

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 751

It's So Nice to Have Money

The so-called transparent glass private room was actually an upgraded version of the booth. It was surrounded by glass of special materials. The main function was to prevent others from disturbing. There was a button on the glass. If necessary, you could press it, then there was no way for others outside to see the situation inside. It was very suitable for the local tyrant to spend time with their mistresses.

After Casey, Foley and Dick entered the private room, they sat down on the sofa. Before entering, Stuart called Haley and his other brothers over and said something to them.

After listening it, they showed sinister smiles. All the previous unhappiness was wiped out.

Then they entered the transparent glass private room. After sitting down, Stuart said, "Today, it's my treat. Order food and drinks whatever you want. Don't be afraid of expensive. I don't care about the money."

"Yes, it's all my fault. This is our apologize for you. You can just order anything. The more the better, so that we can show our sincerity." Haley also said.

Casey glanced at her, feeling something was wrong. But this bar belonged to Davies family, so even if they wanted to play tricks, Casey was not afraid.

At this time, the waiter brought the wine list. When Foley and Dick glanced at the price of the wine above, they both suddenly showed stunned expressions.

"Holy shit! Why are the wines so expensive here? Are you sure you let us order it casually?" Foley asked.

"Yes. It's my treat. What are you afraid of?" Stuart said.

"Fine, when you see the bill, don't cry." Dick said.

Stuart smiled without saying a word. A playful look flashed in his eyes.

Foley and Dick didn't hesitate anymore. Since they wanted to take advantage of Stuart, they had to act harder, so they directly ordered the most expensive wines.

When Stuart and Haley watched the drinks they ordered, not only did they not panic, they laughed more and more happily.

Before long, the waiter delivered all the wine they ordered. Then they drank it immediately. Stuart and his brothers began to toast Foley and Dick in turn, as if they were afraid that the two of them drank less.

Casey also drank some. It wasn't that he didn't want to drink it, but because Edith didn't let him drink too much. Edith didn't want Sherry to get close to the drunk Casey.

After drinking for three rounds, Stuart felt that the wine was not enough, so he ordered some. Foley and Dick were already a little drunk. Haley sneered, thinking that these guys would regret soon.

After a while, Stuart stood up and said that he was going to the toilet. Not long after he had just been out, Haley also got up and said that she was going to the toilet.

Soon, the men who came with Stuart either made a phone call or went to the bathroom, and they all walked out of the private room, leaving only Casey, Foley and Dick.

Foley and Dick were unaware, and continued to drink.

Casey discovered the abnormality of Stuart and his men. Then Casey guessed what they wanted to do. A smile appeared on Casey's face. He shook his head helplessly.

After Stuart got out of the private room, they soon joined together. They all gloated towards the transparent glass private room with a glimmer of expectation in their eyes.

"These three stupid pigs! They really think we are going to treat them for drinks? Brother, this method you came up with is really amazing. The three of them didn't have much money. Now, if we leave here, all the consumption in this private room is on them. At that time, if they can't pay the bill, the people in the bar will definitely not let them go." Haley smiled.

Stuart also showed a sneer on his face, and said, "That fat man dared to sit on my face with his butt, how could I really apologize to them? If I don't teach him a lesson this time, I can't stand it."

At this time, the waiter passed by them. Stuart stopped him and said, "We have something to do, so we will leave first. All the consumption in the private room over there will be settled by those three people.

The waiter glanced towards the private room and nodded when he saw that there were people inside.

"Let's go." Stuart walked towards the outside of the bar with Haley and his other brothers.

Before long, the waiter took the bill into the transparent private room, and said to Casey, "Sir, in order to prevent you from getting drunk later, so let's pay the bill first."

Foley immediately stared at him, and said, "We were invited by someone. You have to ask them to pay."

"But just now those gentlemen and ladies said that they had something to do and they had already left, saying that you are going to pay the bill."

It was time for Foley and Dick to realize that Stuart and the others had been out for a long time, and they also realized that they had been cheated by Stuart.

"Damn it, dare to cheat us! I'll go to get even with them now." Foley stood up directly and was about to rush out to find Stuart and his men.

"Sir, please pay the bill first before leaving." The waiter hurriedly stopped him.

Foley was full of anger and asked, "How much does it cost?"

"Adding the cost of the private room, the total is 468,000. Because you consume more, we will wipe out a little for you. The total is 460,000." The waiter took out a bill and passed it to Foley.

"What! More than four hundred thousand! We drank a few bottles of wine, you actually asked me to pay more than four hundred thousand? You are taking advantage of us!" Foley exclaimed directly.

"Sir, our wines are clearly marked the price. If you think it's expensive, just don't order them. But you have already drunk them up, so it is legal for us to charge you." The waiter said.

"Damn, these damn little shit assholes! They fooled around us. More than 400,000 dollars! What should we do now?" Foley turned his head and looked at Casey.

Dick also stared at Casey. Both of them didn't have much money. This situation could only be solved by Casey.

Casey took a sip of the wine on the table, said with a smile, "Go to call your manager over."

The waiter didn't say anything. He knew it was better to let the manager handle such a situation, so he turned around and got out of the room.

"Boss, these guys are too mean. I'm really so angry. But I can't find them now." Foley said angrily.

"Don't worry. We will see them again." Casey said.

"How do you know?" Foley and Dick both looked at Casey suspiciously.

"When we were drinking, I heard them say that they came to B City to attend Sherry's party." Casey said.

The two immediately understood what was going on.

"Then how do we pay four hundred thousand dollars? We don't have so much money even if you sell me." Foley didn't know how rich Casey was.

"We don't need to pay it. Later, when their manager comes, I will tell him. This bar belongs to me." Casey said.

Both Foley and Dick took a deep breath. They didn't expect that it was Casey who opened this high-end bar.

Not long after, the manager of the bar came over. Seeing Casey sitting inside, his eyes lit up. He hurriedly walked in and said with a smile, "Mr. Davies, why didn't you tell me that you would come over? I can arrange someone specifically to entertain you."

Seeing this scene, Foley and Dick sighed with emotion, 'It's nice to have money.'

Chapter 752 There Is a Visitor from the Pantheon

On the day of the banquet, early in the morning, the Davies House became lively.

People from all walks of life had learned that Davies family was going to hold a banquet several days in advance, so they had prepared gifts early. They sent people to give gifts as soon as the day arrived.

Before noon, there was already a mountain of gifts in one of the branches of the Davis House. Most of them were toys for children. It was estimated that these toys could let Sherry play with from the age of one to eighteen.

Moreover, in the underground garage of the Davies House, there were already a few top sports cars, all of which were brand new. According to the gift giver, although Sherry was not even a year old and couldn't drive, these sports cars could be used as Sherry's toy cars. It was still okay to play on them.

If the production companies of these sports cars knew that the world's limited top sports cars they had produced were only toy cars for Sherry, they would definitely be shocked.

On Sherry's cradle, the keys to five or six villas were hung up. Some people even gave away a castle directly, saying that Sherry, as a princess, must own her own castle.

Originally, what Casey notified this time was that only companies or families of the same level as Davies family. He didn't use his identity of the young master of Guanling to invite guests, so the scale of gifts should not be so large. However, Darius felt that this was the first formal banquet for Sherry, so it had to be a little grander. He invited some world-class families to participate in this banquet.

The financial resources held by these world-class families were not imaginable by ordinary people, so the gifts they gave must be high-grade. Those sports cars and villas were sent from them.

Baron, Dick and Foley, who lived in the mountains all the year round, saw these gifts and felt that their three views had been subverted.

They had always thought that martial arts practitioners should not be bound by other things. But when they saw the extravagance of these rich people, they immediately felt that they had spent half their lives in vain.

This was probably the reason why many inner force experts were willing to become the guests of those secular families. No one would refuse to be rich and honorable. The reason why Casey said that money was nothing was because he had already experienced this kind of luxury life.

What surprised Casey this time was that many Guwu families also gave gifts.

These Guwu families rarely showed up in the secular society, but this time there were a lot of people coming, which was far beyond Casey's surprise.

Of course, Casey knew that these people would come completely because the news that he had killed Myles and Alonzo, the two Grandmasters, had spread in Guwu Circle.

Not only did these people congratulate Casey for having a daughter, but rather to see what this genius, who killed Grandmaster, looked like.

If there were opportunities, they also wanted to make friends with Casey.

Whether it was in the secular society or in Guwu Circle, strength would always be the object of worship by everyone.

Although Casey didn't take care of the banquet and it was Jordan who took care of everything, Casey was so busy from the morning. He had to meet the people who came to give gifts.

In the entire Davies House, the most leisurely ones were Edith and Sherry.

The mother and daughter didn't have to worry about anything. They opened gifts from the morning and had a lot of fun.

In the living room, after walking some guests out, Casey got up from the chair and stretched himself.

"The next one who comes to give gifts is from the Simpson family in P City. The head of the Simpson family, Shepard, is also the big shot in P City, but he is a bit worse than the ones we entertained before." Jordan said.

Casey raised his eyebrows. If he remembered correctly, the people who cheated them yesterday seemed to come from the Simpson family. If nothing else, they should be from this the Simpson family.

"I'm a little tired. Let him wait outside first." Casey said.

Jordan nodded without saying anything. Casey walked out of the living room, planning to go outside to get some breath.

Not long after he arrived in the yard, he felt a strong breath appearing on the roof. This breath was even stronger than Myles'.

Moreover, only Grandmaster could escape the detection of Yin Killers.

He frowned slightly and shouted, "Since you came here, just show up. The wind on the roof is strong. Don't catch a cold."

As soon as he finished speaking, two figures appeared in front of Casey.

Casey took a closer look and found that among the two people, there was a face that was not unfamiliar.

"Carver?" Casey said.

Carver laughed immediately and said, "I didn't expect you to remember me. If it were in the past, I would definitely not take it seriously. But now, I have to say that I'm proud of you remembering me."

"Sorry, I can remember you, purely because of your disgusting calling."

Casey replied unceremoniously.

A trace of embarrassment appeared on Carver's face, but he didn't refute anything. He had already heard of Casey's strength. He was just an inner force expert who had reached medium stage. How could he dare to be presumptuous in front of Casey, who killed two Grandmaster casually? Casey did not continue to talk with Carver, but turned to look at the old man standing next to him. The breath that was stronger than Myles was emitted from him.

The old man also looked at Casey up and down, with a satisfied smile on his face. Then he said, "Sure enough, it is the same as the rumors. You are really only in your twenties. If I haven't seen it with my own eyes, I would not believe it."

"I'm Ainsworth, the director of the Pantheon."

Casey nodded to him, and said, "You should already know me. Nice to meet you."

"I don't know why the two of you came to my house at this time. If you come to fight, please come three days later. These three days is my daughter's banquet. I don't want to fight with anyone at this time."

Ainsworth smiled and said, "You are misunderstood. We are not here to fight with you. On the contrary, we are here to recruit you to join the Pantheon. We need a genius like you to join us. After you join the Pantheon, your value will be maximized."

Hearing this, Casey raised his eyebrows and said, "Sorry, I'm not interested in it."

"This world has many secrets that you can't understand. I believe since you have reached the current level, you should have discovered some clues. If you want to understand the truth of this world, joining the Pantheon is your best choice, and it's the only choice."

Ainsworth said.

"I just want to live a peaceful life with my wife and child. I don't want to know the truth of the world. You two just leave here." Casey waved his hand.

"Oh? If I say that your Davies family is about to face a catastrophe, only when you join the Pantheon can you resolve it." Ainsworth laughed.

Chapter 753 It's Not a Big Deal

After hearing Ainsworth's words, Casey became serious. He asked, "What disaster?"

"Alonzo who died in your hands was a member of the Law family, the most prestigious Guwu Family in Jiangbei. He has an older brother named Maynard, the head of the Law family. He is so great in Guwu Circle and is much better than Myles."

"We have received news that Maynard will come to you for revenge tonight. Although you are so talented and killed Myles, as far as I know, you were also seriously injured at that time. So, when facing the stronger Maynard, you might not be able to deal with it."

"Once you are killed by Maynard, what kind of situation your Davies family will face and what kind of situation your wife and daughter will fall into? You know it best."

"As long as you join the Pantheon, I can help you deal with Maynard. No matter how strong the Law family is, they will not dare to oppose the Pantheon."

After Ainsworth finished speaking, an expectant smile appeared on his face. In his opinion, Casey would definitely choose to join the Pantheon after hearing what he said.

Casey nodded thoughtfully. When he heard Ainsworth say that Davies Family would get into trouble, he was still a little nervous, thinking that something terrible would happen to Davies family. But after hearing Ainsworth's explanation, he sighed in relief. If it was just the Law family who came to make trouble, it wouldn't be a big deal.

After the battle with Myles, Casey was indeed seriously injured. But at that time, it was because he just reached initial stage of inner force. Now Casey had reached medium stage of inner force and his strength had long since stabilized. If Myles came to him again, he could knock Myles down so easily. The head of the Law family was just a little stronger than Myles. Casey naturally didn't care about it.

"Thank you for telling me the news. Enjoy tonight's banquet." Casey said. When Ainsworth heard Casey say this, he was so happy, thinking that this brat finally knew what was good for him. Casey knew that he could not beat Maynard, so he acquiesced in joining the Pantheon.

"As for joining the Pantheon, it's not necessary." Casey continued.

Ainsworth was dumbfounded at once. He didn't expect Casey to refuse his invitation. His eyes were full of puzzlement.

"You have to think about it clearly. If you don't join the Pantheon, I won't help you deal with Maynard." Ainsworth said.

Casey said with a smile, "It's okay. I can handle it by myself. It's not a big deal.

Enjoy yourselves. I will go to receive the guests first."

After speaking, Casey turned and walked towards the other courtyard.

Ainsworth stared at Casey's back blankly, and muttered, "It's not a big deal? Is this brat so arrogant?"

Carver also looked at Casey dumbfoundedly, and said, "He is a genius! It is normal to be arrogant.

When Maynard comes to him tonight, he will naturally know how strong Maynard is. At that time, he will join the Pantheon."

Ainsworth nodded, thinking that Carver's words were reasonable. Then he said, "Let's go, since he wants to treat us for a meal, let's go and see what delicious food he has prepared."

As soon as Casey walked into another courtyard, a middle-aged man with a big smile brought a few entourages with gifts to greet him.

"Mr. Davies, it's my honor to see you. These are some gifts for your daughter." The middle-aged man said.

Casey stared at him, then asked, "Who are you?"

"Shepard Simpson comes from the Simpson family in P City. I came here specially this time to attend your daughter's banquet." The middle-aged man said.

Casey nodded, but he didn't expect this man to be the head of the Simpson family in P City.

"Mr. Simpson, do you have a son named Stuart and a daughter named Haley?" Casey asked.

"Yes, yes. You actually know my son and daughter! I will call them both over." Shepard said excitedly.

"No, I just heard about them accidentally, so I asked you." Casey said.

Shepard immediately showed a trace of disappointment on his face, but he didn't dare to say anything. Then he forced a smile.

Casey didn't talk much with Shepard. He walked towards the front hall after saying those words.

When Shepard watched Casey leave, he was full of emotion, "It's really enviable that he can be in this position when he is so young. This time, there are many world-class families came to Davies family's banquet. Our Simpson family is nothing at all in front of them."

"Since Mr. Davies knows my son and daughter, I must let them have a good relationship with Mr. Davies. This is a good opportunity for our family."

Shepard murmured to himself, then turned and left the courtyard.

In the evening, the Davies House was brightly lit.

Countless guests who came to the banquet went in and out of the Davies House, which looked very lively. In order not to make those who came to the banquet feel boring, Jordan also specially invited a professional art performance team to perform in the main courtyard of the Davies House. Stuart and Haley were all curiously looking at these people coming in and going out of the Davies House. The arrogance they had when facing Casey disappeared. They all showed smile, fearing to make others angry.

They knew that any of these people who could appear in the Davies House would have much stronger background than their Simpson family, so they didn't dare to have any presumptuousness.

"Brother, this house is too big! It's really amazing to have such a big house in the center of B City." Haley said with envy.

Stuart nodded and said, "These are actually nothing. Did you notice that those men who came to the banquet with foreign women? They are all from world-class families. Compared with them, our family is just nothing."

There was a trace of worship on Haley's face. She said, "I really want to know what Mr. Davies looks like. I can't wait to see him. If I could talk to him, it would be even better."

"Look at you! Today is his daughter's banquet. If Mrs. Davies knows what you are thinking about, our family will be over." Stuart joked.

Just as they were wandering in the Davies House, three figures appeared in front of them.

It was Casey, Dick, and Foley.

Chapter 754 Are You Teasing Me?

After seeing the three of them, Stuart and Haley also showed stunned expressions on their faces.

"Why are you guys here? Do you know what this place is? This is the Davies House. You are not qualified to come here. When Davies family knows you guys sneaked here, you all will be screwed up!" Haley shouted at the three of them.

Casey did not speak. They came here, because Foley and Dick felt that they had been cheated by more than 400,000 dollars and were so angry. So, when they heard that Stuart and Haley also came to the Davies House, they planned to come here to get even with Stuart and Haley.

Both Foley and Dick took a step forward, staring at Stuart and Haley with sneers.

"Why are we here? Don't you guys know? That night, you little bastards said that you wanted to treat us for drinking, but you ran away! It was us who paid for more than 400,000 dollars. You think this matter can be over like this. Huh?" Foley said solemnly.

Stuart looked at the two of them with guilt, and said, "We ran away? We had things to deal with at that time. You drank up all the wine. Who knows that you could drink so much wine? It even cost more than 400,000 dollars. We don't have so much money."

"Did you guys have things to deal with at that time? Today, you shouldn't have things to deal with, should you? Let's talk about what happened that night."

Dick clenched his fists and made a crackling sound.

Haley stared at Dick and Foley menacingly, and said, "What do you want to do? This is the Davies House. If you want to do something here, you guys just will be beat up to death!"

Seeing that Haley still treated them as bumpkins, Foley showed a joking smile on his face. He didn't know the reason why he felt so happy when he saw Haley's self-righteous look.

After all, the more self-righteous they were now, the more shock on their face would appear later.

"So what? We can't get even with you guys here?" Foley said with a smile.

Stuart and Haley were surprised when they saw that Foley dared to be so arrogant here. They thought that the three of them were really bumpkins. The three of them didn't even know what kind of place the Davies House was and dared to run here to make trouble.

"Wait, I'll call the security guards of Davies family over! You guys dare to make trouble here! No one can save you when the security guards come!"

Haley said, and then ran towards another yard.

Stuart stared at Foley and Dick with a sneer, and said, "See, my sister has already gone to inform the security guards of Davies family. Today is Mr. Davies' daughter's banquet. You are here to make trouble. Davies family's security guards will definitely not let you guys go. You will be punished soon!"

"So funny! Since you have said so, I will wait here to see what the security guards will do to us." Dick said with a smile.

"Are you guys insane? Don't you really know what kind of place the Davies House is?" Seeing Dick and Foley not worrying at all, Stuart felt weird.

"I know, but so what? Is it possible that Mr. Davies dares to trouble us?" Dick turned his head and glanced at Casey, snickering.

Casey glared at him, and didn't say anything.

"It looks like you are really brave. I will know later whether Mr. Davies dares to punish you guys or not." Stuart curled his lips.

Soon, Haley brought a group of people to the yard here.

"Who dares to run to the Davies House to make trouble?" Brady's voice came over a long distance away.

Haley followed Brady and other security guards to Casey, pointing her finger at the three of them and shouting, "It's them! Three bumpkins! I don't know where they come from. They actually dare to make trouble here. Sir, you can't spare them easily!"

Brady looked towards Casey and the others, and then the expression on his face became weird. He turned his head and glanced at Haley, thinking that this girl might be teasing him.

Casey also looked at Brady jokingly. In this house, Brady's rights were indeed not small. But no matter how great his rights were, he didn't dare to arrest Casey.

"Sir, what are you doing? Get them!"

Seeing Brady didn't move, Haley said.

Brady glanced at Haley as if he was looking at an idiot. He said, "This lady, are you kidding me? Do you know who the three of them are?"

Haley was taken aback, and said, "The three of them are just three bumpkins. They came to the Davies House to make trouble. What can't you get them?"

"Don't treat me as a fool. Whoever came here tonight doesn't know that he is the head of Davies family? You asked me to arrest him? Are you teasing me?"

Brady said, then walked towards Casey, "Boss, what is going on? You did it on purpose?"

"I'm not that boring yet." Casey said.

After hearing Brady's words, Haley and Stuart were petrified on the spot. They all stared at Casey in disbelief. The words of Brady were still echoing in their ears.

"He... he is Mr. Davies? ... How is this possible?" Haley muttered to herself.

"Sister, this time, I am afraid we have caused a great disaster." Stuart felt that his legs were a little weak. He never expected that the bumpkins they despised would be the famous Mr. Davies.

Foley and Dick felt a little funny when they saw the sudden changes in the expressions on the faces of Stuart and Haley.

"How about it? Didn't you say that we were making trouble? Come and teach us a lesson quickly!" Dick smiled and shouted.

Stuart's and Haley's faces were full of tension, and their lips began to tremble.

"You... are you really Mr. Davies?"

Stuart still couldn't believe it. Staring at Casey, he asked.

Casey shrugged and said, "Could it be that I can pretend to be him?"

Stuart sighed helplessly. This was the Davies House. Anyone who dared to pretend to be Mr. Davies must be crazy. Just when Casey and the others were looking at the sudden change on the faces of Stuart and Haley, Shepard walked into the courtyard with an anxious face.

Someone had already informed him of what had happened here. He was shocked when he knew it, and then ran here quickly.

Seeing Casey standing in front of Stuart and Haley, he quickly walked over.

Without saying anything, he directly slapped Stuart and Haley.

"You dare to call the security guards of Davies family to arrest Mr. Davies? Are you insane?"

Chapter 755 I'd Better Give It Back to You

"Daddy...we, we didn't know that he was Mr. Davies." Haley said regretfully, covering her face with her hand.

"Even if you didn't know him, you can't treat others so impolitely! It seems you are really spoiled by me!" Shepard's entire face was blushed because of anger.

Haley dared not say anything, and quickly lowered her head.

Shepard turned to look at Casey. His face was full of guilt, and then he said, "Mr. Davies, I'm really sorry. I didn't expect that my two children would be so impolite. Please forgive them. "

Before Casey spoke, Foley walked up to Shepard and asked, "Are you their father?"

Shepard nodded.

"Well! We were about to get even with them. Now that you are here, just listen carefully what your kids did."

Foley told Shepard what had happened that day. Shepard originally thought it was just a misunderstanding caused by Stuart and Haley not knowing Casey. Now, he knew that there was another hidden story.

Listening to Foley's narration, Shepard's face became more and more gloomy. From time to time, he glanced at Stuart and Haley. He just wanted to take the two of them back and taught them a good lesson.

After Foley finished speaking, Shepard bowed deeply to Foley, Dick and Casey, and apologized, "I'm really so sorry. I didn't expect that these two bastards turned out to be so stupid and caused you guys such a big trouble. I will definitely make up for the more than 400,000 dollars. I will definitely teach them a lesson to prevent them from making such a mistake again."

After speaking, Shepard once again walked in front of Stuart and Haley, raised his hand mercilessly, and slapped them with all his strength.

"Asshole! I'm still waiting for you two developing our family business, but you two are nothing except cause trouble for me. This time, you guys even dared to tease Mr. Davies! "

"You still judge how people eat. Why don't you say that I am a bumpkin when I eat?"

"If the two of you don't realize your problems today, I am not worthy to be your father!"

Shepard slapped Stuart and Haley on their faces one after another. The two dared not resist. They regretted what they had done.

"Father, we know that we were wrong. Please forgive us, we will never dare to do it anymore." Haley said to Shepard, crying.

"What's the use of apologizing to me? Go to apologize to Mr. Davies!" Shepard shouted angrily.

Stuart and Haley immediately realized that it was their father who was helping them out, so they hurriedly walked to the front of Casey, Dick and Foley.

"Mr. Davies, sir, we know that we were wrong. Before, we were too self-righteous. We shouldn't look down on others. Please forgive us. Otherwise, my sister and I will be beat to death by our father." Stuart apologized sincerely. Haley hurriedly nodded, apparently already aware of her mistake.

"Just apologize to the two of them. I don't care." Casey said.

The two hurriedly looked at Foley and Dick.

Foley and Dick looked at each other. The two of them didn't want to continue arguing with the two young man. They just wanted to make Stuart and Haley realize their mistakes.

Now that the two had apologized so sincerely, this matter could be over. Foley forgave the two of them and educated them a few more words. Then this matter was over. Shepard thanked them gratefully and promised to strengthen the education of his children in the future and prevented them from doing such things anymore.

Before long, it was time for the banquet. Casey asked Jordan to let those art performers get down. But the stage they built didn't need to remove. Just transform it into a simple ring. When everyone saw this scene, they were all a little puzzled. Those Guwu families who came to the banquet thought that Casey might have done this for some people to come up to learn from each other.

Ainsworth and Carver knew why Casey made such a ring.

This should be prepared for the Law family.

Not long after the banquet started, Casey and Edith who held Sherry showed up in front of everyone. Casey also made a brief speech to everyone, letting everyone enjoy themselves.

Afterwards, the banquet began.

Everyone was seated. Many people who wanted to make friends began to drink with others. The whole main courtyard became lively again.

In order to prevent Edith and Sherry from being affected, Casey sent the two of them back to the room not long after the banquet began. He let Brady take the strongest power of Yin Killers to protect them in secret. Then he could know the situation at the first time if something happened.

At about eight o'clock in the evening, just as everyone was drinking happily, a deafening bell rang over the Davies House, shocking everyone.

Everyone looked up at the sky. They saw several figures on the roof. No one knew when they appeared. Then, a big bell over two meters high flew down from behind the roof.

Seeing this scene, everyone was so scared. They panicked, quickly got up and ran towards the surroundings. The bell was several hundred pounds. If it hit them, it could smash them into pieces.

"Brat, you killed my brother, but you still have the mood to hold a banquet here. I didn't bring any good gifts. Just take the bell and go to the hell!"

A vigorous voice came, making others shivered.

"My God, who is this? A big bell weighing hundreds of pounds was thrown down from the roof. I'm afraid only an excavator can move it!"

"Holy shit! Davies family has provoked a terrible enemy again. Today's banquet is ruined."

"It's so terrible! He threw a huge bell weighing hundreds of pounds! It scares me to death."

Casey was already prepared. He was not surprised to see the other party throwing a huge bell. He had done this before.

That big bell was about to hit the ground, but there were still a few people over there before they had time to escape. Seeing this, Casey's figure immediately became blurred. When he appeared again, he was already under the bell.

He ran XuanJin in his body. An aura rose to the sky. He kicked his feet against the ground, then he flew into the air, and slapped on the huge bell.

Another bell sounded loudly. In the eyes of everyone, the bell weighing several hundred pounds actually flew back along the original trajectory.

"Thank you for your kindness. I don't need this for the time being. I'd better give it back to you!"

Everyone was in uproar.

Chapter 756 That's Just It

"Is... is this the strength of Mr. Davies?"

Stuart stared blankly at Casey who was standing in the middle of the yard with his hands behind his back. There was a burst of complicated emotions in his mind.

Thinking of him still showing off his muscles in front of Casey, Stuart just wanted to find a hole to hide in quickly now.

A muffled hum sounded on the roof. The huge bell fell on the outside of the wall. Then the figures on the roof jumped down. Another figure appeared quickly and landed in front of those figures. He was the head of the Law family, Maynard.

Maynard glared at Casey, and said coldly, "I gave you a gift, but you actually refused it. You really don't know what is good or bad!"

Casey said with smile, "If you really like to give others such a gift, I can give you one."

"Hmph, sharp-tongued brat! Since you know who I am, you should know the purpose of my coming here today. Obediently kill yourself to apologize to my brother. Otherwise, your entire Davies family will disappear tonight."

Maynard coldly snorted.

"Your brother is so mean. He wanted to kill my wife and child. So I killed him. He deserves it. Why do I have to apologize to him?" Casey asked back.

Maynard suddenly didn't know how to refute Casey. Although it was the case, his brother could not die in vain. He had to avenge his brother.

"Don't talk nonsense with me here. If you don't apologize, don't blame me for being rude!" Maynard said.

Casey didn't talk nonsense with him, but directly turned around and jumped onto the prepared ring.

"Come on!"

Maynard's eyes narrowed. He didn't expect that Casey would even prepare a ring to wait for him. It seemed that Casey didn't know how strong he, Maynard, was if he didn't teach Casey a lesson today. Casey really thought that the Law family was a push-over?

Maynard took a step. The next second, he was already on the ring. Everyone present couldn't see how he came to the ring.

At this time, those Guwu Families and the sects who came to the banquet recognized Maynard, and immediately showed a shocked expression on their faces.

"It turned out to be the Law family in Jiangbei! The top one Guwu Family in Jiangbei! That is their leader, Maynard! My goodness! This kind of famous Grandmaster will actually appear at Davies family's banquet. If I didn't see it with my own eyes, I won't believe it."

"It's really Maynard of the Law family. Mr. Davies is so awesome. He actually has forced out such a big shot."

"No matter how powerful he is, he will be screwed up today. Maynard is known as the top one in Jiangbei. Myles who was killed by Casey is much worse than Maynard. Now Maynard has appeared in person. I am afraid that Casey will be in danger."

"After all, Casey is too young and too arrogant. He actually provoked such a Grandmaster! No matter how great his talent is, it is impossible for him to be a Grandmaster of Maynard's level in such a short period of time. Tonight, it will be a pity if Casey is beat to death."

Ainsworth and Carver, who were in the crowd, saw Casey and Maynard both in the ring, smiling.

"Ainsworth, it seems that you will go to the ring soon. When Casey loses to Maynard, you can come over to help him. In this case, even if he doesn't want to join the Pantheons, he has to join it."

Carver also laughed.

Ainsworth also smiled and nodded. He said, "Casey's talent is too terrifying. He might not have suffered any setbacks before. This matter can be regarded as one of his experiences. If he really joins the Pantheon, we will have more hope." Speaking of this, both of them seemed to have thought of something. There was a dignified look on their faces.

On the ring, Casey and Maynard stood opposite each other.

Casey said, "I finally understand why my master hates Guwu Families so much.

The so-called Guwu Family is indiscriminate. Once you suffer a loss, no matter who is wrong, you have to find someone to get it back. Am I right?"

Maynard snorted coldly and said, "Stop fucking talking nonsense here. Your master is just a hypocrite. Is it possible that you think he has done less evil? You killed my brother. It's normal that I will take revenge on you. Don't say bullshit here."

"Your brother wanted to attack my wife and daughter. According to your logic, I will kill you Law family to protect my wife and daughter from danger. You have no objection, right?" Casey smiled.

"Only you want to destroy my Law family? You wish! You should think about how to escape today's disaster!" Maynard didn't continue to talk with Casey. He stomped his feet suddenly. The temporarily built ring trembled instantly. A huge crack appeared under his feet, and then he rushed towards Casey.

Casey narrowed his eyes, feeling that Maynard's strength was indeed stronger than Myles'. But he didn't panic at all. Instead, he was running XuanJin in his body. The moment Maynard rushed in front of him, he raised his hand quickly. An invisible air wave appeared, which slowed Maynard's speed a bit.

"Just accept my first blow!"

"Tianxing Blow!"

Casey pushed his palm into the front with his full strength. This was the first time he used all his strength to use Tianxing Blow after he reached medium stage of XuanJin. Maynard was not an invincible master for Casey, but just a tool which let Casey test his own power. Maynard did not expect Casey to use such powerful move as soon as he came up. Maynard knew that since Casey could kill Myles, Casey's strength must not be underestimated. He did not take it lightly. But he did not expect Casey would use his trump card at the beginning of the battle.

"Tiger Roar Blow!" Maynard did not hesitate, using the same blow Alonzo had used, hitting towards Casey's palm. A strong aura appeared. Everyone's clothes were blown to the air.

The ring at the feet of Casey and Maynard split in half.

Both of them flew to the air quickly. Casey stood on the corner of the ring which had already fallen down without panic, while Maynard stood on the ground and then took steps back, gritting his teeth to adjust himself.

Everyone looked surprised. They didn't expect that Casey made Maynard suffer such a big loss at the beginning of the battle. In their eyes, Casey should not be Maynard's match.

Now they had to re-examine Casey. Maynard also gritted his teeth and stared at Casey, as if Casey had caused him a great humiliation.

Casey had a calm look on his face, feeling that this was just what it should be.

"You are really stronger than Myles, but... that's just it."

Chapter 757 That Stuff

After Maynard heard Casey's words, there was a trace of anger on his face. He was the head of the top one Guwu Family in Jiangbei. But he was actually beaten by a junior. If he didn't win today, his reputation would be ruined in Guwu Circle in the future.

"How dare you! You think you have the right to talk to me in this tone? The blow just now is really powerful, but in your case, you can't use it a lot, right?"

"A real battle can't tell the winner with one or two moves!"

After finishing speaking, Maynard rushed towards Casey. His aura was obviously stronger than just now.

Casey looked so calm. He also rushed to Maynard.

A big battle was about to start.

Everyone present was afraid of being affected by this battle, so they all consciously retreated far behind. But even so, they could still feel the pressure from Casey and Maynard.

"This is a battle at Grandmaster's level! It's really terrifying. If this battle continues, I'm afraid this yard will be demolished."

"Casey's move just now is really awesome! Do you think which one can win?"

"It should be Maynard. Maynard said Casey could not always use the same blow. After all, Maynard is the top one in Guwu Circle of Jiangbei. It is not easy for Casey to defeat him."

Everyone nodded thoughtfully, feeling that what the person said made sense.

Carver watched the battle in the middle of the yard with emotion. He didn't expect Casey to be so strong that he could make Maynard suffer a loss.

However, he also felt that Casey was still not Maynard's match. It was definitely not a wise move to use the trump card at the beginning of the battle.

