Chapter 981 C Country Can't be Insulted

Casey was staring at the ring. .At this moment, there was a hand patted on his shoulder. He looked over his shoulder and found that Silvia's bodyguards were standing behind him.

There was a hint of surprise in his face that he had not expected to find them here.

"I don't know whether you are lucky or unlucky, boy, but I never thought we'd run into each other here." The bodyguard sneered at Casey.

"What do you want to do?" Casey looked at several people and asked. The bodyguard took the lead immediately gave cold hum, clenched his fist and then said, "What do we want? Hit you, of course! We can't do anything to you on a plane, but we can't be controlled here!"

After that, the bodyguard then directly punched toward Casey's face. Casey quickly avoided his fist, looking at the few people, he did not intend to polite.

He picked up his foot and kicked the bodyguard in the stomach, knocking him to the ground.

After a few people saw it, they immediately jumped toward Casey. People around saw the fight and immediately gave the way, so that they would not be affected.

"Fuck, hold him down, If I don't break his leg today, I won't work as a bodyguard again!"

The bodyguard, who had been kicked to the ground, got up, endured the pain and rejoined the battlefield.

Casey saw that and kicked toward his stomach again.

This time the bodyguard was directly kicked to the ground kneeling on the ground, the severe pain came from his stomach and he no longer have strength to climb up.

These bodyguards were physically stronger than ordinary people, their strength had not reach that of the two on the ring, so Casey would not let them hurt himself.

In the blink of an eye, the bodyguards were knocked to the ground, crying.

The crowd broke out warm applause, at this time, they all turned around to see Casey's fight, no one paid attention to the fight of the two people on the ring.

On the ring, both people were confused. They stopped fighting and looked down from the ring.

Hiding in the crowd, Silvia saw her bodyguards had been knocked down easily, she gave a dark face.

"A bunch of trash, I will change you when I am back, so many people could not deal with one, it pissed me off." Silvia gritted her teeth and muttered.

After Casey took care of the bodyguards, he looked around and then found Silvia hiding in the crowd.

Silvia quickly hid behind a tall man, she did not dare to look into Casey's eyes.

Casey wanted to argue with Silvia, so he went to her.

At this time, the bodyguard kneeling on the ground stood up clenching teeth, shouting toward the ring, "He said he would challenge your King of Boxing, and that your King of Boxing is trash in his eyes!"

When everyone heard this, they burst into cheers.

Someone wanted to challenge the King of Boxing, of course they wanted to watch it.

Wherever you are, there are people who don't mind watching the fun.

These people immediately began to shout for Casey to fight with the King of Boxing, the loud voice was deafening.

Casey slightly frowned and did not expect the bodyguard would make such a move.

Just then, a strong man jumped into the ring and kicked the two fighters down.

Then he looked at Casey, and put up his little finger to Casey.

"You, get up here and fight me!" The man opened his mouth.

At that moment, everyone around them began to scream, and many of them began to whistle excitedly.

Because the man standing in the ring, like a hill, was the most powerful King of Boxing in this bar!

All the people looked at Casey with expectation and hoped he could fight with the King of Boxing.

Because King of Boxing rarely had a fight and they were lucky to see this scene today.

So now the King of Boxing was to fight, they were not willing to miss it, even if Casey got on stage to be beaten, they were willing to watch it. Casey was not interested in fighting the so-called King of Boxing, after all, to him, the King of Boxing and the few bodyguards on the ground crying was not much different.

He shrugged at the King of Boxing before continuing to walk toward Silvia.

"Guys from C country are cowards as expected!" Then the King of Boxing cried out.

Casey heard this and immediately stopped.

He did not care what others think of him, but he absolutely could not tolerate someone insulted C Country.

He looked back at the King of Boxing and said coldly, "You're trying to get yourself killed!"

Then he turned and walked toward the ring, and with a little leap he was on top of it.

They saw Casey on the ring, suddenly showed a full face of excitement, because they had the opportunity to see the King of Boxing fighting. The bodyguards saw Casey on the ring, they sneered and then walked toward Silvia enduring pain.

Silvia saw Casey on the ring to fight with the King of Boxing, she felt Casey was too confident.

But she naturally was quite happy to see Casey beaten.

Seeing the bodyguard came over, Silvia said impatiently, "Don't follow me, go back yourselves."

Hearing Silvia's words, the bodyguard showed embarrassment, realizing that Silvia was so angry because of his shame just now.

Silvia did not continue to stay here to watch the fight, the party will soon start, she had to hurry to be there, so after glancing at Casey, she walked toward the dept of the bar.

Bodyguard helplessly turned around, looked to the ring, and fiercely said, to Casey "Son of bitch, because of you, I was ashamed. It will be good if you are beaten to death!"

In the ring, Casey looked at the King of Boxing and said in a cold voice, "With a move, I will let you know how powerful C Country is."

The King of Boxing sneered, saying "You are just a bunch of cowards, With a slap, I will beat you death."

Casey did not talk nonsense, put out a posture to the King of Boxing and said coldly, "C Country can't be insulted!"

"Today I will let you understand majesty of C Country!"

The King of Boxing pressed his mouth, and rushed to Casey and intended to take care of Casey, so that everyone knew the vulnerability of C Country.

In the moment the King of Boxing rushed to Casey, Casey punched forward and hit the King of Boxing's solid chest.

Before the King of Boxing could react, his body was flying backwards out of the ring.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 982 Apology

All the people who had been waiting for the King of Boxing to do his best fell silent when they saw this.

They stared in disbelief as the world stood still.

The bodyguards were still looking forward to the King of Boxing to beat Casey. They had been ready to cheer up and waited for the King of Boxing to make a move.

But before the King of Boxing had made a move, Casey had pounced him to fly out of the ring.

"This..... How is that possible, that boy, how can he be so good?" The bodyguard murmured, stunned.

The people of Moss City had never seen anything like that. They had been under the impression that the King of Boxing was invincible, and now he was being knocked out by a kid who didn't look big enough for any of them to beat.

With one punch, their King of Boxing didn't even know he was flying out of the ring.

This King of Boxing's body shape was be counted as giant plus the King of Boxing had solid muscle, since he was beat to fly, Casey's punch was powerful.

After a long time, only one after another to react, began to marvel at the strong Casey.

"This..... This is too awesome, King of Boxing in this bar was invincible, unexpectedly he was knocked down!"

"Before I have always felt that the people of C Country were weak, but they could break out of terrible power, I have to be polite when I meet people of C Country in the future."

"I didn't expect kung fu to be true, his punch is really cool. Will he accept apprentices? If so, I must take him as a teacher."

...

After the King of Boxing fell to the ground, he held his breath for a while. After a long pause, he felt that he could breathe again and then hurried to grasp air.

People present saw that he was beat to fly, but only he knew how horrible that punch was.

And he could obviously feel, Casey did not even use full strength. If Casey used full strength, he might have died now.

As he got up, the King of Boxing looked awestruck toward Casey and bowed to him. "I'm sorry I said that. I was arrogant."

The audience was excited again. They did not expect the King of Boxing to apologize to Casey in front of everyone.

This really showed that Casey's punch really was powerful, even the King of Boxing admitted to be defeated.

Everyone cast a look of awe to Casey, from then on, they never dare to despise any people from C Country.

The King of Boxing's apology attitude was sincere, so Casey did not intend to continue to dispute with him and directly jumped down from the ring.

People immediately hurriedly gave out of the way to Casey, no one dared to stop him.

Casey did not care about the people's eyes, he had seen too much such a scene,.

Brewer's party should start soon, so Casey walked toward the depths of the bar.

The bodyguard looked at Casey walked inside with a trace of distraction.

"I was just a joke in his eyes, even the King of Boxing can only stand one move from him, I am nothing to him."

Helplessly sighed, the bodyguard went out of the bar with disappointment.

...

In the exclusive private room of the bar.

Brewer was sitting at the head of the room. There were several people sitting down in the room. They all looked at Brewer respectfully and said some polite words to each other.

These people were all involved in Brewer's new film. Brewer held the lifeblood of their development. They had to curry favor with him.

At this time the door of the room was opened, Silvia smiling walked in from outside.

As soon as she came in, she greeted everyone warmly, especially Brewer.

But instead of being obsequious like others, she managed to keep it in check.

Seeing Silvia's arrival, the atmosphere became active apparently, no matter when, beauty always had good effect.

Brewer did not say nonsense but said to the public, "I invited a very important person to the party, the identity and status of this person can't be imagined, so after the arrival of this person, I hope you can be enthusiastic."

All nodded. Since Brewer attached importance to this person, he certainly was not an ordinary.

Silvia turned her eyes, thinking the person must be very powerful since Brewer attached importance to him. If there was a chance, she must make friends with him.

Shortly after Brewer said that, the door of the room was pushed open again.

It was Casey who walked in.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 983 You' Should Get Out

Everyone looked towards the door. Silvia thought it was the important person Brewer had mentioned. She straightened her hair and sat up.

But when she saw the person who walked in was Casey, immediately she was stunned.

The first idea in her mind was that Casey was coming to give her trouble.

She naturally did not think that Casey was that important person.

This party was very important for her, she could not make any mistake.

She had thought that Casey would be knocked down by King of Boxing, but he came so quickly.

Therefore, she must solve this trouble, otherwise it will affect the party today. She might not be able to win the leading actress in the new film of Brewer, it would have a certain impact on her acting career in the future.

She stood up, frowned Casey, said, clenching teeth, "You are no going to give up, aren't you? I can't believe you followed me here."

"I have no time to talk to you now. I will give you an explanation about your affairs. I have important things to do now. You wait outside and I will come to you when I finish my work."

After that, Silvia began to push Casey toward the outside.

Casey was stunned. He did not expect Silvia would appear here. He had wanted to argue with Silvia, but after fighting with the King of Boxing, he felt he should not be able to find Silvia, so he had put it behind him. But now he actually saw Silvia in Brewer's private room, and Silvia had been driving him out, which made him confused.

Brewer originally wanted to introduce Casey, but before that, Silvia had stood up.

And she even drove Casey out, he was confused about that.

He stood up, walked over to Silvia and asked, "What are you doing?"

Silvia looked at Brewer and said apologetically, "Director Campbell, this man is here to make trouble for me. I had some quarrels with him before. I didn't expect him to find this place, so I will send him away."

"People like him try to blackmail me while I have something important to do. But I won't be bullied. I'll take care of it."

Casey said, "I have no interest to blackmail you."

Silvia immediately glared at him and said, "Shut up. Don't you pretend. I can see what you're thinking. Listen, people here are big figure, you can't afford to provoke them. Get out."

Brewer's face suddenly became very livid. Silvia drive the Lord of Guanling out!

And he did not believe that Casey would blackmail a female celebrity with some reputation, after all, Casey could get anything he wanted.

It was impossible for him to do such a degrading thing.

"Who are you telling to get out of here? I think it's you who should get out!" Brewer shouted at Silvia.

Silvia was stunned and did not expect Brewer to suddenly lose his temper with her.

"Director Campbell, he..." Silvia's voice suddenly became weak.

"What is wrong with him? He's the important man I was just talking about, and how dare you let him get out of here? I bet you think you've offended everyone just because you've made a few lousy TV shows!"

Brewer shouted angrily.

The Unique First Lady, Not Only Because She's Black

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

Silvia was dumbfounded, and incredibly looked at Casey. She did not expect Casey turned out to be Brewer's big figure.

He had not come to make trouble for her but attend the party. It was she thinking too much.

After making clear what was going on, Silvia showed embarrassment. She did not expect that the lost she met in the plane was the person Brewer was deferential to.

Now she had no hope of landing the lead role in Brewer's new film.

Brewer looked at Casey and said with a guilty face, "Master, I'm really sorry. I didn't think this would happen. I'll take care of it. You go and have a seat."

Casey nodded and walked toward the sofa.

Silvia begged for mercy toward Casey, "Sir, sorry, it is my fault, I am opinionated, please forgive me. I really am not intentional."

Brewer stared at her and said in a cold voice, "Stop, quit the party tonight, get out."

Silvia looked desperate, she had very strong confidence to win the lead actress in Brewer's new film, but how such a thing happened.

If she had early known Casey's identity, she would not have provoked Casey in the plane.

"Director Campbell, please give me another chance. I am here today to talk about the leading actress in your new film. I have made a lot of preparation for this leading actress, please give me a chance." Silvia immediately begged.

Brewer looked at Silvia with a cold face. Originally he was going to let Silvia to play the heroine of the film, but Silvia provoked Casey, even if she was appropriate, he could not let Silvia to play the heroine.

"Get out of here. We'll let you know about the role when we decide."

Brewer said.

Silvia showed loss on her face. Although Brewer had not refused her directly, it was obvious that she could not take it.

She could not continue to stay here, or it would only make Brewer more unhappy.

"All right, I'll get out of here." Silvia said, glanced at Casey sitting on the sofa, and then went out with her head down.

After Silvia left, people looked at each other and knew that as long as they made Casey happy, their cooperation with Brewer would be more stable, so they were enthusiastic with Casey.

No one thought what would happen to Silvia because of this. Brewer sat next to Casey, expressed his apology and then asked him what Silvia did to him.

Casey told him the story.

After hearing that, the people began to accuse Silvia of being arrogant. Brewer nodded thoughtfully and said, "I never thought Silvia was such a person. It's lucky I didn't choose her as the heroine this time, otherwise my reputation will be affected by her. Thank you, Master, I propose to you." _____

Chapter 984 Natasha Andrew

In the middle of the party, they all had fun. Casey occasionally drank with them, after all, he did not know show business, and he did not know what to talk about.

