

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 601

So Stubborn

"...A hundred billionaire?" Hearing the host's words, Brooklyn felt like his head was buzzing.

He turned his head to look at Casey. His face had become so pale. In his life, he had worked hard, exhausted countless efforts and bet on endless luck, only to have a net worth of five hundred million. This had always been his greatest pride. He felt that he was the best among the younger generation.

However, now the host told him that Casey had at least 10 billion in this card, which was the number that he had to work hard for 20 lifetimes to get.

"Did... did you make a mistake? How could he have so much money?"

Brooklyn murmured subconsciously.

Casey smiled at Brooklyn, and then he said, "He is indeed wrong."

Brooklyn's eyes lit up suddenly, thinking that Casey couldn't continue to pretend. How could he have 10 billion in this card!

At this time, Casey went on to say, "In fact, I have 100 billion in this card."

Brooklyn was like suddenly struck by lightning. His whole body froze.

He looked at Casey in disbelief. At this time, he couldn't tell whether Casey said that to give him a blow or whether Casey really had 100 billion.

Casey seemed very satisfied when he saw Brooklyn's looks. After smiling, Casey said to the host, "Send these clothes to the top floor."

The host immediately said yes. His attitude towards Casey was very respectful. Every time a fashion show, he would get some commission on the clothes sold. This time the commission on these clothes sold was enough for him to live the rest of his life without any worries.

After speaking, Casey walked towards Edith.

Because these audiences were far away, they didn't know what happened just now, only to see Brooklyn's face changed from triumphant to pale.

After Casey turned and went back, the host was a little hard to restrain his excitement. At the same time, in order to make the fashion show famous, he directly picked up the microphone and said, "Everyone, just now, this gentleman spent 23.5 million dollars buying 19 pieces of clothes. He is the only customer who bought so much clothes in our history."

"In order to express my gratitude to this guest, I announce that this guest will become the lifetime honorary member in the future. If he comes to buy clothes again, he can enjoy a 10% discount!"

As soon as the host finished speaking, the audiences were in uproar immediately. Everyone was shocked by the price that the host said.

"Oh my god, over 20 million! He only bought a few pieces of clothes. It's really, too rich!"

"Holy crap, I used to think I was a rich man. Until I came to this cruise ship, I know that I'm a fucking poor."

"Nineteen pieces of clothes are more expensive than all of my belongings. OMG! Even if I work hard for a hundred lifetimes, I'm afraid I won't be able to make so much money."

Edith did not expect that Casey would have bought so much clothes at a time. He spent more than 20 million! It was the market value of the company of Patel family.

Seeing Casey walking in front of her, Edith glanced at Casey reproachfully and said, "Why did you buy so much?" "One piece for a day. Throw it away after you wear it." Casey said with a smile.

Edith immediately glared at Casey, and said, "Too luxury, so luxury."

Casey stuck his tongue out at Edith and said, "Just kidding. I just thought you liked these clothes, so I bought them all."

Edith rolled her eyes at Casey, obviously not wanting to talk to Casey. "Let's go up. The clothes have already been bought. If I break your clothes this time, you can't get angry with me."

Casey said with a smile.

Edith gave Casey a helpless look, stood up from the sofa, held Casey's arm very naturally, and followed him towards the elevator.

Everyone looked at the two people with envy. Many people looked at Casey as if he was like a walking cash machine.

Only Brooklyn stood there alone.

Casey's voice just echoed in his mind.

On the top floor, in the room.

bought for her. Now she could change her clothes in front of Casey without any shyness.

Casey looked at Edith who was constantly changing clothes. He felt that his throat was somewhat dry.

After a long time, Edith put on the last dress, and then walked to Casey, staring at him. She asked seriously, "Casey, how much money do you have?"

Casey thought for a while and said, "I don't know too well. I can't count them." Edith asked again, "Then how much is it in your bank?"

"Originally it was 100 billion, but today I spent a little, so there are only more than 90 billion." Casey said, took out his bank card and handed it to Edith.

"Honey, please take care of my money from now on, so that I won't spend the money like water."

Edith immediately pursed her lips proudly and returned the card to Casey, saying, "I don't want it. Money makes me lost. I don't want to bear the weight of these numbers."

Casey was amused by Edith's answer. Anyway, in his entire life, he had only a wife, which was Edith.

At Moon Island.

In a high-end hot spring club.

Wearing a kimono, with her hair curled up, and two slender and straight legs soaking in the hot spring, Annabel stared at her feet in the hot spring, thinking of the scene that Casey scratched her feet when they were in Guanling.

After a long time, Annabel chuckled, her face full of sweetness.

A girl sitting next to Annabel suddenly laughed, and said, "Miss, you are thinking about Casey."

"So what?" Annabel raised her head proudly.

The girl shook her head helplessly, and said, "Miss, that man named Casey is so good and makes you miss him all day and night."

Hearing this, Annabel was also a little helpless. Ever since Casey left Guanling, his figure had always appeared in Annabel's mind. She couldn't control herself at all. According to her mother, she might have been fall in love with Casey.

"How long will it take for their cruise ship to reach Moon Island? According to the news we got, they should have been on the cruise ship by now." Annabel asked.

"There are still two days. But this time Casey came with his wife. Miss, why are you obsessed with a man who already has a wife?" The girl looked at Annabel with a puzzled face.

Annabel said nonchalantly, "So what? This does not prevent me from liking him. People are not static. If he gets married, he may get divorced one day. As long as I take the initiative, there will be opportunities to let him fall in love with me."

"Miss, it seems that the morality and ethics still can't restrain you." The girl said with emotion.

Annabel said with a smile, "It's because that you haven't really liked a man yet. When you have such a person in your heart, you will understand that morality and ethics are not important anymore."

"At that time, all you think about is being with him."

Chapter 602 Moon Island

Casey and Edith were completely relaxed during the two-day cruise ship. In the past two days, they hung out all over the twelve floors of the cruise ship, watched all the programs, and tasted all the food on the cruise ship.

Rowan and Rosa were locked up in the room. Brooklyn didn't dare to have any other ideas after learning about Casey's financial resources. He had been in his room for the past two days and had not come out.

Therefore, Casey and Edith had a great time. Because no one came to make trouble for them, and no one asked if the two of them got on the cruise ship with fake ferry tickets.

Edith felt that these were the happiest two days she had played since she was a child. She had never been so relaxed since she grew up.

The biggest reason was naturally that Casey had made her feel an unprecedented sense of security. Being with Casey, she didn't have to worry about anything. She just needed to think about how to enjoy herself.

Because of the close relationship between Casey and Edith, Edith often flirted with Casey during these two days. Casey considered that Edith could not do that stuff too often because she was pregnant, so Edith used another method instead, which made their relationship have been greatly sublimated.

In the afternoon two days later, The Pearl docked on a beautiful island. The island was not small and shaped as an arc. This was also the origin of the name "Moon Island".

Although Moon Island was just an island, due to the development of tourism, the population on this island was not small. All kinds of buildings were available. In addition to skyscrapers, buildings that existed in any first-tier cities could be found here. Because of the first-class environment and beautiful scenery, many people directly set up their homes here, which made the island look vivid. These people could also rely on tourism to support themselves.

In addition, Moon Island received relatively wealthy tourists, which made this island develop very rapidly. The people living on it were relatively rich. There were all kinds of tourism projects here. Tourists could experience them one by one on this island. Of course, the premise was that they had to have enough money.

After the cruise ship docked, everyone couldn't wait to get off the cruise ship, and couldn't wait to go to this famous island to have fun.

Casey and Edith walked to the ladder. A waiter followed them with their luggage. The two of them had already overlooked the entire island from the cruise ship, and were already attracted by the scenery here.

At this time, there were many people waiting here on the shore. These were the people who lived here. They were all the tour guides of Moon Island. Although it was only an island, the area of Moon Island was still very large, so the tour guide was already necessary.

Casey and Edith got off the cruise ship and planned to find a tour guide to take them to understand the situation on Moon Island.

At this moment, an angry voice sounded, "Edith, Casey! You two shameless! We were locked in that broken room for two full days. I was really so angry. Apologize to us!"

Casey and Edith both turned their heads and found that it was Rowan and Rosa who looked so angry.

Two people bought tickets for the eighth floor this time, just to enjoy the sea view at a higher place, but they were locked in the room and were not allowed going out just not long after they got on the cruise ship.

In the past two days, the two almost died of suffocation in the room with only one small window. They could do nothing but play with their mobile phones, just like staying in a cheap hotel for two days.

Because the two of them offended the passengers on the top floor, the eighth-floor service staff gave them the worst meals in the past two days.

This made them feel that their tickets were worthless.

So when they got off the cruise ship, they began to look for Casey and Edith, planning to get even with them.

"It's really unexpected that you had the money to buy the top-floor ferry tickets.

Did you take out all your money for this traveling? Tell you, don't think that you are noble just because you bought the top-floor tickets. You could only show off in the past two days. Apologize to us quickly. Otherwise, don't blame for us being rude." Rowan looked fierce.

Rowan didn't think that Casey and Edith would win the lottery so that they could afford the top-floor ferry tickets. Instead, he felt that they had put out all their savings just to experience the feeling of being the rich.

Rosa also stared at Casey and Edith with anger and yelled, "It's not enough to apologize. They caused us to be imprisoned on the cruise ship for two days. They have to pay us compensation and let them give us their tickets so that we can enjoy the top treatment when we go back."

"That's right. Have you two heard it? Quickly hand over the top-floor ferry tickets!" Rowan said fiercely.

Casey was a little speechless. He didn't understand what these two people were thinking about. They actually dared to ask him for ferry tickets.

"Why are you two so fierce? You look like robbers. Why do the handsome gentleman and the pretty lady have to give you the tickets?" At this time, a voice sounded. Several people looked over. It was a seventeen or eighteen-year-old boy.

"Little bastard, what do you know? They have caused us to lose too much. We have to defend our rights. You! Get out of my way." Rosa shouted at the boy. The boy immediately said, "Don't be funny. This lady is so beautiful. How could she harm you! But you, a shrew, wants to harm her."

Casey and Edith laughed when they heard the boy's words.

At this time, the steward of the cruise ship noticed the situation here and found that it was still that two people who offended the passengers on the top floor again. They immediately brought people over and surrounded Rowan and Rosa.

"If you still want to do something to our distinguished guests, we will lock you up on the cruise ship and send you back directly."

Rowan and Rosa were so scared that they froze immediately.

Casey and Edith both shook their heads, stopped paying attention to them, and turned to leave.

At this time, Casey glanced at the boy and asked, "Are you living on this island?"

The boy nodded.

"Then can you be our tour guide?"

Casey asked. He had a good impression of the little boy. Anyway, he wanted to find a tour guide, so he asked.

The boy's eyes lit up and he said, "Of course, I'm very happy to serve you."

After speaking, he ran over to get Casey and Edith's luggage. The three of them walked forward together.

Rowan and Rosa both gritted their teeth as they watched the three people leave.

"It seems what I guessed it is correct.

They must have spent all their money to buy the top-floor ferry tickets. They actually found a kid as a tour guide, which proves that they have no money."

"That's not over. On the island, there aren't these people to protect you two. I have to let you two suffer!"

Rowan said angrily.

Chapter 603 Time on the Island

"Sir, lady, have you booked a hotel? I will help you deliver your luggage to the hotel first, and then I will introduce you to the situation on our island."

The three people walked forward together. The boy had introduced himself to Casey and Edith. His name was Gardner and he lived on Moon Island with his parents. His parents were the owner of a small restaurant on Moon Island. His family depended on that restaurant for their livelihood.

Gardner was born on the island.

Although he had reached the age of the college entrance examination, the education conditions on the island were too poor. Although there was a high school, there was no chance to hold the college entrance examination.

The wealthy people on the island usually send their children directly to school inland. People who settle on the island like Gardner's family, but were not wealthy, would often choose to let their children stay at home to help.

Now, it was the peak tourist season.

The high schools on the island had also closed classes. Gardner came to the place where the cruise ship stopped every day to see if he could take some private tour guide work. In addition to subsidizing the family, he could also hear many things about the outside world from the tourists.

The boy who had lived on the island had been very yearning for the outside world since he was a little baby.

Casey originally wanted to say that he had not booked a hotel yet and asked Gardner to recommend a few good hotels, but after another thought, hotels all over the world were the same. Since he was traveling out, it would be better to feel more like staying in a homestay. So he asked Gardner with a smile, "Do you have any extra rooms at your home? I want to experience the lifestyle of the local people here. I will pay you at the price of the hotel."

Gardner was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect Casey to want to live in his home. He hesitated and said, "There are rooms, but...the conditions of my home are not as good as those in the hotel. Although my house is built by Moon Island and it is a double-story bungalow, the beds in my home may not be as soft as the hotel's."

Casey said with a smile, "It doesn't matter. I just want to experience your local customs. It's okay as long as your parents agree."

After speaking, Casey asked Edith to see if she had any comments.

Edith said that she always stayed in hotels and wanted to experience the feeling of living in a homestay.

Gardner immediately called his parents and asked about it. After confirming that they could live in, the three of them walked towards Gardner's house together.

On the way, Gardner introduced Casey and Edith a lot of characteristics here.

He told Edith and Casey about the advantages and disadvantages of many attractions, and reminded Casey and Edith of those attractions where were so boring and expensive.

The advantage of finding a private tour guide was that you could avoid some boring and money-trapping places and save a lot of time. If it was those professional tour guides on the island, they couldn't wait to let tourists go to those money-trapping places. After all, the tour guides served scenic spots, not tourists.

It didn't take long before the three of them arrived at Gardner's house. The residents here lived in uniform houses. The rich could also live in the villas in the center of the island. Gardner's family was in general condition. Even if the house was the same as the others', it could be seen that the decoration was quite poor.

Casey and Edith didn't care about it. Gardner's parents warmly entertained Casey and Edith, cooked them a lot of hearty dishes, and carefully cleaned the room they were staying in.

Casey wanted to pay Gardner's family for room and meals at the hotel price, but Gardner wanted to learn about outside affairs from Casey and Edith, so he told his parents that Casey was his friend. It was naturally that Gardner's parents were unwilling to accept the money.

Casey felt that it was not appropriate, so he insisted on giving money. Gardner and his parents didn't accept it. Casey had no choice. He thought he could leave the money on the day when he was about leave here.

The journey of the two people on Moon Island officially began. As a local, Gardner's understanding of the local area was no worse than those of professional guides. In a few days, he took Casey and Edith to visit a lot of attractions on the island.

Gardner even took them to some undeveloped places on the island. Besides, the scenery here was still beautiful, and no tickets were required. In the past few days, Casey and Edith had also experienced the life of islanders in Gardner's house. The lifestyles of the people here were very different from those of the inland people. Because they were on the island, every household would go out to sea to fish. Casey and Edith experienced the life of a fisherman and learned many ways to make seafood from Gardner's parents. This kind of carefree life made people intoxicated. If it wasn't for the heavy responsibility of avenging his grandfather, Casey would even want to buy a house on the island directly and live a reclusive life with Edith.

On the third day of coming to the island, Gardner learned that Edith was pregnant, so he recommended a hot spring club to her, saying that the natural spring water there was good for people's health and was very suitable for Edith.

Casey and Edith went to the hot spring club together. But the club was separate for men and women. Casey didn't have much interest in hot springs, so he waited outside every time and let Edith go in alone.

After a few days, Edith did feel that she become much healthier because of this hot spring, so taking a hot spring became a must-have item for Edith every day.

Within two days, Edith told Casey that she had met a beautiful friend in the hot spring club. She liked to chat with that girl. The two of them talked about everything. That girl was very gentle and cultivated. Edith felt she hit it off with that girl. Soon, they became the best friends.

Because of this friend, Edith no longer let Casey follow her. She went to the hot spring club with that friend every day, so that Casey didn't have to wait outside boringly every day.

Casey had always been puzzled about the speed of the girl's friendship, but he didn't think much about it. Edith also said that she wanted to take him to meet this friend.

During this period of time, Casey also found that after Gardner took them out to play every day, he would take a book to read and make a lot of notes as long as he had time. He was a very hard-working child. Moreover, Gardner asked Casey many things about the outside world. Every time Casey told him, Gardner's eyes would shine.

Thinking of the hospitality of Gardner's family during this period, Casey felt that he could help Gardner go out when he was leaving, so that Gardner also had the opportunity to see the outside world. This afternoon, Edith and that friend made an appointment to go to the hot springs. Casey was bored at Gardner's home alone, so he planned to hang out with Gardner.

However, he did not see Gardner at home. He felt a little weird. Logically, Gardner would have been waiting at home, ready to take Casey and Edith to hang out at any time.

At this time, Casey heard a loud noise coming from outside the house. He walked out and saw Gardner was surrounded by a group of men about his age.

The lead raised his hand and slapped Gardner on the face.

Chapter 604 You Guys Bring It on Together

"Brat, I heard that you have already been a tour guide privately again? You even let the tourists live in your house directly? You are so fucking courageous." The lead cursed at Gardner.

Gardner was slapped, then his face immediately turned red. He stared at the person in front of him, and shouted, "Clarke, there is no rule on the island that I can't be a tour guide. So many people on the island are doing this kind of thing. Why are you hitting me?"

The man named Clarke sneered, "My father is the director of the tour guide management office. I said that if you are not qualified to be a tour guide, the you are not qualified. If you do it, I have to teach you a lesson!"

Gardner was full of indignation. Clarke was his classmate in school. Because Gardner's family conditions were relatively poor, he was often bullied by Clarke.

The tour guides on the island were indeed under the control of Clarke's father, but in order to make more money, many people on the island would entertain some tourists for livelihood in private. Generally, Clarke's father would turn a blind eye. After all, they were all residents of the island, so there was no need to be too strict. Clarke didn't like Gardner, so he came to make things difficult for Gardner on purpose.

"Hurry up and hand over the money you earned from your tourists. Then I can spare you once, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!" Clarke said viciously.

"They are my friends. I didn't accept their money." Gardner said.

"You're fucking lying to me. I think you just want to be hit. Give it or not? If you don't give it to me, I will slap your face to broken today!" Clarke shouted at Gardner again.

Gardner gritted his teeth and stared at Clarke angrily. He didn't show any signs of surrendering. However, Clarke had a few men on his side. Gardner could not run away because Clarke's men were pressing him.

Seeing Gardner not speaking, Clarke raised his hand again and was about to slapped Gardner.

At this moment, one hand grabbed his wrist and pulled him to the side with force.

"What are you doing?" Casey stared at Clarke and his men coldly, and stretched out his hand to drag Gardner over.

Clarke turned his head and glanced at Casey. Then he yelled, "Who the hell are you? You don't know who I am? You dare to take care of my affairs. Don't you want to live?"

"Boss, listening to this person's accent, he should be from other cities. He's probably the tourist who is living in Gardner's house." A man on the side said.

Clarke looked at Casey up and down. Seeing that Casey was wearing ordinary clothes, thinking about that Casey actually let Gardner be his tour guide and he also lived directly at the tour guide's house, Clarke thought that Casey was the kind of tourists who had no money, so he didn't take Casey seriously.

When Gardner saw Casey stand up for him, he was a little anxious. It was nothing that he was beaten. But if Casey got into trouble because of him, he would definitely feel sorry.

"Casey, this is a matter between me and him. You don't have to take care of me. Clarke has a strong influence on the island. His father is the director of the tour guide management office. He knows many people. If you offend him, it will be not good for you." Gardner shouted.

Casey turned his head and glanced at Gardner, then said with a smile, "No matter who he is, it's not right to hit someone casually. I'll help you deal with this matter. You can just watch it from the side."

Clarke and his men laughed immediately, obviously not taking Casey's words seriously.

Clarke took two steps to the front, rubbed his hands, and said, "Don't think you are a few years older than us, you are better than us. Tell you, I'm black belt in Taekwondo. With just a flying kick, I can break your head."

Gardner was anxious. He said, "Casey, Clarke has indeed learned Taekwondo and is good at fighting. Don't have any conflicts with him!"

Casey showed a joking smile at the corner of his mouth and said, "If fighting can resolve the matter, it will be very easy."

Although fighting with a group of seventeen or eighteen-year-old children was a bit bullying them, what Clarke had done was a bit hateful. Casey was just teaching him a lesson for his elders.

Seeing Casey's undaunted looks, Clarke coldly snorted, "Since you are looking for death by yourself, don't blame me for being merciless!"

"Bring it on together. I don't want to bully you guys." Casey said.

Clarke laughed suddenly, "Holy crap, this guy is so arrogant. Let us punch him together? Is he afraid that I can't kill him alone?"

"Boss, since he has made such a request, let's go together and let him understand what the cost of being arrogant is!" A man immediately said.

"No, I can take care of this guy alone. After I knock him down, you guys can come on."

When Clarke was speaking, he took a few steps back, moved his body, and assumed a standard Taekwondo starting position.

After that, he yelled and rushed towards Casey quickly.

"Look, a flying kick!"

Clarke's body vacated and kicked towards Casey, looking full of momentum.

Casey looked at Clarke's tricks and shook his head. When the two fought against each other, the taboo was to let himself in the air. If there was no place to support him, the man would be beaten so miserably.

Clarke's tricks looked good, but it was limited to kicking boards. If he used the skills in actual combat, he could frighten those children who didn't know fighting. But those who knew the martial arts could beat him to the ground so easily. When Clarke was about to kick Casey, Casey turned around, kicked directly on Clarke's stomach, and directly kicked him out.

Clarke fell to the ground with an incredible face.

Everyone watched this scene dumbfoundedly. They didn't expect that the taekwondo black belt third-level master in their minds would be solved with one kick.

Gardner also didn't expect Casey to be so powerful. He originally thought that Casey would be beaten by Clarke, who was a black belt third-level master.

"What are you guys doing? Go together. Fuck, if I don't beat him down today, I won't be Clarke!" Clarke shouted.

His men hesitated for a while, then quickly rushed towards Casey and surrounded him.

Clarke also got up from the ground and rushed towards Casey again.

After almost five minutes.

Clarke fell to the ground and said weakly to Casey, "Sir, I was wrong.

From now on, I won't make trouble for you. Please forgive me."

Casey reached out and grabbed his collar, dragged him to Gardner, and said, "Apologize to him."

Clarke looked up at Gardner. Obviously, he was very unwilling to apologize to this guy he had looked down upon.

Casey waved his fist in front of Clarke.

Clarke blurted out, "Gardner, I was wrong. Please forgive me. I won't dare anymore."

Chapter 605 Any Problem That Could Be Solved with Money Is Not a Problem

"Casey, you are so amazing. He has so many men. But you knocked them down so easily. You are even better than the martial arts masters on TV!"

After Clarke's men left dejectedly, Gardner looked at Casey with admiration. He almost wanted to ask Casey to sign a name to him.

"You have to exercise well. Being strong is the foundation of everything. I will teach you a few tricks so that you don't have to worry about being bullied in the future." Casey said.

Gardner nodded seriously. He was full of joy, but after a while, he became a little lost.

Clarke's father was the owner of the tour guide management office and was also a well-connected person in Moon Island. Although Casey taught Clarke a lesson today and helped him, Clarke would certainly not give up.

Clarke was very likely to ask his father for help. At that time, the persons that Clarke would retaliate was not only him. Thinking of this, Gardner suddenly worried. But he did not dare to tell Casey. After all, Casey had already helped him once, so he could no longer let Casey worry about him.

In the evening, Edith came back from the hot spring club. Once again, she told Casey how gentle and understanding that friend was, so Casey felt that Edith was about to fall in love with that girl.

"Honey, does your friend have a boyfriend?" Casey asked.

"No, what's the matter?" Edith was a little confused.

"You said that your friend is so beautiful, gentle and understanding. But why doesn't she go to find a boyfriend? Is she interested in you?" Casey smiled. Edith immediately rolled her eyes at Casey and said, "She has a sweetheart. What are you thinking about every day?"

"I afraid that my wife will be abducted by others. If you're still abducted by a woman, I will be so sad." Casey said jokingly.

"Idiot!" Edith glanced at Casey, "I have already told her. We will have dinner together tomorrow night. Then I will introduce her to you."

"Okay." Casey said with a smile. These days, he always listened to Edith mentioning this friend, so Casey had also developed a lot of interest in this friend.

"But you can't have any thoughts about her. Although she is indeed very beautiful and elegant, you are mine. If you dare to have other ideas about her, I will definitely not forgive you." Edith said seriously.

"You know me. I only have you in my heart. How can I have other ideas about other women?" Casey smiled and hugged Edith, and touched her belly.

"Hey, Gardner's parents will be back. If they see it, it will be so embarrassing." Edith said shyly.

Not long after, Gardner's parents came back from outside. As soon as they arrived at home, Gardner's father shouted, "Gardner, you bastard, come here!"

Gardner, who was reading in the room, heard his father's call and ran out quickly.

Casey and Edith also walked over, not knowing what happened.

When Gardner's father saw Gardner coming out, he immediately walked over, grabbed his ears, and said with a stern look, "Do you know how much trouble you have caused for me? Did you beat Clarke? His father brought some men to our restaurant today, saying that I violated the rules of the island. He directly sealed our restaurant and prohibited us from conducting any commercial activities on the island in the future. How do we make a living in the future!"

Gardner's mother also looked at Gardner helplessly, frowning and sighing again and again.

"Father, Clarke ran over to make me trouble. I didn't provoke him at all. Let of me. You are about to get my ears off."

Gardner begged for mercy.

"He made trouble for you, but you just beat him like that? Now because of you, our jobs are gone. You said how we make a living in the future." Gardner's father said with a grumpy face.

"Enough! It's useless to scold him. Just think about what to do next." Gardner's mother said.

Listening to their words, Casey probably understood what was going on. He walked over to Gardner's father and said, "Sir, you let Gardner go first. Clarke was not beaten by Gardner. It's me."

Gardner's father turned his head and glanced at Casey. His attitude eased, then he said, "Casey, you don't have to intercede for this bastard. This is our family's business, so just leave it alone."

"It's me who beat Clarke and his men. Gardner is so thin. How could he beat them?" Casey explained.

Then he recounted what happened this afternoon. After hearing it, Gardner's parents felt more helpless.

Gardner also blamed himself. After all, Casey beat Clarke because of him. No matter what, Casey couldn't be blamed for this matter.

"Father, I caused this matter. I am willing to take full responsibility. I will beg Clarke tomorrow." Gardner said.

"Forget it. Clarke's family is powerful on Moon Island. We can't provoke them. Now, we can only find a way to leave Moon Island and go inland to seek a life." Gardner's father said helplessly. At this time, Casey stepped forward and said, "Sir, lady, don't worry. I punched them. I will help you solve this matter. This matter is because they are unreasonable. You shouldn't have to bear the consequence."

Gardner's father shook his head and said, "It's useless. You are just a tourist on this island. You can't defeat Clarke's family at all."

"Don't rush to conclusions. Tell me first, what kind of background does Clarke's family have on Moon Island?" Casey said.

"Our Moon Island is dominated by the Chan family. All industries on this island are controlled by the Chan family. Clarke's father is like a dog of the Chan family. A few years ago, his father spent some money to become the director of the tour guide management office. Then he started to make friends from all walks of life. Today, on Moon Island, no one dares to mess with Clarke's family except the Chan family." Gardner's father explained to Casey.

After Casey heard it, he asked, "You mean, the position of Clarke's father was bought with money?"

"Yes, Moon Island is different from other places. Here, as long as you have money, you can buy anything, including management positions, provided that you pay enough money." Gardner's father said.

Hearing what Gardner's father said, Casey immediately laughed. He had already had a solution to this problem in his mind.

Any problem that could be solved with money was not a problem.

"Don't worry about it. I have a solution to this matter. Go back and rest first. I will let Clarke's family get the punishment they deserve tomorrow."

Chapter 606 Then I Can Give You More

Early the next morning.

After Casey got up, he told Edith a few words, and then went to find Fisher.

Fisher and his family were already waiting for Casey in the living room. Last night Casey said that there was a way to help them deal with Clarke's family.

Although they didn't have much hope, they could only trust Casey at present.

After all, if they didn't believe Casey, they could only find a way to leave Moon Island.

"Casey, do you really have a way to deal with Clarke's family?" Gardner stared at Casey and asked.

"In my opinion, let's just forget it, we can't take them on, maybe we will get even more trouble. At this point, we can only sell the house here, buy the cheapest ferry ticket and leave Moon Island," Fisher said and frowned.

Casey smiled and said, "Don't be so pessimistic. Since I said there is a way, I will be able to solve this problem. Don't worry, if this matter is screwed up, I will bear all the consequences."

Hearing what Casey said, Fisher and his family could only nod their heads, and walked outside with Casey.

"Our management department on Moon Island is in a building in the center of the island. The managers of the island usually work there. The tour guide management office is under a manager named Paisley. He is also the superior of Allen, who is Clarke's father and has the power to expel Allen, but they are family, and they must defend for each other. If we go there, doesn't it mean we have entered other people's territory," Fisher said worriedly as he walked.

"Dad, under the circumstances, don't worry about it, trust Casey. Since he said it can be done, it will definitely be done," Gardner said.

Fisher had to shut his mouth.

The four people came to the front of the Moon Island office building. Casey walked towards the front. A guard stopped them and asked them what they were doing.

Casey stepped forward, stuffed an envelope to the guard, and said, "We're here to find Director Allen of the tour guide management office, please."

The guard glanced at the money in the envelope, his eyes brightened up. Then he let them in.

They came to the office building together. Casey did not go to the tour guide management office, but directly asked where Paisley's office was.

Then, they came to the door of Paisley's office. Casey looked at Fisher and his family, saying, "You guys wait here for a while, I'll go in and talk to him."

Fisher and his family nodded, waiting outside the office a little nervously.

Casey reached out and knocked on the office door, then pushed the door directly and walked in.

In the office, a graceful female secretary was squatting in front of Paisley. When she heard the door opened, the secretary quickly stood up and wiped her mouth.

Paisley stretched his hand and closed the zipper of his trousers, glanced at Casey, and cursed angrily, "Who let you in, get out of here!"

Casey smiled and glanced at Paisley and the secretary, and said, "Sorry for interrupting your happy time, but I have something to talk to you today, so your business may be delayed for a while."

Paisley looked at Casey with a cold look and said, "Who are you, I haven't even seen you before. If you have something to do, go to the person at the counter outside, don't bother me."

Casey took out his ferry ticket for the top floor and said, "I think this ferry ticket should allow you to sit down and listen to what's wrong with me."

Paisley stared at the ferry ticket and found that it was a ticket for the top floor. He glanced at Casey, then at the female secretary, and said, "You go out first."

Those who could afford ferry tickets for the top floor of the Pearl's were either rich or respectable. Paisley knew how to accumulate contacts. This ferry ticket really allowed him to hear what Casey came to him for.

After the female secretary went out, Casey went straight to the sofa and sat down.

He took the teacup on the table and got himself a cup of tea.

Seeing Casey so casual, Paisley couldn't help frowning, and said coldly,

"This is my office. Don't think that you can be unscrupulous on this island with a ticket for the top floor. That ferry ticket is nothing but a ticket. It just allows you to be treated better on the cruise ship."

Casey smiled and said, "I came to you today to discuss a business with you."

Paisley stared at Casey for a few seconds, then asked, "What business?"

"Your subordinate's son bullied people for no reason and was beaten by me. As a result, he used his own power to force the family to have nowhere to go. I am responsible for this matter, so I need to help them settle this matter. I want you to give me the position as the director of the tour guide office," Casey said.

When Paisley heard Casey's words, he was taken aback for a while, then laughed, and said, "Boy, don't you pee and see what you are like. Who do you think you are? Do I have to follow your orders and give you a position?"

"Tell you, I heard about Allen's son. Since you are here, you don't have to leave today."

Casey smiled and said, "I heard that your position here can be bought with money. I am not asking you to give it to me for nothing. I can buy this position."

Paisley curled his lips and said, "Do you think you can afford a ticket for the top floor, so you are eligible to come to us to buy a position?"

"Allen bought the position of director for 5 million, and then he will pay me dividends every year. Now you can buy this position, but I'm afraid you can't afford it."

Casey stared at Paisley, and said, "I pay you 10 million."

Paisley obviously hesitated and said, "Don't waste time, go out quickly. Allen is the one of my subordinates who has the best relationship with me. I will never sell his position."

"Twenty million." Casey continued.

Paisley swallowed, and then he said, "Don't think you can make me ignore my friendship with Allen for so many years with a little more money. You go, I won't agree."

"Really? Then I will give you more."

"Thirty million."

Casey laughed.

When Paisley heard this number, his whole body trembled, and there was also a clear desire in his eyes.

Casey stood up directly, took out a bank card, walked to Paisley, and said, "As long as you promise, 30 million will be transferred to you immediately. This is a safe bet for you. Opportunity knocks only once."

Paisley took a deep breath. After a while, a smile suddenly appeared on his serious face. Then he patted Casey's shoulder and said, "Come on, sit down and sit down. Actually, I have long been dissatisfied with Allen, Since you have this meaning, then I will help you. I agree to this business."

Chapter 607 You're Removed

Outside the office.

Fisher and his family waited anxiously, all a little fidgeting. Just now the female secretary came out and glanced at them contemptuously, making them think that Casey was very unlikely to solve the matter by finding Paisley.

Fisher paced back and forth, sighing,

"Can Casey really solve this matter?

Allen is Paisley's subordinate. I heard that their relationship is very good.

Casey is just a tourist. No matter what, Paisley won't help us."

"Well, don't say anything, you'll know after Casey comes out. You can't change anything by complaining," Anika, his wife, said to Fisher a little impatiently

Gardner also frowned. He didn't know what the matter would turn into in the end, but he always felt that since Casey said that this matter could be resolved, there shouldn't be any problems.

He didn't know why he had such confidence in Casey.

After a while, there was a sound of footsteps in the corridor, and several people walked towards Paisley's office.

Gardner turned his head and glanced at the side, his look changed abruptly.

Towards them came Allen, his son, and several security guards with batons.

Anika and Fisher were also shocked when they saw them, and

Clarke looked at Gardner with a sneer on his face and said, "Gardner, I didn't expect that you dare to come here to find my father's boss. You are really

Gardner frowned and glanced at Clarke, his fists clenched suddenly.

Allen also looked at Fisher and his family sarcastically. After standing in front of them, he said, "What do you mean? Are you coming to my superior to file a complaint for me?"

Both Fisher and Anika lowered their heads and dared not look at Allen. Facing such powerful people, they seemed weak and powerless.

"Originally I thought you were not so stupid. You beat my son and I should punish you. It's natural. But this matter is not too irreconcilable. If you are willing to pay me compensation, I may spare you when I am happy."

"However, you are so stupid and even ran to my boss to file a complaint with me. You are quite contrary to my expectations."

"Is it possible that you thought my boss would help you? It is ridiculous. Since you dare to come here, then I will tell you that this matter is not negotiable. From now on, as long as you are still in Moon Island, I will never let you have a good day!"

Allen looked aloof, completely disregarding Gardner and his family. After Fisher heard what Allen said, he was full of anxiety. He didn't want to make this matter too stiff, so he said to Allen with an expression of guilt,

"Director Allen, this matter is indeed our fault. I am so anxious and come here. Please spare us this time."

"Did you not understand what I said just now? It's too late to beg me now." Allen sneered.

Gardner was full of anger, stretched out his hand and pulled Fisher, and said, "Dad, don't beg them. We didn't do anything wrong in this matter. Why should we beg them for mercy."

After speaking, Gardner turned to look at Allen and Clarke, gritted his teeth and said, "It was your son who came and beat me for no reason. Casey taught your son to save me. What did we do wrong? Why are you doing this to us?" When hearing Gardner's words, Clarke immediately said in a contemptuous tone, "Gardner, are you insane? This matter has reached this stage, and you still ask this kind of question? Haven't I already told you, just because my father is the director of the tour guide management office!"

Gardner stared at Clarke with both eyes, wishing to rush up to give this guy a few punches now.

Allen also glanced at Gardner with disdain, and said, "Boy, in this world, there is no right or wrong. On Moon Island, I say you are wrong, and then you are wrong. If you don't understand it, you deserve to be bullied."

Fisher stretched out his hand to stop Gardner, and said, "Stop talking, we can't afford to offend them. By now, I'm afraid we can only leave Moon Island."