"Casey used his trump card so quickly. Maynard must have been prepared. If Casey uses that blow again, the effect will definitely not be as good as the previous blow. Ainsworth, it's obvious that he gives you a chance to shoot." Carver said with a smile.

Ainsworth nodded. He did not look away from Casey. He always felt that Casey in this state seemed to have not exhausted all his strength.

"This must be my illusion. If he doesn't use all his strength yet, how powerful will this brat be?" Ainsworth muttered to himself.

As the battle progressed, Maynard gradually felt the pressure from Casey. The power in this brat's body seemed to be endless. He was always at his peak state, and there was no sign of weakening.

Casey had already noticed this problem a long time ago. He discovered that XuanJin was not only more powerful than inner force, but also much longer lasting than inner force. The deeper he understood, the more he could feel the profound mysteries of XuanJin. XuanJin was far from comparable to inner force. 'Damn it! I can't continue like this, otherwise I will be exhausted to death.' Maynard thought to himself.

Immediately afterwards, Maynard concentrated all the inner force in his body on his fist. After seeing the opportunity, he pushed his fist towards Casey.

"Dragon Roar Blow!"

Casey did not neglect when he saw this. Facing the so-called top one in Guwu Circle of Jiangbei, Casey also used the move that he currently placed in the second position.

"Moon Invitation!"

When the two collided, another powerful wave spread to the surroundings.

Everyone seemed to see the materialization of the power of the two people. Many people were so scared that they ran towards the outside of the yard.

The fluctuations dissipated. Casey slowly took back his hands. His breath was only slightly fluctuating compared to just now.

But Maynard's blood was already surging in his body at this time. His entire face was flushed. The arm that hit to Casey just now was also shivering. For a long time, Maynard finally couldn't hold back and vomited a mouthful of blood.

Everyone present was stunned, especially those in Guwu Circle. They all knew how strong Maynard was. Now the top one master in Jiangbei was injured by Casey, but Casey still looked so calm and relaxed, as if he hadn't exerted his full strength at all, which was beyond everyone's expectation.

"It's really shocking! Casey actually hurt Maynard. At that time, I thought Casey were lucky so that he could survive.

Now it seems that Maynard is not Casey's match at all."

"After today, it will probably cause a sensation in Guwu Circle in Jiangbei again. I'm afraid Maynard will lose the title of being the top one in Guwu Circle in Jiangbei."

Carver also stared at Casey blankly. He didn't expect Casey to be so strong. He turned to look at Ainsworth, and said, "Ainsworth, we seem to be underestimating this guy."

Ainsworth looked so serious at this time. He was thinking about the blow Casey used just now. Even if he wanted to use such a powerful blow, it would take a long time to accumulate energy. During the battle, it was impossible for the opponent to give him such an opportunity.

But Casey used this blow so easily just now. Even he was probably not as good as Casey.

He originally wanted to help Casey out when Casey was defeated by Maynard, so as to win Casey's favor. But now it seemed that there was no chance for him to take actions.

"Holy crap! It seems that it is impossible to recruit this brat into the Pantheon this time. But I have realized the potential of this guy again. I have to let him, such a genius, join the Pantheon. After I go back, I will report the matter to Lord. Casey! One day, you will be willing to join the Pantheon!" Ainsworth said.

Carver was also full of envy. As far as he knew, no one had received such attention since the establishment of the Pantheon.

Some blood dripped from the corner of Maynard's mouth. He looked at Casey unwillingly. He was the top one in Guwu Circle of Jiangbei. But he was actually defeated by a brat who was only in his twenties. His old friends would laugh at him.

Casey stared at Maynard and said, "You have already lost. If I used my all strength just now, you would die, not just vomiting blood. Do you still want to avenge your brother?"

Maynard showed a crazy smile on his face and said, "So funny! I am the top one in Jiangbei and the head of the Law family. How can I be defeated by you, such a brat?"

"Your strength and talent have indeed reached a jaw-dropping level, but unfortunately, you are still only a Grandmaster. You have not broken it through yet. If I give you enough time, you may be able to break through. But you are the enemy of my Law family. If I don't kill you today, you will be a disaster for my Law family in the future, so I must kill you today!"

When several members of the Law family heard Maynard's words, their faces changed.

"Could it be that Mr. Maynard will use that stuff?" They were full of anxiety.

"Casey actually pushes Mr. Maynard to this point! Unfortunately, once Mr. Maynard uses that stuff, no one will be his match. No matter how powerful Casey is, he has to die."

Several members of the Law family all shook their heads helplessly, and looked at Casey with sympathy.

Chapter 758 Kaiyang Heqi Pill

After hearing Maynard's words, Casey was a little confused. He didn't know why Maynard, who had been injured, still had the confidence to say such words.

"Don't deceive yourself. You are not my match." Casey said.

Maynard showed a sneer on his face and said, "Logically, I am indeed not your match. But my Law family can be the top one in Guwu Circle in Jiangbei. The background is not that you, such a brat, can know."

"Now I am not your match, but it does not mean that I'm still not your match after I get some help!"

After speaking that, Maynard took out a jade bottle from his clothes and poured a black pill out of it.

As soon as the pill appeared, a peculiar smell filled in the entire main courtyard. After ordinary people smelled it, they felt dizzy, just like getting drunk.

Casey stared at the pill, then his eyes narrowed. Only smelling it, he knew the pill was not simple.

Moreover, Casey was saved by three unknown pills, so he believed that there was someone in this world who could make pills with amazing effects that exceed people's imagination.

Maynard put the pill into his mouth. Not long after, his whole face became as red as if it had been steamed in a steamer. The veins on his forehead, neck and arms all popped out. He looked like to burst at any time.

At the same time, Maynard's aura began to rise steadily. In the blink of an eye, he was several times stronger than his normal state.

Everyone on the scene watched Maynard's changes in shock. They didn't expect that a small pill would make Maynard like this. It was even more terrifying than taking an overdose of stimulant.

Carver also surprisingly stared at Maynard, whose aura was rushing straight into the sky. As a member of the Pantheon, he knew that some medicines could improve people's strength in a short period of time, but generally, such medicines usually had strong side effects and were very complicated to make. To make such a pill, it had to consume a lot of precious medicinal materials. Sometimes, a pill could make a Guwu Family to go bankrupt.

Standing next to him, Ainsworth's face was even more solemn. He murmured, "It turned out to be Kaiyang Heqi Pill. It is rumored that a mystery alchemy master made a stove of Kaiyang Heqi Pill. It was totally seven pills in that stove. One pill can increase the strength of a person by as much as three times in a short period of time. If a Grandmaster takes this Kaiyang Heqi Pill, he will be invincible among all the Grandmasters. "

"Back then, in order to get Kaiyang Heqi Pill, more than a dozen Grandmasters fought for it. After all, having this pill is equivalent to have an extra life. At critical times, it can turn the tide and reverse the situation. "

"Unexpectedly, the Law family would have a Kaiyang Heqi Pill. This is something I never expected. Maynard took this Kaiyang Heqi Pill, and he is already invincible among all the Grandmasters. Even if I take the shot, I'm not his match."

When Carver heard Ainsworth's words, there was a trace of horror on his face. He originally thought that the pill Maynard had taken was a general strength-enhancing pill, but he didn't expect it to have such a great effect. Moreover, after taking it, Maynard could be invincible among all the Grandmasters. This effect was indeed enough to cause a scramble for Grandmaster.

"Then there are no side effects in this Kaiyang Heqi Pill?" Carver also asked.

"The effect of this pill is amazing! The side effects are naturally not general. After taking this Kaiyang Heqi Pill, although he can increase his strength by as much as three times in a short period of time, his blood vessels will burst."

"In this state, if he is so strong, he may survive. But if he wants to continue practice martial arts in the future, it will be impossible. He can only be an ordinary person for a lifetime, while those with a poorer body will die directly. Even God can't save them."

"Maynard actually took this pill. It seems that he really intends to fight with Casey desperately."

Ainsworth said, sighing helplessly.

After Maynard took the pill, he laughed wildly at Casey, "Brat, you can force me to use this pill that has been hidden by me for so many years. It is worth showing off. The pill is called Kaiyang Heqi Pill, which can make me reach the invincibility among all the Grandmasters in a short time. Although this pill has strong side effects, I don't care. As long as I can kill you today, I'm willing to die."

"Just go to the hell!"

Maynard didn't say too much, just rushing towards Casey quickly. The ground under his feet trembled faintly. Casey also showed a trace of intense on his face. He didn't expect Maynard to still have such a trump card. This was indeed beyond his expectation. Fortunately, Casey didn't use his full strength back then. Even if Maynard's current strength had improved a lot, Casey still had strength to fight with him. The two fought against. One after another deep pits appeared on the ground. The top Grandmaster's battle had reached a point that people could not imagine. The entire main courtyard had become their battlefield. Everyone had to retreat towards the other courtyards. If they still continued to stay here, they would die. Those members of Guwu Family jumped on the roof and continued to watch the battle. At this moment, they were extremely excited. After all, they couldn't see this kind of battle in a lifetime. After a long time, Casey felt the obvious difficulty, without the ease before. Maynard sneered, thinking that it would not take long before Casey would die in his hands. "Don't struggle anymore. If I can't beat you after taking Kaiyang Heqi Pill, I really don't need to continue to live in this world." Maynard said. "Then you just go to die!" Casey yelled at him, then pushed his fist towards Maynard. "Moon Invitation!" This time, Maynard was not hurt by Casey's blow, but he resisted it easily.

"Brat, the power of your blow is really not weak. But unfortunately, my current strength is already unassailable."

"This should be your strongest blow, right? Give it up! You will definitely die in my hands today!"

"Next, I will let you see what kind of power the strongest blow I can make in this state!"

Maynard jumped into the air in an instant, clenched one of his fists to accumulate energy, and then, with an unstoppable momentum, he slammed down on Casey.

"Dragon Roar Blow!"

Everyone present was stunned by the power of Maynard's punch. Many ordinary people were so scared that their legs were weak and then they sat directly on the ground.

Carver also looked at Casey with worries in his eyes, "If this goes on, Casey will really be killed. Ainsworth, are you sure you won't take actions?"

Ainsworth looked helplessly at the two in the yard, and sighed, "Maynard's move is already the strongest power that he can exerted. If he doesn't take Kaiyang Heqi Pill, I may be able to fight with him. But now, even if I take actions, I will only die."

Just when everyone thought that Casey was about to die, Casey's aura began to rise, reaching its peak in an instant.

Ainsworth's face changed. He exclaimed, "How is that possible! Is it possible that this brat has another trump card?"

Casey slowly raised his head, and smiled jokingly at Maynard in mid-air, saying, "Who told you that the one just now was my strongest blow?"

Chapter 759 I Can't Be Irresponsible for Myself

Seeing Casey didn't panic at all, Maynard, who was in mid-air, showed a puzzled expression on his face. But at this moment he could no longer care about that much. He only knew that Casey would die after he punched to Casey.

"Stop bluffing here! Today is your death date!"

XuanJin in Casey's body ran rapidly, then it was quickly transmitted to the palm of his hand through the meridians of his body. This time, Casey used his all strength.

When Maynard's fist was about to fall to the top of his head, Casey pushed his hand directly upward. His aura was not much weaker than Maynard's punch.

"Thunder Shocking Blow!"

Their palms bumped against each other. A strong wind suddenly blew in the yard. The dust on the ground rose, but it was quickly blown away by the aura around Casey and Maynard.

At this time, the people present didn't know how to describe their feelings.

This battle was definitely the strongest battle they had ever seen in their lives.

"Casey is so awesome! Maynard is already like this, but Casey can actually resist it. How strong he is!"

"No matter who loses or wins, this battle will definitely spread all over the country. Maynard has been famous for many years. If Casey wins this battle, his name will make the whole Guwu Circle in uproar."

"Can Casey really win? Maynard took the pill just now. If Casey really wins, he will be freak genius!"

Casey and Maynard looked at each other for a long time. The power that they had exploded had reached the pinnacle of the Grandmaster. Now they were competing whose power could last longer.

Maynard looked at Casey in disbelief. He didn't expect that after he took Kaiyang Heqi Pill, Casey could resist his full blow. Besides, Casey did not panic at all.

At this time, he didn't know how to describe his feelings. If he was really asked to say something, he just wanted to say to Casey, "You are the fucking monster!"

"Why? Why can't I still kill you after taking Kaiyang Heqi Pill? Have you reached the peak of the Grandmaster? But you are only in your twenties. This is simply impossible!" Maynard looked at Casey, almost crying out.

Casey looked at Maynard and said with smile, "After this blow, you will never be alive. In that case, I will tell you."

Maynard immediately widened his eyes and looked at Casey in a somewhat unbelievable manner.

"Actually, I only have reached medium stage of inner force." Casey said.

"It's impossible! Don't treat me as a fool!" Maynard retorted directly.

"It is true. The reason why I can resist your blow is because there is another

"Another power?" Maynard was immediately stunned.

"Yes, but I won't tell you what this power is. After all, you will die soon, won't you?" Casey laughed.

Maynard didn't react from Casey's words for a long time. He had never heard of other powers in this world besides inner force.

Even though he was the head of the Law family which was top one Guwu Family in Jiangbei, Maynard didn't necessarily know more than Myles.

Soon, Maynard reacted. His eyes immediately showed a crazy look.

"How could I die in your hands? You wish. It is you who will die today!"

Maynard yelled hysterically.

As soon as he finished shouting these words, he felt the power in his body begin to dissipate quickly. He knew that the effect of Kaiyang Heqi Pill had reached its limit. What he was about to face was the strong side effect of this pill.

However, Casey still had no signs of weakening at this time. The power in his body seemed to be endless, still conveying power into the palm of his hand.

Maynard originally wanted to use the Kaiyang Heqi Pill to improve his strength, and quickly killed Casey. With his physical fitness, it was not a problem to resist the side effect of this pill. The worst situation was just to become an ordinary person who couldn't practice martial arts.

However, he did not expect that even if he took the pill, he would still not be able to solve Casey. At this time, the effect of the medicine had ended, but Casey had no signs of falling down, not even injured. It was just his breath was a little weaker than just now.

This made Maynard full of despair. If this went on, he would definitely die.

"Casey, I have already seen your strength. You are indeed beyond my imagination. Even if I take the pill, I am still not your match. How about we make a deal? I will not avenge my brother. You spare me. Even if you don't do it to me, this pill will make me useless. I won't pose any threats to you." Maynard said. Now, he could only beg for mercy.

Casey smiled at him, "Sorry. If you beg for mercy earlier, I might spare you. But I have already told you my biggest secret. So even if you can't pose any threats to me, I can't let you be alive in this world. Otherwise, it would be irresponsible to myself, right?"

Hearing Casey's words, Maynard suddenly felt desperate. His mind was running fast, thinking about how to save his life.

Casey didn't give him any chance. After speaking it, the power on Casey's palm instantly increased. Maynard suddenly screamed, and then he flew out backwards.

Maynard fell to the ground. The blood spouted out of his mouth like a fountain. The blood vessels on his forehead burst open instantly. The whole head was stained red with blood in an instant, looking extremely terrifying.

When those members of the Law family saw this, they immediately rushed towards Maynard.

Casey stopped them.

"You guys wait a moment." Casey said.

They didn't know what Casey meant.

But no one dared to act rashly. Maynard failed to defeat Casey even after taking Kaiyang Heqi Pill. How could they be Casey's matches?

Casey stared at Maynard who fell on the ground for a while, then squatted down and touched Maynard's neck to make sure whether he was dead. Then Casey stood up and turned to look at them, "He is dead. You guys can come here."

The members of the Law family were all dumbfounded. Casey stopped them just to wait for Maynard to die?

Now, Maynard was dead. Casey even told them specifically. Was he a freak? They looked at Casey as if looking at the devil coming out of hell, feeling creepy.

If it wasn't for the body of the head of the Law family, they would have already turned around and fled.

They didn't know that Casey did this not because he was frantic, but because he was worried that Maynard didn't completely die, and Maynard would spread his secret that he had another power.

Among the members of the Law family, there was a young man who was only eighteen or nine years old. He specially came to watch the battle. He originally wanted to see how powerful Maynard was, but he did not expect that the usual majestic Maynard would die here.

Now, seeing Casey so frantic, he couldn't hold back and cried out directly. The cries resounded across the sky, which startled away a group of birds that had fallen on the branches.

Chapter 760 Some Destiny Can't Be Dodged

The death of Maynard pushed the entire banquet to a climax. All those who came to Davies family to participate in the banquet were shocked by the strength that Casey showed, especially the heartbroken cry of the young man of the Law family in the end. Everyone understood that no matter how powerful the family was, if he came to Davies family for trouble, he would not have a good ending.

All the people in Guwu Family could have a foreboding that within three days, Casey would replace Maynard and became the most awe-inspiring person in Guwu Circle in Jiangbei. At this time, Casey was only in his twenties. This was even more terrifying. After all, no one could predict how strong Casey would be in the future. The Law family took Maynard's corpse and left the Davies House with dejection. Casey arranged for people to quickly clean up the mess in the main courtyard. The banquet continued. People's enthusiasm was obviously much higher than before.

Casey took this opportunity to announce to everyone that if anyone came to Davies family to make trouble, he would fight with the other party to the end, but the price the other party had to pay would be his own life.

No one doubted Casey's words. The top one in Guwu Circle in Jiangbei had already died in the hands of Casey. At least in Jiangbei, no one could be Casey's match. Whoever came to Davies family to make troubles must be crazy.

After briefly interacting with everyone for a while, Casey let Jordan take care of the rest things. He walked towards the courtyard where Edith was.

If it was just a normal battle, Casey would be very relaxed and there would be no pressure. But after Maynard took Kaiyang Heqi Pill, Casey had to use all of his own strength and used the strongest blow. Otherwise, he would really die in Maynard's hands today.

At this time, Casey also felt that there was a trace of emptiness in his body. The exhaustion made him walk a little hard.

The battle with Maynard made Casey aware of his limit. Maynard took Kaiyang Heqi Pill, claiming that he was invincible among Grandmasters. Even so, he was still defeated by Casey. So, it showed that Casey was in a state of invincible among Grandmasters.

This made Casey feel the horror of XuanJin more and more. He just reached medium stage of XuanJin, but he could already ignore the power of such a great inner force expert. If he cultivated XuanJin to perfection, what kind of state would he reach?

At the same time, Casey also realized that external forces could sometimes influence the result of a battle.

Maynard just took a small pill and then he could instantly increase his strength. If Maynard was fighting with a master of the same level as him, that master would definitely die miserably.

Although this pill also had terrible side effects, there was no denying the value of this kind of thing.

Moreover, Casey had the experience of taking pills to save his life. The three pills that saved his life made him realize that some pills had almost negligible side effects.

Thinking of this, the scene that he was with Annabel in bathroom popped into Casey's mind again.

When Casey was walking toward the front, two figures appeared in front of him. It was Ainsworth and Carver.

Seeing the two of them, Casey showed a smile on his face, and then said, "Do you two have a good time? If servants make some mistakes to make you guys unhappy, please forgive them."

Ainsworth's gaze at Casey at this time was full of solemnity. He didn't treat Casey as a junior anymore.

He originally thought that when Casey lost to Maynard, he could stand up and show off the demeanor of the Pantheon.

But he didn't expect Maynard to take Kaiyang Heqi Pill. Besides, what he didn't expect most was Casey actually killed Maynard who had taken Kaiyang Heqi Pill.

This was far beyond his expectation.

Therefore, his previous plans naturally fell through.

"Casey, don't you really consider joining the Pantheon? After seeing your fight just now, I think we really need such a genius like you." Ainsworth said.

"I'm afraid everyone who saw me fight just would say such words." Casey said.

Ainsworth suddenly became a little embarrassed. The strength that Casey showed was beyond his imagination, so he didn't even think too much. He actually put the Pantheon as the same level as those Guwu families.

"I know it's a bit difficult to let you join us now. But don't think that you can take the Pantheon lightly."

"Among the Pantheon, there are not a few who can knock you down. I'm just nothing in the Pantheon. You are not the only super genius in this world. There are a lot of people at your same age in the Pantheon who have already become Grandmaster. And some of them are more terrifying than you."

"The strong will always walk with the strong. The Pantheon are your ultimate belonging. Whether you accept our invitation or not, I also want to give you a word. Some destiny can't be dodged."

Ainsworth said a few words to Casey earnestly.

Casey smiled and bowed to Ainsworth without saying anything, and then continued to walk towards the front. Ainsworth and Carver watched Casey disappear in the courtyard. Both of them sighed.

"Ainsworth, what are we going to do now?" Carver asked.

"Let's go. We can't persuade this brat anymore. It seems that if we want Casey to join us, we can only let those old guys show up." Ainsworth said, with a joking smile on his face.

In the room, Casey saw Edith sitting at the cradle and staring at Sherry who was already sleeping, with a serious face. He walked over with a smile.

Edith raised her head. Then she saw Casey, and asked, "What happened outside just now? I sounded like it was chaotic. Did something happen?"

"Nothing serious. It's just a little trouble. It has been solved." Casey said with smile.

"That's good. Come here! See, Sherry's sleeping face looks like you." Edith said. Casey walked to the side of the cradle, looked down at Sherry inside, and smiled, "Is it like this when I sleep? How come I feel so stupid?"

Edith rolled her eyes at Casey and said, "It's just exactly the same. If you don't believe me, I can take photos of you tonight."

Casey laughed and held Edith into his arms. He said, "I believe you. No matter what you say, I will believe in you."

Ainsworth was right. The strong did like to stay with the strong. But for Casey, as long as Edith and Sherry were safe and sound, it was enough.

This was what he really wanted to stick to.

Chapter 761 Lord

Davies family's banquet lasted for three days and three nights. The people who came to the banquet went from being sober to drunk, then being sober from getting drunk, and then continued to have a drink and chat with the people who came to the banquet.

In these three days, the battle between Casey and Maynard quickly spread throughout Guwu Circle in Jiangbei. Overnight, almost everyone was talking about this amazing battle.

This battle even spread to Lingnan. Many people even questioned Casey's strength and threatened to challenge Casey.

All kinds of rumors about Casey spread wildly. Because Maynard did have a pivotal position in Jiangbei. People always liked to exaggerate things they hadn't seen, which caused Casey to become a mythical name in a short period of time.

When those people were talking about the battle excitedly, they even started to fabricate Casey's origins. Some people said that Casey was a dragon from the sky. Because he had dragon's body, he could kill the top one in Jiangbei only in his twenties.

Someone even said that when Casey was born, the lightning flashed and thunder rumbles and it was about have a squally rain, which almost reached the level of disaster. But when Casey was given birth, his cry forced the thunder into the clouds and made the rain that fell on the ground recede back to the sky.

After Casey himself heard these "legends" about himself, he was a little helpless. He was more convinced why there were rumors in the world.

However, Casey didn't care about these legends. When everyone was discussing the battle between him and Maynard, Casey and Edith had packed their luggage and planned to go on a trip. They planned to go to the very famous Yuping Mountain. They wanted to climb the mountain and watched the views.

As for Sherry, she was taken care of by Jennifer and a full-time nanny.

Casey and Edith did not feel the slightest guilt about this, and even a little bit of ease. After having child, they didn't have much time to spend with each other. Of course, they cherished this trip very much.

At the same time, in the hinterland of Kunlun Mountain, on a cliff, there was a small tree growing in the gap, standing proudly like a small tentacle from the cliff.

The trunk was not too thick, with a few branches scattered on it, which looked quite fragile.

At this moment, on the thinnest branch, there was a person standing quietly.

The person stood firmly on the branch. The person seemed to have no weight at all. It was just the fragile branch had been bent a little. It looked extremely mysterious.

If an ordinary person saw such a scene, he would definitely feel that it was a God descending from the earth. Otherwise, with the weight of a normal human, it would be impossible to stand on such a small branch and keep the branch constant.

The man standing on the branch was wearing a white robe. His hair draped over his shoulder, and his beard and hair were all gray, like an old monster who had lived for hundreds of years. However, this person's skin was rosy and he looked quite vigorous.

Compared with his hair, he didn't look like an elderly person at all.

The gray-haired old man was closing his eyes and meditating, as if he was not worried that he would fall under the cliff of ten thousand feet under his feet. He was like a god.

"Lord, why did you go to such a dangerous place again? I have sorted out all the information about Casey and placed it on the rocks here. Just take a look after you come up."

At this time, on the flat ground at the top of the cliff, a voice came. The owner of the voice was Ainsworth.

Ainsworth put the information on the side stone, pressed it with the stone, walked carefully toward the edge of the cliff and glanced down. His heartbeat accelerated.

This cliff was the tallest and steepest cliff on Kunlun Mountain. From the top, it was basically impossible for people to see to the bottom. Sometimes, there were clouds and mist around the top part. The small tree grew only seven or eight meters away from the top of the cliff.

With this kind of height, even if it was Ainsworth who fell off, it would only be a result, which was that he would die.

Besides, Ainsworth had a little fear of heights. So every time he saw Lord go to the small tree to meditate, he was all in fear and sweating.

"Your realm is really that I can't understand at my level. Such a heavy person can stand on such thin branches and keep the branches not broken.

Lord's strength is just about to be comparable to ghosts and gods." Ainsworth muttered to himself. Then he did not dare to see it again. After putting down Casey's information, he left here. After a long time, the gray-haired old man opened his eyes, and then an invisible aura erupted from his body. With a gentle force under his feet, his whole body rushed towards the top and landed on the top of the cliff. The branch was still intact. It just shook slightly. He picked up the information on the stone and looked at it carefully. After that, a joking smile appeared on his face. He murmured, "Interesting! Such a genius indeed should be recruited into the Pantheon." "There is not much time left before that day. I must find the right person as soon as possible to prepare for that day." "I hope this Casey will be the right person."

In the evening, at the foot of Yuping Mountain. Casey and Edith just got out of the car with their backpacks on their backs. They wanted to find a hotel to stay in first and then they planned to climb the mountain tomorrow. At this time, the foot of the mountain was full of people. Although it was in the mountain, there were stalls selling things everywhere. Various lights set off the entire foot of the mountain lively. Not far from the foot of the mountain, there were rows of modern architectural houses. Because of the popularity of Yuping Mountain, there were so many hotels and there were also some scenic villas specially rented out.

Casey and Edith first went to find the hotel. After putting down their things, they came out to find something to eat. When they got off the car just now, they saw a place where was similar to a night market not far away. There were many snacks.

"I'm still a little worried about leaving Sherry at home. We two travel like this. Wouldn't it be too irresponsible?" Edith said, staring at Casey and.

Casey smiled at Edith, and said, "Don't worry. There will be no problem with Jennifer taking care of her. You have been staying at home for half a year. If I don't take you out to get some air, you will feel bored to death."

"We've already arrived here, so don't think about it. Let's go and eat something first. At that time, I saw there was someone performing there, like Qigong Performance. Let's go to have a look after we finish the meal."

Edith nodded, and then followed Casey to the side where it was selling food.

Chapter 762 Qigong Performance

Yuping Mountain had a humid climate, pleasant scenery, and a unique geographical environment, which attracted many tourists.

The reason why Yuping Mountain was so popular was not only for its beautiful scenery, but a temple called Green Dragon Temple which was located on the top of Yuping Mountain.

Green Dragon Temple was not an old temple, but it was built on the mountain in the past few years. When it was first publicized, it was said that it had invited an eminent monk and also promoted some of the wonders that occurred during the construction of Green Dragon Temple. In addition, some people said that they prayed at Green Dragon Temple, and it didn't take long that his wish was fulfilled. Soon, Green Dragon Temple became famous.

After that, in order to attract more people to the temple to give incense, Green Dragon Temple began to attract people's attention with martial arts. It was said that the eminent monk in Green Dragon Temple was still a martial arts master, with quite amazing skills. Sometimes, this eminent monk would perform in front of people.

Those who had seen this eminent monk's performance were amazed by Green Dragon Temple's martial arts, and they all said that this eminent monk was indeed awesome.

Many people even came up with the idea of being this eminent monk's apprentice. The monk did not reject these people, as long as they paid enough tuition, they could stay on the mountain and learned from him to practice martial arts.

It was said that the tuition fee was 200,000 dollars a year. Even so, there were still a constant stream of people coming to the mountain to be the monk's apprentice.

At the beginning, a national martial arts champion once questioned the strength of the monk and personally came to Green Dragon Temple to challenge him, but he was defeated by the monk in three moves.

This battle had made Green Dragon Temple's reputation even higher. The number of people who came to find the eminent monk to be his apprentice was endless. This had created the lively scene of Yuping Mountain today.

It was said that many of the people who learned from the eminent monk had achieved a lot. These people were really stronger than those martial arts champions, and some were even comparable to the martial arts masters on TV.

But whether it was true or not was still inconclusive. People had only heard some rumors.

When considering where to travel, Casey saw some introductions about Green Dragon Temple on Yuping Mountain, so he finally chose to come here to visit, and wanted to see who the eminent monk looked like.

According to Casey's guess, this eminent monk might not be so awesome. These should be deliberately stated for propaganda, but the possibility of this eminent monk being an inner force expert was still very high. Casey was more curious whether this monk was the same as the old monks with profound skills in the novel, so he took Edith to take a look.

It was precisely because the eminent monk of Green Dragon Temple was known as a martial arts master, so there would be Qigong Performance at the foot of Yuping Mountain, just taking advantage of that monk's reputation.

After eating, Casey and Edith walked towards the place where Qigong Performance was.

There was a built-up stage, surrounded by curtains. If you wanted to go in to watch the show, you naturally needed to pay for tickets.

Casey went to buy tickets, and then took Edith to the place where the tickets were checked.

"Is this kind of performance really interesting? There is no such thing as Qigong in this world. It's just a lie." Edith said.

Although Casey's current strength had reached the level which all Grandmaster couldn't defeat him, Edith had never seen Casey take a shot. Thus, her understanding of martial arts still stayed at the simplest level, only thinking Casey was good at fighting, had a stronger body and quick reactions.

Casey smiled at Edith, "It doesn't matter if it's a lie. Just have fun."

Casey didn't know whether there was Qigong in this world, but he knew that there was inner force in this world, and even something like XuanJin existed. So when he saw Qigong Performance, he wanted to know whether the so-called Qigong was as the same as inner force. At this time, there were already many audiences around the stage. After Casey took Edith in, he found a place closer to the stage and stopped.

It didn't take long for the performances to begin. The previous ones were all more conventional performances.

Then, a so-called Qigong Master came out and started to fight against some very powerful thugs. The Qigong Master easily solved those thugs. It didn't look like they were acting, but they were really fighting.

The audiences immediately began to applaud. Obviously, everyone liked watching this kind of performance.

Casey stared at the so-called Qigong Master for a while, and then figured out what the so-called Qigong was about.

This Qigong Master should have indeed learned deep breathing, but he didn't learn the complete. Although it played a certain role, causing some powers similar to inner force to appear in his body, it was much worse than the power of inner force. It was just like the low-quality version that Theodore taught his family.

But even so, the strength of this Qigong Master was much stronger than ordinary people. He should have learned it systematically.

"Wow, honey, I didn't expect this Qigong Master to be quite powerful. There are so many people, but they were all defeated by him so easily. However, compared with you, this man should be a little worse. My honey is the best."

Edith smiled and said to Casey.

Casey smiled, "He is just nothing. I have real skills. If I go up, I can beat him down in minutes."

"Wow, what a self-righteous guy! It's ridiculous that he actually thinks that he can defeat this Qigong Master." At this time, a mocking voice sounded behind the two people.

Casey and Edith both turned their heads to look over. Standing behind them was a couple.

It was the girl who mocked them.

"Sorry! My girlfriend speaks a little bit straightforward. Please don't take it to your heart. But you really underestimate the Qigong Master. He has really learned from the eminent monk of Green Dragon Temple. He is strong. You don't seem to be good at fighting. If you really fight with him, you might be beaten up by him." The man said with a smile.

"Why do you tell them about this? Just let them brag! I think they just know how to brag." The girl mocked again with a disdainful expression on her face. Casey looked at these two people speechlessly. It was rare that Edith could praise him. He was happy after hearing Edith praise him, but it was ruined by these two people unexpectedly. So Casey was naturally quite unhappy.

"You two haven't seen me make a move. How do you know that I'm bragging?" Casey asked rhetorically. The couple glanced at each other, and their faces showed contempt.

"Does it have to see? You? Maybe even my boyfriend can knock you down, let alone that Qigong Master. Be humble, or you will be laughed at by others." When the girl was speaking, she rolled her eyes disdainfully at Casey.

"Forget it! Don't argue with them." Edith tugged Casey's arm.

At this moment, the Qigong Master on the stage glanced downwards and said loudly, "I know that some people here don't believe my performance. Now I will give you a chance. I don't know if there is someone who wants to come on stage and feel the power of my Qigong?"

Chapter 763 I Just Need to Use a Little Force

After hearing what the Qigong Master said, the girl immediately looked at Casey and said, "Don't you say you're pretty good? Now the opportunity is here. Dare you come up?"

The man immediately laughed and said, "Haha... He just dares to brag in front of us. If he really goes up, he will be beaten to death."

Casey turned his head and glanced at the Qigong Master on the stage, then set his gaze on the couple, saying, "Just watch it!"

After speaking, Casey walked towards the stage.

There were also a few people who came on the stage with Casey. These people were also suspicious of this Qigong Master, so they wanted to go up to find out the truth.

"So funny! This guy really dared to go up. The Qigong Master has real skills. Although he won't really do anything with these tourists, he can scare them to death by just showing several moves. This guy is so stupid!" The man said with a sneer.

"Anyway, it has nothing to do with us. When he feels the real skills of the Qigong Master later, see if he dares to brag again." The girl sneered.

Edith was full of anger when she heard the two people say this, but she had absolute confidence in Casey. She believed that her husband was the best. After coming to stage, the method the Qigong Master let everyone feel his Qigong was to let these people touch his hand one by one. The few people in front were a little eager to try. They all felt that if they used their full strength, they were not necessarily worse than this so-called Qigong Master.

