Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1006

“But all this while, Granny had been telling me that you’re a good person. She said that know how to take good care of others! How could you...poisoned Granny Lynch! “

Joshua frowned hard at Fiona’s words. He swept Luna a cold glance.

“You’re the one that made this dish, right?”

Luna sneered, “It was me.”

Joshua closed his eyes. He secretly clenched his fist.

“Fiona’s right. Although Granny did not used to like you, throughout this time, she had always been thinking about the good you do! How could you... “

Before Joshua could finish his sentence, the ambulance arrived. Granny Lynch, Nigel, and Nellie were placed into the ambulance. Joshua was worried so he planned to follow them to the hospital.

“I’ll come along.” Fiona worriedly bit her lips. Tears kept falling. “Granny Lynch is already so old. She must be extremely uncomfortable.”

Then, she could not help but look at Luna. “How could you be so cruel?”

Although Fiona did not know why Granny Lynch would be in pain even though she did not eat that dish, she knew that this was a great opportunity!

Although the process was different, the results were the same. Granny Lynch was admitted to the hospital, Luna taking the blame. This was her purpose that night!

“Yes, I don’t know how she could be so cruel.” Joshua picked his coat up. He put on his coat while looking at Luna coldly. “A person who used to be gentle and kind hearted. I don’t know when she became so cruel and nasty.”

Luna sneered.

She calmly looked at Joshua. "Joshua, the results are not out yet, why do you have to side with Fiona, so eagerly trying to place the blame of poisoning on me?" Joshua harrumphed coldly, "If it's not you, could it be Fiona? She would not do such things! Also, the test results have come out. The problem lies with the Grilled Cajun Shrimp! Fiona did not touch that dish because she's allergic to them! Are you still trying to deny it?" Then, Joshua immediately threw his coat at Luna. "Put on your coat. Follow us to the hospital! If anything happens to Granny Lynch, you're the one to blame!"

Luna sneered. She put on her coat and followed them out the door. "It's cold." The moment they stepped out, Fiona shivered. Joshua hesitated a little before hugging Fiona in his arms. "It is quite cold tonight." Luna was walking behind them. Looking at Joshua and Fiona, she was disheartened. She secretly hugged her coat tighter. Joshua's words a moment ago rang in her ears. "If it's not you, could it be Fiona? She would not do such things!" Luna sneered. Joshua trusted Fiona so much, yet he did not trust her at all. "Mr. Lynch, the results are out. It was just a scare. Although the dish on the table was drugged, Granny Lynch was not poisoned. She only had some... laxatives." Joshua raised his eyebrows. "Laxatives?"

"Yes."

Facing Joshua's stunned expressions, the doctor cleared his throat. "Granny Lynch has been taken to the toilet with the help of the nurses. Although it was laxative, she had been constipated recently. I guess it's a blessing in disguise."

“As for Nigel and Nellie, they did not consume any laxatives. Perhaps they consumed cold things during the afternoon which caused them to have a tummy ache. I’ve already prescribed them some medicine. “

The doctor sighed, “But, Mr. Lynch, although it’s only a scare, the food at home has truly been poisoned. You have to carefully investigate this matter. “Also, Granny Lynch can’t consume too many drugs like laxatives.”

Then, the doctor closed his file, turned, and left. Joshua furrowed his brows while looking at the doctor leaving. After a while, he turned around. Behind him, Fiona was sitting on the bench with teary eyes. She sobbed while wiping her tears away.

“Thank goodness, thank goodness that Granny Lynch only had laxatives. If she ate the dish that Luna poisoned, the consequences would be dire... “

Luna was leaning against the wall opposite her, playing on her phone leisurely. Occasionally, she would play a voice message on her phone. Joshua would recognize from the tone that it was Christian from the voice message. He furrowed his brows tightly.

It was at such a serious moment, yet Luna still had the mood to chat with Christian!

Not only Granny Lynch was sent to the emergency room, but also her two kids! Luna kept saying that she had no mental illness. She kept saying that she loved her children.

Was that how she showed her love?

Joshua stared at Luna for a very long time. It was until Luna finished chatting with Christian only then did she notice Joshua staring at her. She kept her phone and looked at Joshua calmly. “Mr. Lynch, is there anything?”

Joshua narrowed his eyes fiercely. He forced the words out of his mouth. “The laxatives.

Was it you?"

How would they have laxatives at home out of nowhere? Also, when he sent his men to follow Luna back home the night before, they said that she stopped by the pharmacy on her way home.

It was hard for Joshua to not link the poisoned Grilled Cajun Shrimp with the laxatives Granny Lynch consumed with Luna.

Luna paused for a while. In the end, she shrugged. "The laxatives? Yes, I did it."

Joshua's pupils dilated upon her words! Luna actually openly admitted to it? He was infuriated. He immediately rushed forward and clasped her chin.