He came here to kill time and found it interesting to hear some of the secrets of the celebrity from Brewer.

Had not heard it from Brewer, he would never have known there were so many unknown deeds of those celebrities.

After a while, the door of the room was opened and everyone looked around to see a beautiful blonde girl in a classical court dress with a ponytail standing in the doorway.

Behind the girl stood a man who looked like a gentle butler and an imposing bodyguard.

People looked at the door of the three with doubts, wondering what they wanted.

Brewer stood up and stared at the three men. "What are you doing here..."

The blonde girl ignored Brewer, pointed her finger at Casey and said, "That's him!"

Casey was confused. He did not know this girl, and did not understand why the girl pointed at him.

Standing behind the girl, the butler man stepped forward and said to Casey with a smile, "Sir, our young lady would like to invite you to have a drink together, do you have time?"

"I'm sorry, I don't know you." Casey directly opened his mouth.

At this moment, Brewer looked at the butler and said, "You are the butler of Andrew family!"

The butler looked around at Brewer and said with a smile, "Mr. Campbell. I didn't expect you to be here. What a coincidence!"

“This must be your friend. Our young lady would like to have a drink with him, can you please help?”

Brewer immediately rolled his eyes, then looked at Casey, whispered, “Master, they are three people of the Andrew family in the S Country. This is their butler, that girl should be the young lady of the Andrew family.”

“The Andrew family is a very powerful force in S Country. They have a very high status in all sectors of society, even in the government.”

“The Moss City is dominated by the Andrew family.”

“Although we have certain strength here, compared with Andrew family, the gap was big. But our focus is not here, if compared to the overall strength, Andrew family is much worse than Guanling.”

Casey nodded, and then looked at that girl who should be more than 20 years old, looked cute, but had a good body shape. He asked, “Why do you want to find me?”

“Just now you beat the King of Boxing with one punch. I have never seen such a powerful man, so I want to get to know you. I have already got the room. Come with me and we will talk.” Natasha Andrew said, staring at Casey.

Casey was surprised that this girl found him because of he defeated beat the King of Boxing.

But what did she meant she got a room?

Girls in S Country were open like that?

“I'm sorry, but I can't.” Casey rejected her directly.

Natasha stared at Casey and asked, “Why? They never say no to me. Why should you?”

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

Jared Kushner & Ivanka Trump Dropped Off The Planet

Casey shrugged his shoulders, thinking that she should be spoiled who only gave others.

“Because I have my own business. There are many powerful people in this world. With the strength of your family, it shouldn't be hard to find a strong man. Go and find others.” Casey opened his mouth.

The butler stared at Casey and said, “Sir, our young lady has a deep love for fighting since childhood, she especially likes martial arts of C Country.”

“In fact, the King of Boxing in the bar was trained by our young lady, but she always thinks he is not really strong.”

“Until today, when she met you, our lady was sure that you are the real strong one, and she has a peculiar fascination with people like you.”

“So I hope you will do us the honor of talking to our young lady, and we, Andrew family, will thank you for it.”

Brewer stared at Casey and then whispered, “Master, or... Why don't you go talk to her? She is a famous beauty in Moss City, and we will not lose in this.”

Casey turned his head and stared at him and said, “You go talk to her if you want.”

Brewer immediately showed an embarrassed smile, dare not casually make a decision for Casey.

Casey stared at the butler and Natasha, saying, “As you can see, I'm drinking with my friends, so you'd better find someone else.”

The butler was somewhat helpless. Although Andrew family had great power in Moss City, they were educated people and did not force others to do anything.

“Miss, since so, we will look for other place, perhaps we can encounter the one who is willing to communicate with you?” asked the butler.

Natasha stared at Casey and said, “No, he's the one I'm looking for.”

“Since he won't come with me, I'll stay here and have a drink with him.”

With these words, Natasha went directly to Casey, and then sat down beside Casey.

People around were quite wise to move to the side, leaving position to Casey and Natasha.

Casey looked at this beautiful girl, speechless. He did not understand why a princess was interested in martial arts.

Natasha sat down, raised her hand, rested it on her chin, and stared at Casey.

Casey was awkward, and he said, “We are talking about things related to C Country, you can't chime in. I advise you to leave.”

“I don't care.” Natasha said calmly, “May I have your name?”

Casey sighed and said, “Casey Davies.”

“Casey Davies.” Natasha repeated the name several times, as if trying to etch it in her heart.

“Nice to meet you. I'm Natasha Andrew. You can call me Natasha.” _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 985 Fate

The atmosphere of the party, because of the arrival of Natasha, became strange. People could not drink as heartily as before, but focus on Casey and Natasha.

Casey was helpless. She refused to leave, and he could not drive her away.

Natasha was like a man possessed, with only Casey in her eyes, and didn't care what other people thought of her.

As the young lady of Andrew family, she had different mind from that of ordinary people.

Natasha asked Casey a lot of questions about martial arts of C Country.

Casey answered and said some of the most basic things about it.

Natasha was shocked and felt that What Casey said was the supreme truth, which stunned Casey.

Casey took this opportunity to ask why Natasha was so persistent on the strong people.

Natasha explained that she had been sick and insecure since she was a child, so she wanted to find a strong person who could teach her skills to change her condition.

Of course, she also said that another way to give her security was to marry a strong man.

No matter from which aspect, Casey was very in line with the standard in her mind.

Listening to Natasha's explanation, Casey did not have any sympathy for her, but had a feeling of wanting to avoid her.

They hadn't said a few words, and Natasha said she wanted to marry a strong man, which surprised Casey.

He didn't want to get into trouble, so he kept hoping Natasha would leave.

But Natasha seemed to be fascinated by Casey, she even praised him when Casey picked up a glass of wine.

If it were not for Brewer explained that she was a lady from the Andrew family, Casey would certainly treated her as neurotic.

Finally, the party got into the end. Brewer and his friends had got up to say goodbye. Casey took advantage of this opportunity and quickly went out the room.

"Master, I'll send you home." Brewer shouted to Casey.

"No, I can get home myself." Casey walked directly out of the room even without turning his head back.

Natasha watched Casey leaving in a hurry. For a long time, she murmured, "This man had a charming back."

The butler approached Natasha and said, "I wonder if you've had any luck, miss?"

"A lot." Natasha replied.

"Are we going after him, then?" asked the butler.

"No need, if it is predestined, I will meet him naturally again." Natasha was not determined to go after Casey.

Natasha believed in fate and she believed that she would meet Casey again.

Casey went to the room and then saw Silvia waiting outside.

Silvia saw Casey come out, quickly came forward and said, "Sir, I have deeply realized my mistake. Please forgive me and give me a chance."

Casey did not want to talk to her, directly said, "I want to go back, don't block my way."

Then he walked quickly forward.

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

This Transformation Is Truly Remarkable: Abigail Breslin Today

At this time, Natasha and her butler and bodyguard walked out from the inside, just to see Silvia stopped Casey.

Natasha immediately walked to Silvia, and said staring at her, "Casey is my man, I hope you can stay away from him."

Silvia looked at Natasha weirdly, wondering why she said that.

"What's wrong with you? Why should I stay away from him?" Silvia said.

If necessary, she had already considered doing something to please Casey.

So Casey was now her prey, she naturally could not lose momentum in front of other women.

Brewer walked out of the room, happened to hear Silvia said those words to Natasha.

His face suddenly changed, He hurried to Silvia and said, "You are crazy today! You have just offended our master, and now you come to trouble the young lady of Andrew family? Are you really not afraid of death?"

Hearing Brewer's words, Silvia turned pale on her face and looked at Natasha incredibly. She did not expect the girl was the young lady of the Andrew family which was famous in S Country.

She felt that she was unlucky today. She had first offended the big figured invited by Brewer and now she had offended the lady of the Andrew family.

Even if she were a moderately famous celebrity, she wouldn't be able to withstand the wrath of someone of her stature.

She looked at Natasha and said, "I'm sorry, I didn't mean to say that."

Natasha looked at Silvia with indifference and said, "It doesn't matter, as long as you don't rob Casey from me."

"You can rest assured that I absolutely won't rob him with you, I will buy an air ticket and go back to C Country." Silvia spoke.

Natasha nodded and walked outside.

Silvia was relieved. On her forehead, she was covered with cold sweat.

"We must get away quickly, and if we stay here, we may offend someone else." Silvia made up her mind and hurried towards the airport.

At the same time, she made up her mind that she must look at the almanac before going out, and that she must not offend anyone who looked ordinary.

Casey took a taxi back to his villa arranged by Brewer.

Just then, a black Porsche pulled up in front of the villa, driven by Natasha's bodyguard.

In the car sat Natasha and the butler.

"Miss, how do I feel that the person who just walked in is that strong named Casey?" The butler stared ahead and said with doubts.

Natasha looked at Casey's dimly visible figure, with a radiant smile.

"That's him." Natasha said with certainty.

"Look, Miss, he seems to have entered our next door." Butler opened his eyes wide and he did not expect Casey actually lived in their next door.

Natasha gave a bright smile. She was in a good mood.

"I said we will meet again if it was meant to meet."

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 986 Attitude Change

After Casey returned to the villa, he first took a bath. Thinking of those things that happened in the bar today, he gave a wry smile, especially when he thought of Natasha's pure and delicate face.

This girl had the same characteristic as Lily Lowe. If they were together, it would be troublesome.

After taking a bath, Casey practiced Xuanjin in the living room, since the last time Casey felt he was fast to the bottleneck, he began to work harder.

He now desperately wanted to break through to perfection, and from the perspective of those he was in contact with, it was only by breaking through to perfection that he could ensure his survival in the event of an emergency.

Like the five masters of sublimation to assassinate last time, if not with the array plate, the consequence would be bad.

If Casey had broken through to the perfection of Xuanjin, Casey believed that five masters of sublimation, they would not be his opponent.

Just as he was concentrating on the practice of Xuanjin, the doorbell suddenly rang outside.

Casey opened his eyes, showed a trace of doubt, and wondered who it was.

He opened the door, only to find that Natasha is standing at the door in a loose pajamas. Seeing that Casey opened the door, she gave a classical etiquette.

“Good evening, Casey.”

Casey looked at Natasha in a daze. He did not expect she would be here. Did she sneak him back here?

“Why are you here?” Casey asked.

“My house is next door to the villa you live in. I think it must be god's arrangement that you and I meet each other here.” Natasha said softly. Casey was speechless. He did not expect Natasha lived in the next door.

At that moment he felt hidden smells around the villa, so he released his god mind and observed it.

There were a dozen well-trained armed men wearing black clothes people in the dark, observing the situation. If there was something wrong, they would immediately rushed in and surrounded Casey.

Casey smiled. He knew these people should be from Andrew family to protect Natasha, after all, Andrew family would not rest assured to let Natasha contact Casey alone.

“Miss, it's late. I think you'd better go back at once. You're weak and don't get a cold.” Casey opened his mouth.

“Can I live with you?” Natasha asked directly.

“No.” Casey answered firmly.

“I just want to discuss martial arts with you. I will never have any unreasonable thoughts for you.” Natasha said.

Casey was silent for a few seconds. Looking at Natasha's fragile body, even if she had a wild idea, Casey thought she could do nothing. This girl had been protected well by Andrew family and she did not know the sinister side of people.

"No. I'm going to sleep."

Casey coldly said Natasha and then closed the door.

She wasn't going to give Natasha a chance, so he had to be ruthless.

Natasha stared at the closed door, transfixed for a long time, and then muttered to herself, "Nice character. I like it."

Then she stood in the doorway for a while, and then she turned and went back to the villa next door.

Casey watched Natasha with his god mind, frowning.

Had known so, he should not have promised to Thomas to investigate the mystery and the banquet in S Country.

Who Is Mark Zuckerberg's Wife? 16 Facts About Priscilla Chan
No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People
Without thinking more, Casey sat cross-legged on the sofa and continued to practice.

The next morning.

Casey got up, holding Muramasa, came to the courtyard of the villa and began to practice mysterious technique of using knife.

At this time, a figure had appeared in the yard outside the fence, seriously staring at Casey.

Casey did not care about it and began to practice. The air in the courtyard had a slight tremor because of Casey's move.

Natasha stood outside the yard staring at Casey's move and was completely shocked by Casey's posture.

The dust on the ground danced with Casey's body and formed a visible air stream. If you look closely, you can see that the air stream formed by the dust actually takes on the shape of a dragon.

This technique was from Nine Dragons Binding Array by Casey.

Although the momentum was far from the Nine Dragons Binding Array, but it was not comparable by the common technique.

After displaying, Casey got sweat down from his forehead.

Natasha who had been staring at Casey cheered up, "Good, good!"

"Casey, you can teach me that?"

Casey turned to look at her and said, "Your body is too weak, I'm afraid it is hard for you to take a knife, even if I teach you, you cannot get it."

Hearing Casey said so, Natasha was disappointed.

"But I can teach you a trick that will improve your body. It won't make you the best, but it will be very easy to strengthen your body to a normal level if you keep practicing." Casey continued.

Natasha's eyes brightened and she said, "Really?"

Casey nodded.

The trick he was talking about was, of course, a crash version of breathing.

He suddenly changed his attitude to Natasha, not because of his conscience, but this morning, he received the message from Brewer. They had got some indications of a 10,000-person banquet, and Moss City was really planning a grand event of epic proportions in the central plaza these days.

There would be nearly ten thousand people to participate in this grand event, and only the upper class of S Country could participate in this grand event, ordinary people were not eligible to participate.

And it was the Andrew family who held it.

Brewer, despite his influence in Moss City, was unable to get a ticket to the event.

So if Casey wanted to attend it, he only could make a move from the Andrew family.

