

The Physicist Wife Who Overturned The World –

Chapter 13: God's Seal

Xue Fanxin had no idea what had happened between Li Yaoyao and Yi Tian. She fell asleep immediately after returning to her room.

Although Ye Jiushang had healed her injuries, she was still not in good spirits. She was tired, sleepy, and dizzy. Especially after eating her fill, her eyelids were fighting to stay open.

As she was too tired, Xue Fanxin did not have the energy to think too much. She only wanted to have a good night's sleep now. No matter what happened, it would have to wait until she woke up first.

Night fell.

At night, the Duke's estate was very quiet. There were very few people patrolling. No one knew that a white shadow had flashed above the Duke's estate and silently entered Xue Fanxin's room.

It was Ye Jiushang. The darkness of the night did not affect his vision, so he could see everything clearly. He could especially see the cute girl sleeping soundly on the bed in a thin singlet.

Xue Fanxin had a terrible sleeping form. She was wearing a thin undershirt and the blanket was being hugged by her. Her arm was stretched out horizontally and her calf lay on top of the blanket that had been rolled into a ball. Her small body had not fully developed, so there really wasn't much to look at.

Ye Jiushang sat by the bed and looked at the little girl sleeping soundly. The more he looked at her, the cuter he thought she was. He couldn't help but reach out and gently stroke her face.

When his fingers touched something uneven, she frowned unhappily.

Xue Fanxin had quite a few spots on her face, and they were all red. It would be fine if there were only one or two, but her entire face was filled with these small spots, severely affecting her looks. Her originally exquisite facial features had also become ugly.

“Who exactly are you?” Ye Jiushang checked Xue Fanxin’s pulse. When he confirmed her physical condition, his expression turned serious.

In the small Nanling Empire, a God’s Seal had actually appeared. Furthermore, it was an extremely complete God’s Seal.

2

Not to mention the tiny Nanling Empire, even in the entire Tongxuan Continent, no one could create such a seal. Even he himself lacked the ability.

The strangest thing was her soul...

Just as Ye Jiushang was deep in thought, Xue Fanxin slowly woke up. She noticed a figure sitting by her bedside and exclaimed in shock, “Ah...”

As Xue Fanxin shouted, Ye Jiushang had already returned to his senses. He waved his hand and shot out a faint purple light.

Once the purple light came out, it turned into a huge, transparent gauze that enveloped the entire room. The dark room also lit up.

Xue Fanxin finally saw the person sitting in front of her clearly. Although she was still shocked, it was no longer as exaggerated as before. Her fear had also reduced. She sat up and looked at the person in front of her seriously. She asked with some displeasure, “Ye Jiushang, why aren’t you sleeping at night? What are you doing in my room?”

If she had not been a little braver, she would have been scared to death.

In the middle of the night, a man in white was sitting by your bedside, staring straight at you. Wouldn’t you be afraid?

1

“Little girl, do you know that there are fewer than five people in this world who dare to address me by my full name?” Ye Jiushang was not angry that Xue Fanxin had addressed him by his full name. However, he found it interesting, so he brought it up.

How long had it been since someone had dared to call him by his full name? It had been so long that he had already forgotten who it was and when it happened.

1

“Aren’t names made for people to call you by? If you don’t let people call you by your name, what’s the point of having one?” Xue Fanxin was still not afraid of Ye Jiushang. She rolled her eyes at him and even yawned widely.

She could not sense any hostility from Ye Jiushang.. Perhaps this was why she was not afraid.
