The Peremptory Casey Davies Chapter 61 Only Have eyes for You

Edith's first reaction when she saw Diana's actions was that Diana wanted to rob her man. Especially after Casey sang a song for Edith with affection just now, she was still in spiritual communication with Casey. At this time her best friend said she wanted to stay alone with Casey for a while. Whoever saw this would misunderstand. "Why do you want to stay alone for a while with Casey? Why not speak it out here in front of me?" Edith asked cautiously.

"Edith, don't get me wrong. I have no other idea, but just some questions to ask him." Diana instantly explained. Edith found it strange that Diana's attitude towards Casey changed dramatically after he sang a song. If it had been before, Diana would have definitely said that she looked down on Casey, but now she asked Edith not to think too much.

"Edith, what are you worrying about? It is impossible for Diana to get her eye on Casey. Are you afraid this jerk will succeed in seducing Diana?" "Of course. Although Casey is good at singing, everyone knows his disrepute, especially Diana, who may look down most on Casey." "Ha, ha, Edith, I really feel that you think too much. It's impossible for Diana to take a fancy to a loser like Casey. There is only her Prince Charming in her eyes."

Hearing the surrounding people talking about her, Diana felt extremely embarrassed. If she had known it earlier, she would not have treated Casey in that way before.

Although these people put in a word for her, she felt these words were slapping her face.

Especially if Casey heard these words, he wouldn't absolutely be well disposed towards her anymore.

"Well... Fine. Casey, go with Diana." Edith opened her mouth reluctantly.

Casey smiled at Edith and said, "Don't worry. I only have eyes for you."

Hearing Casey's words, Edith breathed a sigh of relief.

She didn't know when she began to care about Casey. Not long ago, she still thought Casey was an encumbrance.

Diana took Casey to the corridor outside, apprehensive in her mind.

Casey stood in front of Diana without any expression on his face.

Diana naturally could feel the difference of Casey's attitude towards her and Edith, which made her more disappointed.

"Are... are you Caesar?" Diana asked.

Casey nodded, "Yes, it's me."

Hearing Casey's admission, Diana lowered her head and asked, "Now that you are Caesar and you already have Edith, why did you still give me so many gratuities?"

"The other day you were doing live stream together with Edith. I want her to be happy so I gave you gratuity." Casey answered.

"What about that song? Why were you willing to sing that song for me?" Diana continued.

"Well, it was because the fans in the live broadcasting room were so enthusiastic. Besides, it was just a song. It meant nothing to sing it for them."

Diana stiffened immediately. Actually, neither of the two things she had cared a lot had nothing to do with her.

What Casey had done was not for her completely.

This made her feel depressed. She hadn't expected that it was all in her imagination.

Maybe it was her fated retribution.

"That's fine. At least you are good to Edith. Will you blame me for my previous attitude towards you?"

Isn't it late for me to apologize to you?" Diana looked up at Casey.

Although she had lost the opportunity, she wanted Casey to forgive her. "There is no need because I am used to these. And I always ignore directly this kind of things." Casey said faintly.

Diana suddenly felt stuck in her throat. In her opinion, Casey was refusing to forgive her.

But Casey did think so, who never cared about Diana and only had Edith in his eyes like what he had said just now.

"Well... can I hug you?" Diana made a final request.

She had been imagining it before. She thought she would definitely come over and hug her Prince Charming when he appeared.

However, to her surprise, her Prince Charming was Casey, who was always looked down upon by her.

"Sorry, I only accept Edith's hug."

Casey said indifferently and then turn around to return to the box.

Diana had already expected this result, looking down disappointed.

She followed him to return to the box, losing completely the previous liveliness as if her soul had been lost.

Edith breathed a sigh of relief when she saw Casey and Diana come back within 5 minutes after they went out.

Casey sat down by Edith's side. Edith asked, "What did she say to you?"

"Something inessential." Casey answered with smile.

Edith nodded, not thinking too much.

People continued to drink and sing, as if no one cared about Hunter who was in the toilet.

After a while, the box door was kicked open by someone and Hunter, who was badly bruised on the face, was thrown into the box.

Everyone in the box was scared and instantly quieted down. Those who were singing quickly turned off the music.

People all looked over the door, wondering what happened.

A bald man wearing a gold chain walked in from outside, with a sexy woman in his arms, followed by many minions.

"Please have mercy on me, sir. I know I was wrong. I will never do that again." Hunter picked himself up from the ground and begged the bald man for mercy.

The bald man kicked Hunter hard, the latter fell onto the ground again as soon as he got up.

"Damn it! Why didn't you know realize it when you touched my woman? It's late for you to beg for mercy now."

The bald man was called Black Wolf, street king of a nearby underworld. This Karaoke bar was just under his shelter.

At that time, Hunter came out from Men's Room after vomiting in a daze, feeling his eyes blurred.

When a woman came out from Ladies' room, sexy and seductive, Hunter mistook her for Edith under the influence of alcohol.

Driven by alcohol, he directly pounced on that woman, getting fresh with her, and kept saying, "Edith, I like you. Can you be my girlfriend?"

The woman directly slapped him and then called Black Wolf over. As soon as Black Wolf heard this jerk molesting his woman, he immediately asked his minions to beat Hunter. Later he asked Hunter to compensate, but Hunter said he had no money, so Black Wolf took him to the box, intending to hustle these people.

A man who got along well with Hunter went to pick Hunter up, and turned to look at Black Wolf, asking, "What happened, sir?"

"This jerk has molested my woman outside the toilet. Unless you take out 500,000 dollars today, no one can get out of this box!" Black Wolf said coldly.

All the people felt shocked, who didn't expect the monitor to do such things.

Hunter was embarrassed and explained, "Sir, it was just misunderstanding. I have mistaken her for another woman, and I just got beaten up by you without having done anything to her. Please forgive me."

"You are talking nonsense. You know well how you put your hands on me at that time." The woman shouted.

Hunter felt helpless, knowing he was unable to escape today. He took out his bank card and said, "Sir, I have only several thousand dollars in the card. I really cannot take out that much."

"You can't? Ask them to chip in for you! They are all your classmates, aren't they? Ask them to take out the money. Otherwise, well, you know you will come to no good end." Black Wolf said, smiling coldly.

Hunter turned to look around. Those who licked his boots previously instantly looked away, pretending that they knew nothing.

Hunter cursed in his mind, thinking that these people were close to him only when there were benefits, who stood aside when he had an accident.

At this moment, he saw Casey who was sitting in the corner, and a trace of malice flashed by in his eyes.

"If you hadn't robbed me of Edith, I wouldn't have had such an accident. It is because of you. Don't blame me."

Hunter murmured in his mind and then stretched out his finger to point at Casey, saying, "Sir, he has money. The watch on his wrist is worth 380,000 dollars. Besides, he paid 100,000 dollars when we had meal the other day. I am sure he can give you 500,000 dollars."

Black Wolf instantly looked at Casey and said coldly, "Hey man, did you hear that? Take out money quickly!"

Edith suddenly became anxious. It was the first time for her to feel that Hunter was so shameless.

"Why should we pay? It's your fault and you can't ask Casey to bear it for you." Edith snapped.

Although Hunter didn't want Edith to view him in this way, he had no other choice under the circumstances. He knew Black Wolf's dreadfulness.

He said helplessly, "Edith, I have no choice. Please ask Casey to help me and I will definitely give the money back to you."

"Hunter, it is so shameless and nasty of you to ask Casey to take out the money for you! I was really mistaken about you!" Diana shouted angrily.

Hunter was surprised because he didn't know when Diana began to defend Casey.

After seeing Edith and Diana's beauty, Black Wolf lit up his eyes and pushed away the woman in his chest.

He glanced at Edith and Diana with vicious smile and said, "That's OK if you don't want to pay."

Hearing what Black Wolf said, Edith sighed with relief, thinking that the conscience guided Black Wolf.

"As long as both of you are willing to sleep with me, I will choose to pass over the accident this time. In addition, all of your consumption tonight is on me. What do you think?"

Black Wolf said lustfully, showing the yellow teeth in his mouth. The Peremptory Casey Davies Chapter 62 Are You Risking Your Neck

Edith and Diana were all scared. They didn't expect that Black Wolf would be so arrogant to provoke them.

Edith came close to Casey. At this time, only Casey could lull her into a sense of security.

Diana also subconsciously wanted to approach Casey. But when she thought of Casey's attitude towards her, she could only sit there quietly.

Hunter didn't expect that Black Wolf would provoke Edith and Diana. He had just intended to bring disaster to Casey and set Black Wolf against Casey.

However, things were out of his control now.

If Edith was really raped by Black Wolf, he could do nothing.

And in his opinion, even if Edith was raped by Black Wolf, it would be much better for her than being with Casey.

"Say something. I'm famous around here. If you don't believe me, you can make a few enquiries. I will not treat you shabbily if you sleep with me." Black Wolf said with a smile.

Casey stood up directly from the sofa and said in a cold voice, "Are you risking your neck?"

Seeing Casey's attitude towards Black Wolf, people around were all shocked.

"Are you crazy? It's Black Wolf. How dare you talk to him with that attitude?"

"Now you are risking your neck. Hurry to apologize to Black Wolf, or we'll all be implicated by you today."

"You stupid idiot! You are still so arrogant and do not admit defeat at this time."

...

After hearing Casey's words, Hunter sneered inside. He thought that Casey was really looking for trouble to offend Black Wolf. It would be best if Black Wolf could deal with Casey for him.

Black Wolf squinted at Casey and asked, "Who the hell are you? How dare you talk to me like that?"

"I'm her husband." Casey said coldly.

"Boss, I know this man. He is Casey, a loser who is known all over the J City. This woman should be Edith, a young lady of the Patel family." A man beside Black Wolf said suddenly.

Black Wolf examined Casey up and down and sneered, "So it is you, a well-known boy toy in J City. Who gives you the courage to provoke me?"

"Boss, Casey is just a little boy toy. How dare he provoke you? I think he's deliberately causing trouble, so that you can teach him a lesson," one of Black Wolf's men sneered.

Hunter's classmates were all looking at Casey nervously, for fear that he would say somethings and implicate them.

"Casey, stop showing off at this time. Apologize to Black Wolf and maybe he will forgive us."

"Yes, don't be impulsive. We don't want to get implicated."

"Apologize quickly. How can a loser like you compare with Black Wolf? Don't waste our time here."

Edith gritted her teeth secretly. She finally saw the true colors of these so-called old classmates.

Black Wolf looked at Casey and said, "You don't have to apologize. As long as you give your wife to me, I will forgive you, or you will be sorry."

Casey clenched his fists and said in a cold voice, "You should be sorry!"

"Damn it! You idiot are so ungrateful. Boss, let me take him a lesson!" all of Black Wolf's men itched to have a go.

Black Wolf narrowed his eyes. This was the first time that someone had dared to challenge him like this.

Besides, this man was a famous loser in J City.

He felt belittled by Casey.

"Let's go out to solve it. I don't want to hurt others here." Casey said.

Black Wolf sneered, "I think you just do not want them to see that you are beaten. But since you say it, let us go outside. I will let you know how powerful I, Black Wolf, am."

Edith immediately pulled Casey's arm, with a concerned look on her face.

"Don't worry. They are all losers. I can deal with them." Casey said.

Then he turned around and walked out.

Black Wolf looked at all the people in the private room and said, "Wait here you all. After I take this fool a lesson, I'll come to deal with you guys. Don't expect that you can leave here unmolested after offending me."

After they went out, one of Black Wolf's men closed the door of the private room.

Hunter's classmates were all desperate. They did not expect that Black Wolf still would not let them go after Casey stepped forward bravely.

They all looked at Edith angrily.

"Why did Casey have to offend Black Wolf? Now, we all can't leave."

"Damn it! I am so unlucky to meet such a fool. If something happens to me this time, I won't let Casey off."

A group of people complained, as if they had forgotten that it was started because of Hunter. They put all the blame on Casey.

"Are you done yet? It's Hunter who started it. Why do you blame Casey?" Diana couldn't stand it and shouted.

"But if he didn't provoke Black Wolf, Black Wolf wouldn't lock us all here." Some people rejoined.

It Must Have Been A Kind Of Hell For A Little Chrissy Metz

"Then what do you want him to say? Black Wolf bullied Edith. Could Casey just stand by and agree? Can you stand it if your husbands do like this? " Diana said again.

Edith was very grateful to Diana. Although Diana had a bad attitude towards Casey before, she knew that Diana had a sharp tongue but a tender heart.

Hearing Diana's words, they fell silent. But they still thought that it was all Casey's fault.

Hunter was somewhat uneasy. After Black Wolf dealt with Casey, he would come back to deal with him.

"Well... Why don't we raise some money and give it to Black Wolf? We all know how powerful Black Wolf is. He will not let us go easily if we don't give him money." Hunter said.

"You are the only one who should pay for it. We will not pay for you."

Edith saw Hunter's true face and was angry.

Outside the private room, Casey was surrounded by Black Wolf and his men.

Black Wolf looked at Casey and asked with a sneer, "Brat, can you tell me where did you get the courage to challenge me like this?"

Casey curled his lips and said, "Do I need courage to challenge you? Who are you?"

Black Wolf was angry with a murderous look on his face.

"Damn it! I don't believe I can't bring you to your knees. Guys, attack!

Let him kneel down and call my grandfather!"

Black Wolf's men all rushed to Casey.

Casey was also waiting for an opportune moment to act. He was very fast. These gangsters usually fought with others. However, their strength was not even as strong as those people brought by Josh.

It could be said that Casey beat them without any effort.

Seeing Casey's robust physique, Black Wolf widened his eyes in surprise.

"Didn't they say that Casey is just a loser? Why can he be so strong?"

Before he could react, Casey had approached him.

"Do you want to bully my wife just now? Do you know what happened to the people who had this idea?"

Casey asked in a cold voice.

Black Wolf clenched his fist and was not afraid of Casey. He scolded, "I do not care what happened to them. After dealing with you today, I will sleep with your wife!"

Casey shook his head, and then slapped Black Wolf.

Black Wolf didn't even understand what happened. He just knew that he fell to the wall.

"Damn it! If I hadn't been drinking and had a headache..."

Casey slapped him again. Black Wolf's cheeks were swollen up.

He didn't understand why he couldn't even deal with a loser. Could it be that the wine he drank today was fake wine?

"Fuck! I..."

Casey punched Black Wolf in the stomach. Black Wolf almost spat out all the things he had eaten.

Black Wolf was a little afraid. He couldn't see Casey's action at all. He intended to knock off the fake wine seller later.

Soon, Black Wolf had been beaten black and blue and was a little unconscious.

Casey was about to slap Black Wolf again. Seeing it, Black Wolf knelt down directly on the ground and begged for mercy, "Sir, I know I was wrong. Please forgive me."

"Then you should be beaten more."

Casey did not stop and still slapped Black Wolf.

After a few crisp slaps, Black Wolf's face was deformed.

At this time, in the box, these people were still concerned and kept complaining about Casey.

"It's all due to that trash. If it weren't for him, how could we be locked here? I'm so anxious. What should we do later?"

"Well, we are so unlucky to meet such a fool. Now it seems that we have no choice but to accept our fate."

"Did you hear the scream outside just now? I'm afraid Casey has been killed now."

Edith and Diana were both concerned. The several scream outside made them nervous.

"Diana, what should we do? They have so many people. Casey is no match for them."

"Shall we call the police?" Diana said.

"What's the use of calling the police? I'm afraid Casey is going to be killed. If you had known this beforehand, you shouldn't have brought that loser here." A man said and his face full of hatred.

At this time, the door of the private room was suddenly pushed open. Everyone trembled and quickly looked over, for fear that it was Black Wolf who would take them a lesson.

Casey came in unhurt. All the people were shocked.

Walking to Edith, he stretched out a hand to her and said gently, "Let's go."The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 63 Holding Hands for the First Time

Edith looked at Casey in surprise and said, "But Black Wolf's men are still outside..."

"They're not going to bother us again." Casey said with a smile.

Edith was stunned and didn't know how Casey did it. But she didn't think too much about it. She grabbed Casey's hand and stood up from the sofa.

Other classmates all looked at Casey suspiciously and did not believe that Black Wolf would no longer bother them.

"Don't believe him. He is trying to cheat us out and let us be beaten by Black Wolf together with him."

"I think so. Just now Black Wolf said that he would come back and deal with us. Now, how can he not bother us anymore? Casey must be lying."

"Casey, tell me, have you discussed with Black Wolf to trick us?"

Casey directly ignored these people and pulled Edith and walked to the outside of the private room.

Although Diana didn't believe Casey could beat Black Wolf, she still gritted her teeth and got up to follow him.

When they walked to the middle of the corridor, Edith and Diana were surprised to see those people writhing around on the floor.

"Casey, are they all defeated by you?" Edith asked.

"No. I don't know why they fell to the ground." Casey pretended to know nothing.

"Why did you fall to the ground?" Casey glanced at the people on the ground and put on a murderous look.

The man got goose bumps and said in a hurry, "I... We see that the floor is a little dirty. So, we are cleaning the floor."

Edith and Diana were speechless. They felt that they were treated as a fool.

Casey shrugged and said to them, "Look, they are cleaning the floor."

Edith and Diana did not think too much. They just wanted Black Wolf's men not to bother them again.

Why didn't they see Black Wolf? Could it be that Black Wolf had something to do and left, so that they let Casey go?

It seemed to be the only reasonable explanation.

Why was there a person who looked like a pig? It was so strange.

Two girls followed Casey and walked out in confusion.

Seeing that nothing happened after Casey and Edith and Diana went out, Hunter and others also walked out cautiously.

When they saw the people lying on the ground, they were shocked.

"Well... Did Casey do this?"

"Is Casey so powerful? No wonder he is so fearless."

A man lying on the ground knew that Casey didn't want these people to know his strength. So, he said,

"Excuse me, please get out of our way so that we can clean the floor."

"So you are cleaning the floor. I have thought these people were knocked down by Casey." People were relieved.

"How could it be that Casey defeated them? He is such a loser who will only get beaten up."

"Oh, we are in their way of cleaning. Let's go, or we will be miserable after Black Wolf bring his men back later."

They all nodded and went to the outside of KTV.

Hunter also came out of the private room. He looked down at the people on the ground and was surprised. However, he did not intend to stay any longer and was about to leave.

Suddenly, a hand caught his ankle. He turned around and saw that it was a man who looked like a pig.

"What... What do you want?" Hunter asked uneasily.

"I have something to discuss with you. I have to revenge!" Black Wolf spoke.

Hunter widened his eyes and exclaimed, "You are Black Wolf?"

After coming out of the KTV, Edith and Diana were both relieved. Today, they were more scared than hurt. But they still decided not to get together with these so-called classmates anymore.

Edith looked at Diana and asked, "Diana, how are you going back?"

"I'll take a taxi. You two can go back and leave me alone." Diana glanced at Casey unconsciously, with a sense of loss in her eyes.

Why was he Caesar? If he didn't marry Edith, even if he was a well-known loser in J City, she would chase him.

Diana was helpless. Although she was obsessed with Caesar, she would not steal her best friend's husband.

"Then we'll go first. Take care!" Edith said to Diana. Then, she turned to hold Casey's hand and left.

On the way, Casey kept a strange smile. No one knew what he was thinking.

Edith felt strange and asked, "What are you laughing at?"

"Well... Is this the first time we've held hands?"

