Just as Hsu Yan broke down and was unable to speak, the gentlemanly and callous voice sounded again, "I am very busy. Since you are giving birth, then give birth properly."

Hsu Yan was almost hysterical.

On the other side, a gentle voice suddenly stopped her from rushing into the phone and fiercely questioning.

"Shishen

C692 Explode

Hsu Yan, on the other hand, ignored all obstructions, including Chiang Wenshu.

"Let's see who dares to stop me today!"

The woman took out a real gun.

This was given to her by Zhan Shishen for self-defense.

She did not expect it to come in handy.

The doctors and nurses in the delivery room were all so scared that they backed away

The man seemed to have seen Hsu Yan on the ground, but he only had a moment of compassion in his footsteps as he stood where he was.

"Miss Hsu... Why are you here?"

The first person who noticed her talking was Bai Xin, or perhaps Zhan Shishen had already seen Hsu Yan, but did not go forward.

There were many people gathered at the door

The woman walked alone, under all the mocking, shocked eyes, and just walked out that hard.

When he saw the woman's despairing gaze and the shocking bloodstains on the ground, Zhan Shishen's gaze suddenly became extremely deep.

The nurses risked their lives and stood in front of the bed,

The crazy man took off the white cloth.

When he saw the woman's pale and beautiful face without a trace of blood, her eyes were closed, and there was no sound of breathing. It was as if she had fallen asleep forever.