As it happened, Natasha was the lady of the Andrew family.

So in order to smoothly attend the event, Casey could only choose to have a good relationship with Natasha.

Of course, he was not purely using Natasha, after all, he had planned to teach Natasha the method of breathing, which in Casey's view, was equivalent trade.

Natasha who was naïve, naturally didn't know what Casey thought.

Hearing that Casey would teach her a trick to improve her physical condition, she rushed to Casey's yard.

Because she ran too fast, Natasha did not control her balance. When she rushed forward, she fell into the arms of Casey. _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 987 Your Chest Is Strong

Casey held Natasha, who had almost fallen to the ground, and felt the warmth from her.

Compared with the average person, Natasha's body temperature seemed to be much lower.

Natasha just lay down in Casey's arms, seeming to enjoy this feeling a bit.

Casey quickly held her steady and asked her to stand where she was.

Just now, the people hiding around the villa were ready to take action.

If Casey let Natasha stay in his arms for a while, those people would probably attack him.

He still needed to rely on the Andrew family to enter the banquet, so naturally he couldn't provoke those people.

Natasha looked at Casey happily, and said, "Casey, your chest is very strong. I like it."

Casey looked at Natasha speechlessly, and said, "The wall over there is stronger. You might like that too."

Natasha chuckled immediately and said, "You are so funny."

Casey sighed helplessly. If this banquet hadn't been hosted by the Andrew family, he would have asked Brewer to arrange a new residence for him.

"Where are we going to learn the tricks you said? Are we going to the room?" Natasha looked at Casey expectantly.

"No. I will teach you here," Casey said.

Natasha nodded, looking innocent.

"But before I teach you, I need you to promise me one thing." Casey stared at Natasha and said.

"What's the matter?" Natasha asked.

"Is your family planning a grand banquet recently?"

Natasha nodded.

"When will this banquet be held?" Casey asked.

"In three days," Natasha replied.

"I hope you can take me to this banquet at that time," Casey said.

"Okay, no problem." Natasha thought Casey would make some excessive demands, but he just asked her to take him to the banquet. Hearing Natasha's promise, Casey also nodded, and immediately said, "Then I will teach you the tricks you said now."

After that, Casey began to teach Natasha's quick version of deep breathing.

Natasha listened very carefully. Obviously, she hoped that she could be healthy.

Not far away, the steward and the bodyguard, who were always paying attention to the situation in the courtyard of Casey's villa, looked at this scene with a little emotion on their faces.

"I haven't seen such a happy smile on Miss Andrew's face for a long time. It seems that this man from C Country really arouses Miss Andrew's interest," the steward said.

"It's a pity that Miss Andrew is naturally weak. Without the protection of the Andrew family, it would be even more difficult for her to grow up. Although she seems to be no different from normal people, the doctor concluded that she is nearing the end of her life."

"Well, as long as she is happy, it doesn't matter whether she is in contact with the people from S Country or C Country."

"I hope this guy can really bring some changes to her. Even if he can make her happy, it's worth it."

For the next two days, Natasha had been learning the quick version of deep breathing from Casey.

Natasha wanted to stay with Casey 24 hours a day, and asked to sleep in Casey's villa at night. Of course, Casey would definitely not agree.

This naive girl had no ambiguous thoughts about sleeping with a man.

Coupled with the protection of the Andrew family to her, she thought everyone was kind and were no people with bad intentions.

For Natasha's mentality, Casey was not sure whether it was good or bad. If the Andrew family could protect Natasha so well for the rest of her life, Natasha's life was indeed happier and better than everyone else.

But once Natasha came into contact with the sinister society, even a small detail would cause an unimaginable blow to Natasha. Of course, it had nothing to do with Casey. He only needed to make a deal with Natasha so that he could enter the banquet smoothly.

Natasha's talent was still a little beyond Casey's expectation. She just began to learn the quick version of the deep breathing few days ago, she got the ropes, and her learning speed was very fast.

However, in two days, Natasha's spirit been greatly improved.

Obviously, she was much more energetic than before.

This also made Casey even more convinced that the quick version of deep breathing change Natasha's physical condition.

The Andrew family were also very surprised by the changes in Natasha.

They didn't understand what Casey used to make Natasha, who had always been pale and weak, become so energetic.

Although they didn't understand how Casey did it, from observations, Casey had no malicious intent towards Natasha, and Natasha's situation spoke for itself.

Perhaps the mood would really affect a person's health.

That morning, Casey came to the yard early, and after exercise, he waited for Natasha to come over.

Tomorrow was the time for the banquet, and Casey needed to find out the origin of the mysterious man and why he was holding this banquet. For this mission, Casey was still a little worried. After all, this mysterious man could cultivate five masters at initial stage of sublimation in a short time, which showed he was extremely strong.

Casey didn't know if Thomas hadn't arrived in Moss City. If he confronted the mysterious man tomorrow and had no choice but to fight against him, without Thomas's help, Casey really didn't think he could deal with mysterious man.

Up to now, he could only act according to circumstances.

After a while, Natasha came to Casey's yard with a happy look and smiled and said to Casey, "Casey, we will not practice the deep breathing today. I have convinced the housekeeper and he allowed me to go to the amusement park for a day."

Casey was taken aback for a moment, and asked, "Go to the amusement park?"

Natasha nodded and said, "Yeah, they didn't allow me to go before. They were afraid that I could not play those items in the amusement park. However, my health has improved a lot in the past two days. It should be no problem. They allow me to go there today."

"Let's go quickly, lest they regret it later."

After speaking, Natasha walked over and grabbed Casey's arm, leading him to the outside.

Casey smiled helplessly. Natasha had mastered the method of deep breathing. As long as she kept practicing, it was easy for her to be healthy, and she might become healthier than ordinary people.

So, he didn't refuse, and walked out with her.

Natasha took Casey's arm directly, like a happy little fairy.

When they reached the door, a red Ferrari stopped in front of them.

A handsome youth from S Country came down, staring at Casey angrily. Obviously, the movement of Natasha holding Casey's arm made him very upset.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 988 Going to The Amusement Park

"Natasha, who is this guy? Why are you holding his arm?" the young man said coldly.

Natasha stared at the young man and said, "Jacoff, why are you here?"

"I am here to accompany you. Tell me, who is this guy and why are you holding his arm?" Jacoff Novin said angrily to Natasha.

"He is my teacher," Natasha said.

"Bullshit. Stay away from Natasha quickly. She is my fiancée, if you dare to stay so close to her, don't blame me for being rude to you!" Jacoff quickly yelled at Casey.

Seeing that Jacoff dared to be so rude to Casey, Natasha instantly turned gloomy.

"Jacoff, you have got a liberty. It is the Novin family's wishful thinking that I am your fiancée. I never agreed. If you keep being so rude to Casey, I will let my father sanction you."

Natasha's voice was not loud, but no one dared to ignore her.

Jacoff flinched instantly after hearing Natasha's words. It was obvious that he did not dare to be too presumptuous in front of Natasha.

"Natasha, this person is from C Country, right? He is not a good person at first glance. He must have some ulterior motives for approaching you. I am doing this for your own good." Jacoff looked concerned.

"Shut up, if you continue slandering Casey, I'll call my father right away." Natasha didn't listen to Jacoff's words.

Jacoff narrowed his neck when he heard Natasha's words, and did not dare to say anything about Casey.

The Novin family was also a very influential family in S Country, but compared with the Andrew family, it was much inferior.

Jacoff was the young master of the Novin family.

Because the elders of the two families said many years ago that the children of the two families should be married after they grow up, the Novin family had always believed that Natasha would definitely marry Jacoff in the future.

But the Andrew family didn't recognize this, and thought it was just a joke.

Of course, they did not object to Jacoff's pursuit of Natasha. As long as he could capture Natasha's heart, the Andrew family would not mind Natasha marrying Jacoff.

Everything was based on Natasha's own wishes.

Jacoff believed that as the young master of the Novin family, he was one of a thousand talents, and it was just a matter of time to win Natasha's love.

Although Natasha had always been cold to him, he had never given up. After all, in his impression, Natasha's attitude towards others was even colder.

Now that Natasha took the initiative to take a man's arm and looked happy, Jacoff suddenly felt a sense of crisis. That's why he was so angry. the Novin family naturally knew Natasha's physical condition and knew that she would not live long.

However, it did not affect the Novin family to establish close ties with the Andre family through Natasha.

Jacoff naturally did not want to marry a sick girl as his wife, but for the sake of the family, he was willing to marry Natasha.

After all, he could still lead a gay life outside. It didn't matter to him who he married.

"Casey, let's go," Natasha said to Casey.

A black business car was parked in front of Natasha's villa, and they walked over there.

Jacoff gritted his teeth, glared at Casey's back sully, and then hurriedly followed.

"Natasha, what are you two going to do?" Jacoff adjusted his tone, trying to make himself seem calm.

"Go to the amusement park," Natasha replied.

"Let me go with you. The largest amusement park in Moss City is owned by my family. I will call them to clear the set now," Jacoff said.

"No, it won't be fun if no other costumers there. I like the buzz," Natasha replied.

Jacoff smiled awkwardly and said, "Then I will go with you, and I can also give you some preferential treatment."

Casey and Natasha got in the black business car. Although Jacoff could see that Natasha didn't want him to follow, he still got in the car.

Considering the relationship between the Andrew family and the Novin family, Natasha did not drive Jacoff out of the car.

Along the way, Natasha only chatted with Casey, and didn't mean to talk to Jacoff at all.

Jacoff sat there alone. Natasha ignored all his words, which made him embarrassed.

Because of this, Jacoff's hatred for Casey grew stronger, and he even showed a murderous look at Casey.

He had regarded Casey as an obstacle for him to get Natasha.

He thought that Casey must be eliminated!

It didn't take long for them to arrive at the amusement park, the one invested by the Novin family.

After Natasha entered the amusement park, looking at the dazzling array of rides, with a look of excitement, she immediately dragged Casey to play the roller coaster.

Jacoff had a natural fear of such an exciting project. He hesitated for a long time, and finally did not dare to play with Casey Natasha.

Casey, as a man who dared to jump straight down a 100-meter cliff, the roller coaster was not challenging for him.

After they played the roller coaster, they went to play pirate ship, jumping machine, big carousel and other scaring projects.

Jacoff was completely reduced to an errand runner, responsible for buying tickets and water for Natasha and Casey.

After playing , Natasha felt unprecedented happiness. She never thought that the amusement park was so fun.

Coupled with the changes brought to her body by the quick version of deep breathing, Natasha felt that she could finally enjoy these just like normal people.

"Casey, let's go bungee jumping!" Natasha looked at the bungee jumping platform not far away, with a hint of excitement in her eyes.

"Okay," Casey replied.

"Let's go back after playing this," Natasha said as she led Casey towards the bungee jumping platform.

Jacoff was full of helplessness, wondering why Natasha liked to play such scary projects.

But at this moment, his eyes brightened up, and a thought flashed through his mind like lightning.

The reason why he was afraid of playing such exciting projects was because he was afraid of accidents. After all, in these projects, once an accident occurred, there was basically no possibility of survival.

Even if there was no possibility of accidents with these devices, he was not willing to take risks.

Now Casey was going to bungee jumping. If the bungee rope was broken, wouldn't he die?

In theory, the rope of bungee jumping couldn't be broken.

But the amusement park was invested by the Novin family. It was quite easy to make the rope break.

Thinking of this, Jacoff showed a bad smile, and then quickly followed them._

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 989 The Rope Is Broken

Although there were not many people who dared to try bungee jumping, there were still some bold people lining up here.

Casey and Natasha stood at the back of the line, waiting for the person in front to go up.

Jacoff stared at them, then smiled and said, "Wait here first, and I'll go up and arrange it for you."

After speaking, he walked straight to the bungee jumping platform.

Not long after, Jacoff walked down from above again, with an expectant smile on his face.

"I have arranged it. You can go up and play directly later. I will ask them to prepare the best safety equipment for you two. After all, once there is a problem with the device, the player is likely to die," Jacoff smiled, and glanced at Casey.

"Well, Just prepare for Natasha alone. I won't play," Casey said.

Hearing what Casey said, Jacoff immediately became anxious, and said quickly, "No, I have already prepared one for you. Anyway, you're already here, it's a shame not to play."

"Yeah, Casey, I'm actually a little scared. Please, play with me. You can jump first and give me courage." Natasha also blinked her big eyes and said.

Hearing what the two people say, Casey nodded and said, "Well."

Although the thrilling degree of bungee jumping was far less than that of the last time he jumped off the 100m cliff, bungee jumping was carried out with safety measures. Casey had never experienced it before, so it was OK to have a try.

It didn't take long for those people in front of Casey and the others to end their bungee jumping experience, and it was Casey's turn.

Casey, Natasha and Jacoff stood on the bungee jumping platform.

Natasha glanced down from the railing, and said with a frightened look, "Wow, it's so high, it's so exciting to jump from such a high place."

Jacoff smiled and said, "Natasha, you are so courageous. I dare not experience it."

After speaking, he glanced at the staff on the bungee jumping platform and gave him a look.

The staff member nodded at Jacoff and said, "Which of you three will try first?"

Jacoff immediately looked at Casey and said, "Natasha wanted you to try first and give her courage. Why don't you just go first?"

Casey didn't care, so he nodded and said, "Then I'll try it first."