Edith was surprised. Then, she quickly looked down and found that her hand was still held by Casey. She even did not realize there was anything wrong.

After being reminded by Casey, Edith blushed and tried to withdraw her hand.

Casey immediately grabbed it more tightly and did not release her.

"Bad guy." Edith said unhappily.

Since she couldn't break free, Edith gave up and let Casey pull her.

Casey smiled mischievously. He thought that opportunities were created by himself. If he let go at that time, it would be very difficult for him to hold Edith's hand again.

They walked to the home. The streetlight shone on them, lengthening their shadows.

At home, Amara was chatting with Remi Pearce, her neighbor.

Seeing Edith come back, Amara immediately pulled Edith over and said, "Edith, come and chat with Remi. Casey, go and wash the dishes in the kitchen."

Remi had been showing off her son Brian to Amara. Amara was jealous.

Now Edith came back, she had to show off Edith to Remi.

Casey didn't say anything and went into the kitchen to wash the dishes.

"In fact, Edith is already a senior manager in the company now. She has a monthly salary of more than 10,000." Amara said triumphantly.

Remi glanced at Amara and said loudly, "Really? Brian's salary is only more than 10,000. Edith is so capable now."

"You praise her too much. Edith has been doing well recently. Maybe Francis will give her a promotion."

Amara's words were modest, but her expression was smug.

"It sounds great." Remi seemed to be a little unhappy.

She rolled her eyes and then asked, "Edith, your salary is so high. Would you like to buy a car? Brian just bought a car with a price of more than 200,000, which was called Kameri.

I don't know much about it.

But that car is really good."

"I see that Casey rides an electric vehicle to take you to work every day. How tiring it is. When will you buy a car?"

Edith was embarrassed. It was true that her salary was now over 10,000. But she had only been promoted a short time ago and had no savings at all. How could she afford to buy a car that cost more than 200,000?

Amara also knew it. So, her complacency disappeared.

"I feel we have to think carefully about buying a car. It's good that Casey sends Edith to work every day.

Anyway, it's Casey who is tired, not Edith." Amara tried to save her face.

"Remi, I've just been promoted. I've got all my money to support my family. I will consider to buy a car in the future." Edith explained.

Hearing this, Remi was triumphant again. She seemed to want to say that Edith couldn't afford a car, but her son could afford it. Her son was more powerful!

"You should buy a car as soon as possible. You will feel that it is really convenient to have a car." Said

Remi.

At this time, Casey finished washing the dishes and came out. Seeing him, Amara said, "Hey, in fact, we've planned to buy a car for a long time. However, this loser, Casey broke Dempsey's TV which cost 40,000 not long ago. We have paid a lot of money. Otherwise, we would have already bought a car."

Hearing Amara's words, Casey said, "We can buy it now."

Amara immediately glared at him. She had managed to find a reason to hide the truth that they couldn't afford to buy a car. Unexpectedly, Casey exposed it again.

How could they buy a car now? By selling Casey? Since Casey said this now, if they could not buy a car later, they would be laughed at by Remi. Amara was furious inside and wanted to kill Casey.

"What are you talking about here? Get out of here. It is not your turn to talk here!" Amara said.

The

Chapter 64 Buy a Car

"Amara, don't scold Casey like this. Since Casey has said that, it means he has money to buy a car. This is a good thing." Remi said with a smile. She wished Casey to keep boasting.

Then, when Casey couldn't afford a car, she could laugh at them.

"How can he have money? These years, it is me who give him money. It is just enough for him to shop for groceries. Even if he keeps living a frugal life, he can't afford to buy a car." Amara said in confidence, as if she was proud that Casey had no money.

"You can't say that. Maybe it's Casey's own money. When are you going to buy a car, Casey?" Remi said with a smile.

Amara looked embarrassed. It seemed that Remi intended to seize on it and make an issue.

She looked at Casey angrily with a murderous look on her face.

If it wasn't for that killing people would break the law, Amara might have killed Casey.

"Tomorrow." Casey replied.

"Well. It seems that Casey has a lot of money. I'd like to come to see what kind of car you will buy tomorrow." Remi smiled more deeply. She clearly knew Casey's status in the family. It was impossible for Casey to buy a car.

Now that Casey said like this, she would come to see it tomorrow. If there was no car, she could laugh at Amara confidently.

It was a war between older women.

Amara directly stretched out her hand and pinched Casey's arm. Then, she smiled at Remi, "Casey is just talking nonsense. How does he have so much money? He's joking."

Edith also glanced at Casey in embarrassment and then said to Remi,

"Yes. Casey is joking. We have no plan to buy a car now."

Remi stood up and said with a smile, "Although Casey doesn't have a job, he's a man at least. He won't boast, right? Casey, if you want to buy a car, I suggest you buy one the same as mine, which just costs 200,000."

"I'll come to see your new car tomorrow. Bye."

Remi walked to the door.

"See you tomorrow." Casey said.

After Remi went out, Amara immediately glared at Casey and said, "You want me to make a fool of myself in front of Remi, don't you? How can you afford a car? When Remi comes tomorrow and sees that there is no car, it's me who will be laughed at by her. You are revenging on me!"

"Casey, you shouldn't tell Remi about this. We are not able to buy it now." Edith also suggested.

"I'll take a car tomorrow." Casey spoke lightly.

"You are so confident to take a car tomorrow. Are you going to take it in your dream? You can't do anything but bragging."

Amara was really angry. After scolding Casey, she turned back to her room.

Edith sighed. She didn't think Casey was incompetent. But Casey had bought so many things for her before, which were all expensive. Even if he was rich, she was afraid there was not much money left.

"Go to bed early. I'll go to work myself tomorrow. Good night." Edith said it and then turned back to the room.

After Remi came home, she immediately covered her stomach and laughed. Her husband and son were surprised.

"What's the matter? Why are you laughing so happily?" Remi's husband asked.

"Can you imagine what I have heard at Amara's house just now? Casey, that trash, said he would buy a car tomorrow." Remi said loudly.

Her husband and son looked at each other, and then they all laughed.

"You don't say! Casey said he wanted to buy a car? Does he have money? I'm afraid he gets his money from his wife." Brian said.

"Casey said that he would use his own money. It is really shameless of him. Amara gives him 500 a month to shop for groceries. It is impossible that he has money to buy a car." Remi said with irony.

"I piss myself with laughter. A trash dared to say he would buy a car.

He's just jealous because he saw

Brian buy a good car, isn't he?" Remi's husband said with disdain.

"Let's go to his house tomorrow to see what kind of car Casey will buy."

Remi looked forward.

"I'm afraid it's a bicycle." Brian said with a smile.

They couldn't help laughing again.

The next morning, after breakfast, Edith did not let Casey send her to company, but rode an electric car to work herself.

After cleaning up the house, Casey went out to get a shared-bike and went to the auto city.

He parked the shared-bike at the door of a Land Rover 4s Shop. When several salesmen inside saw him, they all laughed.

"Look, there's a guy who rode the shared-bike and came here. He's not here to buy cars in our shop, isn't he?"

"It seems that he is coming to our shop. Nowadays, there are so many people who are shameless. He is so poor but still dares to visit the Range Rover 4s Shop."

"After he comes in, we all ignore him. Let him wander around by himself. This kind of person will only waste our time and can't afford to buy a car."

Casey walked into the 4s Shop. After looking around, he wanted to find a sales person to ask. However, there were several salesmen standing inside, but none of them came to talk to him.

He walked to them and said, "Hi, I want to buy a car. Please introduce some to me."

"Well, we've seen a lot of people like you. You won't buy it after seeing for quite a while."

"Yes. I don't want to waste time on such people."

Casey frowned. He didn't expect that he was regarded as such a kind of person who only hung around here but didn't buy any.

He glanced at the shared-bike outside and knew the reason.

Since they didn't want to make money, then he would go to other shops.

Casey intended to turn around and go out. After all, there were many other brands for him to choose. He was not picky about cars.

If there was something wrong with the quality, he would directly change one.

Just as he was about to leave, a girl ran towards him and said, "Sir, do you want to see some cars? I just went to the bathroom and didn't come over. "

This girl, named Danielle Wong, was a new salesperson here. She was very enthusiastic.

Casey glanced at Danielle. Seeing that her attitude was different from others', Casey nodded.

"Let me introduce you to our cars here. If there is a car you like, you can also tell me. I will give you a detailed introduction." Danielle said.

Although she could tell that Casey was not a real car buyer from Casey's clothes, she was still serious.

She knew what her job was.

She thought that she should tell the customer about the details whether the customer would buy a car or not. Only in this way could she get potential customers.

So, she would take everyone who came here seriously.

When the salesmen not far away saw Danielle come to Casey, they all gave a mocking smile.

"Danielle is really silly. She directly comes to curry favor with the man without seeing what he is wearing.

She is just wasting time."

"She's new to the shop and hasn't had much experience yet. She'll be enlightened after a few disappointments, and know later that none of these people who come by shared-bike can afford our cars."

"What a fool. The clothes the man is wearing are cheap. It's a waste of life to waste time with such people."

Danielle patiently introduced to Casey a few cars, priced between 500,000 and 800,000.

As for the cars priced higher, Danielle did not introduce to him. Although she was very patient to serve

Casey, she did not think that Casey could afford a car worth more than one million. It should be enough for him to know about the car which cost about 500,000.

Casey glanced at the cars and was not very satisfied.

At this time, he noticed that there was a car which looked good not far away. He went over and asked,

"How much is this?"

Danielle looked at the car and said without confidence, "Sir, this is an exalted version of range rover with a total price of 1.22 million. The price is a little high. Would you like to see another...?"

Even though Casey might become her potential customer, Danielle didn't think he would buy such an expensive car.

"He is actually brave to see the range rover. I'm afraid the car is more expensive than his house."

"If he can afford range rover, I think I can marry into a rich family."

"Wait and see. I've got a thorough understanding of these people. He'll say that he wants to think about it first and will buy it next time."

Casey smiled at Danielle and said, "No need. Just this one."

Danielle did not react and was surprised for a while. Then, she looked at Casey in confusion.

Seeing her surprise, Casey said again, "I'm going to buy this car and will take it today. Go and help me with the formalities."

Danielle recovered from shock and asked again, "Sir, are you really not going to think about other cars?"

This car costs over a million."

"Just this one. I don't want to see anything else. Go and help me with the formalities." Casey firmly said.

Danielle swallowed hard, and only then did she realize that she had met a rich customer today.

They were sales people here. They could get a commission on all the cars they sold. If she really sold a car costing over a million, the commission would be a lot without doubt. Her colleagues not far away were shocked, staring at Casey in disbelief.

"Damn it! He really wants to buy this car?"

"Oh my god! I missed such a big deal."

"How can people who ride a shared-bike buy a range rover? Are they testing us?"

Suddenly, a woman 28 or 29 of age came to Casey and pushed Danielle away.

"Sir, Danielle is new here. She doesn't understand a lot of processes. Let me help you with the formalities."The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 65 Let Her Do It

"Claudia, what are you doing?" Danielle stood still, biting her lips and staring at the woman.

The woman was Claudia Reid, who had been working in this 4S shop for several years.

When Casey came in just now, she was the most sarcastic. Now when she saw that Casey wanted to take the car, she immediately came to steal Danielle's business.

Since Danielle was new here, even if she stole Danielle's business, Danielle would not dare to say anything.

"You're not familiar with our business here. I'll help you with this deal.

After you take a deal later, you can do it by yourself." Claudia said seriously.

Danielle bit her lip and was not convinced. She said, "I am familiar with the business. This is my business.

How can you rob it?"

Claudia glared at Danielle and said, "Danielle, you are new here. I'm senior than you. The manager and I also have a good relationship. Don't offend me!"

After that, Claudia turned to look at Casey with a charming smile on her face.

Although Claudia was nearly 30 years old, she still looked pretty with makeup. Because of this, the relationship between the manager and her was very good.

"Sir, let me help you with the formalities. I have worked here for a long time and am familiar with all kinds of formalities." Claudia said with a smile and winked at Casey from time to time.

Casey looked at Claudia with disgust. He was most annoyed with people like Claudia. So, he definitely wouldn't ask Claudia to help him with the formalities.

"It's this lady who introduced me the car. I will ask her to help me with the formalities. You'd better go back to your work," Casey said.

Seeing that Casey was determined to ask Danielle to go through the formalities for him, Claudia was also unhappy.

But soon, she played her best card.

Claudia smiled again, and then directly approached Casey. She took his arm and whispered to him, "Sir, as long as you let me do this for you, we can have a good time this evening."

Seeing Claudia like this, Danielle was a bit desperate. She had seen Claudia steal a colleague's business with this method not long ago.

It was hard for men to resist this. She thought that her business would also be stolen by Claudia.

After Casey heard Claudia's words, his face sank. Then, he reached out to push Claudia away and said in a cold voice, "Get your hand off me!"

Although Claudia was a little beautiful, she was far from as beautiful as Edith. Naturally, Casey wouldn't be attracted.

Claudia looked at Casey in disbelief. She did not expect that it didn't work on Casey at all.

Casey turned to look at Danielle and said, "You come to help me, thanks."

Danielle stared at Casey gratefully.

Then, she quickly nodded and took Casey to go through the formalities. Claudia glanced at Danielle with a grim look on her face and said in a cold voice, "You son of a bitch! You dare to steal my business. Let me tell you, the relationship between me and manager is not ordinary. I'll let him teach you a lesson. Even if you go through the formalities for the man, you won't get a commission!"

Casey followed Danielle to the place where she went through the formalities. He heard all the words that Claudia muttered just now. He just sneered.

After completing the formalities for Casey, Danielle asked, "Sir, do you need a loan?"

"No, I will pay the full amount." Casey took out his bank card.

Danielle was surprised. She didn't expect Casey to pay the full amount, which was more than one million.

Just when Danielle was about to swipe the card, Claudia came with a man.

The man was the manager of this 4S shop. He looked at Danielle and then said, "Danielle, you can give Claudia the work first. Go and help me decorate my office."

Claudia glanced at Danielle triumphantly and thought that Danielle was no match for her.

Danielle felt wronged. She definitely knew why the manager asked her to leave.

But she couldn't disobey the manager.

"Sir, let Claudia do it for you. She is our gold medal salesperson here. She will certainly serve you well."

The manager said to Casey with a smile.

Claudia smiled gently at Casey and didn't think that she was wrong.

"Leave quickly and don't keep customers waiting." Claudia pulled Danielle.

Danielle had no choice but to get up.

"Wait." Casey said.

All three looked at Casey. The manager had heard about the client from Claudia at that time. He knew that Casey would probably insist on Danielle helping him with the formalities. So, he had gotten a plan.

"She's my sister. For her sake, I came to buy a car here. So, she is the only one who can do it for me."

Casey said.

"Sir, it's..." The manager intended to persuade Casey.

He's Using This Secret Trick To Make Millions

Casey didn't give him this opportunity. He directly handed his bank card to the manager and said, "You should know this bank card, right?"

Claudia on the other side sneered and thought that the relationship between her and the manager was not what Casey could imagine. Could he use a bank card to ask the manager to speak for Danielle? That was ridiculous.

The manager took over the bank card and took a close look at it. Then, his eyes widened.

"This... Is this the black card of the World Bank? " The manager was surprised and bewildered.

Casey nodded and said, "You should know what this card represents.

Today, I'm here to buy a car because of Danielle. If she does a good job here, I'll come again if I want to buy another one or recommend my friends who want to buy a car later."

The manager swallowed hard. He did not doubt the truth of Casey's words. Whoever owned a black card of the World Bank was a big shot. It was nothing for them to buy a car with more than one million.

And these people had powerful connections. If he could get in touch with Casey, it would bring him great benefits.

The manager was sensible. He definitely knew which was more important between Claudia and the black card holder of the World Bank. Claudia was just one of his mistresses. As long as he had money, he could have countless women of Claudia's kind.

So, he immediately bent over to Casey and said with a smile, "Sir, I understand. I will let Danielle continue to help you with the formalities. I will also take care of her more in the future."

Casey nodded and didn't speak any more. He saw that Danielle had a good attitude towards him. So, he helped her.

Seeing that the manager suddenly changed his attitude, Claudia was puzzled and asked, "Manager, you have said that I could deal with this business. Why did you let Danielle do it again?"

The manager glared at Claudia and said, "Danielle is my sister from now on. If you dare to steal her business again, I will fire you! You go and decorate the office for me now. Danielle will do this thing here."

Claudia was dumbfounded. She didn't expect that the manager who always stood by her side would speak for Danielle.

She glanced at Casey in confusion, wondering how this was going on. The manager was afraid that she would upset Casey. So, he quickly pulled her away from here.

Danielle was also looking at Casey in confusion. She had never expected that the manager would be so kind to her because of Casey's words.

However, she soon understood that Casey should be a big shot, which made the manager so respectful.

She looked at Casey gratefully and said, "Sir, thank you very much. If it weren't for you, I would have been bullied here."

"It's no bother. You did the right thing and deserves it." Casey said.

Danielle didn't delay and quickly helped Casey complete the formalities. After paying the money, the range rover belonged to Casey.

Casey drove directly out of the 4S shop. Danielle watched him leave with gratitude. All the sales person in the shop were envious. They regretted that they had not received Casey at that time.

After leaving the 4S shop, Casey didn't go back. Instead, he drove directly to Edith's company gate and stopped by the road to wait for Edith to leave work.

Edith was in a bad mood all day. Yesterday, Remi satirized her family unable to afford a car. When she arrived at the company today, her colleagues were also chatting about cars.

Many colleagues had bought cars. They came to Edith to show off. Naturally, Edith was unhappy. Besides, she was the superior of these people. Her subordinates had already bought cars. But she couldn't afford to buy a car. Edith felt more ashamed when she thought about it.

When it was time to leave work, Edith and several people in the company came out together. They were still discussing cars.

Edith thought it was lucky that she rode an electric bicycle herself today. If Casey were to pick her up on an electric bicycle, she would be disgraced.

"My husband just got a bonus. We took the money to buy a car. Today, my husband will come to pick me up."

"Well, my husband is also driving to pick me up. We have bought the car early. It is a little expensive, which costs more than 300,000. But it is durable."

"It sounds great. My car is only over 100,000. I feel ashamed to let my husband drive it to pick me up."

After saying that, they all looked at Edith.

"Edith, you've been promoted. Your salary is much higher than ours. Have you bought a car? Will your husband pick you up today?" a woman asked.

This person knew that Edith would be picked up by Casey on an electric vehicle every day. So, she was deliberately embarrassing Edith by asking this.

After all, she was not convinced that Edith was her superior.

Edith was embarrassed and said, "No. I came on an electric vehicle. You guys go first. I'll go ride the electric vehicle."

She just wanted to get away from these people and get rid of this embarrassment.

They sneered. Seeing Edith was embarrassed, they were triumphant.

Edith got a promotion. So what? She was still married to a useless husband who couldn't even afford a car.

When Edith was going to ride her electric vehicle, a car on the side of the road suddenly beeped, which surprised everyone.

Everyone turned around and saw that it was a new range rover. They all widened their eyes. _The

Chapter 66 I Drive the Car Back

"Wow, this car is so beautiful. It's a range rover. It must be very expensive."

"Yes. I heard it costs more than one million. This is a luxury car."

"It's much better than my car. I'm really envious. I wonder who this car is coming for."

A group of people were talking about it and were all amazed by the appearance of the range rover.

