The Policewoman Chapter 51

Dark clouds, lightning and thunder are in the air over Liberty Island, and it is pouring with rain.

A military stealth plane hovered at 10,000 metres, the plane descended rapidly, 8,000 metres, 5,000 metres, 1,000 metres, 800 metres

The plane soared tenaciously through the torrential rain, like a bird in a storm.

On board was a special unit led by Lin Kai, consisting of five people including Black Panther, Ye Dayong, Gao Yunxiang and Zhang Shuo.

In order for the team to land accurately, Lin Kai told the pilot to continue descending and to fly at low altitude.

500m, 400m, 300m When the flight reached about 250m above the ground, the windows opened and the team members jumped from the plane together.

Wow!

The five parachutes opened at the same time, like five large umbrellas held open in a storm, and floated down towards the small woods of Liberty Island

In a short time, the five people landed exactly where they were designated and were not discovered by the people on the island.

After discerning each other's direction, the group gathered together, which was not far from the sea, and with the help of the lightning light, they could see the scene on the choppy sea.

"Captain, look, there's a warship docked there!" Zhang Shuo used his finger to point at a warship docked at the shore and said, "Since the situation on the island is still unclear to us for the time being, why don't we first feel our way to the warship and see what the situation is like, if it is feasible, let's take control of the warship first, then, when we retrieve that laser piece and retreat, wouldn't it be a good thing to leave in the warship?"

"What if there are a lot of people on the warship and they find out and spook the snake?" Lin Kai asked rhetorically.

"Let's approach the warship first, and if we find that there are too many people, then retreat back to the island and make another plan, what do you think?" Zhang Shuo continued.

"Captain, that's a good idea, let's give it a try first!" Ye Dayong agreed with Zhang Shuo's statement.

"Alright, let's do that!" Lin Kai thought about it and thought it was a good suggestion, nodded his head and agreed, seeing that the docked warship was a certain distance from the shore, said, "Let's swim over, everyone must be careful, we must never alert the people on the warship and on the island"

After briefly discussing the course of action with everyone, Lin Kai each changed into the diving suits they carried with them and crept forward to the beach.

Finding that the warship was about four or five hundred meters away from the shore, they gestured to each other and leapt into the sea one after another.

Despite the fact that it was summer, there was a strong rainstorm over Liberty Island and a strong wind, the temperature was very low and everyone could feel the coolness of the sea water despite their diving suits and felt a little bit prickly.

Within a short time of entering the water, everyone's faces were already frozen purple.

However, these people have all been trained and have been through worse conditions than this, so they were able to withstand it.

Taking advantage of the darkness and the storm as cover, Lin Kai swam in the lead and slowly approached the Japanese flagged warship.

When they were about a hundred metres away from the warship, Lin Kai said to the rest of the team through the miniature walkie-talkie they were carrying.

"Attention, we have entered the warship's guard area, me, Zhang Shuo and Black Panther are in one group, Gao Yunxiang and Ye Dayong are in one group, approaching the warship from two different directions!"

As soon as the words left their mouths, Black Panther and Zhang Shuo followed them and swam towards the warship right after Lin Kai.

Black Panther was a strong, big-bodied man, a man who was good at fighting but not good at using his brain, a team member who hit wherever you pointed him.

Seeing that Lin Kai was swimming rather slowly and not to mention cautiously looking around, he volunteered to say.

"Captain, it's better for me to swim in front!"

Suddenly, a spherical object emerged from the water and, like an octopus, was affixed to the Panther's broad forehead.

This spherical object had an LCD screen on top of it, and a string of red numbers was darting around.

"What is this thing?" Panther had never seen this thing before and was trying to reach out and pluck the thing away.

"Black Panther, don't move, it's a water mine!" Zhang Shuo shouted and hurriedly swam up.

"Huh? Water mines!" Black Panther shivered in fear.

He knew that once the mine was detonated, he would be buried in the sea, and he would also alert the people on the warship and get his companions involved.

Zhang Shuo took a closer look and saw that the LCD screen would explode in three seconds, so he immediately took out a sharp dagger from his diving suit and poked it hard at the LCD screen.

The LCD screen instantly went dark.

Under the fragments of the LCD screen, three different coloured power cables, red, yellow and blue, were revealed.

Zhang Shuo knew that once any of the wires were cut wrong, the mine would explode.

This kind of mine was so powerful that it could blow up any object within ten metres. Fortunately, he had studied this kind of mine before and if he cut the two power wires, red and yellow, it could be ruled out, otherwise, it would explode.

So, without hesitation, he used his dagger to pick off the two wires.

After Zhang Shuo eliminated the mines, Lin Kai was relieved and was secretly glad that he had done the right thing in bringing Zhang Shuo along this time, for if it had been someone else, not only would he have failed in his mission, but everyone would have been finished.

Suddenly remembering that Zhang Shuo was the only one who knew how to clear mines, he hurriedly shouted over the intercom, "Attention Ye Dayong and Gao Yunxiang, mines have appeared near the warship, please come closer to us as soon as possible!"

After receiving the instruction, Ye Dayong and Gao Yunxiang hurriedly swam to the three of us and then we all merged into one group again and slowly swam towards the warship.

Next, almost every ten metres or so, a trigger timed mine would hover on the surface of the water.

It took about another half hour before the group avoided the mines and approached the warship.

Everyone took off their diving suits near the warship and then, each pulled out a pair of manual suction cups from their suits and held them in their hands.

Everyone gently sucked up towards the hull and with a strong pull with both hands, their bodies were suspended above the hull and then, alternating hands, they climbed upwards and onto the deck.

There were two seamen on duty in a small room on the warship, sitting in front of a 42" television set watching TV, both looking a little anxious as the TV signal was poor due to the high winds and heavy rain at sea.

A tall, blond, white man with blue eyes said to a stocky black man.

"The captain is too ungrateful to take everyone to the island for Smith's wedding, to eat good food, drink and play with beautiful women, but to leave us ten or so men on duty on the warship,"

"Hey, who told us we were born to be lackeys?" The black man grumbled and said, "It is said that Smith, the Lord of Liberty Island, is quite beautiful when he marries that bride, have you seen her when you have been to the island before?"

"No," said the white man, shaking his head, "Is the Island Master's woman a casual sight for the likes of us? I did hear that this woman was got from China only a little while ago and her name is Tang Hui Min"

"Ah? Tang Huimin?" As soon as he heard this name, Lin Kai, who had led the team to the entrance of the room to eavesdrop, his heart tightened and he almost didn't scream out.

The Policewoman Chapter 52

"I didn't expect that my brother-in-law's aunt was actually gotten by them on this island," Lin Kai felt a little puzzled and secretly pondered, "How could my brother-in-law be married to the island master of Liberty Island? It's not someone with the same name, is it? Let's forget about that for now, arrest these two guys and ask about the situation"

Thinking of this, Lin Kai waved to Black Panther and then gave a gesture to the remaining three, indicating that he and Black Panther should attack while the others stood outside to hold the door.

Several people quickly spread out, and Lin Kai and Black Panther appeared behind the two men like a bolt of lightning.

Before the two men could react, they saw two black shadows appear like pylons in front of them. Before they could speak, two sharp daggers were slashed across their necks and two large hands covered their mouths.

The black man with the daggers around his neck was very fit, not as big as Panther, but still intimidating and a danger factor.

Lin Kai instructed Black Panther to just do away with this guy, and Black Panther also felt that he had no friendship with this guy and that staying around was a curse, and with a swipe of his dagger, he slit the guy's throat straight away.

A bright red blood spurted out of his throat and before he could hiss, the black man's bulky body fell to the floor, twitching a few times before he stopped moving.

The Panther wiped his dagger over his body, wiping the blood away before placing it back on his body.

The white man was stunned by what was happening in front of him. Seeing that Black Panther had killed a man as easily as a pig, he was so frightened that his whole body trembled and he was incontinent of urine.

