Chapter 911 Invitation

Thaddeus stared at Casey. Although he was not happy in his heart, he did not show it on his face. Instead, he smiled at Casey and said, "Since you want it so much, I will not continue to raise the price. It is yours." Casey did not say anything, directly took out the bank card and let the booth owner swipe his card.

Looking at the sign of successful transaction on the POS machine, the booth owner's hands trembled. He never thought that his broken jade sword, which no one cared about, had been sold at such a high price. No one would believe it if he told anyone.

And Casey was indifferent, as if he didn't care about the one million. The owner knew that Casey was certainly the kind of people who took millions as pocket money.

He did not hesitate but wrapped the jade sword and bracelet and handed it to Casey.

Casey took the jade sword, and then gave the bracelet to Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird looked at the bracelet, stunned, and asked, "Is this for me?"

Casey nodded.

Vermilion Bird immediately was shy. She did not expect that Casey bought the bracelet for her.

She immediately was at a lost and had a burst of wild thoughts.

Although she felt she should not have this bracelet, she still subconsciously took it.

"Oh, what is wrong? He even gave me a bracelet, is he hinting at me?" Vermilion Bird had this thought and dare not look at Casey.

Casey did not notice Vermilion Bird was not normal. He bought this bracelet was because he did not want the booth owner feel that he had a fancy on the jade sword, so Casey had no interest in the bracelet. He saw Vermilion Bird liked it, so he gave her.

If he knew Vermilion Bird would have such thought, he would rather throw it away.

Thaddeus stared at Casey and Vermilion Bird for a while. And then he gave a smile and said, "You two should travel in Z City. I wanted this jade sword, so I raised the price twice, I hope you don't mind."

"Since we meet, let's be friends. I will go to a wine party later. During this period, my family will hold a magical art meeting. I have invited several excellent masters to have dinner with me. Will you join me?"

Hearing that, Casey was interested. Thaddeus claimed to be the master of the Chow family, so he must have some understanding of the magical arts meeting, and it happened that Casey wanted to see what kind of people attended the magical arts meeting.

"Sure." Casey said. Looking at Thaddeus, Casey felt he was a wise man, who was not angry because he bought the sword at a high price, but invited him to dinner, so Casey felt he should go.

"Are you going?" Casey turned and asked Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird was still surprised and tangled about Casey's bracelet, so hearing his question, she agreed. Since Casey was going, of course, she had to follow him.

Thaddeus smiled and turned around, and walked to the car not far away with Casey and Vermilion Bird.

Casey and Vermilion Bird did not notice that when Thaddeus turned around, he showed malicious and evil eyes.

The Chow family was family in Z City, and Thaddeus' father was a famous big figure in the magical art circle. Since Casey dare to rob things from him, how could he let go of Casey?

Three people rushed toward a restaurant in Z City. All the way, Thaddeus asked Casey and Vermilion Bird a lot of questions and wanted to figure out their origin.

Although Casey and Vermilion Bird came for the magical arts meeting, their invitations were robbed. In order not to cause Thaddeus' doubt, they said they came for travel and happened to hear of magical art meeting, so they were interested.

Thaddeus asked Casey why he would go out with a knife. Casey said he liked this aspect of things, so he went out with a knife, also for self-defense.

Thaddeus guessed that Casey might be a martial arts person, but he did not put it in mind. He had been growing up in the Chow family and he felt that martial art was not good as magical art.

Those warriors who come to challenge Lester had been defeated by Lester with a flying sword, plus, the magical art was unpredictable, Thaddeus felt martial art was not that good.

No matter what Casey and Edith said was true, Thaddeus had confirmed that these two people were not the descendants of famous master and they knew nothing about magical art, so he felt it was quite easy to deal with them.

After a while, the car stopped in front of the restaurant. Thaddeus, Casey and Vermilion Bird got off the car and invited them into the restaurant with enthusiasm.

Thaddeus had booked the whole restaurant. Without Thaddeus' permission, all outsiders were not allowed to enter.

Casey and Vermilion Bird walked into the restaurant and saw a huge table in the hall, which was for a dozen people. Only tableware was on the table at this time, and the food had not yet been served.

Not far from the table, many people were already waiting there, all of whom had been invited by Thaddeus.

Casey and Vermilion Bird looked at those people with surprise, because these people unexpectedly were women, and most of them were beautiful, young. In the whole hall, only Casey and Thaddeus were men. Casey rose doubt in his heart. Thaddeus said he had invite friends and a few magical art masters to have dinner together, so the master might have not arrived yet. But it was strange that all his friends were women. "Everybody, take a seat first, I will go to invite the masters. When it was time for dinner, the masters will lecture, which is a great opportunity for us, we must seize this opportunity."

Thaddeus said to the crowd, and then went inside.

Deep inside, in a room, three gangster-looking men sat crossing legs on the floor, with mist rising from the top of their heads, as if they were practicing some kind of skills.

Thaddeus opened the door and when he saw the three masters, he said with a smile, "Don't worry about practicing. All the people are here. I have found the best for you this time. You will be satisfied."

All three opened their eyes, and there was a faint smile on their faces.

"With your help, we are sure to make a big improvement in our Double Practice. After this, we will give you a satisfactory reward." Said the man in the middle.

"Master Williams, you are very kind. However, among the people I invited today, there is a man who, according to my observation, should be a warrior. This man stole something from my hand. I hope you can help me deal with him later. I will be grateful."

"Don't worry, it is just a warrior. It is easy for us. You just need to watch and have the fun." Master Williams replied with confidence. ____

Chapter 912 Enchantment

In the restaurant hall, Casey and Vermilion Bird had been seated at the table, and those women who were invited by Thaddeus had also been seated.

Casey carefully observed these women and found that they were some ordinary people. The only characteristic was very beautiful.

Casey suspected that if Thaddeus picked up girls by asking the master to have dinner together.

Vermilion Bird looked at these women with doubts and whispered to Casey, "Did he say to have dinner with masters, why so many women here?"

"Ask Thaddeus. Let's see who the masters he was talking about. If something is wrong, we can just leave." Casey replied.

Vermilion Bird nodded and said nothing more.

Confusion could be seen on the faces of the women. It was obvious that they did not expect Thaddeus had invited so many women, which was not at all the same as what Thaddeus had told them.

But since they had come, it was certainly not good to leave, what was more, the masters Thaddeus said had not yet appeared. If they left, they would not only offend Thaddeus, but also offend the masters.

After a while, Thaddeus came out, followed by the three masters.

"Let me introduce these three masters to you. They are Harrison Williams, Master Williams, Tiger Thund, Master Thund and Gary Matthews, Master Matthews.

Thaddeus introduced the three masters to everyone present.

Casey gazed towards the three men, but did not find inner force on them, but imposing manner of the three people was different from ordinary people. Casey used spiritual power to observe them again and found there was a layer of light from them which could not be seen by naked eyes.

If his guess was correct, these three people must have practiced some kind of skill in the field of magical arts. Although they had no inner force, the strength of this skill was not necessarily inferior to that of inner force.

The three people smiled at them and then fixed their eyes on Casey. After two seconds of observation, the three people sat down and looked at the people present.

The women were nervous, many of them sat up straight, trying to make a good impression to the masters.

Thaddeus also sat down and asked the waiter to bring the dishes. When the table was filled with dishes, Thaddeus looked at the crowd and said, "You should all be curious about what these three masters are good at. Now let me make an introduction to you."

"The three masters are best at the Enchantment and Double Practice. I invite you here today to help them complete their Double Practice. The three masters need to have sex with you to improve their magic power. You should feel honored to help the three masters."

Hearing that, all people were shocked, they did not expect Thaddeus would say such vulgar words.

"What do you mean? We don't want to do that. You deceived us?"

Vermilion Bird was irritable and shouted at Thaddeus.

Thaddeus said with a smile, "Now that we have all sat down, I will not keep you in suspense. She is right. I did deceive you on purpose."

"You bastard, aren't you afraid your family's reputation will be ruined in your hands?" Vermilion Bird stared at Thaddeus and shouted. The rest of the women also looked at Thaddeus with disgust.

"I just said, these three masters are good at Enchantment, and when you are in their Enchantment. Who will know that I cheated you?"

Thaddeus said indifferently.

As his voice just fell, the three masters stretched out hands and then issued out a strange power, which covered up the people present.

Vermilion Bird, who had planned to stand up and argue with Thaddeus and the so-called three masters, was enveloped by this power and instantly stayed in her seat, as if she had lost her soul.

Casey felt that power over his own body, and then began to affect his spirit. This power was trying to seal Casey's subjective consciousness.

The little man in Casey's mind felt it and issued out a burst of light, and then Casey felt the power disappeared without a trace.

He looked around and saw that all the women, including Vermilion Bird, were sitting there as if under control, like puppets that could move without orders.

In order to find out what Thaddeus and the three so-called masters wanted to do, Casey did not move, but watched the change. The three masters stood up. Harrison Williams looked at Thaddeus with a smile and said, "The people are under control. Once they fall into our enchantment, they will be under our command within a month, unless we die or take the initiative to unlock the magic."

"Thaddeus has brought us so many high-quality women this time that we can not only improve our Double Practice, but also enjoy ourselves." Thaddeus showed a wretched smile and said, "I am glad you are happy. I will pick two to play, and then I will give them back to you."

With that, Thaddeus looked toward Casey.

"Is the boy also under the control of the three masters?" Thaddeus asked.

Harrison Williams nodded and said, "people who don't understand the magical arts fell in our enchantment will completely lose consciousness. He is a warrior, but at his age, he cannot achieve the sublimation, so he definitely could not go against our enchantment. You can do whatever you want to him."

Thaddeus walked towards Casey with a smile and said, "Boy, you can't imagine that I invited you here just to severely punish you. You, a stranger, dare to rob from me. You really don't know what's good or bad."

"Now you in the enchantment of the three masters, even your life has come to my hands, I will see how you rob things with me!"

After speaking, Thaddeus stopped in front of Casey and said, "First lick my shoes, let me see if the means of the three masters is really as magical as in the legend."

Casey stood up from the chair. Thaddeus was surprised to see that, he did not expect that people under control of enchantment would be so obedient.

However, Casey did not lick his shoes, but showed him a joking smile, and then directly kicked in Thaddeus's body.

Thaddeus immediately flew away, hit in the wall, and then directly embedded in the wall.

"I'm sorry, but these three masters don't seem as powerful as you think." __

The Peremptory Casey Davies
Chapter 913 Confrontation

Thaddeus spit out a mouthful of blood, incredibly looked at Casey. He was panic. Casey's kick was terrible, before he figured out what happened, his body had been embedded in the wall.

"How... How could that be? You were supposed to be obedient, why..."

Thaddeus's voice was smaller and smaller. Casey had shattered his internal organs. If he wanted to live, he had to have god to save him. The three masters were frightened by that. Seeing that see Thaddeus was kicked into the wall, they knew Casey's strength was absolutely not simple.

"Damn, Thaddeus unexpectedly brought back a master, get together and solve him first."

Harrison Williams shouted, and walked quickly away from the table.

With his hand stretched out, he looked mysterious.

Tiger Thund and Gary Matthews hurriedly stood behind Harrison Williams. In blink of an eye, three people emitted a black light visible to the naked eye, which was weird.

Casey, holding Muramasa, pulled it out from the scabbard, squinted to the three people with vigilance.

These magical art masters and inner force masters was different. Their attack was always unexpected, so Casey had to be careful.

Harrison Williams took a look at Casey and said coldly, "Boy, who are you? Why are you here?"

