Chapter 611: Money Treasure

How could Ye Jiushang not know what Xue Fanxin, that money-grubber, was thinking? He gently knocked her head and reprimanded her dotingly, "Don't always spend your time on these unimportant things. Cultivate well. Every stone in this manor serves a purpose. They're not casually placed, nor are they wasted. Don't even think about selling them for money."

"What do you mean?" Xue Fanxin covered her head with both hands. She was really curious about this manor. Her two round eyes kept staring at a certain lord, waiting for him to give her a surprise.

"Do you see the rockery built with mystic crystal jade in the pool? Its function is to nourish the dew attracted from the bamboo forest into spirit dew. Drinking it can cleanse the impurities in the human body, improve the physique, shape the bones, and increase the cultivation level. It's equivalent to consuming a Marrow Cleansing Pill. However, it needs to be drunk for a long time to have obvious effects. Furthermore, the effects are a hundred times that of the Marrow Cleansing Pill, and it doesn't come with the pain. This mystic crystal jade fake mountain can only nourish ten drops of spirit dew a day."

"That little?"

Ten drops a day. How long would it take to accumulate a cup?

But what was rare was precious. This Mystic Crystal Dew must be very valuable.

"It's already quite a lot. Do you know what a drop of spirit dew is worth outside?"

"How much?" Xue Fanxin asked excitedly.

"Not even 10 million crystal coins can buy a drop."

"10 million crystal coins a drop. Ten drops a day. Then wouldn't you easily earn 100 million crystal coins a day?"

Wow, wow, wow... Her Ah Jiu was a hen that laid golden eggs. How powerful was he?

Ye Jiushang knocked Xue Fanxin's head again, his face filled with a dotting smile. "Do you think these ten drops of Spirit Dew are so easy to create? First, you have to introduce the dew in the bamboo forest into the Mystic Crystal Jade. It has to be the first drops of dew in the morning. Then, they have to be purified by the Water Spirit Array in the Mystic Crystal Jade. After that, they have to be nourished for 49 days before they can be formed. If anything goes wrong in the middle, all your previous efforts will be in vain."

"So troublesome!" Xue Fanxin had not expected the expensive-looking mystic crystal jade rockery to have so many mysteries. Then, did the other items in the manor have other secrets?

“Trouble is secondary. The key is whether you can actually nourish the spirit dew. The method is not simple. Just that Water Spirit Array alone, only two or three people in the entire Tongxuan Continent can set it up.”

If this Spirit Dew was so easy to obtain, how could it be so priceless?

Xue Fanxin looked at the Mystic Crystal Jade Fake Mountain now as if she was looking at a huge treasure that would give birth to money every day. Her eyes lit up. She felt that countless coins were flowing into her pocket.

“This is a treasure that makes money every day. So what if I want money? I’m so poor now that I don’t have a single crystal coin.”

“If you want crystal coins, just tell me.”

“How many crystal coins do you have? Don’t tell me it’s like in the Tongxuan Realm where you can’t even finish spending a few billion spirit coins?” Xue Fanxin asked straightforwardly, already having designs on Ye Jiushang’s treasure vault.

Anyway, they would be husband and wife. His money was equivalent to hers. Why should she be polite?

Chapter 612: Not Being a Weakling

Ye Jiushang did not declare his wealth to her. In fact, even he did not know very well. He only had a rough idea.

“You only need to know that you won’t lack money here. Don’t always spend your time on that. The most important thing for you now is to work hard to increase your strength. Otherwise, I’ll have to pave the way for you. Although I don’t mind it, is this what you want?”

Xue Fanxin shook her head. “No. I want to walk my own path. In the future, I must become someone who can fight alongside you.”

She did not want to be a weakling who always hid behind men and needed protection.

“Then work hard at cultivation. Don’t think about money all day. When you have strength and ability, money will naturally be easy to obtain.”

“Really?”

“Yes.”

“Since Ah Jiu says so, I have to work hard. Ah Jiu, there’s something I have to tell you.”

“About the Consort Dowager?”

“How did you know?” Xue Fanxin was shocked. She was speechless at his intelligence.

She had yet to say anything, but he had already guessed it. This guy was too smart.