Seeing how timid the guy was, Lin Kai continued to hold the dagger in his hand against his neck, released the hand that covered his big mouth and, in a not too fluent English, said.

"Tell me, how many people are on the warship? Or I'll kill you!"

Soldiers of special forces generally knew the languages of several countries.

Besides, Lin Kai was a university student and had learned the bird language of many countries in school, and English was an international language, so I believed that this white man could understand.

The white man tried to stabilize himself before he replied in fluent English, "There are ten people in the pack including the two of us"

"Where are the others?" Lin Kai asked in a cold voice.

Although he had overheard the conversation between the two men, he still had to confirm it from his mouth, in case it was a trap designed by this group of guys for the five of them to bore into it, wouldn't they be dumplings?

“They’ve gone to the wedding of Smith, the Lord of Liberty Island.” The white man answered truthfully.

“O Smith, Smith, I’ll make your wedding a funeral,” Lin Kai cursed from his heart and asked, “Who is the bride?”

Even though Lin Kai had overheard the guy mention the bride’s name, he wanted to get it out of his mouth himself.

“Vivian Tang!” The white man replied.

“Who is Vivian Tang?” Lin Kai asked after him.

“A beautiful woman captured from the Chinese country.”

“When did she come to the island?”

“For about six months,” the white man answered truthfully, “It is said that Smith, the owner of the island, fell in love with her at first sight and married her.”

“Indeed it was she!” This time was about the same as when Tang Huimin was kidnapped by the bald man and the others and disappeared. Lin Kai felt a shock in his heart and asked, “Where did they hold the wedding banquet?”

“The auditorium.”

“How many people in total attended the wedding banquet?”

“About four or five hundred people.”

“How many people were on your ship.”

“With the ten men on our ship, it was three hundred.”

“How were the ten men you left behind distributed?” Lin Kai continued to inquire.

“If I had told you, would you have killed us?” A person’s life was precious, and when it mattered, it was important to save one’s life, and the white man began to bargain with Lin Kai.

“It seems that this foreigner is still afraid of death,” Lin Kai’s face instantly showed a smile as he nodded, “Tell me and I won’t kill you!”

“Apart from the two of us who are on duty in this surveillance room, they are all dining in the canteen!” The white man saw a murderous aura in Lin Kai’s eyes, and only then did he say honestly.

“Where’s the canteen?” Lin Kai said in a low voice.

“2nd floor!” The white man replied.

“Go, follow us and lead the way!” Lin Kai said in a commanding tone, and at the same time, passed a look to Black Panther.

The black panther saw the look Lin Kai passed him and went up and tugged him by the arm. The white man looked at the dead body of the black man lying on the deck and remembered the horrible state he was in before he died, and his hair stood on end in fear.

“DON'T KILL ME!” the white man shouted.

Afraid of alerting the others, Panther hastily covered his mouth with his large hand and dragged him out of the surveillance room.

By now, Ye Dayong, Zhang Shuo and Gao Yunxiang had poked around the command centre, control and operations centre on the warship and found no movement.

Ye Dayong reported to Lin Kai on the intercom.

“Everyone else is in the mess hall, so let's all converge on the 2nd floor mess hall entrance!” After issuing the order, Lin Kai and Black Panther racked the white man left and right in the direction of the canteen located on the 2nd floor.

When they racked the white man and arrived at the entrance of the canteen, they saw that there were eight people inside gathered around a rectangular table drinking wine, and it seemed that the white pig was not telling lies.

However, their purpose was to take the warship so that they could safely evacuate after carrying out the War Office's order to get the laser tablets.

So, Lin Kai no longer cared about what he had promised the white man, and with a stroke of his heart, he used his dagger on the white man's neck, and he died.

At that moment, Ye Dayong, Gao Yunxiang and Zhang Shuo also arrived at the entrance of the room.

After some discussion and checking the weapons he was carrying, Lin Kai then pushed open the door of the canteen room and swaggered in.

A few foreigners were in the middle of their drinks.

Suddenly, they were shocked to see a few strangers barging in, and stood up from the table, ready to fuck, only to see the people who came in pointing several black guns at them, and then they dared not make a move.

“Who are you people?” A curly-haired, bearded man asked loudly.

Lin Kai joked in English, “We are the Judges sent by the King of Hell, and we have come to invite you to have tea in hell.”

“King of Hell? Who is the King of Yan?” The bearded man, who did not understand Chinese at all and did not know where the King of Hell was from, looked at him suspiciously.

“Yan Wang is the master of hell!” Lin Kai said.

“No go,” the bearded man said impatiently, “You guys go back and tell him we're staying here and drinking, we're not going anywhere!”

The guy's words amused several of the team.

The mission had not been completed yet, so Lin Kai did not want to nag these guys and gestured to the group. After receiving the order, several of them moved out together, wielding their daggers and running towards these guys who were so drunk that they killed them.

In order to avoid alerting the snake, and without knowing anything about the situation on the island, they tried to settle the fight with daggers, and if they fired, the sound of gunshots would have alerted the people on the island.

As Lin Kai was leading the five-man operation, apart from him, all of them were battle-hardened special forces soldiers, and these few ordinary sailors with western blood and tall cattle were no match for them.

It took less than five minutes for the eight soldiers to become the victims of their swords.

The Policewoman Chapter 53

Lin Kai knew that at such a time of life and death, when lives were at stake, there was no room for error, and that to show mercy to the enemy was to brutalise oneself.

Therefore, the men on the warship had to die. Only the dead would not speak, would not resist, and would not cause them any trouble.

After finishing off the soldiers on the warship, they checked around and found nothing unusual before throwing the bodies of the guys into the sea.

Now that the warship had been taken over, the headache was who knew how to fly a warship and knew about electronics? After the group arrived at the control room, Lin Kai looked at the various buttons and dashboards with a bewildered expression.

Ye Dayong instantly read Lin Kai's mind and asked, "Captain, are you worried that no one knows how to fly this warship?"

"Yes." Lin Kai said with a nod.

"Please don't worry Captain, I will operate this contraption." Ye Dayong said as he patted his chest.

"Really, you can?" A hint of surprise appeared on Lin Kai's face.

"Yes, before I went to the special forces, I was serving on a destroyer, and I am more familiar with the operation of ships." Ye Dayong said as he pressed a few buttons.

In a moment, the warship slowly started up, and then rode the wind and waves, heading towards the coast.

"Wow, great!" Lin Kai exclaimed, then gave an order saying, "Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang board the island with me and return immediately after retrieving that laser piece, Ye Dayong and Zhang Shuo stay on the warship to take care of the reception"

Zhang Shuo said pleadingly, "Captain, let Ye Dayong stay on the ship and I will board the island with you!"

“No,” Lin Kai flatly refused, “This warship is very important to us, I don’t feel comfortable leaving Ye Dayong here alone, just get in touch with Vice Captain Zhao Pengfei as soon as possible and have them come quickly to reinforce us.”

“That’s fine,” Zhang Shuo said with concern, “You guys have to be more careful!”

The ship soon docked at the shore.

Lin Kai, Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang quickly left the warship and boarded Freedom Island again.

Following the markings on that map that Master Song had detected and drawn out using military satellites through someone from the military ministry, as well as the route provided by the white man on the warship, the group took advantage of the cover of the night and heavy rain to feel their way towards the Freedom Island Auditorium.

.....

The rain was pouring down outside the Liberty Island auditorium, like a disgruntled woman who was pouring out her years of grievances.

Inside the hall, Smith and Tong’s wedding reception continued, with hundreds of people filling the hall, drinking, partying and applauding the couple.

Vivian Tang was holding a foot-long fruit knife, ready to cut the wedding cake.

In a trance, she saw a familiar shadow, a pair of familiar eyes, from among the crowd attending the wedding reception.

A lightning bolt streaked across and a dazzling cold light flashed from the fruit knife.

Boom!

There was a loud sound.

“Ah!”

Tang Huimin couldn’t help but let out a shriek.

