The Policewoman Chapter 31

The following days were spent in happiness and sorrow for Lin Kai.

The happy part was that he was lying in a hospital bed recovering from his injuries, accompanied by Song Linna and the pretty nurse lady respectively, with fruit being pared, nutritious porridge being cooked and meals being delivered, living a godlike life.

The sad thing was that he had called his sister-in-law Tang Huimin's number on Song Linna's mobile phone countless times, but her mobile phone was always switched off, as if Tang Huimin had evaporated from the face of the earth, and he had lost contact with her ever since.

When he thought of all the romantic times he and Tang Huimin had spent together, when his brother-in-law was accidentally captured by the thugs while rescuing him, while he himself was bound by the thugs with his limbs tied and his mouth taped, unable to do anything about her and watching his brother-in-law being abused by the thugs, he felt his heart twisting like a knife.

He made up his mind that when he was discharged from hospital, he would find the gang led by the bald man, Black Dragon, and avenge himself and his aunt.

However, he was alone, he had no gun, and he did not know how to fight, so how could he help those vicious criminals?

The only way is to get stronger first, and then talk about revenge.

For the sake of Lin Kai's safety, Song Linna did not reveal to anyone that Lin Kai had been rescued, sent to the city People's Hospital himself and transferred to a military sanatorium to recuperate from his injuries.

The leaders, teachers and students of Yanjing University were limited to knowing that Lin Kai had been kidnapped in front of the school and had called the police, and that the case was under further investigation.

Apart from going to school to attend classes, Song Lina spends almost all of her time in the military sanatorium with her beloved Prince Charming, Lin Kai.

Although she did some affectionate acts with Lin Kai, they were limited to kissing, hugging and touching, and she never dared to go beyond the limits.

As Lin Kai was young and still physically strong, after half a month he recovered from his injuries and was fully fit to be discharged from hospital.

Song Lina's cousin, Zhou Peng, sent word that although the bureau leaders attached great importance to the case of the missing criminal investigation team leader, Tang Huimin, and the team members had made many efforts, the case was going nowhere and the gang of criminals who kidnapped Tang Huimin had lost all trace of them.

Zhou Peng suggested that until Tang Huimin's disappearance is solved and the culprits are caught, Lin Kai should stay at the military sanatorium for the time being and show up again after the police case is solved.

Lin Kai was already an impatient man, plus, he missed his sister-in-law and was eager for revenge, so how could he stay in the military sanatorium?

So, he repeatedly asked the doctors and nurses for discharge.

Since Lin Kai's situation was special, they could not easily discharge him without a nod from the head of the higher level, so Lin Kai was on pins and needles in his ward in the military sanatorium.

On this day, Song Linna walked into the ward and said to Lin Kai cheerfully.

"My grandfather wants to see you!"

"What? Your grandfather wants to see me?" Lin Kai learnt from the nurse that Master Song was the head of the military district, and he had never seen such a big official before, so he was a little nervous.

"Yes," Song Lina saw Lin Kai's difficult look and winks, "They say that an ugly daughter-in-law always has to meet her father-in-law, are you afraid that my grandfather will eat you up?"

"No..... not at all, how could that be?" Lin Kai said in a panic.

"Since you don't, then pack up and come with me!" Song Linna said seriously.

Lin Kai left the ward with Song Linna, and after getting into the Ferrari sports car that Song Linna had parked in front of the Little White House, Song Linna then started the car.

Song Linna drove the car out of the military sanatorium in one breath, then it was a wild ride down the street, into a military compound with heavily armed soldiers standing guard and heavily guarded, and then drove along the district road to stop in front of a three-storey single villa building in the very middle.

"Honey, we're here!" Song Lina said to Lin Kai, who was sitting in the passenger seat, as she removed her seat belt.

"Oh ....." Lin Kai responded and after looking around for a moment, he removed his seatbelt and got out of the car along with Song Linna and went to the entrance of the villa.

Dingdong!

Song Lina pressed the doorbell with her hand.

The door opened in response.

When she saw an old man with a silver head, his hair standing on end, and an extraordinary presence at the door, she threw herself into his arms like a little bird and said.

"Grandpa, I missed you so much!"

"If you miss me, why don't you come and see me?" Master Song scratched Song Linna's nose with his hand and asked, "Did you bring your boyfriend?"

“Well, brought it!” Song Lina immediately left her grandfather’s embrace, turned around, and said to Lin Kai, who was squirming and standing at the entrance of the room, “Lin Kai, come in, this is my grandfather!”

Lin Kai entered the room and shouted in a small voice, “Grandpa .....

With a pair of sharp eyes, the old man looked Lin Kai up and down and said to Song Linna, “Not bad, my good granddaughter’s eyesight is just fine!”

“That’s right!” Song Lina raised her eyebrows and said without smugness, “You didn’t think about it either, whose granddaughter am I?”

“I knew it, you’d kiss grandpa’s ass, but I like it, haha,” Elder Song laughed brightly, seeing Lin Kai standing dumbfounded, he pointed to the living room sofa and said, “Little friend, don’t be formal, you’re Lina’s friend, just treat it as your own home, sit down first!”

“Thank you grandpa!” Lin Kai thanked him, and then sat side by side with Song Lina on the soft sofa.

Song Linna looked around and inquired, “Grandpa, where’s my grandmother?”

Elder Song replied, “When your grandmother heard you were coming, she went to the market with the nanny to buy food, and she is going to cook a few of her favourite dishes for you today.”

“That’s great, I love to eat my grandmother’s cooking.” Song Lina said happily.

While the two grandparents and grandchildren were chattering, Lin Kai cast his eyes on the living room’s decorations –

The house was decorated in a simple but not extravagant way, a style that suited an old man like Master Song, and the walls were covered in calligraphy and paintings, ironically painted and mostly in wild cursive.

The walls were covered with paintings and calligraphies, most of which were written in wild cursive. With the little appreciation that Lin Kai had, he could see that the characters were written in an extraordinary manner, and that they were mostly by the same hand.

After chatting with his granddaughter for a few moments, Elder Song once again turned his gaze to Lin Kai and, seeing that Lin Kai’s eyes had been fixed on those characters on the wall, he said with a smile.

“Little friend, you also know about calligraphy and painting?”

“No,” Lin Kai shook his head and said with a smile, “I just feel that there is a galloping, majestic aura in the lines of these words!”

“Haha,” Elder Song was pleased to hear the handsome young man in front of him praise his own handiwork, and with a big smile, he said, “It seems that you, like our Lina, like to pat an old man like me on the back... ..”

“No, I’m telling the truth!” Lin Kai said with a red face.

Elder Song didn’t seem to be interested in such appreciation from Lin Kai, but instead asked straight to the point: “I heard from Lina that you want to join the special forces as a special soldier, right?”

“Yes.” Lin Kai said with a serious nod.

Elder Song asked curiously, “Why do you want to give up your studies and become a soldier?”

The Policewoman Chapter 32

“Here’s the thing ……” Lin Kai breathlessly told the story of his brother-in-law, who was a police officer a year ago and died in the line of duty, that some time ago, after he was kidnapped by a gang of thugs, his brother-in-law Tang Huimin went to rescue him alone and was captured by the thugs instead, and has since disappeared without a trace He told Elder Song.

In the process of telling the story, Lin Kai did not mention the hidden love between him and Tang Huimin, but his eyes were a little moist when he remembered the scene when his brother-in-law was ravaged by the bald man and others.

For a moment, Lin Kai wiped a hand over the tears on the corner of his own eyes and said without hesitation.

“In order to avenge my brother-in-law and aunt-in-law, I’m willing to give up my studies, join the army, train in the special forces and kill those gangsters and bring them to justice!”

“You’re really a man who cares about justice, I like that!” Seeing Lin Kai’s gloomy look, Elder Song couldn’t help but pat him on the shoulder and said, “However, it’s not that easy to become a qualified special forces soldier, can you bear that hardship?”

“If I can avenge my loved ones, I’m willing to do it even if it means going to the mountains of sword and the seas of fire, I can assure you old man that I will never let you down!” Lin Kai said boldly.

Old Master Song was a wise man, and had long since seen that Lin Kai was a practiced man, material for the special forces, and was secretly proud of this future grandson-in-law.

