Chapter 1091: Crowd Taunting

Pah, pah, pah!

Someone applauded gently, but it couldn't have sounded clearer in the quiet void.

"As expected of Shen Huang's disciple."

Five men gradually stepped out of the void. The person in the lead was a young man wearing a large, red robe with black dragon patterns. He chuckled and said, "Are you Shuai Qianhou? I've heard so much about you."

"Shuai Qianhou!"

The brawny young man next to him roared and then laughed. "Do you remember me?"

Shuai Qianhou raised his eyebrows and said casually, "I do. You were defeated by me."

"Unfortunately lost to you in the competition for the top of the Divine Lord Rank, but it's been forty thousand years since then; how many more perfect paths have you grasped?" sneered the brawny young man.

The Divine Lord Rank at that time was much more precious than it was in recent times.

The top five Star Lords had mostly grasped perfect paths!

Shuai Qianhou was the strongest of them; he had grasped two perfect paths. Nobody could shake his position as the best Star Lord of the Golden Star Zone!

Forty thousand years had passed.

He believed that Shuai Qianhou had progressed considerably, but he did too!

"Perfect paths?"

'What the brawny young man said stunned the members of the alliance, including Loulan Lin and the others. Everybody fixed their eyes upon Shuai Qianhou.

The young man, a mere Star Lord, had grasped perfect paths!

It was a shocking revelation for plenty of the Star Lords, as if a meteor would have just struck the planet!

While they were still trying to fully master the four supreme laws, that Star Lord from tens of thousands of years before was already aiming for more perfect paths?

"You were left behind by me. I didn't expect you to be absolutely the same, not making any progress since then," said Shuai Qianhou indifferently.

The brawny young man's mood turned cold. "I'm not here to argue with you. You must have picked up a lot of tokens, and the ultimate treasure left by Shen Huang, right? He claimed that the luckiest would find it, but he only gave it to his disciples!"

Many people were shocked by his boldness; to think he would directly complain about the Celestial State expert!

However, they were there to surround and kill the Celestial expert's disciples; it seemed that an offense was inevitable.

"Indeed. We have the ultimate treasure and the tokens." Shuai Qianhou smiled and revealed all of the seven glittering purple tokens in his hand. He simply played with them.

"You want them? There are only ten tokens in total on each continent. Some grains of sand are bound to be eliminated in this trial!"

Shuai Qianhou smiled and said, "Those of you who are as strong as the top ten holders of the Divine Lord Rank, I allow you to join; I will take you to the central continent for the other fifty tokens, kill competitors of other continents, so we can loot their treasures and fortunes!”

“Ha, ha, ha...”

The brawny young man laughed. “Are you still daydreaming when death is at your door? You think you can make us fight each other with a few simple words? We’ll kill you, then we’ll share your treasure and tokens. You don’t get to tell us what to do!”

Shuai Qianhou narrowed his eyes. “Is that so? This is your last chance. It’s even merciful for your sake. You’ll wish you would have seized the chance once I get tired of waiting!”

Hundreds of other people looked at each other in bewilderment.

They had no idea why Shuai Qianhou and the others—who were surrounded at the moment—were that confident.

‘And even if those people were strong, everybody was a genius. The gap among them wasn’t that big. Besides, they outnumbered their enemies. Even though the man was on the top of the Divine Lord Rank, they could still kill him!

“Nonsense! This is a fair competition!” someone stood out and roared, “There’s no back door for you, even if you’re Shen Huang’s disciples!”

“That’s right. Let’s kill them first; they must have the secrets given by their master. It’s probably related to the legacy,” someone instigated.

Most of the people who talked didn’t think they were as strong as the top ten of the Divine Lord Rank. If anyone joined the other team, then they would be abandoned.

Therefore, in any case, they had to go and kill Shen Huang’s disciples. Then, they would redistribute their fortune.

“Junior brother...”

While Yu Jingze and the others tried to remain calm. His heart was beating fast. It had been pounding ever since the moment they saw such a huge alliance.

Shuai Qianhou might have a chance to get away, but they certainly couldn’t.

‘When Shuai Qianhou took out the tokens and declared that not only those who were as strong as the top ten of the Divine Lord Rank were qualified to join; they felt he was jabbing the temples of those desperadoes with needles, before he asked them “Did it hurt?”

It was just like trying to get killed!

‘Wanyan Shuang’s face was pale too. She had recognized the five men standing at the front; they were as strong as Shuai Qianhou. She didn’t know the red-robed young man leading them; besides, he was disguised.

In any case, he was very likely a tough figure too, since the brawny young man was voluntarily standing behind him.

She suddenly regretted accepting Shuai Qianhou’s invitation too soon.

She looked around, and considered how she could escape when the battle broke out.

Maybe—

Should I take the chance to stab them in the back?

But then, she soon noticed the guy standing peacefully in front of the shivering trio from the Loulan family.

It was none other than Su Ping.

That little Star State guy!

Why is he so calm?

‘Wanyan Shuang was shocked. She didn’t see any panic on the young man’s face. Instead, he was smiling, as if delighted by Shuai Qianhou's madness!

What is wrong with those two?

Or maybe, did they have trump cards she wasn't aware of?

'Wanyan Shuang felt shocked all of a sudden, and thought of something.

The Celestial expert's treasure!

Was the treasure giving them courage?

The more she thought about it, the more likely she believed it was so. Nobody knew what their master had left for them, but given his preparations for the legacy, it would certainly be extraordinary!

Roars were currently echoing in the sky.

More and more members of the alliance were shouting, vowing to kill Shuai Qianhou and the others to seize their tokens and treasures!

The red-robed young man leading the group chuckled and said, "Looks like you'll have to die."

Shuai Qianhou glanced at him casually. "And you are?"

The red-robed guy smiled and waved his hand. "Kill them!"

His short reply was his response to Shuai Qianhou's question.

Auras burst out and filled up the sky in the next moment. All those Star Lords fused with their pets, but didn't charge directly. However, a person standing behind the red-robed young man moved forward, and then a strange force field akin to a thundercloud manifested above Su Ping and his teammates.

All the attackers released their energy and sent it to the special force field, hoping to suppress and kill Su Ping and the others with laws and energy.

All of them were geniuses from various organizations; they were scared of the ultimate treasure that Su Ping carried.

Shuai Qianhou raised his head, then flashed a smile before he said, "Shatter!"

Bang, bang, bang, bang!

Members of the alliance exploded in an instant; just like fireworks, they burst into blood pulps!

Sharp and chaotic power of space emerged from deeper spaces, like bloodthirsty sharks that had found a blood scent; ancient whispers were echoing. Many of the weaker people started to scream as their minds broke.

Even more people were driven mad and exploded.

As for most of the casualties, they were simply penetrated by the power of space!

The perfect path of space enabled Shuai Qianhou to tap into power from the seventh space, even though he was just a Star Lord!

Outnumbered?

It meant nothing when dealing with the path of space!

It went on, one scream after the other; it was truly bloodcurdling. Wanyan Shuang's pupils contracted as she watched; she had seen that Shuai Qianhou had attained a perfect path of space, but she didn't know it was that powerful!

That was a sampling of how terrifying a perfect path was!

It was much more powerful than a simple mastery. The collision of laws alone was enough to crush thousands of enemies!

A hundred warriors who had surrounded them were killed by Shuai Qianhou with a single attack!

The brawny young man was staring coldly at Shuai Qianhou. He and his four partners didn't stop for a moment, as if happy to see what Shuai Qianhou was doing.

After all, those grunts were bound to be eliminated.

It mattered not whether they were killed by the latter or someone else.

“Help!”

“Help us! Aren’t we allies?!”

Those who were struggling to hold on roared in fury and shock, seeing that their leaders remained unconcerned.

However, most people chose to stay still. Besides the red-robed leader and his partners, many others resisted Shuai Qianhou’s attack calmly; they didn’t lift a hand to help their allies, either.

They were indeed part of an alliance, but that didn’t mean that they would readily help each other.

“Run!”

More and more people chose to run instead of becoming cannon fodder for the alliance; it was better to hide elsewhere. Maybe they would be able to pick up something in the end.

Chapter 1092: Clearance

“Even if they survive, they’ll just be losers unqualified to go to the central continent without the tokens.”

Someone smiled casually as they looked at the running allies.

Had it not been for that rule, they wouldn’t have minded killing all deserters because of their betrayal.

But first things first; their primary target was getting the tokens. A hundred people are able to resist the power of the sixth space... Yu Jingze and the others watched their opponents; most had escaped, while a hundred of them stayed. Those who had fled survived the attack, but none dared to linger for long.

As for the rest, they had been killed directly.

It only took ten seconds for a huge number of opponents to disappear, and just a hundred chose to remain.

It was an indicator—the hundred men could briefly stay in the seventh space!

The seventh space was traversed by Ascendants and above, as it contained unknown dangers, some of which had been buried for so long that they were threats even to Ascendants themselves.

Undoubtedly, the ones who remained were outstanding Star Lords from their respective forces.

All of them are usually hard to find; to think they would be here... Diaz looked awful. He realized that he was only subpar among the participants of the trial.

Loulan Lin was probably within the average range.

As for Su Ping... He was probably above average. Shuai Qianhou—a Star Lord who had grasped perfect paths—was undoubtedly at the very top.

Shuai Qianhou stared at the red-robed young man and the others before him, who remained motionless. However, the profound laws they harnessed were resisting the space power invasive attack.

Those five experts had undoubtedly grasped perfect paths.

But

He didn't expect to really hurt them with that single attack.

He had only used it to clear the area.

The clearing had yet to be finished.

"Void Flames!"

Shuai Qianhou raised his hand again. Scorching flames abruptly burst out of the void; they burned furiously and covered the entire sky.

The world seemed to have turned into a furnace, about to melt everybody!

They had grasped the fire law, and therefore didn't require oxygen; they spreaded in space while able to melt all the other laws. It was the second perfect path he knew!

"What the hell is this?"

"The path of fire. It's the perfect path of fire!" The formerly calm warriors who had remained were frightened at the moment. Only part of the seventh space had been replaced with a part of the outside world. All the victims had been killed by the seventh space itself.

But then, Shuai Qianhou started getting serious. He made use of his space power and the path of fire, making it ten times more damaging.

Those who had been merely defending themselves with laws and secret treasures met their end. Their treasures were melted and their laws were broken; the flames were so fierce that they couldn't use anything to block them.

The scorching power melted their senses, astral power, and laws!

"Help us!!!"

"Oh no...!" Some screamed and others moaned. Just like the previous victims, they had let out miserable cries and begged for help; even more people chose to flee from the area.