Clang!

A clear, crisp clang sounded.

Tang Huimin’s body instantly became stiff and began to tremble, swaying forward and almost falling to the ground.

“Honey, what’s wrong with you?” Smith hurried up and held her in place, asking with concern, “Are you feeling unwell?”

Once again, Vivian Tang dropped her gaze to her original position; the familiar figure and those familiar eyes were gone, replaced by a group of unfamiliar faces.

“Could this be an illusion on my part?” Tang Huimin thought to herself as she slowed down.

She rubbed her eyes with her hands in an effort to make herself lucid, yet that lingering shadow once again came to her mind.

“Madam, please cut the cake!” After a waiter replaced another fruit knife, he gave a salute to Tang Huimin and then respectfully handed it over to her.

After Tang Huimin picked up the fruit knife and cut the wedding cake with trembling hands, the crowd erupted in applause once again.

Everyone then began to share the wedding cake.

Gradually, the crystal chandeliers in the auditorium were extinguished and only a few candles emitted a dull, soft glow from the coffee table around the auditorium.

A soft slow four-step dance played on the high-end stereo as the wedding party moved their feet in the middle of the hall and began to dance.

The whole auditorium was dark and overwhelming.

These gentlemen and ladies stood in pairs, face to face, like dumplings in the middle of the dance floor, hugging each other tightly, immersing themselves in the romantic dance music and moving their feet lightly to the soothing melody, enjoying the romantic atmosphere.

.....

What Tang Hui Min just saw in the crowd was not an illusion; she saw that the owner of that familiar figure and that familiar face was her nephew Lin Kai, whom she had been longing for.

It turned out that Lin Kai, Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang had quickly groped their way to the auditorium after disembarking from the warship.

To get a feel for the situation, they found some random waiters' clothes to wear in that dressing room outside the auditorium and blended into the crowd with the waiters.

When Tang Huimin was preparing to cut the cake, she was dressed as a waiter when she saw Lin Kai, causing Tang Huimin to shriek out loud.

When Lin Kai heard Tang Hui Min's scream, he rushed away, causing Tang Hui Min to believe it was an illusion.

While everyone on the island was at the Grand Hall for the wedding and slacking off, Lin Kai, Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang and the other three, searched almost all the rooms on the island and could not find the laser piece.

“Captain, could that laser piece be on Smith?” Gao Yunxiang analyzed.

“Most likely,” Lin Kai hesitated for a moment and said, “It is said that Smith is quite strong and he is surrounded by several masters, so it is difficult to get close under normal circumstances, we can only act according to the opportunity after the wedding banquet”

“Can we use Tang Hui Min to get close to him?” Black Panther suggested, don't look at this guy's seemingly dull head, this sentence still hit the nail on the head.

Lin Kai said helplessly, "From the expression on Tang Huimin's face, I guess she's controlled by Smith, she probably doesn't even remember me now, so it's hard to make use of it."

"Then what do you think we should do?" Black Panther asked anxiously.

"Here's the deal" Lin Kai said after whispering to Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang respectively, "We'll do this for now, and when the time comes, we'll see what we can do!"

"Okay, let's do what the boss wants!" Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang nodded their heads at the same time.

The Policewoman Chapter 54

The storm had finally stopped.

The air on the island was particularly fresh after the rain, and with the festivities of the islanders' wedding reception, everyone had such a good time that no one wanted to leave early.

By the time the banquet was over and Smith and Vivian Tang returned home, it was close to midnight.

Upon entering the room, Smith asked Vivian to stand with her feet one behind the other like a model walking on stage.

This pose made her look even more voluptuous and charming, and the way she stood straight, with the three-dimensional effect created by the contours of her body, made her look even more graceful.

Smith stared at Vivian Tang for a long time before looking down her voluptuous physique.

"Oh Madam, you are really too beautiful, it is a blessing in my three lifetimes to be able to marry a delicate wife with talent and beauty like you." Smith couldn't help but praise.

Tang Hui Min understood his thoughts and said, "I'm tired and sweaty, I'm going to take a shower first!"

"You go ahead, I'll wait for you!" Smith said meaningfully.

Tang Hui Min turned around and walked into the bathroom.

After taking a shower, coming out of the bathroom, Tang Huimin was only wearing a thin, deep red transparent bathrobe, all white as gelatinous skin, with a full figure and a dark patch between her slender two jade legs.

Smith was dumbfounded and stared straight at her with both eyes. He had to admit that Tang Huimin was by far the most cultivated and beautiful woman Smith had ever met.

"You go and wash up too!" Vivian Tang was slightly shy under his fiery gaze.

Smith rushed into the bathroom, washed his body quickly and ran to the bed in a heartbeat. In one fluid motion, he took her into his arms and held her tightly, kissing and caressing her beautiful body fiercely.

.....

After Smith and Vivian Tang's wedding dinner and party, the guests all felt groggy and fell into bed and drifted off to sleep shortly after returning to the Liberty Island Hotel.

There was no telling when they would wake up from this sleep.

Because, after Lin Kai, Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang put on the clothes of waiters and made up as waiters, they put a colourless and tasteless hypnotic drug into the guests' drinks and beverages as instructed by Lin Kai.

This drug had such a peculiar function that when they returned to their rooms, as soon as they had the urge to sleep, they fell into bed and did not want to get up, and then fell into a deep sleep.

In this way, apart from the bodyguards who had not been drinking and were on duty and on the island, all those who came to the wedding feast, whether they were from the island or invited guests of either sex, collapsed horizontally on the large hotel bed and fell into a deep sleep.

The 290 officers and men who had come off the warship were given a day off because they were attending the wedding of the island master.

They were settled in luxury rooms at the Liberty Island Hotel and, as a token of appreciation for their protection of Liberty Island, Smith had a woman assigned to each of them for them to enjoy on the island.

These wolf-like officers and soldiers were simply overjoyed to have those flamboyant women in their arms and could not wait to find them for fun once they were brought into their hotel rooms.

However, like the other guests, as soon as they saw the bed, sleep came over them, and before they could enjoy this special meal, each one fell into a deep sleep.

As both Smith and Tang Hui Min had taken a special potion before the dinner.

Therefore, the kind of sleeping pills that Lin Kai and the others had put in had no effect on them, but instead made them become even more exhilarated and passionate.

While everyone was asleep, Smith was oblivious to what was going on outside and enjoyed their "wedding night" to the fullest.

.....

After everyone on the island and the guests had fallen asleep, Lin Kai, Panther and Gao Yunxiang found their way to Smith's house.

It was a three-storey villa, and Smith and Tang Huimin's new room was on the top floor.

After using the flying eaves technique to climb over the fence, they saw that no one was in the living room on the ground floor, so they slowly felt their way up the stairs towards the ground floor of the villa and prepared to go up the stairs.

When they reached the entrance of the staircase on the ground floor, Lin Kai, who was at the front, suddenly waved his hand, and Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang behind him immediately stopped.

For, right at the narrow entrance, which could only fit one person in and out, sat a tall blond man, who, in his hand, held a large calibre Desert Eagle.

The two men stopped and looked at Lin Kai, waiting for his instructions.

Putting on a drunken, inebriated appearance, Lin Kai walked towards the blonde man, saying in fluent English as he did so.

“What is this place? Why is it so dark?”

The blond man, who had been leaning against the doorway with his eyes closed, snapped his eyes open and the Desert Eagle in his hand was then raised and aimed in the direction of the downstairs.

“Who?” The blonde man asked warily.

Before he could see the face of the person coming, a flying knife flew out of Lin Kai’s hand and plunged directly into his wrist that was holding the snatch.

Clang!

The pistol landed on the ground with a crisp sound.

As he was about to stretch out his other hand to pick it up on the ground, another steel nail was thrown out of Lin Kai’s hand and plunged into the central nerve of the blond man’s brain.

The blond man didn’t even utter a word before he fell limply to the ground.

