

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2907

Chapter 2907

"What is it?" Luna furrowed her brow, asking fervently as she placed Joshua's call on speaker mode.

"Anne was indeed kidnapped." Jude let out a sigh and continued, "From the surveillance tapes, a woman in black kidnapped her and smuggled her out from the back door."

Then, he took out a piece of paper from his pocket and handed it to Luna. "The employees found this at the back door."

Luna froze, then took the slip of paper from him.

A row of neat handwriting read, [Don't worry, Ms. Luna, we won't hurt your friend, but there's no guarantee what we'll do if you don't attend the wedding tonight.]

Luna gasped at this.

What was this person trying to do? Did they kidnap Anne just to threaten her to attend Adrian and Jacqueline's wedding?

"I found something from the surveillance tapes too," Joshua said, frowning, when he heard Luna's silence. "I've sent the video to you. According to the tapes, that woman who kidnapped Anne from the back door circled to the restaurant entrance to pick up Jacqueline before leaving."

Joshua's voice was solemn as he continued, "Therefore, we can be sure that Jacqueline was the one who kidnapped Anne. Perhaps her appearance at the restaurant at the same time as you was not a coincidence at all, but planned. Perhaps unbeknown to you, she had been following you since the start."

Joshua propped his chin in his hand as he stared at the surveillance tape. "This woman is far more sneaky than we initially thought."

Neither Luna nor Joshua would ever think Jacqueline would be following them.

Luna had just left the house for a few hours, and Jacqueline could not possibly have stumbled upon them by accident. The most logical explanation for this was that Jacqueline had known about their return and had followed them since they landed at Banyan City Airport.

At the thought of this, Joshua narrowed his eyes. "Things are beginning to get interesting."

Luna frowned as she glanced at the video Joshua had sent her.

In the video, Anne was already unconscious as she was lugged onto a van by a woman dressed in black. Not only that, but before she got into the car, the woman even glanced in the direction of the surveillance camera, as though she already knew they would be watching her.

Luna bit her lip.

She hated the feeling of being tricked.

"Let me see." Vanessa glanced at Luna's phone, frowning, and immediately recognized the woman in black. "Is that Willow Shore?"

Luna froze, then turned to stare at Vanessa in disbelief. "You know her?"

"I do." Vanessa frowned. "She used to be my classmate, but she was expelled due to her tendency to get into physical fights. I heard that she eventually wound up working for her brother's loan shark company."

With that, she took out her phone. "If I remember correctly, I still have her phone number. Do you want me to try contacting her?"

Luna bit her lip and glanced again at the woman in the video. "Did you say...her name is Willow Shore?"

Vanessa nodded. "Yes, that's right."

"And she has a brother who owns a loan shark company?" Luna paused. "Is her brother the man who met Jacqueline just now called James Shore?"
