

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 701

Carver

When Vince, Ulysses, and other disciples left, they all looked dull. Vince was absentminded and walked in a daze.

He suffered the biggest setback in his life today. He had planned to find Casey to have a fight with him, so he could prove his strength through the fight. However, he learned that Casey was at the medium stage of inner force. It was shocking to him. He lost his fighting spirit instantly.

His father had spent so many years to reach the medium stage of inner force. Casey was almost the same age as Vince. But he reached it easily, which made Vince think that his own talent was insignificant.

Since then, Vince had known there was a big gap of strength between Casey and him. No matter how hard he worked, it was impossible for him to come across it.

In the next two days, the news that Casey killed Theodore spread all over Chinatown. Meanwhile, the name of God of Death also became a hot topic. Because of the restriction of the rules, Casey did not continue to attack the Turner family after killing Theodore. He asked Caro to use the power of Guanling to keep the Turner family in check.

After that, Casey had been staying at the H Country Alliance.

The leader of the team of the Executors was afraid that Casey would do something out of wack. Therefore, he often went to Visit the H Country Alliance during this time. Casey noticed that Griffin was surveilling him, but he did not complain about it.

One afternoon, Casey and Nicolle were drinking tea in the living room.

“What! You’re married. You even have a daughter.” Nicolle put the cup on the table and looked at Casey in surprise as if Casey had done something bad.

“Yes, my daughter is a month old. Is it strange?” Casey stared at Nicolle and asked.

Nicolle sighed helplessly. It looked like that he had missed the good opportunity.

“It is a pity that he gets married and has a daughter,” Nicolle said to himself.

Hearing his words, Casey felt speechless. How could Nicolle think that it is a pity that he got married and had had a daughter?

“Mr. Britt, it is a happy thing that I have a daughter. Why do you say it is a pity?” Casey asked.

“It’s a good thing for you. But it’s pity to me. I thought you could be my son-in-law. But now it is impossible. You even have a daughter, and my daughter won’t have any chance at all,” Nicolle said helplessly.

Hearing what Nicolle said, Casey didn’t know how to reply to him. He didn’t know what to say.

At this time, Caro came into the living room. Seeing Caro, Nicolle said, “Caro, you have no chance now.”

Caro was confused and asked, “What do you mean?”

“Case is married and even has a daughter. You have no chance now,” Nicolle said directly.

Now Caro understood what Nicolle meant. She blushed and glared at him. Then she said, “Dad, what are you talking about? It has nothing to do with me.”

“It has something to do with you. Casey is a very excellent young man. How can I find a man like him for you in the future? Alas, he is married. I can only envy that his wife has such a good husband,” Nicolle replied.

Caro was very angry with her father. She took a glance at Casey. Her eyes twinkled when she saw him staring at her. Then she instantly looked away. She felt that if she continued to stay here, it would be very embarrassed for her. She turned around and walked out of the living room.

“Caro seems to be aloof and detached. But she is very shy,” Nicolle said.

Casey smiled with embarrassment. If he were Caro, he would be shy when he heard what Nicolle said just now.

Soon, Caro, who went out of the room just now, turned back again. When Nicolle intended to ask her why she came back, he heard the sharp voice of a man.

“Caro, why do you run when you see me? I won't hurt you. Stop it. I have taken the betrothal gifts this time. I will marry you. Please accept my proposal.”

After Nicolle heard this voice, the smile on his face suddenly disappeared and he stood up from his chair.

Caro's face darkened and she hid behind Nicolle. Then she secretly glanced at Casey.

At this time, a man went into the living room quickly. His speed was very fast and looked powerful. People could find that he was not a simple person.

Casey looked at the man and found that he was in his thirties. He had a mustache and his eyes were deep set. He looked gloomy.

"Carver, what are you doing? I have told that we H Country Alliance won't accept your visit," Nicolle said with a dark face. Carver smiled and said, "Nicolle, you are wrong. As your future son-in-law, I come to propose to Caro. You should welcome me. I have prepared the betrothal gifts. Please let Caro marry me."

"Stop talking nonsense. You're not my son-in-law. Caro won't marry you. Get out now. Otherwise, I'll teach you a lesson." Nicolle snorted.

Carver didn't leave. He was brazen and said, "Nicolle, it will hurt our relationship if you fight with me. As you know, we have similar strengths. We can't defeat each other. Besides, you are older than me, and I am your future son-in-law. It's not good for you to hit me."

"Damn it. Get out now! I won't accept a bastard like you to be my son-in-law," Nicolle said angrily.

"Don't talk to me like this. Why do you call me a bastard? At least I have reached the medium stage of inner force. You should be happy that I can marry your daughter. I am just more than a decade older than Caro. I think it is acceptable. Don't interfere in our marriage," Carver said shamelessly.

Casey narrowed his eyes when he heard his words. He didn't expect that Carver had reached the medium stage of inner force. And he was just in his thirties. He was indeed a rare genius.

"I won't marry you. You are disgusting. Even if you have powerful strength, I will not like you," Caro shouted at him.

"Caro, don't say it. I am hurt." Carver's words make the other three of them feel sick.

Nicolle looked at Carver who was shameless in front of him. He felt annoyed. Carver had pursued Caro for more than half a year. Although he was at the medium stage of inner force, he indulged himself in sexual proclivities. People could find that he was obscene judging from his appearance.

In addition, Carver was eccentric and weird, which made others scared.

Therefore, Nicolle didn't dare to let his daughter marry him.

At this time, Nicolle noticed Casey next to him. His eyes lit up and he thought of something. He made up his mind and then talked to Carver.

"Stop daydreaming. I have a future son-in-law, and my daughter likes him very much. They have been engaged, so you have no chance."

"He is my son-in-law is here. Carver, get out now."

Chapter 702 The Pantheon

Casey, who was standing aside, was stunned when he heard Nicolle's words. Why did Nicolle say that he was his future son-in-law?

At the same time, Nicolle winked at him. Casey knew that Nicolle used him as a tool to drive away Carver.

He found that both Nicolle and Caro disliked Carver. But he was powerful, Nicolle couldn't take strong measures to deal with Carver. He had no choice but to use Casey to drive him away.

Since Nicolle and Caro had helped him a lot when he stayed in the H Country Alliance these days. Casey thought that he should give them a hand. Anyway, he was just pretending to be Nicolle's son-in-law, so Casey nodded to him. Carver turned to look at Casey. When he saw Casey, his eyes were full of disdain.

"Nicolle, are you joking? Will this guy compete with me for Cara?" Carver asked.

"He is not worse than you. Most importantly, Caro likes him. Now it has nothing to do with you. You can go now," Nicolle said.

Carver turned to look at Caro and asked incredulously, "Caro, do you really think this guy is better than me?"

Although Caro was shy, she understood that this was the way for her to get rid of Carver. She blushed and said, "Yes, he is much better than you. I like him. I won't marry you."

Carver's face darkened and he looked at Casey fiercely.

"Boy, you dare to pursue the woman I like. You're gonna die. Anyway, for the sake of fairness, let's have a fight. The winner could marry Caro. If you can defeat me, I won't pursue Caro. Otherwise, Caro will be my wife," Carver said.

Hearing the words of Carver, Caro was furious. She didn't expect that Carver was so shameless that he even wanted to compete with Casey after knowing that she liked Casey.

However, before she could speak anything, Casey said calmly, "Okay." Seeing Casey agreed to have a fight with him, Carver smiled meaningfully. It was obvious that he didn't think the boy, who looked only in his twenties, could beat him.

Carver went to the place under the Tai ji Pattern in the living room and looked at Casey provocatively.

Casey also walked over. The reason why he agreed to fight with Carver was that he found Carver was not a pushover. If he wanted to let Carver give up pursuing Caro, he could only defeat him.

As for Carver's strength, Casey was not afraid of him. He had reached the top of outer force and was at the medium stage of inner force. Except for the Grandmasters, Casey thought that nobody could defeat him.

As long as Carver was not a Grandmaster, he would beat him today. "Dad, why does Casey agree to fight with Carver? If Casey lost, that bastard would keep stalking and pestering me. I don't want to marry Carver."

Nicolle looked at Caro calmly and said, "Don't worry. Don't forget that Casey is also at the medium stage of inner force, so he may not lose. Let's watch them fight first."

Caro nodded at him. Now she can only rest her only on Casey.

Carver stared at Casey and said, "Boy, let me introduce myself. I'm Carver from the Pantheon. I hope you can remember my name. Because I will become your nightmare forever."

Casey was stunned and he felt that he seemed to be familiar with the name of the Pantheon.

He remembered that when he left Guanling, Terence had asked him not to provoke people from the Pantheon. Since he left Guanling, Casey had never been in contact with the Pantheon. And he had never even heard of any news about the Pantheon.

It was the first time Casey heard someone said the Pantheon to him.

Although Casey was a little surprised, he still looked very calm. He replied, "I'm Casey Davies."

"Casey Davis? It sounds familiar, but it doesn't matter. You will eventually lose to me."

After that, Carver directly rushed to Casey at full speed. He stretched out his hand and intended to pinch the neck of Casey.

Casey raised his hand to resist him.

Then he fought back with his palm and pushed straight at Carver's chest.

Carver narrowed his eyes, and he stopped Casey by using his other hand.

After that, he looked at Casey with surprise.

"Are you at the medium stage of inner force?” Carver exclaimed.

“What’s the problem?” Casey asked.

“You are very young. How could you be at the medium stage of inner force?

Well, your name is Casey. Are you the man who killed Theodore?” Carver asked and stared at Casey with wide eyes.

“Congratulations. You guessed it,” Casey said with a smile. He rushed forward and began to attack Carver’s head.

At this time, Carver did not dare to look down at Casey. He began to fight with Casey with all his strength. They fought against each other fiercely. Caro was dazzled by their movements.

Caro began to admire Casey. She had just heard that Nicolle said that Casey was at the medium stage of inner force. Now she saw it in her eyes and was deeply impressed by his strength in the fighting.

At this time, Nicolle stared at Casey with a heavy face. He said to himself, “The strength of this boy is above me. What an incredible thing! How can he have such strength at such a young age, it makes people green with him.”

As they fought, Carver gradually found that he was down in it, which made him horrified. He was beaten by a boy who was only in his twenties. If the people in the Pantheon knew it, they would definitely laugh at him.

“You are no match for me,” Casey said to Carver.

Carver snorted and punched in Casey’s chest. Casey stretched out his hand to stop him. By using the strength of Carver, he pushed the hand to Carver quickly.

Carver took the opportunity to hold back. For an instant, he had already arrived at the door.

He smiled at Casey evilly and said, "Boy, you are really surprising. I didn't expect that I could meet you with such powerful strength today. Caro is yours now. But you have attracted the attention of our Pantheon. I will meet you again."

After finishing his words, he disappeared into the door.

Casey didn't expect Carver to escape, but he didn't chase after him. Now it seemed that the trouble of Caro was solved.

But Casey himself seemed to be in the trouble.

He walked to Nicolle and asked, "Mr. Britt, do you know the Pantheon?"

Nicolle looked solemn and said, "The Pantheon is always very mysterious. I don't know much about it. But I've heard that the Pantheon claims to be the strongest organization in the world.

Carver is just ordinary member of the Pantheon."

"It is said that the Pantheon could control the world and nobody could stop them."

Chapter 703 A Secret Book on Martial Arts

Casey was making a video call with Edit in his room. Seeing that Edith and their daughter were and sound, Casey felt at ease.

He would make a video call with Edith every two days to tell her about his condition. If he called her late sometimes, she would blame him. It seemed that she was scared by his accident last time.

Now Darius was in charge of the affairs of the Davis family. Edith was protected by Baron who was an inner force expert. Therefore, Casey didn't have to worry about their situation in B City.

Casey was immersed in his memory with a smile on his face. At this time, someone knocked on the door of his room, which made him come back to himself.

"Come in," Casey said.

When the door opened, Caro entered the room. She didn't wear her usual leather pants and black jacket and was wearing a blue dress with her hair scattering on her shoulders. She put on a bow hairpin and had light makeup. She looked completely different from that of her being aloof and detached.

Casey was stunned when he saw Caro. He almost didn't recognize her.

Caro seemed to be a little shy. She blushed when she saw his reaction.

"You look prettier than before. It is lovely that you are dressed like that," Casey praised. He regarded himself as an elder.

"It's none of your business. I can do whatever I want," Caro retorted immediately.

Casey sighed helplessly, thinking that she would not change her character for the time being even if she changed her dressing style.

"Why do you come to me?" Casey asked.

Caro handed an old book to Casey. It seemed that the book had been stored for a long time. The edge of the book had been crumpled. Fortunately, it was made up of the best printing papers. Otherwise, the book would have been decayed.

The cover of this book was blank. There was nothing on it. Nobody could tell the content of the book from its cover.

“My dad asked me to give it to you. He wanted to thank you for helping me get rid of Carver. Since you don’t lack anything, it is the only thing that he can give to you in return,” Caro said.

“What kind of book is it?” Caro was interested in it when he heard her words. Nicolle was the president of H Country Alliance. The book sent by him wouldn’t be common.

“My dad said that the book was found by my grandfather from the tomb of inner force expert who was living in the time of the Republican period. Although they don’t know the strength of the expert, it is a secret book of martial arts.”

“However, its content is very different from the way of deep breathing that we use nowadays. My dad has tried to practice according to the way written in the book, but he has never succeeded.”

“He thought you are very talented, so he chose to give it to you. Maybe it is useful to you.”

Hearing what Caro said to him, Casey had a strange smile on his face. This book was taken by her grandfather from the tomb. To be exact, he thought that the book was stolen from the tomb.

“Excuse me, was your grandpa a grave robber?" Casey asked.

"What are you talking about? The tomb was in M Country at that time. The people of M Country intended to dig up the tomb to do research about it. My grandpa thought that even if the expert died, his things belonged to H Country, which couldn't be taken by M Country. Therefore, he went to dig the tomb before them. After that, he spent a lot of money sending the ash of the expert back to H Country. Anyway, his home was in H Country," Caro explained.

Casey nodded at her. But he still felt it funny. To prevent the people of M Country from digging the tomb, Caro's grandpa chose to dig it before them. It seemed reasonable. But Casey felt it strange.

"Well, I'll accept it. Please help me express gratitude to your father." Casey stretched out his hand and took over the book. Since the book was of the inner force expert before, he was interested in it.

After that, Caro became hesitant. It seemed that she had something to tell him.

Casey asked, "Is there anything else?"

Caro took a deep breath and then put a small thing into his hand. She said, "This is for you. Thank you for driving away Carver."

After finishing her words, Caro quickly ran out of his room.

Casey looked down at the thing in his hand and found that it was a hand-woven scented sachet of the crooked shape. Obviously, it was made by a novice.

If he guessed it right, it was made by Caro. He didn't expect that Caro, who looked cold and aloof would make the sachet for him. Although it looked terrible, he accepted it for her intention. After putting away the sachet, Casey took a glance at the book in his hand. He turned on the first page and found it was ancient characters on it. Although Casey could distinguish the meaning of most of the characters, it was difficult for him to read.

The book told a way of practicing martial arts, which was very different from the way of breathing deep breathing. Besides, it was extremely difficult, he had to spend a long time learning it. "Maybe I can take it for recreation. It is more important for me to improve my inner force," Casey said to himself.

It was in the Turner family.

All the senior members of the Turner family gathered together in the hall. The dread in the hall seemed to weigh in the air. There were broken cups everywhere and even two tables were broken.

Freeman was furious with his red eyes. He stared at everyone in the hall as if he went crazy.

"Theodore, my boy, he is the hope of our Turner family. Now he died. Why did he die? Casey should be the one to die. God, it's unfair."

"Theodore was the disciple of the Grandmaster. He was at the medium stage of inner force. How could he be killed by Otis' grandson?"

When Freeman was in sadness, someone came to persuade him to calm down. Freeman hit the men who came to persuade him.

“How could I calm down? My most excellent grandson is dead. How dare you ask me to calm down? I won’t reconcile unless you can bring Theodore back to me.”

Everyone became silent after hearing his words. They didn’t dare to say anything.

Freeman narrowed his eyes and then said, “It was all caused by Otis. If he hadn’t left the Turner family and set up the Davies family, Theodore would have been killed by his grandson.”

“Listen! Find several excavators for me tomorrow. I’m going to dig Otis’ tomb. I’ll take the revenge and torture his corpse.”

Chapter 704 I’ll Destroy the Turner family

The next afternoon, Casey was reading the book given by Caro. At this time, Caro came to his room again.

Caro was wearing a dress like yesterday. It was an orange dress. Since Casey said that she looked pretty in the dress, she was gradually used to being in a dress.

“I just received news from our men. They said that Freeman went to a mountain in the suburbs with senior members of the Turner family. And they took several excavators. But we don’t know what they want to do.” Caro said directly.

Casey raised his eyebrow and put away the book in his hand. Then he asked, “Excavators? Do they plan to find a place for Theodore’s tomb?”

“No. In recent years, your father has been asking me to investigate the tomb of your grandfather after his death. Only the Turner family knows the location of his tomb. However, after the investigation in recent years, I have roughly determined the general place of the tomb. It is in the suburban area where they are going today," Caro replied.

Casey suddenly narrowed his eyes. He then stood up and said, "Let's go to it now. I want to know what they want to do."

Caro nodded and immediately went to arrange the car for him.

They were at the foot of a mountain in the suburbs.

At this time, the members of the Turner family were surrounding a public toilet. There were several excavators next to them. The people who went to the toilet were scared away by them.

Freeman stood at the front, squinting at a place beside the public toilet. He said coldly, "Otis, have you expected that you would be buried near a public toilet after you died?"

"You are rubbish and should stay with the excreme all the time. You didn't deserve to be buried in any fine place."

"You must be satisfied that your grandson has killed my grandson. But I'm not satisfied. Theodore is my most excellent grandson. He would bring glory to our Turner family if he were alive. Now he is dead."

"I come here to vent to my anger. Even you are dead, I'll never let you go."

"If I guess it right, your grandson will come here later. I'm expected to his expression after he knows that you have been buried in such a place."

"Theodore had told me that the inner force expert is not allowed to attack common people. Therefore, even if he comes here, he could only watch me destroy your tomb and couldn't do anything. I'll let him know I'll get even with him after he killed my grandson."

...

People around Freeman heard his words. They knew that Freeman was stimulated by the death of Theodore and he was mental now.

"Damn! How dare Casey take revenge on our Turner family? He is annoying."

"Yes, why couldn't he stay in H country? Why does he keep making trouble for us?" He is crazy."

...

At that time, a car stopped not far away from them. Casey and Caro get out of the car and looked at the Turner family.

"Why are they surrounding the public toilet?" Caro asked doubtfully.

Casey snorted. He had guessed the truth. Then he said coldly, "Let's go and take a look at it."

At this time, a person appeared not far from Casey. It was Griffin, the leader of the Team of Executor.

Griffin stared at the Turner family and sighed helplessly. Then he said, "I hope it will be nothing happened today."

Casey and Caro walked to the back of the Turner family. Casey said, "Freeman, what are you going to do with your men? Do you want to let them dig a tomb for you?"

When they heard the voice of Casey, they all turned to look at him. They made a way for Freeman to let him see Casey.

Freeman turned around and saw it was Casey. He burst into anger. He had been thinking of the face of Casey and wanted to kill him these days.

“Bastard. I knew you would come here. You are the grandson of the loser. How dare you kill the heir of our Turner family? In the past, it would be treason and heresy for you to kill Theodore. You would be condemned to hang,” Freeman said coldly.

“Wasn’t it because Theodore was weaker than me that he lost? If I am the descendent of the loser, isn’t it meant that you are even inferior to the loser?” Casey sneered.

Freeman’s face darkened immediately. He said, “You do have a sharp tongue. But no matter what excuse you made, you are a traitor and bring shame on the Turner family. It is an undeniable truth.”

“Humph, now I know why my grandpa chose to left and changed his first name after I saw you and your family. If it were me, I wouldn’t stay in such a shameless family either,” Casey retorted.

Freeman was angry and his face turned red. He didn’t expect himself to lose to a man much younger than him. He felt uncomfortable in his heart.

“Damn! No matter how much you said, it couldn’t change the fact that your grandfather is a disgrace to the Turner family. Your grandfather was buried by me next to the public toilet. I’ll let him stay with the excrement forever. You and the Davies family can never change your situation.” Freeman had a smirk on his face.

Hearing what Freeman said, Casey clenched his fists and his eyes became fierce. Although he had guessed why Freeman came here with the members of the Turner family, he was angry after Freeman said it to him.

“I’ll kill you!” Casey said and gnashed his teeth.

Freeman didn’t fear him and said, “I know that there is a rule that inner force experts have to follow. You can’t attack me as an ordinary person. If you killed me, you would ask trouble for yourself. Casey, now your strength becomes your limit. I know you can’t do anything to me. Haha.”

Caro tugged at Casey’s arm and said, “Casey, don’t be impulsive. I’ll ask the people in Guanling to come here. They will deal with the Turner family.”

Casey heaved with anger. He had never furious. Freeman buried his grandfather next to the public toilet. Nobody would bear it.

“What a funny thing! Even if you are powerful and strong, you can’t kill any of us. You’d better get away now. You can never defeat our Turner family.” They mocked Casey.

Hearing their words, Casey was so angry that he wanted to kill all of them to vent his anger.

“Casey, today I’ll dig out your grandfather and torture his body. What can you do with me? You killed my grandson, so you have to pay the price,” Freeman shouted at Casey.

Casey couldn't bear it anymore. Freeman was hateful. Even if there were a rule in the inner force experts, he must kill the people of the Turner family today.

The rule couldn't stop him from taking revenge on them.

"Nobody could stop me today. I'll kill all of you. I'll destroy the Turner family," Casey growled.

Chapter 705 The Rule Is Bullshit

"It's just your bravado. You wouldn't dare to kill us. As long as you attack us, the Team of Executor will find you. They'll teach you a lesson at that time."

A member of the Turner family laughed at Casey smugly. He didn't take it seriously.

Casey squinted at the man, then he rushed to throw a punch at his chest. The ribs of that man were broken in an instant, and many of them were directly inserted into the internal organs. He wouldn't die for a short time, but he had to suffer the pain.

"I...I..." The man wanted to say something with his eyes widened.

However, he had no chance to speak again.

All the people of the Turner family were surprised by Casey's attack on that man. They all took steps back and didn't dare to provoke him.

Seeing that Casey killed the man with a punch, they were all scared.

"You killed an ordinary people. Are you not afraid of being sanctioned by the Executor?" Someone shouted with horror.

"Ordinary people? You are doomed to die today. I'll kill all of you," Casey said in a cold voice.

Seeing Casey so furious, Caro knew that she wouldn't be able to stop him at this time.

Freeman didn't expect Casey to kill that man. His body trembled and he was horrified.

"Casey, do you know what you are doing? You killed him, so you will be punished. How could you be so foolish?" Freeman said.

Casey's eyes fell on him and smiled at him. He said, "I killed him. And I'll kill you. You can't do anything to stop me." After that, he walked slowly to Freeman. The members of the Turner family all looked at Case with fear. None of them dared to stop Casey. Theodore was even killed by him. How dare they challenge Casey?

They had thought that Casey would be limited by the rule of inner force experts. However, Casey didn't care about it at all. If they had known it, they would have run away early.

Freeman felt his forehead sweating. Now he provoked Casey and didn't know how to handle it. Freeman was scared that he would be killed by Casey. At this time, a man stopped Casey. It was Griffin.

"Casey, stop. You have killed a person. Don't ask trouble for yourself," Griffin said.

Casey took a look at Griffin and asked, "Are you a member of the Team of Executor?"

Griffin nodded and said, "I am the leader of the Team of Executor of Chinatown in

M Country. I'm Griffin. I have been watching you for a long time, in order not to let you do anything wrong."

"To do something wrong? They have planned to dig out my grandfather and torture his body. I just want to take revenge on them. Is there anything wrong?" Casey asked.

Griffin sighed helplessly and said, "I can understand that you are angry with them. But you are an inner force expert. They are all ordinary people. According to the rule, you can't kill them."

"The rule is just bullshit. I'll kill these bastards today. Nobody could stop me," Casey shouted.

"If you insist on it, I'll stop you," Griffin replied.

When the members of the Turner family heard that Griffin was the leader of the Team of Executor, they felt relieved. Since Griffin was the leader, he would be able to stop Casey.

"Casey, you'd better surrender now. The leader of the Team of Executor has come here. You can't be unscrupulous. Stop it and confess your mistakes now."

"Casey, don't be so arrogant. There is a man who can control you. Since the leader is here, you won't be able to kill anyone," Freeman shouted at him. He felt relieved and was not afraid of Casey at this moment.

Casey narrowed his eyes and took a look at Griffin. After that, he snorted and rushed towards Griffin.

Griffin was ready to fight. Seeing Casey attacking him, he immediately moved. They began to fight against each other. Their strengths were so powerful that people around them had to take steps back because of the force caused by their fighting.

Now they knew the strength of a man who was at the medium stage of inner force. They all felt scared when thought of it.

“Gosh! You have reached the medium stage of inner force at such a young age. You should cherish your talent. If you stop now, I’ll help you join the Team of Executor. With your talent, it must be easy for you to become a senior Executor,” Griffin said while fighting.

“Sorry, I’m not interested in it,” Casey replied.

Griffin paused and then said, “I can allow you to beat these people to vent to your anger. But you can’t kill them. I’ve made a concession.”

“Don’t try to persuade me. I’ll kill all of them today.”

Casey had released all his strength. He was advanced in outer force and at the medium stage of inner force. Even Griffin was no match for him.

After a while, Griffin felt that it was hard for him to fight with him. He regretted that he came here alone. He should ask Sullivan to come with him.

“How do you practice your inner force? Why is it so powerful?” Griffin asked.

“I’ll tell you later. I’m not available now.”

After finishing his words, Casey took the chance and found the flaw of Griffin. He then gave a punch at his chest.

Griffin’s face changed and he fell down on the ground with the blood flowing out of his mouth.

Casey didn’t plan to kill Griffin, so he just made him faint. Then he could kill all the members of the Turner family. Seeing that the leader of the Team of Executor was defeated by Casey, everyone gasped in astonishment and they looked very heavy.

Freeman had thought that Griffin would solve Casey easily. However, Griffin was beaten by Casey. At this time, he finally knew how powerful Casey was. He looked around and immediately ran to the car. He wanted to escape here. As for other members of the Turner family, he couldn't help them.

After Casey defeated Griffin, he noticed that Freeman intended to run away. He rushed to him at full speed and grabbed him by the shoulder.

Freeman trembled and turned his head slowly. Then he saw Casey with a fierce expression.

"Isn't it late to run now?"

Chapter 706 Killing

Freeman was getting cold feet. Casey was at the medium stage of inner force, so he couldn't resist his strength at all. If Casey planned to kill them, it would be the doom day for the Turner family.

"Casey, please don't be impulsive. I'm the brother of your grandfather. We are relatives. It is not right for you to attack us." Since Freeman couldn't deal with Casey, he could only hope that Casey would let him go because of their kinship.

"Relatives? You are not worthy of it. Now you remember that my grandpa is your brother. Why didn't you think of it when you chose to bury him near the public toilet?" Casey growled and broke the arm of Freeman directly.

Freeman screamed and was breaking out in a cold sweat in an instant.

“Please let me go. I beg you. I can give you all the property of the Turner family. Please let me go, please,” Freeman begged.

“I’ve thought you would rather die than surrender. But I didn’t expect you to be a coward. I’m ashamed to be related to you,” Casey snorted.

“You bastard, how dare you to scold me? I am the patriarch of the Turner family. You’re just the grandson of the loser.” Freeman realized that Casey wouldn’t let him go, so he began to scold Casey directly.

“You can tell these words to Death when you meet him. Today, the Turner family will disappear in this world.”

Casey didn’t continue to speak. He directly wrung the neck of Freeman. Then he carried Freeman in his hand and looked at the members of the Turner family.

At this moment, he was the god of Death from the hell.

Those who were evil would be killed by him.

“He is crazy. Run!” At this time, someone shouted. The members of the Turned family ran away in all directions. Casey threw the corpse of Freeman at those people.

As ordinary people, they couldn’t escape from the person who was at the medium stage of inner force.

How far can these ordinary people run even if they run in front of a master with great internal strength?

He shuttled between those people. Then everyone screamed and fell down to the ground.

Casey killed them. Every member of the Turner family was slaughtered like a lamb. They all died in Casey's hands. He didn't care that the Executor would punish him. Freeman had gone too far. If he didn't take revenge on them, it would be meaningless for him to be an inner force expert.

Griffin, lying on the ground, looked at Casey, who looked like the god of Death. He sighed helplessly and knew that Casey had made a big mistake.

Caro felt very worried. Although she wanted to stop Casey when she saw him killing the members of the Turner family, she couldn't speak anything. After all, the Turner family was doomed to die. But she was worried that Casey was targeted by the Executor because of this matter.

Casey killed so many people this time. Nobody knew how the Executor would punish him.

After a long time, when all the members of the Turner family fell to the ground, Casey stopped and kept panting.

He glanced at the blood on his hand. He tore a piece of a man's clothes and wiped his hand casually. Then he walked to Caro.

"Let's go," Casey said.

Caro thought of many things. She wanted to talk to Casey, but in the end, she just nodded and walked with him to the car.

Nobody had expected that the powerful Tuner family would decline in this way.

The members of the Turner family who followed Freeman to the suburbs survived no more than five people. 90% of the senior members of their family were killed. Even if the Guanling didn't attack them, they would fall apart.

After returning home, Casey went to a bath and changed his clothes. Then he made a video call with Edith, saying that he might have been in some trouble and couldn't be able to attend Sherry's birthday party.

Edith didn't blame him this time. She asked him worriedly if he was fine.

Casey told her that it was not big trouble and he would handle it. As long as he was free, he would make a video call with Edith to make her not worry.

After that, he called Terence and told him that he had destroyed the Turner family.

Terence was surprised and delighted when heard it. Finally, the vendetta between the Davies family and the Turner family came to an end.

Casey didn't tell Terence that he killed them in front of the leader of the Team of Executors. After all, he couldn't change anything even if he knew it.

Casey knew that the Team of Executor would come to him. But he didn't know how they would punish him. If they wanted to kill him, he wouldn't await his doom.

As long as there was no Grandmaster coming to arrest him, he was confident that he could escape. The rules of Executor could control the inner force experts. But it didn't fit the Grandmaster. If they were going to kill him, Casey would hide became a Grandmaster. After hanging up the phone, Casey took a deep breath and recalled what happened today. He knew was impulsive.

But he came here for revenge. No matter what means he took, the Turner family was destroyed, so he was not regretted.

He came to Caro and asked her to find someone to dig out Otis' skeleton from the place near the public toilet and sent it back to H country. Then they could bury it in the cemetery of the Davies family.

Caro agreed. But she asked worriedly, "The Executor s won't let you go. What are you going to do next?"

Casey smiled and said, "It will be a solution. Don't worry. I'll wait before they come to me. And I'll ask how they will punish me. If they want to kill me, I will run away. According to the strength of Griffin, the Team of Executor of Chinatown in M country couldn't stop me."

Hearing his words, Caro didn't know whether she should praise his strength or blame him for his recklessness.

There were few people who dared to say these words.

Casey and Caro sat in the living room in the evening. Casey was reading the book on martial arts. Caro was uneasy. She would stand up and go to check the situation outside from time to time.

At this time, Nicolle came back from the outside. When he saw Caro's action, he asked, "Caro, what's wrong with you? You look unsettled."

“Dad, today...” Caro began to explain what happened today to Nicolle.

At this time, they heard the steps of some people outside the living room. After a while, seven people appeared at the door.

Caro’s face changed and she knew they were members of the Team of Executor. Nicolle turned to look at the door. His eyes widened when he saw the seven people.

As the president of H Country Alliance, he knew the members of the Team of Executor in Chinatown of M Country. He looked at these seven people carefully to confirm their identities in his heart. Then he murmured, “All the members of the Team of Executor are here now. What happened?”

Chapter 707 No. 5 Prison

Griffin and the rest six members of the team went into the living room. Tony walked in behind Griffin, looking at Casey with a serious expression. This time, seeing that Casey was so powerful, he was shocked again. Griffin had always been the most powerful member of the Team of Executor in Chinatown of M Country. However, he should be injured by Casey and even make the judgment that all the members of Team of Executor should deal with Casey together.

Previously, when Tony was facing Casey, he felt a little proud. Now, Tony was afraid. He thought: Luckily, Casey was not a mad man, otherwise I would have been killed that night.

"Chairman Nicolle, we're performing our duty. Please forgive us for any trouble we may bring to you." Griffin spoke to Nicole.

Nicolle smiled with embarrassment and said, "Griffin, what happened? It's been more than 10 years since all the members of Team of Executor worked together last time. Is there anything that is so serious?"

Griffin looked at Casey and spoke, "As a matter of fact, I'm a little afraid now. Although all members of our team will work together, I'm not sure whether we can catch him."

Nicolle followed Griffin's eyes. Hearing that, he was startled, murmuring, "You...You're not sure...Casey..."

"Dad, this afternoon, the people of the Turner family wanted to dig the corpse of Casey's grandpa out of his tomb. Casey acted on an impulse and the people of the Turner family were all..."

Caro told Nicolle what happened today. Nicolle gasped. He didn't expect that Casey would attack the people of the Turner family. Besides, hearing that all the people of the Turner family were killed, he was scared.

"Casey, you're indeed the most powerful genius among the geniuses I've ever seen. You even kill the student of a Grandmaster. You might be the most gifted person ever in history." Griffin spoke to Casey.

"However, you shouldn't kill so many ordinary people. If you use other tricks, I won't interfere with it. It's normal that there is rivalry between two families. However, you used the most stupid way. So we have to deal with you."

"Maybe we seven can't catch you even if we fight together, but we've already reported it to headquarters. If you resist, it'll be Grandmaster that will come to catch you next time."

Griffin explained to Casey with a trace of pity in his eyes.