Nevertheless, the old man said without showing his face, “Don’t rush to assure me of anything first, wait until I take you to the special forces to experience it before you decide, what do you think?”

“Sure, when are we going?” Lin Kai asked urgently.

“Now!” The old man said, and got up from the sofa.

“Okay, we’ll go now!” Lin Kai admired this thunderous style of Elder Song and got up after him.

Song Linna, who was sitting at the side, was not happy, only to see her pout and say, “Grandpa, didn’t you say that Grandma would personally cook for us to taste her cooking at noon today? Why do you guys just say you’re leaving?”

“Oh, look at my memory,” the old man patted his head with his hand and said to Lin Kai, “Little friend, don’t rush yet, you’re the boyfriend our Lina brought back and it’s also the first time you’ve come to our house, so you have to eat your noon meal before you leave anyway, don’t you think so? ”

With that, the old man took Lin Kai’s hand and told him to sit back down.

At this time, the door to the living room creaked and was pushed open from outside.

A kindly old lady and a young girl carrying a pile of plastic bags with all kinds of food came in from outside.

“Grandma .....” exclaimed Lina Song, hastily getting up from the sofa and lunging towards the old lady, standing in front of her.

The young nanny smiled at Song Lina and knowingly wrung out the plastic bag and headed for the kitchen.

The old lady grabbed Song Lina’s hand and asked, “Lina, I heard you brought your boyfriend to the house, didn’t you?”

“Yes,” Song Lina asked, pointing her finger at Lin Kai, who was sitting side by side with the old man on the sofa, “His name is Lin Kai, what do you think?”

As soon as Lin Kai heard the mother-in-law and grandson talking about themselves, he blushed and stood up from the sofa once again.

Old Mrs Song swept a few glances at Lin Kai and tsked in praise, “Not bad, our Lina really has a good eye, she found such a handsome boyfriend!”

Song Lina said playfully, “Grandma, I haven’t inherited your genes, you’ve found a man as good as my grandfather, how come I can’t find a boyfriend who can hold his own?”

“You’re the only one with a sweet mouth!” The old lady scratched Song Linna’s nose with her hand, and when she saw Lin Kai squirming and standing still, she walked up and said, “Little Lin, don’t stand there, sit down!”

“Lin Kai, this is my grandmother, quickly call her .....” Song Linna passed a wink to Lin Kai.

Lin Kai nodded knowingly and called out in a low voice, “Grandma .....”

“Hey .....” the old lady responded, smiling so hard she couldn’t keep her upper and lower lips together.

Knowing his wife’s nagging problem, Master Song hurriedly urged, “Wife, stop nagging, go and cook, after eating, we still have things to do!”

“Hum, only you know busy,” the old lady white glanced at her partner, smiled awkwardly at Lin Kai and said, “Xiao Lin, you guys sit down for a while, I’m going to cook for you now, when I’m free, we’ll have a good chat .....”

Without waiting for Lin Kai to say anything, the old lady turned around and left the living room, diving headlong into the kitchen.

“Little friend, sit down quickly, this is your own home, there are no so many manners!” Elder Song once again told Lin Kai to sit down beside him.

Ding dong! Ding dong!

Not long after Lin Kai sat down, a doorbell came from the room.

Elder Song said to Song Lina, “Lina, go and open the door, see who’s here?”

Song Lina went forward and opened the door to the room and was surprised to see a tall, middle-aged man standing at the entrance to the room, asking.

“Dad, what are you doing here?”

“I heard that you brought your boyfriend back, so how can I, as a father, not come over to join in the fun?” Song Mingyuan said half-jokingly.

“Didn’t your wife come with you to join in the fun?” Even though Song Lina was very unhappy with that stepmother Liu Tongshu, who was only eight years older than herself, she still mentioned her in order to give her father face.

“She had something to do at noon today and couldn’t come.” Song Mingyuan prevaricated.

“It’s best if she doesn’t come, so she doesn’t have to be false in front of my boyfriend.” Song Lina grumbled, took her father’s hand and came to Lin Kai, introducing her, “His name is Lin Kai, he’s my classmate and my boyfriend .....

“Uncle, hello!” Lin Kai stood up from the sofa and took the initiative to greet Song Mingyuan.

Song Mingyuan dropped his gaze to Lin Kai and, feeling that the young man was nice, he shook Lin Kai’s hand and said.

“Little Lin, our Lina is entrusted to your care in the future, in addition, she likes to play the lady temper, I hope you will bear some more .....

Lin Kai was confused by Song Mingyuan and did not know how to reply, so he looked at Song Lina with a helping gaze.

“Dad, what are you talking about?” Song Linina asked discontentedly, “When did you see me playing the lady in front of Lin Kai?”

Song Mingyuan seemed to be choked by his daughter’s words, becoming momentarily speechless, and then loosened his grip on Lin Kai’s hand.

“Mingyuan, let the children settle and deal with their own affairs, we should not interfere,” Elder Song saw that his son was a bit embarrassed and hurriedly intervened, “How is the high-tech project that the military district gave to your company to develop completed?”

Song Mingyuan replied, “We have mastered the core technology and will soon produce a sample, and if there are no surprises, after inspection and testing, it will be ready for delivery in six months.”

“Very good,” Elder Song nodded in satisfaction and admonished, “This is an extraordinary time, you have to hold on tight and at the same time pay attention to secrecy!”

“Don’t worry, Dad, I’ll do as you guys ask.” Song Mingyuan nodded his head heavily.

The Policewoman Chapter 33

Seeing that her grandfather and father had something to talk about at work, Song Linna took Lin Kai’s hand and said, “You guys talk, I’ll show Lin Kai the bedroom that grandma reserved for me!”

Lin Kai stood up from the sofa and mechanically followed Song Linna up the inner staircase to the first floor of the villa.

Looking at their backs as they disappeared down the staircase, Elder Song said without emotion, "Still a nice young man, Lina is quite discerning!"

"Yes," Song Mingyuan agreed, "Young people nowadays fall in love and find friends without consulting their parents at all, and at the drop of a hat they bring people straight home ....."

"Aren't you the same?" Elder Song said with a reproachful tone, "Have you and Liu Tongshu ever consulted me and your mother from the time you fell in love to the time you got married?"

"Dad, let's not talk about that," Song Mingyuan, knowing that his parents were unhappy with his petite wife Liu Tongshu, hurriedly changed the subject and asked, "How are you going to arrange for Lina's boyfriend?"

"I'm going to arrange for him to go to the special forces for a bit of training." Elder Song said with a smile.

"Will he be able to withstand that hardship?" Song Mingyuan asked worriedly.

Elder Song glanced at his son and said, "If it's a mule or a horse, won't we know?"

"Yes, you are right .....", Song Mingyuan knew in his heart that since his father had already made a decision, it was basically impossible to change it, and it was no good to oppose it.

.....

Although Song Lina rarely lived on her grandfather and grandmother's side, the bedroom still exuded a faint daughterly fragrance and was filled with a pink grunge tone everywhere.

The floor-to-ceiling curtains were printed with cartoon patterns, and in the centre of the room was a wide, soft double bed with thin sheets folded at the end of the bed, which looked neat and fresh, and a large stuffed teddy bear was placed on the head of the bed.

Lin Kai did not believe his eyes and glanced at Song Linna, who was standing beside him, and asked.

"Is this the room you live in?"

"Yes, what's wrong?" Song Linna asked, embarrassed as if she was being pried into her privacy, "Is it too cartoonish?"

"No, it's called a child's heart!" Lin Kai half-joked.

"Darling, you know me too well!" Song Lina threw herself into his arms.

Lin Kai's heart panicked and he hurriedly pushed her body away and whispered, "Lina, don't do that, it's not good for your grandfather and the others to bump into you ....."

"Don't worry, as long as I'm here, they won't come to my room." Song Lina said in a delicate voice, once again jumping into Lin Kai's arms.

Lin Kai hugged this fragrant body, feeling her elasticity and fullness, and seeing that Song Linna had somehow locked the door of her room from the inside, he picked her up and placed her on the edge of the bed to sit down.

She loved the feeling of being in the arms of her beloved man, Lin Kai, even if she was willing to spend the rest of her life in his arms.

At this moment, Lin Kai's mind was filled with images of him and his sister-in-law Tang Huimin making out together.