The staff immediately took the rope and began to tie Casey's feet. Jacoff had already explained to the staff member and asked him to do something when he tied the rope. This staff member was proficient in various rope tying methods, and it was easy to pretend that there was a problem with the rope. After a while, the staff tied the rope to Casey and asked him to stand on the edge of the bungee jumping platform. Casey walked to the side and glanced down. There was a lake directly underneath. There were several boats on the lake. From this position, the boats looked like ants. "Casey, would you like me to cheer up for you. Are you very nervous now?" Natasha said, staring at Casey. She looked more nervous than Casey. Casey turned his head and smiled at Natasha, and said, "No, it's just bungee jumping. There's nothing to be nervous about." After speaking, he jumped off directly.

Seeing Casey jump down so decisively, Natasha showed open worship as she looked at him. Jacoff didn't expect Casey to jump down so worship. He hurried to the guardrail and looked down. Casey's figure quickly fell downward, and just after the rope was straightened, the rope that should have been stretched due to the weight of the person actually broke free from Casey's feet. Casey noticed the problem immediately. He glanced at his feet, and found that the rope had indeed broken free. He didn't expect such an accident to happen. He ran Xunjin in his body instantly, and then a thin energy shield appeared all over his body. Although there was a lake underneath, due to the water surface tension, the impact of jumping from a place as high as the bungee jumping platform on the water surface was not much different from that on the cement ground. But Casey, who had experienced once, didn't panic at all. After all, for him, it would just wet his clothes. Jacoff on the bungee jumping platform saw the rope break free from Casey's feet, and immediately exclaimed, "The rope is broken!" Natasha, who was still admiring Casey's decisiveness, turned pale hearing Jacoff's shout. She leaned toward the guardrail, looked down, and found Casey's body was indeed off the rope.

She quickly turned her head, looked at the staff member, and asked, "Why is this happening?!"

The staff member pretended to be panicked and said, "I...I don't know, I obviously tied the rope."

Natasha didn't have time to interrogate the staff member, and quickly turned and ran under the bungee jumping platform.

Upon seeing this, Jacoff hurriedly followed and shouted, "Natasha, slow down. Even if you go down, nothing will change. Watch your step."

Natasha ignored him at all and ran down as fast as she could.

Not long after, Natasha reached the ground, ran to the lake quickly, and saw ripples in the middle of the lake.

At this time, many people had gathered here, staring at the location in the middle of the lake.

"Have you seen that bungee jumping rope is broken?"

"My God, doesn't it mean that the probability of this kind of thing happening is smaller than winning the lottery? How unlucky that man is! Such a thing actually happened to him."

"At such a high distance, there is not much difference between the water surface and the cement surface. Just listening to his voice falling into the water, I know that this man must be in danger."

...

Natasha listened to the words of the people around her, looked worried, and shouted to Jacoff on the side, "Isn't this amusement park yours? Go find someone to save Casey!"

Jacoff looked at her and pretended to be sad and said, "Natasha, the chances of survival from falling from this height are slim. No one thought he would encounter such a thing. Don't be too sad. People can't rise from the dead..."

Before he finished speaking, a man climbed from the lake to the shore and stood in front of them. It was Casey.

When they saw this scene, they were so frightened that they couldn't speak.

Jacoff also stared at Casey in amazement. He looked like he was seeing a ghost. He turned pale and began to stammer.

"You... why did you climb up?"

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 990 Banquet

"What? Should I still stay in the water?" Casey stared at Jacoff and asked.

Jacoff suddenly became embarrassed and said, "I... I didn't mean that, I mean, You fell from such a high place and didn't hurt at all."

"It's not too high. I don't know why the rope broke free. Maybe the staff didn't tie it well," Casey said, staring Jacoff.

Jacoff suddenly became guilty, and he dared not look directly at Casey. Casey immediately noticed something wrong with Jacoff, and guessed that this matter was probably related to Jacoff.

But he didn't plan to get even with Jacoff now. Tomorrow was the day of the banquet. If he killed Jacoff at this time, he would not be able to attend the banquet tomorrow.

So he didn't ask anything, and it was not too late to get even with Jacoff in the future.

Natasha was relieved to see that Casey was fine. She asked with concern, "Casey, how are you feeling now? Let's go to the hospital for a check. If there is an internal injury, it will be troublesome."

Sometimes when a person was seriously injured, the body's self-protection mechanism would make the brain feel no pain, so the person would look no different from a normal person.

However, this situation generally did not last long. After a while, the person may fall down.

Casey smiled and said, "It's okay. If I have an internal injury, I can't even climb ashore."

"The distance from where I fell into the water to the shore is not short. It was even laborious for normal person to swim here. If I have internal injuries, do you think I can come up?"

Natasha glanced at the bottom of the bungee jumping platform and found that it was really far away from the shore. Casey was the one who defeated her carefully trained boxing champion with a single punch. His body strength was definitely not comparable to that of ordinary people. Thus, she secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

"I was really scared just now. I have to ask the staff member how he tied the rope!"

Natasha looked angry, and immediately went to the bungee jumping stage to find the staff member.

Casey stopped her and said, "No, this situation should not be caused by the staff member. Even if he did it, he might be ordered by others. Forget it for the time being."

After speaking, Casey glanced at Jacoff next to him.

Jacoff sighed, his eyes filled with anxiety. Seeing Casey like this, he should be suspected.

But Casey didn't seem to want to pursue it, he seemed to be afraid of the strength of the Novin family.

Jacoff thought, "Well, even if you didn't get hurt after falling down from such a high place, you could do nothing to me."

"Now that you know the strength of the Novin family, it's best to get away from Natasha as soon as possible, otherwise you will not be able to survive when the time comes!"

Thinking about it this way, Jacoff's feeling of guilty conscience disappeared instantly. A hint of arrogance arose in him, and his gaze at Casey no longer flickered.

All the people were amazed after finding Casey, who fell down from such a high place, didn't get hurt at all.

"It must be a miracle, that guy fell from such a high place, and nothing happened at all."

"God, this person should be from C Country. He must have practiced some magical skills, otherwise it is impossible to be fine after falling down from such a high place, and more importantly, he also had a long-distance swimming!"

"Couldn't it be just a last gasp before death? Maybe he will fall to the ground and can't get up later."

...

Because of Casey, Natasha naturally did not dare to go bungee jumping again, and their trip to the amusement park was over.

Although Casey didn't plan to go to interrogate the staff member, Natasha still scolded him severely, and then asked Jacoff to punish the staff member.

Jacoff also pretended to scold the staff member angrily, and finally fired him.

After that, they left the park and returned to the villa.

That night, Natasha knocked on Casey's door five times, each time asking about Casey's feelings and whether anything was wrong with him.

Casey always told Natasha that he was fine and she didn't have to worry about him so much.

But Natasha had been restless, so every once in a while, she came to ask Casey.

It wasn't until the next morning when Natasha saw Casey come out to do exercise on time, that she finally felt relieved.

Today was the day when the banquet was held. Casey had already asked the Pantheon that whether Thomas had come to Moss City. As a result, the reply from the Pantheon to Casey was that they was not quite clear about the whereabouts of Thomas, and asked Casey to find a way to contact Thomas by himself.

Casey suddenly felt troubled. Thomas, who had lived for more than 150 years, naturally didn't know how to use a mobile phone. He had no way to contact him.

So today Casey could only go to the banquet alone first. He had no idea that whether Thomas would showed up at that time.

Anyway, even if he couldn't handle the mysterious person, it was not difficult for him to run away.

The banquet was in the evening, and Casey waited patiently until the evening, and then followed Natasha to the central square.

At this time, the central square had been blocked, and ordinary people had no way to enter. There was an entrance on each side of the square. People who wanted to attend the banquet must have an admission ticket issued by the Andrew family

These admission tickets were all occupied by people from the upper class of S Country, and ordinary people were naturally not eligible to get them.

Because the Andrew family publicized that there was great expert who would choose disciples at the banquet, these people from the upper class of S Country wanted a chance to have a meteoric rise, so they were very interested in this banquet.

Casey followed Natasha into the square, naturally without any hindrance.

At this time, many people had gathered in the square, and the banquet with the scale of ten thousand people seemed to be quite large.

At this time, a high platform had been built in the center of the square, and many people tried their best to lean over to the high platform in order to be favored by the superior.

Casey and Natasha also went to the front of the high platform. Those who could come to this position were usually the core members of the Andrew family and the Novin family.

Jacoff was already on the square at this time. He saw Casey and Natasha coming, and immediately showed a sneer.

He was very confident that he would be favored by the expert this time, and by then, Casey would not be worth his attention.

"Boy, wait and see, when I become a disciple of the master, I will definitely teach you a hard lesson!" _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 991 The Mysterious Man Appeared

As soon as he came to the front of the high platform, Casey released his god mind, wanting to see if the mysterious man had arrived on the square.

But after a glance, Casey didn't find any suspicious person, and the mysterious person should have not arrived yet.

What made Casey a bit of a troubled was that he did not find the trace of the mysterious man, nor did he find the trace of Thomas.

This old guy was really unreliable. He had agreed that Casey was only in charge of investigating. If something happened, Thomas would take action to solve the problem. However, this he had not appeared until now. Casey even doubted whether he had already forgotten it.

At this time Jacoff walked in front of Casey and Natasha and said, "Natasha, this banquet is only allowed for people from the upper class of S Country. It is not appropriate for you to bring him over."

"It's none of your business that who I bring." Natasha said coldly to Jacoff.

Jacoff smiled and said, "It's fine, it's okay to bring him here. Anyway, the person expert is looking for is someone of pure descent of S Country, and he can only watch here."

"Natasha, I heard that the mysterious expert who hosted this banquet will select disciples on the spot. I am determined to get this chance.

When I become a disciple of the expert, I will propose to you."

Natasha gave Jacoff a disgusting look and said, "I won't agree."

Jacoff didn't care. In his opinion, when he became a disciple of the expert, the Andrew family would beg him to marry Natasha.

After about half an hour, almost all the people who came to the banquet came in, and the square became crowded and noisy.

At this time, several people on the high platform came out carrying a rectangular box. The box was about two meters long and covered with a piece of cloth. Others didn't know what was inside.

After the few people put the box on the high platform, they turned and left.

At this time, a man in a black robe came up from behind the high platform.

This man was in his 50s or 60s, his hair was half black and half white, and he combed it with a hairpin.

The clothing of this person was also quite retro, like the dressing style of the feudal period of C Country.

But no one thought he was strange, but felt that he was unpredictable and extraordinary.

After seeing the person, Casey's eyes suddenly narrowed, then immediately released his god mind and scanned the person again.

What Casey didn't expect was that he couldn't see the strength of this person. That man looked like an ordinary person, but Casey could clearly feel a smell of danger from him.

Before, Casey had only felt this pressure in front of Thomas and Fleming.

It showed that the person on the high platform had at least reached the advanced stage of sublimation, and may be stronger!

And when Casey was observing the man on the high platform with god mind, the man also cast his gaze towards Casey.

He could actually feel that Casey was observing him with god mind!

Casey took back his god mind immediately. At that moment, he also confirmed that Thomas hadn't arrived yet.

If he was the only one to face this mysterious person on the high platform today, it would be another hard fight.

After taking a look at Casey, the mysterious man also showed a joking smile on his face, and muttered, "Unexpectedly, I could still meet a strong guy here. He should have been observing me with his god mind just now. Well, it's really unexpected."

"Awakening god soul at this age, even in Cangyuan World, he is a top genius."

"Fortunately, the guy is not strong enough. Otherwise, it will be hard to fight against a strong man with god soul."

"But he appeared just right. I will drain the power in his body later and put it in the container I have cultivated. Maybe it will make the container I prepared quietly reach an unprecedented new height."

He was not in a hurry, he also thought about why Casey would appear here.

Whatever the reason, it didn't matter to him. After all, it wouldn't take him much time to deal with such a little guy.

"Everyone, you must have known I will select some of you with good aptitude, so that you can get an unprecedented power."

"All of you who are selected by me will start a new life. I will let your value be maximized."

"Next, I will make a selection, I hope everyone can take the initiative to coordinate with me."

The mysterious man said loudly, and everyone present immediately became excited.

Then the mysterious man took out a wooden sign from his clothes and threw it into the air. The wooden sign instantly emitted bursts of black light, and in the blink of an eye, the entire square was enveloped in. When everyone saw this scene, they all exclaimed that it was a miracle. At the same time, they believed that the person on the high platform was indeed an unpredictable expert, and their desire to be selected became more and more anxious.

After the light emitted by that wooden sign wrapped everyone in, the mysterious man also showed a trace of expectation.

The light emitted from this wooden sign was equivalent to an enchantment, and all people in the enchantment, without the permission of a mysterious person, would not be able to leave this enchantment in this life.

These people on the square still didn't know what kind of crisis they were facing, and they were still immersed in the fantasies of being favored by the expert.

"The expert's methods are so magical. If I become his apprentice, I will surely soar up into the sky with one start in the future!"

Bright lights flashed in Jacoff's eyes. He wished wishing to rush to the high platform now and worship that mysterious man as his teacher.

"Next, I will give you an example, so that you can understand how I will let you play your value."

The mysterious man said something, and then his gaze turned to Casey's side.

Because Jacoff was standing with Casey, he thought that the mysterious man was looking at him, and almost called out excitedly.

"It seems that I really am a person with excellent talents, and the expert has taken a fancy to me at a glance!"

At this time, the mysterious man pointed his finger at Casey and said, "Young man, you can come up first. You are the first person I picked."

Everyone immediately looked at Casey, full of envy.

Jacoff looked dumbfounded. He didn't expect that the expert would choose Casey, a man from C Country.

He immediately became anxious and shouted at the mysterious man, "This guy is from C Country, and he doesn't have the orthodox blood of S Country. I'm the one with noble blood. Sir, you should choose me!"

Casey looked at Jacoff and felt speechless for a while. This guy didn't know that all the selected people went up to die.

