

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 651 The Current Situation in

B City.

In the chamber of the Davies House, a group of executives of the Davies family were sitting inside. Edith sat in the seat with a big belly, and the atmosphere in the room seems a little depressed.

Edith had been pregnant for eight months now. According to normal circumstances, she should now be in the stage of preparing for production. However, to this day, she was still dealing with all the affairs of the Davies family.

Compared with a few months ago, the tiredness on Edith's face became very obvious. Nicholas and Jennifer had persuaded her many times and asked her to hand over the affairs of the Davies family to Jordan. However, Edith was worried and had been working hard until now.

In the past few months, the situation in B City had changed, undercurrents were surging, and the haze over the Davies family had lasted for a few months. The forces of all parties had watched, and the struggle between the business community in B City had become particularly fierce, and the smell of gunpowder was permeated everywhere. And the cause of all this was the fact that Casey died.

A few months have passed. Even people who had doubts about Casey's death have accepted this fact. People have received news from various places that Casey had not appeared in B City for a few months, and all the affairs of the Davies family were controlled by Edith, Casey's pregnant wife. What it meant was self-evident.

Without Casey, the fear of all forces for the Davies family was reduced to a minimum overnight. Although the Davies family was still powerful, without Casey, the core figure, and the benefit of Davies family was not the goal that no one dared to take.

The Turner family secretly added fuel to the situation and devoured the basic industries of the Davies family in all walks of life. In addition, people in the Davies family were terrified, provoking dissension, coercing and luring. It was staged in all places where the Davies family's industries were all over the world.

Although part of the power arranged by Terence secretly assisted Edith, the Davies family, which had become a target of public, was still becoming riddled with defects and precarious.

One of the most obvious manifestations was that the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, which had a good relationship with the Davies family, had declined in performance for more than three consecutive months. Half of the companies that cooperated with it had terminated the cooperation for various reasons, making the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce's business had shrunk drastically. Today, it was too much to say Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was dying.

Everyone regarded the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce and the Davies family as the same piece of cake. Since they wanted to share the cake, naturally they couldn't leave it at all.

"Mrs. Davies, the Graham family and the Sharp family, again on the grounds of unreasonable distribution, let us give up 80% of the two industries of catering and real estate for redistribution, otherwise they will unite all small and medium-sized enterprises in these two industries to isolate the Davies family. At that time, our situation will become very dangerous."

Jordan said to Edith with a sad face.

A dozen sighs immediately sounded in the entire chamber. This was not the first time that such a situation had happened.

"Mrs. Davies, or else we will take out some share to satisfy them. Maybe in this way, they won't continue to trouble us," at this time, an older old man said.

A middle-aged man in his forties who was standing next to the old man immediately echoed, "I think we should not only give out the share, but also give them a share of the industries of all walks of life in the Davies family. Now we are worried about takeovers by various predators. Is it because the Davies family has too much interest? If we take the initiative to bring the Davies family down to a level, I believe they won't be so coveted of us."

Edith frowned when she heard the words of these two people. She didn't expect that the pressure on the members of the Davies family from the outside world would be so great. Some people of the Davies family already wanted to cut off most of the Davies family's share in order to protect themselves.

If this method was effective, Edith might consider it, but the discerning people know the purpose of those who was spying on the Davies family. If a portion of the share was taken out, it was impossible to fill the stomachs of these people.

"This approach is tantamount to cutting meat to feed wolves. The hungry wolf's stomach can never be filled. Now they dare not act rashly because the Davies family still has a certain weight in B City. If we divide up all the shares, they will not pay attention to the Davies family at that time. In the future, never mention such ideas," Edith said seriously.

Both the old man and the middle-aged man glanced at Edith, and then stopped talking.

"Tell the Graham family and the Sharp family that the share of the Davies family is based on our hard work. They are not qualified to allocate the share of the Davies family. If they really want it, they can grab it directly. We won't be polite to them either," Edith continued speaking.

Jordan nodded immediately, without any objection to Edith's order.

The meeting continued, and most of the following content was the same as the previous questions. Edith gave clear instructions one by one. By the time the meeting ended, it was already two hours later.

When everyone dispersed, Jordan walked up to Edith. Edith said, "Jordan, please pay attention to Armand Davies and Carroll Davies. I suspect that they have been bought by the Graham family and the Sharp family."

Jordan nodded and said respectfully, "Yes."

Armand was old man, and Carroll was the middle-aged man.

After the explanation, Edith also got up from the chair, a sore feeling hit her, and she felt exhausted. After reaching out and gently stroking her belly, the feeling was relieved.

"Little guy, I'm helping you guard your property. If you are not filial in the future, I will be pissed off by you," Edith said with a smile.

After Jordan left, Edith also walked out slowly to the outside of the chamber, and when she was approaching the door, a rumbling sounded into her ears.

"When does Mrs. Davies is going to give up? Now all the people in B City knows that Casey is dead and the Davies family is now in its death throes. She is the only one who still believes that Casey is still alive. Isn't this self-deception?"

"That's right, but the Davies family is now in her hands, and we can only play this self-deception game with her."

"In my opinion, it is right to choose forbearance at this time. According to the current situation, everyone is eyeing the Davies family. The Davies family won't care about one of them alone, but once they unite, the Davies family will not be able to resist."

"What do you know, maybe this is just a way for her to control the Davies family. As long as she says that Casey is still alive, she can always control the Davies family. However, it has been almost half a year. If Casey is really alive, he has come back a long time ago. She treats all of us as fools."

Listening to the comments from outsiders, Edith suddenly felt sour, and tears almost flowed out, but in the end, she forcibly endured it.

During this time, she was under more pressure than anyone in the Davies family, because only she knew that Casey was still alive and would come back sooner or later.

However, she didn't expect that the people of the Davies family would talk about her like this behind her back, and how she would not feel wronged in her heart when she was about to be a mother.

She took a long breath and waited until the people outside left before slowly walking out.

"Casey, I just don't want to give up the Davies family business to others, why do they say that?"

"Can I hold on until you come back?"

Chapter 652 It Split

In the Turner family, M Country.

In front of an open field, Theodore was standing in front of six strong men with a satisfied smile on his face.

Here, there were broken stones, wood broken into two pieces, and bent steel bars. It looked like a mess.

And it was the six people in front of Theodore who caused this scene. They just broke wood, gravel, and steel bars with their hands in front of Theodore, and they had a super high-level contest. Not long after, a thin old man came to Theodore's side. It was no one else, but the head of the Turner family, Freeman Turner.

Theodore turned his head and glanced at Freeman, and shouted, "Grandpa." Freeman nodded, stared at the six people, and asked, "What are the results of these months' training?" Theodore smiled and said, "After several months of guidance, the strength of the six people is already invincible. I made some small changes to deep breathing that my teacher taught me, so that they could practice it. Although they couldn't really develop their inner force, they were much stronger than ordinary experts." Freeman nodded appreciatively and said, "Yes, the king was born in the Turner family. In the future, the Turner will definitely stand on top of the world under your leadership."

Theodore didn't say anything. In his opinion, Freeman's praises were nothing more than facts to him.

During this period of time, in order to enhance the overall strength of the Turner family, he took pains to make a crude copy of deep breathing passed on to him by Myles, and taught it to the thugs of the Turner family.

The reason for doing this was because Myles stipulated that deep breathing should not be passed on to others lightly. Normally, people from a family like the Turner family were not qualified to practice inner force.

In order not to be blamed by Myles, he could only retreat and come up with such a crude version, but this was enough for the current Turner family. These six people were carefully selected among the many masters of the Turner family. Now they had practiced Theodore's simple deep breathing, and their strength had been greatly improved. Any one of them could beat the so-called experts of the world's top families badly.

"The news from my men says that the Davies family is still lingering in B City. I arranged for someone to use some means on the Davies family, but I didn't expect them to defuse all of them. So, behind the Davies family, there should be something we haven't considered."

"And during the recent period, my men saw Kacper from Guanling near the Davies family, the men with him were masters of Guanling ranked second and third on the List of Ares. If I'm not mistaken, the Davies family has been able to stand up to now precisely because of Guanling's secret help."

Freeman told Theodore what he wanted to say.

Theodore narrowed his eyes and murmured, "Guanling, a high-end entertainment resort. Dare it go against the Turner family. Is its boss stupid?"

"Don't underestimate Guanling.

According to my observations, since their boss became Percy, Guanling has been very different from the past. Before the Cunningham family was destroyed, I found the shadow of Guanling from some clues, this place is probably hiding a secret we don't know," Freeman said. Theodore snorted and said, "No matter how many secrets they have, they will eventually be trampled underfoot by the Turner family."

Then he looked at the six people in front of him, with a joking smile on his face, and then murmured, "It just so happens that I also want to see the true strength of the six people. Since the top three on the List of Ares are in B City, it's better to just let the six men go there."

"This time, I will teach those people from Guanling a lesson and kill the Davies family like a fly by the way."

Behind the mountain.

Time passed by, and in a blink of an eye, Casey had been here for six months.

Behind the mountain, Casey was standing in front of a small waterfall. The clattering sound of running water and the sound of birds show the vitality of nature incisively and vividly.

In front of Casey, there was an extremely smooth stone washed by water. On the stone, there were three palm prints of different shades. The deepest one was about three centimeters thick, which was amazing. These three palm prints were made on the stone by Baron and the other two seniors who had cultivated their inner force. This was a standard for them to test their own strength.

Because it had been scouring under the small waterfall for many years, the density of this stone had been very different from that of ordinary stones. Under normal circumstances, only machines could leave marks on this stone.

And the master promised Casey that when Casey could use his inner force to leave a palm print of about five centimeters deep on this stone, it was the time to let him leave.

At this time, Baron, Dick and Annabel were all standing not far from Casey, staring at Casey in front of the stone.

"Baron, how deep a handprint can he leave on this stone?" Dick asked.

Baron looked at Casey with disdain, and said, "At best, it's the same as me, maybe it's not as good as me."

Although he had already lost to Casey, in order to balance his feeling, he always thought that Casey could beat him by talent, which he couldn't envy. But at any rate, he developed his inner force three years earlier than Casey. In terms of his inner force, Casey definitely couldn't compare to him, and the depth of the palm prints depended on the strength of the inner force, so he didn't think Casey could break the record he made.

Annabel glared at Baron and said, "Dare you look down on Casey. Well, are you going to rebel against me?"

Baron suddenly looked embarrassed, and said quickly, "I... I was wrong, I'm sorry."

After losing to Casey that time, according to the bet, Baron became Annabel's follower. He was not someone who could not afford to lose, so he fulfilled the stakes earnestly. Now in front of Annabel, he dared not be presumptuous.

Dick watched this scene, wanting to laugh but not daring, so he could only hold back forcibly.

After a long time, Casey, who was standing in front of the stone, finally moved. The power of his whole body was concentrated on the palm of his hand, and then he slammed his palm toward the stone, bringing strong wind around him.

With a bang, Casey retracted his palm and looked at the stone.

The stone was intact, except for the three palm prints, there was no fourth palm print.

Baron, Annabel and Dick hurriedly surrounded Casey, and they were all surprised when they saw the situation on the stone.

"It shouldn't be. There is no trace. How did he defeat Baron?" Dick was puzzled.

Baron laughed loudly and mocked, "Casey, you are really strong in fighting, but after all, you are too young. There is not even a trace on this stone.

Compared with me, you are still inferior..."

Before he finished speaking, the smile on his face stopped abruptly.

Because the stone in front of Casey made a clear clicking sound, and then it split into two petals directly.

Chapter 653 I Like You

In front of their master's wooden house.

Casey stood here with a solemn expression, and now he smashed the stone in a palm, which was considered to have met the master's request and he was ready to leave.

The six months of training in the mountains was not too short, and the child in Edith's belly was about to be born. He didn't know what the situation of the Davies family was now, so he must go back as soon as possible.

Baron was standing on the side with a pale look. At that time, his mockery of Casey once again became a slap and hit himself in the face. This time, he really felt the horror of genius, from now on he would never dare to laugh at Casey casually.

Dick stood by the side of Baron, patted him on the shoulder, and comforted, "Baron, I can actually understand your feelings. I feel the same as you now. Don't be upset, ordinary people like us should not compare with geniuses like him. One conclusion I have come to is that comparisons are odious, so let's accept reality."

Hearing Dick's words, Baron felt even more upset in his heart. He really didn't know whether Dick was comforting him or ridicule him.

Annabel looked happy, but on the way back at that moment, Casey mentioned that it was time for him to leave, and Annabel couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

She stared at Casey, her eyes complicated, as if she was catching up in something.

The other apprentices also stood aside, not knowing what happened.

"Dick, what's the matter? Why does Baron look so gloomy?" A senior asked.

Dick immediately told others about the fact that Casey broke the stone that tested the strength of the inner force. Baron immediately glared at him, and Dick had to bite back the words she would like to have said.

"Well, Baron is in a bad mood now, let's talk about it later." Dick coughed slightly. Everyone became more curious and kept looking at Baron, which made Baron even more embarrassed.

After a while, seeing that his master had not come out of the wooden house, Casey shouted, "Master, I have fulfilled the request you made, and the stone has been cracked by me!"

When everyone heard Casey's words, they were a little confused.

"Stone? What stone? Didn't he just crack a stone? Is it worth talking to master?"

"My God, isn't it the stone for Baron and the others to test? The density and hardness of the stone is quite high, isn't it. Even an axe cannot leave a mark on it. Casey cracked it with his palm?"

"Oh...deserving to be Master's most proud apprentice. His terrifying talent is really not what we can imagine."

After a while, the master's voice came from the wooden house, "Go, remember what you promised me."

Casey knew the character of his master, knowing that his master had allowed him to leave.

And some time ago, the master had already said everything.

The reasons for the master taught Casey's inner force, one was the affection of the master and the apprentice, and the other was to hope that Casey would be able to respond when the master needed him in the future.

According to Casey's guess, his master seemed to be planning something. The reason why he accepted so many apprentices should not be a pure hobby. Master would definitely need him in the future.

Although he didn't know what his master would let him do, but only with the kindness that his master taught him, Casey could do anything without hesitation.

The grace of dripping water would be repaid by the spring.

After standing outside the door of the wooden house and waiting for a while, Casey knelt down and kowtowed three times in the direction of the door, then got up and turned to look at Annabel.

Today, it was time for him to leave.

"I'm leaving, you can choose to stay here or leave with me," Casey said.

Annabel said immediately, "What am I doing here? Wait for me, I'll pack up my things."

After speaking, she ran to her wooden house.

It was only then that everyone realized that Casey was leaving, and there were some changes in the eyes that looked at him.

Although Casey insisted on leaving that year and left a bad impression on these apprentices, the talents that Casey showed during this period once again impressed them. Even if there were some small contradictions in normal times, they were still mate in the final analysis. Therefore, when everyone heard that Casey was about to leave, they also felt a little emotional.

Dick stared at Casey, hesitated for a moment, and said, "Although I have some misunderstandings on you during this period, you have proved yourself with your strength. Both of us are master's most proud apprentices. Before you leave, I wish you have a smooth journey."

Casey smiled at Dick. He knew that this kid was just a bit competitive, but he was not hostile to him.

Baron hesitated for a moment, and stepped forward, saying, "You are indeed very strong, I am ashamed. But in the future, I will still consider you as the object of the contest. I hope that when I see you next time, you will not let me down."

"Definitely," Casey replied.

After that, the remaining people all stepped forward and began to say goodbye to Casey. Casey responded one by one. After Annabel packed up, she said goodbye to the fellow apprentice with a bit of reluctance, and then left with Casey.

When they came out of the mountain, it was already evening. They came to the small town at the foot of the mountain. Casey wanted to find a place to rest for the night. At this time, Annabel stopped and looked at Casey hesitantly.

"What's the matter?" Casey asked.

After a long time, Annabel asked, "After tonight, are you going back to B City?"

Casey nodded, wondering what Annabel meant.

"Then have you ever thought about taking me back with you?" Annabel asked.

Casey was taken aback. He really didn't think about this issue. Annabel had been by his side all this time, and with Annabel's life-saving grace for him, he had never thought of driving Annabel away.

Seeing Casey hesitating, Annabel already had an answer in her heart. She smiled and said, "Okay, okay, let's find a place to get accommodation first."

Casey noticed Annabel's abnormality, but he didn't know how to tell her about it, so he nodded, thinking that he would think about Annabel's question tomorrow.

They came to a shabby hotel. At Annabel's insistence, they asked for a standard room with two beds in one room. Casey felt that he could barely accept it, so he didn't say anything. At night, Annabel surprisingly didn't come to trouble Casey. She just lay on the bed and looked at Casey quietly. Casey didn't know what she was thinking.

When she woke up the next morning, Casey looked over to Annabel. The bed was empty and the quilt was neatly folded.

Casey thought she went to wash. When he got up, he saw a piece of paper at the head of the bed. The beautiful handwriting on the paper was very comfortable.

He picked up the paper and sighed helplessly after reading it.

"Fool, I've went home. I know you won't have my place in your heart any more. Even if I chase after you foolishly, I'll get nothing. However, living in the mountains is the happiest time in my life. I hope this time belongs to me and you will be our exclusive memory. Whether you agree or not, I announced that this time belongs to me. Of course, I still want to see you again this time. Don't forget that you still owe me a life, so when you have time, you should remember to come and see me. I don't mind if you take Edith and your children with you. I will prepare gifts for them. Finally, whether you accept it or not, I'll say it. "

"I like you."

Love was a thing without solution, and Casey didn't know how to treat Annabel's love for him.

He shook his head slightly. Since he couldn't figure it out, he would like to repay Annabel with thousands of times of kindness in the future.

He couldn't accept Annabel's feelings, but he could protect this girl in this life, making no one dare to cheat her!

Chapter 654 Go Back to B City

In a bus bound for B City, Casey was sitting by the window, looking out of the window, a little surprised.

Because of living in the mountains for half a year, Casey could not shave and cut his hair, so his hair and beard were very long at this time, and his clothes were often shaved during training, so he looked very sloppy. Basically, it couldn't see his original appearance.

It was precisely because of his current image that everyone in the car stared at him with a strange look. There was no one beside his seat, because everyone was scared.

It just so happened that Casey could also stay alone.

Now it had been two days since Casey left the town. Casey moved around for two days and finally returned to the area of B City again. Breathing the air here, he felt a long-lost sense of familiarity.

"Have you heard that, tomorrow night, the Graham family and the Sharp family will jointly hold a grand banquet at the Jingyun Hotel. Then all the tycoons of the business community in B City will attend. I heard that they are gathering this time for discussion on how to deal with the Davies family. I heard from my relatives that the Graham family and the Sharp family plan to directly force the Davies family to hand over all the property through this banquet for everyone to share."

Hearing the people in the car talking about the Davies family, Casey immediately raised his attention.

"Really, are the Graham family and the Sharp family finally planning to take action against the Davies family? Tut? tut, I heard that some time ago, the Graham family went to the Davies House to make trouble. They took a few masters to the Davies and beaten the Davies family up. The Davies family had no way to resist."

"I heard about it. It is said that there is a master named Kacpter in the Davies family. Someone asked for trouble before, and they were all solved by his. However, this time Kacpter was like a weak child in front of the few people brought by the Graham family, and was beaten up by them quickly."

"Unexpectedly, the Davies family, which was glorious back then, has fallen to this point, which is really surprising."

"It's because of the death of Casey of the Davies family, plus someone secretly provoking, the Graham family and the Sharp family who had been under the Davies family back then have the courage to challenge the Davies family. Without the leader, a big family is just a mess. I heard that the Davies family is now handled by Casey's wife. This is also a powerful woman. She is pregnant but still deals with the affairs of the Davies family. For so long, she didn't let the Davies family fall down. If it weren't for her, the Graham family and the Sharp family would not hold this banquet."

"I know about it. I heard that Casey's wife is about to give birth. the Graham family and the Sharp family want to take advantage of her lack of energy to deal with the Davies family's affairs, and reach an agreement with those in the business community of B City to force the Davies family give up."

Listening to these people's comments, Casey was moved. He didn't expect that in the past six months, Edith would have taken the burden that should have belonged to him, so that the Davies family had not fallen down until today. Fortunately, he rushed back in time. If the Graham family and the Sharp family's plan succeeded, the consequences would be disastrous.

"the Graham family and the Sharp family? Since you are dicing with death, then I will fulfill you. Today, I, Casey, return and will kill all those who have bullied my wife!" Casey murmured.

Not long after, the bus stopped midway to pick up passengers, and a middle-aged woman in her fifties took a six or seven-year-old boy into the bus.

The middle-aged woman glanced around and found that there was only a seat next to Casey, and immediately led the little boy towards him.

Seeing Casey, the little boy immediately pointed his finger at him and said, "Look, grandma, this man's hair is so long."

The middle-aged woman immediately pulled the little boy's hand back, and said, "Stay away from this kind of person. A savage comes from forest. There are many germs on him."

When Casey heard what the middle-aged woman said, he didn't take it seriously, and continued to stare out the window, all thinking about Edith.

Although she said so, the middle-aged woman didn't want to stand, and even wanted to grab Casey's seat. After rolling her eyes, she shouted at Casey, "Hey, are you blind? Ah, didn't you see me with the child? Get up quickly, give me your seat. How sloppy you are. How dare you, a beggar, sit on the seat!"

If this middle-aged woman talked to Casey politely, he might give up this seat, but after hearing her so rude, Casey didn't pay attention to her at all.

When the middle-aged woman saw Casey ignore her, she had no way. She could only curse a few words at Casey, saying that Casey was immoral and didn't know to give up his seat to the old people and he had no sense of ethics. Finally, she let the little boy sit next to Casey, and she stood next to the little boy.

The little boy was holding a small wooden hammer in his hand, which looked like a toy he had just bought. After he sat down, he began to beat with the small hammer everywhere, making the entire bus a lot of noise.

Someone told the middle-aged woman that he wanted to take a break, could she let the child be quiet for a while, the middle-aged woman immediately stared and said, "He is a child, what's wrong with playing? How could a kid keep quiet all the time? You are also an adult, so why don't humour a child? You look gentle, but you are so mean"

Seeing that the middle-aged woman was so rude and bitchy, the man closed his mouth gloomily.

The little boy continued to beat and make noise. At this time, his gazes turned to Casey. It may be that Casey didn't give up his seat to his grandma, the little boy looked at Casey with some hostility.

Seeing Casey looking out the window, he quickly took a small hammer and hit Casey's leg hard, then withdrew his hand, pretending that nothing happened. His acting was quite superb. Casey turned his head and glanced at the little boy, thinking that he was a child, so he didn't take it seriously, and continued to look out the window.

There was a smirk on the little boy's face, and he thought Casey was a fool in his heart. He took the small hammer and hit Casey's lap again.

Casey turned his head again and looked at the little boy. When the little boy saw Casey, he didn't speak. He thought Casey was afraid of him, and began to hammer Casey with an unscrupulous expression.

The middle-aged woman just watched the little boy "assault" with a look as if nothing had happened, and seemed to think that he did a great job.

A trace of anger grew in Casey's heart, and when the little boy hammered him again, he grabbed the little hammer.

"Do you know it's impolite to do this?"

Casey said coldly.

"Well, I like to do so. I can hit whoever I want, let me go," the little boy said with a smug look.

Casey smiled and let go of his hand holding the small hammer, and the part of the hammer that Casey grabbed had turned into sawdust and fell to the ground.

The little boy watched this scene dumbfounded, and then cried.

Chapter 655 Do I Look Like A Pushover

The middle-aged woman was pretending not to see the little boy making trouble for Casey. She stared out the window. After hearing the little boy crying, she quickly looked down and found that there was only one handle of the little hammer in the little boy's hand. She also stared at Casey.

She hurriedly guarded the little boy in front of her, glared at Casey with anger, and cursed, "Do you have any education! You bullied a child, why did you break his toy!"

Everyone in the car looked towards them. At that time, the little boy clinked with a hammer, and the people in the car were a little dissatisfied. Now, watching Casey destroy the little boy's toy, they all felt a little gloating.

Casey stared at the middle-aged woman and said coldly, "I have no education? He is here to hammer me with this thing. You treat it as if nothing has happened. Are you cultured?"

"What do you mean, are you saying that my grandson, Hayes, is impolite?" the middle-aged woman said aggressively.

"Yes, he is indeed impolite, and it is your fault." Casey did not intend to continue to bear it. If he bore today, the child would only get worse in the future. This was not a good thing for a child.

The middle-aged woman immediately pointed at Casey, she was hysterical, and she shouted, "You, a damn guy, dare you criticize Hayes. Who are you? A beggar? How dare you say Hayes is uncultured? He is still a child. It is normal to be ignorant. He is ignorant. Is it possible that you are also ignorant?"

When Casey saw the middle-aged woman smashed him, he was a little bit dumbfounded. At the same time, he also learned the power of this kind of people to argue. If this kind of quarrel was lethal, this middle-aged woman could definitely kill them all.

"Sorry, your child did the wrong thing, I have no obligation to spoil him" Casey said.

The middle-aged woman glared at Casey, gritted her teeth and said, "Smelly beggar, I order you to apologize to Hayes immediately, and then pay us 1,000 dollars for a new toy, otherwise I will let you know how great I am!"

At this time, someone in the car couldn't stand it anymore, and said, "Why are you like this? He is sitting there and doing nothing. Obviously, it is that your grandson is causing trouble. Now you are still asking him to apologize to you. Why is there someone as unreasonable as you?"

The middle-aged woman immediately turned her head and glanced at the man, and shouted, "Mind your own business. Tell you, my last name is Sharp, do you know the Sharp family that is powerful in B City? I am a relative of the Sharp family, if any of you dare to be nosy, you will be in trouble!"

Several people who also wanted to defend Casey changed their expressions after hearing what the middle-aged woman said. They didn't expect this person to be a relative of the Sharp family. No wonder she dared to be so arrogant.

They were afraid of getting into trouble, so they bit back what they wanted to say.

Seeing that everyone was afraid to continue defending Casey, the middle-aged woman also showed a triumphant expression on her face. She turned to look at Casey, "Did you hear what I said just now? Hurry up and apologize to my grandson, otherwise it is as easy as killing an ant for the Sharp family to beat you, a beggar!"

Casey didn't intend to continue to make this matter worse. He just wanted to deter the middle-aged woman.

But after hearing the middle-aged woman say that she was a relative of the Sharp family, Casey's look darkened instantly.

At that time, people in the car talked about the status of the Davies family.

Casey already knew that it was the Graham family and the Sharp family that pushed the Davies family to this point.

Edith is now under such great pressure and it is was caused by the Graham family and the Sharp family, and he had already put the Graham family and the Sharp family on the blacklist in his heart.

Now that this rude and aggressive middle-aged woman was a relative of the Sharp family, how could Casey let her go easily.

The middle-aged woman watched Casey staring at her with both eyes, and immediately curled her lips and said,

"What are you looking at. Are you deaf? Or are you scared by my identity?"

"Grandma, teach this man for me and let him know how good we are," the little boy said, pulling the middle-aged woman's clothes.

The middle-aged woman saw Casey not speaking, and was still staring at her with a weird look, and was a little impatient, so she directly raised her hand to slap Casey.

Just as the middle-aged woman's slap was about to fall on Casey's face, Casey instantly raised his hand, pinched the woman's wrist, and got up from the seat.

The middle-aged woman was a bit shorter than Casey, and the moment Casey stood up, she instantly wilted.

"You...what do you want to do?" the middle-aged woman said nervously.

"What am I doing? If I sit still, you will slap me in the face. Do you think I am stupid?" Casey said coldly.

"Hurry up and let me go. Let me tell you, I am a relative of the Sharp family. If you irritate me, I will let you suffer!" the middle-aged woman shouted.

Casey raised his other hand and slapped the middle-aged woman without hesitation. With a snap, a red handprint appeared on the middle-aged woman's face.

"A relative of the Sharp family? Can the relatives of the Sharp family do beat others for no reason?"

The middle-aged woman was exploded at once, staring at Casey with both eyes, and shouting, "You dare guy, you dare to hit me, I..."

Before she finished speaking, Casey slapped her again.

"You can beat me, why can't I beat you? You indulge your grandson to make trouble for me, I don't care. But you become more undue. He is a kid who is ignorant. You are an adult. Are you ignorant?"

Casey directly scolded the middle-aged woman with what she had just said.

"You..." The middle-aged woman almost exploded.

Casey slapped her again, "What's wrong with me? Am I looking bullied?" The middle-aged woman wanted to say something more, Casey's hand moved again, scared her to shut her mouth immediately.

The little boy was so scared that his body began to tremble, and seeing his patron be beaten like this, of course he did not dare to make any more troubles.

"Driver, stop quickly, I won't take this bus! That's how you treated the passengers. I was beaten like this. No one of you stop him!" the middle-aged woman yelled at the front.

The driver stopped the car without saying anything. He had already been unsatisfied with this middle-aged woman.

When the middle-aged woman saw that no one cared about her, she could only take the little boy out of the bus with resentment on her face. When she got down, she shouted at Casey, "Wait and see, I will definitely not let you go!"

The driver closed the door directly and continued to walk towards the front.

The people in the car stared at Casey quietly for a while, then one person raised his hand and clapped.

Immediately afterwards, warm applause erupted from the entire carriage.

Chapter 656 Who Told You That I Was Died

The Davies family, in the living room.

Lily was sitting on the sofa frowning at this time. Jordan and executives of the Davies family were also sitting here, and the atmosphere was a bit solemn.

Because it was almost the due date,

Edith couldn't continue to take care of the Davies family's affairs, so she could only entrust Jordan with some affairs of the Davies family. At this time, Edith was resting in a well-prepared room in the house, and the doctor was also directly invited back home, in order to avoid accidents during the childbirth. According to the current situation of the Davies family, if Edith went to the hospital to give birth, the Graham family and the Sharp family may secretly play some tricks, so they could only prepare the things they need in the Davies House.

"Jordan, I beg you to help Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. During this time, the Graham family and the Sharp family have been targeting us. They used some means to create a funding gap of 50 billion dollars. If we can't make up this gap, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce will be over." Lily looked at Jordan pleadingly.

The Graham family and the Sharp family would hold a banquet to carve up the Davies family industry tomorrow night. Before that, they must convince everyone that the Davies family was exhausted, and the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was their test stone. If the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce went bankrupt before the banquet, it would undoubtedly win over a large number of people, and they would be able to force the Davies family to surrender all the shares of the industry more smoothly.

Jordan looked at Lily with a look of embarrassment. Although the Davies family was in better condition than the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, it was not much better. In addition, now the entire B City was eyeing the Davies family. It was indeed a difficult choice for the Davies family to decide whether to give 50 billion to help the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce.

However, Edith had already ordered that all Lily's requests must be satisfied as much as possible. As the saying goes, share a common lot. If the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was, it was not good for the Davies family.

"Miss Lily, you are also aware of the current situation of the Davies family. Various forces are targeting us. The Davies family's money is also spent on maintaining the industry. Now we only have 30 billion. I'll let someone transfer the money to your account later, and we can't do anything about the rest," Jordan said.

Lily looked at Jordan with a grateful look. Although 30 billion was not enough to fill the funding gap, at least it could relax the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce for a period of time, giving them enough time to think about other solutions.

"Jordan, you can't give her money. You know best what the situation of our the Davies family is now. Now that we can't protect ourselves, how can we still have the energy to help the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce!" Armand said immediately.

"That's right, that's 30 billion. The Davies family can't even protect itself now. With this money, why don't you use it to protect ourselves instead of giving it to an outsider!" Carroll also echoed.

Jordan turned his head and glanced at the two of them, and said coldly, "This is what Mrs. Davies has ordered. The Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce will be in trouble, we cannot just stand by."

Armand and Carroll glanced at each other, and they were obviously a little unhappy.

Lily didn't expect that someone would come out against it. The hope in her heart suddenly went out.

"Jordan, whether Mrs. Davies has ordered it or not, you have to consider for the Davies family. You should know the purpose of the banquet that the Graham family and the Sharp family will hold tomorrow night, the Davies family may not be able to survive and will be ruined. You have so much money. It is better to distribute it to the Davies family. When this disaster strikes, everyone will not go hungry," Carroll said anxiously.

Armand snorted coldly and said, "Jordan, there is no one else here today, so I will just say it directly. Edith is Mrs. Davies, but the Davies family does not belong to her, but belongs to all of us. Now it is unreasonable that she takes the power of the Davies family and helps these outsiders. And she has always claimed that the head of the Davies family is still alive and will come back sooner or later, but we all know the fact. It is nothing but an excuse for her to dominate the Davies family. If we let her continue, not only will the Davies family be over, but all the members of the Davies family will be bankrupted because of this!"

"Presumptuous!" Jordan exclaimed, "You dare to talk about Mrs. Davies like this, how dare you!"

Armand curled his lips and said, "Anyway, I am also an senior of the Davies family. I just want you to see the facts clearly. In short, I don't agree to give the 30 billion to the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce!"

"Me, neither!" Carroll also shouted. The remaining senior executives of the Davies family were silent, and it could be seen that they were all wavered by Armand's words.

Lily looked at the scene before her, feeling helpless. She knew that Edith was good to her, but the Davies family was not Edith said went. These people's objections were also reasonable.

Jordan looked at Armand and Carroll, and his heart burned with anger. During this time, he had found that these two people had contacted with the Sharp family, and he knew that they should have betrayed the Davies family, but there was no hard evidence.

He knew that these two people were not thinking about the Davies family, but just to prevent the the Graham family and the Sharp family from failing their plans. However, logically speaking, there was no flaw in Armand's words. If he insisted on giving the 30 billion to Lily, others of the Davies family would be disgruntled. Lily also knew the current situation. She sighed helplessly, got up from the sofa, glanced at Jordan, and said weakly,

"Jordan, thank you."

After speaking, she walked out towards the outside.

Both Armand and Carroll sneered.

Armand took this opportunity to walk up to Jordan and said, "Jordan, now Lord Davies has been dead for half a year, and the Davies family is facing a crisis again. You just admitted the Davies family still has 30 billion on the account, so should we talk to us about how the 30 billion will be distributed?"

Jordan slammed the table and shouted, "What do you mean, do you think the Davies family is over now?"

Armand smiled and said, "Hasn't it already become an established fact on the day Lord Davies died? Jordan, I think you were bewitched by Edith, the scheming woman."

At this moment, a somewhat ethereal voice came into his ears.

"Who told you that I was dead?"

Armand's body became stiff, he quickly turned his head and looked in the direction of the door, and saw a man with messy and long hair and half of his face covered by his beard standing at the door.

Lily had just walked to the door at this time, and after seeing the person at the door, she was also a little confused.

But when she and the person's eyes met each other, it became clear in her heart who the man looked a bit sloppy was.

She couldn't help but shed tears, and then cried out, "Casey!"

Chapter 657 It Was Not the Reason For You to Betray the Davies family

Everyone was suffocated by Lily's shout, and they all fixed their gazes on Casey, carefully looking at this person who seemed to have come out of primitive society.

Armand and Carroll were a bit suspicious, because Casey's appearance was so different from the past, so the first reaction of both of them was that this person was playing a prank.

Armand stared at Casey, and then said loudly, "Who are you, dare to pretend to be Lord Davies. Are you here for trouble!"

"I think he was sent by the Graham family to disgust us. I'll ask someone to catch him and punish him!" Carroll snorted and immediately called for someone.

Casey smiled, walked into the living room, and said, "Well, do you just want me to die?"

Lily was the closest to Casey. Although Casey's face was hidden by the beard, his voice and eyes had not changed.

Lily immediately confirmed that the person in front of her was Casey.

She cried and stretched out her hand to Casey, hugged him, choked and said, "He is Casey, there is nothing wrong with it. You bastard, do you know how we were in the past six months? You are only coming back now, I really want to beat you up."

Casey reached out and touched Lily's head, and said, "Sorry to make you worry. When I deal with the matter here, you blame me again, okay?"

Lily wiped her tears and nodded to

Casey.

Casey walked straight towards Armand and Carroll. Casey heard what they said just now. No matter what the purpose was, these two people made Casey feel sick.

Armand and Carroll were able to see Casey clearly at this time. In addition, the voice was the same as Casey, and they finally realized that it was not a prank. The person in front of them was really Casey!

"Lord..., is it really you? God bless the Davies family. Now that you are here, the situation in the Davies family is finally hopeful!" The expression on Armand's face became quite fast, although he couldn't figure out why Casey was still alive, but the situation at the moment did not allow him to hesitate.

Carroll was also shocked. Casey, who had been dead for half a year, came back alive again. It was almost like a dream.

Seeing Armand expressing his surprise to Casey with excitement on his face, he hurriedly said, "Lord, it is fortunate that you can return. What we said before is really rebellious. I am willing to accept the punishment."