When he thought of his sister-in-law being abused by the thugs, he had not heard from her yet, and her life or death was still unknown.

"What are you thinking about, darling?" Song Lina's delicate voice pulled Lin Kai's thoughts back from his thoughts of his sister-in-law.

"Nothing ..... is on my mind ....., " Lin Kai excused himself in a panic.

The Song Linna in his arms was so gentle that it was heartbreaking and compassionate, Lin Kai could not bear to hurt her, at this moment, he could not show his thoughts, his true thoughts in front of Song Linna.

"Then ..... then what are you waiting for?" Song Lina's breathing looked a little sharp.

"What ..... does that mean?" Lin Kai seemed to look a little slow.

"Kiss me, idiot!" Song Lina pouted.

"This ..... is not good, I'm afraid ....." Lin Kai cast his gaze towards the door of the room, afraid that he wouldn't be able to grasp himself and do something irrational.

Last time, when he was recuperating in the military sanatorium, he heard the words that Elder Song had dictated to Song Linna over the phone, and if Elder Song found out that he had done his granddaughter in his home and shot him in a fit of rage, it would be game over.

Thinking of this, Lin Kai's heart was in a state of trepidation.

"There's nothing to be ashamed of, I'm willing!" Seeing that Lin Kai did not move for half a day, Song Linna simply sat on Lin Kai's lap, wrapped her hands around his neck and took the initiative to ask for a kiss.

Although Lin Kai was passively kissing her, when he touched her warmth and tasted her fragrant juices, the testosterone in his body increased dramatically.

Four lips were kissing, two faces were fondling, and each other's slippery tongues were intertwining and dazzling, teasing each other greedily.

At this moment, Song Linna was like being in the clouds, she became soft and tender, embracing him, kissing him, fondling him, Lin Kai gave her the greatest pleasure, making her linger, kissing and caressing her not enough .....

In the midst of her ecstasy, Song Linna jumped off Lin Kai's lap, pushed him down on the bed, reached down and unzipped his trousers, then slipped her hand into his underwear.

The warm, luxuriant hand was so exciting that Lin Kai's body shivered and reacted superbly, the thing instantly rose .....

Duk Duk Duk!

Just as Song Lina was unbuckling his belt and was about to take off his trousers, there was a knock at the door of the room.

Lin Kai hurriedly jumped off the bed, lifted his trousers, quickly zipped them up and put on his belt.

"Hee hee," Song Lina smiled mischievously at Lin Kai, straightened her dress, walked to the door of her room, reached out and opened it, and when she saw Old Madam Song standing in front of her room with a stunned expression, she opened her mouth and asked, "Grandma, what is it?"

"I've already prepared the meal, you guys should come downstairs and eat!" The old lady said and cast her eyes towards the bedroom, seeing Lin Kai with a red face, sitting on the bed with his head down, the bed sheets on the bed hadn't been made up and looked wrinkled, she instantly noticed something fishy, so she looked at Song Linna with a sultry look and said in a nagging voice, "You ..... you ....."

Song Lina's heart shook and she hurriedly said perfunctorily, "Grandma, look where you're thinking of, we didn't do anything, we were just playing a game in our room ....."

The old lady didn't turn around for a moment and complained, "I see that young people nowadays play games on computers and mobile phones, you guys are good, you're actually playing in bed."

"Hee hee, we are tickling in bed, this is the latest style of playing!" Song Lina smiled playfully and turned her head to Lin Kai, "Grandma is calling us downstairs for dinner, what are you still standing there for?"

With that, she reached out and wrapped her arm around Old Madam Song's.

Only then did Lin Kai slow down, got up and went to the door of the room, followed the two women, one old and one young, in a faint, and followed them downstairs and straight into the dining room.

The Policewoman Chapter 34

The dining table was filled with a variety of steaming dishes.

As soon as he saw Lin Kai arrive in the dining room, the old man waved to him warmly and said.

"Little Lin, come and sit next to grandpa!"

Song Linna, who was walking in front of him, turned around, touched Lin Kai's arm, attached to her ear and said.

"Darling, you're so charming, you've won my grandfather's heart at once."

"It's not thanks to you!" Lin Kai teased, and walked over to sit down on Elder Song's left side, with Song Linna sitting right next to him.

Except for the nanny who was reluctant to come to the table, the family sat around the dining table and dined.

At first, Lin Kai was a little embarrassed, but when he saw that no one treated him as an outsider, he stopped being so formal.

The atmosphere at the table gradually warmed up.

The old lady's cooking skills were good and the food was fragrant and delicious, and Lin Kai's appetite was whetted.

After lunch, Elder Song said seriously to Lin Kai, "Little Lin, do you really intend to be a special soldier?"

"Yes." Lin Kai nodded seriously.

"Good then, I'll take you to the army now, and when the time comes, if you feel that you can't bear that hardship, it's not too late to regret it." Old Master Song said and walked towards the door of the room.

After bidding farewell to Old Madam Song, Song Mingyuan and his father and daughter, Lin Kai followed Old Master Song out the door.

The two of them arrived at a military Hummer parked in front of the villa.

The driver jumped out of the car and opened the door for them. Lin Kai followed the old man into the car and sat side by side in the back of the car.

The driver got back into the driver's seat and prepared to start the car to leave.

Song Lina chased after him from the villa and said loudly, "Grandpa, wait for me, I want to go and see too!"

Master Song opened the car window and asked, "What are you doing there, a big girl?"

"I don't want to," Song Linna said petulantly, "I want to see how special forces are trained?"

"I really can't help you, get in!" Master Song shook his head helplessly.

Song Linna pulled open the car door and sat on her butt in the passenger seat.

The driver then started the car and drove away from the military compound.

It didn't take long for the Hummer to pull into the entrance of a small, heavily guarded courtyard behind the military sanatorium.

Seeing Lin Kai looking at himself with a puzzled look, Elder Song explained with a smile, "This is the Special Forces' base in Yanjing, where the team members normally conduct their devil training ....."

"Please show your documents!" A soldier with a loaded gun came over and stood in front of the car and gave a military salute to the people in the car.

After the driver pulled out one of his IDs and showed him his identity, the soldier then opened the big iron gate and the driver pulled the car into the compound and parked it by a playground as big as a football field.

A group of tall, dark green camouflage clad men with dark skin and sturdy bodies stood erect in the playground with their heads in the hot sun.

Despite the strong, vicious sunlight, these men stood motionless, letting the sweat on their foreheads slide down like beads, the salty sweat stinging their eyes, and they didn't even blink.

Standing in front of them was a young man, whose body looked the thinnest of the group, his skin as white as paper, like a patient recovering from a serious illness.

However, in the face of this young man, this team of tall, tiger-backed, ape-waisted special forces elites with the power to tear apart tigers and leopards did not even dare to breathe.

He was the instructor of this special squad, named Zhang Tianhu, nicknamed the Demon Master, only to see Zhang Tianhu sweep over the man in front of him with a kindly gaze and ask loudly.

"Is everyone tired?"

"No, I'm not tired." The men shouted in unison.

"Is that so?" Zhang Tianhu said smilingly, "It seems that my training plan will have to be modified to double the current training amount, does everyone have any comments?"

"Huh?"

The crowd was dumbfounded, and they all looked at each other with blank faces.

They knew that they had already reached the limit of their bodies with the amount of training they were doing, if they changed to double the amount all of a sudden, everyone would have to skin themselves without dying.

Just now, they said that they were not tired because they were trying to take care of the instructor's emotions.

Zhang Tianhu's gaze swept over the team members, and when he saw that each one was silent, Zhang Tianhu put away his smile and said with a grave face.

"I know, you guys are tired, in fact, I am tired too, for our mission, to defend the dignity of the motherland, we will throw blood and sweat, have to accept the training that normal people cannot complete, do you all have confidence?"

"Yes!"

This group of hot-blooded men roared in unison, their voices loud and resounding.

This scene was seen by the people sitting in the Hummer.

Elder Song inquired to Lin Kai, "Can you withstand such devilish training?"

"Yes!"

Lin Kai said firmly, infected by the physique of the group of soldiers.

Master Song nodded in satisfaction and said with a tone of command.

“Get off!”

As Lin Kai got out of the car with Elder Song, Song Linna followed suit and followed them to Zhang Tianhu.