But he wouldn't explain to Jacoff, since he was really eager to die, then he would let him do what he wanted.

"He's right, his blood is noble, you can choose him."

Casey glanced at the mysterious man and said lightly._____

Chapter 992 I Won't Let You Hurt Casey

The mysterious man was also taken aback when he heard Casey's words, and then he understood that Casey should already know what kind of situation he was in now.

Therefore, he didn't insist on asking Casey to go to the stage. After all, no matter who he used to demonstrate to everyone, the final result would be the same.

He didn't think that with Casey's strength, he could escape.

So he glanced at Jacoff and said, "Then you come up and give everyone a demonstration."

Seeing that the mysterious man actually gave up Casey and chose him, Jacoff immediately showed a trace of excitement in his eyes, and turned his head to give Casey a triumphant look.

Then he quickly got up on the high platform and stood respectfully in front of the mysterious man.

Natasha looked at Casey in a confused, and asked, "Why are you giving this opportunity to him?"

Casey smiled at Natasha and said, "This is not a good opportunity. If I guess it is right, he should be in danger."

"Danger?" Natasha was confused.

Casey nodded, looking serious. He said, "Although I don't know why this person is hosting this grand banquet. He must cherish evil designs."

"If I'm not wrong, the black light curtains around the square have trapped us here. If something happens later, remember to run as far as possible to the edge of the light curtain. No matter whether you can get out or not, go there and wait. Did you hear that?"

When Natasha heard Casey's words, she looked at Casey in confusion. In her opinion, this should be a grand event. Why would Casey say something terrible would happen later?

However, despite the doubts in her heart, Natasha nodded to Casey. For some unaccountable reason, she felt that she should trust Casey unconditionally.

Casey took a deep breath. The strength of this mysterious man was profound. There would be a hard fight later. Casey could be sure of the situation at that time, and naturally he had no time to take care of Natasha.

Now he could only hope that Natasha would be lucky enough.

The mysterious man opened the lid on the rectangular box, revealing the person lying inside.

The man's eyes were closed tightly, and his forehead was covered with intricate black patterns, which looked quite strange.

Jacoff glanced at the person in the box, and was shocked. He didn't know why the expert put a person in the box, and it looked so terrifying. The mysterious man smiled at Jacoff, and said, "Don't be afraid, stay closer to me, and soon you will be able to give full play to the greatest value of your life."

Although Jacoff was nervous, he did not dare to disobey the orders of the mysterious man, and immediately walked towards the box.

Seeing Jacoff approaching, the mysterious man immediately formed a complicated magical print on his hand, and then a violent force appeared, covering Jacoff's body

In the next second, Jacoff felt a strong suction appearing all over him. A ripple of fear passed through him, and he instinctively retreated to the back.

But it was too late. Jacoff felt that he could no longer move. The suction was getting stronger and stronger. He felt that his vitality was draining, all of which was flowing into the person lying in the box.

"No!" Jacoff screamed, and then everyone saw that Jacoff had become a corpse.

When everyone saw the mysterious man make magical print, they thought he was going to perform some miracle, but in the end such a terrifying scene appeared.

Everyone screamed in fright, and the square suddenly became chaotic.

"It's terrible, what the hell is this! Why did that person become a corpse!"

"Oh my god, that person must be a devil. Run away!"

"Why? That living person became a corpse that in the blink of an eye!

Am I really not having a nightmare?"

...

Natasha was also shocked when she saw this scene, and then turned to look at Casey. There was a haunted look in her eyes.

She didn't expect that mysterious people held this banquet with evil purposes.

Casey stared at Natasha and said, "Remember what I said just now. Run to the edge as much as possible, and stay away from crowded places."

Natasha nodded seriously at Casey.

At this time, the mysterious man had already looked towards the audience. He showed a bright smile and said, "Don't panic. Not all of you present today will end up like this. I will give priority to those with good aptitudes, so that power gained is pure enough."

After everyone heard the mysterious man's words, they immediately ran towards the distance in fright.

"Everyone, run! This man is a devil!"

The Andrew family who was in charge of preparing the banquet did not expect such a situation to happen, and the security forces instantly took action and rushed towards the mysterious person.

Each of them had a gun in his hand, and without hesitation, they shot the mysterious man on the high platform.

But the strange thing was that when the bullets approached the mysterious person, they stopped instantly, as if they were caught by an invisible hand.

The mysterious man looked at the bullets around him, with a smile on his face, and muttered, "People in this world are really interesting.

Ordinary people can explode with such a powerful force by relying on such gadgets. It is not available in my world."

"But to me, this level of power is no different from ants, so give up quickly."

As soon as he finished speaking, those bullets all turned around, and they shot at those people of the Andrew family quickly, piercing them all through and killing them.

When everyone saw this scene, the expressions on their faces became even more flustered. A person who could not even be killed by a bullet was definitely the most terrifying demon.

The mysterious man killed the security force of the Andrew family, and then turned his head and looked over to Casey.

From the beginning to the end, Casey didn't move, and kept staring coldly at the mysterious man.

"Boy, if I guessed correctly, you come here because of me?" the mysterious man said.

Casey pulled Muramasa out of the scabbard, looked at the mysterious man calmly, and said, "You are right."

"Have your elders have told that it is far worse to deal with me with your little strength?" The mysterious man laughed.

Casey didn't speak again, and was already preparing for the upcoming battle.

"Come here obediently by yourself, I can still let you die without pain. Otherwise, you will regret living in this world." The mysterious man raised a hand and pointed to Casey.

At this moment, a woman stood in front of Casey, and it was Natasha.

"I don't allow you to kill Casey. I can replace Casey!" _

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 993 Vital Moments

Casey looked at Natasha standing in front of him with a slight stunned look.

The mysterious man was also taken aback, then looked at Natasha and said with a smile, "Unexpectedly, there was a little girl who took the initiative to die for you. It's really touching."

"In that case, I will fulfill your wish!"

After speaking, a long whip appeared in the mysterious man's hand, wrapping around Natasha's body.

Upon seeing this, Casey hurriedly dragged Natasha behind him, and shouted, "I asked you to run away. You will only distract me, and then we will both have to die!"

He waved the Muramasa in his hand and tried his best to block the long whip that the mysterious man wielded.

Casey only felt that his scalp was a little numb. This was just the most common blow of the mysterious person. As a result, Casey resisted with all his strength and almost failed to resist it. It was easy to know how strong this mysterious person was.

When Natasha hear Casey shouting at her, she immediately came back to her mind. Now it's not the time to be mad. In front of this terrifying demon, negotiation was useless. She would only be killed for nothing. So, she quickly turned around and ran towards the edge of the light curtain.

According to Casey's instructions, she did not run with most people, but ran in a direction with relatively few people.

These people rushed to the edge of the light curtain. They thought they were going to escape the disaster, but they were surprised to find that they couldn't get out of the light curtain at all.

This place was like a prison at this time, trapping them all inside.

Natasha already knew it, so she was not too surprised. She kept Casey's advice in her heart and stayed in a place with few people.

"Casey, you must be safe." Natasha looked in Casey's direction and prayed silently in her heart.

Casey was relieved to see Natasha running away.

On the whole square, Casey only cared Natasha a little. After all, Casey relied on her to enter here. At that time, Natasha laid down her life for him, which moved him.

So if possible, Casey would still save Natasha.

As for the other people in the square, Casey was helpless. Their survival depended on fate.

Seeing Casey blocking his attack, the mysterious man raised his eyebrows, and said with a smile, "Unexpectedly, you can resist my blow. It is really unexpected."

Casey didn't hesitate at all and used Cabala directly. He knew very well that in the face of such a terrifying enemy, any hesitancy would only make him die faster.

With the cohesion of power, Casey's strength at the moment had also reached the medium stage of sublimation. Although he was still no match for the mysterious man, at least he would not be left defenseless.

The mysterious man was a little surprised to see that Casey still had a way to improve his strength.

He didn't intend to continue wasting time. The most important thing was to grab Casey first and let the container absorb his power.

"Boy, even if you have every means, you can never escape. Give up now!"

After speaking, the mysterious man quickly rushed towards Casey.

Casey didn't hesitate at all, and swiped straight ahead.

"Tianxing sword technique!"

A series of sword lights attacked the mysterious person, with a magnificent momentum.

However, the mysterious man waved his hand directly, and Casey's attack disappeared.

Casey's look changed, and then he hurriedly used the second sword technique.

"Moon Invitation sword technique!"

The mysterious man didn't take Casey's attack seriously at all. A light appeared in his hand, colliding with the moon-inviting style, and then Casey's attack was dissolved in an instant.

Casey gritted his teeth, condensed all his strength on Muramasa, and slashed down towards the mysterious man.

"Thunder Shocking sword technique!"

The huge sword light slashed towards the mysterious man, and the mysterious man showed a stern look, and said with a smile, "This trick is barely qualified, but it's not strong enough to hurt me."

After speaking, the mysterious man stretched out two fingers, a sword-shaped light appeared, and in the blink of an eye, it swelled to hundreds of times its size, much larger than Casey's sword light.

People who watched the battle from a distance saw this scene and exclaimed.

The sword light slashed towards Casey, and directly smashed Casey's sword light, and then hit Casey.

Casey's body was thrown into the distance in an instant, and he went out for tens of meters before stopping.

At this time, he was already full of blood, and he completely lost his combat effectiveness.

He gritted his teeth and sat up from the ground, looked down at Muramasa in his hand, and found that his Muramasa was broken in two.

Shaking his head and grinning his teeth, Casey glanced at the mysterious man in the distance and muttered, "Do I really have to die here today?"

"Edith, Sherry, I'm afraid I won't have a chance to see you again."

The mysterious man walked over to Casey, looking indifferent, "If you were born in our place, you would be treated as a genius, and you would enjoy the best resources. Unfortunately, human destiny cannot be changed. Your greatest value now is to give the vitality in your body to my container!"

The reason why Casey was still alive was precisely because the mysterious man wanted the container to absorb the vitality in him.

Casey stared at the mysterious man and asked, "Who are you?"

The mysterious man smiled and said, "I am not a person from this world, but now these are not important to you anymore. You will die!"

After speaking, the mysterious man stretched out his hand to Casey.

Casey kept repeating the words that the mysterious man said that he was not a person in this world. Casey didn't understand what he meant.

Seeing that the mysterious man was about to catch him, Casey had also taken out his mortal determination and poured all his power of god soul into the Killing Immortals Sword, intending to die with him.

At this moment, a breaking wind sounded, and it quickly struck Casey and the mysterious man.

In the blink of an eye, a violent flame enveloped the mysterious man and prevented him from shooting Casey.

Casey looked intently and found that the person who released the flame was Thomas!

This old guy was finally here!

Seeing Thomas appeared, Casey was also relieved, knowing that he was finally saved today.

Thomas turned his head and glanced at Casey, and said embarrassingly, "I'm a bit late, are you okay?"

Casey rolled his eyes at him and said, "You should think of a way to beat this guy."

Thomas nodded and looked at the mysterious person. He was full of righteousness, and he said coldly at the mysterious person, "I don't care where you are from. With Thomas and me, you will undoubtedly die!"

Chapter 994 Plundering Life

After the mysterious man saw Thomas appear, his face suddenly darkened, and a trace of jealousy appeared in his eyes.

"Are you the strong man in C Country who has reached Half Tongxuan Realm?" The mysterious man stared at Thomas and asked.

Thomas glanced at him and said, "Tongxuan Realm? You are talking about Unrealm, right?"

The mysterious sneered, "That's right, forgot that the environment here is bad, and you can't cultivate strong people anymore. Tongxuan Realm was already called Unrealm here. It's ridiculous."

When Thomas heard the mysterious person's words, he had already guessed the origin of this person, and his look became gloomier.

"Are you from Cangyuan World?"

The mysterious man smiled and said, "Yes, you guessed it right."

"You don't deserve to know it!"

The mysterious man didn't intend to talk nonsense with Thomas, a long sword appeared in his hand, and he quickly pierced Thomas.

Thomas also showed the white feather, flames emerged from both hands, and he directly grabbed the mysterious man's strength sword.

Casey saw that the mysterious man's sword it started to disintegrate bit by bit after being burning by Thomas's flames.

The mysterious man snorted coldly, the mysterious man immediately dissipated the long sword in his hand, stepped back and formed a complex magical print.

A sword formation appeared, and countless strength swords appeared in front of the mysterious man, exuding a powerful and terrifying aura.

When Thomas saw this, he didn't dare to neglect. A lotus of flames condensed in his body instantly, and waves of violent power emerged on the lotus of flames, and the temperature in the entire square rose a lot because of this.

Casey was shocked when he saw the moves they had displayed. He didn't expect that Thomas would be so terrifying and powerful.

He gritted his teeth and stood up from the ground, and ran away quickly.

Getting so close to this level of battle was risking his neck.

The mysterious man's magical print changed, and the power long swords in the array flew towards Thomas in an instant.

Thomas resist with the flame lotus. Then it collided with the array. A wave of terrifying power dissipated around. Even those on the edge of the square felt this wave. Many people even fell down directly.

The flame lotus exploded with tremendous power and swallowed all the long swords in the array. In the end, Thomas won the battle.

The mysterious man's sword array was directly swallowed, which was also a huge damage to the mysterious man. Blood flowed from the corner of his mouth, and he looked gloomier.

He looked at Thomas fiercely, gritted his teeth and said, "If it weren't for the passageway that can only bear the passage of people at the advanced stage of Zhuji Realm, you would have no way to win!"

The advanced stage of Zhuji Realm was equivalent to the advanced stage of sublimation, which meant that the mysterious person had reached the advanced stage of sublimation.

