

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 890 You'll Be Fine

The people in the courtyard were surprised to see the power of Wolfe. They knew the power of Ellis and Hughes, even if the top martial family could not defeat them.

However, Wolfe defeat them with a single move, it was enough to see how terrible the power of the master of the sublimation was.

Although amazed at the power of Wolfe, Brady, Baron, Dick, Foley and others did not flinched but blocked before Edith seeing that Ellis and Hughes were knocked down.

Wolfe stared at them. His face suddenly sank and he said in a cold voice, "Why, didn't you see the fate of those two grandmasters? Do you still think a few masters of inner force can stop me?"

Dick immediately shouted, "We have to. With us here, you don't expect to take Edith away!"

"That's right! Masters of inner force can kill you!" Cried Foley.

Wolfe looked at them with disdain, as if watching a group of clowns, obviously, he could easily knock down several masters of inner force.

Seeing that the crowd rushed in front for her, Edith was worry and she shouted, "Don't do this. He is directed at me, I can deal with him. Or you will be hurt."

Wolfe gave a cold hum, "You don't need to persuade them. I can take care of them right now. they are just a few mole ants, and dare jump in front of me."

With that, Wolfe waved his hand, causing strong wind, which was mixed with Wolfe's power of sublimation. It swept toward Brady and the others.

Brady and others did not make a move, but they were blown to the ground by Wolfe's strong wind. In minutes, several people had been seriously injured.

Master of sublimation and master of inner force were different in nature, like the difference between the cat and the tiger. Ellis and Hughes were knocked down by a move, how could they carry the attack?

Rowan and Barton looked at Wolfe with surprise. They had already seen Wolfe's skill, but they were still shocked that the top force of the Davies family had been taken care of by Wolfe.

"Your excellency, you are wise and powerful. These men are no match for you. Edith, hurry to say yes to Wolfe. Do you want him to make his move?" Barton shouted at Edith.

Edith looked at the people on the ground with worry. She knew clearly that she had no choice in front of the master of the sublimation.

She gave Barton and Rowan a resentful look and gnawed her teeth and said, "I have always remembered this. Even if I die, I will not let you go!" Then Edith took out a dagger from her arms and decided to kill herself. In her heart, she only belonged to Casey. No matter how power this master was, she would not yield in to him, so now she could only kill herself.

Seeing that, Wolfe said with a sneer on his face. "Do you think it is so easy to die in front of me?"

As soon as his words fell, a force had been wrapped around Edith's wrist. Edith felt great pain, and the dagger fell to the ground.

This was the horror of the master of the sublimation. They could control their power out of their body. Their moves were unpredictable, which was better than average masters of inner force.

Edith was worried since she failed to commit suicide. At the thought of her possible situation, she was desperate.

Wolfe walked toward Edith, with a provocative smile on his face, licking his tongue, said in an obscene manner, "Beauty, for you, I risk being discovered by the Pantheon, how could I let you die easily?"

"The Davies family in B City has some influence, so the Pantheon will soon find out. I will take you away, I promise you will live a happy life."

Then Wolfe stretched out his hand to catch Edith's arm.

Edith hurried toward the back, but her speed was not faster than Wolfe's. In the moment of her retreat, Wolfe's arm had been stretched toward her body.

All people lowed heads helplessly. In the face of this situation, they had not no way out and could only watch Edith be caught.

As Wolfe's hand was to touch Edith's hand, a soaring momentum appeared in the courtyard, followed by a deafening sound.

"How dare you bastard my woman?"

Before his voice fell, the courtyard came a residual shadow. When everyone saw it clearly, Casey had brought Edith to the distance, away from the hand of Wolfe.

Everyone was excited when Casey appeared. No one expected that Casey would appear at this critical moment.

At that moment Edith saw Casey, she burst into tears and then tightly grasped Casey clothes with both hands. She really thought she was going to be raped by the devil, and Casey once again became her savior. "I am here, you will be all right." Casey placated Edith.

Edith nodded to Casey, at this moment, she had nothing to think of, just to feel the warmth of Casey quietly.

Wolfe did not expect that there would be someone to intervene in this matter, and the power of the other party seemed not weak. He even could take her away from his hands.

He squinted at Casey, found that although his momentum was stronger than the grandmaster, he was far behind the sublimation, so he should not be a master of the sublimation.

"I can't expect that someone came to stop me. Boy, you are a little better than those two grandmasters, do you think you can stop me?"

Exasperated, Wolfe looked at Casey.

The others knew Casey was stronger than them, but he was not a match to the master of the sublimation. It seemed to be unable to change.

Edith looked at Casey with worry. Seeing Casey, Edith felt at ease, but power of Wolfe could not be underestimated. Casey could only delay the time.

"Casey..." Edith wanted to say something.

Casey smiled and put a finger on Edith's lips, said, "Leave it to me."

For no reason, when Casey said that, Edith had infinite confidence on Casey. She believed that this man could take her through the disaster.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 891 Confront Wolfe

Barton and Rowan did not expect Casey would appear at this time, they were surprised too.

But Wolfe was there, even if Casey was back, it was impossible to change anything.

Rowan remembered that he was humiliated by Casey in the cruise on Moon Island. Before he did not dare to take beverage, but now Wolfe was with him, he was not afraid of Casey naturally.

"Casey, I did not expect you coward actually dare to come back, but don't think you can take care of it. The power of Wolfe is beyond your imagination. Hurry to give Edith to him, otherwise you will die!" Rowan shouted at Casey.

Casey glanced at Rowan and said coldly, "It's you, a mangy dog. There's no place for dogs to talk. I'll settle accounts with you when I'm done with him."

Hearing that Casey scolded himself as a dog, Rowan went blue on his face and then he coldly snorted, "Don't pretend. You can't defeat Wolfe!"

Brady and others looked at Casey with worry. After what happened, they had to face the reality.

"Casey, the power of this guy really cannot be underestimated, he is powerful. He is the legendary master of the sublimation and he knows magic. You hurry to take Edith away!" Dick shouted at Casey, he did not know the means of master of sublimation, so he thought it was magic. But only from the visual effect, master means and magic was about the same.

"Yes, Casey, this guy's power is really horrible, you are not his opponent, run." Brady opened his mouth.

Ellis and Hughes also looked at Casey with solemn face. Ellis said, "Master should have told you about the master of the sublimation. His power is really very strong. With your talent, you can hide first and come back for revenge when you got stronger."

Hearing that, Casey took his Muramasa and slowly pulled it out.

"I know the means of the master in sublimation, but you don't have to worry too much about me, he is just in the early stage of sublimation. If we really fight, it can't be told who will win!" Casey said lightly.

From that time Casey had confirmed that this man was Wolfe ranked 7th in the Pantheon's reward list.

Casey did not expect he would come to his house, but since he was here, he would not miss this opportunity.

He had been worrying how to find them to win reward. Since Wolfe was here, he was welcomed.

What was more, he wanted to hurt Edith. Casey had no plan to let him live in the world.

As for the power of Wolfe, Casey was not afraid. It was indeed an early master of sublimation, but Casey had fought with one before.

Malcom Duncan played evil tricks and his power had reached the real level of the early stage of the sublimation, but he still died in the hands of Casey, so Casey did not fear these people.

Hearing Casey's words, Wolfe immediately scorned and opened his mouth, "Since you have a knife in your hand, you have not yet reached the level of sublimation. Even if you are a genius, a little bit stronger than a grandmaster, but in front of me, you are just a strong ant. Do you think you are eligible to compete with me?"

Rowan hurried to say, "Casey, don't have daydream here. With your skill, it is a joke to defeat Wolfe. You'd better obediently give your wife to him, perhaps he will spare you!"

Casey gave cold hum, seized Muramasa, with inner force inside covering on the blade.

"Defeat me first before you say that!"

Wolfe gave cold hum. He did not want to talk nonsense with Casey, with a wave, a strong wind blowing toward Casey.

Casey grabbed Muramasa and cut forward, a white awn appeared and directly scattered Wolfe's wind.

Wolfe was stunned and did not expect Casey should be so easy to break his tricks, but he still did not think Casey was his opponent, after all, Casey had many means, but he had not reached the level of sublimation.

He did not know there was half sublimation, after all, between the grandmaster and the sublimation, there was only one step to go. Casey practiced XuanGong, so he came to this state, which was called half sublimation, so Wolfe thought Casey was a powerful grandmaster.

"Small tricks, I don't believe you really can fight with me!" With that, Wolfe directly rushed toward Casey.

In order not to have impact on Edith and others, Casey directly jumped on the roof, going to fight with Wolfe up there.

Wolfe also jumped to the roof, having a long stick formed by pure power in his hand.

"Boy, I'll fight you with all my power and see how you resist!"

Wolfe shouted at Casey, and then waved the long stick toward Casey.

Casey lifted the Muramasa and carried Wolfe's blow with his power burst out.

Until this time, Wolfe found that the power of Casey was much stronger than the grandmaster. He could not defeat Casey in a short time.

"Damn it, you get your power. It seems that I have to show you the real power of the sublimation, or you will be proud."

Wolfe gave cold hum. The power gathered in the long stick, sweeping toward Casey.

Casey shouted, the Muramasa was changing its means, and then it appeared light and cut toward the long stick of Wolfe.

"Tianxing sword technique!"

The two collided, a powerful force dispersed toward all round. Brady and others were affected by this fluctuation, so they fell down again. Everyone looked at the two people fighting on the roof with a face of horror, after for a long time, Ellis shouted, "Everyone, retreat farther, their fighting is not what we can participate in. Even the aftermath will kill us. Everyone, hide farther!"

A group of people reacted and ran off into the distance.

Dick looked at Casey's figure, muttering to himself, "Casey has been strong to this point only after a short time. The gap between him and me is huge." _____

Chapter 892 You Have No Right to Raise Terms

Seeing that Casey resisted his attack, Wolfe looked finally no longer calm. He never saw the tricks Casey just displayed before. In his impression, people had not reached the level of the sublimation could not play this degree of attack.

"Why are your powers so strange? Who the hell are you? Who taught you that?" Wolfe stared at Casey and asked.

Casey was trying to adapt to the power of Wolfe's stick. Although he resisted Wolfe's attack, he did not eat the perfect Elixir or used Cabala, it was still difficult.

But during this period of time, his power had grown a lot, so relying on the Tianxing sword technique, he could resist Wolfe's stroke.

After unloading the power of Wolfe, Casey quietly took a breath of relief. He took a look at Wolfe and said faintly, "I joined the Pantheon, do you believe it?"

Wolfe's face suddenly changed. The Pantheon was his nightmare, because of it, he hid himself everywhere cautiously.

Casey's power was so strange, and he looked so young, so it was normal that he was admitted by the Pantheon. Wolfe did not doubt Casey's words.

He did not expect that there was a person from the Pantheon in this secular family of B City. If he had known it, he certainly would not believe the words of the Patel family in G City.

Even if he could take care of Casey now, by means of the Pantheon, his whereabouts would be found out in a short time, and then he must be chased after by the Pantheon for a long time and he might die. He turned his head toward Rowan and Barton, who had run to the distance, with a flash of anger in his eyes. He wished he could rush to kill them now.

Barton and Rowan saw Wolfe's murderous eyes and shivered.

"Son, how did I just feel that Wolfe seems to look at us with a murderous look? It is really scary, just a look gave me have goose bumps." Barton opened his mouth.

Rowan felt the same way and he said, "It should be Wolfe feels that Casey is not so easy to be got rid of, so he looked at us like that. I don't think there is a problem."

Barton nodded and said, "Casey is unexpected. He actually can fight with Wolfe. Do you think Wolfe can defeat him?"

"Yes, his power is unexpected, but Wolfe is a master of sublimation, so finally he will win. Don't worry." Rowan said.

Neither of them spoke again and continued to look over the battlefield on the roof.

Wolfe stared at Casey for a while, and then said with a smile, "I don't expect that you are from the Pantheon. No wonder you have such power at your young age."

"I know the Pantheons is offering a reward to arrest me. There certainly is a result since we meet. Your talent is strong, but the power is still a distance from the level of the sublimation. If we really have to see who wins in the end, I think you are the one to die."

"And I don't want to be entangled with the Pantheon, so how about we each compromise? I won't want your wife anymore, and I promise you I won't come to you again, and you don't inform the Pantheon of my presence in B City. How about that?"

Hearing the words of Wolfe, Casey snorted. He did not expect that the name of the Pantheon scared Wolfe and he wanted to compromise.

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

But Casey was a vindictive person. Wolfe dare to want Edith, he would never let him continue to live in this world.

What was more, Wolfe in the eyes of Casey was rewards, how could he be willing to let him go so easily?