“If I didn’t even know this, how could I have gotten to where I am today? Even if I don’t have high hopes for her recovery, I still understand her. Even if she is sick, it won’t be so serious. At the very least, her condition wouldn’t deteriorate so quickly. Did you discover anything when you treated the Consort Dowager today?”

“Consort Dowager Jing’s pulse looks weak, but there’s actually nothing wrong. The reason she’s unconscious is that she was given a slow poison. This poison won’t be fatal. It will only cause people to fall into a long-term coma and only die when their bodily functions are exhausted. It can’t be discovered by ordinary doctors. The victim will appear to be extremely weak, so ordinary doctors will prescribe some nourishing prescriptions to deal with it.”

If she had not done some research on poisonous things, it would be very difficult for her to discover that Consort Dowager Jing’s coma was caused by poison.

This was a serious matter. At that time, the emperor and empress were both present, so she did not tell the truth, choosing to disclose it in private.

Ye Jiushang was not surprised by the truth. He looked like he had expected it. “It’s not much different from what I guessed.”

“Ah Jiu, what do you think the person who poisoned Consort Dowager Jing is up to? They poisoned her but don’t want her life. They only made her fall into a coma. What’s the point of doing this?”

Everyone in the Ye Dynasty knew about his relationship with Consort Dowager Jing. She was not a threat to anyone. If someone wanted to harm her, their goal must be him.

“Lure you out for what?” Xue Fanxin asked in confusion. She felt that the poisoning of Consort Dowager Jing was not simple.

“No matter what they want to do, I won’t fall into their trap. I’ll make them regret it. Alright, I’ll deal with the Consort Dowager myself. I’ll take you to your living quarters now.” Ye Jiushang pulled Xue Fanxin’s hand again and walked towards the inner courtyard.

A man in a black robe suddenly appeared. He knelt on one knee and reported, “Master, a phenomenon has appeared in the Moon Burial Ridge, attracting the attention of many factions. All the large families and sects have sent people to investigate. The royal family has also started to take action.”

Chapter 613: So Outstanding

Xue Fanxin noticed that the man’s clothes were the same as Heiyu’s. The material and style were similar, but there were some small details that were different.

It was obvious that they were all Ye Jiushang's people.

The man also noticed Xue Fanxin. Although he was curious about her, he did not dare overstep his boundaries. He did not even look at her.

He had never seen his master so close to any woman. Even Consort Dowager Jing was obedient to him. At most, his master's attitude towards Consort Dowager Jing was a little better and he spoke a little more. He treated her no differently from other women in other aspects.

But the woman in front of him was different. He could sense that his master did not reject her at all.

"Moon Burial Ridge." Ye Jiushang pondered on the incident. Then, he ordered, "Heiyao, you are in charge of this matter. Pay close attention to their movements and report to me at any time."

"Yes."

"Order Heiran to serve the consort."

"Yes." Heiyao followed Ye Jiushang's orders, but he had guessed Xue Fanxin's identity.

So this woman was the consort his master had chosen.

From the beginning to the end, Xue Fanxin did not say a word. Only after Heiyao left did she ask, "Ah Jiu, is it really okay for you to let that person called Heiran serve me?"

Heiran... From the name, one could tell that she was a woman.

She did not want anything like Zhuiyue to repeat. After all, her Ah Jiu was too outstanding. Any woman would be tempted by him.

Not every woman could maintain a rational mind in love. Some would get blinded and do something irrational.

Ye Jiushang knew what Xue Fanxin was worried about. He scratched her nose and said with a smile, "Don't worry. Heiran is not Zhuiyue. Apart from being strong, anyone who can enter my Black Shadow Guard must be perfect in every aspect. Otherwise, I won't accept them. I casually established the Night Shadow Guards in the Heavenly Saints Empire, resulting in flaws in the personnel."

The Night Shadow Guards were established by him to search for the Phoenix Star. He could disband them before leaving. If not for Xin'er, he would only have taken Zhuri with him. Now, he brought a few more people, who were no different from ordinary people in his eyes. They were not valuable.

"Why did you select Heiran?" Even though Ye Jiushang had said it so clearly, Xue Fanxin still felt a little uneasy.

"You've just arrived in Imperial City. You must have someone by your side who can serve you. Fuyun does not have enough strength and is not familiar with the Imperial City. She can't even run errands for you. However, Heiran is only responsible for your safety. You should leave the rest to Fuyun."

