several times, and she turned to Nadia obviously frightened.

"Tell me." Nadia said.

"Last night... Last night I was on duty in the company. When I went out to check that the power was off, I met this gentleman. This gentleman told me that you were drunk and wanted to use the toilet, and then he asked me to take you to the toilet..." the woman explained with great care.

Nadia's face turned blue suddenly. She didn't expect that nothing happened last night. She thought that something embarrassing and interesting would have happened when Casey took her to the toilet, but she didn't expect that Casey had found someone else to help her.

She looked at Casey bitterly, with mixed feelings in her eyes. At the beginning, because of Casey's special identity, she wanted to try him, such as having a one-night stand or something like that. She didn't resist such affairs, let alone he was the Lord of Guanling.

However, she did not expect that this Lord was really so determined that he had no interest in any other woman except his wife.

This aroused her ambition. Now she didn't just want to have an affair with Casey. Her self-esteem told her that she must conquer Casey. Only in this way could she prove her charm.

"Well, don't think about it anymore. What happened last night should have provoked the man named Barnaby. It seemed that he had brought people to your company to make trouble." Casey said.

Nadia was full of anger and grievance at that time. Since Barnaby was looking for trouble, she would vent her anger on Barnaby.

After glancing at Casey with great pride, Nadia turned around and walked toward the other end of the corridor.

The human resource manager also glanced at Casey and then left.

Barnaby, as the boss of Fragrant Beauty Cosmetic Company, thought that he still occupied a certain position in the cosmetics industry. He was beaten like that by Casey last night, and then was made apologize. Obviously, he would not let go of this.

However, he didn't know that Lan Couch group was just a disguise for Nadia.

This woman didn't put the Nelson family on her mind. How could she be afraid of a small cosmetics company like this.

In order to make himself more confident, Barnaby invited several company managers who had been drinking with him yesterday. They had already reached an agreement to have a showdown with Lan Couch group to let Nadia understand her loss. In this way, as soon as she regretted, they would be able to get a lot of benefits from Lan Couch group.

However, what they didn't expect was that Nadia took a very tough approach and shocked everyone.

After a whole morning's negotiation, Barnaby and his party finally left the Lan Couch group building dejectedly.

According to the security guard at the gate of the Lan Couch group building, the first thing they did after leaving the building was to beat Barnaby up.

In the afternoon on the same day, the media reported that Fragrant Beauty Cosmetic Company announced bankruptcy and the boss Barnaby was suspected of running away.

Although the companies of those who came with Barnaby did not go bankrupt, they also suffered a great impact. Hardly could they make profits again in a short time.

For Lan Couch group, the business of Fragrant Beauty Cosmetic Company could only be regarded as a Penny?ante. Neither Nadia nor Casey had paid attention to it at all.

Barnaby had been punished, so they would not take this matter seriously.

Now, the most important thing in Casey's mind was to find Edith.

Therefore, he must control Darius before he could carry out his further plan.

In the office.

Casey and Nadia were sitting opposite to each other.

Nadia was making tea. When the tea was prepared, she poured a cup for Casey.

Casey took a sip of the tea and then asked, " Edith is in Darius' hands now, so he is fearless. If I want to get Edith out, I must control Darius first. Do you have any specific methods?"

Nadia laughed and said, "I've never put my mind on the Nelson family. The Sue family is not even as powerful as the Nelson family. How could I not be able to deal with them?"

"Lord, as long as you promise to marry me, I'll ask someone to destroy the Sue family and take Edith back for you."

Nadia said with a smile.

Casey glanced at her, then took out a token from his clothes, which was the Token of War representing the power of Guanling.

"What? If I want you to do something for me, I have to meet your requirements now?"

Nadia's face changed when she saw the Token of War. She realized that she was joking too much, because Casey had been so easygoing these days that she almost forgot that this person in front of her was the one who had the power to decide her destiny.

She stood up from her seat, lowered her head, and reproached herself by saying:

"Lord, I'm a little complacent. Please forgive me."

"Don't make such jokes anymore. I only have my wife in my heart. If you say that again, don't blame me for not showing pity and tenderness to you." Casey said.

"Yes." Nadia nodded quickly.

"Tell me what you can do to deal with the Sue family." Casey went on.

Nadia became serious this time, and did not dare to joke with Casey anymore.

She said, "In fact, it's very easy to deal with the Sue family. As long as you control the industries on which the Sue family currently depends, Darius will take the initiative to plead you."

"I happen to be holding several large orders of the sue family in my hand. If these orders were cancelled, the Sue family will experience a very hard time."

Chapter 555 Provoked Someone Who Shouldn't be Provoked

In the villa of the Sue family.

Darius was still complacent about Edith's attitude towards Casey. He didn't expect Edith not only didn't recall anything about Casey, but also became disgusted with Casey, which was somewhat quite unexpected to him.

Anyway, as long as Edith refused to go with Casey, he had nothing to worry about, and he didn't think Casey had the capital to compete with the Sue family.

"This guy used to say blatantly that he would let the Sue family disappear in the world. When I think about this, I felt that it's so ridiculous. 100 billion won't be enough to give him the confidence to say this." Darius murmured.

He looked down at the orders on his table, and he couldn't help but smile.

These orders were the very large orders the Sue family had won recently. The profit to be brought by these orders to the Sue family would surpass the amount in Casey's card.

"Now the Sue family is booming. If we could get help from the Nelson family, it is hopeful that we will become the world's top family. How could that guy named Casey know what the world's top family means? I will wait until then to think of a way to get rid of this hidden danger."

Darius thought about the development plan of the Sue family with great satisfaction, but soon, he frowned, because he suddenly realized that if Casey came to cause trouble after the Nelson family came back, the Nelson family would definitely investigate in this matter, at that time, it would be impossible to hide Edith's pregnancy. If it went on like that, the marriage with the Nelson family would be ruined.

"It seems that I still have to find a way to get rid of Casey as soon as possible. He is very strong. If the masters of the Sue family insist on killing him, they would be able to kill him, but once he runs away, it will be a disaster."

"He is not deserved for me to invite someone from the Pantheon to deal with him, is he? What about I go to Guanling in these days and ask the masters on the List of the Ares to deal with him?"

While Darius was thinking about how to get rid of Casey, there was a knock on the door.

"Come in." Darius came back to himself and said.

A middle-aged man with a pair of glasses walked in from outside, with a look of anxiety on his face.

"Mr. Sue, bad news. Just now the company called me and said that there were problems with the several orders we got recently, and the ordering companies want to cancel all the orders." The middle-aged man said.

Darius got up from his seat immediately, staring at the middle-aged man, and said, "What are you talking about! Want to cancel? They want to cancel which order?"

"All...all of the orders." The middle-aged man said cautiously.

Darius's face turned blue instantly, and he asked, "Why? Why do they want to cancel the orders? We have just got these orders, and we haven't started the production yet. What's wrong with these orders?"

The middle-aged man lowered his head and said: "I don't know about the details. The ordering parties have already decided, and they plan to see you and talk about the problems of these orders."

Darius frowned and began to thought about it immediately, wondering what was going on.

Although the ordering companies of these orders were not as big as the Sue family, they were not that far. If only one company wanted to cancel, Darius would not worry about it, but these companies were united. The combined power was even more terrifying than the Sue family, so cancelling from several companies together gave him a bad premonition.

"When are they going to have a meet with me?" Darius asked.

"Tonight, at the Beach Hotel." The middle-aged man answered.

Darius nodded and said, "I see, come over and let me know when it's time for the meeting. I'm going to prepare for this first. None of these companies are easy to deal with. Tonight, I must win them over, otherwise it will be a big loss for us."

The middle-aged man nodded, then left the room.

Darius clenched his fist, knocked hard on the table, and cursed: "This damn Casey must have brought bad luck to the Sue family. This scourge must be eliminated as soon as possible, otherwise I don't know what kind of disaster would be brought to the Sue family in the future."

In the evening.

Beach Hotel.

Darius stopped his Rolls-Royce Phantom at the gate of the hotel, and he got off the car with sadness on face.

The two waiters walked over, saluted him respectfully, told him where the people waiting for him were, and then greeted him into the Beach Hotel.

The Beach Hotel was a well-known restaurant in H City. It specialized in seafood and the dishes here were very delicious. It had a good reputation in H City.

Darius was a frequent visitor to this restaurant, so most of the waiters here knew him. But this time Darius came here with no appetite.

If all of those orders were cancelled, he may not be able to eat for a month.

Following the waiter into the hotel, Darius came to the stairs that he was quite familiar with and those from the ordering parties were waiting for him in a private room upstairs.

When he went up stairs, Darius saw a familiar figure suddenly. When he saw this figure, he stopped immediately, with some anger on his face.

The figure also noticed Darius and walked over with a smile.

"What a coincidence, Mr. Sue, are you coming here to have dinner too?"

It was not someone else who was talking to Darius, but Casey, who had been regarded as a sting in his eye.

"Why are you here?" Darius asked coldly.

The first moment he saw Casey, he wondered if the news that his ordering parties wanted to cancel all the orders had been known by Casey, so he came here to cause trouble on purpose.

If this was the case, he must consider how to prevent Casey from coming in and making trouble. The ordering parties' cancelation was already a headache for him. If Casey came to make trouble, he would probably lose his mind.

"I'm here for dinner, and by the way, to discuss business with others. What about you, Mr. Sue is also here for business?" Casey asked with a smile.

"Huh, don't pretend to be nice here. How long have you been in H city? How could you get business so soon? I think you are following me deliberately and want to come over and make trouble for me, right?" Darius said coldly.

"Mr. Sue, you got me wrong. I'm really here for business today, don't misunderstand me." Casey said with a smile.

Darius glared at Casey and said, "Casey, I advise you to stop playing these little tricks. The business I am going to talk about today is not trivial and involves many interests. If you really dare to cause trouble, not only our Sue family will pick on you, but also many other companies."

"I really don't understand what you are talking about. Forget it, I'm going to the bathroom. You go to negotiate your business. I wish you good luck this time." Casey said to Darius, and then walked towards the toilet.

Darius murmured in his heart, wondering what kind of trick Casey was playing.

Was it possible that this guy was really here for negotiation?

No matter what Casey was going to do here, as long as he didn't mess with him, he didn't have to worry about anything.

As Mr. Sue, he certainly got some methods. He was confident to persuade those who wanted to cancel the orders. Without thinking about it anymore, Darius went straight upstairs to the booked private room.

Pushing the door open, Darius saw five men of different figures sitting inside.

These five people were the heads of the five companies that had signed orders with the Sue family, and they were also considered to be prominent figures in H city.

Seeing Darius coming in, the five people began to greet Darius immediately.

Darius also greeted them with a smile.

Today he came to persuade them, so his attitude should be better.

"Gentlemen, it's a fate for us to be able to sit at the same table. It just happens that I still have a few bottles of good wine here. Make yourself at home today. I'll treat, if you are not drunk, I won't let you go home today." Darius laughed and said.

When the five people heard Darius's words, they all fell silent immediately, making Darius a little embarrassed.

Seeing that the atmosphere was not that good, Darius stopped saying polite words, and asked straightforwardly: "I already know the reason why you called me here today. In this case, I will not talk nonsense. I heard that you all feel that there is something wrong with the orders with the Sue family. I don't know what the problem is. Would you please tell me?"

The five people looked at each other, and then the one sitting in the middle smiled and said to Darius: "Mr. Sue, in fact, this problem is quite simple, and we did not intend to pick on the Sue family. Just....."

"Just what?" Darius pricked his ears immediately.

"It's just that you have provoked someone you shouldn't have. This is the biggest problem."

Chapter 556 I Can Do Anything for Him

"Provoked someone who shouldn't be provoked?" Darius frowned immediately when he heard that person's words, thinking whom he had provoked during this time, and who has the ability to pick on the Sue family.

However, after much thinking, the only one who had the ability to unite these five ordering parties and make trouble for the Sue family is the Nelson family. However, the marriage between the Sue family and the Nelson family had already been put on the agenda, no matter what, the Nelson family would not make a trip to the Sue family at this time.

He pondered for a moment, looked up at the person who had just spoken, and asked tentatively: "Is the Nelson family...that ask you to come?"

The man laughed and said immediately: "Don't get us wrong, we have nothing to do with the Nelson family. If you provoke the Nelson family, we won't come over and tell you about it."

Darius got more and more confused.

From their words, it seemed that he had provoked someone who was more terrifying than the Nelson family.

"I really can't think of any big figure that I have provoked recently, please let me know." Darius asked.

None of the five people spoke, instead they all stared at Darius with a smile, making Darius a little terrified.

"I didn't expect you to be so stupid. You could not figure out who you have provoked. I really don't know how you could become Mr. Sue." At this moment, here came a woman's voice in the private room.

Darius turned his head and looked around him immediately, and he was sure that the sound came from behind the screen of the private room.

Nadia walked out from behind the screen, staring playfully at Darius who was still in a spin.

Darius was taken aback when he saw the woman who came out after the screen, and then the memory of her appeared in his mind.

Chairman of Lan Couch Group, the well-known socialite in H city, Nadia.

How could she be here? Was it possible that these five ordering parties were cancelling because of her?

But Lan Couch Group was just a cosmetics company. Although Lan Couch was considered the leader of the make-up industry in H city, it was impossible for such a single company to have such a big influence.

In other words, each of the five ordering parties sitting here was comparable to or even stronger than the Lan Couch Group. With Nadia's ability, it was impossible to persuade them to cause trouble for the Sue family at the same time.

If they were attracted by Nadia, this rare beauty, it was even more impossible. To sit in their positions, they had seen and played all kinds of women. It was impossible for them to do this because Nadia was a famous socialite and they were fascinated by her.

Darius squinted his eyes, and he said that he didn't understand what was going on.

When Nadia appeared, the two who had been sitting in the middle of the table immediately got up and moved to sit on the far sides.

Seeing Nadia sitting down opposite him, Darius was a little confused, wondering whom the empty seat next to Nadia was for.

"Chairman Nadia, if my memory doesn't go wrong, there was no intersection between our Sue family and your Lan Couch group? I don't know how I provoked you to make you so angry to pick on the Sue family." Darius asked, staring at Nadia.

Nadia smiled and said, "You didn't provoke me, it was my Lord whom you have provoked, and I'm just working for him."

Darius furrowed further, and he didn't expect that Nadia was not the one behind this, and there was another one behind her.

Moreover, Darius was unfamiliar with the calling of Lord, and he didn't know what kind of person would be called in this way.

"Would you please tell me who is your Lord?" Darius asked.

At this time, the door of the private room was pushed open before Nadia was able to answer him. Casey, who came back from the toilet, walked in and sat directly next to Nadia. After smiling at the people around him, he said, "I'm really sorry. I went to the toilet, and I came a little late, sorry for making everyone wait for such a long time."

After speaking, Casey looked at Darius and said jokingly: "Mr. Sue, what a coincidence, we meet again."

Darius froze at the moment Casey came in, watching Casey sit down next to Nadia, he was sure that Casey was the Lord Nadia mentioned.

At this time, he suddenly remembered that in the investigation report on Casey, it was stated that Casey had contact with Nadia and Walker after coming to H city.

At that time, he thought Casey was only acquainted with Nadia and Walker, and didn't put that on mind. He didn't expect Nadia to call Casey Lord now. It seemed that the relationship between them was not as simple as he thought previously.

"Casey, what do you mean? You arranged these?" After coming to himself, Darius looked at Casey angrily and asked. He wouldn't be so angry if it was not Casey.

He didn't expect this guy to be so difficult to get rid of. Casey went to his villa to make a fuss and then came to cause him such a big trouble.

He was thinking about some possibilities in his mind, and felt that Casey might have used the 100 billion to buy these people sitting here, otherwise, how could they listen to him, an outsider?

"What I want is very simple, Mr. Sue, now my wife is in your hand. So, I have to add some bargaining chips to myself, otherwise how could I sit here and negotiate with Mr. Sue?" Casey smiled and said.

Darius snorted immediately and said, "Do you think you are qualified to negotiate with me like this? I will tell you that your trick is not enough for me."

After speaking, he glanced at the people sitting there, and said: "Everyone, this guy must have spent a lot of money to invite you. You should be clear that he is just an outsider. I am afraid that it will not take long for you to earn as much as he gave you. You are all local companies in H city. You should be aware of the importance of the cooperation with my Sue family."

"As long as you promise me not to help him now, I can give you a 50% discount for the orders, and you will have priority in the cooperation with the Sue family in the future. You should know what this means. ."

Darius was very confident about the conditions he provided. What Casey could give was only some money, but what he gave was endless money. As long as they were smart, they must know how to choose.

The five people laughed after hearing what Darius said. The person who spoke at the very beginning looked at Darius and said: "Mr. Sue, the conditions you provided are really attractive, but we are not that kind of people. We were not bought by money, and we are willing to do so."

Darius looked puzzled and asked, "Why? Why do you choose to give up cooperation with the Sue family to help this outsider?"

At this time, Nadia smiled and said, "Because the five companies all belong to my Lan Couch Group. They are my subordinates. Naturally, they have to listen to my arrangements."

Darius's face changed, he looked at Nadia in disbelief, and exclaimed: "How is this possible! Your Lan Couch Group is just a cosmetics company, none of their companies is smaller than yours, how could they be your subordinates!"

"Mr. Sue, my Lan Couch Group is a cosmetics company indeed, but no one has stipulated that I can only have one company. Don't your family also hide your true strength? This kind of trick could only be used by your family?"

Nadia teased.

Darius felt that his heart was exploding like a thunder. Nadia's words really shocked him. He never expected that the Lan Couch Group, which had been unknown in H city, could be so powerful. He forced himself to suppress the shock in his heart, after swallowing his saliva, he looked at Casey again and asked, "Then this guy is..."

"Please show some respect. Casey is my Lord. Everything I have belongs to him. As long as Lord gives his orders, I can do anything for him."

"Including... eradicating the Sue family who took away Lord's wife."

Hearing Nadia's words, Darius was frightened thoroughly and couldn't help shivering.

Chapter 557 Casey's Self-confidence

After Nadia finished speaking, there was a brief silence in the private room.

Darius was frowning, but Casey was smiling.

"Her words should have been very clear. Mr. Sue, if you still insist on not returning my wife to me, not only will you lose these five orders, but in the future, your Sue family will also lose a lot of opportunities to make money until you can never get any orders." Casey said.

Darius immediately sneered and said, "Casey, don't think that you can threaten our Sue family just because of those orders. I can give up these orders, which is just that our Sue family make a little bit less money. Just you guys want to give our Sue family a blow? You wish."

Hearing Darius' words, Casey shook his head helplessly, and then gave Nadia a look. Nadia understood, and immediately took out a stack of documents and placed them on the table.

"Currently, there are 136 companies cooperating with your Sue family. This is the limit of business that your Sue family can carry out. Eighty percent of the Sue family's income is derived from the orders of those one hundred companies. Am I right?" Nadia asked.

Darius was slightly surprised when he heard that Nadia had found out the details of the Sue family so clearly, but it wasn't a secret. So it was not so surprising that Nadia could know it.

"So what? You can deal with the Sue family after you know who the Sue family is cooperating with?"

Nadia said with a smile, "What I want to say is that of the 136 companies that cooperate with your Sue family, 83 of them are under the name of Lan Couch Group. Although they are called all kinds of names, they cover all walks of life. Importantly, they all belong to Lan Couch Group. As long as I give the order, they will immediately stop cooperating with your Sue family. I don't know how much impact it will give the Sue family if more than half of the partners suddenly terminated their cooperation with the Sue family?"

Darius stood up directly from the chair. The chair moved back, rubbed the floor tiles, and made a sharp noise.

"You are talking nonsense! You are just the boss of a small cosmetics company. How can you control so many companies? You must have made it up to fool me!" Darius shouted anxiously. Nadia did not panic at all. She picked up the stack of documents, handed them to Darius, and said, "These documents can prove whether the companies I mentioned belong to Lan Couch Group. If you don't believe it, just have a look." Darius quickly stretched out his hand to take over the documents, and carefully read the contents above. Then he frowned.

What Nadia said was not wrong. These documents clearly showed the various relationship structures of the 83 companies. They were indeed affiliated to Lan Couch Group. Even if they were not affiliated with Lan Couch Group, it showed the relationship between the current holder of those companies and Lan Couch Group.

The most important thing was that among these 83 companies, there were a lot who were very important to the Sue family. If they suddenly terminated their cooperation with the Sue family, it would be a devastating blow to the Sue family. Both hands of Darius holding the document began to tremble. He thought that although the Sue family hid the real strength in H City, his family was already regarded as the top family in H City. Only the Nelson family could overwhelm the Sue family.

Unexpectedly, there was still such a terrifying group in H City, which secretly controlled so many companies. With just one sentence, the group could drive the Sue family into desperation.

Even the Nelson family, the hidden king in H City, might not be able to do it. It wasn't until this time that Darius realized the seriousness of this matter and understood what kind of person he had provoked.

In other words, only then did he know what kind of person his daughter, who had been abandoned by him for more than 20 years, married to.

"Mr. Sue, I don't know if you can sit down and have a talk with me about this matter now?" Casey looked at Darius' reaction with a trace of joking on his face.

Darius stood there for a long time. His hands holding the document couldn't help shaking. Now it seemed that Casey really had the strength to cause serious damage to the Sue family. Although it would not directly cause the Sue family to collapse, it was still pretty scary.

But if he really agreed to Casey and gave Edith to Casey, he couldn't explain to the Nelson family. The mere fact that he concealed Edith's marriage would be enough to arouse the anger of the Nelson family.

But once the Nelson family started to be against the Sue family because of this incident, the consequences were not much different from what Casey would give a blow to the Sue family. Darius was in a dilemma.

After a long time, Darius sat back in the chair again. He put the document in his hand on the table weakly, feeling a sense of powerlessness all over his body.

Since he became the head of the Sue Family, apart from when facing his stubborn mother, it was the first time that he had such emotions over the years.

"My condition is very simple. Return my wife to me. I will solve the problem of her amnesia. You only need to explain to her clearly the ins and outs of these things and explain her misunderstanding of me. Not only will I not let these companies terminate cooperation with your Sue family, but I will also give the Sue family more opportunities." Casey said.

"Edith is your illegitimate daughter. You cruelly abandoned her back then. If it were not for her luck, she would probably not grow up at all. You have not performed any maintenance obligations to her for more than 20 years. But now you keep saying that she is your daughter. In my opinion, you are not qualified to say these at all. I believe Edith will have the same thoughts as me after knowing the real situation."

"Mr. Sue, since you chose to abandon her back then, don't ruin her life now. If you understand my meaning, just make a decision here."

Hearing Casey's words, a bitter smile appeared on Darius' face. Then he murmured, "What you said does make sense, but now Sylvie's affairs are no longer something I can control alone. There are a lot of things involved. It is not that you threaten me then I can give her to you."

Hearing Darius' words, Casey frowned and asked, "What do you mean? As the head of the Sue family, you can't decide this little thing? It shouldn't be difficult to make a decision between giving Edith back to me and letting the Sue family get loss."

Darius looked at Casey and said, "To be honest, we have decided to let Sylvie marry into the Nelson family. The Nelson family has agreed to this matter. Their young master is still in a foreign country. When he comes back, they will get engaged. There is no way to change the mind. If we regret it, the Nelson family will still not let the Sue family go, so even if we risk huge losses, I can't give Sylvie back to you."

Casey's face instantly sank when he heard Darius' words, and then he slammed his hand on the table. There were a few cracks on the table immediately, which shocked everyone in the private room.

"Darius, Edith is my wife. What qualifications do you have to let her marry the shit Nelson family?" Casey said angrily.

Darius had already expected that Casey would lose his temper. He said calmly, "At our level, personal destiny must serve the family. No matter what, Sylvie is also my daughter. I did owe her in the past. But I will give her enough compensation in the future. Let her marry into the Nelson family, which is also a good thing for her."

"Shit! You use my wife as a tool for your Sue family's development. If Edith was not in your home, you would already be a corpse now." Casey said murderously. Darius did not doubt what Casey had just said. He could feel the breath revealed in Casey's eyes. It was the feeling of death.

"Of course, this is just my previous thoughts. After all, before today, I didn't know your identity. If I knew you had such strength, I might have considered making friends with you directly. After all, your current strength is a little worse than the Nelson family." Darius subconsciously judged Casey's strength based on 83 companies. In his opinion, these 83 companies were just a threat to the Sue family. Compared with the Nelson family, Casey was a bit worse. He didn't know that this was just part of Nadia's real strength.

"However, it's too late now. The Nelson family attaches great importance to this marriage. It is impossible for me to suddenly change my decision." Darius continued.

"Return Edith to me. I will help you deal with the Nelson family." Casey said coldly.

Darius still shook his head helplessly, and said, "Now that things come to this point, I won't hide it from you.

Chapter 558 The Similar Experience
Coming out of Beach Hotel, Casey and Nadia got in the car together and drove towards Lan Couch Building.

Casey let out a long sigh. He really didn't expect that Edith's matter was much more complicated than he thought.

Darius confessed to Casey that now the real head of the Sue family was Old Lady Sue. Edith's marriage had already been a deal. Old Lady Sue valued the relationship with the Nelson family very much. Unless Casey really destroyed the Sue family, Old Lady Sue would never change her mind.

After learning about Casey's strength, Darius' attitude towards Casey also changed a lot. He knew that it was impossible to get rid of Casey, so he planned to stabilize Casey first and promised that he would go back to ask Old Lady Sue to see if there was any room for discussion on this matter.

Casey didn't push Darius too tight. Darius told Casey about his delicate status in the Sue family. It turned out that Mr. Sue had a similar experience to Casey.

Old Lady Sue was also a person who liked to hold the power. After the death of Old Master Sue, Old Lady Sue took all the resources of the Sue family in her own hands.

At that time, Darius was still studying abroad. Besides, he was the only heir to the Sue family. He couldn't come back at that time, so he felt that it was reasonable to let Old Lady Sue manage the Sue family.

However, when Old Lady Sue was in charge of the Sue family, she tasted the sweetness of being in a high position.

During Darius' study abroad, she developed all the important figures of the Sue family into her own confidant.

When Darius returned from studying abroad, the Sue family was completely in control of Old Lady Sue's hands.

Although Darius successfully inherited the Sue family and became the head of the Sue family, he found that none of the Sue family's senior leaders listened to him. They must first ask Old Lady

Sue for instructions before taking actions.

Although Old Lady Sue did not take over the position of the head of the Sue family, she was indeed the person in charge of the Sue family. Darius, the real head of the Sue family, was made a mere figurehead. He couldn't decide anything.

He was not as miserable as Casey.

Casey was kicked out of Davies family at first, and was even tricked to die for others. Darius became a head of the Sue family though his mother made him a mere figurehead, so Darius was relatively lucky.

At the beginning, Darius was also very depressed, and even argued with Old Lady Sue. However, Old Lady Sue said that he was still young and didn't know how to manage such a big family, so she took care of the family first.

Darius simply couldn't beat Old Lady Sue in the Sue family. After resisting for a period of time, he gave it up.

At that time, what Old Lady Sue told him was if Darius was disobedient, she would send him abroad for further study. If there was no her order, Darius would not be able to come back.

But if Darius was obedient, Old Lady Sue would not send him abroad. She also promised him that after she died, the Sue family would definitely belong to him.

Only then did Darius compromise. He felt that she was getting older. It was estimated that she would die within a few years, but what he didn't expect was that she had a tough physique. After so many years, she hadn't had any serious illnesses.

This caused Darius's awkward position in the Sue family. But after so many years, Darius had long been used to it. It was precisely because Darius did not have the management power of the Sue family that he was idle every day. At that time, he had several mistresses. Edith's biological mother was one of them.

Later, Darius married a tough wife. Darius didn't dare to disobey her orders. He had no choice but to send all his mistresses out of H City.

After Casey listened to Darius' recount, he was a little speechless at first, and then felt a little bit of pity for Darius who had the similar experience with him.

Compared with Darius, Casey's experience was a lot more miserable, at least Darius had been living so well for so many years. As long as he didn't want the power of the Sue family, Old Lady Sue would not embarrass him.

It might be because of the similar experience between Darius and Casey, or it might be because Casey knew that dealing with Darius was useless, Casey did not deliberately embarrass Darius in the end.

He just warned Darius and asked Darius to take good care of Edith. If Edith got any hurt, he would immediately get even with Darius.

Nadia looked at Casey, who was sitting next to her, with a trace of doubt on her face. After a long time, she asked, "Do you need me to find a way to suppress Old Lady Sue and force her to give Edith to you?"

Casey smiled and shook his head, and then he said, "No, as long as they treat Edith well, I won't be anxious to get her back."

"Why? Didn't you worry about her before?" Nadia asked.

"Because I suddenly remembered that this Nelson family is a family friend with the Turner family. They also participated in the death of my grandfather." Casey said.

"You mean you want to take this opportunity to ruin the Nelson family?" Nadia asked.

There was bright light in Casey's eyes. He nodded to Nadia.

"Now Edith lost her memory. She has no impression of me at all, and even has some misunderstandings to me. If I forcefully shoot against the Sue family and snatch Edith back, she might really think that I am plotting against her. This is very likely to make her resist to restore memory."

"It happens that the Nelson family is also involved in this incident. It's better to take this opportunity to find a way to get rid of the Nelson family. It just happens that I can also think of a way to help Edith regain her memory."

Casey expressed his thoughts to Nadia. Nadia nodded and asked, "What's your plan?"

"Let's watch the changes first. As long as the time is right, we can take action."

...

At the airport in H City.

A private plane landed on the ground.

Not long after, the hatch was opened and a young man in a white suit got off the plane.

This young man was tall and straight, with sharp eyes. He was walking domineeringly, giving people a feeling of being very difficult to get close to.

This person was the young master of the Nelson family, Rocco Nelson.

"Mr. Nelson, you finally came back. Compared to before you left, your aura is even stronger. You must have learned something." An old man who was already waiting here immediately greeted him.

Rocco stared at him and said coldly, "Just a small achievement. But there is no one who can be my match in H Country. But compared with my master, I am still far behind."

The old man smiled even more and said, "Mr. Nelson, you're really humble. Based on your understanding of fighting, it is really difficult to find someone who surpasses you in H Country."

Rocco snorted coldly, obviously disdainful of the old man's flattery, "I heard that my father arranged a marriage for me?"

"Yes, yes, it's the young lady of the Sue family. She has a very outstanding appearance. Mr. Nelson, you will definitely like her after seeing her." The old man flattered.

Rocco curled his lips and said, "Women are nothing more than tools to vent my desires. No matter how beautiful they are, they are all vases. But since it's my father's arrangement, I can accept it."

"Help me check the famous underworld arenas in H City. I am only interested in fighting. If I don't fight for a day, I will be itchy all over. If you can't find one, I will fight you." Rocco said.

A cold sweat broke out on the old man's forehead. Then he quickly said, "Yes, Mr. Nelson. I'll check it as soon as I get back. Let's get in the car."

Chapter 559 Vicious

In the Sue House.

Old Lady Sue was not used to living in the villa, so she had lived the original old house of the Sue family. The area of the house was not large. But after many repairs, it was very luxury inside.

Originally, Darius also liked the layout of the old house. But it was because his mother lived here so that he bought a villa outside.

As long as there was a chance, Darius would never want to see this mother who had robbed the power that should belong to him.