"Hey, do you think this is the end of this matter? It's not enough that you are beaten up. You now go and call the person who beat me that day, and I want him to know how powerful I am!"

Clarke snorted coldly.

As soon as he finished speaking, the office door opened and Casey walked out of it.

Seeing Casey coming out, Clarke immediately pointed his finger at him, and shouted, "Dad, this guy beat me, you must let the security guard hold him down, I will beat him hard to vent my anger!"

Casey didn't expect Clarke to be here. The middle-aged man standing behind him should be Clarke's father, Allen. At this time Paisley also walked out of the office, full of joy. Casey had just transferred the money to him, and Paisley also immediately issued Allen's dismissal document, and by the way admitted Fisher as the new director of the tour guide management office. Casey just came to Moon Island to travel. Naturally, it was impossible for him to be a director here, so Casey asked Paisley to give this position to Fisher, which could be regarded as his reward for Fisher and his family's hospitality during this period.

Paisley did not expect that there would be so many people outside, especially after seeing Allen and his son, his originally smiling look immediately darkened.

"What are you doing here?" Paisley said coldly.

Seeing Paisley coming out, Allen immediately showed a flattering smile on his face. He hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Boss, these people beat up my son, and they also took on the tour guide's work without a license. Now they come to bother you again. So, I brought someone over to catch them." When Fisher and Anika saw Paisley coming out, the expressions on their faces were even more desperate, thinking that they must be in trouble today. Paisley was Allen's superior, he would definitely defend him.

Clarke was also very proud. Seeing Paisley came out, he walked over and greeted him, then turned his head and glanced at Gardner arrogantly.

At this moment, Paisley pushed Allen directly, and said with a look of disgust, "Go, hurry up and stay away from me, don't try to sweet-talk me here."

Allen was taken aback for a moment. He didn't know what happened to Paisley. Normally, he was very close to Paisley, but Paisley suddenly became disgusted with him now.

"You came just in time. I have something to tell you. In the past few years, you have been guilty of serious professional misconducts in the position of the director of tour guide management office. As your leader, I must stop this unhealthy trend. "

"So you have been dismissed. From now on, the director of the tour guide management office will be Fisher. Do you understand?"

Chapter 608 This Is Your Retribution
Both Allen and Clarke stood on the spot in a daze, and the smiles on their faces disappeared.

"Boss... boss, don't joke with me. I have been working for you for so many years, don't you know me? Why did you suddenly remove me?" Allen was obviously anxious.

Paisley snorted and said, "It is because I know you that I know what you are like. Allen, you should reflect on your own faults. The notice of dismissal will be issued soon, and you should complete the handover as soon as possible."

"Boss, I have worked with you for so many years. I should be given credit for hard work, if not for merit. You can't remove me so easily, and there must be a reason. Is it because of Fisher's business? Don't you know what the situation of their family is? You don't have to help them." Allen was almost about to go ballistic.

He was proud to show off in front of Fisher and his family just now, and Paisley told him that he had been dismissed in a blink of an eye. This psychological gap was almost like a roller coaster, and it was naturally unacceptable to him.

At this time, Fisher and his family were also in a daze. They thought that Paisley would help Allen anyway, but what they didn't expect was that Allen was dismissed.

And what shocked them the most was that Paisley actually wanted Fisher to serve as the new director of the tour guide management office. For Fisher and his family, it was something that they didn't even dare to think about.

Soon, they all guessed that this must be because of Casey. Otherwise, given their family's status on Moon Island, there would be no such treatment.

They all looked at Casey gratefully, and Fisher felt a bit of self-blame in his heart. At that time, he even thought that Casey could not help them settle this matter, and he begged Allen for mercy. Now he knew how stupid his thoughts were.

Paisley glanced at Allen with a cold look, and said, "It's not negotiable. Don't waste your time here. Hurry up and pack your things and get off."

Allen looked anxious, he glanced at Casey. Because Casey also walked out of the office just now, Allen guessed that it must be related to Casey.

"What method did you use, why did he remove me from my position? You damn thing, why did you do this? Do you know that if I lose this job, my family has to go hungry!" Allen screamed at Casey.

Casey curled his lips at him and said, "So is it right that you abused your power and caused Fisher and his family to go hungry? This is your retribution. You can't blame anyone."

Allen's look was as gray as death, and Clarke behind him was even more incredulous. He said, "Paisley, he is just a tourist. Why do you choose to help him? Is my father's friendship with you for so many years still inferior to him, an outsider?"

Casey laughed and said to Clarke, "I really don't have any friendship with Paisley. Your father was dismissed and I bought it with money."

Clarke stared immediately, and he quickly said to Paisley, "Paisley, how much did he give you? Our family can also give you money, please don't help this outsider!"

Casey glanced at Clarke and said, "I gave him 30 million, can you?"

Clarke's body suddenly stiffened, and Allen also took a deep breath. Thirty million, which was already an astronomical figure for them.

Fisher and his family were also shocked by the number that Casey said. They did not expect that Casey actually spent 30 million to help them settle this matter.

"Casey, you cannot do so. We have no relatives with you. You don't have to spend so much money for us. Thirty million is too much. I can't afford the position of the director," Fisher said to Casey with a trembling voice.

Casey smiled at Fisher and said, "Your family treats me and my wife warmly these days. Gardner also took us to so many fun places, and this matter also has my responsibility. I should do so. It's only 30 million. It's worth your hospitality to my wife and me."

Everyone present was shocked, and even Paisley was jealous.

Just because Fisher and his family warmly entertained Casey, Casey was willing to spend 30 million to help them to settle their matter. It was the generosity of the truly rich.

After all, for Casey, thirty million was nothing but money for a few clothes. Both Allen and Clarke were desperate, and they knew in their hearts that human relationships were based on interests, and no matter how good the relationship was, it was no better than money.

Casey stared at Paisley and asked, "Allen has neglected his duty and abused his private power during his tenure. I am afraid that dismissal is not enough. Does he have to be punished?" At this time, Paisley looked at Casey as if he was looking at a human-shaped gold. His attitude was extremely cordial. After hearing Casey's question, he immediately smiled and said, "Of course they have to be punished. They made such a big mistake. I am nice enough that they weren't kicked out of Moon Island directly. They will not be allowed to conduct any business activities on Moon Island in the future, nor will they be allowed to take over private work. Once they break the regulations, they will be fined one million, okay?"

Casey nodded in satisfaction, having no comment on the punishment.

Allen heard what Paisley said, and said quickly, "Boss, please, don't do this. Otherwise, our family really can't stay on the island anymore."

"Well, you can treat others like this, but others can't treat you the same way? How dare you! Hurry up and get out of here, otherwise I will find someone to catch you now!" Paisley said impolitely. Allen immediately weakened and did not dare to continue begging Paisley for mercy.

Casey glanced at Fisher and his family and said, "Let's go back."

They nodded quickly, and now Casey was the savior in their hearts. No matter what Casey said, they would agree.

They walked out to the outside of the office building, and Paisley went out to send them out.

Allen and Clarke stood in place, both a little at a loss. In just half an hour, they fell from heaven into the abyss. It was easy to imagine how they felt.

"Dad, is our family finished?" Clarke asked.

Allen directly raised his hand, slapped Clarke fiercely, and cursed, "It's because of you, damn thing. Why did you bully others for no reason? We're done. Our family was harmed by you."

From now on, your mother and I will have to go hungry!"

Chapter 609 Only Guests in The Top Private Rooms Can Take It

At home.

When Edith saw Casey come back, she immediately went forward and asked with concern, "How is it, has the matter been resolved?"

Casey smiled at Edith and said, "It has been solved, and no one will come to trouble Fisher and his family anymore."

Edith just breathed a sigh of relief.

Seeing the desperate look of Fisher and his family last night, Edith was also a little worried.

On the way back, Fisher refused to accept the position of director of the tour guide management office, saying that Casey had spent 30 million in exchange for it. He really couldn't afford it.

Casey patiently explained to him for a long time, saying that after this trip, he would leave Moon Island, and it was impossible to stay here as the director. In the end, under Casey's painstaking persuasion, Fisher agreed to be the director of the tour guide management office and told Casey that they would pay back in the future.

Casey just smiled. He didn't pay attention to Fisher's promise. After all, it was really nothing to him. Since Fisher became the director of the tour guide management office, he would be able to send Gardner to the inland for study in the future.

Maybe Gardner could become a useful talent in the future and give Casey a helping hand when he needed it.

"That's fine." Edith smiled.

"Fisher, go shopping with me this afternoon. Let's make a good dinner in the evening to express our gratitude for Casey's help," Anika said with a smile.

Fisher nodded immediately, saying that he must make the most sumptuous dinner for them in these years.

"Fisher, Anika let's forget it tonight. We made an appointment with friend tonight. We can have dinner together when we have time," Casey said. He remembered that Edith told him yesterday that she was going to meet her friend tonight.

Hearing what Casey said, Fisher and Anika didn't mind. They said they would cook for them when they were free.

In the evening, Casey went out with Edith and went all the way to the most famous restaurant on Moon Island, the Crescent Hotel.

As the most prestigious restaurant on Moon Island, the Crescent Hotel was very popular throughout Moon Island. The decoration here was magnificent. The exterior of the restaurant was designed in silver and white. The appearance of the restaurant was also like a standing crescent. At night, when all the lights were on, the restaurant was as dazzling as the moon on Moon Island.

Although the cost of the Crescent Hotel was not affordable for ordinary people, the scenery here still attracted a large number of tourists to take pictures here. In front of the Crescent Hotel was a square. Every night, there would be a lot of people gathered here, and the Crescent Hotel would also hold some activities from time to time to accumulate popularity for the restaurant. At this time, on the square in front of the Crescent Hotel, a stage had already been set up. At this time, there were already many people around there, but there was no performance on the stage yet, and it seemed that it was not yet time to start.

"Is there any performance going on over there? It looks very lively," Edith said.

"Wrist-wrestling contest, isn't it written over there." Casey smiled.

Edith was amazed, but she didn't expect this kind of place would hold a wrist-wrestling contest.

"Let's go to dinner, this contest hasn't started yet, maybe we can come and have a look after dinner," Edith said.

Casey nodded, and followed Edith to the door of the Crescent Hotel, and walked into the hall.

A waiter ran towards the two of them and asked, "May I help you?"

"We made an appointment with a friend. She should have arrived. She seems to in be the best private room here," Edith said.

"Okay, I'll go to confirm it, please wait a moment." After speaking, the waiter hurried to confirm.

Casey glanced at Edith and said, "It seems that your friend is great. She actually asked for the best private room. She's a millionairess."

Edith rolled her eyes at Casey and said, "She is a lady from a big family in R Country, a person with status. How can you call her in such a vulgar way."

Casey smiled. Unexpectedly, this friend of Edith was still a girl from R Country, and he suddenly became a little curious. While the two were waiting, Rowan and Rosa also walked into the hall of the Crescent Hotel.

"Dear, this time I spent a lot of money to book a box here. Although it is only an ordinary private room, it is already very rare. Most people who travel here can't even reserve an ordinary private room," Rowan said smugly.

"Dear, you are the best, I will take a few more photos later, and send them to my friends, so that they can also see our life," Rosa said with a smile.

"It would be great if Casey and Edith were also here. Their money was used to buy ferry tickets. They must not be able to afford such an expensive restaurant. If they were here, I would have to get even with them," Rowan said angrily.

"Dear, look, are the two people over there?" Rosa suddenly stretched her finger forward.

Rowan looked over there, his eyes glared. He gritted his teeth and said, "Talk of the devil and he comes. Let's go and see what they two are doing here." With that, they walked up to Casey and Edith.

"No wonder as soon as I came in, I smelled a sour smell of privation. It turned out that the two of you were here. Well? You come in for a visit? Don't look around here. You can't afford such an expensive place. Don't drool later," Rowan mocked.

"My husband has booked a private room here. Well, do you envy us? Don't think that you would be a real noble as you bought ferry tickets for the top floor. You are here to stay still, because you can't afford to spend money to reserve a private room. It's ridiculous," Rosa also said something strangely.

Both Casey and Edith were a bit speechless. They didn't expect to meet these two jinxes wherever they went.

"My friend invited us to dinner here, we don't have to book a private room," Edith said.

"Hey, Don't brag. Do you still have friends in a place like this? Don't tell me that it is the tour guide you were looking for that day. You are so poor to find an unlicensed tour guide. How dare you say that someone invite you to have dinner here!" Rowan immediately said contemptuously .

"Husband, I think they are keeping up appearances," said Rosa, "You are just people from a small place. Even if you have friends, it is impossible to invite you to dinner in such a place. But don't worry, wait a minute. When my husband and I finish eating, I will show you the photos, so that we can also treat your eyes well."

Both Casey and Edith were a little speechless, and they ignored Rowan.

At this time, the waiter also ran over and said respectfully to them, "Please come with me. It has been confirmed. You two can go up."

Casey and Edith nodded and followed the waiter to the elevator.

After helping Casey and Edith operate the elevator, the waiter turned around and said to himself, "I really envy them."

They can go to our most luxurious room for dinner."

Both Rowan and Rosa were a little confused, so they hurried over and asked the waiter, "What did those two people do? Why can they still take the elevator?"

"Go up for dinner," the waiter replied.

"Could it be true that someone invited them to eat here? They are really lucky," Rowan muttered immediately, and then went to the elevator with Rosa.

The waiter stopped them and said, "You two, if you want to go up, you can only take the stairs."

Rowan was a little puzzled and asked, "Why? Those two people took the elevator just now, why can't we?"

"I'm really sorry, that elevator is dedicated to our top-class private room. Only guests who eat in that private room can take it. Other guests can only take the stairs," the waiter explained.

Rowan and Rosa were dumbfounded when they heard it.

Chapter 610 Pretending Not to Know Each Other

In the elevator, Edith looked at Casey helplessly, and said, "The biggest regret of this trip is that I was on the same cruise ship with them. I really can't figure out why they had to demean us to show their superiority."

"And we obviously bought the ferry tickets for the top floor, and they always find all kinds of reasons to prove that we have not been so rich in fact."

Casey smiled and said, "The Patel family in G City looked down on the Patel family in J City. In their subconscious mind, they feel that they are superior to you. Now it is nature that they refuse to believe that you have lived better than them. So, they can only find various reasons to make themselves feel better."

"Then they can't always come to trouble us, it's really annoying." Edith was a little irritable.

"As the saying goes, miner's lady strange to blue water. At our current level, they can't understand it, so don't take them to heart. Caring about idiots will make you will become idiots." Casey said laughingly and touched Edith's head.

Edith nodded and stopped thinking about Rowan and Rosa.

When they came out of the elevator, Casey and Edith saw a high-end, atmospheric door. This was the only door. Edith's friend should be inside. Before entering, Edith turned to look at Casey and said seriously, "First, you can't have any thoughts about her, she is really beautiful. She is so beautiful that any man would like her. Others can like her, but you can't, remember it." Casey laughed dumbfounded. He didn't expect Edith to take this matter so seriously, and emphasized it several times.

"I know, I know, you don't believe me. My heart is so Small, there is no room for others with you in it," Casey said. After telling Casey this, Edith walked to the door of the private room, knocked on the door, and then opened the door and walked in.

At this time, there was a not-so-large table in the private room. The table was full of exquisite dishes, which looked delicious in the bright lights of the private room.

At this time, sitting in front of the table was a girl with fair skin, a delicate and pleasant appearance, and a detached temperament.

Casey was stunned when he saw the girl sitting at the table, because he knew this girl. She was Annabel, who was threatened by him by scratching her ankle in Guanling.

He remembered that at that time Annabel had designs on him, and he had a deep impression of this informal girl.

He didn't expect that the friend's wife had known for so many days would be her.

At this moment, Annabel was staring at Casey with a joking expression, as if she knew that Casey would appear here, and her big crystal clear eyes blinked.

Casey immediately guessed that Annabel knew from the beginning that Edith was his wife, and it was not accidental that Edith would know Annabel.

Did she come to Moon Island because of him?

What was her purpose?

If Casey remembered correctly, he only forced Annabel to tell something about Terence at that time, and then took her phone that saved a lot of revealing selfies. It stood to reason that this girl shouldn't go to Moon Island to retaliate against him because of it.

For a moment, Casey was full of doubts, wondering what Annabel wanted to do. When Edith found that Casey stared at Annabel as soon as he came in, she didn't know what he was thinking, and suddenly became angry. In her opinion, Casey was fascinated by Annabel's beauty.

She stretched out her hand directly, pinched Casey's arm severely, and then dragged Casey to sit opposite Annabel.

"Annabel, let me introduce you. This is my husband, Casey," Edith said.

The moment Casey was pinched by Edith, he almost called out directly, and his sense were pulled back. At the same time, he secretly sighed in his heart that the jealous woman was really terrible. He just distracted for a while, and got so "serious" treatment.

"Wow, Edith, your husband is really handsome. No wonder you married him. From his eyes, I can see the temperament that ordinary men don't have. I think you must be very happy." As if she didn't know Casey, Annabel said very naturally.

"Well, he is a idiot. See, he is stupid and he doesn't even know to say hello," Edith replied with a smile, and there was a condemnation of Casey in her tone. Casey was a little embarrassed. He didn't say hello because he knew the girl sitting across from him. But seeing Annabel's expression, it seemed that she didn't want Edith to know the fact that they knew each other.

And Casey didn't know how to explain the relationship between him and Annabel to Edith. If the explanation was not clear, and misunderstood them, it would be even more troublesome. So just pretended not to know each other first, and then asked Annabel why she was here when he had the opportunity.

"You... hello," Casey said to Annabel. Annabel just smiled politely at Casey, and then chatted with Edith without taking him seriously.

Edith was also a little angry because of Casey's behavior just now, so she kept chatting with Annabel. The two girls ignored Casey, making him a little at a loss and could only immerse himself in food.

During the chat between the two girls, Casey discovered that Edith really liked Annabel, and their relationship almost had risen to the level of confidantes. And what Annabel did indeed look like a well-knowledgeable, gentle and cultivated lady. If Casey didn't know that the lady from the Thompson family was a casual person and took him to her room when she saw Casey was powerful, he may have to be fooled by Annabel now.

He was more and more puzzled about what Annabel came to Moon Island for, and guessed that it may be just a coincidence. But when he first came in, Annabel's look told him that she knew he was Edith's husband.

After a long time, because he had been eating and drinking, Casey wanted to go to the bathroom, so he told the two girls and got up and got out of the private room.

Annabel continued to chat with Edith.

After a while, she said, "Edith, I'll go to the bathroom too. Help yourself and let's talk later."

After speaking, she went out of the private room.

Casey walked out of the toilet after going to the toilet. After washing his hands, he just turned around and saw Annabel staring at him playfully.

"Long time no see, dear Mr. Casey. Do you miss me?"

Chapter 611 I Fall in Love with You

Casey narrowed his eyes, staring at this extraordinary beautiful woman who looked like a fairy, and asked with a cold voice, "Why did you try to approach my wife?"

Annabel put on a lovely smile and said, "I didn't try to approach her. We have common tastes and have a lot to talk about. No matter how powerful you are, you can't interfere with who I make friends with, right?"

"Then I'll have to take you as a potential threat and get rid of you." Casey said directly. In the past, Annabel was not his enemy, and she even disassociated herself from Nate for him. However, now, Edith was pregnant. So Casey had to be alert to Annabel who was mysterious and had unknown purpose. There was immediately a hint of bitterness on her charming face. She looked at Casey with an aggrieved expression. Just now, she looked like a fairy, and now she looked like a little girl who was bullied.

"How can you treat me like that? Can't you ask one more word about it? I just kept you suspense. Why are you so inflexible?" Annabel angrily said.

"I'm sorry, but I have no time to guess.
I'll get rid of anyone who has an ill intention towards my wife." After saying that, Casey headed out.

Annabel clenched her small fists, stamped her feet and hurriedly followed him.

"Well, wait. I'm telling you. I don't come here for your wife. You're quick to think of killing me. Do you know that you're thinking about killing your possible future wife?"

Annabel had many admirers. If they saw her acting like that, they might shed tears. They considered her to be a goddess, but she should go after someone else.

After hearing that, Casey immediately stopped. He turned around, looking at Annabel.

Seeing that, Annabel pretended that she failed to react in time and then came up to Casey.

"Ah! Why did you suddenly stop?"

Annabel whispered while leaning against Casey.

Casey yang didn't find that Annabel had deliberately done that. He hurriedly took two steps back and said, "What did you just mean?"

Annabel was still thinking about the body temperature of Casey. Hearing that, she said somewhat shyly, "Well, I'll just tell you. I come here for you and I do get to know your wife by coincidence.
However, considering that she and I may become a family in the future, I think it not a bad thing to build a good relationship with her now."

Casey frowned, speaking, "Becoming a family? What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Oh, you silly. Can't you understand what I mean until I speak it out?"

Annabel helplessly stared at Casey.

"Tell me now." Casey said with a cold expression.

"I fall in love with you and I want to be with you for the rest of my life. No matter whether you're married or not, I'll marry you. Did I make myself clear enough?"

Annabel lowered her head with a red face, daring not to look at Casey's eyes.

Hearing that, Casey was speechless.

He couldn't understand why there were always girls falling in love with him.

Supposedly, there shouldn't be any woman who liked him, a man who didn't understand woman at all. What's more, he only loved Edith. He really didn't understand what these girls were thinking about.

After complaining for a while, Casey gave Annabel a glance and said, "If that's the case, give it up as soon as possible. I love only Edith, and I won't love anyone else."

It seemed that Annabel didn't care about that. She said, "Although you don't love me now, I can try."

"I'm afraid that you'll be disappointed."

Casey said rather confidently.

Finding that Casey was confident that he wouldn't fall in love with her, Annabel immediately widened her eyes in disbelief. She had never seen anyone who was so confident that he could turn down a beauty.

"Casey! How...How can say that? I can only marry you. You can't treat me like that." Annabel angrily spoke.

"You're young and beautiful. Besides, you're the young lady of the Thompson family. I'm sure that you can find the right person. Don't think about such a useless thing anymore." Casey sighed and patiently gave an advice.

"No, I can only marry you. If I can't marry you, I'll have to kill you." Annabel compressed her lips, "It's a rule of my family. Do you remember that you touched my feet in Guanling?"

Casey frowned and nodded.

"For the girls of the Thompson family, the feet are very private parts and can only be touched by their husbands. If the feet of an unmarried girl are touched by a man, she can only either marry him or kill him. It's a rule handed down from our ancestors, and I can certainly not violate it." Annabel went on speaking.

Casey didn't expect that there should be such a feudal rule in the Thompson family. In the past, he just touched Annabel's feet to force her to tell him the information about Terence. As a young man born in modern society, how was it possible for him to consider it inappropriate to touch her feet?

After explaining that, Annabel waited for Casey's response as if she was awaiting trial. Although she was active and confident, she was still afraid that Casey would deny it.

Casey thought for a while and asked, "What if you can't kill me? Is there any rule in your family about that?"

Annabel was immediately stunned. She had never thought about it. After all, she had never thought of killing Casey at all. She had always been confident that she could marry Casey.

"Well...There isn't. If I fail to kill you, I'll just keep trying, until I succeed."

Annabel said.

"Well, from now on, you can try to kill me. I won't take the initiative to attack you. However, when you attack me, I'll fight back. You can keep trying. In this way, you won't violate the rules of your family, right?" Casey said.

Annabel immediately widened her beautiful eyes. She had thought of several possibilities of what would happen after she told Casey the rule of her family, but she didn't anticipate that Casey would ask her to try to kill him from now on. Hearing those words, Annabel nearly wanted to say "can it work?"

"Casey, I'm no worse than Edith. Why do you think that it's impossible for me to marry you?" Annabel said, feeling unconvinced.

"Because she's my wife. That's enough." After saying that, Casey turned around and headed for the private box.

Chapter 612 He Is a Bad Man

Back in the private box, Casey sat down beside Edith. Edith immediately bitterly looked at Casey and said, "Didn't you say that you only love me? When you saw Annabel, why did your expression change?"

Casey explained, "When I just saw her, I thought she was very similar to someone I knew. So I was stunned for a moment. Besides, she's really very beautiful. If I didn't have any reaction, could it be that there was something wrong?"

Edith thought for a while and believed that Casey was right. Now, she only loved Casey. However, sometimes, when she saw a very handsome man, she would also find him attractive. After all, human being liked beautiful things and would always pay more attention to something beautiful.

After a while, Annabel was also back. Her expression was obviously darker than before.

Edith noticed her change at once and asked with concern, "Annabel, what's wrong? It seems that you're a little unhappy."

After sitting down, Annabel sighed and said, "Don't mention it. Just now, I met my beloved. I lost control of myself and told him that I loved him. But he should turned me down!"

Edith asked with a surprised expression, "Does your beloved come here for a tour, too?"

"Who knows why he comes here?"

Maybe he comes here to go after a woman. I saw that he was with a rather pretty woman." Annabel said with a sad expression.

"Ah? Didn't you mention that you have to marry the man who touches your feet according to a family rule? And your beloved had intentionally touched your feet, right?" Edith blinked.

"Yes. I didn't expect him to be so cruel. He even said that he wouldn't marry me for the rest of his life. Edith, what should I do?" Annabel looked at Edith with an aggrieved expression.

Edith became immediately angry, saying, "That man is really too bad. How could he do that? Annabel, don't be sad. Such a bad man doesn't deserve your love. You'll meet someone better than him in the future."

"But...But I just like him. What should I do?" Annabel looked so poor that anyone would pity her.

Edith was troubled and didn't know how to comfort Annabel.

At this moment, Annabel gave Casey a glance and said, "Edith, your husband is also a man. Men know men best. Can you ask your husband to analyze what that bad man is thinking about for me?"

Casey's lips twitched. He didn't anticipate that Annabel would talk to Edith about this matter and she even made Edith scold him. He even couldn't refute it!

Edith turned her head, gave Casey a glance and said, "Quick, analyze it for her. Why would there be such a bad man? He knew that there's such a rule in the family of Annabel, but he still deliberately touched her feet. Now, he refused to take the responsibility. He's too bad!"

Casey coughed slightly and said with an embarrassed expression,

"Maybe...Maybe there is some misunderstanding."

He wondered how Edith would react when she knew that her husband was the bad man Annabel mentioned.

Seeing that Casey was so embarrassed, there was a hint of playful expression in Annabel's eyes.

"Misunderstanding? Are you speaking for that bad man?" Edith glared at Casey.

"Well, I don't know. You know that I'm slow in this respect." Casey hurriedly explained.

Edith sighed and talked to Annabel, "Annabel, Casey's indeed slow in this respect. Don't be sad. That man is bad, and you'll certainly find a better one." Annabel nodded, put on a smile and said, "Well, stop thinking about that bad guy. Let's have our meal now."

Edith nodded. Seeing that Annabel no longer talked about this matter, Casey was relieved.

After finishing eating, they went downstairs and headed out of the Crescent Hotel. They were going to have a walk in the square.

At this moment, the square was already a sea of people, most of whom were gathering in front of a stage of an arm-wrestling match.

A host was speaking to the crowd on the stage. According to him, the match was at half-time and it would come to the climax of the match later.

"Annabel, let's go to watch the arm-wrestling match." Edith said.

Annabel nodded and agreed. Casey followed them to the stage.

Edith and Annabel were indeed too beautiful, so they attracted the attention of many people the moment they came here.

Many men enviously looked at Casey. It was indeed enviable to stay with two such beautiful women at the same time. They stopped somewhere not far from the stage and looked at the stage. At this time, eight strong and muscular men were standing on the stage. They were all winners of the first half. Later, they would contend for a championship in the final.

The host was talking about the rewards the champion would receive.

"Ladies and gentlemen, apart from the rewards I just mentioned, the champion of this match could get another lucky reward. As for what it is, I'm not going to tell you now. Now, let's choose a lucky audience from the present audience!"

After the host finished speaking, the spotlight on the stage moved and finally shone on Annabel.

"Congratulations to this beautiful young lady! You're the lucky audience!"

The host shouted with passion. Not knowing how she became the lucky audience, Annabel was a little puzzled. Then the host invited Annabel to come to the stage, telling her that she would get a gift on condition that she played mora with the host and won. However, if she lost, she would become the lucky reward for the champion of the arm-wrestling match.

Certainly, the champion would just get the chance to have dinner with Annabel. Annabel had never participated in such a game before. As the young lady of the Thompson family, how was it possible for her to play such a game? She found it very novel, so she agreed.

However, Annabel was not good at playing mora and lost to the host. According to the rule, she would have to have dinner with the champion of the arm-wrestling match.

The arm-wrestling match went on. Annabel came down from the stage, approached Edith and talked to her like a child, "I'm so stupid that I lost."

Edith smiled at her and said, "It doesn't matter. You just need to have a meal with the champion. Maybe he would be accidentally your ideal man."
Just when they talked, the crowd stirred. The people present all turned their heads and looked at one side of the square. At that place, a handsome young man was coming under the protection of a few bodyguards in suits. "Look! It's the young master of the Chan family, Mylo Chan!"

Chapter 613 Let Casey Challenge Him
As the developer of Moon Island, the Chan family was undoubtedly like a royal family on this island. Because of the Chan family, the people living on this island was able to make a living here. Because Moon Island was a high-end tourism destination, the level of consumption here was very high. Therefore, the Chan family became a very powerful family in just a few years. Even some top families in inland area were not as powerful as the Chan family was.

Therefore, even tourists knew that the Chan family was powerful and that people of the Chan family were the last to offend on this island.

Paisley, whom Casey came to before, was a collateral relative of the Chan family.

Because of the fact that the Chan family was powerful, the young master of the Chan family was also very popular on the Moon Island. After all, if one could build a good relationship with the young master of the Chan family, it meant that one had built a good relationship with the Chan family. People all wanted to build a good relationship with the Chan family.

"Wow, is that the young master of the Chan family? He's so handsome. If only I could friend him on Wechat."

"You had better not daydream about it. He must be surrounded by many beauties, so he would only take a fancy to the most beautiful ones."

Many girls were deeply attracted by Mylo after seeing him.

Casey, Edith and Annabel also gave Mylo a glance, but they didn't have much reaction.

Edith loved only Casey, and Mylo was not her ideal type at all. Annabel was even the young lady of the Thompson family. the Chan family was powerful on Moon Island. However, compared with the Thompson family, it was far from as powerful as the Thompson family.

Annabel naturally didn't take the young master of the Chan family seriously.

After coming to this place and seeing that people were looking enviously at him, Mylo put on a somewhat proud expression. He liked to be admired.

After looking around, Mylo finally looked at Annabel with a hint of greed in his eyes.

It could be said that he came here for Annabel. He had noticed Annabel, an extraordinary beautiful woman, since they came out of the Crescent Hotel.

Annabel found that Mylo was looking at her and immediately frowned.

Obviously, being looked at by Mylo in that way, she felt sick.

After coming close to the stage, Mylo directly walked onto the stage. The host immediately ran to him with a respectful expression and handed the microphone to him.

Mylo took it and said, "I found that it's humming here, so I come here to have a look. Coincidentally, I'm also interested in arm-wrestling match. Besides, I'm confident in myself. What about allowing me to challenge these eight strong men and seeing if I can be the champion of the match today?"

The host immediately said with a smile, "It's really our honor for us to have you, Mr. Mylo, to participate in this match. I believe that our eight players are also looking forward to having a game with you. I'll ask someone to prepare for it now. Let's see how powerful Mr. Mylo is!"

Mylo nodded and looked contemptuously at the eight players. It seemed that he looked down upon them.

So far, this match was actually designed by Mylo. He usually used this trick go after girls. When the host chose a lucky audience in the name of the match, he was actually choosing the beauty Mylo took a fancy to.

Then the host would manage to make the lucky audience to agree to have dinner with the champion of the match. After that, Mylo would defeat all the players in person. In this way, he had the opportunity to have dinner with the girl he liked.

As the young master of the Chan family, Mylo naturally had the tricks to make that girl sleep with him.

Most of the people on Moon Island were tourists and would basically just come here once. It were always new tourists who watched the match. Therefore, he dared to repeatedly use this trick without worrying that it would be saw through. After all, people who knew his trick had already left Moon Island.

Soon, the host prepared the table for the arm-wrestling match. Mylo came over and sat at the table.

Then he gave the eight players a glance and said, "Take turns to compete with me. If I defeat all of you, I'll be the champion."

The girls under the stage immediately screamed. It was obvious that they considered Mylo to be cool.

"Wow, he's really so handsome! He should challenge eight people! I'll take Mr. Mylo as my idol!"

"He's so cool. Mr. Mylo's really powerful! He's a real man. I want very much to be with him!"

"Ah, I'm going to fall in a faint. I need Mr. Mylo to give me artificial respiration."

The eight players began took turns to compete with Mylo. Mylo didn't look very strong, but he indeed had great strength. The strong men were defeated a short time after competing with him. The girls under the stage kept screaming to show their adoration to Mylo.

Seeing that, Edith turned her head, looked at Annabel and said, "At this rate, the young master of the Chan family will be the champion. Annabel, you'll have to have dinner with him. How do you like him?"

There was immediately a hint of dislike on Annabel's face. She said, "I don't want to have dinner with that guy. I can tell that he's very cunning at first sight. Besides, look, he's so proud. I doubt that those people deliberately lost to him because of who he is. It's really a terrible match."

"But you had already agreed. What should we do?" Edith spoke.

Previously, Annabel wanted to say that she could just refuse. After all, she didn't take the young master of the Chan family seriously at all.

However, when she saw Casey, she immediately rolled her eyes and talked to Edith with a nervous expression, "Edith, he's the young master of the Chan family, and no one on this island dares to offend him. Besides, when I have dinner with him, he won't simply have a meal with me. He'll certainly take the opportunity to do something to me. I don't want to be ruined by him. Can you help me?"

Thinking that Annabel was right, Edith was immediately worried about Annabel. However, she didn't know how to help her.

"Annabel, I want to help you, but I don't know how to. What if directly refusing to have dinner with him? They can't force you to have dinner with him, right?"

Edith said.

Annabel gave Edith a glance and said, "Edith, didn't you mention that your husband has great strength? I believe he could defeat the young master of the Chan family. Why not let him challenge the young master of the Chan family? As long as he defeats that guy, I won't need to have dinner with that guy."

Thinking that it worked, Edith's eyes lit up at once, turned her head and looked at Casey.

Casey was lost in his thought. He didn't take this matter seriously. Now, when he heard what Annabel said, he immediately put on a puzzled expression.

Can Chapter 614 Can I Come to the Stage Now?

"Casey, help Annabel, please. You didn't sign up for this match. However, if you challenge the young master of the Chan family later, he'll definitely not refuse. As long as defeat him, Annabel won't have to have dinner with him."

Edith said.

"Yes! Who knows if that guy will do something terrible to me while having dinner? I heard that he is lascivious and has ruined many girls."

Annabel blinked innocently, looking like a poor little kitten that people loved.

Casey was a little speechless. He wondered: you're the young lady of the Thompson family. How is possible that you'll be afraid of the young master of the Chan family?

He guessed that Annabel deliberately made him challenge the young master of the Chan family, but he couldn't expose it in the presence of Edith.

"It...It's not appropriate. If I do that, could it be that I openly go against the young master of the Chan family? He'll definitely make trouble for us for it later."

Casey found a casual reason.

"Anyway, we'll just have fun here for a few days. Could it be that he will come to inland area to make trouble for us?

Casey, at ordinary times, you're quite willing to help others. Why are you afraid of getting into trouble now?

Annabel's my best friend. Can't you be hardhearted enough to watch her be bullied by the young master of the Chan family?" Edith began to blame Casey.

"Forget it, Edith. Since he's afraid of getting into trouble, I'm not going to get you into trouble. I'll figure out a way to deal with it." Annabel was somewhat frustrated.

She didn't pretend to be frustrated. It was her real feelings. She knew that Casey could do that easily. However, he was unwilling to do that for her. How was it possible for her not to be frustrated?

Seeing Annabel become frustrated, Edith became anxious at once. After staring angrily at Casey, she hurriedly comforted Annabel.

Casey had no choice but said, "Well, I'll go to challenge the young master of the Chan family later."

There was originally frustrated expression in Annabel's eyes. Now, her eyes lit up again at once.

