The Policewoman Chapter 61

After a series of fights with Lin Kai, Jack felt that the Chinese man in front of him was a prick and not a match for his skills.

He had been a captain in the US Marine Corps, a national champion in boxing and sparring, and thought he had beaten everyone in the world, which had led him to bring the gang of minions to put down their guns and take advantage of the timing and location to intercept and surround Lin Kai.

I thought I would be able to take Lin Kai down in one move and have him tied up, but to my surprise, this guy was actually so capable of fighting.

Originally, he wanted to order his men to fight together and capture him alive, but for fear of damaging his reputation, he chose to fight him through a romance, stalling for time and exhausting his strength before capturing Lin Kai in a crowded manner.

So, while he was putting all his energy into fighting Lin Kai, the “hostage” he had rescued came at him with a dagger.

As Tang Huimin had undergone a series of special training on the island, she was very skilled, and it was easy to hit Jack when he was defenceless against her.

The dagger was thrust into Jack’s heart with the sound of the wind, and it was so deep that only the hilt was exposed.

After the sneak attack, Jack instinctively raised his foot towards Tang Hui Min, who dropped the hilt of the knife and dodged.

“You are not Mrs Smith” Jack asked suspiciously as he pulled the dagger out and pointed the bloody dagger at her.

Without waiting for Tang Hui Min to squeal, a flying dagger flew out of Lin Kai’s hand and plunged into Smith’s throat.

BANG!

Smith’s huge body fell to the ground with a crash.

The dozen guards who were chasing after Lin Kai with him were shocked to see that Captain Jack was dead and swarmed around each other, surrounding Lin Kai and Tang Huimin, ready to avenge their captain’s death.

However, they were no match for them. The two men were in the crowd like nobody’s business and in less than five minutes, they were all knocked to the ground.

Just as the two were about to leave, the dozen or so men who had saved “Smith” from the small white building pounced on them, shouting that they had been fooled, and then came after them, firing a barrage of shots at Lin Kai and Tang Huimin.

A burst of fire!

A bullet came at them!

Lin Kai hugged Tang Huimin and threw her to the ground to avoid the bullets.

Another round!

Another bullet came and they rolled on the ground.

“Xiao Kai, run!” Tang Huimin shouted.

Lin Kai pulled Tang Huimin’s hand and leapt up from the ground, then, with ghostly speed, they fled together in the direction of the warship by the sea.

Tang Huimin had been on the island for half a year, and as she was quite calculating and had never forgotten about her escape, she had mapped out the terrain of the place more clearly and found it more accurately without taking any detours.

Even though Lin Kai had studied the island’s terrain on a map and had an excellent sense of direction, it would be a nightmare to escape from this heavily trapped and labyrinthine island with his own strength.

As they made their way through the buildings on the island and down to the waterfront, with the group chasing them, they rushed towards the warship docked on the pier, only to be blocked by a black mass of people.

When Tang Hui Min looked around, she found that these were the 290 officers and men from the warship who had come to attend her and Smith’s wedding after they had been allowed to stay at the Liberty Island Hotel and arranged for a lady to accompany them.

They were all passed out in the hotel because they had drunk the drinks containing sleeping pills that Black Panther and Gao Yunxiang, dressed as waiters, had thrown together, and did not enjoy the special services of the ladies.

Mr. Thomson is the supreme officer of the group, that is, their captain.

After the wedding party was over and he led the group into the hotel, he wanted to spend a nice romantic night in the tender home of the ladies, but because he had drunk a lot of alcohol himself, he also passed out like everyone else.

It was only after Thomson was awakened by a burst of gunfire during a firefight with the security guards in the Jihad Institute that he realised something was wrong on the island.

So, he rolled over and got up, woke up the officers and men staying in the hotel and rushed straight to the dock to get ready to board the warship, however, little did they know that the warship had already been taken from them.

As they prepared to board the ship, they were met with a barrage of fire from Zhang Shuo and Ye Dayong, who had been placed on the warship by Lin Kai, and Gao Yunxiang, who had already carried Black Panther’s body to the warship.

After a dozen crew members were killed or wounded, Thomson was furious and immediately evacuated the group and radioed for help from the Japanese nation’s warships docked nearby.

Lin Kai and Tang Huimin were chased to the beach just in time to be caught up, for ahead of them was the beach, an open area, and if they passed through this open area and prepared to board the warship, they had to get past this group of tigers and wolves.

“What should we do with the officers and men from the warship in front and the chasers from the island escort behind?” Lin Kai and Tang Huimin were pondering such a question at the same time.

In desperation, Tang Huimin took Lin Kai’s hand and rushed towards the group of officers and soldiers, shouting.

“Mr Thomson, help, someone is chasing us from behind!”

As it was night, Thomson could not see Lin Kai’s face clearly and did not know what he was, but it was Tang Huimin who was more conspicuous in that red evening gown.

Plus, today was the wedding of Vivian Tang and Mr. Smith, and Vivian Tang was the main attraction today, the most dazzling bride, and Thomson immediately recognised her voice.

Thomson stepped out of the line and asked loudly, “Mrs Smith, what is going on?”

“My husband Smith has been murdered and they are after me” said Vivian Tang in fear.

“Madam, don’t worry, with us protecting you, they won’t dare to do anything to you?” Thomson finished and issued an order to the men below, “Intercept those men behind you!”

When they heard that someone had killed the Lord of Liberty Island and was coming after Mrs Smith, they thought they were in league with the men on the warship and could not hold back any longer.

The dozen or so members of the Liberty Island escort who had come after them saw the men on the warship firing at them and hurriedly fell to the ground.

One member of the team shouted to the officers and men, “Fellow officers and men, you have been deceived by that Chinese woman, he is a mole arranged by the Chinese state on the island, Mr. Smith was killed by that man beside her, and our captain Jack and a group of men were also killed by them”

“Stop firing!” Thomson asked as he hurriedly gave a loud order to the officers and men, while turning his gaze to Tang Hui Min and Lin Kai, “Who the hell are you?”

The Policewoman Chapter 62

Lin Kai knew that he had been exposed and now he had no choice but to let go.

So, he immediately gestured towards Tang Huimin, then lightning-like, he came to Thomson and took advantage of his unpreparedness to hold a shiny dagger to his neck.

“Tell your men to back off and let us go, or I’ll slit your neck!” Lin Kai said in a stern voice.

“Who the hell are you?” Although Thomson was a big man and had some physical skills, having a dagger held around his own neck was still not as much fun and asked in disbelief, “Why are you guys doing this?”

“Cut the crap, tell your men to put down their guns and move out of the way so we can get to the warship.” Lin Kai said as he stabbed the dagger into Thomson’s neck.

A gash rose in Thomson’s neck and blood instantly flowed out, he wailed in pain and hurriedly issued orders to his subordinates saying.

“Everyone, drop your guns and make way for them to go!”

The soldiers dared not disobey their superior’s order and threw the guns they were holding onto the beach.

The two hundred or so men were automatically divided into two rows as if they had been split apart with a large knife.

Tang Hui Min and Lin Kai pinned Thomson’s neck left and right, holding his body in front of theirs as they retreated step by step towards the beach.

Seeing that Captain Thomson was being held hostage, the officers and men on the ship dared not fire easily for fear of harming his life, so they followed Lin Kai and Tang Huimin step by step towards the harbour.

Lin Kai saw that the warship was about a hundred metres away from the pier and shouted, “Ye Dayong, it’s me, you guys hurry up and bring the warship over.”

As soon as they heard Lin Kai’s shout, Ye Dayong, Zhang Shuo and Gao Yunxiang looked through their night vision goggles and were excited with each other when they saw him and Tang Huimin groping towards the harbour with an officer in their arms.

Zhang Shuo said, “Ye Dayong, you go drive the warship, while Gao Yunxiang and I stay on the deck to meet the captain.”

“Okay!” Ye Dayong nodded and walked into the cockpit.

“Captain, pay attention, we’ll use the guns to drive those pursuers behind you away!” Gao Yunxiang stood on the warship and shouted.

“Understood, pay attention to safety!” Lin Kai shouted in response.

As they were using the Chinese language. The group of foreign pigs didn’t understand and continued to surround them.

Boom!

A cannonball landed in the middle of that group of soldiers, instantly blowing the crowd apart, and Lin Kai and Tang Huimin took the opportunity to set up Thomson and dash towards the port.

The group arrived at the shore just as the warship docked, and Gao Yunxiang and Zhang Shuo on the ship fired several consecutive shells.

Boom!