The enemy was much stronger than what they had imagined; it mattered not whether or not they were in an alliance. Besides, their alliance wasn't real to begin with.

Dozens more collapsed in the flames; even more people tried their best, using their secret treasures, forbidden skills, and other trump cards to escape from the fire.

Only twenty people stayed.

Roughly five of them were struggling to resist. Some had been deformed, turned into ghastly monsters; they seemed to be using a special ancient technique which granted them an enormous power.

However, the power couldn't reverse the invasion of the perfect path of fire.

The red-robed young man and the others stood still and ignored the screams.

The brawny young man had a cold look; he was seemingly unaware but also having expected something of the sort.

While standing behind Shuai Qianhou-Loulan Lin, Yu Jingze and the others were in shock. Most of the people who had surrounded them were eliminated. No wonder Shuai Qianhou didn't panic at all; he even provoked the survivors.

It was true that he was showing mercy by letting them join his team!

Wanyan Shuang, however, frowned; she knew Shuai Qianhou too well to be shocked. What worried her was that, even though many people had been eliminated, only the real bad a**es remained.

Some of them were probably just as strong as Shuai Qianhou.

“Void Flames!”

Shuai Qianhou waved his hand coldly. A purple blossom of flames was suddenly gathered in the void, then flew towards the survivors.

Purple flames splashed out from the flower of fire, then flying at their enemies like lotus flowers.

The red-robed young man stared at the scene, completely unconcerned about the situation. He remarked casually, “It's time.”

Behind him—the brawny young man who had spoken to Shuai Qianhou grinned and replied, “Let me try him out for size again!” He stepped up and roared loudly.

The void trembled, and a terrifying sound blast resounded; it wasn't a simple sonic wave; even so, it contained a special frequency. It was a law.

Shock!

There were some people hiding due to shock, who didn't flee to a far place; he had chosen to stay around and get the loot. He was ready to pick up the loot, but then he widened their eyes with fear. O The next moment... Their heads exploded. The sonic waves destroyed the purple flames. Yu Jingze and the others—who were behind Shuai Qianhou—quickly changed their expressions and merged with their pets, changing the laws around them. Any substance and energy approaching them would be turned to ice if they set up that law. Loulan Lin and the others reacted in time and set up other laws quickly, hoping to weaken the terrifying blast. The law of shock was quickly disseminated along with the sonic waves. Yu Jingze and the others changed their expressions, and then vomited blood.

They stepped back; Elena even grunted as she was flung back. All her facial organs were bleeding, making her pretty face look rather ghastly.

Wanyan Shuang had a cold demeanor. The law that surrounded her resisted the law of shock; she wasn't the main target anyway, and she resolved the attack without a sound.

She turned her head, only to find that a certain man in another direction had remained still.

It was none other than Su Ping.

The law of shock, however, disappeared without a sound; right when it approached Su Ping. It seemed to have collapsed on its own.

Su Ping was standing in front of the Loulans participating in the trial; they were completely unscathed. They also heard the sonic waves, but no one had been injured.

Wanyan Shuang narrowed her eyes. It was true that, even though the guy who easily killed Ye Ling was only in the Star State; he wasn't at all simple! "Mr. Su..."

The Loulan family members could not endure any more shocks, but then they saw that Shen Huang's other disciples, including Yu Jingze, were looking rather miserable and injured. They looked at Su Ping, realizing he had resisted the shock on their behalf.

Loulan Lin secretly gritted her teeth, while her face showed a troubled expression.

Further ahead-Shuai Qianhou was unaffected. He was already fighting the brawny young man. The torn flower of fire healed quickly. Then, purple flames were spread through veins that couldn't be seen in the void; they seemed to be tying up the brawny young man.

"Cut!" the brawny young man roared. That was the path of breaking, a second perfect path he had grasped.

The path of breaking consisted of sharpness traits, invasion, ruination, and the others. It was only less destructive than the ultimate law of destruction!

The law of destruction consisted of only one feature, which was destruction itself.

It was capable of obliterating everything. Including itself!

There was a boom, which was not a real sound; it was the rupture of laws that were only audible through the mind.

The spreading purple veins and flames were blocked. The brawny young man sneered; a dragon that looked like a scorpion and a dragon arose on his back and entered his body. His body was instantly expanded, and he grew sharp scales as he charged at Shuai Qianhou.

Shuai Qianhou was indifferent; he was surrounded by laws. The path of fire entered the void and combined with space, turning into sharp, purple fiery spears that stabbed the brawny man.

A giant axe showed up in the brawny man's hand; it contained terrifying laws, and was a powerful Star Lord; a treasure that innately carried multiple laws!

It contained multiple features; it was quite destructive and multipurpose.

Su ping gathered the path of breaking on the axe and waved it quickly, destroying the purple fiery spears. A Shuai Qianhou condensed a long spear in his hand upon seeing that; he tore the void apart and fought the guy. Space itself changed quickly. They soon fought all the way into the deeper spaces.

Noises originated from the void every now and then, as if a deeper space was being apart.

Everybody waited anxiously, and despair rose.

Only one of the opponents had already kept Shuai Qianhou occupied; even though Shuai Qianhou was indeed strong, he would have been unable to quickly finish off that opponent, which meant that his teammates were in great danger.

The battle continued. Shuai Qianhou and the brawny man were nowhere to be seen, even after several minutes passed; only the noises could be heard.

Facing them—the red-robed young man withdrew his gaze and chuckled. It seems that they're trying to break the tie. What about you? Shen Huang must have left important information for you, right? Tell me; I may reconsider sparing your lives for your master's sake. 1 Yu Jingze and the others had awful-looking expressions, and unconsciously glanced at Su Ping.

The latter was carrying the ultimate treasure. They could only hope that the treasure could beat those opponents. It would be impossible for their opponents to let them leave.

"Huh?"

The red-robed young man and his companions were surprised, seeing that everybody was looking at a Star State individual. Soon after, a person whispered something to them, and all of them seemed to have been enlightened..

Chapter 1093: Su Ping's Action

"So, you were the champion of the last Universe Geniuses' Contest; the Fate State warrior who condensed a small world... That's quite rare."

"Yes."

"He's already able to fend off Kepaf's attack easily, even though he's merely in the Star State. He can probably catch up with us in a thousand years."

Everybody glanced at Su Ping with great interest.

Not all of them had been training in seclusion all year round; some of them had been active, and had recognized Su Ping.

The rest of Shen Huang's disciples had been injured by the previous blast, while Su Ping and the members of the Loulan family he protected emerged unscathed. It was certainly unusual.

Loulan Lin and the others became nervous as they heard their discussion.

Shuai Qianhou, their stronger ally, was not present at the moment. There were a dozen enemies who were even stronger.

In particular, the red-robed young man and his companions seemed to be as strong as the brawny man Kepaf.

Everybody had fixed their eyes upon Su Ping; their sole hope at the moment was that Shen Huang's ultimate treasure could rescue them from their plight.

That guy is truly shrewd...

Su Ping glanced at the void for a moment, then looked away.

He heaved a sigh. Shuai Qianhou was a terrible actor; the man could have finished off his opponents easily, but he preferred to get rid of the liabilities through them.

The liabilities were, naturally, Diaz and the rest of them.

Even if they were all Shen Huang's disciples, they were only there to fill up the openings.

Shuai Qianhou had just joined them, and was determined to get the legacy; he didn't care about their lives, at all. He probably would have killed them himself; he refrained from doing so out of respect for his master.

Su Ping looked at the red-robed young man and said helplessly, "I have a proposal."

The red-robed young man raised his eyebrows. "I'm all ears."

"There aren't many people left here. We're all elites; there's no need for us to fight each other. We can all go to the central continent together... What do you think?" asked Su Ping.

Yu Jingze and the others were stunned. Then, they looked at their opponents nervously.

That was indeed a reasonable proposal.

Only thirty people in total remained.

There were only ten tokens, but the other twenty people could be transported in small worlds.

In fact, even if none of the candidates was eliminated, they could have been accommodated in one small world by someone who had a token.

After all, every small world was vast; even the small world of a normal Star Lord could easily accommodate hundreds of thousands of people.

They had been eliminating each other because they didn't want to catch the attention of other candidates when they entered the central continent. Furthermore, if they split up by then, all would become competitors, so it was better to just eliminate them in advance.

It would be hilarious if any of the weaklings picked up the legacy due to luck.

"You think we should go together?"

The red-robed young man raised his eyebrows and chuckled. "Indeed, those who remain are elites, but some of you aren't even capable of resisting the aftershock of Kepaf's attack; you're too weak for Shen Huang's disciples..."

Yu Jingze, Diaz and the others wore contorted expressions after that statement.

They felt depressed and frustrated.

Indeed.

They were injured because of the law's aftershock. They probably would have exploded like the rest of the victims if they were selected as targets.

They had been hoping to pass the first test with the items their master had given them.

Passing the second test with their willpower was possible willpower and their treasures.

As for the third test... Its content was still unknown, but it seemed to be the last test where one had to rely on oneself.

Unfortunately, the very first test of the trial had proved to be considerably difficult.

All of them were geniuses who could dominate dozens of galaxies in the outside world. And yet, they were simply vulnerable.

Diaz looked miserable. It was but until that moment when he finally realized how wide the gap between him and Su Ping was.

He was injured, while Su Ping was absolutely fine; the guy had even protected three representatives of the Loulan family.

“Junior Brother Su...” Yu Jingze looked at Su Ping, with an ever-changing expression. Su Ping was undoubtedly qualified to compete for the key in the central continent.

As for them...

They would probably hold Su Ping back if they chose to continue—

But they were unwilling to quit; not when the legacy awaited them!

They had to fight for it, even if the chances were slim!

“Junior Brother Su, can the ultimate treasure finish them off?” Elena asked Su Ping; she wore a troubled expression while gritting her teeth, unwilling to quit just yet.

Su Ping glanced at Elena and slightly shook his head.

The ultimate treasure was for the tougher guys. How could it be used that soon?

Elena’s face became grave after seeing his headshake.

She didn’t know whether or not the ultimate treasure could save them, but Su Ping’s gesture was a clear no.

Maybe his junior brother saw them as a liability too.

After all, they were also his competitors for the legacy!

Elena was gloomy. She didn’t really blame Su Ping, as his decision was understandable; it was her feeling out of sorts.

“Please, for my sake, or for my master’s sake, let’s postpone the discussion until Junior Brother Qianhou finishes the battle, shall we?” asked Su Ping again.

Hope surfaced in the eyes of Yu Jingze and the others. Their eyes were locked on their opponents.

“For your sake?”