For this kind of thing, there was no family relationship between them. This was the cruelty of the big family.

At this time, in Old Lady Sue's room, Darius was standing in front of Old Lady Sue respectfully. He slightly bent, looking very restrained.

Old Lady Sue looked graceful and noble. Although she was gray-headed, she dressed herself up well. She had all the jewelry she should have on herself, looking very rich.

"Mother, this is almost the case. The strength of that person should not be underestimated. If we don't return Sylvie to him, he will attack our Sue family. I'm afraid that we will suffer a considerable loss by then." Darius said.

Old Lady Sue had obvious disdain on her face. When she heard Darius' words just now, she felt that this was all nonsense. Now, in H City, except for the Nelson family who had not participated in the power struggle, the Sue family was the most powerful.

Now Darius said that a brat who had suddenly appeared was in charge of more than 80 cooperative enterprises of the Sue family. From the bottom of her heart, Old Lady Sue suspected that this was a conspiracy that Darius had devised to fool her.

"Darius, you are already a middle-aged person in your forties. Don't you have the slightest ability to distinguish what is true and what is false? Just think about it, you can know the truth. That person just told you such words. You ran to report to me. I didn't want to listen to you talking about these useless nonsense. You can't even deal with a brat who is not local people. How can I rest assured to hand over the Sue family to you in the future?" Old Lady Sue directly scolded Darius.

Darius was full of embarrassment on his face. The reason why he was reluctant to see Old Lady Sue was because Old Lady Sue would always find various reasons to belittle him to prove that he was not worthy to take over the Sue family.

"Mother, what I said is absolutely true..."

Darius endured the unhappiness. He wanted to emphasize the importance of this matter again to Old Lady Sue.

"Enough. Since it was that the person who your illegitimate daughter used to know was making trouble, just kill him.

There is no need to be so nervous. I don't believe that my Sue family can't deal with a brat from other cities."

"The marriage between your illegitimate daughter and the young master of the Nelson family has been settled. It's a deal. There is no room for any mistakes. If my Sue family wants to be among the top families in the world, we can only have some relationship with the Nelson family. If you have other thoughts, I advise you to put it away as soon as possible. If this major event is ruined, we will not have a good ending."

Old Lady Sue looked at Darius impatiently.

"Mother, I really didn't have any thoughts. Casey's strength is really beyond imagination. If you don't pay attention to it, you will suffer a big loss."

Darius became a little anxious, but he did not expect that he would not be able to convince his mother to trust himself.

"Enough! Even if the person you mentioned is really so powerful, he will definitely not be the match of the Nelson family. Your illegitimate daughter is the key to our friendship with the Nelson family, so she must stay in the Sue family. She is your daughter. No one else can take her away. If he really dares to make some trouble to us, the Nelson family will take actions. You don't need to worry about this matter."

Old Lady Sue said.

Seeing that there was no way to persuade Old Lady Sue, Darius sighed helplessly. He knew that his mother was so stubborn, and would never change her mind. Since she had determined that this matter would not have much impact, and suspected that this was Darius' conspiracy, she would never be possible to seriously consider it.

"Fine! Anyway, the control of the Sue family is not in my hands, so let this stubborn old lady suffer a bit, and then she will regret it." Darius murmured to himself.

"By the way, Mr. Nelson has returned from abroad. I plan to arrange for him to meet your illegitimate daughter in two days. We must pay attention to this matter and let everyone know that the Sue family is going to have a marriage with the Nelson family. So we need to arrange a dinner party for this meeting. This matter is left to you. Remember, you have to hold it perfectly." Old Lady Sue continued.

Darius nodded to Old Lady Sue, and then said, "I see."

"Okay, you go back first. Think of a solution to the matter you mentioned. If you can't solve it, just use the Nelson family to suppress him. As long as he knows the status of the Nelson family, he will definitely retreat." Old Lady Sue waved to Darius.

Darius curled his lips without a trace, thinking that Casey hadn't taken the Nelson family seriously at all, so how could Casey retreat?

But now he could only think of a solution by himself.

After Darius left here, Old Lady Sue was still sitting in the room. After a while, a figure appeared in the room. It was Edith's maid, Emma.

"Ma'am, I haven't seen you in a few days. You look a bit younger than before again. If it continues like this, you will get younger and younger." Emma said with a smile.

Old Lady Sue immediately laughed and said, "Oh, you're so sweet! What's wrong with your face? Why is it swollen?"

The smile on Emma's face disappeared. She said angrily, "Don't mention it. I was beaten by a bastard."

Old Lady Sue's eyes suddenly glared. She said angrily, "Who dares to beat the people from the Sue family? Doesn't he want to live anymore?"

"Ma'am, don't be angry. Mr. Sue will help avenge me, so you don't need to worry about it." Emma said.

"How about that illegitimate girl recently? Has she ever been obedient?"

Old Lady Sue asked.

"Yeah. That woman is stupid, probably because of the sequelae of amnesia.

She speaks so softly, and she can easily be fooled. Basically, she can't refute the decisions I made." Emma immediately spoke with some pride.

When Old Lady Sue heard this, she nodded in satisfaction. This was exactly what she wanted. As long as she controlled Edith, everything was in her plans.

"Ma'am, what's the matter that you asked me over?" Emma asked.

"It is estimated that the illegitimate daughter was pregnant for more than three months. Darius still wants to keep the child. He's really stupid. Only when he treats the Nelson family are all fools would he have such an idea. We can't keep this child." Old Lady Sue said.

"So?" Emma asked with her eyes widened.

Old Lady Sue took out a paper bag from her clothes, handed it to Emma, and said, "This is the medicine I specially found someone to get. You find a chance to let her drink it. Then her child will definitely not be able to s

Chapter 560 A Running Errand-Casey In Lan Couch Building.

Casey walked in the building. From time to time, someone walked past him. They would greet him respectfully, "Hello, Mr. Davies."

Because Casey had been in the Lan Couch Building during this period and often walked with Nadia, everyone in Lan Couch Group knew that his identity was not simple.

Some time ago, Nadia specially held a high-level meeting for Casey's identity, telling everyone that Casey was actually the real behind-the-scenes boss of Lan Couch Group.

Originally, Casey didn't want Nadia to do it. But Nadia told Casey that she had recently heard some rumors in the company that Casey was her toy boy, so she felt it necessary to hold such a meeting to explain his identity.

Casey saw that Nadia was serious, so he didn't continue to stop her.

The fact that Casey was the real behind-the-scenes boss of Lan Couch Group was still quite shocking for the people in Lan Couch Group. Many people originally despised Casey a little bit, but after hearing this incident, they immediately corrected their attitude.

Many people even came to Casey to admit their mistakes.

Considering that he still had to find a way to deal with the Nelson family, it wasn't a bad thing that people in Lan Couch Group knew his identity. Besides, he needed to let all the forces that Guanling arranged in H City knew that he, the young master in Guanling, had already come, and needed their cooperation.

The effect of Nadia's high-level meeting was good, but what Casey didn't expect was that after Nadia announced his identity, the gossips in Lan Couch Group about him as a toy boy disappeared, but there were many people who said that Nadia and Casey were a perfect match. Nadia hadn't found a boyfriend for so long, just because she was waiting for Casey. Casey had a headache for others' gossips. But he knew it was impossible to let everyone shut up. As long as he pretended that he didn't know, it would be fine.

Nadia was very happy for others to talk about them like this. She even ran to Casey to show off, deliberately telling Casey that those gossips were true. Because of shyness, she didn't tell Casey straightly.

Casey glared at her at that time. If it were others, Casey would believe it was because of shyness. But he wouldn't believe such a situation would happen to Nadia.

However, he also knew that Nadia was joking. This famous socialite, after Casey almost got angry with her last time, quickly changed the way she spoke. Every time when she joked with Casey, she wouldn't be way out of the line. Not only would she not make Casey angry, but she could fully show her charm in front of Casey.

After a long time, Casey began to admire Nadia a little. He even imagined that if he hadn't been married and didn't love Edith so much, he would definitely be attracted by Nadia.

Although Casey was Nadia's superior, this elegant and generous stunner had never regarded Casey as a leader, and even often regarded Casey as a running errand.

According to Nadia's words, Casey had nothing to do in the company anyway. But she had to take care of his daily life. He had to do some work.

For example, today, there were a group of interns coming for interviews. The company needed a driver to pick them up. Casey was honored to be arranged as a pick-up driver.

Casey didn't refuse it. After all, besides caring about Edith's affairs, he really didn't have other things to do here.

Arriving in the underground garage, Casey walked to the front of a 14-seater commercial vehicle, got in, and drove out of Lan Couch Building.

The place he was going to was not far from Fudan University. It was said that half of those who came for the interview today were students from Fudan University. As the largest cosmetics company in H City, whoever could come here for the interview were naturally the first-rate students.

At this time, a dozen people had been waiting here, where was the special place for those interns to go to Lan Couch Building. Most of the people who were going to participate in this interview were girls. After all, only women understood women best. If one person wanted to run a good cosmetics company, it wouldn't be lack of women. Among the dozen or so interview candidates, there were two elegant girls who looked a little pretty than others. These two were Elodie and Nova who were studying at Fudan University. Both of them applied exquisite make-up today. Several boys who were going to the same interview couldn't help but look at the two of them.

Nova looked at Elodie nervously and asked, "Elodie, do you think we can succeed in the interview today? Lan Couch Group is a very famous group in H City. I heard that the competition inside is very fierce. Even if we are students from Fudan University, it may not be possible to get in."

Elodie smiled at Nova and said, "Don't worry. Both of us have excellent grades. As long as we perform well in the interview, it will be not hard to enter Lan Couch Group. Besides, isn't Aydin here? He has a relative who works in Lan Couch Group. He can definitely help us."

A tall boy standing next to Elodie and Nova immediately smiled triumphantly. He patted his chest and said, "Don't worry. I've already asked my relative to tell the interviewer. When we have the interview, they won't ask us too tough questions."

When the people around him heard Aydin's words, they all showed envy. They naturally wanted to make the interview easier, but they didn't have ways to pull strings, so they could only rely on themselves.

Not long after, Casey's black business car arrived at the place and stopped. He got out of the car, glanced at the dozen people waiting here, and said, "You guys are going to Lan Couch Group for an interview, right? Get in the car."

Everyone looked towards Casey. Elodie and Nova were both stunned when they saw that the person getting off the car was Casey.

"Casey? Why are you?" Elodie couldn't help but asked directly.

Casey didn't expect that Elodie and Nova would be among the people who went to the interview, but he was not too surprised. He felt that there was nothing wrong with the two of them going to the Lan Couch Group for the interview.

"Um, I'll take you guys to the company." Casey said.

"You ran to Lan Couch Group as a driver?"

Elodie's eyes widened. Actually, in her mind, Casey should have already run away after he offended the Sue family. Casey didn't want to talk too much to Elodie, so he said, "Get in the car. Don't delay your interview time."

Elodie curled her lips, thinking that Casey must have gone to Lan Couch Group to work as a driver. Because of his guilty conscience, he was embarrassed to answer her questions positively.

Obviously, Nova, who was behind Elodie, thought the same way, but her attitude was different from that of Elodie. In Nova's mind, Casey was actually a very nice person and also very powerful. She couldn't figure out why such a person had to fight against the Sue family, causing himself to fall into such a situation.

Chapter 561 Self-righteous

After everyone got on the car, Casey drove in the direction of Lan Couch Building.

Elodie and Nova were obviously very concerned about why Casey became the driver of Lan Couch Group. So they would glance at Casey from time to time.

Aydin also noticed that Elodie and Nova knew the driver, so he asked in a low voice, "Do you two know this driver?" Elodie nodded and said, "This person is Casey I mentioned to you before. I thought he has already run off, but I didn't expect that he went to Lan Couch Group as a driver."

Aydin immediately widened his eyes, and said with surprise on his face, "He is the Casey who donated one billion to our school? Holy shit! Why would he be a driver?"

Elodie suddenly said with a little disdain, "Who knows if the billion dollars is his own? Didn't I tell you before that he was just a toy boy who was raised by a rich woman? Later, when I heard him lecture, I thought I might have misunderstood him. Now, when I saw him as a driver, I suddenly felt that his billion was given by someone else.

Because he provoked the Sue family, his sugar mommy kicked him off, so he could only be a driver."

When Aydin heard this, his face suddenly showed a contemptuous look.

Then he said, "The man I despise the most is this kind of toy boy. He is a big man, but actually has to rely on women to support him. It is really shameful."

"Don't say that. Casey's lectures are very well. He may just be confused for a while." Although Elodie said bad words about Casey to Nova every day and now Nova had no good impression of Casey at all, she still couldn't help but speak for Casey.

"If so, he is even more shameful. He clearly has the ability to make money, but he doesn't make money by himself. He actually wants to be raised by the rich woman. This kind of person sucks. He is not a good guy." Aydin said even more contemptuously.

Elodie nodded in agreement, feeling that Aydin said nothing wrong.

Although they lowered their voices, there was not much space in the car. So others could hear them clearly.

Everyone sitting in the car heard their conversation.

Many people felt contempt for Casey. They never thought that the driver who came to pick them up would be such a person.

"Unexpectedly, there are such people in this world. They are obviously capable, but they have to rely on women to support them. It's shameless."

"Such a person generally has no good endings. Even if he lived so well before, he still has become a driver now. This is retribution."

"I didn't expect this driver to offend the Sue family. I have to stay away from him. I can't let him bring unluck to me."

...

Listening to the people in the car, Aydin showed a sneer on his face. He had always been not afraid to cause trouble. Knowing that the driver was Casey who Elodie told him and he recalled what Elodie told him about Casey, he had an urge to mock Casey.

Thinking that Casey offended the Sue family anyway and was a driver now, Aydin felt that Casey would definitely not dare to be arrogant anymore. Besides, as a driver, Casey had nothing to be arrogant.

A smirk appeared on Aydin's face, then he sat in the front seat, and said to Casey who was sitting in the driving seat, "Hey, man, I heard that you used to be awesome. You donated one billion to our school? But why do you become a driver now?"

Casey glanced at the boy in the rearview mirror. He also heard some of the words of those behind him just now, but he didn't want to argue with some students who hadn't graduated yet, so he just ignored them.

Hearing Aydin's question now, Casey felt a little speechless. So he said directly, "Sit back and fasten your seat belt."

Aydin laughed and said, "Why don't you answer my question? Is it a guilty conscience? I heard that your billions were given to you by the woman who raised you. Is it true?"

Casey saw that the boy was out of line, then he replied, "No."

When Aydin heard Casey's words, he was taken aback for a moment, and then he felt that Casey was really a shameless person. But what was worse, this guy didn't even admit to such an obvious fact.

"I have never seen such a thick-skinned person like you..." Aydin was not afraid to offend Casey. A driver who had provoked the Sue family didn't dare to refute even if others mocked him.

But before Aydin finished speaking, Casey suddenly stepped on the accelerator, and then turned the direction suddenly, Aydin fell directly from the seat because of the inertia. Naturally, it was easy for Casey, who possessed superb driving skills, let Aydin suffer a bit.

Aydin endured the pain and got up from the ground. He glanced at Casey viciously, and said, "Did you fucking do it deliberately?"

"I have told you to sit back and fasten your seat belt. But you didn't listen." Casey said.

Aydin immediately clenched his fists. If it weren't for fear of affecting Casey's driving and the safety of the people in their car would be threatened, Aydin might have already begun to take action on Casey.

"Enough. Aydin, come back and sit down quickly." Elodie shouted at Aydin. Aydin snorted coldly, sat back in his previous position, and fastened his seat belt.

Along the way, Aydin, Elodie and Nova were talking about Casey's affairs.

Because Casey made Aydin embarrassed at that time, Aydin did not care about Casey at all. He said it out loud on purpose. It seemed that he wanted Casey's scandals to be shown in front of everyone.

Casey pretended that he hadn't heard it. If he argued with a fool, he would become a fool.

Before long, Casey drove to the gate of Lan Couch Building. After pulling over, he let those guys get out of the car. After Elodie, Aydin and Nova got out of the car, they all looked towards Casey. Aydin gave Casey a vicious look, and said, "That's not over. I will get even with you when my interview is over today. I have some relatives here. I must let him fire you. At that time, you can't even be a driver. You will regret it."

Elodie rolled her eyes and thought about for a while. Then she walked to Casey, and said, "I actually thought you were pretty good before, but what happened later let me know that you are just a short-sighted guy. "

"Today we will be interviewing in Lan Couch Group. As long as we become an employee of Lan Couch Group, we will make a lot of achievements. As a driver, you can't compete with us at all."

"So I hope you think about your problems and don't always be so self-righteous."

After speaking, she turned around and followed those people to walk into Lan Couch Building.

Looking at Elodie's back, Casey laughed. The word 'self-righteous' would be more appropriate for describing her. Casey really didn't know how Elodie and the others would react after they learned that he was actually the boss of Lan Couch Group.

Chapter 562 Interview

After Elodie and others entered Lan Couch Building, they were immediately attracted by the decoration here. Such a tall building belonged to Lan Couch Group.

The division of labor was clear here. The planning of various office areas was quite reasonable. There were also various rest areas, fitness areas, gourmet areas and so on.

"Wow, is this the largest cosmetics company in H City? It's amazing." Elodie couldn't help but admire.

"I'm really excited to think that we will be working here in the future." Aydin also said.

Although Nova did not speak, it could be seen that she was extremely excited.

They went to Fudan University in order to have a good job after graduation. Lan Couch Group was the place of their dreams. Coming here to work would be the pride of their whole family.

While everyone was curiously looking at the interior of Lan Couch Building, the personnel manager wearing a simple and generous employee uniform came to them and said to everyone with a smile, "Everyone, I am the manager of Lan Couch Group's personnel department. I'm glad you can come to our company for today's interview."

Seeing it was the HR manager, they immediately looked at the woman seriously, trying to make a good impression of the HR manager.

"It can be said that you are very lucky today. I hope you can take this luck and successfully complete today's interview." The manager said, and then walked in with everyone.

What she said of luck was that Casey would personally pick them up. This was a very nice treatment. From the perspective of the manager, this was very lucky.

Everyone followed the manager. Elodie was a little confused, turned to ask Aydin next to her, "Why does she say that we are very lucky today?"

Aydin was also a little confused. After thinking about it, he said, "She might have said this specifically to the three of us. My relative should have communicated with the personnel manager. That's why she mentioned this sentence. Just to make us rest assured. We will definitely pass today's interview."

Hearing Aydin's words, Elodie felt it made senses, and then she laughed, "It seems that your relative is really reliable. When we all pass the interview, Nova and I must treat you to dinner."

Aydin immediately waved his hand and said triumphantly, "Nothing serious. Just an interview, for me, it's a piece of cake."

Before long, the manager brought everyone to a large conference room. Today's interview would be held in this place.

At this time, Nadia was sitting in the conference room. As the chairman of Lan Couch Group and a well-known socialite in H City, Nadia naturally had to show up in front of these interviewees and said a few words.

"This is the chairman of our Lan Couch Group, Miss. Nadia. I believe many of you should have heard of her name. It is precisely because of her that our Lan Couch Group can develop to where it is today." The manager introduced.

Everyone was attracted by Nadia's beauty and temperament, except Elodie and Nova.

The moment the two of them saw Nadia, they were immediately stunned, and then looked at each other. There was incredible looks in their eyes.

"Is... isn't this girl who picked up Casey at the airport that day?" Elodie murmured.

Nova nodded afterwards. They really didn't expect that the one who picked up Casey that day would be the chairman of Lan Couch Group.

Aydin noticed their reaction and said with a smile, "What's wrong? Are you two also shocked by the beauty of the chairman? But to be honest, the chairman is really beautiful. That kind of temperament is really charming."

Elodie glanced at Aydin and said, "That person is the one who raised Casey."

Aydin was taken aback for a moment, and then a trace of jealousy emerged in his heart. He originally thought that the woman who raised Casey was an elderly lady, but he didn't expect it to be such a charming chairman of Lan Couch Group.

Such a stunner! No man could resist her, right? If he were Casey, he would definitely be willing to be a toy boy who was raised by Nadia.

But soon he was relieved. Now Casey was just a driver of Lan Couch Group. Obviously, Nadia wasn't interested in Casey. Maybe Casey pleaded Nadia, so he could be a driver in Lan Couch Group. Suddenly, Aydin thought that he didn't have to be jealous of Casey.

"I didn't expect that brat to have such good luck before. It's a pity! He is not worthy of such a woman. Now he can only be a driver. Looking at it this way, it's a joke." Aydin said in a low voice.

Elodie nodded, thinking that Casey was indeed like a joke. At the same time, she was a little surprised that Casey was able to get favor of the chairman of Lan Couch Group. It seemed that Casey was indeed scheming before he provoked the Sue family.

Without thinking about it anymore, they started to concentrate and listened to the speeches of the manager and Nadia.

The interview process had basically been determined. After the HR manager introduced Nadia, Nadia said a few words to everyone. It was nothing more than boasting about that her company was so good and what they would get if they could come here to work.

After that, it was the self-introduction of these interviewees. Everyone tried their best to show their strengths, hoping to leave the best impression on the people of Lan Couch Group.

As the interview progressed, Aydin became more determined to work in Lan Couch Group. On the one hand, Lan Couch Group's salary and treatment were so good. On the other hand, it was because of Nadia.

There was no man in the world who was not interested in beauties. How could Aydin be an exception? After seeing Nadia, Aydin had already imagined his future.

After joining Lan Couch Group, he had to climb up step by step, and finally sit at the top of the group, and then he would have the opportunity to pursue Nadia. He still had a lot of confidence in himself.

After he succeeded in chasing Nadia, Lan Couch Group would also become his. In this way, he could gain fame, fortune and beauty, which was the happiest thing in the world.

Thinking of this, Aydin couldn't help giggling.

Nadia noticed this person who suddenly giggled. She felt sick. As a well-known socialite, she saw this kind of smile a lot. Naturally, she was clear what the person who showed this smile was thinking.

But she didn't care, after all, nine out of ten of the men who had met her would giggle like this.

Casey was the only one who couldn't giggle like this.

When the interview was about to end, someone pushed open the door of the conference room and walked in.

Everyone turned their heads and looked over. They were a little surprised when they saw the people coming.

Because the person who came in was the driver who picked them up, Casey.

Chapter 563 The Real Boss

Elodie and the others all looked at Casey who walked in with some doubts, wondering why a driver came to such an occasion.

"Why does this guy come here? Didn't he know that the interview is going on here? Does he want to come over and make trouble?" Elodie said with a deep worry on her face. She was very afraid that Casey ran over to make trouble because of them.

"Relax! The chairman of Lan Couch Group is sitting here. No matter how courageous Casey is, he won't dare to make trouble in front of the chairman. Otherwise, he will be fired." Aydin spoke thoughtfully.

Elodie felt it made senses, so she nodded. But she still couldn't understand why Casey appeared here.

After Casey came in, he walked straight to Nadia. When he was walking, he glanced at Elodie, Aydin and Nova, with a deep smile on his face.

Seeing Casey's smile, Elodie immediately said to Aydin next to her, "Why does that guy smile at us and smile so gloomily? Wouldn't he really come in and make trouble?"

Aydin frowned as well. He really didn't understand what Casey's smile meant. Although Nova on the side was also puzzled, she still said, "I guess it's just a casual smile. There shouldn't be any other meanings."

"No, we can't let him ruin today's interview. If this guy does something terrible and then puts the blame on us, we will get into the trouble." Elodie said with a nervous face.

Aydin hesitated for a moment, and said, "I'll get this guy out. Anyway, I have a relative here, and it seems that Casey is here to make trouble. Maybe the chairman will compliment for me because I solve this trouble."

Elodie nodded immediately, thinking that the method Aydin said was feasible.

Aydin stood up from his seat immediately, looking like he was going to solve Casey, such a trouble, in front of the chairman.

At this moment, Nadia also stood up, smiled at Casey, and then gave her seat to Casey and then sat on the chair beside her.

Aydin was dumbfounded right away. He didn't expect that this would be the case. Nadia took the initiative to give her seat to Casey. What did this mean? He, who was about to speak, was suddenly speechless, standing still a bit at a loss. The HR manager glanced at Aydin and asked, "This gentleman, may I ask what is wrong with you?"

Aydin swallowed, and said with some embarrassments on his face, "It... it's okay, but I feel a little uncomfortable sitting, so I stand up to adjust."

"Then sit down as soon as you adjust yourself well." The HR manager was obviously dissatisfied with Aydin's behavior.

Aydin sat back immediately, with some cold sweat on his forehead.

Under everyone's gaze, Casey sat in the position that Nadia had just given it to him.

"Crap. Isn't that guy the driver? How could he sit in the position where the chairman just sat?"

"What's the situation? Does this driver have a hidden identity?"

"It shouldn't be, right? Didn't the three people say that he was the toy boy who was abandoned by the chairman? Why could he sit in that position?"

...

After Casey sat down, the HR manager clapped her hands to calm everyone down, and then said with a smile, "I told you before that you are lucky today because the driver who picked you up today is the real boss of our Lan Couch Group. This can be regarded as a small investigation for you. I believe that in the process of coming here, our boss will also have a general impression of you. Next, let our boss say a few words."

After hearing the words of the HR manager, everyone suddenly showed a stunned face. Many people subconsciously opened their mouths and looked towards Casey.

This seemingly ordinary driver turned out to be the boss of Lan Couch Group! For them, it was not lucky at all. It was terrible.

On the way, they all more or less despised Casey because of Aydin and Elodie. If Casey had heard them at the time, their interviews would be screwed up today.

Everyone was nervous. They were afraid that Casey would be angry because of what they said before. At the same time, they also cursed Elodie and Aydin secretly. The fact was completely different from what they said. The two of them really got everyone into the trouble.

Elodie, Aydin and Nova were all in shock at this time. They all looked at Casey incredibly. They didn't expect that the personnel manager actually said that Casey was the real boss of Lan Couch Group.

Aydin turned his head and glanced at Elodie, with a questioning look on his face. He gritted his teeth and said, "Did you fucking say that this guy is a toy boy abandoned by the chairman of Lan Couch Group? He also provoked the Sue family. Why is he now the boss of the Lan Couch Group? Are you kidding me?"

Elodie's face turned pale. Her palms were full of cold sweat. She murmured, "How...how could he be the boss of Lan Couch Group? Doesn't he come from other cities?"

Nova didn't expect Casey to have such an identity. Thinking that she gave up those good feelings for Casey because of Elodie's words, she regretted it. After a long time, she said to herself, "Maybe, from the beginning, we misunderstood him. All our gossips about him were guesswork. He never admitted them, and even bothered to argue with us. We never tried to verify."

There was a sense of powerlessness in the three of them. Now, Elodie really understood who the self-righteous one was.

Casey glanced at everyone present, and then said with a smile, "I am a more easygoing person. Because I have nothing to do in the company, so I acted as a driver today. If this incident scares you, please forgive me."

"You are all excellent college students. In fact, I have nothing to say. As long as you meet the standards, you will have the opportunity to come to our company for internship."

"But if I have to say something, I will pick some of the problems that exist among you guys."

After Casey finished speaking, he looked at Aydin, who was already sitting on pins and needles.

Aydin felt Casey's gaze, and immediately trembled.

"This sir, I would like to ask you, do you still think that I am a toy boy who is raised by Nadia? Where did your confidence come from when you said this?"

Casey's question was like a needle piercing Aydin's heart, causing Aydin's hands to tremble, too.

Chapter 565 Drug

In a Western restaurant.

Casey and Nadia was sitting at the table while a foreigner in a suit was playing the violin elegantly beside them. It was a comfortable restaurant which made its customers feel comfortable.

"In my opinion, the girl named Nova is pretty good. Finally, it's decided that she would be given an offer. Unexpectedly, she refused to work in our company. Does she fear you?" Nadia said with a smile.

"People have their own objectives. What choice to make is her business. It has nothing to do with me." Casey said.

"You're really boring. I've never failed to continue a conversation before I knew you." Nadia said.

Casey shrugged. He didn't care about how Nadia viewed him at all.

"The young master of the Nelson family has come back. He is called Rocco, and is a fighting fanatic. In the past few years, he has been learning how to fight from a master in fighting in R Country." After some thought, Nadia moved to another topic.

"No matter who he is, as long as he dares to marry my wife, I'll annihilate him, even if he is a legend master in fighting." Casey smiled. He had always been very confident in his skill in fighting.

"After Rocco came back, he began to go to various underground boxing field in H City. He's really very good at fighting. So far, no one can defeat him. If you're really so confident in yourself, why not go to have a fight with him?" Nadia joked.

"I shouldn't do that now. At the right time, I'll have a good fight with him."

Casey answered, "How is what I asked you to do going?"

Nadia smiled, saying, "With I'm in charge, you can be at ease. When the right time you mentioned arrives, I'll definitely make the Nelson family suffer a lot."

Casey nodded. Then, he ate the last piece of steak in the plate.

At this moment, Nadia received a short message on her mobile phone. After a glance, she handed it to Casey.

"The person you've been thinking about is leaving her home. Aren't you going to protect her secretly?"

Casey read the message, knowing that Edith and Emma had left the Sue Villa and were seemingly going to have a walk in People's Square.

After Casey came back from the Sue Villa last time, he had already asked Nadia to send someone to keep an eye on the Sue Villa 24 hours a day.

According to his requirement, if Edith left the villa, the news must be reported immediately.

After wiping his mouth with a napkin, Casey headed out of the restaurant without saying goodbye to Nadia.

Of course, Nadia knew what Casey was going to do. She was immediately angry and murmured, "You leave here without saying goodbye to me. It's really annoying."

After spending some time with Casey, Nadia had roughly got to know Casey's personality. Besides, she had made Casey lower his guard with some tricks. Otherwise, Casey wouldn't have a meal in this Western restaurant with her.

At ordinary times, after lowering his guard against Nadia, Casey would have a word with Nadia. However, if something involving Edith happened, Casey would immediately ignore Nadia. It made Nadia very upset.

Watching Casey walk out of the restaurant, she ballooned her cheeks like a little girl with a hint of jealousy in her eyes.

.....

At People's Square.

After arriving here, Casey began to look for Edith earnestly. At the same time, to prevent himself from being found by Edith, he specially bought a peaked cap. Now, Edith got Casey wrong. Therefore, Casey could only protect Edith secretly. If Edith found him, Edith might try to run away from him.

After having a wander around in the People's Square, Casey didn't find Edith. He thought: Edith came here to have a walk, she would definitely not go to a crowded place. So he headed for the small garden at the edge of People's Square.

When he was halfway there, Casey saw a familiar person in a milk tea shop: the maidservant of Edith, Emma.

Since Emma was here, Edith should be somewhere nearby. He immediately looked around the milk tea shop.

However, after quite a while, Casey still didn't see Edith.

He was not anxious. He had already found Emma. As long as he followed her quietly later, he should be able to find Edith.

So he waited a moment outside the milk tea shop. When Emma came out of the milk tea shop with two cups of milk tea, he pulled the cap low and followed her quietly.

Emma indeed headed towards the small garden. However, when she reached a place where there was not many people, she looked around, after which she approached a stone bench, put down the two cups of milk tea, opened one cup and then poured the powder in a paper bag into the cup.

Seeing this, Casey immediately frowned. He didn't know what Emma had put into the cup of milk tea.

If he was right, one of the two cups of milk tea would be given to Edith. Casey believed that Emma was not going to drink the cup of milk tea which she had put some powder in.