Sullivan also sighed. Their Captain was not the kind of person who would easily admitted that someone was powerful. Now he believed that the seven members of Team of Executor, among whom there were two inner force expects in medium stage and five inner force expects in initial stage, should be unable to catch a young man who was only in his twenties.

It was definitely the top remark Griffin had given someone in his life.

Casey raised his eyebrows. Now, he had already offended a Grandmaster. If another Grandmaster was sent to deal with him, however powerful he was, he would live a difficult life.

"Don't be anxious. I won't run away now. Why not tell me how you'll punish me after you catch me now?" Casey asked.

"We'll put you into No. 5 Prison." Griffin answered.

"That's all?" Casey was a little puzzled.

"Yes, we've decided to put you into No. 5 Prison." Griffin spoke.

Casey looked at the seven members of Team of Executor, finding that they were all staring at him with sympathy in their eyes. Seeing that, he couldn't help wondering what No. 5 Prison was like.

"It turns out that you'll just put me in jail. I thought that you would punish me severely." Casey said with a smile.

"Boy, No. 5 Prison isn't just like a general prison. Generally speaking, we prefer to call it No. 5 Purgatory." Sullivan spoke.

Griffin nodded and said, "He's right. If an inner force expect makes a big mistake outside H Country and is meanwhile considered to be extremely dangerous, that person will be put into No. 5 Prison."

"You can consider being eligible to be imprisoned in No. 5 Prison as an acknowledgement of your power. However, the overwhelming majority of those who are put into No. 5 Prison will die."

"I've never been to No. 5 Prison, so I have no idea what it is like. However, there is a rumor that it's a jungle. There isn't much food there, and people who are put into there are powerful. Therefore, those who are not powerful enough even can't survive the first day."

"It's said that No. 5 Prison is originally set up to give gifted and powerful people like you an opportunity to reform. However, as far as I know, the reason why No. 5 Prison is founded is that Executors don't want to spend too many resources to kill those who have made mistakes. After all, they're all powerful and it takes a great price to kill them. Therefore, Executors put them into the same prison and let them kill each other, so that they will kill the people who have made mistakes themselves."

Hearing that, Casey had a general understanding of No. 5 Prison. It was more like a gathering place of experts in fighting and geniuses than a purgatory. It was just that these experts in fighting and geniuses there had made great mistakes.

"Then, how long are you going to keep me in there? Could it be that I'll stay there all my life?" Casey asked.

"You may well say so. There isn't term of imprisonment for anyone who is put into No. 5 Prison. If someone is put into No. 5 Prison, it's nearly impossible for that person to come out." Griffin said, "But there's a rule in No. 5 Prison. Every prisoner in No. 5 Prison will be given a chance to vote. When more than half of the prisoners in No. 5 Prison agree someone to come out, that person will be able to leave No. 5 Prison."

"This rule is actually meaningless.

Those who are put into No. 5 Prison all think highly of themselves, so they won't agree to let others leave the prison.

There is nearly no one who can get the vote of one tenth of the prisoners, not to mention the vote of half of the prisoners.

This rule has been always effective.

However, no one could come out of No. 5 Prison in so many years." Sullivan added.

Hearing that, both Nicolle and Caro put on serious expressions.

Being put into such a prison was basically the same as being sentenced to death.

Even if Casey was powerful and was able to survive in that place, he would never be able to come out.

Casey thought about it. He seemed to be comparing being put into No. 5 Prison and being dealt with by two Grandmaster.

"You can choose to resist or even run away. However, if you do so, you'll be done. Once a Grandmaster is sent to deal with you, you'll be killed at the moment Grandmaster catches you."

"Casey, go ahead."

The members of the Team of Executor immediately walked and stood in a formation. They were all serious. They were just going to deal with Casey alone, but they didn't relax their concentration for a moment for it.

Casey gave them a glance, after which he waved his hand and said, "Don't bother. I'll go with you."

Chapter 708 The Choice Casey Made

After hearing what Casey said, both Nicolle and Caro were astonished. Soon after that, Caro hurriedly spoke, "Casey, don't go to No. 5 Prison. If you're put into it, you'll never be able to leave it."

Casey smiled and said, "If I don't go there, I'll be hunted by a Grandmaster. I'm afraid that I've been an enemy of Myles. If another Grandmaster hunts me, I'll soon be killed. It's better to hide in No. 5 Prison."

Hearing that, Caro didn't know what to say. Considering the current situation of Casey, comparing staying outside the No. 5 Prison, it might be really safer to be in No. 5 Prison.

When Casey said those words, he was serious. After all, considering how powerful he was now, if he fought with a Grandmaster, he would definitely be killed. Although it seemed that people would never be able to leave No. 5 Prison after being put into it, there was still some hope.

The members of Team of Executor didn't expect that Casey would respond to them in this way. They had expected that they would had a fight with Casey. After hearing what Casey said, they were a little astonished.

"Before going to No. 5 Prison, I want to ask you two questions." Casey said.

"Go ahead." Griffin spoke.

"Is there any Grandmaster in No. 5 Prison?" Casey asked.

"The Warden of No. 5 Prison is a Grandmaster. Except the Warden, the most powerful people is just in medium stage. But the levels of inner force expects in medium stage are different. Some of them are no weaker than a Grandmaster." Griffin replied.

Casey nodded and then asked, "Then, can Grandmasters casually enter No. 5 Prison?"

No, they can't. I understand your worry. Many of the people in No. 5 Prison have the experience of offending, but no Grandmaster has especially ever gone to No. 5 Prison to take revenge on them. With the Warden, even if there is a Grandmaster wanting to break in, he or she has to consider whether it's worth it or not." Griffin answered.

Hearing that, Casey made a sound in return and said, "I don't have any question now. You can take me to No. 5 Prison now."

Both Caro and Nicolle were seriously staring at Casey. It was not a trivial matter. After all, it would affect the future of Casey. However, Casey acted as if he didn't take it seriously. Seeing that, they were all anxious.

"Casey, you...You must protect your life. Guanling needs you. If boss knew that you are put into No. 5 Prison, he would be worried about you." Caro spoke. Casey gave her a glance and said with a smile, "Don't worry. These days, I've been reading the book on martial arts given by you. I've learned something. If I can completely learn what is taught in this book, I should be able to be essentially more powerful. At that time, it should be easy to make half of the prisoners to vote for me."

Caro was immediately stunned. She didn't expect that Casey stayed so calm because of that book on martial arts. Besides, hearing what Casey said, she was astonished. Now, Casey had entered medium stage. If he became essentially more powerful, didn't it mean that he would become a Grandmaster? She had never heard that anyone could become a Grandmaster in his or her twenties.

"Are you serious?" Caro asked while staring at Casey.

Casey smiled, but he didn't answer. Then, he came close Griffin and other members of Team of Executor.

Griffin and other members of Team of Executor didn't relax their concentration because of the attitude of Casey. They were worried that Casey was trying to fool them and that Casey was just pretending. Therefore, they were still alert.

Watching Casey being taken away by the members of Team of Executor, Nicolle sighed helplessly and murmured, "He's so gifted. It's a pity that he's impetuous. If this thing didn't happen, he would definitely be a bigwig among the martial artists of H Country in the future."

"Dad, do you really think that Casey will be in No. 5 Prison for the rest of his life?" Caro asked.

Nicolle didn't know how to answer. If it were an ordinary genius that was put into No. 5 Prison, he could speak those words. But it was Casey, who had made too many miracles, that was taken away. He shouldn't think about the things about Casey in the way he thought about the things of other people.

"Maybe he can really fight his way out of No. 5 Prison. For the time being, let's expect it." Nicolle murmured.

Caro nodded seriously.

"By the way, Caro, do you have a crush on Casey?" Nicolle moved to another topic, turning his head and asking.

Caro blushed at once. She glared at Nicolle and said, "I don't like him. Dad, stop kidding me."

Nicolle laughed and said, "I have no idea if you like him or not."

In the Rocky Mountains of M Country. In a few continuous mountains, several people were walking towards the foot of the mountain. Compared with these towering mountains, they were as small as ants. Looking down from the peaks, people could only vaguely see a few small black spots.

They were exactly Casey and the members of Team of Executor of Chinatown of M Country who were escorting Casey. It took them a day to take Casey to this place.

It was a depopulated zone. And the famous No. 5 Prison was located in this place.

When they were far from No. 5 Prison, they could see that these mountains were surrounded by a wall about thirty meters high. The space inside the wall all belonged to No. 5 Prison.

This wall was built to prevent the prisoners from escaping. There was electricity of 300000 volts on the wall. If someone wanted to climb up the wall, the person, even if he or she was a Grandmaster, had to think about if they would be instantly electrocuted.

They came to the only place where people could come in and out. It was a hidden building. The staff members, who kept the No. 5 Prison functioning normally, all lived in the building.

The Warden, who was a Grandmaster, also lived in this building. Of course, there was no need for the Warden to take over him in person. Therefore, Casey certainly had no chance to meet the Warden this time.

Soon, the members of Team of Executor came close to a huge iron door with Casey. There was a small house in front of the door, in which an old man was sleeping. Half of his hair was white.

Griffin approached the door of that small house, knocked on the door and said, "Hi, we come to send someone here. There is a person who is considered to be extremely dangerous and we need to put him into No. 5 Prison. Please open the door and let him in."

The old man opened his eyes, but he was still sleepy. After seeing Griffin, he spoke, "Oh, it's you, Griffin. You should catch a person that is considered to be extremely dangerous? You're so capable! Bring him over and let me have a look."

Sullivan came close to the small house with Casey. At this time, Casey's hands were tied with a chain. Griffin required to tie Casey's hands several times, so Casey put it on.

The old man looked at Casey up and down. Then he sneered and said, "Griffin, could it be that you're out of your mind? This guy seems to be in his twenties. Is it possible that he is an extremely dangerous person? In my opinion, he's not as dangerous as the wild wolf in the opposite mountain. Stop kidding me."

Chapter 709 Being Put into Prison

Seeing that the old man didn't believe it, Griffin sighed helplessly, after which he took out a stack of documents from his pocket. They were reports on what Casey had done in M Country and the documents that had been approved from H Country.

"Conway, you mustn't look down upon him just because he's only in his twenties. He's very powerful."

This old man was named Conway Young. He was the janitor of No. 5 Prison. He was an inner force expert in medium stage. In the past, he had also served as the captain of a Team of Executor.

Hearing what Griffin said, he twitched his lips and said, "I've seen many powerful people. Those who are really very powerful are all not young. It's impossible that he, a young people in his twenties, is very powerful."

"Considering that you consider him to be an extremely dangerous person, he should be in initial stage. He's so young, so he could be said to be very gifted. But people who are put into No. 5 Prison are all gifted."

"Besides, to tell you the truth, people like him, who are young, gifted but actually not very powerful, are most likely to die. Some of them die within two days of going in. I've seen too many such things."

At ordinary times, there was few people Conway could talk to. Therefore, when he met people, he would talk a little too much. After taking over the documents Griffin handed, he spoke a lot.

Griffin and other members of Team of Executor all listened to Conway and didn't interrupt him. However, Tony wanted to laugh because the way Conway acted was very similar to the way he acted when he just met Casey. When he lost face because of Casey again, he felt worse than others because he had looked down upon Casey.

Conway noticed that Tony was holding back his smile. He immediately glared at him and questioned, "Why do you laugh? Could it be that I was wrong? Look at you. You're so ignorant. Listen, being a janitor here, I've seen a lot of geniuses. And the person you bring here is not so gifted."

"You're right. But in my opinion, you should take a look at the investigation report about Casey." Tony spoke. Only then did Conway lowered his head and read the investigation report about Casey. When he saw that Casey had been in medium stage, he exclaimed, "What! This guy has been in medium stage? How it is possible? He's only in his twenties. Could it be that he just seems to be young?"

"Conway, he's indeed just in his twenties. You don't have to suspect it." Griffin said.

Conway gave Griffin a glance and then looked at Casey. After that, he continued to read the investigation report.

After finding that Casey had killed the student of Myles, a Grandmaster, Conway couldn't help raising his head and giving Casey a glance.

"How is it possible for this guy to kill a student of a Grandmaster?"

When he found that Casey injured Griffin, who had tried to stop him, and then killed all the people of the Turner family, Conway sighed, shook his head and said, "Silly boy. You're so silly. You're so gifted, but you should do such a silly thing. You're completely ruining your future!"

Before, Conway was contemptuous of Casey. Now, Conway completely considered Casey to be a rarely see genius. He had been a janitor here for many years, but it was the first time for him to find that someone entered medium stage in his twenties.

Casey did surprise him.

"Conway, can you open the door and let him in now?" Griffin asked.

Conway nodded and said, "Come with me."

They approached the iron door together.

Conway took out a crumpled piece of paper from his pocket, handed it to Casey and spoke, "Boy, there are rules of No. 5 Prison on this piece of paper. Have a look at it. You just need to remember one thing: Don't try to run away by climbing up the wall. Except this, you can act in the way you like. People inside are powerful. You had better be smart. If you can kill someone, just do it. If you don't kill them, they'll kill you."

"Thank you." Casey said.

"You're welcome. Even if I give you these suggestions, you might not be able to survive for a few more days. Don't think that you're safe because you're in medium stage. Some inner force expects in medium stage are more powerful than other inner force expects in medium stage. And there are many inner force expects in medium stage inside. Besides, many of them are very powerful. You had better be careful."

Conway kept talking.

Casey was a little embarrassed. In his opinion, the reason why this old man kept talking was that he was too lonely when he worked as a janitor.

Soon, they were close to the iron door.

Conway came close to it, entered the password and pressed a button. Then, the iron door opened slowly.

There was a tunnel that was a hundred meters long behind the door. The reason for building this tunnel should be to prevent prisoner from taking the opportunity to escape when the door was opened.

If Casey was right, there should be some mechanisms in this tunnel that were used to prevent prisoners from escaping. Otherwise, it was not very difficult for inner force experts, who moved very quickly, to pass through this 100-meter tunnel and run away after they heard that the door was opened.

"Well, go in. Remember to guard against a man named Ewing. That person is a mad man. When you meet him, you had better run away at once. Otherwise you'll suffer." Conway spoke.

The members of Team of Executor also gave Casey a glance. Then, Griffin spoke, "Good luck."

Casey nodded and walked into the tunnel without any hesitation.

Casey knew that it would be very difficult for him to go out after going in, but he didn't struggle. After all, even if he managed to avoid being put into No. 5 Prison, he would be hunted by Grandmaster.

Staying in No. 5 Prison was a good chance for him to temporarily avoid being hunted by Grandmaster.

Moreover, there were many experts in fighting here and that he could take the opportunity to become more powerful by fighting with them.

Casey was only sorry that he couldn't attend the banquet held on the 100th day after his daughter was born.

However, he had taken his mobile phone with him. He also bought a solar charging mobile power supply. He tried before and found that he could make phone calls. After all, people working here needed to make phone calls.

As long as he kept video chatting Edith, everything would be fine. At that time, he could say that he was forced to attend the activity of surviving in the wilderness. Occasionally, he could show Edith his life through videos.

After Casey went into the tunnel, the iron door was closed. After seeing the members of Team of Executor off, Conway quickly entered the building and approached an office. He pushed the door open and went in. There were two other old men sitting inside.

"Come on, a person was put into the prison just. This time, it's a young man in his early twenties, but I believe that he has great potential. I bet that he can survive for more than 10 days." Conway said with a smile.

"What? A young man in his twenties? Conway, are you out of your mind? Few people coming here in their twenties could survive more than five days. I bet that he can survive three days."

"I bet that he can survive for two days. Recently, the people inside are divided into small groups. After going in, this young man might encounter both single and a group of people. And he's so young. So, he won't survive for a long time."

Conway put on a playful smile. To win money from these two old men, he was not going to tell them that Casey had been in medium stage...

Chapter 710 It Is Not too Late to Run Away Now

At the end of the tunnel, three men of different body form were standing together. They were staring at the tunnel with their eyes narrowed. It seemed that they were looking forward to something. These three people didn't look much different from the people of the outside world. However, if people looked carefully at them, they would vaguely feel that they were brutal people. Only people who always did dangerous things could look like that.

Besides, although they three stood together, they were guarding against each other as if they might suddenly kill the people around.

They three were all inner force expects in initial stage. If they were in the outside world, they would be considered to be powerful. However, when they were in No. 5 Prison, they were the weakest people here.

In No. 5 Prison, people might run into an expert in fighting in medium stage at any time, so inner force expects in initial stage all lived in danger. Those who were not intelligent and powerful enough basically couldn't survive for more than three days.

The inner force expects in initial stage, who could survived in No. 5 Prison for many years, were all very smart.

Besides, they all had their ways to save their lives when they fought with inner force expects in medium stage.

There wasn't something like trust, friend, help, and so on in No. 5 Prison. In this place, there was only benefit and desire to live. To survive, people here would do anything.

Therefore, in this place, no one would trust anyone other than himself or herself.

However, to have a greater chance to survive, some of them would form a short-term alliance with others. Most of those who did that were inner force expects in initial stage. Recently, there were many small groups in No. 5 Prison. Of course, in just a few days, nearly half of the people who cooperated with others began to kill the people they cooperated with for not liking each other.

When these three people happened to pass by the end of the tunnel, they heard the sound made when the iron door was opened. They realized that there was a newcomer.

What they liked most was that there was a newcomer. No. 5 Prison allowed people that were going to be put into it to take things with them. Many people would take a lot of things with them when they were put into the No. 5 Prison. As long as the people inside kill the newcomers, they could get what the newcomers took with them.

People inside the prison lived in appalling conditions. And there wasn't enough food. Because of all that, these people would attach great importance to even a small packet of snacks. If someone came here with cigarettes, even the inner force expects in medium stage would come to fight for it.

"What will the newcomer takes with him? I have long not met a newcomer. Even if I met one, the things the newcomer took with him or her would be taken away by others. This time, we're so lucky that we run into a newcomer as we happen to pass by this place." The shortest man said.

"When he's out of the tunnel, kill him. And then we'll know it." The man with scary scar on his face spoke.

"Let me make it clear now. The things we get this time must be divided equally. If any of you two have any other ideas, I'll kill you with my long blades." The last man carried two long blades on his back. He had the strongest air of forcefulness among them three.

At this moment, in the wood that was not far away from this place, there was someone hiding in the earth beside a tree. Only half of his head was not buried in the earth. Now, he was looking at the three men who were standing at the end of the tunnel.

"Let them fight with the newcomer first, so that I can know how powerful the newcomer is. Then, I'll take advantage of that. I'm so fucking smart!"

"Fuck, I almost laughed. Calm down. Calm down. At this moment, I mustn't expose myself."

When Casey walked out of the tunnel, he found that there were three people standing at the end of the tunnel. It seemed that they were waiting for him. Casey was stunned for a moment. He thought that they were the staff members of No. 5 Prison and that they specially came to welcome him.

However, he soon found that his idea was somewhat absurd. According to the remarks made by Griffin and other people, it seemed more reasonable that they came to rob him of his belongings.

When they three saw Casey, they were also stunned. Unexpectedly, it was a young man just in his twenties who was put into No. 5 Prison.

"I've thought that it would be a powerful person that would come in.

Unexpectedly, it's a reckless young man. Even if a person is very weak, the staff members still put that person into this place. No. 5 Prison is getting worse and worse." The shortest man spoke.

"Isn't it great? I can kill a young man in his twenties alone. After I kill him, we'll get all he has!" The man carrying two blades took the two blades off his back. The man with scary scar on his face also put on a disdainful expression and said coldly, "Don't waste time. Hurriedly kill him in case other people will come here."

Casey gave them a look and said, "I'm serious. It's not too late for you to run away. When you attack me, I won't give you the chance to run away."

Hearing that, the three people laughed. They didn't take what Casey said seriously at all.

"He's really a reckless young man. Fella, maybe people in the outside world called you a genius, so you believe that you're quite powerful. But you're in No. 5 Prison now. There are many people who are more gifted than you are. Don't pretend to be powerful here." The shortest man spoke.

"Really? Then you can have a try."

Casey said tonelessly.

"Humph, I'll let you know how powerful I am!"

The shortest man rushed towards

Casey at a speed that rare inner force expects in initial stage could move at. Casey narrowed his eyes. Feeling the air of forcefulness of this person, he put on a playful smile.

Among inner force expects in initial stage, these people could definitely be said to be among the most powerful people. However, they were just in initial stage. However many tricks they had, they couldn't defeat Casey, who had entered medium stage.

However, they wouldn't know that Casey, who was only in his twenties, had already been in medium stage.

After coming close to Casey, the shortest man gave Casey a punch in the face.

Casey took his wrist and then gave him a kick in the belly. Casey waved his arm and heavily threw him to the ground.

That man put on a frightened expression. He didn't expect Casey to be so good at fighting at all.

"You shouldn't have attacked me alone." Casey spoke.

That man opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but Casey didn't give him the chance to do so. He stepped on his throat, killing him.

On the note Conway gave Casey, it was made clearly that he must kill his enemies without mercy when he had the chance to do so. Otherwise, he would suffer.

"You're in medium stage!" The other two men realized that they had misjudged Casey. This person was young, but they couldn't afford to offend him at all.

They decisively turned around and wanted to run away.

However, Casey had already caught up with them.

Since they came to attack him in a group, then they should go to hell together. In this way, they could accompany each other.

The person, who hid in the wood and was going to rob Casey of his things after the three men fought with Casey, watched Casey kill the three people in shock.

He knew that he would also be killed if he was found out.

Inner force expects in medium stage could tell where a person was by that person's breath. It was not very safe for him to hide here.

"Fuck, why would he be an inner force expect in medium stage? Fuck, I had better run away now!"

That person had been hiding in the earth. Now, he got out of it and wanted to leave before Casey found him.

However, soon after he began to run, he heard someone speak. The voice he heard gave him goose bumps.

"You want to run away soon after you see the fun. It isn't right, right?"

Chapter 711 Then I Will Wait Here
Casey's second day in No. 5 Prison.

In the small house in front of the prison gate, Conway was asleep. At this moment, there was a sound of wind. As an expert at the medium stage of inner force, Conway was still alert even when he was sleeping. He opened his eyes and looked out the window.

He saw a figure rushing towards him at an unimaginable speed, and the sound of wind was caused by this person when he was galloping.

Conway felt a slight tremor on the ground, and the leaves on the trees on both sides rustled.

A person, just by galloping, could make such a big change in the surrounding environment. People could imagine how terrifying this person was.

Conway stood up, reached out and pressed a button on the table, and then walked out of the small house.

The incoming person was extraordinary. As an inner force expert at medium stage, he could feel the power of the incoming person, and he trembled.

Then, to what extent the strength of this person had reached, Conway had only one answer left in his heart.

Grandmaster!

"It seems that the person comes to do harm. Is he here for jail delivery? Oh my god, I hope he does not to kill people casually, otherwise I may die here today."

Conway felt anxious for a while. He had been here for so many years, and he had never encountered a situation where the Grandmaster came personally.

The person stopped as he approached the iron gate, and his clothes dropped slowly, without any mess caused by the gallop just now.

The rustling leaves also became quiet because the person stopped.

Conway stood there with a grave look.

"Could you tell me what bring you here today, sir?" After taking a deep breath, Conway stared at the man, pretending to be calm.

"Kill a person, open the door." The man's voice was a little hoarse.

"Sir, don't be kidding. This is No. 5 Prison. Even if the person you want to kill is inside, I won't let you in," Conway said.

The man stared at Conway and said, "My apprentice was killed. I only rushed back a few days ago. I heard that the man killed everyone in my apprentice's family, and then he was imprisoned here. I, Myles, have only accepted one apprentice in my life. I thought he would inherit my mantle, but I didn't expect him to be killed by others, so I must kill this person to avenge my apprentice."

Conway's eyes widened, and the name Myles had long resounded in his ears. How could he not know how powerful he was?

"You...you are Myles, Grandmaster?"

Conway muttered.

"Yes." Myles replied.

Conway took a deep breath, but he didn't expect that the person here was a famous expert in the ancient martial arts world.

What he didn't expect was that Myles came to kill Casey who had just been locked in yesterday.

At the beginning, he thought it was a pity that Casey was so young and so talented but was put in jail. Now he knew that Casey killed a Grandmaster's apprentice and was hunted by the Grandmaster. He suddenly felt that the reason why Casey came here was to escape.

"This kid is really surprising. He killed a Grandmaster's apprentice and is now locked up in this prison that he can't get out. I really don't know whether to call him stupid or smart." Conway sighed with emotion. .

"Grandmaster Myles, I know that you have a lofty status in the ancient martial arts world, but no one has broken the rules of No. 5 Prison for so many years. In fact, entering No. 5 Prison is not much different from the death penalty, maybe the person you want to kill will die tomorrow by other people inside, so please go back," Conway said, looking at Myles.

Myles snorted coldly and said, "Only by killing him can my hatred be resolved." Conway was nervous, for fear that Myles would get angry and kill him by the way.

When the two were in a stalemate, dozens of men rushed out of the building over there and quickly surrounded Myles.

Many of these people knew Myles, and after seeing him, they all showed a surprised expression.

Myles stared at these people and said coldly, "Well, do you think that you can stop me in this way?"

"Grandmaster Myles, we just act according to the rules. Please understand us," Conway said.

"Well, I must avenge my apprentice. I promise you that I will only kill him, and I will leave after killing him," Myles said coldly.

Everyone looked solemn. If Myles, a Grandmaster, insisted on breaking through, they were unable to stop him.

Just as they were worried, another man came over here. The man walked on the roof of the building, then jumped and stepped on the branch of a tree lightly, and then fell in front of everyone.

"Myles, you should know what kind of rules there are among the inner force experts. Your strength is tyrannical. We may not be able to restrain you, but if you insist on breaking our rules, it will be a bit unreasonable."

The speaker was wearing a black and white robe, his hair was combed in a bun, and his hair was mixed with black and white, and looked quite immortal. Conway and others secretly breathed a sigh of relief when they saw this person appear, because this person was the warden of No. 5 Prison, Dudley, who was also a Grandmaster.

Myles stared at Dudley in front of him and said, "Dudley, I haven't seen you for a few years, and your powerful has improved a lot. It seems that your strength has grown rapidly in recent years."

Dudley smiled and said, "Myles, you flatter me. I entered the realm of Grandmaster many years later than you. Compared with your profound accumulation, I am much worse."

Myles did not take Dudley's compliment to heart, and continued to say, "You should know my temper. My apprentice was killed. The murderer is in your prison now, since he is already in prison, it doesn't matter to kill him. Please make an exception for me."

Dudley did not feel any humble mind because Myles was a Grandmaster who had become famous many years ago. After hearing what Myles said, he just smiled and said, "Myles, the rules cannot be broken casually. Many of the ones we are locked here are stared at by Grandmasters, but there has never been a Grandmaster who has ever gone in to kill anyone."

"Once I set this precedent for you, I am afraid that there will be a large number of people imitating you in the future. At that time, the reputation of No. 5 Prison will not be ruined. I won't deserve to be a warden, either. So please forgive me."

Hearing Dudley's refusal, Myles knew that he couldn't directly break in and kill Casey. Dudley and dozens of masters on the scene, if he really wanted to fight, he might not have the upper hand.

After a long time, Myles let out a cold snort, and then directly sat up cross-legged on the ground.

"If that's the case, then I will wait here. If that kid doesn't die for a day, I won't leave for a day!"

Chapter 712 Be A Local Despot

No. 5 Prison.

On a hill that was neither high nor low, Casey was sitting cross-legged on a boulder, staring down at a bracelet he was wearing on his wrist, trying to take it off. Unfortunately, he tried many times, but he didn't succeed.

And not far from Casey, a fat man was panting and chopping down a big tree. There were several trees falling down beside him. What he held in his hand was a simple axe made of stone, although it's hard to chop trees with the axe, but for an inner force expert at initial stage, it was a piece of cake.

This fat man was the one who hid before and wanted to take advantage of the fight between Casey and others.

When he was about to escape, Casey caught him back, and did not kill him as he did with the other three men.

One reason for keeping the fat man's life was because Casey didn't understand the situation in No. 5 Prison yet, so he needed someone to explain to him, and the other reason was because Casey didn't feel the sanguinary breath of the three people who died in his hands on the fat man.

Perhaps more than half of those imprisoned in this prison were extremely wicked people, but there were certainly many people who, like Casey, killed people for revenge, and were eventually imprisoned here.

The fat man's eyes were much clearer than those of the previous three. Under consideration, Casey kept him. Of course, more of the reason was that Casey wanted to find a free coolie. For example, the fat man was now being asked to build a wooden house before night, otherwise he would be in danger.

"You mean the prison administrator controls us through this bracelet, except for them, there's no way to take off this bracelet?" Casey asked.

The fat man turned his head and glanced at Casey, and said, "Yeah, don't underestimate this bracelet. This bracelet can not only track your location, but also release extra high voltage current, which will paralyze you instantly. Even an inner force expert at medium stage cannot resist it for more than a second under this super-strong voltage current."

Casey raised his eyebrows, but he didn't expect this little bracelet to have such a powerful effect.

Griffin put it on Casey on the way here. He said it was a unified requirement of No. 5 Prison. It was used for positioning. Casey would not have worn it if he had known that it could still release electricity. Now he knew that he was trapped by Griffin.

It's no wonder that Griffin and his party dared to enjoy the scenery along the way.

Casey did not pay attention to the bracelet anymore. Anyway, everyone here had it. He was now a prisoner and really needed some restraints.

"Boss, I think we really don't need to build a house in this kind of place, here, the easiest way to survive is to hide. If you stay in a fixed place like this, you will be a target for others," the fat man said to Casey.

Casey glared at him and said, "Just do it, don't talk nonsense. If you can't build it before sunset, I'll kill you."

The fat man dared not say anything, and hurried to chop the wood.

In the evening, the already tired fat man breathed a sigh of relief as he watched the construction succeed, although it was a bit crude, but it was habitable.

Seeing that the fat man had completed the task, Casey didn't say much. After putting his things in the wooden house, Casey asked the fat man how to eat here.

The fat man said that in prison, there was only one chance to get food every day. At 8 o'clock in the evening, everyone could go to the gate and get a boxed lunch.

This boxed lunch was their food source throughout the day.

During the period of receiving the box lunch, no one could take the other people's box lunch casually, otherwise they would be punished by electric current.

Therefore, during the half-hour of receiving a box lunch every day, it was the calmest time in the whole prison. However, this rule was only valid within half an hour of receiving the lunch box. After this time, or leaving the gate position, they would no longer be protected by prison administrators, and they deserved to be robbed.

Therefore, the time after receiving the box lunch was often the cruelest time in prison.

In a place where food was so scarce, in order to get an extra meal, some people didn't care lives of others at all.

At eight o'clock in the evening, Casey followed the fat man to the gate, and saw that there was a pile of boxed lunches neatly placed there. There were already many people in line to get it. Everyone only got one, no one dared to get more.

Casey took a closer look at the people who were in the line and found that their aura was not weak, but most of them were at the initial stage of inner force. Casey did not see an inner force expert at medium stage.

According to the fat man, inner force experts at medium stage would have some subordinates, and they would let these subordinates come over to get food, but they would not come in person.

After taking a box of lunch, Casey felt that the gaze of the people around him was obviously a little unkind, and the fat man was even more worried, because it was easy to know that Casey was a newcomer, and the newcomer's boxed lunch was often the easiest to be robbed.

Sure enough, on their way back, they encountered four times of encirclement, two of which were single person and the other two were a combination of two people.

These people didn't know Casey's strength, thinking that Casey was a newcomer, and being so young, it must be very easy to grab his food, but their final end was the same.

The boxes in these people's hands eventually fell into Casey's hands. The fat man saw that Casey snatched other people's boxes so easily, he was a little bit speechless in shock.

"It's no wonder that those inner force experts at medium stage rarely go to pick up the lunch in person. With their strength, even if they grab it at random, they won't starve."

Back in the wooden house, Casey put down a total of seven boxes in his hand, and the fat man touched the only box in his hand, looking at Casey with envy. Casey noticed the look in the fat man's eyes, saved two lunches for himself, and gave the rest to the fat man.

"These are enough to me. You helped me build a wooden house today. These are rewards for you. I don't think you are evil. It should be forgiven for you to be imprisoned here. I won't embarrass you. Now, after this meal, you can leave," Casey said.

The fat man looked at the six box lunches in front of him, and he cried. how long he hadn't had enough. With his body type, he only had this small box of lunch every day, how could he be full?

"Boss, you are my benefactor. Thank you."

The fat man said to Casey, and then gobbled his food.

Casey didn't say anything, and started eating. Two boxes of lunch were enough for him. As for the future, he didn't think much about it. Anyway, if he couldn't have enough food, he could grab someone else's. Here, he didn't have any guilt.

Before long, the fat man ate the six boxes of lunch, and then he hiccuped. He turned to look at Casey, stood up, bowed respectfully to Casey, and said, "Boss, I am Foley, I am not a ungrateful and vicious person. Since you are willing to feed me today, then I will never let you lose. From today onwards, I will be your follower. No matter what happens, you can tell me, I will certainly do my best for you and never betray you!"

Casey looked at the fat man and smiled, and said, "It's up to you."

The next morning, the fat man was lying on the branch of a big tree not far from the wooden house, sleeping soundly. At this moment, the sound of someone running awakened him instantly.

He opened his eyes and saw Casey rushing to the tallest tree here, tapping his toes, and jumping to the top of the tree in a few strokes.

After that, a powerful voice spread across a radius of more than a kilometer in an instant.

"Today, this mountain will belong to me, Casey. Anyone who steps into my territory will be killed without mercy!"

Chapter 713 Growing Potatoes

Casey's voice spread far away, and many people who were moving nearby laughed when they heard him.

There was such a matter that someone occupied the mountain as its own territory in the No. 5 Prison before, but those who did it all died miserably in the end, so when they heard that there was a person doing it, they couldn't help but feel a little bit funny.

The fat man also looked at Casey anxiously. He didn't expect that Casey would suddenly do this. Originally, Casey built a wooden house here, which made him very worried. Now Casey directly announced to everyone that he was staying here. Didn't he let others target them?