"Do you know how old Granny Lynch is? You drugged her so heavily. Are you trying to kill her? Since when has Granny Lynch offended you?"

Joshua admitted. When Luna just came back to the country, Granny Lynch had indeed gone up against Luna because of Aura and Alice.

However, later one, when he explained to Granny Lynch how hard it was for Luna to single -handedly raise such great children, Granny Lynch's impression of Luna changed too.

Even at that moment, Granny Lynch despised Fiona because, in her mind, Luna was far greater!

However, Luna would dare to viciously drug an elderly who only thought well of her!

It was poison as well as laxatives!

What was she trying to do? Was she heartless?

Joshua could not understand why Luna wanted to go up against such an old person!

"Maybe...it was not Granny Lynch who offended Ms. Luna, it was me."

Just when Joshua was clutching Luna's neck questioning her, Fiona, who had been sitting on the chair in the distance, wiped her tears and stood up. Tears were still in her eyes. She sobbed and looked at Joshua and Luna. "Ms. Luna must have known that Granny Lynch and I did not see eye to eye, so she tried to hurt Granny Lynch and framed it on me." Fiona cried until her eyes were reddened. "After all, in the entire Orchard Manor, only I would have the motive to hurt Granny..." The more Fiona spoke the more aggrieved she was. She sobbed until her entire body started twitching. Luna was being pinned against the wall by Joshua. She could not help but smile. "Ms. Blake, your act of accusing me is done to perfection. Such great acting skills. It's a pity you're not in the entertainment industry!" "Luna!" Joshua's expressions darkened instantly. "What nonsense are you spewing?" "I'm spewing nonsense?" Luna smiled and looked at Joshua coldly. "Mr. Lynch, you're darling Ms. Blake is the one spewing nonsense." Luna met Joshua's gaze fearlessly. Her tone was much colder than her gaze. "Ms. Blake said that I knew that only she in Orchard Manor would have the motive to harm Granny Lynch, so I deliberately drugged Granny Lynch to frame her.

"Let me ask the both of you. Do I look like an idiot to you? I know that Granny Lynch and Fiona do not see eye to eye. Why should I meddle in their affairs? I hate Fiona so much, why don't I use Granny Lynch's help to go up against Fiona more?" The entire corridor was silenced upon Luna's words. Joshua furrowed his brows. His clutched on Luna relaxed a little. Luna took the opportunity to pry his hands away. Then she walked a few steps toward Fiona aloofly. "If I wanted to screw with you, I would not have targeted Granny Lynch. I should just bad-mouth you in front of Granny Lynch, then please her well and proper. That way, you will live your days terribly.”

Fiona narrowed her eyes fiercely. A hint of resentment flashed across her eyes. However, on the surface, she still looked feeble and gentle. “But, Ms. Luna, don’t you hate Granny Lynch too?”

“Maybe perhaps to you, killing Granny Lynch would make you much happier than pleasing her?”

Luna laughed.

She did not reply to Fiona’s question, on the contrary, she replied to Fiona’s question with another question.

“Ms. Blake, tell me. If you were to poison Granny Lynch, would you place the poison in a dish that only you made?”

Fiona’s face turned pale. “I...”

“At that time, only you and I were in the kitchen. You kept saying how you were allergic to the shrimp, so you can’t touch them.

“Tell me, how stupid would I be to poison the shrimp?”

Joshua furrowed his brows a little at Luna’s words.

After a while, he harrumphed coldly, “Since you said that you did not drug it, why did you admit to it?”

Luna smiled. “Mr. Lynch, I’m only admitting to the laxatives. Granny Lynch indeed drank the beverage that was laced with laxatives.”

She said while looking at Fiona calmly, “That cup was meant for Ms. Blake.”

The atmosphere in the corridor froze.

Joshua furrowed his brows and looked at Luna. His gaze was complicated.

He remembered that when they reached Orchard Manor that evening, Nellie insisted on letting Granny Lynch drink the lemon iced tea, which was made for Fiona because it has more words than herbal tea.

Thus...

The laxatives were laced in the beverage meant for Fiona?

Joshua was not only the one that was shocked. Fiona too. She bit her lips and glared at Luna. "So, from the beginning, you laced the beverage, wanting to give me diarrhea! "

Luna laughed. She turned to look at Fiona coldly. " Why? Can't I? How many times have you schemed against me all this while, Ms. Blake?"

Luna crossed her arms around her chest. Her tone was arrogant. "Last night, My friend John got hurt because he stopped you from killing yourself. You did not even thank him, yet Mr.

Lynch had the audacity to threaten us, saying if anything were to happen to you, he would not forgive us.

"Yet the next day, you invite me to your house for dinner. I was a little resentful and I thought that this would be a setup, so I made the first move. Can't I do that?"