"Whatever, as long as she's not the second Zhuiyue. I'll say this first. If she has any ulterior motives, I won't keep her."

“Do you think every woman has feelings for me?”

“That’s right! Who asked you to be so outstanding? I was really worried that I wouldn’t be able to catch you one day and let another woman abduct you.”

The more outstanding Ah Jiu was, the stronger her worry was.

If she was such an outstanding person, perhaps she would not be so afraid, but unfortunately...

Chapter 614: Really Want to Eat You

Ye Jiushang noticed Xue Fanxin’s panic and fear. He pulled her into his arms, wrapped one hand around her waist, and gently touched her cheek with the other. He first kissed her forehead gently before saying, “Don’t let your thoughts run wild. I’ll always be yours. I’ll belong to you, and only you.”

All women liked to hear sweet nothings. Xue Fanxin was naturally no exception. She revealed her feminine side and asked coquettishly, “Really?”

“Annoying. You always use that phrase.”

“I learned it from you. Silly girl, don’t always think about those impossible things and waste your brain. If you let your thoughts run wild again, I’ll eat you up.”

“I don’t have much meat now. It’s not delicious.” Xue Fanxin’s face was as red as an apple. She imagined the scene of her and Ye Jiushang doing it... Stop, stop. Why was she thinking about that? It was too embarrassing.

Although her body was only sixteen years old, her soul had lived for more than twenty years. She had the mind of an adult and was no stranger to the affairs of men and women.

However, it was weird. Since her soul was divided into two parts, why were the ages of the two parts different?

Ye Jiushang saw Xue Fanxin’s face, which was as red as an apple. The more he looked, the cuter he found her, wishing to take a bite. In the end, he really bit down. He kissed her face gently first, then sealed her lips. He hugged her tightly with both hands, wishing he could rub her into his body.

“Oh...” Xue Fanxin got dizzy from the sudden kiss, but she did not reject it. Her body was a little stiff at first before softening. She even responded, letting Ye Jiushang do whatever he wanted to her.

As an adult woman and a doctor, she knew how painful it was for him to endure his lust. The pain of burning with desire was not ordinary.

However, Ye Jiushang suppressed this unbearable fire. He pressed his head against her forehead and looked like he wanted to eat her. He panted and said, “I really want to eat you now.”

This was like a wolf that had been hungry for a long time. It was really uncomfortable to guard a piece of meat every day but not eat it.

“Ah Jiu, I’m not ripe yet. You can’t eat me.” Xue Fanxin did not mind their current posture. Even if her entire body was pressed against his chest, she did not mind. Seeing that the person in front of her was enduring so much pain, she felt a little heartache.

No, no. She had to take it slow. She could not be too anxious.

“Of course I know that you’re not ripe yet. That’s why I have to raise you quickly so that I can enjoy a hearty meal.” Ye Jiushang kissed Xue Fanxin before letting go of her in satisfaction. “This manor is also in the shape of the Nine Palaces and Eight Trigrams. In the middle is a courtyard and a place to cultivate. There is a small courtyard in the other eight directions. The courtyard facing the south is where I live. The other seven courtyards are empty. From now on, you will live in my courtyard.”

“There are so many courtyards. Why should I live in your courtyard?”

“Because I like it.”

Chapter 615: Mother Ruan, Liu Qing

Xue Fanxin came to the small courtyard where Ye Jiushang lived. After entering, she realized that there was another world here.

In front was a gorgeous residence. Behind her was a natural hot spring. It was luxurious and mysterious, making people marvel.

“Wow, there’s a hot spring.” Xue Fanxin admired the house, but she was getting numb to such things. After all, she had a boyfriend who was filled with treasures. Only when she saw the natural hot spring in the backyard did she feel the excitement. She wished she could go down and soak in it now.

Ye Jiushang stroked her head. “Its water is drawn from the spirit spring in the mountain. There are spirit jades in the pool that can help with cultivation. Take a bath; it will be very beneficial to you. Enjoy yourself. I’ll go deal with some things first. Someone will come and serve you later.”

“Alright. Go do your thing. By the way, when will Grandpa and the others reach Imperial City?”

“In five days.”