Boom boom boom!

After several cannon shots, the group of officers and men were blown away and fled in all directions, unable to get closer and no one dared to come closer, watching as their captain was held hostage next to the warship.

“Mr Thomson, thank you for giving us a lift,” Lin Kai said with a smile on his face after learning the man’s identity from Tang Hui Min, “I’m sorry, but only one captain is allowed on this warship and that captain is me, so I must send you to your God!”

With that, Lin Kai waved his knife at his neck.

“Don’t don’t kill” Thomson had barely finished shouting when blood spurted out from his neck, and immediately felt no strength at all in his body and his pupils dilated.

Poof!

There was a muffled sound.

Thomson’s huge body collapsed into the sea.

Suddenly, a sniper rifle stretched out from the beach and, with the aid of a night vision scope, aimed at Lin Kai’s head and aimed, then pulled the trigger.

Whoosh!

A deadly bullet whistled and death came closer and closer to Lin Kai, but he was totally unaware of it.

“Xiao Kai, be careful!” Just in the nick of time, Tang Huimin shrieked and her whole body lunged towards Lin Kai, using her own body to block the bullet’s path.

Ping!

A shot rang out, and the bullet passed through Tang Huimin’s chest.

A mouthful of blood spurted out of Tang Huimin’s mouth and she threw herself into his arms, saying, “Xiao Kai, get on the warship, there’s a sniper!”

After Gao Yunxiang on the warship spotted the sniper hiding on the beach, he quickly took aim and blasted past him.

The sniper, seeing that he had missed Lin Kai, was about to fire a supplementary shot when he was blown away by the shells fired from the warship with his gun, leaving him in pieces and dead.

“Little Aunt, what happened to you?” Lin Kai hugged Tang Huimin and asked loudly.

“Little Kai, I can’t make it, I’m sorry, I can’t be with you anymore.” Tang Huimin said as she lay dying.

“Little Aunt, you mustn’t say anything stupid, you can’t die, you have to hold on, Xiaobo and I can’t live without you, I’ll take you back to China now.” After Lin Kai said that, he picked up Tang Huimin and ran towards the warship without thinking about it.

Seeing Lin Kai get on the warship, Ye Dayong immediately set sail and quickly steered the warship away from the port.

After Gao Yunxiang blasted several shots at the shoreline and saw no more movement from the island, he put his mind at ease. Together with Lin Kai, Zhang Shuo took Tang Huimin into the medical room on the warship and placed her on a stretcher to lie down.

After bandaging her briefly, Zhang Shuo saw that Tang Huimin did not wake up and said to Lin Kai apologetically.

“Captain, I’m sorry, it was my failure to follow you on the mission ashore that led to Black Panther’s sacrifice and Ms Tang’s injuries.”

“Zhang Shuo, don’t blame yourself, the situation on the island is quite complicated, even if you went with us to the island to carry out the mission, you could not completely guarantee the safety of Black Panther and Tang Huimin, besides, there are many people and a big target, there is no need to make unnecessary sacrifices, now that we have retrieved the stolen laser piece, our objective has been achieved,” Lin Kai looked at Tang Huimin, who was lying peacefully on a stretcher, and asked, “However, I am worried that if we make such a big fuss on the island, those guys will not be able to rest in peace and will definitely send ships after the warship we have captured.”

“We’ve already made contact, Instructor Zhang is leading his team this way.” Zhang Shuo replied.

“Although we have captured this warship, what if an enemy warship catches up with us and besieges us before we reach a safe area?” Lin Kai immediately instructed Zhang Shuo, “We must keep a close eye on the situation at sea and speed up our progress.”

“Captain, before you got on the ship, the three of us had made a clear division of labour, with Ye Dayong in charge of driving this warship at full speed, Gao Yunxiang in charge of observing the movements on the sea, and me making contact with the outside world via radio.” Zhang Shuo replied.

Lin Kai was more than satisfied with their division of labour and asked, “Where is Black Panther’s body?”

“We’ve settled him in a lounge.” Zhang Shuo answered truthfully.

“Take me to see!” Lin Kai said.

The two were about to turn around and leave when Tang Huimin, who had been the one to close her eyes, suddenly opened them and sat up straight from the stretcher

The Policewoman Chapter 63

Tang Huimin first looked at Lin Kai with two dull eyes, and then, tugging at Lin Kai’s hand, she said.

“Xiao Kai, don’t leave me, I don’t want to die, I want to go home, back to our home, send me home quickly, I want to stay with you forever”

“Little aunt, I know your heart, don’t worry, I will send you home safely,” Lin Kai’s heart warmed,, relieved, “You have injuries on your body, lie down first!”

“Oh,” Tang Huimin obediently closed her eyes.

“Captain, what happened to your sister-in-law?” Zhang Shuo asked in surprise.

“She was tortured on Liberty Island and later controlled by Island Master Smith, the consciousness in her head hasn’t been removed and she’s a bit delirious” Lin Kai didn’t want others to know about his private affair with his brother-in-law, so he said perfunctorily.

After settling down Tang Huimin to lie down and rest, Lin Kai was then led by Zhang Shuo to a tin room.

Black Panther’s body was lying straight and flat on the bed.

Lin Kai hurriedly walked forward, grabbed one of Black Panther’s hands which had become cold and said, “Black Panther, I am sorry, I have caused you harm, I should not have let you go and fight with Smith, but don’t worry, I have finished off Smith and avenged you, our mission is about to be completed, we will take you home now.”

At this moment, Lin Kai’s emotions were quite complicated and very sad.

From now on, he would never have such a silly black-faced big man by his side again, and he would never see Black Panther grinning at him again, such an iconic gesture.

Lin Kai knew in his heart that if Black Panther had not killed the sunglasses man on the first floor of Smith’s villa and tangled with Smith on the third floor, it would not have been so easy for them to kill Smith, and they would not have completed this mission so quickly.

It can be said that Black Panther was instrumental in carrying out this mission. Now, the sky is far apart, and the yin and yang are far apart, leaving themselves with nothing but nostalgia for Black Panther.

After seeing Black Panther’s corpse, Lin Kai went to the cockpit and saw that Ye Dayong was skillfully operating the warship at full speed, and felt a trace of relief.

For, with a versatile crew like Ye Dayong, the time to complete the mission was not far away.

As long as the warship was sailing away from Liberty Island, meeting up with Zhang Tianhu and the rest of the crew in the high seas, and reaching the coastline of China, no one would dare to blatantly take that laser piece away from their hands.

“Dayong, it’s been hard work for you.” Lin Kai said encouragingly.

“Captain, it’s still hard work for you guys!” Ye Dayong replied somberly, “I feel sad for Black Panther’s sacrifice, and it’s my regret that I didn’t get to fight alongside you guys on the island.”

“Aren’t you fighting side by side with us now?” Lin Kai said seriously, “If you hadn’t piloted this warship, when would we have been able to send the stolen laser pieces back home? It’s called a different division of labor, understand?”

“Understood!” Ye Dayong said with a nod.

At this time, Gao Yunxiang came to the cockpit in a panic and reported to Lin Kai, “Captain, I found two warships catching up behind us, what should we do now?”

“How far away are they from us?” Lin Kai asked.

“It’s about four or five nautical miles away.” Gao Yunxiang replied.

“Let me take a look.” Lin Kai took the night vision goggles from Gao Yunxiang’s hand and looked out to sea, and indeed found two warships close behind us.

“Captain, what should we do now?” Gao Yunxiang asked anxiously.

Lin Kai did not answer Gao Yunxiang directly, but replied, “Ye Dayong, increase the horsepower and go full speed!”

“Okay!” Ye Dayong answered and adjusted the warship’s power to its maximum position.

The warship rode the wind and waves on the surface of the sea and hurriedly headed towards the coastline of China.

At this time, a man’s voice, speaking in English, came over the wireless phone on the warship.

“Listen to the man in that warship ahead, quickly stop the warship and accept our inspection, or else we will fire our missiles.”

Lin Kai ordered to Gao Yunxiang, “Get back into the battery quickly, and return fire as soon as you find the enemy firing shells at us to attack!”

“As you command!”

Gao Yunxiang gave me a military salute and turned to leave.

“Zhang Shuo, quickly get in touch with Instructor Zhang on the radio and tell them where our coordinates are now, so they can come over to meet us as soon as possible.” Lin Kai said to Zhang Shuo.