After Casey got down, the fat man ran towards him and said anxiously, "Boss, it doesn't matter that you occupy the mountain, but why do you have to announce it? Someone must have been eyeing us now. Let's leave here before someone comes to make trouble. Let's give up the wooden house. I'll get you one later.”

Casey smiled and glanced at the fat man, and said, "If I didn't shout, how could they know that this mountain is mine? If someone is asking for trouble, I will kick them away. You don't have to worry about it."

Hearing what Casey said, the fat man couldn't refute. He thought that Casey was an inner force expert at medium stage, and in a short time, he shouldn't encounter too much trouble.

And the reason Casey did this was to make people run over and make trouble. Although he was currently locked in this No. 5 Prison and could not get out, Casey never felt that he would stay in this place for the rest of his life.

Once out, he still needed to face Myles, so he must quickly improve his strength when Myles couldn't break into No. 5 Prison to kill him.

Fighting was undoubtedly the fastest way to improve his strength.

There were a lot of powerful masters in No. 5 Prison. Naturally, Casey wanted to make good use of this opportunity. He didn't want to find others one by one. The best way was to let others come to fight with him.

"Boss... Boss, although I have decided to be your follower, with my strength, I can't actually help you too much. When someone comes to trouble you, can you not let me be cannon fodder?" the fat man said, staring at Casey.

Casey smiled and said, "Don't worry, it's still useful for me to keep you. It would be a waste to let you be cannon fodder."

"What's the use?" the fat man asked.

"Open your hand," Casey said.

The fat man looked confused, but he still stretched out a hand.

Casey put two chubby things in the palm of the fat man, and the fat man looked down, narrowing his small eyes.

"These are... potatoes?"

"Yes, these two potatoes are our important possessions. You must take good care of them. If you lose them, I will screw your head off," Casey said.

The fat man was more confused and said, "Aren't these just two potatoes? Why are they important? These two are not enough for me to stuff my teeth."

Casey glared at the fat man and said, "This is not for you to eat. These two potatoes are for planting. I will show you how to cut them later. You will be responsible for planting potatoes in the future. Whether we can have enough for every meal depends on your planting technology."

The fat man's eyes widened immediately, and he glanced at Casey strangely. He didn't expect Casey to bring in two potatoes for planting. Immediately he realized Casey's wisdom. In this No. 5 Prison, food was scarce. Everyone only knew about killing each other and grabbing other people's food. No one had ever thought about growing their own food to eat. After all, before these people came in, they were all powerful and never lacked food. After they came in, they had to be frightened every day. No one would even think of getting some vegetable seeds to plant.

Even if someone really thought of this method, they may not be able to implement it successfully. After all, people may be gone before the vegetables had matured.

Casey didn't take these problems seriously. If he couldn't even live longer than a potato here, he might as well just kill himself.

In this way, Casey started the life of a king of a mountain in No. 5 Prison. He only had fat man to help him. The position currently assigned to the fat man was a potato planting commissioner, and Casey himself was the security director of the mountain, responsible for fighting all those who try to violate his territory.

On the first day Casey announced to occupy the mountain, a total of eight inner force experts at initial stage came to provoke.

The security director Casey directly convinced these people by beating them, and then used his body's strength to temporarily abolish their inner force. This move was learned by Casey from the martial arts secret book.

Although it was not clear what genre this martial arts secret book belonged to, Casey could find some very subtle things mentioned above.

For example, he discovered on a certain page that hitting certain acupuncture points on the human body could cause the person's breathing to be disordered. The use of inner force by an inner force expert depended on deep breathing. If one's breathing was disordered, he would have no way to use the inner force in the body, and would be no different from ordinary people. It was precisely after learning this trick that Casey came up with the idea of occupying the mountain. This trick may not be useful for the inner force experts at medium stage, but as long as he could make these inner force experts at initial stage lose their combat effectiveness, then he could not have to kill them without worrying about their attack.

In this way, many free laborers could appear on Casey's mountain.

The fat man was amazed by Casey's methods. The eight inner force experts at initial stage were shocked when they discovered that they had lost their combat effectiveness, and they all followed the fat man to plant potatoes honestly.

The prison building, in the monitoring room.

The two old men who bet with Conway were sitting here. There were countless shots on the big screen in front of them, which strictly monitored the entire No. 5 Prison.

Although No. 5 Prison was a few enclosed mountains, there may be pinhole cameras arranged by prison administrators to monitor the prisoners inside on any trees.

"It's ridiculous that the new guy actually announced that he was going to occupy the mountain in the morning. I guess he should have been beaten to death by now."

"Young people are really reckless. Conway still thinks that this kid can live for more than ten days. It's really naive."

"Switch the picture to the area where that guy is, and see what's going on with him now."

Then the two of them switched the picture on the screen to the top of the mountain where Casey was.

When the situation on the top of the mountain came into view, the two old men's eyes widened.

They saw that on the top of the mountain, Casey was sitting in front of the wooden house, staring at a simple secret book, and not far from the top of the mountain, the fat man was leading eight people with his homemade simple hoes to reclaim wasteland.

The light of the setting sun shines on the top of this mountain, making this picture quite idyllic.

"This...what's going on? Why do they look so harmonious?" an old man exclaimed.

"Oh my god, what kind of person is this guy, he actually subdued the nine masters in No. 5 Prison, and let them start... farming?"

For a time, Casey became an internet celebrity in the prison building. Anyone who heard about this incident would come to see Casey commanding everyone to farm the land as soon as they had time...

Chapter 714 Results

Two months later.

On the mountain where Casey was located, the first ray of sunlight shined here, and the chirping of birds awakened the vitality of this place. It was obvious that this originally deserted mountain had become verdant. Large, tidy potato fields seethed and teemed with life, and the vines of potatoes had covered nearly a third of the mountain. However, there were more than dozens of wooden houses here. Many of the wooden houses had been carefully decorated and appeared to be of different styles.

The fat man was the first to walk out of the wooden house. He felt the morning sun and stretched out a lot. He looked very comfortable and contented.

He had been in this No. 5 Prison for a few years, and only the last two months were the happiest time for him. With Casey, he didn't have to worry about his safety, or be always on tenterhooks at all. All he needed to do was to plant the potatoes in accordance with Casey's request.

After two months of development, the number of people on their hill had reached as many as eighteen. These people came to provoke after hearing that Casey occupied the mountain, but they were eventually beaten up by Casey and were submissive.

Of course, the number of people who really came to provoke Casey was twice as many as those who stayed on the mountain. Half of the people refused to obey Casey's orders, and they were all killed in the end.

The only thing that made Casey feel a little regretful was that the people he had subdued were all inner force experts at initial stage, and there was no one reached the medium stage of inner force.

In the past two months, there were three inner force experts at medium stage who came to find trouble. Although they were all defeated by Casey in the end, Casey's methods could not abolish their inner force. In addition, it was difficult to beat up these people, so these people finally ran away.

A month ago, the mountain of Casey had been named the Edith Mountain. This name was naturally set by Casey to express his miss for Edith. In the following month, the reputation of the Edith Mountain had spread throughout the entire No. 5 Prison.

At first, everyone felt that the person who occupied the mountain was insane and was dicing with dice, so that he dared to let others know his position so blatantly.

It wasn't until Casey defeated the first inner force expert at medium stage that everyone realized that the reason Casey dared to be so blatant was because he had absolute confidence in his own strength.

After that, he beat two consecutive inner force experts at medium stage, and it shocked the entire No. 5 Prison. So far, the reputation of the Edith Mountain had been spread out. No one dared to look down on the people on the Edith Mountain. They all knew there was a great master on the Edith Mountain, and he was not a man to be trifled with.

Today, the fat man looked more excited than usual, because according to Casey, today was the day when potatoes were ripe, and his task today was to test the results of these two months of hard work.

Because of the increase in the number of people on the mountain, the fat man was also promoted from the potato planting commissioner to the captain of the production brigade. During this time, he was only in charge of directing people to grow the potatoes and build houses without having to do it himself. It was extremely easy for him.

In order to let the fat man better manage these people, Casey taught the fat man the method of abolishing the inner force of others in a short period of time, because the validity of this method could only last for a period of time, after which it would be invalid. In order to prevent these people from escaping, it needed to be "updated" every once in a while.

Casey felt it was too troublesome, so he let the fat man take care of the matter.

Through this time of getting along, Casey found that the fat man was still a reliable person, and he was a rare kind-hearted person in No. 5 Prison, so he didn't worry that the fat man would betray him.

What's more, even if the fat man betrayed, it wouldn't have much influence on Casey.

The fat man was moved because Casey was willing to teach him such a powerful method. He secretly vowed in his heart that he must work hard to complete the task that Casey ordered, and he must live up to Casey's expectations.

"Get up, don't sleep, the sun is shining!" the fat man yelled out loudly.

Before long, everyone in the house walked out.

Although these people had been abolished their inner force and were treated as labor, they had resentment in their hearts, but they were no in a state of anxiety during this time, and Casey had not robbed them of their food, which made them accept this fact.

At the very least, farming here was much more comfortable than dealing with a group of guys who wanted to kill them every day.

Before long, the fat man took everyone to the potato field and started digging potatoes.

Everyone was a little excited, after all, these were potatoes that they had grown by themselves, and after having potatoes, they no longer have to worry about starving.

At this time, in the prison building, in the monitoring room.

There were already a dozen people standing here, staring at the screen, and there was a little excitement in their eyes.

At this time, on the screen, it was the scene of the fat man leading a group of people digging potatoes.

"Unexpectedly, these guys actually succeeded in planting these potatoes. I have watched them for more than a month, and now I feel a little happy," Conway said with a smile.

Casey easily survived in No. 5 Prison for two months, allowing Conway to win the bet with the two old men. He was getting more and more comfortable to see Casey now.

"It's not fun to plant potatoes. The key point is that we are in No. 5 Prison. A bunch of people who are arrogant outside are starting to plant potatoes. This is interesting."

"Well, I think it must be because it's boring to work here, so I think it's very interesting to watch them grow potatoes."

"It's just that they haven't met a real ruthless person. When the people on List of Malicious People come to them, their good days are coming to an end." At this time, a voice faintly sounded. Everyone present did not refute, and seemed to have acquiesced to this person's opinion.

When Casey came out of the wooden house, he saw the fat man and a group of people digging potatoes. There was already a pile of potatoes on the ground, and a smile appeared on his face.

"Boss, look at the potatoes we grow by ourselves. They are all very big. Now we don't have to worry about getting starved!" The fat man saw Casey come out and shouted at him with a smile. Casey just smiled and nodded, then took out a wooden bench, sat at the door of the wooden house, and took out the martial arts secret book.

He hadn't slept all night, and had been studying the method of teaching people to practice basic strength described in this secret book.

After more than two months of research, Casey had basically figured out the special features of this book, which should be a martial arts theory completely different from inner force. In this book, there were many simple and practical little moves, some seemingly more powerful moves, and three moves marked with the strongest attack of "unique move".

And Casey had used all these moves with his inner force, and the effect was very little, which made Casey feel that this secret book was fake.

But just last night, Casey finally understood the strength-based cultivation method described in this cheat book, referred to as Basic Practicing Skills for Strength.

Only by relying on the strength of Basic Practicing Skills for Strength, could people perform all the moves in this secret book to give play to the strength it should have.

And the description of Basic Practicing Skills for Strength in this secret book was obscure, and Casey read it all night but couldn't understand it.

Just as Casey frowned and thought about the narration in the secret book, a gust of wind blew by, and Casey didn't hold the secret book tightly and let it fall to the ground.

Casey reached out and picked up the book, and found that he had taken it upside down. Just as he was about to turn it, a glimmer of light flashed in his mind, and his eyes brightened.

Chapter 715 XuanGong

"This secret book is very clear about the moves, and I can understand it at a glance. But the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength is obscure and sometimes even unreasonable, making me confused."

"Now think about it, could it be that the person who wrote this secret book deliberately set up some difficulties in order to prevent it from being used by outsiders, so that those who got this book could not learn the moves, even if they learned it, they could not exert the power?"

"And according to my research overnight, if the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength is practiced in reverse, it seems to be more smooth?"

After figuring out what was going on, Casey hurriedly took the secret book and turned to the page about the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength. According to the above, he tried to run it in reverse, and found that there was no blockage at all.

It surprised Casey. In two months, he finally had some understanding of this secret book.

According to the secret book, Casey ran it all over again, and found that his lower part of abdomen was faintly heated. It seemed that an invisible force appeared there. Although it was very weak, Casey could still feel it.

The Basic Practicing Skills for Strength in this secret book had similarities with deep breathing, but it was much more complicated than it. It could be said that after understanding the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength, Casey felt that the deep breathing was a bit crude.

Could it be that the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength was an advanced version of deep breathing?

Wasn't the strength cultivated according to the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength a level higher than inner force?

Thinking of this possibility, Casey was shocked. If this skill was really an advanced version of inner force, what kind of strength would he have after he cultivated it?

An inexplicable excitement arose in him, and Casey could have a foreboding that if he could master the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength, coupled with the moves described in the secret book and the strength of his own inner force, he would be able to take on Grandmasters. Casey stared at the secret book again. At the top of the book, there were two weird symbols. He hadn't understood what they were. Now he turned the secret book and found that these two were not symbols.

They were two words that had been mirrored upside down: XuanGong.

In the evening, a bunch of flames rose on the Edith mountain. Foley and others were sitting around the flames.

Everyone was holding a wooden stick in their hand, on which potatoes they dug up today.

They were roasting potatoes at the moment.

The box lunch made by the No. 5 Prison was extremely awful, and it would always have only one taste. They had not tasted other foods for a long time.

Many people were crying now after eating this delicious roast potato.

Casey asked them to leave a third of the potatoes as seeds and sown a large area so that they could have a steady flow of food in the future.

"Sure enough, it's good to follow Casey.

Now the rest of the people here must still be fighting for that terrible box lunch. We have all eaten roast potatoes. This is something I couldn't even think of before."

"Actually, we grew these potatoes. He was holding a book all the time. If I could beat him, I would have taken this mountain as my own," someone said disdainfully.

Although their inner force was abolished, as geniuses, many of these people were still very unconvinced. Of course, they only dared to talk privately, they would never dare to say it in front of Casey.

Foley glared at the man and said, "No talking while eating. If you dare to say something nonsense, get out of here now."

The man immediately frightened, not daring to say anything.

At this time, Foley turned his head and glanced. Casey was standing in front of a big tree at this time, practicing the moves learned from the secret book.

"Bid shot, come and eat potatoes, stop practicing," Foley shouted.

Casey didn't answer him. His body moved with the wind, one after another. His movements were smooth, making people feel comfortable.

Everyone turned their heads and looked towards Casey. They saw Casey's movements when they were eating potatoes, and they stopped eating.

These people all had reached the initial stage of inner force, and had their own understanding of martial arts. Although they looked a group of farmer who were chatting after work, they were all real experts in martial arts.

So they could all see the subtlety contained in the moves Casey was performing at this time, and Casey's smooth moves made them a little stunned.

"This...what is this move, why have I never seen it before?"

"His move is so easy and smooth, as if he and nature are merged together. How can he do so?"

"Okay, isn't it just a punch? What's so good about him? No matter what, he is just an inner force expert at medium stage. No matter how powerful the punch is, his strength will not increase much in a short time. Haven't you seen it? He has been hitting that tree for many days. It's a one-meter thick tree. Could it be that he thought he could break the tree with one palm?" The person who expressed disdain at Casey at that time said again.

At this time, Casey finished his set of moves, and then quickly slapped a palm on the trunk of the tree in front of him. A powerful force exploded on Casey's palm, and the invisible air wave dissipated in the surroundings. With a click, a crack quickly appeared on the big tree in front of Casey, and then the crack expanded rapidly. Because of the crack, the whole tree lost its balance and fell directly to the other side. Seeing this scene, the person who spoke just now closed his mouth immediately, and there was a touch of embarrassment and deep fear in his eyes.

Casey looked at the big tree in front of him that was broken by him, with a satisfied smile on his face. Just now, the power of his palm was the result of his combined inner force and the power of the Basic Practicing Skills for Strength recorded in the secret book.

Originally this was just an attempt by him. He didn't expect it to be so powerful.

It was only the first day he started to practice that skill, and he had only accumulated a little strength. If he could fully master the skill, combined with his inner force, his strength would reach a quite terrifying level.

The Basic Practicing Skills for Strength was called XuanGong, and the power obtained from it was called XuanJin.

Casey combined XuanJin and inner force to burst out unimaginable power.

As for the difference between XuanJin and inner force, Casey didn't know.

Maybe his master would know. He had to find a way to get out of the No. 5 Prison before going to ask his master about it.

This afternoon, Casey was practicing XuanJin. At this time, a figure appeared on the Edith mountain, aggressively.

"Who is Casey? Get out, and give me all the potatoes you planted, otherwise, all of you will die!"

Chapter 716 List of Malicious People

Casey slowly raised his head, and saw that the comer was a man with sloppy clothes, tousled hair, and a fierce look all over him.

There was a strong murderous in the eyes of this person, and ordinary people would feel shocked if they saw him. Foley was leading people to develop new fields. Their goal was no longer limited to planting potatoes. With rich experience in wild survival, they were naturally able to find many edible wild vegetables. They planned to grow these wild vegetables on a large scale.

It may not be long before the Edith Mountain became the only vegetable planting base in the Fifth Prison.

After hearing the man's shout, they all turned their heads and looked over there, and then some people showed horrified expressions on their faces, and then exclaimed, "It's Caldwell who is ranked tenth on List of Malicious People! We're finished! This man is very strong, and is one of the most powerful inner force experts at medium stage, and he has a weird personality, and he kills everybody. Let's run quickly!"

Foley also frowned. He didn't expect that the one who came this time would turn out to be a master on the List of Malicious People.

"All of you have to stay here honestly. Now your inner force is abolished. If you leave the Edith Mountain, you will only die faster."

Foley said, and then he ran towards Casey and said, "Casey, this man is ranked tenth on List of Malicious People. He is very powerful. Let's just give up here if necessary. It's important to save our lives."

Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that a malicious man really came this time. During this time, he also heard Foley talk about the List of Malicious People. This is a list ranked by prison administrators based on the comprehensive strength of these masters in prison. There were only ten people on the list.

The masters on the List of Malicious People represented the strongest combat effectiveness of the No. 5 Prison. They were without exception the top ones among those inner force experts at medium stage. They were the super big shots who could stir up the situation of a region when they were outside.

The three inner force experts at medium stage who were defeated by Casey before were far from reaching the List of Malicious People, so although reputation of the Edith Mountain had been spread out, it was still not regarded by many people.

In the No. 5 Prison, only people on the List of Malicious People had the qualifications to be recognized.

"He's just in time, I need to find a suitable opponent to perform the new moves I learned. Since he has come here, I will not miss the opportunity." Casey said lightly, and then walked towards Caldwell.

Foley was shocked. When others saw the masters on the List of Malicious People, they would escape as soon as possible. Casey even wanted to test his new moves on him. He was dicing with death.

The people watching from the other side of the field saw Casey not only not running, but also walking towards Caldwell. They were all a little contemptuous.

"Although Casey's strength is not weak, but it is not comparable to the masters on the List of Malicious People. Young people are fearless, but they often die because of their courage."

"It is none of our business. If he is killed by Caldwell, we can take the opportunity to escape. He deserves to be beaten to death. It's irresponsible. It's taboo to overstate strength here."

...

Caldwell stared at Casey who was walking towards him, and said coldly, "Are you Casey?"

"Yes," Casey replied.

"Didn't you hear me just now? Give me all your potatoes, or you will die miserably," Caldwell said in a commanding tone.

Casey smiled and said, "Are you qualified to take my thing?"

"You're really arrogant. Do you think that you are qualified to challenge me after beating some weaklings?" the murderous gaze of Caldwell directly fixed on Casey.

Casey put on a fighting posture to Caldwell and said, "Stop talking nonsense. Let me see how powerful you are in the tenth place on the List of Malicious People"

Caldwell saw that Casey was so direct and didn't continue to talk nonsense. He rushed towards Casey, moving like lightning and carrying an unrivaled aura. Casey narrowed his eyes, and he did feel the coercion from Caldwell. The strength of this guy was basically almost the same as Casey, who was cultivating inner force at the peak of outer force. If it were placed a month ago, it would be very hard for Casey to beat Caldwell. Now, Casey had learned XuanJin, which was even more mysterious than inner force, it was not so difficult for Casey to defeat Caldwell.

When the two of them fought, the surrounding trees trembled lightly, and the invisible energy dissipated to the surroundings, making the Foley and others who were watching the battle from the sideline shocked.

The prison building, in the monitoring room.

"Come and see, Casey is fighting with Caldwell!" The person on duty saw the scene under surveillance and immediately shouted.

Everyone gathered around here one after another, staring at the screen under surveillance.

"It seems that this kid's good days have finally come to an end. Because of him, I lost half a month of snacks to Conway. I have long hoped that he would meet the experts on the List of Malicious People."

"Although he is not weak, he is a bit too arrogant. In No. 5 Prison, he blatantly occupies the mountain. Sooner or later he will be beaten up."

"Caldwell's aura looks much stronger than before. It seems that he has improved in strength. Now Casey is really in trouble."

...

Everyone was not very optimistic about Casey, who had only been in No. 5 Prison for more than two months and was only in his twenties, and had given comments one after another.

However, fifteen minutes later, a look of astonishment appeared on everyone's faces.

"Am I dazzled? Caldwell was beaten by Casey and fell into a disadvantage?"

"Oh my god, it's not that he's falling into a bad situation. It's just that he's losing. Casey's strength is simply shocking."

"Unbelievable, this time there is really an incredible guy here. I feel that the arrival of Casey will cause some unimaginable changes in No. 5 Prison."

On the Edith Mountain, Casey struck Caldwell with a powerful fist. Caldwell used his inner force to resist, his body retreated rapidly, his chest was undulating, and his breathing was already a little unstable.

"You are only in your twenties, why do you have such a strong strength? In terms of age, the guys ahead of me on the list are probably not as good as you," Caldwell said.

Casey smiled and said, "Maybe it's because I'm lucky."

"Your luck today is also pretty good. I just learned a new unique move. You are fortunate to be the first person to see it."

Caldwell cursed secretly in his heart, if this was lucky, then he would rather die.

Casey didn't give Caldwell a chance to rest, and rushed toward him again.

His moves changed, XuanJin and inner force in his body combined with each other and concentrated on his palm in a peculiar way.

At this moment, Casey seemed to have a wave of air visible to the naked eye, which was extremely shocking.

Expression on Caldwell's face changed drastically. After realizing that he couldn't take this move, he turned and ran.

However, before he could, Casey had already appeared in front of him, and then patted him with a palm.

"Tianxing Blow!"

Chapter 717 Achievement

After Casey's palm was slapped on Caldwell, a sunken palm print appeared on Caldwell's chest. Then the strength of Tianxing Blow spread to Caldwell's whole body. Where it reached, the bone broke. In the blink of an eye, Caldwell had no intact bone..

Caldwell, who had endured such a terrifying force, was killed instantly. His eyes were rounded. As one of the ten most malicious people in No. 5 Prison, he showed an expression of horror before he died.

Casey also didn't expect the power of Tianxing Blow to be so terrifying. He stared at his palm in disbelief. He thought that this palm would inflict serious injuries to Caldwell, but he didn't expect it to be so terrifying.

It was no wonder that the secret book specially marked it as a unique skill. It turned out that it was so powerful.

However, after performing this move, Casey also felt that XuanJin and inner force in his body had been taken out.

Although this move was powerful, the energy consumption of the user was also extremely great. With Casey's current strength, he could only use it once.

There were three moves recorded in the cheats. According to the above, the power of these three moves was better than the other.

Tianxing Blow was only the first move, and it had such a terrifying power, Casey couldn't imagine how amazing the two moves behind it would be.

Caldwell's body slowly fell towards the back, and Foley and others who were watching from a distance were stunned, unable to react for a long time.

"Is Caldwell dead?"

"The palm just now made me feel like I was waiting to die... Who is Casey? I have been at the initial stage of inner force for so many years, but I have never heard of such a powerful palm."

"I was wrong. I won't try to run away anymore. From now on, even I am beaten to death, I will never leave the Edith Mountain. From now on, here will be my home."

...

"Caldwell is dead!" A person exclaimed in the monitoring room of the prison building.

The look of all the people present were serious, their gazes fixed on the screen under surveillance, and the atmosphere suddenly dropped to the lowest point.

All of them could clearly see Casey's palm just now. Although they couldn't feel Casey's aura through the surveillance, everyone present knew the power of that palm.

They all knew very well that if they come to take that palm, their end would be no better than Caldwell.

"It seems that the days of No. 5 Prison are really going to change. After so many years, this is the first time such a prodigy has appeared here. It is already a blessing that he will not mess up the inside too much."

"Do you think he will be the first one to get more than half of the votes and be released?"

Everyone immediately fell into silence. Obviously, they would definitely not believe it in the past, but now, these people's minds were more or less beginning to waver.

The top level of the prison, the warden's office.

Dudley was sitting at the table at this time, working with some documents. At this time, he received a video on the computer in front of him, and the person who sent him the video asked him to watch this video.

Dudley played the video casually, and smiled when he saw the scene of the Edith Mountain.

During this period of time, Casey occupied the mountain, and he directed a group of inner force experts to farm. As the warden, Dudley naturally heard about it.

It was just that, as a Grandmaster, he had experienced a lot, and he just regarded Casey as an entertainment in a boring job.

Now seeing Caldwell, who was ranked tenth on the List of Malicious People, standing in front of Casey in the video, he didn't feel anything interesting. The so-called List of Malicious People, in his eyes, was nothing special. After all, no matter how powerful the experts on the list were, they could not be able to compare with Grandmasters.

He still looked down at the files, only glancing at the video on the computer occasionally.

It wasn't until Casey used Tianxing Blow to kill Caldwell with one move that Dudley raised his head seriously and squinted at the scene in the video.

There was a trace of doubt in his eyes, and then he used the mouse to play back the scene just now.

Seeing Casey using Tianxing Blow, Dudley suddenly became a little uncomfortable, and there was some disbelief on his face. He watched the video several times.

"Interesting, a young guy in his twenties, at the medium stage of inner force, broke out a move close to the power of the Grandmaster. Except for the peerless geniuses in top Guwu family and the sect, this is the first time I've seen a nobody reach this level," Dudley muttered.

"If he is given some time, he might be able to grow to an unexpected level."

"It's a pity that he is locked here. I hope this little guy can be smarter and become the first person to be released in the history of No. 5 Prison."

...

At eight o'clock in the evening, at the prison gate, a group of people were lining up to get a boxed lunch.

"Have you guys heard of the Edith Mountain? There is a man named Casey occupies the mountain, and he also catches a group of people planting potatoes on the mountain. A group of inner force experts turn directly into farmers. I just pissed myself with laughter."

"This Casey is also really a tough one. He is clearly dicing with death. That is, he is lucky and has not met the masters on the List of Malicious People, otherwise he would have died."

"Maybe he is already dead. This afternoon, I heard that Caldwell went to the Edith Mountain. On the List of Malicious People, Caldwell is the one who likes to snatch things. Casey's potatoes should be mature now. If nothing else, Casey has been killed by Caldwell."

"I think you are right. Those real masters who didn't attack Casey before probably were waiting for his potatoes to mature. Casey is still complacent that no one can rob him for two months. He's really naive."

Just as a group of people was discussing, a projection suddenly appeared above the prison gate. The content above the projection was very simple. At the top was the four big characters "List of Malicious People", and underneath were ten names. At this time, the tenth name on the list had changed from Caldwell to Casey. Generally, it would only appear here when the List of Malicious People changed.

"Look at it, the List of Malicious People has been updated! Caldwell is gone, and it has become... Casey!"

"Oh my god, what happened. Casey is ranked tenth on the List of Malicious People?"

"Look at the small line after Casey's name."

"In the 63rd year of the establishment of the No. 5 Prison, Caldwell challenged Casey and was killed by Casey. He died with his bones were all broken."

Everyone who saw this line of small characters took a breath, and an unconcealed fear emerged from their heart.

It wasn't until this time that they knew that Casey, who was a little stupid in their eyes, possessed strength that they couldn't imagine.

Overnight, the name Casey became the focus of discussion among all the people in No. 5 Prison.

Chapter 718 Secret

On the Edith Mountain.

Casey was standing in the place where he usually practiced martial arts and felt what was said in the martial arts secret book.

With the in-depth understanding of XuanGong, Casey more and more felt the mystery of this skill. With the foundation of inner force, the XuanJin in his body increased very rapidly.

According to his speculation, he should reach the initial stage of XuanJin.

With strength at the initial stage of XuanJin, combined with inner force, he could kill an inner force expert at medium stage with Tianxing Blow. It was easy to know how terrifying XuanJin was.

Casey could vaguely feel that the power of Tianxing Blow when he used to kill Caldwell was able to catch up with the weak Grandmasters.

Although he could only use it once, it was enough for his, an inner force expert at medium stage. This was definitely a powerful hand.

And Casey had a hunch that when XuanJin reached the medium stage, his strength would increase qualitatively. At that time, he merged XuanJin and inner force together with the moves described in the secret book, even if he ran into a Grandmaster, he could be able to fight back.

At that time, Casey felt that the chance to fight against Grandmaster hid in this martial arts secret book, but he did not expect such a situation.

This martial arts secret book did not allow Casey to reach the level of Grandmaster in a short period of time, but XuanJin described in it could help him burst out the fighting power of the a Grandmaster when he was at the medium stage of inner force.

And this was enough for Casey.

Foley ran towards Casey with a smile on his face and said, "Boss, since you killed Caldwell and got a place on the List of Malicious People, there are almost no people who come here to steal potatoes. In the morning, I noticed that a few people were looking at us.

However, when I glared at them, they were all scared away. This is all due to your reputation."

Casey smiled and said, "Wouldn't you be afraid that the people under your leadership would take the opportunity to escape?"

Foley waved his hand and said, "I don't need to worry about this problem anymore. Since the you got a place on the List of Malicious People, they refused to leave even if I drove them away. Now they are eager to follow you to farm the land for the rest of their lives."

Hearing what Foley said, Casey thought about it thoughtfully, and asked, "How is the farm now?"

"In addition to your potatoes, we have already selected three edible wild vegetables to start batch planting, and recently we are studying how to extract oil from plants. Although the effect is not good, we may be able to stir-fry someday," Foley said smugly.

Casey laughed, patted Foley on the shoulder, and said, "Very good, these foods and vegetables are very important to us. You must take good care of them. They will be of great useful to me in the future. If you do well, I will not treat you badly."

Foley smiled and said, "Casey, can you teach me the move that you killed Caldwell last time?"

Casey glared at him and said, "Why don't you feel it yourself?"

Foley shrank his neck in fright, and said quickly, "No, no. I just need to farm the land honestly. Take your own time. I am going to watch them."

After speaking, Foley ran away quickly. Casey currently had no plans to tell others about XuanGong. He could feel that the things involved in this secret book were very important. People in the world had been devoted to become inner force expert, and XuanJin was better than inner force. Once others knew about XuanGong, Casey at that time would probably be besieged by all the Grandmasters in this world.

What people who had reach the realm of Grandmaster desired was the improvement of strength, and no one would refuse a martial arts secret book that could make them stronger.

And Casey felt that XuanJin and inner force were similar. The inner force was like a low-profile version of XuanJin. It stood to reason that those Guwu families would definitely not let XuanJin be lost if they knew it.

But now the mainstream of C Country was inner force, and he had never heard anything like XuanJin.

So Casey suspected that XuanJin may involve some secrets that he didn't know. Once this kind of thing was exposed, it would inevitably cause disaster to himself. Therefore, before he got absolute strength, this matter would always be a secret, buried in Casey's heart.

At this point, Casey could only say with emotion that he still knew too little about this world.

C Country.

In a deep mountain more than two hundred kilometers away from B City, through a hidden path, you could come to the front of a steep cliff. On this cliff, there was a very steep stone ladder leading to the top of the cliff.

At the end of the stone ladder, there were three big characters written lively: Xing Yi Sect.

Xing Yi Sect was a sect created by people who learned Xing Yi Fist. It ranked in the forefront of strength and status among the ancient martial arts sects.

Like other ancient martial arts sects, with the development of the times, people were becoming unfamiliar with ancient martial arts, and Xing Yi Sect had also moved into the deep mountains. It only occasionally sent people down the mountain to select youths and take them back, and would not get involved in the affairs of outside world.

At this time, the inner circle of Xing Yi Sect, the residence of Craig, Leader. A youth was leading Quentin, the head of the Briggs family in Kinmon County, toward.

Quentin looked solemn at this time. Although more than two months had passed, he still had not forgotten the scene when Micah was killed by Casey. In the past two months, he tried all the hard work and finally returned to Xing Yi Sect, and came to report this matter to Micah's master, Craig, the Leader of Xing Yi Sect.

Craig was the second-ranked master of Xing Yi Sect. He had almost reached the realm of Grandmaster. In Xing Yi Sect, except for the chief of Xing Yi Sect who was already a Grandmaster, Craig's position in the sect was incomparable.

Micah , who was killed by Casey, was a fairly good apprentice of Craig. The youth took Quentin to Craig's residence. At this time, Craig was meditating. The youth greeted him and left.

Quentin didn't dare to neglect, in front of this master who had almost reached the realm of Grandmaster, he was extremely nervous.

He hurriedly explained his intention, and at the same time reported the process of Micah's killing by Casey, and then behaved distressed, as if he had almost died for Match when Casey killed Match. After listening to Quentin's words, Craig opened his eyes, and a brilliant light shot out from it. Quentin's body shivered as he looked at Craig.

"How dare he kill my apprentice. He is really self-defeating. Do you know what the identity of this person is?" Craig said.

"It has been verified that this person is the head of the Davies family, a top family in B City. He was originally just a relatively powerful ordinary person. I don't know how he learned inner force. He is very arrogant," Quentin said.

Craig snorted coldly, and said, "Fine, it just happened that I haven't been down the mountain for several years. After a while, I will go down and take a walk down the mountain to help avenge Match, for he once was my best apprentice."