The red-robed young man wore a weird expression; someone even chuckled.

“Sorry. Even Shen Huang is nothing compared to the true god’s legacy,” said the red-robed young man, without any room for ambiguity.

“I’ll give you a chance to reveal the intelligence related to the ultimate treasure. If you do that, I’ll allow you to join us; if not, all of you will be buried here forever.”

Su Ping frowned. “So, no negotiation?”

“On the count of three,” said the red-robed young man curtly.

“Aren’t you afraid that I’ll take you down with me using the ultimate treasure?” asked Su Ping curiously.

The red-robed leader narrowed his eyes; the expressions of his companions became solemn.

In fact, they were clearly worried.

The ultimate treasure left by Shen Huang was unknown.

Most importantly, Su Ping was behaving all too casually.

How could he be that daring without a trump card?

“We’ll have to find out how powerful it is,” said the red-robed young man casually as he stared at Su Ping, “We have to get the ultimate treasure. We would be at a disadvantage against those who have one.”

His reasoning changed the minds of the people with second thoughts.

Indeed.

Some of them considered compromising and going to the central continent with Su Ping.

Still, just as their leader had said, they would be at a disadvantage on the central continent if they didn’t have the ultimate treasure!

The circumstances could be even more unfavorable!

Someone stood out and said coldly, “Surrender the treasure and your lives shall be spared; you don’t want to get yourself killed!”

Yu Jingze and the others, however, gathered around Su Ping; what the latter had said gave them some hope. Jiang Si whispered, “Junior Brother Su, just fight them with the ultimate treasure!”

“They won’t let us go. Let’s march out!” said Yu Jingze.

Diaz wore a troubled, yet silent expression.

While ignoring those two seniors who had spoken, Su Ping said to Wanyan Shuang, “Can you take care of those three friends for me?”

“Huh?”

Wanyan Shuang was stunned, not expecting Su Ping to interact with her.

She had a strange feeling when she saw Su Ping's eyes, which were absolutely tranquil. The man wasn't just confident; he was casual, as if nothing dangerous happened.

"I'll try," replied Wanyan Shuang, not making any promises.

She was still considering whether to stab them in the back and join the other side or not.

Su Ping nodded, and then patted Diaz' shoulder. "Take care of yourself."

Diaz felt surprised; he looked at Su Ping.

Then, he saw the latter step forward, towards the red-robed young man and his companions.

One step after the other.

Su Ping walked very casually; his every step was exactly of the same length.

"Huh?"

The red-robed young man and all the others became gloomy after seeing Su Ping's advance. It had become clear that he was determined to fight them!

The young leader gave an instruction with a cold voice, "Finish him off!"

He didn't attack in person, as Su Ping's boldness suggested that he was very likely carrying the ultimate treasure.

The others thought of that too; none of them was willing to be the first to test how powerful the treasure was.

The red-robed leader frowned, then pointed at two men who had resisted Shuai Qianhou's Void Flames earlier. "You two, finish him off; he's barely in the Star State. What are you afraid of?"

The two of them instantly wore conflicting expressions.

He's a mere Star State warrior? Then, why aren't you not fighting for him?

His cultivation is low; and yet, he was too bold. So, he's definitely carrying the ultimate treasure!

"I'll kill you first if you don't go," The red-robed young man stared at him with intimidating eyes, as if he were going to fulfill his threat immediately.

The two companions wore extremely awful expressions; they had witnessed the young man's combat ability, and knew they couldn't possibly fight him.

They were caught in a dilemma. They gritted their teeth and charged at Su Ping in the end.

Boom!

They unleashed their strength; their pets emerged, riding behind their backs, quickly fusing with them, making them significantly stronger than before.

They looked at each other, then marched towards Su Ping from two directions.

They had each released the secret skills they knew, before they approached.

A strange lightning bolt darted forth. It was a mixture from the laws of lightning and chaos. It was the Chaotic Lightning!

That was an ancient technique seemingly forgotten for a long time, until it was used again.

On the other side—a dark crescent blade was sweeping enemies from the other place. Even though it wasn't perfect, it was a combination of multiple laws, upon which the complex features and shocking damage were manifested.

Neither of them had grasped a perfect path, but they were so familiar with their laws that they were able to resist attacks derived from perfect paths!.

Chapter 1094: Execution

“Mr. Su!”

Both Loulan Jue and Loulan Hai changed their expressions upon seeing the incoming attacks; they were as powerful as those of the top three Star Lords on the Divine Lord Rank! Everybody narrowed their eyes as they waited to witness the power of the ultimate treasure.

Su Ping, however, didn't do anything; he simply continued his peaceful walk as the attacks reached him.

Disappear!

The thunderous powerful techniques vanished upon reaching a ten meter distance from Su Ping, just like flames falling into the sea.

They were extinguished.

All the people present was stunned.

“Is it a law?”

The red-robed young man frowned and became solemn. He saw a special law around Su Ping, which had undoubtedly suppressed all the attacks.

However, he had never seen laws like that one.

Did the man create the law by himself?

He discarded the thought as soon as it occurred to him, since it was absolutely impossible.

It was impossible for someone in the Star State to create their own law!

“It's a very special law. Did some Heavenly Lord teach him?” someone asked in confusion.

Some Ascendants would create their own laws; ones that didn't exist in their universe. Everyone else would have to experience them in battle to know them.

However, understanding those laws could be very risky; they could influence the learner, and even bring about special connections.

Connections weren't good things. It was a disturbance that could make it harder for them to reach the Ascendant State!

Why did the understanding of laws from their universe not cause such connections?

That was a question which many famous schools in the universe asked in their admission exams. It was because humans and the universe were always connected; the universe was so vast that its potential disturbance on the lives of each individual was insignificant. In fact, even consciousness and lives themselves were caused by disturbances of the universe.

To put it simply, being one's own master was an illusion. All lives—their everything, including their thoughts and minds, were created in the environment known as the universe.

In any case, Su Ping was able to use the law to resist the attacks easily, which proved a lot of things!

It had to be noted that the Chaotic Lightning contained the supreme law of chaos!

'What kind of law could compare to the supreme law?

That is, unless Su Ping's understanding of the law was deeper, or maybe even... perfect!

He's barely in the Star State, yet he grasped a perfect path?

'The two attackers were also shocked. They didn't consider Su Ping as a big deal, and were only scared of the ultimate treasure he was carrying. However, their attacks didn't force him to use it.

'They glanced at each other and gritted their teeth. Conversely, they would have to use their trump cards.

There was a boom; astral power and divine light surged from their bodies. That was the divine power that the forces behind them had gathered for them; it was much more powerful than astral power. Once they were boosted by the divine power, both of them used their ultimate techniques; chaotic lightning was instantly gathered once more in the void.

This time, however, the lightning wasn't shot out; it gradually morphed into a bow. Some lightning bolts slithered and quickly gathered to create a golden arrow!

On the other side—the young man who had mastered traits of multiple laws also gathered a black ball that looked like a collapsed black hole, drawing a terrifying force of attraction and destruction.

It was a rampant and disorderly power of law, almost as ravaging as the law of destruction!

Su Ping stopped and raised his head, as if oblivious about the two attackers until that very moment. He glanced at the red-robed young man and shook his head. "What a boring test."

Bang!

The void trembled; both attackers immediately released their moves, taking advantage of the weakness Su Ping had exposed while talking!

The golden chaos arrow—which contained infinite destructive power—was released, shattering space. It approached instantly, going at the fastest speed possible inside the sixth space.

On the other hand, the dark ball almost arrived at the same time, leaving a black trajectory.

But then a shocking scene took place. Su Ping didn't budge to avoid the two terrifying techniques; they seemed ready to shatter the world.

The arrow was rushing toward his head; it reached the area within ten meters of him, but then it was stuck in a point found a few inches from his forehead, unable to press further.

The brilliance of laws at the front of the arrow began to disperse, as if infinite power were being unleashed. Even the air had been compressed into an arc, like a rocket, but it couldn't proceed any further.

'The destructive black sphere attacked Su Ping's back, but ended up stuck as well.

Fierce flames appeared out of nowhere.

'They were fierce, explosive and crazy!

It seemed as if the fire would consume the world. The arrowhead began to burn all of a sudden, and the dark ball was surrounded by flames too.

The black ball turned into a fireball!

The golden arrow had turned into a fiery arrow!

Those weren't real flames. It was a law-based fire: it was the perfect path of fire!

Everyone was shocked. The Star State guy has in fact mastered a perfect path!

The two attackers were the most shocked of all. Shock immediately turned into excruciating pain, as if their blood were burning.

'The flames consumed Su Ping, making him look like a god basking in fire.

In the next moment, both the fire and Su Ping disappeared.

"Oh no!" someone exclaimed.

Up in the sky—Su Ping appeared in front of one of them, like a ghost. He extended a finger and touched a forehead; the man in question looked back in shock.

Fire burst out after a boom sound. The young man's body was like an exploding oil tank. He was shrouded in flames.

The flames couldn't be extinguished, even if sent to a place ten thousand meters below the sea surface. They would only dry the ocean in an instant!

That was the law of fire!

The scream echoed in the sky, making a lot of people gasp hard.

Su Ping disappeared again, reappearing next to the other young man.

'The young man had reacted the moment he saw his partner die; he ran to the red-robed young man in panic, then tore space open around him, so that Su Ping couldn't flash to him.

However, Su Ping still appeared like a ghost. He could use Void Walker and create a road with the power of space he borrowed elsewhere.

“No...!”

He pressed his finger, ending the rest of the young man’s begging.

Another scream burst out.

Two seconds passed, and his voice became hoarse; his vocal cords seemed to have been burnt. He wailed like a beast, and then fell quiet. His body fell, but it was entirely consumed before it hit the ground.

‘There weren’t any bones or ashes left.

It was impossible to bring him back to life with the law of vitality or any other lifesaving law. The path of fire would burn all laws.

Su Ping glanced at the red-robed young man and the others. He didn’t stop this time; he dashed forward, determined to finish the battle as soon as possible.

He preferred not to waste any more time since there was no more room for negotiations. All of them had to die!

The deaths of the two young men left the red-robed leader and his companions gloomy. They were shocked by Su Ping’s strength, and scared due a sudden realization—

‘The remaining cannon fodder who had yet to grasp a perfect path would probably be unable to force Su Ping to use the ultimate treasure.

However, it was a miracle even for Star Lords to grasp a perfect path.

Very few of the ones present had grasped a perfect path; those who did were qualified to go to the central continent, as they were rare, veritable geniuses. Any of them could easily crush the top position holder of the Divine Lord Rank.