Little Lei was quite violent. Whoever dared to provoke him would be unlucky. With Heiyu, her grandfather and the others would definitely be able to arrive at Imperial City safely. She did not have to worry.

After Ye Jiushang left, Xue Fanxin took off her clothes and soaked in the hot spring. She even swam in it and enjoyed the huge place alone. She could play happily by herself.

About an hour later, two middle-aged women walked in with clean clothes. They came to the side of the hot spring and knelt down. “Your Highness, before His Highness left, he instructed that you can only soak in the hot spring for an hour at most. Now that an hour has passed, Your Highness, please get up and change.”

“Oh, okay.” Xue Fanxin was very cooperative. A middle-aged woman took out a soft towel and draped it over her. The other woman started to wipe her wet hair. The two of them did things seriously and did not dare to slight her or speak carelessly, making the atmosphere very dull.

When she came to the bamboo forest, she did not see anyone. Coupled with the uniqueness of this place, she was curious why these two could come here.

“Your Highness, I was saved by the Lord. I will only serve the Lord in my life. I will do whatever the Lord wants me to do.”

“What are your names?”

“My name is Mother Ruan.”

“I am Liu Qing.”

“Mother Ruan, Liu Qing.”

“I’m here.” When Mother Ruan and Liu Qing heard Xue Fanxin call their names, they immediately knelt and waited for instructions. The two of them were extremely well-behaved, not breaking any rules.

“It’s okay, it’s okay. I was just calling out casually. Get up.” Xue Fanxin got speechless at these subordinates kneeling down for no reason, but she knew that this was how they were. It was useless to say anything. “I’m a little hungry. Can you get me something to eat?”

Xue Fanxin originally wanted to talk to them more, but these two were not good with words, so she should stay by herself.

After eating her fill, she would go and have a good sleep and plan her future.

She had to arrange everything well so that she could do it relatively perfectly.

Chapter 616: Mine

Xue Fanxin lay on the bed and slept soundly. Before sleeping, she went to the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel’s space to take a look. The vitality in the space was more exuberant than before. She could vaguely see a tender green light shining, especially the Tree of Life. It gathered rich wood spirit power as if the entire tree was glowing.

The Dragon Blood Soul Lotus and the Nine Revolutions Purple Leaf Orchid were the same. Although the wood spirit power gathered was not as rich as the Tree of Life, it was not much different.

It was difficult to find a second precious plant in the world. It finally looked a little like it.

“Ah Jiu said that as long as I raise you, I can help him. Now that you’re growing well, when Ah Jiu needs it, I hope you can help him.” Xue Fanxin watered the three plants and chatted with them before going to do something else.

She had planted many vegetables in the space and they had long ripened. Even the grapevines were hanging low with fruits. If not for the fact that the space had the ability to preserve freshness, these vegetables and fruits would have rotted.

“There are so many grapes. Why don’t I use them to brew wine? I can make pickled vegetables. Also, I should start making those fish cans. Otherwise, we’ll never be able to finish it.”

Xue Fanxin put the grapes and vegetables aside for the time being. She would do the rest later. She would go back to sleep first and recuperate before cultivating. The most important thing now was to increase her strength.

This bamboo forest was an excellent place to cultivate. Ah Jiu had brought her here because he hoped that she could cultivate well. She could not let him down.

“Sleep, sleep.” Xue Fanxin came out of the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel’s space and lay on the bed to sleep. Perhaps because she was too tired, she fell asleep not long after closing her eyes.

At the same time, some people could not eat or sleep. Their hearts were filled with hatred.

Yu Yuefu had been angry ever since she returned from the palace. She had smashed everything in the room, but it was not enough to vent her anger. A maidservant went forward to persuade her and got beaten to death. After that, no one dared to say another word. All the maidservants knelt on the ground and did not even dare to move.

“Damn it... Where did this slut come from? She actually stole my Ninth Lord.

“Xue Fanxin, I don’t care who you are. How dare you snatch my position as the Ninth Imperial Consort? I’ll definitely make you die without a burial place. The position of the Ninth Imperial Consort can only belong to me, and the Ninth Lord can only be mine. Whoever dares to snatch him from me, I’ll take their life.

“B*tch, I want you to die. I want you to die.” Yu Yuefu was terrifying. Her face was ferocious, making people feel afraid just by looking at her.