Lin Kai took an arrow step forward and dropped down sharply to hold the blond man’s body, lowering him to the ground before snapping his fingers.

Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang sprinted forward.

Soon, several of them were creeping up the stairs and onto the first floor.

In no time, they had climbed around the corner.

Immediately, Lin Kai waved his hand again and the two men stopped again.

At the moment, the man was looking at him with a sneer.

“Shit, what’s with the cool act, it’s the middle of the night and you’re wearing sunglasses, can you see?” Lin Kai took a look and also froze, cursing in his heart, thinking carefully, he felt that something was wrong and thought, “Could it be that this guy is wearing night vision goggles?”

For, Lin Kai noticed that the man was looking at himself with a smile on his face, so he waved to Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang behind him, and the two gathered up.

The sunglasses man was about 2 metres tall, with broad shoulders and a large waist, the same guy who had tortured Tang Hui Min after she had been brought up to Liberty Island.

When the sunglasses man saw that the ones groping up were a few Chinese men, he didn’t give them a second thought.

He swept a glance at the three men and felt that Black Panther was the biggest and should be the most capable one, and that the other two were unbeatable.

So the sunglasses man put away a Desert Eagle pistol that he was holding in his hand, hooked his finger at them and stepped into the room on the first floor.

Lin Kai was not willing to be outdone, so he led the two men to follow the sunglasses man in.

The Policewoman Chapter 55

When they entered, they found a wide hall, which was empty and spacious.

“How did you come to be on Liberty Island?” The sunglasses man rushed at them, “If you want to find our island master, then you should pass me first!”

“Since I’ve already stood in front of you, you don’t have to worry about how we came to Freedom Island,” Lin Kai said with a smile on his face, “Why do I have to pass you before I can meet your island master?”

“Cut the crap,” the sunglasses man felt that Lin Kai’s words were a bit contemptuous of him as a professional bodyguard, and looked a bit impatient as he said, “You guys hold on tight, I can sleep only after I finish you!”

“This kid is too arrogant,” said Black Panther, looking at Lin Kai and volunteering, “Captain, let me go and finish him off.”

“It looks like that guy has two tricks up his sleeve,” Gao Yunxiang was a bit worried and said to Black Panther, “Why don’t we both go together and take care of this guy first!”

“No, I can handle it alone.” Black Panther shook his head gently.

“Black Panther, you be careful!” Lin Kai admonished.

“Captain, don’t worry, I’ll be fine,” Black Panther grinned at Lin Kai, then, standing in front of the man with sunglasses, said loudly, “Hey, can you take off your sunglasses, what’s the point of acting cool in the middle of the night? It looks disgusting.”

“Cut the crap and come here!” The sunglasses man had a look of disdain on his face and hooked his finger at Black Panther.

“Looking for death?” Black Panther sneered and walked over towards the sunglasses man.

Black Panther walked towards him with disdain.

Even though Black Panther wasn’t exactly short, he was still half a head short of the man in sunglasses, and fearing an attack on his lower back, the man in sunglasses lowered his body to dive towards Black Panther.

The two men threw simultaneous punches when their bodies were less than a metre apart.

Boom!

The two huge fists collided in the air with a muffled sound.

After feeling each other’s force, they simultaneously took their bodies back half a step.

While Black Panther was still on his feet, the sunglasses man took advantage of his height and arm length and struck out with lightning, wrapping his hands around Black Panther’s neck like iron hooks and pulling his body towards his arms.

“Shit, Black Panther is in danger!” Lin Kai, who was standing on the side, broke out in a cold sweat in a hurry.

Because he could see the motive of the sunglasses man, he wanted to use his gorilla-like body to wrap Black Panther around and then directly bend his neck.

As if he had predicted that his opponent would do this in advance, Panther bent his knee just as their bodies were about to make contact, and landed a heavy knee, knocking hard on the sunglasses man’s crotch.

The sunglasses man didn’t expect the black panther to use such a dirty trick, and his movements were so fast and vicious that he realised he had taken his opponent lightly.

“Ah!”

The sunglasses man cried out in pain, spewing a large mouthful of undigested food out of his mouth, while a stream of urine flowed from the uncontrolled gate.

When Panther saw that the guy had instantly lost his fighting ability due to the pain, he turned around violently, sank his qi into his dantian, shouldered the sunglasses man’s front chest, and then delivered a strong over-the-shoulder slam.

Boom!

The sunglasses man’s huge body hit the floor with a fierce thud.

After a depressing and dull sound, Black Panther became frantic and didn’t give the sunglasses man a chance to catch his breath, lifting his foot and stomping heavily on the sunglasses man’s head.

“Ah!”

The sunglasses man cried out in shock again and instinctively rolled on the floor, trying to get up when a huge pair of soles came over his face.

Bang!

After a dull sound, the sunglasses man’s face was deformed by the black panther’s stomp.

Immediately afterwards, the sunglasses man let out a muffled grunt and his nostrils, eyes and ears began to bleed from seven orifices, and after struggling tightly on the floor for a while, he was silent again.

.....

The dull sound on the first floor and the sunglasses man’s screams woke up Smith and Tang Hui Min, who were living in that big bed in that new room on the third floor.

The moment he heard the sound, Smith knew that the two bodyguards he had arranged for downstairs had been killed, his heart was a shock, he knew the two men’s skills, to be able to take them out, is no ordinary people.

Nonetheless, he said to Tang Hui Min with a smile on his face, "Madam, a guest has arrived, should we not prepare to welcome our honored guests?"

.....

After Black Panther settled the sunglasses man, he followed me and Gao Yunxiang towards the third floor of the villa.

Gao Yunxiang gave a thumbs up and said, "Black Panther, you're amazing, I admire you!"

Black Panther said modestly, "Average, but it's still more than enough to deal with a guy like the man with sunglasses."

Lin Kai felt that Black Panther was taking a risk with this move and chided, "Black Panther, you kid just scared me to death, I thought your head would be twisted off by that sunglasses man,"

"Hey," Black Panther giggled, scratching his head with his hand, "If I get done off easily by that guy, am I still a soldier under your boss?"

"Don't give me a high hat," Lin Kai said hatefully, "I'm telling you, that Smith guy isn't as easy to deal with as this sunglasses guy, so be careful, listen to my orders later and don't try to be a hero."

"Yeah?" Black Panther still made a look of indifference.

Just as he arrived at the door of his new room on the third floor, he saw the door of the room wide open.

Inside the room, the lights were on and Smith and Vivian Tang were sitting face to face on the sofa in the living room.

Tang Hui Min was still wearing the red bridal make-up, but Smith was wearing a set of pajamas.

Smith looked at the three standing in the doorway of the room with a smile on his face and said, "My friend, since you're here, come in and have a drink!"

Lin Kai stepped into the spacious living room and said with a smile, "We heard that today is your big day with this beautiful lady, we have come all the way here to ask you for a drink, I wonder if you are willing to do so?"

"Of course I would, in the words of your Chinese people, it's a pleasure to have friends come from afar." Smith was still smiling as he looked at Lin Kai, as well as Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang who walked in with him, and asked, "You're not just here to drink our wedding wine, are you?"

Lin Kai dropped his gaze to Tang Huimin, and seeing that she had a wooden face and acted as if she didn't know him at all, he asked tentatively.

"Of course we want to come and see this beautiful bride's face with our own eyes, yo?"

"Oh, I forgot to introduce you," Smith pointed at Tang Huimin and introduced her to Lin Kai, "my beautiful bride is called Tang Huimin, she is also from your Chinese country, I have fallen in love with her at first sight, you didn't come to our island to look for her, did you? "

“Of course not,” said Lin Kai, shaking his head, “this bride of yours doesn’t seem to know us, so why are we looking for her?”

“And why exactly are you here?” Smith looked at Lin Kai suspiciously and suddenly, the smile on his face disappeared and a strong murderous intent flashed in his eyes.