"You think too much, I have to fight till the end, but the person to die will be you, so you have no right to negotiate with me." Casey spoke.

Hearing Casey's word, Wolfe scolded him secretly. This boy was bold. "Hum, since you don't cherish the opportunity, you cannot blame me. With your power, even if you fight with me desperately, it can't cause substantive harm to me!"

With that, Wolfe rushed again toward Casey, the light on his long stick became brighter, which showed had he had taken out all his power. It was not Wolfe looked highly of Casey, but in the secular society, cameras were everywhere. Even if he escaped today, the Pantheon could easily find his whereabouts by monitoring. If he could not escape away from secular society in three days, he would be found by the Pantheon, so now he must come up with all the power to end the fight as soon as possible.

This was why the highly prized masters rarely cause mass destruction in secular society.

Even if they wanted to harm people in secular society, they would definitely choose some remote and backward areas, after all, in the age of technology, the longer they stayed in secular society, the easier they would be found by the Pantheon.

Seeing that Wolfe came again, Casey cheered up, holding the Muramasa, and fought with him carefully.

Casey obviously felt the effort. Wolfe used all-out efforts, with his power of the half sublimation, it was difficult for him.

Casey was retreating, while Wolfe's momentum was getting stronger and stronger, eager to get rid of Casey.

The people watching this scene was worried about Casey, according to this situation, Casey would certainly be defeated by Wolfe.

Another stick waving, Wolfe showed a confident smile to Casey and said, "Boy, you are not my opponent, no matter how you fight, you cannot win!"

Casey coldly hummed and then said, "It seems that it is my limit, but... That's enough. I've learned enough from this fight."

Casey raised his head and looked at Wolfe, the Xuangong in his body ran in a mysterious way, in a blink of an eye, Casey's momentum soared up.

Casey had used out the perfect Elixir and now he could only use Cabala to enhance his power.

The power of half sublimation and Cabala was not weaker than the initial stage of sublimation.

In this way, Wolfe had no advantage at all in front of Casey!__

"Boy, you can't beat defeat me, suffer death go to hell!" Wolfe hands of the's long stick emits emittedbursts of light, carrying an unmatched power toward Casey body hit the past.

At this time Casey has had run the secret methodCabala, the power of the his body has had also improved a level,. see Looking at Wolfe toward his body hit over the's long stick approaching, Casey suddenly raised his Muramasa. With its the hands of the village is, a power came, Muramasathe village is suddenly appeared around the body of a long knife virtual shadow, and the long stick which collidedcollision in a piece the long stick.

The forces between the two counteracted, turning into starlight and dissipating in the air.

Stunned, Wolfe stunned looking looked at this scene, . He used all his might to hit and thought he just hit but quite seriously, has been retreating Casey would had been retreating could not resist liveit, but now he should this blow to resolved his blow, which was, it is some unexpected Wolfe.

And Wolfe also felt the change of the momentum of Casey, and compared with just now, the momentum of Casey was at least a few times stronger, even stronger than he, the if compared with him in the early master of the sublimation, also don't let more.

"Why are you so much stronger than before? There was no way you could have stopped me in your condition!" Wolfe stared at Casey asked. Casey smiledsaid to Wolfe with a smile and said, "The tone asked thisRather than asking about, I think you'd, it is better to think about how to state their your crimes there to the King of HellLord of the underworld!"

Say that finishWith that, the Muramasa in Casey's hands of the village iswas shining, after and then Casey's body appeared in front of Wolfe, . Wolfe dark scolded and hurried to, hurriedly move to resist, . two Two people fought again, but this Time Casey no longer retreated. His power was , the power of the strong, even a faint pressureing over Wolfe feeling.

Although Casey did not say why he suddenly become became so strong, Wolfe heart also haved some speculation, think Casey must be eating the and attributed it to the perfect Elixirlevel of Dan, so the power will soar.

Perfect level Dan medicinePerfect Elixir is was good asenough to compare with rare treasures, even if it is at the master in the environment of the sublimation was hard to get one., want to get one is more difficult, Master Tianlong could get one was the original Master Tianlong can get perfect level Dan medicine, but also because of the discovery of the mysterious bones in Shandong.

Otherwise to based on the power of the dragon master Master Tianlong, it is was impossible to that he could get one. contact this kind of thing, Casey is also was lucky, . After defeating to solve the dragon master Master Tianlong, he got the two Perfect Elixirs.

Wolfe wanted one, but because of years of escaping, plus it was very rare, so he only heard about the effect of it from others.

And the Pantheon as the largest organization in C Country was not hard to get some, so Wolfe thought Casey must have taken the Perfect Elixir. "Damn it, the Pantheon took this boy so seriously that they gave him the Perfect Elixir. Now it is troublesome."

Wolfe scolded.

If he had known that Casey was using the secret method Cabala to enhance his power rather than taking the Elixir, he would have been shocked.

The situation of two people fighting changed, which was unexpected. Casey was weaker than Wolfe, but in a blink of eye, Casey unexpectedly began to suppress Wolfe.

Seeing that, Edith took a sigh of relief, praying that Casey could quickly get rid of Wolfe.

Rowan and Barton thought Wolfe must defeat Casey, but now the situation actually began to change, which stunned them.

"Son, why do I feel the momentum of Casey is suppressing Wolfe? What is going on? Will Wolfe be defeat?" Barton said with worry.

Rowan was perturbed and said, "I don't think so, but Casey is really different from just now. If it goes on like this, it's not certain who will win this battle."

"Shall we get away now? It doesn't matter whether who wins or loses. If Wolfe loses, we'll both be in trouble." Barton opened his mouth.

Rowan thought it was reasonable. After staring at the two men fighting above, he whispered, "Go."

Then he turned and walked toward outside.

Barton hurriedly followed up, if they did not leave now, when the situation became worse, they would not be able to leave.

However before they walked out, they were stopped by Brady and others.

They were wounded, but they were more than enough to take on two ordinary people.

"Where do you want to go?" Brady stared at them both and asked.

Rowan opened his mouth, "We need to use the bathroom. You have opinion on that? You will suffer when Wolfe wins later. Get out my way."

Brady kicked on Rowan, swearing, "Bullshit, stay here, you two don't wish to leave B City."

On the roof, Casey and Wolfe fought with various moves, at this time Wolfe panted, sweating.

He squinted at Casey, knowing that if he could not get rid of Casey as soon as possible, he would not have the opportunity.

Casey stared at Wolfe. Although Cabala made his power temporarily reached the level of the early stage of the sublimation, but Cabala had time limit. After the time limit, if he had not defeated Wolfe, it would be more troublesome.

So Casey did not hesitate and gather his power all toward Muramasa. Wolfe thought the same as Casey, so he also quickly ran all his power, making a nearly real long stick, hit toward Casey, gritting teeth.

A virtual shadow of a huge long stick roared up, hitting straight toward Casey's head with huge power, which shook the whole house.

Casey got a virtual shadow of a huge long knife too, with thunder arc jumping on the top, ruthlessly cutting toward Wolfe.

"Thunder Shocking!"

The two shadows collided, and a great wave of force spread out in all directions, making a huge sound.

The floor area of Davies' house was large, but the fighting was really horrible, so many people around heard the loud noise, then looked towards the Davies' house. They were shocked to see a long stick virtual shadow and a long knife virtual shadow colliding.

"Oh dear, is this a light show in the Davies' house?"

A delivery man passing by saw it and opened his mouth in shock.

But he soon realized that it was not a light show. The two shadows that had been collided carried a terrible power over them.

For he had seen the tallest building in the center of the house collapsed directly after the two shadows appeared. _____

Chapter 894 I Have No Relatives Like You

All people were shocked by that last blow. Seeing that the house directly collapsed, everyone was shocked to say no words. "Is this the destructive power of a master of sublimation?" Dick looked at the scene in front of him and murmured.

"It seems that Master is right. Only to reach the sublimation, it is to reach the threshold of a powerful man. Our powering is nothing to the real powerful man." Ellis said.

Both Rowan and Barton's legs were shaking. They had never imagined that anyone could rely on physical strength to cause such damage. This was no longer human being in their eyes; it was the power of the gods.

Casey jumped to the ground before the house collapsed, but Wolfe did not realize it and should be directly crushed under the house.

As for the state of Wolfe now, Casey was not sure, but that blow consumed all his strength, and this move was transformed from the most powerful trick based on Xuangong. No one of the early stage of sublimation could take that move under such situation.

All saw Casey standing on the ground kept gasping for air and felt relieved after making sure he was not injured in the collision just now. However, no one knew the state of Wolfe now, so everyone's nerves were still tight.

Casey walked toward the ruins of the house. Under a cement board, he saw Wolfe's face was bloody, but he did not know if Wolfe was dead or alive.

Seeing Wolfe was like that, Casey felt secretly relieved and thought he could not be alive.

Casey went over, lifted up the cement board, going to drag out Wolfe from inside.

At this time, Wolfe suddenly opened his eyes, rushed toward Casey to choke his neck.

Casey had premonition. That feeling was quite mysterious, as if his spirit in advance had judged that Wolfe was faking death, so he quickly made a response, grabbed Wolfe's arm and fell him to the ground with force. Then Casey flew to the front of Wolfe, bent down and broken his neck. It was at this moment, he felt relieved.

After that, Casey only felt his whole body sour and two legs soft, he then sat on the ground.

Seeing that, people quickly ran toward Casey and helped him up from the ground.

Dick was stunned and confused.

Before he answered the question of Dick, Casey felt his head in a whirl, and then he fainted.

Dick shook Casey, saying, “Casey, you haven't answered me, why do you get fainted?”

Seeing that, Foley said, “Casey certainly wants to record his brilliant move. Don't ask so much, just record it.”

Dick thought it was possible, so he took out his mobile phone and began to record.

In fact, Casey wanted to prove the Pantheon that he had killed Wolfe to get the credit.

The provisions of the Pantheon was that as long as he could prove that he had killed the person wanted, he could receive the corresponding rewards. Methods were not limited. In an emergency, Casey could only record it.

Edith went to Casey, looking at the man who once again saved her, she showed a satisfactory smile on her face, then said, “I will take care of Casey, he should be tired, so he needs to rest. You go to deal with the house.”

People nodded, Dick gave Casey to Edith.

“Edith, what should we do about the two?” Foley pointed to Rowan and Barton who were trembling over there.

Edith looked at them coldly.

“It is related to them. Even if they are my relatives, I will never spare them. Beat them and then lock them up. We will deal with them when Casey woke up.” Edith opened her mouth.

Foley nodded at once, and then went to Rowan and Barton with a bad smile.

Rowan and Barton were nervous. They did not expect that Wolfe, god in their eyes, actually died in the hands of Casey. Now they could not run away, feeling like in hell.

Rowan stared at Edith, and then knelt down in front of her, begging for mercy, "Sister, we know we are wrong, we were forced to take him to B City. Now he has died, and you are fine. For the sake we are relatives, please spare us."

Edith gave a cold moan and said, "I have no such relatives as you. I will never spare you, bless yourself."

Barton got angry that it was useless for Rowan to kneel down and plead with Edith. In his heart, he was still the elder of Edith. Dare she do anything to him?

"Edith, stop at the right time. Rowan has knelt down to beg for your mercy. What do you want? You are ok now, no matter what, we are your relatives. Do you want to deny that?" Said Barton.

When Rowan heard this, his face suddenly changed. His father did not realize the seriousness of the matter.

Edith was amused by his words. She stared at Barton and said solemnly, "Sorry, I really don't want to recognize you as relatives. Take them down."

Foley immediately walked to the two people and slapped on the hand of Barton, scolding, "Dare to talk to Edith like that? Don't you want to live? What do you think you are? You are still saying you are her relatives. You wish!"

After that, Barton and Rowan were beaten and scolded by Foley and led away from there.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 895 Feed the Wolves in the Mountain

Three days later.

The house destroyed by the fighting between Casey and Wolfe had been cleaned up by the Davies' family and was currently being rebuilt. People went to the hospital to do a check, luckily, Wolfe had not hurt them badly, so they just needed some rest.

Casey came out of the room with a pale face, but his state had basically recovered. He woke up this morning, and before he had coma for seven days. How his resistance to side effects of Cabala had been improved a lot.

He believed that when he was truly perfect with Xuangong, the side effects of Cabala to him would be minimal.

At that time, of course, Cabala would become weak to enhance his power.

He went straight to Edith's room, at this time, Edith was playing with Sherry. Seeing that Casey came in, Sherry stared at Casey with big eyes, like looking at a novel toy.

Seeing Sherry's look, Casey immediately smiled, "Why do you look at me like that? You don't know who I am?"