Thomas was about to reach the Unrealm, and he was naturally stronger than the mysterious man who was at the advanced stage of sublimation.

Although the mysterious man despised the strong master from C Country, he was still no match for Thomas.

Thomas glanced at him coldly, and said contemptuously, "Stop talking nonsense, and you may be able to live longer."

The mysterious man snorted coldly, turned his head and glanced at the high platform over there, and then said, "Although I lost to you, it is not so easy for you to defeat me. If I want to run, you cannot stop me!"

After speaking, the mysterious man quickly rushed towards the high platform.

Seeing this, Thomas hurried to catch up.

This mysterious person was right. Although Thomas was a little bit stronger than him, it was extremely difficult to kill a master who had reached the advanced stage of sublimation. If the mysterious person insisted on running away, he really had no way.

In the blink of an eye, the mysterious man had already rushed to the high platform. He lifted the man lying in the box, and then quickly rushed towards the edge of the light curtain, where the most people were.

Although Thomas didn't know what the mysterious man wanted to do, he knew that he definitely had bad designs. Thus, he tried his best to chase the mysterious man.

"Don't let him get close to the crowd. He wants to absorb the vitality of those people to supplement the strength of the person he is carrying.

Once the person he is carrying is strong enough, it will become an efficient fighting force!" Casey shouted at Thomas.

Thomas' face darkened. He didn't expect this mysterious person to have such an idea.

Hearing Casey's shout, the mysterious man turned his head and glanced at him, with a sneer on his face, and said, "Even if you know what I want to do, even if you are fighting for the foundation today, I will wake the container. His power will reach Unrealm, and then all of you will be killed by him!"

After speaking, the mysterious man bit his finger directly and blood flowed out. The mysterious man drew a complicated pattern on the center of the eyebrow of the man he was carrying, and then, his hand began to form a complicated pattern.

The function of this magical print was to absorb the vitality of the human body.

Compared with the time when Jacoff was absorbed, the current magical print was the result of the mysterious man's risk of damaging himself. Its effect was naturally a hundred times and a thousand times that before.

He intended to rely on this magical print to directly seize the vitality of everyone. After all, the situation was critical, and he had no other choose.

A powerful attraction enveloped most of the people at the edge of the light curtain, and at the same time, the pattern in the man carried by the mysterious man also began to emit bursts of light.

Immediately afterwards, the mysterious person yelled, that attraction instantly strengthened, and directly began to plunder the vitality of those at the edge.

"Done!"

In the blink of an eye, the large group of people on the edge of the light curtain turned into corpses.

The mysterious man vomited a mouthful of blood directly because of excessive energy consumption. He clenched his teeth and planned to launch another magical print.

Thomas once again squirted the flame lotus towards the mysterious people, trying to prevent him from continuing to plunder the lives of those people.

But the mysterious man was too fast, and it was too late to stop at this time.

The flame lotus hit the mysterious person, and the mysterious person's magical print could no longer be carried out, and he became sluggish.

It was a pity that more than half of the people who came to the banquet had become corpses.

"Although it has not reached the ideal state, this level is enough."

"All of you will die!"

The mysterious man yelled hysterically, and then clicked at the center of the eyebrow of the so-called container.

The man's eyes opened instantly, with shocking aura, completely suppressing Thomas.

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 995 Fierce Battle

Thomas turned pale when he saw the person carried by the mysterious man open his eyes.

He felt this person had reached Unrealm!

"How is this possible! He makes me feel like he is a master who has reached Unrealm. Has his strength reached Unreal?" Thomas exclaimed.

The mysterious man was already seriously injured at this time because he forcibly helped the container absorb power. However, he didn't have the slightest worry, because the container he cultivated had already awakened, and no one could hurt him today.

This container was actually a puppet cultivated by the mysterious person through a certain method.

This was a unique method in his world. Although it was also defined as the evil method, the passageway could only bear the passage of people at the advanced stage of Zhuji Realm, in order to have an invincible helper, the mysterious man could only use this method.

The magical print of absorbing power was formed hastily, the absorbed power was not selected, and the process of absorbing power by Thomas' attack. Therefore, although the power of this puppet seemed to have reached the Unrealm, it was worse than Unrealm.

But even so, the strength of the puppet was not comparable to that of Thomas, who had not stepped into Unrealm.

The mysterious man stared at Thomas viciously, and then ordered the puppet, "Kill him."

The puppet nodded to the mysterious man immediately, and after taking a step, he was already in front of Thomas.

Upon seeing this, Thomas was about to move out to resist the puppet. But the puppet was so fast that he kicked Thomas' stomach directly, and Thomas flew upside down.

The mysterious man showed a sneer on his face and said, "Even if his strength is somewhat different from that of the Unrealm, he will absolutely knock you, a guy who has not reached Unrealm, out."

Thomas landed on the ground, stabilized himself. His face turned pale. He was indeed not the opponent of the puppet, and the puppet could kill him easily.

Was he really going to die here?

If this was the case, the puppet would become a huge threat to C Country and even the whole world.

Thomas glanced at Casey, and gave him a questioning look.

Casey nodded, affirmed.

On Thomas' palm, two flames instantly appeared, and then he rushed toward the puppet again.

A huge fireball appeared in the air and smashed towards the puppet.

The puppet was not afraid at all, stretched out a hand, a powerful force erupted, and directly resisted the fireball.

At this moment, a golden light erupted from the ground, and in the blink of an eye, a golden enchantment was formed around Thomas and the puppet. Nine dragons appeared, the sound of dragons chanting made the survivors at the edge of the light curtain tremble.

As early as when Casey realized the strength of the mysterious man, Casey had already begun to transfer the power of god soul to the array, waiting for the key moment to start the array.

At that moment Thomas gave him a questioning look, naturally asking him if he was ready for the array.

During the battle at that time, Casey had already left the array on the ground.

The mysterious man saw the sudden appearance of the array, his face sunk, and he exclaimed, "Damn! Isn't there a fault in martial arts in this place? Why is there an advanced array?"

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

No Money Could Ever Give You Access To Any Of These People

The moment Thomas saw the array appeared, he was slightly surprised, but he did not hesitate at all. Taking advantage of the appearance of the array, he attacked the puppet again.

The array was controlled by Casey, and naturally, Thomas wouldn't be attacked.

The array also reduced Thomas' pressure a lot, at least now he was qualified to meet this puppet head-on.

The mysterious man carefully observed this array, and then said coldly, "Even if you have the assistance of the array, it is still impossible for you to beat my container, which has reached the Unrealm! When the power of the array is exhausted, you will die!"

Although he said so, it was obvious that the mysterious man had panicked. It seemed that he didn't know whether the puppet could resist Thomas and the array.

Casey sat in the distance, staring at the situation in the array, using all available means to help Thomas, allowing him to have a fighting power comparable to the man at Unrealm in a short period of time.

With the aid of the nine dragons, Thomas may not be defeated in this battle.

An unprecedented battle broke out, and a series of earth-shaking sounds spread around, making people all over Moss City think that the end of the world was coming.

Although the puppet was tyrannical, it also began to become stretched in the fighting with Thomas.

At this time, Thomas only needed one chance to defeat the puppet.

Just as Casey was staring at the battle over there, a strange feeling surged into his heart, and his eyes widened in an instant.

Because of the previous fight with the mysterious person, although he was seriously injured, Casey still had some unprecedented insights.

These insights had caused some changes in him, who had hit the bottleneck for a long time.

Fighting was always the best way to make improvement.

Casey had a strong feeling that he was about to break through!

The chances of epiphany in this kind of battle was rare. Casey didn't dare to hesitate at all, and quickly closed his eyes, carefully experienced the feeling, and prepared to break through.

There were waves of power visible to the naked eye around Casey, his pores began to open, frantically absorbing the power in the surrounding air.

At this moment, Casey was as if he had entered concentration, and everything around him no longer had any influence on him. At this moment, only the breakthrough was left in his heart.

Because of Casey's temporary breakthrough, the array was out of control, and Thomas obviously felt that his battle had become a bit more difficult again.

But fortunately, after the array was formed, even if no one controlled it, the power in it would not dissipate, so Thomas would not be defeated because of this.

While Thomas was fighting hard, the mysterious man looked at him with a slightly helpless smile on his face, and then muttered,

"Unexpectedly, I'm in such trouble."

"But even if there is no way to find out the relic this time, it doesn't matter. As long as I can kill the strongest person in C Country, it will be much easier to send someone over next time."

"Don't think that you will have a chance to comeback with the assistance of the array. Today, I will definitely kill you, even if the price is my life!"

After finishing speaking, the mysterious man sealed the print again, and then a powerful suction appeared, which directly drew out half of the vitality in his body and merged it into the puppet's body. _____

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 996 Breakthrough

The aura on the puppet once again climbed, and it was completely reached Unrealm.

Thomas was defeated in an instant. The puppet slapped him, and he had to retreat quickly towards the back.

After stabilizing himself, Thomas stared at the puppet, looking grave. He looked towards the mysterious person and found that the mysterious person looked pale, as if he was dying.

"You're really ruthless, and risk your life to kill me. Is it really worth it?" Thomas stared at him and asked.

The mysterious man smiled and said, "I am just paving the way for the latecomers. I am the first to come here, but I will not be the last. If I kill you today, people from Cangyuan World will not encounter any obstacles."

Thomas frowned, and he knew exactly what the mysterious man meant. In today's C Country, he was the only one who had reached Half Unrealm. Fleming, his contemporary, had only reached the advanced stage of sublimation.

And only one person from Cangyuan World could cause such a big trouble. If he died this time, no one would be able to stop the people in Cangyuan World world in the future.

"In fact, I don't know exactly what kind of place Cangyuan World is, and why you came here. Must you kill me? If you are not malicious, we can sit down and have a talk." Thomas asked.

The mysterious man sneered and said, "People in this world are just some untouchables, so why are you qualified to sit down and talk with us."

"To tell you the truth, we are here to find something, and enslave you as well. In order to achieve this goal, naturally, we have to remove these obstacles!"

Thomas's face sank. He didn't expect this mysterious person to have such a purpose. It seemed impossible to get along with each other in peace.

"Wishful thinking! I will definitely kill all the demons like you, !"

He shouted at the puppet in front of him, and then his whole body was full of flames, and he rushed toward the puppet.

At this time, the nine divine dragons in the array also roared and rushed towards the puppet together.

Thomas condensed all the power in his body into the palm of his hand, and a flame lotus that was condensed to be nearly real appeared and flew toward the puppet.

The nine dragons also opened their mouths together, shooting out beams of pure power, all rushing toward the puppet.

It was night now, but because of the explosion of these forces, the entire square was like daylight, and the survivors at the edge of the light curtain even couldn't open their eyes.

A huge explosion sounded, and everyone hurried to the ground, covering their ears.

The huge fluctuation of power, centered on the puppet, spread around, and a series of terrifying cracks appeared on the ground where it passed.

After performing this blow, Thomas wilted. This was the strongest attack he could make at this time.

The power of the nine divine dragons also broke out completely at the moment just now, and now they had exhausted their stored power, and in the blink of an eye, they dissipated together with the golden enchantment.

Thomas' eyes alight on the spot where the puppet was just now. At this time, there was thick smoke and dust, and he couldn't see what was going on inside.

"It has been killed, right? Just now, with my full blow and the power of the array, even a master at Unrealm is unable to resist. Although the puppet is strong, it should not be able to withstand an attack of this scale," Thomas muttered.

Soon, the smoke and dust dissipated, Thomas saw that the puppet was still standing on the spot. Compared with before, there were many more scars on his body, his clothes were already in tatters, and his breath was obviously weaker than before.

But he was still standing!

And he still had combat power!

Thomas panicked in an instant. His blow just now had exhausted all his strength. Now he had no combat power.

If the puppet made another attack, he couldn't fight back at all.

The mysterious person over there who became more dying because of the aftermath of the power just now showed a satisfied smile after seeing this scene.

"The power of the master at Unrealm is not as simple as you think. It's a dream to kill him so easily!"

The mysterious man said to Thomas, then looked at the puppet, and said, "Kill him, and then take me to heal my wounds. Without this man who has reached Half Tongxuan Realm, no one in C Country can stop us!"

The puppet accepted the order and immediately rushed towards Thomas, then kicked Thomas on his body.

Before Thomas could resist, he flew to the distance in an instant. After falling to the ground, he vomited a mouthful of blood.

He quickly got up from the ground, looked at the puppet with a solemn expression, and after gritting his teeth, he released the little power remaining in his body.

By now, he had no choice but to try his best.

The puppet rushed toward him again, and he quickly resisted, but after a few moves, he was kicked out again.

The puppet seemed to be playing with a plaything, and made Thomas had no power to fight back.

After a while, Thomas had been hurt all over, and he was wilted.

"Enough, just kill him." The mysterious man gave the order again.

The puppet didn't intend to continue wasting time with Thomas, he just lifted his foot and was about to step on Thomas' throat.

At this moment, a strange wave suddenly appeared in the entire square, and everyone felt a hot wind blowing all over themselves, converging in the direction where Casey was.

The mysterious man's face changed suddenly, and he quickly looked towards Casey and exclaimed, "This is impossible! Although it's not uncommon for a person to break through in battle, this guy even caused an anomaly when he broke through. How could this be!"

Everyone looked towards Casey, and saw that Casey was surrounded by layers of heat waves at this time, and his aura was rising rapidly.

After a few breaths, Casey's aura had risen to the top.

The advanced stage of sublimation!

Casey opened his eyes. Then, he appeared in front of the puppet. He pushed the puppet away with a palm, pulled Thomas on the ground up, and took him to a safe position.