After Zhang Tianhu then gave a military salute to Elder Song, Elder Song whispered a few words to him and then pulled his granddaughter to stand to the side.

Zhang Tianhu slowly walked up to Lin Kai, his eyes coldly sizing him up, and asked.

“Have you thought it over?”

“Well, thought it over!” Lin Kai felt a strong murderous aura.

“Then are you ready?” Zhang Tianhu continued to ask.”

“Ready.” Lin Kai said with a nod.

He had secretly resolved that in order to practice some good martial arts and to avenge himself and his brother-in-law, he was now willing to go out on a limb, even if it meant death.

“Very well!”

Zhang Tianhu nodded and kicked towards Lin Kai’s chest.

With this kind of kick without any warning, Lin Kai simply could not avoid it and was kicked squarely.

Bump!

There was a muffled sound.

Lin Kai retreated several steps before his body could barely stand still.

As a special forces instructor, Zhang Tianhu’s kick could have knocked Lin Kai down and rendered him useless, but he only used less than 10% of his force to test Lin Kai’s reflexes.

Lin Kai patted the dust on his chest with his hand and thought to himself, “What’s wrong with this guy, how can he just say hit, is there such a training style?”

Seeing the chill on Zhang Tianhu’s face grow even colder, Lin Kai realised that he was about to get beaten up again, so he shot up.

Without allowing Lin Kai to think more, Zhang Tianhu had already launched his second attack.

This time, Zhang Tianhu’s speed was in full swing, as he swooped down and thrust his fingers like a knife straight at Lin Kai’s eyes.

When Lin Kai saw Zhang Tianhu coming at him again without saying a word, he had fire in his heart and his body instinctively took two steps backwards.

When Zhang Tianhu’s finger was about to plunge into his eye, he blasted out a fierce punch, Zhang Tianhu quickly withdrew his move and turned back, retreating away to a safe distance.

“Yoo-hoo .....

Zhang Tianhu gazed coldly at Lin Kai, re-assessing the young man in front of him.

The Policewoman Chapter 35

The punch just now, no matter the strength of the attack and the speed of the punch, to Lin Kai, he would only have been beaten, but to his surprise, he dodged it and actually struck back.

It seemed that the young man in front of him was indeed a piece of martial arts training material.

In order to test Lin Kai's reaction and resistance to strikes, Zhang Tianhu's body leapt high up and stalled in the air for a moment, with his feet stiffly reorienting in the air.

Then, his legs pressed down, and the legs that were meant to strike Lin Kai's chest froze and adjusted downwards by some distance, kicking him straight on the shoulder.

Bump!

There was a muffled sound.

Stomp, stomp, stomp!

Lin Kai's body retreated in quick succession.

This time, Lin Kai was really angry, only to see him rubbing his somewhat sore shoulder with his hand and lunging at Zhang Tianhu with a loud roar.

Zhang Tianhu took a few steps back and then accelerated forward, leaping up once more and kicking Lin Kai in the chest like a bird with wings.

Bump!

There was another muffled sound.

Lin Kai's chest was struck and his entire body flew up from the ground.

Poof!

Lin Kai spat out a mouthful of blood and fell heavily to the ground.

"Ah, Lin Kai, what happened to you?" Song Lina, who was standing at the side watching the battle, saw Lin Kai injured and shrieked in shock, ready to run over and help him.

"Lina, don't go," Elder Song said as he pulled his granddaughter's hand, "If he wants to become a qualified special forces soldier, this injury is something he must endure."

Lin Kai's mind flashed back to when he was kidnapped and brutally beaten by the thugs led by the bald man, and when his sister-in-law Tang Huimin was ravaged by them.

This heavy blow winded up adding to his conviction to take revenge, so he got up from the ground with difficulty and stubbornly shouted to Zhang Tianhu.

"I defy you, come again ....."

Clap!

All at once, a thunderous applause and applause rang out in the playground.

.....

Half a year later.

One afternoon, Song Lina's father, Song Mingyuan, was sitting in the chairman's office on the 28th floor of the independent office building of the Mingyuan Group of Companies.

A middle-aged man wearing a pair of gold-rimmed lace glasses knocked on the door carrying a delicate small wooden box.

"Director Tang, you're here, please have a seat!" After Song Mingyuan arranged for the middle-aged man to take a seat, he inquired, "How is the progress of the laser film?"

Director Tang opened the wooden box and pointed to a faint purple-red liquid crystal sheet 150mm long, 50mm wide and 5mm thick that was placed inside, and said.

"This is a sample of that laser sheet!"

As Elder Song had a strong military background, the Mingyuan Group, which Song Mingyuan was a member of, was engaged in scientific research and development in the military industry, and had achieved brilliant results in that field.

This LCD piece was a 100kw laser weapon developed by the research institute under the Mingyuan Group of Companies, which could shoot down enemy drones and missiles from thousands of metres away. After the aircraft carrier was equipped with this laser weapon, it was like a tiger with wings, and would no longer be called a floating coffin.

Song Mingyuan glanced at the LCD film and was pleased, asking, "So, with this sample, we can put it into production and deliver it to the Ministry of War?"

"Not yet," said Director Tang, shaking his head, "As this technology still needs to be studied and proven by the military people together with us, and according to their requirements, we will make further refinements, I am the first one to deliver this laser chip after the engineers and technicians in the institute have researched and produced this thing into the hands of the chairman, and I hope you find a safe place to store it for the time being ....."

"Okay," Song Mingyuan thought about it and said, "How about this, I'll first put this wooden box in my safe and arrange for the security guards to take turns watching at the entrance of the room, and ask the experts from the military department to come for verification as soon as possible, what do you think?"

"OK, let's do what the chairman wants." Director Tang said as he closed the wooden box up and handed it to Song Mingyuan.

Song Mingyuan stood up and used the key to open a safe he kept in the meeting room, then put the wooden box inside and locked the safe again.

Director Tang had just left the chairman's office when Song Mingyuan's lover, Liu Tongshu, knocked on the door and entered.

“Wife, what brings you here?” Song Mingyuan asked in surprise.

Liu Tongshu smoothly closed the office door and came behind Song Mingyuan’s office chair like a wind-swept lotus leaf, wrapped her arms around his neck and said in a whisper.

“Honey, I missed you so much, I was bored at home alone, so I ran over to look for you.”

Liu Tongshu is a tall, slender young woman with flowing hair draped over her shoulders, a goose egg-shaped face, a smooth forehead, snow-white skin, a pair of deep, bright eyes under her thick eyebrows, a straight nose with a bit of boyishness, beautifully shaped and soft lips, and a rounded chin that looks very agile.

Especially when she smiles, the sweet little dimples on her face add to the charm.

She wears a light-coloured cultural shirt on top, with her bosom standing proudly; underneath she wears a short white skirt, under which the scenery is infinite, and her snow-white and slender legs add to the endless charm.

The hero is not happy with the beauty!

Song Mingyuan was so impressed by Liu Tongshu’s beauty that he married her despite the opposition of his parents and daughter.

“Tell me, where did you miss me?”

“Nasty,” Liu Tongshu pouted, “I miss you everywhere!”

She then turned Song Mingyuan’s swivel chair around and sat her butt on Song Mingyuan’s lap, wrapping her arms tightly around his neck and initiating a kiss with him.

“No,” Song Mingyuan said as he pushed Liu Tongshu away, “This is an office, it’s not a good influence, if you want to make out, let’s go home!”

“When?” Liu Tongshu seemed a bit reluctant.

“In a while, after I give an account of my work to the lower side, we’ll go back.” Song Mingyuan replied.

“Alright then,” Liu Tongshu pouted and said resentfully, “but be quick .....”

“Don’t worry, little demon,” Song Mingyuan nudged towards the office door, “You go and open the room door first, then go and sit down on the office sofa and wait for me, it’ll be ready soon!”

As Liu Tongshu went forward to open the door to the office, Song Mingyuan picked up the landline microphone and dialed out a phone number.

In a short while, a man in a security uniform walked in from outside, stood opposite Song Mingyuan’s desk and asked.

“Chairman, what are your orders?”

Song Mingyuan said seriously, “Captain Liu, from today onwards, you arrange for two people to stand guard at the entrance of my office in shifts 24 hours a day, no one can enter my office without my permission, do you understand?”