“Promise to complete the mission!” Zhang Shuo took the wireless receiver and quickly called, “Instructor, this is Zhang Shuo, two enemy ships have been spotted behind us, we are asking for your support, our coordinate position is

“Roger, our speedboat is about 20 nautical miles away from you, accelerating

 At this moment, instructor Zhang’s eager voice came over the receiver along with the sound of the speedboat’s motor and the sound of the waves.

The warship piloted by Ye Dayong accelerated, with the two warships behind it in hot pursuit.

As the other side did not know the situation, the officers and men on those two warships only shouted and threatened, not daring to take action. It was fortunate that they did not take the lead in firing, otherwise, Lin Kai and the others would have faced extinction and been buried at sea.

Lin Kai went into the gun control room and kept a close eye on the actions of the two warships behind him, and as soon as they opened fire first, they would return fire.

Lin Kai had already prepared for the worst, even if his ship was destroyed, he could not let the laser piece fall into the hands of the enemy again.

At the same time, two advanced warships from China crossed the coastline and entered the high seas, following the speedboat piloted by Zhang Tianhu and the others, as if they were a big army.

It was not long before Lin Kai in this warship, pursued by the two warships behind him, finally joined up with the speedboat of the special forces led by Zhang Tianhu.

The two warships immediately behind the speedboat raced past to make way for the warship piloted by Ye Dayong and then confronted the warship that had caught up with him.

Underneath the two warships was a large nuclear submarine, which would quickly launch torpedoes in the event of any movement from sea to sea, in a double attack.

A war was about to break out and the two sides were at a standstill.

At this point, the officers and men on the Japanese warship detected the sonar of the underwater nuclear submarine and quickly reported to the captain, who decided that they could not take advantage of the situation and then turned around and retreated.

They were relieved when the two warships of the Japanese invasion country that were chasing Lin Kai and the others left.

Due to the presence of many advanced technologies of the Japanese invasion country on the warships, the enemy was likely to use intercontinental missiles to sink the warships. Lin Kai immediately asked his team to carry Black Panther's body and the injured Tang Huimin to the speedboat.

Then, the group left quickly in the speedboat.

When the speedboat they were on, left the warship in a hurry not even two minutes later, a large-yield missile fell from the sky and landed on the warship with unerring accuracy.

Boom!

Boom!

Immediately afterwards, one explosion after another rang out and the whole warship exploded, sending fires, smoke and huge waves across the sea.

In a short time, the ship gradually sank and was buried at the bottom of the sea.

"Damn you, this is too dangerous, isn't it?" Lin Kai instantly pinched a cold sweat for himself and thought, "If we stay on that ship, it's strange that we won't be blown to pieces!"

The Policewoman Chapter 64

A full moon hangs high in the deep sky, and the pale moonlight casts a beautiful picture of the sea, the sea, the beach, the reef, the woods, the cliffs and the old fortress.

Nature is so harmonious, so perfect!

Song Linna stood pavilioned on the beach, gazing longingly at the endless sea.

Last time, after rescuing Song Linna's stepmother Liu Tongshu from her villa in the suburbs, Lin Kai had been ordered to go to Freedom Island to retrieve the laser tablets.

After Lin Kai left Yanjing, Song Linna was very worried about him and was always on her toes, so she moved into that boudoir at her grandfather's house, ready to get news of Lin Kai at the first opportunity.

When she heard from Master Song that Lin Kai had already won and was safely on his way back, she defiantly left Master Song's house and drove her Ferrari sports car to the beach.

Suddenly, several red dots of light appeared on the sea, like stars set in the sky.

These points of light got closer and closer and turned into several speedboats.

Ta-da-da!

The sound of roaring motors rang out as several speedboats raced towards the shore, sending waves over the calm sea as the waves lapped against the rocks and sand of the sea.

The speedboats drew closer and closer to Sunghina and finally, docked on the harbour at the customs wharf.

Lin Kai led a group of heavily armed warriors, each carrying the body of Black Panther and the injured Tang Huimin on a stretcher, down from the speedboat.

"Lin Kai, you're back?" Song Lina exclaimed, rushing over to Lin Kai in spite of everything and diving headlong into his arms.

Lin Kai was surprised and asked, "Song Linna, why are you here?"

"I I've been waiting here for you for hours, I thought I'd never see you again, oooh" Song Lina began to sob.

"Silly girl, haven't we met again?" Lin Kai looked at Song Linna's pearly face and was somewhat moved, but with so many team members around, he was too embarrassed to act too excited, so he gently patted Song Linna's shoulder and whispered, "Don't cry, the team members are watching us."

At this moment, Tang Huimin, who was lying on the stretcher, sat up all of a sudden, only to see her looking at Lin Kai and Song Linna with two dull eyes, and said.

"Xiao Kai, don't leave me behind, I want to go home, I want to go home"

"Huh?" Song Linna took a moment to slow down, suddenly feeling a bit out of her element, she hurriedly left Lin Kai's embrace and asked, "Who is she? What's wrong with her?"

"She's my little aunt, she's injured," Lin Kai said perfunctorily to Song Lina, rushing to the stretcher and comforting Tang Huimin, "Little aunt, we've arrived in Yanjing, we'll be home soon, you're injured, your body is very weak, talk less, we'll take you to the hospital now for surgery"

"No, I don't want an operation, I just want you," Tang Huimin said as she grabbed Lin Kai's hand, "Xiao Kai, I want to go home, don't you leave me behind, okay?"

"Okay, I won't leave you behind, let's go home," Lin Kai gently put her on the stretcher and said to her as if coaxing a child, "But first, lie down and let go of my hand"

Tang Huimin obediently closed her eyes and let go of Lin Kai's hand.

When Lin Kai saw that Tang Huimin had quieted down, he then asked Zhang Tianhu, "Instructor, have the car, ambulance and funeral car sent by the military district to pick us up arrived?"

"Well, I told them to dock outside the customs pier, let's go!" Zhang Tianhu nodded at Lin Kai and waved his hand to the team members.

The team got their orders and walked briskly towards the outside of the pier.

.....

Several military vehicles, a funeral car and a military ambulance were parked outside the customs dock.

The team put Black Panther's body into the funeral car and the injured Tang Huimin into the ambulance before getting into the military vehicles that had come to meet them and rushing back to the special forces base in the military convalescent home.

Lin Kai remembered the time when he had been romantic with his brother-in-law, remembered the time when his brother-in-law was accidentally captured by thugs and ravaged by them in order to save him.

He thought of how much he missed his sister-in-law after she disappeared, and remembered the image of when he met her by chance on Liberty Island, when she helped him complete his mission and took a bullet for him to protect him.

At this moment, he was very worried about the safety of his brother-in-law, Tang Huimin.

Therefore, after arriving at the military sanatorium, he did not return to the base with his team members, but handed over the laser piece he had retrieved to Zhang Tianhu, so that he could pass it on to the military ministry.

He then got into an ambulance and accompanied the medical staff from the military sanatorium to take Tang Huimin into the military sanatorium and carry her into the operating theatre.

Song Lina had originally run to Lin Kai, so naturally she had to accompany him.

She drove her Ferrari sports car, followed the ambulance to the military sanatorium, parked it in the garage and then went to the operating theatre.

At this time, a middle-aged military doctor was operating on Tang Huimin in the operating theatre.

Lin Kai hung his head and sat on a stool in one of the lounges outside the operating theatre, waiting anxiously for the results of the operation, so much so that he didn't even notice when Song Linna came to his heels.

"Your sister-in-law is in good health, she will definitely survive this." A soft voice came to his ears, and only then did Lin Kai raise his head and look at Song Linna.

"If we hadn't met my brother-in-law on the island and gotten her help, we wouldn't have been able to get that laser piece anyway, and even if we had, we wouldn't have been able to escape from the island, and if Tang Hui Min hadn't blocked that bullet that was fired at me, my head would have blown up"
Lin Kai mumbled.

Song Lina patiently enlightened, “Honey, don’t blame yourself too much, it’s impossible for you to go on such a dangerous mission without casualties, I’m very happy that you completed the mission successfully and came back safely, and at the same time, I’m proud of you.”

“I came back safely by stepping on the corpses of my own comrades, the Black Panthers, and being protected by my brother-in-law, even if I completed the mission, I don’t feel very honoured!” Lin Kai said blaming himself.

“You mustn’t say that, I think that your comrade was willing to die for you because he trusted you and he knew that you would complete the mission, likewise, your brother-in-law was willing to take the bullet for you because he knew that only you could lead everyone out of the siege and back to the embrace of the motherland,” continued Song Lina, enlighteningly. “I think you should turn your grief into strength and better lead your team to accomplish more, and more important, tasks

After hearing Song Lina’s words, Lin Kai’s heart opened up.