Edith said after taking a look at Casey, "You are always not at home, she certainly doesn't remember who you are. Although the first word she learned is dad, she had not called dad for a long time."

Casey took a look at them with guilty. He wanted to always be with them, but as a man, he carried many things on his shoulders and he got many things to do.

"Will Sherry become a problem girl? When she is a teenager, if she has a street boy as her boyfriend, I will certainly break her legs." Casey smiled.

Edith gave a hum and said, "How comes my daughter become a problem girl with me around her? I will let her become the happiest child in the world."

Casey walked over to embrace Edith and said lightly, "I will let you two become the happiest women in the world."

Edith showed a happy smile. Although Casey often went out to do his own things, he never broke his words. She did enjoy happiness that others could not imagine.

Casey stretched out his hand and rubbed Sherry's small nose. Sherry then showed a happy smile and said, "Dad."

Casey was surprised that she called him dad.

"My daughter remembers me. She called me Dad." Casey said excitedly. Edith rolled her eyes at him, and then took out a doll from her arms. It looked like Casey when he had fight against the five families.

"I told her countless times about you every day, how could she forget who you are? This doll was specially made by me, and it is like you in each period." Edith said.

Casey understood and did not expect that Edith made dolls to let Sherry not forget who he was.

He looked at, touched, and then lowered his head and kissed her red lips.

Edith immediately blushed, and broke away after a while of kissing with Casey.

"Oh, Sherry's watching." Edith spoke.

Casey said with a smile, "She is so small, she doesn't know what is kiss."

Sherry's eyes were wide and she really didn't seem to know what the two men were doing.

In the afternoon.

In a dark room in the Davies' house.

Rowan and Barton stayed there in panic. During these three days, they had experienced despair. Brady from time to time would come to beat them. Now they regretted that they had brought Wolfe to B City.

"Dad, do you think we'll die here?" Rowan looked at Barton, worried.

"How could it be that? Although we were wrong to bring Wolfe here, it has no accident after all. It was just that house collapsed. We can pay for it. Even if Edith is ungrateful and doesn't recognize we are her relatives, she dare not let Casey kill us." Barton still felt that what they did this time was not a big mistake.

Rowan heard this and said, "Dad, you may not know much about Casey. If he is really ruthless, I am afraid that we will die."

"Isn't it enough that he locked us here for days? If he kills us, he's inhuman. As long as we say there is nothing bad happened, he won't dare do anything to us." Said Barton.

Just then the door of the room was thrown open and a mocking voice rang out.

"Haha, it seems that you still do not recognize your mistakes after these days. Do you really think that only a few days of torture is enough to make up for your fault?"

Casey came in from the outside, looking at them coldly, followed by Brady who were looking at the two like jokes.

Seeing that Casey came in, Rowan was nervous and had uneasy foreboding. And his palm began to get sweat.

Barton was still in an angry mood. He directly questioned Casey, "Casey, what do you mean? We have suffered these days, even if there is anger in your heart, you should have vented it out."

"Besides, we didn't do it intentionally. You have seen Wolfe's power.

How could ordinary people like us cope with it? We were forced to bring him here. And you have coped with him, why don't you let us go?"

After Casey heard Barton's words, he immediately understood what the word impudence meant. He gave Barton a cold hum and said, "Why don't I let you go? What do you think you are? What quality do you have to ask me to spare you?"

“Don't you know what would have happened to Edith if I hadn't come back in time? When you decided to take Wolfe to B City, you have been personally sent to the end of your lives.”

“I will let you die miserably, not only the two of you, there will be no Patel family in the G City.”

With that, Casey turned to look at Brady and then said, “Break their legs and then throw into the mountains to feed the Wolf.”

“Got it!” _____

Hearing that, Barton and Rowan widened their eyes. They did not expect that Casey could be so unforgiving to throw them into the mountain to feed the Wolf.

Brady walked up to them with a smirk and asked, "Which one of you will come first?"

Rowan turned his head and looked at Barton. At that time, he was going to beg for mercy with Casey and beg Casey to spare them. However, Barton had said those words and he could not stop.

Now Casey was angered by Barton. He was going to break their legs and throw them into the mountains to feed the Wolf, even if he begged, he certainly could not change anything.

"Why do you insist on saying that? Don't you know the situation we're in? Well, they're gonna break our legs and throw us in the mountains to feed the wolves, so that's good for you?!" Rowan shouted at Barton.

Barton looked at Rowan stupidly and said, "I think he dare not do that."

Rowan wanted to strangle this old man to death, how he had such a brain-disabled father?

"Old man, we are both going to die, but you will die first!"

Rowan scolded Barton and then pushed him to Brady.

"Rowan, I'm your father!" Barton was furious and shouted.

"We are both dying, who cares whether you are my father or not. If it weren't for you, we would not have been in this situation!" Rowan shouted loudly too.

Casey looked at they turned against each other, and then gave a sneer. It was irony, not to the last moment, no one would ever know what heart people have.

He did not care about what would happen to them. Casey turned to go outside. Brady would take care of them. Since Casey wanted to throw them into the mountains to feed the Wolf, they would only die in this way.

At the door of Jordan, Casey knocked on the door and went in. Jordan was processing documents, smiling and sitting in the middle of the room on the wooden chair.

Jordan showed a smile to Casey and said, "Only when you are here, the house has vitality. I am old not and have been long out of date."

Casey said with a smile, "Jordan, you are joking, if it weren't for you, the Davies family will not be so orderly, you have the credits."

Jordan smiled and did not continue to compliment Casey.

Casey did not talk nonsense, but asked, "How is the arrangement for the Patel family in G City?"

"Our people have already been there. The Patel family was just a second-rate family in G City. It is easy to destroy it." Jordan opened his mouth.

Casey nodded and said, "Then I will leave it to you. Although they don't deserve to die, there should be punishment. I hope they will learn their lessons."

Jordan nodded and immediately took out the phone to give orders to the people arranged in G City.

To solve a small Petal family, Casey even need not use the strength of Guanling. The Davies family alone would be enough.

After dealing with the Patel family in G City, Casey went to find Dick for the video. Dick showed off the quality of the video he shot and said it was absolutely meaningful.

Casey told him this video was not for memory but for evidence, as long as the face could be seen.

Dick felt embarrassed. Unexpectedly Casey used this video as evidence. He opened the beauty mode and he acted as a commentary in the video.

Casey did not care how the video Dick shot, as long as it could prove that Wolfe had died in his hands.

After having the video, Casey log in the Pantheon's website, uploaded that video, showing that Wolfe had died in his hands.

After about two hours, it had been confirmed by the Pantheon, and Casey obtained sixty thousands of rewards.

Although it was far behind three hundred thousand of rewards, it was a good start. Casey just left the Pantheon and won the sixty thousands of rewards, the speed had been stupefying. Some members of the Pantheon could not necessarily won ten thousand of rewards a year, besides, it was not easy to kiss a master of sublimation.

After that, Casey began to play with Edith and Sherry.

He intended to spend a few days to accompany them after all, to save three hundred thousand of rewards, he could not have been staying at home. Soon, he had to leave again.

So Casey must cherish the time now.

Meanwhile, in the Pantheon headquarters.

In the middle of the council hall, a dozen figures were already sitting around a huge round table, all of them older in years, more than half of them already were grey-haired. They looked older in years, but with no loss of momentum.

Azure Dragon, White Tiger and Black Tortoise were among them, and the three were younger in these people.

These dozens of people were all the masters of sublimation in the Pantheon and they were kind of high level of the Pantheon. All the decisions of the Pantheon were released through their discussion.

In front of all these people, there was a document, it was the detailed information of Casey, among which Casey did not remember, but was recorded in the Pantheon.

Everyone looked at it, wondering what it was going on.

After a while, Thomas appeared in the hall, everyone immediately quiet down.

An old man in his 70s with gray hair saw Thomas and asked, "Lord, why do not gather us and let us see Casey's information?"

Thomas walked to the main seat, looked at the crowd with a smile and then said, "You must have a certain understanding of Casey, right?"

"I will not keep you in suspense. I have called you all here today to determine who will be the next Lord of the Pantheon."

"Casey is the candidate I identified, after my death, the Pantheon will be taken over by him. If you have any objection, you can raise it now."____

Chapter 897 Candidate for Pantheon's Master

After hearing Thomas's words, all the people in the hall became quiet. They did not expect Thomas was to be announced the next Lord candidate of the Pantheon.

And this candidate had just joined the Pantheon a few days ago. He was in his 20s and had not yet reached the level of sublimation.

It took everyone by surprise.

Hearing Thomas' answer, the old man was stunned a long time before he opened his mouth, "Lord, it is a serious thing. Don't joke with us.

Casey does have talent, but I'm afraid he is not qualified to be our Lord."

Thomas stared at him and said, "I'm serious, although Casey has only joined the Pantheons for a few days, I already checked his past experience, and I brought him here. Whether based on his conduct or qualifications, he was absolutely first-class. I will not die immediately, and I believe that before I die, he is sure to be a powerful man, who can be able to take over the Pantheon."

Everyone became suddenly silent after hearing that with different ideas. Some of these people did not care who was going to be the Lord of the Pantheon, so they had no objection, so long as it kept the Pantheon going.

And some people coveted to be the Lord, even if they were righteous, they want to get promoted and the old man was one on these people.

He was named Crosby Pearson, who was only second to Thomas in the Pantheon. His strength had reached the advanced stage of the sublimation and he was much smaller than Thomas. Many people once thought that after the death of Thomas, Crosby Pearson would take over the Pantheon.

In recent years, Crosby had paid countless painstaking efforts to the Pantheon and he should have this qualification.

So Thomas said the Lord candidates was Casey who was just a boy in his eyes, he for sure was not happy about that.

"Lord, We can't agree with that. He has the best talent who is the strongest I have ever seen, but talent cannot be equated with power. He is just a boy who has not reached the level of sublimation, and no one can predict the future things, so I don't think it is a good idea to rely on him for the future of the Pantheon."

Crosby refuted Thomas without hesitation.

"Yes, Casey is just a young boy, he is impossible to shoulder the burden of the Pantheon."

"Crosby is right. Talent is not everything. No one knows what that boy will turn out to be. It is a rush decision to make him the candidate."

"He has talent, it does not mean that he will keep it. Many people have fast speed in early training, but to the early stage of the sublimation, they stuck there. He really can't be the Lord candidate of the Pantheon."

Azure Dragon and the other two had good impression on Casey and felt it could be a good thing if he could be their Lord.

What was more, Vermilion Bird seemed to have some special attitude towards Casey, so the three hope there was something between Casey and her. Even if Casey had been married, for the powerful man, it was nothing.

However, as they were junior to the elders present, they did not speak. Thomas had expected that there would be opposition, but he had made his decision, especially after Mayo Byrne said that Casey had a unique advantage to reach the Unrealm, he was more determined to the idea. Crosby did have enough qualifications, and had made numerous contributions to the Pantheon, but Casey was currently the only hope in to reach the level of Unrealm. Nowadays, the problems faced by the Pantheon could only be solved by the master of Unrealm, which had nothing to do with qualifications, so Thomas could not hand over the Pantheon to Crosby.

He stared at Crosby and said, "I can understand your concern, but you must have underestimated Casey's talent. I think he can reach a level that you cannot reach in my lifetime. Then you will understand why I choose him as a candidate."

Crosby immediately frowned, in his view, talent was nothing, only the real strength was credible. The information showed that Casey even had not reached the sublimation, so Thomas' words could not convince him.

"Lord, you should be very clear the span between grandmaster circle and sublimation. Although some people look talented, throughout his life, he can only reach the grandmaster circle, making little progress. There is no guarantee that Casey can achieve the level of sublimation smoothly. Even if you choose him as candidate, at the very least, wait for him to achieve the strength of the sublimation." Crosby said.

Thomas said with a smile, "The strength of Casey has reached half sublimation, to the real sublimation, it is just a matter of time."

"Lord, the so-called half sublimation, in my opinion, it is nothing. I think it is better to wait for him to reach the level of sublimation."

"Yes, half sublimation is different from sublimation. We are all masters of sublimation, if a master of half sublimation to be the Lord, we sure are unconvinced."

Two more men spoke out against it.

Just then, a man came to the hall with a report, walked up to Thomas, whispered to him, and then put the report down.

Thomas immediately showed a smile on his face, glanced at the crowd and said, "I just learned that Casey killed Wolfe, who was the 7th in the reward list, in B City. I know all your strength and you know how long Wolfe had been chasing after. Short after Casey joined the Pantheon, he did the thing that you failed. I think you will have no doubts in his strength."

They heard the words of Thomas, immediately showed an incredible look.