The Policewoman Chapter 36

“Understood, I’ll go and arrange it now!” Captain Liu said with a heavy nod.

He was the security captain hired by Song Mingyuan with a high salary, so he naturally understood the company’s secrecy system, and knew not to pry into things that should not be pried into, and not to ask things that should not be asked.

After Captain Liu left the office, Liu Tongshu couldn’t help but stand up from the bench sofa in the office, walked over to Song Mingyuan and asked.

“Honey, what kind of treasure do you have in your office, why do you need a special guard?”

Song Mingyuan smiled mysteriously and said, “This is a top secret of the company, what you shouldn’t ask, you’d better not ask.”

“Okay, I won’t ask, okay?” Liu Tongshu rubbed his shoulders with her hands and said softly, “Honey, can we go home now?”

“Of course you can!” Song Mingyuan stood up, took Liu Tongshu’s hand, and left the office together.

Just as they walked out of the office, they saw Captain Liu leading two security guards out of the lift. After Song Mingyuan said a few words to Captain Liu to settle down, he led Liu Tongshu into the lift together and took it downstairs, getting into a Mercedes 500 car parked in front of the company together.

As Liu Tongshu sat in the back seat, she glanced through the reversing mirror at Yang Xu, the driver, and gave each other a knowing smile.

Yang Xu drove Song Mingyuan and Liu Tongshu to the entrance of Villa 8 in the Fragrant Hill Villa area.

After Song Mingyuan got out of the car, he said to Yang Xu, “Little Yang, you go back first, and we’ll call you when we need a car.”

“Okay,” Yang Xu said ingratiatingly, “If there’s anything, please feel free to order!”

Liu Tongshu, who got off with Song Mingyuan, said, “Master Yang, don’t be polite, as long as you serve my husband well in the future, we won’t treat you badly.”

“Thank you Mrs. Song!” Yang Xu understood what Liu Tongshu meant by this statement and gave her a grateful smile.

“Don’t be polite, you go back!” Liu Tongshu smiled, took Song Mingyuan’s arm and walked towards the door of the house, and opened the door with the key.

“Uncle, auntie, you’re back?” As soon as Nanny Xiaoqin saw Song Mingyuan and Liu Tongshu enter the house, she hurriedly greeted them and greeted them.

“Xiaoqin, it’s hard for you,” Liu Tongshu saw that the room was clean and neatly arranged, so he took out a few hundred yuan from his pocket and handed it to Xiaoqin, saying, “Go to the market and buy some vegetables back .....

The nanny nodded and quickly left after stuffing the money into her pocket.

Liu Tongshu just after supporting the nanny, head into Song Mingyuan's arms, Song Mingyuan felt a burst of relief, a burst of relief, two hands on Liu Tongshu's waist stroking up.

Liu Tongshu gradually felt a little fluttering, and a hotness arose from her stomach, radiating to all parts of her body, and she could not help but kiss Song Mingyuan.

A tongue stirred in Song Mingyuan's mouth like a dragon, and Song Mingyuan felt his body spewing fire everywhere, the heat surrounding his whole body.

Liu Tongshu's hand slowly unbuttoned his blouse, then his tongue licked at his chest, Song Mingyuan's hand couldn't help but reach under her shirt and feel her two soft masses

As his fingers began to fiddle with Liu Tongshu's two little pearls, Liu Tongshu's hands had already been impatiently pulling his trousers down.

Song Mingyuan uncontrollably pressed her onto the sofa in the living room, reached out and lifted her skirt and pressed himself up, before lifting his buttocks up and sinking down.

The living room then resounded with the sound of flesh hitting, panting and murmuring.

.....

Squeak!

Suddenly, the door to the room was opened from the outside with a key.

Song Mingyuan hurriedly jumped down from Liu Tongshu's body and quickly lifted his trousers, while turning his gaze towards the door of the room.

When he saw his daughter Song Lina standing dumbfounded at the doorway of the room, his heart was tightened for a moment, and after trying to stabilize himself, he awkwardly asked.

"Lina, what are you ..... doing back ....."

"This is my house, can't I come back?" Song Lina slowed down and asked rhetorically, "There is still a big live person at home, if you guys want to fool around, go back to your room, okay?"

Liu Tongshu hurriedly straightened her dress and sat up from the sofa, defending herself, "Lina, I'm serious about your dad, we're not fooling around together ....."

"What are you not fooling around together?" Song Lina gave her a blank look and said disdainfully, "You're so young, who knows your real purpose in approaching my father and seducing him?"

When Song Mingyuan saw his daughter pointing the finger at Liu Tongshu, he asked unhappily, "Lina, how are you talking to Auntie Liu?"

"You told me to call her Auntie Liu?" Song Lina said coldly, "It's more like I'm calling her sister, isn't calling her auntie just like breaking her life?"

"Lina, you're too uncouth?" Song Mingyuan was a little angry at this attitude of his daughter and chided, "Do you know how much your Auntie Liu usually cares for you?"

“Hmph,” Song Lina snorted coldly and said in disbelief, “Who knows if she really cares or fakes it, if it’s a false feeling or a fake one?”

“Song Lina, I forbid you to talk about her like that.” Song Mingyuan said in a stern voice.

“That’s the way it is, why do you have to protect your shortcomings?” Song Lina shrugged her shoulders and made a look out of the corner of her eye.

“You ..... you are simply too unbelievable!” Song Mingyuan roared sternly, “Do you think that because you have your grandfather protecting you and no one dares to control you, you can do whatever you want and talk nonsense?”

“I’m not talking nonsense, I’m telling the truth!” Song Lina said with a straight face, as if she was unforgiving and unyielding.

Liu Tongshu, seeing the father and daughter in a sabre-rattling manner, falsely persuaded, “Old Song, take it easy, Lina is prejudiced against me, don’t be angry with her, and don’t bother with her .....

Song Lina did not appreciate this woman at all and said angrily, “Liu Tongshu, you don’t need to cry and pretend to be merciful there, I knew it, my father’s heart was captivated by you, a vixen, and sooner or later it will be carried into your hands.”

“Could it be that this girl has figured out my intentions?” Liu Tongshu’s heart tightened and she looked at Song Lina with dumbfounded eyes, her mouth open, unable to say anything for a moment.

Seeing Liu Tongshu’s ugly face, Song Mingyuan thought she was confused by Song Lina’s anger and was angry at her unintelligent daughter, so he yelled at Song Lina.

“Lina, you’re so unbelievable, hurry over and apologise to your Auntie Liu?”

“Apologize?” Song Lina said with a straight face, “Why should I apologize to a vixen?”

“You ..... you .....

Seeing that her father had really gotten angry, Song Linna then closed the door to her room and walked into the living room, up the stairs to the first floor and into her own bedroom .....

The Policewoman Chapter 37

BANG!

A door slam came down from upstairs and Song Mingyuan’s body shook.

“No, I have to teach this dead girl a good lesson, if this goes on, what else can it be?” Song Mingyuan said, turning towards the stairs, ready to go upstairs to teach Song Lina a lesson.

“Mingyuan,” Liu Tongshu slowed down, grabbed Song Mingyuan’s hand and said soothingly, “Take it easy, forget it, it’s probably because Song Linna saw us together and had an imbalance in her heart, so she went home and threw a little lady’s temper, don’t take it to heart and don’t get angry... ..”

After Liu Tongshu said so, Song Mingyuan's anger was half gone, to be honest, he was still a bit uncomfortable to teach his daughter a lesson.

Yes, ever since Song Linna's mother had left, he had seldom found time to go home to his daughter because of work-related matters, and his care for her was minimal, so he could not be considered a competent father.

In terms of conscience and morality, he felt guilty towards his daughter.

When Song Mingyuan saw Liu Tongshu give himself a step, his heart suddenly softened, so he patted her shoulder with his hand and said in a soft voice.

"Wife, you still understand me!"

"Who asked you to be my husband?" Liu Tongshu said delicately, "As long as you treat me well, I don't care how Lina treats me, in the future, when she marries someone, we will still live together?"

"You are too kind, too understanding," Song Mingyuan looked at her lovingly and said, "Wife, I have made you suffer."

"For your sake, what's a little aggravation?" Like an understanding housewife, Liu Tongshu said softly, "Honey, I'm sorry, it's my fault for making you suffer."