“You are right, although we have retrieved the laser piece, but the criminals responsible for stealing and transporting this laser piece, as well as their accomplices have not been caught yet, there is no guarantee that they will rise again and steal more important materials from the country, I can’t let Black Panther die in vain and let my brother-in-law’s blood flow in vain, in order to avenge them, I must bring those criminals to justice.” Lin Kai said impassionedly.

The Policewoman Chapter 65

“You’re right to think so,” Song Linna said as she crossed Lin Kai’s arm, “Don’t worry dear, I’ll always be on your side and do my best to help and support you!”

“Thank you!” Lin Kai returned a grateful smile to her.

“What kind of relationship are we? What are you thanking me for?” Song Lina shuffled up on her toes and gave Lin Kai a kiss on the cheek.

“Don’t

“I’m your girlfriend, what’s wrong with that?” Seeing that Lin Kai was a bit embarrassed, Song Linna said in a delicate voice, “Honey, it’s almost dawn, you’ve been busy all day and you’re tired, it’s better for me to accompany you back to rest!”

“No, no,” said Lin Kai, shaking his head, “Panther is dead, if anything happens to my sister-in-law again, I will have a bad conscience for the rest of my life, I will stay here and wait for her to wake up

At this time, the red light at the door of the operating room went out, indicating that Tang Huimin’s surgery was complete.

The door to the operating theatre creaked open and a middle-aged doctor in a white coat came out of the theatre.

Lin Kai hurriedly went forward and asked, “Doctor, what is the status of my aunt’s operation?”

“The bullet went right through the wounded person’s chest, if it had been one millimetre further apart, it would have injured the heart, and even the gods would have been powerless to return it.” The doctor said, “We operated on her quite successfully and the injured person is out of life threatening condition and is in a coma

At this point, Tang Huimin was wheeled out of the operating theatre by several medical staff, ready to be taken to the convalescent room for observation and treatment, only to be seen lying straight on a trolley in a hospital gown with a dangling needle in her hand.

Her eyes were closed, as if she were a vegetable, and she was not responding at all.

When the trolley came to Lin Kai, Tang Huimin suddenly sat up from the trolley, like a zombie, with her eyes wide open and her mouth open, reciting the following words.

“Xiao Kai, don’t abandon me, I want to go home with you

“Little aunt, lie still, when your injuries are healed, I’ll take you home!” Lin Kai said with relief.

As soon as the words left her mouth, Tang Huimin made a loud bang and lay straight back down on the trolley, her eyes tightly closed and unconscious.

The crowd was shocked and turned their attention to Lin Kai.

Lin Kai was also at a loss.

As the paramedics pushed Tang Huimin away, Lin Kai was still standing in place, pondering.

“Hey, what are you thinking about?” Song Lina gently touched Lin Kai’s arm and said, “Your sister-in-law is out of danger, you can go back to rest now, right?”

At this time, Zhang Tianhu called and asked Lin Kai to go to Yanjing City Funeral Hall to officiate at the memorial service and the farewell ceremony for Black Panther’s martyr’s body.

So, Lin Kai gave a few instructions to the medical staff and left together with Song Lina.

The memorial service for Martyr Black Panther was quite grand, with soldiers from the Special Forces, and Elder Song came along with several military chiefs from Yanjing City.

His body was parked in a crystal coffin inside the funeral chamber, all the blood on his body had been cleaned, a military uniform was put on and a medal was worn.

The memorial service then began.

First, everyone gave a military salute and stood in front of Panther’s body for three minutes of silence, then Lin Kai addressed the memorial service.

.....

After the eulogy was read, Lin Kai was already sobbing.

When he thought of Black Panther’s tragic death on Liberty Island, his heart was in tears.

Master Song said loudly, "Comrades, Black Panther was a good man, he was a model worth learning from, we should turn our grief into strength and let Black Panther's soul rest in peace!"

After the memorial service, several undertakers pushed Panther's body into the cremation room and put the body into the crematorium for cremation.

Two hours later, the Panther's huge body was turned into a pile of white bones and put into an exquisite urn.

A martyr of his generation had fallen!

Immediately afterwards, Black Panther's urn was put into the martyr's cemetery and after a simple funeral, Zhang Tianhu led the members of the special forces and prepared to return to the base for repairs.

"Lin Kai, don't go," said Song Linna, tugging Lin Kai's hand, "I just received a phone call from my father, saying that you led the team to Freedom Island to retrieve the laser tablets, saving the country's loss and helping him a lot, so he asked me to bring you home, and he wants to thank you in person!"

"This is not good, I'm afraid?" Lin Kai looked at his instructor Zhang Tianhu who was standing beside him and said with some difficulty, "You go back and tell uncle, don't mention anything like thanking him, I have a mission to do, so I won't go"

Zhang Tianhu gave him an understanding smile and said, "Lin Kai, since Miss Song has something to talk to you and wants to be alone with you, go ahead, I'll give you the day off!"

"Instructor Zhang" As soon as Lin Kai opened his mouth, Zhang Tianhu interrupted him and said, "Go ahead and return to the team as soon as possible after you finish your business!"

"As you command!" After Lin Kai gave a military salute to Zhang Tianhu, he was then dragged by Song Linna into the Ferrari sports car she had parked not far away.

Afterwards, Song Linna started the car.

With its extremely superior performance and speed, the Ferrari rolled up a red storm at the entrance of the Martyrs' Cemetery and instantly disappeared from the sight of Zhang Tianhu and his team members.

There was a lot of talk and praise for the first team leader, Lin Kai, for having such a racy encounter.

It didn't take long for the fragrant mountain villa, where Song Linna's family was located, to arrive.

After driving the Ferrari into the neighbourhood, Song Lina pulled up at the entrance of Villa 8, where her home was located, and led Lin Kai into the house.

"Sister Lina, you're back?" As soon as she entered the house, Nanny Xiaoqin greeted her.

Song Lina glanced at the coffee table in the living room, smiled at the nanny and said, "Xiaoqin, we have guests at home, go out and buy some fruit!"

"Okay." The little nanny answered and then left the house.

Lin Kai looked around and asked, "Didn't you say that your father wanted to see me and asked you to take me home? Where is he now?"

"Hee hee, I was lying to you," Song Linna blinked her beautiful eyes, her face smiling and her voice gentle as her wonderful body threw itself into that generous embrace, "You big bad man, how could you do this to me? Do you know how worried I was about you when you went on your mission to Freedom Island? I thought I wouldn't be able to see you for the rest of my life"

Song Lina tightly wrapped her arms around Lin Kai's neck, so tightly that she could feel her heart beating with joy, her beautiful eyes were wet, and her delicate body was still trembling.

At the moment, she had not yet calmed down from her excitement, and the hand that was clinging to Lin Kai did not want to let go, this broad and comfortable bosom seemed to have been left for too long.

The Policewoman Chapter 66

"Do you really miss me?" Lin Kai asked excitedly.

His arms were warm and soft, and Lin Kai exhaled hot breath against her pink ear, he loved this feeling, the fullness in his arms comforted him as a tiger escaped from danger and a wanderer returned home.

"Nasty, who do I miss if I don't miss you?" Song Lina rubbed her own face against his cheek, tears slipping down her face, "I want to, so much, you bad Dan, I miss you so much"

When Lin Kai left Yanjing and went on his mission to Freedom Island, Song Linna had been pining for him, thinking of him and missing him all the time.

For fear of affecting him, she dared not call him and could barely stay up. She had not thought that loving someone and missing them would be so tugging at their heartstrings.

Lin Kai's heart was trembling, her words shook his heart, a short sentence, full of the pain of longing, he could feel her deep love and longing for him.

His arms tightened slightly and he pressed her body into his chest, as if he wanted to integrate her into his bosom, and he could already feel a touch of wetness on his cheeks.

She was weeping, and Lin Kai's heart ached for her, and he moved his head down, ready to give her a reunion kiss.

Sungina closed her beautiful eyes and met his lips passionately.

This passionate kiss had been a long time fantasy and expectation for her. The reunion kiss was deep and sweet, and the pair was lost in the intensity of this passionate kiss

RING RING RING!

Suddenly, a sharp ringing of a mobile phone interrupted the tender and lingering kiss between the two.

"Sorry, I I'll take a call!" Lin Kai said while parting Song Linna's slightly red face, warm wet lips and separating their tightly embraced bodies.

