

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2795

Chapter 2795

Luna was worried that something would happen if she left Gwen and Steven to their own devices.

She was just about to stop them when Gwen lifted her head to fixate her gaze on Steven's face. "Sure."

"Gwen." Luna furrowed her brow and instinctively grabbed hold of Gwen's arm. "You..."

"I know what I'm doing." Gwen knew what Luna was concerned about.

However, it was as though she was drawn to Steven like a bee was drawn to nectar.

She wanted to find out what kind of person Steven was, and she wanted to know if she had been hallucinating or if Steven was really gradually becoming Luke.

This was something she would not stop until she found the answer.

When she saw the determination in Gwen's eyes, Luna fell silent and finally let go.

After Gwen and Steven left, Lucas led Luna to Joshua's office.

This was Luna's first time visiting Joshua's office here in Saigen City. This office was far smaller than Joshua's offices in Merchant City and Banyan City.

After being used to sitting in Joshua's ginormous office space, Luna was a little uneasy by how suffocating the room seemed.

"I'm just here to help out for a bit, after all." Joshua smiled when he sensed the discomfort in Luna's eyes. He pointed at the sofa beside his desk, signaling her to sit. "Did Gwen leave with Steven?"

Luna nodded. "Did you know that Steven would invite her?"

"Yes." Joshua took a sip from his cup. "I was the one who suggested he do so."

Luna's eyes widened in shock. A split second later, she furrowed her brow and protested, "But you know Gwen... She's so devoted to Luke that his death almost killed her. Now that she's met the person who stole Luke's body, aren't you worried that she-

“She has to face the truth eventually,” Joshua interrupted her. “If we keep Gwen by our side at all times and stop her from interacting with Steven in every way, it might seem like a good idea short-term, but we can’t possibly watch her for the rest of our lives.

“Therefore, instead of keeping her cooped up, why don’t we just let her face the truth so that she can realize just how different Luke and Steven are? That way, she’ll be able to choose whether she wants to continue drowning in the past or start her life anew.”

Luna was silent for a long time.

Finally, she lifted her head to stare at Joshua. “Perhaps you’re right, but…”

She sighed and continued, “I’m just worried that Gwen can’t tell the difference between Steven and Luke, and she’ll eventually lose herself again.”

Joshua curled his lips into a smile. “Just give her some time.”

Luna did not dare to comment any further.

After some time, Joshua’s phone rang.

It was an unknown number.

Joshua picked up the call, frowning.

Dan’s furious voice rang out from the other end of the line, “Joshua Lynch, I know you’re a despicable man, but clearly, I’ve underestimated you!”

Chapter 2796 Dan’s outburst did not faze Joshua at all. Instead, he smiled naturally. “Well, well. I don’t know if Mr. Dan Howard is the right person to make such a comment. Compared to you, I’m not as shameful as you are.” The reply had pushed Dan to his limits. “What are you saying?!”

“You conspired with your mother to kill your own father. How could you not understand what I’m saying?” Joshua’s tone became colder as he held his phone to his ear, his voice so remote and indifferent that the temperature felt like the cold wintertime. “Do you truly think no one knows what you and your mother did? Sooner or later, the truth about you and your mother killing Senior Howard and how you wronged Thomas will be out. By then, everyone in this city will know the most shameless and vicious people you both are!”

There was no reply from Dan, and the conversation became dead quiet.

After a while, he screamed out hysterically, "That's a false allegation, Joshua Lynch! My mother and I did nothing to the old geezer! He failed to resuscitate after Thomas shot him. How is that related to us?! If you continue to slander me, I'll sue you for defamation! I suggest you better stop resisting and return what's mine!

"If you do that, I might put in a few good words for you to the public when I'm in a good mood. Maybe Thomas can spend fewer years in prison. Otherwise, he can rot in prison!"

The more Dan spoke, the more aggressive and arrogant he was.

"No one can protect you anymore when Thomas gets imprisoned. My mom and I will kick you out of Howard Group and this city.

"No, that's not enough. I'll escalate this incident so that everyone in the world knows that the richest person in Banyan City, Joshua Lynch, President of Lynch Group is a shameless and despicable person!

"If you give up and admit your defeat now, you can beg for mercy. I may let you off the hook!"

Joshua scoffed at Dan's words. "Mr. Howard, it's such a shame that you're not a screenwriter. It's good that you have so many creative thoughts, but those are just wild ideas. I suggest that you should go see a psychiatrist."

He smirked. "I won't beg for mercy from anyone, especially you. As for the worst-case scenario you mentioned..." He raised the corner of his lips and enunciated, "I'll be waiting for them."

With that, Joshua hung up without saying anything further.

"Goodness, he's such a menace!" Luna had listened to the entire conversation between Joshua and Dan. She furrowed her brow and looked at Joshua. "Are you..really confident to solve this?"

"You don't trust me?" Joshua raised his brow and looked at Luna, Taken aback, Luna quickly shook her head. "No. You're the person I trust the most. I'll doubt anyone else other than you."

"That's right." He curled up his lips and smiled while waving his hand at Luna. "Come."

She walked over as was, and Joshua reached out and pulled her into his arms.

"It's been over half a month since we've been here in Saigen City. Do you miss home?"

Luna did not answer the question immediately. After a moment of silence, she nodded. "A little bit."

She was not really homesick. Rather, she missed Nigel, Neil, and Nellie more. While her three kids surfaced in her mind, she could not help but wonder where her long-lost daughter was...

"Bonnie contacted me today." Joshua smoothed his wife's head when he saw the light in her eyes diminishing. "She said Jim is starting to recover his memory."

"That's great!" Lights reappeared in her eyes. "Does that mean Shelly is about to reunite with her family? When that happens, my brother and Bonnie can finally have their wedding!"