When Emma continued on her way, Casey stopped thinking and followed Emma to the small garden.

From the previous contact, Casey had known that Emma was not a good person. In his opinion, it was impossible that Emma had put some medicine in milk tea to help Edith revive her memory.

Darius knew that he couldn't deal with Casey, and he was unwilling to ruin the relationship between the Sue family and the Nelson family. Could it be that he wanted to kill Edith with poison and then tell others that Edith had died accidentally? Did he try to dig himself out of a hole in this way?

No matter what Darius wanted to do, Casey wouldn't let Edith drink that cup of tea.

Soon after Emma arrived in the garden, Casey saw Edith reading a book on a bench under a tree.

Emma approached Edith with the milk tea. With a relaxed smile on her face, she spoke, "Miss Sylvie, I've got the milk tea for you. It's delicious. I'm sure that you'll love it."

As she spoke, she handed the cup of milk tea to Edith. It was exactly the one in which she had put some powder.

Edith took the milk tea with a smile, saying, "It smells yummy. I don't remember whether I liked drinking milk tea or not before, but I want to drink it just because of the smell."

Emma said with a smile, "You liked milk tea very much before. Sometimes, you drank several cups of milk tea a day. Try this. The milk tea with this taste is their specialty."

Edith nodded. She opened that cup of milk tea and was going to take a sip. Right at this moment, someone robbed Edith of that cup of milk from behind Edith.

"What did you put in this cup of milk tea?" Casey stared at Emma coldly.

Chapter 566 I Will Destroy the Sue Family, Even the Nelson Family
Neither Emma nor Edith had anticipated that someone would suddenly rob Edith of the milk tea, so they were all frightened.

When Casey said those words, Emma was scared. She didn't expect that Casey would be watching her when she put the drug in the milk tea.

She immediately rolled her eyes. Then, she cried while glaring angrily at Casey, "It's you again. What on earth do you want to do? Before, you went to our home to make trouble for us. Now, you follow us to here. Do you really consider the people of the Sue family to be the one to be bullied?"

When Edith saw Casey, she also frowned. Obviously, she was somewhat unhappy that Casey suddenly appeared and robbed her of the milk tea.

Casey ignored what Emma had said.

After she finished speaking, he asked again, "What did you put in this cup of milk tea? Answer the question!"

There was immediately a hint of panic on Emma's face. But soon she figured out a way to deal with it. She shouted, "What nonsense are you talking about? I didn't put anything in the milk tea. Do you deliberately come to make trouble for us? It's rare that our young lady has an opportunity to drink a cup of milk tea. But you came to stop her. You're too bad!"

Edith stood in front of Emma, frowned at Casey and asked, "What on earth do you want to do? We've been very forgiving of you before. Why do you harass me again and again?"

"Edith, she has put some powder in this cup of milk tea. It's highly possible that she wants to harm you. She is not as good as you think she is." Casey spoke to Edith.

Hearing that, Emma immediately became angry, saying, "Miss Sylvie, don't listen to him. He's talking nonsense and sowing discord between us. He has ill intentions. We had better leave here as soon as we can."

"If you didn't put any drug in this cup of milk tea, drink it now. As long as you drink it, I'll immediately apologize to you." Casey said.

Emma was immediately afraid and let her gaze wander, saying, "Who knows if you have put something into it after you rob Miss Sylvie of it? I won't be tricked by you."

"Well, I'll take this cup of milk tea back and ask someone to make an identification. If I find what you've put into it, I won't let you get away with it."

Casey sneered.

Emma was immediately in a panic. After giving the cup of milk tea a glance, she stretched out her hand to rob Casey of it.

Still staring at Emma with a cold expression, Casey raised his hand, so that Emma failed to rob Casey of the milk tea.

Emma became anxious at once. She turned her head and spoke to Edith, "Miss Sylvie, this is our milk tea. We can't let this hateful guy rob us of it. He's even going to slander me with it. He's so sinister! Miss Sylvie, help me get it back."

Then Emma rushed to Casey again.

Casey dodged easily and said coldly, "If you didn't do anything wrong, why would you be afraid that I'll ask someone to make an identification of it?"

"Obviously, you want to use this cup of milk tea to slander me. The reason why I want to take it back is that I want to protect myself from being slandered by you. Give it back to me now!" Emma spoke in a shrill voice.

Casey was so good at fighting that it was impossible for Emma to rob him of something he was holding.

Seeing that she couldn't rob Casey of the milk tea, Emma simply held Casey, hoping that Casey would drop the cup of milk tea on the ground. If that happened, Casey wouldn't be able to take it back for identification.

Casey didn't anticipated that it was so difficult to deal with Emma. Seeing Emma held him, Casey gave her a kick without mercy, causing her to fall to the ground.

Seeing that, Edith hurriedly went to help Emma up and spoke to Casey with anger in her eyes, "Enough! What on earth do you want to do? If you want money, I can give you that. Why did you beat Emma for no reason?"

Although Edith was angry, she was still tender. It made Casey's heart ache to see that. Emma's putting drug in milk tea meant that someone wanted to harm Edith. Under this circumstance, he wouldn't let Edith stay with the people of the Sue family.

"Miss Sylvie, make a phone call to Mr. Sue and ask him to send someone to help us, otherwise we'll be harmed by this guy." Emma spoke.

Edith hurriedly nodded, after which she took out her mobile phone and was going to make a phone call to Darius. Casey sighed helplessly. Then, he approached Edith, took her mobile phone and said, "Edith, when you remember everything, you'll know that I don't bear you any ill will. Now you're just blinded by people of the Sue family. I can't allow you to go back to the Sue Villa now. You might be in unknown danger there. Therefore, I have to let you suffer a little now."

"You!" Edith shouted at Casey. Casey stretched out his hand and hit Edith's back, after which she passed out.

Seeing that, Emma became even more anxious. She glowered at Casey and spoke, "Do...Do you know what you're doing? The Sue family is the most powerful family in H City. You'll regret having done this to our young lady in the future!"

"Stop acting. You had better tell me the fact. In this way, I may show you some mercy. Otherwise, I'll destroy the Sue family, even the Nelson family!" Casey said coldly.

Emma's expression changed. She didn't expect that Casey dared to say those words. However, she thought that Casey was just trying to frighten her, so she was not going to tell Casey the fact. "Stop trying to frighten me. You can't afford to offend the Sue family, not to mention the Nelson family. If you insist on doing that, you'll be done!" Emma shouted.

Seeing that Emma was unwilling to tell him the truth, Casey no longer talked to her. He took out his cell phone and made a phone call to Nadia, asking her to send someone to pick him up.

Seeing that Casey was not going to let her go, Emma immediately stood up and tried to run away. Casey caught her, after which he hit her leg, making it impossible for her to run away.

Before long, the people Nadia sent drove a car to the small garden. Casey got on the car with Edith in his arms. Then, he took Emma into the car. After that, they left this place.

In the corridor of the rest area of Lan Couch building, Casey was walking back and forth.

He had put Edith in a room. After being hit by him, Edith might sleep for one day.

Emma had been locked up by someone sent by Nadia. Before she told the truth, it was highly possible that she wouldn't be released.

That cup of milk tea had been taken away by someone for identification. Now, Casey was waiting for the result of the identification. At the same time, he was thinking about this matter.

After a long time, he heard the sound of high heels hitting the ground. Nadia was approaching him with an identification report.

Casey immediately walked towards her and asked, "What's the result?"

Nadia answered with mixed feelings, "There is indeed some drug in that cup of milk tea. According to the doctor who had made the identification..."

"It's abortifacient."

Chapter 567 It's Just that You Didn't Use the Right Method

Casey immediately looked at Nadia with his eyes wide open in disbelief and asked, "What's that?"

Casey had always been calm. Now, there was a panicked expression in his eyes. Nadia stared at him. Knowing why he reacted in that way, she repeated, "There's abortifacient in that cup of milk tea."

Casey was instantly filled with dread. There was abortifacient in that cup of milk tea. Didn't it mean that Edith was already pregnant?

As a man, what Casey thought of first was that if it was his child. After all, Edith had been missing for more than two months. During such a long time, anything could happen.

Thinking of this, Casey became angry.

Previously, he thought that Edith was taken good care of in the Sue family. He had never anticipated that something like that would happen.

Seeing his reaction, Nadia immediately smiled, asking, "Are you wondering if it's your child?"

Casey gave her a glance and didn't deny it.

"As expected, in this respect, you're not different from other men." Nadia smiled as if she had found something funny, "In fact, if she's really pregnant, the child she's carrying is highly likely to be yours. The people of the Sue family wants to build connections with the Nelson family with her marriage, but they haven't met yet. Before that, I guess that the people of the Sue family won't let her have any contact with other people."

Hearing that, Casey immediately calm down. He thought that what Nadia said made some sense. Just now, when he thought of that kind of possibility, he did lose control of himself.

"Quick, ask your doctor to get her checked. I want to know if she's really pregnant." Casey said.

Nadia nodded, after which she went to ask a doctor to have Edith checked at once.

Before long, several doctors went into the room Edith was in with some equipment. After the check, the doctors told Casey that Edith had been pregnant for three months or so.

Hearing that, Casey was immediately breathless. Three months ago, Edith was still in J City. In this case, the child Edith carrying was Casey's. This also explained why the people of the Sue family would put abortifacient into Edith's milk tea.

After feeling glad, Casey began to blame himself. It never occurred to him that Edith suffered all these when she was pregnant. When Edith had an accident, he was not in J City. However, he still thought that it was his fault.

"It's been confirmed that your wife is pregnant. The reason why they want your wife to have an abortion is probably that they still want to build connections with the Nelson family with her marriage. What're you going to do next?" Nadia asked while looking at Casey who had been lost in thought after knowing the result.

Casey raised his head, gave Nadia a glance and said in a cold voice, "I'll come to Darius and ask him if he really doesn't take Edith as his daughter. If he can't give me a reasonable explanation, I'll kill him."

Nadia knew that Casey was really angry. If Casey hadn't specially gone to People's Square to protect Edith and therefore hadn't seen Emma put the drug in the milk tea, he would have lost his child.

It was intolerable to Casey. Even if it was Edith's biological father that had done this, Casey wouldn't forgive him. He had tried to make Edith have an abortion with abortifacient. Under this circumstance, he was not eligible to be treated as Edith's biological father. Casey always knew it.

"That maidservant is somewhat stubborn and is unwilling to admit it. What're you going to do with her?"

Nadia went on asking.

Casey sneered, saying, "There is no stubborn person in the world. It's just that you didn't use the right method. Take me to her."

Now Casey was angry. He needed to vent his anger. It was Emma that put the drug into the milk tea. How was it possible that he would let her off easily? Nadia didn't say anything more and went to the room in which Emma was locked up with Casey.

In the dark room, Emma was huddling in a corner and staring at the two strong men in the room with some fear. She had just been beaten up, so she had a bruised face now.

"Let...Let me go now. I'm a member of the Sue family. When our Mr. Sue knows that you did this to me, he won't let you off!" Emma shouted at that two men.

Both of the strong men were angry. They had never met such a stubborn girl. However they beat her, she just didn't tell them the truth.

"If you don't tell me the truth, your Mr. Sue will never know what you've been through here. Besides, you'll soon disappear from the world." At this moment, someone said while the door of this room was opened.

Hearing that voice, Emma shivered all over.

She raised her head, looked at Casey and gritted her teeth, saying, "Kidnapping me for no reason and falsely accusing me of drugging our young lady, your behavior is unforgivable. The people of the Sue family would punish you for it."

Casey approached Emma and then crouched down. He smiled at her and pulled one of her arms.

"So, you're still unwilling to tell me the truth, right?" Casey asked.

Emma tried to withdraw her arm several times, but she failed.

"What...What do you want to do?"

Emma asked with some unease.

"You have only three seconds." Casey asked.

Certainly, Emma wouldn't be frightened after hearing these words. She just stared at Casey and didn't say a word.

Soon, three seconds passed. Seeing Emma didn't say a word, Casey grabbed her little finger and then broke it with some force, making a clear sound.

Emma screamed loudly.

"I'll give you another three seconds."

Casey said again.

Emma cared only about her finger and therefore didn't answer Casey's question. She kept struggling, looking helpless and weak.

Three seconds passed. Casey broke another finger of Emma without any hesitation.

Even Nadia and that two strong men, who were watching, couldn't help gasping, especially that two strong men. Previously, they believed that they had been quite cruel. Now, they knew that they were too gentle to Emma.

This scene repeated. Casey broke Emma's six fingers in total. When Casey was about to break the seventh finger of Emma, Emma spoke while enduring the severe pain, "It's Old Lady Sue who asked me to drug Miss Sylvie. She said that Miss Sylvie couldn't marry into the Nelson family while she was carrying other's child. Old Lady Sue had asked me to do all that. Please, spare me. I know that I was wrong. I'll never do that again."

Hearing that, Casey narrowed his eyes, in which there was a murderous expression.

Chapter 568 Could It Be that He Is the Bodyguard You Mentioned?

At the Sue Villa.

The car, in which Darius sat, drove into the courtyard of the villa. He got off the car, finding that it was extremely quiet today. He was a little puzzled.

A middle-aged man got off the car after Darius. This man was Darius's bodyguard. He was better at fighting than most goon of the Sue family.

Darius turned his head, gave the bodyguard a glance and asked, "Have you found anything wrong around the villa?"

The bodyguard looked around, after which he said with a smile, "It's just a little quite. You might be a little tense because of what had happened recently."

Darius sighed helplessly. He thought that the bodyguard was right. Recently, he had been tense. On one hand, he was trying to build connections with the Nelson family with Edith's marriage. On the other hand, he had to pay attention to Casey. He was really tired.

Not worried about his own safety, he headed towards the villa. With the bodyguard, even if Casey came to him again, he wouldn't be afraid.

After what had happened last time, Darius was always with this bodyguard. In his opinion, Casey was good at fighting, but Casey was definitely no match this bodyguard.

Then entered the villa together. After coming in, Darius found that it was still a bit quiet. So he went upstairs and had a look at Edith's room, finding that there wasn't any people in this room. Neither Edith nor Emma was there.

He frowned. He knew that Edith would go out with Emma. However, at this time, they should have been back.

Darius immediately took out his mobile phone and was about to make a phone call to Edith, asking where she was. At this moment, he heard some noise coming from downstairs. He hurriedly went downstairs to have a look.

However, when he was downstairs, he found that there was not a single person in the living room. Even his bodyguard was not there.

Darius immediately became alert. Realizing that there was something wrong, he hurriedly went to a corner and picked up a baseball bat to protect himself.

He looked around warily with the baseball bat and then walked towards the door. He guessed that the bodyguard had gone to the courtyard to smoke.

When Darius was at the door, he suddenly felt that there was someone behind him. Then, he heard someone say, "What're you going to do?"

Darius was so frightened that he was gooseflesh all over. He immediately turned around and attacked the person behind him with the baseball bat.

However, before he hit that person with the baseball bat, that person took it with one hand and robbed him of it.

Darius swallowed his saliva and gave that person a glance, finding who that person was.

"Casey! It's you again. What do you want to do?" Darius shouted.

Casey lightly hit his palm with the baseball bat while saying with a smile, "I come to you to settle the score."

Darius sneered and said, "Don't think too highly of yourself. My bodyguard is here. He's very good at fighting and could easily knock you down. You had better leave my home now, otherwise you'll suffer."

Casey smiled more brightly and then pointed at the person who was lying on the ground behind the sofa, asking, "Could it be that he's the bodyguard you mentioned?"

Darius looked at that person, after which his expression changed at once.

Unexpectedly, his bodyguard, who was so good at fighting, had already been knocked down by Casey.

When he was upstairs, he heard only a slight noise. That noise should be made when Casey was fighting with his bodyguard. Seeing that his bodyguard was lying on the ground, Darius had to re-evaluate how good at fighting Casey was.

This guy was too good at fighting!

Previously, he believed that this bodyguard was so good at fighting that he could easily knock Casey down. However, to his surprise, Casey knocked down his bodyguard easily. Besides, Casey approached him from behind quietly just now. If Casey wanted to kill him, he would have been dead. Darius swallowed his saliva. He had become the head of the Sue family for a long time, but it was the first time for him to feel helpless.

"I've already talked to my mother about you, but she doesn't believe it. So far, I can't deal with it, either." Darius said.

"I don't come to you to talk about it. I've taken Edith away. From now on, I'll protect her."

While speaking, Casey went to the sofa and sat down.

Darius frowned at once and said, "What do you mean? Do you think that I can't protect Sylvie?"

Casey sneered, saying, "You can protect her? Could it be that you protect her by making her take abortifacient?"

Darius's expression changed right away. He approached Casey, asking, "What did you say? What abortifacient?"

"Stop acting. You asked the maidservant named Emma to put abortifacient in the milk tea. If I hadn't seen it...You should know what would happen." Casey stared at Darius coldly.

"The child Edith is carrying is mine. Even if Emma didn't succeed in doing that, I won't let you get away with it!"

Darius immediately became anxious and said, "Stop talking nonsense! I've never thought of making Edith have an abortion. Besides, I ask someone to prepare the most nourishing soup for her every day in fear that her child will be unhealthy because of her being weak. You're slandering me. I'll definitely not admit it!"

Seeing his reaction, Casey understood that it was Old Lady Sue alone that asked Emma to put abortifacient in the milk tea and that Darius didn't know it. Besides, finding that Darius had attached so much importance to the child Edith was carrying, Casey had a new opinion of Darius.

Being sure that Darius was not the person who asked Emma to do that, Casey was going to talk to Darius about other matters.

"Casey, could it be that you try to take Sylvie away from me by randomly finding an excuse and slandering me?"

Darius asked while staring at Casey.

Casey took out his mobile phone, found a video and handed it to Darius.

In the video, Emma admitted that Old Lady Sue asked her to put abortifacient into the milk tea which was given to Edith.

After watching the video, Darius frowned at once. It never occurred to him that Old Lady Sue would do this.

"I don't know it. Now Old Lady Sue doubts that I want to use some tricks in the process of building connections with the Nelson family with the Nelson family. Now, she just lets me to make arrangements for the meeting between Sylvie and the young master of the Nelson family." Darius said.

"No matter what, you're a member of the Sue family. Even if it's your mother that asked that maidservant to do that, you should still be held responsible for it. If you don't want me take revenge on you, cooperate with me. You have no better choice." Casey said.

"Cooperate with you? What do you want to do?"

Casey narrowed his eyes, saying, "To destroy the Nelson family...and your wicked mother."

Chapter 569 Casey Was Being "Obscene"

When Casey came out of the Sue Villa, he was smiling. After negotiating with Darius for a long time, he finally persuaded Darius to help him deal with the Nelson family.

After Old Lady Sue asked Emma to make Edith take abortifacient, it was impossible for Casey to calm his anger. Darius knew that. He also knew another thing: if he refused to cooperate with Casey, he would finally suffer.

If he cooperated with Casey, Casey would forgive his past misdeeds. Besides, Casey would also help him take all the power from Old Lady Sue and help him completely control the Sue family.

Moreover, what Casey asked him to do was very simple. He just asked Darius to play some tricks on the meeting between Edith and the young master of the Nelson family.

Although Darius was not sure whether Casey could deal with the Nelson family, he was willing to help Casey. These days, he had been thinking about the mistakes he had made in the past. Whenever he saw Edith, he would feel guilty.

This was also the reason why he didn't want to harm the child Edith was carrying.

He clearly knew that Edith wouldn't be in a much better situation than she was now after marrying into the Nelson family. Considering that Edith was tender and kind, she would definitely be bullied.

These days, from what Casey did, Darius realized that Casey loved Edith very much. So he was willing to take a risk.

What Darius somewhat resisted was that Casey wanted Old Lady Sue to die. However, considering how Old Lady Sue treated him over these years, Darius had long not had any affection for her.

Finally he promised Casey that he would help him deal with the Nelson family. However, he would neither help him deal with Old Lady Sue nor prevent him from doing so.

After Casey left the Sue Villa, Darius looked at the sky at the door of the villa and murmured, "I'm afraid that the situation of H City is going to change."

When Casey was back to Lan Couch building, it was already dark. There were only a few people who were still on duty in the building.

Casey went to Edith's room, opened the door carefully and then entered the room.

Edith was still asleep. She was lying on the bed with her eyes closed. From time to time, she would frown, as if she was having a nightmare. It made Casey's heart ache to see it.

These days, Casey had consulted many well-known doctors about how to revive her memory. After listening to what Casey said, the doctors all advised him to let Edith have more contact with something familiar in the past. It would help Edith remember what happened in the past.

Casey had also made a phone call to Luna and asked her to consult Owen. The advice Owen gave was similar to that given by those doctors. After all, brain was the most mysterious part of the body of human beings. So far, human beings didn't have much understanding of the brain.

Therefore, Casey could only slowly help Edith revive her memory. Moreover, the top priority now was to break down the barrier of hostility between Edith and him.

He put a chair beside the bed and sat on it, staring at Edith. After being anxious and missing her for such a long time, Casey considered it to be a kind of happiness to stare at Edith just like this. At midnight, Casey was a little tired. Then he stood up and was about to go back to his room.

Right at this moment, Edith turned over and said slowly, "Casey, you're on my hair."

Casey was stunned. Then he smiled and thought: although you've lost your memory, you still subconsciously remember me and will even dream of me.

After staring at Edith for a while, Casey decided that he would stay here.

Anyway, it was a double bed and was big enough for him and Edith to lie on it at the same time.

Having long not met Edith, how was it possible that Casey didn't want to sleep in the same bed with Edith? Edith still didn't remember him. However, considering that Casey was her husband and that Casey was not going to do something immoral to her, no one could blame him for sleeping in the same bed with her.

After convincing himself, Casey lied down beside Edith. Smelling the faint fragrance Edith had, Casey was even a little nervous.

"I just lie here and I'll definitely do nothing." Casey said to himself.

Before, Casey turned his head and looked at Edith. When he saw her lips, he couldn't help swallowing his saliva.

"I'll just kiss her once. I promise that I'll just kiss her once. And I won't do anything else."

After struggling for a while, Casey slowly approached Edith's lips.

Kissing Edith again, Casey was very excited and began to kiss her in a violent way.

After kissing Edith for a long time, Casey licked his lips with satisfaction.

Right at this moment, he saw Edith's breast and couldn't help reaching out his hand.

"Why do I feel it a little obscene for me to do this..." Casey had a strange idea.

"Anyway, she's my wife. It's not obscene for me to do that at all. Isn't it normal for a couple to do that in bed?"

After convincing himself, Casey no longer hesitated and stretched out his hand to...

The next morning, Casey was woken up by a scream.

He opened his eyes, finding that there was someone in his arms. After lowering his head and having a look, he found that Edith was looking at him with fear and that she was trying to keep away from him.

Casey let Edith go right away, after which Edith moved to the edge of the bed and wrapped herself with the quilt. She glared at Casey somewhat angrily and said, "You...You're sick. What did you do to me last night?"

Casey was a little anxious at once and thought: what could I do? I just did something a couple should do.

"Edith, don't get me wrong. I...I miss you very much, so I slept here last night. I'm really your husband. I've long not been with you, so I..." Casey explained.

"You're lying. I'm not your wife. I remember that you came to make trouble for us again yesterday. You not only slandered Emma, but also knocked me out. Now, you...you did this to me..." Edith said with an aggrieved expression between sobs, looking poor.

Casey was somewhat in a panic. He hurriedly took out his mobile phone and found a photo, saying, "I'm really not lying. We're really a couple. Look at this photo. It was taken when we hanged out together."

As he spoke, he handed the mobile phone to Edith.

Edith took the mobile phone and saw that it was indeed a picture of her and Casey. In the picture, she put her arms around Casey's neck and was smiling happily.

Chapter 570 Haven't You Heard of My Experience?

Hearing that, Casey's eyes brightened immediately and asked somewhat excitedly, "Edith, do you really remember it? Great! I thought that it'll take a long time to revive your memory."

As he spoke, he tried to hold Edith into his arms. He didn't expect that Edith would remember everything so easily. She should remember everything just after looking at a photo!

To Casey's surprise, Edith still moved back warily. Judging from her eyes, she was on guard against him.

Casey was a little puzzled, asking, "Edith, what's wrong with you? Didn't you remember everything?"

Edith looked at Casey with an angry expression and said, "I remember that there was a software that could process images when I was in college. With that software, you can turn two pictures into one naturally. I remember that I got myself a picture of Jay Chou and me in that way at that time. You must have got this photo in that way."

Casey was a little speechless. He thought that Edith remembered that she was his wife, but she actually remembered that pictures could be processed.

"You're a bad person. Let me go. I won't give in to an evil person like you. I want to meet my father and ask him to punish you!" Edith spoke excitedly.

Casey gave her a glance helplessly.
Then he took his mobile phone and said, "There's no need for you to meet your father. He had agree to let you stay here."

"You're lying! How is it possible that my father would agree to let me stay here with you?" Edith didn't believe what Casey said at all.

Casey found a video in his mobile phone and showed it to Edith. He specially recorded it after discussing with Darius yesterday.

In the video, Darius told Edith her true story and the lies he told to her before.
He told Edith that Casey was indeed her husband and that Emma was sent by Old Lady Sue to watch her.

While Edith listened to what Darius said, there were gradually a complicated expression in her eyes. She clearly knew one thing: Casey could process the picture, but he couldn't process the video. This time, Casey didn't lie to her.
She had a mixed feeling even after she watched the video. She didn't herself to have such an experience. When she was a baby, she was abandoned. After that, she was brought up by her adoptive parents. Later, she had a car accident for some reasons. In this accident, she lost her memory. Then she was taken to H City by Darius.

This man, who she always considered to be someone trying to make trouble for her, was really her husband.

In the past more than twenty years, she was called Edith Patel, not Sylvie Sue.
For a person who had lost her memory, it was very painful to suddenly get so much shocking information. She was in a turmoil. She felt that she should remember many things. However, no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't remember anything.

After a long time, Edith stared at Casey in a daze and asked, "Are...Are you really my husband?"

Casey nodded seriously at Edith, after which he approached her, held her into his arms and said, "Don't worry. In the future, I won't let you suffer any grievance. I'll definitely figure out a way to help you revive your memory."

This time, Edith didn't try to push him away. She nestled against Casey's chest, finding that she was familiar with his temperature and heartbeat, as if she usually leaned against it in the past. Finally, Edith lowered her guard and leaned her head against Casey's chest. Having received too much information in a short time, Edith was dizzy. Soon, she fell asleep in Casey's arms. Casey put her on the bed. After staring at her for a long time, he quietly left the room.

In Nadia's office.

Casey looked at Nadia and asked, "How's the preparation going?"

"It's basically completed. These days, I use all the resources of Guanling in H City and put all the industries related to the Nelson family under control. The moment you give an order, what the Nelson family has would all be destroyed. Besides, I've reported it to the boss. The boss asks you to do as you like. He wouldn't take the Nelson family it seriously." Nadia replied.

Casey nodded. He was also a bit surprised at how powerful Guanling was. Although the Nelson family was not as powerful as the Turner family, it was still a top family in the world. However, when people of Guanling wanted to destroy the Nelson family, the people of the Nelson family was even unable to save itself at all.

"What did the young master of the Nelson family do recently?" Casey asked.

"He was indeed a fighting fanatic. After he came back, he has almost fought in every underground boxing field in H City. Moreover, no one could knock him down. Walker also has several boxing fields and the young master of the Nelson family has fought in all of them. These days, Walker is unhappy because of it." Nadia spoke.

Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that the young master of the Nelson family would be so crazy about fighting that he fought in nearly every underground boxing field in H City not long after he come back.

"Just let him do this. I'll teach him a lesson on the day of the banquet."

Casey said with a smile.

Nadia looked at Casey up and down, saying with a smile, "Lord, you're so confident in defeating Rocco before you watch him fight even once. If you lose to him then, you'll lose face."

Casey smiled. He looked at Nadia, asking, "Could it be that you've never heard of my experience?"

Generally speaking, if one knew that he successfully climbed high ladder, one would not doubt how good at fighting he was. After all, only top experts in fighting could climb high ladder.

Nadia was stunned asking, "What experience?"

In these years, she has been working in H City, so she didn't know much about what had happened in Guanling.

Casey smiled and then said, "Well, I'll explain it in this way. Do you think that the Nelson family could defeat Kacper?" After thinking for a moment, Nadia said, "Kacper is indeed very good at fighting. However, Rocco has learned from an expert in fighting in R Country. He's also very good at fighting. It's hard to say who fights better."

"You ask me that question. Could it be that you're going to tell me that you fight as well as Kacper does? Lord, I don't look down upon you. But Kacper is a top expert in fighting in a hundred years. It's not easy to fight as well as he does."

Casey calmly looked at Nadia and spoke, "I've defeat Kacper."

Nadia immediately widened her eyes and looked at Casey in shock.

"Really? When did you defeat him?"

Nadia asked.

"Some time ago. When I climbed high ladder, he was the last person to fight with me."

Nadia gasped at once and admired Casey a lot.

Chapter 571 Edith Became Jealous

In the next few days, Casey spent most of his time on accompanying Edith. He wanted to help her revive her memory by having more contact with her.

After watching that video, Edith was much less hostile to Casey. However, Casey was still a somewhat stranger to her because she hadn't remembered the story between her and Casey. So she couldn't completely lower the guard against Casey.

To make Edith closer to him, Casey told her a lot of things related to them. Certainly, to avoid Edith from having a bad impression of Casey, Casey just told her what had happened after their relationship got better. He didn't mention that he used to sleep on the floor and do housework every day.

Casey talked to her about the banquet in TY Manor and the wedding ceremony in Crystal Castle and Edith was attracted by it. She somewhat doubted whether what Casey told her was true or not. After all, it was like the plot in the fairy tales.

To convince Edith, Casey specially found the love stories based on Crystal Castle and showed them to Edith. After reading them, Edith was surer that what Casey said was not true. She thought that Casey was fooling her with these stories.

Casey was somewhat helpless. Edith was in such a state. When he talked to her, he felt as if he were fooling an innocent girl.

However, because of this feeling, Casey felt as if he had just fallen in love with Edith.

Before, he married into and lived with Edith's family, having no love experience with Edith. In these days, he got along with Edith and had the feeling of being in love.

Edith completely got along with Casey in the way she did with a stranger. And after Edith lost her memory, Casey didn't know her well. They were all curious about each other, just like the lovers who had just fallen in love.

To make Edith happier, Casey told many jokes to Edith every day. Hearing those jokes, Edith would laugh happily. Because of it, they were closer to each other.

Apart from spending time with Edith, Casey also discussed the details of dealing with the Nelson family with Nadia. After Edith came here, especially after Nadia knew that Casey successfully climbed high ladder in Guanling, Nadia treated Casey in a more reserved way.

As a person ranking high in Guanling, Nadia knew how horrible it was to climb high ladder. People who could successfully climb high ladder were all more powerful than people could imagine. She was afraid that Casey would kill her because she was too "enthusiastic" to him when Edith was there.

In the morning, after Casey got up, Nadia asked him to go to the office and told him the situation of their people's infiltrating into the Nelson family.

After hearing that, Casey went to Edith's room. They were "just in love", so Edith was still unwilling to sleep in a room with Casey.

When he approached her room, he knocked on the door and then entered the room.