However, the results did not follow what they thought. The Qigong Master stood motionless, and these audiences gritted their teeth and tried their best to push their hands towards the Qigong Master. The Qigong Master just pushed his hand towards the front lightly, then those people were pushed away by an invisible force and directly sat on the ground, without exception.

Everyone present was surprised by this Qigong Master. Those who went up all had their friends, family and classmates below, so everyone knew that they wouldn't help the Qigong Master to lie to others. Besides, the means the Qigong Master showed were not fake at all. Everyone could feel the energy that appeared on the Qigong Master when he made his move.

"See! The Qigong Master is so amazing! That guy actually said that he was stronger than the Qigong Master. It is ridiculous!" The girl said to Edith with a smug face.

"It will be that guy's turn soon. I don't know how he feels right now. He is definitely scared to death. So silly! Although the Qigong Master won't really hurt him, it's not bad to teach him a lesson." The man echoed.

Edith glanced at the two people indifferently, and said, "Before you see the results, please don't be too self-righteous."

Both of them curled their lips, obviously disdainful of Edith's words.

On the stage, Casey was the last person to feel the strength of the Qigong Master. After he stood in front of the Qigong Master, the Qigong Master said to him with a smile, "Use your full strength to attack me."

"Really? If I use my full strength, you will go to the hospital. I'll only use a little force." Casey smiled.

When the Qigong Master heard Casey's words, he was stunned for a moment, then burst into laughter, and said to everyone in the audience, "It seems that this guy still doesn't believe in my strength. He actually said he can defeat me with a little force."

Everyone in the audience burst into laughter. Those who had experienced the strength of the Qigong Master now had a very deep admiration for him.

"Since you think you are so powerful, I will use my full strength to confront you. But your ending will be very miserable. Maybe you will die. I don't know if you dare to continue?" A fierce look appeared in the Qigong Master's eyes. In his eyes, his own strength was unquestionable. After seeing the results of so many people, Casey still dared to say such arrogant things. So the Qigong Master thought if he didn't teach Casey a lesson, there would no one coming to see his performance.

"No problem." Casey said lightly.

Hearing Casey's words, the Qigong

Master showed a smile on his face. So many people present were witnesses. Even if Casey was really injured by him, it was just that Casey asked for it. It didn't have anything to do with him. "Be ready! Even if you regret it now, it's too late."

The Qigong Master put on a posture of defending on the spot and shouted, "Bring it on!"

The couple in the audience looked at Casey with a sneer, feeling that Casey was asking for death. The Qigong Master could push people down with just a little bit of force. Now if he used his full strength, Casey would fly out directly. Now, they were waiting to see the scene where Casey flied out.

Casey didn't hesitate, but just used a little bit of force and pushed his hand towards the Qigong Master.

Upon seeing this, the Qigong Master gave a cold snort, concentrated his entire body's strength on his palm, then shouted and hit towards Casey's palm abruptly.

Everyone watched this scene with holding their breath, looking forward to the scene where Casey was knocked into the air.

However, what they didn't expect was that Casey was not knocked into the air. Instead, the Qigong Master's face changed suddenly as soon as he touched Casey's palm, and then a scream sounded. He directly flew out of the stage.

Everyone present was stunned by this scene. They didn't expect such a powerful Qigong Master to be pushed away by Casey with such an understatement.

In this way, Casey was the real master.

"OMG! I thought he just bragged. It turns to be a real master. It is amazing!"

"No matter who loses and who wins, it all shows that there are real martial arts in this world. I must go to Green Dragon Temple tomorrow. Maybe there is really an eminent monk."

All the people present were in uproar because of Casey. Everyone showed admiration.

After the Qigong Master fell to the ground, his face was quite terrible. He didn't expect to encounter a real master. He gritted his teeth and stared at Casey, then left in a desperate manner.

The couple standing next to Edith were already dumbfounded, their faces full of disbelief.

Edith turned her head and stared at the two people, with a hint of pride on her face.

At this time, Casey stepped down from the stage, walked up to the couple, and asked with a smile, "Do you guys still think I'm bragging?"

The couple was speechless and felt very awkward. The girl ignored Casey's words, grabbed her boyfriend's hand directly, and turned away embarrassedly.

Chapter 765 The Small Temple

Edith and Casey came to the door of the small temple. The door was closed tightly, so they didn't know if there was anyone inside.

"Is there anyone else?" Edith shouted.

"Perhaps it is a deserted temple, otherwise the tour guide will definitely introduce this place just now. There are very few people here. Probably no one is in this temple." Casey said.

Edith nodded, feeling that what Casey said was very possible.

But not long after Casey finished speaking, the door was opened. Two monks came out from inside.

The two monks bowed to Casey and Edith. One of them said, "This sir and lady, it is your blessing to discover our little temple. Our abbot has laid down the rules. Anyone who finds our temple will get blessing. Please come in with us."

Edith was full of joy. She didn't expect to she could get blessing after finding this small temple. Although she didn't believe in Buddhism, she couldn't completely ignore this kind of metaphysical things. Since they could give her blessings, why didn't she take it? So she happily walked in.

Upon seeing this, Casey also followed. They two went into the small temple together.

The incense in the temple was lingering, which seemed to be just lighted. A not too big Buddha statue was enshrined in the center. Some tributes that had wilted were placed in front of the table.

A monk wearing a yellow monk robe was sitting cross-legged in front of the Buddha statue and meditating. The two monks walked up to him and one of them said, "Abbot, the destined person has arrived."

The monk opened his eyes. Then he stood up from the ground, turned his head to look at Casey and Edith, with a smile on his face.

"Look at you guys, something good will happen to you two lately, especially this lady. You look so happy. There must be something happy recently." The abbot said.

Edith immediately lowered her head and smiled shyly. Being able to be with Casey was the happiest thing for her.

"Since you came here today, I can give you some gifts to help you guys get much luck. This lady, please come with me."

The abbot made a gesture to let Edith come with him, and then walked in toward a small door inside.

Edith nodded, and followed the abbot toward the inside.

Casey wanted to follow, but was stopped by the two monks.

"Only one person can enter at a time. Please wait outside."

Edith turned her head and glanced at Casey, saying, "It should be over quickly. Just wait here first."

Casey didn't think much, so he nodded. He thought that this temple was not big, so maybe it couldn't contain too many people inside.

After watching Edith follow the abbot in, Casey walked around the temple. He noticed that there was a lot of dust in some corners of the temple, as if the monks here only cleaned some obvious places.

Looking at the Buddha statue in the temple, the paint on the Buddha statue had fallen off in some places. It seemed that it had not been repaired for a long time. Casey didn't know if this was regarded as disrespect to the Buddha. Not long after the abbot took Edith in, the two monks followed in. Only Casey was left in the hall. This made Casey feel that these monks were a little unreliable. They made things so mysterious just for getting some incense money. But as long as Edith was happy, he didn't mind giving them a little money. About fifteen minutes later, there was still no sound inside. Edith did not come out of it either, which made Casey a little impatient.

In addition, this small temple was a little weird. Casey suddenly felt a sense of anxiety.

Behind the small door was a dilapidated room. At this time, Edith was sitting on a chair. She had already passed out, and had also been tied up with a rope.

Not long after she came in, the abbot held a peculiar incense and shook it in front of her. After that, Edith felt her head become drowsy and fainted not long after.

At this moment, the abbot was staring at Edith on the chair with a sneer. He didn't seem to be a monk now.

"So great! Seeing her, I really want to fuck her. It's a pity that only Master Tianlong can enjoy her. I don't have this blessing." The abbot murmured to himself.

"You two, go to send this woman up the mountain and give her to Master Tianlong now." The abbot turned his head and stared at the two monks.

"What about the man outside?"

The abbot smiled coldly and said,

"Yuping Mountain is so big. There are countless people who don't walk the normal roads. It is nothing new that one or two people get lost in the mountain and then are eaten by wild animals. I'll take care of him. Now, you two quickly take this woman up the mountain."

The two monks nodded, then they lifted the chair Edith was sitting on, went out from the back door, and went up the mountain.

In the hall, Casey didn't want to wait any longer. He walked directly towards the small door.

At this time the abbot walked out from inside, staring at Casey with a playful smile on his face.

"Where is my wife?" Casey asked.

"Your wife has been persuaded by me. She decided to join us. You don't need to see her again in the future." The abbot chuckled.

Seeing the abbot's look, Casey knew he had been fooled. He was so furious and shouted sharply, "Give my wife back to me, or I will kill you!"

"How ignorant! Tell you, I am a direct apprentice of Master Tianlong. He is a Grandmaster. Under the guidance of him, I have also reached initial stage of inner force. You probably don't know what inner force is. In short, you only need to know that you have to die today!"

"Your wife has been taken to see Master Tianlong. Not surprisingly, tonight, she will be fucked by Master Tianlong. And you, naturally, will go to the hell. If you want to blame someone, you can only blame yourself. It's you who took initiative to come to our small temple!" After the abbot finished speaking, he rushed towards Casey and was about to grab Casey's neck with one hand.

Casey snorted coldly. He didn't expect that the so-called Master Tianlong was such a nasty person, and he actually did this kind of thing behind everyone's back. That few missing girls were probably abducted by them.

Casey was so angry. The moment the abbot rushed to him, Casey grabbed the abbot's wrist and broke his hand with force.

The abbot's face suddenly changed. He didn't expect Casey to be so great. The cold sweat came out from his forehead instantly.

"Who...Who are you? Why, why is your aura stronger than Master Tianlong?"

Casey snorted coldly, ignoring the abbot's words. He suddenly raised his foot and kicked it on that abbot's knees. With a click sound, the abbot knelt on the ground. An inner force expert who had reached initial stage was just knocked down by Casey like this.

Besides, one of his arms and legs were broken.

"Say, what did you do to my wife? If she gets any hurt, I will screw off the head of the so-called Master Tianlong. As for Green Dragon Temple, I would ruin it!"

Chapter 766 Master Tianlong

The abbot knew that he was not Casey's match at all. Now, one of his arms and legs were broken. Even if he wanted to run, he couldn't. So he could only beg for mercy, "Please, please spare me! I will tell you everything."

Then the abbot told Casey that Edith had been sent to Green Dragon Temple on the top of the mountain. The two monks would hand Edith to Master Tianlong. As for what Master Tianlong would do with Edith, they didn't know. Casey's face sank. Then he asked about the origin of this Master Tianlong. The abbot told Casey all he knew. It turned out that this so-called Master Tianlong was originally from Guwu Family. He had already been a Grandmaster. So even in Guwu Family, he should be the target of preferential treatment.

However, because he raped the wife of the head of one Guwu Family. Later, this incident was revealed. Master Tianlong was chased and killed by that head of Guwu Family. Out of helplessness, he had no choice but to escape from that place.

Later, when Yuping Mountain developed a tourist area, the developer accidentally met Master Tianlong and learned that he was a powerful warrior, so he discussed with Master Tianlong about the construction of Green Dragon Temple.

Master Tianlong left from the Guwu family. Because he was afraid of being chased and killed, he felt that it would not be a bad thing to be a monk on the mountain, so he agreed to the developer.

Through packaging, the developer created the image of Master Tianlong, an eminent monk, in order to attract tourists to Yuping Mountain.

Master Tianlong lived so well on the mountain. The money offered by those tourists was enough for him to spend a few lifetimes. The only problem was that there were no women in the temple.

Master Tianlong was a womanizer. So he wanted to get some female tourists. The girls who had disappeared before were not lost in the mountain, but because they accidentally found the small temple. Besides, they were alone again, so they were caught by Master Tianlong.

If some male tourists found the small temple, the people inside would never open the door.

After listening to the abbot's narration, Casey's anger became more intense. He did not expect that this so-called eminent monk was such a disgusting scum.

The abbot glanced at Casey nervously, and said, "Buddy, I have already told you everything I know. Many of them are secrets that Master Tianlong has not told others. You have also broken one of my arms and legs. Please let me go!"

Casey looked down at him, snorted coldly, and said, "Let you go? Let you continue to harm others? You are not much better than Master Tianlong. You can go to the hell first and wait there to meet Master Tianlong."

After speaking, Casey grabbed the abbot's neck and then twisted it hard.

That abbot died immediately.

After that, Casey came out of the small temple and quickly climbed towards the top of the mountain.

That Master Tianlong had a performance in the afternoon, so he shouldn't have time to do anything to Edith. If Casey could be faster, he should be able to prevent Edith from having accidents.

At Green Dragon Temple.

In a hidden room in Master Tianlong's separate courtyard, two monks put Edith down.

At this time, the door of the room was pushed open. A monk wearing a gorgeous monk robe with a rounded face and a fierce look in his eyes walked in. It was Master Tianlong.

The two monks hurriedly turned around and bowed to Master Tianlong. One of them said, "Master, this one is absolutely your style. She is simply the best of the best."

Master Tianlong's eyes suddenly brightened, and then he hurried to the chair, took a close look at Edith who passed out. After that, he said with a smile, "Great! But I have a performance this afternoon. Beauty, I can only wait until the performance is over before I come to enjoy you."

After speaking, Master Tianlong turned to look at the two monks, and said, "Lock her in the back room first. You guys did a good job this time. Come to my room tomorrow and I will teach you two some skills."

The two monks were very happy. After bowing deeply to Master Tianlong, they went to send Edith to the back room mentioned by Master Tianlong.

At Green Dragon Temple Square.

At this time, countless tourists had gathered here. Everyone was waiting for today's protagonist, Master Tianlong. The tour guide that Casey followed before had already taken the tourists to the designated location at this time. Because they paid a lot of money, the location was relatively good. After Cassidy and Vera found a good place to watch the performance, there was a look of expectation on their faces. After all, watching Master Tianlong perform was something they had been looking forward to for a long time. Besides, Cassidy wanted to be Master Tianlong's apprentice after the performance was over.

"It's really weird. Why can't I see Casey and his wife? Even if the two of them are left behind, they should catch up with us now. Is it possible that they are not interested in Master Tianlong's performance?" Cassidy said with some doubts.

"It has nothing to do with us. You'd better think about what you will say when you see Master Tianlong later." Vera turned her head and said to Cassidy.

Cassidy nodded. It was really not the right time to care about others now. "Isn't Casey very disdainful of Master Tianlong? Maybe he is afraid that those words he said will be heard by Master Tianlong and then he will be beat up by Master Tianlong if he comes here." Vera muttered again.

Not long after, a person with a microphone in his hand appeared on the square. This person was the host of the Tianlong Master's performance and was responsible for enlivening the atmosphere.

With a few words, the host raised the expectations of everyone present to the highest level. After that, he didn't talk nonsense and directly invited Master Tianlong to appear on the stage.

Master Tianlong appeared directly on the roof of the main hall in front of the square. Seeing the scene, everyone exclaimed.

Immediately afterwards, Master Tianlong jumped down from the main hall. After a few steps, he reached the center of the square. Everyone was so excited.

In order to maintain his majesty, Master Tianlong did not say too much, but directly started his own performance. He showed a set of exquisite boxing techniques in front of everyone firstly, and then began a series of performances such as crushing rocks with bare hands, splitting rocks with leaves, and flying needles through rocks.

Everyone present applauded and cheered. After seeing Master Tianlong's performance, many people had the idea, which was to become Master Tianlong's apprentices. Some people started calling their parents on the spot and asked for money. They wanted to become Master Tianlong's apprentices today.

Vera stared at Master Tianlong with a face of admiration. Then she said, "Master Tianlong is so powerful. How can such an incompetent guy like Casey be comparable with Master Tianlong? If Casey is present and we let him go up to fight with Master Tianlong, he must be scared to death."

As soon as she finished speaking, a voice full of anger resounded through the square of Green Dragon Temple. "Shameless bald donkey! Give my wife back to me, otherwise I will ruin your Green Dragon Temple today!"

Chapter 767 I'm Afraid You Can't Do It

Everyone present was taken aback by the sudden sound, and then they all turned their heads to look in the direction of the sound.

Casey was full of anger, with a shocking aura. Countless murderous auras erupted from his eyes. He was standing at the edge of the square and staring at Master Tianlong in the middle of square. Cassidy and Vera saw that the person who offended Master Tianlong turned out to be Casey, and they showed stunned expressions on their faces.

"Is this guy insane? He actually came here to make trouble for Master Tianlong. Does he want to die?" Vera looked at Casey as if she was looking at an idiot.

Cassidy frowned and said, "Did you hear what he was yelling just now? Why did he ask Master Tianlong to give back his wife to him? Did his wife get lost?"

"Even if his wife got lost, why didn't he go to the police? What is he doing now? Is it possible that such an eminent monk abducted his wife?" Vera showed a look of contempt.

Master Tianlong also glanced at Casey, wondering what was going on.

"Sir, if you are in trouble, explain the situation to me. I will help you. Don't be so angry." Master Tianlong said to Casey.

"Don't play dumb with me here! You hypocritical bastard! Quickly give my wife back to me. Otherwise, I will let you die without a place to bury!" Casey gritted his teeth and said.

Master Tianlong seemed to understand what was going on. This man should be that pretty girl's husband.

Then he secretly blamed that his subordinates were unreliable in doing things. His men actually didn't kill that woman's husband. But he still maintained a smile on his face.

"Sir, if you can't find your wife, I can arrange for the monks in the temple to help you search her. But it's not a little appropriate that you slander me like this, isn't it?" Master Tianlong said.

After hearing Master Tianlong's words, everyone at the scene immediately felt that Casey was an unreasonable man. He lost his wife but he even ran over to ask Master Tianlong for trouble. It was really shameless.

"Your wife got lost. You didn't hurry up to find your wife but ran here to provoke Master Tianlong? Master Tianlong is an eminent monk. How could he be interested in your wife?"

"Yeah, get out of here quickly. Don't disturb Master Tianlong's performance. If you anger Master Tianlong again, Master Tianlong will beat you to death!" Hearing that everyone was actually speaking for the shit Master Tianlong, Casey's anger became more intense. He jumped up and stepped on the shoulders of a few people to the center of the square and fell in front of Master Tianlong.

"Since they are all deceived by you asshole, I will tear off your mask and let them see your true face!"

Seeing that Casey was not bad, Master Tianlong narrowed his eyes. He sneered secretly. Since this brat asked for it, he didn't have to think of other ways to defend himself. Since this guy wanted to fight with him, he could take this opportunity to kill this guy. Fighting was ruthless. Even he killed this guy, no one could blame him.

"Sir, if you are dissatisfied with me and want to fight with me, I can fight with you. But you have to know one thing. Fighting is ruthless. If you are injured today, don't blame me for not reminding you." Master Tianlong said.

Casey immediately put on a fighting pose and said coldly, "I'm afraid you can't do it."

When everyone saw that Casey was really going to fight Master Tianlong, their faces also showed mocking smiles. They saw that Master Tianlong's performance just now, so they didn't think Casey would be Master Tianlong's match.

"Master Tianlong can split stones with leaves. This brat actually wants to fight Master Tianlong. It's ridiculous."

"It just so happens that we can take this opportunity to take a look at Master Tianlong's strength. I hope this brat can last longer. Don't be killed by Master Tianlong with a slap."

Vera showed a sneer on her face. She said to Cassidy who was on the side, "Is this guy really insane? He actually went to fight with Master Tianlong? Is he serious?"

Cassidy also shook his head helplessly, and said, "He was really too reckless. He rushed forward without considering the consequences."

Casey didn't talk nonsense with Master Tianlong, but rushed towards Master Tianlong with a stride. He ran XuanJin in his body, and slammed a heavy fist towards Master Tianlong.

Feeling the power of Casey's fist, Master Tianlong was stunned. He immediately ran his inner force and fought against Casey. What he didn't expect was that Casey's punch had uninterrupted power. The move he resisted failed to completely offset the power on Casey's fist.

He retreated to the back. He gritted his teeth before barely withstanding Casey's punch.

At this time, his face was completely different from just now. He looked at Casey in disbelief, and said, "Are you also a Grandmaster?"

Casey snorted coldly. He did not give Master Tianlong any chance to breathe, just got close to him again, and struck out one by one.

Through the fight just now, Casey had roughly felt that the strength of Master Tianlong was no more than Alonzo's. He couldn't even match Myles.

Such an asshole even dared to abduct his wife? Today, he could use his strength to let this Mater Tianlong regret what he had done.

After everyone saw Casey and Master Tianlong fight, the contempt for Casey on their faces disappeared instantly, and all of them became stunned.

Not only did Casey fail to be slapped to death by Master Tianlong, but as soon as he came up, he made Master Tianlong retreat, which was completely different from what they thought.

Both Cassidy and Vera looked at Casey, who was playing against Master Tianlong, with dignified faces. Only then did they realize that Casey was the real master. Even Master Tianlong wasn't his match.

Vera was full of guilt. Thinking of her previous attitude towards Casey, she felt so regretful.

"At your level, you aren't worthy of being called an eminent monk! I think you just go back to your mother's womb and practice for decades!"

Casey yelled at Master Tianlong, and then used Tianxing Blow to hit toward Master Tianlong's chest. Master Tianlong couldn't resist Casey at all. Casey's blow hit directly on his chest. Then he spit out blood and sat down on the ground.

"Who...who are you?"

Casey walked up to Master Tianlong, lowered his head and stared at Master Tianlong coldly, "You don't need to know who I am! Just give my wife back to me first. Otherwise, I will kill you now!"

"Okay, okay. Don't be impulsive. I'll take you there." Master Tianlong didn't dare to

Chapter 768 You Really Angered Me

Casey grabbed Master Tianlong by his collar and said coldly, "Where is she?" Master Tianlong pointed his finger in the direction of the hall. Casey directly lifted Master Tianlong from the ground, and walked to the hall.

Everyone watched this scene dumbfoundedly. They didn't expect that Master Tianlong, who was called an eminent monk, was lifted away like a little chicken by Casey. This was simply beyond their imagination.

However, no one dared to express dissatisfaction. They all saw Casey's strength just now. Even Master Tianlong was not Casey's match, so how dare they provoke Casey who was in a state of rage?

Casey carried Master Tianlong through the main hall and came to a beautifully decorated small courtyard. Master Tianlong pointed his finger at one of the rooms and said, "It's there."

Casey led him towards the inside. After pushing the door open, he found that it was a normal monk's room layout, but he didn't see Edith.

"Where is she? If you dare to play tricks on me, I will break your neck now."

Casey said.

"Take it easy! Go to the bed and click on the eyes of the dragon and phoenix pattern beside the bed." Master Tianlong said.

Casey walked to the bed. Because he was afraid that Master Tianlong would play tricks, he said, "You press it."

Master Tianlong obediently pressed the button next to the bed, and then Casey saw that the top of the bed rose. Inside it turned out to be a passage leading to the underground.

"Your wife is right here. You can see her when you go in." Master Tianlong said. Casey let Master Tianlong walk ahead. They two entered the passage one after the other.

Master Tianlong walked ahead with a sinister smile on his face.

Soon, the two of them reached the end of the passage. Casey noticed that it was a place which was similar to a dungeon. Edith was locked up in a cell not far away. There were several other girls with Edith.

At this time, Edith had already woken up. She was listening to the girls telling their tragic experience. Her face was full of sympathy.

After hearing someone coming in the dungeon, the faces of several people changed. The girls who had been caught before were all so scared that they squatted to the corner of the wall, shivering.

Edith looked over. Seeing it was Casey, her eyes lit up. A glimmer of hope rose in her mind.

After Casey saw that Edith was fine, he was relieved. He was about to walk towards her.

At this moment, Master Tianlong who was walking in front suddenly pressed a hidden trap switch on the wall, then broke free of Casey's hand, and rushed towards the front.

A thick smoke sprayed directly towards Casey's face. Casey quickly stretched out his hand to wave it off, but the smoke had already been sucked into his body.

He didn't expect that Master Tianlong would set up trap in such a place. Just now when he saw Edith was fine, he relaxed his vigilance. Then he got into Master Tianlong's trap.

In almost an instant, Casey felt his head dizzy and his limbs soft. He couldn't use any strength at all, so he just sat down on the ground.

Master Tianlong laughed, no longer maintaining the image of an eminent monk at all. At this time, he looked like a bandit leader with a hideous and terrifying face.

"Brat, you didn't expect it that I would set up a trap here, right? This trap is what I used to prevent accidents. I didn't expect it to come to handy today."

Master Tianlong said to Casey.

Casey glared at Master Tianlong. He gritted his teeth and said, "You really have to go to the hell!"

Master Tianlong sneered, "Brat, this smoke you sucked in is a poison I accidentally got back then. This poison is colorless and tasteless. As long as you inhale a small amount, even if you are a Grandmaster, you will lose your combat effectiveness. Although this poison can only last for half a day and will not cause any harm to you, it is enough for me to kill you."

"Back then, I was chased and killed by three Grandmasters. It was because of it that I was able to escape. This kind of poison can be said to be the nemesis of inner force. Once you try to run inner force, the toxin will only be released in your body faster."

"So it's impossible that you want to kill me now."

Casey didn't doubt what Master Tianlong said. Because he really couldn't use any force now. Besides, he faintly felt that inner force in his body was disappearing at a rapid speed. However, there was not just a kind of force in Casey's body. XuanJin still existed in his body. Besides, XuanJin didn't seem to be affected by this poison.

Casey had already read the method of detoxifying through the operation of XuanJin in that Secret Skills. Although he didn't know if it would work, he had to try it first.

He pretended that he could no longer move, and then quietly ran XuanJin. Then he was relieved when he found that XuanJin had not been affected by this poison.

Afterwards, as XuanJin worked, the toxins in Casey's body were forced out of the body bit by bit, and the feeling of powerlessness disappeared.

Master Tianlong didn't know that his poison had no effect on Casey. After all, he had no idea that something like XuanJin existed in this world.

He stared at Casey with a sneer, then walked over to Casey, opened the door inside, and said with a smile, "I didn't expect your strength to be so strong. But it's a pity that you still have to die in my hands. You also hurt me. In order to punish you, I will fuck your wife in front of you now, letting you experience what despair is. Then I'll kill you. Wow! It's so exciting. "

Edith was already full of panic at this time. She originally thought that she would be saved after Casey appeared here. But she didn't expect it would happen such things again.

Casey took a deep breath. After hearing Master Tianlong's words, the anger ignited again. For such a scum, killing him directly was a reward for him.

"You really angered me. Today, I will also let you know what the real despair is." Casey slowly stood up from the ground.

Master Tianlong was going to catch Edith. But after seeing Casey actually stand up, his face changed suddenly. He immediately rushed to Edith and wanted to use Edith to threaten Casey. However, his speed was not as fast as one percent of Casey's. The moment he reached out to Edith, Casey had already reached behind him, and then grabbed his wrist. Casey used XuanJin to break Master Tianlong's hand into two pieces. Casey didn't stop. He kicked Master Tianlong's calf. After breaking one of Master Tianlong's legs, Casey knocked him down and then stared at him, saying coldly, "Since you're so keen to do that stuff. I will let you taste what it's like to lose your dick!"

As soon as Casey finished speaking, he lifted one of his feet and stomped down Master Tianlong's crotch.

Chapter 769 Treasures

A scream sounded in the dungeon.

Master Tianlong instantly straightened and then softened again. A pool of blood flowed out of his crotch.

The girls who watched this scene from a distance all subconsciously covered their eyes.

Master Tianlong was full of pain. Even his voice became sharp. Looking at Casey who was standing in front of him with a cold face, he regretted what he had done. He thought Casey was just like the devil who came out of hell. Casey looked down at Master Tianlong, and asked coldly, "How do you feel? Now that the root is solved. Will you still want to do that kind of stuff in the future?"

"Please, I don't dare to do it in the future." Master Tianlong almost burst into tears.

Casey laughed and said, "It's meaningless to say it now. You won't have a future."

Master Tianlong was shivering. He quickly begged Casey for mercy, "Little bro, please spare me. I have become like this. I'm already a total waste. Is this kind of punishment not enough? Please let go of me. Even if I become a beggar in the future, I won't do that kind of stuff anymore."

Casey snorted coldly, and said, "Such a punishment is not enough to make up the sin you made. Let me spare you? You wish!"

Master Tianlong immediately said, "As long as you spare me, I can give you all my treasures."

"Sorry, I'm not interested in them."

Casey said.

"Don't make a conclusion so quickly. When you see my treasure, you will definitely not say such words. I promise you that they are definitely good stuff."

Master Tianlong said.

Casey said, "Take them out and show them to me."

Master Tianlong pointed to an iron cabinet over there and said, "They're in the cabinet over there. I'm already like this now. I can't move it at all. So I have to bother you to take them by yourself. But don't worry. There is absolutely no trap over there. If you don't believe me, you can ask those women. They often watch me open the cabinet."

Casey turned his head and glanced at those girls. The girls nodded at Casey. Then Casey walked to the cabinet, stared at the cabinet, and found that it was not locked. So Casey thought even if Master Tianlong was so shrewd, he could not think of that one day he would have to use this cabinet to kill others. So Casey opened the cabinet.

There really weren't any traps here.

What greeted him was a black bag.

Casey stretched out his hand to take out the bag, put it on the top of the cabinet, opened it and took a look. He found three small bottles, a palm-sized jade, and a piece of black wood in it.

Casey didn't know the reason why he felt his mind ease a lot and his body relaxed after seeing the black wood.

"What are these things?" Casey asked.

Master Tianlong didn't conceal it. He said, "Inside the three jade bottles, one of them contains the kind of poison you just sucked in. It's the one with the word, poison, written on it. Although I don't know why this kind of poison does not affect you, I have used it to deal with Grandmasters before, and I have never failed."

"The one which has the word antidote on it is the antidote to this kind of poison, which can instantly restore the poisoned person to normal. The bottle with the word strength written on it is a kind of pill that can instantly improve the strength. There are three pills in total. I took one pill a long time ago, so there are still two pills left in the bottle.

Although I don't know what this pill is called, the effect of the pills is better than Kaiyang Heqi Pill. The side effects will only make people feel exhausted."

Hearing Master Tianlong's words, Casey glanced at the bottle with the word force written on it. He had heard of Kaiyang Heqi Pill. Maynard had eaten this pill not long ago. So Casey knew the powerful of these pills.

If what Master Tianlong said was true, this pill was indeed a rare treasure. The effect of the pill in this bottle was better than Kaiyang Heqi Pill, and the side effect only made people feel exhausted. After all, there was no such horrible side effect of bursting blood vessels. This kind of pill could be regarded as one's second life, and it could kill the enemy at a critical moment.

Master Tianlong had been at Green Dragon Temple for so long and had never thought that a terrifying expert like Casey would come to him, so he didn't take this medicine with himself.

"What is this piece of jade and this black lacquered wood used for?" Casey asked.

"I don't know what that piece of jade is for, but I've specifically asked someone to inquire about it. The material of this piece of jade is rare treasure in the world. If you carry it with yourself for a long time, it can help you relax your mind and body." Master Tianlong said. Casey curled his lips. Naturally, he didn't believe in such things. But this piece of jade really looked unusual, so it was not wrong to say that it was a treasure.

"As for that piece of black wood, as long as you stare at it for a long time, your mind will be completely relaxed and your whole person will be in an extremely calm state. I don't know the origin of this piece of wood, but this stuff definitely has unexpected effects for meditation. I suspect that this piece of wood is some kind of precious medicinal material. If you can find out its origin in the future, maybe it will be of great use."

Casey stared at the black wood again, feeling that his spirit was relaxed again. This stuff did have a very good effect on relieving stress.

"Where did you get the stuff?" Casey stared at Master Tianlong. The stuff in this bag was indeed good things. But with the strength of Master Tianlong, it didn't seem like that he couldn't get so many treasures.

"Actually, I got them by accident, including this bag. When I was chased and killed, I hid in a cave in the mountains. There was a dead body in that cave, which seemed that he has been dead for a long time. This bag was found on the dead body." Master Tianlong explained.

Casey pondered for a moment. If it was in the past, he wouldn't believe in such things as treasures or Secret Skills found in caves. He felt that such things only appeared in novels. But since he came into contact with Guwu Circle, he felt that this kind of thing was not impossible.

After all, most of Guwu Families had chosen to hide. Some sects had moved directly into the deep mountains and forests. It was not unusual for such things to appear in the caves.

It was just that Casey was a little curious about the origin of the dead body in the cave. In this bag, the only pills that could enhance strength with minimal side effects was not some stuff that ordinary people could get casually.

Without thinking about it, Casey tied up the bag and slung it on his shoulder.

Seeing Casey taking away these things, Master Tianlong saw a glimmer of hope.

He said, "I have given you all my treasures. Can you spare my life now?"

Casey turned his head and glanced at Master Tianlong, saying, "Who told you that if I take these things, I will spare your life?"

Master Tianlong's face changed. He exclaimed, "You! You despicable villain! You lied to me!"

"Despicable? Speaking of it, I can't compare to you in this point, am I? You have made so many sins. The girls here have been destroyed by you. Do you think I will let you go?"

"I'll take you out now and let those people outside to see you, so-called eminent monk, have what kind of true face!"

Chapter 770 Seeing Master Tianlong's True Face

At Green Dragon Temple Square.

After Casey brought Master Tianlong inside, the tourists on the square were in uproar.

They didn't expect that the famous monk would be picked up like a little chicken.

Many tourists who admired Master Tianlong were so angry. Although Casey was stronger than Master Tianlong, Master Tianlong was an eminent monk after all. He couldn't be treated like that no matter what.

"The brat just now is so arrogant. He dared to treat Master Tianlong in this way. He is really disrespectful to Buddhism, no matter how strong he is!"

"Yeah, that brat is too overweening. Master Tianlong is widely known, not because of his strength, but because of the good deeds he has done. However, that brat actually treated Master Tianlong like this. It's way out of line!"

"We must help Master Tianlong. We can't let Master Tianlong's reputation be so humiliated!"

...