Lin Kai said as he took out his mobile phone from his pocket, seeing that there was an unfamiliar phone number on it, he couldn't help but frown a little and pressed the answer button.

"Hello, are you Mr. Lin?" A nice voice came from the phone.

"I'm Lin Kai, may I ask who you are?" Lin Kai asked suspiciously.

The other party introduced himself, "I'm a nurse from the military sanatorium, Tang Huimin has woken up, she's very emotional and is screaming to see you, we really have no choice, so we're calling you."

"Okay, I'll be right over!" Lin Kai was concerned about Tang Huimin's safety, and after putting down the nurse lady's call, he smiled apologetically at Song Linna and said, "Sorry, my sister-in-law has woken up and has to make a trip to the military sanatorium, so I can't stay with you."

"It looks like you and your brother-in-law have an unusual relationship, right?" Song Linna was still not satisfied, remembering the words Tang Huimin said to Lin Kai when she was awake, her heart was sour and she questioned, "Lin Kai, do you only have your sister-in-law in your heart?"

"No no ah" Lin Kai hurriedly defended himself.

"Then why did you act so anxious as soon as you heard that your brother-in-law had woken up?" Song Linna questioned.

Lin Kai prevaricated, "We went on a mission to Liberty Island this time, without my brother-in-law's help, there was no way we could have completed it. When we left Liberty Island, if my brother-in-law hadn't deflected the bullets for me, I'm afraid my life would have been left on the island, now that she's awake and unstable, can I not be anxious?"

"Then let me ask you, when your sister-in-law was awake, why didn't she let you leave her and let you take her home? Why was she so attached to you?" Sungina pressed.

"She was kidnapped by thugs to Freedom Island in order to be on my side, but on the island, she was tortured and controlled with drugs, I am her family, if she doesn't cling to me, who will she cling to?" Lin Kai prevaricated.

"So, it was me who misjudged you?" Song Lina felt that Lin Kai's words made sense.

"What do you think?" Lin Kai asked rhetorically.

"Darling, I'm sorry," Song Lina said with an apologetic smile, "Tell you what, I'll drive you to the military sanatorium now, and we'll make out properly after we get your brother-in-law's affairs sorted out" "

"No," Lin Kai was worried that taking Song Linna to see her brother-in-law would make her even more emotional, so he shook his head and said, "It's better for me to go alone" "

"Why?" Song Lina asked in disbelief.

"No reason," Lin Kai replied, "I think, at this time, you should go back to school, and after I visit my brother-in-law, I will also report to the base."

“Then okay!” Song Lina was a little reluctant, but had no choice, so she fished out a car key from her pocket and said, “This is the key to my other BMW, no one usually drives it, so you can take it and use it!”

“How can I say this?” Lin Kai excused himself.

“There’s nothing to be ashamed of,” Song Linna said with a flirtatious smile, “You’re not going to take a taxi to the military sanatorium, are you?”

“That’s fine,” Lin Kai felt that Song Linna’s words made sense, so he took the keys from her hand and said, “When the time comes, I’ll drive the car over to return it to you after I’m done”

“There’s no rush, you can keep it,” Song Linna shook her head and said, “You should go now, if your sister-in-law is late in seeing you, she should be worried about you again.”

With that, she turned around and walked towards the door of the room.

Lin Kai followed Song Linna out of the villa, went to the garage, got into a BMW 740 car parked there, said goodbye to each other and drove away.

It didn’t take long for Lin Kai to pull up to the entrance of the military sanatorium.

After he showed his ID to the soldier standing guard, the soldier opened the electronic door.

After driving the car into the military sanatorium, Lin Kai drove straight to the small white building where Tang Huimin was recovering from her injuries and stopped.

He then jumped out of the car and walked briskly in the direction of Tang Huimin’s convalescent room.

“Let me out, I want to see Lin Kai, I want to go home” Lin Kai had just arrived at the door of the convalescent room when he heard Tang Huimin’s voice coming from the room.

A middle-aged doctor and two nurse ladies were standing in front of Tang Huimin’s hospital bed, acting as if they were at each other’s wits’ end, while Tang Huimin was so agitated that the syringe for the infusion on the back of her hand had been removed and the things on the bed thrown to the floor.

“What’s going on here?” Lin Kai hurried into the room.

As soon as Tang Huimin heard Lin Kai’s voice, she felt a little excited, and when she saw him walk in through the door and come to her hospital bed, it was as if she was a different person, her beautiful eyes flashed, and a bright smile bloomed on her face.

“Xiao Kai, you you’re back, you’re finally back, I waited so hard for you,” Tang Huimin said as she tugged Lin Kai’s hand, chanting one after another, “I want to go home, I want you to take me home”

The doctors and nurses both focused their attention on Lin Kai.

Lin Kai was afraid that they would find something fishy and was a little nervous. After glancing at everyone and seeing that they were not doing anything different, he said to Tang Huimin.

“Young aunt, you are badly injured, when your injuries have recovered, I will take you home”

“No, I want to go home now,” Tang Huimin gradually regained consciousness after seeing Lin Kai, and after a slight hesitation, she seemed to remember something and suddenly exclaimed loudly, “Ah, Xiaobo, my son, where is our Xiaobo? How is he now?”

“Don’t worry, Bo is fine,” Lin Kai said with relief, “but you are injured, I can’t take you back to see him yet”

After Lin Kai was rescued, in order to create the illusion that he had died for the gang of thugs from the Black Dragon Gang, he was secretly arranged by Elder Song to go into the special forces training base, and as he didn’t have the chance to look after his cousin Yang Xiaobo, he asked Song Lina to look after him for him, while Song Lina asked his cousin Zhou Peng to look after Yang Xiaobo for them.

Although Lin Kai did not have direct contact with his cousin, he often asked Song Linna about Yang Xiaobo and knew him very well.

“No, I want to see him now.” Tang Huimin said stubbornly.

The Policewoman Chapter 67

“Tell you what, I’ll go and pick up Bo for a visit later, do you think that’s okay?” Lin Kai suggested.

“OK, you go right away.” Tang Huimin asked eagerly.

“No problem,” Lin Kai said, “but you have to promise me one condition.”

“What condition?”

“Listen to the doctors and nurses, stay in bed and recuperate quietly!”

“That’s fine!” Like an obedient child, Tang Huimin lay back on the bed, but she grabbed Lin Kai’s hand and never let go of it.

Before Lin Kai came, Tang Huimin was a troublemaker, she was particularly irritable and very emotional, either driving the doctors and nurses outside or throwing things on the bed and bedside table to the ground.

When she was given an infusion, the needle was pulled out several times, so she was never as well behaved and peaceful as she is now.

As he watched Lin Kai coax Tang Huimin into a daze as if by magic, the doctors and nurses standing by looked at him with a look of disbelief.

After she had quietly fallen asleep, Lin Kai followed the middle-aged doctor outside to the parlour and sat down.

“Doctor, what the hell is going on here?” Lin Kai asked in disbelief.

As Tang Huimin had unfortunately been shot to save Lin Kai and had become what she was today, the doctor had managed to resuscitate her, so he couldn’t let anything happen to her again.

The doctor considered for a moment and said, “From a medical point of view, the injured person is still conscious in the state you were in when she was in danger after being stimulated in some way, therefore, in her memory, you are the only person who exists and does everything at your command

Although this explanation of the doctor was a little far-fetched, Lin Kai could not find any reason to refute him for a while.

“Then what do you think I should do?” Lin Kai made a show of seeking advice with an open mind.

“Tang Huimin’s health is very good, her body functions will recover soon, but some of her nerves are in a state of necrosis, and when her functions are not restored for the time being, her thoughts and consciousness will stop,” the middle-aged military doctor suggested, “I think that you should spend more time with her, try to meet her requests I think you should spend more time with her, try to satisfy her requests, and slowly awaken her latent consciousness through actions and verbal communication between you, so as to achieve the effect of treatment

“OK, I’ll do everything you tell me, as soon as I have time, I’ll run over to see her,” Lin Kai said earnestly, “Doctor, please make sure you heal her injuries and cure her, while I’m away, please send someone to take care of her, you can’t let her wander around... ..”

“Don’t worry, the head of the army has given us a good explanation that Tang Huimin is a rare talent and told us to make sure we do everything we can to cure her, and we will definitely protect her.” The military doctor replied.

“With your words, I am relieved,” Lin Kai hurriedly stood up, gave a military salute to the middle-aged military doctor, and said, “Thank you for your support and help!”