"Lord, please punish me!" Armand also bowed to Casey.

Casey snorted. He wasn't angry because these two people refused to give Lily 30 billion. This situation was natural for the people in the Davies family to think about themselves, but these two people shouldn't slander Edith.

"Edith is the only one who knows that I am still alive. She has taken charge of the Davies family for me during this time, and has done her best. The Davies family is still standing today. It is all her credit, and you two slandered her for wanting to occupy the Davies family. Doesn't she know that various predators in B City want to take over the Davies family now? Even if she occupies the power of the Davies family, what can she get? It's really chilling for you to say that about her. If I don't come back today, do you still want to kick her out of the Davies family when she is about to give birth?"

Casey asked Armand and Carroll word by word, cold sweat was already on their foreheads. Casey had an air of quiet authority, which made them both breathless.

Carroll rolled his eyes, then knelt directly in front of Casey, and said, "Lord, I was discreet and even speculated about Mrs. Davies. I am guilty. No matter what punishment the you want to give me, won't have any complaints."

Armand knew that if his attitude was not sincere at this time, Casey would definitely be furious, so he also knelt down and asked Casey to punish.

Casey stared at the two of them and said indifferently, "For you are good at maintaining the Davies family. I will spare you once. 100 heavy blows with a club for each person. If I hear this again in the future, please don't blame me for falling out."

handed him a portfolio, said something, then turned and left.

Armand and Carroll breathed a sigh of relief when they heard that they only needed to be beaten 100 times.

At this moment, Jordan stood up, walked in front of Casey, and said, "It's too benevolent for them just to be beaten 100 times. Casey, these they colluded with the Graham family and the Sharp family during your absence and spread rumors all over the Davies family. They have no conscience."

Both Armand and Carroll's expressions changed, and they didn't expect Jordan to say so suddenly.

Armand immediately said, "Jordan, don't slander me. I admit what I said about Mrs. Davies before, I said it without thinking about it, but you said that I was collaborating with the Graham family and the Sharp family. It was too unjust!"

Carroll also quickly defended, "Jordan, we usually contradicted you. You shouldn't have to use such insidious means to frame us, right?"

Jordan snorted and threw the portfolio in his hand directly on the ground. Several photos fell on the ground. It was the scene where Armand, Carroll and the heads of the Graham family and the Sharp family had a drink together.

"I have found the evidence. Are you sure I am setting up you?" Jordan said coldly.

Armand and Carroll looked at the photos on the ground with horror. They didn't expect Jordan to send someone to follow them secretly.

Jordan turned his head to look at Casey, and said, "Mrs. Davies had noticed that something was wrong with them two months ago and asked me to investigate them secretly. I didn't expect that they actually betrayed the Davies family. No wonder they keep slandering Mrs. Davies."

Casey's eyes were already narrowed, and murderous intent burst from it. Both Armand and Carroll were full of regrets. Carroll hurriedly begged for mercy, "Lord, I was just bewitched. You disappeared for half a year. We all thought you were dead. The Davies family was going to be over. I did this just to survive."

"He was right. Now that you come back, we will change ourselves. From now on, we will not regenerate any dissent towards the Davies family," Armand said with a trembling voice.

Casey curled his lips and said, "This should not be the reason you betrayed the Davies family."

After speaking, Casey directly pinched the necks of the two people and lifted them from the ground. Then, with a strong click, he broke their necks.

The betrayer was unforgivable.

Chapter 658 There Are More Than Ninety billion Dollars in This Card
In the living room. Watching Casey deal with Armand and Carroll without any hesitation, people with high status in the Davies family were all frightened and instantly gave up the ideas they had after being incited by Armand and Carroll.

They all realized that Casey wouldn't show any mercy to those who betrayed him. At this moment, they were all thinking that they would be loyal to the Davies family for the rest of their lives. Jordan approached Casey tearfully. His hands were slightly trembling. In the past six months, when Edith insisted that Casey was not dead, he believed her. However, people would finally be disappointed when someone disappeared for half a year.

Therefore, Jordan thought that something must have happened to Casey, but he was unwilling to talk to others about it. He firmly carried out every order Edith gave him and just considered Casey's coming back to be a good wish.

Now, seeing Casey who was alive, he had the feeling that his forlorn wish had suddenly come true.

He had mixed feelings, but he finally just spoke a few words, "I'm glad that you're back. I'm glad that you're back."

Casey smiled at Jordan and said, "Thank you for your hard work in these days. Since I'm back, I'll get the Davies family out of this difficult situation. Don't worry. I won't let the people who covet the property of the Davies family get away with it."

Jordan nodded with satisfaction. He deeply trusted Casey. So he believed that Casey would get the Davies family out of trouble after he had said so.

"I'm going to deal with those two traitors now. Talk to Lily first. Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce is now in crisis. Since you're back, I'm not going to interfere with it. I, as an old man, finally have a chance to relax." Jordan spoke. Casey agreed. Then he turned his head and looked at Lily who kept wiping tears, no longer looking terrifying. His expression immediately changed into a gentle one.

Lily looked at Casey with a bitter expression. However, there was a joyful expression in her eyes.

Casey came close to her, touched her nose and said with a smile, "If others knew that I'm still alive, you all would be in danger. Therefore, I can only conceal it from all of you. I'm sorry to have worried you."

Lily punched Casey once with her fist and said, "Well, I've punished you for that. If you worry me like that again, I'll be angry with you."

"I promise that I won't do that again!"

Casey saluted to Lily seriously.

Seeing that, people with high status in the Davies family all sighed. They all clearly knew how ruthless Casey was. He looked especially terrifying when he dealt with Armand and Carroll just now. There were few people in the world who Casey would treat in a gentle way. And Lily could be said to be one of them.

Lily laughed. It was the happiest moment she had in the past six months. However, she soon became gloomy again. It was indeed great that Casey was back. However, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was in crisis. Although Casey was back now, he couldn't turn the tables.

Casey read her thoughts. With a slight smile, he took out a bank card from his pocket and handed it to Lily.

Lily gave that bank card a glance and asked with a puzzled expression, "Why...Why do you give it to me?" "Isn't Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce out of fund? Give this bank card to your father." Casey said.

Lily shook her head and said with a sigh, "We need 50 billion dollars. And the Davies family could at most lend 30 million dollars to us. A bank card can't be of much help."

Casey laughed and said, "What's wrong with giving you a bank card? Could it be that you dislike it for there isn't too much money in it?"

Lily gave Casey a glance with blame in her eyes and said, "Alas, it's serious. Don't joke with me."

"I'm not kidding. There should be more than 90 billion dollars in this bank card. Could it be that it's still not enough?"

Casey put on a playful look.

"More than 90..." At the beginning, Lily misheard and thought that there was more than 90 million dollars in that card. However, the next second, she was frozen with shock as if she had been struck by lightning.

"More than 90...billion dollars?" Lily looked at Casey in disbelief.

Lily gasped. If someone told Lily that Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was worth 70 or 80 billion dollars when its size was taken into consideration, Lily would not be surprised. However, when she heard that there were more than 90 billion dollars in a bank card, she was so shocked that she couldn't think of anything.

Casey was able to buy Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce with the money in a bank card. How was it possible that people were not shocked by this fact. Apart from Lily, people with high status in the Davies family were also shocked. There were more than 90 billion dollars in a bank card Casey casually took out! They even suspected that Casey had secretly opened a bank. After all, however rich the Davies family was, it was very difficult for the Davies family to get 90 billion dollars in cash at one time. However, seeing this bank card, the people with high status in the Davies family were all relieved. If Casey could send a bank card with more than 90 billion dollars in it without hesitation, he must be able to get the Davies family out of the crisis it was in now.

Casey was really the mainstay of the Davies family. As long as he was fine, no matter how difficult the situation was, the Davies family would finally come through.

Lily didn't refuse. Now, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce was at a critical moment, so she had to receive the help from Casey. She took the bank card. After saying a few words to Casey, she hurriedly left the Davies House.

In a room in the Davies House, Casey stood face to face with Kacper. There were three beds in this room. Two people were lying respectively on two of the beds. They were exactly the experts in fighting that ranked second and third on List of the Ares. They were seriously injured and their respirations were faint.

"You're still alive." Kacper said while staring at Casey.

Hearing that, Casey immediately laughed. That should be the most decent words Kacper could speak to express his happiness.

"What's the matter with them?" Casey asked.

"They were injured by the people sent by the Graham family and the Sharp family. Those people were very good at fighting. To not be defeated by one of them, I had to try my best. There were six of them. We three were not match for them." Kacper explained to him.

Casey frowned. He didn't expect that the Graham family and the Sharp family could find someone who were better at fighting than the three experts in fighting on List of the Ares. He was astonished to hear that and naturally suspected that the Turner family had something to do with it.

Besides, considering that there were six people who were better at fighting than Kacper, Casey doubted that those people all had great inner force.

"I'll take care of this matter. However powerful they are, I'll make them pay the price." Casey said.

Kacper hesitated for a moment. It seemed that he wanted to warn Cas

Chapter 659 Edith, I Am Back

In front of a full-length mirror.

Casey had changed into a suit. His beard had been shaved and his hair had been trimmed. Besides, his hair had been specially styled by the barber.

After that, he looked like a young star.

After coming back, Casey first talked to the people with high status in the Davies family, asking them not to tell others that he was still alive. At the same time, he talked to Kacper and Jordan, learning about the situation of the Graham family and the Sharp family. After that, he asked Jordan to find someone to help him to primp.

The reason for doing so was that he wanted to meet Edith with a good appearance. Edith was about to give birth to their child. Even though the child Edith carrying couldn't see him, he didn't want to meet them with a bad appearance.

After primping, Casey took a deep breath and walked slowly towards the room of Edith.

He gently pushed open the door and saw that Edith was lying on the bed. Her abdomen bugged and her eyes were closed. She looked a little gloomy.

There were two full-time nurses beside her bed, waiting for Edith's order.

Seeing that the door was pushed open, the nurses immediately looked at Casey. Seeing him, their eyes were wide open.

They had never met Casey. However, Casey was now very famous in B City, so they had seen photos of him. Now, seeing someone who looked exactly the same as Casey coming in, they were both shocked.

Casey made a gesture to stop them from making any noise and motioned for them to go out. Neither of them dared to make any sound. Then, both of them hurriedly stood up and came out of the room.

After they went out, Casey approached the bed quietly, sat down on a chair beside the bed and stared at Edith with loving eyes.

Compared with half a year ago, Edith now looked a little more haggard. Her previously beautiful face had changed into a tired one. It made Casey's heart ache to see that.

"Casey...When will you be back? I'm under great pressure. I'm afraid that I will suddenly be unable to hold on. If that happened, the Davies family would be destroyed..."

After a while, Edith, who was asleep, frowned and spoke vaguely.

"Bastard, I don't know where you are now, otherwise I'll go to teach you a good lesson."

"No, what belongs to Casey can't be lost. They don't know that Casey's alive, and I will protect what belongs to Casey!"

"I want to hug you...even once..."

Hearing that, Casey had mixed feelings. If it wasn't that he hadn't shed tears for many years and that he had lost the ability to shed tears, he would have cried.

The pressure Edith was under these days must be a hundred times greater than what he had known, otherwise she would not talk about these matters even in her dreams.

She suffered too much stress and made too much effort for him.

Casey reached out and touched Edith's forehead gently. Edith might have felt something. The moment Casey touched her forehead, she no longer frowned and smiled slightly.

Seeing that Edith had relaxed, Casey kept gently touching her forehead. After some time, Edith seemed to want to turn over. However, she could only lie flat because of her bulged abdomen. So she woke up.

She opened her eyes. Then she found that there was a hand on her forehead and that the one she missed a lot was sitting by the bed. In an instant, she thought that she was dreaming.

"You bastard. I could only see you in dreams. Can you come back in reality once? Every time I wake up, I feel a sense of loss. Don't always disappoint me."

Casey was thinking about the events he had experienced with Edith. After hearing Edith's words, he immediately gathered his wits, looked at Edith with a smile and said, "I'm back."

Edith pouted and said, "I know that I'm dreaming. You always lie to me."

Casey touched her cheek gently, put his hand beside Edith's lips and then said, "Bite my hand."

Edith was stunned. She thought: it was really a weird dream. Casey should make such a strange request to me. It seemed that I had to see a psychologist. "No." Edith refused.

Casey put his hand nearer her lips and said, "It's sweet."

Seeing that Casey seriously asked her to bite him and that he was annoying, Edith opened her mouth and bit him. The moment she bit into Casey's hand, her eyes were wide open. She felt the body temperature of Casey and that she touched Casey's skin!

"Am...Am I not dreaming?" Edith asked in disbelief.

Casey held her into his arms at once and said with a smile, "Silly girl, from now on, you'll never only see me in dreams."

After hearing his heartbeat, Edith pulled Casey's hand near and bit into where she had bitten.

She bit into his hand with great strength this time. Casey didn't resist. From the beginning to the end, he wore a loving smile.

"You lied to me. You're not in pain." Edith said.

"Sometimes, it's a kind of happiness to be bitten by you. How dare I say that I'm in pain?"

"Edith, I'm back."

Watching Casey, who was really beside her, Edith shed tears.

"Casey, never leave me again, will you?" Edith put her arms around Casey's neck.

"I promise."

On the island in the artificial lake in Guanling.

Terence was sitting at his desk in a daze.

Since being informed that Casey was killed by Theodore, he had been upset, as if he had lost something. And he no longer worked as hard as before.

After a while, someone knocked on the door, attracting the attention of Terence.

"Come in." Terence spoke.

A man with a pair of glasses came in.

Terence asked, "What's the matter? Has anything happened to the Turner family?"

That man shook his head and said, "We just got a message from Kacper."

"What?" Terence became nervous. He knew what situation the Davies family was in these days. However, he had used most resources to deal with the Turner family. Therefore, so far, he could offer little help to the Davies family.

"According to Kacper, Lord is still alive. Besides, he has been back to B City."

Terence was stunned for a moment and then asked, "What did you say?"

"Lord is still alive." That man repeated. Terence immediately stood up and no longer looked gloomy.

"I know that he won't die so easily. That's my boy. He really didn't disappoint me."

Terence, who had always been calm and cold, was very excited.

"Tell everyone to temporarily stop the plan to deal with the Turner family and wait for Casey's order."

"As long as he's alive, sooner or later, the Turner family will disappear from the world."

Terence was confident.

"Yes!"

Chapter 660 I Can Solve the Problem by Killing the Leaders of the Graham family and the Sharp Family

In the conference room of the Graham family.

Wheeler Graham, the head of the Graham family, and Beasley Sharp, the head of the Sharp family, were sitting at the table, waiting for someone to tell them that Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce had gone bankrupt. According to their plan, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce would fail to get 50 billion dollars and then went bankrupt.

Apart from them, there were six people sitting on the sofa and drinking wine in the conference room. Wheeler and Beasley would give them a glance from time to time. They were afraid of them. These people were exactly the experts with "fake inner force" sent by Theodore. After arriving in B City and knowing the situation in B City, they got into contact with the people of the Graham family and the people of the Sharp family, promising them that they would help them destroy the Davies family.

Then, these people defeated Kacper and two other experts sent by Guanling in the presence of Wheeler and Beasley. Wheeler and Beasley clearly knew how powerful Kacper was. So, they instantly understood that these people weren't kidding and treated them in a respectful way.

Without the help of these people, Wheeler and Beasley wouldn't dare to arrange that a dinner party would be held tomorrow. These people were too powerful. Even if the people of the Davies family didn't want to give their property to them, they would have to. The leader of the six people was named Bradshaw Turner. When Theodore taught them the skill of fake inner force, he learned best among others. He also fought best among the six people.

However, he was far from as powerful as the experts who really had inner force.

After waiting for a long time, Wheeler was bored. Therefore, he approached the six people, picked up a glass of wine and said with a smile, "Thanks to you all, we put the Davies family in such a position. I drink to you for your help."

After saying that, he drank off the wine. Seeing that, Beasley also hurriedly came close to them and said with a smile, "He's right. Without you, we really can't deal with the three experts in the Davies family, not to mention hold the dinner party on tomorrow. Now, Edith is going to give birth to her child and therefore has no time to take care of the affairs of the Davies family. Their three experts have also injured by you all. We'll definitely be able to destroy the Davies family at the dinner party tomorrow."

He also picked up a glass of wine, proposed a toast to the six people and then drank off the wine.

"For us, the Davies family is very weak. If it wasn't that we are not allowed to kill them, we would have long killed all the people of the Davies family and left this place. Those people were trash and are no match for us at all." Bradshaw said proudly.

"Yes, yes, yes. You're so powerful. It's indeed very easy for you to destroy the Davies family. I promise that you'll be richly rewarded after we succeed. You'll leave here with a good fortune."

Wheeler said with a smile.

When Wheeler and Beasley flattered those people, a person went into the conference room.

Both Wheeler's and Beasley's eyes lit up. Beasley hurriedly asked, "You have got the news about Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce?"

That person was not happy, speaking, "Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce has borrowed 50 billion dollars from someone. Now, Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce has returned to normal. The efforts we made these days are wasted. If we want to put Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce in that situation again, we'll have to pay a greater price."

"What!" Both Wheeler and Beasley shouted. Unexpectedly, they had dealt with Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce in so many ways, but Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce should make it through. "Who lent them the money?" Wheeler asked.

"I don't know. However, it's said that the young lady of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce had went to the Davies House today." That person answered. Wheeler immediately narrowed his eyes and murmured, "It seems that the money is from the Davies family. Unexpectedly, at this point, the Davies family still has lend 50 billion dollars in cash. But the Davies family should have run out of money now."

"It's a good news. The people of the Davies family don't care about themselves and lend all their money to Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. It will be easier for us to force the people of the Davies family to listen to us at the dinner party tomorrow." Beasley spoke with a smile.

Wheeler nodded and said, "It seems that the people of the Davies family have given up struggling. Compared with letting us get the money, they would rather give the money to Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. But it's the property and the companies of the Davies family that are really valuable. We don't have to care about the money Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce borrowed from the Davies family."

"Lord, the people of the Davies family didn't accept the invitation to the dinner party we sent. I'm afraid that they won't attend the dinner party tomorrow." That people said.

Beasley narrowed his eyes and said, "They're important persons of tomorrow's dinner party. We can't hold the dinner party without them."

At this moment, Bradshaw spoke, "It's easy to deal with. Tomorrow, I'll send two of my friends to go to the Davies family. If they refuse to attend the dinner party, my friends will take some actions against Casey's wife."

Wheeler and Beasley looked at each other. Both of them laughed.

"Thank you."

In the evening, in the Conference Room in the Davies House.

Casey sat on the seat of the host.

Jordan, Charles, Conor, Morgan, and so on all looked excitedly at Casey, as if they were watching a rare animal.

Casey was a little embarrassed and said with a smile, "Don't look at me like that.

It isn't the first time for you to meet me."

"We have met you before. However, in the past six months, we all thought that you were dead. Now, you suddenly come back. We'll certainly find it unusual." Conor joked.

Others all nodded. They were all anxious to know what Casey had gone through in the past six months.

"Brother Casey, tell us what you have gone through in the past six months. I'm so curious." Morgan spoke.

Casey just briefly told them how he was saved by Annabel, concealing some important things from them. There was something he shouldn't tell others now, including the fact that he had come to his teacher.

Casey always kept everything about his teacher a secret.

Although Casey concealed many details from them when telling them what he had gone through, people present were all interested in what he told them. They all thought that Casey was really lucky.

"As an old saying goes, one who survives a great disaster is destined to good fortune for ever after. It's great for us to have Brother Casey back." Morgan spoke.

At this moment, Jordan suddenly sighed and said, "It's indeed a good thing that Casey is back. However, the Graham family and the Sharp family have put us in a very difficult position, and we have to do something now. We should think about how to make it through now."

People in Conference Room were immediately in a somber mood.

Seeing that, Casey said with a smile,

"Don't worry about it. I'll deal with it."

"Brother Casey, you have no idea what the situation is like now. The Graham family and the Sharp family deal with us with 80% of the enterprises in B City. Even if you're, the situation is irretrievable." Charles sighed.

"Yeah, the Graham family and the Sharp family go too far, but we can't do anything about it." Conor also sighed.

People in Conference Room all began to sigh. In their opinion, now, the Davies family couldn't deal with the Graham family and the Sharp family anymore.

"Don't be so pessimistic. It's mainly manipulated by the Graham family and the Sharp family, right?" Casey asked.

Everyone nodded.

"If I kill all the leaders of the Graham family and the Sharp family, the problem will be solved, right?"

Chapter 661 Do You Feel Easy About Letting Me Attend the Banquet Alone?

On the afternoon of the next day, Casey stayed in the room with Edith. From time to time, he would put his ear near Edith's abdomen and listened to the sound made by the baby Edith carrying.

"Darling, she's calling me dad." Casey spoke to Edith with a smile.

Edith looked at Casey with blame in her eyes. She was still carrying the baby. How was it possible that she would speak?

Several months ago, when Edith had pregnancy check-up, she had known that she was carrying a girl.

"Then, ask her why she always kicks me at night. Because of that, I can't sleep well." Edith said.

Casey immediately put his ear near Edith's abdomen again and then spoke, "She says that she's anxious to meet me. She just knocks on the door by kicking you."

Edith burst into laughter. She thought: Casey should sometimes be childish. Is every father-to-be like that?

Soon, the smile gradually disappeared from Edith's face. She became worried and said, "Tonight, the Graham family and the Sharp family will hold the dinner party. Can we make it through?"

Casey gently touched Edith's face and said with a smile, "I fell into the sea before, but I'm still alive. That trouble is no big deal to me. Moreover, I studied with my teacher in the past six months and has become more powerful. I've mentioned it to you right? Now, in my opinion, those people are very weak. I can easily deal with them."

Casey had many secrets. He couldn't talk to anyone about that. Only Edith was the exception. She was an indispensable part of Casey's life, so she had the right to know those things. Hearing that, Edith was relieved and then spoke, "You must be careful. There are experts in fighting among them. Those experts are very good at fighting. Even Kacper can't defeat them."

"I got it. You're about to give birth to our child. Don't worry about that and just have some rest. After tonight, the Davies family will get out of the crisis." Casey touched Edith's abdomen, "Your mom's really nagging. In the future, you'll suffer a lot."

Edith was angry. If it wasn't that she was pregnant, she would definitely jump and beat Casey up.

In the courtyard, Jordan, Conor, Charles and other people were all anxiously walking back and forth. Kacper was also there. He wore a cold expression, but there was a hint of worry on his face. At this moment, Casey came out of Edith's room. Seeing that, people in the courtyard all approached him.

"Casey, if you go to attend the dinner party tonight, you'll be under great danger. You can't go there alone. At least, you should go there with us."

Conor spoke.

"He's right, Brother Casey. At least, you should go with us. If anything happens, we can help you. It's too dangerous for you to go there alone." Charles also said.

Seeing that they were so worried about him, Casey said with a smile, "It's really unnecessary for you to go there with me. Moreover, what matters now is the safety of Edith, instead of me. Only when you stay here can I go there without worries."

Hearing that, everyone was helpless and had the feeling that Casey was going to his death.

"Casey, I believe you, but the six experts in fighting they found are too good at fighting. Even Kacper finds it difficult to defeat them. We're afraid that you'll be in danger when you go to attend the dinner party alone." Morgan spoke.

"Yeah, those people are good at fighting. Don't underestimate them."

Kacper added.

Casey was helpless. He didn't know how he could persuade them to stay at home and wait for him.

At this moment, a person rushed to them with an anxious expression and spoke breathlessly, "A bad news. The people of the Graham family and the people of the Sharp family come and ask us to send someone to attend the dinner party. If we refuse, they will ruin the Davies House!"

Hearing that, people were all shocked. Casey raised his eyebrows and immediately spoke, "Show us the way." That person hurriedly nodded and left the courtyard with them.

In the main courtyard of the Davies House, a lot of men of the Davies family were lying on the ground. There were only two people standing there. They were two of the experts in fighting sent by Theodore.

At this moment, they were contemptuously looking at the people lying on the ground as if they were looking at some ants. They shouted, "Hurriedly ask your leaders to come out and come with us. Otherwise, we'll ruin your house!"

"How dare you say those words! Do you really believe that people of the Davies family are afraid of you?" At this moment, Jordan shouted. Casey, Jordan and other people arrived here. The two people looked at Jordan. One of them sneered, "Old man, that woman is going to give birth to her child. Now, you're the leader of the Davies family, right? Then come with us."

After saying that, that people approached Jordan and wanted to take Jordan away by force.

At this moment, Casey stood in front of Jordan and spoke coldly, "You, as someone kept by the Turner family, should dare to make trouble for us. Are you afraid that you will be killed?"

That man looked at Casey up and down.

He didn't know Casey, so he asked,

"Who are you? How dare you stop me?"

"I'm Casey." Casey answered.

The two people were all stunned. One of them asked, "Are you the head of the Davies family?"

"Yes."

"Aren't you dead?" The two were a little astonished.

"No. I can't die. Otherwise, how can I deal with you?" Casey said with a smile.

"Ridiculous. Even if you're not dead, the Davies family will also be destroyed today. Come with us. After you give the Graham family and the Sharp family the property and companies, we'll kill you!"

Jordan gave Casey a worried glance and said, "You shouldn't have told them who you are so soon. If they tell others this news after going back, the Davies family will be in an even more difficult position."

Casey smiled and said, "Don't worry about that. It's impossible for them to leave here alive."

The two people laughed and looked at Casey with more contempt.

"Who do you think you are? You want to kill us? Think about your safety first!"

One of them said. After that, he rushed towards Casey.

Jordan, Kacper and other people were nervous and were about to protect Casey.

Right at this moment, Casey suddenly moved. He moved so fast that they didn't realize what had happened.

The people who attacked Casey widened his eyes and smelt danger. However, it was too late for him to retreat.

That people tried to punch Casey while Casey took hold of his fist.

"Are you so weak?" Casey smiled slightly. He had anticipated that the people sent by Theodore had had inner force. After fighting with this people, he found that these people didn't have inner force.

He felt that these people were just a little more powerful than ordinary experts in fighting. Their strength was a little like inner force, but it was at a level that was much lower than inner force.

That person was in shock and said, "It...It's impossible!"

"I'll show you the real power." As Casey spoke, he stretched out his other hand. After he put his hand on the belly of that person, he used the inner force. That person's mind got blank. After that, he fell to a place away from Casey and was motionless.

People around all watched it dumbfounded, especially Kacper. He clearly knew how powerful those two people were. Now, Casey knocked him down with one move. He was so powerful!

After dealing with that person, Casey looked at another person. At this moment, another person was also astonished. He didn't expect that Casey would knock down his companion with one move.

He smelt the danger. Then he turned around and tried to escape. Casey rushed towards him and punched that person on his back. That person vomited blood, fell to the ground and no longer moved.

After that, Casey turned around, looked at Jordan and other people, and asked with a smile, "Now, do you feel easy about letting me attend the dinner party alone?"

Chapter 662 Who Dares to Harm My Wife and My Child?

At Jingyun Hotel.

At this time, the hall on the first floor had been splendidly decorated. There were all kinds of delicious food and snacks in the hall. In the center of the hall, there was an empty place on which people could stand and talk.

At 8:00 p.m., there were many luxury cars parked in front of the door of Jingyun Hotel. Nearly representatives of 80% of the large enterprises in B City would come here to attend the dinner party jointly held by the Graham family and the Sharp family tonight.

Many people entered the hall of the restaurant. There were all dressed in expensive clothes and looked good. Although they all looked like decent people, they clearly knew that they came here to get some benefits from the Davies family this evening.

At this moment, the hall of the restaurant was already packed. People were talk to each other casually in huddles. However, they were all talking about the Davies family and Casey.

"In the past, my restaurant was the leader catering industry. I was negligent in management, and therefore the kitchen was not very clean. As a result, the people of the Davies family used it as an excuse to squash my restaurant. How is it possible that there is not any mouse in the kitchen? Unfortunately, people can't accept that. As a result, the Davies family squashed my restaurant. They took this opportunity to promote open-style kitchen, gaining a large share of the catering industry and cutting off my source of wealth. Unluckily, however powerful the Davies family is, the Davies family can't always be powerful. Now, it's being punished."

"Yeah. In the past, the Davies family claimed that I sold fake goods and used it as an excuse to deal with me. I admit that I had sold some fake goods. However, the means the Davies family used were too low. In the past, the Davies family was powerful, so I dared not say anything. Now, every dog has its day. I'm no longer afraid of the Davies family."

"He, he. It turns out that the people the Davies family has offended so many people over the years. No wonder that they would be in such a situation now. Now, Casey is dead, and it's a pregnant woman who is in charge of the Davies family. There is no need to be afraid of the Davies family now."

Before long, Wheeler and Beasley arrived at the hall with Bradshaw and Bradshaw's three companions. Seeing that there were so many people in the hall, they smiled.

"Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to attend today's dinner party." Wheeler spoke loudly.

People present stopped talking at once, turned their heads and looked at the front of the hall.

"You all know why we hold this dinner party, so I'm not going to talk about it anymore. Now, we all understand the situation in B City. When Casey was still alive, we were bullied by the Davies family and dared not to resist. But now, Casey is dead, and it's but a woman that is leading the Davies family. There is no need for us to bear being bullied by the Davies family anymore." Wheeler spoke excitedly, trying to make all the people excited.

Hearing that, many people spoke their agreement at once. In their opinion, in the past years, the Davies family had been bullying them. They also thought that it was the Davies family that caused their companies to have poor competitiveness.

"These years, the Davies family has been acting arbitrarily in B City. After Casey became the head of the Davies family, he cooperated with Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce, squashing all of us. They made their achievements by doing damage to our interest. The wealth they have now is stolen from us. We worked hard to develop those industries, but now they occupy most share of them!"

People present were very excited.

"The misdeeds of the Davies family are too evil. Now, even the God couldn't bear it anymore. As a result, Casey died somewhere outside B City. It's a chance given to us by God. Therefore, today, we hold this dinner party get back what we've lost from the Davies family!"

"Great!" The crowd began to applaud at once. They all thought that Wheeler was very right.

"Now, Casey's dead. It's a pregnant woman that is leading the Davies family. As far as I know, that woman firmly believes that Casey is alive, so she won't let others lead the Davies family. In my opinion, it's just an excuse. She just wants to get the work of all of us. That woman could be said to be wicked, cruel and wily! Therefore, today, we must make her give us all companies of the Davies family. Otherwise, even if she is pregnant, we won't show any mercy to her!"

"Yes! She, a woman from a small place, should want to own all the companies of the Davies family. She must be too anxious for money for therefore goes crazy. If she refuses to delegate the power of leading the Davies family to others, I don't mind making it unable for her to give birth to her child." At this time, a strong man shouted savagely. When he just finished speaking, people present heard the sound made when something moved quickly in the air. Soon after that, people present saw a flash of white light. Then, a dagger was thrust at somewhere between that people's eyebrows. Soon, that people fell to the ground.

There was immediately a disturbance in the hall. It never occurred to anyone that that man would be killed by a dagger the second after he spoke. It was too scary.

"Is there anyone else who wants to harm my wife and my child?" Someone said in a deep voice. Hearing that, the crowd in the hall immediately quieted down.

They all looked at the door, seeing a straight person standing at the door.

Right at this moment, the lights of a car outside the restaurant were turned on and shone on that person, making him look like a god of war in the light.

"Who's that? Why is his voice so familiar?"

"Oh, my God. Could it be that it was him that threw the dagger? How powerful is he? He should kill someone in that way!"

"It's horrible. Have you heard what he just said? What did he mean?"

At this moment, the driver of that car drove the car away. The people present clearly saw Casey.

"Casey!" Soon, someone recognized Casey and shouted in shock.

"Fuck, it's really him. Isn't he dead? Why is he here?"

"Could it be that it's his ghost? Human beings won't have the strength he used to throw the dagger!"

People in the hall were all in a panic.

Casey went in the hall step by step. The crowd made way for Casey in fear. At the same time, they kept looking at Casey. They couldn't understand why a person, who had been dead for half a year, would appear again.

Neither Wheeler nor Beasley had anticipated such an accident. Casey, who had already been dead, should be alive now and even come to this dinner party.

Casey stopped in front of them and then looked at Wheeler.

"I seem to have heard that you won't show any mercy to my wife even if she is pregnant. Is that true?"

Wheeler's heart did a flip. He was instinctively afraid. Sweat on his forehead streamed down.

Chapter 663 You Are Too Noisy

"Casey, what...what do you want to do?"

Beasley asked while staring at Casey.

He was also a little shocked. However, considering that there were four super experts in fighting standing behind him, he was no longer afraid.

Casey gave him a glance and said coldly, "Why? You're going to harm my wife and my child. Besides, you want to divide up the property of my family. Could it be that you don't understand what I'm going to do?"

"Casey...Casey, don't try to fool us. Even if you're a live, you have to give us the companies of the Davies family. The Davies family is no longer what it used to be." Wheeler spoke to Casey after getting rid of the fear.

Casey laughed and said, "Who do you think you are? Why should I give you the companies of the Davies family just because you ask me to do that?"

"You!" Wheeler was unhappy.

Obviously, Wheeler was not as confident as Casey.

At this moment, Bradshaw approached

Casey with his three companions and then looked up at Casey.

"You're Casey? When my two of my friends went to the Davies House, did you meet them?" Bradshaw asked.

Casey gave them a glance, finding that they were powerful. He asked, "Are you sent by Theodore?"

"He, he. Unexpectedly, you're quite clever. Yes, I'm Bradshaw. I come here to destroy the so-called the Davies family. Unexpectedly, you were so lucky that you weren't killed by SY. However, when you come here, you're heading for you doom. I'll kill you for Mr. Theodore!" Bradshaw said coldly.

"I'm afraid that you can't. The two people you sent to the Davies House had been killed by me." Casey spoke tonelessly.

Bradshaw's eyes were wide open. But then he sneered and said, "Don't fucking fool me in this way. I know how powerful they are best. It's impossible for you to kill them."

Seeing that Bradshaw didn't believe him, Casey twitched his lips and didn't bother to explain. He turned his head, looked at the people present and spoke loudly, "Today, it's the people of the Graham family and the people of the Sharp family that fool you into trying to rob the Davies family of its companies. So I can forgive you. However, I won't let the Graham family and the Sharp family get away it. Therefore, I want you to serve as witnesses. Today, I'm going to destroy the Graham family and the Sharp family, and you had better think it over before dealing with the Davies family in the future."

Hearing that, many people put on a contemptuous expression. Obviously, they thought that the Davies family was no match for the Graham family and the Sharp family now.

In the past six months, the Davies family had become much less powerful than before. Even if Casey was back, it couldn't be changed.

Of course, they didn't know that Casey was supported by Guanling. Casey could get the Davies family out of the current crisis by making a phone call.

"Ridiculous. Casey, could it be that you've been in a mental hospital in the last six months? Or did you survive at the expense of your intelligence? Do you understand what situation the Davies family is in now? You should dare to brag that you're going to destroy the Graham family and the Sharp family. It's ridiculous!" Wheeler taunted.

Beasley also took a step forward and spoke, "Ladies and gentlemen, the reason why Casey dares to say so might be that he is still somewhat good at fighting. When it comes to fighting, I'm not as good as him. However, these four people are top experts in fighting in the world. Some time ago, the three experts in fighting of the Davies family were injured by them. Anyone of them could defeat Casey easily!"

Hearing that, people present were even more contemptuous of Casey. In their view, Casey's coming here was a joke. Casey twitched his lips, took a step forward and slapped the Sharp family in the face. He used so much inner force that Beasley's head made a 180-degree turn.

With a sound, Beasley's mocking expression froze. Then, he fell straight to the ground.

"You're too noisy." Casey spoke coldly while staring at Beasley.

People present were all in a panic again. Many women began to scream. The head of the Sharp family was killed by Casey with a slap!

Wheeler was so scared that he nearly peed.

Bradshaw and his companions didn't expect that Casey would suddenly attack someone. Seeing that Beasley fell to the ground, Bradshaw gave Casey a punch at once.

"Daring to kill him in the presence of me, you're bringing about your own destruction!"

Casey was calm. After stopping Bradshaw from punching him, he gave the three people behind Bradshaw a glance and said coldly, "You three can join the fight now."

Bradshaw sneered and said, "How dare you say so. You can't even defeat me, but you should want to fight with four of us at the same time. You're done!"

After saying that, Bradshaw continued to attack Casey. The three people behind him were anxious to kill Casey and therefore didn't mind fighting with Casey together. Besides, Casey just asked them to join the fight.