Chapter 720 Ewing

Casey glanced at Ewing. Although he didn't know what the other party was coming for, he still said, "Yes."

Seeing Casey's agreement, Ewing didn't stand on ceremony, and walked toward Casey with the heavy iron chain.

Foley and others all hurriedly got up from the ground and retreated ten meters away. Ewing was the number one on the List of Malicious People. Casey dared to sit with him, but they didn't dare.

In the deceitful No. 5 Prison, no one could guess what other people really thought about. Perhaps Ewing was pretending to be innocent, and then committing a murder while everyone was off guard. This was not something that had never happened in the fifth prison..

"Boss, you... be careful, this guy is not easy to mess with," Foley yelled at Casey cautiously.

Ewing didn't care about other people's attitudes toward him. After sitting on the ground, he picked up a roasted potato and ate it hungrily.

Casey stared at Ewing, feeling as if he hadn't eaten for a few days. It was really surprising that the a person ranked first on the List of Malicious People was so pathetic.

After a long time, Ewing's stomach bulged when he ate. After a big hiccup, he stopped. Then he turned to look at Casey and smiled and said, "Thank you for your hospitality. I've been so full."

"Are you here to fight with me?" Casey asked.

Ewing smiled and said, "You can defeat these masters on List of Malicious People one after another. It is really amazing, and you are still so young. If you are given a period of time, you will surely grow to an unexpected level."

"I really want to fight with you to see how strong a peerless genius is.

Unfortunately, I don't have this opportunity at the moment. You have also seen it. What I have on my hands and feet is a chain made of special metal. It weighed 100 pounds. I can't fight with this thing."

Casey looked down at the iron chain on Ewing and asked, "Why are you wearing this thing?"

A mysterious smile appeared on Ewing's face and he said, "If I don't wear it, many people here will suffer."

Casey raised his eyebrows and wondered if Ewing was using this iron chain to limit his strength? But in Casey's eyes, as long as Ewing's strength did not reach the level of a Grandmaster, it would make no difference whether to wear this chain or not.

"If I can, I still hope to have a fight with you," Casey said.

"You better not have this idea. I will spend the night near here tonight. If you see me, it is best not to believe anything I say."

Ewing spoke to Casey, then stood up, carrying the heavy chain, and slowly left. Casey felt strange, thinking that Ewing was ranked first on the List of Malicious People, but he was very weird. Casey couldn't know why.

After Ewing left, Casey asked the Foley and others about Ewing. They all said that Ewing was very mysterious, and they didn't know much about him. They only knew that Ewing was very powerful.

The masters on List of Malicious People would avoid meeting him.

At night, Casey lay in the wooden cabin to sleep.

His keen intuition allowed him to feel the changes in his surroundings even when he was asleep, and if there was a problem, he would wake up immediately.

When a gust of wind blew, Casey opened his eyes. He always felt that something was wrong in the room.

As soon as he opened his eyes, he saw a pair of dark eyes staring at him. The owner of those eyes had messy hair, and his face was dirty and indistinguishable.

If an ordinary person saw this scene, they may be frightened and fainted.

Casey was also taken aback. He didn't expect that someone could get so close to him without letting him notice it. If it was normal, if someone was within one meter of him, he would be able to detect it.

He quickly stood up, put on a fighting condition, stared at the man, and found that it was Ewing who was eating baked potatoes with him in the afternoon.

The iron chains on Ewing were all there, but there was no sound. It required a very strong control to do it. At this moment, Casey had to attach importance to Ewing's strength.

"What do you want to do?" Casey asked warily.

A smile appeared on Ewing's face. In this state, no matter how Casey looked at it, he felt that Ewing's smile was a little gloomy.

"Don't be nervous, don't you want to have a fight with me? I cannot fight with this chain on my body, so I want you to help me fetch the keys and unlock these chains for me so that I can fight with you," Ewing said.

A suspicion arose in Casey's heart. He thought that even if Ewing suddenly wanted to fight with him, it wouldn't be too late to come back to him during the day, and he did have to come here at middle of the night? If it wasn't for his good psychological quality, he would have been scared at that time.

"Where is the key?" Casey asked.

"On a cliff, I can't get there with this iron chain on my body. No one here dared to help me. I think you are different from them, so I came to you for help," Ewing said.

Casey pondered for a moment.

Although he didn't know exactly what Ewing wanted to do, with his current strength, he didn't need to have any fear. If Ewing had a bad plan, he would just shoot.

So Casey agreed to Ewing.

The two people walked towards the cliff that Ewing talked about. On the way, Casey repeatedly confirmed that this person was the one who ate potatoes with him in the afternoon, but he always felt that something was wrong.

Before long, they came to a steep cliff.

Casey used the moonlight to estimate that the cliff was at least 30 meters high.

Even if he wanted to climb up, it would take a lot of effort. Not to mention Ewing who had chains on his body.

"The key is in a hole at the top of the cliff. You only need to climb up, take the key down, and I can have a fight with you." Ewing smiled and said with a hint of excitement in his eyes.

"I can help you get it, but you need to tell me why the key is in that place," Casey stared at Ewing and asked.

Ewing became a little impatient, and said, "It's the prison management team. They put the key in such a high place, even if I know it, I can't get it. What the fuck..."

Speaking of this, Ewing immediately changed his words and said with a smile, "I know you are a good person and will help me get the key."

Casey nodded, pretending to go to climb the cliff, and at the moment he turned around, he saw the bloodthirsty and madness that could not be concealed in Ewing's eyes.

He immediately backed away a few steps, staring at the person in front of him with both eyes, and asked, "You are not Ewing, who are you!"

Chapter 721 Multiple Personalities
Seeing the reaction of Casey, Ewing immediately said with a smile, "I'm Ewing. Could it be that you can't recognize me?"

Casey looked at Ewing up and down again, saying, "You look the same as Ewing, but I'm sure that you're not the Ewing who came to me in the afternoon."

Ewing kept silent for a while. Then he laughed wildly. He suddenly put on a murderous look, no longer hiding the fact that he was a bloodthirsty man.

"Unexpectedly, you should find it out.

Ewing, son of a bitch, pretends to be a gentleman at ordinary times. It's really hard to pretend to be him. I just pretended to be him for a while just now, but I feel so sick." Ewing spoke.

Casey frowned. Judging from some details, the person in front of him now had exactly the same appearance as Ewing. It seemed that they were the same person.

But this person's personality was completely different from that of the person he met in the afternoon, which made him feel a little confused.

"If you're not Ewing, Who are you? Why do you look exactly the same as Ewing?" Casey asked.

"Ewing" smiled and said, "I'm Ewing, but I'm also not that Ewing. The reason why I look the same as him is that we share the same body. Sometimes, it's him that controls this body while other times it's me that control this body."

Casey was stunned and thought of a mental disease.

Multiple personalities.

No wonder Conway reminded him that Ewing was a mad man and that he should guard against Ewing when he was in No. 5 Prison. If Ewing really had multiple personalities, then Ewing was a mad man in the scientific sense.

The top expert in fighting on List of Malicious People should be one who had multiple personalities. When one personality dominated his body, he was gentle and elegant; when another personality dominated his body, he was violent and crazy. It was the first time for Casey to run into such a person.

"I think you should go to see a doctor."
Casey spoke.

"Ewing" immediately sneered and said,
"Sooner or later, I'll kill him. This damn guy has stopped me from doing many things. However, it's getting more and more difficult for him to dominate the body. Soon, I'll own this body. At that time, I'll celebrate it by killing all the prisoners here."

"Fella, isn't it that you want to have a fight with me? I'm as powerful as that guy. As long as you help me to get the key, I'll have a fight with you. Besides, as a reward, I won't kill you. How about that?"

Casey smiled and said, "No, I won't agree with it. I didn't anticipate that Ewing should have multiple personalities. Compared with you, I would rather have a fight with Ewing that has the other personality."

"Ewing" immediately became a little crazy. Both of his arms trembled, making the iron chains tinkle.

"You're stupid. Sooner or later, I'll kill that guy. And I'm the owner of this body.
Even if you don't help me, I'll figure out a way to get the key. At that time, I'll let you die a terrible death!" "Ewing" said while gritting his teeth.

"As you please." Casey turned around and was about to leave. He knew that it was useless to argue with a mad man.

"Ewing" wanted to stop Casey at once.
Right at this moment, there was suddenly a painful expression on his face. He secretly cursed, "Damn it. You should try to control the body. Didn't we agree that you control the body in the daytime while I control the body in the evening?"

Casey turned around. Ewing, a person, played two roles and struggled. And it was at night. Casey watched him, feeling that it was a little weird.

Before long, Ewing no longer moved. It seemed that neither of the two personalities had succeeded in controlling the boy. As a result, Ewing fainted and fell directly to the ground. Casey could do nothing but shake his head. He approached Ewing and took Ewing back to the Edith Mountain.

On the next morning.

Ewing woke up and found that he was lying on the ground. His head hurt a little. And Casey was standing not far away from him and was staring at him.

"Why am I here? I remember that I walked towards another mountain after I left yesterday. Could it be that that guy took the opportunity to dominate the body?" Ewing spoke to himself.

"Now, are you Ewing or the other person?" Casey asked while staring at Ewing.

Ewing was stunned. Then he thought of something and asked, "Did he come to you last night?"

Casey nodded.

Ewing helplessly sighed and said, "It seems that things are getting worse. I'm afraid that I have to make a decision as soon as possible. Otherwise, once he controls the body, many people in No. 5 Prison will be killed."

Casey said with a smile, "Maybe you're overly confident. Perhaps you're not powerful enough to be able to do that."

Ewing didn't get angry. Instead, he sighed, "The most powerful inner force expert in No. 5 Prison is just in advanced stage of medium stage. People like you, who can defeat experts in fighting on List of Malicious People, could be said to be very powerful. However, they're just inner force expert in medium stage."

"To be honest, I'm already Half Step Master. However powerful an inner force expert in medium stage is, he or she is no match for me."

Hearing that, Casey was a little surprised. He didn't expect that Ewing had been Half Step Master. Although he was not as powerful as Grandmaster, he had been very powerful.

If that was the case, he was eligible to say those words.

However, although Casey was still an inner force expert in medium stage, his XuanJin had entered medium stage because of a lot of fights in the previous days.

When XuanJin and inner force were combined, it was far more powerful than inner force in medium stage. Casey felt that he was powerful enough to have a fight with Grandmaster now. The only problem was that he could only be that powerful for a short time.

"What're you going to do?" Casey asked.

Ewing sighed and spoke, "In the past, I attached so much importance to power that I forgot food and sleep. Later, to prove how powerful I was, I killed many innocent people. At that time, this evil personality came into being in my mind.

It got worse and worse, and finally I'm in such a bad situation."

"If he takes control of my body, I'll become a complete devil. Under such a circumstance, it should be better kill me now."

"Can you do me a favor? Kill me, and I'll be free." Ewing looked at Casey.

Casey put on a playful smile and said, "I'm willing to help you."

"But since you want to kill yourself, why not let the other personality dominate your body and let him have a fight with me? I promise you that I'll kill him."

"What's your opinion?"

Chapter 722 Moon Invitation

After hearing what Casey said, Ewing was a little astonished. He emphasized it again, "I've been Half Step Master. However powerful an inner force expert in medium stage is, he or she will not be match for me. Are you sure that you want to fight with me?"

Casey seriously nodded and said, "Except you, there is no one on List of Malicious People who can be match for me. Besides, I want very much to know how powerful Half Step Master is. As for whether I can defeat you, don't worry about that."

Ewing thought for a while. After a long time, he raised his head and said, "Well, I agree. Now, I'm still match for him. Maybe I can stop him from killing you at critical points. Of course, it would be best if you can kill him yourself."

Hearing that, Casey no longer hesitated. He immediately went to the cliff he had been to last night, climbed up and took the key.

After coming back, Casey loosened the iron chain around Ewing.

Seeing that, Foley and other people were scared a lot. As everyone knew, Ewing, when he was bound by an iron chain, had been extremely fearsome in No. 5 Prison. Now, Casey should have loosened the iron chain around his body. It was just like letting a vicious beast out.

"Don't be too anxious. I'm just going to have a fight with him." Casey spoke to Foley and other people with a smile. People around didn't think that it was "just" a fight. If they were slightly affected by such a fight, they would be killed.

Besides, many people didn't believe that Casey was able to defeat Ewing after the iron chains around him were loosened, so they all had the idea of putting away their belongings and being ready to leave at any time.

In the monitor room in the Prison Office Building.

"Casey should loosen the chains around Ewing's body. What does he want to do?"

"It seems that they want to have a fight."

"Is Casey out of his mind? According to Warden, Ewing has been a Half Step Master. He would be a Grandmaster after making some progress! Although he defeated the experts in fighting on List of Malicious People these days, he should be no match for Half Step Master."

"Report it to Warden now. According to what Warden said at the last meeting, he wants to develop Casey. If he is killed by Ewing, it will be too bad."

...

In a clearing on the Edith Mountain. Casey and Ewing were standing face to face. At this moment, Ewing had got rid of the heavy iron chains. Although he looked slovenly, he had sage-like features.

Foley and other people stood somewhere a few dozen meters away from them and watched them because they were afraid that they would be hurt by them if they stayed close to them.

"Are you sure that you want to fight with me when another personality controls the body?" Ewing put his hands behind his back and stared seriously at Casey.

"Yes, please let him out. If I fight with him, I can try my best. If I fight with you, I possibly won't fight with all my strength. It's meaningless." Casey replied.

Ewing nodded. He no longer talked nonsense and just stood still. But in just a few seconds, his temperament obviously changed.

"Ewing" laughed crazily and put on an evil smile. There was a great deal of hostility in his eyes.

Foley and other people, who were far away from them, were scared a lot. Just now, Ewing was gentle and elegant. In an instant, he looked like a mad man. He was unpredictable.

"Previously, you had already dodged a bullet. Unexpectedly, you took the initiative to open the iron lock. Fella, could it be that you don't know that you're seeking death?" "Ewing" said with a sneer.

Casey twitched his lips and said, "Maybe you should think about if you'll be killed by me today."

"Ewing" sneered and spoke, "You're dreaming! Since you're seeking your own death, don't blame me!"

Just after he finished speaking, he rushed to Casey. He moved so fast that there were afterimages. Besides, Foley and other people, who were far away, couldn't see his moves clearly.

Casey instantly felt the air of forcefulness "Ewing" had. Although Casey was very powerful now, he was just an inner force expert in medium stage. Therefore, "Ewing", who had been a Half Step Master, had a much stronger air of forcefulness than Casey did.

"Ewing" gave Casey a punch. Casey didn't dodge it. Instead, he chose to resist it with his fist. "Ewing" used so much strength that Casey immediately retreated more than 10 meters after their fists met.

"You're so weak, but you should want to have a fight with me. You should study for a few more years before having a fighting with me. Unfortunately, you won't have a chance to do so anymore."

"Ewing" taunted.

Casey sneered. Just now, to get to know how powerful Half Step Master was, he didn't use XuanJin. He just resisted with inner force.

Half Step Master was really more powerful than he had imagined, but that was all. Later, Casey would let "Ewing" know how powerful XuanJin was.

He stepped on the ground so hard that there was a deep hole on the ground. Then he rushed to "Ewing" at an extremely high speed.

"Ewing" narrowed his eyes. Finding the change in Casey, he became a little excited.

"Interesting. No wonder you dare to challenge me. It seems that you're well prepared."

"Ewing" smiled and still didn't take Casey seriously. This time, Casey combined inner force and XuanJin, giving Ewing a heavy punch. After stopping Casey from hitting him, Ewing took a half step back, raised his eyebrows and asked, "Why did you have so much more strength than before?"

Casey smiled and said, "If you defeat me, I'll tell you."

They fought violently. As a result, there were deep pits on the ground in the area they fought. Besides, there were many cracks on the ground.

After attacking each other dozens of times, Casey narrowed his eyes.

Without hesitation, he used inner force and XuanJin, patting Ewing with great strength.

"Tianxing Blow!"

Finding that this move was very powerful, the expression of "Ewing" changed. He stopped Casey from hitting him with all his strength.

In a second, "Ewing" took three steps back. A little blood came out of his mouth.

"Damn it, I should be hurt by a fella in medium stage. You've completely angered me. Now I'm going to fight with you seriously. You had better pray that you can survive my next move!"

"Ewing" stared at Casey with a ferocious expression. Soon after that, there was a turbulence around him. The trees around began to shake. The sky seemed to be darker because of it. Seeing that, Casey was secretly surprised. He didn't expect that Half Step Master was already able to influence the surrounding environment with their strength. Inner force expert in medium stage was really not as powerful as Half Step Master.

"Fella, if you can survive after I use this move, you can brag about it in the rest of your life!"

With a shout, "Ewing" jumped and punched Casey. He moved so fast that people nearly couldn't see his move clearly.

"Sky Shaking Hammer!"

Casey was serious. At this time, it was impossible for him to resist the attack from "Ewing" with ordinary moves. He decisively concentrated all his inner force and XuanJin into his hand.

After that, he held one fist in the other hand, putting them around his chest. Before "Ewing" touched his body, he pushed one hand to the air.

It was not Tianxing Blow. It was the second move of that three unique moves.

"Moon Invitation!"

Chapter 723 How Powerful Casey Was

In the Warden's office.

Dudley was staring at the monitoring screen on the computer with a frown. Casey was having a violent fight with "Ewing". It surprised him a lot that Casey was able to be match for "Ewing" who had been Half Step Master. Later, Casey used Tianxing Blow and hurt Ewing. Seeing that, Dudley praised Casey again.

However, an inner force expert in medium stage was not as powerful as a Half Step Master. In Dudley's opinion, there were two reasons why Casey could hurt Ewing with Tianxing Blow. One reason was that Tianxing Blow was really a powerful move and people who used this move could show a higher fighting capacity. The other reason was that Ewing was being careless.

Now, Ewing got angry and used his most powerful move which was named Sky Shaking Hammer. In the past, Ewing became famous with exactly this move. Now, he, as a Half Step Master, used this move. Under this circumstance, it was as powerful as some attacks from Grandmaster. In Dudley's view, Casey would definitely not be able to resist it.

After Casey used Tianxing Blow last time, Dudley had been specially paying attention to Casey. In his opinion, Casey had great potential. The reason why Casey was put into No. 5 Prison was that he acted on impulsive and killed ordinary people. He was not a bad people in essence.

Therefore, he wanted to take care of Casey. Unexpectedly, Casey took the initiative to provoke the most powerful people in No. 5 Prison. Now, he even made Ewing use his most powerful move. Seeing that, Dudley didn't know what to do.

At this time, Dudley was holding a remote control in his hand. There was a button on it. As long as he pressed the button, the bracelet around Ewing's wrist would release a super-strong current. In that way, Ewing would stop attacking Casey.

When Ewing's fist was about to touch Casey, to save Casey's life, Dudley was going to press the button. Right at this moment, Casey suddenly had an air of forcefulness that was no weaker than that of Ewing. Seeing that, Dudley was astonished.

"His move seems to be more powerful than the move of Ewing. Who on earth is he? Where did he learn such a powerful move?"

On the Edith Mountain, Casey and "Ewing" fought at a high speed. "Ewing" attacked Casey with Sky Shaking Hammer while Casey resisted it with Moon Invitation. The moment their fists met, there was an invisible wave dispersing around them. Foley and other people, who were dozens of meters away, were affected by it. They all gritted their teeth and resisted it. Many of those who no longer had inner force even sat on the ground.

"It...It's so crazy. Is it really a fight between two people who are not Grandmaster yet? If I didn't know them well, I might think that they're all Grandmasters." Foley murmured to himself.

After realizing what had happened and wanting to know what the consequence was, he hurriedly looked at Casey and Ewing.

There was a big hole with a radius of about one meter on the ground in the distance. Casey was standing in the hole, gasping for breath. It seemed that he was tired.

Ewing was lying on the ground. He was motionless. No one knew whether he was still alive or not.

Everyone was dumbfounded. None of them had expected that Ewing, who had been a Half Step Master, would lose the fight!

It meant that Casey was at least as powerful as a Half Step Master.

"Oh, my God. He's only in his twenties.

Compared with him, I was not as powerful as a peasant. Oh, no, I'm a peasant now." Foley said to himself.

Casey gave "Ewing" a glance and took a deep breath. He was tired, but he clearly knew that he could go on fighting.

He came close to "Ewing", lowered his head and took a look at him.

Just now, when he used Moon Invitation, he could actually kill Ewing.

But Casey finally showed some mercy and just injured "Ewing".

"Ewing" couldn't believe it. Seeing that Casey came over, he asked with perplexity in his eyes, "Why...Why can you use such a powerful move? I can feel that you're just an inner force expert in medium stage."

Casey stared at him for a moment and said, "There isn't just inner force in the world."

"Ewing" thought for a moment. Then he put on a ferocious smile, after which he closed his eyes.

Casey thought that Ewing had died. He wondered: Just now, I didn't use all my strength. Why would he die? At this time, Ewing, who had already closed his eyes, suddenly coughed violently. After that, he opened his eyes. Now, his eyes were clear.

"He's dead. He's finally dead. Ha, ha, ha, it never occurs to me that he would disappear from my body in such a way. Casey, thank you for showing me mercy. Otherwise, I would also be dead, just like him." Ewing laughed, although he was injured.

Casey also didn't expect that he should kill the evil personality of Ewing. He looked at Ewing, who was lying on the ground, and was a little surprised.

"Are you sure that...he has been killed by me?" Casey asked.

Ewing seriously nodded. Then he took out a token from his pocket. There was a word "Yin" written on it.

"This token is reward. Before I was put into here, I founded a hit squad named Yin Killers. It's a little influential in the world. You can have them under your command with this token on the premise that you can leave this prison."

"But I believe that you won't be always stuck in this place."

Ewing said with a smile.

Casey didn't hesitate. He took the token and gave it a glance.

Ewing was right. He had never thought of staying here for the rest of his life.

Sooner or later, he would leave.

As for this token, even if he didn't need it, the Davies family would certainly need it. An organization established by a Half Step Master must be quite powerful.

Casey helped Ewing up and took him to his cabin. There was no reason for him to kill Ewing. After all, the evil personality of Ewing had already died. When Ewing had this personality, he was quite a nice person.

Casey was not a homicidal maniac who would kill whoever he met.

Casey felt strongly about the fight with Ewing. He got to know how powerful real Grandmaster was by knowing how powerful a Half Step Master was.

At the same time, he confirmed his guess: With XuanJin, he could be match for Grandmaster when he was an inner force expert in medium stage. Moreover, if both Grandmaster and he tried their best, he might not be the one who lost. After all, Casey had the third unique move. He believed that even a real Grandmaster would be afraid when he used that move.

The news that Casey had defeated Ewing spread quickly throughout No. 5 Prison. People all marveled at how powerful Casey was. At the same time, they all clearly realized that the most powerful person in No. 5 Prison had changed from Ewing to Casey who had just been in No. 5 Prison for four months.

The management of the prison also paid special attention to Casey because Casey had brought too much surprises to them.

A few days later, Casey came out of his cabin and watched Foley directing others to bag the ripe potatoes and bundle up the wild vegetables. He stretched lazily.

He had been in No. 5 Prison for a long time, and it was time to find a way out.

Chapter 724 The Way to Leave No. 5 Prison

"Warden, go to have a look hurriedly. Casey is doing something outrageous again. At this rate, sooner or later, No. 5 Prison will be ruined by him." In the corridor, an old man caught up with Dudley and said with an anxious expression.

Dudley stopped, turned his head, looked at the old man and asked, "What is he doing? Could it be that he begins to slaughter people?"

"No, he didn't. But what he's doing is even worse. Go to have a look, and you'll know." The old man said.

Hearing that, Dudley nodded, turned around and went to the monitoring room with him.

There had already been many people standing in the monitoring room. They were all watching what was happening on the Edith Mountain on the screen. On the screen, Foley was standing in front of the pile of potatoes and was asking his men to put the potatoes in order. In front of them, there was a long line of people who looked excited.

A piece of cloth hung beside Foley. There were some words on this piece of cloth: If you cast one vote, you can get a bag of potatoes and a bundle of wild vegetables. It was an opportunity not to be missed!

Casey was sitting on the wooden rocking-chair Foley specially made for him, looking very relaxed.

Seeing that, Dudley couldn't help laughing at once, saying, "He's just making others vote for him in this way. It's not outrageous."

"Warden, No. 5 Prison, which is always called purgatory, is made a farmer's market because of Casey. Isn't it outrageous?"

"Besides, the prisoners should really go to vote to get potatoes. Look at the long queue. I estimate that Casey will get the vote from about half of the prisoners after they all vote."

"At that time, according to the rule, we'll have to let him leave No. 5 Prison."

Hearing that, Dudley frowned at once and said, "Unexpectedly, his idea should work. Isn't it that the prisoners always don't trust others? Why do they believe Casey?"

"We have no idea. Before, no one dared to go to vote in exchange for potatoes and wild vegetables. However, later, Caldwell came to this place with a group of people. After they voted, they all got potatoes and wild vegetables. Finding that Casey was honest, others all went to vote."

"Later, the people on List of Malicious People, who had lost to Casey, all came to vote for Casey with their men. So there are so many people queuing up there."

Hearing that, Dudley sighed helplessly and said, "Even if he really gets the vote from the prisoners in this way, we can't stop him. After all, this rule was made a long time ago. If half of the prisoners really vote for him, we have to let him leave the prison."

Hearing that, people present all wore a somewhat complicated look. They had thought that the first person who could leave No. 5 Prison by getting vote from half of the prisoners must be a vicious person who killed a lot of people. To everyone's surprise, the person who had the ability to do so should decide to get the vote by distributing potatoes.

"We can't keep him here." Dudley murmured.

On the Edith Mountain.

Casey stared at the people who lined up to get potatoes with a smile. Even he didn't expect that his idea would work so well.

The most important reason why it worked so well was that the experts in fighting on List of Malicious People who had lost to him all came to vote for Casey with their own men to thank Casey for not killing them. It encouraged other prisoners to vote.

Besides, Foley had always been telling them, "What's good about fighting all day long? Why not just plant potatoes in peace? The reason why you fight with each other is that you want to get food from others. If you plant potatoes yourself, you'll have enough food to eat. Besides, you don't need to take the risk of being killed by others. It's so good. Why are you still hesitating?"

After some thought, the prisoner all believed that Foley was right. Anyway, since they had been put into No. 5 Prison, it was meaningless to have ferocious fight. It would be better to settle down, plant potatoes and live a pleasant life.

"Casey, you've got vote from more than half of the people. In theory, you should be able to leave. After you leave, you must remember me. If you have the chance, come to visit me with delicious food." Foley stared at Casey with a reluctant expression. After staying with Casey for so long, when it was time for Casey to leave, he should really be reluctant to part with Casey.

Casey smiled at Foley and said, "These days, you help me a lot. I should give you some reward. I can't teach you martial arts, but I should be able to let you leave here with me."

Hearing that, Foley immediately widened his eyes, looked at Casey in disbelief, and said, "Casey, are you kidding me? How can you let me leave here with you?"

"Didn't you say that I've got the vote from half of people? Now, you can let them vote for you. As long as you also get the vote from half of the people, you can leave here with me, right?"

According to the rule, people should be allowed to leave when they get the vote from half of the people, right?" Casey spoke.

Foley became excited immediately. He didn't expect that Casey would give him such a big surprise. He had believed that he would have to stay in No. 5 Prison for the rest of his life long before. Unexpectedly, he met Casey. It was really the luckiest thing in his life. He didn't refuse. Everyone knew what it meant. If one had the chance to go out, one wouldn't be stupid and chose to stay in this place.

Foley immediately happily asked people to vote for him and worked harder to encourage people to vote than before. Seeing that, Casey sighed. He had already discussed with Ewing. After he left, Ewing would take over the Edith Mountain and continue to promote the idea that production was the first essential factor for peace and development.

In the evening, Casey and Foley came to the Prison Office Building.

Dudley stood in front of them. Behind him were all the experts in fighting of the staff of the prison.

"Are you both sure that you're going to leave here?" Dudley asked.

Casey nodded with a smile and spoke, "My wife and my child are waiting for me at home. According to the rule, even if you're the Warden, you should have no right to keep us here."

Dudley nodded and said, "You're right. Both of you have got the vote from half of the people. According to the rule, I should let you two leave. But I want to remind you of one thing."

"Myles is outside. He has been waiting here for over four months. Before you're killed, he won't leave. If you go out now, you'll directly meet him. At that time, your business will have nothing to do with us."

Chapter 725 Are You So Sure that You Can Kill Me?

"What!!! Myles? The famous Grandmaster? My God, Casey, why would he wait for you outside?" After hearing what Dudley said, Foley exclaimed and looked at Casey in disbelief.

"I killed his student before. He must come to take revenge on me."

Casey raised his eyebrows. It never occurred to him that Myles would have been waiting outside No. 5 Prison. It seemed that Myles was very protective of his student.

Foley trembled, looked at Casey in horror and murmured, "Killed...Killed a student of a Grandmaster. Casey, you...you're so bold."

He had considered it to be very fortunate that he could leave No. 5 Prison with Casey. However, after knowing that there was a Grandmaster waiting outside and wanting to kill Casey, he regretted it a little at once.

"Casey, among all the people I've ever seen, you have the greatest potential. If given more time, you'll definitely become a Grandmaster. Compared with a punishment, staying in No. 5 Prison is more like the only way for you to avoid being killed by Myles. You can leave here after you become a Grandmaster."

Foley hurriedly nodded and spoke, "Casey, what about not leaving? Grandmaster is very powerful. If we leave here now, we might be killed by Myles."

Casey was lost in thought. He didn't expect that Myles would come to wait outside No. 5 Prison.

Now, his XuanJin was still at advanced stage of initial stage. If he got an opportunity, he would be able to break through. If his XuanJin could be in medium stage, he wouldn't be afraid of Myles.

Before, he believed one thing: After he left No. 5 Prison, even Myles wanted to find him, it would take him some time. Casey had intended to manage to make his XuanJin enter medium stage during this period.

Unexpectedly, to take revenge for his student, Myles should come to wait outside No. 5 Prison. It never occurred to Casey that a Grandmaster would care so much about such a thing.

Following Dudley's suggestion seemed to be the best option at the moment, but Casey believed that he was match for Myles now.

He just needed an opportunity to make his XuanJin be in medium stage.

However, no one knew when Casey would have this opportunity. No one in No. 5 Prison was match for him now. It was a waste of time for him to stay here. Besides, fighting with Myles might be a chance for him.

The fastest way to break through was to fight with real experts in fighting.

After some thought, Casey made a decision. He gave Dudley a fist-and-palm salute and said with a smile, "Thank you for kindly reminding me.

However, since I'm already here, there is no need to go back to prison. As for the enmity between Myles and me, I'll figure out a way to deal with it."

Hearing that, Dudley sighed helplessly and didn't say anything more. He values Casey for his talent. However, if Casey insisted on leaving, he had no reason to stop him.

Seeing that Casey insisted on leaving after being informed that Myles was outside, Foley was immediately anxious and hurriedly spoke, "Casey, you must think it over. What if we're killed by Grandmaster soon after we manage to leave? It'll be too bad."

"If you're afraid, you can leave tomorrow. You don't have to leave with me now." Casey spoke.

After saying that, he directly walked towards the door.

Foley gritted his teeth and cursed, "Fuck, it's just a Grandmaster. If it wasn't for Casey, I might have long been killed in the prison. I can't be a coward at this moment."

Then, he hurriedly caught up with Casey and went out.

The people of Prison Office Building all went to watch Casey who they had paid close attention to for more than four months. Many of them wore a look of pity.

Before long, Casey and Foley came to the door of Prison Office Building.

Conway was standing there. He stared at Casey with a sigh and said, "When you just came here, I bet with others that you could only survive for more than ten days. Unexpectedly, you become the first person who could leave No. 5 Prison. It seems that I have looked down upon you."

Casey smiled at him and didn't say anything.

"Myles is outside. In my opinion, you had better run away at once after going out. Otherwise, you'll suffer a lot."

Conway added.

"Thank you." Casey replied politely.

The door of Prison Office Building opened slowly. Casey and Foley stood in front of the door. The wind blew right at their faces. Casey was refreshed.

Foley had looked forward to it for a long time, but he was not in the mood to enjoy the air outside the prison now.

There was a Grandmaster waiting for them now. Even if he wanted to cheer up, he couldn't.

On a large stone in front of the Prison Office Building, Myles sitting with his legs crossed and his eyes closed.

The moment the door of Prison Office Building was opened, he opened his eyes. His eyes were bright. He had a strong air of forcefulness.

Myles was an old man dressed in linen clothing. He looked ordinary. Casey looked at him and put on a serious expression. Myles was really a Grandmaster, and he was much more powerful than Ewing who was a Half Step Master.

Casey walked straight forward without any fear. Now, he was powerful enough to be match for Grandmaster.

Foley swallowed his saliva and followed Casey. Now, he only hoped that Myles would not kill him by the way when attacked.

After they went out, Dudley also went out with the management of prison who were all experts in fighting, and stood behind Casey.

Foley thought for a moment, and finally stood among the management of the prison. After all, even if he stood beside Casey, he could be of no help.

Myles looked at Casey up and down, and then said tonelessly, "Are you Casey?"

"Yes. To kill me, Myles, who is a famous Grandmaster, should be willing to wait for me outside the prison for such a long time. Your persistence is really admirable." Casey spoke.

Myles sneered and said, "You killed the only student of me. I should take revenge for him. Since you leave No. 5 Prison today, I'll kill you."

"Seriously, if you didn't have Theodore as your student, I might call you Grandmaster in a respectful way. However, you not only had Theodore as your student, but you also insist on taking revenge for him. Therefore, in my opinion, although you're powerful, you don't have the ability to judge people."

"It's useless for someone who will soon die to say so much." Hearing that, Myles didn't get angry.

"Are you so sure that you can kill me today?" Casey looked at Myles and put on a playful smile.

Chapter 726 Fight Against Myles

"You're but an inner force expert in medium stage. I can kill you with ease."