Edith also glanced at the car. The sense of loss in her eyes was even intense. The car was expensive.

Now, she couldn't afford a car of more than 100,000, let alone such a luxury car.

"Who do you think this car is picking up?" suddenly, someone asked.

"Who knows? I don't know who the lucky one is. But I know it is not here to pick up Edith. I'm afraid her husband, who is a trash, can't afford such an expensive car in his life."

"You are right. It is impossible for this car to pick up Edith."

They burst into laughter.

At this time, the window of car slowly rolled down. Casey, who was sitting in the driver's seat, appeared.

Edith had planned to turn around and go. But she was stunned when she saw Casey sitting in the driver's seat.

Many of Edith's colleagues had met Casey. So, they were shocked to see that the man in the car was Casey.

Casey smiled and then said to Edith, "Honey, get into the car. I am here to pick you home."

Edith stood there for a long time and did not respond.

Then, Casey personally got out of the car, opened the car door and made a gesture of invitation to Edith.

Edith walked over blankly. It was just like a dream and she sat on the passenger seat.

Her colleagues were all staring jealously at Edith as she got into the car, their eyes filled with resentment.

Casey got into the car with a smile and drove all the way to home with Edith.

"Isn't Casey a waste? How can he afford such an expensive car?"

"My God, that's a luxury car which costs a million. At that time, we even laughed at Edith. And now he is driving a luxury car."

"Who knows if it is he who bought the car? Maybe he borrowed it."

On the way, Edith recovered from a state of shock and said to Casey, "My vehicle is still in the company."

"I'll ride it back tomorrow." Casey said with a smile.

Edith turned to look at Casey and asked, "Where did you get this car? If it's borrowed from someone else, you should give it back quickly. "

She still didn't believe that Casey bought the car.

"I bought this car. I can drive you to work in this car from now on." Casey smiled and said.

"You bought it!" Edith exclaimed. She had thought Casey was just joking yesterday. Unexpectedly, he actually bought a luxury car worth more than 1 million.

"But... This car is so expensive. I heard that it costs more than one million." Edith said.

"It's OK. A million or so is nothing." Casey replied.

Edith was speechless. How exactly rich this man was!

Until now, Edith remembered that question she had always wanted to ask Casey.

"Casey, how much money do you have?"

Casey turned to look at Edith and said, "Well, it's enough to support you for the rest of your life anyway."

Seeing that Casey didn't give a positive answer, Edith didn't ask further. However, if he only had enough money to support her for the rest of her life, he should not have much money left.

In Edith's opinion, it wouldn't cost much money to support her for the rest of her life.

Edith thought to herself that Casey seemed not to have much money left after he bought this car.

She was a little moved. Because Casey seemed to be very rich during this period of time and had spent all his money for her.

However, what she didn't know was that what Casey meant by supporting her for rest of her life was that it would allow her to live blithely like a queen, without worrying about food and clothing.

Hearing Edith ask this question, Casey suddenly coughed twice and said, "Well... Do you want to confiscate my private property money? If you want, I can give all to you."

Edith was at a loss whether to cry or to laugh and didn't expect Casey to think so.

"That's your money. I won't ask for it. Besides, you don't have much left, right? My mother is not kind to you. You'd better keep it by yourself." Edith said.

Casey didn't speak anymore and drove the range rover back home.

They went upstairs together. As soon as they entered the house, they saw Amara and Nicolas staring at the door with gloomy faces.

Remi and her family sat in the living room. Seeing Casey and Edith back, they all stood up.

"Casey is back. We came to see the car you bought. Yesterday, you said you were going to take the car today. So, do you drive the car back?" Remi asked with a smile.

Amara immediately stepped forward and said, "Remi, don't listen to Casey. Don't you know who he is?"

He was joking with you yesterday."

"Yes. Casey was just kidding you. How could he really buy a car?" Nicolas added.

"So, it was just a joke. I had looked forward to seeing what the difference is between Casey's car and the car Brian bought." Remi's husband was disappointed and said.

"Casey, you didn't buy a car. Why did you talk nonsense? You made us go for nothing." Brian said to Casey unkindly.

Amara and Nicolas's faces were extremely gloomy. They planned to teach Casey a lesson later when Remi's family left.

Edith looked at the scornful eyes of Remi's family and suddenly felt that it didn't matter. After all, Casey really drove the car back.

"I've driven the car back. It's downstairs." Casey said.

Everyone was shocked. Amara and Nicolas didn't believe it. Amara glared at Casey and said, "What are you talking about? Where did you drive the car? Do you think we are fools?"

"Mom, I really drove the car back. If you don't believe it, you can go down and have a look." Casey said.

"Yes, Mom. It's just downstairs." Edith added.

"So, you really bought one. Let's go and see what kind of car Casey bought." Remi said with a smile.

Then Remi's family walked out and went downstairs.

Amara glared at Casey and said, "You son of a bitch! I don't care where you get a car to fool us. I'll have to take you a lesson later."

With that, she went out with Nicolas.

Casey shrugged and went downstairs with Edith.

When they arrived downstairs, Remi's family looked around, then pointed to a worn-out Passat not far away and said, "Casey, is this the car you bought?"

"So, you bought a second-hand Passat. I have thought you bought a good car. It's a waste of time for me to go there." Brian said with disdain.

"Yes, Casey. I have thought that you bought a new car. How could you buy a second-hand car?" Remi said with disdain.

Amara and Nicolas all felt embarrassed. Amara directly scolds Casey, "Why did you drive such a worn-out car back home? I wouldn't take this kind of car even if you give it to me. You spent money to buy it. Shame on you!"

Casey was not anxious at all. Instead, he reached out to point to the range rover on the other side and said, "The car I bought is over there, not this one."

Everyone looked at the direction of Casey's finger. They were surprised to see the brand-new range rover.

"This car... Did Casey buy it?" Remi said in disbelief.

They walked towards the range rover, carefully observed the car, and were all shocked.

"Casey, is this the car you bought?" Amara was a little unconvinced and confirmed with Casey.

Casey nodded and said, "Yes. I just took it today. The receipt is still in the car."

When Remi's family heard Casey's words, they couldn't help feeling jealous. This car was obviously better than Brian's. Naturally, they were unbalanced.

However, Casey had no job and his status at home was so low. How could he afford to buy such a car?

So, Remi's family felt that Edith borrowed money to buy the car to save Casey's face.

Remi had thought that Edith had just been promoted for a short time and certainly didn't have much money. This car was just a bit better looking. But in reality, it must be far worse than Brian's.

Brian was staring at the range rover in shock at this time. He knew the brand of the car. Moreover, he had heard that the cheapest range rover cost more than 1 million.

Because he had never seen such a good car, he just watched the car and didn't want to talk to his parents.

In order to save face, Remi turned to ask Casey, "Casey, you should have spent a lot of money to buy this car, right?"

Casey laughed and said, "Not much."

Seeing Casey say so, Remi was sure that Casey's car was certainly cheap.

This car was bought for over a hundred thousand at most.

"This car looks very good. But it's not as good as Brian's. Brian's car costs more than 200,000. You probably spent no more than that. It's not a good car. I'll ask Brian to drive his car here and let you see what a car costs 200,000 looks like." Remi said proudly.

Casey smiled and did not say anything.

As Brian heard Remi's words, he immediately said to her, "Mom, are you crazy? How can my car compare with this one?"

Remi was stunned and said, "Your car costs more than 200,000. His car only costs over 100,000. Why can't yours compare to his?"

"Who told you that his car just costs more than 100,000? This is a range rover, which costs more than 1 million at least!"

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 67 The Plot

Both Remi and her husband were shocked with their mouths wide open. They seemed to encounter something incredible.

"What did you just say? Your car costs you more than one million?" Her husband shouted surprisingly.

Their son, Brian, nodded to confirm.

Amara and Nicolas were both stunned. They turned to look at Casey.

"How could it be possible that this car is worth more than one million? We can't get one million even if we sold our house!" Remi said with disbelief.

Nicolas then opened the door of the car and saw the receipt. He took it to have a look, where there was written with "1,220,000". His heart almost skipped a beat.

"It's true. It was all written on the receipt." Nicolas said.

Remi and her husband hurried to have a look. They were all too shocked to utter when they confirmed the number.

They both didn't think Casey could afford a car. But he drove a car worth more than one million here and there was even a receipt as proof.

Remi soon softened her hostile attitude. This limousine was even more expensive than her own house.

"Amara, you do have an excellent son-in-law! He could even afford such a limousine! It's so enviable!"

Remi started to envy Amara with another attitude.

Amara was also satisfied. She didn't expect that Casey really drove such a limousine worth more than one million.

But she still didn't believe that it was Casey who paid all the money. Perhaps Edith also paid part of the money or Francis rewarded her a sizeable amount of money for her excellent contribution to the company.

'Well, that should be the case.' Amara confirmed her own assumption. "Remi, stop kidding. How could he afford such a luxurious limousine? It must be Edith. She did an excellent work in the company and then she got a reward. So they could manage to afford the limousine." Amara explained.

"Oh, I see. What a good girl, Edith!" Remi said enviously.

"Mom, the car was..." Edith wanted to explain that it was Casey who afforded the car on his own. She didn't get any reward actually.

"Okay girl, just let me see this car. We could talk a bit later."

Amara turned to see the car and ignored her daughter.

"Amara, I am going back home now." Remi said to her.

"Okay. Oh, by the way, you can go to experience our new car." Amara said happily.

Remi and her family went back to their house awkwardly. They were really defeated in this competition.

When they left, Amara turned to look at Casey, "Well, you took my daughter's honor this time and you did save our face in front of Remi. But don't be complacent about it. I don't think you can afford this car."

Casey was rendered speechless. It seemed that Amara still suspected his capability.

"Okay, give me the key." Amara required.

Casey handed her the key. Amara said to her husband. "Keep the key. Don't let him drive this limousine."

Nicolas nodded, "You are right. He shouldn't drive this limousine. Let me try it first."

"Mom, why can't you let him drive the car? It was him..." Edith was aggrieved for her mom's harsh word.

"Well, girl, you should know this car worth more than one million. I don't even bear to see what if the car grazed a bit. How could we let such a shiftless man drive this car?"

Amara refuted.

Edith was driven mad by her mom. What an unreasonable one!

Casey held Edith on her shoulders and smiled, "It's okay since they are happy with it."

"But it was you who bought this car!" Edith huffed.

"It doesn't matter whoever bought the car. Besides, I bought this car for you to commute. It doesn't matter to me if I can drive it." Casey answered with a smile.

Edith sighed. She felt she owned him really much.

Both Nicolas and Amara got into the car with great delight.

"Girl, why don't you hop in? What a limousine! It feels so comfortable."

Amara exclaimed.

Edith rolled her eyes at her mom, "No. Just enjoy yourself."

Then she grabbed Casey's hands and went upstairs.

It was actually the first time that Edith took the initiative to take his hand. For Casey, he would be even willing to afford a hundred limousines like that if he could enjoy such a chance to take her hand.

After all, he had endless money. But the chance was limited to hold her hand.

"Casey, let me treat you a dinner." Edith said.

Edith was stunned. But soon he replied with a smile, "Okay, since my dream lover wanted to treat me a dinner. Of course I couldn't miss the chance."

Edith rolled her eyes at him, "Wait a second. I can't afford expensive food. I can only treat you a normal meal."

"It's okay. For me, it all tastes the best whatever you treat me as meal."

Casey smiled.

Upon hearing that, Edith's face blushed. She was a bit moved to hear that.

"Humph, stop your glib tongue." Edith murmured and then went upstairs.

Meanwhile, Hunter and Black Wolf were sitting together in a private box of a karaoke club in the J City.

Black Wolf's face was still swollen. But he looked better than yesterday. Hunter's face was also black and blue all over. They sat together as they had just been through something terrible.

But Black Wolf was punched by Casey while Hunter was beaten by Black Wolf.

After the gathering yesterday, Hunter was stopped by Black Wolf when he was about to leave.

Hunter was scared as he thought Black Wolf was about to retaliate against him. However, he didn't expect that Black Wolf stood up from the ground and suggested him to cooperate.

"Fuck! If I hadn't drunk the adulterated wine yesterday, I wouldn't have been beaten up by Casey that bastard!" Black Wolf huffed after taking a gulp of the wine.

He had been insisting that he was defeated by Casey because of the adulterated wine he took.

Hunter took some wine and echoed, "You are right! Everyone in the city knows that Casey is a fucking pussy. How could he be your match?! But I had no idea how he stole that money and even dared to go Dutch on meal with us."

Hunter also disdained Casey and hated him so much. He could never admit that he couldn't even deal with such a jerk.

At a second thought, he did have no idea how to retaliate against Casey. So he promised to cooperate with Black Wolf.

Hunter still deemed himself a gentleman, so he didn't want to do some dirty tricks. Nor did he dare to do so. But for Black Wolf himself, he would try all means to achieve his goal whatever what kind of dirty tricks would be needed.

Hunter was sure that Casey would end up miserably as long as Black Wolf started his retaliation.

"Black Wolf, but I want to know what kind of trick you are going to play to deal with Casey." Hunter asked.

"He is just a good-for-nothing guy. It's quite easy to retaliate against him. I came to you not because of Casey, but his wife." Black Wolf answered with an evil smile.

Hunter was stunned, "What do you mean?"

"If I was not mistaken, you should also be infatuated with his wife, right? If you promise to do me a favor, I could make you get what you want from Edith and then I would smash his nuts!" Black Wolf squinted while speaking angrily.

Hunter was delighted with his eyes glistening. He didn't expect that Black Wolf could help him get Edith.

And he was indeed infatuated with her. For him, it was a tempting offer.

"Are you serious?" Hunter asked.

"Of course! I have been a man of my words. But well, I need something as return if I need to get Edith on your bed." Black Wolf let out a lustful smile.

"What return?" Hunter asked.

"Everyone knows Edith is the most ravishing beauty in J City. Though she married that asshole Casey, I don't think he has ever banged her. So when I destroyed that bastard, I need to take her virginity as return."

Hunter was stunned. He didn't expect that was the return he wanted.

"But Edith will definitely retaliate against you if you take her virginity." Hunter said.

"Don't worry. There are a lot of drugs that could totally intoxicate her and she will be out of consciousness. I promise she would know nothing then as long as I have your words."

Hunter hesitated. Of course he wanted her virginity. But if Black Wolf refused to deal with Casey first, he wouldn't have the chance to get Edith.

'Goddamn it. Just forget her virginity. I can ask for more as much as I want after I make her mine!' Hunter murmured to himself.

"Okay, I promise!" Hunter agreed.

Seeing him agree, Black Wolf smiled and stood up, "Let's go. I will show you a place. I need a few men to deal with that bastard. Remember, don't say anything when we are there."

Hunter nodded.

The two got out of the karaoke club and took a taxi to Starry Night Club. Black Wolf entered with Hunter. Soon, someone appeared. It was Morgan.

"Black Wolf, why are you here? Did you get beaten out of shit? Look at your swollen face, huh!" Morgan teased.

"Morgan, that's a long and humiliating story. I am here to ask you for a few men. I need to retaliate against a bastard!" Black Wolf said.

"No problem. Wait here. I am going to get you some tough guys."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 68 Break Your Neck!

It was weekend. Casey smiled happily as soon as he woke up.

He felt delirious as Edith would treat him a meal.

After washing up, Edith suddenly said to him, "Casey, go to the Harue Restaurant first. My grandpa called me just now. So I need to go to the company to deal with some files."

Casey looked at her and asked, "What happened?"

"Nothing serious. We are going to start a commercial cooperation with a branch company of the TY Group. I need to collate some key files for preparation." Edith answered.

"The TY Group? Well, I have a friend in that group so I can do you a favor if needed." Casey said.

Edith was quite surprised. She didn't expect that Casey even had a friend working in the TY Group.

"Well, you don't need to. We just plan to have a talk with them first.

After all, that project is under heated competition and there are so many companies struggling for it.

But our company is only a mediocre one among them. Perhaps my grandpa just wants to have a try and he is not sure whether we could make it." Edith said.

"Okay, you can ask me for help if you need." Casey said.

Edith nodded and then hurried to the company.

Casey spruced himself and then went to the Harue Restaurant.

Edith had made reservation so he only needed to wait till Edith finished her work.

When he reached the gate of the restaurant and was about to get in, he heard someone call his name from behind.

"Hey, Mr. Davies!"

Casey turned around and saw a muscular guy walked towards him. It was Jax, who helped him spy on those antiques in the TY Manor.

Casey smiled when he saw Jax, "Why are you here?"

"I am here to do my friend a favor. I heard that he got beaten up so he needed someone to help him revenge." Jax answered.

Of course, the friend he mentioned was exactly Black Wolf. Since Black Wolf once served as Morgan's gang member, he would naturally help Black Wolf if he was in need. But Jax didn't know who they were going to retaliate against yet.

Neither did Jax intend to ask whom they were going to revenge on. But if he knew the target was Casey, he would definitely try all means to refuse.

Also, Morgan knew nothing about who the target would be. Or he would have been beaten Black Wolf up first.

Casey nodded and said to Jax, "Just do your own thing. I am going in."

Jax nodded, "Mr. Davies, you can ask me for anything you need."

Casey remained silent and entered the restaurant.

Soon after he entered, Black Wolf had led a bunch of his hatchet men to an alley beside the Harue Restaurant. Jax also waited here with his men.

"Hello, Mr. Hanson." Black Wolf greeted him flatteringly.

"You are finally here! Do you know how long I have been here? Who is that guy? Who makes you mobilize such a big force?" Jax asked.

"Well, he is not that powerful. He is just a pussy! I heard that he was here today for lunch. I will then lead my men in to beat that guy. If we fail, please lead your men in to help us." Black Wolf said with a flattering smile.

"Okay, be quick! I need to take my men for a drink after that." Jax said. "No problem! Let me pay the bill after that! Just quaff yourself." Black Wolf smiled.

He heard that Edith made a reservation here yesterday. So he was sure both Edith and Casey would be here for lunch. So he told Hunter he would revenge on Casey today. He planned to knock out Edith when she went to the lady's room and sent Casey a message with her phone to bring him into the alley. Then he would smash Casey as planned.

But Black Wolf just got the news that Edith went to the company on her own. So he made Hunter bring his man to spy on her beside the company, As soon as she came out, he would knock her out and bring her here.

After dealing with Casey, Black Wolf would have sex with Edith and make Hunter bring her to his house in the next morning. Then Hunter would claim that it was Casey who drugged her with philter. But luckily, Hunter came to save her on time and emasculated Casey for revenge.

But then Hunter would claim that he had no choice but had sex with her due to the effect of the philter.

By that, there would be no choice left for Edith but be with Hunter.

No Wonder She's Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists

It Must Have Been A Kind Of Hell For A Little Chrissy Metz

And above was their plot for today.

This plan was seemingly perfect in their eyes. However, they picked up the wrong guy as target—Casey Davies. This man would bring them to hell at the moment he got involved.

When it was almost at noon, Hunter reported to Black Wolf that he had got Edith under control.

Black Wolf smiled obscenely. He then led his men to the alley beside the restaurant and waited for Hunter.

Soon, Hunter sent Edith to Black Wolf, who was completely out of consciousness.

Then he left. After all, he didn't want to get involved. So he would leave it to Black Wolf to handle.

In the restaurant, Edith waited at the table.

He noticed it was almost at noon. And Edith should arrive.