The three people immediately joined the fight, attacking Casey with Bradshaw.

People present all retreated to somewhere away from them, leaving enough space for them to fight. Casey was able to kill someone with a slap. If they were involved in the fight, they would be definitely dead or wounded. Bradshaw and his companions fought with Casey. They had intended to defeat Casey in a short time, but they failed to do so. Casey alone should fight with the four of them with ease. It seemed that Casey was not at a disadvantage in any way.

"You feel puzzled as to why you four can't defeat me, right?" Casey spoke with a smile.

"In fact, I can kill all of you by myself." Casey didn't want to continue to spend time fighting with them. Therefore, after saying that, he directly used inner force and gave one of them a punch. That person was instantly dead and fell to the ground.

Bradshaw was so shocked that his expression changed. He looked at Casey in disbelief and suddenly had an idea.

"Are...Are you an expert with inner force?!"

Casey smiled at him and said, "Congratulations. You're right."

After that, Casey gave each of the other two companions of Bradshaw a punch. Both of them were killed before they could react to it.

Bradshaw knew how powerful Theodore was and therefore understood how powerful experts with inner force were. He was not necessarily able to defeat an expert with inner force even after he learned the skills of fighting for 100 years.

Therefore, he immediately turned around and tried to run away. This was the only way to save his life.

However, Casey wouldn't let him do so. The moment Bradshaw tried to run away, he came close to Bradshaw and spoke in his ear, "Why are you so anxious to go away? Since you're here, don't leave."

The hairs on Bradshaw's body prickled. He thought that Casey was as scary as a ghost from hell.

"Please..."

Before Bradshaw finished speaking, Casey grabbed him by neck. He used some strength and broke his neck. After that, Bradshaw fell to the ground and began to twitch.

Chapter 664 The End of This Event

Gradually, Bradshaw stopped twitching and no longer moved. The people present watched it and were extremely shocked.

Just in more than 20 minutes after Casey killed first people by a dagger, Casey killed five people, including Bradshaw.

Six people, including Beasley, the head of the Sharp family, Bradshaw and his three companions and a reckless guy, were killed in just 20 minutes. Watching that, people present all realized that Casey was serious.

Wheeler was froze now. Keeping thinking that Casey broke Beasley's neck with a slap, he trembled violently every few seconds. His lips were pale, and he kept sweating.

This dinner party was held by him and Beasley. Now that Casey had killed Beasley, how was it possible that Casey would let him off?

Moreover, Casey could kill Bradshaw, who was so good at fighting, in just three moves. It meant that it was impossible for him to run away even if he tried his best.

At this moment, Casey turned his head and looked at Wheeler. Wheeler's Adam's apple kept moving and his lip trembled.

Casey approached Wheeler, put on a playful smile and asked, "Only you're still alive. Do you have any last words?" Wheeler took a deep breath. He thought: anyway, I would definitely be killed. I would rather not die as a coward.

"Casey, you're a demon! You should ignore the law and kill people wantonly. Do you really believe that you can get the Davies family out of crisis by doing so? You're just dreaming!"

Casey twitched his lips and said, "When you thought of harming my wife and my child, you also ignored the law." I just respond in kind. Why do you say such words when you suffer loss?"

"Humph, no matter how you defend yourself, you're but a reckless person. Maybe you can kill me. However, the Davies family has been a spent force. Even if I'm dead, the Davies family will still be destroyed. It's an irretrievable situation. However hard you try, you can't change it!" Wheeler spoke with an angry and sad expression.

Casey smiled and said, "Do you really believe that the Davies family is so weak? Well, I'll let you know how powerful the Davies family is before killing you."

After saying that, Casey took out his mobile phone and made a phone call.

"Take action."

"Yes."

After have a short conversation, Casey put the mobile phone back into his pocket.

Not knowing what Casey had done, Wheeler looked at Casey with a puzzled expression. However, in his opinion, they had been dealing with the Davies family with the help from M Country in the past six months. Even if the Davies family was not destroyed, the Davies family had been very weak. Casey alone couldn't change anything.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Graham family and the Sharp family will disappear from B City in 10 minutes. I want you to understand one thing: however weak the Davies family is, no one can offend the Davies family without paying a price. Ten minutes later, if anyone among you still wants to deal with the Davies family, I'll accept the challenge."

Before Casey came here, he got into contact with Guanling and learned that people of Guanling were waiting for his order.

Guanling was so powerful. When Guanling took action to destroy the Graham family and the Sharp family, ten minutes would be too much.

Hearing what Casey said, Wheeler immediately sneered and said, "He's just bragging. Don't believe him. The current situation of the Davies family is known to you all. Casey's back, so what? The people of the Davies family had given all their money to Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. It's impossible for Casey to get the Davies family out of crisis alone." "Therefore, even if he kills me, you must work together to destroy the Davies family. Only in this way can we get back what belongs to us!"

The people present immediately responded to Wheeler and strongly condemned Casey. They said that Casey was just trying to fool them. Casey didn't say anything and just stood silently.

About ten minutes later, Wheeler received many text messages on his mobile phone.

"Your bank account, the last four number of which is 4253, has been frozen..."

"The bank has stopping lending money to you..."

"Your XX company has been banned for violation of regulations..."

Before long, Wheeler received many phone calls.

"Wheeler, what happened? Why does the company run out of cash? Hurriedly invest more money."

"Chairman, our company is need of 5 billion dollars. So far, the stocks of our company have slumped by the maximum limit. If we fail to get the money, our company will be done!"

Wheeler watched it dumbfounded. It never occurred to him that so many things would happen to the Graham family in just 10 minutes. If it went on like that, the Graham family would lose everything in the end.

Beasley's mobile phone also kept ringing. It could be known without thinking that the Sharp family was in the same situation as the Graham family.

"Look, both the stocks of the Graham family and the stocks of the Sharp family have slumped by the maximum limit. The market value of all their companies have fallen by nearly 30%."

At this moment, someone shouted in shock. People present all took out their mobile phones and searched the current situation of the Graham family and the Sharp family.

"Both the head of the Graham family and the head of the Sharp family have been placed on the list of defaulters. It's said that their companies have a deficit and fail to repay the loan. All their assets have been frozen."

"It's found that several companies of the Graham family and the Sharp family have violated regulations. Relevant authority has sent someone to carry out the investigation!"

The people present talked about many pieces of news related to the Graham family and the Sharp family. Both the Graham family and the Sharp family received heavy blows.

Only then did people present understood that Casey was serious. Wheeler staggered back with a pale face. He gave Casey a glance. Casey was calm, but Wheeler felt that there was an air of forcefulness coming from Casey.

He lost all his strength. Considering that the Graham family had been destroyed and that Casey wouldn't let him off, he fell down to the ground and lay on the ground.

After this evening, the plan to deal with the Davies family, which involved many enterprises, was quietly stopped.

After going home, those who had attended the dinner party immediately warned their members of families not to offend Casey.

All the actions against the Davies family were stopped that night, as if the participants had been affected by some ideas.

On the next day, the Graham family and the Sharp family declared bankruptcy because of a series of problems, such as poor management, lack of funds and suspected violations of regulations. The people in B City were shocked.

None of the people who attended the dinner party that night told anyone that Casey had come back. After watching Casey kill someone, they were afraid of being killed because of saying something they shouldn't have said.

The position of the Davies family in B City became strong again. The bankruptcies of the Graham family and the Davies family stirred up heated discussions among people in B City.

There were many rumors about it. Some storytellers even wove the events into a story that was widely spread.

Many people thought that it was Edith that got the Davies family out of this crisis by defeating the Graham family and the Sharp family in unsparing ways. According to the storyteller, she was just like a goddess of war.

Many people even claimed that Edith was carrying a unicorn and that the Davies family got out of the crisis because of the blessing of God. In short, there were many different rumors. These rumors were exaggerated and mysterious, gratifying the curiosity of many people.

In front of a company of the Sharp family.

A middle-aged woman walked to this place with a child of seven or eight years old. There was a hint of excitement on her face.

"Hayes, be a good boy. Soon, we'll be able to see your uncle. Your uncle is an important person in the Sharp family. He works in this building and is the leader of more than ten people. Later, we will ask your uncle to find the shameless guy we met on the bus and teach him a good lesson." The middle-aged woman said with a smile.

The little boy seriously nodded at once. Considering that they would soon be able to take revenge on that person, he was also excited.

They came to the door of the building, seeing that the door was sealed.

Not knowing what had happened, the middle-aged woman was puzzled. A security guard happened to come out after putting away his belongs. After seeing that, she hurriedly approached him.

"Fella, we're relatives of the Sharp family, and we want to meet my relative.

Can you show us the way, please?" The middle-aged woman spoke.

The security guard looked at her up and down and then said with disdain, "the Sharp family has been destroyed. You should come here to meet your relative. Some employees of this company are arrested while others have run away. You should dare to claim yourself to be the relatives of the Sharp family. Aren't you afraid of getting yourself into trouble?"

"What are you talking about? The Sharp family has been destroyed?" The middle-aged woman exclaimed.

"Yes. Don't you see that the door is sealed?" The security guard said. Then, he no longer spoke to her, turned around and left.

The middle-aged woman stared at the door and kept silent for a long time.

Chapter 665 You Are Not Eligible to Do so

In the Davies House.

In the courtyard in front of Edith's room, Casey was walking back and forth nervously. The people with high status in the Davies family, including Conor, Charles, and so on, also stayed here with anxious expressions.

Top obstetricians in B City had long been waiting in the room. It was the day on which Edith would give birth to her child.

Nicolas and Jennifer couldn't help smiling. As someone who had experienced this kind of events before, they were obviously calmer than those who hadn't experienced it before.

Lily was also excited. She stood alone at the door with her eyes fixed on the door. From time to time, she murmured a few words. No one knew what she was saying.

Casey approached Conor and asked, "Are you sure that you have sent enough people to guard this house and that there won't be any problems?"

"Yes, I'm sure. Kacper and other two experts in fighting are guarding respectively at three sides of this house. Besides, there are many men of the Davies family guarding this house. No one could enter this house without permission. Don't worry." Conor answered. He was a little helpless. Today, Casey had asked this question for three times, as if he had lost his memory.

Casey turned his head, looked at Charles and asked, "Are you sure that the best doctors in B City are ready? Can they come here soon after anything happens to Edith?"

"They're waiting in the living room. What about going to have a look with me?" Charles looked at Casey, not knowing whether he should laugh or cry.

"It's unnecessary. I believe you." Casey answered.

Charles didn't agree with him. He thought: if you believed me, you wouldn't ask this question for more than ten times. Obviously, you didn't believe me!

"Casey, don't be so nervous. Edith is just about to give birth to a baby. It's not as dangerous as you think. Relax."

Jennifer comforted Casey with a smile.

"Jennifer, you're right. I don't know why, but I'm still worried." Casey answered. "It's normal for you to be nervous. You haven't experience this kind of thing before. However calm you are, when your wife is going to give birth to your child in the room, you'll be nervous. After Edith gives to the baby, you'll be relieved." Nicolas spoke with a smile. Casey nodded and took a deep breath. He thought: I shouldn't be so nervous. I couldn't let my daughter laugh at me just after she was born.

Yes, I had to be calm. I must give her the impression of a strict father from the moment she was born.

At this moment, Casey noticed that Lily who was murmuring at the door. He approached her and asked, "What are you talking about?"

Lily turned her head, looked at Casey and spoke with a smile, "I'm thinking about how to call you in the future. Shall I call you father or brother? Which is better?"

Casey was embarrassed. He hadn't told Lily that Edith had known that she was carrying a girl when she had pregnancy check-up. Therefore, Lily always thought that Edith was carrying a boy.

And according to the agreement between Casey and her, if Lily went after Casey's son, Casey couldn't interfere with it.

"Well, why are you so sure that Edith will give birth to a boy? What if she gives birth to a girl? In my opinion, you shouldn't think about these useless things." Casey was afraid that Lily would rush into the room after he told her the truth, so he gave a hint.

Lily glowered at Casey at once and said, "Casey, what do you mean? Do you want to break your promise? Listen, I've observed Edith for a long time.

According to the information from the internet, there are many signs that Edith is carrying a boy."

Casey was embarrassed. He didn't expect that Lily would believe the statements on the internet. Could it be that the statements on the internet were more trustworthy than medical examination?

"Humph, listen, after your son is born, don't ask me to be his godmother. I'll marry him in the future. If you ask me to be his godmother, things will be weird."

Lily raised her head and spoke to Casey.

Casey sighed helplessly. He thought: for the time being, let her immerse herself in her fantasy. After the child was born, she would know that the information she got from the internet was not true.

When they were waiting anxiously, a servant of the Davies family rushed over and said somewhat anxiously, "Lord, a person wants to break into this house.

She claims herself to be your mother-in-law. We stop her in the front courtyard.

Please go to deal with this issue."

Casey frowned. The first person he thought of was Amara.

"She's crazy. Could it be that she wants to make trouble for us on the day Edith gives birth to her baby? It seems that it's really correct to divorce her at that time."

Nicolas also guessed who that person was and said angrily.

"I'll go to have a look now. You wait here. After Edith gives birth to the baby, you must immediately tell me." Casey said as he went to the front courtyard. Everyone nodded.

In the first courtyard after coming into the Davies House, Amara was standing face to face with more than ten men of the Davies family angrily. They were at daggers drawn. Kacper stood on the roof, looking at the unreasonable woman on the ground coldly.

"Get out of my way. Listen, Edith is my daughter. I have the right to see her when she gives birth to her baby. You can't stop me from doing so." Amara shouted with confidence.

Those men stared at Amara and didn't know what to do. If it was someone else that wanted to break into the house, they would have long caught that person.

However, she was Edith's mother. They didn't dare to catch her, so they could only stop her in this courtyard.

"Besides, I know that Casey, the loser, is dead. Now, it's my daughter who is in charge of the Davies family. You should be very respectful to me, the mother of Edith. Now, you're stopping me from going in. If Edith knew that, she would definitely break your legs for me!"

The reason why Amara dared to come to B City at this time was that she heard that Casey was dead. This news was widely spread in B City, and some people in J City had heard about it.

After knowing that, she instantly thought that one of her enemies was gone.

Later, she heard that Edith was leading the Davies family now. Therefore, she wanted to come to here to live a happy life.

Amara couldn't do anything with Casey. However, she had many tricks to deal with her daughter and Nicolas who she considered to be a loser. Edith was someone who would yield to the weak but not to the strong. As long as she used some tricks, Edith would definitely soften.

At that time, she could be said to be the mother of the head of the most powerful family in B City. Naturally, she would be able to bully others.

"Quick, get out of my way. After Casey died, my daughter is the head of the Davies family. I'm her mother. Do you think you can afford to offend me?"

Amara muttered. Then, she tried to break in again.

"I'm afraid that you'll be disappointed. I'm still alive." Just then, Amara heard Casey's voice.

Amara was immediately froze. She hurriedly looked up and found that Casey was approaching her.

She was instantly dumbfounded and was scared.

"Why...Why are you still alive? Isn't it said that you're dead?" Amara spoke with trembling voice.

"Others says so, and you just believe it? No wonder you would be fooled into selling the hotel." Casey taunted.

Amara's face was dark. Then she took a deep breath and said, "Casey, anyway, I'm Edith's mother. Could it be that you want to drive me out after I come here?"

"Today, Edith's going to give birth to our child. I don't want any accident.

Therefore, go back to where you're from. Otherwise, I'll take some action."

Casey spoke coldly.

Amara glowered at him and said, "Edith is going to give birth to a baby today? You should don't inform me of such a major event. Do you consider me to be your mother? No. I must go in. When my daughter is giving birth to a baby, I must stay with her. Get out of my way. It's a serious matter to give birth to a baby. And I'm experienced in it. When you deliver Edith's child, I'll be worried."

Casey was speechless. If he allowed her to go in, he would be worried.

"Get out of here now. I don't want to talk nonsense with you." Casey said.

"Casey, be a moral person. My daughter is giving birth to a child. Why don't you allow me to go in?" Amara said in a loud voice.

Casey twitched his lips and said, "Because you're not eligible to do so."

Chapter 666 Sherry Davies

After driving Amara out, Casey turned around and walked towards Edith's room. Just now, he gave Kacper an order: if Amara dared to step into this house, he should break her legs.

After Casey went back to the courtyard, Nicolas approached him and asked, "Is it really that woman?"

Casey nodded and said with a smile, "I've driven her out. Before Edith gives birth to the child safely, she won't be able to step into this house."

"Great. I had thought that she would no longer disturb us after what happened last time. Unexpectedly, she should come here on the day Edith gives birth to her child. Why does she do it?"

Nicolas sighed helplessly.

"In fact, she didn't know that Edith will give birth to our child today. She thought that I was dead, and therefore came here to get some benefits from the Davies family." Casey explained.

Nicolas spoke with his eyes wide open,

"It's much wicked for her to do so.

Alas...I don't bother to talk about her."

"Don't think about her. Today, Edith will give birth to a child. It's a good thing.

Don't be upset by some unimportant people." Casey said.

Nicolas nodded. He no longer talked about Amara and continued to look at Edith's room.

About two hours later, Casey became a little impatient and had a faint impulse to rush into the room to have a look.

"It's been several hours. Why is the child still not born? Does anything go wrong?"

I have to go in and have a look." Casey spoke.

Jennifer hurriedly stopped Casey and said, "Different from what you think, children can't be born in a short time. It's not been a long time. Sometimes, a woman can't successfully give birth to a child in a day. Wait a moment. I estimate that the child will soon be born."

Casey helplessly sighed. Hearing Edith scream from time to time in the room, he was anxious.

At the same time, he finally realized how great women were. They were worthy of admiration just for their giving birth to children.

"It seems that I must be very nice to Edith in the future. Besides, I have to make our daughter know how great her mother is and ask her to be good to her mother."

When Casey was talking to himself, a baby cried in the room. People in the courtyard were excited.

Casey was so excited that he didn't know what he should do for a while.

At this moment, a nurse ran out of the room with a smile and said,

"Congratulations! The madam gives birth to a beautiful girl. Both the madam and the baby are safe."

"What! How is it possible that she gives birth to a daughter? She should have given birth to a son. Did you make a mistake?" Lily, who had been waiting, exclaimed. People in the courtyard were all confused.

Casey was a little embarrassed and hurriedly spoke to Conor, "Watch her, and I'll go in and have a look."

After saying that, he hurriedly entered the room.

"No. I also want to go to have a look. I don't believe that Edith has given birth to a daughter. They must have made a mistake." Lily didn't believe what the nurse said.

"Now, she has just given birth to the baby. It's not good for too many people to go in. You had better wait." The nurse hurriedly explained.

Conor immediately blocked Lily's way, felt puzzled and asked, "Isn't it good to have a daughter? Even Casey is happy to have a daughter. Why are you unhappy?"

"If they have a daughter, I can't marry their child. Oh, my dream is shattered."

Lily cried.

Conor was puzzled. He couldn't understand what Lily was thinking about.

In the room.

The moment Casey went in, he saw that Edith was lying exhausted on the bed. Her hair had been wet with sweat and her lips were a little pale. It could be seen that she had suffered great pains. However, now, she was smiling.

The nurse beside her was holding a baby wrapped in a piece of cloth. The baby's skin seemed to be dark. She was just born, and therefore she couldn't open her eyes.

Casey approached Edith and kissed her on the forehead first. Then he turned around and held the baby into his arms. "Darling, thank you. We have a daughter now." Casey said with a smile.

"Pick a name for her." Edith spoke.

After some thought, Casey said, "What about Sherry Davies?"

"Why?" Edith asked.

"She's our little daughter. I'll definitely let her become the happiest young lady in the world." Casey said with a smile.

Edith nodded with a smile and said, "Ok, I'll follow you."

Casey gave the baby in his arms a glance and said, "In the future, you're called Sherry Davies. Remember that you're my daughter and that I won't let anyone bully you. If anyone dares to bully you, I'll beat that person up!"

In the past, he was fiercely protective of Edith. In the future, he would be equally protective of Sherry who was in his arms now.

At the door of the Davies House, Amara stood there with her hands on her hips, swearing while facing the door.

Before, Casey drove her out. She was angry, so she stood here, swearing. She used all kinds of dirty words. However, she dared not step into the house.

Kacper had been standing on the roof and had been staring at Amara. Amara had realized that she couldn't afford to offend him, so she only dared to swear. After a long time, Amara was finally tired from swearing and stopped.

Right at this moment, a servant ran over and spoke to the security guards with an excited expression, "JZ has a daughter now. He says that it's a big day and will give all of us bonus."

The security guards all wore excited expression. It seemed that they were very happy.

Hearing that, Amara immediately murmured, "She should give birth to a daughter. What's the meaning of having a daughter? It's not as good as having a son. The reason I suffer so much is that I don't have a son. Now, the daughter I took painstaking effort to raise up doesn't consider me to be her mother. If I were in there, when I find that she gives birth to a girl, I'll choke that girl to death."

As Amara spoke, there was a vicious look in her eyes.

At the same time, several people were sitting in a secret private box at a restaurant in B City. All of them were smoking cigarettes, so the room was filled with smoke.

The person who sat on the host's seat was named Dillon Graham. He was the son of Wheeler. The people in this private box were members of the Graham family and the Sharp family. They didn't run away from B City because they wanted to take revenge on Casey.

"Casey killed my father and ruined my family. I must take revenge on him! I believe that you all have this idea. So far, we just need something with which we can deal with the Davies family."

Dillon spoke.

"You're right. If we openly deal with the Davies family, we will absolutely fail. However, there is more than one way to take revenge on others. Sometimes, the weak can defeat the strong." One of them said.

A man sitting next to Dillon said with his eyes lit up, "Casey's wife is going to give birth to a child recently. Maybe she has already given birth to the child. We can't defeat Casey, but we can do something to his child."

"If we could find a way to take Casey's child away from him, we would be able to negotiate with him."

The people in the private box all agreed. Dillon also smiled to show that he agreed with it. He said, "It's a good idea. Then, let's think about how to take Casey's child away from him. At that time, we must let h

Chapter 667 You Are Perfect

"Darling, is she really our child? I'm not very handsome. However, she looks so ugly."

Fourteen days after Sherry was born,

Casey sat on the bed and looked at the baby with dark and wrinkled skin, lost in thought.

Edith, who was lying on the bed, immediately rolled her eyes at Casey and said, "She's a newborn baby. How is it possible that she's pretty? She's still too young. Sometime later, when she grows up a little bit, she will be pretty."

"I want her to be like you when she grows up. In that way, she will be a beauty. Certainly, it's necessary for her to be like me. However, I just want her to inherit my merits." Casey murmured. "What do you mean? Could it be that she will inherit my shortcomings while she will only inherit your merits? Why are you such a narcissist?" Edith spoke with some dissatisfaction.

Casey gave Edith a gentle glance and said, "You're perfect."

Previously, Edith wore an angry expression. After hearing that, she put on a sweet smile, looked at Casey in a flirtatious manner and said, "Humph, you could be said to be sweet."

"Have some rest. I'll go to the kitchen and prepare some delicious food for you." Casey stood up, turned around and went to the kitchen.

There were several top nurses in the Davies family now. Besides, Jennifer was also here. It could be said that they could take very good care of Edith.

However, Casey still wanted to cook for Edith. These days, it was always him that cooked for Edith. Besides, he bought everything Edith needed in person. Every day, he went to the food market with Jennifer and bought the freshest vegetables for Edith.

After Casey went to the kitchen, Edith took her mobile phone which was on the table. These days, Casey only allowed her to play with her mobile phone for half an hour every day. He wouldn't let her play with it for even one more minutes. Edith could secretly play with mobile phone while Casey was not with her.

After all, she did nothing but lie in bed every day. Anyone in her position would be very bored. Therefore, it was normal for her to want to play with her mobile phone very much.

Not long after she opened microblog, she received a message from one of her male college classmates. According to this message, he had just finished studying abroad and was unfamiliar with H Country. He learned that Edith was in B City from other classmates. So he wanted to know if Edith had time to meet him and told them something about the current situation in B City. It was certainly impossible for Edith to go to meet him. These days, she couldn't even leave her room.

However, he had helped her a lot in college. When she did her graduation project, she asked him many questions about something she didn't understand. Therefore, she wanted to ask Casey to meet this classmate. After all, B City was under the control of Casey. No matter what problems her classmate had, Casey could help him solve them. Before long, Casey came in with a bowl of ginseng soup. He handed it to Edith and asked her to drink it.

Edith talked to Casey about her male classmate. Hearing that, Casey immediately asked, "Did you secretly play with your mobile phone again?" Edith immediately stuck out her tongue at Casey and said, "Oh, I saw that someone had sent me a message, so I texted him back. He helped me a lot in college. Go to meet him and help him for my sake, please."

"I will go to meet him, but you must promise me that you won't secretly play with your mobile phone." Casey spoke.

"I got it. Darling, you're so kind. I love you." Edith said with a smile.

Casey was helpless. After asking Edith for more information about her classmate, Casey said a few words to Jennifer and then left the Davies House.

Edith told that classmate that she couldn't go to meet him because she had just given birth to a baby. She also said that she would ask Casey to meet him and that Casey would find a place for them to live in.

After leaving the house, Casey found that he was still wearing an apron. He put on a bitter smile. At this moment, he had to take it off and hold it with his hand. There was even a faint smell of dishes on it.

At this moment, the male classmate of Edith was waiting in a high-end restaurant in B City. Casey went to that restaurant by taxi.

Blue Dream Restaurant could be said to be a famous high-end western restaurant in B City.

At this moment, a man and a woman were sitting face to face at a table in Blue Dream Restaurant.

The man was dressed in expensive clothes and looked handsome. It could be tell in one glance that he was a talented person with a high degree of education. The woman had white skin and looked pretty. She was quite a beautiful woman.

This man was exactly the classmate of Edith. He was named Holden. He was studying in M Country before. The woman was named Daisy and had emigrated to M Country now. Although she looked like the people of H Country, she was no longer a citizen of H Country. They became lovers in M Country.

At this moment, they were talking about Edith with a mocking smile.

"She said that she had just given birth to a child and therefore asked her husband to come to meet us. It's ridiculous. If I'm not wrong, she's married to a loser. I really can't understand why she had the courage to ask her husband to come to meet us." Holden said with a smile.

"She had just given birth to a baby? Didn't you say that she was your goddess when you were in college? After you said so, I thought that she was a middle-aged woman." Daisy spoke while twitching her lips.

"That's history. When I was in college, she was my goddess. I always helped her. Sometimes I would hint that I liked her. However, she acted as if she didn't understand and had never responded to me. When I remember what had happened at that time now, I find that I did have flattered her without caring about my dignity. It didn't matter that she didn't take a fancy to me. However, she kept asking me for help while pretending that she didn't take my hints. It was really annoying."

"Therefore, I want to meet her after coming back from M Country. Now, I'm someone who has studied abroad. Besides, I'll soon become the general manager of the famous Excellence Network Technology Co., Ltd. I just want to show off to her. At that time, she didn't like me. Now, I'm so excellent that she was not match for me."

"Unluckily, she has just given birth to a child and can't come to meet us. But it's ok to show off to her husband. When he comes back, he'll mention it to her. In this way, I can show off both to her and her husband. Then I can vent my anger."

Hearing that, Daisy also put on a playful smile and said, "I look down upon ordinary men of H Country. They're not as good as men of M Country. Of course, you're an exception. Sooner or later, you'll become a citizen of M Country. As for your classmate's husband, the loser, I'm afraid that I will feel sick after looking at him."

"When he's here, just laugh at him. There's no need for you to respect him. I just want to show off to Edith and him. It's unnecessary to be polite to him."

Holden said with a smile.

The moment he finished speaking, Casey approached them with his apron and asked, "Are you Holden?"

Chapter 668 They Had a Servile Attitude to Foreigners and Foreign

Things

Both Holden and Daisy turned their heads and looked at Casey. Seeing that Casey was dressed in clothes that were not expensive and that he was holding an apron, they were immediately sure that he was Casey.

But Holden didn't greet him. Instead, he pretended not to know who he was and asked, "Yes, it's me. What's the matter? It seems that you're a dishwasher. If something is wrong, ask the manager to talk to me. It's not appropriate for you to come to me."

Daisy covered her nose with her hand and said with dislike, "You're so smelly. The men of H Country are really disgusting. Go away now. I can't bear it anymore."

Casey didn't get angry. He smiled at Holden and said, "I'm Casey, Edith's husband."

Hearing that, Holden pretended that he just knew the identity of Casey. Then he spoke to Casey, "Oh, it's you. I'm sorry. Before you introduced yourself to us, I thought that you were a dishwasher."

Casey knew that he was just pretending. He thought: it seemed that he came to us with ill intentions. However, I was very happy because I had just had a daughter. I would forgive him.

"When I just finished cooking at home, Edith asked me to meet you. And I don't attach much importance to clothes at ordinary times. I'm sorry." Casey spoke. "In fact, you have nothing to do but do housework at home, right? You claimed that you don't attach much importance to clothes? It's a glorified excuse. You're so shameless." Daisy muttered.

Holden smiled and said, "She's my girlfriend. She has lived abroad for a long time, so she is blunt. I'm sorry."

Casey just smiled and didn't say anything.

"We've just ordered food, but we haven't eaten yet. Would you mind waiting for a moment here?" Holden asked.

"No, I don't mind it. Just enjoy your food. I've made reservation for you at the hotel." Casey said, "I'll go to ask the waiter for a chair."

After saying that, he went towards a waiter.

Holden immediately put on a scornful smile, "He's really a country bumpkin. If he is not a customer, the waiter won't offer a chair to him. It seems that the rumor is true. Edith's husband is really a loser."

"I'm afraid that people like him will never have a meal in this place in their lives. Leave him alone. Let's see what he'll do after he takes a pratfall." Daisy spoke after giving Casey a glance.

Casey approached the waiter and said, "Get a chair for me and put that near that table."

"Sir, our restaurant...You, you're Mr. Davies!" The waiter's eyes were immediately wide open.

The Davies family could be said to be a catering giant in B City. It was nearly a shareholder of all famous restaurants. Blue Dream Restaurant was no exception. Besides, Casey was very famous in B City. This waiter naturally knew him.

Casey just nodded at him and motioned for him to get a chair for him quietly. The waiter hurriedly nodded, after which he went to get a chair for Casey. Casey went back to Holden and Daisy's table. Both Holden and Daisy thought that the waiter had refused him. Holden said, "I've forgot to tell you one thing. This restaurant..."

Before he could finish his words, the waiter came close to Casey with a chair and said respectfully, "Mr. Davies, I've got a chair for you."

Casey nodded and sat down beside them.

Holden was embarrassed and bit what he had intended to say back.

"What did you just say?" Casey asked, staring at Holden.

"Nothing...nothing." Holden spoke.

"What the hell. This guy is so lucky that he runs into a waiter with such a good temper. If he had run into other waiters, he would have long been driven out."

Daisy muttered.

Holden coughed gently and no longer thought about this matter. Instead, he stared at Casey and asked, "Do you settle down in B City now? Are both of you working in B City?"

"Not really. We've got something to do in B City, so we came here. Later, Edith was about to give birth to our child. So we didn't go home. Not long ago, Edith gave birth to a child. I wanted to take good care of her, so I didn't work in these days." Casey answered.

Holden nodded thoughtfully. In his opinion, Casey didn't have the ability to settle down in B City at all. The houses here were prohibitively expensive.

Besides, it was difficult to go through the formalities related to settle down here. It was very difficult for ordinary people to settle down in B City.

"Well, it's indeed difficult to settle down in B City." Holden said.

"Edith told me that you've just returned from abroad." Casey spoke.

When it came to this topic, both Holden and Daisy held their heads high with a hint of pride on their faces, as if having lived abroad was something very worthy of showing off.

"Holden returns to H Country for work. He'll be the general manager of Excellence Network and accumulate work experience there. A few years later, he'll go to M Country and marry me. Then, he'll become a citizen of M Country and will never return to H Country." Daisy spoke.

"Oh? Isn't it good to stay here? Why do you want to go to M Country?" Casey asked. In Casey's view, the economy of H Country was no worse than that of other countries. He also believed that the people of H Country should stay in H Country and make contributions to the motherland.

Daisy immediately twitched her lips, put on a look of disdain and said, "Let me put it in this way. Since I'm here, when I breathe, I feel uncomfortable. The air in foreign country is fresher. Besides, people there are much nicer than the people of H Country. If it wasn't that I wanted Holden to have more work experience, I would never be here." Hearing that, Casey took a sense of dislike. He didn't expect Daisy to be someone who had a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things.

"Daisy's right. You've never been abroad, so you know nothing about foreign countries. H Country is really not as good as foreign countries. You should try hard...Forget it. It's no use to talk to you about it." Holden spoke with obvious disdain.

Casey laughed. He certainly knew foreign countries well. However, even though he was in this position, he still thought that H Country was the best. He couldn't figure out what those, who had a servile attitude to foreign countries, were thinking.

"The family members of Daisy set up Excellence Network in H Country. I know that it's hard for you to find a job. If you want to work as a security guard or a cleaner in Excellence Network, you can tell me. The salary won't be low. I can help you to get this job easily."

Holden said with a proud expression.

Casey twitched his lips. He found that these two people just came to him to show off and that they weren't in need of help at all. Daisy's family members had the ability to set up a company in B City. How was it possible that they could not find a place to live in?

After some thought, Casey decided that he wouldn't let Edith lose face.

Obviously, her male classmate wanted to show off to Edith because he thought that he had made some achievements.

Now, Edith didn't come to meet him. He, as her husband, shouldn't let Edith lose face.

So he raised his head and said with a smile, "If I remember correctly, Excellence Network is trying to get the chance to cooperate with Fantasy Group, an internet giant in H Country. If you have any difficulties, you can come to me. I can help you."

Fantasy Group was exactly founded by the Davies family. Now, the internet industry developed very well. How was it possible that the Davies family didn't set up a company in this industry?

Before, when they chatted, Charles occasionally mentioned Excellence Network to Casey.

Now, Charles was the head of the companies of the Davies family in the Internet industry.

If foreign countries were really so good, it would be impossible that Excellence Network was so eager to cooperate with Fantasy Group. If necessary, Casey wouldn't mind teaching Holden and Daisy a good lesson.

Chapter 669 They Don't Deserve That "Can you stop joking? Excellence Network does want to cooperate with Fantasy Group. However, it's something involving two multinational companies. Who do you think you are? You should offer to help me." Daisy spoke to Casey with disdain.

"Well, I have some decision rights in Fantasy Group." Casey said.

Daisy stared at Casey with dislike and spoke, "Holden, ask this guy to go away now. I can't stand him anymore. Why would there be such a shameless people in the world? Fantasy Group is an internet giant in H Country. What decision rights you, a manny, could have? When you want to pretend to be powerful, you should find a better way." Holden also looked at Casey with some dissatisfaction and said, "Even if we're chatting, you shouldn't boast. I understand that you like to brag when you drink with those migrant workers. However, you shouldn't do that in the presence of us. We're not in the same social scale as you, and we don't like you to brag."

Casey gave him a glance and said, "Why? Do you look down upon migrant worker?"

"He, he. Those people all do dirty and low-paid jobs. They're even not eligible to be looked down upon by me." Daisy answered.

Casey's face was immediately dark. He had kindly offered to help Excellence Network. Unexpectedly, Holden and Daisy not only didn't believe him, but also humiliated the migrant workers. He couldn't bear it anymore.

"Who do you think you are? You even don't give people the most basic respect. However much wealth you have, you're but a person without any courtesy who suddenly become rich."

Casey answered in a not-so-polite way. Both Holden's and Daisy's expression changed. They didn't expect that Casey would dare to say such words to them. In their view, Casey was but a loser.

Even if they humiliated him, he was not eligible to be rude to them.

"How dare you say those words to me! You, as a loser, should dare to say those words! Don't you want to live?"

Daisy stood up, pointed her finger at Casey and swore.

All the people in the restaurant turned their heads and looked at them. Feeling a little embarrassed, Holden hurriedly pulled Daisy and spoke, "Calm down. There're so many people here. They will laugh at us."

Only then did Daisy sit down, but she still glared at Casey angrily.

Holden looked at Casey with a dark face and said, "Casey, apologize to Daisy now. We'll forgive you for the sake of Edith. You had better be clever and don't make things worse. You'll only suffer for offending us."

"I kindly offered to help you, but she made vicious remarks to me. She even humiliated the laborers. Why should I apologize to her?" Casey spoke coldly. "Well, stop. What can you do to help me? Everyone knows your experience. So stop pretending to be powerful. Hurriedly apologize to Daisy." Holden said with some impatience.