Most of them had stopped competing for that recognition.

After all, they would have to at least fight someone every three thousand years to remain in the listings.

‘The pursuit of perfect paths would entail secluded training; every session would take a long time. They couldn’t be distracted by anything, and staying at the top of the list was no longer interesting for them.

“Go finish him off,” said the young leader with a gloomy tone.

He was speaking to his three companions.

Nobody except that trio would pose a real threat to Su Ping in that place.

Their expressions changed a bit, but no one said a thing. They knew that the only solution was to kill Su Ping and get the ultimate treasure.

Reconciliation? Even if Su Ping agreed to that, he would still be holding the ultimate treasure.

They would still surely be abandoned if they went to the central continent without the treasure.

“He’s just a Star State warrior anyway. I’ll have him know that life is much more precious than death! Those Celestial experts are just a bunch of cunning guys. It’s not a fair competition at all!”

A young man stepped up, pride shining in his eyes. He began to despise the twelve Celestials since he entered the trial.

They stood at the top of the universe, and talked about ethics and morals all the time, but they forgot all about the dignity of their status when faced by temptation. Nobody should ever take the fairness they proclaimed seriously!

Die!

Dazzling lightning emerged. It was the perfect path of lightning.

An infinite number of lightning bolts were slithering in the void above the man’s head, turning the area in a radius of several kilometers into a lightning hell. His long hair fluttered; it seemed that each of his hairs carried the nature of lightning.

He radiated the brilliance of lightning; his muscles were as beautiful as those on a statue. A divine sword appeared in his hand. A beast that looked like a giant spider showed up right behind him. The deep purple eyes on the beast’s forehead could have stunned and toppled a dragon.

‘The beast fused with him; purple eyes instantly grew on his forehead.

After a boom, the young man stepped on the lightning and charged at Su Ping ruthlessly with his sword. Lightning made way like seawater wherever he passed; he was like the God of Lightning.

Fierce flames versus violent lightning. Two different perfect laws glowed in the sky.

The entire sky was illuminated with their collision, and the most unbelievable scene was depicted—

The magnificent young man’s sword was broken, and his lightning was destroyed. He was cut into halves!

Chapter 1095: Meltdown

They had expected a fierce collision, but the battle had quickly reached an end.

Yu Jingze, Wanyan Shuang, Loulan Lin and the others were still shocked because of the perfect path that Su Ping had mastered; all of them received a second shock with the last clash, feeling that their heads had exploded.

On the other hand, the red-robed young man and his companions changed their expressions.

“How was that possible?” someone exclaimed in shock.

‘That young man was as strong as Kepaf, who was fighting Shuai Qianhou at the moment. Both had once been famous Star Lords tens of thousands of years in the past. Still, he had been executed the moment he met Su Ping!

The gap between them shouldn’t have been as vast!

Besides, Su Ping was just in the Star State!

“The perfect supreme law of chaos...” The red-robed leader’s mood became awful and gloomy. The others had not seen the whole thing, but he did.

Su Ping had mastered not one, but two perfect paths!

One of them was even a supreme law. It was unbelievable!

Supreme laws were usually a hundred times more difficult to attain than normal laws!

That was not an exaggeration. Most normal Star Lords of the universe would grasp plenty of common laws, such as wind, fire, lightning, and the like, but it was very difficult to master the supreme laws, such as time, chaos and vitality!

No more than one Star Lord in a hundred could understand a supreme law!

Full comprehension would be enough to rise all the way to the Divine Lord Ranks top three, if not the very top!

Perfect understanding was challenging on a different level.

“Master said that it’s possible to grasp a perfect path in the Star State. I didn’t know it could really happen...”

“Aside from Junior Brother Shuai Qianhou, Junior Brother Su has...”

“Even Master was unaware of this, right?”

Yu Jingze, Jiang Si and the others were absolutely shocked. They had thought that their master was purposefully giving them a hard time, and that only geniuses like Shuai Qianhou could accomplish his assignments.

They didn’t realize that Su Ping would also be capable of such feats.

Furthermore, he had accomplished it in an even shorter time!

They all knew that it had been only a few years since Su Ping participated in the contest, and that he could have only cultivated for a couple of decades at most.

Diaz was too shocked for words. He remembered participating in the contest along with Su Ping, and being left in the dust by him. The gap between them was getting wider and wider!

He had one of the best constitutions of the universe, which meant that he would be able to easily grasp the path of reincarnation as soon as he reached his full potential, all the way to a perfect attainment!

His elite constitution had given him a perfect path since birth; all he needed to do was activate it!

However, he had only been able to fully master the law of reincarnation; he was still far from perfection at the moment.

He had thought that he would reach perfection sooner and surpass Su Ping.

As it turned out, Su Ping had completely left him behind!

“Two paths...”

'Wanyan Shuang had finally realized why Su Ping was so calm.

That Star State guy was the other monster that had been hiding in the team!

He was even more talented than Shuai Qianhou!

Shuai Qianhou had grasped a perfect path within a span of three thousand years; he also reached the top of the Divine Lord Rank, even though he had only been a Star State warrior back then, shocking the universe.

Su Ping had just achieved the same thing, and was even more remarkable!

It's likely that nothing is worth taking the risk for him, except for the true god's legacy; he only needs to cultivate and reach the Ascendant State. He will surely become a top Heavenly Lord by then. It's very likely that he'll rise to the Celestial State on his own! Wanyan Shuang thought.

Up in the sky—

Su Ping didn't pause after dealing with the lightning young man; he immediately marched forth to clash with the red-robed young man.

Whoosh!

He moved very fast, and appeared next to a young man at the edge of the group.

The young man was frightened to see Su Ping's face. He quickly released plenty of laws and said in panic, "Don't kill me! I'm out!"

Bang!

Su Ping gathered the flames to form a sword and slash out.

You're out?

It's too late.

Besides, even if he said that, it might be a ruse.

He could return if the chance arose.

The fire straight off burned and cut off the laws around the young man. The young man's body was set ablaze in the next moment.

Su Ping didn't stop there; he moved towards another guy.

The dozen survivors left were looking at Su Ping with fright. The young man that Su Ping had just killed was the actual first place of the Divine Lord Rank!

However, he had been utterly helpless in front of Su Ping, who had only stood out in recent years!

Whoosh!

Su Ping dashed onward to attack a woman.

“Don’t kill me. I’m willing to stay here until the end of the trial...” The woman fled in panic. She had thought that Shuai Qianhou—the only tricky opponent in her eyes—was already being held back. Little did she know that an even more horrifying monster was hiding there!

Su Ping raised his eyebrows upon seeing her face and stopped attacking. He turned around and looked for another target.

Su Ping had seen the woman on the Divine Lord Rank; she was the tenth place holder. She had practiced with Su Ping a lot of times during the challenges, and he benefited a lot from sparring with her.

He spared her life and returned the favor.

The woman was stunned to see Su Ping disappear. She then shivered after hearing screams, then watched Su Ping hunting others, wondering why he had spared her.

The others had begged for mercy too, but they were all killed without exception.

She could not figure it out. She even thought that it had been all thanks to her excessive beauty. In any case, she no longer dared to stay; the best geniuses of the universe had gathered in a slaughterhouse. Even the first place of the Divine Lord Rank had been killed. That was just one of the twelve continents!

The dozen people around the red-robed young man started to flee in panic as Su Ping went on hunting.

Their alliance was already a joke at that moment.

The intimidating three-hundred-strong alliance had been reduced to just the red-robed leader and his companions.

Su Ping watched the others flee after killing five people in a row, not bothering to give chase. He looked at the red-robed young man and the two men next to him.

The red-robed leader was visibly angry, quite unlike his former serene attitude. His eyes twitched every time Su Ping killed someone; their screams were like slaps on his face.

This time, he really wanted to stop Su Ping, but he didn’t dare to.

Su Ping had the ultimate treasure he had to stay wary of. If Su Ping used it while drawing his full strength, the strike would be too powerful!

His companions looked awful. The young man harnessing lighting who had fought earlier was as strong as them, but Su Ping had killed him instantly. Their ending wouldn’t be very good even if they were prepared.

“Only the three of you are left now.”

Su Ping stopped and looked down at them.

The red-robed young man discarded his frustration and said calmly, “You’ve mastered the perfect laws of chaos and fire. Given your Star State cultivaton, you will certainly be remembered by history.”

Su Ping stared at him quietly.

“I retract what I said. We’re willing to join your team.” The red-robed young man raised his head and stared at Su Ping.

Yu Jingze and the others behind Su Ping felt relieved after hearing the offer.

It was great that those people were giving in.

Su Ping smiled and said, “I retract what I said too.”

The red-robed young man also felt relieved. He said, “In that case, we only want three tokens instead of the ultimate treasure...”

Before he could finish—Su Ping had already started shaking his head.

“You’re mistaken. I meant that I’m taking back my invitation,” said Su Ping.

The red-robed leader’s face stiffened.

Yu Jingze and the others also changed their expressions, not expecting him to be that tough. Was he that confident of killing them?

But their leader had yet to make a move; no one knew what trump cards he could have. However, he was undoubtedly stronger than the others who mastered perfect paths!

“Instead of a win-win, you want a lose-lose?” The red-robed young man stared at Su Ping coldly.

He knew that pleading wouldn’t help. People like them rarely changed their minds once decisions were made.

Su Ping shook his head. “Only one of us will lose. Don’t overestimate yourself.”

The red-robed young man laughed out of anger. “You think you’re the only one who has mastered ultimate perfect laws. I would have gladly tried your other trump cards if it weren’t for the ultimate treasure!”

“There’s nothing. I don’t have any more trump cards,” said Su Ping.

The red-robed young man was stunned for a moment; he then glared at Su Ping. Do you honestly expect me to believe what you’re saying?

Su Ping, however, ignored him. As far as he was concerned, the guy was already a dead man that he shouldn’t waste his time on.

He looked in a certain direction within the deeper spaces, then said, “Aren’t you tired of watching? Time to clean up the mess. He’s yours; the other two are mine.”

Both Yu Jingze and Loulan Lin were stunned by what he said.

Then, they heard a noise coming from the void. In the next moment, a person stepped out with a muscular man in tow; it was none other than Kepaf who had been fighting against Shuai Qianhou. Kepaf was at the moment being handled like a dead dog.

They had been fighting evenly in the deeper spaces. But then, Kepaf realized that Shuai Qianhou changed after Su Ping called out to his junior.

Then, he was reduced to such a miserable state.

“Run... for your life...” Kepaf struggled to say.

Shuai Qianhou smiled and unleashed laws in his hand. Then, Kepaf’s head exploded.