Myles sat still on the stone and moved his finger lightly. And a small stone flew towards somewhere between the eyebrows of Casey at an extremely high speed.

There was a Sonic Boom. People present were all startled. They didn't expect that Myles would directly attack Casey without saying anything more.

Grandmaster was inner force expert in advanced stage, and could kill someone by just flicking his or her fingers or by throwing a leaf.

The small stone Myles threw was no less powerful than a bullet.

Casey just narrowed his eyes. He felt how powerful the stone was. Then he used inner force and XuanJin at the same time. Then, he violently raised and waved his arm, making the stone change its direction with skill. The stone shot into a stone pillar of Prison Office Building.

There was instantly a hole as big as a finger on the stone pillar. Besides, there were immediately cracks looking like the web of spiders around the hole.

People present were worried about Casey. If Casey had been hit by the stone just now, he would have been dead now.

At the same time, they admired for the power Casey had. When being attacked by a Grandmaster, Casey should deal with it with such ease. If it were them, they might be killed before they could react to it.

Myles was also a little surprised. He was sure that he could kill an inner force expert in medium stage easily by flicking that stone. It was impossible for people who were not as powerful as Half Step Master to resist it. However, Casey dealt with it easily. He couldn't help having a new opinion of Casey.

"It seems that you're more powerful than I have imagined. You're more gifted than Theodore. However, it's Theodore that is my student, not you. So you'll definitely be killed today!"

Myles stood up.

Casey narrowed his eyes and was not afraid at all. He spoke, "Then, just let me know how powerful Grandmaster is!"

The management of No. 5 Prison all looked at Casey with some pity. Casey had dealt with the attack from Myles with ease just now. However, Grandmaster could not only flick a stone. There was little hope that Casey could survive after Myles fought with him.

"Casey's really very gifted. He's a man in a million. I've seen many geniuses these years, but none of them is more gifted than him. However, only the good die young. It's a pity that he has offended a Grandmaster."

"In the past four months, Casey brought us so much fun. Thinking of that, I should don't want him to die. If I were a Grandmaster, I would definitely go to help him."

"Alas, it's not that easy not to be killed by a Grandmaster. If people like us go to help him, we will definitely be killed. Being able to deal with the previous attack, Casey has been very powerful."

...

Myles stepped on the large stone with force. Instantly, the stone broke up into numerous pieces. Soon after that, he kicked all the pieces towards Casey. Casey quickly jumped, dodging most of the pieces. Then, he kicked a few of them towards Myles.

Myles broke up those pieces of stone into powder easily. At this moment, Casey had been close to Myles. Without any hesitation, he used both inner force and XuanJin and attacked Myles in the face.

"Tianxing Blow!"

Casey knew how powerful Grandmaster was and knew that he couldn't injure Myles by ordinary moves at all, so he directly used one of the three unique moves--Tianxing Blow.

Myles found that Casey's move was very powerful. He frowned. He had thought that he would be able to kill Casey with a casual punch at the moment when Casey came close to him.

But now he was forced to deal with the move Casey used seriously. If he didn't take this move seriously, he, as a Grandmaster, would be injured by Casey.

"Why is your move so different from the traditional martial arts? It should be so powerful. Where did you learn it?" After resisting Casey's attack, Myles asked with a frown.

Casey smiled and said, "Why should I tell you that?"

Myles's face became dark. He dared not to relax his concentration anymore. He knew that this person was powerful enough and that he should deal with him seriously, even though this person was only in his twenties.

The management of the prison were dumbfounded in shock at this moment after seeing how powerful Casey was just now. They had thought that Casey would be killed after being attacked by Myles for a few times. Unexpectedly, when they fought, Casey was no weaker than Myles at all. It was really beyond their imagination.

"Casey...Casey should be match for a Grandmaster. Oh, my God. Could it be that this fella has been a Grandmaster?"

"Oh, my God. We underestimate him until now. How much does he hide from others? Could it be that he is so powerful because he began to practice martial arts before he was born?"

...

Casey and Myles attacked each other for dozens of times. Casey was not injured at all. However, he knew that this was because he had exerted all his inner force and XuanJin.

He could only be in this state for a very short time. Once he used up his inner force and XuanJin, he would be very weak. At that time, he would be done. Therefore, he had to put an end to the fight as soon as possible.

Failing to kill Casey after having attacked Casey for so many times, Myles became a little anxious.

Moreover, he felt that the force Casey used was a little strange. It seemed to be inner force, but it was very different from inner force. He had some guesses about it.

As a famous Grandmaster, Myles knew much more than ordinary people.

"Fella, if you tell me where you learned the moves you use, I can consider not killing you." Myles spoke while staring at Casey.

"You're dreaming!" Casey shouted at Myles and then pat Myles again.

"Moon Invitation!"

Casey used the second move of the three unique moves and patted Myles in the chest. Myles concentrated on it. Daring not to be careless at all, he used all his force at once to resist Casey's attack.

After receiving it, Casey was instantly breathless and retreated backwards quickly. There was a little blood coming out of his mouth.

Myles also retreated a few meters back because of the powerful move--Moon Invitation. His hand was numb. It was very shocking that an inner force expert in medium stage could make him be like that.

Casey took a deep breath and regained his footing. He was injured, but it didn't affect him too much. He could continue to fight with Myles.

Myles stared at Casey. Then, he seemed to remember so

Chapter 727 Breakthrough

Casey's face changed when he heard Myles' words. He didn't expect Myles to know XuanJin

"What are you talking about? I don't know." Casey said directly.

XuanJin was Casey's secret. He would never tell anyone that he knew XuanJin before he figured out what was going on with this power.

Looking at Myles' reaction, Casey could also guess that XuanJin was definitely not simple.

The power actually made such a Grandmaster so excited. The secrets about XuanJin must be very significant.

"Don't play dumb with me. You just reached medium stage of inner force, but you can fight me like this. Apart from your practicing XuanJin, I can't think of any other possibilities!" Myles exposed Casey's secrets directly.

"Over the years, I have been looking for a way to cultivate XuanJin, but there are too few clues. I once thought XuanJin is just a legendary, but what I didn't expect is that I have seen you use XuanJin today."

"You just reached medium stage of inner force, but you can resist the power of Grandmaster. It seems that XuanJin is exactly like what my ancestries said. Mastering XuanJin is equal to master the real power."

"Casey, as long as you tell me the method of cultivating XuanJin, I can spare your life, and promise to accept you as my apprentice. I can be your backer, then there will never be another to bully you in the future. What do you think? ?"

Myles was quite gaffe, but at this time he didn't care about it anymore. After becoming Grandmaster, all he was looking for was power. But due to his talent, he could only be Grandmaster. When he was inadvertently looking through the genealogy, he learned about the existence of XuanJin.

It was said that the power that XuanJin could explode was several times or even dozens of times that of inner force. As long as he could get the method to cultivate XuanJin, he could go a step further above his original level.

Seeing Myles was like this, Casey immediately understood the importance of XuanJin. After hearing the conditions Myles had offered, Casey didn't move at all. He didn't believe Myles who claimed to kill him just now. It would have a probability that Myles would kill him after he told Myles the method of cultivating XuanJin.

After all, Myles was so obsessed with power. How could he let another person mastering XuanJin exist in this world, especially this person's talent was so terrifying.

"Stop talking nonsense here! The battle is not over yet. It will be unlucky if you are distracted!"

Casey said to Myles. At the same time, he had already accumulated the energy in his hand. When Myles was speaking just now, Casey had already prepared the last of the three tricks.

Myles snorted coldly, "You'd better tell me the method. If you are still stubborn, you will only die!"

Casey said with a smile, "Really? Just resist my move first!"

Then Casey pushed his palm out toward the front. The force carrying the earth-shaking power instantly swayed towards the surroundings.

"Thunder Shocking Blow!"

The last of the three tricks, carrying Casey's all power, shrouded towards Myles.

Myles' face changed. He didn't expect Casey to hide such a terrifying ultimate move. Then he made a decisive move and directly used his strongest trick.

"Brat, since you want to go to the hell, don't blame me!"

Myles also used his all strength and then directly came to Casey.

"Cloud Exploration Blow!"

Their hands were against each other. A strong energy burst out toward the surroundings. Several large trees that were close to Casey and Myles were hit by this energy and directly uprooted. The supervisors in the prison looked at this scene with solemn expressions on their faces. They did not expect that the battle between Casey and Myles could reach this level, which was really incredible.

A large cloud of dust rose and directly covered Casey and Myles, making it impossible for everyone to see exactly what the situation of the two of them was right now.

In the dust, Casey fell to the ground. He spit out a big mouthful of blood. That move just now completely exhausted all the power in his body. That was the strongest power he could explode at present.

But because of the fight just now, Casey vaguely noticed that he could break through the bottleneck of the initial stage.

He didn't hesitate at all, and quickly sat up cross-legged on the ground, calmly understanding the feeling that appeared in his mind. If nothing happened, he would soon be able to break it through and reached medium stage.

On the other side, Myles was also half-kneeling on the ground, with a trace of blood on the corner of his mouth. His entire face was a little paler than before. Casey's strongest blow made him to be seriously injured. This made Myles even more eager for the method of cultivating XuanJin. As long as Casey was still alive, he must let Casey tell him the method of cultivating XuanJin.

Although Casey's blow was very strong, he had already used his all power. So even if Myles was now seriously injured, Casey's situation was definitely worse than him. So Casey should have lost his combat effectiveness. Under this circumstance, it was not difficult for Myles to ask the method from Casey's mouth.

Myles gritted his teeth and stood up from the ground. He walked towards Casey step by step, passing through the dust, and soon he saw Casey sitting on the ground.

"Casey, your strength is awesome. This is that XuanJin brings to you. If I can practice XuanJin, my strength will definitely be able to break through the level of the grandmaster. At that time, no one can be my matches!"

"I know you have scruples, but you should understand that even if you practice XuanJin, you are still not my match. If I give you a period of time, I might really be defeated by you. It's pity that you have no chance now."

"That blow just now should be your limit. Even though I was seriously injured, I can still kill you. You should understand your current situation. Quickly hand over the method of cultivating XuanJin."

When Myles was saying, he reached out to grab Casey.

At this moment, Casey suddenly opened his eyes. The decadent aura on his body disappeared in a blink of an eye. The aura around his body continued to grow stronger, and the strength in his body was also rising.

Finally, in the moment of life and death when he fought against Grandmaster, Casey broke it through and reached medium stage. Casey felt his exhausted power gush out like spring water.

At this moment, Casey felt that he had the power to destroy the world.

Myles felt the changes in Casey's body.

His face changed drastically, and then he exclaimed, "How is this possible! Why is your aura stronger than before?"

Casey smiled at Myles and said, "You talk too much. You just don't look like Grandmaster."

After speaking, he got up instantly and rushed to Myles at a speed that Myles could not see through. Then he directly pinched Myles' neck and lifted him from the ground.

Chapter 728 Myles' Death

Myles reacted instantly. Then he was about to break free from Casey's hands. As Grandmaster, even if he was seriously injured, he couldn't stand still and wait to die.

However, when he used his inner force, an unimaginable force swept his whole body, pressing all his inner force back.

"Why... why?" There was horror in Myles' eyes. He had been Grandmaster for so many years. He had never encountered such a weak time.

Casey said with a smile, "Actually, I should thank you. If it weren't for this battle with you, I wouldn't have been able to break through to medium stage."

"Medium stage! Do you really have a way to cultivate XuanJin?" Myles' eyes widened round.

"Yes, it's done now. I won't lie to you. It is precisely because of XuanJin that you will end up like this. I didn't intend to kill you, but I didn't expect you to know XuanJin. If it is spread out, I will definitely become the target of the public, so I have to kill you to ensure my safety." Casey slowly said.

Myles suddenly became nervous. He gritted his teeth and said, "Let me go. I promise you that I will never tell others. I will never come to you for revenge in the future."

"Sorry, I don't believe you."

Casey said. In order to avoid some changes any more, he did not hesitate anymore. The hand which pinched Myles' neck instantly pressed hard. With a click sound, Myles passed away. Such a great Grandmaster, Myles, died in the hands of Casey.

After solving Myles, Casey threw his body on the ground. A light and fluttering feeling came from under his feet, then he took two steps back. Although he had already reached medium stage, the aura that he had just exploded was only temporary. Before that, he was in a severely injured state. Breakthrough would not heal his injuries.

After taking a deep breath, Casey felt the changes in his body, then an excited smile appeared on his face.

Although he had only achieved medium stage, he was actually stronger than other Grandmasters. This was the first time Casey had felt the satisfaction that power brought to him. He even had a faint expectation that what kind of level his power would reach when his inner force and XuanJin reached consummation.

Not far away, Dudley, Foley and others looked at the dust in front of them with solemn expressions on their faces. No one knew what was going on inside.

The confrontation between Casey and Myles just now gave them a big shock.

"Although Casey has amazing talents and unimaginable strength, his opponent is a Grandmaster after all. Casey might die just now."

"At the age of more than 20 years, he can compete with a famous Grandmaster to such a point. It is really unprecedented. No matter what, I will never forget Casey."

"If I have to fight with such a Grandmaster, I am afraid that I can't even take a single move, but Casey can achieve this level, which is really amazing."

...

Dudley also showed a trace of admiration on his face. If it was him who fought with Myles, he would be not sure what would happen. So he was very worried about Casey's condition.

If Casey died in Myles' hands, it would be really a pity.

"Boss, you are so stupid. With your talent, you can be a Grandmaster soon. Why do you have to come out to face Myles at this time? I haven't repaid your favor to me yet. But you just died like this. It makes me..." Foley said with a heavy face.

"Look at it, someone has come out from inside." At this moment, a person shouted.

Everyone hurriedly looked over there. Foley also stopped muttering. Although he felt that Casey would not be able to defeat Myles, he still had a glimmer of expectation.

In the dust, a thin and tall figure gradually became clear. Soon, everyone showed the most shocked expression on their faces because of the appearance of this figure.

"It's... it's Casey! He comes out! So Myles lost?!!!"

Many people swallowed. No one thought that the result of today's battle would be so unexpected.

After Casey walked out of the dust, he patted his clothes lightly, and then said to everyone in a flat voice, "Myles is dead. Bother you guys to clean up his body."

His words were like the thunder, blasting in everyone's ears. Everyone was dumbfounded.

The famous Grandmaster, Myles, in order to avenge his apprentice, traveled a long way to No. 5 Prison, but died here. If this incident were passed back to H Country, it would definitely become a major event in Guwu Circle.

Dudley looked at Casey with complicated eyes. Four months ago, this guy was just a young junior with good talents in his eyes. Four months later, this guy actually killed Myles in front of so many people. His shock couldn't be clearly expressed in words.

Foley exclaimed directly, "Boss, you are so awesome! That's a Grandmaster! You killed a Grandmaster. Just now I thought that you lost. It seems that I really underestimated you!"

Casey glared at Foley, then walked in front of Dudley and the others, bowed to Dudley, and said, "Thank you for the hospitality for more than four months. Now Myles is dead. You don't have to worry about me."

Dudley also said to Casey, "You are very strong. It is conceivable that the entire Guwu Circle will add some different colors because of your existence."

Casey smiled and said, "I'm flattered."

At this moment, Dudley thought very highly of Casey. So when he looked at Casey, it was not like that those elders were watching the youngers, but he treated Casey as his peers.

Casey didn't say too much. After speaking with Dudley a few words, he took Foley and left here. Now he needed to recover from his injury first, and then thought about the next things.

Not long after Casey and Foley left, a person walked up to Dudley and said, "Boss, Casey is gone, but he has left our prison a lot of trouble."

"What trouble?" Dudley turned his head and asked.

"Now many people in our prison have started planting potatoes because of Casey, and the atmosphere inside has become more harmonious than ever before. If this continues, it won't take long before they begin to become friends and to eat baked potatoes together."

"They are all prisoners. The original intention of our prison was to let them kill each other and let them compensate for their mistakes. Now this place has become their sanctuary."

After listening to that person's words, Dudley also frowned. From this point of view, Casey had indeed caused great trouble to No. 5 Prison.

It was just that Casey had already left, so how could he care about the future situation in No. 5 Prison? These were all problems that Dudley should have to solve...

Chapter 729 The Embarrassing Caro
At H Country Alliance of Chinatown in M Country.

In the living room, Caro was sitting on a chair in a daze. It could see a trace of sadness between her brows. No one knew what she was thinking about.

At this time Nicolle came over. Seeing his daughter like this, he teased, "Caro, are you thinking about Casey again?"

Caro was brought back to her thoughts by Nicolle's words. After realizing what Nicolle said, she suddenly blushed.

"Daddy, what are you talking about? I'm thinking about the four big families. I'm not familiar with that guy. Why should I miss him?" Caro quickly explained.

Nicolle looked through everything and said with a smile, "Caro, you don't need to lie to me. If you don't miss that guy, who are the dozen or so sachets in your room for? "

Caro immediately widened her eyes, stood up from the chair, and said,

"Daddy, you actually peeked at the things in my room!"

"I didn't take a peek. I accidentally saw them last time when I was looking for the broom. Caro, you are a girl. It is not a shame thing that you like a good boy. Just admit it. "Nicolle said.

Caro was a little speechless at once, wondering why she had such a gossip father.

"Huh, yeah, I just miss him, but I just don't admit it, unless...unless you can make him appear in front of me right now." Caro said angrily. But she didn't realize what she said was equivalent to admitting it.

Nicolle stared at Caro with a smile on his face. He was just about to say that he didn't have the ability. At this moment, there was a sound of footsteps outside, and then the door of the living room was pushed open.

"What are you talking about? You guys look so happy!"

When the two heard this sound, they both turned their heads quickly. After seeing Casey and Foley standing at the door, Nicolle and Caro were so shocked.

"...Casey, why are you here!" Caro looked at Casey in disbelief, then took another look at Nicolle, suspecting that Nicolle and Casey were in collusion. Just now she personally said that if Casey appeared in front of her, she would admit that she was thinking about Casey. Then Casey really appeared in the next second. What a coincidence! Nicolle was also so stunned. His look was as if saying, 'I really didn't know anything.' He was just joking with Caro. But who knew Casey suddenly appeared while they were talking?

"Casey, aren't you in No. 5 Prison? Why did you come back? Could it be that you escaped the prison?" Nicolle asked.

Casey smiled and walked over, "They release me out."

Caro looked at Casey with a flushed face, her heartbeat speeding up. She didn't know what to say for a while. The man she was thinking about day and night appeared in front of her suddenly, which made her very at a loss.

"Hey, why is your face so red? Are you sick?" Casey asked.

"We were talking about you just now. This girl said that as long as you show up, she would admit that she missed you. Now, you really show up. It seems that this is God's arrangement." Nicolle didn't hide anything, but told Casey everything.

Caro was so embarrassed that she wanted to shut Nicolle's mouth up. She really didn't know whether her father was really stupid or not. Her father actually told Casey directly without thinking about it, which made her so embarrassed.

Casey was also a little embarrassed. He didn't expect that the two of them were talking about this kind of thing.

At this time, Foley standing next to Casey felt that he had to do something. After all, he was Casey's bro now, so he had to behave well. Then he said to Caro, "Hello, this lady, you are so beautiful. You and my boss are really a perfect match."

Hearing what he said, Caro, who was already shy, was blushed even more. She didn't dare to look into Casey's eyes. Although Foley's words made her very shy, she still felt very happy that Foley said she and Casey were a perfect match.

Casey kicked Foley's ass directly, then Foley fell on the ground. Casey shouted, "What nonsense are you talking about? My wife is in H Country. This is the daughter of the chairman of H Country Alliance. Where is your manner?"

Foley was a little regretful. He didn't expect that this beautiful girl was not Casey's wife. He was a little ashamed, so he quickly apologized to Caro.

After a farce, the atmosphere in the living room finally became normal. But Caro still didn't dare to look directly into Casey's eyes. The usually arrogant lady was like a little shy girl at this moment. They sat down on the chairs. Nicolle looked at Casey curiously, and asked, "Casey, No. 5 Prison is called a purgatory. How did you get out of that prison? "

Before Casey could speak, Foley on the side began to talk about Casey's deeds in No. 5 Prison with a face full of excitement.

When Nicolle and Caro knew that Casey planted potatoes in No. 5 Prison, they both showed stunned expressions on their faces. It was really unexpected that Casey would come up with such a way to get himself to live well in No. 5 Prison. Both of them listened earnestly to Foley telling Casey's deeds. When they heard that Foley said Casey exchanged potatoes for everyone's vote in No. 5 Prison, they were more shocked. As expected, Casey's thoughts couldn't be estimated with common sense.

"I didn't expect that No. 5 Prison could have such a big change because of you. If the people inside really start to give up killing each other because of you and all start planting potatoes, the prison managements might have a headache." Nicolle said with a smile.

"Actually, you shouldn't come out in such a hurry. You should be very clear that Myles will not let you go. If Myles learns about that you come out, he will definitely come to you." Caro said to Casey with some worries.

Foley suddenly laughed and said, "You don't have to worry about that. We ran into Myles when we come out of the prison."

Both Nicolle's and Caro's faces changed. There was an inexplicable tension in their minds.

"Have you met Myles? Didn't he act on you guys?" Nicolle said.

"Of course he did, but you definitely can't guess the ending." Foley smiled mysteriously, and then narrated the battle between Casey and Myles outside the prison in a very exaggerated tone.

"What! Casey killed Myles!!!"

After listening to Foley's narration, Nicolle and Caro both patted the table in shock and shouted in unison.

Chapter 730 It's Easy to Deal with

In the living room, Nicolle and Caro stared at Casey for a quarter of an hour before they accepted the fact that Casey killed Myles.

At this time, in their eyes, Casey was no longer a genius, but a complete monster. They really couldn't imagine how a young man in his twenties could contend with a Grandmaster. Casey could kill Myles, which was enough to show that his strength had also reached the level of Grandmaster. A Grandmaster who was only more than 20 years old was enough to compare with those amazing geniuses in history. "Mr. Casey, you are so powerful and so young. A person like you will surely have limitless future achievements. Generally, people like you will have several women. I don't know if you are willing to accept a concubine, I think my daughter should barely qualify." Nicolle stared at Casey earnestly, and said seriously to Casey.

After Casey heard Nicolle's words, he was so speechless. The chairman of H Country Alliance was really keen to consider his daughter's marriage issues, as if he couldn't wait to let Caro get married.

"Mr. Nicolle, are you kidding? You just call me Casey. As for taking a concubine, I haven't considered it for the time being. Sorry, Mr. Nicolle." Casey refused.

Caro was so embarrassed. She directly stretched out her hand to pinch Nicolle's arm. She gritted her teeth and said, "Dad, if you say this again, I will sever father-daughter relationship with you. When you get old, I won't come back to take care of you!"

"Hey, it hurts. Silly girl, I'm just for your sake. If you don't try it, how can you know that you have no chance." Nicolle grinned in pain.

Seeing them like this, Casey smiled helplessly. He said, "I came here this time to thank you guys. If it weren't for Secret Skills you gave me, I may have died in Myles' hands now."

Nicolle was surprised and asked, "Have you learned the method in the Secret Skills?"

Casey nodded. He did not intend to conceal the incident. After all, it was Nicolle who gave him the Secret Skills. So he really needed to thank Nicolle. He also believed Nicolle and Caro wouldn't tell others the matter.

"If I guessed correctly, the Secret Skills will get involved a lot of stuff. I can tell you the method in the book, but you must ensure that you will not spread this method outside, because once others know that you guys know the method, what you are about to face will not only be chased by Grandmaster. Any Grandmaster who knows this matter may come to you guys." Casey said.

The faces of Nicolle and Caro both changed. They didn't expect that this Secret Skills could involve such a lot things, and it would made Grandmaster scramble for.

Nicolle thought for a while, and then he said, "You don't need to tell us about it. It was originally a gift that I gave you to thank you. Since you can see through the mystery in the Secret Skills, it has nothing to do with us."

"Moreover, the Secret Skills is so involved. Knowing it means to get into the trouble. I just want to live a peaceful life with Caro, and everything else doesn't matter."

Caro nodded too, obviously agreeing with Nicolle.

Casey didn't expect Nicolle to be so open-minded. Nicolle actually could resist the temptation of such a powerful cultivating method. It seemed that the chairman of H Country Alliance was indeed not an ordinary person.

Foley on the side wanted to know what Casey mentioned about Secret Skills, but he knew that the relationship between him and Casey had not reached that level.

"You don't need to tell us about the Secret Skills. I think you should be more concerned about the troubles encountered by the forces that Guanling deployed in M Country." Caro said.

Casey was taken aback, then asked, "What trouble?"

"Before Theodore died, he once controlled the four major families in Chinatown in M Country. He wanted to use it to allow the Turner family to rise to a higher level above the original level."

"Later, Theodore was killed by you, and all the senior members of the Turner family were slaughtered by you. The four major families took the opportunity to divide up the Turner family's properties. Then they learned through some channels that you were arrested into No. 5 Prison. So they began to be unscrupulous."

"Now the four major families are uniting against the forces deployed by Guanling in M Country. They have mastered the information of most of the people we have arranged in M Country. In order to eradicate the threats, they paid a lot of money and hired the killer from the world's number one killer organization, Yin Killers, to assassinate our men."

"Yin Killers is a very powerful killer organization. Those who are targeted by them are generally unable to escape the fate of being assassinated. The most important thing is that although these killers are proficient in assassination, there is no one who has inner force. Except for their leadership who is an inner force expert, the rest are ordinary people who specialize in assassination, so my father and I have no way to intervene in this matter."

"Yin Killers' assassination plan has not yet begun. Once it starts, none of the ordinary people in M Country who are arranged by Guanling can be alive."

After listening to what Caro said, Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect to meet this killing organization as soon as he came out of No. 5 Prison.

Now he still had the token that Ewing gave him. If Ewing hadn't lied, Casey now could be regarded as the leader of Yin Killers.

If Caro was just worried about this, Casey could say without exaggeration that the trouble had actually been solved.

"You can just leave this to me. The killer from Yin Killers will not attack the people in Guanling." Casey said with smile.

"Casey, the point of the problem is that the assassins of Yin Killers are all ordinary people. We can't do anything to them. Is it possible that you still want to be arrested into No. 5 Prison? As for the leader of Yin Killers, no one knows who he is. Even if your current strength is enough to kill him, there is no way to find where he is." Caro frowned and said. Because of this problem, she had been worried about for several days. As an inner force expert, she didn't worry about anything. But the people who were arranged by Guanling here couldn't be as calm as her.

Casey smiled and said, "I didn't plan to attack the killer from Yin Killers. This matter is actually easy to solve."

"Don't attack them? Then how do you stop those killers?" Caro asked with a puzzled face.

"If I say that I'm the leader of Yin Killers, will you guys believe it?"

Chapter 731 Teach You a Lesson

In M Country, at Queen District, in a hot bar.

Casey and Caro came in. Caro wore a short skirt today. She was sexy and enchanting. In the four months that Casey hadn't been there, she had been wearing the leather pants and jacket. Originally, when Casey told Caro that he was the leader of Yin Killers, Caro didn't believe it at all, thinking that Casey was joking.

Casey told Caro about Ewing's affairs in No. 5 Prison, and said that he did not expect it to be so coincidental.

If these four major families looked for other organizations to deal with the people in Guanling, Casey might have to spend some efforts to deal with. But they looked for Yin Killers, then things were much easier.

Casey only needed to find the current leader of Yin Killers, and showed the leader the token that Ewing gave him. Then he just ordered the person to refuse the task of the four major families, and the matter would be over. They came to this bar today to find the current leader of Yin Killers.

When Casey was in No. 5 Prison, Ewing told Casey how to contact the people from Yin Killers. Casey contacted the leader of Yin Killers through that method. They arranged to meet in this bar tonight.

Because Caro's figure and appearance were so attractive, as soon as the two entered the bar, they attracted a lot of people's attentions.

Many young and strong men whistled at Caro, not caring about Casey who was following Caro.

"It's really annoying. These stupid guys! If it is not restricted by the rules of law enforcement, I will definitely slap them to let them know how powerful I am."

Caro said with a gloomy expression.

Casey smiled and said, "If I remember correctly, Executor are only in charge of the actions of inner force experts in the Chinatown, right?"

"Yes, why did you say this suddenly?"

Caro asked with some confusion.

Caro didn't know what to say. Then she suddenly understood what Casey meant. At the same time, she figured out something.

"Yes, this is Queen District. Executor simply can't control here. Even if I kill people here, Executor will not come to me. They only control the area of Chinatown." Caro said.

Casey smiled and nodded, agreeing with Caro's idea.

In fact, this was what he learned in No. 5 Prison. The existence of Executor was to prevent the inner force experts from influencing the development of the secular world on a large scale, and this secular world referred only to H Country and Chinatowns around the world.

What about other countries, Executor would not have the slightest concern.

They also acquiesced in some inner force experts to do things in other parts of M Country. After all, doing so was no harmless for H Country, as long as it did not hurt the compatriots.

Moreover, after staying in No. 5 Prison for a long time, Casey also gradually understood that Executor couldn't take care of a lot. For example, if Casey wanted to kill ordinary people, as long as he was more concealed and didn't kill so many people at a time, Executor couldn't find it out.

In this world, there were many inner force experts who were obsessed with glory and wealth. Maybe there were some inner force experts who hid in the world's top families. Just others didn't know it.

There were not a few existences like the Briggs family in H Country. People often ignored their existence just because they couldn't reach that level.

The most important point was that Casey now understood that Executor were only in charge of people who were below the level of medium stage. Once they reached medium stage, even Executor couldn't restrain them.

One was because Grandmaster was powerful, and the other was because there were not a lot of Grandmasters among Executors. So even they wanted to manage it, they couldn't.

Therefore, with Casey's current strength, even if he went to kill the Turner family again, Executor may just give him some warnings. But it was absolutely impossible to put Casey into No. 5 Prison.

After all, even if Executor really sent a Grandmaster, he might not defeat Casey, let alone arrest him.

Therefore, Casey deeply realized that in this world, only absolute power was the goal he should pursue eternally. With absolute power, everything else was at his fingertips.

"Hmph, if they dare to whistle to me again, I'll kick their asses to see if they dare to flirt with me." Caro said angrily.

The two came to the front of the bar. Casey ordered two glasses of wine and handed one to Caro. After that, he reached out and tapped on the counter in a rhythmic manner.

After the bartender saw it, he glanced at Casey. But he didn't say anything. He just turned and walked inside.

While Casey and Caro were waiting, a few men in M Country with ear studs, nose studs, and lip studs walked towards the two of them.

These people stared at Caro with squinting eyes, and surrounded her.

"Girl, you're so hot. Your skirt is so short. Is it to make it easier for me to get you from behind? How about going with us? I promise you will enjoy it." The man who took the lead smiled lewdly. Caro suddenly felt disgusting. In M Country, this kind of gangsters were everywhere. If a girl walked alone at night, it was very likely that she would encounter some danger.

"Get away before I get angry!" Caro shouted at them with a cold face.

"Unexpectedly, your temper is also hot. I like it. Tonight, I will definitely let you be obedient." The man who took the lead did not take Caro's words seriously at all. Those people who were behind him also laughed.

Upon seeing this, Casey wanted to help Caro solve the trouble, so he said to the few people, "She told you to get away. Didn't you guys hear it?"

Several people all looked at Casey, then their eyes showed disdain. The person who took the lead directly yelled, "Disgusting H Country Monkey, just get out of here. Don't disturb me to talk with the girl here. Hurry up and get out of my face!"

Casey didn't intend to talk nonsense with these people. He was ready to teach these guys a lesson directly. At this moment, Caro stopped Casey and said with a smile, "This kind of bastards, I can do it myself. I've long wanted to teach them a lesson. Let them be the sandbags for me."

After hearing what Caro said, Casey nodded.

Caro stared at the few people and moved her hands and feet.

Upon seeing this, the person who took the lead licked his lips and said, "I didn't expect that she was really a hot girl. She even wanted to do something with us.

Hey, let me taste your..."

Before he finished speaking, Caro had already slapped him on his face.

Although Caro only had a littler inner force, her power was no longer what ordinary people could bear.

The person who took the lead turned over in midair, and then fell to the ground.

"Today, I will teach you guys a lesson!"

Chapter 732 token of Yin killers

The other people who followed that man saw that he was slapped to the ground by Caro. They were all taken aback, and their gazes at Caro became vigilant.

Caro glared at these people fiercely.

Those guys realized that this beautiful woman was not easy to provoke. Then they all took the initiative to step back, intending to escape.

Caro didn't give them this opportunity. She rushed forward, and punched them all to the ground.

Everyone in the bar looked at Caro with surprise, and then there was a burst of warm applause, all expressing sincere admiration for Caro.

Caro clapped her hands. Seeing those gangsters who fell on the ground, she felt relieved.

In the past, there were always gangsters who came to tease her, but she always felt that she was already an inner force expert, so she didn't want to argue with them. She endured it all the time.

Now Casey's words made her aware of her status. As an inner force expert, when these foreign gangsters came to make trouble to her, she should deal with them severely. Otherwise, it would be meaningless that she strived to become an inner force expert.

After she taught these guys a lesson, she felt a lot easier. Perhaps, she was freer and easier in this state.

She turned to look towards Casey and found that Casey was staring at herself seriously and then slowly gave a thumbs up.

Caro looked ashamed, thinking that Casey was complimenting her. At this time, Casey spoke earnestly, "In the future, if there are boys present, it will be better for boys to solve this kind of thing, otherwise you can't get married."

Caro's eyes widened immediately. It took her a while before she realized what Casey meant. Was this guy saying that she was too violent just now, so it was hard for her to get married? !

She clenched her small fist in an instant. She couldn't wait to hit Casey a few times. How did such a man get his wife's love?

"It has nothing to do with you whether I can get married or not! I'm just so violent! So what? Humph!" Caro said angrily.

Casey did not dare to say anything. At this time the bartender walked up to them, glanced at the gangsters who fell on the ground, and said, "Come with me."

Casey and Caro looked at each other and walked in with the bartender.

Soon, the bartender took two people to the door of a room and said, "The person you are looking for is right there." Then he turned and left.

Casey did not hesitate, opened the door directly, and walked inside.