Casey stood up, put a room card and a note with an address on it on the table, and coldly said, "I'll forgive you for what you've said today for the sake of Edith. This is the room I book for you. Go to the hotel on your own. If you said something like that again, I would make you pay a price."

After saying that, Casey turned around and left the restaurant.

"How dare you look down upon me? Who wants to live in the room you booked? That might be a place where beggars live. If you're courageous, stay here. It pisses me off!" Daisy shouted at Casey.

Holden stopped Daisy and then comforted her, "Well, that guy must be afraid. That's why he ran away. It's ridiculous. He should consider himself to be someone. Don't take what such a person said seriously."

"I know that there isn't anything good in H Country. Now, do you believe me? People here are too rude. Besides, they all consider themselves to be someone. No. After you take over Excellence Network, I'll go back to M Country. I feel better to be with the people there."

Daisy said angrily.

"Well, I agree. Later, I'll talk to Edith about this matter and will definitely make that loser apologize to you. What about having our meal first?" Holden coaxed.

Daisy sneered. Then, she stopped losing her temper.

People around stared at Daisy and Holden, feeling unhappy. Obviously, what Daisy said just now also angered them. However, they just watched because they didn't want to be in trouble.

Outside the restaurant, Casey approached a Rolls-Royce. Many people were gathering around this car and were staring at this luxury car with an envious look.

When Casey just came close to the car, someone immediately got off the car and opened the door for Casey.

After Casey sat down in the car, that person sat in the driver's seat and asked, "Mr. Davies, didn't you ask me to pick someone up?"

"You don't have to do that now. They don't deserve that." Casey said tonelessly.

The driver immediately knew what Casey meant. Then, he started the car at once and drove away. People all looked at the car with an envious look. Casey specially made a phone call and asked someone to drive this Rolls-Royce to this place on his way to this restaurant by taxi. When he left the Davies House, he thought that it was unnecessary to drive because he thought it was quite convenient to go to the restaurant by taxi. However, considering that he shouldn't let Edith lose face, he asked someone to drive this car to this place.

Unexpectedly, the reason why Holden and Daisy asked him to come here was that they wanted to show off to him. Moreover, they had such a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things and looked down upon others. Therefore, it was not necessary for Casey to be nice to them. Certainly, Casey wouldn't ask this driver to send them to hotel.

Casey only gave them the room card for the sake of Edith.

After having the meal, Holden and Daisy came out of the restaurant. Holden was holding the room card Casey gave them. He took a look at the note on which the address was written, asking, "What about going to the hotel Casey booked to have a look?"

"It's unnecessary to do that. It's impossible for him to book a room in a good hotel. Maybe it's a pigsty." Daisy was not happy.

"If it's really very cheap, I'll take a few photos and post it on the internet. If it's ok, we can live there. Anyway, we don't have to pay for it. Besides, this hotel is not far away from us. It takes only a short time for us to go there." Holden spoke.

Hearing that, Daisy thought that he was right. So she nodded. Then, they walked towards the hotel.

Before long, Holden and Daisy arrived at a five-star hotel.

They stared at the magnificent hotel in disbelief. Wondering if they had gone to the wrong place, Holden carefully checked the address on the note several times.

"Are you sure that he booked a room in this hotel for us?" Daisy asked.

"According to the note, we're in front of the hotel Casey booked for us. This hotel is indeed located at No. 189, Changsheng Road. Look at that address plate." Holden was also puzzled.

"It's not reliable. Is it possible that that loser is willing to book a room in such a good hotel for us? Is this card a real one?" Daisy said with doubt.

"We'll know it after we go to ask that person. If it's a fake one, I'll definitely scold Edith. She's so stupid that she's married to such a man." Holden walked towards the hotel while speaking.

They arrived at the door, handed the room card over and asked, "Is this a room card of your hotel?"

That person took the room card, gave it a look and then said respectfully, "Yes, it's a room card of a presidential suite of our hotel. Welcome."

"What? A presidential suite!"

Holden and Daisy looked at each other. They were all shocked.

Chapter 670 Internet Conference

After returning home, Casey came to Edith's room. Edith was staring at Sherry, a plump baby, with a loving smile.

Seeing that Casey was back, Edith was a little surprised and asked, "Why do you come back so soon? You've arranged everything for Holden?"

Casey helplessly shrugged and said, "I'm afraid that the reason why he got into contact with you was not that he wanted to get some help from you. He just wanted to show off the achievements he had made."

Edith was stunned and asked, "Why do you mean?"

Casey told Edith what had happened in Blue Dream Restaurant. Hearing that, Edith was puzzled. She spoke, "He shouldn't be that kind of person. When Holden was college, he was very willing to help others. How this happened? Could it be that there was some misunderstanding between you and him?"

Casey thought for a moment and asked, "What did he do to help you in college?"

Edith thought for a while and told Casey what Holden had done to help her. She said that Holden was really a very nice person at that time. Whenever she turned to him for help, he had never refused her and always helped her.

Hearing that, Casey immediately laughed and said, "Although I'm slow in this respect, I know men well. No one would be so nice to someone for no reason. If I'm not wrong, when you were in college, he liked you. However, you just considered him to be a nice person. In his opinion, it meant that you looked down upon him. Therefore, after he returned from abroad, he wanted to show off to you."

Hearing that, Edith sighed helplessly. It was beyond her expectation that Holden, who she had considered to be a very nice person, would be such a person. She found it a little hard to accept. "Perhaps there is some misunderstanding and you've thought too much." Edith said.

After a while, she received a text message from Holden.

"Edith, give up the idea that I'll forgive your treating me in an arrogant way in the past just because you asked your useless husband to book a presidential suite for us. Now, I'm someone who have studied abroad and will soon work in a big company. I'm no longer what I used to be. However, for me, you've become a middle-aged woman. I won't be nice to you anymore."

"I advise you to hurriedly ask Casey, the loser, to come to apologize to us. Otherwise, I'll definitely take some action and you'll absolutely regret it."

Edith handed her mobile phone to Casey and spoke, "Well, you're right."

Casey read the text message from Holden, putting on a cold smile. He thought: Holden and his girlfriend might send this message in the presidential suite I booked.

He had never seen such a shameless person. He not only had a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things, but also should threaten Edith and him. Having received such a threat, Casey certainly couldn't pretend not to have seen it.

At the very least, Fantasy Group would absolutely not cooperate with a company that looked down upon H Country.

"Don't think about this matter. I'll handle it." Casey said.

Edith nodded. After giving birth to her daughter, she cared only about her daughter and therefore was not in the mood to think about such a boring thing. She had long not cared about her old classmates' opinion of her. Besides, it was not the first time for her to be in such a trouble. She was sure that Casey would handle it for her.

Casey took out his mobile phone and made a phone call to Charles, "Is Excellence Network going to have a new general manager named Holden?"

"Yes. These days, they have been seeking cooperation with us. Later, their new general manager will discuss their ideas for development with us. A few days later, there will be an Internet Conference, and I'm going to talk to their new general manager at that conference. I'll decide whether to cooperate with them or not after that."

"Don't think about that anymore. In the future, refuse all the cooperation related to Excellence Network. Besides, I'm going to attend the Internet Conference. Make some arrangements for me."

Casey said.

"Yes, Brother Casey."

...

On the day when the Internet Conference was held

Holden and Daisy left the hotel. Both of them were dressed in formal clothes. It seemed that they attached great importance to the Internet Conference.

"How many days does Casey book this presidential suite for? We've live here for so many days, but no one asks us to check out. It costs at least a few thousand dollars to live in that room a day. Could Casey, a loser, really afford it?" Holden murmured.

"Oh, it has nothing to do with us. Anyway, we don't have to pay for it. Just think about how to build a good relationship with the people of Fantasy Group at the Internet Conference later. As long as you get the opportunity to cooperate with Fantasy Group, my father will definitely look at you with new eyes and will not have any opposition to my marrying you. At that time, it will be easier for you to become a citizen of M Country." Daisy spoke.

"Don't worry. I have the ability to easily persuade the people of Fantasy Group to cooperate with us. Just wait and see." Holden said with confidence.

The Internet Conference was held in a modern High Tech Convention and Exhibition Center in B City. Every company, which would participate in the conference, would be given a booth in the building to display products and ideas.

The main function of this conference was to promote cooperation among companies. At that time, the representatives of companies would gather here to communicate with each other.

In the Convention and Exhibition Center. After arriving here, Holden and Daisy didn't pay any attention to the booths of companies. Instead, they headed straight for the central area of the Convention and Exhibition Center. Now, the leaders of companies were at that area. They wanted to go to there to talk to the people of Fantasy Group over their cooperation.

There had been many people standing in the central area. Most of them were bigwigs of the Internet industry. Charles was certainly one of them. Moreover, he was at the center of the crowd. It could be easily seen that he was in a very high position.

After coming to this area, Holden put on a surprised look and said, "Wow, they're all bigwigs. Several of them have been internationally famous. Besides, companies of some of them are also well-known in foreign countries. It seems that the internet industry of H Country develops quite well."

Daisy glowered at him at once and said, "It's just quite well. It's far from as well as that in foreign countries. You're so ignorant."

Holden drew back his neck and dared not to say anything.

They approached the crowd. Holden warmly greeted Charles and joined them in the discussion.

Charles didn't know who these people were and would talk to anyone who came to him.

"Mr. Clinton, it's my honor to meet you here. A few days ago, I met a loser. He claimed that he knew the staff of Fantasy Group. When I remember it now, I find it ridiculous. The staff members of Fantasy Group are all elites. How is it possible for that kind of loser to make friends with them?"

Holden flattered Charles with a smile.

Charles gave him a glance, nodded with a smile and did not reply.

"Mr. Clinton, actually, I come here to talk to you about cooperation. Do you have some time?" Holden asked.

"Which company do you work for?"

Charles asked.

Holden immediately stretched out a hand to Charles and said, "I'm an employee of Excellence Network. I'm called Holden. Our company should have given you my profile."

Charles just said "oh" thoughtfully and didn't shake hands with Holden. He just stared at Holden with a smile and didn't say anything.

Holden didn't know whether he should withdrew his hand or not, feeling embarrassed. He immediately blushed.

"Mr. Clinton, our cooperation..." Holden withdrew his hand and rubbed it against his clothes awkwardly.

"I can't make the decision. Later, our Chairman will come here. Maybe you can talk to our Chairman." Charles put on a playful smile.

Chapter 671 This Is Our Chairman

In the corner, Holden and Daisy watched Charles talking with bigwigs with unhappy expressions. They thought that they had lost face just now because of the way Charles treated them.

Of course, as a matter of fact, no one had paid any attention to them.

"What does he mean? When you tried to shake hands with him, he should ignore you. Does he look down upon Excellence Network?" Daisy said with an angry expression.

"Maybe he's not in the habit of shaking hands with other people. Look. He basically doesn't shake hands with other people. Don't think too much." Holden comforted Daisy.

"Humph, a group of overweening guys. It's because my family just sets up a branch here. If it were in M Country, they wouldn't dare to treat us in that way. Fantasy Group is only a big company in H Country. If it were in M Country, it would only be said to be a small company." Daisy spoke with an unhappy face.

Holden hurriedly agreed. Actually, he thought: if your family was so powerful, why was your family so eager to cooperate with Fantasy Group?

Of course, it was impossible for him to tell Daisy what he was thinking. After all, he worked for Excellence Network in the future. He should just think about those things.

"I hope that the Chairman of Fantasy Group would be nicer to us later.

Otherwise, I would definitely not be polite to them, even at the expense of not being able to cooperate with them." Daisy said angrily.

Holden immediately tried to persuade her, "Don't be impulsive. You know how important it is to cooperate with Fantasy Group. If we can't cooperate with Fantasy Group, this branch will be worthless. Sometimes, when we do business, we have to be humble and subservient to others. You don't want your father to dislike me because of this issue, right?"

Hearing that, Daisy's spirit drooped. She did look down upon the companies in H Country. However, to cooperate with Fantasy Group was really very important. She couldn't give it up easily. "It's annoying. There is really not anything good in H Country. I must go back to M Country as soon as possible. The air there is fresher." Daisy helplessly said.

At the entrance of the Convention and Exhibition Center, Casey got off a taxi and walked towards the center.

At this moment, Holden and Daisy were visiting the booth of a company. When Holden looked around, he saw Casey who was walking into the hall.

"Why does this guy come here?" Holden murmured.

Following Holden's eyes, Daisy saw Casey. Then, her face became dark. Now, she was angry and wanted to find a chance to vent her anger. In her opinion, she could vent her anger on Casey.

"Holden, this guy didn't apologize to us. Let's go to swear at him. In this way, I can vent my anger." Daisy pulled Holden towards Casey.

Holden didn't take Casey seriously, either. In his view, only top talents like him were eligible to attend such a high-level Internet Conference. And Casey, a loser, was not qualified to come here.

They approached Casey, stopping him.

Daisy said unkindly, "Do you really consider yourself to be someone? You should dare to come to such a place.

Why? Do you come here to unblock the drain or to clean the toilet?"

Looking at Holden and Daisy who were blocking his way, Casey was not astonished. He said with a smile, "I come here to attend the Internet Conference. Make way for me, please. They're waiting for us."

"Casey, are you kidding me? People coming here are bigwigs of the internet industry. How is it possible that they will wait for you, a loser? Listen, you haven't got away with what you did that day. Apologize to Daisy and me now.

Otherwise, we won't let you go." Holden said threateningly.

Casey stared at them and spoke, "Why should I apologize to you two? You two have servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things. Besides, you insulted laborers. It's you two that should apologize."

"You're talking rubbish! We have servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things. So what? Foreign countries are a hundred times better than H Country. It's an indisputable fact. You even can't think of anything good in H Country. You claimed that we insulted laborers? Don't you know that the superiors should be treated differently from the inferiors? They can only do physical work, so they deserve to be looked down upon by me!" Daisy talked as if she was reasonable.

Hearing that, Casey didn't get angry. Instead, he smiled slightly. After that, he passed by them and continued on his way.

"Didn't you hear what I said? I demanded that you should apologize to us. Are you deaf?" Seeing that Casey go away, Holden shouted.

"Holden, catch him. He must apologize to me. Otherwise, I won't let him get away with it!" Daisy shouted with her eyes wide open.

They wanted to stop Casey, so they ran quickly towards Casey. However, however fast they ran, they couldn't keep up with Casey. Casey just walked leisurely, but he kept a long distance from Holden and Daisy.

"How can this guy walk so fast? Damn it. He's heading for the central area. If he angers the people of Fantasy Group, the cooperation between our company and Fantasy Group might be affected. He must have deliberately come here to make trouble for us." Holden cursed in a low voice.

Soon, Casey arrived at the central area. Holden's expression changed a lot. He hurriedly shouted at two security guards, "Stop him! That people comes here to make trouble!"

The two security guards were startled. They hurriedly looked at Casey and were about to stop Casey.

Right at this moment, Charles walked towards Casey and greeted him with a smile.

Seeing that, the two security guards stopped at once.

That was a bigwig of Fantasy Group. He came to greet that people in person, so it was impossible that that people was someone who came to make trouble. In this case, they had better just stand there.

Holden and Daisy also didn't anticipate that Charles would come to greet Casey in person. They were immediately dumbfounded.

Seeing Casey, the bigwigs of the internet industry were all surprised. The rumor that Casey had been dead was widely spread in B City. Now, Casey should come to this place. This immediately convinced them that the rumor was false.

Moreover, when the Graham family and the Sharp family were destroyed overnight, they had heard some news. Now, it was highly likely that the Graham family and the Sharp family were destroyed by Casey.

Casey didn't mind others knowing that he was still alive. It would take a long time for people of the Turner family to know it.

Besides, Casey had decided that he would go to M Country in person and put an end to the story between himself and Theodore as well as the Turner family soon.

The people present all approached Casey and greeted him respectfully. Casey nodded at everyone. Among the crowd, the clothes he wore were the cheapest, but he had the strongest air of forcefulness.

Holden and Daisy were dumbfounded again. It never occurred to them that these bigwigs would greet Casey one by one. Being treated by them in that way, how high a position Casey would be in? They approached the crowd. Still not believing that Casey was someone in a high position, Holden spoke to Charles, "Mr. Clinton, this people..."

Charles gave Holden a glance and said with a smile, "You've just come at the right moment. Don't you want to talk to our Chairman about cooperation? This is our Chairman. If you have anything, talk to him."

After saying that, Charles even pointed to Casey.

Both Holden and Daisy were instantly froze. They just stood still.

Chapter 672 You Think too Highly of Yourself

"Chair...Chairman? Isn't this guy a well-known loser? Why does he become the Chairman of Fantasy Group?" Holden spoke to himself in a low voice. He was very confused.

Daisy was startled. After a long time, she said, "There must be a mistake. How is it possible that this guy is the Chairman of Fantasy Group? Holden, didn't you tell me that he's a loser?"

"I don't know, either. In the past few years, I have been abroad. How is it possible for me to know the current situation? Besides, I did remember that Edith was married to a loser before I went abroad. Could it be that she married to someone else in the past few years?" Holden wore a puzzled expression.

At this moment, Casey looked at them and spoke to Holden with a smile, "Do you want to cooperate with our company?"

Holden was embarrassed. Not knowing how to deal with the current situation, Holden could only manage to smile and said, "Casey...Casey, unexpectedly, you're the Chairman of Fantasy Group. What a coincidence. Our company, Excellence Network, happens to want to cooperate with your company. Considering that we're friends, let's talk about it."

"Friends? You think too highly of yourself. Could it be that you two forgot what you spoke to me just now so soon?" Casey said with a sneer.

There was already sweat on Holden's forehead. At this moment, the bigwigs of internet industry of H Country were staring at him. If he failed to deal with this matter well, it would be very difficult for Excellence Network to develop in H Country in the future.

"As a matter of fact, it's just a misunderstanding. When I was in college, I got along well with Edith. Now, she's your wife. I'm happy for her. I'll specially find time to apologize to you for previous misunderstanding. Don't talk about that here." Holden tried hard to figure out a way to remove the embarrassment.

Casey twitched his lips. After that, he spoke seriously, "Now, I, as the Chairman of Fantasy Group, inform you that Fantasy Group won't cooperate with a company that has a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things and insults laborers. So, don't waste your time."

Holden's face instantly became dark. He had realized that Casey wouldn't be nice to him.

Hearing that, Daisy immediately got angry. This guy was not polite to them.

Besides, he even claimed that Excellence Network was a company that had a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things and insulted laborers.

In her previous plan, if their company couldn't cooperate with Fantasy Group, they could cooperate with another company. It was just not as good as cooperating with Fantasy Group.

However, Casey's making those remarks about their company in the presence of so many people would make it impossible for her to cooperate with any other companies.

She, who had a bad temper, instantly glowered at Casey and asked, "Casey, why did you slander our company? Even if you're the Chairman of Fantasy Group, you shouldn't frame our company like that. Don't let personal matters affect work, please!"

Hearing that, Casey immediately smiled, saying, "Are you sure that I'm slandering you? Could it be that you forgot what you just said so soon?"

"I'm certainly sure that you're slandering me. When did I say those words? You just deliberately framed us with your identity!" In Daisy's opinion, it was impossible for people here to know what she had said, so Casey wouldn't be able to do anything with her as long as she insisted that Casey was slandering her. Casey stared at Daisy and asked, "Well, then can you tell me your position in Excellence Network?"

"Excellence Network is founded by my father. In the future, it'll belong to me."

Daisy said with a proud expression.

"So it means that you can represent Excellence Network, right?" Casey went on asking.

"Yes, I certainly can. Why do you ask this question?" Daisy was a little puzzled.

Casey didn't ask her another question. Instead, he took out a recording pen from his pocket and showed it to Daisy and Holden.

Then, he turned the recording pen to its maximum volume and then played it in the presence of all the people.

"You're talking rubbish! We have a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things. So what..." Everyone heard Daisy's angry voice.

Hearing that, Both Daisy's and Holden's eyes were immediately wide open. They hadn't anticipated that Casey should record what they said.

Daisy tried to rob Casey of the recording pen at once. Casey dodged her hand by merely raising his hand.

"Give it to me now! Stop it!" Daisy was furious. She was so anxious that she moved her hands crazily.

"Now, dare you repeat what you said before?" Casey asked while staring at her.

"What did I say? Give it to me now! You're slandering me! I'm going to sue you for slander! You've faked it!" Daisy had already been out of her mind. Now, she had become a shrew.

Seeing that, the security guards, who were not far away from here, hurriedly came over and stopped Daisy.

The bigwigs of the internet industry all stared at Daisy and Holden with a hint of disdain in their eyes.

"I didn't expect Excellence Network to be such a company. It has a servile attitude to foreigners and foreign things. Besides, it even insults laborers. If it wasn't for those laborers, you even won't have a house. How dare you to look so superior?"

"If I remember correctly, Excellence Network should be a foreign-funded company. If you look down upon H Country, why do you set up a company here? I suggest that you should go back as soon as possible!"

"Such a company would be a cancer in H Country. When we choose a company to cooperate with in the future, we must be careful. We must not be affected by such a company."

Hearing the remarks these bigwigs of the internet industry made on Excellence Network, Holden wore a despairing expression. Now, they really had no way out. These bigwigs were unwilling to cooperate with them. And the small companies would certainly be more afraid of cooperating with them. When Daisy heard those words, there was malicious expression in her eyes. After a long time, she shouted at all the people, "You're all stupid! I'll never come to this fucking place again! You're idiots. It's impossible for your companies to develop well in the rest of your lives!"

"They're making trouble. Drive them out now. In the future, don't let Excellence Network attend any meetings. It's but a foreign-funded company, but they should consider themselves to be someone." Charles said coldly.

Two security guards drove Holden and Daisy out at once without any hesitation. Outside the Convention and Exhibition Center, Holden stamped his foot hysterically and scratched his head with great strength while looking at the security guards who were stopping them.

"It's over. It's all over!"

Chapter 673 Dine and Dash

The Davies, in Edith's room.

Edith looked at Casey and asked worriedly, "Are you really going to M Country to take revenge on the Turner family?"

Casey smiled and touched Edith's face, and said, "This matter can only be solved by me personally, and if this hidden danger is not solved in one day, I will not be at ease in one day. I must consider the safety of you and our daughter."

Edith sighed helplessly, knowing that no one could change Casey's decision. And the Turner family was indeed Casey's biggest enemy right now. If the Turner family was not eliminated, they would indeed live with fear every day. Seeing Edith's worry, Casey smiled and said, "You can rest assured. You don't need to worry about the affairs of the Davies family anymore. I have found someone who is professional enough to take care of the Davies family. When you see him later, you will be completely relieved."

Edith was a little confused and asked, "Who?"

Casey didn't hide it either. He smiled and said, "Your biological father, Darius Sue."

Edith's eyes widened, and she didn't expect Casey to find the head of the Sue family.

However, if Darius came to help take care of the Davies family, then she could really feel relieved.

Although the Sue family was only a first-class family in H City, it had grown to the level of the world's top family. In addition, the last time he helped Casey get rift of the Nelson family and regained control of the Sue family from Old Lady Sue. Today, Darius had become the leader in H City.

The Sue family was also under the leadership of Darius, and had secured its position as the world's top family. In terms of business, the Sue family was already in the same ranks as the Turner family.

With the help of the head of a large family, unless the Turner family came to trouble, no one could shake the position of the Davies family.

Of course, Darius agreed to come and help, also because he learned that Edith had given birth to a daughter. As a grandfather, he naturally wanted to take a look at the baby.

"As for your safety, you don't have to worry about it. Even if I leave, there will be experts who are strong enough to guard you in secret. As for who it is, you will know when it comes," Casey continued speaking.

Edith nodded, and then asked, "When are you going to leave? Will you disappear as soon as I wake up tomorrow morning?"

Casey laughed dumbly and said, "You make me feel like we are a couple who have angered God, and can only meet once every once in a while, and then after meeting, I will leave you secretly without any other means."

"Oh, don't kid. I am talking something serious." Edith glanced at Casey angrily.

Casey made a grimace at Edith and said, "Don't worry, I will tell you before I leave. Now that the experts I've found to protect you and our daughter hasn't arrived, I won't leave before that."

Edith breathed a sigh of relief, then lay down on the bed and played with Sherry's chubby little hands.

At the airport of B City.

Darius walked out of the airport, followed by a group of people. All of them were serving for Darius' trip.

"Lord Darius, do you want to tell the Davies family now and let them send someone to pick us up?" a man asked.

Darius smiled and shook his head, and said, "Don't notify them for now. I haven't been to B City for many years. I'll go around here for the time being, and then go to the Davies family."

"You go to find a restaurant. Everyone is hungry after a long trip. Let's have a meal first."

"Yes!" the man said immediately.

"By the way, don't choose a luxury restaurant, just find an ordinary one. Food in those luxury restaurants here doesn't taste very good. It's better to find an ordinary restaurant in which the food is a lot more delicious," Darius said again.

The man nodded and said, "I understand, I will look for it now." Darius smiled and glanced at the sky in B City, and then muttered, "The sky of B City is really not as blue as it was at that time. I have to discuss with Casey and let him take my little granddaughter to live in a place with blue sky and white clouds. We can't let her suck the smog since she is a child."

At the same time, at the entrance of a restaurant near the airport of B City. Amara walked here in despair, looked at the dishes on the sign outside, swallowed hard.

She had been wandering in B City alone for many days, and the money she carries had already been run out of. Because of her gluttony, she spent the travel expenses she left behind a few days ago. Now, she had only five dollars.

It was naturally impossible to have a good meal with five dollars, but Amara had already been starving for two days, and she was too hungry. At this time, she was losing her marbles.

A decision was made in her mind, Amara walked straight into the restaurant, and when she reached the hall, she sat directly at a table, and immediately a waiter came and gave her the menu.

Amara looked at the dishes on the menu and felt she wanted to eat all of them, so she ordered ten dishes in one go, which caught the surprised look of the waiter. It didn't take long for the waiter to bring up all the dishes Amara ordered, and she immediately started to eat like a person who hadn't eaten for a few days. In less than half an hour, Amara ate all the dishes on the table, and then hiccupped with satisfaction.

At this time, the waiter came over here, with two burly men behind him, and said to Amara, "Please check the bill."

At that time, the waiter had noticed that Amara was strange, so he called two people specifically to prevent Amara from not paying.

Amara stared at the three of them, feeling nervous, and reached out to get money from her clothes. For a long time, she only took out a crumpled five-dollar note and placed it on the table.

The waiter stared at the five dollars and said, "Lady, don't be kidding me, please take out the rest of the money."

"I... I only have it," Amara said.

The waiter responded with anger immediately, stared at Amara coldly, and asked, "What, do you want to have a dine and dash?"

Amara rolled her eyes quickly and said, "I am Casey's mother-in-law. Do you know Casey? He is the head of the Davies family. Go to him and ask for money, and he will definitely pay it to you."

"Are you a fucking fool us? If you are really the mother-in-law of the head of the Davies family, would you still try to have Dine and dash here? Hurry up and pay, otherwise don't blame us for being impolite!" the waiter shouted.

The two burly men immediately put their hands on Amara's shoulders, as if they would beat her at any time.

"What I said is true, I am Casey's mother-in-law, believe me!" Amara hurriedly shouted.

At this moment, a man came to Amara, stared at her thoughtfully, and asked, "Are you really Casey's mother-in-law?" Amara glanced at the man, nodded quickly, and said, "Yes, I swear to God that I didn't tell a lie!"

The man immediately showed a joking smile and said, "I can pay for you, but you have to come with me. I have something to look for you."

Amara agreed without even thinking about it. No matter what, as she didn't have to pay for her own meals, she thought that she won.

And she didn't know that the man who promised to help her check out was Wheeler Graham's son, Dillion Graham, who threatened to find Casey to avenge his father.

Chapter 674 Unfortunately for Amara

In a private room of the restaurant.

Dillion and the rest of the Graham family and Sharp family were all sitting here, and Amara stood in front of a group of people, feeling a little nervous.

"Sirs, what do you want to do? I'm so old. It's not a good idea to let me play with you. As for the robbing of money, that guy saw it just now. I only have five dollars in total and the waiter took it away. I'm just a poor old woman. It's useless for you to keep me, or you should let me go," Amara said to the group of people in front of her.

A group of people showed sneers on their faces, and it was obvious that they didn't mean to let Amara leave.

"You...you shouldn't be human traffickers, right!" Amara's eyes suddenly widened, thinking of a possibility. She used to read the news and someone would abduct people and then cut off organs for sale.

As soon as she thought of this, she broke out in a cold sweat, regretting that she shouldn't have agreed to go into the private room with a stranger just for a meal.

With a sneer on Dillion's face, he looked at Amara a little sullenly. When most people saw him, they would indeed think that this person was a little scary.

He stared at Amara and asked coldly, "Are you sure you are Casey's mother?in-law?"

Amara's eyes brightened up and she quickly said, "Yes, I am Casey's mother?in-law. If you don't believe me, you can take me to the Davies family. If you take me there, matter what you want from Casey, he will give it to you."

Now, she could only take Casey as her lifesaver, and now she only hoped that these people could be a little afraid of Casey, otherwise, she might encounter something terrible today.

Dillion did not continue to ask Amara.

Instead, he turned his head and asked the person next to him who was checking things with his phone, "Is it found, Casey's mother-in-law, is this the person?"

The man continued to stare at the phone for a while, then stood up and said, "I found it, Casey's mother-in-law is named Amara, and there are photos on the Internet, which are indeed very similar to this woman."

Dillion took the person's phone, took a look, and compared it with Amara, and found that it was indeed the person in front of him.

"It seems to be true. I didn't expect Casey to be so ruthless to his mother-in-law. He is really a beast," Dillion said.

Seeing everyone confirming her identity, Amara quickly explained, "In fact, Casey was very good to me. I wasted my money. Casey was very good to me. If he knew how I am now, he would definitely send me money directly." She said this to let these people know that her relationship with Casey was not bad, so that she could get rid of this trouble through Casey's influence in B City.

"Are you sure?" Dillion asked again. Amara nodded quickly, feeling that she had seen the dawn of hope. After these people determined that she was Casey's mother-in-law, they would definitely not continue to embarrass her.

However, at this moment, Dillion directly slapped Amara's face.

"Fuck, I just want to hit someone who has a relationship with Casey. Since you are Casey's mother-in-law, we can't let you go!"

Amara was stunned at once. In her opinion, after these people know her identity, shouldn't they rush to apologize to her? How could they just beat her?

"Why... why? Aren't you afraid to offend Casey?" Amara asked.

"Offend him? It's because of him that my family is ruined. I don't want my fucking life, do you think I will be afraid to offend him a Casey? I hate everyone who has a relationship with Casey. Today, you are unlucky, we will just take you out!"

Dillion shouted excitedly.

Everyone in the private room was aroused by Dillion, and all of them were full of indignation.

"That's right, if it weren't for Casey, how could the Graham family and Sharp family fall to this point? We can't beat Casey, but we can beat Casey's mother-in-law? Guys, go together, take it out on the old woman!"

After shouting, a man kicked Amara directly.

The rest of the people couldn't bear their emotions, and they stepped forward to beat Amara severely.

Amara was unfortunate. She never thought that she would run into Casey's enemy. If she had known this, she would definitely not use Casey as a shield.

"Damn! Casey is really a jinx and he can't bring me good luck. He is a bastard. I am beaten because of him. I must find a chance to avenge!" Amara yelled viciously in her heart.

Dillion and a group of people slapped Amara's body mercilessly, venting their anger, and now they could only find Amara to vent their anger with their strength.

They did plan to steal Casey's daughter and threaten Casey before. However, it was difficult for them, a group of wimps, to steal Casey's children from the Davies House, so their plan could only be stranded.

"You guys stop. Actually, I and Casey have already broken up. He doesn't even let me in at the gate of the Davies family. I hate that nasty guy like you do. Please stop quickly. If this goes on, I will be killed by you!" Amara pleaded.

"You're fucking here to fool us. That's not what you just said. Today, you cannot run anyway!" Dillion said coldly. At this time, how could he believe in Amara again?

In the lobby outside the private room, Darius and his party had already sat down at a table here.

Looking at the old decoration of this restaurant, Darius smiled and said, "Sometimes, the dishes made in such a place are delicious."

Others nodded.

At this moment, they all heard curses coming from inside the private room, many of them cursing Casey. Darius frowned immediately after hearing it.

"What's going on there? Why do I hear someone scolding Casey there?" Darius said.

"Lord Darius, I'm going to take a look." A tall man stood up immediately. This person was Darius' personal bodyguard for this trip. He was strong and was not comparable to ordinary masters.

After the man entered the private room for a while, several screams came out, and then the man walked out with Amara.

"Lord Darius, a group of people inside are beating this woman. I asked one of them. They are the remnants of the Davies family's former opponents, and this one is Mr. Casey's mother-in-law." the person replied.

Expression on Darius's face changed. Casey's mother-in-law, wasn't it Edith's adoptive mother, why was she beaten like this?

Although he didn't know much about Edith's adoptive parents, he could never treat Edith's adoptive parents wrongly just by they raised Edith.

"Are you really Casey's mother-in-law?" Darius asked seriously.

Amara was already scared of being beaten, and when she heard someone ask her this question again, she trembled with fright, and then quickly said,

"No, no, they admitted the wrong person, how could I be Casey's mother-in-law, please forgive me, I don't know Casey at all, in fact, I am impersonating, just to cheat for a meal."

Chapter 675 She Is Amara

Hearing Amara's words, Darius' look immediately darkened.

Originally, he thought that if this woman was really Casey's mother-in-law, as Edith's biological father, he couldn't just stand idly and let Amara be bullied. No matter what, he would get even for her. But the woman in front of him said that she was an impersonator, so Darius naturally didn't need to help her.

Moreover, she dared to pretend to be Edith's adoptive mother and swindle. As Edith's biological father, Darius had to punish such her severely.

Because he owed Edith a lot, he had always been very grateful to Edith's adoptive parents, so seeing someone posing as Edith's adoptive mother, he naturally had to give this person a serious lesson.

"Are you really impersonating?" Darius stared at Amara and asked.

Amara was already scared of being beaten by Dillion and his friends. How could she dare to say that she was Casey's mother-in-law now? She afraid she would die if she got a beaten again. So, she shook her head quickly and said, "Really, I'm an impersonator. How can I be Casey's mother-in-law? The grudges between you and him really have nothing to do with me. Please let me go."

Darius immediately snorted and said, "Let you go? Dare you pretend to be Casey's mother-in-law. Is this kind of identity you can casually impersonate? Come, slaps her ten times first. How dare she!"

Amara was dumbfounded immediately, why was this different from what she thought? Why did she say that she was impersonating, these people also wanted to beat her?

However, before she had time to explain, a person had already walked up to her and unceremoniously began to slap her.

One clear slap after another sounded in the middle of the restaurant hall, the owner and waiters of the restaurant were looking on passively and they did not dare to provoke these people who seemed to be powerful.

"Stop..." Amara was anxiously trying to explain that she was actually Casey's mother-in-law, but the man didn't give her this opportunity at all, slap after slap, and soon, Amara had been badly battered about the head and face. Finally, after ten slaps, Darius stared at Amara coldly and asked, "Dare you still pretend to be Casey's mother-in-law in the future?"

Amara wanted to cry, feeling the pain on her face, and said, "Actually, I am Casey's mother-in-law, just because of..."

Before she could finish her words, Darius slapped the table angrily, and shouted, "She even doesn't repent, so slap her ten times again!"

"Yes!" The man immediately raised his hand again and pulled Amara's face fiercely.

At this time, Amara had the desire to die. If she could come back, even if she starved to death, she would definitely not come to this restaurant for dinner. After ten slaps, Amara's consciousness became blurred, her body swayed and fell directly to the ground.

Darius stared at Amara who fell on the ground and said, "Bring her and the people in the private room to the Davies House, and throw them on the mercy of Casey. This person who pretended to be Casey's mother-in-law should be punished. I have to talk to Casey and Edith about what happened here. Someone dared to pretend to be her casually. I can't bear it!

The Davies House.

Casey was taking care of Edith and Sherry in the room. At this time, Jordan walked in and said, "Casey, the Sue family has arrived, and they are carrying the remnants of the Graham family and the Sharp family. They are now in the living room. Go over and take a look." "Oh?" Casey was a little surprised. He didn't expect Darius to bring the remnants of the Graham family and the Sharp family. He didn't know what happened.

He told Edith to take a good rest, and then followed Jordan towards the living room.

In the living room, Casey greeted Darius, and then saw Dillion and a group of people kneeling on the ground, and asked with some confusion, "What's the matter with them?"

Darius explained to Casey what he had encountered in the restaurant. At that time, after listening to Jordan's explanation, he realized that these people were the remnants of the Graham family and the Sharp family, and he happened to help Casey get rid of some trouble. .