Casey gave a cold hum and said, "I should ask you that. I was invited to the party, but you almost controlled my mind, what is your purpose?"

"I never like wicked ways, but since I met you today, I have to get rid of you, lest these girls be hurt by you."

Harrison Williams narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "You are really good and can get rid of our enchantment and can even kick a man into the wall with one kick. But we have been in this circle for so many years and we even have killed the masters of sublimation. It is impossible for you to deal with us."

"We have formed Soul Binding Battle Array, and you cannot come near us even if you have the greatest skill!"

"Really? Then I'll see what you can do."

Casey said. Muramasa has been emitting bursts of light, it looked like at any time it could release endless power.

Harrison Williams was shocked to see Casey made the knife shine, and he guessed Casey should be a master of sublimation.

He immediately made handprint and loudly shouted, "Gather!"

Then, the black light around three people instantly rushed toward, and the ground appeared a pattern similar to charm, which surrounded Casey.

Casey waved Muramasa and split on the pattern, there was a hole on the ground, but the pattern did not receive the slightest damage. Harrison Williams sneered and said, "This Soul Binding Battle Array aimed at spirit. You can't use physical force to break it. You may break it by killing us, but you have been waiting for us to make moves. Now the array has been formed, you can't win us!"

Hearing that, Casey immediately rushed to the three people, but as he just moved, the charm on the ground emitted bursts of light, and then, Casey felt a sting in his mind.

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

Then the charm sent out a black power toward Casey and wrapped him till around his neck.

Although Casey did not feel something wrapped around his neck, but it produced a feeling of suffocation.

This feeling was like fooling his brain into thinking that someone was strangling him and his body reacted accordingly. If his brain thought he was dead, he would be brain dead even if his body had not been harmed.

If these three people dealt with other masters who had weak willpower, they could kill the master with this so-called Soul Binding Battle Array but Casey had spiritual power. The little man in his mind paid attention all the time to his own spirit, how could he make this kind of means to threaten his life?

Through internal vision, Casey saw that black power had appeared in his mind. The little man in his mind opened his eyes, seized that power and gently waved, then that power dissipated.

The little man emitted bursts of light and directly isolated that black power outside Casey's mind.

In this way, the so-called Soul Binding Battle Array lost its role on Casey completely.

Casey was surprised to see that little man was so powerful. As Harrison Williams said, Soul Binding Battle Array had killed the master of the sublimation. He did not expect it was vulnerable to the little man.

He himself began to suspect that Scarlet Sun Wood not only make him get spiritual power, but also let me have some supernatural means that ordinary people did not have.

The three people thought that Casey had been under their control and sneered. They thought warriors were arrogant and always gave them the time to form an array.

But the next second, they saw Casey with a knife walking toward them. "What's going on? Get him under control!"

Harrison Williams shouted. Three people made handprints. The power of the charm kept sweeping toward Casey, it did not seem to have any effect on Casey.

Casey put Muramasa back in the scabbard. The three's means were invalid to him, so they were like ordinary people to him, in this case, Muramasa was not needed.

Seeing Soul Binding Battle Array lost its effect, the three people got cold sweat on their forehead.

"Why.. Why? Why doesn't Soul Binding Battle Array work on him? Even if he has a strong will, he can't be unresponsive."

Casey came to Harrison Williams, grinning at him with a smile, said, "I did not say that I have no other means in addition to martial arts."

Then he slapped Harrison Williams in the face and Harrison Williams fell to the ground without any resistance.

Tiger Thund and Gary Matthews saw it and turned to run. Casey quickly kicked out and knocked them down.

As three people fell down, Soul Binding Battle Array instantly dissipated. Harrison Williams looked at Casey with fear, wanted to delay the time with Enchantment.

However, at the moment he performed Enchantment, he felt an invisible force invading his mind. Then, he screamed, turned pale on his face and lay on the ground, vomiting.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 914 He Was Dead

Tiger and Gary also wanted to delay time by Enchantment, even if they could not control Casey's mind.

But looking at Harrison, two people were shocked. They felt Harrison had used the Enchantment, but in a blink of an eye, Harrison ended like this, which showed that Casey used a more powerful mean, otherwise it was impossible to have this situation.

Two were shocked and wondered what monster Casey was. He had strong strength in martial arts, but he was also great in magical arts. He was so young. He must be talented to achieve such a level in such a short time.

Looking at Harrison vomiting, Casey was surprised too. He had been releasing the spiritual power and always paying attention to the three people's actions. When Harrison used Enchantment, he rebounded with his spiritual power, but Harrison became like this.

Casey did not hesitate but directly lifted his foot and stepped on Harrison's chest. Harrison's body twitched and then he did not move. For he used evil means to innocent girls, Casey naturally showed no mercy. If he was right, in the past, the three people must have used this mean to mutilated many girls, so he directly killed them, lest they do harm to others.

Tiger and Gary saw Harrison died in the hands of Casey, stood up from the ground and ran outside.

Casey flashed and he arrived at the front of the two.

"He is dead, it's not very nice of you two to leave him like this." Casey opened his mouth lightly.

Tiger and Gary were desperate and direct knelt on the ground.

"Little brother, please forgive us, we will never do it again. We must turn right, please spare our lives."

Casey gave a cold hum and said, "Beg for mercy from the God of Hell."

With that, Casey kicked on their throats.

There was a rumbling sound in both throats, and they both fell to the ground and died.

After the three were solved, the enchantment in those girls dissipated automatically.

All the girls looked around with horror on their faces. It was like they were having a bad dream. It felt like they were losing control of their bodies, and they felt like they were going to do whatever they were told. That feeling was terrible.

After the recovery, Vermilion Bird wanted to confirm if Casey was ok. Seeing that Casey was not in his seat, she quickly looked around, only to see the three people had fallen to the ground silent, while Casey was standing in front of them. She was quietly relieved.

She stood up, went to Casey and asked, "Are you all right?"

Casey shook his head and said, "The trouble has been solved. The three people are good at enchantment. Thaddeus cheated these girls to be here, in order to let the three people practice Double Practice. It seems that the Chow family is not good."

Hearing the words of Casey, Vermilion Bird was scared. If it were not for Casey today, she would have been ruined by Thaddeus and the three.

At this thought, Vermilion Bird looked at with gratitude and felt a sense of security from Casey. As long as Casey was with her, any difficulties would be solved.

"Where is Thaddeus Chow?" Vermilion Bird only saw the bodies of the three men except for Thaddeus, so she asked.

The Unique First Lady, Not Only Because She's Black

Casey pointed to the wall. Vermilion Bird looked along Casey's hand and saw Thaddeus had been embedded into the wall, immediately she was surprised.

It seemed have taken a great deal of force to embed a man into it.

Walking to the wall, Vermilion Bird saw that Thaddeus' face was as white as paper and his eyes had lost their luster. She put her finger under Thaddeus' nose and felt it. She looked startled and said, "He is dead."

Casey shrugged, and did not feel that there was anything wrong.

Thaddeus joined the three to do bad things and to harm Casey, so he deserved to be dead.

"The Chow Family is powerful in Z City, and the strength of lord of the Chow Family may be better than the master of the sublimation. He will not let us go since his son died in our hand." Vermilion Bird spoke with some concern.

"He brought it on himself. If his father is as stupid as he, I don't mind letting him go to hell with his son." Casey opened his mouth lightly.

At this time, Vermilion Bird felt Casey's endless imposing manner, as if a god of war, in this world, no one was eligible to offend his majesty.

Vermilion Bird chose to believe in Casey, in her heart, Casey was worthy of her believe.

No more nonsense, Casey and Vermilion Bird appeased those women, told them not to spread what happened today out, otherwise they might be killed.

These women knew that they had just escaped death, so they were grateful to Casey and said they would not say it out.

Under the leadership of Casey and Vermilion Bird, they left the restaurant. Those women were afraid the Chow family found that, so they decided to leave Z City.

At that night.

In the Chow' old residence, in the middle of Lester's study.

Lester sat in front of the table, taking a piece of cloth to gently wipe a short sword with a cold light. There were complex runes on that sword with golden light, it was very extraordinary.

It was the flying sword that gave Lester a great fame in the field of magical arts. To be precise, this sword was a piece of magic ware, a treasure handed down from generation to generation in the Chow Family. Only successive owners could have it.

As Lester wiped the flying sword, a person rushed in from outside, flurried, and knelt down directly in front of Lester.

"Sir, Sir, Mr. Thaddeus..."

"What trouble has he done? Why so alarmed?" Lester stared at the man and said.

"Mr. Thaddeus died in the Spring Restaurant!"

"What do you say!"

Lester stood up and patted on the table. With that, that table immediately split into pieces. Then, that flying sword rose in the air and pointed at the middle of the eyebrows of that person. With a slice, between his eyebrows appeared a thin blood line. _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 915 Killing Immortals

Thaddeus' death was soon a sensation of the whole Chow family. No one expected that he would die in the hands of others, and it was said that there were three masters with huge reputation were dead. He must be an unusual man. Lester used all resources of the Chow family to search the murderer who killed Thaddeus.

When the Chow family conducted investigation in the Spring Restaurant, it was found that the Spring Restaurant's monitoring had been destroyed, and it would take at least two days to repair it.

Lester was furious and wanted to turn the whole city upside down and find the murderer.

But now there were still two days away from the magical arts meeting. Thaddeus' death must not be big, so Lester eventually suppressed it and only noticed the Chow family and strictly prohibited the spread of the news.

Part of Chow family was to investigate this matter, and the rest was to continue to prepare the magical arts meeting.

Now the invitations had been issued, many people in the magical arts circle had arrived at Z City, so the Chow Family must be ready to it. It was good to find the murderer who killed Thaddeus or it would only wait till the end of the magical arts meeting.

Some of the Chow family said it was the enemies of Chow family had killed Thaddeus as a warning, so this person would certainly appear in the magical arts meeting.

Others said that Thaddeus was killed because he was with the three masters and the enemies of the three masters came to seek revenge. In short, this matter made the Chow Family panic. Many people were afraid that the Chow Family's enemies would come to kill them. Lester thought for a long time and could not think of which enemy would do that. And in his impression, no enemy was able to kill Harrison and the other two.

But Lester hoped that this person would appear in the magical arts meeting, because he could not escape in face of so many masters in magical circles and his friends, no matter how power he was.

As the Chow family was panic because of the death of Thaddeus, the murderer Casey was leisurely studying the jade sword in the hotel. He was not worried that the Chow family would come to him. He deliberately destroyed the monitoring of the restaurant, even if the Chow family found some clues, it must have been the time for magical arts meetings.

At that time, Casey would personally go to the Chow's, there was no need for them to come to him.

Casey's room was next to Vermilion Bird's. Vermilion Bird sat on the bed in a daze.

And Casey sat in front of the table, carefully staring at the jade sword in his hand.

The jade sword was exquisite. If you look carefully, you will find strange lines on it. Casey stared at the lines and studied them for a while, but he had no idea what they were.

On the body of the sword, you can vaguely see two words, but because the jade sword was broken, so the words were not complete, but you can still tell that it was "Killing Immortals".

If he guessed correctly, the name of this jade sword should be Killing Immortals.

When Casey saw this name, he was shocked. Such a jade sword called it such a powerful name. He didn't know whether it really had such power in the past, or the person who made jade sword chose such a name deliberately in order to make it look so powerful.

"Let alone whether there are immortals in the world, the name of Killing Immortals sounds terrible. If this sword can really do such a thing, I'm afraid I can beat the world with it."