He was worried after waiting for quite a while, but Edith still didn't appear. He took out his phone to call her.

The line was connected. However, it was not Edith who answered the phone.

"Kid, you finally call your wife. Come to the alley beside the restaurant. Or your wife would suffer." Then Black Wolf hung up the phone.

Casey's face darkened. He stood up and rushed to the alley behind the restaurant.

He could tell from the voice that it was Black Wolf. But he had never expected that Black Wolf dared to retaliate against him after being beaten up so badly. He regretted not having totally destroyed that bastard that day.

Casey hurried to the alley in a few minutes.

Black Wolf and his men had been waiting. They all smiled evilly when seeing Casey appear.

Most of them had been beaten up by Casey before. So they were all naturally eager to have the chance to revenge on him.

Black Wolf sneered at Casey with a baton his hand, "Kid, you look quite anxious. I didn't expect you came so soon."

"Where is my wife?" Casey asked in a cold voice with a murderous look.

"There is no need to find your wife now. I don't think you need a wife when you go through today. Your wife will be mine!" Black Wolf exclaimed.

"You wanna get killed?" Casey clenched his fists.

However, Black Wolf said with disdain, "Stop playing tough in front of me. If I hadn't taken that adulterated wine that day, I wouldn't have been defeated by you!" Then he continued, "Try this, asshole! I will smash your nuts today!" After saying that, Black Wolf hinted his men to rush towards Casey. This time, they all had weapons held in their hands. So they were not even afraid of him.

Casey squinted. He grabbed a bat from one of them and hit them back with the bat.

Black Wolf also rushed forward to hit Casey's head with the bat. Casey soon dodged his attack and hit Black Wolf on his leg. The bat was broken immediately.

"Fuck! Why can't I beat this asshole up? I didn't take any fucking adulterated shit today!" Black Wolf held his injured leg while shouting out painfully.

Casey fought against all these men alone. Soon, he defeated all of them. He grabbed the neck of Black Wolf hard and threatened, "Release her. Or I will break your neck!"

Black Wolf was horrified, "Let go of me. I will call my man to send your wife back."

Casey loosened his grip. Black Wolf immediately took out his phone. But he didn't do as Casey required.

He then dialed the number of Jax.

"Mr. Hanson, bring your men here! That bastard is fucking insane! I can't hold on!"

After hanging up the phone, Black Wolf stared at Casey with a vicious look, "Thank god, I have prepared for back-up. My boss will be here soon to send you to hell!" _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 69 You Shouldn't Have Provoked Him

Casey narrowed his eyes. What he hated most was to be cheated. Undoubtedly, Black Wolf had been in Casey's blacklist.

"Dare you cheat me?" Casey said coldly.

Black Wolf giggled and said, "So what? My boss and his minions are around here, who will arrive in several minutes. After he comes, do you think I will still be afraid of you?"

"Well, then I will wait until your called boss comes and afterwards I will fix you." Casey said faintly.

This was exactly what was called "remove the roots once and for all". Now that there was someone behind Black Wolf, he had to see who dared to have the idea to rob him of Edith.

Whoever had the idea to rob him of Edith would come to a bad end finally.

Black Wolf smiled coldly, thinking that Casey was so stupid, who wanted to wait until his boss came. In his opinion, he was seeking death.

"Well, I suggest you take the opportunity to escape quickly and leave your wife to me. Otherwise, after my boss comes, it will be too late for you to regret."

Casey kept silent, but looked coldly at Black Wolf, who was lying on the ground.

Seeing Casey keep still, Black Wolf smiled more coldly in his mind and he quipped, "He is really an idiot, who doesn't cherish the opportunity to escape. Now that he puts himself against the muzzle, don't blame me for being malicious."

After a while, here came footsteps from nearby. Black Wolf immediately picked himself up from the ground, feeling excited to see those people coming over.

"Mr. Hanson, here you come finally. I don't know why this guy is so good at fighting, and I wouldn't have called you over otherwise." Black Wolf said with respect.

Jax glanced at Black Wolf, curled his lips and said, "You are so useless. I will help to fix the person who has beat you."

Black Wolf instantly stretched out his fingers to point at Casey, and said maliciously, "Mr. Hanson, it is this arrogant guy, who is just the loser in J City that everyone knows. It must be a piece of cake for you to fix him!"

After speaking, Black Wolf looked again at Casey and said with cold smile, "Well, my boss has come.

Quickly kneel down to beg for forgiveness and I will ask my boss to spare your life. Otherwise, today you will never walk out of the alley!”

After seeing that the leader of those people was Jax, Casey was surprised but soon a hint of irony rose on his face.

Jax looked along Black Wolf’s fingers and fell eyes on Casey. He was shocked.

He turned around to give Black Wolf a glimpse, not knowing why this idiot had provoked Casey.

“Mr. ... Mr. Davis, it’s you! What a coincidence.” Jax said embarrassedly to Casey.

Black Wolf became confused, so he turned to look at Jax and asked, “Mr. Hanson, why do you call this loser Mr. Davis? He is Casey Davis, a well-known loser in J City. You must have mistaken him for someone else.”

Jax turned to stare at Black Wolf and slapped him without saying anything.

Black Wolf turned a circle directly and then fell on the ground.

“I think you are a loser. Dare you provoke Mr. Davis? Are you getting tired of living?”

Black Wolf covered his face with hand and stared at Jax with surprise. He asked Jax to come over to fix Casey, but unexpectedly, Jax gave him a slap for Casey.

“Mr. Hanson, what’s wrong with you? He is the top loser in J City. Why are you afraid of him? With your ability, you can pinch him to death with only one hand.” Black Wolf still felt confused.

“If you kept calling him loser, I will directly seal your mouth.”

Jax gave Black Wolf another slap without any hesitation.

“Mr. Hanson, why do you slap me? I am your friend!” Black Wolf covered his face, almost dissolving into tears.

“Who is your fucking friend? I don’t have such a stupid friend like you. Stay away from me!”

Jax instantly distanced himself with Black Wolf, afraid that Casey would blame him for it.

Black Wolf was puzzled, thinking that Casey was only a loser. Why could he make Jax so scared that Jax didn't dare to admit their relationship.

Could it be that Casey was not as simple as he thought?
Thinking of this, Black Wolf immediately opened widely his eyes. What came to his mind was the scene that Casey had effortlessly fixed him and his minions twice. It was impossible for Casey to be an ordinary person.
He must be someone with great social influence.
However, it was late to regret.
Casey came to Jax, who immediately bent down and said respectfully, "Mr. Davis, I really don't know this idiot want to deal with you. If I had known it, I would have killed him."
"What relationship do you have with him?" Casey asked.
"Black Wolf was originally a subordinate of Mr. Byrne and went out on his own later. Considering the previous relationship, Mr. Byrne helps him sometimes. I really didn't expect he wants to deal with you this time." Jax hurried to explain.
Casey nodded and then looked at Black Wolf.
Black Wolf had already come to his mind, who quickly crawled over with a bitter face, begging for mercy,
"Mr. Davis, please spare my life this time. Sorry for having been blind and irritated you. I will never do that again in the future!"
"Where is my wife?" Casey asked.
Only then did Black Wolf think of Edith. He immediately took out the cellphone and made a phone call.
After a while, Edith, who was in a coma, was taken to the alley.
Casey sighed with relief when seeing Edith was just in a coma, and he quickly came close to take Edith over in his arms.
"Mr. Davis, I didn't touch her. Please forgive me. I will never do that."
Black Wolf begged for mercy.

It Must Have Been A Kind Of Hell For A Little Chrissy Metz
Angelina Jolie Health Struggles - Talk About A Dramatic Change
Casey snorted coldly and said, "I never believe in apology. Now that you have done it, you should think about the consequences of it that you need to bear."

Black Wolf's facial expression greatly changed. He knew that Casey would not forgive him.

"Mr. ... Mr. Davis, could you beat me a little lightly? I will surely turn over a new leaf in the future." Black Wolf thought even if Casey wanted to fix him, it would be only a beat.

Casey curled his lips and said, "You have lost the opportunity for that."

After speaking, Casey walked out of the alley.

Jax immediately asked, "Mr. Davis, you mean?"

"Kill him. I don't want to see him again in J City." Casey said faintly.

"Yes, sir." Jax answered.

Black Wolf was frightened and asked, "What... what do you want to do?"

Jax gave Black Wolf a reluctant glimpse and shook his head, "You shouldn't have provoked him."

As soon as the voice faded away, a miserable cry sounded in the alley, startling away the crows that had fallen on the wall.

Casey took Edith to a nearby café, who was in a coma because of the knockout drops given by Black Wolf's minions. She would come to herself after the drug effect was over.

After about half an hour, Edith opened her eyes in a daze and looked around with confusion. Seeing Casey sitting by her side, she asked, "What... what's wrong with me?"

She only remembered she walked out of the office to leave for Harue Restaurant to find Casey. But after walking for a while, she lost consciousness and couldn't remember what had happened exactly.

"You fainted on the way to find me, maybe because of hypoglycemia."

Casey explained.

Edith rubbed her temples and murmured, "Maybe I am so busy recently."

"However, weren't you waiting for me in Harue Restaurant? How did you know I had fainted?" Edith looked at Casey doubtfully.

"Silly girl, I was worried about you. Seeing you hadn't come, I went to the company to find you.

Fortunately, I found you on the way. Otherwise, something serious would have happened. You have to take good care of yourself in the future and don't make yourself so exhausted," Casey said with smile.

Edith suddenly felt warm in her heart. All the people of the Patel family would never care about her health. Amara and Nicolas only thought about her salary. The person who really cared about her might be Casey only.

"Thank you." Edith said.

"It's so simple with only a thank you." Casey said with smile.

Edith hesitated and asked, "Well... what else do you want?"

"How about committing yourself to me?"

"Get away!"

That night, Morgan called Casey to ask him to go downstairs.

Casey went downstairs and arrived at an alley nearby. Morgan and Conor had been waiting there.

Seeing Casey went downstairs, Morgan kneeled down without saying anything and said with a bitter face, "Mr. Davis, I am so sorry. It was me who had asked Jax to help Black Wolf, but I didn't know he wanted to deal with you. Please punish me."

Seeing Morgan acting like this, Casey laughed and said, "Stand up. You didn't know it, so I will not blame you."

"Really, Mr. Davis? Won't you blame me?" Morgan asked with widely opened eyes.

Casey nodded.

Morgan stood up from the ground and said with smile, "Thanks for sparing my life. By the way, please convey my apology to Edith."

Casey rolled his eyes at him and then looked at Conor, asking, "Have you adapted to the life in J City?"

Conor smiled and said, "With the foundation laid by you and Morgan, I am really in my element here, so don't worry about me."

"Mr. Davis, don't listen to his brag. His leadership is really amazing, but recently he is unable to deal with the little leader of an underground casino." Morgan chipped in.

Conor stared at Morgan and said, "No one will treat you as dumb if you don't speak."

Casey was very shocked. Normally, with Conor's ability, it is very easy for him to fix a person of underground casino.

"What's wrong? If this underground casino has hindered you, just ask Morgan to take people to destroy it." Casey said.

"Well, this underground casino hasn't hindered us. I want to make the leader of the underground casino work for me, but..."

"But what?" Casey was curious.

"But he has an odd temper. No matter how much I promise to pay him, he doesn't agree to work with me. He asks me to have a bet with him and he will agree only if I win. However, Morgan and I know nothing about gambling, so he hasn't agreed yet." _____The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 70 Almost Go Bankrupt

Hearing Conor's words, Casey laughed and said, "It is so simple. Ask me to go with you the next time when you go to the underground casino. I will help you to beat him."

Both Conor and Morgan opened their eyes widely, feeling it impossible.

"Mr. Davis, although the underground casino is small, their leader is call Gambling King. I have been there twice with Conor and have seen his awesomeness. There may be few people in J City who can beat him in gambling. Even if you go with us, it might not be possible to beat him." Morgan said.

"Yes. He is really good at gambling, and has an amazing mental calculating ability, which I appreciate very much so I want him to work for me. When the underground world of J City is unified in the future, we will need someone like him to be in charge of finance, which is an important part." Conor said.

Casey looked at them, a little speechless, and he said, "To be honest, my gambling skills might not be worse than him."

Both Morgan and Conor felt doubtful. They knew Casey was very capable, but it was impossible for him to be good at everything, so they both thought Casey was bragging. Seeing they didn't believe him, Casey felt too lazy to explain, and he said directly, "Call on me the next time when you go to that casino. I will give you a show." Both of them nodded and left here together. The next morning, Hunter went alone to the KTV. He had made an appointment with Black Wolf to come to take Edith away this morning. He made several phone calls to Black Wolf last night, but he didn't answer, which made he think that Black Wolf had definitely got Edith and was busy in having sex with her, who had no time to answer him.

Although he felt uneasy once thinking of the appearance of Edith lying under Black Wolf, he didn't care when he thought Edith would be his woman later. But what made him feel strange was that he didn't see any subordinate of Black Wolf after entering the KTV.

He asked about the situation from the manager, and then he was shocked with his eyes widened. "What did you say? Black Wolf was killed yesterday?" Hunter exclaimed. "Be quiet. Don't speak it out in public." The manager gave him a stare. "Who was killed?" Hunter asked. "Don't ask about it. Anyway, from now on, there is not Black Wolf in J City." After speaking, the manager ignored Hunter. Hunter swallowed, thinking that Casey and Edith were so lucky. The job was about to be done when Black Wolf suddenly had an unexpected misfortune.

He naturally didn't think Black Wolf was killed by Casey, but by some adversary of Black Wolf.

"Damn it! Casey really had a good luck. Well, just leave him aside for a while. Recently there is an important project in the company. After dealing with it, I will definitely fix him."

Hunter didn't think much, and he didn't care about Black Wolf's death. After all, he had no friendship with Black Wolf, but just temporary cooperation. He didn't know if Black Wolf had the opportunity to cross him up, he would have come to the same end as Black Wolf.

After a few days, Conor sent an SMS to Casey, "Tonight we will go to the casino to have the last try. If we fail again, I will abandon the idea."

After receiving the SMS, Casey instantly glanced at Edith by his side and asked cautiously, "Well, I have something to deal with tonight and may come back a little late. Do you agree?"

Edith hesitated and said, "Just go. You don't need to ask me."

"You are my wife, so I need to ask for your approval." Casey said.

"OK, I agree." Edith answered, but she felt somehow a little reluctant.

In the past, she and Casey didn't interfere with each other. No matter what Casey did, she would never ask.

However, she suddenly wanted to know what Casey was going to do this time. He said that he had something to deal with, but he had no job. What did he want to do?

Was he going to brothel? A bold idea suddenly came to Edith's mind.

She had learned from Diana that normally if a man said he would go out at night without explaining where to go, it was very possible for him to go out for entertainment.

Was Casey also going to look for entertainment? Edith suddenly realized that she had never allowed Casey to touch her during these years after their marriage.

Casey was a normal man after all. Since Edith didn't allow him to touch her, he had to find somewhere to give vent to his sexual desire.

Thinking of this, Edith increasingly believed that Casey was going to brothel tonight.

She bit her lips and clenched her little fists tightly and angrily.

Nevertheless, she shouldn't blame him for that, because it was her who didn't allow him to touch her after all. But why did she feel so sad once thinking of this?

“Do as you like and I won’t interfere with you.” Edith suddenly said, then stood up with grievance and went back to the bedroom.

Angelina Jolie Health Struggles - Talk About A Dramatic Change
He's Using This Secret Trick To Make Millions

Casey was confused, not knowing what was wrong with Edith. She was quite OK just now, but why did she suddenly seem to be greatly wronged?

He didn’t think much, just thinking that the memories of something unhappy came back to Edith.

At 8: 00 p.m., Casey went out from home. When he went out, Edith deliberately went out to have a look at him, which made him feel very strange.

Morgan and Conor had already been waiting for him near the casino, so he immediately called a taxi after going out of the neighborhood.

After a while, he arrived the appointed place and met Morgan and Conor, who went together with them to a nearby amusement arcade.

Entering the amusement arcade, Morgan directly took both of them to the second floor. There was a person guarding the stairway intended to stop them, but when he saw Morgan taking the lead, he was so scared that he immediately got out of the way.

The underground casino mentioned by Conor was on the second floor of the amusement arcade. If ordinary people want to go in, they had to ask their acquaintances to bring them in, but celebrities like Morgan naturally didn’t have to.

After all, everyone knew that as long as Morgan wanted, he could destroy the casino within several minutes.

The space on the second floor was fairly large with all kinds of equipment. There were already many people around here with chips in hand, shouting and wrangling, very abustle and astir.

Morgan went to the place for chip exchange, and said to the attendant, “I want to see your boss. Please ask him to come out.”

The attendant glanced at the three of them and said, "Sorry, our boss doesn't receive visits today."

"Just tell him that Morgan comes to find him." Morgan said with widely opened eyes, as if he could destroy the place at any time.

The attendant was so frightened that he went in quickly to ask.

After a while, he came out, looked at them cautiously and said, "Our boss said that you have visited him for free twice, and if you want to see him this time, you must pay a visit fee of 500,000 dollars or win the same amount in our casino. Our boss won't see you otherwise."

"What!" Morgan opened widely his eyes and grabbed the attendant by the neck.

"Sir, even if you use violence, our boss won't see you. Here are chips of 10,000 dollars. As long as you can win 500,000 dollars with these chips, our boss will come out." The attendant said with fear.

Casey gave Morgan a look to motion him to let go. Morgan released his hand in bad mood.

"Well, then we will win 500,000 dollars with these chips as your boss said." Casey said with smile.

"Casey, are you crazy? It is very difficult to win 500,000 dollars with only 10,000 dollars. Besides, maybe we will lose the 10,000 dollars within a second."

"Yes, even if we can win 500,000 dollars, maybe the sun will have already risen." Conor said.

Casey gave the two of them a glimpse and said coldly, "Stop talking nonsense. Let's take action separately to see who will win the most."

After speaking, Casey took a chip of 10 dollars from the chips of 10,000 dollars and turned to win money.

"Casey, are you crazy? You have only taken 10 dollars!" Morgan shouted.

Conor shook his head and said, "Maybe he has watched too many TV dramas. Let's think of ways to win money. He will definitely come back to ask us for more after losing the 10 dollars."

After speaking, they both went to their gambling tables separately to win money.

The attendant glanced at the three of them with cold smile and said, "It's so funny. If you can really win 500,000 dollars with only 10,000 dollars, then we don't need to run the casino. You are so innocent. This place belongs to the Gambling King."

He turned around and returned to the inner room, walking to a big fat man, saying, "Boss, they have taken the chips of 10,000 dollars to gamble."

Fat Guy looked up and bust out laughing, saying, "It is so stupid of Morgan to have the idea of winning 500,000 dollars with only 10,000 dollars. He must be living in a dreamworld."

"So he is. Based on their level, maybe they will lose all the money within ten minutes."

"You said here come three of them. Who is the third person? Have we seen him before?" Fat Guy asked.

"Never before. But he seems to be a rookie without knowing anything about gambling. Don't worry, boss." The attendant answered.

Fat Guy nodded and said, "Go out to keep watch on them. Maybe they will lose all the money very soon.

I will sleep for a while, so don't disturb me if nothing important."

The attendant nodded and got out of the room.

After about an hour, the attendant ran flustered into the room where Fat Guy was and then shouted with an anxious voice, "Boss, boss, something serious happened!"