As soon as the two of them got inside, the door behind them was closed. It was pitch black and there was no light.

Casey could only feel Caro's position according to her breath. In the whole room, except for the two of them, it seemed that there was no other living person.

Casey felt it quietly. Now his inner force and XuanJin were both great. His perception was ten times stronger than that of ordinary people. If there was something wrong, he would soon feel it. "Stay where you are. Don't move. I'll go take a look." Casey said, and walked to the front.

Caro was not worried at all. After all, Casey killed a Grandmaster. Even if someone really wanted to attack them, it would be the other party who would get into the trouble.

After walking a few steps toward the front, Casey felt a faint strong wind next to him. He made a decisive move and immediately grabbed the person by the neck. As soon as he exerted force, he killed the person.

On the other side, another figure came to him quietly. Casey kicked him out, and the man screamed and slammed into the wall behind.

The two people who got close to Casey didn't have inner force. But even Casey was a little surprised by their means of hiding their breath. If they hadn't been so close to Casey, Casey would not have discovered their existence.

At this moment, the light in the room turned on. Casey saw a middle-aged man sitting in a chair in front of him. On both sides of the middle-aged man, five people in black suits stood neatly.

These people were all staring at Casey at this time. The middle-aged man sitting in the chair clapped his hands and said with a smile, "You're not bad. You actually can predict the position of my subordinates in total darkness. This is the first time I have encountered it in these years."

Casey also looked at the people in front of him with a little surprise. He didn't expect that there would be a total of 13 people in this room, but he didn't even notice them at all.

It seemed that it had reasons that Yin Killers could become a world-class assassination organization.

Although these killers didn't have inner force, if they could get close to those inner force experts and as long as their speed was fast enough and the killing weapon was sharp enough, even if the other party was a great inner force expert who had reached medium stage, he would be killed.

If those people used poison directly, the damage they could cause was even more terrifying.

"Are you the leader of Yin Killers?"

Casey looked at the middle-aged man sitting in the chair and asked.

The middle-aged man stood up and said, "No. I just help my big brother to be in charge of for a period of time. Who are you and why do you know the contact code for Yin Killers?"

Casey said with a smile, "If I guessed correctly, the person who told me the code should be your big brother."

The middle-aged man glared at Casey and said coldly, "Boy, don't joke with me. Otherwise, your ending will be terrible."

Casey shrugged and said, "Your brother is Ewing?"

The middle-aged man showed a hint of surprise on his face and asked, "How do you know my brother's name?"

"Then there should be no problem. Your brother told me this code." Casey said.

"It's impossible! My brother is currently being locked up in No. 5 Prison, where he can only get in but not out. Even if you have seen my brother, you should be in No. 5 Prison just like him. How could it be possible that you can appear in front of me? Who on earth are you!" the middle-aged man asked.

"I did know your brother in No. 5 Prison, and he indeed told me the existence of Yin Killers. As for No. 5 Prison where you can only enter but not leave, it is for ordinary people. If you want to get out, there is a way." Casey said.

"Don't quibble here. Hurry up and tell me your identities, otherwise don't blame me for being rude!" The middle-aged man still didn't believe Casey's words.

Casey was a little helpless, took out the token that Ewing gave him, and said, "I didn't lie to you. When you saw this token, you should believe it."

After seeing the token in Casey's hand, the middle-aged man exclaimed, "token of Yin killers!"

The ten killers standing next to him instantly knelt on one knee and bowed their heads at the token in Casey's hand.

Chapter 733 The Whole Yin Killers Listens to You

"Seeing token of Yin killers is like seeing the leader, it seems that what you said is true."

The middle-aged man spoke to Casey, then knelt on one knee and lowered his head in front of Casey.

Casey didn't expect this token of Yin killers to have such a big effect, so he asked, "You guys just kneel down without checking the authenticity of this token?"

"token of Yin killers is made of special materials, and it has a logo that can only be distinguished by the persons from Yin Killers. There is only one piece in this world, so it must be true." The middle-aged man said.

Casey stared at the token in his hand, but he didn't find anything special about this token. Maybe only the people from Yin Killers would know the characteristics of this token.

"You guys get up. There is no need to be so respectful." Casey said.

The middle-aged man and all the killers stood up. The middle-aged man's attitude towards Casey also changed a lot.

"How is my brother going now? Why did he give you token of Yin killers?" the middle-aged man asked.

Casey didn't conceal it either, and recounted what happened to Ewing in No. 5 Prison.

During the chat, Casey also learned that this middle-aged man was named Brady. He was an orphan. He was picked up by Ewing when he was a child and Ewing treated him as his own younger brother. He had been raised by Ewing. Besides, Ewing taught him a lot. After Casey heard it, he suddenly felt that Ewing was also a sentimental and righteous person. However, Ewing was too obsessed with power, which split out a demon and a tyrannical personality. Otherwise, he would not be locked up into No. 5 Prison.

After listening to Casey's explanation of Ewing's current situation, Brady felt a sigh of emotion. Then he said to Casey, "Since he gave you token of Yin killers, it shows that he attaches great importance to you. Since you are looking for us today, I will put all the resources of Yin Killers on you, making you the top killer in the world."

Casey laughed immediately after hearing this. He didn't tell Brady that Ewing gave him token of Yin killers just because Ewing was defeated by him, so Brady didn't know Casey's strength.

"No need, I don't currently have any plans to become a killer." Casey said. Brady suddenly looked at Casey with a bit of puzzlement and said, "Casey, you know that we are the No. 1 killer organization in the world. The resources we control have reached the point where you can't imagine. If we use our resources to train a person, geniuses from all over the world will surely scramble for it."

"You can easily find the two killers close to you just now, indicating that your talent is not bad. If you are cultivated, you will be able to shine in the future. I can guarantee that you will become a great inner force expert."

"But you actually refuse us. Do you know what a good opportunity you will miss?"

Listening to Brady's earnest words, Casey smiled, "There is no need for this. Leave these resources to those who need it more."

"You brat, why don't you understand me? This is a great opportunity for you to become an inner force expert. You should know how terrifying an inner force expert is, right?" Brady suddenly felt a little anxious.

Caro who was on the side couldn't stand it anymore, and just laughed out directly.

Brady glanced at Caro and asked, "What are you laughing at?"

"He killed a Grandmaster. Now you let him be an inner force expert. Of course he is not happy." Caro smiled.

"What...what!" Brady exclaimed directly, looking at Casey in disbelief, "You killed a Grandmaster? How is this possible!"

Seeing Brady didn't believe him, Casey reached out and picked up a grain of sand on the ground, then aimed at a teacup on the table, and lightly flicked it. The sand which was carrying with Casey's power collided with the teacup. That teacup was instantly broken into pieces.

"Do I need to explain it now?" Casey said with a smile.

Brady and the killers watched this scene dumbfoundedly. Shatter a teacup with a grain of sand! Only a Grandmaster could do this.

"You...you actually have the strength of a Grandmaster, but you are only in your twenties! This...this is really beyond my imagination." Brady said somewhat unacceptably.

Casey said with a smile, "I'm just lucky. Actually, we came to you this time because we want to ask you for help."

"What's the matter?" Brady hurriedly asked. After knowing Casey was a Grandmaster, he no longer dared to neglect anymore.

"Have you recently taken over the tasks of the four major families in Chinatown?" Casey asked.

Brady nodded.

"The people they let you kill are all my subordinates, so I hope you can refuse the task." Casey said.

Brady immediately laughed and said, "You have token of Yin killers, which means that the entire Yin Killers needs to listen to your orders. What kind of tasks we can take is up to you, let alone refuse the task of the four major families. Even if you want to kill them all, it is not difficult."

Hearing Brady's words, Casey also showed a smile on his face.

Although he now had the strength to contend with Grandmaster, theoretically, even if he really wanted to kill people from the four major families, Executor could have no ways to him, but he did not have to go against with Executor. Therefore, if Casey wanted to get rid of the four major families, he did not need to do it himself.

Yin Killers was his best choice.

Except for Brady, an inner force expert who had reached medium stage, the others in Yin Killers were ordinary people. If they killed the people of the four major families, it would be just a battle between ordinary people. Executor simply couldn't control it. "If that's the case, I will be so happy. When I need to get rid of these four major families, I hope you guys can help me at that time." Casey said respectfully.

"This is what I should do." Brady quickly replied. Being able to work for a Grandmaster was only good for them, not to mention that Casey was still holding token of Yin killers.

"The assassination plan set by the four major families is on the 15th. At that time, they will hold a banquet to celebrate this event. Why don't we attack them on that day?" Brady said. Casey narrowed his eyes when he heard Brady's words. Then he said, "Okay, then on the day of the banquet, let them know what the ending will be. " The people of the four major families would never have expected that their banquet to celebrate the assassination plan would be their own last supper.

Chapter 734 Four Major Families Are Just Shit

In Chinatown, at a fairly high-end coffee shop.

Casey and Caro were sitting by the window, with a cup of coffee in front of each. The soft music played in the cafe, giving people a soothing and relaxing feeling.

Tonight was the day when the four major families held a banquet. Before that, Caro wanted to tell Casey about the four major families, so she brought Casey to the cafe.

As for why Caro came to the coffee shop, Casey didn't know. Caro said here was quiet and suitable for chat.

However, after Casey came in, he discovered that it was a cafe for couples. Those who came in were all couples.

Caro said that she didn't know it. But since they had come, they weren't willing to go to other places. Casey thought it was nothing, so he sat down. But when they ordered coffee, Caro didn't look like she was here for the first time, which made Casey very strange. Caro was shy from beginning to end. Casey didn't know what she was thinking about.

"The four major families are the Chow family, the Willson family, the Ceng family and the Morris family, headed by the Chow family. They are also families with a certain degree of influence in the world. Later, with the help of the Turner family, they all entered the ranks of the world's first-class families."

"If you look at one of their families alone, it will not cause fear for Guanling, but if the four families join forces, it is not a force that can be underestimated. After the decline of the Turner family, most of the industries have been occupied by the four major families. So the four major families are now in full swing."

"It is necessary to mention that the four major families did a lot for your grandfather's death. There are many links in the middle, which were all done by people from the four major families." Hearing Caro's words, Casey's face sank. Originally, the four major families planned to attack the people in Guanling, so Casey didn't plan to let them go. Now he knew that the death of his grandfather was also related to them, then these four major families were even more unlikely to be forgiven by Casey.

"No matter how great they look like now, after tonight, these four major families will only be history." Casey said lightly. Caro nodded earnestly. She didn't feel that Casey was bragging. She felt that Casey was very attractive when he said such words.

After talking about the four major families, the two chatted casually. Caro seemed to be very interested in the affairs of Casey's wife. Casey was also very happy to tell her the story between himself and Edith.

Just when Casey was talking happily and Caro was listening carefully, suddenly four dressed in fashionable came in outside the cafe. At first glance, others knew they were the rich. There were three men and one woman. All of them followed by bodyguards who looked fierce.

As soon as they came in, a group of bodyguards began to let others get out, shouting, "You guys hurry out. Here is reserved by Mr. Everett today. If you don't want to cause trouble, hurry up and leave now. Otherwise, you will know what the regret is!"

The couples in the cafe saw that these people were not easy to mess with, so they hurriedly got up and ran away from the cafe.

Caro glanced at the four people, and said, "They belong to the four major families. They are all children of the heads of the four major families.

Because the four major families are in full swing during this time, and they are all very arrogant."

Casey nodded. It was obvious that these four people were domineering rich second generations.

"What should we do now?" Caro asked.

"Wait for them to come. If they really don't know how to be polite, I will teach them a lesson first before teaching their elders." Casey replied.

Soon, everyone in the cafe walked out, leaving only Casey and Caro.

The bodyguards walked over and yelled at Casey and Caro. However, both of them didn't move, and just continued to drink coffee.

Everett Chow, the young master of the Chow family, Douglas Willson, the young master of the Willson family, Beverly Ceng, and the young lady of the Ceng family and Paige Morris, the young master of the Morris family, also noticed Casey and Caro.

When the three young masters' eyes fell on Caro, their eyes lit up. Although Beverly was a bit attractive, it was far worse than Caro. So after Beverly saw Caro, she immediately showed a look of contempt.

"There are people who are not afraid of death. They even dared to sit there and not leave. I'll go to teach them a lesson."

Beverly snorted coldly. She wanted to slap Caro on her pretty face.

Upon seeing this, Everett quickly stopped her and said with a smile, "Don't be so angry. You're a lady. We go over and chat with them."

Both Douglas and Paige nodded.

Beverly could immediately see what the three people were thinking about. They just wanted to flirt with Caro, but the more they were like this, the more annoyed Beverly became.

The four of them walked towards Casey and Caro. Everett ignored Casey and said to Caro, "Beauty, do you mind having a coffee with us?"

Caro glanced at him and said, "I mind."

Everett was immediately embarrassed. He had never thought that Caro would reject him so directly, but there were no girls who dared to talk to him like this.

Beverly immediately said, "Bro, why are you polite to her? Isn't she just a vixen? I think it's no different from the women you used to play with. If you really want to fuck her, just ask someone to take her back. Why are you so polite to her?"

"Who is a vixen!" Caro patted the table suddenly, her face full of anger.

Beverly sneered at Caro and said, "Hey, your temper is not good. If it wasn't for Everett who wants to fuck you, believe it or not, I will ruin your face now. You know who we are? Dare to be arrogant here?"

Caro was so angry that her chest was up and down, thinking that the people of these four major families were really so vicious. It'd better to get rid of them as soon as possible.

Casey smiled, and said to Caro, "Don't be angry. Probably in her eyes, anyone who is prettier than her is a vixen."

When Caro heard Casey's words, she was happy. Was this guy boasting that she was beautiful?

Beverly was so furious and shouted directly at Casey, "What are you? You dare to slander me? I think you want to go to the hell!"

Everett also looked at Casey coldly. "Brat, you should have heard of the four major families? The four of us are the young masters and young ladies of the four major families. If you don't want to die, immediately kneel down and apologize to Beverly. Otherwise, don't blame us for being rude." Everett said. Casey smiled and said indifferently, "The four major families? It's just a shit! Let me kneel down and apologize? You wish!"

Chapter 735 She Is Ugly

After hearing Casey's words, Everett and his companions all looked gloomy. In their eyes, Casey wasn't anybody, and he was not qualified to challenge them.

What Casey said was tantamount to looking for death.

"How dare you! You are still the first one who dare to slander the four big families. What kind of background do you have that you dare to ignore the four big families?" Everett stared at Casey and asked.

Casey smiled and said, "You don't deserve to know."

Seeing Casey so arrogant, Everett was so angry that his fists clenched.

"Everett, this person is dressed so ordinary. Obviously, he does not come from a privileged background. I think it is only a bluff. He just doesn't want to lose face in front of this bitch. Let's not talk nonsense with them," Beverly said fiercely.

"Yeah, Beverly is right. If he really has a strong backing, can we still not know him? Quickly clean him up. He spoils my coffee time," Douglas and Paige also echoed.

Everett nodded, turned his head and glanced at the bodyguards next to him, and said, "Teach this guy a lesson. People like him will only give up only at the sight of the gallows."

Caro instinctively wanted to beat up these people in front of her, but when she thought of what Casey said about her last time, she immediately held it back, then looked at Casey and said, "You are a boy, you come to solve them. Otherwise, you will think I am violent again."

Casey smiled, got up from the chair, and looked at the bodyguards.

The bodyguards approached Casey, reaching out to grab him, and Casey attacked each of these bodyguards at a rapid speed, causing them to temporarily lose their ability to move. Seeing that these bodyguards fell to the ground with the blink of an eye, Everett and other three people were shocked, and they didn't expect Casey to be so powerful.

"Damn, don't think that you can be pretentious as you are good at fighting. The power of the four big families is not something you can contend with!" Beverly shouted at Casey. At this time, she could only use the four big families to suppress Casey.

Everett also swallowed, staring at Casey and said, "No matter how strong you are, in front of the four big families, you're nobody. But we don't want to embarrass you. Apologize to us now and this matter will be over."

Casey glanced at Everett, then slapped him on the face and said, "It is you who should apologize, can the members of the four big families be so arrogant?" Seeing Everett being beaten, Douglas and Paige immediately wanted to help him.

Casey didn't hesitate. After kicking Everett to the ground, he slapped Douglas and Paige separately, and knocked them to the ground later. When Beverly saw that Casey didn't care about the identity of the four big families, she started to panic.

At this time Casey walked up to her, and she quickly said: "You, what do you want to do? I am a girl, do you still want to hit a girl?"

"You didn't think of yourself as a girl when you scolded me just now, but now you even try to condemn me with it. You are a girl, so what? Defiant, arrogant and domineering girls also should be beaten!"

After speaking, Casey slapped Beverly on the face and let her sit on the ground. A bright red palm print appeared on Beverly's face. She covered her face and burst into tears.

"Wait for me, I want to tell my dad, let my dad beat you and the bitch. You two are full of shit!"

Casey smiled, looked at the four people who fell on the ground, and said, "You three, if you want to walk out from here intact, apologize to me and scold this woman for being ugly, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude."

After speaking, Casey stepped on Everett's leg, and after a little effort, Everett screamed in pain.

He knew that if he didn't follow Casey's instructions, his leg would probably be scrapped today.

"I...I'm sorry, Beverly, you...you are an ugly monster!" Everett gritted his teeth and shouted.

Beverly was stunned for a moment. She didn't expect that Everett would actually scold her.

Casey nodded in satisfaction, then walked to Douglas and Paige, and in the same way, they both apologized and scolded Beverly.

Beverly was about to break down at this time. The three people are her best friends. They even called her ugly in front of her. Even if she knew that they were being forced, she felt a little unacceptable.

Casey saw Beverly's expression and knew that she was being punished more severely than Everett, Douglas and Paige.

Mental injuries were often far more severe than physical injuries.

"It is your turn now. You only have to just apologize. But if you want to scold yourself, I don't mind," Casey said.

"Dream on!" Beverly said hysterically.

Casey stared at the waist of a bodyguard on the ground. There was a dagger pinned to it. He took the dagger directly and shook it in front of Beverly, saying, "If you don't apologize, I will shave your face. t I'm a man of my word."

Beverly was frightened at once, staring at Casey with a grieved expression, and finally could only say, "I... I'm sorry."

After speaking, she cried.

This was definitely the most aggrieved time in her life.

Seeing all four people apologized, Casey looked at Caro and said, "Let's go."

Caro stood up, smiled and walked out with Casey.

They all looked at Beverly with guilt, and didn't know how to comfort her for a while.

"Beverly, we were forced. In fact, you are not ugly at all. It was the bastard who deliberately asked for trouble," after a long time, Everett said.

Both Douglas and Paige hurriedly echoed with a few words of comfort. Beverly cried even harder when she heard this.

"I don't care, I must smash that guy to pieces and disfigure that woman! I will go back to my father and let him avenge me," Beverly said.

"Beverly, why don't you bear it first? Tonight is the banquet of the four big families. It is not a good time to bring up unnecessary ramifications. Didn't we find the best killer organization to deal with those people from Guanling? When their mission is over, we can ask one of them to kill that guy. As for the woman, we will catch her for you. What do you think?" Everett said.

Beverly snorted coldly and said, "Then let the killer kill that kid. What if he is good at fighting? I don't believe that he can beat the killer trained by the best killer organization!"

Chapter 736 Too Disrespectful to Us
Eight pm.

In front of a palace-style hotel in Chinatown, there were brilliant lights and luxury cars.

Many people in gorgeous evening dresses entered the hotel one after another, most of them were Asian, and occasionally some people from M Country could be seen entering.

As the four world-class families, the four big families could compete with the world's top families when they worked together. Naturally many people would attend their banquet as a mark of respect.

Everett, Beverly, Douglas and Paige had also put on more formal clothes at this time, instead of their parents, welcoming guests who came to the banquet.

"After the banquet is over, I must go to my father and Uncle Franco, and ask them to lend me a killer. I will get angry when I think of that damn guy," Beverly said with a gloomy face.

"Don't worry, I heard that the people from Yin Killers will also come here today. It is an easy thing to ask them for a favor to kill that guy," Everett said with a smile.

Beverly nodded earnestly, with a murderous look in her eyes.

Under a big tree not far from the hotel, Casey was standing here, watching the people coming and going on the road with both eyes.

At this time, a young old man walked by here, and saw Casey staring at the luxurious hotel opposite, and said with a smile, "Lad, are you longing to go to the hotel? It's said that there is a banquet hosted by the four big families. The participants are all the upper class people. Most people are not qualified to enter. My grandson also wants to join them. Unfortunately, we don't have a strong background, so they simply ignore us."

Hearing what the man said, Casey smiled, and said, "Success or failure is just nothing when looking back. Just the four big families. Maybe after tonight, these the four big families will only become past."

"You are an ambitious man. But they are the four big families, how could they break as you say. Work hard instead of fantasizing. My grandson is studying hard for an exam recently. He may be able to go to work in the companies of the four big families in a while," the man said smugly.

Casey smiled without saying a word, thinking that his grandson's dream might be difficult to realize, but the talents didn't have to worry about working wherever they go. If the four big families fell, there would be a better one stand out.

Not long after the old man left, Caro and Foley came to Casey.

"Casey, Yin Killers is ready. As long as you give an order, Brady will immediately let his men act." Foley said with a smile.

"The people from the Team of Executors are nearby, but tonight, they should have nothing to do with us," Caro said. Casey nodded and said, "The time is almost here. Let's go there too, maybe we can grab some free food to eat."

...

In the hotel lobby.

Franco Chow, the head of the Chow family, Henson Willson, the head of the Willson family, Larson Ceng, the head of the Ceng family, and Rhodes Morris, the head of the Morris family, were standing together with all smiles, talking with the people who came to the banquet.

Today's banquet, one was to celebrate the assassination plan of Guanling, the other was to declare the friendship between the four big families to the outside world, so that everyone knew that the four big families were integration. People must consider whether they could withstand the anger of the four big families before offending one of them.

"In the past, I always thought that Guanling was just a high-end playground, and it was not worth being paid attention to. It wasn't until they attacked the Turner family and their young master directly killed all the senior leaders of the Turner family did I realize that the horror of Guanling.

Fortunately the young master has been arrested by Executors and was sent to No. 5 Prison. It is said that it is impossible for people in No. 5 Prison to come out, so we don't have to worry about anything," Franco said with a smile.

"That's right. Actually speaking, we should still be grateful to the young master of Guanling. If it weren't for him, we would still have to be led by the Turner family. Otherwise, how can we be so influential!" Henson followed. .

"He was bugger all help. Guanling causes a lot of trouble for us during this period of time. This assassination plan is also a warning to them, let them understand that the four big families are not something to be trifled with," Larson said grumpily.

"Henson is just joking. I believe that after tonight, Guanling will be seriously injured and will no longer be able to compete with us. As for the so-called inner force experts, with Executors here, they dare not do anything to us," Rhodes said.

At this time, Everett and the other three had already arrived in the hall, chatting not far from the heads of the four big families.

The whole hall appeared to be peaceful, everyone was polite and showed the decent of the upper class to the fullest. At this moment, the door of the hotel lobby was suddenly kicked open, and the person in charge of checking at the door was thrown out.

Everyone was taken aback and turned to look at the door.

Three figures appeared in the hall, seemingly out of tune with these people in the upper class.

Everett, Beverly, Douglas and Paige also looked towards the door, and expressions on their faces changed after seeing the three people.

"How could it be that bastard? Why did he come here?" Beverly said with a gloomy face.

"He may be here to make trouble, but he came just in time. Dare he come to the banquet held by the four big families to make trouble. Now even if we don't say anything, my father will beat up this guy," Everett said.

Then he walked towards Casey.

"Are you three dicing with death. Dare you come here to make trouble. Are you qualified to come to this kind of place?" Everett said fiercely.

Beverly also followed, and said with resentment, "Stupid guys. How dare you. Now that you are here, pay for what you did!"

Casey smiled and glanced at both of them, and said, "I'm not here to look for you. You better don't get yourself into trouble."

"Not looking for us? Then who are you looking for?" Beverly stared at Casey and asked.

Casey pointed at Franco and the three people around and said, "Those old guys."

"You!" Everett suddenly showed a trace of anger on his face.

The people around them all looked at Casey, Caro and Foley with contempt, thinking that they were dicing with death that they dared to be so disrespectful to the heads of the four big families.

At this time, Franco and three others also walked over here, looked at Everett and motioned them to retreat.

"Who are you? Today is the banquet of the four big families. You rushed in like this. You are too disrespectful?" Franco said coldly.

Casey smiled and said, "My name is Casey. You are holding a banquet to assassinate people in Guanling. Don't you think you are too disrespectful to me, the young master of Guanling?"

Chapter 737 I'm Not Going to Kill You in Person

"Casey... Casey! This is impossible.

Casey has been arrested in No. 5 Prison. Who are you? Why are you pretending to be Casey?" Franco said with a look of surprise.

Many people looking on passively around were also shocked by Casey's words. The matter that Casey slaughtered the seniors of the Turner family caused quite a stir. Four months ago, the name Casey had struck everyone's ear in Chinatown in M Country.

Everett, Beverly, Douglas and Paige were also frightened by Casey's words. They were still a little afraid of the identity of the young master of Guanling. After all, this guy killed Theodore and slaughtered all the seniors of the Turner family. He was not a man that they could afford to offend.

"I am Casey. I do not have to pretend. No. 5 Prison is not a place where I can only enter but not go out." Casey shrugged and replied.

At this time, Henson had found out the original picture of Casey, and compared it with the person in front of him. Henson confirmed that the man was Casey, and his face turned pale in an instant.

"Yes... It's Casey, this person is exactly the same as Casey's photo, there should be no fakes," Henson said.

After listening to Henson's confirmation, the people of the four big families suddenly became a little nervous. They did not expect that Casey, who had been imprisoned in No. 5 Prison, would come back.

Franco and three others were all uneasy. The reason they dared to attack the people in Guanling was precisely because Casey was imprisoned in No. 5 Prison, and according to the information received at the time, no one could be released when imprisoned in No. 5 Prison.

Now Casey suddenly appeared in front of them again, which really caught them off guard.

The four of them looked at each other, obviously they didn't know what to do, and the cold sweat on their foreheads quickly came out.

Casey didn't care about the gazes of the people around him, but went to the table where the food was there, picked up a piece of pizza, and ate it.

"Go on, don't care about me," Casey said to everyone.

Everett and others were already a little scared at this time. They never expected that the person who they provoked in the coffee shop this afternoon would be the evildoer who wiped out the entire Turner family by his own.

If Casey had murdered them at that time, none of them would survive. Beverly also had an unspeakable emotion at this time. She originally wanted to find a killer to kill Casey, but now she discovered that this guy was the pervert who killed Theodore. She knew how powerful Theodore was. How could average killer kill Casey?

There was a trace of despair in her heart, and a trace of powerlessness arose in her.

When facing Casey, the heads of the four big families all looked scared, let alone her.

Seeing that the atmosphere froze, Franco gritted his teeth, walked towards Casey, and said, "What do you want to do here?"

"Didn't I tell you? I heard that you are going to assassinate people in Guanling, so I came to have a look," Casey said lightly.

"Don't you know the rules that the inner force experts can't attack ordinary people. If you want to hurt us today, you will definitely be caught in No. 5 Prison, and it's the second time you're going in, and the punishment will be more serious. Since you are here today, I will commit myself. We are willing to abandon the assassination plan. In the future, we each go our own way. What do you think?"

Franco knew that Casey had appeared, which meant that they had no chance of attacking the people in Guanling, so now they could only find a way to make peace.

Casey ate the pizza in his hand, then clapped his hands, and said, "I really don't want to be caught in No. 5 Prison again, so I won't do anything to you today. As for you to give up the assassination plan to negotiate terms with me, isn't it too ridiculous?"

"What do you mean?" Franco frowned, and a hunch of anxiety suddenly appeared in his heart.

Casey gave him a smirk, then raised his hand and snapped his fingers.

With a snap, the lights in the entire hotel went out instantly, and many people panicked.

Three seconds later, the lights turned on again, and the guests who came to the banquet were all confused, not knowing what the sudden light-off just now meant.

And the people of the four big families felt different from others at this time. By each of them, there was already a man in black who looked like a ghost at this time. These people were holding sharp daggers in their hands, reaching it on their necks.

A burst of chill came from the people of the four big families, but they did not dare to act rashly, because when the lights were turned off, they had already heard the ghastly sound in their ears, "Don't move, or you will die."

A black-clothed assassin was already standing beside Franco and other three heads, none of them could expect that the members of the four big families' lives had been controlled by others in a blink of eye.

The people who came to the banquet were all horrified. Many females all began to scream. They all hurriedly retreated to the surrounding area. Soon, there were only people of the four big families and the black-clothed killers in the middle of the hall. .

"You guys are Yin Killers! Why!" Franco noticed the characteristics of these killers, and instantly knew who they were.

At this time, Brady came in from the outside, looked at these people from the four big families with a smile on his face, and said, "Good, everyone is here. It's worthy of praise."

After seeing Brady, Franco looked more confused, and he asked, "Didn't we have a deal? You help us assassinate the people in Guanling, and we will give you 50 billion dollars as rewards. Why are your people assaulting us?"

Brady smiled at him and said, "I'm sorry, I don't want the 50 billion dollars. Keep it for yourself."

After speaking, he turned to look at Casey, bowed to Casey, and respectfully said, "Lord, I have done everything you explained. It's up to you whether to kill these people or not."

Casey nodded.

Franco looked surprised and murmured, "Lord? You are the head of Yin Killers? How...how could this happen. Why? You are just a young man in your twenties, why do you have so many identities? ?"

Seeing Franco's stunned look, Casey explained to him, "I am lucky and I became the leader of Yin Killers by accident. You can only blame you for the bad luck."

Franco was almost choked to death by Casey's words, and his face became pale as paper.

"You...if you attack us, Executors will not let you go," Franco said again.

Casey waved his hand to him and said, "Didn't I say that? I won't kill you in person. It's people from Yin Killers will kill you. You can find them to assassinate the people in Guanling then I can ask Yin Killers to assassinate you in turn. There should be nothing wrong with it, right?"

Chapter 738 It Is None of My Business

When the people of the four big families heard Casey's words, despair appeared on their faces for an instant. As long as it's not Casey, Executors really can't intervene.

Only then did Franco realize what kind of situation the four big families were facing now. He was sweating and her lips were trembling.

The conditions of the remaining three heads of the four big families were not much better than him. At the moment, they were all trembling, but they did not dare to move because of the killers on the side.

"Casey... Casey, we know we are wrong, please give us a chance. If you forgive us, the four big families can take refuge in you. You can allocate all the resources of the four big families in the future, please let us go," Franco said.

"Yes, as long as you can let us off, everything is negotiable," the remaining three families also hurriedly echoed. Casey smiled and said, "Sorry, I still look down on your little resource. Some mistakes can't be made up by begging for mercy."

Everyone was stunned, and Casey's words were tantamount to directly sentenced them to death.

Everett and others also knew that if Casey did not speak, they would really be going to die.

"Casey, please forgive us, we know we are wrong, we shouldn't be so arrogant in front of you in the afternoon, please be generous, as long as we can let us continue to live, we accept whatever you let us do." Everett had completely lost the vigor of the young master at this time. In front of death, how could he still care about dignity?

"Casey, I am ugly, I am the ugliest person in the world, as long as you spare us, you can call me whatever you want. I know I am wrong." Beverly also begged for mercy.

Casey glanced at them, with a smile on his face, and said, "If you didn't speak, I would have ignored you. Since you now remind me of the matter in the afternoon, today's business is not negotiable."

After speaking, Casey turned around and walked out of the hotel.

Everett, Beverly and others were dumbfounded for an instant. People from the four big families looked at them and wanted to rush to slap them severely.

Seeing Casey going out, Caro and Foley hurriedly followed. Brady also left without hesitation, just leaving things to these killers. As an inner force expert, he naturally had to leave before slaughter started.

As soon as they walked outside the hotel, they ran into the Team of Executors.

Griffin took the lead and walked at the forefront, looking at Casey with a complicated expression, and then slowly stopped.

After seeing Griffin, Casey also showed a smile on his face, and said, "Long time no see, Captain Griffin."

"It seems that we still underestimated you. The first person to be released from No. 5 Prison. Even Grandmaster Myles was killed by you. I couldn't believe it when I got the news," Griffin said.

"Thanks for your praise," Casey replied. Griffin and the rest Executors stared at Casey solemnly. Casey in front of them had the ability to kill the Grandmaster. This also meant that this young man who was only in his twenties was also a real Grandmaster.

How could this not make them surprised.

Especially Tony. When he first met Casey, he thought that Casey was just a junior who had just reached the threshold of inner force. After that, he was shocked by Casey again and again. Until he learned that Casey had killed Myles, he was numb and suspected that he had been in a dream for his whole life.

"If I'm not wrong, you are here today to do something against the people of the four big families. Casey, although you already have the power of a Grandmaster, I still want to give you a piece of advice. Killing ordinary people wantonly is not desirable, we may not be able to stop you, but there will always be someone who will let you be punished due to it," Griffin said solemnly.

Casey smiled and said, "You are too serious. I'm just here for a meal today. I really didn't intend to hurt them. However, I heard that the four big families were killed by the killers their opponents hired because of their rivalry. It's none of my business, right?" Griffin was taken aback for a moment, but he didn't even realize what Casey meant.

At this moment, there were sudden screams from the hotel, and the guests invited by the four big families swarmed out, all with horror on their faces. Griffin immediately gave the six people behind him a look, and the six immediately rushed into the hotel. Almost five minutes later, six people rushed out, Tony approached Griffin, and said, "There are people from the four big families. All of them have their throats cut. No one is alive. It is not the work of an inner force expert, it should be the killers with vicious methods killed them, and those killers acted so fast that they could no longer be traced." After hearing Tony's report, Griffin took a deep breath and looked at Casey's gaze more complicated. Casey immediately said, "Don't look at me with this kind of look. This is not what I did. I was standing in front of you just now. There is an alibi. Please don't take me into No. 5 Prison."