Casey said with a smile, This sword was made of jade, at most it was an ornament, and its body was only the size of the palm. Not to mention to kill Immortals, it was hard to cut paper.

After observing the jade sword body and he did not find anything special, Casey released his spiritual power. He relied on his spiritual power to find this special sword, so he thought it still needed spiritual power to find the secret of the sword.

After covering the jade sword bit by bit with spiritual power, Casey saw the light coming out of the sword, but in addition to that, there was no other special.

"Is this jade sword just made of special material, so when it is covered by spirit, it will shine, and there is no other secret?"

Casey soliloquized. Then his attention was on the jade sword gap. He could feel this gap seemed to be a slight attraction pulling his spirit.

"What is this? It feels like the jade sword is trying to eat my spiritual power."

Casey showed a trace of doubt on his face and then he focused on the gap.

At this time, the attraction of the gap increased, directly sucking Casey's spiritual power.

Casey's face suddenly changed. He did not expect that, so he wanted to take back his spiritual power, but to his surprise, his spiritual power was not subject to his own control.

The gap was like a mouth could not be filled. It was sucking Casey's spiritual power greedily. Soon after, Casey felt exhaustion, but the sword still did not stop.

The little man in Casey's mind could not control the sword, with the passage of time, Casey felt the little man have become transparent.

"Damn it, will this sword drain my spirit and make me a fool?"

Casey scolded in his heart, but he was helpless. Had known that this situation would occur, he would not use his spiritual power to explore this jade sword.

Over about an hour, Casey became quite tired and felt hard to open his eyes. This sword had cost lots of his spirit, and he felt that if he did not sleep right away, he would die.

At this time, the jade sword finally stopped absorbing the spiritual power of Casey.

Compared with before, the jade sword became more dazzling and no longer looked common.

After the jade sword stopped, Casey finally felt relieved, so he closed his eyes and fell asleep on the table.

He felt he could sleep for three days and nights in this state.

When Casey fell asleep, the jade sword illuminated the whole room, at the same time, a sword light appeared in the room, all the things in the room seemed to be afraid and slightly shook.

After a while, the jade sword turned into a golden light and got toward Casey's head and then it disappeared. _____

Chapter 916 Should be Ok

"Casey what's wrong with you? Why is there no response?"

Vermilion Bird's voice sounded in Casey's ears. In a daze, Casey opened his eyes, and saw Vermilion Bird standing on the edge of the table, shaking his body.

He climbed up from the table. Because he lied there too long, his arms were numb. After a long time, Casey woke up, and remembered that he fainted because this jade sword absorbed his spiritual power.

"How long have I slept? Has the magical arts meeting begun?" Casey looked at Vermilion Bird and asked.

Vermilion Bird saw Casey woke up, took a breath a sigh of relief and said, "It will be held tomorrow. I don't know how long you have slept. I knocked at the door twice, but you didn't response. I thought you have something to do, so I did not bother you, but I felt it wrong this afternoon. I called you several times, but you still had no response, so I broke in."

"I thought you were dead when I saw you lying on the table. What on earth are you doing? Why have you been lying on the table sleeping?"

Casey nodded, if there was nothing else happening, he really had been prone to sleep on the table.

The magical arts meeting would be held tomorrow, which meant that he had slept for two days. Looking at the sky outside, he knew it was at night. He did not expect he would sleep for so long.

Then he began to look for the jade sword that had put him into a coma, but there was no sign of it on the table or on the ground.

"Did you see the jade sword I bought at the antique fair?" Casey stared at Vermilion Bird and asked.

Vermilion Bird shook her head and said, "No, I just came in and saw you lying on the table, so I came to call you. I didn't see the jade sword."

Casey face was confused. Logically before he slept, the jade sword was on the table. Did the thief steal it away?

When Casey was going to get up and look for the jade sword, his pupil suddenly shrank, and then he sat on the table, motionless.

He was so, because he found there was a small sword with golden light next to the little man in his mind. The shape was exactly the same as the jade sword and they was a gap on the sword body.

The gap of this golden small sword was slowly absorbing the spirit of Casey at this time, seemed to be nourishing the gap.

Casey felt himself and the golden sword had a unique link. Although Casey saw the small sword was in the absorption of his spirit, Casey knew it was not malicious, but to repair the gap with Casey's spirit.

And Casey was sure that the small sword was the jade sword he bought back, as for why it appeared in his mind, Casey had no idea of it.

But Casey felt the sword was now very weak, so it had to take Casey's spiritual power. Now on Casey's spiritual power, it had been able to exist in the mind of Casey.

After that, it only needed to absorb a small part of Casey's spirit every day to repair itself. Although the process would be very long, it would return to its peak state sooner or later.

It seemed to be in order to thank Casey's spiritual power, the sword had recognized Casey as its owner. Casey felt he could control this sword, but this sword was damaged too much, Casey could not get any useful information from it.

Why You Don't See Zooey Deschanel On Screen Anymore

But one thing was certain, if this sword returned to its peak state, it must have the ability to destroy the heaven and the earth.

Vermilion Bird saw Casey frozen in place, thought Casey had a problem so she asked, "What is the matter with you these two days? Did the three people's Enchantment make your brain have a problem?"

Casey came to himself and smiled at Vermilion Bird. There indeed was a problem in his brain, there was a sword, which was a big problem, but Casey knew this sword would not hurt him, on the contrary, it might be a big resource of Casey.

"I am fine, I just suddenly thought of something. Since the magical arts meeting in held tomorrow, let's get ready. We may have trouble, take care of yourself, and I will take care of the problem." Casey said.

"Are you sure you're a match for Lester Chow? I heard that his flying sword is quite powerful. It can take a man's head from the air so fast that the naked eye can't see it. Even if you are a master of the sublimation, you can't avoid it." Vermilion Bird reminded Casey.

"I was unsure before, but now I think it should be ok."

Casey showed a confident smile.

The next day, on the small square in front of the Chow's house.

Early in the morning, it gathered a lot of people. The Chow family had transformed it into a magical arts meeting venue, with isolation belt set up, to keep miscellaneous people away. Only people with invitation were allowed to enter the venue.

Casey and Vermilion Bird came early in the morning and got into the crowd. Relying on the invitation letter from Wolfe and Lachlan, they got in the venue.

Because there were too many people attending the meeting, the person in charge of inspection would only take a look at the cover of the invitation letter and after confirming that it was a real invitation letter, he let them in.

Casey carefully observed the people around, found that many of these people wearing strange clothes, some wearing Taoist clothes, some wearing monks' clothes, highlighting their distinctive characteristic.

These people had certain study of magical arts, but the real magical arts had already declined for thousands of years. The Chow family was in the leading role of magical arts only relying on a flying sword, which showed that the level the magical art was low.

Most of the people present were like Harrison Williams or Lachlan, who had some unimaginable means but were not too powerful.

When Casey looked around, an old man with a beautiful girl entered the venue.

These two people were the old man and the girl Casey met in the plane.

Casey found a strange wave in the old man with his spiritual power.

Casey noticed the two people at a glance, the old man and the girl also noticed Casey.

They looked at each other, and then the old man took the girl to come over to Casey._____

Chapter 917 Meeting Commencing

"Little brother, glad to meet you here. I didn't expect you to come to this magical arts meeting." The old man said with a smile.

Casey also smiled at the old man, but actually he felt embarrassed, after all, he and Vermilion Bird did not receive the invitation of the Chow family and they killed the guests the Chow family invited.

And Casey killed Thaddeus Chow, if it was known to others, he would certainly become a target.

"Where do you come from? I have a lot of friends in magical arts circle. And I know more or less about the people present, but I have never heard of you two. And I am curious which circle you are from." Asked the old man.

Casey said with a smile, "But it is a small circle in the mountain. Thanks to Lester, we came here."

He was actually uneasy, after all, the old man was in the same plane with them, so he might be from B City too. Probably he knew Casey. If his identity was exposed, it was embarrassing.

But the old man and the girl looked as if they didn't know who they were.

The old man heard Casey's answer, and did not continue to ask. He knew that there were some hidden circles not willing to disclose too much information about them, so as not to cause trouble, so he did not feel anything wrong with Casey's words.

And people could be invited by the Chow family certainly had a certain ability, so the old man dare not look down on Casey and Vermilion Bird. Through conversation, Casey learned that the old man named Cain Woods, a small family in B City, and the girl was his granddaughter, Mallory Woods.

Although the Woods family in B City was only an insignificant small family, but in the magical arts circles, Cain Woods had a decisive position.

The predecessor of the Woods family had a certain status in the magical arts circle. Later, because the magical art gradually declined, the Woods family only retained some inheritance and lived in B City.

In these years, the Woods family rarely contacted with the secular society, so they did not know the matter of Casey. They had move contact with the people in the magical arts circle.

And the Woods family was very low-key in recent years. If it was not for looking for ways to cure Mallory Woods' sister in the magical arts meeting, they would not go so far.

"I heard Thaddeus Chow was killed a few days ago. The murderer was mysterious. I wonder who it was unexpectedly dare to ignore the deterrent of the Chow family and if he would show up in the magical arts meeting. If he does, there will be a fight." Cain said.

Casey said with a smile, "Maybe the murderer had to kill him. I heard Thaddeus Chow was not a good man, I think he is stupid and got himself killed."

"And I feel that if the murderer dares to kill Thaddeus Chow, he must have contempt to the Chow family."

Hearing Casey's words, Cain smiled and did not answer.

Mallory took a refusal look at Casey and said, "The status of the Chow family in the magical arts circle was unshakable, no one dare to contempt to them. If the murderer does, he will not hide after the killing."

Casey smiled and asked, "How do you know he is hiding? He has contempt to the Chow family, and he has no need to tell them where he is."

Mallory was speechless. She felt angry about Casey, think he was resorting to sophistry.

And she felt that Since Casey came to the Chow family to attend the magical arts meeting, he should not say bad things about the Chow family.

What was more, Casey even dare not say his origin. Mallory thought Casey and Vermilion Bird were not good people, so she despised them.

She tried to think of how to refute, but ultimately she came up with nothing, so she only snorted to Casey and turned her head to the side.

Casey did not care about it. He felt Mallory was inexperienced and did not know people were sinister. The Chow family had a decisive position in the magical arts, it did not mean the Chow family was good.

After a while, all of the people in the venue looked at the front of the venue and became quiet, because at this time Lester had taken the Chow family into the venue.

Lester looked gloomy, obviously he was still angry that someone had killed his son. Several people followed him, carrying a table with a six-ribbed object on it. Everyone's eyes fell on the object on the table, which was supposed to be the treasure of the Chow family.

It was not large, only a little bigger than the size of a hand, but it was exquisitely made, with strange patterns on its surface.

Casey looked at it carefully, but because it was far away, he could not use his spiritual power to observe it. He could only see the shape but not its details.

Lester stopped in front of the crowd, and the people behind him put the table down.

"I'm glad you can come to this magical arts meeting. I think you know why I hold this meeting, one is to let you have a chance to communicate with each other, the other is to let everybody have a brainstorm to see what this treasure is for."

"I will not tell any nonsense. This treasure on the table has been handed down from generation to generation in the Chow family. If anyone can discover the secret of this treasure, I will give you a magical object, and this friend will be protected by the Chow family forever."

"Now everyone can take turns to observe this treasure. You can take it up, but please don't make any wrong moves, otherwise I will kill you."

After that, Lester gave a position to let everyone come forward to observe the treasure.