"Edith, it's time to have breakfast. What do you want to eat? I'll take you to breakfast." Casey said with a smile. Edith had long been dressed. Now, she was sitting at the dressing table with light make-up, looking very beautiful. However, it seemed that she was a little unhappy. After hearing what Casey said, she just spoke, "I'm not going." Casey was immediately stunned. Then he went to behind Edith, put both hands on her shoulders and asked, "What's wrong? My young lady, it's bad for you not to have breakfast." Edith shook her shoulders, so that Casey could no longer put his hands on her shoulders. She said while looking obviously somewhat angry, "I'll go to have breakfast on my own." Seeing that, Casey hurriedly asked, "What's wrong? Did I annoy you?" "Humph, no. I won't become angry because of you. I'm not familiar with you." Edith said so, but her expression completely betrayed her. Casey realized that Edith wouldn't have such a reaction without anything wrong at once, asking hurriedly, "Edith, what on earth happened? Tell me what mistake I have made, and I'll apologize to you for that now." It seemed that Edith was still unwilling to talk to Casey. However, after hesitating for a moment, seemingly being too angry, she asked while staring at Casey, "You say that we're a couple, right?" Casey nodded right away and said, "Yes, it's really true. It can't be false." "Then why do you come to the woman with big boobs every day? Is it because your wife doesn't have boobs as big as hers? Or is it because you've fallen in love with her and you're just fooling me now?" Edith questioned angrily.

She was in a good mood in this morning. Considering that she would go to have breakfast with Casey later, she even put on makeup after getting up. After putting on makeup, she went to the door of her room to see if Casey had gotten up. However, the moment she came out, she saw that Casey was going to Nadia's room.

She was angry as if Casey had betrayed her. She had paid attention to Casey and Nadia for a few days, finding that Casey nearly went to Nadia's room every day. She suspected more that Casey had an affair with Nadia.

That was the reason why Edith was angry now.

Hearing that, Casey didn't know whether he should laugh or cry. He didn't expect it to be the reason why Edith was so angry.

Besides, he was surprised to find how Edith described Nadia. He couldn't help wondering if all women would attach importance to that part of body.

"Edith, you've got me wrong. I just come to Nadia to discuss how to deal with the Nelson family. I really don't have an affair with her." Casey explained.

Edith didn't believe what he said, speaking, "Humph, stop trying to fool me. That woman is so...so... I don't believe that you just come to her to talk about that every day."

Casey became a little anxious. He indeed didn't know how to explain to Edith, so he hurriedly asked Nadia to come here.

After Casey told Nadia the whole story, Nadia put on a playful smile. Then she turned her head, gave Casey a glance and said, "Leave this room now."

Casey was stunned and said, "I ask you to explain for me..."

"I know it. Just leave the room. I'll explain it to her. Don't worry. I won't bully her." Nadia said.

Casey was somewhat hesitant.

However, finally, he listened to Nadia and went to the corridor outside the room.

About fifteen minutes later, when Casey became a little impatient, the door of the room was opened.

Casey hurriedly turned around and had a look. Then, he immediately widened his eyes. Edith and Nadia was coming out of the room hand in hand!

"You..."

Edith stared at Casey, saying, "Humph, Nadia's right. There's no need to argue with you. I'm going to have breakfast with Nadia."

Nadia gave Casey a playful glance and then went to have breakfast with Edith.

Casey was puzzled. Judging from Edith's reaction, she should be not angry now. However, he couldn't figure out how Nadia successfully did that.

In this moment, Edith regarded Nadia as a rival in love; but later, Edith began to call Nadia intimately.

Women were indeed unpredictable.

Chapter 572 A Vicious Creature

Time passed quickly.

Soon, it was the day on which the banquet was held.

These days, Edith had been with Casey. As agreed, Darius didn't inform Old Lady Sue and the people of the Nelson family of it. Now, both people of the Sue family and the people of the Nelson family believed that Edith was in the Sue Villa, safe and sound.

At the Beach Hotel. The Sue family rent a floor of this hotel to hold this banquet. Now, as Darius requested, it had been delicately decorated.

There were flowers here and there in the hall, and the decorations there were quite romantic. The Beach Hotel even specially used crystal lamps for this banquet. The crystal lamps were giving out golden light in the hall. Under the light, the flowers looked very beautiful. There were curtains covering many places on the wall of the hall. Guests didn't know what was under the curtain, and just found it mysterious.

At this moment, Darius was still busy checking the arrangements of this banquet in the hall. It seemed to be a banquet held for Rocco and Edith, but only he knew that the most important person of this banquet was actually Casey.

After giving the curtains on the wall a glance, Darius went to the staff in charge of arranging the hall again to confirm if everything was right. After being sure that everything was right, he asked someone to open the door of the hotel and began to let guests come in. At this moment, a lot of luxury cars had been parked near the door of the Beach Hotel. The Sue family was going to build connections with the Nelson family with marriage. It was a big event. People who were somewhat powerful in H City wouldn't miss it. Being recognized by the Sue family and the Nelson family was originally something to be proud of. To get to know some big shots from the upper class in such a banquet, some people even spent huge sums of money on buying gifts.

Casey arrived early at the door of the Beach Hotel, but he didn't go in. He just waited at the door to what sort of person the head and the young master of the Nelson family were.

It was already dark. There were many cars in the street. Everyone knew that there would be a banquet at the Beach Hotel in the evening. However, none of them knew that there was something very serious behind the banquet.

Before long, there was suddenly a disturbance in the street in front of the Beach Hotel. People who came to watch all looked at somewhere not far away.

At that place, there were five cars occupying the entire driveway. Two of those cars were leading the cars on either side of the driveway; two cars were driving on either side of the driveway at the back; the last car was driving in the middle of the driveway and also in the middle of other cars.

"Look! Those cars are so imposing! Who are in those cars?"

"Maybe people of the Nelson family, the family that is going to build connections with the Sue family with marriage. I've never heard of the Nelson family before. Now, judging from it, it seems that it's more powerful than the Sue family."

"As a matter of fact, the Nelson family is a low-key family. The Nelson family had become the most powerful family in H City in the 80s. After it became more and more powerful, it no longer showed up in public in H City. To be honest, the Sue family is not as powerful as the Nelson family."

Hearing that, people all nodded thoughtfully.

Before long, that five cars stopped in front of the door of the Beach Hotel.

People who got off from the car driving on the side of the road were bodyguards. A somewhat fat middle-aged man and a young man with an air of forcefulness got off the car driving in the middle.

After a glance at them, Casey knew that they were Lochlan Nelson and Rocco, the head of the Nelson family and his son.

There was nothing special about Lochlan. It could be found in a glance that he was a leader ranking high and living a wealthy life. Rocco was quite impressive. He was not like the dandies of powerful families. He had an air of forcefulness, making people feel that it was not easy to approach the youth.

After Lochlan and Rocco got off the car, many people went to greet them.

Lochlan coldly looked at these people.

After saying a few words casually in return, he was going to go to the Beach Hotel.

Right at this moment, a little girl with a dirty face dressed in rags approached Lochlan, looked at him with pleading eyes and said, "Uncle, please help me. I haven't eaten anything for three days. My mother is so hungry that she can't stand up. Can you please give me some food and save my mother?"

Seeing this little girl, Lochlan immediately frowned and then gave her a kick, making her fall to the ground a few meters away.

"How dare you approach me? Do you consider me to be a philanthropist?"

Lochlan said.

None of the people seeing that thought that it was wrong for Lochlan to give that little girl a kick. A few people even applauded and praised Lochlan for being strong and for being able to make that little girl fall to a distant place.

"That damn little thing almost makes my clothes dirty. Hurriedly drive her away, so that other people won't be affected."

Lochlan said as if he was right.

His bodyguards immediately came close to that little girl and was going to throw her away.

After being kicked by Lochlan, the little girl had been wailing. She had thought that she could get help from these rich people today. However, she didn't anticipate that these rich people would be so cruel.

Seeing those bodyguards approaching her, the little girl was even more frightened.

"I know that I was wrong. I'll leave here right now and won't obstruct you anymore. Don't beat me, please." The little girl pleaded.

Those bodyguards would of course not care about what she said. After working for Lochlan for a long time, they all knew that ordinary people were unimportant.

For poor person like the little girl, even if they were killed, no one would redress the grievances for them.

Just when one of the bodyguards was about to grab the little girl by her neck, someone came to behind the little girl and carried her into his arms.

"The head of the Nelson family should do this to such a weak child. Could it be that you have no conscience?" Casey said in a deep voice while staring at Lochlan coldly.

Lochlan was listening to the flattering remarks from people around. When he heard what Casey said, he immediately turned his head and looked at Casey. When he found that Casey was just a young man dressed in plain clothes and that Casey had no features, there was immediately a hint of malicious look in his eyes.

"Why? Could it be that you want to teach me a lesson for it? You want to realize that I was wrong?" Having ranked high for years, Lochlan had long not taken moralities seriously.

All people looked at Casey with sympathy. In their opinion, interfering in something that had nothing to do with him when the head of the Nelson family was involved, Casey must be out of his mind.

Casey stared at Lochlan coldly.

"If you don't know that people should pity the weak, I don't mind teaching you, a vicious creature, a lesson for this girl."

Chapter 573 Kick the Vicious Dogs

When Casey finished speaking, everyone's face changed.

How dared he cuss that the Lord Nelson was as cruel as a wolf in front of everyone probably at the expense of his life.

"There must be some mental problems with this guy. He even ran up to the Lord Nelson and yelled at him. I'm afraid he is going to be misfortunate."

"Fuck, he is really not afraid of death. He even dared to say that the Lord Nelson was as cruel as a wolf. Even if he didn't know who the Lord Nelson was, he should have seen the pomp just now. Couldn't he figure out who Lord Nelson was?"

"Tsk, tsk, tsk, it seems that this guy can't see the sun tomorrow. If he is sensible and kneel down to beg for mercy, Lord Nelson might give him a chance to die more decently."

...

Lochlan squinted at Casey, then he said with a smile, "You are the first one who dares to say that to me."

Casey curled his lips and said, "You haven't realized your problem for so many years, so you can see how stupid you are."

Lochlan didn't expect that this young man in front of him would not put him in his eyes. The smile on his face disappeared suddenly, and he became quite gloomy.

The little girl looked at Casey worriedly and said, "Big brother, you don't need to worry about me. You will get into trouble by helping me. Please let me go. We can't afford to offend them."

Casey smiled at the little girl and said, "Don't worry, I will be fine. If they are bad guys that have done something wrong, they will be punished, otherwise there is no justice in the world."

The little girl stared open-eyed at him, and she seemed not to fully understand. Casey had wanted to come here to see what kind of person Lord Nelson and Rocco were. He didn't expect this could happen.

When Lochlan started to deal with the little girl, Casey had already made up his mind that the Nelson family should be got rid of. This so-called world-class family didn't deserve to exist in the world.

No matter what, he would deal with the Nelson family tonight, so he was not worried that what was happening now would have influence on his plan.

Lochlan snorted coldly, and said, "You look quite young, but when you speak, you are like a person from the last century. No one can talk about justice in front of me. If we must talk about it now, I represent justice!"

As soon as Lochlan finished speaking, the bodyguards walked towards Casey, with sneers in their eyes, obviously disdainful of this guy who suddenly appeared to seek trouble for himself.

"Brother, run, there are so many of them, you must not be able to beat them." The little girl shouted to Casey anxiously.

Casey smiled at her and said, "Hold me tightly. Today, I will show you what it is like to kick vicious dogs!"

As soon as he finished, the bodyguards had already rushed towards him. Casey raised his foot and kicked directly on the bodyguard at the front. The bodyguard fell back with little resistance.

At first everyone thought that if Lochlan's bodyguards struck out, Casey would not be able to resist for over three seconds, but now seeing what was happening, they were all surprised.

Those bodyguards who didn't put Casey in their eyes didn't expect Casey to be so powerful. They no longer underestimated Casey, and stared at Casey seriously, determining to beat him to the ground.

However, what they didn't expect was that even if they got serious, they still couldn't even bear a strike of Casey.

The little girl hugged Casey tightly with both hands, watching Casey kick the bodyguards down to the ground in confusion. She was so surprised that she opened her mouth wide.

Rocco, who was standing next to Lochlan, noticed Casey's movements and became interested in him. As a combat maniac, how could he ignore Casey's strength.

Casey was even qualified to fight him, and Rocco showed an expression of eagerness immediately.

Lochlan squinted his eyes, and he muttered to himself, "I didn't expect him to have some competences, no wonder he dared to be so arrogant."

"Father, he is not as weak as we thought. Your bodyguards are not his rivals. I will catch him and let him make amends to you." Rocco said.

Lochlan wanted to say yes originally, but soon he noticed that there were people taking pictures and video recordings around, and he said to Rocco, "No, there are so many people around now, and today we are organizing a banquet. We should not let him mess it up. Let him go tonight, and wait until tomorrow to deal with him."

Hearing what his father said, Rocco had no choice but give up, but showed a glimmer of expectation in his gaze at Casey.

Lochlan glanced at Casey and said loudly, "Okay, stop now. I won't haggle over what happened tonight. This young man is ignorant. I don't blame him. I only hope that you can consider the consequences before you decide to do anything like this in the future, otherwise, you may never wake up the next morning."

After speaking, Lochlan walked into the hotel. Rocco glanced at Casey again to remember his appearance, and followed Lochlan into the hotel.

The bodyguards also stopped fighting with Casey.

Everyone began to praise Lochlan's generosity of not disputing with this junior, and then walked in by surrounding him.

Casey hugged the little girl in his arms and watched Lochlan walk in, with murderous expressions in his eyes.

The little girl looked at Lochlan's back and asked, "Brother, will he let us go? His eyes were so terrible just now, as if he would come to us again."

Casey smiled and patted the little girl's head and said, "Don't worry, even if he has this idea, he won't have a chance to realize it. After tonight, there will be no more Nelson family in this world."

The little girl didn't understand what Casey was talking about, but the big brother gave her a very reassuring feeling. Since he said it was all right, it should be all right.

"Where is your mother, take me to her." Casey asked.

There was a hint of gratitude in the little girl's eyes, and tears fell off again.

Then Casey put the little girl down and asked her to take him to her mother.

There was a bridge hole in which a thin woman was lying in. After Casey arrived, he gave her the water and food he bought to fill her belly.

After that, he left a sum of money for the mother and daughter. Although the money was not much but enough for them to fill their bellies for several days.

After the mother and daughter were settled, Casey walked towards the Beach Hotel.

Before Casey left, the little girl knelt down and kowtowed to him for several times, and promised Casey that she would work hard in the future and repay him.

Casey didn't take these words seriously.

Now he was going back to the Beach Hotel to start his plan of destroying the Nelson

Chapter 574 Still Got Some Self-awareness

In the lobby of the Beach Hotel.

Everyone followed Lochlan into the hotel. Many people were still discussing what happened just now, cursing Casey for not having self-awareness, and not taking the opportunity to please the Nelson family.

At this time, Old Lady Sue was standing in the lobby. In order to participate this banquet, Old Lady Sue took out her most precious jewelry and clothes to show her dignity.

Seeing Lochlan being surrounded by people, Old Lady Sue perked herself up immediately and greeted him with a smile on her face.

"Lord Nelson, long time no see, you are really getting more and more handsome and debonair. Your temperament is rarely seen in contemporaries." Old Lady Sue smiled and said.

Lochlan greeted Old Lady Sue with a fist-and- palm salute and responded with a smile, "Old Lady Sue, you are joking. You look in really good spirit. It seems that you are getting younger and younger."

Old Lady Sue was far more excited to be praised by Lord Nelson, and she continued to praise Lochlan.

Lochlan only responded symbolically. To Old Lady Sue, he was not so indifferent, but he was not enthusiastic either.

Although today's banquet was for the marriage between the two families, they all knew what the other side were thinking about in mind. The Nelson family was stronger than the Sue family, and the Sue family was marrying their daughter. It was normal for Lochlan to bear an arrogant attitude towards Old Lady Sue.

"Did Darius come today? I haven't seen him yet." Lochlan asked.

"Of course, he is here. How dare he miss such an important banquet? He was standing here just now and chatting with me, who knows where he has gone." Old Lady Sue answered, and she turned her head and looked around for Darius, but Darius was nowhere to be found.

"Well, in fact, it doesn't matter if you see him or not. As long as you and I agree on the matter today, there will be no problem." Old Lady Sue said, showing that she didn't care about Darius at all. It looked like that what she said about the Sue family counted, and it didn't make much sense whether Darius, the Mr. Sue, would come or not.

Lochlan smiled and nodded. He also knew the situation of the Sue family, so he didn't say much.

"This is my son, Rocco." Lochlan pointed at Rocco who was standing by and said.

Old Lady Sue stared at Rocco and said with a smile, "What a handsome boy. He is the perfect match for Sylvie."

Rocco just glanced at Old Lady Sue coldly, and didn't say anything. He was still thinking about the person who was in front of the hotel just now, thinking that after today, he must find him and break a lance with him.

"Since today is the banquet for my son and Miss Edith, would you please invite Miss Edith out here?" Lochlan stared at Old Lady Sue and said.

Old Lady Sue nodded at once, and then looked around, trying to find Darius, because Edith was with Darius, and she didn't know where Edith was.

"Sylvie is with Darius now, but I don't know where he has gone. I can't find him now. How useless he is." Old Lady Sue muttered.

Lochlan frowned when he heard Old Lady Sue's words. He didn't expect that the Sue family would let them wait. For Lochlan, it was already nothing but a provocation to him.

At this time, Lochlan also noticed the curtains hanging on the wall of the lobby, and asked, "Old Lady Sue, what are the curtains on the wall for?"

Old Lady Sue turned her head and stared at the curtains, with embarrassment on her face, and said, "These are all arranged by Darius. I don't know what they are used for. It is probably a little surprise that Darius prepared for everyone."

Lochlan suddenly snorted, obviously dissatisfied with what the Sue family had done.

"Father, it's just a woman. It doesn't matter if I see her or not. Anyway, even if I marry her, I will only vent my desires on her. There is no difference with the ones I got with money. I think we can just go back and forget it." Rocco said. Old Lady Sue's face changed suddenly, and she said in a hurry, "Don't worry, I'll let them bring Sylvie here."

After speaking, Old Lady Sue shouted directly in the lobby, "Darius! Where are you, get out of here!"

At this time, a man came out from the crowd, it was Darius who dared not look at Old Lady Sue.

He had chosen to help Casey, which was equivalent to standing on the opposite side of the Nelson family. At this time, he'd better have less contact with the Nelson family. Therefore, as soon as Lochlan came in, he went to hide in the crowd.

When Old Lady Sue saw Darius, she questioned, "Where is your daughter? Have you forgotten what day it is today? Why don't you bring her here quickly!"

Darius stared at Old Lady Sue, then looked at Lochlan, swallowed and said, "Mother...I, I don't know where Sylvie is now."

Old Lady Sue opened her eyes wide, and she shouted, "What did you say! She is your daughter. How could you not know where she is!"

Darius sighed helplessly, Edith was with Casey now, how could he know where Edith was.

"Old Lady Sue, what do your Sue family mean? I promised that my son would marry the daughter of your family, because I think highly of you. What do you mean by doing so now? Is it possible that the daughter of your family doesn't think my son is worthy of her, so she refuses to come out?" Lochlan said with a long face.

Old Lady Sue became anxious, and explained, "Lord Nelson, our Sue family didn't mean that absolutely. This is all due to Darius, my useless son. I don't know what he is doing."

Those present didn't know what happened, so they all looked confused.

At this moment, the gate of the hotel was opened, and then three people walked in, Casey, Edith, and Nadia. They walked straight to the center of the lobby and stopped under everyone's gaze.

Lochlan also looked towards Casey, and squinted his eyes after figuring out who came in was the one who had caused trouble for him .

Casey stared at him, smiled and said, "I didn't expect the Nelson family to have some self-awareness. Of course, your son is not worthy of Edith."

"And your Nelson family, you are all about to die, so don't think about marrying Edith!"

Chapter 575 Photos

Everyone present was attracted by the three people who came in suddenly. After hearing what Casey said, they were all shocked. They didn't expect anyone would dare to say so in front of Lord Nelson.

The people who had seen Casey outside a few moments ago were all surprised. They were deeply puzzled by what Casey was doing. They didn't understand that Lochlan had already let him go once. Why did he come here again to seek trouble for himself?

Old Lady Sue noticed that Edith was next to Casey, and pointed at her and said, "That's Sylvie. How could she be with that arrogant junior? Darius, what is going on?"

Darius lowered his head directly when he heard Old Lady Sue, as if he hadn't heard it.

Both Lochlan and Rocco took a look at Edith, and they also noticed Nadia standing on the other side of Casey.

The Nelson family did know something about this well-known socialite in H city. Old Lady Sue became anxious seeing that Darius did not answer her, and she shouted at Edith, "Sylvie, you come here quickly. The banquet today is for you and Rocco, how could you stand with this nondescript guy?"

Edith stared at Old Lady Sue, with some ire on her face. At that time, she saw what the Nelson family did. As a kind girl, how could she tolerate this kind of people?

And after learning the truth, Edith had no good impression for Old Lady Sue. "My name is Edith, not Sylvie Sue as you mentioned. For the past 20 years, I have nothing to do with your Sue family at all. I will never allow you to use me as a tool to please the Nelson family!" Edith said.

Old Lady Sue's face changed abruptly. She didn't expect Edith to say so, and the cold sweat broke out on her forehead.

"What nonsense are you talking about here, your brain must be broken, come over here, otherwise don't blame me for being rude to you!" Old Lady Sue said angrily.

Edith stood motionless. With Casey there, she was not afraid of the threat from Old Lady Sue.

Lochlan turned his head and glanced at Old Lady Sue, and asked coldly, "What the hell does this mean? How could she have another name?"

Old Lady Sue looked at Lochlan with embarrassment, and said, "Lord Nelson, this was all because of him, that nondescript guy. He abducted and deceived Sylvie. He is finding fault with my Sue family. "

At this time, Old Lady Sue remembered that Darius had mentioned to her about Casey. At that time, she didn't put Casey in her eyes. She didn't think that Casey would cause such a big trouble for her at this time.

"Boy, give her back to me quickly. Do you know that today we are holding the banquet for her and Rocco? If you do this, you will not only offend my Sue family, but also offend the Nelson family. The Nelson family is not what you can afford to pick on. If you don't know chalk from cheese, you will die without a place to bury yourself in the end!" Old Lady Sue shouted sharply.

"I've already said that this so-called Rocco doesn't deserve her at all, and Edith is my wife, so why should I give her to you?" Casey sneered.

"What nonsense are you talking about! You, a hillbilly who came from nowhere, dare to covet the daughter of our Sue family!" Old Lady Sue's face flushed with anger, and her both hands trembled. Casey squinted his eyes and didn't speak any more. Instead, he patted his hand. Then, all the curtains covering the wall fell off.

All the people present turned their heads and looked around. They saw beautiful pictures on the walls. The pictures were all about Casey and Edith's best times.

There were pictures took in the TY Manor among the countless flowers, where Casey and Edith were looking at each other, and pictures in the Crystal Castle, when Edith in Chinese clothes were embracing with Casey affectionately. And the selfies took while cooking at home. As well as the pictures of Edith took by Casey when she was working seriously...

In the middle of the lobby, there were the wedding photos of Casey and Edith paved with flowers, just like the Crystal Castle in the past.

Everyone was shocked by these photos. They all stared at the wall with surprise on their faces. These beautiful photos of Casey and Edith even made the people in the lobby touched.

Edith didn't know that Casey had made such preparations before they came. When these photos were presented in front of her, she was also deeply shocked.

These photos recalled in her mind again and again, as if to awaken the fettered memories in her mind.

Not long after, Ivy was so excited that she covered her mouth and tears flowed down from her eyes uncontrollably.

Nadia looked at these photos with emotions. She did not expect that there were so many romantic and beautiful memories between Casey and Edith. At this time, she came to understand why Casey could not be attracted by other beauties. It turned out that this guy loved his wife so deeply.

Old Lady Sue shivered with anger when she saw these photos. She walked quickly toward the wall, trying to tear all these photos off. However, she was too old to tear off the photos.

"What are you guys doing? Get these photos down for me, they are all fake!" Old Lady Sue shouted.

However, no one responded her.

Lochlan and Rocco were already furious at this time. They never thought that the daughter of the Sue family who wanted to marry their family turned out to be someone else's wife.

Old Lady Sue walked up to Lochlan and wanted to explain to him, she said, "Lord Nelson, these are all fake. These photos are forged by him. Don't believe it!"

Lochlan kicked Old Lady Sue to the ground directly.

"Do you really think that our Nelson family are all fools? This banquet was prepared by your Sue family. These photos are hung there. Is it not planned by you? I think you are making fools out of us now!" Lochlan said angrily.

Old Lady Sue endured the severe pain in her body. After hearing what Lochlan said, she looked at Darius, thinking that this banquet was prepared by Darius, and he must have allowed them to hang these photos.

"Darius, what do you mean? You put these photos here to doom our family to death!"

Darius sighed helplessly, and said to Old Lady Sue, "Mother, you are too obsessive. I have been under your oppression for so many years. Now, I don't want to be controlled by you anymore. All of this was the consequence of what you have done."

After speaking, Darius turned around, walked behind Casey, and stopped.

Chapter 576 You Are Not Worthy

Old Lady Sue looked at Darius in disbelief. She didn't expect Darius to stand behind Casey. What this meant was quite obvious.

"Darius! You rebel! What are you doing on his side? Were you bought by him?" Old Lady Sue's eyes were bloodshot and puffy.

"I was not bought by him, just gambling. By now, Casey and the Nelson family are in a life and death struggle. I have to make a choice. This time, I bet Casey can win." Darius said.

Old Lady Sue looked at Darius like an idiot, and said, "It doesn't matter if you say you are incapable of managing family affairs. How can you be so silly at this time? You choose him, an outsider. Do you think he could beat the Nelson family?"

Darius was too lazy to argue with Old Lady Sue, and said, "Let's wait and see."

At this time, Lochlan sneered and said, "What? Are you all neglecting our Nelson family? And making choices? Is this unknown guy qualified to compare with our Nelson family? You all made a scene today."

"I will let neither this guy nor your Sue family go today. You are going to let my son marry a woman who has been married. How dare you. After tonight, I will put your Sue family on the Nelson family's blacklist, and it's up to fate what your Sue family will be like in the future." Everyone at the scene looked at the Sue family and Casey with some sympathy. They understood the weight of Lochlan's words, and they didn't doubt whether Lochlan could do as what he said.

Nadia took a step forward with a smile, and said, "Don't talk like this, the night is so long, how can you be so sure that your Nelson family will still exist in the world later?"

Lochlan squinted at Nadia and said coldly, "Nadia, chairman of the Lan Couch Group, a small cosmetics company, where do you get the courage to say so?"

Nadia was not angry because of what Lochlan said, and she continued to smile and said, "Of course my courage comes from him. This guy looks mediocre, but soon, you will know how powerful he is."

Lochlan's gaze returned to Casey again. When he met him outside at that time, he had already decided to kill Casey. Now this guy dared to make trouble for him again. Of course, he would not give Casey any chance to escape this time. "Then I want to know, how do you want to fight against our Nelson family, or what are you going to fight us with? The Lan Couch cosmetics?" Lochlan mocked him.

When everyone present heard Lochlan, they all burst into laughter. In their opinion, even if Casey had the help from the Lan Couch Group, he would not be able to beat the Nelson family.

Casey raised his hand to look at the time and said, "After half an hour, everything of the Nelson family will fall apart. If you have nothing to do right now, you can wait here for half an hour. In half an hour, you will know what I could use to fight the Nelson family." Everyone laughed contemptuously, obviously not believing that the Nelson family would fall apart in half an hour.

"I think this guy is from the lunatic asylum. He even dared to say that he would destroy the Nelson family in half an hour. Does he think the strength accumulated by the Nelson family over so many years is so easy to be destroyed?"

"Ha-ha, what a frog at the bottom of the well. With a little achievement, he dares to brag like this. I've seen a lot of people like him. When the Nelson family deals with him, he will see how weak he is."

"It's the first one who dares to provoke the Nelson family in so many years. Let alone the other things, this guy's courage is incomparable. It's a pity that he could only be described as reckless and stupid."

...

Rocco became intolerant of Casey's bragging, and said to Lochlan directly, "Father, don't talk nonsense with him. I will kill them directly, so they won't be so noisy here."

Lochlan felt that Rocco's proposal was feasible. No matter what Casey said, if he was killed, these ants would no longer be able to continue to jump in front of him.

When Casey heard Rocco's words, he took a step forward and said, "I agree. Half an hour is a suitable period of time. How about we have a fight now to amuse those people present?"

Rocco snorted and said, "I'm afraid you won't be able to hold on for a minute."

After speaking, he signaled to the people around him and asked them move backward.

"Today, let me teach this reckless guy a lesson, and I will let you know what it will be like to provoke our Nelson family!" Rocco shouted at everyone. And the people present began to cheer, thinking that Casey would be beaten to the ground and begging for mercy. Rocco stood in the middle of the field, and looked at Casey arrogantly. Casey also walked towards the center of the field and stood opposite to Rocco. If it was before, when Nadia saw Casey want to fight with Rocco one on one, she might be a little worried, but after knowing that Casey had climbed high ladder successfully, she no longer had such concerns.

Edith was a little nervous. Nadia grabbed Edith's arm and said with smile, "Don't worry, he is amazing. No matter how powerful Rocco is, he can definitely cope with him easily."

Edith nodded and gazed on Casey. "Originally this is a marriage banquet between me and the woman from the Sue family. I didn't expect the banquet to be destroyed by your fellow. This means that you want to grab my woman from me. As a man, I cannot tolerate this."

"Even if this woman is just a tool for venting lust, you are not qualified to get involved with my woman, so today you will pay the price of your life!"

Casey curled his lips and said, "I have already said that Edith is my wife, and you are not worthy of her at all."

Rocco was full of ire now, with his fists clenched, he rushed towards Casey immediately.

"I'll kill you!"

Casey squinted his eyes and after feeling the power from Rocco, he could hardly wait and itched to fight.

He hadn't moved his muscles and bones for so long, and he finally got a human sandbag now. He would not miss it definitely.

Chapter 577 A Fatal Blow

Lochlan looked at the two people in the middle of the field with calm. He seemed quite confident with his son, so he was not worried that Rocco would be beaten by Casey.

"He is just a jack-of-all-trades. Where did he get the courage to go head-to-head with my son? My son has been studying with Masayuki Ichiro, the combat master of R Country, for several years. Masayuki Ichiro's understanding of combat can't be matched by normal people. It is said that he was once invincible in the battle against thousands of ninjas. How could a student of him be beaten by an unknown guy?"

"If my son does his best, this guy may not be able to resist his ten strokes."

"I am afraid that only Kacper in Guanling is the rival who dares to fight with my son among the contemporaries. How dares the smelly fish or shrimp like Casey provoke our family"

"Well, today I will let Rocco deter these people. When they know that my Nelson family is powerful, they will think twice before they try to make trouble for our Nelson family."