Soon, Mylo defeated all the players. The host immediately excitedly announced that the champion of this match was Mylo.

Mylo stood up and looked arrogantly at the crowd. Finally, he looked at Annabel.

The host spoke at once, "Now, the lucky audience, please come to the stage. Tonight, you'll have a chance to have dinner with Mr. Mylo. I believe it's lucky for you to have this chance."

People all looked at Annabel. Most girls were envious.

Annabel didn't move. Instead, she looked at Casey.

After giving the stage a glance, Casey spoke in a not loud voice, but everyone could hear him. He said, "Before, I forget to sign up for the match. Now, I also want to participate in it. Can I come to the stage?"

Hearing that, the audience were all surprised. They didn't expect that there would be someone wanting to compete in the match now.

After all, Mylo had defeated all the players. When Casey said those words, he was challenging Mylo. In their opinion, it was definitely bold and reckless for Casey to do so.

"Damn, doesn't he want to live? He should dare to challenge Mr. Mylo. Doesn't he know that it's the people of the Chan family that give orders on Moon Island?"

"Judging from his expression, it's obvious that he does it on purpose. Could it be that he also wants that girl?"

"Just now, that man was with that beauty. It seems that he doesn't want that beauty to have dinner with Mr. Mylo. But he should know who he is. Daring to try to get the girl Mr. Mylo wants, he'll get himself into great trouble."

The girls who took Mylo as an idol also looked at Casey with disdain and considered him to be their enemy. The host didn't expect it and subconsciously gave Mylo a glance, seeking his opinion.

Mylo stared at Casey with his eyes narrowed. Just now, he didn't notice Casey who stood beside Annabel. It was only then did he have a good look at him.

"Of course! Whoever wants to challenge me can come to the stage now. I'll prove to you that I deserve to be the champion." Mylo said.

Casey nodded and stepped onto the stage.

Seeing that, the host hurriedly stepped in for the rescue and conditioned the atmosphere, pushing the match to a new climax.

On the other side of the stage, Rowan and Rosa were also watching. There were too many people, so they could only hear what people say and couldn't see who wanted to challenge Mylo. Now, Casey was on the stage. Both of them widened their eyes.

"Is Casey out of his mind? It should be him that challenges the young master of the Chan family. Doesn't he want to live?" Rowan spoke with a surprised expression.

"Could it be that he becomes so confident that he doesn't take the young master of the Chan family seriously just because someone treated him to a meal at the Crescent Hotel??" Rosa taunted. Soon, Rowan's surprised expression changed into a sneer. Rowan said, "Maybe you're right. This is what someone who suddenly becomes rich is like. Since he's not afraid of the danger and go to challenge the young master of the Chan family, we don't have to be worried there isn't anyone who would teach him a lesson. Offending the young master of the Chan family, he'll suffer more."

Rosa nodded with a hint of expectation in her eyes.

Rowan gave the people watching around a glance and said, "Let me tell you something. I know the guy who comes to challenge the young master of the Chan family. He's a well-known loser in his hometown. There must be something wrong with his mind. He should dare to go to the stage. It's ridiculous."

Hearing that, a few people around her were curious and asked her about Casey at once.

Rowan took the opportunity to belittle Casey.

After Casey came to the stage, Mylo looked at him up and down a few times and said with a smile, "Compared with those players, you're so weak. Are you sure that you want to challenge me?"

Casey nodded.

Mylo laughed and went on speaking with contempt, "Why, is that beauty your beloved? You're afraid that I'll take her away from you, so you come here to prove yourself, right?"

"Stop talking nonsense. I don't have much time." Casey said coldly and then came close to the table and sat down. Seeing Casey treated him in that way, Mylo's expression became dark at once. Then he also approached the table and said coldly, "Guy, how dare you. I'll make you regret it."

The host watched them. Looking down upon Casey, he said with a smile, "It never occurs to me that there would be someone coming to challenge our champion at this time. This player's courage is admirable. However, he's weak. I'm a little worried about him. Let's wish him good luck!"

The audience all laughed. Obviously, no one believed that Casey could defeat Mylo.

Chapter 615 You Lost

The game began.

Both Casey and Mylo put their elbows on the table and took each other's hands.

The moment Mylo took Casey's hand, he sneered and said, "Your hand is very soft. Could it be that you were kept by a woman before? I saw that you were close to the other beauty."

"She's my wife." Casey said tonelessly.

Mylo immediately laughed, saying, "Since you already have a wife, why do you interfere with this matter? Could it be that you have an affair with the other beauty?"

"To be honest, when I do this, I also save you. You can't afford to offend that woman." Casey said.

Mylo sneered at once and shouted, "There isn't any woman that I can't afford to offend on Moon Island. I warn you. If you interfere with this matter, you'll have to pay the price!"

Casey no longer talked to him and just waited for the host to tell them to begin. Seeing that they were both ready, the host asked them to start.

Both of them used strength at once.

Previously, Casey was going to defeat Mylo quickly. In this way, he could put an end to this matter. However, to his surprise, Mylo really had great strength. Just now, he used thirty percent of his strength and failed to defeat Mylo.

At this moment, Mylo was more shocked than Casey. Just now, he also intended to defeat Casey quickly, so that others could know how weak this stupid guy was.

However, after he used strength, he couldn't move Casey's hand at all. It was indeed out of his expectation.

"Unexpectedly, you're not too weak. But do you think you're strong enough to defeat me?"

Mylo sneered and then used greater strength.

Casey used ten percent more strength. Once again, they all failed to defeat each other.

"It's impossible!" Mylo thought. He began to look at Casey in another way. The audience only saw that none of them could move their hands and defeat the other people after the host asked them to start.

"Mr. Mylo didn't defeat that guy in a second. It seems that he's quite nice to that guy."

"Yes, Mr. Mylo's too nice. If I were him, I would defeat him in a short time and make him lose face."

"Mr. Mylo's just wants to have some fun with him. When he becomes serious later, he'll easily defeat that guy."

Seeing that they were in a stalemate, the host wanted to cheer Mylo. So he said with a smile, "It seems that Mr. Mylo's not going to defeat this guy in a short time. It's the greatest respect for his opponent. In my opinion, Mr. Mylo's going to defeat him. I believe that this player will be grateful to Mr. Mylo later. After all, he loses, but Mr. Mylo doesn't make him lose with dignity."

Hearing that, Mylo cursed him secretly at once. He thought: fuck, how do you know that I'm going to defeat him? This guy is not weak. If he lost, what the host said would make him lose more face. Casey stared at Mylo with a playful expression. He wore a calm expression. However, Mylo had begun to grit his teeth. Besides, the veins on Mylo's forehead bulged.

"Is that all the strength you have? If that's the case, I'll put an end to this game now." Casey said with a smile. "Don't be fucking pretentious. I haven't used all my strength yet. When I do that, you'll be done." Mylo said while gritting his teeth.

After that, Casey found that Mylo used greater strength again. At the same time, he heard some sound made by machine.

Feeling puzzled, Casey looked at Mylo's arm. It seemed that there was something in his sleeve.

Guessing what that was, Casey put on a playful smile at once.

Then, he used twenty percent more of his strength. Immediately, Mylo found that he couldn't resist anymore. His arm was immediately falling to the table.

He tried hard to resist. However, Casey had used sixty percent of his strength and ordinary people wouldn't be able to resist it. Mylo's arm fell to the table little by little. Soon, the back of his hand would touch the table.

The audience were all shocked. They didn't expect that Mylo would possibly lose.

"Give it up. Even if you use this kind of trick, you can't still defeat me." Casey spoke.

"Bullshit! I won't lose!" Mylo gritted his teeth. After that, the strength from Mylo's hand became stronger, as if Mylo had pressed a switch. Then, Mylo nearly moved Casey's hand.

Casey frowned. Wanting to put an end to this game, Casey used another twenty percent of his strength. At this moment, there was suddenly a puff of smoke coming from the arm of Mylo.

Then there was the sound made when a machine had short-circuited. The sleeve of Mylo was immediately burnt.

Mylo was so frightened that he hurriedly stood up, rolled up his sleeve and threw a machine to the ground. Soon after that, it caught fire and made a sharp sound.

The audience were all shocked and stared at the burning machine dumbfounded. It never occurred to them that Mylo had defeated all the players with it.

The machine was just like a booster. When it was attached to the arm, it could enable people to use dozens of times more strength. However, even with it, Mylo still failed to defeat Casey.

His machine was even ruined because of it.

The girls, who admired Mylo, were immediately disillusioned with him.

People who taunted Casey felt ashamed.

Mylo stood on the stage with an extremely dark face. It never occurred to him that the fact that he cheated in the arm-wrestling match would be exposed in the presence of so many people. His reputation was ruined.

Casey stood up, gave Mylo a glance and said slowly, "You lost."

Then he came down from the stage.

The host watched it in a daze. He had long not known what to say.

Mylo maliciously looked at Casey's back with a murderous look in his eyes.

"Damn, you make me lose face. I won't let you off!"

"Mr. Mylo...Mr. Mylo, what should we do now?" The host gave Mylo a glance.

Mylo directly slapped the host in the face and cursed, "What the fuck can we do? Announce that the match is over now. Hurry up! Do you fucking want me to continue to lose face?"

Being very scared, the host hurriedly took the microphone, announcing that the match was over and urging the audience to leave here.

Casey approached Edith and Annabel.

Edith happily kissed Casey and praised him, "Darling, you're so good!"

Seeing that, Annabel was a little jealous and licked her lips.

She also wanted to kiss Casey like that, but she clearly knew that Casey wouldn't let her do that.

"Casey, thank you very much. That guy should cheat in the match. He's too bad. If it wasn't for you, I might have been bullied by that guy." Annabel said with a smile.

Casey just calmly nodded and didn't say anything.

They walked in the square for some more time. Seeing that it was getting late, Casey reminded Edith that it was time to go back.

At this moment, Annabel rolled her eyes said with a smile, "Edith, what about living with me tonight? I've booked a presidential suite in the best hotel. It's very large, but I live there alone. To be honest, I'm a little afraid. Besides, Casey helped me, and I should thank you for it. How about that?"

Casey gave Annabel a glance and said with finality, "No, we're not going."

Chapter 616 Why Are You So Ill? formed?

On the way back to hotel, Annabel wore an angry expression. She clenched her fists tightly and kicked the stones away from time to time, venting her anger.

"Casey, you're bad and stupid! You wretch! Am I so terrible? I just want you to accompany me in the hotel for one night. Why do you act as if I would do something to you?"

"I just want to secretly follow you to the bathroom, flirt with you there and do something we should at night. Is that terrible? You should directly refuse! You piss me off!"

Annabel spoke to herself. When she thought of Casey's cold expression, she got angry.

"Humph, it doesn't matter. There's still a lot of time. I'll stay with you all the time. I can definitely find a chance to do that."

When she was lowering her head and trying to find stones on the ground, two people suddenly blocked her way.

Annabel stopped and looked up at them, finding that a man and a woman were standing there.

"What do you want to do?" Annabel asked while staring at them.

The man immediately smiled and asked, "Girl, are you a friend of Casey and Edith? Was it you that treated them to a meal in the Crescent Hotel today?"

"Yes. Who are you?" Annabel looked at them with a puzzled expression, feeling a little suspicious.

"To be honest, I'm Edith's distant relative. The reason why we come to you is that we want to tell you that Casey and Edith are completely frauds. Don't be fooled by them."

It was Rowan that spoke to Annabel.

The woman beside him was naturally Rosa. Before, when they watched Casey challenge Mylo in the square, they guessed that this woman, who was as beautiful as a fairy, knew Casey and Edith. They also guessed that it was her that treated Casey and Edith to a meal in the Crescent Hotel.

They speculated that Casey and Edith got a room on the top floor of The Pearl to get to know some powerful people. In their opinion, Annabel was a friend Casey and Edith got to know on the top floor of The Pearl.

When they saw that Casey defeated Mylo in the arm-wrestling match and that Casey exposed the fact that Mylo cheated in the match, they were naturally extremely astonished. However, in their view, even if Casey won, it was still not a good thing. In their opinion, when Casey did all those things, he had offended the young master of the Chan family. And the young master of the Chan family would certainly not let him off.

When they thought that the young master of the Chan family would give Casey and Edith a lesson, Rowan and Rosa were a little happy. Believing that they should stop a beauty like Annabel from being fooled, they followed Annabel to this place.

Annabel was somewhat speechless. She looked at them and thought that they were seemingly a little mad.

"Well, why do you claim that they are frauds?" Annabel asked while staring at Rowan.

Rowan said with a smile, "If I'm not wrong, you should get to know them on the top floor of The Pearl. They did get a room on the top floor of The Pearl, but they're actually very poor. They spent all the money they had on getting a room on the top floor to get to make friends with people like you."

"Edith's from a family in a small place called J City. Her family is somewhat related to my family, but it's not very powerful and is far from as powerful as my family is. I'm afraid that Edith can't even make 6000 dollars a month."

"Casey is even worse. He's a well-known loser in J City, being unable to do anything. He always does housework at home, and is being cursed by his wife's mother every day. They're not eligible to make friends with you."

Hearing that, Annabel smiled. When she collected the information about Casey, she had known what he told her.

However, she knew that Casey had just pretended to be a loser. After all, she also knew how Casey dealt with Sasha and Margaret.

Now, in J City, no one dared to say that Casey was a loser. People who had taunted him were all anxious to flatter him.

Judging from Rowan's telling her these things now, he obviously didn't know how powerful Casey was in J City.

Annabel rolled her eyes, pretended to be very astonished and spoke, "Oh, my God. Why are you so ill-informed? The information you gave me has long been out of date. Could it be that you don't know Casey is the young master of the Davies family in B City?"

Rowan was expecting that Annabel might appreciate him after he exposed the lies Casey and Edith told. Now, hearing that, he immediately widened his eyes.

"What...What? He's the young master of the Davies family in B City? How is that possible?" Rowan asked in disbelief.

Rosa also didn't believe that and said, "It must be Casey that told you this.

Don't believe him. He had just made it up. He's a complete loser. How is it possible that he's the young master of the Davies family?"

"If you don't believe that, you can check it on the internet." After saying that, Annabel continued on her way.

Rowan and Rosa stared at Annabel dumbfounded. They came to expose the lies Casey told. Unexpectedly, they got such a reply.

"Darling, she's a fool. She should believe that Casey is the young master of the Davies family in B City. If he is, how is it possible that he would be considered to be a loser by everyone?" Rosa muttered.

Rowan didn't speak. Instead, he took out his mobile phone and hurriedly searched for information about the young master of the Davies family in B City. Soon, he found a post about the experiences of the young master of the Davies family. He clicked on it and the saw a picture of Casey.

He quickly glanced over the post, during which his face became darker and darker. According to the first half of the post, Casey had once been a loser in J City. However, according to the second half, Casey held a wedding in the Crystal Castle, inviting a lot of guests and causing a sensation in J City.

Rowan was instantly dumbfounded. Looking at the names of the people who attended the wedding of Casey and the gifts they sent, he was afraid.

The branch of the Patel family, who lived in G City, had lost contact with the branch of the Patel family in J City for many years, so the branch of the Patel family in G City didn't know what had happened in J City at all. It turned out that that loser was really the young master of the Davies family in B City and that he just came to J City and married Edith to prepare for getting the Davies family back.

When he thought of how he treated Casey and Edith before, Rowan regretted very much. Sweat came out of his forehead.

Seeing that, Rosa hurriedly asked, "Darling, what's wrong with you?"

Rowan gave her a glance with a despairing expression and murmured, "What she said just now...should be true. Casey is really the young master of the Davies family in B City."

As he spoke, he handed his mobile phone to Rosa and let her have a look at the post.

After reading that, Rosa also wore a panicky expression, looking uneasily at Rowan and asking, "Darling, what should we do now? We directly offended the young master of the Davies family by treating him in that way."

"Don't ask me. I fucking don't know!"

Rowan angrily shouted.

Just at this moment, Rowan's cell phone rang. Rosa handed it to him and said, "Darling, it's from your father."

Rowan took it, feeling uneasy. He answered the phone and asked, "Father, what's the matter?"

"Rowan, do you remember the branch of the Patel family in J City? It's the family that marries one of their daughters to a well-known loser in that city. I just got a news, saying that that loser is actually the young master of the Davies family in B City. He's super powerful. After you come back home, let's go to J City and visit them with gifts. We can try to build a relationship with the Davies family. It's very beneficial to our family."

After hearing that, Rowan helplessly sighed and said, "Father, you can give it up now. Even if we visit them with precious gifts, we might be driven out."

"Father, I've made a big mistake!"

At Gardner's house.

In Casey and Edith's bedroom.

Edith thoughtfully stared at Casey for a few seconds, as if she were going to see through Casey with her big clear eyes.

Being looked at in that way, Casey was embarrassed and asked, "Is there anything on my face?"

"No, no. You're not normal today.

Casey, have you concealed anything from me?" Edith asked thoughtfully.

Casey was stunned at once and asked, "Why do you say so?"

"You've been not normal since we met Annabel. For example, when Annabel invited us to live in her presidential suite for one night, why did you directly refuse?" Edith stared at Casey as if she were interrogating a criminal.

Casey shrugged and said, "We've a place to live in. Why should we live in her place? Besides, aren't Fisher and Anika going to cook us a big meal for us tomorrow? If we live there, we might not be able to come back in time."

"Excuse. It's obviously an excuse.

Humph, Casey, you no longer love me, right?" Edith compressed her lips and put on an aggrieved expression.

Feeling embarrassed, Casey looked at her and said, "Darling, how is it possible that I don't love you? The reason why I want to come back here is really that Fisher and Anika are going to cook a big meal for us tomorrow."

Edith ballooned her cheeks, put her hands on her hips and said, "I don't believe it. Don't underestimate the intuition of women. When I believe there's something wrong with you, there must be something wrong with you."

Looking at Edith, Casey secretly agreed with Edith. There was really something wrong with the relationship between him and Annabel. But it was different from what Edith thought.

Besides, Edith became lovelier and lovelier after she was pregnant. Casey wondered if all pregnant women were like that.

"Well, then I'll tell you. I feel that she seems to like me, so I don't want to live with her." Casey said.

Previously, Edith was going to listen to him seriously. After hearing what he said, she immediately widened her eyes.

Then she touched Casey's forehead and asked, "Casey, do you have a fever?"

Casey rolled his eyes and spoke, "I'm serious. Didn't you find that she looked at me in a strange way? Listen, men's hunch could sometimes be quite right."

Edith stuck out her tongue at Casey. After knowing the reason why Casey was not normal today, she was immediately not suspicious and spoke to him, "You're a narcissist. In my opinion, it's you that like her."

"Didn't you really find it? If that's not true, why did she want me to challenge the young master of the Chan family? It already tells something." Casey said seriously.

"She's as beautiful as a fairy. How is it possible that she would like you? Besides, you're already married. Could it be that she wants to take you away from me?" Edith lay down on the bed.

Casey silently said "yes" and thought that that was indeed what Annabel was thinking.

"Well, go to bed now. We need to help Fisher and Anika to cook tomorrow." Edith said.

"Wait. I need Annabel to do me a favor." Casey said.

"What?" Edith asked.

"Today, I defeated the young master of the Chan family. Besides, I made him lose his face in the presence of so many people. As a young master of a family like him, he wouldn't let me off. I'm afraid that he would take revenge later and that Fisher and his family would be involved in it. So, I want to take the initiative to deal with it." Casey said.

Edith nodded. In this respect, Edith deeply trusted Casey.

"Well, I'll just tell you her cell phone number. You can make a phone call to her tomorrow and tell her what you want her to do yourself. But you mustn't like her. Understand?" Edith said with her eyes wide open.

"Yes! My wife's pregnant. How is it possible that I would like other women? Tomorrow night, just cook and wait for me with Fisher and Anika. After I come back and have dinner, we'll soon go home." Casey said.

Edith nodded, lay down in Casey's arms and then slowly fell asleep.

On a cliff of Moon Island.

A strong men was standing on the edge of the cliff. The waves were breaking on the shore. The moon shone on him, making him look mysterious.

After a long time, another people came here, bowed to him and said, "Mr. Theodore, I've got the information. Casey is now living in a resident's house here, and he does come here for a tour." "Humph, it's indeed difficult to find him. To find him, I went to J City from B City. Now, I come to this place. If I don't let him die in a painful way, it will not match the effort I made." The strong man said in a cold voice.

"Mr. Theodore, Casey is not in B City now. You can take this opportunity to attack the Davies family. In this way, when Casey is back, he'll find that the people of the Davies family have all been killed. It's fun." The people standing in front of Theodore said. "Ho, ho. The Davies family is just a weak powerful. It's unworthy of my making effort to deal with it. Father just asks me to take Casey's head back. For me, commercial competition is but a game. When you're as powerful as I am, you'll find that it is power that is the most fascinating thing in the world."

"The reason why the Davies family isn't ruined is that they have Casey as their head. After I kill him, every problem can be solved."

Theodore said slowly.

"Yes!" That people flattered him, "Then when is Mr. Theodore going to attack Casey?"

"Tomorrow night. Let him live one more day. Tomorrow night, he'll be dead."

.....

In the early morning of the next day, Casey made a phone call to Annabel and told Annabel what he wanted her to do. He asked Annabel to send someone to give the head of the Chan family a message: Casey, the head of the Davies family, had come to the Moon Island and would visit the Chan family tonight.

On Moon Island, no one worked for him. If he went to give the head of the Chan family this message on his own, it would be less effective. So, he asked Annabel to do that.

Annabel was the young lady of the Thompson family, and now she was traveling. So Casey was sure that there must be a few hundred people protecting her secretly. Therefore, Annabel could definitely help him. Annabel understood that Casey wanted to threaten the people of the Chan family with his status, so she soon sent someone to give the message to the Chan family.

After receiving this message, the head of the Chan family immediately asked someone to prepare a banquet.

Although the Chan family developed quite well in recent years, it was still quite far from as powerful as the Davies family in B City. When the head of the Davies family, an important person, came, he would certainly entertain him with care.

At this moment, he still didn't know that his son was planning to deal with the head of the Davies family.

In the afternoon, Casey left after saying a few words to Edith. He told her that he would come back to have dinner after dealing with the matter.

It was not a good thing, so Casey didn't let Edith go with him.

Before, Casey had asked Gardner about the location of the house of the Chan family. Now, he was heading for it.

When he arrived at the junction, he felt that someone was waiting for him at the corner. He became a little alert. When it was time for him to make a turn, he stopped.

Right at this moment, a beautiful girl wearing a long pink dress and a garland came out of the corner at once. It was Annabel.

"He, he, he. Are you scared?" Annabel asked with a smile.

Casey was a little speechless. He gave her a glance and asked, "What are you doing here?"

"I come here to go to the house of the Chan family with you." Annabel said while blinking her big eyes.

"My going there alone is enough. You don't have to go there with me." After saying that, Casey continued on his way.

"No, it's not enough. I've told the people of the Chan family that the head of the Davies family and his wife would come to visit them. You can't go there on your own." Annabel immediately followed him and took Casey's arm.

Casey immediately got rid of her, stared at her and said, "What? My wife is Edith. In any case, you're not eligible to go there with me."

Annabel instantly stared at Casey with tears in her eyes, looking aggrieved while saying, "I'm wrong. If you don't like it, I won't do that again. Why are you so angry with me?"

Casey didn't know how to deal with it. The last person he could cope with was the girl who knew how to turn her charm on others.

"Considering that you've sent a message for me, I allow you to go with me. However, if you dare to say anything you shouldn't, I'll turn against you." Casey spoke while staring at Annabel.

Annabel's aggrieved expression immediately turned into a smile. She went skipping forward.

"Got it. Got it. I won't do that. However, others might say something. In that case, don't blame me. After all, I did ask them to tell the people of the Chan family that Casey and his wife would come to visit them."

Chapter 618 Is This How You Entertain Guests?

The Chan's House.

Arlo Chan, the head of the Chan family, was busy in directing the people of the Chan family to arrange the decorations in the living room to make the house more luxurious.

This morning he received a letter saying that the head of the Davies family in B City would bring his wife to visit them in the evening. Arlo, who knew the status of the Davies family in B City, naturally did not dare to neglect, and immediately refused all invitations, concentrated on the home layout, ready to meet the arrival of the head of the Davies family and his wife.

Before that, Arlo only knew that the Davies family was very powerful and had supremacy in B City. It was not comparable to his family on the island. As for the head of the Davies family, he didn't know who it was.

Therefore, he made people collect all the information about the head of the Davies family in the shortest time. After reading it, he admired Casey heartily. "He is so young, but has such a bumpy experience, strong connections, tyrannical methods, and able to sit firmly as the head of the Davies family, this person is quite outstanding," Arlo muttered to himself.

In fact, his son and the head of the Davies family were not much different in age. Thinking of his own son, Arlo felt angry in his heart. Casey had already been the head of the Davies family, while his son only played the field. "How disappointing he is." Arlo sighed, then walked to a servant and asked, "Where is Mylo?"

"Mr. Mylo is in the backyard. He called a dozen thugs at home. It seems that he is going to have a fight with someone," the servant answered honestly.

Arlo suddenly snorted, frowned and walked towards the backyard. Today, the head of the Davies family would be here. He also thought Mylo and Casey might have a common topic as they were at the same age. If his son could make friends with the head of the Davies family, it would be great.

However, he didn't expect that his son planned to go out to start a fight.

"Bastard, if he dares to go out today, I'll break his leg!"

In the backyard.

Mylo was standing in front of a dozen burly men, and said aggressively, "I have already found out where that guy lives. You will follow me later. As long as you see him, go and beat him right away. Don't be merciful. That guy can't afford to stay in a hotel, and he probably has no background. Even if he is killed, I will take responsibility for you. Did you hear me?"

"Yes!" everyone replied in unison.

Then Mylo turned around to take a group of people out. At this moment, he saw Arlo, who was already standing behind him with a pale face.

Mylo was a little embarrassed, coughed slightly, smiled and said, "Dad, why are you here."

Arlo walked directly in front of Mylo, kicked him on his ass, and cursed, "Damn it, you only know to go out and make trouble for others, and you even want to beat someone to death. How dare you! You are really lawless!"

"Dad, what I want to do is for the reputation of the Chan family. Last night, a stupid guy made me make a fool of myself in front of everyone in the square of the Crescent Hotel. I was humiliated. He doesn't pay attention to the Chan family at all. If we don't teach that guy a hard lesson, people will look down on us in the future," Mylo explained immediately.

Arlo glared at him, and said coldly, "I don't care your dignity. Later, the head of the Davies family in B City will be here. You must show up at that time. The head of the Davies family is about the same age as you. If you can become his friend, it will be of great benefit to the Chan family. As for you to teach that person, do it another day."

"Okay, I see, I'm sure to show up later, okay?" Mylo answered.

Arlo glared at him again, then turned back to the living room and continued to command.

Mylo watched Arlo go, turned around and looked at the dozen thugs, and said, "It only needs a short time to beat up that guy. I'll just rush back before the head of the Davies family arrives. Let's go out through the back door and move faster.!"

A group of people immediately followed Mylo out through the back door.

On the way, Casey and Annabel walked in the direction of the Chan's house.

Casey was expressionless all the way, and Annabel was like a magpie, walking around Casey, very happy.

It seemed that being able to walk alone with Casey on the road was a very happy thing for her.

"Casey, in fact, actually, it's only good to marry more wives, and there's no harm. My father has several women besides my mother. They all get along well. It's very conservative of you to marry only one woman in your life," Annabel said as she walked.

Casey was speechless. While walking along the road, Annabel had already told him the benefits of polygyny for a long time.

Annabel was also a little helpless. She found that Casey couldn't leave Edith no matter what, so she had to settle for second best and ask Casey to marry her.

Just as Annabel continued to instill in Casey the notion of polygyny, Mylo also brought a group of thugs to this road. Mylo noticed Annabel next to Casey at a glance, and then his gaze fell on Casey. "How lucky I am. I still want to go to your place to find you, but I didn't expect you to come by yourself." Mylo sneered, waved to the thugs behind him. Those thugs rushed up and surrounded Casey and Annabel.

Casey didn't expect to meet Mylo on the way to the Chan family. Mylo seemed to come for him.

"Boy, I happen to be looking for you. I didn't expect to meet you here. You can only blame yourself for your bad luck. You should pay for what you did last night," Mylo said, looking at Casey sullenly.

Casey looked calm. He went to the Chan family to solve this matter, as long as Mylo did not cause trouble to Gardner's family, it was fine to solve this matter anyway.

"I am going to talk to your father about this matter now. Are you sure you want to stop me here?" Casey asked in reply. Mylo laughed, full of mockery at Casey. "Are you fucking crazy? Do you want to talk to my dad about this? Pee and take a look at whi you are. Is it possible that you still want to ask my dad to give you justice?"

When the dozen thugs heard Mylo's words, they all laughed.

When the dozen thugs heard Mylo's words, they all laughed.

"Then how do you want to solve this?"

Casey asked.

Mylo glanced at Casey, then moved his gaze to Annabel, his eyes full of greed.

"It's very simple. If you don't want to be beaten to death, then let this beauty go back with me. If she makes me comfortable at night, I will naturally let you go. Otherwise, you may not leave Moon Island alive," Mylo said with a sneer.

Annabel heard what he said, and immediately snorted, and said angrily, "You are too shameless. Who is going to serve you? How dare you say such words in front of my future husband, he will definitely not let you go."

"Future husband? Are you his fiancée? If that's the case, it would be even more exciting." Mylo's smile turned wretched. Although Casey was a bit speechless about Annabel's words, he didn't bother to explain, and said to Mylo, "Go and call your dad over, and then kneel and kowtow to admit your mistake. I can spare you one time. Otherwise, even god will not be able to save you."

Mylo glanced at Casey contemptuously, and said, "Don't be pretentious. On Moon Island, my Chan family is the most powerful. Who are you? It is just a piece of a cke to kill you!"

After speaking, he gave the thugs a gesture, and the thugs immediately rushed towards Casey.

Casey moved quickly, with one punch, knocking all the thugs Mylo had brought to the ground, and then he came to Mylo, slapped him in the face, and directly caused him to fall to the ground. In the distance, someone from the Chan family, who secretly followed to look on passively, was so scared that he ran back to the Chan's house and told Arlo about it.

Arlo came over in a hurry, and was a little surprised when he saw a group of people lying on the ground. When he saw Casey, his look changed even more and he blurted out, "Lord... Lord Davies, why are you here? "

Casey turned his head and glanced at Arlo, and said coldly, "Is this the way the Chan family entertains guests?"

Chapter 619 I Had Given Him a Chance

The atmosphere in the living room of the Chan's house was a bit solemn.

Casey and Annabel sat on the sofa and looked at Arlo and Mylo standing in front of them.

"Lord Davies, I'm really sorry. If I knew that this bastard was going to trouble you and your wife, I would have broken his leg. Please do not be angry. I will definitely give you an explanation. "

Arlo said to Casey with a guilty expression on his face, then turned to look at Mylo, kicked him and cursed, "Dozy bastard. How dare you make trouble for Lord Davies. Do you want to put the Chan family into the abyss of suffering?"

Mylo was already a lot more quiet at this time, a little afraid to look at Arlo. How could he know the guy who made him embarrassed last night turned out to be the head of the Davies in B City.

"Your son is not only making trouble for Casey. He also wants to plot against me. Lord Chan, if you don't give us a reasonable explanation, my husband will not let you go," Annabel said seriously.

When Casey heard this, he immediately turned his head and glared at her. Since he was in the Chan family now, it was not better to refute Annabel directly, so he could only give her a warning look. Annabel had a playful look, didn't take Casey's warning seriously, and narrowed her eyes mischievously.

After Arlo heard Annabel's words, he clenched his fist immediately, turned his head and glared at Mylo, and said quickly, "Mrs. Davies, don't worry, I will give you a reasonable explanation."

Casey sighed. It seemed that Annabel was treated as his wife and he couldn't explain it clearly.

"Rebellious! Hurry to kneel down and apologize to Lord Davies and Mrs. Davies!" Arlo shouted at Mylo.

Mylo looked at Arlo a little unconvinced, and said, "Dad, I just..."

"What are you just? I asked you to kneel. Don't talk so much nonsense."

Arlo slapped Mylo's face.

Mylo held his face and slowly knelt in front of Casey and Annabel.

"Apologize!" Arlo said.

"I'm sorry." Mylo said in a barely audible voice.

Arlo kicked Mylo without saying a word, and shouted, "Speak louder!"

"I'm sorry." Mylo raised the volume this time, but there was some impatience in his voice.

"Lord Davies, my son has been spoiled by me since he was a child, and he did this kind of wrong thing. Please forgive him this time. He has already knelt down and apologized. I will certainly educate him well in the future and prevent him from making such mistakes again." Arlo pleaded.

Casey suddenly sneered and said, "Lord Chan, your son has no sincerity in apologizing. I'm afraid I can't forgive him so easily."

Arlo immediately showed a hint of embarrassment on his face, and said, "You are right, Lord Davies. My son is really ill-bred. Could you tell me how can you forgive him. I will definitely do what you say."

"I have given him a chance before and let him kneel down to apologize, but unfortunately he refused. I am a principled person. Since he did not cherish the opportunity given to him, then I will not show mercy anymore."

"But since he is your son, I can punish him lightly."

"Broken his arms, I won't pursue this matter anymore."

Casey said his request calmly.

Both Arlo's and Mylo's expressions changed. They didn't expect Casey's light punishment to be so terrifying. Annabel felt the infinite charm from Casey's temperament that easily determined a person's fate, and her eyes became brighter.

"Lord Davies, breaking both arms is too serious. My family can pay you financial compensation. As long as you say how much you want, I will definitely pay," Arlo said.

"I am not short of money. What I just said is my bottom line. If you are reluctant, then I will do it myself," Casey said lightly.

Mylo showed a brutal look in his eyes, stood up directly from the ground, and said to Arlo, "Dad you have also seen this person, this person is so excessive. Why do we have to be polite to him? He is the head of the Davies family, but here is Moon Island. Here is our territory, he is so excessive, even if we kill him, no one can find out that we did it."

"What nonsense are you talking about! Hurry up and shut up!" Arlo looked at Mylo in shock, but he didn't expect him to say something like this.

"Dad, he wants to break my arms. Is it possible that you still have to help him at this time?" Mylo yelled angrily.

Arlo also sighed helplessly. At this moment, he didn't know what to do. Mylo looked at Casey viciously, took out his phone, and said, "Wait for me, I'll call someone. Since you are so arrogant..." Before he could finish his words, Casey stood up, walked to Mylo, threw the phone in his hand on the ground, and then grabbed one of his shoulders and exerted force. With a click, Mylo screamed.

It happened in a flash, Mylo had no idea what happened, and then there was a sharp pain in his arm.

Arlo looked dumbfounded, and it took a minute for him to react.

"Lord Davies, you... what are you doing, let go of my son, why is his arm hanging down?" Arlo asked anxiously.

"Dad, my arm is broken, you...you call for help!" Mylo shouted with a pained expression on his face.

Expression on Arlo's face suddenly changed. At this time, he didn't care about anything, and immediately called for someone.

Casey slowly said, "Stop, you should have seen my skill just now. Before you call someone, I can easily kill both of you. And others will not notice it, even if I continue to play on this island for a few days, there will still be no trouble. I can leave calmly."

Arlo's body froze all of a sudden, he did not doubt Casey's strength at all. As the head of the Davies family, he would not use such words to fool him.

"Lord Davies, please forgive us. My son is not sensible, please give him another chance, if both of his arms are abolished, his life will be over!" Arlo begged for mercy.

Casey glanced at Mylo and said, "Didn't I tell you that I gave him a chance, but he didn't cherish it. He is ignorant, but it cannot be a reason for me to forgive him. I hope he can learn a lesson after I break his arms this time."

As soon as the voice fell, Casey's hand was placed on Mylo's other shoulder again. Mylo's arm dropped immediately as soon as Casey moved.

Chapter 620 My Name Is Theodore Turner

When Casey and Annabel came out of the Chan's House, the island had already been enveloped in darkness, and the colorful lights all over the Moon Island had also been lit up. A full moon hung in the sky, setting off the entire island to be extremely beautiful.