A middle-aged woman walked in. When she saw the broken things on the ground, she was helpless and reprimanded, “Yuefu, you have to change your temper. Otherwise, you’ll suffer in the future. At least, learn to control it. What did I teach you?”

“Mother, I’m just angry. I’ve worked so hard for so long. I was just about to become the Ninth Consort, but Xue Fanxin ruined everything. How can I not be angry?”

Ever since she was young, both her parents and the emperor and empress had said that she would become the Ninth Imperial Consort. Therefore, in her heart, the position belonged to her.

How could she not be angry that something that belonged to her had been snatched away?

Chapter 617: Know Yourself and Your Enemy

Just the thought of Xue Fanxin as the Ninth Consort made Yu Yuefu enraged. She wished she could kill her.

“Yuefu, why can’t you stay calm? So what if the position of the Ninth Imperial Consort is being occupied by others? Since ancient times, have there not been enough cases of the main consort being crippled and replaced by others? No matter what position it is, even if it’s the throne of the empress, if you’re not strong enough, you’ll be pulled down sooner or later. What you have to do now is investigate Xue Fanxin. Only by knowing yourself and the enemy can you win every battle. Rather than wasting time and energy, why don’t you plan your next steps?”

“Mother, I know what to do. It’s just that when I think of her, I feel angry. If I don’t vent, I’ll go crazy.” Yu Yuefu’s anger had decreased quite a lot. She calmed down and thought of a way to deal with Xue Fanxin.

She, Yu Yuefu, was the pearl in the palm of the current Grand Preceptor. Her talent and appearance were all top-notch. The current empress was her aunt and Elder Meng Rou of the Heavenly Spirit Sect was her master... With such an advantage, how could she be afraid of a small Xue Fanxin?

However, she could not be too hasty, or she would be the one to suffer. Before taking action, she had to get a deep understanding of Xue Fanxin.

The most important thing now was to investigate Xue Fanxin and find out everything about her. Only then could she get rid of this slut as soon as possible.

“Mother, should we send people from the Grand Preceptor’s Estate to investigate her?” Yu Yuefu asked, already impatient to do this.

“We can’t. Our Grand Preceptor’s Estate must not participate in this matter. Ye Jiushang is not someone to be trifled with. If he finds out we are involved, it will be troublesome.”

“Then who should we use?”

“I’ll take care of it. You do your thing. It’s rare for the Ninth Lord to appear. You have to seize the opportunity and focus all your attention on him.”

For her daughter’s happiness, she had to be extra careful. She would give the Ninth Consort’s throne to her. Whoever dared to ruin her daughter’s happiness, she would take their life.

After comforting her daughter, the Grand Preceptor’s wife left and returned to her room. After a long time, she took out half a jade pendant from her storage bag as if she had made a major decision. She put it away and changed into light clothes before leaving.

Xue Fanxin had no idea what had happened in the Grand Preceptor’s Estate. Even if she knew, she would not care. Ah Jiu was here for him, so she was not afraid.

She woke up refreshed. Mother Ruan and Liu Qing had brought her quite a few clothes. There were a few large chests, and one of them was relatively light and suitable for cultivation. Hence, she casually took one and put it on, then went to the courtyard to start cultivating.

She had not practiced the Xue You Sword Art and the Heavenly Spirit Butterfly Dance for many days, as well as the Voice of Heaven and Earth that she had comprehended previously. There was also the Reverse Spirit Art and the Heart Cleansing Incantation... There were too many things. She had to do them one by one.

Chapter 618: Subordinate Heiran

The center of the bamboo forest was an excellent place to cultivate. Just by standing there, one could sense an endless stream of spirit energy flowing into their bodies. This was equivalent to being able to cultivate even while standing.

Xue Fanxin took a deep breath and summoned the Xue You Flute. She transformed it into the Xue You Sword and practiced the Xue You Sword Art in the courtyard. She used the Heavenly Spirit Butterfly Dance at the same time. The combination of sword technique and spirit technique became increasingly perfect. As her cultivation level improved, using these two moves at the same time would no longer be so strenuous.

The Xue You Sword was connected to her mind. She could sense the sword intent hidden in the sword.