Fat Guy was sleeping when he was suddenly scared by the attendant's voice. He stared at the attendant and asked, "Damn it! Can you hold it down? I am so scared that I almost have a heart attack. What's wrong? Does Morgan want to destroy my casino after losing all the money? Just tell him that even if he destroys my casino, I won't see him."

"No, it's not so. The third person that Morgan has brought has won all the money of our casino with only 10 dollars. If you don't go out, our casino will go bankrupt!"

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 71 Gambling King

Fat Guy directly jumped out of the chair, staring at the attendant, and said, "What are you saying? He has won all the money of our casino with only 10 dollars?"

"Yeah... yes. If the situation doesn't improve, our casino will really go bankrupt." The attendant answered.

Fat Guy swallowed, not expecting the person brought by Morgan was so capable.

"Quickly take me to find that person. I want to see what ability he has to make my casino almost go bankrupt!"

The two of them immediately went outside, looking very flustered.

On the second floor of the arcade.

Both Morgan and Conor threw out the last chip from their hands with a woebegone look, who had lost the 10,000 dollars within only an hour.

As far as Conor was concerned, it was very awesome of them to spend an hour losing only 10,000 dollars.

"Damn it! The fucking fatty hasn't come out to see me yet. If I see him next time, I will first beat him up."

Morgan said maliciously.

"Let's go to look for Casey first, to see how he is going." Conor said.

"Well, he only took a chip of 10 dollars. Maybe he has lost the 10 dollars not long after the beginning and is sitting at some corner now." Morgan said.

At this time, an exciting cheering came from a nearby table, so Morgan and Conor moved their gazes toward the crowd, feeling curious.

They both pushed their way through the crowd in order to see what had happened.

They walked to the table and saw Casey surrounded by the crowd. There was a small mountain of chips in front of him.

Conor and Morgan immediately turned shocked.

Hadn't Casey taken away only a chip of 10 dollars just now? Why were there so many chips in front of him?

Morgan quickly walked to Casey and asked, "Casey, what happened? How have these chips been put in front of you? Don't they want these chips?"

Seeing Morgan and Conor, Casey said with smile, "Here you come finally. If you had not come, maybe they wouldn't gamble with me."

The banker standing in front of Casey was livid, thinking that our casino was about to go bankrupt. It was called looking for trouble if he continued to gamble.

"Casey, have you win these?" Staring at those chips, Conor said with incredibility.

Casey nodded.

"Wow, Casey, you are so awesome! How much do these chips add up to? Is it enough for 500,000 dollars?" Morgan said.

"About 5,000,000 dollars." Casey said faintly.

Both Conor and Morgan were surprised and then gulped.

"Five... five million dollars, oh my god! Casey, did you win 5 million dollars with only 10 dollars?"

Morgan's voice began trembling.

Conor hurried to count the chips and found that these chips did add up to several million dollars.

"Isn't this guy really a monster?" Conor muttered to himself.

Only now did he realize how correct it was for him to choose to follow Casey.

"Well, quickly go to call your boss to come out. I have won so much and he should come out to see him."

Casey said.

"We don't have to because our boss has already come." At this moment, a voice called out.

All the people turned around and saw a big fat man coming over.

"The Gambling King has come and this guy will have bad luck."

"This guy does have good gambling skills, which, however, must be much worse than that of the Gambling King. Now the Gambling King comes to fix him."

"Well, it's already very good to force the Gambling King out. However, no one can compare with the Gambling King."

Fat Guy directly kicked the banker away and stood in front of Casey. He looked Casey up and down, and asked, "It's you who have won all the money of my casino with only 10 dollars?"

"Right, it's me." Casey nodded with smile.

Fat Guy raised his hand to scratch his head and said, "You are the first one who can force me out in my casino. Tell me what do you want?"

Casey glanced at Morgan and Conor by his side and said, "They should have told you what I want. As long as you agree to work for Conor, I can return the 5,000,000 dollars back to you."

Fat Guy snorted and said, "Do you think you can buy me over with 5 million dollars? I tell you there is only a way to convince me, that is, to win me in gambling. Dare you?" Casey smiled and said, "Why not?"

The crowd began to laugh after hearing Casey's words.

"Hey guy, you may not know that he is the famous Gambling King in this city, who has never lost to anyone on the gambling table. Don't boast about how awesome you are."

"HaHa, it's the first time for me to see someone dare provoke the Gambling King in this way. There must be a good play today."

No Wonder She's Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists

"The Gambling King is not as simple as you think. Those who gamble with him will lose very miserably."

...

Hearing the blandishment of the people around him, Fat Guy showed a triumphant smile on his face.

"Hey guy, have you heard it? You have to be prepared for bankruptcy if you gamble with me."

Casey smiled and said, "I am afraid you will be the one who go bankrupt."

There was a trace of disdain on Fat Guy's face, who turned his head and glanced at the person next to him, and said, "Go and bring the dices."

The person immediately went to bring two dice cups and a generous handful of dices.

“Let’s make it simple. Today I just compete with you in rolling the dices. The one who get the smaller points wins. What do you think?”

Casey thought the called Gambling King should have taken out something garish to embarrass him.

Unexpectedly, it was just dice rolling.

Although the winner was the one who could get the smaller points, there was no difference for Casey.

Dice rolling was the game where Casey had never lost to anyone since he was ten years old.

Of course, Edith was an exception.

“OK.” Casey answered.

“Ha, ha, now that you have agreed, then I will talk about the stake. If you win, I will do as you order and work for Conor. If I win, you have to leave the 5 million dollars and take out another 5 million as well as all his clothes. What do you think?”

Everyone who had gambled with Fat Guy knew that what he liked most is to make his adversary lose even the underpants, so every time he gambled, he always staked all the clothes. Once losing to him, his adversary had to leave naked.

This was the real sense of losing even the underpants.

“Damn it! Finally, I can see someone leave naked again. You don’t have to laugh at me in the near future.” A tall and strong man almost dissolved into tears, looking very grateful to Casey, because he was one of the people who left naked.

Seeing Casey accept Fat Guy’s stake, Morgan and Conor felt a little worried.

“Casey, Fat Guy is very good at rolling dices. I have never seen him lose to anyone. If you lose, you really have to leave naked.” Morgan advised.

“Don’t worry. I won’t lose.” Casey said with smile.

Seeing Casey so determined, Morgan and Conor stopped obstructing him and had no choice but let Casey gamble with Fat Guy.

Fat Guy divided the dices in his hand into two batches, each with twelve dices, and handed a batch to Casey.

“We both have twelve dices. The one who get the smaller points wins.” Fat Guy said.

Even if it was a gambling master like Fat Guy, it was fairly difficult to roll 12 dices, let alone to get the smallest points.

When seeing Fat Guy take out so many dices, the crowd gulped.

“This guy will have bad luck. It’s so difficult to roll 12 dices. Besides, the Gambling King has got 12 points once, the smallest points. It’s impossible for that guy to win.”

Seeing Fat Guy take out so many dices, Morgan immediately broke out into curses, “You fucking fatty, are you kidding? How can he roll so many dices?”

Fat Guy said shamelessly, “Don’t accept the stake if you don’t dare to compete. I don’t force you to.”

“Damn! I think you are deliberate. Casey, let’s leave here. It doesn’t matter if we abandon such a shameless person!” Morgan said with rage.

Casey stared at Morgan and said, “Shut up and just look. Otherwise, I will kick you out.”

Morgan calmed down and muttered to himself, “After all, it’s you who will leave naked if you lose. Since you want to run naked, I won’t stop you.”

“Ha, ha, I like straightforward people just like you! Well, I will start first!” After speaking, Fat Guy shook the dice cup to let the 12 dices in, and then began to shake quickly.

All the people were dazzled by Fat Guy’s hands. Casey also got somewhat surprised, not expecting that such a fat man could show such a flexible technique.

Casey put the 12 dices into the dice cup without hesitation and began to shake it.

His technique was simple, but others couldn’t see through the strength he used.

After seeing Casey’s technique, everyone believed that Casey couldn’t win Fat Guy.

Very soon, Fat Guy put the dice cup down on the table and so did Casey. Fat Guy smiled evilly at Casey, then took the dice cup up and said, “I got twelve points and you lose.”

Everyone exclaimed and began to praise the awesomeness of the Gambling King.

To get the smallest points with 12 dices wasn't what ordinary people could do.

Casey shook his head with smile and said, "Not necessarily."

After speaking, he took up his dice cup. It could be seen that the 12 dices formed a vertical line, and the top dice was only one point.

There was only one point face up among the 12 dices.

"I got only one point and you got 12 points. You lose." Casey said, laughing.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 72 Knelt Down with a Plop

Fat Guy directly pounded the table in a sudden, who looked incredulously at the 12 dices in front of Casey.

He thought he had an incredible ability in rolling dices, but it was impossible for him to make the 12 dices form a vertical line. In addition, the uppermost one was the smallest point.

He never believed the plot that only existed in TV dramas. After all, it was not so easy to roll dices.

However, this scene really happened in front of him.

After seeing the dices in front of Casey, all the people around opened widely their mouths, looking at Casey with incredible eyes.

Both Morgan and Conor also were very surprised, thinking that Casey couldn't absolutely win Fat Guy. To their surprise, Casey showed a better skill of rolling dices than Fat Guy. "How many hidden skills does this guy have?" Conor muttered.

"It's not true. We compete for points. It's not OK even though you pile them up."

Fat Guy directly walked to Casey and then took the dices down one by one. Later he was shocked to find all the dices below were one point face up.

For points, he got the same as Casey did, but for technique, he had lost to Casey.

It was the first time that he felt frustrated after spending so many years in gambling in the casino.

“If you feel unconvinced, then we can consider it as a draw. We can compete in other items.” Casey said with smile.

Obviously, Fat Guy was not resigned, and said immediately, “OK, let’s compete in other items!”

After speaking, he walked towards those tables in the center of the casino.

Casey followed him, and they began to compete in all kinds of items of the casino.

The audience in the center uttered exclamations from time to time, highly praising Casey’s awesome gambling skills.

Fat Guy’s face became more and more bitter. Every time he lost, Casey asked him to take off a piece of closing. At last, there was only a pair of underpants on Fat Guy.

The final round ended and he walked to Casey, looking down and keeping silent.

“What’s wrong with the Gambling King? Does he plan to use violence because he has lost miserably?”

“If the Gambling King intends to use violence, this guy will definitely die.”

“Oh my god, the Gambling King is going to get angry. Run quickly!”

...

Casey stared at Fat Guy with narrowed eyes, not knowing what he wanted to do.

Morgan stood in front of Casey and said coldly, “You fucking fatty, admit your defeat. If you want to use violence because of the defeat. I don’t mind making you taste the righteous iron fist!”

Fat Guy kept silent and clenched his fists after coming in front of Casey.

Morgan thought he was about to take action, so he raised his hand and planned to take action.

At this time, Fat Guy suddenly knelt down with a plop in front of Casey, then grabbed Casey by the thigh, moaning, "Master, please let me be your apprentice. I promise to be at your disposal as long as you impart your gambling skills to me and allow me to keep the underpants on."

Everyone was shocked and the whole casino was quiet for a few seconds.

Then many people began to laugh, because to their surprise, such a Gambling King who always had a commanding presence would stoop to compromise.

Besides, now there was only a pair of underpants on Fat Guy and he lost in the final round. Logically, he should take it off.

No one had expected that he would kneel down to beg for Casey's mercy in order not to take it off.

Casey also didn't expect that Fat Guy would act in this way, so he was a little overwhelmed for a while.

"Well... could you stand up first?" Casey asked.

"If master doesn't agree, I won't stand up." Fat Guy kept stubborn.

Casey didn't know what to do. He couldn't stand seeing a 100 kilo-weighted fatty begging for mercy in front of him.

"Well, I agree. Stand up and you don't need to take your underpants off." Casey said.

Fat Guy instantly stood up from the ground, showing a grateful smile at Casey and then hurried to dress himself.

"Master, I will follow your orders from now on. I will do as you ask me to." After getting himself dressed, Fat Guy said to Casey respectfully.

Casey nodded and said, "Stop running casino in the future and work for Conor, who will maximize your talents."

"Yes, Master!" Fat Guy answered.

Morgan looked Fat Guy up and down, and then looked at Conor. A smirk suddenly appeared on his face.

"Why are you smirking?" Casey asked.

"I am thinking, can we go to the west for Buddhist scriptures if you get a White Dragan Horse?" Morgan said.

"What are you talking about?" Conor said.

“Look, Casey is Master, you are Monkey King, this fat man is Pigsy and I am Monk Sha. We just need a White Dragon Horse now.” Morgan said with smile. Hearing what Morgan said, Fat Guy instantly gave him a stare and cursed, “Get away! You are Pigsy. I am Marshal Canopy!” “Almost the same.” Morgan laughed. After taming “Pigsy”, Casey asked Fat Guy to follow Conor and Morgan to the Starry Night Club, and he quickly went back home.

A 25-Year-Old Becomes The Richest Man In His City
No Wonder She’s Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists
He seldom returned so late. Although he knew Edith might not care about whether he came back late or not, he still thought he had to go back early. After he arrived home, Amara and Nicolas had already gone to their bedroom to sleep. Casey crept up alone to wash himself up and then returned to the bedroom. Edith was lying on the bed and seemed to have fell asleep. Casey closed the door cautiously and intended to lie down by Edith’s side. Since Edith allowed Casey to sleep on the bed last time, Casey had never slept on the floor. Casey was about to lie down when Casey suddenly said, “Go to sleep on the floor.” Casey was surprised, not expecting that Edith was still awake. “Are you still awake?” Casey asked. “Well, it is not because of you anyway.” Edith said angrily. She had been imagining after Casey went out, who stayed awake naturally because of Casey. She was just angry just now by saying that. Casey felt somewhat confused, not knowing who did he provoke Edith, who got so angry. Did her menstrual period come? It seemed so. He had heard that the woman in menstrual period would be in bad mood somehow. If so, he had better not upset her. Casey obediently put the quilt on the floor, intending to spend the night sleeping on the floor.

Seeing Casey really went to sleep on the floor, Edith firmly believed that he had a guilty conscience.

Otherwise, why did he go to sleep on the floor while she only said so.

Her grievance grew stronger and her eyes were filled with tears.

“Oh, it’s so disgusting. It’s none of my business no matter what he has done. Why should I shed tears because of this? It’s so strange.”

Edith held back the tears and turned around in order not to show her appearance to Casey.

If this guy explained to her where he had been, she might forgive him.

Seeing Edith acting like that, Casey felt she was uncomfortable, so he didn’t disturb her but lay on the ground and fell asleep silently.

After a long time, seeing Casey fall asleep, Edith couldn’t bear the grievance in her mind and directly dissolved into tears.

To her surprise, this guy was so heartless, who ignored her grievance and let her bear it alone. It seemed that she had been mistaken about him.

She thought the affections between them had been growing better slowly, but it seemed that she was just imagining things.

Edith felt sad for the whole night and finally fell asleep in deep tiredness.

The next morning when Edith woke up, she felt her eyes a little painful.

She had cried for quite a while last night, but Casey didn’t notice it.

She was about to get up with disappointment when she suddenly found a bowl of brown sugar water on the bedside table.

Edith felt somewhat confused. She was not in menstrual period, but who had prepared brown sugar water for her?

Then the door was pushed open and Casey walked in with a bowl of porridge in his hand.

“Did you wake up? Come to have some porridge to warm your body.”

Seeing Edith wake up, Casey said instantly.

Edith thought Casey was definitely pleasing her because of his guilt. She wouldn’t let herself be tricked by Casey.

“Well, don’t think I will ignore your shamelessness with your gallantry. Casey, let’s live separately and don’t interfere with each other in order to avoid troubles.” Edith said. Casey got puzzled, not knowing what was wrong with Edith, and asked, “Are you unhappy due to the menstrual period?”

“Not really. Stop finding excuses!” Edith was shy and angry, who itched to bite Casey.

“No? But why are you so angry?” Casey asked doubtfully.

“Well, you should ask yourself. Casey, I don’t care if you go out to find other women. I am really sorry for that, but you had better not interfere with my affairs in the future.” While speaking, Edith dissolved into tears again.

Casey felt more confused, “Find other women? What are you talking about?”

“Stop playing the fool! Didn’t you go out to find other women last night?” Edith said angrily.

Casey suddenly didn’t know whether to laugh or to cry, and said, “I have told you that I have something to deal with. How could I go to find other women?”

“If you don’t believe, I can swear to god if I had done that kind of shameless things, I would die without descendants in the future!”

Seeing Casey make such an oath, Edith suddenly realized she might have misunderstood Casey.

“Really?” Casey asked.

“Of course. Only you are in my eyes. How could I go to find other women?” Casey said.

Edith suddenly felt quite relieved.

Seeing her like that, Casey suddenly asked, “So... are you jealous?”

“Of course not. Well, I just asked casually.” Edith’s face turned red with shyness.

When Casey saw her lovely appearance, his heartbeat immediately began to accelerate. Then his gaze fell on Edith’s soft lips and he leaned forward slowly.____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 73 I Trust Him

When Edith saw Casey turn towards her and look at her lips, she knew what he wanted to do.

She did not know why she was also inexplicably excited, as if she received some kind of signal.

She should have been reserved, but her instinct prevented her from doing anything, and she just sat and waited for him to kiss her.

As Edith did not fight against him, Casey was also very excited. It seemed that he could finally have intimate contact with her today.

Edith was a little nervous, so she closed her eyes and did not do anything.

When they almost kissed, Amara called Edith outside suddenly.

“Edith, what are you doing? You’re late for work.”

They turned away their faces quickly and they did not kiss each other.

Edith was shy, and Casey was helpless.

He did not think that he would lose this chance this way.

“Yes, mom! I will come out right now.” Edith calmed herself down. She glanced at Casey and thought that it was a little funny, and then she walked out of the room triumphantly.

Casey sighed as he did not expect that he would lose the chance he had waited for a long time this way.

However, it seemed that Edith did not resist him anymore, presumably he would have the next chance soon.

A few days later, Francis Patel gathered Patel family members together and held an important meeting to discussing the project of TY Group.

Recently, a subsidiary of the TY Group in J City got a major project. The business of the Patel family was just linked to this project, so if they could cooperate with TY Group, they would have unprecedented development.

However, this project was very hot, and there were countless companies that wanted to cooperate with TY Group. And Patel family just ranked at medium level, so TY Group would not cooperate with them.

These days, many Patel family members had contacted workers in TY Group privately, because they knew that their status in the Patel family would be instantly improved if they negotiated with TY Group successfully.

However, none of them could contact the senior staff in TY Group, and they even did not meet with the manager of the subsidiary. Therefore, they gave up. No matter what, TY Group would not cooperate with the Patel family.

But Francis Patel attached great importance to this project. He was still thinking about the gifts given by Davies family last time. He also thought that the Patel family was a big family comparable to those first-class families, so TY Group would cooperate with them.

“It’s very important for us to cooperate with TY Group in terms of this project. So no matter what you do, you must get the contract of this project. As we all know, our family can have a big development with this project.”

“Mr. Francis, the senior staff of the TY Group has been mysterious, and we cannot meet with them,” someone said.

“Nonsense! Our Patel family is a big family with power, so I think they will think about it as a favour to me. It just shows that you should do more if you cannot meet with them.” Francis Patel retorted immediately.