"Casey, you were so handsome just now. You really pull me, and you deserve my favor," Annabel said happily.

Casey glanced at Annabel, but replied indifferently, "Go away."

Annabel immediately clenched her small fist and said angrily, "How can you be so rude to me, do you really think I have no temper?"

Casey immediately laughed and said, "Since I make you so angry, then you should leave as soon as possible. It's best not to come to me in the future, so that you won't be pissed off by me."

Annabel rolled her eyes and raised her head and said, "Well, don't think I can't see through your tricks. You deliberately made me angry, and then took the opportunity to get rid of me. I won't be fooled."

Casey sighed helplessly, and recalled the fear of being badgered by Lily. He had never expected that Annabel would appear after he finally convinced Lily, which made him really troubled. He stopped talking to Annabel and continued to walk forward.

Annabel hurriedly followed without speaking, just enjoying the quiet and beauty of walking with Casey.

The difference from Lily was that although Annabel was sometimes naughty and made some jokes with Casey, she still had a touch of gentleness in her essence, with unerring sense of comedy which made Casey helpless but did not annoy him.

While Lily was a little immature girl. She was stubborn. She would try her best to get the thing she wanted. Annabel had the same purpose as Lily, but she didn't force Casey to be with her. Except for a few jokes, what she did was always showing Casey her charm.

She wanted Casey to like her from the bottom of his heart, instead of grabbing Casey blindly.

When she also had a place in Casey's heart, even if she didn't plague Casey, Casey wouldn't let her leave.

When passing a cliff, Casey stopped suddenly and turned to look at the top of the cliff. There, a figure appeared.

Although only the outline could be seen, Casey could feel that the man was also looking at him.

Casey felt a strong danger from that figure, which he had never had before. Annabel also stopped, glanced at the top of the cliff with some doubts, and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Nothing." Casey turned back and continued to walk forward.

At this moment, a man appeared in front of the two people, blocking their way.

"Since you've seen it, why don't you go up there and meet it?" the man said.

"Who are you?" Casey asked warily.

"Turner" the man said lightly.

Casey's heart sank, and his eyes narrowed. He didn't expect people from the Turner family to follow him here.

He turned his head and glanced at Annabel on the side, and said, "You go find Edith now and take her away from Moon Island. This time I owe you a favor, and I will repay it twice in the future."

Annabel could see that Casey hadn't joked with her. She who knew Casey's real life experience naturally knew the hatred between the Turner family and Casey.

"Okay." Annabel nodded.

Casey stepped forward and stood in front of that man. If the man tried to stop Annabel, Casey would attack him instantly.

Now Casey didn't know how many people the Turner family sent to Moon Island, nor whether the the Turner family had found Edith, so he could only ask Annabel to find Edith as soon as possible, and he spun things out here. Seeing Casey's reaction, the man smiled, and said, "Don't worry, only me and Mr. Theodore are here this time, and Mr. Theodore's goal is only you. As for the others, they are no more than ants in the eyes of Mr. Theodore. He is not bored enough to care about some ants."

After speaking, the man turned and walked over the cliff.

"Casey, why don't you go to Edith with me. Let's leave here first. There are a lot people following me and they may be able to cope with them," Annabel said. Casey shook his head and said, "Since they have found me, they would not give up. Although I am not afraid of the Turner family, I can't do much on this island. It is not clear how many people from the Turner are here. I'm afraid they will hurt Edith if I just leave. Please help me take Edith out of here, and I will meet the person on the cliff."

Hearing Casey's words, Annabel did not continue to persuade him. In this case, Casey's judgment was more reliable than her, and it was indeed the best way to do so.

"Then I'll go to Edith. Be careful!"

Annabel said.

Casey nodded, then turned and walked over the cliff.

The sea breeze was blowing gently. The further away Casey went, the more indescribable a feeling appeared in his heart.

Casey believed in intuition. Sometimes, intuition could play a certain role as an early warning.

The people sent by the Turner family this time were just not trivial.

But he didn't have any fear, even if he was in a passive situation this time, as long as Edith was okay, then he would have the confidence to escape from the Turner family.

Once he left Moon Island and returned to the mainland, after being able to borrow the power of Guanling, Casey would have no fear of the Turner family.

This cliff was very high, nearly a hundred meters, and it took Casey a long time to reach the top. Of course, he also walked slowly on purpose to buy time for Annabel and Edith.

The man standing at the top had been facing the sea, looking out, deep in contemplation. He just stood there, but giving people a feeling of being unable to approach.

"How dare you, a descendant of a man who was abandoned by his family, compete with the Turner family. And Finn Turner even lost his life because of this. You are really courageous."

Just as Casey stopped, the man facing the sea said coldly.

"He deserves to die, not only Finn, everyone in the Turner family has been written on my death list. I will kill all of you, to avenge my grandfather, including you two," Casey said.

The man just smiled and looked very contemptuous.

"Before you do it, tell me your name. I don't want to kill an unknown person."

Casey's eyes narrowed.

The man turned around directly, his sharp gaze was like a blade, across Casey's body.

"My name is Theodore Turner! I come here to kill you. Do you understand?"

Chapter 621 The Power of Theodore

"I'm afraid you don't have the ability!"

Casey snorted coldly, and the aura on his body suddenly exploded, releasing the power of his whole body to the apex.

He could feel the danger on Theodore.

When he came up just now, he also observed the surroundings and determined that there were only three of them on the cliff, which also showed the other party's confidence in his own strength.

So Casey planned to do his best this time. He wanted to directly defeat the two people on the cliff, so he could go to meet Edith quickly.

Theodore felt the aura erupting from Casey, and raised his eyebrows. It seemed that he didn't expect Casey to have such a strong aura.

"It seems that you are not as simple as I thought. It is interesting. I thought you were another boring guy who would be killed by me with one movement. Maybe you will give me some surprises."

Theodore said with a smile, and then rushed towards Casey.

The other person just stood on the side and watched quietly, and had no intention of making a move.

Casey didn't neglect at all. After seeing Theodore's movements, he directly punched out and hit Theodore in the face.

Theodore narrowed his eyes and immediately raised his hand to grasp Casey's fist. A huge power burst out suddenly. Theodore's body had to retreat backwards, unloading all the power from Casey's fist.

There was obvious surprise in the eyes of both people. Casey was surprised that Theodore was able to resist his full punch without any damage. Theodore was surprised that Casey's punch could explode with such a powerful force, which was completely beyond his expectation.

"Unexpectedly, you can play such a powerful force with only your physical strength. Among those people I have seen in my life, you are the only one who can exert such a powerful physical strength," Theodore said with some excitement.

Casey was naturally aware of the strength of his body. The medicine his master used that special mushroom to make for him back then made his physical strength surpass the limits of normal humans.

It was with such a tyrannical physical strength that Casey had the opportunity to succeed in climbing.

However, seeing that Theodore was just a little surprised, Casey very puzzled. He didn't think that there were people in this world whose physical power could surpass him.

"You are the first one who can resist my punch with all my strength, but I don't know if you can resist a few more punches!"

Casey didn't waste any time, and rushed toward Theodore again.

A faint sneer hung on Theodore's lips, and his figure moved with the wind, instantly fighting with Casey.

Casey broke out with all his strength.

This strength was not something ordinary people could bear. If he were Kacper, he would have been seriously injured by Casey.

Theodore blocked Casey's attacks with effortless artistry. Although Casey could feel that Theodore had been struggling, his strength still shocked Casey.

Casey relied on his master's prescription and the magic mushroom to get his current power, so how did Theodore achieve such a terrifying strength?

After dozens of moves, Casey seized the opportunity, gritted his teeth, and smashed Theodore with a heavy fist.

This time, Theodore failed to hold the huge strength of Casey's fist, retreated seven or eight meters behind, barely stopped, and then vomited blood.

"You are not my opponent," Casey said coldly while watching Theodore vomit blood.

Theodore wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, but an excited smile appeared on his face, "Unexpectedly, a person who only relies on physical strength can achieve this level of strength. Even if my teacher will definitely be quite shocked."

"I used my inner strength to protect my body and used my physical strength to fight against this guy And I was even beaten to vomit blood. His strength is probably the strongest among the outer strengths."

"Fine, I'm here to kill him today. Even if I am curious about how his physical power was trained, I can't keep him in the world."

Casey didn't know what Theodore was muttering. He frowned and looked at him, and said, "You can let your man help you. Even if you two get together, I will beat you up."

"It's not necessary yet. No matter how strong your physical strength is, there is an upper limit. Next, I will kill you."

Theodore said, and then his breathing method immediately changed, and his aura suddenly changed, and Casey felt a crisis in an instant.

Immediately afterwards, Casey saw Theodore's figure transform into an afterimage. Almost in the blink of an eye, he had rushed to him.

Casey's pupils shrank sharply, and he quickly raised his hand to block Theodore's fist, but at this time

Theodore's fist had already hit Casey's chest.

A force that made Casey unimaginable exploded, and went straight to Casey's chest. The next second, Casey's body flew upside down and rolled on the ground several times before stopping. Casey gritted his teeth and got up from the ground, looking at Theodore in disbelief. At that moment, Casey felt the threat of death. If it weren't for his strong physique, Theodore's punch just now might have killed him.

"Why is your strength completely different from just now? There was a strange force in your fist, extremely tough. What kind of power is that?"

Casey asked with pain.

Theodore smiled and shook his fist, and said, "Before that I was just playing around with you. Now, what I show is my real strength."

"As for the power I just used, you are a dying person, what use is it to know?"

After speaking, Theodore walked towards Casey.

Casey gave birth to a sense of powerlessness for the first time. The strength that Theodore showed just now was completely beyond his imagination. The strength he has always been proud of is so vulnerable in front of Theodore, which made him feel a strong sense of frustration.

"It's not that easy to kill me!"

Casey roared and rushed towards Theodore again, trying to get a chance. A playful smile appeared on the corner of Theodore's mouth, and the moment Casey rushed over, he had already moved.

With a bang.

Theodore's fist hit Casey's stomach, and Casey spurted out a mouthful of blood, softened directly in front of Theodore, and was about to fall to the ground.

Theodore grabbed Casey's collar like a dead fish, his eyes full of contempt.

"Trash is always just a trash. Your grandfather is a trash. You, as his a grandson, are the same as him. It's no wonder that your grandfather would be kicked out of the Turner family. If you are still in the Turner family, I'm afraid the whole Turner family will be dragged down by you." Theodore sneered.

"Fuck your mother!" Casey gritted his teeth, feeling weak.

Theodore snorted and said, "Now I give you a chance. Kneel down and admit that your grandfather is a trash and you are an incompetent person who is not as good as a dog. I will kill you directly. Otherwise, I will let you die in pain."

Casey's eyes flushed. He stared at Theodore, and then used his last strength, shouting every word,

"No way!"

Chapter 622 What Can I Do If You Die

Theodore looked at Casey with a sneer, an evil arc formed at the corner of his mouth, and he said, "This is what you asked for, so don't blame me for being impolite!"

After speaking, Theodore punched Casey's chest again, and a huge burst of power broke out, and Casey vomited another mouthful of blood, his face turned pale a little.

"What?" Theodore looked at Casey a little strangely, and gave an exclamation of surprise.

"Ordinary people would have broken their bones a long time ago with such a punch from me. Now you've taken two punches from me, and there's nothing wrong with your bones. It seems that your body is quite unusual," Theodore murmured.

Casey looked at Theodore with erratic look, and didn't care what he said. He was already dizzy and unconscious.

"If you are favored by my teacher, and get a little guidance from him, it won't take many years before you become a Grandmaster in C Country. Even I envy your potential."

"Unfortunately, you won't survive today, no matter how good your potential is, it's meaningless."

After speaking, Theodore raised his hand again, intending to break Casey's arm first to make him feel the pain.

At this moment, several men quickly rushed behind Theodore, still holding a dagger in their hands, piercing Theodore's vitals.

Theodore narrowed his eyes, and his raised hand instantly changed its direction, slapped the face of the man who was in front of him, and made him seven or eight meters away.

The person from the Turner family who had been standing by the side also noticed the changes on the cliff, and immediately said, "Mr. Theodore, there seem to be dozens of men rushing towards us, the origin of which is unknown."

Theodore held Casey's collar in one hand, and quickly solved the few people who rushed in front of him, and snorted coldly, "A bunch of mobs. Now that they come here for death, then I will satisfy their hunger for death."

With that said, he threw Casey directly on the ground, intending to deal with the people who appeared suddenly, and then torture Casey.

In the blink of an eye, dozens of men surrounded Theodore, and the person from the Turner family also fought a few men.

Theodore deal with the dozens of people who suddenly appeared without difficulty. Basically, he could beat one person with one movement. After a while, nearly half of them fell.

At this moment, there was a roar of the motorcycle engine, and a beautiful woman riding on the motorcycle appeared here. It was Annabel.

The dozens of men that suddenly appeared were the masters of the Thompson family that she brought when she came to Moon Island.

At that time, Annabel wanted to follow Casey's request to find Edith and take Edith away, but she worried about Casey. Out of selfishness, Annabel ordered a member of her family to find Edith, and she stayed and arranged the family by her side gathered together. Although Casey might blame her for doing so, she couldn't watch Casey take the risk alone, and she didn't want to see Casey have an accident compared to Casey blaming her.

Seeing Theodore fighting with dozens of men and the masters who fell on the ground, Annabel was shocked. The people arranged by the family for her were all first-class masters. These people looked so weak in front of Theodore. He made them fall to the ground with a punch. How strong was this man from the Turner family?

Soon, Annabel found Casey who was dying on the ground, frowned slightly, and quickly rushed over on a motorcycle.

There was a hint of luck in her heart. Fortunately, she didn't leave directly, otherwise Casey would really die today. Riding a motorcycle to the side of Casey, Annabel quickly pulled Casey up, let him sit behind her, and then left here quickly.

"You... why are you back?" Casey asked Annabel, holding on to his last trace of consciousness.

"You are stupid, if I don't come, you will die today. If you die, what should I do?" Annabel seemed to be wronged, and tears flashed in her eyes.

Casey's chest was suffocated at this time. He felt extremely uncomfortable, but after hearing Annabel's words, he couldn't help but laugh.

Shouldn't it be Edith's line? Why could she say it so naturally, as if the two of them have been together for a long time.

Annabel didn't talk nonsense with Casey anymore, and was about to leave here on a motorcycle. At this time, Theodore had already noticed the situation here. After seeing Annabel trying to save Casey, he snorted. Then he moved quickly and rushed to them.

Theodore's speed was very fast. Before Annabel's motorcycle sped up, Theodore was already in front of them. "I only wanted to kill him today. Mind your own friggig business! Otherwise, I will kill you as well." Theodore snorted coldly.

"Hurry up and get out of the way, or I will run into you and you life will die," Annabel frowned and said.

Theodore laughed, glanced at the motorcycle Annabel was riding, and said, "With it? You can try."

Annabel was anxious. This guy could almost kill Casey who had succeeded in climb the ladder, which was enough to show his strength. As a lady of the Thompson family, Annabel knew that there were some people in the world who were so powerful that even science couldn't tell the reason. Theodore was probably one of them.

She hesitated for a moment, then gritted her teeth, squeezed the accelerator, and a roar sounded. Then, the motorcycle turned its head and ran to the other side.

Seeing Annabel run away, Theodore curled his lips and quickly chased her.

"Why is this person so perverted, he can catch up with me on a motorcycle."

Annabel glanced back, frowning her eyebrows.

Seeing that there was no road ahead, and the steep cliff on the other side, Annabel felt desperate.

At this time Theodore increased his speed, then he jumped up, and a flying kick came towards Casey's back.

Upon seeing this, Annabel turned quickly, trying to hide.

Theodore kicked on the rear of the motorcycle. The tremendous force made the motorcycle lose its balance and rushed out to the side.

Annabel suddenly screamed because Theodore's kick just made the motorcycle rush toward the cliff.

It was too late, and the whole process just took a second or two. When Annabel reacted, the motorcycle had already jumped out of the cliff and fell into the rough sea below.

Chapter 623 Down the Cliff

On the cliff, dozens of men fell to the ground, and there was no movement. Theodore stood in front of the last person who could still breathe, looking cold.

"You killed our young lady, the Thompson family will definitely not let you go!" The man gritted his teeth and shouted at Theodore.

"The Thompson family, the one in the R Country?" Theodore said lightly.

"Since you know it, then take the initiative to go to the Thompson family to confess your guilt, otherwise you will not end well," the man continued speaking.

Theodore laughed and asked, "Do you know who I am?"

The man was taken aback for a moment, and suddenly felt that Theodore was hitting the point. He really didn't know who the man in front of him was, and he was far from R Country. As long as Theodore used some methods, on one could find out what happened here.

"Actually, it doesn't matter to tell you. I'm Theodore from the Turner family,"

Theodore spoke slowly.

The man's eyes widened. As the world's top family, he naturally heard the name of the Turner family.

"It's just that you may not be able to send the news back."

After speaking, Theodore raised his foot and stepped on the man's neck. With force, the man struggled twice, and then there was no movement.

After killing the last person, Theodore walked to the edge of the cliff and glanced under the pitch-black cliff, where there was the sound of waves hitting the rocks.

Even he himself did not expect that such a change would happen, and the young lady from the Thompson family rushed down the cliff with Casey.

The person from the Turner family walked behind Theodore and said, "Mr.
Theodore, the strength of the Thompson family should not be underestimated.
Although the people here have been killed, it is not certain whether there are some people that have slipped away. If this thing spreads out, the Turner may become the Thompson family's enemy."

"It's okay. It's is Moon Island. It's not easy to find out. What's more, it's just the Thompson family. In the past, the Turner family might scruple their existence, but it won't happen in the future. I, Theodore, will let the Turner family step on a new level!"

Theodore was domineering, and there was an unrivaled aura all over his body.
The man from the Turner family was also shocked by Theodore's momentum, and he immediately said, "You are right!"

"Is it possible for the two of them to survive if they fall from here?" Theodore asked.

The man glanced under the cliff and said, "It's a hundred meters high from here to the bottom, and there is endless sea water below. The place where they can climb to the shore is also a few kilometers away. Casey was hurt badly by you, and the other one was a weak woman. If they really survived, it would be a miracle. I don't think that wimp is so favored by God."

Theodore laughed, then turned and walked under the cliff.

"Just deal with it here. Casey is dead. Let the news go. Even if we don't do anything, the enemies of the Davies family will definitely not let them go."
"Yes!"

...

At Gardner's house.

Fisher and Anika were busy working in the kitchen. Gardner was also on the sidelines. Edith stood aside and wanted to go up and help, but was stopped by Fisher and Anika.

"Fisher, Anika, let me help you, or else I will be idle and have nothing to do," Edith said.

"No need, you are delicate, just let Gardner do this kind of thing. You go sit and wait, we'll be done soon," Anika said with a smile.

Edith could only walk to the table and sat down, and took a look at the time by the way, thinking that Casey had been out for so long, and logically he should have dealt with the trouble. Why hadn't he returned yet?

Thinking about asking where Casey was now, Edith took out her phone and called Casey.

"The phone you dialed is turned off." A cold voice came from the phone.

Edith frowned immediately, and muttered, "Why does this guy turn off the phone? Is it possible that he is afraid that I will disturb him?"

But she didn't think too much, put her phone aside, and continued to wait.

After a short while, Fisher and Anika cooked all the dishes and brought them to the table. A large table was full of delicious food. All of them were Fisher and Anika's best dishes. Just a glance could arouse people's infinite appetite.

"Edith, it is because you and Casey are here that my parents are willing to cook so many dishes. If I were at home, I would only have to eat pickles." Gardner put down the last dish and joked.

Fisher and Anika glared at him immediately. Anika said, "Are we starving you? If you have an opinion, don't eat this meal today."

Gardner hurriedly begged for mercy and sat down at the dining table.

"What did Casey do, why hasn't he come back?" Anika glanced at Edith and asked.

"He has something to deal with. I called him just now, but his phone is turned off. It may be dead. He should be back in a while," Edith said.

Anika nodded and said with a smile, "It's okay, don't worry, just wait for Casey."

Edith snorted, but there was a sense of uneasiness in her heart. It was the first time that Casey's phone was turned off in such a long time. Casey didn't play with his phone very much. Normally, there was no problem in standby for one day. It was reasonable to say that it would not run out of power. And Casey also told Edith that in order for her to contact him at any time, he would keep his phone turned on for 24 hours.

Could it be that those in the Chan family were too difficult to deal with, even Casey couldn't handle it?

Edith groaned for a while, then picked up her phone and called Casey.

It was still off.

Edith thought for a while, then dialed Annabel's number.

Her phone was also turned off..

Edith suddenly became a little anxious, and several thoughts appeared in her mind.

"Fisher, Anika, maybe you guys eat first, I will look for Casey outside and ask him to come back quickly."

Edith stood up and walked outside.

At this moment, a man appeared in the house. After seeing Edith, he asked,

"Are you Edith?"

Edith looked at the strange man in front of her with some confusion, then nodded, "Yes, what's the matter?"

"Please pack your things right now and leave here with me. I have already found the boat. Except for your valuables, don't take the rest. The most important thing is to leave here first," the man said.

Edith immediately felt a sense of alertness, and Fisher and his family of three were also a little puzzled, not knowing what the person who appeared suddenly wanted to do.

"I don't know you at all, why should I go with you?"

The man sighed helplessly, then took out a necklace and said, "I came to pick you up at Miss Annabel's order. She said that you will understand if you see this."

Edith stared at the necklace and her pupils shrank. It was Annabel's necklace.

"What the hell is going on, you make it clear first," Edith asked.

"After our lady and Mr. Casey finished dealing with the Chan family's affairs, they ran into two people who claimed to be from the Turner family on the way back. One of the two people was superb. Our companions were killed by him. Miss Annabel and Mr. Casey rushed down the cliff on their motorcycles, hovering between life and death," the man explained with some pain.

When Edith heard what he said, she only felt pain, her body softened, and she fainted.

Chapter 624 Tenacity

In J City.

CZ Community, Edith's house, in the living room.

The atmosphere was a little serious. Nicholas and Jennifer sat on the sofa and said nothing.

Conor, Charles, Morgan and the others all stood on the side with gloomy faces, silent.

Lily curled up on the chair next to her, she was already crying. There were two clear tear streaks on her face, and her beautiful big eyes were already swollen from crying.

"Let's not be so pessimistic for the time being. That person said that Casey and their young lady rushed down the cliff and were not killed directly. Now no one knows whether they are alive or dead. Casey has always been blessed, may he is alive."

Conor saw that the atmosphere in the living room was so dignified that he was about to suffocate, and he said something first.

"Casey will never die. He hasn't watched me chase his son, how could he die like this?" Lily shouted hoarsely.

Although her words sounded like a joke, no one could laugh at this moment.

At this moment Edith was lying on the bed in the bedroom, her face was pale, her eyes were staring straight at the ceiling, and she was thinking of scene after scene that happened to her in the past with Casey.

The bed sheet on her head had been soaked with tears, but Edith was lying motionless here as if she had lost consciousness, like a dead body.

It had been two days since she returned from Moon Island. That night, the man from the the Thompson family found Edith and explained the reason. After Edith fainted, she was sent back to J City by boat overnight.

On the way back, the person from the Thompson family had already sent a letter to the Thompson family, asking them to come to the Moon Island to search for Casey and Annabel.

However, the whereabouts of the two people are still unknown.

After Edith returned to J City, the first thing she did when she woke up was to ask Charles and Conor to send someone to Moon Island and do the same thing as the Thompson family. However, the cliff where Casey and Annabel fell down stretched for several kilometers. Under the cliff was the deep sea, and there was no diving beach for people to stop. The people from Conor and the Thompson family searched for two days and two nights, but didn't find any clue.

In the deep sea, there were countless kinds of fishes, among which there were fishes that eat carrion. The local fishermen judged that the Casey and Annabel had probably been eaten by the big fishes, so they couldn't find any clues.

There were also some people who fell off a cliff on the island. Anyone that fell from a cliff had never been successfully retrieved once.

This news was undoubtedly devastating for Edith and all those connected with Casey. Most people had to accept this fact, but only a few people were unwilling to believe it and firmly believed that Casey was still alive.

The news was still being blocked. On the surface of J City, it was still calm, and many people would still talk about Casey's deeds when chatting.

After a long time, Edith sat up from the bed and wiped her tears with her hands. If it was before, she might just let herself cry and forget everything and immersed in sadness, but now she was pregnant, she must consider the child in her belly. And Edith also firmly believed that Casey couldn't die so easily. He had promised her that he would protect her forever.

So now she must cheer up. Casey's disappearance must not be kept for long, and most people would not think that Casey was just missing like her. If the outside world confirmed that Casey was dead, whether it was for the Davies family or TY Group and all corporate forces that had a relationship with Casey would face an immeasurable disaster.

These were Casey's lands. Now Casey was not there. As his wife, Edith was obliged to fight for Casey. At the very least, she couldn't let the Davies family fall.

And blindly sadness would only make her body worse, for her and Casey's child, she couldn't continue to immerse herself in the sadness willfully.

Edith stood up, took a deep breath, reached out to touch her stomach, and walked out of the room.

The door opened, and everyone's eyes fell on Edith.

Between Edith's eyebrows, there was more tenacity and inexplicable persistence than usual.

"From today, I will be responsible for all the affairs of the Davies family until Casey returns safely!"

...

Guanling, Huxin Island.

Terence was sitting at his desk, working with a thick stack of documents.

At this time, a person rushed in from the outside in a hurry and knelt directly in front of Terence on one knee.

"What's the matter? Why are you panicked?" Terence raised his head and glanced at the man.

"My lord, I just got the news, Lord Casey... Lord Casey was attacked on Moon Island and fell from a hundred-meter cliff. His life is still uncertain and his whereabouts are unknown. And missing with Lord Casey is the young lady from Thompson family. The clues from the investigation infer that this incident is likely to be the work of Theodore, the eldest master of the Turner family who learned from Grandmaster Myles," the person said with a trembling voice.

After Terence heard the man's words, he slapped a palm on the table, and the table shattered in an instant, and documents were flying all over the room.

"What are you talking about! My son is missing?" Terence's ferocity suddenly erupted, and the man was so frightened that he fell on his knees with both legs.

"Yes..., and based on the height of the cliff, Lord Casey may already..."

Before he finished speaking, Terence had already punched the wall, and a big hole appeared on the wall immediately, and the cracks spread around it like a spider web.

"Theodore! Damn, what a Theodore, if something terrible really happens to my son this time, even at the risk of offending Grandmaster, I will kill you myself!

However, thinking that he could not leave Guanling, Terence felt a sense of powerlessness in his heart.

In recent years, in terms of business, Guanling had surpassed most of the top families. For families like the Cunningham family, it was a piece of cake to destroy them. The Turner family was at most one level better than the Cunningham family. But for so many years, Terence had not destroyed the Turner family.

There were two reasons for this, one was that Terence could not leave Guanling, and the other was that there was a Grandmaster behind the Turner family.

The power of a Grandmaster had exceeded people's inherent imagination. A Grandmaster could contend with an army. The Grandmaster could kill anyone they want. Angering a Grandmaster, even with the most powerful commercial power, the Grandmaster could kill your entire family.

And unless with the help of a Grandmaster of the same strength, no one could catch a powerful Grandmaster, let alone use the law to sanction it.

To reach this state was already beyond the shackles of secular society.

"Mobilize all the forces deployed by Guanling, look for the whereabouts of my son at all costs, and secretly infiltrate all the commercial forces of the Turner family. If my son is really gone, I will never let go of the people from the Turner family."

"In addition, allocate a part of the strength to go to J City to protect my son's wife. She is pregnant. I don't want the child in her stomach to be hurt again."

After a long time, Terence ordered.

"Yes!"

...

M Country, in a villa.

Sitting in front of an old man, Theodore slowly said, "Casey fell from a 100-meter cliff. Under the cliff is the deep sea. There is absolutely no possibility of survival. I have completed the task you gave me."

The old man laughed immediately and said, "You deserve to be my most proud grandson. Casey is dead. Has the Davies family ever been removed?"

"The rest are just mobs. I don't have the energy to play with them. If you want to get rid of it, send someone by yourself."

Theodore's tone was ordinary, and he didn't have the slightest respect for the old man in front of him.

"By the way, call the principals of the four major families, it's time for the Turner family to take another step."

Chapter 625 Surviving A Great

Disaster

Q City.

In a house close to the dock.

Casey was lying on a bed. His face was pale, there was no bloody color, and his lips had been cracked and trembling from time to time. If it hadn't been for this slight change, no matter who looked at it, he would think that there was a dead person lying here.

At this time, a girl of about eighteen years old in the room was staring at Casey curiously, her gazes swept over Casey's face, looking a little bored. After a while, Casey's lips moved, and there were dry noises in his throat.

"Water...water..."

When the girl heard this sound, her eyes widened, then she quickly got up and shouted to the outside, "Annabel, he seems to be awake, he is talking!"

Annabel, dressed in plain clothes, quickly rushed into the room. She leaned close to Casey and lowered her heads. After hearing what Casey said, she quickly said to the girl, "Water, he wants to drink water, get water."

The girl nodded quickly, ran outside to pick up a glass of water, and handed it to Annabel.

Annabel held the water to Casey's mouth, and feed him a little. Casey immediately coughed violently, making Annabel a little at a loss.

"Annabel, if you feed water like this, you will choke him to death. The doctor said that his five internal organs have been severely damaged, and this violent cough will aggravate his injury," the girl said.

Annabel suddenly became anxious and asked, "Christine, how should I do? I have never done anything like this before."

The girl named Christine blinked her eyes and a smirk appeared on her face. She said, "He is lying down now. It must be impossible to feed him water directly. He is also badly injured. He has to drink slowly. I know a way which is gentle and effective, that is..."

"Tell me quickly, I am so anxious," Annabel said anxiously.

"Hey, it's actually very simple, you can just feed him mouth-to-mouth, but it may be a little unsuitable for children," Christine said with a smile.

Annabel's face immediately showed a blush, but this was indeed a good way.
She stared at Casey and saw that Casey was full of pain and still shouting to drink water, she took a deep breath, and said to herself, "I'm here to feed you water, I don't want to take advantage of you at all. Well, that's it."

After speaking, she looked at Christine and said, "What are you still watching

Christine stuck out her tongue at Annabel, and then walked out of the room wittily.

Annabel took a sip of water, stared at Casey's lips, then leaned down and started to feed Casey.

Probably because he was too thirsty, Casey sucked greedily as soon as he touched the water.

Annabel's eyes widened, her cheeks flushed a little bit.

In this way, Annabel fed a glass of water into Casey's mouth bit by bit. When the cup was finally put down, Annabel could hear her pounding heartbeat.

After feeding the water for a while,
Casey's eyes moved. After struggling hard for a while, Casey's eyelids finally lifted.

Casey squinted and looked around. The first picture that caught his eyes was Annabel, who was blushing and patted her chest to calm herself down.

Then Casey found himself lying in a fairly clean, but somewhat crude room. The memory in his mind emerged. He remembered that before he lost consciousness, he was beaten to death by Theodore. Then Annabel brought someone to rescue him. Theodore chased them. Annabel directly let the motorcycle rush out of the cliff and fell into the sea.

He didn't remember what happened after that.

"What's the matter with you? Why are you blushing? Where are we?" Casey stared at Annabel and asked.

Annabel directly ignored Casey's first two questions and said, "We are at Herman's house. He rescued us. They said here is Q City. I don't know exactly where it is."

Casey searched for the memory of Q City in his mind. He found that he didn't have any impression of this city. He only vaguely remembered that it is a relatively remote and small coastal city in the south. Because the city was not large, it was not well-known.

He wanted to sit up on the bed, and after using a bit of force, a heart-like pain came from his chest, making him unable to use the upper half of his strength.

"Don't move, your internal organs have been seriously injured, and you can only lie down now," Annabel said with some concern.

"How long have I been in a coma?"

Casey asked.

"Five days," Annabel replied.

Expression on Casey's face suddenly changed. According to the situation at the time, he fell into the sea for five days without being found, so others might think that he was dead.

He knew that Edith must be desperate now, so he wanted to call Edith immediately and report his safety, but he couldn't move at all.

Soon, he calmed down. Five days had passed anyway, and it didn't matter to call her later.

Annabel saw the thoughts in Casey's heart and said jealously, "Are you trying to contact Edith? Your phone has been scrapped. If you still remember her number, I can go to Herman to borrow his phone."

She originally thought that Casey would be grateful for being saved by her when he woke up, but she didn't expect that the first thing Casey thought of was still Edith, and she was naturally a little bit disappointed in her heart.

"No, it's okay to call her later. How did we get here? The cliff is so high, and the chances of survival should be very low after falling from there." Casey saw that Annabel was jealous, so he changed the subject.

"Thanks to the motorcycle I was riding at that time. I borrowed that motorcycle from a nearby person at the time. That person was going to the dock to deliver life jackets. Those life jackets were tied to the back of the motorcycle. After we fell into the sea, I took a lot of effort to help you put on a life jacket. At that time, I almost sank into the sea. Later, thinking that if I died, you would definitely not be able to live. God knows where I got the strength, I put on my life jacket too."

"There was an undercurrent in the water, and we were flushed away. I was afraid of being separated from you, so I held on to you. Later, I fainted because I was too tired. When I woke up, I found that we were on a fishing boat, Herman's fishing boat. He said that the two of us were next to each other, my hand was holding you, no matter what, he couldn't get it off. It was the first time he saw someone in a coma and still had so much strength. "

"We are so lucky. The undercurrent did not rush us to the stretch of the sea, but into a piece of water between Moon Island and the inland. At that time, Herman went out to sea to fish, and found us."

"Thinking about it is indeed a bit magical. It looks like a certain death situation, but we were lucky to survive. It may be that God was moved by me, that's why there was such a miracle. ". "

Annabel said, also full of emotion.

Casey listened quietly to Annabel.

Although her voice was calm, the danger at the time was definitely unimaginable. She, a girl, could actually catch him in that situation. It really needed extraordinary willpower.

Could it be that this girl really liked him to such an extent?

Casey was extremely grateful for Annabel for saving his life, but the girl's feelings for him made Casey a little at a loss.

The more Annabel paid for him, the more guilt in Casey's heart, because he knew what Annabel wanted, but he couldn't give it to her.

For a long time, Casey said affectionately to Annabel, "Thank you." Annabel lowered her head, a contented smile appeared on her face.

She didn't know why. She had always been spoiled and could get anything she wanted, but she was so easily to be satisfied in front of Casey.

Obviously she was still jealous at that time, but now because of Casey's simple thank you, she felt happy at bottom of her heart.

When they were immersed in a somewhat ambiguous atmosphere, Christine's voice rang, "Annabel, have you finished feeding the water? I have invited the doctor here."

Casey was suddenly puzzled. He glanced at Annabel, remembering that he was very thirsty at the time, and then felt a touch of softness to relieve his thirst.

"How did you feed me water at that time?"

Casey licked his tongue and felt a sweet smell.

Chapter 626 I Have Decided You to Be My Husband

Annabel suddenly felt guilty, coughed slightly, ignored Casey's question, turned and looked towards the door.

"Christine, bring the doctor in, he is already awake," Annabel said.

Seeing Annabel like this, Casey felt more and more that her way to feed him water was not simple, but his consciousness was too vague at that time, and he could only vaguely remember a soft touch, nothing else. At this time, Christine came in with an older man. Seeing Casey woke up, Christine immediately took a look, and then said with some disappointment, "Annabel, he looks so ordinary, you are beautiful like a fairy. Why would you like him?"

Annabel glared at Christine and said, "Of course you don't understand it as a kid."

Then she looked at Casey and said, "This is Christine, the daughter of Herman who rescued us. She has also helped take care of you a lot these days."

Casey didn't take Christine's words to heart, but gave her a grateful look and said, "Thank you."

"It's not me that you should thank, it should be Annabel. You don't know. In the past few days when you were in a coma, Annabel only slept for three hours a day, and stayed with you the rest of the time, helping you put on a drip, change your clothes, wipe your face, and wipe your body. When you make a strange cry in pain, Annabel kept touching your forehead until you calm down. When dad brought you back, Annabel's hands were pretty. At first glance, she is a rich lady, but she has done so many things for you without hesitation, and her hands have been broken several times. You should thank her and treat her well in the future," Christine said, staring at Casey.