After doing this, he turned his head to look at the puppet, and in his eyes, murderous auras emerged.

"It's a dream for you to enslave us!"

The Peremptory Casey Davies

Chapter 997 Power of Killing Immortals Sword

The mysterious man stared at Casey carefully, and after repeated confirmation, he found that Casey had reached the advanced stage of sublimation!

He looked at Casey as if looking at a monster. At that time, Casey hadn't even reached the initial stage of sublimation, but his power was comparable to the initial stage of sublimation.

But now after he broke through, he had directly reached the advanced stage of sublimation.

What exactly was going on?

Even in Cangyuan World, there was no such a monster with such a large breakthrough span!

"Hasn't anima already been exhausted in this world? Why is there such a perversion?" The mysterious man murmured to himself.

After a while, his pupils shrank suddenly, and a possibility came to mind in his mind.

It's XuanGong!

Only with XuanGong, could guy cross so many realms at once.

He came to this world this time to search for XuanGong, which was one of his tasks.

The mysterious man became excited as he looked at Casey, He didn't expect that the guy in front of him would know XuanGong.

Although Casey's strength had reached the advanced stage of sublimation after his breakthrough, there was still an insurmountable gap between the advanced stage of sublimation and Unrealm.

So, it was easy for the puppet to knock Casey out.

As long as Casey was caught, even if his mission to Earth failed, he would not come in vain.
If he could bring XuanGong back to the Cangyuan World, then he would make an unprecedented contribution!

After taking a deep breath, the mysterious man hurriedly shouted to the puppet, "Leave the old man alone, quickly grab that guy. He is very important to me, come on!"

The puppet received the order and rushed towards Casey.

They began to fight in an instant, and they moved so fast that it was invisible to normal people.

Casey was also a little surprised at the improvement of his realm this time, although he had guessed before that if he broke through, he would definitely surmount the initial stage of the sublimation.

But even he himself did not expect that he would come into the advanced stage of sublimation!

He only needed to take one step forward to reach the Unrealm.

From this, Casey also understood that XuanGong were indeed extraordinary. Compared with ordinary masters of the same realm, Casey possessed XuanGong, which was equivalent to playing an extra hole card.

Although Casey was at the advanced stage of sublimation, there was a big gap between it and the Unrealm. Fortunately, XuanGong had provided Casey with extraordinary power, allowing him to barely fight against this puppet.

Of course, the puppet suffered great damage because Thomas combined with the array at that time.

They fought against each other, and the square was in a mess. The roar of the battle made everyone tremble.

After another blow, Casey retreated quickly, his chest undulating.

At this moment, he had a long sword condensed from Xunjin in his hand, which looked quite different from Muramasa.

After his strength reached the advanced stage of sublimation, Casey no longer needed to use weapons to exert a stronger power. The long sword he transformed with power was even more terrifying than Muramasa.

It was that because he had just reached the advanced stage of sublimation and had not been able to control his power well, and the side effects of Cabala were about to appear, Casey with serious injuries was unable to hold it for too long.

He stared at the puppet and narrowed his eyes. He must kill it in the next few minutes, otherwise he would also be defeated by the puppet.

The mysterious man stared at Casey with a sneer, and said, "Boy, even if you have XuanGong, you are definitely unable to beat the puppet. Give up quickly, and I can keep you alive. You are so young. You don't want to die here, right?"

When Casey heard the mysterious man's words, his face sank, and he asked, "Do you know XuanGong?"

The mysterious man smiled and said, "It seems that what I guessed is right. Boy, XuanGong is a matter of great importance. As long as you are willing to hand it over, I can protect you from death and let you obtain infinite training resources in Cangyuan World!"

Casey thought about it for a while. It seemed that his original guess was correct. XuanGong was really extraordinary. This person who claimed to be from the Cangyuan World actually knew XuanGong, and he seemed to pay much attention to it.

However, Casey would not be bewitched by him. Although the puppet had reached Unrealm, it was not impossible to beat the puppet.

"Do you think I'm a fool? I won't die today, you puppet can't you beat me!"

After speaking, the long sword in Casey's hand dissipated, and a golden long sword appeared. It was Killing Immortals Sword!

After reaching the advanced stage of sublimation, Casey's god soul had also been greatly improved. Not long after the breakthrough, Casey discovered that there had been some unprecedented changes on the Killing Immortals Sword, and some memories of manipulating the sword came into his mind.

With those memories, Casey was confident that he could beat the puppet with Killing Immortals Sword.

The mysterious man noticed that the blade in Casey's hand turned into a golden sword, but he didn't care, only thinking that Casey had transformed a different weapon.

"Boy, you only have one chance. Don't think I'm joking. What I just said is true. Don't be ignorant!" the mysterious man shouted at Casey.

Casey ignored his words, but rushed towards the puppet.

He was almost reaching the limit, so he couldn't delay any longer.

Seeing that Casey hadn't obeyed his words, the mysterious man's face became gloomy and he gave the puppet an order, "Break his limbs and keep his alive!"

The puppet didn't hesitate, and the power in his body expanded again, completely suppressing Casey's aura.

Seeing that Casey still had no hesitation, the mysterious man snorted and said, "Boy, you will regret the choice you just made!"

Casey rushed to the puppet, the power on the puppet's palm exploded, and he patted Casey's chest.

Casey quickly hid, holding the Killing Immortals Sword and slashing towards the puppet.

Upon seeing this, the puppet backed away quickly, intending to hide. At this time, Casey showed a sly smile, and then the hand holding the Killing Immortals Sword released.

"Go!"

The Killing Immortals Sword was directly separated from Casey's palm and flew towards the puppet.

Upon seeing this, the mysterious man sneered, "Do you think it can hurt a strong master at Unrealm? It's ridiculous!"

As soon as he finished speaking, bright light burst out from the Killing Immortals Sword, an aura that completely crushed the puppet burst out, and then the sword light appeared, and it slammed on the puppet. The light was fleeting, and Killing Immortals Sword had returned to Casey in the blink of an eye.

Chapter 998 End

The mysterious man was dumbfounded when he saw this sudden change.

"This... how is this possible? That's a master at Tongxuan Realm! How could he be killed by a guy at the advanced stage of sublimation!"

This was completely unexpected by the mysterious man. He thought that no matter how strong Casey was, he would only hurt the puppet at best. How could he split the puppet in half?

At this time, he thought of the golden sword. It seemed that the sword was extraordinary!

However, it was too late. The puppet was dead, and he was seriously injured. He had no support, and could only become a lamb to be slaughtered by Casey.

Seeing that the puppet was dead, Casey was also relieved. After admiring the power of Killing Immortals Sword, he also felt weak and wobbly, and almost fell to the ground.

Although the power of Killing Immortals Sword was great, even in his heyday, Casey could only perform an attack like that just now once.

The reason why he was able to perform that blow just now was entirely because he was trying to squeeze his own potential.

In addition, his control of the Killing Immortals Sword relied on the power of god soul. After breakthrough, his god soul had been restored to a certain extent. Only then did he successfully perform the blow just now.

At this point, Casey had also reached the limit.

This was definitely the most difficult battle he had ever experienced in his life. If it hadn't been for the breakthrough in battle to bring him new power, he wouldn't know what his end would be like today.

He walked towards the mysterious man, who looked desperate at this time. He did not expect that he would end up like this today.

When Casey arrived in front of the mysterious man, he directly stretched out his hand and tapped lightly at the mysterious man's limbs. Four rays of light appeared, directly piercing the mysterious man's limbs.

"Boy, just kill me. But remember, my death is definitely not the end. It is just the beginning!" the mysterious man shouted at Casey.

Casey ignored him, grabbed his clothes, dragged him to Thomas.

Thomas had passed out in a coma at this time, Casey reached out and grabbed him, and walked towards the outside of the square with them.

At this time, the square was no longer obstructed by the black light curtain. After people discovered that the light curtain disappeared, they all fled away.

A large number of dried corpses fell on the ground, plus the damage caused by the previous battle, the square at this time was like a purgatory on earth. No matter how courageous a person was, he would not dare to continue to stay in this place.

Casey dragged the mysterious man and Thomas toward the front in this way. He must leave here as soon as possible. After all, this was the territory of S Country, and the movement just now should have alarmed the military.

People from the military would come over soon. If they would not miss the chance to seize the two outstanding masters from C Country. After all, it could become the capital for negotiations with C Country. The current Casey and Thomas, the lord of the Pantheon, were absolutely of inestimable value to C Country. Once they were arrested, or S Country killed them directly in order to reduce the strength of its enemies, then everything they did today was in vain. But Casey had reached the limit, and he even doubted whether he could get out of this square in the end. He just felt his dizzy, and he might fall down at any time. Just when Casey was about to be unable to hold on, a petite woman appeared in front of him. "Casey, I followed your instructions and found a place with few people. I survived." Natasha looked at Casey gratefully.

Casey smiled at her and said, "Get out of here. The military will block this place later. If they see you here, they will take you back to and interrogate you."

Natasha looked at Casey with concern and said, "Casey, are you exhausted now? If you can't get out of here quickly, I can help you. Several members of our family are still on standby. "

Casey stared at her and asked, "Can I trust you?"

Natasha nodded seriously and said, "I will never hand you over to the military. I know your worries. I will take you to a safe place."

"Okay, I'll leave it to you for the rest of the matter."

After saying this, Casey couldn't hold on anymore and fell straight down.

Natasha saw Casey's look, showing a trace of distress. And then, she beckoned to the Andrew family who was on standby in the distance. The few people quickly ran over, took Casey, the mysterious man and Thomas, and quickly left here.

After about ten minutes, a few helicopters flew over the central square. On the roads around the square, tanks marched neatly, quickly enclosing the entire square.

On the helicopter, several well-trained soldiers from S Country were chatting and laughing.

"The superior said that an important situation has occurred in the central square and asked us to come here in a state of first-level combat readiness. Here is only a square, and what important things can happen here? I think it is really a fuss."

"I heard that there were several people from C Country fighting here, and I heard that there were casualties. I don't know the specific situation, but the first level of combat readiness is indeed a bit too serious."

"The battle of people from C Country? Do they use their martial arts? I heard that martial arts is just a bluff."

After speaking, everyone burst into laughter.

After a while, the helicopter stopped more than ten meters above the central square, and everyone looked towards the square, wanting to see what was going on on the square.

When they saw the situation on the square at this time, they were stunned. A few people even began to nausea, and some couldn't bear to watch the scene below.

The entire square had been ruined, with countless potholes and cracks, making people sacred.

Coupled with the pieces of dried corpses that had been drained of vitality and fell to the ground, the entire central square was like a purgatory on earth, making everyone unable to smile again.

"Didn't it say it was just a few people from C Country fighting here? Why... Is it like this?"

"It's really horrible, what is going on, why did those people become like this. There are more than 5,000 corpses."

"Do people from C Country really know martial arts? It's so terrifying. It's like having just experienced a nuclear war here!"

"My God, if this is really man-made, how powerful is C Country is?"

...

Everyone looked at the scene on the square in shock, even if they hadn't seen battle scene, they had already known that the battle must be extremely fierce from the traces on the square.

Since then, C Country had forever become the nightmare of the soldiers of S Country who witnessed this scene._

Chapter 999 S Country Bowed Down

The battle in the central square quickly attracted the attention of all countries.

The destruction of the central square was horrible, and there were thousands of corpses drained of vitality on the spot. No matter where, it was a major event that could affect the world.

And not long after that battle, there were already videos recorded on the Internet by survivors using their mobile phones.

Although in order to avoid causing panic, countries were controlling the spread of these videos, making the public feel that this was just a rumor.

Of course, the senior leaders of all countries were very clear that this was what happened.

The heads of state held meetings based on the videos circulated on the Internet and the information investigated by their respective intelligence agencies to discuss the seriousness of the incident.

They confirmed from the video that three people from C Country caused the terrifying scene in the central square!

All the three men had substantial ability, relying only on the strength of their physical bodies, they had caused a destructive force comparable to a small nuclear bomb.

This allowed everyone to refresh their knowledge of C Country martial arts.

Although they were not sure why the three people fought in the central square, they was clear that if C Country sent such a strong man to their country, they would definitely be caught off guard without any precautions.

Suddenly, all the countries around C Country became a little worried, for fear that C Country would create such a surprise for them any day. After all, if such a terrifying strongman was sent, there was no way for countries to investigate. They could never interrogate every person from C Country.

Such a strong man was definitely much more powerful than directly launching a missile.

And S Country, who knew the truth about the central square, had an indescribable fear of C Country.

The commander of S Country did not expect that the mysterious person he trusted so much was to rob people of their vitality in the banquet he held.

Those who attended the banquet that day were all powerful men from all over the country. The mysterious man killed thousands of people at once, which was equivalent to directly hitting their nation's economy. Numerous large companies became headless and fell into a dispute over the power on the same day.

The commander of S Country was heartbroken and felt that this was the responsibility caused by his negligence. The next day, he resigned from his position as commander.

The battle in the central square also made the people of S Country understand the true strength of C Country. They even tried to provoke C Country before. How stupid they were.

The battle at central square awoke all the high-level officials in S Country.

After they unanimously discussed, they finally decided to bow to C Country, which gave C Country countless benefits. They also announced to the public that C Country would be the leader of S Country in the future. If anyone wanted to fight against C Country, S Country stand out for the first time to help C Country.

This result was unexpected by the high-level official of C Country. Even Magnus was a little surprised. He didn't understand that Casey and Thomas were just trying to catch a mysterious person, but in the end S Country bowed to them. It was really a great surprise.

However, after the battle in the central square, he couldn't contact Casey and Thomas, which made him a little anxious.