When the crowd was talking excitedly, Casey dragged the dying Master Tianlong out of the hall.

Everyone immediately turned their heads and looked over. They became even angrier after seeing Master Tianlong's tragic situation at this time.

"Brat, Master Tianlong is an eminent monk. He has created so many miracles. But you actually beat him like this. How dare you!" Someone shouted at Casey.

Hearing the man's shout, Casey snorted coldly, "An eminent monk? A scumbag like him is also worthy of this title? Today I will let you know the true face of the so-called Master Tianlong!"

After finishing speaking, Casey looked back. Edith walked out with the girls who had been imprisoned for a long time. Because of being imprisoned for a long time and Master Tianlong's torture to them, these girls looked very haggard. They all cried directly after seeing the sunshine.

The people who had been clamoring suddenly became quiet. They didn't expect that there would be a lot of girls hidden in Green Dragon Temple.

Before they came out, Casey and Edith had comforted these girls once. Then these girls promised to speak out the crimes of Master Tianlong in front of everyone.

Seeing everyone quiet down, one of the girls stood up and told everyone about her experience in tears.

No one present dared to interrupt her. The host even handed the microphone in his hand to that girl so that everyone could hear her.

As the girl narrated, everyone was silent. At that time, the people who were going to help Master Tianlong all showed a look of ashamed. They all lowered their heads and wanted to find a hole to get in.

After the first girl finished speaking, the remaining girls also had the courage to tell everyone their stories.

"I know a few of them. They disappeared from Yuping Mountain before. I saw their pictures at the time. It couldn't be wrong!" Someone yelled after the girls had finished speaking. Immediately, someone began to search for news about the girl's disappearance in Yuping Mountain, and compared the photos with these girls. Then they found that those missing girls were indeed undoubtedly them.

Everyone became so angry. They didn't expect that Master Tianlong would be such a scum. He pretended to be an eminent monk, but he actually did such nasty things behind everyone's back. All people began to curse the dying Master Tianlong who fell to the ground. Master Tianlong didn't have any thoughts of justification at this time. Casey ruined his dick. Now, he was bleeding. The excessive bleeding had caused his consciousness a little unclear.

"Now, you guys know the crime of this scum. If you want to attack him, I will not stop." Casey said, and then left from Master Tianlong.

The already irritated crowd immediately surrounded Master Tianlong, and began to curse him one by one. Many people even started to spit on him. Some could not help but directly beat him. In this case, no one would care what kind of injury Master Tianlong suffered.

After a long time, everyone's anger dissipated, and then they walked away from Master Tianlong. At this time, Master Tianlong's eyes widened open. His face was pale, and he completely died.

Seeing that Master Tianlong was beat to death by the crowd, Casey did not have any sympathy. He felt that it would be a reward for Master Tianlong to die like this.

Those girls suffered a lot. The masses of people naturally cared about them very much. So, Casey didn't have to worry about the follow-up matters. To avoid trouble, when the people were cared about those girls, Casey took Edith and left here. When everyone wanted to apologize to Casey, they didn't know where he went.

The news about Master Tianlong's kidnapping and imprisoning girls at Green Dragon Temple in Yuping Mountain shocked the whole country for a while. Yuping Mountain was forced to close down, and all monks related to Master Tianlong were locked up. Casey, who was upholding justice, became a mysterious hero for a while. Except for those who had seen Casey that day, the rest had no idea where Casey came from.

Although many people took videos and posted them on the Internet that day, those videos were quickly deleted. The popularity of this mysterious hero quickly dropped.

Naturally, it was Casey who arranged for someone to do this. He didn't want to be a hero that was well-known throughout the country. He didn't want to be popular. He just wanted to solve Master Tianlong, the scumbag.

With Casey's background, it was very easy to manipulate public opinions. When the affairs of Master Tianlong were raging, Casey and Edith did not go back to B City directly, but went to N City, which was next to Yuping Mountain.

N City was thousands of kilometers away from B City. Casey didn't often take Edith out recently. Although there were some troubles, they didn't want to go back like this.

These days, Casey had been taking Edith to hang out in N City. In the city, Casey was relatively at ease. After all, there was no special situation, and there would be no Grandmasters here.

For Casey, all the troubles encountered in the city were not trouble.

Casey had also been studying the stuff he got from Master Tianlong these days. Although the climbing journey didn't go too smoothly, the gain this time was not small.

Casey tried the poison personally. It was indeed the kind of poison he sucked in the dungeon. The antidote was also very effective. Casey gave the bottle which had poison to Edith. He had told her that she could use it if she was in danger. Even if the other party was a Grandmaster, she would have a great chance to escape.

As for the two pills that could enhance strength, Casey didn't try it. After all, he didn't know if what Master Tianlong said was true or false. In case the side effects of these pills were not that simple, it would be late when Casey regretted it. So he decided to wait for someone who knew the pill to determine the authenticity of the pill before considering whether to take it.

In the past few days, Casey had also been studying the piece of jade and black wood.

He didn't have any clues about the jade. The black wood also caused him a headache.

Chapter 771 You Don't Allow to Saying You Can't

"Honey, come here! Why are you standing at the window and sighing? Don't you love me anymore?"

In an upscale hotel in N City, Edith was lying on the bed, wearing only a thin layer of silk pajamas. Her pretty figure could be seen.

At this time, Edith looked radiant. Her face was blushed. She was so charming, and the gaze that she looked at Casey was affectionate.

Casey turned around helplessly. He looked at Edith on the bed, and begged for mercy, "Honey, it's been three times today. Please forgive me. If this continues, I'm afraid I won't be able to withstand it."

Edith suddenly showed a hint of shyness on her face and said, "I don't know what's going on. Anyway, I just want to have sex with you. It's rare that I have such a good interest. What's the matter if we do a few times more?"

Casey shivered, feeling that Edith now was completely different from the past. She had always been more reserved. She had never been so unrestrained. The reason why she became like this was because of the black piece of wood. After observing for a few days, this piece of black wood did have the effect of relaxing people's mind. It could help people to sleep well and could help people get rid of fatigue in an instant. So Casey had been putting this piece of black wood next to the pillow these days. Both his and Edith's sleep quality had improved significantly. Edith even felt that her skin had become better because of this piece of wood. But just last night, Edith had a dream when she slept at night. She dreamed of eating drumsticks, and it was the kind of drumsticks that seemed to make people drooling. According to Edith herself, she vaguely felt that she was drooling in the middle of the night.

When Casey got up this morning, he found that there was a small piece missing part on the black wood, and there was a neat row of tooth prints on it. Then he suddenly figured out that Edith must have treated this piece of wood as the drumsticks when she was dreaming in the middle of the night. Originally, Casey thought that although the wood was magical, it was only a piece of wood no matter what. It was fine to eat such a small piece. But not long after, Edith became abnormal and began to tell him that she was turned on. She didn't want to hang out. She just wanted to played in the hotel.

At the beginning, Casey felt normal and started to have sex with Edith enthusiastically. But after three times, Casey noticed that Edith was abnormal. Today, she was really too energetic. Casey thought that he was still very good. Besides, he had cultivated XuanJin. No matter what, he couldn't lose to Edith, a weak woman, in this stuff.

However, now he was indeed a bit unable to hold on. Three times! Every time, he basically reached the level of exhaustion. If it was in the past, Edith would have started begging for mercy. But today, she still had a feeling of unfulfilled intentions, which was very weird.

The only reason Casey could think of was that piece of wood of unknown origin. After all, Edith became like this after eating that piece of wood.

"Honey, come here soon! Anyway, we won't go out today. What are you afraid of? You can't?" Edith said to Casey again.

Casey twitched his mouth and cursed secretly, thinking that he was only in his twenties, so he couldn't just be judged by his wife like that. It was just having sex a few times more? What was the big deal? How could he say that he couldn't in front of his wife?

"Come on! I'll let you know how strong I am. You dare to say that I can't? I will let you see how good I am!"

After speaking, Casey walked over to the bed.

At the same time, he secretly decided that even if that piece of wood was great for relaxing mind, he would never put it on the head of the bed in the future. If Edith dreamed of eating the big lunch one day, she would eat this whole piece of wood, then he would be so exhausted at that time.

Casey was tired. However, at this time, in the center of N City, in a luxurious villa.

A man in a suit was standing by the window with a document in his hand. On the sofa behind him, there were about a dozen people sitting at this time. These people's faces were a little dignified. The atmosphere seemed extremely tense. No one dared to make a sound. Everyone in N City knew that this villa belonged to the Chang family. In the past, the villa had always been very lively. There would always be all kinds of people who came here to give gifts and flattered the head of the Chang family. But recently, the villa of the Chang family had become deserted a lot.

the Chang family was the top one family in N City, which held the economic lifeline of the entire N City. Although N City was not an international metropolis like B City, with the development of the country, N City was also considered to be a relatively well-developed third-tier city. Yuping Mountain was developed by the Chang family.

During this period of time, the affairs of Master Tianlong were raging, and Yuping Mountain was directly closed. The most affected was naturally the Chang family.

Although the Chang family had many industries in N City, Yuping Mountain's tourist attraction accounted for nearly half of all the Chang family's profit sources.

Now, Yuping Mountain had been closed. Although the Chang family immediately dismissed the relationship with Master Tianlong, the impact of this incident on the Chang family was really big. So the entire the Chang family was in a gloomy atmosphere.

At this time, the person standing in front of the window was the current head of the Chang family, Gentry Chang. What he held in his hand was the losses of the Chang family over the past few days. Seeing the figures above, he just wanted to kill people.

After a long time, Gentry directly threw the documents in his hand to the ground, and shouted hysterically, "Fuck off! I've worked so hard for so many years. But it's just ruined like this. Damn it! Shit Master Tianlong! If he wants women, he can tell me! Why did he have to do such shameful things? Now he is dead, but he has already caused a big blow to the Chang family. I really want to dig him out of the tomb and get him a few whips!"

Everyone in the villa saw Gentry getting angry, and they were afraid to speak. At this time, one person walked into the villa. Seeing Gentry getting angry, he quickly said, "Boss, calm down. We have already found out the one who defeated Master Tianlong and exposed Master Tianlong's matters is in N City." After speaking, the man hurried to Gentry's side, took out his mobile phone, found a photo, and showed Gentry.

In the photo, it was Casey and Edith when they were playing in the antique street of N City.

"Although I don't know why all the videos that were posted on the Internet that day are gone, our people kept one. Through comparison, we can confirm that the person who defeated Master Tianlong is the man in the photo. We also found two persons who witnessed Master Tianlong being defeated. Those two persons said that they knew that man."

As the man said, he flipped his phone and then another photo appeared. It was Cassidy and Vera on it.

"I have communicated with these two people. They won't leave N City in this period of time. Boss, do we really want to take actions to that man? He can even kill Master Tianlong." The man said worriedly.

Gentry snorted coldly, "So what? How could it be possible for the Chang family to suffer such a big loss if it weren't for him? I must take revenge on him."

"If we can't beat him, we can use money to deal with him. I don't believe that my huge family can't beat him, a 20-year-old boy!"

Chapter 772 The Purpose

Early the next morning, after getting up, Casey dragged Edith out of the hotel. He said that they had to come out to get some fresh air after spending a day in the hotel yesterday. In fact, he was afraid that Edith would be like yesterday. Casey had put away that piece of wood. Before he figured out what it was for, it would be better not to take it out. Compared with yesterday, Edith was obviously calmer. Although she was also surprised at why she was so...yesterday, she didn't say much. After all, it seemed to be a shameful thing for her.

What made Edith unexpected was that she didn't feel any tired after having sex with Casey so many times. Logically, she should be very tired today. However, she didn't feel any discomforts. She even felt that she was full of power. Even if she had to go to climb a mountain, it was okay. After the two of them had breakfast, they went to a more famous park in N City and wandered in the park all the morning.

During the period, Casey was still more concerned about Edith's physical condition. Casey asked Edith a few times. Every time, Edith said that she felt energetic, which made Casey also a little surprised.

In this way, although that piece of wood would make people more eager for sex, it seemed to be good for the health. However, to be on the safe side, Casey thought that he still had to take Edith to check to see if there were any changes in her body after coming back to B City. When it was almost noon, they planned to find a restaurant to have lunch. When they came out of the park, two people walked towards them head-on.

"Casey!" A voice sounded.

Casey looked up and found that it was Cassidy and Vera.

"I didn't expect to meet you guys here. What a coincidence! Every appreciated what you did at Green Dragon Temple. It's a pity that you left so soon.

Otherwise, you will definitely become known as a great hero to everyone."

Cassidy said with a smile.

Casey greeted them briefly, and did not say too much about it.

Vera's gaze at Casey also changed at this time. She showed a smile on her face.

"Since we have met here, why don't we have a meal together? My attitude towards you guys may be a little bad before. Please don't mind it. Today, we want to treat you guys for a meal as an apologize." Vera said with smile.

Casey didn't refuse. It happened that he also wanted to find a place to eat. Since Vera wanted to treat him for a meal, he wouldn't refuse.

Vera said that she wanted to apologize to Casey sincerely, so she took a taxi and brought them to the most famous restaurant in N City.

Hongyun Restaurant was the most famous and most expensive restaurant in N City.

Anyone who could come here for meal was a big shot in N City. It was said that a meal here had to cost tens of thousands at least.

They four stood in front of Hongyun Restaurant. Cassidy and Vera looked at the decoration of this restaurant, and they all sighed with emotion. Although their family were not poor, they had never been to such a high-end restaurant like Hongyun Restaurant.

Casey and Edith both looked calm. After all, they usually went to such a restaurant, so they were not surprised. Vera turned to look at Casey and Edith. Seeing that there was no excitement on their faces, she felt that they were so shocked that they didn't know how to express their emotions.

"You must have never been to such a high-end restaurant before. Any meal here costs tens of thousands of dollars, but you guys don't have to worry. Today, it's our treat. Just enjoy yourselves."

Vera said somewhat proudly.

Both Casey and Edith smiled, not embarrassing Vera.

The four of them walked into the restaurant together. Vera looked around curiously, and kept talking to Casey and Edith, showing off everything she saw, as if this restaurant was run by her family.

The reason why Cassidy and Vera wanted to invite Casey and Edith to have lunch was of course not to apologize.

The reason why they appeared in front of Casey and Edith was because they had been bribed by Gentry.

Today all their expenses would be counted in Gentry's account, so they dared to come to such an expensive restaurant.

At the same time, they also carried the task assigned to them by Gentry. As long as the task was completed, the two of them would receive two million rewards. Faced with this temptation, the two agreed to Gentry's request almost without hesitation.

After the four people entered the restaurant, Vera directly booked the most expensive place in the entire restaurant, which was in the most central place of the entire hotel. It was much higher than other places, just in order to highlight the nobility of this place.

"In fact, there is no need to come to such an expensive place. It's okay to find an ordinary restaurant to eat."

Casey said.

After Vera heard what Casey said, she sneered, thinking that Casey had never been to such a place before. He was afraid of spending money.

"What are you afraid of? I won't let you pay for it today. Don't worry! You can't afford such an expensive meal. But we can afford." Vera said immediately.

Cassidy on the side also smiled triumphantly. After all, they hadn't dared to say such words before.

Casey was speechless. He didn't want to argue with Vera too much, so he didn't speak anymore.

Vera and Cassidy gave the menu to Casey and Edith and asked them to order the food. Both of them said that they could eat anything. They weren't picky eaters, so they passed the menu back.

Vera curled her lips, thinking that Casey and Edith must have been frightened by the price on the menu, so they didn't dare to order.

Vera and Cassidy opened the menu and started ordering. After seeing the prices on the menu, the two of them were really taken aback. But after thinking that they didn't have to pay for it today, they became bold.

After ordering some dishes, Vera stared at Casey and Edith, and said, "Tsk-tusk, a meal costs seventy to eighty thousand dollars. This is definitely beyond your imagination. But it's just nothing for us."

Casey and Edith glanced at each other. They both regretted agreeing to eat with Vera and Cassidy. Vera and Cassidy were here not to make amends, but to simply show off.

Not long after the food was served, Casey was a little hungry, so he lowered his head to eat. Vera and Cassidy stared at Casey with a little disdain, thinking about how to complete the task Gentry gave them.

Not long after, Casey got up and said that he was going to the toilet. Vera and Cassidy's eyes lit up.

After Casey left, both of them looked at Edith with smiles.

Their purpose today was not Casey, but Edith.

"Ms. Edith, take advantage of Casey to go to the toilet, in fact, we have something to say to you." Cassidy said. Edith was taken aback, and asked, "What's the matter?"

Vera on the side smiled and said, "In fact, it was a rich man who let us invite you to have lunch here. You have also seen that the place where we are eating today is the best in N City. Just ordering a few dishes will cost seventy to eighty thousand. Casey will definitely not be able to give you this good life."

"What we want to tell you is that apart from being good at fighting, Casey actually has no other advantages. In this society, if you want to live well, you still have to have money. So, you can consider kicking Casey away and then pursue a better life."

Chapter 773 It's Just a Piece of Cake for Me

After hearing what Vera said, Edith showed a trace of astonishment on her face. She did not expect that the two of them invited her to lunch to persuade her to leave Casey.

"Sorry, I don't understand what you mean." Edith said.

"What we mean is actually very simple. It is to let you kick Casey away. There is a very rich man who is attracted by you. As long as you can separate from Casey, you can live with that rich man in the future. Then you will live a really good life in the future. Casey, such a poor, can't be comparable to that rich man." Vera said again.

"Yeah, Casey is good at fighting. These years, he must have been spent time on martial arts. Being with him, you can only live the most ordinary life. If you kick him away, you can live the best life." Cassidy also echoed.

To persuade Edith and Casey to break up was the task Gentry gave to Vera and Cassidy.

Gentry knew that Casey was very powerful. He had seen Master Tianlong show the martial arts. Even if there were one hundred people, they might not be able to defeat Master Tianlong. Since Casey could kill Master Tianlong, it showed that Casey's strength was even more terrifying than Master Tianlong's. But no matter how strong Casey was, he had to make living. As long as Casey was a human, he couldn't escape the vanity.

According to Gentry's logic, Casey was only in his twenties. So most of his time must have been used to practice martial arts. It was impossible for him to develop his own career.

So if Gentry wanted to deal with Casey, he could only spend a little money. Most girls nowadays did like money. If there was someone who didn't like money, it could only show that the money was not enough. Gentry wanted to snatch Casey's wife. There was nothing more disgusting revenge than cuckolding Casey. Gentry was very confident in this matter, especially Casey's wife was a beauty. Generally, the more such a girl, the more requirements she had for life. At that time, Casey's wife kicked Casey away and was with him. Then he could show off in front of Casey. Only then could he vent his anger. Although Casey was strong, he definitely couldn't attack others just because his wife had an affair. Gentry had a deep research on this method of dealing with those people who knew martial arts. Otherwise, he would not be able to let Grandmaster go to a scenic area to be a monk. After Edith heard the words of the two people, she was a little bit dumbfounded. Not to mention that she didn't care about Casey's money, she didn't kick Casey away when Casey was scolded as a wimp in J City. As for material life, Edith couldn't think of anyone who could compare to Casey, the head of the Davies family, the young master of Guanling, and the son-in-law of the Sue family. "Sorry, I'm not interested in what you guys said. I will only be with Casey in my life. If you guys just want to say this, I don't think there is any need to waste time." Edith said.

Hearing Edith say this, Vera hurriedly said, "I know you said this because you still don't know who the rich man we are talking about is. You are afraid that we lie to you. I can understand you."

"But I can tell you that the rich man who fell in love with you is the head of the Chang family, Gentry. the Chang family is the top one family in N City. The entire Yuping Mountain belongs to the Chang family. The assets of the Chang family may not be less than tens of billions. It doesn't attract you?"

Edith curled her lips and said, "I'm sorry. It has nothing to do with money, and... tens of billions is not too much."

Cassidy and Vera took a breath after hearing Edith's words. They didn't expect that Edith would say such words. She couldn't even like the tens of billions of assets. Vera thought Edith was pretending.

Yes, in their eyes, Edith was just pretending.

However, when Edith was in charge of Davies family for Casey, the money she handled was more than tens of billions. No matter what, Edith had been around. So how could she care about this little money?

"Ms. Edith, sometimes, you have to be contented. That rich man has tens of billions. Looking at Casey, he wears the most ordinary clothes. He doesn't even have millions. No matter what, the head of the Chang family is definitely better than Casey." Vera said again.

Edith was a little impatient. She didn't want to argue with these two people whether Casey or Gentry was better.

Because in her eyes, no one could compare Casey.

"Don't continue to waste time on this issue, otherwise I want to leave here."

Edith said angrily.

Vera immediately glanced at her contemptuously, and said, "We almost finish the meal. Now you said such words. Today's meal is Lord Chang's treat. Think about it, if you are still with Casey, you can't eat such an expensive meal in your life."

Cassidy tugged Vera's arms, and whispered, "Watch out your mouth! Our goal is Casey, not her. What if she really dates with Lord Chang in the future? We can't offend her."

Vera realized her problem and hurriedly showed an apologetic smile to Edith, and said, "I said too straightforward. Don't mind."

Edith couldn't eat anymore because of the two of them, so she sat in her seat and sulked.

Not long after, Casey came back.

Seeing Edith look upset, he asked, "What's the matter?"

Edith stared at Cassidy and Vera. She didn't intend to conceal the incident, then she just repeated what the two said.

Casey frowned immediately after hearing it. He glanced at Cassidy and Vera with some annoyance.

Both Cassidy looked away with some guilty conscience. In their opinions, even if Edith pretended to be unhappy, she shouldn't tell Casey about it. She was really a silly woman.

When Casey heard that Yuping

Mountain belonged to the Chang family, he knew why Lord Chang wanted to get Edith.

Casey sneered. the Chang family wanted to deal with him, but they actually didn't check his background.

Now Casey's identity was not too confidential. Anyone could find out after a little investigation. It was a pity that people in the Chang family directly treat him as a poor boy with no background. It seemed that sometimes it could have unexpected effects just because he was keen to wear bargains.

Casey turned to look at Cassidy and Vera, and asked, "That head of the Chang family asked you to come?"

Anyway, Edith had already told Casey the matter, so there was no need to hide it. Vera directly shouted at Casey, "Yes, it was him who asked us to come. We can tell you straightly. The head of the Chang family has a crush on your wife. He wants you to leave her."

"Casey, the Chang family's assets are tens of billions. How could you, such a poor boy who can wear bargains, be able to compete with? Even if you are good at fighting, you can't give Ms. Edith a good life."

"If you take the initiative to quit, maybe Lord Chang can give you some money as compensation when he is happy. The person who knows the current affairs is wise. You should think about it."

Casey curled his lips and said, "A little the Chang family also wants to steal my wife. He really doesn't know who I am." Vera immediately glared at him and said, "Casey, don't bluff. It was Lord Chang's treat today. This meal costs more than 80,000 dollars. Can you afford it? If you still say such words again, you have to pay the meal today. We won't pay it."

Vera felt that Casey must be scared to death after hearing what she said. After all, few people were willing to spend more than 80,000 dollars on a meal, let alone such a poor like Casey.

But what she didn't expect was that Casey didn't take this seriously.

"So what? Juts a meal. Even if I buy this restaurant, it is just a piece of cake for me."

Chapter 774 I Want to Buy Your Restaurant

Both Vera and Cassidy looked at Casey speechlessly, feeling that Casey was bragging.

"Don't brag here! Who do you think you are? This restaurant is worth twenty million at least. You said you want to buy, then you can buy it?" Vera stared at Casey contemptuously.

Cassidy also felt that Casey's words were way out of line. He said to Casey, "Casey, I know that men like to brag. But at this time, there is really no need to be like this. Listen to me, you will never be able to win Lord Chang. While there is still room for negotiation, just admit that you are wrong as soon as possible."

Casey looked at the two people coldly. If Casey considered the two of them as friends just now, the two of them would be blacklisted by Casey now.

Casey didn't continue talking with Vera and Cassidy, but beckoned directly to the waiter over there.

"Call your boss here." Casey said.

"Sir, is there something wrong?" the waiter asked nervously.

"No, I just want to see your boss. Go to call him over." Casey said with a smile.

Casey's seat was the most expensive in this restaurant. So no matter what he asked, the waiter dare not neglect. So the waiter immediately turned around to find the boss.

Both Vera and Cassidy looked at Casey in confusion, wondering why Casey asked the waiter to call the boss over.

Edith, who knew Casey well, guessed what Casey was going to do at the first time. If nothing else, the owner of this restaurant should be replaced today.

If it was before, Edith might persuade Casey. But after taking charge of Davies family for a period of time, Edith didn't have many opinions about the purchase of assets.

Because this restaurant was not a consumable, but a profitable industry. Even if Casey spent a lot of money on it, they would not suffer loss. They could earn back the money they spent as long as they had patience.

After a while, the waiter brought the owner of Hongyun Restaurant to Casey's table.

"Sir, do you like the dishes here? If there is a problem, I will ask the chef to make a new one for you." The boss was a middle-aged man in his forties. He seemed to be an easygoing person.

Casey smiled at him and said, "The food is delicious. I just want to ask you what is the market value of your restaurant now?"

The boss was taken aback for a moment, and then he said, "It's about 20 million dollars. So?"

In order to highlight the value of his restaurant, the price quoted by the boss was much higher than the actual price. "I want to buy your restaurant." Casey said.

The boss was surprised. He didn't expect Casey to buy his restaurant. Not everyone would dare to say such words. Both Vera and Cassidy widened their eyes and looked at Casey with incredible faces. They didn't expect Casey to actually buy this restaurant. He was just so bragging!

"Sir, are you kidding me?" The boss stared at Casey and asked.

Before Casey spoke, Vera on the side immediately said, "Yes, he was joking. I'm really sorry. He may be irritated by some of our words and feels that he can't be embarrassed, so he wants to prove himself. So sorry!"

"I'm not joking. I really want to buy it. I'll pay 30 million. We can sign the contract now. I can give you money right now." Casey said.

Vera glared at Casey immediately, and said, "Can you stop bragging here? You don't look at the clothes you wear? Just you? You can take out 30 million? It's not easy for you to take out three thousand. Don't waste the boss' time here."

"I'm really sorry. We're causing you trouble." Cassidy also looked at the boss apologetically.

Seeing that Vera and Cassidy were making trouble on the side, Casey stood up, looked at the boss, and said, "Let's go to another place and talk about it. You will know whether I really want to buy it after the talk."

The boss thought for a while. Although he also felt that Casey's clothes were too ordinary and Casey didn't look like a rich man, he wouldn't suffer any loss since the other party had said so.

The most important thing was that the operating costs of this restaurant were too high. For him, there was great pressure.

Although the most expensive meal here could reach as much as 80,000 dollars, the cost of the input was also quite scary. All the ingredients had to be shipped by air, and some of them couldn't even be bought. The boss didn't have much background. Once there was a problem with the funds, his restaurant would have to go bankrupt, so he had the idea of selling the restaurant a long time ago.

But there were few who could afford this restaurant. So when Casey said that he wanted to buy it, even if it was a fake, the boss was willing to listen to it.

The boss nodded to Casey, and then walked in with Casey.

When Vera and Cassidy saw this, they were a little speechless, thinking that this boss was really stupid. At first glance, they knew that Casey would not be able to afford it, but the boss was actually willing to have a talk with Casey.

"Hmph, no matter how extravagantly Casey bragged, he still doesn't have money. He absolutely can't buy this restaurant. But that's okay. You will know he is just a guy who likes to pretend and brag." Vera stared at Edith and said.

"To be honest, Casey is really inferior to Lord Chang. I really suggest you to consider it carefully. It is a pity for such a girl like you to be with Casey." Cassidy also said.

Edith rolled her eyes at them. She really didn't want to talk with them, so she bowed her head and played with her mobile phone.

After about half an hour, the boss and Casey walked back.

When Vera saw this, she immediately said to the boss, "Am I right? This guy can't afford this restaurant at all. Let him pay for the meal today. I think he can't even pay for this meal."

The boss said with a smile, "It's my treat today. You guys don't need to pay for it."

Vera was taken aback and asked, "Why?"

The boss showed an excited smile on his face, turned to look at Casey, and said, "Mr. Davies already bought our hotel. We signed the contract just now, and Mr. Davies also paid for the money. So from now on, this restaurant belongs to Mr. Davies."

After hearing the boss' words, Vera and Cassidy's jaws almost dropped to the floor.

"How... how is this possible!"

Chapter 775 Then I'll Play with You

"Are you kidding me? He really bought your restaurant? Could it be that he asked you to act with him?" Cassidy turned to look at the boss and asked. The boss smiled, "Naturally it is true. Should I take the contract over for you to take a look?"

Cassidy looked at the boss' serious look, feeling that the boss did not seem to be lying. The cold sweat on his forehead had already come out. Being able to buy a restaurant casually was enough to show that Casey's identity was not simple. They had thought that Casey's clothes were ordinary, so they naturally believed that Casey had no money. Their attitude towards Casey was very bad.

Although they were helping the Chang family now, they were only asked to let Casey and Edith break up. It seemed that this task couldn't be done at all. If Casey got angry with them, the Chang family wouldn't definitely stand still and watch.

Vera obviously did not realize the seriousness of the problem. Although she was shocked by Casey's buying the restaurant, her preconceived notions made her quickly find a reason to suppress the fact.

"Even if you really bought this restaurant, so what? It is only 30 million. the Chang family is a big family with tens of billions of assets. Compared with the tens of billions, 30 million is still far behind." Vera was aggressive, as if the tens of billions were her own.

She looked down on Casey from the very beginning, but everything that Casey did later would make her feel embarrassed. So now Vera had forgotten her purpose this time. She just wanted to find her dignity back in front of Casey.

Hearing Vera say this, Cassidy hurriedly tugged her arm and said, "Enough! Don't say it again."

Then he looked at Casey again and apologized, "Casey, I'm really sorry. We shouldn't be involved in this matter. We are blinded by benefits, but you can rest assured that we won't continue. Please forgive us."

Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that Cassidy would be so good at dealing with matters and he actually apologized so quickly.

The facts had proved that this was the most correct way for him to do this. If he continued, with Casey's temper, he and Vera would definitely have a good ending.

"Cassidy! Can you be a man? You always apologize to him! Even if he can buy this restaurant, so what? We have the Chang family behind us. What are you afraid of!"

Vera felt ashamed. After Cassidy apologized to Casey, she felt more ashamed.

"When did we have the Chang family behind us? the Chang family came to us just because we knew Casey. Don't be naive. If this continues, we will get into trouble!" Cassidy said.

Vera's chest was up and down. Although she knew that she was indeed not as rich as Casey, she just felt uncomfortable if she couldn't show off in front of Casey.

Just when Cassidy was talking into Vera, there was a sound of footsteps outside the restaurant. They turned their heads and saw that a group of men in black suits came in.

After these people came in, they immediately lined up in two rows, and then Gentry, wearing a white suit and sunglasses, walked in from the outside, looking quite ostentatious.

When Vera saw Gentry coming in, her eyes lit up. She immediately gave Casey a triumphant smile, "Lord Chang came here in person. Now, let's see how you continue to brag!"

Gentry quickly walked in front of them. He took off the sunglasses with a smile on his face.

"It seems that you guys had a very good chat. I don't know if I can join you guys?" Gentry said with smile. He had been sending his subordinates to stare at the situation here. When he learned that Casey bought Hongyun Restaurant, he knew that Cassidy and Vera would definitely not be able to handle it, so he came over in person.

"Of course you can join us. Lord Chang, you finally came here. This brat is arrogant after he bought the restaurant. If you come forward, he will definitely not dare to continue to be arrogant." Vera immediately flattered Lord Chang. Gentry curled his lips and looked at Casey. In his eyes, a restaurant was really nothing.

Before Casey spoke, the boss on the side spoke, "Gentry, you should know that you are not welcomed here."

Gentry smiled, "Are you still angry about the previous things? You are a boss. It is better to be generous. Otherwise, you can't make your business big."

The boss snorted immediately. His face was full of anger.

A long time ago, this boss had some grudges with Gentry. Logically, if he wanted to sell his restaurant, it wouldn't be difficult. Because his restaurant was very famous in N City. However, the boss offended Gentry, no one dared to take over his restaurant in N City. The boss could only run this restaurant.

The reason why the two of them had grudges was because Gentry wanted to buy the restaurant for five million, but the boss did not agree.

"You should be Casey? Seriously, your wife is really beautiful. The two of them should have already stated my purpose. I'll speak straightly. Buying a restaurant is nothing. You are still young. So sometimes, you'd better learn to respect the elders, otherwise you will suffer loss." Gentry said with a sneer.

"Respect you? You are really shameless. Why don't you cry and ask me for ice cream?" Casey looked at Gentry and said.

Gentry's face suddenly sank. He said coldly, "What did you say?!"

The boss on the side immediately said, "Gentry, I advise you to leave here as soon as possible, otherwise it will be too late when you regret it."

When signing the contract inside just now, the boss already knew Casey's identity, so he didn't hesitate to sell the restaurant to Casey.

the Chang family did have an unbeatable position in N City. But compared with Davies family in B City, it was much worse. So the boss was not worried that Gentry would make trouble for Casey.

"I will regret it? Stop it! In the whole N City, there is no one who can make me regret! I think you have some problems with your brain, so that you dare to say such words in front of me." Gentry spoke with disdain.

The boss was about to reveal Casey's identity, letting Gentry know how stupid he was. But at this moment, Casey stopped him.

"Seriously, it is really amazing that you can be the head of the Chang family. But since you are so confident, I will play with you. I hope you will not kneel in front of me and beg for mercy."

After Casey finished speaking, he took out his mobile phone and called Jordan. This guy actually wanted to steal his wife! If Casey didn't teach him a lesson, it would be really a bit embarrassing.

Chapter 776 Disgusting

After hearing Casey's words, Gentry immediately showed a deep contempt on his face. Let him to kneel down to apologize. No one in N City dared to say such words. This guy who wore bargains had the guts to say such words!