Then, Luna touched her own chin. "But, my plan backfired. I never thought that Nellie would drink the beverage meant for Fiona because of the name of the beverage. If not..."

Luna smiled a little. "The person stuck to the toilet bowl should be Ms. Blake instead."

Luna widened her eyes. She was so furious she was trembling. She immediately buried herself in Joshua's arms.

"Joshua, look at Luna! How terrible she is! I invited her to our house with good intentions, planning to reconcile with her and not go up against each other in the future. Look at what happened...”

Fiona cried miserably in Joshua’s arms, “Joshua, my health is not as great as Granny Lynch.

You know this too. If I were to drink the beverage laced with laxatives, I might not live to see the day tomorrow. How terrifying. If Granny Lynch was not allergic to peanuts, she would have definitely eaten the poisoned dish of shrimps!

“If I were to drink the beverage laced with laxatives, I would be feeling terrible tonight too.

Luna has planned to get rid of me and Granny Lynch in one meal...”

Fiona rambled and cried in Joshua’s arms. Joshua’s expressions gradually darkened.

“Luna, you have crossed the line.”

After a while, he sighed and picked up the phone. He called Lucas. “Go back to the Orchard Manor and take Granny Lynch’s beverage over here.”

Then, he thought for a while and added, “Bring the untouched cup of herbal tea here too.”

“Yes, sir!”

When Joshua was about to hang up the call, Luna immediately reminded Lucas. “Also, bring the phone and phone stand at the corner of the kitchen over.”

A hint of resentment arose in Fiona’s eyes. As expected, Luna placed the phone there to monitor her!

However, Fiona smiled widely. Luna was indeed smart, but stupid as well.

Since Fiona was planning to frame her for poisoning the food, how could she let Luna’s phone record her doing that? Fiona has long deleted the videos.

She even deleted the original file on the phone.

Fiona did not believe that there could be any evidence left in that broken phone! At that thought, Fiona was even more smug.

Fiona wanted to see what evidence Luna could produce when Lucas brought the phone over!

10 minutes later, Lucas rushed over with a few cups of beverages, the phone, and the phone stand.

Although Joshua only asked for two beverages, when he took them, he noticed that Nigel's and Nellie's beverages were not finished yet and it was placed together, so he simply took them together.

The doctor took the beverages to check upon them. In the end, he only brought the lemon iced tea out.

"Mr. Lynch, only this cup has been laced with laxatives. From the results, the ingredients were matched with the ones Granny Lynch consumed.

"As for the other three cups, there is nothing. Especially in the herbal tea. Not only has it not been drugged, but it was also added with many vitamins good for the elderly."

Then, the doctor stuffed the results in Joshua's hand, turned, and left.

Clutching the results, Joshua furrowed his brows a little.

Fiona went over to have a look. Then she loudly reprimanded Luna,

"Great, how dare you laced my drink with laxatives! Luna, laxatives will almost kill me! How vicious of you! "

Fiona yelled while placing the blame for the poisoned Grilled Cajun Shrimp on Luna.

"She laced my beverage with laxatives while poisoning Granny Lynch! She's terrible! "

"Luna."

Suddenly, Joshua, who was behind Fiona, looked at Luna coldly. "What's going on with the shrimp?"

If Luna was truly like what Fiona said, trying to harm Fiona with laxatives while killing Granny Lynch with poison, then why did she add all those healthy vitamins that were good for the elderly into the herbal tea for Granny Lynch?

It was illogical.

Actually, during dinner, he was extremely suspicious. Luna knew that Granny Lynch was allergic to peanuts, yet she absurdly placed the peanuts in such a conspicuous place. The peanuts were as much as the shrimp.

It was as if she was afraid no one could see them. "Mr. Lynch, what do you think?"

Luna smiled and waved the phone in her hands. "The answers you want are all in this phone."

Joshua furrowed his brows and gave Luna a look. He signaled at her to turn on her phone.

Fiona noticed how confident Luna looked. She could not help but secretly sneer at her.

Fiona has long deleted those videos on the phone that would look bad on her! She wanted to see what tricks Luna had up her sleeves!

However, the next second, her face suddenly turned pale.

Because the video Luna played was of her smiling smugly picking the phone up deleting the video!

Fiona's face turned pale.

This...

Impossible!

Luna smiled and continued rewinding the video to the point before Fiona deleted the video.

In the video, Fiona, who kept emphasizing being allergic to shrimps, not only picked up the shrimps with her utensils and had a taste, she even took out a small packet of medication from her pocket and placed them into the Grilled Cajun Shrimp! Then, she smiled and placed the dish back to its original place, then turned around to delete the video.

The atmosphere in the entire corridor was so heavy it made one's heart palpitate.

Fiona clenched her fists tightly.

"Joshua..." Fiona said with a hoarse voice, "I-let me... let me explain."