"Oh, Christine, why do you say about this?" Annabel looked at Christine with some reproach.

Christine made a grimace at Annabel and said, "I'm not afraid that he doesn't know how kind you are. If my dad is lying on the bed, my mom will definitely not be able to do the same things as you."

Casey glanced at Annabel with complicated gaze. Unexpectedly, in the past few days when he was unconscious, Annabel would have done so much for him. An inexplicable feeling that was beyond words arose in Casey's heart.

Annabel avoided Casey's gaze directly, looked at the doctor Christine brought back, and said, "Hurry up and let the doctor check him. He can't get up because of the pain. If it's serious, I'll try to take him to the hospital in the big city for treatment."

Christine nodded, and then asked the doctor to diagnose Casey.

The doctor took out the stethoscope and some diagnostic tools, sat on the side of the bed, and took Casey's pulse.

After check, the doctor's brow furrowed deeper and deeper, and the look at Casey became more and more strange.

When Annabel, who was so happy because Casey woke up, saw the doctor's expression, she also had an uneasy premonition in her heart.

The atmosphere in the room suddenly became dignified, except for breathing and doctor's movements, no one made any noise.

Finally, the doctor put down the tools in his hand, took a look at Casey, and said, "I have been working as a doctor for so many years. This is the first time I have seen such a severely injured person who is still alive. If I am not mistaken, your chest must have been hit by a heavy object several times your body weight. If you were an ordinary person, you should have died under this kind of impact."

"I checked your bones just now. They are much harder than those of ordinary people. Maybe this is why you are still alive."

"It's just that your internal organs have suffered very serious damage, which are worn out. Even the most advanced equipment may not be able to cure you. I guess you have at most one to two months of life. "

"Do something you like to do in these two months, I have no way to help you." When the doctor finished speaking, he got up from his chair.

Annabel listened to the doctor's words, tears filled her eyes suddenly, she stood in front of the doctor a little anxiously, and said, "Doctor, are you wrong? Isn't he well? How can he only have two months left? Please check him carefully. He can't die so easily."

The doctor shook his head and said, "His injury is so serious. Even if I am dim-eyed, I can't misdiagnose. Whether it's a Chinese or Western medicine, its conclusion will be the same as me."

Annabel's tears slipped from her face in an instant, "This is impossible! You must be mistaken."

"Annabel, this doctor is the most famous Chinese medicine doctor in Q City. His diagnosis and treatment level is better than those of the attending doctors in the hospital. He should not be mistaken. Don't be too sad," Christine looked at Annabel sympathetically.

The doctor also sighed helplessly, then turned and walked out of the room.

Casey also didn't expect that the doctor's diagnosis result for him turned out to be only one to two months of life left, which was undoubtedly a thundering news for him.

But he was not as flurried as Annabel, even in the face of death, Casey remained calm.

Christine stared at Casey and Annabel and said, "Well, I'm going out first, Annabel, don't get too fevered, the doctor's words are not absolute, maybe we can find other ways."

After speaking, Christine left the room and closed the door by the way.

Annabel's tears couldn't stop streaming. She stared at Casey for a while and saw Casey staring at the ceiling dumbly.

Then she stood up, wiped her eyes, and walked out of the room.

After a while, Annabel walked back from the outside, holding a phone in her hand, and sitting next to Casey.

"I know you must be thinking about Edith now, do you want to call her, tell me the phone number, and I will call for you," Annabel said and choked up.

Casey was indeed looking back at his past life at this time, and he did not expect that although he survived, he only had the last two months left.

He saw Annabel coming over with phone, and he really wanted to call Edith.

But he only had two-month life, and now

Edith probably thought he was dead. If he called, Edith might be happy, but two months later, it would be a bigger blow to her.

Casey was already like this. He didn't want to irritate Edith who was pregnant, so he shook his head and said, "No. Since this is already the case, why should I give her any hope. "

"You bastard, do you want to give up? I don't agree! You can't die before I let you like me!" Annabel suddenly yelled, shocking Casey. Well

Casey laughed and said, "I'm dying. You don't need to chase me anymore."

"Well, don't want to use this excuse to get rid of me, tell you, even if you will die in two months, I will make you like me in these two months," Annabel said while crying.

Casey smiled and shook his head. At this time, he didn't plan to care about Annabel anymore. Annabel saved his life. Before leaving, it would be better to satisfy her, as repaying Annabel's kindness.

"Okay, if you can make me like you, then I'll try my best to live a few more years." Casey smiled.

Annabel glanced at Casey angrily and said, "Don't underestimate my charm, I have decided you to be my husband in this life, even if you are going to die, I will bury my name in your heart!"

Chapter 627 I Can Save You

In the next few days, Annabel found several different doctors to diagnose and treat Casey, and the results were exactly as the doctor said. They were all amazed that Casey was still alive after suffering such a serious injury. It came to the conclusion that Casey had little time to live. The only difference was that whether Casey could live one month more or one month less.

For this result, Casey accepted it frankly, as if a person knew that he was going to die, he didn't think so much about life and death.

Annabel did not continue to show any sadness in front of Casey. Even the doctors were very sure that Casey would die soon, and Annabel still faced Casey with a smile every day.

Casey knew that Annabel didn't want him to be affected by the sad atmosphere. For several nights, he could hear a slight sob when he couldn't fall asleep and lay in the bed with his eyes closed.

Casey also admired Annabel's persistence. Since she said those words that day, Annabel began to take care of Casey meticulously, and while taking care of him, she was able to show Casey the best of herself. It fully embodied the charm and self-restraint of a lady from a top family.

Several times, Casey was wavered, thinking that if he had a wife like her, he might really have a different life.

But it's just a trance. If Annabel could meet Casey before Casey knew Edith, maybe Casey would be fascinated by her, but now Casey already had Edith in his heart, even if Annabel was better, he couldn't fall in love with her.

A week passed in a flash, Herman and his family provided help to Casey as much as they could. It may be that they knew that Casey was already a dying person, so they would be more patient. To everyone's surprise, after a week of recuperation, Casey, who could only lie on the bed, could barely sit up. This change was still very surprising. Annabel thought that this was a sign of Casey's body gradually recovering. Since the doctors thought that Casey should have died from this kind of injury, and he was still alive, this was a miracle in itself, so Casey may could live longer than two months. Seeing Casey's improvement, Annabel's mood improved a lot. She got a wheelchair. After Casey could sit up, she pushed him to take a walk on the pier to enjoy the sunshine every day. This afternoon, it was warm and the breeze was gentle. Annabel pushed Casey to the dock again. "Casey, you are a bastard." Annabel stopped abruptly on a small road by the sea and said to Casey. Casey was taken aback and asked, "What do you say?" "When I came out at that time, people praised me for my beauty and said I was you wife, why did you tell them that I was your sister," Annabel said with a gloomy look. No "You're two months younger than me. It's okay to say that you are my sister, right?" Casey said. "No, I am not going to be your sister. During this period of time, the neighbors around Herman think that I am your wife. I have never denied it. You made embarrassed by saying so. Anyway, from now on, I am your wife, you have to admit it," Annabel said angrily.

Casey was helpless, and said, "Hey, please let go of me. I have a wife."

"You are already a dying person, the past is meaningless, and the one who accompanies you in the end is me.

Anyway, I must have a status, if you don't admit that I am your wife today, I will push you down from here." Annabel pushed the wheelchair to the side of the guardrail.

"Then you push me down, so that I can relief from pain as soon as possible."

Casey smiled.

Annabel stomped her feet angrily, this damned guy just knew her softhearted.

"Then you stay here by yourself, no one will help you. What can you do?"

Annabel turned around and left. She looked like she didn't want to care Casey, but as soon as she walked ten meters out, she turned back again.

"What's wrong with me? As the noble lady from the Thompson family, I am bullied by you. If my parents know it, they would feel distressed," Annabel said.

Casey didn't respond to her. Annabel was a little strange. She glanced at Casey and found that Casey was staring at a slightly rickety man at the end of the road.

It was an old man with a hat. The old man was standing in front of a fishing rod with a bamboo basket beside him. There were many people like him by the river.

But on the side of the road, there was an endless sea with roaring waves, even if there were fish, it was impossible to catch them, so it was a little strange that such a man appeared here.

"Push me over there, the old man seems a little special," Casey said.

Annabel nodded and pushed Casey to the old man's side.

"Sir, the waves are surging here, and fish will be flushed away. If you are fishing here, I'm afraid you will get nothing" Casey smiled.

The old man turned his head and glanced at Casey and Annabel, and said, "What I catch is not a fish, but a state of mind, just like the girl next to you. She knows that she can't get your love, but still stayed by your side. She knows it is futile, but she did not give up. Sometimes doing things based on the results will lose a lot of fun."

Annabel didn't expect the relationship between her and Casey to be seen clearly, and suddenly blushed.

Casey was thoughtful, thinking that the old man's words were quite meaningful.

"That do you get anything?" Casey asked.

The old man smiled and said, "I didn't have it before you came, but now..."

As he said, the old man grabbed the fishing rod, and a half-foot-long fish came out of the water. The old man put away the rod and put the fish into the bamboo basket.

"Wow, that's amazing," Annabel exclaimed.

Casey frowned, he always felt that the old man was suggesting something to him.

After collecting the fish, the old man stood up and looked at Casey. Only then did Casey see his appearance clearly. He was a more amiable old man with no characteristics.

"Young man, I have been observing you for a few days. You and your wife should be foreigners, right?" the old man said.

Annabel immediately smiled and nodded. Just as Casey was about to explain that Annabel was not his wife, Annabel glared at him.

"Sir, you are fishing here to wait for me, right?" Casey asked with some confusion.

"The doctor who visited you is a friend of mine. He told me about your situation. I was a little curious, so I observed you for a few days," the old man said without concealment.

"Oh? Why do you want to observe me? I am a dying person, how can I arouse the your interest?" Casey asked with some caution.

The old man smiled and said, "Dying person? Before things happen, it's best not to rush to a conclusion."

"I came to you because I can save your life."

Chapter 628 A Promise

Hearing what the senior citizen said, both Casey and Annabel were shocked. Annabel asked with some excitement, "Are you serious? Can you really save Casey?"

The senior citizen said with a smile, "It's highly possible that I can save him, but it finally depends on the condition he is in now."

"Check him now, please. If you can save him, I'm willing to do anything for you." Annabel was so excited that she nearly burst into tears.

However, Casey was staring at the senior citizen with some hesitation. He didn't believe that there would be pennies from the heaven. What he didn't believe more was that such a capable person would come to save him for no reason.

"If I'm not wrong, it's conditional for you to save me, right?" Casey asked.

The senior smiled and said, "Yes, there is no such thing as a free lunch. People have to pay a corresponding price for anything they want."

"What do you want from me?" Casey asked.

"Don't be anxious. I'll check you first. We can talk about the condition after I'm sure that I can save you."

As he said, he approached Casey and touched some of Casey's bones and acupuncture points.

Casey didn't resist. He would die soon, so he was naturally not afraid that the senior citizen would take the opportunity to do something to him.

As he touched Casey's bones and acupuncture points, the senior citizen smiled more and more brightly and murmured to himself, "You've extremely good physique and smooth meridians. Genius. You're a once-in-a-century genius. It never occurs to me that I can meet such a genius at my old age. No wonder you can survive such a serious injury."

Casey was not too surprised to hear what he said. When he met his teacher, he had heard the same thing from his teacher.

Casey didn't know who this senior citizen was. But he was sure that he was really afraid of this senior citizen. Even Theodore just made him feel a little threatened. Apart from this senior citizen, only his master had made him feel afraid.

"Your injury can still be cured.

Coincidentally, I have three pills that can even bring the dying back to life. They will help you heal the injury to your internal organs." The senior citizen took out a small bottle from his pocket and showed it to Casey.

Casey was not excited at all, because he clearly knew one thing: the more valuable it was, the greater price he would have to pay.

"What should I do to make you give me those pills?" Casey asked.

"It's very simple. I just want you to make a promise to me." The senior citizen said slowly.

"Make a promise?" Casey was stunned. He didn't anticipate that the senior should put forward such an easy request. However, sometimes, the simpler the condition was, the harder it was to achieve.

"Yes. I'll give you the pills on condition that I can ask you to do one thing at anytime and anywhere after you recover from your injuries. Don't worry. I would just ask you to do one thing for me. If you agree, I can give the pills to you now." The senior citizen said.

Hearing that, Casey immediately asked, "Must I do that even if you ask me to kill my family members?"

The senior citizen smiled and said, "I don't hate you. Why would I ask you to kill your family members? You should have guessed the reason why I ask you to make such a promise. You're potential. If you survive, you'll definitely become a great talent in the future. I'll only ask a talent like you to do something very important for me."

"If you believe me, take these pills. If you don't, I won't force you to do so."

Casey stared at the bottle held by the senior citizen with a hint of hesitation in his eyes.

This senior citizen didn't look like a bad person. However, he was not sure about that. Besides, he didn't what the senior citizen wanted him to do. Under this circumstance, he might have to pay a great price in the future.

However, if he didn't agree with the condition, he would definitely die.

He was so seriously injured now. He was afraid that even Owen couldn't cure him.

When Casey was struggling, Annabel quickly took that small bottle and said, "I'll do that for you. As long as these pills can cure him, you can ask me to do anything for you."

The senior citizen laughed and said, "Girl, you're beautiful and it'll be good to have you married to my grandson.

However, there's nothing you can do for me. So let him make the decision."

Annabel compressed her lips, feeling somewhat helpless.

After a long time, Casey took a deep breath and said, "Well, I agree."

Anyway, he had to save his life now, otherwise he would have no future. The senior nodded with satisfaction. After that, he took his fishing rod and bamboo basket and spoke to Casey with a smile, "Well, it's a deal. I'll come to you in the future. If you refuse my request, you'll suffer more than death." After saying that, he left.

Casey was a little astonished, hurriedly asking, "You just need me to make a verbal promise? Shouldn't we exchange contact information? Otherwise how can you find me?"

"If you're an honest people, making a verbal promise is enough. I don't need your contact information. When I need you, no matter where you are, I can certainly find you."

The senior citizen kept walking without a pause.

Soon, he was out of their sight.

"It seems that this senior citizen is not very clever. The world is so big. If you try hard to hide from him, how is it possible for him to find you?" Annabel said with a smile.

"Think in the other way. The world is so big, but he's confident that he can find me at any time he wants. Considering that, can you guess how powerful he is and how many resources he has?"

Casey asked while staring at Annabel. Annabel's expression immediately changed. She was scared by what Casey said. If that's true, the senior citizen might be more than ten times more powerful than the Thompson family.

"Could it be that it's just a prank?"

Perhaps the pills from him not only can't help you heal the injuries to you, but is also poisonous. What should we do?"

Annabel was worried again.

Casey narrowed his eyes and said, "Now, I have no other choice. Take me back. Soon, we can know whether these pills are useful or not."

.....

The senior citizen wandered with the bamboo basket. Soon, a SUV with camouflage paint stopped in front of him. A man with a straight back got off the SUV, bowed to the senior citizen and said respectfully, "Command, you've been staying here for a week. It's time to go back to Northern Border." The senior citizen nodded, and handed the fishing rod and the bamboo basket to that man.

Just when he was going to get on the SUV, he suddenly raised his hand, patted his forehead and murmured, "Oh, I forgot to tell that fella that he would have strong sexual desire after taking the pills I gave him. Forget it. Anyway, that girl is with him. It should be ok."

Chapter 629 Side Effects

At Christine's home. In Casey and Annabel's room.

There were only three rooms in Christine's home. So Casey and Annabel had to live in one room. At night, Annabel slept on the sofa in the room; sometimes she would secretly slept beside Casey for a while.

Annabel wasn't trying to touch Casey. In fact, the sofa was very hard and it was very uncomfortable to sleep on it. Since she was a child, she had never slept on this kind of sofa. When she could still bear it, she wouldn't secretly sleep on the bed for a while.

Now, Annabel was looking solemnly at Casey with a glass of water in one hand and the small bottle containing three pills in the other hand.

"Are you really going to take these pills?" Annabel asked with a solemn expression, Casey smiled and said, "Give it to me. Aren't you very afraid that I'll die? Why are you hesitating now?"

"I'm worried that there would be something wrong with these pills. If anything goes wrong after you take them, I'll regret it." Annabel said.

"Anyway, my situation has been at the worst. It can't be even worse. Give it to me." Casey spoke.

Annabel helplessly sighed, handing the water and pills to Casey.

Casey put the pill into his mouth without any hesitation, drank some water and then swallowed them.

Before long, Casey found that he began to burn all over. The sweat burst through the skin of his forehead. His face became red.

What surprised Casey was that the pain on his chest began to slowly ease.

"These pills should be useful, but I fell a little dizzy. It might be the side effect of the pills. Besides, I'm very sleepy. I might sleep for a long time." While speaking, Casey was nearly unable to open his eyes.

Annabel hurriedly helped Casey to the bed. At this moment, Casey had already fallen asleep.

She touched Casey's forehead, finding that he had a very high body temperature. She was a little worried, so she hurriedly asked Christine to ask the doctor they asked last time to come here.

The doctor checked Casey again after coming here, surprisingly finding that Casey began to recover from his injuries.

Annabel told the doctor that Casey had taken those pills. The doctor couldn't make sure what that was, but the doctor was sure that those pills greatly helped Casey recover from his injuries.

Having a fever and falling asleep were just the side effects of those pills. Of course, the doctor was not sure if there were other side effects.

After making sure that Casey would be fine, Annabel was relieved. Meanwhile, she was somewhat excited. If Casey could really survive, she would be happier than Casey.

The doctor told Annabel to take good care of Casey and that she should turn to him in time when anything went wrong.

Casey slept for seven days, during which Annabel kept staying by Casey's side and dared not to go away for a while.

In these days, Casey looked better and better. Annabel was sure that those pills could help Casey recover from his injuries.

At the same time, she was somewhat puzzled. Who on earth was the senior citizen that gave Casey those pills? As the young lady of the Thompson family, Annabel had never heard that there was a medicine that could bring the dying back to life. Presumably, the senior citizen must be more powerful than anyone could imagine.

In one afternoon, the doctor came to check Casey. After that, the doctor smiled and spoke to Annabel, "He is basically doing well and has recovered from the injuries to his internal organs. So far, he just need some time to recover from some minor injuries. His life is no longer under serious threat."

Annabel was excited at once.

Surprisingly, Casey had really recovered from major injuries.

"It's really a miracle! The pills he took are definitely great. It's a pity that I don't have a chance to get such a pill to study." The doctor stood up, "From tomorrow on, I'll not come here. Just wait for him to wake up and take good care of him, helping him to recover from his minor injuries."

After seeing the doctor off, Annabel returned to the room and couldn't help shedding tears excitedly.

"You baster are finally fine. I know that you won't die so easily." Annabel said.

At this moment, Casey slowly opened his eyes. He felt that he was burning. These days, he had been asleep, so he didn't feel anything. Now, as he became conscious, it was getting more and more difficult for him to control himself.

"Casey, are you awake?" Annabel wiped her eyes and looked at Casey with a smile.

Casey sat up at once. Now, he had nearly recovered from his injuries, so he could move easily.

"I'm...very hot." Casey's eyes were red.

He looked at Annabel with a hint of greed in his eyes.

Seeing his eyes, Annabel was startled and subconsciously took a step back.

"Is...Is it also the side effect of those pills?" Annabel asked with great care.

Casey kept tearing at his clothes, saying, "It should be. Go out now. I'm losing control of myself."

When he just finished speaking, he tore his clothes.

Hearing that, Annabel didn't go out.

Wasn't it something that she had always been thinking about?

She smiled at Casey and said, "If it's really a side effect, I believe that you should do what you want to. Otherwise, if it affects the effectiveness of the medicine, previous efforts will be wasted. To save your life, I can only sacrifice myself."

As she spoke, she approached Casey.

Casey tried hard to control himself. He had already cursed that senior citizen a hundred times for not informing him of such a side effect of the medicine.

"Go out now and let me calm myself down. If others hear what you say, we can't explain it clearly." Casey spoke while gritting his teeth.

"Herman and Bonnie have gone sea fishing while Christine has hung out with friends. Only we're here." Annabel's face became red, looking a little shy.

Seeing that, Casey found it more difficult to control himself. His instinct was pushing him to hold Annabel into his arms right now.

"Go out now! I'm losing control of myself. I can't do that with you!" Casey shouted himself hoarse.

Looking at him, Annabel spoke gently, "But I don't want you to be so miserable. If can't do that, you'll suffer a lot."

Casey took a deep breath and finally lost control of himself. At this moment, Annabel is to him what a big meal to a hungry person.

Chapter 630 A Bad Man

In the bathroom.

Casey was lying in the bathtub with only one underpants. He was soaking in the water, which made his bronze skin more charming.

Annabel was standing by the bathtub. Her clothes were wet. Besides, she wore her wet hair down, making her delicate face more attractive.

There was water and toilet requisites all over the bathroom. It could be seen that someone had made some violent motions here.

At this moment, Annabel was biting her red lips with a complicated expression in her eyes, wondering something.

Before long, Casey slowly opened his eyes. Now, he was no longer burning and was surprisingly calm.

Finding that he was soaking in the cold water, he took a deep breath, sat up and looked at Annabel.

Seeing that Casey was awake, Annabel hid the complicated look in her eyes, then angrily stared at Casey and complained, "You bastard. Why not just lie down there? Why do you get up?"

Remembering what happened before he lost his mind, Casey was nervous. Then, he hurriedly checked his body, looked anxiously at Annabel and asked, "What did we do? Why are we here? Why are you all wet?"

The wet clothes clung to Annabel's body, highlighting her curvy figure. After giving her a glance, Casey subconsciously swallowed his saliva.

Fortunately, he was no longer under the side effects of those pills, otherwise he would lose his mind again.

"What did we do? You, as a man, should dare to ask me this question. I really suspect that you're a gay. Before, when you were in that situation, I was beside you, trying my best to cooperate. But you just stopped yourself and went to the bathroom to take a cool bath to calm yourself down. Casey, you're really not a man!" Annabel was angry, as if she had suffered a great loss.

"Are you saying that I didn't do that kind of thing with you?" Casey asked tentatively.

Annabel somewhat angrily punched Casey in the chest and complained, "You bastard. You lied down in the bathtub for a long time. What could you do with me? I offered to sleep with you, but you should do that. I shouldn't have saved you!"

Hearing that, Casey was immediately relieved. It seemed that he didn't do anything with Annabel. He guessed: after losing his mind, he had strong sexual desire. But he managed to control himself with willpower, went to the bathroom and then calmed himself down with cool water.

Casey smiled at Annabel and spoke, "You should be happy that I didn't do anything to you. I don't want to ruin your innocence."

Annabel glared at him and said, "I don't want you to do that. I'm going to marry you in the future. You can't be said to have ruined my innocence!"

Casey approached Annabel, patted her on the shoulder with a smile and said, "Well, you've made the greatest contribution in saving my life. I'll remember it for the rest of my life. In the future, I'll definitely repay you."

"Well, I don't want anything. I just want you to marry me." Annabel spoke at once.

"Except for this request." Casey hurriedly added, "Your clothes are all wet. Go to get changed now. Don't catch a cold."

After saying that, he went out of the bathroom.

When watching his back, Annabel gritted her teeth. Then, anger gradually disappeared from her face. There was a flash of playful and sly expression on her beautiful face.

After getting changed, Casey carefully checked his body, being sure that he had indeed recovered from his major injuries. He was still suffering from a few minor injuries, but he should be able to recover in a short time.

He went to the bathroom and pulled Annabel into the room. Then, he cleaned up the messy bathroom on his own, leaving Annabel to get changed in the room.

Before long, Herman, Bonnie (Christine's mother) and Christine came back one after another. Casey sincerely expressed his gratitude to them and thanked them for taking care of him and helping him in recent days.

After knowing that Casey had basically recovered from his injuries, Herman, Bonnie and Christine were all surprised. They considered it to be a miracle that Casey could recover from his injuries. To celebrate it, Bonnie specially went to buy some food to cook a big meal. Casey and Annabel helped Bonnie to cook, during which Annabel had been trying to approach Casey. Casey had been trying to keep away from her. As long as Annabel came to him, he would immediately go away.

Christine saw it. Not knowing the exact relationship between Casey and Annabel, she always considered them to be lovers. Now, seeing Casey kept away from Annabel as if he disliked her, Christine was very unhappy.

From the very beginning, Christine had believed that Casey was good enough to be Annabel's boyfriend. Now, seeing Casey should dare to dislike Annabel, she got the worst impression of Casey. When Casey was injured, Annabel took care of him so carefully. Now, after he recovered from his injuries, he began to dislike Annabel. In Christine's view, Casey, who did that, was completely a bad man.

However, considering that Casey had just become healthy, she didn't say anything.

After dinner, Casey came to Christine and asked her if there was a mattress with which he could sleep on the floor. Now, since he had recovered from his injuries, it was all right for him not to sleep in bed. There was no spare room in Christine's home, so he had to share a room with Annabel. It should be Annabel that slept in bed, so he should naturally sleep on the floor.

Hearing that, Christine was immediately unable to contain her anger and shouted at Casey, "Casey, what do you mean? Annabel took care of you for such a long time, and you begin to dislike her just after you become healthy. Now, you're even unwilling to sleep in the same bed with her. You're too ruthless!"

Hearing that, Casey was stunned and then tried to explain, "You've misunderstood..."

"I didn't misunderstand anything. Obviously, you're kicking down the ladder. Humph, a man like you is the most disgusting. It's really unlucky for Annabel to meet you." Christine didn't give Casey the chance to explain at all.

At this moment, Annabel came close to them and said pitifully, "Christine, don't blame him. It's just my wishful thinking."

"Annabel, it's too unfair for him to treat you like that." As Christine spoke, she glared at Casey and said, "You either share a bed with Annabel or sleep somewhere outside my home. Bad man!"

After saying that, she turned around and went back to her room.

Casey sighed helplessly. He understood that he couldn't explain this matter clearly anymore.

Annabel made faces to Casey, and said with a smile, "Bad man." She stuck out her tongue.

Casey glared at her and stretched out his hand to catch her. Annabel hurriedly turned around and ran back to the room. Casey went back to the room after her. Even he didn't realize that he could get along with Annabel so well. If it were in the past, he definitely wouldn't have fun with any other woman but Edith.

In the room.

Casey was sitting on the sofa. Annabel asked while staring at Casey, "According to the doctor, you'll recover from the minor injuries soon. What're you going to do next?"

Casey narrowed his eyes. Before, he believed that he could only live for two months and therefore was not in the mood to think about the future.

Now, he had recovered from his injuries. He immediately thought of taking revenge on Theodore.

However, he clearly knew that Theodore was more powerful than he had imagined. Casey didn't even know how Theodore could have such a great strength.

If he recklessly came to Theodore to seek revenge now, he would only lose to Theodore again and he would definitely be killed.

Therefore, what he should do now was to find out why Theodore was so powerful. In addition, he should manage to become more powerful. At the very least, he must be well prepared before coming to Theodore to seek revenge.

Now, everyone believed that he had been dead. It was a good news for him in that it gave him enough time to become more powerful.

Coming to his teacher was the only way for him to figure out why Theodore was so powerful and to become more powerful.

"After I fully recover from my injuries, I'll go to my teacher and get prepared for killing Theodore." Casey said solemnly. Annabel nodded and asked, "Are you not going to inform Edith of your current situation?"

Casey hesitated for a while. In his opinion, he couldn't let anyone know that he was still alive. Once Theodore knew that, Theodore would definitely do something to Edith to force him to appear.

Now, at most, he could let Edith know that he was still alive. As for other people, he couldn't even inform someone like Conor of that.

"Tomorrow, I'll go to buy a mobile phone and inform Edith of my current situation, so that she won't be worried about me all the time." Casey said.

"Oh." Annabel said. After that, she lay down in bed.

"What about you? Are you not going to contact the people of the Thompson family?" Casey asked.

"I can't contact them now. Theodore is so powerful. I believe that even the people of the Thompson family can't defeat him. If my family know that I'm still alive, the Turner family will notice it. It'll not do any good. Moreover, you haven't fallen in love with me yet. So I can't go home." Annabel spoke.

"Besides, I'm going to go to your teacher with you. You can't refuse me. If you disagree, I'll tell Christine that you're going to run away without me and ask her to condemn you." After some thought, Annabel added.

Casey didn't know what to do. Now, he simply couldn't do anything with Annabel. Moreover, just now, he...was not seemingly going to refuse her.

"Why didn't you wear your jewelry these days? Is it because I look too common while you want others to consider us to be better matched?" Casey moved to another topic and asked with a smile. "It's none of your business." Annabel glared at Casey. Then she turned and no longer spoke to Casey.

At night, Casey lay on the sofa and found that it was so cold and hard. He turned his head and gave Annabel a glance.

It was so uncomfortable for her to sleep on the sofa these days, but she had never complained about it.

After a long time, he got up, quietly approached the bed and looked at Annabel under the moonlight.

She was sleeping soundly. She wore a contented expression, as if she had never had such a sound sleep.

"Casey...you're a bastard." Annabel murmured in her sleep.

Casey couldn't help smiling. Then, he spoke to the beauty sincerely, "Thank you."

Chapter 631 Hock

In the next morning.

Casey was awake, but he didn't get up.

Instead, he lay on the sofa with his eyes closed, having a rest while thinking about his plan.

At this moment, Annabel sat up and stretched herself lazily. She had long not had such a sound sleep.

After getting out of bed, Annabel quietly came close to the sofa. Seeing that Casey's eyes were closed, she thought that he was still asleep.

"Humph, you were so stubborn. You deserve to sleep on such a hard sofa. I was so generous that I agreed to share a bed with you, but you should not cherish it. Stupid!"

As she murmured, she pulled the blanket for Casey.

Then she came close to the bed, took a watch from the table and stared at it for a long time with reluctance.

"That bastard needs to buy a mobile phone. I can only sell you. I hope that I can find a good host for you today. You can't be with me in the future anymore."

Annabel spoke to herself.

These days, Annabel and Casey lived in Christine's home. It took a lot of money to live and get a doctor for Casey.

Besides, Annabel clearly knew the situation of Christine's family, knowing that they couldn't afford to support two more people. Therefore, at the very beginning, she sold some of her jewelry and gave a sum of money to Herman. Otherwise, they might have been driven out.

After that, to help Casey recover from his injuries, she needed to get something like nutrient solution.

Besides, a wheelchair was also needed.

Annabel bought all of them with the money she got from selling her jewelry. When her mobile phone was dropped into the sea, it had been broken. And she was not in the habit of taking a bank card with her. Therefore, she could only support their life in this way.

The pieces of jewelry she sold were her favorite. In the past, she spent a lot of money on them. Now, in this strange place, she could only sell them at a very low price.

This watch was the last thing she had. She didn't know what to do after using the money got from selling it.

At this moment, Casey secretly opened his eyes and looked at Annabel, feeling puzzled. Annabel spoke in a low voice, so he didn't hear what she was muttering.

Before long, Annabel was ready and left with that watch.

Casey wanted to know what Annabel went out for. Therefore, not long after she left, he hurriedly got up and followed her to the center of Q City.

They had been Q City for a long time.

Casey had just been to the wharf for a few times. In the rest of the time, he had been staying at Christine's home. It was the first time for him to go to the center of Q City.

As a relatively remote coastal city, Q City didn't develop very well. However, although it was a small city, it had all the facilities a city should have. Besides, because of the wharf, the trade had developed quite well. Therefore, people here lived a life nearly as good as people in other places.

Annabel came to a pawnbroker's shop in the center of the city. After hesitating for a while, she went in with that watch. The pawnbroker was a middle-aged man in his forties. He wore a mustache and looked a little cunning.

At this moment, he was sitting at a table and leisurely basking in the sun by the window with a teapot in his hand.

When Annabel went in, he gave her a glance. Then, his eyes lit up. He stood up hurriedly.

When the employee just approached Annabel, the pawnbroker pulled him and said, "I'll take care of her. You go inside and tell Young Master Huang that the beauty I mentioned last time comes." That employee nodded at once, turned around and went inside.

"Miss, you come to hock something again. This way, please." The pawnbroker led Annabel to the table with a smile.

Annabel didn't talk nonsense, directly handing the watch to him.

"I want to sell this watch, how much does it worth?" Annabel spoke.

The pawnbroker took it and looked at it for a while. His eyes lit up at once.

"It's a good watch. It's a Patek Philippe watch. But it seems to be a fake one. It's a bit rough. Considering that you're a regular customer, I'll give you five thousand dollars. It's a good price. How about that?" The pawnbroker spoke with a smile.

Annabel frowned and said, "It's a limited edition watch. I spent more than one million dollars on it. And you'll just give me five thousand dollars. You go too far."

"Miss, don't try to fool me. If you can afford a watch worthy of more than a million dollars, you won't need to hock it here. If you can show me the invoice for this watch, I'm willing to give you more money." The pawnbroker was cunning. Annabel was somewhat helpless. How was it possible for her to get the invoice for this watch now? If it were in the past, even if this watch was just dropped on the ground, she wouldn't bother to pick it up. Now, she was forced by life to sell it for money.

"I don't have invoice with me. But 5000 dollars is chicken feed. At least, you should pay me 500000 dollars.

Otherwise, I won't sell it to you."

Annabel said. It was the last valuable thing she had, so she had to get more money from selling it. Only in this way could she support the life of Casey and her for some days.

The pawnbroker immediately laughed and said, "Miss, you're demanding an exorbitant price. You want to get 500000 dollars by selling a fake watch. Why don't you go to rob somebody of it?"

Hearing that, Annabel stretched out her hand to take her watch back and said, "Then I'm not going to sell it to you. I'll go somewhere else."

The pawnbroker immediately gripped the watch tightly. He was not going to give it back to Annabel.

"What're you doing? Give it back to me!"

Annabel became anxious at once, stretching out her hand to get the watch back.

The pawnbroker stood up, looked at Annabel with a smile and said, "Miss, don't be anxious. In fact, it's possible for me to give you 500000 dollars."

Annabel frowned, stared at the pawnbroker and asked, "What do you mean?"

"He, he. The condition is that you can take the hint. If you listen to me, I'm willing to give you five million dollars, not to mention 500000 dollars." The pawnbroker laughed obscenely.

Annabel subconsciously took two steps back, looked warily at the pawnbroker and asked, "What do you want to do?"

Right at this moment, several people came out from inside. The first people to come out was a slovenly young man in his twenties. Several bodyguards followed him.

After seeing Annabel, the young man's eyes immediately lit up. He hurriedly asked, "Boss Chang, is she the beauty you mentioned to me before? Fuck, she's really as beautiful as a fairy."

Boss Chang nodded with a smile. Then, he looked at Annabel and said, "Miss, I'll come straight to the point. He's Howell Huang, Young Master Huang, the son of the boss of Qiansheng Mall. He takes a fancy to you. As long as you're willing to be his

Chapter 632 It Is All My Fault

Howell looked at Annabel with greedy eyes. He had never seen such a beautiful woman before. Now, he was anxious to make Annabel his girlfriend. He took two steps forward, stared obscenely at Annabel and said, "He's right. If you become my girlfriend, I promise that you'll live a wealthy life."

Annabel gave Howell a glance with dislike and said, "Who are you? How dare you talk to me like that?"

As the young lady of the Thompson family, she was only gentle, lovely and naughty when Casey was present. She hadn't taken other men seriously at all. Being reproached by Annabel, Howell was stunned at first and then became even greedier.

The pawnbroker looked at Annabel with some irritation and said, "How dare you talk to Young Master Huang like that! Qiansheng Mall is the largest shopping mall in Q City. Young Master Huang's family has at least a billion dollars! You should say that he is no match for you!" Annabel twitched her lips. With only a billion dollars, they should boast! She could receive gifts worthy of no less than a billion dollars in total for one birthday.

Howell waved at the pawnbroker and said with a smile, "I like this kind of women. If she loves money very much, I won't take a fancy to her. It'll be more fulfilling for me to conquer this kind of women."

Annabel felt a little sick. She stared at the pawnbroker and said, "Give me back my watch now. I'm leaving."

Howell laughed obscenely, approached Annabel and said, "Since you're here, why are you anxious to leave? Go inside and have a chat with me. I'll let you know how capable I am."