He originally thought that S Country had arrested them, and he went to query S Country.

But S Country said that when they rushed to the central square, there was no one on the ground except the mummy, and they didn't know where Casey and Thomas had gone.

And if they really caught Casey and Thomas, they would not surrender, but would use them to threat Magnus.

Magnus felt that there was some truth in what S Country said, but he couldn't feel relieved before he could find Casey and Thomas. After all, they were the great contributors to this incident.

And this battle also made him realize the value of Casey and Thomas, so he hoped that they were safe.

He had sent someone to find the traces of the two, and the S Country also agreed that they would definitely help C Country find Casey and Thomas.

After half a month.

In a private estate on the outskirts of Moss City.

Casey walked out of the room, his face still pale. Obviously, his injuries had not fully recovered.

However, after half a month of recuperation, he felt much better and his realm has stabilized.

At this time Thomas was watering the flowers in the courtyard of the manor, which seemed quite leisurely.

This manor was specially prepared by the Andrew family for Natasha. In the past half month, Casey and Thomas had been recuperating here.

Natasha also kept her promise, did not hand them over to the military, and provided them with a good environment for healing.

Casey and Thomas didn't know what was happening outside, and they didn't know that Magnus was sending someone to look for them.

Casey walked close to Thomas and stopped by a stone table. Then, he sat directly on the stool beside the stone table.

"How was interrogation? Did he say anything worthwhile?" Casey stared at Thomas and asked.

The mysterious man was also brought to this manor by Natasha. During this time, his life was also saved through some drugs. After Thomas recovered a little from his injury, he began to interrogate him.

"He's dead. He died this morning, and he didn't say anything useful," Thomas said lightly.

Casey was taken aback, but he didn't expect the mysterious person to die.

But this guy was injured seriously, and gave the puppet half of his vitality, and then his limbs were broken by Casey. It was a miracle that he could live until now.

"What is certain now is that this person is from Cangyuan World, and his purpose is to find something and occupy this world."

"They opened up a passageway from Cangyuan World to the Earth. This could only bear the passage of people at the advanced stage of Zhuji Realm. Zhuji Realm is the advanced stage of sublimation."

"That's why he used the method of plundering the lives of others to create a puppet that reached Tongxuan Realm, which is the Unrealm."

"He is dead, the people of Cangyuan World will send others over, and this world will soon become ."

After speaking, Thomas showed a trace of emotion on his face.

Casey stared at Thomas and asked, "What kind of place is Cangyuan World? Doesn't it belong to the earth?"

Thomas looked at Casey with a mysterious look in his eyes, and then murmured, "It's not so much that it doesn't belong to the earth, it's better to say that there and this universe are two places."

"That is a place independent of our world, and this is the biggest secret that the Pantheon have always kept."

Chapter 1000 Take the Position as Lord

Hearing Thomas' words, Casey raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect such a mysterious thing in the world.

Independently from this world, Casey has heard of such a statement for the first time.

"At present, we don't know much about Cangyuan World. We only know that the people there are very strong. Reaching Unrealm is just the threshold for the strong. People at Unrealm was far from being regarded as a strong expert." Thomas continued.

Casey hurriedly let him stop, and said, "Enough, this is the secret of the Pantheon, I had better know less."

Thomas smiled and said, "You have been identified by me as the candidate for the next lord of the Pantheon. You will need to know these things sooner or later."

Casey was taken aback for a moment, and said in doubt, "The candidate for the next lord? Why don't I know about this?"

"Originally, I planned to tell you this when you become stronger, but what I didn't expect is that your strength will directly reach the advanced stage of sublimation. At this level, you are more than enough to be the Lord of the Pantheon, so it's okay to tell you now," Thomas said with a smile.

"Sorry, I'm not interested in the position of the lord, you should go find someone else." Casey directly rejected Thomas.

"After experiencing this incident, do you still think you can be as free and at ease as before?" Thomas stared at Casey and asked.

Hearing Thomas' question, Casey also sighed helplessly.

With the deepening of his understanding of the world, Casey did discover that there were many things that was contrary to what he expected.

For example, this time Casey could really sit idly by when the people from Cangyuan World sneaked in, but if it weren't for his shots, Thomas might be killed this time.

And the mysterious person in Cangyuan World would puppet at Unrealm, making this world be in trouble.

At that time, how could his wife and daughter continue to lead a comfortable and stable life.

So even if it's just for his wife and daughter, he had to do it.

Casey understood why Thomas would choose him to be the next lord of the Pantheon. Although he was unwilling to accept it, this was a fact that he could not refuse.

"Now you can take charge as chief with your strength. If it weren't for you this time, I would be killed." Thomas looked at Casey, "So I have decided to officially appoint you as the lord of the Pantheon."

With that, Thomas took out a token from his clothes and handed it to Casey.

"Although you are still very young and you are not yet qualified to be the Lord of the Pantheon in terms of age, strength means everything. In addition, you are more stable than some people who have lived for hundreds of years, So I am very relieved to pass on the throne of the Lord of the Pantheon to you."

Casey looked at the token on the table with a stunned look, and asked, "Even if you really want me to be the lord of the Pantheon, you don't need to give me the order now."

Thomas smiled and said, "This incident has made me understand my current situation. I am already old, and once a special situation arises, I may not even be able to survive. Thus, I have to give up the position of the Lord of the Pantheon as early as possible."

Hearing what Thomas said, Casey was also a little helpless. He understood what Thomas was thinking. Although he didn't want to admit it, it was indeed a fact.

"Don't worry, I'm just clarifying this matter now. You can still continue to be at ease. As long as I am still alive, I will help you deal with the affairs of the temples, but when I die, the burden of managing the Pantheon will fall on you." Thomas continued.

This time Casey did not refuse, but silently nodded, and put away the token.

The stronger he was, the greater the responsibility was.

Casey knew this very well. What's more, he did this to give Edith and Sherry a stable life. He would naturally not mind if other people could benefit from it.

"As for the Cangyuan World, you can go to the mountain where I am located after you return to the headquarters of the Pantheon this time and find an elder. He will tell you the details of the Cangyuan World," Thomas said.

"Aren't you going back?" Casey asked.

"That person opened a passageway and came here. This passageway will definitely not disappear easily. I have to find this passageway so that no one from Cangyuan World will come," Thomas replied.

Casey nodded, it was indeed a very important thing.

"Of course, you don't have to be too nervous. It's not easy to open a passageway. It's impossible for the people of Cangyuan World to come to Earth in a short time. Just do what you should do. Don't be affected by this," Thomas added again.

"I see." Casey answered Thomas solemnly.

Thomas smiled and patted Casey on the shoulder, and said, "This feeling of handing over the burden to others is really good. It seems that I can be a little more relaxed in the future."

Casey rolled his eyes at him, and said nothing.

At this time Natasha was wearing a hat and carrying a basket in her hand, and walked towards them.

"Come and taste the fruits I just picked in the orchard. These are all grown by myself and are very delicious." Natasha smiled and looked at the two people.

Both of them walked over wisely and tasted the fruit, and praised the deliciousness of these fruits.

"Natasha, if nothing happens, we should leave soon," Casey said while eating the fruit that Natasha picked.

When Natasha heard Casey's words, the movement in her hand stopped.

"Finally, you are leaving." Natasha muttered.

"Thank you very much for taking care of us during this period of time.

As long as you practice the deep breathing I taught you regularly every day, it won't take long for you to become healthy like a normal person."

Casey continued.

Natasha nodded, but it was obvious that she didn't want Casey to leave. Although she had known that Casey taught her the method of deep breathing in order to be able to get in the banquet, Natasha had already developed a different kind of affection for Casey.

"It's me who should be thankful. You saved my life. I should do all this," Natasha replied Casey.

Seeing this girl's distressed look, Casey smiled and said, "Don't be frowning. There is no permanent banquet in the world. I am very happy to know you."

Natasha raised her head, her lips moved, as if she wanted to say something.

She wanted to tell Casey that she not only wanted to know Casey, she also wanted to be with him and had an unforgettable memory with him. However, in the end she did not speak, because she knew in her heart that these were just her delusions.

"I wish you all the best." Natasha said, with a relieved smile on her face. _____

Chapter 1001 A New Adventure

In the border between C Country and S Country, a figured appeared in an unmanned valley - Thomas.

Thomas made a complex print on both hands, gushing out spiritual power that enveloped the whole valley.

Before long, Thomas found an anomaly. He stretched out his hand and felt ripple in the air, which was quite weird.

"After looking for so long, I finally found it. It seems that it is only a small channel that only allows one person to come through. It will be two or three years before anyone wants to come out of this channel."

Thomas murmured to himself.

Thomas then took out a few pieces of something like a charm, making a complex print.

The charms flew into the air, releasing strange forces that made the black spiral channel visible and sealed it.

In this way, when people in Cangyuan World wanted to use this channel again, Thomas could feel it in the first time.

And he could activate the power of the charm, so that the channel became unstable and he could easily kill the people in the channel.

Thomas took out a walkie-talkie from his clothes and said, "I have done my work, you can locate it."

"Roger that!" There was a voice came from it.

The system was located quickly in the headquarters in the Northern Border, followed by some operation.

A missile launcher at a military base in the Northern Border began to rotate toward Thomas' location.

In the future, if there was any change in the channel, the missile would be fired at any time and completely destroyed the channel.

With these preparations, C Country no longer had to worry about the invasion of Cangyuan World.

“The missile is ready, you can come back, Thomas.”

Hearing that, Thomas smiled.

“I guess we have to trust science.”

With no more thought, Thomas jumped directly up to the hill of dozens of meters and then disappeared.

...

The headquarters of the Pantheon in Kunlun Mountains

Casey went straight in and announced that he had taken over the position of the Lord of the Pantheon.

Even if there were people could not accept it, but in face of the strong strength of Casey, they surrendered.

Vermilion Bird was upset seeing that Casey controlled the Pantheon.

Casey was indeed more and more powerful, but it also meant that the gap between her and Casey was bigger and bigger.

Of course, Vermilion Bird knew in her own heart that her thoughts were, in the end, nothing more than fantasies, which would eventually fizzle.

After the announcement, Casey came to the small hut of Thomas.

According to Thomas, Casey opened the mechanism in the corner of the hut and got into the channel through the mountain interior.

At the end of the channel was a huge cave. As he entered, torches on the walls lit up the cave.

The first thing he saw was a smooth stone wall like a mirror.

In the middle of the stone wall, a black strange force converged into a whirlpool, looked quite gloomy.

When Casey wanted to get close, there was a figure on the stone wall in front of him.

He was a gray-haired old man, his figure erratic and transparent.

The Criminal Minds Cast: Where Are They Now?

Who Is Mark Zuckerberg's Wife? 16 Facts About Priscilla Chan

“Are you a man or a ghost? Why are you in this wall?” Casey looked at the figure warily.

The man smiled and said, “Although I am not a man, I am not a ghost. You can call me Mayo Byrne. I am Thomas' teacher. Did he ask you to come here?”

Casey's pupil shrank. His ear echoed with Mayo's words, and he felt incredible.

Mayo saw that Casey had doubts, he smiled and explained, "I am a wisp of residual soul, you have awakened your god soul and should be clear of its specialty. My body has died, I only have this residual soul, relying on external force to maintain existence."

"In order to prevent the people of the Cangyuan World from coming to earth, I sealed this channel with my god soul."

"I am not dead, but I will never be able to escape from this wall. I have been in here for a hundred years."

This was the channel to the Cangyuan World!

Casey was very shocked that this person, in order to seal the channel, trapped his god soul in the stone wall, which was no doubt considerable pay.

Casey said politely to Mayo, "Please tell me something about the Cangyuan World."

From Mayo, Casey knew that the earth was full of anima, and there was a group of its powerful practitioners, called immortals.

They occupied countless resources, but then there was a great war, which caused anima begin to weaken, and soon the world ceased the possibility of practicing.

A group of immortals rack their brains in order to continue the way of practicing.

At this time, they found the existence of the Cangyuan World, so they gathered force to open a channel, and sent their people there.

And this channel was the channel of Kunlun Mountains.

Since then, the way of practicing had declined on the earth, and the people who stayed on the earth have evolved the original practicing method into the current martial art.

The channel here had been sealed to prevent the return of the powerful immortals from upsetting the balance of earth.

The establishment of the Pantheons was also to prevent the people of Cangyuan World from returning to the earth to seize resources and search for relics.

More than 100 years ago, Mayo took on the task of guarding the channel. Not long after that, the people of Cangyuan World tried to invade the earth and break the seal. The situation was urgent, Mayo had no choice but to sacrifice his own body and strengthen the seal with his god soul, which was able to resist the invasion of those people in Cangyuan World.

Casey understood that the Lord of the Pantheon was the successor of the guardian for the channel.

He also knew that he had to shoulder the burden, after all, he was now arguably the strongest person on earth.

The responsibility of safeguarding world peace was on him!

But Casey was not to simply guard the channel, he wanted to go to Cangyuan World to see if he could completely solve the problem.

So, Casey led the Pantheon to remove the remaining dangers, such as the dangerous people wanted in the Pantheon reward list.

While doing the final preparation, he accompanied with Edith and Sherry.

After all, once he went to the Cangyuan World, he didn't know when he could come back.

He wanted very much to accompany his wife and daughter, but people in the Cangyuan World would not give up. He could not only care about his family and ignore the overall situation.

The time passed little by little, and three months later, Casey made all the arrangements and gave a letter to Edith explaining everything. Then he went into the channel leading to the Cangyuan World without hesitation.

Casey began his new adventure and the story would be continued.

But that was another story. Let's look forward to his return and See you!

The End. ____