“Since Mr. Smith is so forthcoming, it would be a bit unethical of me to keep it from you,” Lin Kai looked at him with a smile on his face and said, “Someone stole one of our treasures and sent it to your Liberty Island, we are here to collect this treasure, please Mr. Smith must be gracious enough to return it to us .”

As Lin Kai spoke, he watched Smith’s movements closely, fearing that this fellow would not play his cards right and would suddenly attack them.

The Policewoman Chapter 56

“Sir, I have more treasures on the island, I wonder which one you are talking about?” Presumably Smith was enjoying his wedding night and mistook the men for a caveman, and was in a particularly good mood, patient and talkative.

“The laser piece!” Lin Kai said seriously, “This thing is like a godsend for our country of China, it can resist the invasion of foreign forces, you sent someone to steal this thing, we would be doing our country and people a disservice if we didn’t come and claim it”

“Oh, you have come for this treasure, and I have always admired patriots like you,” said Smith, shrugging his shoulders and making a gentlemanly show, “but, I am sorry, sir, and forgive me for taking the liberty, but that treasure has cost us a great deal of money, and I am afraid it will disappoint you and cannot be given to you!”

“That is stolen goods, you are selling stolen goods,” Lin Kai asked, trying to test his tone, “from whom did you buy it?”

“I don’t care if it’s stolen goods or what, as long as it’s of value to us, we’ll buy it,” Smith asked with a playful smile, “Do you think I could tell a dying man the name of that seller? Even if I tell you that you have gone to the other side, what else can I do?”

With that, he pulled Tang Huimin over and sat on his lap, kissing her on the cheek as if no one was watching, gazing at her with mesmerising eyes and asking in a soft voice.

“Honey, do you think I’m right?”

“Well, you’re so right,” Tang Huimin said delicately as she swept a glance over Lin Kai, Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang, “These guys are like flies, I dislike them, I even find them annoying, should I go and get rid of them?”

It seemed that Tang Huimin had been completely controlled by Smith and had completely lost sight of Lin Kai, who was nothing more than a stranger in her consciousness.

Thinking of his sister-in-law Tang Huimin when she was making out with him, he felt a little gloomy. Lin Kai’s heart was broken and he secretly resolved to get rid of Smith, the demon, and free Tang Huimin tonight.

“No need,” said Smith, shaking his head, “you are my woman, and tonight is our wedding night, how can I let you do it?”

With that, Smith took Tang Hui Min off his arms, put her on the sofa and sat down, stood up, hooked a finger towards Lin Kai and said.

“My beautiful wife dislikes you all very much and finds you annoying, and I should meet all her demands in order to do my duty as a husband, so I am now prepared to shut you up, and the best way to shut people up is to kill you, all three of you together, lest it be said that I am bullying you.”

“Arrogance!” Black Panther roared, fished out a Chinese special sabre from the knife pouch on his trouser leg, gently held it in his hand, stepped forward and said, “I’ll play a couple of hands with you.”

Smith smiled coldly, waved his hand gently at Black Panther and pointed at Lin Kai, “You’re no match for me, let him do it!”

Without a word, Black Panther swung his sword and stabbed Smith in the chest, who also took out a Swiss Army knife and fought with Black Panther.

It must be said that Black Panther was indeed very powerful, but when he fought Smith, he was still a bit inferior.

Moreover, Black Panther had just gone through a battle with the sunglasses man on the first floor and had used up a lot of his strength. After the two of them had fought for about ten rounds, Black Panther could not hold on anymore and started to lose.

“Black Panther, let me do it!” Lin Kai was a little anxious and shouted, pulling a dagger out of his pocket and preparing to charge towards Smith.

Tang Huimin, who was sitting on the sofa, saw her “husband” Smith being attacked and, as if she was possessed, she shouted and darted towards Lin Kai.

Seeing this, Gao Yunxiang swept a flying leg towards Tang Huimin, who dodged Gao Yunxiang’s fatal blow and threw a punch, which Gao blocked with his hand.

Clash!

The two fists collided in the air and felt each other’s arms go numb, each took a step back, paused briefly, and then tangled up again.

“Gao Yunxiang, she is being controlled by Smith, be careful, don’t hurt her!” Lin Kai instructed to Gao Yunxiang, gripping his dagger and rushing towards Smith.

“Vile!”

Smith cursed angrily, and then silently recited a string of unintelligible characters from his mouth.

In an instant, it was as if a green light flashed and shone into the Panther’s face, causing him to open his eyes and his mind to short-circuit instantly, becoming unconscious all at once.

“Damn Chinese pigs, go to hell!” Smith shouted, fiercely made a straight stab, as fast as lightning, Black Panther was too late to retreat, and was stabbed into his chest.

At that moment, Lin Kai also pounced on Smith's heels.

When he saw the black panther being stabbed, his heart thumped and he stretched out one hand to hold Smith's body, while the sharp dagger in his other hand instantly wiped across Smith's neck.

Poof!

A stream of crimson blood instantly spurting out from Smith's neck, blood gushing out like a spring.

"You how did you do that?" Smith did not expect Lin Kai to be so quick, he looked at him blankly and with difficulty covered his blood spurting neck with his hand, his eyes were filled with a look of disbelief and pain, his voice was full of anger, even before he died, his eyes were still that fierce and brutal.

At this moment, Tang Huimin, who was fighting with Gao Yunxiang, then woke up like a dream and immediately stopped fighting.

"It's simple, one swipe of my knife to your neck and you'll be like this!" Lin Kai smiled playfully, it would be a joy to flirt with this demon before he died.

"I I underestimated you Chinese" Smith's eyes were almost spitting fire as more and more blood flowed from his neck, and his voice was getting weaker and weaker as he spoke.

Poof!

There was a muffled sound and Smith collapsed in a pool of blood with a loud thud.

"Beautiful Chinese woman, vile Chinese man!" With a frantic hiss, Smith struggled and twitched on the floor for a few moments before he was cut off.

Poof!

There was another muffled sound and the Panther also collapsed to the floor.

It turned out that Smith's short Swiss knife was so sharp that it had pierced right through the Panther's heart, blood gurgling out along the handle.

Lin Kai turned around and saw that Panther had also fallen in a pool of blood and rushed up to him, taking his huge body into his arms and shouting.

"Black Panther, what's wrong with you?"

"Captain, I can't make it, I can't go with you on your mission!" Panther grinned and licked the blood from the corner of his mouth, a look of regret on his face.

"Black Panther, you have to hold on, I'll find a place right away and have a doctor dress your wounds." Lin Kai shouted.

The Policewoman Chapter 57

In fact, Lin Kai was comforting Panther and himself with these words. In this unfamiliar place, once they were discovered by the people on the island, those people would be hunting them down.

At that time, there would be enemies on their backs, where could they find a doctor to bandage Black Panther?

"I know I can't make it, so don't bother with me, just hurry up and find that laser piece and get out of here as soon as possible," Panther's eyes were already a little lax, but his face was calm as he said with difficulty, "Captain, can... to be able to spend time with you, I feel very happy, my only regret is that I will never be able to follow you all side by side again, I I'm leaving!"

The sounds around him seemed to have stopped, and everything seemed to be as peaceful as ever.

In Panther's ears, he seemed to hear the voice of his parents calling out, "Son, we are looking around for you, you can't die, you can't die!"

Black Panther was an orphan, and although he had never seen his parents, it was surprising to hear the voice so clear and familiar.

A line of hot tears flowed out from the corner of his eyes, down his cheeks and instantly hung all over his cheeks, his neck craned and his voice was silent, only those eyes of his kept looking at Lin Kai, refusing to close for a long time.

"Panther, don't worry, I won't leave you here alone, I'll bring you home!" Lin Kai brushed his hand over the black panther's eyes, and the panther's eyelids slowly closed.

.....

Although Gao Yunxiang and Tang Huimin had ended the fight, he was afraid that Tang Huimin was still under the control of the dead Smith and did not dare to be careless, watching Tang Huimin's every move at all times.