"Casey killed Wolfe? How can this be? He is only half the strength of the state!"

A once in charge of Wolfe event, and a few times and Wolfe hand in hand, and every time let him run the early master of the sublimation immediately exclaim.

Chapter 898 Magical Arts Meeting

Thomas stared at the speaker and said, "The video submitted by Casey has been uploaded to the website of the Pantheon. If you have any doubts, you can go to the website for confirmation."

Crosby's face changed. He had just said that Casey just had talent and was far behind the strength of sublimation, but now he, with his strength of half sublimation, had killed a wicked man whom they could not get rid of, which embarrassed him.

After thinking about it, Crosby, looking at Thomas, said, "It is not a big deal to kill an initial master of sublimation. To manage the entire Pantheon, he must have enough strength to convince others, but Casey is far behind that."

Thomas said with a smile, "I just said, now I am just to determine the candidate. I think I will not die so fast. Casey will become a powerful man during the time I am alive."

His words made Crosby unable to refute. He could only snort with a gloomy face, "Let's wish the candidate you designated could smoothly reach the level that everyone expects. I hope he won't have any trouble in the process."

With that said, Crosby turned and went out.

Thomas just smiled and didn't say anything.

The rest of the people suddenly whispered, obviously, what Thomas announced would have impact on be the future of the Pantheon. No one knew whether Casey could be competent to the Lord of the Pantheon. Some people supported Crosby, some people felt Casey had huge potential and did have the qualification to be a candidate, while others did not have opinion.

Azure Dragon and the other two listened to their lively discussion and got their idea in their minds.

"Unexpectedly after two days he joined the Pantheon, he could kill Wolfe. I thought his strength still stay in the grandmaster. If last time we really had fight to help Vermilion Bird, the consequence can't be told. Luckily, we did not want to fight with him." Said Azure Dragon.

White Tiger and Black Tortoise nodded. They had new understanding about Casey now.

"Did Vermilion Bird go to B City?" Asked Azure Dragon.

"Yes, she has a mission in B City." Answered White Tiger.

"Make her develop a good relationship with Casey. He is the candidate designated by the Lord of the Pantheon, we have to have good relationship with him." Said Azure Dragon, his eyes shining.

"Right, right, right, call Vermilion Bird." Black Tortoise opened his mouth.

"Yes, but don't tell her that Casey has been candidates, this is the Pantheon's secret which can't be spread. Just tell her we feel Casey is good and tell her to fight for him, maybe they will fall in love." Azure Dragon laughed irreverently.

...

B City, the Davies' house.

Casey came to the training room.

Twins Who Turned Child Stardom Into Two Luxury Fashion Lines

Casey was sitting beside the bed, with a table in front of him. On the table were several objects, one of which was a fairly large piece of Scarlet Sun Wood, with a candle beside it and a knife.

And Casey was holding an invitation. He stared at it, frowning slightly.

It was found from Wolfe's body, with words "Magical arts Meeting Invitation' on it, which looked very formal. It was written with the meeting place and time, as well as compliment of Wolfe. It seemed that the inviter had regarded the skill of Wolfe as magical arts.

Casey had learned something from the website of the Pantheon that there was such a thing in the world. Magical arts sounded mysterious, but it essentially was application of power.

Different from the power of the martial arts, the so-called magical arts used external forces, natural forces, while the martial arts used of human power.

The pantheon tended to include those with psychic powers in the branch of magical arts.

Because the power of nature was not so easy to use, so although there were strange people who could use magical arts in the world, the number was quite a few. Since it existed, it must have people to inherit it, otherwise by relying on human power to use the power of nature was like a daydream.

According to the investigation of the Pantheon, even with the complete inheritance of the magical arts, those so-called masters of magical arts had only same power as the master in the early stage of sublimation.

There were many higher levels of magical arts but no one had ever reached it, and no one knew the reason.

The magical arts were very similar to the art of cultivating immortals in ancient times. Maybe someone could really reach the realm of immortals with magical arts a long time ago, but it was impossible at present. After all, the top master of magical arts was only comparable to the early stage of sublimation.

Casey was confused the meeting seemed to be formal but they invited Wolfe who was a scum, which made him doubt the purpose of this meeting.

It was still some times to go before the meeting. Casey had great curiosity about magical arts, so if there was a chance, he would go and see.

Of course, watching was not important. If the meeting had tricks, Casey might be able to earn some reward, after all, the magical arts could not be solved by ordinary people and it would naturally need the Pantheon. They invited Wolfe, so it was likely that other masters of the sublimation had been invited. If those wanted by Pantheon were there, it was an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for him.

"As my strength grows stronger and stronger, the things I encounter become more and more mysterious. If I really have the chance to reach the so-called the Unrealm, I wonder whether I can really see the immortals." Having a self-deprecating smile, Casey did not think of the meeting again, but fell his eyes on the Scarlet Sun Wood.

If Thomas knew that Casey had such a big piece of Scarlet Sun Wood, he would certainly be surprised.

"According to the Lord of the Pantheon, Scarlet Sun Wood needs to be made into chips and burned to give full play to the effect. I wonder what kind of benefits it can bring to me, I'll have a try."

Muttering, Casey picked up the knife on the table and scrape wood chips from the Scarlet Sun Wood. _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 899 The Effect of Scarlet Sun Wood

In a blink of eyes, Casey got some chips from the Scarlet Sun Wood. He did not dare to get too much, for fear of uncontrollable situation.

After having the small amount of wood chips, Casey lit the candles on the table and gently threw the chips over the flames.

As soon as the wood chips touched the flame, they burst into flames, and then a magical blue stream of air hung over the candle.

Casey looked at the blue airflow, not knowing how to deal with it, so he went up to smell it.

The blue airflow went along Casey's nose into his body. Casey felt a shadowless power toward the direction of the top of his skull, at that moment, he had a sense of out-of-body spirit.

Then he felt a swelling sensation in his head, as if his spirit was trying to break out of his head.

For a long time, Casey suppressed the feeling in his head, secretly took breath. He felt his head was to split. Although it was not painful, the instinct of his body made him fear.

After the return to normal, Casey hurriedly checked his body, found that there was no problem, but his spirit became surprisingly good, his five senses become smooth and his perception got much enhanced.

This change was not big, but for Casey, who had reached half sublimation, it undoubtedly increased his probability of winning in a battle.

The battle between masters depended on the control of details. When two people with comparable strength had a fight, they could only think of ways to capture the flaws of the other side from the details.

Now Casey's five sense were smoother, which meant that his perception was better his opponent. He could be faster and easier to find flaws, so as to grasp the key to win a battle.

In the past, the operation speed of Casey's brain had been much better than that of ordinary people. Now, the Scarlet Sun Wood made him faster.

Besides, Casey took only a small amount of wood chips and it had already produced such a big effect.

It would be much powerful if he took more.

Since this Scarlet Sun Wood did not produce harm, Casey picked up a knife and scraped more wood chips.

After that, Casey again put them on the candle and the blue air was twice richer.

Casey again inhaled the air into his body, by this time, his spirit had a shock, then, he widened his eyes, because he felt a strange power in his mind which he had never felt before.

And that sudden power was trying to break through his head and go outside.

That feeling brought him great pain, but his instinct told him that he had to help the power break through the bondage, otherwise, this power trapped in his head would directly stir his brain, and he was likely to become a fool.

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

Without hesitation, Casey began to scrape wood chips from the Scarlet Sun Wood, and burned it on the candle. When a streak of blue air showed up, Casey inhaled it in a fast speed, but it was still not enough to make that power break through his mind.

Casey only felt his headache and got sweat on his forehead. Biting his teeth, he kept himself awake, and strived to make the power break through his mind.

Because the way to scrape wood chips was too slow, Casey simply burned the Scarlet Sun Wood on the candles.

In a twinkling of an eye, the Scarlet Sun Wood burnt up, like charcoal fire, kept releasing blue air toward the outside.

Casey realized that Scarlet Sun Wood could be burnt easily even if not scraped into wood chips.

Within a few breaths, the room was filled with blue air, and half of the wood was burned.

Casey knew the Scarlet Sun Wood could not keep burning, otherwise the blue air would explode his head.

So he immediately put out the flames on the Scarlet Sun Wood with his mysterious strength, and then sat cross-legged on the bed, eyes closed, began to absorb the blue air in the middle of the room.

With the breath of Casey, the blue air in the room began to gradually reduce. Casey's face looked like he was burning, with his sweat kept flowing down the cheek, heat coming out from the top of his head, which was weird.

Now Casey's mind was in a mess. He focused on that strange power, trying to help it break through the shackles of his mind, so that he could become better.

After Careful perception of Casey, he found the blue air contained the power Casey never contacted. This power was absorbed by Casey and rushed toward the power generated in his mind, making that power become solid.

That power appeared in Casey's mind was different with the power of inner force and Xuangong. Casey had never seen it before, but he could feel it was unusual. Compared with inner force and Xuangong, it was more mysterious and miraculous, now Casey did not know what it was for.

After a long time, Casey exhausted all his spirit, absorbed all the blue air in the room, and that power rushed out of his mind after he got exhausted.

Then, Casey felt an invisible vortex in his mind, inside his mind released pure spirit. His weak spirit became vibrant soon after it contacted that power.

After a long time, the invisible vortex stopped the release of power and contracted bit by bit, finally in the mind of Casey, it condensed into a blue light virtual shadow of human, looked like Casey.

Casey was shocked, because he found that he could see the blue shadow, as in inner vision in the ancient books, quite mysterious.

And what shocked Casey more was that he could now clearly feel all the details of the room, all things exist in his perception, but he was at the moment closing eyes._____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 900 Awakening

"What is this? Why can't I see what's going on in my room when my eyes are clearly closed? How can I see exactly what's behind me?"

Casey muttered, and then opened his eyes, looked at the room.

Although he could only see some of the scenes in front of him, the strange power was still there, so he could still perceive the full range of the situation.

And Casey could also feel that this kind of strange power came out from the blue little man in his mind.

He had very strong bond with the blue little man, who was part of him. Casey tried to move his mind to control the little man to take back that strange power, and then the perception of the surrounding instantly disappeared, and his vision returned to normal.

After that, Casey controlled the little man to release that kind of power, the situation in the room again all appeared in his perception.

Casey felt that this power could cover the scope of about five meters in a radius, all things in the range could not escape Casey's perception.

"Is this the spiritual power in the legend? The power of Scarlet Sun Wood allows me to control spiritual power?" Casey muttered to himself.

In any case, the power he now possessed was very similar to spiritual power, except that the little man in his mind seemed to be far more powerful than those who possessed it in the records of the Pantheons. If Mayo saw Casey's current state, he must be very surprised, because what Casey now controlled was not spiritual power, but power of god soul ten times more powerful than spiritual power.

That little man in Casey's mind was his soul.

Casey certainly never expected that his first try actually awaken his innate god soul.

Though it was innate god soul, the awakening process was dangerous. In the past, people with innate god soul were all key objects who got much attention, when they were awakening, the elders would be there for guidance to make sure that nothing went wrong.

However, Casey awakened his god soul accidentally, and was completely unaware of the dangers of it, and he still felt that he was lucky to have spiritual power.

If Mayo knew it, he would certainly give Casey a lesson, because it might kill himself.

Fortunately, Casey was fine and he had successfully awakened his god soul, in the future, when he realized what was going on, he must be shocked.

"Scarlet Sun Wood is magical, unexpectedly it makes me have spiritual power. If I can observe the opponent with it in the battle, I will see his moves clearly, in this way, I won't have to worry that the opponent attack me from behind."

Casey looked very happy, however, he did not realize that Scarlet Sun Wood just played a supporting role. He had innate god soul, otherwise he could not have such power even if he burned out the whole Scarlet Sun Wood.

Preliminary master of the "spiritual power" made Casey curious, so he had been having a test on bed. Not for a while, he felt his spirit became extremely tired and it could not support the use of the spiritual power.

The power of god soul was strong, but it consumed a lot of spirit, and Casey just awakened his god soul, so he could not insist for too long. But god soul would grow up as Casey. As Casey grew stronger and stronger, his god soul would become stronger and stronger, and he would get more and more skills.

The Casey in the present stage was like a kid in the respect of god soul. Compared with his opponent, Mayo, who was a skillful master, it was not a big deal, but for those who had no god soul, Casey absolutely was a powerful killer.

As Casey wanted to have a break to resume his state, he suddenly felt inside his clothes came out of strange wave.

He reached out his hand toward his clothes for two Soul Setting Jades, from which the wave emanating.

Casey carefully stared at the two Soul Setting Jades, as there was wave, it was when Casey took back his spiritual power.