Darius stared at the two people in the middle of the field earnestly. He had seen Casey's commercial strength, so he was quite confident in Casey's ability to deal with the Nelson family. But in terms of fighting, especially with Rocco, Darius couldn't help but worry. Although he knew that Casey was strong, and he beat the bodyguards with only three to five strokes, but now Casey was facing Rocco, the combat maniac of the Nelson family. He had heard that Rocco had been studying with the invincible fighting master Masayuki Ichiro in R Country for several years. Even if Rocco had only learned 30% of the skills of Masayuki Ichiro, he would be quite powerful. He wasn't sure if Casey could handle it. If Casey died in Rocco's hands like this, he would have bet on the wrong side this time.

After hesitating for a long time, Darius walked to Nadia and asked with worry, "Are you sure to allow Case to fight Rocco like this? It is said that Rocco is quite powerful. What if Casey could not beat him? All your plans would be broken."

Nadia turned to look at Darius and asked, "Why, you mean that you don't have confidence in Casey?"

"No, I'm just a little worried. You may not know that Rocco has been studying from a fighting master in R Country for the past few years. The fighting master is famous in R Country. He once defeated thousands of ninjas by himself ....." Darius expressed his worries.

Before he could finish, Nadia asked, "Do you know Kacper?"

Darius was taken aback for a moment, and then nodded. The Sue family was considered a world-class family anyway, and naturally he knew something about Guanling.

"Do you think Rocco is more powerful than Kacper?" Nadia continued.

Darius pondered for a while and said, "This is really hard to say. Kacper is said to be on the top of the List of the Ares, and his is powerful indeed. Rocco is the apprentice of the fighting master, and they are almost at the same age.

Maybe, the two of them are equal in strength. Why do you ask this?"

"Casey is more powerful than Kacper, so he can definitely deal with Rocco, so don't worry about it." Nadia said.

She couldn't reveal that Casey was the young Lord of Guanling and succeeded in climbing high ladder, so she made a simple comparison for Darius to let him rest assured.

After hearing what Nadia said, Darius opened his eyes wide, and asked in an unbelievable way, "Really? How did you know?"

Nadia glared at him immediately and said, "Why do you have so many questions? I told you that Casey could handle it. Please shut up and don't bother me and watch them fight."

Darius had to shut his mouth with frustration. Knowing that Nadia was not as simple as she seemed, he also had some fear for her.

"I hope Casey is really as powerful as she said." Darius prayed silently in his heart.

In the middle of the field, after Rocco rushed towards Casey, he directly hit Casey's chest with a heavy punch with no mercy.

Without neglect, Casey took a step back with one foot and stretched out his hand to block Rocco's fist. Casey felt a huge force and he used his foot to relieve the force. He stepped back and resisted Rocco's punch.

Casey felt that Rocco was really powerful from his punch, and he might be able to compare with Kacper,.

However, he didn't panic at all. Instead, he became excited. It was not easy for Casey to run into such an opponent.

The stronger the opponent was, the better could Casey perform.

He had been looking forward to such a battle for a long time.

Rocco frowned when he saw that Casey was able to resist his punch. His punch just now used all of his strength, in order to solve Casey with one punch and let the people around see his power. It was amazing that Casey would survive it.

"Being able to resist my punch, you are considered qualified to make me take it seriously, but I don't know how many punches you can tolerate from me!"

Rocco shouted, before smashing Casey with another punch.

Casey dodged and kicked towards Rocco. Rocco also stretched out his hands hurriedly to block, however the strength from Casey's legs made Rocco move two steps to the side.

The two had already fought a dozen strokes in just ten seconds, and Rocco, who had been very disdainful of Casey, frowned at this time.

In the best state, he could defeat Kacper after fighting against nine masters on the List of the Ares. Now he had only one opponent, Rocco, so he could easily deal with Rocco with 80% of his power.

And Casey didn't want to end the battle too soon, after all, there was still a long time left before the half an hour ended.

As time went by, all people present became quiet. Those who originally thought Rocco would be able to defeat Casey in minutes shut their mouths.

Now it was obvious that Casey was more dominant.

Lochlan also frowned at this time. He didn't expect Casey to be so powerful that he hadn't been defeated by Rocco yet.

Darius's frowning brow slowly eased because of the situation in the middle of the field. It seemed that Nadia did not lie to him. Casey's strength was no worse than Rocco.

After almost twenty minutes, Rocco was already out of breath, and Casey still looked vigorous.

Casey stared at Rocco and said with a smile, "It's almost half an hour. You are not weak, so you are qualified for my full blow. With this punch, I will not give you any chance. If you are fortunate, you can live through it. If not, you deserve it. Let's see!"

Rocco snorted coldly, and he didn't dare to neglect. He stared at Casey rushing towards him with great care.

Casey clenched his fist, and before he rushed near Rocco, he had already smashed into Rocco's chest. The speed was so fast that most of the people in the lobby didn't see how Casey punched.

Rocco had no time to fight back, so he could only cross his hands on his chest to block the punch. Casey's fists hit his arms directly. Then, there was a click, and Rocco's body flew backward instantly. He fell heavily to the ground, and the blood sprayed out of his mouth, staining his entire face.

The lobby was in an uproar.

Chapter 578 The Nelson Family's Decline

Lochlan was stunned as he watched his son fall heavily to the ground. He did not expect that his son would be defeated by an unknown guy.

The gaze of everyone looking at Casey was very different from before. At that time, they thought Casey sucked. They just wanted to see how Casey be embarrassed. Now, they were a little scared of Casey.

When Edith saw that Casey had won, she was relieved.

It took a long time for Lochlan to react from the shock. Then he hurried to Rocco's side, squatted down, and helped Rocco from the ground.

"Son, are you okay?" Lochlan asked worriedly.

At this time, Rocco couldn't move.

Lochlan could only hear grunting from Rocco's throat.

Lochlan looked at Casey with a gloomy face. He said, "Brat, you dared to severely hit my son! It's not over. I will never let you go!"

After speaking, he quickly looked at the bodyguards of the Nelson family and said eagerly, "What the hell are you guys still doing here? Call the ambulance!"

Casey took two steps towards Lochlan and said, "I think there is still no need to call an ambulance."

Lochlan glared at Casey, "What do you mean? My son has been seriously injured. Is it possible that you still want to kill him?"

Casey shrugged and said, "Are you sure he is just seriously injured?"

Lochlan's face sank. Then he quickly looked down at Rocco in his arms. He saw that Rocco's eyes were round, his mouth was slightly open, and strange noises kept coming from his throat. Soon, Rocco spit out some blood again. Immediately afterwards, his head leaned to the side, and then there was no movement.

Lochlan shook Rocco's body quickly, and shouted, "Rocco, what's the matter with you? Say something. Please say something!"

Everyone watched this scene with some horror. They all understood that Rocco could no longer respond to Lochlan.

Casey was not surprised by this result. He used all his strength. If the person didn't have the same strength as Casey, he would be definitely unable to resist it. Rocco didn't die immediately, which was already incredible.

"You killed my son! I'll kill you!" Lochlan was crazy. Immediately, he rushed towards Casey.

Casey looked at him coldly and said, "If it was me who was lying on the ground now, you would probably not want to kill your son. Such a person like you always want to let others suffer and you don't care about them at all. But once you suffer, you will be more aggressive than anyone else."

Lochlan didn't care about what Casey said at this time. After rushing in front of Casey, he stretched out his hand and wanted to grab Casey's neck. But Casey dodged it so easily. Lochlan didn't stop himself immediately, so he lay directly on the ground.

At this time, Casey glanced at the time and said to himself, "It should be coming soon."

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a sound of footsteps at the gate of the hotel.

Everyone turned their heads and looked at the door curiously. It was a large group of people wearing suits. Many wore glasses, holding documents or laptops in their hands.

Those people walked into the lobby of Beach Hotel together and stopped in front of a crowd of guests.

Lochlan got up from the ground. He was about to fight Casey. Just at this moment, he also noticed the people who came in suddenly. He knew the few people who walked in the front. They were project managers of some companies which had close cooperation with the Nelson family.

He looked at these people with some doubts, not knowing why they appeared here.

"Manager Zhao, Manager Sun, Manager Wong, why are you here? Are you here for tonight's banquet?" Lochlan stared at those people and asked.

They looked at Lochlan with a serious face. One of them directly took out a document and shouted at Lochlan, "From today, Kangling Group will terminate all business dealings with the Nelson family. The signing of the agreement is the proof. We won't discuss any business with the Nelson family in the future!"

After this person had finished speaking, the people behind began to shout one by one.

"From today, Yunan Group will terminate all business dealings with the Nelson family!"

"From today, the Williams family will terminate all business dealings with the Nelson family!"

"From today..."

These people were all representatives of companies or families which had close cooperation with the Nelson family. Tonight, they drew a clear line with the Nelson family. They were almost the support for the Nelson family to stand firm in H City. Without these cooperation, the Nelson family's development would soon stagnate and the cash flow would break instantly. Then the Nelson family couldn't return the money they owed to the bank. It would not take long for the Nelson family to declare bankruptcy.

This was a key step for Casey to disintegrate the power of the Nelson family. During this time, what he arranged for Nadia to do was to persuade, induce or threaten these companies and families to terminate cooperation with the Nelson family by various means.

Casey used all the power that Guanling deployed in H City this time. So it wasn't difficult for him to do it.

Lochlan stared at these people dumbfoundedly. He didn't expect that those people would choose to terminate their cooperation with the Nelson family at this time.

He originally wanted to ask the reason, but soon he reacted and turned his gaze on Casey.

"You... you did this?" Lochlan asked.

Casey laughed, "I said, within half an hour, the Nelson family will fall apart. I never like to make jokes."

Lochlan only felt his body weak. He almost sat directly on the ground.

"Don't think that this is all my actions. My goal is to make your Nelson family completely disappear in this world. This is just the first step." Casey smiled.

Lochlan looked at Casey in a puzzled manner. He asked, "Why? Is it just because the woman my son wants to marry is your wife? It's the Sue family who offered it. It's them who want Sylvie to marry into our family. Why don't you get even with the Sue family, but to target my Nelson family?"

Casey laughed, walked in front of Lochlan, leaned to his ear, and asked, "Do you remember Otis Turner?"

Lochlan's body suddenly stiffened. There was horror in his eyes. Meantime, he recalled some scenes from that year in his mind.

"Who...who are you?" Lochlan asked with a trembling voice.

"He is my grandfather." Casey finished speaking and walked away.

Lochlan stood there blankly. Casey's voice was echoing in his ears. The Nelson family was facing extinction, and his son died in Casey's hands. Lochlan only felt suffocated and dizzy. Then he fell to the ground and fainted.

Chapter 579 The Sue Family Is Yours

The banquet between the Nelson family and the Sue family came to an end.

That night, nearly half of the upper-class people in H City witnessed the Nelson family was ruined by an ordinary man.

Casey suddenly became popular in H City. In the past, everyone might not know who this person was, but in the future, this name would surely make those forces in H City frightened.

After Lochlan fainted that night, he never woke up again. As a participant in the murder of Casey's grandfather, Casey naturally couldn't let him stay in the world. That night, when the people in the Nelson family sent Lochlan to the hospital, Lochlan died for unknown reasons.

Afterwards, many people speculated that Lochlan was pissed off to death by Casey. Some people said that Lochlan originally had a heart attack, and the blow that night was too great for him, so he could not take it. Naturally, some people guessed that Lochlan's death had something to do with Casey. But no one knew what really happened that night.

The death of Lochlan and his son on the same day caused an uproar in H City. This gave everyone in H City a warning that the young man named Casey was so terrible.

After the large-scale termination of cooperation by the Nelson family's partners, the shares of listed companies under the Nelson family's name were also sold in large quantities. In one day, the Nelson family's economy was ruined and completely devastated.

The Nelson family without a leader also understood what kind of disaster they were in. Coupled with the secret guidance of some people, everyone in the Nelson family was thinking about how to make more benefits before the Nelson family was completely destroyed. No one was thinking about to unite together to overcome the difficulties.

The Nelson family, who used to dominate H City and hid its strength, had thus become the history.

Because the Nelson family hadn't always appeared in H City in recent years, most people in H City didn't know that there was such a great family disappeared in history, except for some people who saw the scene in person that night.

As for the Sue family, it was not as unlucky as the Nelson family. Because Darius stood by Casey's side in advance, the Sue family did not suffer such a disaster.

However, some people in the Sue family involved in this matter still couldn't escape the punishment they deserved. In the Sue House.

Casey and Darius stood at the door. They escorted Emma who had messy hair and a haggard face.

"Unexpectedly, I and she will still come to such a point. Fate is really something that people can't figure out." Darius sighed helplessly.

"She deserves it. If she commits a sin, she has to pay off it. Isn't it right?"

Casey said lightly.

Darius didn't speak any more. He only knew that if the young man standing next to him wanted to revenge, no one could stop him, even if that person was his mother.

A few people walked into the house together. At this time, the Sue House looked a little deserted. After that night, many people saw the current situation clearly and knew that Old Lady Sue was going to have what she had to deserve, so they all ran away.

They came to the door of Old Lady Sue's room. Darius opened the door and walked inside.

At this time, Old Lady Sue was sitting by the bed. Her hair was scattered and her eyes were dull. Those precious jewelry fell all over the floor, and the whole room was in a mess.

Hearing the door opened, Old Lady Sue raised her head and took a look. Seeing that Darius and Casey were here, a fierce look immediately appeared on her face. She yelled, "You bastard dares to appear in front of me. Darius, you are the sinner of the Sue family. Because of you, my Sue family became so desolate. You're really the shame of the Sue family."

Darius stared at Old Lady Sue, and said, "Mother, the Sue family is not down. You are the only one who is down. You have been so stubborn for so many years. Now it's just God's retribution."

Old Lady Sue immediately widened her eyes and shouted, "You rebellious thing! What do you mean? Is it possible that you are going to unite this guy to deal with me? I'm your mother!"

Darius showed a mocking smile and said, "I didn't expect you to be able to say such things. It really surprised me. I do have this relationship with you, but for so many years, have you ever treated me as your son? You treat me as a thief, for fear that I will snatch the Sue family away from you."

"Do you think I don't know who made the car accidents, poisonings, and assassinations that I have experienced over the years? Tell you, there has been no family affection between me and you for a long time. It's all on your own account that causes us to come to this point. But now you said you are my mother? It's too late!"

When Old Lady Sue heard what Darius said, her face instantly turned pale. She never expected that Darius would talk to her like this one day.

"The follow things are left to you. I have nothing to do with her. No matter what you do with her, it has nothing to do with me." Darius said to Casey before turning around and leaving the room.

Old Lady Sue was desperate, but she didn't regret it at all. Instead, she was complaining about Darius' ruthlessness. Casey stared at Old Lady Sue, and then someone pushed Emma to Old Lady Sue's side.

"The child in Edith's belly is mine. You actually want to murder an unborn child. How vicious you are! No matter whether you succeed or not, your sins are inexcusable."

"I'll never forgive you. Since you wanted to kill my children, I can only kill you. I hope that you two can also understand your faults. In the next life, do more good deeds and don't be vicious."

After Casey finished speaking, he gave the two people on the side a look. The two immediately took out two packets of medicine, put them into the water, and brought them to Emma and Old Lady Sue.

"Drink it!"

Emma looked desperate and began to kneel in front of Casey, begging for mercy. Old Lady Sue also trembled slightly. She was obviously too scared to say a word by the upcoming ending.

"Who do you think you are? Why do I have to listen to you? I am the head of the Sue family. If you treat me like this, I will let you die miserably!" Old Lady Sue shouted at Casey.

Casey waved his hand. The two men holding the cups immediately went forward, forcibly held Emma and Old Lady Sue, and poured the water from the cups into their mouths.

Casey did not stay any longer, turned around and walked out of the room to Darius who was in a daze. Then he said with a faint voice, "From now on, the Sue family is yours."

Chapter 580 Meeting You Is My Biggest Fortune
In Lan Couch Building.

Casey stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, staring at the scenery outside. Then he stretched himself and let out a long sigh of relief.

This time, he destroyed the Nelson family, found Edith, and figured out Edith's real parents. The matters he cared about were all solved. Casey felt so relieved.

What surprised him most was that Edith was pregnant with his child, and he was about to become a father.

Thinking of this, Casey couldn't help but show a smile on his face.

Of course, Edith's memory had not recovered yet, so Casey still had to find a way to help Edith get her memory back. Although the feeling of first love was good, Casey still wanted the original Edith.

"Why are you smirking here?" A voice sounded.

Casey turned his head to look over. It was Nadia.

"Nothing. I'm just thinking about that the things I have to solve in H City will be over, then I feel a lot relax." Casey said.

"So are you planning to go back?" Nadia asked.

Casey nodded, "When things are done here, it's time to go back. Bringing Edith back to a familiar environment is also good for her to get her memory back."

"Are you really so unfeeling? Are you going to abandon me like this?" Nadia immediately showed aggrieved face, which looked very adorable. No matter who saw it, he would feel she was so charming.

Casey was speechless. Then he said,

"Enough!"

Nadia immediately smiled, and then leaned in front of Casey, with a sweet smile on her face, "Anyway, you are leaving. How about letting us enjoy one night before you leave? I miss you for a long time. I promise you that I will never tell anyone. It will be just a secret between the two of us. You only need to spare half an hour..."

Casey directly raised his hand and patted Nadia's forehead, feeling helpless. Nadia's ability was indeed very good, but she was a bit...too lustful.

"If you continue like this, I will throw you out of the window." Casey said coldly.

Hearing this, Nadia immediately showed a disappointed look. Then she said to Casey, "Forget it! You're so stupid in this aspect. I just think that you can't last for half an hour, so you refuse me."

Casey was helpless. He didn't know what to do with Nadia.

"I came to you because I have good news. Do you want to listen?" Nadia said.

"What?" Casey asked.

"It seems that your wife has recovered her memory. She should have been stimulated by the photos you made. Now, she is in the room alone." Nadia said.

Casey's eyes lit up suddenly, and he said excitedly, "Are you serious?"

"You'll know if you go to have a look." Nadia said.

Casey turned around immediately, ran towards the elevator and went downstairs.

Nadia looked at Casey's back, sighed helplessly, and muttered to herself, "It would be so great if this guy met me in the first place. Maybe this is fate."

...

In Edith's room.

Edith was sitting by the bed at this time. Her face was full of emotions, and the trace of confusion which was in her eyes had disappeared at this time.

At this moment, the door of the room was pushed open. Casey rushed in. He looked at Edith excitedly, and asked, "Edith, you have gotten your memory back, right? That's great. I thought that I had to take you around in a familiar environment. Now, it seems no necessary."

Edith straightened up immediately, frowned slightly, glared at Casey, and said, "Casey, can you stop making a fuss every day? Can you be serious? Do you know how many people despise our family because of you? Can you cheer yourself up in the future?"

Casey was taken aback for a moment. Feeling the tone of Edith's words, it seemed that they had returned to the state in which Edith had been indifferent to him in the past few years.

"Edith...what's wrong with you?" Casey asked cautiously.

"I'm okay. You go to ask them to give you a set of beddings. There is only one bed. Do you want to sleep with me on the same bed? Don't forget you always sleep on the floor at home." Edith said. Casey suddenly understood that Edith's memory had indeed recovered, but her memory had only been recovered to a few years ago.

This made Casey feel lost for a while. Seeing Casey's hesitating face, Edith said, "Come here. Give your face to me."

Casey was a little confused. According to Edith's attitude towards him right now, did she want to slap him?

"What are you going to do?" Casey asked.

"Just give your face to me. Stop talking nonsenses." Edith stared at Casey and said.

Casey looked helpless, but he still moved. He thought that Edith was sick now, and he couldn't have a fight with her.

He closed his eyes, feeling that Edith might really punch him.

At this moment, he felt a soft and moist touch. Immediately, he opened his eyes and found that Edith had kissed his face.

Casey was immediately dumbfounded. He looked at Edith incredulously, and asked, "Edith, what are you..."

Edith giggled immediately, and then said, "Fool, I lied to you. I got all my memories back. Just now, I just wanted to tease you."

Casey glared at her. He didn't expect Edith would tease him. He held Edith into his arms and said, "You dare to lie to me! See how I punish you!"

"Hey, be gentle. I am pregnant!" Edith said quickly.

Casey hurriedly took his hands back.

Now he regarded Edith as more precious than him, so naturally he had to take good care of her.

Edith looked up at Casey, and said seriously, "Casey, thank you! Meeting you is the greatest luck of my life."

Casey gently hugged Edith into his arms, bowed his head and kissed Edith's soft lips.

After a while, Casey and Edith separated. Then Casey asked, "Since you want to thank me, should you do something?"

Edith was taken aback, and asked, "What?"

Casey looked directly into Edith's collar and licked his lips.

Edith blushed immediately. She stretched out her hand to hit Casey, and said, "Bad bad! Aren't you afraid of affecting our child?"

Casey coughed slightly. He was no longer like what he used to be. He said to Edith, "In addition to the traditional way, we can use..."

Chapter 581 Theodore Turner

Overseas, on an unknown island.

A spirited old man was sitting cross-legged on a rock at this time. His eyes closed tightly. It seemed that he had already meditated.

The waves kept beating on the rocks on the shore, and the sea breeze rustled the old man's clothes, but the old man was not moved by the surrounding environment, as if everything around him could not affect his concentration.

After a long time, a sturdy figure appeared not far from the old man. This young man's face looked firm and sharp. His eyes were a bit of indifference.

His figure quickly approached the old man without making a sound, as if his steps were no vibration.

He seemed to have melted into the sound of the sea breeze and waves. If others closed their eyes, they would definitely be unable to discover him.

In the blink of an eye, the young man had already rushed behind the old man.

A sharp dagger appeared in his hand. When he got behind the old man, he stabbed the old man's back without mercy.

Seeing that the dagger was about to pierce the old man's back, the young man showed an excited smile. However, at this moment, the old man, who had been motionless on the rock, suddenly rose into the air, and his body turned directly in the air. His two fingers pinched the blade of the dagger. With a light force, the dagger made of alloy broke into two sections.

In the blink of an eye, the old man was already standing in front of the young man. The half of the dagger between his two fingers had also reached the young man's neck.

The young man swallowed. There were some sweat droplets falling from his forehead. After a long time, the young man took two steps back, bowed deeply to the old man, and said, "Master, I have done my best."

The old man laughed. He said with a hoarse voice, "You have been able to approach me within ten feet. In terms of strength, no one among the younger generation can be your match. You have learned from me for nearly three years. Now, it's time to leave."

The young man immediately bowed more deeply, and said, "Master, I feel I don't study the best. I would like to learn from you for a few more years."

The old man said with a smile, "I have taught you everything that can be taught, and the rest is only the tempering of time for you. If you continue to stay by my side, there will be no greater effect. "

"Hasn't your family sent someone to pick you up some time ago? Just go. You have learned what you have to learn. It depends on yourself in the future."

Not far from the island, a helicopter was parked there. Several people in suits were looking towards this side.

Seeing this, the young man didn't dare to say anything. He replied, "Yes, Master!"

"Go. Don't let me down." The old man waved his hand.

"I will not let you down. Take care!"

When the young man finished speaking, he turned and walked towards the helicopter.

"Theodore Turner!" After the young man took two steps, the old man shouted again.

The young man turned around and bowed to the old man again.

"After going back, don't be complacent about your own strength. You are a talent in the younger generation, but there is still a big gap between you and the real master. If you meet a real master, don't fight him. The most important thing is to keep you survive."

The old man said.

"Got it!" Theodore did not neglect in the slightest.

He naturally knew the horror of the real master. The one in front of him was the real master of the martial arts world in H Country, Myles!

Just now, he made an all-out effort against Myles, without any reservations, but he was still defeated by Myles with one move. If Myles treated him as an enemy, he would have become a corpse long ago.

After Myles exhorted this sentence, he turned around and stopped talking.

Theodore didn't hesitate anymore, and hurried to the helicopter.

Before long, the helicopter took off and left the overseas island.

Myles stared at the helicopter until it slowly turned into a small black spot.

The blade that was still between his two fingers was flicked by him fiercely. Then the blade entered the huge rock he was sitting on before, disappearing.

On the helicopter, a man in a black suit handed Theodore a stack of materials, and said, "Mr. Turner, during your absence, Master sent Mr. Finn to eradicate Davies family in B City. But he died in the hands of Casey, the current head of Davies family. Master is very furious, and let me tell you to bring Casey's head back when you go back to see him.

Theodore frowned and asked, "What kind of strength does Casey have? Finn, this trash, actually died in the hands of offspring of a traitor?"

"The latest news is that Casey killed the apprentice of Masayuki Ichiro."

Theodore suddenly sneered and said, "Masayuki Ichiro? If it were three years ago, I might have been a little scared of him, but now, ten Masayuki Ichiro are not my match."

"How do these worldly people know the real power of martial arts? If it were not for the three years of learning from the master, I would have thought that defeating a thousand people by one person is the limit. Thinking about it now, it is ridiculous. True strength is more than defeating one thousand enemies alone."

"Since my father gave the order to me, I will go to kill Casey and get rid of these disgusting mice for our family."

...

On the plane from H City to J City. Casey and Edith were sitting by the window. Sitting next to them was a somewhat greasy middle-aged man. At this time, he was chatting with his companions about the most fun things to travel.

"I tell you guys, the best tourist attraction is not some place like Sanya, Hawaii, but a place called Moon Island. Only ordinary people will go to Hawaii. Those who travel on Moon Island are really rich people. It has cost hundreds of thousands of dollars at least to travel once."

"Moon Island is not only beautiful, it can be said to be the best tourist island in the country. Besides, there are also various entertainment items on the island that you can't think of. It is what the real rich people travel to. Sanya sucks."

When the middle-aged man's companions heard what the middle-aged man said, their faces were full of envy. It was obvious that they all wanted to take a look at Moon Island which that man mentioned.

Listening to the middle-aged man's narration, thinking of Edith's safe return this time, but also restored her memory, Casey wanted to take Edith out to hang out to celebrate.

Moreover, he and Edith hadn't had their honeymoon after their wedding, so he should compensate Edith for a honeymoon.

Before boarding the plane, Casey talked with Edith about this matter. Edith naturally agreed with pleasure and seemed quite happy, but she didn't know where to go for her honeymoon. Now hearing Moon Island, Casey also had a decision.

He glanced at Edith, and asked, "Why don't we go to Moon Island for our honeymoon?"

Edith's eyes lit up and then she nodded immediately.

What Casey said was heard by the middle-aged man. The man turned his head, gave Casey a smile, and said, "Bro, I advise you to stop having this idea. Moon Island is not that kind of place you guys can go."

Chapter 582 Return to J City

"Oh? Why did you say that?" Casey asked the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man looked at Casey up and down, and said, "Bro, don't mind me for speaking straightly. You should have heard it just now. Going to travel once has to cost hundreds and thousands of dollars at least, which is not including the cost of those entertainment projects on the island. I don't think you are a wealthy person. The place like Moon Island, you should just listen to me bragging. Only rich people can go there. Such a place has nothing to do with us."

Casey immediately laughed, "Although I wear ordinary clothes, I still have money to play around on Moon Island as you mentioned. The most important thing is that my wife wants to go, so I naturally have to bring her there."

The middle-aged man glanced at Edith next to Casey. Then his eyes lit up, thinking that this guy's wife was really beautiful. But it was pity that such a beautiful woman married such a poor guy.

"Seriously, your wife is so beautiful. In order to make her happy, you are willing to pay for it, which is quite admirable. But listen to me, I also have the money to go to Moon Island. But it's my life savings. You indeed can go here to have fun for once, but you still have to live after you come back. How can such people like us afford this level of consumption?" The man spoke.

His companions also began to persuade Casey, saying that Casey was still young. They all understood that young men liked to brag. Besides, they all persuaded Casey not to care too much about the vanity.

While talking, a group of people began to persuade Edith, saying it was not easy for Casey to make money. As a woman, she should be considerate of Casey and couldn't just waste money like this.

Both Casey and Edith were a little bit dumbfounded. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were indeed a very large sum of money for ordinary people, but for Casey, this little money was just a little pocket money.

However, they all knew that these people were well-intentioned. They didn't take the opportunity to criticize the two of them, so Edith and Casey didn't say much.

A group of people chatted and talked about Casey and Edith, who were particularly famous in J City some time ago. These people had only heard about Casey and Edith, but they had not seen the two of them. So they didn't know the persons they were talking about were sitting next to them.

These people's discussions were naturally exaggerated versions. There were many things that Casey hadn't done, but they were put on Casey. So when Casey and Edith heard it, they were embarrassed.

"Bro, have you heard of Casey? This person is really a legend. You should learn more from him. If you have his skills, let alone go to Moon Island to play, even if you want to live on Moon Island, it's not a problem." The middle-aged man turned his head and said to Casey.

At this time, he suddenly felt that Edith, who was sitting next to Casey, was a little familiar, as if he had seen her somewhere, but for a moment he couldn't remember where he had seen her. He just thought he was dazzled.

Casey smiled and nodded when he heard the middle-aged man's words. Then he said, "Yes, yes, I should learn from him."

...

At the airport in J City.

At this time, a dozen black cars were parked at the gate of the airport. Beside each car, there were several men, looking imposing and domineering.

In front of the car at the forefront, two people stood with their hands back, staring at the gate of the airport, as if waiting for someone to come out.

These two people were naturally the king of the underworld in J City, Conor, and the chairman of TY Group, Charles. The two of them had already received the news that Casey was coming back, so they took someone to wait outside the airport early.

The people around were attracted by the dozen or so cars here, and they kept talking about the situation here.

"What do these people do? They look amazing."

"Didn't you see the two people at the front? One is Conor and the other is Charles. The two of them can be said to be the two most powerful bosses in J City today."

"Really? That's the king of the underworld? Holy Crap, how come this kind of big shot comes to the airport?"

"He should be here to pick up someone. I'm afraid that only Casey can make these two big shots come to the airport in person. "

Everyone around suddenly realized. No wonder there would be such a big pomp here, it turned out that they were here to pick up Casey.

"After leaving for so long, Casey has finally returned." Conor said.

"Yes, fortunately nothing happened to Edith, otherwise Casey must be crazy. At that time, no one will live well."

Charles replied.

While they were chatting, a pretty figure ran in front of them, and said angrily, "Why didn't you tell me to pick up Case? How dare you guys! In J City, I am the boss now. If you two dare to do this again next time, I will definitely not spare you."

Conor and Charles looked at the girl in front of them, and both of them felt a little headache. They didn't want to let her come, but they didn't expect she would still follow them.

The girl standing in front of the two of them was not someone else, but Lily, who had already recovered.

After Lily recovered, she packed her bags again and came to J City. This time she was not trying to pester Casey, but because she felt that J City was a good place and suitable for life.

Of course, it was unclear whether she had this feeling because of Casey.

Lily had already promised Casey that she would not entangle with him anymore, but the price was that Casey couldn't prevent her from hooking up with his future son.

Now Lily had thoroughly figured it out. She didn't feel anything wrong with calling Casey brother, not to mention that she was not without any expectations. After all, she believed that Casey would finally have a son. When Lily came back, she brought Nicolas back by the way. Nicolas was unwilling at first, after all, he didn't want to come back to face Amara at all. But Lily felt that the family should be with each other. Since Casey brought Edith back, Nicolas should also come back, so that the family could be reunited.

Therefore, Lily brought Nicolas back under the forcible obstruction of Nicolas. It was said that on the first day of Nicolas's return, Amara beat him up and scratched a hole in his face. Nicolas couldn't help it, so he could only ask Conor for help, letting Conor arrange a place for him.