Casey briefly explained the situation on his side to Jordan. Then Jordan said that he would arrange for someone to come over immediately and let Casey wait for a while.

After hanging up the phone, Casey sat back in the chair and said, "My men will come over to deal with this matter soon. If you don't mind, just sit down and wait for a while."

Gentry sneered, then clapped his hands. Immediately, someone put a chair behind him.

After sitting down, Gentry looked at Casey and said, "I will wait here to see who you can call over. In N City, there are not many people who dare to say such words in front of me."

Vera looked at Casey triumphantly, believing that Casey couldn't play any tricks in front of Gentry, and he was destined to have a bad ending today. Cassidy was helpless. He always felt a sense of anxiety. Although he also felt that Casey could not beat Gentry in N City, Casey looked so calm. If Casey had nothing, how could he be so calm and not panicked at all?

Cassidy now regretted getting involved because of greed for money. If he knew that earlier, he would leave directly with Vera.

The boss didn't panic at all, either. He still had some expectations. The Chang family had ruled N City for so many years. Now there finally was someone who could deal with the Chang family. The boss was naturally very happy. Gentry was so self-righteous. The boss couldn't wait to see Gentry's reaction after he knew Casey's identity.

"If I'm right, the reason why you let someone persuade my wife to kick me away is because of Master Tianlong's matters?" Casey asked.

Gentry heard Casey take the initiative to mention this, he immediately snorted. Then he said coldly, "Yuping Mountain accounts for nearly half of the Chang family's annual profit. It is because of you that Yuping Mountain would be closed. Now, the losses I suffer every day is equal to a Hongyun Restaurant. Do you think whether I should try to teach you a lesson?"

Casey immediately laughed, "It was Master Tianlong who caused Yuping Mountain to be closed. I just exposed his crimes. Did I do something wrong?"

"I don't care whether you are wrong. If it weren't for you, Master Tianlong's matters wouldn't be exposed. Who else can I take revenge on except of you?"

Gentry said so angrily.

"It can be seen that you are not a good guy. You can package a despicable thief into a virtuous monk, and use this to make money. This kind of behavior is not much better than that of Master Tianlong. In this case, I could only teach you a lesson, preventing others from getting hurt." Casey said.

Gentry snorted, "Just You? You want to teach me a lesson? I think you should slap yourself quickly so that you can stop dreaming."

"Since I can develop the Chang family into this step by step, the shameful things I have done are more than this. So many people who want the Chang family to fall, but they have no ways to deal with me. Do you think you, just a 20-year-old brat, can threaten me?"

Casey stopped talking nonsense with him. He turned to look at Edith, and asked, "What do you think of him?"

"Disgusting." Edith only said one word. Casey laughed, feeling that what Edith said was right.

Hearing Edith's evaluation of him, Gentry didn't care about it and said, "Beauty, I haven't taught this brat a lesson yet. You say something against your intentions in front of him. I don't blame you. After I knock this brat down and when you climb onto my bed, I hope you can keep the way you are now."

Hearing Gentry's words, Casey's face sank. He turned around and slapped Gentry directly.

A red handprint appeared on Gentry's face immediately.

Gentry looked at Casey in disbelief. In N City, no one dared to slap him.

"How dare you!" Gentry gritted his teeth and shouted at Casey.

The bodyguards who followed Gentry to come here immediately surrounded this side.

Casey looked at Gentry indifferently, and said, "If you say something wrong again, I will not just slap you."

At this time, Gentry realized that Casey could even kill Master Tianlong. These bodyguards were nothing in front of Casey. He couldn't slap Casey.

Otherwise, if Casey was angry, he would kill him directly.

Gentry waved his hand to the bodyguards and let them disperse. Then he looked at Casey angrily, gritted his teeth and said, "Huh, I'm a civilized man, so I don't argue with you, a foolish man. But I tell you, money can do much more than force can do in this world. Don't regret it later!"

Vera also glared at Casey, as if the person being slapped was her. But she had seen Casey's martial arts with her own eyes. When it came to fight, Casey really didn't have to fear anyone.

"Hmph, I guess you can only be proud of it for a while. When the people you call over start to apologize to Lord Chang, I just want to see if you can be so calm like now." Vera muttered.

After a short while, several cars stopped in front of Hongyun Restaurant. Several people wearing suits and eyeglasses, who looked very elegant and imposing, got out of the car, and then walked into Hongyun Restaurant.

As soon as they entered, Gentry, who was thinking about how to retaliate against Casey, noticed them. Then he quickly stood up and walked towards those people.

"Governor Lee, why are you here?"

"Grand Coordinator Lau, why are you also here?"

"Investigating Censor Sun, you are also here? What a good day is today? Are you guys here for lunch? If I knew it earlier, I would have arranged it for you guys in advance."

Gentry stared at these people who walked into the hotel with a dumbfounded look. Then a deep horror appeared in his mind.

Although there were few people in N City who dared to offend him, there were still a few. At least he couldn't afford to offend any of the three who appeared in the restaurant now.

Governor Lee and Grand Coordinator Lau managed the whole N City. No matter how powerful Gentry was, he couldn't afford to offend them.

Investigating Censor Sun was the biggest leader who supervised Yuping Mountain. Gentry had spent a lot of money to get rid of the relationship between him and Master Tianlong in front of Investigating Censor Sun.

Now, the three of them appeared here together, which made Gentry panicked inexplicably.

When the three of them saw Gentry greeted them with a flattering face, they all snorted and pulled a long face. Then, they directly bypassed him and walked towards Casey.

When they arrived in front of Casey, the three people immediately showed gentle smiles on their faces.

"Mr. Davies, so sorry! We are late. Bother you to wait for us." Governor Lee smiled and said to Casey.

Grand Coordinator Lau and Investigating Censor Sun also quickly expressed their apologies to Casey. Not far away, seeing this scene, Gentry instantly petrified on spot.

Chapter 777 Kneel Down to Beg for Mercy

Vera looked at the three people who walked up to Casey, with a trace of doubt on her face. She was not a local, so she didn't know who these three people were. She did not hear clearly what Gentry called the three of them just now. She just saw Gentry enthusiastically greet them, but they just ignored Gentry.

Now Vera adored Gentry very much. How could she tolerate others ignoring Gentry? So she immediately yelled at three people.

"Didn't the three of you see Lord Chang talk to you guys just now? You dare to ignore him? You guys don't know that he is the lead of the first family in N City? Do you guys want to get out of N City?"

Gentry in the distance was still wondering why these three people came here, and why their attitude towards Casey was so good. After hearing what Vera said, he was frightened and sweated.

He hurried over here, and directly slapped Vera. What Vera said just now completely made him get into the trouble.

"Are you brainless? Do you know who they are? You dare to give them this attitude?" Gentry said furiously.

Then he looked at Governor Lee and the other two men, saying, "Governor Lee, it's her who said that. I have never taught her before. In fact, I don't know her at all, and I don't know why she would say such words."

When Vera heard Gentry's address to this person, her eyes widened.

Governor! What did this word mean? She knew it very well. But she didn't expect that the person Casey had found was the Governor in N City.

"Oh? Lord Chang, it seems you are so powerful. Whether I can live in N city has to depend on you? Or, how about I give you my position?" Grand Coordinator Lau sneered.

"It seems that Lord Chang already thinks that he is the king of N City. It seems that he has not learned a lesson from the matter about Yuping Mountain. In this case, I think it is necessary for me to investigate thoroughly the incident about Green Dragon Temple."

Investigating Censor Sun also said.

The cold sweat on Gentry's forehead kept flowing down from his cheeks. His face was pale. At this time, he just wanted to kill Vera.

Vera had learned the identities of these three people from their talk. No matter which one of them, they were the people who could determine the fate of N City. But she asked them to get out of N City just now. She was so scared and shivered now.

"Grand Coordinator Lau, Investigating Censor Sun, I really don't mean that. It's all the brainless woman who said it herself. I don't even know her." Gentry continued to excuse himself.

Vera was trembling. Now, she finally knew if something happened, Gentry would not be able to speak for her no matter how she flattered him.

Cassidy was already quite speechless at this time. Just now, he kept persuading Vera not to continue to interfere with this matter. Vera just didn't listen to him. Now, Casey had found three big shots. Even Gentry was too scared to breathe. Vera was too late to regret it.

Casey didn't know these three people either, but he also knew the identities of these three people from the conversation. It seemed that the three of them should be the ones that Jordan arranged to help him solve the trouble. He also didn't expect that Jordan would invite such big shots. Jordan even invited the three most important people in N City.

Even if Gentry had money, his ending would not be good today.

"Mr. Davies, we have understood the general situation on your side. Gentry has a deep relationship with Master Tianlong. We have had some evidence that can prove that Gentry and Master Tianlong colluded, falsely promoted, and defrauded tourists of money. What's more, Gentry acquiesces Master Tianlong to kidnap and imprison young girls. In the past few years, the Chang family has done a lot of shameless things. We have a lot of evidences. Just taking advantage of this opportunity, we will also thoroughly investigate the Chang family. We will arrest all those who are still at large."

Governor Lee told Casey about the solution and was asking Casey for his approval.

Casey nodded and said, "Just do what you said. My request is only one point, which is that you must be realistic.

Gentry relies on his identity as the head of the Chang family to covet my wife.

Maybe he used to do a lot of same things. I hope you can take it seriously."

The three of them nodded immediately, not daring to neglect in the slightest.

Gentry was already full of despair at this time. He hurried over and said with regret, "Sirs, you know best what the situation of my Chang family has been in the past few years. My Chang family has never done what he said."

"Don't quibble here. If it weren't for Mr. Davies, we didn't know that you were such a despicable and shameless person. You actually can live in N City so long. It is our negligence in work. We will definitely investigate thoroughly it this time." Governor Lee spoke categorically.

Gentry was puzzled, wondering why the three highest-ranking leaders of N City listened to Casey so much.

"Sirs, even if you want to investigate my Chang family, you should give me a reason. Who is this brat and why are you so respectful to him?" Gentry asked.

"Hmph, you don't know him but you dare to provoke him? It seems that you have really been domineering in the past few years. You really think you are the king of N City." Grand Coordinator Lau snorted coldly.

"This is the head of Davies family in B City. Do we need to explain the rest?" Investigating Censor Sun said.

Gentry was stunned for a moment. He was so dumbfounded.

"Davies family in B City?" Gentry muttered to himself with full of disbelief on his face.

Gentry had heard that the head of Davies family was a young man who was only in his twenties, but Gentry never expected that the head of Davies family would come to N City. Besides, he actually ran into the head of Davies family.

Both Vera and Cassidy were shocked. They didn't expect Casey would be the head of Davies family in B City. If they knew Casey had such an identity, they would never intervene with this matter.

"I told you not to continue to interfere with this matter, but you just didn't listen to me. Now you offended the head of Davies family. I see what you are going to do!" Cassidy yelled directly at Vera. Vera was panicked and cried directly, "I don't know it will be like this. Casey, I know I was wrong. Please, please forgive me!"

Then, Vera knelt down directly in front of Casey.

When Gentry saw this, he thought of what Casey said. When Casey told him not kneel and beg for mercy later, he still looked disdainful. But now it seemed that if he didn't kneel down and beg for mercy, the entire Chang family would be over.

After hesitating for a long time, Gentry walked to Casey, gritted his teeth, and then knelt down.

"Mr. Davies, I'm such a fool! Please forgive me and the Chang family."

Casey glanced down at him, without any emotion, and said coldly, "If you don't commit any crimes, why bother to kneel down and beg for mercy? You'd better say these words to them. It's no use begging me."

Chapter 778 The Jade's Secret

In the hotel.

Two days had passed since the Chang family's affairs.

After dealing with the matter that day, Casey took Edith and left Hongyun Restaurant. He ignored Gentry's plea. This man used all means for his own benefit and dared to covet Edith. How could Casey spare him?

As for Cassidy and Vera, Casey didn't intend to really get even with them. After all, they were at different levels. If the ants yelled in front of the elephant, the elephant would not argue with the ants. However, Casey did not say that he would not hold the two of them accountable. After Vera knelt on the ground, she waited for Casey to let her get up. But Casey just ignored her. Maybe she was still worried about herself now.

This kind of psychological torture was sometimes not much less than the physical punishment.

Casey had already taken Edith to visit the whole N City. It was the time to go back. The two of them had been resting in the hotel for the past two days. After the trip, they were a little tired. So Casey wanted to go back after they had a good rest.

But Edith, since eating that small piece of wood, she was always energetic. When they had been staying in the hotel for the past two days, she was still very excited. When it came to night...

Casey still had some headaches for this situation. Although being energetic was a good thing, Edith always asked Casey to do that kind of stuff and always thought it was not enough. After several times, Casey also wanted to eat a piece of wood, and see if he could become energetic to deal with Edith.

But before Casey knew the origin of this piece of wood, he still did not dare to eat it casually. Although Edith did not have any adverse reactions, no one could guarantee that he would not become a rutting beast after eating it.

At that time, Edith would be the one who couldn't stand it then.

Casey was sitting on the sofa in the room and looking at the phone, while Edith was lying on the bed and playing with the jade that Casey got from Master Tianlong.

When browsing the web, a piece of local news appeared in front of Casey. After reading it, Casey immediately showed a smile on his face.

"The Chang family, the largest local corporate family, has been investigated and dealt with by relevant authorities for suspected major violations."

This time, the Chang family would disappear from the world.

"Honey, what's so funny about that jade? Don't eat it." Putting down the phone, Casey smiled and said to Edith. Edith rolled her eyes at Casey and said, "After two days of observation, this jade seems to be very special."

Casey got up and walked over to the bed, and then asked, "What?"

"Have you not noticed that the surface of this jade is very uneven? It looks like something is engraved on it. I have read it for a long time, but I haven't understood what is written on it." Edith said.

Casey took the jade in Edith's hand and had a closer look. There were indeed many uneven spots on the surface, and they were densely packed. But it didn't look like characters. It was jade material, so these uneven places looked blurry.

"Maybe this jade is just like this. Who would carve the words on the jade? Why didn't they write it directly on the paper? Besides, if these are really words, you must know it." Casey said. Edith shook her head, still feeling a little weird. At this moment, an idea suddenly popped into her mind, and then she sat up directly from the bed.

"I thought of a possibility. You go to buy a bottle of ink and buy some papers by the way." Edith said.

"What do you buy ink for?" Casey asked with some doubts.

"Just buy it. You'll know when you buy it back." Edith said.

Although Casey didn't know what Edith was going to do, he obediently left the hotel and bought a bottle of ink and some paper back.

After getting the ink, Edith walked to the side of the table, then poured the ink directly into an ashtray, then dipped the jade in it. After a while, she took the jade out of the ashtray and quickly pressed it on the paper.

When Edith took the jade away from the paper, some densely packed words appeared on the page immediately, which was the traditional characters they were familiar with.

Casey stared at the piece of paper. He didn't expect that the jade stone was actually carved with words. Besides, these words were different from what he thought. Those words actually needed to be printed with ink on the paper.

This was just like the template used in ancient printing. The appearance of the template was the opposite of the characters. Because it needed ink to be printed on paper to become characters, many places on the jade looked very different from normal characters.

In addition, the jade was a special material, so the words on it were very small and dense, so that people couldn't know what it was at a glance.

"I've told you this jade is unusual. See!" Edith looked at Casey with a smug smile on her face. Now, she was just like a child who solved a riddle, with a sense of accomplishment.

Casey smiled and kissed Edith's forehead, "You're so good! Now I declare that you are the smartest baby in our family, smarter than Sherry." Edith rolled her eyes at Casey immediately, and then pushed Casey twice shyly.

After that, Casey learned Edith's method and dipped all the places on the jade with ink and pressed it on the paper. Because the previous Secret Skills was also traditional characters, Casey had checked a lot of information in order to understand Secret Skills, so now when he saw the traditional characters, as long as they were not too uncommon, he generally knew them.

After staring at the pieces of paper and studying carefully for a while, Casey roughly knew what the words engraved on the jade were saying. If he guessed it correctly, the things mentioned were related to XuanJin, which looked a bit like the same technique as XuanJin, but there were big differences.

Casey ran XuanJin in his body according to the method mentioned above. In the blink of an eye, he felt XuanJin in his body start to run. In that instant, Casey felt that his strength seemed to increase more than one level.

Because he was afraid of what might happen, he hurriedly stopped, and then hurriedly read the rest.

After a long time, Casey took a deep breath, with unconcealable excitement on his face.

"What the hell is it talking about? Why are you so excited?" Edith asked.

Casey hugged Edith directly, gave her another big kiss, and said, "Honey, we're so lucky this time. The jade records a secret method that can greatly improve people's strength within a short time. This is simply Kaiyang Heqi Pill which can be used indefinitely!"

Chapter 779 Six Guwu Families

The so-called Cabala was a more difficult and rare martial art, which was different from Basic Practicing Skills for Strength.

There were many kinds of Cabala.

According to different purposes, the effects of different Cabala were also very different.

Cabala recorded on this jade was aimed at improving strength. Once it was used, it would make your power triple in a short time, which was similar to the effect of Kaiyang Heqi Pill.

However, Cabala was different from these pills that could improve people's strength. The side effect of using Cabala was only to make the user's body very weak. They couldn't continue to use their own strength in a short time, but they could recover in the end.

The side effects of Kaiyang Heqi pill will make people disabled or even dead.

Obviously, Cabala was much better.

Although Casey still had two pills that basically had no side effects, the pills were consumables in the final analysis, and would be used up. Cabala could be used indefinitely. As long as the physical state of the user met the requirements, there would be no problem.

Of course, this did not mean that people could use Cabala casually at any time.

The content recorded on the jade clearly emphasized that Cabala could only be used when it was most dangerous.

Although Cabala could make people burst out in a short time, in the final analysis, it was a squeeze on people's potential. Even if the user could recover, after using Cabala, he would fall into a weak state and be trampled upon at will. Once the opponent was not killed or the opponent had other helpers, he still couldn't escape.

Casey didn't care much about this. If his strength could be increased three times, there would be no one who could beat him except the experts above Grandmaster Circle.

To Casey's surprise, the basis of Cabala was to practice Xuanjin. There was no way to exert the effect of Cabala by using inner force.

He was also extremely lucky to get the jade. However, if he didn't practice Xuanjin, Cabala would be simple for ornament to him.

And this was the second time he learned the existence of Xuanjin from a place other than the secret book.

The first time he learned it from Myles. According to Myles, there was a record of Xuanjin on the Ray family's genealogy. This time, he saw the explanation of Xuanjin on this Cabala. According to Master Tianlong, everything in the bag was found on the dry bone in a cave. Casey wondered who the dead was and what relationship he had with the owner of the tomb stolen by Nicolle's father.

During this trip to N City, Casey gained a lot. With Cabala and the two pills, Casey felt that he had the strength to stand out in the martial arts world in C Country,.

However, the existence of Xuanjin made him realize that the limit of martial arts was not as simple as he thought.

Moreover, he was certainly not the only one who knew Xuanjin in the world, so even if he was unmatched in Grandmaster Circle with his current strength , he still needed to be cautious.

After continuing to rest in the hotel for a day and thoroughly studying Cabala on the jade, Casey and Edith embarked on the journey home.

At the same time, in the lobby of a hotel in B City, a group of extraordinary people gathered here. The hotel had been hired and all the guests who came to dinner were persuaded to leave.

At this time, the hotel attendants were carefully hiding in the corner, looking curiously at these people who were obviously not easy to provoke, and dare not make any sound.

The leader of this group was an old man in traditional Chinese clothing. His hair was gray and had an air of quiet authority.

In front of the old man in traditional

Chinese clothing, there were four people with different clothes and different shapes, but their momentum was not weaker than that of the old man in traditional Chinese clothing.

If someone who knew the martial arts came here and saw the five people gathered here, he would be shocked. Because each of the five people present is the top existence in Grandmaster Circle, and the five people could almost represent the whole martial arts world of C Country.

Martial arts had been inherited for thousands of years in C Country. In modern times, due to the development of science and technology, martial artists had to hide from the secular society, but this did not facilitate the decline of martial arts.

So far, martial arts practitioners could be seen everywhere in C Country, and the most active in the modern martial arts world was the six Guwu Families.

These six Guwu Families could be regarded as the strongest among the forces in the martial arts world. All of them had rich heritage and sound martial arts inheritance. Even those ancient martial sects were not qualified to compete with them.

The Law family in Jiangbei was one of the six Guwu Families.

The five people present were the heads of the other five Guwu Families except the Law family.

The six Guwu Families were distributed all over C Country. Now the main reason why they gathered in B City the death of two Grandmasters of the Law family.

They were here for Casey.

"Everyone has arrived, so I won't talk nonsense. You have known the reason why I convened everyone here this time." The old man in traditional Chinese clothing glanced at the people present and said slowly.

Everyone present had a trace of admiration for the old man, because he was Duffy Wong, the head of the Wong family, which was the best family among the six Guwu Families.

The overall strength of the Wong family was stronger than that of other Guwu Family, so the other five families respect the Wong family as the leader.

"The young man named Casey was able to kill the two masters of the Luo family at such an age. His talent was amazing. The two masters of the Law family were inferior in skills and killed by him.

There's nothing to say."

"But Casey is Bland's apprentice, so the death of the two Grandmasters of the Law family has a different nature."

"There is feud between our six Guwu Families and Bland. Bland killed many disciples of our six families in the past. The feud smoldered on for years and couldn't be ended no matter how long."

"Now Casey killed two Grandmasters of the Law family. It is likely that he was instructed by Bland. Bland was a cowardly person and had hid for so many years. As soon as he appeared, he gave us such a big threat."

"If this thing goes by like this, Bland's next goal is likely to be one of the remaining five families. We may be destroyed by Bland and his apprentice in the end."

"We gather here to eradicate the cancer of the martial arts world. Bland's apprentice is only in his twenties. If he is allowed to grow up again, the threat he brings will surpass Bland."

"So this year's the Martial Conference will be held in B City. We are bound to eradicate Bland's apprentice. If he doesn't come forward, we will try to force him to appear. Once he shows up, we will resolutely kill him!"

Chapter 780 The Martial Conference

The news that the Martial Conference would be held in B City soon spread throughout C Country Martial Circle. Not only people in C Country Martial Circle knew about it, but even ordinary people in B City had heard of it more or less. Moreover, in the news which Duff spread out, he said Casey would participate in it, saying that more than half of people in C Country Martial Circle wanted to challenge Casey.

In order to be able to force Casey to participate in the Martial Conference, they also specially spread that Casey's strength was not as powerful as the rumors. As for why Casey could kill the two Grandmasters of the Law family, they thought Casey relied on scheming and his luck.

In Duffy's eyes, Casey was only in his twenties. Besides, Casey had such outstanding talent and strength, he must be arrogant. Once he heard that some people question his strength, he would definitely jump out to prove himself.

Moreover, Davies family was a well-known family in B City. Casey also had a very big reputation in B City. Now everyone in B City knew that people in C Country Martial Circle would challenge Casey. If Casey refused to participate, it meant he was afraid. In this way, in the eyes of people in B City, Casey's status would definitely be greatly diminished.

If Casey didn't want others to say that he was a coward, he must come forward to fight.

As long as Casey was willing to come to participate in the Martial Conference, the rest would be easy. The heads of the five major families had already discussed the countermeasures against Casey.

As the representative of C Country Martial Circle, the five major families had to be decent, so the way to deal with Casey had to be decent. Unless they couldn't solve it, they would use shameless means.

For a time, people from C Country Martial Circle came to B City from all over the country. These warrior who usually did not show up in secular society at all gathered in B City for the first time on a large scale. During this time, it could be seen some people with sturdy aura and fierce faces on the main street in B City and some wore very retro clothes, which made the people of B City a little confused.

Casey and Edith returned to B City by plane from N City. As soon as they came out of the airport, they saw a group of people in front of a billboard not far away.

Edith was a little curious, so she took Casey and walked over there, wanting to see what they were looking at.

In front of the billboard, Casey and Edith saw the words "The Martial Conference".

Below were some introductions to the Martial Conference. In order to make it easier for ordinary people to understand the purpose of this Martial Conference, the five major families described the Martial Conference as a martial arts competition.

At the bottom of the advertisement, it was written boldly, "If you want to see the head of Davies family in B City be beaten, come to the Martial Conference!" After that was the address of the Martial Conference, it was at the largest commercial gymnasium in B City.

Although those five Guwu Families were all dedicated to martial arts, they were still very rich, so it was very easy for them to rent a venue in B City and advertise.

After Casey saw the last sentence, he suddenly frowned, wondering why this Martial Conference would get involved with him.

Edith turned her head and glanced at Casey, saying, "This Martial Conference is so shameless. In order to attract people's attention, they actually used such a low-level advertisement."

Casey pondered for a moment. Then he turned his head and glanced at a young man beside him. He asked, "Dude, do you know what this Martial Conference is for? Who organized it?"

The young man turned his head and glanced at Casey. Although Casey was very famous in B City, not everyone knew what Casey looked like.

"This Martial Conference has been very popular recently. Don't you know it? I heard that the organizers are the five major Guwu Families. People from C Country Martial Circle will come to participate. It's pretty mysterious. It's in the 21st century. How could there be people knowing martial arts? But it sounds very exciting. I heard that the head of Davies family will also participate in it. Mr. Davies is indeed a person with real skills, but this Martial Conference said that it would violently beat Mr. Davies. I don't know if it is true." The young man said.

After listening to what the young man said, Casey nodded thoughtfully. The so-called five Guwu Families should be the same as the Law family. Casey did not expect that there would be five Guwu families like the Law family. The reason why they came to B City to hold this Martial Conference and deliberately put Casey in the advertisement was very likely that they came for Casey.

"It seems that there are so many troubles recently. But it's good. I just need a chance to consolidate my strength. I can take this opportunity to try my strength." Casey said with a smile.

The young man stared at Casey suspiciously. He always felt that the person in front of him was familiar.

"Dude, what do you do? Why do I feel you are so familiar?" the young man asked.

Casey said with a smile, "Professional hatchet man."

After speaking, Casey held Edith's hand, then they turned and left here.

The young man stared at Casey's back, feeling a little confused. After a while, he suddenly thought of something, and then he exclaimed, "Mr. Davies! Casey Davies! My God! The one who talked to me just now was Mr. Davies!"

...

Back in the Davies House, everyone in Davies family was in the living room, discussing the Martial Conference.

"These people are really endless. After solving one, five more popped up.

People in Warrior Circle are really more narrow-minded than those in our business world." Darius said a little impatiently.

Everyone was a little helpless. They all agreed with Darius' words, but it seemed that this matter was not whether they were narrow-minded or not.

It could only be said that people in Warrior Circle paid more attention to revenge.

After Casey came back, he had learned about these five Guwu Families from Baron and Dick, and knew their purpose for holding this Martial Conference. It should be that five major Guwu Families were afraid that Casey posed a threat, so they came here in advance to eliminate hidden dangers.

"Casey, you can't participate in this Martial Conference. The five Guwu Families have joined forces. It is far stronger than the Law family. If you really participate in it, you will get into their traps. Contact Master quickly. You must not be incited by them." Dick looked at Casey with a worried face and tried to persuade Casey.

Casey said with a smile, "They've already declared to challenge me in the advertisement. If I don't go, I will be a joke in the eyes of people in B City."

"So what? It's better to be a joke than to lose your life." Dick retorted.

"Don't worry. Even if I really participate in it, these so-called five major Guwu Families can't defeat me." Casey said. Dick suddenly felt that Casey was a little too bragging. Just when he was about to continue to persuade Casey, someone ran in and shouted, "Mr. Davies, there is a person outside who claims to be the head of the Wong family which is the head of the five Guwu sects wants to see you."

Chapter 781 Challenge the Entire C Country Martial Circle

Casey raised his eyebrows when he heard the man's words. Well, speak of the devil!

"Let him in." Casey said.

The man nodded and hurried out to call in the people who were waiting outside. After a while, Duffy walked in with a young girl from outside. Duffy looked like that he had experienced all the different things in life, while the little girl was full of curiousness about everything, and there was still some innocence in her eyes.

Two people were walking together. Although it looked like a little weird, it still attracted others' attention. The one who followed Duffy was no one else, but Duffy's 16-year-old granddaughter, Ainsley Wong. After the two entered the living room, their eyes fell directly on Casey who was sat on the main seat of the living room.

Duffy looked at Casey and felt the aura on Casey's body. He suddenly felt a trace of emotion. It seemed that Casey was indeed the same as the rumors. At such a young age, he was already a Grandmaster that countless people dreamt of.

Duffy felt a sense of danger on Casey's body. Even the heads of several other families never made him feel this way. It seemed that it really wasn't a coincidence that Alonzo and Maynard die in Casey's hands.

"Mr. Casey is really handsome, young and promising. When I saw you today, you are really as the same as the rumors. You are so powerful that I feel a little ashamed in front of you." Duffy said.

Hearing her grandfather saying this, Ainsley on the side immediately retorted, "Grandpa, you are really old. This guy is handsome? He is far from being handsome."

"Ainsley, where is your manner?" Duffy turned to look at Ainsley, and said. Ainsley was obviously not convinced, and said, "Am I wrong? He is so ordinary. He is far worse than handsome."

Casey was a little speechless when he heard the little girl commenting on his appearance in such a serious manner. He felt that Duffy had deliberately brought such a girl to talk down him. "If you guys are here to see what I look like, I think you can just search my photos on the Internet directly. There is no need to come there specifically."

Casey said.

Ainsley immediately curled her lips at Casey, with a trace of contempt on her petite face.

Duffy smiled apologetically at Casey, and said, "My granddaughter has been spoiled by me since childhood. Mr. Davies, please forgive her rude words."

"I won't talk nonsense. I came here just for inviting Mr. Davies to participate in this Martial Conference. I believe Mr. Davies also has some understanding of this Martial Conference. Such a grand martial arts event! It will be pity if Mr. Davies doesn't participate in it."

When Casey heard Duffy's words, he immediately showed contempt, and then he said, "You didn't say that in the advertisement. I don't think that people who just know to belittle others to attract attention can hold any good events."

Casey didn't have to be polite to Duffy. Now that everyone knew what the other party wanted to do, there was no need to be hypocritical.

Duffy was not angry. He just smiled and said, "We are not doing well enough about advertising. But I believe that Mr. Davies will not care about it, right? As long as Mr. Davies goes to the Martial Conference and shows your strength at the conference, you can easily resolve this negative news."

After speaking, Duffy took out an invitation letter from his pocket.

"This is an invitation letter for the Martial Conference. I hope that Mr. Davies can participate in this event, so that everyone in C Country Martial Circle can see how great Mr. Davies is."

Duffy ran his inner force on his fingertips. Then, he flickered the invitation letter towards Casey.

Grandmaster had already had the ability to kill people with a leaf. This invitation letter was harder than leaves. After Duffy's shot, the invitation letter instantly became a killing weapon and quickly flew towards Casey.

Everyone in the living room was shocked when they saw this. They only felt a powerful aura appear, and immediately after that, the invitation letter had flown in front of Casey.

Casey looked calm. When the invitation letter flew in front of him, he gently lifted one hand, and he used two fingers to clamp the invitation letter. The inner force on the invitation also dissipated in an instant. No one could see that this invitation letter carried the power that could kill people.

When Duffy saw Casey resolve his attack so easily, his eyes were also narrowed. Casey's strength seemed to be more powerful than he thought.

"Sorry. I didn't want to accept your invitation, so just take this invitation back."

After Casey finished saying it, his hand which was holding the invitation letter gently shook the invitation letter back. The speed of the invitation letter was twice as fast as when Duffy threw it to Casey just now. Everyone only saw an afterimage appeared in front of them. Then, Duffy quickly retreated back. After turning around, only then did Duff barely stabilize himself. Besides, the invitation letter also appeared in his hands.

All of these happened so quickly.

Everyone was amazed at the horror of fighting between Grandmasters. If they were in that fight, they were afraid that they would not know how they died just now.

Duffy looked at Casey with a somewhat gloomy face, and said, "Such a grand event! Are you sure you don't participate?"

"Sorry, in my opinion, it is not a grand event." Casey said.

"Why are you so ignorant? My grandfather personally invited you, but you refused. I have never seen such ignorant persons." Ainsley immediately shouted at Casey.

Duffy shook his head, knowing that Casey was not stupid. Casey must have guessed their purpose, so being refused was also expected.

"If this is the case, I won't bother you guys too much. Mr. Davies, if you change your mind, you can go to the Martial Conference at any time. Bye!"

After speaking, Duffy took Ainsley to walk out.

Ainsley glared at Casey when she left. She looked quite angry.

When the two walked outside the Davies House, Ainsley looked upset and said, "Grandpa, that Casey is too arrogant. You personally invited him but he refused you. I think you should directly teach him a lesson. He shouldn't be as powerful as the rumors."

Duffy stopped, turned his head to look at Ainsley, and said, "Ainsley, Casey is terrifying. He's not as simple as you think. I'm not his match at all."

Ainsley immediately widened her eyes and said, "Grandpa, how could you not be that guy's match? I don't think he's anything special. Didn't he just catch the invitation letter that you threw to him and then threw it back to you? ?"

Duffy took a deep breath, and then carefully rolled up the sleeve of the arm which was he had just received the invitation letter.

Ainsley looked down and saw that Duffy's arm was trembling at this time. The veins on the arm already popped out, and more than half of them already turned red. Ainsley was so scared that she exclaimed directly.

...

In the living room, everyone looked at Casey and felt that Casey's rejection of Duffy was a wise choice.

"Buddy, didn't you say that you didn't take those five major Guwu Families seriously at all? Why did you refuse him in the end?" Dick looked at Casey with a smile.

Casey waved to Dick and motioned for him to come.

Dick came over and looked at Casey with some doubts. Casey leaned in Dick's ear and said something.

Dick's eyes widened for an instant, and then he shouted, "What! You want to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle? Refusing the invitation of the five major Guwu Families is just to take the initiative in your own hands?!!!"

