

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2731

Chapter 2731 "Who dares to touch me?"

Seeing that the bodyguards were closing in on them, Thomas narrowed his eyes, took something out of his pocket, and aimed it right at the leader's forehead.

When the leader caught sight of the object in Thomas' hand, he was so shocked that his entire body froze in place.

It was a shiny handgun, and its barrel was pointed straight at the center of his forehead.

"If you take even one step toward me, there's no guarantee what'll happen." Thomas' voice was steady and calm.

The look in his eyes was so cold and merciless that none of the guards dared to move.

Neither Denise nor Tina had expected Thomas to carry a handgun with him. The two of them exchanged a nervous glance, unsure of what to do at this moment.

None of the guards dared to put themselves at risk, and neither did they.

Not only that, but Tina even surreptitiously shrunk behind Denise for protection.

Thomas had, at one point, been the champion of a gun shooting competition, and she was worried that he would point the barrel at her!

"Get away from me!" Thomas narrowed his eyes and began taking small steps backward, his arms still around Yannie, intending to leave Howard Mansion that way.

However, to his surprise, the door behind him suddenly flung open.

It was Senior Howard.

The first thing he saw when he entered the door was the sight of his son pointing a gun in the direction of his wife while inching slowly backward with another woman.

He immediately furrowed his brow at this. "You bastard! What the hell do you think you're doing?"

Thomas frowned when he heard this. He turned around and pointed the gun straight at Senior Howard. "Finally decided to come home, huh? I thought you'd be hiding forever!"

Senior Howard was outraged by this. "What do you mean I'd be hiding forever?"

Why was Thomas accusing him of hiding when he had just popped out to the company to get some work done?

Did he come to kill him? Did he come all the way to Howard Mansion just to kill his own father?

At the thought of this, Senior Howard scoffed. "I must be a donkey's father! You and your mother are two peas in a pod!"

The reason he had sent Thomas out to live on his own was to avoid conflict between Thomas, Tina, and Dan, while at the same time hoping that this would sharpen Thomas' independence.

However, he never thought Thomas would betray him and even bring Joshua Lynch home to steal his inheritance!

Not only that, but this wretched son had snuck into Howard Mansion while he was out and even pointed a gun at him and his wife!

He always thought that Thomas would inherit his mother's kindness and humility, but it turned out to be the total opposite!

"You have no right to bring up my mother!" Thomas was already outraged by Tina's deceit, and at the mention of his mother, he could not suppress his rage any longer.

Seeing that Thomas was now distracted by Senior Howard's appearance, Tina furrowed her brows and shot the leader of the guards a meaningful glance.

The leader understood immediately and began to charge toward Thomas

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2732

Chapter 2732 Just as Thomas pointed his gun toward Senior Howard, the guards lunged forward and grabbed him from behind.

Bang!

Thomas' gun discharged amid the scuffle.

All he wanted was to use the gun to scare the guards. After all, he knew he was outnumbered and had no other way of ensuring his and Yannie's safety, so the gun was the only way to leave Howard Mansion alive.

However, he never thought that just as he was about to let off a warning shot to keep the guards at bay, the leader grabbed hold of his arm and accidentally set off the gun, sending a bullet straight toward Senior Howard.

“Agh!” Senior Howard instinctively grabbed hold of his abdomen.

The bullet pierced into his belly.

“Senior Howard!” Tina let out a shriek and immediately sprinted toward him. “Are you okay? Someone call a – doctor! Someone call an ambulance!” !

Thomas and the guards, who were engaged in a scuffle, froze when they heard this.

Thomas stared dazedly at his father, then lowered his head to glance at the gun.

Did he...accidentally hurt that old geezer?

“Are you happy now?” Tina shot Thomas a murderous glare. “He’s your father, for God’s sake! Has he ever mistreated you apart from sending you away from home and refusing to let you take over the family business?”

“From the moment you turned ten, we’ve given you money for your allowance every month, so what do you even have against him? Why did you shoot him?”

Thomas furrowed his brow and opened his mouth, intending to say something, but no words came out.

Meanwhile, Yannie bit her lip and clasped his hand.

The warmth of her palm finally brought Thomas out of his daze.

He furrowed his brow and said coldly, “I never intended to shoot at him, much less kill him.”

He was just trying to warn the guards to stay away from him and Yannie.

Tina bit her lip and glared first at Thomas, then at the guards behind him. “This bastard shot the man of the house, for God’s sake! Why haven’t you captured him yet?”

The guards immediately came to and finally pressed Thomas against the ground.

“He didn’t mean to do it!” Yannie watched fearfully as Thomas’ hands were restrained behind his back like a prisoner. She bit her lip and tried to push the guards away, all the while protesting, “He never intended to shoot at anyone! The reason the gun discharged was because you had caught him by surprise—“.