Before long, Casey's plane landed at the airport in J City. Casey and Edith walked out of the airport hand in hand.

The middle-aged man who chatted with them along the way also followed Edith and Casey. As soon as a group of people walked out of the airport, they saw Conor and his men not far away. "My God, who are these people? Are they here to pick someone up? It's too shocking." The middle-aged man exclaimed.

Casey and Edith saw Conor at a glance. Casey said with a smile, "They're here to pick us up."

After speaking, he walked over there.

The middle-aged man immediately murmured, "Why this brat still likes to pretend? Such a big pomp, can they come to pick him up?"

However, when he saw Casey and Edith laughing and chatting with the person on the side of the black car, and then got into the car, the middle-aged man was immediately dumbfounded.

"They... really came to pick him up?"

At this time, a companion of the middle-aged man came over and said,

"I have found out who those people are picking up."

"Who?" the middle-aged man asked quickly.

"The few people over there, one is the king of underworld, Conor, the other is the chairman of TY, Charles, and that girl is the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. They show up together, and there is only one person who can make them come here in person. That man is Casey!"

Casey!

Hearing this name, the middle-aged man was stunned immediately.

Recalling what he had said to Casey on the plane in his mind, he was instantly dumbfounded.

Chapter 583 Have A Boy

"I haven't seen you for a few days. But now you even can drive the extended Lincoln. It seems that you live so well."

Casey smiled and looked at Conor.

At this time, several people were sitting on the leather sofa of the extended Lincoln, laughing and chatting.

This car was the most eye-catching one in the row of cars parked at the airport. It was precisely because of the existence of this car that those people at the airport would be so shocked.

Hearing Casey teasing him, Conor immediately said seriously, "Firstly, I have to explain it. This time the car I drove over to pick you guys up is Charles'. It has nothing to do with me. The lives of me and my men can't be comparable to this big boss."

Charles immediately glared at Conor, and quickly said to Casey, "Casey, don't listen to his nonsense. These cars belong to the company. They are all your own property. I'm just directing them."

Hearing his words, a group of people burst into laughter. Lily rolled her eyes at him and said, "You are the shameless person among the flatterers I have ever seen."

Charles was a little embarrassed at once. He didn't dare to offend the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, so he could only smile.

Lily turned to look at Edith next to her, and asked, "Edith, I heard that you are pregnant. Is it a boy or a girl? Tell me quickly."

Edith suddenly became a little shy. She put a hand on her stomach, and said, "It's only three months. I don't know if it is a boy or a girl."

"It must be a boy. I absolutely can't be wrong." Lily said firmly.

Edith was taken aback for a moment, and asked, "Why?"

"Because God will let you give birth to a boy for my sake." Lily said.

Everyone didn't know what Lily meant, only Casey knew why Lily wanted Edith to have a boy so much.

"Lily, whether it's a boy or a girl, how about you be its godmother when the child is born?" Thinking of that she was saved by Lily, Edith said to Lily with some gratitude.

Lily refused without even thinking about it, "No, I don't want to be the godmother of this child. If I become his godmother, how can I..."

Speaking of this, Casey immediately coughed slightly. So Lily didn't continue what she wanted to say.

Edith was puzzled. In her opinion, being the child's godmother meant that the person had a very close relationship with the whole family. Lily refused her. Was it because she had any opinions on her?

"Edith, don't get me wrong. There is a reason why I don't want to be your child's godmother. You will know it later. I don't have any opinion on you. I like you so much. I hope you will have a son soon." Lily explained.

A group of people were confused by what Lily said. They didn't understand what she meant.

Casey was embarrassed, for fear that Lily would tell others the agreement between the two of them. If so, Edith might kill him.

But Casey was very comfortable to see that Lily was so close to Edith. It was obvious that Lily had completely let go of her original obsession.

Edith glanced at Casey, then at Lily. She felt that this matter was not easy, so she asked Lily, "Lily, can you tell me what the reason is?"

Lily said with a smile, "Secret."

Hearing her saying this, Edith didn't ask too much. She felt that Casey must know the reason. When they went back, she must ask him carefully.

"How is situation in J City during this time? Are there any troubles?" Casey quickly changed the subject in order to ease the atmosphere.

Conor shook his head, "There were no troubles during these time. The hidden dangers left by Finn have also been completely cleared up. It's just that your mother-in-law..."

"Did my mother cause any trouble again?" Edith immediately asked with frown when she heard Conor's words.

"Ahem, it's not a big deal. She met a man about her age some time ago. The man tricked her into selling TC International Hotel. Two days ago, your father came back and wanted to live at home, but he was driven out by your mother. Your mother wanted to divorce him and marry the man." Conor finished speaking and looked at Casey and Edith cautiously.

After hearing it, Edith was so angry. She almost called Amara directly and asked what was going on. She never expected that her mother would do such a thing. It really didn't make people relaxed for a day.

Casey also frowned slightly. Although he knew that Amara would not stop making trouble, he did not expect that she would even think about divorcing Nicolas.

Before Casey left J City, he had told Amara that he would get even with her after he found Edith back. It seemed that she didn't take it seriously at all. When her daughter's whereabouts were unknown, she actually started to have an affair with other men

"Now drive me to CZ Community. I'm going to see what she wants to do!"

Edith gritted her teeth.

"Ahem, she is no longer living in CZ Community. After selling TC International Hotel, she went to the city center and bought a villa. Now she and that guy live in the villa." Conor said.

"What is the origin of that man? Have you checked it out?" Casey asked.

"That man came from other cities. He has only been in J City for three months. I haven't found out who he is, but according to observations, it is very likely that he is a liar." Conor said.

"Okay, I see. Drive us home first."

Casey said.

Now Edith was pregnant and should not be angry. If Edith was so angry, it would affect the child. The gain was not worth the loss. So Casey wouldn't let Edith deal with Amara's affairs.

"Casey, don't you really want to see what is going on with her now?" Edith asked.

Casey smiled and said, "You don't have to worry about this. I will deal with it tomorrow. You can't be angry about these insignificant things now. We had a deal on the way home, didn't we?"

Amara has raised you for so many years, but she almost destroyed you. So you can't stop me to punish her."

Edith had no choice but to nod. After knowing that Amara was not her biological mother, and Amara's crimes, Edith's attitude towards Amara had changed a lot.

In the past, if Amara said, "you are my daughter", Edith could only choose to accept it silently. But now, this sentence was no longer useful.

Chapter 584 This Is My Family Affairs

Early the next morning, after Casey and Edith got up, they came to the dining room. There were a lot of dishes on the table, which were all made by Jennifer. When Casey and Edith came back yesterday, they went to take Jennifer and Nicolas back. Nicolas walked out of the room dejectedly and sat down at the dining table.

Casey and Edith also sat down. Jennifer came over with soup, with a smile on her face. She said, "I didn't cook so many in the morning. Enjoy yourselves."

Casey and Edith both smiled and chatted with Jennifer. Nicolas was the only one with a gloomy face. The corners of his eyes were still bruised. He was beaten up by Amara when he went to find Amara two days ago. "Dad, don't let your head down early in the morning. We just came back. Be happy."

Edith glanced at Nicolas and said.

Nicolas sighed. He looked at Edith, and asked, "Daughter, ... can I still call you daughter now? You have already known that I'm not your father. You should stay in H City. There is your real home."

Edith said with a smile, "Dad, what are you talking about? Even if we have no blood relationship, I was raised by you. If I really stay there, you won't see me now."

When Nicolas heard Edith's words, he was immediately relieved. He felt that he had made the right choice to tell Casey of Edith's real life experience.

Then he turned his head to look at Casey, and asked, "Casey, are you going to find the crazy woman today?"

Casey nodded, "Now that she hasn't divorced you, but she lives with the other man. It isn't reasonable. I have some things to settle with her. "

Nicolas sighed and said nothing.

After eating, Casey asked Edith to pack up the things needed for this honeymoon, and then he went out to the community where Amara lived.

The community where Amara bought the villa was called Yafu Community, which was a relatively well-known high-end community in J City

Before going to Yafu Community, Casey went to TY Group and checked the information of Yafu Community and found that Yafu Community was a development project of a real estate company under the name of TY Group.

Later, he asked Charles to check Amara's villa, and found that the villa didn't belong to Amara, but a man named Eason Chow. If Casey guessed it correctly, Eason was the man who lived with Amara. Only Eason's name on the property ownership certificate made Casey believe that Amara was deceived.

After checking it, Casey left TY Group and went to Yafu Community.

At the entrance of Yafu Community, Casey took out an access control card, swiped it, and walked inside.

The security guard at the door felt that he had never seen Casey, so he walked to the security captain and said, "Captain, I have never seen the person who went in just now, and the access card he held seems to be different from the residents' in our community. Could this person come to our community to steal something? Did he make an access card to crack our access control?"

When the security captain heard the security's words, he was shocked. Then he quickly glanced at Casey who was walking in. At this time, Casey was holding the access control card in his hand.

The security captain stared at the access control card in Casey's hand for a while, then narrowed his eyes. After a while, his eyes widened as if he was thinking of something. He patted the head of the security guard.

"The access card that the person holds is very special. This type of card is only available to the boss of our community and a few major shareholders. If I didn't take a look at it, I would ask you to take someone to catch him. If so, we all will get into trouble." The security captain was in a false alarm.

The security guard was so surprised. He didn't expect that the access card in Casey's hand was special. No wonder he hadn't seen it before.

At the same time, he felt complicated. The person who walked in just now looked so young. But he could become a shareholder of their community at such a young age, which was so shocking.

After Casey entered the community, he walked straight to the villa where Amara lived. He came to the door of the villa, and rang the doorbell.

In a short while, the door of the villa opened. Amara came out from inside with a smile on her face, and said, "Don't you have the key? How can you return..."

Before she could finish her words, she found that the person standing at the door was Casey. Her face sank immediately, and then she said in a deep voice, "Why did you come here? I thought you were dead outside. Get out of here. This is my house. You are not welcomed!"

After speaking, she was about to close the door.

Casey stretched out his hand to push the door, and then pushed Amara back into the villa with force.

He followed in and looked around, and found no other people.

"You bastard! Did I allow you to come in? My daughter is missing because of you, and my family is ruined because of you. But you actually have guts to come to my house. Get out of my house quickly, otherwise I will call the security guards!" Amara shouted at Casey fiercely.

Casey was pissed off when he heard Amara's words. It was okay that she didn't mention Edith's affair. When Casey heard Amara mentioning Edith's affair, he was so angry. At this time, this woman still wanted to put the blame on him. It was extremely shameless.

He directly raised his hand and slapped Amara directly, which made Amara fall on the ground.

"Do you still know that your daughter is missing? You don't care about Edith's situation, but ran over to fool around with a man of unknown origin. Haven't you thought about how Edith will react when she learns this?" Casey questioned.

Amara covered her face. She was a little guilty, but she couldn't accept that Casey hit her.

Then she ran to the table and pressed a button. This button was used to call the security guards for help. As long as she pressed it, the security guards would come over.

"I have called the security guards. You broke into my house without my permission. I'll ask them to arrest you and send you to jail. Just wait to go to jail!" Amara shouted hysterically.

After a while, the security captain rushed to Amara's villa with a group of security guards.

Seeing the security guards coming, Amara hurriedly said, "Get him up quickly. He broke into my house and beat me. Send him to jail!"

The security captain glanced towards Casey, and then he was taken aback for a moment. Wasn't this the person holding the special access card at that time!

Casey stared at the security captain and said, "This is my family affair. Are you sure you want to take care of it?"

The security captain knew that the person in front of him was not simple. He didn't dare to provoke such a big shot. Besides, Casey had said it was his family affair, so they couldn't intervene.

After thinking about it, the security captain showed an apologetic smile at Casey, and then took the security guards away under Amara's dumbfounded gaze.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@swnovels.com

Copyright © 2019-2020 swnovels.com

Chapter 585 Get Even with Amara

"Why... why did they leave? I am the owner of this villa. Could it be that they don't even care about the owner's safety? I'm going to complain to them! These unscrupulous developers!"

Amara shouted at the door.

Casey didn't know why these security guards treated him so respectfully, and why they just took a look and then left. However, considering that this community was developed by a real estate company under TY Group's name, Casey guessed that the security guards here probably saw through his identity, so they didn't dare to be nosy. Amara glanced at Casey in a fear, and said tremblingly, "Get... get out of here. These security guards dare not arrest you. I don't believe that the boss here dares not. If you still stay here, I will go to find their boss now."

Casey laughed, "Then you don't have to waste this effort. The boss of this community is me."

Amara's eyes almost popped out. She didn't expect that Casey would have said that he was the boss of this community. No wonder the security guards saw Casey as if they had met their boss, and they ran away without even daring to ask.

If it were in the past, Amara might still think Casey was bragging. But now, even if Casey said that half of the houses in J City belonged to him, she would have no doubts.

"Even if you are the boss of this community, so what? I bought this villa with money. I have the rights to enjoy your service. Even if you are the boss, you can't break into my house without my permission!" Amara continued to find reasons for herself.

Casey walked towards Amara and sneered, "Did you buy this villa? Has your name been written on this villa?"

When Amara heard Casey's words, she didn't look into Casey's eyes. She said without confidence, "So what? Anyway, I paid for it. It doesn't matter whose name is on it. I am happy to write others' name on it. It's none of your business!"

Seeing that Amara was so arrogant by this time, Casey was so angrily. He grabbed her neck and lifted her from the ground.

Amara suddenly struggled. Her eyes were popped out and her face flushed. "Edith is in danger, but you don't care about her safety at all. You even kicked your husband out of the house, ran here to fool around with other men, and sold TC International Hotel. You even bought a villa for a man you have only known for a few of months. After doing these, you don't feel sorry for Edith?" Casey asked Amara word by word.

Amara was almost suffocated, unable to speak at all.

"You have a great responsibility of Edith's disappearance. As her mother, you are against her everywhere, helping others to destroy the company she worked so hard to run. For this, I must make you suffer!"

After speaking, Casey raised his other hand and slapped Amara three times on the face without hesitation.

The corner of Amara's mouth instantly shed blood. That half of her face was swollen.

Amara was so scared. She showed a pleading look at Casey, and tears couldn't help streaming from her eyes. How could ordinary people's strength be comparable to that of Casey? It was Amara's luck that Casey did not directly beat her into a concussion. Amara naturally couldn't bear it. The fear of facing death was already born in her heart.

Casey didn't let Amara go because she cried. He continued, "I have found Edith back, and she is okay. Now she lives in CZ Community."

Amara immediately made a purr sound in her mouth, as if she was saying that since Edith had been found back, why did Casey treat her like this?

"During this time, I have known Edith's real life experience. You are not her biological mother. She disappeared because she returned to her original family." Casey continued.

Amara's face suddenly turned pale. She didn't expect Casey to have known Edith's real life experience. If this were the case, she would have lost the biggest capital to contend with Casey.

"Edith didn't live too badly over there. It was just that those people wanted to take advantage of her, so they took her back. Before Edith had an accident, she was pregnant. But over there, her child was almost gone."

"Edith is pregnant with my child. Those who tried to kill the child have already been to the hell."

"And you, as the main promoter of this matter, also have a great responsibility, so you can't escape it!"

After finishing speaking, Casey slapped Amara on the other side of the face three times.

Amara's entire face was swollen into a ball, and the corners of her mouth kept bleeding out, looking rather miserable. Casey threw Amara on the ground after giving Amara the six slaps. If Edith didn't beg him before him coming, Amara would have become a corpse now. Amara almost died when her neck was grabbed by Casey just now. After falling to the ground, she hurriedly breathed to get herself back to normal.

At this time, in Amara's eyes, Casey had become a devil. This guy was like the death who came out of hell to kill her. As long as he wasn't happy, he would kill her directly.

Casey waited for Amara to resume her normal breathing, then he stared at her and asked, "Where is Eason?"

Amara shook her head quickly and said, "I... I don't know."

Casey glared at her and said, "Do you still want to protect that liar?"

"He... he is not a liar. Casey, I know I was wrong. Please don't hurt him."

Amara pleaded.

"He is not a liar? Then why was his name written on the villa? You gave him the money you sold TC International Hotel??" Casey questioned.

Before coming, Casey also asked someone to check Amara's account and found that all the money in her account was transferred to Eason one by one. Now all Amara's money was in Eason's hands.

"He... he took the money to do business. I just want to support his business. When he makes money, he will pay it double back to me." Amara said.

Casey suddenly sneered. He didn't want to talk nonsense with Amara, so he said coldly, "Tell me where he is now. If you don't tell me, don't blame me for being rude."

Amara still hesitated for a while. Casey took a step forward, and was about to pinch Amara's neck again.

Amara shivered immediately, and said quickly, "Stop, stop! He should be in the underground casino in internet café on Pingan Street now. Don't hit me! I will tell you everything."

Chapter 586 I Can Help You Win It Back

On the way, Casey headed towards Pingan Street while pulling Amara.

Amara was in a panic and was anxious. It seemed that she was trying to figure out a way to get rid of Casey and ran away as soon as possible.

Seeing them, the passers-by all stopped in curiosity. They didn't know what was going on. Seeing that Casey was so angry, no one dared to get too close to them.

Amara rolled her eyes. After finding a chance, she quickly got rid of Casey and rushed to several lookers-on.

"Help! He's a human trafficker and wants to sell me. Call the police and ask the police to arrest him!" Amara shouted.

Before she could get close to those lookers-on, Casey caught her.

Those lookers-on were all shocked.

Someone immediately questioned Casey, "Who on earth are you? Why are you holding her?"

Not being in the mood to talk to these people, Casey continued to walk while pulling Amara.

Seeing that Casey was not going to explain, those people were immediately about to stop Casey and questioned him.

Seeing this, Amara became a little hopeful at once and continued to shout, "Help, please! He's a devil, and he'll kill me!"

Just when lookers-on were about to stop Casey, a man stopped them and said, "Don't you know that person? He's Casey. The people he's holding should be his wife's mother. It should be a family affair. I advise you not to interfere with it."

Those people were shocked. Now, in J City, Casey was a legend. Everyone knew that the last one to offend in J City was Casey.

"He should be Casey. I'm wondering why I find him a little familiar. It seems that it's really their family affairs. I heard that his wife's mother is very bad and often makes trouble for him for no reason. It seems that she's being taught a lesson after making trouble for Casey."

"You're right. Casey's wife's mother is very mean and likes to tell lies. Just now she even claimed that Casey was going to kill her. She really considers us to be fools. If she didn't anger Casey, Casey would not be so angry."

"Don't interfere with this matter. Just get out of the way."

.....

They immediately made way for Casey. None of them dared to stop him. After Amara heard their conversation, Amara's hopeful expression changed into despairing expression. What's more, it never occurred to her that these people considered her to be that kind of person.

"Stupid guys! They and Casey are birds of a feather. If it goes on like that, the world will be ruined!" Amara thought. They went all the way to the cyber cafe on Pingan Street. After pulling Amara into the cyber cafe, Casey found a rope and tied her directly to a chair.

Not knowing what was going on, people in the cyber cafe were all startled.

Casey directly took out 20000 dollars in cash from his pocket, threw it to an attendant and said, "I'm going in. Watch her and don't let her run away."

Seeing the money, the attendant was willing to do anything for Casey. So he immediately nodded and promised that he wouldn't let Amara run away.

There was originally an underground gambling den in this cyber cafe. Apart from people who came here to surf the internet, there were also various people. The attendant knew that he shouldn't interfere with some people's affairs. Since Casey had given him money, he should just do what Casey asked him to. Casey took Amara's cell phone. After finding the photo of Eason, he directly went in.

Under the dim yellow light, many people gathered around a table, staring at the dice cup the dealer holding and shouting the result they wanted.

It was a middle-aged man in his forties that was closest to the table. He was a little messy and had a mustache. At this moment, he was shouting in a hysterical manner with his eyes wide open, "Small! Small! Small!"

There were chips worth hundreds of thousands dollars in front of him. He had already wagered all of them that the result would be small. Before, he had already lost several million dollars.

"Fuck, this time, it must be small. I'll certainly win my money back!" Eason cursed secretly.

At this time, someone stood beside him. After glancing at the dice cup the dealer holding, he got close to Eason and spoke in his ear in a low voice, "If you wagered your money that the result would be small, you would lose your money."

Eason immediately turned his head and gave the speaker a glance, Seeing that it was a young man that spoke to him, he immediately cursed, "Fuck, stop cursing me. I've lost a lot of money. It's time for me to win! This time I, I'll definitely win!"

Casey just smiled and didn't say a word again, looking at the dice cup.

The dealer rolled the dice cup, shouting once and then read the result: it was big!

A chill stole over Eason's head. He even felt that his lips were cool. Out of his expectation, he was so unlucky that he lost millions of dollars in one day.

At this moment, he turned his head and gave Casey a glance. He thought: if this guy hadn't cursed me, I would not have lost.

He grabbed Casey by his collar, cursing, "It's all your fault. Without you, I would not lose. You must compensate me for it!"

Casey was not in any panic. Instead, he spoke to Eason, "Don't be anxious. It's just a few hundred thousand dollars. I can help you win it back."

Eason gave him a suspicious glance and asked, "Why should I believe you?" "After what had just happened, could it be that you still don't believe me?"

Casey smiled.

After hesitating for a moment, Eason said, "Well, I'll give you a chance. Don't try to fool me. If I don't win those money back, I'll not let you off! I have powerful connections. I'm able to kill you. Don't try to fool me!"

Casey twitched his lips. He didn't say anything more and just asked Eason to get some chips for him.

In the next 15 minutes, with a chip, Casey won chips worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. People around were all envious.

Eason immediately smiled. At this rate, he would be able to win back the money he lost in a short time.

He patted Casey on the shoulder, took the chips to his side and said with a smile, "Fella, you can be said to be good at it. If you win three million dollars for me today, I'll spare you."

Then, Casey stopped. He turned his head, looked at Eason and smiled at him.

Eason was a little puzzled and asked, "What's the matter?"

Casey raised his hand and slapped Eason in the face with great strength, making him fall to the ground. Then he asked in a low voice:

"Does it feel good to gamble with money given by others?"

Chapter 587 Send One Hundred Men to Here

After receiving the slap from Casey, Eason's mind went blank. After lying on the ground for a long time, he still didn't realize what had happened to him. Not knowing why Casey suddenly slapped Eason in the face, people around were all shocked.

"Fuck...Is there anything wrong with your mind? How dare you beat me! I've been too nice to you, right?" After gathering his wits, Eason immediately shouted at Casey.

Casey stared at him coldly and asked, "Amara got a sum of money by selling TC International Hotel. How much of it is left?"

Eason's expression changed. He asked while staring at Casey, "Who the hell are you? How much money I have is none of your business!"

"I'm Casey."

Eason narrowed his eyes. After knowing who Casey was, he was no longer in fear.

He got up from the ground, stared at Casey angrily and said, "I'm wondering who the fuck you are. It turns out that you're the worthless son-in-law of Amara. How dare you beat me! If you don't kneel down before me and apologize to me, I won't spare you!"

Casey was immediately stunned. In his opinion, after he told Eason who he was, Eason would somewhat fear him. To his surprise, Eason became even more arrogant.

Amara almost cursed Casey many times in the presence of Eason every day. However, in Amara's opinion, however powerful Casey was, he was only someone who would incur disasters. In addition, Amara was very unwilling to praise Casey. Therefore, she always told Eason that Casey was worthless and that Casey had achieved nothing in the past. She never mentioned how powerful Casey was now in J City. Eason was a stranger to J City, having never heard of what Casey had done in J City. All he knew about Casey was from Amara.

Therefore, in Eason's opinion, Casey was still the worthless wretch who could only do laundry and cook.

Casey didn't care about Eason's attitude to him. After all, no matter what Eason's attitude was like, the result wouldn't change.

"You haven't answered my question. You have cheated Amara out of her money. How much is left?" Casey asked again.

"Bullshit. I haven't cheated her out of her money. She gave that to me as an investment voluntarily." Eason talked as if what he said was true.

Hearing that, Casey grabbed him by the neck and said coldly, "Don't you want to live?"

Being unable to breathe, Eason's face instantly turned red and he began to struggle.

At this time, the person in charge of the gambling den came over with several strong men and stood in front of Casey.

"Guy, what do you want to do? You're making trouble here. Could it be that you don't take us seriously?" The person in charge asked while staring at Casey.

In recent days, Eason had lost nearly ten million dollars here. For them, Eason was really a big client. Now Eason was in trouble, they certainly had to help him. Otherwise, Eason wouldn't come here and lose a lot of money here in the future.

Casey turned his head, gave the person in charge a glance and said coldly, "If you want to be alive, go away."

The person in charge was immediately angry. He didn't expect this guy to be so arrogant and was about to ask his men to start a fight with Casey.

Eason also angrily glared at Casey, gritted his teeth and spoke, "Fuck...Let go of me. I'm a VIP here. If you continue to make trouble for me here, the employees of this gambling den won't let you off!"

Right at this moment, a person came out of the crowd, approached the person in charge and whispered in his ear, "He is Casey. I advise you not to offend him. Otherwise, if he gives an order, this gambling den will have to close down." The expression of the person in charge immediately changed. He had of course heard of Casey before. Even the underground emperor of J City was respectful to Casey. He was but a person in charge of a gambling den. How was it possible that he could afford to offend Casey?

Moreover, the reason why he could become the one in charge of this gambling den was that he had a relative who worked for Conor. If Conor knew that he dared to talk to Casey like that, both he and his relative would be done. Realizing how serious the consequence would be, the person in charge immediately stopped the men behind him. After that, he approached Casey, bowed to him and said apologetically, "Bro, I'm so stupid that I offend you. I will leave here with my men now and won't interfere with this matter. You can do whatever you want here. It doesn't matter even if you pull it down. Have a good time, bro."

After saying that, he left with his men without even turning his head once. He was afraid that Casey would kill him because he stayed here for some more time.

Previously, in Eason's opinion, with the help of the employees of the gambling den, he would be safe. When he saw that, he was immediately astonished. He didn't understand why they would be afraid of a worthless wretch and shouted a few vague words.

Watching the employees leave, Casey was not going to do anything with them. Now he was very angry with Eason and Amara, and was not in the mood to deal with other people.

Seeing that Eason was about to be choked by him, Casey let go of him and said, "I don't care about how much money you've cheated out of Amara. Now I'll give you a chance. Go to explain to Amara what kind what sort of people you are with me and let her know how stupid she is. In this way, I can spare you. Otherwise, no one can save you!" Eason still didn't understand the current situation. In his view, Casey was a worthless wretch and was not eligible to talk to him like that.

He took two steps back, gritted his teeth and said, "Don't believe that I'll be afraid of you just because you're strong. Let me tell you something. I have powerful connections here. I can ask some men to kill you with a phone call!"

It amused Casey to hear that. He knew one thing: if he didn't let Eason know how powerful he was, Eason would be as stubborn as Amara.

"Well, then, do it." Casey said.

Without saying anything else, Eason took out his mobile phone, talking and swearing. After hanging up the phone, he said while glaring at Casey, "If you have the courage, wait here. My friends are coming soon. Don't be too scared at that time!"

Casey smiled, got a chair, sat down and asked, "I'm also going to ask someone to come here. Do you mind it?"

Eason twitched his lips and sneered, "You're a loser. Who will come to help you? Just do it. After all, people who come to help you must also be losers like you. They can't be a threat to me at all."

Casey didn't reply. He just took out his cell phone and made a phone call to Conor.

"Send one hundred men to the underground gambling den on Pingan Street, quick."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 588 He Was So Scared that He Wet His Pants

Half an hour later.

A few shirtless, tattooed men came to the underground gambling den. They all had buzz cut and beer bellies.

They were Eason's "drinking buddies".

Eason got to know them after coming to J City. They were so-called thugs.

Considering that Eason was generous, they were all willing to have a drink with Eason.

Now, knowing that Eason was in trouble, they immediately hurriedly came here with something like iron sticks.

"Fuck, is it you that are making trouble for Eason?" A man with a big belly threateningly pointed at Casey with an iron stick.

Casey glanced at them and said with a smile, "You're but a ragtag bunch."

Eason glared at Casey and cursed, "Stop being fucking pretentious. You must be so scared that you're going to wet your pants now, right? Don't pretend to be calm. Kneel down, kowtow to me and apologize to me. Besides, give me five million dollars as compensation. In that way, I'll spare you. Otherwise, my friends won't show you any mercy!" They all threateningly stared at Casey as if they would start a fight with Casey at any time.

After paying some attention to time, Casey murmured, "They should arrive here soon."

"What're you muttering? Who's coming soon?" Eason gave Casey a glance with his eyes narrowed.

When he just finished speaking, there were many footsteps coming from outside. Even the ground somewhat shook.

Not knowing what was going on, people in the gambling den were all puzzled.

"What's that?" Eason looked around.

Those tattooed men were also puzzled and shook their heads at Eason.

"Maybe someone is coming from outside. I'll go to have a look." The man, who just shouted at Casey with an iron stick in his hand, said. Then, he walked towards the door of the gambling den.

When he just arrived at the door, several people rushed in from outside, bumping into him and therefore making him fall to the ground.

Soon after that, a lot of men with strong muscles and an air of forcefulness rushed in, making the gambling den crowded.

Eason and his drinking buddies were immediately dumbfounded. They didn't know what was going on at all.

There were at least one hundred people rushing in. Even if each of them only gave them a punch, they would be paralyzed.

Moreover, these one hundred men had all been specially trained. Each of them could defeat ten person at the same time.

After rushing in, these people directly surrounded Eason and his drinking buddies, forming a wall and leaving no chance for them to escape.

"Brother Casey, is it these guys who are making trouble for you? I'll chop them into pieces with my men now!" Morgan stood in front of his men and shouted with a murderous look. He was holding a machete.

Eason and his drinking buddies were so scared that they all trembled. At ordinary times, they pretended to be thugs by bragging while drinking and showing their tattoos. They had never seen something like this before. When these well-trained men rushed in, they were already frightened a lot.

Conor came close to Casey and asked, "What happened? I just come here with these men. Is it enough? If not, I'll ask other people to come here."

Casey smiled and said, "It's not a big deal. These people tried to threaten me, so I ask you to come here to scare them."

Conor turned his head and gave Eason and his drinking buddies a glance. Then, he came close to them and said coldly, "Is it you that are making trouble for Casey? Why, don't you want to live? There are someone that you can afford to offend. You're so bald that you dare to offend anyone."

At this moment, Eason and his drinking buddies all recognized Conor. They were so scared that their faces became pale at once.

"Are...Are you Conor?" One of them asked.

"Could it be that you have met another person named Conor?" Conor questioned.

That guy was so frightened that he directly knelt down before Conor.

"Conor, it's our fault. Please be the bigger person and spare us!"

Seeing that, the rest of Eason's drinking buddies all hurriedly knelt down before Conor and begged for mercy.

Only Eason was still perplexed, not knowing who Conor was.

"Why...Why do you kneel down before him? Who is he?" Eason asked.

The man beside him stared at him, saying, "He's the underground emperor of J City! You really get me into great trouble this time. I really want to choke you now. Why should you offend such a powerful person? I'm so unlucky!"

Eason gasped. He didn't expect that the person Casey turned to for help would be the underground emperor of J City. Didn't Amara say that this guy was a loser? Why would such a powerful person come to help him?