The people in the living room who still felt relieved about that incident were stunned immediately. They were just looking at Casey and didn't know what to say.

Chapter 782 We Have to Kill Him at All Costs

"Casey, challenging the entire C Country Martial Circle is not a wise move. You must consider it carefully."

Jordan looked at Casey with some worries.

"Yes, boss, you can't just say this kind of words causally. It's crazy to contend with the entire C Country Martial Circle by yourself." Brady hurriedly echoed.

"Casey, in my opinion, let's tell our master. It is indeed too difficult for you to deal with them alone, and this is the trap of the five major Guwu Families. They just want you to do this." Baron also said seriously.

Casey smiled and looked at the people in the living room. Seeing that they were so worried about him, he explained, "You don't have to worry too much. It's just a gimmick to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle. It's said that these five major families can already represent the strongest power in C Country Martial Circle? So it is still fighting against the five families. The others don't have the strength of the five major families. So they are basically not a concern."

"Buddy, even so, you can't defeat them alone. They have five top Grandmasters, let alone they have other Grandmasters. What's more, there are countless apprentices. How do you fight with them alone?" Dick asked.

Casey shrugged. After getting Cabala, Casey no longer had any fear of Grandmasters. Coupled with XuanJin, he even felt that these Grandmasters were not enough to deal with him.

Even there were the five top Grandmasters and the other masters of the five families, Casey still had the confidence to fight them.

This was the self-confidence brought by absolute strength. Dick and the others didn't know Casey's current level, so they would naturally worry about him.

"Well, that's it. Now I will send someone to spread the news, saying that I want to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle. The venue is set at the place where they hold the Martial Conference. Just accept ten battels every day."

"These five major families belittled me to advertise. If I don't respond, they might really think that I'm a push-over.

Therefore, I have to get the initiative this time. What kind of shit Martial Conference has to listen to me."

When everyone saw that Casey was so firm, they knew that it was useless to persuade him. Casey was not the kind of person who was easy to be impulsive. Since he decided to do this, he must have a certain amount of confidence, so they didn't argue with Casey again.

However, Baron and Dick still felt that it was necessary to tell their master about this matter, so they passed news to their master what was currently happening in B City through special contact methods.

'The head of Davies family will challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle! Accept ten battles every day! All the masters in C Country Martial Circle can participate!' After Duffy left the Davies House, this news spread instantly across the streets of B City at a flying speed.

Everyone was still speculating whether Casey had the guts to participate in the Martial Conference, but Casey directly gave them a shocking response, which stunned everyone.

Casey's intention to challenge C Country Martial Circle was quite obvious. It was clear that he did not take the five major Guwu Families seriously, which made everyone feel that Casey was so arrogant.

Although many people had heard of Casey's deeds and knew that he was really powerful, they still thought Casey was a little reckless.

So when some people admired Casey's courage, there were still many people thinking that Casey was so stupid.

"He actually wants to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle alone! Does Casey really think that no one in C Country Martial Circle can defeat him?"

"Casey is pretty good! But what he did this time is really too reckless. How could he challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle by himself?"

"How stupid he is! If this news is heard by those real masters, Casey will be screwed up."

...

Phonix Restaurant had been long-term contracted by the five major Guwu Families, as their place to settle in B City.

At this time, in the lobby of Phonix Restaurant, the five families gathered to discuss how to force Casey to participate in the Martial Conference.

"Casey is really a coward! He doesn't even dare to participate in the Martial Conference. He is really not afraid of being laughed at."

"Mr. Wong personally invited him, but he refused. It seems that he is really scared."

Sitting on a chair, Duffy was thinking of the fight between him and Casey just now. Casey's strength was beyond his expectations. He was thinking if he and Casey would really fight at that time, how long would he hold on?

When everyone hated Casey's refusal to participate in the Martial Conference, and their plan could not be implemented, one person ran into the lobby and shouted, "Just now, there was news from Davies family that Casey would challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle! The venue is set at the place of our Martial Conference."

Everyone immediately looked at the man, with shocked expressions on their faces.

"What are you talking about? Casey wants to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle? Is he crazy?" Edwin Moss, the head of the Moss family which was one of the five major Guwu Families, asked.

The person hurriedly explained the detailed news to everyone. After listening to it, everyone showed surprise on their faces.

"This brat is really crazy enough. He refused our invitation just now. But he actually wants to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle. This simply doesn't respect us." Edwin said angrily.

"Yeah, Casey thinks that no one can defeat him after he killed the two Grandmasters of the Law family? It's really arrogant!" Rory Jones, the head of the Jones family, echoed.

The head of the Fong family, Payne Fong showed a smile on his face, and then he said, "Everyone, this brat is a little arrogant, but this matter is a good for us."

"The purpose of our Martial Conference is to allow Casey to take actions, and then we can kill him, right? Now he takes the initiative to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle. It doesn't need us to take actions.

Whether he respects us doesn't matter anymore. When he dies, no one will remember him."

Bradford Chan, the head of the Chan family, nodded and said with a smile, "I thought this brat was scared, but I didn't expect that he was going to be crazy.

This is indeed a good thing for us, especially he said that he would accept ten challenges a day. These ten battles are carried out in succession. We can attack him in turn to fight him to death."

Everyone nodded. They all thought that Casey was asking for trouble for himself. Then they couldn't help but sneer.

Duffy also showed a look of expectation on his face, and said, "Since this brat has provided us with a plan to deal with him, we don't have to show mercy to him."

"It doesn't matter whether the Martial Conference is well organized or not. Now the focus is on arranging people to fight with Casey. No matter how powerful he is, he will become a lamb to be slaughtered when his power runs out."

"At that time, even if we have to do some mean things, we have to kill him at all costs!"

Chapter 783 I Won't Be Responsible for Kicking You to Death

Time flew, and the day of the Martial Conference came soon.

But at this time, no one cared about the Martial Conference. The focus of everyone was on Casey. Everyone wanted to see how Casey challenged the whole C Country Martial Circle. Jiujiang Stadium, the venue of the Martial Conference.

At this time, a very large ring had been built in the gymnasium. Considering the destructive power of the masters in Grandmaster Circle, Casey specially found enough hard metal to build the ring, so as to prevent it from being demolished just after a fight.

On the second floor of the gymnasium, there was also a ring, which was made by five great families to hold the Martial Conference.

But at this time, the second floor was empty, and everyone gathered on the first floor, waiting to see Casey's battle. As a very famous commercial gymnasium in B City, the space of Jiujiang Stadium was naturally larger than expected. Only one floor could accommodate nearly 20000 spectators. The first floor of the gymnasium was full of people, and all passageways had been surrounded. Many people who didn't buy tickets want to take the opportunity to sneak in to see Casey fight.

After all, this scene was rare, and everyone didn't want to miss it. People from the five great families had been sitting closest to the ring, waiting for Casey to appear.

Sitting in her seat, Ainsley looked at the people around with expectant expressions, with a trace of disdain on her face.

Although Duffy's arm really shocked her that day, in her heart, Casey was still not qualified to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle.

"I am wondering how far Casey can hold on this time. He regards the masters of the martial arts world of C Country as his opponent. His courage alone is admirable," an audience sitting next to Ainsley said something.

"That's right, I was there when the Davies family held a banquet before. That day, Casey fought against a very powerful master, which gave me a glimpse of Casey's strength. In fact, Casey is very powerful. I feel that even if he can't beat everyone of C Country Martial Circle, he can at least hold on for a long time," another said.

When Ainsley heard the conversation between these two men, she immediately curled her lips and said, "You really underestimate C Country Martial Circle. Casey is indeed a bit powerful, but compared to the entire C Country Martial Circle, he's still a long way off."

"Oh? It seems you are very knowledgeable. Are you also a member of C Country Martial Circle?" the man asked with a smile.

Ainsley immediately raised her head proudly and said, "Actually, I am from the Wong family, the head of the five great families. My grandfather said that I have great talent in martial arts. In a few years, I will be stronger than Casey."

The two people were surprised when they heard what Ainsley said. During this time, they had also heard about the five great families and knew that these five great families were quite powerful, so they did not underestimate Ainsley. Not long after, a figure appeared at the entrance of the gymnasium, and everyone immediately cheered.

Casey stepped on the ground lightly with his toes, and in the blink of an eye, he reached the front of the ring, and with a light leap, he was already on the ring.

"Small trick. This guy doesn't have much abilities except for showing off," Payne, the head of the Fong family, said with disdain.

The remaining few Patriarchs also did not take Casey's tricks seriously. As the heads of the five great families, they had a massive ego. Although Casey had killed Orion, they still didn't think Casey had the strength to beat them. Only Duffy was silent at this time. After experiencing Casey's strength personally that day, he increasingly believed that it was not advisable to fight Casey alone. In his opinion, killing Casey required the cooperation of the heads of the five great families. After falling on the ring, Casey glanced at the audience and said loudly, "Today, I, Casey, set up the ring here to challenge all the masters of C Country Martial Circle. Everyone present today can come on stage to fight with me. As long as I don't fail, I won't refuse anyone's challenge!"

"Welcome all the experts to come and teach me!"

As soon as Casey spoke, many people from the ancient martial arts sect who came here made a contemptuous voice. They hadn't seen Casey fight before, so they all felt that Casey's reputation was boast.

Soon, a brawny man with arms like heavy hammers jumped into the ring, glaring at Casey fiercely, and said with disdain, "You are so weak. How dare you vainly challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle. I am Chase Wong from Hammer Sect, I will test you!"

"I hope your challenge won't end at the beginning!!"

With that, Chase clenched his fists and the muscle strength on his arm exploded, which was particularly striking.

Everyone looked forward to the two people on the ring. Many people thought that a fierce battle would break out between them.

"Chase looks very strong. I feel that he can smash Casey into meat mud once with his hammer. It will be an exciting show." Many ordinary people had this idea at this time. In their cognition, someone who looked robust must be very powerful.

Chase dashed towards Casey and directly hit Casey's face with the hammer.

Casey stared at him, raised his foot, and kicked him out of the ring.

The battle that everyone expected didn't happen. The first person on stage was defeated by Casey easily.

The whole audience suddenly quieted down.

Casey coughed gently and said, "In order to avoid wasting time, people below the Half Step Master should not come up. Otherwise I won't be responsible for kicking you to death."

After seeing Casey's horrible strength, some people of small sects who had vowed to challenge Casey immediately gave up the idea.

Chase who came on the stage just now was an inner force expert at medium stage. However, he was kicked away by Casey. It was conceivable how strong Casey was.

And everyone exclaimed when Casey warned that those masters who had not reach Half Step Master would be killed by him.

After the lesson of the first person, those who wanted to challenge Casey immediately calmed down. After that, none of the people on the stage was weaker than Half Step Master.

But even so, they were still no match for Casey.

On the stand, in a corner, a man wearing a black robe and a hat, whose face was covered, was seriously staring at the battle on the ring.

There was a smell of herbal medicine around the man. The people sitting around him felt a little strange, but they didn't know who he was, so they didn't dare to say anything.

With the end of Casey's battle, the man wrapped in black gave a sneer.

"What a great genius! I even envy your talents. Unfortunately, your time is running out. No matter how talented you are, it's just a bubble."

Chapter 784 Winning Streak

On the first day of challenging C Country Martial Circle, Casey shocked everyone with ten consecutive victories. Those who originally thought that Casey was dicing with death were also deeply aware of the limitations of their vision. They felt that it was impossible for them to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle, so they subconsciously thought that Casey would not do it either. But Casey told them with practical actions that the upper limit of martial arts was not as simple as they thought. People from the five great families had a contemptuous attitude towards Casey before. However, after watching Casey's first day of battle, they all had to start paying attention to this matter. Casey faced two Grandmasters and eight Half Step Masters on the first day. Judging from the strength of the heads of the five great families, it was nothing. But these ten battles of Casey were conducted at the same time. No matter how powerful a person was, his strength would be exhausted. But Casey's strength seemed to flow continuously. After ten battles, he showed no sign of fatigue.

Even the heads of the five great families still thought that they couldn't do this. Realizing the seriousness of the problem, the five great families summoned all the top players in the martial arts world to Phoenix Restaurant that night. They said Casey was too arrogant and did not pay attention to the martial arts practitioners, encouraging them to deal with Casey together. These martial artists were also bloody. After watching Casey's battle for a day and Casey's attitude towards them, with the encouragement of the people of the five great families, they were all excited and vowed to defeat Casey, making Casey understand the meaning of the phrase that there were mountains beyond mountains, some people outside.

This time, almost half of the people in C Country Martial Circle came to B City. The appeal of the five great families was still very strong. The number of masters of Grandmaster Circle alone was very large. Most of them were leaders of various martial arts sects.

Although only few people could reach Grandmaster Circle, in such a large C Country where martial arts had been inherited for thousands of years, there were countless martial arts sects. The number of Grandmasters was still quite large.

So from the second day, all the opponents Casey faced were Grandmasters.

This kind of grand occasion had never appeared in the history of the martial arts world. After all, no one had ever dared to challenge the entire C Country Martial Circle, so the situation of one person playing against many Grandmasters had never appeared.

The pressure on Casey had increased sharply. After all, fighting against a Half Step Master was different from fighting against Grandmasters. Even if Casey's Xuanjin was long-lasting, he couldn't stand fighting with so many experts in a row.

But Casey didn't mean to back down at all. He completely regarded this challenge as a training for himself. Now his strength had reached a very high level. Only by fighting and making his body more perfect in adapting to Xuanjin could he have the opportunity to reach the advanced stage of Xuanjin.

Although he achieved the medium stage of Xuanjin very quickly, he had inner force as the foundation, so he adapted quickly. To achieve the advanced stage of Xuanjin, he had to go through a lot of tempering. It was not as simple as he thought.

Nowadays, nearly half of the people in C Country Martial Circle were gathered in B City. Most of the stadium auditoriums were martial arts practitioners. With such a huge base, there were a few dozen Grandmasters.

It showed how difficult it was to leap from the medium stage of inner force to the advanced stage of inner force.

Xuanjin was much higher than inner force, so it was even more difficult to reach the advanced stage of Xuanjin from the medium stage.

From the second day of the battle, the heads of the five great families began to fight against Casey. They waited until the tenth battle to take the stage. At this time, Casey had consumed a lot of physical energy. With the strength of top masters, they were very likely to kill Casey directly.

But they still underestimated Casey's strength.

The next day, Casey's tenth battle, Payne, the head of the Fong family came to the stage to fight Casey. After a hundred moves, he was directly defeated by Casey.

On the third day, Rory, the head of the Jones family, played against Casey.

Because the previous Grandmasters were a bit weak, Casey was in good condition, and he ended the battle with the Tianxing Blow.

On the fourth day, Edwin, the head of the Moss family, went to the ring to challenge Casey. Because he had already fought with two experts whose strength was not weaker than that of the heads of the five great families, Casey was exhausted by the time of the last battle. He finally had to use Thunder Shocking Blow to win the battle.

At this point, the five great families had thoroughly understood how strong Casey was.

And Casey was unable to hold on after four-day ultra-high-intensity battle, so he announced that the challenge would be suspended for three days, and after three days, he would conduct the last ten battles. Those who wanted to beat him only had the last ten chances.

The lobby of Phonix Restaurant.

The heads of the five great families gathered here.

At this time, the atmosphere in the hall was a bit solemn. After learning about Casey these days, they increasingly felt that it was an imminent thing to kill Casey.

Payne, the head of the Fong family, patted the table angrily, and said, "We should have fought against this kid in a row. Judging from the battle yesterday, he had reached his limit. But we just thought that one of us can beat him. How stupid we are."

"Payne is right. Yesterday I clearly noticed Casey was struggling. If it weren't for the power of his last move, I felt I still had a chance to comeback.

Unfortunately, three of the five of us have been injured. There is no way to exert peak strength at all. Only relying on Duffy and Bradford, we cannot beat Casey," Edwin said helplessly.

Both Duffy and Bradford realized that their strategy was wrong from the beginning.

But it was not their fault. After all, at the beginning, no one knew that Casey would be so horrible. If the five of them went to fight Casey in turn at the beginning, the whole martial arts world would laugh at them for jointly bullying a junior.

After all, it was the fault of pride.

"At this point, we can only fight for the last time. There are three days left. In these three days, you should quickly recover from your injuries. He did not stipulate that those who lose cannot challenge him again. Bradford and I, as the last choice, will fight with him. I hope we can defeat him at that time. At this time, we don't have to think about our pride," Duffy said.

"But even so, we may still not be able to completely defeat Casey. Yesterday Casey played against three masters with the same strength as ours. Now three of them are injured and their combat effectiveness is greatly reduced. I am afraid that the situation is not as good as yesterday." Bradford said with some worry.

Duffy also knew that the current situation was not optimistic, but now they had no other way but to fight. Just as everyone was sighing, a man wearing a black robe with his head covered by a hat on the robe appeared in the hall.

"Don't be too pessimistic, I can help you get rid of Casey."

Chapter 785 A Man in Black Robe

Duffy and the other four people turned their heads and looked at the door. After seeing the man in black robe, they showed a suspicious look.

"Who are you?" Duffy stared at the man and asked.

The man in black robe walked in and said, "It doesn't matter who I am. The important thing is that I can help you get rid of Casey."

"Oh? Why should we trust you? Why are you helping us?" Duffy asked.

"The reason is very simple. I also want to kill Casey. I think it is a valid reason. It is enough for us to cooperate," the man in black robe said unhurriedly.

"Our five great families have joined forces, but we are still unable to beat him. You are only one person. Why should we believe that you can help us kill Casey?" Duffy asked.

The black-robed man smiled, then took out a small bottle from his clothes and said, "Of course I can't get rid of that kid, so I will come to you to cooperate."

"What I have in this bottle is a kind of pill that can enhance human strength. You must have heard of the Kaiyang Heqi Pill. The pill in my hand has the same effect as the Kaiyang Heqi Pill, but it has no side effects."

Duffy and the other four people instantly fixed their gazes on the bottle in the hands of the man in black robe.

They naturally knew the reputation of Kaiyang Heqi Pill. This pill, which had the effect of Kaiyang Heqi pill but had no side effects of Kaiyang Heqi Pill, was a good thing that everyone pursued.

Among the six Guwu Families, only the Law family had such things as Kaiyang Heqi Pill, which was enough to show that this kind of pill was scarce.

"I can give each of you a pill. Then it should be easy for you to kill Casey, right?" the man in black robe continued speaking.

Duffy and others were shocked in an instant. This pill was always in demand, but now the man in black robe actually said that he would give each of them one, which naturally surprised them. "Do not fool us. The pill you mentioned is originally a treasure among the treasures. It is even harder to find one. You actually want to give each of us one. Do you think it is this way? Is the pill a jelly bean? I think you were sent by Casey to fool us," Payne said, staring at the man in black robe coldly and said. "That's right, this kind of pill is hard to find. How can we believe that the pill you gave us is genuine? If it is a poison, wouldn't we have to suffer," Rory also said.

The man in black robe didn't panic at all. After laughing twice, he said, "This kind of pill may be really hard to find for you, but to me, it is really like jelly beans."

"Who are you fooling? Why should we believe what you said," Payne said again.

"Because I am from Valley of Medicine God."

As the man in black robe said, he took out a wooden token from his clothes, and there was a word "medicine" written on it, and the whole wooden token exuded the scent of herbal medicine.

When hearing the words of the black-robed man, Duffy and others widened in astonishment at the token in his hand.

In a bar in B City called Golden Bar.

Casey was sitting in front of the bar counter with Conor drinking.

After four days of fighting, Casey felt exhausted physically and mentally, so he came to the bar to have a drink and relax.

Conor looked at the young men and women dancing on the dance floor not far away, with emotion on his face.

"Before I was just a pancake vendor.

Who could know that I would take over the underground world of B City now?"

Conor said with emotion.

No matter where it was, the existence of underground forces would not be scarce. Conor followed Casey to B City and naturally continued to do his job.

In the past, Conor was emperor of the underground world in J City. Now it was not difficult for Casey, the head of the Davies family, to help Conor dominate the underground world in B City.

"Or, organize your staff and open a pancake shop. I believe that with your abilities, it won't be a difficult problem to open a chain store across the country in one year. Those who will follow you in the future can also sell pancakes, isn't it better than living in fighting now?"

Casey said with a smile.

Conor smiled after hearing what Casey said, and said, "Actually, I have had this idea, but fighting and killing will not end because of my withdrawal. There will always be new people to fight and kill.

The nature of this society will not change because I sell pancakes. What I'm doing now will help you to a certain extent. If I go to sell pancakes, it will be a competition with you. I remember that there is a chain restaurant under the Davies family, and one of its specialties is pancakes. In business, I definitely can't be better than the Davies family." Casey also smiled knowingly. Although he and Conor were just joking, there had indeed been too many changes between them in the past two years, which made people sigh with emotion. Casey finished his glass of wine and said, "Let's go, my wife and Sherry are still waiting for me. If it's too late, I might have to be scolded again."

Conor laughed and said, "Who would have thought that Casey, who has never been afraid of even the five great families working together, is a man who is afraid of his wife?"

Casey glared at him and said, "What do you know about it? It is because I love my wife."

After speaking, he walked out towards the outside.

Conor hurriedly followed and didn't pay for the wine, because Golden Bar was under the name of the Davies family. They came here to drink, and no one dared to come over and ask them for money.

Outside the bar, Casey turned and walked in the direction of the Davies Mansion.

Conor followed him and lit a cigarette. Casey immediately said, "Stay away from me. Sherry is so young. Smoke is bad for her. Don't make the smell of smoke still cling to my clothes."

Conor smiled when he heard Casey's words, and directly snuffed out the cigarette in his hand.

When the two came to an alley, Conor suddenly stopped.

Casey was a little strange, turned to look at him, and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Did you hear a cry inside?" Conor asked.

Casey looked into the alley and listened carefully. He did hear some messy shouts.

The two looked at each other, and then both walked into the alley.

After passing the corner of the alley, they saw that in the dead end, a few tall men were pushing a little girl in the corner.

The men were drunk, with alcohol on their breath, staggering drunkenly to their feet.

The little girl was scared, holding a wine bottle in her hand, waving at the men.

Both Casey and Conor were a little surprised after seeing the little girl, because the little girl stuck in a dead end was the granddaughter of Duffy, Ainsley.

Chapter 786 Ainsley

"Go away. Listen, my grandfather is the head of the Wong family, the best one among five great families. If you dare to hurt me, my grandfather will not let you go!" Ainsley shouted at the men with a flustered look.

The men all sneered and didn't believe Ainsley's words at all.

They were also from the Warrior Circle. They came from some little sects. They drank a lot of wine at that time and when they came out, they happened to see Ainsley. They were slaving after her look and brought her to this dead end.

"If your grandfather is the head of the Wong family, I would be the head of the Chan family. Don't lie to us. Will the granddaughter of the Wong family have no protection?"

"Little girl, don't be afraid, we are not bad guys. As long as you are obedient, we will not hurt you, and will make you feel good enough, okay?"

"Hey, sure enough, women in secular society are beautiful. Such a small girl is so glamour. There is no such a beauty in the deep mountains."

...

Seeing that these people didn't believe her at all, Ainsley was anxious, only despair was left in her heart.

Casey and Conor watched this scene. If the person being forced into the corner was a girl they didn't know, they had already taken action to beat up these rogues.

But Ainsley's words made them hesitate.

"Help her or not?" Conor asked Casey.

"How do you think?" Casey asked in reply.

"In my opinion, leave her alone.

Although she is young, she is from the Wong family after all. People from the Wong family are trying to kill you. She may harm you after you save her. Why invite trouble to yourself," Conor said. Casey smiled and said, "Maybe she will give up the idea of killing me after I save her."

After speaking, Casey walked towards the men.

At present, he and the five great families were as as incompatible as fire and water, and this girl ridiculed himself for being ugly last time, it was not the reason Casey sat idly by.

He had his principles. If Duffy was the one in trouble today, he might leave without even looking. But Ainsley is just a little girl who was ignorant of worldly affairs. She was too young and naive. When Casey saw her, the first thing he thought of was that she was only a minor child. As for the grievances with the Wong family, it was not caused by Ainsley, and Casey didn't need to visit his anger to a child.

Ainsley was in despair. At this moment, Casey appeared behind those men, and Ainsley was stunned.

At that time, she prayed in her heart. She hoped that her grandfather would suddenly appear and save her. She hoped that some chivalrous people would appear to help her escape this disaster.

She never thought that the person who appeared would be Casey.

Casey stretched out his hand, patted one of those men on the shoulder, and said, "She's still just a child. Isn't it a bit brutal of you to do this?"

The man turned his head and glanced at Casey. Because he had drunk, he didn't realize who the person in front of him was for a while, and he cursed directly, "Who the hell are you? Don't be nosy. Get out of here!"

Several other people also looked towards Casey, all with disdain on their faces.

"How dare you dampen our spirits! Guys, let's knock out this kid before playing with this little girl."

Those men didn't take Casey seriously. Although they were just from a small sect, they were warriors. In this secular society, there were few people could smother them.

Casey curled his mouth, pinched a person's arm directly, and broke one of his arms.

Others were shocked when they saw this, and they wanted to subdue Casey together.

Casey made a quick and clean shot.

Wimps from small sect were unable to pose a threat to him.

In just a few blinks, those people all fell to the ground and wailed.

After being beaten, those men also became sober. At this time, they looked at Casey and suddenly realized that this person was Casey who had won the battle for four days in a row!

"Casey! It's Casey! Are you blind? How can you not recognize Casey!"

"How did you have the brass to blame us? Obviously, you scolded him first!"

Casey felt that these people were a little noisy, and directly gave them a kick, causing them to faint on the spot.

Ainsley watched Casey help her knock out these guys, and she was stunned. Her grandfather kept telling her that Casey was an excrescence, an enemy of the Wong family, and a heinous villain, so he must be killed. But now it was this heinous villain who saved her from a bunch of bastards, which completely overturned her imagination..

She stared at Casey for a while, and then slowly said, "Did you save me to catch me and threaten my grandpa? If this is the case, I will commit suicide in front of you now, and I will not let you succeed."

Hearing Ainsley's words, Casey was a little bit dumbfounded. He didn't expect that this little girl was young and her mind was complicated.

"Can't you think about something normal? You are just a young girl. Go home and stop wandering around. If you encounter this kind of thing again, no one will help you anymore."

Casey spoke to Ainsley, then turned and walked out of the alley.

Conor kept watching. After seeing Casey coming over, he smiled and said, "I said that even if you saved her, she wouldn't necessarily be grateful to you in her heart. See, she thinks you have a bad intention to save her."

Casey didn't speak, and continued to walk outside.

Ainsley stared at Casey's back, then gritted her teeth and quickly followed.

"You...can you tell me why saved me? I'm obviously an enemy with you, but you still help me. Didn't you trouble yourself by doing this?" Ainsley shouted from behind.

Casey stopped, turned to look at Ainsley, and said, "You are just a child. Why are you my enemy? The matter between me and your grandpa has nothing to do with you. Hurry up and take a taxi and go home. Don't be outside alone."

When Ainsley heard Casey's words, she felt uneasy in her heart.

She watched Casey continue to walk towards the front, didn't stop, and continued to follow.

Seeing that Ainsley had been following him, Casey felt a little strange, and said, "What are you doing? Aren't you afraid that I will change my mind and catch you?"

"I don't think you are that kind of person, and... I have something to tell you."

Ainsley lowered her head to play with her fingers, guilty conscience in her big eyes.

Chapter 787 Casey's Attitude

Among a small noodle restaurant.

Casey, Conor and Ainsley sat down at a table.

The waiter brought a bowl of hot noodles to each of them. There was a layer of coriander and a few pieces of minced meat floating on the noodles.

"Didn't it say that this is beef noodles? Why are there noodles but no beef?"

Ainsley asked curiously.

She grew up in the Wong family and didn't have much contact with the outside world. Naturally, she had never eaten at a noodle restaurant like this one. Just now she saw the picture on the sign outside. It looked very appetizing and she almost salivated. But now when she saw the noodles, her smiling face was full of confusion.

Casey and Conor looked at each other with a smile on their faces, and felt that this girl was indeed too naive.

"Don't you know what pictures are for reference only?" Conor asked.

"I know. But if he can't make the noodles as shown in the picture, he should not use that picture to publicize. Isn't that a lie?" Ainsley was still serious. Casey smiled and said, "Actually, it is difficult for the boss. There is a rule for making beef noodles. He can only use beef from one cow a year. He sells so many bowls of noodles a day, so he can only put little beef in each bowl."

Ainsley nodded and said, "It turns out that this is the case. Why can he only use beef from one cow a year? Is it because killing more cows is too cruel?"

Casey nodded when he saw that the little girl was so naive.

"Stop thinking about beef. Tell me what you want to say to me," Casey said.

Ainsley immediately put down the chopsticks in her hand, looked at Casey with a shame on her face, and said, "Actually, I ran out by myself today, and the reason why I was harassed by those people was because I have been following you. You entered the bar and I didn't dare to go in, so I kept waiting outside, and I ran into those nasty guys."

Casey looked strange and asked, "What were you following me for?"

The shame on Ainsley's face was deeper, and after hesitating for a while, she said, "Stalk you... and... kill you."

Hearing Ainsley's words, Casey and Conor immediately showed an expression of astonishment, and then Conor burst into laughter.

Ainsley blushed immediately when she saw Conor laughing, then she gave him a stern look and said, "What are you laughing at? Is what I said funny?"

"No no, you go on, I won't laugh anymore," Conor said quickly.

Casey also wanted to laugh, but he held back in the end.

"Then why did you want kill me?" Casey asked.

"Because you are grandpa's enemy. Grandpa said that you are a heinous person and will pose a very big threat to the Wong family. If you are not be killed, grandpa can't even sleep well. Now Grandpa and others are very anxious about it. I wanted to share some for grandpa, so I came up with this idea," Ainsley said.

Casey smiled. He didn't expect this girl was so considerate, but she was too naive.

"But I have given up this idea, because I suddenly feel that you are not a heinous person as grandpa said. Otherwise, you wouldn't save me," Ainsley added quickly.

"So I want to know why you helped me. Aren't we enemies now? You saved me. Didn't it mean helping your enemies?" Ainsley asked the question in her heart. Casey stared at her and said, "You also said, I am your grandpa's enemy, not your enemy. You are just a naive kid, you shouldn't be involved in this kind of thing. Yes, and... even if I saved you, you won't be able to cause any trouble to me."

Ainsley thought about what Casey said. After hearing his last sentence, she was a little unconvinced and said, "Who said I won't be able to affect you? Don't underestimate me, I am very strong."

"Since you are so strong, why can't you beat up a few hooligans?" Casey asked with a smile.

"Then...that's an accident. Well, don't think you can look down on me as you saved me. My strength can be out of your imagination." Ainsley stared at Casey, trying to make herself look more powerful.

Casey didn't speak, but in his heart he felt that Duffy's education method was very problematic.

It could be seen from Ainsley's innocence that she must have received too much protection since she was a child, just like Lily. But now Duffy had brought Ainsley to B City to experience the struggle between people. He must be trying to train her.

This approach was like spoiling things by excessive enthusiasm, and for Ainsley, it was not a good thing.

It was like parents preventing their children from falling in love before college, but when the children went to college, parents quickly urge them to get into a relationship.

If this were not the case, Ainsley would probably not have the idea of coming and killing Casey alone in order to help her grandpa.

"But anyway, I still want to thank you, you are not as damning as I imagined. After I go back, I will persuade grandpa not to be obsessed with killing you."

Ainsley continued.

Casey reached out and touched Ainsley's head and said, "Don't be naive, silly girl. Your grandpa will never sleep well before killing me. Although there is no hatred between me and him, the world between adults is so complicated. Everyone has their own purpose. At this time, there is no good and bad."

Ainsley was stunned. She didn't think

Casey's words were shocking, but the moment Casey touched her head made her feel a pure concern.

Since childhood, no one had ever touched her head like this.

"Don't be stunned. Eat quickly, it will be cold later. I will let him take you back to your place after eating," Casey said.

Ainsley nodded, bowed her head and started to eat noodles. Although there was little beef in the noodles, it tasted good.

Conor stared at Ainsley, his heart full of emotion. Someone like him who entered the society in his teens had never been so naive.

Although Ainsley was a member of the Wong family, her innocence would not be changed.

At the same time, he felt pity. It was a pity that Casey would definitely not let Duffy go for what the Wong family did.

He didn't know that how this little girl would think when Casey killed Duffy.

Shaking his head helplessly, Conor stopped thinking about it, but smiled and asked Ainsley, "By the way, don't you want to kill Casey, can you tell me how you're going to kill Casey?"

When Ainsley heard Conor's question, she blushed again, and then said angrily, "By honey-trap, OK?"

Both Conor and Casey laughed when they heard it.

Chapter 788 I Do It for Her Goods

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

Today was the last day Casey challenged the C Country Martial Circle.

In these three days, the five great families had made all-out preparations and were very confident that Casey would die in today's battle.

Early in the morning, Jiujiang Stadium was packed, with countless spectators crowded in the gymnasium, looking forward to Casey's final day of battle. People from the five great families were sitting at the place closest to the ring. Duffy, Edwin, Rory, Payne and Bradford were all confident at this time. They were completely different from the way they were anxious about Casey's strength.

At this time, there was an extra man surrounded by black robes around them. His appearance made a large area around them look a little gloomy.

Ainsley sat next to Duffy, her face full of hesitation. After a long time, she said to Duffy, "Grandpa, why don't we just stop messing with Casey? I have learned about Casey's deeds during this period of time. I don't feel like he is a heinous person. I heard that he was willing to live with his parents-in-law for his wife for several years. Even if he was looked down upon by others, he never complained. Such a person wouldn't do anything bad to us, right?"