So he tried to endure his exhaustion and used his spiritual power to feel the two Soul Setting Jades, and then Soul Setting Jades appeared waves with strange strength. Casey felt its spiritual power less exhausted.

Soul Setting Jades could nourish people's mind in normal state, but Casey did not expect that it played such a role.

Although Soul Setting Jade's speed to resume Casey's god soul was not fast, it was better than that Casey did nothing, no wonder the Pantheon felt the Soul Setting Jade valued three hundred thousand of rewards.

Anyway, Casey had not gathered three pieces together, before giving them to his master, he would not mind using them to nourish his spirit.

He could feel that if he wore it for a long time, his spiritual power would grow.

In general, Casey's harvest today was big. With the spiritual spirit, when he fought with others, he would have more confidence and he could make direct harm to others, which was more horrible.

After putting away the Soul Setting Jade and Scarlet Sun Wood, Casey walked out of the room and was to find Edith and Sherry and restore his spirit by Soul Setting Jade.

Soul Setting Jade would actively for nourishing his god soul. Casey only needed to make connection between Soul Setting Jade and his god soul.

The next day at noon, Casey was still eating lunch, there was a man ran over and told Casey that someone was looking for him outside.

Casey was confused and wondered who would come to him at lunch time, so he asked, "Who is looking for me?"

The man answered, "It is a woman of twenty-seven or eight, who calls herself Vermilion Bird, and says she needs your help."

Hearing that, Casey was stunned, wondering why she came to B City.____

Chapter 901 What Happened to Vermilion Bird

Edith heard that a woman came to find Casey, she immediately turned to take a glance at him, with a trace of inquiry in her eyes.

"Who is Vermilion Bird? I never knew you have such a friend." Edith asked.

Casey smiled at Edith with embarrassment, he said "She is my... Well, colleague."

He did not know how to tell Edith about the identity of Vermilion Bird. He had never mentioned the Pantheon to Edith, so he said Vermilion Bird was his colleague.

"Colleague?" Edith obviously was stunned, put down the chopsticks, staring at Casey, "Do you have something to hide from me? Why do you have a colleague? Casey, you are lying."

Casey suddenly clapped his forehead and felt his address to Vermilion Bird was inappropriate. He had been long that he left his company behind, how could he had colleagues?

"Well, I joined an organization while I was out, and Vermilion Bird is a member of this organization, so I said she is my colleague. Vermilion Bird is like a tiger, I won't have fancy on her."

"What! You want to have fancy on others!" Edith immediately exclaimed.

Casey did not understand what was in Edith's mind.

"I am afraid you would think too much, so I explained it. You will understand when she is here." With that, Casey asked that man to bring over Vermilion Bird.

Casey thought if Vermilion Bird came to make a scene, he would teach her a lesson even if he would even offend her three brothers.

Later, Vermilion Bird was led by the servant to Casey and Edith. Vermilion Bird looked messy. Casey remembered that she loved dressing up and wearing many jewelries, but now Vermilion Bird looked messy in her hair and dirty on her face, as if she had been hungry for a long time. She did not look swaggering as she did in the pantheon. Casey looked at Vermilion Bird with doubts. With three masters of sublimation as her brothers, why she reduced to this point? Edith carefully looked at Vermilion Bird and found that Vermilion Bird was a pretty woman, but she looked messy. She must have encountered some troubles.

Vermilion Bird also noticed Edith. She did not expect that Casey had such a beautiful wife.

But at the thought of her own experience, Vermilion Bird was embarrassed. If she had a way out, she would come to Casey, who she did not like, for help.

"What's the matter with you?" Casey stared at Vermilion Bird and asked.

Vermilion Bird did not answer Casey, but stared at the food on the table swallowing saliva. Seeing that, Edith stood up, said with a smile, "You should have not eaten yet, sit down and eat with us."

With these words, she helped Vermilion Bird to the table and sat her down.

Vermilion Bird immediately picked up a pair of chopsticks on the table and began to gobble, which showed that she was really hungry.

And after eating, Vermilion Bird restored her strength and then put down the chopsticks. At this hour, she looked much better.

She stared at Casey and intended to tell him why she was here, "I come to find you..."

But as soon as she opened her mouth, Casey hurriedly said, "Before that, first explain to my wife who you are, to save her misunderstanding."

Vermilion Bird did not expect that, which made her unhappy.

But considering that she was now in the Davies' house and she ate his food, what was more, she might need his help, so she endured it.

She turned to Edith, said with a smile, "Don't worry, Casey and I belong to the same organization. I didn't know him for long, and I came to him this time because I need help."

Judging from the look of Vermilion Bird, Edith knew she must be in troubles. She questioned Casey before, it was just a joke, unexpectedly he asked Vermilion to explain to her, so she was embarrassed.

She stared at Casey and then said to Vermilion Bird, "Oh, I did not expect him to let you explain this kind of thing. I certainly don't have any suspicion. He is rash, please don't mind that."

Vermilion Bird immediately said with a smile, "I know that. He's really rash. I don't mind for sure."

Casey suddenly was speechless, why did the two women say he was rash.

"Stop that. Tell me what happened to you. Why did you come to B City?" Casey opened his mouth.

Vermilion Bird went to the point and told her experience to Casey and Edith.

After receiving a task from the Pantheon headquarters, Vermilion Bird came to B City soon after Casey left and began to investigate someone commit crime through mind control.

The Pantheons had uncovered most of the clues, and Vermilion Bird was here to bring the perpetrators of the crime to justice.

The target of Vermilion Bird was a man named Lachlan Chapman, who was the lord of Chapman family a second-rate family in B City.

According to the investigation of the Pantheon, he had the ability to control other people's mind. Once through the mind control, he seduced innocent girls, induced others to commit suicide and to disclose business secrets.

Originally Vermilion Bird thought she only needed to catch Lachlan, but to her surprise, it was not that easy. Lachlan was far more powerful than she thought.

He had spiritual power and could control the mind of others, plus, he had the strength of the grandmaster, so he was a skillful master.

When Vermilion Bird came to his door, Lachlan had no fear but fought with Vermilion Bird. Although Vermilion Bird was at the peak of grandmaster circle, and she literally was powerful than Lachlan, but she did not expect that Lachlan had spiritual power, which made her unprepared. In the fight, Lachlan, through spiritual power, made Vermilion Bird lose her mind and she forgot what to do next.

Naturally it was bad that she did not know how she should move in the fight, in only a short moment, the other side could seize her flaw through this opportunity and defeat her.

What was more terrible, Lachlan could hypnotize others through spiritual power. Vermilion Bird's willpower was far beyond ordinary people, but later she was still defeated by Lachlan. _____

Chapter 902 Am I Not Reliable

Hearing what Vermilion Bird said, Casey looked at Vermilion Bird curiously. According to Vermilion Bird's words, Lachlan controlled other people's mind to seduce girls. Vermilion Bird was pretty, if Lachlan could control Vermilion Bird, the consequence was naturally obvious.

"So you lost your virginity?" Casey asked.

Hearing that, Vermilion Bird turned pale on her face and looked back at Casey, biting teeth, "Can you say some good words? I am at the peak of grandmaster circle. Lachlan hypnotized me, but it did not last long, and he was aware of that if he did anything to me, I will make him a eunuch before he took off his pants."

Edith looked at Casey with blame and felt his question was straightforward. Although Lachlan defeated Vermilion Bird and she felt something bad might have happened, she would speak out as Casey did.

"Sorry, I think too much." Casey looked at Vermilion Bird with apology, because in the Pantheon, he had been straightforward to Vermilion Bird, so he naturally said so.

Vermilion Bird ignored Casey and continued, "Lachlan knows my identity, even if he hypnotizes me, he did not dare to do anything to me, but he took everything away from me, not leaving me a cent. When I woke up, I found myself outside his house."

"I was going to kill him again, but Lachlan's spiritual power was too strange to me to cope with it. Even if I fought with him again, he would hypnotize me again. He knows the existence of the Pantheon, but he does not know the horrors of the Pantheon. He let me go for the first time, but he may not at the second time."

"So I had to resist the urge to go to him. I have to calm down and think about how to deal with him."

"I have no money to eat and to live in a hotel. There are only a few people of the Pantheon in B City, I do not have a mobile phone so I can't contact anyone. Later I borrowed someone else's mobile phone to call my brothers, but they could not arrive here in a short time. they told me you are in B City and asked me to find you."

"I starved for two days and slept under the overbridge for two days. There was nothing I could do, so I asked for the location of your house and came to you."

In the end of her words, Vermilion Bird inexplicably felt wronged. Unexpectedly she would ask Casey for help, which embarrassed her, because she had been arrogant to Casey.

"Then why didn't you come to me in the first place and would rather starve for two days?" Casey asked with doubt.

Vermilion Bird angrily stared at Casey and said, "Because it is embarrassing, why do you ask that? You must be intentional."

Edith appeased Vermilion Bird and accused Casey. She asked Vermilion Bird not to be angry with him.

Casey really was not intentional, he just did not understand. Seeing that Vermilion Bird had that reaction, so he apologized.

Unexpectedly Vermilion Bird would be so fragile, but Casey had more understanding about her.

After Vermilion Bird calmed down, Casey began to discuss with her about how to deal with Lachlan. He was a member of the Pantheon, now his "colleague" had a problem, sure he would offer help.

Casey had heard about Chapman family. More than a decade ago, Chapman family had been a second-rate family of B City. Turmoil was caused in B City, but Chapman family had not be affected. From the current situation, it seemed that it was not because his family was lucky, but Lachlan was a grandmaster with spiritual power.

If not Vermilion Bird, Casey really did not know there was such a figure in B City.

"Lachlan's spiritual spirit is indeed a very troublesome problem. Even if your strength reached the level of half sublimation, you are not necessarily able to cope with his spiritual power. After all, it is another form of power, people who don't know it have no solution." Vermilion Bird said dignifiedly.

Casey immediately said with a smile, "I don't think so, in my opinion, Lachlan is very easy to be solved."

Vermilion Bird glanced at Casey and said, "I know you have a lot of confidence in yourself, but people with spiritual power are really special, you will know when you come into contact with them."

Casey naturally knew that those with spiritual power is special, but now he had spiritual power too. He did not think he was less powerful than Lachlan, and he had Soul Setting Jade, to a certain extent, it could resist this spirit.

"Don't worry, I will certainly help you deal with Lachlan. He did evil, I naturally won't leave him in B City. You go to take a bath and have some rest. We will go to his house at night to meet him." Casey smiled.
Vermilion Bird opened her eyes wide and said, "Are you sure? Go to him without any preparation?"

Casey nodded his head seriously.

Vermilion Bird felt it unbelievable. Lachlan was powerful, but Casey did not take it seriously, as if Lachlan was nobody in his eyes.

Edith saw Vermilion Bird's reaction and said with a smile, "Casey will not do things without preparation, since he said so, he must have a way to deal with Lachlan. Believe him. I take you to have a bath."

With that, Edith went out holding Vermilion Bird's hand.

In the evening, Casey and Vermilion Bird walked in the street. The Davies' house was not far from the Chapman's house, so they chose to walk to there.

Had known that Chapman family had such a dangerous person, Casey must have taken a move on Chapman family.

Vermilion Bird was perturbed. She turned to Casey and asked, "Are you sure you have a way to deal with Lachlan? If we two can't deal with him, will we be killed?"

Casey turned to Vermilion Bird and said, "Am I so unreliable? At least I was invited by your Lord to join the Pantheon, I am not that bad."

Hearing Casey said so, Vermilion Bird no longer persuaded Casey but muttered, "Hum, if something bad happens, my three brothers certainly will not forgive you." _____

Chapter 903 How Swaggering

In the Chapman's house..

Because Lachlan liked the ancient style, so what placed in the middle of the sitting room were wooden chairs, wooden tables, a censer in the middle, with a wisp of smoke ceaselessly rising from it.

At this time in the middle of the living room sat a few people. Lachlan sat on the main position, chatting and laughing with them.

People who knew fengshui would find they were masters of fengshui in

B City sitting in the living room.

They looked at Lachlan with respect, it seemed that Lachlan had surprisingly high status in their minds.

They were gathered here to discuss "magical arts meeting" that would be held, In the fengshui circle in B City, only Lachlan was invited. They came here to curry favor with Lachlan, so that Lachlan would agree to take them to the meeting.

Although these people were famous fengshui masters, they knew only Eight-Diagram and theoretical knowledge of Miracle Fighters, without no real ability.

Lachlan certainly looked down upon these people, but he was willing to listen to their compliments, and it was quite a good thing to be able to boast in front of them.

"Lachlan, you look better and better and your skill to control others' mind was more sophisticated."