"Ah, Kai, it's you? It's really you? You're still alive?" After losing Smith's control, Tang Huimin's consciousness had fully recovered, and she was first stunned by what was happening in front of her, and then, as if waking up from a great dream, she exclaimed loudly, "Why are you here, are you here to save me?"

With that, she lunged towards Lin Kai.

"Stand still, don't move," Lin Kai said in a cold voice as he took a step backwards, "Tang Huimin, I never thought in a million years that you would turn out like this now!"

"Kai, I'm sorry," said Tang Huimin as she immediately stopped and pointed at Smith's corpse, "I my consciousness was controlled by this man, and I didn't know what I was doing"

Lin Kai's heart was a shudder and asked seriously, "So, you've been with Smith since you disappeared?"

"No," Tang Huimin shook her head and said, "Last time, when I went to capture the criminals led by the bald man in order to save you, I was kidnapped by them instead, and later, they sent me to the island"

Tang Huimin briefly recounted to Lin Kai what happened to her on the island, and how Smith used drugs to control her and force herself to marry him.

After listening to Tang Huimin's account, Lin Kai's heart was a pang of sadness.

Having met again after a long time, they seemed to have a thousand words to say to each other, but with Gao Yunxiang present, he could not show intimacy with his sister-in-law.

The most urgent task was to find the laser piece as soon as possible, and then take it and leave the island as soon as possible.

Lin Kai forced down the excitement within himself and asked eagerly, "Do you know where Smith has hidden that laser piece?"

"The laser piece? What laser piece?" Tang Huimin looked at him with a bewildered expression.

"This laser piece is a piece of high-tech equipment used to equip aircraft carriers in China, which was accidentally stolen and transported to Liberty Island" Lin Kai said lightly.

Since Tang Huimin is already awake, there is nothing to hide from her.

Lin Kai briefly told the story of his entry into the special forces and how he was ordered to lead his team to come and take the laser piece after it was stolen, and how he happened to meet Tang Huimin.

After listening to Lin Kai's description, Tang Huimin then remembered that a few days before, Smith had sent a warship to pick up a man named Dr. George ashore.

This man was carrying a suitcase which was said to contain important items.

Once ashore, Smith had Dr. George sent to the heavily guarded little white building at the back of the hill.

Once inside, Dr George never came out.

After Tang Huimin told Lin Kai what she knew, Lin Kai immediately judged that the leather case the man called Dr George was carrying was the one containing the laser tablets.

That small building was the military research base set up by the Japanese nation on this island, and Dr. George was taking that laser piece to research and decipher it, so as to steal the military technology of the Chinese nation.

Lin Kai asked eagerly, "Did Smith ever take you into that small building?"

"No," said Tang Huimin, shaking her head, "That small building is surrounded by strict security, and no one is allowed to enter except Smith and a few important people."

"Can you show me over there now?" Lin Kai asked anxiously.

"Yes!" Tang Hui Min said with a nod.

Lin Kai looked at Black Panther's body lying on the ground, felt a pang of sadness, and said to Gao Yunxiang, "I'll go with her to that small building to retrieve the laser piece, you get Black Panther to the warship first!"

Knowing that this mission was dangerous, Gao Yunxiang was a little worried about Lin Kai and pleaded, "Captain, let Black Panther stay here first, I'll go with you guys to finish the mission and come back for him."

"No," Lin Kai flatly refused, "when we go to retrieve that laser piece, we will definitely be discovered by the people on the island, by then, it will be too late to come back and carry Black Panther's body, you do as I have instructed, carry Black Panther back first, then wait for my order."

"That is fine!" Gao Yunxiang reluctantly agreed, although he was not quite willing, so he went up and carried the body of the black panther and followed me and Tang Huimin downstairs.

After parting with Gao Yunxiang, who was carrying Black Panther's corpse, at the entrance of Smith's villa, Lin Kai and Tang Huimin then quickly felt their way to the back of the hill near the small white building.

"Little aunt, we do this now" Lin Kai saw two black-clad men with guns standing pensively, whispered to Tang Huimin and disappeared into the darkness like a gust of wind.

Tang Huimin strutted towards the two men.

"Who?"

A man in black asked warily in English, while pointing a gun at her.

"I'm Mrs Smith," said Vivian Tang, smiling as she walked up, "Mr Smith has had too much to drink and is a little unwell, but is unsure about your side and asked me to come over and see if there was anything unusual."

As the two men in black had only attended Smith and Vivian Tang's wedding in the auditorium at noon, and Vivian Tang was still wearing her red bridal outfit, it was easy to identify them.

"Report ma'am, nothing unusual," the man in black said curtly as he hastily put his gun away, "Please go back and tell Mr Smith that nothing will happen to us here, please reassure him."

"Very well, thank you for your hard work," said Tang Hui Min in a soft voice as she stood in front of one of the men in black, "I will definitely ask Mr Smith to reward you when I get back!"

As soon as the words were out of her mouth, Tang Hui Min took advantage of his surprise and lunged forward, flashing a sharp dagger in her hand towards the man in black.

The Policewoman Chapter 58

Swish!

The dagger plunged into the black-clothed man's heart with a windy sound, and Tang Hui Min stirred inside his heart a few times for fear that the guy would not die.

"Madam, you" The man in black looked at her in disbelief.

Tang Huimin was afraid that if the guy screamed out, it would alert the people in the small building and sprinted forward to cover his mouth.

The man in black struggled desperately, but felt his strength failing him and he fell to the ground.

Another man in black saw his companion being attacked and tried to come to his aid, but he was cut by Lin Kai, who came out of the darkness and slit his throat.

Boom!

There was a muffled sound.

The huge body of the man in black fell to the ground.

“You hold the door here, I’ll go in and look for it!” Lin Kai spoke to Tang Huimin.

“Little Kai, be careful!” Tang Huimin barked out a warning and flashed to the side.

When Lin Kai saw how docile his little aunt had become, he was secretly happy and looked at Tang Huimin’s delicate body and grinned.

“Is she now under my control too, with her consciousness completely at my disposal? If so, won’t she do whatever I want her to do? If I let her” As he was moving towards her, he suddenly remembered the purpose of this trip and hurriedly withdrew his mind and rushed into the small building.

Fearing that the people inside would find out, Lin Kai did not go in through the front door, but climbed directly on top of the courtyard wall, then took a long leap and rolled into the green belt to the corner of the small building, and thundered through the window and tumbled directly into the ground floor.

The people in the small building were already asleep, except for a luxurious office with a light on and a middle-aged man in a white coat sitting at a desk inside.

The man was leaning over his desk looking at a drawing.

“Sir, if you don’t mind, I’d like to talk to you!” Lin Kai said in English when he saw that he was a tall-nosed foreigner.

The middle-aged man looked up and frowned when he saw a handsome looking man with an oriental face looking at him with a smile on his face.

Fearing that he would shout, Lin Kai stepped forward and pressed his dagger against his back. The man’s body stiffened violently and then relaxed slowly, standing up from his office chair without a word.

“What do you want to talk to me about?” The middle-aged man spoke in a calm voice.

“You tell me first, what is this place?” Lin Kai asked with a smile.

“The Holy War Institute.” The tall nose answered truthfully.

“What are your duties?” Lin Kai asked with a slight interest.

The middle-aged man answered truthfully, “Responsible for collecting military intelligence from various countries, intercepting military technology from various countries, and training military spy personnel.”

“What position do you hold here?” Lin Kai continued to ask.

“Deputy Director.” The middle-aged man replied.

“How can I trust your identity?” Lin Kai looked at him with a look of distrust.

“Here are my papers!” Fearing that he would pay the price for not telling the truth or be taken out by Lin Kai, the middle-aged man apprehensively removed his work badge from his neck and handed it to him.

After looking at the name and position, Lin Kai said, “Mr. Jack, you are honest, I like dealing with people like you, did you steal a laser piece from China in recent days?”