“Shut up, you!” Denise snapped before Yannie could even finish her sentence. She sneered as she glanced at Thomas , then strode over to Yannie and lifted her arm.

Smack!

A hard slap landed on Yannie’s face as Denise snarled, “Would this have happened if it weren’t for you? How dare you even speak? Who do you think you are?”

Despite being pressed against the ground, Thomas witnessed Yannie being slapped, and he immediately struggled against his bonds. “Don’t you dare touch her!”

This was all his fault.

He should not have trusted Tina so easily, much less brought Yannie along with him to such a dangerous place!

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 2733

Chapter 2733 A red handprint immediately appeared on Yannie’s swollen face. Yannie bit her lip and held her swollen, painful cheek with one hand as she glanced at Thomas, who was pinned to the floor.

She opened her mouth, intending to say something, but could not help feeling that nothing she could say would be right.

Finally, she bit her lip, slid her other hand into her pocket, and surreptitiously dialed her emergency contact.

She had two emergency contacts; one was Thomas, and the other was her mother , Mrs. Flores. Since she could not accurately dial Luna’s number for help without looking at her phone, she had no choice but to call Mrs. Flores instead.

Soon, her phone vibrated in her pocket, indicating that Mrs. Flores had picked up the call.

Yannie bit her lip and got onto both knees. “Senior Howard, Mrs. Howard, Thomas hadn’t meant to do any of this! When he brought me along to Howard Mansion, all he intended to do was to have a civilized conversation as a family, but he never thought that Mrs. Howard would try to threaten us under the pretense of inviting us over for a family lunch...

“We never meant to hurt Senior Howard. Please let Thomas go; he didn’t mean to do this!”

Senior Howard furrowed his brow when he heard this. With his hand still on his abdomen, he glanced dubiously at Thomas and Yannie, then at Tina. Finally, he said feebly, "What is going on?" Could Tina have been the one who summoned Thomas and Yannie here to repair their broken relationship?

"Don't listen to her!" Tina narrowed her eyes, shot Yannie a murderous glare, then glanced at the guards. "Keep Thomas locked in the guest bedroom; we'll decide what to do with him as soon as Senior Howard gets better!"

Then, she gave Denise a meaningful look and added, "Keep an eye on them, Denise!"

As soon as she finished her sentence, the sound of sirens echoed from outside the house.

Tina and the servants quickly brought Senior Howard into the ambulance, and soon, the ambulance departed toward the hospital.

The only people who remained in the room were Denise, Thomas, Yannie, and a few of the bodyguards.

"Are you still going to defy me?" Denise crossed her arms in front of her chest, staring at Yannie, and sneered. "Did you honestly think anyone would believe you? You're in Howard Mansion, for God's sake, and to everyone else, Thomas' future wife is me, not you, bitch!" Then, she waved dismissively at the guards and ordered, "Send Thomas into my room."

Both Thomas and Yannie widened their eyes in shock. "What are you going to do?"

"What do you think?" Denise sneered. "Did you think Godmom summoned me here just to watch? Well, let me tell you something; I've been preparing for this day for a long time."

Then, she scoffed and gestured for the guards to follow her to her room.

"Denise Hughes, I have one piece of advice for you; you'd better watch your step," Thomas said frostily, narrowing his eyes as the guards dragged him along.

The poison that had been spiked in the food was beginning to take effect, and he was starting to feel very uncomfortable.

Despite this, he still tried to put on a strong front. "If you don't, I won't let you off the hook so easily once I get out of here."

“Don’t worry; you wouldn’t dare touch me as soon as I get pregnant with your child.” Denise chuckled. “You started treating Yannie so nicely ever since she gave birth to your child, so you won’t dare to lay a finger on me once I do the same!”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 2734

Chapter 2734 Inside a small house in the city center, Mrs. Flores stared blankly at the phone as the dial tone repeated itself.

Seconds later, she finally furrowed her brow in realization.

Yannie must have gotten in trouble—she and Thomas had probably run into some danger at Howard Mansion, and she was calling for help!

At the thought of this, Mrs. Flores let out an exhale and dialed Luna’s number. At this moment, Luna and Rachel were busy coaxing Gwen to eat.

Gwen had already gone a day without eating anything , and if this persisted, she would eventually wind up with stomach problems.

“Do you guys think... I should give up?” Gwen said, her voice shaking as she nibbled at her hamburger. “If Steven doesn’t want to have anything to do with me...

“Every time I think of the fact that his body belongs to Luke, I can’t help wanting to give up. Even if we’re not together and he no longer remembers me, I think I can live with that. As long as he’s still alive, I’ll be content.

“Perhaps forgetting everything about me isn’t a bad thing to him at all, is it?

“I can still pretend that Luke is still alive and pretend that he’s a version of Luke who lost all his memories of me...” Gwen murmured as tears slid down her cheeks.