Conor gave Eason a glance and then asked, "Do you want to be chopped into pieces or thrown into mountain as the food of the wolves? Choose one."

After hearing that, Eason couldn't help trembling. Then there was a sound of peeing. He wet his pants.

Unexpectedly, Eason was so scared that he directly wet his pants.

"Bro, spare me, please! I really don't know who you are. If I knew that Casey was your friend, I wouldn't dare to cross him." Eason was so anxious that he burst into tears.

Conor gave him a glance in distaste and said, "You're a coward. I just said a few words, and you're so scared."

Casey came close to him and said, "Well, don't scare him anymore. Take his friends away and teach them a lesson. Besides, take Amara here. It's time to put an end to this matter."

Conor nodded and immediately asked Morgan to take Eason's drinking friends away. After that, he took Amara in from the cyber cafe with his men.

At this moment, Amara was still puzzled. She didn't know what was going on in the gambling den. Before, when Conor came here with his men, she was shocked and felt a little uneasy.

She knew how powerful Casey was. In her opinion, Casey was someone who dared to kill someone. So she was worried about Eason.

After taking Amara into the gambling den, Conor asked his men to throw Amara and Eason to one place.

Smelling the smell of urine from Eason, Amara immediately frowned. When she saw that Eason was scared a lot, she felt sad.

Seeing Amara, Eason put on a resentful expression at once, slapped her in the face and said, "Bitch! Didn't you say that your daughter's husband was a loser? Then, how could he ask the underground emperor of J City to help him now? You get me into great trouble!"

Amara hurriedly covered her face with her hand. Feeling aggrieved, she said, "Eason, didn't you promise that you would never beat me? Why do you beat me now? Could it be that you give in because Casey is powerful?"

Eason was speechless. He cursed, "Fuck, I'm in such a trouble now. You should be glad that I'm not going to choke you. I really shouldn't go to fool you just because you're gullible. Now, it's too late to regret it."

Chapter 590 Nicolas Would Get a Divorce with Amara

At CZ Community.

Casey went back home in the evening. He found it troublesome to deal with Amara. Considering her special identity, Casey couldn't just kill her just like he did to other people.

Now, he knew that Amara was not Edith's biological mother. However, he also knew that Edith attached great importance to affection. No matter how many mistakes Amara had made, Edith would still treat her as her own mother. If Casey killed Amara, Edith might never forgive him.

Amara was indeed a little mean.

However, according to Edith, when she was a child, to buy a beautiful dress for her, Amara had stayed up all night to do crafts, as a result of which there were many blisters on her hands.

Therefore, so far, Casey could only beat Amara up and let her stay by herself.

Now, Edith had just regained her memory and was pregnant. Casey must make sure that she would not be negatively affected by anything.

"Casey, how's the matter of Amara going?" Nicolas asked Casey carefully when they were having a meal.

They all looked at Casey. Obviously, they all cared about this matter.

Casey smiled and said, "I've basically settled this matter. That man is indeed a fraud and has received the punishment he deserves from me. In the future, he won't come to make trouble anymore." Then, Casey told them what happened today. Certainly, he didn't mention the violence he used and just briefly mentioned the consequence of Eason. Hearing that, they were all angry. They didn't expect Eason to be so detestable and that Amara would be completely fooled by him.

After hearing that, Nicolas breathed out slowly and said, "In the past, I considered the reason why she beat and cursed me to be that I was incompetent. Unexpectedly, the true reason should be that she doesn't want to live with me anymore. Before, I thought that all of us could still live together after this matter was settled." Everyone was silent for a moment. They all knew that this matter had been out of control now.

At least, Nicolas would definitely be unwilling to live with Amara.

"Dad, get a divorce with mom." After a long time, Edith broke the silence.

Others were all a little surprised. They didn't expect that Edith would take the initiative to ask Nicolas to get a divorce with Amara.

"Edith, are you serious?" Nicolas asked in somewhat disbelief.

Edith nodded seriously and said, "Recently, mom did go too far. No matter why she did that, after doing something wrong, she has to take the consequence. You have showed her the greatest mercy by just getting a divorce with her."

"In addition, before, she took the liberty to...Well, forget it. Anyway, we can't indulge her anymore. Otherwise, sooner or later, she will be ruined."

After saying that, Edith turned her head and gave Casey a glance. In fact, she clearly knew one thing: with Casey's identity and status, there was no need for him to put up with Amara's unreasonable behavior. He had been enduring Amara for her sake.

She said so for two reasons. First, she wanted to show that she sided with Casey. Second, she wanted to protect Amara.

If Amara continued to do something like that, sooner or later, Casey would teach her a good lesson.

"Well, since you say so, I'll get a divorce with her. After all, without her, our family would be better. There is no need to let her ruin our peaceful life." Nicolas immediately made up his mind.

Casey didn't say anything. It might be the best choice.

The next morning, Jennifer was about to go out to buy some food. When she just opened the door, she saw Amara, who looked disheveled, kneeling down before the door. She was frightened a lot.

She screamed. Then, she hurriedly took two steps back, looked at Amara warily and asked, "What...What are you doing?"

Amara raised her head, gave Jennifer a glance and spoke in a hoarse voice, "Where is my daughter?"

Jennifer hurriedly turned around. When she was about to ask Edith and Casey to come out, it happened that the door of their room was just open. Both of them had heard the scream just now, so they came out to have a look.

"Jennifer, what happened?" Casey asked.

Jennifer pointed in the direction of the door and sighed helplessly.

Casey and Edith looked at that place.

When they saw Amara kneeling down there, both of them frowned.

Seeing Edith, Amara immediately shouted in tears, "Edith, I know that I was wrong. Forgive me! I will definitely reform and turn over a new leaf in the future. Forgive me, please."

Edith approached Amara and looked down at her. Although she looked somewhat poor, Edith didn't pity her. After all, Amara deserved it.

"After you did something, you can't be forgiven by others. Mom, as you make your bed, so you must lie on it. I can't help you." Edith spoke.

Amara widened her eyes and spoke in despair, "Edith, could it be that you no longer consider me to be your mom? It took me painstaking effort to raise you up, and you treat me in this way?"

Hearing that, Edith somewhat lost control of her emotion. She was still aggrieved, but Amara should come to question her. Edith wept.

Casey immediately pulled Edith behind his back, looked at Amara and said, "I've warned you that you no longer have anything to do with us. Don't you know what I mean?"

"Casey, I really know that I was wrong. I'm Edith's mother. Forgive me, please."

Amara begged for mercy from Casey.

Right at this moment, Nicolas said in a deep voice, "If you know that you're Edith's mom, you shouldn't make so much trouble for Edith!"

Nicolas came out of his room unnoticed and went to the door.

Seeing that Nicolas dared to talk to her like that, Amara instinctively shouted, "Nicolas, you're not eligible to speak! How dare you! Shut up now!"

If it had been in the past, Nicolas would have drawn back his neck and stopped speaking. However, now, he had made up his mind to get a divorce with Amara, so there was no need to be so afraid of her.

"I'm Edith's father, why am I not eligible to speak?" Nicolas snorted, "Since you're here now, I'll directly tell you. It would be better not to delay it. Let's go to register for divorce now."

Amara cried out in surprise while widening her eyes in disbelief, "You should require a divorce! Nicolas, how dare you! What right has you to ask me to get a divorce with you?"

Nicolas sneered and spoke loudly, "Amara, stop deceiving yourself. I have had enough of you. I won't be under your control anymore."

Chapter 591 Amara Was Superstitious

At the door of the Civil Affairs Bureau. Amara and Nicholas came out from inside, both looked gloomy. Casey followed behind them, and all of them were filled with haze.

Amara had made a terrible scene in the CZ Community for a long time, and she refused to divorce Nicholas. At the beginning, she was full of regret and even knelt down and confessed to Nicholas.

But Nicholas was determined, no matter how much Amara begged for mercy, he didn't move.

Seeing that it was useless to beg for mercy, Amara once again threaten them with her life, saying she would go die if Nicholas divorced her.

Nicholas asked Amara to go die directly and said that he didn't care about her life at all. Amara was stunned. She was just using this method to intimidate Nicholas to listen to her, how could she really die.

Casey felt that if Amara continued to make trouble, it would affect Edith's mood, so he told Amara that she would divorce Nicholas immediately.

Amara was afraid of Casey in her heart, so she became obedient at once, and finally had to follow Nicholas to the Civil Affairs Bureau and got a divorce.

"Casey, let's go back." Nicholas said, glancing at Casey.

Casey nodded, and followed Nicholas towards the car.

Amara stopped. At this time, she really felt abandoned. Eason was a liar.

Nicholas divorced her and Edith was completely on Nicholas's side. Casey, her son-in-law was a demon who showed no mercy for her.

Thinking of this, Amara suddenly felt that she had become the worst person in the world, and even had an idea of committing suicide.

She sat down on the ground and couldn't help crying, attracting the attention of people passing by.

"Casey! You bastard! I became so miserable because of you. You are a jinx. You abducted my daughter, and fooled Nicholas to divorce me. You are the worst devil in the world!"

Amara was desperate and didn't care whether Casey would beat her or not, and condemned Casey again.

"You will definitely get retribution. You hurt me so badly. God will never spare you. Just wait. It won't be long before you will be in trouble!"

Casey turned to look at Amara. Amara thought Casey was going to beat her again, so she got up from the ground quickly and ran away.

"You will be in trouble!" Amara yelled as she ran.

Casey shook his head helplessly and ignored Amara. After getting in the car with Nicholas, he hurried back to CZ Community.

At home.

"Casey, do you think we were too unsympathetic? My mother is alone. Will she do take her own life in despair?"

Edith asked with some worry.

Casey laughed and said, "Don't worry about this. In this world, anyone may choose some extreme methods in despair, but she is the only one who won't. She treats her own life more than anything."

Edith thought for a while, and felt that Casey had some truth in what he said. Based on her knowledge of Amara, her concern was really misplaced.

"Don't think too much about these things, you should think about where we are going to take for our honeymoon this time. I have arranged the itinerary for Moon Island. We will leave in two days," Casey said with a smile.

There was also a hint of joy on Edith's face. During this period of time, all the mess and encounters made her a little upset. She also wanted to travel to relax.

In the evening, Casey called Terence and told Terence that he was going to be a grandfather.

After Terence heard the news, he beamed with joy and danced with excitement, and he almost demolished his study.

Since Terence lived in the name of Percy, he had never been happy anymore. He had too many secrets. All his time was occupied by Guanling's affairs.

The news Casey told him was tantamount to a warm light that appeared in his world full of darkness and killing, which made him feel that this world was no longer so boring.

He was going to be a grandfather!

In order to ensure the safety of his unborn granddaughter, Terence directly decided to send the top three masters on the List of Ares to J City to protect Edith secretly.

Casey didn't expect Terence to attach so much importance to it, and even sent the top three masters on the List of Ares. At that time, he told Terence that it was unnecessary, and he could protect Edith's safety.

But Terence insisted on sending three people, including Kacper to them, saying that this was his love for his granddaughter, and Casey shouldn't stop it.

Casey had no choice but to agree to Terence, thinking of an extra guarantee, and he could feel more at ease in his heart.

The next day, Casey asked Charles to help buy a cruise ticket to Moon Island. He and Edith decided to set off for Moon Island two days later to start a romantic trip.

Charles bought Casey the most luxurious room on the cruise ship, which was an expression of his wish to make the journey of Casey and Edith more comfortable.

Yafu Community, Amara's villa.

Because Eason's limbs was broken and he had become a beggar, this villa became Amara's only residence now, and Casey did not take back the villa. Only by letting her live in such a big house alone could she feel the spiritual torture of desolation.

At this time, in the living room of the villa, a portrait of Buddha had been hung on the wall in the center. In front of the portrait, there was some tribute. Amara was kneeling in front of this portrait, her hands clasped together, her eyes closed and she was praying religiously.

"God, thief Casey did a lot of evil. He caused my family to be ruined and let me stay this cold villa alone. He is really wicked. Please punish Casey once. It's better to let him die directly. Only in this way can I get rid of my hatred. I will pray with my utmost sincere heart."

After speaking, Amara knelt down and prayed.

...

R Country, in front of a martial club with a huge area.

A tall man stood here, staring at the plaque above the martial club, and a sneer appeared on his face.

"Masayuki Ichiro, Undefeatable God, the myth of invincibility in R Country's fighting world. I remember that when I came to him to ask him for advice, he directly drove me out. At that time, I was inferior to him, so I could only bear it."

"Now that I have learnt all my teacher's skills, it's time to take revenge. I will kill Masayuki Ichiro, and then go back to kill Casey."

Theodore muttered to himself, and then stepped into the martial club.

Immediately two gatekeepers stopped Theodore and cursed, "What are you doing? This is the martial club of Masayuki Ichiro. No admittance!"

Theodore didn't speak, and he kicked them directly. The two people flew out, fell to the ground, vomited blood, and stopped moving.

"Ask Masayuki Ichiro to get out and meet me!"

Chapter 592 Kill with One Move

At this time, many people on the martial club were practicing basic skills. After the two guards fell in front of them, it caused a riot.

A group of people ran to confirm the situation of the two people, and then they were shocked to find that both of them had died.

"Who are you! You killed our junior, and our master will not let you go!" One of them raised his head and glanced at Theodore, gritted his teeth.

"I'm here to kill Masayuki Ichiro, let him come out quickly," Theodore said impatiently.

"You? How can you kill our master? It's really idiotic. We will let you first learn how good we are!"

All the disciples rushed towards Theodore, aggressively.

Theodore curled his mouth and didn't put these people in his eyes. He stared at the person in front of him, his breathing method changed immediately, and his arm, which seemed to have little strength, was lifted up and burst out amazing power in an instant.

He hit the man's chest with a palm, and the ribs of the man's chest were directly shattered, and a handprint was sunken in his chest. Then, his body flew upside down, smashing all the people behind him to the ground.

All these people felt their chests hot, and a mouthful of blood came out. They were already seriously injured, and the person who rushed to the front had already died.

"How is this possible? He hit us through one person's body, why can he still transmit such a powerful force?"

"Hurry up and call master, this guy's strength is too terrifying, only master can hold him down!"

Several people with less injuries immediately ran into it and called Masayuki Ichiro.

Theodore waved his hand, looked at the person who fell in front of him, and sighed helplessly, saying, "I have used 50% of my strength, but they just were just slightly injured. It seems that there is still a big gap between me and my master."

Those who fell on the ground were all full of horror. They didn't expect that Theodore just now only used only 50% of his power in his horrible move.

Who was this guy?

After a while, the ones who ran in and called for Masayuki Ichiro ran back.

"Master, it's this guy. He killed several of our juniors. You must avenge them!" A person pointed to Theodore.

A gray-haired old man walked over.

Although this person was old, he gave people a sense of uprightness, and his whole body was filled with a powerful atmosphere while walking.

This person was the master of fighting in R Country, Masayuki Ichiro, who held the title of "Undefeatable God".

Expression on Masayuki Ichiro's face suddenly changed when he saw the apprentices who had fallen on the ground. Then, his eyes fell on Theodore. When he found that it was just a young man, and the anger in his eyes became more intense.

"Who are you? Why are you being so cruel to my apprentice?" Masayuki Ichiro said solemnly.

Theodore smiled at him and said, "I came to you to study a few years ago, but you kicked me out. However, it was precisely because you did not allow me to stay here that I was lucky enough to meet my current teacher."

"I am here today to see what I have learned from my teacher over the past few years. I want to know if you, the master I looked up to, can still hold my one move."

Masayuki Ichiro heard this and suddenly snorted and said, "The juniors who have been rejected by me are countless. You are just one of them. I have long lost the impression. But you dare to say that you will beat me up in one move. Even for the reputation of my martial club, I must kill you today!"

"Then hurry up, I have limited time. I have to go back and kill someone else after getting rid of you!" Theodore sneered.

Masayuki Ichiro was completely angered by Theodore's arrogance, and immediately put on a pose to confront and shouted, "Go die!"

Then he rushed towards Theodore.

As a well-known fighting master in R Country, Masayuki Ichiro's strength was quite amazing. He had developed his physical strength to the maximum. He believed that no one could beat him by physical strength alone.

When Theodore saw Masayuki Ichiro rushing over, a joking smile appeared at his lips. Then his breathing changed rapidly, and the power in his body began to gush out. After seizing the opportunity, he punched Masayuki Ichiro with all his strength on the chest.

Masayuki Ichiro thought that no one could match him in the strength competition, so instead of hiding, he directly ran into Theodore's fist.

Their punches collided and the power exploded. Masayuki Ichiro's face was full of confidence, but then, with a click, his face instantly turned pale, and then he flew backwards.

Blood flowed out of Masayuki Ichiro's mouth like a stream of water. He looked at Theodore in disbelief. He didn't expect that he would lose to this young man with a single move.

Theodore rolled his wrist and looked at Masayuki Ichiro who was dying on the ground. He smiled and said, "You can take my full blow and can still breathe. You are not bad."

"Why...why? My physical strength has been developed to the maximum, even if you are young and strong, it is impossible to beat me like this with one move." Masayuki Ichiro was puzzled.

Theodore glanced at him and said quietly, "Who told you that physical power is the limit of humanity?"

Masayuki Ichiro's eyes widened, and before he could ask his doubts, he twisted his neck and stopped moving. Theodore clapped his hands, turned around, and walked out of the martial club without hesitation.

"Next, it's Casey."

...

At sea port, Casey and Edith both changed into casual clothes. They waited in front of the wharf, watching the sea in front of them and breathing the fresh air brought by the sea breeze.

They felt a little relaxed.

Just yesterday, they took their luggage and came here, because the cruise ship to Moon Island would only stop at this place, and everyone who wanted to travel to Moon Island must come to sea port to gather.

"I've never been on a cruise ship before. This is the first time," Edith said to Casey with a smile.

Casey smiled and stroked her hair, and said, "Have you seen the Titanic?"

"I've seen it, what's the matter?" Edith asked.

"The cruise we are on this time should be more luxurious than that. Then I will take you to the bow. How about jumping like Jack and Rose?" Casey said with a smile.

Edith rolled her eyes at him immediately and said, "You can jump as you want? I'm not alone now. Even if I agree, the one in my stomach won't."

Casey scratched his head and smiled, then reached out and stroked Edith's belly.

At this moment, a huge whistle sounded, and both of them turned their heads to look over and found a cruise ship with more than ten floors that was large enough to occupy the whole wharf came.

Chapter 593 Distant Relatives

"Wow, this cruise ship is so large." Edith blinked and looked at the cruise ship in front of her, making a sound of admiration.

Seeing the magnificent appearance of the cruise ship, Casey couldn't help but admire the greatness of a human engineer.

This cruise ship was called The Pearl, which was funded and built by Moon Island and was dedicated to transporting tourists from all over the world.

It was precisely because of the existence of this cruise ship that the tickets to Moon Island had become extremely expensive. Even the cheapest ticket cost 200,000 per person. Those who bought this kind of ticket could only stay at the bottom of the cruise ship, and they were not qualified to enter the higher floors.

The Pearl had twelve floors. The price of the bottom floor was 200,000 per person. For each floor up, the ticket price would increase by 50,000 dollars. The top floor of the cruise ship was the most luxurious place on the cruise ship. It had the most luxurious decoration, the most high-end facilities, and the most top-level services. At the same time, it was also the best place for the whole cruise ship to have a panoramic view of the beautiful scenery of the sea.

There were only ten tickets to the top floor, one for 1.5 million.

What Charles bought for Casey and Edith was tickets to the top floor.

"Husband, which floor will we be on this cruise ship this time?" Edith asked Casey.

Casey raised his hand, pointed to the top mast, and said, "It's there."

"Hey? Isn't this Edith? Why are you here?" At this moment, a man's voice rang.

Edith turned her head and glanced next to her, and saw a young man in a suit with his hair slicked back, who was a few years older than her.

Beside the young man, there was a beautiful woman with a gorgeous dress and a bumpy figure.

After seeing this young man, Edith immediately showed a puzzled expression and asked, "You are?"

The young man immediately laughed and said, "I didn't expect you didn't even remember me. It is reasonable. You have been living in J City, a small place. We have met each other three times in total. It is normal that you don't remember me."

"I am Rowan, your cousin in G City. When your grandfather took you to our place, you were just a hick at that time. I didn't expect that now you are also slim and beautiful."

Hearing Rowan's words, Edith immediately remembered who the person in front of her was, and then a frown appeared on her face.

Rowan was indeed her distant cousin. He a member of the Patel family, the quasi-first tier family in G City. The Patel family in J City and the Patel family in G City did have some relatives, but that had to be traced back to the generation of Francis's father.

Because the two families didn't communicate very much over the years, the relationship was weakened. Francis only took Edith to G City once.

Edith still had a deep memory of the visit to the Patel family in G City when she was a child, because G City was a big city comparable to B City. Since the Patel family could reach the quasi-first tier, they did not care the Patel family in J City.

So, at that time Francis took Edith over and was met with countless cynicism and ridicule. Among them, Rowan looked down on her the most. He always said that Edith came from the countryside, and he always compared the Patel family in G City with the Patel family in J City. He once made Edith cry.

Therefore, only after recalling who Rowan was, Edith frowned. From the tone of Rowan's speech, she had already noticed that this guy was no different from before.

"I remember you. What a coincidence, Rowan." Although she had a bad impression of Rowan, she still replied politely.

Rowan smiled and said, "I didn't expect that you could also go to Moon Island. For you, I'm afraid it will take half of your life savings to go there once, right?"

Edith was speechless, and said, "It's none of your business."

Rowan laughed loudly and said to the woman next to her, "Rosa, this is Edith that I mentioned to you before, the hick. I didn't expect that she would be more beautiful when she grows up."

The woman named Rosa looked at Edith up and down, and found that the little girl in Rowan's mouth was even more beautiful than her, and she felt a little unhappy.

"Is it the one who married a wimp? She looks very beautiful. Why did she marry a wimp? Is there something wrong with her?" Rosa muttered.

Casey was a little angry when he heard two people taunt Edith in a strange way. He wanted to warn them immediately, but was stopped by Edith.

"Edith, shouldn't this be your useless husband? He looks really ordinary. Tut?tut, although your family conditions are not very good, but it is a pity that you married a wimp. I heard he can do nothing and is supported by you?"

Rowan said, looking at Casey.

Rosa also glanced at Casey, her eyes full of disdain.

"He doesn't do anything, but can still go to Moon Island for fun. What a shameless gigolo," Rosa said with her mouth curled.

"Is that enough?" Casey was already a little unbearable. He didn't expect these two people to be too much. If Edith was not on the side, he would have thrown these two people into the sea to feed the sharks.

"Hey, you don't have much ability, but you have a bad temper. Edith, it seems that you really raised a lord at home. Forget it, I won't talk to you anymore. We are going to board the ship.

Unsurprisingly, you guys bought tickets for the bottom floor, right? Rosa and I bought tickets for the eighth floor, which was 600,000 dollars per person. Tut-tut, if you want to see what the rich people on the eighth floor are like, you can come to me," Rowan flaunted.

Rosa tugged Rowan's arm and said, "Okay, let's go quickly, don't waste time with these two poor guys."

Then they boarded the ship.

Edith sighed and said, "We don't have much contact with them. They don't know the changes in J City now. Don't be angry with them. It's not worth it."

Casey touched Edith's head and said, "I'm afraid you will be wronged."

After going through so much, I've seen it a long time ago. I don't care what others think of us, as long as I know you are good," Edith said.

Casey nodded in relief and said, "Let's go up too."

They walked to the ticket gate together. After checking the ticket, all the people who boarded the ship had to wait in line to board. Rowan and Rosa were already at the back of the line, staring at Casey and Edith with a sneer.

"It seems that the development of our country is really good. It's really strange that even this kind of hicks can go to Moon Island," Rowan muttered.

Casey handed over the two ferry tickets. The person who checked the ticket looked at it and immediately stood up straight, and then said in a respectful voice, "Please wait a moment. I'll arrange for someone to take you two aboard from the VIP passageway. You don't have to queue."

Chapter 594 The Luxury Cruise Ship

After speaking, the person who checked the ticket left here quickly.

Rowan, who had been staring at Casey and Edith, was a little confused when they saw this scene. He didn't understand why the person who checked the ticket suddenly left.

"Would it be that they buy fake tickets? They are caught by the staff, and the staff is now looking for someone to verify it." Rosa guessed.

Rowan nodded in agreement and said, "It is very possible. Even if the Patel family in J City is in the local area, it is only a small second-rate family, not to mention that Edith is still not favored, and she has a useless husband. How can they afford the trip to Moon Island? Maybe their tickets are really fake."

"It's so ridiculous that they came to board the cruise ship with fake tickets.

Do they think the people on this cruise ship are fools? It's no wonder that the Patel family in J City is a plebeian family. With such stupid people, it's impossible to develop anyway," Rosa also sneered.

The ticket inspector soon returned. He brought a well-dressed man to Casey and Edith. The man immediately bowed to Casey and Edith and said, "Two distinguished guests, please follow me." Casey and Edith both nodded, and then followed the man on the cruise ship from the other side and went directly to an elevator entrance with the words "VIP only" written on it.

"What did that person do just now? Why does he seem to be respectful to them?" Rosa said with a puzzled expression on her face.

Rowan didn't know what was going on, saying, "After all, this is a cruise ship to Moon Island. People here are very gentle and polite. Even if they want to rush someone out, they would be polite. There is nothing strange."

"Ignore them, we are going to the eighth floor, which is already considered a relatively high-end floor. Even if their tickets are true, they must be at the bottom."

Rosa nodded immediately, with a look of expectation on her face.

After the well-dressed waiter took Casey and Edith into the elevator, he smiled and said, "You two are the most distinguished guests of The Pearl on this voyage. We will meet any request you two make. The Pearl has a total of 12 floors. You can visit any floor at will. "

"What's the special feature on your cruise ship?" Edith asked curiously.

"We will have some different types of performances on each floor. You may be interested in costume performances. Then you can go to the eighth floor to watch the model show. If you find any clothes you like, you can also buy them," the waiter said patiently.

Edith nodded, thinking that the clothes on this cruise ship must be extremely expensive. In the principle of diligence and frugality, she felt that she should not go to see any models on the catwalk. Otherwise, if she really saw the clothes she liked, Casey would not miss it and would buy it for her.

She even imagined the scene, "Buy if you like it. It doesn't cost much."

Coming to the top floor of the cruise ship, Casey and Edith saw the endless sea and the blue sky, and they were all in a good mood.

Sure enough, if you spent more money, you could still enjoy a different scenery. The top floor area of the cruise ship was not very large, but all kinds of facilities were readily available. At the top of the cruise ship, there was also a swimming pool.

The waiter took Casey and Edith to their two rooms. Inside was a room and a living room, which was luxuriously decorated. The curtains of the bedroom were opened, showing the sea and the sky.

"In the public area outside the room, there are tables and chairs for resting. There will be a variety of drinks and you can enjoy the best scenery of the entire cruise ship. Of course, if you want to swim, they can also go to the swimming pool on the top floor, where the water quality and equipment are all of the competition level." The waiter kept introducing the services that were available on the top floor.

After patiently explaining to Casey and Edith, the waiter left Casey and Edith's room. If necessary, they only needed to shout and a service staff would come over immediately.

After the waiter left, Edith lay directly on the soft bed in the room, enjoying herself.

Although the rooms here were not big, all the products were of the world's top brands, which were naturally hundreds of times better than those used in their homes.

Once Edith entered this room, she felt relaxed. It seemed that the designer had a lot of thoughts on how to decorate the room.

"Husband, it's really comfortable here, but the price is too high, one and a half million per person, it hurts to think about it," Edith said.

Casey laughed and said, "Charles bought the tickets. He should be the one who felt distress."

Edith chuckled, beckoned to Casey, and said, "Husband, come here."

Casey walked to the bed, Edith sat up and asked, "What's the matter?"

Edith sat up, hugged Casey directly, and said, "The baby in my stomach just said that it wants to drink milk tea."

Casey suddenly laughed and said, "The baby in your stomach is only three months old and hasn't formed yet. I think it's you who want to drink milk tea."

Edith immediately hugged Casey and started acting coquettishly, and said, "I just want to drink it. Didn't the waiter just say that there is a variety of drinks outside? Let's go and have a look."

Casey gave Edith a cowardly smile, then nodded and said, "Let's go, but you can only have one cup."

"I know, I know. Wait for me change into a beautiful dress."

Ten minutes later, Casey and Edith came to the best view of the entire cruise ship. There were already eight people sitting and watching the scenery, plus Casey and Edith, exactly ten people.

Among the remaining eight people, there were couples, and the other four were all men.

When Casey and Edith appeared, everyone's attention were attracted by Edith. She was wearing a blue suspender dress, showing her figure and temperament to the fullest. The women were a little jealous when they saw Edith.

Casey felt the gazes of those people, and a shadow of a smile touched his mouth. Edith was his wife, and it was his pride. His wife was charming, and he naturally felt very proud.

After taking Edith and ordering a cup of milk tea prepared on-site, Casey and Edith walked to an empty table and sat down.

"The air and sunshine here are pretty good," Edith said with joy.

At this time, a man in his thirties, wearing casual shorts and sunglasses, looked at Casey and Edith. When his gaze fell on Edith, a certain desire for possession appeared on his look, but it was blocked by sunglasses.

He looked at Edith for a few seconds, then walked over here.

Chapter 595 Casey's figure

"It's a fate to be able to take this cruise to Moon Island with you. Can I buddy up with you? My name is Brooklyn and I am the chairman of Youth Gymnasium. At present, our company has more than 200 stores across the country. I have 500 million dollars in wealth. At the same time, I am also the coach of the provincial swimming team. I'm happy to meet you."

The man wearing sunglasses reported his worth as soon as he came up, as if he was afraid that others would not know how wealthy he was.

Casey and Edith glanced at each other, both awkwardly and politely smiled at Brooklyn, and didn't mean to say a word to him.

Brooklyn was a little embarrassed when he saw that they ignored him, but he did not give up. After a little cough, he asked, "What do you do? This journey is precious. Those who have come to the top floor have influential identities. I think that you will also want to seize this good opportunity to expand your network."

When asked by Brooklyn, Edith was stunned. Now the Patel Group had gone bankrupt because of Albie. To be precise, neither she nor Casey had a job, so they didn't know how to answer Brooklyn's question for a while.

It was not a good idea to say that both of them were vagrant.

"My wife has a company." Casey replied at this time. He felt that Brooklyn's focus was on Edith. Although he was wearing sunglasses, Casey had already felt Brooklyn's coveting for Edith.

"Oh? What do you do, sir?" Brooklyn asked. He wanted to figure out Casey's details and see if he might grab his woman. He had done this kind of thing before.

"I don't have a job," Casey replied. Hearing what Casey said, Brooklyn immediately showed an expression of dawning comprehension, and at the same time he laughed, with a little more contempt in his eyes.

"It turns out to be a man lives off a woman. In this case, the chances of getting this beautiful woman are greater. After all, gigolo is just a momentary pleasure. A woman will still be conquered by a powerful man after all," Brooklyn muttered in his heart.

After that, Brooklyn's focus was on Edith. After knowing that Casey was a man lived off Edith, he became more courageous. He ignored Casey and kept asking Edith questions.

The questions that Brooklyn asked were nothing special. It was nothing more than to show that he was great, so Casey ignored him. Instead. He felt a little funny that such a self-righteous person showed superiority in front of him.