Griffin was troubled, he really didn't know how to deal with such a person.

"Do you have any other enemies in Chinatown in M Country? Just tell me. I'm afraid that I will have a heart attack because of you, I want to live a few more years," Griffin said.

"Don't worry, the four big families are the last. After getting rid of them, it's time for me to go home," Casey said.

Hearing Casey's words, the seven Executors all breathed a sigh of relief. Caro glanced at Casey secretly, with a reluctant look in her eyes.

The news of the destruction of the four big families spread throughout the entire Chinatown overnight. The name Casey had once again become one of the topics that people must talk about while chatting. There were only a few super families in Chinatown. After Casey came here, these super families were all annihilated. If they hadn't watched the Turner family and the four big families fall with their own eyes, they wouldn't believe it at all.

Because of the collapse of the four big families, the development of Guanling in Chinatown was no longer constrained. It would not be long before new forces appeared in Chinatown and continued to disturb the situation here.

At this point, Casey has finished his revenge, and he would return to C Country soon.

At the same time, the Davies Family in B City was facing an unprecedented crisis.

Chapter 739 The Davies Family Was in Crisis

In front of the Davies House, B City.

A tall man with thick brows and bright eyes was standing on the ring that was just built, staring coldly at the door of the Davies House.

Near the ring, there were several tables and chairs, as well as large umbrellas.

Four senior citizens, who were more than 50 years old, were sitting on the chairs and drinking tea leisurely.

One of them was Craig, the Leader of Xing Yi Sect.

He had the air of forcefulness of Half Step Master. Besides, the levels of air of forcefulness of two other people were the same as that of Craig. One of the four people even had stronger air of forcefulness than the other three people. It could be seen that Craig and two other people were extremely respectful to the senior citizen with super strong air of forcefulness.

If people who had some knowledge about traditional martial arts world saw that these four people were sitting together, they would certainly be shocked.

Craig was here. Besides, there were two people who had the same level of air of forcefulness as Craig. They were respectively Sanford, who was a director of Baji Blow, and Yates, the deputy director of Qishang Sect. Both of them had been Half Step Master.

The senior citizen, who had stronger air of forcefulness than them three, was named Alonzo Law. He was a real Grandmaster from the Law family, a Guwu Family.

These four people were all famous experts in fighting in Jiangbei. Xing Yi Sect, Baji Blow and Qishang Sect were all could be said to be famous sects in Jiangbei. The Law family was even a very powerful and influential Guwu Family in Jiangbei.

At ordinary times, the people of these sects and families wouldn't appear in the public. The four experts in fighting all came here because of Casey.

The man standing in the ring now was the best of the younger generation of the Law family. His name was Dobbs Law. He was less than 30 years old, but he had been an inner force expert in medium stage. He was a rare talent of martial arts in the world world.

"The students of Bland, get out and have a fight with me! Being always cowardly, aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

Dobbs took a deep breath and then shouted to the door of the Davies House with a very loud voice. His voice resounded through the Davies House.

"This young man of the Law family is really a rarely seen genius. He becomes an inner force expert in medium stage in his twenties. I believe that he would become a Grandmaster in the next few years." Craig spoke to Alonzo, who sat beside him, with a smile.

"He does have some gift, but it's not very likely that he could become a Grandmaster within a few years."

Alonzo said modestly. However, he couldn't help putting on a proud expression,

"The students of Blandis really are cowardly. Since they lost to three opponents in a row last time, they should dare not to leave this house."

Sanford said with contempt.

"Bland himself is a coward. We have been looking for him everywhere for so many years, but we didn't get any clue. If it wasn't that Craig got the news that the students of Bland are in the Davies family now, we might have to look for Bland for many more years." Yates also spoke.

Craig immediately sneered and said, "My student was killed by the student of Bland. And he hasn't appeared for a long time. Now, we watch closely outside the Davies House. If he doesn't want the people of the Davies family to be harmed, sooner or later, he'll appear. At that time, we can force him to tell us the information about Bland. After that, to take revenge for my student, let's kill him."

The other three people nodded. It was obvious that they all hated Bland.

In the main living room of the Davies House.

People ranking high in the Davies family, Baron, Dick, Kacper, and so on were all here. They were all serious.

Thirty days after Edith gave birth to Sherry, she no longer needed to lie in bed and was able to walk around. Now, after more than four months, her figure and face were as good as they had been before. Besides, as a mother, she had a unique charm of a young woman. Now, Sherry was lying quietly in Edith's arms, looking curiously around with her big eyes. Once in a while, she would put her hands into her mouth.

"Now, the Davies House is being closely watched by them. We can't even go out. There's only enough food for three days. If they're still here after three days, we'll be starving." Jordan spoke.

Many people shook their heads while they sighed. Edith also frowned.

Obviously, she didn't know what to do.

At this moment, Dick wore a guilty expression. After hearing what Jordan said, he gritted his teeth and said, "It's my fault. Since they're unwilling to leave, I'll put up a desperate fight with them. I'm not afraid of being killed."

Baron hurriedly stopped him and said, "Don't act on impulsive now. It's useless for you to go out."

Dick gave Baron a glance. Finally, he could only sigh helplessly.

Half a month ago, Abel, who was from Xing Yi Sect, came to the Davies House with several students. To take revenge for Micah, they built a ring in front of the Davies House and demanded that Casey should have a fight with them in the ring.

Since Casey was not at home, Baron and Dick came to deal with this matter. At that time, Dick had mastered the skill of inner force. He went to the ring and fought with the students who followed Abel to here. With his outstanding gift and power, he defeated three people in a row.

Abel got angry, so he wanted to fight against Dick in person. Dick rebuked him for being so shameless that he wanted to bully the younger generation. Abel immediately began to talk about how august Xing Yi Sect was and how influential it was in the traditional martial arts world. Then he came to a conclusion that no one was allowed to casually kill the students of Xing Yi Sect. Finally, to force Casey to go out, he threatened to kill Dick.

Dick was also angry. Hearing that Abel talked about Xing Yi Sect, Dick said that both Casey and him were the students of Bland and that Xing Yi Sect was no better.

When Dick mentioned Bland, Abel exploded with rage at once. Bland was the greatest enemy of Xing Yi Sect. Besides, half of the people in traditional martial arts world hated Bland. It was even impossible for some of them to forgive Bland.

Dick was dumbfounded at once. Baron also didn't expect such a consequence. He hurriedly came back to the Davies House to hide with Dick.

Abel didn't just attack the people of the Davies family. Instead, he spread the news that some students of Bland were in the Davies House now. In just a couple of days, the people of Baji Blow, the people of Qishang Sect, and the people of the Law family all came here to hunt Bland.

Because of the rules among the martial artists, the experts in fighting didn't just attack the people of the Davies family. Instead, they sent young people to challenge the students of Bland. Both Dick and Baron suffered stunning defeats. When they were forced to tell these people the information about Bland, they firmly refused. Dick was almost killed because of it.

They were only saved when Edith came out of the Davies House with Sherry in her arms and rebuked these martial artists for being vicious.

After fleeing back to the Davies House, they no longer went out. It was inappropriate for Abel and other three experts in fighting to harm the ordinary people in the Davies House, so they sealed off the Davies House. In their opinion, when the people in the Davies House could no longer hold on, they would have to tell them where Bland was.

When Casey's teacher took on students, he never told them his name. It was a rule. No one knew why, but no one ever asked about it.

Dick knew his teacher's name by accident. One time, when Dick was cleaning up his teacher's room, he found his teacher's notebook about martial arts. The name his teacher sighed on it was Bland.

At that time, in his opinion, the reason why his teacher refused to tell them his name was that he was a legend and that he didn't want his students to be proud just because of it.

This time, he just mentioned the name of Bland. As a result, the Davies House was sealed off by three Half Step Masters and a Grandmaster.

It proved that his teacher was really an unusual person. However, to Dick's astonishment, his teacher was not a legend. Instead, he had a large number of enemies. And his enemies were all powerful people like Half Step Master and Grandmaster.

Considering that the people outside all came here to get the news about their teacher, Dick and Baron didn't turn to their teacher for help. After all, there was a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters outside. They weren't sure if their teacher could deal with it.

Under the influence of these factors, the Davies family was put into such a difficult situation.

"Before, I swore that I would take good care of the Davies family for Casey.

There is nothing wrong with your business. Unexpectedly, many experts in fighting came. Who can deal with it?"

Darius sighed with a worried look.

Chapter 740 Don't Come Back Now

On a bus to the airport in M Country.

Casey was sitting near the window with a sachet in his hand. It was given to him by Caro when he said goodbye.

Compared with the first sachet Caro sent Casey more than four months ago, this one had first-class design and was delicately made. It could be seen that Caro had made a lot of effort on making this sachet.

Casey had found the fact that Caro had a crush on him. However, as a man who had been married, Casey didn't want such a thing to happen.

After dealing with the matters related to Lily and Annabel, he had realized that he had better try hard to avoid having any contact with these girls in the future in order not to get himself into trouble.

to go back to H Country with Caro and let Caro stay in H Country for a few years. After hearing that, Casey refused. Even Caro wanted to do that, Casey dared not to go back to H Country with a woman.

If Caro really wanted to work in H Country, it would be better for her to go back to H Country by herself.

At this time, both Foley and Brady were sitting behind Casey. Brady was leaning against the window, sleeping. Foley was looking curiously out of the window.

After staying in No. 5 Prison for several years, he was curious about anything outside the prison.

Before, after leaving No. 5 Prison, Casey had told Foley to do his own thing. However, in Foley's opinion, after he stayed in No. 5 Prison for such a long time, there had been a social disconnect between the society and himself. And he didn't know what to do after he left No. 5 Prison. Therefore, he would rather work for Casey.

These days, he had known that Casey was powerful. At least, if he worked for Casey, he would have enough food to eat.

As for Brady, he made up his mind to work for Casey after Casey showed token of Yin killers. In the future, he would go to Casey where Casey went. Under his arrangement, the members of Yin Killers had all secretly returned to H Country. When Casey gave them orders, the members of Yin Killers would carry out orders at any time.

After a while, Casey put away the sachet. He wanted to make a video call with Edith, so he took out his mobile phone.

When Casey was in No. 5 Prison, he would make a video call with Edith every once in a while, so that Edith would know that he was safe and that he was living a leisurely life.

He was really grateful to the solar charging mobile power supply. Without it, he wouldn't be able to keep making video calls with Edith for four months. However, just a few days ago, the solar charging mobile power supply was broken. Fortunately, Casey had left No. 5 Prison, and therefore he could still charge the phone.

Recently, he had a lot of things to do. So Casey didn't make a video call with Edith in the past half a month. He just sent messages, informing Edith that he was safe.

Before long, Edith accepted the video invitation. After seeing Edith and Sherry, Casey put on a gentle smile.

Edith was still upset because of the experts in fighting outside the Davies House, so she was a little absent-minded.

"Darling, I'm coming back soon. Why are you a little absent-minded? Could it be that you're not glad that I'm coming back?" Casey noticed Edith's expression and asked.

Edith was a little hesitant. After quite a while, she said, "Casey, what about not coming back now?"

Casey was immediately stunned and hurriedly asked, "Why?"

At this moment, Casey had countless speculations. According to the TV plays he had watched, the reason why women said those words was generally because...she was with other men. Casey was in a panic and said, "Edith, what do you mean? Is it that someone is going after you because I'm not at home for a long time? And you think that I always can't be with you, so you..."

Hearing that, Edith was a little embarrassed at once. She glowered at Casey and spoke, "You're imaging things. How is it possible that I will do that?"

"Then...Why did you ask me not to go back?" Casey was still puzzled. He was even a little aggrieved.

Seeing that Casey was feeling aggrieved, Edith couldn't help smiling and spoke to Sherry who was in her arms, "Sherry, look at your dad. He's feeling aggrieved, just like a little wife."

"I'm serious." Casey spoke seriously. Edith no longer joked with him. She understood that Casey had the right to know about it, so she told Casey the whole story.

"Now, there're three Half Step Masters and a Grandmaster watching the Davies House. I don't know what it means, but it seems to be dangerous. So, don't come back now, or they'll point their arrows at you." Edith said.

Hearing that, Casey was very surprised. He didn't expect his teacher to have so many enemies. A Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters should come to the Davies House just because Dick mentioned his teacher's name.

"In fact, in my opinion, your teacher should deal with this matter. After all, these people all come here to find him.

And we can't cope with these people by ourselves. Now, we're almost out of food. If we can't handle it before we run out of food, I'm afraid that Sherry will also be starved." Edith sighed helplessly. As a mother, she cared more about her child.

Casey thought for a moment and then said with a smile, "I'll deal with this matter. Tomorrow, I'll be back. At that time, I'll settle this matter. I won't let Sherry starve."

Edith immediately widened her eyes and said, "Casey, it's a serious matter. There is a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters. According to Dick, when you left, you're just an inner force expert in medium stage. You're no match for them at all."

Casey put on a playful expression and said, "Darling, when I was in the wild, I was not just planting potatoes. Don't worry. I can absolutely settle this matter, or I wouldn't dare to say those words."

Edith was a little hesitant. In her memory, Casey was never reckless. Besides, now, she had no choice but to believe Casey.

After hanging up the video, Casey began to think. When his XuanJin was in initial stage, he was able to seriously injure a Grandmaster. Now, his XuanJin had been in medium stage. Even to deal with a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters at the same time was no big deal for him now.

In the Davies House, all the people were called to the living room by Edith. And she announced, "Don't be worried because of the people outside now."

Casey will be back tomorrow. He'll settle this matter."

Hearing that, everyone was shocked.

"Don't let Casey come back. There's a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters outside. And they want Casey to come back." Baron said with a solemn expression.

"Casey said that he would deal with it. We just need to wait for him to come back." Edith emphasized.

Everyone could do nothing but sigh. Even if Casey was confident, they were still worried. After all, Grandmasters were the most powerful people in the martial arts world. Casey was truly surprisingly gifted. However, however gifted he was, he couldn't be a match for a Grandmaster when he was just in his twenties.

Now, they could only pray that Abel and other experts in fighting would show some mercy to Casey.

Chapter 741 Defeat Dobbs with a Slap
The next day.

Abel, Alonzo, Sanford and Yates came to the front of the Davies House again. They sat on the chairs near the ring and drank tea.

Dobbs got onto the ring, faced the Davies House and shouted, "The rats of the Davies family, come to fight against me quickly. You're so afraid of fighting against me. Don't you be worried that you'll ruin the reputation of the Davies family?"

Passers-by were all curious about what was going on here because there had been a ring in front of the Davies House. And the Davies family was famous in B

City. Therefore, every day, many passers-by would come here to have a look and wanted to know when the people in the Davies House would come out to fight.

"Isn't the Davies family very powerful? These people have been challenging the people of the Davies family for these days, but none of them have come out. They're really afraid."

"The Davies family is the most powerful family in B City. However, when these martial artists come to challenge them, they could do nothing."

"Fuck, I have come here to watch for several days, but they never fought against each other. Will they fight or not? Why are the people of the Davies family so timid?"

In quite a long time, no one had come out of the Davies family. Dobbs rolled his eyes and shouted again, "It seems that Bland is nobody. He himself is as timid as a mouse. His students are as cowardly as him."

"How dare the people of the Davies family claim the Davies family to be the most powerful in B City? In my opinion, the Davies family is but a spent force. They're not eligible to hang this board!" Just after finishing speaking, Dobbs rushed out of the ring quickly and ran towards the door of the Davies House. Then, he stepped on the stone pillar beside the door, reached out to grab the board of the Davies family.

The lookers-on were shocked by ability of Dobbs. In their opinion, Dobbs was like a star in action movies. They all gave out exclamations.

However, when Dobbs was about to touch the board, there was a sound made when something flew quickly in the air. A stone was whizzing towards Dobbs. Dobbs had a sense of danger. He immediately turned around and landed quickly on the ground.

"How dare you touch the board of my family?" Someone spoke in a deep voice. Immediately after that, people present saw that there were three people walking towards this place from somewhere not far away.

Dobbs narrowed his eyes. He stared at the leading man and wanted to fight against that person.

At this time, many lookers-on recognized the leading person. Some of them began to exclaim, "He's Casey!"

"Casey should appear! It seems that he's coming back from somewhere. No wonder people of the Davies family didn't do anything these days."

"He's back. So what? Obviously, the people who built the ring here are very powerful. That young man is already so powerful. And there're even a few old men. Perhaps the Davies family will be destroyed by these people."

.....

Hearing their remarks, Alonzo and other three experts in fighting knew that it was Casey that was coming. They all narrowed their eyes. But they didn't attack Casey. In their opinion, Dobbs alone was able to deal with Casey. Dobbs came back to the ring, overlooked Casey, Foley and Brady, and spoke, "Are you Casey?"

"Yes." Casey replied.

"Ha, ha. It seems that a cowardly person will sometimes be brave. Since you're here, you must deal with this matter today. I heard that you killed an inner force expert in initial stage of Xing Yi Sect. Before I ask you about it, dare you fight against me in the ring?" Dobbs spoke.

Brady immediately approached Casey and spoke in his ear, "Casey, shall I deal with him for you?"

"No, it's my business. Neither of you should interfere with it." Casey said.

Brady nodded and didn't say anything more. Compared with him, it would be more reliable for Casey to deal with it himself.

Casey looked at Dobbs and said, "There's no need for me to fight against. You're no match for me. Only those four old men could be match for me."

Hearing that, Dobbs's face became immediately dark. This guy didn't know who I was yet, but he should say that I was no match for him. Besides, he even thought that only Grandmaster and Half Step Masters over there could be match for him. It was extremely ridiculous.

"You're so arrogant. Among those four people, there is a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters. You're not eligible to fight against them!" Dobbs said rudely.

"First, I would like to introduce myself. I'm Dobbs, and I'm from the Law family which is a very influential Guwu Family in Jiangbei. And I'm among the most excellent young people of the Law family. I'm just 28 years old, and I have been an inner force expert in medium stage. Hearing all that, do you still think that I'm no match for you?"

Dobbs looked at Casey with contempt and questioned.

Casey shrugged. He hadn't heard of the Law family before. However, being able to be an inner force expert in medium stage at the age of twenty-eight, Dobbs could be said to be a stunning genius. However, for Casey, he was still not powerful enough.

Casey gave Alonzo and other three experts in fighting a glance. Through the air of forcefulness they had, Casey was sure that there was indeed a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters.

It was really an extremely powerful team.

Seeing that Casey didn't reply, Dobbs sneered and spoke, "Are you trying to fool us by pretending to be confident because you're afraid? Don't say I'm no match for you before I have a fight with you."

After hearing that, the lookers-on all began to heckle.

"Casey, could it be that you're afraid? You claim that he's no match for you before you fight against him. It's despicable for you to use such a trick!"

"Casey, if you're a man, go to fight against him on the ring. Otherwise, all people in B City will look down upon you!"

"Don be pretentious. Prove it with action. Anyone can brag. Quick. Go to fight with him!"

.....

Seeing that people around all heckled, Casey sighed helplessly. He disdained to fight against Dobbs. However, for the sake of the face of the Davies family in B City, it was necessary for him to let the lookers-on know how powerful he was.

He just jumped onto the ring and looked at Dobbs was sneering.

Seeing that Casey jumped onto the ring, Dobbs secretly laughed with contempt and then spoke, "You just killed an inner force expert in initial stage. Today, I'll let you what real power is!"

After saying that, Dobbs shouted, suddenly gave out a strong air of forcefulness, used a set of extremely delicate moves and rushed towards Casey.

The lookers-on were all shocked and believed that Dobbs was just like the kind of experts in fighting in the movies. Just when Dobbs had approached Casey and was about to attack Casey, Casey gently raised his hand and patted on the weak point of Dobbs with ease. He just slapped Dobbs once, and Dobbs fell out of the ring.

A sudden silence fell around the ring.

Chapter 742 You Four Can Fight Against Me Together

Alonzo, Abel, Sanford and Yates, who were sitting and drinking tea leisurely near the ring, were confident in Dobbs. Being proud that there was such an excellent young people in the Law family, Alonzo touched his beard with pride.

"Just judging from the air of forcefulness Dobbs had, he's much more powerful than the guy named Casey. Although Bland is famous, his students are indeed not excellent." Abel made a remark.

"Dobbs should be able to give Casey a heavy blow with this set of moves.

Casey's a self-righteous young people, and Dobbs would let him know that he's not powerful." Sanford also said.

"In my opinion, Casey's just being frightened by Dobbs. He just stands still. It's obvious that he doesn't know how to respond to it." Yates spoke.

They were all sure that Dobbs would soon defeat Casey. Just at this moment, Casey gently lifted his hand and slapped Dobbs. As a result, Dobbs fell out of the ring.

Alonzo and other three experts in fighting were extremely powerful. However, now, they were all staring at Casey in disbelief with a shocked expression.

"How...How is it possible that this guy is so powerful? Could it be that he has been a Grandmaster?" Alonzo directly stood up.

Abel, Sanford and Yates were also shocked. Even they couldn't do what Casey had just done with ease. It only meant that Casey was more powerful than they were.

"How is it possible? This guy is younger than Dobbs. There's a Grandmaster who is just more than twenty years old? What a shock!" Abel spoke in a trembling voice.

Dobbs, who fell to the ground, was in a daze. It took him a long time to realize what had happened. He touched his face, and found that half of his face was numb. He had a shrill ringing in his ear. He looked up at Casey. Only then did he understand that Casey was not being pretentious and that he was really not eligible to be match for Casey.

Casey was a few years younger than him. Dobbs looked at him, feeling very frustrated.

"Well done!" Foley, who was near the ring, shouted.

The lookers-on, who were also in shock, gathered their wits after hearing what Foley said. Then all of them began to marvel at how powerful Casey was.

Many of them shouted excitedly.

At the same time, in the main living room of the Davies House.

Edith was walking back and forth with Sherry in her arms. She wore an anxious expression on her face. Casey had told her that he would be back today. However, she didn't receive any news until now. She couldn't help being anxious.

Just then, a person rushed into the main living room and shouted, "Lord...Lord is back! He's now in the ring in front of this house!"

Hearing that, people present all hurriedly ran towards the door of the Davies House.

Soon, Edith came out of the Davies House with other people. Seeing Casey who was standing on the ring, Edith was immediately relieved.

And at this moment, the lookers-on were all cheering for the slap Casey gave Dobbs. Seeing that and not knowing what had happened, the people of the Davies family were all confused. When they found that Alonzo and other three experts in fighting were all angry, the people of the Davies family were all a little uneasy.

Seeing that Edith came out with Sherry in her arms, Casey put on a smile at once. He jumped off the ring, ran to Edith and Sherry and held them in his arms.

"I haven't seen you for so long. I miss you so much." Casey spoke.

"Well, in the face of powerful enemies, don't talk about it now. Figure out a way to solve the problem now." Edith stared at Casey with a little dissatisfaction.

"They can't be said to be powerful enemies. It's easy to deal with them." Casey pinched Sherry's nose with his hand.

It was perhaps because they were father and daughter. Although Casey left not long after Sherry was born, Sherry didn't treat him as a stranger. She even liked him a little bit.

After hearing what Casey, both Baron and Dick were a bit embarrassed. Dick took a step forward and said, "Casey, maybe you still didn't know this thing. Among the four old men over there, there is a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters. It's difficult to run away, not to mention to deal with them."

"I'll how powerful they are." Casey replied.

Dick was immediately stunned. He thought: Since you knew how powerful they were, why did you brag?

Hearing what Casey said, Baron also came close to Casey and spoke,

"Casey, we can't resist a Grandmaster with ease. We have made a decision. If we really can't resist, we'll tell them where our teacher is. These years, our teacher has had many excellent students. Even if they go to make trouble for our teacher, our teacher should be able to deal with it. Now, it's the only option."

Casey patted Baron and Dick on the shoulders with a smile, speaking, "Don't worry. I'm here, and they won't be able to cause trouble. There's a Grandmaster. So what? I have killed one before."

Both Baron and Dick froze. After hearing what Casey said, they both were in a daze.

"Casey, we're in a moment of great crisis, don't joke with us. You have killed a Grandmaster? Who did you kill?" Dick spoke.

"Myles." Casey replied.

Baron widened his eyes at once. At ordinary times, he didn't talk much. Now, he exclaimed, "It's impossible! Myles is a world-famous Grandmaster. If he were really killed by you, how would it be possible that we know nothing about it?"

"I killed him in a foreign country. People in H Country should still haven't heard this news. But people should soon hear it." Casey said, "Well, it's not the right time to talk about it. Just stay here and watch first. I'll deal with those four people."

After saying that, he turned around and looked at Alonzo and other three experts in fighting.

"Are you four the enemies of my teacher?" Casey asked.

"Your teacher is notorious. He has more enemies than us four. You had better tell us where he is. Otherwise, you'll offend all the people in traditional martial arts world." Alonzo said in a cold voice.

Casey twitched his lips and said, "My teacher has done a deep favor to me. If you want to make trouble for him, you have to defeat me first. I'll just go to the ring, instead of talking nonsense. I'll let you know that you're not eligible to make trouble for him."

After saying that, he went to the ring. Alonzo sneered and then was about to go to the ring.

"You arrogant young guy, although you defeated Dobbs before, you're still not eligible to challenge us. I'll teach you a good lesson!"

Seeing that only Alonzo was going to go to the ring, Casey immediately waved his hand and said, "Don't come to the ring alone. I don't want to waste time. So you four can fight against me together."

Chapter 743 Fight with Alonzo

After hearing what Casey said, everyone present was shocked. Others might not know what it meant that Casey fought with four people at the same time. They just thought Casey was a bit arrogant. But when Alonzo and the other three martial arts masters heard Casey's words, they all felt that Casey was crazy.

They were a Grandmaster and three Half Step Masters. Any Grandmaster didn't dare to say that he could fight with four people at the same time.

Seeing Casey didn't take him seriously,

Alonzo immediately snorted, "How ignorant! I can knock you down just with one hand. If the four of us come to you together, you will die so miserably!"

At this time, Craig also stood up from the chair, and said with a sneer, "Alonzo, since this brat made this request by himself, we don't have to spare him. This brat killed my apprentice. I came to him to take revenge this time."

Sanford and Yates also nodded. It was the first time they saw such an arrogant junior. Even if they didn't do anything in the ring, they could deter him and let him understand his ignorance.

Alonzo didn't say anything. He rushed directly to the ring. The other three followed Alonzo to the ring and stood behind him.

When Edith and others saw this, they were all a little anxious. They did not expect that Casey would let the four of them go to the ring together. Although they were not clear what kind of concept Grandmaster was, they knew Baron, who had reached initial stage of inner force, was so strong. In this way, they also have a general guess about Grandmaster, it was absolutely an amazing thing that Casey wanted to fight with the four of them together. Foley and Brady naturally understood how horrible Grandmaster was.

Although they knew that Casey killed Myles, Alonzo was also a Grandmaster. Besides, the other three were Half Step Master. They really didn't know whether Casey would be able to cope with it. They couldn't help but worry about Casey.

Baron and Dick were even more solemn. They were full of worries.

"No, it's too dangerous for Casey to do this. I must stop him. If something really happens to him, what should I and Sherry do?" Edith hesitated and then said.

"Yes, we can't let the four of them bully Casey like this. It's really shameless."

Darius also said.

The rest of the people didn't want Casey to be so adventurous. They all agreed with Edith's idea.

At this time, Baron stopped Edith and said seriously, "Let's take a look at the specific situation first. I know Casey. He is not a reckless person. If he does this, he must have some supports. Besides, he said he killed Myles. Myles is a great Grandmaster at home and abroad. If Casey really killed him, Casey's strength must be beyond our imagination. Even if Alonzo and the other three join forces, Casey may not be able to lose."

After Edith listened, she bit her lip and felt that Baron's words made sense.

Although she was worried, Alonzo and the other three were already in the ring. Even if she wanted to stop Casey, there was nothing she could do.

Casey stared at Alonzo and the other three. An expression of excitement appeared on his face. Since he broke through to medium stage of XuanJin, he had never found an opportunity to show his skills. Today, he could finally feel how strong medium stage of XuanJin was!

"Bring it on! Don't waste time." Casey said to Alonzo and the other three. XuanJin and inner force in his body were already running.

Alonzo's Grandmaster's aura exploded in an instant. The people around who watched the scene were shocked. They had never thought that a person's aura could reach such a terrifying level. Some ordinary people even instinctively shivered.

The aura of the other three also broke out, causing the entire ring to fall into an invisible magnetic field.

"My God! Is this still a human being? Why do I think I will pass out when I feel their aura? This is even more powerful than what I saw in the movie!"

"They are so terrifying. Casey still wants to single out the four of them alone. How dare he!"

"Compared with these four old men, Casey looks too weak. I really don't know what he is thinking about. Maybe after today, Davies family will be in the crisis again."

...

After Alonzo kicked the ground, his figure already appeared in front of Casey. He pushed his hand out, and directly targeted at Casey's chest. As a Grandmaster, Alonzo wanted to kill Casey with one move to prove his strength.

Craig and the other two stood in place and didn't do anything. They came up just to scare Casey. In their eyes, Casey could not be Alonzo's match at all. Casey squinted at Alonzo. When Alonzo's palm was about to hit his chest, he directly pinched Alonzo's wrist.

Alonzo thought that his speed was unmatched. The moment Casey pinched his wrist, his eyes widened in an instant.

Casey showed a playful smile on his face, and said, "So what? You didn't expect it?"

After finishing speaking, Casey's inner force gushed out of his body. Then he used a little force, Alonzo was thrown out.

Alonzo reached the edge of the ring and tried to stand firmly. If he hadn't been experienced, he might have fallen off the ring.

"Why is your power so terrifying?"

Alonzo looked at Casey with a shocked face. He could feel that Casey did not have the aura of Grandmaster, indicating that he was not a Grandmaster. But Casey's power was really scary. Even he was a little caught off guard.

"When fighting, it's best not to ask so many questions." Casey rushed to Alonzo, raised his hand and punched to Alonzo's face.

Alonzo did not dare to neglect, and quickly stretched out his hand to resist Casey's fist. The two collided with each other. Alonzo faintly felt that his arm was a little numb.

Since he became a Grandmaster, there had never been such a situation. How powerful was it that it could make a Grandmaster's arm numb?

Everyone was also shocked by this scene. Unexpectedly, Alonzo looked so powerful, but he was forced to fall into a disadvantage by Casey from the beginning.

Alonzo gritted his teeth and performed a complicated move on the spot. After that, a powerful aura condensed on his fist, and he was going to struck Casey at a gust of speed.

"Tiger Roar Blow!"

Seeing that Alonzo had used his best move, Casey did not neglect. He pushed his hand out, and collided with Alonzo's fist.

"Tianxing Blow!"

An invisible wave appeared. There were huge cracks in the ring under their feet. Immediately afterwards, Alonzo stepped back two steps. A muffled groan sounded, then a trace of blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

Chapter 744 Genius

Craig and the other two, who were standing on the ring and watching the battle, were so dumbfounded when they saw Alonzo get injury.

They already reached the level some ordinary people couldn't reach, so there were very few things that could surprise them. They rarely showed such a look for a long time.

Edith and others were relieved when they saw this scene. Baron and Dick were even more excited. It seemed that Casey did not lie to them. He really had the strength to kill the Grandmaster.

With just a few moves, Alonzo was already injured.

Casey saw Alonzo get injured, showing a satisfied expression on his face. When he reached initial stage of XuanJin, he needed to use Thunder Shocking Blow to defeat Grandmaster. Now, he reached medium stage of XuanJin, he just used Tianxing Blow, but Alonzo had already vomited blood.

This also made Casey feel that XuanJin was much more powerful than inner force. He just reached medium stage of XuanJin, and he was already so awesome. If he reached the consummation of XuanJin, he really didn't know what extent his strength would reach.

Alonzo took a deep breath, quickly adjusted his breath to a stable state. Then he turned to look at Craig and the other two, saying, "This brat has a very weird power. Let's go together and take him down first. If he breaks us through one by one, we will get into the trouble." Craig and the other two also realized the seriousness of the matter. After nodding to Alonzo, they quickly surrounded Casey.

Casey licked his lips. He even didn't take Alonzo seriously. Hal Step Mater was naturally not his match. Even if there were three Half Step Master, he was still not to be afraid.

The five people on the ring fought immediately. Alonzo and the other three besieged Casey. The scene was quite shocking. The temporary ring could not withstand their fighting. After a while, the entire ring was about to break up by them.

The five people moved directly to the open space on the side to fight.

Everyone around them hurriedly avoided. If they were affected by this level of battle, they might die.

"The four of you are not my matches.

You insulted my master. As long as you apologize to my master in front of everyone and swear that you will never be an enemy to my master again, I will let you guys go." Casey said.

"You wish! Let's apologize to your master? Absolutely impossible!" Craig shouted and was about to attack Casey. Casey smiled faintly. He did not try to block Craig's move, so he just let Craig rush to himself.

Craig thought that Casey could not cope with his attack, then a sneer appeared on his face.

However, when his palm was about to touch Casey, he felt a strong resistance transmitted over, directly dissolving all the power in his palm. Then he himself could not resist the power which came from Casey's body. Then he was directly bounced away.

"How could this happen!" Craig was startled. He was Half Step Master, but he could not even hurt Casey at all. Sanford and Yates also encountered the same thing as Craig, both looking at Casey with surprise.

"How can this brat be so scary?"

"I even can break up an iron plate, but why did it have no effect on him? What kind of monster is this brat?"

Alonzo's face was tense. He could get close to Casey. But because he had been injured, his attack had no effect. He couldn't pose any threat to Casey. But he still had to work hard to resist Casey. It was really painful.

The reason why Craig's several moves did not work on Casey was because Casey used a method recorded in Secret Skills to cover his body with XuanJin. He could use enemies' own power to defeat enemies themselves. In addition, Casey's physical body had already reached advanced stage of outer force. He could use this method to the extreme, making his own defenses reach a quite astonishing level. Craig and the others couldn't break Casey's defense at all.

"I said, you guys are not my matches. If you continue to fight, the result will be the same." Casey said lightly.