After all, she had initially planned to leave Luke so that he would forget her and be able to start his new life afresh.

Even though things did not turn out the exact way she wanted them to, it was still a similar situation. “Gwen.” Luna pursed her lips, suddenly unsure of how to console her best friend. Just as she contemplated this, however, Mrs. Flores’ call came.

Luna furrowed her brow as she took out her phone and glanced at the caller ID.

Why was Mrs. Flores calling at such a time?

Luna took a few steps back and went out onto the balcony. She picked up the phone and dubiously spoke, "Mrs. Flores?"

"Yes, it's me," Mrs. Flores' shaking voice rang out. "Ms.

Luna, can you help Yannie and Mr. Howard? I think – they're in danger!"

Luna frowned when she heard this. "Mrs. Flores, please calm down first, and tell me what happened to them."

Had Yannie and Thomas not gone out together? How could they have gotten in danger?

Mrs. Flores sighed and relayed everything that she had heard through the phone to Luna. "Ms. Luna, Yannie has always been a good child, and she'd never come to me for help unless it's something she has no solution to!

"She knows full well that I'm all alone here in Saigen City and that I won't have any way of helping her...so I had no choice but to call you..."

"Mrs. Flores." Luna let out an exhale when she heard this. "Don't worry; I'll do my best to help Yannie. Please don't overthink this. I'm going to tell Joshua right now, and we'll leave immediately for Howard Mansion. I'll be back with good news!"

Then, she hung up and immediately called Joshua.

Joshua picked up after the first ring. "What's wrong?"

Luna pursed her lips and gave him a brief description of what had happened. "Are we going to Howard Mansion now?"

"I'm already on the way." Joshua furrowed his brow as he explained, "When Thomas first arrived at Howard Mansion, he texted me saying that if I don't receive a call from him in half an hour, it means something bad has happened, and I'm supposed to go rescue him. "Lucas and I are already on our way to Howard Mansion."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2735

Chapter 2735 Luna finally began to relax when she heard this. She let out a sigh of relief and asked, "Where are you now? Where can I meet you?"

Even though Joshua was already on his way to rescue Thomas and Yannie, Luna still felt that it would be better if she went as well since she had already promised Mrs. Flores to help Yannie.

Besides, even if she had not made that promise, she and Yannie were friends, so she had to check on her.

Joshua hesitated for a moment before replying, "I have some men stationed outside your hotel room to protect you. You can go out and request them to bring you here.

"Howard Mansion is closer to you than it is to me, so you might even make it there before I do."

Luna paused for a moment, returned to the room, and flung open the front door.

A few bodyguards dressed in black were standing outside, and all of them froze as though they had not expected her to suddenly check in on them. "Ma'am..."

A surge of warmth spread into Luna's heart when she saw this. She pursed her lips and said into the phone, "Have you...been keeping an eye on me this whole time?"

She thought Joshua had been so busy that he would not have the time to check on her.

"That's right." Joshua nodded. "These men have been watching over you all this while, but unfortunately, the last batch of guards weren't responsible enough and didn't notice Gwen sneaking out on the day she got drunk, so I switched all of them out. Since they're new, I'm guessing they wouldn't dare to commit such a mistake."

Then, he curled his lips into a smile and added, "Lucas was the one who hand-picked them, so I'm sure they're trustworthy enough." Luna pursed her lips when she heard this. "Thank you."

With that, she hung up the phone.

"What happened?"

Rachel and Gwen had come up behind her when they noticed Luna opening the door all of a sudden. They had that foreboding feeling that something was wrong.

Luna glanced at them and hesitated for a moment before grabbing their hands. "Let's go. I'll explain everything on the way."

Then, she glanced at the guards and said, "Bring us to Howard Mansion."

The guards froze for a moment, then led the three women downstairs and into the car.

As soon as they got into the car, Luna finally sighed and explained everything to Gwen and Rachel. Finally, she furrowed her brow and added, "I hadn't wanted to bring you along, but..." After all, she could not be sure if it was truly safe to bring them there.

"I can't help feeling that ..." She glanced at Gwen. "You need something to distract you from thinking about Steven. Not only that..."

She turned to glance at Rachel. "You're a doctor, and according to what I heard from Mrs. Flores, Thomas and Yannie had probably been poisoned. "I'm guessing that Joshua probably hadn't thought of this possibility yet, so he probably wouldn't have thought of bringing a doctor with him."

"Don't worry," Rachel piped up. "Even though I'm not as good of a chemist as your mother, I'm still far better than most doctors when it comes to toxicology."

The car soon arrived at Howard Mansion.

Joshua was right; their hotel was so close to Howard Mansion that Joshua's car was still nowhere in sight when they arrived.

Luna immediately got out of the car and instructed her men to kick down the front door without waiting for Joshua.