Edith heard Brooklyn talk about his achievements, and felt Casey was even more powerful. After all, what Brooklyn had done so hard to accomplish was nothing more than a sentence to Casey. After chatting for a long time, seeing Edith always answering his questions passively, Brooklyn felt that he had to change his strategy. Women who could run company were competitive, and he had to let Edith see his strong points. At the very least, he had to let Edith know that in addition to his great business skills, he was no worse than the wimp next to her in term of physique.

Brooklyn turned his head and glanced at Casey, then smiled and asked, "Man, can you swim?"

Casey nodded and said, "I know a little bit."

"The weather is so good no. Everyone has nothing to do except enjoying the scenery. The swimming pool over there is very good. Why don't we go swimming and have a friendly match? Don't worry, I won't bully you," Brooklyn said a confident look. As the coach of the provincial swimming team, he felt that he was qualified to say such things. Casey smiled and said, "Okay, since you are interested, I will compare with you."

Brooklyn got up immediately and shouted to everyone on the top floor, "Everyone, this buddy and I are going to have a swimming competition. If you are interested, you can come and take a look."

Everyone immediately became interested, after all, sitting and chatting was quite boring.

Edith glanced at Casey and said, "Husband, he is the coach of the provincial team. Do you really want to have a competition with him?"

Casey smiled and said, "It's just swimming. I have never been afraid of any physical competition, even if the Olympic champion is here."

Seeing Casey so confident, Edith didn't say anything.

"You go with them first. I'll change my swimsuit," Casey said, and went back to the room to change clothes.

The service staff on the top floor heard that Brooklyn and Casey were going to have a swimming competition and immediately went to the swimming pool to start preparations. The guests on the top floor also went to the side of the swimming pool, planning to watch the competition.

After Brooklyn changed his swimsuit, he stood by the swimming pool and began to warm up. Of course, his main purpose for doing this was to show off his figure.

"Wow, his figure is really good, he deserves to be a swimming coach," a woman exclaimed.

Several men present also praised Brooklyn.

Before Casey and Edith came up, Brooklyn had already greeted everyone here, and everyone knew that he was a swimming coach.

Brooklyn showed a triumphant smile on his face, and said, "Don't worry, I will humor him later. This kind of friendly match is just for fun."

Everyone laughed. Obviously, they all felt that Casey would definitely not win the competition with a provincial coach. It would be great that he would not lose badly.

Soon, Casey changed his swimsuit and walked over. Everyone turned their heads and looked towards Casey. The moment they saw Casey's figure, everyone was stunned.

The sunlight hit Casey's bronze skin, bringing out the power of those muscles in his body.

Although Brooklyn also had abdominal muscles, it was from fitness,, while Casey's muscles were formed by fighting. Comparing with Brooklyn, people could feel the sense of deterrence exuded by Casey. It was a subconscious signal. They all subconsciously thought that these muscles in Casey could kill people. And Brooklyn's muscles was only for seeing and enjoying..

"Oh my god, this figure, this muscle, is too attractive! I really want to go up and touch it."

"Wow, it's so sexy. This is a man. Why do I feel like I want to be conquered by him? I'm so ashamed."

The women couldn't hold back their admiration, making their husbands look sullen.

The moment Edith saw Casey, she was also stunned. Although she had seen Casey's whole body, the environment and atmosphere at this moment perfectly showed Casey's charm. Even she was a little obsessed for a moment.

"Oh, it's really weird, how could I have such a strange idea? Why would I want to... lick it?" There was a flush on Edith's face. "Well, try it later in the evening." Brooklyn saw that everyone was attracted by Casey's figure, and he felt uncomfortable. He muttered, "Damn, you are really a gigolo. No wonder you can hook up with such a beautiful woman, but there is nothing to be proud of. That's all you can do. All is not gold that glitters. I'll let you know how powerful I am later!!"

Chapter 596 The Swimming Competition

Casey walked to the edge of the swimming pool and stood with Brooklyn. Brooklyn turned his head and glanced at Casey. Then he said with a smile, "You have spent a lot efforts so that your figure can be like this, right? I really envy such a person like you who can be supported by women. It's a pity that I am a tough man. I can't do this kind of thing, so I can only rely on myself to make a living."

Hearing the obvious sarcasm in Brooklyn's words, Casey said with smile, "You are right. Having such a good wife is my biggest fortune. Most people aren't so lucky."

Brooklyn curled his lips. He thought that Casey was so shameless. How could Casey be so arrogant to say that he was a toy boy? It was so shameful.

"I can let you swim three seconds first. After all, your body shape just looks good. Compared with me, a professional swimming coach, you're a little bit worse. I don't want you to be so embarrassed." Brooklyn said.

"No need, if you really let me swim three seconds early, you will be the one who is embarrassed." Casey said seriously. Brooklyn gritted his teeth, thinking that this toy boy was really arrogant. In that case, he must try his best to let this guy feel the price of arrogance.

"I hope you can still say something like this when the game is over." Brooklyn said these words, and then stopped talking with Casey.

The service staff on the top floor had found a professional timer, waiting for the start of the game at any time.

Everyone around was looking expectantly at the two people by the pool. The three women present were all attracted by Casey's figure. They were staring at Casey. Those men hated Casey because Casey's body shape was so eye-catching.

"No matter how good his figure is, he is definitely not the match of the swimming coach. Later, these stupid women will know it is pleasant to the eye but of no use."

"That's right. See, it seems that that guy still doesn't take the coach of the provincial team seriously. How arrogant he is!"

"Everything speaks with strength. Although he makes his body shape look good, he still sucks."

...

With a whistle, the competition between Casey and Brooklyn officially began.

Two people agreed to swim three rounds, and the person who took the shortest time would win.

As soon as the whistle sounded, Brooklyn jumped into the water with a professional posture and swam to the front quickly. Since Casey didn't accept his kindness, he didn't need to show any mercy. However, Casey did not jump into the water directly after the whistle sounded, because he didn't know what the water entry action in a regular game was like.

After thinking about it, Casey jumped into the water directly with his usual posture.

After everyone saw it, they all burst into laughter.

"It turns out that he can't swim, he can't even know the professional posture.

Just when he was hesitating, the coach has already swum out for ten meters.

The result has doomed."

"So funny. Maybe he doesn't want to surrender in front of his wife, so he agreed to compete with the coach. But I didn't expect him to suck. I thought there was a wonderful game."

"Tsk-tusk-tusk, if he loses, his wife would be so embarrassed. If his wife runs away with other men, it will be so funny."

...

Several men quite despised Casey and mocked Casey.

However, not long after the smirk on their faces appeared, it turned into astonishment. The scene made everyone's jaws drop.

Although Casey's posture was not very good, after he entered the water, he immediately swam to the front quickly like a fish, which stunned everyone.

Brooklyn, who had been ahead of more than ten meters, was still complacent, thinking that Casey had been left behind by himself at the beginning, and it was even more impossible for Casey to catch up with him.

But as soon as he thought of this, he felt the water behind him sway for a while, and then a "fish" swam past than him, making him dumbfounded.

Casey took a deep breath when he jumped down just now. With his lung capacity, this breath could last until he swam directly to the other side of the pool, which would save a lot of time and unnecessary movements.

Everyone was shocked by Casey's swimming style. If it was in this way, even the world champion would not necessarily be able to win Casey.

"My god! So fast! He is definitely the fastest swimmer I have ever seen."

"It seems that we have misunderstood him. He is not only good in figure, but he is unmatched in swimming. This kind of person is too powerful. No wonder he has such a beautiful wife."

"Holy shit, I have to ask him the secret of keeping in such a good body shape later. If my wife runs away with other men, I will be screwed up."

...

Before long, Casey swam three rounds in the pool with his powerful swimming skills. When he reached the finish line, the service staff who had been on the side immediately blew the whistle.

It was just that everyone understood that timekeeping was not meaningful.

When Casey finished his game, Brooklyn only swam halfway for the last round.

Casey climbed up from the pool and glanced at Edith with a smile. Seeing that there was some admiration and eagerness in Edith's eyes, Casey couldn't help but shiver.

Everyone ran over to surround Casey, praised Casey, and asked Casey about the secret to keep the good figure.

It took a while before Brooklyn climbed up from the swimming pool, but at this time, everyone's focus was on Casey, so no one paid him any attention.

Brooklyn only felt embarrassed. He originally wanted to make Casey awkward, and by the way to show Edith his strength. But he never expected that he would become Casey's foil in the end, which was really embarrassing.

"Humph, no matter what, you're just a toy boy. No matter how powerful you are, I still despise you. Swimming is just my usual hobby. I have 500 million dollars. You are just a toy boy who can only be raised by women."

"You are not worthy of such a beautiful woman. It's not over. I will find a chance to let her see my charm."

Brooklyn just muttered a few words, and then walked toward his room dejectedly.

It would only be more embarrassing if he still stayed here at this time.

The crowd surrounded Casey and asked for a while. Then Edith held Casey's hand and said to them, "Excuse me, my husband and I have something to do. We have to go back to the room first. Wish you all have a good time."

After speaking, Edith dragged Casey back to the room.

When they came into the room, the first thing Edith did was to close the curtains in the bedroom, and then looked at Casey expectantly.

Casey went to take a towel and wiped the water on his body. After noticing that Edith was closing the curtains, he was a little confused, then he asked, "The sun is so good now. Why did you close the curtains?"

Edith immediately showed a bad smile on her face and then licked her lips.

"Come here and lie down on the bed. I want to appreciate your body."

Chapter 597 Just A Chuff

In the bedroom.

Casey looked at Edith helplessly. Then he walked to the front of the suitcase and found a piece of clothes to change on.

At this time, Edith was sitting on the bed with a blushing face. Her one hand was tidying her clothes. In the position of her chest, there was a hole on her clothes.

"I selected those clothes carefully. You bastard! You actually tore it up. I only took two dresses this time. We just got on the ship but you damaged one."

Edith said bitterly.

"I didn't expect that you would suddenly...kiss me. I thought you were going to do something with me. I didn't hold back for a while, so..." Casey said innocently.

Hearing this, Edith's cheeks became even more flushed. It was obvious that she was ashamed of some of her thoughts just now.

After changing the clothes, Casey saw Edith still tidying her clothes, then he said, "Don't make it. Didn't it say that there was a fashion show on the eighth floor? Let's go to have a look later. If there are some good clothes, buy it, just as a compensation for you, okay?"

Edith gave Casey a helpless look, then looked down at her torn clothes. She said, "Anyway, it's all torn. Come here and do what you just wanted to do."

Casey was taken aback for a moment. Then he said, "But, you are pregnant now..."

"I have asked the doctor about it. The doctor said we can do that stuff appropriately after three months." Edith said with a shy face.

Casey didn't expect that Edith would even ask the doctor this kind of question. He was a little bit dumbfounded.

"I've already put on my clothes." Casey said again.

"Just take it off. What are you wasting your time?" Edith glared at Casey.

Hearing this, Casey was turned on. He walked directly to Edith, pressed her to the bed, and said in the voice of an overbearing president, "So arrogant?"

Edith didn't dare to look directly at Casey. She quickly turned her head to the side, her chest rising and falling.

Something happened in the room. The Pearl also honked its whistle and sailed towards Moon Island at this time.

After lunch, Casey brought Edith to inquire about the fashion show in a good mood. The waiter told them that the fashion show was about to begin, but if Casey wanted to watch it, they could delay the show until Casey arrived at the eighth floor.

It was the highest treatment of the top passengers. No matter what the show was, as long as they wanted to watch, the show had to wait for them.

After the waiter explained clearly to Casey and Edith, he told them that they could take the boat tickets to the eighth floor, and the performance would begin after they arrived.

The two turned and walked towards the elevator. Just as the waiter turned around, a figure appeared in front of him. It was Brooklyn.

"What are the two of them going to do?" Brooklyn asked.

"Sir, they are going to the eighth floor to watch the fashion show." The waiter answered honestly.

Brooklyn just laughed immediately after hearing it. He asked, "I heard that the clothes for the fashion show here can be bought?"

"Yes, sir, if you like it, you can buy it directly." The waiter replied.

"Make arrangements for me. I will go to the eighth floor to watch the show." Brooklyn said.

The waiter immediately turned around and contacted the eighth floor again, changing the number of top passengers to watch the fashion show to three.

Staring at the backs of Casey and Edith, Brooklyn sneered and murmured to himself, "The clothes on this cruise ship are not cheap. That toy boy will definitely not be able to afford it. At that time, I will buy one for the beautiful woman. Then that toy boy can understand the gap between him and me. I hope he can go away by then and stop wasting my time."

...

At the eighth floor.

Compared with the one-bedroom and one-living room on the top floor, the cabins here were a bit shabby. The passengers on the eighth floor lived in relatively small rooms with little space and a double bed. After that, only one more table could be put down.

But anyway, here was relatively high floors. Each room was equipped with a toilet and bathroom. Compared with the floors below, here was already very luxurious.

Rowan and Rosa were staying in one of the rooms at this time. Rosa looked at the decorations in the room with curiosity, and then she said, "It's too luxurious here. There is separate toilet and bathrooms. It's almost the size of a hotel."

"Of course. We spent a lot to get on this cruise ship. If here is not luxurious, we will suffer a lot of loss." Rowan was smug.

"Here is already so luxurious. What will the top floor look like?" Rosa asked.

"I heard that there are only ten passengers on the top floor. They occupy the entire floor. They live in a suite, which is much more comfortable than ours." Rowan said.

Rosa immediately showed envy, and then said, "If I can go to the top floor to stay one night, I will have no regrets in this life."

"The one who can live on the top floor has more than 100 million dollars' assets. Don't think about that. The one you live in is already very good. At least it is better than Edith and her husband. They might already be driven out of the cruise." Rowan said.

Rosa immediately laughed, "Well, they have no qualifications to compare with us. Two chuffs. They look so funny."

"Okay, don't talk about them. That fashion show is about to begin. Let's go now." Rowan said.

The two left the room together and walked towards the hall on the eighth floor, where the fashion show would be held.

There were already many people in the hall at this time. A stage for catwalks had been set up in the center. Below were two rows of seats. From outside to inside, the quality of the seats was getting better and better. The innermost one was even directly replaced by a sofa. Yes, this was for the passengers on the top floor.

"Honey, where are our seats?" Rosa asked while looking for the seats.

"We are only ordinary tickets on the eighth floor. Maybe we can sit in the middle position." Rowan said.

Rosa nodded, thinking that it would be nice to sit in the middle. As for the sofa, she had no extravagant expectations.

They walked to the entrance and planned to go in. At this time, the staff stopped them both.

"Isn't it time for the show? Why not let us in?" Rowan asked.

"Sorry, passengers from the top floor will come to watch today's show. Only when they arrive will the show start." The staff explained.

Suddenly, Rowan sighed with emotions. Sure enough, only the rich could do whatever he wanted to do. If he could make friends with a passenger from the top floor, he would surely be able to make a lot of achievements in the future.

Just as the they were waiting by the side, Rosa suddenly stretched out her hand, pointed in a direction, and said, "Honey, look, it's them."

Chapter 598 The Most Distinguished Guest

Rowan immediately looked towards the direction where Rosa was pointing at and found that it was indeed Edith and Casey.

"Didn't the two of them have been taken away? How could they appear on the eighth floor?" Rowan frowned immediately.

"Could it be that the two of them came up secretly? Even if their tickets are OK, it is impossible for them to come to the eighth floor. I guess you told them that we were on the eighth floor. They envy us, so they followed us up." Rosa guessed.

Rowan felt that it made sense. Then he thought about it for a while, and said, "Let's go to ask them. If it's true, just expose them. What I look down on the most is this kind of people who are clearly not of this class, but they use this mean trick to pretend."

The two of them walked towards Casey and Edith together.

"Tsk-tusk-tusk, I just said casually that you wanted to go to the eighth floor. But I didn't expect that you would be really here. I have never seen such a thick-skinned person like you." Rowan said mockingly.

Casey and Edith were looking around with curiosity. After hearing Rowan's voice, they both turned their heads and looked at him.

Edith frowned immediately. She thought that this cruise ship was so big, so she probably wouldn't be able to run into Rowan, but she did not expect to run into him as soon as she got on.

"Sorry, we were here to watch the fashion show. If we hadn't met you, we would have forgotten that you guys were also on the cruise ship." Casey didn't bear it anymore and said directly to Rowan.

Rowan immediately snorted and said, "I didn't expect that you, such a wimp, dared to talk to me like this. You sneaked up to the eighth floor and so it makes you feel like you have an identity?"

"Rowan, thinking about you are my distant cousin, I don't want to argue with you. It's none of your business if we are here. Get out of my way. We are going to watch the show." Edith looked at the two people angrily.

"Honey, why are your distant relatives all this kind of people? It's so scary when they are shameless. They don't even know their identities and even want to go to the fashion show. So funny." Rosa on the side sneered immediately.

"What the hell do you mean?" Edith asked.

"What do we mean? Nothing! Edith, you don't know what the situation in your family is? Do you think you have money to hang out in this kind of place? Tell me, how did you sneak in? Otherwise, I'm going to call the management staff here over. At that time, I'm afraid the consequence will be much worse than you expected." Rowan sneered.

Casey took a step forward, staring at Rowan coldly. Then he said, "We got down from the top floor. So are there any problems?"

Rowan sneered, "It seems that you stick in pretending. In this case, don't blame us for being merciless."

After speaking, Rowan clapped his hands and shouted, "Everyone, look here. These two people obviously bought the lowest-level boat tickets, and they might buy the fake tickets. Now they have reached the eighth floor. It's really hateful that they are so shameless."

Hearing Rowan yelling so, Edith was about to stop him. But Casey grabbed her hands and said, "It's okay. Let him shout."

Rowan glanced at Casey and continued to shout, "I know these two people. They are my distant relatives. That woman's family is average. That man is a poor. So it's impossible for them to afford the tickets. I suspect their tickets are fake!"

After hearing Rowan's words, everyone immediately stared at Casey and Edith and started discussing. Many people believed Rowan's words and began to point to Casey and Edith.

Brooklyn also followed to the eighth floor. After seeing the scene, a joking smile suddenly appeared on his face. He didn't expect Casey and Edith to have such identities. They did live on the top floor. Even if they didn't have money, there were times when they won the lottery. Brooklyn now suspected that Casey and Edith won the lottery, so they had the money to go to Moon Island. If this was the case, he would be more confident in snatching Edith from Casey. The situation here quickly attracted the attention of the manager. Several people immediately walked towards this side.

"What's the situation here?" one of them asked.

Rosa hurriedly said, "These two people are at the bottom floor. They ran up secretly. According to the rules, the two of them are not qualified to come to the eighth floor. Get them quickly."

The few people immediately glanced at Casey and Edith, and the leader asked coldly, "Is what she said true?"

People at the bottom ran secretly to the top, which was the taboo on The Pearl. Once they were found out, they needed to be severely punished.

Casey laughed, "Tell me first, if the two of them are spreading rumors, what kind of punishment will they have?"

"We will mediate from this and ask them to apologize to you." The leader said.

"Oh? What if I tell you that we are the passengers at the top floor?" Casey asked.

The faces of the few people changed. They quickly said, "If this is the case, we will severely punish these two people, cancel all their services on the cruise ship, and only allow them to stay in their own rooms until the cruise ship arrives at Moon Island."

Hearing Casey's words, Rowan laughed, "Don't listen to this guy bragging here. They can't be the passengers at the top floor. I know his situation the most."

"They are posing as the passengers at the top floor here. You should just throw them both into the sea." Rosa muttered.

Casey ignored what the two said, but took out the ferry tickets for himself and Edith and handed them to the leader.

"Check it. Then you will know whether we all the passengers at the top floor."

The leader took the two ferry tickets in Casey's hand. After taking a look, his eyes widened open. Then he quickly bowed to Casey and Edith, and said, "Dear guest, it causes unnecessary trouble for you. This is our negligence. Please forgive me. We will drive these two people back to the room and prevent them from coming out."

After speaking, he returned the tickets to Casey and gave a look at the people behind him. Then his men immediately arrested Rowan and Rosa.

Both Rowan and Rosa were dumbfounded. They had no idea that things would develop like this.

"What are you arresting us for? You should arrest them!" Rowan shouted.

"The two of them are our most distinguished guests. You slander our guests? How dare you!"

"This is impossible. Their ferry tickets are fake. With their family's situation, how can they afford the top ferry tickets!" Rowan looked incredulous. "The tickets for our top-level guests are all specially made. It is impossible to be faked. Stop talking nonsense. Hurry up and go back to your room. You two are not allowed to come out until the cruise ship arrives at Moon Island!" After that, they dragged Rowan and Rosa out of the hall.

Chapter 599 It Doesn't Bother You to Worry About

"The two of them are really hateful."

Edith said angrily.

Casey said with a smile, "So they got the punishment they deserved. At least, they won't bother us again until we get off the boat."

Edith nodded and stopped thinking about Rowan's affairs. This time, they came out to relax. Such a good trip shouldn't be ruined by such things. The two of them walked towards the audience area of the fashion show. After giving the ferry tickets to the person over there, someone took them to the front sofa.

After the two of them sat down, the person in charge of the fashion show quickly announced that the show was about to begin, letting everyone go back to their seats as soon as possible.

Those people looked enviously at Casey and Edith, who were sitting at the front. The reason why today's show was postponed was because the two of them had not yet come. At this moment, they all felt the power of money.

"When can I enjoy this kind of treatment in my life? Tusk-tusk, everyone is turning around me. It feels so cool."

"You better wake up. Those people who can afford the top-floor ferry tickets has hundreds of millions assets. We can come to the eighth floor, which is already very good."

After Casey and Edith sat down for a while, Brooklyn also walked to the side of the two and sat down on the other sofa.

"What a coincidence! You guys are also going to watch the fashion show."

Brooklyn asked with a smile.

Casey and Edith both turned their heads to look at Brooklyn. They just nodded politely to him, without saying anything. Brooklyn was thinking about what Rowan said just now, with a meaningful smile on his face. Then he asked tentatively, "Those two rude people dare to say that they are your relatives. I guess they want to take advantage of you guys. You guys will definitely not have such relatives."

Edith glanced at Brooklyn and said, "The two of them are indeed my distant relatives. They're just way out of the line a little."

"Oh? Since he is your distant relative, why did he still say that kind of slanderous words? I heard them say that Casey is a wimp, that you are from a small place and that you two can't afford the ferry tickets here. Your relatives are distorting the facts. How could the people who can buy the top-floor ferry tickets be like what they said?" Brooklyn continued.

Casey knew that Brooklyn wanted to judge whether Rowan said was true or false from Edith. Casey felt it a little boring, so he said, "What they said is not wrong, but it's all the past. The show is about to start. Let's watch the show." Brooklyn just nodded with a smile. He was already smug. It seemed that these two people were not rich. Because they won the lottery or got the chance to make a fortune suddenly, they had the money to buy the ferry tickets of the top floor.

If it was in the case, it would be easy for him to steal Edith from Casey.

No matter what, Casey's assets could not be as much as his 500 million worth. Besides, he didn't expect Casey to be a wimp in the eyes of his relatives, which made Brooklyn even more convinced that Casey was a toy boy.

The clothes of the fashion show on The Pearl were so expensive. Even the cheapest one was worth of millions, just because of the reputation of the designer and the vanity of the rich.

Ferry tickets were just one of the means for The Pearl to make money, and the luxury goods on the cruise could still bring them a lot of money.

Brooklyn only needed to buy Edith one, then Edith would be able to understand the gap between Casey and him.

After all, a toy boy must be reluctant to spend millions to buy a piece of clothing.

The show soon began. After a while, models with graceful figures and outstanding temperaments walked out one by one, wearing all kinds of beautiful clothes. They showed off their figures in front of everyone.

After each model showed the clothes on themselves, the host would introduce the designer and design concept of the dress, trying to exaggerate the dress and described them as collectibles.

Then, he would quote the price.

Except for the first piece of clothing that was quoted at 880 thousand, every piece of clothing after that was between 1.5 million and 2 million.

The passengers on the eighth floor looked at these charming models with envy. Although they all thought these clothes were very nice, the prices were so high that none of them were willing to buy them.

"My god, a piece of clothing is more than one million dollars. How rich they are that they can afford it! I really don't understand what kind of people are willing to buy such expensive clothes?"

The man said with emotion.

"This is no longer clothes. This is a work of art. Buying it back is not for wearing, but for admiration. You chuff!" A girl had been brainwashed by the host. Her eyes lit up when she was looking at those clothes.

Edith was also amazed by the clothes worn by these models. She thought the clothes she bought were already pretty, but compared with these clothes, the clothes she bought really sucked.

Every time when a model came out, Edith would admire, "It's so beautiful."

Casey looked at Edith from the sidelines, wondering if she liked these clothes.

After a long time, the models displayed a total of 23 pieces of clothing. They stood in two rows in front of all the audience, posing in various poses for people to watch.

The host smiled and asked if anyone wanted to take these artworks home, but his eyes were mainly on the sofa in the first row.

After hearing the host's words, Brooklyn immediately stood up, pointed his finger at a model on the stage, and said, "Help me wrap the dress number 17. I want to give this dress to this beautiful girl. I think she is worthy of this dress."

Then he turned his head and glanced at Edith, completely ignoring Casey who was sitting next to Edith.

As soon as Brooklyn finished speaking, the audiences were in uproar. Everyone did not expect that someone would actually buy the clothes here.

Moreover, the clothes that Brooklyn picked was the most expensive among the 23 clothes, valued at 2.38 million.

"Oh my god, someone actually bought it. It's the most expensive one. He is so rich!"

"The world of the rich is indeed not something I can understand. A piece of clothing is more than two million dollars, which is more expensive than the top?floor ferry tickets."

"Sure enough, poverty limits my imagination."

...

Neither Casey nor Edith expected that Brooklyn would suddenly buy a piece of clothing for Edith. Edith looked confused, while Casey showed a joking smile.

He stood up, looked at Brooklyn, and said, "She is my wife. I can buy her clothes, so you don't have to worry about it."

Chapter 600 Twenty Million Is Just a Day's Pocket Money

Hearing Casey's words, Brooklyn laughed, "Don't get me wrong. It's just a little gift for you guys. I just saw that your wife wears so cheaply, so I just want to buy it for her. It's only more than two million. It's just a piece of cake for me."

Brooklyn's words were full of ostentation and mockery of Casey. After knowing that Casey was just a wimp, he was not afraid to offend Casey.

He had to let Edith see how powerful he was.

"No need. My wife doesn't like the dress you picked." Casey said.

When the most expensive dress came out at that time, Edith didn't have much reaction. Although the dress was gorgeous, Edith didn't like this style.

Brooklyn curled his lips and said, "This dress is so beautiful. I think every woman will like it. Don't tell me that your wife doesn't like this dress just because of the price. I've said I bought this dress to give it to your wife as a gift."

Hearing Brooklyn's words, Casey's face immediately sank. He said, "I never look at the price when I buy things. I know best whether my wife likes it or not. You are an outsider, so don't make your own claim here."

Everyone looked at Casey and Edith curiously. They soon saw that the two guys felt tit-for-tat.

The reason why the two of them was like this was because of the woman sitting between them.

"Wow, that woman is so happy. There are two guys rushing to buy such expensive clothes for her."

"It seems that the man who bought the clothes wants to take away the wife of that man. Is the world of rich people so exciting?"

Brooklyn was very upset when he heard Casey's words, so he immediately went to the host to pay to buy the clothes.

Maybe Edith would abandon Casey because of Casey's poverty.

Casey also walked towards the host.

Edith hurriedly stopped him.

"Casey, these clothes are too expensive. Don't buy them." Edith said. Casey said with a smile, "It's not expensive. As long as you like it, I will buy it for you."

Hearing Edith's words, Brooklyn immediately sneered. He thought that Casey shouldn't have much assets, otherwise Edith wouldn't say that words. After Brooklyn and Casey walked to the host, Brooklyn directly took out his bank card, handed it over, and said, "Wrap the dress I just mentioned."

The host accepted the bank card with a smile on his face, and hurriedly asked someone to swipe the card.

Casey didn't stop him, just standing on the side and waiting for the host to help Brooklyn pay.

After finishing it, Brooklyn looked at Casey and said with a smile, "Actually, it's really unnecessary. Your wife said just now that these clothes are too expensive. You don't have to spend the money for your vanity."

Casey ignored him, but looked at the host.

"This gentleman, do you have any clothes you like?" the host asked with a smile.

"Number one, number nine, and number fourteen." Casey said three numbers.

The host's eyes lit up suddenly. He didn't expect Casey to want to buy three at a time.

Brooklyn didn't expect Casey to buy the three at once, either. He immediately said contemptuously, "These three clothes add up to almost 4 million. Are you sure you really want to buy these three clothes?"

"Sir, wait a moment, I'll let the staff prepare these three pieces of clothing for you." The host was afraid that Casey would regret it, so he said quickly.

At this time, Casey said calmly, "You got me wrong. I mean, except for these three, I want all the remaining clothes."

"What?" The host obviously didn't react, and asked Casey instead.

"Do you want me to say it again?"

Casey stared at the host with a calm face.

The host reacted and said, "No, no, I got it. Except for the number one, the nineteenth and the fourteenth, the rest is yours!"

Brooklyn on the side was also surprised by Casey's words. He stared at Casey and said, "Don't be kidding here. Except for the three clothes, the rest add up to more than 20 million. You don't have to brag like that."

"Just 20 million. Isn't it just a few days of pocket money? Why do I have to brag?"

Casey glanced at Brooklyn in a puzzled way.

Brooklyn suddenly felt speechless, thinking that this guy was too good at bragging. He had never seen such a person to brag like this.

"You don't confirm his assets first? "
Brooklyn just turned to look at the host and asked.

The host also realized this problem at this time. If Casey was talking nonsense, it would waste a lot of their time, so he took a look at Casey and said, "Sir, it's not that I don't trust you. Because it is the first time I have encountered this situation. So..."

Casey directly took out a bank card from his clothes and handed it to the host. This card was used by him to bribe Darius. It had 100 billion in it.

"You can transfer the money first, and then help me get the clothes. The password is the last six digits of the card number." Casey said.

The host quickly took the card, and immediately asked the staff to transfer the money.

Brooklyn looked at Casey with a dark face. He thought that he could rely on this matter to make Casey realize the gap between him and himself, but he didn't expect this guy to buy a lot of clothes at once. If Casey really had so much money in that card, Brooklyn would really be unable to save himself. Twenty million, even for him, was a considerable amount. Although he had 500 million, this was the sum of all his assets. He couldn't take out so much cash at once.

He didn't believe that Casey, who made a fortune, could take so much money at once.

"Hmph, this guy is just bluffing. How could he have so much money? When the staff tells everyone that the balance is insufficient, it will be so embarrassing. I just want to see how he explains by then." Brooklyn snorted coldly.

After a while, the host took Casey's bank card and walked back. At this time, the host was overjoyed, and both of his hands trembled slightly.

"Sir, the payment has been deducted. This is the invoice. Please check it. I'll go to wrap the clothes for you." The host said excitedly.

Brooklyn watched this scene dumbfoundedly. With a face full of disbelief, he said, "He... does really have so much money in this card?"

The host glanced at Brooklyn. Then he said, "Yes, sir, and this gentleman's card is the highest level on our side. This is the level only available for tens of billions of cards. This gentleman is a real hundred billionaire."