And then, they said nothing, because they knew that if they kept arguing with him, they would have something bad.

“It is crucial to get cooperation with TY Group. If you do it successfully, you will also get many benefits.

So please tell me who will be the best one to do it.” Francis kept talking. In his opinion, they would fight for this opportunity as there would be many benefits.

Unexpectedly, they started making excuses when he asked about it.

“As it is so important, I think our eldest brother will be the best one to do it.”

“No. I think our youngest brother should take this opportunity to get much more working experience.”

“No, I can’t do it. I think you can do it better.”

.....

Talking about the cooperation with TY Group, there would indeed be many benefits, but the premise was to promote cooperation between the two parties. Now everyone knew that it was not easy to meet with the senior staff of TY Group, and it was almost impossible for the Patel family to get the opportunity to cooperate with TY Group, so they did not want to do it.

After all, if they did not make it successful, Francis Patel would be furious.

“Rubbish!” Francis was very angry when he saw that no one was willing to work to promote the cooperation with TY Group, “You guys are really worse than Albie. If Albie was here, he would make it successful.”

He did not know that Albie was collecting trash in the Beggars' Gang. All the members kept quiet, and they lowered their heads and dared not to look at Francis Patel.

“Grandpa, I think we can assign this task to Edith Patel. She has done a good job in our company recently, and she has just been promoted. It's time for her to have a better performance.” Nyla Patel said abruptly.

After hearing that, all the people turned to Edith and agreed with Nyla at once, because they really hoped that she could take this task.

“Yes, Edith really has done a good job in the company recently. I think she can take this task.”

“That’s a good idea. Edith is indeed the best one to do it.”

“I also agree with you. It’s the best choice to assign this task to Edith.”

.....

Edith stared at Nyla at once as he did not expect that Nyla would be so insidious to make a trap for her.

No Wonder She’s Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists

Angelina Jolie Health Struggles - Talk About A Dramatic Change

Edith also knew that it was difficult to promote cooperation with TY Group. If she took this task, she would get herself into trouble.

Nyla was pleased with herself, and she looked like an arrogant queen who could change other people's fate.

"I don't think she is qualified for this task, she cannot make it successful," Amara Stevens said awkwardly.

Nyla replied disdainfully, "I think she is qualified enough. Among the younger generation, she is the only one who can get the same salary as that of those predecessors. It means that she is competent. If she cannot finish this task successfully, why can she get such a high salary?" Amara could not say anything as Nyla said like that, but she secretly scolded her for not respecting elders and speaking so aggressively.

Nyla did not give a shit to Amara at all. Actually, she did not give a shit about any elders because she thought that she would marry a rich and powerful man in the future. Francis looked at Edith and said, "Edith, I agree with Nyla. You are competent, so I believe you can finish this task well. And you are familiar with this project as you have sorted out the materials, so I think you shall take this task."

Edith suddenly became anxious and wanted to explain to Francis.

At that moment, Casey Davies supported her shoulders with his hands, and then said: "Edith will definitely complete this task."

Edith was a little surprised. She didn't expect Casey to accept the task for her, and he also said that she would be able to complete the task.

After hearing that, Amara was very angry, "Are you crazy? Edith didn't make any promise. Why are you accepting this task for her?"

All the people sneered, they also did not expect that Casey would make Edith into trouble.

"He's really silly. All of us could not complete this task, he even dared to take this task for Edith and said that she would complete it.”

“I find that Casey Davies has become more and more like to say something untrustworthy recently. As we all know, it is very difficult to complete this task. How dare he make a promise directly?”

"Perhaps he thinks that doing business is like playing games with children. What an idiot!"

Nyla looked at Casey mockingly. She thought that he had become more and more idiotic after not seeing him for a period of time.

“Since Casey has talked like this, I think this task should be assigned to Edith. And she will definitely be able to complete it. If she fails, she won't have to stay in Patel family anymore.” Nyla said in a weird manner.

All the people agreed with her at once.

Francis glanced at Casey for a second and said, “Well, then I will assign this task to Edith. Edith, please don't let me down.”

Edith was helpless. She just could nod with agreement.

She thought that Casey told her that he had friends in TY Group last time, so he took this task for her because of this?

Amara looked at Casey with anger. She really thought that he made them in trouble on purpose.

After finishing the discussion, the meeting ended.

Nyla walked up to Edith and sneered, “Edith, you really have a nice husband. Although he can do nothing well, he really did a good job in making you into trouble.”

“I heard that TY Group has confirmed the company they want to cooperate with. So it is impossible for you to complete this task. When you fail, grandpa will ask you to leave the Patel family. I don't think you can be pleased with yourself anymore.”

Edith was angry and said, “Nyla Patel, please don't go too far.”

“I go too far? Really? Let me tell you, I will marry the son of the Davies family in B City. Do you know about the Davies family in B City? If you fight against me, you will not have a good ending.” Nyla said proudly.

"Really? Did the Davies family make any promises to you? So far, has anyone from the Davies family come to you?" Casey said coldly.

Nyla's facial expression suddenly changed. This was indeed an issue that made her feel upset, and she did not expect that Casey would say it to her.

"Well, I think the Davies family is just waiting for an appropriate time. After I marry the son of the Davies family, I will show you my power."

After saying that, she went away angrily.

After they returned home, Amara pointed directly at Casey's nose and cursed loudly, "Are you crazy?

Why did you take this task for Edith? You should have known that it is impossible to complete it."

"I will help her complete it." Casey replied.

"You are such an idiot! I don't think you can help her complete it. I think you really want to make us into trouble. Edith has just been promoted. How can you get her into trouble this way?" Amara kept talking.

Edith could not stand it and said, "Mom, even if Casey did not take this task for me, it would finally be assigned to me. I cannot reject it. And maybe Casey can really help me complete it."

"What are you talking about, Edith? Are you silly? He's just good-for-nothing. It is impossible for him to help you complete it. I think he does it with bad ideas. So you shall divorce him as soon as possible. He is not reliable," Amara said with anger.

Edith frowned and then calmed down suddenly.

She looked at Amara seriously and said firmly, "Mom, please stop talking like this. I will not divorce Casey."

"And I trust him."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 74 Let Them Divorce

Amara looked at Edith and thought that it was unbelievable, because it was the first time that Edith showed her opinion about Casey in front of her.

After saying that, Edith went back to her room with Casey.
Amara was angry to death. She said to herself with anger, "Damn it! I will make you get out of our family as soon as possible."

.....

Inside the room.
"Casey, can you really help me complete this task?" Edith asked Casey.
Casey smiled and said, "Do you think I will get you into trouble?"

"No, I don't think so. But it is not easy to complete this task. And I don't think TY Group will be willing to cooperate with us as we are just a small company. Maybe I can come to Hunter Powell, because he works in TY Group." Edith said with head down.
Casey was surprised. He forgot Hunter Powell also worked in TY Group, and he heard that the subsidiary Hunter Powell worked in was in charge of this project.

"Hunter Powell has no good intentions towards you. I will not allow him to make any sexual offend to you on this matter. Please trust me, TY Group will not cooperate with any other company for this project." Casey smiled.

Edith did not speak, but pursed her lips.
She knew that Casey did not like Hunter Powell, and she did not like him either. But it was crucial to finish this task. Even if Casey knew someone in TY Group, he could not influence the decision of the senior staff in TY Group.

Therefore she would meet with Hunter Powell.
Since Casey did not want her to meet with Hunter, she would not tell him about it in advance.

The next day, in a coffee shop in J City.

Edith sat opposite Hunter with some restraints, and she looked a bit embarrassed and worried.

"Edith, you are right as you come to me for this project. Because I am in charge of this project, I can make the decision to cooperate with your company." Hunter was proud.

Edith was surprised at once. She did not expect that Hunter would be in charge of this project.

She thought that she was right to come to Hunter in advance. Otherwise, even if Casey knew someone in TY Group, Hunter would not help them because they did not get along well with each other.

“So could you help me? This project is very important to the Patel family and me.” Edith begged him.

Hunter smiled and said, “Edith, based on our relationship, I should help you.”

Edith was excited after hearing that.

“However, as you know, I have always liked you since I was in college. Although you got married, I will never give up.”

“What’s more, Casey Davies is just good-for-nothing. He can’t be comparable to you at all. It’s really bad for you to marry him. But I am different. I can earn much more money for you from this project because it is priceless.”

“So as long as you divorce Casey and then marry me, I promise I will cooperate with the Patel family based on this project. What do you think?”

Edith thought that Hunter would help her as they were classmates.

However, she did not think that Hunter would ask her to divorce Casey.

As for this point, she thought that there was no room for negotiation.

Anyway, she would not divorce Casey.

“Since you talked like this, I won’t bother you. I will figure out by myself.”

Edith stood up and turned back and walked out of the coffee shop.

“Edith, could you think about it? Why don’t you divorce such an idiot? If you marry me, you can live a better life with much more money.” Hunter was anxious when he saw Edith reject him firmly.

But Edith did not turn back and left the coffee shop directly.

Hunter was angry. He did not know why Edith was so loyal to her marriage since Casey was so good-for-nothing.

He drank his coffee and thought that Edith was so silly.

When he was angry, a pretty girl sat down opposite him and looked at him with a smile.

That was Naly Patel who followed Edith secretly.

Hunter immediately tidied up his clothes, and said solemnly, "Excuse me. What can I do for you?"

"You are a classmate of Edith Patel? Nyla Pate asked him.

"Yes. But who are you?" Hunter asked her.

"I am her younger cousin." Nyla replied.

"If you come here to help her talk about the project of our company, I would like to say sorry to you,"

Hunter said.

No Wonder She's Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists

He's Using This Secret Trick To Make Millions

Nyla laughed at once and then said, "I won't help her, because I hope she cannot make it successful."

Hunter was amazed and he did not understand what she wanted to do.

"Then what are you doing here?" Hunter asked her.

"I knew what you talked to Edith just now, and I can help you." Nyla talked to him.

She did not expect Edith to complete this task, but she found a better way to take revenge on her.

What's more, if she got along well with Hunter, she could get some benefits from this project.

As Hunter was doubtful, she talked about her relationship with Edith to Hunter. And then Hunter understood why Nyla would come to him.

"So how can you help me to make Edith marry me?" Hunter asked her.

"My family status is much higher than that of Edith. If I tell my grandfather that as long as Edith marries you, you will cooperate with the Patel family. What do you think my grandfather will do?" Nyla said.

Hunter was surprised but a bit doubtful, "However, are you sure your grandfather will ask Edith to divorce Casey and then marry me just for a project?"

"Trust me. Everyone in J City knows that Casey is just good-for-nothing, so my grandpa doesn't like him either. Compared with you, he is nothing. My grandpa will definitely choose you. In addition, he attaches much importance to this project, so he will not care about Casey.” Nyla said disdainfully.

Hunter laughed. If Nyla could help him, it was possible for him to marry Edith.

“Then you help Edith complete the task finally?” Hunter said with a smile.

“No, I am not helping her. It seems that she is reluctant to divorce Casey, so I must do something to make them divorce. What’s more, we are allies on this matter, so shall I get some benefits from this project?” Nyla said with a smile.

Hunter touched her hands with his hands and said obscenely, “Of course you can get some benefits. And I think you are not worse than Edith, how about having fun with me?”

He was not a gentleman, so he liked Nyla and thought about sex with her just because she looked beautiful.

Nyla took her hands back directly. She glanced at Hunter with dislike and said, “OK, it’s a deal. I will help you get Edith, and you should give me some benefits.”

She always thought that she would marry a rich man in a big family, so she did not give a shit to Hunter even though he worked in TY Group.

Therefore, she would not allow Hunter to make any sexual offend to her. In her opinion, they were nothing more than a partnership.

After finishing talking, Nyla left the coffee shop because she did not want to give any chance to Hunter to make any sexual offend to herself.

And Hunter just smiled without saying anything. He said to himself, “Edith Patel, you will belong to me sooner or later. And I will let Casey see that how I love you at that time.”

.....

Edith came back home with depression. When she found out Hunter Powell was in charge of this project at the beginning, she was a little excited, because he was her classmate, and it would be more convenient for them to talk about this project with each other.

However, she did not expect that Hunter would ask her to divorce Casey. She really could not do that.

Edith felt that she could not live without Casey gradually. If it were in the past, she might really consider divorce, but now she would never do it.

Casey saw that Edith was upset and then asked her, "What's wrong? Is there any trouble?"

Edith shook her head and said, "No. I was just a bit tired after work." She was not about to tell him about Hunter. Because he would feel sad if he knew that.

"I will go to TY Group to talk about the cooperation of the project with the principal tomorrow. Would you like to go with me?" Casey asked her.

Edith pursed her lips. She wanted to tell him that Hunter was in charge of this project, and Hunter would never cooperate with the Patel family.

However, she hesitated again. She thought that she could not tell him about it right now. If he wanted to ask for help from his friend, then let him try.

"No, I am not going to go there with you, because I have to go to work tomorrow. If your friend can help you, then you can have a try." Edith talked to him.

Casey did not think too much. He nodded with agreement as Edith said that.

At that time, Nyla sat next to Francis in the Patel family's mansion. She talked about what happened between Edith and Hunter with exaggerated embellishment to Francis.

After listening to her, Francis was surprised and then smiled with irony.

"According to your words, the manager of TY Group asked Edith to divorce Casey, and then he would cooperate with us based on this project?" Francis asked her.

Nyla nodded at once and then said, "That's right. Today, he told me by himself about it. Grandpa, I think

Casey cannot do anything good for the Pate family as he is good-for-nothing. So we shall ask Edith to divorce him and then marry the manager, and it will be beneficial to the Pate family."

Francis also smiled with expectation and then said, "I agree with you.

Casey is good-for-nothing, he should have not married Edith. I also want to let him get out of our Patel family.”

“Then, let Edith divorce him! Without him, our Patel family will not get into trouble because of him anymore.”The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 75 You Are Challenging My Bottom Line

In the morning, Casey came out from home. Edith drove by herself to work, because Amara and Nicolas Patel did not allow Casey to drive the LAND ROVER.

Casey did not care about it. After all, this car was bought to Edith so that it was convenient for her to go to work, and he could take a taxi if needed.

Today, he was going to get a contract in the subsidiary of TY Group. He asked Charles Clinton yesterday, and Charles told her the address of the subsidiary, so he could go there by himself and get the contract.

He went straight to the bus station, because he was going to go there by bus.

When he was waiting for the bus, a new Audi stopped in front of the bus station. When the car window fell down, he saw Hunter Powell in a suit sitting in the car.

Those who waited for the bus at the bus station looked at Hunter sitting in the car with admiration.

Hunter glanced at Casey and said, “Oh, this is Casey, the idiot. Are you waiting for the bus here? Where are you going?”

Casey looked at Hunter and said, "I am going to talk about business with others."

Hunter laughed at once. He said to Casey, “Oh really? Are you serious? It’s the first time I have seen someone go to talk about business with others by bus.”

People around them also laughed at Casey when they heard Hunter’s words.

“He’s so funny. If he is going to talk about business with others, he should be a big boss. But if he is a big boss, why does he take a bus here? I think he is lying.”

“I really can’t help laughing. I think he is a fool. How can he tell a lie in front of such a handsome man?”

“Yes, I agree with you. He might be a fool. The handsome man really looks like a big boss because he drives such a high-end car. But this man looks like a clodhopper.”

.....

Hunter was proud when he heard the comments of those people around them.

And he thought that he had reached cooperation with Nyla Patel, so as long as Nyla talked about his intention to Francis Patel, Edith would divorce Casey. Thinking about it, he was excited.

It seemed that Casey did not know what happened, so he had a sense of superiority right now.

Although everyone around him was laughing at him, he was expressionless, as if he hadn't heard it.

And then Hunter guessed that Casey was going to talk about business with the principal in the subsidiary of TY Group.

It seemed that Edith did not tell him about what happened before, otherwise, he should have known that he was in charge of the project.

“Where are you going to talk about business? I think I can drive you there,” Hunter said with a smile.

“No, thanks.” Casey replied.

Hunter sneered in his mind. Because he could confirm that Casey really did not know that he was in charge of this project. In this case, he would prank him when he arrived at the company.

“Well, then good luck to you. I hope you will not be kicked out by others.”

And then Hunter drove away.

People around Casey were still discussing him and laughing at him. Indeed, Casey did not know that Hunter was in charge of the project. As for him, the TY Group belonged to him, so no matter who was the principal, he/she should follow his order.

Later, the bus arrived, and then he got on the bus and went to the subsidiary of TY Group.

After getting off the bus, Casey looked at the mansion beside him. It was the first time he came here.

These years, TY Group developed so fast, so there were countless subsidiaries belonging to TY Group. He could not go to each subsidiary by himself.

Moreover, the affairs of the group were handled by Charles Clinton. He only handled work at the beginning, and now he did not care about it.

He went straight into the mansion and went up to the indicator. After he saw the indicator and found the office of the manager, he was going to go to the manager's office directly.

At that time, a girl who was sitting at the reception came up to him. And then she asked Casey without care, "What are you doing here?"

She saw that Casey was wearing cheap clothes, and it seemed that he had nothing with the company, so she treated him unkindly.

"I want to see your manager," Casey said.

"Do you have an appointment?" The girl asked.

Casey shook his head and said, "Charles Clinton asked me to come here."

After hearing that, the girl was shocked. She knew that Charles Clinton was the Chairman of TY Group, and no one dared to call his name directly.

"Please wait a minute. I will call our manager right now," the girl said. Then she went to make a phone call.

After a while, she came up to Casey but she looked sullen.

When Casey called the name of their Chairman directly just now, she thought that he was an important figure. Unexpectedly, the manager told her that he was a liar.

Then she also thought that he looked like a liar because of his clothes, so she was angry.

"Can I go to the office of the manager now?" Casey asked her.

"No way! Get out of here! You are a liar, so you cannot meet with our manager," the girl said with anger.

Casey did not expect that the girl would change her attitude towards him so fast.

No Wonder She's Always In The Top 10 Of These Lists

It Must Have Been A Kind Of Hell For A Little Chrissy Metz

"Did you get me wrong?" He asked the girl.

"I don't get you wrong. Please get out of our company. Otherwise, I will call the security personnel," the girl said indifferently.

Casey frowned because he did not expect that he would be regarded as a liar in his own company.

"Who do you think you are talking to?" Casey asked her.

"Yes, I know you are just a liar," she said disdainfully.

Casey did not want to waste time with her. Although his endurance was very strong, he could not let others slander him. And this company belonged to him, how could a staff member of the reception talk to him like this?

"Go away. I will come to the office by myself."

Casey went straight to the elevator directly.

The girl stopped him at once. She said, "How can you do that? Why do you think you can meet with our manager?"

"If you take one more step, I will call the security personnel at once. And then, you will be in trouble."

Casey did not reply to her, and he just kept going straight.

At that time, Hunter came out of the elevator.

Casey was surprised as he did not expect that Hunter would be here.

Hunter looked at Casey with a sneer.

"Oh, is this Casey Davies? Do you come to our company for business?"

Hunter asked.

The girl came up to Hunter and said with dislike, "Mr. Hunter, I asked him to get out of here, but he wanted to go to your office without permission. I think we should call the security personnel."

Hunter shook hands to her and told her that he could fix it by himself.

"You are the manager of the company, right?" Casey asked him.

"Yes. And I think you will come here for the project of TY Group. I have to tell you the truth. I am in charge of the project. I think it is out of your expectations, right?"