Casey glanced at Dillion and the others, and finally saw Amara whose entire face was swollen, with a trace of doubt on her face. He felt that this person seemed to be familiar.

He walked up to Amara and asked, "What does this person do? How could she be badly battered?"

Darius laughed and said, "This person is a liar who pretends to be your mother-in-law and wants to swindle. I have someone teach her a little bit. By the way, where is your mother-in-law? Hurry up and call her out. I also have to thank her for raising Edith these years."

Casey stared suspiciously at the Amara in front of him, and then suddenly his eyes widened, and he recognized that the person in front of him was Amara. Her clothes were exactly the same as when she came here last time.

"Casey, don't stare at this liar, go and call your mother-in-law." Darius urged.

Casey turned his head and glanced at Darius, pointing to Amara a little bit dumbfounded, and said, "It's her."

"What?" Darius was stunned. "Casey, don't make trouble, this person said that she is an impersonator, how could she be your mother-in-law?"

"I didn't make a fuss, it was her, it's just that I couldn't see her original appearance bow, but judging from the clothes, she was indeed my mother-in-law." Casey answered.

Darius' face was instantly covered with embarrassment, and he didn't expect that it was Casey's mother-in-law who had been beaten by him. What he did about this matter was really outrageous. Casey asked Darius what was going on. Darius told Casey everything carefully. Casey immediately guessed that Amara said she was an impersonator because she thought that Darius was also Casey's enemy.

Thinking that Amara was beaten twice by two waves of people, Casey couldn't help but want to laugh. He had no sympathy for Amara, but instead felt that it was God's punishment for her. Amara didn't even know how to save and spent the money, and wanted to have a dine and dash in his name, it should be a lesson for her.

Darius was very anxious. Just when he got here, he beat Edith's adoptive mother and beat her twice. It was extremely embarrassing. Even if he wanted to make amends, he didn't know how to do it.

Casey asked Darius not to worry too much. By the way, he told Darius what Amara had done. After listening to it, Darius nodded thoughtfully, didn't think he had to worry about beating Amara. Casey asked Jordan to deal with Dillion, and arranged a room for Amara by the way, so that she could heal her injuries first.

In the middle of the night, Amara calmed down, and her hysterical shouts came from the entire Davies House.

"Casey, I will never ever let you go!"

Chapter 676 I Don't Want to Bully You

Early the next morning, Amara stole a kitchen knife from the kitchen and wanted to fight against Casey, but was stopped by a group of thugs from the Davies family.

Although he knew all of Amara's deeds, Darius still felt that it was not easy for Amara to raise Edith, so he went to apologize to her.

Amara didn't accept it at all, making trouble in the Davies House with a kitchen knife, and finally Casey came forward and subdued Amara.

Now that Sherry was less than a month old, it was naturally impossible for Casey to put a time bomb like Amara at the Davies House. He asked Jordan to give Amara some money and let her return to J City by herself.

Amara disagreed, she had to go to Edith with a kitchen knife, and let Edith help her.

Casey couldn't help it. After bending the kitchen knife with inner force in front of Amara, Amara calmed down and left the Davies House obediently with the money. Before leaving, she cursed Casey. By the way, she stole the golden bell on the neck of the stone lion at the entrance of the Davies House.

Darius had known what Amara was like now, and couldn't help but sympathize with his daughter in his heart, and didn't know how she lived these years.

Casey told Edith about this matter only after Amara left. Edith was helpless after hearing it. For Amara, she had absolutely nothing to do.

Casey told her not to think about other things during this time, and just have a good rest at ease. Edith has no objection. Since her daughter was born, her only cared about her daughter.

In the next few days, with the help of Casey, Darius quickly took over the industry of the Davies family. This time he brought a professional team to help run the Davies family. As the owner of the world's top family, naturally, he couldn't lose face in front of Casey.

Casey didn't stand on ceremony, and arranges Charles and Jordan to come and study, and strive to make them reach the level of managing a world-class family.

This afternoon, in the courtyard of the Davies House, Casey was standing with Darius and his strongest bodyguard, Warren.

Darius stared at Casey and said, "In fact, you don't need to find another expert to protect Edith. With Warren, no one can get close and hurt Edith." Warren immediately showed his muscles to Casey, his face full of confidence.

Last time Casey went to H City, Warren was on a mission outside and was not with Darius. Until now, Darius still thought that if Warren was there, Casey would definitely not be able to take Edith away from him.

Casey smiled and said, "People I found were not ordinary people. Although your bodyguard is strong but he is a lot worse than them."

"Mr. Davies, don't look down on me. Although I am not the strongest in the world, but I am also in the top few. I heard from Lord Darius that you are very strong and always want to have a competition with you. Now we have a chance, can you enlighten me?" Warren looked eager.

After several days of observation, he felt that Casey could not win at all, so when he heard Casey say that he was not as good as the people Casey found, he was quite disdainful in his heart.

Casey smiled and shook his head, and said, "I won't fight you. By then, your lord should say that I am bullying you." When Warren heard Casey's words, his face suddenly showed a hint of uncomfortableness, and he said, "Mr. Davies, don't talk too much. Before we haven't had a real contest, how do you know who will win."

Casey didn't continue to speak. He didn't look down on Warren, but with his current strength, he could kill him easily. No matter how powerful Warren was, he was no match for an inner force expert. The difference between inner force and outer force was like a dragon and a little snake. The gap between the two was like a chasm, which could not be bridged at all.

Darius also felt that Casey's words were a bit bragging. He knew the strength of Warren the best. It was unknown that who was the better.

Soon, a person ran into the yard and said to Casey, "Lord, we have picked up the people you mentioned."

Casey nodded and said, "Bring them here."

The man agreed, turned and ran away, and within a short while, he brought two people to the yard.

These two masters specially invited by Casey were not others, but Baron and Dick.

After Dick saw Casey, his face was full of excitement, and he quickly ran to Casey and yelled, "Casey."

Baron also walked over and nodded to Casey.

Casey responded with a smile to the two people, and then introduced Darius and Warren.

In fact, Casey only invited Baron. Dick had signed up to follow him voluntarily.

Casey would not refuse one more person to protect Edith, so he agreed.

Warren stared at Baron and Dick, with a trace of contempt in his eyes, and said, "Mr. Davies, if they are the masters you have found, then it would be better to let me protect Mrs. Davies. They look so weak."

Darius nodded and said, "Yes, Casey, how do these two people look like strong masters, and this one looks like a child, probably he is only 20 years old, are you sure that they can protect Edith? "

When Dick heard the words of the two people, he was a little unhappy. He raised his head and said to them, "Who do you think is not strong? Would you like to try my fist?"

Warren sneered, and said, "Forget it, let this elder come over and compare with me, I will let you know what real strength is."

Dick turned his head and glanced at Baron, then smiled and said, "Forget it, if he does, you will have to spend the rest of your life in the hospital, so I will compare with you."

Warren snorted coldly and said, "Well, I'll go and beat the other one after knocking you out."

Casey looked at the tension on both sides, and didn't say anything. Since Darius and Warren didn't believe in the strength of Dick and Baron, it's more effective than any explanation to show their strength directly.

The two immediately used the yard as the arena and planned to fight.

Warren was full of confidence, thinking that his opponent was just a 20-year-old boy, he could win with one hand.

However, the facts did not develop in the direction he imagined...

Ten minutes later.

Warren was lying on the ground with a face full of disbelief. He supported, trying to get up from the ground, and finally lay down completely on the ground because of his detachment. Darius opened his mouth in shock, and for a long time, he said to himself, "How is this possible, this twenty-year-old boy, how can he be so powerful?!!!"

Chapter 677 Dick's Past

Dick stared at Darius with a smug look, and said, "Strength is not determined by age. I am the second most proud apprentice of my master. It would be too shameful if I can't even deal with you."

Casey was a little bit dumbfounded when he heard Dick's words. He didn't expect this guy to change himself into the second most proud. It seemed that he was really impressed by Casey.

"Second proud? Who is the first?"

Darius asked.

"Of course, it is Casey," Dick said without hesitation.

Darius glanced at Casey again, feeling more and more that Casey was unfathomable, that this twenty-year-old boy was already so good, he turned out to be their master's second most proud apprentice.

So how strong was Casey as their master's most proud apprentice?

Who was their master, and how could his apprentices be so strong?

"Let's stop standing outside, go in and talk." Casey smiled.

After that, a few people walked towards the living room. Poor Warren was carried back to the room. Casey knew that Dick would not kill him. He recovered after resting for at most ten days.

In the living room, everyone sat down, Darius still stared at Dick and Baron curiously, wondering how he could get two such powerful masters as bodyguards.

"Baron, I will leave B City in a while, and the safety of my wife, daughter and the Davies family will depend on you," Casey said.

Baron waved his hand and said, "You are welcome. Master said that I have been in the mountains all these years and I know little about the world. This time I come here to experience more."

"Casey, I'm afraid Baron, will have to come to protect you a few days later. He has to follow me to solve some minor problems," Dick suddenly said.

Casey was taken aback, and asked, "What's the trouble?"

"Well. At the beginning, I just learned from the master. At that time, Master took me to a county called Kinmon Country near B City to look for herbs. At that time, I just learned a little from master and feel I was strong enough, and I was... self-righteous."

"And you know, I was still so young, and I couldn't look away when I saw a beautiful girl. At that time, I ran into a very powerful girl in Kinmon Country. I said I wanted to chase her, and followed her to her house. "

"That girl is the lady of the Briggs family, the first big family in Kinmon Country. This the Briggs family was also a family of martial arts. It was said to be a branch of Xing Yi Fist. Because the family was enamored with martial arts, it was only famous in Kinmon Country."

"At that time, the girl looked down on me and said I was not worthy of her. I was not convinced and said that I was very strong, so she let me fight with her brother. If I win, I would be eligible to chase her. I agreed without hesitation."

"As a result, the people of the Briggs family are not weak. Her brother's Xing Yi Fist was superb. Of course, I couldn't beat him after learning a little from master, so I lost."

"Afterwards, the girl humiliated me in every possible way. In front of everyone from the Briggs family, she said that I was a trash and didn't deserve to chase her. I was aggrieved, but because I lost, I could only endure it. But then I swear that if there is a chance in the future, I must avenge myself."

"This time I came with Baron, in fact, to take revenge, I must let that woman know that I am not a trash!"

After listening to Dick's words, Casey also laughed. He didn't expect this kid to have such an experience.

"With your current strength, you should be able to take revenge if you go alone, right? Why do you want Baron to follow you?" Casey asked.

"According to master, the Briggs family is considered as a Guwu Family. It is indeed a branch of Xing Yi Fist.

Although it is far from the real Xing Yi Fist, it is still not to be underestimated.

And the master also said that there might be an inner force expert in the Briggs family. I am afraid that after I avenge myself, the inner force expert in the Briggs family will kill me in anger, so that I want Baron go with me," Dick explained.

Casey raised his eyebrows.

Unexpectedly, in just a small county, there was an inner force expert. It seemed that his understanding of the world was far from enough.

Dick also said that the the Briggs family was addicted to martial arts, so they were only a family in Kinmon Country. If they want to enter B City, the Davies family could not win the status quo.

Of course, people who mastered inner force didn't have much pursuit of wealth. They thought more about how to improve their strength.

So, Casey could feel that in the whole C Country, there were many families like the Briggs family, which were full of inner force experts. It was just that these people were not interested in pursuing fame and profit, so people didn't know them.

In the past, Casey was also involved in business affairs. At most, he went to the underground arena to fight. It was only after learning from master that Casey got to know this.

After a short meditation, Casey said with a smile, "Don't bother Baron, I'd better go to Kinmon Country with you. I know more about the situation around B City, and it's more convenient to deal with many things."

When Dick heard Casey's words, his eyes brightened up immediately, and he said quickly, "Well, if you come with me, I'll be more relieved."

Casey looked at Baron and asked for his advice. Baron didn't care. After all, Casey was stronger than him now. It was no problem for him to go with Dick. Casey wanted to go with Dick because he wanted to know what the family with inner force experts was like. At the same time, he wanted to feel the power of the real Guwu Family and protect Dick by the way.

After the agreement was made, Casey arranged what Baron needed to do in the Davies family, and appointed Baron as the security captain of the Davies family. All the thugs of the Davies family would all obey Baron's dispatch.

Baron had never had managerial experience before. Casey asked him to be a captain. He still felt a little uncomfortable, but he was also eager to try, thinking about how to make the Davies family the safest place in B City. After the discussion, Darius, who had been listening to Casey and the others, stood up and walked to Baron.

Through the conversation just now, Darius had already understood that this man named Baron had reached the level of the so-called inner force expert. He did not know what inner force expert meant, but he understood that even Dick had to be respectful in front of Baron. Then Baron must be extremely powerful.

So he wanted to seize this opportunity to find a teacher for Warren, and made Warren to be an inner force expert.

"Mr. Baron, could you accept Warren as an apprentice? If you agree, I am willing to pay 100 million dollars for tuition. If you think it is not enough, I can pay more."

Chapter 678 Cindy Briggs

Kinmon City.

In a restaurant, Casey and Dick were sitting at a table. There were many dishes on the table, and Dick was devouring them.

"Casey, if nothing else, the food outside is really much better than the food in the mountains. Usually, we cook our own food. How can we compare with a professional chef?" Dick said while eating.

Casey smiled and said, "Have more, you can't eat me out of house and home."

When the two were eating, there were already quite a few people in the restaurant who were talking about something. Casey listened a little bit and found that these people seemed to be discussing things related to the Briggs family.

"Have you heard that the lady from the Briggs family made a mess again yesterday. She went to the mall to shop. The waiter said something she didn't like, and she slapped the waiter ten times, and asked the manager of that mall fire the waiter. I heard that the waiter had to support her family."

"It's nothing, have you forgot that some time ago, the lady from the Briggs family had forcibly arrested 20 boys who were still in school in order to hold a wild survival contest, and those boys were thrown directly into the mountain. Finally, five people were missing. The three of them were bitten off by the beasts, but the Briggs family settled this matter with a little money."

"Tut-tut, the Briggs family is the local despot in Kinmon County. Who can afford to offend them? Everyone knows that the lady from the Briggs family is arrogant and domineering. Ordinary people like us are the ones who have to suffer, I hope I won't meet Miss the Briggs family in my life."

Casey listened to the discussion of the people around him, his gazes fell on Dick, and said, "The reputation of the lady from the Briggs family here is not very good, and it does sound like an arrogant and domineering person. Why did you like such a person?"

Dick was embarrassed. He had heard all the comments from the people around him just now. He explained quickly, "I was only 18 years old at the time. I was relatively naive. Who cares what kind of person she is? I just found that she was beautiful. So, I had a crush on her. Now I am mature, I have no feeling for her, or I wouldn't come here specifically to take revenge."

Casey smiled and didn't say anything, thinking that Dick was only twenty years old now, no matter what, he was far from being mature.

After eating, the two came out of the restaurant, planning to find a place to get accommodation, put down their things, and then go to the Briggs family. Consider that they didn't know the current situation of the Briggs family and whether the young master of the Briggs family was here, they planned to live in Kinmon County for a day or two.

While walking on the road, Casey and Dick heard the roar of the engine a long distance apart, and then, a pink sports car appeared in the vision of them, rushing quickly.

At this time, a trembling old lady was crossing the road, probably because of the roar of the sports car, the old lady was so frightened that she didn't dare to walk ahead and stopped in the middle of the road.

Both Casey and Dick thought this sports car would slow down when the driver saw the old lady, but it didn't mean to slow down at all. Instead, it whistled frantically at the old lady, like complaining that the old lady was blocking her way.

Upon seeing this, Casey hurried over to hold the old lady, and quickly led her away from the middle of the road.

Dick was angry and felt that this sports car was too much. The old lady was so old and she may be frightened to death, by ten, the sports car would run away without anyone being able to find it.

He dashed to the middle of the road, staring directly at the sports car, and the sports car honked frantically again, but Dick had no intention of moving way.

Seeing that it was about to hit Dick, the driver of the pink sports car had to slam on the brakes, and the sound of tires rubbing against the ground sounded, shocking everyone passing by.

The pink sports car stopped just three centimeters away from Dick, and everyone around couldn't help but worry about Dick.

Soon, a girl with a ponytail, sunglasses, flaming red lips, gold glitter, and a mini-skirt in a small vest got off the car.

The girl suddenly came and pointed at Dick angrily and cursed, "Are you dicing with death? How dare you block my way. Do you think I dare not run into you?"

Dick looked at the girl dumbfounded at this time, and then shouted, "Cindy Briggs?"

The girl was stunned. She didn't expect the other party to know her name, but in Kinmon County, there were not a few people who knew her name, and it's not surprising.

"What? Don't get attached! Don't think you call my name, I will spare you," Cindy said coldly.

At this time, the people passing by looked at Dick sympathetically, because they all recognized that the owner of this red sports car was the lady of the Briggs family.

"Cindy, don't you recognize me?" Dick asked.

Cindy immediately took a look at Dick, a figure suddenly appeared in her mind, then she opened her eyes wide, pointed at Dick and asked, "Are you Dick?"

Dick straightened and said, "Yes, it's me."

Cindy suddenly laughed and said, "I didn't expect it to be you, trash. If I knew that it was you, I would have run into you at that time!"

Dick's look darkened, and his heart was full of discomfort when he saw Cindy still look down on himself as she did in the past.

"Even if you just bumped into me, I could escape easily. Cindy, listen, I am no longer who I was two years ago, and now I have grown to a point where you can't imagine. I come to take revenge on you!" Dick said coldly.

Cindy immediately curled her lips and said, "Don't dream, you are just a trash. You were completely outgunned when facing my brother. Do you think you are able to beat him after two years, idiot?" After that, Cindy was about to get in the car and leave here. She didn't bother to waste time with a trash.

At this moment, Dick grabbed Cindy's wrist and said coldly, "You'll know if I can beat him when I go to your house. If you want to go now, you must first apologize to the old lady."

Cindy turned her head and glared at Dick and shouted, "You are crazy, why should I apologize to an old lady, let me go quickly, otherwise don't blame me for being polite!"

"If you don't apologize today, don't even think about leaving here!" Dick said coldly.

"Let me go! Dick, you are a trash, how dare you!" Cindy's face was full of upset. Dick dragged Cindy to the old lady without saying a word, and said coldly, "Apologize."

Cindy was so hurt by Dick that she wanted to kill Dick now, but she knew that she was a girl who couldn't knock Dick out. It was said that a wise man knew when to retreat, so she impatiently apologized to the old lady.

Then Dick let her go.

She walked to the front of her car and yelled at Dick ferociously, "Wait, I will never let you go!"

After speaking, she sat in the sports car and drove away.

Chapter 679 Go to A Bar

The Briggs Villa.

In the living room, Quentin Briggs, the head of the Briggs family, was sitting on the sofa with his son, Lucius Briggs, at this time. Opposite them sat a man in a black robe. He was forty or fifty years old and looked a little detached.

This person was an inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist, named Micah. When he went down the mountain for a trip, he happened to pass by Kinmon County. Thinking that there was a branch of Xing Yi Fist here, he came to visit.

Quentin was an outer disciple of Xing Yi Fist. He had been studying Xing Yi Fist hard on the mountain back then.

Because his qualifications were pretty good, and with the tutelage from his master at that time, his strength was pretty good. After so many years of accumulation, he was considered to be an inner force expert.

Micah was also considered to be relatively good among the inner disciples. He had already entered the ranks of inner force experts many years ago. His willingness to come to the Briggs family this time was also because that Quentin had reached where the inner force experts were. Otherwise, he wouldn't pay attention to a branch that created by an outer disciple.

"Micah, I haven't seen you in a few years. You become a bit more vigorous. It seems that your strength has improved again. As expected, all inner disciples are talents. As outer disciple, I'm far behind you," Quentin smiled and said something to Micah.

Micah kept calm, but he was very helpful in his heart. He said, "Thank you, my seniors are much better than me. You are also pretty good. You can cross the threshold of inner force, it's really amazing. But it's a pity that you are a little older, otherwise, you still have a chance to be an inner disciple."

Quentin immediately smiled and said, "You flatter me. I don't have any hope of mastering inner force, but now my son's aptitude is pretty good. Among the younger generation, there are few who is better than him, so I want to find an opportunity to send him into inner circle, and I hope that you can help me."

After speaking, he clapped his hands, and immediately someone brought a few ginsengs with a faint medicinal fragrance. These ginseng plants were at least a hundred years old, and they were rare and genuine.

People who practiced martial arts did not have much pursuit of fame and wealth, but they couldn't resist some precious herbs that could enhance their own strength. In addition, their lives were full of warfare and injury. A precious medicinal material could often save them.

Micah stared at the few ginseng plants, and did not refuse, but said lightly, "Even if I can help you, in the end, it's up to him. If he has no talent, I can do nothing about it."

Quentin understood that Micah had agreed, and he quickly thanked him, "I understand what you said. My son is still diligent. He will definitely not disappoint you by then," then he said to his son, "Hurry up and say thank you to Uncle Micah."

Lucius quickly stood up, bowed respectfully to Micah, and said, "Thank you."

Micah just nodded and said nothing. After a while, Cindy walked into the living room with a gloomy look and sat directly on the sofa, looking very aggrieved.

Seeing Cindy doing this, Quentin immediately shouted, "Cindy, what are you doing, Uncle Micah is still here, you are impolite."

Cindy immediately looked up and greeted Micah.

"Brother Micah, sorry. My daughter has been spoiled since childhood, so she is a little unruly. Please forgive me," Quentin said.

Micah smiled and said, "It's okay. Girls can be self-willed. But she looks like she has been bullied. Tell us what happened. Maybe I can get even for you. "

"It's a trash who had pursued me suddenly appeared today, and asked me to apologize to a stinky old woman, and he even pinched my wrist. He spoiled my mood," Cindy said immediately.

"A trash? Cindy, what's going on?" Quentin looked at Cindy and asked. Cindy immediately said what happened today, and then mentioned that Dick was beaten by Lucius when he chased her. Quentin and Lucius immediately remembered who Cindy was talking about.

"Unexpectedly, that fragile trash back then dares to come back. Cindy, since I can beat him once, then I can beat him a second time. When I meet this kid next time, I will avenge you," Lucius said with a sneer.

Quentin rolled his eyes, and then he said, "Isn't this kid saying that he's coming back for revenge? Then he will definitely come to us. Why don't we just set up a arena for you, and then you can knock out that guy and let Uncle Micah see your strength by the way?"

Lucius's eyes brightened up, thinking that his father's proposal was good, and he said, "No problem, I will find some audience members at that time, so that this kid can fully understand what a shame!"

Cindy immediately became happy again, and said, "Thank you. I asked a friend to go out to play at night, so I'll leave first."

In the evening, Casey and Dick, who had already found a good hotel, wandered around in Kinmon County. Dick had been in the mountains for a long time and had longed for the outside world. Now he came to the city and wanted to go anywhere.

After a short while, they passed by a place with colorful decorations and a few dynamic music from time to time. Dick was curious and asked, "Casey, what is this place?"

Casey turned his head and glanced, and said, "This is a bar."

"Bar?" Dick rolled his eyes, "Casey, take me in for fun, I want to taste the wine here."

Casey thought that they had nothing to do anyway, and it would be okay to go to the bar for a while, so he took Dick into the bar.

Seeing the people dancing in the bar and feeling the deafening music here, Dick was full of curiosity. He had been learning martial arts with his master in the mountains. He seemed a little excited as he had never been in contact with such things.

Casey took Dick to the bar, ordered two glasses of wine, handed Dick a glass, turned to look at the bar lobby, and watched these handsome men and women jumping up and down.

He noticed a girl in revealing clothes and kissed three different boys within a minute, and sighed in his heart that the girls now were really open. If Sherry dared to come to such a place casually in the future, he would definitely break her legs.

"The people in the city really know how to make fun. I never expect that here is such a place. If I had come to this place earlier and saw so many beautiful women here, I would not have liked Cindy," Dick said and laughed.

At this moment, he noticed that a booth not far away was very lively, and he dragged Casey over to see what was going on there.

When he arrived at the booth, Dick saw that there were many wine glasses on the table. There was more and more wine in one glass, and there was money under the glass. The more wine, the more money. A girl was drinking desperately, and then took the money under the wine glass. The people around were constantly applauding. At this moment, a sharp voice sounded, "Dick! Why are you here!"

Dick raised his head. Only then did he realize that Cindy was sitting at the booth, and beside her, there were a few young men and women who seemed to be from rich family.

Several people stared at Dick, looking hostile.

Chapter 680 Are You Sure You Want to Play

"Well, are you the only one who can come to this place?" After Dick reacted, he said to Cindy.

Cindy sneered, stood up from the sofa, clapped her hands, and said, "Stop and look at this bumpkin. This person is the trash I told you about. He insisted on pursuing me at the beginning. As a result, he was beaten up by my brother and begged for mercy. Today, he even told me to come back for revenge. Tell me, is he a joke?"

When everyone heard Cindy's words, they immediately laughed, casting mocking glances at Dick.

Dick was full of anger and stepped forward, clenching his fists, wishing to punch Cindy.

"Cindy, you are too much, my fist is hard!"

As soon as he said this, the men sitting here stood up immediately. One of the men gave Dick a cold look and said, "Boy, this is not a place where you can run wild. We're different from you guys who don't do anything but fight. You have no money and power, you should stay away from Cindy."

Cindy looked at Dick with a sneer, rolled her eyes, and said, "Dick, this kind of place is not for fighting. If you want to fight, go to my house to find my brother. He is ready to make a arena. I'm afraid you won't dare to go then."

"And here, if you want to play well, you have to have money. You are just a poor guy with no money and no power. In our eyes, you are nothing. I advise you to get out of it."

"What if we don't have money? Martial artists only pursue strength, we will not be constrained by these vanity things," Dick said angrily.

"Well, then I will let you see the power of money," Cindy curled her lips.

After that, she took out one hundred thousand dollars directly from her bag, and then pressed a few under each wine glass, greeted everyone, and said, "From now on, drink a glass of wine and scold this guy as a trash You can take away all the money under the glass. One person at a time, I want everyone in this bar to know that this guy is a total trash!"

As soon as Cindy finished speaking, everyone immediately began to cheer, and immediately someone picked up a drink on the table, and then reached out to Dick and shouted, "You are a trash!" After speaking, he took the money from the table.

Dick was full of anger and was about to beat the person right away.

The man who had spoken before said, "It's not allowed to fight in the bar, and he just stated the facts. If you hit him because of this, none of us would agree!"

Immediately there were a lot of people echoing and Dick could only grit his teeth. He really couldn't start a fight because of a sarcasm.

Many people on the side saw that they could get hundreds of dollars for just drinking a glass of wine and scolding Dick. Naturally, they were unwilling to miss such a good deal. Soon someone drank and scolded Dick as trash, and then took the money. .

Dick could only stare at the people who were scolding him, and there was no other way.

Cindy was happy to see Dick's aggrieved look, and said, "Dick, now you know that you are a poor loser. If you have money, you can do anything. However, you are just trash with on money!"

Casey frowned and finally couldn't stand it anymore. He stepped forward and said, "I advise you to stop this game, otherwise it will be you who will suffer in the end."

Cindy glanced at Casey and said contemptuously, "Who are you, don't be nosy here."

"I'm his senior fellow apprentice," Casey said.

Cindy smiled and said, "Who I thought it was, it turned out to be a senior fellow apprentice of this trash, so it seems that you should be trash too? Get out of the way, it's none of your business."

Casey's look darkened and asked coldly, "Are you sure you want to play?" "Why, if you want to play, you can also join the. Poor losers like you may have never seen money, right? I allow you to play a few more times, as long as you call Dick a trash, I will give you money, OK?" Cindy looked disdainful.

Seeing Cindy saying this, Casey had made a decision in his heart. He turned to look at Dick, patted his shoulder, and said, "You wait here for a while, I'll go out. Remember, don't do anything with them, I have a way to deal with them."

Cindy laughed when she saw this, and said, "Isn't this guy frightened by me and fled away? I just pissed myself with laughter. Isn't he pretty good? Why did he run away?"

"This kind of person just pretends to be forceful, and when troubles come, they run faster than anyone else."

"Boy, your companion has run away, are you sure you still try to be pretentious in front of us? Kneel down and apologize to Cindy. Maybe Cindy can reward you with tens of thousands of dollars, which is enough for your living expenses for several years."

A group of people mocked Casey and Dick, without paying attention to them.

"Don't worry about his timid companion, let's continue to play. Enjoy yourself, what I have is money, everyone can take a glass of wine and scold him as a trash, and then can take the money!"

Cindy shouted again, with a smile.

Dick made her quite unhappy during the day. Now that she seized the opportunity, she naturally had to retaliate severely.

One person after another picked up the wine on the table and cursed Dick frantically. Dick stood there, silent, waiting for Casey to return.

After a long time, Cindy and her friends stared at Dick who was still standing there and being scolded, full of banter.

"Unexpectedly, this guy can really bear it. After being scolded for so long, he didn't even have an attack. Could it be that he was stupid?" a man said.

"Who cares! It's not me who is scolding anyway. If he is willing to be scolded, just let everyone continue to scold him," Cindy said indifferently.

At this moment, Casey returned to the bar, with two big bags in his hand.

"Cindy, this kid's senior is here again," someone said immediately.

Cindy turned her head and looked over, with a trace of doubt on her face, she muttered, "What is this guy holding in his hand?"

Soon, Casey came to the crowd and threw the two big bags directly on the table.

"How dare you come back. Well, are you packing up your things and ready to run away?" Cindy said with a sneer.

Casey smiled at her, then reached out and opened the zipper on one of the bags, revealing the contents in front of everyone.

The bag contained bundles of bundles notes!

Chapter 681 You Can Get Ten

Thousand by Scolding Her

Everyone was shocked by the money in the bag, there may be several million dollars in these two bags.

Cindy stared at the money in the bag, and said, "You... did you grab the bank?"

Dick had never seen so much money, but he was not as surprised as Cindy and the others. After all, he knew that Casey was the head of the Davies family in B City, a person with status and wealth. It was a piece of cake for him to spend several million.

At the same time, there was a touch of emotion in his heart. In order to vent his anger, Casey brought so much cash at once. What a good man!

Money, no matter when, had an incomparable attraction. Casey opened both bags of money. Soon, their booth was surrounded. And many people who had been dancing stopped to watch the excitement.

"A real rich, so much money, it will be able to cover my whole life."

"Damn, what are they doing, do they want to throw money at people? If that's the case, I want to say, please throw at me!"

"Who is this buddy, why is he more arrogant than the lady from the Briggs family, isn't he afraid of the money being robbed?"

Casey stared at Cindy, and then said loudly to everyone, "Everyone, let's play a game now. Everyone can participate. As long as you scold her, the lady from the Briggs family, you can take 10,000 dollars from me. But you can't repeat what others have scolded. The money is here, and you can take it yourself after scolding her."

Hearing Casey's words, everyone was in an uproar. They could get 10,000 dollars by just cursing the lady from the Briggs family. Everyone knew whether it was a worthwhile transaction.

Dick laughed, praised Casey, and said, "Casey, you are great!"

Cindy looked gloomy. This guy used 10000 dollars let others scold her, which was so detestable.

"I see who dares to scold me, if you want to die, try it!" Cindy said.

"Hurry up and get out of here. If you don't leave here with your money in five minutes, you will be in trouble!" Cindy glared at Casey again.

Casey smiled and said, "Well, only you can play this kind of game?"

"Everyone, don't be afraid of her. The light is so dark here. You can leave here after scolding her and taking the money. Even if she wants to trouble you, she doesn't know who you are!"

Many people were eager to try. Casey was right. With so many people here, even if they scolded the lady from the Briggs family, she couldn't find them one by one.

Hearing what Casey said, Cindy gritted her teeth, and said angrily, "He is just a loser. It's not certain where the money came from. Maybe he stole these money. If you dare to get it, you will go to jail with him!"

Casey immediately took out a pile of receipts from his clothes, patted them on the table, and said, "This is a receipt for withdrawing money from the bank. If you are not at ease, you can take a look."

Although it was night, as Casey, it was just a matter of a phone call to get money from a bank.

Cindy was exploded, but she didn't expect Casey to be so prepared. For a while, she didn't know how to fight back.

"Cindy is an arrogant woman. If she hadn't been the lady of the Briggs family, she would have been beaten to death!"

At this moment, there was a shout from the crowd, and then, one hand reached into the bag, picked up a bundle of money, turned around and ran, and everyone did not see his appearance clearly.

Cindy was full of anger, and shouted, "Hurry up and grab that person!"

However, no one cared about her.

Seeing someone succeeded in getting the money and escaping, the rest of the people began to feel restless. After a while, the sound of scolding Cindy began to sound one after another.

"Cindy is loathsome, ignoring the rules, it is the cancer of the entire Kinmon County!"

"Cindy is ugly, and the makeup she painted is like a ghost, it's disgusting!"

"If Cindy hadn't been born in the Briggs family, she would have been a whore. She is a foolish woman!"

...

Cindy listened to the voices of the people cursing her, her face was puce with rage. With so many people present, even if she could see the faces of those who cursed her, she couldn't remember all of them clearly, let alone found them in Kinmon County.

Dick looked at Cindy and felt relieved. He said to her, "Aren't you very powerful? How does it feel to be scolded by everyone now? Do you know what's the best thing? The best thing is that they are just telling the truth!"

Cindy screamed, then turned to look at the people next to her, and said, "We are now rushing to make money and pay 20,000 dollars for people who scold them. I don't believe these people will continue to scold me."

Those rich people were all embarrassed. Although the conditions at their home were indeed very good, there was at least three million dollars in the bags Casey brought. After all, their families were just rich in a county. How could it be possible to collect so much money all at once.

Even Cindy had no more than one hundred thousand in cash, and she only spent a few hundred dollars when playing games with others. They couldn't even think of the practice of paying 10,000 dollars for one sentence like Casey.

"Cindy, 20,000 is too expensive, we simply can't spend that much money now, or... let's forget it," a person said carefully.

"Then you just look at these people scolding me? They still scold me so badly, which really annoys me!"

Cindy was almost mad, but she could only stare.

"I hope today's matter can teach you a lesson. In terms of money, you are still far behind." Casey smiled and said to Cindy.

"Wait for me. When I go back, I will let my father and my brother arrest you. Then I will torture you to death!" Cindy said viciously.

Casey curled her lips and said, "No, we will come to you in person. The money will stay here. If it is left, I will treat you to a drink. But depending on the situation, everyone wants to scold you. I guess there will be no more money left." After speaking, Casey turned Dick and walked out of the bar.

Cindy was hysterical and threw the money and wine glasses on the table directly to the ground.

"You idiots, aren't they just have some money? Do you have any principles!"

"If it weren't for money, do you think we would be afraid of you? What a silly!"

The crowd rushed for a while, and in the chaos, many people still took the opportunity to scold Cindy.

Early the next morning, the news that the Briggs family's young master Lucius set up a arena to fight the "Universal Invincible Super Trash" spread throughout Kinmon County.

Chapter 682 Is It Too Shameless

On the street, many people were walking towards the central square of Kinmon County.

"I heard that the young master of the Briggs family is going to fight a super trash today. I am wondering who the trash is that he can make the Briggs family so conscious."

"No matter who the trash is, it all shows that it's a wimp. I don't think it has any background. He came here to get beaten from the young master of the Briggs family."

"Then you tell me if this person has the guts to go to the square, if I were that person, I would definitely run away as soon as possible."

"If he doesn't run, he will be beaten up by the young master of the Briggs family. But if he runs away, it means that he admits he is trash. Whether he runs away or not, this person will be uncomfortable."

...

Casey and Dick were walking on the road, listening to the comments of people passing by, Dick's face was full of upset.

"Lucius is really shameless. I will see how he feels when he loses to me," Dick muttered.

Casey smiled and said, "Don't be too cocky. Although you have grown a lot in the past two years, Lucius may not always stay in place. Don't underestimate the enemy."

Dick smiled and said, "Casey, don't worry about that, and you should have some confidence in our master.

Although this Xing Yi Fist is an ancient martial art that has been passed down for a long time, master told me about the advantages and the disadvantages of Xing Yi Fist. Compared with the skills that master taught us, Xing Yi Fist is a lot worse."

Casey didn't speak, but he agreed with Dick's words. Although their master hadn't told him about the advantages and disadvantages of Xing Yi Fist, he was able to feel the exquisiteness of master's teaching based on what he learned from the master.

While studying with master, Casey was able to feel the master's skill was perfect from which point of view that it combined the merits of different sects and the subtlety of all martial arts.