"Yes, that skill to control others' mind is mysterious and amazing, I was shocked to see that."

Lachlan said with a smile, "I have really advanced a lot in this skill. Two days ago, a girl claiming to be from the Pantheon came to make trouble for me. She said that I had committed a crime and wanted to arrest me."

"The strength of the wench is not weak. She was a grandmaster at a young age, but she did not know that I can control her mind, so she was hypnotized by me."

"I've heard the name of the Pantheons before. It's said to be a mysterious organization, and for the sake of it, I didn't lay a hand on her. I only took everything from her. Or I would play with her for she is pretty."

Lachlan named his skill Dementor.

He had acquired it by accident in a moment of crisis and despair, and he had always thought it was a gift from heaven.

The people heard Lachlan's words and began to laugh.

"With your skills, naturally you don't need to worry about the so-called mysterious organization. Even if they are mysterious, they are not as mysterious as your skills."

"Yes, you have first-class skills and power. I am afraid that famous Casey is not a match to you."

Hearing that, Lachlan immediately showed a slight disdain and said, "I have not been interested in fame and prestige these years, so my family has been a second-rate family, which let the Davies family have the opportunity to rise."

"If I make a move, Casey could only live ten minutes in my hands. Unfortunately, I have been tired of this kind of fight. Without fighting and killing, I feel at ease, otherwise, Casey would not have a chance to be famous."

Everyone nodded in agreement.

"You are right, Lachlan, Casey is far behind than you. You are a real master."

"Only low-key people like you can be regarded as real master. In the world, you watch those people making noise, just like watching a drama. Such a realm is really beyond our Imagination."

"If you come out, Casey can only stand aside. He is just a boor and you are the real master who has the real ability.

...

As the crowd kept flattering Lachlan, the door of the house was blown open by a gust of wind, and then a deafening voice echoed in the ears of everyone.

"Lachlan is swaggering. Since you feel me not good as your, how about we have a fight?"

Lachlan immediately looked at the door, narrowing eyes.

Two figures went in, Casey and Vermilion Bird.

The people were surprised to see Casey to be in the Chapman's house. They still feared of Casey, after all, they were just ordinary people, of course, they dare not randomly provoke Casey, but now Lachlan was with the, they were not worried.

Lachlan seemed to have understood something seeing Casey and Vermilion Bird. He gave a cold hum and said, "I thought it was a problem, so this girl came back with a helper."

Vermilion Bird looked at Lachlan with a cold face, feeling disgusting about his words.

"Lachlan, you use mind control to commit crimes. It is the duty of the Pantheon to arrest you. Do you think that you can be unpunished for those mistakes you made?" Casey looked at Lachlan and said coldly. Lachlan fixed his eyes on Casey and gave a cold hum, saying, "I did not expect you are from the Pantheon too. What? Do you think I am afraid of you? You know what, I don't care the so-called Pantheon, and I advise you to mind your own business, or I don't mind killing you."

"Yeah? I would like to see your skills then." Casey's momentum instantly burst out and he did not intend to waste time with Lachlan. Lachlan felt the imposing manner of Casey and was surprised at that. From the point of view of the realm, Casey was much higher than him, but he could control mind, so he was not afraid of fighting with Casey. "You're really boastful. Do you really think you can be arrogant in front of me since you have dealt with that gang of trash in Warrior Circle? Since so, I will let everyone see you are nothing to me!"

With that, Lachlan stood up from the seat, walked to the middle of the living room.

Vermilion Bird looked at Casey with uneasy mind, not sure whether Casey really could deal with Lachlan. She said, "Be careful of his spiritual power, that is weird and unexpected. Once you got hit, it will be over." Casey said with a smile, "Don't worry, it's a small trick, don't be so nervous."

The Peremptory Casey Davies
Chapter 904 Blood Freezes

Seeing that Casey did not fear his skills, Lachlan sneered in his heart. In the past, he had seemed many people like Casey, thinking his skill was just a trick, but those people finally disappeared in the world.

"Casey, you will know immediately, force is not the only power in the world, even if you can suppress me, but you will still be defeated in my hands."

After a cold hum, Lachlan narrowed his eyes suddenly, followed by a shadowless power emanating from his body toward Casey.

Casey had released his spiritual power, within the radius of five meters, all the situation was in his control. He felt Lachlan's power, which was really special, but in front of the spiritual power of Casey, it seemed to be too small.

That power released by Lachlan directly went toward the mind of Casey. The little man in Casey's mind opened his eyes, staring at that power and that power seemed to have face great threat, not daring do anything.

Even if that power attacked the spirit of Casey, for the little man in Casey's mind, it was just like tickle.

Originally Casey thought Lachlan's spiritual power was similar his, so he got careful preparation, but after feeling the power of Lachlan, Casey knew that it was nothing at all.

Not to mention the little man in his mind, Lachlan even do have not perception ability.

He should be able to make some simple means of attacking other people's spirits only with his so-called spiritual power.

This method might seem very powerful to ordinary people, and it also worked for the unsuspecting grandmasters.

But for being master of sublimation, the role of this attack was very little, after all, every master of sublimation had great perseverance, firmly mind. Lachlan's trick only could make them lost their mind and do no harm.

And Casey was not afraid of it. The spiritual power in his eyes should be brought by awakening. In the whole country, even in history, there were a few with innate god soul.

Although Casey did not know he was powerful with that, he still could feel Lachlan's gap with him.

Originally Casey thought Lachlan was a fierce role, but he only got this trick, which made Casey quite disappointed.

In order to feel the difference between Lachlan and his power, Casey did not make any action.

People around saw that and felt Casey was hypnotized by Lachlan.

People got hit would be in daze like him was now.

Lachlan could not feel what his power had done in Casey's mind, so he thought Casey had been hypnotized.

"He got his momentum, I thought he was powerful, but unexpectedly he got hypnotized so soon, the so-called first person in C Country Martial Circle only got this." Lachlan said with satisfaction.

The people around hurried to praise him.

"You are really awesome, I thought Casey with fight with you for some time, but he got defeated so soon."

"It seems that the strength of Warrior Circle is far behind your skill.

Since Casey can't be controlled by you, I think your family can completely replace the Davies family"

"You are super, you are the real first person in C Country Martial Circle."

...

Lachlan listened to these people's compliments and showed a complacent smile.

He fixed his eyes on Casey. According to previous experience, people got hypnotized would be in daze for a period of time, even if their willpower was amazing, they could not wake up instantly, and during this time, he could kill Casey.

Vermilion Bird saw that Casey froze and heard the words of these people in the living room, suddenly she became nervous. She looked at Casey, unexpectedly Casey should be so easy to be defeated.

"Why is he worse than me? I can at least resist for a while, why he froze so soon? I'm in trouble with this megalomaniac." Vermilion Bird secretly complained.

Lachlan took a look at Vermilion Bird and gave a bad smile, said, "You shouldn't bring him here to make a scene. I have let you go, but you don't have repentance. After I deal with him, I will settle with you. You are pretty, and I quite like you."

With that, Lachlan was to make a move to Casey.

Seeing that, Vermilion Bird immediately blocked in front of Casey. She was angry because Casey was arrogant, but she would not leave Casey alone.

"Disgusting scum, don't think you do anything with your little tricks, I am not easy to be provoked!"

Lachlan did not put Vermilion Bird in his eyes although the strength of Vermilion Bird had reached the level of grandmaster's peak. Since Casey was defeated, Vermilion Bird would not be easy to be dealt with.

As Vermilion Bird was to make a move and before Lachlan had used his tricks, Casey suddenly raised his hand and grabbed her arm.

Vermilion Bird immediately showed doubt, turned back and found Casey was smiling at her.

"You were hypnotized by this guy?" Vermilion Bird asked. According to the information, Lachlan could hypnotize others

"No, I was just stunned. His tactics are much worse than I thought. I'll deal with him."

With that, Casey dragged Vermilion Bird to his back and looked at Lachlan.

Lachlan did not expect Casey would wake up so soon, a trace of surprise could be seen on his face.

But he soon calmed down, said to Casey, "I did not expect that you can wake up so soon. It seems that I have underestimated you, but since I can hypnotize you once, I can do it again. I will not waste time and get rid of you as soon as possible!"

With that, Lachlan used his spiritual power towards Casey.

Casey revealed a joking radian, said, "With you tricks? Don't ever dream about it!"

Then, Casey contracted his spiritual power and went toward Lachlan.

At this moment, Lachlan realized what blood freezes was.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 905 Glare

"No!"

Lachlan exclaimed, and instinctly took steps back, but Casey's speed was fast. He felt his spiritual power was forced to retreat back, then, huge scary spiritual power got into his mind.

Lachlan only felt headache and dizzy, then he staggered and fell to the ground, spat out blood. His face immediately became pale as the dead. Seeing that, Casey was surprised. He did not expect his spiritual power could be so strong.

He took his spiritual power back. It was unexpected, but it worked and it cost a lot of his spirit. If it had been maintained in this state, after a while, Casey's spirit would be flagging.

People around were dumbfounded looking at Lachlan fell to the ground. In their eyes, Casey just glared at Lachlan, and Lachlan fell to the ground vomiting blood, dying.

This means was more horrible than Lachlan's skill.

"No... Wasn't Casey be hypnotized? Why Lachlan ended like this by his glare?"

"We seem to be underestimating Casey. Lachlan's mean did no harm to him and he was more powerful than Lachlan."

"It seems that Casey has his reason to be the first person of C Country Martial circle. Lachlan can do nothing to him."

...

Vermilion Bird thought Casey got defeated because of his arrogance and complained about that, but seeing that, she was shocked. She fought for a long time with Lachlan, but she was still defeated.

However, only by a glare, Casey made Lachlan fell to the ground and spat blood. Her Lord could not do that.

Did he hide his real strength? But according to his age, even if he was immortal reincarnation, it was impossible to make people vomit blood by a glare in a short time.

So Vermilion Bird had doubts. Casey should have used spiritual power similar to Lachlan's and made him badly hurt, or a glare could not be so powerful.

Her gaze fell upon Casey with complex. Her first impression on him was bad, but he did have amazing talent and strength, and no one knew what he really got. At the very least, the Pantheon's information did not say Casey had spiritual power.

"It seems that the Lord knows you well, in this case, I'll forgive you for your previous attitude to me." Murmured Vermilion Bird to herself. If her three brothers heard that, they would be sure surprised. They had known Vermilion Bird for so many years, they never knew Vermilion Bird would forgive others. Even if it was her fault, she never said she would forgive.

And now Vermilion Bird unexpectedly forgave Casey. According to the theory of the three brothers, Vermilion Bird certainly had fancy on Casey.

"Lachlan, I suddenly remembered I still have things to do, so I have to hurry to go back. See you." One of the observant fengshui masters had already guessed how it would end. Knowing it would be a disaster if he stayed any longer, he decided to leave.

He did not care if Lachlan answered him or not, after saying that, he hurried toward outside the villa.

The rest fengshui master saw that and followed suit. They hurriedly left. If they did not leave now, they would have chance again.

Casey ignored them. He knew they were just ordinary people to curry favor with Lachlan since he came in, so there was no need to waste time on these people.

Lachlan looked at Casey with panic, like watching a monster. Over the years, because of mastering spiritual power, Lachlan did a lot of research in the subject, so he knew that there were people in the world could control spiritual power, but in his investigation, those who had spiritual power only could do as he did.

After all, it was horrible enough to be able to use spiritual power. If it reached higher level, it was too terrible. For various factors and conditions, the strength of spiritual power could not be too strong.

But today Lachlan saw it from Casey. As Casey's spiritual power attacked him, he felt his life had been in the hands of Casey.

And if it had not been for Casey, he would have become a fool.

Even so, his head still hurt like needles attacking. Waves of pain from the depths of his spirit spread over, so that his forehead had been full of cold sweat.

Casey walked toward Lachlan with a teasing smile. He asked, "Do you still think you that means enough?"

Lachlan took a deep breath and asked through clenched teeth, "Why? Why can you resist my dementors? And I felt a pretty strong mental energy in that moment. Do you have spiritual power, too?"

Casey said with a smile, "I don't know, but it is more severe than your so-called dementors. You only have the strength of the grandmaster but you dare to speak wild words in front of me, you are really bold."

With that, Casey's palm appeared bursts of light. He squatted on the edge of Lachlan, gently patted toward Lachlan's leg with that hand, and then Lachlan screamed out.

He made Lachlan's legs disabled, in case he escaped. Casey turned Vermilion Bird who was still shocked, said, "He is yours."

Vermilion Bird came back to herself. Looking at Lachlan who had lost the ability to escape and seriously injured, Vermilion Bird remembered that she got fooled by Lachlan and got furious.