“I don’t know, the island owner Smith was in charge of this matter, at the same time, he was also the director of our institute” Jack replied, he didn’t know that Smith was dead yet and didn’t mean to put the blame on a dead man.

But in Lin Kai’s opinion, this guy was lying, because, in terms of the national situation in China, the main post was in charge of the overall situation, and only the deputy post managed the specific work.

Although this place was remote, the laws of people exercising their authority should be the same.

“I just said that you were an honest person, now it seems that I was wrong in my judgement, now, I will give you a small punishment for your dishonesty.” Lin Kai swung his dagger and sliced off the middle finger of his left hand in one swift motion to avoid him shouting, so he covered his mouth with his hand and asked, “Tell me, where is that laser piece kept?”

Ten fingers!

Jack’s left hand was bleeding and tearing with pain and tears, and as his mouth was gagged by Lin Kai, he could only nod his head to show that he would cooperate with him.

“You better not play tricks with me again or I’ll kill you!” Lin Kai said in a stern voice as he put the dagger to his neck.

Jack nodded again, and only then did Lin Kai remove his hand from his mouth.

“Sir, don’t kill me,” Jack said, almost fainting from the pain, “I I’m telling you, the thing is in the basement, where Dr. George is doing research... ..”

“How can I get into the basement?” Lin Kai asked in a cold voice.

“From the safe passage, you can go straight down!” Jack said truthfully.

“Very well,” Lin Kai said with a smile on his face, “Mr. Jack, you are indeed honest, I won’t kill you, however, if I don’t kill you, I will be killed by you, sorry”

Before Lin Kai came to Liberty Island, Master Song had obtained George’s information from the military intelligence department through the military satellite, Lin Kai had seen his profile and should be able to recognize him, therefore, this guy was no longer of much use to Lin Kai, and wiped towards his neck.

“You you” Jack’s eyes were wide, and before the word “unfaithful” could come out of his mouth, he He felt weak and collapsed on the floor.

Lin Kai quickly left the deputy director’s office, passed through the security tunnel and headed for the basement.

“Who is it?”

Suddenly, a man’s voice came from the doorway of the security tunnel.

“Someone is guarding this place, which means Jack is not lying, the guy who stole the laser piece is inside the basement.” With a dark thought in his mind, Lin Kai said in fluent English, “Mr. Jack asked me to come down and inform Dr. George to go to the deputy director’s office, there’s something to talk to him about.”

As the Jihad Institute was heavily guarded, much less the basement being found by outsiders, the man with the gun in his hand did not suspect that Lin Kai was an unexpected visitor.

“Oh,” the man responded and said, “Wait here for a moment while I tell Dr. George to go to the deputy director’s office immediately.”

Before the man could finish his words, Lin Kai had already thrown two flying knives out of his hand, one stabbing at the hand he was holding the snatch in, and the other stabbing him straight in the throat.

Before the man could react to what was happening, his throat had already been cut by the flying knives.

Clang!

There was a crunching sound and the pistol fell to the ground.

BANG!

With a muffled sound, the man fell to the ground with a crash and lay dying.

Fearing that someone would find out, Lin Kai rushed forward and cut off the power switch in the passage, and the basement passage instantly became pitch black.

At that moment, a black bodyguard poked his head out of the basement and, seeing a black shadow appear before his eyes, mistook it for his companion and asked out loud.

“What’s going on here? Has something happened?”

The Policewoman Chapter 59

“The light bulb in the building hallway is broken” Lin Kai spoke, an arrow step rushed forward, a hand grabbed the tie on his shirt, against his neck wrapped around, and then force a After making sure he couldn’t make a sound, he raised his dagger and stabbed him in the chest.

Soon, the black man fell into his arms.

After gently placing the black bodyguard on the ground, Lin Kai retrieved the pistol from his pocket and quickly made his way to the basement.

At this moment, a man was sitting at a desk, his hand holding a magnifying glass and an instrument, and was studying a piece of liquid crystal placed on the desk.

Behind him also stood a white man and a yellow man.

Lin Kai recognised at once that these three men were the white and yellow men he had seen in the video provided by the Ministry of War, following Dr. George and carrying the suitcase ashore.

“Hello Dr. George!” Lin Kai gently walked across to a few of the men and greeted Dr. George first.

“Who are you?” Dr. George frowned for a moment, unable to recall where he had seen such a figure before and felt confused.

“Dr. George, you are really a noble man, aren’t you?” Lin Kai said with a smile on his face, “Only one day has passed and you’ve forgotten me?”

Dr. George looked at Lin Kai carefully for a few moments, and then showed a serious face and said to him.

“I can assure God I haven’t seen you before, who the hell are you? What do you want?”

“Of course you haven’t seen me before,” Lin Kai said playfully, “but if you recall carefully when you escaped in a speedboat with that laser piece you stole from China and came to Liberty Island, you will have no difficulty in imagining who I really am. ”

“Huh? You’re an agent sent by the Chinese State?” George shrieked, becoming nervous all of a sudden.

Upon hearing this, the white man and the yellow man were startled, and then they reached out and prepared to pull their guns out of their pockets.

Lin Kai had long anticipated that they would do this and raised his gun at them, shooting at close range, naturally, one point blank and one head shot.

The two men then fell to the ground.

As Lin Kai was using a silent pistol, the people outside could not hear him at all.

When George saw that the two bodyguards protecting him had been killed by Lin Kai in one go, he was scared shitless and his legs went limp and he fell under his desk.

Lin Kai walked up to him, saw his whole body shaking and shivering, his teeth clacking against each other, and lifted him off the floor and placed him on his original stool.

“Mr. George, it’s time for you to return things to their rightful owners now, isn’t it?” Lin Kai said in a cold voice.

“No don’t kill me” George pointed to the LCD piece on the table and said, “This is what you need, you take it”

Lin Kai put a knife to his neck and said, “Who knows if this thing of yours is real or fake, what if you have switched it?”

“I swear on God’s honor that this lens is absolutely stolen from your Chinese country that laser piece, if there is half a word of falsehood, I will be struck by lightning, hit by a car and drowned by water” Dr. George was really a greedy person who was afraid of death, in order to live He would dare to swear anything to live.

“Dr. George, there is no need to be so troublesome, a single stab will be enough!” Since the stuff was already in hand, Lin Kai didn’t want to nag him, and with one force, the sharp dagger cut his throat.

“You don’t kill” George opened his mouth, his eyes widened, his pupils gradually dilated. With a “poof”, he fell to the ground.

Lin Kai ripped off a piece of his clothes, wrapped the laser piece on the table and put it in his pocket, picked up the guns in the hands of the white and yellow men lying on the floor, quickly left the basement, then followed the underground passage and returned along the road.

He had just come out of the underground passage to the ground floor when he found that the door to the room at the entrance of the passage had been closed from the outside.

Lin Kai listened against the door and could clearly hear the sound of two people’s heartbeats coming from outside the door. Although the sound was very slight, it was an easy thing for a special soldier who had undergone special training.

As time was running out, Lin Kai could not delay here, and after stomping open the door, he quickly retreated back.

Ping! Ping!

Two bullets were fired in left and right directions, towards the underground passage.

Lin Kai rolled on the ground, raised his gun and aimed it at the thigh of the guy hiding on the left. When his thigh was wounded and his body instinctively leaned forward, Lin Kai added a shot, which hit him in the head.

The man on the right, seeing his companion killed, fired several shots at Lin Kai, who leapt up, firing a round from his pistol in his right hand while flinging a flying knife with his left.

When Lin Kai left the ground floor lobby, he did the same thing.

After shooting six or seven more people point blank along the way, he then walked out of the small white building, only to find that the big iron door was closed and the outside was already surrounded by a black mass of people.

Tang Huimin was standing inside the gate with a frightened look on her face.

A large black-faced man yelled at her, “Mrs Smith, is something happening inside? Please open the door to the room!”

“No, you guys don’t come in, there are hostages inside!” Tang Hui Min felt a little panic when she saw so many people coming and said loudly.