Lester looked around, looking for anyone suspicious who had killed his son.

Soon, Lester's eyes fell on Casey and Vermilion Bird.

He waved to the man who had been in charge of the meeting. The man walked over, respectful.

Lester pointed to Casey and Vermilion Bird and asked, "Who are those two people? Why don't I remember that these two were invited?" _____

The person in charge looked towards Casey and Vermilion Bird and said, "Lord, we have invited a large number of people to this meeting, some asked their younger generation to come and the two may be the young people of some people."

Lester nodded, but still suspiciously looked at Casey and Vermilion Bird.

"How is it going with the surveillance in Spring Restaurant?" Lester asked.

"It is almost repaired. It is said that it will be repaired today. When it is repaired, I will show it to you as soon as possible." Replied the man.

Lester gave a cold hum and said, "Once I know who killed my son, I will tear him apart!"

Lester then turned his attention to the treasure to see if anyone could discover its secrets.

Casey and Vermilion Bird walked together toward the table. Vermilion Bird was curious, it was obvious she had great interest in this treasure. Cain and Mallory walked toward it. They came to this meeting because they wanted to know if this treasure could save Mallory's sister, of course, they had to have close observation.

Many of them picked it up and looked at it for a while, but in the end they shook their heads in bewilderment, apparently not knowing what it was for.

Some people thought there should be a switch, as long as switch was found, they would be able to know what this treasure is used for. However, in addition to some complicated patterns, there was no switch on it. Moreover, Lester made it clear that he did not know what this thing was made of. They had tried all kinds of ways to smash it to see the structure inside, but none of them succeeded.

It was several times harder than a diamond.

After a long time, those people put down the treasures sighing and passed it to others. Now it was Casey's turn.

Cain walked over, picked it up for a closer look, and muttered, "It looks like an array plate, but I don't know how to trigger it."

"Grandpa, what is array plate?" Mallory asked.

"Array plate is the foundation of array law, which I read in ancient books at home. In the past, people needed a lot of mind and time to set the array, so if they could not set up the array in the midst of battle, they would have been killed. In this way, the masters of array law invented array plate which could be triggered immediately to protect themselves."

"The so-called array plate was equivalent to that the completed array was stored in a medium, which was called array plate. When the array plate was triggered in a fight would play the proper power, which can let the opponent off guard."

"The array plate recorded in ancient books was made by supernatural workmanship, and those who can make them were powerful masters we can't imagine. It's unknown whether such things really exist.

Although this treasure looks like those recorded in ancient books, it may just be a coincidence."

Cain explained.

Hearing Cain's words, Mallory nodded and vaguely understood.

Casey heard of the array plate for the first time. According to Cain's description, it was indeed a magical thing.

Because of the golden sword in his mind, Casey was no longer as suspicious as he used to be about such a mysterious thing.

Perhaps there really was such a thing as Cain said.

Casey focused his spiritual power toward the six-ribbed thing, wanted to see if he could find some details ordinary people could not detect.

At the moment when his spirit wrapped the array plate, the decorative patterns on the surface of the treasures had a flash of light flowing through.

Then, Casey's mind got a paragraph of information, which scared him that he quickly took his spirit back.

"Nine Dragons Binding Array, it must be started by the power of god soul, the stored energy can trigger three times of the array. Once it was triggered, nine dragons shows up and kills the enemy in a moment."

Looking at this piece of information in his mind, Casey was shocked to the extreme, and then he looked to Cain and did not expect it was really the array plate he said.

But Casey did not understand why he could read such information. Was his spiritual power actually the power of god soul?

For a time, Casey had a lot of doubts. He turned to Cain. Cain said he read the ancient books about the array plate. Casey wondered if he had read something about power of god soul.

If the spiritual power of Casey was the so-called power of god soul, once he had the treasure, it would become his biggest card.

After all, the information said that the nine dragons would kill the enemy in the blink of an eye. It was not certainly the general array law.

Casey looked at Cain and asked, "Sire, do you know the power of god soul?"

Hearing that, Cain carefully studying that piece of array plate changed his face, looked to Casey, asked, "Where do you hear about it? Do you know who has it?"

Casey was surprised to see Cain's reaction, he said, "I just asked."

Mallory looked at Casey and said, "Grandpa, few people know the power of god soul, he should just has hearsay."

As they were talking, a man ran to Lester and showed Lester his phone.

"Lord, the monitoring at Spring Restaurant has been repaired."

Lester immediately took the phone, staring at the video. In the video, he saw Casey kicked Thaddeus away.

Seeing that, Lester immediately gritted his teeth angrily.

Then, he looked toward Casey, his momentum made the people around shiver.

Chapter 919 Kill the Father

Casey was thinking about whether he could get some information from Cain about the power of god soul, by at this time, a team of people suddenly rushed into the venue, quickly evacuated all the people towards the edge.

After a while, the people in the venue were all to the edge, leaving only Casey, Vermilion Bird, Cain and Mallory standing in front of the table observing the array plate.

Everyone was puzzled and did not know what was happening.

Casey and the other there noticed it. Cain and Mallory did not know what was going on.

Casey saw Lester came over and immediately knew that the Chow family should have found out Thaddeus was dead in his hands.

But he wasn't surprised. He had been prepared for the situation before he came.

"If we have a fight, you dodge to one side. You can't help me in a fight like this, and it might distract me. Just protect yourself." Casey turned to Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird understood the situation, so she nodded to Casey.

Lester walked to the table, took the array plate from the hands of Cain and then said to Cain, "Cain, what is the relationship with these two people?"

Cain was stunned by his angry tone and said, "We just knew them. What happened? Why you act like this?"

"Well, my son died three days ago. I have just found out that these two people killed my son. If you have nothing to do with them, I advise you to go to the side, so as not to be affected." Lester said coldly.

Cain's face changed. He turned to Casey and did not expect Casey was the murderer. No wonder Casey spoke for the murderer, because he was the murderer.

Mallory was surprised, but she could see Lester wanted to kill Casey. Since he had been targeted, how could he survive?

She said to Lester, "We have no relationship with them. They came to talk to us and we don't know he is the murderer. This is your private matter, we will not interfere."

After that, Mallory lugged Cain toward the edge.

The people were astonished to hear that. They mostly didn't know Thaddeus was dead, and almost no one expect someone would dare to kill Thaddeus.

Seeing the appearance of Lester, it should not be false, all eyes fell on Casey. They did not understand why this young man killed Thaddeus. He had offended the Chow family, and was caught by Lester in the venue. Casey could not survive for sure.

"This guy almost lugged us. I did not expect him to be the murderer who killed Thaddeus, why does he still dare to participate in the magical arts meeting? Isn't he looking for death?"

After coming to the edge, Mallory said with panic. if Lester suspected that they were with Casey, they would be in trouble today.

Cain frowned at Casey. He always felt Casey was unusual, and even he was surrounded, Casey did not show the slightest panic, as if everything was under his control. The average person certainly could not keep this mentality in the face of this situation.

Lester stared at Casey and said, "We are not enemies, but you killed my son. I have surveillance to testify, you can't deny it. Today you must give me an explanation!"

Casey stared at Lester and said, "Your son united three evil people to harm more than ten innocent girls. And, I bought the thing he liked and he wanted to take my life, I was just justifiable defense. You can only blame your son for being bad."

Lester immediately gave cold hum and said, "Nonsense! How could my son be as evil as you say?! Don't you make excuses for yourself. I will kill you today to avenge my son!"

"Don't you have the monitor? Dare you show it to everyone and let them see if what I said is true? Your son were with Harrison Williams, Tiger Thund and Gary Matthews. You must have seen their bodies. Whether the three were evil or nor, I think all the people present should be clear about it." Casey said calmly.

After hearing the words of Casey, people present were surprised that the three people were involved. The three people had bad reputation in the magical art circle, their Double Practice was despised.

But the strength of the three people was very strong. Casey said the three were died, which showed that the strength of Casey was far above the three.

They did not expect Casey had such a strong strength at his young age. Hearing that, Lester turned pale on his face. He knew his son's character. When he saw the bodies of the three, he had known what happened, and the monitoring proved his guess.

But Thaddeus was his son. Even if he had no reason, he could not let go of Casey who had killed his son.

"Don't say unreasonable words. My son did die in your hands. I don't care what you are, what kind of background you have, today I have to kill you!"

Lester was not going to talk nonsense. He directly took out his short sword engraved with complex lines.

Seeing that Lester was unreasonable, he shook his head and said, "Since you are so unrepentant to help a sinner, don't blame me for being rude!"

"Your son was not sensible deserved to die. If you are not sensible, I don't mind killing you too!"

With that, Casey took out his Muramasa.

Chapter 920 VS. Lester Chow

Seeing the battle was about to begin, Vermilion Bird hurriedly said to Casey, "You must be careful!"

Then she quickly ran toward the edge, so as not to distract Casey.

Lester made a strange handprint, delimited it above the short sword and then a light appeared it. The short sword directly jumped into the air, flying toward Casey.

People around was shocked. They only heard that Lester was good at playing flying sword, many of them saw the real flying sword flying in the air for the first time, so they involuntarily issued the sound of surprise.

"I have heard that Lester is good at killing people with sword. He deserves his reputation."

"Lester's supernatural power is really terrible, the speed of the flying sword is incomparable to ordinary people, that boy will be in trouble."

"No matter why he killed Thaddeus, he is now an enemy with the Chow family. The flying sword is horrible, he must be dead today."

...

Mallory stared at Casey. Seeing that he just had a knife, she said with contempt, "Lester's fly sword is a magical object, and he wants to deal with it by a regular knife. How arrogant he is. I still can't understand why he came here after he killed Thaddeus. Does he want to die?"

Cain said, "This boy is not so simple as you think. I don't think he would be stupid enough to come to die."

"Grandpa, why do you defend him? He has already offended the Chow family. I don't think he's good. Look at him, he's got a knife. How can a real expert carry something like that?" Mallory muttered.

"Look again at the knife in his hand." Cain said.

Mallory's eyes fell on the knife in the hands of Casey, this time she was surprised to open her eyes wide, because over the knife, there was burst of light with a kind of indescribable power.

"What's going on here? Is he a master of magical art?" Mallory murmured.

"When he achieves the sublimation, the inner force can result in this fantastic scene, but the sublimation master generally will not carry weapons. His realm should be between the grandmaster and the sublimation, so he needs a weapon as a medium." Cain was experienced and he explained to Mallory.

"Isn't the realm of Lester more powerful than the master of sublimation in the martial arts? This guy is just between the grandmaster and the sublimation. Even if his strength is extraordinary, he will only be defeated in the hands of Lester." Mallory seemed to have seen the fate of Casey.

Cain did not speak. He did not agree with Mallory. Although Casey's strength seemed to have not reached the sublimation, he always felt that Casey who knew the power of god soul had his card.

Lester's flying sword as a stream flew toward the neck of Casey. Casey was alert, before the flying sword approached, he raised Muramasa and blocked the flying sword.

The flying sword carried the power that was not worse than the master of the sublimation, and the speed was very fast. The master of the sublimation would have been killed under such situation.

Casey had spiritual power. Within the radius of five meters, Casey saw clearly everything. As long as the flying sword was five meters away from Casey, Casey could feel its track and blocked it easily.

Seeing that Casey actually blocked his blow, Lester was surprised and murmured, "Unexpectedly he can block it. He seems to be great, but I don't only know this move. I would like to see how long you can hold on under my flying sword!"