Vermilion Bird was one of the four masters in the Pantheon, plus she was from childhood spoiled by the other three masters of sublimation, she could not bear that she had got fooled.

Lachlan saw Vermilion Bird's vision and shivered, at this moment, he seemed to see his own front appeared a tigress. _____

Chapter 906 in Action

Casey walked out from the Chapman villa holding an invitation, with "magical arts meeting" on it, which was the same as Wolfe's.

Casey did not expect that Lachlan also received the invitation. It seemed that the meeting was much larger than Casey thought. People invited certainly had real ability.

Casey had greater interest in it. He wanted to know if there would be a true master of spiritual power in the meeting.

His understanding of the spiritual power was still rudimentary, and he did not know what other function it had except that he could perceive the world around.

He just stared at Lachlan and Lachlan was seriously injured, but at that time because Lachlan's spiritual power approached toward Casey and Casey could rebound it back, otherwise, Casey did not know how to use his spiritual power to attack others.

So he now wanted to find people who really understood it. If he really mastered the spiritual power to attack others, it would be his trump card. In the battle, the sudden spiritual attack would be unexpected, even if the opponent's strength was stronger than Casey.

If he could find a way to use the spiritual power from the meeting, it would be of infinite benefit to Casey.

Vermilion Bird was behind Casey at this time. She was in a good mood that Lachlan had been got rid of. She looked at Casey in the front with curiosity.

After a while, Vermilion Bird finally asked looking at Casey, "You just stared at Lachlan, he was seriously injured vomiting blood, did you also use spiritual power? Don't worry, your secret is safe with me."

Casey turned to her and said, "I just happened to have the power, but I don't know how to use it."

Having Casey's affirmative reply, Vermilion Bird immediately showed a face of envy.

According to the statistics of the Pantheon, few people have spiritual power. Casey had been a genius and he had such power, it was really unfair.

Now Vermilion Bird had admiration for Casey. She had been known as a genius, but since she knew Casey, she noticed there was a gap between her and a real genius.

Seeing that Vermilion Bird followed him, Casey said, "Your task should have been solved, why don't you go back now? Why are you following me?"

Vermilion Bird was angry to hear that, and she said, "It is not over.

There is a magical arts meeting. People participate must not be ordinary people. As a member of the Pantheon, I naturally have a responsibility to prevent accidents that could happen."

"You must be going to this magical arts meeting, too. As a colleague, of course I have to go with you."

Hearing Vermilion Bird's words, Casey suddenly didn't know what to say. After a moment of thinking, he said, "I will go alone, you don't have to go."

"No, I found this invitation from Lachlan, I must go." Vermilion Bird said gravely.

Casey was helpless. He did not want to execute a task with her, Lachlan screaming still echoed in his ears, but since Vermilion Bird said so, he could not refuse.

And Casey knew nothing about the magical arts meeting, with one more person, it might be better. Because Vermilion Bird could find helpers faster than he did.

Casey and Vermilion Bird went back to his house. Casey arranged a place for Vermilion Bird to live. She would stay there for a few days, and Casey would be there with Edith and Sherry for a few days before they set out to attend the magical arts meeting.

In the evening, Casey and Edith stayed in the room, Sherry had been taken away by Jennifer.

In front of the dresser, Edith finished applying the mask and lied on the bed. She was wearing silk pajamas, which showed her shape vividly.

Her temperament was charming and quite attractive.

At this time, Casey sat in front of the table staring at the two Soul Setting Jades, wanting to know what they made of, why there they had spiritual nourishing effect.

"Casey, come over." Edith shouted to Casey.

Casey immediately put down the two pieces of jades in his hands, turned to see Edith. Looking at her gesture, he showed a smile, got up and went to the bedside.

He directly jumped on Edith's body, said with a bad smile, "What, you have the interest today? Are you ready to 'fight' with me for three hundred rounds?"

Edith looked at Casey with a charming look and then opened her mouth, "When you were outside, do you often deal with those beautiful girls?"

Casey was stunned and did not expect Edith would ask him such a question.

"Not really, but I did get to know some people because I needed to."

Casey honestly answered.

Edith immediately showed a face of grievances and said, "Will you be abducted by them? Your colleague is pretty, and I have a feeling she's interested in you. Is something going to happen when you're out together?"

Casey put his hand on the face of Edith and said with a smile, "How could it be? I am avoiding her, how can I have something with her? Don't you still know what kind of person I am?"

"I don't know what happens when you're out. Who knows what you might do behind my back?" Edith was still pity.

Casey directly hugged her into his arms, said, "I swear by my personality, I will never do anything sorry to you. I only love you. I am so straight, and I can't give other women a chance."

Edith thought it was right. She just complained, but she knew Casey well.

"That is what you said. If you do something bad to me, I'll take Sherry to a place you can't find, to make you anxious." Edith said to Casey in a sweet voice.

Casey pressed Edith under his body and said with a smile, "I will only love you, now I will prove my love for you."

Then he bent down._____

Chapter 907 To Z City

A few days later, B City Airport.

Casey and Vermilion Bird got on the plane, after finding their seats, they sat down.

Their destination was Z City, where the magical arts would be held.

According to the invitation letter, it was the Chow family which had considerable prestige in Z City, held the meeting. The Chow family was not famous in the business community, but in the families of Z City, no one dare to underestimate the Chow family.

Casey had checked the Chow family's information, so he knew that the Chow family had considerable prestige in Z City, because they had many fengshui masters, which were different from those Casey saw in the Chapman's House. It was said that the fengshui masters of the Chow family knew magic.

There were many legends about the fengshui masters of the Chow family, saying that they could make the flower blossom and use ofuda, which was profounder than that on TV, and that they were good at setting out strategies, which was with impressive power. If ordinary people got into, they would basically die.

And Lester Chow the lord of the family was known as the first person of Z City. He had performed miracles in front of the people of Z City, only with mind, he could control a flying sword, to cut off a big tree five hundred meters away.

Everyone felt that Lester was an immortal. Otherwise, how could he control the flying sword with his mind? Only the immortal could do that. Casey was surprised to know that. He did not expect Lester could control the sword with his mind, and wondered if he used spiritual power to control the sword.

The legend of the Chow family was believed by ordinary people to be exaggerated by the Chow family in order to make them mysterious, while in the magical arts circles, everyone knew that the Chow family had real skills.

Lester could use a flying sword to take people's heads across the air, which was really terrible.

The reason why the Chow family held this meeting, one was to highlight the strength of his family, to show what they got and to consolidate the status of the Chow family in the magical arts circle.

Another reason was that the Chow family would present a treasure handed down from generation to generation at the meeting. The Chow family had studied this treasure for many years, but had not figured out what it was used for.

But it was certain that this treasure was extraordinary, and once the Chow family knew its function, it would benefit them endlessly.

But because no one could figure out how to use this treasure after all, so the Chow family planned to gather the knowledge of all masters of magical arts circle, to see if they could find out the role of this treasure. If someone could understand the it, naturally he would be rewarded, so many people came for the treasure.

To win more opportunities to figure out the treasures, the Chow family invited a lot of masters, whether they were decent or crooked, so Wolfe and Lachlan got an invitation letter.

After the general understanding of the meeting, Casey had a general idea of his action. if the Chow family did not do anything bad, Casey naturally would not get them into trouble.

The Unique First Lady, Not Only Because She's Black

He would go to the meetings to see if there were any masters of spiritual power and ask them for advice on it.

After a while, the plane took off. Casey closed his eyes, naturally released his spiritual to observe the people around.

At the moment his spiritual power released, he immediately felt an old man sitting in front of him not far away exuding a fairly strong wave of power, it seemed that he also had spiritual power.

As Casey's spirit fell on the old man, the old man seemed to have been aware of it and turned to look at him.

Casey opened his eyes and met the eyes of the old man. After a while, the old man turned back.

Vermilion Bird noticed the appearance of Casey and asked, "What's wrong?"

Casey said with a smile, "Nothing, it seems that there indeed will be extraordinary people to participate in the meeting."

Vermilion Bird was puzzled about his words, but she did not think much about it. And then she continued to read the fashion magazine.

The old man turned back with a look of deep doubt on his face. Sitting next to him was a pretty girl in her twenties. Seeing the puzzled expression on the old man's face, the girl asked, "What's the problem, Grandpa?"

The old man shook his head and said, "I feel the power of god soul behind, and then saw a young man staring at me. Presumably it is my illusion. He is so young, how could he have god soul? Perhaps I am so involved with the power of god soul this period of them, so I got the illusion."

"In this world, I think there is no one who has the power of god soul. How could someone probe here with the power of god soul?"

The girl also looked at the back, only to find Casey quite ordinary, so she said to the old man, "Grandpa, you may be tired recently, but there should be a lot of masters in the magical arts meeting. We may find someone who can help sister. The Chow family will take out the treasures, if we can unlock the secret of the treasure, maybe people who do not need to have to god sould can save sister."

The old man sighed and murmured, "I hope so. If we can't find someone or a way to save your sister this time, your sister may be... Alas."

The girl showed a trace of dignify and then she was silent, lowering her head.

After the plane arrived at Z City, Casey and Vermilion Bird came out from the airport, went to the hotel and then got something to eat in the hotel restaurant.

"I heard that Z City has beautiful mountains and rivers, beautiful scenery with a long history and a lot of food. It is a good place to travel. There are still three days to go before the magical arts meeting, we can take advantage of this opportunity to take a tour in Z City to relax ourselves." Casey said to Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird immediately opened her eyes wide. He wanted to take a tour with her in Z City? Was it a date? _____

Chapter 908 Clothes Shopping

Casey noticed Vermilion Bird's face expression and asked with doubts, "What's wrong? Is there a problem?"

Vermilion Bird coughed softly and said, "No, nothing. I can walk around, but I feel I need to change my clothes. I have to buy two clothes first."

"Yes." Casey was ok with it. It was to kill time, to buy clothes and had no difference with visiting scenic spots.

Vermilion Bird looked at Casey's eyes, dodging. In addition to her three brothers, she had never gone shopping with other men. So she was nervous to go with Casey.

Casey naturally did not know what Vermilion Bird thought. He really took Vermilion Bird as his colleagues. He just wanted to kill time, whether Vermilion Bird was male or female, he would ask, after all, they could not stay in the hotel for three days.

After two people ate something together, they went out of the hotel and toward Chunxi Road which was famous in Z City.

In fact, Casey was unexpected that Vermilion Bird wanted to buy clothes, after all, in his impression, Vermilion Bird did not care about her own image. She was pretty, but as a martial arts person, she did not care about her dressing.

So in the heart of Casey, Vermilion Bird did not care about her appearance, and her clothes were outdated, which was ordinary compared with those beautiful girls.

But on the plane, Casey felt Vermilion Bird seemed to care her image too. She actually read fashion magazines.

Now she wanted to buy clothes, which made Casey realized that women still liked to dress up even if they were powerful, but it was a good thing for Vermilion Bird, after all, when she dressed up, her temper might be gentle.

Casey did not know that Vermilion Bird never thought of dressing up in the past. She was born pretty and if she dressed up and bought some beautiful clothes, she would be much prettier.

If her three brothers knew Vermilion Bird went out to buy clothes with Casey, they would set firecrackers to celebrate it. Their sister finally was enlightened.

Chunxi Road was the largest commercial street of Z City, with many shopping malls, people coming and going. It was the most lively place in Z City, many people came here to shoot video. In this place, a variety of beautiful girls could be seen, which was unique scenery.

Casey and Vermilion Bird walked into a shopping mall. Looking at a dazzling array of clothes, Vermilion Bird was excited, watched the shops one by one. Vermilion Bird would ask Casey's opinion, and Casey generally would be perfunctory, no matter how Vermilion Bird asked, he said it was good.

After all, to Casey, he clothes didn't look much different, as long as they were not ridiculously ugly.

Finally, in a relatively high-end clothing store, Vermilion Bird took a fancy of a black dress. The store offered makeup service for guests, according to the clothes they liked, they did a suitable makeup for them.

Vermilion Bird went to try on the dress and asked the clerk to do the makeup.

After a while, wearing a long black dress, with her long hair spread, Vermilion Bird appeared in front of Casey, looking charming.

At first sight of Vermilion Bird, Casey felt amazing, after dressing, Vermilion Bird look gorgeous.

She was not young as Elsa Duncan and Annabel Thompson, but she was mature and gentle.

When Vermilion Bird saw her own appearance, she was also full of disbelief and felt as if she had changed her face. All these years, she really never cared about her appearance, but after dressing up, she was so good-looking.