She could already use the Heavenly Spirit Butterfly Dance at will. She could casually create a spirit butterfly. As she gained a deeper understanding of it, she realized that these spirit butterflies had a communication function.

“Go, tell Ah Jiu that I miss him.” Xue Fanxin planned to test if the spirit butterflies could really send messages. She produced a few spirit butterflies and sent them to Ye Jiushang.

Not long after, she sensed an unfamiliar aura in the surroundings and immediately raised her guard.

A black shadow suddenly flashed over and attacked her.

Xue Fanxin dodged in time and counterattacked. The Xue You Sword swept out, and she used the Heavenly Spirit Butterfly Dance as a defense to fight the black-clothed person.

The black-clothed person was very powerful. They easily broke through her sword aura and defense. Then, they pointed their hand at her.

If the other party had a weapon, she would have already been killed. It could be seen that the black-clothed person had shown mercy.

“Your Highness, it’s not simple for you to dodge my attack with your Spirit Transformation cultivation level.” The black-clothed person retracted their hand and took off the veil on their face. They knelt on one knee in front of Xue Fanxin and said respectfully, “I am Heiran. Greetings, Your Highness. Please forgive me for my offense.”

“You are Heiran?” Xue Fanxin seriously sized up the woman in front of her. At first glance, she felt that she was a straightforward person who did not care about trifles.

“Yes, I am Heiran. I was ordered by Master to serve Your Highness.” Heiran was still kneeling on one knee. Unless Xue Fanxin commanded, she would not get up. Her words and actions were not disrespectful at all.

Xue Fanxin’s first impression of Heiran was not bad. She was strong enough and knew her limits. She was hundreds of times better than Zhuiyue.

No wonder Ah Jiu had such a high opinion of Heiran. This person was outstanding and would not have nefarious thoughts like Zhuiyue.

“Get up. Your move just now was very powerful. Why don’t you spar with me a few more times? I really want to know how strong Ah Jiu’s Black Shadow Guards are.”

“Yes.” Heiran was not worried about hurting her.

Although she was curious about the consort, she would not question any of her master’s decisions. She only needed to listen to his orders.

Her master had asked her to serve the consort, so the consort was her master. She would follow her from now on.

“Let me make it clear first. I won’t show mercy. Watch this.” Xue Fanxin attacked with all her might.

With Heiran’s strength, the only way she could hurt her was if the sun rose from the west.

Chapter 619: Spirit Butterfly Message

Heiran was indeed powerful. Xue Fanxin used all her abilities but could not gain any advantage. She could not even touch the corner of her clothes. If not for Heiran showing mercy, she would have long been defeated. In a real fight, she would be dead by now.

But the spar revealed her shortcomings. It also stimulated her fighting spirit and the potential in her body, and she could even comprehend new things from battle.

In less than an hour, she had touched the threshold of the Spirit Master Realm and successfully advanced.

“This works?” Heiran was shocked to see that Xue Fanxin actually advanced while fighting.

Breakthroughs were a huge matter for cultivators. If someone destroyed their advancement midway, not only would they fail, but their foundation would also be affected. In serious cases, their meridians might rupture.

Therefore, cultivators would choose a safe place to break through. It was impossible for them to advance in battle because this was extremely dangerous and unlikely.

Yet their consort did just that.

What a strange person!

"I've finally broken through." Xue Fanxin had not expected to advance after fighting with Heiran. She felt refreshed. Her body was brimming with energy, her meridians had expanded quite a lot, and the spirit energy in her dantian was even more boundless.

The feeling of becoming stronger was amazing!

"Heiran, thank you."

"This is the result of your own hard work, Your Highness. It has nothing to do with me. You don't have to thank me."

"If not for this spar, how could I have advanced so easily? Anyway, thank you. I'll treat you to a meal."

"A meal..." Heiran was not interested in eating. She only felt that Xue Fanxin's way of thanking was a little special.

Cultivators generally did not pay much attention to food. They would not starve too quickly, especially people with higher cultivation levels like them. They would not feel hungry even if they did not eat for three to five days. They would just eat something to settle it.

Hence, cultivators rarely used meals to express their gratitude.

"Yes, yes, yes. I'll treat you to a feast when I'm free. In a few days, when Grandpa and Little Lei arrive, I'll make a delicious meal. I'll treat you to it then."

