C411 The Salt Is Gone

"Your phone can't be connected for the time being. Please call later."

Ten minutes...

One hour...

Hsu Yan looked at the time on her phone. The battery was slowly depleting.

She touched her abdomen and suddenly felt as if she really felt the feeling of little fish sliding.

She immediately felt as if she had been electrocuted

C412 A Skilled Man Is Bold

Luckily, Qii Zhan saw the silent Zhan Shishen and knew that the man just didn't want to answer the question, so he stepped forward to smooth things over.

"Madam President, don't worry. We, Director Zhan, have agreed to it. We won't let you down. Miss, she is preparing a gift for you. Of course, she will give you the best

C413 Perhaps It Really Was Suicide

Qii Zhan became even more nervous. Hsu Yan, a pregnant woman, was suddenly lost. She was even lost for no reason.

No one would be able to bear the consequences of this.

"Director Zhan, we have sent a lot of people to look for her. We will definitely find Madam! Do you want to expand the scope? After Madam Little Mom is locked up, she should not have any enemies outside... Unless

C414 Using Cosmetic Powder to Solve the Problem

As soon as he said that, this man was killed again by countless eyes.

"Cough cough, I was just joking! No matter how dark my heart is, I, Lu Hee, will not curse a pregnant woman... I talk too much, don't be angry with Old Zhan! "

A brainless person could tell that Zhan Shishen had never been in such a hurry to find a person. It seemed like he was about to dispatch his subordinates

C415 Blue Bracelet

Everything was so coincidental.

Originally, she didn't want to use this sachet, but now that it was a life and death situation, she couldn't care about anything else.

She slowly opened the sachet in her hand towards the half-open window. She gently blew up some powder, and a layer of fluorescent substance immediately appeared in the air. It floated out of the window like a meteor night scene

C416 He Has Offended Someone He Shouldn't Have

Zhan Shishen held the bracelet tightly and shouted coldly, "Interrogate all the employees who have seen Hsu Yan today, especially those who were fired! Also, pass the broken surveillance program to the programmer and crack it! "

He had been looking for people and did not have time to deal with these miscellaneous matters.

But someone, he was afraid, had already eaten it. Bear heart

C417 The Caller Was His Wife

Someone's been crying softly, raising his hand.

"Right... I'm so scared, I want to go home! CEO Lu, I said, Chenchen said she wanted to deal with Assistant Hsu and chased Assistant Hsu away from Director Zhan. Governor Bai and Director Zhan could stay in the company without distractions. She said that if we help, we can get promoted as soon as possible. Raise. Bonus! "

"Yes

C418 Found a Clue

Qii Zhan also saw it. He was struck by lightning and even thought for some reason, Is this Hsu Yan?

However, when he saw that the man was as fast as lightning, he immediately picked up the phone.

"Hello, Hsu Yan? Where are you?"

Zhan Shishen's hand paused for a moment. It was still shaking when he answered the phone.

Even when his life was hanging by a thread, he had never trembled

C419 He Was Simply a Ferocious Beast

In the air, the sky was filled with glowing butterflies that circled together as if they were flapping their wings and dancing, gathering together bit by bit brighter than the stars. In the air, there was even a strange fragrance of wood.

"Butterflies, it seems like there are many glowing butterflies flying around that window! Wow, so beautiful! There seems to be a fragrance

C420 Kiss Me

He spent a lot of effort looking for her, but she just said, 'devil on the left' and 'devil on the right'.

The words that came from the bottom of her heart might not necessarily have something to do with being poisoned.

Hsu Yan only looked at Zhan Shishen for a while before her eyelids started to fight again. She answered a few words with an "oh..