When Duffy heard Ainsley's words, his look suddenly darkened, and he said, "You are only a little girl, and you don't understand how dangerous people are. He can treat his wife well, but that doesn't mean that he can treat us well. His existence is a big threat to our five families, so he must be eliminated."

"But, he didn't do anything bad to us either," Ainsley said.

"He killed the two masters of the Law family and caused the Law family to decline. Isn't that enough?" Duffy said.

"But as far as I know, the grievance between Casey and the Law family caused by the Law family. Casey did nothing. Orion from the Law family tried to kill him. He couldn't let others attack him at will." Ainsley refuted Duffy based on the information she had learned in the past few days.

Duffy didn't know how to answer Ainsley for a while.

After pondering for a long time, Duffy said to Ainsley earnestly, "Ainsley, you are still young. Don't be deceived by these appearances. Casey is the apprentice of Bland, a villain. No one who has anything to do with Bland is good, and his talent is terrifying. If he is allowed to grow up, we will lose our status as the five top families in the future, so we must eradicate him as soon as possible."

Ainsley immediately lowered her head, with a hint of disappointment in her eyes, and murmured, "After all, Casey has done nothing wrong, but because he is a potential threat, he must be killed. From beginning to end, we are all making trouble for him, and he is just being forced to resist."

When Duffy heard Ainsley's words, he suddenly became a little frustrated. One was because he found that Ainsley was right. From the beginning to the end, Casey hadn't hurt them at all. They had come to trouble him on their own initiative.

The other was because his own granddaughter started to condemn him, which made him uncomfortable.

"What do you know about it? Fox, take her back to Phoenix Restaurant, it's not good for her to participate in things here." Duffy turned his head and glanced at a middle-aged man beside him.

The man nodded immediately, grabbed Ainsley's arm, and walked toward the outside of the stadium.

Bradford, who was sitting next to Duffy, gave Duffy a smile and said, "Ainsley is still too young to understand the rules of the society."

Duffy nodded and said, "When she grows up, she will understand it. Now I do all this for her good."

"Our preparations today are adequate, and Casey will definitely be killed by us," Bradford said.

Duffy nodded, and then his gaze fell on the man in black robe, with a touch of peace in his eyes.

The man was hiding in the black robe, and no one could see his expression. At this moment, there was a joking smile on his face, and no one knew what he was thinking.

Not long after, Casey appeared in the gymnasium. After entering the ring, there was a burst of enthusiastic cheers in the gymnasium.

"Damn, let this kid be proud for a while. After today, he won't have the chance to be so proud again." Payne, the head of the Fong family snorted coldly.

Casey scanned the audience, his gaze finally fell on the five great families. He had anticipated that the five great families would be fully prepared for today, but he was not worried. No matter what the five great families did against him, he would keep calm. When his gaze fell on the man in black robe, he hesitated a bit. If he remembered correctly, in the previous few days, there was no such person in the five great families.

This man in black robe gave him a very gloomy feeling, like a poisonous snake, which would always catch people off guard and give them a fatal blow.

Without paying too much attention to this man in black robe, Casey announced that today's challenge had officially begun after getting ready, and invited all the masters to compete with him on stage.

Soon, there was a majestic Grandmaster who came up and began to fight Casey.

The masters who came to challenge Casey today were carefully selected by the five great families. They recruited some of the most powerful masters at the Grandmaster Circle to deflate Casey.

So from the first battle, Casey felt a certain amount of pressure.

However, the stronger the opponent was, the more excited Casey was.

People could only break through themselves when facing challenges. If only facing some weak people, Casey's strength would not only not improve, but was also likely to decline..

Although the opponents in the previous few battles were strong, they were still weaker than the heads of the five great families, so Casey still easily won the first five battles.

In the sixth battle, Payne, who had already lost to Casey, took the stage again, causing an uproar in the audience.

"If I remember correctly, you have lost to me once. Do you want to lose again?"

Casey said, looking at Payne, who was opposite to him.

Payne sneered and said, "Since I dare to come here the second time, it means that I have the confidence to win. You have not stipulated that those who lose can't challenge you for the second time, right?"

Casey curled his lips and said, "Then you can only lose a second time."

Payne sneered, then took out a pill from his clothes and put it into his mouth.

"Casey, tell you, today is your death date, even if you have great abilities, it is impossible to continue to win!"

Casey's eyes narrowed, a sense of anxiety arose his heart.

Immediately afterwards, Payne's entire face began to turn red, and the aura of his whole person quickly rose, directly surpassing his previous peak state.

Chapter 789 You Four Can Come on Together

"Kaiyang Heqi Pill?" Casey couldn't help asking when seeing Payne's changes.

Payne laughed, "This pill is much more powerful than Kaiyang Heqi Pill. Casey, just go to the hell!"

After speaking, Payne quickly rushed towards Casey, waving his punch which carried so much power. He was about to directly smash on Casey's head.

Casey narrowed his eyes. The effect of this medicine seemed to be better than Kaiyang Heqi Pill. Now Payne's aura had surpassed Maynard who had taken Kaiyang Heqi Pill.

Casey didn't take it lightly. He immediately ran XuanJin in his body. With a full blow, he resisted Payne's punch.

The collision between the two of them caused a small wind vortex directly above the ring. After it dissipated to the surroundings, the clothes of many people present were blown to the air. Casey underestimated the power of Payne's punch. After resisting Payne's punch, Casey stepped back several steps before unloading the rest power of that punch.

Payne didn't expect the effect of this pill to be so great. He was extremely excited. There was no more fear in his eyes when he looked at Casey.

"Casey, I lost to you once, so what? This time, I'm here to kick your ass. Your winning streak will be ended in my hands. I'll kill you!"

Casey snorted coldly, "It's nothing more than some external force. If you think you can beat me this way, you will be too naive."

After speaking, Casey rushed out with a stride, while running XuanJin in his body. Then he punched on Payne's chest.

"Tianxing Blow!"

Payne immediately resisted. The battle between the them broke out instantly. After taking that pill, Payne's strength had reached the peak of Grandmaster Circle, basically the same as Casey's, who had reached medium stage of XuanJin. Their battle was naturally wonderful. Everyone present all exclaimed again and again.

"Unexpectedly, the human body can reach such a limit. Now it seems that those world champions are nothing more than that."

"It's really amazing. It's my first time to see such a wonderful fight. I really have no regrets to come to B City this time."

"This is only the sixth battle! But it actually appeared such a strong person. I don't know if Casey can survive today's ten battles."

When Duffy and the other three saw Payne's power, they all showed satisfaction. At the same time, they had absolute confidence in today's results. Now each of them had a pill which could increase their strength. Even if Casey could defeat Payne, there were four people waiting for Casey, so today Casey had no chance of surviving. Duffy turned his head and glanced at the black-robed man. That man also showed a hint of satisfaction on his face. There were two kinds of people in this world who you couldn't provoke. One was the Grandmaster who had superb strength and had reached the realm beyond the reach of ordinary people, and the other was the persons who could refine all kinds of pills and medicine.

Because you never knew what kind of pill this kind of person carried with themselves. Sometimes, a small pill was enough to change the outcome of a battle.

The battle progressed to the heat. Although Payne's power surprised Casey, the effect which this pill could maintain was not as good as XuanJin after all.

Seeing that he couldn't solve Casey, Payne was also a little anxious, so that he made many mistakes in his moves. "Damn it! How can this brat's power last so long? It's unscientific!" Payne cursed secretly.

Casey said with a smile, "The existence of inner force is not scientific, either. It's time for you to go down."

After speaking, Casey quickly used the moves and struck at Payne.

"Thunder Shocking Blow!"

This was Casey's strongest blow currently.

When Payne saw this, his face changed. But it was too late that he realized his made some mistakes. He could only watch Casey's punch hit towards him.

With a scream, Payne fell directly down the ring. A large mouthful of blood came out from his mouth.

He stared at Casey, with a hint of unwillingness in his eyes. He thought that his strength increased after taking the pill and then he would surely defeat Casey. But Casey once again proved that even if he used external force, he was still not Casey's match.

Casey stared at Payne indifferently, and then said, "The five major families are nothing but this. Even you took the medicine, you still don't deserve to be my match."

Payne gritted his teeth and said with resentment, "Get over yourself! I have already felt that you have used all your strength just now. This also shows that your limit is just it. You will have four more battles next. Your matches will be the other four heads of the five major families. Each of them has a pill like this in their hands. Even if you defeat me, it doesn't mean that you can survive in the next four battles!"

Casey frowned immediately and glanced at Duffy. He saw that the other four people were all staring at him calmly and didn't not worry about Payne's defeat.

Casey didn't expect that each of them had this kind of pill. Wasn't it said that this kind of medicine was extremely precious?

Soon, Rory, the head of the Jones family, jumped onto the ring and stood in front of Casey.

He looked at Casey with a sneer, and then said, "Casey, you should have heard what Mr. Payne said just now. We all have the kind of pill that he took. No matter how strong you are, and even if you can win one or two of us, I don't believe you can win five battles in a row."

Casey squinted his eyes. At this moment, he already felt that the strength in his body was somewhat empty. If each of them really had the pill, he might really not be able to hold it to the end. Although he also had a pill to increase strength and had Cabala to increase strength, the duration of this method was very short. It could last one battle at most. After that, he would fall into a weak state and could only be beaten by others.

Obviously, with his current situation, he was afraid that he had to use Cabala after this battle.

"Brat, let's get started. Even if I lose to you, it doesn't matter. What's important is that you will definitely die in the hands of the people behind me!" Rory put on a fighting posture.

"Wait a minute." Casey said.

Rory was stunned for a moment, wondering what Casey wanted to do.

Casey groaned for a moment, then looked at the heads of the five major families. His eyes fell on Duffy, Bradford and Edwin.

"I don't want to waste my time. You guys can come on together. This will be my last battle today."

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone was shocked!

Chapter 790 Bring It On

"I shouldn't have heard it wrong, should I? Casey actually let the heads of the other four major families attack him together? Is he crazy!"

"Holy shit! Casey is so arrogant now? It took him so long to defeat Mr. Payne just now. Besides, it seemed that he didn't win easily. Now he wants to fight with the other four at the same time?"

"Maybe he knows that he will definitely lose, so he just let them attack him together, so that he will not be so embarrassed when he loses? After all, there are four people fighting against him. So even if he loses, it is nothing."

"Anyway, I admire Casey's courage. But if he does so, won't he be afraid of being beaten to death by them?"

...

Everyone started to talk about Casey's decision. They all felt a little incredible. Duffy and the others were also a little surprised. Their plan was to consume Casey one by one, but they didn't expect Casey to let them go on stage together.

Did this brat know that he was going to die today, so he planned to give up? Bradford and Edwin both turned their heads to look at Duffy, as if asking for Duffy's opinions.

"Mr. Duff, what shall we do now?" Bradford asked.

Duffy looked thoughtful. After a long time, he stood up and said, "Since he made this request, we will satisfy him. Now that the matter has reached this point, whether we can win decently is not important anymore. Even if others think it's us who bully him, we have to kill him today."

"You guys have already seen his strength. We can't judge him by his age at all. Since he gave us this opportunity, we don't need to show any mercy to him."

After speaking, Duffy walked towards the ring.

Both Bradford and Edwin nodded, and followed Duffy towards the ring.

Compared with the reputation, the most important thing was to solve Casey. The three of them went onto the ring together. The four top Grandmasters stood in a row, all looking at Casey with indifference.

After hearing Casey's decision, everyone in Davies family who was sitting on the other side of audience was anxious. Although they all knew that Casey's strength should not be underestimated, they were really shocked after hearing that Casey wanted to challenge four top Grandmasters together at once.

"What is Casey doing! Does he want to die? They are top Grandmasters! Even the god will not be able to resist them." Dick said anxiously.

"We must find a way to stop him. Or just stop the battle today! Challenging the four people is almost equivalent to committing suicide." Brady also said. Conor shook his head and said, "It's useless. No one can change the decision that guy made. Moreover, he is not the kind of person who will be impulsive casually. He must have his own ideas when he decided it. They are already on the ring. It is impossible to stop it. Let's just watch how Casey will deal with it."

Several people were anxious and helpless. But they had no ways. They could only watch how Casey was going to deal with the heads of these four major families.

The reason why Casey did this was indeed due to certain considerations. Now he knew that each of them had a pill that could increase their strength. If he continued to fight them one after another, he could only insist on one more battle at most. After using Cabala, he definitely couldn't continue to deal with the others.

So it would better to let them come on together. Casey planned to use Cabala at the critical moment to increase his strength to the strongest. According to his understanding of this Cabala, once it was used, let alone four top Grandmasters, even if the four top Grandmasters who took the pill would still not be his matches.

Doing so just saved time.

Of course, only people like Casey who practiced XuanJin and Cabala dared to do this.

Now everyone felt that Casey was asking for trouble. It was just because they didn't know how strong Casey's trump card was.

The black-robed man sitting in the audience watched the heads of the other four major families all come onto the ring. Suddenly, he sneered.

"What a stupid guy! If you fight them one by one, you may still have a chance to survive. But you even let them all go together! I think you can't wait to die."

"The pill I gave them is not fake. If the four of them take the pill and fight with you, even the God can't save you!"

On the ring, Duffy and the other three looked at Casey, with a trace of murderous expression in their eyes.

Casey looked at the four of them and smiled, saying, "Tsk-tusk. I let you guys come on together, but you guys really come up together. Aren't you guys afraid that the reputation of your Guwu Families is ruined?"

Duffy snorted coldly and said, "Killing you is more important than fame."

"Brat, it's you who asked for it. It's too later to regret!" Edwin shouted at Casey.

Casey said with a smile, "I didn't say that I regretted it. Until now, I really know how shameful you guys are."

"Hmph, I really don't know what you think. You actually want to challenge the four of us alone. Do you really feel that you can't live, so you want to die soon?"

Rory said.

"You really think too much. Do you think the four of you can beat me? If so, I can only say that you are too naive." Casey said.

"You are going to die soon, so don't talk nonsenses. The four of us join hands, plus the pills. You can't win. No matter how calm you pretend to be, you can't change the ending." Bradford said.

Casey curled his lips, thinking that these people were really confident in their teamwork. He really looked forward to seeing their reactions after they lost to him.

"Stop talking nonsense. Bring it on! I can't wait to go home and rest." Casey said.

Duffy snorted, "I'm afraid you won't have this chance!"

Then he directly took the pill from his pocket and put it into his mouth.

"Take the pill! Make sure to fight him in the best condition! There must be no more mistakes this time!"

Bradford and the other two didn't hesitate at all. They took out their pills and put them into their mouths.

Almost instantly, on the entire ring, there were four auras rising into the sky.

Everyone present could feel an invisible magnetic field around them, making their breathing feel oppressive.

Seeing that the four of them were so decisive, Casey raised his eyebrows.

But he did not panic. Instead, there was a hint of excitement on his calm face.

If they wanted to fight, just bring it on!

Chapter 791 The Power of Cabala

Casey didn't use Cabala at the beginning. He wanted to see what his state was after he had reached medium stage of XuanJin and what his limit was. After taking the pills, Duffy and the other three directly rushed towards Casey in order to save time. The four of them surrounded Casey.

Casey immediately ran XuanJin and covered his whole body with XuanJin, forming a simple defense.

When fighting against four people at the same time, the most important thing was to withstand everyone's attacks. Casey was only himself, so he could only rely on this method to reduce the damage he would receive.

Facts had proved that the defensive method recorded in Secret Skills was still very effective. Some general attacks would not cause too much damage to Casey at least.

The four of them ran to Casey.

However, Casey was so fast. He used his power to the limit, blocking everyone's attack in an instant, and then he quickly punched to Duffy.

Duffy, who took the pill, reacted not much slower than Casey. He directly punched back. At this time, Bradford's attack had reached Casey's back.

Casey didn't care about it at all.

"Brat, you actually exposed such a fatal point at the beginning. It seems that this is already your limit. Go to the hell!"

Bradford shouted, and then his punch hit Casey on the back.

Bradford's imaginary scene did not appear. He originally thought that Casey would get some minor injuries at least after receiving his punch, and then Casey was panic. However, after Casey suffered his punch, it seemed that nothing happened.

"This is impossible!" Bradford exclaimed.

Although he didn't use his full strength just now, his punch had a very powerful power after he took the pill. It was impossible to have no impact on Casey at all.

Casey turned his head to look at Bradford, grinned, and then said, "Are you tickling me? Can you do more?" Bradford was furious. He didn't expect Casey to dare to humiliate him so much, which made him quite angry.

"I don't believe you can hold on! There are always times when you can't laugh!" The four men fought Casey back and forth. Casey was indeed quite passive. In addition, the four of them all took the pill and their strength was unstoppable. For the first time, Casey felt it tricky. Other people all were worried about Casey. Watching Casey be beaten so miserably, they were not very optimistic about Casey.

"Four people fight one person! These old guys are really shameless. Casey is probably in danger this time."

"He asked for it! He insisted on letting the four of them attack him together. Now he can't beat them! So he can only blame himself."

"Tsk-tusk, Casey, such a genius, is actually so stupid this time. It is a pity! No matter how powerful he is, he could only be remembered by everyone as long as he is alive. Once he dies, everyone will forget him soon."

...

Seeing that Casey was obviously about to be unable to hold on, Baron, Dick and the others were all anxious.

"No! If this goes on, Casey will definitely be beaten to death. We must come onto stage to help him. They can bully Casey together. Then we can come on stage to help." Dick stood up directly.

Baron hurriedly stopped him and said, "Are you crazy? They are all Grandmasters. You can't help him at all."

"But we can't just watch Casey being beaten like this." Dick was anxious.

"We have already notified our master. If I don't count wrongly, he should be able to come over today. Now we can only pin our hopes on master. For other things, we can't do anything at all."

Baron said.

Dick gritted his teeth and came back to his seat. He punched heavily on his thigh, hating that he was too weak to help Casey.

"This brat should have reached the limit. Next, he will be killed by them. Even if he is invincible, he will not be able to escape to be killed after all." The black-robed man looked at the battle on the ring and sneered.

After Casey was beaten by Duffy and Bradford, he quickly backed up a few steps. Then he reached out his hand to wipe the blood from the corner of his mouth.

In the battle just now, he was already slightly injured. Sure enough, he couldn't deal with the four people when he was at the normal state of medium stage of XuanJin.

"Casey, you can't win today. Just give up! This is your only choice." Duffy stared at Casey and said, feeling that this matter would be quickly over today. Casey smiled faintly. Then he said, "Do you think this is my limit? Don't think that only you guys have a way to improve the strength!"

After finishing speaking, Casey directly used Cabala. He only felt that XuanJin in his body began to run. The muscles of his whole body began to absorb the energy which XuanJin exploded. For a while, Casey's skin turned red as if he had stay in boiling water for a long time. An aura of rushing into the sky instantly enveloped the entire gymnasium. The gymnasium was an indoor architecture, so there was no wind blowing in at all. However, at this time, everyone's clothes were floating with the airflow. This was wind whirlpool which Casey's aura condensed!

Casey's aura completely surpassed the sum of Duffy and the other three. The four of them couldn't open their eyes. Casey only felt like there was an energy reactor in his body, with endless power rushing towards him everywhere.

Casey knew that Cabala could greatly improve the strength, but he didn't expect that Cabala would be so terrifying. He felt that his body was about to burst because of the power. Duffy and the other three looked at Casey dumbfoundedly. The changes in Casey's body were already a bit scary at this time. They would never expect that Casey would have such a change at this time.

"What? Is this brat still a human being?" Rory muttered to himself, staring at Casey.

"Could it be that he has already broken through to that realm? Only people at that realm can make these changes at this time!" Duffy was also staring at Casey.

The black-robed man in the audience was expecting Casey to be killed. But seeing Casey's changes, he stood up directly.

"How the hell is this! Has this brat known that stuff?"

Dick and others who were still worried about Casey were all stunned after seeing the changes in Casey's body. Dick looked at Casey for a long time, and then muttered to himself, "Is Casey going to blow himself up?"

Chapter 792: 792 The Phantom

After hearing Dick's words, Baron slapped Dick on his head directly, saying, "What are you talking about? It was caused by the instantaneous explosion of the strength in his body. Even if it burst, it would be the blood vessels at most. "

Dick didn't move, and then he said, "Even so, it is still awesome! How did he do this?"

"I don't know. But it should be that he took some pills to increase the strength, which are the same as the four of them. What's more, the one that Casey ate is even more terrifying than theirs." Baron guessed.

After being shocked, the black-robed man sitting in the distance returned to his seats and murmured, "At this brat's age, no matter how talented he is, he couldn't reach entry level of that circle. Maybe I just think too much. The reason why he can suddenly burst out such terrifying power should be that he has taken a certain strength-enhancing pill, but the effect of this pill is too strong. I am afraid that even if Lord may not be able to make such pills. Where did this brat get this pill?"

For a while, everyone began to speculate why Casey suddenly burst into such a powerful force. Most people thought that Casey took some pills to increase the strength. After all, not everyone knew Cabala.

After Casey felt the surging power in his body, he had an urgent desire to release the power out of his body.

He glanced at Duffy and the other three, then he said with smile, "Now, the battle is officially beginning. I hope you guys can resist my attack!"

As soon as Casey finished speaking, he shot directly towards Duffy and the other three like a cannonball. There was a slight explosive sound in the air because of his fast speed.

Casey's power was almost materialized and swept directly towards the four people. It was the first time for everyone present to see a person's power close to the materialization.

This could no longer be explained by common sense.

"Let's join hands to resist his attack. His power is too strong. I can't handle it alone!" Duffy shouted, and then he quickly gathered all his power into his palm. Bradford and the other two also hurriedly stood behind Duffy and concentrated all their power on Duffy. Casey hit towards Duffy. Duffy tried his best to resist. The collisions between them made the ring which was made of metal immediately shook violently, and some joints of the ring even directly appeared cracks.

After the power in Casey's body was released, he instantly felt refreshed. The feeling that he was about to burst by the power just now disappeared.

However, after Duffy resisted Casey's blow, the power of Casey's body was directly transmitted to Duffy and the other three. Duffy felt the deepest. He directly vomited some blood.

Bradford and the other two were not much better than Duffy. Because they couldn't bear the power of Casey, they all fell directly to the ground.

Casey didn't expect that the power he had just released would be so powerful.

There was a hint of joy on his face.

He was probably truly invincible at Grandmaster Circle now. Even if the enemies took the pill that could increase the strength, they would still not be Casey's match.

"That's it? If so, I'm afraid the four of you will lose terribly today." Casey said with a smile.

Duffy wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, gritted his teeth and said, "Hurry up! He could only break out such a powerful move once. Now his aura has been weakened a lot because of the power of his move. We can't wait anymore. Otherwise, when the effect of the pill is over, we couldn't do anything with him!"

Bradford and the other two endured the pain and stood up from the ground again. They didn't know why they felt a sense of despair when they were looking at Casey in front of them. The four of them didn't hesitate anymore, and once again surrounded Casey.

Casey's strength was indeed weakened a little. But it was only relatively speaking. Even so, Duffy and the other three couldn't defeat Casey casually. The battle on the ring had been raised by a level again than just now. Just now, Casey was beaten by them. However, Casey chased Duffy and the other three to punch them now.

Watching the battle, the enthusiasm of audiences reached an unprecedented peak. The cheers and shouts continued without stopping.

"Baron, I feel that Casey seems to be better than the master." Dick muttered to himself while looking at Casey on the ring.

Baron seemed to be thinking, and then said, "This is hard to say! Have you ever seen master used his all strength?"

Dick shook his head, "No! But now Casey is facing four Grandmasters. Besides, they all have taken pills. This lineup is already considered to be the strongest, right? Even if the master comes, I am afraid that he may not be able to deal with it, right?"

"Not necessarily! You started to learn from the master late. So you don't know some of the master's past deeds. Back then, I saw the master single-handedly fight against six Grandmasters. Moreover, the master even didn't suffer minor injuries after the battle was over. So do you think that who is the stronger between Casey and master?"

Dick immediately widened his eyes after hearing it. He didn't expect that the master was such a terrifying and powerful person in the past. If this was the case, Casey was really not necessarily stronger than the master.

"I once heard the master say that the Grandmaster Circle is not the end of Warrior Circle. Above Grandmaster Circle, there is a higher circle. As for whether the master has reached that circle, no one knows." Baron said.

Dick did not have time to ask what was the circle above Grandmaster Circle, because at this time the battle on the ring had come to an end. Everyone in the audience was quiet. It was not that they didn't want to make a sound. It was that the aura emanating from Casey's body was too terrifying, which made that they couldn't make any sound under that pressure.

On the ring, a powerful cyclone appeared all over Casey's body. Then Casey's aura climbed to the top again.

"Now, I will end this battle with my current strongest blow. Whether or not you can survive depends on your luck!"

Casey yelled aloud. Then his moves changed. He pushed his palm to the front.

"Thunder Shocking Blow!"

Over the gymnasium, the thunder faintly sounded. It was like an illusion, but everyone present seemed to have heard it.

After Casey pushed his palm to the front, a phantom of the palm that was not very obvious but everyone could see appeared in front of Duffy and the other three. Casey's palm did not even touch them, the four of them flew out of the ring like a parabola.

Chapter 793 Besieging

The whole gymnasium fell silent in an instant.

Everyone was so shocked by the scene they saw just now, so that their first reaction was not to exclaim, but to be dumbfounded.

"Did I see special effects just now?"

"Did you see it? I thought it was my own illusion. My God! Has Casey arranged a holographic projection around the ring? Although the phantom just now was a little fuzzy, I'm sure that it definitely appeared."

"How could there be a holographic projection? Even if there was, it would have been broken by the battle."

"Is Casey's strength already so terrifying? He knocked them off the ring without even touching them. It's terrible!"

"Holy crap! After watching Casey's battle, even if you tell me there are gods in this world, I will believe you."

...

"Buddy, can the circle above Grandmaster Circle that the master said can bring its own special effects?" Dick asked Baron.

Baron was also stunned at this time, completely unable to figure out why Casey's attack just now had such an effect.

"Umm, maybe we will know when Casey reaches that circle." Baron said.

"Can Casey reach that circle?" Dick asked.

"Definitely." Baron's eyes suddenly became firm.

On the ring, Casey was also staring at his palm a little surprisingly. He didn't expect that he would release such a terrifying power under the state of using Cabala.

What he didn't expect most was that a looming phantom appeared directly after he pushed his palm to the front. Even he himself did not expect that his attack could have such an effect.

When the strength reached a certain level, it would make such an effect?

This was indeed a bit of a violation of common sense, so it was still a bit hard for Casey to accept it at a time.

Before Casey could continue to think about the effect of the blow he had just made, he felt the feeling of bursting power in his body quickly receding like a tide in the blink of an eye. Instead, it was an unbearable feeling of exhaustion.

Casey had never felt so exhausted. That feeling hit to him, causing him to sit directly on the ground.

In this state, Casey didn't have the slightest strength. It was already his limit to barely sit on the ground. Now, even a child could kill him.

After Duffy and the other three fell under the ring, two of them couldn't move at all. Bradford managed to maintain a trace of consciousness, but his arms kept twitching constantly. It seemed that even if he survived, he would become a useless person.

Only Duffy could barely sit up from the ground. At this time, the corners of his mouth were full of blood, his face was pale. He was dying.

He endured the pain, turned his head to glance at Bradford and the other two who were next to him. Seeing Bradford's eyes still open but he had no ability to move, Duffy felt a little helpless.

He set his gaze on Rory and Edwin again. He saw that the two of them had stopped moving and their face were dreadfully pale. It seemed that the two of them were dying. Duffy's face changed, and then he vomited blood out again because of the anger.

"Rory, Edwin!" Duffy shouted at the two. But he didn't get any response. These two people would never have a chance to give any response again.

Duffy felt extremely sad. He didn't expect the four of them to join forces to deal with Casey, and even each of them took the pill, but they still failed to defeat Casey, and even two of them died in Casey's hands.

At this point, the five major families had been completely defeated.

When Payne saw the situation here, he was also anxious. He hurriedly dragged his badly injured body towards this side. Seeing that Rory and Edwin had already passed away, Bradford was so injured and Duffy was covered in blood, he uttered a mournful cry.

He turned his head to look at Casey on the ring, gritted his teeth and shouted, "Casey, damn it! The three heads of the six major families died in your hands. You are a sinner! You aren't qualified to live in this world!"

When everyone present heard Payne's shout, they immediately understood that Rory and Edwin, who had fallen on the ground, were gone. Suddenly, there was a hint of horror in their hearts. They did not expect that Casey actually killed two Grandmasters directly.

Casey didn't have the mood to deal with them at this time. He just wanted to lie down and had a good sleep.

When Dick heard Payne's shout, he felt so angry. Then he shouted, "Shame on you! You are obviously defeated by Casey. Now you're still accusing him. You four joined forces just for killing Casey. But Casey killed you guys. Now, you actually said Casey was guilty. No wonder my master doesn't like you shit Guwu Family. You guys are too hypocritical!"

All the audience present did not have some extreme thoughts. After watching the battles these days, they had already noticed the hostility of the five major families towards Casey. From the beginning of the promotion of the Martial Conference, they had already known that the five major families came for Casey.

Everyone thought that warriors relied on their strength. In the ring, whether they lost or died, they could be responsible for themselves. So even they lost or died, they couldn't blame others.

Besides, the four of them did not feel shameless when they joined forces.

Now that they had lost, they even accused Casey of killing their men. It was too ridiculous.

"What a shit five major families? You are defeated, but now you are actually still complaining. It is really shameless."

"Unexpectedly, the head of the dignified Guwu Family would say such words! It's so funny."

"They can kill others, but they don't allow others to kill them. Is this the logic of Guwu Family? The reputation of Warrior Circle is ruined by such people!"

...

Hearing everyone starting to accuse him, Payne was a little at a loss. He didn't expect that these lowly people would dare to accuse him.

He even wanted to stand up to argue with those people.

Duffy sighed helplessly, "The matter has already come to this point. The reputation of the five major families can no longer be preserved. Arguing with them will only make their impression of the five major families worse and worse."

Payne understood what Duffy meant, so he could only grit his teeth but had nowhere to vent his anger.

"Then what shall we do now? Our loss is so great! We just give up like this?"

Payne asked.

A vicious look flashed in Duffy's eyes.

He said, "The matter has reached this point. We don't have to care about others. If we can't kill Casey this time, the sacrifice of Maynard, Rory and Edwin will be in vain."

After speaking, he stood up directly, exhausted his last bit of strength, and shouted at the people of the five major families.

"Everyone in the five major families listens to my orders. Now Casey has reached the limit. He can't fight anymore. He killed the three heads of the six major families. He is the enemy of all of us. If we don't kill him today, he will be the disaster of Guwu Family in the future."

"So Casey must die today! You guys are going to attack to him together. Then he has absolutely no chance to survive!"

Chapter 794 The Master Comes

As soon as Duffy finished speaking, the audience was shocked again. Everyone did not expect that Duffy would be shameless to such an extent that he would incite the people of the five major families to besiege Casey when Casey was in weak state.

For a while, everyone began to scold Duffy, but Duffy didn't care about this anymore. The five major families had lost so much to kill Casey. If they couldn't kill Casey today, it would be a huge blow for the five major families.

The people of the five major families were all so furious at this time, especially the people of the Jones family and the Moss family. The death of Edwin and Rory made them unable to maintain their sanity. Now they didn't care if it was right or not. They just wanted to kill Casey.

"Damn Casey! He must pay for the price today!"

A member of the Jones family stood up and screamed hysterically before rushing towards the ring.

Seeing this, many people from the five major families all rushed towards the ring.

"Kill Casey and avenge Mr. Edwin and Mr. Rory!"

"Kill him! We can't let this kind of scourge stay in the world!"

Davies family sitting on the other side suddenly panicked when they saw this. Baron and Dick stood up directly and rushed towards the ring.

Foley, Brady and the others did not hesitate at all, and rushed towards the ring.

"These bastards actually want to take advantage of Casey's perilous state! Shame on them!" Foley yelled.

Everyone in Davies family rushed towards the ring, no matter they practiced inner force or not. They just tried to prevent the five major families from attacking Casey.

The people fought together in an instant. The scene was quite chaotic for a while. However, the strength of Davies family was far too weak compared to the five major families. Just relying on Brady and Baron, there was no way to resist these people from the five major families.

Besides, among the five major families, in addition to the five heads of the five major families, there were other Grandmasters. Once they made a move, Davies family couldn't resist at all.

Everyone was worried. They didn't know how to deal with the people of the five major families. If this continued, Casey would definitely be killed by them.

At this time, Casey had already lost the strength and sat on the ground. He was lying on the ring. Fighting sounds came to his ears, but he was somewhat helpless.

He had heard what Duffy said just now. Although he felt Duffy was shameless, he couldn't do anything in this situation. According to Secret Skills, after he entered a weak state, it would take him several days to recover. Now it was impossible for him to get up from the ground.

Was he really going to die at the hands of the five major families today?

Such a question popped into Casey's mind. Although he knew that the situation was no longer under his control, he was still a little unwilling.

In his cognition, even if he had to die, he could not die in the hands of these despicable and shameless people from the five major families.

People from the five major families were all masters who had practiced martial arts for many years, and many of them were strong. It didn't take long that Brady and others couldn't hold on.

"What should we do? If it continues like this, we definitely can't resist these people." Brady shouted.

Dick was already anxious, and then he shouted, "Damn it! Even if I have to die today, I won't let them hurt Casey!"

"You finally know to fight for your buddy! Good!" Just when everyone was desperate, a voice sound behind them.

Dick was taken aback for a moment. Baron also was a little astonished. Then, both of them showed ecstasy on their faces.

They all turned around and looked behind them. When they saw the old man who stood behind them, they all exclaimed, "Master!"

Bland looked at the two of them with a smile on his face. But he did not help them stop the five major families.

Because at this time, two figures had already rushed into the crowd of the five major families, punching them at a rapid speed.