The big black-faced man asked, “Is Mr. Smith inside?”

Tang Hui Min immediately understood that the gang did not yet know that Smith had died and hurriedly lied, “Yes yes, my husband has been kidnapped”

“Who is so powerful that they can kidnap our island master?” Someone questioned loudly.

“My husband was drunk before they kidnapped us here and locked me in the courtyard!” Tang Huimin said while gesturing towards Lin Kai, who had just walked out of the small white building, signalling for him to leave quickly and leave her safety alone.

“Look guys, I guess that’s the guy who kidnapped Mr Smith with his accomplices!” Someone had spotted Lin Kai and then yelled out.

The big black-faced man shouted an order, “Quick, everyone, rush in and save the island master!”

Boom!

There was a loud sound.

The big iron door was pushed down by the group outside, and a group of loaded foreigners poured in from outside, raising the guns in their hands and firing a volley at Lin Kai.

Ta-da-da!

In a flash, countless bullets were fired at Lin Kai.

Lin Kai rolled on the ground and managed to dodge the bullets.

Today, the situation was quite urgent for Lin Kai.

If he rushed out towards the entrance of the room, there was a large group of people blocking it and, with so many guns firing at him, it would be strange not to be sieved by these people.

If he retreated back to the small white building, he didn’t know if there were any remaining members inside that Lin Kai had wiped out, what if they were hiding in the shadows and firing at him?

Besides, how could he complete his mission if he was blocked in the Little White House?

Faced with such a situation, Lin Kai’s heart was in a state of confusion.

The Policewoman Chapter 60

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!

Only after Lin Kai had shot all the bullets in his hand and finished off a few guys did he throw away the gun in his hand and quickly move his feet with the speed of lightning.

He rolled a few times on the ground and then rolled sideways, dodging a few bullets before hiding in a corner not far from Tang Huimin.

As if she understood what he was thinking, Tang Huimin rushed forward and blocked the group of people who rushed in from outside, saying loudly.

“Don’t shoot, if you shoot this man, Mr. Smith will be killed by this man’s accomplices, catch them alive and see what they are really doing here, there are so many of you, are you still afraid of not catching this man?”

The big black-faced man felt that Tang Huimin’s words made sense, so he ordered his men to stop shooting at Lin Kai.

Tang Huimin took the opportunity to rush to Lin Kai, and fearing that the guys would recognise her, she whispered in Chinese, "Xiao Kai, take me hostage!"

The matter had come to this, Lin Kai could only give it a go.

So, he stood up from the ground with a carp and darted towards Tang Huimin, putting a sharp dagger to her neck.

After being "held hostage" by Lin Kai, Tang Huimin shouted in English to the large black-faced man leading the group around her, "Mr Jack, don't shoot, help me, don't shoot"

Jack was specifically responsible for security on Liberty Island, the island's security chief.

As Smith and Vivian Tang's wedding reception and party was being held in the Great Hall this evening, he had been ordered to patrol the island with a pair of men in order to ensure the safety of the island, however, the weather was not kind and it was actually raining heavily tonight, and it rained for several hours at a time.

Jack mistakenly thought that no one would invade the island in such bad weather conditions. Besides, the island's terrain is complicated and full of mechanisms, so even if he came to the island, it would be impossible to walk out of it, so he went back to the security lounge and waited for the rain to stop before leading the team on a token patrol.

After Smith and Vivian Tang's wedding reception, the guests went back to the hotel to rest and Jack did not notice anything unusual before leading the team on a patrol of important locations on the island.

When they travelled near this small white building, they suddenly heard a burst of gunfire, which led a group of security guards to come to their support, just in time to collide with Lin Kai and Vivian Tang.

Jack had just attended her wedding to Smith at noon today and was very impressed with her beauty.

As Jack did not know what was going on at the Jihad Institute, he took Vivian's words at face value and issued an order to his men saying.

"Hold your fire and make sure Mrs Smith is safe!"

Seeing that he now had an opportunity to take advantage of the situation, Lin Kai shouted at Jack, "Tell them to put the guns down or I'll kill her!"

Jack was obedient and made a gesture, and the two dozen men who had come with him obediently put the guns they were holding on the ground.

Lin Kai felt that his chance to escape had come and continued to shout, "Tell your men to get out of the way and let me go!"

Jack once again made a gesture and the crowd automatically split into two rows.

Lin Kai held Tang Huimin hostage as he walked outside, locking his gaze on Jack with full concentration, feeling in his heart that this Jack who was leading the group was his greatest enemy.

Under the streetlights at the entrance of the Jihad Institute, Lin Kai's eyes locked with Jack's, and both could feel the pressure the other brought to bear on them.

The other man was tall, with a deep gaze, and his feet were in a half bow stance, making a stance to attack at any moment.

When Lin Kai took Tang Huimin to the gate, Jack split his troops into two, sending a dozen men into the small white building to rescue Mr Smith, while he led a dozen men out with Lin Kai and Tang Huimin.

When Lin Kai saw that they were unarmed, he breathed a sigh of relief and asked Tang Huimin in her ear, "Which route do we take to get to the place where the warship is docked?"

"You continue to hold me hostage," Tang Huimin whispered, "I'll lead the way, and later, after finding the right opportunity to take out these dozen people, we'll leave together."

"Okay," Lin Kai felt that his sister-in-law Tang Hui Min's words made sense, and held a dagger to her neck as he backed away, shouting to Jack and the others who were confronting them, "Don't come any closer, come any closer and I'll kill her!"

"Sir, please let go of Mrs Smith," said Jack, who still didn't know they were in cahoots as it was night and couldn't see each other's faces or understand what we were saying, and tried to do Lin Kai's thinking, "The island is full of our men, you won't get away, let her go and then we'll have a good talk about"

"There is nothing to talk about, as long as you let me go, I will guarantee Mrs. Smith's safety." Lin Kai said stubbornly.

Suddenly, a tall man standing next to Jack couldn't hold back any longer and quickly lunged towards Lin Kai and Tang Huimin.

A dagger flashed coldly and slashed straight at Lin Kai's neck.

As Lin Kai was not really kidnapping Tang Huimin, he pushed her out of the way, ducked his head, and quickly pressed his body up, slashing the dagger used to hold Tang Huimin forward.

"Ah!"

The man screamed, and the hand that wielded the knife fell to the ground along with the dagger.

Seeing that his men had been attacked, Jack also took out a dagger and stabbed at Lin Kai, who didn't dare to slow down at all and met him with his dagger in the heat of the moment.

A clang!

A metal clash sounded and sparks flew everywhere.

As both sides pushed too hard, their tiger mouths cracked and the daggers in their hands fell to the ground at the same time.

Having lost their sharp weapons, they could only attack with their fists.

"Damn Chinese pigs, go to hell!" Jack bellowed and posted up.

Lin Kai met and posted as he launched his attack.

Both men threw little hooks with their elbows, and their knees went toe to toe as they posted up, no fancy moves, all based on the explosive power of the posting.

There was a lot of back and forth, punches and knees and elbows, the sound of chopping flesh hitting each other, and the defence and attack changed in an instant.

Both men took a few small hooks from each other.

Jack was a big bull, with the characteristics of a Western man who has been eating steak for a long time and has become strong and thick-skinned, and is extremely resistant to strikes.

This guy has almost given up on defence and is like a mad dog.

Attack! Attack again!

Defence! Defence again!

Not only did his speed not slow down, his movements were getting faster and faster, his elbow punches were like hurricanes, solidly colliding with Lin Kai's fists and elbows.

"Shit, is this still human?" After taking a few solid punches in his hard clash with Jack, Lin Kai secretly cried out in his heart, "If I keep on fighting him like this, will I be able to get away when reinforcements arrive?"

While Lin Kai was hesitating, the "hostage" in Jack's eyes, Tang Huimin, suddenly picked up a dagger on the ground and aimed it at his heart and stabbed it viciously