So even if he hadn't learned the power of Xing Yi Fist, he knew that the master's skills could not be matched by just any others.

It didn't take long for the them to arrive at the central square. At this time, an arena was set up in the middle of the central square, and the arena was already crowded with people.

Right above the arena, a banner was hung. On the banner, the words "For the Universal Invincible Super Trash!"

Obviously, you know it was made by Cindy.

Lucius was already standing on the arena, looking down at the people below, with an aura of looking down at the world.

And not far from the arena, there were a few chairs, Quentin and Micah were sitting there, Cindy was standing aside, looking around constantly, as if looking for someone.

Casey noticed Micah sitting there at a glance, feeling the extraordinary temperament of this person, and Quentin beside him also attracted Casey's attention, but the feeling he gave Casey was not as strong as Micah. After reaching the level of inner force experts, Casey could distinguish between inner force experts and ordinary people by relying on some details. He did not expect that there were two inner force experts in the Briggs family, and one of them was not weak, which really surprised him.

"Do you know who is the man sitting over there?" Casey pointed to Micah and asked.

Dick took a look, shook his head, and said, "I don't know, but the one sitting next to him is the head of the Briggs family, Quentin."

Casey nodded thoughtfully, and didn't think too much. It didn't matter what Micah's identity was. His mission this time was to prevent the Briggs family's inner force experts from attacking Dick. He didn't care about other things.

Soon, they walked to the front of the arena.

"Is wimpy Dick here? Do you have the guts to go to the arena and fight with me? If you don't have the guts, come out and apologize to my sister as soon as possible. Don't waste everyone's time here!" Lucius waited a little impatiently and shouted at people in the audience.

After Dick heard it, he gave a cold snort and spoke to Casey before rushing to the arena.

In the blink of an eye, Dick was already standing opposite Lucius.

"Here I am!"

Lucius looked at Dick up and down, with a sneer on his face, and said, "I haven't seen you for two years. You are still a rustic punk. I heard that you were still in the bar last night and let people scold my sister. I think you are really dicing with death. Since you dare to be in this arena today, I will never let you go on alive!"

Dick curled his lips and said, "Don't talk too much, maybe it's you who won't be able to get out of the arena today."

After seeing Dick appearing on the arena, Cindy immediately shouted, "Brother, beat him up and leave him to me. I will torture him!"

Lucius gave an ok gesture to Cindy.

"Boy, my strength has improved a lot in the past two years. Now Uncle Micah is watching from the audience, I will use you as a sandbag today to show off in front of Uncle Micah!" Lucius directly confronted Dick with a move of Xing Yi Fist.

There was a smirk on Dick's face, and he murmured, "You just improved a little. In the past two years, my strength my strength has improved like a rocket, and you will soon know that how amazing that my master's second proud apprentice is! "

The battle between the two broke out in the blink of an eye.

The movements of Xing Yi Fist were compact and tight, almost all parts of the body were used as weapons to attack. Coupled with super explosive power, it had a very shocking effect in battle.

Lucius changed his moves, attacking Dick's vital part, and his actions looked quite gorgeous. The people in the audience watched Lucius fighting as if they were watching an action movie.

After a while, people began to clap their hands and applaud.

Dick chose to defend at the beginning.

Master told him that although the explosive power of Xing Yi Fist was strong, its shortcomings was that Xing Yi Fist could not be a combination of offensive and defensive moves.

Generally, when the opponent's moves were exhausted, flaws were prone to appear.

He began to choose to guard, just to wait for Lucius's flaws to be revealed.

The people in the audience just watched and didn't understand it. Seeing Dick kept guarding, they thought that he was losing to Lucius, and became even less optimistic about him.

Micah stared at Dick's tricks, but his eyes narrowed.

Quentin didn't see Dick's plan. He just thought his son was great, and he smiled and said to Micah, "Brother Micah, my son was trained since he was a kid, so Dick is just a wimp. He could never beat my son."

Micah shook his head and said, "This kid is not as simple as you thought. He has seen through the shortcomings of Xing Yi Fist, waiting for your son to reveal his flaws and take the opportunity to counterattack."

Quentin frowned. He didn't expect that Micah would feel that Dick was guarding deliberately. He didn't think his son would be inferior to a bumpkin. He thought that when Lucius won, Micah would know who was right and who was wrong.

Soon, Lucius's tactics broke out, and obvious flaws appeared in his moves.

Dick seized this opportunity and took the opportunity to counterattack, directly taking out his strongest strength, and mobilizing to attack Lucius's flaws and forcing him to retreat again and again. Lucius had no chance of counterattack at all.

When everyone in the audience saw the battle turn around, their eyes widened immediately, feeling a little weird.

Quentin's look also sank, and he grabbed the handle of the chair with one hand. He didn't expect that as Micah said, his son's flaw was really caught by Dick.

Lucius thought that his little flaw could be covered by some confusing moves, but he didn't expect Dick to see through it at a glance.

A rout was like a landslide, Lucius couldn't resist Dick's attack anymore after revealing his flaws. After a few breaths, Lucius had been led by the nose.

Finally, Lucius didn't resist Dick's heavy punch and sat down on the ground.

Dick seized the opportunity and directly pressed Lucius to the ground, and then in front of everyone, on Lucius's ass, he gave him a hard blow.

"Today, I will teach you a lesson for your father, you deserve to be beaten!"

After speaking, Dick beat Lucius's ass again.

Everyone in the audience burst into laughter.

When Quentin saw this scene, he stood up angrily, his face was pale, and he gritted his teeth and shouted, "How dare you! Dare you humiliate my son in public, do you really think that the Briggs family are really weak?"

After speaking, Quentin rushed to the arena and wanted to attack Dick.

Dick's face changed, and he ran to the bottom of the arena.

However, he hadn't been able to escape the chase of an inner force expert.

Quentin's palm was about to pat Dick's back.

"Casey, save me!" Dick yelled.

At this moment, a figure appeared in front of Quentin and threw a punch to stop Quentin directly.

"It's natural for your son to be beaten when he loses. As the head of the family, is it a bit too shameless for you to cheat?"

Casey's eyes were calm as water, falling on the imposing Quentin.

Chapter 683 Just So So

Quentin's eyes narrowed. The punch that Casey had hit him just now was quite powerful, and it directly stopped him. From this point of view, Casey's strength should not be underestimated. But he saw that Casey was so young, and he didn't even think about the possibility that Casey might be an inner force expert.

"Boy, it is none of your business, otherwise you will be the one who will suffer!" Quentin said coldly.

"I'm Dick's senior fellow apprentice, you can intervene in the arena at will, why can't I? Is it possible that I have to watch my junior fellow apprentice being bullied by you?" Casey curled his lips.

"It turned out to be the senior fellow apprentice of this guy. No wonder you also look like a bumpkin. Don't think that you can save him as you are older than him. Do you think you can beat me?"

Quentin said.

"You'll know it not after fighting." Casey shook his fist.

Quentin snorted coldly, and said, "Since you are looking for death by yourself, don't blame me for being impolite!"

When everyone in the audience saw that Casey was going to fight Quentin, they were a little bit contemptuous. The Briggs family was a family of martial arts, and they all knew that Quentin was also a famous master here. Casey was not old enough to challenge Quentin.

"If he fights with Lucius, he may still have a chance to win. However, facing the head of the Briggs family, he will die."

Quentin rushed towards Casey unceremoniously and punched his chest.

Casey took a shot and easily blocked Quentin's fist, then pushed it forward and patted Quentin's chest.

Expression on Quentin's face changed, and his body quickly retreated to the back, using all the strength of his body to resist Casey's palm.

"You... are you an inner force expert?!!!"

Quentin looked at Casey with shock.

"Well, is there any problem?" Casey replied lightly.

Quentin immediately swallowed.

Although he knew that it was difficult to master inner force, a person could still learn it as long as he was talented and willing to work hard. He basically hadn't seen an inner force expert as young as Casey before.

Only the best inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist could reach his level, and it was rare.

Quentin gritted his teeth, and then used his inner force to rush towards Casey again.

Even if Casey was an inner force expert, he was much older than Casey. If he surrendered to a junior, then he, the head of the Briggs family, would disgrace himself.

Casey easily knocked Quentin to the ground. A person who had just reached the level of inner force was simply vulnerable to Casey.

"You are too weak to be my opponent," Casey said.

"Who do you look down on? It was just a mistake. I'll fight you when I get up!"

Quentin wanted to stand up from the ground, but after exerting his strength, he realized that he could not get up.

Everyone looked at this scene in shock.

The head of the Briggs family was knocked out by Casey in two moves, which completely subverted their imagination.

Casey stared at Quentin who fell on the ground and couldn't get up, and said, "I said, it's no contest."

"He is no match for you, let me come to learn about your strength." At this moment, a voice floated behind Casey, and Micah had appeared on the arena. A joking smile evoked from Casey's lips. The reason why he solved Quentin's in two moves was to get Micah to take action.

Casey could feel that Micah was a strong master. He finally came to Kinmon County, how could he only fight with someone who had just entered the threshold of inner force.

He turned to look at Micah behind him, and asked, "Who are you?"

"I'm a inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist, Micah," Micah answered.

Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect this person to be inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist. No wonder Quentin was so respectful to this person just now. It seemed that he really came to the right place today.

"It sounds great, but I don't know how powerful you are." Casey smiled.

"You'll know after the fight!" Micah snorted coldly, and attacked Casey directly, and a powerful momentum that created by his fists instantly enveloped Casey.

Casey didn't dare to neglect, watching every move of Micah carefully, running his inner force to resist his attack.

The people in the audience watched them fight, and once again erupted in exclamation. The battle between Casey and Micah was much exciting than the previous one, and it made the people who watched them little thrilling.

"My god, it is like a movie, how could there be such a powerful person!"

Quentin looked at Casey dumbfounded. He didn't expect that this person, who looked only twenty-four or five years old, would be able to fight with Micah.

Both Lucius and Cindy were silent at this time. They both looked at Casey with complicated expressions. They thought Casey was just a bumpkin, but now it seemed that he was the one who really had real talent.

Dick was full of pride, proud of having such a powerful senior fellow apprentice.

"Baron was at initial stage of inner force, and Casey can easily defeat him, then Casey's inner force may have reached medium stage. Micah's strength seems to be about the same as Baron. It seems I don't have to worry about Casey," Dick murmured to himself.

Inner force was divided into three stages: initial stage, medium stage, and advanced stage. Initial stage meant to get the essence of inner force, and medium stage meant to have the ability to use the inner force at will and exert its incomparable power.

As for advanced stage, it was the most difficult level to achieve, and people who could get advanced stage of inner force were Grandmaster.

Among a hundred inner force expert, there may not necessarily be a master who was at advanced stage of inner force. This was also the reason why there were so few Grandmasters.

It was already very difficult for ordinary people to cultivate inner force. And even if a person could enter the threshold of inner force, it was difficult to reach the level of initial stage. Those with good qualifications could achieve it in five to ten years, while those with poor qualifications may only stay on the threshold all their lives.

The inner experts at medium stage were rarer than the experts at initial stage.

With this qualification, it took at least ten years to reach medium stage.

So, the age of those experts was not small.

Of course, there would never be a shortage of geniuses in this world. People with wonderful roots could compress this time to a very short time. Someone could reach the level of medium stage in three to five years. This kind of person was already considered a prodigy, and it was extremely rare.

And like Casey, it only took him half a year from learning inner force to reaching the level of medium stage. In the words of their master, he was the first one in the history.

Casey also didn't know why he mastered his inner force so quickly. Maybe he was really talented, or maybe he was lucky and found the trick, but it was not important. What's important was that Casey had a chance, which was very big, to stand on this position of Grandmaster.

When Micah fought with Casey, at the beginning, he was able to draw a tie with Casey. However, Micah found that he couldn't resist Casey gradually, and gradually fell into a disadvantage. And Casey had been fighting with him with ease, seeming to be very calm, and had been dismantling his tricks, as if Micah was a train to him.

Micah knew that he must not lose to Casey today, otherwise he would bring shame on Xi Yi Fist.

However, his strength prevented him from protecting the dignity of Xi Yi Fist. In the end, under a heavy punch from Casey, Micah fell to the ground.

Looking at Micah who fell on the ground, Casey smiled and said, "Xi Yi Fist is nothing more than that."

After speaking, he turned and walked under the arena.

Micah was full of anger. He didn't expect that a boy in his twenties would dare to look down upon Xi Yi Fist. It was a terrible insult to him.

His eyes turned red, and he eagerly wanted to beat up the arrogant young man. A murderous intent appeared in his eyes. Then he took out a bamboo tube from his sleeve and blew it at Casey's back.

With a swish, a flying arrow flew towards Casey.

Casey felt the crisis, and through the sound, he quickly turned around, grabbed the flying arrow, and then slammed it back.

Micah didn't expect Casey to react so quickly. The flying arrow passed directly through his neck, his eyes were round, and there was a gurgling sound in his throat.

After a while, Micah lost a bit of blood on his face, and then he softened and fell on the ring.

Chapter 684 He Deserves to Die

Under the arena, there was an instant chaos, and many people screamed. No one thought that with such a blink of an eye, Micah was killed.

Casey turned to look at Micah who fell on the ground, with a cold look in his eyes. He didn't expect this man to be so shameless, he actually used hidden weapons to make sneak attack as he could not beat him. If it weren't for his strength to be much higher than Micah, the flying arrow would take his life.

Dick watched the unpredictable scene, and was also scared, and then hurriedly ran to Casey's side.

"Casey, you were so handsome just now. If I were you, I would have died," Dick said with a smile.

Quentin looked at Micah who was lying on the ground with a stunned look. His eyes were full of horror. This powerful inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist in his mind actually died.

He gritted his teeth and stood up from the ground, walked to Micah, and looked at his dead body, the cold sweat on his forehead suddenly appeared.

"You...you actually killed Brother Micah, do you know who he was? He was an inner disciple of Xing Yi Fist. The experts in inner circle will never let you go!" Quentin yelled at Casey.

Casey stared at him and said coldly, "Then you mean, I should just stand still and let him kill me with a hidden weapon?"

Quentin was choked by Casey's words. From the situation just now, Casey did the right thing. Micah's skill was not as good as Casey, and he planned to use hidden weapons to injure him, but was killed by Casey. He couldn't blame Casey at all.

But Micah just came here as a guest, and he was killed. People from Xing Yi Fist would definitely blame Micah's death on him.

"No matter what you say, Brother Micah was killed by you. You must follow me to Xing Yi Fist and give them an explanation!" Quentin said.

"On the arena, death and injury are inevitable. Since he dared to stand here, he should have this consciousness. There are so many people here and they all know what was going on just now. If it was me who died just now, would you still care? Your son lost to my junior fellow apprentice. You were so angry that you attack a junior. Now that your senior fellow apprentice was killed by me, you let me give an explanation. Why, are people from Xing Yi Fist bad losers?" Casey said.

Quentin flushed when heard Casey's words, but he still didn't want to let Casey go like this, saying, "There is a real possibility of injury or death in the arena, but you were able to show mercy just now, but you just killed him deliberately, so I have reason to hold you accountable!"

Casey was contemptuous. He didn't expect that this guy would be tangled up arrogantly, and his look gradually became gloomy.

"Your senior fellow apprentice violated martial ethics and attacked me with hidden weapons. It was not a fair and honest thing. Besides, I am a man who will never let his enemy go. Since he wanted to kill me, he deserved to die."

"If you continue to argue with me about this matter, I don't mind letting the entire Briggs family go to the funeral with senior fellow apprentice!"

After speaking, Casey glanced at Dick and motioned for him to follow. Then they jumped out of the arena. A path was immediately divided among the crowd to let them pass through. At this time, no one dared to stop them. Watching Casey and Dick leave, Quentin felt resentful in his heart. However, thinking of Casey's terrifying strength, he was helpless. In the end, he could only sigh helplessly, and watched them move away.

Lucius and Cindy both ran up to Quentin. Cindy said, "Dad, we cannot let them go like this. They humiliated me in the bar yesterday, and they defeated my brother today. Uncle Micah was also killed by them. How could you just let them go?"

Quentin stared at Cindy, and felt a bit of resentment towards her in his heart. After all, if it wasn't for these things that she caused, how could Micah die here. "What can we do if we don't let them go. You also know that even your Uncle Micah was killed by them, what can we do? Do you want me to die?" Quentin complained.

Cindy suddenly flagged. The reason why she dared to be so arrogant in Kinmon County was her father. Now her father was powerless, how could she continue to be willful.

"This person is so young that he has reached this level of strength. His background is definitely not simple. You have to remember that from now on, you must never provoke others casually. If this happens again, I promise to break your legs!" Quentin said sternly.

Although Lucius and Cindy both felt a little unhappy, they could only nod their heads in the end.

The Davies House.

When Casey and Dick came back, they found Warren kneeling in front of Baron's door with a bank card in front of him. Casey was confused.

"What are you doing on your knees here?" Casey asked.

When Warren saw Casey, he immediately said with a bitter face, "Lord Sue asked me to learn from Mr. Baron, saying that if Mr. Baron disagrees to accept me as his apprentice, I have to kneel here until he agrees."

Casey had a wiry smile, then rolled his eyes and said, "I'll help you."

Then Casey walked into Baron's room. Baron was a little pleased to see Casey and Dick coming back, and immediately greeted them.

After that, Casey talked about the idea of letting Baron accept Warren as his apprentice.

The reason why he helped Warren was not because he took pity on Warren, but because he thought that if Baron accepted Warren as his apprentice, then he could let Kacper and the other two come to "audit classes".

With the qualifications of Kacper and the other two, they were definitely one in a million. If they could master inner force, their strength would definitely make a qualitative leap, which would be of great benefit to both the Davies family and Guanling.

At first, Baron was somewhat resistant, but under the persuasion of Casey, he began to waver. Their master did not set a rule that inner force could not be passed on. On the contrary, he hoped that his apprentice could spread the law of inner force. In Casey's view, the master was trying to contend with the "monopoly" of the Guwu Family.

In addition, Baron had nothing to do except protect Edith and Sherry in the Davies family. It was a good choice to teach apprentices.

Therefore, Baron finally agreed to accept Warren as his apprentice.

Warren was overjoyed and expressed his gratitude to Casey. Casey did not be polite with him, and asked him to pay the tuition fees and Kacper and the other two would learn with him.

Warren thought that he didn't pay for the tuition anyway, and it didn't matter if anyone learn with him.

In this way, Baron's inner force school was formally established. The only student was Warren, Kacper and the other two were auditors.

After sitting in meditation for 49 days according to the deep breathing taught by the master, Casey slowly opened his eyes and exhaled a stale air, and his eyes became much brighter.

He raised his hand, felt the surging power in his body, and was particularly amazed at the inner force passed down by the ancients.

"According to the level of internal energy, now I should be considered as having reached the level of medium stage. However, I learn the inner force at peak of outer force. My body is different from ordinary people. Now that I have reached the level of medium stage, my strength should be stronger than the inner force experts who reach the level of medium stage."

According to Casey's speculation, under the Grandmasters, as long as it was not a person with different talents like him, no one should be able to beat him.

"I don't know whether it is a good or a bad thing that my strength has improved so quickly, I always feel that the current speed is a bit too fast. It takes ordinary people to achieve medium stage of inner force in their entire life, but it only cost me half a year. It's really amazing."

Thinking of his own strength, Casey couldn't help but sigh.

But soon, his look became firmer. No one would think he was too strong, especially for people like Casey who still had to take revenge

"Sherry is one month old now, and I also have enough strength. It seems that it is time to leave for M Country and take revenge on the Turner family."

Chapter 685 The Foreigners Were Stunned

The main courtyard of the Davies House.

At this time, Jordan, Charles, Conor, Morgan, Natan, Lily, Baron, Dick, Darius, Warren, Kacper and the top managers of the Davies family were all standing here.

Edith held Sherry in her arms and stood in the forefront position, with Nicholas and Jennifer guarding her.

Their gazes all fell on Casey. Today was the day Casey left for M Country.

Casey smiled and looked at everyone, and said, "Don't stare at me with this kind of gaze. It's like I'm going to die. I'm just going to M Country to solve a little trouble. When the trouble is resolved, I will come back. "

Casey's words made everyone laugh, and the slightly solemn atmosphere eased a lot.

Edith stared at Casey with a bitter look, and said, "When you were on Moon Island, you said the same thing.

However, after you left that time, I waited for half a year before you came back. I don't believe you anymore."

Casey looked at Edith apologetically, walked over and gently stroked her cheek, and said, "It was an accident last time. This time I promise that it won't happen again."

Edith was still full of dismay, looked down at Sherry in her arms, and said, "I don't care if the situation like the last time will happen or not, I just hope you remember that now you are a father. Now, your daughter is just one month old, and I don't want her father to be gone before she has no memory."

Casey looked at Sherry. The little guy had opened her big eyes at this time. Her eyes and eyebrows were a bit like her mother's, but she still didn't know anything and didn't know what was going on now.

"How could Dad be such an irresponsible person, right? Dad promises you that I will come back as soon as possible when things are done. Or your mom mother will become a battle-axe and eat me." Casey reached out and rubbed Sherry's small face. Edith glared at him, her face full of resentment, and then she said, "If you haven't come back when Sherry is a hundred days old, even if I will have a bad name, I will go and chew you!"

Casey laughed and said, "I'll be back in time."

"Be careful in everything." Edith originally wanted to complain about Casey a few more words, but in the end, she only said these four words she wanted to say from the bottom of her heart.

Casey nodded solemnly, and then everyone in the yard said goodbye to Casey one by one.

"Don't worry, Casey has the ability to mess up the M Country. It is basically impossible for others to kill him," Dick said.

At this time, Lily walked in front of Casey and stared at him and said, "You must come back. I'm still waiting for you and Edith to have a second child. Your second child must be a boy!"

Casey pulled a wry face, but in the end he nodded. Everyone around was full of confusion. In their eyes, Lily seemed to like Casey to have children very much, and they didn't know why.

Finally, after saying goodbye to everyone, Casey walked up to Edith again, kissed her and Sherry on the foreheads, and said, "Wait for me to come back."

Then he turned around and walked out to the outside of the Davies House.

Edith stared at Casey's back, and tears were welling up in her eyes.

"Asshole, you must return safely."

At the airport of B City.

After getting out of the car, Casey walked straight in, and after finding his flight, he sat in the waiting area and waited.

Because it was an international flight, more than half of the people waiting in the waiting area were foreigners. Most of these people went back from C Country, and there were few people from C Country. Therefore, Casey was conspicuous among these people.

Before long, a few foreign youths who looked like they were in their twenties arrived at the waiting area and sat directly beside Casey, carrying their travel bags.

These people came to C Country for tourism and had been chatting excitedly about what they had seen and heard about this trip.

At this time, one of them noticed Casey sitting on the side. The man smiled and said, "Look, there is a guy from C Country over there."

"The only regret when I come to C Country this time is that I don't see the martial art. It's said everyone in C Country is good at martial art? Go and ask him if he knew K martial art." A man joked.

Casey had learned English since he was a child. Although he couldn't reach the point where he could write novels in English, he still had no problems with basic communication, so he heard what these foreign young people said.

A foreign youth felt bored, so he really approached Casey and asked Casey if he could speak English. Casey nodded.

"Dude, I heard that people here all know martial art. We didn't it you this time. From your appearance, you should not be a simple character. You must know martial art. Isn't there any called inner force in your martial art? It is said to be very powerful. Can you show it?" the foreign youth asked.

Although the foreign youth was still polite, Casey heard that he was just joking with him, or just wanted to make fun of him.

"This is a ceramic cup that I bought in the mall, which can be used for your performance. You don't have to perform something complicated for us. You can...well...stick your finger through the cup, how about it?"

After speaking, several people laughed, as if someone was telling a funny joke. In their hearts, they actually didn't believe there was such a thing as martial art in C Country. Those so-called experts in martial art may not be as good as people who learned kickboxing. They just wanted to tease Casey and have fun.

Casey smiled slightly and felt their attitude, but he was not angry, but reached out and took the ceramic cup.

"Does it cost me if I break it?" Casey asked.

"No, but the premise is that you can't throw it to the ground, buddy, don't you really think that you can break this cup with your fingers, this thing is very hard, ceramics made in C Country are still good," that person said with a smile.

Casey didn't speak, and raised his hand directly, running his inner force, and poked a finger directly at the cup.

Then the foreign youths opened their eyes wide, and their eyes were full of horror, because there was just a finger-thick hole on the cup, and Casey's finger was intact.

"My God, am I dreaming? You actually poke a hole in the cup with your finger!"

"It is too amazing, really amazing.

Martial art of C Country is invincible!"

"Master, can I worship you as my teacher? Please accept me as an apprentice, my God, I actually met an expert in martial art!"

...

Seeing the reactions of these foreign youths, Casey smiled and said nothing. Until they got on the plane, several foreign youths were still in shock, and they surrounded Casey and refused to walk away. When Casey stretched out his finger and said that he was going to hit them a few times, the few people were considered quiet.

Chapter 686 Caro Britt

At Chinatown, M Country.

Casey was walking along the street while looking at the buildings and signs that were similar to that in H Country. If it wasn't that he saw the signs in English occasionally and that there were foreigners walking along the street, Casey would think that he had gone to the wrong place.

As time went by, more and more people of H Country settled down in M Country. Chinatown was no longer just a street. It had developed into a neighborhood. In this neighborhood, things related the culture of H Country could be seen everywhere.

By this time, it was already dark. When the neon lights on the side of the road lit up, it was quite different from the streets at night in H Country.

Casey stopped at an intersection.

Before, he had contacted the person who was in charge of the affairs of Guanling in M Country. They arranged to meet at this place.

Before coming to M Country, Casey had known that Terence had sent the people of Guanling, who were in foreign countries, to M Country. Moreover, these people all followed Casey's orders now.

In terms of business, it was not difficult for Guanling to destroy the Turner family. What worried Terence was the Grandmaster of the Turner family. Now, the Turner family even had an expert in fighting with inner force--Theodore.

Casey, who had both great inner force and great outer force, didn't know how powerful Grandmaster was. However, he had a certain confidence in himself. Even if he couldn't defeat Grandmaster, he would be able to run away.

Casey learned from Guanling's intelligence team that the teacher of Theodore was studying abroad now. Even if he killed Theodore and destroyed the Turner family, it would be impossible for this Grandmaster to instantly come back and take revenge on Casey.

Moreover, in Casey's view, teachers shouldn't intervene in the things between his student and other people. Of course, if the teacher of Theodore was very protective of his students, Casey couldn't blame him.

When he was thinking, he heard a loud sound of engine coming from behind him. He turned around, and saw that a Harley motorcycle had parked there.

A sexy woman got off her motorcycle and came close to Casey. She was wearing a helmet, a black leather jacket and a pair of black leather pants.

That woman took off the helmet. At the same time, her golden hair fell down.

Casey saw her face clearly. She was a beautiful woman with Roman nose and big eyes. Her facial features were a little characteristic of oriental women.

She seemed to be a little cold. After giving Casey a glance, she asked, "Are you Casey?"

Casey nodded. That woman put her helmet on the motorcycle and said, "I'm the person in charge of the affairs of Guanling in M Country. You can call me Caro. Come with me."

As she spoke, she entered the nearby cafe and sat at a table near the window.

Casey followed her. He thought: she was really cold and spoke in an arrogant way. Just now, though she greeted Casey politely, she seemed to be giving an order to Casey.

However, Casey didn't mind. At least, being cold to him was better than being too enthusiastic about him. When he remembered the days when he stayed with Nadia in H City, he would be afraid for a while. After all, once he failed to resist the temptation, he would make a big mistake.

After entering the cafe, Casey sat down in the chair opposite and spoke with a smile, "I've thought that you've an English name. Unexpectedly, you should have a classical and special name."

"I'm a people of H Country. Why should I have an English name?" Caro answered.

Hearing that, Casey got a better impression of her. She was much too better than people like Daisy.

"I need to know the position of Theodore and the head of the Turner family. After I kill them, you can destroy the Turner family with the resources of Guanling."

Casey got down to the business directly. Caro looked at Casey as if she were looking at an idiot, and said, "Do you think that you're going to deal with a weak family in H Country? Even if I tell you the position of Theodore, do you think you have the ability to kill him? I met him a few times before and found that he has had strong inner force. Do you think you can defeat him on your own?"

Casey was surprised. He didn't expect that she should know something about inner force. What's more, it seemed that she knew quite a lot about it.

"Do you know inner force?" Casey asked.

"Of course, I do. And I also know that you should just have some inner force. Otherwise, you won't come to M Country to take revenge on Theodore. You had better be patient. People with a little inner force is to a people with strong inner force what a little baby is to an adult. You're no match for him." Caro answered.

Casey laughed. He was not anxious to explain to her that he was powerful. Instead, he became interested in talking with Caro.

"How do you know that I've just had inner force? What if I'm more powerful than you think?" Casey asked with a smile.

Caro twitched her lips and said, "You're not the only person who has learned the skill of inner force. When someone just master the skill of inner force, that people will usually change between normal breathing and deep breathing because that person is not used to deep breathing. People can only maintain deep breathing after mastering the skill of inner force for a long time. You're in a state very similar to that of me now, so I can certainly find that."

Casey was shocked again. It never occurred to him that the beauty sitting face to face with him was also an expert in fighting with inner force.

Caro had anticipated that Casey would react in this way. There was a little disdain on her face. It seemed that she was taunting Casey for knowing too little.

Casey didn't care about her reaction. He thought that he had really underestimated how powerful Guanling was. Guanling could have an expert in fighting with inner force as a person in charge of its affairs in a district. It seemed that Guanling had been more powerful than top families in the world. Besides, Casey suspected that Terence had had strong inner force and that Terence was still not Grandmaster. After all, only the Grandmaster of the Turner family worried Terence.

"I'm sorry. I didn't expect you to be so powerful. Guanling should be congratulated for being able to train a talented person like you." Casey said with a smile.

"I'm not trained by Guanling. Don't get me wrong. I just agree to be the person in charge of the affair of Guanling in M Country because I think that Guanling could be said to be promising. I'm trained by my dad."

"Oh? Who is your dad?" Feeling puzzled, Casey hurriedly asked.

"My dad is the Chairman of H Country Alliance. He could be said to be the guardian of Chinatown. People living in Chinatown all know my dad. Besides, they all respect him very much." Caro spoke with pride.

Casey nodded and thought for a while. He didn't expect Caro to have such a connection.

It seemed that H Country Alliance was not just what it seemed to be. Terence certainly knew who Caro's father was. In this case, Terence still asked Caro to be the person in charge of the affairs of Guanling in M Country. There must be a reason for him to do so.

"Let's not talk about whether you can defeat Theodore or not now. You are so anxious to take revenge on the people of the Turner family. Could it be that you know nothing about executors?" Caro rolled her eyes and asked Casey another question.

"Executor? What is that?"

Chapter 687 Executors

Finding that Casey knew nothing about executor, Caro felt as if she was talking to a green hand.

In her impression, the boss of Guanling was far-sighted and deep and put everything under his absolute control. This was also the reason why she considered Guanling to be promising and agreed to be the person in charge of the affairs of Guanling in M Country. Not long ago, she received a message, knowing that the son of the boss of Guanling would come to M Country, take over the resources of Guanling and deal with the Turner family.

In her opinion, the son of Terence must be at least more excellent than overwhelming majority of people, otherwise Terence would absolutely not let him be in charge of dealing with the Turner family. It was a big event.

However, she was very disappointed by Casey. He seemed to be ordinary.

Being able to mastering the skill of inner force at such a young age, he could be said to be one in a million. However, she also mastered the skill of inner force at the same age. Therefore, she didn't consider Casey to be excellent just because of it.

Now, when this guy didn't know anything, he came to M Country and claimed that he was going to deal with the Turner family. In her opinion, this guy was just a reckless and self-righteous man. Although she was very disappointed at Casey, she just showed her disappointment in her eyes and expression for a while and didn't say anything. After that, she patiently explained to Casey what executor was. Casey had noticed the way Caro treated him changed. In fact, he was helpless. His teacher only taught him the skill of inner force and had never mentioned something like executor to him. Therefore, he knew nothing about the world of experts in fighting with inner force.

"Executor team is composed of experts in fighting with inner force. Their duty is to maintain order. Only people with inner force are eligible to know that there are executors."

"In the society, there are laws binding people. Only in this way can the world be peaceful. In the world of experts in fighting with inner force, something like that is also needed. Experts in fighting with inner force are thousands of times more powerful than ordinary people. If there isn't something like that, once there is a bad expert in fighting with inner force, it will be a great disaster for ordinary people."

"According to the rule made by executor, experts in fighting with inner force aren't allowed to freely attack ordinary people. If someone violates this rule, that person will be hunted down by executors. No matter where that person flee, they will find that person."

Hearing this, Casey immediately understood why there were few experts in fighting with inner force even in top families in the world. It was because they were bounded by executors. However, he soon realized that these so-called executors were not very efficient. At many times, they investigated and clarified the matter before they started to arrest the people who violated the rule. If they failed to check it out, the matter would naturally disappear.

Casey killed many people after he returned to B City, but there was no so-called executor coming to punish him.

He speculated that it was highly likely because executors didn't consider him to be an expert in fighting with inner force. After all, even if a person came back after disappearing for six months, it was very unlikely that that person had become an expert in fighting with inner force.

Besides, in the past, Casey was quite good at fighting. Even if he killed someone after coming back, executor would just consider him to be a powerful person among the ordinary people.

Certainly, a big factor was that Casey was lucky. After all, executor team was composed of experts in fighting with inner force. They must be very powerful. Maybe there was very few people who could escape punishment like Casey.

Before, Casey fought with Quentin and Micah in Kinmon Country. But it involved just experts in fighting with inner force and no ordinary people were hurt.

Therefore, executors didn't look into this matter.

"Apart from this rule, there are many rules, but I'm not going to tell you all of them. You just need to remember two rules: first, don't kill ordinary people; second, don't do evil things with inner force. As long as you obey these two rules, executors will generally not come to you." Caro went on speaking.

"Are these executors everywhere?"

Casey asked.

"Of course not. Executors only take charge of the experts in fighting with inner force of H Country. What people of other countries do certainly has nothing to do with them. Therefore, there are executors only in H Country and Chinatown around the world." Caro answered.

Casey frowned and said, "That's to say, when I take revenge on the Turner family, I can only kill Theodore. As for the rest of the people of the Turner family, I can only beat them up and I can't kill them. Right?"

"You can say so. You mustn't underestimate executors. There aren't as many executors in Chinatown as there are in H Country, but every member of executor team is the elite of the elite. Those who could become executors all have at least quite strong inner force. The leader of executor team in M Country is an expert in fighting with strong inner force." Caro spoke.

Casey raised his eyebrows.

Unexpectedly, executors were quite powerful. There was one expert in fighting with strong inner force in just an executor team. He thought that he had to be careful in the future. After all, he wouldn't be always lucky.

It would be too bad if he was caught by a few people when he was accompanying Sherry.

"In cities, no matter you want to fight against an ordinary person or an expert in fighting with strong inner force, you had better do that in the ring. As long as you fight in the presence of witnesses, even if your opponent is an ordinary person and is killed by you, the executors will turn a blind eye to it. After all, when people fight in the ring, whether they can survive or not depends on how well they fight. If someone is killed, that person could only blame himself or herself for not fighting well enough." Caro reminded. Casey thought for a moment and asked, "So you want me to kill Theodore in the ring?"

"It's your best choice." Caro answered. Casey nodded and didn't retort. It was really a good idea on the premise that he could find a chance to fight with Theodore in the ring.

"Thank you for your patient introduction. If you didn't tell me all these things, I might have gone to the Turner's house and killed all the people of the Turner family." Casey said with a smile.

Caro rolled her eyes at him and said, "I just don't want to get into trouble because of you."

"There are many opportunities for you to fight with Theodore in the ring. You don't have to be anxious. In the future several days, get familiar with this place first and learn the most basic things. Don't think about taking revenge on the Turner family before that."

"Ok, I'll follow the arrangement." Casey smiled. Since he was in her turf, he should follow her arrangement. When he was in H City, although Nadia liked to flirt with him, she listened to him.

Now, when he was in M Country, it was he that listened to Caro. Thinking of this, Casey somewhat sighed.

It seemed that he, as the young master of Guanling, had to convince Caro with his power. Otherwise, he would be looked down upon.

Caro stood up, turned around and went towards the door.

Casey hurriedly followed her and asked, "Where are we going now?"

"I didn't book a room in a hotel for you. Therefore, these days, you'll stay at my home."

"I'd like to remind you of one thing now. My dad dislikes Guanling. When you're at my home, you have better be smart. Otherwise, you'll be beaten up by my dad. He's an expert in fighting with strong inner force."