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

10 Stars Who Got Excluded From The Hollywood Elite Club

With that, Lester changed his method. The flying sword again flew to Casey and he began a set of tricks.

Casey covered all his strength over Muramasa. Lester's flying sword was really powerful and the sharpness was much better than the general weapon. Casey could feel that if he did not cover it with all his power on it, Muramasa would scrap soon.

The reputation of the leading got his tricks!

People around was surprised to see them fighting. The light above Casey's knife and the flying sword made them dazzled.

They did not expect Casey could hold on for a long time to go against the flying sword. It seemed that he really had skills.

"The strength of his flying sword is extraordinary and superior to the master in the early stage of sublimation. If it goes on like this, I am afraid that it won't be long. He should only rely on this flying sword, and his own strength shouldn't be very strong. As long as I am close to him and get him under control, this fight will be over."

Casey quickly came up with a solution. The power of Lester's flying sword was beyond that of the early stage of sublimation. Casey barely resisted in the assistance of spiritual power.

And the Chow family surrounded him. In this case, if he could not use Cabala to deal with all people, the final death must be him.

So now he could only get close to Lester and kill him as soon as possible. So Casey rushed toward Lester, the light on his blade was great and then the knife swept toward Lester.

"Tianxing sword technique!"

Lester squinted, change his handprint, and the flying sword had flown to his front. With a slice, it broke Casey's tricks.

Casey did not think that his move would cause any harm to Lester, he just wanted to distract Lester's attention.

Muramasa was changing tricks in his hand. Once again it flew toward Lester, a half-moon shape light appeared and fell on the top of Lester's head.

"Moon Invitation sword technique!"

Lester's flying sword instantly flew over the top of Lester's head, and then showed countless flying sword, forming a net constituted by flying swords, which blocked Casey's knife light.

At this time, Casey had rushed to the front of Lester. He stared at Lester and said, "Your flying sword is really great, but as a master of magical art, you can't fight in close distance. Once are you approached, you will be unprepared."

"You shouldn't have been so careless."

As Casey's voice fell, Muramasa in his hands gathered all his power. A huge knife shadow showed up with bursts of thunder arc, splitting toward Lester.

"Thunder Shocking sword technique!" _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 921 Light Armor

When the audience saw the huge shadow of Thunder Shocking sword technique, they were all shocked. Such a powerful attack was more many times stronger than their so-called magical arts.

In the state of sublimation, its magic was not weaker than magical arts, and the power was obviously stronger.

Of course, the magical art had been almost faded. In the past records, magical art had the power to destroy the heaven and the earth.

The array plate of Nine Dragons Binding Array must have been handed down long ago when the magical art was flourishing. If the magical art was really flourishing, the Chow family would have known how to trigger it.

So Casey had doubts about its fading away, which must be involved in a very big secret.

Seeing that huge knife shadow approaching Lester, people were nervous.

But Lester himself did not panic, but sneered.

Casey noticed that sneer, and immediately rose a sense of unease, subconsciously he retreated.

But at this time, the knife shadow already fell on Lester, but Lester had no intention of resisting or running away.

He just stood there, watching the shadow of the knife fell to his body, and then, on his skin, there were golden runes forming a golden power cover over his body, directly blocking Casey's attack.

In blink of an eye, the golden light cover absorbed the power of Casey, and then without the slightest hesitation, it hit toward Casey.

Casey's pupils shrank. It was unexpected that Lester had such means, and all this happened in a minute, even if Casey realized the danger, it was simply too late to react.

Lester bounced back the power and it all hit at Casey, which was equivalent to that Casey hit himself, which was very terrible.

Casey directly flew more than ten meters away, and then he fell heavily to the ground.

A mouthful of blood spat out from Casey's mouth, his face suddenly became pale.

Seeing that, Vermilion Bird quickly rushed toward Casey, held him up and asked with concern, "Are you ok?"

Casey took a deep breath and said, "I will live, I did not expect him to have such a means."

All the people were surprised by the means of Lester just now, they did not know how he did that.

Casey looked towards Lester and asked, "What was that, why can you rebound my power back?"

Seeing that Casey had been seriously injured, Lester was not in a hurry to continue to attack him, but said with a smile, "You are right that I am not good at fighting in a close distance. I know it well, so do you think I will give you the opportunity to close to me? If you get close enough to me, I do it on purpose."

"I have a clothes inside, which is called Light Armor, a piece of magical object handed down from my ancestors. It can resist the attack of the enemy for me and bounce back the power."

"I have defeated many martial arts masters over the years. More than half of them were defeated not by my flying sword, but by this light armor."

"You warriors always think that when you are near me, I can do nothing about you, and it is true, but I am not a fool, or you would not be in this situation."

"Boy, your strength is not weak, and you are still so young and so talented, but you killed my son, even if you have great talent, I will kill you today for my son's revenge!"

Everyone looked at Lester in surprise. They did not expect that he could kill people with a clothes together with his flying sword.

Everyone had to admire the Chow family, it was really leading the magical art circle, which was not comparable to ordinary people.

Casey was upset. He did look down on Lester, it was his first time to see such a thing which could bounce back power.

But Casey was clear that it could only be used in a short period of time and the power bounced back was limited, otherwise Lester could have been standing there and allowing him to attack, because the power bounced back could kill people.

Lester came over to Casey with a murderous face, the flying sword suspended by Lester's side, it looked like at any time it would attack toward Casey.

"Boy, you get down on your knees right now and knock your head ten times into the air in honor of my son's spirit in the sky. I can consider killing you fast, or I will torture you slowly until you can no longer bear it, and then I will kill you." Lester opened his mouth.

Casey squinted and said in a cold voice, "You wish!"

"Well, don't blame me for being rude!"

After that, Lester's flying sword rushed toward Casey's head.

At this time Vermilion Bird directly blocked in front of Casey and said, "Kill me first. It was your son wanted to harm us and he deserved to be death. If you kill us, the Pantheon will not spare your Chow family!"

Lester narrowed his eyes and said in a cold voice, "So you are the people of the Pantheon. But you killed my son, you should die. Don't think I would be afraid of you!"

With that, Lester's flying sword immediately issued a harsh sound, and then rushed toward Casey and Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird closed her eyes, knowing there was nothing she could do today.

But at this time, Casey pulled her to his back, said with a smile, "I didn't say I have no way to deal with him, you don't have to let him kill you in such a hurry."

After that, Casey looked at the flying sword, murmured, "It is just a flying sword, do you think only you can play this thing?"

As soon as his words fell, there was a golden light above his head, and then, a golden sword appeared in the line of sight of the people, so that everyone's face showed gold.

The golden long sword pointed to Lester's flying sword. Without hesitation, it rushed out. ____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

chapter 922 Killing Immortals Sword

When they saw the golden sword, they had been shocked, because they did not see Casey carrying a sword, the sword came out suddenly.

"My god, where does the golden sword come from? It seems to suddenly appear above the boy's head, and it still radiates golden light. Is it a fairy sword in legend?"

"It is amazing. I felt the flying sword already is superior, but boy has flying sword too and it can shine. I will it will be more powerful."

"This is the real skill, we just know some of it.!"

...

Vermilion Bird also did not expect Casey would have such means.

Thinking of that she was ready to be killed, she was embarrassed.

Cain and Mallory not far from saw that golden sword above Casey's head. Cain opened his mouth and shouted, "It is the sword of god soul. He really has god soul, I was right on the plane!"

Mallory heard Cain's words and gave a complex expression.

Lester saw the golden sword, he narrowed his eyes and gave cold hum, "You are just pretending. I learned the skill of flying sword for more than 20 years to barely master it. You are just over 20 years old, how can you have this skill, it's a bluff."

However, he was not true. The golden sword fought with the flying sword, the golden sword issued brilliant light. In only a round, Lester's flying sword fell down toward the ground.

When it hit the ground, it broke in two.

All the people were shocked when they saw this scene. Lester also froze in his place, staring at the flying sword that fell to the ground.

"..... Broken?" Many people exclaimed.

Lester quickly ran to the flying sword and picked up the two pieces of flying sword that fell to the ground. Looking at them in disbelief, his both hands were trembling.

"How is that possible? Why is it broken? This is a piece of magical object. It has been inherited in the Chow family for so many years and there has never been any problem. This sword is indestructible. How could it be broken?"

Lester looked up at the golden sword in midair with fear in eyes and then he realized that he had underestimated Casey.

Casey did not hesitate. After breaking Lester's flying sword, the Killing Immortals Sword in the air rushed towards Lester.

Lester's face changed, immediately he made handprint and threw a piece of yellow charm. He yelled and the yellow charm exploded.

However, such a degree of attack was nothing for the Killing Immortals Sword. It turned into a golden light, in blink of an eye, it had arrived in front of Lester.

"Will you give up?" Casey stared at Lester and asked.

Lester's eyes looked malicious, then he stretched out a hand to bite his finger, and coated the blood on his light armor.

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

"My light armor can be used twice in a short period of time, which will take a lot of its life, but it's worth it against you, and you've already seen what it can do. If you hit me with this sword, all of your attacks will bounce back, and you'll be the one who's in trouble." Lester said in a cold voice.

Hearing that, Casey could not help but smile and then said, "idiot."

Then the Killing Immortals Sword got through Lester's body. Lester's armor did not release the golden cover as before. The Killing Immortals

Sword was so fast the armor did not have enough time to react and had got itself been got through.

After these, Casey quickly took back the Killing Immortals Sword. When the golden sword was in front of Casey, it suddenly disappeared and got back to the mind of Casey.

As early as yesterday, Casey found the golden sword in his mind, felt the connection between himself and it, he knew he could use the sword. Although this small sword was still broken, ordinary people could not imagine its power. Casey did not expect it could cut off Lester's flying sword.

Casey could feel that the sword played its power by absorbing his spiritual power.

But it was already powerful. He wondered how powerful it was at its peak state.

But although only he used this sword for a few minutes, Casey's spirit had been taken out of 80%, otherwise he would not be in a hurry to take it back.

Although it was powerful based on Casey's level now, he could not use it for long, but used it sometime.

Lester's face became pale. He looked down at his chest, and found there had been blood flowing out.

"How... How did that happen? Why didn't the light armor work?"

"Is that boy's flying sword as strong as this?"

Soliloquized, Lester fell down. After falling on the ground, his neck twisted twisted and then he died.

Everyone was in an uproar. They did not expect that Lester would die in the hands of Casey.

"It is terrible, Lester died in his hands. My god, who would have thought Lester would die in their magical art meeting!" A lot of people were starting to talk about it.

Casey went to Lester and found him opening eyes, with out luster. He he bent down, fumbled Lester, found the array plate and put it into his clothes.

"You had a chance to go on living in this world, but you insisted on killing me. Blame yourself."

"I will take this array plate as your compensation to me."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 923 Ask For Help

With vigilance, the Chow family looked at Casey. Although Lester died in the hands of Casey, they did not dare to act rashly, after all, Casey was terrible. Lester could not defeat Casey, how could they?

After putting away the array plate, Casey turned to look at the Chow family and asked, "Do you want to fight with me?"

The Chow family looked at each other, and then together shook their heads.

"The death of Thaddeus Chow is his own responsibility. If you don't believe me, you can go to see the supervision of Spring Restaurant by yourself. If you think I was wrong, you can come to me for revenge at any time."

After that, Casey turned and walked to Vermilion Bird. Now Lester was dead, this magical art meeting would certainly be canceled. Casey had reached his purpose and got the array plate, so he was not going to stay here.

Vermilion Bird saw Casey come over and asked, "Are you ok?"