"You mustn't say that, it's only right for me to make you suffer." Song Mingyuan said apologetically.

.....

After entering her boudoir, Song Lina was so angry in her heart that she threw herself onto her big, soft bed.

She lay quietly on the bed, her eyes staring straight up at the ceiling, unable to stop blushing as she remembered the humiliating scene in the living room where she had just bumped into her father and stepmother on the sofa.

Yet another flutter and excitement ran through her heart as she remembered the images of her and Lin Kai as they hugged and kissed and lingered together.

"What is this Lin Kai guy doing now?" Song Lina secretly thought to herself.

Ever since Lin Kai had entered the Special Forces, Song Lina had never seen him, and every time she called him, his mobile phone was always switched off.

When Song Linna asked her grandfather about it, he either said that he was in closed training or had gone out on a mission with the special forces team.

For six months, Song Linna spent her time thinking about Lin Kai.

As Lin Kai's current status was very special, she did not reveal half of the news about him to her classmates, and the students and teachers of Yanjing University mistakenly thought that Lin Kai had died.

Some of her classmates, seeing Song Linna's distraught look all day long, mistook her for being homesick for Lin Kai and patiently guided her and comforted her with words such as "death cannot bring back life" and "turn your grief into strength".

Every time she did so, Song Linna laughed at them and dismissed them.

"Lin Kai, this heartless thing, I miss him so much, but he won't even call me, I'm so mad at him!" With the attitude of trying, Song Lina picked up the mobile phone she had placed on the bed and dialed Lin Kai's mobile phone.

Ring ring ring!

The phone actually went through.

Song Linna's heart was bursting with excitement, but the other party didn't pick up the phone even after the phone rang for a while.

"Lin Kai, pick up the phone, pick up the phone ....." Song Lina prayed in her heart.

"Hello, is this Lina?" The familiar voice came from the phone, Song Lina was so excited that tears were flowing out of her eyes, she replied in a panic, "Uh, yes ..... it's me, Lin Kai, where ..... are you?"

"I just returned from a mission, did something happen to you there?" Lin Kai asked with concern.

"No ..... nothing happened, I ..... I just missed you ....." Song Lina's voice was a little shaky, "I ..... want to see you, you wait for me at the entrance of the military sanatorium, I ..... I'll drive over to see you, okay?"

"No, we just returned to the army, there are still a lot of things to do," Lin Kai said after a pause, "When I'm done, I'll call you and we'll make another appointment to meet somewhere, is that okay?"

"That's ..... fine!" Song Lina said resentfully.

"Do you have anything else? If not, I'll hang up now." Lin Kai inquired.

"No..... nothing more, though....." Song Lina stammered. However, before she could finish her words, the other party had already hung up, and a beeping blind tone came from the phone.

Finally hearing Lin Kai's voice and hearing from him, Song Linna was both excited and disappointed –

She was excited that she would soon be able to see Lin Kai, but disappointed that Lin Kai had only spoken to her a few times before hanging up the phone.

When she thought of the last time Lin Kai had been injured by a mugger and thrown onto the highway, she had taken him to the city people's hospital to rescue him and then transferred him to the military sanatorium, where she had wiped Lin Kai's body and seen his humiliatingly high body, Song Linna's heart stirred and her whole body felt hot.

She closed her eyes and stroked her silky skin back and forth with a luxuriant hand.

It was flawless and warm.

Suddenly, she felt a familiar primal stirring deep in her belly, an urge to scream, whimper, sob and beg in ecstasy.

Her fingers glided over her skin as slowly as if she were playing a piano, as if she were gently ruffling her skin with feathers, the sound of the piano flowing, tantalising the nerve endings and invading all the way to the most hidden places of her body.

The other hand slid over her whole body, a fine, faint, ethereal unspeakable .....

Suddenly, the image flashed into her mind –

She lay naked on the bed, black and red wine running over her skin and diffusing everywhere.

Linquet gazed at her, touched her.

The passion inside her is mobilised, the two little grapes on her breasts gradually hardening with a seductive whisper.

Her legs and lips had opened and were welcoming him, sweat condensed into beads of water between her brows, hot and sizzling, the air hot and dull with desire .....

Her body twitched under Lin Kai's teasing, a moan of excitement escaping her lips as Lin Kai became more violent and more persistent.

In time with Lin Kai's rhythm, her body shifted unconsciously on the soft, warm bed, her emotions building and swelling as her heart ebbed and flowed.

The air became thicker and stifling, breathless.

She felt the heat inside her and the anxiety of anticipation to vent, and her hands moved faster and faster, releasing more and more stirrings and tremors.

Time seemed to stand still.

Lin Kai kept stroking, fiercely raising one climax after another, igniting the flames of her desire.

His body was as solid and firm as stone, penetrating the deepest parts of her body, and her instinctive screams of excitement finally put a stop to the tumultuous music.

Panting and exhausted!

Her body was still trembling.

.....

Ack-ack!

Suddenly, there was a knock at the door of the room.

Sungina then came back to reality from her hallucination.

The Policewoman Chapter 38

The Mingyuan Group of Companies is located in the High-Tech District of Yanjing City.

Although the 56-storey building is not the tallest in Yanjing, it is a majestic building, and although it is near the downtown area, it looks exceptionally quiet.

When people pass by it, they unconsciously stop to admire its appearance.

The shape of the building and the big golden letters “Mingyuan Group” are very eye-catching, like an eagle with its wings spread out as if it were about to leap.

It was late at night and the people were quiet.

A man in black was climbing up the building like a vigorous bat in order to avoid the cameras installed in the office building, using the cover of the night.

In a short time, he stops at the twenty-eighth floor of the building.

The man in black pushed open the window and gently crossed in.

Despite his agility and lightness, the sound of the man in black landing on the ground was heard by a security guard who was on duty in the security tunnel.

“Who is it?”

The guard shouted alertly.

As soon as the words left his mouth, the man in black appeared behind him like lightning and snapped his hands around his neck.

Click!

With a crunching sound, the security guard fell into the arms of the man in black, who quickly dragged him to a shady corner.

Another guard standing on duty in the corridor heard the commotion and rushed to see what was going on. Before he could see the face of the man in black, the man in black slammed his fist into his face.

The guard felt bad and reacted quickly enough to reach out in a panic to block it.

Bang!

The man in black’s fist smashed into the guard’s arm.

Ka-ching!

The guard’s body reeled backwards and the sound of bones breaking in his arm was heard.

The man in black took advantage of his success and his right leg popped up and his knee slammed fiercely into the guard’s stomach.

“Ouch!”

The security guard grunted and his tall body fell to the ground with a crash, unable to move any more. The man in black came up and stomped on his head, and the guard fainted instantly.

After finishing off the two guards, the man in black quickly destroyed the surveillance equipment in the building and strutted to the door of Song Mingyuan's office, which was the chairman's office.

The man in black then used the key to open the door, walked into the office and used a special tool to open the safe.

He took out a wooden box from inside, opened it and found the high-tech fuchsia laser crystal inside, then put the box into the backpack he was carrying.

The man in black quietly exited the room unnoticed, closed the door to his office, slid down the outer wall of the building again and soon disappeared without a trace.

.....

"Boss, this is Flying Eagle, the laser piece has been obtained."

In the darkness, in a patch of grass in the green belt not far from the Mingyuan Group of companies, radio waves carried the sweet voice of a woman.

"Great, where are you now?" Zhao Wenlong said happily.

"Near the Mingyuan Group of Companies." Flying Eagle replied.

"Okay, I'll send someone over to pick it up right away," Zhao Wenlong said with a bright smile, "Good job, when the time comes, I'll have to reward you properly."

"Thank you, boss!" Flying Eagle smiled flirtatiously.

.....

The early morning sunlight gently sprinkled throughout Yanjing City, enveloping the city with its modern atmosphere in a brightness.

The sunlight shone through the transparent glass window and shone in the air of Song Mingyuan's master bedroom, casting light on a beautiful face sleeping on the sofa.

Song Mingyuan woke up with a pee and got up to go to the bathroom, finding that it was already nine in the morning.

Liu Tongshu seemed to have not yet woken up and was immersed in a pleasant dream, only to see her snoring softly on, her harrumph forming a line from the corner of her mouth and dripping down onto the headrest.