"Guys, transmit your inner force on me. This brat is too amazing. If we allow him to develop, he will be a cancer in Guwu Circle in the future. We must kill him today!"

Alonzo said, and then began to run his move.

Craig and the other two did not hesitate at all, and immediately joined forces to transfer their inner force towards Alonzo.

Alonzo's aura rose sharply. Then he rushed to Casey with an unstoppable speed.

Casey stood on the spot, running XuanJin. He directly rushed to Alonzo.

"Moon Invitation!"

They two collided each other. The wind blew up, and the hair of several people was blown and messed up a lot.

Three seconds later, a few screams sounded. Everyone saw Alonzo and the other three falling toward the ground, vomiting blood.

Alonzo's face was much paler than before. He looked at Casey in despair. In any case, he did not expect that he would be defeated by a brat who was only in his twenties.

At this time, Craig and the other two had no desire to resist. In front of Casey, they had no chance of winning at all. Everyone around made a burst of exclamation and was shocked by the strength that Casey showed. They all admired Casey so much.

"Boss is really amazing, so awesome. He is just a genius!" Brady said lightly. Foley turned his head and glanced at Brady, then said, "Yeah!"

Brady looked at Foley said, "He is unparalleled."

Casey retracted his palm, adjusted his breath, then walked to Alonzo and the other three, saying, "Now, you admit your faults and apologize to my master. I can spare your lives. Otherwise, I will kill your guys."

Craig and the other three raised their heads to look at Casey. There was a little fear in their eyes. Now, they could only do what Casey said.

Alonzo stared at Casey with a gloomy expression on his face and his eyes were full of unwillingness. If he apologized to Bland in front of so many people today, he would ruin the reputation of the entire Law family. He would not be able to continue to be foothold in Guwu Circle in the future. As a Grandmaster, reputation was often more important than life.

He hesitated for a while, and then a gloomy look appeared in his eyes. While Casey had put down his defenses, Alonzo ran the strength of his whole body and got up suddenly. He rushed to Edith, who was staring at this side and holding Sherry.

Chapter 745 No Matter Who You Are, You Have to Die

"Let me apologize to your master?"

Absolutely impossible. Since you forced me like this, don't blame me for being cruel! Even if I am dead, I will have to get your wife and your daughter to die with me!"

Alonzo's speed was so fast that everyone could not react. No one had expected that a Grandmaster would take actions against other people's wives and children.

"Asshole, just go to the hell!"

After Casey heard Alonzo's words, he flashed out. A raging anger erupted from his body. He didn't expect Alonzo to be so shameless that he would attack Edith and Sherry.

The power of XuanJin reached its peak at this moment. Casey's speed was so fast. Everyone was dazzled. They had never seen a person with such speed. Alonzo originally thought that if he exhausted his all strength, when taking advantage of Casey's unpreparedness, he would surely be able to rush to Edith before Casey could react.

However, as soon as he moved, he heard an angry shout from behind him. Then, he felt that the air around him was trembling. A strong air current appeared, making him not able to stand firmly. When Alonzo was about to approach Edith, a figure appeared in front of him. Then the figure gradually became clearly. It was the furious Casey. Alonzo's face changed drastically. But he never expected that he was still stopped by Casey even if he tried all his best and rushed at the maximum speed when Casey was not prepared.

Casey's speed had surpassed that of Grandmaster. How did he do it? ! !

Alonzo stopped quickly and turned around to flee. At this time, Casey's hand was already stretched towards him. He felt that his thinking had become much slower. Even when he saw Casey's hand to stretch over, he couldn't fight back.

This was not because Casey really slowed Alonzo's thinking, but Casey was so fast that Alonzo couldn't react at all.

"Since you dare to hurt my wife and daughter, no matter who you are, you have to die!"

Casey caught Alonzo's neck. Alonzo struggled violently. Casey used a little force. There was a sound of broken bones. Alonzo's neck was screw off by Casey.

This was not over. After screwing off Alonzo's neck, Casey threw his body to the ground, raised a foot, and stepped on Alonzo's chest. A deep pit appeared on Alonzo's chest. Countless blood came out from his mouth. His both eyes widened round, and there was no vitality.

Grandmaster Alonzo died in the hands of Casey. The Law family lost such a great Grandmaster.

Everyone watched this scene in shock. At this moment, Casey was like Death returning from hell.

Craig and the other two watched Alonzo die. They shivered a little, and their faces became paler.

Casey glanced towards the three of them. Craig and the other two instantly felt incomparable fear. Facing Casey, only a sense of powerlessness remained in their minds.

"Do the three of you still want to attack my wife?" Casey asked without any emotion.

Craig stood up from the ground tremblingly and walked towards Casey. When he was more than ten meters away from Casey, he knelt down directly.

"I, Craig, would like to apologize to Bland for my previous mistakes. I promise that I will never attack Bland again. Please forgive me and spare my life!"

After speaking, Craig kowtowed to Casey.

Craig knew very well that even if the head of Xing Yi Sect came, he was not necessarily Casey's match. This young man would definitely cause a turmoil in Guwu Circle. If he continued to provoke Casey, his only ending was to die.

Sanford and Yates had the same thoughts as Craig. Seeing Craig went to kneel for Casey, the two of them also walked over and knelt down.

"I, Sanford, would like to apologize to Bland for my previous mistakes..."

"I, Yates..."

After apologizing, both of them also kowtowed to Casey.

"Get out of here." Casey just said coldly, and didn't continue to embarrass them. The three of them quickly got up from the ground and left here with their own men.

The shocking battle in front of the Davies House had come to an end, and finally ended with the death of a Grandmaster and three Half Step Master's kneeling down and apology. Among the crowd who were watching this battle, many people took the video of the battle and posted it on the Internet. It wouldn't be long before Casey would be known to the world. Casey would be not only famous in the business world, but it would also shake Guwu Circle.

Soon, the staffs of Davies family cleared the ring in front of the door. Those who watched the battle were also evacuated. The front door of the Davies House restored peace again.

Casey took back the aura from his body, turned and walked towards Edith and the others.

Everyone stared at Casey with bright eyes. This guy could always bring them unexpected surprises. Davies family which had Casey would never fall down. "Sorry!" Casey smiled and said to Edith. Edith glanced at Casey, but her eyes were full of joy.

"You still don't pick up your daughter? You don't come back for so long. She almost doesn't recognize you." Edith said.

Casey quickly took Sherry from Edith's arms and said, "I'm her Daddy. Even if it takes a long time, she won't forget me." Edith rolled her eyes at him and said, "Since you are so confident, just let her call you Daddy."

Casey lowered his head and glanced at Sherry in his arms. The little girl was looking at Casey curiously, with unconcealable closeness in her eyes.

"Sherry, your Mommy doesn't believe in the special connection between you and me. Please call me Dad. Let her know that the relationship between you and me can't be diluted by time." Casey said.

Sherry stretched out a small hand to hold Casey's face, not understanding what Casey was talking about.

Edith laughed immediately and said, "Look, she doesn't know you at all. In her eyes, you are just a fun toy."

The people behind Edith also chuckled quietly.

Casey looked helpless. There was no way to do with this little girl.

Just when Casey was about to enter the house with Sherry in his arms, the little girl suddenly shouted, "Dad."

Although she was slurred, others could tell that she was calling Casey.

Everyone's eyes widened and their faces were full of surprise.

Casey laughed loudly, "My dear, you are really my sweetie."

"I missed your one hundred day's party. Since I came back, I will hold a huge party for you to celebrate."

"Jordan, choose a good day. I want to celebrate for Sherry. Invite all friends and relatives. Hold a three-day party to celebrate!"

Chapter 746 The Anger of the Law Family

In Xing Yi Sect.

When Craig brought a group of apprentices back here, he was exhausted and his face was so paler.

"Hurry up and inform the head. I want to see him." Craig said.

Immediately a few apprentices left to inform the head.

In the main hall of Xing Yi Sect, as soon as Craig came in, he saw Knox, who was already waiting here.

As the head of Xing Yi Sect, Knox was also a real Grandmaster. His strength was comparable to Alonzo of the Law family. He also had some prestige in Guwu Circle, but he was not as good as some Grandmaster like Myles.

When Knox saw Craig coming in, he immediately greeted him. After seeing Craig's embarrassed look, he was also a little surprised.

"Mr. Craig, I heard that you went down the mountain this time to avenge an apprentice. Why are you so embarrassed now? Did you get into trouble?" Knox asked.

Craig sighed helplessly and said, "The man who killed my apprentice is Bland's apprentice."

"What! Bland's apprentice!" Knox immediately widened his eyes. "Could it be possible that you ran into Bland suffered a loss in his hands?"

Craig shook his head. He looked ashamed, and then told Knox what he had encountered after going down the mountain.

"A Grandmaster of the Law family also came there, plus me and the two Half Step Master of Baji Blow and Qishang Sect. We joined forces to fight against Bland's apprentice, but we finally lost. Alonzo was forced to the corner and wanted to catch his wife and child to threaten him, but he was stopped and killed by that brat. The three of us had to kneel down and apologize, then he spared us." Craig said.

After Knox heard Craig's words, his face became extremely solemn. He said, "I didn't expect that Bland's apprentice could be so powerful. Even you guys teamed up, but still were not his matches. It is no wonder that Bland was so famous in Guwu Circle back then. It seems that his apprentice is not easy to deal with."

"But you are Director of my Xing Yi Sect. He even made you kneel down and apologize. This is really bullying. Even if he can kill Grandmaster, we definitely can't just be bullied like this."

"I'll go to find the head of Baji Blow and the head of Qishang Sect to discuss the matter. We must let him know we are not easy to offend."

Craig sighed helplessly, and said, "It's not that I don't want to go with you, but that guy is too strong. Even the four of us joined forces, we did not force him to use all his strength. Instead, that Grandmaster died. Even if we join forces with Baji Blow and Qishang Sect, we may not really be able to win."

"What's more, when we are discussing, he may have already found his master. When that happens, we are afraid that there will be even greater losses."

"So we have already negotiated on the way back. This time, just forget it. In the future, we'd better not be enemies with Bland anymore. Even if Bland caused us irreparable losses back then, if we continue to fight with him, we will only lose more."

Hearing Craig's words, Knox thought it made sense, but he didn't want to let it go.

"Maybe that guy is not as terrifying as you guys think. Maybe he has reached his limit at that time, but he just pretended to be okay. We can't just give up so easily!" Knox said.

At this moment, a person rushed in from the outside and reported to Knox, "Sir, just got the news that great Grandmaster, Myles, died in M Country. The man who killed him was named Casey. It is said that he is a young man in his twenties. The news has just spread back to H Country. The whole Guwu Circle is already in uproar."

"The young man in his twenties killed Myles? It's really amazing." Knox nodded. He was thinking about Craig's things now, so he didn't bother to pay attention to this kind of news. He just responded casually.

He turned his head to look at Craig and wanted to discuss with him whether they should take revenge. Just at this time, he found that Craig was already so shocked.

"Mr. Craig, what's the matter with you?" Knox asked puzzledly.

"This... this Casey is the apprentice of Bland." Craig stammered.

Knox only felt a trace of coolness behind him. The thoughts that he wanted to take revenge on Casey disappeared in an instant.

At the same time, the same thing was happening in Baji Blow and Qishang

Sect.

Although these three Guwu Sects had a certain influence, the strongest one among them was just Grandmaster. Besides, they were worse than Myles. So after learning that Myles was killed by Casey, they immediately gave up the idea to take revenge on Casey.

...

In A City of Jiangbei, in the Law House. Dobbs knelt in the courtyard. Alonzo's body was in front of him.

Not long after, a group of people walked over here. When they saw Alonzo's body on the ground, they all showed shocked faces.

"Dobbs, what's going on! Alonzo...how, how could it be like this!" A man in a practice suit rushed to Dobbs, grabbed his collar and questioned.

This person was Alonzo's elder brother, the head of the Law family, Maynard Law.

Different from the Xing Yi Sect and Baji Blow, the Law family was a powerful Guwu family in Jiangbei. Its overall strength was stronger than other Guwu Sects. Therefore, the head of the Law family was also much better than Knox and others.

In Guwu Circle of H Country, Maynard's reputation was not weaker than Myles. Maynard was a famous Grandmaster and was much stronger than Myles. The inheritance of the Guwu family was definitely more profound than that of a lone ranger like Myles.

"Uncle, I'm incompetent and not strong enough. I can only watch Alonzo die in the hands of that brat. I'm willing to be punished!" Dobbs said.

"You tell me what is going on first!"

Maynard said anxiously.

Dobbs didn't dare to neglect, and quickly told Maynard what had happened to him.

After listening, there was a vicious look in Maynard's eyes, "Casey? Is that brat who killed Myles? No wonder Alonzo and the other three are not his matches. What a monster genius! "

Dobbs' face changed. He exclaimed, "Wh...what! He, he also killed Myles!"

Maynard snorted, "Huh, what about killing Myles? My Law family is different from Myles."

"Casey actually dared to kill my brother. He really doesn't take my Law family seriously. What if he is the genius? I must avenge my brother!"

"Bland, you really have a good apprentice. Just wait for me! I will bring your apprentice's head to see you!"

Chapter 747 I Didn't Serve You Well

A few days after the battle in front of the Davies House, Davies family gradually calmed down. Although others were still discussing the battle in full swing, Davies family was already immersed in the joy of Casey's return and the busy preparation of the party.

After coming back, Casey completely relaxed his body and mind. After drifting outside for so long, he felt home was the best.

During Casey's absence, Kacper and the other two had been learning inner force from Baron. Because they had some foundation. In nearly five months, all three of them had successfully promoted to the ranks of inner experts. As for the formal student Warren who made Darius spend a lot of money on tuition to study, although he was relatively powerful as a bodyguard, he was not as good as Kacper and the other two. After so long, he still hadn't gotten the method of cultivating inner force.

Warren was a little sad. Darius was even sadder. He paid one hundred million tuition fees. But Warren hadn't learned it, however, the other three learned it. This made him feel very sad. But he was living in Davies family. If something bad happened to him, Kacper and the others would definitely not watch him to get hurt. So no matter who reached the level of inner force, it was not bad for him.

After this period of "teaching", Baron had a lot of insights. Now he had reached the peak of initial stage of inner force. It would not take long before he could break through to medium stage of inner force.

In addition to Foley and Brady that Casey brought back this time, the number of inner force experts currently in Davies family had reached seven. This force was already comparable to the level of the Executor Team in Chinatown of M Country.

If Casey was counted in, Davies family's current strength had reached an astonishing level. Even those Guwu Sects came to make trouble, they could deal with it calmly.

Casey asked Brady to arrange some killers near the Davies House. Although these killers might not be able to defeat those inner force experts, those inner force experts who reached medium stage may not be able to find them out. They were best at detecting and tracking.

As for Brady himself, he also became the leader of Davies family security team from the killer, responsible for the overall management of all matters related to the safety of Davies family.

Brady said that he had been the leader of the assassination organization for half his life, and was tired of that life. The position of the leader of Davies family security team was very suitable for him. On the second day after Casey came back, Sherry was taken care of by Jennifer and the full-time nanny. Casey and Edith spent their own time. Just after Casey's returning, Edith and Casey wanted to enjoy their life. Sherry naturally became the third wheel...

A few days later, Casey devoted himself to the family. Every day, he got up for a run, shopping for vegetables and cooking. He and Edith would take Sherry for a walk in the park, occasionally dealing with the affairs of Davies family. He would have dinner with the family in the evening and have sex with Edith at night. It was so happy. Of course, Casey also wondered why his master had so many enemies. He planned to find a time to visit his master, and to tell him about this matter. By the way, he wanted to ask clearly what was going on. Besides, he killed a Grandmaster. The Law family might come to retaliate. Casey's troubles still existed.

It was just that Casey didn't want to care about it now. Now he just wanted to spend a few days with Edith, and held a party for Sherry by the way.

For other things, he planned to deal with them after the party.

This morning, Casey woke up from his sleep. When he opened his eyes, he saw Edith leaning on his chest. Her hand was walking lightly on his body. Her face was a little red because of the sex of last night just.

Edith was only covered with a thin layer of silk quilt. Her beautiful body was looming under the silk.

"Why did you wake up so early?" Casey asked.

Edith smiled brightly. She said, "I want to wake up early to see you."

"It seems I didn't do well." Casey sighed.

"What?" Edith asked Casey with some doubts.

"It seems that I have to work hard in the future. You are not exhausted at all. You even have the heart to stare at me here. I didn't serve you well." Casey said.

Edith's face blushed suddenly. She glanced at Casey angrily, and said, "You bastard! Who said you didn't do well? I almost fell apart last night. If you still work hard, I... I can't hold it anymore."

When Casey heard Edith say this, a satisfied smile appeared on his face.

What a man was most proud of was that he heard his wife say such things.

"Can't you hold it? Why do I feel that it's not enough?" Casey said with a smile. Edith snorted at Casey, then got up from the bed and said, "Okay, get up quickly. I'm going to feed Sherry... Ahem, ahem. Hurry up!"

Hearing Edith's words, Casey licked his lips subconsciously, seeming to have some aftertaste.

After getting up, Casey and Edith went to see Sherry together. Casey experienced the process of changing the child's diaper. The scene was quite chaotic.

In the afternoon, under the strong request of Foley and Dick, Casey took them to the famous snack street in B City. The two of them had not experienced the prosperity of the city, so they had always been a deep yearning for places like snack street.

The snack street was called Wenchang Road. It was a famous food gathering place in B City. Because of its relatively large reputation, it had become a must-see attraction in B City, so the daily passenger flow was very large.

Casey remembered that when he was a child, he especially liked an old restaurant in this street, so he brought Foley and Dick to this restaurant.

The three of them found a table and sat down. Casey ordered all the delicious foods in the restaurant, then ordered a few bottles of beer and ate with them.

As soon as Foley saw the food, he immediately revealed his true face. His behaviors were not like an inner force expert who had reached initial stage. He gobbled up the food.

Dick also couldn't help it. He was eating so happily.

"You two eat slowly. If it's not enough, you can order again. Don't choke yourselves." Casey said with a smile.

Sitting at the table next to Casey was a group of people who looked like the rich. These people didn't look like the locals of B City. But from their demeanors, it could be seen that these people's life experiences were definitely not ordinary. Among these people was a girl who immediately showed contempt when she saw Foley and Dick eating.

"It's really a group of bumpkins. Could it be that they starved to death in the last life? Yuck! It's disgusting."

Chapter 748

I Don't Want to Argue with Dogs

The girl didn't lower her voice. Casey, Foley and Dick heard clearly. After Foley and Dick heard what she said, they stopped immediately, turned their heads and looked at her.

Sitting around the girl were a few young men. At this time, they all looked at Casey, Foley and Dick with mocking expressions on their faces. They didn't feel that there was anything wrong with what the girl said.

"What? Did it have anything to do with you?" Foley replied directly.

As a person who could survive in No. 5 Prison for so long, Foley could only be polite in front of Casey.

Now he came out of No. 5 Prison and faced some ordinary people. He didn't want to cause trouble, otherwise, he might have just slapped the girl directly.

"It's annoying. I just express my opinions. I didn't get you out directly.

Idiot!" The girl said indifferently.

Foley slapped the table directly. He stood up, and yelled at the girl, "Fuck off, who are you scolding?"

"You! So what? Are you dissatisfied? I'm afraid of nothing. Is it possible that I'm afraid of you?" The girl did not show any weakness, and shouted at Foley.

At this time, the men who were sitting at the table with the girl stood up, and some even showed their muscles to Foley, with provocations on their faces.

"Haha! So silly! Do you think that you can beat him up? It's ridiculous." Dick stared at them and said.

"Just have a try?" a man glared at Foley and Dick, shouting.

Foley was about to take actions against these guys. He had to teach these guys a good lesson.

In No. 5 Prison, he couldn't provoke others, but could only hide. Now, he came out. Couldn't he even provoke these bitches?

"Foley." At this time, Casey shouted to Foley. Foley turned his head and glanced at Casey. Seeing Casey beckoning him to sit down, he didn't rush over.

"Dogs like to bark at people. If you care about them, you will be stupid. Sit down and eat." Casey said.

"Who are you scolding? Bumpkins! Want to go to the hell?" The girl immediately shouted at Casey fiercely.

"I referred dogs. Is it possible that you want to admit that you are the dog?"

Casey asked rhetorically.

The girl did not know how to refute. Her face was sullen with anger.

"Brothers, teach these three guys a lesson. They are too arrogant." The girl had no choice but to ask those guys for help.

One of them who took the lead stared at Casey and said coldly, "If you three don't want to cause trouble, come over and apologize to my sister immediately, otherwise, don't blame us for being rude."

"Don't be ignorant here. If you guys are still like this, I promise you won't get out of this restaurant." Casey stared at that man, and a murderous look appeared in his eyes.

An invisible aura emerged from Casey. The temperature in the entire restaurant seemed to drop a few degrees.

The girl and those men were shocked.

They didn't expect that only Casey's eyes would make them feel a little scared. They all felt a little weird.

At this time, the owner of the restaurant came over, looked at them with a worried face, and said, "Sir, please! I'm not easy. If you guys fight, my today's incomes will be zero. Please take it easy."

The girl glanced at the boss and said, "In that case, we don't argue with them. Check! Don't need to give me the change. Brothers, let's go. I don't want to see these disgusting things."

The girl directly patted a stack of cash on the table, glared at Casey, and walked towards the outside of the restaurant.

The man didn't continue to argue with Casey either. No one knew if they really cared about the restaurant's owner or were afraid of Casey's aura.

"What a bunch of arrogant guys! Boss, if you didn't stop me just now, I would have discounted their legs." Foley sat down and said.

"Yeah, boss, who are they? Why are they so arrogant? They even judged us." Dick also said.

"Forget it, just eat. There are many rich and powerful people in B City. Their children are generally arrogant and love to cause trouble. When you encounter this kind of people, just ignore them. If you argue with them, you will be like them." Casey said.

"Bro, it's a pity that you don't become a philosopher." Dick said with a smile. Casey rolled his eyes at him and said nothing.

Outside the restaurant, after the girl and a few men went out, they all felt the invisible pressure on them disappear in an instant.

"It's really a bunch of guys who don't know good or bad. If it's not for the restaurant's owner, I must teach them a good lesson. They really look like pigs when they eat. I just tell the truth." The girl was angry.

"Fine, don't bother with a few bumpkins. You can see how they eat. They must be from poor families. They may have to save for a long time that they can come here for a meal. So I can understand them." The man who took the lead said. "Humph, so what? It's not my fault that they are poor. For this kind of people, it's worthy to die in poverty." The girl said indifferently.

"We are here this time to participate in the party of the daughter of Davies family. It's best not to cause trouble. Otherwise, I will be scolded by Daddy again. Especially you, you cause us trouble every day." One man said. The girl immediately made a face at him.

These people were the ones who came to attend the party of Davies family from P City, where was close to B City.

Several of them were from the Simpson family, a business leader in P City. They were the children of the head of the Simpson family, Shepard Simpson.

Their father was the same but mothers were different. The man who took the lead was Shepard's eldest son, named Stuart Simpson. The girl's name was Haley Simpson and she was the youngest daughter in the family.

"I heard that the head of Davies family is only in his twenties. He must be a suave and handsome man. I can't wait to see him." Haley said with excitement.

"Little sister, Mr. Davies has children. What are you thinking about?" One of Haley's older brother said with a smile. Haley immediately raised her head to glare at him and said, "So?"

"Okay, don't make trouble, there was a fitness club over there. Let's go there to have a look, it happens that I am training my muscle during this period of time. Let me show it to you guys." Stuart said.

After Casey, Foley and Dick finished their meal, they walked out of the restaurant. Foley burped with satisfaction and then asked, "Where shall we go next?"

Dick glanced around and said, "There is a fitness club over there. I have never been to fitness clubs. Let's go and see there is any difference that fitness people are from our martial arts people?"

Chapter 749 Flexible Foley

At the entrance to the fitness club.

Casey, Foley and Dick came here.

Foley and Dick stared at the glass decoration inside, both with a little emotion.

"Look, it's so comfortable to exercise here. It's not like us, having to suffer so much in the mountains. What a big difference!" Dick said.

"It doesn't matter whether it is comfortable or not. Mainly there are too many beautiful women here. Look, big breasts and hips. I also want to exercise with them." Foley said

Casey rolled his eyes at the two people and said, "There is nothing good to see below. I remember there is a free-fighting ring on the top floor. Go there and have a look."

After speaking, he walked towards the elevator.

Foley and Dick stared at the beauties, and then followed Casey very reluctantly.

On the top floor, a group of young men and women who loved fitness were gathering in front of the free-fighting ring, looking at the ring with admiration.

On the ring, there was a man who was showing off his muscles.

This man was not someone else. It was Stuart. At this moment, there was a guy with muscles lying on the ground under his feet, with a bruised face. Just now, Stuart fought this man. The ending was that Stuart achieved a complete victory. "Brother, you are so awesome! You are really the pride of the Simpson family!" Haley looked at Stuart on the ring with excitement and shouted.

Stuart raised his head triumphantly. Obviously, he was also satisfied with his performance just now.

"Is there anyone who wants to come up and fight with me?" Stuart said with a smile.

Everyone underneath shook their heads for a while. The person who was defeated by Stuart also went down the ring in a desperate manner. He did not dare to continue to fight with Stuart again.

At this time, Casey also came here. After seeing Stuart standing on the ring, Foley and Dick were also taken aback. "Why are we so unlucky today? How can I run into these little shit guys wherever I go?" Foley murmured.

At this time, Stuart also noticed Casey. He was taken aback. Haley followed Stuart's gaze to look over. After seeing Casey, her face sank.

She rolled her eyes at them, and then walked towards Casey. Staring at the three of them arrogantly, she said, "You three are perverted? You actually track us? What the hell do you want to do?" Dick was a little angry at once, and said,

"What? You look so ugly. Why do we have to track you? Don't brag here."

Haley suddenly became angry. What a girl couldn't stand the most should be said ugly by others.

"Damn it! Dare to say I'm ugly? You want to go to the hell?" Haley shouted. Foley looked at her with a sneer and said, "We can't tell the truth nowadays?" Haley clenched two fists and glared at Casey and the other two.

On the ring, Stuart watched this scene with a cold face. He stared at the three of them and said, "Since you three are so arrogant, I don't know if you dare to solve the problem in a man's way? I'm on the ring. Who of you dare to come up and fight me?"

Upon hearing Stuart's words, Haley's eyes lit up. She immediately said, "They are just cowards. They must not dare to fight with you. Maybe they will pee their pants in fright after a while."

Foley snorted and immediately walked towards the ring, saying, "If I don't teach you today, you really take yourself seriously."

When Casey saw that Foley was about to go up, he didn't stop him, but said, "Just have fun. Don't kill anyone."

Foley grinned and said, "Don't worry, boss. I got it."

When Stuart saw that Foley was about to come on stage to fight him, he immediately showed a sneer. In his eyes, among them, the easiest to solve was Foley. During the battle, the fat man's body shape would become the biggest burden. He could knock Foley down so easily.

Foley stepped onto the ring. Stuart gave him a sneer and said, "Don't think that you have a thick skin, and it won't hurt. I can smash glass bottles."

Foley laughed and said, "Then you are really amazing, but... are you sure your fist can touch me?"

Everyone in the audience had seen Stuart's skills at that time. Now seeing that Foley was going to fight Stuart, they were not very optimistic about Foley.

"This fat man is not small in size, but that guy is quite agile. He is so fast. I am afraid this fat man can only be a target."

"So what? It's not me who will be beaten anyway. It feels even better to watch the fat man get beaten."

"Brother, kill this bumpkin! Avenge me!"

Stuart didn't continue to talk nonsense with Foley, but directly assumed a free fight posture, then jumped forward.

Foley didn't move at all. He was also an inner force expert anyway. Although he was nothing in the No. 5 Prison, he was a master of martial arts in front of ordinary people. What kind of free fighting, taekwondo, karate... It was nothing for him.

As soon as Stuart's fist was approaching Foley, Foley quickly raised his hand, grabbed Stuart's wrist, and then slammed it hard to make Stuart rush towards the edge of the ring.

If there was not a guard bar, Stuart would have flown out directly.

Everyone was shocked when they saw this scene. They didn't expect that fat man who looked like a ball would be so flexible.

Stuart also didn't expect that Foley would give him such a move. He was angry and then rushed towards Foley while yelling.

Foley completely regarded this as a game. Although Stuart looked fierce, he couldn't approach Foley at all. After five minutes, Stuart was already out of breath. But from start to finish, he didn't touch Foley at all.

"Brat, are you in a hurry? You can't even touch my hair. Even if your fist can smash the glass bottle, so what?" Foley said with a smile.

Stuart cursed secretly, gritted his teeth and rushed towards Foley again.

Foley felt it was the time. At the moment Stuart rushed over, he directly was against Stuart's stomach with one hand, grabbed Stuart's arm with the other hand, flipped Stuart three hundred and sixty degrees, and threw him to the ground.

"How about receiving my last move?"

Foley yelled with a smile, and then he sat down on Stuart's face.

Chapter 750

Your Treat

Under the ring, everyone watched the Foley sit down towards Stuart's face.

They all took a deep breath.

Foley was so fat. If he sat down on a person and the person was not strong, the person either would be disabled or die.

Seeing this scene, Haley almost screamed directly. She glared at Foley and shouted, "Bastard! Get up quickly! You shameless thing! You even use this shameless trick. Shame on you!"

Foley who sat on Stuart's face turned his head and glanced at Haley. He said with a smile, "Isn't this free fighting? What's wrong with my tricks??"

Haley stomped her feet with anger. She almost rushed to fight with Foley. Of course, she didn't have the guts.

After Foley sat on Stuart's face, Stuart immediately began to struggle violently. A group of people in the audience burst into laughter.

About half a minute later, Foley got up. He didn't plan to kill Stuart. At most, he wanted to teach Stuart a lesson.

At this time, Stuart's face was so pale, with blue veins popping out. If he was not strong, he would have been suffocated by Foley's ass just now.

He quickly got up from the ground and breathed violently.

Upon seeing this, Haley and several other men rushed towards the ring.

"Brother, these three mean guys are really so bullying. I will call Dad now. We are here to attend Davies family's banquet this time. If something like this happens, Davies family will definitely not watch us to be treated like this. Just let the people of Davies family come here and punch them!" Haley said fiercely. Stuart immediately waved his hand and said, "No, I have a way to make them regret it. You don't need to let Dad take care of this kind of trivial matter."

After speaking, Stuart took a few deep breaths, calmed himself down, turned his head and looked towards Casey.

He got off the ring and walked in front of three people.

Foley looked at him with a smile, and asked, "How is it? Is it good?"

The expression on Stuart's face changed instantly, but soon returned to normal. He forced a smile and said, "You are really strong. I failed."

Seeing that Stuart actually admitted that he failed, Foley immediately curled his lips, feeling very boring.

Stuart looked at Casey and said, "If I guess correctly, you should be the eldest brother of the two of them. There are indeed a lot of misunderstandings, so it has caused our current situation. Just now, I also reflected on it. What happened today is indeed because my sister is not polite. She is so naughty. I apologize to you guys. So can I make up for our mistakes? Today, I want to treat you guys for having drink to express our apologies. What do you guys think of?"

"Brother, what are you doing? Why are we treat these three bumpkins? We didn't get even with them yet, and they are not worthy of letting us treat them for drink!" Haley suddenly shouted in confusion.

Stuart turned to look at Haley, winked at her, and then said, "Sister, you were wrong in this matter, but you are still arguing here. We should apologize for this. Just leave it alone."

Seeing the look in Stuart's eyes, Haley immediately understood what he meant, and quickly shut up.

Foley originally wanted to reject them directly, but after hearing what Haley said, he was a little furious. He was thinking, 'Since you don't want to treat us, I have to let you treat us!'

"Okay, since you invited us, we accept. But we don't want to go some shit places." Foley said. Since he could drink for free, of course he had to go.

Dick also echoed. He had no opinions if he could drink for free.

Casey thought that there was nothing to do today. Since Foley and Dick wanted to go, he would listen to them, so he didn't say anything.

"Well, that's a deal. I know there is a high-end bar called Sunny Sky nearby, so let's go there." Stuart smiled.

"Go." Foley turned around and walked outside.

Dick and Casey also followed.

Stuart watched the three people walking towards the outside, a sneer immediately appeared on his face.

"I can't beat you, but I have a lot of ways to knock you down. Three bumpkins! It is estimated that the total amount of belongings in you guys will not exceed two hundred dollars. You also want to drink in a high-end bar? You wish! See me how to teach you a lesson!"

Stuart murmured, and then followed them to the outside.

At the entrance of Sunny Sky.

Casey stared at the bar sign, then a smile appeared on his face.

In the lower right corner of the bar sign, there was a very small sign, which was Davies family's trademark. It meant that this bar was opened by Davies family.

At this time, Casey also vaguely remembered that after he took over Davies family, in order to please Edith, he arranged for Jordan to open various industries. Now it seemed that this bar should be one of them.

"Boss, what are you looking at?" Foley on the side asked.

Casey said with a smile, "Nothing, let's go."

They walked inside together, and Stuart followed behind. After seeing the waiter, he directly said, "I want to order a transparent glass private room, the one with the highest specifications."

After hearing this, the waiter froze for a moment and asked, "Sir, are you sure you want the highest specification transparent glass private room? The fee is 88,000 for an hour."

When Foley and Dick heard the price, their eyes widened.

"Holy shit! It costs eighty-eight thousand an hour. This is only the private room's fee, not including the wine fees. This is really so expensive." Dick, who had not experienced the life of the rich, sighed with emotion.

Seeing his reaction, Stuart also showed a triumphant smile on his face, and said to the waiter, "Yes, the highest standard."

Foley wanted to say something, but when he thought of that it was Stuart's treat today, he didn't speak.

Haley looked at Foley and Dick who had never been around. She curled her lips and whispered, "Sure enough, it is a group of bumpkins from the countryside. They are actually astonished by such a price like this. If they see the price of wine, I'm afraid that they will be scared to death."

The waiter didn't hesitate anymore, and quickly led them toward a transparent glass private room.