She looked at Casey shyly and asked, "How do you feel?"

Casey gave Vermilion Bird a thumbs-up and said, "Very beautiful, if you have a better temper, there will a long queue of men to go after you."

Vermilion Bird immediately stared at Casey and wanted to ask him who had bad temper, but this guy praised her, so never mind, she went to settle the bill joyfully.

Casey gave a helpless smile, and thought dressing up was indeed useful, because Vermilion Bird just control her temper.

A few seconds later, however, Vermilion Bird grumbled from the counter.

"What do you say? This dress and makeup cost more than 80,000 yuan! Is this a gangster shop?"

Casey walked toward the counter, only to see Vermilion Bird was aggressively staring at the clerk. The clerk was scared and nervous. "Lady, our shop is specialized in high-grade clothing, I tell you when I do makeup for you, but you said we will talk about it after the makeup. I thought you don't care about the price....." Said the clerk nervously. Vermilion Bird immediately feel unreasonable. At that time she did ignore the price and felt it would not be so expensive. Now the prices were actually so high?

Although she took back her own things and money from Lachlan, but she did not have eighty thousand.

Vermilion Bird was embarrassed and wondered if she should give up the dress and just paid for the makeup..

Seeing that, Casey immediately smiled. He did not expect that one of the four masters of the Pantheon would be so embarrassed.

He walked to the clerk, handed over his bank card and said, "Take it."

The clerk was immediately relieved and brushed Casey's card.

Seeing that Casey paid the money directly, the clerk knew that Casey must be a rich and low-key rich man, so she envied Vermilion Bird.

"Sir, your girlfriend must be happy to have you as her boyfriend." The clerk handed over the invoice to Casey and said with a smile.

Casey and Vermilion Bird, after hearing the words of the clerk, said in unison, "He (she) is not my girlfriend (boyfriend)."

When the clerk heard that, she was shocked. She did not realize that the two were not boyfriend and girlfriend.

"Oh... I'm sorry. I spoke wrong. I beg your pardon." The clerk spoke quickly.

"It doesn't matter." Casey opened his mouth.

"My future boyfriend certainly is better than him." Vermilion Bird said, but he secretly glanced at Casey with shyness.

Casey did not say anything, turned toward the outside. Vermilion Bird quickly followed him and left her clothes she wore in the store.

After sending off the two, the clerk took a long sigh of relief and said to herself, "That woman is really strange. She likes the man, but she refused. Woman is a double-faced creature."_

Chapter 909 Get Treasure

Out of the shopping mall, Vermilion Bird looked at Casey shyly and said, "Thank you, I will give you the money back.

Casey said with a smile, "No, it is just eighty thousand, take it as a gift from me, as long as you don't lose your temper on me."

Vermilion Bird said angrily, "Is my temper so bad?"

Casey gave her a look and let her feel it.

At this time, Casey suddenly remembered something and asked, "How many rewards do you have now?"

Vermilion Bird thought for a moment and said, "I have lived in the Pantheon since I was a child. Up to now, I have made more than 300,000 rewards."

Casey's eyes suddenly lit up and he asked, "Do you sell these rewards? I can buy them with you at a high price. How about that?"

Vermilion Bird looked at Casey suspiciously and said, "The rewards are not allowed to sell. Don't you know that? Rewards can only be used by yourself."

"I know that, but I want to trade it for something. I will deal with you privately, so that no one will find it out." Casey smiled.

Vermilion Bird thought it was feasible and asked, "What do you want to get?"

"We'll talk about that later. There's no rush." Casey opened his mouth. Vermilion Bird could only nod.

Thinking that he could use this way to get the third Soul Setting Jade, Casey was happy. In this way, he could save a lot of time and energy. But even if Vermilion Bird could get the Soul Setting Jade, he had to wait until they got back to the Pantheon, so Casey's main task was the magical arts meeting.

Two people walked forward, many people around was attracted by Vermilion Bird. Compared with those net celebrity, it was obvious Vermilion Bird had better temperament. The power of the grandmaster had certain improvement to human.

Vermilion Bird was embarrassed by the attention, but she enjoyed it. She took a look at Casey and asked, "What are we going to do now?"

"I heard there is a small antique fair near the square, and I decided to go there." Casey opened his mouth.

Vermilion Bird agreed and followed Casey.

Casey was very good at antiques. When he heard that there was a small antique fair nearby, he naturally became interested.

And Casey now had the spiritual power. He used to rely on vision and knowledge to judge an antique, now he wanted to see if his spiritual power could distinguish the most valuable one from a lot of antiques.

Before long, Casey and Vermilion Bird came to a small square, which was quiet compared with the commercial street.

Casey saw the ongoing antique fair not far away. People directly set up a booth on the square to show antiques, if there was a favorite, they could trade on the spot.

It was a small antique show, but there were plenty of booths on the square, and people were hanging around trying to get something good out of the antiques.

Looking at the booths, Vermilion Bird turned to Casey and said, "In fact, if you want antiques, you can directly go to the Lord. Any piece of porcelain in his house has a history of hundreds of years. It is much easier than you struggle to find one here."

Casey said with a smile, "In fact, the biggest significance of coming to this kind of place is not to buy the most expensive antique. That's boring."

"Then what's the point of your coming here?" asked Vermilion Bird.

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

Casey slightly curled up the corner of his mouth and said, "Pick the treasure one that isn't wanted."

Then he walked forward.

In this place, buying a recognized antique was boring to Casey, and the fun of picking up the one unwanted, it could not be described by words.

They arrived at the antique fair and looked along the booths.

Vermilion Bird was curious. Although she was not proficient in antiques, she wanted to rely on her own vision to see if she could find some good things.

Casey used his spiritual power and carefully observed them.

After using spiritual power to observe antiques, Casey seemed to have discovered a new world. These antiques transferred to Casey's mind in details.

Before he relied on his eyes to observe these antiques, even if Casey thought his level was extremely high, he would make a mistake.

And with the spiritual power, Casey could see any details from an omnidirectional view, as if he was using a microscope.

With Casey's own knowledge, there would never be a case of misjudgment.

Casey did find some good-quality antiques on some booths, and the vendors clearly had no idea of their value, labeling them at very low prices.

It was estimated that Casey could make some fortune.

But now Casey did not have this idea, money was just a number to him.

And he did not have interest for collection, so he did not buy one.

Seeing a bracelet at a nearby booth, Vermilion Bird's eyes lit up and she ran forward, picked it up and looked at it.

The booth owner immediately said with a smile, "Girl, your vision is really good. This bracelet is made of good jade material, it is ancient from Qianlong time. If you are interested, pay one hundred thousand, we make a friend."

Vermilion Bird gave it to Casey to have a look and asked, "How is this bracelet?"

Casey scanned it with his spiritual power and said with a smile, "There are obvious joint marks, and the details' processing is rough. It is from factory batch production, the material is the worst. It could not be produced in Qianlong time."

Roseque immediately opened her eyes wide, she did not expect that Casey could see it just by a glance. She stared at carefully but she could not see the joint, so she wondered how Casey saw it.

Casey smiled. Naturally he saw it with spiritual power. Without it, he could only see it was not good from details, but he could not tell if it was from factory production.

Nowadays, the craftsmanship level of the factory was good as that of some high-end masters in ancient times, but what antiques mattered was the sense of history and age, so no matter how good the things from the factory were, they could not be treated as antiques.

The booth owner looked at Casey with surprise. Several masters saw the bracelet and could judge it was not good, but they could not see it was out of the factory.

However, Casey saw through it by a glance, it seemed to be a person with real skills and he was still young, he must be a great talent.

When the booth owner and Vermilion Bird were surprised, Casey's attention fell on a small sword made of jade on the booth.

The jade sword was beautifully made, but there was a crack on the body, so few people paid attention to it.

Casey used his spiritual power and found there was light on the jade sword which could not be seen by ordinary people.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 910 Jade Sword

"Is it a treasure?" Casey repeatedly observed the jade sword with spiritual power for a while, and found that it did emit light to be observed only by spiritual power.

He reached out and took the jade sword, which was about the size of a hand and looked like an ornament, not the best but far above average in terms of workmanship.

As for the age, Casey looked at it for a long time, unexpectedly he could not see when the jade sword was made. It felt like it was just made for a few years, but it seemed to exist for a long time, there was no sense of age on the sword, but it gave a primitive feeling.

With the crack on the body, almost no one would pay attention to such a thing, even the booth owner casually threw it in an obscure position. Casey stretched out his hand to pick up the jade sword, carefully felt it, When he had it in hand, he actually felt chill from the sword, giving a sense of deterrence.

It was an absolute treasure.

Casey made a judgment in his heart. He had no interest in other antiques but this jade sword. He could only use the spiritual power to feel its special characteristic, it must not be simple.

The booth owner saw Casey took the jade sword in his hand and said with a smile, "I bought it from others years ago. Many people said without the crack, it was a craft, but with the crack, it was nothing. It had been lying there for so many years, no one wanted it. If you like it, pay five hundred. Only the jade was worth of it."

Knowing Casey was a man who knew the business, the booth owner did not cheat him again, so as not make him have a bad impression.

Casey said with a smile, "Ok."

Then he picked up a bracelet which was purer in color and better in texture than the one Vermilion Bird liked and said, "This bracelet is a fine piece of jewelry. Give it to me together with the jade sword. I will give you 100,000, which is not a low price."

Hearing Casey's words, the booth owner's eyes suddenly became bright. Then he said excitedly, "Ok, ok, I will give you the package."

The bracelet Casey picked up was indeed a fine product, but it did not worth one hundred thousand, so the booth owner knew that Casey mainly wanted the jade sword.

Perhaps this jade sword was a rare treasure in the eyes of Casey, but for the booth owner, it was a piece object of no interest. He had it for a long time, and he did not expect to make a fortune from it.

So he agreed without hesitation.

There were indeed some people in the circle deliberately increased the price because the customer wanted a particular thing, but the booth owner was not that kind of person. Besides, the price Casey offer was fair, if he increased the price, Casey might directly turn and go.

After all, he did not see that Casey had a special desire to the jade sword.

When the booth owner went to wrap the bracelet and jade sword for Casey, a voice rang behind Casey.

"I also like this jade sword, I give you two hundred thousand, wrap it for me."

Casey immediately frowned and did not expect someone would rob it from him.

Both he and Vermilion Bird looked over their shoulder and saw that it was a man of about thirty with a fan in his hand.

The man's eyes fell on Vermilion Bird for a while, and then he looked towards Casey with a smile and said, "Sorry, brother, I like this jade sword, I hope you don't mind."

The booth owner stared at the man and said, "Sir, I am sorry, I have settled the price with this gentleman, so it is a deal. I have been in this industry for years, relying on good faith. I never regretted, so please find something else."

The man smiled and directly opened his fan, with a word "Chow" written on it, then he said, "In business, who offers highest price is always the one who gets, how do you think?"

The booth owner stared at the word on the fan for several times. Then, as if thinking of something, his face suddenly changed and he exclaimed, "Are you the master of the Chow family?"

Thaddeus Chow smiled complacently and said, "You are still discerning. Since you know who I am, please help me wrap the jade sword."

The booth owner was embarrassed, although he valued good faith and never went back to his words, the Chow family had a pivotal position in Z City. If he offended Thaddeus, he could never do this business again. Casey saw that and turned to see Thaddeus. He said, "Sorry, I like this jade sword, so I don't want to give it to you. I pay three hundred thousand."

Seeing that Casey increased the price, Thaddeus' face changed, and he said in a cold voice, "Brother, you are not a local, aren't you? If you heard my name, you would not want this jade sword."

"Why, wasn't it you who said who offers the highest price is the one who gets? What does that have to do with your name? Is your name worth much?" Casey asked in reply.

Thaddeus scolded secretly in his heart, but seeing that Casey was holding a knife, he felt Casey seemed to be a man in martial arts, so he did not want to conflict with Casey but said, "In this case, I can only continue to increase the price, I pay 400 thousand."

"A million." Casey said lightly.

Thaddeus opened his eyes wide and did not expect Casey would directly raise the price to one million. As the master of the Chow family, Thaddeus had a certain understanding of metaphysics. He felt this jade sword extraordinary, so he wanted to buy it.

However, he did not know what this jade sword was used for. Usually he could see a lot of things extraordinary, but after taking back to study, he found that there was nothing too useful.

So to buy an uncertain role and defective jade sword with four hundred thousand for him was already the limit. Now Casey directly increased the price to one million, he of course was reluctant to continue with the price.

Standing on the side, the booth owner was confused. He thought that it was good that the jade sword was bought, but in a blink of eye, Casey unexpectedly raised the price to one million.

It felt like a dream.