Heiran was still not interested, but this was the consort's good intentions. She should be grateful.

"Thank you, Your Highness."

"You're welcome! I'll go take a bath and change into clean clothes. Do whatever you want." Xue Fanxin turned to leave. She returned to her courtyard and planned to take a bath.

She had not seen Ah Jiu since yesterday and really missed him!

She wondered how her spirit butterfly transmission was going.

Ye Jiushang was busy dealing with a pile of things the moment he returned yesterday. During this time, he had gone out again. He was still busy, so he did not have time to see Xue Fanxin.

While instructing his subordinates, a beautiful seven-colored butterfly flew in and stopped in front of him.

His subordinates also noticed it and were about to destroy it.

"Stop." Ye Jiushang stopped them in time, not letting anyone touch the butterfly. Then, he reached out.

The spirit butterfly landed on the back of Ye Jiushang's hand. It flapped its wings a few times before turning into spirit energy and dissipating into the world.

This was the first time they had seen their master smile!

Chapter 620: Really Can

Ye Jiushang could tell at a glance that the spirit butterfly was Xue Fanxin's. He even heard her voice from the spirit butterfly: Ah Jiu, I miss you.

Although it was only a short sentence, it made him happy and warm.

Xin'er was indeed smart. She had comprehended the magical effects of the Heavenly Spirit Butterfly Dance in such a short time.

Ye Jiushang sat there and smiled for a long time. Then, he used his spirit energy to condense a spirit butterfly. He said to it in front of his subordinates, "I miss you too."

He let the spirit butterfly fly out. He only retracted his gaze when it disappeared into the distance.

The subordinates were stunned, staring straight at Ye Jiushang. There was a sentence written on everyone's faces: Is this their master?

"Alright, let's continue." Ye Jiushang resumed his cold appearance. His body emitted the aura of a superior. As long as you stood in front of him, you would feel pressured.

His subordinates did not dare to ask about their master's private matters, nor did they say anything else. They got down to business. "Master, I've already investigated. The person who poisoned the Consort Dowager is the empress. The emperor knows about the poison. He tacitly agreed to her actions."

"Master, Ouyang Xiangxiang of the Ouyang family will be coming to Imperial City to auction their new work, the Fire Cloud Sword. Although it was created by Ouyang Xiangxiang, it's rumored that Master Ouyang guided her the entire time, which is equivalent to his work. Master Ouyang intends to let Ouyang Xiangxiang be his successor, and he is now nurturing her."

"Master, Su Baifeng has been hiding in the Ten Thousand Flower Sect ever since she came to the Mystic Realm. She has never left."

"Master, the Hai family's Golden Sea Pavilion has been suppressing the Purple Cloud Tower recently. The Hai Feng financial envoy has returned to the Hai family to investigate this matter."

Ye Jiushang listened to his subordinates report one thing after another. "Keep an eye on the Consort Dowager without alerting the enemy. I'll leave these people for the Consort to practice on. I don't care what methods you use, but you must get Ouyang Xiangxiang to take her Fire Cloud Sword to the Golden Sea Pavilion for auction. As for the Golden Sea Pavilion, we'll make a decision when the financial envoy returns."

"Yes."

"You can leave. Do what you have to. Don't disturb me unless there's something important."

“Yes.”

The subordinates received the order and left. In the blink of an eye, they had all disappeared.

Ye Jiushang was used to it. After finishing his work, he would return to the bamboo forest and look for the little consort who missed him.

Xue Fanxin had just come out of the hot spring. Under the care of Mother Ruan and Liu Qing, she dressed and combed her hair. She sat in front of the dressing table without moving. Her soul floated into the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel’s space from time to time.

A beautiful spirit butterfly flew over. It first circled her and then landed on her shoulder.

“Spirit butterfly...” Xue Fanxin was excited to see it. She could sense that it was not hers. From the aura emitted by its spirit energy, it belonged to Ah Jiu.

The spirit butterfly stayed on Xue Fanxin’s shoulder for a while, then flew to her hand and sent the message: I miss you too.

Xue Fanxin was excited. “Wow... It actually works. It really works. Haha... It’s amazing.”

Mother Ruan and Liu Qing did not know what Xue Fanxin was happy about, but as long as she was happy, they would not be concerned about the rest.