Song Mingyuan leaned on the door of the bathroom, quietly looking at this beautiful person who was immersed in sleep, her expression was so quiet, so warm, so sweet.

Since the first day this woman was recruited by him to work for the Mingyuan Group of Companies as the chairman's secretary, she had brought him so much joy, so many surprises, so many reveries.

For his sake, she was willing to quit her job and go home to be a housewife, doing his laundry and cooking for him, willing to suffer the insults and taunts of her daughter.

What kind of a woman is this?

"I must love her well and give her happiness!" Thinking of this, Song Mingyuan walked over to the bed and sat down in front of it, gently stroking her hair that was scattered around the pillow.

"Honey, you're awake?" Liu Tongshu opened her eyes and looked at Song Mingyuan with affection.

"Mm," Song Mingyuan said with a nod, "Last night, after we warmed up together, I was really too sleepy and slept until now, and in a while, I had to get ready to go to work at the company."

"What time is it?" Liu Tongshu rubbed her eyes.

Song Mingyuan looked at his phone that was on the bedside table and replied.

"Nine o'clock."

"Ya, it's so late?" Liu Tongshu rolled over and sat up from the bed, saying, "Why did I sleep so much?"

"I guess it's because you're tired from too much physical exertion, just like me." Seeing that Liu Tongshu looked a little tired, Song Mingyuan said heartily, "You'd better sleep a little longer, I'll go to the company first."

"No, I'll go and see if Xiaoqin has made breakfast, you can go after you've eaten breakfast!" With that, Liu Tongshu jumped out of bed, walked to the bedroom door and headed downstairs in the direction of the kitchen.

Looking at Liu Tongshu's beautiful back, Song Mingyuan felt a warm current surge through his body.

.....

At this moment, the nanny Xiaoqin had already set breakfast on the table and was cleaning up downstairs.

"Auntie Liu, you're up?"

"Yes," Liu Tongshu nodded, looked around and asked, "Where is Song Linna?"

Xiao Qin replied, "She finished her breakfast early in the morning. Drove off to school."

"Oh." Liu Tongshu glanced at the breakfast placed on the dining table and said, "The food is getting cold, so take it to the kitchen to warm it up first, I'll go and call your Uncle Song to come downstairs for dinner."

"Okay."

Xiao Qin nodded, went forward to the bathroom and washed her hands, picked up the meal on the table and walked into the kitchen.

Liu Tongshu turned around and turned back to the first floor.

.....

RING RING RING!

Song Mingyuan finished washing up, dressed, and was about to walk out of the bedroom when a sharp mobile phone ring rang in the phone placed on the bedside table.

When he picked up the phone and saw that the screen showed the landline number of the Security Department of the Mingyuan Group of Companies, he first frowned for a moment before picking up the phone.

“Chairman, it’s not good, last night, when two security guards were on duty in front of your office, one was killed and one was injured ……” came the anxious voice of Captain Liu from the phone.

“Ah? How could this happen,” Song Mingyuan asked anxiously, “Has my safe been touched?”

“It’s not clear yet, the safe is locked.” Captain Liu replied.

“You guys protect the scene, I’ll be right there.” Song Mingyuan said urgently.

After hanging up Captain Liu’s phone, Song Mingyuan hurriedly called his driver, Yang Xu, and asked him to come to Fragrant Hill Villa at once to pick him up and take him to the company.

The Policewoman Chapter 39

Liu Tongshu pushed the door in and, seeing Song Mingyuan’s disoriented look, asked.

“Honey, did something happen?”

Song Mingyuan replied, “Just now, Captain Liu from the security team called to say that last night, someone killed and injured a security officer respectively and infiltrated my office, so I had to hurry to take a look.”

“Ah? How did that happen?” Liu Tongshu asked tentatively, “What kind of person is so bold?”

“It’s not clear yet, I won’t know until I go.” Song Mingyuan looked a little anxious.

Liu Tongshu asked pleadingly, “I’ve already asked the nanny to heat up the food, why don’t you go over after you’ve eaten.”

“I don’t have an appetite, you can eat by yourself!”

After saying this, Song Mingyuan hurriedly left the room, rushed down the stairs, trotted to the door of the living room on the ground floor of the villa, and slammed the door.

Liu Tongshu followed her out of the bedroom, holding her hand on the railing of the first floor, looking at Song Mingyuan’s disappearing figure at the door of the living room, a complicated expression on her face.

……

The backyard of the military sanatorium, the special forces training base.

A group of special forces soldiers wearing camouflage uniforms, physically fit and alive were divided into two groups by their instructor Zhang Tianhu, and were conducting combat training on the playground.

Shhhhh ……!

After blowing a few times with his whistle, Zhang Tianhu shouted.

“All gather!”

The team members formed a neat line and stepped forward, then, like a benchmark, divided into two rows and stood in front of Zhang Tianhu.

“Attention! At ease!” Zhang Tianhu used a pair of sharp eyes to glance over the team members one by one, and after reprimanding them, he said loudly, “Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo out of line, everyone continue training!”

After Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo stepped out of line, the other team members dispersed.

Zhang Tianhu asked with a serious face, “There is a difficult task to be given to you two to complete, do you have confidence?”

“Yes!” The two men said in unison.

“Very good,” Zhang Tianhu nodded in satisfaction, then ordered, “You guys rush to the Mingyuan Group Company immediately, someone is waiting for you at the entrance of the company.”

“What kind of mission? Who’s waiting for us there?” Lin Kai asked in confusion.

“Won’t you guys know when you get there?” Zhang Tianhu asked rhetorically.

“Yes, promise to complete the mission!” Although Lin Kai was confused, he still strictly carried out his instructor’s orders.

In the past six months, Lin Kai, with a heart to avenge himself and his sister-in-law, had behaved quite diligently, and after the devilish training of his instructor Zhang Tianhu, he had become a special soldier with great skills.

As he was a university student, he was more open-minded and had superb resilience. In the missions he carried out with his team, he made a lot of war achievements and was promoted by Zhang Tianhu to be the leader of the first squad.

Zhang Shuo, on the other hand, was an expert hacker, and the two worked quite well together.

After bidding farewell to Zhang Tianhu and the two of them went back to the garrison to get ready, Lin Kai drove a military jeep away from the base and arrived at the entrance of the independent office building of the Mingyuan Group of Companies in a hurry.

Elder Song stepped down from a Hummer parked there.

“Why is it him?” Lin Kai felt a little surprised when he saw Song Lina’s grandfather and hurriedly got out of the car to lead Zhang Shuo along to Old Master Song, asking in confusion, “Grandpa, why are you here?”

Old Master Song put on a serious face and said, “If I don’t come here, can you two little ones know what this mission is?”

Zhang Shuo had met this highly respected military chief before and eagerly asked, “Chief, what are the specifics of this mission?”

Elder Song looked around, seeing that there were many people around, and fearing that if he couldn’t keep his mouth shut, word might leak out, he said in a low voice.

“This is not the place to talk, let’s go to the car and talk about it!”

The two guards standing not far away, who were responsible for guarding Master Song’s safety, saw that nothing was happening around them, so they secretly hid in the crowd.

Elder Song let the two men get into the Hummer together.

Lin Kai asked eagerly, “Grandpa, can you tell us now what the mission is?”

“Good job, I like your thunderous character,” Elder Song patted Lin Kai’s shoulder with his hand and said truthfully, “Last night, a laser LCD chip was stolen from the Mingyuan Group of Companies, this chip is a high-tech military product that has just been developed, mainly used to equip aircraft carrier technology, if it falls into the hands of other countries, it will cause incalculable losses to the country .....

“Ah?” Lin Kai was shocked and asked in amazement, “Such an important thing was stolen, did the Mingyuan Group Company not strengthen its security forces?”

“It was originally placed in the chairman’s office on the 28th floor of the independent office building of the Mingyuan Group Company, locked in a safe, moreover, two security guards were assigned to stand guard on the floor, unexpectedly, these two guards were attacked by a man in black, one died and one was injured .....

After telling them what his son Song Mingyuan had told him in one breath, Elder Song said, “The reason I asked the two of you to come over is that I don’t want to notify the local police and expand the impact of this matter, and am counting on you to recover that laser piece as soon as possible, do you have confidence?”

“Of course I do, but this is so sudden that we want to probe the scene first and then discuss countermeasures,” Lin Kai asked eagerly, “Has the scene been secured?”