He casually threw the body away toward Yu Jingze and the others, making them unconsciously step back.

“Senior Brother Su, you’ve been hiding yourself really well, haven’t you?” Shuai Qianhou narrowed his eyes and smiled, with a strange light in his eyes.

If he hadn’t observed the battle, he would have never expected that the “senior brother” he had never truly respected was actually a really gifted individual!

Did their master know that?

If he had, he probably wouldn’t have sent Su Ping to that trial..

Chapter 1096: The Last Man

“Die!”

The red-robed young man changed his expression upon seeing Kepaf dead, but it was pointless to say anything else. He was the first to march towards Shuai Qianhou.

He inferred that Su Ping was very likely carrying the ultimate treasure.

It wasn’t only because of Su Ping’s confidence, but also because Shuai Qianhou had shown the seven tokens.

Su Ping was too talented and strong to give away the ultimate treasure and tokens to others. He certainly didn’t think he would do that if he were Su Ping.

Even if the others were his senior brothers and sisters, so what? Not even one’s own parents could be trusted when dealing with the true god’s legacy!

The moment he attacked, the red-robed young man said to his companions telepathically, “Just stall him!”

He believed that they wouldn’t escape, unless they were willing to give up the opportunity to get the legacy. Begging would also mean death; that was the only chance to fight!

Indeed, they weren’t going to run for their lives; they simply approached Su Ping, more solemn and grave than before.

‘They wanted to stall Su Ping, and then wait until the red-robed young man finished off Shuai Qianhou, all to join hands and slay Su Ping afterwards!

“You’re sure that I’m not carrying the ultimate treasure?”

Shuai Qianhou realized what the red-robed leader was up to. He heaved a sigh; his earlier scheme was too short for him to figure out what Su Ping was capable of.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have agreed to leave the ultimate treasure to Su Ping.

To be honest, he didn't really want to fight the guy; he wanted the latter to fight with Su Ping, so that he could see more of this senior brother's capabilities.

However, the red-robed young man was already charging at him, exactly as Su Ping planned. So, he could only act and take care of the man.

Bang!

Space was twisted like a muddy swamp that consumed the red-robed leader.

The two of them quickly disappeared as they went into deeper spaces. This time, they went all the way to the seventh space.

Shuai Qianhou believed it was impossible for Su Ping to detect anything if he fought there.

After all, it was a domain for Ascendants and above; he wouldn't have dared to go there without the perfect path of space.

His choice was intended to prevent Su Ping from seeing his trump cards, and to slay his opponent while taking advantage of that deep space.

"What a petty man..."

Su Ping raised his brows and shook his head as he watched Shuai Qianhou disappear. He looked at the other two opponents and thought for a moment. He then said, "Let's have a chat."

"Achat?"

The proposal stunned them; the two glanced at each other, unsure of Su Ping's intentions.

"I'm tired from the previous battle. Let me take a rest," said Su Ping.

The two men: "??"

Tired?

Do you even look tired?

Besides, if the battle were truly exhausting, why didn't you merge with your pets?

You're not even using your pets. It's obvious that you're not trying your best!

The two of them grumbled, but what Su Ping said was exactly what they wanted; their purpose was to hold Su Ping back until the red-robed young man finished with his battle.

"Alright, let's chat." One of them accepted the invitation, only to find that Su Ping was picking his ears, obviously not interested in talking to him.

You proposed a chat, and now you're not interested in talking?

Su Ping gazed into the void and thought for a moment, before he said to the two guys, "Why don't you wait here while I get some oranges?"

'They were stunned again.

Get... some oranges?

"Never mind; you might not be obedient. I should just finish you off and then 'help' him," Su Ping mumbled to himself.

He didn't want to miss the opportunity of observing Shuai Qianhou's combat ability and trump cards.

Their faces quickly showed anger after hearing what Su Ping said.

Is he messing with us?

Or is he simply a psycho?

He first wanted to talk, then get oranges, and then finish us off. What exactly does he want?

"Die!"

Both resorted to action because of anger, going all out; they even thought they had been tricked.

Su Ping gathered fiery blades of laws in his hand. He moved with Sun Chaser and Void Walker, disappearing like a ghost; nobody was able to detect him. The law-based protection didn't find Su Ping, either. But very soon, one of them changed his expression.

"Right..."

Hardly had he uttered a word when Su Ping appeared. Or rather, his burning sharp blades appeared.

'The man roared in fury and shock upon seeing the sharp blades; his body expanded, and battle tattoos appeared on his body. His shadow flashed towards the blades.

The intangible shadow collided with the fiery blades, producing deafening noises.

Su Ping was slightly surprised. It was quite a unique path, as it would be perfect in assassinations.

Seizing the opportunity, the man quickly swallowed a pill and injected a purple potion into his arm. His astral power surged crazily, as if it were boiling.

Although the improvement wasn't very significant for him anymore, every bit of additional power increased his chance to survive at the moment.

But all hope was quickly dispelled.

Su Ping charged again.

He went after the young man who had turned into a half beast, cutting him without mercy.

Many laws collapsed in front of the edge.

The young man roared and activated his small world, which was extremely solid. It crashed into Su Ping like a brilliant star.

All the power of his laws was gathered on the surface of the small world. An infinite amount of faith power was bursting out of the small world.

But then, Su Ping's fiery blade cut into the small world.

"No way..."

'The young man's eyes almost exploded. His small world had condensed all his laws and was unimaginably powerful; how could it not resist Su Ping's strike?

Very soon, he felt that his laws were collapsing and crumbling. He was devastated by the aura of an unusual yet familiar law.

It was the supreme law of chaos!

Everything was reduced to chaos and nothingness!

His perfect path of shadow was dissolved too. All the laws collapsed and all order was broken.

There was an explosion, and his small world exploded.

Su Ping had grasped a perfect supreme path; he was as different from Su Ping as he was from a normal Star Lord.

All his body bled once his small world exploded, making his face look extremely ghastly. Then, his head exploded all of a sudden.

Everything came to an end in the blink of an eye. Su Ping executed him and immediately went after the other person.

"Don't come any closer!"

The other young man was pale, as he didn't have the courage to fight; he turned tail and fled.

However, Su Ping quickly caught up to him using the Sun Chaser technique.

'The young man knew many secret techniques and was quite agile. However, he was eclipsed in every aspect. It was a slaughter.

After a boom, he was slashed and burned.

Two unparalleled Star Lords who had grasped perfect paths perished in an instant.

'The Star Lords who had made a run for it were hoping to check the result, but their hearts started pounding upon seeing the appalling scenario. The desperate ones simply ran to the distance, waiting to be freed from that slaughterhouse after the trial ended.

"Is this what Mr. Su is truly capable of?"

"That's terrifying!"

Loulan Lin and the others were shocked and speechless.

Loulan Feng wore a conflicted expression. He felt regretful; had he been friendlier when Loulan Feng introduced him to Su Ping, he might have had a chance to learn a thing or two from him.

Thaven't even mastered the four supreme laws yet. As for the perfect paths that are on a higher level... We're still too far away from the peak.

All of them were thinking the same.

Yu Jingze and the others had the same feeling.

They had always considered themselves to be at the apex of the Star Lord pyramid. They had just realized that they were actually at the bottom.

Once all the geniuses of the universe gathered, the real geniuses would come to light.

Diaz, of all people, had the deepest feelings. He had participated in the contest with Su Ping; it had only been a few years since then, but the gap between them was devastating.

He always considered himself a genius, believing that he would surely become a celebrity with the Reincarnation Divine Constitution.

He finally realized that he was just a lucky, yet mediocre person.

Su Ping entered the deeper spaces while they wallowed in troubling feelings.

He arrived in the sixth space, but didn't see any traces of battle. However, there were auras of Shuai Qianhou's laws nearby, which seemed to be left over from the battle with the brawny man.

They're in the seventh space? Su Ping frowned.

It was indeed possible for Shuai Qianhou to stay in the seventh space with his perfect path of space.

He wasn't an Ascendant, but he was capable of doing what those in the Ascendant State could. That made him a genius!

Su Ping considered for a moment, but then immediately broke the void with the law of chaos. He stepped into the seventh space.

At the same time, he hid the laws of illusion and origin inside of his body in case of any danger.

Fortunately, he had been to the seventh space in cultivation sites a long time before. He would die all the time, but he visited it now and then. So, he wasn't a stranger to the place.

Roar!

The vague whispers next to his ears became clearer the moment Su Ping stepped in. He fell into a trance-like state as he saw giants and beasts roaring in front of him.

They were extremely vivid.

A complex power of laws was gathered in his eyes; Su Ping observed the scene with the eyes of origin and the illusions were soon gone. He felt that the nearby space was shaking, which was a telltale of a fight.

Su Ping narrowed his eyes, noticing it was in fact Shuai Qianhou and the red-robed young man.

Their battle was rather weird; the laws around them were in disarray. What surprised him was that the red-robed young man seemed to have mastered the path of time to perfection.

Shuai Qianhou, on the other hand, was shrouded by many spaces. There was also the aura of the law of destruction... He was also in possession of a perfect supreme law!

The red-robed young man's actions gave Su Ping an idea.. Is he trying to travel to another time?

Chapter 1097: Competition of Divine Constitutions

The red-robed young man was extremely furious as he fought.

His plan was to use the path of time to kill Shuai Qianhou when he was weak in the past!

If he attacked the man in the past, the latter would be greatly wounded in the future, if not destroyed in the river of time.

However, Shuai Qianhou was more troublesome than he expected. The guy had also mastered a perfect path!

The law of destruction!

His law of time was constantly destroyed and neutralized, making it impossible for him to return to the past. They were currently caught in an impasse.

'The red-robed young man knew that his two companions weren't enough to stop Su Ping. The latter would soon catch up and join the battle if he wasn't able to win quickly; the situation would turn dire. Damn, damn, damn, DAMN YOu!!

'The red-robed young man glared at his opponent.

He knew Shuai Qianhou, who was ten thousand years younger than him.

The latter had risen and left a mark in the Federation as soon as the former chose to retire from the Divine Lord Rank.

But he was already pursuing a perfect path back then, so he really didn't care about the guy. Little did he expect for the small kid to grow into such a tricky enemy in their next encounter.

"Is this what you're capable of?"

Shuai Qianhou fought his enemy with the path of fire, while destroying time and space. He chuckled after seeing how anxious the red-robed young man was.

"You'd better hurry, or you will surely die when my junior brother gets here."

"You want to kill me?"

'The red-robed young man laughed out of fury. "You don't know the first thing about the path of time! Nobody below the Ascendant State can kill me, unless I'm willing to die!"