As he spoke, he stretched out a hand to touch Annabel's chin.

Annabel hit his hand, so that he couldn't touch her. Her face became a little darker.

"If you don't give the watch back to me, I'll definitely make you regret it."

Annabel knew that she couldn't deal with Howell. Now, she was not under the protection of the Thompson family and was just a common girl. If she went on talking to them, something might go wrong. So she had better leave this place now.

When she just turned around and was about to leave, Howell looked at his bodyguards and then those bodyguards immediately blocked Annabel's way.

Annabel was worried and asked coldly, "What do you mean? Could it be that you're going to limit my freedom after robbing me of my watch?"

Howell laughed and said, "Hey, you can inquire about if I have failed to get the women I take a fancy to. I'm not sure of other things. However, in Q City, as long as I want to sleep with you, no one dares to stop me!"

As the son of the boss of Qiansheng Mall, Howell could be said to unruly in Q City. Besides, he always forced the pretty girls, who came to hock their belongings in pawnshops, to sleep with him. Since they had gone to hock their belongings in pawnshops, it meant that these girls were in trouble and generally had no powerful connections. It would be easier for him to get what he wanted. This pawnbroker was responsible for selecting beauties for Howell. When he met a pretty girl, he would inform Howell of it.

Over the years, many girls had been harmed by Howell. However, they dared not to do anything about it because of the connections Howell had.

Annabel became a little scared. She didn't want Casey to know that she was hocking her belongings for money, so she didn't inform Casey of it before going out. If Howell really took her away, she would suffer misfortune.

She gave one side a glance and then tried to run away from somewhere between two people. However, those bodyguards immediately caught her. Annabel struggled and shouted, "Let go of me! Listen, my husband is very powerful. If you dare to do anything to me, he won't let you get away with it!" "You have a husband? He, he. It's interesting. It would be funnier. Take her to the inside. I'll teach her a good lesson and see if she can still be so stubborn!" Howell said with a sneer.

The bodyguards immediately pulled Annabel to the inside. The pawnbroker also went to close the door, so that no one could disturb Howell.

The moment he closed the door, he heard a loud sound. Then, the door fell off the wall, pinning the pawnbroker against the ground.

Everyone was startled by it, turning their heads and looking at the direction of the door.

A tall man was standing there. It was Casey who had secretly followed Annabel to this place.

"Let go of her! Otherwise, I'll kill you!"

Casey said with a murderous look.

Seeing Casey, Annabel shed tears at once. Meanwhile, she was relieved. She knew that Casey wouldn't let her be harmd by others.

"Who the hell are you? Could it be that you're her husband? Listen, I'm the son of the boss of Qiansheng Mall. You had better don't offend me, otherwise I'll make you pay a price!" Howell shouted while glaring at Casey.

Casey didn't reply. He directly approached him, grabbed him by the neck and threw him against the wall.

Then, Casey moved quickly, approaching those bodyguards and knocking them down.

Although Casey didn't fully recover from his injuries, he was already able to use most of his strength. It was very easy for him to knock these useless bodyguards down.

Moreover, after recovering from the injuries, he became stronger. Besides, the pills from the senior citizen had some effect. Casey had a hunch that he would be more powerful after he fully recovered from the injuries.

Seeing that Casey had knocked all the bodyguards down, Annabel hugged Casey and cried.

This time, Casey didn't resist.

"I was so scared just now. I thought that I would really be bullied by these disgusting guys. Why didn't you come earlier?" Annabel complained between sobs.

Casey felt that Annabel was holding him tightly. It seemed that she was really scared. As a girl, she stayed calm when she was faced with Howell. She had been brave enough. She would only show her weakness in the presence of Casey.

"You're so silly. When we have no money, you should tell me about that, instead of hocking your belongings in such a place. Fortunately, I followed to here this time. If I didn't, the consequences would really be too ghastly to contemplate."

Hearing that, Annabel immediately widened her eyes and punched Casey in the chest with her fist.

"Are you saying that it's my fault? You bastard. If it wasn't that I need to buy tonics and cell phones for you, how would I, the young lady of the Thompson family, hock my belongings? Now, you should blame me for it. Why am I so poor?"

Annabel spoke in an aggrieved way.

Hearing that, Casey immediately realized that he had said the wrong thing. Feeling guilty, he looked somewhat anxiously at Annabel and said, "I...I'm sorry. I shouldn't have blamed you like that. It's all my fault. You can hit me to vent your anger."

Annabel stopped, looking at Casey in a daze. Soon, she put on a silly smile.

Just now, the way Casey apologized to her was very much similar to the way a man apologized to his girlfriend.

Annabel felt instantly as if she was in love.

Chapter 633 Give the Shopping Mall to Us

Howell watched Casey and Annabel flirt in pain. When he was thrown against the wall by Casey just now, he was in so much pain that he almost lost his consciousness.

He maliciously stared at Casey and then gave a glance to the bodyguards who were lying on the ground, realizing that he couldn't fight with Casey now. Now, he should figure out a way to run away first, after which he could try to find a way to seek revenge.

He quietly got up and then rushed to the door.

However, the next second, Casey blocked his way. Howell felt as if he had bumped into an iron wall. Then, he stumbled backward and finally fell to the ground again.

Casey looked at Howell coldly and asked, "Do you think that it's over?"

Knowing that he couldn't defeat Casey, Howell hurriedly begged for mercy, "Bro, I know that I'm wrong. I really didn't know that she's your wife. If I had known that, I would definitely not have done that. Forgive me!"

Casey sneered, turned his head to look at Annabel and asked, "What do you want to do with him?"

"This disgusting guy should want to sexually molest me. Anyway, I can't let him easily get away with it. I can't vent my anger unless...he's at least made unable to have any descendant."

Annabel glared at Howell with an angry expression.

Casey was here, so she was fearless and acted as if she were the wife of the head of a gang.

Howell felt a chill in the lower part of his body. He shivered and hurriedly spoke, "Miss, I just did that on impulse. And I didn't really do anything to you. Live and let live. If you let me off now, I won't make any trouble for you anymore. How about that?"

"Do you still want to make trouble for me?" Annabel stared at him at once.

"You're not eligible to negotiate terms with us." Casey said coldly.

Hearing that, Howell was not convinced.

In Q City, no one dared not to show him some respect. Now, he kindly offered to make peace with them, but they should try to push their luck. In his opinion, it was considered to be a provocation.

He glared at Casey with a dark face and said, "You had better be smart. I've showed you enough respect by being willing to make peace with you. I've never been afraid of anyone in Q City.

Go out and inquire about how powerful my father is. Everyone in Q City has been to Qiansheng Mall which is owned by my father. If you deal with me, sooner or later, you'll regret it."

Casey twitched his lips and said, "You're but the son of a boss of a shopping mall. There's nothing to show off."

"Fuck, you talk as if you're very rich. If you really are, why would you let your wife hock her belongings at this pawn shop? Don't be pretentious." Howell taunted.

Hearing that, Casey had an idea. He looked at Annabel and asked, "What about asking his father to give us that shopping mall? These days, you've really suffered a lot for me. It's time for me to repay you for it. What about my buying that shopping mall and then going shopping with you?"

Annabel's eyes lit up at once. As someone who was accustomed to spending money like water, Annabel had long wanted to buy some new clothes for herself. However, to support Casey, she had to stop herself from doing so. Now, hearing what Casey said, she certainly wanted to agree. However, Casey and she were now in a difficult position. They were strangers to this place. A shopping mall was nothing for them, but Howell's father would definitely not give it to them just because of this matter.

"But they won't give the mall to us for nothing, right? We don't have any resources here, and his father is supposedly not a fool." Annabel reminded.

Casey smiled and said, "If he's unwilling to give it to us, I can buy it with money. There's nothing that can't be dealt with money."

"But how can we get the money?"

Annabel stared at Casey.

Casey took a bank card out of his pocket with a mysterious expression. It was exactly the bank card he offered to give Darius. Before, when he went to Moon Island, he took it with him. There was previously a hundred billion dollars in this bank card.

This card had been placed in Casey's pocket. Perhaps because Casey was lucky, he didn't lose this card when he fell into the sea.

Casey spent quite a lot of money on Moon Island, but there was still more than 90 billion dollars in this card. He could afford to buy a hundred shopping malls that are as big as Qiansheng Mall, not to mention just the Qiansheng Mall. Annabel gave a curious glance at that bank card and asked, "How much money is there in this card?"

"I should be able to buy half of the enterprises in Q City with the money in this card." Casey said with a smile. Annabel was surprised. She didn't expect that Casey still had so much money with him.

Then she put on an aggrieved expression, compressed her lips and spoke to Casey, "You bastard. Why didn't you tell me that you have so much money? I hocked my belongings for money before! Do you know how much I had suffered these days? You go too far!"

Feeling embarrassed, Casey looked at Annabel and said, "I didn't know that you were hocking your belongings. I thought that you had enough money with you. Besides, you have never mentioned it to me. You're the young lady of the Thompson family, so I thought that you wouldn't be short of money."

Annabel raised her fist again to show her anger to Casey.

"Humph, anyway, you have to compensate me for it. Just buying a shopping mall isn't enough." Annabel said proudly.

"Well, well, well. I'll buy you whatever you want." Casey promised.

Hearing their conversation, Howell suspected that they were mad person who were anxious for money. Finally, he couldn't bear it anymore, speaking, "How dare you brag like that? Why don't you just claim yourself to be the young master of a top family in the world? Buy my shopping mall? I'm afraid that you can't even afford to buy a pancake!" Casey and Annabel turned their heads and looked at Howell at the same time. For a moment, Howell thought that they were really from top families in the world.

He considered it to be just an illusion. How was it possible that such big shots would come to Q City?

"Don't talk nonsense. Take us to your father and ask him transfer the shopping mall to us. Otherwise, I'll kill you." Casey spoke coldly to Howell.

"No way!" Howell cursed.

Casey took Howell by the shoulder with some strength. Then, Howell cried. He was in so much pain that he shed tears.

"Do I have to repeat it?"

"No, no. I'll take you to my father now. Please, don't use strength anymore. Otherwise, my arm will be broken."

Howell hurriedly begged for mercy. He secretly sneered, considering it stupid for Casey to take the initiative to meet his father. In his opinion, when they met his father, Casey would not be able to decide what would happen.

Casey and Annabel were putting themselves into a perilous position.

Chapter 634 He Tripled the Price At Qiansheng Mall.

At the office area, in the Chairman's office.

Mitchell Huang, the boss of Qiansheng Mall, was sitting in the office with a bald middle-aged man. He was listening to the bald man with a smile. This bald man was the general agent of all the suppliers of Qiansheng Mall. All the merchandise Qiansheng Mall sold was got through this bald man. Therefore, Mitchell certainly treated him in a respectful way.

"Boss Huang, don't worry. Having been cooperating with you for so many years, I would definitely guarantee the supply of goods to you. But as for the price, I'm afraid that you'll have to purchase them at a higher price." The bald man said with a smile.

Mitchell hurriedly spoke, "Don't worry about that. I know the situation in Q City now. Things are not easy for your suppliers, and I should pay more."

So far, all the shopping malls in Q City had to buy goods from this bald man. It could be said that he could determine the future of Qiansheng Mall. Therefore, even if Mitchell was dissatisfied with this bald man, he dared not to mention it.

Now, he owed the bank a lot of money.

The interest of the loan was about hundreds of thousands dollars.

Therefore, he had to ensure the supply of goods. If there was no goods in his shopping mall, however popular his shopping mall was, he would still be unable to pay back the loan.

When they were chatting happily, the door of the office was suddenly kicked open, making a loud sound. Mitchell and the bald man were both startled.

Casey entered the office with Howell.

Then, he looked around with cold eyes and asked coldly, "Who's his father?"

Seeing that Casey took his son as if he were taking a chicken, Mitchell stood up at once and asked, "Who are you? Why are you holding my son?"

Casey looked at Mitchell up and down, speaking, "He has done a wrong thing, and I'm coming to get compensation." Mitchell narrowed his eyes, looked at his son and asked, "What wrong thing did he do?"

"Dad, I didn't do anything wrong. Quick, ask someone to catch him. He's just a fool who deliberately come to make trouble for us!" Howell hurriedly shouted. Casey immediately tightened his grip on Howell's arm. Howell cried in pain and hurriedly begged for mercy, "Stop, stop, stop. I'm wrong."

Seeing that his son was being bullied, Mitchell was somewhat angry. He asked, "Who on earth are you? What do you want to do?"

Casey narrated what Howell had done in the pawnbroker's shop in an unhurried manner.

Hearing that, Mitchell secretly sneered at once. He knew something that his son had done. However, in his view, his son was eligible to do that kind of thing. If those people couldn't do anything with his son, it meant that they were weak. Besides, considering that people who hocked their belongings in the pawnbroker's shop must be someone without much power, Mitchell directly said, "It's lucky for her that my son takes a fancy to her. Why? Could it be that you want me to apologize for that? Quick, let go of my son and get out of here. Otherwise, I'll take some action!" Hearing such a response, Casey was unhappy and said, "Like father, like son. In my previous plan, if you deal with it in a somewhat reasonable way, I might show you some mercy. It seems to be unnecessary now."

"What do you want to do?" Mitchell stared at Casey while putting one of his hands under the table and pressing down a red button.

"You can't compensate me for what your son has done by just apologizing. Give me Qiansheng Mall. Otherwise, you'll lose your son." Casey said in a determined voice with a murderous look. Hearing that, Mitchell immediately widened his eyes and then sneered.

"Fella, is there anything wrong with your mind? You ask me to give you Qiansheng Mall? Who do you think you are? How dare you say so?" Mitchell taunted.

Considering this young man to be a little ridiculous, the bald man also laughed. Casey shook his head. It seemed that he had to take some action now.

Otherwise, they wouldn't know who they had offended.

However, before Casey did anything, he heard many footsteps coming from outside. Then, a group of people in security uniforms rushed in.

Seeing those people, Mitchell immediately shouted, "This guy is holding my son. Quick, hit him!"

After giving Casey a glance, those security guards didn't say a word and were going to attack Casey.

Casey let go of Howell. Before the security guards could approach him, he gave a punch to one of them.

These security guards just fought a little better than ordinary people. Casey could knock one down with just one punch. Soon, he knocked all of them down. In just a while, the security guards were lying on the floor. Only then did Mitchell realize how serious this matter was. He didn't anticipate that Casey would be so good at fighting that he could defeat the security guards he carefully trained so easily.

The smile gradually faded from the bald man's face. Then he stood up to leave here, so that he wouldn't be in trouble. "Fella, I'm not with them. I'm just the general agent of the suppliers of the mall, and I come here to talk business. Since you're busy, I'm not going to hinder you. Take your time to deal with the matter. I'm leaving."

Casey immediately stretched out his arm to stop him and asked, "You're the general agent of the suppliers of Qiansheng Mall?"

That man immediately nodded.

Casey had an idea at once. Before, he had already figured out a way to make Mitchell transfer the mall to him.

However, knowing that this man was the general agent of the suppliers of Qiansheng Mall, he got a simpler way.

Casey gave Mitchell a glance and asked with a smile, "I'll say it just once. If you transfer the mall to me, I'll forgive you for what happened today. Besides, I can pay you a million dollars. If you don't, you'll suffer consequence that you can't imagine."

Mitchell somewhat feared Casey.

However, in any case, Qiansheng Mall was worth more than 50 million dollars. Casey offered to buy it with a million dollars. It was no different from robbery. He sneered and said, "Impossible. Buying this mall with a million dollars? Why don't you just rob me of it? Even if my son have done a wrong thing, you're not eligible to make such a requirement. I'll give you a million dollars. Then, it's over. If you don't agree, I'll take other action. Fella, you must understand that it's useless to be just good at fighting in the society!"

Casey smiled and didn't say anything more. Then he pointed at the bald man and said, "Follow me."

The bald man was immediately afraid. However, worrying that Casey would hit him, he just followed Casey out of the office.

Casey even closed the door of the office.

Howell approached Mitchell, looked at him with uneasiness and asked, "Dad, in your opinion, what does that guy want to do?"

Mitchell looked somewhat angrily at him and said, "No matter what he wants to do, it's impossible for him to get Qiansheng Mall. He's but a stupid young man. How is it possible that he knows how to do business? Presumably, that guy wants to turn to him for help just because that guy heard that he's the general agent of the suppliers of Qiansheng Mall."

"If that's the case, he's really stupid. In any case, the general agent will help us, instead of him. He's really an idiot that knows nothing." Howell said with disdain.

"Well, how dare you say that? If it wasn't for you, we won't be in this kind of trouble now." Mitchell stared at Howell. Howell hurriedly said, "Dad, I know that I'm wrong. I won't do that in the future anymore."

About fifteen minutes later, the door of the office was opened. Casey went in with the bald man.

At this moment, the middle-aged man was smiling happily and was not afraid of Casey at all.

"Manager Lau, no matter what he has said to you, don't believe him. I'm willing to give you 10% more profit. How about that?" Mitchell hurriedly spoke. When he saw the smile the bald man wore, he had realized that there was something wrong.

The bald man sneered and said, "Seriously, Boss Huang, you don't know how powerful he is at all. I won't help you."

"Now, I announce that I officially terminate the cooperation between my company and your mall. You can ask others to supply goods for you."

Mitchell's expression changed a lot. He didn't anticipate that the general agent would terminate the cooperation because of Casey just after talking to Casey for more than ten minutes. He really couldn't guess what Casey had said to him.

"Manager Lau, don't say so. You've cooperated with me for so many years. How can you say so just because of a stupid young man? Well, I'll give 20% more profit to you. I can't give you more. You know that I have showed my best sincerity, right?"

Once the goods were out of stock, Qiansheng Mall would run out of cash. At that time, Mitchell would be broke. He might have to commit suicide.

The bald man looked at Mitchell with playful expression and said with a smile, "You want to get my help with only 20% of the profit? Boss Huang, you're so generous."

"Listen, he offered to pay three times of the price for my goods. I won't continue to cooperate with you, unless you give me 300% of the profit!"

Mitchell's eyes were immediately wide open. He stared at Casey with shock.

Chapter 635 You Are the Owner of This Shopping Mall

"Manager Lau, don't joke with me. Didn't you hear that he needs to hock something in the pawnshop for money? How is it possible that he could afford to pay three times of the price for your goods? Don't be fooled by him."

It wasn't that Mitchell was unwilling to believe what the bald man said. If one paid three times of the price for goods, one would definitely lose money. No one would do that. Moreover, Casey seemed to be a common people. It was impossible for him to pay so much money.

The bald man sneered, took out his mobile phone, showed it to Mitchell and said, "Have a good look. He had transferred the money to me. How can it be not true? Boss Huang, I have to say that your effort is ruined by your son."

Mitchell looked carefully at the transfer record on the mobile phone of the bald man, and then he was stunned.

His blood ran cold. He even couldn't move quickly.

"How...How is it possible? He should spend so much money to buy your goods just because of the misunderstanding between my son and him?" Mitchell muttered to himself.

"In your opinion, it's just a misunderstanding. However, in his opinion, your son has done something that can't be done. Boss Huang, you're a member of the upper class now. Could it be that you still don't understand that there are someone you can't offend?"

The bald man said with disdain.

Mitchell turned his head, looked at Casey and began to regret. He begged, "Fella, I'm so stupid that I didn't realize it until just now. Spare me, please. My family live on the money earned from this mall. If you want it, I'm willing to sell it to you at normal price. I'm even willing to sell it to you at a much lower price. Why do you buy those goods at three times the price instead of letting me off?"

Casey twitched his lip and said, "Because you're self-righteous. Besides, it's just a very small sum of money for me. I don't care about who gets it. I just want you and your son to receive punishment."

"Now, he has sold the goods to me. Without goods, you can't make money from this mall. I guess that you owe the bank a lot of money. If you can't earn money back and therefore fail to pay back the loan in time, this mall will close down. And you'll owe huge debt. I'm afraid that you'll have to keep running away in the future."

"Transferring the mall to me is your only option now. I'm going to give you five minutes. Think about it."

Hearing that, Mitchell was dizzy. Just now, he was talking and laughing with the bald man, imagining the future of the mall. Now, in less than half an hour, he was faced with bankruptcy. Such change was really too sudden.

After regaining his footing, Mitchell turned around and looked at Howell.

Howell was trembling. Without saying a word, Mitchell gave Howell a kick.

Howell dared not to resist at all. Now, he finally understood that his family all suffered because of his lust.

"Stupid! I achieve all these by working hard for so many years. Now, we're in trouble just because you're obscene! I really regret having given birth to you! You're useless!"

After saying that, he slapped Howell in the face without any mercy three times. After that, he was still angry. So he gave Howell a few kicks.

"Dad, I've done that before and you've never stopped me. Now, when we're in trouble, you blame me. You should also be responsible for it." Howell said with a sad face.

"Fuck, you should complain me. As your father, I must beat you up!"

After a long time, Howell was seriously injured by Mitchell. He lay on the ground and didn't move. It was only then that Mitchell stopped.

He turned his head, looked at Casey and said with regret, "Fella, this time, I lose. Transfer one million dollars to me, and I'll sign transfer contract with you now."

Casey smiled and said, "I'm afraid that you've got me wrong. Before, I offered to give you a million dollars, but you refused me. Now, I won't give a penny to you."

Mitchell asked with his eyes wide open, "Could it be that I should give you the shopping mall for nothing?"

"Maybe you can just declare insolvent."

Casey laughed.

Mitchell helplessly sighed. He knew that he had no other choice.

The bald man got a lawyer to draw up the transfer contract for them. Mitchell reluctantly signed the contract. Then, Casey became the owner of Qiansheng Mall.

Then, Casey asked all the executives of Qiansheng Mall to come here and announced that their boss changed in the presence of Mitchell.

The No. 2 executive of Qiansheng Mall was the general manager Mitchell specially employed. His name was Reynolds. In the past years, he had been operating Qiansheng Mall. Mitchell was only in charge of something related to capital and goods.

After getting to know with these executives, Casey found that Reynolds was honest. Besides, having operated Qiansheng Mall for so many years, Reynolds could be said to be experienced. Therefore, he asked Reynolds to manage most of the affairs of Qiansheng Mall, including the supply of goods.

After all, Casey just treated this shopping mall as a compensation to Annabel. He was not really going to do operate this shopping mall. After he fully recovered from his injuries, he would leave this place.

Being in charge of goods supply, Reynolds was very surprised.

Immediately, he admired Casey, the new boss, very much and swore that he would operate Qiansheng Mall well.

Later, Reynolds gave a golden card to Casey, telling him that it was specially made to send others as gift. People with this card could take whatever they want in Qiansheng Mall. Generally speaking, only boss and the family of boss could have this kind of card.

Casey didn't make ritual noises. He took the card and asked Reynolds to manage the affairs of the shopping mall. After that, he left the office area and headed towards the gate of Qiansheng Mall.

At this moment, there were many people coming in and out at the gate of the shopping mall. As the most famous shopping mall in Q City, it was very popular.

Annabel was sitting on a public seat at the door. It seemed that she was a little bored. Looking at people coming and going, she sighed.

Since she was a child, she had been taken good care of and loved by everyone. Now, she was living a life that ordinary lived. She found that it was quite good.

Before long, Casey approached Annabel. Seeing that she sat there in a daze, he smiled.

"Don't just sit there. Let's go in." Casey said with a smile.

Seeing Casey, Annabel immediately stood up and asked, "Have you settled the matter?"

Casey nodded and said, "From today on, you're the owner of this mall."

Annabel was so happy that she jumped.

Casey handed the golden card to Annabel and said, "With this card, you can take anything you want in the mall.

Go to get what you want now."

Annabel took it. Feeling puzzled, she asked, "Are you not going in with me?"

"Now, I've recovered from my injuries, so I could tell Edith my situation now. I'm going to buy a cell phone and make a phone call to her. You can go shopping."

After saying that, Casey turned around and headed towards nearby mobile phone shop.

Previously, Annabel was very happy. As she watched Casey go away, she gradually felt a sense of loss. After a long time, she sighed helplessly, came close to a garbage can and threw the golden card into it.

"I made so much effort, but it seems that I can't change your mind even a little bit. You're so silly. Without you, I don't want anything."

Annabel spoke to herself. After that, Annabel turned around, went to the side of the road and went home by taxi.

.....

After buying a mobile phone, Casey got a phone card. He went to the park and found a place with no one else around. He sat down on the bench, took a deep breath and then entered the phone number of Edith.

After staring at the familiar numbers for a long time, Casey finally tapped the screen to make the phone call.

Before long, Edith answered the phone and asked in a somewhat hoarse and weary voice.

"Hello, who's that?"

Casey was very excited. After trying hard to calm himself down, he slowly said,

"Edith, it's me."

Chapter 636 I Will Take Care of the Davies Family for You

In the Davies House, B City.

In the room Casey used to live in, Edith put down the phone. There were obviously tears on her pinched face. But she was smiling now and was not sad at all.

That was because she had just received a phone call from Casey. Her husband, who was believed to be dead by everyone, was still alive.

From the very beginning, Edith was sure that Casey wouldn't die so easily.

All people were pessimistic about Casey's chance of being alive. These days, there were dark clouds gathering over the Davies House. Even Edith would sometimes suspect if she was deceiving herself.

To get rid of that feeling, Edith chose to live a busy life. By believing firmly that Casey was alive and living a busy life, she was not that miserable.

Therefore, she left J City, came to B City and took over most affairs of the Davies family.

On the second day Edith returned to inland areas, the news of Casey's death spread all over B City. Before, only Edith and the person who sent Edith back knew this news. Now, it spread quickly. Edith could guess one thing without even thinking: the person who attacked Casey was trying to destroy the Davies family with this issue.

When the people of the Davies family got this news, there was a panic. Jordan made countless phone calls to Casey, but Casey never answered.

Because of it, more people believed that Casey was really dead. As a result, there were some problems in the Davies family. A lot of people thought of running away from the Davies family.

At any time, losing the head was the worst disaster for a family. At this point, Jordan alone was unable to quell the panic among the people of the Davies family caused by Casey's death. In order to protect their benefits, some people even wanted to divide up the property of the Davies family.

Fortunately, Edith came B City in time and quelled the panic among people of the Davies family.

It was certainly impossible for Edith to achieve that alone. The trusted subordinates of Casey also came to B City with her, including Conor, Charles, Morgan, and so on.

Lily also asked Natan to send members of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce to help Edith. Most importantly, Terence sent top three experts in fighting on List of the Ares to B City. One of them was Kacper.

With Kacper and two other experts in fighting and under the help of Conor, Charles and so on, Edith quelled the disturbance in the Davies family on the first day of her arrival in B City in unsparing ways.

As for those who tried to divide up the property of the Davies family in crisis, they were all killed by Kacper.

When the people of the Davies family watched Kacper and other two experts kill those people, they all gave up the idea of disloyalty. None of them dared to say anything that would threaten the steadiness of the Davies family.

With the help of Jordan, Edith soon took over the affairs of the Davies family.

With the experience she accumulated when managing the company of the Patel family, Edith handled the affairs of the Davies family with ease.

The affairs of the Davies family was actually not different from that of the company of the Patel family. It was just that the affairs of the Davies family involved more property.

Edith told the people of the Davies family that Casey was still alive and that he would be back sooner or later, asking them not to worry about it.

After the people of the Davies family saw how Edith dealt with the disturbance in the Davies family, the Davies family restored the stability for the time being.

Edith could quell the disturbance in the Davies family with Kacper, but she couldn't stop others from spreading the rumors.

People in B City had all known that Casey was dead. The families that bore grudges against the Davies family began to pay close attention to the Davies family with ill intentions. Some organizations that had never conflicted with the Davies family also began to attempt to get some benefits from the Davies family. After all, the Davies family was so rich. Anyone would want to get some benefits from it.

In just a short time, many families began to secretly nibble away at the property of the Davies family tentatively.

The situation of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, which had a good relationship with the Davies family, was even worse. The Davies family got some help from Terence, but Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce didn't.

To prevent the Turner family from dealing with the Davies family, Terence dealt with the Turner family with most of the resources of Guanling. With the resources from Terence, the Davies family could do nothing but protect itself. However, luckily, Edith received a phone call from Casey and knew for sure that he was still alive. As long as Casey was fine, no matter what difficult situation the Davies family was in now, it was no big deal for Edith.

Certainly, so far, Edith couldn't tell anyone that Casey was alive now. Once people of the Turner family knew that that Casey was alive Casey was alive, Theodore might come to B City. If that happened, the Davies family would face a catastrophe.

Before Casey had the ability to defeat Theodore, Edith could only keep this news a secret. And the Davies family could only become low profile for a while.

Casey told Edith what he had experienced recently and informed her of his plan. Edith understood what a danger Casey had been in and was deeply afraid. At the same time, she was deeply grateful to Annabel.

She didn't blame Casey for being unable to come back in time. After all, to get rid of the threat they were faced with, Casey had to be powerful enough. Edith wiped her tears, stood up and stretched herself lazily, feeling an unprecedented sense of relief.

"Casey, don't worry about anything and just improve your fighting capacity. Before you come back, I'll take care of the Davies family for you!"

Edith spoke to herself. After that, Edith went out of the room.

At this moment, Nicolas and Jennifer were discussing how to make Edith have more food in the yard. After all, Edith was pregnant and meanwhile working very hard. If she didn't get enough nourishment, her health would be affected.

When Edith left J City for B City, she took them with her. Certainly, Amara was not eligible to be taken to B City. Now, Nicolas was totally unwilling to see Amara.

After the door of the room was opened, Edith came out from inside, looking in a good mood.

Seeing Jennifer and Nicolas, she immediately said with a smile, "Dad, Jennifer, I'm a little hungry. Prepare some delicious food for me. Cook more rice. I'm now pregnant. If I didn't eat enough food, baby might be affected."

"Before, I found that the flowers in the small garden almost withered. I'm going to water them. Cook now and ask me to have a meal when it's ready."

After saying that, Edith happily went to the small garden.

Jennifer and Nicolas were stunned.

These days, Edith had always been wearing a sad expression. It was the first time for her to smile.

"How would she behave in that way today?" Nicolas said.

"Maybe she has got over it. After all, she's pregnant now. Anyway, she has to be responsible for her baby. Alas, it's a pity that Casey's dead. What a nice person he is!" Jennifer said with a sigh.

"Well, it's useless to about it. If Edith heard that, she would not be able to smile. It's rare for her to smile now.

Quick, go to cook some nutritious food." Nicolas said.

Jennifer hurriedly nodded, turned around and walked towards the kitchen.

In Q City.

After making the phone call, Casey was relieved. After learning about the situation in B City from Edith, Casey was less nervous.

The Davies family was now in a dangerous situation because of the news that he was dead. However, Kacper was in B City. Besides, Terence offered some help to the Davies family. At least, the Davies family wouldn't be in trouble in a short time.

Moreover, Edith was under the protection of Kacper and other two experts in fighting. As long as Theodore didn't go to B City in person, he didn't have to be worried about the safety of Edith.

Casey had learned from Edith that Theodore had already left H Country for M Country after he attacked him.

"In the following days, I should try to recover from the injuries as soon as possible. After that, I'll go to my teacher and find out why Theodore would be so powerful."

"I haven't seen him for many years. When I meet him, will he scold me? After all, I insisted on leaving in that year. If I had listened to him, I would not have been defeated easily by Theodore."

After muttering a few words to himself, Casey stood up, patted his own butt and headed for Christine's home.

Chapter 637 Go Shopping

Back home, Casey immediately saw Annabel in the living room. She was sitting in a daze. Casey was a little confused. She should be shopping crazily in Qiansheng Mall now.

"Why did you come back so soon?" Casey asked.

Annabel looked up at him and said angrily, "Could it be that I should stand in the mall instead of coming back?"

"Didn't you say that you've long wanted to go on a shopping spree? I've given you Qiansheng Mall. Shouldn't you be going on a shopping spree there?"

Casey asked, feeling puzzled.

Annabel stood up at once and punched Casey with her fist angrily.

"Why are you so silly? Have you ever seen anyone go shopping alone? In that case, I would rather shop online. Do you know what the pleasure of shopping is? You had gone away. Wouldn't I be embarrassed if I wandered in the mall alone like a fool?" Annabel complained. Casey finally got it. He didn't think of it before. At that time, he was anxious to buy a mobile phone and make a phone call to Edith.

"You can ask Christine to go shopping with you. By the way, you can buy her some new clothes. We can repay her for helping us recently in this way." Casey said.

Hearing that, Annabel punched Casey with greater strength.

Why was this guy so silly? What she wanted to do was not going shopping at all. Actually, what she wanted was to go shopping with Casey.

Considering that Casey was highly likely to be pretending to be silly, Annabel was a little helpless.

After a long time, Annabel stopped. She sat down on the sofa and said impatiently, "There's a bowl of edible bird's nest porridge I made on the table. It's the first time for me to cook it, so it might not taste good. But it's still nutritious. You're injured. Go to eat it."

Casey turned his head and gave a glance at the table. He saw that there was a bowl containing something black. When he just came in, he thought that it was a bowl of black sesame dessert. It never occurred to him that it was actually a bowl of bird's nest porridge. He went to the table with a smile, picked the bowl up, sniffed it and asked, "Are you sure that I won't hurt even worse after eating it?"

"Casey!!!" Annabel shouted angrily and wanted to tear him.

Today, Casey didn't go shopping with her. Instead, he hurriedly went to tell Edith that he was safe now. But Annabel was not angry. If Casey would fall in love with her so easily, she might long not like Casey.

Therefore, on the way back, she thought of how to change herself, so that Casey could notice her virtue.

What she thought of first was to become more virtuous. At least, she should be good at both working and doing housework. Therefore, she cooked a bowl of edible bird's nest porridge according to the cookbook on the internet.

She made great effort in cooking this bowl of edible bird's nest porridge. She failed several times before cooking this bowl of porridge. It was the best one she had ever made. Now, Casey should say so. She was really annoyed.

Seeing that Annabel was about to lose her temper, Casey hurriedly said, "In fact, it smells good. I'll try it now."

He took a sip with a spoon, after which he frowned slightly. However, he forced himself to swallow it.

"It's not bad. It's not bad." Casey said with a smile.

"Really?" Annabel became less angry.

Casey nodded with his eyes narrowed.

"Then, eat all of it. There's more of it in the kitchen. It's all yours." Annabel said with a happy expression.

Casey was instantly froze, standing there motionless like a statue.

Right at this moment, the door was opened. Christine came in with a dark face. She even slammed the door.

Seeing that Casey and Annabel were in the living room, she just greeted Annabel, after which she was going to go back to her room.

Casey took this opportunity to hurriedly put the bowl down, approached Annabel and asked, "What's the matter with her?"

Annabel shook her head and said, "It seems that she's very unhappy. She may have some difficulties."

After saying that, she came close to Christine and asked, "Christine, what's wrong with you?"

"Annabel, I'm fine. I'll feel better by simply staying alone for a while."

Christine said. Then, she turned around and entered her room.

Annabel shrugged helplessly, indicating that she didn't know what had happened to Christine.

About half an hour later, Christine came out of her room. Annabel hurriedly approached her and asked patiently what had happened.

At first, Christine was unwilling to tell Annabel. After Annabel tried hard to persuade her, Christine finally told her what had happened.

Today, when Christine hung out with her friends, she was taunted by a few classmates who she didn't get along well with at ordinary times. The clothes she wore were bought two years ago and had faded due to frequent washing. Besides, the buttons would easily come off.

Today, Christine's garment was caught on something. Then, the button on it fell off, because of which Christine was unable to button the garment. As a result, she was very embarrassed.

In Christine's home, Herman and Bonnie could only make some money by going sea fishing together. In the recent years, people would be disturbed while fishing. Therefore, Herman and Bonnie could make only a small income.

Many students knew something about Christine's family. Most of them were thoughtful and therefore wouldn't deliberately mention it. However, there would always be someone who were from rich families and meanwhile looked down upon others.

Today, Christine was laughed at by them, so she was so angry.

Hearing that, Casey immediately said, "Annabel happens to want to go shopping. What about going shopping with us tomorrow? We can buy you some clothes. Your classmates are not thoughtful. Don't take their words seriously."