Hunter said to him proudly.

Casey did not care about it. He really did not expect that Hunter was the principal of the project.

But, so what?

“Please give me the contract for this project, I don’t want to make more problems with it,” Casey said.

Hunter sneered at once and then said, “Casey, who do you think you are?

Are you the boss of TY

Group?” Why can you ask me to give you the contract for the project?”

“Let me tell you, you are just good-for-nothing. I am very nice to you because I don’t call the security personnel to kick you out of here.”

Those people around them began to discuss in a low voice after hearing

Hunter’s words. And they knew who Casey was.

“He is an idiot who is famous in J City, right? How can he dare to come to our company? What is he thinking about?”

“He thinks that he is our boss. How come? This is ridiculous!”

“It seems that our manager doesn’t like him at all. I think he will make himself miserable.”

.....

Casey sighed. He knew that Hunter would not give him the contract this way, so he had to call Charles Clinton.

“You will regret it if you do not give me the contract right now.” Casey said to him.

“Really? Are you kidding me? What can you do as an idiot?” Hunter sneered, “Casey, if you want to get the contract, you have to divorce Edith right now, and then ask her to marry me. If you do it, I will give you the contract right now.”

Casey narrowed his eyes with a murderous stare.

“You know what? You are challenging my bottom line.” Casey said coldly.

“Don’t pretend to be something in front of me. I have to tell you the truth. Even if you don’t agree to divorce, Edith has to divorce. I will give this contract to the Patel family, but it will be taken by Edith. So please don’t waste time here.”

And then Hunter turned to the reception and said, "Call the security personnel to kick him out of here.

And never allow any liar like him to enter our company."

The girl at the reception nodded at once, and then she ran to call the security personnel.

Hunter sneered and glanced at Casey, and then he turned back to the other department to get some materials.

Casey was speechless, because he did not expect that he would be treated this way in his own company.

It was so bad.

However, it was not meaningless for his forbearance right now. As the saying goes, "The gentleman hides his tools and waits for opportunities." It was not time for him to show his identity.

After a while, the girl came back with a dozen security personnel. She stared at Casey and said, "I will give you the last chance. If you don't get out of here by yourself, I will let them kick you out of here."

The security personnel stared at Casey cruelly, and the muscles on their bodies moved.

Casey smiled and said, "All right. If you want to do this, I am glad to check whether the security personnel are qualified in the company." _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 76 Charles Clinton Will Give Me the Contract by Himself

The girl heard that and frowned. Then she said impatiently, "You are such a fool. Since you have made a misguided attempt, don't blame me for being impolite."

"Kick him out of here!"

Then those security personnel walked towards Casey.

The staff of the company looked at Casey with a gloat and a taunt.

"He is such an idiot! He even wants to challenge the security of our company. As we all know, they have been carefully selected, and they are so strong. How can he defeat them?"

"This man is so silly. He doesn't know that a few security personnel were fitness coaches before. I think they can defeat him with only one bow.”

“Did you forget the man who caused troubles in our company last time? I heard that he is still receiving treatment in the hospital. I'm afraid this guy will also be beaten so badly.”

.....

Casey was surrounded by a dozen security personnel alone. The man who looked like the leader of them sneered at Casey and said, “You know what? The man who caused troubles in our company last time is still receiving treatment in the hospital. Today, I also want to do some exercise, I think you can be a sandbag for me. Don't be scared and run away!”

“Don't talk about nonsense! Come on!” Casey said.

The security personnel laughed at once, because they thought that Casey was making a joke.

“How dare you? If all of us attack you together, you may not survive.”

“Let's go! When he is defeated, he no longer dares to be so arrogant.”

“Well, let me check his strength first.”

One of the security personnel gave a punch at Casey strongly.

Casey saw that the security had an attack on him, and he also acted immediately. These security personnel looked sturdy, but compared with Casey's speed, they were almost as slow as turtles.

Casey hit those security personnel quickly with his fists.

With each punch, one security would be defeated.

Those security personnel who were fitness coaches before were also defeated. Although they had many muscles, they could not bear the fists of Casey.

Those people who were looking on around thought that Casey would be defeated badly. However, when they saw Casey's real strength, they were shocked.

After a while, those security personnel were all defeated and lay down on the ground without exception.

Those people who were looking on around were shocked and stepped back, because they were afraid that Casey would attack them suddenly.

Casey patted his hands, looked at the security personnel lying on the ground, and said with a smile, "As security, you are qualified. But you are not strong enough to stop me." And then he walked towards the elevator. All the people around gave a way to him, and no one dared to stop him anymore.

The girl at the reception was so scared that she hid inside the reception and dared not to come out.

Casey walked into the elevator and pressed on the button on the floor where the manager's office was located.

Hunter went to the other department to take materials, so he did not know what happened in the lobby.

He thought that Casey was hit by the security personnel.

After Casey found the manager's office, he opened the door and walked into the office directly. There was no one in the office, and then he sat down on a chair.

As he knew that Hunter would not give him the contract easily, he called Charles Clinton and asked him to come here right now.

"OK, Casey. Please wait a minute. I'll go there at once." Charles replied to him on the phone.

When Casey hung up the phone, the door of the office was opened, and then Hunter entered the office happily. But when he saw that Casey was sitting on his chair, he was shocked.

"Casey, how did you come here?" Hunter asked him with surprise.

"I came here by taking the elevator." Casey replied.

"How come? Why weren't you kicked out of here by the security?"

Hunter was doubtful.

"The security? They have been defeated by me," Casey said indifferently.

"Nonsense! They have been carefully selected by me. Why could you defeat them? That is impossible."

Hunter could not believe Casey.

"Believe it or not, I defeated them." Casey shrugged.

"You must be kicked out of here by the security and then went into our company secretly again. Casey, even if you enter my office, I will not give you the contract. I have told you my requirements, as long as you promise, I can give you the contract.” Hunter walked towards him and put down the files on the desk.

“Never mind. Charles Clinton will give the contract to me by himself,” Casey said.

Hunter sneered and said, “Although I don’t know how you know our Chairman’s name, I think you can see yourself clearly in a mirror. You such a fool. Why can you ask our Chairman to give you the contract?” Hunter did not reply to him, because he thought it was a waste of time to talk to such a person with a limited outlook.

Hunter saw that Casey was still sitting on his chair, he was unhappy. So he took up the phone directly and made a phone call to the security department.

Unexpectedly, no one picked up the phone. He felt strange, because they usually picked up the phone in a second when he called them.

“Rubbish! What are they doing here by getting the salary? They can do nothing when it is needed.”

Casey flipped through the files on the desk and waited for Charles.

Hunter glanced at Casey and said with a smile suddenly, “Casey, you know what? Edith came to me before.”

Casey was surprised and said, “What did she do?”

“She certainly came to me to get the contract. But I did not give it to her. I asked her to divorce you, but she rejected me just for you. Why? I was so surprised,” Hunter said.

After hearing that, Casey felt good. He did not expect that Edith would reject Hunter.

She chose not to divorce him and gave up on the contract. So he thought that all of his efforts were worth it.

“You have no advantage, so Edith would not like you. And you have deficiency in the kidney, who will marry you?” Casey said.

Hunter was full of anger after hearing that. Casey pointed out his deficiency directly, and he really wanted to tear him into pieces. He tried to calm down. He wanted to tell Casey that he had asked Nyla to tell Francis about it, and Francis would push Edith to divorce Casey at that time. However, he did not tell Casey as Casey really made him angry. "Damn it! You can be pleased right now. However, if I don't get it wrong, I think Nyla has told Francis about it. And maybe Francis is talking about this to Edith now. So when you come back home, you will find that Edith wants to divorce you. What do you think?" Hunter talked to himself in his mind. Casey looked at the files on the desk and then he quickly found that there were many mistakes. There were so many problems which were very simple, but Hunter did not find them. As a manager, he could not make so many mistakes in his work. He glanced at Hunter and said, "How can you make so many mistakes in your own work? According to your ability, I don't think you are qualified for this position." Hunter was angry at once and said, "Shut up! I have been promoted to be the manager with my own ability. If I cannot be qualified for this position, then do you think that you are qualified? That is so ridiculous!" Casey took up a file and pointed out one mistake. He said, "As a manager, you even cannot find out such a basic mistake. How can you say that you are qualified for this position?" Hunter looked at the file, and then he found that he really made a mistake. So he was a bit awkward. "You don't understand. No matter how qualified a person is, he/she will also make some mistakes. I was just careless." Hunter explained. "Really? Then, what about other mistakes? Did you make so many mistakes because you were careless? If all the staff likes you, I think this company will go out of business quickly." Casey talked to him. Hunter felt ashamed, so he snatched the file in Casey's hands quickly.

“Shut up! You are not qualified to teach me. I am the manager of the company, and you are just good-for-nothing.” Hunter said assertively.

“I will ask Charles to change your position. You are not qualified, you just can be a team leader in the company,” Casey said.

Hunter was a little flustered. Because he had been promoted to be the manager in the company by entertaining some senior staff for meals and drinks in the group.

“Get out! Do you want to report it to our Chairman? Ridiculous! This is my office. If you don’t get out, I will call the police,” Hunter said.

“I called Charles just now, and he will come here soon. We can talk after he comes here.” Casey said indifferently.

Hunter laughed and said, “Casey, do you think you are an important figure? Did you call our Chairman? I think you are really sick. Our Chairman has an important meeting today, so he has no time to come here.

If he comes here, I promise I will immediately resign from the manager position!”

After he spoke, the door of the office was opened, and then a man who was serious walked into the office.

That was Charles Clinton!

“What do you say? Do you want to quit?” Charles stared at Hunter and asked him.

Chapter 77 Who Dares to Let Me Divorce Edith

Hunter did not expect that Charles would come here, and Charles even heard what he said just now. So he felt flustered.

He made himself calm down and looked at Charles with respect, “Mr. Charles, why do you come here? I just made a joke with this idiot just now.”

“Who is an idiot?” Charles was a little angry. He knew about Casey, and Casey gave everything he had to him, so he could not allow anyone to treat Casey this way.

Hunter thought that Charles asked him who Casey was, so he quickly talked to him, "Mr. Charles, he is the idiot who is famous in the whole J City. He entered my office without permission today and wanted to steal the secret files of our company. I was going to deal with him, and then you came here."

"Mr. Charles, please punish this rubbish severely, otherwise, he will steal the secrets of our company."

Charles was very angry when Hunter said that. Casey was his benefactor, and he could not allow anyone to slander him, so he had to give a lesson to Hunter.

And then he gave a slap to Hunter directly and said, "In my opinion, you are good-for-nothing. How can you talk to me like that?"

Hunter did not expect that Charles would hit him, so he was puzzled. But he did not dare to fight against Charles. Even though he was hit, he just had to make an apology to Charles with a smile.

"Yes, you are right. I should not have talked to you like that. I am so sorry, Mr. Charles." Hunter nodded and bowed.

Charles stared at Hunter with anger. And then he turned to Casey and said with a smile, "Are you OK?"

Casey shook his head and said, "Let him go out."

Charles nodded with agreement and then kicked Hunter's ass and said, "Get out!"

Hunter dared not to stay in the office anymore, and he got out of the office quickly.

Charles stood by Casey's side and smiled, "Hunter doesn't know your identity, so he is impolite to you. If you don't like him, I can punish him."

"Give me the contract for the project first. We can talk about him later."

Charles nodded at once and then took out the contract from his briefcase.

Outside the office, Hunter covered his face and ass with his hands unhappily.

"Damn it! That's so bad! Why did the Chairman come in at that time?"

Casey was so lucky. It seems that they know each other, but they shall not have a special relationship.”

“Shit it! I have to punish Casey severely after the Chairman leaves.

Because of him, I was given a slap!”

Hunter said to himself for a while. He could not believe that Casey could call Charles and asked him to come here. He thought that it was just a coincidence.

As for the relationship between Casey and Charles, Hunter thought that they just knew each other. After all, Charles was the Chairman of TY Group, so it was impossible for him to lower his identity and make contact with such rubbish.”

“Anyway, I will not lose my position because of it. As long as I am in charge of the project, Edith will marry me sooner or later. Casey, you will regret it.”

.....

Charles sorted out the contract and then gave it to Casey. Casey glanced over the contract and then asked, “Is it OK?”

Charles nodded and said, “As long as the Patel family signs it, the contract will automatically take effect, and this project will be handed over to them for execution.”

Casey nodded and was going to take it back to Edith for signature.

And then he talked about Hunter with Charles. Charles was amazed when he got it. He did not expect that Hunter would take this project as a chance to push Edith to marry him.

In Charles’ opinion, he would not allow Hunter continues to work in the company, but Casey only asked him to resign Hunter’s manager position.

Because Casey did not want Hunter to know his identity. If Hunter resigned from his original position, he must think that it was because Casey talked to Charles that he was unqualified.

Charles nodded with agreement. He always implemented Casey’s orders without objection.

When they walked out of the office, Hunter was standing outside.

Hunter walked up to Charles humbly when he saw Charles.

“Deal with other matters, I’ll go now.” Casey talked to Charles.

Charles nodded to him and walked him into the elevator.

And then he turned back and looked at Hunter. Hunter smiled at once, "Mr. Charles, I call someone to prepare a cup of tea for you right now."
"No, thanks. From now on, you will be the team leader of the Personnel Department, and I will appoint another one to serve as the manager. What's more, you cannot be in charge of the project this time. Please work harder, otherwise, I will not take in anyone who is good-for-nothing," Charles said coldly.
Hunter instantly froze as if he was struck by lightning.
"Mr. Charles, why? I have been doing well in the company recently," Hunter said anxiously.
"Well, shut up! I will notify the Personnel Department."
Charles did not say anything to Hunter but just walked into the elevator.

Hunter stood there in despair. He never expected that he would lose his manager position because of Casey.
"Damn it! Casey must say something bad about me to Mr. Charles. I will take revenge on you!"
His desperate roar echoed in the corridor, but at that time, no one would care about him.

In the Patel family's mansion.
Edith was standing in the living room with a little nervousness. She worked in the company today and Francis suddenly asked her to come to the mansion, which made her feel uneasy.
What's more, she heard that Francis wanted to ask her to divorce Casey and then marry Hunter.
She originally thought it was just a rumor, but after Francis asked her to come to the mansion, she suddenly panicked.
After a while, Francis came down from upstairs, and Nyla followed him with bad intentions.
Nyla smiled at Edith, with a taunt in her eyes.
Edith felt bad when she saw Nyla's smile.

After Francis sat down on the sofa, Edith walked up to him and asked, "Grandpa, what's wrong?"

Francis glanced at Edith and asked, "How's the project of TY Group?"

Edith got nervous and her hands were clenched.

"I am negotiating with them."

Francis said coldly, "I told you it is very important to our Patel family. If you cannot do it, you shall not stay in Patel family anymore."

"Grandpa, please give me some time. I will fix it." Edith begged him.

Nyla stood next to Francis and said immediately, "You are lying! Did you think that grandpa did not know you could not negotiate successfully for this project? I heard that the manager of the subsidiary of TY Group asked you to divorce and then marry him, then, he will cooperate with our Patel family based on this project."

Edith was anxious and said, "No, it was not like that."

"You thought I did not know about that, right? Hunter told me by himself." Nyla said to her with dislike.

"Grandpa, don't trust her. It was not the truth." Edith knew what would happen if Francis got it, so she was worried so much.

"Well, Edith, don't lie to me anymore," Francis said.

"At that time, your grandma asked you to marry Casey, and it was not good for me to interfere.

However, now your grandma has passed away, even if you divorce Casey, no one will object anymore."

"You are the most excellent girl in our Patel family, so it's unfair for you to marry Casey. I think Hunter is promising, because he has been promoted to be the manager at such a young age. I think it's good for you to marry him."

"You shall talk about this with Casey when you go back to your home, and then you shall handle the divorce procedures. I will talk to Hunter about your marriage. You shall know that it will be beneficial to you and our Patel family."

Francis did not intend to ask for Edith's advice, and he just made a decision for her.

Edith shook her head at once and said, "Grandpa, I get along well with Casey, and I am not going to divorce. I shall be responsible for my own marriage."

Francis stared at her and said, "I just do it for you. You should know that Casey is good-for-nothing. I feel terrible when I see him every time. Because he is a jinx, our Patel family cannot develop well. So you must divorce him."

Edith was despairing. She knew that Francis had the greatest power in the Patel family, so she was unqualified to object to him."

"Grandpa, Nyla has not gotten married. I think Hunter will like her more. What about asking Nyla to marry him?" Edith said suddenly.

Nyla was angry and said, "Nonsense! I will marry a rich man in a big family. How can I marry Hunter? Please stop thinking about it."

Francis nodded with agreement and said to Edith, "OK, please divorce Casey after you go back home. If not, you cannot stay in Patel family anymore."

And then he stood up to go upstairs.

Edith was desperate with tears down.

She did not understand why she could not control her own destiny.

When she thought that there was no room for negotiating about it, she saw a man walking into the mansion.

That was Casey!

"I will only admit Edith as my wife forever. Let me see who dares to ask her to divorce me!"

Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 78 Only Edith Is Allowed to Sign This Contract

Francis and Nyla looked at Casey together. Francis was a little angry, and Nyla just looked down upon Casey.

Edith did not expect that Casey would be here at that time. Although she knew Casey had no way to change the decision made by Francis, she felt warm when she heard what Casey said just now.

“What are you doing here? You’re such an idiot. How can you come here?” Nyla said,

“I come here to take my wife home,” Casey said indifferently.

“Really?” Nyla obviously looked down upon Casey.

Edith turned to Casey, and she was already in tears.

Casey wiped her tears with his hands and smiled, “Don’t cry. I won’t let you leave me.”

Edith wanted to say something, but she sighed finally when she thought that Francis insisted on asking her to divorce.

“Casey. I think you heard what I said just now. You can’t stay with Edith anymore, so you have to divorce later. As compensation, I will give you a sum of money so that you can survive. This is my greatest kindness to you,” Francis said.

“Sorry, I don’t need your kindness.” Casey replied to him.

Francis stared at him and said, “What? Do you want to continue to stay in our Pate family? You shall know that Edith should have made a better choice. She had no choice but to marry you at that time, but now, you cannot stop her from pursuing a happy life anymore.”

“You ask her to marry Hunter just for the cooperation of the project. That is not what she wants. How can you say that you do it for her happiness?” Casey did not flinch.

He never had any weakness in dealing with the problems related to Edith.

“How dare you!” Francis did not think that Casey would talk to him this way, so he was angry to death.

Nyla stared at Casey and said to him, “You are right. My grandpa asked her to marry Hunter just for the cooperation of the project with TY Group. And this project is very important to our Patel family.”

“As long as Edith divorces you and then marries Hunter, we can cooperate with TY Group. This is what she should do for the Patel family. What about you? What can you do for our family? You are such an idiot. How can you talk to my grandpa this way?”

“If you are promising, my grandpa will not ask Edith to marry Hunter. Generally speaking, Edith suffers from everything just because of you.”

Francis really agreed with Nyla. He said to Casey, “I agree with Nyla. If you don’t want to divorce, you have to negotiate successfully for this project. Can you do it?”

Edith sighed. She knew that Hunter was in charge of this project, so Casey could not negotiate successfully for this project.

She pulled Casey’s arm and said, “Casey, stop talking about it. I think that is my destiny.”