Chapter 688 Are You Sure?

Outside the cafe, Caro had ridden on her motorcycle.

Casey was a little embarrassed and asked, "Well, how can I go to your home? Shall I go there by taxi? And tell me the address, please."

Caro turned her head, gave Casey a glance and spoke, "Are you silly? You can go there on my motorcycle."

Casey hesitated for a moment. He had never been on a girl's motorcycle. But Caro had said so. If he refused, he would seem to be a little bashful.

Therefore, he also rode on the motorcycle.

Caro started the motorcycle. With a loud sound, Caro drove the motorcycle away at full speed along the road.

Judging from the fact that Caro drove at a very high speed, Caro was a sensation-seeker. Although Casey rarely drove a motorcycle, he had driven a racing car in the past. Therefore, when Caro drove at such a high speed, he didn't feel bad.

Before long, Caro stopped in front of a five-story building. This building had a very strong style of that of H Country. There was a board hanging above the gate with several words written on it: H Country Alliance.

There was a flag on each side of the board. On each flag, there was two words: Kung Fu.

Caro led Casey to the gate. After entering the building, there was a large old-fashioned living room. Inside, there was a screen with ancient paintings on it, a set of tables and chairs made of rosewood and a large empty space with a Tai ji Pattern on the ground. On both side of the space, there was a wooden dummy. It could be told in a glance that it was a living room of a family that learned traditional martial art.

At this moment, there were several people sitting in the living room and chatting. The person who sat in the host's seat was a strong and manly middle-aged man. He was exactly Nicolle Britt, the Chairman of H Country Alliance and the father of Caro.

The beard man dressed in a training suit sitting beside Nicolle was named Ulysses Lau. He was a friend of Nicolle and also a member of H Country Alliance.

The young man standing beside Ulysses was the son of Ulysses. He was named Vince Lau and was about the same age as Casey.

"Vince, as such young a man, has had quite strong inner force. He's really a genius rarely seen in a hundred years. Even Theodore, who studies with Grandmaster, has only quite strong inner force now. If Vince could study with a Grandmaster, he would be bound to be promising in the future." Nicolle said with a smile.

"You're flattering him! There are just a few Grandmaster in the world, and it's difficult to find one and study with him or her. I'm already very satisfied with Vince's current achievement." Ulysses said modestly.

Vince was smiling. There was a proud expression in his eyes.

Among the younger generation in Chinatown in M Country, only Theodore could be a match for him. Theodore made his achievements under the guidance of his Grandmaster while he made rapid progress without the guidance of Grandmaster. Therefore, he was naturally somewhat proud.

"You really don't need be too worried about Vince. If Caro was half as excellent as Vince, I wouldn't have to be so worried about her. Recently, she is getting involved in the affairs of Guanling instead of putting herself on the right track. Guanling is but a tourist spot. Even if it makes a lot of money, it's useless to us who learn martial art."

Nicolle sighed helplessly.

Right at this time, Caro came in with Casey. She looked unhappily at Nicolle and said, "Dad, it's impolite to speak ill of someone behind that person."

Nicolle, Ulysses and Vince all turned their heads and looked at Caro. Nicolle sneered and said, "Was I speaking ill of you? Could it be that I didn't tell the truth? Guanling is just a high-end amusement park. And you always spend your time and energy on such a meaningless thing. Could it be that I can't blame you for it?"

"Dad, I've told you many times that Guanling is not just a tourist spot. The man behind me is the son of the boss of Guanling. He..." When Caro mentioned Casey, she suddenly regretted it. She had intended to take Casey as a proof that Guanling was not just a tourist spot. However, she suddenly remembered that there was nothing special about Casey, so she didn't know what to say for a while.

"What! You should bring the son of the boss of Guanling home?" Nicolle shouted angrily at once and looked at Casey.

Ulysses and Vince also looked at Casey up and down. There was a hint of hostility to Casey in Vince's eyes. In his opinion, the reason why Caro was involved in the affairs of Guanling was possibly that she was blinded by the son of the boss of Guanling.

In his opinion, the son of the boss of Guanling was the same as the general rich second generation. This kind of people was generally good at speaking sweet words and Caro might have been fooled by his sweet words.

Vince thought highly of himself. He always believed that only the daughter of the Chairman of H Country Alliance could be a match for him. Although they didn't fall in love with each other, they knew each other well. Moreover, their parents also wanted them to marry each, though they didn't make it clear. Therefore, when Vince saw Casey, he considered Casey to be his rival in love. "Caro, you should know very well that this kind of person is just decadent playboys. You must have been blinded by his sweet words. Apart from being rich, I'm afraid that there is nothing good about him. You had better think it over." Vince spoke.

Nicolle understood what Vince meant at once and his eyes were wide open. He thought that what Vince said might be true.

He looked carefully at Casey and said, "Fella, this is not the place you should come to. And not everyone is eligible to approach my daughter. You had better leave here before I lose my temper. Otherwise, I'll take some action."

Nicolle clenched his fists, making a loud sound.

Casey was puzzled. He had just met Caro for the first time. Why did they say that he was a decadent rich second generation when he just came to Caro's home?

"Dad, Vince, what nonsense are you talking about? He's just my cooperative partner who has just come to M Country. So I'm going to show him around." Caro said somewhat angrily. "If you want to show him around, don't bring him home. We don't welcome such a useless rich second generation."

Nicolle said coldly.

"Guanling is not the kind of place you expected. And I'm not the useless rich second generation you mentioned. Even if you're the Chairman of H Country Alliance, you shouldn't be so arrogant."

Casey was not a coward and not everyone could bully him.

"He, he. That's to say, you consider yourself to be powerful?" Vince sneered and took two steps forward, "Uncle, let me deal with this guy. You don't have to be so angry just because of him."

After saying that, Vince looked at Casey and spoke, "Since you disagree with us, dare you fight with me? We all have learned martial arts and we can deal with everything by fighting. Can you, as a playboy, accept it?"

"Are you sure?" Casey smiled slightly and asked.

Chapter 689 He Is Powerful

Vince laughed. Hearing what Casey said, he just took off his upper outer garment and then went to one side of Tai ji Pattern.

Seeing that, Casey didn't say anything. He was looked down upon soon after he came here. If he didn't show them his power, they might really consider Guanling to be just a high-end amusement park.

When he was about to approach Vince, Caro stopped him. Then, she turned her head, looked at Vince and said, "You claimed that Casey was a playboy, but he's not. Now, he has also mastered the skill of inner force, though he has just mastered it. You have had quite strong inner force now. If you fight with Casey, it's unfair for Casey."

Vince raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that Casey had mastered the skill of inner force. However, he still wore a contemptuous expression. After all, there was a huge gap between the people who had just mastered the skill of inner force and the people with quite strong inner force.

"If that's the case, I don't have to waste my time. Being able to master the skill of inner force at your age, you could be said to be a little gifted. However, you're far from as good as the real genius. I hope that you can have self-knowledge."

Vince spoke. He was naturally referring to himself when he mentioned the real genius.

"Humph, he has just mastered the skill of inner force. It's not worthy of showing off. Caro, if you have free time, it would be better for you to stay with Vince.

Don't waste your time on an ordinary person." Nicolle said.

Caro didn't know how to explain to her father. Now, she somewhat regretted bringing Casey home. If she had expected the current situation, she would have booked a room in a hotel for Casey.

Casey passed by Caro and went towards Vince. In this situation, if he gave in, he would really be looked down upon by Nicolle and Vince.

Seeing that, Caro shouted with her eyes wide open, "Casey, what are you doing?"

Casey said with a smile, "He has said those words. If I don't fight with him, he would really believe that I'm afraid of him."

"Are you silly? He has quite strong inner force. You're no match for him!" Caro shouted somewhat anxiously.

Casey turned his head, looked at Caro with a smile and said, "I've never said that I've just mastered the skill of inner force."

Caro didn't think about what Casey meant. Because of the preconceived idea, she subconsciously thought that Casey couldn't defeat Vince.

Seeing that Casey insisted on fighting with him, Vince put on a playful smile and said, "Unexpectedly, you're not a coward. Well, then, I'll let you know how useless you are. Besides, I hope you can realize that it's sometimes better to be a coward."

Casey stood face to face with Vince. He didn't talk nonsense, but directly spoke, "Let's begin."

Vince twitched his lips. Then, with a loud shout, he clenched his fists, struck a pose and then quickly rushed to Casey. The members of Lau Fist had learned and used Hong Fist for generations. In the past, Hong Fist was very famous in H Country. A few decades ago, people throughout H Country all learned Hong Fist. However, due to the emergence of executor, the families that learned and used martial arts all went into hiding. One branch of Lau Fist moved to M Country and settled down here.

Hong Fist was powerful and could cause great harm to people. It was Hard Fist that was rarely seen. When fighting with an expert of Hong Fist, one should consider if he or she could resist the fists instead of how to find out his or her weak point.

Experts of Hong Fist always attacked in order to defend. They rarely cared about the weak points they showed, because their opponents would usually be knocked down because of failing to resist their fists before their opponents could attack their weak points.

Casey felt the air of forcefulness of Vince. He also realized how powerful Vince's moves were. However, the fighting skills his teachers taught him included the best skills of many martial arts. However powerful Hong Fist was, Casey would be able to find a way to knock down the people who used Hong Fist.

Moreover, Casey had long had strong inner force and strong outer force. Even if he fought with Vince with only force, he would be able to defeat Vince easily.

"This guy is really so reckless that he chooses to fight with Vince. If he loses later, dad will scold me because of it. At that time, I'm afraid that he wouldn't let me being involve in the affairs of Guanling anymore. The boss of Guanling is so smart. Why would he have such a stupid son?" Caro murmured unhappily.

Nicolle and Ulysses also went to one side of Tai ji Pattern and watched them fight. Obviously, in their opinion, Vince would definitely defeat Casey.

"This guy is not very weak. Having fought for such a long time with Vince, he should still not be defeated. He could be said to be a talented person.

Unfortunately, he's only the son of the boss of an amusement park." Nicolle said tonelessly.

Ulysses didn't respond to him. Instead, he watched Vince and Casey fight with a frown. He knew the characteristics of Hong Fist very well. It seemed that either of them could defeat each other now. However, Ulysses found that Casey had many chances to defeat Vince and that he had intended to do so but finally gave up.

Finding that, Ulysses was a little shocked. If that were the case, Casey might be much more powerful than Vince. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to put the fight under his absolute control. "Nicolle, you might have misjudged this people. He's more powerful than he seems to be. Vince has actually lost." Ulysses spoke.

Nicolle was a little shocked. He didn't expect Ulysses to say so. Then, he couldn't help looking carefully at Casey again.

After all, Nicolle was an expert in fighting with strong inner force. He soon found something unusual about Casey and noticed that Casey had given up many chances to defeat Vince. It seemed that he was trying to fight for a longer time with Vince because he didn't want Vince to lose face.

Nicolle nodded thoughtfully and said, "It seems that I've misjudged him. He's powerful."

Soon, Casey thought that he had done enough not to let Vince lose face and that it was time to put an end to the fighting. After that, he seized an opportunity and knocked Vince down.

Then, he took a deep breath and stopped.

"You lose."

Vince sat on the ground, staring at Casey in a daze. Never expecting that he would lose to Casey who had just mastered the skill of inner force, he was in disbelief.

Caro also watched it dumbfounded. Casey should defeat Vince who had quite strong inner force. Wasn't it meant that Casey had at least quite strong inner force?

She took a deep breath and finally realized that she had underestimated this guy, who seemed to be a little ordinary, from the very beginning. Casey turned around, looked at Nicolle and asked, "Now, do you still consider Guanling to be just a high-end amusement park?"

Chapter 690 The Change of Attitude
Nicolle laughed loudly. What Casey said was a little aggressive, but Nicolle didn't mind. He was straightforward. Before, he was indeed too self-righteous. Without knowing anything about Guanling, he just considered Guanling to be only an amusement park and thought that the son of the boss of Guanling was definitely weak.

Now, Casey had proved himself to be a powerful man. Nicolle was naturally willing to admit that he had been wrong. As the Chairman of H Country Alliance, he was broad-minded.

"Before, I did have misjudged you. I'm sorry. We, as martial artists, respect only powerful people. Being so powerful at such a young age, you're a rarely seen talent in the world. In H Country, there is only a few talented people like you. It seems that I really should know more about Guanling." Nicolle spoke.

Casey responded with a smile. Seeing that Nicolle was willing to apologize for what he had said, he had a better impression of him.

Ulysses also looked at Casey with a smile and asked, "Just now, I found that the moves you used are quite unique. I've seen many martial arts before, but I've never seen yours. May I ask who your teacher is?"

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you. My teacher has asked me not to do so." Casey spoke.

Ulysses nodded and didn't ask again.

Vince got up while gritting his teeth, saying, "Just now, I was just being careless, otherwise you wouldn't be able to find my weak points. Before, I gave up many chances to defeat you. Fight with me one more time. This time, I won't do that and you'll definitely lose!" Hearing that, Ulysses' face became dark at once and shouted at him, "Stop that nonsense. You really lost. Could it be that you don't think that you've lost face?"

"Father, he really found a chance just because I went easy on him.

Otherwise..." Vince was still unwilling to give up. Caro was there watching. If he just admitted that he lost to Casey, Caro would certainly have a much worse impression of him.

Ulysses was very angry. When they fought with each other before, it was obviously Casey that went easy on him.

Otherwise, Vince would have long been defeated. If Casey just wanted to win, he had long defeated Vince.

Now, Vince should claim that he lost to Casey because he went easy on Casey. It made Ulysses lose face.

"Shut up!" Ulysses shouted at Vince, "When you don't fight as well as others, you have to admit it. Don't make excuses for yourself. If you went on acting in this way, however gifted you are, you won't be able to make a great achievement!"

Only then did Vince shut up. But it could be seen that he was still not convinced. Nicolle turned his head, looked at Caro and said, "Caro, why do you just stand there? Prepare a room for him now. When he's in M Country, he'll live in our home."

"By the way, if you have any question about inner force, you can turn to him for help."

Caro looked at her father with a surprised expression. She didn't expect that her father would treat Casey in such a different way. It was totally different from the way he treated Casey before. Hearing that, Ulysses immediately sighed helplessly. What Nicolle meant was very obvious: he didn't mind his daughter having more contact with Casey.

And before Casey came here, Nicolle usually said those words to Vince. However, he couldn't say anything about it. After all, if it were him, he would definitely ask his daughter to have more contact with Casey. No one would refuse such a gifted genius.

When people met a better person, they would usually forget the previous one.

"By the way, what's your name? It's not good for me to always call you fella."

Nicolle asked while staring at Casey.

"Casey." Casey answered.

Nicolle nodded. Once again, he turned his head, looked at Caro and said, "Don't just stand still. Prepare a room for Casey now."

Caro finally gathered her wits. After giving Casey a puzzled glance, she said, "Come with me."

Casey gave Nicolle and Ulysses a fist-and-palm salute, after which he followed Caro into the house.

Soon, Caro led Casey to a guest room and said, "These days, live in this room. If you need anything, you can just tell me."

"Thank you." Casey said.

Caro didn't respond to him. Instead, she stared thoughtfully at Casey and asked, "Isn't it that you have just mastered the skill of inner force? Why are you so powerful? Did you deliberately pretend to have just mastered the skill of inner force before me?"

Casey was a little embarrassed. He looked at Caro and spoke, "I've never admitted that I've just mastered the skill of inner force. You had this idea yourself."

Caro recalled all the dialogue after she met Casey, and found that she had just considered Casey to be an expert in fighting who had just mastered the skill of inner force just because of the way Casey behaved.

And she could be said to have treated

Casey badly because of it. However, he didn't mind. On the contrary, he had been very calm about it. Thinking of this, Caro soon thought that she was far from as good as Casey.

She blushed because of embarrassment. Seeing that, Casey thought that Caro was lovelier than before.

"I...I'm sorry. I got you wrong before, so I had treated you badly. I'm sorry." Caro said apologetically.

Casey smiled and said, "It doesn't matter."

Caro thought: Casey was really broad-minded and powerful. And he was at the same age me...

Wait. Casey did change between deep breathing and normal breathing. It meant that Casey did have mastered the skill of inner force for a short time, at most definitely within one year.

And he did defeat Vince who had quite strong inner force. It meant that Casey also had quite strong inner force and that he was stronger than Vince.

After linking these two things together, Caro drew a conclusion: Casey learned the skill of inner force and had quite strong inner force within one year!

If a person could have quite strong inner force at Casey's age, that person was one in a million. If one person learned the skill of inner force and had quite strong inner force within one year, that person was not like human being.

Caro looked at Casey in disbelief and spoke in a trembling voice, "You...You learned the skill of inner force and had quite strong inner force within one year."

It...It's too unbelievable!"

Hearing that, Casey said with a smile,
"You're wrong."

"Impossible! You can't fool me. I'm absolutely right." Caro spoke with great certainty.

Casey shrugged and didn't argue with her. But she was really wrong.

Now, Casey had strong inner force rather than quite strong inner force.

Moreover, it took him half a year rather than a year.

She believed her speculation too much again.

Chapter 691 My Nickname Is God of Death

In the next two days, Casey lived in H Country Alliance and knew a lot about this place under the help of Caro.

The original intention of founding H Country Alliance was to protect the people of H Country who settled down in M Country from being bullied. When the people of H Country first built Chinatown here, the people of M Country were against them. So they often came to make trouble for the people of H Country.

In order to resist the people of M Country, the people of H Country who moved to here gathered together and set up H Country Alliance. At that time, the Chairman of H Country Alliance was Caro's grandfather.

The people of M Country had always believed that people of H Country were not as good as them. Thinking that they were strong, people of M Country often came to Chinatown to bully ordinary people. At this time, the people of H

Country Alliance would deal with it by fighting with the people of M Country in the ring.

As a martial artist who had learned traditional martial arts, even if Nicolle was not as tall as the people of M Country, he could defeat them easily.

Therefore, after fighting with the people of M Country in the ring for many times, the people of M Country finally realized that the people of H Country were powerful. Now, few people dared to come here to make trouble again.

Apart from working as the Chairman of H Country Alliance, Nicolle also set up a martial club and taught the people living in Chinatown some basic fighting skills so that they could protect themselves.

After knowing what Nicolle had done for Chinatown, Casey somewhat respected him. After all, without Nicolle, the people of Chinatown wouldn't be able to live in such peace now.

In these two days, Nicolle treated Casey in a surprisingly good way. In Nicolle's opinion, Casey was a genius rarely seen in a thousand years, so he naturally should treat Casey well.

At the beginning, Casey couldn't understand it. Later, he learned one fact: among the younger generation in Chinatown in M Country, there were only two people having quite strong inner force between their twenties and thirties. One was Theodore and the other was Vince.

Other people who had inner force were at least 40 years old. When taking age into consideration, Casey was indeed a man in a million.

Caro also treated Casey in a much different way. However, she admired Casey instead of falling in love with him after knowing that he was powerful like some girls.

In essence, Caro was a cold girl.

On one afternoon, when Casey was watching the students of Nicolle practicing fighting skills in martial arts practising field in H Country Alliance, Caro came close to him and said, "I've figured out a way to let you fight with Theodore in the ring."

Casey's eyes lit up. He asked, "What?" "Come with me." Caro didn't just tell him. She turned around and came out of martial arts practising field.

Casey quickly followed her. They came to a study. After that, Caro took out a stack of documents and handed them to Casey.

"These days, there are new experts in fighting in the Turner family. They're not as powerful as those who have inner force, but they're much more powerful than ordinary experts in fighting. I sent someone to observe these people carefully for some time, finding that they became so powerful possibly because they has learned a simplified deep breathing from Theodore. Theodore should have developed it based on the deep breathing of inner force."

"In this way, the Turner family can have a group of powerful experts in fighting who will not be supervised by executor. These days, the Turner family has started to expand with these experts in fighting."

Hearing that, Casey nodded. He was not very astonished. Before he came to M Country, he had already met Bradshaw and his companions. It seemed that Theodore wanted to raise the status of the Turner family with these people.

"To let these experts have more fighting experience, these days, Theodore has been arranging for these experts in fighting to fight in an underground boxing field near Chinatown."

"If you go to this underground boxing field and defeat all the experts in fighting of the Turner family, Theodore will certainly attach great importance to it. At that time, he may fight with you in the ring in person. Certainly, you can't let them know who you are, otherwise Theodore will definitely know your purpose. Then, he may ask his teacher to kill you. Executors can't deal with Grandmaster."

Casey agreed. His greatest advantage was that the people of the Turner family didn't know that he was alive and that he had come to M Country.

Therefore, Casey had the opportunity to kill Theodore with the simplest method. Once Theodore knew that he had come to M Country and that he had had strong inner force, Theodore would absolutely take some action. Moreover, his teacher was a Grandmaster. Once Theodore turned to this Grandmaster for help, it was impossible for Casey to take revenge on Theodore. After all, Casey's teacher wouldn't specially come to M Country for Casey.

"It works. Where is that underground boxing field? I'll go there tonight." Casey spoke.

"I'll go with you in the evening." Caro blinked and said.

Casey didn't mind. After nodding, he began to read the documents Caro handed to him. These documents were about the experts in fighting of the Turner family. There were marks made by Caro. Looking at the beautiful handwriting, Casey couldn't help smiling.

"Why are you smiling?" Caro asked.

"I didn't expect you to have a pretty handwriting." Casey replied.

Caro immediately glared at Casey and asked, "Why? Could it be that I seem to be someone who have a bad handwriting?"

"No, no. Your handwriting is as beautiful as you." Casey laughed and hurriedly said.

Only then did Caro stop looking coldly at Casey. She thought: considering the words you just said, I would be the bigger person and forgive you.

...

In the evening. In a bar that was not far away from Chinatown.

Caro and Casey passed through the hall of the bar. Caro's figure was eye-catching, so many people of M Country kept whistling to her. Some of them even approached her and talked to her, but they were all scared and gave up when Caro looked at them coldly.

They came close to a door at the end of the bar. The door was opened after Caro gave it a push. They went in and heard shouts that were louder than the music of the bar.

This was the underground boxing field

Caro mentioned.

Fight was always people's favorite competitive sport, no matter where they were. Therefore, underground boxing field was not rarely seen in M Country. At this moment, Casey was holding a mask. It looked the same as the hero in the cartoon "GOD OF DEATH". And Casey bought it on the way Casey came to this place.

Soon after they entered the underground boxing field, Casey wore that mask.

"Didn't you say that we should use a nickname when we fight in the ring here? From now on, my nickname is God of Death." Casey spoke to Caro with a smile.

Caro turned her head, looked at the mask that was the same as a cartoon character, rolled her eyes and said in a lowly voice, "Childish."

Chapter 692 Casey's Mercy

There were two tall, shirtless men fighting in the ring. People around were shouting loudly. It was noisy in the underground boxing field.

The people of M Country were tall.

Those who dared to fight in the ring were confident in themselves.

Therefore, in the underground boxing field of M Country, the players who fought in the ring were generally very tall and strong.

Besides, these people all had large muscles, which made them seem to be more powerful.

Casey and Caro approached the ring and looked at the people who were fighting in the ring.

"The experts in fighting of the Turner family are super powerful, so they will only send one of them here every day. That person will fight all night. If you want to attract the attention of Theodore, you have to come here every day and defeat every expert in fighting of the Turner family." Caro spoke. Casey nodded and didn't say anything. It was strange that people like them should come here together. One of them was a sexy oriental beauty while the other was a man wearing a cartoon mask. They attracted the attention of many people. However, most people looked at them with mocking eyes after they saw the mask Casey wore. Soon, the two people in the ring ended the fight. The loser was seriously injured and was taken down the ring while the winner shouted for several minutes in the ring. However, that person didn't intend to continue to fight. After shouting, he suddenly jumped out of the ring. That was because he noticed that someone was walking towards the ring. That was the expert in fighting of the Turner family. Casey also saw that person. He had seen information about this person in the documents Caro gave him. He remembered that this person was named Mose Turner and that this person was a member of the second group of experts in fighting trained by Theodore. After coming close to the ring, Mose jumped onto the ring and then looked at all the people with proud eyes, asking,

"If anyone wants to fight with me, come here."

Previously, it was noisy in the underground boxing field. Now, it suddenly became a bit quiet. None of people present dared to fight with Mose, including the players trained by the underground boxing field.

These days, the experts in fighting of the Turner family had knocked down all the famous and unknown people in the underground boxing field. Everyone knew how powerful the people of the Turner family were and knew that they would die if they fought with the people of the Turner family. Therefore, when seeing the people of the Turner family now, no one dared to go to the ring.

Seeing that it was quiet in the underground boxing field and that no one dared to fight with him, Mose twitched his lips and said coldly, "Why, could it be that this underground boxing field has closed now? Why does no one come to the ring to fight with me?"

The staff member of the boxing field was very anxious. He certainly knew how powerful Mose was. If he sent players to fight with him, the players would only be beaten up. It was a great loss to the boxing field. However, if he didn't sent anyone to fight with him, the audience would definitely be unhappy. He didn't know what to do.

Just when the staff members of the boxing field sighed helplessly, someone jumped onto the ring.

People present all looked up at the ring, finding that the people who jumped onto the ring should be wearing a cartoon mask.

They all put on a puzzled expression and looked at Casey with contempt. The staff member was also somewhat curious about why it was a person wearing a cartoon mask that jumped onto the ring. However, someone going to fight with Mose was better than no one going to fight with Mose. Therefore, he immediately picked up the microphone and spoke in English, "It seems that we still have a friend who dares to take risks tonight. I believe that they will have a wonderful fight." The audience burst into laughter at once.

"A wonderful fight? I'm afraid that it will be a joke. That man is even wearing a cartoon mask. Could it be that he comes here to do cartoon role-playing?" Someone sneered.

The staff member put on an embarrassed smile and went on speaking, "Friend, before you begin to fight, we need to know your name. Please tell us loudly yourself!"

"God of Death." Casey spoke in a deep and clear voice in the English.

The audience laughed again. They seemingly considered Casey to be someone to come here to amuse them.

"This guy should dare to call himself God of Death. Does he really believe that he can casually brag after wearing a mask of the hero of GOD OF DEATH? It will be amusing if he is beaten up, can't fight back and finally dies later."

"Could it be that he is a funnyman temporarily sent to fight with that person when no one dares to go to fight with that person? If that was the case, it would be interesting. I've begun to be interested in watching this person get beaten up."

...

Caro looked at Casey with a helpless expression. She thought: as an adult, he was still so childish. Could it be that men would really be always childish?

At this moment, a muscular man approached Caro and said with a smile, "Just now, I saw you came here with the men in the ring. You've seen that he's a joke. If you stay with him, you'll lose face. What about staying with me tonight? You'll have a wonderful experience."

As he spoke, he showed off his muscles to Caro.

Caro gave that man a glance with a murderous look and spoke coldly, "Go away!"

Mose also gave Casey a playful glance and spoke, "I don't know whether you're God of Death or not. However, considering the mask you're wearing, I can send you to the real God of Death."

Under the mask, Casey put on a playful smile. The man in front of him had no idea how powerful his opponent was today.

"I'm afraid that you don't have the ability to do so. You're just powerful when you're fighting with ordinary people. Today, I'll let you know what the real power is like." Casey spoke with a smile. Mose couldn't hide his contempt. Then, he didn't say anything more. After warming up for a while, he was about to attack Casey.

"How dare you boast like that? You're but a clown, but you should dare to talk about power with me. Take that!"

Mose rushed to Casey in an instant and then tried to punch Casey on the top of his skull.

For ordinary people, he moved very fast. However, in Casey's opinion, he moved as slowly as a tortoise.

Casey raised one hand gently and grabbed Mose by the wrist. Then, he pushed it back violently, after which it was broken.

Previously, Mose was confident. Now, he wore a painful expression and subconsciously wanted to retreat. However, at this moment, Casey gave his knee a kick.

With a sound, Mose knelt down on one knee. There were many beads of sweat on his forehead. In such a short time, one of his wrists and one of his legs were broken. However powerful he was, he would never be able to fight with great skills in the future.

Not killing him, Casey had showed his greatest mercy to the people of the Turner family.

Chapter 693 A Shameless Move

"Are...Are you an expert in fighting with inner force?" Mose endured the pain and spoke to Casey.

Casey lowered his head and looked at Mose. He wore a mask so it was impossible for others to see his expression. He seemed to be colder because of it. When people looked at him, they would feel as if God of Death was really here.

"Why...Why? There is no enmity between you and me. Why did you injure me seriously?" Mose wore a painful expression.

"There's no need for me to tell you that. You only need to know that this is your fate." Casey said tonelessly.

At this moment, all the people widened their eyes in shock and watched the man wearing a cartoon mask in disbelief. It never occurred to them that he should have broken one wrist and one leg of Mose in a few seconds, making Mose unable to fight in the rest of his life.

Knowing that they had misjudged Casey, those who had laughed at Casey were all ashamed.

If Casey said again that his nickname was God of Death now, no one would laugh at him. According to his performance in the fight, even if Casey was not God of Death, he was not far from as powerful as God of Death.

It was quiet in the boxing field for a short time. Then, many people screamed. All of them began to shout the word "God of Death".

The man who talked to Caro was shocked now. Thinking of the remark he had just made to Casey, he was embarrassed. He didn't anticipate that Casey would be so powerful.

At this time, Caro turned her head, looked at him and spoke, "Didn't you think that you're very powerful? Go to the ring to defeat him, and I'll give you what you want."

That man was immediately afraid, speaking, "No...No, I was just kidding. I'm really sorry. I won't do that anymore."

Caro sneered, "Rubbish. You dare not to go to fight with him, but I dare to do so."

After saying that, she jumped onto the ring and came close to Casey.

At this time, Casey had just dealt with Mose and kicked him out of the ring.

Just now, he hit Mose with great strength. Mose would be useless in the future. Even if he was alive, he couldn't do anything for the Turner family.

Just when he was about to leave the ring, he saw Caro who had been in the ring. He was stunned at once.

"What're you doing?" Casey asked.

"I come to challenge you. Don't talk nonsense. Just begin to fight." Caro spoke.

Casey was a little embarrassed and said, "Don't joke with me. Get out of the ring. You're no match for me."

"So what? I want to know how long I can fight with you before I'm defeated. You don't have to go easy on me." Caro spoke.

She didn't suddenly have the idea of challenging Casey in the ring. She had long wanted to fight with Casey and seen how far away she was from as powerful as Casey who her father considered to be a genius.

There happened to be a ring here today, so she didn't want to miss this opportunity. She wanted to seriously fight against Casey once. She knew that she would lose, but she didn't mind.

Anyway, she was an expert in fighting with inner force and Casey couldn't break her arms and legs in a few seconds like he did to Mose.

Seeing that Caro was serious, Casey asked, "Are you really going to fight against me?"

Caro nodded earnestly and then struck a pose, indicating that she would begin to fight soon.

Casey smiled and didn't refuse. If she wanted to fight against him, he would agree.

He also struck a pose and said with a smile, "Just begin."

Seeing that a girl was about to challenge Casey, the audience cheered up at once. They were more excited than they were at any time.

Caro didn't talk nonsense and directly rushed to Casey. She seemed to be a weak girl. However, when she began to fight against Casey, she totally changed. Now, she had a strong air of forcefulness that was no worse than that of a man.

Casey was not going to try his best to fight with Caro. Caro had just mastered the skill of inner force, so Casey was going to fight with Caro in the way someone who had just mastered the skill of inner force did.

The martial art Caro learned was Mizong Fist. It was passed down from generations to generations among the Britt family.

Among martial arts of H Country, Mizong Fist was not particularly famous. However, it was as powerful as Hong Fist. Moreover, after it was improved by Nicolle, it could be said to be among the first-class fist position. The reason why Nicolle could be the Chairman of H

Country Alliance for so many years was that he mastered Mizong Fist well. Mizong Fist had the characteristics of making it impossible for the opponent to foresee next move of people of the Britt family by combining real moves and fake moves. When fighting with experts of Mizong Fist, one might easily be fooled by fake moves and then the fight would be under the control of the expert of Mizong Fist.

Caro had mastered Mizong Fist very well. As a girl, she had been very excellent at it. With the inner force she just had, she fought with Casey with more than a hundred moves and almost succeeded in cheating Casey several times.

Of course, Casey was going easy on her and tried to let her have a better understanding of Mizong Fist in this way.

As he fought with Caro, Casey thought that Mizong Fist was quite interesting, so he began to imitate it. Although he didn't learn the essence of it, he could easily imitate the moves.

Before long, Casey had learned to fool Caro with fake moves, making it impossible for Caro to guess when he would really attack her.

Caro looked at Casey with some surprise. She had learned Mizong Fist for many years. She could master Mizong Fist well because Nicolle trained her strictly from an early age.

However, Casey should somewhat get the hang of Mizong Fist just after fighting with her for a while. Wasn't he too smart?

Comparisons are really odious. Before meeting Casey, Casey always considered herself to be a genius. As for Vince, she considered him to be a genius who was more gifted than her. However, Vince also became so powerful by making a lot of effort from childhood.

However, Casey was so gifted that he mastered the skill and had quite strong inner force within only one year. Now, he mastered some of the essential points of Mizong Fist in just over ten minutes. She couldn't help being jealous of him.

After fighting with Caro with a few more moves, Casey thought that it was almost time to put an end to the fight.

Therefore, he used several fake moves. Then, he stretched out his hand in the shape of a claw to Caro, trying to put an end to the fight in this way.

Caro was fooled by the fake moves of Casey and put her hands away from her chest, exposing her chest. And Casey was about to grab her by the clothing over her chest.

Casey was used to fighting with men, so he didn't realize that it was appropriate to use this move. He could put an end to this fight by grasping the clothing on Caro's chest and asking her to admit that she had lost.

However, after he stretched out his arm, he realized that the body of men were different from that of women. What Casey saw was not the chest of a man, but the breast of a woman.

And Casey's hand was in the shape of a claw at this moment. It seemed as if he were going to touch the breast of Caro. Seeing his hand and finding where he was about to touch, Caro widened her eyes in shock. Not knowing what to do, she stood still and then blushed.

"You bastard! What do you want to do?"

Caro screamed.

Casey stopped just the moment before he touched the breast of Caro. At this moment, Caro had already closed her eyes and had even given up resisting.

Casey was secretly relieved.

Fortunately, he didn't try his best, otherwise he wouldn't be able to stop. After quite a while, Caro still didn't feel that Casey touched her breast. She was puzzled and then opened her eyes, finding that Casey had already withdrawn his hand.

Casey coughed lightly, pretended to be calm and spoke, "You've lost. Let's go."

Caro stared at Casey dumbfounded.

Judging from the way he behaved, he seemed to have deliberately molested her with that indecent move. Now, he acted as if nothing had happened and even claimed that she had lost. What did he mean?

"Casey, you're a despicable, shameless and obscene bastard. I didn't expect you to be such a person. You should use that shameless move on me! You're shameless!"

Caro's face was all red. After shouting at Casey, she jumped out of the ring and walked fast out of the boxing field.

Casey was helpless. He could swear that he really didn't mean to do that just now. Before, he had only fought with men, so he never thought of that situation. That was why he would use that move on Caro.

Chapter 694 A Member of An Executor Team

On the way back, Caro's face had always been red. Casey followed her and explained it to her several times. However, she didn't listen and kept calling him a shameless molester. Casey didn't know what to do. He realized that it was impossible for Caro to consider him to be a true gentleman. Besides, he speculated that people generally dared not to molest Caro who was cold and good at fighting.

That was the reason why she had such a strong reaction when Casey nearly touched her breast.

However, when Caro blushed, she was lovelier and more lovable than she was when she looked cold.

After they were back in H Country Alliance, Caro totally ignored Nicolle, who was doing martial art training in the hall, and went straight back to her room. Nicolle was confused. It was the first time for him to see Caro act in that way. It must be noted that Caro had always been calm and had never been so anxious in the past.

"What's wrong with Caro? Did you two get into any trouble just now?" Seeing Casey come in, Nicolle asked.

Casey smiled with embarrassment and said, "She had a fight with me, and she lost. Maybe she is unhappy because of it."

Nicolle smiled and said, "She has just mastered inner force. Isn't it normal that she is no match for you? She has been stubborn since she was a child."

Casey was so embarrassed that he didn't want to talk about it anymore. Therefore, he just casually said a few words in return, after which he went back to his room.

In the next few days, Casey went to the underground boxing field with a mask and challenged the experts in fighting trained by Theodore every night. Casey broke the arms and legs of all these experts in fighting when they fought. He became very famous in the underground boxing field because of it.