“Captain Lin, don’t be polite,” the military doctor hurriedly stopped, “I know, you have just returned from your mission, you must have many things to do, so I won’t delay you, you have something to do first, go ahead and leave this place to us, you leave a contact first, once there is something, we will contact you again.”

“That’s fine!” Lin Kai said with a nod.

It was already dark when Lin Kai said goodbye to the middle-aged doctor and left Tang Huimin’s ward.

He then drove the BMW that Song Lina had given him straight to the public security compound.

.....

Duk Duk Duk!

A knock sounded at the door.

“Yah, is it my mother who has returned?” Yang Xiaobo exclaimed, hurriedly stood up from the living room sofa, ran to the door of the room, reached out and pulled the door open, saw a young police officer in uniform standing outside, eagerly asked “Uncle Zhou, so it’s you? Have you heard from my mother?”

“No,” Zhou Peng shook his head and said helplessly, “Xiao Bo, I’m sorry, we don’t have any news about your mother yet!”

“Little Zhou, you’re here, don’t stand at the door of the room, come inside!” Yang Xiaobo’s grandmother came to the door of the room and warmly welcomed him inside.

Ever since Tang Huimin disappeared, Tang Huimin’s mother, Old Lady Tang, had moved here to take care of her grandson.

Zhou Peng, as Tang Huimin’s subordinate, was also entrusted by his cousin Song Lina to come over every now and then to visit Yang Xiaobo, so we were more familiar with each other.

When Zhou Peng entered the house, the old lady told him to sit down on the sofa in the living room and poured a glass of water for him in a disposable cup, saying politely.

“Little Zhou, after our Xiaomin went missing, thanks to you coming to visit us often.”

“Auntie, don’t be polite, Captain Tang treated me well before, this is what I should do,” Zhou Peng asked politely, “Are you feeling well?”

“Thank you for your concern, my health is fine, I’m just worried about our Tang Huimin, I often can’t sleep,” Old Mrs. Tang said with a melancholy face, “Xiaomin has been missing for so long, I don’t know where she is now, has she been killed... ..”

Zhou Peng said with relief, “Auntie, don’t worry, Captain Tang is lucky, she will be fine, we at the police station have been looking for her whereabouts, once we have news of her, I will inform you at the first opportunity, you

Duk Duk Duk!

Another knock on the door, Zhou Peng hurriedly swallowed back what he wanted to say.

“Who is it again this time? It’s not going to be a bad guy, is it?” Yang Xiaobo once again stood up from the sofa, walked to the door of the room, opened it, saw Lin Kai standing at the door of the room, and couldn’t help but exclaim, “Brother Xiao Kai, why is it you? Why are you here?”

After entering the room, Lin Kai asked Yang Xiaobo, “Xiaobo, are you alright?”

Yang Xiaobo grabbed Lin Kai’s hand and asked loudly, “Brother Xiaokai, where have you been? Where is my mother, is she with you?”

Lin Kai didn’t know how to answer, seeing that there was no one else in the room except Old Lady Tang and Zhou Peng, he said, “Xiaobo, take it easy, your mother is injured, she asked me to come and pick you up

“What did you say?” Zhou Peng, who had followed closely to the entrance of the living room, asked eagerly, “Captain Tang is injured? Is it serious?”

“It’s a bit serious.” Lin Kai said slyly.

“How was she injured?” Zhou Peng asked afterwards.

“It’s really hard to talk about this, I’ll tell you later when I have time,” Lin Kai was not at liberty to talk about it casually as it involved military operations, “As a matter of urgency, I have to take Bo to see her

Zhou Peng was inconvenienced to pursue the matter and said earnestly, "Well then, I'll go with you!"

"Alright then, but this matter needs to be kept secret for now." Lin Kai hesitated for a moment, suddenly remembering that after he was rescued last time, it was Zhou Peng's idea to be placed into the special forces by Elder Song, and knowing that he was more tight-lipped, he felt that what he had said was inappropriate, so he changed the subject and said gratefully, "Brother Zhou, thank you for taking care of Xiaobo"

"You're my cousin's boyfriend, we're all family, so there's no need to be polite." Zhou Peng said in disbelief.

"What are you guys talking about? Why don't I understand any of it?" Yang Xiaobo had seen the image of Lin Kai and his mother when they were making out together, and heartily regarded Lin Kai as his father's successor, asking in confusion, "What cousin? What boyfriend? What family?"

The Policewoman Chapter 68

The entrance to the military sanatorium was brightly lit.

Two musketed soldiers stood there like markers.

Outside the courtyard wall, a dark figure moved quickly, like a lithe gecko, climbing swiftly up the wall to its top and then leaping.

His massive body landed gently like a feather under the corner of the wall without making a sound.

The searchlights flashed alternately, and the dark figure sought out dead ends where the lights shone, sneaking along the corners, avoiding several hidden stakes and dodging the monitors of several cameras before arriving at the small first floor of the building where Tang Huimin was healing.

The man was dressed in black, almost blending in with the night, like a zombie, sticking motionlessly to the edge of the wall.

At that moment, two soldiers on a roving patrol were walking past.

The man in black observed carefully that such wandering posts were divided into groups of two, and there were at least 10 groups in the whole sanatorium.

With so many soldiers patrolling the military sanatorium, it could be said that the defence was extremely tight.

Although the two soldiers on patrol were less than 2 metres away from the man in black, they could not spot him at all, because they did not expect that someone would break through the layers of defence in the sanatorium, evade the cameras and come to the small first floor and stick to the foot of the cold wall.

After the two soldiers had almost brushed past him, the man in black then dodged and dived into the small first floor, and in the blink of an eye, he had already felt his way to the door of Tang Huimin's convalescent room on the first floor.

Creak!

The door of the room was gently pushed open by the man in black.

Step by step, the man in black approached Tang Huimin, who was lying on the hospital bed, and despite his movements and footsteps being very light, he still woke Tang Huimin up.

“Who?” Tang Huimin cried out in alarm.

The faint light in the ward illuminated Scarface’s ugly face with particular clarity.

“Ah? How is it you?” Tang Huimin was shocked and sat up from the bed with a jolt, asking in a stern voice, “How did you get in here?”

The man in black in front of her was the Scarface of the Black Dragon Gang who was responsible for conditioning her and a group of sisters when Tang Huimin was sent to Liberty Island by Scarface and the others.

He had led his trained team members on a mission to the Middle East at the time of the “marriage” between the Liberty Islander and Tang Huimin.

When he returned from his mission, he was furious to learn that Smith had been killed by Lin Kai and the others and that Tang Huimin had helped them retrieve the laser tablets, so he took it upon himself to apply to the new island master to come to China to kill the traitors.

After infiltrating Yanjing City, Scarface, with the help of Zhao Yunlong, the leader of the Black Dragon Gang, inquired about Tang Huimin’s convalescence at the military sanatorium and sneaked in while it was dark.

When enemies see each other, they see each other in a different light!

As soon as Tang Huimin saw Scarface, she then remembered what had happened to her and her sisters on the island, and her consciousness snapped to attention.

“You traitor, how dare you deceive our island master Smith under the guise of a fake marriage and gang up with a group of Chinese pigs to kill him, I heard that you were unfortunately shot during your escape, how come you’re still alive?!” Scarface revealed a grimace.

“You’re not even dead, how could I be?” Tang Hui Min sneered.

“How dare you talk tough when you’re so fucking dead?” Scarface glared viciously at Tang Huimin and laughed grimly, “Since you’re not dead, let me give you a ride, don’t worry, as long as you suffer death obediently, I promise to leave you a whole body.”

Scarface said, pulling out a brightly shining dagger from his waist.

The cold light shone out in all directions.

It seemed that Tang Huimin, who was seriously injured, would not be able to escape tonight.

As her life hung in the balance, Tang Huimin suddenly remembered the humiliation her sisters had endured when she was abused by Scarface and the others on Liberty Island, and her heart immediately flared with anger.

She couldn't just sit there and wait for death, she couldn't just die silently under this demon's dagger, she had to take action to defend the dignity of a beautiful policewoman.

"You rogue, brute, come on, if you have the guts, you can kill me!" Tang Huimin felt her blood surge up and her whole body boiled with fervour.

"You're fucking looking for death?" Scarface held his dagger in his hand and lunged at Tang Huimin like a vicious dog snatching food.

"Not good!" Tang Huimin was shocked to see a cold flash of light, and leapt up from the bed with a carp, quickly dodging the dagger in Scarface's hand.

The dagger stabbed deep into the bedclothes of the hospital bed, and as Scarface was about to pull it out, Tang Huimin had already exerted all her strength and punched him in the solar plexus.