Shuai Qianhou chuckled and said, "If you're so awesome, why are you fighting for the ultimate treasure?"

The red-robed young man was silent for a moment, then said angrily, "No one can have too many trump cards. You, on the other hand, have cultivated for fifty thousand years, yet a junior snatched the ultimate treasure while you only grabbed the tokens. I feel sorry for you. Oh yeah, he's even your senior brother. Haha. Hilarious!"

"Are you trying to get a rise out of me?"

Shuai Qianhou narrowed his eyes. "You're just the same, aren't you? You don't dare to fight him. I was hoping to find out how many trump cards you could force him to use."

"He has mastered the perfect law of chaos. Isn't that his trump card?" replied the red-robed young man to mock him.

"Maybe. Alas, I've never seen him fighting with all his strength..." Shuai Qianhou attacked fiercely with the path of fire from one side while defending himself.

The red-robed young man blinked and resisted Shuai Qianhou's attacks. "Since you're wary of your little senior brother, how about we work together and rob him of the ultimate treasure? You would get to keep the treasure and I'll take the tokens. We'll go to the central continent together!"

"Do you take me for a fool?" Shuai Qianhou sneered. "You'll fight me for the treasure as soon as we finish him off. I'm not scared of you, but I'd rather cooperate with him than with you!"

"Your little senior brother has grasped a perfect supreme law, even though he's only in the Star State. Who do you think between you and your little senior brother is more likely to win the legacy if you don't get the key and have to pass the other tests?"

The red-robed young man sneered and continued, "That ancient true god surely wanted to pass his legacy to the most talented candidate. Although you're also gifted, you're not as good as your little senior brother, are you?"

Shuai Qianhou frowned for a moment.

Indeed.

The red-robed young man did touch upon a subject he was most concerned about.

His main goal was to win the key and reach the legacy sooner, but that was a competition encompassing twelve star zones anyway. He knew of many other Star Lords who were trickier to deal with than the red-robed young man.

He had more trump cards, but he wasn't 100% confident of winning the key.

Should the third test be about potential and talent, Su Ping would surely be more extraordinary than him if he lost and had to compete with Su Ping later on.

It was already remarkable enough for him to grasp one perfect path back when he had a Star State cultivation. Even his master was amazed at him. However, he wasn't as good as his senior brother by a fair margin!

Shen Huang probably didn't know his disciple had been hiding that well!

He might have accepted more of Su Ping's outrageous requests had he been aware, just to keep the man on his side.

"How about it? What do you think?" asked the red-robed young man. "I'm no threat to you. Let's just kill him; you'll have the ultimate treasure, and I'll keep the tokens. Will you still be scared of me if you have the ultimate treasure?"

"Shut up!" Shuai Qianhou yelled at him, and attacked even more furiously.

Their intense fight prevented them from noticing that a transparent shadow was standing quietly at a certain distance from them. It was none other than Su Ping.

Su Ping didn't expect that either. He was just observing the fight, hoping to see Shuai Qianhou's trump card. He ended up seeing those two conspiring to kill him.

I wonder how my junior brother will choose. Su Ping was rather curious. He stayed there and watched quietly.

He had just tuned himself, as well as his auras and laws, into mirage-like elements with the law of illusion. Those two wouldn't spot him, unless they stopped fighting and examined the environment carefully.

"are you really not going to consider it?" roared the red-robed young man, who was stepping back given Shuai Qianhou's fierce attacks.

"I will personally finish my senior brother off if he becomes an obstacle to me!" Shuai Qianhou stared at the red-robed young man coldly. "But you're not qualified to take advantage of me!"

"You!"

The red-robed young man was furious. "You really think there's nothing I can do about you?"

"Come on and have a try!"

Shuai Qianhou sneered.

The red-robed young man roared and activated his constitution, unleashing a dazzling brilliance. He actually had one of the ten divine constitutions too, named the Emperor Blood Constitution!

It was said to be the bloodline left by an ancient emperor.

The offspring of the emperor had already split up and couldn't be traced. However, those who had awakened the Emperor Blood Constitution were all his kin.

Once the constitution's full potential was attained, it would be possible to grasp the ultimate imperial law!

The red-robed young man had obviously developed his constitution to the fullest as a Star Lord!

More mysteries of his constitution had to be explored when he approached the Ascendant State.

'The void quaked after a boom; the imperial law was released, eclipsing all other laws except the supreme. All were greatly weakened.

'The inferior laws almost collapsed and their power was reduced to zero under the imperial law's pressure.

Even the perfect laws were greatly weakened too.

Shuai Qianhou's paths of fire and space were similarly influenced. He had been standing in the seventh space without being affected, but the whispers of wicked gods arose and disturbed his mind when his paths were weakened.

He even felt he was being pulled out of that deep space. His body was riddled with holes, and his energy was leaking at a fast rate.

His law of destruction was also weakened a bit at the moment!

The slight weakening immediately allowed the red-robed young man to seize an opportunity. He reversed time, and was getting ready to execute Shuai Qianhou when he was still young and weak!

At that moment, Shuai Qianhou suddenly uttered with a cold and calm attitude. "Have you forgotten my constitution?"

'The next moment—dazzling tattoos appeared on his body, spreading a terrifying power of law. He also had one of the ten divine constitutions, named the Misfortune Constitution.

The perfect law of misfortune was then released. Whoever was affected by the law would soon endure disasters; even the supreme laws could hardly avoid its effect.<sup>3</sup>

It was the scariest constitution in the entire universe. While they had similar effects, The Curse Constitution and the Plague Constitution were no match.

Roar!!

Suddenly, a deafening roar echoed in the deep space.

'The red-robed young man felt dizzy after the shock. He soon realized what was going on; there was an ancient body drifting their way.

'The ancient body was almost ten meters long, and stark naked; there was a red crystal where his heart used to be. His eye sockets were hollow, no eyeballs remained.

'The body twisted just as it approached the red-robed young man.

The latter changed his expression, as the move had indeed shocked and intimidated him; the ancient corpse was imposing. It was clear that his rival had sent him a disaster with the law of misfortune.

"Damn it!"

'The red-robed young man didn't dare to stay there. He was about to escape to another point in time.

The law of destruction, however, enshrouded him and destroyed his time law.

“Stay here!” Shuai Qianhou was quite cold. “I didn’t know what would happen if I activated the law of misfortune while in the seventh space, but it seems that I’m lucky this time. This disaster is for you only.”

The Misfortune Constitution would bring disasters not only to those around him but also to oneself. It wasn’t unusual for those who had the constitution to die even before they found out they had such a constitution.

That is, unless they were born into powerful forces and had body examinations when they were very young. That way, they could be raised according to the accumulated experience from the history of the Federation.

The competition of divine constitutions is truly spectacular.

The closeby Su Ping was still hiding in the void and staring at the approaching ancient corpse. He found it threatening.

It seemed to be some sort of Celestial State creature that found its demise there; it was real, not an illusion recorded by the deep space.

“Get out of the way!”

The red-robed young man felt his blood curdling as he watched the incoming corpse. He roared crazily and activated his constitution when Shuai Qianhou interfered with him; he burned his essence and blood as he charged in another direction.

Shuai Qianhou coldly chased after him..

Chapter 1098: Opening

‘The red-robed young man swiftly escaped to another point in time.

He tried to stay away from the incoming misfortune by hiding in other spaces. Shuai Qianhou followed him closely, constantly tearing his way through the deep spaces as he tried to locate his rival. Su Ping glanced at them, and eventually decided not to follow, to avoid the risk of discovery.

He shook his head, turned around and left. In any case, he had to rely on himself to get the legacy; allies could turn on him at any moment. He couldn’t trust anyone!

Su Ping returned to the outside world; he saw that Loulan Lin, Diaz and the others were waiting for him at the peak.

Their eyes glittered when they saw Su Ping. Still, they didn’t see Shuai Qianhou, which left them surprised and anxious.

Jiang Si quickly asked, “Junior Brother Su, where is Junior Brother Qianhou?”

Su Ping glanced at him and said calmly, "I was going to help them, but they fought their way to another point in time. I'm not an expert on space and time, so I couldn't help them. That's the reason I had to come out."

Everyone exchanged looks, lost for words.

You're not an expert on space and time?

But you know the perfect supreme law of chaos. You could have busted through the spaces and caught up to them!

However, they could only accept whatever Su Ping said.

'They also heaved a sigh, as the trial was truly cruel; even brothers could raise suspicion when dealing with the true god's legacy.

'They didn't think Su Ping was wrong, though; after all, when Shuai Qianhou fought Kepaf, he had also tried to figure out Su Ping's combat ability by lengthening the battle.

They didn't know Shuai Qianhou all that well, and didn't like him that much either.

After all, if Su Ping weren't powerful enough, all of them would've been in a dire situation. That junior brother wanted to kill them along with other people!

"It's great that you've returned safely, Junior Brother Su," said Yu Jingze.

All the others agreed with him.

'Wanyan Shuang wore a complicated expression. She was as strong as Kepaf; however, she found herself in a team of monsters.

Could she really beat those people and win the key?

She had thought there was a good chance for her to succeed, but she already felt desperate after seeing the performances of Su Ping, Shuai Qianhou and the red-robed young man.

"Let's just wait for him here," said Su Ping. He then checked the time; there was half a day to go until the central continent was opened. There was plenty of time for Shuai Qianhou to return.

"Junior Brother Su, this is all the loot we grabbed from our enemies." Elena handed some storage treasures to Su Ping; he received them while engrossed in the battle taking place in deep space. Su Ping glanced at the treasures and accepted them. "You don't want them?"

"Junior Brother Su, you must be kidding. You and Junior Brother Shuai killed them all. It's a given that the loot is yours," said Elena.

Su Ping nodded, then went about examining the storage treasures.

After a quick look, he discovered that there were plenty of treasures; many of them were rare cultivation treasures.

Su Ping simply summoned the Little Skeleton and his other pets, then threw the materials towards them so that they would be strengthened.

“all of them were crazy rich!”

He had conflicting feelings as he looked at the assorted rare materials; many of the materials were very useful, even for him.

He consumed a few special spiritual fruits; a violent stream of energy surged and transformed into deity aura. His body almost exploded; Su Ping had to transfer his power and condense the eighth Astral Painting in his body.

Three stars infused with laws were condensed.

‘At the moment there was only one hour left to go for the central continent’s opening.

Su Ping stopped cultivating. He frowned as he realized a problem: Shuai Qianhou was carrying all the seven tokens, so that neither of them would be able to run away with both the tokens and the ultimate treasure.

The red-robed young man probably had most of the other tokens.