Soon, God of Death was known to all people living in the area where the underground boxing field was located, attracting a huge audience for the underground boxing field. Every night, the underground boxing field would be crowded before the boxing match began.

Caro just went to the underground boxing field with Casey on the first day. In the next few days, she always ignored Casey. Even if she met Casey, she would stare at Casey with angry eyes as if he were her enemy.

It was the fifth day for Casey to challenge the experts in fighting of the Turner family in the underground boxing field.

After easily crippling an expert in fighting of the Turner family, Casey left the ring without hesitation.

The audience were all shouting his nickname "God of Death" with excitement. The reason why they came the underground boxing field was that they wanted to watch Casey fight.

After getting out of the ring, Casey didn't just leave. Instead, to find out whether the people of the Turner family had come here, he waited here for a while. In the following five minutes, he didn't find any suspicious person. After that, Casey came out of the underground boxing field.

Not long after Casey went along the road, he found that someone was following him. He thought that this person was sent by the Turner family. When he came to the entrance to an alley, he made a turn and entered the alley.

Seeing that, the person who was following Casey also hurriedly entered the alley. When he found that Casey was standing and looking at him, he put on a smile, "Unexpectedly, you found it." Casey didn't take off his mask and looked at this people up and down through the holes on the mask. This person was a thin man who was in his forties and was wearing a pair of glasses.

This man seemed to have nothing to do with martial arts by any standard.

However, Casey found that he was not an ordinary people.

He was a real inner force expert.

"Are you sent by the Turner family?"

Casey asked.

That man was stunned for a moment and then spoke, "Can I introduce myself? My name is Tony. I'm a member of an Executor team in Chinatown in M Country. Now, I demand that you take off your mask and show me your real look."

Casey was a little surprised.

Unexpectedly, it was a member of an Executor team who followed him.

Although he had already known that there were Executors, it was the first time for Casey to meet a member of an Executor team.

This person didn't give Casey a good impression. He was a bit arrogant. Even if he was a member of an Executor team, he should not have the right to order Casey to take off his mask.

"I'm sorry, but I don't want to take off my mask. Just tell me the reason why you followed me." Casey spoke tonelessly.

Tony immediately got annoyed. In his view, this young man, who was in his twenties, should be respectful to him, an Executor. Unexpectedly, he should be so arrogant that he dared to refuse him.

"You're indeed arrogant. Being able to mastering inner force in your twenties, you're indeed a genius. However, even so, you can't treat me in an arrogant way. Listen, people as powerful as you are just eligible to be the members of Executor team." Tony talked as if he were Casey's senior.

Thinking that this person was too self-righteous, Casey was a little speechless.

"Get to the point. Why did you follow me?" Casey asked again.

Seeing that Casey was still not respectful to him, Tony was angrier.

However, as an elder, he was forgiving of Casey who was young. So he spoke, "I've observed you for a few days. You should be someone who have just mastered inner force. These days, you fought with the people of the Turner family with inner force. Although you did that in the ring, you did it too many times. I'm here to warn you not to harm too many people without inner force. Otherwise, we, Executors, will punish you."

"There is enmity between the Turner family and me. I've restrained myself from going to the Turner's house to kill them. When Theodore comes to fight with me, I'll stop it." Casey said tonelessly.

Tony raised his eyebrows and said, "You had better give it up. Theodore is a student of a Grandmaster, and he has been in initial stage. You're no match for him."

Tony speculated that Casey had just had inner force. There were very few people who could be in initial stage in his or her twenties. There were only two such person in Chinatown of M Country. And Tony himself also mastered inner force in his twenties and entered initial stage in his forties.

Hearing that, Casey thought that it was meaningless to go on talking to Tony, so he just said, "It's none of your business." After saying that, he turned around and walked to the other end of the alley.

"Boy, I haven't seen your face yet. As an Executor, I must know your identity!"

Tony shouted at Casey.

Casey ignored him and walked faster.

Tony chased Casey while Casey tried to get rid of Tony. Both of them ran fast in the alley.

Finally, Tony missed Casey at a corner. He cursed, "Fella, you run fast. The next time I meet you, I'll definitely take off your mask!"

...

In the next night, Casey went to the underground boxing field again. Seeing him, people present all cheered. Right at this moment, Casey saw Theodore who stood not far away from the ring. He immediately narrowed his eyes.

Chapter 695 You Get in My Way

At this moment, there was a tall man in a white karate uniform in the ring. He was named Billy and was the champion of M Country National Karate Competition. He was very famous in M Country. He got to know something about God of Death, so he came here to challenge Casey.

"The guy, who calls himself God of Death, comes to the ring now. Today, I'll defeat you and make it clear to everyone that the so-called martial art of H Country is far from as good as Karate!"

At this moment, the staff member of the boxing field picked up the microphone and spoke to enliven the atmosphere.

"As we all know, Billy is the champion of National Karate Competition! We all know how powerful he is. Basically, his opponents were all stretched down from the ring in the end!"

"In our country, Billy is called the Barbarian King. Once, someone speculated that there was no one who could be match for Billy in M Country, and Billy had proved it. His opponents were all knocked down!"

"And today, Billy comes here to challenge God of Death who has ranked first in our boxing field for five days!

Who on earth will win this fight? I believe that you're all waiting to watch the fight!"

"Why not shout the name of the person who you believe will win the fight tonight? Let them hear your voice!"

The audience immediately began to shout the nickname "God of Death" and the nickname "the Barbarian King" loudly. Soon, their voice filled the entire underground boxing field. However, soon, the voice of people shouting "the Barbarian King" drown out the voice of the people shouting "God of Death".

Billy was well-known for being the champion of karate match, so many people thought highly of him. Casey was also very good at fighting, but he had just come to this underground boxing field for a few days. So more people believed that Billy would be able to defeat Casey.

"Martial arts of H Country are rubbish!
Today, I'll prove it to you all!" Finding that so many people believed that he would win, Billy put on a proud expression and shouted to the audience.

At this moment, Casey had just looked away from Theodore. When he heard what Billy was shouting, he jumped onto the ring.

"You, a guy of H Country, can do nothing but perform. Your martial arts are just rubbish. Today, I'll prove to everyone that martial arts of H Country are very useless!"

Billy shouted at Casey. After that, he struck two poses to show off his muscles with a ferocious expression. "You get in my way." Casey just spoke to Billy tonelessly. After that, he took a step forward and gave Billy a kick in the chest. Immediately, Billy was kicked out of the ring and fell heavily on the ground.

People, who were still shouting Billy's name, were immediately dumbfounded. Their mouths were open, but they couldn't make a sound. Some of them were so shocked that their mouths were wide open.

In a short time, it was quiet in the underground boxing field. Soon after that, people, who believed that God of Death would win, shouted "God of Death" in a crazy way. They were shocked by the kick Casey gave Billy. No one had expected that the champion of karate match, who was believed to be very powerful, would be kicked out of the ring by Casey.

The staff member of the underground boxing field had hoped that there would be a wonderful fight between Casey and Billy. Unexpectedly, the fight ended so soon. He was really embarrassed.

Billy got up. He realized that he had lost his face today. He should lose to Casey just after Casey gave him a kick! It meant that he proved that karate was far from as good as martial arts of H Country.

Worrying that people who believed that he would win would come to ask him why he lost so soon later, he quietly left in a hurry.

At a corner in the underground boxing field, Tony was staring dismissively at Casey and muttered, "He's indeed a guy who loves to show off. However, he could only beat these ordinary people. Today, Theodore is here. It seems that he comes here to come to this guy. I'll see how he'll deal with Theodore."

After giving Casey, who was in the ring, a glance, Theodore narrowed his eyes at once. He had a feeling of familiarity. He seemed to have met this people somewhere.

"Mr. Theodore, it's this masked man who has crippled our five experts in fighting." The person beside Theodore spoke.

Theodore nodded. He didn't attach much importance to the person in the ring. After all, he was very powerful and it would be easy for him to deal with the person in the ring.

At this moment, Casey turned his head and looked at Theodore. Although Theodore couldn't see the expression of Casey, he knew that the guy in the ring seemingly wanted to kill him.

"It's interesting. The reason why he crippled the experts in fighting of my family should be to make me come to him. I'll have a fight with him." After saying that, Theodore jumped and went to the ring by stepping on the shoulders of several people.

The audience cheered again. Just now, the fight between Casey and Billy ended before they became excited. Now, a person who seemed to be very powerful went to the ring, so they became excited.

Now, they considered martial arts of H Country to be extremely brilliant. In their opinion, it would be too great if one expert in fighting of H Country would fight with another expert in fighting of H Country.

Theodore gave Casey a glance and asked, "Who're you? Why did you deal with my family?"

"An enemy." Casey spoke tonelessly. Theodore twitched his lips and said, "My family has many enemies. Those who wanted to take revenge on us were all dead. It should be not easy for you to enter initial stage. If you consider working for my family, I might let you off."

"Work for the Turner family? Even if I agree, I'm afraid that you dare not to employ me." Casey laughed.

"Capable person choose the right leader to serve. What happened in the past has gone. Why dare I not to employ you?"

Theodore spoke with a smile.

Casey narrowed his eyes and asked, "Theodore, is it that you really didn't recognize me?"

Theodore looked at Casey up and down again, speaking, "I have a feeling of familiarity, but I can't remember who you are at this moment. I have too many enemies."

Casey was not going to keep Theodore guessing. He raised his hand and took off the mask.

Casey wore a playful smile. When Theodore saw his face, his eyes widened at once.

People present were all thrilled at Casey's taking off his mask. After looking at Casey, Tony frowned and murmured, "He's the fella living in H Country Alliance recently?"

"Why, are you shocked?" Casey asked with a smile.

He was not worried that Theodore would be well prepared to deal with him during the time he took off his mask. Theodore had been in the ring, and Casey was going to kill him.

Chapter 696 Fight Against Theodore

Theodore stared at Casey for a few seconds. Then, his astonished look gradually changed into a playful look.

"In fact, I just thought of several people, but I really didn't expect that it would be you. Unexpectedly, you were so lucky that you survived after falling off such a high cliff." Theodore said with a smile.

"Maybe it was God that didn't want me to die. After all, I haven't destroyed the Turner family yet. How could I die easily?" Casey spoke.

Theodore twitched his lips and said, "As a matter of fact, after you survived, you should cherish your life. You can live a happy life in H Country. As long as I don't know that you are still alive, you'll be able to live a carefree life in the rest of your life. However, you made the stupidest choice."

"Do you believe that you can survive after fighting with me in this ring?"

"Maybe you're totally wrong." Casey said.

Theodore laughed and said, "Why, could it be that you believe that you have a chance to kill me in this ring?"

"It's not that I have a chance to kill you. I'll definitely kill you." Casey put on an evil smile.

"Do you think that you're able to defeat me just after you have inner force?

Casey, listen, the levels of inner force expects are different. And my teacher is a Grandmaster. You're not very powerful. Do you think it possible for you to defeat me now?" Theodore questioned.

"Let's fight, and then you'll know it."

Casey spoke.

Theodore sneered and decided to stop talking nonsense with Casey. He said,
"Well, I'll let you know one thing. In front of me, you're always as weak as an ant!"

After saying that, he became very serious and immediately rushed to Casey. He tried to give Casey a punch in the face with great strength.

Casey quickly responded to it. He dodged Theodore's hand and then attacked his chest with a hand.

They attacked each other dozens of times. They moved so quick that people present all screamed in surprise.

When Theodore attacked Casey on Moon Island, Theodore didn't try his best. Instead, he just used as much strength as Casey had, so that he could make Casey believe that he could win.

This time, Casey did the same thing that Theodore had done. He fought in a way as if he were just in initial stage. He was going to fight with Theodore for a while before killing him.

After Theodore and Casey used many moves to attack each other, Theodore frowned. Before, he thought that Casey came to take revenge on him just after he had just mastered inner force.

Unexpectedly, Casey has already been in initial stage. It was really beyond his expectation.

Tony watched two inner force experts in initial stage fight in the ring with a shocked expression. He stared at Casey and couldn't look away.

"This...This boy should be in initial stage? How is it possible! We should have no any record of him, an inner force expert in initial stage! Could it be that he entered initial stage in a very short time so that we failed to record something about him in time?"

Tony had firmly believed that Casey had just mastered inner force and that Casey would be beaten up after provoking Theodore. However, he didn't expect that there would be a third genius who could enter initial stage in his twenties in Chinatown of M Country. Remembering how Casey treated him yesterday, Tony suddenly understood one thing: He was so powerful. No wonder he didn't take me seriously. Remembering that he entered initial stage at the age of forty, Tony was envious of Casey.

Could it be that there were so many geniuses now? The captain just assigned me a task at random, but I should run into such a rarely seen genius.

Humph, I shouldn't look down upon myself. Even if this guy was a genius, he was just in initial stage. I was no much worse than him. He did treat me in too bad a way yesterday. Even just considering that I was an elder, he shouldn't have treated me like that. In the ring, Casey's fist met Theodore's fist. Their inner force was so strong that both of them took a few steps back.

Theodore stared at Casey and said coldly, "No wonder you dared to brag in front of me. It turns out that you have been in initial stage. Unexpectedly, you should be able to become so powerful in such a short time. You have more potential than I have anticipated."

Casey smiled and said, "Then, why don't you just admit that you lose to me and let me kill you? In this way, we can save a lot of time."

Theodore sneered and spoke, "Don't think too highly of yourself. Do you think that you can kill me after you're in initial stage? Naive!"

After saying that, Theodore had a stronger air of forcefulness. In a very short time, he became twice as powerful as before.

Casey narrowed his eyes. It was beyond his expectation that Theodore didn't show him how powerful he really was before. He should have been in medium stage.

Theodore looked at Casey with a sneer, and said, "Being able to be in initial stage in your twenties, you're a genius in a million. However, it should be beyond your imagination that I can enter medium stage at my age, right?"

"My teacher is a Grandmaster. How many people in the world can become Grandmaster? Even if I've just entered medium stage, I'm more powerful than you are. You're just in initial stage."

"Casey, you won't be able to take revenge on me in your whole life. Today, I'll definitely kill you!"

"Really?" Casey asked.

"Is there any reason why I can't do that?"

Theodore smiled and then rushed to Casey again. He was more than twice as fast as he had just been. He moved so quick that there was afterimage. He gave Casey a punch in the chest in the hope of seriously injuring Casey with a move.

However, just when his fist was about to hit Casey, Casey suddenly moved at a speed that was no slower than that of Theodore.

He reached out one arm and stopped Theodore from hitting him. Then, he gave Theodore a kick. Seeing that, Theodore's expression changed. He moved back at full speed. If he failed to dodge Casey's foot, he might be unable to have any child in the future.

After regaining his footing, Theodore looked at Casey in disbelief and asked, "How is it possible? Why were you so powerful and so fast just now? You're in initial stage, and you shouldn't be so powerful."

Casey put on a playful expression and spoke, "Why, could it be that you think that only you can enter medium stage in twenties?"

Chapter 697 Two Inner Force Experts In Medium Stage

"It's impossible!" Hearing Casey's words, Theodore exclaimed directly, looking at the man in front of him who had always been regarded as an ant in disbelief.

Just half a year ago, this guy didn't have the slightest strength to fight back when facing him. He could pinch this him to death casually, and logically speaking, this guy should be dead.

However, now this guy not only appeared in front of him alive, but also master inner force. What he couldn't imagine most was that this guy also had reached the medium stage of inner force.

He started learning from Myles five years ago. Myles said he was a rare genius in the world, and it only took him a year to reach the initial stage of inner force.

According to the normal situation, there were two necessary conditions to reach the medium stage from the initial stage of inner force. One was excellent talent. Ordinary people have a chance to reach the initial stage of inner force as long as they were willing to work hard and pay enough time after they had learned the basis of inner force.

And between the initial stage and the intermediate stage of inner force, it was like a mountain, which couldn't be crossed by hard work.

Therefore, people who could reach the medium stage of inner force were one in a million. Even so, it will take decades for someone to reach the medium stage from the initial stage of inner force.

It only took Theodore four years for Theodore to grow from the initial stage to the medium stage of inner force.

Even Myles said that there were few people in the world who could be compared with him.

Therefore, Theodore is still quite unhappy. In his mind, in this world, only the enchanting geniuses of the Guwu Family could be compared with him. However, Casey, who had come back to life in front of him, not only survived from under the cliff, he also mastered inner force in just six months, and reached the same level as him.

Theodore couldn't find any words to describe his exclamation to Casey. He thought his teacher may not have seen a genius who could reach the medium stage of inner force in just over half a year.

It made Theodore not only horrified, but also deep jealousy.

At this moment, he had no way to keep himself calm. There was a lot of blood in his eyes, and his expression was slightly ferocious.

"When on Moon Island, I should have cut your neck directly. At that time, you were nothing but an ant in my eyes!"

Theodore said and gritted his teeth.

Casey smiled and said, "It's meaningless to say this now. I won't be like you. Today, I will kill you before leaving here."

Theodore snorted and said, "The outcome is still up in the air. Even if you have reached the medium stage of inner force, you may not be able to beat me!"

Casey narrowed his eyes, didn't speak any more, rushed towards Theodore and started fighting.

Theodore and Casey were indeed at medium stage of inner force. However, Theodore did not know that Casey only cultivated inner force after reaching the peak of outer force. With the assistance of outer force, his strength was much better than the same level of experts. The confrontation between two inner force experts in medium stage once again detonated the audience. Although the people in the audience did not understand why the aura of the two people had soared by a large amount, they would be satisfied as long as it was exciting.

The quality of this arena was pretty good, but the strength of inner force experts in medium stage was very imaginable. As the battle between the two was going on, cracks had appeared on the arena. After this battle, the arena was probably about to be scrapped.

Tony was already a bit rigid at this time. He stood there, motionless, his eyes staring straight at the two people on the arena, forming a sharp contrast with the fierce cheering crowd around him.

"Two... inner force experts in medium stage, I... am I dreaming?"

Originally, When Casey showed his strength as an inner force expert at initial stage, Tony was already very surprised. He also comforted himself that he had also reached the initial stage of inner force, this kid was just a little more talented than him.

However, immediately afterwards, Theodore exploded with a vigorous momentum of the medium stage of inner force, making Tony a little dumbfounded. According to Team of Executor's information, Theodore's strength should be at the initial stage of inner force, and no one thought that Theodore could reach the medium stage of inner force in such a short period of time. It was common sense.

"After I go back, I must first report this to the captain. The emergence of a new inner force expert at medium stage will probably be the biggest news in Chinatown in M Country during this time. From this point of view, the self-righteous guy will be screwed."

This was

Tony's thoughts before, and just as his thoughts appeared, Casey also exploded with the strength of an inner force expert at medium stage, and directly made him stunned.

In one day, in Chinatown in M Country, two inner force experts at medium stage appeared, and they were both in their twenties. If this news was passed back to the Team of Executor, the Team of Executor would definitely be extremely anxious.

After all, there were only two inner force experts at medium stage in Team of Executor in M Country. Now there were two inner force experts at medium stage. With the strength of their team, there was no way to deal with two at the same time.

"It's no wonder that guy is so dismissive of me. It turns out that his strength has reached the medium stage of inner force. I even pretended to order an inner force expert at medium stage. In the alley last night, I was so lucky that he didn't directly kill me." Tony murmured, his back was covered with cold sweat.

"The medium stage of inner force!

These are rare existences, how could there are two inner force experts at medium stage appeared? And I even run into them. If I knew this before, and I would not agree to the captain to come here to observe."

Tony murmured, he already had the idea of wanting to slip away, but because of his own responsibility, he must watch it here. If the two inner force experts at medium stage hurt the ordinary under the arena, he needed to stop it at the first time.

Of course, if this happened now, he must be the first to contact their captain, he didn't think he could stop two inner force experts at medium stage.

On the arena, the explosive power of Casey and Theodore had dismantled the entire arena. At this time, Theodore was already sweating profusely. After fighting Casey for so long, he found that he had begun to struggle a little.

Another set of moves was dismantled. Theodore lost to Casey, and was slapped by Casey directly on the back, spitting out blood, and his momentum dropped abruptly.

He stared at Casey with puzzle, and asked, "Why is your strength so strong? I am also at the medium stage of inner force. Why is my strength so much worse than you?"

Casey smiled and said, "It is because of my talent, do you believe it?"

Chapter 698 The Death of Theodore
Theodore squinted his eyes and stared at Casey. Casey's palm just now caused him a serious injury. If he continued to fight, he would only lose. At this moment, he already had the idea of retreat in his heart.

He thought he just came here to get rid of a small trouble, but he didn't realize that things had had come to this point.

"Casey, don't think that you are better than me now, so you can be complacent. My teacher is a Grandmaster. Confront Grandmasters, we all are ants. If he comes over, he can slap you to death with a move!"

Theodore had already made up his mind. After today, he immediately asked his teacher to come out. Casey's talent was too terrifying. If he was allowed to grow, it may be possible to grow to the advanced stage of inner force, so he must get rid of Casey as soon as possible.

Casey laughed, having noticed the retreat in Theodore's eyes, and said, "Didn't I say that before, I won't let you walk off this arena alive, your teacher is now far overseas, so he shouldn't be able to save you, right?"

Hearing Casey's words, Theodore rolled his eyes, turned and rushed towards the bottom of the arena, without hesitation. At this moment, all he had in mind was how to save his life.

Casey snorted coldly, stepped out, reached out and grabbed Theodore's shoulder, and pulled him back with force.

Theodore tried his best to resist, and hit Casey with a few killer moves, but because he was injured, the power of his moves had been greatly reduced at this time.

Casey took his move and said coldly, "Don't resist, I won't let you go today." "You are fucking dreaming, you're far from being able to keep me!" Theodore roared.

Casey lowered his head and glanced at Theodore, then quickly kicked his foot directly onto his calf.

Casey's inner force was very penetrating. Even if Theodore used inner force to protect his body, he still couldn't withstand the impact of Casey. There was a sound of broken bones on his calf. Then, Theodore softened and knelt on the ground.

"Casey, fuck your ancestors!" Theodore gritted his teeth and shouted at Casey. Casey was expressionless and said, "To be exact, my ancestor is also your ancestor, don't you be afraid of being cursed when you say this?"

"I tell you, my teacher Myles, but famous Grandmaster in the world. If you really kill me today, he will definitely take revenge for me. At that time, not only you, but all the people who have a relationship with you will die!" Theodore knew that he had no hope of escape, and directly threatened Casey.

"Do you think I wouldn't think about it before I came here? No matter how powerful the Grandmaster is, my anger of vengeance can't be extinguished. Not only you, but everyone in your the Turner family will die with my grandfather. Whether your teacher will avenge you after your death is not something you should worry about! "!"

After speaking, Casey grabbed Theodore's arm again, twisted it hard, and broke his hand.

Theodore endured the sharp pain, and hit Casey with the other hand, trying to make a desperate blow.

Casey raised his hand to block, then grabbed Theodore's neck and said, "I, Casey, came to M Country for revenge and killing you. The Turner family is just a colony of ants for me. Everyone in the Turner family must be responsible for the mistakes they made in the past!" Theodore's eyes were full of horror. At this time, he had a foreboding the threat of death, so he instinctively began to survive.

But Casey wouldn't give him any chance, and in order to avoid accidents, he made a decisive decision, and violently choked Theodore's neck. Theodore's eyes were round and he seemed to want to say something to Casey, but he never had a chance to say it again. His bloodshot eyes quickly lost their luster and his body weakened weakly.

Everyone in the audience fell silent after seeing this scene. The shock in their hearts was no longer something that could be expressed by shouting.

Everyone looked at Casey in admiration, as if worshipping a god.

Casey held Theodore until his entire body was completely cold before throwing Theodore onto the arena like trash.

The people in the audience followed Casey until he threw Theodore down before making any movement.

Overwhelming screams filled the entire underground boxing ring, and everyone seemed crazy, shouting the word "Reaper".

Tony stared at Theodore who was lying on the arena in disbelief. After a long time, he uttered a question, "Reaper?"

What happened tonight was about to explode Tony's mind. First, Casey showed off the strength at the initial stage of inner force, and then Theodore displayed the strength of an inner force expert at medium stage. Casey also became an inner force expert at medium stage. Now that one of these two inner force experts at medium stage had died in the arena, Tony no longer knew how to describe his current mood.

His gaze fell on Casey, at this time he had no arrogance towards Casey, and the rest was all in awe.

"It seems that when I go back today, I have to let the captain hold an emergency meeting. I am afraid that what happened tonight can be recorded in the history of Team of Executor."

Tony said to himself.

The person who came with Theodore in the audience saw that Theodore had been killed by Casey, and he showed an expression of horror. He swallowed, then quickly turned around, and ran away.

Casey stared at Theodore's corpse on the ring for a long time, then let out a long sigh of relief, and finally solved the big trouble.

But he didn't feel that his pressure had become much lighter. After all, killing Theodore meant that he had to face a Grandmaster in the future.

Without staying any longer, Casey jumped from the arena and walked outside.

Upon seeing this, Tony hurriedly followed.

He wanted to ask how Casey managed to reach the medium stage at such a young age. By the way... he wanted to apologize for his attitude towards Casey last night.

The Turner's house.

Freeman Turner was worshipping in the ancestral hall of the Turner family. He put a few sticks of incense in front of the mourning hall, and then said, "There is a prodigy in the Turner family now, he is Theodore. Under his leadership, the Turner family will be famous in history!!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a person staggered in from the outside, and then fell directly to the ground.

When Freeman saw this, he frowned, and just about to get angry, he heard the man shout, "Master, terrible! Mr.... Mr. Theodore was killed!"

"What are you talking about!" Freeman trembled twice, quickly grabbed the man by the collar, and questioned him.

"Mr.... Mr. Theodore went to the underground boxing ring today, and met the boy of the Davies family. The two went to the ring to fight each other. Mr. Theodore lost and was directly choked to death by...!" the man explained.

At this moment, the three sticks of incense that Freeman inserted in front of the mourning hall was blown by a gust of wind, and they all fell down.

Chapter 699 Extremely Dangerous Person

In an unknown house in Chinatown. Seven men with yellow skin and black hair are sitting together. These people had different auras and bodies, but if a knowledgeable person came here to take a look, he would find that these seven people were all real masters. The aura exuding from them was enough to scare an ordinary person directly.

It was just that at this time, one of these seven people looked a little worried, and his look was a little dignified, as if he had experienced something incredible. This person was Tony, and everyone present was all the members of Team of Executor in M Country.

There were two experts who reached the medium stage of inner force among these seven people. And the other five were at the initial stage of inner force. It could definitely be regarded as an extremely terrifying force.

"Tony, what's the matter with you? Why did you call us all in the middle of the night. What can happen in Chinatown that is so serious that we all need to show up together?" A person who looked a little lazy said.

This person was one inner force expert at medium stage among Team of Executor, named Sullivan. Because he had not slept enough, so he always looked groggy.

Tony pulled back his thoughts and he looked serious. He was just thinking about what happened after he went out of the underground boxing ring with Casey at that time.

As a executor, Tony was still very responsible to mention to Casey that he was so strong that he must not act in disorder, otherwise he would be targeted by Team of Executor. Casey's answer was that he would not do anything except deal with the Turner family.

This made him worry for a while. After all, in the entire Turner family, except for Theodore, the rest were ordinary people. If Casey attacked them, it would be against the rules.

When he mentioned this to Casey, Casey just smiled and then left, which made him worry that Casey would attack the Turner family.

"Tony, don't prolong the agony, tell us what happened to you," Griffin, the captain said. He was almost two meters tall and looked like a little giant.

Tony took a deep breath, glanced at everyone, and said, "If I say that there are two new inner force experts in Chinatown, what do you think?"

"It's just two inner force experts. Isn't this a normal thing?" Sullivan said, and the rest of the people nodded together.

"What if they both reached medium stage of inner force?" Tony continued.

Now the whole room became quiet, and Sullivan, who hadn't taken this matter seriously, also became serious.

"Is it true?" Griffin stared at Tony. Two inner force experts at medium stage indeed worthy of their attention.

Tony nodded and said, "It is true, and these two inner force expert are only in their twenties."

At this time, everyone present was not calm, Sullivan stood up and exclaimed, "They are only in their twenties? You are kidding, if there is one, I can still accept it. But two appear at the same time. Is it so easy to reach the medium stage of inner force?"

Griffin was also a little frightened by Tony's words, and quickly asked, "Tell me what happened."

Tony told everything he knew to Griffin. He told him that met Casey yesterday, and today he saw him fighting Theodore in the underground boxing ring.

After speaking, the seven people were silent for two minutes, with some disbelief on their faces.

"Unexpectedly, Theodore had already reached the medium stage of inner force and he deserved to be a disciple of the Grandmaster," Sullivan sighed.

"So what? He was still killed by the guy named Casey. Casey is really fierce. He even dared to kill the disciple of the Grandmaster. Isn't he afraid of being chased by Grandmaster?" the man sitting next to Sullivan said.

"I simply checked Casey's basic information and learned that he was a member of the Davies family in B City, C Country. The Davies family and the Turner family should have an irreconcilable hatred. That's why Casey came here to kill Theodore, and he plans to attack the whole Turner family," Tony said.

Griffin frowned, took a deep breath for a while, and said, "For the time being, Casey will be positioned as an extremely dangerous person. During this time, I will observe him. Once he has any abnormal behavior, the whole team will go out."

"I hope he can abide by the rules between the inner force experts, otherwise we can only arrest him."

"This is the first time that such a matter has happened in so many years. If Casey really ignores the rules and kills ordinary people in the Turner family, would he be eligible to be imprisoned in No. 5 Prison?" Sullivan asked. Hearing the words "No. 5 Prison", everyone present shivered.

The next day.

H Country Alliance.

After Casey got up, he came to the martial arts practising field with Nicolle's disciples, practiced martial arts to make himself sober. After killing Theodore, a stone in his heart fell, and he looked a lot ease.

At this moment Caro walked over here, glared at Casey, and then practiced.

"Actually, I didn't mean it that day. I usually fight with men, so I didn't think about this kind of problem, so I'm really sorry," Casey said.

"Who cares if you did it on purpose, you are a rascal anyway!" Caro said angrily. Casey shrugged helplessly, stopped struggling with this question, and said, "You can mobilize Guanling's power here to launch an offensive against the Turner family."

Caro was taken aback, and said, "Theodore is your worst enemy at the moment. Don't be so anxious to deal with the Turner family. Once you do this, Theodore will be prepared."

Casey smiled and said, "Don't worry about this problem. As for Theodore, I have killed him."

Caro just felt like thunder in her ears, and her eyes widened at once.

"What are you talking about! You killed Theodore???" Caro exclaimed, startling everyone around who was here.

Casey nodded seriously at Caro.

"This... how is this possible, what happened last night?" Caro asked.

"Well, last night, Theodore went to the underground boxing ring. I fought with him and killed him." Casey's tone was flat, as if he was talking about a common thing.

At this time, Nicolle also walked over here. Seeing Casey and Caro talking, he smiled and said, "What are you two talking about? Caro, what's wrong with you, you look surprised, what happened? Is something wrong?"

Caro swallowed and spit, turned to look at Nicolle, and muttered, "Casey...Casey killed Theodore!"

"Didn't I just kill Theodore? Why you are so..."

"What did you say?! Say it again! Casey killed Theodore???"

Chapter 700

Do You Still Want Fight with Me

In the living room, Nicolle and Caro had been staring at Casey seriously for a long time.

"Casey, Theodore is the disciple of Myles. I heard that Myles is concerned about his own disciples. Now you killed Theodore. He will definitely not let you get away with it," Nicolle said in a worried voice.

Casey looked calm and said, "The Turner family conduct a vendetta against me. No matter who is supporting Theodore, I must kill him. Mr. Britt, you don't have to worry about me. Myles is abroad now. The time that he knows that I have killed Theodore will be half a month later. At that time, I should have left here, so you don't have to worry about being implicated in this matter.”

“I'm not worried about being implicated. You are a young talent. I'm afraid that you will be the target for Myles. It is rare for a man like you to reach the initial stage of inner force at such a young age. It is a pity if you are retaliated by Myles,” Nicolle said.

Casey just smiled and didn't say anything to Nicolle.

At this time, a man ran in from the outside. When he glanced at Casey sitting in the living room, he wore a grave expression.

He went to Nicolle, bent his head, and whispered to her. Then Nicolle stared at Casey with wide eyes. He looked startled.

Caro was confused when she saw Nicolle's reaction. She thought that something had happened again. Then she asked, “Dad, what's going on? Why do you stare at Casey?”

Nicolle didn't reply to her. He stood up and walked to Casey. He directly raised his hand and gave a slap on his body.

And she almost rushed to block the front of Casey.

Casey didn't expect Nicolle to suddenly attack him. He shot out his hand to block Nicolle's palm. But he still in a chair and didn't move at all.

“Gosh! It is true that you have already reached the medium stage of inner force,” Nicolle exclaimed.

His man just now told him what happened in the underground boxing field last night. They had confirmed that both Theodore and Casey, who fought against each other in the boxing field, had reached the medium stage of inner force.

Caro walked to Nicolle when she heard his words. She gasped in astonishment and asked in surprise, “What! Has Casey reached the medium stage of inner force?”

“Yes, for a man who is at the initial stage of inner force, even if he could take my strength when I hit him, he wouldn’t take it easily and sit in the chair steadily. Because the strength of my slap could destroy the chair. However, the chair is complete now. Only the man who is at the medium stage of inner force could counteract my strength.”

Nicolle narrowed his eyes and said. Caro gazed at Casey in surprise. She remembered that she said Casey only took a year to reach the initial stage of inner force but Casey said she was wrong. She didn’t believe his words that day.

Now she realized that she was really wrong. In fact, Casey had reached the medium stage of inner force, not the initial stage.

It was all so unbelievable.

Being stared at by Nicolle and Caro, Casey felt a little embarrassed. He cleared his throat and said, “I’m indeed at the medium stage of inner force. But it is not a surprising thing. Mr. Britt, you have also reached the same stage.”

Nicolle was depressed. He reached the medium stage of inner force in his forties. It took him nearly 20 years to achieve it. However, Casey had reached the medium stage of inner force at a very young age.

He couldn't be compared with Casey.

Hearing Casey's words, Nicolle was very embarrassed.

Nicolle and Caro were shocked by Casey's talent and strength. At this time, they heard a commotion outside. Then a group of people walked into the living room.

These people were headed by Vince.

Ulysses followed him and looked helpless.

Nicolle took a glance at them and asked Ulysses, “What do you want to do?”

“Nicolle, I'm really sorry. My son has been feeling uncomfortable since he lost to Casey. He thinks that he lost because he made mistakes that day. He doesn't listen to my words and insists that he wants to fight against Casey again. My disciples don't believe that Vince has lost to Casey, so they all follow him to come here,” Ulysses explained.

“Casey, let's have a fight now. I won't lose to you this time,” Vince shouted fiercely at Casey.

“That's right. How could Vince lose to you? He has just made a mistake last time.”

“Vince is a unique genius. He will never lose to you. He can fight against you to prove his strength this time,” Those who followed Vince also said to Casey fiercely. They were not convinced that Casey could defeat Vince.

Nicolle felt awkward when he heard their words. He just learned that Casey had reached the medium stage of inner force. He knew that Vince was making trouble for himself this time.

If Vince fought with Casey today, he would lose faith in himself. Because Casey was much stronger than Vince. "Well," Nicolle swallowed and said to Ulysses, "In my opinion, you'd better take them back now. Don't let Vince ask for trouble."

Before Ulysses began to speak, Vince said, "Nicolle, what do you mean? Do you think I can't beat him? I am the most outstanding talent in our H Country Alliance for many years. Why do you speak for Casey? I'm your nephew." Hearing Vince's words, Nicolle felt more embarrassed. If he were Vince, he would blush for what he said today. "Vince, just give up. You can't beat Casey," Caro said to Vince.

Seeing that the girl he liked thought he couldn't defeat Casey, Vince was more eager to prove himself in front of her. He said firmly, "I will prove myself with strength. Casey, if you are a real man, you should have a fight with me today." Nicolle was helpless. He had thought that he couldn't tell others that Casey was at the medium stage of inner force. However, seeing Vince insisted on fighting with Casey, he must tell them the truth.

Therefore, he told them what happened in the underground boxing field last night.

“I have verified that Casey has indeed reached the medium stage of inner force,” Nicolle added.

When they heard what Nicolle said, they were all startled.

Vince, who was full of confidence, turned pale instantly. He froze and stood still like a statue.

He was a novice in the field of inner force. He couldn't do anything in front of the men who were at the medium stage of inner force.

Casey took a look at Vince and asked in a joking voice, “Do you still want to fight with me?”