Christine gave Casey a glance and said, "It's easy for you to say. The money my parents make a month is only enough for our living expenses and my tuition. They have no money to buy new clothes for me. Besides, the clothes are all expensive."

"Don't worry about that. I'll pay for it."

Casey said with a smile, "These days, you've helped me a lot. I should buy you some new clothes."

Christine immediately looked at Casey with suspicion, then glared at him with blame in her eyes, and said, "Hey, can you not bring trouble on Annabel? Do you know that Annabel gets the living expenses by selling her jewelry? You're not wealthier than us. How can you casually say those words? When you pay for my new clothes, you're using Annabel's money. In this case, I don't want new clothes at all."

Casey didn't know what to say. It seemed that Christine had a deep prejudice against him.

Seeing that Christine spoke for her, Annabel couldn't help smiling and said, "Christine, even if we're not going to buy clothes, we can go for a walk. I happen to want to go to the shopping mall. Just have fun. How about that?"

Christine immediately smiled at Annabel and said, "Great. If we just have a walk there, it's ok. Annabel, you are so nice and are different from a bad man who can only tell lies."

Casey was a little speechless. He had never told lies. Besides, he was so faithful to his wife. Why was he called a bad man?

"By the way, today, I just learned to cook edible bird's nest porridge. I cooked some. I feel that it's not bad. Would you like to have a try?" Annabel said with a smile.

"Yes, of course. I heard that it takes a lot of money to buy bird's nest. Annabel, save some money in the future. After all, you have to support a bad man."

Christine spoke.

"Oh, it doesn't matter. What matters most is that I cook well. Come and have a try." Annabel took the bowl of edible bird's nest porridge over with an excited expression.

Seeing that, Casey coughed lightly and hurriedly came back to the room. He was afraid that he would be forced to eat the pot of bird's nest porridge in the kitchen.

About ten minutes later, Christine helplessly looked at the pot of bird's nest porridge with a somewhat pale face.

Just now, she had forced herself to eat that bowl of bird's nest porridge.

She didn't want to disappoint Annabel, so she said that it tasted good.

"Christine, since you find it delicious, eat this pot of nest's porridge. I'm not going to allow Casey eat it anymore. Quick.

Otherwise, it'll get cold." Being praised by Christine, Annabel had been very confident.

Christine wore a bitter smile. She thought that she shouldn't agree to try the bird's nest porridge Annabel made. On the next morning.

Casey, Edith and Christine were standing at the gate of Qiansheng Mall. Christine looked at this large building with curiosity in her eyes, feeling a little excited. She passed by this place several times when she was a child, but she had never gone in.

At that time, her parents told her that the goods there were very expensive and that they couldn't afford to buy them.

Therefore, Christine never dared to enter this place.

In her opinion, if Casey and Annabel didn't offer to take her to have fun here, she wouldn't enter this mall before she worked and had some money.

"Come on, let's go shopping. If you want anything, tell me. You can take anything you want in this mall. I'm absolutely serious." Casey said with a smile.

Christine rolled her eyes and spoke, "You talk as if you were the boss of this mall. You've got some nerve."

"In fact, I'm really the boss of this shopping mall." Casey said.

"Who would believe you? Annabel, let's go. Just let him stay here and dream."

Christine took Annabel's hand and went towards the mall.

Casey helplessly smiled and hurriedly caught up with them.

They wandered on the first floor of the shopping mall. Christine looked here and there with an excited expression.

Her curiosity was greatly gratified.

Then, they went to the second floor.

Looking at all kinds of beautiful clothes, Christine was suddenly a little sad.

When they came to a shop selling designer clothes, Christine saw a garment and thought that it looked very pretty. She liked it very much.

"If you like it, go to try it on." Annabel said with a smile.

"Can I?" Christine hesitated.

"Yes, of course. You don't need to pay for trying it on." Annabel pulled Christine into the shop and took that garment.

Right at this moment, someone said in a mocking voice, "Oh, isn't that Christine, the ugly duckling? Unexpectedly, you should dare to come to this place. Why? Do you even want to try on clothes? You had better put it down. It's a shop selling designer clothes. If you smudge it, you can't afford to pay for it!"

Chapter 638 Get One Piece of Clothing of Every Style

Casey, Annabel and Christine all turned their heads to look at the person who spoke just now. A boy and a girl dressed in fashionable clothes were standing there. They were about the same age as Christine.

Previously, Christine was itching to try this garment on. Seeing them, she was immediately a little gloomy. Then, she put that garment back and spoke to Casey and Annabel, "Let's go."

"He, he. Unexpectedly, you have a temper. Being just rebuked by me, you dare not try it on. Living in poverty is really too bad." That girl surly while she said so.

Both this boy and this girl were Christine's classmates. Yesterday, it was them that took the lead in mocking Christine, because of which Christine lost face and angrily went home.

The boy was called Luke. His parents were senior executives of a company in Q City. Among his peers, he could be said to be from a well-off family. The girl was named Amaya. She was also from a well-to-do family.

Christine studied well in school and always finished top in exams. Amaya tried her best, but she was still an average student even in the class. She was very unhappy because of it.

Therefore, at ordinary times, Amaya liked to talk about Christine's family in the presence of their classmates in an attempt to feel better by belittling Christine.

Luke was Amaya's boyfriend. He would certainly not be nice to someone his girlfriend disliked, so he often taunted Christine with Amaya.

The relation between Christine and them was strained. However, they were both from rich families. If she conflicted with them, the staff of school would definitely help them. Considering all that, Christine endured their offense. Today, she just came here to have fun with Casey and Annabel. Unexpectedly, they should meet Luke and Amaya here. She felt that she was indeed too unlucky.

Casey and Annabel gave each other a glance. Both of them were not going to leave.

Annabel pulled Christine back and said, "You haven't tried on the garment yet. Don't leave here. If you like it, we'll buy it for you."

Amaya immediately sneered and taunted, "If I'm not wrong, you two should be her relatives. We know something about Christine's family. And I have never heard that she has any rich relatives. Do you know how much the garment you take fancy to costs? It costs more than 4000 dollars! Can you afford to buy it?"

At this time, Luke was also looking at Annabel. However, he was attracted by her beauty and forgot to laugh at Christine with Amaya.

Hearing the price of the garment, Christine's expression changed. Her parents could only earn 4000 dollars a month. Unexpectedly, such a garment should be so expensive. Because of it, she became more afraid of trying it on and just wanted to leave here as soon as possible.

"Annabel, let's go. It's too expensive. I don't want to try it on anymore."

Christine said with some panic.

Seeing that Christine was so embarrassed, Amaya became proud and said, "I know it. How is it possible for you, a poor girl, can afford to buy a garment that costs more than 4000 dollars? Don't come to such a place often in the future. After all, you can't afford to buy the goods here."

Casey gave Amaya a glance and then spoke to Christine, "It just costs more than 4000 dollars. It's just a little more expensive than common clothes and can't be said to be a very fine garment. Try it on, and I'll pay for it later."

Both Luke and Amaya looked at Casey. Casey looked really too common, so they just ignored him just now.

Luke felt that Casey was very close to Annabel and was a little unhappy because of it. This guy looked so common, but he could be with such a beauty. It was unreasonable!

He immediately spoke, "Oh, oh, oh. Listen. It just costs more than 4000 dollars. Look at the clothes you're wearing. I can tell at one glance that you clothes are bought in a stand at the roadside and are worth only dozens of dollars. You can't be pretentious without money. You're so poor, but you pretend to be rich. It's the first time for me to see someone like you."

Hearing that, Amaya also said,

"Christine, look at your relative. He wears cheap clothes, but he should try to pretend to be rich. Birds of a feather flock together. In my opinion, your family members are all poor, but like to pretend to be rich."

Christine's face burned. She gave Casey a glance with some blame in her eyes and said, "Well, don't muddy the waters now. I know that you want to win my dignity back. However, the money belongs to both you and Annabel. I don't want you and Annabel to waste money because of it."

Casey was helpless. He didn't know how to explain to Christine, so he looked at Annabel, indicating her to help him. Annabel immediately spoke to Christine with a smile, "Christine, believe him. Casey's very rich. He could even afford to buy this shop, not to mention a garment."

Christine widened her eyes in disbelief. It wasn't that she was unwilling to believe it. In fact, it was beyond her imagination, so she dared not to believe it.

Luke and Amaya twitched their lips. In their opinion, it was ridiculous for Casey and Annabel to echo and support each other.

"You had better go away now. If you continue to stand here and brag, the staff would soon drive you out." Luke taunted.

Casey ignored them, asking the shop assistant to come over. He pointed at Christine and asked, "Is it her size?"

"Yes, it seems to be her size." The shop assistant replied.

"Well, get one piece of clothing of every style in your shop in this size and pack them up for me." Casey said.

The shop assistant thought that she had misheard and widened her eyes in surprise, "Get one piece of clothing of every style. Did I mishear?"

"No." Casey replied.

The shop assistant was immediately happy. Today, she hadn't sold one piece of clothes yet. Unexpectedly, she now had a big customer.

"Yes. Please wait a moment. I'll go to pack them up for you now." The shop assistant turned excitedly.

At this moment, Luke, who was watching, spoke at once, "Don't listen to him. He's bragging. He's a relative of this poor girl. He has no money at all. He's just pretending to be rich in the presence of us. Later, if he has no money to pay after you pack the clothes up, your effort will be wasted."

Hearing that, the shop assistant hesitated at once. She looked at Casey up and down. Finding that the clothes he was wearing were really not expensive, she asked tentatively, "Sir, what about paying me now? It'll make packing clothes up easier."

Casey didn't mind. He turned his head, gave Annabel a glance and said, "Take out that gold card."

Annabel was immediately a little embarrassed and said,

"Yesterday...Yesterday, you didn't go shopping with me. So I threw that card away in a fit of temper."

Casey didn't know how to react. He had thought that they could take anything they wanted in the shopping mall with Annabel's gold card.

There was an awkward atmosphere at once. Christine was so embarrassed that she wanted to disappear from this place.

Both Luke and Amaya laughed. They thought that it was very ridiculous.

"See? They've begun to act. Throw away some gold card? I'm afraid that they don't have it at all. Are they going to say that they will come to buy clothes on another day because they lost their card?" Luke taunted.

The shop assistant began to look at Casey in an impatient way and asked, "Will you on earth buy it or not?"

Casey turned his head and handed his bank card to her.

Chapter 639 Held Her Head High

"Humph, didn't you say that you have a gold card? Why did you take out an ordinary bank card? Just now, you asked her to pack one piece of clothing of every style in the shop. I'm afraid that you'll have to pay more than 100000 dollars. I don't believe that there is so much money in your card." Amaya said with disdain.

Seeing everything, Christine was afraid that they would be driven out after it was found that there was not so much money in Casey's card. She had strong self-esteem and naturally couldn't stand it.

Therefore, she spoke to Annabel, "Annabel, let it go. Don't make it worse. It'll be difficult to end it later."

Annabel comforted Christine, "Don't worry, Christine. The gold card Casey mentioned was indeed thrown away by me. But there's much more money in this card. You won't lose face."

Not knowing what to say, Christine sighed helplessly.

The shop assistant gave the bank card held by Casey a glance and asked, "Are you sure that there is enough money in this bank card?"

"You'll know after you swipe it." Casey spoke with a smile.

The shop assistant didn't say anything. She just took the bank card and went to the counter to reckon up the cost.

"I'll see what excuse you can find after it's found that there is not enough money in your bank card." Luke sneered.

Casey didn't say anything to him. Instead, he looked at Annabel and said, "Why did you throw that card? Even if you don't want it, you can give it to Christine."

Annabel was immediately somewhat ashamed and said in a low voice, "I was angry at that time. Besides, I didn't attach any importance to that card."

Casey smiled helplessly and didn't say anything more. Considering Annabel's habit, it was normal for her not to attach any importance to a gold cards of a shopping mall.

Soon, the shop assistant had added up all the money and asked Casey to enter the password.

Casey went to the counter and then entered the password. Seeing that Casey paid successfully, the shop assistant's eyes lit up in an instant.

"Sir...Sir, the payment has been made and I'll go to pack up clothes for you now. I'm sorry for having been rude to you before." The shop assistant spoke in a gentle, submissive and respectful manner, totally different from that of before.

"What? Did you say that he successfully paid? How is that possible?" Luke's and Amaya's eyes were wide open.

The shop assistant glanced at them and said coldly, "Please be respectful to our distinguished guests. Otherwise, I'll have to drive you out."

Luke and Amaya were immediately shocked. It seemed that Casey had really made the payment successfully. Christine was dumbfounded. In her anticipation, this shop assistant would be angry with them after finding that there was no money in Casey's card and then asked the security guards to drive them out. What happened just now was totally different from what she had anticipated.

Annabel winked at Christine and said with a smile, "I didn't lie to you, right?" Christine nodded like a robot and asked, "Then...Then how much money does he pay?"

"This gentleman spends 178300 dollars in our shop. We'll offer free home delivery service. May I ask if you need this service?" The shop assistant spoke. Casey certainly didn't want to go shopping with many bags, so he told the shop assistant the address of Christine's home.

"Are you kidding me? He spends more than 170000 dollars on buying clothes alone? Christine, are you sure that your relative didn't steal the bank card from someone else?" Amaya said. She couldn't accept it.

"Amaya, don't go too far. If it was a bank card stolen from others, how can he know the password?" Christine finally had some confidence and shouted at Amaya.

Seeing that, that shop assistant immediately approached Amaya and Luke and spoke in a stern voice, "You've stayed in our shop for a long time. You not only didn't buy any clothes, but also slandered our distinguished guests. Go out now, please. Otherwise I'll ask the security guards to come here!"

Luke's and Amaya's faces were immediately dark. It never occurred to them that it would finally be them that were driven out.

"You!" Amaya was angry and was going to quarrel with the shop assistant. Luke hurriedly pulled her clothes. They were in Qiansheng Mall now. If they made trouble here, they would finally be the one who suffered losses.

"Well, let's go. Who knows how he got the money? Don't stoop to their level." After that, Luke pulled Amaya out of the shop ignominiously.

For the first time, Christine felt that she had vented the anger. Watching Luke and Amaya leave ignominiously, she was much relieved.

Then, she turned her head, looked at Annabel and Casey and couldn't help shedding her tears.

"Annabel, Casey, thank you."

Since she was in school, she had been looked down upon by Amaya. Whenever Amaya found a chance, Amaya would laugh at her in the presence of all the classmates, making her lose face.

She was from a poor family. Worrying that she would be in trouble, she had to endure it. It lasted for a long time. Now, she could finally hold her head high in front of Amaya. After venting her grievance, she could no longer stop herself from shedding her tears.

Annabel patted Christine on the back with a smile and said, "Well, don't cry. Having bought new clothes, you should be happy."

Christine took a deep breath and tried hard not to cry. Then, she looked at Casey and said apologetically, "Casey, I...I unjustly blamed you. Will you be angry with me?"

"No, I won't. Quick, wipe your tears. We'll go on shopping." Casey said with a smile.

Christine seriously nodded and wiped her tears with her hands.

After coming out of the shop, both Luke and Amaya wore a dark look on their faces. Today, they had intended to embarrass Christine. Unexpectedly, it were them that lost face.

Spending more than 170000 dollars on buying clothes was something beyond their imagination.

However, Christine, who they considered to be an ugly duckling, was the heroine of such an event.

"It pisses me off! How triumphant Christine is! Does she really believe that she becomes a person just after she buys a few clothes? How did that man get so much money? He wears clothes that are so cheap, but he should have hundreds of thousands dollars!" Amaya said angrily.

"Maybe he spends all his savings to pretend to be rich. Anyway, I don't believe that he is rich." Luke said.

"No, I can't let it go. I must find a way to take revenge on them. I'm angry when I saw Christine being triumphant." Amaya gritted her teeth.

Luke rolled his eyes, put on an evil smile and spoke, "As a matter of fact, I've got a plan to take revenge on them. That's why I asked you to come out. My aunt runs a jewelry shop here. When they leave here, they'll certainly pass by my aunt's shop. Let's go to my aunt's shop now. When they leave this mall, we'll teach them a lesson!"

Amaya's eyes lit up and then also put on an evil smile. They walked towards the jewelry shop.

Chapter 640 I Am the Boss of This Shopping Mall

After buying new clothes for Christine, Casey and Annabel took Christine to other shops to buy new pants and shoes for her. Then, they selected a suit of clothes and asked Christine to put them on. After that, they directly threw away the old clothes.

Annabel suddenly had an idea. She went to buy a set of cosmetics in the cosmetics area and made Christine up. Wearing a makeup and wearing new clothes she had just bought, Christine became a beautiful girl with outstanding temperament.

Looking in the mirror, Christine thought that she was completely different from what she used to be in the past. She even doubted whether the person she saw in the mirror was herself or not. Was I really so pretty? She wondered. In Annabel's opinion, Christine was young and was at her most beautiful time in her life. She thought that Christine should dress up. Therefore, she asked Casey to buy many cosmetics for Christine, saying that she would teach Christine how to wear makeup later.

Christine had never gone on shopping spree. Casey and Annabel spent money like waters. When they found something good, they would buy it without hesitation. Watching that, Christine even thought that she was in a dream.

The money Casey spent was beyond her imagination, so she tried to stop Casey several times. However, both Casey and Annabel considered that to be a small sum of money and therefore didn't listen to her.

When they stopped buying things, it was almost noon. Casey took Annabel and Christine to have lunch in the best restaurant in the mall. Christine was satisfied after the big meal.

After lunch, they went to a Game Center where Casey got a lot of dolls for Annabel and Christine with great skill. Both Annabel and Christine were very happy.

Since Christine was a child, she had never been so happy. Being grateful to Casey and Annabel, she thought that she must work hard and repay them in the future.

After idling away in seeking pleasure, they were all tired. So they were going to go home and walked all the way to the door of the shopping mall.

There were many jewelry shops along the access to the door of the shopping mall. When customers came in and out of the shopping mall, they would all pass by these shop. Such an arrangement was made to make more people see those jewelry shops.

Generally speaking, people who were going to leave the shopping mall would more or less take a look at the jewelry. Casey, Annabel and Christine walked towards the door. Annabel curiously looked at the jewelry in the shops. In her opinion, the jewelry here was too showy and didn't match her.

And Christine just thought that these pieces of jewelry were expensive.

When they were walking slowly, a middle-aged woman in a uniform of the shopping mall pretended to approach them by accident. Then she deliberately bumped into Christine.

Christine hurriedly apologized to her. The middle-aged woman stared angrily at Christine and shouted, "You're a thief! Give the gold necklace back to me now! You're so bold that you should dare to steal something in my shop! I saw it!" Christine was immediately stunned. She didn't expect that this middle-aged woman would suddenly speak something like that.

"I...I didn't..."

"You did. I saw it. Give the gold necklace to me now. It's a necklace made of gold worthy of a hundred thousand dollars. Don't try to leave here with it." The middle-aged woman spoke threateningly.

She was exactly Luke's aunt. Before, Luke and Amaya had a discussion with her. They planned to force Casey, Annabel and Christine to give them a large sum of money and then divided it up.

Luke told his aunt that Christine and her relatives were poor people and had no powerful connections. He also said that Casey should have quite a lot of money in hand. In his opinion, as long as his aunt insisted that Christine had stolen a gold necklace from her shop and that she wouldn't let them go away before they compensated her, the security guards of the shopping mall would definitely speak for her. Besides, only the boss of the shopping mall had the right to watch the surveillance video. Finally, when Christine and her relatives failed to explain well, they could only give money to her.

Casey glanced at the middle-aged woman and spoke, "Just now, it was you that ran into her. Why did you claim that she had stolen your necklace?"

"I was hold that necklace just now. After she bumped into me, the necklace was gone. She must have deliberately bumped into me and then stolen my necklace!" The middle-aged woman spoke.

At this moment, many people gathered around them. Luke and Amaya were looking happily at Casey, Annabel and Christine in the crowd.

"Christine, it never occurs to me that you would steal things from others! I was wondering how you got the money to buy so many clothes. It turns out that you got the money by stealing!" Amaya shouted.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this girl is our classmate. She's from a poor family. However, just now, they bought clothes worthy of more than 170000 dollars in total here at a time. I was wondering why they would have so much money. Now, it seems that the money was stolen from others." Luke tried to make the crowd angry.

The middle-aged woman acted as if she had suffered great grievance at once and shouted, "Help me, please. Just now, this girl found that I was holding a gold necklace. Then, she deliberately ran into me and then took the opportunity to steal the gold necklace from me. Now, she refuses to admit that. I just run a small shop. If I lose a hold necklace, a year's hard work will be in vain!"

People around began to blame Casey, Annabel and Christine. Many of them also said that they should ask the security guards to catch them.

When Casey heard the voice of Luke and Amaya, he had understood what was going on.

He sneered, looked at the middle-aged woman and questioned, "You claim that she has stolen your necklace. Do you have any evidence?"

"The necklace I was holding was gone. Isn't that the best evidence? Moreover, you must be persistent thieves. How is it possible for you to leave evidence behind?" The middle-aged woman spoke.

Casey pointed at a camera that was not far away and said, "There's a camera. We can watch the surveillance video. Then, we'll know if your necklace was stolen by us."

The middle-aged woman had anticipated that they would demand to watch the surveillance video. And she had already thought of a way to deal with it.

"Ladies and gentlemen, you should know that only the boss of this mall has the right to watch surveillance video. They must know that, because they would definitely be well prepared before stealing my necklace. The boss of this mall would definitely not come here in person just because of this trivial matter. Moreover, I might even be driven out of this shopping mall because of this matter."

"You've heard before that they are from very poor families and that they spent more than 170000 dollars on buying clothes at one time. How did they get those money? I can't think of any other way but stealing. Besides, aren't they trying to run out of stolen money by spending so much money at one time?"

"Now, even if they give a gold necklace back to me, I'm not sure that it's real. Therefore, I only want them to give me money."

Then, the middle-aged woman looked at Casey with a pleading expression and said, "Show me some mercy, please. I have kids to support. However, now that you stole my necklace, I'm willing to let you get some benefit. My necklace is worthy of a hundred thousand dollars. You can just give me 80 thousand dollars. As for the rest 20 thousand dollars, you can keep it as the protection money I give you."

People around all considered what she said to be reasonable. Besides, Luke and Amaya kept heckling. Under this circumstance, people around all asked Casey, Annabel and Christine to give money to the middle-aged woman. Christine was in a panic and didn't know how to deal with it at all.

Annabel had never met such an unreasonable person before. If there was someone who tried to blackmail her, people of the Thompson family would deal with that person. Therefore, she also didn't know what to do.

Both of them looked at Casey. Now, Casey was the only who could deal with this matter.

Casey wore a calm expression. He was even smiling. Having lived among people of underclass, he had seen many such things. He could easily understand what such a person wanted to do.

Hearing that people around asked them to give the middle-aged woman money, Casey clapped his hands a few times for silence.

"Fella, please. It's you three that stole my necklace. I know that, even if I haven't watched the surveillance video yet. Give me the money." The middle-aged woman spoke pitifully. Casey smiled and said,

"We must of course watch the surveillance video. Otherwise, how can we prove that we're innocent? Besides, you don't have to be worried that it will be troublesome to watch the surveillance video. You also don't have to worry that the boss of this shopping mall will drive you out. Of course, the premise is that you didn't lie. That's because...I'm the boss of this shopping mall!"

Chapter 641 Truly Elegant People Were Naturally Graceful

Hearing that, people around were all shocked. To their surprise, this young man, who seemed to be a common people, should claim that he was the boss of Qiansheng Mall.

The middle-aged woman was stunned for a while. She had never anticipated that Casey would say something like that. In her opinion, Casey should just try his best to explain and then she could force them three to give her money with the help from people around.

Both Luke and Amaya looked at Casey as if they were looking at an idiot. In their opinion, it was very stupid of Casey to say something like that.

"He claimed himself to be the boss of Qiansheng Mall? Then, I can also claim myself to be the supplier of all the shopping malls in Q City. Now people dare to casually brag. He must have considered us to be fools." Luke shouted.

People around nodded. It was known to most people in Q City that the boss of Qiansheng Mall was Mitchell. There weren't many people who had seen Mitchell, but everyone knew that Mitchell was a middle-aged man. The son of Mitchell was more than twenty years old now. How was it possible that this young man, who seemed to be only twenty-five or twenty-six years old, was Mitchell? Christine was also astonished. She really didn't expect that Casey would try to deal with this matter by claiming himself to be the boss of Qiansheng Mall.

"Fella, don't try to fool us. Do you think it possible that I don't know who the boss of this mall is? Besides, I've seen him before. I work here. How dare you say something like that in the presence of me? Could it be that you really consider us to be fools?" The middle-aged woman spoke while staring at Casey.

"Mitchell transferred this shopping mall to me yesterday. It's normal that you don't know that." Casey said.

The middle-aged woman laughed and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, now, not only do I suspect that he steals things, but I suspect that he has just fled the mental hospital. Listen to what he said. It seems that he had just made it up."

"Stop pretending to be innocent.

Hurriedly give her the money. If you continue to waste time, the security guards will take some action." Luke shouted.

"Yes. Unexpectedly, this fella should have mental illness. He should brag that he's the boss of Qiansheng Mall. You two are but poor relatives of Christine, a poor girl. Don't brag in this place."

Amaya also spoke.

Seeing that no one believed him, Casey shook his head and made a phone call to Reynolds, asking him to come here in five minutes.

"It doesn't matter that you don't know me. You should know Reynolds, right?" Being afraid that the middle-aged woman even didn't know who Reynolds was and that there would be other problem, Casey asked.

The middle-aged woman twitched her lips and said, "I certainly know Reynolds. Why, do you want to frighten me in the name of Manager Reynolds? Listen. There are many people who know Manager Reynolds's name. It's useless for you to mention his name." Casey smiled and said, "I'm glad that you know who he is."

About five minutes later, they were still in a stalemate. The middle-aged woman asked Casey to give her the money as soon as possible. Before, she acted as if she had suffered great grievance. Now, she just acted as a shrew.

Christine was very worried. She was very afraid that Casey was just bragging just now and that he would be unable to explain the matter clearly in the end. It would be very embarrassing.

Right at this moment, someone rushed to this place hurriedly. It was exactly Reynolds who had received a phone call from Casey.

He cut through the crowd. When he saw that the middle-aged woman was swearing at Casey, his face became immediately extremely dark.

He approached the middle-aged woman, glared at her and shouted, "Shut up, now! Aren't you ashamed?"

Seeing Reynolds, the middle-aged woman was shocked. After some thought, she said with an aggrieved expression, "Manager Reynolds, you've come just at the right moment. They three shameless guys stole one of my necklace worthy of a hundred thousand dollars. They refused to give it back to me. Besides, this guy should claim himself to be the boss of this shopping mall. How dares he! Help me, please!" Reynolds was furious. In his opinion, the middle-aged woman was riding the tiger. "How dare you! He's indeed the boss of Qiansheng Mall. How is it possible that he would steal your necklace? You've designed it, right?" Reynolds thundered. The middle-aged woman was stunned at once. She didn't anticipate that the general manager of Qiansheng Mall would admit that Casey was the boss of this shopping mall.

She was not the only one who didn't foresee that things would turn out this way. Lookers-on were also dumbfounded.

Reynolds hurriedly turned his head, looked at Casey and bowed to him, "Mr. Davies, I'm sorry for not coming in time. Letting you get into such a trouble, I fail in my duty."

The middle-aged woman was immediately afraid and asked in a trembling voice, "Does...Does Qiansheng Mall has a new boss? Why am I not informed?"

Reynolds turned his head, glanced at her and spoke, "Who are you? Do I have to specially inform you of such a big event?"

The middle-aged woman trembled all over violently. She couldn't believe that there would be such a dramatic turnaround.

It was even more difficult for Luke and Amaya to believe that the people who went shopping with Christine was really the boss of this shopping mall!

Casey told Reynolds what had just happened and asked Reynolds to watch the surveillance video. Reynolds turned his head, looked at the middle-aged woman and spoke coldly, "Are you going to admit that you have lied? If not, I'll go to watch the surveillance video. If I found that you had lied after I watched the surveillance video, I would have the right to call the police to arrest you! You're blackmailing!"

The middle-aged woman was so scared that she sat on the ground and begged for mercy tearfully, "Manager Reynolds, I know that I'm wrong. It's my nephew that incited me to do it. He told me that these three people have no powerful connections and that it's easy to get money from them. I only do such a wrong thing because I listen to him!" After saying that, she turned her head and looked at Luke who was in the crowd.

Luke was so frightened that he immediately turned around and ran away. Amaya dared not to stay here any longer and also ran away.

"You bastard! You've really got me into great trouble! Stop!"

The middle-aged woman chased Luke soon after she got up. Soon, the shopping mall was in a chaos.

After knowing that Casey, Annabel and Christine were wronged, people around all felt guilty. Meanwhile, they began to blame the middle-aged woman, Luke and Amaya.

"Mr. Davies, shall I ask the security guards to catch them?" Reynolds looked at Casey.

Casey shook his head and spoke, "You don't have to. After all, we have made things clear. By the way, that middle-aged woman is not a good person. Don't let her stay here."

Reynolds understood what Casey was saying, and said at once, "I know what to do."

Seeing that Casey determined the future of a person so easily, Christine was shocked.

At this point, she finally understood why Annabel would make so much effort to approach Casey who seemed to be so common.

At the same time, she remembered a few words she saw in a book:

Only great heroes could maintain their good qualities; truly elegant people were naturally graceful.

Chapter 642 Leaving

On the way back, Christine's gaze never looked away from Casey.

This man, in her mind, had become an indomitable giant.

Annabel noticed Christine's gaze, and there was a hint of worry in her heart.

Could it be that she would have another rival in love?

"Casey, Annabel, who...who are you?"

Qiansheng Mall has always been a landmark in our city, but you actually bought it without hesitation." After a long time, Christine finally asked her question.

Casey smiled at Christine and said, "We're the one who is in trouble."

Annabel reached out and touched Christine's head and said, "Christine, our identities are a bit special. It's no good for you to know it. You can just treat us as your friends. When you have some achievements in the future, you will know who we are. ."

Christine nodded. She knew that she was not qualified to know the identities of Casey and Annabel.

But it was not important, she just needed to know that Casey and Annabel were very good to her.

Back home, both Herman and Bonnie greeted them with worried looks. Bonnie grabbed Christine's hand and asked, "Christine, are you doing something illegal outside? Why do so many people come to our house today to send things to you?"

"I have seen all those things. They seem to be very expensive. Especially those clothes, they are all famous brands. Where did you get the money to buy so many things?"

While speaking, Bonnie pointed at the clothes, pants, shoes and other various things that were piled up not far away.

Annabel explained immediately, "Bonnie, we bought these things for Christine. Today, we just ran into a big sale. The store couldn't go on anymore. Everything was sold at a discount. Goods in that store were very cheap so we bought a lot. The total is only a few thousand dollars."

When they were in the mall, they told the shop assistants to remove the labels when they delivered the goods. They were afraid that Herman and Bonnie would be scared when they saw the price.

Bonnie was relieved when she heard that it only cost a few thousand dollars, but she was still a little embarrassed and said, "You are so generous! How could Christine need so many things? I will give you the money later."

"No, you have helped us a lot during this period. This is our gift of thanks," Annabel squinted and said.

Bonnie persuaded a few more words, but seeing Annabel's resolute attitude, she had no choice but to agree.

Only Christine knew that they could not afford the things piled up in the corner even if they had worked hard for ten years.

In the evening, while Annabel was taking a shower, Christine came to Casey with a hint of curiosity on her face.

"Casey, I misunderstood you before. I thought Annabel was so beautiful but you were still cold to her, saying that you are a scumbag. Today I know that you are so powerful. No wonder Annabel likes you so much. But I want to know why you still reject her as she has paid so much for you?"

Hearing Christine's question, Casey laughed and said that he was married and that Annabel could only be regarded as his ordinary friend.

"I only have my wife in my heart.

Naturally, it is impossible for me to have anything to do with her. She treats me well, and I will remember her kindness to me, and repay her twice in the future. As for her feelings, I can only stay away," Casey said.

It suddenly dawned on Christine that there was such a reason.

"Your adults' world is really complicated. But according to me, it is fine that a successful man has a few more women with him. After all, outstanding men always attract the attention of girls."

Christine smiled.

Casey rolled at her and said, "You are too young. Hurry up and go to bed."

Christine stuck her tongue out at Casey, then quickly got up and went back to the room.

Casey sighed helplessly and glanced in the direction of the bathroom. There was a touch of complexity in his eyes, and others didn't know what he was thinking about.

In the rest of the time, Casey had been reassuring and healing and kept in touch with Edith during this period to ensure that there were no major problems with the Davies family.

Annabel, as always, tried all kinds of ways to attract Casey's attention. One of the things Casey feared most was Annabel's cooking,. If he had not recovered from his injury, he might have been poisoned by Annabel's cook before he died from the serious injury.

After going through the mall, Luke and Amaya never dared to make trouble for Christine anymore, and Luke's aunt went to Luke's house to have a fight, causing Luke to take the worst beating in history. Thus, he stayed in hospital for a few days..

Christine also became more confident under Annabel's enlightenment, and had more friends in school.

Another week passed, and Casey's injuries had healed. He solemnly said goodbye to the Christine family and told them not to tell others about them, and then embarked on the journey to find Casey's master.

After Christine and her family sent Casey and Annabel away, they returned home all the way.

At this time, there was already a man in a suit standing at their door, smiling.

This person was Reynolds, the general manager of Qiansheng Mall.

After seeing Reynolds, both Herman and Bonnie were a little confused, but Christine was a little surprised because she knew that this person was the general manager of Qiansheng Mall.

"Excuse me, who are you?" Herman stepped forward and asked politely.

Reynolds smiled at the three people and said, "I am the general manager of Qiansheng Mall. I took the liberty to come here this time to announce a piece of good news to you."

"What's the good news?" They were taken aback.

Reynolds took out an agreement and a gold card from his arms and said, "Your daughter, Miss Christine, was slandered in our mall some time ago. We did not make compensation in time. We just have just set up a scholarship in our shopping mall to support those students with excellent academic performance. We investigated Miss Christine's academic performance and found that she meets the requirements of our scholarship."

"So I am here to give Miss Christine a scholarship this time. This is a scholarship agreement. As long as she signs it, she can get a scholarship of one million dollars. The gold card of this card is our mall's compensation for Miss Christine. With this card, you can take things from Qiansheng Mall at will, without spending a penny."

After hearing what Reynolds said, they were stunned. Herman and Bonnie were shocked, while Christine was excited, and tears couldn't help streaming down. She knew that this was especially given to their family by Casey and Annabel. Scholarships and compensation were just excuses.

"Casey, Annabel, rest assured, I will study hard and repay your kindness in the future!"

What even Christine didn't know was that what Casey left to Christine was not one million plus one card, but the entire Qiansheng Mall.

It's just that the agreement wouldn't take effect until Christine graduated from university. At that time, Reynolds would help her with everything.

Casey did so because he was also worried that Christine would slack off because of the mall.

Chapter 643 The Master Will Not See You

On the edge of a small town in the south, on a crooked, one-person wide road, Casey and Annabel were walking slowly forward.

Annabel was a little bit resentful at this time. Looking at Casey who kept moving in front of her, she kept moving her lips and muttering.

After leaving Q City, they moved all the way, taking various means of transportation, to the edge of this small town.

As a girl who had never taken any transportation except private cars and special planes, Annabel had really experienced the way of ordinary people traveled this time.

From slow trains to buses to shared bicycles, and even the tractors that they took when they came to this town, Annabel really opened her eyes up.

At the same time, she also tasted what it was like to be on a journey that she had never experienced before. So far, Annabel had had several blisters on her feet, and they had to climb over two mountains to reach the place Casey talked about, which made her feel desperate.

"Why does your hateful master give up the good modern convenient life and go to the deep mountains and forests. I'm almost exhausted, I don't want to walk!" Annabel stopped and shouted at Casey. Casey turned his head and glanced at her, and said, "My master likes to be quiet. People who reached his level have been out of relationship with life. And he doesn't like being disturbed, so he came to this hidden forest."

"It is already the bottom line that I make an exception to bring you to this place. If you can't walk, you can take advantage of the signal here and call the people from the Thompson family and ask them to find you in that small town."