If.

The winner of their battle could just hide and leave with the tokens. Then, the rest of them would remain stuck on that continent, right?

Also, they would be eliminated due to the lack of tokens by the end of the trial?

Su Ping narrowed his eyes and looked at the distance. His master had told him that the tokens were of critical importance, and that he would have to fly to the central continent on his own if he didn’t have tokens.

However, Ascendant State beasts left by the Celestials roamed the skies, so that nobody would be able to cheat.

In the worst-case scenario, he would have to take the risk and fly to the central continent!

“Why is he still not coming back?”

Yu Jingze and the others paced back and forth while they waited anxiously.

Some of them looked at Su Ping, hoping he would offer support to Shuai Qianhou, but held back in the end.

After all, Shuai Qianhou was fighting in the seventh space, which was extremely dangerous.

‘They had gone and taken a look at the sixth space while Su Ping condensed stars, but they didn’t see Shuai Qianhou or his opponent.

It was a breeze for someone with the perfect path of space to use it as an advantage; for instance, transferring the battlefield to the seventh space to pressure the other.

However, the seventh space was dangerous even for them; even geniuses like Su Ping would meet with danger if they stayed there for too long!

Jiang Si approached Su Ping and said anxiously, “Junior Brother Su, this is not good. We won’t have any tokens if anything happens to both our junior brother and the other guy...”

Su Ping frowned but remained silent.

“Junior Brother Su, we didn’t find any tokens elsewhere. They are probably holding the ten tokens assigned to this continent,” said Yu Jingze who also moved closer.

Su Ping looked at them and asked, “Senior brothers, what are you suggesting?”

‘They looked at each other and became nervous. Jiang Si whispered, “We want you to help him, Junior Brother Su. We’re too weak to help him; we can only count on you.”

Elena and Yu Jingze were also looking at his junior brother with hopeful eyes.

Loulan Lin’s lips moved as if about to speak, but she made an effort to keep quiet.

She didn’t want Su Ping to encounter danger again. After all, the red-robed young man was definitely not a kindhearted person, and his deadly strike was no joke. But, if Su Ping didn’t go, she would miss the opportunity of grabbing the legacy. She felt awfully sorry for Su Ping at the moment!

After a long pause, Su Ping finally said, “Let’s wait thirty minutes more.”

Everybody was relieved; Su Ping had accepted their request.

Jiang Si was going to say something else, but Yu Jingze pulled his arm. He instantly closed his mouth.

Half an hour... There would be even less time remaining before the opening of the central continent. Was Su Ping really confident in their reappearance in thirty minutes?

‘A vague space ripple appeared while everybody was quiet.

Su Ping tuned around.

Shuai Qianhou painted a sorry sight as he walked out. There was a lot of blood on his armor; his face was also pale. He didn’t look half as poised as before.

Yu Jingze and the others felt relieved. They would still have tokens as long as Shuai Qianhou returned.

“How did it go?” asked Su Ping calmly. He stared at Shuai Qianhou.

The latter took a deep breath and soothed his chaotic aura. He said coldly, “Senior Brother Su, why didn’t you help me? The other two were no threat to you whatsoever, were they? You have two perfect paths, including the supreme law of chaos!”

‘The atmosphere instantly became intense.

Yu Jingze and the others were going to comfort him, but then stopped and became nervous, fearing that those two would continue fighting.

Following Shuai Qianhou’s demand, Su Ping calmly asked again, “So, how did it go?”

Fury flashed in his junior’s eyes. The man said, “That guy knows a supreme perfect law too. He cannot be killed! He ran for it, and has a token! We can only find him again on the central continent!”

Su Ping glanced at him and nodded, not bothering about anything else.

Shuai Qianhou said angrily, "Senior Brother Su, you haven't answered my question yet. Shouldn't we be helping each other as brothers?"

Su Ping had already gone back to his relaxed, usual self. He acted slightly surprised, then quickly said, "Junior brother, you misunderstood me. I went to look for you, but you were in the seventh space; I can barely move there. I wouldn't be able to help even if I wanted to!"

"You know the law of chaos. How could you barely move there?"

"But the law of chaos isn't very effective in space," said Su Ping innocently, "Junior brother, do you know the law of chaos better than I do?"

Pff!

Shuai Qianhou nearly choked.

Indeed, he didn't dare say he knew that better than Su Ping did.

However, he certainly knew what the man should be capable of!

The man said while infuriated, "Senior Brother Su, weren't you afraid I might leave with the tokens and leave you forever stuck, even if you had the ultimate treasure?"

Su Ping was surprised. "Why would I? We're brothers. You'd never do that kind of thing, junior brother, would you?"

Shuai Qianhou gazed at him, and finally gave up talking.

Despite fifty thousand years of cultivation, he found he wasn't nearly as shameless and good at talking as his "Senior Brother Su."

Su Ping smiled. "Junior brother, let us make preparations; it won't be easy when we go to the central continent."

"Indeed. Junior brother, we're all brothers. Junior Brother Su indeed went to look for you. So did we; it's just that we didn't find you." Yu Jingze and the others quickly eased the tension.

Shuai Qianhou scoffed; that didn't look good.

However, he was actually much calmer than he looked.

There was a body inside his storage space, riddled with holes and utterly deformed.

However, the ragged clothes covering the body were red.

Everybody immediately began to discuss how to find the key on the central continent.

Su Ping went to see the members of the Loulan family and said, "The central continent is even more dangerous. Are you sure you want to go there? I can give you three tokens if you're willing to stay. You can simply wait there until the second test of the trial begins.."

Chapter 1099: Departure

The three of them looked at each other in bewilderment.

Both Loulan Hai and Loulan Jue hesitated. To be honest, they knew what they were capable of, but their chances of winning the legacy would be significantly boosted if they somehow got the key. They knew they were too weak to keep it, but they were also reluctant to give up just like that.

After a moment of silence, Loulan Lin said first, "Let's just wait here."

Both Loulan Hai and Loulan Jue looked at her with stunned faces. They deflated like poked balloons; their greed was extinguished, just like that.

Still, they felt relieved when they discarded their ambitions.

"Mr. Su, thank you for your help on the way over. We'll just stay here," said Loulan Jue courteously.

Loulan Hai also said, "Mr. Su, we will report what happened to the master of the Loulan family. We owe you a favor."

"Sure."

Su Ping also nodded seeing that they were willing to stay. It was the rational choice.

He glanced at Loulan Lin. Although she didn't say anything, Su Ping somehow knew that she didn't want to be a burden.

"Junior brother, give them three tokens," Su Ping turned around and said to Shuai Qianhou.

Shuai Qianhou raised his eyebrows and said, "We only have seven tokens in total. Are you sure you want to give three to them?"

The Loulan trio were just a joke in his eyes; they would have been eliminated in the first test without external help. And yet, they were going to receive tokens for the second test.

It had to be noted that the thousands of candidates on that continent were top performing geniuses of the Golden Star Zone, while there were only ten tokens in total!

Did the three of them really deserve the tokens?

"I am sure," Su Ping replied solemnly.

After looking into Su Ping's eyes, Shuai Qianhou frowned and glanced at the people of the Loulan family. He didn't say anything in the end. He didn't want to offend them, since Su Ping was determined to help them. They belonged to one of the most powerful families of the universe anyway; he would have to socialize with them, even if he reached the Celestial State.

Once he thought of that, he tossed three tokens.

Loulan Lin and the others felt relieved; they readily accepted the tokens.

"Go and hide yourselves. A lot of people escaped earlier; don't let them find you," said Su Ping.

The three of them were alarmed. They looked around with guilty eyes, as if they were thieves.

“In that case, we’re leaving, Mr. Su,” said Loulan Jue hurriedly.

Loulan Lin glanced at Su Ping; silent, glittery-eyed. She only whispered, “Be very careful. I believe that you’ll rise to the Celestial State even if you don’t get the legacy!”

“I’m not sure whether you’re confident in me or not.” Su Ping chuckled.

Loulan Lin didn’t say anything else. She turned around and quickly walked away.

‘The three of them soon disappeared into the void.

Su Ping had examined the environment before giving away the tokens. He didn’t see any lurkers, so nobody knew they had tokens. They should be safe as long as they hid themselves well.

“You’re a great nanny.”

Shuai Qianhou chuckled in amusement.

Su Ping said casually, “There are always times when you have to rely on others. You were once under someone else’s protection too, weren’t you?”

Shuai Qianhou raised his brows and snorted. He didn’t say anything else.

The central continent was opened. It happened in the blink of an eye.

“Come into my small world. I’ve just detected the channel that leads to the central continent,” said Shuai Qianhou.

A token was glittering in his hand; it was possible to connect to the central continent through the token.

Su Ping had also noticed that those who had escaped earlier were returning. They seemed to be trying their luck again, now that the continent was open.

He ignored them as he stepped into Shuai Qianhou’s small world.

The latter wasn’t daring enough to let Su Ping and the others enter his small world directly. Although he would be significantly stronger while weakening Su Ping in the small world, it was still a risky move given that the latter had mastered a perfect supreme law. It was possible that Su Ping could destroy his small world from the inside, heavily wounding him in the process.

‘Wanyan Shuang, Yu Jingze and the others followed closely after Su Ping.

“Guys, please wait a moment...”

Some of the people who had returned could not wait any longer, seeing that they were about to leave.

A young man approached them and was going to say something, but then Shuai Qianhou coldly said, “Get the hell out of here!”

‘The young man had to stop.

The token in Shuai Qianhou’s hand glittered shortly after, illuminating a channel in front of him.

Shuai Qianhou stepped into the channel; he stayed near the entrance for a moment before he disappeared into it.

All the warriors covertly watching swarmed to reach the channel, but it closed long before they could approach it.

“sh*t!”

“Thate it!”

“Goddamned Shen Huang’s disciples!”

“TI remember that pretty boy. I will surely stomp on his face if I ever have the chance to!”

All those who approached the closed channel were screaming and cursing, loathed Shuai Qianhou’s guts.

It would be pointless for them to fight each other if there were no more tokens. They started to disperse and leave, but some remained as if they were waiting for a miracle.

They slid across the channel for a brief moment, then found themselves in the middle of a green forest, where mountains rose here and there. It was geologically impossible; someone seemed to have planted the mountains haphazardly in the midst of that vegetation.

Su Ping and the others walked out of Shuai Qianhou’s small world and examined the environment.

They remembered what Shen Huang had said. The central continent was constantly changing, and there was no map.

Not even their master had detailed information about the key. The thing didn’t have any guard either, because if it did, it would be possible to trace the key by looking for the guard.