Seeing the situation, Scarface plucked out the dagger with a slapdash, leapt up high, and then with a dive, stabbed at Tang Huimin's chest.

"Ah!" Tang Huimin lost her voice and dodged.

As she was seriously injured and had just woken up from a coma not long ago, her body was very weak, and she had almost used up all her strength in throwing this punch just now, and her movements seemed a bit sluggish.

The dagger pierced deeply into her shoulder blade.

Tang Huimin felt a sharp pain coming towards her, and as she was on the verge of life and death, she instinctively raised her foot and kicked Scarface in the lower part of his body.

"Ouch!" Scarface immediately covered his lifeblood with his hand, wailing in pain.

Tang Huimin finally let out a sigh of relief and suddenly felt her whole body deflate, her eyes went black and she fell headlong to the ground, unable to move anymore.

After Scarface gradually recovered, seeing Tang Hui Min lying motionless on the ground, blood gurgling and gushing out from her body, he raised his dagger and stabbed her in the heart again

"Shit, I'm done for!" As the dagger in Scarface's hand flashed a cold light and stabbed towards Tang Huimin's heart, her heart gave a sad cry and she secretly sighed, "I never thought that I would be hunted by Scarface just after I escaped from Liberty Island, it seems that I will die by this rogue's hand tonight"

At this moment, Tang Huimin body has no strength at all, suddenly feel a stabbing pain in the heart, open mouth, open eyes, pupils gradually dilate.

Boom!

Suddenly, a popping sound.

The door to the ward was kicked open from the outside, and the door collapsed with a bang.

Brush!

A golden light came straight at Scarface's face.

Scarface instinctively turned sideways and blocked the dagger in his hand, but with a clang, a flying knife changed its trajectory and plunged deep into the bedside table of the hospital bed.

Scarface was in a cold sweat when a strong body ghostly appeared in front of him.

In a flash of lightning, the wrist of the hand holding the dagger was already caught by a young man, and he felt a tingling and a sharp pain.

A clang!

With a crunching sound, the dagger in Scarface's hand fell to the ground.

Scarface was at least a martial arts practitioner, a senior instructor on Liberty Island and a member of the International Assassins Organisation, and had lost countless souls at his hands.

"It seems that I was too careless, unprepared for this man and caused by my gullibility." After Scarface found an excuse for himself, he quickly made a counter-tackle move and immediately got rid of the other man's control, and looked at him with a distrustful gaze, asking in a cold voice, "Who are you?"

"Don't you care who I am," the young man said with an expressionless face as he pointed his finger at Tang Hui Min lying on the ground, "As long as someone hurts her, I will make him die without a burial place!"

The Policewoman Chapter 69

"Arrogant!" Scarface sneered and suddenly leaned down in a fierce tiger descending pose, ready to lunge at the young man.

This was an underhanded move that he had learned from his years of cultivation on Liberty Island, based on the habits of animals catching food, and was able to kill people in one move.

"Xiao Kai, be careful!" Tang Hui Min suddenly sat up from the ground and pointed her finger at Scarface, "He is that devil instructor on Freedom Island, those sisters trapped on the island were spoiled by this rogue and brute"

She tried to get up from the ground, unsuccessfully due to her injuries, and fearing that Lin Kai was no match for Scarface, she fainted again in a rush.

Scarface first froze, then looked at Lin Kai with an incredulous look and asked, "You're the guy who killed Mr. Smith on Liberty Island and subsequently took the laser piece?"

"It's me, what's wrong?" Lin Kai sneered, "I didn't expect that you would come here to die?"

With the enemy at stake and his life at stake, Lin Kai had no time to care about Tang Huimin, so he had to tighten the dagger in his hand and lower his body slightly in a defensive stance.

“Unknowing fellow, take your life!” Scarface shouted angrily as his body suddenly sprang forward, his entire body leaping up high as he lunged towards Lin Kai like a fierce tiger pouncing on his food.

His hands were like two tiger claws, aiming straight at Lin Kai’s throat.

Lin Kai dared not be careless, his body also rushed forward, one hand rose, the dagger in his hand pointed straight at Scarface’s left arm.

However, just as the sharp blade was about to touch Scarface’s left hand, Scarface suddenly changed his stance.

His body did a difficult twist in the air, his hands held his head, his body formed a ball and rolled, then his rolled up legs suddenly stretched forward, and his feet in military boots kicked Lin Kai in the eyes and the other in the chest.

This move was extremely sharp and as fast as lightning, leaving little time for a counterattack, splitting the attack between Lin Kai’s upper and middle sides, leaving the man defenceless.

He was fast, but Lin Kai was even faster!

He saw the dagger in his right hand suddenly shift to his left hand when he was halfway through swinging it, and then quickly slashed at the foot that was kicking at his throat, while his empty right hand squeezed into a fist to meet the foot it was kicking at his chest.

Scarface felt bad and hurriedly closed his stance, landing on his feet.

Lin Kai could not give him a chance to catch his breath, his body swooped forward like a hawk and the dagger in his hand waved a silver light.

Swish!

Three fingers of Scarface’s left hand were sliced off in unison and fell without any pause, the blood-stained fingers trembling on the ground as if searching for their owner.

Lin Kai looked at the incredulous Scarface and said, “Sorry, I only cut off a few of your fingers, I’m really sorry for making you laugh.”

“Roar!”

How could Scarface bear such an insult, only to see him hiss and adopt a one-life-for-life stance, lunging towards Lin Kai.

Ping!

Suddenly, a gunshot rang out.

A bullet was fired at Scarface’s chest.

Scarface was shocked and instinctively dodged to the side, but the bullet hit the wall with a bang and immediately made a big hole.

Scarface looked around the doorway of the room and saw a uniformed policeman standing at the door, firing at him again.

He who knows the time is a good man!

In Scarface's consciousness, if you keep the green hills alive, you are not afraid of no firewood to burn, and it is never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. Once the time is ripe, he will make a comeback and come back to duel with Lin Kai, and whack this kid into a meat cake with one fist.

The policeman who shot him was Zhou Peng.

Lin Kai was driving to the front of the small building when he felt a strong murderous aura, so he handed Yang Xiaobo over to Zhou Peng and took the lead in rushing into this ward of Tang Huimin.

When Zhou Peng led Yang Xiaobo to the door of the ward, he saw Lin Kai and Scarface wrestling in the ward.

When he saw that Scarface was ready to die with Lin Kai after his fingers were cut off, he quickly pulled out his pistol and shot at Scarface.

"Want to run? No way!"

How could Lin Kai give Scarface a chance to catch his breath, only to see him shout out loud and quickly come to the window, ready to jump down from the window to give chase.

"Xiao Kai, don't go, don't leave me" Suddenly, Tang Huimin's faint voice came from behind him, and Lin Kai stopped his jumping and turned around.

At this time, the patrol leader of the military sanatorium rushed into the ward with a group of soldiers.

"What's going on here?" The patrol leader asked Lin Kai.

Lin Kai pointed his hand towards the window and said loudly, "There is an assassin here, and the assassin jumped out of the window to escape."

"Ah? There's an assassin?" The patrol leader was alarmed and then ordered the team behind him, "Chase after them and block all the exits in the sanatorium."

Upon receiving the order, the team members quickly ran towards the stairs.

When Yang Xiaobo saw his mother lying on the floor covered in blood, he immediately rushed in through the door of the room, jumped down beside her and called out loudly.

"Mom, what's wrong with you, I'm Xiaobo, don't scare me!"

"Little Bo" you're here" Tang Huimin saw her son appear, a smile of relief appeared on her face, and then she lost consciousness.

Zhou Peng immediately rushed out of the ward and stood in the corridor shouting, "Doctor, help, help quickly"

The people in the other wards, not knowing what was happening, ran out of the wards and poured into the doorway of Tang Huimin's ward like a tidal wave.

Lin Kai slowed down and saw that Tang Huimin was still lying in a pool of blood, and hurriedly pounced forward, shaking her body with his hands and calling out loudly.

“Little aunt, what’s wrong with you, wake up, wake up

A young military doctor in a white coat led a group of medical staff to come in from outside and said to Lin Kai.

“Captain Lin, take it easy, let’s first help the patient with his wounds.”

Several medics carried Tang Huimin into the operating theatre on a stretcher cart.

Lin Kai, Zhou Peng and Yang Xiaobo followed the doctor to the door of the operating room and waited for her to be operated on inside.

It was the first time that such a murder had occurred in a military sanatorium.