After speaking, Casey continued to walk to the front, not responding to Annabel's complaint at all.

"Asshole, bastard, can't you carry me for a while. You don't have any compassion. I really don't know why Edith loves you."

Annabel murmured angrily, then gritted her teeth and continued to follow.

Near noon, Casey and Annabel finally turned down from a mountain and came to a relatively flat place.

There was a river here, with gurgling water, and towering trees that thrust into the sky around it, and beside the river, there were rows of neatly arranged wooden houses.

This place was inaccessible, and there was absolutely no trace of being developed. It could even be said that ordinary people have no way to find this place. So the sudden appearance of a row of wooden houses by the river was a bit surprising.

Of course, it was Annabel who was surprised, not Casey.

The trees in front of the wooden house had been chopped down, revealing a large open space. Half of the open space had been turned into a vegetable field, and the other half was used to house animals such as pheasants and ducks.

These things added a hint of life in the wilderness.

"Wow, there is actually a vegetable field here. I know that over there, it should be a pheasant, but what is it that is covered with thorns?"

Annabel ran to the front with curiosity.

Seeing these novel things, she had already put her exhaustion behind.

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared and stood in front of Annabel.

"Who are you guys! Why did you find this place?" It was a man of about 20 years old, with sword eyebrows and dark eyes. His skin was swarthy, and he looked very strong.

"Hey, why are you so rude? Why do you suddenly appear in front of us? I am so scared," Annabel said with some dissatisfaction.

The man stared at Annabel and was a little embarrassed. He had been living in the mountains. This was the first time he saw such a beautiful girl. Suddenly, he thought he had seen the fairy.

"Yes... I'm sorry, I didn't mean it," the man replied.

Annabel looked at the boy in a daze, immediately laughed, and said, "Forget it. As you are a honey-tongued, I will forgive you."

Casey stared at the boy four or five years younger than him. He didn't know who he was, but he knew that his master liked to accept apprentices. He hadn't seen his master for so many years. This boy should be the new apprentice of his master.

"Although... although you are beautiful, don't think that I will relax my vigilance. Tell me who you are and why you are here." The boy recovered from Annabel's beauty and was embarrassed. He quickly pretended to be on guard.

Casey stepped forward and said, "I am Casey. Where is the master, I want to see him."

The boy immediately stared at Casey in a somewhat unbelievable manner, and said, "Are you the Casey who refused to listen to Master and insisted on leaving?"

When Casey heard the boy's name for him, some memories came to his mind, and then he said, "yes, it's me."

"How dare you come back! Seniors all said you are a stubborn paranoid. I heard that you were Master's most proud apprentice back then.

Unfortunately, after you learned from Master, you feel that you are invincible. So you didn't listen to Master's dissuasion and ran away. What are you doing back now?" The boy was obviously not kind to Casey.

Casey stared at him and said, "I was a bit naive back then, but I also had a reason to leave. Now I come back to see Master. There are some things that I want to ask him. Please tell me where he is. "

The boy curled his lips and said, "Leave here. Master said he won't see you in this life."

Casey was startled, expression on his face became a little flustered, and he asked, "Is this true?"

"Naturally, it is true. By the way, my name is Dick. I am currently Master's youngest apprentice, and also the most potential one. Casey, you have become a thing of the past. Master doesn't need you anymore, please leave here quickly," Dick said solemnly. Casey only felt that his heart was tight. He never thought that his master would be so angry because of his departure that year that he would not even see him.

After a long time, he sighed weakly, turned to look at Annabel, and said, "Let's go."

Then he turned around to go back the same way.

At this time, Dick rolled his eyes and said, "In fact, it's not impossible if you want to see Master. Do you see the stone over there? Master said, as long as you can lift the stone and hold on until he is willing to see you, he will naturally appear."

Casey glanced in the direction of Dick's finger, and found that it was a huge stone that weighed a thousand pounds and needed two hands to hold it. However, he did not hesitate, nor doubted the truth of Dick's words, and walked straight to the stone.

Dick saw Casey actually going to lift a stone, and he immediately showed a disdainful smile.

"Miss Fairy, don't you think he looks like a fool? He actually wants to lift that stone. It weighs a thousand pounds, how could he..." Dick came to Annabel and mocked Casey.

Before he finished speaking, he saw Casey holding the boulder in his hands, then gritting his teeth and shouting. Then, the stone weighing a thousand pounds was lifted up by him abruptly.

Chapter 644 Master

"This... how is this possible, he actually lifted that stone?" Dick looked at Casey with a look of surprise, a little unbelievable.

Annabel glanced suspiciously at Dick and asked, "Are you sure your master asked him to lift this stone. How do I feel that you are fooling him?"

Dick suddenly felt a little guilty, coughed slightly, and said, "Of course the master said so, why should I fool him."

Annabel still felt that Dick was incredible, walked up to Casey, and said, "Casey, this stone is so heavy, you should put it down quickly, and you will be smashed to death if you can't hold on to it later!"

Casey glanced at her and said, "Since this is my master's request, I will hold it up to the moment he is willing to come out to see me, otherwise I will never let it go!"

Dick laughed and said, "You're so arrogant. It's already very difficult for you to lift this stone. In my opinion, you even can't hold it for five minutes. You will throw this stone down soon."

Annabel turned her head and glared at Dick, and said, "Why are you so mean? No matter what, Casey is your senior, how can you say that to him."

Dick shrugged and said with some disdain, "He is my senior, but so what? He left master in a self righteous way. Now, I'm afraid his strength is not as good as mine. Why should I recognize him as a senior? "

"Well, you are strong, can you lift this stone?" Annabel asked.

"Of course, Miss Fairy, don't underestimate me. Anyway, I am also master's most proud apprentice. Regardless of my age, my strength is stronger than most senior apprentices." Dick immediately said with his head high.

In fact, the reason why Dick was hostile to Casey was precisely because of the title of the most proud apprentice.

Dick's talent was indeed not inferior to Casey back then. After he learned his master, others praised him as master's most proud apprentice. Because of this, he was always compared to Casey at the time. .

Casey was also the master's most proud apprentice back then, and it was natural for him to be compared with him.

Therefore, Dick had always wanted to prove that he was better than Casey, and he wanted to surpass Casey in all aspects.

But no matter how well he did, what he could get was only a compliment from the master, and according to what he learned from his senior apprentices, he knew that when Casey showed his talent, the master had always been very happy.

Moreover, Dick often heard the words "If only Casey hadn't gone" from his master, which made him very upset with this senior apprentice who he had never met.

He thought he could completely replace Casey, but their master didn't think so. His master always seemed to think Casey was unique, and although Dick was talented, he was not that special. He was upset and regarded Casey as an imaginary enemy. In the martial training ground not far away, there was a wooden stake with Casey's name written on it, which was what Dick did. Now that Casey came back, Dick naturally couldn't be kind to Casey. Casey held the boulder in both hands and stood motionless. It was a bit difficult to hold the heavy stone on top of his head, but he had no intention of throwing the stone down. If his master did not show up, he would hold it all the time.

It may be because of this serious injury. After healed, Casey's body strength became more resilient. With the residual effects of the three pills, Casey felt that the limit he could exert was much greater than in the past.

Annabel looked distressed, wiped Casey sweat on the side, and persuaded Casey to give up.

Dick stared at Casey jokingly, thinking that Casey would reach his limit in a short time, and it would be impossible to hold on until their master was here. However, five minutes later, Casey still remained standing motionless, which caused Dick's gaze on Casey to change.

"Hey, if you can't hold it, don't do it, don't suffocate your internal organs by that time, and the gain is not worth the loss," Dick shouted.

Casey ignored him, and then closed his eyes.

Annabel suddenly became anxious, turned to look at the row of wooden houses over there, and then ran over, looking for Casey's master.

However, after looking around, Annabel didn't see anyone, the room was empty, and she didn't know where Casey's master went.

"You are really bullying. He just came back and wanted to ask for help. Why are you making him suffer this kind of hardship?" Annabel looked at Dick angrily.

Dick said, "He was so self-righteous at the beginning. That's a bit of punishment. It's good enough that I didn't directly interrupt his leg for master."

Annabel didn't know what to do, so she could only stare at the side.

Time passed by, and in a blink of an eye, it was already dusk. From the beginning, Dick's disdain for Casey slowly turned into consternation, and then admiration, and in the end he even began to suspect that Casey was dead.

He walked to Casey with his eyes closed, and said, "Put this stone down. Actually... Master never said that you would be punished like this. It was me on a whim..."

Casey didn't move.

After Annabel heard his words, she jumped up angrily, picked up a branch, and whipped Dick.

"You bastard, I knew you were fooling us. He has been here for the whole afternoon, and you only admit now. If Casey gets hurt, I will definitely not spare you!"

Dick hurriedly avoided and said, "There should be nothing wrong with him. Although he has been holding it for a little longer, as the most proud apprentice of the master, he shouldn't be so weak."

However, Annabel did not listen to his explanation, chasing him around with a branch.

At this moment, an old voice rang, "Let it go."

Casey's eyes opened suddenly, and then he threw the boulder to the side.

There was a soreness in his limbs, and he almost fell to the ground and fainted.

Annabel and Dick also stopped, and looked behind Casey. There was one in linen clothes with his hair clumped together. An old man that looked kind had already appeared here.

Casey turned around. After seeing the old man, he showed uncontrollable excitement. After that, he endured the pain in his body, bowed deeply to the old man, and said with a trembling voice,

"Master!"

Chapter 645 He Didn't Use Muscle Power

Dick stared at the old man, and a nasty feeling arose in him, so he hurriedly said, "Master, I suddenly remember that I still have training to complete, so I will leave."

After speaking, he turned and left.

"Come back," Casey's master said lightly.

This voice seemed to have magical power. After Dick heard it, his body froze immediately, and then he walked back honestly.

"You apprentice faked your order and asked Casey to hold such a big stone here all afternoon. He is really damn, you can't just let him go so easily," Annabel said angrily.

"Master, I'm testing Casey's sincerity for you. He insisted on leaving in the past, and he didn't listen to your dissuasion. Now he ran back when he needed help. He simply doesn't take you seriously. Master, we must punish him?" Dick quickly found an excuse.

Dick and Casey's master stared at Dick and said lightly, "Arrange a place to rest for this girl."

"Yes!" Dick agreed quickly.

"Then come here to lift this stone for half an hour."

Dick suddenly looked sad, and after all he could not escape master's punishment. But he thought that it was okay for Casey to hold the stone all afternoon, and the master asked him to hold it for only a half hour, which was not too difficult, so he agreed.

"Come with me." Casey's master turned to look at Casey again, and walked slowly towards a wooden house not far away.

Casey glanced at Annabel and motioned to her to follow Dick's arrangement, and then walked towards the wooden house with his master.

Annabel also knew that she could not follow Casey anymore at this time, turned her head and glanced at Dick, and shouted, "Smelly boy, let's go ahead, you dare to fool Casey. I won't let you go!"

...

In the wooden house, the master poured Casey a cup of tea, and said, "How are you?"

Casey took a deep breath and said, "The family vengeance is over, and the Davies family has been taken back by me. That woman has also gotten what she deserves."

The master nodded and said, "That's good."

"The kid outside is named Dick. He is the apprentice I took two years ago. His aptitude is not worse than that of you, but his character is incomparable to you. This kid always treats you as an opponent. That's why he made fun of you. I hope you don't take it seriously."

Casey immediately arched his hand and said, "I know that he is joking, so naturally I won't mind."

"Oh? You know he was joking? Then why did you hold that stone all afternoon?" Casey's master asked.

"I didn't listen to your persuasion, and insisted on leaving. I was wrong first, and should indeed be punished."

Casey's master laughed and said, "I didn't expect that in the past few years, your personality will remain the same. I didn't see the wrong person at the beginning. There was nothing wrong with you in those years. You have your own choice, and I never blame you. Never mention it again."

Casey was a little moved. It was because of his master that he had such a strong strength, otherwise it would be impossible to take the Davies family back from Sasha.

But when he had just learned something and his master put all his expectations on him, he chose to leave. In his opinion, it was a bit unkind to do so. However, his master didn't even take this matter to heart. He still recognized him as his apprentice, which made Casey extremely grateful to the master. "Tell me, what trouble did you run into when you came back this time," the master said, staring at Casey.

Casey didn't talk nonsense. He immediately told his master about his experience on Moon Island and the things he experienced afterwards, and raised his own question, why Theodore was so strong, and what the powerful force that he broke out was.

After listening to Casey, the master frowned slightly and asked, "Theodore? Is that the eldest young master of the Turner family?"

Casey nodded, unexpectedly his master still had some understanding of these family forces.

But thinking about his master's travels around the world, his strength was too strong to make people think about it. It was not surprising that he knew it.

Maybe he even knew the current situation of Guanling.

When Casey mentioned Guanling just now, his master didn't show any doubts. Obviously, he knew the existence of Guanling and knew a lot about it.

"It's no wonder that you will almost be killed with your strength. It turns out that you met Myles' apprentice. When you left, I thought you had some negotiations with the top domestic powers at most, but I didn't expect that you could come into contact with people of this level so soon. It seems that you are really lucky to survive this time," the master murmured, "Do you know who gave you three pills?"

Casey shook his head and said, "I don't know. It's just an old man who doesn't seem to be too special. I met him while walking on the dock."

He chanted the name Myles several times in his heart, and the name that could be mentioned by his master was definitely not simple.

His master nodded, thoughtfully, as if to guess the identity of the person who saved Casey's life.

After a long time, the master said, "Although there are not many medicines in this world that can bring people back to life, there are some. It is indeed a kind of fate that you get one. The identity of the person who can take out this medicine is definitely not simple. In the future, if the old man will come to you to fulfill his promise, you must not be ignorant, but don't be unguarded. It's always right to be careful."

Casey nodded and said, "I will remember it."

"Do you really want to know what happened when Theodore fought with you?" the master asked with a smile. Seeing that master finally came to the point, Casey straightened his body a bit, and said, "You said that my physical strength has reached the limit of human beings. Those strange mushrooms are not everywhere. Logically speaking, in the terms of strength, there should be no one who can surpass me in the world. However, when I faced Theodore, he can easily take my attack even if I try my best. Could it be that he has encountered something similar to that kind of mushroom, or is there a more powerful way to enhance his strength than your prescription?"

The master laughed and said, "If only physical strength is considered, I can say that you are the only one in the world. There is no second person in this world who can rely on muscle strength to contend with you. That kind of mushroom is not leeks. I have traveled all over the world and I have only seen it in that one place."

"Why can Theodore almost kill me? When I was fighting him, there was a powerful explosive force on his fist, which made me unpredictable and even more unbearable," Casey asked with a puzzled look.

The master took a sip of tea and said calmly,

"Because he didn't use muscle power."

Chapter 647 It Was Horrible

Seeing Casey's stunned look, the master smiled and said, "My strength has nothing to do with you now. I have many apprentices, and I am only responsible for teaching them. As for your own grievances, I will not intervene. So, you need to take revenge on Theodore by yourself."

"I understand!" Casey immediately replied. Now that the master told him this, he was very grateful, and he had never thought of asking others to avenge him.

"Theodore was also lucky and become an inner force expert after learning from Myles. Otherwise, it would be impossible for Theodore to become an inner force expert, and I need to remind you that Myles is a Grandmaster. If you take revenge on Theodore, you will face more than an inner force expert. You must understand this," the master slowly said.

Casey's heart was tense. He didn't expect Theodore's master to be a Grandmaster. This was indeed a very tricky thing, but Casey didn't have any fear.

If Theodore's master intervened in this matter, then Casey only needed to put the Grandmaster on his own blacklist. It was also at this time that Casey understood why Terence would have been in Guanling and didn't begin to plan revenge against the Turner family until he appeared. It turned out that there was already a Grandmaster behind the Turner family. Even Terence did not dare to act rashly.

Even if Myles wouldn't intervene in the affairs of the Turner's family, Theodore would be enough for Terence to take it seriously.

As for whether there was an inner force expert in Guanling, Casey was not sure. "But you don't have to worry. Since you are my apprentice, I will not be stingy. I am different from those Guwu Family. They are not willing to spread the law of inner force easily. I am willing to. Since you are here, just learn from me."

Master continued.

Casey was full of excitement and hurriedly thanked the master, but he also faintly noticed that the master seemed to be hostile to the Guwu Family.

"Back then, I didn't want you to leave back then was because your outer force had reached the peak. I have never seen a person who has reached the peak of outer force to learn inner force. It is anticipation."

"It's a pity that you insisted on leaving for revenge. The idea of teaching your inner force was hidden in my heart. Although it is a few years late, it has little effect."

"The strength of inner force has a lot to do with talent and physique. You are at the peak of outer force now, and you are an unparalleled existence in the world. After practicing inner force, you will reach a new height that shocks everyone. "

"Take a good rest tonight. Starting tomorrow, I will teach you the method of inner force."

After listening to his master's words, Casey immediately clasped his fists and bowed, and said, "Yes, Master!"

"By the way, that girl doll outside, is she your wife?" After talking about the business, the master asked.

Casey was a little embarrassed at once, and immediately revealed Annabel's identity, and said that he already had a wife. He allowed Annabel to follow him because she saved his life.

The master just smiled, and didn't make any comments. The young man's feelings were entangled, so naturally he, an old guy, couldn't give any advice.

"It is good that there is a girl, life in the mountains is boring. With her, you won't be so bored." the master said slowly.

Casey wanted to say that he would rather be bored than to let Annabel follow him. After all, what the girl was thinking was all plotting against him, but after thinking about it, he felt that it was inappropriate to say so, so she didn't speak.

"Among my apprentices, there are still many who stay with me to study. They went to the mountain for training today, and they will come back tomorrow. They are just like you, they are all red-blooded male. insisted. You insisted on leaving, and they didn't have a good impression on you. Now you bring back a beautiful girl. They may give you some trouble. I don't care about the grudges between you guys. Deal with them by yourself."

"Remember, three of my apprentices who stay here have already learned inner force. Your strength is no longer the strongest among my apprentices." After listening to his master's words, Casey nodded solemnly. He understood what the master meant, and some people and things from that year also appeared in his mind.

Since he was no longer the strongest among the master's apprentices, he should devote himself to practicing and grab the title of the strongest!

Outside the wooden house, after helping Annabel arrange a place to live, Dick came to the front of the stone.

Annabel came out, gloating at Dick, and said, "Compared with Casey, you are much worse. He can hold this rock all afternoon, and you may have difficulty even lifting it."

"Fart! Although I haven't learned inner force yet, I am still master's most apprentice. As Casey can hold it all the afternoon, so can I!"

Dick spoke unconvincingly, then stretched out his hand to hug the stone and gritted his teeth. What he didn't expect was that the stone moved only slightly, and he didn't even lift it up.

Annabel laughed immediately and said, "I'll say you are inferior to Casey. You can't even lift it up. It's funny."

Dick was a little embarrassed at once. He didn't expect this stone to be so heavy. At that time, seeing Casey lifted it easily, he thought the stone was not as heavy as he thought.

In order not to lose face in front of Annabel, he took a deep breath, used his whole body strength again, and after a loud shout, he lifted the stone above his head.

With a stone weighted a thousand pounds, Dick only felt that his arm was about to be crushed, but fortunately, master would give him some magical medicine from time to time in the past two years to strengthen his bones and muscles, otherwise he could not insist. It was also after lifting this stone that Dick's view of Casey changed dramatically. It was reasonable that this guy was able to become master's most proud apprentice, and it was not unreasonable.

"Well, I'm only twenty years old, and I'm the youngest apprentice under master's name. When I get to Casey's age, I won't be inferior to him," Dick murmured. After about half an hour.

Dick threw the stone on his head to the ground. There was a deep pain in his limbs. The expression on his face was extremely complex.

"It's so abnormal. It's really abnormal. How did that guy hold it all afternoon? I feel that if I held it for so long, my arms would be useless."

After really feeling the weight of this stone, Dick realized how far away he was from Casey.

Chapter 648 Deep Breathing

Casey woke up in a tree the next morning.

Although there was a row of wooden houses by the river, most of them had been occupied by Casey's fellow apprentices, and only one was left, which was also given to Annabel.

Annabel was very happy to live in a room with Casey, but the current situation was different from that in Christine's family. Naturally, Casey could not agree to continue living in the same room with Annabel, so he found a tree as a place to sleep.

When he was kicked out of the Davies family, Casey had been in any harsh place, so sleeping in a tree was nothing to him.

Coming down from the tree, Casey heard a whispering sound not far away, turned his head and saw that there were more than a dozen figures staring in the direction of the river.

Annabel was washing her hair there at this time, and the fairy-like face made Casey's fellow apprentices salivate.

In the mountains, the only heterosexual creatures they could see were probably hens and foxes. Naturally, they had great desire and fantasy for girls. Nowadays, a woman suddenly appeared here, and she was so beauty. Naturally, these single men couldn't look away.

Annabel was very embarrassed to be stared at by these a dozen people. After washing her hair in embarrassment, she tossed her head gently, which caused the dozen single men to exclaim in exclamation.

Casey walked over here. After Annabel saw him, as if she had found a savior, she hurried to Casey's side.

"Casey, these people are so weird. They kept staring at me when I washed their hair, making me embarrassed," Annabel complained.

Casey glanced at those people. They should all be his master's apprentices. Some of them knew Casey, and some looked very strange. They came to learn from the master after Casey left.

It stood to reason that a person of master's level would choose its apprentices carefully, and it was almost enough to have one or two apprentices. After all, no matter how many apprentices one had, it was better to pass on the skill to one apprentice. However, Casey's master likes to travel around the world and accept apprentices everywhere. Although he would also check their qualifications when he accepted his apprentices, compared with other masters, Casey's master had too many apprentices, and now only a small part of them stayed in the mountains.

Casey didn't understand why his master did this. Maybe he just liked teaching apprentices.

And Casey still didn't know his master's name. After he became one of his apprentices, the master was only responsible for teaching him skills. He didn't care about everything else, and he never talked about his past. And he did the same to other apprentices. Therefore, in Casey's mind, his master was still somewhat mysterious.

Casey's fellow apprentices turned their heads and looked towards Casey. After seeing Casey, they showed disdain on their face.

They had heard the news of Casey's return from Dick, and after knowing that this fairy was brought back by Casey, they immediately became hostile to Casey.

Now seeing Annabel looking like timid and lovable little woman in front of Casey, they felt a little upset.

The head of these people was a man with sharp edges and a trace of cold light in his eyes. This man was named Baron and was one of the early apprentices of the master.

At that time, Casey was young and frivolous, and had some problems with Baron, who performed well at the time. However, at that time Casey was strong and Baron couldn't beat him, so he could only endure it.

Now Baron had cultivated inner force, and he was the strongest among the three apprentices who had learned inner force.

"Casey, how dare you come back. Didn't you think you were invincible in the world, what do you want to do with master now?" Baron looked at Casey with a sneer.

Casey glanced at him and said, "Baron, you have overstated, when did I say that I was invincible in the world?"

Baron snorted coldly, and said, "Don't pretend here. I remembered your pretentious look back then."

"You may have misunderstood me," Casey said lightly, then turned and walked in the direction of the back mountain.

His main task now was to learn inner force from his master, so naturally he had no intention of arguing with these people.

"Casey, I advise you to put away your self-righteousness. You are no longer the most potential apprentice of the master, and I have learned the inner strength. Even if you come back, you still have no right to compare with me. If you are as arrogant as you were back then, I will definitely teach you on behalf of the master!" Baron shouted at Casey. The people behind him also echoed, Dick was the most excited one. He felt that Casey was a little bit more brute, and compared with Baron, he was far worse.

Casey ignored them and walked ahead. When Annabel saw this, she quickly followed, she didn't want to be stared at by these men all the time.

"It seems that the specially privileged person is desolate now. If it was in the past, he would have come to Baron to single out."

"It's because he knows that he couldn't beat Baron. Look at his back, it looks like a loser."

"People should recognize his current situation. No matter how good he was at the beginning, after so many years, he is probably not as good as most of us."

Dick murmured a little when he heard this. He admitted that Casey was no longer the strongest one. After all, he was the master's most proud apprentice. But he did not thought Casey was not as good as most of them.

In terms of holding a huge stone for a whole afternoon, except for the three inner force experts, none of the others could do it, but Dick didn't bother to praise Casey.

Behind the mountain.

Casey sat up cross-legged on the ground according to his master's guidance, and his breathing pattern began to slowly change, which was very different from normal breathing.

Annabel was a little bored on the side, because she had nothing to do, so she learned with Casey. The master just smiled and didn't say anything.

The so-called inner force method was actually a more special deep breathing, which achieved the purpose of developing the inner force in the body by changing the law of breathing.

In the "Health Preservation" compiled more than two thousand years ago, there was already an introduction about the abdominal breathing method, teaching people to change their breathing to make them healthier. The method of breathing of inner force was more complicated, and it needed to be practiced with the dredging of the acupoints of the meridians of the whole body. At the same time, learners needed to meditate, to carefully tap their own potential, so that the inner force in the human body could be used at will. And just knowing the law of inner force was not enough to cultivate inner force. At the same time, the learners needed to have an extraordinary physique, talent, and years of exercise.

Inner force experts were certainly strong, and it took an effort that ordinary people couldn't imagine to get success. This was not a matter of overnight. Deep breathing depended on accumulation.

Casey also officially began to rely on this bit of accumulation, trying to make himself stronger.

Chapter 649 The Inaudible and Noiseless Foot of Time

The inaudible and noiseless foot of time, the seasons of the year make a cycle that repeats itself.

In the first week after coming to the mountain, Casey had already mastered deep breathing and felt the changes brought to him by it.

According to his master, it took at least three months for even those with excellent talents to master deep breathing and to acquire inner force.

And Casey had mastered deep breathing in a week, which was one of a kind. His speed of learning shocked the master. At the same time, his master was more convinced that those who reached the peak of their outer force would get twice the result with half the effort.

In the first month of coming to the mountains, Baron couldn't bear Annabel to be with Casey all the time, so he embarrassed Casey everywhere, and threatened that Casey was not worthy of a fairy like Annabel, which was endorsed by many people.

Annabel naturally disagreed with this statement, and argued with Baron, which made Baron and others more sure that Annabel was bewitched by Casey.

So, Baron decide to have a fight between men with Casey, and let Casey realize how unbearable he was now.

In this battle, Casey lost.

In the second month of coming to the mountain, Casey had already started the way of inner force, and through the accumulation of deep breathing, he was able to use part of the inner force.

Baron became more proud of defeating Casey. Seeing Casey's hard work, he took the test of Casey's level as an excuse to fight against Casey again.

This time, Casey was no longer as defenseless as he used to be. He who also had learned inner force, coupled with the strength of the peak of outer force, was already able to cope with Baron.

But in this battle, Casey was still defeated.

In the third month of coming to the mountains, Casey mastered inner force at an astonishing speed. Through previous battles with Baron, Casey had benefited a lot, and he had a deeper understanding of the use of inner force and was praised by his master.

This month Annabel tried hard to tempt Casey. Casey simply lived directly behind the mountain, leaving Annabel no chance to do so.

Seeing Annabel becoming more intimate with Casey, Baron felt jealous and challenged Casey again. This time, Casey was faintly able to make a tie with Baron.

According to the master, Baron's talent was considered intermediate and high, and he had learned inner force for about three years, but it only took Casey three months to catch up with him. His talent was so amazing and matchless.

Casey did not compete with Baron, but pretended that he was still lost again. He did this in order to be able to continue fighting against Baron and to learn more experience from it.

In the fourth month, Casey took the initiative to challenge Baron and the other two senior more than ten times, and he lost again and again, becoming a joke in everyone's eyes. Only Casey knew that his strength had surpassed the Baron and the other two inner force experts, and what he relied on was the experience he had accumulated by fighting with three inner force experts in turn.

According to Casey's guess, in terms of inner force, he was still far behind Baron. After all, he had only mastered inner force for three months, and the degree of accumulation was far from enough, but because he had reached the peak of out force, it made up for his lack of accumulation on the inner force, the combination of the two made his strength surpass Baron.

At this time, Casey was already absolutely sure that when facing Theodore, he was no longer so vulnerable.

This afternoon, not far from the wooden house, Casey walked straight to the wooden house where Baron was.

Annabel followed Casey, anxious.

After living in the mountains for more than four months, Annabel had long lost the appearance of the delicate lady before. She was also dressed in the hemp clothes that others prepared for living in the mountains, and her hair was directly coiled up with branches.

In the past four months, Annabel not only learned how to grow vegetables and raise chickens, but even went out hunting with Dick and the others, which was in sharp contrast with her in the past.

But despite this, the fairy aura on her body had not disappeared. Facts had proved that a beautiful woman, even in linen, was also beautiful scenery.

"Casey, stop. You have fought with Baron several times this month, and you have lost to him every time. I know you are not convinced, but you have only come back for four months. It is normal to not be able to beat him. You can wait until you become stronger and then you can go to him," Annabel said.

Casey stopped, turned to look at Annabel with a smile, and said, "This is the last time I challenged him, and it will be him who loses today."

After speaking, he continued to walk towards the front.

Annabel sighed helplessly, not much optimistic because of Casey's self-confidence.

Casey stopped in front of Baron's wooden house and shouted, "Baron, come out to fight!"

As soon as his voice sounded, a dozen people all walked out of the wooden house and ran over to watch the show.

"Casey, how many times have you lost to Baron this month? How come you still don't know how to repent? Is it possible that you are addicted to being beaten?"

"This kid thinks he is a genius, he feels that he can compare with Baron after learning inner force for a few months. It's really funny.

Dick gloated at Casey and said, "You'd better not fight with Baron. If you continue to fight, Miss Fairy may look down on you."

Everyone burst into laughter.

Dick hurriedly made a face at Annabel.

At this time, Baron walked out of the wooden house, looking at Casey with cold look and said, "No matter how many times you challenge me, you can't change the fact that you have been left behind by me. Inner force is not as simple as you think. If you want to defeat me, wait another three years!"

Casey smiled and said, "I think I can beat you this time."

Baron was stunned for a moment, and then burst into laughter, as if he had heard some funny joke.

All the fellow apprentices around couldn't help laughing.

"Is this guy insane? He actually thinks he can beat Baron. Did he forget that he was beaten by the Baron last time and was unable to resist?"

"Yes, you ask me to challenge, and I naturally have to take it. But it's a problem that you always find me like this. I don't have so much energy to deal with you all the time. Why don't we put up a bet this time?" Baron asked.

"OK," Casey agreed.

"If you lose this time, and then you should be more conscious, get out of here as soon as possible, and don't say that you are the master's apprentice anymore. Dare you?" Baron asked. Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect Baron to make such a big bet. If Casey agreed and lost, it would be equivalent to breaking off all relations with the master.

"Okay." Casey's tone was calm, not taking his bet seriously at all, "If I win..." He thought for a while, but didn't know what to bet on. At this time, he saw Annabel with a worried look, and he smiled and said, "If I win, you will be her servant and follow her instructions, OK?"

Baron curled his lips and said, "No problem."

"Casey, take a good look around, after the battle, you should roll away from this place!"

Chapter 650 With an Apprentice Like You, I Couldn't Be More Satisfied

Casey and Baron came to a clearing where they used to fight, and the rest of the people surrounded them as witnesses of the battle.

Dick walked to Annabel's side, smiled and said, "Miss Fairy, Casey is too stubborn, what is good about such a person? How many times has he lost to Baron, and he is still unrepentant. A I think you'd better not stick to him all day. In fact, I have great potential, and I'm still so young..."

Annabel glared at him and said, "Go away, what do you kid know."

"Isn't it true that I said, he just bet with Baron, if he loses, he has to leave," Dick said solemnly.

Annabel gave Casey a worried look and said, "He won't lose."

She didn't know where her confidence came from. Since Casey said that he would not lose today, he would definitely win.

Dick did not have this confidence in Casey. In his opinion, today, Casey would end in failure.

Above the clearing, Casey and Baron stood opposite each other. Baron stared at Casey with disdain, and Casey looked calm.

As early as the previous few battles, Casey had already had the strength to defeat Baron, but in order to confirm some of his conjectures, he regarded Baron as a free training partner.

But now in Casey's eyes, it is meaningless to continue fighting with Baron, so it was time for him to prove to everyone the results of his hard work for more than four months.

Without any nonsense, Casey rushed towards Baron directly, his breathing rhythm changed, and the power in Casey's body surged, making his speed several times faster than before. In the eyes of everyone, there was already a shadow behind Casey.

Inner force could not only enhance people's strength, but also affect every aspect of the human body, making all aspects of the physical quality greatly improved.

Seeing Casey's extremely fast speed, Baron's look condensed, and Casey today seemed to be a little different from before.

He didn't dare to neglect, and immediately stared at Casey's movements and assumed a posture of fighting.

After Casey rushed to Baron, he punched him directly. Baron raised his hand to resist. At the moment when he met Casey's fist, Casey's inner force suddenly exploded, and an unrivaled force attacked Baron. Baron frowned and resisted with all his strength. After resolving the offensive of Casey's punch, Baron had already retreated five or six meters toward the back.

"How come you have become so strong?" Baron showed a surprised expression on his face. Obviously, he didn't expect Casey to have improved so much compared to last time.

"I have always been so strong." Casey smiled.

Baron snorted coldly and shouted, "Bluffing, I don't believe you can put such a strong power into every move!"

After he finished speaking, he took the initiative to strike, a few punches swiftly towards Casey, Casey resisted easily, and every move exerted no weaker power than the punch just now.

Baron didn't realize until this time that Casey's strength was not a flash in the pan, but because he had reached this level, that he could be so strong.

"Damn, this kid didn't have such a strong power last time, why has he become so powerful now?" Baron muttered in his heart, focusing on every attack of Casey, not daring to neglect.

The two other seniors who had reached the level of inner force expert looked at the two of Casey and Baron who were fighting, and they were very surprised.

Others might not see Casey's current strength, but they could see clearly.

The strength that this guy had completely surpassed them. If they were to fight with Casey, they might have already given up.

"What's the matter with this kid, why did he make such a big improvement?

Could it be possible that he was defeated deliberately when fighting with us?"

"Fuck, then he is too horrible. He has only come back for more than four months, and he has reached this level. It is not an exaggeration to describe him as a prodigy?"

They murmured, and were already surprised by the strength that Casey showed.

"Sure enough, it's a genius. I am afraid I have exhausted all my luck to meet such a good apprentice. In four months, his mastery of inner force has reached such a level. In the world, who can compare with him?"

"With an apprentice like him, I couldn't be more satisfied!"

The battle in the clearing was still going on. Casey and Baron had already fought a hundred moves. At this time, Baron's strength had melted. He found himself on the back foot when fighting with Casey.

And Casey had always been at ease, as if he didn't use all his strength, no matter what tricks Baron used, he could deal with it easily.

Finally, Baron revealed a flaw when he resist Casey's move. Casey seized the opportunity and hit Baron's chest with a fist, knocking him to the ground.

When Baron fell down, there was a three-centimeter-deep pit, which was enough to show how powerful Casey's fist was.

"You lost," Casey said lightly.

Baron stared at Casey standing in front of him dully, and he did not realize what happened just now.

Did he lose to Casey like this? Lost to this self-righteous guy who had been away from master for a few years?

He had only been back for four months! In just four months, Casey defeated him, who had already learned his inner force for three years. Baron suddenly felt collapsed.

It was not until this time that he realized that even if Casey hadn't been with master for a few years, his powerful talent could still easily bridge this gap in time.

He originally thought that Casey would become a useless person if he stagnated for a few years, but he really underestimated the potential of a genius.

At this time, everyone around was as shocked as Baron. It only took Casey four months to defeat their current strongest senior.

Casey's talent was enough to describe it as horror.

Dick stared at Casey blankly, something seemed to be stuck in his throat. He wanted to speak but couldn't.

After a long time, he sighed and murmured, "The difference between him and me was still too much."

The first person on the scene to react was Annabel. She jumped up happily and ran toward Casey with joy.

"Casey, you are so amazing! You deserve to be the man I like!"

Casey was embarrassed, looked down at Baron, and said, "From today, you will be her little follower."

Baron moved his lips and wanted to say something, but in the end, all his words only turned into a sigh, weak and helpless.