The guard would expose the key’s location.

However, there was absolutely no lead at the moment.

“We can only search on a large scale for now. Good thing we know what the key looks like.” Shuai Qianhou looked around, and saw that a fog was rising in the forest. Still, the fog wasn’t neither made of vapor nor steam, but a type of special energy or law that blocked their senses.

They couldn’t detect a thing, not remotely.

Those Celestials really tried their best to stop each other from cheating! Su Ping could not help but shake his head as he looked at the blocked scenery. Needless to say, the central continent would be a gory battlefield.

Fortunately they knew the area, even though they didn’t know the detailed layout.

The central continent was eight times as big as any of the branching continents.

It was tantamount to an expanse as big as more than two thousand Blue Planets combined.

That information was very important. Otherwise, aimless searching would have been a hopeless task.

Furthermore, the strange fog had disrupted their senses; their sight had been significantly limited. They were no better than the Ocean State cultivators.

Given such circumstances, the central continent was almost endless to them.

“If we want to find the key sooner, I suggest we split up to make a search array to maximize our perception,” said Shuai Qianhou.

Su Ping had no problem with that.

Yu Jingze and the others acted prudently and kept their mouths shut, seeing that Su Ping was silent.

Although there were a lot of people on the team, Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou were the only two decision-makers.

They couldn't seek out others for help during the trial, and none dared to be arrogant. There would be hundreds of ways for them to get killed with no blood on the two men's hands if provoked.

Having no objections, Shuai Qianhou took out a metal object that looked like a bamboo cylinder and said, “I'm sure you're no stranger to this thing, Each of us will grab one. It's time we resort to technology.”

“Junior Brother Qianhou, you truly came fully prepared!” complimented Jiang Si. In fact, he also had a similar item. It was really easy for people to fall into a bewildered state when exploring some special areas of the universe. On such occasions, the seemingly simple technological items would be best replacements for one's eyes.

“How do I use this??” asked Su Ping curiously.

Shuai Qianhou could not help but glance at Su Ping, He then recalled that the latter was only in the Star State, and had only cultivated for a few years. He didn't say a thing; someone else explained on his behalf.

Su Ping heard Yu Jingze's explanation, then realized it was a communication whistle they could use to form a network. The rest of the group would be alerted if any of them encountered any danger.

It was like a walkie-talkie, except it was super enhanced and could be used in some places where magnetic fields were special.

Soon after, each of them picked up a whistle and established a network. Su Ping instantly saw holographs of his teammates on the network.

“All right, let's split up. We'll move in a straight line and go forward,” said Shuai Qianhou in a hurried manner.

The others solemnly took action.

It would depend on luck whether or not they could find the key; the only thing they could do was to increase their odds of success by trying harder.

Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou were in the long search party's third and seventh position; this way they could reinforce their teammates as soon as possible if anyone was in danger.

Su Ping tried to spread his senses as he searched, only to find that the central continent was truly perilous. There were some places that looked normal, but there were actually hollows, broken areas which couldn't be detected without knowing the law of space.. If anyone accidentally fell into the hollows,

they would very likely fall directly into deeper spaces!

Chapter 1100: Vulnerability

The Celestial experts surely did this on purpose to quickly deal with all the weaklings, even if they were lucky enough to come this far. They can't become obstacles to their favorite candidates."

Su Ping circumvented the traps. He felt that he and his teammates seemed to merely be chess pieces in the trial, and the real players were the actual Celestials who had prepared the trial.

The communication whistle enabled Su Ping to see what other people could see and share their sight. That was an item used by the Federation to explore unknown regions; it helped them forge trust among them, although feeble.

If any of them discovered the key, it would be tantamount to the rest discovering it as well.

'There would probably be a fierce and gruesome competition by then.

Su Ping heaved a sigh as he thought of that; the universe had always been cruel when it came to the competition of resources.

However, Diaz and the others were the most concerned of all.

The whistles were like ropes to tie them. Although the place was extremely dangerous, they still wished to try their luck and find the key, if they were fortunate enough.

Still, the current arrangement wouldn't allow them to keep the key even if they found it.

Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou were like two mountains on their backs.

Everybody felt uncomfortable and ambivalent; part of them wanted to find the key, while the other part was hoping against it.

Some of them were secretly considering other plans.

The team had been united earlier; their trust had declined ever since they entered the central continent.

Master purposefully separated the ultimate treasure from the tokens. It's probably also a test to find out whether or not we would kill each other.

Su Ping considered his master's plan while he searched, hoping to figure out what he was up to.

There's only one ultimate treasure. Master knows that Shuai Qianhou is the strongest. He probably wanted to find out if the guy would kill all the others for the ultimate treasure.

But what's the point of the test? To find out whether or not he has a good heart by putting our lives at risk?

Or maybe, is this test about something else? But I don't think the Celestial State experts would add anything unnecessary. What matters should only be the real hard strength.

Su Ping's eyes blinked, but he soon realized he had forgotten something.

It was his master's understanding of his strength.

Perhaps in his master's eyes Shuai Qianhou would be the uncontested team leader while they traveled on the central continent, and all the others would help the latter fight for the key. His master wasn't expecting that Shuai Qianhou would fail in getting the ultimate treasure.

'My master is well aware of Shuai Qianhou's combat ability; he probably thinks he's strong enough to suppress all dissidents. No wonder he made such an arrangement.

Su Ping was enlightened. He shook his head and continued searching carefully.

Everybody was blanket searching, which was rather boring for him.

However, it was quite dangerous for Diaz and the others.

They didn't detect some of the void traps until they were really close; they nearly fell several times.

'Their teammates might not even rescue them if something happened.

After all, all of them were competing against each other.

Time flew.

'Three days passed in the blink of an eye, all invested in searching.

Aside from the void traps, there were also dangers in swamps and forests. A lot of beasts with remarkable camouflaging abilities would ambush intruders; some swamps could spit special tentacles to catch the passersby.

Everyone encountered dozens of crises in that short three-day period.

Diaz and the others were exhausted, while Su Ping, Shuai Qianhou and Wanyan Shuang had been able to easily deal with the situation. The only thing that bothered them was that Diaz and the other teammates were too slow as they tried to avoid dangers; they would have to slow down just to keep the formation.

So far, they had yet to meet competitors from the other star zones.

Considering the central continent's expanse, they had only explored the area of five planets in three days; it would take them forty years to comb through the entire continent.

The search continued.

Wanyan Shuang was carefully examining the environment and supervising Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou's movements. Her eyes twitched as she saw something, but then quickly looked away.

She then glanced at Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou, only to discover that they were still moving forward, just like before.

Her heart pounded nervously.

That must be a token! Wanyan Shuang thought. She believed her eyes, although she wasn't able to observe it for long.

To be honest, she was planning to leave the team and travel on her own.

It was absolutely impossible for her to defeat those two.

Trying her luck would give her better odds.

She would have the chance to explore on her own if she could find the token.

While she considered how to leave the team without raising suspicion—she heard a cry for help from the communication whistle. It was Jiang Si.

Everybody else heard his voice too. They saw him disappear, swallowed by a void trap.

Su Ping also noticed and immediately ran to him.

Shuai Qianhou also dashed over right after. Everybody stopped in front of the void trap, which was hardly perceivable.

“Junior Brother Jiang!” Yu Jingze looked at the void trap with grief.

He looked back at Su Ping and Shuai Qianhou. “Junior brothers, is there a way to rescue him?”

Su Ping remained silent as he stared at the void trap.

Shuai Qianhou narrowed his eyes, seemingly investigating. A moment later, he said, “The seventh space is on the other side. He’s probably dead already.”

Yu Jingze and the others had somber expressions.

Shuai Qianhou shook his head and said, “Let’s proceed. We were all prepared to die before we came here. If any of you is unwilling to continue, just say it. I may give you a token, for our master’s sake. “However, we only have a limited number of tokens. I gave three of them away, and there’s only four left. There are nine people on the team; Senior Brother Jiang is gone, but we’re still short of four tokens. We haven’t found any new tokens in the past few days... I can only offer three tokens in total.” Everybody looked at each other in bewilderment.

Wanyan Shuang’s eyes glittered, but she didn’t step up to quit.

She thought that Shuai Qianhou might have said that on purpose.

Yu Jingze and the others looked at each other in bewilderment, but didn’t say anything.

Shuai Qianhou looked around and heaved a sigh. “Since nobody is willing to leave, let’s proceed. Senior Brother Jiang should have been more careful. Everybody, you need to be extra cautious. There are some dangers we cannot rescue you from!”

He seemed to be implying something in the end.

Everybody nodded gravely.

Shuai Qianhou gave Su Ping a silent glance, then returned to his previous position.

Yu Jingze and Qiao Lusi were friends with Jiang Si. They mourned him for a while, and eventually returned to their positions, still grieving.

The team's atmosphere became even heavier.

Somewhere in one of the deeper spaces.

A person was lying quietly. He was shrouded in a hazy light that protected him from the strange power in the void. He was none other than Jiang Si.

He was looking around vigilantly. His eyes tuned cold after seeing that Shuai Qianhou didn't try to go for him. "I knew he wouldn't rescue me. Humph. Right on the money!

"You didn't know that I had a secret treasure that could help me stay briefly in the seventh space, right? Unfortunately, it can only be used once."

Jiang Si felt a deep pang of regret as he spoke—

But he soon started moving. He didn't stay in the place for too long, and was about to work on finding his way.

I don't know if Old Yu's acting skills were good enough to trick them. The thing I noticed earlier was probably the key. Too bad I didn't have more time to observe it. If it is the key, then... 'm sorry, Old Yu His eyes glittered; he then swam in the middle of the hazy light.

Exactly at this moment—a hoarse roar was heard approaching.

Jiang Si immediately stopped and looked around vigilantly. Then, he saw the most terrifying scene.

An ancient, magnificent figure gradually emerged. It looked like a giant, but its skin was covered in green moss, and there was a crazy surplus of limbs on its body.

Jiang Si was floating by its chest at the moment, like a glittering firefly.

To think there would be such a terrifying thing beyond the void trap!

Was that the main danger of the seventh space?

"No..." Jiang Si was frightened.

While searching, Shuai Qianhou suddenly spoke to Su Ping telepathically, "Senior Brother Su." Su Ping asked with an unchanged expression, "What's up?"

She continued, "Master said that the central continent would be open for a month. Our progress is too slow. What do you think about us looking for people of the other star zones first and robbing them of their ultimate treasures?

"If so, even if someone else finds the key, we can always beat them and loot their key before the end of the trial."

Su Ping's eyes glittered, knowing that his junior brother could no longer hold back..