"I just need some recuperation. Let's go back to the hotel." Casey said. Vermilion Bird nodded and went out with Casey.

People present looked at Casey with solemn faces and hurriedly gave a way for them. At this moment, no one dare to despise the existence of Casey.

Until Casey left the venue, the people's voices were bigger.

"That man looks familiar, I felt like I've seen him somewhere before."

"Right, he is Casey Davies from B City! He contend with thee five big families in the martial arts circle by his own!"

"My God, this guy has such a talent for martial arts and now shows his sword riding skills."

"He is good, those geniuses are nothing compared to him. The Chow family could not take revenge and could only endure it."

...

Casey and Vermilion Bird were on the way back.

"Do you feel someone are following us?" Vermilion Bird asked.

Casey said with a smile, "Never mind, let them follow, so that I won't have to find them."

"Do you know who's following us?" asked Vermilion Bird.

Casey nodded and said, "It's the Woods family."

"What are they following us? Do they want revenge for the Chow family?" Vermilion Bird looked puzzled.

"I don't know, but it should not be revenge for the Chow family. I have interest in the ancient books of the Woods family. Let them follow for the time being." Casey opened his mouth lightly.

Vermilion Bird nodded. With Casey around, she need not worry.

After this, Casey would go back to B City, and she must be back to the Pantheon. At this thought, Vermilion Bird was upset.

When she was with Casey, she did feel Casey was not the same, after all, after contacting such a good man, anyone would take fancy on him. Unfortunately, Casey had a wife. Even if she felt she liked Casey, she could not be with him.

So it was better to break this idea as soon as possible, or she would be sad.

After a while, two people were back to the door of the hotel. At this time Casey stopped, turned to a certain direction behind and said, "Come out, you have been following us all the way. Come and talk face to face."

Behind the flower bed, Cain and Mallory came out. Mallory's eyes were flashing, obviously because she felt ashamed of her previous attitude towards Casey.

Two people came to Casey. Cain looked at Casey with respect, said, "Casey, I am sorry we followed you all the way, but we do need your help, so please don't mind."

"Need my help? I think you'd better find someone else. Maybe you can ask the Chow family for help. After all, they are the authorities in the field of magical arts." Casey said with a smile, taking a glance at Mallory

Mallory was embarrassed. She knew Casey was mocking her attitude before.

But she did underestimate Casey and was self-righteous, so she had no dissatisfaction for Casey's sarcasm.

What was more, they were now asking Casey to help, so it was more unlikely to be angry because of Casey's words.

"Casey, I was ignorant, so I said that, please forgive me. I am self-righteous, as long as you are willing to help us, no matter what you let me do, I am willing to." Mallory hurriedly apologize to Casey.

Casey coldly glanced at her and said, "Your attitude changed fast, but how do you know I can help you?"

"My sister got the soul poison, only the power of god soul can help her. Grandpa said you used the ability of god soul sword. And who masters this ability must have god soul. We have been looking for it for a long time, so please help us. As long as you promise to save my sister, I am willing to give everything."

After that, Mallory knelt directly in front of Casey, begging.

"If you find my previous words offensive, I will accept punishment for my mistake, even if you want to take my life, if you promise to save my sister."

Seeing Mallory suddenly knelt down, Casey frowned. He did not expect that. She really wanted to save her sister's life.

Cain took a helpless sigh and said, "This girl was straightforward and have provoked you, Casey, but she is not bad. We really have no way out. Before meeting you, we even doubted in this world there is no so-called god soul."

Hearing that, Casey opened his mouth, "How do you determine that I must have the power of god soul? What if it's just a coincidence?"

"It can't be wrong. Your sword, if I'm right, is in your mind now?" Cain asked.

Casey froze. It seemed that Cain was not bluffing. He should really know some things about god soul.

After thinking for a moment, Casey looked at Mallory and said, "You get up first. I am injured and need to rest. Let's go in and talk."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 924 God Soul Practice

In Casey's living room of the hotel.

Cain and Mallory sat on the sofa nervously. Casey at this time was recovering his injuries. Vermilion Bird was standing on the edge of Casey, in case Cain and Mallory suddenly attacked him.

After a long time, Casey finally opened his eyes, after a long breath, his face became much better.

His body was much stronger than ordinary people, so he recovered fast from injuries.

Now he had basically stabilized his condition, he just needed to recover slowly for a while and he would be fine.

After taking a look at Cain and Mallory, Casey asked, "you have suspected that there is no so-called god soul in the world, and how can you determine I have god soul. As far as I know, many people can control things in the air, aren't you afraid you are wrong?"

"Our ancient books have detailed records. If you are not sure if you have god soul, I can say the characteristics of it and you can see."

Cain smiled to Casey, then continued to say, "People have god soul will have a soul in mind based on their own image, this soul is the foundation of god soul, which was equivalent to the reduced version of their own. The more powerful the soul is, the powerful you are."

"And people who have god soul can release the power of perception of the situation around, where will in their mind. Even his eyes were covered, he could easily detect changes around him and he could even see more clearly than the naked eyes."

"This is just the basic role of god soul, if you have the practice method of god soul, you are able to use it to play a surprising strength, and often can let the opponent caught off guard. It was quite powerful."

"Is there any difference with your situation?"

Casey looked at Cain with surprise. He was right, it seemed those ancient books were real.

Casey stared at Cain and asked, "if I promise to help you, what reward can I have?"

Cain knew he was right that Casey must have god soul, as long as this was certain, Mallory's sister had hope to be saved.

"As long as you can save my granddaughter, we can meet any conditions you put forward, as long as we can do it, or if you want something, we will give it to you without any hesitation." Cain opened his mouth.

After some hesitation, Mallory said in order to make Casey believe she really wanted to save her sister, "Even if you want me to serve you, I will be ok with that. I have never had sex with other men. As long as you save my sister, I can at your mercy."

With that, Mallory blushed and lowered her head.

When Vermilion Bird heard that, she opened her eyes wide. She did not expect that Mallory would say such words.

Was she really out of date? Were girls open these days? It really made her shocked..

She even suspected that she had become a leftover woman because she was out of step with the Times.

Casey did not expect Mallory would say such words. Mallory was pretty and other men would be tempted, but Casey had little interest.

"Forget it. I want the method of practice god soul, and I want to read all the ancient books in your house. If you can promise me this, I will promise you to save her." Casey opened his mouth.

10 Stars Who Got Excluded From The Hollywood Elite Club

Who Is Mark Zuckerberg's Wife? 16 Facts About Priscilla Chan

Mallory was stunned. She did not expect that Casey would refuse her. She thought she was pretty and there were many men going after her, but now Casey unexpectedly refused her, which made her suspect she had something bad..

Today was definitely the worst day for her self-esteem.

Cain heard Casey's words and felt dilemma. He can let Casey read ancient books, but the method of practice god soul, he must have to consider it.

"I can let you read the ancient books, but the method of practice god soul..."

"If not, forget it." Casey said firmly.

Cain gritted his teeth, and then said, "Ok, I agree."

Casey's eyes suddenly became bright. He just wanted to see if they have the so-called method of practice god soul, if they didn't, it was acceptable to exchange it with ancient books.

Unexpectedly they had the method of practice god soul, which was good.

After that, Casey went back to B City with Cain and Mallory, Vermilion Bird said she should go back, so she would not go with them..

Casey was not surprised, after all, the thing was over and Vermilion Bird did not have to go to B City

Casey and Vermilion Bird then talked about the things with the rewards for Soul Setting Jade. Casey let Vermilion Bird offer a price, Vermilion Bird said Casey saved her life, in order to return this favor, she would not have his money for having the Soul Setting Jade..

Casey said several times that there was no relationship between the two things, but Vermilion Bird had been insisting, so Casey had to accept.

Vermilion Bird would contact Casey and gave the Soul Setting Jade to him after she got it.

Casey was grateful, with the help of Vermilion Bird, Casey would save a lot of energy.

That afternoon, Casey, Cain and Mallory got on the plane back to B City, and Vermilion Bird went back to the Pantheon alone.

After getting off the plane, Casey asked Cain the location of his house.

He had to go home first before he went to save Mallory's sister.

Cain was not in a hurry and told him the address. He could come after recovery, after all, the treatment needed Casey to be at the peak of the state.

Casey did not say anything, but parted with them and went back to his house.

At the moment Casey walked into the house, a slightly rickety figure appeared in the line of sight of Casey. Casey narrowed his eyes and his expression suddenly become dignified..

Standing in the yard, it was the old man who gave Casey the golden elixir!

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 925 The Gains

Beside the old man stood two men of great stature, with firm faces, and a murderous air in them which was not often found in the best of the martial arts.

Seeing them, Casey thought of battlefield.

It was true that only a person stayed long in the battlefield could have this kind of temperament.

The two people fixed their eyes on Casey as he walked into the house. Casey could feel that if he had any movement, the two people would attack him.

But Casey felt strange that he did not feel the inner force in these two people.

Edith stood in the middle of the courtyard, Ellis and Hughes were with her. She was talking with the old man. When Casey came back, her eyes became bright and she hurriedly came over and said, "Casey, the old man said you had agreement. He helped you and it is your turn to keep your promise."

Casey nodded, he indeed had had the agreement with this old man, but from then on, the old man did not come to him, and he put this matter behind.

Now seeing the arrival of the old man, Casey knew that it was time He never thought of defaulting on it. After all, it was the old man who saved his life. If it had not been for the old man, he would have died while recovering from his wounds in that coastal city.

Furthermore, this old man had been giving Casey a very mysterious feeling. As he just returned to B City today, the old man was here, which showed that the old man was very clear about his whereabouts.

It was not easy to track a person's movements so clearly.

"Long time no see, how are you, Sir?" Casey smiled toward the old man and walked over.

The old man smiled at Casey and said, "I am old, I am not doing good as you young people."

"You are joking. Come in and sit down, Edith, make a good pot of tea.

This old gentleman is my savior." Casey took a look at Edith.

Edith immediately nodded and went to make tea.

Casey took the old man and the two men together toward the house, in the process, Casey released the power of god soul and carefully observed the three people.

When the god soul checked the guns on the two men's waist, Casey was surprised.

6 Uncommon Tips For Building A Healthy Relationship

The soldier probably was the only person who could carry a gun and be so calm.

No wonder Casey did not feel the inner force from them. Relying on their guns, it was enough to deal with the grandmasters.

Although the grandmaster was powerful and could erupt the power that ordinary people cannot imagine, but in the essence, they were ordinary people. They could not resist the weapon produced under the industrial revolution.

As for the master of sublimation a realm higher than the grandmaster, although they had reached the level of the power release, in the case of no defense, they would be killed if they got shot by a gun.

After all, the sublimation did not turning human bodies into walls of steel.

However, if in the premise of preparation, the power of the master of the sublimation was released, forming a protection, it was possible to resist the explosive force brought by ordinary firearms.

After all, the means of sublimation masters were sometimes guns.

But it was only for the handgun butt not sniper rifle.

Casey felt he could resist the power of the handgun.

Perhaps Thomas could withstand the power of the sniper gun, but Casey could not do it now.

Of course, no one would be stupid enough to go against the army, so no one had ever tested what level of expert could withstand sniper gun.

As for the higher level of thermal weapons, like rocket launcher, missile, unless it was the masters of Unrealm, or no one could withstand that.

Although the power of warrior was strong, but few people were reach the level beyond ordinary people, so it was still the military's responsibility to protect the country.

Casey let the old man sit down, the two men standing straight behind the old man, always guarding the safety of the old man.