Casey said immediately, “I have negotiated successfully for this project, so we don’t have to divorce.”

They were surprised but also doubted it when they heard that.

“Casey, don’t lie to us. Why can you negotiate successfully for this project? Hunter told me that only when Edith divorces you, will he cooperate with us.” Nyla did not believe him.

“In my opinion, you are just good-for-nothing and a liar. So it is right to ask Edith to divorce you,” Francis said coldly.

“Casey, I know you just do it for me. However.....” Edith said with nervousness.

Casey took out the contract directly and hung it over to Francis, “I take the contract here. If you don’t believe me, you can check this contract.”

Francis was surprised again. He took over the contract in a hurry and read it carefully.

Edith also thought that was unbelievable. She did not expect that Casey would get the contract.

However, Hunter was in charge of this project. How could he give Casey the contract?

Nyla also doubted if Casey told the truth. Because she could not believe that Casey could get the contract from TY Group.

“Grandpa, don’t trust him. I think he must have got a fake contract and then lied to you. He is so silly that he thinks that he can gain your trust with such a fake contract,” Nyla said.

She believed that this contract was fake. Because Hunter told her that he would sign the contract with them only when Edith promised to marry him. Francis also thought that the contract was fake. However, after he read it carefully, he found that it could not be fake at all. What's more, there was the signature of Chairman Charles Clinton and the seal of TY Group. After he confirmed that the contract was true, he was so glad that his hands trembled. He said, "The contract is true. But how can you get this contract?"

Nyla and Edith were also very surprised, because they did not expect that Casey could get the contract. "That is impossible! Why could hunter give it to you? Did you steal it back?" Nyla was unwilling to believe him, so she questioned him. "It was not given by Hunter. Now Hunter was not the principal of this project anymore. And this contract was given by the Chairman of TY Group," Casey said. Edith was surprised. Casey told her that he had a friend in TY Group before, but she thought his friend may be just a staff member in TY Group, so she thought that he could not help Casey a lot. Could he be the Chairman of TY Group? She was thinking about it now. If he was the Chairman of TY Group, it would be unbelievable. "Grandpa, please don't trust him. He must lie to you. There is no his signature in the contract at all. So he must steal it by himself." Nyla tried her best to explain. At that time, the personal secretary of Francis walked into the mansion and reported to Francis, "Mr. Francis, I got the news just now. Cayden Khan has become the principal of the new project of TY Group, and Hunter Powell is not the principal anymore. What's more, Cayden Khan also sent a congratulatory message to us specifically, saying that he hoped to cooperate with our Patel family happily in the future."

The secretary's words directly proved that Casey did not lie, and Nyla had nothing to say at that time.

She just could not figure it out why they changed the principal of the new project. And why TY Group was willing to give the contract to Casey as he was so foolish. She really could not understand it.

Francis laughed at once and said, "It seems that Casey does not lie to me. I just looked down upon you.

As you get the contract for this project, it will be beneficial to our Patel family, so you don't have to divorce."

After hearing that, Edith felt relaxed, and then she looked at Casey with appreciation.

Nyla was unhappy, because her plan was over, and she could not make Edith into trouble this time.

"However, there is no signature of party B in the contract. So do they want me to sign it?" Francis asked.

Nyla was excited when she heard that, "Grandpa, how about let me be in charge of the project this time?

You shall take much more rest, and you will be tired if you handle such a big project, so just let me share the burden with you."

Nyla knew that she could get more benefits from this project. Since Casey had gotten the contract, she had to get it and handle it by herself.

Francis nodded with agreement after hearing that, "OK, I am indeed too busy to take time to be in charge of it."

Nyla smiled with excitement at once, "Well, then let me sign this contract for you."

Francis did not think about it too much, so he handed over the contract to Nyla.

Although this contract was gotten by Casey, in his opinion, Casey was not a real family member of the Patel family. So he would not let him sign this contract.

After Casey saw that, he said immediately, "TY Group told me that this contract can only be signed by Edith. If it is signed by any other people, it will not take into effect."

Edith was amazed. She asked Casey, "Why me?"

Casey smiled and said, "They may think that you are reliable."

Casey was the big boss of TY Group, so he had the right to sign the contract with the one he wanted.

After hearing what Casey said, Nyla hesitated a bit. But when she thought that it would take into effect no matter who signed it because there was the signature of the Chairman and the seal of TY Group in the contract. She did not believe Casey.

So she ignored Casey and then signed the contract directly.

“Casey, I know you want Edith to get more benefits. But I signed this contract just now, so I will be in charge of this project. It’s too late no matter what you say,” Nyla said proudly.

Francis knew about the effect of the contract.

Unless it was required that it shall be signed by Edith in the terms of the contract clearly, Casey's words had no legal effect.

“I told you this contract must be signed by Edith, otherwise, it will not take into effect,” Casey said calmly.

“Do you think that I am a three-year-old child? It is not listed clearly in the terms of the contract. So why do you say that? You are really childish,” Nyla said disdainfully.

Casey smiled and said, “Please turn the last page of this contract and read the terms clearly.”

Nyla was a little worried and then she turned to the last page of the contract and read the term, “This project shall be in charge of Edith Patel. If it is signed by any other people, it will be invalidated.”The After she read the term, Nyla was shocked, and her hand trembled with the contract.

Francis frowned when he saw her appearance. He took back the contract immediately and read the terms on the last page.

After reading, he was furious at once, and then he slapped Nyla.

“You’re such a scoundrel. How could you sign this contract? Now because of you, this contract is invalid.

” Francis was so angry that his voice trembled too.

Although he loved Nyla so much at ordinary times, it was crucial to the Patel family in terms of the cooperation with TY Group, so he did not allow there to be any mistake. He thought that it was unexpected when he knew Casey got the contract. And he knew that there must be only one with the signature of TY Group as it was so important.

Now, Nyla signed the contract on her own initiative, making the contract to be invalidated. So he was anxious.

Nyla covered her face with her hand, and she was puzzled for a while. She did not expect that there would be such a term in the contract.

She looked at Casey and pointed at his nose with her hand, "Grandpa, he knew that there was such a term in the contract, but he did not stop me from signing this contract. He just wanted to embarrass me."

Casey felt speechless, he did not think that Nyla would slander him this way.

"I told you twice just now. Were you deaf?" Casey said coldly.

Nyla was so anxious that she did not know what to do. She certainly knew that Casey had told her just now, but she had to shirk the responsibility now.

"Grandpa, that's all because of Casey. You cannot blame me for it." Nyla turned to Francis and looked at him again.

Francis looked at Nyla with anger and said to her, "Do you think that I am a dotard? Casey told you clearly just now, but you were just afraid that you could not be in charge of this project, so you signed it. You shall be responsible for it!"

Nyla was usually an eager-beaver in front of Francis, so Francis liked her. But when his benefits were damaged, he would not tolerate it even if she was his granddaughter. Nyla was upset when Francis said that, and she scolded Edith and Casey in her mind.

She thought that she was hit by Francis because of Edith and Casey.

Casey glanced at Nyla and Francis and then said, "I have gotten the contract for you, and it means that I finished the task. So you cannot blame us for this matter."

And then he walked towards the door of the mansion by holding Edith's hand.

"Grandpa, we cannot let them go. Casey shall be responsible for it, you cannot only blame me." Nyla sat down in front of Francis and cried out.

Francis did not stop Casey but criticized Nyla with anger, "If I don't do this favour to the Davies family in B City, I will ask you to get out of the Patel family because of the mistake you made. From now on, you cannot interfere with the matters of the company, and your monthly allowance will be halved. And then your aunt will teach you how to behave better. Only when you learn it can you think about managing the company again."

Nyla was shocked. Her aunt was really horrible, because she was a very unreasonable person, so she would not care about whether Nyla could marry a rich man in a big family.

In other words, her aunt could be regarded as another Amara Stevens with horrible means.

If she lived together with her aunt, she would die.

However, no matter how she begged, Francis was not satisfied. This time, he was really angry.

Francis narrowed his eyes and looked at the direction that Casey went away and sighed, "Since Casey could get the contract from TY Group, I think he can get it one more time. Now, he could only raise his hope for Casey.

Until they left the Patel family's mansion, Edith still felt puzzled.

She needed some time to think about what happened today.

She looked at Casey by her side. Today she felt the indestructible sense of security again from Casey. It was precisely because of this feeling that she seemed to be inseparable from Casey.

What a woman needed most was exactly a man she could rely on. And Casey was the one she could rely on.

“You must work hard to get the contract from TY Group. I think Nyla was too bad. But even grandpa could not control her, so you don’t need to care about her.” Edith comforted Casey.

Casey smiled and said, “I never care about anyone like her, I only care about what you think.”

Edith felt warm and said to him, “Although grandpa did not push me to divorce you, we did not sign the contract. I am afraid my mom will keep bothering you. And it’s a pity because what you did to get the contract was in vain.”

“It doesn’t matter. It is just a contract, I can get another one.” Casey talked to her.

Edith was surprised. She never thought that Casey did not pay attention to the contract, as if he could get a contract from TY Group easily.

Who was his friend in TY Group?

“And you don’t need to worry about what your mother and the family members will do and say, I believe that Francis will not allow them to do or say anything.” Casey kept talking to her.

“Do you mean my grandpa will help us?” Edith was doubtful.

“Maybe. It depends on how much attention he pays to the contract.”

Casey smiled.

Edith did not understand him. But for her, it was the best result because she did not have to divorce. As for the Patel family and the contract of TY Group, she did not care.

When they walked all the way to the gate of the community, Edith glanced at the place at a short distance where there were some peddlers selling food and said, “The man who sold the pancake rolled with crisp fritter did not come here for a long time. The pancake rolled with crisp fritter made by him was so yummy. Unfortunately, I can’t eat it anymore.”

Casey smiled and he did not expect that Edith would like the pancake rolled with crisp fritter made by Conor West.

To be honest, Conor West was really good at cooking the pancake rolled with crisp fritter. Casey also thought that it was delicious. But now he was developing the underworld forces together with Morgan

Byrne and could not make it anymore. What a pity!

“He should just take a rest for a few days. Wait a minute, I would like to make a phone call.”

And then Casey called Conor West at once.

“Hi, Casey. What’s wrong? Why do you call me now? Is there something urgent? Now I have gathered all the resources of Morgan Byrne. It has already been a very strong force in J City. If it is needed, I can help you with my teammates right now. ” Conor said to him.

Casey felt a little embarrassed. He hesitated for a while and then said to him, “I do have an important thing and need your help.”

“What’s wrong? Just tell me, we are not afraid of anyone in J City now. ”

Conor said with a high spirit.

“I want to ask you to cook some pancake rolled with crisp fritters for me,” Casey said.

Conor kept silent on the phone at once.

“Are you serious? ” After a while, Conor asked him.

“Year. Please cook them for me, and I’ll go there and take the pancakes later. ” Casey said to him and then hung up the phone quickly.

After they heard what Casey said to Conor, Morgan Byrne and the Fat Guy burst into laughter.

After hanging up the phone, Casey told Edith that he knew where the man who sold the pancake rolled with crisp fritter, and he would go there to buy the pancakes for her.

And then he took a taxi to go to the Starry Night Club.

When he got the pancakes, Conor really wanted to hit him with a knife.

However, he was working for Casey, so he had to follow Casey’s order. Finally, Conor just gave him a few glances.

Casey went back home with the pancakes and gave them to Edith.

Edith looked so happy, because she did not expect that Casey would buy the pancakes for her. And she appreciated him.

However, she did not know the man who cooked the pancakes for her was the most powerful man in J

City among the underworld forces.

In a month, Conor was as famous as Morgan in J City. And everyone knew that Morgan was working for Conor. When they got together, all the underworld forces would be scared.

“He did not sell pancakes anymore. And he said that he had to do something important. I begged him for a long time, and then he promised me to cook the pancakes for us,”

Casey said with a smile.

Edith nodded and said, “He is really good at cooking pancakes. What a pity!”

Casey burst into laughter at once. He did not know how Conor thought if he heard what Edith said.

Edith felt strange and asked him, “Why do you laugh? Did I say anything wrong?”

Casey nodded in a hurry, “No, you are right. I also think he is good at cooking pancakes. I will talk with him and let him think about keeping cooking pancakes when I have time.”

Edith did not know what Casey was thinking, and she just nodded with agreement seriously.

After Casey and Edith went back home for a while, Nyla went out of the Patel family’s mansion. Now she was really mad at Casey and Edith. She thought that she signed the contract because of the misleading of Casey.

Therefore, she immediately appointed someone to spread the rumors that Casey deliberately let her sign the contract to make the contract to be invalidated.

Since she was unhappy because she was punished by Francis, she could not make them happy.

Quickly, all the members of the Patel family believed that Casey made a mistake and caused the contract of TY Group to be invalidated.

So they started to blame Casey, saying that he ruined the promising development of the Patel family.

And many people asked Casey to divorce Edith and get out of the Patel family.

And Amara was even more wrathful towards this matter. She stopped Edith and Casey before they left their house early in the morning the next day. _____

“Mom, what are you doing? I have to go to work. Please let us go.”

Edith looked at Amara and felt speechless.

At that time, Amara held a rolling pin in her hands. She stood in front of Edith and Casey with anger.

Nicolas Patel stood behind Amara and also looked at them with anger.

“Let you go? Do you know how they discuss you two? How can you go to work? If you don’t fix it, we will be kicked out of the Patel family soon.” Amara talked to them loudly.

“Mom, I have explained it clearly to you. Nyla insisted on signing the contract, she made this mistake, and it was none of our business. How can you blame Casey? Edith felt mad and argued with her.

“You don’t need to argue with me for such an idiot. I know about him. He wanted to put us into trouble at the beginning. Now, all the family members ask him to get out of the Patel family. Why do you protect him?”

“Edith, I agree with your mom. You have wasted a lot of time by staying together with him. Now, we should ask him to get out of the Patel family.” Nicolas sighed. Edith frowned. She did not expect that Nyla would spread such a rumor and put Casey into trouble after that day.

And all the family members believed Nyla, they even did not intend to come to Francis to know about the truth. So Edith felt sad about it.

“Please stop talking like this. Anyway, I will never divorce Casey. If you push me, I will move out with him,” Edith said firmly.

This time, in addition to Amara and Nicolas, Casey also felt surprised. He never thought that Edith would move out for him. He smiled and thought that if Edith really moved out with him, he would not hesitate either.

So it was time to buy a house which was not so luxurious. Otherwise, they would have no house for living if they moved out.

Certainly, he had the TY Manor. But it seemed that Edith did not like it so much. What's more, it was given by the Davies family. So he never thought about living in this manor.

He thought that he could think about buying a house when he had time.

Amara was a little furious when she saw that Edith did not follow her order. Then she scolded Casey directly, "Casey, you are such an idiot. How can you keep staying in our family? You did not negotiate successfully for the project with TY Group, so you should divorce Edith. You are not qualified to stay in the Patel family anymore."

Casey did not care about her. He said, "I have negotiated successfully with TY Group for the project, but Nyla signed the contract on her own initiative, making the contract invalidated. So it was none of my business."

Amara said disdainfully, "Don't lie to me! Why could you negotiate successfully for the project with TY Group? In my opinion, you just take an excuse to slander Nyla. Because she told me that you slandered her on purpose."

Edith was so angry because Nyla always wanted to hurt her, but Amara still defended Nyla.

"Mom, Casey doesn't lie to you. Why don't you believe him? How can you not believe me?" Edith asked her.

"Edith, you have been deceived by this idiot. You shall not speak for him like this. Please wake up! If you keep doing this, we will be hurt by him."

Amara was also furious. She always wanted to control all the family members. But now Edith started to fight against her, making her feel that her family status was threatened. She held the rolling pin and stared at Casey, "Will you divorce Edith? If you don't divorce Edith, I will hit you."

And then, she hit Casey with the rolling pin without any hesitation, and she did not care about whether he would be hurt.

In her opinion, he had to bear it even if she hit him because she had raised him for so many years.

Edith saw that it was dangerous so she stopped Amara with her hands.

At that time, Casey raised his hands to nip Amara's wrists first.

Amara did not expect that Casey would react so fast. What made her more surprised was that Casey dared to fight against her.

"How dare you! Let me go! How dare you hit me!" Amara said anxiously.

Casey was a little angry. He stared at Amara and said coldly, "You are Edith's mother, so I always tolerate you. But you cannot go too far, because my patience is limited."

"Don't talk to me like that. You are just an idiot, so you are not qualified to talk to me this way." Amara kept scolding, but she could not take back her hands.

Nicolas saw that it was not good for Amara, so he talked to Amara quickly, "You don't need to take offence at him. Let's talk about it later. OK?"

"Casey, please calm down. She is the elder, so you should not mind even if she blames you."

Casey released her hands without saying anything.

Amara kneaded her wrists and then looked at Nicolas and cursed, "You are as incapable as Casey! If you are capable, we won't be bothered by this matter!"

Nicolas sighed for being scolded by Amara again.

When they were arguing with each other, there was someone knocking at the door.

Nicolas went to open the door with despair. There were a group of people standing outside the door, and they were relatives of the Patel family. They went into Amara's home quickly and stared at Casey angrily. "Oh, my dear sisters, why do you come here? You should tell me in advance so that I can prepare something for you." Amara calmed herself down when she saw them. "That is unnecessary. We come here for Edith and Casey. This time, Casey ruined the cooperation between the Patel family and TY Group, so he cannot stay in the Patel family anymore. He must divorce Edith." A woman who looked like the leader of them said. "Nonsense! This is not his mistake!" Edith did not expect that there would be so many relatives of the Patel family who came here to blame Casey, so she refuted them at once. "What are you talking about? It is exactly his mistake! Because of him, our Patel family cannot develop well." At that time, someone said with sarcasm. Edith looked back and found that it was Nyla. Nyla stared at Edith proudly. She just intended to cause some trouble for Casey, but she did not think that the relatives of the Patel family would be so mad at him. So she took the opportunity to provoke them, because she intended to kick him out of the Patel family directly, in order to avenge him. Anyway, no one would believe him, so she was confident. Although she was lying, there were so many people who believed her, it was the truth. "I agree with Nyla. We cannot allow him to stay in the Patel family anymore. Now kick him out of here!" "Let him divorce Edith, he cannot be with Edith anymore as he is so good-for-nothing." "In my opinion, he should make up for the losses caused to our Patel family, but unfortunately he can do nothing."

Amara felt good when she saw them pushing Casey to divorce, so she also sneered at Casey.

“Casey, all the family members think that you should divorce Edith. What do you think? I think you should go to the civil affairs bureau to handle the divorce procedures with Edith today. Then we can feel relaxed.” Amara said to Casey.

And then all the relatives started to talk about it with agreement and asked Casey to handle the divorce procedures with Edith.

Edith stood in front of Casey and tried her best to refute them. However, her strength alone was too small, so she could not win against these women.

Casey also felt bad as they were so noisy around him. He thought that Nyla was so insidious to ask these brutal women to bother him.

“Casey, what are you doing here? Be quick to handle the divorce procedures with Edith. Otherwise, they will not leave here today.” Nyla looked at Casey with a gloat.

“Who dares to ask them to divorce?” At that time, there was a heavy voice.

“Who dares to argue with us for Casey?” Nyla looked back with a fierce expression.

Meanwhile, a young secretary walked into the house and helped a man in. That was Francis, who looked very angry. _____