Baron looked at the two of them, with a burst of joy on his face. Then he said, "It turned out to be Ellis and Hughes. It seems that today's crisis has been resolved."

Everyone present did not think that the situation on the ring would change like this at this time. They were so shocked.

"Ellis and Hughes? Why have I never seen them before?" Dick on the side asked.

"Of course you haven't seen them. These two guys became the master's apprentices long time ago. Now their strengths should have reached Grandmaster Circle. According to my guess, their strength is as the same as the heads of Guwu Family. Oh, it is worth mentioning that the two of them are twins. When fighting together, their cooperation can be said to be so perfect. Their combat effectiveness is quite terrifying." Baron explained.

Dick's eyes widened immediately. He didn't expect that the master would have such powerful apprentices, which made him, the master's most proud disciple, felt somewhat embarrassed.

However, after hearing Baron's explanation, Dick felt relaxed a little. Since the master came with his two apprentices, Casey would not be killed by those people.

The speed of Ellis and Hughes was so fast. In the blink of an eye, they had already solved all the people who had rushed over from the five major families. Even the Grandmasters of the five major families were not spared.

After the rest of people from the five major families saw how powerful Ellis and Hughes were, they all had the idea of shrinking. No one dared to rush forward again.

Casey felt relieved when he heard Baron and Dick shouting out the master. Although the arrival of the master surprised him a bit, he knew that nothing would happen anymore since the master was there. So he closed his eyes comfortably and fell asleep to the utmost.

Seeing that the chaotic settled down because of the sudden appearance of the three people, Duffy's anger rose again.

He originally thought that Casey was bound to die under the chaotic. Who would have expected that the brat would have such good luck? At a critical moment, his reinforcements arrived.

His gaze fell on Bland. Then he gritted his teeth. The reason why the five major families dealt with Casey was largely because of the old guy in front of him.

"Bland, you old asshole! You dare to show up! Why don't you to be a coward for a lifetime?" Duffy shouted.

Bland appeared in front of Duffy in an instant. No one saw how he did it.

"So I have to watch you bully my apprentice and do nothing?"

Chapter 795 Endings

Bland's voice sounded very calm. But after listening to it, others could realize that there was a trace of vague murderous in it, which made them scared.

After Duffy heard Bland's words, he shuddered involuntarily.

Although he scolded Bland as a coward, he knew very well that Bland's strength was not what ordinary people could reach. If the strength of the six major families were at their peak now, he might still dare to scold Bland. But now the six major families had been completely defeated by Casey. He also got badly injured. If Bland took a move, he would only die.

After feeling desperate, Duffy took a deep breath and said, "I didn't expect the six major Guwu Families will fall to the point where it is today. It seems that God doesn't bless us."

Bland chuckled, "Don't push your own stupidity on God. Think about it for yourself. It is all because of your self-righteous decision, isn't it? I had no grudges with you six major families back then, but you guys came to me. Now my apprentice encountered this kind of thing again. You guys failed again! Can you say that it is that God doesn't bless you?"

Upon hearing Bland's questioning, Duffy showed an awkward expression on his face. His lies were exposed in public. It was really him who took the lead that year. At that time, he was also for the six major families. In the final analysis, it was because he felt that if the six major families joined hands, it would not be impossible to cope with Bland.

The current situation was so similar to that year, except that he once again made a self-righteous mistake. He thought that the six major families would join forces again to kill Casey, but he didn't expect Casey to be so powerful. So it turned to be like this.

Over the years, he had been avoiding the real reason for those things that happened back then. He thought that he killed Casey and forced Bland out, and then joined forces to kill Bland. His guilty would disappear. Who knew that only Casey let them use up all their power, let alone deal with Bland?

"Kill me!" Duffy said.

Bland said with a smile, "Duffy, I won't kill you. I will let you live in this world, letting you always clearly remember the damage you caused to the six major families just because of your self-righteousness. You have to carry with the guilt and continue to live. It is a better punishment for you, isn't it?"

Duffy stayed where he was. A sense of frustration rose from the bottom of his heart. If Bland killed him now, he would still have the last trace of dignity. But Bland would not even bother to argue with him. This only showed that Bland had never regarded him as a match. There was no humiliation which was crueler than the contempt.

Duffy had been holding the grudges for so many years. However, in the eyes of the other party, he was not nothing. He, Duffy, was a complete joke!

In the audience, the black-robed man looked at the situation on the ring and cursed secretly, "It's really a bunch of wimps. Even in this way, they can't kill Casey. Now, Casey has a helper. The six major families are really worthy to be called stupid pigs!"

"These so-called representatives of C Country Martial Circle are just a bunch of fools. If I knew it early, I would not waste five top pills in vain."

"Hmph, Casey, you are so lucky this time! But I won't give up killing you. Let's wait and see!"

After muttering a few words to himself, the black-robed man turned and walked out of the gymnasium.

At this point, Casey's challenge to the masters of C Country Martial Circle had come to an end.

Casey fought thirty-seven battles in a row, without losing a single one. The last battle was that he himself fought with four enemies at the same time. With just one move, he killed the heads of the Jones family and the Moss family.

Moreover, even if Duffy and Bradford were still alive, they couldn't practice martial arts anymore.

This battle was so wonderful. Many people posted the video on the Internet. After seeing the faint phantom of the palm in the video, they all said that it was processed by special effects in the later stage.

No one believed that Casey's strength had reached such a point. More people thought that this was a video made by netizens to attract people's attention. Whether the scenes in this video were true or not, only those who were on the scene that day would know.

After the battle, the five major families were notorious because of besieging Casey. C Country Martial Circle no longer regarded the five major families as the example of Warrior Circle.

Everyone despised those five major families.

Duffy, who was lucky enough to survive, was deeply saddened by all the consequences caused by him. Bland was right. Letting him live and watch the five major families decline because of him was the biggest punishment for him. A week passed.

In the Davies House, at Casey's room, Casey slowly opened his eyes. A sense of powerlessness surged to him. After a long time of adapting, he slowly recovered.

Since the battle that day, Casey had been unconscious. If Bland hadn't said that Casey needed a long time to recover because of using his own power too much, Edith would have thought that Casey would pass away again. Gritting his teeth and getting out of the bed, Casey turned his head and looked over. He found Edith lying on one side of the table and sleeping. From between her eyebrows, he could see Edith's fatigue.

As soon as Casey got off the bed, Edith opened her eyes. After seeing Casey awake, the fatigue in her eyes disappeared instantly. She smiled happily.

"You bastard! You finally wake up! Can't you let me not worry about you once?" Edith complained.

Casey said with a smile, "I don't want, either. But I'm easy to cause trouble."

Edith rolled her eyes at him and said, "You lie back quickly! I'll let Jennifer cook you something to eat. You have been in a coma for a week. You must be very hungry now."

Casey felt touched. The feeling that someone cared about him after he woke up from a coma was what he always wanted.

Casey obediently listened to Edith's words, then lay back on the bed, waiting for the food to be delivered with peace of mind.

After eating, Casey felt that the power in his body recovered a lot. The sense of powerlessness had disappeared without a trace. It seemed that Cabala would not cause any harm to the human body. As long as there was time to recover, he would be able to return to the top again. After regaining some strength, Casey walked around the room for a while, then left the room and walked over to the guest room.

He learned from Edith that his master had been staying in the Davies House during the week he was in a coma.

Casey had many doubts and wanted to ask the master for advice, so he immediately walked towards the room where his master was.

At the door of the guest room, Casey hadn't knocked on the door before he heard a calm voice from inside, "Come in."

Chapter 796 Grudges

Casey pushed open the door and walked in. Then Casey saw the master sitting on the bed with his eyes closed, his chest undulating, as if he was practicing the deep breathing.

Casey didn't interrupt the master. After coming in, he sat down on the chair in the room and waited until the master had finished a complete deep breathing.

The master opened his eyes. His gaze fell on Casey, and then a smile appeared on his face.

"Recovered?"

Casey nodded.

"You can fight against the five major families alone, and you also killed the two heads of the five major families. It surprised me a bit. Among my many disciples, you're the best." The master spoke.

Casey hurriedly said modestly, "I'm flattered. This is all because you taught me well. If I doesn't learn from you, I will definitely not be able to deal with those Guwu Families."

The master laughed, "Although I have taught you something, what I taught you is not enough to make you fight against the five major families. It seems that you have encountered some good stuff after you left the mountain. So you have the strength what you have now."

Casey didn't conceal it. He immediately told the master about XuanJin and Cabala.

Although this was Casey's biggest trump card and secret, he could tell his master all without hesitation. Because Casey had absolute trust in his master.

Moreover, Casey felt that even though he had become a Grandmaster who had reached medium stage of XuanJin and he didn't take those top Grandmasters seriously, he still couldn't see through his master.

The reason for this feeling could only show that the master's strength was still far greater than Casey's imagination, so Casey was not worried about that the master would do something with him for the sake of XuanJin.

After listening to Casey's description of XuanJin and Cabala, the master just nodded, without showing the slightest expression of surprise on his face, which made Casey a little strange.

Could it be that master already knew about the existence of XuanJin and Cabala?

It might be. The master had traveled all over the world and had known a lot. So it was not strange that the master knew the existence of XuanJin.

It was just that Casey had already imaged what kind of expressions would appear on the master's face before he told the master about XuanJin. Now seeing Master's calm face, Casey felt that it had not met his psychological expectations.

"It's no wonder that you can challenge the four heads of Guwu Families alone. It turns out that you have practiced XuanJin, and you also accidentally got Cabala. It seems that you're so lucky." The master smiled.

"Master, you know the existence of XuanJin?" Casey asked.

The master nodded, "Of course! Not only I know, what I have been exploring all these years has something to do with XuanJin."

Casey was taken aback for a moment. He didn't expect that the master would have been exploring things related to XuanJin. It seemed that it was the right choice to tell the master about XuanJin. He also had a lot of doubts about XuanJin. Maybe the master could help him.

"Let's not talk about this first. If I'm not wrong, you should be very confused about the fact that the six major families and many Guwu sects regarded me as an enemy, right?" The master changed the subject.

Casey nodded, "Indeed, the reason why the six major families came to me was because they learned that I was your disciple. They said you did a lot of heinous things to them back then. Many of them said that you were their common enemy."

The master laughed, "It seems that I need to explain to you what happened back then. Otherwise, I am afraid that I will become a ruthless demon in your eyes."

Casey's eyes immediately lit up. He was also very interested in what happened that year. He wanted to know exactly how the master had forged enmity with the six major families.

"You should be able to feel that the martial arts that I have taught you blends the strengths of all sects, and has almost no shortcomings, right?" the master asked.

Casey nodded. The martial arts of each sects had their own characteristics. The martial arts that the master taught Casey could indeed be said to be a blend of the best of all the sects. So far, Casey had not found there were the shortcomings of the martial arts that the master taught him.

"This set of martial arts is exactly what I created by absorbing the characteristics of the various sects in the world. I abandoned their shortcomings, and then created it. However, I didn't know the characteristics of others sects back then. So I only had one way, which was to constantly fight against masters of various sects, and felt the characteristics of their martial arts from the battle."

"In Warrior Circle, those Guwu Families always treat their martial arts as treasures, and never teach them to the outside world. In their opinion, their martial arts are the most perfect martial arts in the world. Others are not deserved to learn it."

"But it is impossible for them not to fight against others for the rest of their lives. So at that time, I began to challenge the masters of these families. Of course, those fights were not as scary as your battle this time. By fighting against them again and again, I gradually grasped the characteristics of their martial arts, which have provided me with considerable help in creating my own martial arts."

"At that time, I was also a little young and arrogant. I felt that these Guwu Families were too self-righteous. Their martial arts did have some good points, but it wasn't like what they boasted. It only took me a few days to master the core of their martial arts. In order to make them aware of their shortcomings, I used their martial arts to defeat many of their masters."

Hearing this, Casey was shocked. His master could learn other people's martial arts so easily. Maybe only his master dared to say such words.

"Those people felt quite embarrassed because I defeated them with their martial arts, so they slandered me secretly learning their martial arts. Then they united with the major martial sects, saying that I despised them. They brought a bunch of people to besiege me and wanted to kill me."

"It's a pity that their strength sucked. At that time, I had a lot of achievements on my own martial arts. Besides, I got some good stuff by accident. I didn't fear them at all, so I fought with them. Back then, the battle was fierce. Many people died in my hands. Finally, they found out that they couldn't kill me at all, so they gave up the plan to besiege me."

"However, from that time on, these Guwu Families hate me guts, and felt that I had made their families ashamed, so they have been trying to kill me."

"But they didn't learn a lesson at all.

This time, you gave them another lesson. In the final analysis, they asked for it."

After listening to what the master said, Casey was also a little emotional. He didn't expect that the master and these six major families still had such grievances.

Although the master said it calmly, he could feel that the situation that the master faced back then was not much better than him.

"It's probably like this. It's been so many years. In my opinion, my own set of martial arts is already a bit outdated. I didn't expect that these families are still struggling with these things. They can't move forward. I'm afraid it's because they have been struggling with these useless things, so they can't get improved." The master said.

Casey nodded, feeling that what Master said was reasonable. People who practiced martial arts should really be pure. It was a waste of time to fight for the reputation all day long.

No longer worrying about the affairs of the six major families, Casey glanced at the master. Then he was thinking about XuanJin again.

"Master, since you know the existence of XuanJin, you should also understand the power of XuanJin. I will tell you the cultivation method of XuanJin. Hope it can help you."

A mysterious smile appeared on the master's face. He said, "No need! XuanJin and Cabala are yours. It has nothing to do with me, so you don't need to tell me."

Chapter 797 sublimation

After Casey heard what the master said, he was stunned for a moment. In his opinion, XuanJin was more powerful than inner force. This should be the cultivation method that all warriors dreamt of.

No matter how strong a warrior had, he would definitely try to learn it as long as he knew the existence of XuanJin. After all, once they had cultivated XuanJin, it meant that the starting point was dozens of levels higher than others. No matter how hard they worked to cultivate inner force, they couldn't reach the level of XuanJin

When Myles learned that Casey cultivate XuanJin, he didn't even avenge Theodore. He even asked Casey to teach him XuanJin, which was enough to see how attractive XuanJin was to warriors.

However, now Casey wanted to teach the master XuanJin, but the master directly rejected him, which made Casey a little stunned.

"Master, the subtlety of XuanJin is far from comparable to inner force. If you cultivate XuanJin, your strength will definitely increase by more than one level. Although this is me who got it accidentally, all of my skills were taught by you. It is reasonable for me to teach you the cultivation method of XuanJin." Casey said.

The master said with a smile, "I know you are good for me. But XuanJin has no effect on me anymore." The master said.

Casey was shocked when he heard this. The master said that XuanJin had little effect on him! So it was only one possibility, which was the strength of the master had far surpassed Grandmaster Circle. His strength had reached a level that ordinary people couldn't imagine, so XuanJin didn't have much effect for him. For a time, Casey felt that the master became mysterious again.

When Casey asked the master if he had reached Grandmaster Circle, the master said that it was more than 30 years ago, and did not admit that he had reached Grandmaster Circle.

Casey subconsciously thought that the master's strength reached Grandmaster Circle. After all, he had only known Grandmaster Circle at that time. How could he know there was a higher circle above Grandmaster Circle?

Now after hearing the master's words, Casey instantly confirmed that the master's strength must have been above Grandmaster Circle.

Casey didn't know how terrifying the master's strength was. He even wanted to see the master use all strength to fight one day. But Casey didn't know if he could see it in this life.

"Master, has your strength surpassed Grandmaster Circle and reached a higher level?" Casey asked tentatively. The master smiled, "There is indeed a higher circle above Grandmaster Circle." When Casey heard it, the first reaction in his mind was that the master did not answer his questions directly, which meant that there was indeed a higher circle above Grandmaster Circle. But no one knew whether the master reached that circle.

With previous experience, even if the master said that he had reached a higher circle than Grandmaster Circle, Casey would not doubt it.

But since the master didn't answer Casey's question directly, it meant that the master definitely didn't want to directly say what circle he reached. So Casey didn't ask the master again.

"I watched the video of you fighting with Duffy and the other three people that day. At the last moment, a huge phantom of your palm appeared, right?" The master asked.

Casey nodded immediately. Although he didn't know why the master suddenly mentioned it, this was indeed a doubt in Casey's mind.

If this phantom hadn't been seen in those videos on the Internet, Casey would definitely think it was just his own illusion.

"To be honest, I really suspect that the phantom that appeared that day was my illusion. After all, how could this happen in a normal battle?" Casey said.

The master smiled mysteriously, "What you saw is not an illusion. Look at my hand."

Casey looked at the master in surprise. He didn't expect that the master would be sure that what he saw was not an illusion.

Casey lowered his head and looked at the master's hand, wanting to know what the master wanted him to see. The master made his two fingers like a sword. Then he pointed at a table not far away, and asked, "What can you feel?" Casey stared at the master's fingers carefully. He could clearly feel that there was a strong concentration of power on the master's two fingers. The strength of the power might have surpassed the strongest blow Casey used that day. Casey was surprised that the master could perfectly control such a strong power on his two fingers. Casey couldn't reach such level.

Just as Casey stared at the master's fingers carefully, the master smiled faintly. Then, Casey saw that a sword-like shape appeared on master's two fingers. The phantom was quite clear, which was a hundred times clearer than the phantom he created that day.

"How... how is this possible!" Casey exclaimed.

Master waved his two fingers. Then the sword-like phantom above smashed into the ground with a volley, and there was a loud noise. Then, Casey saw a long crack appearing on the concrete floor, which was shocking.

Casey stood up directly and stared at the master with an incredible face. He had always been calm, but now he opened his mouth in shock.

The master looked at Casey's shocking face, and then teased, "I just wanted to show you the power. Do I need to repair the ground?"

"No... No." Casey stared at the master blankly. He didn't expect that the master could not only make a phantom appear on his fingers, but the power of this phantom was so scary. No wonder that the master wouldn't take those Guwu families seriously. Even the strongest Grandmaster couldn't resist the master's blow.

Casey thought that his XuanJin was already very powerful, but now he knew that he was far from being truly powerful.

"Master, what is going on? Why your attack just now was so terrifying?"

Casey quickly asked.

The master took away the phantom on his finger, and said with a smile, "This is the power that can be exerted by the people who reach above Grandmaster Circle. During your battle, at the last moment, you barely entered this circle, so that the phantom would appear."

Casey was at lost. He did not expect that the power of his blow would have reached such a terrifying state. No wonder that unscientific sight would appear.

It was just that no matter how strong his blow was, it couldn't be better than the blow that the master had just shown casually.

"Master, what circle is this? Why is it so strong?" Casey tried to restrain his shock. Staring at the master, he asked.

"This circle is called sublimation. When you reach this circle, you can release your inner force and kill people from the distance. You can also control the shape of the inner force and then everyone can see your inner force."

"That is sublimation."

Chapter 798 Bland's Request

"It's really terrifying!" Casey muttered to himself.

If he really reached this circle, when he fought that day, he would only need to point his finger at them, then he could kill Duffy and the other three so easily. Such masters in this circle could no longer be described by common sense. Their strength was comparable to gods. The one in front of Casey was exactly like a god.

"If I guess right, you can reach this circle when you reach the top of XuanJin. At that time, your strength will have a qualitative leap." The master said.

"In the final analysis, Grandmaster Circle is just the masters in the eyes of the secular people. sublimation is the circle which is separated from the secular world in the true sense."

"However, because of it, there are very few who can get to this point. That's why you know Grandmaster Circle, but you have never heard of sublimation."

Casey nodded and understood what the master meant. Although most of Guwu sects had been separated from the secular world and most of them hid and dedicated to the pursuit of martial arts, in the final analysis, there were still inextricable links between them and the secular world.

Only those who had reached sublimation were truly free from the constraint of the secular world. Those who could achieve this step also had their own pursuits. Their ideas were probably not understood by most worldly people, so there would be some rumors about Grandmaster Circle in secular world, but there were never rumors of sublimation.

Even if there was, people would not believe it.

After all, those masters who reached sublimation were really amazing.

"Okay, all the doubts in your mind should have been solved. Next, can I tell you the reason why I stay here and wait for you to wake up?" the master smiled. Casey nodded quickly and said, "Please tell me."

"Actually, I want to seek some help from you so I stay here until you wake up."

The master spoke lightly, with a trace of vicissitudes in his eyes.

"Master, if you have anything to need my help, just tell me. I will definitely do my best." Casey said without hesitation. If it wasn't the master, he would certainly not be able to have what he had today. The master saved him and taught him a lot. So he would not refuse any request of the master.

"I also told you just now. I am exploring some things about XuanJin. Over the years, I have found some clues and even found a crucial place. Once I can enter that place, I believe all the doubts about XuanJin can be solved."

"But I need a special key to enter that place. I have been looking for the whereabouts of this special key all these years."

With that said, the master took out a green jade pendant from his pocket. There were very complicated patterns on the jade pendant, which looked like a certain totem. When Casey saw it, he felt that the totem above was so vivid, which was a bit scary.

Casey didn't know why he suddenly became concentrated after staring at this jade pendant for a while.

"This jade is called Soul Setting Jade. This is the key to that place. But this is only one of them. There are three pieces of Soul Setting Jade. Only I get three pieces can I open the place I said. After so many years, I only found one piece."

"But fortunately, I have grasped the whereabouts of the remaining two pieces"

"Because of some special reasons, in the near future, I will experience a calamity. If I want to escape this calamity, I have to enter that place. If I can't avoid the calamity, I will die."

"My time is running out. In order to deal with the upcoming calamity, I still need to make a lot of preparations, which means that I don't have enough time to find the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade."

"This time, you gave me a big surprise. With your current level, it should not be too difficult for you to help me find the two remaining pieces of Soul Setting Jade, so I want you to help me to find the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade."

After listening to the master's words, Casey's face showed a dignified look. He did not expect that even if the master's strength had reached such a level, he still had to face a calamity. It seemed that no matter how strong one person was, he would encounter his own trouble.

"What kind of calamity you will encounter?" Casey asked.

Master said with smile, "There are some things that you are not suitable to know now. Knowing it is not good for you.

When the time comes, you will naturally know what kind of calamity I will face."

Casey nodded, understanding what the master meant. Then he said, " I will naturally help you. Even if the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade are in the place where are full dangers, I will help you get them."

The master glanced at Casey with some relief, and said, "Thank you!"

"Looking for Soul Setting Jade requires you to leave the Davies House. I know you may be worried about Davies family's safety, especially the situation of your wife and daughter. So in order to give you peace of mind, I will let Ellis and Hughes stay in the Davies House to protect your wife and daughter and stabilize the situation in Davies family."

Hearing what the master said, Casey felt grateful. What the master said was indeed what he was worried about. If he left, he would be worried about Edith and Sherry most.

Now that the master promised to let Ellis and Hughes stay at the Davies House, Casey had nothing to worry about.

Casey knew the strength of Ellis and Hughes well. Neither of them was weaker than the head of those Guwu Families. If they two joined hands, they would be able to burst out incomparable power.

As long as it was not a master who reached sublimation came to make trouble, the two of them could definitely deal with all the troubles that Davies family would encounter.

"Thank you for your understanding! Master, I will definitely help you find the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade." Casey bowed at the master, "Where are the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade?"

The master took out a piece of paper and handed it to Casey, saying, "After all these years of searching and collecting information, I finally determined the whereabouts of these two pieces of Soul Setting Jade."

"After many grabbing and auctions, one of them finally came to the hands of a family in an island country."

"The other piece is in the hands of the Pantheon."

"There are detailed whereabouts of them on this paper. You can have a look."

Casey was taken aback when he heard the Pantheon. He didn't expect that the stuff the master was looking for would actually be in their hands.

Chapter 799 Full-time Dad

Seeing Casey's reactions, the master asked, "Do you know the Pantheon?"

Casey nodded and then he told the master that the Pantheon wanted him to join them.

After listening it, the master said with a smile, "It seems that searching for Soul Setting Jade in the Pantheon is much easier than I thought. Since they want you to join, it shouldn't be difficult for you to look for Soul Setting Jade in the Pantheon."

"But my father once told me not to provoke the people from the Pantheon. Master, do you know anything about the Pantheon?" Casey asked.

The master showed a thoughtful look on his face and then he said, "Your father told you not to provoke the people of the Pantheon. It is very likely that he knows how powerful the Pantheon is. He is afraid that you will get into unnecessary trouble. He was not talking about there is something wrong with the Pantheon."

"According to my understanding, the Pantheon can be said to be the top forces in the entire C Country, and even the world. They are much purer than those Guwu Families. They have been committed to maintaining the stability of Warrior Circle. Executor is a force under the name of the Pantheon."

Hearing what the master said, Casey raised his eyebrows immediately. He didn't expect that Executor belonged to the Pantheon.

If so, the Pantheon was not bad. After all, a force that was willing to maintain the stability of the Warrior Circle would not have any sinister purpose.

If this was the case, the reminder that his father gave him at the beginning might be because the strength of the Pantheon was too strong, and his father was afraid that him would provoke the people from the Pantheon for no reason.

"In addition to maintaining the stability of Warrior Circle, the Pantheon also holds a large amount of information about this world that you have never known before. Your understanding of this world is only the surface. If you have the opportunity to join the Pantheon, it will not be a bad thing for you, at least it can let you know more about the world." The master continued.

Casey nodded, knowing that he was a little too defensive against the Pantheon before.

After seeing the power that the master showed him, Casey did feel that he knew too little about the world. If he had the opportunity, he would want to know some secrets about the world.

It was a pity that he didn't know where the people of the Pantheon were, so he could only ask them when they came to him again.

"Well, I still have three years at most. If we can't find the other two pieces of Soul Setting Jade within three years, I will only have to face that calamity." The master was a little bit emotional.

"Master, don't worry! I will do my best to help you get the remaining two pieces of Soul Setting Jade." Casey said solemnly.

The master nodded, and then handed the piece of Soul Setting Jade in his hand to Casey, saying, "You carry this piece of Soul Setting Jade with yourself. It can help you focus on. With it, your reactive speed will be greatly improved. It is a very rare treasure."

Casey did not refuse, and reached out to take the piece of Soul Setting Jade. After all, he had to know what Soul Setting Jade looked like, then he could go to find the other two. It was more convenient to bring a sample with him.

After telling Casey all of these, the master stayed at the Davies House for two more days, and instructed Ellis and Hughes to stay at the Davies House during this period and to follow Casey's arrangements.

The twins had been practicing martial arts with their master in the past. They had never experienced a secular life, so they were very happy to stay in the Davies House.

The most important thing was that Davies family was the largest family in B City. It was rich and powerful. The two of them had been entertained very comfortably by Davies family these days. Now even if Casey drove them away, neither of them wanted to leave. Two days later, the master was going to make other preparations for the calamity three years later, so he left B City and gave Casey a contact method so that Casey could contact him after finding out Soul Setting Jade.

After the master left, Casey told Edith that he needed to find Soul Setting Jade.

Edith was naturally quite unhappy after hearing this. After all, Casey hadn't been back for a long time. Now, Casey had to go out again. Of course she was very reluctant to bear it.

If this continued, Sherry would forget who her father was.

Casey also knew that he did owe Edith and Sherry, but the master taught him a lot that he could not just watch master's imminent calamity and just ignored it. He also wanted to live a normal and happy life with Edith and his daughter, but he couldn't realize this wish now. In order to make up for Edith and Sherry, Casey promised to spend a month with them at home, and then set off to find Soul Setting Jade.

Edith also knew that Casey was a man of love and righteousness. So she only complained for a while. She would not really stop Casey from doing his own things. So she quickly forgave Casey. However, in order to let Casey experience the feeling of being a father when Sherry was growing up, Casey had to be responsible for all of Sherry's daily life, such as food and entertainment, during the month when Casey was at home.

Casey must become a competent Dad within this month. Otherwise, Edith would not allow Casey to leave.

Casey naturally accepted it happily. He felt that it was not a difficult thing. Just babysit a child!

But when Casey was faced with changing Sherry's diapers, was pissed off by Sherry, was tossed in the middle of the night and couldn't sleep because of Sherry, he really felt the difficulty of raising a child.

The difficulty of raising a child to an adult was no less difficult than reaching sublimation.

It was also after experiencing this that Casey realized that Edith's contribution at home was not much less than that of him.

After leaving the child to Casey, Edith obviously felt relaxed. Taking advantage of this opportunity, she began to go shopping, jogging, and to apply a facial a mask every day. She began a leisurely and comfortable life.

When Casey was very anxious because Sherry didn't eat well, something was happening in a building not far from the Davies House.

In a small room, a man in a black robe was standing in front of the window, staring at the Davies House not far away.

For a long time, in the black robe, a sinister voice came out, "Casey, it seems that you have had a good time during this period of time. You're so happy to play with your child."

"Unfortunately, my time is running out. People from the island country will arrive in B City soon. I must kill you before they come."

"I have already figured out your wife's habit of going out during this time, so c
Chapter 800 Threat

That afternoon, Edith and Lily made an appointment to go shopping. Edith went to the room and took a look at Casey. Seeing that Casey was busy changing Sherry's diaper, she suddenly laughed out loud.

Hearing Edith's laughter, Casey turned his head to look at her, and said, "Honey, come and help me. This little girl is too disobedient. I can't deal with her at all."

Edith laughed, "I have made an appointment with Lily to go shopping together. The time is coming soon. I have to go out quickly. Think of a solution for yourself. Believe in yourself. You can do it!"

After speaking, Edith turned and left the room.

Casey looked helpless. After Edith left, he secretly called Jennifer over and asked Jennifer to help him change Sherry's diaper.

After Edith went out of the door, she walked towards the place she had made appointment with Lily.

Because the Davies House was located at the most central part of B City and was very close to those commercial centers, Edith could walk to the shopping mall.

When Edith went out, she didn't notice that a figure in a black robe flashed past the corner of the Davies House.

At home, Casey was basking in the yard with Sherry. At this time, his mobile phone rang. He took a look and found that it was Lily's call.

After the call was connected, Lily's voice came over there.

"Brother, did Edith go out? I've been waiting here for a long time. Why hasn't she arrived yet? No one answered my phone calls."

Casey was taken aback for a moment and then said, "She already left the house more than half an hour ago.

Logically, even she walked, she should have arrived."

"But I didn't see her. I can't get through her phone. Or can you make a call to her?" Lily said.

Casey said Okay. Then he hurriedly dialed Edith's phone number. But after a long time, no one answered.

Casey suddenly felt a sense of anxiety. He hurriedly let Jennifer come over and asked her to take care of Sherry, while he himself hurriedly found Brady and asked him if there was anything happening near the Davies House. Brady said that he had not received any notice from his subordinates. So nothing happened.

Casey was anxious and called Edith a few times again, but no one answered him. He intuitively felt that something happened to Edith. The person who followed Edith was at least a Grandmaster, otherwise he could not have escaped the surveillance of Yin Killers.

Because the affairs of the five major families had just ended, Casey felt that even if those men wanted revenge, they would definitely not come recently. Therefore, during this period of time, the vigilance of the Davies House was a little lax. Ellis and Hughes were just staying in the Davies House, and would not go out with Edith.

Casey immediately asked Brady to arrange Yin Killers to thoroughly investigate all the places near the Davies House. Edith only went out for more than half an hour. Even if she was really caught, she would definitely not leave too far.

Just when Casey was anxious, his mobile phone rang again. When he picked it up to have a look, it was Edith's call.

He hurriedly picked up. What came from there was not Edith's voice, but a low male voice.

"Casey, you should be very anxious that you can't contact your wife, right?"

"Who are you? Where is my wife now?"

Casey asked in a cold voice.

"You don't need to know who I am, but your wife is indeed in my hands. If you still want your wife to be alive, you'd better rush to the suburbs of B City within half an hour. I will give you a location. Remember, come alone. If there are others, I will stab your wife. I will definitely do what I say." The low voice sounded again.

Casey frowned. Although he didn't know what the other party's purpose was, he still agreed to that person's request for Edith's safety.

It didn't matter whether he went there alone. Now Casey himself was enough to resist a troop.

After hanging up the phone for a while, Casey received a location on his mobile phone. Casey took a look and determined that it was the emptiest place in the suburbs of B City. He could know the situation in a few kilometers at a glance.

The person set the location there, presumably to prevent Casey from arranging others around there in advance.

Casey did not hesitate. After knowing the specific location, he immediately drove a car quickly towards the suburbs of B City.

About half an hour later, Casey rushed to that place. From long distance, Casey saw two figures on the lawn over there. One of them was Edith, and the other was a person wearing a black robe.

Casey couldn't see his face clearly. Casey parked the car a few hundred meters away from the two of them, then got out of the car and walked towards the two of them.

When Casey was in front of the two, he saw Edith standing there without a rope tied to her body, but he could see that she was very scared. Casey did not dare to act rashly.

If Casey shot directly, he was confident to snatch Edith over before the black-robed man could react.

But the other party must know Casey's strength. Even so, the other party was still so relaxed, which showed he had a certain degree of confidence.

So Casey didn't dare to take actions at will now.

Looking at Casey in front of him, the black-robed man made a laugh, and then said, "I didn't expect you to come so soon. It seems that your wife is so important to you."

Casey snorted coldly, "No matter what your purpose is, you'd better let my wife go. Otherwise, I will let you die miserably."

The black-robed man did not take Casey's words to heart at all. Instead, he said with a smile, "Don't say such words to threaten me. Tell you, your wife has eaten the poison pill I refined. Only I know the way to detoxify. I know you are powerful. Even if you attack me now, I can't resist you at all. But if you do it, no one can cure your wife's poison."

Casey's face was immediately full of anger. No wonder this black-robed man was so confident. It turned out that Edith had already taken poison pills.

"Who are you? I have no grudges with you. Why do you hurt my wife? What do you want from me?"

The black-robed man suddenly laughed, then looked at Casey and said gloomily, "Yes, I do want to get something from you."

"What?" Casey asked.

"Your life!" The black-robed man said without hesitation.