Casey sat across from the old man, stared at him and asked, "Do you come for our original agreement?"

The old man nodded to Casey with a smile and said, "Yes, things in the world always have cause and effect. I planted the cause, now, it is time to get the effect." __

Chapter 926 To be An Instructor

Hearing the answer from the old man, Casey, after taking a deep breath, said, "You have saved my life, according to the original agreement, I should agree your request unconditionally. You can put it forward. As long as it's not for me to do harm, even if you want to take away my life, I will not have any complaints."

At this time, Edith had finished making the tea and came to the middle of the living room, after hearing the words of Casey, she was nervous. Casey told her about the old man. She knew the character of Casey, since he had promised, he would fulfil his words, but she did not want Casey to die, so she felt uneasy and wondered why the old man came here..

After the old man heard Casey's answer, he showed a smile and said, "It seems that I did not save the wrong person. And my golden elixir was not in vain."

"But you don't have to worry, I won't let you do things that harm people, and I also won't take away your life. I gave you the golden elixir was to bury a ray of hope."

"And your performance was out of my expectation. I see your talent and you are detached, and you must be a great man. However I didn't expect you to fight the five GuWu families and killed them alone. Besides you have solved the the Duncan family and the Lester Chow, who was famous in the magical art circle."

"Considering your age, you are definitely ranking the first in the country."

Hearing that, Casey was surprised that the old man knew his whereabouts so well, including what he had did in R Country. It seemed that the identity of the old man could not be imaged by ordinary people.

"I feel incredibly lucky to have saved your life, and to be friends with someone with your talent, potential and strength, which is good thing for me." The old man continued.

"And I come to you this time, in fact, I want you to go with me to the Northern Border as an instructor for a period of time. I believe that if you join me, those soldiers under my hands will have great change."

"To to an instructor?" Casey was surprised and did not expect the old man came to him for this thing.

"That's right." The old man nodded and laughed again. "I forgot to introduce myself. My name is Magnus Cooke, and you can call me Magnus. Now I am the general in the Northern Border with three million of soldier, and I am also the commander of the the Dragon Army. And I want you to be the instructor to be the Dragon Army."

Hearing that, Casey was shocked. Although he had guessed the identity of the old man was not simple, Casey was unexpected.

He did not guess that the old man sitting in front of him was actually the general of three million soldiers in the North Border, Casey knew what it meant. Even if he now had the strength of the half sublimation and waken up his god soul, he was nothing to a general.

This old man, with a command, could destroy the Davies family.

And Casey had heard the Dragon Army, rumors had it that there was an invincible army in the Northern Border. All of the people in the army were elite, the king of soldiers, those who wanted to invade the territory had been frightened because of the existence of this army. The Dragon Army won its reputation and the status of the country relied on it.

"I am sorry I did not expect you are the general of the Northern Border." Casey saluted him with admiration.

Magnus smiled and said, "It's just a title. Now I'm an old man and I don't think I can stay in this position for many more years. So I want to see the Dragon Army get promotion before I retire."

"Magnus, you really think too highly of me. The Dragon Army is already invincible. How can I, a junior under 30, be their instructor?" Casey opened his mouth.

"You don't need to be modest in front of me, although the Dragon Army was elite, compared with you, they are not good enough. With your strength, you can teach them." Magnus smiled and open his mouth. Casey looked complex. He felt ok if Magnus asked him to go to the battlefield, but he was not sure if he could do a good job as an instructor for the Dragon Army, after all, he never did this thing in the past.

Seeing that Casey was in hesitation, Magnus did not give Casey the chance to refuse and said, "This is my request to you, as long as you complete this thing, the agreement between us is completed, I will not ask you to do anything else."

"I've said all I need to say, and the matter is settled. I'll have some information sent to you later, and if you think it's all right, someone will send you to the north, where the conditions are a little tougher, but you will not have a problem."

Magnus said and stood up from the sofa.

Seeing that, Casey knew that he had to agree, so he nodded and said, "Since it is your request, I will do it well and will not let you down."

Magnus nodded with satisfaction and then gave him a card, saying, "Make this phone call when you finish your work, I will have someone come to pick you up."

Casey took the card and nodded.

"I won't drink the tea. I have a lot of work to do. I'll see you in the North Border."

After that, Magnus went toward outside, that two men followed him.

Casey saw then off the house. There had been a jeep waiting outside.

Magnus smiled to Casey , then sat in the car.

After looking at the jeep away, Edith came to Casey and said, "If you go to the North Border, will you encounter any danger?"

Casey smiled at Edith and said, "I am to do instructor, not to fight, there is no any danger, perhaps, this is an easy job."

Although he said so, Casey knew that, as an instructor of the well-known Dragon Army in the North Border, he would not have an easy job to make a group of battle-hardened, rebellious people listen to him._____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 927 Low-key Casey

After Magnus left, Casey and Edith sat in bed hugging each other. Casey finally relaxed at this moment.

At this time he was still injured. He had to recover before he went to go to the North Border as an instructor of Dragon Army.

And Casey just came back and would go out soon, he was sorry for Edith.

So he would try to squeeze time to accompany Edith and Sherry.

Of course, because of the existence of Edith and Sherry, Casey would be more cherish his life. Although sometimes it was very risky, he never let himself into despair.

Because he knew that there were people at home who cared about him, so no matter what, he would not let anything happen to him. And this home was Casey's heart harbor, no matter what kind of things he experienced outside, as long as he returned to this home, he would calm down.

That was why fought for.

After a few days at home, Casey's injury had completely recovered. He took Edith and Sherry to visit famous scenic spots in B City.

When Casey came back on the third day, Vermilion Bird contacted Casey and told she had had the Soul Setting Jade and asked him when he wanted it.

Casey's master had there were three years to go, now half a year had been passed. Now he needed to go to the north Border for a period of time to be an instructor, so he could not go and look for his master. He planed to get the Soul Setting Jade after he came back from the North Border.

After all, he would not be an instructor for a few years, and his master said that there was a lot of preparation. It had been only half a year, his master must have not been ready, so it was not in a hurry.

After his injury healed, Casey came to Cain's house to save Mallory's sister.

For the method of practice god soul and some knowledge about it, Casey was interested in it. Although he was not sure whether he can save Mallory's sister, he would give it try..

This afternoon, Casey came to the underground garage. Looking at the luxury cars in the garage, for a time he did not know which car to drive. Because of the large number of cars, he found a butler specially for the underground garage, who was responsible for managing the keys of these cars. If the Davies family needed a car, they could tell him to fill up the oil in advance and do cleaning.

At this time the butler saw Casey come over, quickly ran to Casey and said with a smile, "Lord, which car do you want to drive? I'll find your key for you."

Casey looked around and felt most of these cars were publicity. He was always low-key and did not want to drive a conspicuous car out.

His eyes fell on a Santana and he said, "Take that one."

The butler's face immediately showed a trace of embarrassment and he said, "Lord, that... that car is mine."

Casey said with a smile, "Would you mind letting me drive for a day?"

The cars here are too conspicuous. I want a low-key one."

"No, I don't mind. If you want it, I'll get the key for you." The butler spoke quickly.

Casey nodded, the butler turned around to take the key.

Casey had always thought that car was just a tool and he was no longer in the age to show off with others.

And in his opinion, those who liked to show off were lack of these things, so they would try their best to show off after owning, for Casey, who lacked nothing, naturally there was nothing to show off.

Soon, the butler took the keys over. Casey drove the santana toward the Woods'

Although the Woods family was in B City, because of these years of seclusion, they lived in the suburbs of B City.

The suburbs of B City was nice, with developers building villas and selling them to the city's wealthy, many of whom buy them for their holidays in order to get a breath of fresh air.

The Woods villa was located on one of the best hillsides in B City's suburbs.

This villa community was the most expensive suburb of B City. Only less than 20 villas were there, each was sold at sky-high prices. It had beautiful scenery and thoughtful services.family also had some properties in this place, but Casey had never come to live here.

When he was at the door of the hillside villa community, a security guard came out from inside to stop Casey.

"Sorry Sir, please show your entry permit, non-residents of this village are not allowed to enter." Security said politely to Casey.

"I'm looking for my friend. Let me call her and tell her to come out and pick me up." Casey opened his mouth.

The security guard nodded, because it was located in the suburb and the people lived there were rich and noble, so the security was quite strict.

The security guard saw Casey driving a Santana, so he naturally suspected Casey's purpose of coming here, but since Casey said he would call his friend, there should be no problem.

Casey sent a message to Mallory, told her he had arrived at the gate of the community and let her out.

When Casey was waiting at the gate of the community, a Land Rover came from behind and stopped behind Casey's car and began to sound the horn frantically.

There was only one door into the community, so the car behind had to wait Casey to drive in.

Casey got out of the car and went to the Land Rover. He saw a young man wearing sunglasses sitting in the car and said, "My friend will come out soon. Please wait for a moment. If you can't wait, you can give your key to the security and let him park the car."

Casey knew that there was such service, and the security was happy to do this kind of thing, because most of the time they could receive tips.

The young man stared at Casey with a contemptuous expression and said, "You drive a broken Santana, and you have friends living in such a place? You're a braggart, I suppose?"

After that, the young man looked to the security and shouted, "Security, hurry to drive this guy. How can such garbage enter our community? Do you know what he does? What if he wants to steal things. It will be a huge hidden danger for the community." _____

Hearing the words of the young man, Casey frowned and did not expect that people living in this area could be so arrogant. It was his first time to meet this kind of people.

"Didn't you understand what I just said?" Casey stared at the young man and asked.

"What did you say?" The young man said carelessly.

"I said my friend would be here later. Are you stupid or are you just playing dumb?" Casey said impolitely.

The young man heard Casey's words and immediately opened his eyes wide. He did not think that a guy who drove Santana dared to use this tone to talk to him.

"Who is stupid? How dare you, a pauper, talk to me like that?" the young man directly shouted at Casey.

At this time, the security guard came over and saw the man in the car, and said, "Mr. Brooks, the gentleman said he came here to look for friends, this should be a misunderstanding, please calm down."

"Fuck the misunderstanding, he said I am stupid. He is driving a Santana, how is it possible he had a friend living in this area? I think he wants to steal things inside, catch him and beat him. I am noble, how can he insult me?" said the young man angrily.

The security was embarrassed, turned to Casey and said, "It is not good."

Casey looked at the young man and sneered, "You buy a house here and you said you are noble?"

Hearing that, the young man was angry and shouted at Casey, "Mother fucker, I have a house here and I am noble, what quality do you a beggar have to say that to me?"

The young man named Euan Brooks, originally he was an ordinary white-collar. His father was the driver of the Woods family and drove for Cain for a lifetime.

Although the Woods family was a hidden family, the wealth might not be as much as the Davies family, it was still rich, so they bought two villas.

Euan's father was diligent. And when the Woods family needed help, whether it was windy, rainy, thundering and lightning, he never said no. And Euan's father was a warm-hearted man. He knew the secret of the Woods family, but he never told others and he had ever saved Cain once.

To thank Euan's father, Cain gave him a villa and got him a lot of pension when he was retired.

That pension money was used to buy this Land Rover.

He was white-collar and now he was a man who lived in a high-grade villa community. Euan was quite arrogant. After buying a Land Rover, he began to look down upon people.

He always thought he was superior to others. When he saw people driving ordinary cars, he would look down at them as poor people who could not compare with him.