After receiving the call, the military chief was furious and immediately informed the medical staff to do all they could to save Tang Huimin at all costs.

At the same time, the soldiers were ordered to conduct a carpet search in all corners of the sanatorium and surrounding areas to make sure the murderer was apprehended.

.....

After her surgery, Tang Huimin was wheeled out of the operating theatre by the medical staff and returned to her bed in the convalescent room to lie down.

As she was very weak, she was temporarily in a coma.

Zhou Peng and Yang Xiaobo were always guarding Tang Huimin’s hospital bed, and Lin Kai, fearing that Scarface and the others would come back for trouble, kept watch at the door of the ward.

It seems that they have completely tied up with the people on Liberty Island, and what awaits them is a crazy revenge from these guys and the international killer organisation they own.

However, Lin Kai, as a man of blood in the Chinese nation, likes this kind of challenge for the sake of his strong motherland, defending his country’s dignity and protecting his woman.

The Policewoman Chapter 70

The entrance to a separate, luxurious villa in the northern suburbs of Yanjing was guarded by several men in uniforms , surrounded by strict security, like an ancient castle, looking solemn and stately.

Inside the villa, in a large room, a long dining table is surrounded by people.

On the table, there were drinks, snacks and fruit and other things.

The people, both men and women, were all fully dressed, as if they were holding a tea party or waiting for someone.

Although the food and wine in front of them emitted a tantalising aroma, no one touched the food, fruit or glasses of wine placed on the table.

They all looked serious and stiff-faced, like wax statues, sitting motionlessly on their stools, no one speaking or smiling.

Thump, thump, thump!

A crisp sound of footsteps came from the first floor, and a tall, thin, glowing middle-aged man walked slowly down the stairs with light steps.

There was a clatter!

Everyone around the table stood up and looked in the direction of the stairs in unison.

The middle-aged man was wearing a well-fitting black suit, a tie tied over a white shirt, and a three-sevenths haircut that had been combed and oiled.

He was the boss behind the Black Dragon Gang, Zhao Wenlong, and after reaching down and indicating for everyone to sit down, he walked himself to the chairman's seat and sat down, saying.

"I have invited you all here today because I have some unfortunate news to tell you, that is, the laser piece we dumped onto Liberty Island has been taken back not to mention killing the island owner, Smith, and the other party thinks that the people we sent there did it, making us refund the US$100 million they paid for the goods and bear a huge amount of compensation... .."

"This incident is a huge loss for our Black Dragon Gang, and it would be a disaster if we tear ourselves apart from the people on Liberty Island"

Zhao Wenlong lifted the red wine in front of him and took a sip, scanned over the crowd before finally settling his gaze on the bald man and asking.

"Black Dragon, do you know who the person who killed the Liberty Islander and retrieved the laser piece was?"

"I don't know!" Black Dragon shook his head blankly.

"They are Tang Huimin, the former head of the City Public Security Bureau's criminal investigation team, and her nephew Lin Kai," Zhao Wenlong looked at the bald man with a knife-like gaze and questioned, "Six months ago, didn't you say that you had these two people arrested and done away with? How come they're still alive in the world, and they've ruined our big deal and caused us to turn against the people of Liberty Island?"

"Huh? The two of them are still alive?" The bald man was stunned and asked, "Where are they now? I'll take my men right away to do away with them."

"You fool," Zhao Wenlong said coldly, "To tell you the truth, Lin Kai is now the leader of a special detachment, and this time, he was the one who led the team to Liberty Island, killed the Liberty Island master, and cooperated with Tang Huimin, who was trafficked to the island by you, to get the laser tablets back. With a bunch of losers like you, can you do away with them?"

"What about Tang Huimin? Where is she?" The bald man inquired.

"She's injured and is being treated at the military sanatorium." Zhao Wenlong replied.

"Then I'll send someone to blend in and do away with her!" The bald man said curtly.

“You’re really a fool, do you think the military sanatorium is some kind of place where you can go in whenever you want?” Zhao Wenlong said in a cold voice, “Let me tell you, when the instructor from Freedom Island sneaked into the military sanatorium last night to assassinate Tang Huimin, the traitor, he was stabbed by Lin Kai, if he hadn’t escaped quickly, he wouldn’t even have been killed. You want to go and do away with that woman Tang Huimin, it is simply more difficult than climbing to the sky

“Then what do you think we should do?” Black Dragon asked somberly.

Zhao Wenlong said in a commanding tone, “In order to reduce our losses, it is imperative that you lead the men as soon as possible and transport the batch of arms supplies we have to the Middle East, I hope you kid won’t let me down this time

“Please don’t worry, Master Long, I promise to complete the mission!” The bald man assured Zhao Wenlong.

“I have to warn you, that kid Lin Kai knows you, don’t let him bump into you, if you ruin our big event and lose that arms shipment again because of personal grudges, I will test you.” Zhao Wenlong admonished.

“Don’t worry, Master Dragon, we won’t have a head-on confrontation with that guy until that shipment reaches its destination safely, and once the time is right, I’ll have that kid’s nickname.” The bald man boasted to Zhao Wenlong.

“I hope so!” Zhao Wenlong said somberly.

Last time, Zhao Wenlong had taken advantage of the fact that Tang Huimin had drunk the ecstasy he had put in her glass at the Yanjing Hotel and was about to rape her when he was violently beaten up by Lin Kai who had burst in and saved Tang Huimin.

Therefore, these two people are a problem for him, and if he doesn’t get rid of them soon, I’m afraid he won’t have peace in this life.

Last night, Tang Huimin was stabbed again by Scarface in her hospital bed and was sent to the operating theatre for surgery in a constant state of unconsciousness.

When she woke up, it was already nine o’clock the next morning. When she opened her eyes and saw Lin Kai sitting by her bed, her heart was a flurry of excitement.

“Xiao Kai, I’m not dead? I’m still alive,” Tang Huimin’s consciousness was still stuck in the episode of Lin Kai’s fight to the death with Scarface, so she grabbed Lin Kai’s hand and asked, “Where is Scarface, where is he now? Did you kill him?”

“No,” Lin Kai shook his head and said, “Scarface ran away, but don’t worry, no matter where Scarface runs to, even if it’s at the end of the earth, I’ll catch him and take revenge for you!”

“Didn’t you say you were going to pick up Bo last night?” Tang Huimin suddenly remembered that she had seen her son Yang Xiaobo before she fell into a coma and asked aloud, “Where is Xiaobo? Where is he now?”

“Last night, you were stabbed by Scarface again, and after the operation, you have been unconscious, and Xiaobo and Zhou Peng from your criminal investigation team have been here with you,” Lin Kai introduced, “This morning, seeing that you hadn’t woken up yet, I asked Zhou Peng to lead Xiaobo to school, and I was going to pick him up after school pick him up again to keep you company”

“Ah? Zhou Peng, Zhou Peng is coming too?” Tang Huimin asked in surprise.

“Yes,” Lin Kai nodded, “During the six months you were missing, it was thanks to Zhou Peng’s care that Bo didn’t suffer any more harm.”

“Looks like I’ll have to thank him properly when I’ve recovered from my injuries and get out of hospital.” Tang Huimin said slyly.

During the conversation, a pleasant ringing sound came to Lin Kai’s pocket, and when he took out his mobile phone, he saw that it was Zhang Tianhu calling, and immediately picked up the phone.

“Lin Kai, how is your brother-in-law’s situation?” Zhang Tianhu asked eagerly.

“She has woken up, instructor, what are your orders?” Lin Kai enquired.

“You should hurry back to the base, we have a new mission for you to lead the team to complete.” Zhang Tianhu said in a non-negotiable tone.

“Okay, I’ll go back immediately.” Lin Kai was now a soldier and understood that soldiers should obey orders as their natural duty like this.

After putting down the phone, Lin Kai said to Tang Huimin, “Little aunt, I’m going to run some errands first, you stay in the ward and recuperate, I’ll come back to see you after I finish my errands.”

As soon as she heard that Lin Kai was leaving, Tang Huimin’s consciousness began to blur again, only to see her tugging tightly at Lin Kai’s hand and pleading.

“Xiao Kai, don’t go, don’t you abandon me, I’m afraid, I want to go home”

“Don’t worry, I won’t abandon you,” Lin Kai said as if coaxing a child, “as long as you are obedient and close your eyes, I will come back to see you as soon as I finish my business.”

“Then, okay, you have to come back soon,” Tang Huimin fondly released Lin Kai’s hand and slowly closed her eyes.