“Well, it is protected,” Elder Song replied truthfully, “However, for fear of causing unnecessary panic, I have had the body of the murdered security guard transported to the funeral parlour.”

Lin Kai considered for a moment and asked Zhang Shuo, who was sitting at the side.

“Zhang Shuo, do you have a detection device with you?”

“Mm.” Zhang Shuo nodded.

“Alright then, let’s go and conduct a site detection first.” Lin Kai immediately made a decision and asked Elder Song, “Grandpa, what do you think?”

“Since I called Zhang Tianhu and asked him to call you all here, I should meet any requests you make,” Elder Song said cheerfully, “Kids, let go and do it, I trust you!”

“Please don’t worry grandpa, we promise to get the job done!” Lin Kai then gave a military salute to Elder Song.

After asking the driver to pull the Hummer into and park it in the car park on the negative ground floor, Elder Song took Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo up to the 28th floor together in the lift.

At this moment, Song Mingyuan, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Mingyuan Group of Companies, and Liu Hao, the head of security, had long been waiting to welcome them at the entrance of the Chairman's office located on the 28th floor.

"Little Lin, so it's you?" As soon as Song Mingyuan saw his future dragon son-in-law, Lin Kai, he froze slightly before welcoming him and taking the initiative to shake his hand.

"Ah, how could it be him?" Lin Kai did not know that Song Lina's father was the chairman of the Mingyuan Group of Companies, and was startled again, slowed down and said, "Hello, uncle, we have already heard the general situation from the old man, we would like to go into your office first to probe the scene, what do you think?"

"Okay," Song Mingyuan took out a key and said to Liu Hao, the security chief standing beside him, "Go and open the door to my office!"

The Policewoman Chapter 40

Liu Hao took the key from Song Mingyuan's hand and quickly opened the door to the chairman's office.

Song Mingyuan made an inviting gesture, and Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo were the first to enter the room.

Zhang Shuo opened the suitcase he carried with him, took out the detection instruments inside and, after probing all corners of the room, desks, safes and other important places, said.

"I'll process the data from the detections in a moment, but I also need to know what happened last night, when the security guards were on duty."

Song Mingyuan dropped his gaze to the security captain Liu Hao and said, "Captain Liu, give them a narrative of what happened last night!"

Liu Hao stabilised himself and said, "Yesterday afternoon, according to the chairman's instructions, I arranged for two security guards to patrol this floor 24 hours a day, but this morning, when the other two guards changed shifts, they found the two guards who were on duty last night lying on the ground, one dead and the other seriously injured... .."

Liu Hao told the truth about what he knew.

After listening to Liu Hao's account, Zhang Shuo asked, "Can you tell us where those two security guards were on duty last night?"

"One was arranged in the corridor and one was arranged at the security exit." Liu Hao replied.

"Where were they attacked?" Lin Kai interjected and asked.

"According to the injured security guard, it seems they were attacked at the security exit. ...." Liu Hao gave a brief account of the situation as told by the injured one.

Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo looked at each other and then said to Liu Hao, "Can you take us to the security exit right now?"

"Well, yes!"

Liu Hao nodded, and then led Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo to the safety exit.

After Zhang Shuo probed the instrument around for a while, he took out a portable laptop from his suitcase and placed it on a desk, then took out a card from the detector and inserted it into the computer.

After opening the computer, he skillfully operated the computer keyboard.

In time, a series of footprints appeared on the computer screen, and although they had been damaged and had become blurred, it was still possible to see that a group of women had left particularly distinct footprints.

From this it could be deduced that the laser piece that had been placed in the safe had been stolen by a woman.

Moreover, this woman was particularly agile and extremely strong, and was able to take out the security guards, steal the laser piece and escape without incident in a very short period of time.

Also, after sneaking into the secrecy room, this woman did not rummage around and look around, but directly opened the safe to steal the laser piece, indicating that this woman was particularly knowledgeable about the situation inside, and should be someone who was more familiar with Song Mingyuan.

Once the conclusion was made and Zhang Shuo explained to everyone what he had analysed, the crowd was in an uproar.

Meanwhile, Master Song received a call from the military ministry saying that they had detected through military satellites that a man in black had entered the 28th floor from the outside of the office building of the Mingyuan Group of Companies by climbing the glass wall and had stolen the laser piece.

Elder Song immediately requested the military ministry to upload this video to Zhang Shuo's email box, and Zhang Shuo opened his email on his computer and downloaded the video.

On the video, the whole process of the man in black climbing up from the ground to the 28th floor and then descending from 28 to the ground floor was clearly visible.

The person in black on the screen was like a light bat, coming and going on the glass wall as she pleased, which showed how good her lightness and kung fu was, exactly like a female flying thief.

As the person in black is wearing a mask, it is not possible to see her face at all, even if it is clearer, it is impossible to identify this person, but from her movements, it is indeed a woman.

This woman was very cunning, and when she got her hands on her, she went into a green belt near the office building of the Mingyuan Group of Companies, and later, entered the blind spot of the electronic eye and never appeared again.

This made the detection work of Lin Kai and Zhang Shuo quite difficult.

"Ah? Could she have done it?" After watching this video, Song Mingyuan first thought of his own secretary, Sun Li.

Sun Li was a highly talented student he had recruited from a prestigious university after Liu Tongshu, the former secretary to the company's chairman, had officially become Song Mingyuan's woman.

This woman was tall, elegant and quite capable of working, and was deeply appreciated by Song Mingyuan.

Sun Li had the key to the chairman's office and often went in and out, and was very familiar and knowledgeable about the environment inside.

"If the situation is really like Zhang Shuo's analysis, then it is most likely that she committed the crime." Thinking of this, Song Mingyuan asked Liu Hao, "Where is Secretary Sun? Go quickly and invite her here."

"Chairman, do you suspect that this incident was done by Secretary Sun?" Liu Hao asked curiously.

"Cut the crap," Song Mingyuan said impatiently as he did not want to believe such a fact, "I told you to just go and get her, why do you need to ask so many questions?"

Ever since he found out that the office had been burgled, Song Mingyuan had asked Liu Hao to send someone to secure the scene on this 28th floor in order to protect the scene and let the office staff go to other floors.

Lin Kai asked eagerly, "Song Dong, where is Sun Li now?"

Liu Hao answered for Song Mingyuan, "Secretary Sun is on the 27th floor ....."

"Alright then, I'll go with you guys to find her!" Lin Kai knew that if Secretary Sun was really the female thief who stole the laser film, even if all the security guards here combined, they were no match for her, so in order to reduce unnecessary sacrifices, he would have to step forward and rush to the forefront.

Besides, if he caught the female thief himself and got a clue from the woman's mouth, the laser piece would be easily recovered.

Lin Kai passed a look to Zhang Shuo, and when he saw that Zhang Shuo would close his computer, he said to Elder Song, "Grandpa, I'll go downstairs with them to ask for Secretary Sun."

"You go ahead, be gentle, don't hurt her!" Elder Song nodded seriously.

Lin Kai replied, "Please don't worry, old master, I will bring Secretary Sun up unharmed."

Elder Song waved his hand at Lin Kai and said seriously, "Go quickly, if she hears anything later and runs away early, it will be troublesome."

"Okay." Lin Kai nodded his head heavily.

He then let Liu Hao, the head of security, lead the way, and together with Zhang Shuo, they quickly passed through the security channel and went downstairs to Sun Li's temporary office on the 27th floor.

The door was open and Sun Li was sitting in front of a desk inside. When she saw Liu Hao leading us into the room, she hurriedly stood up from her desk chair.

Lin Kai took a closer look at Sun Li –

The woman was about 24 or 5 years old and about 170 cm tall.

The woman's skin was smooth and soft, without any wrinkles.

It is white where it is snowy white, red where it is bright red and black where it is black.

The three colours reflect each other, flawlessly exuding a mature and feminine charm, a standard beauty, a woman who is both young, beautiful and full of vitality.

It was so completely professional that Lin Kai didn't dare associate her with a female flying thief at all.

"If we take the risk of arresting her, what if we catch the wrong person and wrongly accuse the good guys, not to mention letting the real female flying thief get away with it and spooking the snake?" Lin Kai muttered in his heart, "No, I have to test her first!"