Because of the relationship between his father and the Woods family, so Euan sometimes was arrogant, once he made trouble, he would ask his father to ask the Woods family for help. The Woods family generally would offer help for the sake of his father.

Seeing that Casey was driving a Santana, he felt this kind of people would will pull down his identity if he got into the same community as him, so he was sarcastic.

"Stupid." Casey stared at Euan and said.

"Damn, you really don't know what you are, dare to say that to me.

Security, will you kick him out?" Euan looked at the security guard.

The security guard was embarrassed, although he felt that Casey driving a Santana was certainly not a rich man, he did not want to give himself trouble.

Seeing that the security guard standing in situ, Euan gave cold hum, looking at Casey, he said, "he will not drive you away, I will teach you a lesson personally. Your broken car blocked my way, if I crash it, don't blame me!"

After that, Euan stepped on the accelerator.

Seeing that Euan wanted to hit his car, his face went dark and he said in a cold voice, "If you dare to hit the car, I will let you know what is regret."

"Are you frightening me? You really think I'm afraid of you? Let me regret? I will not be distressed for hitting hundreds of this trash car!"

After that, Euan engaged the gear, stepped on the accelerator and hit the Santana.

Casey looked at this scene coldly, and did not say anything.

The car was not his, but the garage butler's, so Casey would not let him go.

Seeing that the Santana was in deformation, and his car was intact, Euan revealed a complacent smile.

"You see, your car is like paper. It's the only car you deserve to drive." Euan shouted.

At this time, Mallory walked out of the community. When she received the message of Casey, she quickly walked toward the outside. Casey was the key to save her sister, she was guilty for her attitude to Casey before, so she dared not offend Casey.

She walked out and saw the Santana was hit by the Land Rover, which she knew belonged to the son of her former driver. She had no idea what was going on.

When Mallory saw Casey standing by the car, her face suddenly changed. She hoped it had nothing to do with Casey, otherwise, everything would be over.

She walked out and the security guard saw her, he said, "Miss Woods."

Euan also saw Mallory. His eyes suddenly became bright. He was obsessed to Mallory's beauty and he had pursued Mallory, but Mallory did not like him.

He got out of the car and greeted her with a smile, saying, "Mallory, are you going out? I will give you a ride. Don't go to that guy, this guy is a poor loser, don't let him dirty your eyes."

Mallory stared at Euan with a cold face, and then she walked to Casey and asked, "Mr. Davies, are you all right? What's going on here? Is this fellow giving you trouble?"

See this scene, Euan was stunned and felt incredible.

Why did Mallory respect to this loser? _____

Chapter 929 Give an Explanation

After staring at Mallory, Casey said, "He thought I was a loser and not worthy to be in your neighborhood, and he hit my car."

Mallory heard Casey and her face instantly became dark and she got cold sweat on the forehead suddenly. Now Casey was her guest, although Euan was not the Woods family, he had something to do with the Woods family.

If Casey refused to save her sister because of this, all would be over.

Mallory turned to Euan and said in a cold voice, "What do you mean? Why do you say such things to Mr. Davies?"

Euan did not realize the seriousness of the matter but said to Mallory, "Mallory, this guy is really just a loser. See, he is just driving a Santana, and he scolded me, so I am angry. I feel that he is not qualified to scold me, so I hit his car."

Mallory was angry to hear that and wanted to slap Euan in his face. Let alone the strength of Casey, he was the lord of the Davies family in B City, no one dare to say he was a loser.

Now Euan not only stopped Casey outside the community, and even hit Casey's car. If she did not vent Casey's anger, Casey would not help them.

She directly raised a hand and slapped in Euan's face, scolding, "What nonsense are you talking about? Do you know who he is? How dare you say this kind of words!"

Euan suddenly froze and did not expect Mallory would suddenly hit him.

"He... He drives a Santana. He doesn't look like a rich man. Am I right?"

Euan's voice suddenly became weak. This was the first time he saw Mallory being so angry.

Casey saw Mallory hit Euan and asked, "He is a member of your Woods family?"

Mallory turned around and said, "He is the son of our former driver. I didn't think this would happen. Mr. Davies, I will give you an explanation."

Casey nodded and said, "I hope you won't let me down."

Mallory nodded her head firmly, and then turned to Euan and said coldly, "You are in big trouble this time. Even if your father has been my driver for so many years, no one can protect you this time."

Euan was immediately stunned and he didn't think things would be so serious. He asked, "Mallory, what is going on? I just hit his car. I'll pay him for it."

"It can't be settled by money. Do you know who he is?" Mallory said.

"Who is he?" Euan turned to see Casey and he still felt Casey had no strong background.

"He is the lord of the Davies family, and he is my guest. My grandpa invited him here and you stopped him from entering into the community and even hit his car, Euan, you do have much courage!"

Mallory said angrily.

Euan was instantly dumbfounded, incredibly looking at Casey. He did not expect that this ordinary man actually was the lord of the Davies family!

His lips suddenly became pale, even trembled. He knew he was absolutely in big trouble according to his attitude to Casey, and Casey's identity!

"Mr... Mr. Davies, I didn't know it was you. I was wrong, I did not mean it, I will pay for your car. I apologize for my attitude to you before, please forgive me." Euan hurriedly apologized to Casey.

Casey gave cold hum and said, "if I am not the lord of the Davies family, can you treat others like that? It's the first time I've heard that Santana can't go to a place like this. It's useless for you to beg me today. Let's see what the Woods family will do about it."

Mallory understood Casey's words and immediately knew how to do.

She looked at Casey and said, "Mr. Davies, we go inside to deal with this matter, don't wait at the gate of the community."

Casey nodded. Mallory immediately took Casey toward inside, and then she shouted at Euan, "You come over, inform your father to come to my house."

Euan was afraid but did not dare to violate Mallory's command, so he hurriedly came toward her and took out his call to call his father.

"Dad, come to Woods' house. I have something to tell you." Euan's voice was full of guilt, and he did not dare to directly say what he had done.

Looking at the three people went in, the security took a long sigh of relief. He was glad that he did not follow Euan's instruction to make a hard time for Casey, or he would be in trouble today.

"God, I didn't expect he is the lord of the Davies family. He is a real low-key man. He is great but only drives Santana, which was better than Euan who only loved showing off."

...

In the Woods villa.

Cain sat on the sofa, waiting for the arrival of Casey.

He was happy to hear that Casey would come to his house today.

After a while, Mallory took Casey to the living room. Cain immediately stood up to greet him, but seeing that Mallory and Casey did not look happy, Cain was stunned.

Then, he saw Euan also followed in. He asked Mallory with doubts, "What is going on?"

Mallory took a look at Cain and said, "Layton will be here soon, and then we will talk about it."

Cain had to nod, from the expression of three people, he could see it certainly was not a good thing.

After a while, Euan's father Layton came to the villa.

Inside, he first greeted Cain and Mallory and asked, "My Lord, Miss, you want to see me?"

Mallory looked at him and said, "You should ask your son."

Layton felt a pang in his heart. He turned to his son and asked, "What's going on here? What trouble did you make again?"

Euan finally knelt down in front of his father, crying out.

"Dad, you must save me, I really did not know that he is the lord of the Davies family. I have realized my mistake. You go to beg Mr. Woods and ask him to intercede for me."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 930 Has Nothing to do with his Father

Euan's father, after hearing Euan's words, suddenly changed his face.

He grabbed Euan's collar and asked, "What did you say? How did you offend the lord of the Davies family?"

And then he turned his head toward Casey standing next to Mallory. Just now he thought Casey was just a friend of Mallory, now after looking at him carefully, he found Casey indeed looked like the picture of the lord of the Davies family he saw on the Internet.

"Dad, I didn't mean to. If I'd known he was the lord of the Davies family, I wouldn't have dared to offend him." Euan hurriedly opened his mouth. Cain was curious about what happened, he said to Mallory, "Mallory, please tell me what is going on."

Mallory nodded and said roughly what had happened outside. Then she looked at Casey and asked, "Mr. Davies, am I right?"

"Yes." Casey replied.

Cain took an angry look at Euan, he did not expect he was disrespectful to Casey. If not for Euan's father present, Cain must have taught him a lesson.

Euan's father was angry after listening to Mallory's words. He went to Euan without saying anything, raised his hand and took several slaps in Euan's face.

"You rascal, you learned nothing good but only caused troubles. Now you have offended the lord of the Davies family, who do you think you are!"

After the slap, Euan's father kicked in Euan's body, he knew now Casey and Cain were watching, if he did not hit his son, it would provoke the two, and then his son would be over.

Euan dare not fight back, allowing his father to beat him.

After a long time, Euan's father stopped, at this time Euan had been beaten hard.

Euan's father turned to Cain and Casey, "My Lord, Mr. Davies, it is my son's fault, I am sorry for what happened today. No matter how you punish us, I will not have any complaints.

Cain helplessly sighed and said, "Layton, you have worked hard for our family for so many years, I gave you that villa and pension because of your efforts, but your son has become so arrogant, so it seems that I have made him into this."

Euan's father immediately lowered his head, with guilt.

"Mallory said she would give Mr. Davies an explanation. We need help from Mr. Davies, so I can't help you this time. I will take that villa back, from now on, you can't live here, and your son crashed Mr. Davies's car, pay him the Land Rover. Do you have objection?"

Euan's father said to Cain, "Lord, I have no opinion, this is our mistakes, we should bear the consequences.

Euan was anxious hearing that, if Cain really took back the villa, and Casey took his car, he really had nothing.

"My Lord, I know I am wrong, I apologize to Mr. Davies, please don't kick us out. Without this villa, we will be homeless." Euan begged Cain.

Euan's father saw Euan was still thinking about the villa at this time and kicked at him again, scolding, "How can you still say this words?

Everything we have is given by Lord, and now you provoke his guest, who is the lord of the Davies family. Now you sill want that villa, what can I do with you!"

"My Lord, we accept this punishment. Later, we will go back to pack up our things and vacate the villa. I will also transfer the ownership of the car to Mr. Davies." Euan's father turned to Cain and planned to finalize this matter.

Cain turned to Casey and asked, "Casey, are you satisfied with the results of this treatment?"

Casey took a look at Euan's father, who was a diligent person, it was just hi son's fault, so he said, "this is just between he and me, it has nothing to do with his father. Let himself move out, I will have that car. You can't offer help to him from now on, and I will be ok with it."

"Casey, yo are clear about good and evil, worthy to be the lord of the Davies family at this young age. Since so, we only punish Euan." Cain opened his mouth.

Euan was dumbstruck, he did not expect it was only he would be driven out of the house. He would have nothing, instead of his family.

"Dad, please beg for me. I haven't worked in such a long time. I don't know any skills. If I am driven out, I will have to be a beggar." Euan pleaded to his father.

His father looked at him helplessly and said, "It's your own fault. I can't save you. You really need some experience to grow up. This a test to you from God."

Euan naturally could not listen to this kind of words and still begged for mercy.

Cain felt vexed, he said, "Enough, take him down. It is good enough that Casey did not kill him, or he would have been dead."

Hearing that, Euan's father's face changed, hurried to nod to Cain and pulled Euan out.

After the two left, the villa was quiet inside the living room.

Cain and Mallory looked at Casey with guilt, Cain said, "I am really sorry to give you trouble."

Casey shrugged his shoulders and said, "Didn't you say let me help detoxify your granddaughter? Where is_ she?"

Cain and Mallory looked at each other and knew that this was what really mattered today, so they stopped thinking about Euan.

Cain stood up from the sofa and said to Casey, "Come with me."

Then he turned and walked upstairs._____
